

'You'll Carry Michigan,' Nixon Is Told in State

But He's Wary, Plans at Least One More Visit

Four-City Tour Gives Weight to Bagwells Prediction, Says Veep

But the Republican presidential hopeful wasn't counting his chickens yet. He planned at least one more personal visit to Michigan and hoped to bolster the GOP standing in the state with visits from other top Republican leaders, including President Eisenhower.

"Mr. vice president, I can assure you that Michigan's 21 (sic) electoral votes in November will be in the Republican column," Paul D. Bagwell, Republican nominee for governor, told Nixon at a giant rally here Tuesday night.

The rally here attracted Nixon's first of four Michigan appearances at swinging the state into the Republican column in November.

Nixon indicated his trip through Mount Clemens, Flint, Saginaw and Bay City had convinced him Bagwell's prediction would come true. He also indicated he wasn't going to relax just yet.

"There are no more enthusiastic promoters in the country, when it comes to a political campaign, than there are right here in Michigan," the vice president said.

"If I am any judge of enthusiasm, then this prediction (of Bagwell) will come true," he said. "The Bagwell team will bring good state government to Michigan as well as good representation for this state on the national level."

But Nixon had barely completed the statement when John Martin

Republican national committee member from Michigan, revealed that the vice president would make a train swing through Michigan in about a month.

Martin also said the Republican nominee for vice president, Henry Cabot Lodge, would make two campaign stops through Michigan. Lodge Secretary James Mitchell would make one, and President Eisenhower would make another before the election.

The Michigan National Committee man said Nixon's next trip through Michigan would start in the southeast corner of the state and move westward by rail, probably touching Muskegon before (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

NIXONS AND BAGWELLS — Vice President and Mrs. Richard Nixon chat with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bagwell as the state Republican candidate for governor meets the national campaigners in Flint Tuesday. Baldwin Rubber Merger Near

Local Firm May Join Chemical and Brewing Concerns Soon

Negotiations toward a three-way corporate merger involving Baldwin Rubber Co. were announced today in New York City.

The merger also involves Montrose Chemical Co. and the Centivore Brewing Corp. would be the parent firm.

A new corporation known as Baldwin-Montrose Chemical Co. is to be formed, according to Centivore Brewing Corp. would be the parent firm.

The plan has yet to be put to a stockholder vote.

The negotiations involve stock maneuvers. Convertible preferred stock in the new company would be issued in exchange for common stock in the Baldwin and Montrose companies, the announcement said.

Centennial Promotion Requested

Centennial planners today began a campaign to win retailers' participation in the forthcoming Pontiac centennial observance next year.

The celebration is bound to produce opportunities for sales promotions. It was emphasized by Greater Pontiac Centennial Commission members to a group of merchants at the Hotel Waldron.

"The centennial needs the support of the whole community," said John W. Hirtlinger, manager of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce and centennial secretary. "We can't succeed without you, nor you without us."

Sales and promotions can be tied in with the parades, novelties and activities planned for the working centennial climax in June, said Hirtlinger. The commission, he said, will try to coordinate all participation.

Rocky to Fight Clock Here

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller will show Saturday in Pontiac that he is more than a mere name on the ballot when he meets the Republican Committee.

But Arthur G. Elliott Jr., county chairman, is a man who abides with the rules, especially when they have been set down by state party leaders.

So Elliott is determined that the governor stick to the original schedule, in order that he not miss the primary invitation of his one-day visit to Michigan — speaking at the 6:15 p.m. dedication of the new Infirmary Civic Center.

"It will be a case of 'Can Rocky beat the clock,' " Ferry said. He said alarm clocks will be placed on the speaker's platform at each stop to make sure the promised time schedule is not violated.

Rocky and his aides might have some other ideas. Anyway, the schedule calls for the 32-year-old executive, who once served the nomination Nixon eventually received, to land in his Con-Quair at 2:30 p.m. at Pontiac Municipal Airport. He'll hop between Battle Creek, Kalamazoo and Lansing in the morning.

MAYOR TO RECEIVE
After a reception headed by Pontiac Mayor Philip E. Rowston and State Rep. Lloyd I. Anderson of Waterford Township at the airport, Rockefeller will squeeze in some minutes for questions from the press.

He's due at the steps of the four-story new infirmary at 3:15. The itinerary calls for the candidate to speak "briefly." (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Like to Stay in NY Overnight and Chat With Other Chiefs

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today decided to stay overnight in New York Thursday so that he can talk with some of the government leaders attending the session of the U.N. General Assembly.

In announcing this, the White House declined to say what foreign visitors might meet the President.

However, there was no indication that Soviet premier Nikita Khrushchev would be on the list.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty has repeatedly said there were no plans for an Eisenhower-Khrushchev meeting.

Eisenhower's decision to remain in New York overnight came atop an earlier announcement he would give a luncheon Thursday in New York for representatives of 15 Latin American countries.

Eisenhower is going to New York to address a forenoon session of the United Nations. Originally the President had planned to return to Washington in the afternoon.

But Hagerty said that the overnight stay had been decided upon so that appointments could be made in the afternoon with world leaders at the United Nations.

If Eisenhower does not see Khrushchev, the omission may be regarded as a snub to the Soviet premier who withdrew an invitation for Eisenhower to visit the Soviet Union this summer. Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro is not being asked to the luncheon for Latin Americans.

Alleged Target for Assassins, K Leaves Hall

Red Tale Is Considered Propaganda Trick That Soviets Pulled Before

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.

(AP)—Representatives of 14 newly admitted nations — 13 from Africa — pleaded with the big powers today to keep the cold war out of their newborn countries.

Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, reported by Soviet sources to be the target of would-be assassins, listened for an hour as the new delegates formally thanked the United Nations for granting them membership.

He left the Assembly around noon for the Soviet mission's headquarters, apparently undisturbed by a vague death threat reported by the Swiss branch of Amtorg, Soviet trade agency, that plotters were attempting to take his life. A high police official doubted it was genuine.

The official, who declined use of his name, said it was "possibly a Red propaganda trick to cause confusion and action that would discredit the police and hamper the working press."

The gist of the threat, as outlined by police, was that the Swiss branch of Amtorg, Russian trading corporation, reported that a group of former agents of the Gestapo-Hitler's divided secret police—planned to assassinate Khrushchev by "poisoning."

The police department official said the same kind of yarn was "planted by the Russians" in foreign newspapers two months ago before Khrushchev announced he was coming to the United States.

Clubs and Eggs Fly in Brawls Near U.N.

NEW YORK (AP)—Club-swinging police and riotous demonstrators battled into the night following Tuesday's opening session of the United Nations General Assembly.

The brawls swirled around mid-town streets as task forces of police and mounted patrolmen moved swiftly to curb the disorders.

Eggs and lighted firecrackers were hurled at police — who pushed and shoved and fought back with clubs.

At least three demonstrators were injured and four arrested. The heavy police security was praised by most New Yorkers — but damned by some Communist bloc chieftains.

Stealing the spotlight Tuesday was the meeting in Harlem between Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and Cuba's Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

The controversial leaders talked for 22 minutes in Castro's hotel, then emerged with their arms around each other's shoulders.

The large assembly of Communist bloc leaders and the Castro entourage — gave police their biggest security headache. About 8,000 police have been assigned to protect them.

Helping make matters more trying for hard working police was the large mélange of foreign-born residents in this city of eight million. Many came from East European countries and lands now under Communist rule.

The worst of the street brawls erupted near the U.N. headquarters and the Soviet headquarters for its U.N. mission.

In one three-hour melee near the U.N., mounted policemen charged about 50 Ukrainians and (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Picnic Weather Coming Our Way Over Weekend

The first few days of autumn, which begins Friday, will be warmer than usual, the weather man says.

The five-day forecast for the Pontiac area calls for temperatures averaging about 3 to 6 degrees above the normal high of 71. Low tonight will be a pleasant 62.

Morning northeasterly winds at 2 m.p.h. will become southerly at 3:12 p.m. this afternoon. Tonight's southerly winds at 10-15 m.p.h. will shift to northwesterly late Thursday.

The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 3 a.m. was 37 degrees. At 2 p.m. the recording was 75.

Farmers Told to Question Election-Year Promises

By LOIS McKEE

LANSING (UPI)—The farmer's role in the coming election is being emphasized this year by candidates in both parties, and the farmers themselves are being told to question election-year promises.

In Michigan, the State Farm Bureau advised its membership that election year is a poor time to listen to political promises of the issues.

"In the chaos and fire of campaign debate the truth often gets twisted rather severely," said Donald D. Kinney, coordinator of education and research for the bureau.

"It is better to gather your facts from various reliable sources, check and verify them under the calm light of pre-election years," he said.

Community farm bureau in the state were to devote their meetings this month and next to discussions of the issues and candidates in the November election.

On the three state ballot proposals, the bureau supported the first, second and third, and strongly opposed the fourth measure—the constitutional convention question.

Kinney cited the con-con proposal as of "critical importance to rural people."

He said it would shift the delegate power from the urban areas to the rural areas.

If voters approve the con-con proposal supported by the League of Women Voters, State Junior Chamber of Commerce and several other large organizations, there would be 14 delegates to shift the balance further of center in the same direction."

Kinney said cities already hold a majority of the delegate seats, and "the results of proposal 1 would be to shift the balance further of center in the same direction."

A second feature of the proposal, which would provide that only a majority of those voting on the question was required for passage, also met disapproval by the bureau spokesmen.

The farm bureau took the position that "unless voters are concerned enough about holding a con-con to show a majority of votes in the election, they don't want one very much and one should not be called."

Kinney said recent votes on a con-con indicated the general public has little interest in it.

He indicated the work of a con-con would likely be a waste of time.

"Expensive as it is," Kinney said, "a con-con does not automatically provide us with a new state constitution. The document must be placed before the voters in a general election."

"Voters have rejected proposed new constitutions and have voted the work of conventions on two past occasions," he said.

The bureau favored a ballot proposal which would allow the state to renew the authority for bonding to provide aid to distressed school districts.

On one measure to authorize a one per cent sales tax idea, the bureau said it should be "studied carefully."

Kinney said the tax proposal could involve a "double decision." One of the sales tax like could be interpreted by lawmakers, Kinney said, as a mandate for the passage of a state income tax.

The three bond measures to the Constitution are getting a close look by farmers in Michigan as are the candidates and their platforms.

Name Aging Expert Swainson Adviser

DETROIT—Mrs. Wilma Donahue, member of the advisory committee to the White House Conference on Aging, was named chairman of a similar committee to advise Democratic gubernatorial candidate John B. Swainson.

Mrs. Donahue will head a non-partisan committee which will present a report to Swainson by Oct. 15th on the problems of senior citizens, the candidate's headquarters announced.

The Swainson camp also said that attorney D. Charles Marston and William Saxton of Detroit and Douglas Hillman of Grand Rapids, will serve as joint chairmen of lawyers for Swainson committee.

Start 6-Year Study on Lakes Pollution

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Public Health Service (PHS) announced today start of a six-year study of pollution in the Great Lakes Basin-Indian Waterway.

Congress appropriated $100,000 for the study, a commission to be set up in Chicago to request for permission to increase the diversion of Lake Michigan.

The city's spokesman said the additional water was urgently needed to flush wastes from the growing metropolitan area down the waterway. They insisted this would not affect materially the levels in the Great Lakes, but congressmen from the other lake states conducted a bitter fight to defeat the proposition.

Housing Starts Up 8 Per Cent in August

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Commerce Department reports that housing starts picked up in August. Work has begun on 127,000 dwelling units compared to 115,000 in July.

Counting only private homes and apartments on which construction was started, housing starts hit an annual rate of 1,275,000 housing units last month. This was a gain of 8 per cent from July but 12 per cent below August 1959.

Nurses for Retarded to Attend Conferences

LANSING (AP)—Regional conferences on the mentally retarded for public health nurses are scheduled in two parts of the state this fall, the Department of Health announced.

The first conference will be Sept. 26, Oct. 3 and 10 at the Lapeer Home and Training School.

The second group meets Sept. 27, Oct. 4 and 11 at the Home and Training School at Mount Pleasant.

The conferences have been prompted by a growing interest on the part of local health departments in helping parents of mentally retarded children, a department spokesman said.

Kennedy Pledges to Outdo Reds

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy says the next president must act first and fast to strengthen the cause of peace and cannot merely wait for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's next move.

Pledging he would follow such a course if elected, the Democratic nominee Tuesday night told a coast-to-coast television audience of the steps he would take "first and fast" to meet the Communist challenge.

In doing so, Kennedy rejected the call of his Republican rival, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, for a moratorium on talk of American weakness and for solid backing of President Eisenhower while Khrushchev is in the country for the United Nations General Assembly.

Speaking at a $100-a-plate Democratic rally where 1,200 diners cheered him again and again, Kennedy coupled criticism of the Eisenhower administration with his attack on the Soviets.

"Some people say it's wrong to say we could be stronger—that it's dangerous to say we could be more secure. But in times like these, I say it is wrong—and dangerous—for any American to keep silent about our future if he is not satisfied with what is being done to preserve that future," Kennedy said.

Starting today with a series of speeches in Tennessee, Kennedy will be on the road 19 days on a tour that will take him into 13 other states—from the East Coast to the Rocky Mountains.

NOT MUCH TIME

In his nationwide TV address Kennedy said there is very little time for America, as he put it, to get "on the move" in dealing with the Communist threat.

"The enemy is lean and hungry—and the United States is the only sentinel at the gate," the Massachusetts senator said.

He got perhaps his biggest round of applause when he said: "This is no time to say we can out-talk or out-shout Khrushchev. I want to outdo him—to outproduce him—to prove to a watching world that we are the wave of the future—and that the Communist system is as old as the pyramids."

The Democratic candidate, in saying the next president must act first and fast in dealing with the Soviets, set forth this as the program he has in mind:

On the military front: He would speedily send Congress a special message "requesting the funds and authority necessary to give us a nuclear retaliatory power second to none, make it invulnerable to surprise attack, and add conventional forces so strong and so mobile and so modern that they can stamp out any brushfire war before it spreads."

Nonmilitary front: He would request America's more prosperous North Atlantic Treaty allies and possibly Japan and certain other countries to join with the United States in a program of aid to underdeveloped nations, with the purpose of averting Communist exploitation.

Domestic front: He would launch an "all-out attack on poverty in this prosperous country."

Poverty in the midst of plenty, Kennedy suggested, lowers America's prestige in the free world.

MAKES MAJOR ADDRESS — Sen. John F. Kennedy makes a major address in Washington Tuesday night at a Democratic $100-a-plate fund raising dinner. His wife Jacqueline watches the Democratic Party's presidential nominee as he outlined his plan to preserve and further United States world leadership against the efforts of communism. It was his first nationwide television speech of the presidential campaign.

Bridges Dislikes Both Kennedy and Dick Nixon

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Netherlands Vice President Richard M. Nixon nor Sen. John F. Kennedy will receive the support of Harry Bridges' powerful International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union.

"A vote for either is a vote against a positive program for peace and progress," the union's executive board said Tuesday.

The ILWU recommended, instead, that its members support "desirable congressional candidates."

HARRIMAN MAKES REPORT — Averell Harriman, former New York governor, reports to Sen. John Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, Tuesday, on his just completed tour of West Africa. Harriman later told a news conference the United States must move promptly with moral and material help for new African nations, or see them pulled closer to the Communist orbit.

Harriman Says Aid to Africa Important

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former Gov. Averell Harriman of New York has called for greater U.S. aid and friendship to independent countries in Africa to keep them from turning to Communist nations for help.

Harriman said Tuesday that during a three-week visit to eight African nations he found a fear that "out of Moscow and Peking would come a new form of colonialism."

No said "if they get a reasonable helping hand from the West," the African countries would not be inclined to form close relationships with the Soviet Union and Communist China.

Harriman, former ambassador to the Soviet Union, is a foreign policy adviser to Democratic presidential nominee John F. Kennedy. He made the trip to Africa at Kennedy's request.

He visited the Republic of Senegal, Guinea, Liberia, Ivory Coast, Ghana, Nigeria, the Congo Republic (the former French Congo) and the Republic of the Congo (formerly the Belgian Congo).

State Bar Proposing Suspension Ruling

LANSING 48—Attorneys who are mentally ill or addicted to intoxicants or drugs will face suspension of their license to practice if the State Supreme Court adopts a rule proposed by a committee of the State Bar of Michigan.

A committee studying revision of the bar's grievance rules will make the recommendation to the full organization at its Sept. 23-24 convention in Grand Rapids. Suspension would follow proof of mental illness or addiction in malpractice suits.

Those suspended could be reinstated only after giving "clear and convincing evidence" of fitness if a hearing is held.

The bar, moreover, could require a medical or psychiatric examination to help establish proof.

Okay Muskegon Man for Parole Next Dec. 1

MUSKEGON 48—Wendell S. Holcomb, former Muskegon businessman and once chairman of the Muskegon County Republican Committee, has been approved for parole next Dec. 1 after serving 10½ months of a two-year federal prison term on a mail fraud charge.

He was sentenced last Jan. 13 on a plea of guilty of use of the mails to defraud. Holcomb was accused of irregularities involving an estimated $100,000 in connection with a wholesale mail order business he operated.

5 Commercial Building Projects Are Under Way

Five new commercial building projects are under way in Waterford Township, according to building department reports.

Two stores, costing $20,000 each, are being constructed in the shopping center on Highland Road at Williams Lake Road.

Building permits have been issued for a $25,000 service station on the west side of Dixie Highway near Walter Boulevard and for a $25,000 apartment motel on Cooley Lake Road near Lake Vista Drive.

A $35,000 addition to the Four Towns Community Methodist Church at 6290 Cooley Lake Road is in the process of construction. An $8,000 store at 6512 Hatchery Road, and a $3,500 transpallet center on Dixie Highway near Bushbaw Road also are being constructed.

Anxious for Main Bouts to Start

U.N. Preliminaries Bore Nikita, Castro

NEW YORK (UPI) — Nikita Khrushchev stared at the ceiling and Fidel Castro nervously shuffled his feet.

Their bear bugging out of the way, the two premiers had settled down to the business at hand — heading the Soviet and Cuban delegations to the United Nations. Both men looked a little bored.

It was evident this pair of one-hand friends, who embraced with gusto both at Castro's Havana visit and before the first session of the U. N. General Assembly a short time later, became fed up with sitting in the audience the first day.

Khrushchev left after an hour of the droning night session, devoted to congratulations to 14 new members. Castro didn't even show up.

This was the preliminary round, however, and tension already was mounting toward the moment when stocky former coal miner Khrushchev strides up to the speaker's rostrum. He is scheduled to speak Friday.

The most dramatic display came at the opening afternoon session.

Khrushchev ambled down one aisle of the assembly hall to personally cast the Soviet ballot for the new president. Down another aisle came American U. N. Ambassador James Wadsworth. They reached the rostrum at the same time.

Neither made a move to recognize the other. Wadsworth stepped back and permitted Khrushchev to cast the secret ballot. The premier turned on his heels and headed back to his seat.

Fitting aloof during the proceeding was Yugoslav Marshal Tito who made no move to approach Khrushchev.

THREE ARRESTED

Outside the great hall there were outbreaks of jeering pickets, scuffles, fist fights and falling police clubs. Three persons were arrested, including one 19-year-old Ukrainian youth who was seized while setting fire to a Russian flag.

A long line of policemen, part of the force of 700 assigned to the U. N. building, stood almost shoulder to shoulder along First Avenue, preventing crowds from gathering. Most of the demonstrators were kept about three blocks from the main U. N. entrance.

Numerous other incidents were reported around the living quarters of the Communist leaders. Eggs and vegetables pelted the car of Nikolski V. Podgorny last night.

There was more than surly crowds to keep police busy. Castro's hotel was searched for a bomb after an anonymous phone call, one of several received since the Cuban angrily departed its midtown hotel and stormed up to Harlem, six miles from the U. N. building.

Khrushchev complained there were too many policemen around him, he did Wladyslaw Gomułka, the Polish Communist leader, the Yugoslav Foreign Minister, and Soviet Foreign Minister Anastas Mikoyin.

Some of the residents in the area where Khrushchev, Tito and the other Reds are staying became fed up with demonstrators and dumped buckets of water on them from balconies and upper windows.

There were sporadic clashes with mounted policemen charging into the milling demonstrators. Bloody noses were not uncommon.

Few observers doubted Khrushchev was serious in his remark to newsmen who dogged him through the delegates' lounge at the U. N. building that he intended to stay "about two weeks — after the assembly ends." The body traditionally tries to complete its work by Christmas.

He evaded questions about whether he will attend all of the sessions.

"When I was a workman, I did my job well," he replied.

A brass woman reporter crashed through the police cordon surrounding Khrushchev and began asking him question in Russian. One was "are you going to the United Nations?"

"Of course I am," Khrushchev replied. "We Russians are working, not spending our time in drinking as you probably think."

He was asked what he intended to say in his major address Friday, the day after President Eisenhower speaks to the world organization.

"I'm not going to tell all my secrets," said Khrushchev.

A huge crowd swarmed around Castro's hotel shouting "Fidel, Fi-

Reds Tell of Rare Human Eye Surgery

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet news agency Tass told today of a rare operation in which a surgeon replaced the defective lens of a human eye with a flexible glass substitute.

The operation was performed on Lena Petrova, a school girl blind in one eye since the age of 2.

Petrova, the Soviet Communist party organ, reported that the girl regained half the sight in the blinded eye seven days after the operation and 70 per cent vision in 12 days after.

Lake Winnebago, with an extreme length of 30 miles and a width of about 10 miles is said to be the largest of Wisconsin's inland lakes.

About one-fourth of New York's supply of water from the Croton River City's water supply is drawn reg. basis.

Insect Sprays OK, Do Not Affect Man

LANSING, Mich. — Pesticides—the chemical sprays used to kill insects — have not yet caused a human death, a State Senate Committee was told here Tuesday.

There has been only one complaint about their improper use in the state during the past two years, a federal official testified.

Sen. Elmer R. Porter, R-Blissfield, headed the committee called to review and study the use of pesticides in the state.

The purpose, Porter said, was to find out if there were any problems that needed legislation. There also had been some complaints, he said, about pesticides killing birds.

The world's record bluefish, tautog and striped bass have been taken in Rhode Island waters, along with the United States record tuna.

Radiation Probe Shot Successful

AF Blue Scout Rocket Lifts Payload to Study N-Blast Detection

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The Air Force Blue Scout rocket successfully launched a radiation study payload into space today in an experiment that could lead to a means of detecting nuclear explosions high above the earth.

The 40-foot rocket blasted off from this missile test center at 8:40 a.m., and all four solid-fuel stages ignited with clock-like precision.

An hour later, project officials reported clear signals were being received from the 32.5 pound payload as it sped further into space. The package was filled with instruments to probe the mysteries of space radiation.

There was no report on how far the probe was from earth at the time of the announcement.

Titoist Hits U.S. Hospitality; Others Expected to Follow

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — United States hospitality today appeared to be in for a concerted attack as Titoist and other government chiefs spilled onto the U.N. General Assembly floor.

The issue was brought before the Assembly Tuesday night by Koca Popovic, Yugoslav foreign minister. He called on U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter to take urgent steps in guaranteeing U. N.

the freedom of President Tito's movements in New York.

NIKITA FURKED UP
Popovic's complaint aroused speculation that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, who has been leading with New York police, and Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro, who has been having trouble with the city's hotels, also would air their grievances before the U. N.

Bagwell Now Won't Tell Sales Tax Hike Substitute

LANING — Governor candidate Paul D. Bagwell has shifted his position in the touchy tax issue area.

The Republican nominee, answering a businessman's question, said Tuesday it would be "highly presumptuous" to offer a specific alternative if the sales tax increase he favors is beaten at the polls.

Bagwell detailed his revised position at the annual meeting of the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce.

On June 12, he told the Michigan Associated Press Editorial Assn. at Gaylord that if voters reject a sales tax increase Nov. 5, "some form of major income tax will be necessary."

Such a levy would be needed to "prevent catastrophe and human misery in the state," Bagwell advised the editors. His statement on that occasion also responded to a listener's question.

PREDICTS HIKE
He affirmed that the sales tax hike from three to four per cent, opening the door to at least $110 million a year in new revenue, was going to be approved.

Then he repeated a Sept. 13 vote in Grand Rapids to name a "citizens action committee" two days after he is elected governor to blueprint a cure for state financial ills.

"This will not be a study committee. We have shelves of studies, all of them gathering dust," he added.

Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson, Bagwell's Democratic opponent, carefully refrained from uttering the words "income tax" when asked a similar question although acknowledging "The people will know where I stand."

"I am against a sales tax," Swainson said, "and I am for a tax based on ability to pay."

Ike Will Offer Watchdog Plan

Khrushchev Waits With 2 Speeches for U.N., One Hard, One Soft

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower worked today on the final draft of his United Nations speech in which he is expected to propose a U.N. aerial watchdog plan and a sweeping aid program to newly independent African nations.

The President scheduled a meeting with the National Security Council at which he may preview the speech he will deliver to the U.N. General Assembly in New York City Thursday.

Eisenhower had no appointments this afternoon, leaving the time free to work on the address. The White House said he was doing most of the writing of the speech, with some help from Soviet affairs expert Charles E. Bohlen and others.

Communist sources indicated that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has two different speeches ready for his major United Nations address—one a "hard sell" and the other an appeal to sweet reason.

They said they had been told that the content and tone of the Russian leaders' full-dress presentation to the General Assembly would depend to a considerable extent on what President Eisenhower says when he speaks. Khrushchev is scheduled to follow the President—speaking Thursday afternoon or Friday.

Over 1,500 Newsmen Gathered at Assembly

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — More than 1,500 press, radio and TV representatives were accredited to the U.N. General Assembly by midday Tuesday.

Hernane Tavaris de Sa, U.N. undersecretary for public information called the massing of reporters here, expected total near 2,000, the biggest journalistic operation in U.N. history.

Metro Airport Gets OK on Bond Issue

LANING — A $2.5 million bonding program for new construction at the Detroit Metropolitan Airport operated by Wayne County had State Municipal Finance Commission approval today.

The issue will be used to finance construction at the airport of new hangars for use by Delta Airlines and Northwest Airlines, Inc. The airlines will lease the facilities from the county and the income will be used to retire the bond issue.

He demanded that Herter take immediate steps to stop the pickets and also relay his protest to President Eisenhower.

Earlier, Khrushchev complained over a scuffle between New York police and Gen. Nicolai Zakhov of his staff while the Soviet premier was visiting Castro at his Harlem hotel.

New York Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy filed a formal complaint with the State Department accusing Zakhov of rough tactics.

This latest exchange added to Khrushchev's indignation over the U. S. edict restricting his movements to Manhattan Island. It was predicted he would let loose a blast in the U.N. Assembly.

It was also considered a good bet that Castro would air his much-publicized squabble with the management of a midtown hotel that led to his pulling out in high dudgeon and moving to Harlem.

Ann Arbor Voters Get New City Hall Issue

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — The Ann Arbor City Council has voted to place a $2,575,000 bond issue for a new city hall on the Nov. 8 ballot.

The present city hall was built in 1907 and the new structure, if approved, would be the first new city building in many years.

Sixty per cent of the community's home owners must approve the bond issue for it to take effect.

Board Gets Vogel Case

The Michigan State Teachers Commission threw the case of Pontiac teacher Mrs. Ida M. Vogel back into the laps of Pontiac School Board members last night.

At a hearing held at Wayne State University the commission suggested that all board members read the transcript of the hearings leading to the teacher's dismissal this summer.

U.S. Astronette Sets Light Plane Altitude Mark

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jennie Cobb, 29, the attractive blonde who may be the United States' first woman in space, set a world altitude record for light planes Tuesday.

The flier from Oklahoma City, Okla., formed three arctic survival suits, fueled boots and three pairs of gloves and in an hour and 49 minutes flew a two-engine plane to 37,010 feet—just over seven miles.

The former record for this class of plane was 34,852 feet. She made the flight from Santa Monica.

Afterward she said she believed that if and when the Soviet Union puts a human being into outer space there is a good chance it will be a Mongolian woman.

"Red scientists say Mongolian women would make ideal space pilots because of their small size and the fact that they require less oxygen from living at high altitudes," she told reporters.

Royal Oak Boy Badly Injured

Troy Woman's Car Hits 6-Year-Old in Madison Heights

MADISON HEIGHTS — A 6-year-old Royal Oak boy struck by a car here yesterday afternoon is in critical condition in William Beaumont Hospital.

Danny Kohnke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Kohnke of 610 Millard St., suffered serious internal injuries, hospital authorities said.

Driver of the car, Mrs. John Hadd, 24, of 483 Burkman Road, Troy, told Madison Heights police that she was traveling about 30 miles an hour when the boy ran in front of her car.

Mrs. Hadd applied the brakes, but was unable to avoid the accident. She was not held.

The accident occurred on 14-Mile Road near Kenyon.

Auto-Mation Wins Out, Driver Pays

It was machine over man in the school Court yesterday.

Louis M. Slivensky, 25, of 408 Harper St., yesterday went to court to do battle against the new speed control device.

Slivensky was selected by Ford as pilot for testing the device after the machine checked him doing 47 m.p.h. in a 30-mile zone.

Slivensky, the first driver to test the machine's findings, told Municipal Judge Cecil McCullum he wasn't anywhere near that speed.

Judge McCullum preferred to believe the machine.

He found Slivensky guilty and fined him $10.

Since the machine has been in operation, some 150 drivers have been nabbed for speeding.

Group Backs Firing of Highway Employee

LANSING (UP) — Dismissal of a State Highway Department employee for political activity was upheld today by the State Civil Service Commission.

The commission overruled its own hearing board, which had recommended a six-month suspension for Ellsworth St. Germain, 54, a $104-a-week highway department inspector from Bangor, was fired by Highway Commissioner John C. MacBride May 30.

The inspector was charged with violating a commission rule which expressly forbids a classified state employee from serving as a delegate in a political party convention.

The price reflects a new rate structure adopted last night. It calls for a rental rate of seven cents a square foot for land in the vicinity of the terminal. Rates elsewhere at the airport remain six cents.

Flite Line has not yet revealed details of its new building. Planning to expand, it already has turned over to another concern, with commission approval, the land lease it has held for its present building.

Pontiac Asks $700,000 Loan

City Will Use Federal Money to Begin Urban Renewal Next Month

A $700,000 federal loan was asked by the City Commission last night to begin urban renewal property acquisition next month.

The bid was sent today to the Chicago regional offices of the Housing and Home Finance Agency (HHFHA).

The initial funds will be used to buy land on the west side of Pontiac Street between Third and Fifth streets in downtown Pontiac.

And in the Civic Center for expansion of the City Hall parking lot, said Robert A. Storer, assistant city manager and urban renewal coordinator.

The HHFHA will subtract from the $700,000 the $22,112 advance given Pontiac two years ago to plan the urban renewal project.

The first request for funds was approved by a unanimous vote of the commission.

Storer estimated the loan would be repaid about the time the federal government agrees to acquire the land on the 387 property to be purchased.

He expected this would be about Oct. 15.

The $700,000 is covered in the $3,000,000 revolving fund the federal government has set up to cover land acquisition costs.

Although it is anticipated that $5 million will be spent on the five-year renewal effort, resale of land to private developers is expected to bring the net cost down to between $3 and $4 million, of which two-thirds will be paid by a federal grant and one-third by the city in the form of public improvements.

It measured on a straight line, Malore's lot is 250 miles long. But if all bays and inlets are measured the coast is 2,400 miles long.

2 Ordinances Head for Adoption

Two new ordinances are headed for adoption by the City Commission today.

Introduced at last night's commission meeting were measures to provide codes, covering electrical installations and the transportation of explosives and inflammable liquids.

Both have been many months in preparation.

The new electrical code is of the type recommended by the federal government in connection with urban renewal projects.

It is the latest in a series of building codes proposed for the city as a result of the urban renewal effort here.

Similar to the state electrical code, the proposed measure provides for a licensing board and a fee schedule.

The explosives ordinance bans unnecessary transportation of dangerous materials in the downtown area and regulates the use of such materials throughout the city.

An explosion in the downtown area of a city on the West Coast last year prompted formation of the bill.

Adoption is expected after public hearings on both measures Oct. 11.

As expected, the commission is other business fell in line with the planning commission in abandoning a proposal to designate South Boulevard as state trunk line M-10.

Commissioners joined planners in accepting the State Highway Department's demand that Auburn, Ill., retain the transverse design just south of Pontiac's east side.

Capitulation came with the city going on record as accepting the state's decision to locate the M-10 interchange with the proposed interchange approximately a half mile north of Auburn, making it impossible to have anything more than a grade separation at South Boulevard.

Four hearings were scheduled for Sept. 27.

The first is on a proposal for curbs and gutters on the west side of Jeanne Street, south of Chandler Avenue.

The other three are on assessment rolls covering curbs and gutters on Dresden Avenue, Woodland to Hollywood; blacktopping on Arlene Avenue, Second to Columbus; and a sidewalk on Astor Street.

No objections were voiced last night at hearings on proposals for sidewalks on Mill Street, Harvey Street, Astor Street and on Kennett Road at Alton School.

The Downtown Merchants Association expressed thanks for city cooperation in the "highly successful" effort.

MARK TWAIN

Perhaps at one time or another, you've seen Mark Twain featured in our Old Crow advertising. The reason is that Mark Twain's favorite bourbon was Old Crow. He was known to have been so pleased with our bourbon, that he made a trip to Kentucky to visit James Crow's distillery. There he ordered 25 barrels of Old Crow for his favorite tavern in Elmira, New York.

But recently we were challenged. An executive from a competitive whiskey company wrote us saying he had incontrovertible evidence proving Mark Twain to be a Scotch drinker! We checked immediately and found that yes, it was true, the great American author had once been a Scotch drinker during his early years! But further examination revealed that he subsequently changed to bourbon!

Now, many city folk are going through the same taste change that Mark Twain experienced. They've tasted them all and are now savoring the simple goodness of fine bourbon. Have you tried the time-honored flavor of light, mild Old Crow 86 proof Kentucky bourbon? It is America's favorite. Try it and you'll see why Mark Twain was a bourbonite in his time—and an Old Crow fan.

NY Applauds Behan's First

Irish Playwright's Wild 'Hostage' Has Off-Beat Drama Throughout

By WILLIAM GLOVER
NEW YORK (AP) — A wild Irish brew is "The Hostage," Brendan Behan's first Broadway play. Undisciplined and ribald, the production opened Tuesday night at the Cort Theater. There are words and gestures to scandalize the prim, but seekers of off-beat drama need look no further.

Larking behind the wild vaudeville that is staged with incisive brilliance by Director Joan Littlewood is a blend of Celtic sentimentality and mordant bitterness that gives point to the expression of Dublin's best-publicized playwright.

Behan, dressed in a rumpled blue suit, sat quietly watching the premiere from a mezzanine box. He declared satisfaction with both players and audience.

"AUTHOR, AUTHOR!" At final curtain, the spectators began calling "author, author," but Behan sat for moments as though unsure he was the fellow involved.

Then he stood up, mumbled some words of thanks and went into the night with friends. During an intermission, he observed: "If it's a flop, New York has lost a playwright and gained a tourist. If it's a success, I imagine we'll join the queue looking for an apartment."

"I'll stay here for a few months to count the people coming in. I'm a very suspicious man."

The narrative of "The Hostage" centers about a young English soldier, kidnapped by a dreading Dublin hood by ardent nationalists in reprisal for the arrest of an underground revolutionary who has slain a policeman.

The revolutionary is to be hanged in the morning, and through the long night the soldier's captors debate his fate—and many other things.

Koreans Rally in Japan for More Reparitation

TOKYO (AP) — Thousands of pro-Communist Korean residents in Japan staged rallies and demonstrations in various cities today to back North Korean demands for a one-year extension of the repatriation agreement with Japan. No disturbances were reported.

Under the agreement, which expires Nov. 12, nearly 40,000 Koreans have been repatriated to Communist North Korea.

Appears Crafty Cuban Planned Hotel Walkout

NEW YORK (UPI)—Cuban Premier Fidel Castro has settled down in his new Harlem hotel, paying twice as much, cash in advance, and apparently feeling twice as happy.

Evidence was piling up that Castro's walkout was not as spontaneous as he made out when he rushed over to the United Nations seeking shelter. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld got in touch with real estate tycoon William Zeckendorf, who offered the Cuban two rooms in the Commodore Hotel, but Castro refused.

Then the Cuban premier led his group to the Theresa, called "the Waldorf-Astoria of Harlem," where it turned out he had made arrangements as early as last Saturday, according to the manager.

The Cuban leader and his entourage of 30 persons, including his personal secretary Celia Sanchez, are behaving themselves at the Hotel Theresa in the Negro section of the city where they moved Monday night, manager Love B. Woods said.

Woods, who had demanded cash for the first day's rent, said he might accept Castro's checks for the tab which comes to about $85 a day, not including service.

"Even if the check turns out to be no good, the publicity's almost worth it," Woods said.

PICKET SENT PACKING — Police hustle along a woman picket in the vicinity of the United Nations where the U.N.'s 15th General Assembly opened Tuesday.

Meanwhile, Edward Spatz, manager of the Hotel Shelburne which Castro and crew left in a huff Monday night, went to a hospital Tuesday for treatment of bleeding ulcers.

The premier claimed that the Shelburne in upper class midtown Manhattan, was making unfair cash demands for $400-a-day set of rooms which the Cubans left littered with chicken feathers, cigar butts and lands, and empty milk cartons. The hotel had wanted $10,000 in advance as guarantee but did not evict Castro for nonpayment.

PAID TILL SUNDAY

Spatz said Castro was still paid up until Sunday at the Shelburne. "Their rooms will be held for them until our agreement is up," he said. Then he added: "My ulcers are bleeding."

Castro's group, which plucked and cooked their own chickens in their rooms at the Shelburne, settled down to eat in the dining room of the Theresa, which has played host to such Negro personalities as Joe Louis, Dinah Washington and Sugar Ray Robinson. It also has served as headquarters for a Communist Party convention.

The Castro party has rented five suites of two rooms each at $13.50 a day, and 30 rooms at $21 a day, plus $2 a day for extra cots which have been put in the various rooms. Woods estimated that with room service and other charges, the bill would come to $1,000 a day.

Castro, for instance, ordered steak for lunch Tuesday before going to the U.N. Raul Roa, his foreign minister, however, settled for a 35-cent breakfast of hot dog and orange juice and a 25-cent tip at a lunch counter before visiting Russian Premier Khrushchev.

Woods said he refused to take Castro's check today because, "I didn't know who they were. I heard so many bad things about them."

"But I think I'll accept their checks now," Woods said. "They are very nice, nothing out of order, very well behaved and they're eating in the dining room."

Despite Castro's claim that the Shelburne's cash demands drove him out, the manager of the Theresa said that the Cubans were not even getting the usual discount offered to parties of 10 or more persons.

"They would have paid more, anything I would have asked, but I didn't want to gouge them, you know," he said.

FIDEL'S HOTEL — This is the Hotel Theresa where Cuban Premier Fidel Castro has finally settled down. A stormy, chicken-plucking first day at the Hotel Shelburne attracted attention to the left-wing revolutionary, setting the stage for a dramatic—and prearranged—move to this Harlem hotel. Castro is staying in a ninth-floor suite.

Castro, who has made overtures to U.S. Negro leaders to support his left-leaning revolution in Cuba, apparently was trying to get as much propaganda out of his move as possible in Harlem which is heavily populated by Negroes and Puerto Ricans.

But the move may backfire a little, according to Jackie Robinson, former Brooklyn baseball star and a leader in the city's Negro community.

Robinson, who was in the neighborhood of the Theresa Tuesday, said Castro's presence would attract reporters who would see that the people of Harlem dress and live much like other people in the city. "That will eliminate many wrong thoughts about Harlem," Robinson said.

The Inside Story at Abandoned Hotel

Castro's Rooms Disgust Chambermaids

By ALAN MOSBY

NEW YORK (UPI) — While Castro entertained Khrushchev in his fresh Harlem hotel rooms, Tuesday, the old ones he left behind were denounced by competent experts as "just a dreadful mess."

The experts, a crew of mourning-looking chambermaids, were the only sign of life in the 30 rooms at the Hotel Shelburne that the whiskered Cuban leader stalked out of Monday night.

Castro's quarters at the plushy midtown Manhattan hotel once rang with the sounds of sizzling steaks and chickens being plucked, but Tuesday they looked as if hurriedly vacated by a crowd of smokers watching a chicken fight.

Quietly, except for occasional signs and tak-taks, the maids swept up countless cigarette and cigar butts and ashes.

FEATHERS GALORE

Chicken feathers — from the birds the Cubans bought, heads, feet and all—littered one gray sofa. A wastebasket was stuffed with empty milk cartons.

Medicine capsules were scattered on the rug in another room. A floor lamp and a telephone had been yanked from their wiring and Cuban toothpaste cartons left on a chair.

"We threw away piles of old steaks from the refrigerator. It was all bloody," exclaimed the head housekeeper, a middle-aged woman in a black dress and white apron.

"They brought in their own hot plate or canned heat and cooked steaks and chickens right in their rooms."

"And look at the black marks on that rug."

HOLES IN RUG

Several holes had been burned in the gray rug. Downstairs in his office, Manager Edward Spatz, 55, hurriedly opened stacks of letters and telegrams pouring in from all over the world, even from France, Uruguay, Japan, England.

He said some of the letter-writers "said I should have let the Cubans sleep in Central Park."

But there, he said, took a firm stand against Spatz's refusal to recognize Castro's Cuban Diners' Club card.

Police Chief Back After Short Strike

MILFORD, Del. (AP)—The Milford police force was back on the job today following a without that lasted less than 24 hours.

Police Chief Robert A. Downs and his 11-man force returned to work after agreeing to submit their dispute over working hours to arbitration.

State police were called in for emergency duty during the walk-out.

Chief Downs and his men want their 48-hour work week cut to 40 hours. A City Council spokesman said the reduction would cost this city of 6,000 about $10,000 a year. Downs denied he and his men resigned their jobs. He said they simply took off time due time.

All Michigan Monies Put in Pigeonholes

LANSING (AP)—The State Administrative Board Tuesday divided up all the state general fund monies on hand and in sight by Sept. 30 — $25 million.

Of the total, $9.7 million was set up as a special reserve, seven million was allotted to the three major state universities and $44 million was put aside to meet Thursday's biweekly state pay roll.

Another three million was authorized for payment of accumulated bills of state supplies and $1.6 million to meet a forthcoming installment of direct relief payments.

The reserve is being built up so the state will avoid delinquency in future constitutional obligations to schools and local governments.

Hawaii to Give Warm Aloha to Akihiro

HONOLULU (AP)—Hawaii is preparing a hearty "aloha" for Japan's Crown Prince Akihiro and Princess Michiko, scheduled to arrive Thursday.

A motorcade will proceed from the Honolulu International Airport to the Royal Hawaiian Hotel in Waikiki. Schools will excuse their classes and government employees will be given time out to see the royal couple on their first stop on a two-week goodwill visit to the United States.

President Eisenhower, after graduation from Abilene, Kan., High School, was first appointed to Annapolis. But he was 21, a year too old to enter the naval academy, so the appointment was changed to West Point where he could begin at 22.

Two Are Appointed for Civil Service

Two members have been appointed to serve on the Waterford Township Civil Service Commission. They are the Rev. Roy F. Lambert, pastor of the Lakeland United Presbyterian Church at 7255 Maple Lake Road, and Charles Zamek of 3028 Sutherland Drive.

Elmer R. Johnson, and Zamek was elected by the regular township firemen.

The two men now will choose a third member to the commission, recently established by the electorate.

Avon Actors Choose 'Violin'

Rochester Group Sets Oct. 21-22 With First Night for Students

ROCHESTER — A Noel-Coward comedy that has scored successfully both in London and New York has been chosen by the Avon Players for presentation Oct. 21 and 22.

It is "Nude with Violin," a play that spoofs the gullibility of patrons of the arts. Its central character is a naive, unscrupulous butler who had for years been the faithful valet of a world-renowned artist.

Upon the painter's death, his long-estranged wife, an amiable daughter-in-law, and agent learn that the late artist's canyons were actually painted by others.

The stand-in painters included a fishbones Russian prince, a hearty but low-brow chorus girl, a primitive West Indian native and a mysterious "Stokesbury."

James B. Allen is cast in the role of the valet, Sebastian. Mrs. Wesley B. Jackson of Lake Orion portrays the late artist's wife, and William Unger, also of Lake Orion, plays the art dealer.

Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. George Ross Jr. have roles as two of the painter's girl friends.

Others in the cast are Mrs. Ralph F. Kestel, George Ross, Mrs. John Peterson, Christopher Boyce and Mrs. Dennis K. Carrabee.

Robert E. Lucas, Robert Flanagan and Randolph L. Strickland also will be featured in this fall production to be staged at Rochester Junior High School.

The Oct. 21 performance will be a special students' night. Tickets will be sold at half price to high school and college students that night only.

Directing the play is Mrs. George W. Adams.

MAP POLICE COURSE. — Officers of the Pontiac Township auxiliary police force and two township constables talk over plans for a civil defense course in traffic control to be offered beginning Oct. 4. They are (from left) Constable Leonard Thompson, Assistant Police Chief Norval Jones, Chief R. W. Kaye and Constable Arthur Peterson. The training sessions will be in the Township Hall.

Auburn Club Donating $200 to Handicapped

AUBURN HEIGHTS — A check for $200 will be donated to the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children at a noon luncheon tomorrow of the Auburn Heights Rotary Club.

Floyd Short, chairman of the Auburn Heights area fund drive, will present the check to Mrs. Gerald Kirby, executive secretary of the county society.

The money was raised by the Rotary Club through its annual sale of fruit cakes.

Under Civil Defense Auspices Traffic Course Offered

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — A civil defense course in traffic control will be offered to men in the township who are 18 years of age or older beginning Oct. 4. R. W. Kaye, chief of the auxiliary police department, announced today.

The purpose of the course is to train men to handle traffic at public events such as parades and football games, and in time of natural or man-made disaster.

The present auxiliary force meets the third Tuesday of every month. When classes begin, the sessions will be held every Tuesday night for seven weeks.

There are 18 men in the present force. This figure does not include Kaye, Norval Jones, the assistant chief, and the two township constables who are cooperating with the civil defense police program.

The two constables are Arthur Peterson and Leonard Thompson. In addition to training police recruits, the auxiliary police department issues civil defense equipment to them for use when they are called upon.

The program is supported by civil defense funds from the township. All men are volunteers and none are reimbursed.

Methodist Men Plan Two Rochester Events
ROCHESTER — The Methodist Men of St. Paul Methodist Church have scheduled two social events to be held at the Church Fellowship Hall, 620 Romeo Road.

A square dance will be held from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Saturday night for both experienced and beginning dancers.

On Sept. 22, the men will sponsor a sausage and sausage dinner from 5 to 7 p.m.

The council also passed a new health and nuisance ordinance aimed at giving the officials tighter restrictions over health regulations in the village.

In other action, 10-cent-an-hour pay increases were approved for four Lake Orion employees, including two police radio operators, a police officer and a village maintenance man.

Dr. Monroe said that his department is better able to handle the Lake Orion's health problems than a local doctor who has to serve the village on a part-time basis.

Reappointed in Keego
KEEGO HARBOR — The City Council last night reappointed Frank Marriott and Paul Miller to 3-year terms on both the zoning board of appeals and the building board of appeals.

Marriott, a businessman, and Miller, a builder, had previously served 3-year terms on the two boards.

To Turn Earth for City Hall

Heavy Equipment on Pontiac Trail Site Now Leveling Seven Acres

WIXOM — The first major unit in the city's civic center development will get under way Oct. 2 when officials here break ground for a new city hall.

Heavy equipment moved in yesterday to level the seven acres on Pontiac Trail, recently purchased by the city for $10,500 as the site of the new municipal offices.

The one-story building will be constructed by Frank Stewart and Son, Inc. of Pontiac. The firm was awarded a $100,000 contract Monday night at a special meeting of the City Council.

The contract, which includes all trades, is several thousand dollars higher than had been estimated by the architects, Kohnert, McMillan and Associates, Inc., of Ann Arbor.

Officials said increased cost of materials was the reason for higher cost of the building.

The contract was a maximum completion date at three months.

A cement-block building already on the property will be retrofitted and used for the city's department of public works headquarters.

TO PURCHASE MORE
Long-range plans for the civic center call for the purchase of additional property.

Included in the development would be a library, a recreation building, swimming pool, cultural center, a park and administration office and parking lots.

Master plans for the civic center were also drawn up by the Ann Arbor firm.

Nearly $25,000 for the new city hall and land has already been allocated in the budget according to John Finlayson, administrative assistant to the mayor.

Reminiscing cost of the city hall is expected to be paid off in five years without any increase in taxes, he said.

The ground-breaking ceremonies will take place at 5 p.m. The development site is just east of Wixom Road and on the south side of Pontiac Trail.

Elmwood Methodists Planning Welcome Tea
AVON TOWNSHIP — Members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of Elmwood Methodist Church will hold a September Welcome Tea Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the church.

A color film entitled "The Wonderful World of Baking" will be shown to members and friends. All of whom are invited.

Refreshments and a social hour will follow the program.

Oxford Township Sets $6,371 United Fund Goal

OXFORD TOWNSHIP — Grounds include Oxford Community Fund, Michigan Cancer Foundation, American Red Cross and St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Others are the Clinton Valley Council of the Boy Scouts of America, the Northern Oakland County Council of the Girl Scouts of America, Michigan Children's Aid Society, Oakland County Child Guidance Clinic, Catholic Social Services and the Michigan United Fund.

The Salvation Army, which also receives support from the UF, assisted 61 persons from the Oxford area in the past 18 months.

The St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Clinic has served 63 patients from this area and the American Red Cross has handled 22 cases, involving 71 local residents.

Attending the meeting were officers of the Oxford Township Community Chest, including Jack Salawedel, president of the board; Mrs. Cecil Moore, secretary; and Mrs. Homer High, treasurer.

Board members are Mrs. James Sherman, Mrs. Stewart Caporan, Robert Parent, Wesley Collier, Mrs. Francis Baldwin and the Rev. Gordon Behlke.

Karl W. Bradley, executive director, represented the Pontiac Area United Fund at the meeting, along with Mrs. Margaret C. Lohr, women's division chairman.

Fairs on Slate at Both Sashabaw and Poppleton

CLARKSTON — One of the first Fair tickets are on sale at the school Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

A featured attraction will be a Civil War battle display, complete with cannons, muskets and authentic uniforms.

Baton twirlers, riding with fire, and a clown to keep things rolling will also be there.

A duck pond, wishing well, cake walk and many other games are scheduled. The coronation of a king and queen will climax the annual event.

TROY — A booth-lined midway complete with ferris wheel will be the center of attraction Oct. 1 at the annual Poppleton School Parent-Teacher Association Fair.

On sale at the booth will be fancy work, plants, baked goods, white elephants and candy.

Special awards also will be made. The fair, open from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., will be held at the school on Crooks and 16-mile roads.

Karen McCauley Marries

Speak Vows in Oxford

OXFORD — The First Baptist Church here was the setting for the recent wedding of Karen Ann McCauley and Pvt. Larry D. Gordier, who exchanged vows before the Rev. Thomas Knauf.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Harvey McCauley of 31 W. Burdick St. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Gordier of 770 Glange Road, Oxford Township.

For her wedding the bride chose a ballroom-length gown of white lace over satin, featuring a turtle neckline and pointed sleeves of wrist length.

A floral wreath headband held in place a veil of illusion which was trimmed with matching lace. The bridal bouquet was made up of white roses and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Ellen Ludwig of Oxford. Linda Jencks of Orionville was the bridesmaid. Best man was Ronald Beardsley. Ushers were David Garlick, Fred and Edward Eise. All are from Oxford.

Following a reception in the church hall, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Northern Michigan. They will reside in Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind.

Dinner at Lapeer Park to Honor Dryden Staff
DRYDEN — Teachers and staff members of the Dryden Community Schools will be guests of honor at a potluck dinner at 7 p.m. Sept. 25.

The dinner will be held at Forest Hall in Lapeer County Park under the sponsorship of the Dryden Area Development Association. The public is invited to attend.

Auto Mishap Sends Man Into Hospital

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — A 45-year-old Shelby Township man was reported in fair condition today following an automobile accident here last night on 23-Mile Road, east of Van Dyke.

Arthur Fay of 4665 24-Mile Road suffered head injuries when the car in which he was riding left the road, went into a deep culvert and flipped on its side.

Fay is in St. Joseph Hospital, Mount Clemens.

The common cold costs the nation about $5 million a year in lost production, lost pay and medical expenses.

Intervention Too Open to Swallow

Russia Loses Big in the Congo

By LYNN HEDENBERG

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — The Russians probably never made a more heavy-handed, bungled attempt to control a country than they made in the Congo.

Soviet Ambassador Mikhail D. Yakovlev must be having a bad time in Moscow explaining why Premier Nikita Khrushchev's assurances to the Congolese were so flimsy.

Yakovlev, with a reputation as one of Moscow's cleverest operators, came here late in June to attend the independence celebrations. A white-haired, rather ineffectual looking Russian, he had been one of Khrushchev's missionaires in recent Middle Eastern troubles.

Why, after less than three months in the Congo, did he have to Moscow with thousands of Soviet propaganda pamphlets meant for the Congolese?

OVERPLAYED HIS HAND

First of all, he overplayed his hand badly.

Given plenty of encouragement by Congolese Premier Patrice Lumumba, Yakovlev and his staff jumped into the fray as though every Congolese had been waiting for nothing more than Khrushchev's blessing.

He visited Lumumba frequently and for long periods. He called in a large contingent of the Communist press from Moscow, the satellites and Communist China.

Although the Soviet Union had supported a resolution in the Security Council channeling all aid to the Congo through the United Nations, Yakovlev arranged for the delivery of 15 Soviet transport planes and 100 trucks. They were used openly to shuttle Lumumba's soldiers and military supplies around the country for attacks on Lumumba's political enemies.

The Congolese army has had no real training for combat. It was designed by the Belgians principally to be a force for putting down riots with gun butts and black cartridges.

Told by Lumumba to act like a civilized group supported by the Soviet planes and trucks, the army went on a savage rampage in Kasai Province. The soldiers burned villages, killed men, women and children, according to U.N. reports, and brought shame to the whole army.

THEY UNDERSTOOD

The fact that Soviet vehicles and planes made this possible did not escape the simple Congolese. This touch of Soviet culture and civilization was not what they expected from independence.

The Soviet intervention was carried out so blatantly nobody could miss it. The "technicians" they brought were not experts in putting nations on their feet but in sowing the discord and confusion necessary to set up a Communist-controlled dictatorship of the type familiar in Eastern Europe.

If the Russians had their armed forces within reach, as they did in Eastern Europe, they could have made their intervention stick. But it would have taken a major military action to bring it. It would also most certainly have meant the killing of black Africans by white Communists.

For a while, the Soviets apparently toyed with the idea of having the dirty work done by soldiers from Guinea and other African nations friendly to the Soviet Union.

But this was too much for the African leaders who have been preaching "Africa for the Africans."

The Guinea mission here got to the point of asking President Sékou Touré to withdraw the Guinea soldiers from U.N. Command. But Sékou Touré didn't respond and they still wear the blue helmets of the United Nations.

LONGS LONG GAMBLE

For Lumumba, it was a long gamble. He knew that with rich

Katanga Province rotating the central government's authority and suspicious of his ties with the Communists he could not last long.

The brief civil war in Kasai and the preparations for an invasion of Katanga finished him.

Even the largely illiterate Congolese population could not fail to see where the Congo was heading. President Joseph Kasavubu, for weeks under great pressure to act, finally put a stop to the Soviet adventure and Lumumba's dream of dictatorial glory.

He ordered Lumumba dismissed and expelled the Russians, Czechs and their "technicians." He and Col. Joseph Mobutu, who finally gained a grip on the army and acted in concert with the president, now have the upper hand in an extremely fluid situation.

Their instincts point toward the West, including Belgium, but whether they can put the Congo on its feet and get it to walk is still uncertain.

The chaos in the government is such that exporters at the moment cannot even get export licenses to sell the products which keep the Congo alive.

There are about 2,500 kinds of snakes of which 800 are poisonous. Fishing is the principal industry of the people of Newfoundland.

Michigan Greets the Nixons

AP Photos
BEAMING START—Vice President Richard M. Nixon beams broadly as he raises his arm to greet a crowd of thousands before his speech at City Hall in downtown Mount Clemens Tuesday. He was greeted warmly by crowds lining the parade route from Selridge AFB where he arrived by plane to start his whirlwind visit of four Michigan cities. He said he returned to Michigan as a candidate for the presidency, and not as vice president.

AP Photos
SECOND STOP, FLINT—Vice President Nixon helps youngsters arrange signs at the request of photographers at Flint. The children took part in a welcoming reception for the vice president and his wife Pat. It wasn't only children who got along well with the plane-hopping candidate. He was received by large and enthusiastic crowds in his four-city Michigan swing.

WINDUP IN BAY CITY—Pat Nixon (right) reaches for a cookie before holding a press conference for newspaper women in Bay City on the last lap of the Nixon-Michigan campaign swing. At left, host Bonnie Currie serves and in the center is Darlene Chapin of Saginaw. Pat has followed a campaign schedule that might be called as difficult as that of her husband. She flies off hither and yon with all the serenity of a veteran traveler—which she is.

Students Want Roamin' Holiday, They Tell Veep

By The Associated Press
Vice President Richard M. Nixon visited Michigan Tuesday. Most of his campaign for the presidency was devoted to political themes.

But the top Republican's trips to Mount Clemens, Flint, Saginaw and Bay City also were filled with human drama and color.

At Selridge Air Force Base, Nixon was greeted by screaming on his arrival.

The kids quieted down when the Vice President uncocked a brand new speech—tailored for first to sixth graders.

"How many of you like school better than vacation?" he asked. A surprising number of hands went up.

"How many like vacation better than school?" he asked. There was no doubt about that poll. Nixon figured it at 2-to-1 for vacations.

Nixon told the kids who greeted him at Selridge to go home and remind their parents to vote.

"I don't care how they vote," he said. "But tell them they've got to vote."

35 to Receive Award for Water Works Jobs

LANSING (UPI) — The Edward D. Rich Award for 25 years of service in the water works field will be given to 35 persons Thursday in Traverse City at the conductor of engineering for the State Division of the Michigan section of the American Water Works Association. The State Health Department said the awards are given annually. The award was named after the late Col. Edward D. Rich, 40, who died in 1954. The University of Oklahoma airport is the largest in the world to be used primarily for educational purposes.

More Recipes for Better Meals

Feature From Home Editor

How are you getting along with your Better Meals campaign? We've been having company at our house — a couple of college students. The male guest ate everything we put on the table with seeming enjoyment. I guess we've pleased him. The female guest complained that we offered her too many of her favorite foods and how could she ever lose weight that way?

This week we promised to give you some new recipes for the remaining two classes of food. We touched on the high protein foods last week — Meats, Fish, Eggs, Poultry and Dairy Products.

You should serve at least 4 servings of fruit and vegetables each day; juices are included. Be sure to get in a serving of some food rich in vitamins C because that vitamin is not stored in the body. Citrus fruit, tomatoes and raw cabbage are the biggest suppliers of that vitamin.

You can use a little orange juice in this recipe for a fresh plum Ambrosia. Serve it as a dessert or salad.

Fresh Purple Plum Ambrosia
 4 slices fresh purple plums
 1 cup honey
 1 cup orange juice

1 teaspoon grated orange rind
 1/2 cup raisins
 1/2 cup almonds
 1/2 cup walnuts

Cut fresh purple plums in half, remove seeds. Cut again, if desired, into quarters, the honey, orange juice and rind. While hot, pour over the plum pieces. Cool. Mix in lightly the bananas and the orange slices cut in fourths. Chill for several hours. Sprinkle with coconut just before serving.

Serve as dessert with simple cookies or sponge cake. This purple plum ambrosia may also be served as a salad, topped with mayonnaise, cream cheese or fruit salad dressing. Makes 4 servings.

Handsome purple eggplants are appearing in the stores now. Serve them as fritters for an unusual and delicious vegetable course.

Fresh Eggplant Fritters
 1 eggplant (1 1/2 pounds) sliced fresh
 1/2 cup flour
 1/2 cup water
 1/2 cup oil
 1/2 cup salt
 1/2 cup sugar
 1/2 cup vinegar
 1/2 cup onion
 1/2 cup garlic
 1/2 cup pepper
 1/2 cup herbs

Cook eggplant 10 minutes, or until tender, in boiling salted water. Drain well and mash. Add remaining dry ingredients and shape into patties. Roll in additional fine dry bread crumbs. Brown on both sides in hot oil.

shortening or bacon fat. Drain on absorbent paper. Serve hot.

Four or more servings of bread and cereals will take care of that group. This is the group of foods most likely to be ignored.

We might add here before giving you a recipe for some rolls that you add fats and sugars to the four classes of food as needed and desired. Let's work together to have "Better Meals Build Better Families."

Crusty Poppyseed Rolls
 1 cup warm water
 1 package of cake yeast, active dry or compressed
 1/2 cup sugar
 1/2 cup oil
 1/2 cup salt
 1/2 cup vinegar
 1/2 cup onion
 1/2 cup garlic
 1/2 cup pepper
 1/2 cup herbs

Measure water into large bowl (warm, not hot, water for active dry yeast; lukewarm water for compressed yeast). Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Stir in sugar, salt and half the flour; beat until smooth. Stir in remaining flour to make soft dough.

Punch down; turn out onto lightly floured board and divide into 12 equal pieces. Shape each piece into smooth ball by folding edges under. Place on lightly greased baking sheet about 1 inch apart. With scissors, make a cross-shaped gash in each roll, cutting through almost to bottom.

Cover; let rise until doubled. Beat egg white slightly with the tablespoon of water; use to brush rolls. Sprinkle rolls with poppy seeds. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 15 to 20 minutes; remove from oven and brush again with egg white mixture. Return to oven for 2 minutes. Remove from baking sheet. Serve hot or cold. Makes 12.

Appetizers Start Meal Off in Fine Fashion

Served in the living room, delicate and interesting appetizers start the festive dinner off well. Your guests will enjoy these:

Chicken Appetizer Croquettes
 1/2 cup milk
 1/2 cup oil
 1/2 cup salt
 1/2 cup vinegar
 1/2 cup onion
 1/2 cup garlic
 1/2 cup pepper
 1/2 cup herbs

For chicken croquettes, combine all ingredients except salt and oil. Shape into 24 small balls. Roll in pancake mix.

Fry in hot, deep fat (375 degrees F.) about 5 minutes, or until golden brown. Drain on absorbent paper.

Place a cocktail pick in each and serve with your favorite barbecue sauce. Yield: 24 bite-size pieces.

Bacon 'n' Olive Spread
 4 slices bacon
 1/2 cup mayonnaise
 1/2 cup oil
 1/2 cup salt
 1/2 cup vinegar
 1/2 cup onion
 1/2 cup garlic
 1/2 cup pepper
 1/2 cup herbs

Crumble, crumble, crumble, crumble. Blend cream cheese with milk; mix in all remaining ingredients. About 1/2 cup.

Make Your Own Cheese Spread

Keep a jar of "Tangy Cheese Spread" on hand for quick-and-easy sandwiches. Simply combine grated American cheese with a little mayonnaise, chili sauce, mustard, Worcestershire sauce, dried dill and a little instant minced onion and garlic powder. In spite of the list of ingredients, the only one that really requires any preparation is the grated cheese; the rest need only be measured.

Keep a supply of instant minced onion on hand... It's a real time-saver, since all the work of peeling and chopping have been done for you, yet this moisture-free seasoner provides rich, full flavor.

Tangy Cheese Spread
 1/2 cup mayonnaise
 1/2 cup oil
 1/2 cup salt
 1/2 cup vinegar
 1/2 cup onion
 1/2 cup garlic
 1/2 cup pepper
 1/2 cup herbs

Combine onion and vinegar and let stand while preparing other ingredients. Blend all ingredients until well mixed.

Makes about one cup sandwich spread.

Special Sauces for Basting Your Turkey

You can bring out the succulent flavor of turkey with sauces brushed on the cooking meat frequently during cooking. Turkey pieces are also delicious if marinated in a sauce of your choosing for several hours.

Marinating-Glazing Sauce
 1/2 cup oil
 1/2 cup salt
 1/2 cup vinegar
 1/2 cup onion
 1/2 cup garlic
 1/2 cup pepper
 1/2 cup herbs

Low-Fat Herb Sauce
 1/2 cup oil
 1/2 cup salt
 1/2 cup vinegar
 1/2 cup onion
 1/2 cup garlic
 1/2 cup pepper
 1/2 cup herbs

Butter-Fruit Style Sauce
 1/2 cup oil
 1/2 cup salt
 1/2 cup vinegar
 1/2 cup onion
 1/2 cup garlic
 1/2 cup pepper
 1/2 cup herbs

1/2 cup oil
 1/2 cup salt
 1/2 cup vinegar
 1/2 cup onion
 1/2 cup garlic
 1/2 cup pepper
 1/2 cup herbs

4-H Canning Clubs Mark Fiftieth Year

Tomato canning clubs were the first "girl projects" in 4-H, following closely on the heels of corn clubs established in 1910 for boys. These clubs were the forerunner of the present day 4-H educational program now benefiting some 24 million rural and urban youth.

This year marks the 50th anniversary of the 4-H canning club, and the 150th anniversary of the discovery of a successful canning process. Methods and utensils have changed, but the end product remains the same. Young homemakers as well as experienced ones strive to turn out sparkling, wholesome, nutritious jars of food which can be stored for safe eating later on.

The modern 4-H canning program — like its predecessor — emphasizes home grown food preservation as a means to improve the family diet. The 4-H "learn by doing" method stresses importance of using bacteria-free products and methods to guard against spoilage and possible food poisoning.

Back in the early 1900's 4-H girls demonstrated canning skills and sold their products in competition with others. For this they received local recognition and in many cases valuable awards. The 1950 program also offers awards for superior achievement. The Cooperative Extension Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates that well over 150,000 club members will turn out about 4 1/2 million quarts of canned food this year.

Hearty Frank Salad
 Swell for Summer

Frankfurters, with their spicy flavor, are good to combine with other foods. Slice them they "pop up" hot soup. Cut in strips or pieces they often become part of a tray of hors d'oeuvres.

Still another way to use frankfurters is in a substantial salad to serve as the main dish for a warm weather meal.

Frankfurter-Corn Salad
 1/2 cup oil
 1/2 cup salt
 1/2 cup vinegar
 1/2 cup onion
 1/2 cup garlic
 1/2 cup pepper
 1/2 cup herbs

Travels to Arctic Circle to Give Paper on Flares

Ruth Hedeman, research associate at the McMath-Hulbert Observatory, traveled some 100 miles north of the Arctic Circle last month to present a paper on "Photographic Observations of Certain Flares Associated With Polar Cap Absorption." Dr. Helen Dodson Prince of the observatory was coauthor.

The purpose of the symposium at Kiruna, Sweden to which about 50 astronomers and geophysicists from all over the world were invited, was to summarize the current knowledge concerning polar cap absorption in relation to solar bursts and flares.

"Kiruna is the part of Sweden known as Swedish Lapland. With an hour or more each day after conference sessions, we took a tour of the iron mines, going by bus over a black-topped underground highway to a depth of 1,200 feet below the surface," said Miss Hedeman.

"Here we watched miners drilling the ore from the walls of a tunnel. We were also driven up to the top of the mountain to watch the open pit excavation."

About the size of Pontiac, Kiruna has a population of Sweden, Finn and Lappa. All three languages are spoken and some English. The Lapps still lead a nomadic life based on the reindeer as a primary source of their food, shelter and clothing.

Upon her return to the states, Miss Hedeman participated in a science institute for high school students sponsored by the National Science Foundation at West Virginia Wesleyan University.

A graduate of Goucher College, Miss Hedeman did graduate work at Duke University and the University of Michigan. During World War II she was an aerological officer at the Naval Air Station, Klamath Falls, Ore. She makes her home in Clarkston.

Jessica Roberts Married at All Saints Episcopal

A reception in Rotunda Inn followed the marriage of Jessica Cecilia Roberts to Edward H. Bridge Saturday afternoon in All Saints Episcopal Church.

The Rev. C. George Widdfield read the candlelight service before an altar background of white chrysanthemums and gladioli.

Gardeners in 1st Fall Gathering

Pontiac Branch of National Unit Gets Together

Pontiac Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association held its first fall gathering Monday at the home of Mrs. Howard B. Barber on Martell Drive, Bloomfield Hills.

On the program was Mrs. Arthur W. Selden, editor of the State Division News Letter, who announced the fall council meeting Oct. 3 at Ann Arbor. Reservations must be in by Sept. 30.

Mrs. Russell H. Galbreath announced the purchase of four books which have been donated to Pontiac City Library in memory of Mrs. Donald Neel. The books "Room by Room Decorating" by Kay Hardy, "Outdoors and In" by Arnold Nehring and two volumes of Better Homes and Gardens "Holiday Cookbooks" are available to the public at the library.

Guest speaker Mrs. Harry Fitzpatrick of Cleveland, flower arranger and designer, was introduced by Mrs. C. R. Galtrey. Mrs. Fitzpatrick formerly was head designer for the largest florist in Cleveland. In a 1958 competition in Detroit she was awarded a trophy by the Michigan State Florist Association for "Our Favorite Design." She is also a winner at the garden club flower shows, a member of an arrangers' club and teaches flower arrangement classes.

Explaining the basic design of flower arrangements, Mrs. Fitzpatrick showed fall, Thanksgiving and Christmas arrangements. She combined fresh flowers with dried materials and illustrated the use of figurines for dramatic effect.

Mrs. Ferdinand Gaebauer, social chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Robert S. Nelson, Mrs. Robert A. Armstrong, Mrs. D. Baker, Mrs. Edward P. Barrett, Mrs. Basil E. Brown, Mrs. Paul L. Connolly and Mrs. C. G. Darling.

Others helping were Mrs. Harold A. Fitzgerald, Mrs. John W. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Bertil T. Larson, Mrs. Loren C. Sheffield, Mrs. Clarence K. Patterson, Mrs. Harlan S. Smith and Mrs. C. George Widdfield.

At the tea table were Mrs. Harold A. Fitzgerald, Mrs. John W. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Arthur R. Young and Mrs. Walter K. Williams.

Ann Louise Gillies Becomes Bride

Wedding Vows Said in Candlelight

The Rev. Malcolm K. Burton performed the candlelight nuptials of Ann Louise Gillies and Stuart C. Rae of Royal Oak Saturday evening in the First Congregational Church. Altar flowers were white chrysanthemums and gladioli.

Hosts to 200 guests at the church reception were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irving D. Gillies of Mohawk Road. The groomsmen are the son of Mrs. Frederick C. Rae of Royal Oak and the late Mr. Rae.

The bridal gown of white silk organza over taffeta was styled with fitted bodice of Chantilly lace and bouffant skirt applied with Alencon lace and seed pearls.

Finger tip veiling of silk illusion held by a pearl tара and the bridegroom's gift of pearls were worn. The bride held a cascade of white orchids and stephanotis.

MRS. STUART C. RAE

Honor maid Vicki Sue McLaughlin and bridesmaids, Sue Pegoles of Freehold and Patricia Watson, appeared in bouffant aqua taffeta, with matching veiled caplets and shoes. They held pale pink carnations, miniature rosebuds and lily foliage.

The bridegroom had Robert Burton of Royal Oak for best man. Gary Harman of Grosse Ile and Ronald Rellinger of Pleasant Ridge ushered. The newlyweds are motoring in Indiana and will visit Chicago on their honeymoon.

Former Judith Faulman Honeymoons in Florida

After exchanging wedding vows and rings before the Rev. R. C. Stuckemyer Saturday afternoon in Grace Lutheran Church, the H. Gene Johnsons left for a honeymoon in Florida.

The former Judith Marilyn Faulman is the daughter of the Albert A. Faulmans of Danforth Drive, White Lake Township. Her husband is the son of Mrs. John Johnson of Glenview Court and Leo L. Johnson of East Tennyson Avenue.

A reception for some 200 guests in the Oakland County Boat Club, Sylvan Lake, followed the nuptials.

OF THICK TAFFETA The bouffant wedding dress of white silk taffeta, styled with French poul, extended into a chapel train. Alencon lace motifs accented the scoop neckline of the basque bodice.

Completing the bridal ensemble were a tiered fingertip veil of imported illusion and a cascade arrangement of white roses, cymbidium orchids, pansies and carnations.

Attendants included sisters of the couple, with Lara Lee Faulman serving as honor maid, and Audrey N. Friedman and Carol Johnson, bridesmaids. They wore sea foam green silk slat dresses with chiffon overskirts and their matching headpieces were trimmed in seed pearls. The

Wed at St. Michael Altar

White gladioli banked the altar in St. Michael Church for Saturday noon of Phyllis Ellen Raymond pledged to Leo E. Vandenberg before the Rev. Francis J. O'Donnell.

The George F. Raymonds of East Ypsilanti Avenue were hosts at their daughter's wedding breakfast and evening reception in the Knights of Columbus Hall. Joining them were Mrs. Robert Sonnenberg of Stout Place and Bernard J. Vandenberg of Mount Clemens, parents of the bridegroom.

The bride was attired in a three-tiered gown of ruffled pattern white Chantilly lace over satin. The fitted bodice was styled with a fabric neckline and wrist-pailet sleeves. She wore her bridegroom's gift of pearl earrings.

Hand-rolled fingertip veiling was secured by a crown of simulated orange blossoms of seed pearls and rhinestones. A white purple-throated orchid with stephanotis and ivy topped the bride's mother-of-pearl prayer book.

Mrs. Daniel Drops, her sister's honor matron, appeared in orchid nylon organza over iridescent lavender taffeta. Matching taffeta bows accented the dropped waistline. Her headpiece of tiered organza bows held a nose veil.

Another sister, Mrs. Gerald McManey, served as bridesmaid with Mrs. Michael Clever of Pontiac and Mrs. Edward Smith of Marion, Ind. Sarah Raymond was her sister's junior attendant.

Gowned like the honor attendant, they carried orchid carnations, fern and wheat in natural wicker baskets. Carol Amling roses were added to the honor matron's bouquet.

The bride's niece Cynthia Raymond, in white nylon organza over white taffeta sashed in lavender taffeta, carried orchid and white petals in a satin and lace basket.

On the espouse side were best man Edward Smith, Daniel Drops, Gerald McManey and the bridegroom's brothers Bernard and David of Mount Clemens. His brother, Robert Sonnenberg, was ring bearer.

After a Niagara Falls honeymoon, the couple will be at home on Euclid Street.

Sapphire blue silk crepe was Mrs. Raymond's selection for the wedding. Mother of the bridegroom wore powder blue lace over taffeta. Both mothers wore pink rosebuds.

Don't Be Bored, Be Curious
Who, What, When, Why?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

It is too bad that people are not more like squirrels in some ways. I know, a lot of us are squirrely, but I am thinking today of the huge and constant curiosity of a squirrel.

If you hold a loop of wire up in front of a squirrel, it will immediately stick its head through to see what is on the other side. One thing is certain! A squirrel never is bored.

If you will think over the people you know, I believe you will discover that interesting people are curious people. They have curious minds.

They want to learn about new things and try new experiences. They are eternally searching for more information concerning the world about them. They want to know about the people they meet. They are eager for new activities and hobbies. Their minds and personalities have not settled into ruts of sameness.

IT'S WORTH IT

They may stick their heads into a trap occasionally but their youthful approach to life makes the riskworthwhile. We must keep the windows of our minds open to new ideas if we wish to extend the youthful years of our lives. We must revivify the tedium of every day life to a fresh start EVERY day.

It is so easy to fall into a rut if you were not born with this wonderful quality of curiosity. Responsibilities and daily routine get you by the throat and enthusiasm gives up.

If a curious mind is not one of your blessings, it is important to keep in mind that you must give yourself a chance by exposing a full approach to life makes the riskworthwhile. We must keep the windows of our minds open to new ideas if we wish to extend the youthful years of our lives. We must revivify the tedium of every day life to a fresh start EVERY day.

13 Junior Volunteers Form Unit
Founded to Aid Central Bureau in UF Drive

Thirteen girls from the Pontiac and Waterford high school districts attended Monday's initial meeting of the Junior Central Volunteer Bureau, newly formed organization affiliated with the Central Volunteer Bureau of the Pontiac Area United Fund.

Mrs. Elsie Carter, teacher and sponsor of the nationally affiliated Future Social Workers Club and Phyllis Savdley, counselor of the Waterford School District, also attended.

Purpose and rules and regulations of the new unit were explained by Mrs. Allen R. Priestley, chairman of the board of the Central Volunteer Bureau, and Mrs. Margaret C. Libby, Women's Division director of the Pontiac Area United Fund.

Mrs. Sheldon Marston, sponsor for the girls; Mrs. Gladys Bump, board member of the Central Volunteer Bureau; and Mrs. Dorothy White, Women's Division chairman, were unable to attend.

Recommendations outlined for social service type work were: 50 hours of work at the United Fund office, initial screening by United Fund office personnel, final interview by the Central Volunteer Bureau panel and an application slip to take home for parents' approval to do social work.

At least three girls with three alternates will undertake all activity of the group. Plans made by the junior group and its sponsor will be presented to the Central Volunteer Bureau Board panel for approval.

Junior volunteer chairmen will attend the monthly Central Volunteer Bureau board meeting with their sponsor Mrs. Marston of the Central Volunteer Bureau Board and report to the girls at their regular meetings.

The group will hold meetings the third Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Services Building.

Patricia Smith, daughter of the David Smiths of Pine Heights Drive, West Bloomfield Township, and a Pontiac Central High School sophomore, was named chairman. Others elected were Peggy Monetti, publicity; Carol Bismar, recording secretary; Karen Schultz, motor-car chairman; and Sharon Harmon, time-recorder chairman.

Persons interested in doing volunteer work may call and register with the Junior Central Volunteer Bureau of Central Volunteer Bureau, depending on their age.

Weds Lawrence Hohm

Patricia Canfield Bride

Fan-shaped arrangements of white gladioli graced the chancel of Perry Park Baptist Church for Friday evening vows of Patricia Joyce Canfield and Lawrence W. Hohm. The Rev. Hilding Bihl officiated.

The R. B. Canfields of Kenilworth Avenue were hosts at their daughter's church reception. Joining them in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Hohm of Melrose Avenue, parents of the bridegroom.

The bride's ballerina-length dress of white Chantilly lace over layers of net was styled with molded bodice and elbow-length sleeves. Waist-length veiling of silk illusion was caught by a crown of seed pearls.

She held a colonial bouquet of white roses and satin streamers. Maid of honor Dianne Peel of Auburn Heights wore sleeveless pale pink chiffon over net with matching headpiece and nose veil. She carried rose carnations.

Attending their sister as bridesmaids were Beverly Canfield in pale yellow and Donna in light aqua. Their bouquets of carnations matched their dresses.

Richard Hohm served as his brother's best man. Guests were seated by William Liddy and Kenneth Eaglin.

After a honeymoon at Niagara Falls and elsewhere in New York State the couple will live on Mechanic Street.

Mrs. Canfield chose a greenish blue lace over taffeta with royal blue accessories for her daughter's wedding. The mother of the bridegroom chose a pale pink and blue print dress.

Both mothers wore pink carnations.

By MARY ANGLEMER

Thousands of stitches taken by the church members giving of themselves in Holy Communion. The center altar cushions bear the symbol of the cross. The wedding cushion is inscribed with gold ICS surrounded by a flowing scroll with flowers and leaves in pastel colors.

Some 115 congregational kneelers have been worked in red and gold. The border around the kneelers is of stylized Phlox leaves, taken from a border used as a frame for illustration, in an illuminated Bible of the period. Pettipoint pads for collection plates with the date of the work in the center encircled by the name St. Dunstan and two small crosses complete the project.

Following the dedication the Rev. W. Chave McCracken of Lakewood, Ohio, spoke at the noon luncheon. Women serving on the needlepoint committee include Mrs. Luther R. Leader, chairman; Mrs. Robert N. Woodruff, Mrs. Ari M. BeGole, Mrs. Charles W. Taylor, Mrs. Dwight C. Ensign, Mrs. Edwin W. Beresford, Mrs. John F. Gordon, Mrs. Charles D. Marsh and Mrs. Charles M. Drake.

St. Dunstan who served as Archbishop of Canterbury, is patron saint of the arts and crafts. There is a statue in the wall of St. Dunstan Chapel sanctuary which was brought from Glashbury Abbey.

Episcopal Churchwomen of Christ Church started the project in April 1957. Designs were approved and the first canvases received in March 1958. Women received instruction and samples of their work were submitted for approval before pieces were handed out.

The background of the 123 needlepoint pieces matches the jewel-like red which appears in the stained glass window above the altar.

The nine altar pieces include two priest chairs with the coat of arms of Canterbury Cathedral and the Christ Church Cranbrook coat of arms.

The organ pipes on the long cushions represent giving praise to God, and the chalice symbolizes

3 Help to Celebrate Mexican Freedom

Three youngsters of the David Rojas family of South Telegraph Road helped 5,000 people of Mexican descent celebrate Mexico's independence day in Saginaw Saturday evening.

David, 11, and his sister Valentina, 11, performed the Apache Tango in a special show at Saginaw's City Auditorium. Another sister, Lupa, 11, performed the Spanish dance, Currito De La Cruz.

Dear Abby Says: Let Joe Help You

Tell the Truth; Lying Is a Weakness, Too

By ANNEAL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I fell in love with a traveling man who makes this territory every six weeks. He writes 100 most romantic letters, but all my 14 letters come back he told me before he left I should not bother writing him. I don't understand it.

He said he wasn't married and lived with his mother. I tried calling him long distance but couldn't locate him. My girl friend thinks he's a phony. How do I go about finding out for sure?

FAYE
DEAR FAYE: What company does he sell for? And to whom does he sell in your community? A legitimate salesman leaves a trail of friends wherever he goes. I would guess that your friend has a wife. Next time he comes around "selling" — don't buy anything until he clears up the mystery.

DEAR ABBY: I am 16 and I can't think of anything to say when I am alone with a boy, so I get him to kiss me. This fills up the time and he doesn't find out how dumb I am when it comes to making conversation. Somehow I feel this is wrong because I do this with boys I don't even like. But it is easier than trying to think of something to say. Can you help me?

NOTHING TO SAY

DEAR NOTHING: Read a newspaper or a book and boom up on current events or even sports or politics. Talk about religion or the weather or your ambitions or his. But for goodness sake, DON'T fill in those long pauses with kisses. Talk about something, or you'll be the talk of the town.

DEAR ABBY: With so many parents having trouble with teenagers I want to tell you my story: Our 16-year-old son got a job as "carry out boy" in a nearby supermarket. With his first week's pay envelope he bought me two things: One, a steam iron I had wanted for years, the other, a package of special gum to get me to quit smoking.

I never knew my smoking bothered him, but as soon as he earned his own money he bought the two things that were on his mind.

I chewed this gum and later tried a cigarette. It was horrible. I haven't smoked since. At 16, instead of starting to smoke, my son wanted to break his mother of the habit. This impressed me so much I will never forget it.

Owner of Rin Tin Tin Dies at Ranch; Age 67

By DIAL TORGERSON

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP) — Death has claimed a man who found a puppy in a German trench in the first World War and made it an American institution — four generations known as Rin Tin Tin.

Lee Duncan, 67, died at his big ranch here Tuesday of a heart attack. His wife, Eva, was with him.

In his kennels he left a German shepherd puppy he was training to carry on the traditions of almost 52 years of film and television canines.

The first Rin Tin Tin returned from Europe with Duncan after World War I and became a top movie attraction from 1922 to 1932, sharing billing with such stars as William Desmond, Jean Harlow, Wallace Berry and Charles Farrell.

Rin Tin Tin II, after the original animal's death in 1932, starred with Jackie Cooper in the memorable "Tough Guy" of 1935.

During World War II Duncan trained more than 5,000 Army war dogs. After the war he made a comeback with Rin Tin Tin III.

The big postwar success came in 1933, when Rin Tin Tin IV trotted into television. Many of the films are still being shown.

Despite his ailing heart, Duncan continued his dog training work. He also was an assistant scoutmaster in a Boy Scout troop and frequently entertained Riverside children with accounts of how he first found the famous shepherd.

In 1919 Duncan returned with Rin Tin Tin to Los Angeles, where he had worked for a firearms firm. A photographer friend borrowed the dog to use in experiments with slow-motion films.

One day Duncan got a check for $50. Someone in Hollywood had bought the photographer's footage and made a short of it. Duncan set off for Hollywood—where fame awaited Rin Tin Tin and wealth his own.

Researchers Wonder How, Why

Relax and Let That Temperature Drop

By DELOS SMITH

NEW YORK (UPI)—Excitement can make people hot and hotter. Scientist E. T. Renbourn proved it dramatically and spectacularly. He took the temperatures of young amateur boxers just before they entered the ring. At another time, when they were relaxed and at ease, he took their temperatures again.

The average temperature of 18 boxers immediately before they fought was 99.3 degrees, and this was 1.4 degree higher than when they were relaxed. One excited boxer had a temperature of 101 degrees.

Renbourn did his temperature-taking at a number of bouts and included members of the audience. No spectator was as hot as the excited boxers until he put thermometers into the mouths of spectators while the fighting was spirited, then the spectators were hotter than normal.

The editors of the technical journal, "The Lancet," considered

Renbourn had made a useful contribution to science's knowledge of the mind's influence on the body which, the editors added, is much too little.

Medical doctors know only too well some persons who are pre-tending to be sick and are instead upon fooling them can produce body temperatures above normal. But medical science doesn't know how they do it.

The editors called upon scientists to find out to what extent body temperature can be influenced by emotional stress. They were impressed that the elevated temperatures of the boxers and spectators were not accompanied by increased pulse rates. And they were surprised that the how of the phenomenon is such a mystery.

Anxiety and distress will also increase body temperature in some people but the relation is even less clear than the relation to excitement, they said. Usually the increase in heat is not by very much but it may persist for years.

"Patients in this group may simply represent the extreme upper limit of a normal frequency distribution (of body temperature) and many are unlucky in that they are submitted to extensive (medical) investigation and all the anxiety that this may induce," the editors added.

They recalled that some years ago 100 of these anxiety-hot patients were submitted to exhaustive medical tests and only seven were found to have an organic disease which accounted for their fever.

Country's Used Car Dealers Have 70 Auction Exchanges

PINEBROOK, N. J. (UPI)—America's thousands of used auto dealers now have their own "stock exchanges"—70 or more of them scattered around the country.

These dealer stock exchanges—they actually are used car auctions—mean the swarms of used cars that jam dealers' lots across the country no longer need be from assets.

They can be disposed of quickly by like objects or bonds or grain in a place.

And, according to George Jones of the Bayline Yard at Pinebrook, the closest auction to the New York metropolitan area, auction yards are so important to the used car business now that about one of every three used cars sold in the United States was acquired by the dealer from an auction yard instead of by trade-in.

BIGGEST IN PENNSYLVANIA
The biggest auction yard is at Manheim, Pa., where the sale is held every Friday and draws dealers from all over the East. Pine-brook has its sale on Thursdays, so as not to conflict.

There's also an auction to connect with that often draws New York dealers. The big Manheim section will dispose of 700 to 1,000 cars in a day.

"Two hundred and fifty is a good day for us at Pinebrook," Jones said. Every state in the Union has one or more used car auctions.

They function basically like other commodity exchanges with certain peculiarities of the used car business.

The most fascinating of these auctions is that most of the bidding is "secret"—that is, by pre-arranged bids between the auctioneer and the buyer, who has inspected the cars he is interested in before the sale starts.

This perfectly legal chicanery is accomplished much the same way big league baseball coaches flatter batters to the better from the box—except that cigars and other props that couldn't be used on the diamond may be employed in the auto auction.

BAT'S 'EM TOO HIGH
The idea of course is that vocal bidding runs the prices unreasonably high.

The auctioneer steps the bidding and announces the car sold, which he no longer gets any signal from buyers—but to outsiders a used car auction is a strange spectacle.

Nobody seems really in on it but the auctioneer.

Television and flashing electric signs are used to let the crowd know what is going on. The signals flashed reflect technical jargon that has grown up in the new business.

For example, if the word "mashed" is flashed, it means the car can be put in reasonable running shape for less than $50 shop expense.

The dealers in the crowd have more money out of the better. To them, a car is really fine sell.

condition is a "cream puff."

BEWARE OF 'DOGS'
A "beast" is one with a nice paint job but perfected engine and running gear. "Dog" is a car sure to cause trouble.

Like all trading exchanges, the auto auction yards are acquiring their own mystical dialect.

The big one reminds some of the constant war between advocates of "income stock" and growth stocks in Wall Street.

In the auto yards the dispute is over whether a dealer can make more money out of relatively new cars—under five years old—or the old clunkers.

Jones inclines to the view that on the whole, the dealer will make more money out of the better. Today, cars because they are easier to sell.

But many dealers stubbornly say the real profit is in the clunkers.

They put it this way—"On these newer jobs you pay $700 and hope to get $850—but on a clunker that's any good at all you can pay $100 and sell it for $200; it's as simple as that."

Speaker Is Emphatic — Lecture Is Up-to-Date

BALTIMORE — The notice from the Roland Park Woman's Club said Dr. Beulah B. Tatum, director of the Goucher College graduate program, would lecture on "Current Trends in Education."

Presumably, "Redundant English" was topic A.

Lodge's Brother Won't Campaign

MADRID, Spain (UPI)—John Davis Lodge, U. S. Ambassador to Spain, has said he will not go to the United States to campaign for his brother Henry Cabot Lodge, the Republican party's vice-presidential candidate.

Ambassador Lodge said in a statement Vice President Richard Nixon, the GOP presidential candidate, "feels it is not in the nation's best interests for ambassadors serving at key posts to return home for partisan purposes in these critical times."

Atlantic City Visitors Pick Sen. Kennedy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — If the presidential election had been held on the Steel Pier at Atlantic City, N.J., last month, Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic nominee, apparently would have won.

Kennedy was the indicated winner from a random sample of 7,037 visitors to the Steel Pier between Aug. 5 and Aug. 28.

In indicated party preference, 54.53 per cent were Democrats, 37.71 per cent Republicans and 7.76 independents.

The poll, whose results were announced Tuesday, was conducted by Pollitz Inc., a private polling organization, the Institute of Cooperative Research of the University of Pennsylvania and Remington-Rand Unit.

The poll did not purport to be a scientific one. About 80 per cent of those polled came from the three states of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York with Pennsylvania alone providing 63.1 per cent of the total.

Upper New York and Vermont farm families tap about six million maple trees for the annual sap harvest.

State Kiwanis Picks Mayor Its Governor

GRAND RAPIDS (U) — Harold F. Plez, 48, mayor of East Lansing Tuesday was elected governor of the Michigan District Kiwanis International. He takes office Jan. 1, succeeding Charles C. Saur of Grand Rapids.

Elections were a feature of sessions concluding the third convention of the district. It drew about 1,200 delegates to Grand Rapids.

Fifteen district lieutenant governors also were elected. By district, they are:

1. Charles H. Reisdorf, Detroit; 2. Romy Choquette, East Detroit;

3. Charles Currie, Redford; 4. Richard Penberthy, Allen Park; 5. R. Paul Bowman, Southfield; 6. Arthur Walzer, Ypsilanti; 7. Harold C. Webber, Monroe; 8. William Tegund, Jackson; 9. Harry A. Elzenheimer, Lansing; 10. S. C. Jack Johnston, South Haven; 11. Oscar Anderson, Grand Haven; 12. Thomas Pallas, Flint; 13. George Wheeler, Mount Pleasant; 14. Robert Greshenow, Cadillac; and 15. Ivan S. Davis, Caydon.

Library Gets Old Bible

HANOVER, N.H. (UPI) — The Baker Library at Dartmouth College has been given a copy of a "Brethren Bible" once owned by John Alden of the Plymouth Colony. The pages of the 334-year-old book have yellowed somewhat, but it is otherwise intact.

PTA Meetings Set for Thursday in Waterford Twp.

Two Waterford Township Parent-Teacher Association meetings have been scheduled for Thursday.

At 7:30 a.m., there will be a short business meeting at the Waterford Center School followed by an open house.

Parents will be escorted to their children's classrooms to become acquainted with the teachers and the work scheduled for the year. Refreshments will be served by the PTA executive board.

Wallace F. Watt of the Michigan Mental Health Department will give a talk on "Bringing Out the

Suggests U.N. Move to Asian Country

HONG KONG (UPI) — Leon Guerrero, Philippine ambassador to Britain, suggested today the United Nations should move its headquarters from the United States to a neutral Asian country.

The former Philippine delegate to the United Nations, who is en route to Manila, told newsmen neither the United States nor the Soviet Union is suitable for the U.N. headquarters because of their partisanship.

Rusty Water Pumped Into Waterford Area

Due to a faulty well, residents of the Elizabeth Lakes Estates area in Waterford Township have been forced to use rusty water during the last few weeks, according to Township Clerk James E. Seiterlin.

"As soon as there is cool weather and the heavy demand for water has subsided we plan to shut off the defective well pump and obtain clear water from the Huron Gardens Subdivision water system," he said.

Some 300 homes in Elizabeth Lakes Estates have been affected by the murky water.

Ingham County Employees Receive Pay Increases

MASON (UPI) — The Ingham County Board of Supervisors Monday approved pay hikes for the board itself and 130 other county employees.

The increase would double the supervisors' pay from $10 a day to $20 a day, with a $13 remuneration for committee work days.

The 130 county workers were granted a 5.1 per cent hike which was estimated to cost the county $37,000 annually. The increases were scheduled to take effect next January.

Sophomores Galore in Michigan-Oregon Clash

Says Yes, but—

Ted to Retire?—Maybe!

BALTIMORE (AP)—Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox made his next-to-last scheduled appearance as a player in Baltimore Tuesday night, then started speculation anew.

"Only one possibility could make me change my mind about playing next year . . . The 42-year-old 'splendid splinter' let the sentence die.

In a quick breath he added: "No, I know what I just said. I'm gonna quit at the end of the season. That's final. There are no contingencies. This is it. I've had it as a player."

He refused under further questioning to reveal what prompted him to even mention the "possibility" of making it 19 full seasons.

Williams did confide, "I sure would like to stay in baseball in some capacity. No, not as a manager."

"Then he revealed, 'I've always been interested in working with kids. I feel that I could be of help to young players. I think that would be fun.'"

That sounded like a coach. In the major leagues?

"I really don't know right now," Williams replied. "It might even be in American Legion baseball."

Williams was reminded that his 550 homers are only 14 shy of the second highest in all baseball hit by Jimmie Fox. Could that be his inducement to stay in uniform in 1961?

"No," he said. "What have I got to prove by playing any more?"

On the first pitch to him, Williams fouled the ball off his right ankle and limped out of the game.

FACES MICHIGAN—The Wolverines from the University of Michigan will face the strong throwing arm of quarterback Dave Groez when Oregon visits Ann Arbor on Saturday. Oregon whipped Idaho, 33-4, last week.

MSU Favored Over Pitt in TV Duel

NEW YORK (AP)—Traditionally, this is the first day of fall. But the fall you get on the calendar is nothing like the fall you can get trying to pick football winners. (Last week's figures: 23 winners, 7 losers, $20).

Mississippi over Kentucky: The Kentuckians have nothing to compare with the John Gibbs to Johnny Brewer battery. The Ole Miss attack is rugged.

Syracuse over Boston University: Last year, en route to their national championship, Syracuse won this game by a 40-0 score. It could be as much this time.

Alabama over Tulane: The Tulane season already is a success. Last week they defeated California. Now that Alabama has defeated Georgia, it must be considered a Southeast Conference title threat.

Michigan State over Pittsburgh: This one is on TV and it should be worth seeing. The Spartans' crop of sophomores reported to be the best in the Big Ten.

Purdue over UCLA: The Big Ten team's biggest problem is the lack of reserves but that should not bother in the first game of the season.

Wake Forest over Clemson: Norm Snead's passing to engineer an upset in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Iowa over Oregon State: Iowa's hard-bitten sophomores will prevail over the Staters, still pleased from their upset victory over Southern California a week ago.

Nebraska over Minnesota: The Nebraska best team since the Rose Bowl eleven of Bill Jones era.

Oklahoma over Northwestern: A year ago Oklahoma lost, and looked badly doing it, after half the squad became ill of food poisoning. Home cooking this time will level the table.

Texas over Maryland: How much tougher can they get than this one?

Georgia Tech over Rice: You can't pick against Stan Gann. Tech's new throwing man.

Bucs Are 5 Games Away

By The Associated Press
The World Series opens in Pittsburgh's Forbes Field two weeks from today. The Pirates' season is the most complete collapse in a run for the National League pennant since the tumbles by Brooklyn's dying Dodgers of 1951.

The Pirates broke a 22 tie on Hal Smith's ninth-inning home run to win the nightcap of a double-header 3-2 after a 7-1 first game win, at Philadelphia Tuesday night. The Bucs are now within five victories of their first flag in 33 years.

With a 90-55 record they haven't won more in one season since the 1927 pennant mark of 94-60 and nine games to play the Pirates can clinch it with five victories no matter what the hot-running St. Louis Cardinals do.

The second place Cards, who trail by six with 11 left, put away their 12th victory in 15 games with a 3-1 ninth-inning decision over Los Angeles.

Third place Milwaukee tumbled eight games back. Cleveland whipped the Braves 5-0 behind the two-hit pitching of Jay Hook. Any combination of Pirate victories and Milwaukee defeats totaling two eliminates the Braves, who play six of their remaining nine against the Bucs.

The Dodgers of '51 needed only five more victories when with 11 games left, they led the then New York Giants by 4½. The Brooklyn six of those 10 and the Giants, sweeping their last seven regular season games, then completed their little miracle in a playoff.

Last season, the Giants lost seven of their last eight, but led by only two when the drop began. In 1956, Milwaukee lost two of its last three, but hadn't regained first in a battle with the champion Dodgers until the final week.

Sam Jones won his 17th with a five-hitter as San Francisco defeated Chicago's Cubs 5-2 in the other NL game.

While Bill Virdon drove in three runs with a homer, double and single in the first game, Bob Skinner's single drove in the winning run against loser Robin Roberts (10-6).

Schnier then lined a pair of RBI singles for a 2-2 tie in the nightcap before Smith's 11th homer, off Jim Owens (4-13), broke it up. Clem Labine (3-1) was the winner with three no-hit innings in relief of Harvey Haddix.

The Cards matched Pittsburgh's four-game streak after blowing a 1-0 lead on Norm Larker's two-run pinch single in the ninth. A no-out, broken-bat single by rookie Charley James then drove in two runs that beat Larry Sherry (14-9) after Ken Boyer's single and two walks landed the buffer. Relever Lindy McDaniel (12-4) was the winner in his second game, tying the Cardinals record he set last year for right-handed pitchers.

Ed Bailey and Roy McMillan combined for five RBI behind Hook (11-17), who gave up only singles by Billy Brutto and Al Dark, walked one and faced just 29 men while beating the Braves' Lew Burdette (15-12). The Braves, drawing bats in their home park, committed three errors, two by shortstop Johnny Logan.

Glinka to Get Initial Crack at QB for 'M'

Webfoot Wallop Idaho in Opener; Plan Aerial Attack Saturday

ANN ARBOR — Michigan will have one big thing in common when they start Saturday afternoon at Ann Arbor before an expected crowd of 50,000.

Both teams have plenty of sophomores and many of them will get to see action.

Oregon publicist Art Likhonina held at a writer's meeting yesterday. "We have sophomores who got some experience last week and will be ready for Michigan. We figure to pass a lot and we think we have a quick-hitting team."

The Webfoot walloped Idaho, 33-4, last Saturday.

Michigan will unveil its heralded sophomore quarterback Dave Glinka, a 210-pounder from Toledo.

A back who has been outstanding in drills thus far is halfback Dennis Fitzgerald, a product of Ann Arbor, who has been a favorite target of Glinka's passes.

Michigan has bigger, faster and more evasive runners than Fitzgerald in its backfield. In 1959, as a junior, he averaged a creditable but unspectacular 3.4 yards per try in 16 carries.

But Fitz, will start at right half in Saturday's debut against the swift West Coast team.

Whatever ability the 22-year-old Fitzgerald has comes from several sources: from his three years in the Marines, and from his wrestling experience (he is the Big Ten 177-pound champion).

But in great part it is born of his Michigan patriotism. A product of Ann Arbor, Fitzgerald expressed his boyhood ambition—to play football for Michigan—in the large block "M" he painted on the wall of his room.

Head coach Bump Elliott described Fitzgerald as a "quick plug," which is to say he has a lot to do with making the Wolverine grid machine move.

"He's the kind of player you won't notice very much until he buys a game open for you," said the coach. "He's a great competitor and his drive does a lot for the other guys when the going gets tough."

Couls Release 3 Players

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Colts placed three players on waivers and picked up a discard from the Chicago Bears' waiver list Tuesday in getting down to the required 36-man limit for the National Football League season.

Released by the defending NFL champion were halfback Lewis, end Ed Cooke and guard-tackle Dick Guesman. Halfback Ed Kovac was picked up for the $100 waiver price.

Lewis, from the University of Houston, played his rookie season with the Colts last year.

McPhie's Record Run Paces Maple Victory

Paced by Jack McPhie's record-setting run, the Birmingham Seals' cross country team defeated Port Huron, 17-41, in the Maple's first Eastern Michigan League meet of the season.

McPhie ran the distance in the time of 10:23.8, a new course mark at Port Huron, to lead the Maples to their 2nd dual victory of the year in three meets.

Hill Heydon finished 2nd and Tad Egan 3rd with both runners also breaking the course record. Scotty Davis placed 5th, Tom Stone 6th and Al Freed 8th.

Polish Commies to Rebuild Many Stately Palaces

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — The Communist regime's next five-year plan calls for rebuilding many palaces of the former aristocracy.

buildings to be rebuilt or reconstructed during the next five years, "are going to be adapted, if possible, to useful purposes," the Polish press agency reported today.

"A number of the buildings can be adapted as apartments, hotels, social institutions, rest homes, hotels, schools, offices and even as warehouses of factories," the agency explained.

Her previous husbands were Wesley Ruggles, James Adams, George Ross, Morgan Ryan, and Brothers Dan and Bob Topping.

Wants No Reduction in South Korea Army

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Gen. Wiliston B. Palmer, director of military assistance at the Pentagon Tuesday expressed opposition to any sizable reduction in South Korea's 600,000-man army after a three-day inspection trip.

The new Korean government of Premier John H. Chang had planned to cut 100,000 men from the armed forces in 1961 as an economy measure.

Sen. Goldwater Wary of Castro

Not Opposed to Using Force in Overthrowing Cuban Dictator

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., said Tuesday he would not be opposed to using force to depose Cuba's Premier Fidel Castro.

He added he believed the time may be "pretty well at hand" when such force must be used.

"The word I got is we would help ourselves by getting rid of the Castro government by all means we can," Goldwater said at a town hall meeting.

"The Cuban people should be the ones to overthrow this government and if they don't the Americans are going to have to do something about it," said Goldwater.

If it requires force, I'm not against it," he said.

Goldwater said he doubted that Russia would go to war to save the Castro government.

Sinatra to Be Best Man for Sammy Davis Jr.

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Blonde May Britt says Frank Sinatra will be best man to bridegroom Sammy Davis Jr. when she marries the Negro entertainer Oct. 18.

The Swedish actress announced that her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Wilkens, will fly to Hollywood from Stockholm to attend the nuptials.

"It will be a small wedding party of friends and family," she said in a strong Swedish accent.

"Only a few of the guests will be Hollywood personalities, but Dean Martin and Peter Lawford will be there. The ceremony will take place at Sammy's house in the Hollywood Hills. We will make our home there after we are married."

May's (pronounced My) matron of honor will be Shirley Rhodes, wife of music conductor George Rhodes.

It is the second marriage for both Miss Britt, 33, and Davis, 34.

Kennedy and Nixon Shun One Vote--K's

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Nikita Khrushchev has a word for Vice President's Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy. The word is "jackass."
He has called them "jackasses who make a pair."
"We have no choice," Khrushchev told an amused audience last month at a Hungarian exhibition in Moscow. He meant that Kennedy was about as bad as Nixon so far as the Kremlin was concerned.
The candidates themselves may relax a bit from anxiety just the visiting Russian just the presidential campaign by expressing a choice between them. They probably will not relax, however, because Khrushchev is unpredictable. He might reverse himself on the candidates.

That possibility could keep the two young men awake at nights. Neither for all that is loved by Khrushchev.

RITZER PICKS 'LACKY'
That may have been in the mind of Paul M. Butler last June when he told a Milwaukee audience that he had spotted Khrushchev's candidate for President of the United States. Butler then was chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

Butler said Mr. K. wanted Nixon. The Russian believed, according to Butler, that Nixon would be easiest for the Communists to handle. At that time Butler generally was regarded as an active advocate of Kennedy's nomination by the Democrats.

The chairman said it was Khrushchev's strategy to say that he disliked Nixon on the assumption that Americans would react by voting for the vice president. Khrushchev would be capable of that, no doubt, but there was little supporting evidence for Butler.

About the time Butler was talking in Wisconsin, the Communist newspaper, The Worker, published in New York, was discussing various potential presidential nominees. The paper especially denounced Kennedy and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller as supporters of "the lackey Eisenhower-Dulles, Truman-Acheson policies, the cold war policy, the policy of war preparation."

In another column, an article by Clarence A. Hathaway, chairman of the Communist Party of New York, accused several presidential nominees of uttering simple-minded statements designed and defense problems. Hathaway's simple-minded statements included Rockefeller, Kennedy, Nixon, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson.

"They — Rockefeller, Nixon, Johnson, Kennedy — have simple one word exclamations to castigate — Communism! — Khrushchev! — China! — Their solutions are just as simple minded — Anti-Communism! — Devastating military intervention."

strength! — Accelerated war preparation! — That's the Soviet Union and China."

There was no kind word in The Worker for any of these statements, all being indicted as wrong-headed warmongers. Khrushchev has said nothing to qualify the impression that Nixon and Kennedy are lumped with the others as unfit and undesirable. The Worker was not wholly so negative in that issue, however. In its approach to the presidential election, The Worker believed that it would be best to nominate Adlai Stevenson.

Nixon, Kennedy Get Equal Time

Debates Will Proceed Within Closely Defined Procedural Rules

NEW YORK (UPI) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy will have strictly equal time in the first of their four debates on television Monday. Their discussion of domestic policy will start with an eight-minute statement by Kennedy, followed by equal time for reply by Nixon.

In the question period that follows, one presidential candidate will have two and a half minutes to reply and the other will have a minute and a half to comment on the answer. They will be questioned in turn by newsmen.

The debate will end with a further three-and-a-half-minute summation by Nixon, followed by equal time for Kennedy. A timekeeper will cue the moderator of the program, Howard K. Smith, of CBS. The CBS, NBC and ABC television networks and the Mutual Radio Network will broadcast the program.

Members of the busman panel questioning the candidates are Stuart Novins, CBS; Robert Fleming, ABC; Charles Warren, MBS; and Sander Vancour, NBC.

Railroad Fans Plan Fall Trip Next Sunday

The special train from Detroit to Greenville and back on the Grand Trunk Western Railroad will be hauled by one of the recently retired northern-type steam locomotives, No. 620.
The train will be made up of an open-door baggage car, air conditioned coaches, a refreshment car, open gondola cars and a caboose.
There will be picture stops and movie run-bys for photographers. Stops will be made at Royal Oak and also at Birmingham. The train is scheduled to leave Pontiac at 9:05 a.m. and return at 8:10 p.m.
Tickets can be purchased at the Pontiac ticket office.

Executive Sees Reds Utilizing Railroads

DETROIT (UPI) — A Russian-born railroad expert who recently toured his native land told a rail audience here that the Soviet bid for supremacy in the race age is rolling on its railroad lines, not superhighways.

Berislav Grubis of Cleveland, an executive of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, told the Railroad Community Service Committee of Greater Detroit that Russian emphasis on railroads as the number one method of transportation "should be a lot of thought in our country."

Going was one of eight United States rail officials who recently completed a State Department sponsored tour of the Soviet Union.

Berkley Voters Hold Fate of Current JP Setup

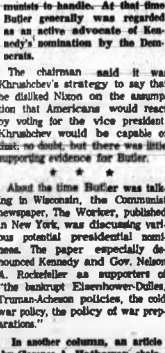

BERKLEY (UPI) — The Berkley City Council has voted to place a proposal on the February 1961 ballot to replace the present JP system with a municipal judge. The vote was 5-2.
"Commissioner Ralph Schwartz, who campaigned on this issue last spring, presented the proposal."

Market Rallies Right Smartly

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market rallied smartly in fairly active trading early this afternoon. Key stocks throughout the S&P advanced from fractions to over two points.

Stocks were gaining despite a continuation of drab business news and a published forecast that third-quarter earnings would be around the level of the 1959 period, which was depressed by the steel strike.

Analysts said that ability of the market to hold its ground yesterday despite the sharp Monday break was encouraging. Short covering was also partly responsible, they said.

Steel, auto, aircraft, electrical, copper, chemicals, rail, electrical equipments, airlines, tobacco, oil and drugs joined in the broad recovery move.

Monterey was a feature, up more than 4 points in heavy trading, on a published item that Humble Oil is negotiating to acquire Monterey's assets.

The higher-priced and more volatile issues continued Tuesday's snapback from the Monday selloff. Superior Oil of California recouped about 17 points, International Business Machines 14, Texas Instruments more than 10.

Tishman Realty was in active demand, rising about 2 in a large percentage gain. Zenith picked up around 3, Polaroid 4.

Up about 2 were Universal Match and General Instrument. Brunswick advanced more than a point on talk of higher sales.

The market wheelbroods of the week. Eastman Kodak rebounded about 3. Ahead a point or better were Jones Oil, Chrysler, American, Boeing, Radio Corp., American Telephone, Kennecott, Anacosta, Union Carbide, DuPont, Raychem and American Tobacco.

PET DOCTOR
By A. W. Miller, D.V.M.

Q. Is it true that our 15-year-old dog no longer needs rabies shots? Mrs. E. Padonko of Chicago, Ill.

A. At this time, we do not have a vaccine that gives lifetime immunization against this dread disease. Even the aged dog who spends most of his time sleeping indoors has to venture out on occasion, and he is no less immune to rabies than the younger pet.

Actually, his advanced years make it more difficult for him to avoid the attack of a rabid squirrel, rabbit, dog, bat, etc.

Some states have accepted recent vaccines as being effective for longer than one year, but yearly vaccination is still advisable. It is even more important when the dog is a companion to small children.

Heart Hospitalizes Joseph N. Welch

HYANNIS, Mass. (AP)—Joseph N. Welch, counsel for the Army in the 1954 Army-McCarthy hearings, is in a hospital with a heart condition but a family spokesman says he is "getting along nicely."

A spokesman for his law firm, Hale & Dorr of Boston, said Welch suffered a serious heart attack last Friday. He will be 70 Oct. 22.

Welch was admitted to Cape Cod Hospital at Hyannis about 10 days ago suffering from what was described as "coronary insufficiency."

Livingston Hopeful Tries to Disqualify 2 Rivals

HOWELL (UPI)—Dr. Thomas A. Barton, Howell physician who is Democratic candidate for Livingston County coroner, has taken legal action to disqualify two Republican candidates for the post.

An attorney for Barton asked for a writ of mandamus Monday which would, if granted, prevent the listing of Dr. Olin C. Wilkinson and Dr. Niles A. Clark, both of Brighton, on the November ballot.

Barton claims neither of his opponents presented proper petitions or took other necessary steps to be legally qualified for the race.

You'll Can't Kill Michigan, Nixon Is Told

Soviets Allege Plot to Assassinate K

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—Russian security police announced they had received word of a plan to assassinate Premier Nikita Khrushchev somewhere in New York today with a gun hidden in a press camera.

Khrushchev ignored the threat and drove in a heavily guarded police motorcade from his headquarters on Park Avenue to the United Nations to maintain his perfect attendance record at the 15th annual General Assembly.

A first report by the Soviet Trading Corp., Amtorg, said the attempt would be made in front of the Russian headquarters as he left for the U.N. session. A later report said the attempt could come "any place at any time — wherever there are cameras."

New York police, strained by the most formidable security task in their history—guarding 16 visiting heads of state—were alert. Police issued a general alert to be on guard wherever Khrushchev went.

There was no clue where the Russian tip came from except that Amtorg first called Russian security agents and they passed the information along to New York police who have been feuding with the security agents over how best to guard Khrushchev. Amtorg announced that someone planned to shoot Khrushchev with a gun hidden either in a television camera, a news camera or in a microphone outside Soviet headquarters. Later they broadened the warning.

True or not, the Soviet report swept the spotlight from a series of Soviet diplomatic defeats in the United Nations and in the Congo and put the heat on New York City to defend Khrushchev in a city the Russians have criticized as hostile.

U.N. Spectacle, Page 8

'GOOD WORKMAN'

Khrushchev has attended all three meetings of the assembly he held since his arrival. Asked last night whether he would maintain this record, he told newsmen: "When I was a workman, I did my job well."

Observers were surprised when he showed up for what normally would be considered a "dull session"—the election of seven committee chairmen and vice chairmen and naming of 15 assembly vice presidents.

The big fireworks were expected this afternoon when Khrushchev may bring up the subject of admitting Red China to the United Nations. That will be considered by the 21-member steering committee.

Though Khrushchev showed up, Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa told newsmen there were no plans for Khrushchev's latest friend Premier Fidel Castro to attend the session.

President Eisenhower today pointedly snubbed Castro when he invited 15 Latin American nation representatives to a special luncheon tomorrow after his U.N. speech in which he is expected to outline a new aid program for the new free nations and a disarmament program.

The Dominican Republic also was left out. The United States and the Latin American nations severed diplomatic relations with that country last month.

New York City police joined Soviet security agents in closely inspecting the cameras set up by newsmen on the sidewalks outside Khrushchev's headquarters where Amtorg said the plot would be carried out. Nothing was discovered.

U.N. Diplomats Lounge Requires Special Pass

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The luxurious second floor of the U.N. building, gathering place for U.N. diplomats, was tightly fenced Tuesday as a happen on a model Iowa farm.

Without a special pass no one could get into the corridors that lead to the General Assembly to conference rooms, and to the delegates' lounge and bar. Squads of U.N. guards manned every approach.

Picnic Weather Coming Our Way Over Weekend

The first few days of autumn, which begins Friday, will be warmer than usual, the weatherman says.

The five-day forecast for the Pontiac area calls for temperatures averaging about 5 to 10 degrees above the normal high of 71. Low tonight will be a pleasant 62.

Thursday and Friday will be a little cooler but Saturday and Sunday again will be warmer. Thursday's high is expected to reach 70.

Morning northeasterly winds at 2 to 4 m.p.h. will become southerly at 8 to 12 m.p.h. this afternoon. Tonight's southerly winds at 10 to 15 m.p.h. will shift to northwesterly late Thursday.

The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 9 a.m. was 57 degrees. At 1 p.m. the temperature was 74.

Protection Expensive

NEW YORK (AP)—The city estimates it will spend $2.5 million a week to provide police protection for the Communist delegates to the U.N.

Pontiac Asks $700,000 Loan

City Will Use Federal Money to Begin Urban Renewal Next Month

A $700,000 federal loan was asked by the City Commission last night to begin urban renewal property acquisition next month.

The bid was sent today to the Chicago regional offices of the Housing and Home Finance Agency (HHFA).

The initial funds will be used to buy land on the west side of Saginaw Street between Pike and Patterson in downtown Pontiac and in the Civic Center for expansion of the City Hall parking lot, said Robert A. Siler, assistant city manager and urban renewal coordinator.

The HHFA will subtract from the $700,000 the $92,112 advance given Pontiac two years ago to plan the urban renewal project.

The first request for funds was approved by a unanimous vote of the commission.

Siler estimated the loan would be ready about the time the federal government agrees to appraise set on the 367 properties to be purchased.

He expected this would be about Oct. 15.

The $700,000 is covered in the $3,165,044 revolving fund set up to cover land acquisition costs.

It'll Be a Touch-and-Go Rush Stop

Rocky to Fight Clock Here

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller will show Saturday in Pontiac that votes are more precious than minutes when you're out selling the Nixon-Lodge ticket.

County Republican leaders mapping Rockefeller's three-city stop in Oakland County were started yesterday to hear that the New York governor is not a five-minute stop man — not on your life.

He's more of a half-hour man at least, a press aide let it be known.

"They thought our schedule was a little tight," declared Charles A. Ferry, public relations director for the Republican Committee.

But Arthur G. Elliott Jr., county chairman, is a man who abides with the rules, especially when they have been set down by state party leaders.

So Elliott is determined that the governor stick to the original schedule. In order that he not miss the primary invitation of his one-day visit to Michigan — speaking at the 5:15 p.m. dedication of the new Inster Civic Center.

"It will be a game of 'Can Rocky beat the clock,'" Ferry said. He said alarm clocks will be placed on the speaker's platform at each stop to make sure the precision time schedule is not violated.

Rocky and his aides might have some other ideas.

Anyway, the schedule calls for the 52-year-old executive, who once eyed the nomination Nixon eventually received, to land in his Con-vaire at 2:30 p.m. at Pontiac Municipal Airport. He'll hop between Battle Creek, Kalamazoo and Lansing in the morning.

MAYOR TO RECEIVE

After a reception headed by Pontiac Mayor Philip E. Rowston and State Rep. Lloyd L. Anderson of Waterford Township at the airport, Rockefeller will squeeze in some minutes for questions from the press.

He's due at the steps of the courthouse in Pontiac at 5:10. The itinerary calls for the campaigner to speak "briefly," Elliott says he'll politely insist on this in order to arrive on time for a Berkeley Kiwanis Club celebration and parade (5:40) and a 15-minute talk at the Oak Park High School (6:10).

After the talk in Inkster — the crux of the entire Michigan visit," Ferry said — Rockefeller will address a nationally rally in Detroit's Cobo Hall in the evening.

Since the Pontiac visit — believed to be Rockefeller's first — was billed as the most informal of the three in the county, it was thought for awhile it would have to be chopped from the schedule in order that the governor not be handicapped by the clock in Berkeley and Oak Park.

Leaders here yelled an emphatic "no" to this suggestion. "Rocky must come to Pontiac," they said.

Like to Stay in NY Overnight and Chat With Other Chiefs

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today decided to stay overnight in New York Thursday so that he can talk with some of the government leaders attending the session of the U.N. General Assembly.

In announcing this, the White House declined to say what foreign visitors might meet the President.

However, there was no indication that Solviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev would be on the list.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty has repeatedly said there were no plans for an Eisenhower-Khrushchev meeting.

Eisenhower's decision to remain in New York overnight came atop an earlier announcement he would give a luncheon Thursday in New York for representatives of 18 Latin American countries.

Eisenhower is going to New York to address a forenoon session of the United Nations. Originally the President had planned to return to Washington in the afternoon.

But Hagerty said that the overnight stay had been decided upon so that appointments could be made in the afternoon with world leaders at the United Nations.

If Eisenhower does not see Khrushchev, the omission may be regarded as a snub to the Soviet premier who withdrew an invitation for Eisenhower to visit the Soviet Union this summer.

Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro is not being asked to the luncheon for Latin Americans, Castro is the highest-ranking official of a Latin-American government at the assembly session but neither he nor any other Cuban official was invited to Eisenhower's luncheon.

Veep Says His Tour of Four Cities in State Proved Bagwell Claim

But the Republican presidential hopeful wasn't counting his chickens yet. He planned at least one more personal visit to Michigan and hoped to bolster the GOP standing in the state with visits from other top Republican leaders, including President Eisenhower.

"Mr. vice president, I can assure you that Michigan's 21 (sic) electoral votes in November will be in the Republican column," Paul D. Bagwell, Republican noninee for governor, told Nixon at a giant rally here Tuesday night.

The rally here clinched Nixon's tour of four Michigan cities aimed at swinging the state into the Republican column in November.

Nixon indicated his trip through Mount Clemens, Flint, Saginaw and Bay City had convinced him Bagwell's prediction would come true. He also indicated he wasn't going to stop just yet.

"There are no more enthusiastic persons anywhere in the country, when it comes to a political campaign, than there are right here in Michigan," the vice president said.

"If I am any judge of enthusiasm, then this prediction (of Bagwell) will come true," he said. "The Bagwell team will bring good state government to Michigan as well as good representation for this state on the national level." But Nixon had barely completed the statement when John Maglio, (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Centennial Promotion Requested

Centennial planners today began a campaign to win retailers' participation in the forthcoming Pontiac centennial observance next year.

The celebration is bound to produce opportunities for sales promotion. It was emphasized by Greater Pontiac Centennial Commission members to a group of merchants at the Hotel Waldorf.

"The centennial needs the support of the whole community," said John W. Hurlinger, manager of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce and centennial secretary. "We can't succeed without you, nor you without us."

Sales and promotions can be tied in with the parades, novelties and activities planned for the week-long centennial climax in June, said Hurlinger. The commission, he said, will try to coordinate all participation.

The group was also addressed by Stuart E. Whitfield, centennial chairman, and Wallace D. Lafferty, representative of the John B. Rogers Producing Co.

Clubs and Eggs Fly in Brawls Near U.N.

NEW YORK (AP)—Club-swinging police and riotous demonstrators battled into the night following Tuesday's opening session of the United Nations General Assembly.

The brawls swirled around mid-town streets as task forces of police and mounted patrolmen moved swiftly to curb the disorders.

pushed and shoved and fought back with clubs.

At least three demonstrators were injured and four arrested. The heavy police security was praised by most New Yorkers, but damned by some Communist bloc chiefs.

Stealing the spotlight Tuesday was the meeting in Harlem between Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and Cuba's Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

The controversial leaders talked for 22 minutes in Castro's office, then emerged with their arms around each other's shoulders.

The large assembly of Communist bloc leaders and the Castro entourage — gave police their biggest security headache. About 8,000 police have been assigned to protect them.

Helping make matters more trying for hard working police was the large number of foreign-born residents in the city of eight million. Many came from East European countries and lands now under Communist rule.

The worst of the street brawls erupted near the U.N. headquarters and the Soviet headquarters for its U.N. mission.

In one three-hour melee near the U.N., mounted policemen charged about 50 Ukrainian and Hungarian pickets. Many were thrown to the ground.

Landry Rebuffed in Move to Get Vacation Pay for Straley

Commissioner Robert A. Landry brushed off a lengthy report that City Manager Marvin Alward declared showed no city employee has received the kind of terminal leave pay demanded for former Police Chief Herbert W. Straley.

"This isn't the material I asked for at all," said Landry, who was asked for the report two weeks ago in hopes that it would support Straley's claim for $1,500 compensation for unpaid vacation time.

"No employee has ever received compensation after terminating his job," Alward stated after last night's commission meeting.

"Retiring employees are permitted to use up unused vacation days before their retirement date. Police are the only ones eligible for compensatory time in lieu of days off and retiring police officers are eligible to claim this before their retirement date."

"Commissioner Landry may be confused by the privileges granted retiring employees. Mr. Straley was not granted these privileges. He wasn't honorably retired, he was fired."

Landry maintained, however, that within two weeks he could produce figures "that show some city workers were paid as much as 130 days compensation."

"He didn't say whether those were retired or fired employees."

The report was a list of the terminal compensation paid 420 employees over the past 10 years.

Alward said he checked the record of 3,500 employees while preparing the list. The list represents those who received some compensation on leaving the city, he said.

The $1,500 represents Straley's claim for compensation for 40 unused vacation days. He was fired on June 1, 1958, after 30 years of service. Straley was paid for 30 unused vacation days—the limit under city rules.

"He had claimed a total 70 unused vacation days, but accumulated sick and compensatory time. The proper request is only for the 40 vacation days."

Whitmer New Veep of Area Chamber

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of schools, has been elected first vice president of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, filling the vacancy caused by the retirement of Albert W. Holcomb.

Raymond Storm, director of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., was elected to fill Holcomb's position.

Chilly Gusts Drop Mercury in the Rockies

By The Associated Press

A cold front moved into the Rockies early today, producing gusts of winds that reached 40 m.p.h.

Ahead of the cold, rain fell over parts of the Southwest. Arizona, reported nearly one and three-fourths inch of rain in a six-hour period. Enid, Okla., got nearly one inch.

The cold front pushed temperatures down to the 30s and 40s. Elsewhere, temperatures were mostly seasonal.

Can't Deduct Cost of Gale Boat Racing

WASHINGTON (U) — The U.S. Tax Court has ruled that W. D. Gale, Inc., a Detroit electrical contracting firm, cannot charge off its speedboat racing activities as an advertising expense.

The court said also that some of the cost should properly be charged to the 1953, 1954 and 1955 gross income of Joseph A. Schoenitz, president of Gale, and his wife.

The Internal Revenue Service disallowed $244,000 in tax deductions claimed by Gale in connection with operation of its speedboat racing activities.

IRS also assigned these expenses to the gross income of Schoenitz and his wife, resulting in additional income for tax purposes of $142,112.

The court said Gale and Schoenitz had not proved that the Gale corporation received an appreciable publicity from the racing activities.

It said virtually all the publicity surrounding the boats went to Schoenitz and his son Lee who drove them.

The apparatus weighs less at birth than a paper match. It lives in its mother's pouch for many weeks, before venturing into the world.

Eleanor Would Take ANY Dem President

NEW YORK (AP) — Eleanor Roosevelt says she would probably vote for an inferior Democratic candidate in a national or state election over a superior Republican candidate.

The widow of President Franklin D. Roosevelt made the statement in the October issue of McCall's magazine.

She was asked: "If you were confronted with an inferior Democratic candidate and a really superior Republican candidate, which would you vote for, and why?"

She replied: "In a national or state election, I would probably vote for the Democrat. I feel that he would be surrounded by able people who would make him live up to the traditions of the Democratic party, at least in a higher office. This does not hold true in local elections. In these elections, quite frankly, I think it is wise to vote for the individual rather than for the party."

Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, national president, said surveys of needs are almost complete in Puerto Rico, Florida, the Cavallines and several North Atlantic states.

The surveys show more than 50,000 families had storm losses, and an estimated 13,000 are expected to ask Red Cross help.

The biggest job, Gruenther said, will be in Florida where more than 5,000 of 25,000 affected families are expected to turn to the relief agency.

In Puerto Rico more than 5,000 of the 11,000 affected families are already registered with the Red Cross.

Ann Arbor Voters Get New City Hall Issue

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — The Ann Arbor City Council has voted to place a $2,250,000 bond issue for a new city hall on the Nov. 6 ballot.

The present city hall was built in 1907 and the new structure, if approved, would be the first new city building in many years.

Sixty per cent of the commission's home owners must approve the bond issue for it to take effect.

Grades Should Perk Up

Many School Districts Using NDEA Dollars

LANSING (U) — The action on the international space trust will be reflected increasingly in Michigan public grade and high schools this fall.

About two-thirds of the school districts in the state this month started using $3,204,000 worth of science, mathematics and language teaching equipment purchased with federal help under the National Defense Education Act (NDEA).

"Much of the equipment was purchased or installed this summer," said Leon Waskin, state chief of curriculum services.

NDEA, a result of Russia's jump into space ahead of the United States, allows the federal government to match local school systems dollar-for-dollar in the improvement of teaching and teaching methods in these fields. This includes enlarged guidance and counseling staffs.

As a result, many districts have been able to work into their budgets equipment, reference material, some staff expansion and — in some cases — even classroom remodeling that they could not afford before.

Michigan schools tapped Washington for $4 million in 1950-51, and will probably match that during the next two years, Waskin said. The largest of locally-raised tax dollars equalled federal funds spent in 1950-51.

Schools paid out $5,613,000 for science programs alone, Waskin said. Federal rebates are being mailed this month. Even primary districts (those with no high schools) spent $250,000 on science.

A total of $785,000 was spent on mathematics on all levels, Waskin said. Models, charts and adding machines (both used in some new methods of teaching) were among the items made available by federal grants.

Schools spent $1 million to step up language teaching in the past year. Language laboratories, employing individual booths and tape recorders, are gaining popularity with educators and are being encouraged by the federal government.

Primary schools spent $7,200 on languages. Expanded testing and counseling staffs and programs cost $540,000 the past year.

Not every school district split 50-50 with Washington, Waskin said. Depending on their ability to pay, schools assumed 30 to 70 per cent of the load, he said.

Advance Fee Racket Creeping Into State

LANSING (UPI) — Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams has warned Michigan residents of the dangers of hitting the bait of the "advance fee" racket, one of the frauds affecting the consumers of Michigan.

Adams said companies involved in the racket operate by sending attractive brochures to residents offering to sell homes or businesses or to arrange a loan.

If the resident sends back the self-addressed post cards a representative of the firm calls to collect the "advance fee". Adams said his investigations showed the contract involved in the racket does not agree to provide a loan or "list" property for sale.

The attorney general said the operation of the racket can only be stopped by ignoring it. He advised consumers to consult reputable, licensed real estate brokers and lending institutions to sell property or get a loan.

Russian Interest in U.S. Continues Unabated

WASHINGTON (UPI) — George V. Allen, head of the United States Information Council (USIA), says the intensified cold war has failed to lessen the Russian people's interest in America.

Allen, in the agency's semi-annual report to Congress Sunday, said "The interest of the Russian people in things American continues unabated, regardless of the ups and downs of the Soviet propaganda line."

He said more Russians have seen American motion pictures during the last six months than in all the previous years since 1937 combined.

Nearly half of Moscow's movie houses—45 out of 102—were showing American films on June 30, he reported.

Can't Agree on Next Level

Technicians Range on Support Figure — 525,
550, 580 . . . ???

NEW YORK (UPI) — Now that the Dow-Jones averages have broken their previous support levels on increased volume, technicians are disagreeing as to its importance and where the next support area will lie. L. O. Hooper of W. E. Hutter and Co. comments:

The extremists think that support may be found as low as $25.50 while the middle-grounders favor $30 or a little higher, he says.

One school of "reputable technicians" think that support may be reached as high as $30.

NOT 'BEAR MARKET'

All agree, Hooper says, that this is not the beginning of a "bear market," since a declining price trend in most groups has been with us for many months.

Most also agree, however, that there are no convincing indications that the major trend is ready to change from down to up, the analyst reports.

Martin Gilbert of Van Alstyne, Noel and Co. says that any rally should be used to lighten holdings "since it is obvious that subsequently there will be a test of any new news established."

Standard and Poor's reports that reasons are accumulating for believing that the economy may be facing a letdown next year.

The letdown may prove to be only moderate, S and P says, but it could have a severe effect on corporate profits considering the profit squeeze on this year's record sales volume.

Sinatra, Martin Buy Into Lodge at Lake Tahoe

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP) — Singers Frank Sinatra and Dean Martin today are the owners of a gambling license for the plush Calavera Lodge on the north shore of Lake Tahoe.

Neither Sinatra, who owns 28 per cent of the lodge, nor Martin, who holds nearly 4 per cent, plan to take an active part in managing the club. The license was issued Tuesday by the Nevada Gaming Commission.

The two entertainers and Sinatra's manager, Henry Sanicola, hold a controlling interest of 50.38 per cent.

Tito Can Roam, Probably Won't

Expected to Stay at His Picketed Residence and Draft Neutralist Speech

NEW YORK (UPI) — Independent Communist Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia was free to roam anywhere he pleased today, but was expected to restrict himself to his picketed residence and the United Nations to prepare a neutralist speech for the General Assembly.

Unlike the Russians who snubbed him on his arrival here Tuesday, the 63-year-old Yugoslav leader was not placed under travel restrictions during his stay here.

Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, Cuban Premier Fidel Castro and the Communist puppet leaders of Hungary and Albania have been ordered not to leave Manhattan Island.

Tito, who broke with the Cominform in 1948 and has alternately supported and opposed the Kremlin line ever since, was expected to bid for leadership of neutralist nations when he addresses the General Assembly.

MAY MEET EISENHOWER
There was speculation Tito might meet President Eisenhower, who will address the General Assembly Thursday and who is expected to confer with some officials of foreign nations while he is in New York. The State Department has recommended such a meeting, but Tito brushed off a question about it when he departed from the Queen Elizabeth.

Tito's New York residence, the headquarters of the Yugoslav delegation to the United Nations, was picketed Tuesday by about 30 demonstrators, who were kept in line by about 100 policemen.

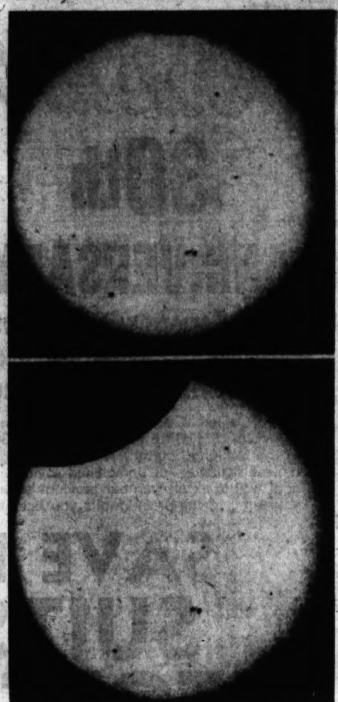

Police said at least two groups from other cities planned to demonstrate against Tito today.

These were the Chicago Hungarian Freedom Fighters and the Serbian National Defense Council of America, from Washington, D. C., police said.

Sits Through Long Sessions

Khrushchev Plays Shrewd Role at U.N.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Why did Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev sweat through six hours of the formal session of the United Nations General Assembly Tuesday?

Why was he the only major head of government who personally cast a ballot for the new assembly president while others and deputies perform the chore?

Why did Khrushchev come back for a boring evening session when most of the key heads of delegations stayed away?

Why did the elderly ruler of one of the most powerful states on earth take a risky six-mile journey to Harlem to visit Fidel Castro who some Western diplomats have characterized as the "juvenile delinquent" of the assembly?

Members of Khrushchev's entourage have answered these questions in uniform terms. They refuse to be quoted but their explanations run along these lines: Khrushchev is in dead earnest about the important business he expects the assembly to accomplish.

He came here to work and as he told reporters he intends to remain in New York as long as necessary to accomplish his mission. His mission, they say, is to re-establish a proper international atmosphere to negotiate what he calls "the questions of questions," disarmament.

premier's conduct since his arrival here indicates his high regard for the assembly of world nations.

It was indeed a strange sight to see the ruler of all the Russians and of world communism sitting modestly in a place alphabetically arranged together with representatives of about 100 countries.

Khrushchev is a born public relations specialist who, as one Western diplomat said, can draw circles around Madison Avenue.

The effect of his studied simplicity at the United Nations will not be lost on many of the smaller countries, especially on the new Afro-Asian states whom both East and West now are courting assiduously.

Khrushchev's journey to a hotel in Harlem to see Castro and his public embrace of the Cuban leader in the United Nations assembly hall, may win friends and influence people in Latin America and Africa.

With Khrushchev's instinct for public appeal, his ebullient personality, his tireless energy, it would cause no surprise if he continues to dominate the assembly as well

A cream-smooth ride

A Full Coil suspension ride, in other words. And Corvair combines Full Coil suspension with independent suspension at all four wheels, so people who ride in Corvairs get a silky-smooth ride.

Energy with economy

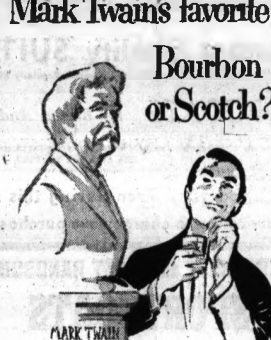

Chevrolet owners have two budget-minded engines to pick from: the famous Hi-Thrift 6 and the Economy Turbo-Fire V6. And Corvair owners enjoy the savings of an air-cooled Turbo-Air 6.

Smother, safer stops

Chevy's Corvair, with its rear-engine design, gives better balanced braking even in hard stops. And those hunky Safety-Master brakes on the 1960 Chevy show that this is the kind of friend to count on.

Mark Twain's favorite-
or Scotch?

Perhaps at one time or another, you've seen Mark Twain featured in our Old Crow advertising. The reason is that Mark Twain's favorite bourbon was Old Crow. He was known to have been so pleased with our bourbon, that he made a trip to Kentucky to visit James Crow's distillery. There he ordered 25 barrels of Old Crow for his favorite tavern in Elmira, New York.

But recently we were challenged. An executive from a competitive whiskey company wrote us saying he had incontrovertible evidence proving Mark Twain to be a Scotch drinker! We checked immediately and found that yes, it was true, the great American author had once been a Scotch drinker during his early years! But further examination revealed that he subsequently changed to bourbon!

Now, many city folk are going through the same taste change that Mark Twain experienced. They've tasted them all and are now savoring the simple goodness of fine bourbon. Have you tried the time-honored flavor of light, mild Old Crow 86 proof Kentucky bourbon? It is America's favorite. Try it and you'll see why Mark Twain was a bourbonite in his time — and an Old Crow fan.

Chevy owners know what they want...

...and nobody knows it better than Chevrolet!

Who knows more about what car buyers want than car owners? Nobody — which is why Chevrolet established its Owner Relations Program, the only one of its kind in the industry.

It works this way: Periodically, a Chevrolet representative sits down with a tape recorder and a group of Chevy owners — and he listens. He records every gripe, every bouquet, every comment the owners come up with. This sort of thing happens across the country, with people who drive Chevrolets, Corvairs and Chevrolet trucks.

And you can be sure we're paying close attention to what comes out of these meetings and other facets of our Program. You can see that reflected in the sales figures: People buy the car that's closest to their ideas of perfection — and that means Chevy.

In fact, Chevrolet's sales (including Corvair) are bigger this year than ever before in our history.

It all boils down to this: Chevrolet is vitally interested in your complete satisfaction with our products and services — now, and for as long as you own a Chevrolet. And as your ideas about automotive products and services change, we'll be changing right along with them. Our Owner Relations Program will play an important part in making sure of it.

Janice Senum
Repeats Vows

Announcement is made of the marriage of Janice Shirley Senum to Daniel Polasek, Sunday evening, in Auburn Heights.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Thomas Senum of Ferry Avenue and the late Mr.
Senum. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Polasek of Nelson Street.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nelson of Auburn Heights.

Church Women Gather

Plans were completed for a demonstration Sept. 28 in the church basement when Esther Circle of Oakland Park Methodist Church met Wednesday evening at the Joslyn Avenue home of Mrs.
Elton Behrle. Mrs. Kenneth Shelton was in charge of devotions.

Weds Lawrence Hohm

Patricia Canfield United

Fan-shaped arrangements of white gladioli graced the chancel of Perry Park Baptist Church for Friday evening vows of Patricia Joyce Canfield and Lawrence W.
Hohm. The Rev. Hilding Bihl officiated.

The R. B. Canfields of Kenilworth Avenue were hosts at their daughter's church reception. Joining them in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Hohm of Melrose Avenue, parents of the bridegroom.

The bride's ballerina-length dress of white Chantilly lace over layers of net was styled with molded bodice and elbow-length sleeves. Waist-length veil of silk tulle was crowned by a crown of seed pearls.

white roses and satin streamers.
Maid of honor Dianne Peel of Auburn Heights wore sleeveless pale pink chiffon over net with matching headpiece and nose veil.
She carried rose carnations.

Attending their sister as bridesmaids were Beverly Canfield in pale yellow and Donna in light aqua. Their bouquets of carnations matched their dresses.

Richard Hohm served as his brother's best man. Guests were seated by William Liddy and Kenneth Eaglin.

After a honeymoon at Niagara Falls and elsewhere in New York State the couple will live on Mechanic Street.

Mrs. Canfield chose coraline blue lace over taffeta with royal blue accessories for her daughter's wedding. The mother of the bridegroom chose a pure silk pink and

tions.

Will Continue Picketing of Stores in Ann Arbor

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — The Ann Arbor direct action committee said today it will continue protest picketing of Woolworth, Kresge and Cousins Women's Apparel stores here.

The group has been picketing the stores in Ann Arbor for seven months to protest discriminatory practices allegedly followed by the chain stores in the South.

Owner of Rin Tin Tin Dies at Ranch; Age 67

By DIAL TORGERSON

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP) — Death has claimed a man who found a puppy in a German trench in the first World War and made it an American institution — four generations known as Rin Tin Tin. Lee Duncan, 67, died at his big ranch here Tuesday of a heart attack. His wife, Eva, was with him.

In his kennels he left a German shepherd puppy he was training to carry on the traditions of almost 42 years of film and television canines.

The first Rin Tin Tin returned from Europe with Duncan after World War I and became a top movie attraction from 1922 to 1932, sharing billing with such stars as William Desmond, Jean Hersholt, Wallace Berry and Charles Farrell.

Rin Tin Tin II, after the original animal's death in 1932, starred with Jackie Cooper in the memorable "Tough Guy" of 1933.

During World War II Duncan trained more than 5,000 Army war dogs. After the war he made a comeback with Rin Tin Tin III.

The big postwar success came in 1953, when Rin Tin Tin IV trotted into television. Many of the films are still being shown.

Despite his ailing heart, Duncan continued his dog training work. He also was an assistant scoutmaster in a Boy Scout troop and frequently entertained Riverside children with accounts of how he first found the famous shepherd.

In 1919 Duncan returned with Rin Tin Tin to Los Angeles, where he had worked for a firearms firm. A photographer friend borrowed the dog to use in experiments with slow-motion films.

One day Duncan got a check for $350. Someone in Hollywood had bought the photographer's footage and made a short of it. Duncan set off for Hollywood—where fame awaited Rin Tin Tin and wealth his owner.
