Girl Scout Campers End First Roundup

By JANET ODELL

Five thousand girls sang the words to Taps. A bugler echoed the notes. The first Senior Girl Scout Roundup was officially over. Ending on an inspirational note, the camp will start closing today.

Scouts from the West began departing from the Highland area campsite early today. Big green buses once again shuttle between Detroit where special trains wait to carry the girls home. Eastern girls will leave tomorrow.

Propeller Rips Into Plane Cabin

Woman Killed, 10 Hurt in Canadian Accident Over Michigan

WINDSOR, Ont. (U)—A propeller tore loose from a four-engine Trans-Canada airliner yesterday and disintegrated while the plane was flying at 8,000 feet over Michigan.

One blade ripped through the cabin, killing a woman passenger and injuring 10 other persons. The turbo-prop Vickers Viscount, which carried 30 passengers, was about 35 miles southwest of here when the accident occurred.

The pilot made an emergency landing at Windsor Airport on two engines.

Trans-Canada officials said it was the first serious accident the line has had with the speedy British jet-prop airliner since it was put in service in North America 15 months ago.

Killed was Mrs. Robert J. Lippert, 31, whose husband is a doctor at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn. She was from Hanover, Ont.

Mrs. Lippert's two sons, Robbie, 3, and Richard, 14 months, suffered shock and were among five persons taken to a hospital.

Five others were treated at the scene for minor injuries.

GOING TO TORONTO

The aircraft was en route from Chicago to Toronto. The propeller blade tore a hole about two feet square on the right side of the fuselage and about one foot square on the opposite side.

Mrs. Lippert apparently was in the direct path of the blade. It sheared off about a foot of the top of seats on both sides of the aisle.

One passenger, A. J. Danly of Clintonville, Wis., said he heard a "tremendous explosion" when the propeller broke loose.

"I thought maybe the whole plane had exploded," he said. "The stewardess was remarkably cool. She said everything was going to be all right, but it was going to be a little rough. It was."

Ike to Seek Second Term, Sen. Knowland Discloses

'I'm Not Tired,' Walking Vicki Tells Searchers

Little Vicki Talbot decided to walk home from Pontiac to her home near Drayton Plains yesterday afternoon and gave police from three departments a hectic two hours.

She was with her mother, Betty, visiting at 104 Mary Sue Ave., according to Det. Thomas Mitchell. Mrs. Talbot went in the house he said, leaving Vicki, 4½, asleep in the family car.

Vicki woke up, Mitchell said, and decided to go home. She started off across the business section of town, alone and apparently unafraid.

Her mother discovered the girl gone and summoned police at 4:30 p.m. Police cars from Sylvan Village and the Oakland County Sheriff's Department joined seven Pontiac police cars in the search.

At about 6:30 p.m., a Pontiac Township couple, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Good, were driving on Opdyke road and spotted Vicki, still headed home near Pontiac road. She had accomplished three and one-half miles on foot.

They picked the little traveler up and notified authorities. Later Vicki told Mitchell, "It was a long walk, but I'm not tired."

Pontiac Voters Rush to Sign Up

319 Beat Deadline, Register on Last Day for Aug. 7 Primary

The rush was on Monday as 319 last-minute voters registered for the Aug. 7 primary.

City Clerk Ada R. Evans reported about 2,021 registrations since the April 2 election.

There are 39,174 voters registered in the city compared to 38,688 before the Aug. 5, 1952 primary.

Voters packed the clerk's office which stayed open until 8 to handle registrations. About 150 registered between 6 p.m. and closing time.

To encourage voters to register Mrs. Evans established registration booths in both city banks. About 364 voters used these facilities during the two weeks they were set up.

During the days which the clerk's office offered extended hours, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Monday, the office took in 527 new registrations.

The office said some 200 registrations were taken at 141 W. South Blvd., 50 at the Oakland County CIO Council, and about 32 at local union halls 633 and 594.

Pot-O-Gold Still Growing

$600 for Some 'Pioneer'

That familiar mood of expectancy fell over the room where POT-O-GOLD judges held away this morning as the usual Tuesday deadline neared for the receipt of entries in Puzzle No. 6.

The mood isn't very new, and as yet it hasn't been dispelled to the satisfaction of those who conduct a weekly hunt for a winner—in fact, the first one has yet to come forward with a correct solution.

If this is the week, the reward to Winner No. 1 will be $600, plus another $25 if he or she is a Press reader of record. You can be that "pioneer" if you get your last week's entry to us on a postcard bearing a Tuesday postmark.

Kidnap Hoaxers Face Jail Term for Ransom Plot

Cooked Up Plan in Bar to Kid Cops, Pals Say; FBI to Join Hunt

WESTBURY, N.Y. (U)—A longshoreman and a railroad clerk face up to 25 years in prison if convicted of tormenting Mrs. Beatrice Weinberger with a false claim they held her kidnapped baby boy.

The two men, both unemployed, were to be arraigned today in Ridge-wood Felony Court, Queens.

They are charged with trying to extort $5,000 from the heartbroken mother and giving false information about a kidnapping.

Meanwhile, there was no trace of 5-week-old Peter Weinberger, or any solid evidence he is still alive. The blue-eyed baby was snatched from his carriage in the patio of the Weinberger home here last Wednesday.

Last night police sent out a 13-state alarm asking that doctors, hospitals, nurseries and adoption agencies be alerted to look out for the baby. The alarm described his feeding formula, which included five drops of Doxex, a vitamin B12 compound.

The FBI plans to enter the case in force tomorrow—one week after the kidnapping. Under the Lindbergh law, the FBI can move into a kidnapping case after seven days or after the victim has been transported across state lines.

Arrested were Robert F. Giebler, 27, longshoreman, Jackson Heights, Queens, and Gordon T. Rowell, 24, railroad clerk, Sunnyside, Queens. Both are married and Weibler has three children.

Police said the two hatched the hoax in a Queen bar Sunday night. The two allegedly made four

Confesses to 38 Local Breakins

Week of Questioning Breaks Down Suspect From Utica

A former Utica man confessed Monday to 38 burglaries dating back to August, Pontiac police said.

He is Gerald Lenz, 21, who has lived in a rooming house at 120 Raeburn St. since early June.

Detectives Olin Hoffman and James Bale said they had questioned Lenz since his capture by two Pontiac patrolmen July 3. Officers Rudy Martinez and William Lemond caught the man during a foot chase after he reportedly was sighted breaking into an auto.

Lenz also admitted rifling glove compartments in at least 30 cars, Hoffman said.

He was charged with breaking and entering and scheduled for arraignment today in Municipal Court. Lenz' former address was 4980 Dequindre Rd.

All-Star Game Weather Fine

Pierce Pitches for AL Against Friend in 23rd Renewal of Series

WASHINGTON (U)—Skies were overcast this morning, but the weatherman predicted a mostly sunny day for the major league All-Star baseball game at Griffith Stadium.

His forecast was for some cloudiness but mostly sunny and less humid with a high of 82 degrees. That was welcome word for the 28,000-plus ticket holders who found the temperature a nice 70 but the relative humidity 91 per cent at 9 a.m.

The game started 12 noon (EST).

With the braced-up Mantle in the outfield and leftfielder Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox on the mound, the American League was a 6-5 favorite over the National League.

Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees said he planned to start Mantle, his slugging center fielder, despite an injury requiring a brace on the leg.

If Mantle is unable to start, Jim Piersall of the Boston Red Sox will be in center.

Opposing Pierce as starting pitcher was righthander Bob Friend of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Florida First in Line for Film About Michigan

LANSING (U)—The premiere of a new film extolling Michigan will be held in Florida—one of the state's hottest tourist rivals.

The 25-minute film, produced by the State Tourist Council, will be shown July 12 at Clearwater.

It is the third in a series produced by the council in its nationwide promotion of Michigan's year-round vacation offerings.

Entitled "Michigan—Autumn Wonderland," it records a scenic tour of the state and includes hunting, fishing and sightseeing.

Nation Awaits Winner of Powderpuff Derby

FLINT (U)—Nine more private planes, guided by their women pilots through clear skies and slight headwinds, crossed the finish line today in the 10th annual Powderpuff Air Derby.

All remaining 23 planes were expected shortly after noon, beating the 5 p.m. deadline for the 2,336 mile race by at least three hours.

The planes took off Saturday from San Carlos, Calif. The first one to arrive touched down Sunday. It was a Beechcraft Bonanza, piloted by Mrs. Joyce Failing of Baker, Calif.

Last of the day's arrival was Mrs. Janice Hart of Detroit, wife of Lt. Gov. Philip Hart of Michigan. She arrived at 4:49 p.m. in a Beechcraft Bonanza with Mrs. Marianna Rudolph of Mackinac Island, Mich.

TODAY'S ARRIVALS ARE:

Mrs. Dorothy Rungeling, Fenwick, Ont., in a Cessna 170 at 7:08 a.m.

The race is flown on a handicap basis. The winner won't be announced until tomorrow after elapsed flying time is computed against the power of the engines.

News Revealed Dramatically at Gettysburg

President Tells GOP Chiefs He Feels Better Than He Did Feb. 29

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (U)—President Eisenhower is going to run for a second term.

Republican Senate Leader Knowland disclosed this at a dramatic news conference on the Gettysburg College campus today.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty stood by nodding.

Knowland said the President told a meeting of Republican congressional leaders he feels in better shape than he did when he made his Feb. 29 announcement that he would seek re-election.

"We are looking forward to a very vigorous and active campaign under his leadership," Knowland said.

"Are you telling us," a reporter asked, "that the President is going to keep his hat in the ring?"

"I'm telling you precisely that," Knowland replied.

He added that Eisenhower "left no doubt in anyone's mind" that he will run again despite his June 9 intestinal operation.

Eisenhower himself appeared before reporters and photographers before and after an hour strategy session with the Capitol Hill leaders.

He looked a little pale and obviously had lost weight. The rough-textured sport shirt he wore was loose around his neck.

But his color was better and his step was firmer than when he left Walter Reed Army Hospital in Washington a week ago last Saturday.

Knowland was asked whether Eisenhower had given thought to his decision to run again in the light of his recent illness, which followed by nine months his Denver heart attack.

IN THE RACE

"The fact remains he's in the race," Knowland replied.

The senator said he regarded Eisenhower's comments today as a "continuation" of his Feb. 29 announcement that he would accept renomination.

Knowland also was asked whether Eisenhower had authorized him to make the statement.

"No," Knowland replied, "but he knew we were going to meet the press afterward and he knew (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

Democrats Pick Clement as Convention Keynote

CHICAGO (U)—Gov. Frank G. Clement of Tennessee, regarded as friendly to Adlai E. Stevenson, was selected yesterday to keynote the Democratic National Convention.

The young governor was named by the party's Convention Arrangements Committee after a three-hour meeting.

Clement, a fiery orator and considered a possible vice presidential candidate, did not receive a unanimous vote of the committee. National Chairman Paul M. Butler said.

Butler said the committee's 13 members gave a "full discussion of each of 17 or 18 possible selections." Clement was picked, he said "because of his familiarity with the issues and his capacity to discuss them fluently and capably, and the impression he has made around the country."

Although Clement has shied away from publicly committing himself to any candidate, he has expressed himself as friendly towards Stevenson.

At the recent Governors' Conference, he described Stevenson as the "greatest candidate ever to be denied the presidency of the United States."

Democratic leaders apparently closely considered Clement's views on the potentially explosive segregation issue within the party.

GOV. FRANK CLEMENT

The Tennessee governor has avoided taking strong stands either way.

He was quoted at the Governors' Conference as saying that no public schools in Tennessee had been or would be desegregated without a court order.

Theater Trip Planned to Spoil You

Rock Hunter may or may not have been spoiled by success.

If he was, however, his handsome head would ride no higher in the clouds than those of the 60 persons who will discover the answer to a question posed by the title of a popular Broadway play in September.

The Press wants these 60 to achieve that end for participants in The Pontiac Press Theater Special, planners have left unexplored few features that promise traveling comfort and convenience.

Careful attention to details is one of the ways we make sure that everyone who makes the six-day trip into America's largest metropolis enjoys each minute of his or her stay to the utmost.

Theater-goers will find, for example, that luggage ceases to be a problem from the moment they board their chartered bus in Pontiac to the time they step into their rooms at New York's luxurious Paramount Hotel after a fun-packed trip from Detroit on the swift Empire State.

Even such items as tipping become the responsibility of the expert guides who will go along. To these friendly "genies" every single excursionist will be an Aladdin with a magic lamp.

But we're inviting our "special 60" to do more than just bask in comfort. New York City has much to be seen—like the five top Broadway shows that will highlight the trip:

"No Time for Sergeants"—the hilarious story of a good-natured farm boy (Andy Griffith) and his ups and downs after being drafted into the Air Force.

And Only Student Can Hear Mistakes

Noiseless Pianos Mean Apartment Peace

By PHYLIS BATTLE
NEW YORK (INS)—Apartment dwellers live in cardboard boxes, and people who live in cardboard boxes should never throw voices.

You chastise your husband in the typical modern apartment house, and the strong language goes crashing through the kitchen wall into the Joneses' parlor.

You wash the dog in the bathtub and his yips go bellowing down the drain through the Browns' radiator.

You let your kid practice the piano and 18 families are going to complain to the police how loud and lousy he plays.

"That's the worst part of this business—all these children want to get culture," complains a superintendent we know. "They start drumming on the piano at 6:30 in the morning before any decent adult is awake, and everybody climbs all over me to get 'em to shut off the noise."

"But how can you tell a kid to stop practicing? His mother'll look at you and say how do you think Rubinstein got started, you big baboon, you want to fight progress?"

BRIGHTER FUTURE
This particular superintendent may not benefit immediately from a new invention just announced in Chicago—but his job may be easier in the near future.

For the Rudolph Wurlitzer Company (which has produced a great number of pianos which are shattering apartment dwellers' nerves today) has come out with a new noiseless model, guaranteed to annoy no one but the person who plays it.

The ingenious instrument is an electronic job equipped with a knob which enables the pianist (or his mother) to tune the volume up to "loud" or down to utter silence.

When the piano is tuned down to noiselessness, the artist may slap on earphones and flip a switch that enables him or her to listen in on his or her own performance.

"That way," points out a sly salesman, "only the student can hear the mistakes . . . and he doesn't need to squeal on himself."

PIANOS PLENTIFUL
The National Piano Manufacturers Association has pointed out that 178,000 new pianos were sold last year. And nearly 75 per cent of these were purchased by parents for the use of their kids.

Obviously, this being the case, a "peaceful piano" was in order. Besides being pianissimo when needed, this model pianoforte is lightweight and portable.

Its legs unscrew and come off so if a family has a genius in the apartment, the prodigy can play noiselessly to his heart's content during a restless night in bed.

There is just one catch. There are only 64 keys on the keyboard, rather than the conventional 88.

But, as the Wurlitzer people point out, how often does one use the tinkly upper octave or the thumpy lower octave anyway? Especially kiddies, in the scales stage.

It is conceded that this is no grand piano. But for this, harried parents and harassed neighbors may humbly give thanks.

With pianistic peace on earth finally on the way, there remains only one dilemma. This is a less frequent—but infinitely more piercing—problem, and it must be faced.

When is someone coming out with a soundless Stradivarius?

Statewide Alert Out for Escaped Convict

BATTLE CREEK (AP)—A prisoner being returned to jail after sentencing broke from sheriff's deputies and escaped in downtown Battle Creek Monday.

Douglas Drumm, 27, of Albion, had just been sentenced to 2 to 5 years for breaking and entering.

As he and the police guard stepped from the court house, Drumm bolted and ducked down an alley. Officers didn't shoot because of the crowds.

A statewide alert was sent out because Drumm might have escaped in a car reported stolen soon after the break.

The first U.S. census in 1790 listed 3,929,214 people.

The first member of an alleged check forgery ring to be arraigned pleaded guilty Monday in Oakland County Circuit Court.

The man, Fred Bartz, 40, of Detroit, will be sentenced July 16 by Judge Clark J. Adams. He is being held in Oakland County Jail under $10,000 bond.

Police say the ring, equipped with phony check plates and printing apparatus, passed more than $10,000 in bad checks since January.

Two other accused members, John Weightman, 39, of Farmington, and John Freeman, 48, of Berkley, demanded examination at their justice court arraignments.

School Votes Are Tallied; One Area Sets Ballot

Walled Lake School Unit Wins Support; Vote Slated

WALLED LAKE — It's definite now—a proposed two-mill tax increase for school operation will face voters in the Walled Lake Consolidated School district for a second time on Monday, July 23.

This decision resulted from a four-hour meeting held yesterday afternoon in the Junior High School when a group of 24 citizens of the district studied all phases of the current financial position along with enrollment figures. The group went on record, without a negative response, with the following opinions:

1. The Board of Education of the Walled Lake School District has handled funds in a wise and proper manner.

2. The two-mill tax levy is needed to maintain the present and past educational standards.

Twenty-two members of the group were in complete accord with the above decisions. Two others, Peter Popek and John B. Flannery, of the Citizens Civic League, reserved their opinions.

Those who voiced support to the opinions were: John Clark, Dick Roach, Joyt Wilson, James L. Gardner, Hiland Thatcher, L. B. Miles, Fraser Staman, Ralph Buffmyer, Ivan Cox, Ward Richards, Gaylord Speaker, Bernard Kitson, Elmer Conrad, Clare Riley, Charles Ruffenburg, Mrs. Owen Cleaver, Mrs. Laura Danielson, Mrs. Edward J. Bechtelheimer, Mrs. Barbara Scully, Mrs. Virgil Slinker, Mrs. Roland Green and A. W. Marble.

The group was equipped with complete and detailed financial information, an audit by Carl H. Wilmut, certified public accountant and a letter from Clifford H. Smart, superintendent of the district.

Smart said the budget deficit for 1956-57 is estimated at $61,917.47, salary schedules are lower than those of neighboring districts, and more than half of Oakland County's high school districts have voted extra millage for operating expenses.

Walled Lake's valuation per child is in the lower 25 per cent of Oakland County schools, he said.

If approved, the two-mill tax hike will provide an extra $54,000 each year for two years—1956 and 1957—to defray part of the school district operating costs. Approval of the proposal will make the district eligible for an additional $31,000 in state aid, board members say.

This proposal was voted down by a small margin in a June election.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Education last night at the Junior High School, Mrs. Katherine Stover joined the board as a trustee.

The board scheduled a special session for 8 p.m. July 23.

REV. ROBERT HALL

Milford Baptists to Dedicate Unit

Pastor and Two Guests to Conduct Ceremonies on Anniversary

MILFORD—When members of the First Baptist Church dedicate the first unit of their new house of worship tonight, it will be just a hundred years from the dedication of their first church.

The dedication service will be at 7:30 p.m. with the Rev. David D. Allen, vice-president of the Detroit Bible Institute and pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, Hazel Park, as featured guest speaker.

The Rev. Robert Hall, pastor of the church, will conduct the program, along with church officers. The Rev. L. P. Burcker, editor of the Fundamental Fellowship will speak briefly in the formal service of consecration.

The church was organized in 1835 with a membership of 13. One hundred years ago the present house of worship was completed and dedicated and later moved to its present location, where two rooms were added on in the early eighties.

"In the last four and a half years, membership has grown to the largest in its history for both church and Sunday School," says Mr. Hall. "This made it necessary to build this first unit which is exclusively a Sunday School unit."

The new building contains 12 separate classrooms, large assembly room, kitchen and rest rooms, and the Annex which contains the nursery.

Ground was broken for the new building on July 10, 1955, in a formal ceremony, and construction began a month later.

Westlake Lions Elect Officers

WEST BLOOMFIELD—New officers of the Westlake Lions were installed at a recent dinner at the Huron Country Club.

Edward Keen is lion tamer, and Bernie Baylor tall twister.

During the past year under the outgoing president Virgil Taylor, the club had a large increase in membership and completed 13 eye conservation hardship cases.

The program for the coming year is to give aid hardship cases in the area as well as contributing internationally along this same level.

County Schools Vote Lightly

Yesterday's Results Tallied; Annual Sessions Study Progress

With a light vote registered in most areas, school elections were conducted in many nearby towns yesterday. Several smaller school districts held annual meetings, with plans for the coming year discussed by officials.

LAKEVILLE

At the annual school meeting of district No. 5, Lakeville, last night at the school, Mrs. Francis Westphal was re-elected for treasurer of the school district by a unanimous vote of 11 voters present. There are about 200 qualified voters in the district.

Petitions are being circulated this week for the district to consolidate with the Oxford district. A total of 128 signers will be needed.

BRANDON TOWNSHIP

In the Brandon Township School election at Orionville, for two trustee posts, Incumbent James Slattery and Mrs. Bernice Ware won over Incumbent Monroe Frick and Leslie L. Wright.

Mrs. Ware had 128 votes and Slattery, 104.

There were 207 votes cast in the relatively large vote. It is the first time since 1940 that a woman was elected to the board.

LAKE ORION

A very light vote was cast in Lake Orion Community Schools. Daniel Abbey was elected to succeed himself for a three year term, and Hugh Brady won a similar term.

The vote was Daniel Abbey, 153, Brady, 139, and Roderic Wiley, 107.

At the annual meeting attended by 50 at the high school last night, where the election returns were announced, discussions of many phases of the school program were held.

Of special interest to parents was the new three-tract English system with college prep, general and basic courses being given. A comprehensive report was given by A. A. Reed, Superintendent, concerning the teacher aid program, use of teachers who will not have classrooms until the buildings are completed, need for extra administrative personnel added this year, and progress on the building program.

Despite setbacks the contractors promise the Carpenter and Webber additions in September, and the high school by the second term.

The group voted that they found the meeting worthwhile and requested the board hold a public annual meeting next year although it is not required by law.

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP

Of the 1,500 registered voters here, only 657 cast their votes in yesterday's school board election at the George Washington Carver School.

Six candidates were running for the two three year vacancies on the board.

Rochester Eyes Parking, Wider M-150 and Paving

ROCHESTER—Paving of several main streets, widening of M-150 for some distance, and properties available for off-street parking were discussed at last night's Village Council meeting.

Bids for asphalt surfacing of a number of village streets were opened at Monday's regular meeting of the Village Council. The low bid for the project was that of A & A Asphalt Paving Co. of Birmingham, totaling $19,780.65.

Specifications called for a new two-and-a-half inch asphalt for North Oak Street from the Glendale intersection for 280 feet north; North Pine Street from Glendale 150 feet north; Alice Street between First and Fairview Streets; Fairview between Helen and Alice Streets; and First, between Helen and Alice streets.

Resurfacing of Water Street between Third and Fourth Streets, and on Helen Street between Third and Fifth Streets, is also included.

Plans for widening of M-150 from the South end of the bridge at Diversion Street to Avon Road were described in a letter and blueprints from the Michigan State Highway Department. Width will be 47 feet, or four lanes rather than the present three, tapering into the two lane width at Avon Rd.

The contract for installing the new deep well turbine pump at the Water Works was awarded to the Poe Co., of Berkeley, low bidder.

The Off-the-Street Parking project which was recently brought before the council by the Rochester Chamber of Commerce was reviewed by Manager Robert Stone.

Two local realtors, Max Hartwig and Leslie E. Hopkins, presented for options, seven pieces of property for the consideration of the council.

Hartwig listed two houses and lots of the O. P. Gibbs Estate on East Fourth Street opposite the village offices, which would give approximately 6,000 square feet for parking, at $15,000.

Also offered was the Hall property at 411 East Street with a 60-foot frontage, and 115 feet depth at a cost of $8,950.

Hopkins offered four pieces of property, including the Lionel Smith house and lot at 421 East St. for $16,000, the house and lot known as the old Folino property on East Street at $7,875, T. Barnett place at $10,000 and the adjoining one at $7,875.

Troopers said Grover had built the hotrod himself and the two youths were giving it a trial spin.

Lane Puzzles Favored Dupas

Muskegon Fighter Gets Split Verdict in Bout in New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Michigan's Kenny Lane said today he was ready to pit his puzzling southpaw style against "the best in the division" after an upset victory over second-ranked lightweight contender Ralph Dupas of New Orleans.

The muscular Lane probably earned a spot among the division's top 10 with his 10-round showing against the stylish Dupas last night. He ran up a top-heavy margin in the early rounds and nullified Dupas' speed in the late rounds with superior punching power.

Dupas opened the first round faster than usual but slackened during the middle rounds while Lane worked on his misdirection with ripping rights and an occasional left-hand shot to the head.

The verdict was split. Judge Phil Gaffney and Referee Pete Giaruso voted for Lane and Judge Eddie (Kid) Wolfe for Dupas. The AP card had Lane a 6-4 winner.

The Kentucky Derby is the oldest uninterrupted American thoroughbred race.

Tied in second place with 70 were Lt. Dick Stearns of Portland, Ore., the Air Force champion, and Fred Corvi, of San Francisco, an airport bus driver.

Defending champion Sam Kocis of Detroit soared to a 77 but didn't appear agitated. Kocis' had thought Harding was not too tough.

"I'll do better and in the match play," he said. Then he spent the afternoon on the practice tee.

Other Michigan linksters ran into plenty of trouble. Jim Seltzer, Flint Northern golf coach who won the 1955 Michigan Publinx title, found the national meet rough as he carded a 39-41-80.

The 1956 Michigan champ Mike Andonian of Pontiac had a 38-41-79 and Roy Iceberg, also of Pontiac, fired a front nine 36 and faltered with a back nine 45 for an 81.

Fred King, 19-year-old Dearborn High School ace shot a 39-41-80, with two other Michigan players Dick Preston and Bill Schwepke getting 84 and 88 respectively.

Ed Briegel of Ann Arbor shot a 78. These scores will have to be considerably improved in the second round of qualifying in order to move into the championship flight.

The fourth par-breaker over the 36-36-72 Harding layout of 6,683 yards was Yern Callison, a tavern owner from Sacramento, Calif.

Then the Southern contingent put in its appearance. Eddie Langert and Shedric McKain, both of Memphis, had 72, along with Daniel Sikes Jr., of Jacksonville, Fla.

The Memphis team, composed of Langert, Gene Frase and Junie Buxbaum had an aggregate of 218 to lead the team play by a fat six strokes with Portland, Ore., second. Frase and Buxbaum both fired first round 73s.

Most figured a 36-hole score of 154 or better after today's 18 would make the match play rounds.

Veteran Andy Swedko of Sharpsburg, Pa., who won the Publinx in 1939 and has played in 18 of them, was along with Kocis with a 77.

Two rounds of match play will be completed at 18 holes both Wednesday and Thursday with 36-hole semifinals on Friday and finals at the same distance Saturday.

Two-Way Tie in Pro-Am

While the defending champions, Bob Inman and Ben Smith stayed away from Tam O'Shanter, yesterday, most of the other 49 teams in the Michigan Pro-Amateur Golf Championship tested the layout in a "Metro" pro-am event.

Wally Burkemo and Bob Rosen played into a tie for top spot with Bob Keller of Red Run and amateur Ferd Henkel at 62, a nine-under-par best-ball card. Wally and Rosen had finished early, and it looked like they would take down the top cash all alone. Late in the afternoon Keller and Henkel came home with another 62 to take an equal share of the purse, $245.

Fifty-two pros and 146 amateurs took part in the event, preliminary to today's 36-hole championship marathon for a field of 50 of state's leading pros and an equal number of top amateur shotmakers. This also is a best-ball (4-ball event) at medal play.

Inman of DGC and Smith of Detroit, the defending champions, won the title at Tam a year ago, in a rainstorm with an 18-hole card of 67.

Play got underway at 8 a.m. today, with players leaving both the 1st and 10th tees simultaneously, to speed the action.

Teams are currently tied at the league top.

Rochester defeated Pontiac 4-3 in their only previous meeting this season. Whitey Larson or Gerry Orr are mound choices for Pontiac.

Professor Gives a Few Tips

Small Points in Fishing Are Neglected

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Are those wily fish eluding you? Do you wonder where the fishing went?

Maybe, says University of Michigan professor Karl F. Lagler, you're forgetting some of the "small" points in fishing that make or break a successful season.

"Too many people," says prof. Lagler, "concentrate on the big things of fishing, like wangling a time to go, finding a boat to go in, a place to go, and out-talking the wife, who'd rather go on a picnic."

In their efforts to get to where the fish are, he says, anglers forget such things as accuracy, stealth, wise choice of lures and bait, and other factors.

Learn, says prof. Lagler, to cast accurately. Overshooting or undershooting your target louses up the good holes and tears down your self confidence. Practice casting at a target in the backyard until you've mastered the fundamentals. He careful not to hit the wife's washing.

Next important is stealth. Wear dark clothes, says the university's dept. of fisheries head. Stay low in the boat. "The only noise a fish should hear is that of your lure falling on the water."

The choice of lures, says the professor, is very important. For instance: "if you're fishing in weedy waters don't use a lure that is constantly hanging up. Try a good weedless lure with a pork chunk."

Other tips: Don't use a shallow running lure in deep water. In calm water try a topwater splasher.

Vary its action. Try a noisy retrieve, then a fast one, then a quiet slow one.

Try different colors too. Scientists don't know why, but fish are sometimes attracted to different colors. And when you get that strike, don't be afraid to slam home that hook.

Lose one and you'll know why it's good advice to keep those hooks sharp. If you still don't catch any fish, try golf or tennis.

Doctoring Your Golf Game

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF
PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: No grip comfort.

DIAGNOSIS: Right thumb contact.

TEATMENT: You may have heard it said that golf is a right-handed game played with the left hand. I don't altogether agree with that theory—through experience.

I've learned that golf is a two-handed game and as such a proper grip, firm but not tight with both hands, is necessary. I used to swing with a loose right hand on the backswing, then tightened it on the down-swing.

Now I make both hands get into the act immediately. As sketch shows I use the standard over-lap, in which the little finger of the right hand overlaps the index finger of the left. The shaft runs through the lower part of the palm to give me a good hold while the middle, third, and little fingers—the three fingers that are constantly on the club throughout the backswing and through the ball.

With the right hand (notice sketch) I grip more with the fingers, but most importantly I feel pressure on the index finger, looping it around the shaft much like the action of pulling a trigger. I then fit the thumb on the end or tip of the index finger to form a sort of "lock." This I maintain through the swing, firmly, and in that way I assure grooved swinging that is constant and two-handed. Make a study of your grip. Take enough time to see that it's right.

"Den Geschmack nicht rausdrücken"

"Don't squeeze the taste out"

That's the age-old rule in brewing National Bohemian Beer. Let the brew clarify slowly, naturally. Never hurry it. Never squeeze the taste out.

Here is a tradition beer. Brewed to a critical formula. Aged naturally. No one taste predominates. Light and mellow. The big difference in National Bohemian is satisfying flavor. Enjoy it at local prices.

Report raises Grains to Ease

CHICAGO (AP)—Most grains eased on the Board of Trade today prior to issuance of the first major government crop report of the year.

At the start feed grains pushed ahead again in gains being pushed ahead, but these gains were partly given up as trading progressed. Wheat was erratic at the start, losing ground later.

Soybeans had a weak tone from the outset, reflecting renewed ease in soybean oil and soybean meal futures. July soybeans fell several cents at one time.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1/4 to 1/2 lower, July $2.06; corn unchanged to 1/4 higher, July $1.49; oats 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, July 69c; rye unchanged to 1 cent lower, July $1.25; soybeans unchanged to 3/4 lower, July $2.68; hard 2 to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $10.55.
