Explodes Over W. Germany

27 Die in Navy Plane Crash

AP Photofax

WRECKAGE IN GERMANY — A West German soldier guards wreckage of a four-engine U.S. Navy plane which apparently exploded in the air, crashed and burned, killing all 27 persons aboard, near Ebersberg, West Germany, today. The plane was a WV2 Constellation. The tail section was found miles from the main wreckage.

Bodies Mangled After Fast Fall; Craft Burns Up

20 Victims Recovered; Constellation Said to Be on Secret Mission

From Our News Wires

MUNICH, Germany — A four-engine U.S. Navy reconaissance plane on a secret mission apparently exploded in the air today, crashed and burned six miles east of Munich, killing all 27 persons aboard.

U.S. authorities at the scene said at least 20 bodies were recovered, and a spokesman expressed belief 26 were on board.

But a spokesman at Atlantic Fleet Air Force Headquarters at Norfolk, Va., said there were 27 and disclosed the classified nature of the flight.

An Air Force spokesman here had said the plane was on a routine training flight.

An Air Force spokesman said the craft carried five Navy officers, 18 Navy enlisted men and four Army enlisted men.

★ ★ ★

A U.S. Army spokesman in Munich said the plane, a WV2 Constellation, was believed to have blown up in the air because the tail section was found several miles from the main wreckage.

★ ★ ★

The plane was based in Rota, Spain, and had flown up to Frankfurt. It was out on a flight from Frankfurt but had planned to return there before taking off for Spain.

The plane plummeted down in an open field near this South Bavarian town. Witnesses said some of the bodies were badly burned or mangled.

Many Germans reported hearing a loud explosion. Several Germans said they saw the big plane roll over in the air several times before crashing.

TORE APART IN AIR

The cause of the crash is not yet known. But witnesses said the plane tore apart while flying at about 10,000 feet.

Traffic controllers said the pilot radioed for clearance for an emergency landing, but apparently was unable to make the runway.

A Pan American World Airways pilot, Capt. O. Abrahamsen, gave the first alarm.

"There are pieces of fuselage falling past me," he radioed the Munich control tower at 6:36 a.m. EDT. "There's an airplane disintegrating,"

"I see a tail section now," he reported.

Abrahamsen was piloting a jet passenger liner on the Frankfurt-Istanbul leg of a round-the-world flight. He was flying at 4,000 feet over the edge of Munich when he spotted plummeting pieces of the Navy plane.

Fourteen fire crews from Munich and almost 200 U.S. troops fought the blazing wreckage more than an hour before extinguishing the flames.

MICHIGAN WEEK ★ MAY 20-26 1962
WELCOME
MAYOR ROBERT LANDRY
CITY OF PONTIAC
MAYORS EXCHANGE DAY MAY 21 1962

GET INSIDE STORY — Visiting Jackson Mayor Bernard Magiera (left) and his delegation had an inside look at three local General Motors divisions yesterday. On Mayor Exchange Day

Jackson Greets Landry

When Pontiac Mayor Robert Landry and his wife Lorraine arrived at Jackson City Hall yesterday it was just like home.

Awaiting them were two shiny, new 1962 Pontiacs bearing "Welcome, Mayor Landry" banners.

A large welcoming party included the young son of Jackson Mayor Bernard Magiera, pinch-hitting for his dad who was getting a similar reception in Pontiac.

Both Landry and his wife said they "had a wonderful time," but possibly the most bright-eyed beneficiaries of Mayor Exchange Day were the Landrys' seven children.

BIG GIFT BOX

Jackson officials knew in advance of the Landry's large family and late last night, when Mom and Dad returned, they carried with them a box of gifts for the children ranging from chocolate candies to piggy banks.

The Landrys' tour of Jackson included an inside look at rubber production at the Goodyear Rubber Co. plant there and a tour of Jackson Prison grounds.

They also saw a big, new YMCA building, the Jackson Boys Club, and numerous other community facilities, before joining with city administrators and commissioners for a banquet to end Exchange Day festivities last night.

The story was the same all over Michigan as some 300 similar swaps took place between cities and villages.

In Detroit and Birmingham it was generally agreed by all parties that the job-changing, although only for a day, was a good one.

Detroiters were honored with the attractive executive Mrs. Florence H. Willett while Birmingham was in the capable administrative hands of Mayor Jerome Cavanagh.

Preliminary Millage Established in County

The Oakland County Tax Allocation Board yesterday fixed 1962 preliminary millages for townships, school districts and county government to the dissatisfaction of all parties concerned.

The board's action indicates that none of the units of government is likely to receive the millage it is seeking in order to finance next year's proposed budgets.

To meet the requests of each would require in excess of 25 mills.

The State Constitution only allows spreading 15 mills ($15 per $1,000 of valuation) on property owners outside incorporated municipalities for all purposes.

Preliminary millages fixed by the allocation board were: 5.40 mills for county government; an average 8.60 mills for schools; and approximately 1 mill for petitioning townships, except for Waterford Township, which would get nothing.

Since Waterford is now a charter township, it can levy its own millage up to 5 mills over the 15-mill limit, the board decreed.

Waterford was asking for 1.23 mills. Last year — before it was chartered — the township received 1.26 mills from the allocation board.

Preliminary rates are fixed pending determination of the county's equalized valuation as a tax base by the State Equalization Board in Lansing. Final rates are expected by the end of the month.

County Superintendent of Schools William Emerson figured the preliminary rates would result in $380,000 less in tax revenues for school districts this year.

County auditors calculated the county's tentative $16,555,202 budget for next year will have to be cut by approximately $1.5 million.

No Action Scheduled on Chief

No further moves to reinstate Herbert W. Straley, former police chief, are on the formal agenda for tonight's City Commission meeting at 8 at City Hall.

The Commission passed a resolution last week by a 4-2 vote approving "the immediate reappointment of Straley as chief of police."

City Manager Robert A. Stierer is in charge of hiring and firing police chiefs.

Stierer hasn't made any move yet, nor has he indicated there will be any action tonight.

However, an ordinance is presently being drafted that would create a new department of claims and investigation for the city. It may be ready in time for introduction tonight.

On the formal agenda, commissioners will be asked to approve the plans for Pontiac's second urban renewal project, R44, and conditions under which relocation payments will be made. A public hearing was held on the plan last Thursday.

Police Smash Plot Against French Leader

At Least 15 Suspects Held as Attempt on De Gaulle's Life Fails

PARIS (AP)—French police spread a dragnet across France and terror-ridden Algeria today for more Secret Army Organization killers implicated in an abortive plot to assassinate President Charles de Gaulle.

At least 15 suspects were held for questioning in Paris as authorities announced the smashing of the second Secret Army attempt on De Gaulle's life in eight months.

Arrests made in Paris, in the French Mediterranean port of Marseille and in Algiers broke up the Secret Army conspiracy to kill De Gaulle during his tour of central France last week.

Some of the conspirators remained at large, however, and police pressed a search for them in France and Algeria.

STAYS IN PALACE

Police pictured the suspects as a desperate band of killers intent on removing France's strong-willed leader and plunging the nation into chaos in an effort to block Algerian independence.

★ ★ ★

De Gaulle stayed within the heavily guarded Elysee Palace in the heart of Paris. He had no announced public engagements today, but is due to appear before several Paris crowds Wednesday in connection with the state visit of President Moktar Ould Daddah of Mauritania.

Police indicated the killers intended to incinerate De Gaulle with gas bombs, but the newspaper Paris-Presse asserted the assassins planned to pick him off with a high-powered rifle equipped with a telescopic sight.

★ ★ ★

BUILD UP PICTURE

More details came with the arrest in Algiers of Francois Leca, a Secret Army agent wanted in the slaying of a military security officer. From long hours of questioning in the three cities, police built up a picture of the plot and obtained the names of the would-be killers, members of a secret army group called Delta.

42 Million Bushels Involved

Estes Grain Will Be Moved

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department said today it will move some 42 million bushels of grain out of elevators and warehouses owned or connected with Billie Sol Estes, Texas financier now under indictment for fraud.

★ ★ ★

In another development, a House subcommittee announced it will open public hearings Monday on the Estes case. Its chairman, Rep. L. H. Fountain, D-N.C., pledged an investigation that will "lay all the facts on the table."

Fountain said he would not foreclose calling Estes as a witness, but said no subpoena had been issued yet. He said he did not know now who the first witnesses will be Monday.

He said it is likely that someone will be brought from Texas to appear during the hearings. He declined to say whether Texas Atty. Gen. Will Wilson would be asked to testify.

★ ★ ★

Fountain heads the House Intergovernmental Relations subcommittee.

Asked if his subcommittee had access to reports of the 76 FBI agents President Kennedy has said are assigned to the case, Fountain said Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy has pledged cooperation.

Estes got more than $7 million in grain storage payments from the government. Storage costs on the 42 million bushels of grain the Agriculture Department plans to move out of his warehouses would run in excess of $5 million a year.

OVER 18 MONTHS

George A. Barnes, an assistant to Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, said the grain will be moved to other locations in an orderly manner over the next 18 months.

Barnes told a news conference that a crash program of moving the grain would cost some $2 million. However, he said, the way in which it is to be done will not cost the government anything additional.

Asked why the grain would be moved, Barnes said it was a matter of public policy.

When asked to clarify his statement, Barnes replied:

"There are a lot of considerations which have to be taken into account on public policy. The secretary of agriculture exercises administrative judgment on matters of this kind. After looking over all that is involved, the decision was made that the best interests of the department would be served by moving this grain out in an orderly manner."

Barnes earlier had said that a new $10-million bond covering the grain stored in the Estes elevators and warehouses had just become valid and is in effect.

Murder Suspect Reported Seen Near State Hospital

A mental patient at Pontiac State Hospital today reported seeing murder suspect Sheldry W. Topp armed with a rifle and driving near the hospital grounds with a red-haired woman in a car.

The authenticity of the report which came in shortly before noon was questioned by the Oakland County Sheriff's deputies since the caller, like Topp, is a mental patient.

However, patrol cars from the Pontiac Police Department and Sheriff's Department were dispatched immediately to the east side of the city.

The caller, who said he recognized Topp from the hospital, told deputies the 17-year-old murder suspect brandished a rifle out the window of a 1961 white Ford as he drove down Elizabeth Lake Road and turned south on State street.

Topp is being sought on a first-degree murder warrant in the fatal stabbing of Charles A. Davis, Oakland County's first assistant corporation counsel.

Topp escaped from the Pontiac hospital Tuesday night, just a few hours before Davis was killed.

The patient who phoned the police said a red-haired white woman, wearing a white coat, was in the car with the escapee.

Topp assaulted a woman in one of his two previous escapes from the Pontiac hospital. He was sent to Boy's Republic following a sex offense as a juvenile, police say.

The last clue to Topp was found in Milwaukee, Wis., where Davis' car was discovered following a hit-run accident. Topp's fingerprints were found on the abandoned auto.

JFK Says Medics Confusing Public

AMA Attacks Medicare as 'Cruel Hoax'

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Medical Association has countered President Kennedy's plea for support of his medical care for the aged plan with an attack on the measure as a cruel hoax that would "heartlessly ignore millions" who need coverage.

In a paid, natonally televised reply to the President, association leaders said Monday night the public is in danger of being "blitzed, brainwashed into swallowing" a plan that would disrupt health services and turn patients into impersonal numbers.

Kennedy was quoted as telling Democratic congressional leaders today that AMA officials are trying to confuse the people about his health plan.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Senate Democratic leader, told reporters after a White House breakfast conference that Kennedy reiterated previous charges that doctors who oppose financing health services for the elderly by Social Security taxes have not studied the administration bill.

Labor, insurance and medical experts will present their viewpoints on the controversial King-Anderson Bill and other medical care plans for the aged at a forum at 1:15 p. m. tomorrow in the hall of Local 594, UAW-CIO, 525 S. East Blvd. The free session is sponsored by the Oakland County Senior Citizens Council.

★ ★ ★

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said later Kennedy did not watch the AMA program. He added that the White House had no comment on it.

The Kennedy-backed King-Anderson measure provides for medical care for the aged under Social Security.

Following the AMA telecast, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Abraham Ribicoff declared that it was "just another staging of 'let's fool the American people again'" and charged that it omitted important factors.

The AMA representatives spoke from Madison Square Garden, the same spot from which Kennedy urged support of the King-Anderson measure a day earlier in a free-time public service national telecast.

But whereas Kennedy spoke before a live audience of 17,500, the two AMA spokesmen sat alone in the vast arena—an arrangement that they said "may help us get across to the American people the grossly unfair disadvantage under which we doctors are laboring to make our voices and our reasons heard."

★ ★ ★

A Boston station, WBZ-TV, refused to carry the program. This brought a complaint from the association that it had been blacked out in the President's home town.

The station said that its decision was based on a policy of not selling time "to organizations or individuals for discussion of controversial issues in which such organizations or individuals are involved."

The station carried President Kennedy's address on medical

"DON'T MAKE US GO BACK" — Tears tell most of the story (left picture) as weeping Yip Yat-Yin carries his son when the couple left Hong Kong after being refused permission to live there. Hong Kong's Chinese residents booed police who forced the family to return. A British soldier (at right) carries a crying refugee boy back to the border after the youth was caught in the Hong Kong area.

Red Chinese Refugees Overwhelming Problem

By DONALD MAY

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U.S. diplomats said today the problem of providing haven for refugees from Red China "may be too enormous for solution."

Several hundred thousand mainland Chinese are reported ready to flee to the free world.

"But the hard fact is," one administration official said, "There may be no place in the free world for them to go."

The Nationalist government on Formosa yesterday offered to take in and try to resettle all mainland Chinese fleeing through Hong Kong.

News Analysis

HAS NO ROOM

But Formosa already has its own acute land shortage and one of the biggest population explosions in the world — greater than India. Officials do not believe it could accept large numbers of new refugees.

In recent weeks Communist guards have suddenly stopped enforcing travel controls along Red China's 22-mile border with Hong Kong.

Since May 1, 30,000 to 40,000 Chinese have flooded into the British crown colony, already jammed with three million people in 398 square miles.

Because the colony could absorb no more, British officials have sealed the border with barbed wire and have been sending refugees back.

POLITICAL ANGLE

U. S. officials, up to President Kennedy himself, have been urgently studying whether this country and possibly others could act on humanitarian grounds to help the refugees, or somehow turn the situation to political advantage.

One idea has been to increase surplus food aid which the U.S. already supplies through private relief organizations in Hong Kong at a rate of $5 million a year.

"But if you feed 50,000 more Chinese, you may just bring 50,000 more to the door," one official said. "And then you would just have to cut it off someplace. There are a half-million Chinese within walking distance of Hong Kong."

Related Story, Page 21

* * *

No one knows how many Chinese might want to come out, but refugees in Hong Kong have spoken of hundreds of thousands ready to follow them.

As to making arrangements to resettle refugees to permit the flow through Hong Kong to be increased, the problem is where?

Most free countries in Asia already are overcrowded and many such as Thailand have strong anti-Chinese feeling. Australia has available land, but also has restrictions against Chinese immigration.

The U.S. immigration quota for Chinese is 105 a year. A bill is pending to increase this to 1,000. There is no U.S. refugee law to permit Chinese immigration above the quota, but the President does have power to parole refugees into the country.

Rep. Francis E. Walter, D-Pa., said yesterday the Chinese Nationalists could deal "an almost mortal blow" to the Red regime by taking substantial numbers of the refugees. Walter said this would demonstrate the failure of communism.

Walter, chairman of the House immigration subcommittee, said in a House speech this country could help by providing food from surplus U.S. stockpiles. But he said the United States could not take in any appreciable number of refugees.

A British poll of other countries was reported to have shown that only a few nations would be willing to take "token" numbers of Chinese.

Trees Aren't Dying, Just Seeding Heavily

Pontiac's trees may be a little seedy, but they're not dying. That's the word from City Forester Donald Nagel in reply to many calls from residents about trees dying in the city.

"Our soft maples, Chinese and American elms and box elders are producing an unusually heavy crop of seeds this year," he explained. "People think the leaves are turning brown and dying but they're seeing large bunches of seeds."

AMA Hits Medicare in Televised Reply

problems from Madison Square Garden last Sunday night.

CLOSE TO GOD

Dr. Edward R. Annis of Miami, Fla., the main AMA speaker, said the relationship between a doctor and his patient is one of the few things "which touch so close to God." He urged viewers to consult their doctors about the measure.

"Our fees are not involved," he declared. "Our practice of quality medicine is. Your health is."

Annis, chairman of the AMA's National Speakers Bureau, said the administration-backed plan "wastefully covers millions who do not need it" and ignores millions who do.

"It will undercut and destroy the wholesome growth of private, voluntary insurance and prepayment health programs for the aged which offer flexible benefits in the full range of individual needs," Annis said.

"It will lower the quality and availability of hospital services throughout our country. It will stand between the patient and his doctor. And it will serve as the forerunner of a different system of medicine for all Americans."

"Don't mistake it," Annis declared. "England's nationalized medical program is the kind of thing they have in mind for us eventually."

'WOULD HURT AGED'

Dr. Leonard W. Larson of Bismarck, N.D., president of the 185,000-member AMA, said the program would deprive older people of "the American system of medicine, based upon the private doctor treating the private patient."

In the last 20 years alone, he said, this system has added 10 years to the life of every American.

Under the King-Anderson proposal, Social Security recipients would be eligible for medical aid financed through a Social Security payroll tax increase of one-fourth of one per cent on employes and employers.

* * *

The AMA favors the present Kerr-Mills law, which provides for federal assistance to states but leaves administration of a program of medical care for the needy over 65 to the states themselves.

Ex-City Woman Dies in Mishap

Port Huron Collision Kills Wife and Injures Former Pontiac Realtor

The wife of a former Pontiac realtor, Mrs. Verna H. Wood, was killed and her husband seriously injured in a two-car collision yesterday afternoon near the Blue Water Bridge in Port Huron.

* * *

Frank C. Wood, 76, the former owner of the F. C. Wood Real Estate Co. in Pontiac, is reported in fair condition today at Port Huron General Hospital. He suffered fractured ribs and severe cuts and bruises.

His 74-year-old wife, the driver, was killed instantly when their auto collided broadside with another car on M146 at the bridge exit ramp.

Port Huron police said Mrs. Wood apparently went through a stop sign at the exit and drove into the side of a car driven by Richard C. Green, 21, Port Huron. Green, who was not seriously hurt, told police his vision of the exit ramp was obstructed by a car which passed him on the inside lane.

LONG-TIME RESIDENTS

The Woods lived in Pontiac for 45 years. After retiring from the real estate business in 1956, Wood and his wife made their winter home in Port Charlotte, Fla., and lived in Harrison, Mich., during the summer.

They were returning from Mrs. Woods' brother's home in Ontario when the accident occurred.

A member of the Congregational Church in Harrison, Mrs. Wood had been a member of Central Methodist Church, the Woman's Society for Christian Service in her church, the Tuesday Musicale and Women's Auxiliary of Pontiac General Hospital, all of Pontiac.

* * *

She had been active here in Parent-Teacher Association of Webster School and with her husband a member of the Wednesday Night Dancing Club.

Surviving besides her husband are a son Charles of Pontiac; a daughter Mrs. Richard Kvitek of Birmingham; four grandsons; a sister Mrs. Albert Douville of Mesa, Ariz., and a brother Glenn Ish of Holloway, Ont.

Mrs. Wood's body is at the Huntoon Funeral Home.

Weather Clears, Outlook Is 'Go'

Experts See Canaveral Skies OK for Carpenter on Thursday

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Twin threats of weather and forest fire smoke dissolved today and Project Mercury officials were optimistic that astronaut Malcolm Scott Carpenter could be launched on his orbital flight Thursday.

Weather experts said smoky haze from two widely scattered fires was not settling in this area as feared Monday.

They said there probably will be some haze in the launching area Thursday but it should not interfere with camera tracking of the Atlas booster rocket.

The fires are in the Everglades, south of Cape Canaveral, and in a marsh 15 miles to the west. The latter was reported only smouldering today.

Possibility of heavy clouds above the Cape on Thursday apparently vanished overnight when a storm front in the Midwest shifted direction to the north-northeast.

The storm earlier was pushing the clouds toward Florida.

There was a possibility of winds and waves in the Atlantic recovery areas, but officials believe conditions will be acceptable on Thursday.

A spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said that based on the present weather forecast, there is a 60-40 chance of achieving a launching Thursday, barring further technical difficulties.

Perform Autopsy in Estes Probe

FRANKLIN, Tex. (UPI) — A team of medical experts performed an autopsy today upon the exhumed body of a farm official said by Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman to have taken secrets of the crumbled Billie Sol Estes empire to the grave with him.

* * *

The purpose of the autopsy is to help a grand jury determine whether the official, Henry H. Marshall, 52, was killed or killed himself. The body of Marshall was found last June 3 and the cause of death officially was listed as suicide.

But the case was reopened and handed to the grand jury because of a growing curiosity about one extraordinary factor in Marshall's death. The factor was that he was shot five times with a .22-caliber rifle.

After the first shot, it took 16 separate movements to operate the bolt action of the rifle and fire an additional four shots. Some persons doubted that Marshall would have had the strength to shoot himself five times.

* * *

The autopsy was performed in a funeral home in Bryan, Tex., about 30 miles from Franklin, where the grand jury was meeting.

* * *

Dr. Joseph Jachimczyk, the Harris County (Houston) pathologist, and a chemist and a ballistics expert said they will try to have a report for the grand jury later today.

The body was exhumed from a sealed vault in a small cemetery yesterday.

Delegate King in Ogemaw Post

City's Representative at Con-Con Is Named County Prosecutor

Scratch one rumored candidate from the state representatives' race in Oakland County.

Raymond L. King, Pontiac's con-con delegate who was considered a challenger for the 2nd District seat held by Arthur J. Law, was appointed yesterday as prosecuting attorney of Ogemaw County.

King, 32, will serve the unexpired term of the late prosecutor Randall B. Clemence, who died April 5. The term expires Dec. 31. King said he will seek re-election to the post this year on the Republican ticket.

He expects to run unopposed in the GOP primary Aug. 7.

Until Mr. Clemence's death, King said he had planned to resume his law practice in Pontiac and had considered running for election to the state House of Representatives after con-con ended May 11.

* * *

Last week he opened a law office in West Branch, county seat of Ogemaw County. The county is located northwest of Saginaw Bay. About midway between Pontiac and the Mackinac Bridge.

King's wife Jean and their three children still live in Pontiac. They plan to join the new prosecutor after the school year ends.

A native of Maine, King pulled one of the surprises of last year's con-con elections when he won on the Republican ticket in traditionally Democratic Pontiac.

At the con-con, he served on committees on executive branches and emerging problems.

King was appointed Ogemaw County prosecutor by Circuit Judge Dennis J. O'Keefe.

Livelihood Day Will Spotlight State Industry

Industry will have its day tomorrow as Michigan Week moves along to Livelihood Day.

Special tours and displays, honoring industry for its contribution to the economic well-being of Michigan communities, are planned throughout the state.

In Oakland County, exhibits are planned in Holly, Clawson, Oxford and Milford. Hazel Park has scheduled open house tours of 12 different industries.

Other county highlights of Livelihood Day are a parade, fashion show and luncheon at Northland Center and a joint service club luncheon at the Birmingham Community House.

The day will be topped off with a salute to Michigan on Perry Como's national TV show (Channel 4 at 9 p.m., Pontiac time).

Memorial Day Parade to Be Planned at Post

'62 'Key Man,' Deighan, Elected Jaycee President

BIRMINGHAM — Patrick Deighan, recipient of the Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce Key Man award earlier this year, has been elected president of the organization.

Deighan, 30, of 338 Ottawa Road, has been a Jaycee member for five years, serving two terms as vice president.

In February he received the Key Man award for his contributions to the Jaycees, the highest honor that is bestowed on a member by the organization.

He is a sales representative for the Birmingham division of the Automobile Club of Michigan.

Deighan succeeds James Willoughby to the top post.

* * *

Other officers elected are Gerry Dudley, William Kenyon and Joseph Vaughn, vice presidents; William Taylor, treasurer; and Bowen Broock, secretary.

Named to the board of directors were George Smith, William Hall, James Fisher and Jack Tracy.

A Birmingham resident has been named the winner of the Dr. A. Ashley Rousuck Award in Internal Medicine at Wayne State University's College of Medicine, Dr. Morton Levitt, assistant dean, announced today.

Marie N. Fly, 32, of 1031 Knox St., was named to receive the honor. She is a graduate of Maury High School in Norfolk, Va., and WSU.

The award was provided for in Dr. Rousuck's will. It is awarded on the basis of outstanding scholarship.

Enrollments for kindergarteners in the Bloomfield Hills School District for the 1962-63 school year will be taken during the week of May 28-June 1.

* * *

Registrations will be taken during that time from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. at Conant, Eastover, Hickory Grove, Pine Lake, Vaughn and Wing Lake schools. Parents of children who will attend the new Booth School can enroll them at Wing Lake School.

In order to be eligible for kindergarten, children must be five years of age on or before Dec. 1. Birth certificates are necessary for enrollment.

Children need not accompany parents. Orientation for the youngsters will be held in September.

Injunction Won by Shop Owner

Birmingham Enjoined to Halt Eviction in Circuit Court Order

A circuit court injunction was issued yesterday to prevent the city of Birmingham from evicting a dress shop owner from her store.

Mrs. Kathie Craig, owner of the Cindy Kay Dress Outlet at 208 Hamilton St., was granted the injunction by Circuit Judge William J. Beer.

A hearing was set for June 4 to determine whether the temporary injunction should be made permanent.

Birmingham officials recently served Mrs. Craig with a 30-day eviction notice because her shop is not a fireproof building, violating a city ordinance.

Last fall, however, city building officials had approved Mrs. Craig's plans for remodeling and had issued a certificate of occupancy and a business license.

* * *

The former fashion artist said she spent $5,000 for repairs and modernization after leasing the building and put in about $10,000 worth of stock.

Officials said they later realized the building violated the fireproofing ordinance.

Mrs. Craig asked the city building appeal board to make an exception to the ordinance because she had city approval. The board turned down her request.

Wheels of Misfortune

Lives Dangerously

A young Waterford Township woman escaped injury in two traffic accidents within 10 minutes yesterday.

The owner of the car she was driving was hurt in the first mishap and his year-old convertible was smashed up in the second.

* * *

It started when Judith K. Biskner, 20, stopped abruptly for a red light about 4:20 p.m. at Cass Lake and Elizabeth Lake Roads. The car owner, Saul Togal, 36, 80 S. Roslyn, Waterford Township, struck his head on the windshield.

Miss Biskner told Waterford Township police that a car in front of her stopped suddenly, forcing her to do the same. Togal was taken to the hospital.

While following the ambulance through Pontiac about 4:30 p.m., Miss Biskner, still driving Togal's car, went over a curb and hit the front of the U.S. Post Office building at 735 W. Huron St.

Miss Togal told Pontiac police she was following the ambulance at high speeds when a car suddenly pulled in front of her, forcing her off the street. Police estimated she was traveling 60 miles per hour.

Togal was treated and released at Pontiac General for facial lacerations. Miss Biskner was not injured. There was no estimate of damage to the car or to the post office.

TEEN-AGERS SQUARE OFF — The Chicago Sun-Times today published this copyright picture which shows two teen-aged boys squared off for a knife fight in an alley on Chicago's North Side yesterday. Thomas Mulhaney, a commercial photographer, took the picture from the window of his home after hearing a crowd of youths coming into the alley. The youths fled when the camera flash fired.

No Action Slated on Police Chief

will also be up for action. One involves minor amendments to the perimeter road contract and the other concerns a request for city participation financially in construction of a turning loop at Telegraph and Pontiac Lake Roads.

The proposed construction would facilitate westbound traffic movement on Pontiac Lake Road from Telegraph, removing the need for northbound traffic to make a left turn to gain access to Pontiac Lake Road.

IRS Contends FDR Jr. Has '58 Tax Shortage

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Tax Court records show the government claims Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., son of the late president, has an alleged $38,736 deficiency in his 1958 income tax.

Internal Revenue Service officials said yesterday Roosevelt reported a taxable income of $29,026 and they contend his income was $93,051.

JFK Trade Bill Makes Headway

Ways, Means Group in House Going Back With Administration

WASHINGTON (AP)—The field of battle over President Kennedy's "trade or fade" tariff-cutting program shifted to the House today as administration supporters relished a solid victory in committee.

The Ways and Means Committee finished Monday putting together a bill containing every major provision Kennedy had asked for. These include authority to eliminate some tariffs, cut others in half, and to set up new programs of readjustment help to U.S. companies and workers hit by increased imports.

* * *

The committee takes another look at the bill in final language Thursday, but the issues were considered settled unless there are extraordinary developments.

VETO STRENGTH

Administration supporters on the 25 member tax-writing committee showed they had the votes to defeat such proposed changes as providing a congressional veto over trade agreements and cutting down the level of assistance to workers.

* * *

In the House, which probably will take up the bill during the first week of June, the story may be different.

There is strong protectionist sentiment among some members whose districts contain industries especially vulnerable to foreign competition. Republicans are planning to renew the drive, which failed in committee, to trim the benefits for import-displaced workers down to the levels of regular unemployment compensation.

* * *

As the bill is written, workers being retrained because their jobs were eliminated by imports could draw up to 65 per cent of their regular wages for as much as a year and a half. Some Republicans and conservative Democrats contend it is impractical to have two different unemployment insurance systems and that the levels provided in the trade bill ultimately will force costly changes in the existing state-federal unemployment benefit system.

* * *

The bill would provide help also for companies hard hit by imports —including loans, technical aid, and tax benefits.

Cape Cod Asks Halt to Negroes

Would Stop Flow of Bus Passengers From Southern States

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The citizens of Cape Cod, Mass., have asked for help to stem the flow northward of Negroes given one-way bus tickets by segregationist groups in the South.

The actions were taken while two Negro women and their 20 children were aboard buses on their way from Little Rock, Ark. to Hyannis, Mass.

NEAR JFK

President Kennedy and other members of his family own summer homes in Hyannis Port, which is only four miles from Hyannis where the bus rides terminate. Hyannis and Hyannis Port are parts of the Town of Barnstable.

At the statehouse in Boston, Republican Rep. Allan F. Jones of Barnstable appealed to Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy to join with Southern legislators to "do all in their power to stop this evil scheme."

* * *

Jones described the Negro riders as "pawns in a diabolical, inhuman game of revenge." He said they were being told "an indecent lie that good homes and good jobs await them when they arrive."

* * *

At Hyannis, selectmen met in emergency session and appealed to U.S. House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., to formulate legislation against any state exporting welfare cases.

Twelve Negroes have arrived in Hyannis during the past 10 days and all but two have been given quarters in a dormitory of the Cape Cod Community College in Hyannis. The two mothers and their 20 children are to be lodged there.

ANTHONY PORTELLI
Captured in Illinois

Two Are Seized in N. Y. Killings

Alleged Triggerman in Policemen's Deaths Nabbed in Chicago

NEW YORK (AP)— An ex-convict named by police as the triggerman in the slaying of two Brooklyn detectives in a holdup has been captured in a suburban Chicago motel. A man accused of helping to arrange his flight has been arrested here.

A nationwide manhunt is on for two ex-convicts wanted for the murders. Their photographs and descriptions have been circulated.

The prisoner seized in the Chicago suburb is Anthony (Baldy) Portelli, 26, Brooklyn.

DENIES FIRING SHOTS

Portelli agreed Monday night to waive extradition proceedings. He denied firing the shots that mowed down detectives Luke J. Fallon, 56, and John P. Finnegan, 26, who held New York police department citations for valor.

The men sought are:

Jerome (Jerry) Rosenberg, 24, alias Samuel J. Rosenberg and Edward Arnold, Brooklyn. Police said he has a divorced wife and 2-year-old daughter in Texas City, Tex. He was paroled Jan. 17 from Great Meadow Correctional Institute at Comstock, N.Y.

ALSO SOUGHT

Anthony Dellernia, 34, formerly of Brooklyn, described by police as the driver of the intended getaway car in the holdup. Connecticut state police said he had been living in Norwich, Conn. for a year with his wife, Jean, and two children. He is on parole in New York State from a 10-to-20 year sentence for robbery.

Portelli was paroled March 27, 1961, from the Auburn, N.Y. State Prison where he was sent for robbery.

He was seized without a struggle at the Lido Motel in Franklin Park, Ill., late Monday, a few hours after police here sent out alarms for the three men wanted for the murders during a robbery of between $3,000 and $4,000 at the Boro Park Tobacco Co. in Brooklyn.

Last midnight, detectives arrested Frank Lino, 24, Brooklyn, at his home on a charge of homicide, as an accessory after the fact.

Hannah Proud of Rights in U.S.

Prexy Says Conditions Good but Still Far From Ideal Fairness

EAST LANSING (UPI) The United States still has some distance to go before it realizes the ideal of equal protection under the law, says President John A. Hannah of Michigan State University.

* * *

But the fact that in most cases, criminal justice is administered on a nondiscriminatory basis is one in which "Americans should take pride," he said.

Hannah, addressing an opening session of the eight annual national institute in police and community relations, added that realization of the ideal "probably never will be complete and absolute, human nature being what it is." But "the gap between ideal and reality is narrower today than it ever has been."

Hannah, chairman of the Federal Civil Rights Commission, said that despite advances, exceptions involving police brutality still pose "a serious and continuing problem in many parts of the United States."

* * *

"The commission also found that perhaps the single most potent weapon against unlawful police activity is a police commander who will not tolerate it."

* * *

Other questions are raised, he said, by the fact that those prisoners who are executed are most often economically poor or are members of racial minorities.

The commission, he said, has suggested statutes that would allow suits against any local government that employs policemen who deprive persons of their rights.

Tab Hunter Denies Smuggling of Art

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Tab Hunter, former owner of an art shop raided by federal agents, denied any involvement in the smuggling of art objects from Red China.

Treasury agents said $20,000 worth of art objects confiscated in the raid last week may have come from the Communist-controlled nation.

"It would be premature now to say whether or not any charges will be filed against Mr. Hunter," said Treasury Department official E. E. Minskoff after talking with the actor Monday.

"He has been very cooperative and has promised us access to all relevant documents."

Mrs. Vail and her husband, Dr. Albert Vail, a retired Congregational minister, also were coauthors of "The Story of the Great World Religions," a book yet to be published. Hannah Says NAACP Was Misinformed

EAST LANSING (AP) — President John A. Hannah of Michigan State University yesterday blamed misinformation for the opposition by the state chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to the proposed new Michigan constitution.

Hannah, informed yesterday of the group's action in Niles Sunday, said, "I can't believe they were given all the facts . . ."

The NAACP voted to oppose the constitution because of displeasure with its civil rights and apportionment provisions.

Hannah is chairman of the Federal Civil Rights Commission and of the constitutional convention committee that drew up the apportionment provision.

Billie Sol Estes Hoax Demands Investigation

Each day for the last week or two the BILLIE SOL ESTES case has turned up new evidence in one of the most notorious schemes concocted in recent years.

The net result is an unholy mess. If the possibilities for this sort of corruption did not exist, Billie Sol might never have been heard of outside Pecos, Tex.

★ ★ ★

It all seems to revolve around the improper spending in government programs, plus a corrupt outsider. To the man in the street it seems unreasonable to believe that one man could dupe so many individuals and agencies.

★ ★ ★

Yet the resume looks like this:

- Somehow Estes managed to get $7.5 million from the Department of Agriculture for storing surplus grain.
- Using this as working capital or collateral, he managed to talk finance houses into a $26-million loan on some fertilizer storage tanks which for the most part did not exist.
- With this money he sold cheap fertilizer to farmers with the hope of freezing out competition.
- Now, the fertilizer sold to these farmers gave them bumper crops which, in turn, Billie Sol faithfully stored at government expense after Uncle Sam had purchased them from the farmers.

★ ★ ★

It seems quite aggravating to the average taxpayer to find that his constantly increasing taxes are being paid to farmers for producing crops which obviously are not needed. Then on top of this, the government pays to have them warehoused.

It appears that the Department of Agriculture would have some explaining to do. Any agency involved in the spending of millions is a target for morally weak men.

Any such serious abuse as this demands complete and open examination for the taxpayers.

Congress Halls Place for Debating Issues

For years the halls of Congress have been the debating chambers to govern our country. Of late this policy seems to have switched. Now any big issue is stampeded in open forum in hopes that the general public will pressure of its elected representatives one way or another.

We may be old-fashioned, but these tactics seem undignified. It's a throwback to mob rule, and the oratory from both sides is often disgusting.

★ ★ ★

The hot air on medicare that the Administration foisted on the citizens over the weekend was something to behold. All the lieutenants got into the act at one stage or another and such phrases as "political witch-doctors" were used.

The American Medical Association (AMA) fought right back Monday night in P. T. Barnum style with much more of the same. The air waves were burning with such terms as "a cruel hoax and a delusion."

★ ★ ★

We are not sponsoring or backing either side in this distasteful show of human emotion which is being used to pressure Federal legislation.

We are completely fed up with these maneuvers and would like to see the whole issue returned to the halls of Congress where it belongs.

Berlin in Reverse . . .

The British are finding themselves forced to enlarge and strengthen the border fence between Hong Kong and Red China. Already this month, 30,000 Chinese refugees have illegally fled into the already densely overcrowded colony.

The Chinese Communists, for whatever reason of their own, have not seriously tried to stop them.

Obviously, Hong Kong cannot throw open its door to all, and the Reds know it. And ironically, it is the West this time protecting itself behind a "wall."

The Man About Town column will resume June 1.

Electronic Politics

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Politics is modernizing to the extent of joining the electronic computer age, anyway.

★ ★ ★

Republican National Committee headquarters here has just inaugurated a service contract with the Radio Corporation of America data processing center to handle a mailing list.

The old mailing list consisted of some 700,000 cards and stencil plates.

It contains names and addresses of people who have corresponded with GOP headquarters some time or other.

But many of the people whose names are on the list have moved since last heard from and some may be dead. So the lists are being revised.

As confirmed names and current addresses are determined they are being put on magnetic tape at the data processing center.

9,000 ON TAPE

There are now about 9,000 listings on the tape. It can be processed in 45 minutes. The first mailing using address labels printed from this tape has just gone out.

This is only a first step in feeding GOP political data into electronic brains. Ultimately it is expected to put donor accounting on tape.

This will record every gift made to the party by every individual and how all the money is spent.

Computers will then be able to provide data needed for filing reports on political contributions required by election laws.

★ ★ ★

This system probably won't be in full operation in time for use in this year's congressional elections, but it should be ready for the 1964 presidential campaign.

By that time the tape could be expanded to over 100,000 names of party donors on tape which could be processed to provide five reports a year on all contributions.

Up to now, political committees have found it practically impossible to keep accounts on contributions of less than $10.

By the magnetic tape method it is claimed that even $1 gifts can be accounted for, with 81 cents actually being used for campaign expenses. The other 19 cents would go for accounting, handling, overhead.

Actually, the GOP taped mailing list is being handled electronically at a cost of 7/10 of one cent each on the first 10,000 names. The cost per name goes down as the size of the mailing list goes up.

USED BY INDIVIDUALS

Electronic processing of mailing lists is also being used by individual political candidates. Rep. Peter Frelinghuysen, R-N.J., and several other congressmen have already contracted with RCA to handle their mailings.

Other computer centers like C-E-I-R, Sperry-Rand, Philco and Control Data Corp. offer similar equipment and services that can be useful to political organizations.

Democratic National Committee headquarters has an International Business Machines punch card accounting system in use and will probably stick with it for some time.

There are practically no limits on how far electronic political accounting can go. If a state organization or even a national party wanted to, it could keep records on every one of its registered voters.

★ ★ ★

Forty million names could be put on about 100 reels of magnetic tape. The lists can be maintained by geographic regions, which would simplify the handling of bulk mailings, as required by postal regulations.

Corrections can easily be made as people move, or even as they change parties, though political leaders won't admit any voter would ever do such a thing.

One Morsel He Won't Swallow

David Lawrence Says:

Medicare Will 'Care' for Too Few

WASHINGTON — More "medical care for the aged" is how the administration's plan is usually described. But, though commendable in purpose, it may turn out to mean "less medical care for all ages."

LAWRENCE

The program championed by President Kennedy with the best intentions in the world can bring about a tragic setback for America — a hardship for old, for middle-aged and for young people.

★ ★ ★

For, instead of providing medical care for one age group, the end result may be not enough doctors to take care of the sick generally.

In Great Britain, for instance, after 14 years of "socialized medicine," many people now call it a "mess."

Large numbers of young British physicians are emigrating to other lands. They see no future in Britain because of low incomes, overwork and lack of opportunities to specialize.

COME FROM INDIA

Conversely, medical students from India, Pakistan and other countries are flocking to Britain and predominate in the hospitals. They are usually internes or taking postgraduate work and go back home after a few years.

Language difficulties are frequent. The hospitals in Britain continue to be understaffed.

Now, nobody is proposing that the British system of "socialized medicine" be duplicated in the United States. But the critics of the Kennedy proposal are convinced it will inevitably produce some of the evils of "socialized medicine."

★ ★ ★

With the growth of population in America, medical care, while of a high standard, is not as readily available as it used to be.

Few doctors can take time to make house calls. Many doctors' offices are crowded with patients. There's a tendency to run to the doctor for all aches and pains.

If medical care is to be paid for in large part by the government, this tendency will increase and thus bring a deterioration in medical care generally because of a shortage of physicians.

TEACHERS SCARCE

Under a proposal now before Congress, it is planned to start 20 new medical schools and 20 new dental schools with state and federal matching funds. But where will the teachers come from? They, too, are scarce.

Also, what's going to happen to the application lists for medical schools? Today many young people able to pay the tuition fees still are hard put to finance the eight-year period of study and then the year or two of service as internes.

Family physicians, as compared to specialists and surgeons, are already too few. In 1940, general practitioners made up 62 per cent of all licensed physicians.

★ ★ ★

Today the percentage is half that figure. But even this percentage doesn't tell all of the story. Internists and those doctors who specialize, for example, in care for babies concentrate their practice in big cities.

The population in small towns and rural areas is, therefore, desperately short of physicians in an emergency.

There's a marked trend, too, toward leaving private practice to go into research, teaching and hospital administration. The government itself is using more and more doctors.

The shortage of doctors in the whole country is growing.

ADMISSIONS UP

Hospital admissions are up about one-third over what they were ten years ago, despite the supposed improvement in national health.

Hospital rates are higher. Private medical insurance is growing in scope and coverage. Now, with the Federal government stepping in to pay hospital bills from billions of dollars to be collected annually through an increase in Social Security taxes, hospital cases will increase.

The doctors' offices, in turn, will be more crowded than ever.

Would young men in this country who consider becoming doctors be attracted to a profession where someday the government may fix the fees? Would they want to become general practitioners anyway, while specialists and surgeons fare much better in income?

It's the same old story of private initiative versus a socialized state where the government tries to do everything.

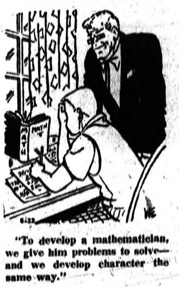
THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

But the Lord said to him, Peace be to you; do not fear, you shall not die.—Judges 6:23.

★ ★ ★

Immortality o'ersweeps all pains, all tears, all time, all fears, and peals, like the eternal thunder of the deep, into my ears this truth: Thou livest forever!—Lord Byron.

The Country Parson



"To develop a mathematician, we give him problems to solve—and we develop character the same way."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Simple Formula Good for Sore, Chapped Skin

For chapping of the skin, and to relieve redness and irritation from strong soaps and other detergents or cleaning agents, or the smarting and burning of the skin after shaving, the following lotion (home made) is generally satisfactory:

BRADY

FORMULA

Boric acid powder, three teaspoonfuls

Tragacanth, 1½ teaspoonfuls

Glycerin, tablespoonful

Rain water, snow water or distilled water, enough to fill a pint bottle

Heat the tragacanth in the water until a clear mucilage is obtained. Then add the glycerin and the boric acid

Label SKIN LOTION

Apply a few drops to skin of hands after washing and before they are quite dry, two or three times a day, when the hands are red and irritated by soaps or alkalis. Apply a few drops to the face after shaving.

★ ★ ★

Formerly, I suggested tragacanth shavings rather than tragacanth powder, because the United States Dispensatory said tragacanth in powder form is sometimes adulterated with Indian gum or with acacia (gum Arabic), but not tragacanth in the form of shavings.

Now, a company that supplies tragacanth to druggists informs me that, so far as they know, they are the only company that does, and that my readers will have less trouble if they will ask for tragacanth ribbon, as the term "shavings" is no longer used.

They supply tragacanth powder, too, and they take great pride in the quality of their products and they get a little tired of such general statements—they suspect I drew on some of the old dispensatories, which contain many inaccurate references.

I plead guilty. My copy of the U.S. Dispensatory was published 25 years ago. It will be tragacanth ribbon from now on, and I hope readers will be able to purchase an ounce of it in any drugstore without trouble. The company says all tragacanth gradually deteriorates, but the fall in viscosity is more rapid in the powder form than in the ribbon.

★ ★ ★

It takes quite a while for the ribbon and water to turn into mucilage — so please have patience — I always mean well.

I'm giving the recipe or formula for this skin lotion here because I am sure it can do no harm.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Beware of Psychological Sabotage

By DR. GEORGE W. CARNE

CASE M-420: Dr. Sam is a prominent dental surgeon who presided at a convention which I recently addressed.

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane," he asked me at the luncheon, "What do you think of the brand of psychology used by Russia as contrasted with our own?"

Although I am an arch foe of communism, as you regular readers know well enough, I think Russia has far surpassed America in its use of applied psychology.

For this is an age where small nations are either "bluffed" or "bought."

★ ★ ★

Uncle Sam has thus spent over $100 billion trying to "buy" good will abroad, and line up allies in the U.N.

Russia, however, "bluffs" her satellites, plus half the rest of the world; then taxes or confiscates much of their wealth, besides.

We pay money out; she rakes it in!

She even coaxed over $14 billion out of us Americans. Then, instead of paying that huge I. O. U., she used the money to finance her space program and sent her sputniks, plus astronauts into outer space — with our money.

Khrushchev recently boasted that horse meat has now become rather plentiful in Russia.

★ ★ ★

When taunted by Americans about eating horse meat, he cleverly told to the Russian people that America is so poor we must eat dogs (hot dogs).

That was certainly a clever psychological twist.

Will Rogers once said that "The United States never lost a war nor won a conference," which indicates we have plenty of courage and industrial capacity but not enough psychology to salvage victory after it has been won on the field of battle.

PSYCHOLOGICAL SABOTAGE

In time of war, we are constantly vigilant to prevent sabotage of our power plants, water works and big industries.

But a nation can be ruined even faster by internal psychological sabotage!

This can involve twisting the basic concepts that have made America great.

For example, do you readers believe the modern doctrine that everybody is entitled to a living?

★ ★ ★

If so, you are victims of psychological sabotage, so wake up!

All our Constitution and pioneer ancestors struggled to give us was a "chance" to earn that living, not the "living" itself!

Millions of Americans are thus muddled in their thinking. They confuse a "living" with the "chance" to earn it. There is a whale of a difference!

The entire welfare state is based on that false doctrine that every member of the human race, is automatically entitled to a living. That's not true. All he deserves is a chance to go out and earn that living.

★ ★ ★

Captain John Smith uttered the proper doctrine that has brought America to the forefront of world powers by his view, "No workee; no eatee!"

Woodrow Wilson also summed up the true American philosophy when he said:

THE NEWS
REMAIN
M-420

"All any American should ask for is a free field and no favors!"

It isn't Russian bombs we should fear as much as internal dry rot, as indicated by creeping socialism.

So send for my booklet "How to Save Our Republic."

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People:

'Safety Check on Vehicles Compulsory in Washington'

In Washington, D.C., there is a compulsory safety check for all licensed vehicles. This service is free, but there is a fine for not appearing at the scheduled time and a fine for not having equipment repaired.

One sticker signifies that the car has passed inspection. The other, which is of a different size and color, signifies that the vehicle has not passed. There is a date stamped on the "rejected" sticker. If a car is found on a public street after this date and does not have a "passed" sticker, there is a stiff fine.

If Michigan adopted this law it would offer a way of keeping the roads safer for the public and Michigan would have another source of income.

Residents Write About Straley

We don't need a new police chief or an old one that it cost the taxpayers thousands of dollars to get rid of two years ago.

I have always been a Dugan backer and I have never been more proud of it than right now.

Won't some attorney in Pontiac step forward and advise the taxpayers if there are some legal steps we can take to prevent this condition from getting worse?

Mrs. Nolen Davis
560 Lowell

I have heard that Mr. Straley, if made chief again, would rid the police department of certain men. That brings to mind more court trials. Enough is enough. We haven't heard any grief from the police department since Mr. Straley has been gone and let's keep it that way.

Mrs. Bonnie Sheffer

We should start recall action on the Commissioners who voted for reinstating Mr. Straley as chief of police. I thought City Commissioners who were voted into office should try to improve our city. If the next two years are going to consist of rehashing old business, we had better shed these men.

Mrs. M. Shebella
318 E. Columbia

How can Pontiac afford to put Herbert W. Straley back in as chief of police? If our city is so rich and it paid approximately $75,000 to remove this man from his job, we ought to see more city improvements and less taxes.

Puzzled

I commend Mr. Taylor and Mr. Harmon for their opposing votes on the Straley resolution. Conversely I would like to inquire of the remaining Commissioners why they are, in effect, trying to usurp the authority given to the city manager under the charter amendment and why, without presenting new evidence, they should presume to alter the June 1960 Commission action defeating Straley's restoration?

May all charter amendments be rescinded by this present Commission?

Marguerite Simson
140 W. Brooklyn

According to the city charter, it is the manager's job to hire a police chief for the city and, if necessary, fire him. It is not the right nor the duty of City Commissioners to do this.

Why should we let four men on this Commission suddenly demand he fire Chief Koren for no reason and hire Straley? This is the first crisis, but probably not the last for our city manager.

P. D. Davis
281 Stout St.

I protest to the City Commission against any more expense in legal fees to Pontiac, bad publicity and the foolishness of trying to bring back Herbert Straley as police chief.

★ ★ ★

Straley's reasons for wanting to come back are to get revenge against the police officers who were glad to see him go and an effort to get a lifelong pension from our city for the seven years he spent here.

★ ★ ★

We already have a police chief and if these new Commissioners try to force a thing like this on the citizens, they should get what Straley did — a helping hand right out the door of City Hall.

Angry Taxpayer

It seems strange that Commissioner Loy Ledford, just elected a couple of weeks ago, a man who has never before performed any service for the city and hasn't even voted in ten years, suddenly feels he is an authority on managing a police department.

★ ★ ★

I'd like to see a public statement from him as to who put up the money for his very extensive campaign material in the election.

★ ★ ★

I have the feeling the shopping center will be railroaded through some night at the Commission meeting as another big surprise to the people just like the police matter.

'Tired of Reading Letters on Alimony'

The letters discussing child support and alimony are tiresome. My husband's first wife had remarried when we met and married. He has a son by his former wife and pays his child support before everything else. I endorse this wholeheartedly. This child is his and he owes it to him to see that he is taken care of.

Do some women expect their husbands to forsake their own children? Do a little sacrificing and thank God you have the opportunity to help these little children.

But Yugoslav to Stay Independent

Tito and Krushchev Patching Up Quarrel

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Back in 1948, disowned by the Kremlin and out of sheer economic necessity, Marshal Josip Broz Tito of Yugoslovia turned to the West for help.

This week, as he approaches his 70th birthday on Friday, Tito still is having his economic troubles but his relations with the Kremlin are on the upswing on the word of no less an authority than Nikita Khrushchev.

Last month, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko visited Tito in Yugoslavia and the two later reported their conversations had been "constructive."

On May 1, new Soviet-built tanks appeared in the May Day parade.

In Soviet-Yugoslav relations both were "firsts." After a brief honeymoon following the death of Stalin, relations chilled again as result of Soviet handling of the Hungarian revolt and no top Russian had visited Yugoslavia since. No Russian military aid had been sent to Yugoslavia since the break with Stalin in 1948.

★ ★ ★

In the intervening years, Tito has attempted to have the best of both the Communist and Western worlds.

OVER $2 BILLION

American aid, both military and economic, has totaled more than $2 billion, and his trade with the West is twice that of Yugoslav trade with the Communist bloc. It is unlikely that he now seeks to endanger either the trade or the aid.

Tito is neither a member of the Soviet-led Warsaw military pact nor is he invited to summit sessions of the Communist leadership.

These conditions probably will remain, if only because Tito will not surrender the independence which led to his original break with the Kremlin nor abandon his declared policy of neutrality which has paid off so well.

On the other hand, when Khrushchev said the two countries saw almost eye-to-eye on questions of foreign policy, he really was saying little new.

Tito always had made clear he is a Communist and dedicated to a Communist world.

He has supported the Soviet position on Berlin and on immediate and total disarmament. He openly sympathized with the Communist decision to break the voluntary test ban on nuclear weapons and his neutrality always has been on the side of the Soviets.

It is unlikely that Khrushchev ever can carry his de-Stalinization program to the extent of approving Tito's independent brand of communism. But their community of interests broadens so long as both come under the ideological fire of Red China and the Soviet boycott of Albania continues.

Economically, Yugoslavia's difficulties can be more simply stated.

★ ★ ★

Industrialization, under conditions of forced growth, had produced a gratifying increase in national product for seven years. But in a speech at Split on the Adriatic, Tito confessed that "onions have now become dearer than gold."

He blamed lax and profiteering managers and decreed a new austerity for Yugoslavia.

Federal Order, No Road Signs, Getting Protests

LANSING (AP) — The East Michigan Tourist Association has joined the opposition to a strict federal signs-off policy on highway rights-of-way.

James H. Hall, association secretary-manager, wrote to state Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie to protest federal restrictions as "unfair and discriminatory to property owners located on Michigan highways."

The Federal Bureau of Public Roads prohibits signs on rights-of-way on all highways for which federal funds were used.

Hall praised the highway department's past policy of allowing the posting of signs by permit as a "most reasonable used of this land and space."

★ ★ ★

He urged Mackie to seek a modification in federal policy.

State Man Sentenced in Alcohol Poisoning

Pierson, convicted May 11 by Superior Court Jury, was accused of selling methyl alcohol for drinks.

Watkins was one of eight persons who died in a series of alcohol poisonings in Grand Rapids last fall.

Set of Twins Born to Couple Again, Again

WOODBURN, Ore. (AP) — The third consecutive set of twins was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller of Woodburn.

* * *

Like the other two, the new twins are a boy and a girl. The oldest twins are 14. The other pair will be 5 Wednesday.

The Millers have eight children. The oldest, Barbara, is 18. A son, Donald, is 17.

* * *

Miller, a farmer, said he is running low on ideas for names and is thinking about calling the new twins "Seven" and "Eight."

2 Elephants Go Wild, Killing 12, Hurting 30

CHITTAGONG, East Pakistan (AP) — Two wild elephants ran amok at the village of Saokania, East Pakistan, killing 12 persons and injuring 30 others.

* * *

Reports said the elephants crashed into the village on Sunday night, trumpeting wildly. A number of women and children were among those crushed and trampled.

* * *

The Chittagong district officer, M. Islam, said that the elephants were still at large and were being hunted in the nearby jungle. The village was evacuated.

Drive for Major Fiscal Decisions

Legislature Back at Work in Lansing

LANSING (AP) — The legislature returns to its tax-writing and budget-making chores today, hopeful of heading down the home stretch to adjournment.

* * *

Major decisions on tax and spending issues have not been made, but they probably will be this week.

* * *

Gov. Swainson reluctantly lowered a major barrier blocking a windup of the 1962 legislative session last week when he gave up his fight for a fiscal reform program based on a state income tax. That cleared the way for Democrats to let up on their drive for an income tax package against opposition of majority Republicans.

The governor's admission that he was fighting a losing cause also added new impetus to a Republican move to pass a package of "nuisance" taxes on beer, cigarettes, telephone and telegraph service, liquor and possibly other items.

Some Republican lawmakers reported a new spurt in an effort to impose a 1 per cent tax on goods sold at wholesale in place of a hodgepodge of nuisance levies. It would yield upward of $100 a year.

* * *

Allowing time for bills to take their normay course through both the House and Senate, lawmakers could pass the taxes they feel necessary, write a budget to finance state spending in fiscal 1962-63 and go home in three weeks.

* * *

That would wrap up a budget two weeks before the new fiscal year begins July 1 and give legislators nearly two months of campaigning before the Aug. 7 primary election.

* * *

Budget bills are expected to start moving out of the House Ways and Means and the Senate Appropriations committees early this week. It is expected they will add up to a little more than $500 million, or at least $20 million above current spending.

Hope Acquittal Precedent Set for Freedom Riders

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) —A biracial group of Episcopal ministers was confident today that their acquittal on breach of the peace charges would serve as a precedent for similar charges against about 300 other "freedom riders."

* * *

Charges against 14 oof the ministers, including New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's son-in-law, were not prosecuted yesterday after County Judge Russel Moore found the first clergyman to be tried innocent.

* * *

Moore said the prosecution had failed to prove that the ministers' congregation in the Trailways Bus Terminal constituted a breach of the peace. The ruling came in the trial of the Rev. James G. Jones, 35, director of prison work for the diocese of Chicago.

All-A Record Chalked Up by MSU Senior

EAST LANSING (AP) — An East Lansing senior has chalked up a perfect record for his four years at Michigan State University — an A for each and every course he's taken, university officials said yesterday.

* * *

The student, Frederick J. Gilman, is the second student in MSU history to hit the all-A mark, spokesmen said. The first was Ted Petrie of Lansing, who was graduated last year.

Gilman's record includes physical education and a large number of graduate courses.

Richard D. Freeman Jr., of Midland, came close to matching his classmate's record, but slipped up with a B in physical education.

* * *

Gilman and Freeman are members of the MSU mathematics team which was ranked first in the nation this year. Petrie was a member of last year's math team.

Hoffa's Action Fails in Court

Teamster Chief Loses Appeal to Link Paar, Bob Kennedy in Suit

DETROIT (UPI) —Teamster President James Hoffa yesterday lost another bid to include Jack Paar and Robert Kennedy in Hoffa's $2.5-million libel suit against National Broadcasting Co.

* * *

Hoffa's original action included the television actor and the U.S. attorney general, but their connection with the suit was dismissed two weeks ago.

Hoffa's attorneys argued against this dismissal, saying NBC was merely an instrument through which the alleged libel was committed.

Kennedy and Paar were vital to the suit, which centered on the "Tonight" show, Hoffa's lawyers said.

* * *

Chief Federal Dist. Judge Theodore Levin turned down Hoffa's motion on the basis that Paar and Kennedy had not been subpoenaed within the court's jurisdiction.

It was not announced whether Hoffa will appeal Levin's ruling.

HOW'S THE FISHING?

Have you wet a line in your favorite lake or stream this spring? Smokey hopes you have and found the fishing just as good as you remembered it!

But all over America, fishermen are going to get skunked in places where they always found fish before.

If the water's high and muddy, chances are that a forest fire upstream burned off the ground cover. The spring rains ran right off, carrying top soil and flood waters into the stream, spoiling your sport.

Remember—Only you can PREVENT FOREST FIRES!

Local Business Mercury, High Since Jan. 1, Still Up

The economic climate in the Pontiac area, showing steady gains since Jan. 1, continued to look healthy and stable during April.

Most figures indicating economic trends were substantially higher than those for the same month last year. Several showed slight declines from March, but these were due mainly to the fact that there was one day less in April and there were five Sundays last month compared with four in March.

Debits to customers' checking accounts at the two major area banks set a pace some $14 million above the same period last year.

Construction in Pontiac boomed in April showing a gain of 108 in the number of permits issued and more than $500,000 in the amount of new construction over March totals.

* * *

Electrical and water consumption and airline use also showed gains over March, while postal receipts, gas consumption and bus patronage all were higher than April 1961.

Figures indicating business trends for April were reported by Community National Bank, Pontiac State Bank, the city water and inspections departments, the post office, Consumers Power Co., Detroit Edison Co., Pontiac Transit Corp. and North Central Airlines.

Hoffa Charges Indictment Decoy for Estes Scandal

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — James R. Hoffa, Teamsters Union president, says the Kennedy administration deliberately framed an indictment against him to cover up the Billie Sol Estes scandal in Texas.

* * *

Hoffa, at a news conference Monday, said his indictment last Friday at Nashville, Tenn., was handed up by a federal grand jury for the purpose of covering up the Estes case and to cast a shadow over Hoffa's trial in Miami.

* * *

The two-count indictment in Nashville charged Hoffa with violating the Taft-Hartley law and collecting some milion dollars illegally. Indicted with Hoffa was Commercia Carriers, Inc., a Detroit auto transport firm accused of setting up a Tennessee firm, Test Fleet Corp., and throwing lucrative auto hauling business its way. At the same time, it was charged, Commercial Carriers had a labor contract with the Teamsters Union.

* * *

The Miami case involves a charge of mail fraud in connection with a Florida real estate promotion.

Electrical Blaze Halts Speeding Fire Truck

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—The driver of a speeding fire truck smelled smoke a mile away from his destination, a brush fire. The truck was burning.

* * *

The driver put out the electrical fire in the engine and another truck put out the brush fire.

When a domestic electric bill runs to three cents a kilowatt hour, it can be assumed a pound of coal will produce about 13 cents of energy at the generating source.

Showing to Run to June 2

300 Attend Art Exhibit

Pontiac Society of Artists members greeted over 300 guests at a reception and exhibit Sunday which opened their 14th annual art exhibit. The display of art will continue through June 1 in the Community Services Building on Franklin Boulevard.

Many new members are exhibiting this year with a new classification, mixed media which includes pen and ink drawings and collages, being included in the entries. Other divisions are sculpture, oil paintings, water colors, pastels and charcoals.

The show has been judged by two noted artists: John Coppin, portrait painter and illustrator, and Glen Michaels, artist and teacher at Cranbrook School.

Among local artists winning awards of merit for oil paintings were Mrs. Leslie Hearn, first place; Peter Zampol, second; and Mrs. Mary Sue Preston, third. Honorable mention was accorded Mrs. F. A. Runavaar, Jasper Anfor and Mrs. John D. Millis.

For water color works, Mrs. Kenneth Bristol won first place; Mrs. Herbert Swingle, second place; and Mrs. Preston, third. Honorable mention went to Mrs. Carl Rogers.

In the sculpture classification, Mrs. C. K. Nauman took first place; George Weeks, second; and Lola Strom, third. Donald Bego earned honorable mention.

Mrs. Sanford McLean won first place honors in the pastel division. Others recognized were Mrs. Paul Davison, second place, and Mrs. Bernard Seiber, third, with honorable mention going to Joyce Merrifield.

Mixed media merit award winners were Mrs. McLean, first place; Mrs. Paul Davison, second; and Mrs. Floyd Fullerton, third.

Popular vote awards in painting were given to Mr. Anfor, first place for "Plantation Kitchen;" Mrs. McLean, second, "Sea Dog;" and Elmer Linton, third, "Skating Frolic."

* * *

For sculpture, popular vote honorees were Mrs. Nauman, first place, for "Sprite;" Mr. Bego, second, bust; and Edith Lewis, third, "Darby O'Gill's Friend."

"The Bath," mixed media merit award winner by Mrs. Sanford McLean, is studied appreciatively by (left) Glen Michaels, artist and teacher at Cranbrook School, and John Coppin, portrait painter and illustrator, at Sunday's reception which opened Pontiac Society of Artists' 14th annual art exhibit. The art display continues through June 1 in Community Services Building.

Daughter Can Stay Elsewhere

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: Would there be any impropriety in letting our daughter drive with a young man to his college to attend a dance that night, stay in that town for the night and then be driven home again by him the next day?

A: If she is spending the night with other girls or in the house of friends, there would be no impropriety in her driving out and back with him. But she certainly cannot spend the night in a hotel unchaperoned.

* * *

Q: Will you please answer the following question for our graduation class? Every year at commencement several awards are given out and they are presented by the principal of the school. It is customary for the receiver to shade hands after receiving it.

What we would like to know is, does he take the award with the right hand and then transfer it to his left hand in order to shake hands, or may he take it in his left hand keeping his right hand free to shake hands?

A: It doesn't matter which hand he takes the award in, but he must give his right hand when he shakes hands. What he will probably do instinctively is to receive the award in his right hand, transfer it to his left, and leave his right hand free to shake hands.

* * *

Q: Is a bride's maid of honor expected to give a party in the bride's honor? And does the fact that this attendant is coming from out of town to take part in the wedding alter the obligation, if there is one?

A: There is never any obligation on the part of anyone to give a party for the bride. If one of her attendants or all of them together can and would like to give a party, that, of course, would be a very nice thing to do, but it is not expected. One who is coming from out of town would certainly have no obligation to give anything whatever.

* * *

Q: My boy friend who is in the service bought an engagement ring for me and when he came home on furlough presented it to me, but it is too large. The stone is lovely but I do not particularly care for the setting. As the ring has to go back to the jeweler to be made smaller, would it be proper to ask my fiance to have the setting changed?

A: Most properly he should have taken you to the jeweler to choose the ring you like best from among several he had set aside. Since, however, he has not done this, it is up to you to decide if it will hurt his feelings to even ask him to change the setting of the ring he has picked out.

* * *

Q: Does one have to follow the gift list for anniversaries? Friends of mine will soon be observing their 10th wedding anniversary and I have been invited to a party they are giving to celebrate the occasion. Am I limited to sending something made of tin?

A: Not necessarily — in fact aluminum is equally correct. Or for that matter, you may properly give anything that you know they would very much like.

The 'End' Hasn't Come Yet, but He'd Better Work Fast

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have been married nearly 30 years. Our children are married and happy. We are moderately well off and can take it easy and enjoy life now.

ABBY

My wife has taken up with a small, radical, religious group who thinks the "end" is near. She can't bake a cake without reading the Bible. She spends hours copying verses from it. She'll go no place except to religious meetings. She tries to convert all our friends who are already non-drinking, church-going people.

She is out on cloud nine and she's entirely different person. I think she needs to see a doctor. She says she feels fine. Can you help me?

DEEPLY CONCERNED

DEAR CONCERNED: You are concerned with good reason. Your wife most certainly needs to see a doctor. Get her there, and don't delay.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: My husband has trouble with his back. He has to sleep on a special mattress which is as hard as a rock. Ever since childhood I have slept on a soft mattress and I can't get any sleep on a hard mattress. He says a hard mattress is good for everybody. What do I do now?

NO SLEEP

DEAR NO: Buy twin beds. Let HIM sleep on his hard mattress and you sleep on a soft one. A hard mattress is good for you only if you can sleep on it.

* * *

DEAR ABBY I am in a mess. I thought I was in love and went too far. We thought we had to get married so we sent out the announcements and started with the plans. Then I found out I didn't have to marry him.

I told him I didn't love him enough to marry him but he said that I "belong" to him now and I have to go through with it. Besides, he bought the rings and still owes on them. should I go ahead and marry him and pay for my mistake?

SORRY NOW

DEAR SORRY: You would be better off to pay for the rings. Don't marry him. And I hope you learned your lesson.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Apropos old maids who give gifts all their lives and never have the occasion to get any: I am an old maid school teacher and over the years I have had literally hundreds of my students marry and have babies.

Naturally I receive invitations and announcements for everything, and that means a gift. Oh, well, I can't take it with me and I haven't anybody to leave it to!

MISS MARTHA

'Hi-Infidelity'

Nights Out Are OK but Take It Easy

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

(Editor's Note—A condensation of Abigail Van Buren's new book "Dear Abby on Marriage" is appearing daily in The Pontiac Press in 24 installments under the serialized title "Hi-Infidelity.")

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY:" I am asked, "What do you think of the custom of a husband having a night out with the boys?"

★ ★ ★

Here's my answer:

"There's nothing wrong with it as long as the boys are boys!"

A night out once a week strengthens a man's feeling of being an individual. It also gives him somewhere beside home to drain off his discontent.

Some wives fight it tooth and nail. But even when they win, they lose; because it's the henpecked husband who will fly the coop first chance he gets.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY:

If any wife should ask you, please tell her that every man should have a night out with the boys. There are four men in our office. Three of us get the green light every Monday night to go bowling. There is one guy named Herman who is married to an old crow who thinks she is keeping him in line by not letting him have a night out.

Herman has to prove to himself that he's a man instead of a mouse, so he tells his old lady he has to work late Wednesday nights, and then he really ties one on and cuts up. She would have a better guy if she'd let him go bowling with us every Monday night. At least we go bowling.

—Herman's Friend

★ ★ ★

And now, how about a night out for the little woman?

I am against "the girls" just getting together one night a week to "do something" when that something invariably starts out with cocktails at a bar.

What's sauce for the gander is not always sauce for the goose. And if you don't believe it, take a gander at this letter:

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY:

I am a respectable married woman with two lovely children, 6 and 9. A girl friend and I decided to have dinner downtown and see a movie every Tuesday night. Before dinner we'd stop at a bar for a cocktail. Believe me, Abby, we were not looking for attention from any men.

Suddenly, one man caught my eye. He was handsome, well-dressed and obviously alone. The first time our eyes met something strange came over me. I can't explain it, but I know it was mutual because he smiled and nodded.

I signaled for him to come over, which is something I have never done before. He came to our table and introduced himself like a gentleman.

To make a long story short, I started seeing this man in the afternoons. I know it was wrong but I couldn't help myself. It's not just a cheap affair.

I really love this man, Abby, and he loves me. I don't know where it is going to end. He wants me to divorce my husband and marry him. I love my husband, too, but not like I love this other man. How do I get out of this heartbreaking mess?

—Sleepless Nights

★ ★ ★

"Sleepless Nights" could have saved herself a lot of grief if she had lived by that old rule: "If you can't stand the heat—stay out of the kitchen."

Sorry, girls. It's still a man's world.

Women to Peer Like Spies

Fall Designs Show Hoods

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Writer

NEW YORK — No secret will be safe from a woman next fall, for Bill Blass, among other designers here, has plans for turning them into Mata Haris.

At the Maurice Rentner showroom Monday, models batted false lashes furtively from behind wool and fur scarves that topped slim man-tailored suits. Sometimes they peered mysteriously from the shadows of broad-brimmed hats tied securely under their chins.

Now and then they moved surreptiously through the crowded showroom in exotic hooded costumes.

Very often the girls appeared in hip-length or tunic-length jackets with fur collars, cuffs and border trims—the same sort of fashion the spying industry made famous.

No secret at all is Bill Blass' inspirations for his successful collection. He ferreted his design ideas from men's closets, he told reporters covering the garment district's winter market shows here.

Coachman and Chesterfield coats showed up in men's wear wools and herringbone tweeds, with those voluminous scarves added. Shaped double-breasted jackets sometimes had the crisp tailoring of men's suits, but looked ladylike nevertheless.

★ ★ ★

Although skirts in the new collection generally were slim, most had at least one deep pleat that, when the chips are down, could give a conspirator a running chance. With a group of little black wool dresses, Blass put most of the intrigue in deep V necklines.

Heavily textured wool floor-length gowns with scooped neckline, halter style or plunging backlines were other Mata Hari maneuvers contrived to win over the most taciturn man.

Mr. Donovan advises that a number of season ticket holders, who will be unable to attend some of the operas, have donated their tickets to the Detroit Grand Opera Association for resale. There have also been numerous student tickets, which were alloted to the colleges in the area, returned.

Both of these groups of tickets will now be made available to the public.

Bringing Up Baby.

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

When does baby go on a 3-squares-a-day schedule? Usually between 6 and 8 months, depending on your doctor's advice and baby's readiness. Things to remember when you start this new baby routine:
- A 3-meal schedule means a gap of 4 or 5 hours between meals. You can help baby "wait it out" by giving him his Gerber Juice at midmorning—a Gerber Teething Biscuit at midafternoon.
- Reasonable regularity is important, but you don't have to be a complete slave to the clock.

Variety is 'specially important now to keep baby interested in his meals. Gerber offers over 50 delicious varieties for your baby's eating pleasure and nutritional well-being. All are specially prepared to preserve the utmost in flavor and nutritive values. Typical Gerber menus for a day in the life of your baby:

Breakfast. Rice Cereal or Oatmeal • Egg Yolks • Milk

Lunch. Beef or Chicken • Squash • Orange Pudding • Milk

Dinner. Ham or Turkey High Meat Dinner • Peaches • Milk

Variety is also important because it exposes baby to the many different foods that help establish good eating habits. And, if baby should balk at one food or another, Gerber offers any number of alternate choices with similar nutritive values. For example: Squash can be substituted for Sweet Potatoes—Chicken Noodle Dinner for Macaroni. Tomato, Beef and Bacon.

Point to remember: little appetites usually fare better if you serve small portions . . . and if the mealtime atmosphere is smiling, unhurried and unworried. And bon appetite to both baby and you. Gerber Baby Foods, Fremont, Michigan.

'It Goes With Your Skin'

'My, What a Lovely Hat'

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

When buying a hat a woman should remember that it is the item of apparel she wears closest to her face. For this reason the color of a hat is extremely important and should be keyed to her complexion, just as her make-up is.

Rich black, brown or bright-toned hats are marvelous for the fair to medium complexions. On the other hand, olive-toned or suntanned skin may look drab under black. Women who have this complexion are most flattered by hats in white, beige or vivid hues.

Now for a few general rules. The very pale, alabaster complexion is flattered by any color except white. The fair-complexioned woman can wear any color hat. If you have a ruddy complexion, stay away from reds and orange. You will find that blue, green, black, gray and beige hats will become you.

The olive skin is enhanced by all bright, clear colors and beige and white. Avoid black and brown and muddy green hats.

I am sure you often have been startled by seeing a tiny woman wearing a great big hat. Before buying, always stand up and look at yourself in a full-length mirror. This is the only way to get the whole picture of how you and your hat look together.

The small woman needs added height and she can achieve this by wearing hats with moderately tall crowns if the width of the hat does not overpower her frame. Tall women can cut their height with wide brims. A woman whose figure is stocky needs a bulky hat with height, but should avoid deeply cupped brims.

★ ★ ★

Unless you have an unlimited amount of money to spend, it is important to consider your entire wardrobe when selecting a hat or two. A few attractive hats can make a small wardrobe of basic clothes seem much more varied and exciting.

A lightweight wool suit with simple and classic lines can double for daytime and informal evening wear. The change from more tailored accessories can make the difference. Add a frivolous hat, some costume jewelry and a pair of high heels and you are ready for any occasion which does not call for an evening gown.

Yes, hats can make a magic difference and their color is so important.

Extravagant Wife 'Spends' Husband

By RUTH MILLETT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Many a wife who wouldn't think of being extravagent with her husband's money doesn't think anything at all about being selfishly extravagent with his time and energy.

Such a wife accepts invitations that bore him, keeps him up too late after a hard day's work, makes plans for him to do things for or with the children when he needs rest, or volunteers his services as chauffeur, handyman, or errand boy.

And while she is pushing her husband beyond the limits of his strength with her promises of what he will do, she is patting herself on the back for managing him so well.

When she says "we would love to come" to a party that will bore and tire her husband (without even giving him a chance to put his foot down), she tells herself that she is keeping up their social contacts.

* * *

When she dreams up an endless number of things for him to do with or for the children, she tells herself that she is encouraging him to be a good father.

When she volunteers his services to neighbors, friends, and relatives—"George will be glad to do it for you"—she gets the glow of satisfaction that comes from doing a good turn. Only George has to do the good turn, whether he wants to or not.

So poor George is always tired, always doing something his wife has planned for him to do, seldom having any leisure time to call his own.

* * *

All because he has an extravagant wife—not extravagant with money but much too generous with her husband's time, strength and patience.

Medicare Plan Puts Solon on Spot

By HARRY FERGUSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Chairman Wilbur Mills of the House Ways and Means Committee is in the position of a man who loves his child, but is being urged to disown it and adopt another one.

* * *

The Arkansas Democrat presides over the committee which has been considering President Kennedy's program for medical care for the aged for a year.

* * *

But he also is coauthor of the Kerr-Mills bill, which became a law in October 1960, and has the same objectives as the Kennedy proposal.

Until the Mills committee takes some action on the administration's bill, there cannot be a vote on it by Congress. The chairman appears to be in no hurry to toss his own baby out the door and adopt another one.

The King-Anderson bill, being urged upon Congress by Kennedy, would finance medical care for the aged by increasing Social Security taxes.

Mills has a consistent record of voting against any medical care legislation which is tied to Social Security.

* * *

The law he helped write provides federal-state funds (the federal share runs from 50 to 80 per cent), but the states lay down the rules for medical care for the aged.

In opposing financing through Social Security, Mills is in agreement with the American Medical Association. Last week the American Urological Association also lined up against the Kennedy proposal.

But the most dramatic opposition to the Kennedy medical care plan came from a man who describes himself as "just a little country doctor" in Point Pleasant, N. J.

NEW JERSEY DOCTORS

He is Dr. J. Bruce Henriksen, 54-year-old surgeon, who believes the Kennedy administration is trying to force socialized medicine on the American people.

AS IN THE PAST

He wrote out a petition which read: "We . . . refuse to participate in the care of patients under the provisions of the King-Anderson bill or similar legislation. We will continue to care for the medically indigent, young or old, as we have in the past."

Forty-four doctors on the staff of the Point Pleasant Hospital signed the petition. Additional signatuures came from doctors in Toms River, Neptune, Orange and Newark until there was a total of 200 names on the petition.

* * *

The reaction was violent. Welfare Secretary Abraham Ribicoff said the New Jersey doctors were "trying to blackmail Congress and the American people" and were violating the Hippocratic oath. The lower house of the New Jersey legislature passed a motion of censure.

Henriksen stuck to his guns, and made this statement to UPI:

* * *

"I am tremendously encouraged by hundreds of letters and telegrams. Practicing physicians are kicking up a fuss about the intervention of the federal government into hospital services. After all, what the federal government pays for, the federal government will control. Citizens are aroused by the threatened loss of personal liberties.

"They don't for one minute believe the King-Anderson bill would be the end. It would be only the opening wedge to a vast scheme which would allow the federal government to horn in on one of our most sacred trusts — the personal relationship between every American and his physician."

* * *

It would be erroneous to imply that all doctors and all medical organizations are against the Kennedy program. The American Medical Association does not speak for everybody.

One hundred and forty physicians on the Columbia University medical faculty voted to support the King-Anderson bill. So did the American Nurses' Association.

Dr. Sidney S. Lee, general director of Boston's Beth Israel Hospital, wrote an open letter criticizing the New Jersey doctors. Dr. James Howard Means, professor emeritus of clinical medicare at Harvard, made a speech saying the AMA had done "very little directly toward the improvement of medical care for all the people."

The Group Health Association, many of whose members belong to the AMA, has endorsed the Social Security approach to medical care for the aged.

Under the present medical care for the aged program (the Kerr-Mills Law) persons who do not qualify for old age assistance and cannot afford to pay medical bills are entitled to help.

But they have to prove they are unable to pay and a person whose income exceeds $1,800 a year is not eligible ($2,800 for a married couple).

Each state controls the details of its program, but so far only 23 states have passed the necessary legislation to qualify.

In the first nine months of the operation of the Kerr-Mills Law the federal government spent $21 million, the states $14 million and local communities $7 million.

When the law was passed it was estimated the federal expenditure would be $142 million annually and that a little more than two million persons would benefit.

* * *

Critics of the present program point out that it is not a continuing operation. Money for it must be appropriated each year by the federal and state governments.

* * *

They also object to forcing people to "become paupers" in order to qualify for medical aid. They point out that only about 50 per cent of the nation's aged population has health insurance of any kind.

No matter where the argument starts about the Kennedy program, it always comes back to "socialized medicine."

The Kennedy supporters answer that by saying that the plan does not call for the government to pay doctors' salaries and that it could be carried out like the Blue Cross plan "without meddling in hospital operations."

Long and Short of It in African Country

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Ruanda-Urundi, the "Switzerland of Africa," is inhabitied by three tribes whose stature is as different as that of The Three Bears, according to the National Geographic Society.

* * *

The toweringly tall Watusi wandered into the area three or four centuries ago and conquered the averaged-sized Bahutu, who looked at the 6 to 7 foot invaders as gods. The Batwa, standing only about 4½ feet tall and living in the forest, also became slaves of the Watusis, acting as court jesters and contributing poison-tipped da to the "gods".

Juror Gives Judge Concrete Excuse

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — One prospective juror had a concrete excuse to dodge his duty.

* * *

He explained to Circuit Judge Charles M. Phillips Jr. that he was employed on the often-delayed courthouse expansion project.

"We have a concrete pouring scheduled for this morning," he told the judge. "According to the specifications, work is supposed to stop if I'm not there when the pouring is made."

* * *

"You may be excused," said the judge. "Go, and don't stop along the way."

Cooks Own Goose, Has Area Powerless

CHARLOTTE HARBOR, Fla. (AP) — A wild goose cooked his own goose, and the lights went out.

* * *

Deputy Sheriff John Shannon said a wild goose flew into a high tension line stretched across the Peace River.

In an instant, the goose was well done. And electrical power throughout the Charlotte Harbor area was out for nearly an hour until a crew could repair the damage.

Big Scout Jamboree June 2 and 3

John F. Ivory's polo farm in White Lake Township will be transformed into a city of tents June 2 and 3 when the Clinton Valley Council presents its biggest scouting show, Scout-O-Rama Jamboree.

Nearly 1,200 tents of all sizes will house some 8,500 scouts and leaders from 200 units in the Ottawa and Pontiac districts during the two-day showcase of scouting.

Earl L. Gruber, activities director for the council, said it is hoped that the show will have the largest public attendance of any event ever sponsored by the council.

"We are featuring the overall scouting program in its diversity and magnitude, and we feel that it will be entertaining and interesting to adults as well as to youth," he said.

In addition to continuous demonstrations in camping and skills, there will be a 10-act, all-scout talent stage show; an Indian pageant; a water ski thrill show featuring Joe Grimaldi, national and North American ski champion; and sky diving with the All-American sport parachute team of Detroit.

PLAN MANY ACTS

There will be an aquatic show featuring outstanding acts in water sports and the area of good diving, trick diving and fancy dives.

A horse show, with animals from six states, will be staged, featuring some 65 events with special acts in horsemanship.

The United States Marine 5th Infantry Battalion will simulate two battle actions on Saturday and one on Sunday.

The U.S. Army 433rd Heavy Construction Battalion will demonstrate their equipment and have it on exhibition. A 30-minute jujitsu demonstration also will be given.

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. will have a science display of the Echo satellite that is now circling the globe.

Free pony rides for the youngsters will be continuous for both days, as well as tours of the property via two fire engines and horse drawn vehicles.

On Saturday at 5 p.m. a retreat parade will pass the reviewing stands of honorary Scout-O-Rama committee officials and will proceed to the flag-staffed area to give the public an opportunity to witness the colorful ceremony of bringing the colors down for the day.

The parade will consist of Indians on horses, the Marines, Army, Naval Reserves, boy scouts, cub scouts, explorers, rover and boy scouts from Windsor and other personnel of the jamboree.

The Scout-O-Rama will open 10 a.m. both days and close 9:30 p.m. Saturday and 6 p.m. Sunday. Admission is 25 cents.

The Ivory farm is at 9990 Cooley Lake Road, two miles west of Cooley Lake.

Parking for 10,000 cars will be provided.

Troy OKs 40-Cent Tax Hike

TROY — a 1962-63 budget of $1.18 million providing for a tax increase of 40 cents per $1,000 of assessed valuation was approved last night following a public hearing that failed to turn up any protests.

Commissioners also voted to join the suburban mayor's vigilance tax committee in court action against the City of Detroit's one per cent income tax on residents and nonresidents who work in the city.

The 40-cent tax increase brings the city's levy to $7 per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

Only changes in the budget as proposed by City Manager David E. Firestone last month were a slashing of the amount appropriated for acquisition of a new civic center site and earmarking of $1,200 to get a library program off the ground.

Commissioners cut in half the $45,896 recommended by Firestone to purchase from 50 to 80 acres for a civic center to include a new city hall. The final budget authorized only $22,747 for that purpose.

HIS RECOMMENDATION

Firestone's recommendation would have been financed by a levy of 80 cents per $1,000 included in a total of $2 for capital improvements, with the remaining $1.20 going for the city's sewer programs.

The final budget provides 40 cents for the civic center site, with $1.60 to pay off sewer costs.

The $2 per $1,000 of assessed valuation for capital improvements leaves $5 for operating funds, the charter limitation. The 40-cent tax boost comes in the capital improvements levy, which is $1.60 in the current 1961-62 budget.

* * *

Library funds were requested by Commissioner Vincent McAvoy, one of 10 members on the city's library committee. McAvoy told fellow commissioners that $2,400 was needed to hire a part-time staff to make the high school library available to residents during evening hours.

* * *

He recommended formation of a library Friends group to raise money for the program, but asked the city to start it off.

Other features of the new budget are pay raises for city employes and a speeded-up road paving program. Hourly rated employes will get an additional nickel an hour, while department heads will get salary raises based on merit and on comparisons with pay for similar positions in other cities of like size.

Youth Is Doing Well After Case of Bends

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A skin diving 15-year-old Toledo boy, who hovered near death with a critical case of "bends" Sunday, is getting about today and feeling much improved.

* * *

A nationwide search for a decompression chamber finally focused on Detroit when what appeared to be a last ditch effort succeeded in saving the life of Richard Brewer.

After a frantic search, the boy was flown to Detroit by a Coast Guard helicopter for treatment in a "makeshift" decompression chamber.

A forward compartment of the USS Cero, a submarine docked at the Civic Center during Armed Forces Week, was pressurized for the emergency duty.

* * *

Brewer thus avoided possible death or paralysis and permanent crippling when Chief Quartermaster Harold L. McCoy, a Belle Isle Coast Guardsman, thought of the scheme.

Today Brewer is "up and around and feeling fine," say attendants at Toledo's Maumee Valley Hospital.

He was stricken after surfacing too quickly from a 45-foot dive in a quarry near Toledo.

* * *

Only slow decompression in water or a chamber with regulated air pressure can relieve the ailment, which results from nitrogen bubbles in the blood stream when outside pressure is decreased too rapidly.

$457,000 Budget Passed by Farmington Council

FARMINGTON — A $457,000 operating budget for the 1962-63 fiscal year was adopted by the City Council last night. It is $45,000 higher than the one adopted last year.

The new budget is based on a tax rate of $11.50 for each $1,000 of assessed valuation, the same rate required for the 1961-62 budget.

The approved budget is almost identical to the preliminary budget submitted to the council in mid April by City Manager John Dinan.

An increase in the city's valuation and an anticipated $29,000 surplus in the 1961-62 budget has allowed the council to continue with the present tax rate, he said.

* * *

Included in the budget, along with pay raises of 2.5 to 5 per cent for city employes, are allocations for a new public works and water department building, the remodeling of the public safety building, a new fire engine, dump truck and pick-up truck.

Half the cost of the $34,000 DPW-water department building would come from the $185,600 water and sewer budget, also approved by council last night.

WORK ON PAVILION — The new pavilion in the Oxford Township Park begins to take shape as workmen for Al Brauer & Sons of Oxford build up concrete block walls. The 40-by-72-foot pavilion overlooking Stony Lake will have a steel truss framework enclosed with wood and will be open except for four bricked reinforcement sections. It will have an overhanging effect with storage in those areas shown still open above. A railing is to be installed around the floor area. Construction of the pavilion, financed by a 75-cent levy per $1,000 assessed valuation in the township, is expected to be completed within four to eight weeks.

Expect Senates' Nod for JFK's Farm Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Administration officials were optimistic today that the Senate would accept a new compromise version of President Kennedy's plan to cut costly farm surpluses with tough crop controls.

Senate debate on the administration's omnibus farm bill opened yesterday. Proadministration senators launched a drive to write into the bill the original version of Kennedy's wheat control plan and a softened, compromise version of his feed grain control plan.

Administration sources said the Senate vote on these two sections, the heart of the lengthy farm bill, probably would be close. But they said preliminary checks indicated the administration plans would squeak through by a few votes.

* * *

Five farm organizations, meanwhile, urged the Senate to approve the administration-backed grain control plans. A sixth, the nation's largest, called for defeat of the bill whether or not it is stiffened by approval of administration amendments proposed yesterday.

Backing the bill were the National Grange, National Farmers Union, National Farmers Organization, National Association of Wheat Growers and Missouri Farmers Association. Opposing it was the American Farm Bureau Federation.

Chairman Allen J. Ellender, D-La., of the Senate Agriculture Committee, spearheading the floor fight to write the administration grain controls back into the farm bill, said he hoped the Senate would begin voting tomorrow.

* * *

The Senate Agriculture Committee sent the farm bill to the floor without Kennedy's plan to require that feed grain producers choose in a referendum between stiff acreage controls and abolition of government price supports.

The committee bill also would give wheat farmers a choice between extension of this year's wheat acreage reduction plan and a much tougher surplus-cutting plan backed by the administration.

In place of the administration feed grain program, the committee bill would extend for a year the present voluntary program under which farmers get government payments if they agree to reduce acreage.

Amateurs Lead Way in Area U.S. Open Qualifying

By BILL CORNWELL

"Simon-pures" stole the spotlight Monday at Red Run and Birmingham Country Club in local 36-hole qualifying rounds for the 62nd U.S. Open Golf Championship.

With former Michigan Amateur champion Melvin (Bud) Stevens setting the pace, amateur players grabbed six of the first eight positions and two others were among the 19 golfers who qualified for the sectional trials June 5 at Plum Hollow.

Stevens, 1959 State Amateur champ who plays out of Western, rifled 70-73—143, even par for the day, to win medal honors in the field of 66 professionals and 41 amateurs.

Nick Weslock, Canada's top-ranked amateur, and Earlie (Pete) Brown, unheralded 26-year-old Negro pro who registers from Rackham Municipal course, tied for runnerup laurels with 144s.

Amateurs occupied four of the next five spots.

Tom Pendlebury, University of Michigan student; Richard Youngberg of Glencoe, Ill.; veteran Tom Draper of Red Run and Birmingham's Jack Geiss all fired 147s, the same as pro Bill Markham of Saginaw C.C.

Remaining amateurs to pass the local qualifying test were Fred Wilt of Gowanie and five-time State Amateur king Glenn Johnson of Grosse Ile.

Johnson just made the grade at 152 as did Pontiac's Gene Bone, Paul Van Loozen of Edgewood and Alex Redmond of Red Run.

WATROUS IN

Tommy Watrous of Oakland Hills and Detroit Golf Club's Tad Schmidt hurdled the barrier at 151 while 150s were successful for Wilt, Forest Lake's Bob Gajda and John Dalrymple of Lakepointe.

Rudy Horvath of Essex near Windsor shot 149 and Hal Whittington of Grosse Ile carded 148 to complete the qualifying list.

Five alternate positions, in order, went to Jim Funston of Plum Hollow, Vic Juhola of Sylvan Glen, Bill Kittleman of Grosse Ile, Bay City's Howard Brown and Tom Stevens of Rochester.

All five players deadlocked at 153 and conducted a sudden-death playoff to determine priority. Funston and Stevens are amateurs.

Among the casualties were Pontiac's Mike Andonian, who totaled 155, and Frank (Red) Wilson, former Pontiac C.C. and Orchard Lake assistant who now is head man at Wequetonsing near Harbor Springs. Wilson had 167.

The beefy, long-hitting Stevens fired a one-under-par 70 at Birmingham in the morning, then went one over par with a 73 at Red Run in the afternoon. He collected seven birdies, four at Birmingham.

Weslock, former Royal Oak resident who now lives in Burlington, Ont., carded 70 at Birmingham and 74 at Red Run. He birdied four holes at Birmingham and just missed two others. Red Run failed to yield a single birdie and Weslock bogied twice.

Brown, who prefers to be called Pete, posted 72 at each course in his very first attempt to qualify for the National Open. A native of Jacksonville, Miss., he turned pro in 1954.

He's well known in Negro golfing circles. A polio victim in 1956, Brown won the national Negro crown last year at Boston and twice has won the Negro North-South title.

Married and the father of three children, Brown is unemployed, but has the financial backing of a Detroit businessman in his golf fling.

STEADY ROUND

He was steady on the Birmingham layout where he parred 17 holes and bogied the other. Brown birdied twice and bogied twice at Red Run.

Yesterday's story was far different than a year ago for Bone, the Warwick Hills pro who was medalist by five strokes with a 141 total in the 1961 local trials at Orchard Lake and Tam O'Shanter.

It was indeed a peculiar day for Bone, who was thankful to capture the 19th qualifying spot after a miserable round at Birmingham where he took an eight on the 415-yard 4th hole and bogied six others.

His shaky 79 at Birmingham followed a fairly steady 73 at Red Run and almost put him out of the picture. He birdied four holes altogether, two on each links.

A seven-foot putt for a birdie four on Birmingham's 8th hole was Andonian's lone "bird" as inaccurate irons gave him repeated trouble. Andonian parred only two of seven par three holes while shooting 79 at Red Run and 76 at Birmingham.

The U.S. Open will be played June 14-16 at Oakmont, Pa.

At Grand Rapids, Gordon Carlson, a home-town pro, shot a two-under-par 142 at Blythfield Country Club. Charles Knowles of Battle Creek at 146 and Bill Stacey Jr. of Grand Rapids at 147, both pros, filled the top three.

Harold Brink of Blythfield, an amateur, won a playoff from Jackson pro Bob Zimmerman for the fourth spot in the qualification at Grand Rapids.

Colavito's 3-Run Homer Sparks 7-3 Tiger Win

Bruton Tops Attack in Foytack Victory

CHICAGO (UPI)—Rocky Colavito had a few words for the impires last night but did most of his talking with his bat as his three-run homer was the big hit in the Detroit Tigers' 7-3 win over the Chicago White Sox.

The victory frustrated veteran Early Wynn's attempt to notch his 295th victory and it gave Paul Foytack, who needed relief help, his second win of the season against one loss.

Colavito made two angry trips from his left field position in the second inning to protest a home run by Luis Aparicio. He said it was a foul in the left field corner but umpire Ed Hurley said it landed fair and brought in two runs.

When Colavito came in the first time, he was joined by an equally irate Foytack and manager Bob Scheffing. His second trip to continue the fray was a solo attempt and he finally returned to left only after urging of Scheffing.

When he got there though, he still did not give up. He held an impromptu poll of the bleacherites, but their opinion mattered little more than his. The homer went in the record books.

The Tigers unleashed a 12 hit assault with Billy Bruton paving the way with five for five, including two doubles. Al Kaline maintained his hitting pace with two singles in five trips to the slate and Chico Fernandez was the only other Tiger with two hits, going two for four.

Wynn's bubble was shattered in the opening inning when the Bengals scored five runs. Jake Wood led off with a single but was thrown out when he tried to come in on Bruton's first two bagger. Bruton came home on Kaline's infield hit and Cash walked to set the stage for Colavito's home run.

Fernandez, exceeding his last year's home run output, banged his fourth homer of the season to administer the coup d' grace to Wynn.

NO LET UP

With Wynn out of the way, a procession of four other Chicago pitchers paraded to the mound but the Tigers did not give up their assault.

Foytack, who was bothered with occasional wild streaks, pitched well and held the Sox to six hits in his 7 2-3 inning stint. He needed help from Ron Nischwitz in the eighth when he walked two men to load the bags with two out. Nellie Fox grounded out to end the threat.

The Tigers are off today and play at Baltimore tomorrow.

Eagle 3 Helps Lakers Win Over Clarkston

An eagle three on the eighth hole by Bob Aumaugher enabled West Bloomfield to post a close 169-170 golf decision over Clarkston yesterday.

Aumaugher finished the nine holes at Clarkston Country Club with a 40 to tie the Wolves' Rick Wilson for medalist honors. The Lakers have a 7-5 dual meet record.

Tally 95 Runs in City Games

Home Plates Busy in Single Baseball, 4 Softball Tilts

The home plates at Jaycee, North Side and Beaudette Parks took a beating yesterday as 95 runs scored in one local baseball game and four softball contests.

★ ★ ★

R. T. Clippers took Talbott Lumber 11-3 in Class A baseball. Motorcar Teansport slammed 300 Lounge 16-6, Bud & Lou's Bar drubbed Stadium Inn 19-1 at North Side. Berry Door nipped Oakland Auto Supply 9-8 and Langdon's Boat Livery walloped Auburn Bar 21-1 at Beaudette. The Transport-Lounge game was in the National League. The others were in the IL.

The Clippers led all the way aided by 13 errors. Warren Stephens and Charley Honchell each had a double and single. Both teams had seven hits. Terry Anderson was the winner.

After a scoreless 1st, Bud & Lou's got seven in the 2nd and 12 in the 3rd. Stadium avoided a shutout in the 4th and last round after Jerry Meger had flipped 3 2-3 innings of no-hit ball. Bill Carrie paced a 12-hit attack with two doubles and a triple.

★ ★ ★

Motorcar scored eight runs in the first inning to get off to a fast start against Lounge. Jerry Acker had three hits and Weston Smith, Doug Truman, Bob Garner and Richard Fitzgerald two each for the winners.

★ ★ ★

Darrell Herron's two-run double highlighted the three-run 7th that won the game for Berry Door. Herron scored the winning run on a fielder's choice. He also pitched a four-hitter.

Langdon's scored 13 runs in the 6th and final inning to complete its rout of Auburn Bar. The winners collected 11 hits in the big frame and had 18 for the game.

Jerry Langdon, and Luther Gilmore had three each. Tom Boucher homered in the big inning with two on.

Set Restrictions Planned by State for Floyd-Liston

DETROIT (UPI)—Talk of a heavyweight title bout produced more talk but no heavyweights for Detroit fans last night.

A gate of only 200, including many who thought they would see Floyd Patterson at ringside, turned out for a local card. Patterson did not show.

The promoters were the same pair, Leon Saddler and Elisha Gray, who said they have guaranteed $750,000 for the Patterson-Sonny Liston fight.

Michigan boxing commissioner Dave Gudelsky said he has not seen Liston, Patterson, or Patterson's manager, Cus D'Amato.

Gudelsky said he would confront the fighters with proposals for the strictest restrictions ever clamped on a world title bout.

He said there would be a 90-second, instead of 60-second pause between rounds, and that the commission's doctor will be empowered to stop the action in the middle of a round and call off the fight.

ALL SMILES — Robin Roberts made his first appearance for the Baltimore Orioles last night and both he and manager Billy Hitchcock were smiling even though Cleveland won, 10-7. Roberts, former Phillies' great, hurled two hitless innings in relief, striking out two. He is scheduled to start against the Detroit Tigers Wednesday or Thursday.

Led by Sluggers; Twins and A's Win

Cleveland Takes 1st Alone

By The Associated Press

Clutch-hitting John Romano and a guy on a hot streak named Chuck Essegian are two prime reasons why Cleveland's surprising Indians hold undisputed possession of the American League lead.

★ ★ ★

These two led the way Monday night as the Indians overcame Baltimore 10-7 in a thriller and took first place by a half game over the idle New York Yankees.

★ ★ ★

Romano supplied most of the muscle—and the ultimate drama—with a pair of run-scoring doubles and the three-run homer with two out in the ninth inning that won it.

BATTING .402

Essegian, on a torrid tear that has zoomed him to the top among the league's batters with a .402 average, rode in on both of Romano's doubles and was on base when the sturdy catcher connected for the clincher.

★ ★ ★

Also in the AL, Minnesota climbed to within 11 percentage points of the Yankees with a 5-3 victory over Washington behind Camilo Pascual's pitching and hitting talents; another good hitting pitcher, Jerry Walker, paced Kansas City as the A's dealt Boston its seventh straight loss, 10-5; and Detroit ran off from Chicago 7-3. Los Angeles, like the Yankees, was idle.

★ ★ ★

The Indians pounded Skinny Brown for a 7-0 lead in the first three innings but the Orioles slugged back, getting a pair of homers from Jackie Brandt, one from Jim Gentile and a two-run triple by Brooks Robinson. Jim (Mudcat) Grant finally was routed in Baltimore's four-run sixth and Russ Snyder evened it at 7-7 with a homer off Barry Latman in the eighth.

HOEFT BOMBED

Winner Gary Bell struck out the side in the top of the ninth, then the Tribe settled it against southpaw Billy Hoeft, the fifth Oriole pitcher. Willie Tasby got a walk, Essegian rapped his third single of the night, and Romano drilled one into the seats.

★ ★ ★

Essegian, the former Stanford football star who's been on six major league clubs and 11 minor league teams in his 10 pro seasons, is the current standout of Cleveland's outfield platoon. He's been zipping along at a .500 pace his past nine games, with 17 hits in 34 at bats.

★ ★ ★

Pascual pitched an eight-hitter for his sixth victory in eight decisions, singled across the clincher for the Twins in the seventh and batted across an insurance run in the eighth with another single. The Cuban right-hander is hitting a solid .323 with 10 RBI to his credit.

GOOD SUPPORT

Walker yielded 11 singles, a homer to Eddie Bressoud and four walks to the reeling Red Sox but the A's still coasted in. They took the lead for good in the fourth on Jose Azcu's homer and Jerry Lumpe's two-run double.

★ ★ ★

Walker, now 5-2, banged his third homer of the year and a single, boosting his average to .346, and scored three times.

Cards, Pirates Post Victories

Davis, Koufax Team to Down Giants

By The Associated Press

Target: Destroy the most effective equipment used against the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Weapon: Terrible Tommy Davis, who slays giants and feasts on left-handers.

Final objective: The National League pennant.

That could well be the story of the Dodgers' pennant chances. And executing his assignment with precision is the 23-year-old Davis, who Monday night paced third-place Los Angeles to an 8-1 triumph over league-leading San Francisco.

Charged with the task of providing right-handed power in a line-up that relies on getting most of its long distance hits from left-handed swingers, Davis got the job done against the Giants with a 3-for-3 performance that backed Sandy Koufax's five-hit pitching.

BIG HOMER

Davis, who led the club against southpaws last year with a .352 batting average, wasted a double in the second, then got the Dodgers rolling with a two-run homer in the fourth. He made it 3-0 with a run-scoring double in the sixth before winding up with a walk in a five-run eighth.

That gave Davis seven hits in 12 at-bats against the Giants this year and nine runs batted in for the three games with San Francisco. It also boosted his average to .311 and gave him nine homers and 38 RBI—second highest in the league.

★ ★ ★

The defeat left the Giants 3½ games in front of the Dodgers and the runner-up St. Louis Cardinals, who ran their winning streak to five games with a 4-1 victory over Philadelphia. Pittsburgh belted Chicago's Cubs 8-4 and Houston edged New York's Mets 3-2 in other games. Cincinnati and Milwaukee were rained out.

Davis, who was hitting .314 last year when sidelined by a bad back homered off Billy O'Dell after Willie Davis singled with one out in the fourth. His double in the sixth boosted the edge to 3-0 before Orlando Cepeda got the Giants' lone run with his 12th homer, leading off the seventh.

STRONG RELIEF

Ray Washburn, who came on when starter Ernie Broglio pulled a leg muscle in the second inning, and Bobby Shantz limited the Phillies to five hits the final eight innings. Shantz pulled Washburn out of a two-on, one-out jam in the eighth inning by getting Tony Gonzalez to line back to the mound for the start of a double play.

Dick Groat, hitting in his 13th consecutive game, and Bill Virdon each stroked four hits and picked up three runs batted in as the Pirates rapped out 13 hits to subdue the Cubs. Groat's single in the fifth inning drove in Virdon, who had doubled, with the run that proved to be the clincher. Reliever Tom Sturdivant held the Cubs scoreless over the final 6 1-3 innings to post the victory.

★ ★ ★

Jim Pendleton's pinch-hit triple leading off the eighth inning and a sacrifice fly by Roman Mejias got the winning run across for the Colts and ended the Mets winning streak at three games. The victory also shoved Houston into eighth place, three percentage points ahead of New York in the battle between the league's two new clubs.

NFL Triumphs in Court Battle

League Spring Meeting Starts at New York With Owners Happy

NEW YORK (AP) — National Football League brass open their three-day spring meeting today in a jubilant frame of mind after a court victory over the rival American League.

On the agenda for club owners and officials are the players' retirement plan, possible additional use of the "sudden death" rule and lesser items.

The meeting comes on the heels of Monday's court decision in Baltimore, dismissing the American Football League's $10,080,000 damage suit against the NFL. U.S. Dist. Judge Roszel C. Thomsen ruled out the AFL's charges of monopolistic practices. He directed the AFL to pay court costs.

CLAIM DENIED

In its suit, the AFL contended the 42-year-old NFL possessed and used the power to exclude rivals and also conspired against the young AFL by granting franchises to Dallas and Minneapolis-St. Paul in its expansion from 12 to 14 teams. When it was planning for its opening season of 1960, the AFL had franchises for Dallas and Minnesota. Then the NFL announced it was putting a team in Dallas in 1960 and would field another in Minnesota the following year.

Ref Goldstein May Be Cleared in Paret Death

NEW YORK (AP)—Veteran referee Ruby Goldstein apparently will be held blameless for his handling of the Benny (Kid) Paret-Emile Griffith world middleweight bout — a savage battle that resulted in Paret's death and a clamor to outlaw boxing.

★ ★ ★

Goldstein, three of Paret's handlers and the co-manager of Griffith all underwent questioning Monday at the first session of a three-day public hearing by a state legislative committee. The committee will determine if boxing should be outlawed as a sport in New York State.

★ ★ ★

Manuel Alfaro, Paret's manager, along with trainers John Sullo and Joseph De Maria all agreed that their shouts to Goldstein to stop the bout while Paret was being pummelled in the fatal 12th round went unheard because of the roar of the Madison Square Garden crowd.

Northville Nine W-O Champ; Chiefs Breeze

Northville wrapped up its 4th Wayne-Oakland championship of the school year yesterday with a 7-2 baseball triumph at Bloomfield Hills.

Holly moved past the Barons into 2nd place nipping Brighton 2-1 on a one-hitter by ace Jim Ray. Clarenceville took Clarkston, 7-2.

Pontiac Central bombarded Cranbrook 21-10, Kettering blasted L'Anse Creuse 14-0 and Romeo whipped Oxford, 10-2.

Northville snapped a 2-2 tie with three in the 5th coupling a Jeff Crawford hit with three errors and a walk. Each team had scored a pair in the 1st on two hits. Another hit, two more bobbles and two passed balls turned into two more tallies in the 7th. Tom Swiss won over John Augustin. Each allowed four hits.

RAY FANS 17

Ray gave up only an infield safety while striking out 17 and walking three. He lost a shutout on a hit batter and two successive errors on steal attempts. John Howe singled in Ray and Mike Howard after triples for Holly's runs. Jim Armstrong bowed.

Gary Messina four-hit Clarkston, one a homer by relief hurler Gary Pearson. Bruce Freels had three bingles, Woodhouse homered and Hawkins had a double pacing an eight-hit attack. Mike Applegate had a Clarkston double. John Williams took the loss.

All the starters got into the hit column in the PCH romp. Dick Bushey socked three doubles and a single, Gene Luppino three singles, John Marcoux a single, double and triple, Bob Pomeroy a home run and single and winner Bob Farms a triple for most of 18 total. Farms allowed five hits in the team's 7th win in 11 tries. The Chiefs scored five in the 2nd and six in the 5th.

KETTERING ROMPS

Kettering also advanced to 7-4 starting the scoring early. The Captains combined five hits with 14 walks backing a two-hitter by Bob Bogert. Gary Heaton and Jerry Ryan batted in four tallies each. Heaton had a bases-loaded triple. Ryan had two hits. Eight of the runs crossed in the 6th before the ejection of the losers' catcher ended play due to the lack of a replacement.

Romeo dominated play after a three-run 3rd with Mark Johnson flipping a two-hitter featuring 11 strikeouts. Simunic, Smiles and McCoy had Bulldog three baggers. Len Schultz belted a homer for Oxford.

Press Records Go on Line

By BILL CORNWELL

Records have been durable in The Pontiac Press Prep Invitational golf tournament.

The tourney's two most cherished marks, lowest team score and best individual round, have withstood all challengers since they were set.

Twenty Oakland County area teams will attack these marks again next Monday when the Press Invitational stages its 11th annual showing at Pontiac Country Club.

Birmingham Seaholm, six-time Press Invitational champion, holds the record for the lowest five-man total. The Maples totaled 380 in 1955 when they won the crown at Pontiac Municipal.

ROGERS LOW

The individual mark dates back even further. John Rogers of Pontiac Central fired a one-under-par 68 at the city course in 1952 to pace the Chiefs to the championship in the inaugural Press event.

In fairness, however, it must be noted that these records were set on a par 69 course. Par at Pontiac Country Club is 37-37—74.

The tournament switched to Pontiac C. C. in 1959 so it might be interesting to check the best performances that have been posted there.

Once more the best team score belongs to Seaholm. The Maples tallied 390 at P.C.C. in 1959 when they annexed their 6th championship.

Since then the winning scores have gone up. Walled Lake won the title with 395 in 1960 and Bloomfield Hills won last year with 402.

The finest individual round since the tourney's move to P.C.C. was recorded by Walled Lake's Bill Dingel, who rifled 39-34—73 to lead the Vikings to their 1960 crown.

Nobody has come closer than two strokes to Dingel's excellent round.

EYE RECORDS

Bloomfield Hills, favored to repeat as Press champion, poses a definite threat to both records.

Now more experienced and a lot wiser, the Barons have both the squad depth and individual skill to launch a full-scale assault on these two marks.

Competition will begin promptly at 8 a.m. next Monday with play being conducted from the 1st and 10th tees concurrently.

Pairings and starting times have been arranged and they will be published in the sports section of this Saturday's Pontiac Press. Copies of the pairings also will be mailed to all coaches in advance.

300 CHAMPS — Mrs. Harold Smith, left, and Keith Gray won the high score tourney at 300 Bowl. Mrs. Smith hit 225 pacing women who had scored 210 or better during season. Gray had 246 competing with men who had rolled 245 or higher. They hold large trophies which require three victories for permanent possession.

Two Aces in County

Lou Dallas is Birmingham Country Club's first hole-in-one maker of the season. Dallas knocked a 4-iron shot into the cup on the 160-yard 15th hole. Lancaster Hills also listed its first ace after James D. Jackson aced the 120-yard 2nd hole with a 9-iron.

Neutralists Feel Maybe Yes, Maybe No

Allies Are All for U.S. in Thailand

ta8 ryyrTroops-reaction bjt hl22

WASHINGTON (AP) — A preliminary government sampling of worldwide opinion on the sending of American troops to Thailand indicated today wide support of U.S. allies and divided views in neutralist countries of the Near East and Asia.

The initial study, by the U.S. Information Agency, is based mainly on newspaper and radio comment around the globe.

* * *

Extensive editorial comment in the West European press was favorable, outside of the Communist organs.

"The U.S. initiative was praised as the only effective way to save Thailand," according to the sum-up of the newspaper views in allied countries. The summary added: "Many influential papers, however, expressed skepticism regarding the possibility of improving the Western position in Laos. The thought that the West must resign itself to the military loss of Laos, unless it were prepared for a second Korea, was voiced by a number of media."

ALLIES IN ASIA

In allied nations of Asia the U.S. move was seen as needed to show the Soviet Union and Red China that America intends to fulfill its commitments in Southeast Asia.

Some called for even firmer U.S. commitment to an anti-Communist policy. In South Viet Nam, the survey found enthusiasm over the first reports of the dispatch of U.S. fighting units was dampened "as it became apparent that U.S. clashes with pro-Communist Pathet Lao units was unlikely and that the United States was content only to reinforce neighboring Thailand."

* * *

In his area, too, some comments criticized U.S. pressures on the Laotian government of Prince Boun Oum as having led to ineffectiveness of anti - Communist forces in Laos. Washington has been trying to press the pro-Western Boun Oum regime into coalition talks with Laotian neutralists and Reds, using various means including withdrawal of $3 million a month in economic aid.

* * *

The Japanese press expressed fear of Japan's being drawn into the Southeast Asia affair through U.S. use of bases in Japan.

INDIA DIVIDED

The Indian press was reported strongly divided with some seeing the U.S. deployment as seriously threatening a peaceful solution of the Southeast Asian crisis while others considered it a welcome show of force to deter communism while not encouraging Boun Oum to expect U.S. military support.

Indian editorials generally call on the United States to put strong pressure on Boun Oum to form a coalition government.

Arab news media saw a shift of the cold war from Berlin to Southeast Asia. They were reported fearing a direct East-West clash, with the Reds justifying a heightened military offensive because of the U.S. troop move.

Latin Americans, according to the preliminary findings, generally backed the U.S. policy as a defense of democracy requiring strength rather than appeasement.

Crash Kills Girl, 17, Critically Hurts 2nd

NEW BUFFALO (AP) —The top scholar of New Buffalo High, Mary-Anne Frey, 17, was killed yesterday when her car collided with an auto driven by a Detroit minister.

Critically injured in the crash on rain-slick U.S. 12 was Kathleen McCotter, 17, who was runner-up to the dead girl for scholastic honors at the school. She was kept at St. Joseph's Hospital in South Bend, Ind.

The girls were to have graduated June 8 as valedictorian and salutatorian.

* * *

The occupants of the other car were the Rev. Robert Ward, 57, and Beatrice Payne, 65, both of Detroit. Their injuries were not serious.

Glenn's Space Capsule Draws Yugoslav Crowds

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — The capsule in which John H. Glenn Jr. orbited the globe arrived here yesterday for its first show in a Communist country.

* * *

It will be exhibited through Thursday at the Belgrade Fair of Technics and then be sent on to Madrid.

* * *

It aroused great interest as it was hauled through Belgrade streets, where people lined up to look at it.

Here is another hand from Curtis Smith's book. Many players would prefer a two club rebid by North, but Curtis advocates staying at the one level and showing a major suit whenever possible.

South's jump to two no-trump is not forcing. An immediate two no-trump is, but a second round jump to two no-trump shows about 11-13 points and is merely a strong invitation to partner to bid again.

And it is also a strong invitation to partner to raise to three no-trump.

Now, look over the North hand carefully. He doesn't have anything like no-trump distribution, but he does have one feature that should prove extremely valuable at no-trump. He has six probable club tricks.

He has only a singleton diamond, but South has bid that suit. He has only a doubleton heart, but South has heard North's club and spade bids and should be able to take care of the unbid suit.

Hence North should raise to three no-trump and South should have no trouble making the contract.

Actually, if the game were duplicate most South players would make an extra trick or so depending on their play and the defense.

What do you do?

A—This is a close one. You might temporize with two hearts, but my preference is to show strength by a jump to four diamonds.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Your partner bids four no-trump and you show your two aces. Then he bids five no-trump to ask for kings. What do you do?

Electric Blues and Kennedy Greens

Don't Forget, Daddy 'Loves' Colorful Ties

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Inside every drab American man is a bright-hued human peacock struggling to get out—or so the fashion people say.

And the pre-Father's Day style forecast now is: Papa will be a lot more colorful in terms of neckwear.

BOYLE

"There has been a real return to male elegance," said Deborah Kantor, manager of shops which handle neckties ranging from $5 to $100.

Dad now is going for colors in neckwear that would have frightened him only a few years ago. They have such names as electric blue, Kennedy green, cactus, sapphire, rouge, silver, turquoise and lemon-and-wood.

Like others in the industry, Miss Kantor tends to blame the traditional dull look of American husbands on the fact that women buy 85 per cent of their neckties for them.

And too often they don't do a good job.

"Many wives, feeling guilty at having spent so much time in a beauty parlor or shopping for themselves, simply salve their consciences by picking up a necktie for their husband on the way home," Miss Kantor says.

* * *

"Too often also they make it a rush job. They buy a drab tie for their husbands because they are afraid of color except on themselves."

But more and more men lately have been doing their own necktie buying.

* * *

"There is no doubt they are getting more fashion-conscious and brighter neckwear has become a new form of emotional outlet for them, a way to show their personality," Miss Kantor said.

"They want nice things, and they recognize them. You'd be surprised at the natural good taste men have. Those who buy for themselves have marvelous judgment. And they'll listen to suggestions."

PURPLE UNDERWEAR?

Men at heart love neckties the way women love perfume, earrings or furs, she says and "most of them have courage, too. A bright color no longer frightens them. Whenever I see a man with a dull tie, I suspect he wears purple polka dot underwear."

What stirs the bashful American male's boyish and romantic heart most in neckwear? Miss Kantor has noted certain geographical differences.

"Brighter colors have the biggest appeal in the South and Midwest," she said. "Brown ties go better in the Southwest. The somewhat more subdued blues and grays are popular on the East and West coasts."

Other trends and conclusions:

"A man with a bow tie usually is good-natured and cheerful.

"For some reason, men love designs with cats. They also like ties with horse, dog and antique car designs.

Professional men—such as doctors and lawyers—like ties with occupational symbols."

For the fearful male afraid to trust his own taste, Miss Kantor offered this advice:

"Wear a dark tie with a light suit, a light tie with a dark suit. If you have a florid face, tone it down with a softly colored tie."

Well, What Have We Here? A Good Movie? No, TWO!

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — There's nothing wrong with the movie business that attractions like "The Miracle Worker" and "Music Man" can't cure.

When a previewer sees two such films in one week, he sees a glimmer of hope that motion pictures can recapture their audience. You realize that movies can be a marvelous and indispensible medium when treated with imagination, taste and talent.

THOMAS

Both new films derive from the stage and a fragment of "Miracle Worker" first appeared on television. The makers of each have wisely discarded staginess to use the film techniques to best advantage.

* * *

"The Miracle Worker" may seem at first like forbidding material for entertainment: the effort of teacher Annie Sullivan to bring the deaf-blind-mute Helen Keller out of her animal-like world. But the unfolding of this challenge to the human spirit is anything but depressing.

TOUGH IRISH GIRL

It is the story of a tough Irish girl, herself the conqueror of blindness and the snake pit of public institutions, who pits her strength and cunning against an equally strong-minded young girl. Their first encounter is marked by what might be the most extensive screen battle since "The Spoilers."

Anne Bancroft and Patty Duke are nothing short of perfect in the roles they created on Broadway. If you are not touched by their final, electric moment of communication, you should see a doctor. There is something wrong with your nerve endings.

* * *

Little can be faulted with Arthur Penn's direction, except for some unclear dialouge in early portions and an occasional strain for Ingmar Bergman-like symbolism. But that is minor carping about what will remain a soaring human document.

"Music Man" is all fun and two and a half hours long. Only the most cynical could complain bout it, and they had better go see something by Tennessee Williams instead.

ALL 76 TROMBONES

The Meredith Willson hosanna to the corn-fed wonders of Iowa is virtually unchanged in contest from the stage version, but the size and action have been extended for the wide, wide screen. You actually see the 76 trombones.

With a burst of genius, Warner Brothers allowed Robert Preston to play the leading role. He is, of course, the definitive Harold Hill, and his presence is indispensable.

He prowls panther-like through his scenes. When he tells the people of River City they've got trouble, you believe him. Without him you might realize that the corn can grow higher than an elephant's eye.

With him you are pleasantly conned into a delightful experience. Shirley Jones is in fine form as Marian the librarian, and Paul Ford, Hermione Gingold, Buddy Hackett and Pert Kelton keep the corn popping nicely.

Both "Miracle Worker" and "Music Man" are classics in their fields. They are happy news for theater owners and movie goers alike.

Ruanda, Urundi to Be Free

Tribal Trouble Expected

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States expects trouble when Ruanda and Urundi, U.N. trust territories neighboring the Congo and administered by Belgium, become independent July 1.

* * *

Officials here said there will be no one to restrain hostile tribes when the Belgians withdraw their small but efficient army, unless a U.N. committee now studying the issue comes up with a solution.

But, the officials added, the United States has no immediate plans to make suggestions before the U.N. committee submits its recommendations to the General Assembly.

The committee, composed of representatives of Liberia, Iran, Haiti, Morocco and Togo, is meeting in Tangiers and is expected to report its findings Friday. The General Assembly will consider the report June 7.

* * *

There is no hope that Ruanda and Urundi will stay together after independence. Ruanda, where a social revolution took place, became a republic.

* * *

Urundi remained a monarchy, more or less controlled by the Watusi, a tribe of African aristocrats. The Bahutu, formerly the serfs of the Watsui are ruling in Ruanda.

Iceland Expels Czech

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP) — Iceland's government has expelled Czechoslovak trade envoy V. Stochl, charging he tried to get an Icelandic pilot to collect information on the kind and number of U.S. military planes at the Keflavik base.

Formosa Making Plans for Resettling Refugees

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Vice President Chen Cheng met with the Nationalist Chinese government's special refugee committee today to begin planning for the resettlement of refugees from Red China who are willing to come to Formosa.

* * *

President Chiang Kai-shek's government set up the committee Monday after a storm of criticism because it had offered a haven to only a comparative few of the thousands of refugees British officials are barring from overcrowded Hong Kong.

It was generally believed, however, that most of the refugees want to remain in Hong Kong, close to their homeland, rather than come to comparatively remote Formosa. Many of the refugees have relatives in the British crown colony, which has given haven to more than 1.5 million Chinese since the Communists conquered the mainland 14 years ago.

Officials said that to expedite the flow of those willing to come to Formosa, security screening to weed out Communist agents would take place after they reach the Nationalist island.

Newspapers in Formosa threw their support behind the government's decision and also backed up the government's appeal for assistance from other non-Communist countries.

Officials of the Hong Kong government had no official comment on the Nationalist offer, leaving that to their parent government in London. Privately, however, considerable skepticism was expressed.

* * *

"We can't be sure when or how many will be taken by Taipei, if, indeed, any are taken in appreciable numbers," said one source.

"We have a million refugees now. Fifty thousand more have tried to come in the last month alone. If we start letting them in, there will be 100,000 next month and 200,000 the month after that."

The Hong Kong newspaper Sing Tao suggested that Chiang's government ask the U.S. 7th Fleet to begin transporting refugees to Formosa immediately.

Swainson Hopes Lansing Will OK Tourist Campaign

ESCANABA (AP) — Gov. Swainson told the Upper Michigan Tourist Association here last night he hopes the legislature will go along with his recommendation for an increase in funds for the state's tourist promotion program.

Swainson said he recommended that funds for the program be increased from the present $420,000 to $539,000.

"While this increase—if granted by the legislature—will help us do a more effective job, the present unresolved financial picture does not permit us to do as much as should be done," Swainson said.

The neighboring province of Ontario, he said, is spending about $1.7 million a year on tourist promotion.

The Naval Observatory in Washington is the nation's official timekeeper. The Navy got into timekeeping because navigators require accurate measurements of time so they could fix the position of the stars at any given instant.

Mart Suffers Sinking Spell

Some Growth Stocks Tumble

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market suffered a quiet sinking spell early Tuesday afternoon. A number of selected issues took sharp losses.

While most key stocks held their declines to within a point, losses ran to as much as half a dozen points for some growth stocks.

* * *

The list was down a bit in the morning but as trading continued a slight increase in selling was enough to topple a number of the more volatile issues.

There was little in the way of background news.

* * *

Loss of around 6 points were taken by Polaroid and Beckman Instruments. Off about 3 were Vendo, and Magnavox. Litton Industries was down about 4 and Brunswick about 2.

Steels continued to slide following the seventh straight weekly decline in steel production. U.S. Steel and Jones & Laughlin were off about a point each. Bethlehem and Jones & Laughlin fell fractions.

General Motors and Chrysler eased after performing steadily at the start. Ford dropped a fraction.

A 3-point drop by du Pont dampened the chemical section.

Tobaccos displayed some signs of recovery following their recent weakness. Reynolds Tobacco halved an early loss of more than a point. Lorillard showed a gain of about a point and American Tobacco was fractionally higher.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange in slow trading. Majestic Specialties gained about 3 points. Magna Oil, National Petroleum, Universal Controls, Giant Yellowknife, Cletrac, and H. L. Klion were other gainers. Technical Operations slipped about 2 and Syntex a point or more. Other losers included Technicolor, Rogers Corp., Aerosol Techniques and Gulf American Land.

Corporates Open Mixed

Treasury Bonds Stay Put

NEW YORK (AP)—U.S. Treasury bonds halted their recent downward slide at the start of trading today. Corporate bonds opened mixed.

The governments, down in six of the last seven sessions, were quoted from steady for short term bonds to 4-32 higher for some intermediate maturities. Long bonds gained about 2-32s.

"There's some talk that the British bank rate might be reduced again, and that would have a favorable effect on our market," one over-the-counter dealer said.

"In part, the better tone seems to be a reaction to recently depressed prices."

On the New York Stock Exchange the industrial section of the corporate list showed some strength but rails were easier and utilities held their own.

The widest price move among regular issues added 1⅝ to the El Paso & Southwestern Railroad 5s putting them up to 101½.

Grain Prices Hold Virtually Stationary

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures prices held virtually stationary today in unusually quiet initial transactions on the board of trade.

* * *

Rye showed a little weakness in spots and soybeans some firmness but other grains shifted only minor fractions as dealers seemed reluctant to do business pending new developments.

The government's report on crushings during April-May have contributed to the firmness in soybeans.

It showed a crush of 36.5 million bushels which was off about 2.3 million from March but about 3.6 million above the same month a year ago.

* * *

Although stocks of soybeans at plants declined, the supplies of both soybean oil and soybean meal increased.

Spartan Store to Sell Apparel

Clothing for the Family Among Merchandise at New Discount Outlet

There is little danger of the Pontiac area's first Spartan Department Store running short of merchandise — at least not clothing for men, women and children.

The new discount-style outlet at the southeast corner of Dixie Highway and Telegraph Road will be supplied in part by Spartan Industries Inc., a national manufacturer of family wearing apparel.

Following the store's grand opening 9:30 a.m. Thursday, it will keep a 9:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. schedule Monday through Saturday and noon to 7 p.m. Sundays.

In addition to its own products, the store will sell merchandise produced by other firms, including sporting goods, hardware, home furnishings and stationery.

The store will be a self-service operation. Merchandise will be out on counters, racks and gondolas. Prices will be marked on each article so customers may do all the shopping themselves.

David Hans, manager of the Spartan outlet, said it will cover 75,000 square feet of floor space. There will be parking for 1,000 cars in a lot at the front of the store.

A native of New York City who plans to live in the Pontiac area, Hans has been with the discount store chain for a year. His most recent assignment was as manager of a Spartan store at Shreveport, La.

Executive and sales offices of Spartan Industries, founded in 1936 by present chairman of the board Charles C. Bassine, are in New York City. The main plant is in Sparta, Tenn.

Will He Really Ride Herd on Business?

Texas Goes Ahead Regardless of JFK

(Editor's Note—Conservative Texans would thank Washington to keep hands off their business. In this, first of three stories on the fast growing Texas economy, Sam Dawson, AP business news analyst, reports on the confidence that their own private boom will continue.

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

DALLAS, Tex.—Guidelines laid down in Washington have small appeal in Texas where there's always been lots of room to wheel and deal.

It's like putting a check rein on a cowpony. He's startled but far from convinced the new-fangled thing will cramp his style.

* * *

Most businessmen and bankers interviewed here say that they and their colleagues are disturbed by the turn that business-government relations appear to be taking since President Kennedy clamped down on the short-lived steel price rise.

And the stock market tumble that followed gave businessmen and most other Texans pause. It may have made them wary but far from convinced it could really hurt business expansion and activity in this area in the long run. But some report short-term effects.

WAITING TO SEE

"Our customers are holding back on orders now," says one manufacturer of products sold to other businessmen. "They're just waiting to see whether the administration is really out to ride herd on business. They're also wondering if the stock market is forecasting a coming dip in business for other parts of the nation."

* * *

Robert H. Stewart III, president of the First National Bank in Dallas, whose assets top a billion dollars without benefit of branches which are forbidden by Texas law, sees a sharp change in business thinking about the administration. He says Texas businessmen are startled by the turn of events—the steel crackdown, the antitrust threats, merger bans and stock market investigation.

* * *

"Dallas probably isn't typical. It's very conservative in its thinking. Also it won't be affected by a dip in the general economy as would most older sections of the nation. Industry here is very diversified, with electronics and other light industries. This is a great distribution center for the Southwest with warehouses for products made elsewhere," he adds.

"A big business boom is on—three banks starting large office buildings, while many other commercial buildings and apartment houses are going up. The momentum will carry on unless government interferes in business much more than now seems likely."

WATCHING TREND

How the guidelines will be applied to labor is being closely watched here. If the President doesn't, or can't, hold the line on the wage front, most businessmen here say feeling will really turn pessimistic—even here, deep in the nation's confidence belt.

"The stock market shakeout has made a lot of small shareholders feel poor," says James L. Ling, vice chairman of the board of Ling-Temco-Vought, an electronics complex built of mergers and acquisitions. "And I know some of the smaller companies around here are finding it hard to get investment houses to handle new security issue because of the market tone."

* * *

But Ling, who has come up fast in his field, thinks the Securities and Exchange Commission and other government investigations could have a beneficial effect in the long run.

"They will shake out the few bad promoters, brokers, industrialists, but let the public see that the majority of brokers and businessmen have clean hands," he reasons.

"It could be bad, however, if the government thinking that showed up recently—steel hassle, stock market probes, antitrust suits—is carried further into persecution and witch hunts. Then everyone will draw in his horns."

* * *

He thinks any wobbliness of business confidence showing up now will lead the administration to "toss business some bones before many months." One already promised is a change in rules of depreciation allowances for tax purposes. Another he's like would be a stern stand against inflationary wage boosts.

Prospects for the large share of his own business tied to defense and space projects look very bright, he says. For the company's commercial lines, Ling would hesitate just now to spend for expansion, would rather wait and see what comes out of the present turmoil.

HOFFA WAS THERE — Teamsters President James R. Hoffa and his wife Josephine display a "DRIVE" badge at the union's political luncheon in Philadelphia yesterday but the two top city political leaders did not appear. Rep. William J. Green Jr., the city Dem leader, and Wilbur H. Hamilton, his Republic opposite number, did not attend. Hoffa charged his indictment last Friday in a payola conspiracy case was a coverup for the Estes scandal.

MSU Banning of Red Hit by School Paper

EAST LANSING (AP) — A decision by Michigan State University trustees not to allow a Communist speaker on the campus "was an insult to the intelligence of every student on the campus," the State News, MSU student daily, said in an editorial yesterday.

★ ★ ★

"To assume that the students will be duped by the irrational arguments of one man implies a lack of confidence in the young men and women who will become the leaders of their communities," the editorial said.

The MSU trustees refused to allow Robert Thompson, identified only as a member of the Communist party, to speak on the campus.

★ ★ ★

The MSU Young Socialist Club said an off-campus site would be sought for the speaking date Wednesday.

Cheboygan Water Has Naturally Fluoridized

CHEBOYGAN (AP) — There's no room of argument over fluoridating the Cheboygan water supply. Fluoride is present naturally and in what health experts say is the proper amount.

★ ★ ★

A report by the Michigan Department of Health shows that tests at the Cheboygan Water Works indicate fluoride content of 1.0 parts per million, "the optimum recommended for prevention of dental decay."

She Has a Mind of Her Own

Rene Carpenter to Be Right There at Launching

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

CAPE CANAVERAL—They tried to discourage Rene Carpenter from being here. From standing on a beach alone, or eyed and elbowed by lesser involved space-watchers. From personally watching while her husband puts his life on the line for history.

★ ★ ★

The other astronauts' wives have indicated that they, like Anna Glenn, think it wise to stay at home and watch their husbands' ultimate gambles on television.

They never said whether this decision was in their husbands' interests, or their own. But they are known to have wondered at Rene Carpenter's courage — or would it be dangerous bravado? —and are said to have tried to dissuade her!

Lt. Col. John Powers, Project Mercury spokesman, put his word in: "No one can tell astronaut wives what to do—as long as they stay off the actual missile base itself during launchings. It's the rules of a tense, tough game. If Mrs. Carpenter wants to watch from a beach, it will have to be from a beach some miles away. Like an average birdwatcher.

IT'S A HAZARD

"We don't think it's appropriate," he said, "to introduce a new psychological hazard, a new psychological problem, into a guy's mind who is as busy as the fellow has to be."

Rene didn't listen. Like her husband, she is not a dedicated conformist. She listens to her own instincts and the wishes of her husband.

Her instincts told her that she and the Carpenter children should be bodily, as well as spiritually, as close as possible to the man they love.

★ ★ ★

If it meant watching from a crowded beach, so what? She likes the "prayerful attitude" of those people on the beaches. To her, they are not just passionless tourists.

★ ★ ★

Add to this her husband's admitted desire that she be nearby. "I feel that there's nothing that could part us," Scott Carpenter has said. "We are inseparable."

UNHEEDED

Their home at Langley Field, Va., then, is too far away. Fellow astronauts are said also to have tried to influence Scott to keep his wife and four daughters at home. This advice, too, was unheeded.

★ ★ ★

Rene Carpenter was obviously one of the prettiest sights in the Rockies when she was an usherette at a movie house in Boulder, Colo., in the late 1940s.

The word "obviously" is used because young Scott Carpenter was one of Boulder's most dashing young bachelors. And when he decided it was time for him to "settle down," he settled for her.

She hasn't changed greatly in appearance—is still a vivaciously sturdy-looking young woman with pale blonde hair. She shows no signs of being as reticent, as quietly shy, as Lt. Col. John Glenn's family "Rock," Annie.

★ ★ ★

By comparison, Rene is almost outspoken. In a firm, lady-like manner, she makes her own decisions. It is she who volunteered her husband for final competition as an astronaut, since he was on Navy duty in the Pacific when news came that he was eligible.

★ ★ ★

Some American women — perhaps most of us—would be afraid to make such a decision. Even if we were certain our husbands wanted this fearsome opportunity, we would have tried to discourage them with loving cowardice, we would have begged for a safe, sound home life.

Rene is not of the coward breed. She volunteered her husband's services, on his behalf, and now she is with him in his moment of peril, glory and/or tragedy.

As psychologist Dr. Voss pointed out: "This is the most important moment in his life, and he wants her there and she wants to be there.

★ ★ ★

"It's much the same," he said, "as the President of the United States wanting his wife to be present at his inauguration."

"That could be dangerous, too, he said, "because he might be assassinated."

★ ★ ★

One thing seems quite certain: Wherever Rene Carpenter is standing on her husband's finest day, she will neither faint nor falter. In a most literal way, she dedicated her husband to his fate . . . and she is determined to share it boldly.

Four Unions Reject Chris-Craft Offer

ALGONAC (UPI) — Members of four unions have rejected the latest contract offer from the Chris-Craft Co. here and asked their negotiating committee to continue talks with management.

* * *

The proposed contract, calling for an 11-cent package increase including wages, pensions and insurance over the next two years, was turned down yesterday when a motion to approve it failed to get support.

* * *

The four unions are carpenters, machinists, upholsterers and painters, who seek a new contract to replace one which expired March 21. Some 512 Chris Craft employes have been on strike since that date.

* * *

A union spokesman said the next move in the negotiations is up to the company or to state and federal government mediators who have been participating.

Unionist Asking to Clear Record

Paul Silver to Answer Charges by Smeekens Over State Job

LANSING (UPI) — Sen. John P. Smeedens, R - Coldwater, and unionist Paul Silver may face each other in a committee hearing this week, says Sen. John W. Fitzgerald, R-Grand Ledge.

Fitzgerald, chairman of the senate business committee, said that Silver, president of United Auto Workers Local 352 in Destorit, asked for another interview with the committee, in an open hearing attended by Smeekens.

Smeekens attacked Silver's appointment to the state hosptial advisory council on the Senate floor earlier this month. The appointment was made by Gov. Swainson and approved by the committee.

The senator charged Silver had a long police record and had served time in prison.

Silver, in a letter to Fitzgerald, asked for the interview "to answer the irresponsible attack made upon me by Sen. Smeekens."

* * *

If he did not get it, he said, he would be "compelled to come to Lansing and issue a statement setting forth the facts and to let Smeekens' constituents in Coldwater know the truth about his mud-slinging and dastardly methods."

* * *

Fitzgerald said he thought the committee would agree to another interview. All Senate business committee hearings are open to the public, and Smeekens was welcome to attend, he added.

CONVICTED

A state police record showed Silver had been convicted of traffic offenses and a breach of the peace. He was sentenced to prison in 1940 for involuntary manslaughter in a traffic death.

But a new trial was held; the prison term was nullified, and Silver was given a five-year probationary term.

Two 1928 embezzlement charges were dismissed — as were a later charge of felonious assault and inciting to riot.

Economic Talks Called Success

White House Conclave of Labor, Management to Take Up Automation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's labor - management conference, already characterized by one Cabinet member as "a very great success indeed," turns today to the topics of automation and foreign trade.

* * *

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg put the success label on the meeting, officially titled the "White House Conference on Economic Issues," at a banquet Monday night attended by the 200 conferees representing industry, labor unions and the public.

* * *

Goldberg said the conferees probably hadn't talked as frankly as they probably would in subsequent sessions but he said at least the ice had been broken and, after all, "it's better to jaw than to war."

* * *

At the initial conference session the two topics were collective bargaining and wage-price policies. About the most controversial statement made from the industry side came from President J. Ward Keener of the B. F. Goodrich Co., urging a breakup of industry-wide labor bargaining.

HIT "GUIDELINES"

Keener also characterized President Kennedy's controversial wage-price guidelines as "impractical and unwise." The guides were stoutly defended in other quarters and Prof. John P. Lewis of Indiana University said probably tougher rules will be needed.

* * *

Not everyone agreed, either, that industrywide labor bargaining should end. President Richard S. Reynolds Jr., of Reynolds Metals Co., said he wished there were only one union in the aluminum industry to negotiate a single wage rate. He said competition is difficult now that rates vary as much as $1.50 an hour.

* * *

President George Meany of the AFL-CIO had some relatively mild criticism for management. He said he wished employers, insisting they believe in collective bargaining, would go to work on other employers who don't seem to think so.

Kindergarten Registration on Thursday at Romeo

ROMEO — Annual kindergarten registration for children who will be five years old on or before Dec. 1 will be held Thursday at the North, South and Washington elementary schools.

Proof of age and immunization against diphtheria, tetanus, polio, small pox and whooping cough for the children are required.

Registration hours Thursday are 9 to 11 a.m., 1 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 8 p.m.

Ceremonies to Open Goodwill Retail Store

Goodwill Industries will hold opening ceremonies for a new retail store at 15 E. Pike St. 10 a.m. June 1 to replace its first Pontiac store at 77 S. Saginaw St.

The building also may serve eventually as a workshop for the training and employment of handicapped persons and as an industrial contact center, if there is enough community support.

* * *

The old store, which was opened in 1956, will be closed May 31.

According to store manager Al Byers, the first and second floors of the new three-story building — approximately 6,000 square feet — will be devoted entirely to merchandising.

The self-service store will be open 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Monday and Friday, and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Clothing for men, women and children will be sold on the first floor; a bookshop will fill the mezzanine, and the second floor will carry furniture, electrical appliances, wheel toys, dishes and glassware.

HANDICAPPED TO HELP

Six physically handicapped men and women, all Pontiac residents, will be employed on the sales staff.

A workshop for the handicapped will be opened in the building as soon as community support makes it possible, Byers said.

John E. Hoskins, executive director of Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit, said if there is a steady flow of discards — the raw materials that give work to the handicapped — Goodwill is ready to undertake a branch operation.

He noted that Goodwill employes not only recondition merchandise but are engaged in contracting work for more than a dozen industrial firms, including Detroit Edison, R. C. Mahon, Bulldog Electric Products and Burroughs Corp.

Stahlin, Aide Named in Suit

John Bircher Starts $1-Million Libel Action Against Pair

A press agent formerly from Avon Township and his boss, state Sen. John H. Stahlin, R-Belding, were named defendants in a million-dollar libel suit yesterday by a fellow Republican.

* * *

Richard Durant, a long-time leader of GOP conservatives in Wayne County, charged Stahlin and his press aide, Charles Ferry, with "a filthy piece of libel and a scurrilous attack."

Durant said the two libeled him in a complaint to the Fair Campaign Practices Commission in which they claimed Durant, aided by extremist "right-wing" groups, was attempting to take control of the Republican Party in Wayne County.

Durant, an investment broker from Grosse Pointe, is a self-professed member of the John Birch Society.

* * *

He said he would withdraw his court suit if Stahlin "retracts and apologizes." Otherwise, he promised a fight "all the way."

Ferry, who moved from Avon Township last fall to take a job as research assistant at con-con, became Stahlin's press aide when the Belding Republican announced his candidacy for lieutenant governor.

* * *

Ferry formerly was publicist for the Republican Committee of Oakland County. He now lives in Grand Ledge.

GOP Chairman Attacks JFK for Medicare Talks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Republican National Chairman William E. Miller yesterday accused President Kennedy of "downright deception" and "thirst for supreme power" in Sunday's mass meetings for the administration's medical care for the aged program.

* * *

The New York congressman also charged that "agents" of the National Council of Senior Citizens for Health Care under Social Security are infiltrating senior citizens clubs and "turning them into political activist groups."

* * *

Miller said in a statement that the meetings, with President Kennedy addressing the major one in Madison Square Garden, were "deplorable."

Laotian Neutralist Delays Return Again

RANGOON, Burma (UPI) — Laotian neutralist Prince Souvanna Phouma again put off his departue for home today after summoning his information minister, Quinim Pholsena, to Rangoon for consultations.

* * *

Pholsena said upon his arrival at Hanoi that the prospects of a three princes' meeting depended on "the good faith" of the right-wing Laotian government.

* * *

Souvanna is now expected to leave for home Wednesday, Pholsena said.

He told UPI that the situation in Laos is calm.

Civil War Statue Loses Bayonet, Then the Rifle

A generous Ortonville man donated a bayonet to the American Legion when he heard one had been stolen from Pontiac's Civil War statue at Oakland Avenue and North Saginaw Street.

Commander Robert McKerricher of the Cook-Nelson American Legion Post said his fellow members went to the memorial yesterday to attach the bayonet to the rifle. They discovered the rifle was stolen.

Guido Is Defied by Rump Session

Argentine Congressmen Call Meeting Despite Assembly's Suspension

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Congressmen from Argentina's three main political parties called a rump session today in defiance of President Jose Maria Guido's decree recessing the legislature for at least a year.

* * *

Members of Guido's own Intransigent Radical party, the People's Radical Union and deputies elected March 18 from the Peronist Popular Union said they would hold a session originally scheduled today to decide whether the 47 Peronists should be seated.

Police stood guard at the entrance to the congressional building admitting only congressmen who hold seats from previous elections.

CALLS MOVE ILLEGAL

Olegario Becerra, Intransigent Radical speaker of the House of Deputies, and other political leaders have branded the suspension of congress as illegal, dictatorial and unconstitutional. Guido is backed by the military chiefs who put him in after ousting President Arturo Frondizi three months ago because he had let the followers of ex-dictator Juan D. Peron participate—and win—in the March election as a legal party.

* * *

Besides recessing Congress until after a new election next March, Guido ordered a reorganization of all Argentina's political parties under interventors appointed by the electoral courts. He also announced action would be taken to prevent labor unions from meddling in politics.

Pontiac to Host Heating Council Luncheon Session

The meeting and lunch is slated to begin at 12:30, according to Hawkins.

At Least 37 Hurt

Twisters Batter Midwest

By The Associated Press

Tornadoes dipped down in the Midwest last night, pulling up trees, ripping down utility lines and shattering windows.

* * *

At least 37 persons were injured, 31 in Mitchell, S.D., and 6 in Tilden, Neb.

A funnel cloud writhed out of a thunderstorm and cut a patch 500 feet wide and a mile long through the western outskirts of Mitchell. Scores of business places, homes and farm structures were leveled or damaged.

The wind sucked 3-year-old Mary Jo Hohn from the arms of her mother and swept her into a nearby field. The little girl and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewayne Hohn, were taken to a hospital.

Herbie's Diner was blown down, injuring three women.

The wind tipped over an ice cream truck, injuring the driver, Ralph Winter.

Telephone and power lines were knocked out in Mitchell.

A fire house siren and a fire truck that toured the town like a mechanized Paul Revere alerted the townspeople of Tilden after a twister had been spotted on a weather bureau radar in nearby Norfolk.

Thanks to the warning, the Carl Knievel family took refuge in the basement before their home was ripped off its foundation. The family escaped injury.

The storm damaged buildings and homes in Tilden and left the town of 900 without telephones or electricity.

Board Discusses Putting Pension Plan on Ballot

Whether to put a fund raising proposition to the people in the Aug. 7 primary for the Police and Firemen's Pension Plan was discussed last night by the Waterford Township Board but no action was taken.

Township Clerk James Seeterlin reminded the board members that June 19 was the deadline for preparation of a local election proposition.

The pension plan itself was approved by the voters last year but the financing of the program remains unresolved. As a charter township, millage to cover the cost could be authorized by approval of the board but some members indicated preference for a decision at the polls.

A request authorizing water department superintendent Kenneth Squires to attend the American Waterworks Association Conference June 17-22 in Philadelphia was unanimously approved by the board after considerable discussion of meetings and conferences in general.

Trustee Loren Anderson suggested the board give some thought to a policy on trips. He expressed approval of the trip in question but said he would have reservations about sending anyone to Miami, Las Vegas or other distant points.

Board members were in general agreement that the meetings township personnel have attended in recent years have been the source of fruitful information and well worth the time and expense involved.

In other business the board approved requests for the issuance of fireworks permits to the Pontiac and Waterford Drive-In theaters for their annual Memorial Day programs.

* * *

Approval for three plumber bond renewals and the issuance of one new plumber bond was also granted.

The board also saw fit to authorize Township Supervisor Elmer Johnson to sign a statement of no objection regarding a request for aerial insect spraying in the township.

Jackie, Caroline, President Greet 2,000 Women

WASHINGTON (AP)—Caroline Kennedy waved from an upstairs White House window and President and Mrs. Kennedy came to the south lawn to say hello today to some 2,000 Democratic women here for a campaign conference.

* * *

The excited women, crowded behind a rope barrier, cheered and applauded when the President told them he needs their help in the months ahead to maintain Democratic power in Congress.

* * *

The President, in a dark blue suit, spoke from a small platform. His wife Jacqueline, in a green dress, was standing just behind him. Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and Democratic leaders of House and Senate stood nearby.

* * *

The President started off with a quip that Johnson had said "the only thing that is keeping us going is not our programs, but my wife and Caroline."

3 Ex-Officers Mute on Larceny Charge

RIVER ROUGE (AP) — Three former River Rouge policemen stood mute yesterday when arraigned before Municipal Judge George Mihaiu on charges of breaking and entering and larceny from a building.

* * *

They were released under $1,000 bond each, pending examination May 31.

* * *

The three were Jack Kurin, 38, Frank Ziegler, 27, and Lewis Hiduskey, 34.

Friday, Police Chief Jacob R. Wilhite said no criminal charges were planned because Thomas Hill, owner of the burglarized West End Lumber Co., didn't want to prosecute. He said the men had resigned from the force.

However, the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office ordered an investigation and the arraignment resulted.

To Present Melodrama

UTICA — An old-time melodrama, "Love Rides the Rails, or Will the Mail Train Run Tonight?," will be presented June 1 and 2 at 8:15 p.m. in the high school auditorium here by the Utica Community Players.

Throw Grenade at Algiers Line

But Group Waiting for Permits to Leave City Quickly Re-Forms

ALGIERS (UPI) — A terrorist threw a hand grenade at a line of Europeans applying for exit permits out of Algeria today but the explosion failed to frighten off the applicants.

* * *

The crowd, which was defying Secret Army Organization (OAS) orders, ducked for cover when the grenade went off, but immediately re-formed the line.

The blast occurred in the Bab El Oued quarter, a stronghold of the OAS terrorists who oppose Algerian independence and seek to sabotage the French-Algerian peace accords.

The OAS, as part of its campaign to keep Algeria French, has circulated orders forbidding Europeans to leave the country. Large numbers of settlers have defied the orders and long lines form daily at local police stations for exit permits.

* * *

Today's hand grenade was the seventh tossed at the waiting lines in the past few days.

Scattered OAS violence killed nine persons and wounded one by 11 a.m. today. All but one of the dead were Moslems.

* * *

The Algerian provisional executive ordered new Moslem units into the fight against OAS terrorists in Algiers and Oran.

Schools Not Allowed to Have Fireplaces

LANSING (AP)—The State School Safety Code prohibits the construction of a fireplace in a school building, an attorney general's opinion held yesterday.

★ ★ ★

The State Police Fire Marshal Division asked for the opinion, saying that proposed plans for an elementary school included a fireplace in the library "desired only for its esthetic value."

★ ★ ★

The fireplace would be constructed so it could actually burn wood so must come under the provisions requiring that it be enclosed by walls of fire-resistant materials and equipped with automatic closing safety doors, the opinion said.

Natalie, Beau Feuding? Ah, Those Rumors . . .

By EARL WILSON

CANNES, France — As I bask here on the sunny Riviere at the Cannes Film Festival, the romance of Natalie Wood and Warren Beatty is going very nicely, and I hope that by the time you read this dispatch, it still is.

But you can never tell around this strange, mad, festival world.

A chap advanced upon me 1 P.M. the other day in the lobby of the Hotel Carlton and says:

"You heard about Natalie and Warren?"

"Oh sure! Of course!" you say. You haven't heard a thing but you have to act smart. "Which version did you hear?" you say. You will feel this guy out and see what it is all about if anything, and pretend you knew it all the time and you might even invent a couple of details, making them up on the spur of the moment.

The chap finally says they are feuding because of their publicity. He says Natalie wants to be named first in the publicity . . . she wants people to say "Natalie Wood was out with Warren Beatty" and he wants people to say "Warren Beatty was out with Natalie Wood."

★ ★ ★

"It has gotten real bitter between them," the chap says in a low voice.

All I can say is that it was not real bitter between them when I saw them come in to the hotel arm-in-arm around midnight.

The head of the whole festival, M. Lebret, gave a select little party for them to which he invited me and I found Natalie and Warren to be nice folks.

There is no "feud"—the two just thought maybe it would be nice if they got interviewed by the hordes of the press separately instead of together, inasmuch as they are not married or anything like that. But it will be hard for them to remain friends because the glamour reporters here certainly know a good feud when they invent one.

Edwards May Make Honest Emmy Speech

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)— Tonight's the night that actor Vince Edwards, television's Dr. Ben Casey, may make one of the more forthright Emmy speeches in Hollywood awards annals.

The sullen medic and his show have eight nominations up before the 14th annual Television Academy awards.

A year ago, before "Ben Casey" hit the air, Edwards dreamed out loud: "If I should ever win an Emmy, I won't give one of those phony speeches thanking the producer, the director and the crew like everybody else does. I will thank the California State Unemployment Insurance Board who really made it all possible."

EDWARDS A FAVORITE

At the time Edwards had barely graduated from the line at the Hollywood office of the unemployment board. He spent much of the previous 11 years there as an actor mostly out of work.

But the impact of "Ben Casey" and the rival "Dr. Kildare" series has been such that next season will see more medical shows—11—than Westerns. The Kildare show, starring Richard Chamberlain, got only one nomination—for actress Suzanne Pleshette.

PLAN TO EXPAND

Edwards is a favorite to win tonight, largely because there are a lot of women voters in the academy. He seems to have a special appeal for the ladies.

The show will be seen on NBC-TV, starting at 10 p.m., Eastern Daylight Time. Nominees will be spotted at three locations—Hollywood, New York and Washington.

Despite speeches by politicians and awards in 26 categories, a college try at entertainment will be made. Nominees for variety shows will sing—Judy Garland, Yves Montand, Edie Adams, Carol Burnett and Perry Como. Emcees are Bob Newhart, Johnny Carson and David Brinkley.

New Constitution OKs County Home Rule

(Editor's Note — In this, another in a series on the constitutional convention, the local government article of the proposed constitution is compared with the 1908 document and the earlier constitutions of the state.)

By A. D. UNDERWOOD

LANSING (UPI) — There was only one major issue in the area of local government at the constitutional convention of 1961-62.

Home rule, an area of agitation for more than 80 years, was again the question, although the site of battle had shifted from cities to counties.

Michigan's so-called home rule provision for cities, allowing the local voters to determine their own basic form of government within ground rules laid down by the legislature, was written into the 1908 constitution.

It was one of the few major changes from the 1850 document and at the time was hailed as a major step forward by proponents of the "each city knows its own problems best" school.

Parts of the home-rule package were amended in 1912 and again in 1944 to cover changing situations. The only changes made in the proposed constitution strengthened the language giving cities control over their own property.

A new section, granting counties the same powers as cities if the legislature passed enabling legislation, was added after a fight.

At the same time language was adopted which would allow the legislature to eliminate the township form of government in the state.

Legislative action to provide for home-rule counties was considered a "50-50 possibility" if the new constitution is approved. Action eliminating townships was considered "unlikely."

The fight was whether the county home rule should be dependent on action by the legislature.

"If the door is open I am sure the legislature will act to provide for this," said D. Hale Brake, R-Stanton, a former legislator and state treasurer.

Brake, spokesman for the conservatives, was identified as a member of the so-called "court house gang" early in the convention. The court house gang was identified as a loose confederation of Republicans and Democrats affiliated with those occupying local offices.

Brake laughingly posed with Martin Baginski and Peter Buback, a pair of Detroit Democrats active in Wayne County government after the "three B's," as they came to be known, won a fight to retain the elected county officials.

In an address to the Republican State Central Committee on the eve of the kickoff of the 1962 state political campaign, George Romney, a convention vice president and GOP candidate for governor, cited as a convention accomplishment "defeat of the court house gang."

"We have provided for true home rule for counties and cleared the way for reorganization of local government," said Romney.

Examination of the actions of the convention in the area of local government, the basic area in which the court house gang is interested, failed to reveal the cause of Romney's optimism.

A provision was approved to allow formation of districts or metropolitan areas for specific purposes, again as the legislature may provide and only if the legislature provides.

The language was considered an improvement of the 1927 amendment which first provided for such metropolitan areas.

Another section was added providing for the merger of two or more contiguous counties if the voters in each affected county approved.

The Democratic "minority report" differed from the adopted article only in that it would have given electors within a county the power to approve home rule for their county rather than leaving the matter in the hands of the legislature.

Democrats also sought a "population basis" for the election of county boards of supervisors rather than the allocation by unit of government within the county.

In fact, however, the proposed constitution is little changed from the amended version of the 1908 constitution which now governs the state.

More basic changes were incorporated in 1908 than in 1961-62.

One action, a saving clause of sorts, added new language directing that "provisions of this constitution and law concerning cities, villages, counties and townships shall be liberally construed in their favor," and reserved unspecified powers to local governments.

The action is directed at courts but the effect may be most felt in the legislature, which has been given somewhat broader authority to act in the areas of local government.

Among the other technical changes is addition of a budget provision calling for public hearings; a prohibition on placing public credit at the disposal of private purposes; and a constitutional right for counties to intervene in utility rate cases involving county residents.

"I would be surprised if people noticed any great change in their local governments when the new constitution is approved," said Brake following approval of the proposed article.

Police Smash Plot Against French Leader

At Least 15 Suspects Held as Attempt on De Gaulle's Life Fails

PARIS (AP)—French police spread a dragnet across France and terror-ridden Algeria today for more Secret Army Organization killers implicated in an abortive plot to assassinate President Charles de Gaulle.

At least 15 suspects were held for questioning in Paris as authorities announced the smashing of the second secret army attempt on De Gaulle's life in eight months.

Arrests made in Paris, in the French Mediterranean port of Marseille and in Algiers broke up the secret army conspiracy to kill De Gaulle during his tour of central France last week.

Some of the conspirators remained at large, however, and police pressed a search for them in France and Algeria.

STAYS IN PALACE

Police pictured the suspects as a desperate band of killers intent on removing France's strong-willed leader and plunging the nation into chaos in an effort to block Algerian independence.

★ ★ ★

De Gaulle stayed within the heavily guarded Elysee Palace in the heart of Paris. He had no announced public engagements today, but is due to appear before several Paris crowds Wednesday in connection with the state visit of President Moktar Ould Daddah of Mauritania.

Police indicated the killers intended to incinerate De Gaulle with gas bombs, but the newspaper Paris-Presse asserted the assassins planned to pick him off with a high-powered rifle equipped with a telescopic sight.

★ ★ ★

More details came with the arrest in Algiers of Francois Leca, a secret army agent wanted in the slaying of a military security officer. From long hours of questioning in the three cities, police built up a picture of the plot and obtained the names of the would-be killers, members of a secret my group calledDelta. The army group called Delta.

★ ★ ★

The Delta commander was identified as a Paris insurance agent named Jean-Louis Blancny, once a chief secret army aide of Roger Degueldre, former Foreign Legion lieutenant who was arrested in Algiers several weeks ago.

Judge Orders Study of Body

DISINTER OFFICIAL — Workers prepare to remove the body of Henry H. Marshall from its grave in Franklin, Tex. Marshall, an agriculture official linked to the Billie Sol Estes case, died of bullet wounds June 3, 1961, and his death was ruled a suicide. District Judge John Barron ordered the body turned over to a team of ballistics and pathology experts.

Will Quiz Hundred in Open Estes Airing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate investigations subcommittee will question at least 100 witnesses from both Kennedy and Eisenhower administrations in exploring the dealings of Billie Sol Estes, informed sources said today.

The subcommittee plans a public airing into allegations that influence in Washington helped the indicted financier build his vast cotton and grain storage empire. Estes is awaiting trial on fraud charges and has declared himself bankrupt.

The subcommittee plunged into closed sessions Monday to question witnesses in preparation for the public hearings which Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said may be televised.

WASHINGTON (AP) —The Agriculture Department said today it will move some 42 million bushels of grain out of elevators and warehouses owned or connected with Billie Sol Estes, Texas financier now under indictment for fraud.

It quizzed two witnesses for 4½ hours in McClellan's office.

One was N. Battle Hales, an Agriculture Department employe who tends he can prove Estes received favored treatment from department offcials.

The other was Walter C. Berger, an Agriculture Department official under the Eisenhower administration. Berger subsequently became a director of the Commercial Solvents Corp. of New York and dealt with Estes on multimillion-dollar liquid fertilizer contracts which are under scrutiny in the inquiry.

Estes became, by cut-rate sales,

Probing Death of U. S. Official

Freeman Says Secrets of Estes Operations Died With Him

FRANKLIN, Tex. (AP)—County grand jurors called more witnesses today while experts planned to study the body of an Agriculture Department official linked to the Billie Sol Estes case.

★ ★ ★

District Judge John Barron Monday ordered the disinterment of Henry H. Marshall, 52, whose death from five bullet wounds last June 3 was officially pronounced suicide.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman said two weeks ago that secrets in the operations of Estes, West Texas farm tycoon indicted for fraud and theft, died with Marshall.

Marshall was chief administrator and investigator in Texas for the government's cotton allotment program. He had been looking into Estes' cotton allotments.

★ ★ ★

Dist. Atty. Bryan Russ had invited Freeman to appear before the grand jury here if the secretary had any new evidence. Freeman, in a telegram, advised county officials "We know of none here who may have any firsthand knowledge. We are continuing to check and if any names (are) found will advise you, as we want you to have our full cooperation in this matter."

Weather Clears, Outlook Is 'Go'

Experts See Canaveral Skies OK for Carpenter on Thursday

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Twin threats of weather and forest fire smoke dissolved today and Project Mercury officials were optimistic that astronaut Malcolm Scott Carpenter could be launched on his orbital flight Thursday.

Weather experts said smoky haze from two widely scattered fires was not settling in this area as feared Monday.

They said there probably will be some haze in the launching area Thursday but it should not interfere with camera tracking of the Atlas booster rocket.

The fires are in the Everglades, south of Cape Canaveral, and in a marsh 15 miles to the west. The latter was reported only smouldering today.

Possibility of heavy clouds above the Cape on Thursday apparently vanished overnight when a storm front in the Midwest shifted direction to the north-northeast.

The storm earlier was pushing the clouds toward Florida.

There was a possibility of winds and waves in the Atlantic recovery areas, but officials believe conditions will be acceptable on Thursday.

A spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said that based on the present weather forecast, there is a 60-40 chance of achieving a launching Thursday, barring further technical difficulties.

20 Bodies Found in Wreckage of Naval Aircraft

U. S. Air Force Sees No Hope of Survivors in German Mishap

MUNICH, Germany — A U.S. Navy reconnaissance plane with 26 persons aboard crashed and burned six miles east of Munich today.

The Air Force said 20 bodies have been removed from the wreckage. There was no indication of any of those aboard survived.

The Air Force said the Navy WV2 Super Constellation carried five Navy officers, 17 Navy enlisted men and four Army enlisted men.

It was to have returned to Rhine-Main after completing its training mission over the Munich area.

No parachutes were sighted falling from the plane as it went down, the air force said.

A U.S. Army spokesman said the plane apparently exploded in the air and lost its tail section before it hit the ground in an open field.

'PLANE ROLLED OVER'

German eyewitnesses reported seeing the aircraft roll over in the air several times before crashing.

Wreckage was strewn over a wide area. Witnesse said some of the bodies were badly burned or mangled.

First to reach the scene was the mayor of Markt Schwaben. He said he and other would-be rescuers were unable to get close to the plane because of the flames. German fire fighters finally brought the fire under control.

The plane was based in Rota, Spain, and had come to Frankfurt on a regular flight to Germany.

★ ★ ★

The Air Force said the plane was called a "warning star" by the Navy because of a huge bulge atop the body containing radar equipment.

Such planes are used in air defense work for reconnaissance and weather forecasting.

A Pan American World Airways pilot reported he saw the the Constellation explode.

The Pan Am pilot, Capt. O. Abrahamsen, gave the first alarm.

"There are pieces of fuselage falling past me," he radioed the Munich air traffic control center. "There's an airplane disintegrating. I see a tail section now."

Abrahamsen was piloting a Boeing 707 jet airliner on the Frankfurt-Istanbul leg of a New York-San Francisco round-the-world flight.

In TV Rebuttal Against Kennedy's Talk

AMA Attacks Medicare as 'Cruel Hoax'

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Medical Association has countered President Kennedy's plea for support of his medical care for the aged plan with an attack on the measure as a cruel hoax that would "heartlessly ignore millions" who need coverage.

In a paid, natonally televised reply to the President, association leaders said Monday night the public is in danger of being "blitzed, brainwashed into swallowing" a plan that would disrupt health services and turn patients into impersonal numbers.

The Kennedy-backed King-Anderson measure provides for medical care for the aged under Social Security.

Following the AMA telecast, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Abraham Ribicoff declared that it was "just another staging of 'let's fool the American people again'" and charged that it omitted important factors.

The AMA representatives spoke from Madison Square Garden, the same spot from which Kennedy urged support of the King-Anderson measure a day earlier in a free-time public service national telecast.

Labor, insurance and medical experts will present their viewpoints on the controversial King-Anderson Bill and other medical care plans for the aged at a forum at 1:15 p. m. tomorrow in the hall of Local 594, UAW-CIO, 525 S. East Blvd. The free session is sponsored by the Oakland County Senior Citizens Council.

But whereas Kennedy spoke before a live audience of 17,500, the two AMA spokesmen sat alone in the vast arena—an arrangement that they said "may help us get across to the American people the grossly unfair disadvantage under which we doctors are laboring to make our voices and our reasons heard."

★ ★ ★

A Boston station, WBZ-TV, refused to carry the program. This brought a complaint from the association that it had been blacked out in the President's home town.

The station said that its decision was based on a policy of not selling time "to organizations or individuals for discussion of controversial issues in which such organizations or individuals are involved."

The station carried President Kennedy's address on medical problems from Madison Square Garden last Sunday night.

CLOSE TO GOD

Dr. Edward R. Annis of Miami, Fla., the main AMA speaker, said the relationship between a doctor and his patient is one of the few things "which touch so close to God." He urged viewers to consult their doctors about the measure.

"Our fees are not involved," he declared. "Our practice of quality medicine is. Your health is."

Annis, chairman of the AMA's National Speakers Bureau, said the administration-backed plan "wastefully covers millions who do not need it" and ignores millions who do.

"It will undercut and destroy the wholesome growth of private,

Rogers, factory manager at GMC Truck and Coach Division and president of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce.

On Mayor Exchange Day

Jackson Greets Landry

When Pontiac Mayor Robert Landry and his wife Lorraine arrived at Jackson City Hall yesterday it was just like home.

Awaiting them were two shiny, new 1962 Pontiacs bearing "Welcome, Mayor Landry" banners.

A large welcoming party included the young son of Jackson Mayor Bernard Magiera, pinch-hitting for his dad who was getting a similar reception in Pontiac.

Both Landry and his wife said they "had a wonderful time," but possibly the most bright-eyed beneficiaries of Mayor Exchange Day were the Landrys' seven children.

BIG GIFT BOX

Jackson officials knew in advance of the Landry's large family and late last night, when Mom and Dad returned, they carried with them a box of gifts for the children ranging from chocolate candies to piggy banks.

The Landrys' tour of Jackson included an inside look at rubber production at the Goodyear Rubber Co. plant there and a tour of Jackson Prison grounds.

They also saw a big, new YMCA building, the Jackson Boys Club, and numerous other community facilities, before joining with city administrators and commissioners for a banquet to end Exchange Day festivities last night.

The story was the same all over Michigan as some 300 similar swaps took place between cities and villages.

In Detroit and Birmingham it was generally agreed by all parties that the job-changing, although only for a day, was a good one.

Detroiters were honored with the attractive executive Mrs. Florence H. Willett while Birmingham was in the capable administrative hands of Mayor Jerome Cavanagh.

Preliminary Millage Established in County

The Oakland County Tax Allocation Board yesterday fixed 1962 preliminary millages for townships, school districts and county government to the dissatisfaction of all parties concerned.

The board's action indicates that none of the units of government is likely to receive the millage it is seeking in order to finance next year's proposed budgets.

To meet the requests of each would require in excess of 25 mills.

The State Constitution only allows spreading 15 mills ($15 per $1,000 of valuation) on property owners outside incorporated municipalities for all purposes.

Preliminary millages fixed by the allocation board were: 5.40 mills for county government; an average 8.60 mills for schools; and approximately 1 mill for petitioning townships, except for Waterford Township, which would get nothing.

Since Waterford is now a charter township, it can levy its own millage up to 5 mills over the 15-mill limit, the board decreed.

★ ★ ★

Waterford was asking for 1.23 mills. Last year — before it was chartered — the township received 1.26 mills from the allocation board.

Preliminary rates are fixed pending determination of the county's equalized valuation as a tax base by the State Equalization Board in Lansing. Final rates are expected by the end of the month.

County Superintendent of Schools William Emerson figured the preliminary rates would result in $380,000 less in tax revenues for school districts this year.

County auditors calculated the county's tentative $16,555,202 budget for next year will have to be cut by approximately $1.5 million.

No Action Scheduled on Chief

No further moves to reinstate Herbert W. Straley, former police chief, are on the formal agenda for tonight's City Commission meeting at 8 at City Hall.

The Commission passed a resolution last week by a 4-2 vote approving "the immediate reappointment of Straley as chief of police."

City Manager Robert A. Stierer is in charge of hiring and firing police chiefs.

Stierer hasn't made any move yet, nor has he indicated there will be any action tonight.

However, an ordinance is presently being drafted that would create a new department of claims and investigation for the city. It may be ready in time for introduction tonight.

On the formal agenda, commissioners will be asked to approve the plans for Pontiac's second urban renewal project, R44, and conditions under which relocation payments will be made. A public hearing was held on the plan last Thursday.

Red Chinese Refugees Overwhelming Problem

By DONALD MAY

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U.S. diplomats said today the problem of providing haven for refugees from Red China "may be too enormous for solution."

Several hundred thousand mainland Chinese are reported ready to flee to the free world.

"But the hard fact is," one administration official said, "There may be no place in the free world for them to go."

The Nationalist government on Formosa yesterday offered to take in and try to resettle all mainland Chinese fleeing through Hong Kong.

News Analysis

HAS NO ROOM

But Formosa already has its own acute land shortage and one of the biggest population explosions in the world — greater than India. Officials do not believe it could accept large numbers of new refugees.

★ ★ ★

In recent weeks Communist guards have suddenly stopped enforcing travel controls along Red China's 22-mile border with Hong Kong.

Since May 1, 30,000 to 40,000 Chinese have flooded into the British crown colony, already jammed with three million people in 398 square miles.

Because the colony could absorb no more, British officials have sealed the border with barbed wire and have been sending refugees back.

POLITICAL ANGLE

U. S. officials, up to President Kennedy himself, have been urgently studying whether this country and possibly others could act on humanitarian grounds to help the refugees, or somehow turn the situation to political advantage.

One idea has been to increase surplus food aid which the U.S. already supplies through private relief organizations in Hong Kong at a rate of $5 million a year.

"But if you feed 50,000 more Chinese, you may just bring 50,000 more to the door," one official said. "And then you would just have to cut it off someplace. There are a half-million Chinese within walking distance of Hong Kong."

Related Story, Page 29

★ ★ ★

'No one knows how many Chinese might want to come out, but refugees in Hong Kong have spoken of hundreds of thousands ready to follow them.

As to making arrangements to resettle refugees to permit the flow through Hong Kong to be increased, the problem is where?

Most free countries in Asia already are overcrowded and many such as Thailand have strong anti-Chinese feeling. Australia has available land, but also has restrictions against Chinese immigration.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. immigration quota for Chinese is 105 a year. A bill is pending to increase this to 1,000. There is no U.S. refugee law to permit Chinese immigration above the quota, but the President does have power to parole refugees into the country.

★ ★ ★

Rep. Francis E. Walter, D-Pa., said yesterday the Chinese Nationalists could deal "an almost mortal blow" to the Red regime by taking substantial numbers of the refugees. Walter said this would demonstrate the failure of communism.

★ ★ ★

Walter, chairman of the House immigration subcommittee, said in a House speech this country could help by providing food from surplus U.S. stockpiles. But he said the United States could not take in any appreciable number of refugees.

A British poll of other countries was reported to have shown that only a few nations would be willing to take "token" numbers of Chinese.

voluntary insurance and prepayment health programs for the aged which offer flexible benefits in the full range of individual needs," Annis said.

"It will lower the quality and availability of hospital services throughout our country. It will stand between the patient and his doctor. And it will serve as the forerunner of a different system of medicine for all Americans."

"Don't mistake it," Annis declared. "England's nationalized medical program is the kind of thing they have in mind for us eventually."

'WOULD HURT AGED'

Dr. Leonard W. Larson of Bismarck, N.D., president of the 185,000-member AMA, said the program would deprive older people of "the American system of medicine, based upon the private doctor treating the private patient."

In the last 20 years alone, he said, this system has added 10 years to the life of every American.

Under the King-Anderson proposal, Social Security recipients would be eligible for medical aid financed through a Social Security payroll tax increase of one-fourth of one per cent on employes and employers.

★ ★ ★

The AMA favors the present Kerr-Mills law, which provides for federal assistance to states but leaves administration of a program of medical care for the needy over 65 to the states themselves.

Annis said the Kerr-Mills plan has been implemented in 38 states and that the law will work if given a chance. He said the President's plan would not cover 3 million persons over 65 not eligible for Social Security benefits.

He described the Kerr-Mills law as a desirable supplement to "one of the greatest social advances of our generation — the spectacular growth of private, voluntary health insurance systems to which millions of Americans already belong."

'THREE TIMES MORE'

More than 53 per cent—a total of 9 million—of Americans over 65 carry health insurance, three times more than were covered 10 years ago, Annis said.

A Lansing, Mich., widow, Helen Cole, who received aid under the Kerr-Mills law, was interviewed on the program. Mrs. Cole said provisions of the law, as implemented in her state, took care of a $4,000 hospital bill involving skin grafting and a prolonged hospital stay.

An association spokesman estimated the cost of the half-hour program, carried by the National Broadcasting Co., at $75,000. There also was a cost of $6,000 for rental of the Garden.

★ ★ ★

Annis said it was unfair to the doctors, and to the public, that the Kennedy address was televised free, while the AMA was denied free time to reply.

Ex-City Woman Dies in Mishap

Port Huron Collision Kills Wife and Injures Former Pontiac Realtor

The wife of a former Pontiac realtor, Mrs. Vera H. Wood, was killed and her husband seriously injured in a two-car collision yesterday afternoon near the Blue Water Bridge in Port Huron.

★ ★ ★

Frank C. Wood, 76, the former owner of the F. C. Wood Real Estate Co. in Pontiac, is reported in fair condition today at Port Huron General Hospital. He suffered fractured ribs and severe cuts and bruises.

His 74-year-old wife, the driver, was killed instantly when their auto collided broadside with another car on M146 at the bridge exit ramp.

Port Huron police said Mrs. Wood apparently went through a stop sign at the exit and drove into the side of a car driven by Richard C. Green, 21, Port Huron. Green, who was not seriously hurt, told police his vision of the exit ramp was obstructed by a car which passed him on the inside lane.

LONG-TIME RESIDENTS

The Woods lived in Pontiac for 45 years. After retiring from the real estate business in 1956, Wood and his wife made their winter home in Port Charlotte, Fla., and lived in Harrison, Mich., during the summer.

They were returning from Mrs. Woods' brother's home in Ontario when the accident occurred.

A member of the Congregational Church in Harrison, Mrs. Wood had been a member of Central Methodist Church, the Woman's Society for Christian Service in her church, the Tuesday Musicale and Women's Auxiliary of Pontiac General Hospital, all of Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

She had been active here in Parent-Teacher Association of Webster School and with her husband a member of the Wednesday Night Dancing Club.

Surviving besides her husband are a son Charles of Pontiac; a daughter Mrs. Richard Kvitek of Birmingham; four grandsons; a sister Mrs. Albert Douville of Mesa, Ariz., and a brother Glenn Ish of Holloway, Ont.

Mrs. Wood's body is at the Huntoon Funeral Home.

Say Indonesians Routed by Dutch

HOLLANDIA, West New Guinea (UPI) — Dutch troops launched a counterattack that "shattered" Indonesian forces and killed and wounded a number of the invaders.

The attack came in twin drives around Fakfak on the Onin Peninsula, the Netherlands Military Command announced today.

A massive assault by combined Dutch land, sea and air forces to crush the Indonesians, estimated to number more than 400 paratroopers, is now being readied, Rear Adm. Leendert Reeser, commander of Dutch forces in West New Guinea, said.

Reeser issued a communique reporting that a drive against the Indonesians north of Fakfak "shattered" their forces.

★ ★ ★

"Several Indonesian paratroopers were killed and a number injured in the fighting north of Fakfak in the Onin Peninsula," Reeser said.

"A radio transmitter, food, rations and mortar shells were captured. Some of the enemy have even lost their uniforms and have thrown away their equipment."

(The Indonesian Defense Council claimed the capture of the town of Terminabuan in a radio Indonesia broadcast heard in Tokyo. The town was captured after two days of "fierce fighting," the broadcast said.)

★ ★ ★

The communique added:

"East of Fakfak the Dutch have started an attack as well. There, also, a number of paratroopers were killed and a number of injured were taken prisoner."

There were no immediate indications here of the exact number of Indonesian casualties.

Delegate King in Ogemaw Post

City's Representative at Con-Con Is Named County Prosecutor

Scratch one rumored candidate from the state representatives' race in Oakland County.

Raymond L. King, Pontiac's con-con delegate who was considered a challenger for the 2nd District seat held by Arthur J. Law, was appointed yesterday as prosecuting attorney of Ogemaw County.

King, 32, will serve the unexpired term of the late prosecutor Randall B. Clemence, who died April 5. The term expires Dec. 31. King said he will seek re-election to the post this year on the Republican ticket.

He expects to run unopposed in the GOP primary Aug. 7.

Until Mr. Clemence's death, King said he had planned to resume his law practice in Pontiac and had considered running for election to the state House of Representatives after con-con ended May 11.

Last week he opened a law office in West Branch, county seat of Ogemaw County. The county is located northwest of Saginaw.

King's wife Joan and their three children still live in Pontiac. They plan to join the new prosecutor after the school year ends.

A native of Maine, King pulled one of the surprises of last year's con-con elections when he won on the Republican ticket in traditionally Democratic Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

At the con-con, he served on committees on executive branches and emerging problems.

King was appointed Ogemaw County prosecutor by Circuit Judge Dennis J. O'Keefe.

Injunction Won by Shop Owner

Birmingham Enjoined to Halt Eviction in Circuit Court Order

A circuit court injunction was issued yesterday to prevent the city of Birmingham from evicting a dress shop owner from her store.

Mrs. Kathie Craig, owner of the Cindy Kay Dress Outlet at 208 Hamilton St., was granted the injunction by Circuit Judge William J. Beer.

A hearing was set for June 4 to determine whether the temporary injunction should be made permanent.

Birmingham officials recently served Mrs. Craig with a 30-day eviction notice because her shop is not a fireproof building, violating a city ordinance.

Last fall, however, city building officials had approved Mrs. Craig's plans for remodeling and had issued a certificate of occupancy and a business license.

★ ★ ★

The former fashion artist said she spent $5,000 for repairs and modernization after leasing the building and put in about $10,000 worth of stock.

Officials said they later realized the building violated the fireproofing ordinance.

Mrs. Craig asked the city building appeal board to make an exception to the ordinance because she had city approval. The board turned down her request.

Wheels of Misfortune

Lives Dangerously

A young Waterford Township woman escaped injury in two traffic accidents within 10 minutes yesterday.

The owner of the car she was driving was hurt in the first mishap and his year-old convertible was smashed up in the second.

★ ★ ★

It started when Judith K. Biskner, 20, stopped abruptly for a red light about 4:20 p.m. at Cass Lake and Elizabeth Lake Roads. The car owner, Saul Togal, 36, 80 S. Roslyn, Waterford Township, struck his head on the windshield.

Miss Biskner told Waterford Township police that a car in front of her stopped suddenly, forcing her to do the same. Togal was taken to the hospital.

While following the ambulance through Pontiac about 4:30 p.m., Miss Biskner, still driving Togal's car, went over a curb and hit the front of the U.S. Post Office building at 735 W. Huron St.

Miss Togal told Pontiac police she was following the ambulance at high speeds when a car suddenly pulled in front of her, forcing her off the street. Police estimated she was traveling 60 miles per hour.

Togal was treated and released at Pontiac General for facial lacerations. Miss Biskner was not injured. There was no estimate of damage to the car or to the post office.

JFK Trade Bill Makes Headway

Ways, Means Group in House Going Back With Administration

WASHINGTON (AP)—The field of battle over President Kennedy's "trade or fade" tariff-cutting program shifted to the House today as administration supporters relished a solid victory in committee.

The Ways and Means Committee finished Monday putting together a bill containing every major provision Kennedy had asked for. These include authority to eliminate some tariffs, cut others in half, and to set up new programs of readjustment help to U.S. companies and workers hit by increased imports.

★ ★ ★

The committee takes another look at the bill in final language Thursday, but the issues were considered settled unless there are extraordinary developments.

VETO STRENGTH

Administration supporters on the 25 member tax-writing committee showed they had the votes to defeat such proposed changes as providing a congressional veto over trade agreements and cutting down the level of assistance to workers.

★ ★ ★

In the House, which probably will take up the bill during the first week of June, the story may be different.

There is strong protectionist sentiment among some members whose districts contain industries especially vulnerable to foreign competition. Republicans are planning to renew the drive, which failed in committee, to trim the benefits for import-displaced workers down to the levels of regular unemployment compensation.

★ ★ ★

As the bill is written, workers being retrained because their jobs were eliminated by imports could draw up to 65 per cent of their regular wages for as much as a year and a half. Some Republicans and conservative Democrats contend it is impractical to have two different unemployment insurance systems and that the levels provided in the trade bill ultimately will force costly changes in the existing state-federal unemployment benefit system.

★ ★ ★

The bill would provide help also for companies hard hit by imports—including loans, technical aid, and tax benefits.

Cape Cod Asks Halt to Negroes

Would Stop Flow of Bus Passengers From Southern States

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The citizens of Cape Cod, Mass., have asked for help to stem the flow northward of Negroes given one-way bus tickets by segregationist groups in the South.

The actions were taken while two Negro women and their 20 children were aboard buses on their way from Little Rock, Ark. to Hyannis, Mass.

NEAR JFK

President Kennedy and other members of his family own summer homes in Hyannis Port, which is only four miles from Hyannis where the bus rides terminate. Hyannis and Hyannis Port are parts of the Town of Barnstable.

At the statehouse in Boston, Republican Rep. Allan F. Jones of Barnstable appealed to Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy to join with Southern legislators to "do all in their power to stop this evil scheme."

★ ★ ★

Jones described the Negro riders as "pawns in a diabolical, inhuman game of revenge." He said they were being told "an indecent lie that good homes and good jobs await them when they arrive."

At Hyannis, selectmen met in emergency session and appealed to U.S. House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., to formulate legislation against any state exporting welfare cases.

Twelve Negroes have arrived in Hyannis during the past 10 days and all but two have been given quarters in a dormitory of the Cape Cod Community College in Hyannis. The two mothers and their 20 children are to be lodged there.

Cat Is Ungrateful to Emergency Squad

All of one recent night there was a hearty howl from a cat which got stranded on the steeple roof of the Hyde Park Presbyterian Church. Early next day, two employes of the Humane Society reached the scene.

One shinnied up the first roof, then a second, and finally the third. He inched along toward the cat.

The Mason-Dixon Line was established a century before the Civil War.

Early Trade Generally Quiet

Stocks Continue to Back Off

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued to back away mildly in quiet trading early today.

★ ★ ★

Losses of most key stocks were fractional. Quite a few showed little or no change. An assortment of leading issues displayed minor plus signs.

Wall Street still lacked any apparent incentive for either a rally or heavy selling. Although expectations were that a test of the May 14 lows would be made sooner or later there was no urgency about it.

General Motors, the market leader yesterday, was a firm spot. Chrysler picked up a fraction. Ford eased.

The steels continued to retreat moderately in the wake of the seventh straight weekly decline in steel production. Fractional losses were taken by U.S. Steel, Bethlehem, Republic Steel, and Jones & Laughlin.

Texaco resumed its slight upward trend, adding a fraction while other major oils did very little. Royal Dutch eased.

Tobaccos seemed to be holding their ground fairly well following their recent sharp decline on news that a magazine article was being published regarding the British linking of cancer with cigarettes, little, if any, change was shown by Lorillard, American Tobacco and Liggett & Myers.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange. Among losers were Western Equities, Syntex, Technicolor, Creole Petroleum (ex dividend) and Aerojet-General.

On the upside were Universal Controls, Arkansas-Louisiana Gas, Cubic Corp., Insurance Co. of North America and Gulf American Land.

Corporates Open Mixed

Treasury Bonds Stay Put

NEW YORK (AP)—U.S. Treasury bonds halted their recent downward slide at the start of trading today. Corporate bonds opened mixed.

The governments, down in six of the last seven sessions, were quoted from steady for short term bonds to 4-32 higher for some intermediate maturities. Long bonds gained about 2-32s.

"There's some talk that the British bank rate might be reduced again, and that would have a favorable effect on our market," one over-the-counter dealer said.

"In part, the better tone seems to be a reaction to recently depressed prices."

On the New York Stock Exchange the industrial section of the corporate list showed some strength but rails were easier and utilities held their own.

The widest price move among regular issues added 1⅝ to the El Paso & Southwestern Railroad 5s putting them up to 101½.

GM Package Men at Detroit Meeting

DETROIT — More than 400 General Motors packaging experts are attending a "packaging panorama" today and tomorrow at the GM Training Center in Detroit.

The latest in packaging methods and materials and new cost-saving packages and equipment will be displayed by 33 GM divisions.

The program this year will emphasize quality and reliability. Included will be conferences on container design, merchandising, machinery, methods and materials.

Attending the all-GM conference will be packaging engineers from the United States, Canada and England. In addition, personnel in purchasing, traffic and materials handling will be represented.

Grain Prices Hold Virtually Stationary

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures prices held virtually stationary today in unusually quiet initial transactions on the board of trade.

★ ★ ★

Rye showed a little weakness in spots and soybeans some firmness but other grains shifted only minor fractions as dealers seemed reluctant to do business pending new developments.

The government's report on crushings during April-May have contributed to the firmness in soybeans.

It showed a crush of 36.5 million bushels which was off about 2.3 million from March but about 3,6 million above the same month a year ago.

★ ★ ★

Although stocks of soybeans at plants declined, the supplies of both soybean oil and soybean meal increased.

Auto Production to Be Third Best

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Automotive writer

DETROIT — Although auto sales figures continue to flirt with the records set in 1955, production in the first half of this year apparently is destined to be only third best.

★ ★ ★

The record of 4,257,154 cars was set in 1955 and appears safe for some time to come. The second best year was 1960 when the companies built 3,809,494 cars. Present calculations are for 3,656,400 assemblies in the January-June period this year.

There are several reasons for the variance in figures. A major factor is that this year production has been much more closely tied to sales than in either 1960 or 1955.

Dealer inventories rose 450,000 units in the first six months of 1955. In 1960 inventories went up 458,000 in the first half. So far this year they have risen only 122,000 units.

CAUSED BY STRIKE

Additionally, the production burst in early 1960 was caused directly by the steel strike of 1959. Most assembly plants were idled by a lack of steel late in 1959 and built furiously in the period immediately following the striked settlement.

★ ★ ★

The expected sales boom never came to the extent it was hoped for and the stockpile swelled to more than one million cars by April 1, 1960, the highest it had ever been.

Production this month is now estimated at just under 657,000 cars. The current June projection is 616,000. July will drop under the 500,000 mark as factories begin to shut down for model changeover. August may skid to the 200,000 range.

Shutdown plans have not yet been announced. Studebaker is expected to wind up its 1962 model run in June. Chrysler probably will finish in early to mid-July. American Motors will run through July as usual, according to current plans. Ford and General Motors are indefinite.

★ ★ ★

Output last week came within a fraction of the year's high set the previous week. The totals included 155,842 cars and 26,303 trucks.

Spartan Store to Sell Apparel

Clothing for the Family Among Merchandise at New Discount Outlet

There is little danger of the Pontiac area's first Spartan Department Store running short of merchandise — at least not clothing for men, women and children.

The new discount-style outlet at the southeast corner of Dixie Highway and Telegraph Road will be supplied in part by Spartan Industries Inc., a national manufacturer of family wearing apparel.

Following the store's grand opening 9:30 a.m. Thursday, it will keep a 9:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. schedule Monday through Saturday and noon to 7 p.m. Sundays.

In addition to its own products, the store will sell merchandise produced by other firms, including sporting goods, hardware, home furnishings and stationery.

The store will be a self-service operation. Merchandise will be out on counters, racks and gondolas. Prices will be marked on each article so customers may do all the shopping themselves.

David Hans, manager of the Spartan outlet, said it will cover 75,000 square feet of floor space. There will be parking for 1,000 cars in a lot at the front of the store.

A native of New York City who plans to live in the Pontiac area, Hans has been with the discount store chain for a year. His most recent assignment was as manager of a Spartan store at Shreveport, La.

Executive and sales offices of Spartan Industries, founded in 1936 by present chairman of the board Charles C. Bassine, are in New York City. The main plant is in Sparta, Tenn.

Will He Really Ride Herd on Business?

Texas Goes Ahead Regardless of JFK

(Editor's Note—Conservative Texans would thank Washington to keep hands off their business. In this, first of three stories on the fast growing Texas economy, Sam Dawson, AP business news analyst, reports on the confidence that their own private boom will continue.

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

DALLAS, Tex.—Guidelines laid down in Washington have small appeal in Texas where there's always been lots of room to wheel and deal.

It's like putting a check rein on a cowpony. He's startled but far from convinced the new-fangled thing will cramp his style.

★ ★ ★

Most businessmen and bankers interviewed here say that they and their colleagues are disturbed by the turn that business-government relations appear to be taking since President Kennedy clamped down on the short-lived steel price rise.

And the stock market tumble that followed gave businessmen and most other Texans pause. It may have made them wary but far from convinced it could really hurt business expansion and activity in this area in the long run. But some report short-term effects.

WAITING TO SEE

"Our customers are holding back on orders now," says one manufacturer of products sold to other businessmen. "They're just waiting to see whether the administration is really out to ride herd on business. They're also wondering if the stock market is forecasting a coming dip in business for other parts of the nation."

★ ★ ★

Robert H. Stewart III, president of the First National Bank in Dallas, whose assets top a billion dollars without benefit of branches which are forbidden by Texas law, sees a sharp change in business thinking about the administration. He says Texas businessmen are startled by the turn of events—the steel crackdown, the antitrust threats, merger bans and stock market investigation.

★ ★ ★

"Dallas probably isn't typical. It's very conservative in its thinking. Also it won't be affected by a dip in the general economy as would most older sections of the nation. Industry here is very diversified, with electronics and other light industries. This is a great distribution center for the Southwest with warehouses for products made elsewhere," he adds.

"A big business boom is on—three banks starting large office buildings, while many other commercial buildings and apartment houses are going up. The momentum will carry on — unless government interferes in business much more than now seems likely."

WATCHING TREND

How the guidelines will be applied to labor is being closely watched here. If the President doesn't, or can't, hold the line on the wage front, most businessmen here say feeling will really turn pessimistic—even here, deep in the nation's confidence belt.

"The stock market shakeout has made a lot of small shareholders feel poor," says James L. Ling, vice chairman of the board of Ling-Temco-Voucht, an electronics complex built of mergers and acquisitions. "And I know some of the smaller companies around here are finding it hard to get investment houses to handle new security issue because of the market tone."

★ ★ ★

But Ling, who has come up fast in his field, thinks the Securities and Exchange Commission and other government investigations could have a beneficial effect in the long run.

"They will shake out the few bad promoters, brokers, industrialists, but let the public see that the majority of brokers and businessmen have clean hands," he reasons.

"It could be bad, however, if the government thinking that showed up recently—steel hassle, stock market probes, antitrust suits—is carried further into persecution and witch hunts. Then everyone will draw in his horns."

★ ★ ★

He thinks any wobbliness of business confidence showing up now will lead the administration to "toss business some bones before many months." One already promised is a change in rules of depreciation allowances for tax purposes. Another he's like would be a stern stand against inflationary wage boosts.

Prospects for the large share of his own business tied to defense and space projects look very bright, he says. For the company's commercial lines, Ling would hesitate just now to spend for expansion, would rather wait and see what comes out of the present turmoil.

Four Unions Reject Chris-Craft Offer

ALGONAC (AP) — Members of four unions have rejected the latest contract offer from the Chris-Craft Co. here and asked their negotiating committee to continue talks with management.

* * *

The proposed contract, calling for an 11-cent package increase including wages, pensions and insurance over the next two years, was turned down yesterday when a motion to approve it failed to get support.

* * *

The four unions are carpenters, machinists, upholsterers and painters, who seek a new contract to replace one which expired March 21. Some 512 Chris Craft employes have been on strike since that date.

* * *

A union spokesman said the next move in the negotiations is up to the company or to state and federal government mediators who have been participating.

Unionist Asking to Clear Record

Paul Silver to Answer Charges by Smeekens Over State Job

LANSING (AP) — Sen. John P. Smeedens, R - Coldwater, and unionist Paul Silver may face each other in a committee hearing this week, says Sen. John W. Fitzgerald, R-Grand Ledge.

Fitzgerald, chairman of the senate business committee, said that Silver, president of United Auto Workers Local 352 in Destorit, asked for another interview with the committee, in an open hearing attended by Smeekens.

Smeekens attacked Silver's appointment to the state hosptial advisory council on the Senate floor earlier this month. The appointment was made by Gov. Swainson and approved by the committee.

The senator charged Silver had a long police record and had served time in prison.

Silver, in a letter to Fitzgerald, asked for the interview "to answer the irresponsible attack made upon me by Sen. Smeekens."

* * *

If he did not get it, he said, he would be "compelled to come to Lansing and issue a statement setting forth the facts and to let Smeekens' constituents in Coldwater know the truth about his mudslinging and dastardly methods."

* * *

Fitzgerald said he thought the committee would agree to another interview. All Senate business committee hearings are open to the public, and Smeekens was welcome to attend, he added.

CONVICTED

A state police record showed Silver had been convicted of traffic offenses and a breach of the peace. He was sentenced to prison in 1940 for involuntary manslaughter in a traffic death.

But a new trial was held; the prison term was nullified, and Silver was given a five-year probationary term.

Two 1928 embezzlement charges were dismissed — as were a later charge of felonious assault and inciting to riot.

Economic Talks Called Success

White House Conclave of Labor, Management to Take Up Automation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's labor - management conference, already characterized by one Cabinet member as "a very great success indeed," turns today to the topics of automation and foreign trade.

* * *

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg put the success label on the meeting, officially titled the "White House Conference on Economic Issues," at a banquet Monday night attended by the 200 conferees representing industry, labor unions and the public.

* * *

Goldberg said the conferees probably hadn't talked as frankly as they probably would in subsequent sessions but he said at least the ice had been broken and, after all, "it's better to jaw than to war."

* * *

At the initial conference session the two topics were collective bargaining and wage-price policies. About the most controversial statement made from the industry side came from President J. Ward Keener of the B. F. Goodrich Co., urging a breakup of industry-wide labor bargaining.

HIT "GUIDELINES"

Keener also characterized President Kennedy's controversial wage-price guidelines as "impractical and unwise." The guides were stoutly defended in other quarters and Prof. John P. Lewis of Indiana University said probably tougher rules will be needed.

* * *

Not everyone agreed, either, that industrywide labor bargaining should end. President Richard S. Reynolds Jr., of Reynolds Metals Co., said he wished there were only one union in the aluminum industry to negotiate a single wage rate. He said competition is difficult now that rates vary as much as $1.50 an hour.

* * *

President George Meany of the AFL-CIO had some relatively mild criticism for management. He said he wished employers, insisting they believe in collective bargaining, would go to work on other employers who don't seem to think so.

Kindergarten Registration on Thursday at Romeo

ROMEO — Annual kindergarten registration for children who will be five years old on or before Dec. 1 will be held Thursday at the North, South and Washington elementary schools.

Proof of age and immunization against diphtheria, tetanus, polio, small pox and whooping cough for the children are required.

Registration hours Thursday are 9 to 11 a.m., 1 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 8 p.m.

Ceremonies to Open Goodwill Retail Store

Goodwill Industries will hold opening ceremonies for a new retail store at 15 E. Pike St. 10 a.m. June 1 to replace its first Pontiac store at 77 S. Saginaw St.

The building also may serve eventually as a workshop for the training and employment of handicapped persons and as an industrial contact center, if there is enough community support.

* * *

The old store, which was opened in 1956, will be closed May 31.

According to store manager Al Byers, the first and second floors of the new three-story building — approximately 6,000 square feet — will be devoted entirely to merchandising.

The self-service store will be open 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Monday and Friday, and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Clothing for men, women and children will be sold on the first floor; a bookshop will fill the mezzanine, and the second floor will carry furniture, electrical appliances, wheel toys, dishes and glassware.

HANDICAPPED TO HELP

Six physically handicapped men and women, all Pontiac residents, will be employed on the sales staff.

A workshop for the handicapped will be opened in the building as soon as community support makes it possible, Byers said.

John E. Hoskins, executive director of Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit, said if there is a steady flow of discards — the raw materials that give work to the handicapped — Goodwill is ready to undertake a branch operation.

He noted that Goodwill employes not only recondition merchandise but are engaged in contracting work for more than a dozen industrial firms, including Detroit Edison, R. C. Mahon, Bulldog Electric Products and Burroughs Corp.

Stahlin, Aide Named in Suit

John Bircher Starts $1-Million Libel Action Against Pair

A press agent formerly from Avon Township and his boss, state Sen. John H. Stahlin, R-Belding, were named defendants in a million-dollar libel suit yesterday by a fellow Republican.

* * *

Richard Durant, a long-time leader of GOP conservatives in Wayne County, charged Stahlin and his press aide, Charles Ferry, with "a filthy piece of libel and a scurrilous attack."

Durant said the two libeled him in a complaint to the Fair Campaign Practices Commission in which they claimed Durant, aided by extremist "right-wing" groups, was attempting to take control of the Republican Party in Wayne County.

Durant, an investment broker from Grosse Pointe, is a self-professed member of the John Birch Society.

* * *

He said he would withdraw his court suit if Stahlin "retracts and apologizes." Otherwise, he promised a fight "all the way."

Ferry, who moved from Avon Township last fall to take a job as research assistant at con-con, became Stahlin's press aide when the Belding Republican announced his candidacy for lieutenant governor.

* * *

Ferry formerly was publicist for the Republican Committee of Oakland County. He now lives in Grand Ledge.

GOP Chairman Attacks JFK for Medicare Talks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Republican National Chairman William E. Miller yesterday accused President Kennedy of "downright deception" and "thirst for supreme power" in Sunday's mass meetings for the administration's medical care for the aged program.

* * *

The New York congressman also charged that "agents" of the National Council of Senior Citizens for Health Care under Social Security are infiltrating senior citizens clubs and "turning them into political activist groups."

* * *

Miller said in a statement that the meetings, with President Kennedy addressing the major one in Madison Square Garden, were "deplorable."

Laotian Neutralist Delays Return Again

RANGOON, Burma (UPI) — Laotian neutralist Prince Souvanna Phouma again put off his departue for home today after summoning his information minister, Quinim Pholsena, to Rangoon for consultations.

* * *

Pholsena said upon his arrival at Hanoi that the prospects of a three princes' meeting depended on "the good faith" of the right-wing Laotian government.

* * *

Souvanna is now expected to leave for home Wednesday, Pholsena said.

He told UPI that the situation in Laos is calm.

At Least 37 Hurt

Twisters Batter Midwest

By The Associated Press

Tornadoes dipped down in the Midwest last night, pulling up trees, ripping down utility lines and shattering windows.

* * *

At least 37 persons were injured, 31 in Mitchell, S.D., and 6 in Tilden, Neb.

A funnel cloud writhed out of a thunderstorm and cut a patch 500 feet wide and a mile long through the western outskirts of Mitchell. Scores of business places, homes and farm structures were leveled or damaged.

The wind sucked 3-year-old Mary Jo Hohn from the arms of her mother and swept her into a nearby field. The little girl and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewayne Hohn, were taken to a hospital.

Herbie's Diner was blown down, injuring three women.

The wind tipped over an ice cream truck, injuring the driver, Ralph Winter.

Telephone and power lines were knocked out in Mitchell.

A fire house siren and a fire truck that toured the town like a mechanized Paul Revere alerted the townspeople of Tilden after a twister had been spotted on a weather bureau radar in nearby Norfolk.

Thanks to the warning, the Carl Knievel family took refuge in the basement before their home was ripped off its foundation. The family escaped injury.

The storm damaged buildings and homes in Tilden and left the town of 900 without telephones or electricity.

Board Discusses Putting Pension Plan on Ballot

Whether to put a fund raising proposition to the people in the Aug. 7 primary for the Police and Firemen's Pension Plan was discussed last night by the Waterford Township Board but no action was taken.

Township Clerk James Seeterlin reminded the board members that June 19 was the deadline for preparation of a local election proposition.

The pension plan itself was approved by the voters last year but the financing of the program remains unresolved. As a charter township, millage to cover the cost could be authorized by approval of the board but some members indicated preference for a decision at the polls.

A request authorizing water department superintendent Kenneth Squires to attend the American Waterworks Association Conference June 17-22 in Philadelphia was unanimously approved by the board after considerable discussion of meetings and conferences in general.

Trustee Loren Anderson suggested the board give some thought to a policy on trips. He expressed approval of the trip in question but said he would have reservations about sending anyone to Miami, Las Vegas or other distant points.

Board members were in general agreement that the meetings township personnel have attended in recent years have been the source of fruitful information and well worth the time and expense involved.

In other business the board approved requests for the issuance of fireworks permits to the Pontiac and Waterford Drive-In theaters for their annual Memorial Day programs.

Approval for three plumber bond renewals and the issuance of one new plumber bond was also granted.

The board also saw fit to authorize Township Supervisor Elmer Johnson to sign a statement of no objection regarding a request for aerial insect spraying in the township.

Guido Is Defied by Rump Session

Argentine Congressmen Call Meeting Despite Assembly's Suspension

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Congressmen from Argentina's three main political parties called a rump session today in defiance of President Jose Maria Guido's decree recessing the legislature for at least a year.

* * *

Members of Guido's own Intransigent Radical party, the People's Radical Union and deputies elected March 18 from the Peronist Popular Union said they would hold a session originally scheduled today to decide whether the 47 Peronists should be seated.

Police stood guard at the entrance to the congressional building admitting only congressmen who hold seats from previous elections.

CALLS MOVE ILLEGAL

Olegario Becerra, Intransigent Radical speaker of the House of Deputies, and other political leaders have branded the suspension of congress as illegal, dictatorial and unconstitutional. Guido is backed by the military chiefs who put him in after ousting President Arturo Frondizi three months ago because he had let the followers of ex-dictator Juan D. Peron participate—and win—in the March election as a legal party.

* * *

Besides recessing Congress until after a new election next March, Guido ordered a reorganization of all Argentina's political parties under interventors appointed by the electoral courts. He also announced action would be taken to prevent labor unions from meddling in politics.

Jackie, Caroline, President Greet 2,000 Women

WASHINGTON (AP)—Caroline Kennedy waved from an upstairs White House window and President and Mrs. Kennedy came to the south lawn to say hello today to some 2,000 Democratic women here for a campaign conference.

* * *

The excited women, crowded behind a rope barrier, cheered and applauded when the President told them he needs their help in the months ahead to maintain Democratic power in Congress.

* * *

The President, in a dark blue suit, spoke from a small platform. His wife Jacqueline, in a green dress, was standing just behind him. Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and Democratic leaders of House and Senate stood nearby.

* * *

The President started off with a quip that Johnson had said "the only thing that is keeping us going is not our programs, but my wife and Caroline."

3 Ex-Officers Mute on Larceny Charge

RIVER ROUGE (AP) — Three former River Rouge policemen stood mute yesterday when arraigned before Municipal Judge George Mihaiu on charges of breaking and entering and larceny from a building.

* * *

They were released under $1,000 bond each, pending examination May 31.

* * *

The three were Jack Kurin, 38, Frank Ziegler, 27, and Lewis Hiduskey, 34.

Friday, Police Chief Jacob R. Wilhite said no criminal charges were planned because Thomas Hill, owner of the burglarized West End Lumber Co., didn't want to prosecute. He said the men had resigned from the force.

However, the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office ordered an investigation and the arraignment resulted.
