Soviets to Give Atomic Secrets to Red Nations

Kremlin Announcement Follows Vow to Share Power Plant Data

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union announced today it is turning over atomic know-how and fissionable materials for peaceful use to Communist China, East Germany, Poland, Romania and Czechoslovakia.

The announcement was contained in a decision of the U.S.S.R Council of Ministers read to Western newsmen at a hastily summoned news conference at the foreign ministry.

It was the third such press conference in four days. At one conference Friday the Soviets offered to share with the rest of the world experience they claimed to have gained by operating an industrial atomic power plant.

On Saturday the Russians suggested another Big Four conference be held on German reunification.

Today's announcement said in return for scientific and technical aid to be given her Communist allies, the Soviet Union would expect to receive a continuing supply of atomic raw materials from them.

The announcement added that all atomic aid to be given to the other Communist countries would be used for peaceful purposes and that experimental atomic piles given to them would be limited to that required to produce 5,000 kilowatts of electric power each.

The Soviets last week offered to share their findings on use of atomic energy for production of electric power through the United Nations.

They said they would reveal this information at the scientific congress on peaceful uses of atomic energy which the U.N. General Assembly is to sponsor later this year.

(The United States has been conferring secretly with Russia in an effort to get her to join in a world pool of atomic energy information and material for peaceful purposes. The Americans also have been negotiating on the pool with non-Communist nations and have indicated they would go ahead with the idea whether Russia came in or not. Moscow's offer of last Friday was viewed in the West as the Kremlin's effort to counter the effects of President Eisenhower's widely hailed plan.)

Hint Americans Will Participate in Border Guard

Aircraft Sold for $1 to Help Put Down Revolt in Central America

WASHINGTON (INS) — Four U. S. fighter planes will be turned over to Costa Rica today and a border patrol — possibly involving U. S. personnel—was ordered to block arms shipments to rebels in the embattled republic.

The four Mustang fighters, sold by the U. S. to the Central American nation for a token sum of one dollar each, left San Antonio, Tex., Sunday afternoon. Accompanying them, the Air Force announced, was a C-54 transport carrying spare parts. The transport will also return the American ferrying pilots to the U. S.

The organization of American States (OAS), which had previously approved the plane sales, voted unanimously late Sunday to begin "an effective border patrol" of the Nicaraguan-Costa Rican frontier.

The border patrol decision was viewed by delegates of the 21-nation organization as one of the most effective steps taken so far to bring peace to Central America.

Costa Rica had requested the action earlier in the week and, on Sunday, Nicaraguan foreign minister Oscar Sevilla-Sacasa joined in the request.

Five nations—the U. S., Ecuador, Brazil, Paraguay and Mexico—now have military representatives investigating in Costa Rica and Nicaragua. This military group, the OAS voted, will put the patrol action into effect "with the greatest urgency" after consulting both governments.

Although there was no comment from either the State Department or the Pentagon regarding the U.S. role in the border patrol, it was understood that the U. S. has enough personnel available in Pan-

Rising Revenue to Help Reduce Deficit by '56

Ike Says $62 Billion Needed in 12 Months Starting July 1

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower recommended today a slightly trimmed budget he said is designed to guard the nation "against attack from without and undermining from within" while advancing human welfare and economic growth.

The chief executive's spending blueprint, outlined in a 27,000-word message and a bulky volume of supporting figures, proposed a 12-month outgo of $62,408,000,000.

It contemplates a deficit of about 2½ billion dollars—a little more than half that estimated for the current fiscal year, the fifth successive year of deficits.

Estimated expenditures were down a little over a billion dollars from that anticipated for the current year. The President predicted that income in the new fiscal year, starting July 1, would be a billion dollars over this year—reflecting optimism over the future of the national economy.

Eisenhower told Congress—where some members of the dominant Democratic party have wondered aloud if his defense plans are adequate—that "never in our peacetime history have we been as well prepared to defend ourselves as we are now."

But, he said, to protect an "insecure peace" he has assigned to national security programs 40½ billion dollars—65 per cent—of the nation's spending in the next fiscal year. That is virtually no change from this year's security outlays, but is six billions less than last year's.

Eisenhower said he has re-examined, and found mostly good except for "some changes in timing" the military "new look" adopted last year. The new budget thus continued primary reliance on airpower to fend off attack and carry smashing retaliation to any aggressors.

In addition, Eisenhower laid new emphasis upon a thickening arc of radar eyes across the north of the continent to give early warnings of any sneak attack. The Air Force got a record two-thirds of the spending money assigned to the armed services, with two-thirds of its money earmarked for procurement of up-to-date jet aircraft.

"In my judgment, the military force and programs upon which this budget is based are accu-

First Atom-Powered Sub Begins Sea Trials Today

GROTON, Conn. (UP)—The USS Nautilus, the world's first vessel to be propelled by atomic power, went to sea today to begin a series of trial-runs.

The 2,800-ton blunt nose submarine, its generating plant capable of carrying it around the world without surfacing, cruised down the Thames River into which it was launched a year ago, and then headed into Long Island Sound.

Accompanying the Nautilus was the 195-foot auxiliary submarine rescue vessel "Skylark," which carried scores of newsmen and camera crews to record the history-making event.

In addition to its regular crew, the Nautilus had aboard more than 60 civilian technicians and official observers, all of whom played important roles in the development and production of the atomic submarine.

Today's trials were being confined to surface operations and handling, and were held in a restricted area in the sound. Those aboard the Skylark were permitted only to see the Nautilus reach this area. No one was allowed to witness what went on after that.

Uncertain when the Nautilus left its dock was whether it would return in a matter of hours or days. The initial trials were expected to consume one week, with the vessel returning "at intervals" for adjustments.

The purpose of these trials was to check under actual operating conditions the engines, steering equipment, electronic devices and other apparatus which already had undergone exhaustive tests in wet dock after the power plant had been installed.

It was the first time that the Nautilus had moved under its own power.

Besides its nuclear power plant, the Nautilus is equipped with conventional diesel and electric facilities capable of carrying on in event the atomic reactor failed.

Storm Damage Rising in Europe

Blizzards, Floods Hit Wide Areas; Shipping Also Threatened

LONDON (AP)—Blizzards spread over Denmark, West Germany and Scotland today while a midwinter thaw and rains sent rivers swirling over their banks in France and Southern England.

Icy gales lashed Bavaria and parts of France and whipped up huge waves in the North Sea and Atlantic. The 53,000-ton liner United States radioed she would arrive at Southampton from New York Wednesday, 24 hours late.

Denmark's worst snowstorm in years virtually paralyzed Copenhagen during the morning rush hour.

Berlin was in the path of a blizzard and new snow fell in Scotland where several towns and villages already were locked behind drifts.

The freezing temperatures eased flooding in West Germany, but new rains in France forced scores of people from their homes and cut off road travel.

At Dijon, France, wind toppled an 18-foot chimney onto a house and a wall, crushing a 12-year-old boy. A freak wind gust at Kassel, Germany, pushed an empty freight

Rev. Lord Dies; Created Pageant for Detroit in 1951

ST. LOUIS (UP)—Services for the Rev. Daniel A. Lord, 66, creator of a huge pageant which marked Detroit's 250th anniversary in 1951, will be held Wednesday in St. Francis Xavier College chapel here.

The Catholic writer died in St. John's Hospital Saturday of cancer.

Father Lord was told almost a year ago that he had incurable cancer of both lungs and it would be only a matter of time before he died. But his courage refused to let the news get the best of him.

"I haven't got a worry in the world," he said. "I feel fine."

In addition to his other activities, Father Lord was a religious technical director for movies and active in youth work.

He was best known in Michigan for his "City of Freedom" pageant, marking Detroit's 250th birthday and for his "Light Up the Land" pageant, which marked the 75th anniversary of the University of Detroit in 1952.

Burial will be in Jesuit Cemetery in suburban Florissant.

Mercury Drop, Snow Is Area Forecast

Colder weather and more snow tonight and tomorrow is the U.S. Weather Bureau forecast for the Pontiac area.

Tonight's low will range between 13 and 17 degrees followed by cloudy skies and snow tomorrow. High Tuesday will be 24 to 28 degrees.

Tuesday night temperatures will range between 24 and 28, with more snow.

Weekend temperatures in downtown Pontiac ranged between 24 and 34 Saturday with a trace of snow Saturday night. Sunday the mercury registered a low of 19, followed by a high of 29.

Today at 8 a.m. the thermometer reading was 18 degrees, rising to 23 by 2 p.m.

Ike Asks $59 Million Civil Defense Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today recommended spending $59,300,000 in 1955-56 on civil defense. This would be almost 10 million dollars more than the $49,325,000 provided this fiscal year for the Federal Civil Defense Administration (FCDA).

The big increase would come from raising the amount for stockpiling emergency supplies and equipment from $26,000,000 to $35,300,000. There would also be an increase from $10,025,000 to $11,600,000 for operating expenses.

The proposed budget for the year starting July 1 noted that FCDA headquarters had been moved from Washington to Battle Creek during the past year to remove it from a critical target area.

It also said that during the year an international reorganization was undertaken "designed to fit the new concepts of civil defense operation."

Your Own Share of National Debt Getting Smaller

WASHINGTON (AP)—The national debt keeps growing but your own share of it gets smaller. It isn't rising as rapidly as the population.

President Eisenhower's budget message showed today the federal debt going up. It was $271,300,000,000 last June 30, he said, will climb to $274,300,000,000 last June 30, he said, will climb to $274,300,000,000 by next June 30 and will go on rising to $276,000,000,000 by mid-1956.

But the burden is being borne by more Americans. There were 162,414,000 in mid-1954.

But the burden is being borne by more Americans. There were 162,414,000 in mid-1954 and if the population trend continues, the Census Bureau estimates there will be about 165,200,000 in mid-1955 and 168,000,000 a year beyond that.

So the share of each man, woman and child is declining, approximately as follows:

Last July 1 the debt per person was $1,671.25. Next July 1 it will be $1,661.92. On July 1, 1956, it will be $1,642.86.

Your piece of the public debt, in other words, will be $28.39 less in mid-1956 than it was last summer. Feel Better?

Plane Crashes With 13 Aboard

No Trace of Survivors Seen as Navy Aircraft Plunges Into Atlantic

CORNER BROOK, Nfld. (AP) — A United States Navy four-engine Constellation crashed in the Atlantic off southwest Newfoundland today and search planes over the spot reported no trace of the 13 occupants.

The plane had been airborne less than two hours, out of Harmon Air Force Base near here, when the pilot reported one of his engines had failed. Moments later he said a second motor had cut out.

The Constellation was en route from Harmon, 70 miles from here, to the Patuxent River Naval Air station in Maryland.

Search planes from Harmon returned with reports of sighting yellow life rafts in the sea. However, the pilots said there did not appear to be anyone in them.

The Constellation carried a crew of six and Harmon Field said there were seven passengers aboard.

The aircraft took off at 3:52 a.m. The first distress signal from the pilot was received at Harmon about 5:45 a.m., and the second shortly afterward.

Naval headquarters in Washington said the plane's home base is Patuxent.

Seaway Budget to Be $22 Million

One-Fourth of Project Slated for Completion by Mid-'56

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nearly one quarter of the St. Lawrence Seaway is scheduled for completion in the year starting July 1, President Eisenhower said today. He estimated that $22,832,000 will be spent on the seaway during the year. No appropriations are involved.

Congress authorized the Seaway last year and created the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp. to construct and operate it. The corporation is authorized to issue up to 105 million dollars in revenue bonds to be financed by the U.S. Treasury.

Eisenhower in his budget message to Congress, said construction of the Seaway is "being pushed at maximum speed because of the Seaway's importance to economic development and national security."

The construction program, scheduled to open the Seaway for traffic by 1959, consists of two lateral canals and a navigation channel in the 46-mile International Rapids section between Ogdensburg and Massena, N.Y. and channel work in the 68-mile Thousand Islands section between Lake Ontario and Ogdensburg.

These works—along with related navigation improvements to be provided by Canada, and power development by the Power Authority of the State of New York and the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario—will provide a 27-foot channel from Lake Erie to Montreal.

It is estimated the corporation will issue eight million dollars in bonds in the current fiscal year and 22 million in the next fiscal year to finance the work.

St. Marys Bridge Project Included in Ike Budget

WASHINGTON (AP)—One Michigan project was included today in President Eisenhower's budget recommendations for navigation, flood control and multiple purpose projects during the 12 months starting July 1.

The recommendation was for $338,000 for a lift bridge and removal of Bridge Island in the St. Marys River.

Sen. Knowland Says Hammarskjold Failed

CHICAGO (INS) — Sen. William F. Knowland (R-Calif) today called U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold's mission to Red China for release of 11 American fliers a failure.

Knowland, in a fiery address before 700 members of the Newspaper Advertising Executives Association convention in Chicago, said:

"The mission of United Nations Secretary General Hammarskjold was not a success. And in my judgment no service is done the American people or those of the free world by pretending that it was."

Curtice Sees New Peak for National Economy, Banner Auto Year

NEW YORK (AP)—A new peak in the national economy and a sharp upturn in automobile production and sales this year were predicted today by Harlow H. Curtice, General Motors president.

For General Motors he forecast another 10 billion dollar sales year.

Curtice, who has been exceptionally accurate in his annual business forecasts, made the predictions in an address prepared for delivery at a luncheon for industrial and business leaders.

More than 500 persons were invited to the luncheon, a preliminary to General Motors' Motorama which opens later this week.

Curtice told his guests:

This year's gross national product should be in the area of 370 billion dollars. This would be an increase of about 3 per cent over the estimated 1954 level.

HARLOW H. CURTICE

The auto industry should produce and the domestic market absorb about 6,800,000 cars and trucks—"provided we continue to enjoy labor peace."

The industry built 6,200,000 vehicles for the domestic market last year.

Including Canada and export, unit vehicle production should total 7,600,000 cars and trucks.

Unit sales of General Motors passenger cars, Curtice said, "will be the highest in our history." He said he envisioned the 10 billion dollar sales volume "despite the fact our defense deliveries will continue to decline."

He placed these at less than 10 per cent of the total 1955 volume.

Praising President Eisenhower's multi-billion highway program, Curtice said:

"Its beneficial effects will multiply endlessly to reach every business and every household in the nation. It deserves vigorous support on the part of every citizen."

Among his reasons for optimism about business generally in 1955; the GM chief said, were:

A high level of employment will be maintained in 1955; the work week should be somewhat longer than in 1954; personal incomes will rise, and consumer incomes will be at record levels. Consumer spending will be substantially higher than last year.

He said the billion dollar expansion program he announced for General Motors last year had grown to 1½ billion dollars. Of this, he said, expenditures last year totaled 750 million. Another 500 million will be spent this year, with the remainder to be expended in 1956.

Curtice noted that the 1½ billion dollar expansion program did not include 200 million authorized for modernization and expansion of General Motors facilities in Europe.

When the present program has been completed, he said, General

Last Rites Held for Dr. Stevens

First Cranbrook Head Died at 76 in New York on Saturday

Funeral service was held this afternoon in the Church of the Ascension in New York for Dr. William O. Stevens, first headmaster of Cranbrook School in Bloomfield Hills.

Dr. Stevens, 76, died Saturday in New York, where he had lived in recent years at 29 W. Ninth St. He is survived by his widow, Claudia, and a son, Hugo.

After 21 years as an instructor and professor of English at the U. S. Naval Academy, Dr. Stevens came to Cranbrook in 1927 and stayed until illness forced his resignation in 1935.

One of the dormitories at the school is named in his honor, and a memorial service was held at the school assembly this morning. Harry Hoey, present headmaster, spoke of Dr. Stevens' contributions to the school, and Walter Young, chaplain, took part in the service.

After leaving Crabrook Dr. Stevens served for a time as dean of literature and journalism at Oglethorpe University. He was born in Rangoon, Burma, of Missionary parents, and was a graduate of Colby College and Yale University.

Curtice Sees New High Economy Peak

Motors will have expended in the United States and Canada alone 3½ billion dollars for capital investment since the end of World War II.

He said General Motors' capital expenditures "of necessity" will continue at a substantial rate "both to keep up our facilities and products modern and to assure General Motors adequate capacity to keep pace with our appraisal of the normal growth of the market for the corporation's products."

He reported General Motors employment which stood at 233,000 workers in 1940 had grown to 520,000 today, in the United States and Canada. World-wide, he said, GM employment now stands at 600,000.

He cited the figures as proof that "technological improvements do not wipe out jobs."

Curtice said bringing General Motors 1955 models to market required an outlay of more than 600 million dollars. That, he said, was nearly twice the amount spent for 1954 models.

General Motors' sales of cars and trucks in the United States and Canada last year, he said, totaled 3,450,000 units against 3,496,000 in 1953. It was GM's third best year. In passenger car sales 1954 was GM's second best year, exceeded only by 1950.

In dollars, GM's 1954 sales were within 2 per cent of 1953, he said, despite a 39 per cent decline in defense deliveries.

Defense products represented 14 per cent of GM total dollar sales, as against 19 per cent in 1953.

"Given a world at peace, sound national policies and a people willing to work for the things they want," Curtice concluded, "we can look forward to an ever more dynamic and prospering national economy. That is the goal to which we in General Motors are dedicated."

Busy Dad, Mom Take Time Out, Name Triplets

Although he has been bustling around buying triple orders of diapers and other baby needs this weekend, Robert Forster stopped long enough to confer with his wife, Marian, and come up with names for their three new daughters, born Saturday.

The new arrivals are Eileen Marie, Elaine Marie and Ellen Marie. They were born early Saturday morning at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

According to Dr. N. F. Gehringer, the family physician, both mother and daughters are doing well. But the harried father has been kept hopping, purchasing needs for the new trio. They arrived about six weeks early.

The Forsters, of 300 Dutton Rd., Rochester, have two other children, Kenneth, 5½, and Dennis, 3½.

12 Lives Lost in State Traffic

Weekend Deaths Rise to Highest Point So Far in New Year

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Twelve persons died in Michigan's weekend traffic, and a 13th person died from fumes from a defective heater in his trailer home.

It was the first weekend of the New Year in which traffic deaths mounted to double figures. A week ago only seven died in the weekend, beginning at 6 p.m. Friday and running to midnight Sunday.

An Ottawa County two-car crash killed three persons late Saturday, James Branch, 24, of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Ethel Williams, 40, also of Grand Rapids, and Clark Hague, 50, of Ionia.

The accident occurred on U.S. 16 near Grand Haven.

Mrs. Eva A. Zug, 71, of Delta, Ohio, was injured fatally Sunday in a two-car collision in Plymouth Township.

Ernest Korbel, 47, a Vandalia merchant, was killed Sunday when he lost control of his car and smashed into a tree about 18 miles from Dowagiac.

Mrs. Mildred Klinch, 37, of Fremont, Ohio, was injured fatally Saturday in a two-car collision on U.S. 24 near Flat Rock.

Ivan Balcom, 55, of Laingsburg was killed Saturday when his car collided with another near his home.

Susan Bennett, 17, of Ionia County died Saturday of injures suffered Friday night when her car skidded and overturned on M21 near Pewamo.

Mrs. Clara M. Sanders, 29, of Clare was killed Saturday when a car she was driving collided with a train at a railroad crossing near her home.

Harold C. Walters, 19, of Petersburg died Sunday after being injured early Saturday when his car crashed into a utility pole near his Monroe County home.

Wilse Searcy Varnado Jr., 21, of Route 1, Copemish, was killed early Sunday when the car in which he was riding overturned and struck a tree on M55.

Fumes from a defective space heating oil burner claimed the life of Wesley W. Ligie, 60, as he slept in his trailer home Saturday near Muskegon.

ama to contribute to the patrol action.

A clarifying statement from U.S. high officials was expected today.

Meanwhile, the five-nation committee investigating the explosive Central American situation telephoned to Washington and underscored Costa Rica's need for help.

Committee Chairman Louis Quintanilla of Mexico reported that rebel aircraft were attacking and machine-gunning the town of Liberia at the very time he was talking.

The rebels claimed a "complete triumph" late Sunday night in the two-day-old battle for the northern Costa Rica town of Santa Rosa. Government forces, however, said heavy losses were inflicted on the insurgents.

A government communique minimized losses of troops loyal to President Jose Figueres and said captured rebel supplies established that "foreign governments" were involved in the rebel uprising. It said rebel blankets bore the letter "GN" and said these stood for "Nicaraguaan Guardia Nacional."

Costa Rica has charged that the rebels were trained in Nicaragua and were helped by Venezuelan planes—but both countries have denied the charges.

Six newsmen — including three Americans—fell into the hands of Costa Rican rebels over the weekend, but were returned safely to the government lines Sunday night.

In Panama the U. S. Caribbean Command confirmed that a small bullet hole was discovered in the tail of a U. S. Navy patrol bomber which conducted the first observation flight over Costa Rica. Cmdr. W. T. Luce, the pilot, believed that the plane was fired on in the vicinity of La Cruz in northern Costa Rica. The airmen have been instructed to defend themselves only if attacked.

Former Resident Dies in Florida

Mrs. J. W. Greenhalgh Was Wife of Ex-Pontiac Postmaster

Mrs. Joseph W. (Katherine D.) Greenhalgh, 71, a former Pontiac resident died Friday in Mease Hospital, Dunedin, Fla., after a long illness.

She and her husband, who served as Pontiac postmaster from 1932-36, had been living in St. Petersburg, Fla., for the past 3½ years.

Mrs. Greenhalgh, a daughter of William B. and Harriett Malcolm Dickie, was born in Oakland County Aug. 2, 1882. Before her marriage in 1914, she was secretary to the late Rev. Samuel Smith, an Oakland County native elected to Congress from the 6th District (Detroit).

She was a graduate of Milford High School and attended business college in Pontiac. She was a member of Pontiac Metropolitan Club Auxiliary.

Surviving, besides her husband, is a son, J. Robert, of Pontiac. A sister, Anna McNulty of Milford, and two brothers, LeRoy B. Dickie of Centerline and Harry B. Dickie of Pontiac, also survive.

Funeral service will be held Tuesday from Donelson-Johns Funeral Home at 2 p.m. Rev. W. H. Marbach of First Presbyterian Church will officiate, and burial will follow in Commerce Cemetery.

Lower Budget Is Presented for Year Starting July 1

rately adjusted to the national needs," Eisenhower said in his budget message, sent to Capitol Hill.

On the nonmilitary side, the new Eisenhower budget stressed a "policy of partnership" in development of communications and resources between the federal government and the states, local governments and private interests.

Eisenhower called for cost-sharing programs throughout the civilian part of his budget, including references to roads, aviation, shipbuilding and natural resources.

He announced appointment of a special commission to study soaring veterans' benefit costs, which, he said, need "constructive reconsideration."

Eisenhower told Congress the nation has come through a transition from wartime to peacetime economy which was "difficult for some" but "not serious on the whole," and that "our present growing prosperity has solid foundation."

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey told newsmen the fiscal year 1956 budget is based on Treasury predictions that during the calendar year 1955 personal income will rise by 4 per cent and corporation profits by 7 per cent.

Humphrey said he does not envision any tax cutting proposals this year, but that he hopes by next year "to be talking about tax reductions and a balanced budget, or a nearly balanced budget."

Eisenhower said future cuts will be more difficult, but he declared tax reduction "remains a firm goal of this administration," adding:

"A growing prosperity will result in increasing revenues and should make possible both a balanced budget and lower tax rates in the near future. I hope that tax reductions will be justified next year."

If that happens, the President said, he will recommend tax cuts aimed to "spread the relief fairly among all taxpayers, to relieve individual tax burdens and to increase incentive for effort and investment."

Meanwhile, because "we cannot afford to have any further loss of revenue this year through reductions in taxes," he again asked Congress to extend for a year the present 52 per cent corporation income tax rate, as well as present rates of a group of excise taxes, all scheduled to drop on April 1. His budget estimates were based on an assumption this would be done.

Eisenhower called for expenditures during fiscal 1956 totaling almost 62½ billion. He estimated receipts at 60 billion. That made for a deficit forecast of about 2½ billion.

Compared with new estimates for the current 1955 fiscal year, ending June 30, and for the 12 months preceding, this is how the 1956 fiscal year estimates looked, in billions of dollars:

	1954	1955	1956
Income	64.7	59.0	60.0
Outgo	67.8	53.5	62.4
Deficit	3.1	4.5	2.4
Appropriations	62.8	57.3	58.6

The new forecasts for the current fiscal year showed a general squeeze-down since September 1954, when fiscal 1955 estimates were last revised. The government then forecast receipts totaling 59¼ billion, spending of 64 billion and a deficit of 4¾ billion.

Eisenhower said his fiscal 1956 spending program could be sliced up into four main divisions:

Protest Against Possible War—4½ billion dollars, or 67 per cent of the total budget. This included spending for the Coast Guard and other defense-related expenditures.

Civil Benefits—12 billion dollars, or 19 per cent. This included veterans benefits, public assistance grants to the states, development programs, and aids and services to agriculture, business, labor and home owners.

Interest On Federal Debt—6½ billion, or about 10 per cent of the budget.

Civil Functions—2¼ billion, or about 8 per cent of the budget. This included the administrative costs of running the government.

Eisenhower predicted that the federal government would wind up the next fiscal year on June 30, 1956, with a nationa ldebt of 276 billion dollars.

That would be a net debt increase for the year of about 1¾ billion over the debt total of 274¼ billion which Eisenhower forecast for June 30, the end of this fiscal year. But, he said, because of low tax receipts in the first half of next fiscal year, the government would have to borrow about eight billion dollars, mostly temporarily, and this would leave "no alternative" but to ask Congress to boost the debt ceiling. The government now is operating under a temporary ceiling of 281 billions. This reverts to 275 billions next July 1.

The President told Congress his fiscal philosophy—stated before in similar words—is this: "A liberal attitude toward the welfare of people and a conservative approach to the use of their money."

He said that "stern requirements" of defense are the chief obstacles to further spending cuts now, but that since the nation is not currently using up its defense production in a shooting war, "our defense expenditures are now bringing about a steadily growing strength."

"It is our purpose, working in concert with other nations, to banish the threat of atomic warfare which now confronts the world," Eisenhower said, adding that the fiscal 1956 atomic energy program "provides for greater expenditures than ever before on projects to develop peaceful applications of atomic energy."

He recommended atomic energy spending totaling two billion dollars in fiscal 1956, some 50 millions less than this year. Operating costs would rise, Eisenhower said, but construction and equipment costs would fall next year because work will be completed on production plants now abuilding. Eisenhower said there would be a "higher level" of raw uranium purchases.

The President described a growing nucleus of atomic-powered submarines. He said his 1956 budget provided for "additional" similar submarines. Four already have been authorized.

In addition, Eisenhower said the Atomic Energy Commission and the Defense Department are collaborating to "expand and accelerate" the application of nuclear energy to airplanes and to develop a "small transportable" reactor package.

Here are the highlights of Eisenhower's new defense spending program:

He alloted 15½ billions to the Air Force, slightly less than it got in fiscal 1954, while the fighting was still in progress in Korea, but 400 millions more than this fiscal year.

The Navy got 9¾ billions. This was about 3½ billions less than the Navy spent in fiscal 1954, but virtually the same as its share of defense money this year.

The Army was down for 8¾ billion. About 4 billions less than in fiscal 1954 but about the same as this year.

Altogether, the Defense Department was budgeted at 34 billion dollars for military functions, slightly less than this year and 6¾ billions less than in fiscal 1954.

"Our current military plans," Eisenhower said, "will be subject to continuing review." It is important he said, that "we do not attempt to fix our minds or plans upon any particular set of numbers, for today's technological changes may make yesterday's numbers and concepts obsolete."

The new budget upped arms aid to U.S. Allies by 450 million dollars to 3¾ billion. Eisenhower called for additional spending of a billion for foreign economic aid. He said the total includes provisions for "a program in Asia" but left details to be disclosed later.

"Partnership" between the federal government and state and local governments and private groups was the theme of Eisenhower's civilian budget.

He said agricultural land and water resource development provide a practical basis for partnership in carrying out of a coordinated program for upstream flood prevention, and soil and water conservation.

Natural resource development should cost the federal government 953 million dollars in fiscal 1956, compared with a billion this year and 1¼ billion last year, he said. About two-thirds of the money would go for flood control, irrigation, power and multipurpose river basin development. The President said he was recommending 32 new projects and resumption of work on two others.

Eisenhower said he was making no recommendation for building new power units in the Tennessee Valley Authority grid, because, he said, when TVA is relieved of furnishing the Atomic Energy Commission 600,000 kilowatts through a contract with the Mississippi Valley Generating Co., TVA will have enough power to increase its loads. This referred to the controversial Dixon-Yates contract.

Eisenhower added that TVA is "giving immediate attention to the possibilities of financing further expansion of its power system" without drawing on federal appropriations—evidently through bond issues.

Eisenhower said rising veterans benefits costs calls for "sober consideration" since 40 per cent of the nation's adult males are entitled to veterans benefits. He said he will appoint a commission on veterans' pensions to study the "entire scope, structure and philosophy of our veterans' pension and compensation laws." He asked $300,000 for the commission.

Asks Diplomacy in Release of 11

Fulbright Against Any Advance Ultimatum in Dealing With Red China

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark) urged today that the United States continue diplomatic negotiations for the release of 11 imprisoned American airmen without laying down any advance ultimatum to Red China.

Fulbright, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in an interview he does not believe the American people should expect any "miracle" as a result of the visit to Peiping of Dag Hammarskjold, United Nations secretary general.

Fulbright said he thinks it will take time to solve the problem and there will be "no quick answer."

"We ought to negotiate with the Chinese Communists and keep in communication with them, rather than lay down the line that we will ignore them," he said.

"After all, these Chinese Communists are human beings, regardless of how misguided they may be. It is possible that we can make some kind of mutual adjustment with them that we could accept and we ought to find out."

He said, however, he would be opposed to any full-dress conference, with Red China as a participant, which might be used by the Communists as a propaganda sounding board.

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala), new chairman of the Foreign Relations Far Eastern subcommittee, said that although he has no official information, he fears that the Chinese Communists may have listed U. N. recognition for them as the price for release of the Americans.

Sen. Wiley (R-Wis), top Republican on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in a weekend speech at Harrisburg, Pa., he would oppose any "hasty, ill-considered, impulsive action . . . such as a military blockade."

car from a spur onto the main line and a passenger train crashed into it. One man was killed as an express car and a sleeper left the tracks.

A blinding snowstorm raked the North German coast. The 13,000-ton Greek tanker Olympic Brook and the Finnish freighter Greata Thorden collided near Brunsbuettel.

The Olympic Brook was able to proceed, but the Greta Thorden put in at Brunsbuettel for repairs.

Near Scharnhorn Island, the 12,184-ton Danish tanker Gerd Maersk ran aground. German tugs pulled her free. On the lower Weser, the 7,947-ton British freighter, Markhor nosed aground and the 7,020-ton British ship Lloyderest was hung up on a sandbar. She later was pulled free.

In Paris, the Seine crept up an inch an hour and was expected to reach a danger point during the afternoon.

U.S. 12th Air Force bases in Germany were ordered to be prepared to give immediate aid to flood-threatened areas.

In England, the River Thames rose slowly following a warmup Sunday which melted most of last week's snowfall in the London area. Hundreds of acres on the Windsor Castle estate were flooded, the third time within a month.

Miss Gertrude E. Smith, 80 of 8 Old Salem St., died Sunday following an auto accident in Highland Park. Police said a car driven by Miss Nona E. King, 60, of Detroit, in which Miss Smith was a passenger, collided with another, and crashed into a tree.

Miss King was turning left from the center lane. Driver of the other car, Norman E. Taylor, 42, of Detroit, was held for investigation of manslaughter.

Fugitive, 19, Faces Kidnaping Charge

DETROIT (UP) — A 19-year-old fugitive was jailed for investigation of kidnaping today after forcing a Northville man at gunpoint to help him make his getaway from the Detroit House of Correction.

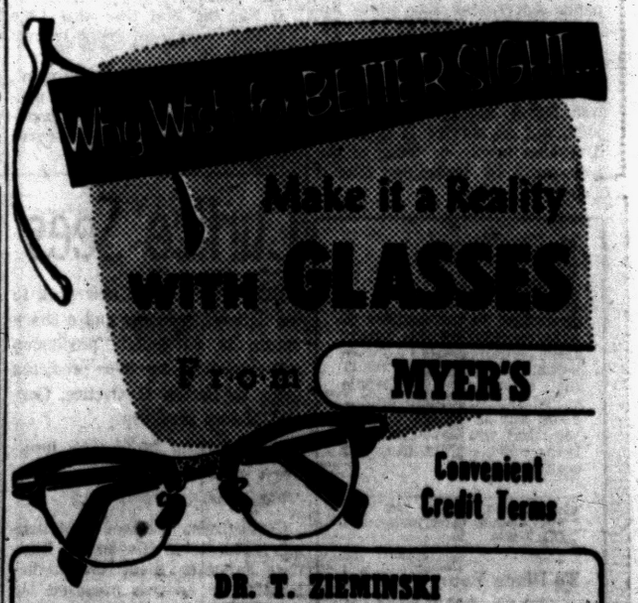

The youth, Merton Colegrove, was arrested last night after his captive, William Myers, 21, dropped him off at the apartment of a 16-year-old girl. The girl, accused of giving Colegrove civilian clothes, also was arrested.

May Subpoena Stevens, Adams

McCarthy Heir Says He Likely Will Request More Peress Data

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Army Stevens and Army Counselor John G. Adams likely will be asked to give the Senate Investigations subcommittee more information on the Irving Peress case, Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) said last night.

McClellan, who succeeds Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) as subcommittee chairman, said in an NBC radio-TV interview he does not think the Army has provided all the facts.

Peress, a New York City dentist, was promoted to major and honorably discharged early last year at a time when McCarthy was demanding he be court-martialed for refusing to answer questions about communism.

McCarthy said Saturday night he had written Stevens charging the Army with practicing a "deliberate deception" on the subcommittee and the American people.

Early this month, the army issued a 10,000-word chronology of the case and listed Adams and Lt. Gen. Walter L. Weible, a deputy chief of staff, as making the final decision to give Peress an honorable discharge.

In his letter to Stevens, McCarthy said neither Weible nor Adams was included in a list of 30 officers the Army last spring named for the subcommittee as those "taking an active part in the personnel actions" concerning Peress.

The Army said Stevens had not yet answered McCarthy's letter.

McClellan said he believes the case "has been poorly handled."

Pronunciation Perplexes Prosecutor

Chief Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor encountered pronunciation trouble while reading a list of stolen women's clothing this morning in Circuit Court.

The phrases, "one black moire skirt" and "one white silk crepe blouse" proved tongue twisters.

"One . . . (hesitation) . . .skirt, and one . . . (hesitation) . . . blouse," said Taylor.

"I see you're not too familiar wtih ladies' apparel," observed Judge Frank L. Doty.

Grill Suspect in Rape Attempt

Police Seek Warrant on Man Nabbed in City Hotel Basement

Pontiac Police today sought a warrant against a Berkley man being held for investigation of attempted rape.

Laverne A. Johnson, 24, was captured in the basement of the Hotel Pontiac Saturday night by five men roused by the screams of a 26-year-old woman who told police Johnson broke into her room.

Another man, who was found in a nearby auto, was booked on suspicion after police learned he was in the hotel with Johnson earlier.

Detective Richard Evans quoted the woman as saying she was asleep when Johnson entered her room and threatened her. When she screamed, she said, the assailant was called by a man at the door and both fled down the hall.

The five men, all hotel residents, found Johnson in the basement and held him until police arrived.

A porter told police that he chased both men out of the building about an hour before.

Evans said that police also received similar reports from the Hotel Roosevelt where two women reported someone trying to get into their rooms.

A porter at the Roosevelt, L. D. Childs, of 301 Branch St., who identified both men, told police he ordered the pair out of the hotel after he saw them tampering with locks.

Evans said police would attempt to obtain a warrant against Johnson, charging attempted rape.

Champ Coronator Misses Own Mrs.

CADILLAC (UP)—Gov. G. Mennen Williams, who has crowned hundreds of queens during the last six years, missed a chance to crown his wife when she was chosen queen of Cadillac's second annual Caberfae publicity weekend.

Mrs. Williams and her three children came to Cadillac Saturday to join nearly 50 newspaper and radio and television people and their wives who were on hand for the event. The Governor wasn't able to join his family until yesterday.

Cadillac officials called on the Governor's 14-year-old son, Gary, to place a crown fashioned out of a newspaper on his mother's head.

"This is one honor I'm sure dad would have liked," Gary said as he placed the crown on his mother's head Saturday night.

Inter-Church Fellowship Hears Rev. Herbert Wolf

The Lutheran Church of the Ascension opened its doors last evening to the second Inter-Church Fellowship meeting.

"How to Study the Bible" was again discussed by the Rev. Herbert C. Wolf, professor of religion at Michigan State College and pastor of the College Lutheran Church, East Lansing.

A social hour with refreshments followed.

Dr. Harold Paul Sloan Jr., pastor of the Drayton Avenue Presbyterian Church, Ferndale, was guest speaker at 7:30.

Dr. Sloan gave a resume of the World Council of Churches convention in Evanston, Ill., last August, using as his theme, "Christ, the Hope of the World."

His text was taken from I Peter, Chapter 1, 3rd verse: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead."

"European Christians feel there will not be much hope for the world until the world ends and Christ comes again. Christians in America believe there is hope now and it is ever growing," stated Dr. Sloan.

He concluded with "The layman must work with the clergy and carry his faith to the offices, factories and farms by his words and actions. We must turn from our way to God's way for nothing but God can satisfy the heart of man."

The meeting closed with benediction by the Rev. George L. Garver, pastor of the church.

The next Fellowship meeting will be held at All Saints Episcopal Church with the Rev. Victor Gold Ph.D., pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church of Kalamazoo, as speaker.

Two Detroit Women Face Trial in Theft

A trial will be scheduled for two Detroit women who were arraigned in Oakland County Circuit Court today charged with taking clothing from a store at the Northland Shopping Center Dec. 11.

Sues for $100,000 in Husband's Death

IONIA (AP) — A mother of four children has filed a $100,000 damage suit in Ionia County Circuit Court against the driver of a car involved in a crash that took the life of her husband.

Mrs. Geneva W. Rowe, 31, of Ingham County, is asking $50,000 for herself and all but $500 of the remainder for the support, care and education of her children until they become 21 years old. The remaining $500 is being asked for the hospital expenses and burial of her husband, Major Rowe.

The suit named Clarence Zahm of Belding defendant.

It alleges Zahm drove recklessly when his car collided with one driven by Rowe Nov. 28, 1953 on the U.S. 16 bypass near Grand Rapids. Rowe, thron from his car, was injured fatally.

Veteran Musicians Rose to Cheer 7-Year-Old Yehudi Menuhin at Debut

By EDDIE CANTOR

During the mid-twenties, all San Francisco was talking about a boy wonder—a curly-haired prodigy of the violin. He had played privately for a few of the town's musicians, and they couldn't believe their ears.

Then at last, one night in 1928, he was ready for his debut as soloist with Alfred Hertz and the San Francisco Symphony. Eleven thousand San Franciscans crowded their way into the Civic Auditorium and waited impatiently through the overture.

The star of the evening was sitting in the front row, wearing a white sweater—looking as cool and calm as a veteran. When it came his turn to play, he climbed onto the stage, picked up his violin and got all set.

Then, all of a sudden, he asked Maestro Hertz to wait a minute. Carefully he set down the violin, peeled off his white sweater, handed it across the footlights to his mother—and got set again for the Beethoven Concerto.

When he was through, (this kid of seven,) the musicians arose and cheered. San Francisco had given a new immortal to the world of music—a boy wonder who is now a wonderful man of the world—Yehudi Menuhin.

It's funny how many relatives show up when you get famous. One night as Yehudi Menuhin walked into the stage door of the Philharmonic Auditorium in Los Angeles, a young fellow said, "Yehudi, you don't know me, but I'm a second cousin on your father's side, so could you please give me a ticket?

I'm dying to hear you play. I've never heard you except on the records; and I'm so crazy about you, it would kill me if I didn't hear you tonight." Yehudi was embarrassed. He said, "I'm sorry, but we're all sold out. Now if you'd like to stand—"The alleged cousin stopped him.

"Standing I don't like, so could you kindly give me some money for a ticket to Sonja Henie's ice show?"

New Union Official Makes Poor Start

WHEELING, W. Va., (AP)—At a union business meeting Saturday night, John Hogle was installed as treasurer of District 136, International Assn. of Machinists.

When he arrived home early yesterday, he discovered that $1,230 in union funds had been stolen from his briefcase.

Hogle told police he had placed the money in a pouch and deposited the pouch in his briefcase. The pouch apparently was taken from the briefcase during a party following the business meeting.

Find Body of Speed Pilot in Mojave Desert Search

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The body of world speed pilot James B. Verdin, 36, who bailed out of his bantam jet bomber six miles above the earth Thursday, has been found after perhaps the biggest search ever made on the Mojave Desert.

The Douglas Aircraft Corp. test pilot lay 2½ miles from the wreckage of his A4D Skyhawk when searchers reached the body yesterday. The plane wreckage had been found the night before, 15 miles northwest of Victorville and 100 miles northeast of here.

Verdin's unopened parachute was still straped to his body. The plane's ejection seat lay nearby, indicating the pilot had cleared the seat as he began his 30,000-foot fall to earth.

Col. Howard Knap, surgeon general at Edwards Air Force Base near the crash scene, said Verdin apparently died on impact rather than aloft.

It could not be determined immediately why Verdin was unable to get the chute open, Douglas officials said. Neither was it learned at once if he was wearing a standard-type parachute, requiring a manual pull to open it, or an automatic type pre-set to open at a given altitude.

He is survived by his widow, three small children and a 12-year-old daughter by a previous marriage.

Protect Your Family
Relieve Suffering of Contagious Colds!

Now—more than ever—you need one sure medication that does more than work on chest!
With infectious colds raging in your neighborhood, this is no time to take chances. Don't gamble with unknown, untried treatments. For your family's sake, use the home-proved medication that does so much more than just work on the chest to bring relief—Vicks VapoRub!
VapoRub also brings relief in the cold-irritated breathing passages—because it acts two ways at once:
1. VapoRub relieves muscular soreness and tightness, stimulates chest surfaces.
2. At the same time, VapoRub's special medicated vapors also bring relief with every breath.
You can't see these vapors, but you can feel them as they travel deep into the nose, throat and large bronchial tubes. In no time at all, congestion starts breaking up. The coughing spells lessen and you breathe easier. Soon you enjoy wonderful, warming relief that lasts for hours.
So when an infectious cold strikes in your family, insist on the medication that does more than just work on the chest. At the first cough or sniffle—rub on relief... breathe in relief with Vicks VapoRub!
WORKS GREAT IN STEAM, TOO
For most effective relief from croupy coughs, that choked-up feeling... use Vicks VapoRub in vaporizer as directed in folder. You'll get such fast, direct relief!

Atomic Experts Confer on Details of Program for Non-War Uses

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold and atom experts of eight countries gathered here today for conferences to set up a world scientific congress on peaceful uses of atomic energy.

Their decisions here will carry forward another step the program proposed to the U. N. Assembly Dec. 8, 1953, by President Eisenhower to make atomic energy more useful in industry, medicine and agriculture and to spread peaceful atomic know-how throughout the world.

The Assembly endorsed Eisenhower's idea for an international atomic agency in a unanimous vote last month and authorized the congress for an exchange of ideas.

After his sessions with the atom scientists appointed to the advisory committee by the United States, Britain, Russia and four other countries, and with his own consultant Norwegian Gunnar Randers, Hammarskjold will announce the time, place and scope of the congress.

A session at Geneva in August is considered most likely.

The question of an invitation to Red China, which is not a member of U. N., threatened beforehand to be an issue. The Soviet Union failed to win Assembly approval for an invitation to Red China.

Blind, Deaf 73 Years

Helen Keller Won't Retire After Final Trip Abroad

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—For 73 years Helen Keller has been unable to see or hear. Yet now when she smiles, or touches the contours of your face with childlike delight, or lets her words tumble over themselves in the ecstasy of just being able to speak—you sense that she is happier than you.

"Yes, I am happy," she says, after you have asked the question and it has been spelled out on the palm of her hand by her companion, Miss Polly Thomson. "But I often feel grieved."

Dr. Keller is grived for those of us who suffer from self pity, "those who allow themselves to be tired instead of looking around them for new things to keep busy."

"I'd like," she says, "to give them all a shove."

Dr. Keller, nearing 75 and preparing to leave Feb. 4 for her last goodwill tour abroad in behalf of the 10,000,000 fellow-blind in the Far East, was perched forward eagerly on a couch in the lounge of a midtown hotel.

She was trying to keep her left hand quiet in her lap so that Miss Thomson could reach over and spell out questions in it (This is called the manuel alphabet)—but she was impatient. If the conversation lagged long without her, she impetuously touched her fingers to her companion's throat to "hear," by the vocal vibrations, what was going on.

"It will be my last trip abroad," she said, smiling serenly all the way up to the useless blue eyes. "I am going into the great belt of blackness, in China and India and Pakistan (her five-months tour will also include Japan and the Philippines).

I want to get the people interested in the blind and their abilities." She enunciated carefully these words she had never heard but had learned to speak by imitating the throat and tongue movements of teachers.

Dr. Keller has devoted her life to the work of inspiring the blind, and fighting preventable blindness.

"It will be my greatest happiness . . ." and here Miss Thomson had to interpret for her, because Dr. Keller was spilling out her words too fast to be coherent" . . . if I can overcome the strong prejudice, can convince people that the blind can take their places as self-reliant and responsible members of society. They can do anything you can do, if they're given a chance."

Dr. Keller was a normal child when she was born in Tuscumbia, Alabama, in 1880. At the age of 19 months an infant disease sealed off her eyes and ears and left her with wild, babbling speech. Until she was seven it appeared that she would be forced to live in seclusion.

But then Alexander Graham Bell, the distinguished inventor and a friend of her father's, arranged for a 20-year-old girl, miraculously cured of blindness herself, to take Helen in hand. The girl, Anne Sullivan, stayed with her for 49 years, until she died in 1936.

"Learning to speak," remembers Dr. Keller, "was the hardest job I ever had and, alas, I have never quite succeeded but I have never regretted I tried."

By the time she was 10, she could speak in sentences; now she can speak in seven languages and, when she is careful not let the words come out too fast, can be readily understood.

Dr. Keller lives in a colonial frame house in Westport, Connecticut, with Miss Thomson, a canary and an Alsatian hound. She takes daily walks, in rain or sun, along a 3,000-foot rail-sided path around the grounds, and "I can smell the grass," she says, "and smell the sap, and I am happy."

She loves clothes, particularly when they're made of silk or soft velvet or fur, and her favorite colors are green and blue. How can she love colors she's never seen? "It's a kind of symbolism," Dr. Keller explains. "When I wear green, I feel like the overflowing tide of spring in the land. In blue, I am the vast sweep of sky."

When she returns from her final tour June 24, Dr. Keller will get back to interests she's never had enough time for, the study of languages, history and philosophy. "But don't say I am going to retire, because I am not," she says. "When people say that, it makes me mad."

Smoke Blackout Panics London for Ten Minutes

LONDON (AP) — A weird, 10-minute smoke cloud plunged London in darkness for 10 minutes yesterday afternoon, bringing the vast metropolis nearly to a state of mass panic.

Weather men blamed the blackout on an accumulation of smoke under an extremely thick layer of cloud.

"It was pitch dark and then the place went silent," said a newspaper seller in Piccadilly Circus, the heart of the city. "It was lonely, frightening and awful. Then someone began to scream he'd gone blind. I was getting my wind up when it all of a sudden come clear."

"The end of the world has come!" a man outside Croydon Town Hall shouted. Some persons fell to their knees on the sidewalks and prayed.

The pall descended without warning, then disappeared as quickly as it had come.

Bandit, Victim Show Charitable Feelings

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — Kenneth Wiley, cab driver, told police he picked up a passenger at a bus station and moments later his fare pulled a gun, demanding money.

Wiley gave him $3.

"Is this all you have?" the gunman asked.

Wiley said it was.

The man handed the money back, saying, "Here, you take it. You need it worse than I do."

Wiley said he figured the man must need money or he wouldn't be staging a holdup. Wiley said he put $2 in his pocket and gave the passenger a dollar.

Congressional Salaries

One section of the President's State of the Union message no doubt struck a more responsive chord in Congress than any other.

In it Mr. Eisenhower urged Congress "to approve a long overdue increase in the salaries of Members of Congress and of the Federal judiciary to a level commensurate with their heavy responsibilities."

Existing Congressional salaries haven't changed since 1946 when they were set at $15,000. Of this $2,500 is for expenses and is tax-exempt. Since then inflation has depreciated the dollar by about 27 per cent.

In 1953 the Senate's judiciary committee recommended salaries of $25,000 for members of Congress. But the proposal was shelved and an outside commission was named to make recommendations.

These were so high that few members of Congress were prepared to risk a 1954 campaign after voting themselves the suggested 80 per cent increase. The result was that the lawmakers contented themselves with expanding pension benefits and allowances for stationery, postage, long distance calls, home office upkeep and clerk hire.

A good case can be made for a reasonable increase in Congressional pay. Higher pay also would serve to reduce the difficulty of finding good men for Federal judgeships. This difficulty arises from the fact that many competent lawyers in private practice earn far more than current judicial salaries.

FBI Chief's Warning

That we must find a way to stop juvenile crime or be prepared for an appalling increase in it is the solemn warning sounded by FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover.

Last year in the United States, Hoover told U. S. News & World Report, persons under 18 committed 53.6 per cent of all car thefts. They also were guilty of 49.3 per cent of all burglaries, 18 per cent of all robberies and 16.2 per cent of all rapes.

Continuing his discussion of these statistics from 1,174 cities, the FBI Chief pointed out that the number of teenagers is increasing as a result of very high birth rates after World War II. In his opinion it is logical to expect that unless a way is found to check juvenile crime it will increase rapidly in the next few years.

How can this be prevented?

What is the cure?

Below is a consensus compiled by the magazine after consulting judges and law enforcement officials:

Parents should show respect for law and teach it to their youngsters with firmer control and spankings when needed. Juvenile courts should quit coddling young hoodlums and put repeaters in institutions. Reformatories should reform and should be staffed with psychiatrists.

More probation officers should be trained and allowed to concentrate on youths who can be saved. There should be more police trained for neighborhood beats and more control of comic books.

Worth doing something about, isn't it?

Shorter Campaigns

A tentative Democratic decision to open that party's 1956 national convention August 27 should be applauded by all voters.

Applause is in order because the decision has spurred GOP talk of holding the Republican convention in September of next year. Both ideas are excellent. If acted upon, they would have the effect of shortening the Presidential campaign several weeks.

For years we have argued that both campaigns and conventions could be shortened greatly to the advantage of all concerned. Not so long ago national candidates needed many weeks to visit all parts of the country.

But radio, television and rapid air transport have changed all that. Candidates can make themselves known to voters in a fraction of the time needed only a few decades ago.

The disadvantages of a long campaign are numerous. Enthusiasm generated at June and July conventions soon fades in midsummer heat, and has to be regenerated in the Fall. Campaigns started by such conventions are exhausting and expensive for the candidates and boring for the voters.

One of the strongest arguments for late conventions is that they would give Congress more time to finish its work and adjourn before the party gatherings. Early conventions far too often break into Congressional sessions.

We are convinced that shorter campaigns are both possible now and highly desirable. Not only would they be far less expensive in effort and money, but bring in ballot box decisions by a far more informed electorate.

The longer you stay in a rut, the deeper hole you'll be in. Consider the Colorado River and the Grand Canyon and be wise.

The Man About Town

Modest People

Three Award Winners Are Not Swelled Up About It

Women: Of whom there are three kinds, the beautiful, the intellectual and the majority.

Men: Of whom there are two kinds, the intellectual and the majority.

"Cannot see that I'm entitled to it," is the modest expression of

Fred J. Poole,

recently selected by the Junior Chamber of Commerce as Pontiac's outstanding young man of the year. The outstanding boss, chosen at the same time, feels that there must be some "terrible bosses," and named outstanding man within the Jaycee organization, wonders if the thing was checked over as closely as it should have been.

Dave R. Ewalt,

It surely is refreshing to find something in reverse of the general price trend, as did of 52 Green St. In looking over a copy of the Pontiac Press of 28 years ago, he saw a brand of radio advertised for $169 that today is selling for $15.

Burrel Hubbard

Preceding the recent Dorothy Thompson lecture, ten members of the Pontiac Boys Club, under the very competent guidance of put on a fast tumbling show that delighted the audience. Mike tells me that the club is shooting for a membership of 2,000 this year.

A native of Denmark, but a resident of Pontiac for many years, of 76 Stout St., soon celebrates her ninety-second birthday. She is still doing all of her own housework, and feels happy about her good health and being a resident of a country that has done so much for her.

Mrs. Andrew Knudsen

"Never before in anything I have read have I had such a strong anticipation for the next chapter," writes of Walled Lake, in telling about the Pontiac Press feature, "Suspect."

Rutherford Haskellson

Already bursting with pride about his township,

Supervisor Lloyd L. (Andy) Anderson

again increases the size of his hat—and justly so. The latest figures show that the enrollment in the Waterford school system has advanced to the third largest in Oakland County, exceeded only by Pontiac City and Royal Oak City.

Social Security Payments Should Begin Five Years Earlier, States 'Nearing 60'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I would like to hear from persons 60 years of age who think our Social Security payments should start at age 60, so we may still have a few years to enjoy it. Plenty of money has accumulated, I understand, for that purpose. "Pressure to bear" will surely bring results.

The idea has already been talked of in Washington. Unemployment would be eased immensely. Give the young people a chance. Let's hear your applause.

Nearing 60.

Fluorine Is Poisonous, Says Ralph T. Keeling

When God created man he used all the elements he deemed necessary. Among these were trace elements and minerals needed for proper functioning of glands that keep the body healthy. These elements are taken up from the earth by vegetation that man and animals eat.

Then man, faced by growing population, began to overwork the soil. The trace elements were depleted and physical troubles developed in man. Our area is known as the goiter belt due to lack of iodine.

Intensive farming, erosion and leaching of the soil have all been factors. Among resulting ailments is trouble with the teeth. This has been aggravated by highly refined sugar, flour, sweet foods and drinks.

But does man return to God's way? No. He comes up with some chemical or poison. He says that a little won't hurt you, but be careful, for it takes little to poison you. This is what takes place when fluoridation of drinking water is suggested, for fluorine is the most corrosive poison known.

The only cure is a return to organic farming, returning to the soil natural fertilizers such as natural rock phosphate and natural potash that have not been treated with sulphuric acid; also building up the humus in the soil, and use of compost.

Return to raising of poison free vegetables containing the natural trace elements and minerals and deficiency ailments like tooth trouble will disappear. I have grown organic foods for 15 years and am healthier than I was 15 years ago.

Bust Measurement Just Minor Item in Girl's Charm, Appeal to Other Sex

Joan's problem bothers literally millions of girls. They ask us doctors for quick remedies for this supposed defect. But it is not a serious flaw, if a girl will simply compliment her boy friends and make them feel wonderful. So never develop a complex over your bust measurements.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case N-325: Joan L., aged 20, is a stenographer.

"But Dr. Crane, my life is simply miserable," she protested.

"For my bust is so small! I try to conceal that fact with a special uplift type of bra but why can't I develop an attractive bust like other girls.

"Recently I saw an advertisement where for $30 it said a girl could add 5 or 6 inches to her bust measurement.

"Do you think it would be worth while to try that company's course?"

Millions of women are just like Joan in being miserable because they have flat or small busts.

But there are also millions of women who worry because their bust measurements are too large.

Actually, the breast tissue in a woman is chiefly fat. And exercises will not make fat grow larger!

In fact, manipulation of the breast and the use of a suction pump may actually break down the fatty tissue and cause the breast to sag.

In the normal adult woman, there are only three ways for increasing the size of the bust.

Since the breast is mostly fat, if you increase in weight, some of that surplus fat may be deposited in the breasts and thus expand your bust measurement.

A second method is to develop the pectoralis muscles that lie on the front of the chest wall and directly beneath the breast itself.

Stretch your arms outward at the level of the shoulders. Then pull them forward and you exercise these muscles.

Swimming is another good exercise for the pectoralis muscles. So is swinging a tennis racket, as well as a golf club.

But these muscles are not a part of your breast!

They simply serve as the muscular foundation for the breast. But by enlarging them via appropriate exercise, you can make them bulge and thus project the fatty bust line forward.

The third method for enlargement of the bust is pregnancy, for when the breasts begin to function in producing milk, they also swell up.

Since the breasts are fatty mounds, held to the chest wall by a few fiber bands, it is wise to wear a sturdy brassiere when you ride horse back or exercise vigorously.

Otherwise, the bouncing action will pull on the breasts. Then the fiber bands will stretch. And ultimately the breasts will sag.

But the size of the bust is only a minor item as regards your charm and appeal to the opposite sex, so never become so idolatrous that you worship at the shrine of a full bust.

Girls need to gain better perspective than that. Simply use an uplift bra and join the "Compliment Club."

Millions of wives have flat busts, but their husbands proposed marriage to them because those girls were charming in their total personality.

So quit developing a complex over the size of the bust. Accept your natural endowment philosophically. Enlarge the breast by exercise of the pectoralis muscles, and use an uplift bra.

But then turn your attention off yourself by paying honest compliments to your male companions. For if you make a boy feel happy and proud of himself, he'll think you are wonderful, even if you have no bust at all!

Send for my "Tests for Sweethearts," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus a dime.

They will show you that boys don't attach great importance to a girl's bust measurement.

David Lawrence Says:

Hammarskjold's Remarks Brighten Hopes for Fliers

WASHINGTON—Anyone familiar with the resourcefulness of personal diplomacy conducted with the old-fashioned skill that averted many a world crisis will read between the lines and come to the hopeful conclusion that after all the shouting dies down the 11 American fliers will be released by Red China's government.

The manner of doing it may not bring enthusiasm, indeed some of its aspects bring a sense of humiliation, but the prediction made by Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. to the U. N. that the fliers will be liberated may turn out to have been well-founded.

For the key to what's been happening can be found in the following paragraph taken from the stenographic record of the press conference held last Friday by Dag Hammarskjold, secretary general of the U. N., on his return to New York. He by negotiations conducted by this said:

"It is not really a question of negotiations. It is a question of where the ground is prepared by negotiation — that ground having partly been prepared and partly by negotiations conducted by this or that national government. But the final decisions, I think, will necessarily emerge as unilateral decisions in all those various ticklish cases. They will emerge as unilateral decisions and as part of a general development, more than as the result of any kind of settlement.

"When you talk about negotiation in the sense you (the newsmen) indicate now, you seem to have in mind this give-and-take kind of situation which is a typical one. I have already indicated that this has not been discussed in terms of a deal, nor with any link between different problems."

This is the most skillful kind of fencing with the correspondents. The secretary general tried to be discreet but the significant word in his impromptu statement is "unilateral."

This means that each side does whatever it does without any apparent pressure from the other and seemingly in spontaneous fashion. That way of handling it is almost a prerequisite to success because each side, especially in the case of Red China, must presumably not "lose face," which is Oriental psychology.

Literally speaking, of course, the secretary general is correct—there is no deal in the sense of a previously arranged bargain or contract with a specific set of conditions. But, as a result of the conversations at Peiping each side knows what is expected of the other if there is to be a solution.

The secretary general is right in another hint that he has given—this is only the "first stage." This means that the leaven has to have time to work and both sides have to see the situation more clearly before a final settlement can be said to be in sight.

On the American side, too, not "losing face" is important because there is a Congress to think about and a public opinion which hasn't forgiven Red China's aggression in Korea nor her flagrant violation of the armistice terms. Hence it is important to note the character of the statements and actions taken by the United States government immediately after the secretary general briefed Gen. Hull and American Ambassador John Allison in Tokyo last Wednesday.

Four separate things have happened. First, Ambasador Lodge at the U.N. said on Thursday he was confident the fliers would be freed. Second, Walter S. Robertson, assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs, delivered a speech in Philadelphia on Thursday evening in which he made a blistering attack on the Red Chinese government. Third, President Eisenhower on Friday morning said America was "disappointed" that the fliers had not been freed, but he urged everybody to be calm and patient and said we would continue our effort to secure the release of the men held captive.

Fourth: Secretary of State Dulles and Lodge on Saturday flew out to Omaha to be briefed by the commanding general of the Strategic Air Command, which, everyone knows, is the unit which will throw atom bombs at the enemy if we are attacked.

Now the press was told that the "briefing" had been scheduled many weeks ago—but it could have been called off or postponed if deemed psychologically bad. But it wasn't.

This leaves unexplained the Robertson speech, which incidentally was front-page news in the circumstances, but which for some reason wasn't published widely in the newspapers at all.

Robertson declared that "no benefit not fraught with the greatest danger could be derived by the free-world countries from a large expansion of trade with Communist China" and that "the Chinese Communist interest in trade expansion is limited principally to items of industrial and military importance."

The speech also outlined why the United States is "firmly opposed to recognition of the Chinese Communists and giving them a seat in the United Nations." Robertson said "these defiant impostors in Peiping come no closer to representing the true interests and aspirations of their country than do William Z. Foster and his cohorts in this country, or Palmiro Togliatti in Italy or Maurice Thorez in France. They are all part and parcel of the apparatus of the international Communist conspiracy."

Their objectives are the antithesis of the principles which constitute the foundation of the United Nations charter. They are dedicated to the destruction of everything the United Nations stands for."

Robertson added that our government "is opposed to any action which would strengthen the international prestige of the Chinese Communists or its capability for advancing its design for further conquests in collusion with Soviet communism."

The assistant secretary then said: "The regime stands convicted by the United Nations of the crime of aggression" and "it has not expiated that crime, nor its crimes against countless innocent victims of Communist malevolence. Its admission to the United Nations would undermine the real Chinese government, now based on Formosa, which is the one remaining hope of millions of Chinese on the mainland and scattered about the world who despise communism and refuse to accept as permanent the Communist enslavement of their country."

This entire speech was "cleared" in advance by the secretary of state and presumably will be read in Peiping as a warning that on the subect of admission of Red China to the U.N. there has been no change of viewpoint here. The fliers are illegally held and must be released, no matter what else is envolved in the hopes of the Red China government for eventual admission to the U.N.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a forward mouth.—Prov. 6:12.

Delinquency Not So Much in Teenagers as It Is Throughout Present Day Culture

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

If the young man has completed his formal education, is earning his own living, is saving to support a wife and children, has finished his day's work and his day's physical activity—sport or game using muscles—he may then be in a position to consider whether he will permit himself to drink.

Certainly his parent or guardian will not be so delinquent as to offer permission for drinking, smoking or other detrimental practices.

A reader asks: "Please confirm or deny that brandy will prevent a cold . . . especially for a teenager . . . when is it permissible for a teenager to drink? . . . It's hard to tell the younger generation anything . . . they know it all and have to do what the others do for fear of not being popular."

Neither brandy nor other alcoholic drink will prevent, cure, or help a "cold."

Let us cease branding our youngsters with unpleasant labels. Let us have tender mercy with our young, remembering that they were nourished on the violent and vulgar culture which we condone, or at best do little to improve. Take a week off and study what's around them:

A common practice in American homes is the cocktail hour, where at least one theretofore respectable adult behaves in a violent or vulgar fashion.

Movies, television, radio, magazines, newspapers and some of the "top ten" in literature, are concerned with violence and vulgarity in human relationships which we would never select for your youngsters. But, we have displayed to them such relationships in a kaleidoscopic, audiovisual barrage on their senses since early childhood.

Our everyday language is patterned for us by disc jockeys and jive peddlers, so that a citizen who speaks pure English is somehow suspicious; "What's he, a fruit?" Those who see fit to speak in cultured phrases without compliance to the prevailing language-patterns, are dubbed "egg-heads," for whom there appears to be no welcome outside the universities.

The delinquency is not, is it, so much in our youngsters, as in us, in our whole culture?

While your teenager is treating his "cold" with bed rest, you might sit down and discuss with him how you and he, working together, can improve yourselves. I mean, improve both of you, not just the teenager! Perhaps he would like his children to grow up in a saner world, where they can be individuals unafraid of what "the others" think.

Just ask him if he thinks alcohol will improve that world.

Signed letters not more than one page or 300 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, but of interest, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Address

Husband Saves Wife in Lapeer Blaze

LAPEER—Bedridden Mrs. Bessie Titsworth, 66, was carried from their burning home Sunday morning by her husband, Morris, as fire swept the two-story frame dwelling.

She is in "satisfactory" condition, officials of the McLaren Hospital, Flint, reported today, with burns over a large portion of her body.

Cause of the blaze which destroyed the 2445 Hunter's Creek Rd., farm home, causing an estimated $20,000 damage, is undetermined.

The fire was fought by the Lapeer Fire Department, but two volunteers of the Metamora department were slightly injured as several cars collided when the Metamora fire engine slowed down for a narrow bridge approaching the scene.

William Skellinger and Richard York, both of Metamora, were treated for bruises at Lapeer County Hospital, and released.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

When Mother goes to the store for groceries, she usually pays for them with paper money, printed by the United States government on special paper. Nearly always she gets back some change, including metal coins.

Long ago people did not use money at all but traded things they had for things they needed. Then they found out it was easier to use just one thing for trading. American Indians used beads. African tribes used cattle. Next, most everyone started to use pieces of metal. Finally, governments stamped a sign on each little piece of metal. That is the way coins such as we use today were invented.

We can't draw pictures of real pennies, nickles, dimes, quarters and 50-cent pieces because the government won't allow it. But if you will paste these circles down on cardboard and cut them out, you can make some play money of your own. Color the 1-cent pieces, or pennies, yellow. Leave the others white, like nickel or silver.

U. S. Population Aging Rapidly, Expert Claims

ANN ARBOR (AP)—A New York life insurance expert says America's population is aging fast.

Dr. Louis Dublin of the Institute of Life Insurance, told a conference on gerontology at the University of Michigan last week that people in and above the 65-year-old age bracket today make up eight per cent of the population.

By 1970, Dr. Dublin said, that age group will constitute 11 per cent of the population.

He said today's life expectancy is about 68. By 1970 it will be 79 for white males and 83 for white females, he said.

The three-day conference was called by the Michigan State Medical Society and the University of Michigan to study the problems of the aged.

Dr. Dublin said that until recently, the chief problem of older people had been "financial security."

"Do not underestimate last year's revision of the Social Security law," he said. "The effect of that will go on record as the most progressive step by government in modern times. This social security act puts a real floor under aged people for the first time."

Mixed-Up Motorist Winds Up on Tracks

CHICAGO (INS)—George Jewell, 40, admitted he became confused at 5 a.m. after making a U-turn in Cicero but can't understand why he wound up on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad tracks some 25 feet above the ground.

He told authorities, "I'd crossed several tracks and kept trying to get off of them. But I had no luck. I finally gave up and went home.

Startled railroad employes found Jewell's car blocking the progress of one freight train and one yard engine. A special tow truck managed to put the car back on the street.

Jewell was charged with trespassing on railroad property.

Straits Bridge Work Stopped

Heavy Ice Forces End to Winter Construction; 4 Foundations Done

MACKINAW CITY (AP) — Work stopped on the Mackinac bridge last week as winter, in the form of heavy ice, froze in around the bridge foundations.

Engineers said construction will be halted until the ice breaks up. They said the ice, forming over the last two days, appeared to be settling in for the winter.

"Four of the six foundations we aimed to complete this winter are finished to elevations of 10 feet above the surface," said John Kinney, resident engineer for the project.

He said the foundations for the main towers, although incomplete, are secure for the winter.

"We will put finishing touches on them early next spring so that tower erection can begin on June this March, the authority said.

The Mackinac Bridge Authority said work is on schedule and the structure is expected to be completed by Nov. 1, 1957.

Steel for the superstructure will begin arriving at the Straits early this March, the authority said.

Youth Admits Breakins After Chase With Police

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—A 20-year-old Grand Rapids youth who was arrested Saturday morning after leading area police on a wild chase has admitted nine breakins in Kent and Ottawa Counties, Sheriff Arnold O. Pigorsh reported.

Pigorsh said the youth, Claude W. De Zwaan, will be questioned further. De Zwaan was caught after deputies fired 20 shots at his fleeing car Saturday morning.

Prison Officials Worry After Wire Cutter Theft

MARQUETTE (AP)—The puzzling disappearance of a pair of tools at the Michigan State Prison has left officials edgy.

Someone apparently slipped by three armed guards to take the tools from a tool box left outside a wire fence covering a hole in the prison wall.

Troubled with GETTING UP NIGHTS
Pains in BACK, HIPS, LEGS
Tiredness, LOSS OF VIGOR

If you are a victim of these symptoms then your troubles may be traced to Glandular Inflammation. Glandular inflammation is a constitutional disease and medicines that give temporary relief will not remove the causes of your troubles.

Neglect of Glandular Inflammation often leads to premature senility, and incurable malignancy.

The past year men from 1,600 communities have been successfully treated here at the Excelsior Institute. They have found soothing relief and a new zest in life.

The Excelsior Institute, devoted to the treatment of diseases peculiar to older men by NON-SURGICAL Methods, has a New FREE BOOK that tells how these troubles may be corrected by proven Non-Surgical treatments. This book may prove of utmost importance in your life. No obligation. Address Excelsior Institute, Dept. Excelsior Springs, Missouri 5511.

'Suspect'—Chapter 36

by Hugh Lawrence Nelson

Jim Dunn continued: "The killer found Angelica with the doll she had removed from the hiding place. The killer saw the money. Perhaps Angelica was defiant. The killer was used to corporal punishment, to inflicting it on others. The killer believed firmly it was easy to get away with murder. The heavy, deadly pieces of pitch were handy. One was snatched from the pile and blows were struck."

Mrs. Oswald's black eyes glittered, but she made no interruption.

"There was time then," Jim went on, "to arrange the accident. Angelica was pulled beneath the elevator and the heavy weight was raised and dropped on her body.

"Stop it!" Agnes Argyle's voice was hoarse.

"Only one person here fills all the requirements," Jim said. "One person delighted in inflicting corporal punishment, one person wore a bathing suit, still wet from replacing the stones in the creek to stop up the underwater entrance, when we all drove up from The Spires, and one of you at least is acquisitive enough about 'small' things to send over word I was not to catch any of her fish."

Jim wet his lips. He switched his eyes to Philip Stoneman. "In your story, you and Mrs. Hilton had the same idea. The idea of checking to see that the boat had not been used?"

"Right," Philip said. His eyes were watchful.

"Tell me again," Jim demanded.

"I went to the boathouse to check," Philip recited. "Mrs. Hilton was there already; she had had the same idea. She touched the oars to make sure they were wet." He turned suddenly toward the woman. "Remember how I scrubbed your hand with turpentine. 'Out, out, damned spot,' we said."

Jim held his own palm up for inspection. "A part of the stain on her hand was like this one."

"Yes. The hard part to get off. What is it?"

"Pitch," Jim said.

"You—you killed my girl!" Sheriff Agnes' voice was terrible.

Mrs. Hilton backed away from her. "Keep away from me. Nothing can be proved. I want my lawyer."

Mrs. Hilton turned and ran from the room, slammed the door behind her. Agnes moved quickly. Jim caught her, held her.

'She won't go far," Jim said. "I've locked my car."

They made a small knot of people on the lake shore. Mrs. Hilton had rowed out 50 feet, sat in the speedboat's stern pouring gas into the tank.

"Come back,' Jim called.

Mrs. Hilton flung the partially emptied can over the side. "It's not fair. You have to make this an accident too. You have to. You can still do it. She shouldn't have stolen all those things of mine. Mine—they were all mine!" She waited a full minute for the reply.

Mrs. Oswald delivered the Carlson judgment, delivered it harshly. "I trusted you. You tried to kill me. No. I'll not cover up for you this time."

Mrs. Hilton started the motor.

Jim Dunn missed Agnes Argyle then, even before he made out her figure across the lake. She had hurried to the cavern entrance, had gone through the short cut. She stood there on the end of the pier, her wet clothes plastered to her gaunt body, waiting for Mrs. Hilton. Waiting for the woman who had killed her child. The speedboat was fairly skimming water now. Jim saw Mrs. Hilton turn to watch them, saw her laugh.

Agnes Argyle raised her arm and aimed.

Mrs. Hilton saw the grim, waiting figure, apparently saw the gun. She swerved the boat as the gun went off with an echoing report. A tower of water leaped up with the impact of the heavy slug.

But Mrs. Hilton had turned too fast. The racer leaped from the water, flipped over, completed a reverse turn. Mrs. Hilton was thrown high in the air, came down to land heavily on the sinking craft. The sound of her landing was loud in the silence.

Mrs. Oswald came away from the phone as Jim and Nancy went through the drawing room.

"I want to know what you're going to do?"

"Report to the proper authorities," Dunn said.

Sheriff Agnes Argyle said, "That's me. I'm the proper authority."

"All right," Jim agreed wearily. "So I've reported to you."

Mrs. Oswald's black eyes snapped. She pulled her withered body even more erect. "You'll hear from me, Mr. Dunn. You won't lose by your actions. Now, if you'll excuse us? There are things to be arranged."

Mrs. Oswald had her hand on Mrs. Kit's arm. "You chose wisely when you chose Mr. Dunn. Now, we must make our plans, Mrs. Peter." There was just enough hesitation to stress her use of that name.

Jim saw the pleasure, the resolution, flood over his client's face. She had reached the Carlson inner circle. From the background came a deep sigh of content from Mrs. Gelstrap. Kit said, "Yes, Mrs. Oswald."

The old woman turned to face Agnes Argyle. "And you, Mrs. Toby?" She was uncertain enough to make it a question.

Agnes Argyle shrugged her bony shoulders. "I'll stand by you, Mrs. Oswald."

THE END

So That's What Women Carry in Pocketbooks

CHICAGO (INS)—What do Chicagoans leave on street cars, buses and elevated trains?

Among the 9,000 articles found last month were:

An automobile axle and transmission; a woman's purse containing a package of chewing tobacco, a box of snuff and a straight edged razor; a regular size bicycle; a pair of bed springs, and many bottles of whisky—most of them opened.

AEC Aircraft Hunt Uranium

Prospectors Keep Eye Peeled on Planes for Tipoffs to Deposits

DENVER (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission's uranium hunter planes are putting a new look in the search for the atomic bomb material, AEC officials report.

But the prospectors do almost as much hunting for AEC planes as for uranium, and a flight sometimes looks more like an airborne cops-and-robbers chase than a scientific trip.

"Some of 'em trail us in their own private planes," AEC geologist Cleland N. Conwell said. "Others simply perch on a high bluff and watch us through high-powered binoculars."

"But let a plane of ours carrying a scintillation counter circle the same spot twice and the boys pounce," he said. "Sometimes they're staking their claims before the exploration plane crew can land to make a preliminary report. To give the prospecting public an even break, our pilots whenever possible try to avoid making second passes at the same terrain."

Conwell, who works for the raw materials branch of the AEC, said the commission operates nine aircraft, mostly tiny two-seaters. Each one is equiped with a sensitive scintillation counter.

"They really fly low," Conwell said. "Just grazing the treetops or 10 feet above ground if possible. One man pilots and the other pokes the counter out the window and watches the needle."

"So far, we've been lucky. We have lost only two planes," he said. "One hit a tree and the other a phone line, but the men lived to tell about it."

On the 15th of each month the AEC publishes reports gathered by the planes, complete with maps showing areas of above-normal radiation. The AEC calls such areas "anomalies." Then there's a mad scramble for the maps, and "within a few days all possible claims are filed on by prospectors."

Conwell continued:

"Our Denver exploration branch extends east from the Rocky Mountains clear to the Mississippi. In this area, Colorado, Wyoming, New Mexico and South Dakota are now Uranium-producing states, and four fifths of their active discovery and development is due to airborne exploration."

What the Regulation of Gas Supply Means to 25,000,000 American Families

THE FIVE THOUSAND producers of natural gas—large and small—believe that the free competitive system which has increased your gas supplies and kept rates low is the best for consumers, for the industry, and the economy.

They believe the proposal to abandon competition and clamp bureaucratic controls on gas production will hurt consumers, damage the industry, and benefit no one.

Here are some answers to questions you as a consumer may have on this vital issue.

What Is This Regulation?

Sixteen years after a 1938 law was passed, a new interpretation of some of its words now forces the Federal Power Commission to do what it has eleven times refused to do—try to fix the price that an interstate pipeline pays the 5000 competing producers who find the gas and get it from the ground.

Will This Regulation Reduce Our Gas Bills?

Hardly. Only about 10% of the average gas bill goes to the producer who finds the gas and sells it. The other 90% pays for constructing, maintaining and operating the long-distance pipelines and local distribution systems—already regulated.

How Will Regulation Affect Supply?

It will reduce the supply. Most natural gas is produced by "wildcatters" and other independents. They are used to keen competition and big risks. But put them under Federal controls—with permits, endless forms, licenses, hearings and suits—and the work of exploration is sure to suffer. Three new pipeline projects to bring gas to more consumers have been suspended since regulation took effect.

Hasn't Gas Always Been Regulated?

Gas distribution, yes. It makes sense to have only one pipeline bring gas to a community—and one gas company distribute it in the community. Both do a good, efficient job for you, and as monopolies they are naturally regulated.

But there's no monopoly in finding gas. Far from it. Gas production is risky and keenly competitive. There are five thousand large and small producers looking for gas—and finding it is only one out of every nine exploratory wells they drill. They compete vigorously to sell their gas. A single pipeline may buy from 200 or more producers.

Is Gas Different from Coal or Oil —or Grain?

It isn't. And if there's price-fixing for natural gas at the well so can there be next for coal at the mine or oil at the well—or lumber in the forest, or grain on the farm.

How Did The Consumer Fare Before This Regulation?

Here's the record. In the past 16 years natural gas production has increased 200% and the price the consumer paid for gas has risen only 1/11th as much as the general cost of living.

Do Only A Few Big Companies Produce Gas?

No. The largest 37 companies produce less than half the nation's gas. No single company produces more than 5%. The small producers do more exploratory drilling than do all the big companies combined. And none of the producers has any monopoly, any exclusive franchise, or any protection.

What Is The Natural Gas and Oil Resources Committee?

It is made up of companies and individuals concerned with natural gas. It includes a great many large and small gas and oil producers. All believe there is no more reason for OPA-like price-fixing on gas than on steel, coal, autos, meat, or shoes, which could be next. All believe that free competition is better for all of us than a price-controlled economy, which has historically led to stagnation, scarcity and rationing.

What Can I Do?

You can reason out the issues, reach your own conclusions, and make those conclusions known to your friends and neighbors.

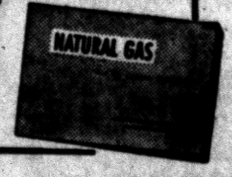

Under free competition without federal regulation—

- Natural gas became plentiful—output rose two hundred per cent in the past sixteen years.
- Natural gas stayed reasonable—and gas prices to the consumer rose only one-eleventh as much as living costs in the past sixteen years.
- Natural gas has helped create thousands of jobs in industry and now supplies one-fourth of the nation's energy resources.

NOW..... cumbersome federal controls threaten all this progress.

MRS. GEORGE PAPATHEODORE

West Coast Destination of Couple

Sophie Anastos Repeats Her Vows in St. George Rite

A candlelight Florentine lace gown was worn by Sophie Anastos Sunday evening as she aproached the altar of St. George Greek Orthodox Church to become the bride of George Papatheodore.

The bride is the niece of the Ernest Cosmas of Ogemaw road. He is the son of Mrs. Panayiota Papatheodore of Detroit.

The Rev. Soterious Gouvellis performed the six o'clock ceremony before 300 guests.

The bride's gown was fashioned with empire bodice and long pointed sleeves. A bouffant skirt fell gracefully into a chapel length train and the neckline and collar were edged with seed pearls.

A Florentine lace pillbox, edged in taffeta and seed pearls, secured her fingertip veil and she carried a moon bouquet of Amazon lilies and pothos vines.

Sophie Cosma attended the bride as maid of honor and other attendants were Betsy Koronas, Marie Cosma, Stella Katsakis of Detroit and Sophie Williams.

They wore ballerina length gowns of seafoam green nylon tricot with shirred bodices. Ranch mink trimmed the bateau necklines of the gowns and the bandeaus.

The honor maid carried a bouquet of saturn carnations and the other attendants carried arrangements of ember carnations and camille foliage.

Kay Cosma, flowergirl, wore a frock of pale peach tricot trimmed with saturn carnations. Tommy Denos was ring bearer.

Philip N. Christi served as best man and seating the guests were Bob, Tony and James Papatheodore, brothers of the bridegroom from Detroit, and Sam Cosma and Robert Ryeson.

Mrs. Cosma wore a street length dress of champagne silk with matching accessories for the reception which was held at Chieftain Hall. The bridegroom's mother chose an ice blue lace dress with black accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

The new Mrs. Papatheodore wore a navy wool suit with red accessories for a motor trip to the West Coast. The couple will reside in Detroit.

MRS. JOSEPH H. BARNETT

Fifty members of her family gathered to help Mrs. Joseph H. Barnett, of Detroit, celebrate her 85th birthday Sunday afternoon at Kingsley Inn. Mrs. Barnett, a former resident of Pontiac, has 10 children living in Pontiac, Flint and Detroit.

Secretaries Hear Mayor Donaldson

Mayor William W. Donaldson spoke to members of National Secretaries Association at the recent dinner meeting held in Hotel Waldron.

Mayor Donladson explained the aims and plans of the Pontiac Foundation and urged the group to participate actively in the foundation for civic betterment.

"The Pontiac Foundation", Mr. Donaldson stated, "is a non-profit community trust, organized for the benefit of all Pontiac persons." He stressed Pontiac's need for a civic auditorium and named it as one of the goals of the foundation.

Mary Eleanor Lockman presided at the business meeting and the speaker was presented by Mrs. Hope Scott. Committee reports were received.

Film Presented for PTA Meeting

Mrs. Henry Onrich of the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League presented a film entitled, "The High Wall" to members of the Longfellow School PTA Thursday afternoon.

A group of third grade students presented "Jack in the Bean Stalk in recitation and song. Fluoridation for the city was voted upon and passed unanimously by the group.

Organizational Meeting Held at Waldron

An organizational meeting of the Widow and Widowers Acquaintance Club was held Friday evening in the Green Room of Hotel Waldron. Forty-one men and women were present from Rochester, Ortonville, Milford, Lake Orion, Birmingham, Keego Harbor and Pontiac.

The purpose of the newly formed group is to make the lives of shut-in people a little more cheerful by working together for the good of all.

Officers elected by the club were Mrs. Morgan Hoffheins, president; Mrs. August Terreault, secretary and Herman Coon, treasurer. Mrs. Fred Cunningham and Mrs. Margaret Clark were named to the entertainment committee.

Group singing was enjoyed by those present following the business meeting. Anyone interested in joining the group may contact Mrs. Hoffheins of Lake street, Lake Orion.

Standish Group Holds Meeting at Manus Home

The Standish group of First Congregational Church met for a dessert luncheon at the Nelson street home of Mrs. Harry C. Manus, Friday afternoon. Mrs. Margaret Porter assisted the hostess.

Mrs. Ray S. Falk gave devotions using as her theme, Letters from Paul to the Romans. Mrs. Malcolm K. Burton was a special guest and gave a program consisting of parables of "Safed the Sage," the name used by William E. Barton, former editor of a denominational magazine.

Announcement was made of the ever-member canvass of the church to take place Feb. 23 and a meeting of the women's fellowship of the Southeastern District, which will be held at Bushnell Congregational Church of Detroit on Jan. 21.

Priscilla Richmond Becomes Bride

Residing at Ft. Devens, Mass. are Sgt. and Mrs. Edwin B. Stevens. The bride is the former Priscilla Richmond, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. L. E. Richmond of Mayville. He is the son of Mrs. Margaret Stevens of Harrison avenue.

The ceremony was performed by the bride's father in Rich Free Methodist Church on Dec. 18, with the Rev. C. B. Collver of Port Huron assisting.

Newlyweds' Honeymoon in East

Patricia Short Becomes Bride in Church Rite

A gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin was worn by Patricia Lou Short when she became the bride of William Edward Stoutenburg Saturday evening in First Presbyterian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Short of Niagara avenue, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Leo Stoutenburg of North Paddock street and the late Mr. Stoutenburg.

Dr. William H. Marbach performed the 8 o'clock candlelight ceremony before 500 guests. The altar was decorated with white gladioli, snapdragons and palms.

The lace bodice of the bridal gown featured a scalloped jeweled edge forming a tiny collar. The same detailing was repeated in a redingote effect, and the front of the bouffant skirt was etched in the rose patterned lace.

A veil of filmy illusion was held by a cap of rose patterned lace, and the bride carried a colonial bouquet of red roses with white snapdragons and stephanotis.

Donna Leigh Nossaman of Manistee, Patricia's roommate from Central Michigan College, was maid of honor.

She wore a ballerina length gown of pink chiffon featuring a shrug jacket and a sash of American Beauty velvet. She wore a velvet crownette and carried a muff of matching velvet with a corsage of roses and carnations.

Janice Elkins, Marianne Hoak and Doris Jones, all Patricia's former classmates at Central Michigan College, were bridesmaids.

They wore light blue chiffon gowns identical in style to the honor maid's. The gowns featured blue velvet boleros and sashes, and the attendants wore matching velvet crownettes and carried muffs with corsages of bronze roses with carnation streamers.

Fay Meerzo was best man and ushers were Robert Short, the bride's brother, Robert Fredericksen and Charles Weber.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. Hugh Green of Jacksonville, Ill., sang the bridal recital.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Short wore a sweetheart blue gown of imported re-embroidered chiffon with an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a floor length gown of gold crepe which featured a topaz jeweled bodice and tiny cap sleeves and an orchid corsage.

Forest Lake Country Club was the setting for the reception after which the bride exchanged her wedding gown for a camel colored broadcloth suit with avocado accessories and a corsage of bronze roses with white accessories for a trip to New York city and Washington, D.C.

Upon their return the newlyweds will reside at Holiday Farms.

First Presbyterian Church was the setting for the Saturday wedding of Patricia Short and William Stoutenburg. She is the daughter of the Floyd Shorts of Niagara avenue, and he is the son of Mrs. Leo Stoutenburg of North Paddock street and the late Mr. Stoutenburg.

Hickory Nut Cake Is Real Treat

Mrs. J. H. Edwards Gives Recipe for Old Time Delicacy

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Should you be lucky enough to have some shelled hickory nuts — or ambitious enough to pick some out yourself, you'll be all set with this recipe for Hickory Nut Cake from Mrs. J. H. Edwards of Commerce. Hickory Nut Cake has always been considered a great delicacy.

Many of you who regularly attended the plays produced by the late William Viola some ten years ago will remember a small attractive, red-haired actress named Margaret Varney. She is our today's cook. All of her time at present is devoted to the care of a two-months old daughter.

HICKORY NUT CAKE
By Mrs. J. H. Edwards

2 cups sugar
3-3 cup butter or margarine
3 eggs
1 cup milk
3 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
Salt
1 cup hickory nuts, chopped fine

Cream butter or margarine and sugar. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Sift dry ingredients together and add alternately with the milk. Add chopped nuts. Pour into greased layer cake pans. Bake 30-40 minutes in a 375 degree oven. Frost as desired.

Hiding Our Own Feelings Forces Child to Hide His

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

At dinner tonight, we and our husband skid into an angry argument.

It begins when we tell him that we've accepted our sister's invitation for Sunday dinner. He says that we can count him out. He says that if he'd known he'd have to eat Sunday dinner with our sister for the rest of his life, he'd have gone to sea instead of getting married.

We feel great indignation. We cry, "Do as you like! I will not hurt my sister because you're sorry you married me!" Muttering something incoherent, the man we love shoves aside his plate and drives off to a downtown diner to get his supper.

Later, we slap our small son. In his bedroom, insteading of getting down to the business of undressing, Davy insists on pestering us with idiotic questions.

He wants to know why the bathroom glass would have broken if he'd dropped it. He wants to know what we'd do if he turned into a little pig like the one on the picture book beside his bed. And he presses for answers so stubbornly that we lose our temper.

This is understandable. We are too preoccupied with our own disturbed feelings to recognize them in Davy. So in his pestering questions, we can see only silliness instead of the anxiety they really express.

David is not, of course, seeking information on glass or pigs. The questions he wants to ask are, "Why did you and daddy shout at each other? If you hate each other, what will happen to me?"

He dares not ask these questions. We have given him cause to feel that any inquiry into our quarrel with his father is taboo. So he expresses his forbidden anxiety in inquires that fail to express it.

Thus, by our example of concealment of feeling, we teach him to conceal his.

If we can't admit our annoyance with Davy's father to him, we must be very angry indeed. Certainly, if we accept it as incidental to normal human give-and-take, we should have no trouble in making it acceptable to Davy.

And to his anxious, misdirected questions, we should be able to say, "Are you scared that daddy and I are going to stay mad at each other? Don't be. We don't stay mad at you very long, do we?"

There should be no taboo subjects for children's questions. Though we have the right to choose our answers, they have the right to open inquiry.

Rude Jolt May Change Girl's Mind

Acting Indifferent May Turn the Trick for Ignored Boy

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I've liked her for one whole solid year but she's never liked me. I've tried just about everything I could think of to make her like me. I see her everyday and every time I like her more. I'm not exactly a drip—my crowd consider me good-looking with plenty of personality. Obviously she doesn't. I need advice on what to do next!"

She's grown used to knowing that you like her that a rude jolt to her self-complacency might do the trick for you. Many a girl has changed her mind about a boy when she feels him slipping through her fingers.

Either her best friend, or her worst enemy will do as victim of your plot. Start making passes at one or the other. Make them obvious enough for your girl to see them. Sashay around the other girl, and treat your love to high-type indifference.

Get her to wondering what's up. And don't go falling all over yourself when she makes the first subtle move in your direction. Make her keep trying. Then abruptly let her catch you. She'll be so pleased with herself!

"Dear Miss Woodward: When I started going with my girl (six months ago) she was a nice kid and I liked her a lot. Now she hangs around with girls who are out for trouble. I'm afriad I'll lose her if I say anything about it, but I don't want her in trouble either. Please tell me what to do about it."

Does this girl like you as much as you like her? Are you really important in her life? Is she upset and unhappy when you're mad at her? Can you make her blue?

If so, you've nothing to lose in telling her exactly what you think of her new friends. You see more clearly than anyone else the direction she's heading in. She'll take it from you better than from anyone else. That is, if she likes you. And if she doesn't like you, you've already lost her!

"Dear Miss Woodward: We're in love and are planning to get married when she finishes school two years from now. I have quit school and taken a job so I could save some money for our future. But now I've lost my job and can't find work.

Everyone tells me I should go back to school and not worry about the future because I'm too young to be thinking about marriage, but I'll be 19 when she gets out of school. What do you think I should do?"

It's highly possible you lost your job and can't find other work because of your lack of maturity and lack of education. In which case the only way to insure a really sound future is to get more of both. You'll get and hold down a better job with training now! So get back to school and get ready to take a job on which you can get married.

Offer Food to Stranger If Friendly

Couple Thinks That Fellow Traveler Can Be Included

By EMILY POST

Today's first letter tells me: "My husband and I and my sister went to visit our parents recently in another city. It was an eight-hour trip on the train and I brought along some cookies and a box of candy to eat on the way.

My husband and I sat together and my sister sat across the aisle next to a young woman. I passed the cookies and candy to my sister several times but did not offer any to her seat companion. My sister thinks that I should have offered her some and that it was impolite not to do so. My husband is inclined to agree with her. I would like your opinion on this matter.

If she had been friendly, and she and your sister had been having a conversation, then you would have offered her the candy and cookies; but if she sat in complete silence or reading a book, you would not have.

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband has taken steps to legally adopt my seven-year-old son, and I would like to know if there is a form of some kind that I can send out to our friends notifying them of this fact and also of his change of name.

Such an announcement would be worded:

Mr. John Smith
Announces the adoption of his wife's son whose name hereafter will be James Smith

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it rude to tell someone how to pronounce my name if they mispronounce it quite badly?

It need not be rude if you do it tractfully. That is, if you say, "My name is impossibly difficult to everyone, but we pronounce it . . .

Cobb Takes It All Back About Floor

By HUBBARD COBB

We once mentioned in this column that if you couldn't get hold of a floor sander to remove the finish from a floor prior to refinishing, you could do the job with a hand scraper.

Well, a couple of weeks ago we had occasion to refinish a floor and as it was a sort of holiday, we couldn't get hold of a floor sander for love or money. So, we decided to do the job by hand. It didn't turn out to be as much fun as we had expected.

The trick in scraping a floor down with a hand sander is to have a good sharp sander. It's best to keep a file handy to dress up the cutting edge as it becomes dulled.

We tried making the job go faster by softening up the finish but we soon gave this up as a bad idea because the finish then stuck to the scraper and made things just that much more difficult. Also, as the finish became soft it seeped into the wood deeper and so there was that much more scraping to do.

You have to be careful with a hand scraper because if you don't hold the blade perfectly flat on the surface all the time, the corners tend to bite into the wood and leave deep scratches. We found that to get proper control you have to use both hands, one on the handle of the scraper and one on the body of the scraper.

It's also important to scrape in the direction of the wood grain. You can get the finish off faster by scraping cross grain but it leaves the wood very rough.

Finally, we suggest that you equip yourself with some of these knee pads because it's mighty hard on the knees. Also have a bottle of linament handy for some of those sore muscles that you'll wake up with the following morning.

McBride Tells About Suffering

After Darkness Comes the Light

By MARY MARGARET McBRIDE

There's a medical curiosity being studied by doctors, I hear, a young man who does not know the sensation of pain. He can crack his shin, burn his finger, bump his head and feel no hurt. He never suffers from toothache or sunburn, all because, I suppose, his nervous system doesn't transmit messages to his brain.

When I first heard about the young man, I envied him. But I've found out since that, he's really to be pitied, for physical pain is our body's alarm system and warns us when something isn't working right, sends us flying to the doctor, hustling to the dentist. We get a headache and rest aching strained eyes because it hurts, we favor a sprained ankle and thus keep it from further harm.

The strange story of the young man who can't feel pain reminds me of my preacher grandfather explaining sorrow to me when I was eight. The mother of a little girl in my class at school had died and I had seen my friend, bewildered and heart-broken, trying to understand that her mother would never come back.

"But WHY, Pa, WHY did this happen to Essie Mae?" I demanded. I somehow felt that it wasn't fair for my mother, and Sallie Jo's and Anna Lois', to be alive when Essie Mae's was dead.

"You are asking why human beings have to suffer," Pa said, drawing me to his knees. "Men and women ask that, too. Daughter, I believe it is part of God's plan just as are the seasons and rain and snow and sunshine.

Without all these you know there would be no flowers in the front yard, no green grass, no radishes and lettuce. The little tulip bulb that your mother sets out has to have cold just as later it has to have warmth. In the same way, the human spirit needs sorrow to flower."

Then my grandfather, with a faraway look in his eyes, told me a story about a little girl he knew who grew up into a haughty, mean-spirited young woman whom everybody was beginning to shun and dislike until sorrow came to her. Everything she had was taken from her—and she learned from suffering to be good and kind.

Maybe it sounds too simple the way my grandfather put it to a child but the longer I live, the more certain I feel that he was right—that mental anguish is a crucible from which issues eventually compassion, understanding and mercy. Those who have never encountered suffering on this level, the ones who have resolutely turned away from it, somehow seem to have cyphers instead of souls.

They are perennial children who if confronted with a situation that requires mature contemplation are in as grave a predicament as the young man who can't feel pain when his appendix flares up.

I don't understand why this should be, but I am convined that pain—physical and mental—is as much a part of growing up as happiness and a sense of well-being, as essential to the human naturing process as the combination of first cold then heat to Mam's tulips.

Try It

Play 'What's My Name'

Here is a game that is fun and yet the players will need to move around to win!

The next time that you have a group together ask them if they would like to play What's My Name? You will need some large-sized cards and a dark colored crayon. On each card print the name of a person who is well known to the group. I have suggested Superman, Daniel Boone, Trigger, and Annie Oakley. Two players can start.

They must close their eyes while a card with a name is pinned to their backs. At the word "Go," they try to keep the other player from seeing the name on their back. Their arms must be kept folded and they cannot touch the other person in any way until one calls out the correct name. Have them stay on a rug or draw a circle on the floor. This is a game full of fun for all, players and watchers.

Have you noticed our new dog who seems to have his nose in Try It so often? He is a real dog and his name is Mr. Podunk.

This Versatile Baritone Peddles Wife's Aprons

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"I am receptionist in a casting office," a young woman writes, "and the other day I saw something really cute, which has to do with a young wife making money at home.

"I am new in my job," she continues, "and I love it. Our office handles singers, and all day long they come in for auditions and jobs and the hope of jobs. So I get their names and information, and so forth.

"The other day a very nice baritone came in, and my boss did want to see him about a possible television bit. But of course he had to wait, and so he sat down.

"In our office there are very many people waiting always; in fact, they get to know each other, from making the rounds. I noticed that this young man, whom I shall call John, knew some of the people there, and they got chatting.

"One of the girls asked him if he had any aprons with him. At first I thought I hadn't heard right, but that's what she had said: 'Have you any of the aprons with you?'

"Well, the baritone took up his briefcase and opened it, and inside were some of the most adorable dress-up aprons you ever saw.

The girl bought one then and there. The price was just two dollars, and such a bargain! And one of the men said his wife wanted another, so he bought one, too. Next thing you know, I was looking at them, and I bought one to give my sister for her birthday.

"I asked John about it, and he told me his wife is at home with the kids, and often gets lonely while he is out making the rounds and sometimes singing at night. So she started making these aprons, and is very good at it. Since she gets remnants cheap, she can sell them for two dollars and still have a profit.

"John said that he got the idea of peddling them for her. After all, he said, she can't do it herself, since she's stuck at home with the kids, and he gets around plenty, from one casting office to another. He said quite a few people buy them, and he now has some regular customers!"

Many thanks to this receptionist for her good "talent scouting." If any of you ever come upon an interesting story involving a pin-money hobby, do let me know and I will pass it on to other women.

Ends Opposition to Ferguson Job

Rep. Patman Withdraws Objection; Appointment to Hoover Group

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Patman (D-Tex) said he will not block today, as he did last week, a measure to continue former Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich) as a member of the Hoover Commission on government reorganization.

Patman last Monday objected to the bill when it came to the House floor under procedure requiring unanimous consent for passage. The legislation is required if Ferguson is to stay on the 12-man commission, because he was defeated for Senate re-election last fall.

House Majority Leader McCormack (D-Mass) said he will call up again today the measure which has already passed the Senate without opposition.

Although he said he would not renew his formal objection this time, Patman said in an interview that he thinks it is a "pretty big responsibility" for Congress to appoint a man "against the wishes of the People." He added he personally likes Ferguson. Ferguson was originally named to the commission as one of its congressional members.

Ferguson could not be reached for comment. A spokesman for the commission said Ferguson's continued service is deemed valuable because of the work he has already put in on commission studies. There is precedent, he added, for keeping on a legislative member who failed to be reelected.

Under the bill Ferguson, who drew no pay for the job while he was a Senator, could collect a $50 daily allowance for commission work provided he does not take some other government position in the meantime.

New Cars Fast Enough to Make a Terrible Mess

By MARGARET LATROBE

According to newspaper analyses of business outlook for 1955, the automobile industry is expecting its biggest year. (See if you can lift the girl out—the man is already dead—is that the ambulance siren I hear?—Thank God they're close, she can't last much longer . . .)

And the new convertibles are baby blue, flaming red. (Yellow as the hair of the girl's head who lies at the roadside. Red as the cushions soaked with blood—blue as the lifeless hands . . .)

And the speed of the new cars—how fast do you think they will go? (Fast enough my friend, to snap off a metal signpost. Fast enough to crumple steel chassis like tissue paper. Fast enough to skid on ice and rain-swept highway. Plenty fast enough for the final ride . . .)

Well, what about it? Over the Christmas and New Year weekends a record was set in automobile fatalities. Car manufacturers have given us their best, and we give—what?

If there is a single industry in this country which has given more toward making America go places, which has developed design, engineering and sales possibilities to a higher degree, I don't know of it.

And what have we done with the automobile industry's best—? We've made the worst mess imaginable. We slap the wrists of drunken drivers. Naughty boy—please don't drink and drive, we say. We wink at speed limits.

We bribe officials when we can. "I'll fix it up, John. I know the right guy at the court house." We set up coffee bars along the highways, if you please, to help sober up the gay brood who can't make it home without help.

We permit just about anybody who can walk, to drive. We are pleased when somebody recovers from heart trouble and "is able to drive again." And isn't it divine that Aunt Martha, aged 78, who can't see three feet beyond her nose, is such a great old girl that she wheels downtown whenever she feels like it? How far from the train do you live? Gee—you can make it in six minutes? And in that cute old 1930 crate?

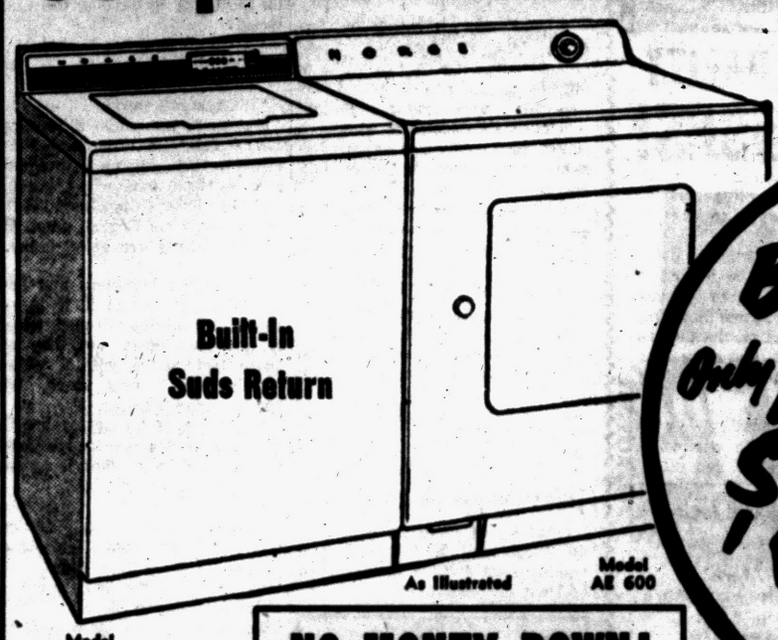

More new cars? Hooray. They should all be new, they should all have power brakes, power steering, power everything. I only wish the brains behind steering wheels functioned as powerfully as the new model cars. I only wish driving licenses were as hard to get—and keep—as an airline pilot's.

The automobile industry has given us its best. Is there no way for us to give it ours?

'Kissing Jim' Back in Capitol

Political 'Dead Duck' Takes Oath for Second Term as Alabama Chief

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Towering James E. (Big Jim) Folsom, whom critics "buried" as a political dead duck four years ago, came back to the Capitol for a second term as Alabama governor today, just as he said he would.

His inauguration, surpassing anything Alabama has ever witnessed for pomp and pageantry, was scheduled to follow a four-hour parade of 122 bands, 74 floats and an estimated 10,000 marchers.

Folsom, 46, prohibited by law from seeking re-election to succeed himself after his first term, was eligible to run again in 1954. He won the Democratic nomination over six opponents without a runoff, then easily defeated his Republican opponent in the November general election.

The happy-go-lucky attitude that gained him a nationwide reputation as "Kissing Jim" has faded into the past, and in its place is a stern, businesslike, serious man.

With an apparent voting majority in the new Legislature, the incoming governor is expected to call a series of three immediate special sessions to put his program over. It will cost upwards of 23 million dollars a year in additional tax revenue.

Visiting Eskimo Dispels Notions About His Race

By SAUL PETT
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP)—I met my first Eskimo the other day and he went right to work on most of my illusions.

Puppygitwok - Koopuaok, who hails from a remote town in Alaska, said he had never lived in an igloo and, in fact, had never seen one.

He had never rubbed noses with anyone until he came to New York and was persuaded to sideswipe a model's nostrils for a publicity picture. Eskimos kiss like the rest of us, he said.

And if she could afford it, what would Mrs. Puppygitwok-Koopuaok most like to have in the whole world?

"A coat," said her husband.

What kind of a coat?

"Mink," he said.

"It's a small world."

But there are some differences. There was one difference I had difficulty bringing up with Puppygitwok - Koopuaok, who hereafter will be known as Reed Henry since that is his English name and the typesetters are going crazy.

After much hemming and hawing, I finally asked if it is still true that Eskimos are such friendly, generous hosts that they will share their wives with a visitor.

"It's true," said Reed, who speaks some English.

Well, now, if I may localize the question, if it's not too personal, but, well, do you, that is to say, . . . Oh, forget it, Reed.

"No, he doesn't," volunteered Dr. E. S. Rabeau, an American physician from Reed's home town who came down from Alaska with him. "Many of the more advanced Eskimo families don't do that. That is to say, they're not that generous. But among those who do, it's not considered immoral."

Thank you, doctor.

Reed is a polite, handsome man with black hair, a pencil thin mustache and a big, white grin. He wore a checked shirt and gabardine trousers. Over that, he wore a deerskin parka, shoes made of oogrook—a cross between a sea lion and seal—and calf skin, leggings made of timber wolf fur. His mittens were two wolf heads—the lower jaw being the thumb piece. One mitten originally belonged to the same wolf Reed now wore on his legs. He shot it.

His home is in Kotzebue, which has 1,100 people and is about 150 miles from Siberia. Reed, who sells outboard motors and also works for a barge company at home, came to town for the motorboat show.

He calls his wife Nellie. In their Eskimo dialect, it's Kalookrok. They have five children—Pauline, Roderick, Emmett, Shirley Ann and Mildred, otherwise known respectively as Toonoonatook, Koonookok, Immeahluk, Sooyook and Ahveesuk.

Reed, who is 36, had never been more than 50 miles from home before. In Kotzebue, there are no phones, no cars, only six trucks, no television. There are radios, on which Reed prefers the hillbilly music, and there is one 16mm movie theater, where he favors Westerns.

What did he think of New York?

"Ahneerorahpuk," he said.

Translation: "A very big camp."

Nab Evangelist After Gun Fight

Hounds Locate Texan Hiding Out in Church; Deputy Wounded

WAXAHACHIE, Tex. (AP) — Bloodhounds found a part-time lay evangelist cowering under a church pew last night after he shot down a deputy sheriff.

Six-foot, raw-boned J. P. Townsend, boastful and threatening a few hours earlier when he shot it out with three officers, crawled meekly from under the pew and surrendered.

His capture abruptly ended a big manhunt through the woody bottoms of Waxahachie Creek. More than 50 officers, armed with high-powered rifles and shotguns and angry over the shooting of a fellow officer, had scoured the darkened brushland.

Deputy Sheriff Robert Rogers, shot in the hip when he and two other peace officers approached Townsend to question him about a traffic complaint, was not seriously hurt.

A highway patrolman said Townsend became a part-time lay evangelist after his release several years ago from the Texas Penitentiary, where he had served an assault and robbery sentence.

The three officers had gone to Townsend's home after receiving a complaint from a motorist that the towsel-haired man had sideswiped his car and sped away. Sheriff Burl White said they arrived to find that Townsend had been drinking and "just couldn't be reasoned with."

The sheriff said he will file assault to murder charges today.

Show New Method to Make Engravings

DETROIT (AP)—A new time-saving engraving process was among displays exhibited at the opening session of the 10th annual Great Lakes Newspaper Mechanical Conference yesterday.

The process cuts the time required to etch a plate for newspaper reproduction from one-half to one-fifth the normal time.

Discussions yesterday covered the nine-column page, line casting machines and the teletypesetter.

More than 750 delegates from the mechanical departments of 250 Great Lakes region newspapers are attending the three-day conference.

Thief Tracked to Lair by Footprints in Snow

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—For officers investigating a $33 hotel robbery yesterday it was relatively simple to walk across a parking lot and arrest the culprit in his hiding place between two steel pillars along the wall of a building.

Seems the bandit had forgotten about the two inches of fresh snow on the ground, in which his footprints were clearly outlined.

State Department Report

Says Suspected Employes Free of Communist Ties

WASHINGTON (INS) — Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-S.C.), said he has been told by the State Department that "not one" of its employes named by Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy in 1950 as a security risk has been found to be "a Communist or disloyal" to the U.S.

The new chairman of the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee said in a formal statement last night that he disired "to clear up" the facts "concerning governmental employes as to whether any of them have been found to be Communists or disloyal to our government. . ."

Johnston pointed out that McCarthy declared in February, 1950, that "I hold in my hand the names of 205 members of the Communist party now employed in the State Department," and later said, "I hold in my hand the names of 57 card-carrying Communists now employed in the State Department."

The facts are, said Johnston, that after the Tydings Committee had investigated McCarthy's charges in 1950, and found them to be untrue, they still are.

Johnston said that because of the "confusion in the public mind" as to whether the Tydings Committee was "whitewashing" State Department security risks, as charged, he asked the department last month to clear up the matter of alleged subversive employes.

He said: "By letter the State Department has now informed me that not one of these persons who were investigated by the Tydings Committee in 1950 has been proved to be or found to be a Communist or disloyal to our government.

"In that letter to me the State Department stated that three of the persons the Wisconsin senator had originally charged had resigned or been dropped from the State Department rolls, but that none of these three were found to be Communists or disloyal. . ."

Johnston added that the department further verified the committee findings by stating that of the 80-odd names given to that group by McCarthy as persons then employed, only 40 were actually employed by the department in 1950.

The South Carolinian said he was told that 12 of the 40 1950 state employes are still with the department and that 10 others have been transferred to other U.S. agencies.

Johnston asserted that the department's letter "should clear up this matter for all time" and said he hoped "in due time to look into charges in other departments and agencies of the government."

Marilyn Monroe Suspended Again by 20th Century

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Marilyn Monroe is on suspension for the second time in a year at 20th Century-Fox for failing to report for work.

Darryl F. Zanuck, production head at the studio, said Marilyn was suspended Saturday for not showing up for work on "How to Be Very, Very Popular," the Nunnally Johnson comedy.

A studio spokesman said Miss Monroe has expressed dissatisfaction with her role in the movie. She has stated that she wants to act in "The Brothers Karamazov," a dramatic Russian story.

Sheree North will take over the comedy role, Zanuck said. Miss North will take over another role originally scheduled for Marilyn in the movie "Pink Tights."

Miss Monroe was suspended in January 1954 by the same studio after she failed to report for work for "Pink Tights." The actress said at that time she had not been given a chance to see the script before being assigned to the picture.

Marilyn has been at odds with 20th Century-Fox, and recently said she planned to "incorporate" herself and go into production, television and "all kinds of things."

Noble Arrives in States Today

Detroiter Freed by Reds to Be Met in New York by Parents Later

NEW YORK (AP) — John H. Noble, 31, finally got back to his native country today after spending the war years in Germany and the last 9½ years as a Soviet prisoner.

A transatlantic airliner landed the former Detroit resident at Idlewild Airport early today.

Noble, recently released by the Russians, told newsmen he has no immediate plans for the future. "I have to see what my parents are doing. For 9½ years I have lost complete connections with anything outside of prison," he said.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noble of Detroit were on their way to meet him.

Noble, a dark-haired man of medium height, explained that his father returned to his native Germany in 1938 to be treated for a gall bladder ailment. The son accompanied him.

"We were interned locally by the Germans on Sept. 3, 1939," Noble said. "When the United States entered the war, we had to register every third day with the police in Dresden."

After the Russians captured the city in 1945, he said, he and his father were arrested. The father was released in 1952.

Noble said no charges were placed against them but apparently they were held because they had American food in their home and received American soldiers there.

At the airport Noble said again today that he believes Stalin's son Lt. Gen. Vassily Stalin is in Lubrianka Prison in Moscow.

Noble and another Soviet prisoner, Pvt. William C. Marchuk, of Norristown, Pa., were released early this month. The Russians never explained why they decided to let them go.

6 Prison Escapees Hunted in Michigan

OWOSSO (AP)—Six escapees from the Virginia State Penitentiary were sought in Michigan today.

A statewide alert was put out by State Police after a watchman in nearby Durand saw a car with Virginia license plates and six men passing through there Saturday night. State Police said the watchman's descriptions of the six matched those of the convicts who broke out of the prison at Richmond, Va., Friday night.

One of the six, Woodrow Beavers, 35, also is wanted in Michigan for parole violation.

Dulles Pleads Case for Lower Tariffs

Testifies Today on Ike's Plan

Benson, Stassen Also to Take Stand Before House Committee

WASHINGTON (INS)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles goes before the House Ways and Means Committee today to open the administration case for lowering the trade barriers with the free world.

Dulles was to testify at a morning session of the committee which is opening several weeks of hearings on President Eisenhower's proposals to extend the Reciprocal Trade Act for three years and add power to reduce tariffs.

Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson and foreign aid chief Harold E. Stassen were to follow Dulles as witnesses in behalf of the government program to expand export markets for U.S. commodities by increasing world trade.

The proposals have strong Democratic support, and House and Senate leaders have already promised to push the legislation through quickly.

About half of the GOP members of Congress and scattered Democrats are against easing trade restrictions. The mining industry, independent oil producers and companies selling hand-manufactured goods are the principal opponents.

Proponents of lower barriers to trade with nations abroad will continue to testify during the rest of the week and possibly through the beginning of next week.

More than 50 requests to testify have been received by the committee from opponents of the President's proposals, with more expected. Committee sources said the hearings probably will last at least three weeks.

Besides requesting extension of his power to make trade agreements with other countries, the President asked Congress to:

1. Allow him to lower tariffs on most imported goods 5 per cent a year for three years, where the legal limit already has been reached in present trade agreements.

2. Give him the power to lower tariffs up to 50 per cent on products that are imported in negligible quantities or not coming in at all.

3. Simplify customs procedures.

4. Approve a proposal to join an international finance corporation that is designed to increase private investment in underdeveloped countries.

5. Allow traveling Americans to bring $1,000 in foreign goods back into the U.S. without paying customs duties on them. The present limit is $500.

6. Approve funds to continue government support for U.S. entries in international trade fairs.

7. Continue support for financing technical help to underdeveloped nations.

8. Lower taxes 28 per cent on profits of U.S. business from investments abroad.

In presenting his program to Congress a week ago, President Eisenhower declared that the U.S. must allow the free nations of the world to trade with this country or expect them to do business with Iron Curtain countries.

Air Force to Probe C119 Engine Failures

GREENVILLE, S. C. (AP)—The 18th Air Force yesterday ordered special inspections of the engines of its 92 Flying Boxcar planes participating in training Exercise Snowbird in Alaska.

Headquarters of the 18th at Donaldson Air Force Base here said in a statement that the special periodic engine inspections will be "continued as long as necessary or until investigations being conducted in connection with the four Alaskan airlift C-119 incidents reveal the cause for failures of the C119 engines."

Pilots parachuted their airborne infantrymen passengers during the four recent emergencies. One plane crashed, killing two.

The mishaps occurred as the planes airlifted more than 3,000 airborne infantrymen to the exercise.

Town 'Bails Out' Leaders Jailed in Polio Campaign

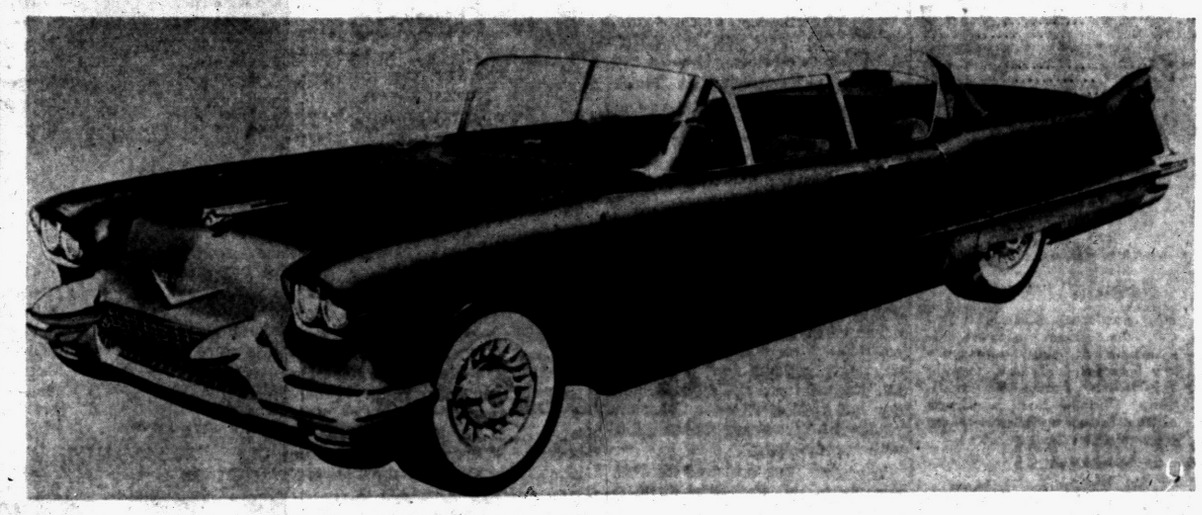

ST. CLOUD, Minn. (UP)—The mayor and 14 others community leaders were bailed out of jail yesterday.

The men agreed to be locked up until citizens pledged enough "bail money" at $100 a man to the March of Dimes fund to get them out.

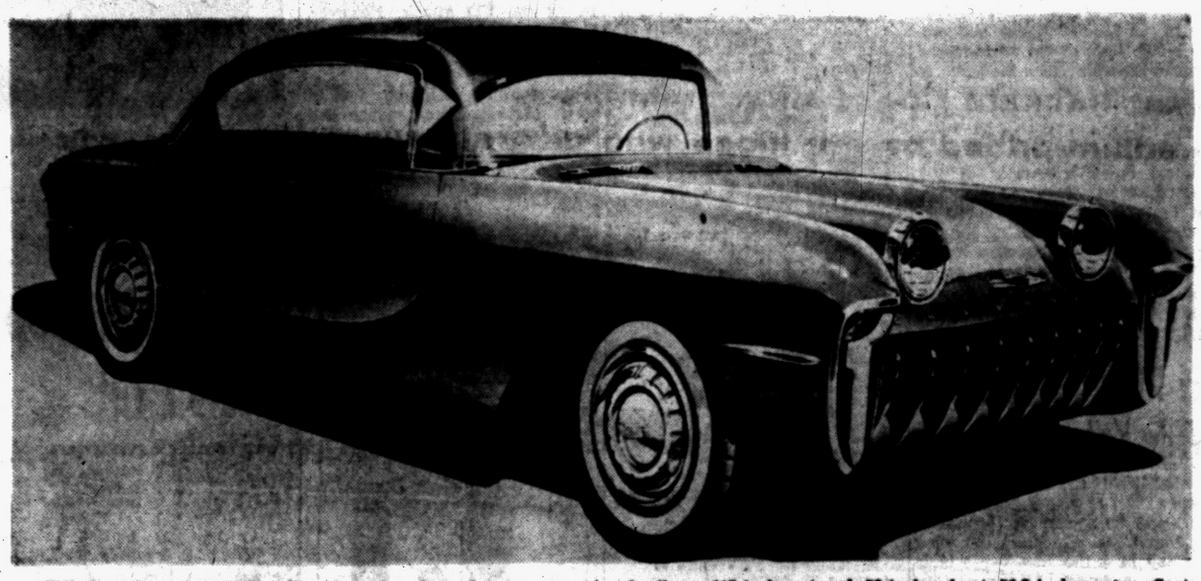

Townsmen came to their rescue with $3,000 in a 3½ hour "bail-a-thon," featuring the men singing "If I Had the Wings of An Angel."

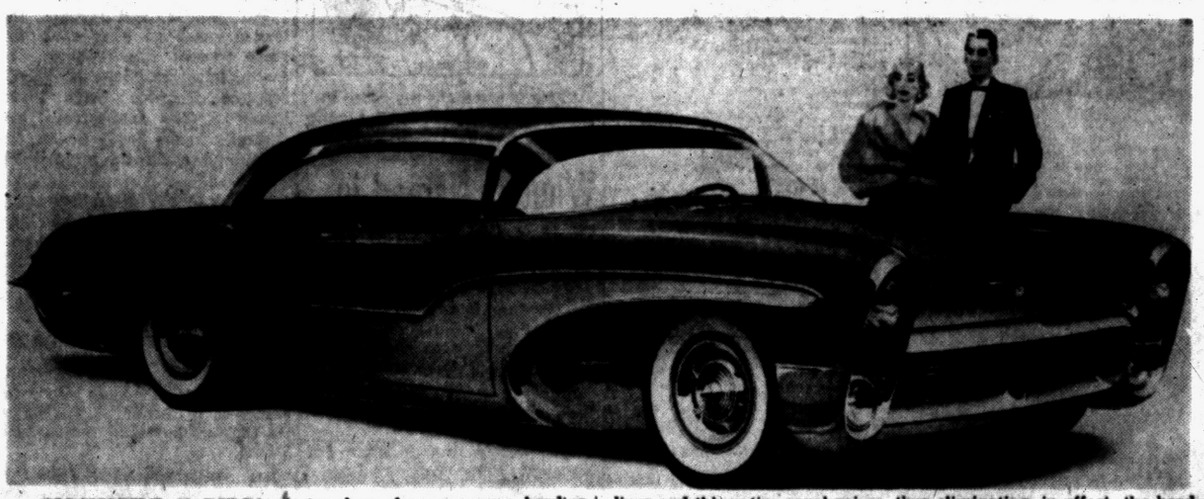

BUICK WILDCAT III—A two-door, four-passenger toy convertible powered by a 280 horsepower Buick V-8 engine with a 9-1 compression ratio and equipped with four carburetors. Overall length is 190.5 inches; width, 72 inches; height, 51.75 inches; road clearance, 6 inches; wheelbase, 110 inches; tread, 60 inches front and rear. Is named in honor of Jim Kimberly, famous sports car racer. The car features a sloping belt-line and the rear wheels are completely exposed. The fine screen grille is wide and low and the parking and directional lights are housed in the bumper bombs. Air intakes near the front bumpers and on the rear fenders serve to provide brake cooling. All seats are of the bucket type.

CADILLAC ELDORADO BROUGHAM—A four-passenger, four-door sedan powered by a 280 horsepower Cadillac V-8 engine; length, 209.6 inches; width, 77.5 inches; height, 54.4 inches; road clearance, 6 inches; wheelbase, 124 inches; tread, 60 inches front, 61 inches rear. The four individual seats are tailored for individual passenger comfort. The front seats pivot out for ease of entrance and exit. No side pillar hinders entrance to the rear seats. There are two compartments for driver and front seat passenger, one on the control panel and the other between the two front seats. The control panel is designed to give the driver maximum visibility of and accessibility to the instruments at all times.

CHEVROLET BISCAYNE—This is a four-door, four-passenger sedan powered by a 215 horsepower modified Turbo-Fire V-8 high compression engine with 4-barrel carburetor; overall length, 185.7 inches; width, 69 inches; height, 52.5 inches; road clearance, 6 inches; wheelbase, 115 inches; tread, 56 inches front, 56.8 inches rear. Seats also are set closer to door and the floor is dropped to the bottom level of the frame.

OLDSMOBILE 88 DELTA—A two-door, four-passenger hardtop coupe powered by a 250 horsepower Rocket engine; overall length, 201 inches; width, 74 inches; height, 53 inches; road clearance, 6 inches; wheelbase, 120 inches; tread, 59 inches front, 58.5 inches rear. The hood extends the full lateral distance between the fender crown lines and this entire panel raises, thus eliminating, in effect, the hood cut-lines. A horizontal bumper blade wraps around the entire rear end of the car and extends forward to the front fender surface. Dual exhaust stacks serve as rear bumper guards.

7 Dream Cars in Motorama

All General Motors Divisions List New Experimentals

Seven new experimental cars are the automotive stars of General Motors 1955 Motorama which will open in New York Thursday.

GM President Harlow H. Curtice calls the vehicles "one of the most impressive groups of experimental cars to appear on the automotive scene since the dream car idea was started 17 years ago."

"We have given our styling people free rein in developing the new dream cars," Curtice explains."

The dream cars were designed by the GM styling staff under the direction of Harley J. Earl. The vehicles will be featured in the 1955 Motorama on its nationwide road trip to Miami, Feb. 5-13; Los Angeles, Mar. 5-13; San Francisco, Mar. 26-April 3; and Boston, April 23-May 1.

Included are the Chevrolet "Biscayne," the Pontiac "Strato Star," Buick's "Wildcat III," the 88 Delta" by Oldsmobile, Cadillac's "Eldorado Brougham," and two cars developed by General Motors styling and engineering, the "LaSalle II" sports coupe and the "LaSalle II" sedan.

Although the new dream cars include one two-passenger sports coupe, the emphasis is on more passenger room. Besides the two-passenger coupe, the group includes two six-passenger and four four-passenger cars.

Among the design innovations featured on the 1955 versions is the sculptured styling of the Chevrolet Biscayne, a concave section sculptured along the body from the front door line clear to the rear of the car, where it wraps around the body housing wrap-around bumperettes.

The Biscayne also features a three-way Panoramic windshield to give the driver greater visibility by extending the windshield above the normal vision line. The upper third of his astra-dome windshield is tinted to prevent sun glare. The Biscayne is a four-door four-passenger sedan.

The Pontiac Strato Star, a six-passenger, two-door hardtop, features a Panoramic quarter glass on each side in the rear, giving all passengers practically unobstructed vision in all directions. Two narrow struts in the rear and the front corner posts support the roof. The low, sleek Strato Star also features automatic access panels. As the doors are opened, a paneled portion just over each door automatically raises to allow ample room for entrance to or exit. As the doors are closed, the panels automatically slip into place again. A photo of the Strato Star appeared in Saturday's Press.

On the 88 Delta, a four-passenger two-door hardtop by Oldsmobile, special treatment of the instrument panel is one of the most intriguing features. A detached horizontal strut extending from side to side just below the steering wheel carries all the instrumentation.

Between the strut and the front interior paneling of the car is a four inch clearance which lends a feeling of roominess to the car. The airfoil type strut also houses a serving tray which can be pulled out from the bottom at the right side.

The only convertible in the dream car group is Buick's Wildcat III, a four-passenger job featuring a compound curved Panoramic windshield designed to lessen the wind problem for passengers riding with the top down. The compound curvature of the windshield decreases the wind problem.

A novel air intake system also is featured on the Wildcat III. The intake portals reach the entire width of the car just in front of the windshield and the hood plateau lines extending toward the front of the car from either side of the air vents are parallel.

Only one of the 1955 dream cars is of steel construction—the Cadillac Eldorado Brougham, a four-passenger, four-door sedan. All seats in the car are individually tailored and the two front seats pivot outward to allow passengers the easier entrance. There is no side pillar to hinder entrance to the rear seats.

All of the dream cars except the Eldorado are of reinforced fiber glass construction.

Replacing the gas turbine "Firebird", of the '54 Motorama, as the General Motors entry in the '55 show car fleet will be two cars, one a two-passenger sports coupe and the other a six-passenger sedan. Both bear the name of LaSalle II, after the original 1927 car designed for Cadillac.

The LaSalle II sedan also has an Astra-Dome windshield, similar to that of the Chevrolet Biscayne.

The LaSalle II sports coupe, the only two-passenger car among the dream cars, also is lightweight and minimal sized.

New Air Raid Siren Ready for Testing Here Saturday

Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of articles dealing with Oakland County Civil Defense activities.

First test of what has been termed the keystone of Pontiac's civil defense—a huge air raid warning siren—will take place at 1 p.m. Saturday.

The siren, located atop the Pontiac State Bank Building, is powered by a 180-horsepower industrial engine, and is expected to be heard in most sections of the city.

Purpose of the initial test will be to determine exactly how far the siren's wails can be heard, said William L. Collins, assistant director of civil defense for Pontiac.

"Police cars and volunteers will be stationed in outlying areas to report the extent of the sound," Collins said.

Mounted on a 16-by-16-foot platform on the bank building's penthouse, the big siren revolves three times each minute on its base.

A three-stage compressor forces air into a battery of six horns at a speed of more than 400 miles an hour. As the air passes through the openings, a six-blade rotary chopper cuts the flow, producing sound.

For the test, the siren will be triggered from the police radio control room located in the penthouse.

"The decision as to the place of a permanent control center won't be made until after he test," Collins said.

Saturday, the siren will sound the "red" alert, which indicates imminent attack, then the "all-clear."

"The 'red' is a three-minute wailing sound," Collins explained. "The 'all-clear' is three one-minute blasts with two minutes of silence between."

The 1 p.m. time was picked to coincide with the weekly testing of Detroit's 20-odd sirens, which are duplicates of the Pontiac device.

Collins said the plan is to test the siren weekly after the remote control system has been established. Therefor, a second sounding of the siren is not expected for several weeks.

City Manager Walter K. Willman, civil defense head for the city, has said the siren will act as a stimulus to civil defense planning and activity.

"Until we have some device for warning the people, our civil defense is stymied," he said.

But lack of a warning device has not completely thwarted civil defense activities here. Each week hundreds of volunteers in different phases of defense meet to learn and practice important techniques.

Tuesday and Friday mornings, City Parks and Recreation Dept. and city cemetery workers receive instructions in first aid and rescue work.

On Tuesday nights, police and fire fighting auxiliaries attend civil defense instructional meetings.

Chiefs-Jacks Meet in Crucial SVC Test

By BILL MARTIN

Pontiac High and Arthur Hill, both undefeated in Saginaw Valley Conference play, collide Tuesday night at Saginaw in a game that should go a long way toward determining the 1954-55 Valley basketball champion.

The clash is the only conference contest of the night. The only other league team in action is Flint Central, which plays host to Midland of the Arrowhead Conference.

Tuesday's game must be rated strictly a tossup. Pontiac has the better over-all season's record—4-1 to Arthur Hill's 5-2—and holds an edge in height and comparative scores. Lumberjacks, however, boast a higher-scoring offense and, of course, have the advantage of playing on their home court.

Both teams are comprised of seasoned lettermen who got their experience the hard way last season, when they finished in a tie for last place in the Valley. Starting lineups Tuesday will be essentially the same as in the final game of the 1953-54 league campaign. Arthur Hill won that tilt, 44-39.

Here's the way the rivals compare statistically:

Pontiac:

	Grade	Pos.	Ht.	Ave.
James	Jr.	F	6-3	12
King	Jr.	F	5-11	3.4
Blacklaw	Sr.	C	6-4	15.2
Poe	Sr.	G	5-10	14
Johnston	Sr.	G	6	7.2

Arthur Hill

McMahon	Sr.	F	6	12
Feidt	Sr.	F	6	14.1
DiJack	Sr.	C	6-2	6.5
Jones	Sr.	G	6-2	7
Lee	Jr.	G	5-7	8.4

Team statistics show Pontiac with a 53.8 point offensive average in five games and a 46.8 defensive mark. Lumberjacks have outscored seven opponents by an average margin of 58-52.7 points.

Against three common valley foes—Flint Northern and Central and Saginaw—Pontiac posted a much wider margin of victory. Chiefs defeated the three squads by a total edge of 37 points, while Arthur Hill won by a combined 15-point advantage.

Tuesday's game will be the 43rd between the two teams since Pontiac entered the Valley in 1933. Arthur Hill, which won or shared 12 league titles during that span, holds a 27-15 victory edge in the series. Pontiac hasn't beaten the Lumberjacks since 1952.

4:07.9 at Boston

Danish Miler Is Threat to Indoor Standard

BOSTON (AP) — The track world today was talking about Denmark's lanky, blond Gunnar Nielson, whose 4:07.9 clocking in his American mile debut stamps him as a threat to Gil Dodds' world indoor mark of 4:05.3.

The 26-year-old pressman for a printing firm staged a firehorse-finish Saturday night to nail Fred Dwyer, former Villanova ace, in the feature of the K of C games in Boston Garden.

Only third with two laps left of the 11-lap route, Nielson sprinted the rest of the way to win by four yards. It was a stunning performance by a runner new to American boards and in the United States only three days.

And, Nielson said right after the race, "I can do better."

He said he was bothered by the board track, and he didn't like the "fog" (Smoke) but added:

"I'll get used to it. I can do better, maybe about 4:05."

Highlights among a list of top-flight performances were a new world indoor high-jump mark of 6 feet 10 inches by Herman Wyatt of the Armed Forces team and a 1:10 clocking in the 600-yard run by 19-year-old Charlie Jenkins of Villanova.

Other winners included Harrison Dillard in the 45-yard hurdles (5.9), Ron Delany of Ireland in the 1,000 (2:10.2), Bob Richards in the pole vault (15-3¾) and Horace Ashenfelter in the 2-mile (9:03.4).

Wyatt bettered the recognized indoor mark of 6-9⅞ set by Ken Wiesner.

Tough Task Faces Wolfpack

League-leading Clarkston of the Wayne-Oakland League has its work cut out.

After dropping a one-point decision to Oxford in their season opener, Dominic Mauti's short, but sharp-shooting aggregation has rang up five straight wins and leads the W-O circuit with a 3-0 record.

Just a half-game back, however, is power-packed Milford, sporting a 76-point average for its six games, five victories and a one-point conference setback at Keego Harbor.

Clarkston takes to the road this week for vital league games at Northville and Clarenceville. Milford plays Clarenceville and Oxford before colliding with the Wolves Jan. 25 at Clarkston.

The Wolves' Tuesday night game at Northville is the feature game on a slim mid-week league schedule in Oakland County, but a number of non-conference tilts are on tap, foremost of which brings Rochester to Keego Harbor.

Gene Konley's hot-and-cold Falcons took 3 of their first 4 games, but have lost three straight. Keego also won 3 out of 4 before being upset at Holly Friday night.

In the only other league action tomorrow night Holly goes to Brighton in the Wayne-Oakland, East Detroit is at Hazel Park in the Eastern Michigan and a full schedule is set in the Suburban Catholic.

Shrine and Utica defend their perfect records. The Knights are at home to Lourdes, while the Uticans should experience no trouble with winless Romeo.

The schedule:

Pontiac at Arthur Hill; Rochester at Keego Harbor; RO St. Mary at St. Mike's; St. Fred's at OL St. Mary; Clarkston at Northville; Holly at Brighton; Southfield at Dearborn Lowrey; Bentley at Farmington; Warren at Clawson; Madison at Harper-Woods; Eastland at Roseville; East Detroit at Hazel Park; Kingston at North Branch; Utica at Romeo; Kennedy at Cranbrook; Willow Run at South Lyon; Lourdes at Shrine; Lake Shore at Country Day; St. Clement at St. James.

Fewer Night Games Feature '55 AL Slate

Kansas City Franchise Necessitates More Air Travel

CHICAGO (AP)—A decrease in number of night games and an upswing in necessary plane travel to make dates now that Kansas City is a new member are features of the 1955 American League baseball schedule released today.

The schedule calls for 208 night engagements, seven fewer than were programmed in 1954 and 10 under the record of 218 played in 1953.

The American League night game schedule is far off the pace of a record 250 charted in 1955 by the National.

Leading the "owls" is Kansas City with 40 games scheduled under the lights, three more than the old Athletics slated in Philadelphia last season.

Other clubs' schedules call for 39 at Washington (compared to 45 last season), Baltimore 34 (38), Cleveland 30 (30), Chicago 21 (21), New York 16 (16), and Boston 14 (14), DETROIT 14 (14).

With the shift of Baltimore into the Eastern division and the move of the A's from Philadelphia to Kansas City, American League president Will Harridge estimated that between 9,000 and 10,000 miles of travel will be added for the eight clubs over the previous average.

To meet schedule complications, teams will be required to make about 20 plane trips. Cleveland, Baltimore and Detroit flew last year, but more for convenience than for necessity to make dates.

The 1955 campaign will open April 11 with Baltimore at Washington for the traditional tossing out of the ball by President Eisenhower or his representative. There is a full schedule the next day with DETROIT at Kansas City, Chicago at Cleveland, Boston at Baltimore and Washington at New York.

The Sept. 25 closing date has Kansas City at Chicago, Cleveland at DETROIT, Baltimore at Washington and New York at Boston.

The big holiday doubleheader schedule includes: May 30 (Memorial Day)—Cleveland at Chicago, Baltimore at Boston, Kansas City at DETROIT and New York at Washington; July 4—Chicago at Kansas City, DETROIT at Cleveland, Washington at Baltimore and Boston at New York; and Sept. 5 (Labor Day)—Chicago at DETROIT, New York at Baltimore, Washington at Boston and Kansas City at Cleveland.

The league will suspend action for the All-Star game in Milwaukee July 12.

Middlecoff Is 4-Stroke Victor in Crosby Test

Ex-Dentist Far Ahead of Julius Boros Over 54-Hole Route

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — The wandering golfers abandoned the picturesque Monterey Peninsula country today, some pleased, many disappointed and doubtless the happiest guy of all was Cary Middlecoff.

The 34-year-old 1949 National Open champion captured the big share of the $15,000 purse offered by singer Bing Crosby for his 14th annual pro-amateur golfing calmbake.

The race for the $2,500 prize offered the low-scoring professional payoff came in the wind-swept late afternoon Sunday.

It was Middlecoff by four large strokes — a one-under-par 71 for his final burst, and a 209 for a 54-hole total fashioned from a pair of 69's in the first two rounds.

The nearest to the one-time dentist of Memphis, now from Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., was another ex-U.S. Open titleholder, Julius Boros, with 70-71-72—213, and a comparative newcomer, Paul McGuire of Wichita, Kan., with 68-73-70—213 — and $1,250 to each.

Middlecoff set forth over Pebble Beach's mushy 6,701 yards, par 36-36—72 course — later to dry out a bit from the previous day's rain — with a bare one-stroke lead over the field.

Capable Stan Leonard of Canada, San Francisco's Bob Rosburg and long-hitting Mike Souchak of Durham, N.C., were the nearest rivals at this point. And just a step or so back were Gene Littler, Boros, Doug Ford and other good players.

Middlecoff added $1,000 to his week's income at Crosby's expense when he and handsome hotel executive Ed Crowley of Los Angeles marched into the second spot of the pro-amateur side attraction. The team had a final 66 for 196.

The pro-am winner featured the old maestro of pro golf, Byron Nelson, of Roanoke, Tex., and his amateur partner, Ed Lowrey of San Francisco.

Record Falls to Poona II

Irish Colt Is Victor in San Fernando Stakes at Santa Anita

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP)—All three previous winners of Santa Anita's San Fernando Stakes have gone on to cop $100,000 racing features, so in the light of his world-record breaking performance the same is expected of the chestnut colt Poona II.

The Irishbred Import, who popped into prominence this year, clipped one-fifth second off the record for a mile and one-sixteenth as he won the San Fernando in 1:40 4-5 Saturday and left the favored Determine 10 lengths back.

Calumet Farm's filly Miz Clementine was second to Poona II in Saturday's race as she finished 5½ lengths behind.

Ex-Purple Grid Ace, Wife Killed in Fire

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind. (AP) — Leland (Tiny) Lewis, 47, former football and track star at Northwestern, and his wife Mary, 46, died Sunday in a fire that swept their three-bedroom Michigan City home.

Fire officials said the blaze apparently started when Lewis fell asleep in a chair while smoking.

ON U. S. TEAM—Frank Duffy, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving A. Duffy of Birmingham, is shown with his horse, Drop Dead, which he will ride in the equestrian competition of the Pan-American Games in Mexico City. A member of the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club, Duffy will leave for Mexico Jan. 27. He was first in qualifying trials at Nashville, Tenn., last fall and was named to the United States team last week.

Stopped by Weather, Wes Santee Takes Bid Inside

thwarted twice this year by the weather in proposed assaults on the 4-minute mile, turns his flying feet to the indoor tracks this week.

He leaves the Los Angeles rain and chill for Philadelphia where he is scheduled to run Friday night in the Philadelphia Inquirer meet. The next night he is due to appear in the Washington Star meet in the capital.

The fleet Kansan not only couldn't try for a record mile Sunday, but couldn't run a mile at all. Rain Saturday night and Sunday left the Los Angeles Coliseum cinder track looking like a lake, with muddy islands.

Therefore the proposed feature prelude to the Pro Bowl football game was cancelled and Santee and two others ran an exhibition half mile on turf just inside the track curb.

It was a friendly affair, with a chummy finish in a triple dead heat in 1:58.8.

* * *

Santee had rain trouble in New Orleans for the Sugar Bowl mile and after a two-day postponement there ran it in 4:14 on Jan. 2. His best time, 4:00.6 was in the Compton, Calif., relays last June.

Titan 5 Rallies to Beat Drake, Sparrow Hits 24

University of Detroit rallied late in the 2nd half to record its 12th basketball victory in 14 starts, 91-76 over Drake University Saturday night at the UD Memorial Fieldhouse.

Bob Calihan's Titans had opened up a 17-point gap early in the 2nd half with balanced scoring featuring the UD attack. However, Drake, paced by Capt. Tom Tagatz, pulled within 2 points before the Titans rallied.

Guy Sparrow of Pontiac had 24 points to lead Detroit, which had six players scoring in double figures. Tagatz had 24 for Drake, while Willie Cerf added 20. Bob Decker hit 16, Dan Halling 14, Ralph Goldstein and Bill Ebben 12 and George Fefles 10 for UD.

It's Time Out!

"This is one night my score isn't going to be ruined by my going over the foul line!"

Winners Named in Roller Skating Tests

Elimination races were held at the Pontiac Rolladium over the weekend in the juvenile division. Class A winners were Julie Hadden and Gleen Aabdeau, Paulette MacAbee and Bill Angell in Class B and Gale Ensminger and Douglas Stranahan in Class C.

Last week's winners were Pat Meagher, Betty Legare, Julie Elkins, Brian Marchewka, Troyace Darimont and Larry Newmarch.

The winner will escape the league cellar as each enter the game winless in six games. In the nightcap at 8:30, third-place Manny's Ringside plays Poole Lumber. The Lumbermen are currently in the 3-way tie for 4th place and could tie for 3rd by winning.

Barring upsets before they meet, unbeaten Drayton Drug and 2nd place Harry's Recreation will collide in a showdown game Jan. 26.

Colorado Ski Jumper Wins Norge Tournament

CHICAGO (AP)—Keith Wegeman, University of Colorado Olympic star, won top honors in the Norge Ski Club's 50th annual tournament Sunday.

The 23-year-old junior beat out 30 of the top ski jumpers in the nation with two identical leaps of 189 feet — longest of the day.

NY Governor Threatens to Outlaw Boxing

Declares Sport Must Be Cleaned Up After Hearing of 'Fixes'

NEW YORK (INS)—Gov. Averell Harriman warns that unless boxing is cleaned up in New York state the sport may be outlawed.

The governor, in a radio interview Sunday, said he had heard allegations of fight fixes and that the game has gotten into the hands of the racketeers.

"From what I have heard, although I can't prove it," Harriman declared, "boxing has gotten among racketeers."

The governor said his appointment of racket-buster Julius Helfand as athletic commission chairman was aimed at weeding out the criminal elements in boxing.

Guarantee Offered Marciano's Manager

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) — The offer of a $350,000 guarantee for a title match in San Francisco between heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano and British challenger Don Cockell was in the hands of Marciano's manager today.

The offer was wired to manager Al Weill in New York by promoter Jimmy Murray of San Francisco who said he plans to stage the match at Kezar Stadium in April or May.

Spartans Face Hoosiers After Edging Michigan

Rally and 'Stall' in Last Half Effective in 84-82 Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Michigan State, hot from an 84-82 Big Ten basketball victory over rival Michigan, tackles Indiana tonight at Bloomington.

Spartans take a 2-2 conference record into the Hoosier gym along with the Wolverine pelt. They beat Michigan by staging a 2nd half rally and stalling out the last full minute of play.

Michigan had a 44-39 lead at the half and was well ahead until midway after the intermission. Then MSC whittled the lead down to a 62-all tie and went on to grab its 84-82 margin with a minute and 10 seconds left.

In the next 10 seconds Michigan missed a shot that cost it dear. The Spartans took possession and in a brilliant display of ball handling managed their 60 second stall.

That was MSC's 7th victory out of the last nine meetings with Michigan.

The two rivals have met 66 times in the series dating back to 1909.

The 84 points by Michigan State is a new high in the series since the old mark was 80 for MSC and 70 for Michigan.

Wayne University and the University of Detroit take a two-week layoff before resuming basketball schedules Jan. 29.

The rest is a break for the Titans whose 1st-string guard Ralph Goldstein suffered a wrenched knee in the Detroit 91-76 triumph over Drake Saturday night.

Wayne suffered its 9th defeat in 14 tries at St. Louis Saturday dropping a 75-69 decision to the Washington University Bears.

Bolden Receptive to Pro Football Offers

EAST LANSING (AP) — L'il Leroy Bolden, Michigan State's sparkling halfback, has changed his mind and says he's open to professional football offers.

Bolden, who previously had said he was too small to take the bumps and bruises of the pro game, said Saturday he was "definitely interested and hopes to play pro football."

The British Columbia Lions of the Western Inter-Provincial Football Union reported they had "an excellent chance" of signing Bolden. But Leroy said there was nothing definite about the offer.

Five Contests Are Played in YMCA Circuit

Five games were played over the weekend in Pontiac YMCA Intramural Basketball competition.

Greek Orthodox Church and Eastern Junior Hi-Y won their 2nd straight victories in the Junior High division. Greek Orthodox dumped YMCA "B" team, 47-8, while Eastern Junior Hi-Y edged YMCA "A," 28-24.

In the Senior circuit, Phalanx defeated Waterford 30-17, Hi-Y downed Stone Baptist 39-20, and Central Methodist won over Central Christian Church 32-23. Nonamakers forfeited their game to First Baptist.

Hopkins Trophy Test Slated in California

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP)—The Canadian and U.S. PGA golf teams arrived here today, ready to compete in the fourth annual international matches for the John Jay Hopkins Trophy matches Tuesday and Wednesday.

Held in this country for the first time, the matches serve as an interesting tuneup for the $15,000 San Diego Open Golf Tournament starting Thursday at the nearby Mission Valley Country Club.

Sandy Saddler Tunes Up

BOSTON (AP)—Featherweight king Sandy Saddler tunes up for his scheduled Feb. 25 title bout with Teddy (Red Top) Davis by meeting Lulu Perez of Brooklyn tonight in a non-title 10-round feature of a boxing show which will benefit the widow of Ed Sanders.

Last-Quarter Rally Gives St. Michael 46-40 Victory Over Cross-Town Rival St. Frederick

St. Michael's once-beaten Shamrocks had to come up with an 18-point 4th-period rally to edge St. Frederick, 46-40, Saturday night in the 1st game of the Pontiac parochials' 1955 intra-city Suburban Catholic League rivalry.

Victory was the Mikes' 4th in five starts and left them in a tie with Orchard Lake St. Mary for 2nd place in SCL standings. St. Frederick now has a 2-4 mark for the season.

Coach Bob Mineweaser's northsiders actually won the contest on free throws, sinking 12 of 25 chances from the foul line. Both teams collected 17 field goals.

Rams jumped into a 6-0 lead in the opening quarter, but St. Michael pulled to an 8-8 deadlock by the end of the period. Mikes led 19-18 at halftime, then fell behind 32-28 in the following quarter when St. Fred's Lionel Bradley pumped in 10 points to spark a 14-point Ram drive.

Joe Wilhelm accounted for seven points and John Keller and Bud Shwartz added five apiece in the finale as the Shamrocks outscored the Freds 18-8.

Rams used an effective 3-2 zone until the final minutes, when they switched to a pressing man-to-man. Both Dick Doyon and John Bradley left the game on personal fouls in the closing moments as a result of the close-checking defense.

Bradley took game scoring honors with 19 points, while Wilhelm led St. Michael with 15.

Both St. Frederick and St. Michael are in action Tuesday night. Shamrocks entertain Royal Oak St. Mary, while the Rams go to Orchard Lake to take on St. Mary's Eaglets.

Pro Grid Leagues' 'War' Finally Drawing to Close

MONTREAL (AP)—The long and costly "war" between the National Football League and the Canadian professional loops appeared to be drawing to a close today.

In fact, only one team was forcing the continuation of hostilities—the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Big Four.

The League Saturday adopted a rule which would require the teams to honor player options and contracts held by National Football League clubs over the protests of the Argos.

Then, Sunday, the Argos persuaded the league to reconsider the rule. The final decision will be made by the league's board of governors which will meet in the "immediate future."

The Argos seemed to be fighting a losing battle. They protested that they already had signed eight NFL players and intended to honor the contracts. They also said the rule amounted to "retroactive legislation."

The other league officials at the annual meeting countered that the Argos should take the consequences for signing such a large group in advance of the meeting when they knew there might be changes in the regulations.

For his part, Bert Bell, commissioner of the NFL, expressed surprise at the decision to reconsider the rule which was less than 24 hours old.

Twin Victory Puts Wings in First Place

DETROIT (AP)—In a weekend of drama, the Detroit Red Wings took over 1st place in the National Hockey League.

But it wasn't easy.

First, the Wings rallied for a 4-3 victory in Montreal Saturday to move into a 1st-place deadlock with the Canadiens. That in itself would have made the weekend a successful one.

But the Red Wings came right back last night and took over the lead by blanking the New York Rangers 3-0 in Olympia Stadium, while the Canadiens, obviously shaken, were taking an unusual 6-0 beating in Boston.

These startling results left Detroit with 59 points in the standings, compared to 57 for Montreal. Only six weeks ago—Dec. 5 to be exact—the Canadiens held an 8-point lead over the Red Wings, then in 3rd place.

A steady surge has lifted Detroit to the top. In their last 20 games, the Red Wings have lost only twice while winning 14 times and tying four.

"The boys fought themselves to the top," said general manager Jack Adams of the Wings. "They worked hard and deserve all the credit," he said.

The Red Wings worked hard last night. They fired 54 shots on the New York goal, but only three found the range—by Ted Lindsay, Bob Goldham and Marty Pavelich.

Lorne (Gump) Worsley, Ranger goalie, frustrated the Red Wings time and again making a phenomenal total of 51 saves.

Lindsay clicked at 11:36 of the 1st period, scoring his 9th goal on a breakaway. It wasn't until the 7th minute of the final period that the Red Wings were able to score again.

Goldham drilled in a 55-foot screen shot for his 1st goal of the season. A minute later Pavelich scored his 10th goal.

Red Wing goalie Terry Sawchuk made 25 saves in recording his 9th shutout and 3rd straight at home.

Red Wings had been out of 1st place since Nov. 6—a period of 69 days. The season still has 26 games to go.

A CARRY FOR PERRY—Joe Perry (31), San Francisco 49er fullback, races around right end on a 20-yard run for the Western All-Stars with guard Bruno Banducci, also of the 49ers, blocking for him in the 5th annual Pro-Bowl Game at Los Angeles Sunday. 49ers' Tittle, Wilson Shine as West '11' Wins Pro Bowl

LOS ANGELES (AP) — When the time comes for discussions of contracts and salaries, a couple of San Francisco 49ers, quarterback Y. A. Tittle and end Billy Wilson, have Sunday's pro bowl game as a mighty good talking point.

So does Coach Buck Shaw, lately of the 49ers, who told newsmen after the game he has conferred with Los Angeles Rams President Dan Reeves who seeks a head coach.

The two players were outstanding as the West surged back to beat the East 26-19 in the game matching all-star squads of the National Football League's two divisions, before 43,972 fans who braved the rain.

The 6-foot-3 Wilson, a 190-pounder, was unanimously chosen by sports editors at the game as its most valuable player. He scored the first West touchdown after his club trailed 19-3 and gained 157 yards as he snagged 11 passes.

Tittle started cold. His bobble led to the first East touchdown and a second almost cost another.

But Y.A. warmed up considerably more than the rainy 52-degree weather as the game progressed. He passed twice for touchdowns, to Wilson and to end Harlon Hill of Chicago's Bears on a 42-yard gainer. The 49er quarterback wound up with 184 yards on 16 connections in 26 throws.

The winning touchdown that broke a 19-19 deadlock in the final period came thanks to a pass interception by Detroit center Lavern Torgeson, who ran it back 35 to the East four. Joe Perry of the 49ers went over on his second try.

Quarterback Otto Graham, the 33-year-old Cleveland star who announced he was retiring from competition after the pro bowl, passed six yards to halfback Ollie Matson of Chicago's Cardinals, for the first touchdown. It came after tackle Ray Krouse, 250 pounds of New York Giant, had rambled 43 yards with Tittle's bobble.

The East's other scores came on Philadelphia end Norm Willey's 5-yard jaunt with a fumble and Burk's 33-yard pass to Washington end Bones Taylor.

The West scored its first time as Detroit halfback Doak Walker kicked a 35-yard field goal. He added another from 30 yards to tie the count in the fourth quarter.

Pacific Coast Wants Regional TV or Nothing

West Conference May Not Permit Teams on National Setup

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Pacific Coast Conference wants regional telecasts of football games—or nothing.

Athletic directors and faculty representatives of the nine PCC schools bluntly announced Sunday that unless the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. adopts a policy of nationally controlled regional television, the PCC won't permit its teams to be televised next fall.

The Big Ten as well as the PCC opposed the Game of the Week plan at the NCAA meeting. Both demanded Regional TV, with the Big Ten and Notre Dame most outspoken. The Big Ten also has threatened to bolt the NCAA over TV.

Harvey Cassill, University of Washington athletic director and PCC representative on the NCAA television committee, indicated chances of the NCAA adopting such a program are poor.

Cassill will present the PCC proposal to the television committee later this week in New York.

The PCC would have the NCAA drop its "Game of the Week" policy and any other plan that rules out regional TV. Otherwise, the PCC would exercise its rights "to abstain from participation in any such television program."

The PCC proposal, not circulated at the recent NCAA convention in New York, is certain to meet solid opposition, Cassill said. He reported only about 40 of the 200 delegates voting on the television issue at the NCAA meeting wanted regional TV.

Two-thirds of the votes cast is necessary for adoption.

Sporer Wins Ice Event

Bill Sporer of the North Star Sail Club won all three heats of the Clinton River Boat Club iceboat trophy race, sponsored by the Lakeview Ice Yacht Club Sunday on Cass Lake. Sporer's winning total was 86 points. A total of 28 boats participated.

Central States Test Dominated by Detroiters

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — A 3150 gave Strohs of Detroit 1st place in actual and handicap team events in the windup last night of the Central State Bowling Assn. tournament.

Strohs, national match game champion, edged E & B Beer of Detroit out of both top places by four points.

A 707 gave Bob Goike, of Detroit, the singles actual. John Clement, also of Detroit, won the singles handicap with a 689-20—709.

Detroit bowlers took six out of eight possible 1st places with J. Norris and A. Butler, of Chicago, taking the doubles actual with 1307 and adding a 26-point spot to win the doubles handicap, 1333.

Some of the top teams in Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio, competed in the seven-week tournament.

Kentucky Still Tops

Auburn Falls, Leaving Nation Without Major Unbeaten 5, Exams Limit Schedule

The Associated Press

Midyear examinations will slow down the action on the college basketball front this week and a good thing it is.

The coaches probably will take that long to figure out just where they stand in this crazy-quilt season.

One thing is certain—no team will be fighting to preserve an unblemished record. The undefeated list has been whittled down to a nice round number, zero, with the demise of Auburn.

Alabama turned the trick Saturday, 99-78. It wasn't particularly unexpected. 'Bama had been rated the team most likely to give Kentucky a fight for the Southeastern Conference title. Auburn had won seven in a row.

Actually, most of the conference races still are up in the air, but some trends are unmistakable.

Indiana, for example, appears to be out of the running in the Big Ten.

Kentucky, despite its stunning defeat nine days ago, still is the No. 1 club in the country and the loss to Georgia Tech, which snapped a 32-game winning streak, has not bothered the Wildcats.

Here is how the major loops stand:

Big Ten—Illinois and Minnesota are tied for the lead with Indiana in the cellar. The Illini turned back Ohio State 86-78 Saturday.

Pacific Coast—Southern California, the defending champion, looks to be heading for a fall. The Trojans dropped two games to UCLA over the weekend. That left UCLA and Stanford tied for the Southern Division lead with 3-1 marks.

Big Seven—Missouri, the preseason favorite, leads with a 3-0 mark.

Southwest Conference — Texas Christian, true to expectations, is undefeated in conference play, and, in fact, is the only school with a good overall mark, 11-3.

Southeastern Conference —Kentucky, of all things, is in seventh place with a 1-1 record while Vanderbilt and Alabama are at the top with 3-0.

Southern Conference — West Virginia is out front with a 4-0 mark, but the league champion is determined by the conference tournament next March.

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

CASE—Overturning Wrist.

Starting position of the hand is a big factor. From the late Jimmy Smith, former world match king, I learned that getting a comfortable grip of the ball—firm but not tight—should be the first object.

Smith told me this: "Always hold the ball in the palm of the left hand; then feed the fingers (first) and thumb into the ball and your grip will become mechanically perfect."

Do this, and you'll find the thumb slightly to the left of ball center, toward the body, with the fingers to the right, on the side, and somewhat behind the ball.

Avoid the grip in the illustration, which is an exaggeration of the "thumb to the left" method, and, as you see, puts the hand too far on top of the ball.

Kristof Leads Pin Tournament

Chicagoan Has 1,258 Total in All-Star Meet in Windy City

CHICAGO (AP) — Joe Kristof remained at the top of the men's list and a New Orleans bookkeeper and a Long Beach, Calif., stenographer shared first place in women's standings as the National All-Star Bowling tournament moved into the third day of qualifying trials.

Kristof, 34-year-old Chicago bowling instructor, topled 1,258 pins Sunday night to withstand the challenges of Carl Richards of Parsons, Kan., and Billy Welu of St. Louis.

Norma Jane Porbes of New Orleans and Merle Matthews of Long Beach share first place in women's standings with 1,592 for eight games.

Defending champions and runners-up in the two divisions — Don Carter of St. Louis and Bill Lillard of Detroit, respectively, in the men's section, and Mrs. Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Sylvia Wene of Philadelphia, among the women — are exempt from qualifying.

In their special matches, Mrs. Ladewig and Lillard took commanding leads.

Greenberg Predicts Score Will Top Turley in SO's

NEW YORK (AP)—If George Weiss of the Yankees is interested and Commissioner Ford Frick agreeable, General Manager Hank Greenberg of the Cleveland Indians is willing to wager that Herb Score will strike out more American League batters this coming season than Bob Turley.

That's quite risky, even for a betting man, which Greenberg is not. Especially since Turley led the American League in strikeouts last year with Baltimore while the 21-year-old Score was toiling in the minors. For that matter, Score isn't even on the Cleveland roster yet. But he will report to the Indians' Tucson, Ariz., training camp next March and Manager Al Lopez promised to give him plenty of work against the New York Giants during the exhibitions before adding his name to the roster.

* * *

Score will be one of 15 newcomers in the Indians' camp which includes eight pitchers, three infielders, three outfielders and one catcher. Score probably will hold the spotlight but outfielder Rocco Colavito, who smashed 38 homers and drove in 116 runs at Indianapolis, catcher Hank Foiles, who batted .332 and hit 17 homers with the same club and first baseman Joe Altobelli, a fancy fielding .287 hitter, another Indianapolis graduate, will receive plenty of attention. Foiles, especially, is almost certain to stay.

Bob Considine Says:

Olympic Team Physician Debunks Value of Training

NEW YORK (INS)—Frank Merriwell won't like this. Nor would it be surprising if the AAU picked up my amateur card. Anyway, here goes . . .

One of Britain's most eminent physicians, who has devoted the major part of his life to sport and has been the doctor of British Olympic teams over the past 40 years, claims that the athlete who carefully watches his diet, eats red meat and cuts out starchy foods is wasting his time.

Sir Adolphe Abrahams says the British Association of Sport and Medicine, which he helped found a little less than two years ago, has come up with a number of startling observations, one of which shows that an athlete can smoke, drink, lounge late in bed and still go out and smash a world record.

"It doesn't, matter what you eat as long as you enjoy it and get sufficient of it," the man says. "We have proved that the effect of smoking in moderation is practically nil."

Sir Adolphe said that Chris Chataway, who paced Roger Bannister and Australia's 'John Landy to their record-breaking under-four-minute miles this year, regularly smokes half a pack of cigarettes a day, and that one Olympic rowing crew threw away their cigars at the water's edge and went on to win.

The doctor, obviously a man to be encouraged by us older gaffers, concludes by stating that the best beverage an athlete can take with his meals is a glass of beer or champagne. And as for "early to bed, early to rise, makes a man healthy, etc. etc." he says "Balderdash!" or some such word.

"If you get up early your vitality will be low and your activity reduced."

Sudden thought: When did the British last win the Olympics?

Bob Hope flew across the country to attend the funeral of his friend Charlie Yates, who died last week while playing golf with the star. Yates succumbed to a heart attack immediately after hitting a tremendous 4-iron to within three feet of the pin.

Hope, though deeply touched by the death, did not wish to add to the abundance of grief at the funeral.

"What did you do when poor Charlie fell over at your feet?" a tearful relative asked, for the fifteenth time.

"Well, Hope said, "I kept shaking him and saying, 'Get up, Charlie! Get up and putt for your birdie.' "

Man's fascination with the final utterances of the great has taken substance in Edward S. Lecomte's Dictionary of Last Words (Philosophical Library.)

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, asked by his doctor how high he could raise his arm said, as his last words, "High enough to hit you, doctor."

"Welcome, Sister Death,"—St. Francis of Assisi. Ethan Allen, when told on his deathbed that the angels were waiting for him —"Well, . . . em, let 'em wait!"

Mussolini, as he was shot, "But . . . but . . . Mr. Colonel . . ."

Grantland Rice used to tell the story of his grandfather Henry Grantland's last words. Marse Henry fought valiantly through the Civil War on the side of the South, of course, and was still in there pitching at 91, as death approached.

"Can I do anything for you, Grandpappy?" Rice asked tenderly.

"Yup," said the old gentleman, fire burning in the one eye he opened. "Give me one more crack at the No'th."

Local Scouts to See Rocky Mountain Movies

Slides and movies taken on a Rocky Mountain tour by members of Pontiac Scout Post 66 will be shown tomorrow night in the Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church auditorium.

Members of the local explorer scout unit made the trip this summer, accompanied by their adviser, King Stetler. Delegations from Pontiac Posts 4 and 13 were on the same tour.

A court of honor is also planned.

Coach Hands Out Cigars to Mark Blessed Event

NORMAL, Ill. (UP) — Athletic Director Ray Hanson had been saving his money for a long time to pay for the cigars he passed out to honor a blessed event.

He happily handed out the stogies as Western Illinois State College defeated Illinois Wesleyan for its first swimming victory in 24 years.

George Gobel Being Sought by Filmland

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—The sensation of TV, George Gobel (and there you are), is talking motion pictures. He has had several sessions with Leo McCarey, who has a story just made for the comedian.

He would do it in the summer when he is off TV since his sponsor and all those concerned have cut down on his outside activities because they don't want him to overwork.

Just as in the case of Jack Webb, Gobel would have a ready made audience and he would be money in the bank to any direc-or or producer who could coax his signature on a contract.

For the second time in two days I heard something very nice about Jack Warner. At dinner at Chasen's with Doris Day and Marty Melcher, Doris told me that Jack wouldn't take a penny of the extra money MGM gave her for "Love Me or Leave Me."

Then Marty spoke up and said, "Doris has been with Warners for eight years, and Jack has been overly generous with her. You can always talk to him when there is trouble."

Doris and Marty are planning a trip to Europe where she may make a picture. Marty is also negotiating for "The Bloomer Girl," the gay musical comedy by Yip Harburg and Harold Arlend which starred Celeste Holm. Doris wants Sammy Davis Jr. plus Charlotte Greenwood, who was in the Broadway play.

John Wayne hasn't had very much time to spend with his bride these past few days, what with trouble getting an actor to take Robert Mitchum's place in "Blood Alley." And he's been in constant touch with John Ford about making a western with Ford as soon as the director, now in Europe, is well enough to work.

Duke did take time out, however, to buy Frank Gruber's mystery novel, "The Lock and the Key," which his brother, Bob Morrison, and young Andy McLaglen, Vic's son, will produce as their first.

Don't say I told you, but Grace Kelly does not want to make "Quentin Durward" in London with Bob Taylor, and you can just bet there will be a replacement in the part intended for Grace.

Although Director Richard Thorpe left Friday for London and Taylor expects to follow in three weeks, my money says that Grace will not be among those present when the picture starts.

My information is that Grace has nothing against the story, co-star or director—but she made three movies in 11 months and she wants more rest.

Dorsey Brothers Mark 20 Years on Their Own

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—It was real old-timey, sitting with Mom Dorsey and her sons—Tommy and Jimmy—at the Statler, when they celebrated leaving the "Scranton Sirens" 20 years ago to start their own band.

Frank Sinatra—who sang with "T.D." a dozen years ago—dropped in, squiring Gloria Stokowska.

Marie (The Body) McDonald, also a Dorsey vocalist once, came in with Jerry Herzberg of the race tracks.

★ ★ ★ ★

Frankie got up on the stand.

"I don't want to be presumptuous . . ." began Tommy.

"I'd be glad to sing a song!" retorted Frank. He sang three—a couple of which could have been meant for Gloria. Then he hustled off to the Copa where he's broken every existing record.

★ ★ ★ ★

Everybody there seemed to know that the Dorseys, going on CBS TV next fall ahead of Jackie Gleason, will be bigger than ever. Tommy—reminiscing—recalled when the billing was "The Boswell Sisters and the Dorsey Brothers," when they played for Ruth Etting, and how, in '34, they finally started out on their own as "The Dorsey Brothers."

MARGUERITE

"We were sure famous, especially up in New England," said Tommy. "Up there everybody thought 'the Dorsey Brothers' was a grocery company."

The Jackie Gleason weight-reducing secret is out. He's merely going to let somebody else carry his money.

SUSAN

Marguerite Piazza — once of the Met, later of TV—opened a remarkably clever supper club act at the Pierre . . . in which she did a sort of strip-tease, danced, sang New Orleans jazz . . . and lay on top of the piano, and leaned out over it.

Miss Piazza, who's practically given up opera, and is planning her own TV show, leaned out over the piano very prettily. If nobody minds, I will now dub her "The Leaning Tower of Piazza."

Arms Pool Talk Opens in Paris

7 European Countries Start Parley on Move Toward WEU

PARIS (AP)—Delegates of the seven nations of the projected Western European Union opened discussions today of French Premier Pierre Mendes-France's proposal to standardize and pool their arms production.

Their conference, in an annex of the Palais de Chaillot, started behind closed doors. The talks were expected to be highly secret.

With the exception of Ludwig Erhard, West German economic affairs minister, the delegates were higher professional diplomats or high-ranking civil servants. For France and Britain, the chiefs of delegation to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Council led the groups for their governments.

Also on hand were delegates from Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—the other four WEU nations.

The meeting was one of the first performances by the WEU interim committee, which is acting for the union between the signature of the treaty last October and its ratification, which sponsors of the Paris treaties hope will be completed by the end of February.

The basis of the conference, which is expected to continue several weeks, is a memorandum circulated earlier this month by the French government.

It proposes to coordinate the production of standardized arms for the troops of the seven member states through an international panel with certain suprenational powers.

Because Aedes Aegypti mosquitoes are still common in the southern third of the United States, the threat of a yellow fever epidemic still exists there, says the World Health Organization.

Kansas City Star on Trial Today

Newspaper Charged With Violating Federal Antitrust Laws

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The trial of the Kansas City Star and its advertising director on charges of violating the Sherman Antitrust Act opens today in Federal District Court.

The trial is expected to last several months.

A federal grand jury returned a two-count indictment against the newspaper, its President Roy A. Roberts and its advertising director Emil Sees two years ago.

Charges against Roberts were dismissed last Friday by Federal Judge Richard M. Duncan on a motion by government attorneys.

The government charges the Star and its advertising director "have engaged in an attempt to monopolize" and are "monopolizing" interstate trade and commerce in the dissemination of news and advertising.

The indictment said the newspaper's alleged practices deprived advertisers of the opportunity of advertise in the Star while using other advertising media, deprived advertisers of the oportunity of freely selecting other media, compelled advertisers to pay for advertising they did not want and compelled subscribers to purchase papers they did not want.

It said the effect of the alleged violations was to exclude competing newspapers from Kansas City, Mo.

In a statement Friday, Roberts said:

"When the indictment was returned I stated then and I repeat now that the Star's business practices have been, and are now, in accord with both law and good morals. Our policy has always been to run a clean paper and give the greatest possible service at the lowest price to readers and advertisers and to further the advancement of the community."

Conviction carries a maximum penalty of $5,000 fine for the corporation on each count and $5,000 fine and a one-year jail sentence on each count for the individual.

Detroit Officers Stabbed in Fight Are Recovering

DETROIT (INS) — Two Detroit vice squad patrolmen who were stabbed while attempting to arrest a morals offender Friday night were reported recovering today.

The officers, Victor Delavalla, 35, and Robert Campbell, 30, were seriously wounded in a fight with Eugene E. Costner, 54, of Detroit, whom Campbell shot to death during the battle.

The incident occurred at the Times Square Theater in downtown Detroit.

Truck Mishap Kills 11

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — A truck loaded with picnickers plunged from a bridge into the Cochuna River in northwest Argentina last night, killing 11 persons and injuring 22. The accident occurred near Tucuman, 665 miles northwest of Buenos Aires.

Scientists estimate that 16 million tons of water are evaporated each second from the earth.

Cash Arrivals Ease Grains

CHICAGO (AP)—Grains eased on the Board of Trade today, largely because of an increase in arrivals of cash grain. Dealings were very slow in all pits.

Pressure of cash grain arrivals was the main depessing factor in corn, oats and soybeans. In wheat prices worked downward in response to additional moisture most of it very light, in parts of the winter wheat belt.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ¾ to ⅞ lower, March $2.30⅝; corn unchanged 59⅝ lower, March $1.54⅞; oats ⅜ to ⅝ lower, March 75⅞; rye unchanged to ½ lower, March $1.20½; soybeans ¾ to 2 cents lower, January $2.76; and lard 2 to 3 cents a hundred pounds lower, March $12.57.

The plant city committee, which coordinates the three local General Motors Division civic activities and responsibilities, is made up of top executives of the local divisions. The committee meets monthly.

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. said 5,724 of its employes would complete payments in February on 43,021 shares of American Telephone & Telegraph Co. shares of stock bought under a payroll deduction plan inaugurated in 1947. Michigan Bell is a subsidiary of A. T. & T., as are all other Bell systems. At the same time deductions are completed for the shares subscribed for in 1947, Michigan Bell said new deductions would begin for 9,000 employes who have subscribed for an additional 85,000 A. T. & T. shares. The new subscription will be paid off in 1957.

Prices for 1955 Packards, designed to meet the competition of other full-line automobile companies, were announced yesterday by Studebaker-Packard Corp. James J. Nance, president, announced prices ranging from $2,585 for Clipper models to $4,080 for the Packard Four-Hundred, a luxury hardtop model. Prices for the Carribbean, a custom sports convertible, will be announced later, Nance said. The cars go on display next week.

2 Detroiters Sentenced on Larceny Charges

In Oakland County Circuit Court today, two Detroit men were sentenced to from 18 months to four years in Jackson State Prison by Judge Frank L. Doty after they had admitted to larceny in a building Jan. 10.

King W. Bryant, 22, of 250 E. Columbia, and George Rowen, 20, of 2249 Macomb, were charged with taking a man's suit from a store at 576 E. Lincoln, Birmingham, Jan. 6.

Enters Innocent Plea to Destruction Charge

A Detroit man today pleaded innocent in Circuit Court to a charge that he maliciously destroyed property in a home from which he was evicted Nov. 12.

A trial date will be set for Robert C. Kimberly, 49, of 1141 Merrick, who is accused of returning to the home at 27551 Northwestern Hwy., Southfield Township Nov. 13, and smashing cupboards, a stove and other furnishings. He was returned to Oakland County Jail.

Drinking Driver Jailed

Appearing before Farmington Township Justice Allen C. Ingle, Ronald Strine, 38, of 4675 Arlene Dr., pleaded guilty to a charge of driving under the influence of liquor and was remanded to Oakland County Jail after failing to pay $50 fine and $15 costs.

Mixed Market Prices Prevail

NEW YORK (AP) — Narrowly mixed prices prevailed today in the stock market.

Changes seldom went to a point in either direction. Trading was brisk for a time but then became more subdued in early trading.

The steels were mostly higher while the rails, oils, and aircrafts were largely lower. Other major divisions were steady or mixed.

Sunray Oil started on 10,000 shares up ⅝ at 23½ while Midcontinent Petroleum lost a point at 107½. Over the weekend there were indications that consolidation was a possibility.

A block of 29,000 shares of Benguet Consolidated Mining traded unchanged at 1¼, 7,000 shares of Alaska Juneau sold at 5¼ up ⅛, and 6,000 EMI sold at 4⅝ unchanged.

Among higher stocks were American Telephone, Dome Mines, Murray Corp., U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, and Zenith Radio.

Lower were Santa Fe Railroad, Sinclair Oil, United Air Lines, Dow Chemical, General Electric, and Douglas Aircraft.

Woman Reported as Motel Robber

A neatly dressed young woman robbed the Clarkston Motel manager of $78 Saturday night and then fled south on Dixie Highway in an old model Cadillac, State Police of Pontiac Post reported today.

Troopers quoted Mrs. Jane Habermas of 6853 Dixie Hwy, as saying the woman came to the motel's office under the pretense of registering.

Described as about 25 years old, tall and thin, the woman kept her right hand in her tweed coat pocket, pretending to carry a gun.

"This is a stickup—I want all your money," the bandit was quoted as saying.

Mrs. Habermas handed the woman $78, which was hidden between the pages of a Bible.

Police also said the bandit had brown eyes and hair parted in the middle.

Sales Up This Year at Furniture Market

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Business at the Grand Rapids Winter Furniture Market was up 10 to 15 per cent over January 1954, a survey of 15 exhibitors conducted by the furniture news bureau here revealed Saturday.

Two exhibitors in lower-priced department store merchandise reported sales not as good as in 1954. However, several leading exhibitors reported a sales increase of 25 per cent over last year. One exhibitor said it was the best market his company had experienced in six years as far as sales were concerned.

There was pesimism during the first week of the market, as attendance was not up to expectations. After the first five days attendance began picking up and the second week of the market saw business rushing in upholstered and case goods.

The market, which closed officially Friday evening, had an attendnace of 2,805 buyers, which was almost identical with the 1954 summer attendance.

Motorist Pleads Guilty — Had No Other Choice

Walter Adams Jr., 27, today pleaded guilty to a reckless driving charge in Municipal Court.

Walter didn't have much choice. He was ticketed for backing his car into a police squad car yesterday crunching its grille.

Sentencing was deferred until Jan. 21 and Adams, of 26 Bagley St., was released on $100 bond by Judge Cecil McCallum.

$50 Reported Stolen in Bus Depot Breakin

Union Bus Station Manager Winfred Waidelich told Pontiac Police that $50 in cash and an undetermined amount of change were taken from the station ticket office sometime early Sunday.

Entry was gained through a window facing an adjoining parking lot. The cash was taken from a cash register, the coins from amusement devices.

GM Acts to Cut Car Bootlegging

Firm's Repurchase Plan Designed to Halt New Car Oversupply

DETROIT (AP)—A repurchase program designed to alleviate new car bootlegging has been developed by General Motors Corp.

The new program was described by Harlow H. Curtice, General Motors president, as "within the framework of existing laws." He advised GM's 18,500 dealers and distributors that for the remainder of the 1955 model year the corporation is "prepared to repurchase or arrange the repurchase by other GM dealers in other areas" of any new and unused passenger cars that might be considered "excess supply."

Curtice said situations where a dealer finds himself in an oversupply position will be "exceptional." At the same time, he said, they should be "promptly and effectively dealt with to eliminate them as possible contributing factors to 'bootlegging.'"

(Bootlegging is the wholesaling of new cars by franchised dealers to used car lots and other unauthorized outlets.)

The GM president emphasized the policy statement is not part of the contractual arrangement between General Motors and its dealers and distributors. He termed it "the best alternative that we can devise" for the contractual clause GM proposed last April. The justice department refused approval of such a clause in the selling agreement.

"The record is now clear," Curtice said, "that there was no overproduction factor in our business" during 1954.

For 1955, he added, "there is nothing in the picture at this time to indicate any material change in the business, other than for the better."

"At the same time," he said, "we think it is desirable at this time to take all possible measures to avoid any excess supply of models in dealers' stocks."

2 Oxford Brothers Ordered to Hearing

Two Oxford Township brothers have been ordered to appear at a hearing in Oakland County Circuit Court to try to show why an order restraining them from dumping garbage should not be made peremanent.

The two, David R. and J. F. Burkett, have been temporarily restrained from dumping the refuse on their land at 1909 Drahner Rd. by a court order obtained by Oxford Township. It had been reported previously that the Village of Oxford obtained the order.

Robert Bailey, spokesman for the Lakeland Improvement Assn., which launched the anti-dumping move, said today that feeding the garbage to pigs brought vermin rodents and birds to the neighborhood.

Hear Sheppard Motions Today

Defense Asking Court for Bond, Stay of Prison Pending Appeal

CLEVELAND (INS)—A panel of three appellate judges will decide today whether convicted wife-killer Dr. Sam Sheppard goes free on bond, remains in county jail or immediately begins serving a life sentence for killing his pregnant wife.

Attorneys for the 31-year-old osteopath have two motions before the court of appeals—for bond and for a stay of execution pending a decision on an appeal of the Dec. 21 verdict.

The state said it will oppose any bond for the balding neurosurgeon who has been held in county jail since his second-degree murder conviction.

Each side will be allowed to argue for 15 minutes and then the judges will take the matter under advisement.

Chief Defense Counsel William Corrigan also is expected to ask the court for additional time in filing briefs on the appeal merits.

Briefs normally are filed within 60 days after the notice of appeal is filed, but because of the bulk of testimony in the case, the extension is expected to be granted.

Meanwhile, Dr. Sam's father—Dr. Richard A. Sheppard—remains in poor condition at the Sheppard-family operated Bay View Hospital. He is suffering from a lung ailment.

Metamora Man Hurt in Collision Here Sunday

Joseph Mess, 31, of Metamora, was treated for face cuts at Pontiac General Hospital after his auto struck the rear of another parked on North Perry street near Oak Hill street Sunday morning.

Mess told Pontiac Police he did not see the auto until he crashed into it.

Berkley Man Sentenced to Six Months in Jail

Wilbert Groleau, 45, of Berkley, this morning was sentenced to six months in Oakland County Jail when he appeared before Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty after pleading guilty Jan. 10 to passing bad checks.

Groleau was charged with passing a $30 check without funds to back it up in Berkley Dec. 8.

Area Pair Awaiting Sentence in Breakin

Two men will be sentenced Jan. 24 who admitted yesterday in Circuit Court the breakin of a gas station at 4289 Walton Blvd., Drayton Plains, Jan. 1.

Chester F. Ward, 22, of 3433 Dodd Ct., Pontiac Township, and Alfred L. Adkins, 18, of 4824 Clinton Dr., Clarkston, were remanded to Oakland County Jail by Judge Frank L. Doty.

Woman Quizzed in Robbery Here

Victim Identifies Suspect as One of Three Who Held Him Up

A 23-year-old woman was booked by Pontiac Police for investigation of robbery unarmed Sunday morning after the holdup victim identified her as one of a group of three men and another woman who assaulted and robbed him of $300.

Held for further questioning today is Vivian Rose Cato of 82½ S. Saginaw St. who told police she was unable to furnish names of the others.

Detectives quoted the victim, Eugene Avery, 34, of 141 W. South Blvd., as saying he left a tavern with the two women about 2 a. m. Sunday. Avery said when they arrived at Lull and Crawford Sts., two men stepped from behind a building, knocked him down and took his money.

The two women fled with the pair and another man who was waiting in an auto, he said.

Miss Cato was arrested while walking with a male companion on

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF CHARles T. Young, who passed away Jan. 17, 1952.
You're not forgotten, Chuck, dear, nor ever shall you be;
As long as life and memory last
We shall remember thee.
Sadly missed by Mom, Dad and Brothers.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR husband and father Earl L. Putnam, who passed away Jan. 17, 1953.
As long as memory endures our loved one cannot die.
For memories grow sweeter still, as days and years go by;
And till the time we meet again as loved ones always must,
Sweet memories of the one we love, will always be with us.
Sadly missed by wife, daughters, sons-in-law and grandsons.

Top Italian Surgeon Summoned to Russia

ROME (AP)—Dr. Pietro Valdoni, one of Italy's foremost surgeons, left today for Moscow, touching off speculation that he had been summoned to operate on some high Soviet official.

A spokesman at Valdoni's home denied the rumors, saying the surgeon was going to attend a medical congress in the Soviet capital. He said he did not know specifically what congress it was.

Valdoni is generally credited with having saved the life of Italy's Communist leader Palmiro Togliatti after a Sicilian student pumped three bullets into him in 1946.

The U.S. Public Health Service estimates that Americans will have over a half billion colds in 1955.

Wayne Replacing Ousted Mitchum as Star in Movie

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Film actor John Wayne has cut short his New York honeymoon to replace Robert Mitchum, who was dropped last week from the starring role in the 2½-million-dollar picture "Blood Alley."

A Warner Brothers spokesman said that Mitchum was dismissed for "action detrimental to the making of the film."

"There are no hard feelings — we didn't see eye to eye," Mitchum said.

It was reported last week from San Rafael, Calif., the film's location site, that Mitchum had pushed a company transportation manager, George Coleman, into San Francisco Bay. However, Mitchum and Coleman both denied it happened.

Wayne, who reports to the location of the film today, married his third wife, Peruvian beauty Pilar Pallette, last Nov. 1 in Hawaii.

1955 Fund Drive Uses Heartbeat

Coca Hunts New Man; Roscoe Karns Is Part of Gleason Enterprise

NEW YORK (INS)—Jane Kean was afraid Ethel Merman mightn't take too well to her broad Merman burlesque and was hesitant to schedule it for TV's "Show Stoppers," of which the Merm will be the top star. Ethel, biggest pro in show biz, heard about it and wired Jane: "I'd be honored if you would." . . . Bing's man-of-all-words Bill Morrow joins the Gleason TV factory . . . Girls—a sound track of Kirk Douglas' heartbeat will be used on radio for the '55 Heart Fund drive . . . "Life Begins at 80" but its star Georgiana Carhart says she's "too young" to record her memoirs; she's 89.

Stars of the premiere "Medic" telecast were hailed for their debut acting but the management decreed they couldn't be hired again—faces too familiar for a documentary (and Beverly Garland "died" in the debut, 'member?) . . . Reason Gleason concentrates on "The Honeymooners" is—too many memories recall Oliver (of Laurel & Hardy and Ham Hamilton of the silent when viewing his "Poor Soul."

Truth is stranger than fiction item: The "Newlyweds" in "Halls of Ivy" (Whit Bissell and Andre Marden) were just divorced . . .

Agencies are grousing about the "Payola" to backstage TV shakedown getting too big to bear . . .

CBS flew Claude Dauphin over from Paris for Monday's Studio One . . . It would be pitiful to cast a broken star as a shattered mendicant on TV, as next week's "This Is Hollywood" episode will, except that the actor selected was Victor Moore, who is rich enough to see the fun in the script.

Roscoe Karns' new TV crime-chase for Gleason Enterprises will have the fictional "Mabel" of his Dumont fun back again, but his son Todd will play the cop this time, with Roscoe along as a clue-happy kibitzer . . . same old trenchcoat, the . . . It takes four highly paid TV gagmen to write even so sad a try as last night's Jack Carson show . . .

The new "Pulse" ratings gives "Dragnet" exactly two-tenths of a point lead on "Lucy" for first place.

Imogene Coca last we heard was torn between Jack Carter and Hal March to fill the Sid Caesarian void in her TV fun . . . Mark Stevens will write and direct as well as star in three "Big Towns." . . . Ray Bolger signed for Max Liebman's Feb. 27 Spectacular . . . "Topper" was renewed . . . which will send Anne Jeffrys and Bob Sterling off to London happy enough to sing, which they'll do at the Cafe de Paris, where Noel Coward made the place safe for comedy with class.

Lands on Detroit Links

DETROIT (AP)—David Engleman, 26, made an emergency landing on Chandler Park Municipal Golf Course yesterday. He said his private plane caught in a down draft and "insisted on going down when it should have gone up."

Panama to Plan Assassins' Trial

See National Assembly Lifting State of Siege Now in Force

PANAMA (AP)—Panama's National Assembly was called to meet late today to begin preparations for the trial of former President Jose Ramon Guizado and others accused of complicity in the assassination of President Jose Antonio Remon.

The Assembly also was expected to lift the state of siege—a modified form of martial law—which was proclaimed after Remon's assassination to aid in the apprehension of his killers.

Remon's widow and Panama's best known woman figure, Cecilia Pinel de Remon, in a recorded broadcast last night pledged her "humble moral and material support" to Ricardo Arias Espinosa, former second vice president who was sworn in as president Saturday following Guizado's arrest and impeachment by the National Assembly.

Held along with Guizado in the machine-gunning on Jan. 2 of Remon are Ruben Miro, a prominent lawyer who confessed he fired the fatal machine-gun bursts with Guizado's full knowledge; Guizado's son Jose Ramon Jr. and two of his associates in a construction firm, Rodolfo St. Malo and Jose Neives Perez; and two former cadets at the Guatemala Military School, Luis Carlos Hernandez and Jose Edgardo Tejada.

The younger Guizado and his associates were mentioned in Miro's confession, while Tejada and Hernandez are charged with selling Miro the German machine gun used in the slaying.

The New York Times in a dispatch from Panama said President Arias Espinosa, in an interview yesterday, said he was "not yet convinced at all" that Miro had been telling the truth about Guizado's part in the plot. According to the Times, Arias Espinosa said Guizado "seems to have had only vague knowledge of a plot and his guilt, if any, seems to be that he did nothing to prevent it rather than having participated actively in it."

Scientists have found evidence that the January thaw regularly predicted in old time almanacs is a reality that takes place in most years, says the National Geographic Society.

Trail of Brink's Robbers Is Still Cold After 5 Years

BOSTON (AP) — Among Greater Boston's two million residents, only five men (or was it maybe seven or eight?) knew something nightmarish was going to happen on the night of Jan. 17, just five years ago.

Shadows were heavy around the bare concrete garage - and - office building in Boston's North End from which, daily, the Brink's, Inc. armored money - express trucks went on their missions between banks and businesses.

People familiar with the area knew nothing of a strong room in that concrete building, nor of five Brink's employes with pistols near their hands that night while they counted money in millions.

As investigators have reconstructed the scene, a light truck and an automobile drew up outside. When the last visible pedestrain vanished around a corner, men got out—the number was never definitely established. With visored caps and pea jackets, they might have been Brink's guards. But why did they wear gloves and rubbers on this mild, dry night? Why did each carry, under arm, a little white bundle—like a rolled-up laundry bag? And why were their faces grotesque — like those of clowns?

A key unlocked an outside door. Walking with sureness which hinted familiarity, they passed through five more locked doors in the labyrinth-like interior. Nor did any guard hear them, nor the five men busy with money and money bags behind the counting room grille.

Not until 7:10 p.m., when they heard the bark: "Open up! This is a stickup. Don't give us any trouble." Then the Brink's men looked up and saw the row of grinning masks and the black guns.

Forced to lie prone, tied up, their mouths taped, they saw little more. And the Halloween-masked robbers working like swift robots, dumping heaps of money into laundry bags, spoke only in muffled mutters. The robbers half dragged, half carried their bags with $1,219,000 in cash into the night.

Along dark streets the robbers' car and their light truck—stolen months before—vanished with the stolen treasure.

Neither Boston land and harbor police, metropolitan and state police, nor FBI, in five years ever caught up with that phantom gang or found one dollar of $98,000 in bills whose serial numbers were known. Nor did the FBI ever report any trace of an additional $1,481,000 in unregistered bonds, also allegedly taken that night.

The robbers left no fingerprint or other useful clue. Parts of their stolen truck, dismembered by acetylene torch, were found months later on a suburban dump.

Department of Justice men have impounded secret evidence, however, and they say the investigation is still proceeding.

Phenix City Control Returns to Civilians

PHENIX CITY, Ala. (AP) — Enforcement of law and order in Phenix City was in the hands of local civilian officials today for the first time since July 22.

The last Alabama National Guardsmen on duty here pulled out a few hours before outgoing Gov. Gordon Persons' order of limited martial rule expired at midnight.

In 25 weeks of occupation, National Guardsmen confiscated incriminating racket records and smashed thousands of dollars worth of gambling equipment. Their investigators reopened criminal cases which now ousted local law enforcement officials had ignored or forgotten.

The full-scale cleanup was touched off by the slaying of racket-fighting Atty. Gen. -nominee Albert Patterson June 18.

Says Michigan Is Safe From Lake Overflow

DETROIT (AP)—Lt. Col. Edward J Gallagher, lake survey officer of the Army Engineers Corps, says barring on-shore storms or heavy rains, Michigan should be safe from overflowing lake levels this spring.

Gallagher made the prediction despite the fact that Lake St. Clair's level last month was just four inches under the record December height of 576.65 feet. The record was set in 1951. That spring high waters damaged many shoreline communities in Michigan.

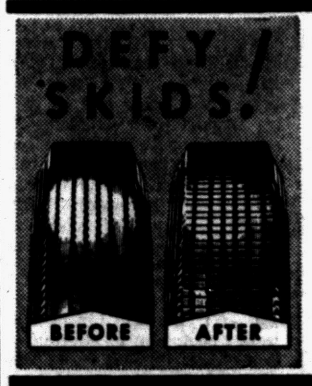

Gas Victims Recover

JACKSON (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Seamen were reported in favorable condition Sunday at Foote Hospital where they were taken after being found overcome by coal gas in their home in Leslie.
