Venezuelan Ground Toll Climbs

155 Dead in Jetliner Crash

MARACAIBO, Venezuela (AP) — The death toll in aviation's worst disaster reached 155 today as searchers combed the wreckage of homes destroyed by the crash of a Venezuelan jetliner bound for Miami.

Five more persons died today from injuries suffered when the big DC9 with 84 persons aboard plunged into a residential area yesterday and exploded

★ ★ ★

A Farmington couple, John H. Hacker, 55, and his wife, Lucille, 50, were among 11 persons from Michigan who died aboard the plane.

★ ★ ★

All 74 passengers and 10 crew members, at least 47 of them U.S. citizens, were killed in the crash. Authorities estimated at least 71 persons on the ground have perished and feared the total would increase as the grim search continues.

AT 150 FEET ALTITUDE

The DC9, powered by two turbofan engines mounted aft, had attained an altitude of only 150 feet when it faltered minutes after takeoff and plunged into a cluster of low-cost homes in Maracaibo's La Trinidad and Ziruma districts. The area was quickly enveloped in flames.

Eight investigating teams are trying to determine what caused the crash, which may have affected indirectly more than 1,000 people.

An airport official said the pilot reported no trouble and his last radio contact with the control tower was a routine request for permission to take off.

★ ★ ★

The plane lifted off the end of the runway, climbed briefly, then suddenly went down. The explosion appeared to have occurred when one of the plane's turbines grazed a high-tension wire.

★ ★ ★

Fifteen other air crashes have taken more than 100 lives. The worst previous aviation accident occurred Dec. 16, 1960, when two airliners collided over New York City, killing 134 passengers and persons on the ground.

★ ★ ★

The area in which the plane went down is on the outskirts of Maracaibo, a principal oil center, is inhabited by about 15,000 Colombians, Venezuelans and Guajro Indians.

★ ★ ★

The plane had been in service only 10 days. The flight originated in Caracas, 330 miles to the east. The airline said there were 74 passengers and a crew of 10 aboard.

★ ★ ★

The cause of the crash is not known, but authorities said they had recovered the plane's flight recorder and were studying last moments of the flight.

U.S., Irish Paraders Mark St. Pat's Day

By The Associated Press

Hundreds of Americans turned up for the St. Patrick's Day parade in Dublin.

In Chicago, the Chicago River was dyed green for the occasion.

★ ★ ★

At Grogan's restaurant in South Boston you could order anything you wanted, but what you got was corn beef and cabbage.

They laughed in New York when told that Savannah, Ga., with a planned turnout of 10,000 or so, hoped to have the biggest parade in the country.

27,000 MARCHERS

The Ancient Order of Hibernians, sponsor of the New York parade, counted on 345 contingents totaling 27,000 marchers, including 161 bands. It was New York's 207th annual show in honor of the saint who, legend says, drove the snakes from the Emerald Isle.

The Irish tourist board said Americans were on hand in record numbers and that 400 of them were marching in the parade. The biggest single group, 200, came from Albany, N. Y.

★ ★ ★

Ireland's 86-year-old president, Eamon De Valera, issued a message of "good wishes to all our kinsfolk and friends beyond the seas."

Prime Minister Jack Lynch pledged his government would "promote the reunification of Ireland."

At the moment, the six counties of Northern Ireland are separated from the republic. As a symbolic protest against this situation, the New York parade marchers were ordered to wear black armbands.

Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley enlisted William Jones, lord mayor of Waterford, Ireland, to help him lead the big annual parade from the green-dyed Chicago River down the mercantile artery of State Street.

Waterford is the hometown of Daley's paternal grandparents, and he visited there in 1964.

William P. Fay, Ireland's ambassador to Washington, had a fresh shamrock flown in from the old country for President Nixon.

STUDENT 'DEMANDS'

In Madison, Wis., the Irish Students Association of the University of Wisconsin marked the day by issuing a list of demands.

They said they wanted the English language replaced by Gaelic in classrooms, lime juice instead of orange juice in the cafeteria dispensing machines, and one administration building painted green.

Katie O'Callaghan, vice president of the association, said if the demands were not met students of Irish extraction would sit in classes and stare coldly at their instructors.

Israel Attacks Jordan Again

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli warplanes attacked Jordan today for the second straight day, hitting suspected Arab guerrilla bases in the foothills of the Gilead Mountains.

An army spokesman said four or five planes strafed and bombed Arab gun positions that fired missiles at Israel settlements in the area last night, touching off an artillery duel.

★ ★ ★

A Jordanian spokesman said the planes showered rockets, napalm and machine-gun fire on three towns. He added there were no casualties but an agricultural area was damaged.

Earlier yesterday Israeli planes raided three big Arab guerilla bases in Jordan. The Israeli army said all planes returned safely, but in Amman, a spokesman for the Al Fatah guerrilla organization claimed its antiaircraft guns downed six of the attacking jets.

Pleasant Weather to Linger in Area

Spring previewed today as temperatures jumped into the mid-50s and Old Sol beamed and beamed. Mostly fair and mild is the outlook for tonight, with temperatures due to dip into the 30s.

Tomorrow will be partly cloudy and continued mild with the highs bouncing into the high 50s and low 60s.

★ ★ ★

Clouds will remain through Wednesday when the mercury will drop slightly.

Today's southwesterly winds at 10 to 20 m.p.h. will slow to five to 15 m.p.h. by tonight.

Precipitation probabilities in per cent are 5 today and tonight and 10 tomorrow.

Livonia Man Gets New Heart

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A 43-year-old heavy equipment operator was described in "good shape" after a seven-hour operation today in which the heart of a 24-year-old man was transplanted into his chest cavity to replace his "volleyball-size" organ.

The size of the heart—five times normal—presented some surgical problems, since the new and smaller heart occupied less space, a spokesman said.

★ ★ ★

The recipient, Gerald Kenneth Rector of Livonia, became Michigan's third heart transplant patient when the operation began at 10:40 p.m. yesterday at University of Michigan hospital. It ended at 5:40 a.m. today.

Michigan's two earlier heart recipients, P. T. Barnum of Kalamazoo and Donald Kaminski of Alpena, have returned home following the University Hospital operations.

MUSCLE DEGENERATION

Rector had been suffering from cardiomyopathy or degeneration of the heart muscle. He has not worked for the last two years.

Rector's new heart came from Roland J. Hoag, 24, of Westland, who died of a cerebral aneurism, or a weak blood vessel in the brain.

★ ★ ★

Hoag, a Ford Motor Co. product technician, was operated on two times in Detroit during the last week for his brain condition. However, he was brought to U-M hospital when it became apparent the operations were unsuccessful, a hospital spokesman said.

Rector is expected to remain in the cardiac recovery unit for several days.

An endo-tracheal tube and a respirator were being used to aid his breathing. His pulse was reported at 90, with blood pressure at 120 over 80. Both are considered normal.

★ ★ ★

If his recovery progresses, he would be moved within several days to the clinical research department, which has a filtration system that changes the air 600 times an hour as a precaution against airborne bacteria.

Stadium Seen as Big Asset

F. Jack Douglas wears two hats when he talks enthusiastically about the possibility of Pontiac becoming the site of a domed sports stadium.

★ ★ ★

Douglas is both a Pontiac city commissioner and a union official, heading the Oakland County AFL-CIO Council.

★ ★ ★

His opinion reflects the views of each job when he speaks about the benefits that such a stadium could bring to Pontiac and Oakland County.

"First of all it would help breathe new life into the city," said Douglas.

'MORE JOBS'

"And when this happens it would bring in new business and create more jobs."

Simply stated, said Douglas, "It couldn't be anything but a tremendous asset to the entire community.

★ ★ ★

Ray Judge: Trial Wouldn't Help

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Judge Preston Battle, who sentenced James Earl Ray to 99 years in prison, told an interviewer yesterday that a number of questions about the Martin Luther King assassination were left outstanding. But he doubts that a trial by jury would have cleared the air.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile Ray's lawyer, Percey Foreman of Houston, Tex., reiterated in a television interview his belief that there was no conspiracy in the killing.

Dist. Atty. Gen. Phil M. Canale, the prosecutor, said in another broadcast interview he understands Ray expects to be free within two years.

Canale said he was told this by Foreman, but was uncertain whether Ray thought he would get out by way of court action or by escaping.

Judge Battle remarked in his interview, "There has been much talk of a conspiracy, but no one saying so has yet produced a single shred of evidence."

He said he was convinced that a trial would only have "muddied our understanding of the substantial evidence which established Ray as the killer."

MICHIGAN'S THIRD TRANSPANT — Gerald K. Rector, 43, of Livonia waits in his room at University of Michigan Hospital before becoming the state's third heart transplant recipient yesterday. He received the heart of Roland J. Hoag, 24, of Westland, who underwent unsuccessful surgery at Wayne County General Hospital last week for a cerebral aneurysm and was transferred to the U-M Hospital as a potential donor when it was decided he wouldn't live. Rector was reported doing well this morning with his pulse and blood pressure normal.

Troy Man Held in City Slaying

A Troy man is in Oakland County Jail on a murder charge in connection with the stabbing death of a Pontiac man in a city bar Saturday night.

Arrested by Pontiac police about three hours after the stabbing of Larry Belce, 52, a roomer at the Waldron Hotel, was Richard L. Henry, 24, of 4345 Livernois. Police said they are seeking a second suspect.

Pontiac detectives said Belce had been stabbed five times. He was taken to Pontiac General Hospital where he died hours later.

Before his death, Belce told police he was stabbed as he entered the men's room of Bob-Ken's Bar, 9 N. Saginaw. He said he did not see his assailant. He also said there had been no attempt to rob him.

TWO MEN SEEN

Witnesses said two men rushed out of the men's room just before Belce staggered out, gasping that he had been stabbed.

Henry was arrested on information from witnesses at the bar.

Police, who were hailed by a man outside the bar, said the weapon was a four-inch hunting knife they found on the floor.

Lake Orion Police Discover Body of Slain Woman, 22

A Lake Orion woman was found strangled in a car in that village early yesterday.

Village Police Sgt. Leslie Perkins said the body of Mrs. Frances Ann Brown, 22, of 121 S. Slater was discovered by Officer Earl Rinehardt at about 2:15 a.m. in a routine check of vehicles in a public parking area at Lapeer and Front.

★ ★ ★

Perkins said police theorize that the woman had been dead for about two hours.

Police have not yet determined whether the woman was sexually attacked before her death, Perkins said.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies said an undergarment had been used in the slaying.

HUSBAND IN CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Brown is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gibbons of Rochester, Ind., Perkins said. He said police are trying to contact her husband, Truman Brown, who lives somewhere in California.

The owner of the car — a black 1964 or 1965 Cadillac — in which the body was found has been contacted and questioned by police, Perkins said. Police are currently looking for persons who saw the vehicle prior to midnight yesterday, he added.

The village police department asked for assistance from the Oakland County sheriff's office, and the case is under investigation.

No Word on Losses in Heavy Fighting

Russia, China Clash Again

MOSCOW (AP) — The Manchurian border appeared quiet today after another weekend clash between Soviet and Red Chinese troops. Pravda said local elections were held on the Soviet side yesterday and "100 per cent of the electorate voted except those who fell in battle."

There was still no word on casualties in the battle that began Friday and resumed Saturday on disputed Damansky-Chenpao island in the frozen Ussuri River.

★ ★ ★

Moscow said 31 Russian soldiers were killed there in a clash March 2, while the Chinese said many of their troops also were killed.

Pravda, the Communist party newspaper, said Soviet frontier guards fought Saturday for seven hours under a hail of fire.

'RAIDERS REPELLED'

The paper concluded: "A powerful artillery barrage struck the firing positions of the Maoists who instigated the clash, and a fast attack swept all the raiders off Damansky Island."

Maj. Gen. Vasily Lobanov, who commands the Pacific Ocean frontier district, said Red China fielded up to a regiment of infantry — about 2,500 men — who attacked Soviet border guards in waves under cover of an artillery barrage.

★ ★ ★

"The snow became dark from the explosion of shells," Lobanov said in a dispatch from Vladivostok. "Barrage fire from Chinese artillery and mortar batteries covered the island."

Peking Radio said the Russians poured tanks, armored vehicles and troops into the battle, but the Chinese "completely demolished" the Soviets.

NO CONFIRMATION

There was no Soviet confirmation that tanks were used, but Moscow newspapers told of armored troop carriers being deployed to penetrate to the rear of the Chinese force.

And Moscow exchanged sharp protests again, and newspapers reported "hatred and indignation" and "oceans of hatred" at factory meetings and workers' protests.

★ ★ ★

About 200 persons gathered Sunday around the Chinese Embassy in Moscow, shouting insults and raising clenched fists, but the demonstration was brief.

Soviet newspapers heated up their campaign against Chinese Communist party chairman Mao Tse-tung and warned "Peking adventurists . . . their criminal policy is doomed to failure."

PEKING IS QUIET

In contrast, a Japanese correspondent reported the Chinese capital was quiet with none of the noisy demonstrations that followed the March 2 fighting.

★ ★ ★

Correspondent Ieshige Akioka of the newspaper Asahi Shimbun wrote: "It is always Russia which first announces the border clashes . . .

★ ★ ★

"There are strong surmises in Peking that Moscow has reasons for wanting to use the incidents . . . to show the gravity of Chinese-Soviet relations so it can take leadership in the projected world Communist party conference."

The Soviets have accused Peking of doing more or less the same thing, "provoking armed clashes to achieve its great-power hegemonistic plans."

Lobanov said the dispute over the island had been smoldering for 18 months, with the Chinese systematically sending troops to the island and being "repeatedly warned" off by the Soviets.

AWARD WINNERS—Pontiac Press staffers view the Michigan Press Association's Harrison C. MacDonald first-place award for daily newspapers, which they received Saturday in East Lansing. The award was made on the basis of a Washington's Birthday double-page classified-display color spread in The Press Feb. 22. It was sponsored by local auto dealers. The Press staffers are (from left) Arthur Thomas, classified salesman; Robert Cook, classified display salesman; and Elliott P. Henry, classified advertising manager.

ANTHONY G. De LORENZO

Public Relations Honor Given GM Executive

Anthony G. De Lorenzo, vice president of General Motors in charge of its public relations staff, was named 1968 "Public Relations Professional of the Year" yesterday by Public Relations News.

De Lorenzo of 3280 Bradway, Bloomfield Township, was nominated by the publication's 19-member editorial advisory board and voted on by its readers in 50 states and 75 countries.

★ ★ ★

In announcing the award, Denny Griswold, editor of Public Relations News, an international weekly for management and public relations executives, called De Lorenzo "an aggressive advocate of the principle that business organizations must serve society effectively and must let people know—and get them to understand — what they are doing and what they plan to do."

De Lorenzo, 54, has been with the General Motors staff for 20 years. In 1956 he became public relations director and one year later was elected vice president in charge of the public relations staff. Previously he was with the Racine (Wis.) Journal-Times, United Press and the Kudner Agency.

★ ★ ★

He is a past president of the Detroit chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic society, and a founding member of the Detroit chapter of the Public Relations Society of America.

The award will be presented next month at a reception in New York.

Assistant VP Retires From Edison Post

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Thomas J. Peterson of 1324 Juniper Lane has retired from his post of assistant vice president for marketing at Detroit Edison.

He completed 40 years of service with the utility company last December.

Peterson began his Edison career as a sales clerk shortly after graduation from Stanford University in 1928. He was advanced to administrative assistant in 1929, assistant commercial manager in 1949, assistant manager of sales in 1952 and manager of customer services in 1965. Peterson assumed his assistant vice presidency in 1966.

Active in community organizations, Peterson was one of the founders of Detroit's Franklin Settlement, and served as president and a member of the board of directors until 1966. He is currently a board member of both the Franklin Wright Settlement and Camp Oakland.

★ ★ ★

A past president of the Michigan Electric Association, Peterson served as a director of that organization for seven years, until 1966.

He also served as chairman of the customer relations committee and coordinator of the customer activities group of the Edison electric institute.

Soviet Bloc Leaders Zip Through Summit

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—The Warsaw Pact summit meeting ended today scarcely two hours after it began, informed sources said.

Leaders of the seven pact countries signed a declaration and the final communique. It was the shortest pact summit ever held, indicating that the documents had been prepared in advance.

★ ★ ★

According to the sources, the declaration was on European peace and dealt mainly with the German question.

The meeting was delayed at the start, prompting speculation that Soviet leaders wanted time for informal discussions with their East European allies on the Soviet-Red Chinese border conflict.

The Warsaw pact is a military organization of Communist nations in Europe.

Because each nation was represented by its Communist party chief, premier and foreign and defense ministers, the meeting was viewed as a small-scale dress rehearsal for the world Communist conference to be held in Moscow in May.

The Soviet delegation was headed by party chief Leonid Brezhnev and Premier Aleksei Kosygin. It includes Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko and Defense Minister Andrei Grechko.

Other members of the Warsaw Pact —the Communist answer to NATO—are Bulgaria, East Germany, Hungary, Poland, Romania and Czechoslovakia.

★ ★ ★

Prior to the meeting, the Czechoslovak party newspaper Rude Pravo said the meeting might resolve the "setting up of a joint staff of Warsaw treaty armed forces" with "the participation of individual member states to be determined by the extent of their share in the joint defense."

"In international relations," Rude Pravo continued, "the problem of European security now comes to the forefront.

"The talks will undoubtedly be influenced also by the recent Berlin crisis, sharpening of the Middle East situation and, last but not least, also the Sino-Soviet border incident."

Gls End Pacific Crossing, Start War Games in Korea

YOJU, South Korea (AP)—Led by a two-star general and a Medal of Honor sergeant, 1,320 U.S. paratroopers leaped into South Korea today at the climax of an 8,500-mile trans-Pacific assault operation. It began five days of war games called Focus Retina.

★ ★ ★

The men of the 82nd Airborne Division were flown from Ft. Bragg, N.C., to the muddy reaches of the North Han River, 35 miles south of Seoul, in what the U.S. military said was the longest air operation in history.

C141 Starlifter jet transports ferried the first batch of 720 soldiers into the operations area from Okinawa, two and a half hours away. Delayed 24 hours by a snowstorm here yesterday, they completed the journey from North Carolina in close to 55 hours. Maj. Gen. John R. Deane Jr., their commander, and Sgt. 1. C. Charles D. Morris, who won the Medal of Honor in Vietnam, were the first to hit the silk as the gray parachutes dotted the sky.

★ ★ ★

Deane got wet when he landed in a small stream but later joined South Korean President Chung Hee Park and U.N. Commander Gen. Charles Bonesteel on a hill overlooking the operations area.

While the airdrops were taking place, North Korea called a special meeting of the Military Armistice Commission at Panmunjom to demand the exercise be canceled. It was the second North Korean protest in a week.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. delegate, Maj. Gen. James B. Knapp, rejected the North Korean demand.

11 From State in Crash of Jet

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Eleven persons from Michigan, including a Farmington couple, were among tentatively identified victims of a Venezuelan airplane crash yesterday that claimed 150 lives — the worst tragedy in aviation history.

Also among Michigan victims were two Clark Equipment Co. executives and their wives and a St. Clair couple.

★ ★ ★

There were believed to have been 47 Americans among the 150 who were killed in the crash at Maracaibo, Venezuela.

Four other Clark Equipment Co. executives and their wives escaped, having returned yesterday on another airliner after a week-long sales meeting of the company in Caracas, where one of its overseas plants is located.

Three other Clark couples, however were among the victims, but none of them lived in Michigan.

Michigan victims identified by immigration authorities at Caracas Airport or the U.S. Embassy here were:

- John H. Hacker, 55, president of Consumers Petroleum Co., of Detroit, and his wife, Lucille, 50, of Farmington.

Hacker of 26742 Westmeath and his wife had been to Venezuela to visit a daughter living there. The Hackers were returning to Miami for a National Oil Institute meeting. They left for South America Feb. 26.

- Albert G. Davidson Jr. and his wife, Alice, of Battle Creek and Robert L. Brown Jr. and his wife, Jane, of Marshall. Brown was general products manager for Clark and Davidson was marketing and service manager at Battle Creek.
- Ben H. Duengel, 65, and his wife, LaClair, 57, of St. Clair, who had operated a men's store in Richmond, Mich., for 25 years and who had been vacationing in South America for five weeks.

Authorities had no home town addresses for three others they listed from Michigan. They were Joseph Flint Rice, whose passport was issued in Los Angeles and Basil Richard Deelsnyder and Jane Deelsnyder.

BIRMINGHAM — Mrs. Julia Brown, right-wing activist and a former undercover agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Cleveland, will give her views of the "cause and cure of agitation and civil turmoil at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Derby Junior High School.

Mrs. Brown's work for the FBI concerned what she terms "Communist influences within the Civil rights movement."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Brown's speech which is sponsored by the South Oakland TACT Committee, a pro-right-wing group, will concern her program for "restoring fundamental American principles and building a safer, freer, prouder nation."

Residents in the Birmingham Public School district contributed 408 sacks of clothing for the Save the Children Federation, according to Arthur Roller, principal, Torry Elementary School, who was drive chairman.

The clothes will be distributed to impoverished children in the Southern Appalachia area.

Dentist in City Dies at Age of 64

Dr. Anthony J. Michal, a long-time Pontiac dentist, died yesterday. He was 64.

A University of Michigan graduate, Dr. Michal, 4995 Malibu, Bloomfield Hills, had offices in Pontiac the last 35 years.

★ ★ ★

He was a member of the American Dental Association, the Navy League of the United States, and the Orchard Lake Country Club.

A Requiem Mass will be said at 11 a.m. Wednesday at Our Lady of Refuge Catholic Church, Orchard Lake. A Rosary will be said at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home.

★ ★ ★

Surving are his wife, Ruth; two daughters, Toni and Brooke; four sisters, and one grandson.

The family requests that any memorial be made to the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Building Fund.

School Aid Parley to Push for Reform

LANSING (AP) — In an attempt to "get action this year" a group of politically potent organizations have scheduled a Lansing conference March 31 on a formula for state school aid.

Mrs. Jane Tate, a regional vice president of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers, announced the conference in Detroit.

Michigan public schools are in desperate trouble," she said.

Besides the Parent-Teacher Congress, she listed among 30 sponsoring organizations:

The United Auto Workers Union, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Michigan Federation of Teachers, Michigan Education Association, Michigan Farm Bureau, central committees of both the Democratic and Republican parties and the Michigan AFL-CIO.

TROUBLES GROWING

She said 74 Michigan school districts had deficits last June and the number will be greater next September.

★ ★ ★

Among other things, Mrs. Tate said the conference will form a Citizens Task Force for each congressional district "to implement action in the coming months."

4 Die, 14 Injured in Hotel Blaze

PERTH AMBOY, N.J. (AP) — Four persons were killed and 14 injured today when fire destroyed the interior of the Packer Hotel, a 50-year-old structure with 78 registered guests.

Police said earlier that five persons were killed in the predawn blaze, but later said only four bodies had been recovered.

★ ★ ★

Police Chief Paul Jankovich said six of the 14 injured were in serious condition at hospitals.

"Most of them were injured when they tried to escape from the building," the chief said.

LEAPED FROM BUILDING

He said several persons fell or leaped from fire escapes on the building to escape the flames. The search for bodies was continuing.

When firemen arrived at the scene they described the blaze as an "inferno."

STARTED AT TOP

The fire broke out on the top floor of the four-story structure, but firemen couldn't get past the third floor.

One of the victims was identified as Maxime Whitney, 40, a guest at the hotel. The other victims were not immediately identified.

Crash Injuries Kill Waterford Youth

A Waterford Township youth died yesterday in Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital of injuries suffered in an auto accident Friday.

Hospital authorities said Johnny M. May, 19, of 4592 Clinton died about 5:30 p.m. of head and internal injuries.

May was injured when the car he was driving north on Sashabaw near Major crossed the center line and struck a tree and fence after running off the road, according to township police.

Foreign-Aid Restrictions Hit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Foreign aid officials are chafing under what they consider to be too-tight strings on how they dispense dollars to developing countries.

The strings are being kept taut by the Treasury Department, whose secretary heads the Cabinet committee responsible for curbing the U.S. balance of payments drain.

★ ★ ★

The situation has produced a running conflict with specialists of the aid-administering Agency for International Development.

Specifically at issue is the application of the balance of payment policy to the general purpose aid loans designed to help countries improve their foreign exchange position and make local economic improvements.

'POSITIVE LISTS'

Under the balance of payments injunction, AID has drawn up "positive lists" of U.S. goods for which the aid-receiving countries must spend the money from the U.S. loans. The lists are confined to American products not already bought widely in those countries.

Treasury and Commerce Department specialists see the positive lists as a tool for promoting new U.S. exports and preventing aid-receiving countries from buying, with U.S. aid funds, the American goods they would otherwise purchase anyway with their own money.

★ ★ ★

AID takes a dimmer view of the system, on grounds that it damages the overseas assistance program "more than the dollar drain savings are worth.

AID specialists contend that:

● Tying AID money to the positive list forces aid-receiving countries to buy U.S. goods which are not internationally competitive and may cost 10 to 40 per cent more than like items from foreign suppliers.

● The most effective way for an aid-receiving country to meet positive list requirements is through using import and exchange controls. But this conflicts with U.S. policy favoring freer trade.

● Some lists have been so limited that importers in the aid-receiving countries are reluctant to make purchases.

● It sometimes takes months to negotiate an aid program agreement with a country now because the U.S. balance of payments requirements get into complex and politically sensitive issues.

● Positive lists may actually harm the U.S. export trade by foisting uncompetitive U.S. commodities on foreign markets.

COUNTERCHARGES

Treasury officials counter that:

● The actual extra cost of U.S. goods on the positive lists is much less than 10 to 40 per cent, because the purchaser can buy these items on the easy terms offered in U.S. aid loans.

● In no case has an aid-receiving country imposed new import and exchange control system or delayed dismantling an existing one because of the U.S. positive list system.

★ ★ ★

● While there has been an undesirable slowdown in some U.S. aid programs, this is due as much to other AID regulations as to the positive lists.

● Positive lists will help the U.S. export trade in the long run. Purchases from the list tend to lead to further foreign buying not only of the item itself, but often also for spare parts and services.

1-Car Crashes Kill 10 on State Roads; Weekend Total 15

By The Associated Press

Separate traffic accidents took 15 lives in Michigan over the weekend, as 10 persons died in wrecks in which their cars went out of control and either overturned or struck objects ranging from trees to telephone poles and guard rails.

The Associated Press weekend traffic count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight yesterday.

★ ★ ★

The victims:

Daniel B. Day, 22, of Flushing, in a two-car crash in Flint Saturday.

Mary Logan, 9, of Garden City, struck by a car while crossing a Garden City street Saturday.

Katherine Mueller, 66, of Roseville, struck by a car Saturday in Roseville.

★ ★ ★

Phillip LaVerne Worvie, 22, of Columbiaville, whose car struck a tree Saturday in Genesee County's Forest Township.

Lloyd Tomcal Jr., 25, of Chesaning, when his car hit a tree Saturday along M57 near Chesaning.

Joseph Stanson, 50, of Detroit, when his car struck a bridge abutment on I-696 in Southfield Friday night.

★ ★ ★

Michael Nykoruk, 44, of Detroit, when his car overturned yesterday on U.S. 10 in Ferndale.

Sandra Hill, 21, of 5916 Braemoor, Bloomfield Township, when a car in which she was riding overturned yesterday on U.S. 23 south of Brighton.

Kenneth Skinner, 29, of Grand Rapids, whose car struck a utility pole in Walker Saturday.

★ ★ ★

Juanita Allen, 16, of Flint, struck by a car near her home Saturday.

Ralph North, 24, of Grand Rapids, whose car ran off a Grand Rapids street and struck a telephone pole Saturday.

Billie Fears, 44, of Eaton Rapids, whose car struck a tree in Eaton Rapids Saturday night.

★ ★ ★

Lillo Arcelious Greer, 60, of Detroit, when his car struck a fixed object in Detroit yesterday.

Martha Klein, 55, of Chicago, killed when the car in which she was riding ran off I-96 at M-78 of Windsor Township in Eaton County yesterday and hit a guard rail.

★ ★ ★

Thomas Charles Homoly, 19, of Nunica, near Grand Haven, killed when the car in which he was a passenger veered into the path of an oncoming car on M-104 in Spring Lake and was hit broadside yesterday.

New Pact Seen as Model for Other Communities

Shelby Police in 'Best-Paid' Ranks

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — Police officers here are among the highest paid in the metropolitan Detroit area, under the recently ratified contract between the township and The Fraternal Order of Police Local 142.

A comparison study of salary plans of area police departments indicates the new salaries (retroactive to Jan. 1), which start patrolmen at $9,250, are at least as high as salaries in nearly all departments in the area and considerably higher than the majority of departments.

★ ★ ★

This includes departments in such cities as Warren, Pontiac and Detroit, all of which have vastly different economic environments.

Shelby's minimum for a patrolman now is $1,700 higher than Detroit's scale; $1,200 more than Pontiac and $600 more than Warren.

$9,650 IN JULY

The cities of Birmingham and Grosse Pointe, now pay patrolmen $8,200 and $8,000 respectively. The Shelby minimum moves to $9,650 in July.

The significance of the package won by Shelby police is that it will undoubtedly serve as a model for other departments now either negotiating contracts or waiting for salary revisions in the upcoming fiscal year beginning in July.

★ ★ ★

After July 1 pay scales for many departments, of course, will be altered considerably and in some cases match or better the Shelby scale.

But as one officer put it, the Shelby contract has given other departments "something to shoot for."

CONTRACT STUDIED

Det. Lt. Glenn McAlpine, president of Shelby's collective bargaining unit, admitted that several departments have already studied the Shelby contract.

★ ★ ★

McAlpine said that current population growth indicates the Shelby department will need twice as many men within five years and probably at least 45 officers by 1978. The department now has 15 men.

"We are anticipating the growth of the township, and we want to be in a position where we can attract competent personnel to the department," McAlpine said.

The Shelby pay scale has emphasized the lower end of the rung as have most departments. The minimum for lieutenants is approximately $2,000 more than the patrolman minimum. Ranks above patrolmen in most departments are receiving anywhere from a minimum of around $1,000 more for corporals or sergeants to $3,000 more for lieutenants.

'WHIPLASH' TECHNIQUE

City of Birmingham personnel director George Kirbey, soon to be negotiating with a collective bargaining unit now being organized to represent Birmingham policemen sees the inflationary trend in police department salaries as a Type A example of the common "whiplash" labor bargaining technique.

Under this technique, he said, police departments attempt to capitalize on successful pay revisions won by other departments.

★ ★ ★

An indication of this was reflected in the statement of Rochester Chief of Police Robert Werth. Werth believes the salary scale for his department "is not quite in the ball park, but we're getting there."

The current starting rate for Rochester patrolmen is $7,500, moving to $8,600 in an 18-month period. The salary rate comes up for revision in the new budget in July. Rochester's population is 6,900.

Troy to Discuss Maple Road Paving Again

TROY — The City Commission will again discuss the Maple Road paving project at tonight's meeting, scheduled to begin at 7:30.

★ ★ ★

The proposed paving, which has drawn some objections from businessmen in the affected area (between Coolidge and Crooks), has been approved by the commission, but the roll for a special assessment district to finance the project has not been confirmed.

★ ★ ★

The objections have centered primarily around possible access routes to the business along Maple while the project is under way.

Present plans for access, as detailed last week by City DPW Director Richard Graham, include construction of two-way access drives on both sides of Maple.

NOT STRAIGHT RUNS

The access drives would not run straight through from Coolidge to Crooks, however, according to Graham, but would be interrupted on both sides.

On the north side, drives would run from Crooks to Terry's Country Squire Restaurant, 1476 W. Maple, and from Maplelawn to Axtell. Eastbound traffic would be routed north on Axtell to Somerset, and proceed on Somerset to Coolidge.

★ ★ ★

On the south side, Graham said, drives would run from Crooks to the east entrance to Berz Airport, 2045 W. Maple, from Maplelawn to the McGregor Manufacturing Corp. offices, 2785 W. Maple and east about 100 feet from Coolidge.

Business men have argued that through routes between Coolidge and Crooks, besides being more helpful to business, will ease the burden of traffic through the residential Somerset area.

★ ★ ★

Graham said, however, that in any case only local traffic would be permitted between Coolidge and Crooks, with through traffic being routed north to Big Beaver or south to 14 Mile.

★ ★ ★

Also on tonight's agenda is a proposed motorcycle ordinance, which commissioners tabled last week after asking City Attorney Stanley Burke to investigate the possibility of adding provisions regulating turning movements, regulating seating and number of passengers, and requiring windshields.

Supervisor Sets Dem Club Talk

Internal operations of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors will be explained by Supervisor Philip O. Mastin Jr. of Hazel Park when he speaks before the Birmingham-Bloomfield Democratic Club at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

The club will meet at the home of Robert E. Nederlander, 4616 Private Lake, Bloomfield Township.

★ ★ ★

Mastin, a former councilman and mayor protem of Hazel Park, is leader of the Democratic caucus of the board of supervisors. He is expected to discuss the possible location of Sentinel antiballistic missile sites within the county and the proposed county law enforcement-jail complex.

★ ★ ★

Young members between the ages of 18 and 21 are sought as club members, according to William R. Ralls, president. He said a dues reduction is available to such members.

Missing Gas Cap Decides Auto Race

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — A misplaced gas cap may have cost Bobby Isaac of Catawba, N.C., first place in the Cracker 200 NASCAR Grand National stock car race at the Augusta Raceway.

The $8,570 event was won Sunday by David Pearson of Spartanburg, S.C., in a 1969 Ford. But Isaac didn't lose the lead until shortly past the midway point in the race when his pit crew forgot to replace the gas cap of his 1969 Dodge.

NASCAR rules require that a driver return to have the cap replaced. Isaac did but it enabled Pearson to take over first place and he sped to his second consecutive Grand National victory.

Last week Pearson won the Rockingham, N.C., race.

Richard Petty of Randleman, N.C. took second place in his 1969 Ford as Isaac finished third.

County Panel Gets More Pleas for Staff Hikes

Personnel increases for three more county departments were sought Friday as department heads appeared before the County Board of Suervisors Personnel Practices Committee. The committee has been conducting budget hearings for the past week.

The board of auditors has asked for nine new positions costing the county $47,793 a year. Included in the request was a personnel technician at a salary of $8,250 for the purpose of rating employes on the job.

★ ★ ★

Auditors said in their application that growing requests of departments desiring on-the-job rating had occasioned the request. The ratings would be used to improve the validity of merit system examinations used by the county for hiring and promoting practices.

Other departmental requests include two new positions in the department of veterans affairs — one a typist and the other to serve as field representative. Total salary for the two would amount to $11,851 a year.

★ ★ ★

The committee clerk's office has requested a typist at a salary of $5,351 a year. The extra help would be used to provide the chairman of the board of supervisors with full-time clerical help.

Former Manager Reassumes Post at County Airport

J. David VanderVeen, 31, of 2181 Garland, Sylvan Lake, reassumes managerial duties at Oakland-Pontiac Airport today. He has been assigned from the County Board of Auditor's staff to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Joseph Davis Jr.

VanderVeen was airport manager when the county took over the operation from the city of Pontiac in February 1967.

★ ★ ★

In January of 1968 he was named administrative assistant to the board of auditors at a salary of $13,500.

VanderVeen will continue to serve as airport manager until a replacement for Davis can be hired, according to Daniel T. Murphy, county auditors chairman.

★ ★ ★

Davis has announced he will enter private industry, becoming general manager of Montgomery & Sons, a fire and windstorm repair contractor. The firm is located at 6732 Highland, Waterford Township.

Groveland Gravel Pit Protest Praised: 'Democracy in Action'

GROVELAND TOWNSHIP — The recent organized protest by local residents against a request to expand a gravel processing operation in this township has been praised as a fine example of democratic action.

And the zoning board's recommendation of denial of the rezoning petition by J. P. Burroughs of Saginaw that people who effectively organize and back their protest can accomplish their end goal.

★ ★ ★

The praise came from Robert McKenney, a self-described "country attorney from Holly" and legal consultant to the Groveland Zoning Board.

McKenney said the three-month fight against the zoning petition demonstrated the need for more citizen involvement if the township is to be developed satisfactorily.

He noted that residents in outlying rural areas such as Groveland tend to be apathetic regarding local governmental matters. McKenney said residents took action only when they realized that expansion of the gravel pit might probe detrimental to the welfare and safety of property owners living near the site.

"The natural tendency now that the crisis is over is to relax. There has been a need for updating zoning ordinances in The Township for a long, time, but residents have done nothing about it.

★ ★ ★

"Now there is a good possibility that they will," McKenney said.

The attorney's optimism stems from the fact that the Township Property-owners Association, which organized and carried out the protest against the gravel pit, plans to ask the Zoning Board to hire a professional planning consultant to help revamp zoning ordinances and plan for future development.

Council Race Ended in a Draw, but Dem Wins in a Drawing

ORTONVILLE — Lawrence Follis, a Democrat, was the victor in a drawing to decide the winner of a deadlocked race for a Village Council seat last week.

★ ★ ★

But his Republican opponent, Lester Troyer of 361 Cedar, really didn't lose for long. At a special council meeting following the drawing Thursday, Troyer was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Carl Anderson of 255 Granger, who resigned because of an employment conflict which prevented him from attending council meetings regularly. The term runs for one more year.

★ ★ ★

Follis of 477 Ball is the first Democrat to win a council seat here in several years. His term runs for two years.

Wixom Puts Limit on Hunting in City

WIXOM — The City Council has passed an emergency ordinance prohibiting hunting on parcels of land under 15 acres in the city, effective immediately.

Council approved the ordinance following protests from residents calling for either a ban on hunting or stricter enforcement of the existing hunting ordinance.

★ ★ ★

The ordinance is considered as a compromise solution.

"We didn't want to be too strict, but the council does realize there is a need for some new legislation," a spokesman noted.

Lake, Shore Problems to Be Topic at Wixom

WIXOM — The Huron River Watershed Council will hold a panel discussion on ways and means of solving inland lakes and shore land problems at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Ford Motor Co. Assembley Plant.

★ ★ ★

The panel will include representatives from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, Michigan State University; the Association of Michigan Lakes and Streams and the Watershed Council.

Woodward Surfacing Bids to Be Let April 2

The State Highway Department will let bids April 2 for 4.5 miles of concrete surfacing on Woodward Avenue between Square Lake Road and Oakland Avenue in Bloomfield Hills and Birmingham.

Group in Farmington Twp. Seeks a Road Commission

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — A citizen's group has petitioned the Township Board to establish a township road commission here.

Citing alleged unfairness of the present system of allocating funds for road improvements, the Farmington Township Road Association has submitted a detailed proposal for the formation of the commission to the board.

The proposal, along with a summary of the reasoning behind it, has been sent to township officials in the form of a letter which the association asks be read at the March 24 board meeting. Primarily, it asserts the need for planning in considering the township's needs.

'NO REASONED APPROACH'

"There is no concerted, reasoned approach to the fact of poor roads," the letter comments. "We need to proceed in a systematic way.

"First, the extent of the problem should be defined accurately. What is the magnitude of the problem? How severe is it? What will it cost? What sources of revenue do we have?"

★ ★ ★

The result of the alleged lack of planning is a haphazard road improvement and financing program, the letter contends.

★ ★ ★

"Too often," it says, "chance decides where public funds are spent for roads rather than a planned, systematic program of road improvement having the object of maximum benefit for the township as a whole."

The letter then attacks the county "matching fund" program, calling it "morally bankrupt."

Under the matching fund system, a township which wishes to improve local roads must first raise half the cost of improvement. The county road commission then contributes the rest.

"A policy which declares that only those who are able and willing to contribute private funds have any call upon public funds is morally bankrupt," the letter declares.

★ ★ ★

Farmington Township Clerk Floyd Cairns said Friday that he wouldn't want to comment on the letter until it was discussed by the board.

Township Supervisor Curtis Hall could not be reached for comment.

Troy to Act Tonight

Class Schedule Ruling Due

TROY — The board of education will hold a special meeting tonight to consider the fate of this school district's modular scheduling program.

The meeting will be preceded by a public hearing on the program, which will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria of Troy High School, 3179 Livernois.

The board was scheduled to consider the modular program at its regular meeting March 11, but chose instead to allow citizens a chance to speak, according to Board President Rev. Richard Snoad, because many had expressed interest in discussing the program.

The modular plan, under which students may schedule some class time themselves, came under fire two weeks ago after high school counselors reported that student scores in standardized tests had fallen off since introduction of the plan.

Allies Take Heavy Toll of Reds in South Viet

SAIGON (AP) — U.S., Thai and South Vietnamese forces killed 281 enemy troops in heavy fighting around Saigon and in the Mekong Delta and uncovered 40 graves containing another 152 bodies south of Da Nang, military spokesman reported today.

U.S. infantrymen from the 9th Division killed 131 Vietcong in a series of five clashes over the weekend in the upper half of the Mekong Delta, the U.S. Command announced.

Two Americans were reported wounded in the clashes Saturday and Sunday. U.S. spokesmen explained that helicopter gun ships and artillery accounted for at least a third of the enemy dead, and another 19 were killed in an ambush.

The fighting occurred near the provincial capital of Ben Tre and the district capital of Cai Be, 40 to 50 miles southwest of Saigon.

U.S. headquarters said the actions were part of a multibattalion operation under way since last Dec. 1. A spokesman said more than 4,200 Vietcong have been killed in the operation and more than 2,350 captured. U.S. losses have been 148 killed and 1,366 wounded, he said.

Thailand's Black Panther Division reported 400 of its men repulsed an attack early Sunday by more than 1,000 Vietcong only 18 miles east of Saigon. The defenders said at least 109 Vietcong were killed and four captured.

A spokesman said the assault was made under a heavy mortar and rocket barrage.

"The Thais fixed bayonets and repelled the attackers who briefly breached the Thai perimeter in two places," a communique said.

Four Thai batteries poured hundreds of rounds of artillery into the charging enemy troops, and an armored column was rushed up to reinforce the defenders.

Two Thais were killed and 19 wounded, the communique said.

As the Vietcong's spring offensive went into its 23rd day, about 30 rocket and mortar attacks were reported on allied bases and towns Sunday night. Two were followed by infantry assaults on American bases northeast of Saigon.

About 70 enemy soldiers hit a night bivouac of men from the 1st Air Cavalry Division 25 miles northeast of Saigon with machine guns, small arms and close-quarter fighting lasted three hours, and when it ended 10 Americans had been killed and 17 wounded. A sweep of the battlefield produced nine enemy bodies.

* * *

Twenty-eight miles to the northwest of Saigon, enemy soldiers fired 10 mortar rounds into a 25th Infantry Division bivouac, then followed with a ground attack, firing rocket-propelled grenades and small arms.

FIRE RETURNED

For two hours the Americans returned the fire, blazing away with 50-caliber machine guns mounted on armored personnel carriers. A sweep at dawn turned up the bodies of 30 North Vietnamese soldiers. U.S. headquarters said, while one American was wounded.

In another fight on Saigon's eastern flank, enemy troops attacked a South Vietnamese military district headquarters before dawn Sunday after firing 20 mortar rounds into it. Two of the 100 militia defenders were killed and seven were wounded. Five civilians were reported killed and six wounded. A spokesman said two of the enemy were killed and one captured.

* * *

The 40 mass graves were uncovered by troops from the U.S. 196th Light Infantry Brigade about 35 miles south of Da Nang. U.S. headquarters said the 155 bodies were Vietcong and North Vietnamese killed by artillery, air strikes and small arms fire about four days before.

'H-Bomb Needed Debate Like ABM'

NEW YORK (AP) — The development of the hydrogen bomb should have been subject to the same type of public debate that the antiballistic missile system is undergoing, a former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission says.

David E. Lilienthal, who said he opposed hydrogen bombs when he headed the AEC, said, "An issue of that kind certainly should not be decided by four or five guys, even though I was one of them ... I think they should be debated the way the antiballistic issue is."

Lilienthal remark's were broadcast Sunday on NBC-TV's "Speaking Freely."

EAGLES SWOOP IN—Helicopters of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division's "Eagle Flight" in South Vietnam swoop in to discharge another platoon of riflemen as others from a previous helicopter lift move out through the marsh grass. The division has been sweeping areas near the Cambodian border northwest of Saigon.

MRS. KING

Coretta King spoke from the same pulpit where her late husband a Baptist, preached in 1964, the first non-Anglican to do so.

Mrs. King, who said she felt "a deep sense of humility and a painful sense of inadequacy," delivered a 15-minute sermon to 2,000 churchgoers.

"Many despair at all the evil and unrest and disorder in the world today," she said. "But beyond the turbulence, I see a new social order. I see the dawn of a new day."

Dinah Shore's Daughter Is Married

Melissa Ann Montgomery, actress daughter of singer Dinah Shore and actor George Montgomery, has married David Burk, an actor-producer. It was the first marriage for Miss Montgomery, 21, and the third for Burk, 31.

The ceremony yesterday was performed at Miss Shore's home in Beverly Hills, Calif.

First Woman Performs Episcopalian Marriage

Deaconness Phyllis Edwards became the first woman to perform a marriage in the Episcopal Church when she united John W. Malloy, 31, and Karen Willoughby, 26, in San Francisco.

Mrs. Edwards, a widow, was the first of her sex ordained to holy orders in the church. The ordination took place four years ago.

She performed the weekend marriage ceremony as the acting vicar of St. Aidan's church.

Scottish Church May Ordain Woman

The first woman has been licensed as a probationer to the ministry in the Presbyterian Church of Scotland.

The licensing of Miss Elizabeth Kinniburgh, a teacher in religious education, took place yesterday in Granton church in Edinburgh. It is a preliminary toward ordination as a minister.

Miss Kinniburgh, who says she does not wish to be known as a "woman minister," commented:

"Either you're a minister or you're not a minister. It's not a question of being a man or a woman."

Waitress to Break Law by Tending Bar

Pretty Judy Jarosak, a waitress in a Minneapolis taproom called "The Red Baron," says she plans to violate this week a city ordinance which forbids bartending by females.

She is backed by her boss, Ron Bergland, and the Minnesota Civil Liberties Union.

"I passed my bartenders test and now I want to earn a dependable income," the shapely blonde said Sunday. "I have a 9-year-old son and school expenses. You never know how much money you'll make as a waitress."

Sophia Loren Will Return to Movie Making

Sophia Loren, who recently became a mother for the first time, will return to movie-making soon with a film called "Il Girasole," Italian for "The Sunflower."

MISS LOREN

The movie, about a wife trying to find her missing husband after World War II, will be filmed mainly in Moscow and other locations in the Soviet Union. Vittorio de Sica will direct, and the producer will be Carlo Ponti, Miss Loren's husband.

Also in the works for Miss Loren is a second movie, entitled "Biancorossoverde," about the adventures of a woman on a Rome-Milan express train.

It Seems to Me . . .

Quick Action Is Needed to Curb Rise in Crime

Without the slightest doubt, one of the biggest problems facing the new President of the United States lies in the ascendency of crime, criminals and lawbreakers.

In his campaigns, President NIXON promised to give this matter quick and earnest attention if he were elected. Already he has taken steps toward this objective. Asking Congress for 67 new federal judges is a big step toward cleaning up the untried criminal cases that literally cover the Nation.

★ ★ ★

Senate Minority Leader Everett McKinley Dirksen has asserted that "there are criminals running around the place who probably have been put on bail two or three years ago. Further, they probably commit three or four additional felonies when they should be behind the bars." And then he concludes: "That's no way to run a railroad or a war on crime."

The Democrats have already raised a strenuous cry for the appointment of a large number of their party to fill these 67 jobs. Out of today's 449 federal judges, 311 are Democrats right now and only 136 are Republicans. Two are unclassified. Hence, the President should be allowed a certain latitude without too many protests.

★ ★ ★

However, the main point of interest doesn't lie in the party of the appointees. It centers around getting the job done and the cases tried and prosecuted. Personally, I don't care what party the new judges belong to as long as they aren't the professional do-gooders who cry on the shoulders of the crooks and murderers and weep over their unhappy lot.

We need action.

We need convictions.

Too many criminals today look upon our laws with utter contempt. They have little fear of "justice."

Taxpayer's Friend . . .

Our boy, LOREN ANDERSON, is making himself a host of new friends with his appraisal of Michigan's financial situation.

ANDERSON

Just recently he commented again on the plans for a new multi-multi-million dollar capitol for Lansing.

Said Mr. ANDERSON: "Until Michigan faces the pressing obligations already confronting the taxpayers, we in Lansing can live out of briefcases."

Three cheers for ANDERSON!

★ ★ ★

We don't really ask the Legislature to live out of briefcases but they can make that antiquated, outmoded and insufficient Capitol building do until we take care of our fearful mental hospital situations—and others.

★ ★ ★

Representative Anderson is becoming a warm friend of the helpless and stricken taxpayers.

Desired Advantages . . .

About a year ago, the Warner and Swasey Company of Cleveland printed an advertisement that doesn't die out. I reproduce it herewith:

"I want my boy to have all the advantages I can give him, such as having to earn his own allowance by running errands, cutting lawns. Such as getting good grades in school—getting them because he wants to and because he knows what it would do to me if he didn't. Such as being proud to be clean and neat and decent. Such as standing up and standing proud when his country's flag goes by. Such as addressing elder friends of his parents as sir and ma'am.

★ ★ ★

"Such as having to earn his own way in the world and knowing he has to prepare for it by hard work, hard study and sacrificing some of the pleasures and ease his friends may get from too-indulgent parents.

★ ★ ★

"These are the advantages I want my son to have, because these are the things which will make him self-respecting and self-reliant and successful. And that is the happiness I want him to have."

★ ★ ★

And now, if you will, think of the mugwumps we have in the United States who advocate almost the opposite, and who get attention from TV, newspapers and radio—with TV the greatest offender.

And in Conclusion . . .

Jottings from the well thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

Freshman Rep. SHIRLEY CHISHOLM (D-N.Y.) the Nation's first black Congresswoman had a swift introduction to the informal customs in the District of Columbia. Her apartment was entered and the thieves made off with over $500 worth of clothing. . . . . And BARRY GOLDWATER went down to the garage of his hotel and found his automobile stolen. . . . . Overheard: "The way things are today, even the Jones are having trouble keeping up."

BEVERLY

Scouts advise me Beverly Clancy deserves mention as one of the area's attractive young ladies. . . . . The highest wind velocity ever actually measured was 186 miles an hour in New England 30 years ago. However, students are sure we have had gales that topped 200 m.p.h. judging purely from the damage. . . . . How many GM people will lose their jobs over the foul-up in those automobiles? . . . . . British safecrackers cut through five inches of solid steel and stole two tons of gold and silver, valued at $250,000.

★ ★ ★

A Big Round of Applause for LOREN ANDERSON for fighting increasing taxes. . . . . Overheard: "That 'oil slick' in the Pacific Ocean wasn't from the bottom. A big gang of hippies went in swimming." . . . . . JOE NAMATH was robbed of $1,000 by a locker room thief while he was playing golf. What's a thousand to JOE? . . . . . Asked if he'd get along with a baseball player as temperamental as he was himself, TED WILLIAMS said he certainly would if the guy could hit the way he did. . . . . All this fuss about polluted water has been a boon to the bottled water people. Their business leaps to $70 million a year. . . . . Dept. of Cheers and Jeers: the C's—GM for taking back all those cars for corrections; the J's—the nitwits that were responsible.

'Relax, We Have A New Safety Device Called A Bandaid!'

David Lawrence Says:

Congress Will Approve ABMs

WASHINGTON — The issue of the antiballistic-missile system is far from settled.

LAWRENCE

Congress, however, after reflecting on what a "do nothing" alternative could mean, will eventually approve President Nixon's request for a relatively smaller program than the Johnson administration proposed.

For the Senate and House to do otherwise than endorse the plan would scare the public.

★ ★ ★

A vote of no confidence in the President's project, given at this time, would encourage the Communists to press forward with their military expansion and take advantage of what would appear to be great discord on the defense policies of the United States.

Support by Congress at this time, on the other hand, could prove a constructive move.

CLEAR INDICATION

It would indicate clearly to both the Soviet Union and Red China that the American people will not take chances and are convinced that the sound policy for the United States to pursue is to build a defense mechanism against tinuing to seek arms agreements calling for mutual re- continuing to seek arms agree-

Mr. Nixon wants to negotiate from a position of strength. If the House and Senate disagreed with such a course, this attitude could arouse a feeling of insecurity throughout the country.

Dissenters in the Republican and Democratic ranks in Congress would hardly wish to take responsibility for producing that result.

★ ★ ★

A majority will inevitably perceive the sensitivity of the nation to important steps in national defense policy. For certainly, out of a budget of $186 billion a year, the expenditure of one or two billions annually for this purpose would be favored by the voters rather than to take risks with the security of the United States.

President Nixon reasons that a resolute course, adopted now, would be noted abroad and that changes can be made from time to time through the annual review promised by the administration.

While many Americans may not understand all the technical factors involved in the deployment of an antiballistic missile system, the Soviets and the Red Chinese will get the main point — namely, that the United States intends to spend whatever is necessary to protect its population by providing a system which deters nuclear attack.

The President will continue to stress the fact that his whole program is based upon deterring an enemy from launching any attack.

★ ★ ★

He feels it is necessary to protect enough of the deterrent apparatus so that the moves to be made by this country in retaliation against an attack "will be of such magnitude that the enemy would think twice before launching a first strike."

There is plenty of room for variations and changes in the President's plan as circumstances may warrant.

He said, for instance, that the "safeguard system" to which he has given his support "will be implemented, not according to some fixed, theoretical schedule but in a manner clearly related to our periodic analysis of the threat."

Modifications would be made as the threat changes, either through negotiations or through unilateral actions by the Soviet Union or Communist China.

On the whole, an analysis of Mr. Nixon's latest statements shows that he is deeply concerned, first of all, with the security of the United States and that he does not intend to allow the possibility of political schisms at home to affect his judgment when he prepares to make significant decisions in the international field.

Bob Considine Says:

U.S.-French Relations Long Way From Break

PARIS — Have no worry about Franco-American relations. Georges Pompidou chain-smokes America's most popular filter. If the No. 2 man in Gen. de Gaulle's party feels that way about us, there's little chance that the country that helped us win our independence from Britain will ever cut all its ties with us.

CONSIDINE

Pompidou looks like a cross (of Lorraine) between Vice President Spiro Agnew and George Zaharias, the rassler. He mulls over a question like Toots Shor does over a brandy and soda. He instinctively does not blurt an answer. He looks at the towering ceiling of his plain office—now that he is no longer in his friend De Gaulle's government—and weighs almost every reply.

More often than not, what he replies is worth listening to. De Gaulle has cut France's ties with the Western alliance in a number of respects. But Pompidou waters a connecting hemp that is unsnappable.

An informed fellow we know tried (and succeeded) in explaining why De Gaulle keeps blackballing Britain whenever it makes a pitch for membership in the Common Market.

FEARS PACT

He said, in effect, that the French people as a whole do not give a damn and would, in fact, be happy to have the British aboard. But the rub is De Gaulle feels that if the British come in they'll soon make an industrial pact with the West Germans, both being more industrialized than France, and together they'll work against the country De Gaulle understandably would like very much to see prosper and regain its ancient power—his own.

★ ★ ★

Also, De Gaulle is said to feel (and he is probably right) that American capital, now spread around France and other members of the Market, would inevitably gravitate to England—where we have the rapport of a common language and heritage.

'Loophole for More Tax in Four Proposed Bills'

Four bills have been proposed in the State Legislature. If passed, all will allow local taxing units another loophole where they can circumvent the State Constitution on the 15-mill property tax limitation. The so-called demand for public services, cited by government officials as their reason for increasing the spending of tax money, is questionable. Let these government officials submit written evidence of these demands and not just bureaucratic statements intended to expand kingdoms with taxpayer money.

Letter Discusses Education in City Schools

We who live in the so-called ghettos are concerned about the immediate and future welfare of our children. Therefore, we can recognize fallacy, misconception and illusion in this new education equality opportunity. Until administrators in the public school system activate diplomacy, stability and impartiality to deserving students and parents and dedicate services toward enlargement, motivation and directive purpose, the plan will fail. Every fair practice organization in Pontiac should rally with its influence for community betterment on the findings of the Michigan Civil Rights Commission.

Discrepancies such as inefficient monitors, repetitious kindergarten-level school work in higher grades, and lack of playground equipment are unreasonable. The new super high school will be reduced to a $19,000,000 disgrace to this divided, disturbed city if facts are not exploited and changed.

Question and Answer

Could you explain the mechanics of a school election and whether there is any way to curb a school district's authority to call an election at will?

J. S.

REPLY

The authority of school boards to call special elections is defined in Michigan school laws, and to restrict or withdraw that authority the State laws must be changed. That can be done through your elected representatives in the State Legislature.

Question and Answer

Is it prohibited to own and shoot a BB gun at targets in open fields in Waterford Township? My father says it is and I say it isn't.

BOY WANTING A BB GUN

REPLY

You're right at this time, but Lt. Putnam of Waterford Police is hopeful your father will be right within a month of two. An ordinance has been drawn up which would prohibit shooting any weapon that propels a missile (guns, slingshots, etc.) except on private property or recognized target ranges. The ordinance will be presented for approval shortly.

Reviewing Other Editorial Pages

Fourth Branch

The Daily Oklahoman

Anyone who has had dealings with the 47 independent federal agencies may well believe they comprise a fourth branch of government with their regulatory powers.

Congressional spokesmen say powers of regulation and judgment are merely delegated, not abdicated by the legislative branch, but in some instances it appears that the "creatures of congress" are more powerful in action than the body that created them.

★ ★ ★

Of the many agencies, seven are more powerful in their relation to the American business economy. They are the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Federal Trade Commission, the Federal Power Commission, Federal Communications Commission, Securities and Exchange Commission, Civil Aeronautics Board and National Labor Relations Board. Some of their actions purport to protect the interests of the consumer.

As Editorial Research Reports points out, when the Civil Aeronautics Board promulgates a rule asserting primary jurisdiction over military and civilian airspace, it is exercising a quasi-legislative or rule-making power. When it decides which of several competing commercial airlines shall be given a specific route, it is exercising quasi-judicial power.

★ ★ ★

The Reorganization Act under which the Kennedy plans were submitted expired last December 31. President Nixon is said to be considering asking for its revitalization. He has said he favors less federal control over private enterprise.

In the federal government, as in state government, regulations normally have the effect of law until challenged in court. Meanwhile the varied economic interests are bound by them.

All but One of Crew Saved as Ship Sinks

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — All but one of 31 crew members were saved from the foggy Gulf of Mexico after an engine room explosion sent the Liberian freighter Vaniqueur to the bottom 140 miles at sea.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. Navy destroyer escort Hyman, cruising through fog in the area reported by a radio distress signal, picked up 24 men Saturday night after they had drifted 24 hours in two stormtossed lifeboats.

Three hours earlier the British freighter Arbitrator had stumbled on six other men in an inflatable life raft.

★ ★ ★

The Coast Guard pressed an air-sea search for the only crew member unaccounted for.

"When they found us it was a miracle. A miracle," said Jaime Echeverry, 24, of Cali, Colombia, one of the men in the lifeboats.

Echeverry and other crewmen said the explosion occurred Friday night. Crewman Eusebio Rodolfo Nunez of Buenos Aires said he heard a dull thud and another sailor came to his sleeping quarters and told him "water was inundating the ship."

★ ★ ★

The Vainqueur, 580 feet long, carried 20,000 tons of sugar en route from Vera Curz to New Orleans.

Crew members rescued by the Hyman were brought to New Orleans. The Arbitrator radioed that the six she had aboard would be taken to Beaumont, Tex.

Florida was an Ice Age "winter resort" for man, mammoths and mastodons thousands of years before Miami and Palm Beach existed.

HAPPY SURVIVORS—Surviving seamen of the Liberian freighter Vainqueur show their happiness as they arrive in New Orleans last night following their rescue in the Gulf of Mexico. Twenty-four seamen were rescued by the USS Hyman and six others were picked up by the British Freighter Arbitrator following an explosion on the Vainqueur.

Ex-Owner Marvels at Value of Podunk

SYLMAR, Calif. (AP) — The nostalgia felt by Hal Morris for his old town, Podunk Center, Iowa, is deepened by word that it's up for sale for $7,000.

"I guess fame can sure raise the value of a town," said Morris, recalling it started for $1,500 and sold it three years later for $1,800.

Morris, 64, was 29 when he quit his job with a Des Moines meat packing plant and bought an acre of land in 1934 without telling his wife. He built a general store, put in gas pumps and called it Podunk.

Why Podunk? "It was the best name I could think of at the time," Morris said Sunday. "Names like Toonerville and Feltonville just didn't fit it."

BLIND TRADE

The business along U.S. 69 was great, he recalls. "One day a salesman drove up and said he would trade me two boxes, the contents of which I wouldn't know until after the trade, in return for $5 worth of groceries.

"I traded and, when I opened the boxes, I found them full of 1860 little boy dress-up outfits—knickers and lace. My wife and I had a good laugh over it and hung up the outfits all over the store. You know, they sold like hotcakes."

Because of his wife's poor health, Morris said, he sold his town and moved to California.

The settlement now called Podunk Center is called "the hub of the world" by the present owner, Homer Weeks, but its greatest population—21—was in the '30s. Podunk now boasts a four-unit motel as well as the store-cafe.

"I still have three loves," says Morris, an employe of a Canoga Park, Calif., rocket manufacturer. "My wife, my relatives and Podunk. When I retire in July, one thing I'll do is visit Podunk."

But buy it back? No, says Hal Morris wistfully. It costs too much.

Teen Parents Held in Death

DETROIT (AP) — A teen-aged Dearborn couple faces a manslaughter charge after a deputy medical examiner testified the couple's infant son died from "marked malnutrition."

Ronald Dayton, 19, and his 17-year-old wife were bound over to Wayne County Circuit Court Friday by Dearborn Municipal Judge Ralph B. Guy Sr. They were released on $100 bond each.

Police said they found the body of Ronald Dayton Jr., 3½ months old, on Jan. 26 when Mrs. Dayton called them to the apartment.

A deputy medical examiner testified that the baby weighed just seven pounds.

OUT OF WORK

Dayton said an auto accident six weeks ago had put him out of work.

Another son, Russell, 17 months, is being cared for by relatives after twice being hospitalized with pneumonia, police said.

Cook County Sheriff Finally Gets Riot Unit

CHICAGO (AP) — It took him almost two years, but the sheriff of Cook County (Chicago) finally has a volunteer riot-control force. It's outfitted in khakt uniforms with black berets and scarves and paratroop-type boots.

Sheriff Joseph I. Woods has circumvented a Circuit Court decision, which held last year that a proposed 1,000-man riot control unit was illegal under the Illinois Constitution.

At the time, Woods, a Republican, received sharp criticism from Mayor Richard J. Daley, a Democrat, and irate citizens sought and won the court injunction barring the unit's formation.

Woods is a former Marine who values the training he received.

He proposed his volunteer force after the summer of 1967, when the western suburb of Maywood was disturbed by racial strife. At that time, Woods recruited some 250 bailiffs and process servers employed by his department to bolster his approximately 250 regulars.

Woods says that the relatively untrained and unorganized reserve riot force now has turned into a sharp-looking and well-trained 120-man riot control unit.

* * *

At the unit's first review over the weekend Woods told the men: "I am delighted with what you look like. I am more an organization."

The service is voluntary. The men train on Saturdays and are instructed by sheriff's police and the FBI in crowd control, firearms handling, riot tactics, judo and karate.

In a telephone interview, Maywood said, "They are trained as a riot unit. Negro sergeants pick on white troops and white sergeants pick on Negro troops. If any one gets mad or breaks down they are taken out of the unit. They are trained to act as delighted with what you have done."

Soapy Gets a Warning on Artifacts

MANILA (AP) — The Manila Chronicle editorially warned outgoing U.S. Ambassador G. Mennen Williams and his wife Sunday that "consequences will be unpleasant" if they disregard a law prohibiting the transfer from this country of Philippine cultural properties.

The former Michigan governor and his wife have been purchasing antiques, relics and other cultural artifacts.

* * *

"If the ambassador is wise," the Chronicle said, "He will not spoil his term here because he and his wife cannot quell their passion for primitive accumulation."

The editorial followed a similar warning from the director of the National Museum, Gemma Araneta, that the law governing disposition of cultural properties must be obeyed.

* * *

Earlier, a Chronicle columnist had called upon authorities to prevent the transfer from this country of the artifacts Ambassador and Mrs. Williams have been purchasing.

The U.S. Embassy has declined comment.

Sirhan Defense on Mental Bent

Psychiatric Parade to Go 3 More Weeks

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Defense attorneys for Sirhan B. Sirhan intend to spend at least three more weeks questioning psychiatric experts about the mental makeup of the man on trial for the murder of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Dr. Martin M. Schorr, a clinical psychologist, led off the parade of defense witnesses who probed the personality of the 24-year-old Arab immigrant.

* * *

Schorr, who resumes testifying under cross-examination today, says Sirhan is a psychotic paranoid with schizophrenic tendencies — in layman's terms, a "Jekyll and Hyde personality."

Schorr said that on the night of June 5, 1968, when Kennedy was shot to death at the Ambassador Hotel, Sirhan was incapable of rationally plotting the slaying. Sirhan has testified he was unable to remember the actual assassination.

'RFK BECAME FATHER'

Schorr said that in Sirhan's eyes, Kennedy became his despised father, and when he pulled the trigger only inches from the Senator's head, he was killing Bishara Sirhan.

The defense contends Sirhan did not intend to kill Kennedy when he went to the Ambassador that night and should not be convicted of first-degree murder which carries the possibility of death in the gas chamber.

* * *

The prosecution, in an attempt to shake the "diminished capacity" defense, bore down on Schorr last week during cross-examination. Tapes of Sirhan's conversations with police interrogators were played in court, and Schorr was asked to comment on them.

Stans Says Inflation Fight Won't Hike Jobless Rate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration has no intention of allowing the unemployment rate to go up as part of efforts to fight inflation, according to Secretary of Commerce Maurice H. Stans.

The administration, Stans said Sunday, hopes to "bring down the level of inflation gradually and slowly," while holding the jobless rate to 4 per cent or less.

Any idea to allow unemployment to slip upward "is very definitely unacceptable," Stans said.

Labor leaders, among others, have charged that some Nixon officials have recommended measures to brake the economy that would result in higher unemployment. The latest figures showed the jobless rate at 3.3 per cent.

WILL KEEP UP SURTAX

Stans was interviewed on the CBS radio-television program, "Face the Nation."

The commerce secretary also said he doubts the administration will allow the 10 per cent income surtax to expire at the end of the current fiscal year, June 30. "It is probably going to be continued for another year," Stans said. He indicated, however, that President Nixon has not made a final determination about the surtax and probably won't for a few more weeks.

* * *

In other matters, Stans said:

- It will be close whether there will be a budget surplus for the current fiscal year.
- He favors a "split-level" minimum wage with lower scales for the unskilled and teen-agers.
- President Nixon's black capitalism program will be successful and most minority group leaders are in favor of it.

He Thinks of Himself as a Good Family Man

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a husband who says there is nothing wrong with being overly friendly with his sister-in-law? He says the Eskimos do this. Is this true or should I tell him that he is crazy? I answer all his needs every time he asks me. Thank you very much.

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: Tell your husband that the Eskimos stopped that practice a long time ago, and that if you ever catch him so much as rubbing noses with another woman he'll get a freezing out like no Eskimo ever had.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am 25 years old and I'm engaged to a man I'll call "Frank" who is 28. We have known each other a long time, but we have been engaged only two months. Before the engagement we didn't discuss having a family, which was a mistake.

Now Frank tells me that he would like to have four or five children. Maybe I'm selfish, but I don't want any.

Abby, I have absolutely no patience with children, and knowing myself as I do, I wouldn't make a very good mother.

Frank and I love each other, but this has become a big issue. Please don't tell me that I should have one, because I will feel different about my own child. I really don't want the work and responsibility of children. Maybe I'm peculiar, but I don't think they're worth it. So what is your advice?

TROUBLED

DEAR TROUBLED: Tell Frank that unless he sees it your way, he'd better find another girl. I agree, you'd probably make a poor mother, but I admire your honesty.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Tell "Wants Marriage" that a common law marriage is as legal as one in which a minister has mumbled a few words over the couple. And a man is all wet if he thinks he can escape the responsibility of marriage by not going through a ceremony. He has a legal duty to support the woman, and any children they may have. And the children will be considered legitimate, too!

If a man wants to get rid of a common law wife, he must divorce her in the courts, as there is no such thing as a "common law divorce." And if a man tries to give a woman the old line about a "trial" period of living together, it won't work because when a man and woman present themselves to the world as man and wife—they ARE! At least that's the way it is in Texas.

LAWYER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Thank you! And if your husband ever finds out who you are, you'll catch it for "practicing" law without a license.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: This is for "FURIOUS IN PRESCOTT, ARIZ." who suggested that housewives do their marketing early in the day so as not to crowd the "working wives":

I have to wait until my husband comes home from work before I do my marketing because we are a one-car family. So if I get in your way, please provide me with a second car and I will be glad to do my marketing in the morning just to accommodate you.

CLARA

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby in care of The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-600, P.O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich. 48056 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

★ ★ ★

For Abby's new booklet "What Teen-Agers Want to Know," send $1.00 to Abby in care of The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-600, P.O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich. 48056.

Introduce Self When No One Else Does It

By ELIZABETH L. POST
Of The Emily Post Institute

Dear Mrs. Post: At my in-law's one evening, there was a young man there who seemed to be a friend of one of my niece's. No one introduced him to us so we just sat there all evening without knowing who he was. What should we have done? — Mrs. B.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. B.: Since your in-laws either forgot to introduce you or assumed you already knew your niece's friend, you should have said, "Hello, I don't think we've met before. We're the Browns — Sheila's aunt and uncle." Your niece, her parents, or the man himself would — or should — respond to this cue by telling you his name.

CLOSEST

Dear Mrs. Post: I am planning a small wedding — immediate family and a few friends. May I have my best friend as the only attendant or must I have my sister-in-law. My best friend has meant a lot to me. — Sharon

Dear Sharon: You may certainly have your best friend as your one attendant. If you had more attendants, your sister-in-law should be one of them, but in-laws are not necessarily terribly close, and you should be accompanied by the person who means most to you.

Jewel Thief Steals From Ex-Mrs. Ford

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Jewels were stolen from the Bel-Air homes of actress Rhonda Fleming and socialite Mrs. Anne McDonnell Ford Johnson during the weekend, police reported Sunday.

Mrs. Johnson, the former wife of Henry Ford II who recently married Los Angeles attorney Deane F. Johnson, told officers she discovered $150,000 worth of gems were missing from her bedroom Saturday afternoon.

Miss Fleming said $75,000 of jewelry was stolen from her bedroom Friday night.

Officers said the same man appeared to have committed both burglaries, gaining access to the houses by prying open small door locks with a screwdriver.

Tryouts Announced

Tryouts for Lakeland Players' spring production, "Barefoot in the Park," will be held Wednesday in the music room of Mason Junior High School from 6:30 to 9 p.m.

The comedy by Neil Simon, author of "The Odd Couple," requires a cast of four men and two women. It is concerned primarily with the trials of a newlywed couple, her mother and a nutty neighbor.

Nonmembers may try out or assist with production.

Plan Annual Luncheon

Harold Glassford will speak on "History of the American Flag" at Wednesday's annual luncheon of the Parliamentary Study Club.

Mrs. William Pfahlert is chairman of the event taking place in Sveden House at 12:30 p.m.

In addition to the special program there will also be an election of officers.

Calendar

TUESDAY

Women's Society of Christian Service, Aldersgate United Methodist Church, 10 a.m., in the church. Cooperative luncheon and sewing of cancer pads.

Oakland County Dental Auxiliary, 7:30 p.m. Stouffer's Northland Restaurant. Dinner speaker will be Dr. Donald McIntyre of Detroit on "A Dental Mission to Guatemala."

WEDNESDAY

Nursing Alumni of Oakland Community College, 7:15 p.m., Highland Lakes Campus. Guest speaker from Wayne State University College of Nursing.

Three Orchestras Will Join in Presenting Two Concerts

Members of the Rochester Community Orchestra, the Oakland University Symphony and the Pontiac Symphony will combine to present two concerts next week.

The first will be in the Rochester High School Auditorium on March 24 at 8:30 p.m. An identical program will be presented March 25 in Pontiac Northern High School auditorium.

Messrs. David Hoover, Felix Resnick and Richard Goldsworthy will alternate in conducting the 95 piece orchestra.

Edward Sauve of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will be the featured soloist.

The program includes the Academic Festival Overture by Brahms; Pines of Rome; and the Horn Concerto No. 3 by Mozart.

The March 24 concert will comprise part of the centenary celebration of the founding of Rochester.

The Pontiac performance is one of the regularly - scheduled concerts for season ticket holders. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Tickets for the Rochester concert (with half price for students) may be obtained at the Village Box Office, 100 West University Drive from today on, during the hours of 10 to 12 a.m. and 2 to 4 p.m., or at the High School box office prior to the performance.

Three Women Named to Receive Awards

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — Theta Sigma Phi, a professional society of women journalists, Friday named Marion Corwell, first woman employe on a management level at the Ford Motor Co., in Detroit, to receive the group's 1969 Headliner Award.

Also named to receive the organization's highest award were Washington Post president Katherine Graham and nationally syndicated columnist Erma Bombeck.

Miss Corwell — Mrs. William J Shertzer in private life — is an educational affairs representative of the public relations staff of Ford. She is president-elect of American Women in Radio and Television.

MRS. JOHN L. WEBSTER

Silk Organza Is Selected for Nuptials

Spec. 5 John L. Webster, USA, and his bride, the former Cheryl Hankins, will reside in Indiana at Fort Benjamin Harrison, where he is stationed.

They were wed Saturday afternoon in Church of the Atonement, United Presbyterian.

The bride selected a gown of silk organza and Chantilly lace, embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of carnations and lily of the valley.

ATTENDANTS

Deborah Hall was maid of honor for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Causby Hankins of Mann Road. Donald Webster was best man. Completing the wedding party were Toni Berletti, Mrs. Ronald LeClair, Charles and Gilbert Bush and Daniel Ellenbrook.

A reception in the church parlors honored the newlyweds.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Erich Bahrke of Walton Boulevard and the late Glen Webster.

Tempting Cinnamon Rolls Will Gather Compliments

By JANET ODELL
Food Editor, The Pontiac Press

Wouldn't the family like to have some fresh homemade cinnamon rolls? The compliments you'll get will far outweigh any extra time you take.

Mrs. Robert Hillman of Holly, our cook today, says, "Lots of gals have used this recipe and have good results the first time."

A bread baker of some 10 years, Mrs. Hillman has won a number of first places at the Michigan State Fair. She has five children, teaches sewing to girls in 4-H and does sewing alterations at home.

CINNAMON ROLLS
By Mrs. Robert Hillman

½ cup mashed potatoes	½ cup warm water
½ cup margarine	1 teaspoon salt
¼ cup sugar	1 package dry yeast
2 eggs	3½ cups sifted flour

Have all ingredients at room temperature. Put first 6 ingradients in bowl and stir. Add yeast dissolved in a little hot water. Then stir in flour. Dough will be sticky.

Cover with wax paper and let rise in a warm place for 1½ to 2 hours, or until double.

Stir down and turn out on floured board. Roll ¼ inch thick. Brush with melted margarine and sprinkle ½ to 1 cup brown sugar and 1 teaspoon cinnamon over dough. Add raisins or nuts as desired.

ROLL AND CUT

Roll up like a jelly roll and cut into ½-inch slices. Put into 9x12 greased pan or two pie pans. Cover and let rise again for one hour.

Bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes, or until golden brown. Frost while warm with confectioner's sugar icing if desired.

If you want plain buns, add a little more flour to the dough after the first rising. Form balls the size of walnuts and place in greased pan. Bake 15-20 minutes at 400 degrees.

The engagement of Patricia Ann Rea to John Leroy Schalm is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Rea of Buss Drive, Commerce Township. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy J. Schalm of Mt. Clemens. The wedding will take place July 19.

Circle Dates on Calendar for Concerts

Two area groups, The Birmingham Musicale and the Detroit Committee for Seven Eastern Women's Colleges, Inc., are planning benefit "Cabaret Concerts."

April 25 is the evening chosen by the Musicale. The 8:30 p.m. event featuring the Detroit Symphony Orchestra conducted by Arthur Fiedler, takes place in Detroit Light Guard Armory on East Eight Mile Road.

In addition to the scheduled selection of symphonic classics and a group of popular tunes by the Symphony, Cynthia Raim, young pianist, will make her sixth appearance as guest soloist.

Proceeds from this performance will be used by The Musicale to support its scholarship fund. Mrs. Wilson R. Richards, chairman, has announced the theme of the concert is "Invest Today for Music Tomorrow."

SECOND CONCERT

The second group's concert is to take place the following evening also at The Detroit Light Guard Armory at 8:30 p.m.

Gaily decorated tables for four, soft lights and refreshments will highlight the evening.

Proceeds from this benefit will be used to send Michigan girls to Barnard, Bryn Mawr, Mt. Holyoke, Radcliffe, Smith, Vassar and Wellesley.

Use Candle Stubs

Save all the candle stubs that are too small to burn, put them in a small cloth bag and keep the bag on the ironing board. Then, when the iron shows a tendency to stick or drag, a quick rub over the bag will make it slide smoothly again.

Case No. H-565

Cut All Liquids Down

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE H-565: Thelma R., aged 36, is forlorn.

"Dr. Crane," she moaned, "I look like that waddling walrus you often mention in your column.

DR. CRANE

"For I weigh 166 pounds. Yet I am only 5 feet 3 inches tall!

"And when we were first married, I weighed only 114.

"My husband treats me like his mother and no longer shows any romantic interest in me.

"So I know I should diet. But I simply can't resist the candy and fruit and soft drinks that we have in the refrigerator.

"Is there any simple way to diet?"

Dieting is really harder than to stop cigarettes or liquor, for you can quite them all at once without jeopardizing your health.

But you must consume some food daily to keep from growing weak and hampering your faithful heart.

So we psychologists have found that it is harder to taper off than to quit a bad habit all at once.

* * *

But a basic rule for controlling the emotions is to control your surroundings.

"Look not on the wine while it is red," thus warned the Bible. Which means, strip the deck for action.

Empty your refrigerator of unnecessary temptation and avoid the extra beverage intake, even of non-fattening drinks.

For liquid intake helps stimulate gastric juice secretion, which then makes you crave food to neutralize the hydrochloric acid therein!

And don't serve food on large platters, family style, in the center of the table!

Instead, ladle out your quota in the kitchen and then you will have nothing to make your stomach let out an extra notch while at the table.

For your stomach, via your eyes, will actually stretch to fit the volume of food out in front.

A German scientist named Bayer thus found that a starved hen, when placed in front of a 100-gram pile of wheat, would eat about 50 grams and then stop.

But if the pile were doubled, she wouldn't stop till she had consumed about 60 per cent more wheat!

We humans do the very same thing.

In cool weather, try my dehydration diet, which doesn't involve the use of drugs that race your heart and overload the kidneys.

* * *

Limit yourself to one full glass (8 oz.) of total fluids the first day; then two glasses the second day; and three glasses from the third through the 10th.

Meanwhile, stick to 800 calories of food per day for women and 1,200 for men.

* * *

Include 500 calories worth of high protein foods, like meat, cottage cheese, beans, etc., for your muscles need fresh protein daily, since protein is not stored in the body, though you have plenty of fat and sugar therein.

After 10 days you will be down at least 10 pounds.

Mrs. Gentile Is Speaker

"You and Your United Nations" is to be the topic of Mrs. Phillips Gentile of Lathrup Village when she appears as guest speaker at the Thursday meeting of the Waterford branch, American Association of University Women.

* * *

Mrs. Gentile served as the official delegate of UNESCO at the United Nations conferences in Paris, Rome and Geneva.

Mrs. Lloyd Syron will host the group in her Westlawn Street home. She will be assisted by Mrs. H. Louis DeVito. The meeting begins at 8 p.m.

A Multiplicity of Edwardses

DELTA, Colo. (UPI) — Three babies all born within a month at the Memorial Hospital here all had listed "Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards" as parents — but they are not relatives. Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards of Delta had a baby daughter born about Christmas time.

* * *

A few days later, Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards of nearby Paonia, Colo., were parents of a son. Three days later Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards Jr. of Delta announced the birth of a daughter. The three Edwards families are not related.

Cranbrook Sets Youth Classes

The Young People's Art Center of Cranbrook Academy of Art Galleries will hold six 90-minute sessions for young people seven through 19, weekly from March 25 through June 3.

Classes meet from 4 to 5:30 p.m. on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays with Saturday schedules starting at 9:30 a.m., 1 and 3 p.m.

* * *

Guided tours of the Galleries are available for school groups all day Monday and on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday mornings. A drawing lesson relating to the tour also may be arranged.

Dorati Will Conduct

Antal Dorati, who last month was named conductor of the Washington National Symphony effective 1970, will appear as guest conductor with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Thursday and Saturday.

Both concerts will be at 8:30 p.m. in Ford Auditorium.

Dorati is the last of six guest conductors to appear with the Symphony this season. Jean Martinon, Werner Torkanowsky, Sergui Comissiona,, Hans Werner Henze, and Seiji Ozawa conducted previous concerts.

EHRLING

Symphony music director Sixten Ehrling, who just concluded two weeks of guest appearances with the San Francisco Symphony, will conduct two Buffalo Philharmonic concerts this week.

Dorati's program consists of the Haydn Symphony No. 12, the Mozart Symphony No. 14, and the Shostakovich Symphony No. 10.

* * *

Dorati is currently music director of the Stockholm Philharmonic, which he recently led on an American tour. Though born in Hungary, he has been an American citizen for many years. He served as music director of the Minneapolis Symphony from 1949 to 1960 and of the Dallas Symphony from 1945 to 1949.

He appeared with the Detroit Symphony once before, in 1953.

MRS. LUKE M. LITTLE JR.

Kirk in the Hills was the setting Saturday for vows uniting Sharon K. Scott and Luke M. Little Jr. Their parents are the Alexander Scotts of Detroit and the senior Littles of Inwoods Circle, Bloomfield Township.

Miss Scott Is Bride of Luke M. Little Jr.

Sharon Kathileen Scott became Mrs. Luke MacDonald Little Jr. in vows spoken Saturday in Kirk in the Hills.

For the candlelight ceremony, the bride selected a gown of peau satin with Venice lace in a window pane design forming the high-necked bodice and cap sleeve. She carried a Victorian cluster of Eucharist lilies, Stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Louis Rebeck was matron of honor for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander E. Scott of Detroit.

ATTENDANTS

William H. Little was best man for his brother. Others in the wedding party were: Patricia Thornton, Georganne Lark, Rose Marie Skonieczny, Mary Ellen DeGraff, Cheryl Lynn Zielke, Thomas Davis, Thomas Hersem, Richard Bylier, Gale Mull, Michael Evanoff, Charles Nemetz and Walter Wengren.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luke M. Little of Inwoods Circle, Bloomfield Township.

Rescues Child by Lifting Car

LIVERPOOL, England (AP) — As a four-year-old girl lay screaming, trapped beneath a car, Mrs. Betty Doherty, 35, who weighs 210 pounds, pushed through the crowd and tried to lift the car.

"To my amazement," she said today, "the front right corner of the car came clear off the ground. Then I shouted to someone to grab the child.

The girl, Carmel Graham, is now home after two weeks in a hospital with head injuries. Her father, Frank Graham, says Mrs. Doherty and the other rescuer should get a medal.

A sopkesman for Vauxhall Motors, which made the car, said Mrs. Doherty would have been lifting a weight of about 500 pounds.

The Guinness Book of Records says that in 1960 a Mrs. Maxwell Rogers of Tampa, Fla., lifted one end of a 3,600-pound car to extricate her son.

When baby goes out in public, take along a plastic bag containing a cloth wrung out of thick soap or detergent suds. Then, when a favorite toy is tossed "overboard," it can be washed off and returned to the wee owner before the wails begin.

Next Day's Outfit May Be Planned Ahead of Time

If you're a working girl, looking your best every day can be a problem. One way to ease the strain of looking "just right" is to plan what you're going to wear at least one day in advance — a quick look at an outfit will determine whether it can be worn again or should be sent to the cleaners or laundered first.

* * *

If you're mix-matching your separates, make sure that blue blouse goes with the tweed skirt, before you have to make a mad dash for the office at 8 a.m. and end up wearing them whether they clash or not.

Programmed Alarm System

A pre-programmed telephone alarm system which will automatically call police if a home or business is broken into now is available.

* * *

The manufacturer says when there's an intruder the system automatically contacts police or fire departments with prerecorded information, giving authorities the name and address of the troubled location.

The system operates on a two-track system connected to house current. If there is a power failure, batteries take over, insuring fail-safe operation.

Help Children Improve Skills

The educational field is becoming an exciting and challenging involvement for lay citizenry who wish to participate in a new personalized concept of American growth. Busy teachers now need the help of reliable volunteers.

* * *

The Oakland County Volunteer Bureau can place you in a school near your home where you may tutor children on a one to one basis. You do not have to a scholastic expert, but a patient, understanding attitude is most important in helping a child improve in his weaker areas.

* * *

You can learn more about serving as a teacher's aide by making an appointment today with the Bureau in Birmingham.

It's a Dog's Life for Her Pet Pig

TIPTON, Iowa (AP) — Arnold, the pet pig of Mrs. Abner Peterson, does everything a dog does except bark. In fact, the 180-pound Chester White porker thinks he is a dog.

* * *

Mrs. Peterson adopted Arnold from a neighbor when he was a week old and since then he has been living in a doghouse with four pet dogs, playing, sleeping and eating with them. He even fights over and chews on bones.

Moisten Nipples to Avoid Spills

Every mother learns, at the cost of formula spilled on the kitchen or nursery floor, that rubber nipples are sometimes hard to put on baby's bottles.

* * *

Keep a covered jar of sterile water and always insert the bottom edge of the nipple in the water before putting it on the neck of the bottle. It slips on easily when wet.

CHATS WITH ACTRESS—George Schaefer is shown chatting with actress Jean Seberg during the filming of "Pendulum." Noted for his directorial work on television, Schaefer has followed a host of other directors in making the switch to motion pictures. Over a 15-year period, he produced and/or directed 56 Hallmark Hall of Fame telecasts. Now he's working on his second movie.

Noted TV Director on 2nd Film

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Television's latest donation to films is George Schaefer, the multi-Emmy winner who produced or directed 56 Hallmark Hall of Fame Telecasts over a 15-year period.

THOMAS

Schaefer has now made the move to feature films. He directed the just-released "Pendulum" with George Peppard and Jean Seberg and next month begins shooting "Generation," with David Janssen and Carl Reiner.

★ ★ ★

Thus Schaefer follows the TV-to-film move of John Frankenheimer, Delbert Mann, Arthur Penn, Franklin Schaffner, Jack Smite and a host of others. But most of them made the transition 10 or 15 years ago. Why did Schaefer wait so long?

"Because I had the one setup in television that was ideal," said the director. "With the Hall of Fame, I had complete artistic freedom. I was able to choose from the best of dramatic literature, old and new, and I worked with great casts, Helen Hayes, Lunt and Fontanne, Katherine Cornell, Richard Burton, Charlton Heston, Peter Ustinov, etc.

GIANT AUDIENCE

"The plays appeared before a giant audience of 15 million or so. And I was able to establish my own production company. If other film directors had enjoyed this kind of canvas to paint on, they wouldn't have left television."

Schaefer explained why he finally made the move last year:

"The situation at Hallmark changed so that I was no longer dealing with one man but with a committee; and I could no longer find four or five exciting subjects to do each year."

★ ★ ★

George Schaefer has the appearance of a high school math teacher, but appearances deceive; like all directors he is tough minded about his work. He is polite but firm with actors, talking in a rapid-fire manner. An eccentricity is his preference to direct from a wheelchair; he figures he can get around the set faster.

"Pendulum" seemed like a strange choice for Schaefer's debut as a film director. It is a murder-and-chase tale, and he had been identified on television with ancient and modern classics.

SOUND REASONING

"I admit it was the last picture people expected me to do," he remarked. "That's why I chose it. And I must say that my reasoning was sound. Even before the picture had been seen, I was receiving quantities of offers for other films."

He admitted that he missed the excitement of television, when he could rehearse the cast for three weeks and tape a play in three or four days.

Rites for Sailor

TECUMSEH (AP) — A funeral Mass was held today for Donald Lee Rudd, a Navy medical corpsman from Tecumseh, who was shot by a sniper in Vietnam March 3 while trying to help a wounded Marine onto a stretcher.

Rent Not the Ticket for Traffic Bureau

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Police Stationary Traffic Bureau ran into a slight bureaucratic thicket when it transferred to Cobo Hall recently.

The 56-man bureau, which directs traffic in the downtown area, has been docked $250 a month for rent.

★ ★ ★

"We treat the police just like anyone else," said William Finnin, director of the Detroit Civic Center Commission.

The city of Detroit owns Cobo Hall and, of course, pays the police.

★ ★ ★

Finnin said the rent is probably lower than comparable quarters would be elswhere. Over-crowding forced the move.

FAGIN'S BOY—Jack Wild plays the part of Artful Dodger in the movie version of "Oliver." He says he hopes the part works the same wonders for him as it did for Anthony Newley, who at Jack's age of 15 played the part in an early nonmusical version, and for Davey Jones of Monkees fame, who triumphed in it on Broadway in 1963.

Young Actor Grew Into Part

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Wild literally had to grow into the role of the Artful Dodger in the movie version of "Oliver."

★ ★ ★

Four years ago when the self-assured young man was appearing as one of Fagin's boys in the London stage production — as was his older brother Arthus, Jack had only one wish — "to do the Artful Dodger."

★ ★ ★

But at 12 he was too young and too short — only 4 foot 4 — for the role of the cocky young man who leads little Oliver through the Charles Dickens' odyssey.

★ ★ ★

A year passed and Jack moved on to play one of the leading boys in the gang, the boy called Charlie Bates.

TALL ENOUGH

By the time casting started for the movie version, Jack was 15 and both old enough and tall enough to land the coveted role.

Now Jack says he hopes the part works the same wonders for as it did for Anthony Newley, who at Jack's age played the part in an early nonmusical version and for Davey Jones of Monkees' fame, who triumphed in it on Broadway in 1963.

★ ★ ★

"If I had my choice I'd prefer to specialize in comedy, but I'll take anything that comes along," says Jack who's been tabbed "a young version of James Cagney."

The same nonfussy attitude pertains to girls. "Sure I like girls," he says. "Girls. Just Girls. I'm not particular."

ONE REGRET

Discovered (along with his brother) by a child talent scout while both boys were playing near their home in a London suburb, Jack has only one regret about entering theatrical life — "not enough time to play football."

During the filming he spent most of his lunch hours at the sport.

★ ★ ★

GOP Firing Most of the Flak at Milliken

By WILLIAM B. KETTER

LANSNG (UPI) — Traditionally, a new governor enjoys a honeymoon with the Legislature — a period when the lawmakers are disposed to be as generous with him as possible.

Seven weeks into Gov. William G. Milliken's administration, the Capitol crack is: "When does the honeymoon begin?"

Milliken, who'll turn 47 March 26, has fielded heavy legislative flak on highway and recreational bond spending plans since taking the oath of office.

Strangely, most of the criticism has come from GOP legislators, giving the impression Milliken's biggest chore during the 1969 session may be selling fellow Republicans, not opposite party Democrats.

DISPLEASURE

Even two long-time Milliken friends, Senate Majority Leader Emil Lockwood of St. Louis and House Minority Leader Robert E. Waldron of Grosse Pionte, are indicating displeasure with some of the governor's programs.

Lockwood is a cosponsor of a legislative resolution to prevent Milliken from diverting $1.6 million from the highway fund for State Police patrols.

Waldron says he doesn't expect the governor's plan to spend the lion's share of the $100-million recreational bond issue in urban areas to get far.

But neither of the GOP leaders look upon their positions as anti-Milliken.

INEVITABLE

They contend it's all part of the government process — that it's inevitable that legislative and executive ideas differ from time to time.

"No matter what a governor's party affiliation," Waldron said, "his programs very seldom get through in the same form they started."

★ ★ ★

Maybe so. But Milliken is bent on having one of the few programs that succeeded.

He knows his detractors are keeping a detailed legislative log in an attempt to prove their theory he's too nice to be an effective governor.

POLITE PERSUASION

Milliken isn't the type to call in Republican legislators and demand they get in line or face his political wrath. His style is to let them know in a soft sort of way that he's counting on them when the chips are down.

"He's not a desk pounder or browbeater or anything remotely resembling that," said one Milliken watcher. "But he has shown a quiet intensity — an almost grim determination — to push through barriers and obstructions, to get the job done, whatever it is."

★ ★ ★

Milliken couldn't have picked a tougher issue than the recreational bond program for an early test of his power of political persuasion. He knew from the start he would get lots of heat from all corners.

Several "neutral" or "fence straddler" positions on the bond matter were suggested to him. He rejected them all.

"I'm going to do what I feel I must do in order to convince the Legislature of the soundness of this decision — and I'm not concerned about the political consequences," Milliken told a recent news conference.

"I've never felt more comfortable on an issue than I do on this. I am totally convinced of its soundness and necessity."

★ ★ ★

For openers, Milliken discussed the bond program with the State Natural Resources Commission Friday, and got its reluctant support.

"We assured the governor we would go along with whatever the final allocation was, regardless of our personal feelings on the matter," said Commissioner E. M. Laitala of Hancock.

"Very frankly, though the commission would still prefer the 70-30 split we feel was sold to the people."

Plymouth Scores Most Points in Three Tests

A Plymouth Fury I scored the highest number of points of all 60 cars that competed in fuel economy, acceleration and braking tests of the Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials at Daytona Beach, Fla.

The Plymouth Fury, competing in Class V for cars equipped with standard V-8 engines, scored a total of 98 performance points out of a possible 100.

Two other Plymouth entries finished first in their respective classes, giving the Plymouth line of cars winners in three out of the nine classes of competition.

Other Plymouth winners were a Valiant Signet in Class VII for six-cylinder compact economy cars, and a Barracuda in Class IX for sports compacts.

The Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials, held under the supervision of the National Association for Stock Car Racing, compared the basic performance characteristics of American-made 1969 models which are in the popular price ranges.

The fuel economy tests measured a car's fuel consumption at an average speed of 40 miles per hour over a distance of 18.567 miles.

The acceleration tests measured the time it took a car to accelerate from 25 to 70 miles per hour.

The braking tests demonstrated the car's high-speed stopping capability immediately after severe brake usage.

The 60 stock cars competing in the tests were taken directly from dealers' showrooms throughout the country to provide a realistic comparison of various makes and models.

Wagon Air Deflector

The 1969 Plymouth Fury station wagon models have a new and efficient air deflector, mounted at the rear of the roof to divert air around and across the big rear window, significantly reducing vision obstruction. By blowing clean air over the window, the deflector prevents rain, dust and grit from accumulating.

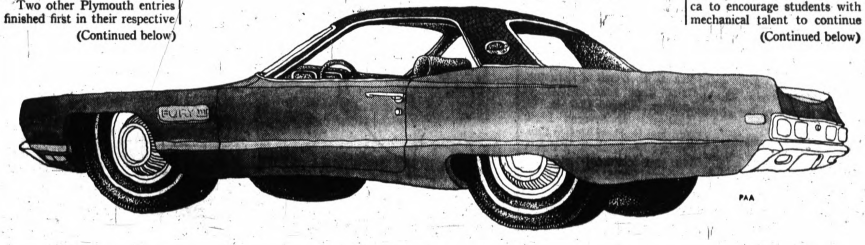
Announcing a special new Plymouth.



At a special low price.

Everyone says special, but we really mean it. Snapper's a new limited edition car like Plymouth has never made before. It'll shield you from weather's whims under a groovy turtle-shell vinyl top and carry you in a metallic muted-gold body. It has a "camp" Snapper emblem, like the one in the middle, on each roof pillar. An extended roofline that lets your rear seat passengers actually lean back (over 3" extra head room). And, of course, many of the "special" features that most people want: deluxe vinyl interior, white sidewalls, deluxe wheel covers, bumper guards, and a kicky little time-delay ignition switch light, all at a special package price (again, we really mean special). Naturally, you can personalize a Snapper even more, with everything from a Super Commando 440 V-8 to air conditioning or 8-track stereo; just ask your dealer. As a limited edition model with your own personal options, Snapper is a truly individual vehicle. See one now, at your Plymouth Dealer.

2,000 Teams of Students Competing in Plymouth's Trouble Shooting Contest

Teams of student mechanics from more than 2,000 high schools and colleges in every state of the Union will compete for $125,000 worth of prizes in the 21st annual Plymouth TroubleShooting Contest.

The contest is sponsored by the Chrysler-Plymouth Division of Chrysler Motors Corporation and Plymouth Dealers of America to encourage students with mechanical talent to continue their education and pursue careers in the growing automotive service business.

The winning two-man team at each of the 100 regional and state contests being held this spring will compete for $125,000 worth of scholarships, prizes, trophies and automotive equipment for their schools at the National Finals at the Indianapolis 500 Speedway in mid-June.

Winners at local and national contests are chosen by the speed and skill with which they find and fix malfunctions under the hood of a new Plymouth and restore the car to normal operating condition. All teams work on identical cars that have been deliberately tampered with in the same way.

Plymouth Dealers sponsor a two-man team from their local school and make a Plymouth car available to practice on. The teams from the 2,000 participating schools, which have a combined enrollment of 150,000 students taking automotive shop courses, are selected by school instructors.

The Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest originated in Los Angeles in 1949. It was sponsored by Plymouth Dealers there who sought to recruit young men as mechanic trainees. The annual contest grew in size as educators gave it their support.

Since the contest became national in scope in 1962, scholarships have been awarded to 116 students and full or part-time jobs have been found for more than 15,000 young men.

Waterford Ban on Open Trash Burning Is Set

A record number of grass fires over the weekend has prompted Waterford Township fire officials to impose a ban on open burning of trash until weather conditions change.

Fire Chief Lewis A. Goff said trash burning will be allowed only during evenings and then only in a minimum 55-gallon drum with at least a half-inch wire mesh covering.

"Citations will be issued against violators," Goff said.

He blamed 62 weekend grass blazes on the area's monthlong lack of significant precipitation.

Laird Defense of ABM Set

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird must go before Congress twice this week to defend President Nixon's decision on the modified antiballistic missile (ABM) system.

While the lawmakers prepared for their first crack at questioning the new plan, initial soundings indicated the proposal will win eventual approval — easily in the House, more closely in the Senate.

* * *

Laird's first appearance will come Wednesday at a private session of the Senate Armed Services Committee, a panel generally friendly to the ABM idea. The second will be Friday in a public hearing before the much more critical Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Nixon's ABM proposal envisions deployment of defense missiles around offensive missile sites in the United States.

GUARD FOR OFFENSE

The defensive missiles would guard the offensive missiles in order to guarantee the nation could strike back against any country that attacked with a wave of nuclear missiles.

Nixon's so-called "Safeguard" system would also offer "some" protection for cities from a relatively crude type of attack that might come from Communist China.

The ABM plan is wrapped up in at least four separate bills, so Congress will get at least four chances to vote on it. It looked as though the plan would sail through the House with little difficulty, but the question was a bit tighter in the Senate.

"Safeguard" was expected to have a better chance than its predecessor, "Sentinel," in the Senate, however.

ARGUMENTS FOR SYSTEM

Even before the hearings began, Deputy Defense Secretary David Packard began lofting some of the arguments for the system. In a television appearance yesterday, Packard said the ABM could not be used "without the authority of the President."

Rape Alleged by City Woman

Pontiac police have charged a Waterford Township man with the rape of a 29-year-old Pontiac woman.

Arrested at the scene was Richard S. Martin, 27, of 4560 Independence. He was being held in Oakland County Jail this morning awaiting arraignment.

* * *

The victim told police that she and Martin were drinking beer at her residence last night when he attacked her.

She told police Martin choked and raped her.

'BROKE AWAY'

The woman said she broke away from Martin and ran naked across the street to her mother's home and called police.

She suffered minor injuries on the forehead and leg during the struggle, police said.

Board to Open Bids on Fleet of Police Cars

The Waterford Township Board will open bids on a new fleet of police cars at its meeting tonight. In addition, a bid date will be set for the sale of used vehicles.

In other business scheduled at the 7:30 meeting at Waterford Township High School, 1415 Crescent Lake, proposed ordinances on weapons and disorderly persons will be given first notice.

* * *

Fireworks applications for the Lakeland Estates subdivision on Shoreline near Dixie and the Oakland County fair (June 19-22) also will be aired.

An application from a Detroit firm for an amusement park license to build a giant slide at 7100 Cooley Lake is scheduled.

The library report for February and the treasurer's report for January and February will be heard.

ABE COHEN

City-Based Electric Firm Names Head

Abe Cohen has been named president of the Standard Electric Co. by its board of directors. He was previously executive vice president and general manager of the firm.

Standard Electric Co.'s main office is at 175 S. Saginaw and has branches in Saginaw, Midland and Ferndale.

* * *

Cohen of 304 W. Iroquois joined the firm in 1945 as sales manager and was appointed general manager in 1955.

2 Car Victims Still Treated

Two Pontiac children, injured when struck by cars in separate accidents Friday, are reportedly still undergoing treatment in Pontiac General Hospital.

* * *

Listed in serious condition is Jeffrey L. Harris, 5, of 97 S. Marshall. He was hit by a car at Auburn and Anderson about 3:35 p.m.

* * *

Reported in satisfactory condition with a fractured arm is Veronica Contreras, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Contreras of 741 Loundsbury.

* * *

She was struck in a hit-and-run mishap at Montcalm and Summit about 3:45 p.m. Police said they are still seeking the driver of the car.

Official Seeks Suit's Dismissal

Oakland County Corporation Counsel Robert Allen says he has asked for dismissal of a suit brought by George Williams, 2556 Red Arrow, Commerce Township, against Commerce Township and Oakland County treasurers in Walled Lake District Court.

* * *

Williams' suit requested a refund of nonvoted property taxes levied last year in excess of the 15-mill limitation.

Allen contends the suit was filed improperly and that it does not comply with district court rules.

* * *

The matter is to come up March 25 before Judge Martin Boyle in Walled Lake.

State Auction of Property in County Slated

Nearly $21,000 of tax-reverted state property in Oakland County will go on sale at 10 a.m. March 26 in the courthouse auditorium.

There are 82 pieces of property involved, according to Deputy County Treasurer Wayne McDonnell.

* * *

The auction March 26 also will include property in Macomb County and another sale March 28 at the Detroit City-County Building will offer property in Wayne County.

The State Department of Natural Resources reveals that some 330 pieces of property in all, valued to $180,000, will be sold in the three counties.

*

Details of land descriptions are available from the treasurers of the three counties.

The huge Strategic Air Command bomber swung into position for takeoff. The six jet engines whined with power as they lifted the giant aircraft off the runway into the gray light of dawn.

SMOAK

Climbing slowly, since it was fully loaded with fuel (the equivalent of three large tank truckloads), the B47 turned on a heading that would put it over the heart of nearby Little Rock, Ark., in less than five minutes, at an altitude of 18,000 feet. The date was March 31, 1960.

In the copilot's seat, 1st Lt. Tom. Smoak, a native of Richmond, Va., let his thoughts run back to the hours before takeoff. The alarm had gone off at 3:15 a.m. and he had slipped out of bed to keep from waking his wife, Betsy. He followed his usual custom of spending those first few moments reading his Bible, communing with God in a "quiet time."

Tom picked up a card on which he had written a Bible verse he intended to memorize on this particular flight. It read:

"The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord: and he delighteth in his way. Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the Lord upholdeth him with His hand."

MORNING OF MIRACLES

Opening the closet he looked at the two flight suits that hung before him. One was the light, comfortable nylon suit which pilots prefer to wear. The other was the heavy, bulky, fire-resistant suit which he seldom wore because of its awkwardness.

Tom reached for the heavy flight suit. He didn't question the decision, simply having a deep feeling that God intended it to be that way. The morning of miracles had begun.

★ ★ ★

The radio crackled to life in the cockpit of the B47. Tom wrote a message on his clipboard as the plane climbed to 18,000 feet.

Suddenly it began to lurch and vibrate violently. Tom knew that the airplane was out of control and automatically reached for the ejection seat release in case he needed it.

PLANE EXPLODES

He never got a chance to pull the release. Without warning the airplane exploded. It was 6:07 a.m. and they were directly over the heart of Little Rock.

Tom's only thought was escape. The canopy blew off but before he could fire the seat ejection release, he was instantoneously immersed in tons of burning fuel that poured into the cockpit.

★ ★ ★

Strapped in the wreckage, he was burning alive as he hurtled toward the earth below.

Tom's helmet was ripped off by the force of the explosions. His whole head was engulfed in flames. His hands were a mass of burning flesh. The fire-resistant suit melted where it stretched tightly across his knees and shoulders.

Tom passed out from the pain.

When he opened his eyes a second time he was swinging from his parachute—free from the wreckage which was plummeting toward the city below. The fire which burned Tom so badly also had burned away the canvas parachute pack. The wind, whistling through the falling wreckage, grabbed the parachute silk and sucked him out of the fuselage, allowing him to float free of the falling plane.

The pain was gone. As he dangled from the cords of his parachute he watched the wreckage plummet into the heart of the city below.

Suddenly he realized the parachute was not descending at a normal rate. In fact, the ground was rushing up toward him at incredible speed. He tore his gaze away from the earth and looked upward.

The same fire that had burned off the canvas pack had also burned away one-fourth of the chute itself. He wasn't floating, but hurtling toward the housetops below.

HEARD EXPLOSION

At 6:07 a.m. most of the people in the city were just getting up. Like many others, Mrs. O. B. Holeman heard the ear-shattering explosion and raced into her front yard. What she saw horrified her.

Mrs. Holeman, a nurse, said, "I was standing in my front yard and saw him coming down at a tremendous rate of speed." She screamed, realizing that he would smash into her concrete driveway.

★ ★ ★

The summer before the Holemans had debated cutting down two identical trees that spanned their driveway. They decided to let them stand.

That morning, when Tom Smoak hurtled out of the heavens, his streaming parachute snagged the tops of both trees. They were the exact height of the combined length of his parachute silk, cords, and his body.

As he flashed by the tree limbs grabbed his chute, bent inward just enough to let him recline softly on the driveway, and then gently straightened up, pulling him into an upright position.

When the Holemans and their neighbors rushed into the back yard, instead of a broken body they found a badly burned but very much alive Tom Smoak, standing on his good foot—and giving orders how to unfasten the parachute harness.

Two persons died on the ground that morning, and of the four crewmen aboard the plane Tom Smoak was the only survivor.

Tom spent the next two years going through 20 operations for plastic surgery. The doctors marveled that no fire had touched his lungs, eyes, or throat.

Because Tom Smoak believes that God saves to serve, today he is back in the air again. This time he flies for the Lord as a member of the flying team for Wycliffe Bible translators.

Truman Rail Car Set for Auction

VERNON, Calif. (AP) — The private railroad car and observation platform from which former President Harry S. Truman "gave 'em hell" in his 1948 campaign will be sold at auction Thursday. The bid could run as high as $50,000.

The platform and car, midnight blue and gold, were the last in which a U.S. president barnstormed the country in an election campaign. The present owner of the 28-year-old car is Thomas F. Baker, San Francisco land developer and cotton planter.

209,327 tons gross were lost by fire, collision and foundering in the last quarter of 1967.

Farmers Week Program Begins at MSU

EAST LANSING (AP) — The time - honored and traditional Farmers Week program at Michigan State University sports a new look—green - and - brown circus tents in the parking lot—and a new time this year.

The program got under way on campus today and will continue through Friday. Usually it is held in late January or early February.

★ ★ ★

"But conditions have been a little cramped in the past couple years," says Byron Good, MSU professor of animal husbandry and general chairman of Farmers Week activities.

"There are about 40,000 students on the campus, and with about 20,000 visitors . . . well, it was difficult to work around the students."

SPRING BREAK

So program planners moved the dates back to coincide with the students' spring break and are hoping for a "more convenient" week of activities.

In previous years, for instance, some discussion sessions were scattered across the sprawling MSU campus because regular classes were being held in buildings close to the Farmers Week exhibits.

★ ★ ★

This year, Good says, planners expect to hold a majority of the sessions in the general area of the livestock pavillion, where many of the exhibits will be set up.

Additional exhibits — "new, modern, labor-saving machinery" valued at up to $50,000—will be set up under two huge circus tents in parking lots.

More farm machinery will be displayed in both the north and south stadium concourses and exhibits of silo manufacturers and some metal building suppliers will also be located in the stadium area.

Some day your kids will have problems as big as yours. But, if you haven't enough insurance, those problems may come at a bad time.

While they're still kids.

Prudential understands how many things you want to give your child. Perhaps the most important is childhood itself. But good intentions aren't always enough. If you haven't done enough providing for the future, your son might be exposed to a man's problems. Before he becomes a man.

PROTECT THOSE "GROWING UP YEARS". You can see to it that the family keeps going if you're not there. It's simple as Prudential's "continuing income" insurance.

Prudential's "continuing income" insurance can guarantee your family a monthly check month after month. Money to pay the mortgage or rent, buy the food and clothing, even help cover the cost of college.

WANT VS. AFFORD. This may be the kind of protection you want. But, you wonder, is it within your means? Easiest way to convince yourself: talk to your Prudential man. He's the expert at turning the protection you want into the protection you can afford.

It just goes to show that Prudential understands.

McCormack Still Facing Question of Age

WASHINGTON (AP) — The President of the United States stands at the rostrum of the House of Representatives addressing Congress, his countrymen and the world.

Suddenly coming into focus over the President's left shoulder is a solem gray wraith in a dark suit, squiting through rimless spectacls. The ghost of politics past?

★ ★ ★

John W. McCormack, 77, speaker of the House of Representatives, has spanned the era from the gaslights and carriages of the 19th century to a nervous nuclear world and revolutionary riots of the last half of the 20th century.

Some of his Democratic colleagues — but apparently only a minority in the seniority-worshipping House — feel he is too much of the past, that he symbolizes the "Old Politics" in image, style and bent—that his personality is not strong enough to fill the second most powerful office in Washington particularly in Democratic hard times with a Republican in the White House.

One powerful Democrat hoots at this:

"There is nothing the matter with John McCormack. The only trouble is that he looks like a corpse on television. That's what bothers them."

OLD-FASHIONED

McCormack operates from an office only a few feet from the House floor. There is an old-fashioned atmosphere of plush and gilt and cigar smoke.

In the outer office, under diamond-bright chandeliers and a muraled ceiling, a half dozen men work at desks pushed back to back. Capitol Hill is noted for attractive secretaries. But there are no women here. There is seminary quiet.

★ ★ ★

In the privacy of the speaker's office — where for decades the fate of politicians and legislation has been debated and compromised — McCormack must ponder whether this is his last term.

No speaker has been toppled in the century by a party insurrection — only by his party losing control of the House.

WELL ARMED

Any Don Quixote attacking this windmill better beware of his political life, for the speaker is well armed. Through his various powers, control and discretions he can exercise tremendous influence on legislation and appropriations. Among his weapons: His right to refuse to recognize members on the floor and his discretionary privilege of entertaining or refusing to entertain a motion.

AP Wirephoto

LONG-DISTANCE RUNNER—Speaker John W. McCormack gavels the U.S. House of Representatives to order. Speaker since 1962, McCormack was recently elected for a fourth term. There are rumors that this may be the 77-year-old Democrat's last term of office.

Nevertheless, this January McCormack faced a challenge — which he turned aside — led by an aggressive, youthful liberal, Rep. Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz.

Would McCormack win again two years from now, in a new Congress, when he would be 79 and his party would be preparing for the 1972 presidential election?

A veteran McCormick watcher and admirer says, "Maybe he wouldn't have tried for the job this year. He's a funny guy. He won't run away from a fight, especially if he knows he can win. If they hadn't pushed him about his age . . ."

BAD BLOOD REMAINS

Some who would like to see McCormack replaced dismiss this as sentimental propaganda put out by the speaker's friends.

In any event, the brief McCormack-Udall skirmish left a splattering of bad blood.

McCormack is considered kind, decent and courteous by even most of those who oppose him—but he's also Irish. He reportedly has declined to shake hands with some who voted against him, tongue-lashed a couple more who urged his retirement and has been "cool and distant" to Udall.

A generation of rough-and-tumble politics has given the about practically everything but his age.

'WORST PERIOD'

He described as the worst time in his life the period after President Kennedy's assassination when he was next in succession to Lyndon B. Johnson. But he angrily dismissed as "indecent" suggestions that because of his age he should step out of the speakership — and thus out of succession — for the good of the country.

McCormack's most persistent and publicized critic in the House is Rep. Richard Bolling, D-Mo. a protege of the late Sam Rayburn, McCormack's celebrated Democratic predecessor.

★ ★ ★

In his most recent book on Congress, Bolling compared McCormack unfavorably with Rayburn. The Kansas City congressman described McCormack as a weak king surrounded by strong dukes. He said McCormack lacked Rayburn's courage and was out of touch.

Shortly after the book, "Power in the House," was published, McCormack pulled a copy out of his desk drawer to show a visitor, and said, "I haven't read the damned thing, but I know what it's about."

HARD TO CRITICIZE

Criticizing "Big Jawn" McCormack is like throwing stones at Frank Merriwell; like scoring the boy who quit school at 13 to support his widowed mother and two younger brothers yet rose to the highest councils in the land; like scoffing at a man who is religious, doesn't drink liquor or use dirty words, is hard-working and never misses dinner with his wife.

McCormack is a devoted Roman Catholic and identified with the church's hierarchy but resents being called (only behind his back) "the Archbishop." He is a passionate anti-Communist and was a loyal supporter of President Johnson's Vietnam policy. He is an old-fashioned liberal. He is publicity-shy.

★ ★ ★

He was born and reared in South Boston where the Irish brogue was heard more than the Yankee twang — and which once bragged that it produced more nuns and priests per capita than any other community in the country.

When McCormack was 13 his father, a bricklayer, died. McCormack quit school to support his mother and two younger brothers, Edward and Daniel.

9 OTHERS DIED

Nine other brothers and sisters died in infancy or youth.

It was a time when a two-room tenement cost $1.25 a week. But McCormack's earnings from his newspaper sales didn't stretch far. The younger brother picked up coal from the train yards for the stove, and the Welfare Department helped with a "pauper basket."

★ ★ ★

"It was him that kept us together," Edward said of brother John.

The lucky turn in the McCormack fortunes came when a lawyer offered him $4 a week to run errands and encouraged him to read law. When he was 21, three months after his mother died, McCormack passed the bar examintion.

'NATURAL THING'

McCormack prospered as a trial lawyer. But politics, as he put it, "was the natural thing for anybody born in South Boston."

In 1928 he was elected to Congress, and 34 years later, when Sam Rayburn died, McCormack stepped up from majority leader to speaker.

★ ★ ★

McCormack has not changed much the habits of 40 years — morning coffee with cronies in the House dining room, the love of a good cigar, a day spent at the duties of the House as representative of Massachusetts' 9th District, the drive downtown in his chauffered limousine for dinner with his wife, Harriet.

★ ★ ★

Harriet Joyce of Boston gave up a career as an opera singer to be Mrs. McCormack in 1920 and hasn't missed many days at his side since. Childless, they live a life of relative seclusion in a hotel suite not far from the White House. They have been active in child welfare work and charities.

LAST TERM?

When the Udall forces were challenging McCormack in January, the story was abroad that this would be McCormack's last term anyway and why deny the speaker's chair to him.

But some of those on both sides smile at that now.

Ralph Grubb wasn't out-coached Saturday night, but the young Pontiac Central coach might have to practice stomping his feet, yelling, shouting, cursing at officials by the time next season rolls around.

Mumford coach Sam Taub really put on a show racing along the out of boundslines, shouting, screamming and stomping.

★ ★ ★

In most any other game, Taub would have had five technical fouls called against him for his antics.

"You're costing me this game," Taub shouted when his 6-9 center Marv Taylor was assessed his 4th personal foul.

He was almost over the center line of the court to make his protest, but the sweet and friendly officials, Bucholz and Kennedy, weren't going to give the "T" sign to the Mumford coach.

"Now, Sam."

"Easy, Sam."

"Take it easy, Sam."

These were Bucholz' repeated "warnings."

This just tends to substantiate the statements we made in this column a few days ago about the lousy and inconsistent officiating which has prevailed in basketball in recent years.

★ ★ ★

This was the year when technical fouls were called for the slightest display of temper off the bench.

We have known Taub for many years. In fact we were college classmates and before this writing we might say WERE friends.

★ ★ ★

This argument isn't against Taub, because being in basketball as long as he has and being aware of how frequent technical fouls were assessed this season, Sam will have to admit he literally got away with murder in the game.

He is an official himself. We wonder how long he would have kept his cool with some coach jamming his hand against his arm and back as he was doing to the two officials Saturday night.

NEEDED TECHNICAL

Mumford should have lost the game on technicals alone had the officials stayed consistent with the way they called them all season.

★ ★ ★

We can't agree with the technical foul rule. A coach should be allowed to jump to his feet and protest a call, but as long as the rule exists whereas a coach moves onto the court of play or charges an official anywhere, shouting at the top of his lungs, "You're costing me this game," then there should be no hesitance on calling a technical.

★ ★ ★

We were hoping Grubb would have made one violent protest off the bench to see what kind of precedent was set in the game for assessing technicals.

★ ★ ★

No, the officials didn't cost Taub the game. On the contrary, we figure five technicals and a couple buckets which may have resulted in getting possession of the ball, would have easily ended the game in regulation.

★ ★ ★

It's too bad there wasn't a movie camera and tape recorder available to record the display of temper at the bench.

Officials Bucholz and Kennedy might have hard time explaining their closed-ear policy.

★ ★ ★

A strong Athletic Association Office would ask for an explanation. It would be interesting to hear the answer from Bucholz and Kennedy.

Noted Golf Pro Frank Syron Dies

Well-known Michigan golf professional Frank Syron Sr. died in a local hospital here this morning after a long illness. He was 69.

★ ★ ★

Syron's 48-year golfing career included a stint as caddiemaster at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, a head pro's post at Orchard Lake Country Club for 14 years, and for the past 27 years, he was pro-owner of Pontiac Country Club.

Survivors include two sons, Lloyd, 32, former Michigan Amateur champion, and Frank Jr., 29. Also surviving are his wife, Elizabeth, and a daughter, Sister Ann Terese of Detroit St. Cyril.

★ ★ ★

The body will rest at Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home and will be viewed Tuesday and Wednesday. Other arrangements are pending.

Lakers Win First Regional Title

West Bloomfield Moves to Quarter-Finals

By DON VOGEL

Art Paddy moved the Class B regional championship trophy away from the celebrating players to a quieter spot in the lockerroom.

"One year we won a district trophy and it was broken before it left the lockerroom," said the West Bloomfield basketball coach.

He was still trying to unwind after the Lakers had rallied to defeat Redford St. Mary, 73-62, at Birmingham Seaholm Saturday night to become Oakland County's only quarter-final representative.

The Lakers will play Bay City All Saints Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at Grand Blanc High School.

This was the first "B" regional title for West Bloomfield. The Lakers will carry a 21-1 record into the tilt against Bay City All Saints.

A triple overtime win over Flint Ainsworth, 70-67, gained the Saints a quarter-final berth. They are 18-3 for the season.

NEVER QUIT

"We had to win the hard way," said Paddy. "But you have to give the boys credit . . . they never gave up."

★ ★ ★

A less talented team might have thrown in the sponge early. St. Mary's Rustics started like they were going to blow the Lakers out of the gym.

★ ★ ★

They hit seven of their first eight shots — five from long range — and raced to a 15-3 lead over the team that had looked unbeatable two nights before in handling Detroit Holy Redeemer with ease.

Nearly 2,000 fans watched in disbelief as the Lakers made only one of nine field goal tries during the first 4:28 of the game.

The Lakers not only were being outshot, they were being outmaneuvered and outrebounded by the Rustics.

"Any team that loses by only one point on Holy Redeemer's floor has to be dangerous," Paddy said before the Seaholm title game.

If the Lakers weren't convinced before

Chiefs Fall, 75-73

Buzzer Bucket Sinks Central

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Spores Editor, Pontiac Press

Was there any time left on the clock when Mumford reserve Dennis Edmonds hit the game winning bucket in the second overtime to knock Pontiac Central out of the regional championship Saturday night at Southfield?

Today it really doesn't make much difference. The scoreboard read 75-73 for Mumford and the Chiefs will have to look ahead to next year when four of the five starters return.

★ ★ ★

The game promised to be a thriller and it was, even though it appeared for awhile that Central might come out of it with a decisive victory.

But 11 turnovers in the second half, after leading 41-33 at intermission, doomed the Chiefs.

★ ★ ★

Despite their errors, the Chiefs had two great opportunities to pull the game out in the final seconds of regulation and in the first overtime.

MUMFORD STALLS

Mumford coach Sam Taub elected to go into a stall for the last shot in each instance, but both times the Chiefs came up with a steal and missed on their last-second shots.

★ ★ ★

Central took the lead immediately on an opening bucket by Monte Herring, but with guard Steve Harris hitting Mumford's first five points, the Mustangs led 12-8 midway in the first quarter.

SEESAW GAME

That was the last time the Detroit city champions led until late in the third quarter. PCH had a 10-point lead at the start of the second half.

From then on, the lead see-sawed and was tied six times.

★ ★ ★

Campy Russell hit a tying shot for Central with 1:11 left to play and after taking the ball out, coach Taub elected to stall for the last shot.

The capacity crowd was in bedlam as the seconds ticked away and with 16 seconds left Taub called time again.

MISSES FINAL SHOT

The ball was brought into play at midcourt and Anthony Styles made a steal and passed down court to Jerry Ratliff. With three seconds on the clock, Ratliff shot from about 25 feet. The ball bounced off the hoop and the game went into overtime, 66-66.

★ ★ ★

Big Marv Taylor, 6-9, was whistled for his fifth foul with 2:54 left in the first overtime and Russell hit both free throws.

Melvin Carr then tied it 68-68 with two free throws and after Mumford took the rebound off the Pontiac board, coach Taub again called for the last second shot starting at 2:06.

He called time out at 1:20. The ball was put into play with 57 seconds left, and the Chiefs stole it with seven seconds remaining.

Styles went up from above the key with one second showing but the ball went off the board to force the second overtime.

PCH went ahead 69-68 when Styles hit the first of two free throws, and then Harris again hit a jumper to make it 70-69.

BURCH EXITS

With 1:10 to play, Burch hit two from the line to make it 71-70, but a few seconds later Burch fouled out and Harris missed both free throws.

On the second attempt, Edmonds, who had replaced Taylor was fouled by Russell on the rebound and Russell left with his 5th foul with 50 seconds in the period.

★ ★ ★

Edmonds made one to tie and missed the second attempt. With 34 seconds left

Maryland Taps Davidson Coach

CHARLOTTE (AP) — Lefty Driesell, who brought basketball out of the doldrums at Davidson, said Sunday he will sign a contract to become head coach at Maryland "where there is a tremendous challenge."

Driesell said he'll meet with Maryland officials in College Park Wednesday to sign the pact. It reportedly calls for $16,000 a year for five years, plus all of the scholarships for players that the Atlantic Coast Conference will allow.

He will succeed Frank Fellows, dismissed two weeks ago after two losing seasons in which the Terps won only 16 games and lost 34. The Terps haven't had a winning season since 1964-65, when a team under Bud Milliken finished 18-8.

★ ★ ★

"The challenge of the job at Maryland was the single biggest factor in my decision to accept the offer," Driesell said Sunday in making his announcement over a Charlotte television station.

"I consider the Atlantic Coast Conference the strongest conference for basketball in the country," he said. "I belive I can produce a national champion at Maryland."

'Peaches' in Top 10

NEW YORK (AP) — Peaches Bartkowicz of Hamtramck, Mich., is one of 10 women named Sunday by the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association as an international squad for the 1969 season. From the squad, teams will be chosen for the Federation Cup and Wightman Cup series.

Yankees Wallop Bengals' Reliever

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—The Detroit Tigers lost their second straight exhibition baseball game Sunday but unflustered manager Mayo Smith was encouraged by the performance of big righthander Earl Wilson.

Wilson, hampered by injuries much of last season when he pitched in 34 games and finished with a 13-12 record, hurled four shutout innings against the New York Yankees before they jumped on reliever John Hiller for five runs in the sixth to win, 5-3.

★ ★ ★

"The best part was the way he threw the curve," said Smith in praise of Wilson. "It was right where he wanted it, not like the last time when he was coming in high. It looks like Earl is coming along just fine."

On Wednesday against the New York Mets, Wilson didn't look so good as the Mets got four runs off of him in three innings.

But the Yanks managed only two hits off him Sunday to prevent Smith from having a totally discouraging day.

EARLY SCORE

Detroit scored an early run on a Mickey Stanley singled, an error by Tom Tresh at shortstop and a double play grounder by Willie Horton. A double by Roy White, a single by Joe Pepitone, a fielders choice, a walk, and singles by Billy Cowan and Frank Fernandez brought in New York's five runs off Hiller.

The Tigers appeared to be making a 1968-type rally by scoring two runs in the ninth on an error, Tom Matchick's single, a walk to Dave Campbell, a single by Ike Brown and a ground out by Gates Brown. But the rally fell short and Detroit's Grapefruit League record fell to 5-5.

★ ★ ★

Smith isn't one for alibis but after the game he complained about the weather, which the weather, which the weather bureau has called one of Florida's chilliest since World War II.

"Things will get better as soon as the weather warms up," he sighed.

★ ★ ★

"All these errors we're making, and not hitting and all, would clear up if only we could get a few days of nice, warm sunshine."

New Names Head Keg List

New leaders in the doubles and handicap all events, plus significant changes in the team, singles and other high-ranking twosomes highlighted the third weekend of the Pontiac Woman's Bowling Association's 36th City Tournament at Orchard Lakes.

When the pins ceased falling yesterday, Waterford Township's Mary Devine had a 1675 actual total which was only eight behind the tournament leading score of Gerry Hintz from Pontiac, but her 297 additional handicap placed her 11 in front of former leader Peggy Parry, also of the Drayton Plains area, who has a 1961 score.

★ ★ ★

Mary also teamed with Pam Devine of Union Lake for a 1262 doubles total, tying two other duos for fifth place. Pearl Sawgle of Auburn Heights and Sylvia Marion of Pontiac also hit 1262 yesterday.

HOT DOUBLES DUO

However, the big news in the doubles event was the sizzling 1303 posted by Mary Jane Richards of Walled Lake and Charlotte MacKay of Orchard Lake, good enough for first place.

★ ★ ★

They outbid Pontiac's Shirley Burpee and Irene West who hit 1288, also Sunday. In fact, the Pontiac twosome actually was nine pins better than the new leaders who benefitted from a 291-pin spot.

★ ★ ★

In the team bowling Saturday, Art's Party Store retained its lead with a 3104 score. This weekend's top total were 2961 by Reliable Transmission of Pontiac and 2954 by Utica's Wells Land Development.

They grabbed fourth and fifth places in the standings.

In Singles yesterday, Edith Simonson of Clarkston moved into third place with 689 and Waterford's Edna Peacock tallied 679 for the fifth ranking. Judy Polovich holds the No. 1 listing with 723.

There are two more weekends of competition at Orchard.

Classes Scheduled on Water Safety

A water safety instructors course will open at Dondero High School in Royal Oak Tuesday.

The class will meet each Tuesday from 7 until 10 p.m. through June 3.

To enroll, candidates must have a senior lifesaving certificate and be at least 17 years of age. Those completing the course will receive a Red Cross instructors certificate and a YMCA certificate.

Dondero High School is located at 709 North Washington. Additional information may be obtained by calling the Royal Oak Schools Service Center, 588-8400.

Denver Captures Second NCAA Hockey Crown

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — For the second time, the University of Denver has captured two NCAA hockey championships in a row. Now the Pioneers can shot next season at Michigan's mark of three straight, set in 1951-53.

"It was as tough as any championship game we've played," DU coach Murray Armstrong said after watching his skaters beat Cornell, top team in eastern hockey, 4-3 in the Broadmoor World Arena Saturday night.

★ ★ ★

Harvard won the consolation game by battling to a 6-5 victory over Michigan Tech in a second overtime period Saturday. Cliff Gurry scored the winning goal for Harvard with less than two minutes remaining in the second, 10-minute extra period.

Tech, champion of the Western Collegiate Hockey Association, surged from a 4-2 deficit in the first period to a 4-4 tie in the second stanza. The Huskies moved into a 5-4 lead on Carl Ahlsten's goal but Bob Bauer knotted the score at 5-5 and forced the overtime.

Austrian Men in Ski Victory

U. S.'s Kiki Cutter Captures Award

QUEBEC (AP) — The prestige of the powerful Austrian ski team was upheld Sunday—although the top member of the squad and men's World Cup champion had little to do with it.

Alfred Matt, 21, who just got out of the Austrian Army Saturday, celebrated his discharge by winning the men's two-run slalom event and the du Maurier Cup as the over-all men's championship at the three-day tri-nation meet at nearby Mont Ste. Anne.

★ ★ ★

While Matt was speeding to victory and the trophy, teammate Karl Schranz, the 30-year-old veteran who captured the men's World Cup Saturday, had troubles and was disqualified for missing a gate in Sunday's slalom race.

★ ★ ★

HEAVY SNOW

Matt captured the men's two-run slalom Sunday with a combined time of 1:33.50 over the 1,500-foot course during a heavy snowfall that lasted about 15 minutes.

★ ★ ★

He finished in 12th place over-all in the two runs of the men's giant slalom, held Friday and Saturday, with a combined time of 3:33.18, giving him the over-all championship.

Kansas Rules NCAA

Mile Finish Pleases

DETROIT (AP) — Ever since Roger Bannister broke the first four-minute mile more than a decade ago the mile run has been the attention grabber in the United States.

And although the four-minute barrier wasn't challenged, the mile run turned out to be the biggest crowd pleaser over the weekend in the 1969 Collegiate Indoor Track Championships at Cobo Hall.

Kansas won the meet team title with Villanova second as three meet records were produced in the 17-event program Friday and Saturday before 19,300 spectators.

Defending mile champion Jim Ryun of Kansas, almost ruled out of the meet after quitting in Friday night's two-mile, won the mile in a near dead-heat with Marty Liquori of Villanova to pace the Jayhawkers to the championship, 41½ points to 33.

"When I came off the turn I didn't think I could catch Marty in the last 20 yards," Ryun said. But after trailing from the fifth lap on, Ryun turned on his final kick and he and Liquori matched each other stride for stride to the finish.

Both finished in 4:02.6, short of Ryun's indoor NCAA record of 3:58.6. The judges gave the edge to Ryun.

Friday, after running only three laps of the two-mile event, Ryun complained of blisters on both feet and an ailing knee and it was doubtful he could compete in the mile. Villanova Coach Jumbo Elliott protested that Ryun had dropped out without an honest effort but the meet's jury of appeals ruled otherwise.

★ ★ ★

In the high jump, Ron Jourdan of Florida set a meet record with a leap of 7-¾ feet. Two other meet records were tied. Olympian Erv Hall took the 60-yard high hurdles in :07.0 and John Carlos of San Jose State captured the 60-yard dash in :06.0.

★ ★ ★

Olympic champion pole vaulter Bob Seagren was upset by Lee Smith of Miami of Ohio. Each cleared 16 feet, 6 inches but Smith had fewer misses.

★ ★ ★

Although Villanova came up with four firsts to three for Kansas, the Jayhawks built up a big edge Friday night by sweeping the first three places in the shot put and the first two in the long jump for 23 points.

★ ★ ★

Third place went to San Jose State with 19½ points followed by Tennessee and Southern California with 16, Nebraska with 10, Harvard and Michigan State 9, Brigham Young and Kansas State 8, and Michigan 7.

CHANGING MOOD — All is well (top) as Pontiac Central cheerleader Polly Schmitz jumps for joy as the Chiefs take a lead over Detroit Mumford in their regional tournament game Saturday night, but the tide turned later (bottom) as Central lost in double overtime, 75-73.

Chiefs Ousted in 2 Overtimes by Detroiters

Styles hit a jumper to give Central a 73-71 lead, but again Harris, without hesitation hit a jumper to make it 73-73.

With 14 seconds left, Central came down court and Ratliff's shot bounced off the rim.

END NEAR

There was a mad scramble for the ball and big John Andrews, 6-5 and 260, saved it from going out of bounds and slapping it down court with six seconds left.

Harris and Edmonds both went down court with Styles and two shots from underneath rolled off. Then Edmonds grabbed it and threw it up again.

With the noise raising the roof, it was impossible to hear the buzzer but before Edmonds made his third try at the bucket, there were fans along the edge of the court, shouting "time," and pointing to the clock.

The officials ruled the basket good and sent Mumford into the quarter-finals next Wednesday against Detroit Northeastern.

Harris had 23 and Taylor 21 for the Mustangs, while Russell hit 21, Herring 17 and Ratliff 16 for the Chiefs.

In the first half, Mumford hit 13 of 28 shots and finished with an over-all 30 for 60 or 50 per cent.

Central hit over 50 per cent in the first half with 16 of 31, but finished with 27 of 61.

Big Andrews, who had only four rebounds in the first half, finished with 13 for the game to lead both teams, as Russell had 11, Herring 10, Ratliff 10 and Mumford's Taylor 10.

Bay City Five Next Foe

Lakers Gain Quarter-Finals Berth

hand, they received the message in a hurry.

Paddy inserted 6-4 sophomore Don Johnston into the lineup and he joined with Jim Bays to get the rebounding back on the side of the taller West Bloomfield team. Guard John Crowder, the playmaker, took scoring matters into his own hands and hit three quick baskets.

The Rustics two-on-two offense continued to give the Lakers trouble, but they cut the deficit to 25-16 by the close of the first quarter.

However, the defense stiffened in the second stanza and Steve Westjohn started hitting from outside the St. Mary zone. The Rustics collected only two field goals in the period. Led by Westjohn, the Lakers were down only 36-35 at the half.

Dave Karlson's layup put West Bloomfield ahead for the first time in the opening 10 seconds of the third quarter. But Bernie Kryzwada countered for the Rustics.

SCORING SPURT

Two field goals by Bays, one by Karlson and a field goal and free throw by Westjohn while the Rustics went scoreless decided the contest. From a 46-38 lead, the Lakers moved to a 53-42 advantage.

Karlson fouled out and Curtis Britton was on the bench with four.

Still, the Lakers continued to hold a comfortable margin. With 4:34 remaining in the game they were ahead 62-49 and the Rustics were forced out of their zone into a press.

Two missed layups, a missed free throw and some careless ball handling opened the door for Kryzwada to lead the Rustics on a 9-2 uprising in the next two minutes.

EASY LAYUPS

Britton returned to the game and helped pull the Rustics away from the baskets so that Johnson could be fed the ball for two easy layups and Westjohn could hit a layup. This settled the issue.

Westjohn topped all scorers with 23 points. Karlson scored 12 and Bays, Crowder and Johnston each netted 10. Kryzwada was high for the Rustics with 18.

Bay City All Saints again was led by its smallest player. Dick Heintskill, a 5-8 senior guard, hit 34 points against Ainsworth. He has scored 1,209 points in three varsity seasons, including 567 this campaign.

He is supported by 6-6 Jerry Silas and 6-4 Bob Purlewski.

Falcons' Depth Decisive in 'A' at MSU Pool

Diver, Freestyler From County Reign; Lahser Shows Well

By FLETCHER SPEARS

EAST LANSING — Coach John Wieck of Birmingham Groves was all wet Saturday but he didn't mind.

In his second year at Groves, Wieck saw a season of hard work come to a successful close here as the Falcons captured the state Class A swimming championship for the first time.

The victory was a cue for the Falcons to flip their young coach into the Michigan State pool for a traditional dip.

BANNER DAY

While Groves was having a ball from a team standpoint, it was quite an afternoon for Birmingham.

★ ★ ★

The Falcons took the title with 127 points and holding the runner-up spot with 90 was city rival Seaholm, a four-time winner of the championship.

KIMBALL SEVENTH

Allen Park was third with 75 markers, while Royal Oak Kimball placed seventh (51) and Southfield polled 49 points to share the eighth spot.

★ ★ ★

The Falcons managed only one first place but their over-all depth was too much for the classy field that cracked three records.

NEW MARK

The Groves' brother combination of Larry and Steve Driver produced a 1-2 finish in the 100-yard breaststroke, and Larry wound up with a state record 1:00.86 in the preliminaries. The effort cracked his old mark of 1:02.51 set last year.

★ ★ ★

Dick Quint gave the Falcons a second in the diving as he finished runner-up to Rich Matheny of Bloomfield Hills Andover.

Doug Tull picked up a third in the 100-yard butterfly, Tim Jones was sixth in the 100-yard freestyle and Mark Crorey was eighth in the 200-yard freestyle.

WINS TITLE

Seaholm produced a champion in Jim Morgan who was clocked at 49.72 in taking the 100-yard freestyle, and Oakland County had another winner in Southfield's Greg Ortega who posted a :22.29 in the 50-yard freestyle.

★ ★ ★

Greg Penn of Trenton and John Sherk of Dearborn Fordson turned in stirring individual performances with two wins apiece.

KEEPS TITLES

Sherk retained his titles in the 200- and 400-yard freestyle events and lowered the standard in the 200. He posted a 1:47.78 in the preliminaries to break the mark of 1:48.4 set by Doug Webster of Royal Oak Kimball in 1965 and then lowered the record to 1:47.43 in the finals.

★ ★ ★

Penn won the 200-yard individual medley in 2:04.04 and posted a time of :56.27 in the 100-yard backstroke to down defending champion Jerry Muske of Dearborn (56.32). Muske was second.

The other 'A' record came in the 200-yard medley relay with Grosse Point South posting a mark of 1:41.53. Groves was second with 1:42.43.

Holland West Ottawa won the Class B crown at the University of Michigan with a total of 174 points. Riverview was second with 143. Bloomfield Hills Lahser came up with 54 points to place 10th.

Rich Amann gave Lasher a third in the 100-yard butterfly, while Mark Beveridge was fourth in the 200-yard medley and sixth in the 100-yard freestyle. Kevin Trimmer was sixth in the 400-yard freestyle.

Uclans Regain Winning Form

By United Press International

The trip to Louisville, Ky., appears to be only a consolation prize for Purdue, North Carolina and Drake now that UCLA is alive and well again.

Until Saturday it appeared the Bruins might be beaten in this year's NCAA basketball tournament as they had appeared lackadaisacal and disinterested in their last four games.

★ ★ ★

But the challenge offered by fourth-ranked Santa Clara in Saturday's West regional final got the adrenalin flowing in the Bruins, and they virtually humiliated the Broncos 90-52 to firmly establish themselves as a heavy favorite to take an unprecendented third straight title.

There is an outside chance that one of the other three teams could spring an upset, but it is doubtful. The Bruins simply have too much talent.

The Bruins face Drake in Thursday's semi-finals at Louisville's Freedom Hall while North Carolina meets Purdue. The winners will play for the championship on Saturday.

Drake reached the semis by beating Colorado State 84-77 in Saturday's Midwest final, North Carolina edged Davidson 87-85 to win the East regional and Purdue nipped Marquette 75-73 in overtime to take the Midwest crown.

If the three challengers only had Lew Alcindor to contend with, then it would be quite possible for them to beat UCLA. But, while Alcindor is the dominent force behind the team's success, he is not the only outstanding player on the team.

Santa Clara found that out Saturday. The Bruins, employing a 2-2-1 zone press for the first time since 1964, ran up an 18-2 lead in the first 8½ minutes and were never contested. They shot an incredible 76 per cent from the field in the first half, and Alcindor, John Vallely, Bill Sweek and Sid Wicks all scored in double figures.

Alcindor, playing his final game in Los Angeles' Pauley Pavilion, led the way with 17 points, Sweek added 12 and Vallely and Wicks 11 each.

★ ★ ★

The three other reginal games were much more exciting, with both the East and Midwest games ending on practically the same note.

The East final was decided in the final two seconds when junior Charlie Scott connected on a 12-foot jump shot to give the Tar Heels a hard-earned victory over Davidson. Scott hit on 10 of 13 shots from the field in the second half and finished as the game's high scorer with 32 points. North Carolina will be playing in the semi-finals for the third successive year.

FINAL SECONDS

The Mideast game was decided in the final two seconds of overtime with Purdue's Rick Mount connecting on a 20-foot jump shot. Mount poured in 26 points to pace the Boilermakers' attack.

A couple of guys named Willie, Willie McCarter and Willie Wise — were responsible for Drake's success. McCarter scored 21 points and Wise added 16 and the fast-breaking Bulldogs won the regional playoff for the first time.

In consolation games Saturday, Duquesne edged St. John's 75-72 in the East, Colorado beat Texas A&M 97-82 in the Midwest; Weber State upset New Mexico State 58-56 in the West, and Kentucky nipped Miami of Ohio 72-71 in the Mideast.

Western Five Captures Title

Eastern New Mexico NAIA Champion

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Eastern New Mexico, a team which lost seven games during the regular season, blazed away with 67 per cent field goal shooting to capture the 32nd NAIA basketball tournament championship over Maryland State Saturday night.

The Greyhounds, who wound up with a 24-7 season record, including five tourney victories, gunned down the ailing Hawks 99-76 in the title game by drilling 39 of 58 shots.

★ ★ ★

Maryland State led by 10 points midway through the first half. But Eastern New Mexico recovered to take a 45-32 halftime lead, then turned it into a rout by hitting 15 of its first 17 shots in the second half.

"We were pretty fortunate out there for a while," said Greyhound Coach Harry Miller. "But the kids had patience. That's all there was to it."

Leading the Hounds contest was Dale Severson, who sank 10 of 12 shots and scored 25 points.

MOST VALUABLE

Maryland State star Jake Ford, named the tournament's Most Valuable Player, became ill Saturday and was taken to a hospital for treatment. He played, but not only 17 points before fouling out with a little over three minutes left.

"Jake just didn't have any lie in him," Maryland State Coach Joe Robinson said. "But I don't want to take anything away from Eastern New Mexico.

★ ★ ★

Ford, the tournament's top scorer with 156 points in five games, led the first team selections for the all-tournament team.

Central Washington beat Elizabeth City 96-82 to take third place.

Titans' Haywood Selected by Look

Spencer Haywood of Detroit is the only sophomore on the 10-man Look Magazine All America team selected by a nine-man committee of the U.S. Basketball Writers Association. Lew Alcindor of UCLA and Bud Ogden of Santa Clara are the only seniors.

The seven juniors are Calvin Murphy of Niagara, Pete Maravich of LSU, Mike Maloy of Davidson, Rick Mount of Purdue, Jim Millian of Columbia, Charlie Scott of North Carolina and Dan Issel of Kentucky.

Guards Share Spotlight With Pivotmen

Boston College Halts Kansas; Louisville Downs Fordham

NEW YORK (AP) — Terry Driscoll and Mike Grosso might have been the centers of attraction, but at the end of the first round of the National Invitational Tournament Sunday, it was the guards who held the spotlight.

Driscoll and Grosso, a pair of agile, board-battling, basket-rattling pivot men, lived up to all the good things that were said about them as they headed Boston College and Louisville toward the quarter-finals.

★ ★ ★

Driscoll, a 6-foot-7 senior, dropped in 18 points and had 19 rebounds by halftime against Kansas, but it was ball-handling backcourt of Jim O'Brien and Billy Evans who made sure BC completed a 78-62 victory over the Jayhawks after Driscoll fouled out.

★ ★ ★

Grosso, a 6-9 junior playing on only one good leg, got Louisville started against Fordham with 12 points and 14 rebounds in the first half, but guard Butch Beard supplied the final decisive points in a 73-70 triumph over the Rams.

SQUARE OFF

The results matched Driscoll and Grosso and the guards against each other in the quarter-finals Tuesday night in the same doubleheader with South Carolina and Army, first-round winners Saturday night over Southern Illinois and Wyoming, respectively.

★ ★ ★

The round of eight opens tonight when upstarts St. Peter's, N.J., and Temple clash on the same twinbill that matches Tennessee against Ohio U.

The winners move into Thursday night's semifinals with the final scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

BIG MEN BATTLE—Campy Russell (44) of Pontiac Central and Marv Taylor (41) Mumford's 6-9 center battle for a rebound in the furious action of the regional game Saturday night at Southfield where the Chiefs lost 75-73 on a shot ruled good at the buzzer in double overtime. Pontiac's Jerry Ratliff is on the right.

Lakeland Hawks Post Triumph in Hockey Play

The Lakeland Hawks' midget team didn't share their wealth of goals over the weekend so they were the only local Southeast Michigan Junior Hockey Association entry with a victory.

The Lakeland unit ran up a 7-2 conquest over Madison Heights with seven different players beating the losers' goalie.

★ ★ ★

However, their bantam counterparts had to rally for a 3-3 tie with Fraser; and the Waterford Rangers juveniles were tied, 3-3, by Madison Heights Saturday and 2-2 by the St. Clair Firebirds yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Waterford's Larry Helka was the only player on any of the teams to score more than once. He had both of Waterford's scores Sunday.

The Southeast Michigan program is entering the final week of its regular season.

Pistons Suffer 5th Road Trip Setback

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

By the time they got to Phoenix, the Detroit Pistons probably wished today they were sleeping so they could perhaps forget for a time the disasterous National Basketball Association nightmare they are living.

The Pistons, who meet Phoenix in their third to last NBA contest of the season tonight, suffered their fifth straight defeat Sunday night, losing to San Diego 120-111. It was the fourth loss on a tour of the West, begun a week ago.

★ ★ ★

Don Kojis, who led San Diego to victory over Detroit Thursday by scoring 33, hit 34 points Sunday to devastate the Pistons.

★ ★ ★

The victory, the Rockets' third straight, gave them a 1½-game lead over Chicago in the battle for fourth place in the Western Division — the final playoff berth.

Detroit is in sixth place in the East Division, 27 games behind front-running Baltimore. Only Milwaukee, 31 games back in the East, and Phoenix, 37 behind in the West, have worse NBA records.

In other NBA games Sunday, Los Angeles bombarded Boston 108-73, and the Atlanta Hawks edged Seattle 131-127 in overtime.

★ ★ ★

In the game at San Diego, the Rockets had seven men in double figures for the first time in their two-year history.

Happy Hairston led Detroit with 22 points.

★ ★ ★

Elvin Hayes of San Diego, the league's leading scorer, collected 15 points but sat out the last 11 minutes with a muscle strain in his left leg. The injury was not considered serious.

★ ★ ★

Los Angeles rookie Bill Hewitt, the Lakers' No. 1 draft choice last year, led the way with 19 points as teammates Elgin Bayor got 17, Jerry West 14 and Wilt Chamberlain 11 in the victory over Boston.

The Lakers flashed to a 55-36 halftime lead at Boston and went on to hand the Celtics their 34th setback of the season. With four games remaining, the defending NBA champs are two losses short of their 1955-club record.

★ ★ ★

Lou Hudson scored nine of the 25 points in overtime, leading the Hawks past Seattle after they had blown a 19-point third quarter lead. Joe Caldwell also hit for 25 Atlanta points while Art Harris was high for the Super Sonics with 31-18 of them in the third period.

Olympic Swimmer Wins Coast Event

CITY OF COMMERCE, Calif. (AP) — Olympian Debbie Meyer, in her first attempt this year at the distance, edged teammate Vickie King by 1.1 second Sunday in the 1650-yard freestyle as the Southern California Invitational swim meet concluded.

★ ★ ★

The 16-yea-rold Miss Meyer, who earned four gold medals at the Mexico City Olympics, swam the distance in 17:12.2.

She wound up the three-day meet with two victories and two placings of third.

Red Wings Fall, 6-4

Shooters Take Aim at NHL Goalies

By The Associated Press

The luck of the Irish must have been riding with National Hockey League goaltenders Sunday night. They all came out of the biggest night of the season for shooters in one piece.

Boston tied a record, bunching eight goals in one period and running through two Toronto goalies in an 11-3 romp that set the tone. New York wore down some sensational goaltending by Roy Edwards with a 25-shot third-period barrage that produced four goals and a 6-4 victory over Detroit.

★ ★ ★

In other games, Oakland whacked Pittsburgh 7-2, Bobby Hull scored his 52nd and 53rd goals of the season in Chicago's 6-2 romp over Philadelphia and Minnesota edged St. Louis 3-2.

In Saturday's action, Montreal dropped Chicago 3-1, Toronto bombed Boston 7-4, St. Louis nipped Detroit 3-2, Los Angeles dropped Pittsburgh 3-1 and Philadelphia and Minnesota played to a 2-2 tie.

ASSAULT LEADER

Derek Sanderson led the Bruins' assault with the three-goal hat trick and three assists while Phil Esposito, Boston point-making king, collected his 44th goal of the season and four assists, hiking his record total to 118 points.

The eight Boston goals in the second period matched a mark set by Detroit in 1944 and Esposito shattered Dickie Moore's total points record of 113 for regular season and playoff competition, set in 1959.

Ken Hodge had his 40th and 41st goals and rookie Garnet Bailey added a pair for Boston, which moved within three points of idle Montreal for the East Division lead.

Frank Mahovlich scored his 43rd and 44th goals of the season for Detroit and assisted on Gordie Howe's 40th and Alex Delvecchio's 23rd as the Red Wings' modern version of the Production Line ran its total points for the season to a record 230, breaking the mark of 226 established by Howe, Delvecchio and Ted Lindsay in 1955-56.

57 SHOTS

But the Rangers innundated Edwards with 57 shots and two goals by Ron Stewart sparked a third-period rally that gave New York the victory. Jean Ratelle also scored twice for New York.

Seven different players shared in Oakland's biggest offensive show of the season as the Seals opened a nine-point lead over Los Angeles and virtually cinched second place in the West Division.

★ ★ ★

Rookie Norm Ferguson netted his 30th, matching the mark for rookies set in 1951 by Montreal's Bernie Geoffrion and broken earlier this season by Minnesota's Danny Grant.

★ ★ ★

Hull moved within one goal of his own single season record of 54 by scoring twice against the Flyers. Pit Martin also had a pair of goals for the Black Hawks, who are buried in the East Division basement.

★ ★ ★

It was a key defeat for Philadelphia, locked in a three-way struggle with Los Angeles and Minnesota in the West. The Flyers, in fourth place, have 52 points, one less than Los Angeles and two more than Minnesota which stood off a third-period rally to beat West champ St. Louis.

Jean Paul Parise and Walt McKechnie scored the third-period goals that carried the North Stars to their victory over the Blues.

U.S. Sextet Improving

STOCKHOLM (AP) — The U.S. amateur ice hockey team was holding its head a little higher today—and goalkeeper Mike Curran was the hero of the world championship.

The 23-year-old goalkeeper from Green Bay, Wis., has played five periods of hockey thus far and totaled 86 saves.

The Americans lost 8-3 to Czechoslovakia Sunday night but showed so much improvement that Coach John Mayasich, also of Green Bay, had new hopes of avoiding bottom place in the standings and thus staying in Group A of the championships.

"We are back in Group A," Mayasich said. "We've improved and the players are happy. They will improve still further.

"Curran is a fine athlete who thrives on work.

"He is our big success—not only blocking shots but lifting the team's morale."

When the tournament started Saturday, the Americans crashed 17-2 to the Russians and their chances looked black.

★ ★ ★

Wayne Dornack, manager of the U.S. team, said: "We are not as bad as we appeared.

"We were unlucky to get Russia and Czechoslovakia right off the bat at the start of the tournament. Nobody is going to beat those teams."

Players in Crash

MARACAIBO, Venezuela (UPI) — Two minor league baseball players were reported aboard the airliner which crashed here Sunday. Listed as passengers were Hector Chavez of the Phoenix farm club of the San Francisco Giants and Carlos Santeliz of the Shreveport, La. affiliate of the Atlanta Braves.

Ex-Gridder Nears First Golf Victory

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Jim Colbert, a former life insurance agent, has something beside a sizzling putter to fall back on to protect his lead going into today's final round of the $100,000 Monsanto Open Golf Tournament.

★ ★ ★

The former Kansas State football player, looking for his first victory as a golf pro, has some very happy memories of the Pensacola Country Club course.

★ ★ ★

"It was here that I made the cut for the very first time, in 1966," Colbert said Sunday as he whiled away the rained-out finale playing bridge with some fellow pros.

★ ★ ★

The 28-year-old father of three daughters also posted his second-best finish in four uneventful years on the tour at the same course when he tied for fourth here in 1967. His best finish was third at Jacksonville that same year.

SHOULDER INJURY

Colbert switched to golf after he suffered a shoulder separation as a quarterback on the Kansas State freshmen team and decided football was "too rough."

★ ★ ★

He had a swing at selling insurance after college, before he joined the tour.

★ ★ ★

Colbert emerged from obscurity Saturday after he fired a third-round—in driving rain—for a 54-hole total of 13-under par 200 and a one-stroke lead over Deane Beman, two-time U.S. amateur king who shot a 63.

★ ★ ★

Lee Trevino was two shots back at 202. Gary Player and Ray Floyd were tied at 203.

★ ★ ★

Beman's homemade putter clicked for 25 putts, three more than Colbert had with a store-bought one.

"I played as well as I've played in a long time," Colbert said.

KEPT PUTTING

Colbert, whose putter was chilly at Orlando last week, said, "After the final round, I went back to the motel and putted a while on the rug in front of two mirrors. I got up at 3 a.m. and kept putting until I got my feeling back.

★ ★ ★

Colbert who started golf in the third grade, said Sunday's offday didn't make much difference one way or the other.

★ ★ ★

"I don't worry about things I can't control," he said, "and that includes the weather."

★

Colbert collected $12,000 last year —$8,000 less than Monsanto's $20,000 first prize—and has won $2,700 so far this year. His best 1969 finish was a tie for fifth at the rain-abbreviated Kaiser Open.

★ ★ ★

"I don't know what would have happened if we'd finished the Kaiser. But I'm planning to win this one," he said.

Marichal in Strong Start

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Juan Marichal, who waited two weeks for the San Francisco Giants to pay his price, has served shorter notice on National League hitters.

Marichal, who signed a $115,000 contract Sunday night, ending a two-week holdout, hurled four perfect innings Sunday in the Giants' 9-2 exhibition victory over the Chicago Cubs.

★ ★ ★

The 30-year-old Giants ace, 26-9 last season, threw only an occasional fastball in his spring debut but disposed of the 12 Cubs he faced on 41 pitches. "I figured if I got it over, I'd get somebody out," he said. "They'd hit it somewhere, maybe over the fence."

★ ★ ★

The Cubs hit three fair balls out of the infield while Marichal was on the mound.

★ ★ ★

Elsewhere, the Baltimore Orioles and Cleveland Indians kept exhibition winning streaks alive —with considerably less ease than Marichal and the Giants tamed the Cubs.

SIXTH STRAIGHT

Eighth-inning doubles by Brooks Robinson and Merv Rettenmund keyed a two-run rally that carried the Orioles past Cincinnati 3-2 for their sixth straight victory. Cleveland outlast California 14-10, running its string to seven, in a struggle that produced 26 hits, 13 walks and eight errors.

★ ★ ★

Atlanta nipped Washington 4-3, pinning Ted Williams' Senators with their ninth loss in 10 starts. Kansas City shaded the Pittsburgh B team 2-1; the New York Yankees topped Detroit 5-3; Oakland bombed Seattle 13-6; Los Angeles shaded the Chicago White Sox 3-1 and San Diego beat Arizona Western College 6-1.

★ ★ ★

Rain washed out four scheduled games — Houston-Minnesota, Montreal-New York Mets, Philadelphia-Pittsburgh and St. Louis-Boston.

Trailing 2-1 in the eighth, the Orioles slipped past Cincinnati on Dave Mays' two-out single and the doubles by Robinson and Rettenmund. Dave Nelson paced Cleveland's 13-hit attack with four singles in as many trips to the plate.

★ ★ ★

The Braves scored twice in the seventh to overcome a 3-2 Washington lead, Hank Aaron driving in the go-ahead run with a sacrifice fly. Pinch hitter Ed Kirkpatrick tripled home two runs in the eighth, powering Kansas City past the Pirates B squad.

BIG INNING

A five-run sixth inning burst, triggered by Billy Cowan's two-run single, and newcomer Mike Kekich's strong pitching enabled the Yanks to get by Detroit. Jim Pagliaroni led the Oakland assault against Seattle with a double and three singles. Tommy Davis had a triple, double and two singles for the losers.

Touring Champ Adds Victory in Bulldog 400

JEFFERSON, Ga. (AP) — Tony Lund, defending NASCAR Grand-Touring champion from Cross, S.C., powered his 1968 Mercury Cougar to first place in Sunday's $14,250 Bulldog 400 at the Jefco Speedway.

★ ★ ★

Lund averaged 76.70 miles per hour for the 100 miles over the half-mile oval and won a purse of $1,700 in a race hampered by five caution flags.

Driving Camaros and placing second, third and fourth were Frank Sessoms of Darlington, S.C.; Bill Yuma of Melbourne, Fla., and Larry Wallace of Greenville, N.C.

★ ★ ★

C.B. Gwyn of Marion, Va. finished fifth, also in a Cougar. In all, Camaros captured six of the first 10 places. Mustangs rounded out the other two positions with eighth and 10th place finishes.

★ ★ ★

One spectacular accident occurred when Bob Tullius of Falls Church, Va., lost control of his 1969 Javelin, hit the guard rail and flipped completely off the track. Tullius escaped uninjured.

★ ★ ★

"I don't know what would have happened if we'd finished the Kaiser. But I'm planning to win this one," he said.

Pro Leagues Hold Confabs

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Realignment will be the chief topic of discussion at the joint winter meeting of the American and National football leagues, but the 26 owners also will kick around some other matters, such as the experimental conversion rule.

The meetings got under way today with the owners gathering at a joint session, then breaking up into separate league meetings.

Before the week is over, they hope to arrive at agreement on the alignment of pro football for 1970, the year the 1966 merger takes complete effect.

Such agreement will not be easy to reach since there are owners who favor maintaining the status quo, the 16-man NFL and the 10-man AFL, and those who prefer a complete reshuffling of the 26 teams.

Before they hear the various plans on future alignment prepared by a six-man joint committee, though, they'll have to make some other decisions.

PAT PROBLEM

The conversion rule is one subject which must be resolved.

The AFL has used the two-point option, for a run or a pass, since the league's inception in 1960. The NFL has only the routine one-point kick rule.

Obviously, they have to decide what to do with the two-point play in time for the 1970 season, when as many as five interleague games could be each team's regular season schedule.

★ ★ ★

The owners will very likely decide to extend for another exhibition season the experiment tried last year.

In all interleague exhibition games in 1968, the teams could not kick for the point after touchdown but instead had to run or pass for one point.

Whereas conversions made by kicking are successful 98 per cent of the time, the run or pass rule produced only a 56.6 per cent efficiency.

★ ★ ★

Many football people like the idea of eliminating the automatic nature of the kick and instilling an extra bit of excitement into the game with the run or the pass.

"The fan reaction was great," Mark Duncan, chairman of the league's competition committee, referring to last year's experiment. "We'll hear what the owners have to say and then decide what to do this year."

Kickoff Return Crown Taken by Ex-Cager

NEW YORK (AP) — Preston Pearson didn't play any football in college and for half of the 1967 season he was an obscure member of the Baltimore Colts' taxi squad.

Today the former Illinois basketball star is the kickoff return champion of the National Football League.

The fleet, 6-foot-1, 190-pound defensive back and Chuck Latourette of the St. Louis Cardinals shared the honors in the specialty.

Pearson was first in average returns with 35.1 yards on 15 returns with 35.1 yards on 15 returns, official NFL statistics released today. He took two of the kickoffs all the way for touchdowns on runs of 96 and 102 yards, the latter high for the season.

Latourette, a second-year player from Rice, set league records for number of returns, 46, and yardage, 1,237. The former records were 1,157 yards by Abe Woodson, San Francisco, 1962, and number of returns, 43 by Ron Smith, Atlanta, 1966.

MEDICAL STUDENT

Latourette, a 23-year-old medical student at Tennessee, was fourth in the averages with 26.9. Smith, who was traded to Los Angeles, was second with 27.6 for the Rams. Gale Sayers of the Bears, was injured in his ninth game, was third with 27.1.

Travis Williams, setter of the league record of 41.1 average as a rookie for the Green Bay Packers in 1967, was 16th last season with 21.4.

Baltimore was the team champion with a 26.4 average on 38 returns for 1,003 yards. St. Louis was second with 25.1 on 56 for 1,404 yards.

Boats Under Way in 811-Mile Race to Montego Bay

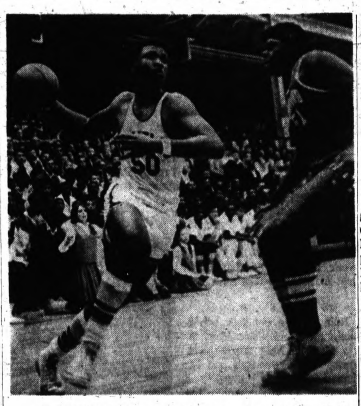
MIAMI (AP) — The 73-foot ketch Windward Passage and 22 other yachts set out today on the 811-mile race from Miami to Montego Bay.

Bob Johnson of the New York Yacht Club will be skipper of the Windward Passage, which already has set records in the St. Petersburg-Fort Lauderdale and Miami-Nassau races, and will try to break his own record.

Johnson was at the helm in 1965 when the Ticonderoga set the record of four days and 23 hours for the Miami-Montego Bay run.

Windward Passage is scratch boat and must concede from 5:43.2 to 38:07.09 to her rivals.

American Eagle, skippered by Ted Turner of Atlanta, also will be in competition after being fitted with a new mast. The 12-meter sloop was dismantled in the recent Miami-Nassau race.



INWARD HO!—Monte Herring (50) starts his drive for the bucket against Mumford's John Andrews, a 6-5 and 260 pounder, in their regional championship game Saturday night at Southfield. The fast and furious game ended with Mumford winning a 75-73 double overtime contest.

Hits 'Commercialism'

Brundage Raps Games

OSLO, Norway (AP) — Avery Brundage, 81-year-old American president of the International Olympic Committee, defended his view Sunday that the Olympic Winter Games in their present shape should be abolished or at least reshaped to get rid of commercialism.

Brundage said at a news conference that most people around the world have no opportunity to practice winter sports.

★ ★ ★

"Olympic Winter Games, therefore, was created despite considerable disapproval. However, now the problem is mainly that they have become too successful and have grown to enormous proportions," Brundage said.

"In France last year, we experienced that the Olympic Winter Games, in fact, were organized in five different cities. The Winter Games program has also become too big.

"There is something wrong when one skier can win three gold medals in three almost identical Alpine events in one week—just to take one example."

Rain Delays Gals in Pro Golf Open

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Heavy rain Sunday forced postponement of the final round of the Orange Blossom Open and members of the Ladies Professional Golf Association will try today to finish the 54-hole tournament.

Marlene Bauer Hagge led after 36 holes with 70-72—142 and held a two-stroke edge over Pam Barnett and Kathy Whitworth.

Sharon Miller was next at 145, followed by Peggy Wilson at 147 and Murle Lindstrom at 148.

If rain—as is forecast—continues, the women will make a final try Tuesday to wind up the $15,000 tournament at Sunset Country Club.

Indiana Pacers Stretch Lead

ABA Quintet Topples Minnesota, 144-113

By United Press International

Riding the crest of a nine-game winning streak, the Indiana Pacers of the American Basketball Association have pulled two games away from Kentucky and Miami in the league's eastern division.

★ ★ ★

The Kentucky Colonels, faltering in the stretch, dropped their third game in a row Sunday while Indiana was breezing to a 144-113 win over Minnesota.

The Colonels fell short three times in the final minutes and lost to the Dallas Chaparrals, 104-100.

★ ★ ★

Miami, meanwhile, found a soft touch in the New York Nets for a 116-103 victory which marked New York's sixth straight defeat.

★ ★ ★

Larry Jones of the Denver Rockets ran his string of over-30-point games to 22, getting 38 markers as the Rockets whipped the Oakland Oaks, 131-119.

Colorful Crooks

MIAMI (AP) — A semitrailer truck stolen from a truck stop Sunday was painted green with lavender stripes. Its cargo, 10 tons of beef and lamb valued at $50,000, will be harder to track down.

In Class A Play

Cage Rematch on Tap

By the Associated Press

East Lansing, having avenged one of its two losses this season, will have a chance Wednesday to get back at Ypsilanti for the other.

The dream match between the state's No. 1 and No. 2 Class A teams was set up Saturday night when East Lansing rolled over 10th-ranked Jackson 82-61 and Ypsilanti squeaked past Ann Arbor Huron 57-54 in overtime.

★ ★ ★

East Lansing's only two losses of the season came at the hands of Jackson and Ypsilanti, and there's nothing it would rather do than go back to East Lansing for the state finals after whipping Ypsi.

★ ★ ★

Ypsi was involved in a real heart-stopper before making its way into the quarter-finals, coming from behind with just seven seconds left in regulation time, then going on to outscore Huron 7-4 in overtime.

FIVE OVERTIMES

But the Upper Peninsula took this year's honors for staging the closest contest of tournament play. Menominee stopped Gladstone 64-62 in five overtimes in Class B game at Marquette.

The score was tied 58-58 at the end of regulation play. Each team scored two points in each of the first two extra periods and went scoreless in the third and fourth overtime periods.

Menominee claimed the victory on a 35-foot push shot launched by Dewey Bellisle, who finished the game with 21 points. Teammate Jeff Jacki was top scorer with 22 points.

Meanwhile, the Detroit public Schools League is assured of having at least one semi-finalist this weekend, because its champion, Mumford is paired against another league member, Southwestern, in quarter-final play, while a third Detroit PSL team, Northeastern, meets Mount Clemens.

PLAYS HOLT

Top-ranked River Rouge waltzed into the quarter-finals of Class B with a 68-60 win over Inkster and will meet Holt Wednesday.

In Class C, unbeaten Saginaw St. Stephen, now 20-0, meets Manistee Catholic Central, riding a 19-game victory string, while Grosse Pointe St. Paul, which eliminated top-ranked Detroit St. Martin DePorres, takes on Flint St. Michael.

★ ★ ★

The top Class D contest sees No. 8 DeTour take on Marquette Bishop Baraga for the Upper Peninsula Class D crown as well as a semifinal slot.

Champ Keeps Tennis Title

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP) — Clark Graebner successfully defended his championship in the third annual Empire State Indoor Tennis Tournament Sunday.

The Davis Cup star, who was top-seeded, won the final, 6-2, 6-2, from Charlie Pasarell of Puerto Rico, the No. 2 seed, at the Racquet Club of Westchester.

★ ★ ★

In his semifinal, Graebner defeated fourth-seeded Herb FitzGibbon of Garden City, N.Y., 10-8, 6-3 after trailing 3-5 in the first set. Pasarell won his semifinal from Stanford University freshman Paul Gerten of Norwalk, Conn., who was not seeded, 6-3, 6-1.

Student Farmers in NY? 115 Participate in Course of the busy urban life in New York City's borough of Queens, students at John Bowne High SChool raise chickens, spread manure, grow vegetables, tend fruit trees and grease and clean tractors.

They are participants in the only high school agriculture program in the city.

★ ★ ★

The 115 college-bound students, including 30 girls, take full academic loads in addition to daily classes in agriculture production and mechanics.

But few plan to become farmers.

OTHER CAREERS

"There are thousands of other careers in the business of agriculture," explains George Chrein, chairman of the program.

He went on to list veterinary medicine, agricultural science and engineering, farm industries and business, conservation and education.

Students who are admitted to the rigorous course must spend their 8th-grade summer working in the 3.8-acre "land laboratory" behind the school testing soil, raising vegetables and taking care of the 300 laying hens.

★ ★ ★

In the 10th and 11th-grade summers they must work on a farm in upstate New York for $20 a week, plus room and board, getting experience in such tasks as baling hay, mending fences and milking cows.

'SO BIG'

"I never saw a cow up close before and I didn't think they were so big," says Constance Coley of her work on a dairy farm last summer.

★ ★ ★

"It took me a week to get up enough courage to go close to them," adds the 16-year-old junior who wants to be a veterinarian.

Hip Cleric Eyes Next Wave of Protest

NEW YORK (AP)—A hip minister who set up a home for runaways in San Francisco says the next wave of youthful protest is going to come in the high schools, in coalitions of blacks and whites and among alienated white middle-class students.

"It's really in the air now, it's really there," says the Rev. Larry Beggs, a 35-year-old minister who founded Huckleberry's for Runaways.

★ ★ ★

"The whole thing has slipped down a notch," Beggs says, from the protest that began in the colleges and continues to sweep the country.

"The awareness level is going up, adolescence is disappearing," he says. "Young people view themselves as participating, and are arbitrarily prevented from doing it.

"The churches, the YMCAs, are all part of the arbitrary control that prevents them from participating," he says, "They are failing, even in suburbia.

"I keep talking about the churches and the others growing up, but I kinda like don't really believe it."

★ ★ ★

Giving young people the power of decision is the key to the situation, the Rev. Mr. Beggs says.

"All this energy, how do we plug all this energy into the system?" he asks. "The fact that they do want in is a compliment, a sign that democracy is still viable."

SIGN OF COURAGE

Young people, he says, are not all just "bad-rapping" the establishment. "Rapping" is talking.

The Rev. Mr. Beggs also says the act of protest, like the act of running away, can be a sign of courage, a creative act.

★ ★ ★

"The kid who gets up in the classroom and says 'Hey, I can't go on with this, let's change it,' has fantastic courage."

Interviewed while in New York in connection with the publication of his book "Huckleberry's for Runaways," the Rev. Mr. Beggs bases his views on what he learned working with more than 1,000 young people at Huckleberry's since it opened in mid-1967.

In the book, a Ballantine Books paperback, the minister says:

STATE OF TURMOIL

"Our society is presently in the turmoil of watching its control system over young people change. The increasing awareness of this generation of young people demands greater participation in formulating the laws and policies that will govern their behavior."

★ ★ ★

School unrest, drug use and runaways are three reflections of discontent, he says. "Turf" is another.

★ ★ ★

Turf is space over which the young people have control, or share control, "a crucial issue today in suburbia as it always has been in large cities," he says.

WHERE IT'S AT

"The shopping center has become the center, the turf, for suburban young people. It used to be the church. The shopping center is where they go to talk, to ogle, to buy."

Young people gathering at the Linda Mar Shopping Center in Pacifica, Calif., last year were forced to leave by policemen acting on merchants' requests. The 400 teen-agers fought back.

"That may have been the first all-white-middle-class riot in the country," he says, adding: "California is an early warning system."

All this calls for new approaches, new organizations for the up-tight white middle-class suburbs," where, he says, "the alienated white middle-class student is going to raise all kinds of hell."

COMMON GOALS

Also, the current separatism, he says, will evolve to coalitions of blacks and whites as each first finds identity, then joins in seeking common goals. Right now, black students are rebelling first "and the white students follow along like camp followers.

"The struggle for justice and participation in the schools has just begun," he writes. "The common self-awareness of both black and white students in the high schools is the motivating source for increasing demands for more of a say in matters affecting their lives."

The minister recommends youth resources centers for suburbs, with the young people in a position to hire and fire. In San Francisco, he says, a group called Youth Advocates has been formed, working out of the experience at Huckleberry's.

The Rev. Mr. Beggs is asking for $45,000 from foundations to finance the first year's work, to include a variety of services such as a newsletter for adults working with young people to keep the adults up to date.

Power Struggle Sweeps Conservation Group

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Sierra Club is embroiled in an internal power struggle that could affect the future of America's conservation movement.

Strong-willed individualists, many of them veteran mountaineers and back-packers, are battling for control of the 72,000-member organization.

* * *

The centerof conflict is David Brower, 56, the executive director of the club, founded in 1892 by naturalist John Muir.

Brower's critics accuse him of arrogance and a driving thirst for personal control of the club, considered by many as the nation's most militant and potent force fighting for preservation of wilderness and scenic wonders.

DRIVING FORCE

The club, which has long fought to set up more national parks, was the driving force behind establishment this past year of Redwoods National Park in California and Cascades National Park in Washington.

The club won a battle to prevent damming of the Colorado River that would have flooded portions of the Grand Canyon.

Those who want to oust Brower after 17 years as the club's executive officer say he has overstepped his authority in expanding the club to national and international scope, partly through an ambitious book publication program.

Brower says the issue is whether the club reverts "to its days as a society of companions on the trail" or moves ahead as an eloquent, successful voice for the cause of worldwide conservation.

The issue will be decided in April when club members vote by mail for five directors. ProBrower and anti-Brower slates are bitterly attacking each other in broadsides reminiscent of a full-fledged political campaign.

"If I lose I imagine they will ask for my resignation and accept it," Brower told a reporter during last weekend's Sierra Club-sponsored Wilderness Conference.

This was vigorously affirmed by a leader of the opposition force, Ansel Adams of Carmel, Calif., a nature photographer.

"Brower is a very gifted person, but we can't brook insubordination," said the bearded Adams, 67, a club member-oriented working director since 1934.

* * *

Adams said the issue is whether the club is to be member oriented working through its local chapters, or a monolithic power structure under Brower.

Exhaust and smoke levels coming from diesel trucks will be controlled for the first time beginning with 1970 models under Federal regulations.

Opening lead—♠K

By OSWALD & JAMES JACOBY

Oswald: "There is no scientific way to bid a freak hand. You let your conscience be your guide and hope for the best."

Jim: "I would be inclined to jump right to five clubs with the South hand. Maybe I would make it. Maybe I would get my opponents up to five spades, which I would double."

Oswald: "I think I would bid just the way this South did. I hope to be doubled at four clubs. This time South did very well with his bids."

Jim: "Yes, indeed! He ruffed the opening spade lead and looked over dummy without any particular zest. He didn't expect to be hurt at five clubs but his chances of making the contract weren't good."

Oswald: "He was going to get to dummy once and clearly the best he could do with that one lead would be to play a heart and finesse his queen. Therefore, it was up to him to get away with the loss of just two trump tricks."

★ ★ ★

Jim: "After coming to this decision, South played his king of clubs. When West followed with the queen, South was down to only two trump losers. All that remained was the heart finesse and that worked."

Oswald: "If any of our readers think that the success of South's play was pure luck, we want to disillusion them. He gave himself the best chance."

★ ★ ★

Jim: "If clubs divided 2-2, it didn't matter a bit which club he led. He would lose exectly two tricks in the suit. If they broke 4-0, it still didn't matter. He would lose three club tricks. If they broke 3-1, the king play gave him a chance to pickle either the queen or the jack; a low play would give him a chance to pickle only the ace. Two chances are twice as good as one."

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of responding one heart, your partner responds two hearts. What do you do now?

Answer Tomorrow

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Tuesday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (March 21-April 19): You may not have it all your way, but you gain plaudits. Pay greater attention to public relations. Male or partner is not pleased with current conditions. Know this — be cooperative.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Some facts previously hidden come to light. You may find yourself misinformed. In dispute, try not to show favoritism. Those who battle today could kiss and make up tomorrow. Remain neutral.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Don't expect too much from friends. Some around you are unsettled, disturbed. Keep goal in sight. Don't be dissuaded by those who are confused. Outline needs, budget.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Day features satisfying of curiosity. You learn the why of recent happenings. Not wise to embark upon journey unless absolutely necessary. Don't give up something for nothing.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Strive for harmony at home. Confusion about whose turn it is could create friction. Be diplomatic. Set example. Cement ties of affection. Otherwise, an important relationship could end.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): One close to you may be overspending. Discussion on matter would seem to be in order. See persons, situations as they actually exist. Stop fooling yourself.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Avoid tendency to be extravagant. Don't ask for too much, too soon. Accent on legal documents which require attention. Read fine print. Detect subtle nuances. Don't be caught with guard down.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Concentrate upon health, work and recreation. Aspects strive for balance. Some patterns change. But don't throw out the good with the bad. You are finishing a project.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): One you previously thought could do no wrong now grates your nerves. Day to assert your independence. Don't be anyone's door mat. Youngster could make excessive demands.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Don't push too hard in occupational area. Some at the top are unsettled, lack security. Know this and time moves accordingly. Aleans make presence known in unobstructive manner.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): You are restless. But do permit logic to dominate. Otherwise, you waste time, energy. Relatives make demands. Maintain balance, good humor — not so good for detail work.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Hold off on money commitment. You need additional facts. Someone who tries to sell something right unseen is covering up a lack. Know this; be patient. Protect assets.

★ ★ ★

IF TUESDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you are embarking upon a new project. Do so with enthusiasm. You could meet person who plays significant role in your life. By April, your enthusiasm returns. Life begins to glow.

★ ★ ★

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Moon opposition to Jupiter-Uranus portends break from past patterns. Famous person embarks on journey because marriage is on the rocks.

Rainy Season to Start Soon

Biafrans View Weather as Best Ally

UMUAHIA, Biafra (AP) — Biafrans are now counting the days until the first strike of Egbe Elu Igwe, "The Gun from Heaven."

The expression is the Ibo language term for the first blast of the rainy season, due about April 1 and lasting until October.

The Biafrans feel that the rain, by washing out roads, slowing armored vehicles and grounding Nigerian planes, will fortify their military position. It should also improve local food production and lessen some of the reliance on relief supplies.

Already, the sky trembles every night with white flashes of electricity, and thunder rolls as loud as the Nigerian bombs that gouge Uli airstrip.

EXPECTED TO FOUNDER

Like the Russians who blessed the murderous Stalingrad winter, and the North Vietnamese who waited for the monsoon season to interrupt U.S. tactical bombing, the Biafrans consider the weather to be their best ally.

* * *

They point to Nigeria's dependence on British Saracen and Ferret armored vehicles, which are expected here to founder in the mud. Nigeria's supply lines, longer than Biafra's, will become the rain-soaked rope, difficult to knot or untangle, authorities say.

* * *

A military man took an illustration from the early days of the war in July 1967.

* * *

"We were in Enugu with about 40 rifles to go around," he said. "The Nigerians were at Nsukka, about 40 miles down the road. In the rain and against really minimal firepower, it took them four months, until October, to get to Enugu. And now we have more arms."

NO AMMUNITION

It took another four rainy months for Nigerian forces to get from Port Harcourt to Owerri, "and this was during a time when we had no ammunition," the officer said.

* * *

Biafrans now feel that with more stable fronts and a continuing supply of ammunition they will be able to advance during the rainy months and regain some of the ground they have lost in the civil war.

* * *

An official said that a substantial percentage of Nigeria's ground forces are members of the Hausa tribe from the northern dry areas where there is no experience of daylong, percussive rains and debilitating humidity.

* * *

"If you are 10 minutes late here, your boss won't accept the rain as an excuse," a Biafran said. "It's part of our life."

WORKS BOTH WAYS

Although the rain will cut down on bombing raids, it might also frequently block the air bridge between Uli and relief supply points in Cotonou in Dahomey and the Portuguese island of Sao Tome.

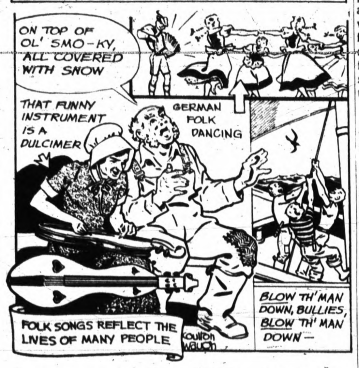
* * *

It may also affect the arms that are acknowledged here to come from Libreville in Gabon and Lisbon. There is no explanation given here of how a possible arms gap would be filled, but the rain ought to take care of some of the food problems.

Crops are expected to improve. A series of early rains indicate that the season will be wet enough to assure a good-sized harvest of cassava, the staple of the Biafran diet.

The Port of San Francisco has had a great increase in cargo tonnage, with 300,000 tons more during the first 10 months of 1968 than the same period of 1967.

Junior Editors Quiz on FOLK MUSIC



QUESTION: Where did folk music come from?

* * *

ANSWER: Many musicians and experts believe that folk music—originated by simple and uneducated people — was the first real music. They believe that it arose because it had the power to express feelings of gaiety, joy—and also of sadness, romance, longing and hope.

The people in our picture are dancing gaily, singing a romantic ballad, using the rhythm of a sea chantey to all pull together on a rope at the same time. They are using music to enrich their ordinary lives—and they are doing it themselves, not just listening to others.

It is probable that from such spontaneous expression arose the famous works of great musicians such as Mozart and Beethoven.

The early folk songs were not written down, but passed from singer to singer, often changed by repetition, so it is difficult to say exactly where many originated.

As a whole, folk songs came from Europe and were transplanted to America. Southern mountaineers and Western cowboys used old tunes and invented new ones. Now we enjoy folk songs in new arrangements and find them still stirring and beautiful.

35,000 Returns Are Incorrect On New Surtax

(UPI) — More than 35,000 early income tax filers in one region will get late refunds or will have to pay more tax this year because they misfigured the new federal surtax, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) said yesterday.

A spokesman said the IRS feared the unusually large number of early errors were establishing a pattern that could confuse the refund process.

About 26 per cent of all early tax filers either forgot to figure the surtax or miscalculated it, he said.

Surtax Errors Slow Returns

Federal income taxpayers can expect a delay in receiving their federal income tax refunds this year because of errors in figuring the new tax surcharge.

Tax returns filed early at one Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Center, shows "an unusually high percentage of returns with mistakes in computation of the surcharge," according to the IRS district director.

Seek Qualified Help, IRS Says

Federal income taxpayers seeking professional help in filing their 1968 Federal income tax returns should select only qualified and reputable advisers.

How Carolina Lady Relieved Painful, Itching Piles

Treatment Shrinks Piles, Relieves Pain In Most Cases

Mrs. C. McKinney of Rutherfordton, N.C. says: "Preparation H relieved my pain and stopped my itching. I can now work and be comfortable. I've told lots of friends who've had the same results."

(Note: Doctors have proved in most cases—Preparation H® actually shrinks inflamed hemorrhoids. In case after case, the sufferer first notices prompt relief from pain, burning and itching. Then swelling is gently reduced. There's no other formula for the treatment of hemorrhoids like doctor-tested Preparation H. It also lubricates to make bowel movements more comfortable, soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form.)

Trading Is Slowed

Stock Mart Continues Lower

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued lower this afternoon. Trading slowed.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 3.42 points at 900.86. The Dow had been off 4.60 points at 11 a.m.

Losses continued to hold a substantial advantage over gains, leading by a bit less than 550 issues.

Brokers said an accumulation of buy orders near the opening indicated the market was ready for a technical rally, but announcement of another boost in the prime rate "apparently dooms hopes of that."

A number of the nation's major banks announced today that they were boosting the rate which a bank charges its most creditworthy customers to 7½ per cent from 7 per cent. The increase is the fourth since early December.

* * *

"The boost didn't come as that great a surprise," one said. "It's been visible for weeks now. It's all part of the tight-money pattern that has been sending the market down recently."

Another said the boost could be applied with a "lack of any really mera Oil was off ⅝ at 28¾.

W. Coast, Dixie Pelted by Rain

Most of U. S. Basks in Springlike Trend

By United Press International

Rain spread over the Deep South and parts of the West Coast today. An almost-stationary low pressure system in the Central Gulf continued to spread rain from East Texas to Florida and the South Carolina coast.

Rainy, windy weather occurred over the Pacific Coast from Washington to central California, as gale warnings were displayed along the Washington and Oregon coasts. Small-craft warnings were up along the northern California coast.

Wind gusts to 74 miles an hour were reported at Cape Blanco, Ore., and up to 62 miles an hour at Astoria, Ore., last night.

The only other precipitation reported across the nation was a few light snow flurries in northern New England.

SPRINGLIKE CONDITIONS

An extended late-season cold spell that covered much of the nation last week changed to springlike conditions as this last week of winter began.

In Iowa, many of the creeks and small rivers in the southcentral part of the state were reported out of their banks last night. However, the flooding was reported to be localized.

* * *

Mild, sunny weather was the rule over much of the nation yesterday, although the Southwest was still digging out from under a foot of snow. A two-inch rainfall in Dixie brought flood threats in parts of Texas. Some light snow fell in the high plains south of the Texas Panhandle, and Portale, N.M., got another half a foot of snow early Sunday.

Temperatures at 2 a.m. EST today ranged from 12 above zero at Limestone and Houlton, both in Maine, to 73 at Miami, Fla.

Long-Range Plans Getting Mart Priority

NEW YORK — While still irritated by numerous brush fires that threaten at times to singe their heels, the people at the N.Y. Stock Exchange are coolly planning ahead for the day when the heat will be off.

CUNNIFF

Long - range planning has, in fact, emerged as a priority consideration, somehow sandwiched between congressional testimony and the latest threat of financial suffocation in the paper sea of mismatched records.

* * *

One recent Monday at the regular staff meeting, which has been turned into a long-range planning session, President Robert Haack and his men sat down to think ahead and heard this testimony:

"We'll never again see a Great Depression. It's folly to plan for one."

'BIG MISTAKE'

Bill Freund, vice president and economist, was the speaker, and Freund wanted it known clearly that member firms and the exchange itself would be took jobs tossing packages for American Express.

ASSUMPTIONS NEEDED

To plan ahead, some of them still feel, is to plan for the unknown. But Freund feels that not to plan is infinitely worse. Assumptions must be made, he feels. Risks must be assumed; leases must be signed; workers must be hired.

Although the assumptions might later be proven wrong, they are needed now as the bases for action. And so the exchange is distributing to brokers a series of research reports on which assumptions might be made.

* * *

The worker problem could be, as it is now, one of the biggest of future problems. Technical know-how is going to change the picture radically; young men and women already are assuming jobs once thought too responsible for them.

It may also be more difficult to hold these workers, Freund feels, a thought that was also discussed in an earlier seminar by Peter Drucker, the management specialist.

'HAVE SECURITY'

"They've got security," Freund commented. "Young people who have skills already have a guaranteed income, and so it will be more difficult to motivate them with financial rewards."

Instead, he feels, they will demand more job satisfaction. They will be especially concerned with the opportunity to making a big mistake if they believed a big slowdown was ahead.

Educating the stock market community in planning isn't the easiest trick, for there are enough short-term problems at the moment to occupy any broker. And planning is duller than counting money anyway.

Some brokers also tend to forget that the rash of brush fires —the paper backlog, commission fights, congressional curiosity—is a direct consequence of ignoring and avoiding planning.

Some brokers still have what Freund refers to as a depression psychosis, and they can hardly be blamed. Some of them remember back to the mid-30s, when times got so bad they make a contribution. They will be discontent, perhaps even quit, if they are mere nuts and bolts in a machine.

* * *

Drucker suggested to the exchange executives that they even consider hiring and training more high schoolers. The stiffest competition in the future, he indicated, might be not so much for products and markets as for people.

In Freund's view, there is hardly a more basic assumption than the one that says there will be no depression. "I am advising the exchange to set plans on that basis," he said. "And why?" he was asked.

MORE UNDERSTANDING

"We have a greatly improved understanding of the economic process," he said. "We know the factors that make for growth. We understand the economic determinants.

"In addition, there is a great willingness of both political parties to promote economic growth and full employment. And there is now public acceptance of the concept that it is the responsibility of government to intervene."

* * *

Freund continued explaining, for he is convinced. "We have a whole new arsenal of economic statistics," he said. "In 1930 nobody had any notion of what was happening. It was total darkness.

"We have automatic stabilizers also," he said, and he cited among them the fact that America today is a nation made up of 60 per cent white collar workers, and "white collars workers aren't fired in a slowdown."

* * *

The exchange plans for the future, but before plans mean made. No matter how large.

'Selling of Places' in Reserves Probed

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — The Shreveport Times says the Air Force is investigating allegations that places in the 917th Military Airlift Group Reserve at Barksdale Air Force base have been sold to men who wished to avoid the draft.

Reservists normally are subject to active duty only for six months of training unless their units are called up.

The Times said an Air Force spokesman confirmed that an investigation was under way but declined to comment on its nature.

Milliken Marches in St. Pat's Parade

LANSING (UPI) — "And a cheery St. Patrick's Day to you, too!" Gov. William G. Milliken was likely to say today while he recovered from a weekend of parading and politicking.

★ ★ ★

Back at his Capitol office — possibly to begin work on a parochiaid statement expected for the Legislature soon — Milliken counted a first in his fledgling governorship.

★ ★ ★

He became the state's first Republican governor yesterday to march in Detroit's 11th Annual St. Patrick's Day parade as he joined Sen. Philip A. Hart and Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh, both Democrats, in a nonpartisan, nippy Irish walk down Woodward Avenue.

Former Gov. George Romney, a strict Mormon, had a never-on-Sunday business rule.

53 DOGS

Behind the trio came almost two hours of traffic-jamming Irishmen, including a troop of Boy Scouts and 53 dogs trailed by a wagon with a beer keg and a sign that read, "I'll drink to that."

It's not known whether Milliken had a good time, but it looked as though he did.

★ ★ ★

Earlier, Milliken was in Washington for a meeting with six other GOP governors. Led by New York Governor Nelson Rockefeller, the group discussed programs of securing more federal aid for state causes.

One scheme the governors talked about was pooling their resources and using the Department of Housing and Urban Development as a broker in attracting private industry into a massive plan to build low-cost housing.

★ ★ ★

For Milliken, who has said he plans extensive traveling around the state rather than the nation, it was a chance for a gubernatorial elbow-rubbing as well as an opportunity to discuss federal social aid programs.

Women weren't given voting rights in France until 1944. A year later the members of the armed forces were allowed to cast their ballots.

Kite Flyer, 22, Is Found Dead

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — Dennis Michael Picciotta, 22, died an hour after he was found unconscious in the back yard of his parents' home where he had been flying a kite Sunday.

★

Police said the kite string, containing a metallic filament, touched a 12,000-volt power line.

Storms Cripple German Sector

HAMBURG, Germany (AP) — Residents of West Germany's Baltic Coast battled huge snowdrifts today in an effort to get road and rail traffic back to normal after three days of storms.

★ ★ ★

Schools in Schleswig-Holstein were closed and so were more than half of the secondary roads in the area. Some villages still were cut off despite round-the-clock snow removal efforts.

★ ★ ★

The snow stopped today, but gale winds still roared over the coastal area. Rail traffic was slowed and ferry service between West Germany and Denmark was suspended.

★ ★ ★

Autobahn traffic between Hamburg and West Berlin was moving slowly. Two trains en route from Aachen to West Berlnn were blocked by snowdrifts.

U.S. Carrousel Finds New Life at Japanese Fair

NEW YORK (AP) — The El Dorado carrousel, said to be the biggest and gaudiest in the world, has found a new life in Japan where it will be used at the Osaka World's Fair in 1970.

From 1911 to 1965 the El Dorado was the dean of all rides at Steplechase Park on Coney Island. When the park was closed it went into storage in New Jersey.

★ ★ ★

Now all the hand-carved horses, chariots, cupids and female trumpeters have been crated and loaded aboard a freighter to be taken to Japan. There its glockenspiels, cymbals, drums and triangles will once again create a cheerful clangor.

★ ★ ★

Capacity of the carrousel is about 140 persons. It is 62 feet in diameter at the platform and 42 feet high.

Scientists believe that leprosy can be cured today, with the drugs available, provided the disease is recognized and treated in its early stages.

Latin Airliner Is Forced to Fly to Cuba

HAVANA (AP) — A Colombian airliner was hijacked to Cuba over the weekend by a man accompanied by a woman and a baby.

★ ★ ★

The DC6 of the Aerocondor Airline is expected to leave Cuba today with its other 36 passengers and crew of eight, the Swiss Embassy indicated.

★ ★ ★

The man carried a pistol when he took over the plane Saturday night as it flew toward San Andres, a Colombian island off Costa Rica.

It was the third Colombian airliner diverted to Cuba this year and the 23rd airliner hijacking of 1969.

★ ★ ★

The plane had taken off from the Caribbean port city of Cartagena and stopped in Barranquilla, another port, before heading for San Andres. It landed in Cuba at Camaguey 30 minutes after midnight.

★ ★ ★

Last Wednesday police and soldiers shot a young man who tried to hijack a plane at Cartagena with a can of talcum powder he said was dynamite.

Thieves in Touch

MARINA DEL REY, Calif. (AP) — Two robbers in ski masks looted a restaurant safe Sunday while using walkie-talkies to communicate with a lookout. The loss was put at $7,000.

REWARD THE "FAMILY CHAUFFEUR"
(That's YOU Mom)

WITH THIS LOW-COST, FUN-DRIVING MINI-BRUTE

It's a car a lady can appreciate . . .

"SMOOTH AS SILK" HANDLING
A sensible size, with smaller turning radius, ease of operation, in all driving Conditions, quick response to every command.

"EASY AS PIE" PARKING
The almost effortless handling, plus the clear, all-around visibility, plus the "lady-in-mind" dimensions enables the Opel Kadette to seem to "almost melt" into even the most improbable space.

"PRETTY AS A PICTURE"
Inside and outside. Exterior color choices that are planned to lift the heart with just a dash of excitement. Beautiful interiors that are as rugged and "kid-resistant" as they are attractive. Easy to clean and keep clean! Pull "wall-to-wall" carpeting, too!

SPECIAL NOTE TO "DADS":
You know automobile value. Look over this list of standard features on the Opel Kadette Deluxe Wagon. Then see if you can believe our low price on this Wagon value.

THE BUDGET-FITTING ANSWER TO FAMILY TRANSPORTATION

SHOPPING — A swing-up tailgate for the easiest of loading — and unloading. Cargo space that just won't quit! Extra space with fold-down seat; more extra space under the floor, even.

"KID-CARRYING" — Take two or a "gang." It makes no difference in this Wagon. Don't worry about scuffing, spilling, or dirt. Opel Kadett's all-vinyl interiors — upholstery and trim — make cleaning a whisk and a breeze. Adults, too, fit comfortably into its roomy seats — all the way there — and back.

FAMILY FUN — Is more fun when everyone goes together, and that's what the Opel Kadett Deluxe Wagon gives you and your family and friends. It's low-priced; it's operating costs are easy on the most modest budgets. A real family addition for vacations, picnics, gardening.

Earl Thinks He's at the Age When All Girls Look Alike

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—After I'd been talking to a beautiful girl with a British accent for about 15 minutes at the opening of the new Jockey Club, I turned to a table mate and said, "I can't stand it any longer. Who am I talking to?"

"Tammy Grimes, you idiot!" she said.

Turning back swiftly I remarked, "Oh, Tammy, as I was saying . . ." I really believe, and hate to admit it, that men do get to an eye age when all girls look alike to them. Tammy and I were soon on excellent terms again and she said as she twirled her white aviator-type scarf around her neck:

WILSON

"Earl, would you find me a duplex or triplex apartment on the East Side in the 60s?"

"Suppose some man wants to sponsor you?" Tammy shrugged. "Let's see what happens."

There was other brilliant conversation such as: (Between men): "I love your pocket hanky. What is it, velour?" . . . "What's the difference between pants and culottes?" . . . "Pants display verything from top to bottom—especially the bottom—and under culottes you can hide a lot."

* * *

There are very few nightclubs here in Nightclubland and the opening of a new one on the site of 14 previous clubs and restaurants brought out the best names for a benefit of the American Cancer Society, with Peter Duchin volunteering his priceless music.

* * *

Herb Gruder, former laundry tycoon, also owner of the Ad Lib, and his wife Jackie changed the place over from Sardi's East in six days. Once upon a time it was the 1-2-3, La Vie en Rose, the Club Cuba, Gilmore's and the Little Monte Carlo.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

MGM wanted Haya Harareet, who was in "Ben Hur," to attend the film's re-release premiere, but she can't—she's in the Israeli marines . . . A rowboat bearing Trevor Howard and John Mills (making David Dean's movie) capsized; Mills, unconscious, was rescued by Howard and divers . . . Gower Champion, who'll direct the Oscar awards, decreed there'll be no sidewalk TV interviews, no bleachers for the gawkers.

Tony Bennett apologized to singer Jimmy Rodgers for his table far in the rear at the Copa. "It's your fault," Rodgers called back, "for doing such great business!" . . . Pearl Bailey said at Inn of the Clock she couldn't take the role offered her in the Rowan & Martin film. (It went instead to Mildred Natwick.)

* * *

WISH I'D SAID THAT: About the only time a woman wishes she were a year older is when she's pregnant.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "Love is like the measles, all the worse when it comes late in life." —Jerrold.

EARL'S PEARLS: TV has a lot of first-grade comedy. Trouble is, notes Don Bergman of Downing Sq., that most viewers have gone beyond the first grade.

Comic Bob Melvin and his landlord had a hassle over a rent increase, but Bob reports they settled it: "I'm not giving him any more money—but he took away one of my rooms." . . . That's earl, brother.

Security Aides to Counter NY School Strife

NEW YORK (AP) — The city's junior and senior high schools have been ordered to appoint security officials in an attempt to control the violent disorders that have plagued some schools.

Schools Supt. Bernard E. Donovan said Sunday that trained security aides would be placed in the 20 schools where the most violence has occurred. Each of the other schools was told to select a security officer.

* * *

Donovan presented the plan to a closed meeting of about 120 principals and supervisors, attended by Mayor John V. Lindsay.

Newsmen were given only a general description of the plan which will go into effect after Easter.

* * *

The High School Principals Association charged that the plan is inadequate, superficial and too late.

Essay Contest on Polish Heroes

CHICAGO (AP) — The Polish Roman Catholic Union of America has announced an essay contest for Chicago teen-agers on two Polish heroes, Gen. Thaddeus Kosciuszko and Casimir Pulaski.

Those who enter must explain "the role of Kosciuszko and Pulaski in the American War of Independence" in 1,500 words or less.

IS THAT . . .?—The man in the background seems to be wondering if he has just seen a celebrity. He has. It's Tennessee Williams, world famous playwright, arriving in Rome.

40 Males Visit Girls' College

ELMIRA, N.Y. (AP) — Forty young men checked in Sunday at Elmira College, a 114-year-old girls school that plans to admit its first male students in the fall.

The 40 are the vanguard of 130 male students from colleges and universities throughout the Northeast expected to visit the school during "Coeducation Week."

* * *

The boys will stay in a campus dormitory and participate in classroom and social activities.

The college, which is picking up the bill, planned the week to ease the transition to coeducation after many of the 1,000 students opposed the idea.

And it seems to be working. "Boys are great!" one young miss said Sunday.

A Look at TV

2 'Dollies' Blend Nicely

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK — It was a happy idea to bring together Broadway's two Dollies—Carol Channing and Pearl Bailey—for a merry, two-woman show.

The ABC special Sunday night was a glittering, tuneful combination of comedy and song. Miss Channing and Miss Bailey, whose styles are very different, complemented each other nicely.

Carol Channing was at her amusing best in an impression of Marlene Dietrich. Pearl Bailey shone in a solo singing spot studded with her characteristic, drawling interpolations. The least effective numbers were a group of songs originally sung by men in assorted Broadway shows. Carol and Pearl wound up, of course, in a duet of "Hello Dolly." from the musical that they both have played for so long.

NBC used a late prime-time hour to broadcast a news department special showing the spread of Russian influence in the Mediterranean and the countries that line its coast.

It was a clam-voiced, thoughtful summary that hammered home the increasing importance of Soviet, and American ships and influence in the area, with the possibility of it leading to a major confrontation.

An ABC news program tonight will concentrate on three young people who are tackling some tough problems of our times and are actually making some headway.

* * *

The special, "Three Young Americans: In Search of Survival," focuses on a Philadelphia social worker, a conservationist working to preserve our wilderness areas and a marine conservationist working on water pollution problems.

Harold Haskins, the social worker who is a product of the Philadelphia slum area himself, was able to move one of the city's toughest gangs off the street and into a studio. He turned them into amateur film makers.

* * *

The project was so successful, it expanded into other business areas.

"What I wanted to do," said Haskins, "was give them something to think about after they got home. Recreation was great, but it was over when the basketball or football game was over."

"Snap Judgment," NBC's daytime game show, winds up on March 28, but Ed McMahon, its host, simply steps over to the host's job on another NBC daytime show, "Concentration."

* * *

Bob Clayton, who had been "Concentration's" announcer during the 10 years Hugh Downs handled the show, was moved up when Downs withdrew a couple of months ago. He will resume his announcing chores.

What ABC giveth it can, apparently, take away fast. One day last week the network announced that "What's It All About, World" would be retitled "The Dean Jones Variety Hour." The very next day it sent out another notice—to "disregard" the title change.

Southfield Site for Stadium Out in Front

DETROIT (AP) — Downtown Detroit is the sentimental favorite, but suburban Southfield appears to be the Monday morning favorite to land Detroit's new stadium.

The two are among six sites being considered for the new ball park. Others are the State Fairgrounds on the northern edge of Detroit and possibilities in either Pontiac, Walled Lake or Taylor.

Only the downtown site's proponents, which include Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh, and the group proposing Southfield have presented actual plans, and Southfield appears to have the inside track now.

Whatever site is chosen will have to have the backing of both Tiger owner John Fetzer and Lion president William Clay Ford.

BOTH FOR SOUTHFIELD

Fetzer is on record having said the Southfield group, led by Land Developer Robert D. Forte, is the only one with "very good financial credentials."

Ford also has said Southfield is the leading candidate right now."

* * *

The nine-member Southfield group announced p asFriday for a $100-million stadium-hotel-office building complex on a 203-acre plot bounded by I-696, Inkster Road, 11 Mile and Telegraph Roads.

Its proposed domed stadium would feature a 31-story tower at each end and a shopping plaza on the ball park's lower periphery. It would seat 60,000 for baseball and 73,000 for football.

PRIVATE FINANCING

The entire project would be privately financed and the group, which includes at least one prominent banker, reportedly has assurances of $60 million in capital.

But, says Fetzer, if all things were equal "I think downtown Detroit would be the preferred approach."

Ford said he, too, would like the stadium to be downtown, "sentimentaly." He added he thinks it would give "the city a real shot in the arm."

Mayor Cavanagh, who has pointed out the advantages of a downtown location in terms of accessibility, has also said he feels the stadium is necessary to revitalize the inner city.

Milliken Making Sure That Appointees Echo His Views

By JAMES PHILLIPS

LANSING (AP) — Gov. William Milliken apparently is taking stern action to insure that his appointees reflect executive office positions in public statements.

The action came after State Highway Director Henrik Stafseth criticized the governor's plan to spend $1.5 million to establish a state police task force.

★ ★ ★

In addition, Milliken reportedly is fearful of criticism from the State Natural Resources Commission on his proposal to spend more than half of the $100-million recreation bond issue in urban areas.

According to a high executive office source, Milliken is "frankly not pleased with the direction developed" in the State Police task force issue.

OBJECTS TO TERM

Milliken has been accused by some of "raiding" funds earmarked specifically for highway construction.

Milliken objected to the term "raid," the source said, adding that Milliken feels there is ample precedent to justify use of the funds.

★ ★ ★

The same monies, the official said, have been used to build rest areas, roadside parks and rest rooms.

The governor also held a meeting with the Natural Resources Commission, apparently to cut short any proposals to object publicly to Milliken's plea for spending more than half of the $100 million in urban areas.

★ ★ ★

At least one commission member has privately stated that the voters approved the issue on the basis of $70 million for state projects such as camp sites and fish hatcheries and $30 million for urban areas.

If Milliken's proposal is approved by the Legislature, the commission members said, "We wouldn't be able to pass another recreation bond issue for 50 years."

★ ★ ★

Milliken tried to convince commission members to come over to the 40-30-30 side during his recent meeting, a source said.

However, a high source said, Milliken "did not ask for a commitment at this point."

Nonetheless, Milliken apparently made it clear that he wasn't about to go to the 70-30 recreation bond distribution.

★ ★ ★

What apparently disturbs Milliken is the fear that his administration will appear divided and that he cannot control appointees who serve at the pleasure of the governor.

One source said Milliken feels that "the government should operate with some degree of agreement" and that is the reason for the meetings.

Quality Standards Due on State's Inland Waters

LANSING (AP)—Water quality standards for protection of all inland waters in Michigan are scheduled to be set at a meeting of the State Water Resources Commission Wednesday and Thursday.

Revised staff recommendations presented last month have been finalized and will be presented for commission approval at the East Lansing meetings. Information presented at five public hearings held last year is being considered as part of the criteria for standards.

★ ★ ★

Charges of water pollution will be heard Wednesday against Eaton Rapids, Eaton County; Portland, Ionta County, Delhi Township, Ingham County; The Coldwater Rendering Co., Branch County; Concord, Jackson County, Jonesville, Hillsdale County; and Elkton, Huron County.

★ ★ ★

Similar charges of water pollution will be heard Thursday against Camden, Hillsdale County; Clayton, Deerfield, Britton, and Ridgeway Township, all Lenawee County; Hartford, Van Buren County; New Buffalo, Berrien County; Paw Paw, Van Buren County; and Kinde, Huron County.

Venezuelan Ground Toll Climbs

155 Dead in Jetliner Crash

MARACAIBO, Venezuela (AP) — The death toll in aviation's worst disaster reached 155 today as searchers combed the wreckage of homes destroyed by the crash of a Venezuelan jetliner bound for Miami.

Five more persons died today from injuries suffered when the big DC9 with 84 persons aboard plunged into a residential area yesterday and exploded minutes after taking off from Grano de Oro airport.

★ ★ ★

All 74 passengers and 10 crew members, at least 47 of them U.S. citizens, were killed in the crash. Authorities estimated at least 71 persons on the ground have perished and feared the total would increase as the grim search continues.

The DC9, powered by two turbofan engines mounted aft, had attained an altitude of only 150 feet when it faltered minutes after takeoff and plunged into a cluster of low-cost homes in Maracaibo's La Trinidad and Ziruma districts. The area was quickly enveloped in flames.

EIGHT INVESTIGATIONS

Eight investigating teams are trying to determine what caused the crash, which may have affected indirectly more than 1,000 people.

An airport official said the pilot reported no trouble and his last radio contact with the control tower was a routine request for permission to take off.

The plane lifted off the end of the runway, climbed briefly, then suddenly went down. The explosion appeared to have occurred when one of the plane's turbines grazzed a high-tension wire.

Fifteen other air crashes have taken more than 100 lives. The worst previous aviation accident occurred Dec. 16, 1960, when two airliners collided over New York City, killing 134 passengers and persons on the ground.

Related Story, Page A-2

HIT UTILITY POLE

A policeman who was a witness said the plane lost altitude shortly after taking off, hit a high-tension pole, spun and fell in pieces on residential districts of Ziruna and La Trinidad. The area on the outskirts of Maracaibo, a principal oil center, is inhabited by about 15,000 Colombians, Venezuelans and Guajiro Indians.

The plane had been in service only 10 days. The flight originated in Caracas, 330 miles to the east. The airline said there were 74 passengers and a crew of 10 aboard.

★ ★ ★

The cause of the crash is not known, but authorities said they had recovered the plane's flight recorder and were studying last moments of the flight.

★ ★ ★

The 47 North Americans killed included five prize-winning salesmen for the Clark Equipment Co. of Battle Creek, Mich., and their wives. Their prizes had been vacations in Caracas.

U.S., Irish Paraders Mark St. Pat's Day

By The Associated Press

Hundreds of Americans turned up for the St. Patrick's Day parade in Dublin.

In Chicago, the Chicago River was dyed green for the occasion.

★ ★ ★

At Grogan's restaurant in South Boston you could order anything you wanted, but what you got was corn beef and cabbage.

They laughed in New York when told that Savannah, Ga., with a planned turnout of 10,000 or so, hoped to have the biggest parade in the country.

27,000 MARCHERS

The Ancient Order of Hibernians, sponsor of the New York parade, counted on 345 contingents totaling 27,000 marchers, including 161 bands. It was New York's 207th annual show in honor of the saint who, legend says, drove the snakes from the Emerad Isle.

The Irish tourist board said Americans were on hand in record numbers and that 400 of them were marching in the parade. The biggest single group, 200, came from Albany, N. Y.

★ ★ ★

Ireland's 86-year-old president, Eamon De Valera, issued a message of "good wishes to all our kinsfolk and friends beyond the seas."

Prime Minister Jack Lynch pledged his government would "promote the reunification of Ireland."

At the moment, the six counties of Northern Ireland are separated from the republic. As a symbolic protest against this situation, the New York parade marchers were ordered to wear black armbands.

Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley enlisted William Jones, lord mayor of Waterford, Ireland, to help him lead the big annual parade from the green-dyed Chicago River down the mercantile artery of State Street.

Waterford is the hometown of Daley's paternal grandparents, and he visited there in 1964.

William P. Fay, Ireland's ambassador to Washington, had a fresh shamrock flown in from the old country for President Nixon.

STUDENT 'DEMANDS'

In Madison, Wis., the Irish Students Association of the University of Wisconsin marked the day by issuing a list of demands.

They said they wanted the English language replaced by Gaelic in classrooms, lime juice instead of orange juice in the cafeteria dispensing machines, and one administration building painted green.

Katie O'Callaghan, vice president of the association, said if the demands were not met students of Irish extraction would sit in classes and stare coldly at their instructors.

Israel Attacks Jordan Again

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli warplanes attacked Jordan today for the second straight day, hitting suspected Arab guerrilla bases in the foothills of the Gilead Mountains.

An army spokesman said four or five planes strafed and bombed Arab gun positions that fired missiles at Israeli settlements in the area last night, touching off an artillery duel.

★ ★ ★

A Jordanian spokesman said the planes showered rockets, napalm and machine-gun fire on three towns. He added there were no casualties but an agricultural area was damaged.

Earlier yesterday Israeli planes raided three big Arab guerilla bases in Jordan. The Israeli army said all planes returned safely, but in Amman a spokesman for the Al Fatah guerrilla organization claimed its antiaircraft guns downed six of the attacking jets.

Livonia Man Gets New Heart

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A 43-year-old heavy equipment operator was described in "good shape" after a seven-hour operation today in which the heart of a 24-year-old man was transplanted into his chest cavity to replace his "volleyball-size" organ.

The size of the heart—five times normal—presented some surgical problems, since the new and smaller heart occupied less space, a spokesman said.

★ ★ ★

The recipient, Gerald Kenneth Rector of Livonia, became Michigan's third heart transplant patient when the operation began at 10:40 p.m. yesterday at University of Michigan hospital. It ended at 5:40 a.m. today.

Michigan's two earlier heart recipients, P. T. Barnum of Kalamazoo and Donald Kaminski of Alpena, have returned home following the University Hospital operations.

MUSCLE DEGENERATION

Rector had been suffering from cardiomyopathy or degeneration of the heart muscle. He has not worked for the last two years.

Rector's new heart came from Roland J. Hoag, 24, of Westland, who died of a cerebral aneurism, or a weak blood vessel in the brain.

★ ★ ★

Hoag, a Ford Motor Co. product technician, was operated on two in Detroit during the last week for his brain condition. However, he was brought to U-M hospital when it became apparent the operations were unsuccessful, a hospital spokesman said.

Rector is expected to remain in the cardiac recovery unit for seevral days.

An endo-tracheal tube and a respirator were being used to aid his breathing. His pulse was reported at 90, with blood pressure at 120 over 80. Both are considered normal.

Stadium Seen as Big Asset

F. Jack Douglas wears two hats when he talks enthusiastically about the possibility of Pontiac becoming the site of a domed sports stadium.

★ ★ ★

Douglas is both a Pontiac city commissioner and a union official, heading the Oakland County AFL-CIO Council.

★ ★ ★

His opinion reflects the views of each job when he speaks about the benefits that such a stadium could bring to Pontiac and Oakland County.

"First of all it would help breathe new life into the city," said Douglas.

'MORE JOBS'

"And when this happens it would bring in new business and create more jobs."

Simply stated, said Douglas, "It couldn't be anything but a tremendous asset to the entire community."

★ ★ ★

The Pontiac site for the proposed stadium is near I-75 and M59.

Ray Judge: Trial Wouldn't Help

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Judge Preston Battle, who sentenced James Earl Ray to 99 years in prison, told an interviewer yesterday that a number of questions about the Martin Luther King assassination were left outstanding. But he doubts that a trial by jury would have cleared the air.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile Ray's lawyer, Percey Foreman of Houston, Tex., reiterated in a television interview his belief that there was no conspiracy in the killing.

Dist. Atty. Gen. Phil M. Canale, the prosecution said in another broadcast interview he understands Ray expects to be free within two years.

Canale said he was told this by Foreman, but was uncertain whether Ray thought he would get out by way of court action or by escaping.

Judge Battle remarked in his interview, "There has been much talk of a conspiracy, but no one saying so has yet produced a single shred of evidence."

He said he was convinced that a trial would only have "muddied our understanding of the substantial evidence which established Ray as the killer."

Troy Man Held in City Slaying

A Troy man is in Oakland County Jail on a murder charge in connection with the stabbing death of a Pontiac man in a city bar Saturday night.

Arrested by Pontiac police about three hours after the stabbling of Larry Belce, 52, a roomer at the Waldron Hotel, was Richard L. Henry, 24, of 4345 Livernois. Police said they are seeking a second suspect.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac detectives said Belce had been stabbed five times. He was taken to Pontiac General Hospital where he died hours later.

Before his death, Belce told police he was stabbed as he entered the men's room of Bob-Ken's Bar, 9 N. Saginaw. He said he did not see his assailant. He also said there had been no attempt to rob him.

TWO MEN SEEN

Witnesses said two men rushed out of the men's room just before Belce staggered out, gasping that he had been stabbed.

Henry was arrested on information from witnesses at the bar.

★ ★ ★

Police, who were hailed by a man outside the bar, said the weapon was a four-inch hunting knife they found on the floor.

Lake Orion Police Discover Body of Slain Woman, 22

A Lake Orion woman was found dead in a car in that village early yesterday. Police said she apparently had been strangled, but they refused to give further specific details of the murder.

Village Police Sgt. Leslie Perkins said the body of Mrs. Frances Ann Brown, 22, of 121 S. Slater was discovered by Officer Earl Rinehardt at about 2:15 a.m. in a routine check of vehicles in a public parking area at Lapeer and Front.

★ ★ ★

Perkins said police theorize that the woman had been dead for about two hours.

Police have not yet determined whether the woman was sexually attacked before her death, Perkins said. He refused to disclose whether a weapon was used.

HUSBAND IN CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Brown is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gibbons of Rochester, Ind., Perkins said. He said police are trying to contract her husband, Truman Brown, who lives somewhere in California.

The owner of the car — a black 1964 or 1965 Cadillac — in which the body was found has been contacted and questioned by police, Perkins said. Police are currently looking for persons who saw the vehicle prior to midnight yesterday, he added.

★ ★ ★

The village police department asked for assistance from the Oakland County sheriff's office, and the case is under investigation by Detectives Charles Whitlock, Fred Pender and Harry Jones from the sheriff's office, as well as Lake Orion officers.

Russia, China Clash Again

MOSCOW (AP) — The Manchurian border appeared quiet today after another weekend clash between Soviet and Red Chinese troops. Pravda said local elections were held on the Soviet side yesterday and "100 per cent of the electorate voted except those who fell in battle."

There was still no word on casualties in the battle that began Friday and resumed Saturday on disputed Damansky-Chenpao island in the frozen Ussuri River.

★ ★ ★

Moscow said 31 Russian soldiers were killed there in a clash March 2, while the Chinese said many of their troops also were killed.

Pravda, the Communist party newspaper, said Soviet frontier guards fought Saturday for seven hours under a hail of fire.

'RAIDERS REPELLED'

The paper concluded: "A powerful artillery barrage struck the firing positions of the Maoists who instigated the clash, and a fast attack swept all the raiders off Damansky Island."

Maj. Gen. Vasily Lobanov, who commands the Pacific Ocean frontier district, said Red China fielded up to a regiment of infantry — about 2,500 men — who attacked Soviet border guards in waves under cover of an artillery barrage.

★ ★ ★

"The snow became dark from the explosion of shells," Lobanov said in a dispatch from Vladivostok. "Barrage fire from Chinese artillery and mortar batteries covered the island."

Peking Radio said the Russions poured tanks, armored vehicles and troops into the battle, but the Chinese "completely demolished" the Soviets.

NO CONFIRMATION

There was no Soviet confirmation that tanks were used, but Moscow newspapers told of armored troop carriers being deployed to penetrate to the rear of the Chinese force.

And Moscow exchanged sharp protests again, and newspapers reported "hatred and indignation" and "oceans of hatred" at factory meetings and workers' protests.

★ ★ ★

About 200 persons gathered Sunday around the Chinese Embassy in Moscow, shouting insults and raising clenched fists, but the demonstration was brief.

Soviet newspapers heated up their campaign against Chinese Communist party chairman Mao Tse-tung and warned "Peking adventurists . . . their criminal policy is doomed to failure."

PEKING IS QUIET

In contrast, a Japanese correspondent reported the Chinese capital was quiet with none of the noisy demonstrations that followed the March 2 fighting.

★ ★ ★

Correspondent Ieshige Akioka of the newspaper Asahi Shimbun wrote: "It is always Russia which first announces the border clashes . . .

★ ★ ★

"There are strong surmises in Peking that Moscow has reasons for wanting to use the incidents . . . to show the gravity of Chinese-Soviet relations so it can take leadership in the projected world Communist party conference."

The Soviets have accused Peking of doing more or less the same thing, "provoking armed clashes to achieve its great-power hegemonistic plans."

Lobanov said the dispute over the island had been smoldering for 18 months, with the Chinese systematically sending troops to the island and being "repeatedly warned" off by the Soviets.

AWARD WINNERS—Pontiac Press staffers view the Michigan Press Association's Harrison C. MacDonald first-place award for daily newspapers, which they received Saturday in Grand Rapids. The award was made on the basis of a Washington's Birthday double-page classified-display color spread in The Press Feb. 22. It was sponsored by local auto dealers. The Press staffers are (from left) Arthur Thomas, classified salesman; Robert Cook, classified display salesman; and Elliott P. Henry, classified advertising manager.

ANTHONY G. De LORENZO

Public Relations Honor Given GM Executive

Anthony G. De Lorenzo, vice president of General Motors in charge of its public relations staff, was named 1968 "Public Relations Professional of the Year" yesterday by Public Relations News.

De Lorenzo of 3280 Bradway, Bloomfield Township, was nominated by the publication's 19-member editorial advisory board and voted on by its readers in 50 states and 75 countries.

★ ★ ★

In announcing the award, Denny Griswold, editor of Public Relations News, an international weekly for management and public relations executives, called De Lorenzo "an aggressive advocate of the principle that business organizations must serve society effectively and must let people know—and get them to understand — what they are doing and what they plan to do."

De Lorenzo, 54, has been with the General Motors staff for 20 years. In 1956 he became public relations director and one year later was elected vice president in charge of the public relations staff. Previously he was with the Racine (Wis.) Journal-Times, United Press and the Kudner Agency.

★ ★ ★

He is a past president of the Detroit chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic society, and a founding member of the Detroit chapter of the Public Relations Society of America.

The award will be presented next month at a reception in New York.

Assistant VP Retires From Edison Post

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Thomas J. Peterson of 1324 Juniper Lane has retired from his post of assistant vice president for marketing at Detroit Edison.

He completed 40 years of service with the utility company last December.

★ ★ ★

Peterson began his Edison career as a sales clerk shortly after graduation from Stanford University in 1928. He was advanced to administrative assistant in 1929, assistant commercial manager in 1949, assistant manager of sales in 1952 and manager of customer services in 1965. Peterson assumed his assistant vice presidency in 1966.

Active in community organizations, Peterson was one of the founders of Detroit's Franklin Settlement, and served as president and a member of the board of directors until 1966. He is currently a board member of both the Franklin Wright Settlement and Camp Oakland.

★ ★ ★

A past president of the Michigan Electric Association, Peterson served as a director of that organization for seven years, until 1966.

He also served as chairman of the customer relations committee and coordinator of the customer activities group of the Edison electric institute.

Soviet Bloc Leaders Gather for Summit

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Leaders of the Soviet bloc assembled in Budapest today for a Warsaw Pact summit meeting.

The two major issues in the Communist world, the Soviet Chinese border dispute and the Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia, may be discussed but probably won't be mentioned in the formal communique.

A source close to the conference said the documents to be signed were expected to be a declaration on European peace and a communique on Vietnam and the Middle East. The European declaration was expected to condemn the recent West German presidential election in West Berlin.

Because each nation is represented by its Communist party chief, premier and foreign and defense ministers, the meeting is viewed as a small-scale dress rehearsal for the world Communist conference to be held in Moscow in May.

SOVIET DELEGATION

The Soviet delegation is headed by party chief Leonid Brezhnev and Premier Aleksei Kosygin. It includes Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko and Defense Minister Andrei Grechko.

★ ★ ★

Other members of the Warsaw Pact—the Communist answer to NATO—are Bulgaria, East Germany, Hungary, Poland, Romania and Czechoslovakia.

The Czechoslovak party newspaper Rude Pravo said the meeting may resolve the "setting up of a joint staff of Warsaw treaty armed forces" with "the participation of individual member states to be determined by the extent of their share in the joint defense."

★ ★ ★

"In international relations," Rude Pravo continued, "the problem of European security now comes to the forefront ... The talks will undoubtedly be influenced also by the recent Berlin crisis, sharpening of the Middle East situation and, last but not least, also the Sino-Soviet border incident.

Gls End Pacific Crossing, Start War Games in Korea

YOJU, South Korea (AP)—Led by a two-star general and a Medal of Honor sergeant, 1,320 U.S. paratroopers leaped into South Korea today at the climax of an 8,500-mile trans-Pacific assault operation. It began five days of war games called Focus Retina.

★ ★ ★

The men of the 82nd Airborne Division were flown from Ft. Bragg, N.C., to the muddy reaches of the North Han River, 35 miles south of Seoul, in what the U.S. military said was the longest air operation in history.

C141 Starlifter jet transports ferried the first batch of 720 soldiers into the operations area from Okinawa, two and a half hours away. Delayed 24 hours by a snowstorm here yesterday, they completed the journey from North Carolina in close to 55 hours. Maj. Gen. John R. Deane Jr., their commander, and Sgt. 1. C. Charles D. Morris, who won the Medal of Honor in Vietnam, were the first to hit the silk as the gray parachutes dotted the sky.

★ ★ ★

Deane got wet when he landed in a small stream but later joined South Korean President Chung Hee Park and U.N. Commander Gen. Charles Bonesteel on a hill overlooking the operations are.

While the airdrops were taking place, North Korea called a special meeting of the Military Armistice Commission at Panmunjom to demand the exercise be canceled. It was the second North Korean protest in a week.

The U.S. delegate, Maj. Gen. James B. Knapp, rejected the North Korean demand.

11 From State in Crash of Jet

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Eleven persons from Michigan, including a Farmington couple, were among tentatively identified victims of a Venezuelan airplane crash yesterday that claimed 150 lives — the worst tragedy in aviation history.

Also among Michigan victims were two Clark Equipment Co. executives and their wives and a St. Clair couple.

★ ★ ★

There were believed to have been 47 Americans among the 150 who were killed in the crash at Maracaibo, Venezuela.

Four other Clark Equipment Co. executives and their wives escaped, having returned yesterday on another airliner after a week-long sales meeting of the company in Caracas, where one of its overseas plants is located.

Three other Clark couples, however were among the victims, but none of them lived in Michigan.

Michigan victims identified by immigration authorities at Caracas Airport or the U.S. Embassy here were:

- John H. Hacker, 55, president of Consumers Petroleum Co., of Detroit, and his wife, Lucille, 50, of Farmington. Hacker of 28742 Westmeath and his wife had been to Venezuela to visit a daughter living there. The Hackers were returning to Miami for a National Oil Institute meeting. They left for South America Feb. 26.
- Albert G. Davidson Jr. and his wife, Alice, of Battle Creek and Robert L. Brown Jr. and his wife, Jane, of Marshall. Brown was general products manager for Clark and Davidson was marketing and service manager at Battle Creek.
- Ben H. Duengel, 65, and his wife, LaClair, 57, of St. Clair, who had operated a men's store in Richmond, Mich., for 25 years and who had been vacationing in South America for five weeks.

Authorities had no home town addresses for three others they listed from Michigan. They were Joseph Flint Rice, whose passport was issued in Los Angeles and Basil Richard Deelsnyder and Jane Deelsnyder.

Dentist in City Dies at Age of 64

Dr. Anthony J. Michal, a long-time Pontiac dentist, died yesterday. He was 64.

A University of Michigan graduate, Dr. Michal, 4995 Malibu, Bloomfield Hills, had offices in Pontiac the last 35 years.

★ ★ ★

He was a member of the American Dental Association, the Navy League of the United States, and the Orchard Lake Country Club.

A Requiem Mass will be said at 11 a.m. Wednesday at Our Lady of Refuge Catholic Church, Orchard Lake. A Rosary will be said at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home.

School Aid Parley to Push for Reform

LANSING (AP) — In an attempt to "get action this year" a group of politically potent organizations have scheduled a Lansing conference March 31 on a formula for state school aid.

Mrs. Jane Tate, a regional vice president of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers, announced the conference in Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Michigan public schools are in desperat trouble," she said.

Besides the Parent-Teacher Congress, she listed among 30 sponsoring organizations:

The United Auto Workers Union, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Michigan Federation of Teachers, Michigan Education Association, Michigan Farm Bureau, central committees of both the Democratic and Republican parties and the Michigan AFL-CIO.

TROUBLES GROWING

She said 74 Michigan school districts had deficits last June and the number will be greater next September.

★ ★ ★

Among other things, Mrs. Tate said the conference will form a Citizens Task Force for each congressional district "to implement action in the coming months."

Crash Injuries Kill Waterford Youth

A Waterford Township youth died yesterday in Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital of injuries suffered in an auto accident Friday.

Hospital authorities said Johnny M. May, 19, of 4592 Clinton died about 5:30 p.m. of head and internal injuries.

May was injured when the car he was driving north on Sashabaw near Major crossed the center line and struck a tree and fence after running off the road, according to township police.

Bus Falls; 19 Killed

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — A bus crashed into a ravine west of Bogota and 19 passengers were killed, police reported today.

Officials said there were about 20 injured among the passengers. They surmised the driver fell asleep at the wheel on a mountain road between Fresno and Pensilvania, about 160 miles west of Bogota.

Cong Step-Up, Victory Vowed

HONG KONG (AP) — North Vietnam's Communist party newspaper Nhan Dan said today the Vietcong will intensify their offensive and will eventually win in South Vietnam.

"The movement of struggle will be more strongly pushed forward to wrest back the control in areas under U.S. and puppet control," it said.

★ ★ ★

Nhan Dan warned the Vietcong would have to face "many difficulties and sacrifices" before attaining final victory, but added: "No matter what violent and barbarous war acts the Nixon clique will use, and no matter how perfideous their political maneuvers will be, they will never be able to reverse the situation."

The comments, broadcast by Radio Hanoi, were echoed by the military daily Quan Doi Nhan Dan, which said the Vietnamese have "a sacred inviolable right" to fight United States aggression in Vietnam.

NIXON 'INSOLENT'

The military daily described as "insolent" President Nixon's statements Friday on possible retaliation if the offensive continues and said the United States will be "severely punished."

"In a short period of time, the Vietcong and people have wiped out a sizable portion of enemy live forces totaling 45,000 U.S., puppet and satellite troops, with U.S. forces taking the hardest beating," said the paper.

BIRMINGHAM — Mrs. Julia Brown, right-wing activist and a former undercover agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Cleveland, will give her views of the "cause and cure of agitation and civil turmoil at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Derby Junior High School.

Mrs. Brown's work for the FBI concerned what she terms "Communist influences within the Civil rights movement."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Brown's speech which is sponsored by the South Oakland TACT Committee, a pro-right wing group, will concern her program for "restoring fundamental American principles and building a safer, freer, prouder nation."

Residents in the Birmingham Public School district contributed 408 sacks of clothing for the Save the Children Federation, according to Arthur Roller, principal, Torry Elementary School, who was drive chairman.

The clothes will be distributed to impoverished children in the Southern Appalachia area.

Allies Take Heavy Toll of Reds in South Viet

SAIGON (AP) — U.S., Thai and South Vietnamese forces killed 281 enemy troops in heavy fighting around Saigon and in the Mekong Delta and uncovered 40 graves containing another 152 bodies south of Da Nang, military spokesman reported today.

U.S. infantrymen from the 9th Division killed 131 Vietcong in a series of five clashes over the weekend in the upper half of the Mekong Delta, the U.S. Command announced.

Two Americans were reported wounded in the clashes Saturday and Sunday. U.S. spokesmen explained that helicopter gun ships and artillery accounted for at least a third of the enemy dead, and another 19 were killed in an ambush.

The fighting occurred near the provincial capital of Ben Tre and the district capital of Cai Be, 40 to 50 miles southwest of Saigon.

U.S. headquarters said the actions were part of a multibattalion operation under way since last Dec. 1. A spokesman said more than 4,200 Vietcong have been killed in the operation and more than 2,350 captured. U.S. losses have been 148 killed and 1,366 wounded, he said.

Thailand's Black Panther Division reported 400 of its men repulsed an attack early Sunday by more than 1,000 Vietcong only 18 miles east of Saigon. The defenders said at least 109 Vietcong were killed and four captured.

A spokesman said the assault was made under a heavy mortar and rocket barrage.

"The Thais fixed bayonets and repelled the attackers who briefly breached the Thai perimeter in two places," a communique said.

Four Thai batteries poured hundreds of rounds of artillery into the charging enemy troops, and an armored column was rushed up to reinforce the defenders.

Two Thais were killed and 19 wounded, the communique said.

As the Vietcong's spring offensive went into its 23rd day, about 30 rocket and mortar attacks were reported on allied bases and towns Sunday night. Two were followed by infantry assaults on American bases northeast of Saigon.

About 70 enemy soldiers hit a night bivouac of men from the 1st Air Cavalry Division 25 miles northeast of Saigon with machine guns, small arms and close-quarter fighting lasted three hours, and when it ended 10 Americans had been killed and 17 wounded. A sweep of the battlefield produced nine enemy bodies.

* * *

Twenty-eight miles to the northwest of Saigon, enemy soldiers fired 10 mortar rounds into a 25th Infantry Division bivouac, then followed with a ground attack, firing rocket-propelled grenades and small arms.

FIRE RETURNED

For two hours the Americans returned the fire, blazing away with 50-caliber machine guns mounted on armored personnel carriers. A sweep at dawn turned up the bodies of 30 North Vietnamese soldiers. U.S. headquarters said, while one American was wounded.

In another fight on Saigon's eastern flank, enemy troops attacked a South Vietnamese military district headquarters before dawn Sunday after firing 20 mortar rounds into it. Two of the 100 militia defenders were killed and seven were wounded. Five civilians were reported killed and six wounded. A spokesman said two of the enemy were killed and one captured.

* * *

The 40 mass graves were uncovered by troops from the U.S. 196th Light Infantry Brigade about 35 miles south of Da Nang. U.S. headquarters said the 155 bodies were Vietcong and North Vietnamese killed by artillery, air strikes and small arms fire about four days before.

'H-Bomb Needed Debate Like ABM'

NEW YORK (AP) — The development of the hydrogen bomb should have been subject to the same type of public debate that the antiballistic missile system is undergoing, a former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission says.

David E. Lilienthal, who said he opposed hydrogen bombs when he headed the AEC, said, "An issue of that kind certainly should not be decided by four or five guys, even though I was one of them ... I think they should be debated the way the antiballistic issue is."

Lilienthal remark's were broadcast Sunday on NBC-TV's "Speaking Freely."

People in the News

By the Associated Press

The widow of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. has become the first woman ever to preach a regular Sunday service in London's St. Paul's Cathedral.

MRS. KING

Coretta King spoke from the same pulpit where her late husband a Baptist, preached in 1964, the first non-Anglican to do so.

Mrs. King, who said she felt "a deep sense of humility and a painful sense of inadequacy," delivered a 15-minute sermon to 2,000 churchgoers.

"Many despair at all the evil and unrest and disorder in the world today," she said. "But beyond the turbulence, I see a new social order. I see the dawn of a new day."

Dinah Shore's Daughter Is Married

Melissa Ann Montgomery, actress daughter of singer Dinah Shore and actor George Montgomery, has married David Burk, an actor-producer. It was the first marriage for Miss Montgomery, 21, and the third for Burk, 31.

The ceremony yesterday was performed at Miss Shore's home in Beverly Hills, Calif.

First Woman Performs Episcopalian Marriage

Deaconness Phyllis Edwards became the first woman to perform a marriage in the Episcopal Church when she united John W. Malloy, 31, and Karen Willoughby, 26, in San Francisco.

Mrs. Edwards, a widow, was the first of her sex ordained to holy orders in the church. The ordination took place four years ago.

She performed the weekend marriage ceremony as the acting vicar of St. Aidan's church.

Scottish Church May Ordain Woman

The first woman has been licensed as a probationer to the ministry in the Presbyterian Church of Scotland.

The licensing of Miss Elizabeth Kinniburgh, a teacher in religious education, took place yesterday in Granton church in Edinburgh. It is a preliminary toward ordination as a minister.

Miss Kinniburgh, who says she does not wish to be known as a "woman minister," commented:

"Either you're a minister or you're not a minister. It's not a question of being a man or a woman."

Waitress to Break Law by Tending Bar

Pretty Judy Jarosak, a waitress in a Minneapolis taproom called "The Red Baron," says she plans to violate this week a city ordinance which forbids bartending by females.

She is backed by her boss, Ron Bergland, and the Minnesota Civil Liberties Union.

"I passed my bartenders test and now I want to earn a dependable income," the shapely blonde said Sunday. "I have a 9-year-old son and school expenses. You never know how much money you'll make as a waitress."

Sophia Loren Will Return to Movie Making

Sophia Loren, who recently became a mother for the first time, will return to movie-making soon with a film called "Il Girasole," Italian for "The Sunflower."

MISS LOREN

The movie, about a wife trying to find her missing husband after World War II, will be filmed mainly in Moscow and other locations in the Soviet Union. Vittorio de Sica will direct, and the producer will be Carlo Ponti, Miss Loren's husband.

Also in the works for Miss Loren is a second movie, entitled "Biancorossoverde," about the adventures of a woman on a Rome-Milan express train.

Ex-Owner Marvels at Value of Podunk

SYLMAR, Calif. (AP) — The nostalgia felt by Hal Morris for his old town, Podunk Center, Iowa, is deepened by word that it's up for sale for $7,000.

"I guess fame can sure raise the value of a town," said Morris, recalling it started for $1,500 and sold it three years later for $1,800.

Morris, 64, was 29 when he quit his job with a Des Moines meat packing plant and bought an acre of land in 1934 without telling his wife. He built a general store, put in gas pumps and called it Podunk.

Why Podunk? "It was the best name I could think of at the time," Morris said Sunday. "Names like Toonerville and Feltonville just didn't fit it."

BLIND TRADE

The business along U.S. 69 was great, he recalls. "One day a salesman drove up and said he would trade me two boxes, the contents of which I wouldn't know until after the trade, in return for $5 worth of groceries.

"I traded and, when I opened the boxes, I found them full of 1860 little boy dress-up outfits—knickers and lace. My wife and I had a good laugh over it and hung up the outfits all over the store. You know, they sold like hotcakes."

Because of his wife's poor health, Morris said, he sold his town and moved to California.

The settlement now called Podunk Center is called "the hub of the world" by the present owner, Homer Weeks, but its greatest population—21—was in the '30s. Podunk now boasts a four-unit motel as well as the store-cafe.

"I still have three loves," says Morris, an employe of a Canoga Park, Calif., rocket manufacturer. "My wife, my relatives and Podunk. When I retire in July, one thing I'll do is visit Podunk."

But buy it back? No, says Hal Morris wistfully. It costs too much.

Teen Parents Held in Death

DETROIT (AP) — A teen-aged Dearborn couple faces a manslaughter charge after a deputy medical examiner testified the couple's infant son died from "marked malnutrition."

Ronald Dayton, 19, and his 17-year-old wife were bound over to Wayne County Circuit Court Friday by Dearborn Municipal Judge Ralph B. Guy Sr. They were released on $100 bond each.

Police said they found the body of Ronald Dayton Jr., 3½ months old, on Jan. 26 when Mrs. Dayton called them to the apartment.

A deputy medical examiner testified that the baby weighed just seven pounds.

OUT OF WORK

Dayton said an auto accident six weeks ago had put him out of work.

Another son, Russell, 17 months, is being cared for by relatives after twice being hospitalized with pneumonia, police said.

Dorati Will Conduct

Antal Dorati, who last month was named conductor of the Washington National Symphony effective 1970, will appear as guest conductor with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Thursday and Saturday.

Both concerts will be at 8:30 p.m. in Ford Auditorium.

Dorati is the last of six guest conductors to appear with the Symphony this season. Jean Martinon, Werner Torkanowsky, Sergui Comissiona,, Hans Werner Henze, and Seiji Ozawa conducted previous concerts.

EHRLING

Symphony music director Sixten Ehrling, who just concluded two weeks of guest appearances with the San Francisco Symphony, will conduct two Buffalo Philharmonic concerts this week.

Dorati's program consists of the Haydn Symphony No. 12, the Mozart Symphony No. 14, and the Shostakovich Symphony No. 10.

* * *

Dorati is currently music director of the Stockholm Philharmonic, which he recently led on an American tour. Though born in Hungary, he has been an American citizen for many years. He served as music director of the Minneapolis Symphony from 1949 to 1960 and of the Dallas Symphony from 1945 to 1949.

He appeared with the Detroit Symphony once before, in 1953.

After the baby has outgrown his receiving blankets, turn them into warm pajamas for the youngster.

Kirk in the Hills was the setting Saturday for vows uniting Sharon K. Scott and Luke M. Little Jr. Their parents are the Alexander Scotts of Detroit and the senior Littles of Inwoods Circle, Bloomfield Township.

MRS. LUKE M. LITTLE JR.

Miss Scott Is Bride of Luke M. Little Jr.

Sharon Kathileen Scott became Mrs. Luke MacDonald Little Jr. in vows spoken Saturday in Kirk in the Hills.

For the candlelight ceremony, the bride selected a gown of peau satin with Venice lace in a window pane design forming the high-necked bodice and cap sleeve. She carried a Victorian cluster of Eucharist lilies, Stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Louis Rebeck was matron of honor for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander E. Scott of Detroit.

ATTENDANTS

William H. Little was best man for his brother. Others in the wedding party were: Patricia Thornton, Georganne Lark, Rose Marie Skonieczny, Mary Ellen DeGraff, Cheryl Lynn Zielke, Thomas Davis, Thomas Hersem, Richard Blyler, Gale Mull, Michael Evanoff, Charles Nemetz and Walter Wengren.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luke M. Little of Inwoods Circle, Bloomfield Township.

Rescues Child by Lifting Car

LIVERPOOL, England (AP) — As a four-year-old girl lay screaming, trapped beneath a car, Mrs. Betty Doherty, 35, who weighs 210 pounds, pushed through the crowd and tried to lift the car.

"To my amazement," she said today, "the front right corner of the car came clear off the ground. Then I shouted to someone to grab the child.

The girl, Carmel Graham, is now home after two weeks in a hospital with head injuries. Her father, Frank Graham, says Mrs. Doherty and the other rescuer should get a medal.

A sopkesman for Vauxhall Motors, which made the car, said Mrs. Doherty would have been lifting a weight of about 500 pounds.

The Guinness Book of Records says that in 1960 a Mrs. Maxwell Rogers of Tampa, Fla., lifted one end of a 3,600-pound car to extricate her son.

When baby goes out in public, take along a plastic bag containing a cloth wrung out of thick soap or detergent suds. Then, when a favorite toy is tossed "overboard," it can be washed off and returned to the wee owner before the wails begin.

Programmed Alarm System

A pre-programmed telephone alarm system which will automatically call police if a home or business is broken into now is available.

* * *

The manufacturer says when there's an intruder the system automatically contacts police or fire departments with pre-recorded information, giving authorities the name and address of the troubled location.

The system operates on a two-track system connected to house current. If there is a power failure, batteries take over, insuring fail-safe operation.

Next Day's Outfit May Be Planned Ahead of Time

If you're a working girl, looking your best every day can be a problem. One way to ease the strain of looking "just right" is to plan what you're going to wear at least one day in advance — a quick look at an outfit will determine whether it can be worn again or should be sent to the cleaners or laundered first.

* * *

If you're mix-matching your separates, make sure that blue blouse goes with the tweed skirt, before you have to make a mad dash for the office at 8 a.m. and end up wearing them whether they clash or not.

Help Children Improve Skills

The educational field is becoming an exciting and challenging involvement for lay citizenry who wish to participate in a new personalized concept of American growth. Busy teachers now need the help of reliable volunteers.

* * *

The Oakland County Volunteer Bureau can place you in a school near your home where you may tutor children on a one to one basis. You do not have to a scholastic expert, but a patient, understanding attitude is most important in helping a child improve in his weaker areas.

* * *

You can learn more about serving as a teacher's aide by making an appointment today with the Bureau in Birmingham.

It's a Dog's Life for Her Pet Pig

TIPTON, Iowa (AP) — Arnold, the pet pig of Mrs. Abner Peterson, does everything a dog does except bark. In fact, the 180-pound Chester White porker thinks he is a dog.

* * *

Mrs. Peterson adopted Arnold from a neighbor when he was a week old and since then he has been living in a doghouse with four pet dogs, playing, sleeping and eating with them. He even fights over and chews on bones.

Moisten Nipples to Avoid Spills

Every mother learns, at the cost of formula spilled on the kitchen or nursery floor, that rubber nipples are sometimes hard to put on baby's bottles.

* * *

Keep a covered jar of sterile water and always insert the bottom edge of the nipple in the water before putting it on the neck of the bottle. It slips on easily when wet.

Ex-Owner Marvels at Value of Podunk

SYLMAR, Calif. (AP) — The nostalgia felt by Hal Morris for his old town, Podunk Center, Iowa, is deepened by word that it's up for sale for $7,000.

"I guess fame can sure raise the value of a town," said Morris, recalling it started for $1,500 and sold it three years later for $1,800.

Morris, 64, was 29 when he quit his job with a Des Moines meat packing plant and bought an acre of land in 1934 without telling his wife. He built a general store, put in gas pumps and called it Podunk.

Why Podunk? "It was the best name I could think of at the time," Morris said Sunday. "Names like Toonerville and Feltonville just didn't fit it."

BLIND TRADE

The business along U.S. 69 was great, he recalls. "One day a salesman drove up and said he would trade me two boxes, the contents of which I wouldn't know until after the trade, in return for $5 worth of groceries.

"I traded and, when I opened the boxes, I found them full of 1860 little boy dress-up outfits—knickers and lace. My wife and I had a good laugh over it and hung up the outfits all over the store. You know, they sold like hotcakes."

Because of his wife's poor health, Morris said, he sold his town and moved to California.

The settlement now called Podunk Center is called "the hub of the world" by the present owner, Homer Weeks, but its greatest population—21—was in the '30s. Podunk now boasts a four-unit motel as well as the store-cafe.

"I still have three loves," says Morris, an employe of a Canoga Park, Calif., rocket manufacturer. "My wife, my relatives and Podunk. When I retire in July, one thing I'll do is visit Podunk."

But buy it back? No, says Hal Morris wistfully. It costs too much.

Teen Parents Held in Death

DETROIT (AP) — A teen-aged Dearborn couple faces a manslaughter charge after a deputy medical examiner testified the couple's infant son died from "marked malnutrition."

Ronald Dayton, 19, and his 17-year-old wife were bound over to Wayne County Circuit Court Friday by Dearborn Municipal Judge Ralph B. Guy Sr. They were released on $100 bond each.

Police said they found the body of Ronald Dayton Jr., 3½ months old, on Jan. 26 when Mrs. Dayton called them to the apartment.

A deputy medical examiner testified that the baby weighed just seven pounds.

OUT OF WORK

Dayton said an auto accident six weeks ago had put him out of work.

Another son, Russell, 17 months, is being cared for by relatives after twice being hospitalized with pneumonia, police said.

CHATS WITH ACTRESS—George Schaefer is shown chatting with actress Jean Seberg during the filming of "Pendulum." Noted for his directorial work on television, Schaefer has followed a host of other directors in making the switch to motion pictures. Over a 15-year period, he produced and/or directed 56 Hallmark Hall of Fame telecasts. Now he's working on his second movie.

Noted TV Director on 2nd Film

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Television's latest donation to films is George Schaefer, the multi-Emmy winner who produced or directed 56 Hallmark Hall of Fame Telecasts over a 15-year period.

THOMAS

Schaefer has now made the move to feature films. He directed the just-released "Pendulum" with George Peppard and Jean Seberg and next month begins shooting "Generation," with David Janssen and Carl Reiner.

★ ★ ★

Thus Schaefer follows the TV-to-film move of John Frankenheimer, Delbert Mann, Arthur Penn, Franklin Schaffner, Jack Smite and a host of others. But most of them made the transition 10 or 15 years ago. Why did Schaefer wait so long?

"Because I had the one setup in television that was ideal," said the director. "With the Hall of Fame, I had complete artistic freedom. I was able to choose from the best of dramatic literature, old and new, and I worked with great casts, Helen Hayes, Lunt and Fontanne, Katherine Cornell, Richard Burton, Charlton Heston, Peter Ustinov, etc.

GIANT AUDIENCE

"The plays appeared before a giant audience of 15 million or so. And I was able to establish my own production company. If other film directors had enjoyed this kind of canvas to paint on, they wouldn't have left television."

Schaefer explained why he finally made the move last year:

"The situation at Hallmark changed so that I was no longer dealing with one man but with a committee; and I could no longer find four or five exciting subjects to do each year."

★ ★ ★

George Schaefer has the appearance of a high school math teacher, but appearances deceive; like all directors he is tough minded about his work. He is polite but firm with actors, talking in a rapid-fire manner. An eccentricity is his preference to direct from a wheelchair; he figures he can get around the set faster.

"Pendulum" seemed like a strange choice for Schaefer's debut as a film director. It is a murder-and-chase tale, and he had been identified on television with ancient and modern classics.

SOUND REASONING

"I admit it was the last picture people expected me to do," he remarked. "That's why I chose it. And I must say that my reasoning was sound. Even before the picture had been seen, I was receiving quantities of offers for other films."

He admitted that he missed the excitement of television, when he could rehearse the cast for three weeks and tape a play in three or four days.

Rites for Sailor

TECUMSEH (AP) — A funeral Mass was held today for Donald Lee Rudd, a Navy medical corpsman from Tecumseh, who was shot by a sniper in Vietnam March 3 while trying to help a wounded Marine onto a stretcher.

Rent Not the Ticket for Traffic Bureau

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Police Stationary Traffic Bureau ran into a slight bureaucratic thicket when it transferred to Cobo Hall recently.

The 56-man bureau, which directs traffic in the downtown area, has been docked $250 a month for rent.

★ ★ ★

"We treat the police just like anyone else," said William Finnin, director of the Detroit Civic Center Commission.

The city of Detroit owns Cobo Hall and, of course, pays the police.

★ ★ ★

Finnin said the rent is probably lower than comparable quarters would be elswhere. Over-crowding forced the move.

FAGIN'S BOY—Jack Wild plays the part of Artful Dodger in the movie version of "Oliver." He says he hopes the part works the same wonders for him as it did for Anthony Newley, who at Jack's age of 15 played the part in an early nonmusical version, and for Davey Jones of Monkees fame, who triumphed in it on Broadway in 1963.

Young Actor Grew Into Part

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Wild literally had to grow into the role of the Artful Dodger in the movie version of "Oliver."

* * *

Four years ago when the self-assured young man was appearing as one of Fagin's boys in the London stage production — as was his older brother Arthus, Jack had only one wish — "to do the Artful Dodger."

* * *

But at 12 he was too young and too short — only 4 foot 4 — for the role of the cocky young man who leads little Oliver through the Charles Dickens' odyssey.

* * *

TALL ENOUGH

By the time casting started for the movie version, Jack was 15 and both old enough and tall enough to land the coveted role.

Now Jack says he hopes the part works the same wonders for as it did for Anthony Newley, who at Jack's age played the part in an early nonmusical version and for Davey Jones of Monkees' fame, who triumphed in it on Broadway in 1963.

* * *

"If I had my choice I'd prefer to specialize in comedy, but I'll take anything that comes along," says Jack who's been tabbed "a young version of James Cagney."

The same nonfussy attitude pertains to girls. "Sure I like girls," he says. "Girls. Just Girls. I'm not particular."

ONE REGRET

Discovered (along with his brother) by a child talent scout while both boys were playing near their home in a London suburb, Jack has only one regret about entering theatrical life — "not enough time to play football."

During the filming he spent most of his lunch hours at the sport.

* * *

His other loves are coin collecting, stamp collecting, rock collecting and slot car racing.

The United States Government's civilian work force abroad has grown to 200,000 employes, an increase of 70,000 in the past five years.

GOP Firing Most of the Flak at Milliken

By WILLIAM B. KETTER

LANSNG (UPI) — Traditionally, a new governor enjoys a honeymoon with the Legislature — a period when the lawmakers are disposed to be as generous with him as possible.

Seven weeks into Gov. William G. Milliken's administration, the Capitol crack is: "When does the honeymoon begin?"

Milliken, who'll turn 47 March 26, has fielded heavy legislative flak on highway and recreational bond spending plans since taking the oath of office.

Strangely, most of the criticism has come from GOP legislators, giving the impression Milliken's biggest chore during the 1969 session may be selling fellow Republicans, not opposite party Democrats.

DISPLEASURE

Even two long-time Milliken friends, Senate Majority Leader Emil Lockwood of St. Louis and House Minority Leader Robert E. Waldron of Grosse Pionte, are indicating displeasure with some of the governor's programs.

Lockwood is a cosponsor of a legislative resolution to prevent Milliken from diverting $1.6 million from the highway fund for State Police patrols.

Waldron, says he doesn't expect the governor's plan to spend the lion's share of the $100-million recreational bond issue in urban areas to get far.

But neither of the GOP leaders look upon their positions as anti-Milliken.

INEVITABLE

They contend it's all part of the government process — that it's inevitable that legislative and executive ideas differ from time to time.

"No matter what a governor's party affiliation," Waldron said, "his programs very seldom get through in the same form they started."

* * *

Maybe so. But Milliken is bent on having one of the few programs that succeeded.

He knows his detractors are keeping a detailed legislative log in an attempt to prove their theory he's too nice to be an effective governor.

POLITE PERSUASION

Milliken isn't the type to call in Republican legislators and demand they get in line or face his political wrath. His style is to let them know in a soft sort of way that he's counting on them when the chips are down.

"He's not a desk pounder or browbeater or anything remotely resembling that," said one Milliken watcher. "But he has shown a quiet intensity — an almost grim determination — to push through barriers and obstructions, to get the job done, whatever it is."

* * *

Milliken couldn't have picked a tougher issue than the recreational bond program for an early test of his power of political persuasion. He knew from the start he would get lots of heat from all corners.

Several "neutral" or "fence straddler" positions on the bond matter were suggested to him. He rejected them all.

"I'm going to do what I feel I must do in order to convince the Legislature of the soundness of this decision — and I'm not concerned about the political consequences," Milliken told a recent news conference.

"I've never felt more comfortable on an issue than I do on this. I am totally convinced of its soundness and necessity."

* * *

For openers, Milliken discussed the bond program with the State Natural Resources Commission Friday, and got its reluctant support.

"We assured the governor we would go along with whatever the final allocation was, regardless of our personal feelings on the matter," said Commissioner E. M. Laitala of Hancock.

"Very frankly, though the commission would still prefer the 70-30 split we feel was sold to the people."

Plymouth Scores Most Points in Three Tests

A Plymouth Fury I scored the highest number of points of all 60 cars that competed in fuel economy, acceleration and braking tests of the Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials at Daytona Beach, Fla.

The Plymouth Fury, competing in Class V for cars equipped with standard V-8 engines, scored a total of 98 performance points out of a possible 100.

Two other Plymouth entries finished first in their respective

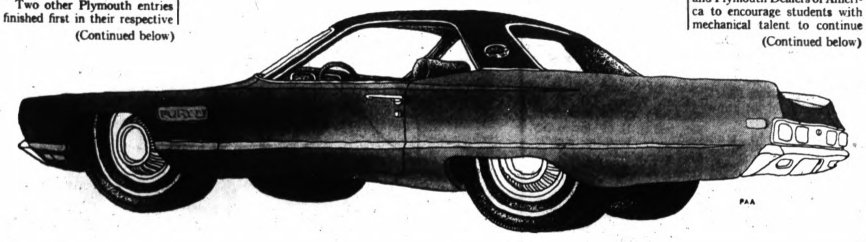
Announcing a special new Plymouth.



At a special low price.

Everyone says special, but we really mean it. Snapper's a new limited edition car like Plymouth has never made before. It'll shield you from weather's whims under a groovy turtle-shell vinyl top and carry you in a metallic muted-gold body. It has a "camp" Snapper emblem, like the one in the middle, on each roof pillar. An extended roofline that lets your rear seat passengers actually lean back (over 3" extra head room). And, of course, many of the "special" features that most people want: deluxe vinyl interior, white sidewalls, deluxe wheel covers, bumper guards, and a kicky little time-delay ignition switch light, all at a special package price (again, we really mean special). Naturally, you can personalize a Snapper even more, with everything from a Super Commando 440 V-8 to air conditioning or 8-track stereo; just ask your dealer. As a limited edition model with your own personal options, Snapper is a truly individual vehicle. See one now, at your Plymouth Dealer.

classes, giving the Plymouth line of cars winners in three out of the nine classes of competition.

Other Plymouth winners were a Valiant Signet in Class VII for six-cylinder compact economy cars, and a Barracuda in Class IX for sports compacts.

The Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials, held under the supervision of the National Association for Stock Car Racing, compared the basic performance characteristics of American-made 1969 models which are in the popular price ranges.

The fuel economy tests measured a car's fuel consumption at an average speed of 40 miles per hour over a distance of 18,567 miles.

The acceleration tests measured the time it took a car to accelerate from 25 to 70 miles per hour.

The braking tests demonstrated the car's high-speed stopping capability immediately after severe brake usage.

The 60 stock cars competing in the tests were taken directly from dealers' showrooms throughout the country to provide a realistic comparison of various makes and models.

Wagon Air Deflector

The 1969 Plymouth Fury station wagon models have a new and efficient air deflector, mounted at the rear of the roof to divert air around and across the big rear window, significantly reducing vision obstruction. By blowing clean air over the window, the deflector prevents rain, dust and grit from accumulating.

2,000 Teams of Students Competing in Plymouth's Trouble Shooting Contest

Teams of student mechanics from more than 2,000 high schools and colleges in every state of the Union will compete for $125,000 worth of prizes in the 21st annual Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest.

The contest is sponsored by the Chrysler-Plymouth Division of Chrysler Motors Corporation and Plymouth Dealers of America to encourage students with mechanical talent to continue their education and pursue careers in the growing automotive service business.

The winning two-man team at each of the 100 regional and state contests being held this spring will compete for $125,000 worth of scholarships, prizes, trophies and automotive equipment for their schools at the National Finals at the Indianapolis 500 Speedway in mid-June.

Winners at local and national contests are chosen by the speed and skill with which they find and fix malfunctions under the hood of a new Plymouth and restore the car to normal operating condition. All teams work on identical cars that have been deliberately tampered with in the same way.

Plymouth Dealers sponsor a two-man team from their local school and make a Plymouth car available to practice on. The teams from the 2,000 participating schools, which have a combined enrollment of 150,000 students taking automotive shop courses, are selected by school instructors.

The Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest originated in Los Angeles in 1949. It was sponsored by Plymouth Dealers there who sought to recruit young men as mechanic trainees. The annual contest grew in size as educators gave it their support.

Since the contest became national in scope in 1962, scholarships have been awarded to 116 students and full or part-time jobs have been found for more than 15,000 young men.

From the Press Box

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Ralph Grubbs wasn't out-coached Saturday night, but the young Pontiac Central coach might have to practice stomping his feet, yelling, shouting, cursing at officials by the time next season rolls around.

Mumford coach Sam Taub really put on a show racing along the out of boundslines, shouting, screamming and stomping.

★ ★ ★

In most any other game, Taub would have had five technical fouls called against him for his antics.

"You're costing me this game," Taub shouted when his 6-9 center Marv Taylor was assessed his 4th personal foul.

★ ★ ★

He was almost over the center line of the court to make his protest, but the sweet and friendly officials, Bucholz and Kennedy, weren't going to give the "T" sign to the Mumford coach.

"Now, Sam."

"Easy, Sam."

"Take it easy, Sam."

These were Bucholz' repeated "warnings."

This just tends to substantiate the statements we made in this column a few days ago about the lousy and inconsistent officiating which have prevailed in basketball in recent years.

★ ★ ★

This was the year when technical fouls were called for the slightest display of temper off the bench.

We have known Taub for many years. In fact we were college classmates and before this writing we might say WERE friends.

★ ★ ★

This argument isn't against Taub, because being in basketball as long as he has and being aware of how frequent technical fouls were assessed this season, Sam will have to admit he literally got away with murder in the game.

He is an official himself. We wonder how long he would have kept his cool with some coach jamming his hand against his arm and back as he was doing to the two officials Saturday night.

NEEDED TECHNICAL

Mumford should have lost the game on technicals alone had the officials stayed consistent with the way they called them all season.

★ ★ ★

We can't agree with the technical foul rule. A coach should be allowed to jump to his feet and protest a call, but as long as the rule exists whereas a coach moves onto the court of play or charges an official anywhere, shouting at the top of his lungs, "You're costing me this game," then there should be no hesitance on calling a technical.

★ ★ ★

We were hoping Grubb would have made one violent protest off the bench to see what kind of precedent was set in the game for assessing technicals.

★ ★ ★

No, the officials didn't cost Taub the game. On the contrary, we figure five technicals and a couple buckets which may have resulted in getting possession of the ball, would have easily ended the game in regulation.

★ ★ ★

It's too bad there wasn't a movie camera and tape recorder available to record the display of temper at the bench.

Officials Bucholz and Kennedy might have hard time explaining their closed-ear policy.

★ ★ ★

A strong Athletic Association Office would ask for an explanation. It would be interesting to hear the answer from Bucholz and Kennedy.

'Hometown' Boxer Favored for Title

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Freddie Little, who has lost two chances to become world junior middleweight champion in foreign countries, finally gets a shot at the crown in his home town and he's heavily favored.

The 32-year-old schoolteacher meets Stanley "Kitten" Hayward in the Las Vegas Convention Center tonight for the vacant title.

★ ★ ★

Little, favored 3-2 tonight, lost a controversial decision to Korea's Ki Soo Kim in Korea and then fought Sandro Mazzinghi of Italy last October. The fight was in Rome.

Mazzinghi couldn't answer the bell for the eighth round, the referee said "no contest" and ruled that Mazzinghi retained his title.

Nevada, Little's home state resigned from the World Boxing Association when that group accepted the ring decision.

West Bloomfield Moves to Quarter-Finals

By DON VOGEL

Art Paddy moved the Class B regional championship trophy away from the celebrating players to a quieter spot in the lockerroom.

"One year we won a district trophy and it was broken before it left the lockerroom," said the West Bloomfield basketball coach.

He was still trying to unwind after the Lakers had rallied to defeat Redford St. Mary, 73-62, at Birmingham Seaholm Saturday night to become Oakland County's only quarter-final representative.

The Lakers will play Bay City All Saints Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at Grand Blanc High School.

This was the first "B" regional title for West Bloomfield. The Lakers will carry a 21-1 record into the tilt against Bay City All Saints.

A triple overtime win over Flint Ainsworth, 70-67, gained the Saints a quarter-final berth. They are 18-3 for the season.

NEVER QUIT

"We had to win the hard way," said Paddy. "But you have to give the boys credit . . . they never gave up."

★ ★ ★

A less talented team might have thrown in the sponge early. St. Mary's Rustics started like they were going to blow the Lakers out of the gym.

They hit seven of their first eight shots — five from long range — and raced to a 15-3 lead over the team that had looked unbeatable two nights before in handling Detroit Holy Redeemer with ease.

Nearly 2,000 fans watched in disbelief as the Lakers made only one of nine field goal tries during the first 4:28 of the game.

The Lakers not only were being outshot, they were being outmaneuvered and outrebounded by the Rustics.

PREGAME WARNING

Chiefs Fall, 75-73

Buzzer Bucket Sinks Central

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Was there any time left on the clock when Mumford reserve Dennis Edmonds hit the game winning bucket in the second overtime to knock Pontiac Central out of the regional championship Saturday night at Southfield?

Today it really doesn't make much difference. The scoreboard read 75-73 for Mumford and the Chiefs will have to look ahead to next year when four of the five starters return.

★ ★ ★

The game promised to be a thriller and it was, even though it appeared for awhile that Central might come out of it with a decisive victory.

But 11 turnovers in the second half, after leading 41-33 at intermission, doomed the Chiefs.

★ ★ ★

Despite their errors, the Chiefs had two great opportunities to pull the game out in the final seconds of regulation and in the first overtime.

MUMFORD STALLS

Mumford coach Sam Taub elected to go into a stall for the last shot in each instance, but both times the Chiefs came up with a steal and missed on their last-second shots.

★ ★ ★

Central took the lead immediately on an opening bucket by Monte Herring, but with guard Steve Harris hitting Mumford's first five points, the Mustangs led 12-8 midway in the first quarter.

SEESAW GAME

That was the last time the Detroit city champions led until late in the third quarter. PCH had a 10-point lead at the start of the second half.

From then on, the lead see-sawed and was tied six times.

★ ★ ★

Campy Russell hit a tying shot for Central with 1:11 left to play and after taking the ball out, coach Taub elected to stall for the last shot.

The capacity crowd was in bedlam as the seconds ticked away and with 16 seconds left Taub called time again.

MISSES FINAL SHOT

The ball was brought into play at midcourt and Anthony Styles made a steal and passed down court to Jerry Ratliff. With three seconds on the clock, Ratliff shot from about 25 feet. The ball bounced off the hoop and the game went into overtime, 66-66.

★ ★ ★

Big Marv Taylor, 6-9, was whistled for his fifth foul with 2:54 left in the first overtime and Russell hit both free throws.

Melvin Carr then tied it 68-68 with two free throws and after Mumford took the rebound off the Pontiac board, coach Taub again called for the last second shot starting at 2:06.

He called time out at 1:20. The ball was put into play with 57 seconds left, and the Chiefs stole it with seven seconds remaining.

Styles went up from above the key with one second showing but the ball went off the board to force the second overtime.

PCH went ahead 69-68 when Styles hit the first of two free throws, and then Harris again hit a jumper to make it 70-69.

BURCH EXITS

With 1:10 to play, Burch hit two from the line to make it 71-70, but a few seconds later Burch fouled out and Harris missed both free throws.

On the second attempt, Edmonds, who had replaced Taylor was fouled by Russell on the rebound and Russell left with his 5th foul with 50 seconds in the period.

★ ★ ★

Edmonds made one to tie and missed the second attempt. With 34 seconds left

Maryland Taps Davidson Coach

CHARLOTTE (AP) — Lefty Driesell, who brought basketball out of the doldrums at Davidson, said Sunday he will sign a contract to become head coach at Maryland "where there is a tremendous challenge."

Driesell said he'll meet with Maryland officials in College Park Wednesday to sign the pact. It reportedly calls for $16,000 a year for five years, plus all of the scholarships for players that the Atlantic Coast Conference will allow.

He will succeed Frank Fellows, dismissed two weeks ago after two losing seasons in which the Terps won only 16 games and lost 34. The Terps haven't had a winning season since 1964-65, when a team under Bud Milliken finished 18-8.

★ ★ ★

"The challenge of the job at Maryland was the single biggest factor in my decision to accept the offer," Driesell said Sunday in making his announcement over a Charlotte television station.

"I consider the Atlantic Coast Conference the strongest conference for basketball in the country," he said. "I belive I can produce a national champion at Maryland."

'Peaches' in Top 10

NEW YORK (AP) — Peaches Bartkowicz of Hamtramck, Mich., is one of 10 women named Sunday by the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association as an international squad for the 1969 season. From the squad, teams will be chosen for the Federation Cup and Wightman Cup series.

KEEP AWAY—Guard Dave Karlson of West Bloomfield holds the ball high to keep it away from Redford St. Mary players Tim Cox (42) and Bernie Kryzwada. Curt Britton of the Lakers is at the left. West Bloomfield won the Class B regional championship game Saturday night, 73-62.

Yankees Wallop Bengals' Reliever

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—The Detroit Tigers lost their second straight exhibition baseball game Sunday but unflustered manager Mayo Smith was encouraged by the performance of big righthander Earl Wilson.

Wilson, hampered by injuries much of last season when he pitched in 34 games and finished with a 13-12 record, hurled four shutout innings against the New York Yankees before they jumped on reliever John Hiller for five runs in the sixth to win, 5-3.

★ ★ ★

"The best part was the way he threw the curve," said Smith in praise of Wilson. "It was right where he wanted it, not like the last time when he was coming in high. It looks like Earl is coming along just fine."

On Wednesday against the New York Mets, Wilson didn't look so good as the Mets got four runs off of him in three innings.

But the Yanks managed only two hits off him Sunday to prevent Smith from having a totally discouraging day.

EARLY SCORE

Detroit scored an early run on a Mickey Stanley singled, an error by Tom Tresh at shortstop and a double play grounder by Willie Horton. A double by Roy White, a single by Joe Pepitone, a fielders choice, a walk, and singles by Billy Cowan and Frank Fernandez brought in New York's five runs off Hiller.

The Tigers appeared to be making a 1968-type rally by scoring two runs in the ninth on an error, Tom Matchick's single, a walk to Dave Campbell, a single by Ike Brown and a ground out by Gates Brown. But the rally fell short and Detroit's Grapefruit League record fell to 5-5.

★ ★ ★

Smith isn't one for alibis but after the game he complained about the weather, which the weather, which the weather bureau has called one of Florida's chilliest since World War II.

"Things will get better as soon as the weather warms up," he sighed.

★ ★ ★

"All these errors we're making, and not hitting and all, would clear up if only we could get a few days of nice, warm sunshine."

New Names Head Keg List

New leaders in the doubles and handicap all events, plus significant changes in the team, singles and other high-ranking twosomes highlighted the third weekend of the Pontiac Woman's Bowling Association's 36th City Tournament at Orchard Lakes.

When the pins ceased falling yesterday, Waterford Township's Mary Devine had a 1675 actual total which was only eight behind the tournament leading score of Gerry Hintz from Pontiac, but her 297 additional handicap placed her 11 in front of former leader Peggy Parry, also of the Drayton Plains area, who has a 1961 score.

★ ★ ★

Mary also teamed with Pam Devine of Union Lake for a 1262 doubles total, tying two other duos for fifth place. Pearl Sawgle of Auburn Heights and Sylvia Marion of Pontiac also hit 1262 yesterday.

HOT DOUBLES DUO

However, the big news in the doubles event was the sizzling 1303 posted by Mary Jane Richards of Walled Lake and Charlotte MacKay of Orchard Lake, good enough for first place.

★ ★ ★

They outbid Pontiac's Shirley Burpee and Irene West who hit 1288, also Sunday. In fact, the Pontiac twosomes actually was nine pins better than the new leaders who benefitted from a 291-pin spot.

★ ★ ★

In the team bowling Saturday, Art's Party Store retained its lead with a 3104 score. This weekend's top total were 2961 by Reliable Transmission of Pontiac and 2954 by Utica's Wells Land Development.

They grabbed fourth and fifth places in the standings.

In Singles yesterday, Edith Simonson of Clarkston moved into third place with 689 and Waterford's Edna Peacock tallied 679 for the fifth ranking.

Judy Polovich holds the No. 1 listing with 723.

There are two more weekends of competition at Orchard.

CONTROLS REBOUND—West Bloomfield's Don Johnston comes down with a rebound in Saturday's game against Redford St. Mary. Trying to get at the ball are Tim Cox and Joe Tibaldi (32). The Lakers won and will face Bay City All Saints in the Class B quarter-finals.

Classes Scheduled on Water Safety

A water safety instructors course will open at Dondero High School in Royal Oak Tuesday.

The class will meet each Tuesday from 7 until 10 p.m. through June 3.

To enroll, candidates must have a senior lifesaving certificate and be at least 17 years of age. Those completing the course will receive a Red Cross instructors certificate and a YMCA certificate.

Dondero High School is located at 709 North Washington. Additional information may be obtained by calling the Royal Oak Schools Service Center, 588-8400.

Denver Captures Second NCAA Hockey Crown

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — For the second time, the University of Denver has captured two NCAA hockey championships in a row. Now the Pioneers can shot next season at Michigan's mark of three straight, set in 1951-53.

"It was as tough as any championship game we've played," DU coach Murray Armstrong said after watching his skaters beat Cornell, top team in eastern hockey, 4-3 in the Broadmoor World Arena Saturday night.

★ ★ ★

Harvard won the consolation game by battling to a 6-5 victory over Michigan Tech in a second overtime period Saturday. Cliff Gurry scored the winning goal for Harvard with less than two minutes remaining in the second, 10-minute extra period.

Tech, champion of the Western Collegiate Hockey Association, surged from a 4-2 deficit in the first period to a 4-4 tie in the second stanza. The Huskies moved into a 5-4 lead on Carl Ahlsten's goal but Bob Bauer knotted the score at 5-5 and forced the overtime.

Austrian Men in Ski Victory

U. S.'s Kiki Cutter Captures Award

QUEBEC (AP) — The prestige of the powerful Austrian ski team was upheld Sunday—although the top member of the squad and men's World Cup champion had little to do with it.

Alfred Matt, 21, who just got out of the Austrian Army Saturday, celebrated his discharge by winning the men's two-run slalom event and the du Maurier Cup as the over-all men's championship at the three-day 14-nation meet at nearby Mont Ste. Anne.

★ ★ ★

While Matt was speeding to victory and the trophy, teammate Karl Schranz, the 30-year-old veteran who captured the men's World Cup Saturday, had troubles and was disqualified for missing a gate in Sunday's slalom race.

★ ★ ★

HEAVY SNOW

Matt captured the men's two-run slalom Sunday with a combined time of 1:33.50 over the 1:500-foot course during a heavy snowfall that lasted about 15 minutes.

★ ★ ★

He finished in 12th place over-all in the two runs of the men's giant slalom, held Friday and Saturday, with a combined time of 3:33.18, giving him the over-all championship.

Kansas Rules NCAA Mile Finish Pleases

DETROIT (AP) — Ever since Roger Bannister broke the first four-minute mile more than a decade ago the mile run has been the attention grabber in the United States.

And although the four-minute barrier wasn't challenged, the mile run turned out to be the biggest crowd-pleaser over the weekend in the 1969 Collegiate Indoor Track Championships at Cobo Hall.

Kansas won the meet team title with Villanova second as three meet records were produced in the 17-event program Friday and Saturday before 19,300 spectators.

Defending mile champion Jim Ryun of Kansas, almost ruled out of the meet after quitting in Friday night's two-mile, won the mile in a near dead-heat with Marty Liquori of Villanova to pace the Jayhawkers to the championship, 41½ points to 33.

"When I came off the turn I didn't think I could catch Marty in the last 20 yards," Ryun said. But after trailing from the fifth lap on, Ryun turned on his final kick and he and Liquori matched each other stride for stride to the finish.

Both finished in 4:02.6, short of Ryun's indoor NCAA record of 3:58.6. The judges gave the edge to Ryun.

Friday, after running only three laps of the two-mile event, Ryun complained of blisters on both feet and an ailing knee and it was doubtful he could compete in the mile. Villanova Coach Jumbo Elliott protested that Ryun had dropped out without an honest effort but the meet's jury of appeals ruled otherwise.

★ ★ ★

In the high jump, Ron Jourdan of Florida set a meet record with a leap of 7-¾ feet. Two other meet records were tied. Olympian Erv Hall took the 60-yard high hurdles in :07.0 and John Carlos of San Jose State captured the 60-yard dash in :06.0.

★ ★ ★

Olympic champion pole vaulter Bob Seagren was upset by Lee Smith of Miami of Ohio. Each cleared 16 feet, 6 inches but Smith had fewer misses.

★ ★ ★

Although Villanova came up with four firsts to three for Kansas, the Jayhawks built up a big edge Friday night by sweeping the first three places in the shot put and the first two in the long jump for 23 points.

★

Third place went to San Jose State with 19½ points followed by Tennessee and Southern California with 16, Nebraska with 10, Harvard and Michigan State 9, Brigham Young and Kansas State 8, and Michigan 7.

CHANGING MOOD—All is well (top) as Pontiac Central cheerleader Polly Schmitz jumps for joy as the Chiefs take a lead over Detroit Mumford in their regional tournament game Saturday night, but the tide turned later (bottom) as Central lost in double overtime, 75-73.

Chiefs Ousted in 3 Overtimes by Detroiters

Styles hit a jumper to give Central a 73-71 lead, but again Harris, without hesitation hit a jumper to make it 73-73.

With 14 seconds left, Central came down court and Ratliff's shot bounced off the rim.

END NEAR

There was a mad scramble for the ball and big John Andrews, 6-5 and 260, saved it from going out of bounds and slapping it down court with six seconds left.

Harris and Edmonds both went down court with Styles and two shots from underneath rolled off. Then Edmonds grabbed it and threw it up again.

With the noise raising the roof, it was impossible to hear the buzzer but before Edmonds made his third try at the bucket, there were fans along the edge of the court, shouting "time," and pointing to the clock.

The officials ruled the basket good and sent Mumford into the quarter-finals next Wednesday against Detroit Northeastern.

Harris had 23 and Taylor 21 for the Mustangs, while Russell hit 21, Herring 17 and Ratliff 16 for the Chiefs.

In the first half, Mumford hit 13 of 28 shots and finished with an over-all 30 for 60 or 50 per cent.

Central hit over 50 per cent in the first half with 16 of 31, but finished with 27 of 61.

Big Andrews, who had only four rebounds in the first half, finished with 13 for the game to lead both teams, as Russell had 11, Herring 10, Ratliff 10 and Mumford's Taylor 10.

Bay City Five Next Foe

hand, they received the message in a hurry.

Paddy inserted 6-4 sophomore Don Johnston into the lineup and he joined with Jim Bays to get the rebounding back on the side of the taller West Bloomfield team. Guard John Crowder, the playmaker, took scoring matters into his own hands and hit three quick baskets.

The Rustics two-on-two offense continued to give the Lakers trouble, but they cut the deficit to 25-16 by the close of the first quarter.

However, the defense suffered in the second stanza and Steve Westjohn started hitting from outside the St. Mary zone. The Rustics collected only two field goals in the period. Led by Westjohn, the Lakers were down only 36-35 at the half.

Dave Karlson's layup put West Bloomfield ahead for the first time in the opening 10 seconds of the third quarter. But Bernie Kryzwada countered for the Rustics.

SCORING SPURT

Two field goals by Bays, one by Karlson and a field goal and free throw by Westjohn while the Rustics went scoreless decided the contest. From a 46-38 lead, the Lakers moved to a 53-42 advantage.

Karlson fouled out and Curtis Britton was on the bench with four.

Still, the Lakers continued to hold a comfortable margin. With 4:34 remaining in the game they were ahead 62-49 and the Rustics were forced out of their zone into a press.

Two missed layups, a missed free throw and some careless ball handling opened the door for Kryzwada to lead the Rustics on a 9-2 uprising in the next two minutes.

EASY LAYUPS

Britton returned to the game and helped pull the Rustics away from the baskets so that Johnson could be fed the ball for two easy layups and Westjohn could hit a layup. This settled the issue.

Westjohn topped all scorers with 23 points. Karlson scored 12 and Bays, Crowder and Johnston each netted 10. Kryzwada was high for the Rustics with 18.

Bay City All Saints again was led by its smallest player. Dick Heintskill, a 5-8 senior guard, hit 34 points against Ainsworth. He has scored 1,209 points in three varsity seasons, including 567 this campaign.

He is supported by 6-6 Jerry Silas and 6-4 Bob Purlewski.

Falcons' Depth Decisive in 'A' at MSU Pool

Diver, Freestyler From County Reign; Lahser Shows Well

By FLETCHER SPEARS

EAST LANSING — Coach John Wieck of Birmingham Groves was all wet Saturday but he didn't mind.

In his second year at Groves, Wieck saw a season of hard work come to a successful close here as the Falcons captured the state Class A swimming championship for the first time.

The victory was a cue for the Falcons to flip their young coach into the Michigan State pool for a traditional dip.

BANNER DAY

While Groves was having a ball from a team standpoint, it was quite an afternoon for Birmingham.

★ ★ ★

The Falcons took the title with 127 points and holding the runner-up spot with 90 was city rival Seaholm, a four-time winner of the championship.

KIMBALL SEVENTH

Allen Park was third with 75 markers, while Royal Oak Kimball placed seventh (51) and Southfield polled 49 points to share the eighth spot.

★ ★ ★

The Falcons managed only one first place but their over-all depth was too much for the classy field that cracked three records.

NEW MARK

The Groves' brother combination of Larry and Steve Driver produced a 1-2 finish in the 100-yard breaststroke, and Larry wound up with a state record 1:00.86 in the preliminaries. The effort cracked his old mark of 1:02.51 set last year.

★ ★ ★

Dick Quint gave the Falcons a second in the diving as he finished runner-up to Rich Matheny of Bloomfield Hills Andover.

Doug Tull picked up a third in the 100-yard butterfly. Tim Jones was sixth in the 100-yard freestyle and Mark Crorey was eighth in the 200-yard freestyle.

WINS TITLE

Seaholm produced a champion in Jim Morgan who was clocked at 49.72 in taking the 100-yard freestyle, and Oakland County had another winner in Southfield's Greg Ortega who posted a :22.29 in the 50-yard freestyle.

★ ★ ★

Greg Penn of Trenton and John Sherk of Dearborn Fordson turned in stirring individual performances with two wins apiece.

KEEPS TITLES

Sherk retained his titles in the 200- and 400-yard freestyle events and lowered the standard in the 200. He posted a 1:47.78 in the preliminaries to break the mark of 1:48.4 set by Doug Webster of Royal Oak Kimball in 1965 and then lowered the record to 1:47.13 in the finals.

★ ★ ★

Penn won the 200-yard individual medley in 2:04.04 and posted a time of :56.27 in the 100-yard backstroke to down defending champion Jerry Muske of Dearborn (56.32). Muske was second.

The other 'A' record came in the 200-yard medley relay with Grosse Point South posting a mark of 1:41.53. Groves was second with 1:42.43.

Holland West Ottawa won the Class B crown at the University of Michigan with a total of 174 points. Riverview was second with 143. Bloomfield Hills Lahser came up with 54 points to place 10th.

Rich Amann gave Lasher a third in the 100-yard butterfly, while Mark Beveridge was fourth in the 200-yard medley and sixth in the 100-yard freestyle. Kevin Trimmer was sixth in the 400-yard freestyle.

Early Advance Erased

Stock Market Moves Lower

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market erased a slight early advance and moved into lower ground early today. Trading near the opening was fairly active.

The Dow Jones industrial average at 10:30 a.m. was off 3.30 points at 900.98. Last Friday the Dow closed with a loss of 2.86 points.

★ ★ ★

Losses led gains by nearly 200 issues on the New York Stock Exchange. Gains had held a slight advantage shortly after the opening.

A number of the nation's major banks have announced an increase in the prime rate. The increase is the fourth since early December.

STEELS UNCHANGED

Steels were unchanged as a group, although Bethlehem posted a fractional gain.

Motors generally were lower, as were electronics. Utilities were mixed. Aircrafts generally were higher.

★ ★ ★

Gains of a point or more were made by AMK Corp. and IBM. Control Data, Xerox, and Johns-Manville were off a point or more.

Opening prices included:

Occidental Petroleum, off ¼ at 42¼ on 32,700 shares; Hecla Mining, off — at 32 on 30,800 shares; Brunswick, off ⅞ at 19¾ on 22,300 shares; Beech Aircraft, off ¼ at 34½ on 16,100 shares; Loew's Theatres, off ¼ at 39¾ on 12,700 shares; and American Telephone & Telegraph, off — at 51%.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks Friday was off 1.5 at 330.7.
