In Area 4, Bottom and Miles Win, While Henry Walks Away in One

An "excellent" turnout saw 3,199 voters cast ballots in Monday's primary election in three of Pontiac's seven districts, narrowing a field of 10 candidates to the six who will vie for City Commission seats in the April 16 general election.

Primary runoffs were held in Districts 1, 2 and 4.

The primary resulted in a rematch of the 1960 election in District 4, victories by two political newcomers in District 2 and a fairly close race between the two candidates vying to oppose the District 1 incumbent.

In District 2, where Mayor Philip E. Rowston, the incumbent, was not running for re-election, candidates on the April ballot will be Curtis E. Patton, 400 votes, a local insurance agent; and Charles H. Harmon, a tax consultant and municipal adviser, 286 votes.

In District 4, the candidates will be incumbent Commissioner Winford E. Bottom who polled 573, and former commissioner Floyd P. Miles, 404, whom Bottom defeated two years ago when Miles was the incumbent.

Incumbent Commissioner Milton R. Henry had no trouble in District 1, defeating his nearest opponent by more than 700 votes. Robert Bowens, a Pontiac Motor Division employe and barber, was elected with 154 votes to oppose Henry who polled 870.

PERCENTAGE 19.4

The total vote was nearly 19.4 per cent of the estimated 16,500 registered voters in the three districts.

In District 2, where four candidates filed, it was a case of newcomers winning over two candidates who had run for the District 2 commission seat in previous elections.

The losing candidates were Robert T. Flynn, 42, of 138 Ogemaw Road, with 187 votes and H. Malcolm Kahn, 44, of 305 Pioneer Drive, with 99 votes.

Flynn, a local insurance man, ran against Rowston in 1960 and

Pontiac Autos Hit Sales Peak

Top New-Model Mark in 36-Year History of Division Reported

Pontiac Motor Division today announced it is experiencing the best new-model sales record in its 36-year history.

Some 209,853 new cars have been delivered since last September, according to E. M. (Pete) Estes, General Motors vice president and general manager of Pontiac Motor Division. The old record for the same sales period was 197,139 in 1955.

Retail sales in February continued to boom for both Pontiac Motor and GMC Truck & Coach Division.

"Retail sales by Pontiac dealers during the final sales period in February amounted to 10,829, making a total of 33,544 deliveries for the month," said Estes.

This represents a gain of 42.5 per cent in sales over the same month a year ago.

Domestic retail deliveries of GMC trucks in the first two months of 1962 were the highest for any corresponding period since 1956, said Calvin J. Werner, GM vice president and general manager of GMC Truck & Coach Division.

He said the January and February deliveries totaled, 12,523 units, a 21.5 per cent increase over the same two months of 1961.

"In February alone, new GMC truck deliveries reached 6,180 units, a 20.7 per cent gain over February of 1961," Werner added.

CIA Reports Satisfaction With Efforts of Powers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Central Intelligence Agency reported today that U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers lived as an American."

The House Armed Service Committee made public the report on the case of the pilot whose photographic-reconnaissance plane came down deep within Russia in May 1960.

Based on an exhaustive investigation by the CIA and an advisory board, the report cleared Powers of yielding under pressure to tell more than he was authorized to say to his captors.

The intelligence agency said that Powers and other U2 pilots were authorized to "surrender without resistance and adopt a cooperative attitude toward their captors" should evasion not prove feasible and capture appear imminent.

U2 pilots, moreover, were instructed that they were "perfectly free to tell the full truth about their mission with the exception of certain specifications of the aircraft."

The report found that Powers followed these instructions and did what he was authorized to do in admitting his previous Air Force service and his employment by the Central Intelligence Agency.

WASHINGTON (AP)— U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers testified today he "sensed" an explosion before his high-altitude reconnaissance plane plunged down in a spinning dive over Russia May 1, 1960.

This statement was the first official acknowledgement that Powers was employed by the CIA, although there had been little doubt of it.

The report said the poisoned needle carried by Powers, and mentioned in his trial in Moscow, was "intended for use primarily if the pilot were subjected to torture or other circumstances which in his discretion warranted the taking of his own life."

"There were no instructions that he should commit suicide and no expectation that he would do so in those situations just described," it added.

The report said there was no evidence to support any belief that Powers' predicament was brought on by "pressure from or defection to the Russians." It also ruled out the possibility of sabotage.

Plan to Boost Sites in Area for Industry

DETROIT (AP) — A 10-year program for development of industrial sites in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties was unveiled Monday by the Detroit Regional Planning Commission.

It calls for the setting aside of some 6,680 acres of land — two-thirds of it in southeastern Oakland County — for industrial parks and other developments located near existing or planned expressways.

Commissioner Paul M. Reid said the program supplements a 1957 study under which industrial property was marked for development along railroad lines.

Reid said the new plan, under study for nearly two years, is designed to deal only with industrial development not dependent on rail transportation.

"We found many plants already located on rail lines didn't need to use rail facilities, but were often located where they were because it was the only available zoned land," he said. "These new sites are planned to accommodate such plants."

The new program calls for 4,290 acres of new or expanded industrial property in Oakland County, 1,010 acres in Macomb and 1,380 in Wayne.

EARMARKS AREAS

Based on estimates of 1970 population, highway construction and future employment, the plan earmarks certain areas for prime development.

In Oakland County, these include properties on W. Eight Mile Road between Livernois and Telegraph (U.S. 24); in the City of Southfield between Telegraph Road and 696; bordering the proposed Chrysler Expressway between 12-Mile and Maple roads (15-Mile); and in Clarkston, at the junction of the expressway and Ortonville Road.

Other existing sites slated for expansion are near Rochester in Oakland County and Garden City, and Riverview in Wayne County.

Some of these sites are marked simply for expansion. Others — including the Clarkston location — are designatde as sites for industrial parks.

2-State Search Yields Woman Found in Car

Adviser at PCH Is Slain in Keego Harbor Apartment

By DON FERMOYLE

A two-state search for a woman teacher suspected of killing a popular young Pontiac Central High School counselor ended with discovery of her attempted suicide in an Indiana farmyard today.

The body of Hubert T. Kreitmeyer, 26, was discovered by his roommate, Eastern Junior High School teacher John H. Nellenback, about 6:30 p.m. yesterday in the bachelor quarters they shared at 1882 Cass Lake Front, Keego Harbor.

Patricia J. Hite, 28, a student counselor in the Fraser School District, was found about 3 a.m. today in her car with a gunshot wound in her head. The car was parked behind the farm home of her parents in Jasper County, Ind.

Indiana police said she apparently tried to take her own life.

THINKING OF MARRIAGE

Marilyn J. Fair, 27, head of the home economics department at Pontiac Central High School, who lived with Miss Hite in a home they bought four years ago in New Baltimore, said she and Kreitmeyer were thinking of getting married in December.

Miss Fair told Oakland County Asst. Prosecutor Richard Condit her roommate threatened to kill Kreitmeyer and herself if the wedding plans were carried out.

Jasper County Sheriff Donald McCracken told Oakland County authorities she had been shot with a 22-caliber rifle which was propped under the dashboard. A bloodstained note and a box of 22-caliber ammunition were on the seat next to her, according to McCracken. There were two shells missing from the box, he said.

IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Miss Hite was shot once in the forehead.

A post mortem conducted early today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital here showed that Kreitmeyer also had been shot once with a 22-caliber bullet from cloes range.

Airport Critics Join Forces

Area Residents Form Group to Investigate Proposed County Plan

Opposition to Oakland County's proposed multimillion-dollar jet airport is being organized.

A group composed mainly of Orion and Pontiac township residents has formed the Oakland County Homeowners and Taxpayers Association to "investigate" the county's airport plans.

Leaders of the group are Gordon Ladd, 3931 Sashabaw Road, Waterford Township, and attorney Robert Hodge, 650 Lake Angelus Shores, Pontiac Township.

Though not a resident in the area affected by the proposed airport, Ladd is the developer of Hi-Hill Subdivision just east of the airport site.

"I've been selling people on what a beautiful place this area is to live in, and I feel a responsibility to them," he said.

Ladd and Hodge gave the purpose of the organization as "fact-finding." They said they question the need and location for the airport and claim it will cost $100 million rather than the $25 million estimated by airport backers.

"We're not interested in meeting misrepresentation with misrepresentation," Hodge said. "We're trying to avoid a wild, irresponsible approach."

Nearly Half of Our 7th Graders to Drop Out Before Graduation

By RALPH P. HUMMEL

If you have a child in the seventh grade, his chances are little more than 50-50 that he'll ever graduate from high school.

This is one of the shocking facts in the story of school dropouts which is repeated all over the United States.

Educators know that this year nearly a million young boys and girls will leave school before graduation. They will be without adequate education. They will be without real friends to help them make an honest living.

They are truly a lost generation.

They are the dropouts, as the educators call them.

'By 1965, there will be three unskilled workers for every two jobs they can fill, while seven skilled jobs will be open for every five who are qualified, according to a national school administrators' magazine.

"Unless there is a drastic change in the dropout pattern," claims School Management magazine, "7.5 million young adults will be candidates for chronic unemployment."

PRESS SERIES

This is the first article of a series which will examine the situation in Pontiac. It will be listing the causes of the dropout problem. Following this will be a summary of what is being done here to keep your child in school and give him a future in a modern, technological society.

The Pontiac School District takes its knowledge about dropouts in this area mainly from a study done in 1955. With special efforts being made since then to keep youngsters in school and to retrieve those who left, it is believed that the figures look (a little) less dim in 1962.

But the problem is still with us, administrators indicate.

The study showed that the graduating class of 1955 was made up of only 58 per cent of those who originally entered it.

The national survival rate at the time was 55 per cent, according to a study done by the U.S. Office of Education.

Pontiac's slightly higher survival rate was produced by a 63 per cent survival count among girls and 54 per cent among the original number of boys.

"If I have a child in the seventh grade, these figures suggest that chances are little more than 50-50 he won't finish school," comments Pontiac Asst. Supt. of Schools Philip J. Proud, an expert on school dropouts.

In Dr. Proud's background are eight years of experience (1951-1958) in dealing with this problem as executive secretary of the Michigan Committee on School Holding Power—the group which studies the problem of dropouts in the state.

Of the 20 or more causes which educators say usually operate together in producing a dropout, five stand out:

1—Lack of success in school;
2—Lack of enough money to stay in school;
3—Lack of identification in school;
4—Lack of family encouragement;
5—Absenteeism.

LACK OF SUCCESS

Surprisingly, intelligence has very little to do with whether or not children remain in school.

The average intelligence of the youngster who quit is only four or five points lower than the average intelligence of those who remain in school. This is not a significant factor to account for quitting.

Some youngsters who quit are

But It's a TRUE One

Danny's Story Is Sad

This is the story of Danny. It is a simple story. And it needs but simple words to tell it. But few parents know this story.

Danny is a potential dropout.

Danny is a boy about 14. He stays out of school. Why? He hasn't done his homework. Why hasn't he? Because he doesn't like to do it. Why doesn't he like to do it? He doesn't like to read. Why? He doesn't read well!

One reason he doesn't read well is because he has missed his chance to practice reading.

Besides, he doesn't go to school regularly and misses his chance to learn to read.

Besides, there's really nothing at school Danny really wants to do. He doesn't have his moment of glory. He's just a quiet, little boy whom few people know. He doesn't belong to the choir, to the school clubs, or to a sports team. He doesn't belong.

Let's Go Places, Kennedy Tells Khrushchev

Supervisors Proposing Jet Airport Lansing Talk

The Oakland/County Board of Supervisors' Aviation committee yesterday proposed a luncheon meeting in Lansing March 14 with state representatives from the area to bring them abreast of plans for a major jet airport here.

Committee Chairman Philip Rowston, Pontiac mayor and supervisor, said the representatives should be briefed fully on the plans in order to answer questions from constituents.

Also, the seven representatives' support of a bill to permit the County Department of Public Works to develop the airport in Pontiac-Orion Townships will be needed, he said.

Delos Hamlin, chairman of the board, explained that the DPW would be well-suited to develop the $25-million airport because the department already has the engineers and other employes for this purpose.

While operation of the proposed airport as a major terminus is not contemplated for 10 to 15 years, Hamlin envisions it serving as a field for corporate flights of industry sometime during the interim.

TWO YEARS AHEAD

Two years would be needed to ready the airfield for industry's flights, he said. He based a future need for such service on reports by the State Department of Aeronautics and Landrum & Brown, Cincinnati aviation consultants retained by the county in 1959.

The county presently is exercising options on the Allen Airport on Giddings Road and adjacent property to form a 445-acre nucleus for future expansion.

Expansion would be accomplished as the need for a second major airport in the metropolitan area actually arises, Hamlin said. He foresees the need for jet service at least 10 years distant.

Federal approval of the airport proposal is being sought by the county, with an answer expected in about four months.

If plans are approved, 50-50 federal matching funds for land acquisition will be sought. Improvement expenses thereafter would be shared on the basis of 50 per cent federal, 25 per cent state and 25 per cent local, the committee reported.

Approximately $25 million will be needed to establish the jet airport, according to Hamlin. Ultimately the investment could be much more, he admitted, depending on the airport's growth.

Suspect in Murder Found Shot in Car

description was seen entering Kreitmeyer's residence about 7:30 a.m. yesterday by a neighbor, Mrs. Ivan Sawyer of 3049 Glenbroke St.

Mrs. Sawyer told Oakland County Sheriff's deputies the woman drove up near Kreitmeyer's house and got into his car. Mrs. Sawyer told officers the woman waited in his car for about 20 minutes and met him as he walked to the curb. Kreitmeyer and the woman then entered the home.

Mrs. Sawyer told police she thought the woman's car was gone by 10 a.m. Dr. Richard E. Olsen, St. Joseph Mercy Hospital pathologist who performed the autopsy, said Kreitmeyer died sometime between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. yesterday.

Kreitmeyer had called school officials to report he would be unable to show up for classes yesterday morning. Capt. Leo Hazen of the Sheriff's Department said Miss Hite was not at a teachers' workshop she was scheduled to attend yesterday in Waterford Township.

RECEIVED CALL

Miss Fair told Condit she received a call from her roommate about 11 a.m. who said "everything between them was all right now."

Miss Hite called the Pontiac home economics teacher again about 8 p.m. at home, according to Condit. Her roommate said she was going away and might never return, Miss Fair told Condit.

Nellenback, who graduated from Michigan State University with Kreitmeyer, had been away for the weekend and didn't return to their residence until yesterday evening.

Miss Fair had been trying to reach Kreitmeyer all afternoon. She called about 6:30 p.m. Nellenback answered the phone and told her Kreitmeyer had been killed.

Bill Against Bias in Cemeteries Killed in Senate

The State Senate yesterday killed a bill to forbid racial discrimination in cemeteries, stemming from the refusal of Troy's White Chapel Memorial Cemetery to inter an American Indian.

Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Pontiac, the bill's sponsor, said he would move for reconsideration of the 17-9 vote today.

The Troy cemetery's action in August 1960 stirred the protests of Indians and many sympathetic white persons across the state.

Cemetery officials had ordered the body of World War I veteran George Nash of Ferndale removed after it had been laid in a grave next to his wife's because he was "not white."

Although Mrs. Nash was part Indian, officials had decided she was white and her body could remain. Mr. Nash was buried in the veterans' plot at Perry Mount Park Cemetery in Pontiac.

Victory in Airport Suit May Run Into Millions

By The Associated Press

A damage case of a few thousand dollars decided in favor of a Pittsburgh man by the U. S. Supreme Court could run to millions of dollars if applied to airports across the nation.

Thomas N. Griggs' complaint that low-flying aircraft from the Allegheny County, Pa., airport made his home unlivable is not unique. It is a problem common to many localities.

Tom Bernard, president of the Airport Operators Council, said the decision Monday could cost airports a tremendous amount of money.

Suits similar to Griggs' are pending in Portland, Ore.; Memphis, Tenn.; in Denver, Colo.; in Columbus, Ohio, and other locations.

MANY IN N. Y.

Perhaps the largest concentration of such cases is in New York City where 809 homeowners in Queens claim that low-flying airplanes using Idlewild Airport lowered the value of their property. The mass action seeks damages of 40 per cent of the value of the homes, which range from $15,000 to $40,000.

Another concentration involves the Seattle-Tacoma International Airport, operated by the Port of Seattle. The Port of Seattle entered the Griggs case as a "friend of the court," saying about 250 property owners with claims amounting to millions of dollars seek damages because of low-flying aircraft.

"An unprecedented wave of litigation with an insurmountable financial burden placed upon public airports contrary to the public interest and welfare" may result from the Griggs suit, the Seattle agency said in its brief.

It added that every national airport was concerned about claims from property owners.

"That's why we have spent money to acquire homes in the clear zone," said Alan Stewart, Dade County port director, in Miami.

"We recently paid $1 million for a clear zone up to 2,000 feet so that no one would feel that they had their property confiscated."

3,100 Cast Votes in Three Districts

Thus, the April election will pit two foes of the 1960 election. Bottom, 36, of 174 Euclid Ave., is secretary - treasurer of the Thomas Die & Stamping Co., in Pontiac.

Miles, 53, of 160 W. Columbia Ave., had been District 4 Commissioner for six years. A Pontiac resident for 48 years, he is currently chairman of the City Commission's transportation committee, and owner of a religious literature shop.

Strongest showing in the primary was made by District 1 incumbent Milton R. Henry, 41 of 192 Bassett St.

He won all of his district's seven precincts by a lopsided margin. A Pontiac attorney, he will be seeking his third two-year term on the commission in April.

Bowens, 39, of 316 Harrison St., polled 154 votes to 108 for the loser, Linwood L. Flack Jr., 39, of 392 Ditmar St. Both Bowens and Flack, a metal finisher at GMC Truck & Coach Division, were running for public office for the first time.

In the race between Bowens and Flack, decided by only 46 votes, Bowens won four precincts, Flack two, and they tied in one other.

U.S. Moving Ahead on Aid for Thailand

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States, in a major policy statement, reaffirmed today that it would act to stop Communist aggression against Thailand without prior agreement of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

It also promised to accelerate military aid to Thailand, this country's staunchest ally in Southeast Asia "to the greatest extent possible."

In a joint communique winding up a five-day visit by Thai Foreign Minister Thanat Khoman, the United States reaffirmed its position that the obligation to resist Communist aggression under the eight-nation SEATO treaty is "individual as well as collective."

East Jordan Industry Kicks Off Production

EAST JORDAN (UPI) — Production has started at Circuit Controls Corp., East Jordan's newest industry, employing some 50 persons in the output of electrical switches for automotive use.

JFK Suggests Talk on Monday

Hoping to Make Real Progress This Time on Disarmament

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy told Soviet Premier Khrushchev today that the purpose of the great powers now in approaching negotiations at Geneva must be to avoid "sterile exchanges of propaganda" and "make real progress toward disarmament."

Kennedy welcomed Khrushchev's decision to send Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko to meet with U.S. and British foreign ministers at Geneva in advance of the March 14 disarmament conference.

The President suggested March 12—next Monday—as the starting date for three-power talks.

At the same time the President said he did not now wish to answer Khrushchev's latest charges against the United States, including the complaint that Kennedy was indulging in "atomic blackmail" by his latest test ban offer.

IGNORES THREAT

He ignored Khrushchev's threat that Russia would resume nuclear testing if the United States goes through with its plans to hold atmospheric tests in late April.

Kennedy, meanwhile, arranged to meet with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, and other diplomatic, military and atomic advisers, at 6 o'clock this afternoon to talk about U. S. disarmament policy. Rusk is expected to leave Washington Saturday for Geneva.

The White House announced those at the meeting will include William Foster, disarmament director, and Adrian Fisher, deputy director; Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, director of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Kennedy's message to Khrushchev, replying to a lengthy note from the Soviet leader which was delivered here Sunday, was brief. It was delivered in Moscow early today and released by the White House here later.

Khrushchev, disappointed in his campaign to press Kennedy and other Western and neutralist leaders into a summit meeting at Geneva, had reluctantly agreed, in his message, to send Gromyko to meet with Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home.

C. of C. Sets Up Program as Hub in Area Promotion

BIRMINGHAM—A 14-point work program has been developed by the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce as the basis of its future activities to promote the area.

"The work of the chamber must be both intensified and expanded if we are to maintain the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills area as the type of community in which we want to live and do business or practice a profession," said Henry F. Johnson, chamber president.

"The goal of the chamber is the unification and coordination of all interests in a far reaching effort, incorporating 14 basic points to make ours a better community," Johnson said.

In addition to continuing to a greater degree many of the activities currently promoted by the chamber, goals include the implementing of the Central Business District Development Plan by energetic action in all phases of the program.

The development and promotion of special events which not only are of interest to local residents but which would expand the Birmingham image throughout the area, is another concern of the chamber.

ACTIVE PROGRAM

The chamber also wants to conduct an active program to sell the Birmingham - Bloomfield - Franklin area to professional and business executives as a superior community in which to live.

Also to be studied is the need for a hospital for Birmingham.

Dropout Problem Shows Face Here

described as having high ability—their IQs sometimes ranging from 120 to 130. Most of these are called underachievers. These are the children who have high mental ability but don't use it.

"Children who are these so-called underachievers wouldn't quit if they had success," Proud adds. "Children are like adults; they need success."

But how can they succeed, if for example they can't read?

READING VITAL

In some geographical areas, the disability may exist because of a vacuum in a school's teaching program.

In Pontiac where there is a thorough program of remedial reading offered — two remaining factors are difficult to deal with:

1—Emotional problems;

2—Not sufficient exposure to good reading practice.

The child who is wrapped up emotionally in the death of a relative, in the unsettling fact of an impending divorce of mother and father or merely in the fate of a pet-dog run over by an automobile—this is the child who cannot concentrate on his task.

The slow reader's exposure to reading material in the home is often limited to second- and third-hand comic books.

"The children who achieve in school," notes Proud, "are more likely to be readers of good newspapers, good magazines, good books. They are widely and broadly read and have fun in reading. They tend to think more logically, because they push themselves intellectually."

As he marks the forehead with ashes the priest or pastor will repeat the words "Remember man that thou art dust and unto dust thou shalt return." The words are based on God's admonition to Adam as recorded in the Book of Genesis.

McNamara Says B70 Not Needed

Defense Chief Answers AF Pressure Seeking Production of Bomber

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said Monday that in view of plans for more than 1,650 deep-striking missiles and more than 1,000 nuclear bombers "it does not appear wise at this time" to go all-out in producing the 2,000 mile-an-hour B70 bomber.

"To do so would in my opinion be a serious waste of the nation's resources," McNamara said in a statement.

The defense chief spoke in the face of new Air Force pressure for production of the B70 and the action of the House Armed services Committee in voting for authorization of $491 million for the B70 program in the bookkeeping year starting July 1.

President Kennedy requested $171 million under a limited plan to build three stripped-down prototype B70s.

The administration plan calls over-all for spending $1.3 billion to explore the problems of flight at 2,000 miles an hour, with an option of expanding into a full scale production of the B70 as a bomber system in event a need is demonstrated.

This full scale production would cost an estimated $10 billion.

The Air Force, revising its proposal for the B70, wants to produce it as a reconnaissance strike version which would operate over enemy territory after a missile attack.

This plane would send back reports on enemy targets still standing. It would be designed to carry missiles as well as radar, communications and data processing equipment.

National Goals to Prove Costly

U.S. Could Outspend Income by $150 Billion in 1970, Says Planner

WASHINGTON (AP)—If America were to pursue all 16 national goals proposed for this decade, including putting a man on the moon, the country might be outspending its income by $150 billion in 1970, a National Planning Association spokesman said Monday.

And, it could be spending about $300 billion a year over the present level of roughly $500 billion of combined public and private outlays.

Like the average householder on a budget, the nation just can't do everything it wants and make ends meet, Leland Hazard, vice chairman of the planning group concluded.

So he and 322 other association members are sponsoring a $400,000-a-year private "center for priority analysis" to give the nation's decision-makers essential data and advice in their vital "balancing act" of goals-versus-costs.

The planning association is a nonprofit, nonpolitical organization set up in 1954 to get together Americans in agriculture, business, labor and the professions to plan for the future.

Now, this group thinks somebody has to get down to work on what national programs should get priorities because:

"Our nation is confronted with a combination of important and essential goals—some national, some worldwide—which call for more than its human and material resources can support when they are unemployed, underemployed and underdeveloped or are wastefully, carelessly and improperly utilized."

America is "a society of limited means in a world in which we are confronted with unlimited claims," the group says.

Signs 'Biggest' Lease Deal in West

Wary Redman Gets Even With White Man

By BOB CONSIDINE

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. — The Agua Caliente Indians lurking among the crags of the surrounding mountains are keeping a piercing black eye open these days, the better to detect the comings and goings of pale faces struggling across the shimmering desert floor below.

There is one area particularly under their scrutiny. It is the Canyon Country Club which draws the braves' beadiest stare.

Some of them actually watch it through expensive binoculars. The Injuns are not counting scalps. They are counting the number of little white golf carts browsing through the sands and mirage-like greenways of the course.

They get 10 per cent of all golf cart rentals, and want to be darned certain that the promoters of this new club, mainly New Yorkers, aren't going to get away with another Manhattan-like steal.

Canyon Country Club, one of the dozen golf courses which have made the desert to bloom in what was once an area about as hostile as the surface of the moon, operates on a 70-year lease obtained from 23 members of the Agua Caliente tribe.

GUARANTEED INCOME

These braves and their descendants are guaranteed an annual income of $125,000, to be split as they see fit. But the percentage deal they have with the club — which none of them would think of joining, by the way — raises their annual loot to beyond $300,000.

They get a slice of every drink sold over the bar. A dimple of every golf ball purchased. They share in the sales of all other accessories dispensed in the shop of Jack Joennecker, the club's fine professional.

Their "piece" of the golf cart business provides more than one squaw and girlfriend the mink coat and sable stole which are the status symbols in the Agua Caliente set.

The golf cart industry may soon be rivaling rocket building in the California economy. In the desert, at least, 90 per cent of all golf players now ride, and more and more golf is played in the desert each year.

LEGAL JAM BROKEN

The Canyon Country Club setup, now being expanded by an additional 18-hole course, is one of the marvels of the land. It sits in a windless pocket and long has been sought as a site for the world's most exasperating endeavor. But the federal government's nutty apportioning of land to the Indians of the area — "every other square mile" — and its daffy blend of caring for and also neglecting its aboriginal wards, made the deal impossible until the legal jams were broken by a New Yorker named Bob Grundt and his attorney Harold Simon.

Between the two, they made the largest deal of its kind ever signed between white men and redmen in this part of the world.

It wasn't easy. Some of the older Indians were suspicious. They had been suspicious of pale faces as far back as the early days of Palm Springs, when Indians wrapped in blankets shuffled through the blazing, unpaved streets, watching with astonishment crazy white men and their independent-minded squaws exposing themselves to a sun the Indians went to great pain to avoid.

Those were days when the Great White Father, in Washington, having banished them to the desert, ruled that they could no longer sell their land but must lease it for no longer than one-year periods. The Indians starved.

Later, Washington relented and permitted five-year leases of the land, and that encouraged the first adventurous white men to put up their inns, houses and businesses.

Now, at Canyon, it has been jumped to 70 years.

"But a lease still isn't a simple document," Simon was telling honorary member Bob Hope at the club's 19th hole the other day.

"After I had read the first few pages of the unsigned agreement to the assembled Indians, pages filled with things like 'leasees,' 'leasors,' and 'warrantors,' one of the old conservatives of the tribe held up his hand and said solemnly that neither he nor the other Indians knew what the hell all this meant.

"So I said, 'Well, let's put it this way: We'll change 'leasees' to 'Indians,' we'll call the 'leasors,' us, 'cowboys.' And let's make the 'warrantors' the 'United States Cavalry.' We got along swell once that was settled. Everybody understood the whole lease, all 32 pages of it."

Glenn Going Back to Work

Astronaut Returns to Cape to Review Flight, Lay Plans for Future

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. goes back to work today, reviewing his orbital space flight and helping lay plans for the future.

The spaceman flew here Monday night from Langley Air Force Base, Va., following more than a week of banquets, parties, parades and honors at Cape Canaveral, in Washington, New York and New Concord, Ohio, his hometown.

"We've got a lot of data to look over in the next few days," Glenn commented as he got off the plane.

ACCOMPANIED BY SLAYTON

With him were Donald Slayton, the astronaut picked to make the next orbital flight; Walter Williams, Project Mercury operations director; and Dr. William Douglas, the astronauts' personal physician.

Slayton's mission also is scheduled for three orbits and he will be working closely with Glenn in the next few weeks. His flight tentatively is slated for sometime in May. Project Mercury officials have been carefully plotting changes prompted by Glenn's 4-hour, 56-minute ride.

The Northern Lights occur more often and extend farther south in the sky just before and after the equinoxes March 21 and Sept. 21.

WHEN YOU HEAT WITH NATURAL GAS IT'S HARD TO BELIEVE THAT January this year was the coldest in 14 years

Throughout most of the month gas appliances worked harder than usual. Your gas furnace worked overtime—maintaining the steady, even, comfortable temperatures that you and your family have come to demand and enjoy. The gas water heater was busier too, because the water coming into the home was colder than normal. More hot meals and beverages were prepared for cold weather menus.

This helps explain why your gas bill for January was higher than usual. And February has been on the cold side, too. It really is easy to forget how cold it has been when you let automatic gas heat take over your heating worries.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"You've got to keep me alive until I can see my children," Hyman Levinthal told his doctors.

But a few minutes later he was dead, never knowing that three of his sons were among 95 killed in the jet airliner crash in New York last Thursday.

The three sons tried to fly to their stricken father because the one-time immigrant tailor and his wife, Rose, 67, had brought up their children to believe a family sticks together.

Hyman, 71, and his wife, struggled through hard times for years in New York City, raising their six children, saving enough money to retire in California.

TO HELP AILMENT

Two years ago they left for Los Angeles, seeking a warm climate to help a heart ailment Hyman developed in his years of toil.

A son and daughter came with them. Three sons remained in the east to tend to their businesses—Irving, of Mineola, N.Y.; Jack, of Hempstead, N.Y., and Bernard, of New York City.

Hyman suffered a severe heart attack last January. His wife Rose injured her back lifting him into bed. Both were hospitalized.

3 BOARDED PLANE

The three other sons boarded the ill-fated American Airlines plane.

Hyman and Rose were not told of the crash. They kept asking about their sons and the daughter coming from Germany.

Rose went into severe shock in her hospital bed when told of Hyman's death on Sunday. The shock was intensified when she was told of her sons' deaths. A granddaughter, one of the Levinthals' 13, also was hospitalized for shock.

Funeral arrangements won't be completed until the daughter and son-in-law arrive from Germany.

U.S. Likes Idea of No Toll on Sarnia Bridge

LANSING (AP)—Federal Highway Administrator Rex M. Whitton has praised Michigan for eliminating tolls on the Blue Water Bridge between Port Huron and Sarnia, Ont.

Whitton said in a letter to Gov. Swainson he was "very pleased this difficult problem has been resolved."

"I compliment you upon your efforts which have made it possible for the federal aid highway program in Michigan to move ahead without the necessity of withholding federal funds, which would have been required had the tolls been permitted to remain," Whitton wrote.

Tolls on the bridge were ordered discontinued by the governor as of last Wednesday at midnight.

Officer Fails in Try to Revive Defendant

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Jerome Zaiser of Wayland was dead on arrival at St. Mary's Hospital Monday despite the efforts of a state trooper to save the 70-year-old man who collapsed in a traffic case.

Trooper John Slattery administered mouth-to-mouth resuscitation following Zaiser's collapse after paying a $7 fine and court costs to Paris Township Justice Ray Blett and denouncing the officer for issuing a speeding ticket.

"He was very upset about the ticket," said Blett. "I tried to calm him down but he stormed out and confronted Slattery."

Slattery continued resuscitation efforts until an ambulance arrived. One passer-by said he "never saw anyone work harder (than Slattery) to help a person."

Savings Bonds Sales Decline in February

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Treasury Department said Monday savings bonds cash sales in February totaled $362 million—a drop of 13 per cent from the same month last year.

The department said gross redemptions were virtually the same as last year's, totaling $376 million as compared to $375 million last February.

How to tell how much to invest
in stocks and bonds

The first problem for many new investors is to decide how much they should invest. If this is your problem, writing down answers to three questions will help you decide, quickly and easily:

What is your monthly income, after deductions? What are your total monthly living costs? (Don't forget yearly expenses, such as taxes.) What should you set aside for emergencies? (Be realistic.)

When you determine how much money you have available for investing, consider the following questions:

What to buy? This depends on your personal investment goals. There are different kinds of securities, and certain ones are normally better suited to certain purposes. For example, common stocks of some companies have a good history of paying dividends, and you will want to consider them if your goal is extra income during the year. You may think stocks of other companies offer a better possibility for growth in value of your investment over the years. Bonds usually offer greater stability of income and safety of principal.

What are the risks? Prices don't always go up; they also go down. And a company may not continue to pay dividends or interest. You'll lessen the risks, however, by acting on facts and advice from a broker—not on tips and rumors from friends, relatives, or strangers.

Where to invest? Consider choosing a broker with a Member Firm of the New York Stock Exchange. His judgment is not infallible, he has no crystal ball in which to see the future, but he has met Exchange requirements for knowledge of the securities business. He will gladly review your goals with you. When you see him, ask about some of the famous companies listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

Do send for our free booklet, "DIVIDENDS OVER THE YEARS." This booklet records some 500 stocks that have paid a cash dividend every year for 25 years or more. Plane Accidents Low Compared to Auto

We must put airplane crashes in proper perspective. No words can take away any of the tragedy that was heaped upon the 95 human beings, not to mention their families and loved ones, in the crash of the jetliner within view of New York's skyscrapers.

It was real and it was horrifying.

But after the first shock begins to dim, words must be used to rationalize the grim tragedy. This is the first crash of a 707 in three years of commercial flying. Such planes have totaled literally billions of passenger miles in that time.

The very fact that airplane crashes are comparatively rare is one reason why the news is told in such large headlines.

Spectacular as it is, this accident in comparison with the day in and day out slaughter on our highways is not great. Sure, it's horrible, but we must remember that the slaughter in autos is for the most part preventable.

If only 95 people were killed in automobiles on any given weekend, there would be rejoicing in the streets.

Republicans: Here's Your Issue

(Chicago Daily Tribune)

A committee of 12 Republican members of Congress has begun work drafting a declaration of party principles upon which the party will go to the people in the congressional elections next fall. There was some complaint from drafting members that it would be a difficult job reconciling ideological differences within the party.

The job is simple and the party's duty is as plain as the Washington monument. It is to summon the help of the people in checking the KENNEDY administration's push beyond socialism into New Frontier communism. The allied problem is to keep the ship of state from going over a fiscal Niagara which will crack this Nation apart.

Do you want the evidence?

Recently the Senate raised the "temporary" statutory limit on the national debt $2 billion to a record peace time high of $300 billion. By the end of June Mr. Kennedy wants that jacked up another $8 billion.

Proceeding, as usual, on the philosophy that the bureaucracy can eat, drink, and be merry and let the next generation bury itself, Mr. KENNEDY called for yet another billion dollars in fresh spending — this one to buy up recreational areas so that the American people can lounge more and work less, while the debt keeps climbing.

We are already on the brink of bankruptcy. The feeble dollar no longer commands its onetime respect in the world. Yet the administration is unconcerned as it paves the road to hell with the people's substance.

To us, this is no longer a flirtation with socialism; it is a process which can only end in communism, enforced by coercive restrictions on all our liberties. It is already happening.

Farmers are told to swallow the administration's newest farm panacea or the Government will dump its enormous surpluses upon the open market and force them to the wall.

Tens of thousands of Americans have been dragged from civilian pursuits and dragooned into military service for an "emergency" the administration itself admits is virtually nonexistent.

Taxpayers are to be pushed into a system of compulsory state medicine. The Government is to get its hand on the schools and what is taught in them. The House ways and means committee, at White House insistence, has completely reversed itself and adopted punitive tax measures against American business overseas. "Nonaligned" India, Communist Poland and Yugoslavia, Moscow-inclined Ghana, and all comers dip into the foreign aid barrel for what's left after the administration has exhausted itself dreaming up domestic spending schemes.

This course can only end in collapse and coercion. Which comes first it is irrelevant to guess. We can see ahead a summit meeting at which an American with the title of President and a Soviet dictator meet and agree that now there is nothing left to fight about—their countries are the same.

The Republicans do not need to look for an issue. It stares them in the face.

In Glenn Flight, Shown by Letters Now Coming

of 644 Riverside Drive, Pontiac, says: "We didn't do a thing on the day of Glenn's flight but follow it. I don't know when we've ever felt so much excitement. The letter came from a young lady who, as a child, Mr. Crocker had befriended when he was in the U.S. Army in England, by giving her candy and other goodies from his rations.

When the Office Becomes Really Lonely

David Lawrence Says:

Cloud of Confusion Covers N-Talk

WASHINGTON — After hearing President Kennedy's eloquent and forceful address the other night about resuming nuclear tests, it seems as if someone might readily write a play entitled "How to Confuse the Public without Really Trying."

LAWRENCE

When the President finished his address, almost everyone agreed with the plausibility of the argument. But there was much left unsaid and unexplained.

For one thing, the President didn't explain why, when the Soviets resumed testing on Sept. 1 last, he didn't immediately authorize resumption of tests by the United States—both in the atmosphere and underground — without waiting six months.

Why, for instance, was it necessary to spend six months examining the question or preparing for such tests? Is it conceivable that in a nuclear age the United States government wasn't prepared for a prompt resumption of tests when it found out that the Soviets were cheating?

How can the American people accept Kennedy's proposals to trust the Soviets again if they sign an agreement on testing before April 1? This is the date the President held out as bait to obtain another moratorium on testing.

The sequence of paragraphs is worth examining. First, the President openly accused the Soviets of violating their pledges when he said:

"On September first of last year, while the United States and the United Kingdom were negotiating in good faith at Geneva, the Soviet Union callously broke its moratorium with a two-month series of more than 40 nuclear tests. Preparations for these tests had been secretly under way for many months."

'TAKE ANOTHER CHANCE'

Then, in the latter part of the address, Kennedy nevertheless told the American people he was willing to take another chance on a written pledge by the Soviets, as he declared:

"If the Soviet Union should now be willing to accept such a treaty, sign it before the latter part of April, and apply it immediately—if all testing can thus be actually halted—then the nuclear arms race would be slowed down at last, the security of the United States and its ability to meet its commitments would be safeguarded, and there would be no need for our tests to begin."

Earlier in the same speech, Kennedy had stressed the importance of testing and of learning as much as, if not more than, the Soviets have learned by their recent tests.

He said frankly that a further Soviet series of tests in the absence of Western tests "could well provide the Soviet Union with a nuclear attack and defense capability so powerful as to encourage aggressive designs." Kennedy then added:

"Were we to stand still while the Soviets surpassed us—or even appeared to surpass us—the free world's ability to deter, to survive and to respond to an all-out attack would be seriously weakened."

But, in spite of this, the President now wants to accept the written word of the Soviets and run the risk of further delays in America's testing.

Even more surprising perhaps was the President's carefully worded statement that "the exposure due to radioactivity from these (American) tests will be less than one-fiftieth of the difference which can be experienced, due to variations in natural radioactivity, simply by living in different locations in this country."

Yet millions of well-meaning, sincere and patriotic persons in this and other Western countries have been persuaded in the last five years by Soviet and pacifist propaganda and by misguided pronouncements of various scientists that atmospheric testing is a terrible danger to mankind.

Why hasn't our government—under this and the preceding administrations—debunked the idea before? Kennedy's address didn't clear up this phase of the confusion, either.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Youth's Physical Training Is Being Sadly Neglected

Most European schoolboys can chin themselves.

Most American schoolboys cannot.

So the physical education experts propose to omit this stunt from the standard tests to determine whether a boy is physically capable — say to qualify for a commission in the Army, Navy or Air Force.

DR. BRADY

After all, it seems pretty silly to build our national defense with material selected on such a basis. Even if a boy can't chin himself, he may still be able to press a button as well as the next fellow if our foreign aid programs should ever run dry and some disgruntled havenots start shooting.

The experts who would eliminate the chinning test did not explain why Europeans schoolboys make American schoolboys look like namby-pambies in actual performance. In Europe, they walk or run to and from school, and often for considerable distances. In America, they ride.

It is not the youngsters' fault that they are weak and steadily getting weaker. It is, I think, the fault of education. I mean to say their education is being sadly neglected. The physical part of it, that is.

KILLS RIGHT TO PLAY

Automobile traffic has virtually deprived youngsters in villages and in cities of the right to play. Playgrounds? Even getting to and from the playground involves hazard. Playgrounds clutter up the community, and they are noisy. The most elaborately equipped and staffed playground can scarcely compare with the street where you live and/or your own yard, neither of which is available today, except for the few kids lucky enough to live in a small village.

Dogs and kids brought up in villages or small towns lead the life of Riley — or maybe I should say they did so before everybody got a license to own a deadly weapon, the automobile.

Because such freedom to play has been lost, along with other freedoms we formerly enjoyed in Yankeeland, we parents and grandparents are morally bound to see to it that school children receive a course of physical training under competent teachers and that all school children, except those disabled by disease or defect, be required to do certain things to qualify for graduation — such as chin themselves, swim ten yards, turn a handspring or cartwheel or do six push-ups.

As so-called physical education is administered in most schools, there seems to be no definite course, no particular goal to aim for, and no specific examination or test at the end of the term to show whether the student has gotten anything worthwhile. This is scandalous — not just because it is wasteful but because it is unfair to the future citizens of America.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

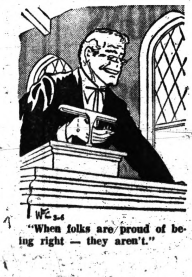
The Country Parson



"When folks are proud of being right — they aren't."

'Constitution Will Bring New Forms of Taxation'

As the constitutional convention enters its final phase of floor debate on the various proposals, people have been greatly disillusioned in that many needed revisions will not be realized except for the fact that the new constitution will do away with various tax rate limitations and will open the door to many new forms of taxation . . . city, county and state income taxes.

Thousands of Michigan citizens are waiting to hear from the one political leader of either major party or the city of Detroit on how he might reduce the cost of government.

I regret that the Detroit Metropolitan Mayors Committee, as well as the South Oakland Mayors Committee, has not formally gone on record opposing a city income tax. They know Detroit's desire for a city income tax and the state legislature's willingness to give Detroit what it wants. The state also is desirous of imposing a 3 per cent state income tax. The net result will be the small cities in Michigan being caught in the financial squeeze play, paying the greatest share of government cost at all levels besides paying their own city's cost.

'No Time to Waste in Improving City'

Unless some of the plans of improving Pontiac soon materialize, there's no need to bait the public with reduced bus fares and free parking. A large shopping mall with free parking, nice restaurants, convenient clean rest rooms, music, lights, etc., might turn the tide.

'Let's Share With K Then Dump Him'

So now Khrushchev wants to share our space technology. Doesn't this cost some doubt as to whether he ever had a man in orbit?

Feels Rick Ferrell Deserves 'Plaque'

A committee should be appointed to present to general manager Rick Ferrell of the Detroit Tigers, a tin plaque or leather medal for his generosity in signing Norm Cash, last year's batting champion, to the paltry sum of $29,000. He should get some sort of recognition for his efforts, when all the other so-called stars of the Tigers get considerable more for their cry-baby yearly showing in the league.

'We're All to Blame for Tragic Stories'

I am a cousin of Randy McDonald, "the gang leader," who was found dead Feb. 24. This letter is not a plea for the retraction of Randy's record, for if the truth is painful, one must learn to bear it.

A seed is not born to die, nor is a boy. These seeds, these children are entrusted to our care. It is our responsibility to see that the right combination of nourishment and environment take place. You can't blame the weeds or the "bad company" for they spring up whenever the environment is left untended. You can't blame the gardener nor one parent for the undernourished plant or deprived child, they did the best they could with what they had. Whom can you blame? Yourself—yes, every last one of you. I mean the whole community, the whole society, everyone who has ever seen a child in need and closed his eyes—the teachers, the mayors, the clergy, the policemen, the congressmen, yes, even the President, who has seen the needs of youth and answered, "I'm too busy, ask someone else." I don't condemn "you," society, without condemning myself, also. It's the self-realization, the truth that is hard to bear. For you and I are responsible for the tragic stories of boys like Randy — it was the lacking on our part that struck the fatal blow.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Don't Let Age Curtail Activity

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE L-450: Dr. Morgan Williams, aged 72, deserves a special salute.

For he retired last year from being an active minister. But he has such a dynamic, jolly disposition that he and his charming wife, Madeline, were invited to Hawaii.

DR. CRANE

A small group out there were meeting in private homes or a business building on Sunday, for lack of a church building.

So they asked Dr. Williams to come out and help them erect a church.

Remember, Dr. Williams is past 72, yet he gladly accepted this challenge.

He becomes a religious pioneer in Hawaii after most men are considered too old to be active.

"I belong to a bowling league," he told me at our Scientific Marriage Foundation luncheon just prior to his leaving, for he is one of the SMF Board members.

"Unfortunately, I don't have time to bowl but once per week so my average is only 164. But I could raise it at least 10 more points if I bowled more often," and he grinned.

BACK VS. BRAIN

Nowadays a strong back is not as valuable as an experienced brain.

Yet we are still imbued with the vicious idea that people should go on the shelf at the youthful age of 65.

Dr. A. C. Ivy, famous psychologist of the U. of Illinois Medical School, has figured that we should all be able to live as long as Biblical Moses—120 years.

So it is folly to deprive society of the brilliant brains and mature experience of topnotch leaders like Dr. Williams.

That's why the Hawaiians urged him as the Macedonians called St. Paul, to come over and revitalize religion for them.

Well, I would wager that Dr. Williams can do a better job than any 25-year-old seminary graduate!

Maybe Dr. Williams can't dig ditches or pitch hay or put the shot or throw the discus as far as younger college athletes.

But success nowadays is no longer based on a strong back!

It's trained brains and wide practical experience that count most.

Modern labor-saving machinery has eliminated the need for brawn. In fact, a frail farmer's wife can operate the tractor, the combine, truck and all other farm equipment with no strain on her 120-lb. feminine strength.

PAGE TOM COLLINS

Tom Collins, astute editor of the Chicago DAILY NEWS, has written a superb book on the "Golden Years," wherein he outlines many places where compulsorily retired men and women can invest their talents happily.

Down in St. Petersburg, they even have rival baseball clubs with membership limited to men ABOVE the age of 75. And those ball players would astound you with their spryness.

Maybe we should organize some "Brain and Experience" clubs so members above 65 could still compete in business with younger folks.

Certainly the taxpayers who finance Congress and our huge federal budget should thus be able to work as long as they can turn out first class service, regardless of calendar age.

Experts Will Examine Slab at Michigan Tech

Plan to Test Stone Believed Carved by Marquette

By LUISE LEESMER
Petoskey News Review
Written for the AP

ST. IGNACE — Tests are scheduled to get under way soon at the Michigan College of Mining and Technology's Sault branch to determine the authenticity of an inscribed limestone tablet, fished from a creek bed near Quincy, Ill.

It has been the object of study by historians, anthropologists, archaeologists and other experts for several years.

According to Emerson R. Smith of St. Ignace, president of the Michilimackinac Historical Society, many historians believe the slab may have been an altar stone in the mission erected in 1671 at St. Ignace by Father Marquette.

The limestone slab bears the date 1671, the figures of a cross in a reclining position, and the familiar religious symbols IHS.

BELIEVED JESUIT

It is believed that the markings are Jesuit and since the only happening of significance of missionaries in 1671 known to historians was the erection of the mission at St. Ignace, much effort has gone into the study of the stone to advance this theory.

The tests at Michigan Tech will either substantiate or shatter this belief.

Mosses and vegetation had preserved it well. Cook died later that year while investigating the stone, which he had labeled "The Ellington Stone" after the township in which it was found.

The story of his discovery died with him until late in 1958, when a rural mail carrier mentioned the unusual stone to a Quincy, Ill., hardware dealer, Leroy Politsch, an enthusiastic student of history. Politsch contacted the Cook family to see if the stone still was around and was told that it was.

The Cook family loaned it to Politsch for further study, and leading experts in Michigan and Illinois have teamed up since then to solve the riddle.

It was brought to St. Ignace in December by Smith and has been examined with great interest by Michigan's leading archaeologists, epigraphists and historians.

The tests at Michigan Tech will determine if it is of the same kind of limestone as found on the shoreline at St. Ignace, which is said to have definite and unique characteristics. Professor C. Ernest Kemp will direct the tests.

Smith said historians know of no other missionary who traveled down the Mississippi as early as 1671, and since Marquette did travel in that area with Jolliet in 1673 in quest of a shorter route to the Orient, he may have taken the 5½-pound marker with him for sentimental reasons.

He also visited the Illinois Indians, according to his diaries, and an Indian burial ground and many arrowheads and other relics have been found near the spot where the marker was discovered.

Epigraphists have confirmed that only someone with great skill and patience could have inscribed the Ellington Stone and few other than missionaries were skilled at writing at that period in history.

The symbols IHS, as inscribed on the stone, are the same as those on the guardposts surrounding Marquette's grave at St. Ignace.

Debate Use of Teachers Who Lack Certification

LANSING (AP) — Should non-certificated teachers be permitted to teach in Michigan's public schools if they are expert in the subjects to which they are assigned?

Sponsors of a bill to authorize school superintendents to hire teachers having no teaching certificate were accused Monday night of trying to degrade and undermine Michigan's school system.

Supporters contended that "false standards" and "some of the stupid education courses we have in this state" bar some highly qualified teachers from classrooms and force some districts to assign teachers to subjects in which they have little training.

In House debate, Republicans supported the measure and Democrats, backed by the State Department of Public Instruction, opposed it. A vote is scheduled this week.

The measure, defeated last year, would empower superintendents to hire noncertificated personnel on a year-to-year basis and permit them to teach only subjects in which they have at least one college degree.

Rep. Robert E. Waldron, R-Grosse Pointe, the chief sponsor, said public schools are unable to hire some of the best teaching talent because of certification regulations.

"Colleges don't require them," he said. "If we can't allow school superintendents to say who is competent to teach and who is not, then we'd better have a good look at our education system.

"This bill has all the necessary safeguards. Under our present system, a man with a Ph.D. degree is not permitted to teach unless he has taken some of the stupid education courses taught in this state."

Said Rep. Carroll C. Newton, R-Delton, a cosponsor:

"I know of a man who has spent a lifetime in the study of chemistry, who was head of research for a large industrial firm and who taught at Columbia University. Yet he is unable to teach high school chemistry. How ridiculous can you get?"

The bill is needed especially in small school districts where teachers are scarce, said Rep. Lester J. Allen, R-Ithaca.

Rep. Lucille H. McCollough, D-Dearborn, asserted that relaxing of standards "would degrade the teaching profession."

"Teachers need to know how to teach as well as what to teach," she said. "We should protect our teachers and maintain our standards."

Backs Proposal on Civil Rights

Committee at Con-Con Favors Move Blocked by Legislature

LANSING (AP) — A move to force the creation of a State Civil Rights Commission — long blocked in the legislature — has gained strong support in the constitutional convention.

The proposal, backed by the executive branch committee, will be offered from the floor when delegates begin consideration of the committee's recommendations, next on the agenda.

Support for the provision came at a dinner meeting of the committee Monday night. Some members expressed doubts about the value of a civil rights commission, but none dissented from the committee proposal.

"Within two years after the adoption of this constitution, the legislature shall establish a civil rights commission within the executive branch to secure the protection of the civil rights guarantee by this constitution," the proposal provides.

If the legislature failed to act during that period, the governor would then be required to establish such a commission.

The proposal was criticized by William Marshall, D-Taylor, as faulty in that it gives the legislature a free hand to establish a weak commission which could be extremely limited in scope.

Marshall's views were supported by James Pollock, R-Ann Arbor, who said that his experience has demonstrated that commissions usually are "long, narrow and wooden." He added:

"I'm not convinced this is the best way to enforce civil rights."

But the committee adopted the proposal after a Negro delegate, William O. Greene, a Detroit Democrat, declared:

"It's a step ahead. Let's have it."

Establishment of a civil rights commission was sought several times by former Gov. G. Mennen Williams. Bills seeking such a commission have died in the House State Affairs Committee for the past four years.

City Planning Units to Meet Wednesday

The City Commission meeting chambers at City Hall will be a busy place Wednesday night as the City Commission and planning commission both hold meetings there.

Both meetings are scheduled for 8 p.m. but the planners will hold off until commissioners have concluded their weekly meeting, being held one day later than normal due to the Pontiac Board of Realtors annual banquet tonight.

Commissioners will be asked to pass a resolution requesting the Oakland County Board of Supervisors to participate in development of Pontiac Municipal Airport.

The move to gain partial county financial support of the facility, turning it into a city-county airport, had been suggested informally last week.

At that time commissioners decided to forego a 1963 airport improvement program to await the airport master plan due in April and discuss a possible cooperative venture with the county.

REZONING ORDINANCE

An ordinance to rezone five residential lots at the southwest corner of Murphy Street and Elizabeth Lake Roads for personal service use, will be introduced for a first reading.

Commissioners approved the rezoning request several weeks ago, overruling an earlier recommendation to the contrary from the planning commission.

The major item on the planning commission's March agenda tomorrow will be a public hearing on a proposal to rezone a large tract of land along the east side of the Belt Line Railroad tracks from Perry Street to Featherstone Road.

The land is some 200 acres in size and most of it is presently zoned for manufacturing purposes. A study of the area by the city's planning staff resulted in a recommendation to rezone the land to residential for the development of neighborhood and park areas.

Most of the land is vacant at the present time.

B58 Jet Shatters 3 Speed Records, Many Windows

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An Air Force B58 bomber has broken three transcontinental speed records, uncounted dozens of windows and the tranquility of citizens along a 40-mile corridor from coast to coast.

The 1,300-m.p.h. jet made the trip Monday from Los Angeles to New York in 2 hours, 1 minute, took 26-plus minutes to turn around and refuel over the Atlantic, and streaked back here in 2 hours, 15 minutes.

Total elapsed time for the 4,900-mile, non-stop round trip: 4 hours, 42 minutes, 32 seconds.

Gen. Thomas S. Power, chief of the Strategic Air Command, told newsmen the flight "should impress any potential aggressors with the idea that we have a choice of weapons to win a decisive victory in the event that war is forced upon us."

He was less direct when asked who was going to pay for the windows broken by the sonic boom that trailed the B58. "The Air Force," he said, "will comply with the law of the land."

Recover 111 Bodies From African Swamp

DOUALA, Cameroon (AP)—Jungle patrols today completed the recovery of 111 bodies from the swamp surrounding the wreckage of the chartered British airliner that crashed here Sunday night.

"We had to climb into the trees to recover many bodies in the branches," said one officer.

Few of the victims could be identified immediately. It was 24 hours before many of the bodies could be found and pulled from the crocodile-infested jungle swamp a mile and a quarter from Douala Airport.

U.S. OKs Training for 200 State Jobless

LANSING (AP) — Job retraining programs for 200 unemployed stenographers and clerk-typists in Michigan have been approved by the U.S. Labor Department, Gov. Swainson said Monday.

The department will furnish $88,800 for subsistence allowances for trainees in Macomb and Wayne counties, the governor said. The U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare will furnish $27,840 for use of public education facilities for the program.

DO YOU THINK YOU ARE SAFELY DEPOSITING YOUR MONEY... WHEN YOU ARE ACTUALLY BUYING SHARES?

ONLY A BANK CAN ACCEPT DEPOSITS

A SAVINGS ACCOUNT IN A SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION IS NOT THE SAME AS A SAVINGS ACCOUNT IN A BANK!

Why gamble with the security of your family and savings? Banks give you a solid guarantee to remain in a sound and liquid condition. Their assets are kept sufficiently liquid to pay depositors on demand. Savings and Loan Associations* only promise — not guarantee — to have funds available to repurchase your shares. Most Savings and Loan Associations invest more than 95 per cent of the money received from the sale of their shares in long term real estate mortgage loans. As most homeowners realize, these mortgages cannot be readily converted into cash at a moment's notice, and especially during a financial crisis, when you need the money most. This is the major reason the law permits an Association to delay repurchasing shares when it does not have the funds available.

Has Four Overhaul Proposals

Khrushchev Calls for More Farming, More Industry

MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Khrushchev has called for a sweeping overhaul of the Soviet Union's agricultural system to provide more meat and other food for the expanding Soviet population.

Poor management of the Soviets collective farms has "seriously jeopardized" the country's agricultural program, Khrushchev warned in a six-hour speech Monday before the opening session of a Communist party Central Committee meeting called to approve new agricultural plans.

NIKITA PROPOSES

To cope with the mounting food shortage, Khrushchev proposed:

1. Planting about 55 million acres of grass land in corn, sugar beets, peas and fodder, despite objections from some agriculture experts that this departure from the traditional crop rotation system will result ultimately in less production.

2. Doubling production of farm machinery and encouraging the farmers to make better use of it.

3. Increasing production of chemical fertilizers now in critically short supply.

4. Increasing the farm labor force with city youths, including girls.

The premier warned that the Soviet population, now at 200 million, will reach between 250 and 280 million in the near future.

Failure to increase farm production accordingly will "confront the country with great difficulties and the cause of building communism will be seriously damaged," Khrushchev declared.

MEAT SCARCE

The Soviet premier noted complaints from various cities that there is little meat or butter for sale in shops.

"The fact is that we simply do not have enough meat," he said.

Khrushchev proposed setting up a new government agency to investigate thoroughly the needs of collective and state farms and direct the individual development of each farm.

The premier warned, however, that despite the need for a stepup in agricultural production, industry should not be neglected. Shortages in fertilizer and farm machinery are partly due to the fact that so much Soviet capital has been funneled into heavy industry in a bid to surpass U. S. industrial might.

"The imperialists of the United States," he said at one point, "are worried most of all by the program of the Communist party of the Soviet Union which has set the task of creating Communist abundance as opposed to capitalist abundance."

Biggest Change: 14 Precollege Years

Educators Urge Overhaul of Schools

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer

CHICAGO — There is so much to learn, and so little time in which to learn it, that American education must be retooled from top to bottom, some of the nation's top educators said today.

Oliver J. Caldwell of the U.S. Office of Education suggested, for instance, that the traditional 12 years of free public education should be extended to 14 years.

For some students, he said, the last two years would consist of semiprofessional or vocational education. For others it would be the start of advanced academic training.

Caldwell, in a prepared address to the 17th National Conference on Higher Education, also proposed a new and more rigorous college program.

2 YEARS AHEAD

Four-year liberal arts colleges should be established, he said, which would start about where the present junior year of college work begins.

Graduate work and professional education thus would be based on 18 years of formal education instead of the present 16, Caldwell said.

Caldwell said the present 12-year program of elementary and secondary education is not strong enough for an era in which the body of man's knowledge doubles every 15 years.

In another prepared paper, Prof. G. Baley price of the University of Kansas said that new developments in mathematics are bringing a radical change at all levels of education.

"In the past," Price said, "only the best of the universities in the United States have expected their freshmen to start with calculus and analytic geometry; but, in the future, almost all colleges and universities will demand this new standard, and almost all of their students will meet it.

"Furthermore, many high school students study calculus and begin their college mathematics at an even higher level."

Prof. Claude A. Welch of Michigan State University said U. S. colleges and universities must prepare themselves for more enlightened and critical students in the years ahead.

As an example, Welch cited the new 10th grade biology course which requires an understanding of concepts about energy, the atom and molecule, simple chemical reactions, and graphic analysis.

Newsman Named Public Affairs Head

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has selected a veteran newsman, Robert J. Manning, to be assistant secretary of state for public affairs.

Manning, 42, will succeed Roger W. Tubby, who has been named U.S. representative to several international organizations at Geneva.

Manning's new post pays $20,000 a year. After starting as a reporter on the Binghamton (N.Y.) Press, he later worked for The Associated Pres, the United Press, Time magazine, and was chief of the London bureau for Time, Life, Fortune and Sports Illustrated.

He was a free lance writer in Washington for a time last year, then became Sunday editor of the New York Herald Tribune.

Basketball Player in Hospital After Postgame Brawl

Robert Casteel, 6629 Northview Drive, was cut on the left arm and right side in a locker room fight at the high school.

Being held for investigation of felonious assault in the Oakland County Jail today was Allen Manley, 19, of 100 Clovese St.,

Manley and Casteel were members of opposing teams which had played a Recreation Department League game just before the assault took place at 8:30 p.m.

Manley, who denied having a knife in his possession, was treated for a one-inch cut on his hand at Pontiac General Hospital before he was jailed.

Witten Faces Prison; Probation for Aide?

BIG RAPIDS (UPI)—Alfred H. Witten, whose pose as a college professor helped him swindle area banks and merchants of an estimated $20,000, faced a long prison term today but his accomplice was apparently to receive probation.

Whitten said in a letter to Gov. Swainson he was "very Monday by Circuit Court Judge Harold Van Domelen on a charge of obtaining a 1962 auto under false pretenses.

Ervin J. Hackert, 20, was free on his own recognizance following a lengthy private conference with the judge.

The Ludington man, who has been a junior at Ferris Institute until he slipped out of town with the school's assistant professor of secretarial science, was told he was to reappear in court April 11.

JFK May Spend Next Weekend in Miami Area

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy may spend the weekend in the Miami area. He has a date to address a fund-raising dinner for Florida Democrats at Miami Beach Saturday night.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said the dinner would honor Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., among others.

No weekend plans were announced, but it was learned the President is considering the idea of spending a couple of days in the Miami neighborhood.

Why wait for the law to make these new brakes a "must"?
DRAMATIC SIDE-BY-SIDE TEST PROVES THAT RAMBLER'S DOUBLE-SAFETY BRAKES STOP WHEN OTHERS FAIL!
Supervised by the Metropolitan Public Safety Dept., Dade County, Miami, Florida—it demonstrates what happens in case of brake damage.
First, paper barriers were set up a few feet beyond stop signs at the supervisors' observation point. Then, mechanics simulated brake damage by cutting one hydraulic line in each of two standard production-line cars—a 1962 Rambler and a 1962 competitor's car. Cars were then started up in their individual lanes, and the drivers slammed on the brakes on signal from the supervisors.
You can see the results for yourself: The Rambler stopped; the competitive car crashed through the barrier.

When other car's single hydraulic line was cut, all fluid leaked out. Brakes were completely useless. Car crashed through.
If one is damaged, the other works
You see, Rambler's new Double-Safety Brake System has tandem master cylinders, with one hydraulic system for front brakes, and one for rear brakes. They operate in unison. But if one is damaged, the other still works! Without this new safety device, all four brakes in ordinary hydraulic systems will fail if even one line should be damaged and lose fluid.
What it's worth to have these new brakes in an emergency cannot be measured in dollars. Yet, they're standard equipment on all 1962 Ramblers—no other U.S. car at any price except Cadillac.
An obviously better value
Some day all cars may have this double measure of stopping safety. But, important as they are, Double-Safety Brakes are only one of more than 100 advancements—for increased safety and reduced maintenance—that make Rambler an obviously better value in product and price.
Highest owner loyalty
Because quality is an obsession with Rambler... because Rambler doesn't make useless annual style changes but concentrates on basic improvements . . . because American Motors believes in sharing its progress . . . Rambler has the finest record of owner loyalty in the business.
As auto expert Tom McCahill of Mechanix Illustrated magazine puts it: "I've never met a Rambler owner who wasn't satisfied—a statement I can't make about any other car."
The word gets around. And more and more people are switching to Rambler. In the four months since the 1962 Ramblers were introduced, sales were highest in history for any similar period!
Easy way to compare
The X-Ray Books available at your Rambler dealer's (see box below) will show that, with Rambler, you get quality in every detail, not just where it shows; that the 1962 Rambler gives you an estimated value bonus of up to $434 over other comparable cars.

Meet Date but See Her Home Later

By the Emily Post Institute

Q: Will you please answer the following question in regard to transportation when dating. My feelings are these: If a girl lives in a remote part of the city and she agrees to meet the young man at a convenient spot, it shows consideration and common sense on her part.

If a date occurring during a weekday ends very late and taking the girl home would entail a good deal of time and additional expense of taxi fare, it is entirely proper for the man to put the lady in a taxi and pay for her transportation home.

On a weekend, however, I feel that unless there is a very good excuse the man should escort her home regardless of how much time it entails.

My friend strongly disagrees with me and says that a man must take the girl home regardless of cost, time or inconvenience and that only under rare circumstances should she meet him at a convenient place. I would appreciate your comments.

A: Your friend is right. Meeting at a convenient place is permissible if there is good and sufficient reason for doing so, but he must always see her safely home.

Q: While my male friend and I were dining in a restaurant, a man and wife I know well entered and occupied a table nearby. My friend had never met them. On leaving, we had to pass their table.

My friend knew I planned to stop and say "hello" to them and I expected he would stop with me, but he walked right by them. I think he showed very bad manners and that it was a direct snub to my friends. What is your opinion

A: If you said nothing about wishing him to meet your friends and did not stop him as he walked on, he was not wrong in doing so.

Q: When a large tray with an assortment of hors d'oeuvres is passed around at a cocktail party for guests to help themselves, is it proper to take more than one at a time?

A: You take just one each time the hors d'oeuvres are passed to you.

Honeymoon After 2 Area Weddings

Perform Kouvatas Nuptials

MRS. MICHAEL N. KOUVATAS

MRS. CARL W. SOLDEN

On a Caribbean cruise are Michael N. Kouvatas and his bride, the former Evelyn Theresa Ryeson, who pledged nuptial vows Sunday afternoon before Rev. Gus Tsompanas in St. George Greek Orthodox Church.

Receiving with the newlyweds in the Hillcrest Country Club, Mt. Clemens, were their parents, the Abraham Ryesons of Elizabeth Lake Road, with Mr. and Mrs. Nick Kouvatas, Camden, N.J.

ATTEND COUSIN

Attending their cousin were Mrs. Thomas Nicholas, matron of honor, and Stella Williams and Christine George, serving as bridesmaids with Mrs. Christopher Stevens, Bloomfield Hills, Antigone Papanichola and the bride's sister-in-law Mrs. Robert Ryeson.

BROCADE AND CHIFFON

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ryeson chose beige brocade and white jeweled satin pill-box hat. The mother of the bridegroom wore rose lace and chiffon. Their corsages were white Cattleya orchids.

Mr. Kouvatas, who was graduated from Rutgers University School of Law, New Brunswick, N.J., and his bride will reside in Camden.

Soldens on Trip in North

The Carl W. Soldens, who exchanged wedding vows Saturday afternoon in the Christ Lutheran Church, Waterford Township, left for a honeymoon in northern Michigan and Wisconsin after a church reception. Rev. James W. Hechler of Hooversville, Pa., uncle of the bridegroom, performed the ceremony.

Parents of the bridal couple are Waterford Township residents Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Schulz of Jerose Street and the Carl Soldens of Tull Court.

Fingertip veiling of silk illusion, caught by a seed pearl crown, complemented a gown of ivory Chantilly lace over taffeta, worn by the bride, the former Bonnie Schulz. She held a semicascade of white carnations and lilies of the valley.

Bridesmaids Joan Menzer and Barbara Jarrell of Waterford Township appeared in mint green taffeta with bouffant overskirt. All attendants wore short veiled headpieces and carried yellow rosebuds and white carnations arranged in semicascades.

Hope They Do, Abby Says:

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My 13-year-old daughter went to her first school dance last night and when she came home she said, "It wasn't much fun for the girls who didn't have nerve enough to ask the boys to dance. The boys just sat there and waited for the girls to ask them."

Abby, is this proper nowadays? Do you think girls should ask boys to dance? Or am I old-fashioned?

OLD-FASHIONED

DEAR OLD: It is no more proper today for a girl to ask a boy to dance (except for ladies' choice) than it was years ago. This is where "pushy" girls get their start. Tell your daughter to let the boy take the lead; and I hope mothers of sons read this and encourage their boys to ASK girls to dance.

ABBY

DEAR ABBY: Last week one of the girls in our office walked in and announced that she had changed her name from Annie to Audrey.

We took it as a joke, but she was very serious. For 6 years this girl has been "Annie" to all of us, and it is not easy to start calling her "Audrey" all of a sudden.

If we call her "Annie," she will not answer. Do you think she is all there? What should we do? We are—

THOROUGHLY DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: Call her "Audrey" and make her happy.

DEAR ABBY: My boy friend gave me an ankle bracelet for Valentine's Day. I knew where he bought it, so when I discovered it wouldn't go around my ankle I took it back and tried to get a larger size. They told me ankle bracelets come in only one size. I can't wear it and I feel terrible. I don't want to tell my boy friend my ankle is too big for the bracelet. I am 15 and weigh 155 pounds, so maybe that's why. What do you suggest?

TOO FAT

DEAR TOO FAT: If the ankle bracelet fits your wrist, wear it as a bracelet. And ask your mother to ankle you over to a doctor for a good diet.

Still worrying about the same old problem? Write to Abby for a personal reply. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Bringing Up Baby®

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

It's the rare and unusual toddler who doesn't have a temper tantrum from time to time. It's the wise mother who controls her own anger before disciplining the child. A few antidotes for toddler tantrums:

- Plenty of rest. Do not let baby get over-tired or over-stimulated before bedtime.
- Plenty of freedom. Outdoors or indoors, a toddler should have a chance to play without over-strict supervision.
- Try to avoid situations that are likely to produce tantrums. Use distraction when storm signals do appear.
- When the tempest is over, let your child know you love him.

Toddlers, creepers or babes-in-arms all benefit from fruits and vegetables for the vitamins and minerals they supply. Gerber Strained and Junior Fruits and Vegetables are specially made to make your tykes like to eat these important foods. What's more, they're cooked in the absence of air to preserve the utmost in flavor and nutritive goodness.

If your baby or toddler is going through an anti-milk stage, you can get extra milk into a reluctant drinker by serving Gerber Custard Puddings, Cottage Cheese with Pineapple and putting extra milk on Gerber Cereals.

Cute "train of thought". To make a cost-nothing train for your toddler, just string several empty Gerber Cereal boxes together, leaving a good length for pulling. Makes a swell "choo-choo" worth hours of fun.

Cover story for cherubs. Gerber Baby pants are made of soft, soft, polyvinyl-film that won't stiffen for the life of the pants. Amply cut to allow for growth. Machine washable; medium, large, extra-large. Pull-on or snap-on styles. Gerber Products Company, Fremont, Michigan.

U.N. Forces Alerted After Katanga Clash

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (AP) — U.N. forces in the Kamina area have been put on the alert following a 90-minute clash between a U.N. patrol and Katanga gendarmes and observation of large-scale movement by the Katanga forces.

U.N. spokesman Didik Lehmkuhl, denied Katanga President Moise Tshombe's charge that 1,200 U.N. troops attacked the gendarmes in Kaminaville Monday. He said gendarmes ambushed a U.N. patrol and that there were less than 12 men in the patrol, not 1,200.

Tshombe claimed the U.N. troops attacked with heavy mortars and artillery and that there was an undetermined number of dead on both sides. Lehmkuhl said there were no U.N. casualties.

Says Shortages Proof of Failure of Communism

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Food shortages in Soviet Russia and Red China are proof of the failure of communism in the most essential of all production, W. Averell Harriman told the Commonwealth Club Monday.

Harriman, assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs, compared Japan's 50 per cent agricultural production increase since 1952-54 with the food shortage in Red China and said Red China's situation results from "communism's failure to understand that agricultural production must be based on incentives to free men."

Harriman spoke here en route to the Far East.

Annual Cage 'Madness' Starts Here Tonight

By BILL CORNWELL

Michigan's annual schoolboy "madness" begins tonight.

The 1962 state high school basketball tournament starts a three-week run throughout Michigan with championships in four classes at the end of the glory road.

But the trail is long and hard and many a fine prep quintet will bite the dust in this single-elimination marathon before state titles are finally determined on Saturday, March 24, at MSU's Jenison Fieldhouse in East Lansing.

Oakland County area cagers swing into the spirit of things this evening to lift the lid on district action.

Several local teams hit the district path tonight with most of the attention focused on Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern.

A two-game program inaugurates an eight-team Class A district tourney on the PNH court.

Host Northern meets Birmingham Brother Rice in the 7 o'clock opener, followed by an 8:30 duel between Waterford Kettering and Bloomfield Hills.

The other half of the PNH field tips off Wednesday when Pontiac Central meets Birmingham Seaholm at 8:30, preceded by a 7 o'clock contest between Birmingham Groves and the Waterford Skippers.

Those two winners tangle Saturday at 8 p.m. with the survivor also going to the Bentley regional.

Class B district play, involving five teams, gets under way this evening at PCH with Clawson facing West Bloomfield at 7:30 in a single attraction. Tomorrow evening Class C takes the spotlight at PCH.

Two other area district events are drawing considerable attention.

TWO AT CLARKSTON

A Class B doubleheader is on the docket at Clarkston where the host Wolves face Romeo in an 8:30 nightcap after Avondale plays Lake Orion at 7 p.m.

Royal Oak Shrine and Oxford complete the Clarkston field and this could be one of the best district tourneys in the territory.

Interest is also centered on Milford where unbeaten Northville, South Lyon, Brighton and the host Redskins will square off.

The program opens tonight with a 7:30 contest between favored Northville and South Lyon. Milford battles Brighton tomorrow at 7:30 with the winners colliding Friday at the same hour for the crown.

The Milford district survivor enters next week's Class B regional on the Pontiac Northern floor.

Other district tournaments in the spotlight are scheduled at Port Huron, Swartz Creek, Rochester, Ferndale and Livonia Bentley.

Imlay City, apparently destined to lock horns with mighty Capac in district warfare, will be a prohibitive favorite to maul Almont in its Class C opener at Port Huron this evening.

Ortonville is a heavy underdog in its battle with highly rated Perry at Swartz Creek, also in the "C" ranks, and Pontiac Emmanuel is considered an even match for Richmond St. Augustine in "D" at Rochester.

Southfield tackles Redford Union in Class A at Bentley and an "A" twin bill is slated at Ferndale where RO Kimball fights Oak Park and Highland Park duels Hamtramck.

Special Winter Exercises Keep Mossi Going

Don Sets Sights on 1st Season of 20 Victories

By BRUNO J. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

LAKELAND, Fla.—Tiger trainer Jack Homel and pitcher Don Mossi are almost neighbors in their hometown of Redwood City, Calif., and like good neighbors and loyal Tigers the pair have set a goal of 20 wins for Mossi this season.

The hard-working left hander has never had a 20-game season of victories. He won 17 in his first full season with Detroit in 1959 after coming from Cleveland as a relief pitcher in a winter trade.

In 1960 under Jimmy Dykes, Mossi posted a 9-8 record but in August of that year he headed home to California with a bad shoulder. It looked like the end of the trail for Mossi.

During the winter of 1960-61 he and Homel set up some exercises to strengthen his arms and shoulders. He reported to camp early in 1961, but new manager Bob Scheffing wasn't convinced that Mossi was able of take his turn in sequence pitching. With Homel as his watchdog, Mossi worked hard in spring camp and insisted he be given the chance to pitch every four days like the other starters.

MANAGER AGREED

Scheffing went along with his wish and Mossi ended with a 15-7 record and the third best earned-run average in the league at 2.96.

Now Mossi is 32 years old and after another winter of exercises as supervised by Homel, he has been enjoying his best spring camp of his career, and Scheffing is first to recognize this.

"Mossi can do plenty with that ball. He usually puts it right where he wants it," said Scheffing.

"Mossi is the type of pitcher who can give up 12 hits and only one run," Sheffing added, "and there are very few pitchers who I'd talke before Don with the bases loaded and nobody out."

With the first exhibition game set for Saturday against the Milwaukee Braves in Lakeland, Scheffing hasn't committed himself as to the starter, but a good guess is that Mossi will be ready to take the mound in the first inning.

The Tigers had a very quiet day as the squad was split for workouts at Henley Field and Tigertown Monday.

Today most of the day is being spent with newsreel cameramen making a tour of the Florida camps.

Wednesday, the Tigers will play their second intrasquad game and Scheffing has chosen Phil Regan, Ron Nischwitz, Hank Aguirre, Fred Gladding, Doug Galagher and Frank Lary to throw two innings each for George Myatt's Gray squad and Phil Cavaretta's White squad.

ROCKY AT BAT

Rocky Colavito got in his first full day of workouts Monday but had a hard time getting the ball out of the infield. He took 16 cuts at the ball and the best for his efforts was one long fly to left center.

Campbell Takes 6th in Pro Golf Earnings

Campbell picked up $2,800 to give him a total of $7,951 in prize money for 1962, according to Professional Golfing Association headquarters.

SPORTS

GETS INTO SWING — Rocky Colavito, Detroit Tigers' slugging outfielder, takes a full cut at the ball as he swings for the first time in spring training. Colavito, a holdout, signed his contract Sunday and immediately reported for practice.

Answers From Lakeland

The Tiger Question Box

(Questions on the Tigers should be sent to Bruno L. Kearns, Pontiac Press, New Florida Hotel, Lakeland, Fla. Letters should be sent air mail and all those received through Thursday, March 8th, will be answered.)

Is Vic Wertz destined only for a pinch hitting role?

Monti Porrier
Pontiac

Manager Scheffing: Wertz has as much chance to play first as Cash or Osborne. Every job is always wide open and goes to the one who is doing the best job at the time. Of course Wertz gives us good bench and strong pinch hitting, but there will be times when Vic will be important to us playing regular.

Is Bill Freehan really big league material or will he turn out to be another Frank House?

Marty McKenna
Waterford

Manager Scheffing: I wasn't around here to make any evaluation on House when he came up with the Tigers. I am sure that Freehan has good major league qualities and we definitely are going to try to bring out those qualities so that he can help this ball club.

Were the Tigers really serious about using Don Wert, the rookie of the year in the minors, in a trade for Pedro Ramos?

Jim Newbanks
Pontiac

Manager Scheffing: We are high on Wert. Pedro Ramos may have been mentioned but not Wert.

Do the Tigers actually think that catching staff is so strong that they can challenge the Yanks with it?

Frank Sikora
Pontiac

Manager Scheffing: Our catching is less of a problem this year than it was a year ago. We did not know what Brown and Roarke would really do in the season, but I think they certainly have proven themselves. We've got a young staff and they had some tough breaks last year with injuries. We don't hope to challenge the Yankees with just our catching, we hope to challenge them as a team.

Do you think Willie Horton and Jackie Moore will be the catchers on our top farm club? They say we have the best pitching staff in the league, do you think this is a safe statement to make?

Colin Jackson
Keego Harbor

Manager Scheffing: Horton is an outfielder not a catcher. He and Moore will be on our higher farm teams, where I don't know. It is too early to tell.

As for our pitching staff, we never said it was the best in the league. We do say that we have the best STARTING pitchers in the league. We need another starter and bullpen help, when we get this we can say we have the best pitching staff in the league.

What do you think will be the opening day lineup?

Jim Sloan
Rochester
(plus several others)

Manager Scheffing: You answer that, Bruno. On paper it shouldn't be difficult, but what happens between now and April 9th can certainly change the picture. KEARNS: Starting lineup as it appears would have Cash at first, Wood at second, Fernandez at short, Boros at third, Kaline in right, Bruton in center, Colavito in left, Brown catching and Lary pitching.

President Proclaims Safe Boating Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy, a boating enthusiast, Monday proclaimed the week starting July 1 as National Safe Boating Week.

Kennedy said that millions of Americans take part in recreational boating, that it is a healthy, outdoor sport, and the increased public interest calls for "greater attention to courtesy and safety" to minimize incidents of the type which often lead to accidents.

300, Clarkston Gain Tonight's City Finals

League champion 300 Lounge will meet tourney conqueror CIO in the "A" final at 8:30 following Buckner Clarkston Methodist battle. Buckner took Clarkston last week.

300 bounced back Monday by eliminating Newman AME, 91-79. Larry Peet and Felix Brooks scored 10 each in a 33-point 1st period to get things rolling. Brooks totaled 18 and Peet 16. J. Williams swished 18, John Bandy and M. Taylor 17 each in defeat.

Clarkston came from behind in the 2nd quarter to pull away and then held off a big Southwest Trojan comeback for a 69-64 win led by D. Picmann with 18. A. Manley topped the Trojans with 21.

In Class C, action got started with the Wallace Cutters downing Pontiac Police 58-50 and Town and Country taking Colonial Lumber, 48-33. The teams will be idle now until Saturday.

The Wallace five led all the way topped by Bud Hayward's 19 digits. Joe Wilson had one less for the police. Colonial was in front after one quarter but that was it. Rog Reynolds' 13 sparked balanced T & C. Bill Dunstan matched it for the losers.

Jo Jo's gained Wednesday night's "D" title round by nipping Victor Paints 45-44 on Milford Hillie's long swisher at the final buzzer. Hiller was high for the game with 17. Dave Bourgeau headed Victor with 14. The losers were ahead after each of the 1st three periods.

The Paint cagers can get another shot at Jo Jo's by beating Tuck's Trotters tonight at 7 at Lincoln. Tuck's advanced on a forfeit over the Bombers.

Detroit T-Birds ABC Record Threat Tonight at Des Moines

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—The Priority Mfg. Corp. team of Cleveland, fell eight pins short of the Classic Division record in the American Bowling Congress Tournament Monday night but its 6-game score of 5975 was enough to lead the professional category.

The Ohioans finished their two-day stint with a 985-942-1057—2984 series. Ernie Kovachs led the assault with a 698 series. The team shot 2991 Sunday night in the opening block. Priority went far ahead of the previous leaders, Bill Dreiling Motors of Denver, which had totaled 5885 on Feb. 24.

The record for the Classic Division is the 5983 total which won the inaugural of the professional class last year for Brentwood Bowl of San Francisco.

Continental Taillights, another Detroit club, also made a quick getaway by shooting 2989 in its first Classic Division inning.

Hull Nears Bathgate in NHL Point Duel

Official league statistics showed today that Hull picked up six points—four of them goals—in three games for a season total of 76. Bathgate was held to two points, also in three outings, for 78.

Gordie Howe of the Detroit Red Wings and Stan Mikita of Chicago both were held to a single point and remain tied for third with 68 points apiece.

Gophers Defeat 'M'

By The Associated Press

The best Michigan's Wolverines can hope for this Big Ten basketball season is to finish up in a seventh-place tie with Minnesota.

Minnesota saw to this last night in crushing the Wolverines 102-80 in Minneapolis as junior forward Eric Magdanz broke Gopher single game and season scoring records.

If they had won last night, the Wolverines, mired in eighth place in the conference standings, would have taken over the seventh spot from the Gophers, who finished their league season last night.

Magdanz finished with 42 points to erase George Kline's school record of 40 for a single game, set against Iowa in 1957. Magdanz's total also gave him 352 points for the season in the Big Ten to wipe out the 348 set by Dick Garmaker in 1955.

Helping the Gophers' were the 16 points each tossed in by Tom McGrann and Bob Bateman. Michigan's high man was John Osterbaan who had 22, 18 of them in the second half.

WINS PLAYOFF

Ferris Institute won a spot in a post-season basketball tournament last night by scoring a surprisingly easy 74-60 victory over powerful Northern Michigan at Mt. Pleasant.

The triumph earned the cagers from Big Rapids the Michigan berth in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics small college tournament, which starts March 1 at Kansas City.

Ferris ran up an early lead and held a 33-18 halftime lead.

Mike Bohnet scored 24 for the Bulldogs for top scoring honors, while Bob Armstead was high for Northern with 10 points.

In-and-out Colorado is in again—in solid control of the Big Eight basketball chase, that is.

The Buffaloes, getting a big assist from Oklahoma State, have regained the conference lead and are now only one step away from the NCAA tourney, a berth they apparently had lost for good in a defeat by potent Kansas State last week.

But Oklahoma State found the Wildcats, ranked third in the nation, looking the other way Monday night and registered a 73-68 upset. It was the first time the Cowboys had beaten Kansas State in 19 games.

Kansas State dropped into second place in the conference with an 11-2 mark. Colorado, which beat Missouri 73-64, now is 12-1. Each has one game left. Kansas State must beat Nebraska Wednesday to retain a chance for a tie while Colorado, which led most of the season only to fail in the last couple of weeks, can win it all with a victory over Kansas Saturday.

Kansas State was only one of three nationally ranked teams which suffered upsets last night, but the Wildcats' loss may have been the most costly.

Sixth-ranked Bradley was nipped 73-72 by Duquesne, but it didn't effect the Braves' tie for the top in the Missouri Valley Conference. They meet Cincinnati in a one-game playoff for the conference title and the NCAA spot.

The loser goes to the NIT.

Loyola of Chicago, which just moved into the No. 10 spot nationally, fell before Xavier of Ohio 96-89. Loyola, however, is an independent and was passed over for the at-large spots in the NCAA. Only Kentucky, No. 4, of the nationally ranked teams in action Monday night, came through on schedule. The Wildcats, already headed for the NCAA, rolled over Tulane 97-72 and increased their record to 21-2 for the season.

Duquesne sophomore Willie Somerset hit 27 points, including nine important points in the last five minutes, to lead the charge against surprised Bradley. Xavier led most of the way and fought off a late Loyola rally to fashion the other major upset.

Breaks Ankle; Ramos, Sanford Sign

Reds Lose Freese

By The Associated Press

Manager Freddie Hutchinson of the National League champion Cincinnati Reds is faced with his first on-the-field crisis today. He must try and find a replacement for slugging third baseman Gene Freese.

Freese broke an ankle in the Reds' intra-squad game Monday and Hutchinson immediately indicated that he would give rookie Cliff Cook the chance to take over.

FLUNKED TWICE

The 25-year-old infielder already has flunked two tests with the Reds, but may just have been a slow starter. He was voted the American Association's most valuable player last year, playing for Indianapolis, where he batted .311 and slammed 32 home runs.

Cook's home run potential will be vitally needed to compensate for the loss of the 28-year-old Freese, who doctors say will miss the first two months of the season. Freese had his finest major league season in helping the Reds to the pennant. He hit .277, slammed 26 homers and drove in 87 runs after being acquired from the Chicago White Sox.

Cook was mentioned last week as bait to get Don Demeter from the Philadelphia Phillies, who need a third baseman now that Andy Carey has decided to retire. The Phils traded Charley Smith to the White Sox during the winter for Carey, and Phils' manager Gene Mauch has been grooming Demeter for the spot.

General Manager John Quinn of the Phils said Monday, before learning of Freese's injury, "We are not interested in Cliff Cook."

It's a cinch that Hutchinson doesn't feel the same way.

RAMOS SIGNS

Pitchers Jack Sanford and Pete Ramos felt interested enough about the coming season to sign their contracts Monday. Sanford signed at San Francisco's Phoenix, Ariz., camp for a reported $25,000, a token raise for his 13-9 record. Ramos of Washington ended his holdout by taking a slight cut from the $20,000 he got a year ago. Ramos had an 11-20 American League record and led in gopher balls with 39.

Pitcher Bob Belinsky of the Los Angeles Angels also signed for the major league minimum of $6,000 which will be boosted to $7,000 if he still is with the team 30 days after the season begins. He had protested that he was being treated unfairly by the Angels.

Boston Red Sox outfielder Gary Geiger was back in uniform despite a painful shoulder injury, but pitcher Ted Wills was still sidelined by a shin injury suffered last Saturday.

NCAA Sets Program Minus AAU Support

CHICAGO (AP) — Armed with the support of athletic organizations at all levels, the National Collegiate Athletic Association was prepared today to complete its federation program.

With the exception of the Amateur Athletic Union, representatives from national organizations, college athletic conference and high schools throughout the nation Monday backed the NCAA federation plan.

Walter Byers, executive director of the NCAA, said a time limit would be set today for all organizations to join the federation program. This would, of course, include the AAU and the armed forces if they wished to join.

While the armed forces were represented at Monday's meeting by Capt. Asbury Coward, athletic director at the U.S. Naval Academy, who attended as an impartial observer, the AAU lived up to its previous announcements that it would not attend.

Saginaw, 15-0 for the season, topped the Class A poll by a much narrower margin than last week—92 points to 84 for Detroit Eastern. Detroit Northwestern held third with 70 poll points.

River Rouge held its top spot in Class B, rolling up 89 points to beat Northville, 68, and Escanaba Holy Name, 53.

Capac led Class C with 86 points. Perry had 70 and Imlay City 61.

In Class D, Champion remained on top with 87 points. Flint St. Matthew polled 70 and Britton 55. Saginaw plays another undefeated team, Alpena, Wednesday in the tournament. Alpena drew enough votes for No. 11 spot in the AP Class A poll.

Detroit Eastern (14-1) opens its tournament play Thursday against the winner of the Detroit Denby-Detroit DeLaSalle game.

Lions and Lary Punting Champs

NEW YORK (AP)—The Detroit Lions and Yale Lary wrapped up the two major punting titles in the National Football League during the 1961 season, according to official league statistics released today.

The Lions won the team title with a 47.6 mark and Lary was the individual leader with 48.4. The Lions succeeded the St. Louis Cardinals, who had 4.9 for the 1960 season, led by Jerry Norton's 45.6 mark.

St. Louis finished third in 1961 with 4.7. Norton, who announced his retirement after the season, handled all 85 Cardinal punts for the team average.

Lary handled all but four for the Lions in 1961. He was followed by Pittsburgh's Bobby Joe Green, 47.0, and Tommy Davis of San Francisco, 45.4.

Green also handled all of the Steelers punts as they finished second. San Francisco was fourth with a 44.6 mark and New York fifth with 43.9.

Norton's 85 punts were tops and his 78 yard kick against St. Louis on Nov. 5, was the longest.

OSU Not Unanimous but Still Tops Poll

By The Associated Press

Ohio State suffered the most stunning upset of the college basketball season Saturday but the Buckeyes still hold a firm grip on the top ranking in this week's Associated Press poll.

However, for the first time in 12 weeks the Bucks were not unanimous choice for No. 1. They received 40 first-place votes from the panel of experts, Mississippi State picked up 3, and Cincinnati got the other two.

Wisconsin's hustling Badgers pinned the surprising setback on Ohio State, spoiling the Bucks' chances for a perfect season with an 86-67 victory at Madison. The loss was Ohio State's first in 23 starts this season and ended its Big Ten Conference winning streak at 27 games.

ONE GAME

The Buckeyes, who have one game remaining against Indiana Saturday, piled up 444 points on a basis of 10 for a first, nine for a second and so on. They were given four seconds and one third.

Cincinnati's Bearcats, who closed out their regular season with a 61-58 decision over Xavier, Ohio, for a 24-2 record, gained 32 votes for second and stayed in the runner-up spot with 392 points. Kansas State in third, Kentucky in fourth, Mississippi State in fifth and Bradley in sixth also kept the spots they held last week.

Utah's Skyline champions climbed three places to seventh, Bowling Green and Duke each slipped one notch, and Loyola of Chicago took over tenth from Colorado.

The rankings, based on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 tabulation (First place votes and seasons records through Saturday in parenthesis):

Help Your Child Succeed in School

Goal Necessary to Spur Study Program

By LESLIE J. NASON, D. ED.
Professor of Education,
University of Southern California

Picture a farmer in the early morning with his horses at the watering trough. He wants to get into the fields and get on with the plowing. But the horses won't drink.

DR. NASON

He coaxes them; he orders them. He loses his temper and rams their noses into the water. But they snort and pull back.

"You can lead a horse to water but you can't make him drink."

Parents sometimes have a similar experience with their children. They provide them with books and the opportunity to go to a good school but the youngsters won't study. At least, not enough.

Parents often ask: "What can I do to get my child to study?"

Students say: "I know that I should study but I just don't."

Perhaps the student needs a set of goals as to what and how he will study.

Students with specific vocational goals make better grades than students without goals. And they enjoy better mental health than those who drift.

In a study of highly successful high school students, I found they had five attributes in common:

They had determined on a goal.

They planned to go to college.

They knew their parents expected them to attend college.

They felt it was possible to attain their goals.

These were all "A" students. The "B" and "B-plus" students had three or four but not all five attributes. Students with lower grades lacked two or more.

OBJECTIVE HELP

Some parents have arranged for conferences between their children and other adults. An outsider can often be more objective and thus give sound advice.

I know two fathers who talk to each other's children. This seems natural and off-hand to the children and produces good results in both families.

Many students have reported to me that their life's plans were established after they had got a job, even though it might only be to earn spending money after school.

If pupils have not selected goals by the time they are in high school, it is well to check their academic work. Find out why they are doing poorly in some subjects.

My experience has been that once a child has become successful in a troublesome subject, his grades improve and he becomes goal-minded.

It is far more important that the child be goal-minded than that he keep goals.

Goals are long-range plans. They need not be permanent.

The earlier a parent instills the idea of being a planner in a child, the easier it is to bring about.

Still Searching for Flight Box

75 Pct. of Jet Wreckage Being Reconstructed for Crash Probers

NEW YORK (UPI) — A yellow, basketball-sized flight recorder was the elusive target today for investigators searching for clues to the mysterious crash of an American airlines jet Thursday with the loss of 95 live.

The missing recorder took on increased significance following a report by the Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) that special flight tests on a Boeing 707 jetliner over Oklahoma City failed to produce any key to the mystery.

The tests recreated a number of control failures as possible causes of the accident. An FAA spokesman said the test plane "performed as expected" in every case.

Despite disappointment in the failure to locate the recorder, Edward E. Slattery Jr., chief information officer of the Civil Aeronautics Board, expressed satisfaction Monday with the progress made in recovering the plane.

He said about 75 per cent of the wreckage had been recovered from the swamp at the edge of Jamaica Bay.

RECONSTRUCT PLANE

Reconstruction of the plane is an important procedure to investigators who hope to discover the cause of the crash.

Four bodies taken from the crew compartment of the wreckage were removed to Bellevue morgue for autopsies. Authorities are anxious to determine if any might have been stricken just before the ill-fated jet made its fatal plunge.

Draft Will Take 38 Oakland Men in April Callup

A total of 38 Oakland County men will be among the 400 draftees scheduled to report for Army induction next month in the state's smallest draft callup of the year.

Included in the April draft will be 11 men from Pontiac Local Board No. 65, five from Local Board No. 331 and three from Local Board No. 67.

Pontiac draftees will report for induction April 2 while men from boards 331 and 67, both serving this area, will be inducted April 5 and April 10, respectively.

Local Board 328 in Farmington will call two men. There will be one inducted from Local Board 66, five from Board 321 and seven from Board 323, all headquartered in Royal Oak.

Guard and Reserve Callup Worked OK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John D. Stennis, D-Miss., said Moday the callup of National Guard and Reserve units during the Berlin crisis has been "the most successful, by far, in our nation's history."

Stennis, chairman of the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, said there were some shortcomings in the mobilization and some complaints.

"But they represented only such a small percentage of those recalled," he said.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): Trust intuitive intellect. Listen to inner voice. Stress is on desire to please . . . and duty to take certain action. Let your heart rule. Real friends will champion you.

CANCER (June 22 to July 21): Seeking the exotic, the far-away pleasures . . . could prove costly . . . and you could end up with NOTHING. You have a choice . . . foolish action . . . or a practical feeling of ACCOMPLISHMENT. THINK.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): No matter how you may attempt to whitewash facts . . . challenges and obstacles may remain. Be prepared. Favorable luna aspect to your girls provides inspiration, new ideas.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): Accept responsibility. You cannot gain today by seeking only the pleasant. There are duties, obligations which must be met. Analyze yourself, motives . . . then act accordingly.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): If you can control tendency to act on impulse . . . there is every indication of gain, accomplishment. Otherwise, you might find retracing steps will prove costly.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Associates may prove ultrasensitive . . . and you will be very much aware of their feelings. Do not permit yourself to become depressed . . . stay on steady route. Lead . . . others will follow.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Emphasis on your ability to make change when necessary . . . to be frank . . . to fight for what is right . . . and to show persons close to you that you have not forgotten meaning of LOVE.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Like Aries, you must remain alert to enlightenment through ORDINARY channels. The truth, the ideas, the PROFITS are there . . . if you take time to look . . . listen . . . and be practical.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Best to choose path which allows you freedom to make changes . . . stress versatility! You may be under pressure to take action which is supposed to be "safe." Don't!

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): By permitting self-pity to reign you could do yourself much harm. Realize what has to be done today . . . and DO something about it! Speak up . . . lay cards on table.

IF WEDNESDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY . . . you succeed when you INSIST on doing things your way . . . when it comes to entertaining, self-expression, purchasing of art objects. If you attempt to follow mass taste, you end up as part of the crowd . . . with no specific identification.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle up for PISCES, ARIES, TAURUS. Emphasis on diplomacy, understanding. If anyone attempts to push, force or bully . . . he is likely to be completely ignored.

Most Losses Fractional

Stock Market Edges Lower

NEW YORK (AP)— Sharp losses appeared among savings and loans and some motors as the stock market worked irregularly lower early this afternoon. Trading was heavy.

Losses of most key stocks were fractional and a good many were unchanged. A scattering of issues declines a point or more.

Steels were unchanged to slight lower following news of another decline in weekly steel production.

Stocks of holding companies representing southern California savings-and-loan firms backed down on news that these institutions are raising their annual dividend rate on savings. Some concern was expressed that the raise in dividend payments might strain the resources of the associations.

SOME AUTOS OFF

Some autos were off on news their share of the market had declined since a year ago.

The trend among oils, rails, utilities and chemicals was generally lower.

As the savings and loans gave ground, Financial Federation fell more than 3 points. Great Western Financial and United Financial of California fell more than a point each. San Diego Imperial eased.

General Motors gained another fraction. GM had 574 per cent of the February retail car market, up from 49.6 per cent a year earlier. Ford and Chrysler, however, declined percentagewise in their penetration of the auto market. Ford stock slipped about 2 points and Chrysler lost well over a point.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange in moderate trading. Liberty Fabrics picked up about 2 points while Chromalloy and Pacific Northern Airlines were up about a point each. Anken Chemical fell about 2. Magellan Petroleum, New Park Mining and National Petroleum were fractional losers. Israel-American Oil was active but unchanged. Hofmann Blast Prices, Massey-Ferguson and BVD were among gainers.

Bond Opening Is Steady

Over the counter dealers in U.S. government securities quoted intermediaries up 2-32 and some long issues higher by 1/32 to 2/32. Activity was limited.

Price changes were held at a minimum among corporates traded on the New York Stock Exchange. A few industrials and utilities appeared to edge upward while rails were mixed.

Among the few changes amounting to a full point or more were New York Central Railroad 4s up 1⅜ at 56⅞ and Consolidated Edison 3s of 1981 by 1⅛ at 82.

Xway and Adams Interchange Still Up in Air

To Burn 11 Trailers Condemned at Court

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — Flames will shoot up Saturday from Dodd's Court, 1690 Taylor Road, as township firemen destroy 11 of the 33 trailers there condemned by the Oakland County Health Department.

Remaining trailers in the court, owned by James Dodd, of 1411 Rosedale, West Blomfield Township, will be burned later, possibly March 17. This will depend on how soon eight of the 10 families in occupied trailers find other housing.

Two families have already located new homes, one of them provided by Dodd.

The 11 trailers to be burned Saturday have been vacant.

Dodd agreed to serve seven-day eviction notices to the remaining occupants in a meeting yesterday with township Supervisor Leroy Davis, county health officer for the township Oscar Boyea, and township Building and Electrical Inspector Clayton Lovelace.

TO ALLOW 7 DAYS

More than seven days, however, will be allowed families that have difficulty in finding other housing. Boyea, Lovelace and Dodd are assisting in the search on behalf of the eight families.

"We don't want anyone rushed out in the snow," Lovelace said.

The trailers were condemned for unsanitary conditions, substandard housing and violation of the nuisance and health ordinance. Notices to evacuate were given the occupants Feb. 20.

A trailer similar to those in Dodd's Court burned to the ground at 3871 Joslyn Road Saturday morning. The occupant, Robert McNeal, escaped iwthout injury.

Township Fire Chief Carl Schingeck said the fire started in the kitchen, apparently from a cigarette. All of McNeal's furnishings, estimated to be worth $1,000, were destroyed.

Lovelace said anyone who had housing to rent or knew of any available could help the eight families by calling the township offices or Dodd.

Conservation Dept. Compromises

Novi Will Get Power Park

NOVI — It may take three to five years but Novi will get the park a citizen willed to the village at her death.

After nearly two years of hassling the village and the State Conservation Department have reached a compromise.

It will allow the state to now use funds left in the estate of Mrs. Mary M. Power and provide a public land site for the village in the future.

The agreement will permit the conservation department to use $68,000 from the sale of Mrs. Power's property to improve an area at the Proud Lake Recreation Center near Milford in dedication of Mrs. Power's two deceased children, I. Louie and Ella M. Power.

Novi will get a site equal in value to that of the estate from the conservation department when land becomes available in the village.

The delay in getting the land, however, results from the fact that the property must first be deeded to the conservation department by the State Highway Commission, which states that there is no available land in Novi at the present but will be within a few years.

The highway department wants to wait before transferring any land to the conservation department because the right-of-ways for proposed highway routes in the area are not definite.

When the highway department knows where the roadways are to be located, it will give land to the conservation department, who will in turn deed it to the village.

When Mrs. Power died she left her 190-acre farm to the state with the stipulation that a park be built in memory of her two children.

The state sold the property and planned on building a park in Northern Michigan with the funds. Novi residents, however, protested saying that Mrs. Power's will had been misinterpreted and that she wanted the park built in the Novi area.

The village filed suit in Oakland County Probate Court that set aside any decision on the will until a ruling could be made by state attorney general's office.

It was ruled that the money from the sale of the farm could be used to buy land in Novi or adjoining townships. The ruling did not settle the matter, however, until the pact was reached between the conservation department and the village on how the land acquisition was to be handled.

Avondale School Board Options Land for Future

A nine-acre parcel of land in the Bloomfield Orchards subdivision was optioned last night as an elementary school site by the Avondale Board of Education.

It is located in the rapidly expanding housing development at Opdyke Road and South Boulevard.

An estimated 125 homes in the development are already occupied, and many more are under construction.

Pontiac Township Supervisor Leroy Davis told board members that approval has already been given for a total of 400 homes in the subdivision.

He added that a request for State Health Department approval of another 100 is pending answers to water supply questions.

School Supt. Leroy R. Watt said the site is ideally located in the subdivision and will enable pupils to walk to school. This will save money in the already overloaded school transportation program, he added.

Price of the optioned property is $4,900 per acre, which the board accepted after learning that a portion of the property had been condemned by the State Highway Department at $6,500 per acre.

The Avondale School Citizens Committee has concurred in the optioning at this time, Watt said.

The board has until January 1964, to exercise the option, permitting ample time for the subdivision's growth to prove a need for an elementary school, according to Watt.

For Ex-Convict Doyle

Court Date Monday

ROYAL OAK — Arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court of a 31-year-old ex-convict on charges of kidnaping, rape and possession of a submachine gun will be held March 12.

Leenhouts set Doyle's bond at $20,000 on the kidnap-rape charge and $5,000 for possession of the submachine gun.

GUNS LOADED

The pistol was loaded and a loaded clip was found next to the submachine gun, according to Royal Oak police. Doyle told police he had bought the submachine gun in Chicago recently for $200.

Royal Oak police said that Doyle, who has been in Jackson Prison three times, had been sought for three weeks by area police as a member of a bad-check ring which was broken recently with the arrest of another member in Pontiac.

Charnwood Folk to Fight Okayed Overhead Plan

TROY — The three-year fight over the Chrysler Expressway's proposed interchange at Adams Road has not ended, despite final approval of the highway's route through Troy by the City Commission last night.

Residents of Charnwood subdivision plan to meet tonight to decide on further steps to win their demand that the expressway be depressed under Adams Road just north of Square Lake Road, according to Mrs. Beulah Schemansky, 6213 Malvern.

As approved by a 4-2 vote last night, the State Highway Department's plans call for the expressway to rise over Adams Road.

Mrs. Schemansky said court action was to be considered by the Charnwood residents as a possible remedy.

More than 50 Troy residents attended last night's special meeting, most of them to protest the Highway Department's refusal to revise the interchange. In spirited discussions including sharp words from Mayor Robert Huber, Charnwood residents asked the city to withhold approval until the revision was made.

TOO MUCH NOISE

They claimed the noise from traffic on the expressway — especially heavy trucks — will depress the value of their $20,000 to $30,000 homes. They prefer that the highway be depressed instead.

Irving J. Rubin, executive assistant to State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie, told the commission last night that a partial depression of the expressway would cost an additional $405,000 and a complete depression would run $500,000 more.

He said the federal government, which finances 90 per cent of the expressway, would not approve the extra expense.

Depressing the highway at that point would also kill the latest compromise worked out for the intersection of Square Lake Road with the expressway, according to Mayor Huber.

One of two plans submitted by Troy to the state, the final version of this intersection is looping Square Lake Road to the north and running it under the highway just east of Adams Road.

SAVES NEW BRIDGE

This permits the city to widen Square Lake Road in the future without building a new bridge.

Another reason given why the Adams interchange could not be depressed was the costly drainage problem it would cause.

Mrs. Schemansky, an arch political foe of Mayor Huber, charges that the city has not stood up to the State Highway Department on behalf of city residents.

Mayor Huber, who voted against approval of the route at this time, said he and the city were most concerned about losses to residents. He said the city had tried for three years to work out the problems, and that this was the best compromise that could be reached.

The meeting was marked by some emotional reactions by Mayor Huber and one of the commissioners to the presence of a stenographer hired by Mrs. Schemansky to take notes on the meeting. It was decided, however, that the stenographer could not be ejected from the meeting.

Schools to Study Tap-In Charges

Southfield Board to Air City Council Claim for Past Due Fees

SOUTHFIELD — The Southfield Board of Education will hold a meeting with its attorney 8 p.m. tomorrow to talk over tap-in charges allegedly owed the City of Southfield.

The City Council now is in the process of filing suit against the school board in an effort to collect $24,741 in tap-in charges for three elementary schools.

The City Council claims the school board has repeatedly ignored efforts by the council to collect the past due fees.

Schools Supt. Glenn Schoenhals said today the charge is not correct. He said there has been "a lot of confusion" as to whether the board of education was liable for the payments or not.

The superintendent stated that according to Michigan law no board of education can be assessed. The council now is billing the school district not for assessments but for service charges.

He said the board has hired Detroit attorney Carl J. Thrun to go through the whole subject of assessments, tap-in charges and service charges.

Worst Storm of Winter

Snow, Wind Wallops East

By The Associated Press

The worst storm of the waning winter walloped the region from Alabama to New England today.

Fierce winds and a snowfall measuring up to 23 inches disrupted travel, sent tides pounding ashore in low coastal areas and caused considerable damage. Power wires were downed and windows were broken.

Schools were forced to close in some areas and traffic was either halted or restricted on numerous highways.

Gusts up to 58 miles an hour and heavy seas tore away a part of Atlantic City's famed Steel Pier, a summer amusement facility which juts half a mile out into the Atlantic from the resort city's boardwalk.

The heaviest snowfall during the early morning hours was recorded in northern Virginia. It was measured at 22 to 23 inches in Culpepper, Manassas and Winchester. Counting a previous accumulation, and the depth was 30 inches in some sections of central and western Virginia.

The forecast for most areas on the northeastern seaboard called for a heavy snowfall to continue into the night.

At least 30,000 homes in the Maryland and Virginia areas around Washington, DC., lost their electric power when the snow downed trees and power lines.

The District of Columbia, which had four to five inches by 8 a.m., invoked emergency rules under which motorists are subject to arrest on key thoroughfares if they block traffic because of a lack of chains or snow tires.

Similar rules also invoked subject drivers to the same penalty if they try to make nonessential trips or park on major streets.

Commuters bound for work in New York City were delayed on the South Shore lines of the Long Island Railroad because high winds blew down power cables.

Ferries linking Manhattan with New Jersey and Staten Island were halted or delayed at times.

A large tree was blown across the Pennsylvania Railroad's Chestnut Hill line at the Moreland station in Philadelphia and tied up service for an hour for commuters.

Buses were running four hours late between Washington and Pittsburgh. All buses between the capital and Richmond, Va., were canceled. Sixteen buses due in Washington from Richmond since 6:30 p.m. Monday had not arrived by morning. They were reported bogged down in a traffic jam on U.S. No. 1 near Richmond.

School Board Members to Inform Citizens

To Discuss Waterford Twp. Millage

Waterford Township School Supt. William Shunck and four members of the school board will conduct a panel discussion 8 p.m. today at Pierce Junior High School on the proposed five-mill levy for the school district, effective over the next seven years.

The discussion is being sponsored by the Greater Waterford Community Council in an effort to inform as many citizens as possible on the aspects of the millage issue.

Following the panel discussion a town hall-type meeting will be held with comments and questions from the floor.

If the full five mills is spread, it is estimated that the average Waterford Township home owner will pay an additional $25 per year based on an average assessed valuation of $2,500.

The millage proposal will be on the ballot of the special school election March 20.

School board members serving on the panel will be president, Elmon C. Rosegart; treasurer Robert Field; and trustees, Frederick J. Poole and Edmund Windeler.

The Greater Waterford Community Council, organized just over a year ago with community betterment as its purpose, has conducted an intensive publicity campaign to inform the public on tonight's meeting.

Following the panel discussion and town hall meeting on the millage issue, the GWCC will hold an election of officers, to guide the organization for the next 12 months.

Discuss Requests by Township Police

Two requests by the Waterford Township police chief, one concerning police salaries and the other pertaining to a disorderly persons ordinance for the township, were discussed at length by the Township Board Monday but action was deferred on both.

Chief Millard Pender requested the board to approve a pay raise for four officers from $5,100 to $5,300 per year. Patrolmen start at $4,800 and the salary scale graduates to $5,500.

Recent policy has been that the rate goes to $5,100 after six months service, $5,300 after a year and to the top rate of $5,500 after two years service. All pay increases are contingent on the recommendation of the command officers after each service period.

Board members talked over the length of time that should be set between eligibility for step increases and whether the department head or Township Board approve the raise.

Trustees Byron Cole and Loren Anderson expressed the opinion that department heads should be given the responsibility of granting increases to qualified personnel in keeping within the budget of their department.

Supervisor Elmer Johnson suggested the calling of a special meeting to formulate a workable plan for all township departments. The meeting was set for Sunday at 2 p.m. and action on the recommendations made at the special meeting is expected to come at the regular March 12 meeting of the board.

Chief Pender recommended a disorderly persons ordinance for the township because it would eliminate the necessity of going to the prosecutor's office prior to obtaining a warrant and would also benefit the township by keeping fines there rather than turning them over to a state fund.

Charter townships are permitted to set up their own disorderly persons ordinance and Waterford become a charter township last year. The board instructed Township Atty. Paul Mandel to work out details with Chief Pender and draw up a proposed ordinance for consideration of the board.

Bids on the construction of 348 feet of sanitary sewer on Edgefield Street were opened and will be referred to the consulting engineers for study. Bid range was $3,287.86 to $4,909.20.

A request for rezoning of a parcel on Tilden at Elizabeth Lake Road from residential to commercial was reviewed and then tabled pending the effective date of the new zoning ordinance.

'Blue' Jay Inks Pact With Cincinnati Reds

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Joey Jay, 21-game winner in Cincinnati's drive to the National League pennant last year, ended his holdout today by signing with the Reds for an estimated $28,000.

The 26-year-old right-hander thus brought to a close a verbal dispute with General Manager Bill DeWitt of the Reds which has lasted through the past several days.

During the wrangling, Jay attempted to become a free agent by trying to buy his contract from the club, first for $150,000 and then for $200,000.

Murder Warrant Issued Against Detroit Youth

DETROIT (UPI) — Recorder's Judge John P. Scallen today issued a first-degree murder warrant against Fred O'Dell, 19, in a case which touched off a dispute between Wayne County Prosecutor Samuel H. Olsen and Michigan Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley.

Olsen refused to seek a warrant against O'Dell in the fatal stabbing last October of Grady Little, 20.

The county prosecutor said he wouldn't seek a warrant because investigation of the stabbing at Palmer Park indicated O'Dell acted in self defense.

Kelley ordered Olsen to seek a warrant and when Olsen refused the attorney general instructed his office in Detroit to ask the warrant against O'Dell.

Wheat in its various forms comprises about 19 per cent of the total food of an American family.

Ski Lift Bill Now in Senate

Provides for Inspection by State in Order to Assure Safety

LANSING (AP)—A bill providing for the inspection and regulation of ski lifts by the State Labor Department has been moved up to final passage stage in the Senate.

The measure was advanced Monday night for possible final vote today when the sponsor, Sen. Raymond D. Dzendzel, D-Detroit, said the ski industry was ready to cooperate.

"They are interested in seeing that accidents do not happen so as to drive ski enthusiasts from Michigan," Dzendzel said, citing several recent ski lift accidents, including one fatality.

An amendment providing inspection of terrain, too, was eliminated after Sen. Frederic Hilbert, R-Wayland, objected it could condemn an entire ski area.

"If you want to break your necks, it's OK with me," shrugged Sen. Perry W. Greene, R-Grand Rapids, although he contended it was meant to apply only to terrain under the ski lift.

The Senate killed, by sending back to committee, a measure that would have tightened the requirements for receiving the veterans homestead exemption, which at present exempts up to $2,000 in homestead taxation for eligible veterans.

The bill would have denied the execution to veterans making $5,000 or more if single and $7,000 or more a year if married.

Sen. Frank D. Beadle, R-St. Clair, the sponsor, said the cost to the state of the tax exemption has risen from $11½ million a year to $9 million in 10 years.

"The original intent was to help those veterans who couldn't otherwise meet their tax payments," Beadle said. "Unless we are willing to take some steps toward economy, we might as well all get on the bandwagon and be spenders."

SPEED RECORD ROUTE — Map indicates path traveled from Los Angeles to New York and return to Los Angeles by an Air Force B58 jet bomber in official record times of 2 hours, 1 minute and 39.6 seconds for the trip to New York; and 2 hours, 15 minutes, 12 seconds for the return. The plane, with a crew of three, took off from Carswell Air Force Base, Tex., and refueled over the Pacific before starting the dash across country, then refueled midway through both trips. An additional 26 minutes were used in turning around and refueling over the Atlantic.

At Pontiac Municipal Airport

North Central More Optimistic

Increased patronage last month has North Central Airlines officials at Pontiac Municap Airport optimistic about spring airline traffic here.

"We're looking for a strong upsurge in passengers on NCA flights in the next few months," said J. O. Edwards, station manager.

There were 19 passengers on outbound flights in February and 17 in January.

Passengers totaled 33 last month and 42 in January.

During February, outbound NCA flights carried 296 pounds of air mail, 128 pounds of air express, and 1,866 pounds of air freight.

January inbound flights carried 28 pounds of air mail, 10 pounds air express and 2,059 pounds air freight. There were 48 flights in February, 24 in each direction.

Motorist Fixed, but Good by Versatile Mechanic

Darnall told mechanic Cooper his car was sluggish and lacked "get up and go." Cooper tuned it up—possibly too well. A little later Darnall came back to Justice Cooper with a speeding ticket.

Fire in S. Rhodesia

Appellate Courts Written Into Bill

Smeekens Objects but Circuit Judges and Bar Are in Favor

LANSING (AP) — Spokesmen for Circuit Court judges and the bar today generally favored a bill to set up a court of appeals, divided into three appellate districts, to take some of the appeal load from the State Supreme Court.

Only major objector at a hearing conducted by Sen. Carlton H. Morris, R-Kalamazoo, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, was a fellow senator, John P. Smeekens, R-Coldwater.

Smeekens disliked the proposal to have the circuit judges travel around the state to hear appeals. Instead, he said, they should be separate judges elected to the job and should work out of Lansing.

"You would regress to what we had 100 years ago," Smeekens said, "having the judges ride around the state to appear in different circuses — and I said this deliberately instead of circuits. This would be Wild West, Bill Cody-type of judicial review."

"We try to conduct our hearings without such flamboyant expressions," objected Morris.

Pier Washed Away

Trouble Delays Firing of Solar Observatory

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — An attempt to orbit a "solar observatory" satellite was posponed for one day today because of technical difficulties in a three stage rocket.

The 458-pound moonlet is designed to take the first direct, undistorted look at the sun to try and find a way to forecast radiation "storms" in space.

The countdown to launch the shot today went down to the second the rocket was supposed to ignite. But a malfunction kept the vehicle on its launching pad and forced scientists to postpone the shot for 24 hours.

Hints U.S. Considers Joint Space Venture

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States may propose joint use of communications satellites as a first possible cooperative space venture with the Soviet Union, space administrator James E. Webb said today.

He also said it would be useful for astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. to compare notes with Soviet cosmonaut Cherman Titov who orbited the earth 17 times last August.

In an interview recorded by the Voice of America for overseas broadcast, Webb gave a wide-ranging rundown on the U.S. space effort, which he expects to cost $35 billion over the next 10 years.

FAIR MONORAIL TESTED — One of the sleek monorail trains which will whisk visitors back and forth from downtown Seattle to the Seattle World's Fair at 60 miles an hour is shown on a test run, heading for the fairgrounds from the downtown area. The full-scale monorail system will have a passenger capacity of 10,000 persons an hour, officials say. The fair opens a six-month run April 21.

Man Stands Mute on Check Charge

Accused of cashing $160 in checks stolen from a Pontiac woman, Melvin W. Timmons, 53, of Alton, Ill. stood mute at his arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court yesterday.

Judge Stanton G. Dondero entered a plea of not guilty for the accused and bound him over for trial. He was returned to the county jail in lieu of $5,000 bond.

Peiping Calls Lady Pilots

TOKYO (AP) — Women pilots, navigators and radio operators have been assigned to active duty in Communist China's air force, Peiping Radio reported Monday. A broadcast heard here said the women—graduates of army air force aviation schools — are engaged in rescue and meteorological flights in addition to military duties.

How Does Skelton Keep Going on TV?

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD — How does he do it?

That's what the entertainment world has wondered about Red Skelton, longest-lasting of television comedians.

The high-flying redhead is rocketing through his 11th year in television. Last week he signed a new six-year contract with CBS that will expand his Tuesday night show to an hour next season.

THOMAS

NEEDS REST

The prescription: rest, relaxation.

Outlook: he'll get neither.

When I caught up with Red, he was rehearsing a television show at his studio, which once housed the comic genius of another era, Charlie Chaplin.

CAN'T STOP

"The doctors said all I needed was some rest," he mused, fingering the ever-present cigar he never lights. "But how can I?

"I've put $4.5 million in this studio, and it came right out of my own pocket. Today I'll be signing the payroll for the studio; it comes to $60,000 a week. So you can see that I've got to keep working."

He talked wistfully of what he might do if he did quit the grind.

"I'd like to travel and study," he said. "There are all kinds of things I want to learn. For instance, I want to find out about the Scandanavian comics and why they are funny."

Such plans are idle dreams now that he has signed to double his output next season. During the summer he will play the Nevada pleasure spots and then do a month of fairs that will bring him $600,000.

To get back to our question: how does he do it?

The answer seems to be that making people laugh is not just a profession for Red. It is a dedication.

SPENDS TIME ON JOB

"I don't do anything else," he admitted. "Georgia and I never go to night clubs. We don't go to parties. We don't even take vacations."

He spends his days working on television production. He spends his nights dreaming up new ideas and techniques, watching the three television sets placed above his bed. He seldom sleeps before dawn; the early morning hours are devoted to his hobbies and interests. His current pursuit is tracing the life of Christ from birth to 12 years.

Photography's Pretty Good but No Sound Effects

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP) — You watch astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. squeeze space food into his mouth as he whirls over Africa.

You see his exultant smile as he emerges into dawn. You see the light grow to almost blinding intensity as he comes down in his fireball ride to the sea.

The movie got a sneak preview Monday in a darkened hearing room on Capitol Hill. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration says it soon will be available for public viewings.

The close-up color film of Glenn's trip—from donning his space suit through excellent views of the capsule's recovery by the destroyer Noa—gives new excitement and immediacy to the now oft-told tale.

WITH HIM ALL THE WAY

You are with Glenn as he experiences the heavy forces in the takeoff. You see the straps of his space suit floating freely in the air as the astronaut becomes weightless.

Perhaps the eeriest part is when the capsule races into the shadow of the earth and flies on through the night. It is dark inside the capsule except for a red-lit clock face and a few winking orange lights on the control panel.

You see Glenn's big smile as the capsule emerges into dawn over the Pacific for the first time.

BLINDING LIGHT

There is a perceptible bump or jerk as the retro rockets fire to slow the capsule for its re-entry into the atmosphere. The light grows to almost blinding intensity as Glenn plunges to the sea, the most critical part of the journey.

The film, hastily edited down to 32 minutes by NASA, was shown without sound track. NASA official George Low provided a narrative for the standing room audience of congressmen and congressional workers.

To save weight in the capsule the film was exposed frame by frame very slowly, so that the motion is jerky. But Glenn's calmness and self-possession at all times are apparent.

MAIL GREETS SPACEMAN — Astronaut John Glenn found his desk all but buried by mail Monday on his first visit to Space Task Group headquarters since his orbital flight Feb. 20. America's first man to orbit the earth shows his surprise in the deep lines of his forehead. A team of six secretaries has been sorting Glenn's mail for him. An unidentified secretary is seated at right.

Vietnamese Kill Red Guerrillas

U.S. Planes and Crews Supply Knockout Punch in Two Operations

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) —South Vietnamese forces using decisive airpower scored two major victories over the Communist Viet Cong in the past two days, killing more than 100 Red guerrillas and wounding or capturing hundreds more, officials of President Ngo Dinh Diem's government said today.

U.S. Army helicopters with American crews supported the followup of one operation and U.S.-supplied fighter bombers provided the knockout punch for the other, the officials said.

The reported military successes are understood to be South Viet Nam's biggest of the year. They followed closely on three straight setbacks for Diem's pro-Western government.

Government ground forces following up a strike by the South Viet Nam air force in Phuoc Thanh Province found 60 Viet Cong bodies Monday. They estimated at least 240 more Communist guerrillas were wounded in the attack by the single-engine propeller planes Sunday.

'LIBERATED AREA'

Phuoc Thanh and parts of surrounding provinces are classified by the Communists as a liberated area long under their domination and relatively free of government control.

U.S. Army helicopters carried a battalion of South Vietnamese troops today into Tay Ninh Province—100 miles northwest of Saigon and about 37 miles from the Cambodian frontier—to follow up another government victory.

The operation centered around the government outpost of Bo Tuc, which was attacked Sunday night by a Viet Cong force now estimated at 1,000. Only 79 civil guards and militiamen manned the post. They managed to hold on through the night, but 15 were killed and 10 were missing the next day. The attackers burned the post.

South Vietnamese air force planes dropped a battalion of 540 paratroops near the post Monday. Before the battle was done, 56 Viet Cong were killed and large numbers were reported wounded or captured.

Resumption of Testing 'Protested' by Japan

TOKYO (AP) — Japan protested Monday the U.S. decision to resume atmospheric nuclear testing but the government appeared to be merely going through the motions.

Foreign Minister Zentaro Kosaka called in U.S. Ambassador Edwin O. Reischauer and handed him a note saying Japan "deeply regrets" the decision and reserves the right to make claims for any damage suffered from the testing.

Spanish Envoy Dies

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mariano de Yturralde y Orbegoso, 57, Spanish ambassador to the United States for 18 months, died Monday. The embassy said the career diplomat died of pulmonary complications and peritonitis which developed after an operation last Thursday.

Seize Carnival Revelers

LISBON (AP) — Police announced Monday the arrest of 39 pre-Lenten carnival revelers through the weekend, mostly for appearing in the streets in unsuitable attire. Regulations here forbid the use of certain disguises, such as army uniforms, clerical habits or marks representing statesmen or politicians. Women are forbidden to dress as men and men as women.

Eddie Gives a Party — All Is OK With Fishers

By EARL WILSON

ROME — Our man in Rome—that's me—got invited to Eddie Fisher's party for Liz Taylor's 30th birthday, and is now trying to think up a hot 1962 way of saying "lovey-dovey."

WILSON

That's how they acted at the party, which was held at Dante's old digs, the famous and expensive night club called Hostario dell' Orso, which lures all the tourists each summer. Eddie flung the party in the private room upstairs, La Cabala.

I'd seen Liz filming "Cleopatra" here in the new Hollywood but had only talked to Eddie on the phone. He'd said he'd meet me somewhere.

Then came a disappointing call from "the villa," their 8-bedroom, 7-bathroom house 20 minutes from Rome, a two-floor ranchhouse-type structure called "Villa Papa," no relation to Eddie's hit song, "O Mein Papa."

"Liz doesn't have to work so I'm going to spend the day with my wife," he said, very possessively, I thought.

Just when I figured I wasn't going to see him, came another call: I should come over to the birthday party.

Naturally, on arriving, I gave Liz a kiss. How many chances does a guy get to kiss a girl who's called the most beautiful in the world and also capable of making $50,000 a week, or, from one picture, $5,000,000?

(Aside to myself: Fifty grand a week! That's what they keep saying.)

Yet I wouldn't care to be Liz—even if I were a girl. How can she be expected to stand up under this glare of publicity, never able to go out to dinner without five or six or even fifty or sixty photographers pursuing her?

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A college freshman claims he was pretty close to the right answer on his exam. They were just two seats away.

Course to Start April 2 at State Police School

EAST LANSING (AP) — State police have announced a nine-week school to graduate 28 troopers will start April 2 at the East Lansing headquarters.

Addition of the 28 troopers will bring the enlisted strength to 1,127, short of the authorized strength of 1,155. State police said the additional vacancies will not be filled because of budget restrictions.

JFK Sets News Confab

Eaton Rapids Woman

COLDWATER (AP) — Mrs. Orpha Cosgray, 71, of Eaton Rapids, was killed Monday when the car in patch on U.S. 27 about seven miles which she was riding struck an ice north of here and crashed into a tree.

'Customer' Likes Pickles During Parade

BY PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—Swanky Saks Fifth Avenue will receive a box of dresses today, three in all, returned by a customer, with a poignant note enclosed.

But do not weep, Saks adjustments department people.

This is what happened:

A young matron, wife of a successful businessman, decided last Thursday that she must see John Glenn's parade. She noted with interest that it would pass directly in front of Saks, her favorite spending grounds.

Shortly before the appointed hour, she stood in Fifth Avenue and cased the windows. The best view, she decided, was to be had from the second floor front. Behind the second floor front windows, she knew from two previous pregnancy experiences, lay the dressing rooms of the maternity department.

Up she rode to floor two, in she walked, up she spoke to her favorite saleslady. "Why Mrs. ——," effused the latter, "How nice to have you back with us."

"Thank you," said Mrs. ——, "Isn't it thrilling?" (She meant the parade, of course, but she didn't elaborate.)

Three dozen dresses were selected, and she was ushered into a private box for the hero's parade with the advice, "Just take your time and call me if you need any help." She whipped off her coat and peered out the window.

Forty-five minutes later (she waited for the crowd to disperse) she emerged from the dressing room, glowing. She ordered three topical characters and hundreds of maternity costumes. Which she of ingenious figures.

is now returning with a note, stating simply, "Sorry. There was a miscarriage."

And that's absolutely true, she's sure; there was a miscarriage somewhere, and she's sorry about it.

"Only one thing bothers me," she confessed later. "The dresses were stunning. I'd love to have kept them . . .

"But it doesn't seem honest."

Just ran across some old research results conducted by a psychologist named Edward M. Scott at the University of Portland. They claim to reveal the personality of a man by the kind of movies (and I suppose, likewise, the kind of TV shows) he prefers.

So match your man to his cravings:

If he likes Scientific or Historical films, he is likely to be a thoughtful, imaginative and discriminating man—more interested in ideas and cultural pursuits than in matters of a materialistic nature.

If your man prefers Musicals, he is probably impulsive, restless, likes excitement and diversion, is genial and persuasive. Lives for today, doesn't worry too much about the future. Is fairly intelligent, but prefers to skim through life without getting bogged down in deep thoughts.

He likes Religious entertainments? Then he tends, says the survey, to be strong-willed and adept at arguing persuasively. He is serious, and sets high goals. Perseveres, even when faced with repeated failures.

And ah, if he lives crime programs, he is difficult to upset, rarely worries, seldom feels blue, doesn't believe in working too hard, and enjoys daydreams . . .

Of vice, violence and murder, mayhap?

Mardi Gras Climax

New Orleans in Turmoil

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Anywhere else it would be considered lunacy, but this Deep South city throws away its inhibitions today and calls it Mardi Gras.

It's a frenzied, happy madness that annually grips New Orleans on the day before the beginning of the solemn, penitential Lenten season.

It officially ends when the tower clock in historic St. Louis Cathedral strikes midnight and Rex—king of Carnival—and Comus, the oldest Mardi Gras deity, drink a solemn champagne toast.

TRANSFORMATION

A multicolored sea of masked revelers cavort through the city the entire day and well into the night. Costumes and makeup turn sedate businessmen into whirling dervishes, kids into clowns, women into creatures from outer space and inner depths, and teenagers into bottles, acrobats, historical characters and hundreds of other things.

Some of the costumed marvels began appearing on Canal Street and in the famed French Quarter in the early predawn hours, mingling with all-night revelers.

For many visitors—largely college students—Mardi Gras climaxes a five-day "lost weekend" which began Friday night.

In theory, the happy crowds who fill the streets shortly after sunrise are out to hail Rex, who leads his parade of fantastic floats over city streets in midmorning.

But they'll spend some very pleasant hours before Rex' arrival, entertaining themselves and each other. Some dance in the street to music from portable radios and nearby bars. Others spread picnic lunches on unused street car tracks.

More than 100 different safety devices, machines and methods have been introduced in American coal mines within the past three decades.

Reds, East Germans Sign Trade, Aid Pact

LEIPZIG, East Germany (AP)—Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan signed a trade and aid agreement with East Germany valued at about $825 million, East German officials reported.

They said the agreement, covering East German-Soviet economic relations for the current year, called for the Kremlin to grant this financially shaky country a 1.3 billion mark ($325 million at the official rate) credit.

It also provided for about two billion marks ($500 million) worth of trade between the two nations, 12 per cent more than last year.

Bowles on Fast Trip

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Chester Bowles, President Kennedy's special adviser on African-Asian affairs, flew into Bangkok Monday for an unscheduled day-long stopover. Bowles arrived from Karachi after canceling a planned visit to Rangoon, where the military has just ousted the government of Premier U Nu. Bowles left for Tokyo today.

The Canary Islands got their name from canis, the Latin word for dog. Early explorers found ferocious breed there. Canary birds, in turn, were named for the islands.

Nationwide Puts Life Insurance Within the Reach of Every Family

Quantity Discounts, Bigger Dividends Help Lower Costs

Among Nationwide's most popular features are (a) "quantity discounts," which progressively lower premiums on each $1,000 of life insurance over $4,000, and (b) increased dividends.

In addition to early cash and loan values, young family men particularly like our Guaranteed Insurability Option. This assures the right to buy additional insurance later on, without medical examination, regardless of health.

Also available as optional extras are Double Indemnity, which doubles a policy's face amount in the event of accidental death, and Disability Waiver of Premium, which cancels premiums falling due after a policyholder has been disabled by accident or illness for six months.

With every Nationwide policy you have a broad selection of settlement options. Many of these allow benefits or cash values to be paid in a choice of annuity-type installments.

The above features, and many more, guarantee you extra value through flexibility that lets your life insurance keep up-to-date with your changing needs and plans.

Your Nationwide agent, a neighbor in your community, is always at your service. He'll review your insurance program with you regularly to make sure its provisions always match your requirements.

Every family now can afford enough life insurance—thanks to Nationwide. Even fathers who think they're "insurance poor" will benefit from a talk with a Nationwide agent. His skill and experience, his interest in serving you best, and his complete range of modern coverages, will mean more protection and added savings for you.

Progressive Organization Offers Complete New Choice Of Budget-Priced Policies

In keeping with its principle of providing the finest protection at the lowest possible cost, Nationwide Insurance recently streamlined its entire life insurance portfolio. The best features of standard policies have been retained, the range and scope of coverages broadened, new policies developed and set in a rate structure second to none within the insurance industry.

Greater Values and Savings

Result? Budget-conscious families can now buy more of the protection today's cost-of-living demands. Young fathers can now afford the insurance they need during the family's growing years.

Today, through Nationwide, you can choose a plan which matches your exact requirements and your resources. Whether it's maximum coverage at lowest cost, systematic savings at a guaranteed rate of interest, or a realistic combination of protection and savings, your Nationwide agent has a plan for you. Every family can now have the vital protection they need while they save for retirement.

Expert Assistance Available

Nationwide also offers you—at no charge or obligation—the professional services of highly trained, experienced insurance agents. Since your local Nationwide agent offers a complete range of insurance products, he can recommend the life insurance policy which best fits your total protection picture. He can provide you with a coordinated, all-around protection program, with no dangerous gaps or costly overlaps, no needless waste or extras...all at minimum cost!

Nationwide Widely Known As A Company That's Different

Murray D. Lincoln

Murray D. Lincoln, Nationwide's President, is often asked, "What's so different about Nationwide?" His reply usually begins, "Nothing much...if all you want is a company that collects premiums and has the resources to pay claims.

"But," he hastily adds, "if you're looking for something more—the satisfaction, say, of knowing that your premiums are buying insurance designed to protect real people rather than statistics...or if you think it's a healthy idea for policyholders to have a real voice in their company's operation—then Nationwide is different.

"This organization was started thirty-five years ago by people in search of low-cost insurance. We grew, expanded our coverages, were invited into neighboring states, because our kind of insurance was needed.

"Nationwide continues to build on the fundamental principle that whenever we're confronted with new problems, all of us, working together, can find new and better solutions to these problems."

Outstanding Values In Business Life Insurance

More and more executives, too, are selecting Nationwide plans for their companies' business life insurance coverage—including key man, sole proprietorship, partnership, and close corporation insurance. Individual-policy pension trust plans are also offered.

Especially advantageous to businessmen is Nationwide's Executive Equity Plan, which features rapidly accumulating cash values resulting in minimum net cost to the purchaser.

A complete range of flexible, low-cost plans is also offered on a group basis, customarily combined with group health coverage in a complete employee benefit program, often partnered with a funded retirement or pension program. Featured among Nationwide's Group coverages are those especially designed for smaller organizations. Available in most states are: MINI-GROUP, a top-benefit plan for firms having 10-49 employees, and EFP (EMPLOYEE FAMILY PLAN), a "big company" employee-and-dependents program for groups as small as three.

Also noteworthy is our small-company Retirement Security Plan (RSP), which can provide stockholder-employees with up to $96,000 cash—or $670 per month—at retirement, with all rates and benefits guaranteed for life.

All Nationwide agents are authorized to offer business life insurance protection, and all are backed by experienced Nationwide technical specialists, both at the Home Office and in the field.

Nationwide Life Insurance Plans Are Designed to Meet Every Need

Whatever your age, earnings and family circumstances, your Nationwide agent will recommend the plan—or combination of plans—that will do the best job for you. Here are just a few of the new Nationwide coverages offered:

For Young Families

For young fathers with limited budgets there's the MODIFIED 3 TO 10 PLAN. Especially designed for the "getting started" years, it offers sharply reduced premiums during the plan's first 10 years. Later, regular premiums are offset by higher dividends and accumulated cash values.

Also for young family men is Nationwide's FAMILY INCOME PLAN, which provides maximum protection during children's dependent years. Then, after the children are grown, your basic protection continues, but at a lower premium.

Many families, too, prefer the savings offered by Nationwide's all-in-one FAMILY POLICY, which insures all the family in a single plan. Dad has the greatest protection, while Mom and the youngsters are insured for smaller amounts.

For New Homeowners

For the homeowner, there's the low-premium MORTGAGE PROTECTION plan. Its face amount decreases gradually year-by-year, along with your mortgage—but there's always enough insurance to cover your unpaid balance.

Your Nationwide man is also equipped with a full line of streamlined ORDINARY (or WHOLE) LIFE and ENDOWMENT plans, which provide permanent protection plus cash values you may use at retirement. He also offers a choice of low cost TERM (or TEMPORARY) insurance plans, which may be converted later to a permanent plan without medical examination.

Full details on all Nationwide plans are available through your local Nationwide agent. He has only one purpose: to provide you with the best protection at the lowest possible cost.

Your Nationwide Agent

Your neighborhood Nationwide representative is fully licensed under the insurance laws of your state. This means that his qualifications to serve you have been thoroughly examined and approved. In addition, his knowledge of life insurance and how it may best work for you is continually expanded through systematic training and refresher courses by Nationwide. Thus, you'll always find him a sound businessman and a valuable friend—and you may talk with him as you would your family doctor.

In Area 4, Bottom and Miles Win, While Henry Walks Away in One

An "excellent" turnout saw the 3,199 voters cast ballots in Monday's primary election in three of Pontiac's seven districts, narrowing a field of 10 candidates to the six who will vie for City Commission seats in the April 16 general election.

Primary runoffs were held in Districts 1, 2 and 4.

The primary resulted in a rematch of the 1960 election in District 4, victories by two political newcomers in District 2 and a fairly close race between the two candidates vying to oppose the District 1 incumbent.

In District 2, where Mayor Philip E. Rowston, the incumbent, was not running for re-election, candidates on the April ballot will be Curtis E. Patton, 400 votes, a local insurance agent; and Charles H. Harmon, a tax consultant and municipal adviser, 286 votes.

In District 4, the candidates will be incumbent Commissioner Winford E. Bottom who polled 573, and former commissioner Floyd P. Miles, 404, whom Bottom defeated two years ago when Miles was the incumbent.

Incumbent Commissioner Milton R. Henry had no trouble in District 1, defeating his nearest opponent by more than 700 votes, Robert Bowens, a Pontiac Motor Division employe and barber, was elected with 154 votes to oppose Henry who polled 870.

PERCENTAGE 19.4

The total vote was nearly 19.4 per cent of the estimated 16,500 registered voters in the three districts.

In District 2, where four candidates filed, it was a case of newcomers winning over two candidates who had run for the District 2 commission seat in previous elections.

The losing candidates were Robert T. Flynn, 42, of 138 Ogemaw Road, with 187 votes and H. Malcolm Kahn, 44, of 305 Pioneer Drive, with 99 votes.

Powers Expected to Tell of Mysterious Parachute

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pilot Francis Gary Powers steps out of seclusion today for the first time and is expected to tell of seeing a mysterious parachute in the sky when he bailed out of his stricken U2 plane deep in the Soviet Union.

This new twist in the high-altitude cloak and dagger tale was expected to come out when Powers appears before the Senate Armed Services Committee to tell his story in public.

The biggest mystery of Powers' ill-starred flight, May 1, 1960, was what brought the U2 down—engine trouble, Soviet missiles or what?

At his Moscow trial, where he was sentenced to 10 years as an American spy, Powers refused to say that his plane had been hit at 68,000 feet by a Soviet rocket, as Soviet Premier Khrushchev had claimed.

He said there was an explosion and a bright glow but that he had "no idea what it was."

One informant said that as he now understands it, Powers thinks his plane was knocked down by a near-miss from a Soviet rocket.

This is supposed to have exploded close enough to have whipped the glider-like aircraft out of control and sent it diving earthward so fast that Powers was pinned to his seat, uable to trigger the devices for delayed destruction of the plane.

SAW CHUTE

When he finally was able to leap clear of the spinning plane at 14,000 feet Powers is understood to have seen a second parachute in the sky.

Powers reportedly was unable to determine whether this parachute meant some Soviet plane figured in the downing of his high-flying reconnaissance plane.

Powers carried suicide equipment but was not under orders to use it, informants said. Powers was told this was supplied in case he felt he could not withstand efforts to torture information out of him — if such efforts were made.

He had been instructed in the event of capture to act cautiously and to divulge as little information as possible.

The decision by the Senate committee to question Powers at an open session was announced Monday by Chairman Richard B. Russell, D-Ga. after Central Intelligence Agency Director John A. McCone gave a 1½-hour briefing to a Senate watchdog committee.

In advance of Powers' testimony, Russell and Chairman Carl Vinson, D-Ga., of the House Armed Services Committee, arranged to release a CIA report on its investigation of the matter.

This was expected to follow the line of the reported testimony of McCone at the closed session, that the CIA had no criticism of Powers' actions.

Sales of Pontiac Hit Record Pace

Delivery of 209,853 in Model Year Tops 197,139 in 1955

Pontiac Motor Division today announced it is experiencing the best new-model sales record in its 36-year history.

Some 209,853 new cars have been delivered since last September, according to E. M. (Pete) Estes, General Motors vice president and general manager of Pontiac Motor Division. The old record for the same sales period was 197,139 in 1955.

"Retail sales by Pontiac dealers during the final sales period in February amounted to 10,829, making a total of 33,544 deliveries for the month," said Estes.

This represents a gain of 42.5 per cent in sales over the same month a year ago.

Domestic retail deliveries of GMC trucks in the first two months of 1962 were the highest for any corresponding period since 1956, said Calvin J. Werner, GM vice president and general manager of GMC Truck & Coach Division.

He said the January and February deliveries totaled, 12,523 units, a 21.5 per cent increase over the same two months of 1961.

"In February alone, new GMC truck deliveries reached 6,180 units, a 20.7 per cent gain over February of 1961," Werner added.

MARILYN FAIR

PCH Teacher Found Slain in Keego Harbor

Find Woman Counselor, Object of State Search, Wounded in Indiana

The suspected killer of a popular young Pontiac Central High School counselor, who was found shot to death in his Keego Harbor home last night, allegedly tried to take her own life early today.

The homicide victim, Hubert T. (Tom) Kreitmeyer, 26, called "one of the best liked teachers in the school" by both students and faculty members, was discovered sprawled in a pool of blood on the living room floor of his bachelor quarters at 1882 Cass Lake Front, Keego Harbor.

Kreitmeyer's body was found about 6:30 p. m. by John H. Nellenback, 26, a teacher at Eastern Junior High School who had lived with the victim for four years.

His death triggered a statewide search for Patricia J. Hite, 28, a counselor in the Fraser School District who reportedly had made threats against Kreitmeyer.

THINKING OF MARRIAGE

Marilyn J. Fair, 27, head of the home economics department at Pontiac Central High School, who lived with Miss Hite in a home they bought four years ago in New Baltimore, said she and Kreitmeyer were thinking of getting married in December.

Miss Fair told Oakland County Asst, Prosecutor Richard Condit her roommate threatened to kill Kreitmeyer and herself if the wedding plans were carried out.

This morning, Miss Hite was found critically injured in her car with a gunshot wound in the head. The car was parked in the yard of her parents' farm home in Casper County, Ind.

Casper County Sheriff Donald McCracken told Oakland County authorities she had been shot with a 22-caliber rifle which was propped under the dashboard. A bloodstained note and a box of 22-caliber ammunition was on the seat next to her, according to McCracken. There were two shells missing from the box, he said.

IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Miss Hite was shot once in the forehead. She is in serious condition but expected to recover at St. Margaret's Hospital in Hammond, Ind., according to Indiana State Police.

A post mortem conducted early today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital here showed that Kreitmeyer also had been shot once with a 22-caliber bullet from close range.

A woman answering Miss Hite's

Plan to Boost Sites in Area for Industry

DETROIT (AP) — A 10-year program for development of industrial sites in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties was unveiled Monday by the Detroit Regional Planning Commission.

It calls for the setting aside of some 6,680 acres of land — two-thirds of it in southeastern Oakland County — for industrial parks and other developments located near existing or planned expressways.

Commissioner Paul M. Reid said the program supplements a 1957 study under which industrial property was marked for development along railroad lines.

Reid said the new plan, under study for nearly two years, is designed to deal only with industrial development not dependent on rail transportation.

"We found many plants already located on rail lines didn't need to use rail facilities, but were often located where they were because it was the only available zoned land," he said. "These new sites are planned to accommodate such plants."

The new program calls for 4,290 acres of new or expanded industrial property in Oakland County, 1,010 acres in Macomb and 1,380 in Wayne.

Airport Critics Join Forces

Area Residents Form Group to Investigate Proposed County Plan

Opposition to Oakland County's proposed multimillion-dollar jet airport is being organized.

A group composed mainly of Orion and Pontiac township residents has formed the Oakland County Homeowners and Taxpayers Association to "investigate" the county's airport plans.

Leaders of the group are Gordon Ladd, 3931 Sashabaw Road, Waterford Township, and attorney Robert Hodge, 650 Lake Angelus Shores, Pontiac Township.

Though not a resident in the area affected by the proposed airport, Ladd is the developer of Hi-Hill Subdivision just east of the airport site.

"I've been selling people on what a beautiful place this area is to live in, and I feel a responsibility to them," he said.

Ladd and Hodge gave the purpose of the organization as "fact-finding." They said they question the need and location for the airport and claim it will cost $100 million rather than the $25 million estimated by airport backers.

"We're not interested in meeting misrepresentation with misrepresentation," Hodge said. "We're trying to avoid a wild, irresponsible approach."

Nearly Half of Our 7th Graders to Drop Out Before Graduation

By RALPH P. HUMMEL

If you have a child in the seventh grade, his chances are little more than 50-50 that he'll ever graduate from high school.

This is one of the shocking facts in the story of school dropouts which is repeated all over the United States.

Educators know that this year nearly a million young boys and girls will leave school before graduation. They will be without adequate education. They will be without real friends to help them make an honest living.

They are truly a lost generation. They are the dropouts, as the educators call them.

By 1965, there will be three unskilled workers for every two jobs they can fill, while seven skilled jobs will be open for every five who are qualified, according to a national school administrators' magazine.

"Unless there is a drastic change in the dropout pattern," claims School Management magazine, "7.5 million young adults will be candidates for chronic unemployment."

PRESS SERIES

This is the first article of a series which will examine the situation in Pontiac. It will be listing the causes of the dropout problem. Following this will be a summary of what is being done here to keep your child in school and give him a future in a modern, technological society.

The Pontiac School District takes its knowledge about dropouts in this area mainly from a study done in 1955. With special efforts being made since then to keep youngsters in school and to retrieve those who left, it is believed that the figures look (a little) less dim in 1962.

But the problem is still with us, administrators indicate.

The study showed that the graduating class of 1955 was made up of only 58 per cent of those who originally entered it.

The national survival rate at the time was 55 per cent, according to a study done by the U.S. Office of Education.

Pontiac's slightly higher survival rate was produced by a 63 per cent survival count among girls and 54 per cent among the original number of boys.

"If I have a child in the seventh grade, these figures suggest that chances are little more than 50-50 he won't finish school," comments Pontiac Asst. Supt. of Schools Philip J. Proud, an expert on school dropouts.

In Dr. Proud's background are eight years of experience (1951-1958) in dealing with this problem as executive secretary of the Michigan Committee on School Holding Power—the group which studies the problem of dropouts in the state.

Of the 20 or more causes which educators say usually operate together in producing a dropout, five stand out:

1—Lack of success in school;
2—Lack of enough money to stay in school;
3—Lack of identification in school;
4—Lack of family encouragement;
5—Absenteeism.

LACK OF SUCCESS

Surprisingly, intelligence has very little to do with whether or not children remain in school.

The average intelligence of the youngster who quit is only four or five points lower than the average intelligence of those who remain in school. This is not a significant factor to account for quitting.

Some youngsters who quit are

But It's a TRUE One

Danny's Story Is Sad

This is the story of Danny. It is a simple story. And it needs but simple words to tell it. But few parents know this story.

Danny is a potential dropout.

Danny is a boy about 14. He stays out of school. Why? He hasn't done his homework. Why hasn't he? Because he doesn't like to do it. Why doesn't he like to do it? He doesn't like to read. Why? He doesn't read well!

One reason he doesn't read well is because he has missed his chance to practice reading.

Besides, he doesn't go to school regularly and misses his chance to learn to read.

Besides, there's really nothing at school Danny really wants to do. He doesn't have his moment glory. He's just a quiet, little boy whom few people know. He doesn't belong to the choir, to the school clubs, or to a sports team. He doesn't belong.

Khrushchev Threatens to Resume N-Tests in Air

Supervisors Proposing Jet Airport Lansing Talk

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors' aviation committee yesterday proposed a luncheon meeting in Lansing March 14 with state representatives from the area to bring them abreast of plans for a major jet airport here.

Committee Chairman Phillip Rowston, Pontiac mayor and supervisor, said the representatives should be briefed fully on the plans in order to answer questions from constituents.

He said seven representatives' support of a bill to permit the County Department of Public Works to develop the airport in Pontiac-Orion Townships will be needed, he said.

Delos Hamlin, chairman of the board, explained that the DPW would be well-suited to develop the $25-million airport because the department already has the engineers and other employes for this purpose.

While operation of the proposed airport as a major terminus is not contemplated for 10 to 15 years, Hamlin envisions it serving as a field for corporate flights of industry sometime during the interim.

TWO YEARS AHEAD

Two years would be needed to ready the airfield for industry's flights, he said. He based a future need for such service on reports by the State Department of Aeronautics and Landrum & Brown, Cincinnati aviation consultants retained by the county in 1959.

The county presently is exercising options on the Allen Airport on Giddings Road and adjacent property to form a 445-acre nucleus for future expansion.

Expansion would be accomplished as the need for a second major airport in the metropolitan area actually arises, Hamlin said. He foresees the need for jet service at least 10 years distant.

Federal approval of the airport proposal is being sought by the county, with an answer expected in about four months.

If plans are approved, 50-50 federal matching funds for land acquisition will be sought. Improvement expenses thereafter would be shared on the basis of 50 per cent federal, 25 per cent state and 25 per cent local, the committee reported.

Approximately $25 million will be needed to establish the jet airport, according to Hamlin. Ultimately the investment could be much more, he admitted, depending on the airport's growth.

Suspect in Murder Found Shot in Car

Kreitmeyer's residence about 7:30 a.m. yesterday by a neighbor, Mrs. Ivan Sawyer of 3049 Glenbroke St.

Mrs. Sawyer told Oakland County Sheriff's deputies the woman drove up near Kreitmeyer's house and got into his car. Mrs. Sawyer told officers the woman waited in his car for about 20 minutes and met him as he walked to the curb. Kreitmeyer and the woman then entered the home.

Mrs. Sawyer told police she thought the woman's car was gone by 10 a.m. Dr. Richard E. Olsen, St. Joseph Mercy Hospital pathologist who performed the autopsy, said Kreitmeyer died sometime between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. yesterday.

Kreitmeyer had called school officials to report he would be unable to show up for classes yesterday morning. Capt. Leo Hazen of the Sheriff's Department said Miss Hite was not at a teachers' workshop she was scheduled to attend yesterday in Waterford Township.

RECEIVED CALL

Miss Fair told Condit she received a call from her roommate about 11 a.m. who said "everything between them was all right now."

Miss Hite called the Pontiac home economics teacher again about 6 p.m. at home, according to Condit. Her roommate said she was going away and might never return, Miss Fair told Condit.

Nellenback, who graduated from Michigan State University with Kreitmeyer, had been away for the weekend and didn't return to their residence until yesterday evening.

Miss Fair had been trying to reach Kreitmeyer all afternoon. She called about 6:30 p.m. Nellenback answered the phone and told her Kreitmeyer had been killed.

Warns Kennedy of 'Blackmail'

Includes Dark Words in Note Okaying Talks at Ministers' Level

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy told Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev today that the purpose of the great powers now in approaching negotiations at Geneva must be to avoid "sterile exchanges of propaganda" and "make real progress toward disarmament."

MOSCOW (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev threatened today to resume nuclear tests in the atmosphere if the United States carries out its plans for atmospheric tests.

The Soviet Tass news agency said the threat was included in Khrushchev's note to President Kennedy accepting the Anglo-American proposal for opening the Geneva disarmament talks next week at the foreign ministers' level.

Khrushchev said Kennedy committed something that "would look too much like atomic blackmail" in offering to cancel the American tests if the Soviet Union would agree to a new test ban treaty with controls.

"Such methods, when used with regard to the Soviet Union, have neevr brought any laurels to anyone in the past nor will they produce any results today or tomorrow," Khrushchev said.

SET APRIL DEADLINE

President Kennedy said last Friday night that the United States would resume nuclear testing in the atmosphere unless an agreement could be reached by late April for a test ban with adequate controls.

The President said he would go to Geneva and sign such an agreement if one were reached before American testing arrangements at Christmas Island in the Pacific are completed.

"If the U.S. and its allies add another series of tests to the tests they have already held," Khrushchev said, "the Soviet Union will face the need to hold such tests in new types of its nuclear weapons as might be required in the obtaining circumstances to strengthen its security and preserve cold war peace."

Khrushchev said that while he would prefer a Geneva summit meeting, he had "no objection" to the Soviet, American and British foreign ministers meeting for three-power talks before the disarmament sessions start March 14.

The Day in Birmingham
C. of C. Sets Up Program as Hub in Area Promotion

BIRMINGHAM—A 14-point work program has been developed by the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce as the basis of its future activities to promote the area.

"The work of the chamber must be both intensified and expanded if we are to maintain the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills area as the type of community in which we want to live and do business or practice a profession," said Henry F. Johnson, chamber president.

"The goal of the chamber is the unification and coordination of all interests in a far reaching effort, incorporating 14 basic points to make ours a better community," Johnson said.

In addition to continuing to a greater degree many of the activities currently promoted by the chamber, goals include the implementing of the Central Business District Development Plan by energetic action in all phases of the program.

The development and promotion of special events which not only are of interest to local residents but which would expand the Birmingham image throughout the area, is another concern of the chamber.

ACTIVE PROGRAM

The chamber also wants to conduct an active program to sell the Birmingham - Bloomfield - Franklin area to professional and business executives as a superior community in which to live.

Also to be studied is the need for a hospital for Birmingham.

The group also wants to activate a professional division to work on problems of mutual interest with all other divisions of members.

The chamber plans to start a program to publish membership directories, histories of the area, maps and other materials designed to attract both residents and customers to Birmingham.

described as having high ability—their IQs sometimes ranging from 120 to 130. Most of these are called underachievers. These are the children who have high mental ability but don't use it.

"Children who are these so-called underachievers wouldn't quit if they had success," Proud adds. "Children are like adults; they need success."

But how can they succeed, if for example they can't read?

READING VITAL

In some geographical areas, the disability may exist because of a vacuum in a school's teaching program.

In Pontiac—where there is a thorough program of remedial reading offered — two remaining factors are difficult to deal with:

1—Emotional problems;

2—Not sufficient exposure to good reading practice.

The child who is wrapped up emotionally in the death of a relative, in the unsettling fact of an impending divorce of mother and father or merely in the fate of a pet-dog run over by an automobile—this is the child who cannot concentrate on his task.

The slow reader's exposure to reading material in the home is often limited to second- and third-hand comic books.

"The children who achieve in school," notes Proud, "are more likely to be readers of good newspapers, good magazines, good books. They are widely and broadly read and have fun in reading. They tend to think more logically, because they push themselves intellectually."

Victory in Airport Suit May Run Into Millions

By The Associated Press

A damage case of a few thousand dollars decided in favor of a Pittsburgh man by the U. S. Supreme Court could run to millions of dollars if applied to airports across the nation.

Thomas N. Griggs' complaint that low-flying aircraft from the Allegheny County, Pa., airport made his home unlivable is not unique. It is a problem common to many localities.

Tom Bernard, president of the Airport Operators Council, said the decision Monday could cost airports a tremendous amount of money.

Suits similar to Griggs' are pending in Portland, Ore.; in Memphis, Tenn.; in Denver, Colo.; in Columbus, Ohio, and other locations.

MANY IN N. Y.

Perhaps the largest concentration of such cases is in New York City where 809 homeowners in Queens claim that low-flying airplanes using Idlewild Airport lowered the value of their property. The mass action seeks damages of 40 per cent of the value of the homes, which range from $15,000 to $40,000.

Another concentration involves the Seattle-Tacoma International Airport, operated by the Port of Seattle. The Port of Seattle entered the Griggs case as a "friend of the court," saying about 250 property owners with claims amounting to millions of dollars seek damages because of low-flying aircraft.

"An unprecedented wave of litigation with an insurmountable financial burden placed upon public airports contrary to the public interest and welfare" may result from the Griggs suit, the Seattle agency said in its brief.

It added that every national airport was concerned about claims from property owners.

"That's why we have spent money to acquire homes in the clear zone," said Alan Stewart, Dade County port director, in Miami.

"We recently paid $1 million for a clear zone up to 2,000 feet so that no one would feel that they had their property confiscated."

Bill Against Bias in Cemeteries Killed in Senate

The State Senate yesterday killed a bill to forbid racial discrimination in cemeteries, stemming from the refusal of Troy's White Chapel Memorial Cemetery to inter an American Indian.

Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Pontiac, the bill's sponsor, said he would move for reconsideration of the 17-9 vote today.

The Troy cemetery's action in August 1960 stirred the protests of Indians and many sympathetic white persons across the state.

Cemetery officials had ordered the body of World War I veteran George Nash of Ferndale removed after it had been laid in a grave next to his wife's because he was "not white."

Although Mrs. Nash was part Indian, officials had decided she was white and her body could remain. Mr. Nash was buried in the veterans' plot at Perry Mount Park Cemetery in Pontiac.

3,100 Cast Votes in Three Districts

Kahn, a Pontiac attorney, opposed the mayor in 1958, Rowston won both elections.

The District 4 outcome had Bottom in front with a comfortable margin of 169 votes. Howard A. Stites, making his first bid in politics, polled 114 votes.

Thus, the April election will pit two foes of the 1960 election. Bottom, 36, of 174 Euclid Ave., is secretary - treasurer of the Thomas Die & Stamping Co., in Pontiac.

Miles, 53, of 160 W. Columbia Ave., had been District 4 Commissioner for six years. A Pontiac resident for 48 years, he is currently chairman of the City Commission's transportation committee, and owner of a religious literature shop.

Strongest showing in the primary was made by District 1 incumbent Milton R. Henry, 41 of 192 Bassett St.

He won all of his district's seven precincts by a lopsided margin. A Pontiac attorney, he will be seeking his third two-year term on the commission in April.

Bowens, 39, of 316 Harrison St., polled 154 votes to 108 for the loser, Linwood L. Flack Jr., 39, of 392 Ditmar St. Both Bowens and Flack, a metal finisher at GMC Truck & Coach Division, were running for public office for the first time.

B58 Jet Shatters 3 Speed Records, Many Windows

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An Air Force B58 bomber has broken three transcontinental speed records, uncounted dozens of windows and the tranquility of citizens along a 40-mile corridor from coast to coast.

The 1,300-m.p.h. jet made the trip Monday from Los Angeles to New York in 2 hours, 1 minute, took 26-plus minutes to turn around and refuel over the Atlantic, and streaked back here in 2 hours, 15 minutes.

Total elapsed time for the 4,900-mile, non-stop round trip: 4 hours, 42 minutes, 32 seconds.

Gen. Thomas S. Power, chief of the Strategic Air Command, told newsmen the flight "should impress any potential aggressors with the idea that we have a choice of weapons to win a decisive victory in the event that war is forced upon us."

He was less direct when asked who was going to pay for the windows broken by the sonic boom that trailed the B58. "The Air Force," he said, "will comply with the law of the land."

Her Loving Husband's Remarks That's What

What Makes Little Woman's Blood Boil?

By HAL BOYLE

"Hortense, you can't wear a dress like that. It's not your style. Frankly, it makes you look way too young."

BOYLE

"So what if the dinner does get cold? It isn't civilized to try to make a man rush his martini."

"Don't tell me what the kids did wrong today. I had a hard day myself at the office."

"I realize I haven't taken you any place this month, but after all I took you out twice last month."

WHAT'S THE MATTER?

"Here's an item in the papers about a wife asking for a divorce merely because her husband used her for a dart board. What's the matter with women today — are they all turning into sissies?"

"I hear Joe Bloafer's wife got a job making $97.50 a week to start. Why don't you take a look at the help-wanted ads, baby? Maybe you'll be lucky, too."

"Hey, Hortense, the power mower is busted again. Can you get the pliers and fix it—like a good little girl?"

"Sure, it's okay if your mother spends a couple of weeks with us next month. You and her can have the whole place to yourselves. I'll take my vacation then—and go fishing with a couple of boys from the office."

"Of course, I love you. Didn't I tell you that before I married you?"

"Never mind bothering to fix breakfast for me this morning, Hortense. I'll burn the toast myself."

"No, I didn't forget it was your birthday. I just thought that at your age you wouldn't want me to remember it."

BUTTON PUSHERS

"Sure we can afford a cruise to the West Indies—if your heart's really set on it. Just put aside $2 a week out of your household allowance, and we can make it in about 10 years."

"No wonder wives get that middle-aged spread. All they do is lie around the house all day taking naps."

"What're we having for dinner? Did you say shish ke-bab? And tomato surprise? And apple brown betty with pistachio ice cream? Why can't you ever show a little ingenuity? That's exactly what I had for lunch."

Defector Claims Chinese Upset

Red Pilot Flew MIG15 to Formosa, Reports People Are Desperate

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Lt. Liu Cheng-Sze, a fighter pilot who defected with his MIG15 from Red China, said Monday "the people of the mainland are in a desperate condition and ready to rise against the Communist bandits."

It was music to the ears of Nationalist Chinese officers, who have been saying the same thing for years. Their theory is that a major revolt, with speedy support from Formosa, would topple the Peiping regime.

Nationalist China's scale of awards for defecting pilots who land their Communist planes intact rates the MIG15 at $35,000 in gold.

Liu said, however, he escaped not for a reward but just to become a free man and join the Nationalists in fighting the Communists.

Liu said he wanted to "help rescue the millions of people there suffering under the tyrannic yoke of the Communists."

DO YOU THINK YOU ARE SAFELY DEPOSITING YOUR MONEY... WHEN YOU ARE ACTUALLY BUYING SHARES?

ONLY A BANK CAN ACCEPT DEPOSITS!

A SAVINGS ACCOUNT ..... IN A SAVINGS AND ..... LOAN ASSOCIATION ..... IS NOT THE SAME ..... AS A SAVINGS ..... ACCOUNT IN A BANK!

Why gamble with the security of your family and savings? Banks give you a solid guarantee to remain in a sound and liquid condition. Their assets are kept sufficiently liquid to pay depositors on demand. Savings and Loan Associations* only promise — not guarantee — to have funds available to repurchase your shares. Most Savings and Loan Associations invest more than 95 per cent of the money received from the sale of their shares in long term real estate mortgage loans. As most homeowners realize, these mortgages cannot be readily converted into cash at a moment's notice, and especially during a financial crisis, when you need the money most. This is the major reason the law permits an Association to delay repurchasing shares when it does not have the funds available.

Bringing Up Baby

It's the wise mother who controls her own anger before disciplining the child. A few antidotes for toddler tantrums:

- Plenty of rest. Do not let baby get over-tired or over-stimulated before bedtime.
- Plenty of freedom. Outdoors or indoors, a toddler should have a chance to play without over-strict supervision.
- Try to avoid situations that are likely to produce tantrums. Use distraction when storm signals do appear.
- When the tempest is over, let your child know you love him.

Toddlers, creepers or babes-in-arms all benefit from fruits and vegetables for the vitamins and minerals they supply. Gerber Strained and Junior Fruits and Vegetables are specially made to make your tykes like to eat these important foods. What's more, they're cooked in the absence of air to preserve the utmost in flavor and nutritive goodness.

If your baby or toddler is going through an anti-milk stage, you can get extra milk into a reluctant drinker by serving Gerber Custard Puddings, Cottage Cheese with Pineapple and putting extra milk on Gerber Cereals.

Cute "train of thought". To make a cost-nothing train for your toddler, just string several empty Gerber Cereal boxes together, leaving a good length for pulling. Makes a swell "choo-choo" worth hours of fun.

Cover story for cherubs. Gerber Baby pants are made of soft, soft, polyvinyl film that won't stiffen for the life of the pants. Amply cut to allow for growth. Machine washable; medium, large, extra-large. Pull-on or snap-on styles. Gerber Products Company, Fremont, Michigan

Gains, Losses of Blue Chips Fractional

Mart Takes It Easy During Lull

NEW YORK (AP) — Except for a few moves of specific issues, the stock market seemed to be standing on dead center early today. Trading was quiet.

Gains and losses of most key stocks were fractional. Quite a number of issues showed no change.

The decision of Southern California savings and loan associations to raise their annual dividend rate on savings brought little immediate response from stocks of the holding companies for these firms.

DuPont was up a point in a routine move. The tone among other chemicals was slightly higher on balance, Union Carbide gaining a fraction.

A large early block was 17,000 shares of Rayonier, unchanged at 22¼.

Although Standard Oil of Indiana picked up a fraction, the trend among oils was mixto ohio stocks changed to easy. Rails also tended to the soft side. Southern Pacific and Southern Railway were among fractional losers. Pennsylvania Railroad nudged higher.

Prices were irregular on the American Stock Exchange. Insurance Co. of North America lost more than a point. Draper, Aniken Chemical, and Technicolor were other losers. Cee Corp., Giannini Controls and Gulf American Land were among the gainers.

Bond Opening Is Steady

Over the counter dealers in U.S. government securities quoted intermediates up 2/32 and some long issues higher by 1/32 to 2/32. Activity was limited.

Price changes were held at a minimum among corporates traded on the New York Stock Exchange. A few industrials and utilities appeared to edge upward while rails were mixed.

Among the few changes amounting to a full point or more were New York Central Railroad 4s up 1⅛ at 56⅞ and Consolidated Edison 3s of 1981 by 1⅛ at 82.

Reds Better Off Without Ulbricht?

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

It any one man in the Communist zone can be said to block direct contact between East and West Germany, that man would be East German Communist party boss Walter Ulbricht.

West Germans do not even consider him to be German, since through most of the Nazi era he lived in Moscow and took out Soviet citizenship.

So thoroughly is he disliked in West Germany that it is unlikely that, regardless of circumstances, any high-level conversations between the two Germanys could take place so long as he remains in power.

Publicly, in the West, Ulbricht generally is contemptuously dismissed as a compliant servant of the Kremlin who at home seeks without popular support to cultivate an Ulbricht cult.

A publication of the West German press and information office called "The Bulletin" recently decided to devote nearly two full pages to a discussion of Herr Ulbricht under the provocative title: "Can Moscow Afford Herr Ulbricht?"

When Moscow down-graded Stalin, says the bulletin, it naturally was expected that among the first to fall would be Ulbricht.

This was because:

"Ever since the beginning of the Ulbricht dictatorship in Central Germany, the times there have been characterized by the same practices that were part and parcel of Stalin's rule: intolerance, dogmatism, collective terror, arbitrary court practices, deportation, enforced labor, mutual spying and constraint of conscience."

His pursuit of the personality cult has become ludicrous, says the publication. His activities range from final decisions over party, economic and defense matters, to field trips in which "he slaps workmen on the back, inspires women to do more work," and finally to "historic" interviews and the writing of "fundamental" books.

In its indictment, the bulletin says:

FAILS EVERYWHERE

"That Herr Ulbricht has failed in the sphere of human leadership is already historically documented by the fact that some three million persons have fled the Soviet zone. . . .

"In the agricultural sector, his experiments have transformed what was once the larder of Germany into a distress area . . .

"In the cultural field, Herr Ulbricht has transformed central Germany into a veritable desert."

The publication dubs as "obvious nonsense" Ulbricht's attempts to blame his economic woes on the flood of refugees who escaped East Germany or on the free status of West Berlin. It renews the West German demand for his removal and concludes:

"It is a welcome circumstance that this removal would also be in the interest of the Soviet Union."

Nikita Khrushchev has not hesitated to humiliate Ulbricht when he chose to do so. One such circumstance came last October when Khrushchev again put off signing a separate peace treaty with East Germany.

Now Ulbricht has returned from another trip to Moscow where it may be assumed important decisions were reached. Whether Ulbricht was upgraded or humiliated again remains to be seen.

Ski Lift Bill Now in Senate

Provides for Inspection by State in Order to Assure Safety

LANSING (UP)—A bill providing for the inspection and regulation of ski lifts by the State Labor Department has been moved up to final passage stage in the Senate.

The measure was advanced Monday night for possible final vote today when the sponsor, Sen. Raymond D. Dzendzel, D-Detroit, said the ski industry was ready to cooperate.

"They are interested in seeing that accidents do not happen so as to drive ski enthusiasts from Michigan," Dzendzel said, citing several recent ski lift accidents, including one fatality.

An amendment providing inspection of terrain, too, was eliminated after Sen. Frederic Hilbert, R-Wayland, objected it could condemn an entire ski area.

"If you want to break your necks, it's OK with me," shrugged Sen. Perry W. Greene, R-Grand Rapids, although he contended it was meant to apply only to terrain under the ski lift.

The Senate killed, by sending back to committee, a measure that would have tightened the requirements for receiving the veterans homestead exemption, which at present exempts up to $2,000 in homestead taxation for eligible veterans.

The bill would have denied the exemption to veterans making $5,000 or more if single and $7,000 or more a year if married.

Sen. Frank D. Beadle, R-St. Clair, the sponsor, said the cost to the state of the tax exemption has risen from $1½ million a year to $9 million in 10 years.

"The original intent was to help those veterans who couldn't otherwise meet their tax payments," Beadle said. "Unless we are willing to take some steps toward economy, we might as well all get on the bandwagon and be spenders."

SPEED RECORD ROUTE — Map indicates path traveled from Los Angeles to New York and return to Los Angeles by an Air Force B58 jet bomber in official record times of 2 hours, 1 minute and 39.6 seconds for the trip to New York; and 2 hours, 15 minutes, 12 seconds for the return. The plane, with a crew of three, took off from Carswell Air Force Base, Tex., and refueled over the Pacific before starting the dash across country, then refueled midway through both trips. An additional 26 minutes were used in turning around and refueling over the Atlantic.

At Pontiac Municipal Airport

North Central More Optimistic

Increased patronage last month has North Central Airlines officials at Pontiac Municap Airport optimistic about spring airline traffic here.

"We're looking for a strong upsurge in passengers on NCA flights in the next few months," said J. O. Edwards, station manager.

There were 19 passengers on outbound flights in February and 17 in January.

"This is more of an increase than it looks because there were three more days the previous month." Increases were also felt in outbound air mail and inbound air express mail.

The total passenger load, however, slipped slightly due to a decrease in inbound passengers from 25 in January to 14 in February. Passengers totaled 33 last month and 42 in January.

During February, outbound NCA flights carried 296 pounds of air mail, 128 pounds of air express, and 1,886 pounds of air freight.

January inbound flights carried 28 pounds of air mail, 10 pounds air express and 2,059 pounds air freight. There were 48 flights in February, 24 in each direction.

Motorist Fixed, but Good by Versatile Mechanic

Darnall told mechanic Cooper his car was sluggish and tacked it "get up and go." Cooper towed it up—possibly too well. A little later Darnall came back to Justice Cooper with a speeding ticket.

School Board Members to Inform Citizens

To Discuss Waterford Twp. Millage

Waterford Township School Supt. William Shunck and four members of the school board will conduct a panel discussion 8 p.m. today at Pierce Junior High School on the proposed five-mill levy for the school district, effective over the next seven years.

The discussion is being sponsored by the Greater Waterford Community Council in an effort to inform as many citizens as possible on the aspects of the millage issue.

Following the panel discussion a town hall-type meeting will be held with comments and questions from the floor.

If the full five mills is spread, it is estimated that the average Waterford Township home owner will pay an additional $25 per year based on an average assessed valuation of $2,500.

The millage proposal will be on the ballot of the special school election March 20.

School board members serving on the panel will be president, Elton C. Rosegart; treasurer Robert Field; and trustees, Frederick J. Poole and Edmund Windeler.

The Greater Waterford Community Council, organized just over a year ago with community betterment as its purpose, has conducted an intensive publicity campaign to inform the public on tonight's meeting.

Following the panel discussion and town hall meeting on the millage issue, the GWCC will hold an election of officers, to guide the organization for the next 12 months.

Discuss Requests by Township Police

Two requests by the Waterford Township police chief, one concerning police salaries and the other pertaining to a disorderly persons ordinance for the township, were discussed at length by the Township Board Monday but action was deferred on both.

Chief Millard Pender requested the board to approve a pay raise for four officers from $5,100 to $5,300 per year. Patrolmen start at $4,800 and the salary scale graduates to $5,500.

Recent policy has been that the rate goes to $5,100 after six months service, $5,300 after a year and to the top rate of $5,500 after two years service. All pay increases are contingent on the recommendation of the command officers after each service period.

Board members talked over the length of time that should be set between eligibility for step increases and whether the department head or Township Board approve the raise.

Trustees Byron Cole and Loren Anderson expressed the opinion that department heads should be given the responsibility of granting increases to qualified personnel in keeping within the budget of their department.

Supervisor Elmer Johnson suggested the calling of a special meeting to formulate a workable plan for all township departments. The meeting was set for Sunday at 2 p.m. and action on the recommendations made at the special meeting is expected to come at the regular March 12 meeting of the board.

Chief Pender recommended a disorderly persons ordinance for the township because it would eliminate the necessity of going to the prosecutor's office prior to obtaining a warrant and would also benefit the township by keeping fines there rather than turning them over to a state fund.

Charter townships are permitted to set up their own disorderly persons ordinance and Waterford became a charter township last year. The board instructed Township Atty. Paul Mandel to work out details with Chief Pender and draw up a proposed ordinance for consideration of the board.

Bids on the construction of 348 feet of sanitary sewer on Edgefield Street were opened and will be referred to the consulting engineers for study. Bid range was $3,287.86 to $4,909.20.

A request for rezoning of a parcel on Tilden at Elizabeth Lake Road from residential to commercial was reviewed and then tabled pending the effective date of the new zoning ordinance.

U.S. OKs Training for 200 State Jobless

LANSING (UP) — Job retraining programs for 200 unemployed stenographers and clerk-typists in Michigan have been approved by the U.S. Labor Department, Gov. Swainson said Monday.

The department will furnish $88,800 for subsistence allowances for trainees in Macomb and Wayne counties, the governor said. The U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare will furnish $27,840 for use of public education facilities for the program.

Hannah Cites His Rights Until Job

Says Attacks on MSU Personal

EAST LANSING (UP) — Dr. John A. Hannah, Michigan State University president, believes MSU is singled out for attack as a hot bed of liberalism and Communistic views because he served as chairman of the Federal Civil Rights Commission.

Recent statements by some legislators and other leaders have tainted all of higher education with a pinkish brush, but Dr. Hannah believes the criticism directed at MSU is due to his service on the federal commission named to investigate racial discrimination in the nation.

"I feel bad about it," he said, "because this university is getting criticized through me." He believes the attack to be personal, and he obviously is taking it as such.

The criticism stems from the controversy surrounding Dr. John Moore, a faculty member, and a speech last fall by a former University of Illinois professor who is credited with saying the "marriage vows don't mean a thing."

INVOLVES OATH

The Moore case involves MSU's reported stand on the loyalty oath and the affidavit of disclaimer that a recipient of a National Defense Education Act Student Loan never has been nor is now a member of the Communist party.

Hannah explained the MSU trustees did not take action against either one of these, but that some 200 colleges and universities in the nation did ask that the affidavit of disclaimer be omitted from the NDEA loan act.

This request also was made by former President Eisenhower, he said. Boards of controls of Ferris, Kalamazoo College, University of Michigan, and Wayne State all took official action asking that the disclaimer be omitted.

"We did the least, but get the most criticism," he said.

The MSU faculty did meet and voted to ask that the disclaimer be omitted. All voted for the motion except Dr. Moore.

The loyalty oath, that says a person is loyal to the United States, never was questioned, Hannah said. Every MSU professor and employe sign it, and have signed it for years.

Every teacher must sign such an oath before he can be certified to teach in Michigan schools, he said. The recent bill passed by the Michigan House of Representatives only duplicates this provision all ready in the law, Dr. Hannah maintains.

The visiting University of Illinois professor achieved national attention for his views on free love. He was not invited to MSU by the university, Hannah said, but came at the invitation of a group. His speech, however, received widespread publicity. Hannah dismissed this reaction, however, with:

"If young men and women who reach the age of 20 or 21 on a university campus can be swayed by every crackpot that speaks, then we're in real trouble."

Hannah said every day he receives at least one letter criticizing MSU for communism or being too liberal. He believes the campaign is organized, and said some days four or five letters are received from one Michigan town, then the next day similar letters are received from another and so on. Each letter is noted with copies to the same three state senators. This, it was explained, apparently because these senators are in positions of influence on appropriations for MSU.

Other awards went to "The Mark," as the best foreign-made film, and to "A Majority of One," named the film contributing most to international understanding.
