Jobless Pay Bill Scrapped

More Generous Compensation Sought by House

GOP Majority Defies Party Leaders, Starts Work on New Plan

LANSING (A.P.)—The House Republican majority Monday night scrapped a Senate bill and flew in the face of party leadership to start work on a measure providing more substantial boosts in unemployment compensation.

With enthusiastic backing of the Democrats, the majority breathed life back into a dead House bill and authorized its committees to work these liberalizations into it:

- 1—A $3 increase in benefits in lower brackets and $2 in higher brackets.
- 2—Increasing the duration of benefits from 20 to 26 weeks.
- 3—Reducing the contributions of employers with low lay-off rates through a merit rating system of computation.

The benefit increases are much more generous than the Senate-approved Teague Bill provides, and the House majority in caucus also decided to strike out what leaders called "fish hooks" in the Senate version.

Among provisions stricken from the House version are prohibitions against collecting severance pay and bonuses at the same time as unemployment compensation and permitting those thrown out of work by a strike from which they can not benefit to collect unemployment compensation.

The House version would permit a maximum compensation payment of $43 a week, compared with $41 in the Senate version $35 at present.

The primary rate for a single worker without dependents would be raised from $27 to $30 a week if he earned $70 or more, the benefit of a worker with a dependent spouse would be raised from $27 to $33 and still undetermined increases would be provided for the workers in the $45 to $55 wage group with dependent children.

The Senate bill makes no provision for increases in those classes.

The House Republicans, who made these decisions in a secret caucus, said the Ways and Means and Labor Committees had been instructed to meet together to work out the details of the House bill.

Another caucus is planned later in the week to consider the first draft.

Southern Dem Senators to Back Up Ike's Tax Plan

WASHINGTON (A.P.)—A southern Democratic senator said today several of his Dixie colleagues are planning to back the Eisenhower administration in its drive to block a further income tax cut this session.

This senator, who asked that his name not be used, said he was surprised at growing sentiment among southern Democrats against the plan to raise personal exemptions and thus cut taxes.

Senate Democratic leaders have been saying they expect to lose not more than one or two votes on the exemption issue.

Republican senators have been conceding the Senate outcome on the exemption battle will be close. But they too expect to hold most of their votes in line.

The Senate lineup includes 48 Democrats to 47 for the GOP plus an independent, Sen. Morse (Ore.).

In the House, the Democrats lost their fight for a $100 boost in exemptions last week by only six votes, 210-204. Such an increase would have meant a $2,400,000,000 tax cut.

In the Senate, most Democrats are rallying behind a plan of Sen. George (D-Ga.) for a $200 increase this year. George also proposes a $400 exemption increase, to $1,000

FRANK S. LYNDALL

Name Chairman for UF Drive

Frank S. Lyndall to Lead in 1954 Fund Campaign for Pontiac Area

Frank S. Lyndall will be chairman of Pontiac Area United Fund's 1954 campaign this fall. Harold A. Fitzgerald, United Fund president, announced today.

Lyndall, manager of Pontiac's Sears, Roebuck and Co. store, served as commercial division chairman in last year's United Fund drive.

He also was active in community drives in his former city, Grand Rapids, serving one year as Community Chest fund campaign chairman there.

Lyndall is a member of Pontiac Rotary Club and the board of directors of a United Fund agency, Pontiac Boys Club. A veteran of World War II, he has lived in Pontiac for nine years and makes his home at 94 Dwight St.

Partly Cloudy, Rain Forecast for Area

A trace of snow Monday night and a low of 24 crowded the spring-like weather into the background temporarily.

According to the U.S. Weather Bureau, the low tonight will be around 30 to 32 with a high of 38 to 42 on Wednesday.

Partly cloudy skies and rain are due late Wednesday.

Throughout the morning there was a slight variation from the 35 registered at 8 a.m. The mercury rose to 43 at 2 p.m.

A low of 24 and a high of 42 were recorded here yesterday.

Dulles Predicts Reds Will Lose Indochina War

Also States He Sees No Change in U.S.-Vatican Relationship

WASHINGTON (I.N.S.)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles declared today that he considers a Communist victory in Indochina to be improbable.

Dulles told a news conference he does not accept as a probability any Red domination of Indochina.

The secretary said peace is possible in the Asiatic Peninsula if the Chinese Communists would demonstrate a change of heart by stopping their flow of supplies to the Red-led Vietnamese rebels.

But he said there is no evidence that the Chinese have changed their mood and that, so far, the evidence indicates they still are aggressive, militaristic and expansive.

Other points made by the secretary in his news conference were:

1. He knows of no plan to change present relations with the Vatican, where the U. S. has no diplomatic representative.
2. He anticipates roundtable conferences with America's Allies on the subject of trade with Communist nations. The U. S., he said, favors more restrictions than the Allies seem to want.
3. The administration sees no reason to abandon hope for the success of French Gen. Henri Navarre's plan to gain the upper hand in Indochina by the end of the next fighting season a year from now.
4. The secretary does not feel that final agreement on the Saar question is a prerequisite to French ratification of the European Defense Treaty or that final settlement of the Trieste problem is a prerequisite to Italian ratification.

Dick Haymes to Be Deported

Ordered Back to Native Argentina; May Appeal Within 15 Days

LOS ANGELES (A.P.)—Crooner Dick Haymes, accused of illegally reentering the United States after a visit with Rita Hayworth in Honolulu last year, today was ordered deported to his native Argentina.

Dist. Director H. R. Landon of the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service announced:

"This order is final and a deportation warrant will be issued forthwith."

"However, the order is appealable within 15 days to the Board of Immigration Appeals in Washington, D.C., in which event deportation will be stayed pending disposition of such appeal."

Landon's announcement, handed to newsmen and containing the result of hearings here and in New York, said:

"Special inquiry officer Joseph A. Dummel found that Haymes became an alien ineligible to citizenship because of having filed an application for exemption as a neutral alien and such exemption having been granted and that, upon his return to the continental United States from Hawaii on June 7, 1953 he was excludable by law at that time."

"Accordingly, he was found deportable under Section 241A (5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952."

"The special inquiry officer also found that Haymes had failed to furnish notification of his address during January 1953 and did not establish that the failure to do so was reasonable excusable or was not willful."

"He found that Haymes was therefore subject to deportation under Section 241A (5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952."

Fire Violations Cited by Pontiac

Owners of 107 Multiple Dwellings Are Warned to Comply With Laws

Owners of 107 multiple dwellings in Pontiac have been warned to comply with state fire laws or face prosecution.

Pontiac Fire Marshal Charles E. Metz said the dwellings violate laws requiring two separate means of entering and leaving.

The violations were turned up in an investigation begun last year by the fire marshal in cooperation with Pontiac Building and Sanitation Departments.

Metz said the investigation will cover more than 1,000 multiple dwellings, but will probably take several years to complete.

Failure to comply within 30 days of notification may result in a $250 fine and or 10 days in jail for each day the violation continues, Metz warned.

He said owners have been notified and all have expressed willingness to comply.

In warning of the hazards involved, Metz cited recent fires in Detroit and Connecticut which took the lives of several persons and caused serious damage because the only exit was blocked by flames.

"The biggest life hazard is a man's own home, especially during the night when occupants are asleep and fire is most apt to break out," he said.

The situation here is a result of wartime federal housing programs which did not require two means of entrance and exit, Metz explained. Dislocation of the programs following the war again placed the units under state law, he noted.

He said the investigation was not pressed before 1953 due to a lack of manpower in the fire department.

M'Carthy-Army Hearing Eyed by GOP Chiefs

Group May Back Idea of Having Senator Step Down During Inquiry

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—Republican leaders applied increasing pressure today to get Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy to step down from his investigating subcommittee during its hearings on his row with the Army.

GOP national chairman, Leonard W. Hall threw his weight into the effort as the subcommittee called a secret meeting to discuss plans for its sensational-packed inquiry.

Hall told newsmen in Philadelphia Monday night that there is the "thread of good American fair play" in the proposal that McCarthy surrender his seat while

TV OK for Hearing

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—The Senate investigations subcommittee voted unanimously today to allow television coverage of its public hearings exploring a row between its chairman, Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.), and Army officials.

The subcommittee investigates Army charges that he and his chief counsel, Roy M. Cohn, used pressure to get favored treatment for a drafted McCarthy investigator.

Hall's statement gave support to reports that the White House backed the plan to have McCarthy step down from the subcommittee while the hearings are conducted. However, Hall refused to say if his views were those of the administration.

Senate GOP leaders William F. Knowland (Cal.) and Homer Ferguson (Mich.) already have been pushing the same idea. But there was some disagreement on the subcommittee.

Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) said he would insist that McCarthy appoint another Republican to take his place and predicted the two other subcommittee Democrats would back his stand.

But Sen. Charles E. Potter (R-Mich.) said the group could not take away McCarthy's right to keep his seat. McCarthy has refused to say whether he would step aside, although he has agreed not to vote on investigation matters.

The subcommittee meanwhile faced so many other problems as it met that there were indications the inquiry might not get under (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Denies Subversive Ties

Sergeant Denies Charge, Writes Congressman

W. J. Aulisio's Mother Claims Family Has No Subversive Leanings

A Pontiac Air Force staff sergeant, who is being discharged tomorrow as a security risk, has appealed for Congressional aid in fighting the charge.

S. Sgt. William J. Aulisio, 34, wrote a letter to Rep. Thaddeus M. Machrowicz (D-Hamtramck) denying that he was "a member of the Communist Party or closely affiliated" with it in 1940-42.

The Air Force stressed that it did not question Sgt. Aulisio's loyalty, but would recommend his discharge because he was a poor security risk.

Machrowicz said that he has turned the letter over to the sergeant's congressman, Rep. George A. Dondero (R-Royal Oak).

Dondero, who said he hadn't heard of the case before, told the Pontiac Press today he would have to read the material before taking any action.

"We will make an inquiry with the government and see what their position in the matter is," he stated.

Sgt. Aulisio, who has served 9½ years in the Air Force, said he is accused of signing a petition at Flint in 1940 to have the Communist Party placed on the election ballot. He is also charged with associating with Communists, including his father, Michael, 64, a Pontiac Motor Division diemaker; his mother, Viola, 59, and his brother, Quincy, 42, a Flint factory worker.

Mrs. Aulisio, who first heard of the Air Force action this morning at her home at 715 Second Ave., said that no member of her family ever belonged to any subversive group.

"My family and I, with the exception of William, signed a political petition in 1942 but we didn't know the party listed was the Communist party," she said. "Someone else placed William's signature on the petition."

"My son, Quincy, brought the petition home from the Flint factory where he worked," she said.

The woman said that FBI investigators had been questioning members of the family and neighbors since 1942.

About four months ago, she stated, Michigan State Police questioned her husband concerning his acquaintance with suspected Reds in Pontiac. She said her husband knew the persons listed, but not as Communists.

Mrs. Aulisio said she believes her son is a victim of circumstances, arising from the McCarthy-Army controversy. "If that hadn't come up, they would not have discharged him and he (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

French Beat Off Commies Besieging Dien Bien Phu

HANOI, Indochina (A.P.)—The beleaguered French Union defenders of Dien Bien Phu reported today they had beaten back a sharp Vietminh attack on one of their battalions and claimed they killed 175 of the rebels.

The clash yesterday was the hardest fighting reported in a week from the besieged fortress in northwest Indochina.

But it was nowhere near on the scale of the initial all-out onslaught in which the French claimed they killed 3,000 of the Communist-led rebels and wounded another 9,000.

The French army commander here said the rebels attacked on the road linking the heart of the Dien Bien Phu fortifications with the southernmost outpost of the French-held plain.

The Vietminh made a bold effort to wipe out a French Union battalion moving from the center of the fortress to join another battalion coming up from the south.

French tanks and mobile units joined the infantry and artillery to quickly smash the rebel attempt. Only patrol actions have been reported since the rebels broke off their initial mass assaults—first of the seven-year Indochina war—late last Tuesday. But the Vietminh, dug into the hills ringing the dusty plain of Dien Bien Phu, continued ceaseless artillery bombardment of the fortress.

The French said today, however, the Vietminh shelling had tapered off.

The French air force continued under bright, sunny skies to carry out massive strikes on Vietminh concentrations.

The rebels, meanwhile, stepped up harassing guerrilla attacks on vital French lines of communications in the Red River delta in an obvious effort to divert attention from their feverish preparations for new mass assaults on Dien Bien Phu.

Committee Kills Ad Censor Bill

Action Saves Senators From Vote on Red-Hot McCune Measure

LANSING (U.P.)—The Senate Judiciary Committee today killed the McCune Bill to censor beer and wine advertising on television.

Thus, the committee saved the full Senate from an open vote on one of the most controversial measures to face the Legislature in many years.

The bill was forced out of a House committee by a heavy barrage of telegrams and letters from drys and church groups and it passed the House under the same pressure.

Sen. Harry F. Hittle (R-East Lansing), judiciary committee chairman, said a motion to report out the bill was defeated by a majority of the committee. He refused to disclose the vote but it was reported to be four to three against it.

Senate May Vote Today on Chavez Ouster Issue

WASHINGTON (A.P.)—Scenting victory, Senate Democrats today brushed aside a Republican offer to water down the political effect of a resolution to oust Sen. Chavez (D-NM) from the seat he has held since 1935.

Party lines held firm yesterday as the Senate began debating a resolution to cancel out the 1952 New Mexico senatorial election in which Chavez defeated Republican Patrick J. Hurley, a former secretary of war, by about 5,000 votes.

The issue may come to a vote late today.

The resolution is based on the finding of a Republican majority of the Senate elections subcommittee that there were so many voting irregularities in the 1952 election it would be impossible to pick the legal winner.

Sen. Hennings (D-Mo.), the subcommittee's one-man minority, has vigorously dissented from this opinion.

Underlying the Chavez election challenge is a fight for numerical superiority in the Senate, where there now are 48 Democrats—including Chavez—47 Republicans and an independent, Sen. Morse of Oregon.

Should the Senate void the results of the Chavez-Hurley contest, Republican Gov. Edwin L. Mechem of New Mexico would be expected to name a Republican replacement for Chavez. This would then give the Republicans a one-vote edge.

"There was not one scintilla of evidence" that Chavez had anything to do with any irregularity, Hennings declared.

The elections subcommittee majority made no charges against Chavez personally.

Board of Education Boosts Salaries of All Teachers, Cuts Years to Maximum

BIRMINGHAM — A teacher's pay boost of $350 was approved by the board of education last night, and the number of years to reach the maximum pay was cut from 16 to 12 years.

Included in the $2,394,320.31 budget for 1954-55 approved was an increase of $419,031 in salaries over last year.

The school board set the minimum for a teacher with a bachelor's degree at $3,700, and the maximum at $5,500, with 12 annual increments of $150. The present salary schedule is $3,350-$4,850, with 16 increments of $100.

Teachers with a master's degree will receive $3,900 starting salary under the new schedule, and a maximum of $5,700. Present is $3,550-$5,150.

Supt. of Schools Dwight B. Ireland said the increase would allocate 85.81 per cent of the budget for all salaries, leaving 14 per cent to run the schools.

Principals receive a comparable increase under the new pay schedule. Teachers have asked the board for a bachelor's degree minimum of $3,600 and maximum of $5,100, with 11 annual increments of $150. The pay sought for a master's degree was $3,850-$5,350.

The civil defense program, illustrated with movies, will be the subject of the Torrey School PTA meeting, at 8 tonight in the new gymnasium, Mayor Ralph Main, local director of civil defense, and Louis Jarrendt, Oakland County director of civil defense, will be the speakers.

A separate meeting for mothers of pre-school children will also be held. Mrs. Joseph J. Cucchi, a hat designer, will show new spring styles and discuss remodeling old hats.

First Methodist Church young people will attend the sub-district roller skating party from 7-10 tonight at the Clawson rink.

Cranbrook Alumni Exhibition of Textiles, Ceramics and Metalwork, now at the museum of Cranbrook Academy of Art, will close Sunday, Eva I. Gatling, museum curator, has announced. The museum is open to the public from 9-5 p.m.

Birmingham High School Girl Scout Troop 306 took part in the Senior Pow Wow, for all Oakland County senior troops, at Berkley last weekend. The girls attended workshops, luncheon and saw the film entitled "Lighted Windows."

A new slate of officers was elected at the last Quarten School PTA meeting, with Mrs. Manley Bailey heading the list as president. Mother, father and teacher vice presidents elected were Mrs. Everett Schaffer, William L. Martin and Mrs. B. F. Hutchings, respectively.

Others are Mrs. J. E. Gill, treasurer; Mrs. William Burgum, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Richard Mansfield, recording secretary.

A workshop meeting for the coming bazaar will be held by the Agnes Ross Guild of First Presbyterian Church tonight. Marion Cannon of Sheffield road will be hostess for the gathering.

Oakland County Probate Judge Arthur Moore will speak to Lions Club members at a noon luncheon at the Community House tomorrow. He will discuss the new Camp Oakland, near Oxford, which provides a year around home for older boys.

The week's Lenten program for 10 a.m. tomorrow at St. James Episcopal Church, sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary, will be on "Our Lord Jesus Christ," and will be given by the Rev. Harold Towne. Holy Communion service will be at 11 and nursery care will be provided for pre-school children.

Contrary to its title, the Supper Club of First Presbyterian Church will not include dinner at its meeting at 7:45 tonight. The group will continue its World Adventure series.

Reese Will Get Postmaster Job

Rep. Dondero Reports Appointment Is Sure; Fowler Appeal Denied

BIRMINGHAM—Rep. George A. Dondero (R-Royal Oak) said in Washington today that Roland W. Reese is definitely being appointed new Birmingham postmaster.

He added that he understood present Postmaster Bernard E. Fowler's appeal to the Civil Service Commission in Washington has been turned down.

The Post Office Department declined to comment on the matter.

In view of Dondero's statement, it is presumed that only final details of the appointment remain to be made before official announcement is made by the Post Office Department.

Fowler, who has been postmaster here since 1948, was fired last October after an investigation turned up alleged irregularities.

His first appeal to the regional civil service board. That appeal was turned down and he filed a second appeal to Washington.

The 50-year-old Reese is a former Birmingham businessman and lives at 1847 Webster.

To Survey Drainage at Quarten Estates

BIRMINGHAM — Residents of the Quarten Lake Estates subdivision filed the City Commission room last night seeking street improvements.

The lawmakers authorized a complete engineering survey of the area before taking any action, saying that proper drainage must precede an improvement.

Commissioners spoke out against providing minimum improvements via the single special assessment permitted, and then having to spend city funds to replace the improvements because of faulty drainage.

Discussing the possibility of creating a special assessment district to provide the southwest quadrant of the city with an off-street parking lot, the Commission asked City Manager Donald C. Egbert to lay out the proposed district as rapidly as possible, providing them with working figures to be presented to a committee of property owners in the area.

GOP Chiefs Discuss M'Carthy's Position way next Monday as it has hoped. For one thing, temporary chairman Karl E. Mundt (R-SD) still hasn't been able to line up a prominent attorney to serve as counsel for the investigation although he hoped to have one on tap for today's "progress report" meeting.

William J. Jameson of Billings, Mont., president of the American Bar Association, turned down the job. He explained late Monday that ABA board members objected to his getting into something so controversial.

There was sharp disagreement in the subcommittee over McCarthy's proposal that all witnesses in the case be asked to submit to lie detector tests. Potter denounced the idea Monday night as "a lot of poppycock" that would turn the hearings into a "three-ring circus."

Mother of D. L. Brown Is Taken by Death

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. David (Isabella) Brown, 95, mother of David L. Brown, former manager of the southeast division of Consumers Power Co. of Michigan.

Mrs. Brown, a pioneer of Sault Ste. Marie, died at her home in Detroit Monday.

Born at Sallor's Encampment on Neebish Island Sept. 8, 1856, she was the eldest child of Anthony and Edith Rains Adams. She married the late David Brown in Stratford, Ont. She had been living in Detroit with her daughter since the death of her husband in 1917.

Surviving besides Mr. Brown who resides in Pontiac, are two other sons, Lawrence H. of Spokane, Wash., and James A. of Jackson; three daughters, Mrs. Roseetta Van Every of Detroit, Misses Edna and Ruth Brown, all of Detroit. Also surviving are four grandchildren.

Funeral will be Thursday at 1:30 p.m. from the McCabe Funeral Home at 1870 Grand River Ave. in Detroit. Burial will be in Acacia Park Cemetery in Southfield Township.

Police on Alert for A-Smugglers

FBI Warning Forces to Watch for A-Bombs at Border Crossings

DETROIT — Detroit Police Commissioner Donald S. Leonard said today all City Police and Civil Defense units will be alerted to the FBI warning that enemy powers may seek to smuggle small atomic weapons into the United States.

The warning came in a letter from FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover to the nation's police forces. The letter, reportedly sent out with the approval of President Eisenhower and the National Security Council, coupled descriptions of the two atomic devices with warnings against amateur attempts to dismantle them.

Leonard said he understood the FBI was working quietly to prevent the possibility of raising national alarm or hysteria and he said "The Detroit Police will work in a similar manner. There is no reason to spread alarm which, after all, may have no basis in fact."

State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs said his department has had no official warning from the FBI. He said, however, he had learned of the possibility that atomic bombs could be smuggled into the country piecemeal and then assembled.

"It is the first time I have heard there is any worry over complete bombs," Childs said. "I didn't know they were made small enough." (Earlier story, page 17.)

Ex-Road Aides Get New Posts

Five Transferred From Right-of-Way Division to Millard Department

LANSING — Five former employees of the State Highway Department right-of-way division in the Lansing office today were transferred out of the department.

Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler said that James M. Kane, former division director; Edward Kremer, Don Toaz and Donald Goulais, legal aides, and Glen Cline, an abstract examiner, have been transferred to the attorney general's department.

The first four are attorneys and will be employed as assistant attorneys general.

The transfers have been approved by Atty. Gen. Frank G. Millard and the Civil Service Department.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Eugene F. Townsend has been assigned to the Highway Department to have charge of all legal work.

Ziegler said that Deputy Highway Commissioner George M. Foster will continue to have full charge of the division. He was assigned those duties Feb. 25 when Kane was relieved of his duties.

Pending the selection of a new division director under civil service rules, Ziegler has appointed Henry Ferens, an employee of the department for 34 years, as acting director to work under Foster.

The shakeup of the division follows disclosures of irregularities in right-of-way purchases in western Michigan. A statewide probe of purchases is under way.

Dock Strikers in New Clashes

New York Mayor's Plea to End Port Tieup Fails to Halt Violence

NEW YORK — Battles broke out again today between members of rival longshoremen's unions in the face of a plea by Mayor Robert F. Wagner that dock workers end their paralyzing 19-day-old port tieup.

The clashes were in Brooklyn, where violence erupted last week and led the mayor to order stiff police reinforcements to guard the piers.

Shortly after operations began at the Bull steamship line piers at 19th and 20th streets, there was a skirmish between striking and non-striking union men.

Police quickly quieted the outbreak, with nobody arrested and no one hurt.

A short while later police reported that a "battle royal" had broken out. Some arrests were reported.

In Manhattan, two workers also were reported arrested. They were accused of attempting to interfere with a picket line.

A plea last night by the mayor for a general return to work was virtually ignored on New York piers, early surveys indicated.

The Manhattan waterfront was all but lifeless, and few were reported on the job along Brooklyn's big dockfront.

Faces Arraignment in Market Breakin

Anthony Lewis, 21, of 2051 Cardoni, Detroit, waived examination of an attempted breaking and entering charge and was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court for arraignment March 29.

Lewis was unable to furnish $5,000 bond set by Birmingham Associate Judge John C. Emery Jr., and is being held in Oakland County Jail.

According to Birmingham police, Lewis was found near the Quarten Market at 1744 W. Maple Ave., last Thursday when officers checked the building after finding a window broken.

Local Man Gets 10 Years in Prison for Robbery

Everett Epley, 41, of 312 N. Saginaw St., yesterday was sentenced to a maximum of 10 years in Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson by Oakland County Circuit Court Judge H. Russell Holland.

Epley pleaded guilty March 2 to the unarmed robbery of a Birmingham mail, on Jan. 2, in a Pontiac tavern.

Bowling Alley Burglars Get 30 Day Jail Sentence

In Oakland County Circuit Court Monday, James A. Robtoy, 18, of Birmingham, and Clement Berger, 17, of Big Beaver, were sentenced to 30 days in jail, placed on 3 years probation and fined $150 court costs by Judge H. Russell Holland.

The pair had pleaded guilty March 15, to breaking and entering. They admitted a March 8 break-in at a bowling alley in Rochester.

MRS. E. E. BLACKSTONE

Church Leader Dies in Pontiac Monday

Mrs. Elmer E. (Lottie S.) Blackstone, 80, of 26 Sheridan St., the third oldest member of the First Presbyterian Church, died at her residence at 10:30 p.m. Monday.

Born at Oxford June 6, 1873, she was the daughter of Lovett and Harriet Stockwell Stanton. She married Mr. Blackstone here Oct. 11, 1911.

She was a member of the June group of the Women's Association and president of the Missionary Society of the church. She also was a member of the Research Club, DAR and OES.

Mrs. Blackstone was very active in church circles until failing health somewhat slowed her activities.

Besides her husband she is survived by two sons, William S., of Williams Lake, and the Rev. Donald B. Blackstone, of Twin Falls, Idaho, and six grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. from the Dopeson-Johns Funeral Home. Dr. William H. Marbach, her pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. George Journey

Mrs. George (Easline) Journey, 77, died in Stillwater, Wis. Sunday. Born in Canada June 18, 1876, she was the daughter of Red and Matilda Menard. She married George Journey in Wisconsin in 1912 and came to Pontiac 26 years ago. She returned to Sunset, Wis., nine months ago.

Besides her husband she is survived by a son, Delmar V. Cote, of Drayton Plains; two daughters, Mrs. Rose Schmidt, of Minneapolis, and Mrs. Dora Chandler, of Pontiac.

Also surviving are four sisters and a brother, Herman Menard. Mrs. Joe Bergeron, Mrs. John LaVenture, Mrs. John Broadt, all of Wisconsin, and Mrs. Lilly Pryor, of Seattle, Wash.

Funeral service will be held Thursday at 1:30 p.m. from the Hunt Funeral Home. The Rev. Arvid Anderson, of Christ Lutheran Church in Waterford, will officiate. Burial will be in Perry Mount Park Cemetery.

John Philip LaBarge

John Philip LaBarge, 41, of 3222 Joslyn Rd. died at his residence Monday at 8 p.m. after an illness of two years.

Born in Pontiac Oct. 31, 1912, he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LaBarge. He married Loraine Myre here Sept. 14, 1943.

Mr. LaBarge was last employed at Fisher Body Division.

He was a member of St. Michael Catholic Church and the Knights of Columbus.

Surviving besides his widow and parents are three sons and two daughters, Charles, Ronald, Francis, Kay Ann and Betty Lou, at home.

Also surviving are three brothers and three sisters, Sherwood, Louis, Sybil and Mrs. Virginia Mirovsky of Pontiac, Mrs. Norene Steele of Clarkston and Mrs. Shirley Dixon of Waterford.

Rosary service will be Wednesday at 9 p.m. in the Kirkby Funeral Home. Funeral will be Thursday at 9 a.m. from St. Michael Church with burial in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

Mrs. Evelyn I. Riley

Mrs. Evelyn I. Riley, 72, died suddenly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lane, 110 Crescent Rd., with whom she lived.

Born in Farmington Aug. 5, 1881, she had resided in Pontiac 35 years and was last employed in the cafeteria at Pontiac Motor Division.

She is survived by a brother, Harold, of Pontiac.

Funeral will be Thursday at 2 p.m. from the Allen Funeral Home in Lake Orion. Burial will be in the Farmington Cemetery.

Mrs. Josephine Thatcher

Mrs. Josephine V. Thatcher, 95, died this morning at 9:05 a.m. in her home at 37 Miller St. She was the mother of Mrs. W. H. Powell.

The body is at the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home.

Ferndale Man Sentenced

William Lister, 39, of 2147 Sonoma, Ferndale, yesterday was placed on two years probation and fined $200 court costs by Oakland County Circuit Court Judge H. Russell Holland.

Germany Set to Recruit Army

150,000 Volunteers Will Form Cadre to Train EDC Troops

BONN, Germany — Plans to recruit 150,000 volunteers to form the basis of West Germany's 12-division contribution to the projected European Defense Community army are complete, German officials said today.

These volunteers would be officers, non-commissioned officers and specialists who would train the first conscripts.

The parliamentary security committee has approved a bill providing for recruiting of the cadre, officials said, and it will be presented to Parliament as soon as German ratification of EDC is complete.

The Bonn government hopes that German ratification will be completed this week. President Theodor Heuss is expected to sign the ratification law as soon as the western Allies have approved changes in the constitution legalizing West German membership of the six-nation army.

Already Bonn's shadow Defense Ministry has the names of 130,000 volunteers.

Local Air Force Man Termed Security Risk

would have received his promotion," she said.

In a recent letter, she said, her son, who was up for promotion, wrote her: "Mother, you know I'm a Communist, only what the Air Force teaches me."

It was reported that proceedings against Sgt. Aulio were started last June 26, and a hearing was held the following month at Hensley Field, Texas.

A preliminary statement stating the proceedings was quoted as saying:

"During 1940-42, and for an unspecified period of time thereafter, at or near Flint, you were a member of the Communist Party, or closely affiliated therewith."

"During 1940, at or near Flint, you signed a petition declaring your intention to organize the Communist Party and requesting the secretary of state to receive the certificate and vignette of the Communist Party, and place the names of the Communist candidates on the ballot at the November, 1940, presidential and state elections."

"You have maintained a close consoling association with persons, who are reported to have been members of the Communist Party, or closely affiliated therewith, including your father, Michael Aulio; your mother, Viola Aulio; and your brother, Quincy Aulio."

Aulio was quoted as categorically denying the accusation and saying that he had no knowledge that any of his associates or relatives were Communists. He said he had only infrequent visits with his family.

Aulio claimed the report said, that he was given no chance to cross-examine witnesses at the hearing and that he was notified in September his dismissal had been recommended. Nothing had been done since, although he claimed he had been denied normal promotion.

Aulio was believed to have appealed to Rep. Marchewicz because of the Hamtramck Democrat's intervention in a somewhat similar case recently. After Marchewicz's intervention M. Sgt. Victor Havris was cleared and transferred from manual labor jobs to a chemical assignment for which Marchewicz said his education suited him.

L. Milo Radulovich, a Michigan reserve airman, fought dismissal as a security risk and won. He was accused of associating with his father and a sister, claimed by the Air Force to have Communist sympathies.

Mrs. Aulio admitted that she and her husband had joined the Progressive Party in 1948, but the membership lasted only about three months.

A neighbor told me recently that FBI men had been questioning neighbors, asking whether I was holding meetings in my home, whether I was attending meetings and who my friends were," she stated.

"I know Bill is coming out of the service with a heavy heart — he had planned to make the service his career. Now I don't know whether he will even return home after this," Mrs. Aulio said.

Sgt. Aulio, who entered service in 1942 and served in the Pacific campaign during World War II, reenlisted in 1946 after discharge in 1945.

His wife, Lucille, 28, who also was questioned during the Air Force probe, and two sons, Michael, 7, and Quincy, 5, are living with Sgt. Aulio near the Texas Air Force base.

O-JIB-WA-BITTERS
HELPED ME WHEN I GAVE IT A FAIR TRIAL

"Four years ago I tried O-JIB-WA for a couple of days and quit. Recently I gave it a fair trial, and am amazed by the good results I received," says Mr. Charles Whipple, 16128 Linwood, Detroit, Michigan.

"It was about ten years ago that I first began to notice the stiffness and soreness of arthritis in my back. It gradually became worse until I was forced to walk all stooped over. Lots of times I couldn't even get up the stairs. Besides this, I suffered a lot with my stomach, and couldn't sleep well nights. Then about four years ago I decided to try O-JIB-WA BITTERS. After a couple of doses, I threw the rest away as at that time I lacked confidence in it. I tried many different kinds of medicine after that, but they did not help me at all. I began to feel as though I had tried everything and was about to give up, as I thought nothing would help me. Then I began to read the true testimonials about O-JIB-WA BITTERS and reasoned that if it helped others so greatly, it should help me. I bought another bottle and resolved that this time I would really give it a chance. After two weeks I wasn't bothered with gas on my stomach and in a month, I knew that O-JIB-WA was helping my arthritis. It helped my back so much that I really get around fine now and stomach trouble and sleepless nights are things of the past. My wife was bothered with gas and sour stomach, and it helped her also. I believe that there is nothing better than O-JIB-WA BITTERS. I am so glad that I gave it a second chance, and that I'm all better now."

Army Tightens Security Rules

New Order Requires Commissioned, Warrant Officers to Sign Oath

WASHINGTON — The Army has tightened its lines against possible infiltration by subversives. It has issued a new order requiring all commissioned and warrant officers to sign fresh loyalty certificates and setting up machinery designed to prevent delays in handling cases of officers who either refuse to sign these documents or plead protection of the Fifth Amendment in refusing to answer questions.

The new directive, disclosed by the Army yesterday, was issued March 11 under the signature of Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, Army chief of staff.

It states at one point that Secretary of the Army Stevens "does not consider it consistent" with national security to keep in military service anyone who refuses to say whether he has been a member of the Communist party or any subversive group.

There was no doubt that new order grew out of the case of Maj. Irving Peress, a New York dentist who was promoted and honorably discharged over the protest of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.), who said Peress was a "Fifth Amendment Communist" and should be court-martialed. Peress, who refused under oath to testify on alleged Communist connections, later said in a public statement that McCarthy's charges were "nonsense."

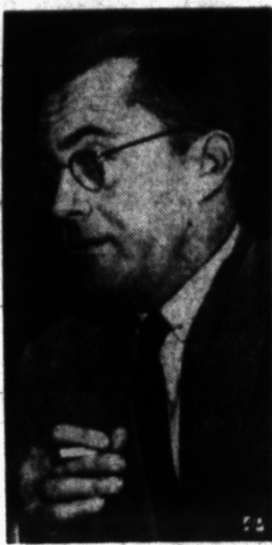

Told of the new order, McCarthy commented to newsmen that in general it "sounds like a fine idea," but he said he wants to study it before saying more.

The order bars promotion, decoration, commendation, reassignment, separation or ordering to active duty of any person who does not fill out the prescribed loyalty certificate, pending final action in the case.

The certificate, revised Feb. 1, is much like the one in effect before, but it includes an updated list of organizations on the attorney general's subversive list.

The new order follows a directive Stevens put out a month ago declaring that refusal to sign or complete a loyalty certificate is considered enough of a basis to mark an officer as a security risk.

James A. Garfield was nominated for President on the 36th ballot.

AGAINST REDS—Rev. John A. Hutchinson, a Williams College religious professor, tells the House Un-American Activities Committee in Washington that since 1938 he has preached, lectured and spoken out strongly elsewhere against the Communist Party. He was questioned about alleged Communist front activities in Baltimore in the 1930s.

Police Seek Firebug Near Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS — The firebug known as "The Torch" struck again Monday, setting a blaze in suburban Godwin Heights, an area with no water supply system. Deputy sheriffs said the firebug has set 10 fires in the area during the past three weeks. They are investigating arson in the Monday fire.

Volunteer firemen controlled the flames just before a portable water supply gave out, but not before the fire had destroyed a car and caused $4,000 damages.

Donald Shook, Godwin Heights fire chief, said the fire began in an attached garage and carried into the house. The 10 other fires caused minor damage to homes and business places in the area.

Sen. Ferguson Proposes National Women's Days

WASHINGTON — Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.) proposed that each Aug. 26 be designated "American Women's Day."

Some 1½ million new women voters become eligible at the polls, every year, Ferguson said in a resolution yesterday. The resolution would authorize the President to issue an annual proclamation displaying the flag on all government buildings.

Boom on at Morley as Drillers Strike Oil

MORLEY — An oil discovery has made this Mecosta County village a boom town.

Oil operators bidding for leases began jamming the place after a wildcat discovery well drilled in Saturday night on the farm of Alfred Kohn just north of the Mecosta-Montcalm county line.

M'Clure Oil Co., owner of the well, shut it down Monday noon. Members of the drilling crew said it had been flowing at the rate of 60 barrels an hour. Drilling depth was not disclosed.

Up to last night, leases had been taken for a radius of three miles from the discovery well.

Britain Strikes Jamaican Reds

Police Seize Papers in Lightning Raids on 2

KINGSTON, Jamaica (U)—Britain cranked up an anti-Red drive in a third Caribbean colony today after seizing documents in lightning raids on two left-wing centers in this West Indies island capital.

Following crackdowns on alleged pro-Communists in British Guiana and British Honduras on the American continental mainland, authorities yesterday swooped down here on the home of Jamaican labor leader Ferdinand Christof Smith, assistant secretary of the Communist-dominated World Federation of Trade Unions, and on the offices of the left-wing People's Educational Organization.

Police said documents they seized in Smith's home identified Communist organizers and fellow travelers in Jamaica. The files and papers taken in the raid on the educational organization were said by police to have been of a type banned by law as undesirable.

Announcements of the raids did not indicate any action had been taken against Smith or the leaders of the educational organization. Smith, president of the Red-tinted Jamaica Federation of Trade Unions (JFTU), was purged in 1948 as a leader in the United States of the CIO National Maritime Union on the grounds of Communist activities.

He was permitted to leave the United States "voluntarily" in 1951 to avoid deportation on charges of subversion and being an undesirable alien.

The police said the documents taken in his home yesterday also contained the names of Iron Curtain organizations having contact with the JFTU.

British measures against Reds in their Western Hemisphere possessions started last year with the ouster of leftist Prime Minister Chedi Jagan and his peoples Progressive party government in British Guiana.

U.S. Sees Red Pressure for 'Normal' World Trade

(Editor's Note: The next phase of the cold war between the free and Communist worlds will likely be fought in the field of commerce. Information on the shape that battle might take is slowly coming to light. This is the first of three articles defining the issues involved in the growing problem of East-West trade.)

By FRANK O'BRIEN

Washington (U)—An official report being quietly circulated within the Department of Commerce says Soviet Russia can be expected to pressure the West in coming months for "a return to normal trade relations."

Since mid-1953 Russia has been carrying on what apparently is a preliminary effort to soften up Western businessmen with visions of inexhaustible trade with the Communist world's 800 million subjects. In the eyes of many Western merchants those 800 million subjects—underfed, underclothed, underhoused, undereducated and underserved—represent a tempting market.

Ever since the Communist grab of Czechoslovakia in 1948 but increasingly after the start of the Korean War in 1950, a bug-and-fantastically complicated system has been worked out under U.S. guidance and prodding to keep Russia and her Communist satellites from getting strategic goods. Strategic goods may include almost anything, if in undue quantity. But emphasis is upon scarce or specifically military materials and products, like atomic materials, explosives, weapons, hardening alloys, planes, etc.

Most Western nations have agreed upon a list of things to be denied Russia. Thousands of items long, this list is kept by the U.S. Department of Commerce. U.S. aid to other Western nations is largely conditioned upon strict observance of the trade bounds set by this list.

Here is an outline, in the Commerce Department report, of what may be expected from Russia if its drive to pry open the doors of East-West trade continues:

1. Offers to buy heavily from industries loaded with surpluses.

This already started in offers—rejected at least on a cash basis—to soak up some of this nation's government-owned surplus butter and cottonseed oil.

2. Offers to buy heavily where purchases might relieve unemployment. The shipbuilding industry might be a target in this country.

3. Increased offers to buy food processing machinery, farm machinery and production machines for consumer goods. This would bolster Russia's backward food and consumer goods industries in line with the new Soviet regime's promise to raise the level of Soviet living.

4. Some offers at least, to sell "hard goods"—mining machinery, construction steel, automobiles and the like—to back a recent Moscow claim of "willingness to help all countries promote internal economic development."

5. Readiness to pay for Soviet purchases in gold where the balance of trade does not pay the bill.

As usual with Soviet plans, there seem to be several objectives here. Some apparently even conflict, such as offers to buy production equipment while offering to sell production equipment.

But they all fit into an over-all design of expansion abroad while consolidating at home.

Does Everything Right, but Gets No Soda Pop

ST. LOUIS (U)—Oscar Fowell, thirsting for a cold drink, dropped a nickel into a red box on a wall at City Hospital yesterday, pulled a lever and waited.

No soda pop came out but shortly firemen rushed in with hoses and upraised axes. He was released after explaining his error.

Nations Decide Fugitive's Fate

Colombia, Peru Agree on Dealing With Famed Political Refugee

CARACAS, Venezuela (U)—The 10th Inter-American Conference paused in its lengthy discussions of economic problems today to learn the outcome of the five-year dispute over Latin America's most famous political refugee—Victor Raul Haya de la Torre of Peru.

Peru, who would like to try him as a criminal, and Colombia, in whose Lima embassy he has been sheltered since January 1949, agreed on his future yesterday in talks at Bogota. Colombian Foreign Minister Evaristo Sourdis planned to announce their decision to the conference today.

Unofficial reports from Bogota said the two nations had agreed to turn Haya de la Torre over to either the Chilean or Uruguayan embassies in Lima and that Peru then would let him leave Lima for exile in one of those countries.

Haya, 59-year-old leader of Peru's outlawed Apra party, took refuge in the Colombia Embassy after an unsuccessful revolution in 1948. The Peruvian government refused to give him safe conduct out of the country, contending he was a common criminal. Colombia refused to give him up, classifying him as a political refugee entitled to the asylum Latin American countries traditionally extend to those on the outs politically with their home governments. Haya has lived as a virtual prisoner in the embassy ever since.

Because of his case, agreement on conditions of political asylum has become one of the major issues of the current conference. Already the conference has decided that the country extending sanctuary has the right to determine whether the fugitive is entitled to it. This was one of the main points in the dispute between Colombia and Peru.

CIO Holds Up Decision on 'No-Raiding' Pact

NEW YORK (U)—Top leaders of the CIO have decided to hold up final approval of a no-raiding pact with the AFL until more AFL unions promise to go along with the agreement. The decision was announced yesterday by CIO President Walter P. Reuther after a meeting of the CIO Executive Board.

Golden Rule Is Workable, Not Just a Pretty Saying

By CLIFFORD CLINTON
Los Angeles Restaurant Owner

Do you remember the old joke about the amateur piano player? "They laughed when I sat down to play but..."

Well, they did more than laugh when I decided to open a cafeteria in Los Angeles in the year 1931 with a capital of $2,000. When they discovered I intended to base my operation on the Golden Rule and use as a slogan, "Pay What You Want; Dine Free Unless Delighted," most business men thought I'd suffered a touch of California sun.

I had four people on my side: my wife Nelda and my three small children. The kindest thing the rest said about me was that I was young (all of 31) and had a suicidal faith in human nature. That Clifford Clinton was, if I meant what I said.

I meant it all right. The Golden Rule is workable, on any scale you choose to apply it—from picking up a neighbor's kid with a bruised knee to feeding thousands, or millions. It is isn't that, it's just a pretty saying.

During the first year of Clifton's Cafeteria, my theory was put to a rigid test. Hunger is my business. I know a lot about hunger, and I for one, wouldn't want to go hungry for want of a dollar in my jeans.

There were hundreds of jobless people in 1931 who couldn't even pay for the low-priced foods we offered. We fed them just the same.

In one 90-day period 10,000 persons availed themselves of the privilege of dining free... because they were broke. Before the establishment of federal relief facilities, we set up a penny restaurant and served "penny-a-portion" meals to more than a million needy people.

Were Nelda and I scared? Let's just say it wasn't easy. We had to go all out for our principle. I mean trust it, or run.

The business did pull through, and expanded. Today, we operate two downtown restaurants, serving up to 20,000 meals daily and grossing $3,000,000 a year, with less than one tenth of one per cent of our guests availing themselves of their freely given right to alter their checks downward.

Hunger still stalks the earth. Not long ago a letter came to me from Korea with a challenge in it: "No one in America can fully understand hunger. Here hunger gnaws at their stomachs. Many lie helpless on the sidewalk."

But, say many, can we feed the world? The answer is yes. In 1945 I offered a challenge to Dr. Henry R. Borsook at California Institute of Technology.

"Can you get me a food that has a bite appeal, is dehydrated, nutritious, cheap and will not spoil? It must assume the flavor of any food with which is might be mixed and offend no religion."

Dr. Borsook could and did. With funds provided by Clifton's and the Southern California Dehydrators Association, he produced the first Multi-Purpose Food, or M.P.F., as we called it.

The final product of his experiments was based on soya grits, by-product of the soya bean. Two ounces costing 3 cents contained roughly the nutrients found in a meal of 1/4 pound of beef, a glass of milk, a dish of green peas, and a potato.

Paul de Kruif, a friend of Dr. Borsook's introduced the public to this food in a national magazine article.

Such a world-wide response resulted that we hastily tried to get leading relief agencies or the government to handle it, but finally had to establish our own nonprofit foundation, Meals for Millions, so we would know what to do with the money people were sending us.

When the Freedom Train Left Los Angeles in November of 1947 with its gift offerings for hungry Europe, Meals for Millions donated one carload of M.P.F.

The protein in this one $15,000 carload of M.P.F. would provide the same amount of higher quality protein as could be found in four carloads of wheat. Similarly, there is about 12 times as much calcium in a pound of M.P.F. as in a pound of wheat, twice as much vitamin B1. Thus in the one carload 500,000 meals were represented.

The Navajo Indians were incorporating it in their recipes with their accustomed goat's meat, salted cedar ashes, kneaded-bread, and boiled corn husks.

It is the Golden Rule that has made that possible. American church groups... individual donations... youth and high school organizations... children keeping jars into which they drop three pennies every day with the realization that each 3 cents is buying a full meal for some hungry child in a far-off land.

And so the crazy dream of helping to feed the world is snowballing because of the Golden Rule. The job won't be done, of course, until starvation is eliminated, but you will never convince me that this isn't possible, not while I still have my "suicidal faith in human nature."

Perhaps, as my friend in Korea wrote, Americans cannot fully understand hunger. There is no need that they should, just so long as they do understand what Jesus meant when he said: "Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you do ye even so to them."

Newspapers Get Credit for License Plate Sales

The secretary of state's office at Lansing today credited newspaper cooperation in the "shop early" campaign for 1954 license plates as one of the major factors in reducing last-minute sales.

Public response to the campaign, which increased pre-deadline sales by 336,000 plates, shaved more than $10,000 in labor costs from state expenditures, officials said.

Aid for Drug Addicts

Awaiting expected approval on Gov. WILLIAMS' desk is a forward looking measure which promises Michigan's 5,000 known drug addicts real hope of rehabilitation.

Although sponsored in the upper chamber at Lansing by Sen. RYAN, Detroit Democrat, this actually is a bi-partisan measure. Once its author had agreed to amendments meeting certain objections of his colleagues, the bill got unanimous approval in both houses.

Those interested in Michigan's narcotics problem have hailed this legislation for two outstanding features. One is its recognition that drug addiction is not a crime but a disease and should be treated as such.

The other is the requirement that a released addict spend two years on probation accepting regular treatment from the Detroit clinic or hospitals outstate.

In treating addiction as a disease, the bill specifically states that commitment of a person to a hospital for treatment can not be deemed a conviction. This section also sets forth that proceedings in which such a person is committed cannot be used against him in any criminal case.

The Legislature is to be commended for its unanimous approval of steps to reduce the human and economic waste caused by the drug evil. The total lack of opposition to this bill leads us to believe it will have the Governor's early approval.

Outstanding Man of 1953

Once again Dr. GEORGE N. PETROFF's contributions to his home community have won him and Pontiac high honor.

At a board dinner of the State Junior Chamber of Commerce in Port Huron, Dr. PETROFF was chosen from among 100 candidates as the "Outstanding Young Man of 1953."

Such distinction is not entirely new for this energetic 36 year old medical graduate of Wayne University. In 1951 he was Pontiac's outstanding Jaycee. A year later he was voted the outstanding Jaycee president by 47 Michigan Junior Chambers.

Few men anywhere have labored as tirelessly for civic betterment. Many community activities have benefited from Dr. PETROFF's helping hand.

We know of no one as deserving of this recognition as the past president of our Junior Chamber.

In the interest of greater traffic safety we call to the attention of all motorists a news photo which appeared on our front page the other day.

If any picture ever preached a sermon this one did. It showed a seven year old Cleveland girl on the pavement under a one and a half ton truck. She had been thrown there when struck by a car. But thanks to the quick reaction of the truck driver, the heavy vehicle was stopped in time to avert tragedy.

Had the truck proceeded another inch the child would have been crushed to death by the double rear wheels. As it was she escaped with head injuries and a fractured leg inflicted by the automobile.

This little girl is alive today because that Cleveland truck driver had his vehicle under complete control. The moral of this incident is clear. If all motorists kept their cars under complete control at all times, traffic's toll of life and limb would drop sharply.

Tories Gain in Britain

Because what happens in British politics is important to us, the Churchill government's success in recent by-elections is worth noting.

Tory candidates have been victorious in all five of Britain's latest by-elections. It is true that these constituencies normally are Conservative. But much more important to a government given power by a meager majority in Commons is the fact that in each succeeding by-election the victor's majority was larger.

This growth in sentiment for the party in power, an unusual mid-term development in Britain, has raised a question which will be answered only by Prime Minister Churchill. That is whether to seek greater parliamentary strength in a general election this Fall or wait until the government's term expires in 1956.

From our standpoint the British situation is of interest beyond the mere fact of Tory popularity. Reflected here is the British people's gradual turning away from the socialistic theories of nationalization of industry and economic controls.

Teacher Says Children Should Consider Divine Plan in Seeking Fields of Work

In order to combat juvenile delinquency and in contradiction to those who say, "Let them express themselves," Sister Mary IHM, Marygrove College says:

"As a result of the fall of man there has been a darkening of the understanding, a weakening of the will and a strong inclination to evil. The intellects of our children are so feeble they cannot appreciate this fundamental truth, the necessity of carrying out God's plan.

"If our will is in harmony with the divine plan in physical matters, health is the prize. If our will is in harmony in ways of dealing with other people, social happiness is the prize; if our will is in harmony with the use of our mental powers, a normal mind is the prize.

"If our will is in harmony with the observance of right and avoidance of wrong, character is the prize; if it is living in the state of grace, peace here and heaven hereafter are the prizes and if our whole rational life is balanced in observance of the divine plan the perfect Christian personality is the prize.

"A child should be taught to find his job, not in the free and foolish use of his own will but in doing God's will as manifested in the divine plan. This is a matter of education for which parents are primarily responsible."

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me: yet thy commandments are my delights.—Psalms 119:143.

GOP Criticism of McCarthy May Pull In Many Dem Votes to Help Anti-Red Fight

By DAVID LAWRENCE
 WASHINGTON — Maybe those who are ganging up on Sen. McCarthy nowadays in Washington and elsewhere will succeed in making him a martyr — and then a hero. This is, of course, far from their intent.

But their methods and tactics could bring about that result just as happened in the case of another Wisconsin senator more than three decades ago.

Sen. Robert M. La Follette Sr., Progressive Republican, was denounced from one end of the country to the other because he didn't believe in the issues on which World War I were being fought.

His speeches during the war were so unpopular with the people generally that both Republican houses of the Wisconsin legislature, by majority vote, and the Republican Central Committee of that state petitioned the United States Senate to expel him.

The resolution was introduced, referred to a committee and was never acted upon by the Senate.

Sen. La Follette was anti-war, but was regarded by some people as actually obstructing the war effort itself.

In 1920, however, after the war ended, Bob La Follette was re-elected senator from Wisconsin by the biggest majority he ever got, and in 1924 polled nearly 5,000,000 votes as a third-party candidate for the presidency.

Calvin Coolidge was elected, but he won the electoral votes of 12 states west of the Mississippi by less than a majority of the votes in those states.

When President Truman went to Wisconsin in recent years to campaign, he extolled Bob La Follette as a great hero and said he hoped that Wisconsin would breed more La Follettes. Thus are martyrs converted into heroes as time passes.

History may repeat itself. For the opponents of Sen. McCarthy are overreaching themselves and causing more bitter cleavages than they realize.

The other day a prominent Protestant clergyman in a nationally known church in New York City attacked the Catholic church as giving birth to such men as McCarthy.

This regrettable assault on the Catholic religion was promptly repudiated editorially by two very important newspapers which have been bitterly opposed to Senator McCarthy but who deplored the raising of this issue.

Some of the big Protestant church organizations have lately been getting into the fray with resolutions that border closely on church intervention in politics. The lack of restraint on the part of the critics is a cause for concern.

Sen. McCarthy's views or his attitude in committee work can hardly be made the basis of his expulsion from the Senate despite the fact that he has incurred enmities by his vigorous fight against Communists in the government.

Some of the critics are indulging in the same smear tactics and the same intolerance which they attribute to congressional committee hearings.

Examining some of the expressions of opinion one reads or hears against McCarthy, it might appear that senators can be thrown out of the Senate just because they utter unpopular views.

It seems to be forgotten that anything a senator chooses to say at a committee hearing, he can also say in a speech on the floor of the Senate, and there is no rule by which he can be punished for freedom of expression.

When a man as pugnacious as Sen. McCarthy is attacked, naturally he will fight back. For many weeks now the anti-McCarthy folks have been goading the President to have a knock-down, drag-out fight with the Wisconsin senator.

Eisenhower didn't have to add fuel to the flames at every press conference in recent weeks, but he has hardly failed each time to fall for the efforts of the "left wing" to get him into the headlines on the anti-McCarthy side.

Naturally the Wisconsin senator isn't going to stand for a "purge" any more than Democratic senators have in the past when Democratic Presidents have gone even further in trying to read them out of the party.

To change the subject I usually interpose some remarks about physical degeneration, being careful to emphasize the physical, for just plain degeneration would be an affront to a lot of... one thing leads to another and finally, in apologetic mood, I cite Webster's definition and call it a day.

Degeneration, says Webster, deterioration of a tissue or an organ in which its vitality is diminished. This is all right as far as it goes, but I think Stedman's medical definition is better than Webster's.

The Democrats have played the game shrewdly. They know that the Truman holdovers in Washington and a sympathetic press corps would keep the McCarthy issue alive and now the anti-McCarthy partisans are rejoicing.

The Democrats think they have damaged the Republican party and made it easier for the Democrats to return to power. The anti-McCarthy Republicans think they have overnight, by merely denouncing McCarthy, driven away from him many millions of Republicans who have been his followers.

But it must not be forgotten that there are millions of Democratic voters who will cross over to the Republican party to help elect candidates for Congress who are determined to root out Communists in the government and to expose those who protected them in the past.

The Wisconsin senator in the 1952 primaries had an overwhelming majority, and much of it came from Democrats who voted for McCarthy in the Republican primaries.

He certainly will draw big crowds in the coming campaign and he can thank his critics for the build-up they have given him. (Copyright 1954)

Good Teeth, Right Breathing Are 2 Ways to Defeat the Onslaught of Early Old Age

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

For a long time I have been trying to tell you children one of the facts of life, but it seems I just haven't the courage to go through with it as I intended and at the last moment I back off in panic.

Well, even if I can't tell you that the moment we reach the peak of growth and development we begin to... we don't just stand there at the peak... even though we like to believe we're good at 40 as we were at 30 or 50 as we like to kid ourselves, etc., etc.

To change the subject I usually interpose some remarks about physical degeneration, being careful to emphasize the physical, for just plain degeneration would be an affront to a lot of... one thing leads to another and finally, in apologetic mood, I cite Webster's definition and call it a day.

Degeneration, says Webster, deterioration of a tissue or an organ in which its vitality is diminished. This is all right as far as it goes, but I think Stedman's medical definition is better than Webster's.

We Are Children of God Who Is a Loving Father

The witch burners at Salem in 1692 had no sense of humor. And we didn't have American newspapers in those days to protect the innocent or expose the dictatorial views of religious tyrants. We still have potential witch burners in America who would destroy freedom of speech if it weren't for our newspapers.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
 Case K-356: Bart J., aged 22, is a theological student.

"Dr. Crane, I enjoyed one of your recent columns about the need for a sense of humor in religion," he began. "We certainly could use more of it."

"For here is a clipping from a church magazine which attacks you. It will illustrate what I mean," and he handed me the editorial.

It was headed "Blasphemy" and I was bitterly accused of being a blasphemer because I had stated that we Americans should look on God more as an extension of a good American Dad than as an autocratic European dictator. For we are children of God who is a loving Father, not a tyrant.

The editorial then ended with this ludicrous attack upon me: "Stalin and his gang could not put God much lower than this blasphemer—this Crane, who is a fifth columnist."

If it weren't for newspapers, which valiantly defend freedom of speech, you and I would soon be coerced by religious dictators who have no sense of humor and who can't even read their Bibles correctly.

For newspapers bring things into the open so everybody can see what is going on.

You newspaper readers thus become the daily "jury" to make sure that this Republic will remain free from dictation, whether of the political or religious sort.

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

 We regret to gossip that the Troy Conservatory of long red underwear has buttoned its last rear flap.

Business has fallen off like a drunk on a bicycle. The morose manufacturers blame it on our mild winters.

The long Troy bags helped to settle America and win the west. They were also necessary below the Mason-Dixon line.

But style is an inexorable tyrant. People are becoming streamlined and silhouette conscious.

No doll is stepping around with lumpy ankles and transom-sterned bustle. What's the use of going on a diet if you dress fat?

Strange thing about grandpa's long red flannels. Even flapping on the clothesline they never looked entirely empty.

Now that winters are getting milder there are other reasons for dressing in the hatus of fashion. Five-cent bus rides are shorter, the street cars are better heated, there are no backyards, people who live in glass houses are quite comfortable, oil burners are cosier, there is modern wall-to-wall carpeting and nothing looks better on the wife than ankle-length mink.

ing a Bible class each Sunday for 35 years. I had read the Bible through from cover to cover 8 times before I even graduated from high school.

And the Bible tells us that we are children of God. Jesus taught us when we pray to begin "Our Father, which art in heaven." Christ didn't tell us to say, "Almighty Czar, Dictator of Heaven and Earth. Absolute Monarch and Despot. Caesar, we grovel at thy feet as abject slaves, etc. etc."

Jesus also said, "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there will I be in the midst of them."

And He didn't say those two or three had to be, in a Methodist or Baptist or Lutheran or Roman Catholic or Mormon church, either.

So modern Americans are getting away from the former European dictatorial viewpoint of God.

The early Christians were soon required to develop some sort of organization to handle the zooming membership.

Since none of them had belonged to a Kiwanis or Lions Club, they had had no experience with parliamentary law or committees, and such strategy.

Thus, they looked to dictatorial Caesar and the Roman government for a pattern. It was all they knew, so they imitated its set-up.

Caesar was an absolute monarch. The state was everything. Individuals didn't count. The king could do no wrong and his word was law.

Kowtowing was in vogue before the monarch who was attired in jewels and purple robes.

To get his favor, you even resorted to bribes or worked in a roundabout way by first gaining the friendship of his mother or wife, so they could later present your project at a most favorable moment.

This "dictator" concept of God thus has fettered the Christian churches of all denominations ever since Christ's crucifixion.

And many people, who have been accustomed to goose stepping and slavish deference to Europe's political rulers, don't mind this viewpoint too much, even now.

But in free, independent America, the autocratic concept is not so popular. For intelligent Americans take Christ's view of God as a loving Father, or a good American Dad, carried to the nth degree.

Douglas Safari to Resume Hike

Justice Trying to Win Fight Against Proposed Parkway

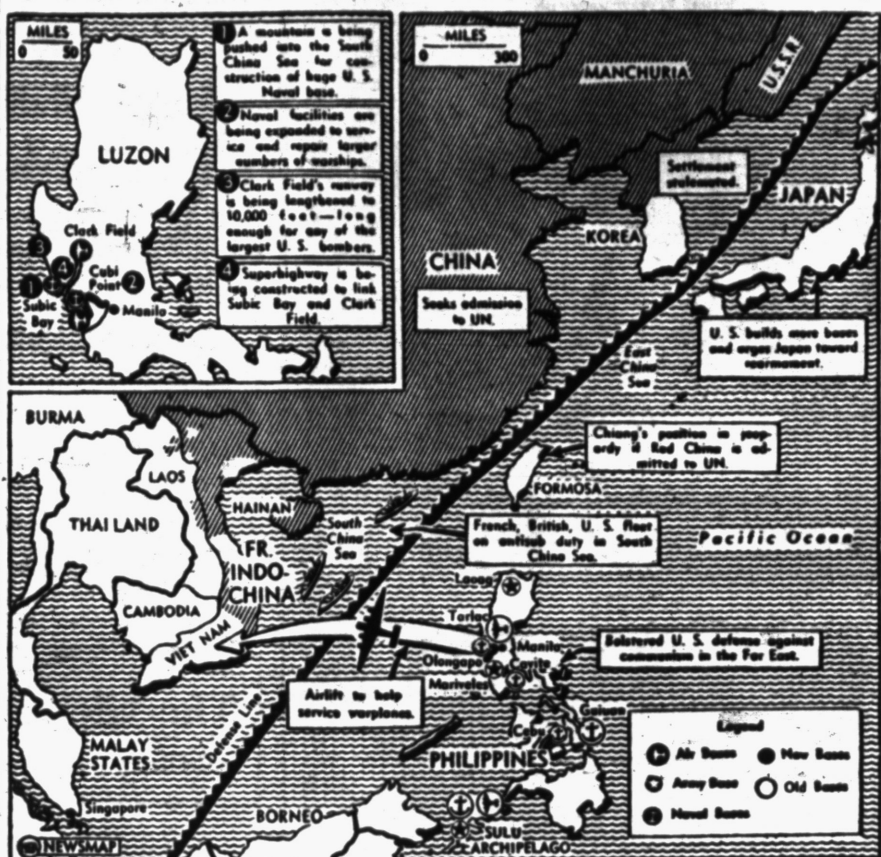

FORT FREDERICK, Md. (U)—After a night of camping in the open, Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas and 22 companions planned to hit the trail early today on their 184-mile hike along the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Washington.

The day's walk of about 26 miles was scheduled to take them as far as the Potomac Fish and Game Club at Falling Waters, W. Va., one of the longest single stretches since they left Cumberland, Md., last Saturday. It will put them within 100 miles of Washington, which they plan to reach by Saturday afternoon.

To keep it on the level, the starting point for today's hike was Ernstville, about four miles northwest of here where the main body stopped walking yesterday at 5 p.m. and rode into camp in the truck accompanying the party.

The reason, said Douglas, was because they got a late start from the Woodmont Rod and Gun Club, where they spent the previous night. They planned to start at 7 a.m., two hours earlier today, riding the truck back to Ernstville and walking from there.

The hike resulted from a challenge by the outdoors-loving justice to two Washington editorial writers who had favored a plan to construct a federal parkway along the route. Douglas contended it would mar the area's natural beauties and invited them to come along with him and see. They accepted.

Prayers Bring Rain to Parched New Mexico

ALBUQUERQUE (U)—A gentle, soaking, blessed rain fell on parched New Mexico yesterday, starting a short time after prayers for rain were recited in churches throughout the state.

Last Friday, Archbishop Edwin V. Byrne ordered prayers for rain Sunday in all Catholic churches throughout the predominantly Catholic state. The rain began Sunday night in the western portion of the state and reached the east side, hardest hit by the drought, last night.

Navy to Interview, Test Stenography Applicants

Stenographers seeking civilian positions with the Navy Department in Washington, D. C., will be interviewed and tested in room 419, New Federal Building, Detroit, from 9 to 5 on weekdays and on Saturdays and evenings by appointment, it was announced today by Chief Alan D. Simonson, head of Navy recruiting in Pontiac.

The positions, under federal civil service, pay $2,950 to $3,175 per year and carry an automatic salary increase of $80 yearly. Room reservations are guaranteed upon arrival in Washington. Applicants must be at least 18 years old at the time they start work.

Korea Still Undecided About Geneva Parley

SEOUL (U)—Foreign Minister Pyun Yung Tai said today South Korea is "satisfied" with American assurances of a joint walkout from the Geneva conference if it proves fruitless at the end of 90 days.

However, South Korea has not yet decided whether it will attend the April 26 conference, Pyun told a news conference. He said his government is studying other assurances given it by the United States.

Possibility Seen for Cancer Drug

Malaria Researchers Stumble on Chemical to Relieve Leukemia

BOSTON (U) — The quest for drugs to fight malaria may have turned up some new foes for cancer, a Boston scientist said today. Dr. Sidney Farber of the Children's Cancer Research Foundation said that five experimental compounds originally produced with the idea of combatting malaria have yielded temporary benefits when given to some people suffering from "acute leukemia and scattered other tumors."

Leukemia is a cancer of the blood. Farber said that while the benefits derived from the drugs were of short duration, they were sufficiently strong to warrant further investigation of compounds of this general type.

The doctor told about it during a news conference with science writers looking into a number of research projects being sponsored by the American Cancer Society.

He said these particular drugs are, in a sense, bad news to certain vitamins and other materials necessary for the growth of living cells. Therefore, since cancer is considered to be a wild growth of cells, anything that might interfere with such wild growth would be of great importance.

The doctor also told of promising — although still temporary — treatment of leukemia and certain other forms of cancer with other chemical materials.

He told of one boy, a victim of leukemia which once was invariably fatal in a matter of months, who now has been kept alive for almost five years, thanks to a leukemia-fighting drug.

He still has the disease, and his improvement is considered only "temporary," but, as Dr. Farber said:

"Life is being prolonged, and there is always that possibility that someone may come up with an answer in time to save such people."

Determined Thieves Pull Thorough Job

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (U) — Officials of the American-Lithuanian Club told police thieves entered the club's building by removing an alarm control box, prying off a quarter-inch-thick steel plate covering a window, and then removing the grillwork of half-inch steel rods on the inside of the window.

Then they used a heavy sledgehammer—left behind in the previous break-in—to crack open a 600-pound safe. Before leaving with the cash, they picked up other tools, which included two crowbars and a steel bar, plus the alarm control box.

Jam Northland Opening

DETROIT (U) — Some 70,000 persons turned out Monday to open the giant suburban shopping center of Northland, northwest of Detroit. The $25 million center is built around a J. L. Hudson Co. branch and is reportedly the largest of its kind in the world.

X-Rays in Color Possible With New Technique

NEW YORK (U) — Now you can get your X-ray pictures in color. A system for making them, described as a significant new tool for medical science, was reported to the Institute of Radio Engineers today by Prof. R. Stuart Mackay of the University of California.

Experiments show the color X-ray pictures give more detail than the ordinary black and gray variety, he said in a paper prepared for presentation on the second day of the four-day session of the big international organization of electronics scientists.

The use of color is based on the fact that different materials absorb X-rays differently.

With the color technique, three ordinary X-ray pictures are taken of a part of the body, but a different wavelength of energy is used each time. The three pictures then are projected through three different color filters and superimposed to produce a single color image or photographic print.

In examining the color picture, the doctor is not interested in the esthetic effects but in what the color tells him on the absorption of X-rays by the various tissues that are shown.

Prof. Mackay said principles also have been worked out for direct viewing color fluoroscopy, and that showing of color X-ray pictures on color TV sets is being considered.

Hal Boyle Says:

Nobody Wants a Remedy to Control Spring Fever

NEW YORK (U-P) — Don't know what's wrong with everybody? Could it be spring?

You take the dog for a walk, and he turns around and bites at the leash.

The pigeons start jaywalking in the streets, doing love rumbas with each other and thumbing their wings to their beaks at taxicabs.

A knife-edged wind blows the last clinker of winter in your eye, and while you are grumpily pawing it out a warm sun pats you on the shoulder and says, "there, there. Feel better?"

Everybody seems sleepy and absent minded. At the office the boss tells the hired hand to do something, and the hired hand says, "what did you say?" and the boss nods for a moment and says, "when?"

High in the skyscrapers the swivel chair jockeys muse over what would happen if they threw a spitball at their secretary. They have a secret yearning to open the window and sail paper airplanes down on the heads of strangers.

The cop on the beat plods along and suddenly finds himself dreaming of the days when he used to go barefoot. He looks down at his shoes, as if he had half a mind to pull them off.

In tenement windows winter quilts are hung out to be aired. Housewives lean out and call to each other, "my, is my house a mess? How do you like the weather?"

A querulous treble sounds in the voices of children. They complain of strange pains and are comforted when their elders tell them, "oh, they're just growing pains. You're getting bigger every day." One minute a child stands in a dopey-eyed trance, as though he had a head full of adenoids. The next minute he is racing up the street like a maddened colt, running for no other reason except there is something stirring within him that won't let him keep still.

Little boys get out their bean-shooters and set out to ambush the first robin, which annoys the robin as he is busy with housekeeping problems and has no time for little boys. Little girls get out forgotten dolls and begin to croon to them.

Rheumatic twinges slowly free the bones of old folks, and they lose the envy of better-off neighbors who spent the winter in Florida. "Pneumonia weather," they say wisely, when the first rains turn the landscape sodden.

In the suburbs a husband opens his front door to get the morning paper and sees two baby rabbits scampering across the lawn. He grins, steps out to look at the lawn and growls, "oh, no, not crabgrass already!"

In a nearby pond papa frog and mama frog are conducting an amphibious romance. Soon the pond will be full of little tadpoles, all anxious, for some unknown reason, to grow up to be big frogs and boss of the puddle.

In the heart of every tree and bush a whisper grows down to the roots and out to each branch. Suddenly the sleepy buds begin to break open like popcorn, and the brown woods swim in a green mist a deepening surf of leaves.

Everything in nature all at once is busting its buttons, trying to grow as tall as the sun. At night the moon and stars seem nearer and brighter, as if a celestial housewife had newly dipped them in silver polish.

Life has a dreamy quality for the race of man. The bank teller ripples a stack of $100 bills in his hands and wonders what it is like in Tahiti. The blood is a crying bugle in the veins, and the stern voice of duty is drowned out by a big fat yaw-w-w-w-w-n.

Work is for horses and tractors. A man feels like peeling off his past and going for a swim in coral seas far away... far, far away... with Miss Jones, the file clerk. Or maybe her grandmother.

Don't know what's wrong with everybody. But if it's spring fever, doc, don't give us any wonder drug to cure it. It's a wonderful disease, this lotus virus, and the best medicine of the year.

Three Children Die as Blaze Hits Home

WARSAW, Ind. (U-P)—Three children of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hyde were burned to death yesterday when a flash fire ate through their small frame home here while the parents were working. A fourth child tumbled through a window to safety.

Dead were Dorothy, 14; Brenda Bernice, 2; and Robert Lewis, 7 months. Charles, 7, escaped without injury.

An explosion of a bottled gas heating stove apparently started the blaze, firemen said.

Bob Considine Says:

Polar Ice Cools Highballs for Old Explorers' Toast

places . . . things . . . Lowell Thomas, no slouch himself at the exploring game, called to the center of the dais (at the Explorers Club anniversary dinner) two great men of the Arctic.

One was spry 88-year-old Matthew Henson, Washington, D. C., Negro who was the only man to go to the North Pole with Peary. The other was big, bearded, one-legged Peter Freuchen, a great Dane.

They toasted each other in Eskimo. As they did so they held the strangest Scotch highballs ever seen. The ice that cooled the drinks was chipped off T-3, the state-sized fresh-water ice cube that is slowly crashing its way through the ice at the top of the world.

The ice had been flown to New York by regular Air Force transport service, and it looked clearer than the domesticated ice cubes in the bucket on our table.

Freuchen once was stoical enough to amputate his own leg when it was bothering him on an Arctic expedition. But the other night he did something that further endeared him to fellow club members. He poked a muscular finger into his scotch and flipped out the hard-won T-3 ice.

"I drink it without ice," said the man who has lived most of his life amidst the stuff.

At the same dinner, Lt. Comdr. Georges Houot and Lt. Pierre-Henri Willim, who set an all-time record Feb. 15 by sending their sub to a depth of 13,284 feet, were asked by toastmaster Thomas to speak into the microphone.

Men of science and exploration from all over the country leaned forward to absorb the scientific answer to Lowell's question of "How was it down there?" The two young French naval officers seemed to confer in whispers. Then Comdr. Houot said: "Black as hell."

Citizens who are stunned by the McCarthy-Cohn vs. Army hearing must have taken heart if they heard Earl Godwin, veteran Washington reporter, on the radio Sunday.

Godwin reviewed another Senate investigation that was raging three decades ago. In all, that particular investigation lasted eight years, sent a Cabinet officer and a multimillionaire to prison and made and broke a score of reputations.

It all started with a letter to Sen. Kendrick of Wyoming from a constituent who complained that drillers from the Sinclair Company had moved into the Teapot Dome (Wyo.) fields which former President Wilson had ordered set aside as a Naval oil reserve. It was not a raid by Sinclair. Their papers were in perfect order.

Preliminary inquiry showed that the Elk Hills (Calif.) reserve had been leased at the same time to Pen-American Petroleum Co., headed by E. L.

The nation learned that Secretary of Navy Denby had turned over the reserves to the supervision of Secretary of Interior Albert Fall, who in turn had leased them.

It was revealed that Fall's New Mexico ranch took on a sudden look of affluence. He testified he had borrowed $100,000 from Edward R. McLean, Washington publisher, but it was brought out that the loan had been made by Doheny. Fall and Sinclair went to prison. Doheny was acquitted.

The present business is small potatoes by comparison.

The tourist season in Germany in 1953 proved the best in her history and included 4,066,000 visitors from outside Germany, an increase of 27.8 per cent.

Saucer Story Denied by AF

Debunks Report About Recovering Hunks of Outer-Space Material

WASHINGTON (AP)—A spokesman today termed without basis an assertion that the Air Force has recovered hunks of "flying saucers" and just isn't telling the public about them.

The Air Force position, he said, is that "given enough factual data" every "flying saucer" report over the last six years could be explained in natural, earthly, nonsensational terms.

"We don't think the so-called saucers come from outer space or from a foreign government," the spokesman said.

Bill Nash, a Pan American World Airways pilot, told the Greater Miami Aviation Assn. recently he was convinced that "the Air Force has collected hardware from outer space."

"I do not believe the Air Force cares to make all its findings public so long as the United States is threatened by unfriendly powers," Nash said.

Nash was quoted as having reported sighting unidentified objects while flying from New York to Miami on a date not specified.

He said he and his crew saw six objects, later joined by two others, and the lights from them were "20 times brighter than those of Norfolk and Newport News," Va., near where the alleged sighting was made.

"From their maneuvers, there is no doubt in my mind these objects were controlled by intelligent beings," he said. "When you have seen them, you realize they were not made on this planet."

The Pentagon officer currently handling "saucer" queries said that to date more than 80 per cent of the sightings — both visual and by radar — have been identified as of known objects. He said from 10 to 15 per cent have been outright hoaxes.

"The others probably could be explained if our knowledge of physics was greater," he said. "There are many things about the sky that science still doesn't understand."

Chemical Plant Fire Kills 2 Men Monday

CHICAGO (AP)—Two men were killed yesterday in a fire and a series of explosions which destroyed a chemical manufacturing plant. Damage was estimated at one million dollars.

The explosions sent black smoke and flames billowing 100 feet into the air from the one-story, 500-foot long building housing the Pelron Corp. in suburban Lyons.

One worker, Robert Friedel, 29, perished in the fire while another, Lester Heavrin, 35, died of injuries several hours later.

Cause of the fire was not determined.

Embezzler on Probation

Doyle Mulkey, 21, of Macon, Miss., yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court was placed on two years probation by Judge H. Russell Holland, fined $150 court costs and ordered to pay back $95 he had previously admitted taking from his employers. Mulkey pleaded guilty to embezzlement March 15.

Law Catches Up With Violator 28 Years Later

DETROIT (AP)—After 28 years the law caught up with John Cusamano, probation violator.

Cusamano, now 52, was put on probation May 27, 1926, and ordered to pay a $165 debt to a jeweler. The record showed he never paid it, but neither was anything ever done about it.

Recently he applied for a job in a public building. A routine civil service check turned up his record.

Yesterday Judge Frank G. Schemanske, learning Cusamano had been a good citizen ever since his transgression and the jewelry firm was no longer interested, dismissed the probation violation charge.

But the court insisted on one gesture from Cusamano. He was ordered to contribute $50 to charity.

Greatest Development in Brewing Since Repeal!

NOW GOEBEL IS

FROST-FINISHED

FOR FINER FLAVOR

FF

FROST-FINISHED for Finer Flavor

Perfected in Goebel's great research laboratories

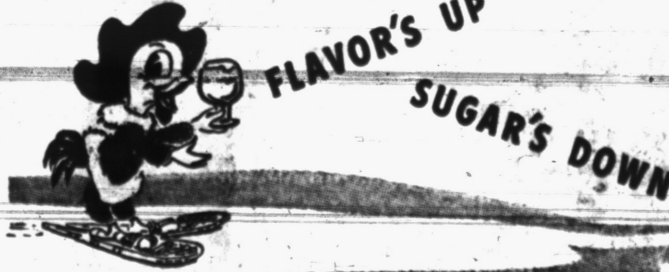

For more than 20 years brewers have been striving to brew a light, dry beer that's low in sugar and starch, yet still retains its fine, full flavor. Now this has been accomplished by Goebel's great new Frost-Finishing process!

This important contribution to brewing, the result of years of research by Goebel scientists, reduces sugar and starch content to a minimum while, at the same time, it actually improves the flavor.

Frost-Finishing is two additional brewing steps. Twice, before it is bottled, the temperature of the beer is suddenly plunged to points close to freezing. This sudden reduction in temperature removes excess sugars and starches, and allows the beer to reach its true flavor peak.

Try a glass of today's Goebel, soon you get finer "frosty dry" flavor because it's Frost-Finished.

This exclusive new development makes regular waxes obsolete. You can now have a beautiful lustrous, lasting finish on your car not possible with any other wax. . . . Read why:

Tested under all conditions,
Collinite out-performs all other waxes, polishes and coatings.

• Collinite is an especially hard high-gloss protective wax, with amazing adhesive and polishing qualities. Unlike ordinary waxes.
• Collinite is more durable than paint itself. It is impervious to bug stains, rain spots, alkalis, and weather. It is not affected by heat, freezing, road salt spray, smog, gasoline, oil, or many other chemicals.
• It requires no hard scrubbing, buffing, or special treatment.

Have you seen a wax that protects a new car finish for the life of the car? Collinite does it . . . and on any car, old or new! Collinite luster alone holds up for one full year or more.

Write, phone or stop now for your Collinite Wax and Cleaner so that your car will have the brightest, best protected finish in your neighborhood.

DR. ROY V. COOLEY

Your Candidates

Two in District One Race for City Commission Seat

District 1 commissioner since 1952, Dr. Roy V. Cooley, 34, lives at 441 Bartlett St.

Cooley came here in 1927 and has been in general practice since 1947. He attended the University of Michigan Medical School.

A member of Newman A.M.E. Church, Cooley is a World War II veteran. He belongs to several professional organizations and has one son.

Cooley is a member of the Neopolitan Club, Wells Edwards Post 411, American Legion; Pontiac Chamber of Commerce and Pontiac chapter of NAACP.

No statement was submitted by Cooley.

Views Solicited

City Commission candidates were invited by the Pontiac Press to give their views on four questions. The questions were: (1) Should the city increase the number of liquor-by-the-glass licenses? (2) Should the city continue its program to provide municipal off-street parking lots? (3) Is it desirable to expand the hospital and increase capital improvement funds as outlined in the two tax proposals facing voters in the April election? (4) Should the city change to voting machines in an effort to reduce costs and speed election returns?

Burke Gets 90 Days for Illegal Operation

After pleading guilty March 3 to operating a trailer park at 229 E. Walton Blvd. without a license, Clare W. Burke, 50, was sentenced yesterday to 90 days in Oakland County Jail by Circuit Judge H. Russell Holland.

The case had been appealed from Municipal Court where a similar sentence was imposed on Burke Jan. 7 by Pontiac Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Burke was fined twice before on the same charge. Last week the Pontiac City Health Department obtained an injunction from Judge Holland requiring 66 families living in the Burke-owned park to move by April 19.

The order cited failure of the park to meet sanitation and health laws or be licensed by the state.

Wrong Vehicle Taken by Man at Detroit Lot

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Police have news today for Paul Zakroff of Chicago's Clinton Machinery Co. They were looking for him last night as the driver of a car reported stolen. But even they didn't know it at the time.

The car incidentally, was owned by suburban Dearborn and was checked out to its colorful mayor, Orville Hubbard.

Hubbard parked on a Detroit lot, right beside a rented car of the same make, color, model and year. Returning, Hubbard found his car gone and reported it stolen. Ten hours later an auto rental agency called police. Paul Zakroff of Chicago had returned a car that didn't belong to it. The car was Hubbard's. The rental firm's auto was found on the parking lot, right next to where Hubbard had parked.

Reo Gets Army Contract
LANSING (UP) — Reo Motors, Inc., today announced receipt of a $1,000,000 Army Ordnance contract to supply spare truck parts.

REUBEN LOPATYN

A photographic studio operator in Pontiac for the past 26 years, Reuben LoPatyn, 55, resides at 336 Dick St.

Born in Russia, LoPatyn received his elementary education in Europe, then attended high school in Detroit.

LoPatyn is vice president of B'nai B'rith, and holds membership in the Y Toastmasters Club, Elks and Temple Beth Jacob. He is married and has one child.

Candidate for city commissioner in district 1, his statement follows:

"Should the city increase the number of liquor-by-the-glass licenses (Class C licenses)? My answer is 'No.' In proportion to the population, there is now an adequate number of liquor dispensaries.

"Should the city continue its program to provide municipal off-street parking lots? My answer is 'Yes.' The downtown shopper, for business or professional services, must have parking facilities. This is a definite step toward 'Big City' progress. If the downtown shopper is lost—so is the city revenue from business. This revenue is very important and necessary to city improvement and expansion.

"It is desirable to expand the hospital and increase capital improvement funds as outlined in the two tax proposals facing voters in the April election? Definitely 'Yes.' As it is now, in a normal time, the hospitals are overcrowded. In the event of any disaster and especially a major disaster, our city would be pitifully unprepared.

"Pontiac is an industrial area and such an occurrence is more than a remote possibility. It is up to the people—through their city government—to be prepared. Any city that it to grow and progress with the times must have capital improvement funds.

"Should the city change over to voting machines in an effort to reduce cost and speed elections returns? 'Yes.' These machines have proven very efficient and accurate. They will pay for themselves over a period of time."

CIO Intends to Ask for Job Guarantees

WASHINGTON (AP)—An official of the CIO United Auto Workers said today the union is demanding "a guaranteed employment plan rather than a guaranteed wage plan."

Nat Weinberg, director of the UAW's Research and Engineering Department, made the statement in a speech prepared for the eastern spring conference of the Controllers Institute of America.

He asserted: "The primary responsibility will rest on the employer to provide work and wages, and the latter when he fails to provide the former."

The auto workers union has declared the so-called guaranteed annual wage to be its major objective in next year's round of negotiations with the auto industry.

Weinberg said the UAW is asking more than "supplementary unemployment compensation."

6 U.S. Employees Spent Two Days Washing 6 Panes

WASHINGTON (INS) — Congressional testimony released today disclosed that six government employees spent two days cleaning six office windows.

Rep. John Phillips (R-Calif.), a member of the House Appropriations subcommittee which released the testimony, said the federal officials in charge of cleaning office windows had no comment on the matter.

They did say, added Phillips, that about 50 or 60 windows could be cleaned daily by a six-man crew.

The congressman's only reply was there was room for "much more competent and less wasteful supervision."

Meetings Are Slated for Parents

Extension Groups
Plan 2 Sessions in Waterford Tonight

Mrs. Lennah Backus, extension specialist in child development and parent education at Michigan State College, will speak at a special meeting for parents this evening.

"Understanding Your Child" will be the theme of the two sessions sponsored by the area demonstration groups in the Waterford CAI Building.

According to Mrs. Josephine H. Lawyer, Oakland County home demonstration agent, Mrs. Backus will divide the discussion groups by age.

From 7:30 to 9 p. m., she will discuss the pre-school and early school child. From 9 to 10:30 p. m., the late school child and the adolescent will be the topic of discussion.

Mrs. Backus plans to use problems listed by members of 47 home demonstration groups. Her discussion will cover the questions asked by parents. Time will be reserved for questions and answers.

Home demonstration members and any other parents are welcome to come to one or both of the meetings.

Bloomfield Club to Meet April 5

Mrs. Leroy G. Vandever was hostess at a luncheon Monday for the board of the Bloomfield Hills Branch of Women's National Farm and Garden Association.

Plans were made for the April 5 meeting. The meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Lester A. Colman, where Walter Nicol, naturalist from Cranbrook Institute of Science, will speak on birds, showing colored slides of the birds and demonstrating bird calls.

Mrs. W. G. Ferguson will serve tea following the lecture, and presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. Perry Hill and Mrs. William Purves.

PTA Activities

Owen PTA executive board will meet for a dinner tea at noon Wednesday with Mrs. George Gray.

honored queen, also received one of the first two degrees to be issued by the Bethel. Congratulating the new honorary members is Mrs. Harry Vernon (right) of West Russell street, guardian of the Bethel.

Bermuda to Be Theme of Showing

"Bermuda Holiday" is the theme selected for the spring style show to be sponsored by the seven chapters of Beta Sigma Phi sorority on March 31 at Pontiac High School.

The theme ties in with a special sorority vacation held each year, called "ramble." This year's trip is planned for Bermuda—tailored to a working girl's vacation budget both in time and money. Fashions to be shown will be with this thought in mind.

Special fashions are being brought to Pontiac from New York City by Alvin's of Pontiac to be shown at this time. General chairman of the "Bermuda Holiday" is Mrs. Robert Shorey.

Other committee chairmen include Mrs. Cecil Elsholz, ticket chairman; Mrs. Tyrus Menzel, decorations chairman, aided by Mrs. Francis Colman; Lois McIntyre, publicity; and Mrs. Colman and Betty Lippard, entertainment.

One model was chosen from each chapter. They are Mrs. Ray Slaughter from Phi Chapter, Mrs. William L. Thomas of Xi Pi Chapter, Donna Haertter of Zeta Lambda Chapter, Miss Lippard of Epsilon Rho Chapter, Mrs. Menzel representing Alpha Omega Chapter, Cecelia Barry of Gamma Psi chapter and Winona Hepler, Zeta Eta. Tickets for the 8 o'clock show may be purchased at the door or from any member.

Pontiacers Packing Up as Florida Season Ends

By ETHEL TOMBRINK

MIAMI—Vacations, like all good things, eventually come to an end. With Easter not too far off, Michiganders are beginning to head back home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Haviland are packing up this weekend after a month's stay in Miami. The Pontiacers leave today for the drive back north.

The trip will be broken up with a stop in St. Petersburg on the west coast of Florida, and again in Keystone Heights. There they'll visit the Rev. and Mrs. R. M. Traver of Pontiac.

The Rev. Mr. Traver is back in Keystone after a seige in a Gainesville, Fla., hospital.

The Travers began their Florida vacation early in February, just a week before the Havilands journeyed south.

In Miami, the Havilands have been staying with his brother-in-law and sister, the E. L. Wilsons—former Pontiacers. Though the Wilsons have lived here for 30 years, last winter was the first trip to Miami for the Havilands.

They've been disappointed that the weather has been so cool (and it has been despite Chamber of Commerce reports) but they enjoyed drives to Key West and up to Fort Lauderdale.

On their way to Miami they spent a few days in Orlando visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Jerry, former Pontiacers, and near Sanford with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill, other Pontiacers turned Floridians.

The Elmer Wallschlagers ended their winter in Florida Sunday. In Hollywood last winter, they chose Miami this winter—and it's been

5 Initiated Into Job's Daughters

Members and friends of Bethel 40 of the International Order of Job's Daughters gathered Monday evening at Roosevelt Temple on State avenue to witness an initiation and presentation of degrees.

Joyce Perkio, honored queen, presided over the ceremonies of the evening. New members initiated into the Bethel were Judy Lacy, Nicky Trietsch, Gail Sedrick, Barrie Oxley and Corine Davison.

Marilyn Vernon and Carol Vener sang a duet during the ceremony, accompanied by Janet Kipple.

The first honorary membership degrees to be issued by Bethel 40 since it was constituted were presented to Dianna Miller and Marilyn Shearer, junior past honored queen.

Guest of honor for the evening was Mrs. Elmer Bath of Commerce, grand guardian of the state of Michigan and supreme third messenger of the International Order of Job's Daughters.

Preston is the son of the John Smiths of Birmingham. His sister, Carol Jean, will arrive this week for a spring holiday.

Husbands, Guests Attend Dinner Monday Evening

Dennis Glen Cooper, Noted Traveler,
Addresses Group, Shows Films

By MAUDE H. DONAHUE

In keeping with its theme of "Friendship," Junior Pontiac Women's Club was hostess to husbands and guests for dinner Monday evening in All Saints Episcopal Church.

Dennis Glen Cooper, noted traveler, lecturer and educator, entertained the group with an illustrated travelogue on Isle Royale.

With colored film, he took his audience up the Great Lakes on the SS South American to Houghton, where visitors to the remote island must disembark and change to a smaller ship, "The Ranger," a former minesweeper, to be taken to the island.

Mr. Cooper, who lectures for the National Geographic Society, World Adventure Series on television and other groups, described the main attractions of the island.

He said that as a scientist he was interested in the historical copper mining that had been done there, and he showed films of archeological findings.

Naturalists would choose the beautiful scenery, wildlife, and rare gem stones to be found on the island, and sportsmen would like the fishing, which is excellent.

The island is the only wilderness left east of the Mississippi. It contains no poisonous snakes or poison ivy, and it is a good campsite for those who like to rough it.

Mr. Cooper also showed historical points of interest on the island and views of the forest fires there in 1936. He closed with the ceremonies in 1946 which made Isle Royale a national park.

Mrs. Ronald Hodge welcomed guests and Mrs. Carroll Porritt introduced the speaker. The Triple Trio from Pontiac High School entertained the group with several vocal selections preceding the lecture.

Mrs. Leslie R. Ware was co-chairman for the dinner with Mrs. Cecil McCallum. Other committee members included Mrs. Porritt, Mrs. G. Richard Jarvis, Mrs. A. J. Cadieux, Mrs. Vilas Newcomb, Mrs. Jack Brannock, Mrs. Donald K. Ely, Mrs. Clark Adams and Mrs. Eugene Wellman.

Betty Whitson Given Presidency of TBI

Betty Whitson was elected president of TBI Women's Club Saturday at the Business Institute Office on West Lawrence street.

Other officers elected were Mary Jayne Lashmet, vice president, Elaine Bliss, treasurer; Mary Ardelan, recording secretary, and Evelyn Beeson, corresponding secretary.

Speaker for the day was Leola B. Jacques of Pontiac Day Nursery, who gave the history of the nursery and a brief glimpse into the routine of a typical day.

The publicity committee dedicated the historical scrapbook in Mrs. Ed Minard's honor, and Mrs. Minard invited the group to hold the April meeting at her home on Norton avenue.

Mrs. Donahue sonus snakes or poison ivy, and it is a good campsite for those who like to rough it.

Mr. Cooper also showed historical points of interest on the island and views of the forest fires there in 1936. He closed with the ceremonies in 1946 which made Isle Royale a national park.

Webster Workshop Slates 3rd Session

The third session of the Webster PTA workshop will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the school gymnasium.

A panel of educators who have served as resource people for the workshop will evaluate the results of the sessions in terms of an action program.

Panel participants will include Dr. Troy Stearns, head of elementary education at Michigan State College, and Dr. Robert Fox, principal of the University of Michigan Elementary School.

Others are Robert Martin, consultant in elementary education for the State Department of Public Instruction, and Dr. Arnold Meier, assistant director of educational research, Detroit Public Schools.

A parent and a teacher will also be included on the panel.

Federal DA Addresses BPW Club

Discusses Work of Court at Gathering Monday Evening

George Woods, first assistant United States district attorney, was guest speaker at the Monday evening dinner meeting of the Pontiac Business and Professional Women's Club.

Public affairs committee members Mrs. Charles J. Barrett, Mrs. Henry Beeher and Mary Eleanor Lockman planned the program. The meeting was held in Hotel Waldron.

Speaking about the work of the Federal Court, Mr. Woods said that cases in Eastern Michigan Federal Court in Detroit fall under three divisions: civil, criminal and land cases.

He explained the nature of cases in each division and told what determines whether a case should be handled by the state or federal government.

Mr. Woods expressed his belief that juvenile delinquency should not be blamed on parents alone. He says that society as a whole contributes to juvenile delinquency.

The speaker discussed the recently enacted Ryan Act. A question and answer period followed his talk.

Word has been received by the group that Gladys Maxwell, president of the Pontiac BPW Club in 1942-1943, was recently elected to the board of trustees of the club in Elk Rapids where she now resides.

Hostesses for the evening were Lucille Lewis, Anna Nusbaumer and Ann Gosner.

Party Presented for Celine Kline

Celine Kline, bride-elect of Frank J. Spadafora, was honored at a personal bridal shower Sunday afternoon.

The shower was held in the home of the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Raymond Kline, on South Parke street. Hostesses for the event were Elinor Schutt, Mary Kline and Mrs. John Annis.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of the Paul Spadaforas of South Paddock street. They will speak their vows on April 24.

Guests at the shower included Mrs. Spadafora, Mrs. Melvin Schutt, Mrs. Everett Hoffman, Mrs. Kay Valentine, Joan Trick and Joan Colfer.

Mrs. Charles Phipps, Priscilla Phipps, Marilyn Hanout, Pat Edwards and Kay Currier completed the list.

Sylvanites Gather With Mrs. Graham

Mrs. J. King Graham of Inverness avenue was hostess to New Sylvanites Club Friday evening when four new members were welcomed.

Mrs. Tom Reese, Mrs. James Sprague, Mrs. Dean Wilson and Mrs. Jack Allen are the new members. Jean Hardy of Detroit demonstrated electric cooking for the group, and members planned a "Welcome Husbands" dinner and dance for Saturday at the home of Mrs. Raymond Dombrowski of Island court.

A. — A particularly good idea for women who claim that perfume does not "stay with them" is a Liquid Skin Sachet. It smooths on the skin very easily, and lingers longer because of its satchet base. It has a slower rate of diffusion and evaporation than any other type of fragrance and was originated by Houbigant. Try their Chantilly Liquid Skin Sachet. Only $1.85 plus tax at better stores.

Lois Wright Speaks Vows in First Baptist Ceremony

White gladioli and carnations decorated the altar of First Baptist Church Saturday evening when Lois Imogene Wright became the bride of Edward W. Miller of Lincoln avenue.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Wright of Oakland avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Miller of Frostburg, Md., are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. Harold W. Schoof performed the 7:30 service before 150 guests.

For the occasion the bride chose a gown of nylon lace and tulle with a chapel train. Her illusion veil was held by a crown of sequins and pearls, and she wore a string of pearls given to her by the bridegroom. White roses and stephanotis formed her cascade bouquet.

Mrs. Gerald Hawes was matron of honor in a gown of pink taffeta and net. Her headpiece was of pink roses, and pink roses, blue grape hyacinth and carnations formed her colonial bouquet.

Betty Jane Hill of Ferndale was bridesmaid. She wore pale blue fashioned in a style similar to the honor matron's gown, with a bouquet of pink roses and carnations. Sheena Munger, flower girl, wore yellow taffeta and net with a bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

Mr. Hawes was best man, and seating the guests was Eugene Wright, the bride's cousin from Royal Oak. Donald Lee Wright, the bride's brother, carried the ring.

A pale blue suit with a corsage of pink roses was worn by the bride's mother, and the bridegroom's mother wore a blue crepe dress with a corsage of pink roses.

After a reception in a hall on Baldwin avenue, the new Mrs. Miller changed to a gray suit and navy coat with navy and white accessories for the wedding trip to New York City. On their return the newlyweds will reside on Lincoln Avenue.

Elwood Kappens Reside in Detroit

Residing in Detroit are Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Kappens, who were married Feb. 27 at First Church of the Nazarene.

Baby Found In New B-29

Houston, Tex.—Modern ingenuity has devised a new type baby diaper that looks so much like a B-29 that it has modern mothers up in the air with enthusiasm.

The manufacturer has named his creation, the "Dexter Diaper"—but the shape reminds one of a B-29—and the jet speed with which it goes on and off all-age babies, positively has mothers wondering what to do with their spare time.

Just the one-size diaper goes on and off all-age babies without folding and without soiling hands—they are as neat and easy as training pants and can be used as training pants, bibs, burp-cloths and carrying bags—absorbent enough to keep your baby bone-dry—small enough to carry in your purse. They are so long lasting and so easy to wash and dry indoors, that economy minded mothers find that just 3 dozen ($3.95 per dozen) is all they need for one baby from birth through training period to eliminate most of their diapering worries and all training pants expense.

The manufacturer (Fred Dexter) seems to be as ingenious as the diaper itself. He has even arranged things so that mothers can use "Dexter Diapers" without buying them and without even having to do any of the washing and drying. He has accomplished this by merely authorizing Diaper Service Companies throughout the United States to serve their customers locally with the genuine "Dexter Diapers" on a rental basis.

Readers may make inquiry direct to manufacturer for names of local stores and Diaper Service Companies with genuine "Dexter Diapers" in stock... or you may mail this clipping plus 25c (in coin) direct to the DEXTER DIAPER FACTORY, DEPT. B-29, HOUSTON 8, TEXAS for a sample diaper postpaid, beautifully packaged as a gift with a handsome set of pins-on-chain for baby and a Doctor Book with 16 modern ways to make diapering easy for mother. Only one gift-pack per clipping, because 25c does not fully cover manufacturer's cost.

Busy Mom Sews While Entertaining

Husband Criticizes Her for Not Putting Work Aside

By EMILY POST

A mother writes me as follows: "I am a housewife with three small children. I am kept busy all day long looking after the children's needs, preparing meals, etc. When I have mending to do I usually do it at night after the children have gone to bed.

"When neighbors or friends drop in to see us in the evening, I continue with what I am doing while talking to them. My husband thinks this is very rude to our visitors and that I should put my work aside and give them undivided attention. I would like to know what you have to say about this."

Answer: If they had been especially invited to come in to see you, then it would be very rude not to put your sewing aside. But if they just come in for a visit uninvited, there is no reason why you should not sit and sew if it does not distract your attention.

Dear Mrs. Post: Within a few weeks my boy friend and I intend to announce our engagement. We have decided that it is time our parents met each other and they are in agreement with this.

My mother would like to invite his parents to Sunday dinner, but we are not sure how this could be done. Would it be proper for my mother to write a note to his mother, telephone her, or being that I know them so well, would it be proper for me to extend the invitation in my parents' names?

Answer: The invitation should come from your mother—either by written note or by telephone.

Dear Mrs. Post: When at the close of a telephone conversation a person says, "Thank you for calling." What is the correct reply to make? To say "You're welcome" to a friend does not seem right to me as it implies that you have done the person a favor by calling.

Answer: To a stranger who has asked you for information you say, "You're welcome." To a friend you need say nothing except "goodbye" unless she gives you some special news, in which case you would say, "Thank you for telling me about Jane."

The fly raglan sleeve raincoat in cotton poplin appeals to many men because it can be worn in town and country.

Comfortable When Days Grow Humid

Cotton Style With Raglan Fly-Front Is Popular

Come rain or come shine, the correct predictions are for minimum weight in outercoat wear.

Rain apparel including rainhats and overshoes is shown in extremely lightweight fabrics to insure greater comfort during rainy summer days when the humidity sky-rockets.

Some of the leading fabrics in rainwear are cotton, wool, nylon, rayon-acetate, acrilan, dacron, orlon and blends.

The processed-cotton raincoat in the raglan fly-front model is among the most popular types of outercoats for inclement weather. It has smartness of style with its full sweep and neat stitching.

In cotton, natural tan is the most popular color, with navy making many new friends. Navy raincoats tie in with the trend toward darker spring clothing.

Functional details include deep roomy pockets and inner flap fastening.

The raglan fly-front raincoat comes in wool gabardine for men who prefer a woolen coat. It is also made in manmade fibers and blends of manmade and natural fibers.

The double-breasted military-type raincoat is favored by men who like a coat with a rugged appearance. It comes in belted style. Pockets are deep and roomy.

It is shown in cotton, wool gabardine and blends of natural and manmade fibers.

Many unusual features of military type raincoats enhance their rugged appearance.

Rust Stains Stick Tightly to Plumbing

By HUBBARD COBB

A good many years ago a certain Chinese found that if you let water drip on the head of a friend for long enough, said friend would go crazy.

A good many years later a lot of us found that if you allowed water to drip on a plumbing fixture you would eventually end up with a red-looking stain which would be difficult to remove.

This got a lot of us busy fixing leaky faucets. Repairing the faucet, we found, was a cinch compared with removing that stain from the fixture.

Sometimes you can remove the stains with an ordinary scratchless cleaning powder and a damp cloth. When this doesn't work, we usually try kerosene or kerosene mixed into a paste with some of that same scratchless cleaning powder.

When this fails to do much good, try filling the fixture with a solution of water and a household bleach and allowing this mixture to stand in the fixture overnight. Chances are in the morning the stain will respond to a cloth and some elbow grease.

Do not try to remove stains of this sort with sandpaper, steel wool or an abrasive powder. They will take off the enamel right along with the stain.

And this brings up the question of just what can be done when the porcelain or enamel coating on a metal fixture is chipped or damaged in one way or another.

If the bad spot is not subject to standing water you can do a pretty fair patching job with one of the many porcelain and enamel patching compounds, but if the spot is where it's going to be soaked with hot and cold water repeatedly, a patch won't last for very long.

Male Attire for Evening Is Brighter

Formal Wear Also Caters to Comfort With Light Weight

Lighter, brighter evening wear with a wide array of new accessories makes it fun to dress up for the more formal occasion.

This spring season, with occasions for wearing formal wear on the increase, brighter colors are being shown in men's formal jackets.

Along with new colors, formal wear comes extra lightweight to insure summer comfort, a welcome change from the heavier weight jackets of past years.

Maize is one of the new formal wear colors that lends a colorful touch and a change of pace from the conventional shades of black, navy or white. Blue tropical worsted trousers can be worn for contrast with a maize jacket.

In hats, dark gray milan straw provides another new color note. Dark gray milan straw hats are worn with contrasting white bands for dramatic contrast.

Dusk gray in formal wear is steadily making many new friends. It is a more conservative shade than maize and appeals to the conventional formal wearer.

Cummerbunds and bowties are undergoing drastic changes. The trend is away from the classic black or navy to neat check patterns, fancy brocaded silks with Chinese motifs, and repp stripes.

Cuff links and studs in a variety of shapes from large to small with accents on black, gold and silver round out the spring 1954 formal wear picture.

Fancy cummerbund and tie provide darker formal outfits with visual appeal.

Girl Fears Missing Prom If She Doesn't Act Fast

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I'm 16. I go to an all-girl school—our Junior Prom is coming up in May—but I guess I won't be going unless I work fast in the next couple of weeks.

"I'm not too bad looking, I think I dress okay—so I don't know what it is. When I go to a dance the boys never ask me to dance and other girls, who are no better looking than I am, get to meet all the boys.

"I'm quiet and shy and at parties I feel scared, though I know I shouldn't. I would love to go to this prom, so please help me quickly.

"How should I ask a boy to take me to the prom? What if he says no? Should I try again?"

A thing like a prom can loom on the horizon so full of complications that a girl is tempted to pass it up. Too much bother. All that fuss about picking out a boy to ask and stewing until he gets around to accepting the invitation.

All that expense of new dress and slippers, special hairdo and all—and stewing over whether any flowers he might send her will fit in the picture.

All that ruckus with the family over special permission to stay out until dawn. And all the worry over whether she'll be a success or a flop.

So many girls go through all these tortures mentally the moment the prom date is announced that it's a wonder anybody turns up for the big do. Yet the dance floor always seems well populated and the prom goes down in history as the best ever.

Everybody's planning to go to your prom so far, and you'd love to go, too. So, let's tick off each of those "tortures" and get you set.

First thing is to pick out the man. If you know some boy pretty well and feel comfortable with him, give him your invitation. Tell him over the phone, when you see him or when you write, all about the big doings and ask him to go with you.

It's an honor you're doing him, and if he can afford the incidentals to your big party, he might be tempted to accept. If he can't make it, ask another boy. Pick out the best-looking good dancer you know so you'll be proud.

Then go into a huddle with your mother over what to wear. If you've a mind to change your hairdo, do it now—don't wait until the last minute. Give yourself some beauty treatments so you'll look radiant the big night.

And one smart way to insure your dancing with other boys besides your own partner is to invite several of your best girl friends and their dates to a buffet supper before the prom.

Go on to the dance together, stay together during the evening, exchange partners in your little group. An excellent morale insurance policy.

So line up your date quick. Then get yourself ready to look your best. That's the boost you need to make you feel wonderful and have a good time.

Try It Keep Diary in Hope Chest

Here is a "hope chest" which is called this for it is a place to keep your diary, and don't you hope that you will have many interesting things to put in it? This chest would be fine for jewelry. You boys might like to make one of these for your mother. This would be fine for earrings. You will need a cigar box and some scrap wallpaper or stiff dress material. You will need five pieces for the inside and five for the outside. You can even make the inside of the box different from the outside covering.

Cement the material on. It might be a good idea if you make a paper pattern first. The inside pieces will be a little smaller than the outside ones.

Wallpaper will make a lasting covering or chintz material would be good. Chintz is suggested since it is stiff and can even be wiped off. How would you like to have the inside of the box covered with plain material and the outside with a print design?

Cement thread spools on the bottom of the box for legs. You can also cement little knob on the top of the lid for a handle. Keep your small trinkets safely inside.

Thyme, popular seasoning of today, was used as incense for their temples by the ancient Greeks.

Mrs. Collins Tells Recipe for Cookies

Banana-Flavored Treats Will Retain Moistness

By JANET ODELL

Pontiac Press Food Editor When you pack lunch for the whole family every day, you need lots of cookies for that sweet touch; and you need cookies that keep well.

Mrs. Gilbert Collins of Fox Lake has an interesting recipe for banana cookies that she shares with us.

Mrs. Collins is a teacher at Dublin School. She keeps more than busy outside of school hours with homemaking for her husband and two sons and attending night college courses.

BANANA COOKIES

By Mrs. Gilbert Collins
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1 cup mashed bananas (about 4 bananas)
1/2 cup rolled oats
1/2 cup nuts, chopped fine
Cream shortening and sugar, add egg and beat well. Add dry ingredients alternately with mashed bananas. Add oats and nuts. This will make a stiff batter.

Drop by teaspoonfuls on a greased pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes. This recipe makes about 3 dozen cookies that will stay moist for some time.

'Unemployed' Mother Gets Degrees

By ANNE HEYWOOD

One day a young man in his early 20s came in to see me. He was so bright, so pleasant and practical, I couldn't help remarking how unusual it was in one so young.

I asked what his mother was like, since the mother has a great deal to do with her children's philosophy, vocational and otherwise. And this mother has a story which warmed my heart.

Her name is Mrs. Gerald Heller and her professional title is Dr. Phyllis Heller. She married young and had three children.

When the youngest went to college, so did mother—went back for six years and got her Ph.D.

Her specialty is education for marriage and family life. Unlike many people in the academic field, she knows what she's talking about from first-hand experience.

Dr. Heller teaches in a school in New York a couple of days a week, and the rest of the time she is in the suburbs, working with groups of parents, helping them with their child-raising problems.

"I don't just lecture," Dr. Heller told me. "It's a group activity, and the parents learn a lot from each other.

After all, we've all been through the various problems which can arise with a child, and parents who have solved them successfully can share their methods with other parents."

When I asked how she worked out a schedule for her own time, she said, "I really just use the time that used to be devoted to my own children."

And her husband, how did he feel about it when Mommy went back to school?

"He was all in favor of the move. After all, I was beginning to be unemployed as a mother, and he thought it was fine for me to be doing something besides just shopping and killing time."

Every mother must face the fact that she will one day be unemployed. If you want to do the best by your children, plan now to embark on some engrossing activity when that day comes.

It's the best gift you can give to your children, your husband and yourself. It's my guess that in the years ahead, more and more mothers will go back to college after their children are grown.

After all, we've all longer lives to look forward to—and we might as well get productive and pleasant use out of those extra years which medical science is making possible for so many of us.

Japanese cotton brocade vest blends many colors with a faint touch of metallic gold thread that imparts a richness to the appearance.

Especially Japanese Brocade

Vests Brighten Male Garb

What cream is to coffee, vests are to clothing. The great appeal of fancy vests lies in their ability to offer men added touches of color as a basic part of their outfit.

The very newest fashion idea in this category is the Japanese cotton brocade vest. Subtle blending of many colors with a faint touch of gold metallic thread offers a richness of color and design that is outstanding in the varied array of vests.

New, colorful, lightweight cottons, linens and linen weaves, with neat embroidered-effect designs also brighten any suit.

National Carpet Week

Proper Care Makes Life of Floor Carpetings Last

So you've just bought one of those heavenly new 1954 carpets? Aren't you lucky! But now that you have it, how are you going to take care of it? Your fine carpet is a thing of beauty and will be a joy for many years if you give it proper care.

Carpet is the only household treasure we grind underfoot and rarely give much thought, but in spite of our neglect, it wears remarkably well. Increased care brings increased service, and carpet is easy to care for.

There are many different carpet fibers being used today but the chief enemy of all these fibers is the same — dirt! Grit permitted to become imbedded in the backing of a carpet acts as a cutting layer and severs the tufts. The very best way to insure a longer life for your carpet is to use your vacuum or carpet sweeper regularly. Attack the dirt that collects in the traffic lanes and once a week thoroughly vacuum the entire carpet.

A well-carpeted room is easy to care for; a room with wall-to-wall carpeting is easiest of all because there is only one floor surface to clean. This requires no waxing, no dry mopping, and no wet mopping.

Don't beat a carpet. Grandma may have flayed out hidden grime but she also cracked the backing and weakened carpet fibers. The ideal vacuum cleaner has a beating, as well as a suction action.

Be sure all parts of the vacuum that come in contact with the carpet are free from oil or grease.

Every carpet greys down with continual use. There is no fading nor actual change in the original color. Certain types of dirt and dust films cannot be removed by ordinary vacuuming and the original beauty of your carpet is lost. Do not attempt to shampoo the carpet at home; send it to a reputable cleaner. If you have wall-to-wall carpet, have a professional cleaner shampoo it 'on-location.'

A brand new carpet probably will not require shampooing for several years, but after that it will need shampooing once every year or so. It pays to keep the carpet from becoming too soiled before having it cleaned.

The National Safety Council says the hours from 4 p. m. to 8 p. m. are the deadliest on the highway. The Council says 38 per cent of all traffic accidents occur during those hours.

French General Visits President

Radford Hints at Sale of Planes for Indochina Campaign

WASHINGTON (INS)—Adm. Arthur W. Radford said at the White House today the United States would "certainly consider" giving the French additional B26 bombers for use in the Indochina war.

The chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff called on President Eisenhower with Gen. Paul Ely, chief of staff of the French Armed Forces.

Gen. Ely described his visit with the President as a "courtesy call" and said there was no discussion of additional air aid to French forces in Indochina.

He noted that he has no "expectations" with him and said he came to Washington for a general exchange of views with Radford.

The French chief of staff insisted he did not come to the U.S. to discuss military aid, noting that U.S. assistance in Indochina at this time is more a matter of details than policy.

There have been published reports that the French are anxious to obtain at least another 25 of the B26 light bombers to help repulse the current Communist offensive on the French fortress of Dien Bien Phu.

Radford, questioned on the point by newsmen as he and the general left the White House, said: "We have a program of aid (to the French in Indochina) that we expect to continue."

"If the French ask for additional B26s we would certainly consider it."

Autograph Hound Has 39 Names, Nine More to Go

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (U)—Walter E. Devine cycled into Maryland's capital yesterday, got the governor's autograph and said he had only nine more to go.

The 32-year-old cyclist, red hair billowing from under a hunter's cap and his chin, said he started out by bike from Portland, Ore., in 1952. He claimed 16,000 miles on his log, photographs, signatures and state seals from 39 governors.

"Going to All States on this Bike" was emblazoned on his yellow corduroy shirt.

Youngsters Open Their Arms to Puppets

NEW YORK (NEA)—Little people are welcoming "The Little People" into their playrooms with open arms these days.

The "Little People" are plastic hand puppets based on the five lovable characters created by artist Walt Scott for his comic strip, "The Little People," which will be an Easter feature in the Pontiac Press starting March 29.

These puppets, made of nontoxic, colored vinyl with movable eyes, were a lively feature of the American Toy Fair in New York. Toy buyers here from all over the country say that requests for puppets are on the increase.

Jay V. Zimmerman, whose toy company makes the "Little People" puppets, says: "Puppet sales really perked up in the last three weeks. In fact, we're exactly three weeks behind in filling our orders."

Zimmerman uses a unique system to create his toys. His "Board of Directors" decide what type of toy to make. The "Board" is made up of kids from all over the country.

They let him know what type of toy they would like best, and then he manufactures the toy which is requested most. The "Little People" puppets were the result of such a nation-wide board meeting. The "Little People" design has really caught on in the toy industry.

So far, there are some 50 toys and related items on the market featuring "Little People" designs.

All are designed by Scott for the manufacturers, and include napkins, walking figures, jig-saw puzzles and amphibious toys for the bathtub with likenesses of the pixie-like "Cork," "Jink," "Loop," "Chub," and "Old One."

For two years now "The Little People" comic strip has brought joy to millions of people, young and old, especially at Christmas and Easter.

Now, the kiddies are getting an extra bang out of them because they can step right out of the strip and roll their eyes and wiggle their arms just like the real "Little People."

It takes from 3,500 to 5,000 bees to weigh one pound.

Insists Pastors Used Red Line

Former Aide of Dies, McCarthy Claims He Has Names of 8,079

LOS ANGELES (U)—A Methodist minister who formerly was an investigator for the Dies and McCarthy congressional committees says he has in his files the names of 8,079 Protestant clergymen who have followed the Communist line.

Dr. J. B. Matthews, who was director of research for Rep. Martin Dies' committee for several years and later executive director of Sen. Joseph McCarthy's committee, told newsmen yesterday that he never had said there are 7,000 secret agents among the clergymen.

"I did say that the largest single group supporting the Communist apparatus in the United States is composed of Protestant clergymen," he said.

Dr. Matthews told reporters there have been a few Catholic priests involved in Communist front activities, and that the largest percentage of clerical supporters of Communist activities was found in the Unitarian Church. Dr. Matthews is here to give a lecture tonight.

An American Unitarian Assn. spokesman in Boston commented: "At a time when the Communists tried to infiltrate all denominations, Catholic and Protestant, the Unitarians repulsed the attempt—long before the McCarthy investigation."

28% more power! Yet you can get even more miles per gallon!

161 HORSEPOWER

—that's the official hp rating of Mercury's new overhead valve V-8 engine—the type of engine that engineers agree is the most efficient of all. You get 28.6% more power, plus greater efficiency, that cuts down on fuel consumption. And a new 4-barrel carburetor—2 barrels vacuum-operated to cut in automatically when extra acceleration is needed.

New 1954 Mercury gives you a new, even more economical overhead valve V-8 in every model in the line

This isn't an old motor with a new horsepower rating. For 1954, Mercury offers a completely new 161-hp overhead valve V-8.

Combined with new ball-joint front wheel suspension, this new Mercury V-161 engine gives you a new kind of power that makes any driving easy. Easier, faster acceleration—new ease and safety in passing, with more reserve power. Greater handling ease than ever—over rough roads; around the sharpest curves—thanks to ball-joint suspension.

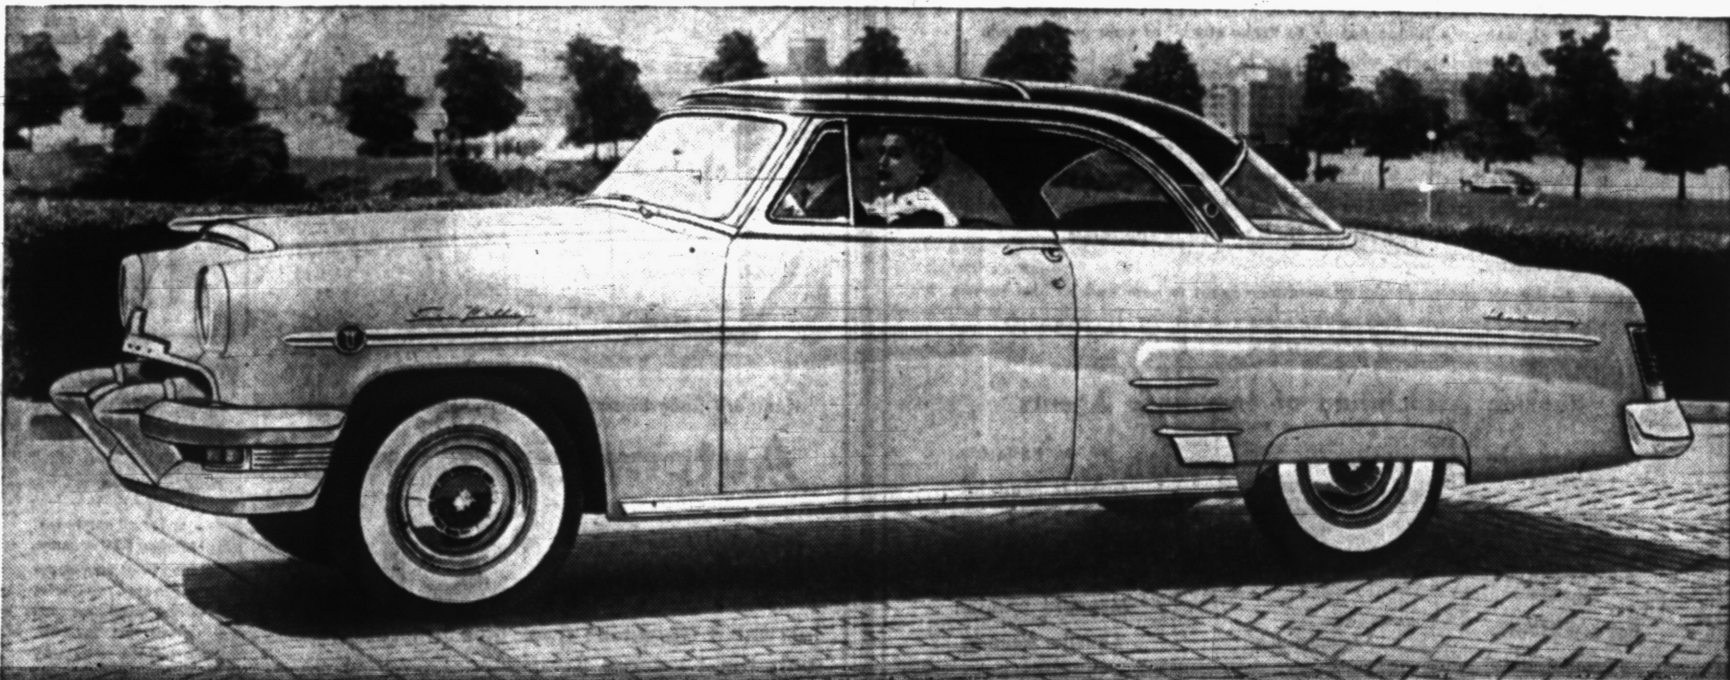

This new easy power is yours in all Mercurys. 28% more actual horsepower—and this power is easy on the pocketbook, too—you can get better gasoline mileage.

So why not accept your dealer's invitation to drive the new Mercury. When you do you will see how much more Mercury offers for 1954.

RUSTLINGS OF SPRING—Although it may not look like it in Pontiac, spring is here, the swallows have come back to Capistrano, and it's time for spring housecleaning. Above Gay Marglin, of New York, views another sign of spring, the first crocus of the season.

Well Details to Be Considered

To Clear Way for Construction Commission Expected to Discuss Revisions of Contract Tonight

Pontiac City Commission tonight is scheduled to consider revisions in a contract with the Layne-Northern Co. of Lansing, clearing the way for construction of three water wells.

The wells, to be located near Silver Lake, are expected to produce about 2,700,000 gallons daily.

City Manager Walter E. Willman recommended to commissioners last week that construction be started right away to get wells into production by summer's peak demand.

More wells may be developed in the area later, Willman stated. Other matters slated for tonight include consideration of an agreement with the Grand Trunk Western Railroad for installation of new warning signs at 12 street-railway intersections in the city.

A report is scheduled from the city attorney on the recording of condemnation notices in the register of deeds office.

A communication is expected from the City Plan Commission requesting information on the City Commission's policy as to trailer parks.

Final approval is slated on contracts with the J. A. Fredman Co. and Taylor Electric for construction of the North Side branch library.

Engineer's cost estimates and resolutions of public necessity are expected for proposed construction of curb, gutter, drainage and related work on Steel from Telegraph to Starr. Winner from Cass to Short. Rundle from Baldwin to Saginaw.

An agreement with the Pontiac Federal Savings & Loan Assn. is also scheduled for consideration. It would provide an alley along the west side of lot 1, assessor's plat 37.

First reading is scheduled of an ordinance to amend the present ordinance to conform with the Detroit requirements for labeling milk.

A protest petition from residents in the vicinity of 115 W. Walton Blvd. is slated for consideration, asking that construction of a cement ready-mix plant at that address be stopped.

Second reading is expected of an ordinance amending the plat ordinance.

A petition is scheduled from Naum and Johanna Karaguleff to rezone lot 148 of assessor's plat 128 from R-1 to R-2.

Confirmation is expected of a special assessment roll for a water main in Crescent from Mount Clemens to Belvidere.

A public hearing is planned on a special assessment roll for a proposed water main in Corwin from Kinney to the center of lot 37, assessor's plat 101.

Public hearings are scheduled on special assessment rolls for proposed curb, gutter, drainage and related work on:

First from Joelyn to Barkell. LeBaron from Joelyn to the east end of the street. Second from Barkell to Fuller. Westbrook from Joelyn to the east end of the street. Willard from Center to Padlock.

Committee Holding Water Survey Bill

Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) says that he hopes the Ways and Means Committee of the Michigan House of Representatives will report this week on his Southeastern Michigan water and sewage survey bill.

A United Press report incorrectly stated that the committee had reported the bill out Friday.

The bill would set aside $77,500 state funds to help local cities and townships in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties pay for a survey of water supplies and sewage facilities. The three-county area is plagued with a lack of water and too much sewage.

Pontiac, Royal Oak, Berkley, Clawson and other local cities depend on wells for their water and the wells are running dry.

ROAD COMMISSION WARNING—Workmen Louis McDonald of Davisburg, left, and Bert Dickens of Lake Orion put the flags in a new caution apparatus developed by Oakland County Road Commission to safeguard its road crews working in high-speed traffic. The sign, 6 feet wide, features a police-type flasher signal, battery powered, on a collapsible pole 10 feet high.

Road Commission Devises New Sign to Alert Motorists to Working Crews

Oakland County Road Commission, spurred by the traffic death of a flagman, has come up with a new sign-and-flasher warning signal to protect road crews.

The caution sign, worked up by road commission personnel, is being tried out this week. Road commissioners say it may go into countywide use if it gets results.

Meanwhile, the road commission begged drivers to slow down when signs or flagmen warn that road crews are patching pavements just ahead.

"We've had one man killed and two near-misses over the last six weeks," said Edward M. Wright, assistant Pontiac district superintendent. "Please be careful—when you see signs or flagmen, slow down."

Charles Vincent of Clawson died after he was hit by a truck while flagging traffic on Woodward avenue the afternoon of Feb. 22.

An auto recently crashed into the back of a road commission truck, just starting up after its crew patched a spot on Dixie highway. A flagman with the Dixie crew was nearly hit by another car shortly afterwards.

The new sign, planned by Wright and Oscar D. Loomis, chief superintendent, cost the county only $10.00 for a pair of wheels. Mechanic Ray Rathburg put it together from scrap lying around the road commission garage.

Six feet wide, the caution sign features a police-type red flasher signal, powered by batteries and mounted on a 10-foot pole so motorists can see it above the tops of other cars or over the brow of a hill.

The new sign, planned by Wright and Oscar D. Loomis, chief superintendent, cost the county only $10.00 for a pair of wheels.

By the time investigators reached the scene, only the top two feet of the car was visible. St. Clair County Coroner Robert Hartley ruled that Mrs. Milner died of a heart attack induced by shock and excitement.

Black, who had worked for Mrs. Milner for four years, said they were returning from a wedding reception in St. Clair Shores when he turned to look at Mrs. Milner to answer a question and lost control of the car.

Black said after he climbed out of the car, which was in about three feet of water, Mrs. Milner insisted that she remain, even though he warned her of the possibility of it slipping deeper into the water.

Nurses Needed for Polio Test

Volunteer Help Sought by Oakland Red Cross Chapter

The Oakland County Chapter of the American Red Cross needs 200 to 300 registered nurses to volunteer help for the county-wide test of the new Salk Polio vaccine this April.

Mrs. Herminio Rodriguez, of Royal Oak, has been asked to line up volunteer nurses. The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will assign the volunteers to vaccine clinics, she said.

About 33,000 children in the first, second and third grades of Oakland County's schools will be asked to take part in the vaccine tests this spring.

Youngsters whose parents give permission will be injected—some with the vaccine, some with an inactive liquid. Officials will count the number in each group which catch polio, and compare the findings to find out how well the vaccine works.

Mrs. Rodriguez asks that any registered nurse who can donate a few hours a week to work in the clinics contact the nearest nurse volunteer chairman.

Chairmen include Mrs. J. F. Walser for Pontiac, at FE 2-6824; Mrs. Homer Hight, Oxford area, at OA 8-2978; Mrs. Henry Madigan, Wixom, at MA 4-2953; Mrs. Bradlee Pruden, Birmingham, at MA 4-0892; and Mrs. Rodriguez for Royal Oak, at LI 2-3022 or LI 2-0666.

Police Alerted to Tiny A-Bombs

WASHINGTON (INS) — The nation's police forces have been alerted by the FBI to watch for

Two Plead Guilty to Burglary Charge

Charles Scribner, 21, and Howard Ebricht, 21, both of 5462 Aylesbury, Waterford Township, pleaded guilty Monday to breaking and entering before Circuit Judge H. Russell Holland.

The two admitted that they participated in break-ins of about 20 homes in the Carrol-Bogey Lakes area of Commerce Township taking $1,000 to $1,500 worth of property. They were arrested the week of March 7-13.

midget atomic bombs which might be smuggled into the U. S. for sabotage.

The alert, informants disclosed today, was sent in January and followed a similar memorandum distributed last year to customs, immigration, Coast Guard and other federal officials.

Descriptions and measurements of two atomic devices small enough to be brought into this country in a diplomatic pouch and planted by enemy agents were contained in the FBI circular.

The FBI refused immediate comment on the disclosure.

The information about the midget bombs presumably was cleared for distribution by the National Security Council, which is responsible for overall supervision of the nation's defense effort.

The sources said the notice to police departments was sent out

Judge Sentences Four for Unarmed Robbery

After pleading guilty March 15 to unarmed robbery, four Detroit youths were sentenced Monday to three years probation plus 60 days in the Oakland County Jail and fined $150 court costs by Circuit Judge H. Russell Holland.

The four are, Arthur Marginet, 19; Keith DeLong, 18; Arthur Bennett, 18; and Arthur Gasc, 20. The youths admitted taking $40 March 7 from a gas station at 503 E. Eight Mile Rd., Ferndale.

without fanfare in order not to arouse fears among the people.

The circular instead followed police agencies periodically alerted to dangers of possible activities by enemy agents.

According to the circular, 50 pounds of the flammable material needed for an A-bomb could be compressed into a sphere the size of a soft ball. This could be one type of "bomb."

Another, the FBI notice said, would be a "gun-barrel type device" consisting of a 2 to 10-inch gun tube and two breech blocks.

The three parts, the FBI said, could be shipped or carried separately, then assembled when the bomb is to be used for sabotage.

Census Report Spurs Plan to Incorporate City in Southfield

7,689 Residents Listed for Area

Consolidation of 1-Mile Strip to Include New Northland Center

Attempts to incorporate the Southern portion of Southfield Township as a city gained ground Monday when a census report listed 7,689 residents.

A report filed with Oakland County Clerk's office showed the area—a one-mile-deep strip—apparently has more than enough residents for a city.

Michigan laws say an area must have a total of at least 2,000 residents and an average of 500 people per square mile in order to become a city.

The incorporation would include the multi-million-dollar Northland Shopping Center at Eight Mile road and Northwestern highway—a valuable addition to any tax roll.

The city of Oak Park had last year sought to incorporate the area of the huge shopping center, but the move was voted down in an incorporation election of residents in both the city and the township.

Latest petitions for incorporation were filed by Bert Gale May 15, 1953. Action was delayed pending the return of a census report.

Petitions and the census report have been turned over to Oakland County Board of Supervisors' committee on boundaries of cities and villages for a recommendation as to whether and when a special election may take place.

Oak Park Hikes Teachers' Pay

Salaries Raised $200 a Year, Beginning With Fall Term

OAK PARK — Teachers in the Oak Park school district have been awarded a $200 a year pay boost by the Board of Education. The raise affects 40 teachers now employed and 30 new teachers the board plans to hire for the fall term, when the new pay schedule goes into effect.

Teachers with bachelor's degrees will receive a starting salary of $3,700. Those with master's degrees will start at $3,900.

Maximum salaries for the two classifications are $5,100 and $5,650, respectively.

School enrollment for the fall term is expected to top 2,000, an increase of 600 pupils over the present enrollment.

Farm Loan Groups Pay Big Dividends

WASHINGTON (INS) — The acting director of the Farm Credit Administration's land bank reports that farmer-members of national farm loan associations received dividends totaling $3,900,000 last year.

Carl Colvin explains that these dividends were paid on the stock farmers own in their local national farm loan associations. Every county in the nation is served by such an association — there being 1,100 in all.

Colvin says: "At present, when farm costs are high, these dividends are especially welcome because they help to reduce farm credit costs and thus increase net farm income. They are a direct result of farmers working together to obtain their credit through their cooperatively owned and operated farm loan associations."

Break Ground for Clinic April 4th at Walled Lake

WALLED LAKE—April 4 has been tentatively set as the date for the ground breaking ceremony for Dr. O. R. MacKenzie Memorial Clinic.

Cash on hand in the clinic fund totals more than $10,000, with pledges of material and labor adding $12,000.

School Supt. Clifford H. Smart said recently he hoped another $1,000 for the clinic will be raised by two shows to be presented by the Walled Lake schools May 14 and 15.

Mrs. Roy Dewey is general chairman for the shows, which will be entitled, "Parade of the Seasons." Mrs. Larry Foster, her assistant, has begun lining up talent from the district's schools.

The Rev. O. A. Gerkin heads the ground breaking ceremony committee.

According to the clinic board, plans and specifications for the clinic are virtually completed. The memorial building will accommodate two doctors and a dentist.

The clinic will be constructed in the memory of Dr. MacKenzie, a Walled Lake physician who was killed in an auto accident last

Row Crops to Increase So Will Hay Planting, Estimates Show

LANSING (AP) — Michigan farmers plan a seven per cent increase in their acreage of row crops, a four per cent increase in hay acreage and an eight per cent reduction in small grain acreages, the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service estimated today.

On the basis of reports by farmers, the service said Michigan farmers plan to plant about 7,930,000 acres to grains, hays, sugar beets, beans, soybeans and flax, almost the same as the 7,927,000 acres planted in 1953.

The service warned that estimates this year are subject to greater revision than usual because some wheat acreage may be plowed under for green manure to put harvest acreages in line with allotments, and because farmers did not have their corn allotments when they filed their intention reports.

If farmers in 29 commercial corn counties shift toward their allotted corn acres, there will be additional acreage for other crops, the service said.

The total acreage intended for small grains — wheat, rye, oats, barley and flax — is 2,870,000 acres, eight per cent less than last year. This results, the service said, from a 30 per cent reduction in wheat acreage due to allotments and marketing quotas.

The service said farmers intend to increase acreage for row crops with the exception of a 13 per cent reduction in potato acreage.

The indicated 1,856,000 acres for corn is five per cent more than in 1953 acreage and will set a new record in Michigan if it materializes, the service said.

The 434,000 acres indicated for dry beans is 13 per cent higher than last year, the highest since 1950, but below average.

Farmers plan to increase soybean acreage seven per cent and sugar beets 50 per cent.

Farmers, the service said, intend to grow 2,511,000 acres of hay, four per cent more than 1953.

WORTH HITCHCOCK

Winner of Recount to Take Oath Tonight

HOLLY—Scheduled to assume duties as president after being sworn in at a meeting of the Holly Village Council tonight is Worth Hitchcock, 36, who won the office on a recount.

The election board originally certified that Hitchcock's opponent, Clare W. Lake, the incumbent, had won by a majority of four. A recount, however, showed that Hitchcock had won by the same margin.

Hitchcock was a sticker candidate in the election.

Keego Harbor Fashion Show Is Seen by 200

KEEGO HARBOR—"Buttons and Bows" along with other trimmings were in evidence on spring and summer fashions displayed at the Business and Professional Women's Club style show in Roosevelt School auditorium Monday night.

Outstanding styles were modeled by Loretta Barnard in a strapless red nylon shirred velvet swimsuit and Lynne Couture in a white eyelet confirmation dress.

Others were Robin Reuter and Gregg Overcashier in brother and sister outfits and Barbara Teacy and Charlene Cavalier in sister styles.

Tap dancing, baton twirling, vocal and piano solos provided entertainment during intermissions. Some 200 persons attended the show. Proceeds will go toward a banquet next month for senior girls of Roosevelt High School, according to Mrs. Homer VanHorn, club president.

Two Veterinarians Honored at Dinner

BROWN CITY — Two Thumb-area veterinarians of long service were honored at a dinner here last week in Brown City Hotel. They were Dr. Alex McIntyre of Brown City and Dr. Milton Geiger of Crosswell, both who have served 42 years in their communities. Thumb Veterinary Medical Association awarded the veterinarians plaques.

Legion Post, Auxiliary Celebrate Anniversary

MARLETTE — American Legion Post 182 and Auxiliary celebrated its 35th anniversary here last week at a dinner meeting attended by 85 persons.

Speaker was Billy Wickens of Midland, American Legion department commander. Local post commander Jimmie James acted as master of ceremonies.

Lapeer, State Cancer Officials Start Fund Bid

LAPEER COUNTY — Chairmen of Lapeer County and state officers of the American Cancer Society held a kick-off meeting last week for the annual county-wide fund raising campaign. Among those speaking was Dr. Burdette Stone, president of Lapeer County chapter of the society. The one-month drive opens April 1.

Lag in Coffee Production Traced to Crude Methods

WASHINGTON (INS) — While U. S. agriculture appears to be keeping pace with the jet age, world coffee production still is jogging along with horse-and-buggy languor.

This is the deduction of Claud L. Horn, chief of the sugar and tropical products analysis branch in the Foreign Agricultural Service.

Horn contends that if the U. S. farmer were to produce corn and wheat by methods as old as those utilized by coffee producers, he would have to transport himself back to the days before the development of hybrid corn and the invention of the McCormick reaper.

The Agriculture Department official explained that "coffee production is still going on in the same old way, without any significant increase in productivity per man-hour or per acre — the two measures of progress with any crop."

Because of this, Horn declared that "the world coffee market today faces the most serious deficit in modern history."

He pointed out that as the population increases the demand for coffee is going to become greater and the supply smaller.

Horn said: "The soundest way of increasing production is to increase efficiency, to turn out more per tree, per laborer, per acre. But for generations that way has been getting only secondary attention in coffee-producing countries, and coffee as a crop has generally been permitted to become a victim of circumstances instead of being adapted to the unfavorable features of its environment, or otherwise being freed from the effect of these features."

He explained that labor efficiency in coffee production has not increased over the years. Mechanization of various processes is almost unheard of in many areas, and harvesting and marketing methods still are crude.

Horn said that in one part of Brazil output per worker is about the same as it was 100 years ago. He explained: "Such a fact is sharpened by a contrasting one."

Recount Reverses March 8 Election

ALMONT — Willard Abraham was judged winner of a contested village trustee post here Friday after a recount of ballots by the Village Council.

Abraham had received 144 votes in the spring election March 8 against 147 votes for A. Ben D'Arcy. Abraham filed a petition for the recount.

Because a number of votes were voided during the recount, the final tally was 139 for Abraham and 131 for D'Arcy.

Hospital Auxiliary Unit Holds Officer Election

LAPEER—Thirty members and several guests of the Elba unit of Lapeer County General Hospital Auxiliary met last week for election of officers.

Elected were Mrs. Tom Stacy, president; Mrs. Irving Barneth, vice-president; Mrs. Francis Sullivan, secretary; Mrs. Ardy Davison, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Dale Curtis, treasurer.

Packing Firm Has $15,000 Fire

Walled Lake Company Suffers Damage to 2nd Floor Early Today

WALLED LAKE—Firemen from four communities fought a $15,000 blaze which swept the upper story of the Lakeside Packing Co. here early this morning.

Commerce Township Fire Chief Ray Price said damage was confined to the offices of the combination super market and packing house at 155 Ladd.

More than 40 firemen and seven pieces of equipment were used to quell the blaze which raged for more than two hours. Assisting the Commerce department were Novi, Milford and West Bloomfield Township fire fighters.

The fire was spotted at about 3 a.m. today by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Eno of 285 Ladd.

"It looked like a small neon light when I first looked across to the packing house," Mrs. Eno said. "Then suddenly the flames burst out in three places at once."

The building is a two-story only at the front. The grocery section is beneath the burned out second floor offices. The meat packing is done in the rear portion of the building.

"Chances are that we'll be open for business this weekend," said Robert Buffmeyer, store manager.

Lack of Timely Hit Costs Tigers Third Straight

Musial Appears Ready for Fast '54 Get-Away

His 3 Hits, 7 RBI's Beat Phils; Gernert in 1st Base Bid

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Stan Musial, who failed to win his seventh National League batting championship last year only because he got off to a slow start, apparently is aiming to begin with a bang this season.

The slugging St. Louis Cardinals' outfielder slammed a home run, a triple and a single and batted in seven runs yesterday as the Redbirds walloped the Philadelphia Phillies 9-3 for their eighth victory in 14 exhibition games.

He batted .336 in 1953 to finish third behind Brooklyn's Carl Furillo and teammate Red Schoendienst but it wasn't for his early season slump which left him with a .247 average after the first two months he conceivably could have wound up far in front.

Yesterday's game was a close one until Musial drove relief pitcher Duke Markell's second pitch out of the park with two mates aboard in the fourth inning. It was his third home run of the spring. Schoendienst, too, had his hand in the scoring, hitting a triple and a single and knocking in one of the tallies. Lefty Harvey Haddix was the winning pitcher and rookie Bob Greenwood the loser.

Gernert socked two home runs, the second a game-winning one, as the Red Sox edged the Milwaukee Braves 4-3.

The New York Yankees, seemingly back in form, knocked out southpaw Alex Kellner in the fifth inning and went on to drub the Philadelphia Athletics 12-6. Rookies Bob Cerv and Bill Skowron led the champions' attack with four hits apiece.

A team of mixed Brooklyn regulars and rookies pushed over a run in the ninth inning to defeat the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-2.

NCAA Studies Oliver's Claims

Bevo's Coach Says His Team 'Picked On' All Season; Quits Game

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (INS) — A charge by Rio Grande coach Newt Oliver that his team was "picked on" all season in basketball games was being sifted today by National Collegiate Athletic Association officials.

Oliver ordered Rio Grande off the floor last night in Kansas City in protest against the officiating with one minute and 59 seconds remaining in a contest with Rockhurst College. Rockhurst won, 56-50.

Al Duer, NCAA executive secretary, said that Oliver "never should have walked his team off."

Rio's Bevo Francis scored 22 points in the abbreviated contest. Later in the feature game, Western All-Stars coached by Nibs Price of California beat the Eastern All-Stars coached by Kentucky's Adolph Rupp.

Tourney Champs, LaSalle, Holy Cross, Trail Kentucky in Final AP Cage Poll

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
NEW YORK (AP) — Kentucky's unbeaten basketball team, which refrained from tournament competition this year, came out ahead of the two national tournament winners, LaSalle and Holy Cross, in the final Associated Press ranking poll of the 1953-54 season today.

The Kentucky Wildcats, topping 71 of the 138 ballots cast by sports writers and broadcasters throughout the nation, captured the No. 1 ranking by the very small margin of 32 points from LaSalle's Explorers, the newly crowned National Collegiate Athletic Assn. champions.

Holy Cross, the surprise winner of the National Invitation Tournament, was a strong third, with Indiana, the 1953 NCAA champion and a strong preseason favorite, fourth.

The final count, on the basis of 10 points for each first-place ballot,

Chiefs Turn to Spring Sports

By BILL MARTIN
Pontiac High's athletes are making the transition from winter to spring sports this week as the baseball squad opens practice and the track team steps up its training tempo.

Coach Wally Schloerke's thin-clads, who have been working indoors for the past month, are preparing for the annual Arthur Hill-Saginaw High Invitational Relays at Mt. Pleasant three weeks hence.

Chiefs swing into their regular outdoor schedule after that indoor tuncup. State lists dual meets with Flint Central, Flint Northern, Hamtramck and Royal Oak, the Central Michigan Relays, Saginaw Valley Conference meet and regional and state tests.

Valley and regional meets will be held here for the first time this spring. The new track and field layout at Winsor field, which is to be completed by May 1, will feature a 10-lane, 220-yard straightaway, a curved track and folding stands for spectators.

The most promising crop of sophomores in years may give Schloerke valuable depth in almost every event. In addition, 10 lettermen are back from the team that finished 2nd in both the Valley and state meets last season.

Returning veterans include sprinter-broad jumper Jimmy Williams, pole vaulter George Thrasher and Coley Gracey (who doubles as a quarter-miler), half-milers John James, Felix Brooks, Ralph Humphrey and Alonzo Watson, miler Fred Wilson, shot putter Jack Hopkins and hurdler Willie Wilson. Also back is Ed Ringgold, a 4-event man who didn't finish the season last year.

More promising sophomores are Jimmy "Red" Taylor, hurdler and broad jumper; sprinters Freeman Watkins and Buddy Walker; high jumpers Walter King and Harry Bennett; miler Bill Douglas; quarter-milers Charley Robinson and Norris Jackson; shot putters Charlie Spann and Ben Karpoicz; and pole vaulter Ted Munger.

Working with Schloerke are Ed Graybiel, Dean Wilson and Ray Lowry.

Ed Heikkinen met 70 candidates as he called the 1st indoor baseball season yesterday afternoon. Only letterman back from the 1953 team is pitcher Marvin Caswell, a right-handed senior.

Tennis coach Vic Lindquist and golf mentor John Maturio haven't started their drills as yet.

Merchants and Elks Trip Foes in Inter-City Cage Meet

Pontiac teams advanced past 1st-round opposition in both divisions of the Inter-City Recreation Basketball Tournament in Detroit Monday.

Pontiac Merchants led all the way in eliminating Wyandotte, 48-36, in the Class B section of the meet. Bob Swindell led the Merchants with nine points.

Jimmy Williams collected 12 points to spark the Junior Elks Lodge No. 723 to a 50-40 victory over another Wyandotte entry in the Class D division. Elks led 24-15 at halftime.

Merchants meet Dearborn to night at 9 p.m. at Hackett Fieldhouse, Highland Park. Semifinals are set for Wednesday, with the championship game scheduled Thursday. Junior Elks tangle with Roseville in "D" semifinals to night at 7 p.m. at Lasky Community Center. Finals in Class D are slated for Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

Girls' Loop Leader Wins 13th Victory

Missile Dribbles, which sewed up the City Girls' Basketball League regular-season championship last week, extended its undefeated streak to 13 games Monday by shellingacking Baskettes, 26-1.

Marva Keel led the winners with 12 points, while Pat Smith had six. Baskettes' only point came on a free throw by Marilyn Mc-Clain in the first period.

In other games, Dick & Wadump & Unknowns, 14-2, and Racketeers beat Skid Kids, 14-5.

Pro-Am Test Starts Today at Palm Beach

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Golf star Ben Hogan and such amateurs as the Duke of Windsor and Henry Ford II tee off today in the first round of the 2-day pro-amateur tournament at the Seminole Golf Club.

Hogan warmed up for the tournament by shooting a 61 Sunday for the lowest round of his career over the 7,006-yard course where par is 73. Hogan's partners will be Laurence M. Lloyd, New York advertising executive, and John (Shipwreck) Kelly, former Kentucky football star.

There will be 72 teams, with each professional having two amateur partners, playing as separate teams.

Duke of Windsor, an 18 handicap player, will play with Robert L. Ashe of Knoxville, Tenn., and pro Skip Alexander of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Henry Ford II, also an 18 handicap player, will team with Shaw Walker of New York and pro Pete Cooper of Tampa, Fla.

Lake Orion Becomes 7th Oakland-B Loop Member

Lake Orion High School was voted membership in the Oakland B Conference at the league's regular March meeting Monday night.

Dragons will begin competition in September, 1955, vote of the six member schools was 5-1 for Lake Orion. Orion previously was a member of the Tri-County League, which disbanded last year, but regrouped for another season of basketball this winter.

Orion becomes the 8th Oakland Class B school in the 7-team circuit. Others are Avondale, Troy, Clawson and Madison of Royal Oak. Other two members are Roseville and Fittsgerald.

Other members of the Tri-County have made no progress towards gaining any other league affiliation. Rochester was rebuffed in its 1st

Worst Is Best, in Billiards Contest

CHICAGO (UP)—Harold Worst, Grand Rapids, Mich., had an edge today on Ray Kilgore, world's three cushion champion, in a 600-point exhibition match.

Worst, who placed third in the world tournament last year, took Kilgore's measure 50 to 43 in 62 innings Monday in the opening block of a week-long exhibition. The match continues through Saturday.

Burkemo Wins $400

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Walter Burkemo of Franklin Hills, Mich., and Ralph Blomquist, Glendale, Calif., split $300 with low individual scores of 33-35-68 Monday at the one-day Lagorce Country club pro-amateur golf tournament.

Herbert Stops Red Legs After Donovan Fails

Ray Gives Up One Hit in 4 Frames, but Tilt Was Already Lost

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — For the third time in three days the Detroit Tigers lost an exhibition ball game by one run. This time the benefactor was Cincinnati, 4-3, yesterday.

Saturday the Tigers lost to Boston 1-0. Sunday they lost to Washington 10-9. But, as they say, close only counts in horseshoes.

Primary victim of the Red Legs was young Tiger hopeful Dick Donovan. In the second inning he gave up three runs on three hits. In 13 previous innings he had given up a total of three runs.

It's only three weeks from today that the Tigers open their 1954 regular season against Baltimore at Briggs Stadium. If Donovan succeeds or fails with the Tigers, those three weeks may be the answer.

It was the first time that Donovan had disappointed the Tiger management which thinks that the rookie may aid last year's carryover pitching staff.

But his workmate against Cincinnati, Ray Herbert, was no disappointment at all, though the Tigers lost. He shut out the Red Legs, allowing them only one hit in the four innings he worked.

Herbert has now worked 14 innings this spring against such potentials as the Yankees and the Cardinals. He has allowed only 10 hits and one run. He has struck out five.

A ground rule that went the wrong way prevented Tigers from at least pushing the game Monday into a tie.

Tigers had combined three singles in the home half of the second inning to make one run in a weak answer to the three runs that Cincinnati scored in the second inning.

Red Legs scored again in the fourth to widen the margin to 4-1. Then in the eighth inning, Harvey Kuenn, back in the lineup after bruising his wrist, knocked out an infield single. Ray Boone singled him to third.

Jimmy Delsing took over from there. The suddenly powerful outfielder, known for his singles to centerfield, hit another extra base hit. It was a long ball into left centerfield. But it bounced into a board wall under construction.

Ground rules termed it a double, although the distance could have made it a triple. Kuenn's run was allowed, but Boone was sent back to third and Delsing to second.

Bob Nieman, who already had contributed two hits to the Tiger cause, grounded out to retire the side.

In the ninth inning Tigers scored again when Johnny Pesky pinch hit a single. Frank Bolling doubled, and Pesky scored on an infield out. The run would have been the tying marker if Delsing's blow had been a triple instead of a double.

Simonson, Willard Place in Toledo Swimming Test

Two of Pontiac's 18-man delegation to the Glass City Invitational swimming meet in Toledo won places in last Saturday night's finals.

Dennis Simonson took 2nd in the 50-yard breast stroke and 4th in the junior boys 50-yard free style. Dick Willard was second in diving.

Over 200 contestants competed in the 23-event program held at the Toledo YWCA.

Nearly Entire Baseball World Hopes Dodgers Can End Yank Reign if They Meet Again in Series

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK—There is one more sign that spring is about to rear its beautiful head. It seems to me that everywhere I have gone in the last few days somebody stops me and says—"Well, how are the Bums?" The Bums naturally are the Brooklyn Dodgers.

This question is hurled at me in the home of the Yankees and the habitat of the Giants.

Brooklyn isn't the only place pulling for the Bums. You might be surprised to know how many people from all around who want the Yankees beaten. Five world championships in five years. And they can't see any team other than the Bums who can do it.

By winning five Series in a row, which they won honestly and cleanly and deserved to win, it is claimed the Yankees have destroyed a lot of interest in other cities, especially the Midwest. They have made the case of the Giants look especially bad.

They have made Cleveland and Chicago look like a pair of Siberian outposts in the deep chill.

Brooklyn has been the only one with a real challenge in the last five years. The two thrusters by the Giants and Phillies were too feeble to mean anything.

"We had no interest in these two series," Bill

Injuries Hit Bosox Hard Boudreau Mourns Loss of Four Regular Players

By GAYLE TALBOT

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—Lou Boudreau was pulling on his uniform slowly and thoughtfully, as all ballplayers do, when this traveler arrived to question him on the state of his Boston Red Sox and to find if he still was able to field a team of nine men.

"If you think my friend Casey Stengel can moon," said Lou with a forced grin, "just stick around for a while and listen to an expert. You wouldn't believe the things that can happen to one ball club."

"Ted Williams' broken shoulder was bad enough, but it was only the beginning. Right now we're getting around and doing the best we can with four of our biggest men not even able to make our road trips. It's been brutal."

"All three of my regular outfielders are laid up. Jim Piersall hurt his wrist running into a fence and then aggravated it by playing in several more games. Now it's in a cast and they say it will be at least two weeks before he can resume training.

"Jackie Jensen is out with a

MSC Confirms Cage Choice

Forddy Anderson Takes Over East Lansing Post May 1

EAST LANSING (UP) — Athletic director Ralph H. Young today announced appointment of Forrest (Forddy) Anderson, Bradley University cage coach, as head basketball mentor for Michigan State.

Anderson succeeds coach Pete Newell who recently resigned to take a similar post at California. Anderson's selection for the Spartan cage post had been predicted several weeks ago.

He will take over May 1. The new Michigan State basketball boss will bring an outstanding record as coach to the Spartan campus. In nine years of coaching, Anderson's teams have won 205 games and lost only 84.

Heavyweight Is Top Prospect in Golden Gloves

Len Kanthal's Victory Gives East 1st Win in 9 Years

By MURRAY ROSE
NEW YORK (AP) — Big-time pro boxing managers today were on the trail of Len Kanthal, a big, 18-year-old heavyweight prospect.

Kanthal, 6-3, 207-pound Marine PFC at Quantico, Va., stopped 19-year old LeRoy Duchene of Chattanooga, Tenn., in 1-47 of the second round at Madison Square Garden last night to give the New York-Eastern golden gloves a 5-3 victory over the Chicago-Western squads in the inter-city championships.

Lennie's TKO triumph in the last bout of the evening enabled the Eastern squad to score its first win over the West since 1945. If he had lost to Duchene, the two teams would have wound up in a 4-4 tie.

Al Weil, manager of heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, and other managers have been trying to latch on to the diamond in the rough.

Lennie, however, still is undecided about pro fighting. And he'll have plenty of time to make up his mind. He has 2½ years to go on his contract with the Marines.

There were plenty of managers and talent hunters among the crowd of 10,217 in the Garden and all eyes were on Lennie in the finale. After pounding Duchene all over the ring for a minute, he cornered the southerner and hammered him unmercifully for a full 30 seconds. When Lennie stepped back, the referee stopped the massacre.

Dickey told me. "We knew they were pushovers. We never got steamed up."

The Dodgers have come closer than the score shows to breaking through the Yankee barrier. In almost each instance the Bums were a better team than the Yankees. You didn't think so? Well, Yogi Berra is a fine catcher and a great Yankee star. But he isn't quite a Roy Campanella.

Yankees have no first basemen close to Gil Hodges. Junior Gilliam matches any second baseman in sight. At short Phil Rizzuto has an edge on Pee Wee Reese, but only an edge. Both are brilliant.

Both third basemen are effective, steady workers. Not much difference. The Dodgers have the call in the outfield with Jackie Robinson, Duke Snider, Carl Furillo and George Shuba. They have the best of it both on offense and defense.

What about the pitching? As things look at present the Dodgers have a clear, clean margin in all-around efficiency. If you can check all around form, as it ought to be, the Yankees have no pitching staff to match Don Newcombe, Carl Erskine, Billy Loes, Russ Meyer, Johnny Podres and Joe Black.

Wings Favored in Cup Series

DETROIT AP—Detroit Red Wings and Toronto Maple Leafs, hockey's most heated playoff rivals, renew their feud tonight in the opening game of the Stanley Cup playoffs.

NHL Playoffs Rated 'Tossup' by Dick Irvin

Considers Four Teams in Semifinals 'Best in Years'

MONTREAL (AP)—Dick Irvin, coach of the defending Stanley Cup champion Montreal Canadiens, rates the National Hockey League playoffs opening here and in Detroit "a tossup."

"I think the four teams in the semifinals are the best that have entered the cup series in many years," he observed today. "It's wide open."

Tonight's action pits the second place Canadiens against the fourth place Boston Bruins and the first-place Detroit Red Wings against the third-place Toronto Maple Leafs. Teams winning four games will qualify for the finals.

Red Wings have won the regular season title six years in a row, yet have captured the Stanley Cup only twice (1950 and 1952) since they started their skid. The Maple Leafs won it in 1949 and 1951.

Final statistics released today reveal that Detroit's Gordie Howe was the league's scoring leader for the fourth straight year.

The smooth-skating right winger finished with 81 points on 33 goals and 48 assists. Maurice (The Rocket) Richard of Montreal, tops in goals with 37, was second with 67 points. Ted Lindsay of the Wings was third with 62.

Harry Lumley of Toronto won the Vezina Trophy, allowing only 131 goals. He edged out Detroit's Terry Sawchuk who gave up 132.

DOCTOR WARNS STAR—Dr. George Bennett, a member of Johns Hopkins staff on vacation in West Palm Beach, Fla., Sunday warned Mickey Mantle, New York Yankees' outfielder, not to give his knee a serious test for three more weeks. Rules Body Provides New Incentive to Sink Fouls

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Basketball players awarded free throws in future college games will have more incentive than ever to put the ball through the hoop.

If they do they'll get a second shot—a chance to make two points instead of one. If they don't, the ball goes into play.

The new rule, adopted by the National Basketball Committee yesterday, applies to common personal fouls committed in the first 37 minutes of a game. The committee did not change the rule for the last three minutes of the game—two shots, regardless of whether the first is made or missed.

A common foul is one committed while the player fouled is not in the act of shooting. The new rule replaces the controversial one-and-one regulation. Under that rule a fouled player got a second free throw if he missed the first shot, but not otherwise.

The basketball committee also divided the game into halves again, eliminating the quarter timing adopted in the 1951-52 season. By reverting to two periods of 20 minutes each instead of having four of 10, officials hope to cut down stalling when time is running out. Only college games will be played by halves, however, others continuing by quarters.

Joyce Ziske Victor in North-South Test

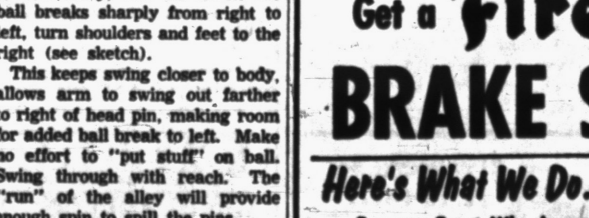

PINEHURST, N. C. (INS)—Joyce Ziske of Waterford, Wis., today wore the North-South Women's Amateur golf crown.

Miss Ziske scored a one-up victory over veteran Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville, Ga., to capture the 52nd edition of the tournament at the Pinehurst Country Club yesterday.

CASE—Playing Alleys. Adjust the Stance—a very slight adjustment of body position and stance is the secret of overcoming alley conditions. All topflight bowlers do it. On a slick-surfaced alley, square the feet and shoulders.

pocket between the 1-3 pins. On a slow alley, one on which the ball breaks sharply from right to left, turn shoulders and feet to the right (see sketch).

This keeps swing closer to body, allows arm to swing out farther to right of head pin, making room for added ball break to left. Make no effort to "put stuff" on ball. Swing through with reach. The "run" of the alley will provide enough spin to split the pins.

jinx against the Wings. Maple Leafs haven't won in Olympia Stadium, scene of the first two playoff games, since Nov. 2, 1952. During that dry spell, they lost nine times and tied three.

In the past campaign Toronto was all but stifled in its seven visits to Olympia. They lost five times and tied twice, being shut out on five occasions and held to a mere four goals.

Toronto has been the best playoff club in the league. Maple Leafs have won the league championship only once but lead in playoff victories with seven. Detroit, despite nine regular season titles, has captured the playoffs only five times—and only twice in the last five championship seasons.

Red Wings folded badly in last year's post-season play, losing in a first-round upset to the Boston Bruins, a team which they had whipped all year.

This time, Red Wings say, things will be different. The club is well-rested, where it was tired last spring. Gordie Howe is primed for his best effort, where he was only a shadow of himself after apparently burning himself out in quest of breaking Maurice Richard's record of 50 goals in one season.

Second game of the series will be played in Olympia Thursday, then the teams will journey to Toronto for games No. 3 and 4 Saturday and next Tuesday.

If a fifth game is necessary, it'll be played in Detroit Thursday.

Disney Gives Costly Filming to 1st Nautilus

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD — Even Jules Verne couldn't have imagined what Walt Disney is doing with "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea."

The French novelist (1828-1905) dreamed up his most famous book in 1870, and it was the sensation in its time. It told of a fanatical scientist who roamed the ocean lanes in a huge submarine. No wonder the first atomic sub was named after the Nautilus of the book. Verne described his undersea craft as being run by the harness power of the universe.

Disney has converted the Frenchman's dreamings into vivid reality. This is Disney's most costly film, the bill being estimated upwards from three million dollars and as high as five million. After looking over the production, I can see where the money goes. Eight costly weeks were spent in shooting locations in Nassau and Jamaica, mostly underwater. A brand new stage was built on the Disney lot for a water tank to house Captain Nemo's sub and a huge, sponge-rubber squid which James Mason (Nemo) has named Zsa Zsa.

The interior of the sub is an other expensive set. Such an undersea craft you have never seen before. The place is done in red Victorian plush with overstuffed chairs and sofas, a water fountain and even a pipe organ. The walls are lined with all kinds of books from bound copies of Punch to rare editions of Shakespeare.

"In designing the interior, we tried to figure what kind of surroundings a man of science would like," reasoned designer Harper Goff. He said it had been discovered that men like Dr. Einstein and the late Dr. Millikan, although thinking in the future, chose homes which were not particularly modern.

The designers faced the problem of creating mechanisms that were practical yet in the Victorian period. The sub couldn't look like the cigar-shaped vessels of today. It has a rugged look that reminded me of a combination Merrimack and the Loch Ness monster.

Verne described his men as walking underwater without life-lines or other gadgets. Special suits were designed combining the features of a diving suit and aqualung.

Gun Blister Breaks, Gunner Falls in Gulf

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. — An Air Force gunner was hurled 19,000 feet from a B29 bomber into the Gulf of Mexico yesterday after a plastic blister on the craft broke loose.

The plane commander, who said he did not know whether the gunner was dead or alive, reported the mishap on a routine training flight.

It was not clear whether the airman wore a parachute but Randolph Air Force Base authorities said it was standard procedure for all crew members to have them on.

Coast Guard, Navy and Air Force planes joined in the search.

Students to Get TB Patch Test

City Health Department to Search Junior Highs for Disease

Most Washington Junior High School parents will be asked Wednesday to let youngsters take skin patch tests to see if they've been exposed to tuberculosis. Washington will be the first of 10 city schools contacted by Pontiac City Health Department nurses who are searching for signs of tuberculosis in students under 15 in the seventh, eighth and ninth grades.

The patch test program is part of a county wide drive to find hidden cases of tuberculosis. Two mobile X-ray units, now are touring Oakland County giving free chest X-rays this spring, will move into Pontiac in June.

City Health Department nurses, working under Mrs. Burrell, supervisor, hope to give the painless patch test to almost 4,000 youngsters. Other schools to be tested are Jefferson, Lincoln, Eastern and Weaver junior highs and junior high grades in St. Michael, St. Frederick, Emanuel Christian, St. Trinity Lutheran and Seventh Day Adventist schools.

Mrs. Burrell explained the patch used is a strip of adhesive tape with little squares of paper dipped in a solution of dead tuberculosis germs. The tape is stuck to the skin of the upper back and left for two days.

A few days after the patch is removed, youngsters recently exposed to tuberculosis will develop a minor skin reaction. This doesn't necessarily mean the youngster has active tuberculosis. It only means germs are present in his body.

"Any youngsters who show reaction will be X-rayed when the unit comes in," Mrs. Burrell said.

Parents of Washington's seventh, eighth and ninth graders under 15 will be sent slips Wednesday to send back to school if they don't want their youngsters given the test. All youngsters whose parents don't return the slips to the school will be given the skin test Friday.

Roy Rogers, Wife in Graham Crusade

LONDON (INS)—Western movie stars Roy Rogers and Dale Evans described to a London audience at Billy Graham revival meeting last night their idea of the Christian life.

The man-and-wife team were guests of the American evangelist as he opened the fourth week of his British crusade at Harringway Arena. A capacity crowd of 12,000 attended the meeting. Graham announced yesterday that, in response to petitions from many persons throughout Britain, he soon would broaden his London crusade to reach a nationwide audience.

He explained that during April his speeches in London would be carried by direct transmission lines to theaters and auditoriums in other cities.

Senator Opposes TV Censorship Despite Letters

LANSING — Sen. Clyde H. Geerlings (R-Holland) disclosed today he has opposed the McCune Bill providing censorship of television liquor ads—even though his mail from constituents is running "100 to 1" in favor of the measure.

"I'm against the bill and I am telling my people so, although I am sure a majority of them want it," he said. "It's kind of an experiment in a way. It will be interesting to see what effect this has on my reelection. But I decided that if a man can't vote his own convictions here, I would rather stay home."

Geerlings said, however, his opposition to the McCune Bill did not mean he approved of television advertising of beer and wine. He said he was sending television stations in his area all the letters he receives from his constituents and is sending each constituent who writes him a copy of the letter which he sent those stations.

The letter said "I have told all my constituents that I am opposed to this measure on the basis that censorship in this case is a violation of our constitutional rights of free speech and freedom of the press. . . . However, I must agree with my constituents in what they are trying to do. . . . I feel as they do that the advertising of beer and wine on TV as well as other advertising relative to cigarettes, tooth paste, etc., is extremely distasteful."

Need Car Excise Tax Till '55—Ferguson

LANSING — Gov. Williams and U. S. Sen. Homer Ferguson (R-Mich) crossed swords by mail today over the issue of reducing excise taxes on automobiles. Ferguson replied to Williams' endorsement of the tax cut by saying:

"While I am one of those who opposed the excise taxes on automobiles because I believe they are discriminatory, I find myself in the position that, to balance the budget, these taxes must remain on for another year."

Ferguson wrote that he was certain Congress will lift the auto excise tax April 1, 1955.

Williams promptly accused Ferguson of "blindly following the Republican policy, without regard for its effects on the people of Michigan."

78 State Acres Burn

Elderly Bride to Let Law Rule

Will Permit Authorities to Handle Mate Who Skipped With $243,000

NEW YORK — An elderly bride has changed her mind again and now wants to let the law decide the fate of her husband who disappeared with her $243,500 after one day of marriage.

He thus faces a hearing today before a U.S. commissioner on charges of transporting stolen money and jewels from Virginia. When Percy William Herman, 49, surrendered here March 15, his bride, Mrs. Dyllon Havens Herman, 67, happily announced she wanted to withdraw charges she had filed against him with the FBI in Richmond, Va.

Herman said he had "good reason" for leaving his bride stranded in a Fredericksburg, Va., motel. He told a story of being pursued by suspected robbers and coming to New York to protect his wife's jewels and money.

Last night his wife reconsidered the situation and announced she would not withdraw the complaint but would cooperate "freely and fully" with authorities. There were "certain facts" that influenced this decision, she said. She did not specify them.

But the FBI had these additions to Herman's story:

1. He checked into a New York hotel with another woman March 8, three days after leaving his bride and four days after their marriage in Palm Beach, Fla.
2. Some of Mrs. Herman's $58,600 worth of jewels and $211,500 in cash were in a bank locker under the other woman's name.
3. The bankroll was $30,000 short.

Theater Man Seeks Overseas Band Fans

Many former servicemen who see the motion picture "The Glenn Miller Story" will witness reenactment of incidents at which they were present overseas. The picture will be seen here at the Oakland Theater starting Friday.

Arthur H. Sanford, Oakland manager, would like to assemble as his guests on the opening nights any residents of this area who were members of Maj. Miller's overseas airforce band at any time; attended his concerts in England, especially the one that continued through a German bomb raid; any who attended the Christmas concert in France just after Maj. Miller's plane disappeared. Sanford would like to hear from these or others who had contact with this service band, by phoning FE 2-8531.

Actors Honor George Raft

Friar's Club's Banquet Marks 25 Years for Movie Tough Guy

HOLLYWOOD — George Raft, one of the movies' toughest tough guys, is an old sofie after all.

The veteran movie gangster wept openly last night as the Friars Club tossed him a stag testimonial banquet marking his 25th year on the screen.

Perhaps the saddest note of all came in Raft's speech of gratitude. The graying actor, a little paunchy now, looked around at studio heads Jack L. Warner, Darryl Zanuck and Dore Schary on the speaker's dais and then said:

"This is a great honor for a fellow who hasn't done a thing in a year. The other day someone asked me to sing two choruses of 'Sweet Georgia Brown' in a picture about the life of Ben Bernie. That's the kind of offers I get nowadays."

But the evening was mostly filled with laughs, 90 per cent of them bawdy.

Although such high-priced comics as Martin and Lewis, George Burns and Parkyakarkus were on the program, it was a former light heavyweight champion of the world who got most of the laughs. Slapsie Maxie Rosenbloom, introduced as "Marion Brando's dictation teacher," said it was Raft first taught him how to fight.

"Dis burn Raft picked me up when I didn't have a quarter to my name," recalled Maxie. "Now I owe $20,000. Thanks, George."

Only about the first 30 miles of the Yalu River lie entirely in Manchuria.

There are some 44 local names for the large-mouth black bass, ranging from "green trout" to "bride perch," "growler," and "speckled hen." The small-mouth black bass has some 36 names, according to locality.

French Defeat in Indochina of Political Interest to U.S.

By PHIL NEWSOM

United Press Foreign News Editor
In a bowl-like arena 180 miles west of Hanoi and 100 miles below the Red China border, the French and Communists are fighting a battle for Indochina which both sides have described as "decisive."

It could also be decisive for the United States.

A French loss could have such repercussions as to face the United States with the same "agonizing" reappraisal of its Far East policies as it soon may be faced with in Europe.

French weakness is the underlying cause of both.

Whatever blue chips France had in the expensive poker game being played out in Indochina, she long since lost.

The United States now bears 78 per cent of the financial cost of the war, or in the neighborhood of $800,000,000 a year.

The United States interest in the battle at Bien Phu must be both immediate and long range.

About 300 U. S. Air Force technicians maintain the American-built C119 "Flying Boxcars" and the C47's which shuttle supplies and wounded between rear areas and the Indochinese front.

Twenty-four American civilian pilots under contract to retired Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault's civil air transport line fly some of those supplies to the front, taking the same chances with anti-aircraft fire as any military pilot.

From the American immediate point of view, what happens when the first American civilian is shot down?

What happens when the first American Air Force technician is forced to defend himself on the airfield where his job is to service but not fly the planes?

Is the American civilian regarded as an independent soldier of fortune or does his case start a new war?

Is the Air Force technician simply defending himself or is he a representative of the United States armed forces?

What happens if one is captured? All of these are within the realm of possibility.

The long-range interest takes another tangent.

A large segment of French public opinion is heartily sick of the Indochinese War and wants out. One side wants out either on the basis of a military victory or an "honorable" peace. The other side wants out, whatever the cost.

The question is rocking France and could have a serious effect on the United States.

Jaycees Announce Program Chairmen

Chairmen for three Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce projects were announced today by William L. Treanor, Jaycee president.

"The Greater Pontiac Home and Builders Show" is slated for April 22 through 25 with Forrest Reed and William O'Connor as chairmen.

"Clean-up, Paint-up Week" will be held May 1 through 8, with Charles Zamek and Al Hansen named chairmen.

From May 10 through 15 the "Teenage Rodeo," a safety program for young drivers, will be conducted, with James Hursay acting as chairman.

Plans are also under way for a junior golf tournament to be held the last week in May, Treanor said.

Pheasants reach their heaviest weight of the year about Dec. 1.

defenders of Dien Bien Phu may be, a French defeat there could very likely knock the last of the starch out of the will of the French at home to fight.

Meanwhile, the French, with their own blue chips exhausted, hope that the United States also will come forward in their behalf at the April 26 meeting at Geneva.

The least that the Reds are likely to ask in exchange for an Indochinese armistice is U. S. agreement both to Red Chinese membership in the United Nations, and extended trade with the Reds.

Failure to reach agreement on Indochina almost certainly would result in the fall of the present French government and conceivably total French withdrawal from the Indochina struggle.

Then would come the "agonizing" reappraisal of U. S. policy in Asia.

Passer of Bad Checks Gets Prison Sentence

Orville Brake, 27, of 379 Voorhes Rd., was sentenced to a 5 to 10 year term in Southern Michigan Prison by Circuit Judge H. Russ Holland Monday for uttering and publishing bad checks.

According to police reports Brake took checks and a check writer from the White Mfg. Co. and issued 12 to 14 checks worth about 3000 drawn on the State Bank of Ontario.

Suspends Sentence

Circuit Judge H. Russel Hollan yesterday suspended sentence on Dewey Stringer, 38, of Detroit for carrying a concealed weapon in his automobile. He was assessed $150 costs.

Membership in the British trade unions now exceeds nine million workers.

So He Lives Up to TV Reputation

Is Trying His Luck at Composition; Is Seen on Air as Bill Morgan

NEW YORK—Actor Mark Roberts has been cast so often as a writer that now fact follows fiction and he's writing a play.

Roberts, who is seen as Bill Morgan in TV's Three Steps to Heaven played a writer on another TV serial, "Hawkins Falls," a writer in the movie, "Taxi," and a writer in the Chicago company of the Broadway hit, "Dial M for Murder."

Roberts was born in Denver, Colo., June 9, 1921, as Robert Scott, and used his real name until a few years ago when he changed it because there was another actor of the same name.

Mark was the name of a favorite uncle and Roberts an obvious adaptation of his own first name.

College friends had relatives in the production end of motion pictures who saw Roberts' work in college dramatics and arranged screen tests. They found him in Hollywood three years and appeared in many films.

However, he felt that, to develop further, he should have experience in the legitimate theater and so he played in stock at the Deer Lake Theater near Reading, Pa., and in other summer playhouses.

His video debut was in 1947, and there have been many TV show roles since then. Roberts made his Broadway bow in "Stalag 17."

His most strenuous acting schedule came during that time when he commuted to Philadelphia for a leading role in the TV serial, "Miss Susan," rushing back each evening for "Stalag."

A couple of seasons back, Roberts was appearing in Boston in "Dial M" and went backstage at the theater where the "Paint Your Wagon" company was playing, to see some friends in the cast.

They introduced him to Audrey von Clemm, a dancer in the company. Roberts saw her again when both road shows were in Chicago and last June they were married.

Roberts is six feet, 2½ inches tall and slender. He has dark hair and hazel eyes.

Hall, Mitchell Discuss Issues

Chairmen of America's Major Political Parties Hold Press Conference

PHILADELPHIA—Shaking hands in the glare of flash bulbs, the national chairmen of America's two major political parties greeted each other on a first-name basis last night.

"Hello, Steve," said Republican Leonard W. Hall cheerily as he met his off-time verbal opponent at an unusual joint press conference.

"Hi, Len," replied Democrat Stephen A. Mitchell with a smile.

The press conference preceded a dinner meeting of Philadelphia's Committee of Seventy, a nonpartisan reform group which calls itself a "watchdog of politics" here.

This press conference is just for your benefit," Mitchell told newsmen before the dinner. "We'll try not to get into any partisan debate."

They tried but didn't entirely succeed. These were their answers to reporters' questions on controversial subjects, starting with the current dispute involving Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis):

Hall: "I agree with Senators Knowland and Ferguson when they say McCarthy should step down as chairman of his investigating committee during forthcoming hearings on the Cohn-Army question."

Mitchell: "McCarthy, fortunately, isn't our problem. I'm just glad he's not a Democrat."

What comment have you on the nation's economy?

Mitchell: "It's obvious the economy is suffering. Unemployment has risen and there are conditions and problems which require definite action."

Hall: "I recall that in 1950, during the previous administration, when unemployment reached a total of 4,700,000, Democrats were still calling that prosperity. They've changed their tune today, although I believe the latest figures put unemployment at about 3,700,000."

What will be the issues in the next election?

Hall: "Voters will be concerned with the scorecard on the Eisenhower administration. They'll be peering, I'm sure, with our progress on the President's forward-looking program."

Mitchell: "The important question is how is the Eisenhower administration running the government and how is it handling, for instance, present economic conditions and other problems. I think Republicans are putting more attention on running for office than running the government."

In their dinner speeches, Hall and Mitchell both urged greater participation in government by all citizens.

Blatnik included Speaker Martin (R-Minn.) and Majority Leader Hiram (R-Ind.) along with Allen among those whom he said were holding back on the measure.

"Time is in favor of the opposition," Blatnik said. "If we do not take it up in the House before the Easter recess, it places us in a dangerous position."

Allen announced after a two-hour hearing before the Rules Committee Monday that there would be a delay until April 1 before his rules group considers it again.

Blatnik argued that there was no reason for more than a one-day session before the Rules Committee.

Lobby, FEPC Bills Discussed Today

LANSING—The House expects to learn today whether it must vote on Fair Employment Practices (FEPC) legislation and stiffer controls over lobbyists—or whether those controversies will die in committee.

The House State Affairs Committee scheduled a morning meeting to dispose of both bills, one way or another.

Both bills have already passed the Senate.

Returning from a weekend recess last night, the Senate defeated without a debate a House bill to permit health officers to petition probate courts to isolate persons suspected of tuberculosis and to penalize those who leave TB hospitals before they are cured. The bill died on a 13-13 vote, four short of the necessary majority.

The Senate passed and sent to the governor a bill providing bounties of five dollars a head for bobcats in the Upper Peninsula.

Selling Stolen Equipment Costs Soldier His Stripes

FARNBOROUGH, England—Cpl. Kenneth Bates of the Royal Sussex Regiment pleaded guilty yesterday to selling recruits pieces of necessary equipment which he stole from other recruits.

A court-martial sentenced Bates to lose his corporal's stripes and 84 days detention.

Stewardesses With Seniority Can Stay on Job

NEW YORK—American Airlines stewardesses, outraged by the idea they are unfit for duty after age 32, have won a temporary victory over the company's age policy.

Late last year American announced its stewardesses would be grounded after they reach 32. Stewardesses should be attractive, the company said, and young ones were more likely to qualify in this regard.

The announcement brought howls of protest from stewardesses who had reached or were approaching the age limit.

Yesterday the company announced it would make a joint study of the subject with the Air Line Stewards and Stewardesses Assn. In the meantime, stewardesses hired before last Dec. 1, which includes all those bordering 32 years, would continue to fly "without age limitation."

However, the company said, all those hired since Dec. 1 can expect to be grounded when they reach 32.

Princeton Seniors Hear Stevenson

PRINCETON, N. J.—Adlai Stevenson cites as dangerous what he calls the "growth in popularity of unreason and anti-intellectualism."

The 1952 Democratic presidential candidate told Princeton University seniors last night they should not fear taking unpopular positions.

"All progress," he said at a dinner given by the Princeton senior class, "has resulted from people who took unpopular positions."

Earlier in the day, in Trenton, he decried a recommendation by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) that lie detector tests be given to all persons involved in the senator's controversy with the Army.

"We have reached a lamentable state," he declared, "if we have to rely on lie detector tests for responsible public officials."

Forest Fires Reported

LANSING—In its second weekly forest fire report, the conservation department said five fires in snow-free areas had damaged 78 acres.

A 70-acre fire near Pettysville accounted for most of the damage.

President of Alabama Institution Is Jailed on Embezzlement Charges

Reynolds himself sat in jail on embezzlement charges after a series of fast-breaking developments yesterday.

The banker had been free in $7,500 bond since his return to Clio Thursday night from a 12-day absence. He had promised to settle all accounts in full by the first of this week.

He turned over $5,000 to a three-man depositors committee yesterday, and it was put in a Clayton bank in the names of the three committee members pending final accounting.

The first official checkup of Reynolds' books to find out just how much money was on deposit in the Merchants Exchange was scheduled to begin today in Clayton, the county seat where the banker was brought to jail yesterday.

Expected to take part in the audit were County Solicitor Crews Johnston; Jack Wallace, an attorney representing Mrs. Reynolds' aunt, who was the largest depositor in the exchange; and an official of the First National Bank of Atlanta.

Of the nearly $37,000 accounted for out of an officially estimated $167,000 on deposit in the private, unchartered money exchange, $81,800 was found in an Atlanta bank where Reynolds kept much of the company's nonoperating capital.

But the aunt, Mrs. Veia Mae Reynolds, has filed garnishment proceedings in Fulton County Civil Court in Atlanta against those funds.

The imprisoned banker said last night he surrendered voluntarily and went to jail, but declined to say why or to make any other statement.

Youngster Strangles While Mother Shops

BALTIMORE (U)—Ten-month-old William M. Oechler strangled to death in his high chair yesterday while his mother made a 15-minute trip to a grocery store.

Mrs. Audrey Oechler told police she had left the baby in the high chair playing with a silver bell on a string around his neck. When she returned she found him in a near-standing position beside the chair, Mrs. Oechler said, with the string caught on the chair. The boy's 4-year-old brother was watching television in the living room during the mother's absence.

California Earthquake Shakes Up Kitchenware

EL CENTRO, Calif. (U)—An earthquake sharp enough to rattle dishes was felt last night in El Centro, other Imperial Valley cities and northward to points in San Bernardino, Los Angeles and Riverside counties. No damage was reported.

Lincoln Students Starting Canvass for Used Clothing

Some 1,100 Lincoln Junior High School students will canvass homes in the school neighborhood this week seeking clothes for needy children here and abroad.

Teacher Donald Keiffer and student Perry Grist, are leading the drive, part of the Twelfth Annual Children's Clothing Crusade. Clothes will go to needy American children and Korean, European and Middle Eastern families.

Philip J. Wargelin, school principal said students will pick up babies', children's and adults' wearable clothing.

Blankets, sheets, bedding and low-heeled shoes, he said, are especially needed. Students hope for garments that are reasonably clean and in good repair.

Texans Opposed to Reds

AUSTIN, Tex. (U)—A State Senate committee has unanimously approved a bill outlawing the Communist party in Texas.

Michigan Aid Money Stated 'Incorrectly'

LANSING (U)—The citizens research council said today that state financial reports distort the amount of state aid money going to local governments.

The council, a private organization interested in governmental reform, declared that the official state financial report for the past fiscal year inflates state aid payments to local units by nearly 25 per cent.

"The misconception is caused," the council's bulletin said, "primarily by treating expenditures of federal health and welfare grants as state aid, and by an inconsistent classification of state expenditures for teachers' pensions, veterans' homestead tax exemption reimbursements, etc. All this has the effect of distorting the amount of state funds going to local government units and minimizing expenditures for support of state government."

The American system of coins was devised by Thomas Jefferson.

6,000 See Sports Show

GRAND RAPIDS (U)—More than 6,000 attendance marked the Monday opening day events at the West Michigan Sports and Boat Show in the Civic Auditorium here. Visitors inspected 100 exhibits and demonstrations of outdoor equipment.
