Lincoln Students on Annual Trip

ON WAY TO WASHINGTON — Laughing and waiting for the bus that started them on their annual trip to Washington, D. C. this morning are these Lincoln Junior High ninth graders: (left to right) Tom Nichols, Janet Lichvart, Judy Phipps and Tom O'Brien. Tom Nichols and Janet were awarded trips by the Hi-Y. Besides the Lincoln Memorial this group of 132 students will visit Senators Charles E. Potter and Patrick V. McNamara and Representative George A. Dondero while in Washington.

Two Questions Put on Ballots by Commission

Residency of Policemen, Social Security Move Placed Before Voters

Two questions were placed on the August and November ballots in action by the City Commission last night.

The question of whether Pontiac policemen should be required to live within the city was put up for November balloting. Supplementing the city employe pension plans with social security will appear on the August primary ballot.

The City Commission last night instructed City Attorney William A. Ewart to draw up the necessary charter amendments to be approved by the commission before the balloting.

The vote was requested by the Pontiac Police Officer's Assn., which charged a 1932 city charter amendment imposing the city residency is "outdated, without purpose and unfair."

The present law requires both firemen and policemen to live within the city. The vote is expected to affect the fire department personnel also.

MAY CUT DISTANCE

The police group has requested that police members be allowed to live anywhere in the county but the commission is expected to restrict the distance suggested by the group's attorney Paul L. Merideth.

In February, city employes voted by a 631-140 margin to coordinate the two retirement plans. Casting ballots were 771 out of 979 employes.

If adopted, city employes, except fire and police employes who are exempt from Social Security under federal law, would receive benefits from both the pension plan and Social Security when they reach 65.

Officialdom Attends Service

Barkley Funeral Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The high and mighty of official Washington, led by President Eisenhower, and scores of plain people paid a final tribute today to Alben W. Barkley.

* * *

The President, diplomats, senators, cabinet members, and Supreme Court justices filled the Pews in Foundry Methodist Church at funeral service for the late Kentucky Democratic senator and former vice president.

And outside the gray stone church, in a drizzle of rain, other Americans who had held the storied "Veep" of the Truman administration in deep affection stood silent.

The service was conducted by the Rev. Frederick Brown Harris, pastor of the church, chaplain of the Senate, and longtime friend of Barkley.

In an overnight change of plans, Eisenhower postponed his weekly news conference until Friday in order to attend the funeral.

Williams Will Attend

LANSING (AP)—Gov. and Mrs. Williams will fly to Paducah, Ky. Friday to attend the funeral service for the late Alben W. Barkley. They will leave Lansing about 8:30 a.m. Friday and return the same night.

Eisenhower, wearing a black suit and black homburg, entered the church just before the service began. He was accompanied by his chief aide, Sherman Adams; Gen. Wilton B. Persons, and his press secretary, James C. Hagerty.

BURIAL AT HOME

Barkley's body was to be removed later in the day, by a special congressional train, to his hometown of Paducah, Ky., for burial. The former vice president died Monday while making a political speech at Lexington, Va. He was 78.

Guard Rejects Nearby Section for Its Armory

Orchard Lake Avenue Training Building Site; Begin Work in Fall

A 50-year lease permitting the construction of a new U.S. Army Training Center on a five-acre site on Orchard Lake avenue was approved last night by the City Commission.

Construction on the school-type brick building is expected to begin this fall with completion scheduled in nine months.

The city will receive $1 a year from the government for the lease.

As the result of action taken earlier this week, City Manager W. K. Willman will inform the Michigan National Guard that no other city-owned property is available for construction of a new Armory.

The Guard rejected a 10-acre city-recommended site adjacent to the accepted reserve plot declaring the "land appeared to be in the rear or behind the army reserve area."

A communication from the Guard reportedly said it "certainly cannot take second place to the reserves."

The training center will be located between the Grand Trunk Railroad intersection with Orchard Lake avenue and Berwick boulevard, east of Beaudette Park. The site was a former sanitary fill area for the city.

The proposed structure will have a capacity for 100 men training in classrooms four days a week.

Reserve activities in the area have been conducted in a building at 37 W. Lawrence St. which has proved inadequate in size for necessary training program according to Major Edgar W. Grotelueschen, unit advisor for all Pontiac reserve activities.

The accepted site has been under study since last December. The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers recommended to Fifth Army the site be accepted in February.

Courthouse Site Problems Discussed by City Officials, County Supervisors

At an informal luncheon meeting yesterday in the Waldron Hotel, representatives of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors and the city of Pontiac discussed problems stemming from the proposed site for the county's new courthouse.

Possible solutions to the questioned legality of Pontiac's annexation of the courthouse site were aired.

Pontiac Mayor William W. Donaldson asked if the Board planned to put the site question to a general county vote.

Harold K. Schone, chairman of the Board's Special Building Committee, said he believed the issue had been voted on twice. On the first ballot, he said, voters authorized a bond issue for a new courthouse on the proposed County Service Center site off West Boulevard.

On the second, he added, voters rejected extra millage for the building.

Donaldson asked if facilities for shopping and a public cafeteria were planned. Schone said the cafeteria probably would be open to the public, but the Board assumed private businessmen would soon develop eating and shopping facilities in the area.

Order of development of the service center and courthouse building were reviewed, and Schone emphasized the present heating plant on the site is adequate to heat all buildings now planned.

Assistant County Corporation Counsel Charles A. Davis asked City Manager Walter K. Willman if he had made efforts to find out whether the County legally can sell the present courthouse site. Willman said he had received no answer to his questions as yet.

Schone remarked that in his opinion the County would realize little profit on the present site after demolition and site preparation costs have been met. He said no money from this source is included in the Board's planned financing of the new building.

Schone pointed out there is no question of where the new courthouse will be built. Supervisors and voters, he said, already have decided to build on the service center site.

Other officials present were Delos Hamlin, chairman of the Board of Supervisors; and John C. Austin, vice-chairman of the Board of Auditors.

Wilson Orders Bomber Boost

Increase From 30 to 45, Bringing Total to 495 B52s for Air Force

WASHINGTON (INS)—Plans for an active fleet of just under 500 B52 jet bombers appeared in the making today.

This was expected to result from Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson's order increasing the size of some U.S. heavy bombardment wings.

The increase is from 30 to 45 planes. Wilson indicated, and the Air Force believes, that this eventually will be applied to all 11 wings of "heavies" to put the active fleet at 495 planes.

The original plan was to produce about 500 B52s by 1959, and to place approximately 350 of them in the active fleet. The remainder would be used for training and spares.

The new plan apparently will push total production above 600. One 8-engine B52 costs eight million dollars.

NOT CRITICIZING

Wilson emphasized he was not criticizing LeMay, the veteran chief of the Strategic Air Command who told Congress Monday that the U.S. will be "inferior in striking power to the Soviet long-range air force by 1958-60."

But he said LeMay is a "dedicated specialist" who is commendably zealous about "his part of the business," and that this can result in a defense picture which is "somewhat out of perspective."

Wilson said his information is that Russia currently is producing more heavy bombers than the U.S., but that production in both countries so far is small.

* * *

He said he has no information similar to LeMay's that the planned rate of production in Russia is higher than the projected rate in the U.S.

Scattered Showers Possible Thursday

The weatherman says the rain will end tonight with the thermometer registering a low of 45 degrees.

There will be little change in temperature tomorrow and some chance of scattered showers. Tomorrow will be party cloudy.

The lowest temperature registered in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 42 degrees. The mercury rose to 50 at 2 p.m.

Dulles in Paris for NATO Talks

Secretary to Try to Put New Life Into Nations During Weekend Parley

PARIS (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Dulles flew into Paris today to try to breathe some new life into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

His special Air Force plane from Washington landed at Orly airfield nearly an hour ahead of schedule. Dulles was accompanied by his wife.

Although preparations had been made for him to make a statement on the French radio, he said he had none to make. Instead he drove off immediately for the U.S. Embassy with Ambassador C. Douglas Dillon.

Dulles came here for a weekend meeting of the NATO Council of Foreign Ministers which may expand the military alliance into political and economic fields.

Possibly a new organization could emerge in time.

Dulles was pictured in Washington as coming to the meeting of the 15-nation NATO Council Friday without any specific blueprint. Officials there said he was anxious to hear the views of other governments.

New Farm Bill in House May Get Ike's Approval

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House called up for debate today a new farm bill which its Democratic sponsor contends should satisfy President Eisenhower and not invite another veto.

Its main provision is Eisenhower's soil bank program—but without authority he asked to pay as much as 500 million dollars this year to farmers who agree to withdraw surplus-producing acres from cash crops in 1957.

Republican efforts to add advance payment authority shaped up as the issue likely to touch off a new partisan floor fight. They planned to offer several other proposed changes as well.

Debate was scheduled to begin late today, with voting not due until tomorrow.

On lesser points of difference, compromises were expected to be offered which could send to the Senate tomorrow night this latest of a series of farm measures this session.

Eisenhower vetoed a prevous catch-all farm bill two weeks ago, and the new one sent to the House dropped provisions he singled out as most objectionable.

Japan Aid Told

TOKYO (AP)—America has leased or given $723,624,552 in defense equipment to Japan since 1951, the Defense Board reported today. It said it expects $148,770,234 more in armaments during the current fiscal year.

Decatur Endorses Use of Water Fluoridation

DECATUR, Ill. (AP)—Fluoridation of Decatur's water supply is scheduled to become effective in the fall of 1957 or early 1958.

The city council approved fluoridation this week by unanimous vote. Current expansion of the city's waterworks and a modernization program account for the delay in fluoridating the supply, council members said.

The council earlier had received petitions bearing 10,334 signatures backing fluoridation. Decatur has a population of about 100,000.

Pennies From Heaven

MENOMINEE, Mich. (AP) — It snowed pennies from heaven in Menominee County—a million of them. The unusual 4.2 inch fall in this Upper Peninsula area Sunday brought the year's total to 60.3 inches. That's just more than the 60-inch minimum required to qualify for $10,000 in state aid for snow removal next year.

Neighbors Save Drowning Boy by Swift Action

Swift response by three Lotus Lake residents to a mother's call for help was credited with saving the life of a six-year-old boy who fell into the lake yesterday afternoon, apparently while playing near a swimming dock.

The youth, Dennis Melton Jr., of 4019 Lotus Dr., was discovered in five feet of water by his mother, Mrs. Dennis Melton, at about 4:45 p.m., according to the Waterford Township Fire Dept.

Unable to pull her son from the water, Mrs. Melton called for help and was joined by Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Pursinger, of 4023 Lotus Dr., and another neighbor, Herbert Atkinson, of 4027 Lotus Dr.

The two men waded into the water and brought the boy to land where Mrs. Pursinger applied artificial respiration until the arrival of a Waterford Township Fire Dept. rescue team, which revived him with a resuscitator.

Taken to Pontiac General Hospital, the victim was later released by authorities when an examination proved that his lungs were free of water. The rescuers were unable to state how long the boy had been in the lake before found.

Marines Take Action

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Marine Corps appointed a Congressional Medal of Honor winner today to direct an overhaul of training procedures ordered as an aftermath of the "death march" at Parris Island, S. C. April 8.

(See earlier story page 8)

Brig. Gen. David M. Shoup was named to the newly created post of "inspector general for training."

As part of its reorganization, the Corps also named Brig. Gen. Wallace M. Greene Jr. to supervise training at Parris Island, and Brig. Gen. Alan Shapley to similar duties at San Diego. These posts are newly created.

Michigan May Suspend Licenses of 1st Offenders

LANSING (AP)—Shocked by increasing highway deaths, state officials today considered a drastic crackdown on bad drivers which includes suspension of licenses for first offenses.

"I just can't express how depressed I am over these figures," Gov. Williams told the State Safety Commission yesterday.

Lt. Shirley G. Curtis of the State Police said provisional figures for the first three months of 1956 showed a 13 per cent increase in traffic fatalities, despite the state's new speed law.

The commission agreed to hold a special meeting Monday to consider a new enforcement program patterned after that used in Connecticut.

The plan, offered by Secretary of State James M. Hare, involves suspending for 30 days the licenses of motorists convicted of any of the three most serious violations.

Hare said the commission would have to decide what the three most serious offenses are but they would probably be speeding, failure to yield the right-of-way and reckless driving.

Connecticut now suspends a motorist's license on a first conviction for speeding, Hare said. The program has reduced traffic fatalities there 11 per cent.

Hare said he believes the Secretary of State's Office can now legally suspend licenses indiscriminately, whenever examiners feel suspension is warranted.

* * *

As a matter of policy, however, licenses are suspended only after several convictions, the number depending on the seriousness of the violations.

Hare, sheriff's officers and local police will meet with Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh Friday to draft a new program of enforcement and discuss revising the policies for suspension.

The plan will be laid before the entire Safety Commission Monday.

Ninety Seconds Cost City $1,700

The high bid on the $600,000 worth of revenue bonds to finance the off-street parking project was accepted last night by the City Commission, after the low bid was ruled void because it was submitted 90 seconds late.

After both bids, the only ones to be submitted, were opened and tabulated, a protest was lodged by high bidder H. Richard Doke, representing First of Michigan Corp. of Detroit. He charged the low bid was submitted after the close of the sale.

The acceptance of the high bid will amount to a $1,700 added expense in interest paid over 18 years, City Manager W. K. Willman explained.

Both bids contained interest rates approaching the four per cent limit set by the ordinance and were only a fraction apart, the manager added.

The city was expecting to pay an interest rate around 3½ per cent.

Bond consultant Dean Stanley informed the commission the bids "were a true expression as to how the bond market was today."

After a recess was called, bond attorney Claude Stevens was called for a recommendation on what action should be taken after the commission was stymied by the protest.

Stevens ruled that "acceptance of the delayed bid (of Shannon and Co. of Detroit) would be improper."

Acceptance of the high bid was fought by Commissioner John E. Carry who declared "he wasn't ready to throw $1,700 down the drain if the city has a chance to save it."

A roll call vote was requested by Commissioner Philip E. Rowston. All cast affirmative votes to accept the First of Michigan Corp. bid.

Willman expects money from the sale of the bonds to be available in four weeks, with work on the voter-approved lots expected after receipt.

Sexton Facing Reduced Charge

Municipal Judge Drops 'Intent to Murder' in Shooting Case

Ex-Pontiac patrolman James B. Sexton, 30, today was bound over on a reduced charge to Oakland County Circuit Court after one of two companions he admittedly had wounded with his police revolver was jailed yesterday in an alleged auto theft.

Sexton, 686 E. Tennyson Ave., will be arraigned Monday on a charge of felonious assault. He was freed by Pontiac Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan, who continued a $1,000 bond.

Judge Finnegan said he dropped the words "with intent to murder" from the charge because no specific intent was shown in the pre-trial examination.

Jailed yesterday after waiving examination before Judge Cecil McCallum on a charge of unlawfully driving away an automobile was Robert K. Stephens, 30, whom Sexton admittedly shot in the chest early Jan. 27.

Stephens, who gave his address as 8896 Crosby Lake Rd., Clarkston, admitted after four hours of questioning that he drove the auto away with a companion from a bar at 78 Baldwin Ave., early yesterday, Det. Richard Evans said.

The companion, James S. Stacy, 32, of 438 S. Sanford St., also waived examination on the same charge. They were bound over for arraignment Monday in Circuit Court and were remanded to jail under $1,000 bond each.

In the case against Sexton, Judge Finnegan said, neither Stephens nor the other victim could explain why the shooting took place, as there apparently were no "hard feelings." Although the patrolman had used a gun, Finnegan said that he could not "infer intent to murder" from that alone.

Chief Assistant Prosecutor George G. Taylor had argued that the use of a gun was evidence enough to prosecute for intent to murder.

Evans said Stephens and Stacy originally claimed they thought the car belonged to a friend, and they took it only as a "joke." The pair was arrested in the car, Evans said, backing down Baldwin at a high rate of speed as the owner ran after them on foot.

Detroit Radar Fails to Convict 'Speeder'

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Police Department's radar timer for clocking speeding motorists flunked "a perfect test case" in court yesterday.

Traffic Judge John D. Watts dismissed a speeding charge against city bus driver David F. Kniffen, 53, who was arrested by police using a radar timer. Officers said the device clocked his bus at 44 miles an hour in a 25 mile zone.

It was termed "a perfect test case" because the bus was the only vehicle on the radar screen at the time.

Under questioning Patrolman George Mortimer said the radar record showed only the peak speed.

Clarence Reid Jr., one of Kniffen's attorneys, argued the arrest was illegal because, he said, no Michigan law permits such radar evidence.

Judge Watts said, "I'm not very sold on radar. We will never convict anyone on this kind of evidence."

Asst. Corporation Counsel Lawrence Eaton, representing the police department, said he would try to carry the case to the State Supreme Court.

Algonac Wrens Return

ALGONAC (INS) — The wrens of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church returned to Algonac as they have every May Day for 31 years.

The tiny birds have not yet taken up their abode in vines covering the church but can be seen in the outlying areas. The wrens, numbering more than 100, invariably arrive at their summer home May 1 and leave Sept. 29.

Reds Open Bar at Other End of Berlin Tunnel

BERLIN (AP)—The Communists are opening a snack bar for visitors at the East Berlin end of a tunnel they accuse the U. S. Army of digging to wiretap Soviet communications.

* * *

The East German Interior Ministry also ordered a large tent put up to show visitors a special film on the tunnel. In addition, the ministry ordered a special booklet published about it.

* * *

The Soviet command on April 23 charged that "American military authorities" dug the 1,650-foot tunnel from the American sector into East Berlin and set up an elaborate wiretapping installation. U. S. Army officials refused to discuss the matter with the Russians and advised them only that it had been reported to Washington.

April GM Output Reaches 359,178

Big Three Reports Drop of 183,640 Units in Car Production From '55

April output by the nation's three leading automakers fell 183,640 units below the record pace maintained during the same period a year ago, figures released by General Motors, Ford and Chrysler revealed yesterday.

GM listed its monthly car production at 312,058 units, compared with 387,537 for April, 1955. Total auto and truck output by the firm reached 359,178 last month, against 452,681 in last year's similar period.

The Ford Motor Co. reported production of 183,708 cars and trucks in April, compared with 235,782 in the 1955 period. Auto output at Chrysler was 82,798 for the month, 86,117 units below the record 138,915 total set in April, 1955.

Every GM vehicle production division reported decreases with the exceptions of Cadillac and Canadian plants.

Preliminary figures released yesterday by General Motors were as follows. April, 1955, totals are contained in parentheses:

Chevrolet — 188,743 (168,176); Pontiac — 29,899 (55,604); Oldsmobile — 38,230 (58,828); Buick — 50,861 (79,181); Cadillac — 14,175 (14,126); Chevrolet Truck — 32,984 (46,866); GMC Truck & Coach — 8,897 (13,202).

Canada's GM output was 20,449 passenger cars (against 16,622 in April, 1955) and 5,239 trucks and coaches, compared with 5,076 in the like period of last year. Canadian figures are included in the overall GM totals.

Preliminary GM totals at the end of 1956's first four months revealed that the corporation had produced 1,480,531 cars, trucks and coaches against 1,630,972 for the first four months of 1955.

Supervisors of County OK Tax Equalization Schedule

At a meeting yesterday in the County Office Building, Oakland County Supervisors voted formal acceptance of the State Tax Commission's equalization schedule for 1957.

The move was legally necessary for 1956 and 1957 figures on assessed valuation, because of an appeal to the State commission last year by Waterford Township.

After State intervention in 1956, assessment figures plummeted throughout the county from levels set by the County Equalization Committee.

Committee chairman Alger Zapf said yesterday his committee has worked with the State board during the past year, and has succeeded in raising assessments in 35 of the county's 45 cities and townships.

In the remaining 10, he said, investigations by the State board remain unfinished.

Zapf explained that in most cases where the State equalization was lower than recommended by the County committee, the State figures did not take into account new building in the affected area.

In effect, he said, this means the individual taxpayer must pay higher rates on assessed valuation than he would pay under higher assessment figures.

The State equalization figure last year was $1,395,250,000 for the county. This year the total is $1,584,801,899 — nearly $200 million more.

Pontiac is assessed at 21.9 per cent of the total, or $347,166,676.

Supervisor David Levinson of Birmingham, objecting to accepting the report, said, "We should let the State Tax Commission know we don't like their piecemeal work. I don't think the other 10 units are getting a fair deal."

Zapf pointed out the State board was not legally required to raise county assessment figures at all this year, and had done so when asked by the Board. He said he feared the possible results of Board rejection of the present figure.

The measure passed, 51-11.

Barkley Rite Simple in Methodist Church

administration mingled with Democrats of present and past eras at the church service.

Many important figures in the New Deal years sat side-by-side with today's Republican high command.

Besides the President, Vice President Nixon, Senate Republican leader Knowland of California, and Senate Democratic leader Johnson of Texas were among those attending.

BRITISH ENVOY ATTENDS

From the Roosevelt and Truman administrations, among those who appeared were onetime new deal brain truster Thomas G. ("Tommy the Cork") Corcoran and James P. McGranery, who was attorney general in the last months of the Truman administration.

Sir Roger Makins, the British ambassador, was among the many foreign diplomats in attendance.

* * *

Barkley's immediate family entering through a side door, was seated near the casket which rested before the altar.

'FOUGHT GOOD FIGHT'

The altar itself was banked with flowers — red roses, white lilies and other blossoms.

The organ sounded softly as the minister, from a pulpit to the right of the altar, entoned the words of the funeral service:

"In my Father's House are many mansions. I am the way and the truth and the light."

In his tribute to Barkley, the Rev. Mr. Harris referred to the former vice president as a man who fought "the good fight."

SERVED WITH DEVOTION

He spoke of Barkley as a man who served his state and the nation with unstinted devotion.

"We are vastly poorer because his eloquent, passionate voice will be heard no longer in the nation's councils, on its platforms, and in its forums," the minister continued.

"He so numbered his days, applying his heart unto wisdom, because the whole earth was the House of the Lord, as echoed by the last phrase which fell from his lips."

* * *

That was a reference to Barkley's remark a few seconds before he collapsed and died at Lexington, Va., on Monday. Barkley had told an audience at Washington and Lee University:

"I would rather be a servant in the House of the Lord than sit in the seats of the mighty."

After his farewell tribute, the minister recited the 23rd Psalm. The service lasted just 23 minutes.

The drizzle of rain had turned into a virtual downpour by the time the ceremony ended.

AF General to Speak

DETROIT (AP)—Maj. Gen. James F. Carroll, deputy inspector general of the Air Force, will address a meeting of the Southeastern Michigan Assn. of Chiefs of Police Thursday in Dearborn. Gen. Carroll, who is in charge of security measures at all Air Force installations, will tell police officers how his unit guards against saboteurs and disloyal personnel.

Homemakers to Hold Session in City Church

County homemakers, members of Home Demonstration groups, are preparing for their annual Achievement Day tomorrow in the First Congregational Church of Pontiac.

Approximately 1200 women will participate in the event with exhibits of projects made during the year.

Speakers for the day will include Mrs. Hazel Dunlop, author and lecturer, speaking on "Decorative Tables for the Home." Dr. David Treat, director of the Clara Elizabeth Fund for Maternal Health in Flint, will speak to the women in the afternoon on "What Women Should Expect of Themselves as Wives and Mothers."

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. will give a skit during the afternoon program on proper telephone manners.

Ninety home demonstration units in the county will participate in the day's activities planned in honor of National Home Demonstration Week, said Mrs. Frieda Bennett, home demonstration agent.

Adlai Leading D.C. Primary

Final Vote Tabulation Will Be Delayed Due to Inexperience at Polls

WASHINGTON (AP) — A slate of Democratic National Convention delegates pledged to Adlai E. Stevenson took a wide early lead over one pledged to Sen. Estes Kefauver in yesterday's District of Columbia primary.

But whether they won for sure, and by how much, may not be known for days.

For the nation's capital — accustomed as it is to the thunder of national politics — proved to be mighty green at the precinct level in yesterday's first official voting here in 82 years.

Despite an apparent light vote, the tabulation machinery all but broke down early today because of a complicated Democratic ballot and a lack of experienced poll workers.

Washingtonians may not vote for president, they have no representative in Congress, and have not voted for any local officials in 82 years. Many maintain legal residence in home states and vote by absentee ballot.

This inexperience proved too much for the new election machinery.

Future MSU Students to Be Feted by Alumni

A banquet May 15 honoring 23 county high school seniors awarded scholarships to Michigan State University will be attended by Ralph Young, assistant to the director of alumni relations at the University and former director of athletics, the county MSU club said today.

Harry L. Winston, Jr., of Birmingham, general chairman of the Devon Gables banquet, said the club is attempting to establish a scholarship program to MSU for worthy Oakland County students.

Democratic Club Picks Slate of New Officers

At a meeting of the Northeast Oakland County Democratic Club Sunday at Wallers Lake, the following officers were elected:

Cecil Warden, president; Mrs. Ruth Higgins, vice president; Victoria Schlenke, secretary; Irene Warden, treasurer; and Donald O. Menzies, Allen Pilkington, Joseph Zelinski, and A. M. Higgins, trustees.

Committee chairmen were appointed, and candidates present spoke briefly. Plans were announced for a dance June 9.

Pontiac Deaths

Mrs. Sigmund Fitz

Mrs. Sigmund (Loretta M.) Fitz, 45, of 2887 Chadwick Dr., died yesterday in Harper Hospital, Detroit, after a long illness.

She was born in Flint, March 12, 1911, the daughter of Milford and Mae Thompson Riggs.

She leaves her husband and three sisters, Mrs. Virginia Owens, Mrs. Dorothy Atkinson and Mrs. Mae Jean Bai.

Service will be at 1 p.m. Friday from the Haley Funeral Home, 16065 Hamilton St., Highland Park. The Rev. Frederick A. Coleh will officiate with burial in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Everett E. Keller

Everett E. Keller, 40, of 667 E. Beverly St. died yesterday morning after a long illness.

He was born in Dexter, Mo. July 20, 1915, the son of Sam and Myrtie Embery Keller. On Oct. 13, 1934, he was married to the former Alice Russel in Bernie, Mo.

Mr. Keller has been a resident of Pontiac 15 years, coming here from Dexter where he was a deacon and member of the Sugar Tree General Baptist Church. He was employed here at the Wilson Foundry.

Besides his wife, he is survived by his father, and a daughter, Barbara Alice Keller of Pontiac.

Other survivors include three sisters, Mrs. Alfred Dale and Mrs. Agnew Brown, both of Dexter, Mrs. Geraldine Fulton of Gary, Ind.; four brothers, Orville of Dexter, LaRue, Dawsey and Cecil, all of Pontiac.

Prayer service will be held at 7 o'clock this evening in the Voorhees-Siple Chapel with the Rev. Floyd Miley of Flint officiating.

Following the service, Mr. Keller's body will be taken to the Mitchell Funeral Home, St. Clair, Mo., where service will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday from the Sugar Tree General Baptist Church, Dexter. Burial will be in the cemetery at Bernie, Mo.

Question Juveniles After Auto Crash

Six city juvenile boys were being questioned by Pontiac police this morning after their arrest last night in the crackup in Romeo of a reportedly stolen car.

Four of the boys are 13 and two are 14.

They were released to parents at 4 a.m. this morning after troopers at the Romeo State Police post reported their capture when the car rammed a utility pole at M150 and 32 Mile road.

The car had been stolen around 10 p.m. from a driveway at 666 LeBaron St., police claimed. Considerable damage was done to the car, according to troopers.

UM Expert Gives Data

Fluorides in Water Supply Surpass Paste Additives

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A man who makes it his business to find out says toothpastes with fluoride still haven't solved the problems of tooth decay.

* * *

Dr. Philip Jay, head of dental caries (decay) research at the Univeristy of Michigan, told a public health lecture group that none of the recent flood of fluoride toothpastes had come up with the answer.

The best way to obtain dental protection by fluorides is from a treated public water suply, Dr. Jay said in a talk last night.

"A careful study shows that it has no effect. It is neither harmful nor beneficial. The more recent additive to be advertised, stannous fluoride, has been reported effective but these reports required confirmation," Dr. Jay said.

NO POINT IN USE

If a child already is drinking fluoridated water, Dr. Jay said, there is no point in using a fluoridated toothpaste or having the teeth painted with fluorides.

* * *

"It is similar to vitamins," he said. "You can take more and more of them but the body will only use so much."

Dr. Jay said the most effective amount of fluorides appears to be one part to a million parts of water.

Dr. Jay spoke highly of the results of the fluoridation water program in the nation on a large controlled scale.

* * *

He said children born since the experiment began in 1945 have averaged 60 to 70 per cent less decay than children in surrounding communities with no fluorides in the water. Children born in 1950 have 83 per cent less decay, he said, while children who were six years old when the study began have 26 per cent less decay.

Dr. Mehas Elected Head of Tuberculosis Group

Various phases of the job ahead in tuberculosis control were explained Tuesday evening by C. W. Krammeier, of Milwaukee, at the annual dinner of the Oakland County Tuberculosis Association.

He is the executive secretary of the Wisconsin Tuberculosis Association, and he talked to 73 guests at the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

The guests were welcomed by Lee O. Clark, President of the local association. In his greetings, Dr. James Cheng, superintendent and medical director of the Sanatorium, pointed out that it now is operating with nearly a full capacity, this being without any of the new cases found in the current campaign.

The annual report of the association, presented by Alva R. Musson, its executive secretary, showed the income from the 1955 seal sale to be $51,863.82.

Expenditures included $13,975.90 for health education, $4,027.85 for case finding, $3,684.33 for rehabilitation, $6,669.18 for expense of seal sale, $2,603.58 for organization and field work, and $6,697.18 for administration.

The local association now has assets of $105,354.79, the principal item in which is $97,439.34 cash in banks. It now is cooperating in the largest case finding campaign in the county's history.

DR. C. P. MEHAS

At the business meeting following the dinner and program, Dr. Cheng, Dr. A. R. Young, N. P. Hammelef and Mrs. A. L. Mills were chosen directors for the coming three years, and C. D. Wheaton to fill a vacancy on the board.

At the directors meeting officers for the coming year were chosen as follows: President, Dr. C. P. Mehas; vice president, Dr. Young; secretary, Alva R. Musson; treasurer, Frank Bartlett.

The Day in Birmingham

Clean-Up Week, Building Upsurge Herald Spring

BIRMINGHAM — An upsurge of new home building and the annual Clean-Up Paint-Up Fix-Up Week are signs of spring in Birmingham.

City officials announce that next week is the annual week for special attention to tidying the city.

Building permits jumped to 78 for April, according to City Building Inspector Andrew F. Butt. He compares this with 53 in March, 29 in February and 24 in January.

Plans for 22 new homes were approved with costs estimated at $312,000. A new multiple dwelling unit for nine families will cost $89,000, according to Butt.

Permits were issued also for two new businesses, including the $50,000 Jax Auto Wash, and one swimming pool, for $3,200.

This April's building cost estimates are above last April's, when 83 permits were issued for $518,450 in building estimates.

Directions for disposal of rubbish are included in the proclamation of the Clean-Up Week, R. S. Kenning, superintendent of the Department of Public Works says special preparations for the week have been made.

All trash should be placed at the curb in permanent or expendable containers, he says, with papers tied in bundles under 23 inches deep.

Calls to the department will provide immediate pick-up of extra-large items such as bed springs, discarded furniture and water tanks, Kenning says. This is a this-week only service.

Lawn rakings should be put in boxes, Kenning says, rather than in the gutter. The street sweeper cannot take care of such rubble, he added.

* * *

Scott Cole, a Republican candidate for state representative, will talk on "National Security from the Pacific" at the Birmingham Community House tomorrow at 1 p.m.

Cole is on the Novi board of commerce, and has headed the Northville Young Republican Club, and belongs to three veterans groups. He holds two presidential citations, the Silver Star, Purple Heart, and the Bronze Star, from his Korean and World War II service.

The meeting is sponsored by the Southfield Republican Women's club.

Thomas Trisler, 24, 212 Euclid, Royal Oak, was arrested yesterday by police, who are holding him for investigation of larceny of meat and phonograph records from Peabody's Market the day before.

Arlene Amweg's car, stolen from a local bowling alley lot, was found two hours later last night by Troy Township Police. It was partially stripped, police said. Miss Amweg lives at 1031 Hazel.

Everett L. Birthrong

A Birmingham resident for 26 years, Everett L. Birthrong, 67, died Tuesday at St. Joseph's hospital after a week's illness. He moved to 18136 Birwood, Southfield, last year.

Born in Mukwonago, Wis., he came here from Moline, Ill. He retired four years ago as superintendent of the General Motors Truck and Coach engine division.

He leaves his widow, Lola, a daughter, Mrs. John H. Roy, of Wauwatosa, Wis., a son, Jack, of Los Angeles, Calif., a sister and two brothers in Wisconsin, and four grandchildren.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Friday at Manley Bailey Funeral Home, with burial in White Chapel Cemetery.

Hammarskjold Returns to Syria

Seeks to Settle Dispute on Israeli Plan to Turn River Jordan Waters

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold arrived today for a second round of talks attempting to settle Syria's differences with Israel over River Jordan water diversion.

* * *

Hammarskjold drove from the airport to the Foreign Ministry to meet Syrian officials.

Hammarskjold arrived in the Middle East April 6. He has obtained pledges of an unconditional cease-fire from Israel and Egypt and promises of support from other Arab states.

Informed sources said Syria qualified its pledge to observe a cease-fire with a demand that the agreement include Israel's promise not to resume work on a project to use the Jordan waters for power and irrigation purposes.

Chrysler's Keller Gets Army Citation

WASHINGTON (INS) — K. T. Keller, recently retired board chairman of Chrysler Corp., received the army's highest civilian award last night for his contribution to the nation's guided missile program.

The award was presented by Army Secretary Wilber Brucker who said Keller was being honored for exceptional service to the country and a significant role in greatly accelerating the guided missile program."

Keller was the honored guest at the Annual Congressional Banquet sponsored by the Michigan Secretarial Convention which was held in conjunction with the national convention of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Non-Conforming Use Ordinance Offered

An ordinance to amend the non-conforming use regulations in the city's building zone law was presented to the City Commission last night for its first reading.

Commissioner John E. Carry (District 6) waived the reading and offered the ordinance by title only. The second reading and possible adoption is expected at next week's meeting.

The proposed law will permit expansion of buildings used in non-conforming use up to 50 per cent instead of the present 100 per cent.

The non-conforming use permits the continuation of land and buildings in the lawful use that existed at the date of enactment of the law, although such use does not conform to the provisions of the law.

The second major change of the new law will require such establishments to comply with the provisions of the ordinance if land is not used for 12 consecutive months in the non-conforming use rule.

Two Persons Injured During Tavern Brawl

A kiss reportedly led to injuries for two persons and the arrest of another in Brandon Township yesterday afternoon, Oakland County Sheriff's deputies reported today.

Forest J. Sulser, 37, of 5624 Sherwood Rd., Brandon Township, was alleged to have used a ball bat and bottle as weapons when he objected to the kissing of Margaret Smith, 30, of 5624 Sherwood Rd., by Rowland E. Hunsinger, 27, of Attica.

The investigators said Hunsinger was struck twice with the bat by Sulser, receiving bruises of the forehead and chest.

The Smith woman suffered cuts of the neck and left arm when hit by flying glass from a bottle thrown by Sulser, deputies said.

Acquit City Resident in Shotgun Slaying

Samul Vaughns, a 33-year-old construction laborer of 73 Crawford St., was acquitted by a nine-woman, three-man jury yesterday in the shotgun slaying of Willie Henry, 37, of Detroit, on a Pontiac street corner last Oct. 28.

Vaughns was charged with second-degree murder after he told police he fired the fatal shot from behind the wheel of his car after Henry drew a revolver from beneath his coat.

Witnesses at the two and one-half day trial said they saw Vaughns shoot Henry. Vaughns told police Henry previously had threatened to kill him.

The trial was held before Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty. Mitchell L. Bacow was defense attorney. Assistant Prosecutor Robert D. Long conducted the prosecution.

Garage Looted of Tools During Night Breakin

Some $189 worth of miscellaneous tools were reported stolen from a family garage at 120 S. Ardmore St., broken into Monday night, Pontiac police said.

The owner, William K. Smith, who lives at 1155 Fairfax St., told police that apparently the culprit entered through a broken rear window.

West Germany has abolished the exit stamp, but travelers still must have their passports stamped on their arrival in the country.

Sheriff Leading Fight on Teen Accidents

By CHUCK ABAIR

The Oakland County Sheriff Department's teenage safety program is heading into the third month of its campaign to decrease the number of auto accidents in which youthful drivers are involved.

Officer Stephen Navarra is directing the drive, assisted by officers Gerald Gaedt and Ross Miller. This trio is carrying out a plan put into action early in March by Sheriff Frank Irons, to cut the mishaps with teen drivers involved.

Ten schools, various PTA groups, and other organizations have been visited by the safety leaders thus far, while several other schools and groups have expressed interest in participating.

Navarre said they are stressing safe driving and walking at the meetings. "We want to keep reminding them over and over about safety," he explained.

Senior and junior high school students are the main objectives now, but the instructors want to eventually reach as many as possible with their message of caution.

The Sheriff's Department hopes to have a regular safety unit organized by fall in order to concentrate more on grade school students.

The safety programs consist of lectures, a 17-minute color film on safe driving, and question and answer sessions.

Navarre said the teenagers and adults, alike, have shown considerable interest and always ask numerous questions at the programs. "It is going over very good. The response has been fine," he pointed out.

Racial Issues Hit Methodists

Segregation Resolution Highlights Tumultuous Minneapolis Session

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Methodists were caught today in a taut struggle over the issue of racial segregation in their 9½-million-member church.

• • •

It erupted yesterday in a tumultuous session at the church's lawmaking General Conference, and brought delegates into today's meeting in a mood of high tension.

There were reports from night committee sessions, however, that strides had been made toward agreement on specific action to disavow the church's segregated administrative structure.

It was an attempt to do this that had unleashed the wave of heated debate.

• • •

The conflict resurrected shadows of century-old lines that once divided the church, North and South.

It started after Atty. Charles Parlin of Englewood, N.J., introduced a resolution drafted by a committee he heads, and declaring the church's opposition to segregation practices.

The Rev. W. Sproule Boyd of Johnstown, Pa., criticized the resolution as a "repetition of pious phrases" often used before, and proposed an amendment.

• • •

It would declare that "so long as we have within our organizational structure a jurisdiction based on race rather than geography," the church has not lived up to its principles.

Emotions soared to a high pitch as delegates argued the issue.

'He Is King of Us Brahmans'

Nepal Crowns Mahendra Ruler of Himalaya Nation

KATMANDU, Nepal (AP)—Remote Himalayan Nepal crowned its new King today in a ceremony mixing ancient pomp with such modern innovations as movie cameras, foreign visitors and only one queen.

Hindu high priests placed the giant crown of the little kingdom—a gem-studded circlet of gold surmounted by brilliant bird of paradise plumage—on the head of 36-year-old King Mahendra at 10:43 a.m.

PRECISE TIME

It was the precise minute fixed by the royal astrologers as most auspicious for a long and successful reign of the world's only Hindu monarch, ruler of nine million Nepalese.

Whirring motion picture cameras and hundreds of clicking shutters recorded the coronation in the palace courtyard. Official delegates from a score of countries and a handful of tourists looked on from distant reserved seats.

"OH, PEOPLE"

Behind a red curtain other guests "looked on." They were the unseen Hindu gods invited to the ceremony.

"Oh! People!" the priests proclaimed as they crowned Mahendra. "This man is your king. He is the King of us Brahmans."

• • •

Then the priests vested the monarch with "the glow, splendor and energy" of the gods to make him "unrivaled in purity, greatness and kingship."

• • •

Guns boomed. Bands played. The high priests in golden robes intoned ancient chants. The cheers of thousands of subjects echoed from the streets outside the palace.

ANCIENT RITE

Mahendra, sitting on a throne mounted on the skins of oxen, leopards, lions and tigers, repeated prayers after the priests and promised "never to be arbitrary." His queen, Ratna Devi, sat stiffly beside him.

The ceremony has come down unchanged through the reigns of nine earlier Nepalese monarchs. But there were several big differences since the coronation 43 years ago of Mahendra's father, the late King Tribhuvana. Then only one European, a British resident, saw the coronation. Nepal, virtually inaccessible due to the high Himalayas that make up most of its 54,000 square miles, allowed few visitors before 1950. No cameras were present then.

• • •

Mahendra has only one queen. He has spurned Nepalese tradition that the monarch must have two wives.

Legislature in Cuba Upholds Martial Law

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Both houses of Cuba's Congress put their stamp of approval last night on the suspension of civil liberties ordered by the government after Sunday's unsuccessful revolt.

The measure, which bars public meetings and puts Cuba's press and radio under censorship for 45 days, was approved by the Senate 34-10. In the 172-member House the vote was 109-10.

The country was reported calm today.

Prosecution to Close Case in Graham Trial

DENVER (AP)—The prosecution put the finishing touches today on its murder case against John Gilbert Graham, 24, accused dynamiter of an airliner that hurled his mother and 43 others to death.

• • •

Dist. Atty. Bert Keating said he had only "a couple of hours" of state testimony left on the 15th day of the trial. He said the remaining witnesses would tell of Graham's purchase of a timing device.

• • •

Graham is charged in the death of his mother Mrs. Daisie E. King, 55. He's accused of stuffing a 25-stick dynamite time bomb in her suitcase before it was stored aboard a United Air Lines DC6B. The plane blew up near Longmont, Colo., last Nov. 10 minutes after leaving Denver.

Teacher Leaves Bar Work for School Contract

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP) — Teacher Theodore Colton, 27, can return to his science classroom at Corwin Junior High School this fall if he wishes, but he'll have to mix his drinks at home.

• • •

Six trustees of School District 60 voted unanimously last night to offer Colton a 1956-57 teaching contract under a resolution which forbids employment in any phase of the liquor industry.

Colton, a science teacher here for three years, has tended bar nights for two years at a hotel cocktail lounge. Friends say he wanted to supplement his teaching salary, estimated at $4,300 a year.

• • •

The School Board came under heavy fire from teachers, students and parents after three of its members voted April 10 not to offer Colton a new contract. Members of the Pueblo Teachers Foundation began a resignation-a-day campaign in protest.

French Kill 207 Arabs in Big Algerian Battle

ALGIERS (INS)—French troops killed 207 Algerian rebels in fierce fighting during the past 48 hours. French authorities admitted 14 French soldiers were killed in the fighting.

The most violent battle occurred in the wooded mountains northwest of Batna, where the rebels and French fought hand-to-hand. Many of the rebels were mahcine-gunned by fighter planes.

'EGG-LAYING EGG' — When Joe Hendricks, 12, of Rylie, Tex., found one of his hens had laid an egg measuring 9¾ inches by 7¾ inches, he thought he had something to show the neighbors. Later the big egg cracked, revealing another oddity — a normal-sized egg inside. The outer egg was complete with yolk and white. Looking on somewhat amazed is the White Leghorn which produced the phenomenon.

Adlai Hits GOP on New Charges

Dem Says Republicans Have Given Away U.S.'s Natural Resources

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (AP) — Adlai Stevenson, winding up three days of campaigning in Oregon, concentrated on charges the Eisenhower administration has given away the nation's natural resources.

In a speech to about 650 here last night he said the Eisenhower administration has given away:

Offshore oil lands "to fulfill Republican campaign promises."

Timber in Oregon's Rouge River National Forest "on the pretext the Al Sarena Co. was to mine for gold and silver."

Mining rights in wildlife refuges "to about as many companies in three years as in the past 33 years."

One of the greatest waterpower sites in the country—Hells Canyon.

Stevenson will interrupt his campaigning for the Democratic presidential nomination tonight to fly to Paducah, Ky., for the funeral services for Sen. Alben Barkley, a distant kinsman.

He plans to fly to California tomorrow in his quest for votes in that state's presidential preference primary in June.

U.N. Delays Opening

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—To avoid any conflict with the U. S. presidential campaign, the United Nations' 11th General Assembly will open Nov. 12. Normally the Assembly opens in late September.

Utah Governor Asks Tax Test

Says They Duck the Issue

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Utah's Gov. J. Bracken Lee has accused the federal government of trying to duck a court test of the constitutionality of using income taxes to finance its foreign aid program.

• • •

He made the accusation yesterday after the Internal Revenue Service slapped liens on his property to collect the $1,203.10 it says he owes in income taxes. The liens didn't have to be procured in court.

MATTER OF PRINCIPLE

The Republican governor says he is refusing to pay the tax in hopes of winning a court test of the government's right to spend tax money for foreign aid.

"As matters stand, a citizen seemingly has no means to test a constitutional question on government spending, despite the fact our government derives its powers from the people," he said.

He said the Internal Revenue Service "has been vested with more power than any governmental agency should have."

• • •

The governor indicated he may take the question to court himself, possibly by seeking a court order to set aside the liens.

Internal Revenue officials had no comment.

Ike to Use TV for Campaign

Hall Says Eisenhower Will Make Five or Six Speeches This Year

WASHINGTON (AP)— Leonard W. Hall, Republican national chairman, has said after conferring with President Eisenhower the chief executive probably will make five or six television campaign speeches this fall. Hall said some of the speeches quite likely will be outside of Washington.

• • •

Hall told newsmen at the White House that "nothing more is expected" of the President during the campaign, which probably will start about Sept. 15.

OVERRIDING ISSUE

Hall said "peace and prosperity is the overriding issue" of the presidential campaign.

"That doesn't mean we don't have a rugged campaign ahead," he added. "We don't take anything for granted."

• • •

He said the President probably will travel by plane, but added that he had no information yet on where he may speak.

SMILE AND SMEAR

As for the campaign role of the Eisenhower Cabinet and other top administration officials, Hall said he looks for most of them—including Vice President Nixon—to participate.

A reporter told Hall that Nixon is being accused by some Democrats of a "smile and smear" technique in campaigning.

• • •

Hall laughed and said he recalled that some Democrats also have accused Nixon of saying that the Democratic party is "a party of treason."

Hall said that some time ago he offered to pay $1,000 to charity if anyone could prove Nixon ever said that. He added that no one has proved it.

• • •

"Dick Nixon is a tough fighter," Hall said, "and the fact he is under fire by them (the Democrats) indicates he is the one they fear the most."

Grosse Pointe City Must Split Precinct

LANSING (AP)—Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh held in an opinion yesterday that the City of Grosse Pointe must divide its one existing election precinct in conformity with a 1955 state law.

• • •

The opinion said that under the law if Grosse Pointe officials do not proceed promptly the State Director of Elections will be obliged to step in and do the work at local expense.

The opinion was in response to a request by Robert M. Montgomery, state elections director, for support in his effort to obtain compliance.

• • •

Grosse Pointe has 4,781 registered voters. Under the new law precinct maximums were provided of 1,400 where voting machines were used and 800 where paper ballots are used.

One voting machine for each 600 registered voters is required in voting machine precincts.

Florist Pooh-Poohs Special Meanings

Yellow Rose for Jealousy? It's Nonsense!

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—The slogan of U. S. florists for years has been "Say It With Flowers." Today they suggest a slight appendage—"but don't say anything specific."

• • •

"It's like this," explains Victor Stein, director of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association. "So many significances were attached to flowers—like the yellow rose meaning jealousy and the red carnation meaning I'm carrying a torch for you, and so on—that things were getting out of hand.

"A girl might love chrysanthemums, but chrysanthemums mean 'you're a wonderful friend'—and what man is going to send his girl an implication like that!"

So the whole business of flower-sending got as out of hand as a lawnful of dandelions, and the florists want to cut it out to keep their two-billion-dollar revenue coming in.

"Keep on saying it with flowers," suggests Stein, "but put the details on a card."

With Mother's Day right around the garden wall, Stein also wants to clear up some legendary nonsense about flowers for ma. "There's a rumor that certain flowers must be sent to certain types and ages of mothers, and this is nonsense."

• • •

The safest way to select flowers for mother is to analyze "where she lives and how she lives."

"If she's one of these young mothers, living in the city in a modern house or apartment, she can take arty flowers that arrange smartly—gladioli, anthurium, the big new carnations, orchids in bud vases.

"If she's an old-fashioned mother, give her a sweet-smelling flower — roses, peonies, lilacs, lilies-of-the valley. Matter of fact, an old-fashioned mother—and there are quite a few left—will probably be delighted with anything."

• • •

Stein, a good-looking man who has been running a florist shop in San Francisco for 35 years, talks of posies as if they were couturier clothes hot off the Paris collections.

"My favorite, the gardenia, is going out. It's been too popular for too many years. Women've seen too many gardenias floating in too many flat bowls. Replacing it as a corsage favorite are the cymbidium orchid (the small, tailored orchid, that is) and the camellia and begonia."

• • •

The cattleya orchid (big purple or white) is still the most costly single flower but it is, after many years of elegance, fading in the favor of women as a corsage. "Women are going through a phase where they would rather be simple than overpowering.

"Nobody wants to be flamboyant anymore," says Stein matter-of-factly, with no trace of regret. "They'd rather look as if they had just walked through a garden and plucked a few posies, casually, for their buttonholes."

It's hard to make an orchid look like something you just ran across in the backyard.

• • •

Getting back to the special meanings of flowers, Victor Stein reiterated that the yellow carnation no longer means "you have disappointed me," and by sending a bunch of violets you are no longer committed to "be true—always."

The only old legend that Stein and his florists care to cling to is the significance of the red rose.

"When a man wants to tell a girl he loves her, he sends red roses. This has been going on for a century. And since there is little enough true love in the world, that is one tradition that, perhaps, should be preserved."

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

Planting a Lawn

Everyone who has a house likes a nice lawn. The soft green grass is a lovely background for flowers, and it is fun to play on.

Peter is busy planting grass seed. He has a big bag of seed and a fine wheelbarrow to trundle it about, as well as some handy garden tools in the pocket of his big apron.

Paste this picture down on cardboard, color it with crayons, and then cut out the parts carefully.

Put the large wheel with the feet on it behind Peter's apron, fastening it on with a brass fastener, or a bent pin, through the indicated holes in the center of the wheel and the bottom of Peter's pocket. Put the small wheel behind the projection at the front of the wheelbarrow, and fasten it on also with a pin or fastener through the hole in the wheel and the hole in the wheelbarrow end.

Stand Peter up and he will walk along, pushing his wheelbarrow.

Cut the dotted slot in the wheelbarrow, and slip the bag of grass seed in until it catches on the little "ears" at the side. Put Peter's cap on and fold back the tabs to keep it in place. Then Peter can go to work making a fine lawn.

(This idea was first suggested by Nettie Sands, Pasadena, Texas. Perhaps you have an idea for Junior Editors. If so send it in care of this newspaper and it may bring you a $10 award. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures.)

Poor Fish Can't Win

PALM BEACH (INS)—Vacationists at Palm Beach don't have to waste a lot of time looking for fish. Hotelman Maurice B. Frank has equipped his yacht, Seabreeze, with an electronic device which flashes a signal when the boat is directly over a school of fish. He placed the yacht at the disposal of his guests. They can now relax while they cruise over the blue Florida waters, confident that when their rods and reels are cast overboard, the fish will be plentiful.

Science Develops New Tablet:

Relieves Painful Monthly Cramps For 3 out of 4 Women Tested! Gives Greater Relief Than Aspirin!

Boston, Mass. (Special)—New promise of relief for women who suffer tortures of monthly cramps and nervous tension is found in an amazing new tablet . . . developed especially to relieve this female discomfort. It offers greater relief than aspirin during that distressing period each month!

Doctors report remarkable results. For 3 out of 4 women tested, pain and cramps were stopped or strikingly relieved. Even on the first day, many had no nagging headaches, no backaches or other functionally-caused distress . . . were also less jittery the trying week before their period!

The new tablet contains not just one or two ingredients but a unique combination of special medicines. That's why this new discovery offers more relief than plain aspirin! Unlike such "general-purpose" remedies, it acts on the cause of distress. Has amazing power to calm uterine contractions, also works through a woman's sympathetic nervous system.

Called "Lydia Pinkham's Tablets," the formula was developed by the world's largest manufacturer devoted exclusively to relief of women's ailments! Easy-to-take new Pinkham's Tablets are now available at all drug stores without a prescription.

So don't suffer needlessly. Take Pinkham's Tablets yourself. See if you don't feel worlds better this very month. See if you don't escape much of the irritability and discomfort—both before and during those "difficult days." (For liquid form . . . ask for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.)

Mayor Albert Cobo Is Republicans' Best Bet

Michigan Republicans meet officially at the end of the week. Mayor Albert Cobo of Detroit returns home today just prior to the event. Hence, it looks as though the path ahead were fairly clearly charted.

Mayor Cobo has announced that he will make a final decision prior to the state councils and his associates are confident of a positive answer.

★ ★ ★

This means the State race in in the fall will probably be Cobo vs. Williams with an all-out effort on both sides.

Neither can loaf.

It's do or die.

Michigan is a pivotal and important state.

★ ★ ★

The Press is not unmindful that Donald S. Leonard is still in the race. However, from our listening post in this important County, we hear a much greater clamor for Cobo than we do for Leonard. Leonard has been soundly defeated and thus lacks the luster and glory that currently accrue to Mayor Cobo.

No one denies Mr. Leonard's worth and no one takes whit from his personal capabilities but his vote getting propensities are not equal to Mayor Cobo's in the minds of most Republican chiefs.

★ ★ ★

Mayor Cobo has done a tremendous job for the City of Detroit. The voters give him full credit. He has made friends on every side because of his achievements. It's still true: "nothing succeeds like success." The ability to get elected is a prime requisite when one enters the lists against G. Mennen Williams.

★ ★ ★

The Democratic standard bearer is a casehardened veteran that has been to the wars and returned unscathed.

He knows his way around.

He's smooth, sagacious and suave.

Many Republicans are convinced that Mayor Cobo is the only current candidate that can successfully challenge Governor Williams' private Wayne County stronghold and then go on to win outstate.

★ ★ ★

At the same time, several well known outstate editors and publishers have told us privately that Mayor Cobo will have a job to do upstate and that he will have to campaign there to become acquainted with his constituents and the mass of voters who do not know him sufficiently.

Mayor Cobo's health is not too robust, but he takes good care of himself and a shrewdly chosen itinerary should enable him to meet and greet those whose support he needs.

★ ★ ★

Congressman Gerald Ford of Grand Rapids is an exceedingly capable and competent young man, but he would face a fearful task in attempting to blast his way into Governor Williams' private preserves in Wayne County. The same thing holds true for Alvin Bentley, Owosso Congressman, who is rapidly climbing to the fore in Michigan politics.

★ ★ ★

The Press believes Mayor Cobo of Detroit is the best qualified challenger to meet the Governor in open combat.

This would be a battle royal.

Hang onto your hat.

Governor Williams has been elected four times. On three of these occasions, his margin was thinner than a gnat's eyebrow.

This time he faces his most powerful challenger.

Veep's Sudden Death Saddens All America

When death stilled the voice of Sen. Alben W. Barkley, America lost one of her favorite sons.

The end came as the Kentuckian would have wished—while he was keynoting a mock Democratic convention conducted by students at Washington and Lee University at Lexington, Va. Senator Barkley's career was one of the longest and most successful in the Nation's political history.

★ ★ ★

For 52 of his 78 years the Blue Grass State's junior Senator served his party, state and Nation loyally and faithfully. From 1904 to 1908 he was prosecutor of McCracken County and then for three years, a county judge.

A member of the National House of Representatives from 1912 to 1927, Mr. Barkley then was elected to the U.S. Senate and served until 1948. That year he resigned to become Vice President for four years in the Administration of President Truman, returning to the Senate again in 1954.

One of the unrealized dreams of Barkley's life undoubtedly was his party's Presidential nomination. But when he sought it at the 1952 Democratic convention, he was told that he was too old at 74 to be a candidate.

Senator Barkley had a warm, friendly nature. He liked to talk which he did very well and he was blessed with an unfailing sense of humor. He was one of those rare leaders beloved as much by his political enemies as by his friends.

The Veep once said of himself that during his first 13 years on the political stage he was too busy to be a statesman. Nonetheless, throughout his career he displayed the highminded idealism and integrity which stamped him as an outstanding American.

I have it direct from a neutral person who attended both the Republican and Democrat recent Oakland County delegate conventions that interest was dormant in both. Neither exhibited as much on the ball as should be expected in a presidential election year. He says, "Too much let George do it."

It has been brought to my attention that

"Why, That's Funny—I Was Looking for You, Too"

David Lawrence Says:

Courage of Senator Alben Barkley Cost Kentuckian Chance for the Presidency

WASHINGTON — The name of Alben Barkley may be inscribed in the hall of fame of American politics as the man who was penalized for his courage and who thereby lost a chance to be president of the United States.

Back in 1944, the then senator from Kentucky was the majority leader of the Senate and the spokesman for President Franklin D. Roosevelt and the Democratic party in the Senate. There came a moment when, after many arduous weeks of work, Barkley had succeeded in getting through the Senate a tax bill which on all sides was deemed fair and constructive.

But Roosevelt, who was looking toward the polls that year and was carrying on a demagogic appeal about "soaking the rich," didn't like the bill and, much to the surprise of Congress, vetoed it. Barkley was stunned by the action, which he viewed as a repudiation of what he and other members of the Democratic party had worked for.

DEFIED FDR

Resigning the majority leadership as a means of ascertaining whether the Senate wanted his views or those of the White House to prevail, Barkley was restored to the leadership post by an overwhelming vote. The tax bill itself was passed over the Roosevelt veto. Up to this time, Sen. Barkley had seemed logical for the vice-presidential nomination.

But FDR never forgot Sen. Barkley's defiance. When the time came for the selection of a vice-presidential nominee at the Chicago convention in the summer of 1944, the word was passed around that Roosevelt didn't favor Barkley. Everybody knew at that convention that FDR had not forgiven the Kentucky senator for his manifestation of independence. In FDR's book senators were "rubber stamps"—or else they lost his support.

The second instance in which Alben Barkley paid the penalty for his independence occurred during the 1952 national convention at Chicago when Sen. Barkley was ruled out of the race because of an alleged unfriendliness to labor. No accusation could be more preposterous, because ever since the days when the railroad brotherhood unions won their first piece of important legislation, known as the Barkley Law, the friendliness of the Kentuckian to organized labor was well established.

TELLS OF MEETING

But here is the story of what happened in 1952, as told by the senator on Aug. 4, 1955, during his last campaign for election to the Senate. He said:

"I arrived in Chicago on Friday before the convention was to meet on Monday. I was busy over television and radio. On Sunday night certain labor leaders who were at the convention gave out an announcement that they could not support Barkley because of his age, and the next night, on Monday night, after the convention met, Gov. Wetherby, Sen. Clements, Leslie Biffle, secretary of the Senate and a lifelong friend of mine, Jim Farley, whom you all know, and a number of other gentlemen came to my room to tell me that this announcement of the labor leaders had disrupted my campaign, caused many delegates in states with heavy labor votes to desert my banner as if they were rats leaving a sinking ship, and that in all probability under those conditions, I could not be nominated, and that in their judgment it might be better for me to retire from the race while it looked like I might be nominated than to wait and be defeated on the floor of the convention.

"We talked about it a long time, and finally I accepted their advice. Whether that advice was wise is now immaterial. I accepted it. It might be that if I had it to do over I would not accept it. But I regarded the advice as being sincere, and made in good faith, and I retired, therefore, from the contest."

This writer, by coincidence, happened to be alone with the Kentucky senator that afternoon in 1952 and also on the day in 1944 when he issued his statement differing with FDR on the tax bill. Chagrin was written on his face, but he never whimpered. He had carried the ball valiantly in the Senate for FDR. He had gone down the line for labor, only to be tossed aside in favor of the radicals in the Democratic party. Both disappointments left their mark. He could have busted things wide open with speeches of denunciation, but he preferred not to do anything to hurt his own party.

Had Alben Barkley been on the ticket with Roosevelt in November 1944, it would have been the Kentucky senator rather than Harry Truman who would have had the chance to succeed to the presidency in April 1945.

Does it pay to be courageous? Alben Barkley will be remembered for his courage long after some of the others who attained higher honors are forgotten.

Graduated Exercise Ideal for Heart Disease Victims

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Just taking one turn after another around the block becomes monotonous and besides if you are not obviously a cripple or an invalid obeying doctor's orders people presently remember where they have seen you before and as your daily appearance becomes familiar to them, they generally infer that you're dotty.

One can spend as much time waiting for signals as it takes to walk a mile, straightaway. This takes all the joy out of walking as a means of cultivating physical and mental health, unless one is lucky enough to have within reach a park, a suburb, or a bit of open country where vehicular traffic cannot follow.

As I learned back there on Richmond Avenue, it took fifteen minutes to walk a mile, when Tony didn't take too much time out for arboreal research. At that rate 6 miles would take at least 1½ hours. Most white-collar workers, business, professional, clerical, are quick to exclaim, "Oh, that's out of the question—I can't take that much time off every day."

* * *

O. K. It's your privilege to degenerate as you please. But may I inquire how much time you devote to the movies, TV, lunch-hour loafing, bridge, gin rummy, or perhaps taking your favorite narcotic?

The margin of reserve power is the determining factor in the prognosis of not only valvular trouble but every other form of heart disease. Husbanding reserve power by REST or increasing it by GRADUATING EXERCISE.

As I try to explain, no matter what kind of heart trouble you may have had or have now, if you have not taken or are not now taking gradually increasing exercise daily, as prescribed by your doctor, you had better change doctors right away—that is, unless you are one of those delinquents who use the "weak heart" dodge to evade work and live on charity. There are too many such delinquents, and too often the heart "weakness" is iatrogenic — suggested by some doctor.

If the meaning of "reserve power" is not clear, I've can put it another way. A reasonable amount of daily exercise prescribed and supervised by the physician in gradually increasing doses as prescribed by the physician is the No. 1 remedy for any and every kind of heart disease following the period of rest (seldom more than four or five weeks) that is initially advisable in some circumstances.

Signed letters not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'Some Brilliant Scientists Are God's Best Teachers'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

In answer to the letter about psychology and religion, just what do you think inspires our men of psychology and science if not the Bible?

I assure you God shares his Bible with everyone who wishes its knowledge. I don't think Dr. Crane would appreciate it if he thought he could not consider himself a Christian, due to his profession.

Some of the most brilliant scientists in the world are some of God's best teachers. "Judge not, lest ye be judged yourself."

Wife Says Hoxsey Clinic Improved Her Husband

We are hearing a lot about the Hoxsey cancer clinic in Dallas, Tex., these days.

I took my husband there last November when the doctor here didn't do him any good. And I am not ashamed or sorry for taking him. Now he is working every day, eats and sleeps well, has gained all his weight back and he says he feels wonderful.

They talk about paying the doctor. Well, you can't expect something for nothing, and I have to pay all the other doctors I have whether they do any good or not. We have a right to go to the doctor of our choice and I know it has done wonders for my husband.

Young Hussein of Jordan Occupies Uneasy Throne

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Young King Hussein of Jordan is on a hot seat in Jordan, the poverty-stricken country caught in the web of Arabian politics.

* * *

Reports direct from his capital of Amman tell of a plot to assassinate him. An Arab Legion officer, Lt. Col. Mahmoud Roussan, a former pro-Western military attache in Washington, is said to have "confessed" planning to kill the 21-year-old Hussein.

Roussan reportedly opposed the Arab Legion forces pulling his country into the arms of Egypt. This would put him on the side of Iraq, only nation in the anti-Communist Baghdad Defense Pact.

Hussein is a direct descendant of the Prophet Mohammed and a grandson of the famous Emir Abdullah, who fought with Lawrence of Arabia and became first King of Jordan.

* * *

Hussein, in line with Abdullah's close ties with the British, was educated in Britain. He became King in 1952 after his father, King Talal, was adjudged insane and unfit to rule in the succession stakes that followed Abdullah's assassination in Jerusalem in 1951.

DISMISSED GLUBB

The brown-haired, dark-eyed Hussein early in March fired Lt. Gen. John Bagot Glubb, the Briton who had been a strong supporter of the Hashemite regime in Jordan and who built up the Arab Legion army.

* * *

Whether he did this under pressure from an Arab officer's clique in the legion never has been definitely learned. But in any event it was a blow to British prestige and spurred counter-forces inside Jordan.

Hussein since has tried to stay on good terms with both Arab factions in the Middle East, the Iraqi leaders who want Jordan inside the Baghdad Pact and the Egyptian-Syrian-Saudi Arabian bloc, opposing the pact.

He has said publicly also that his nation still is aligned with Britain despite the anti-British hostility of the Egyptians and Saudi Arabians.

* * *

The King's own family is torn by the struggle. His mother, who is said to exert strong influence over her handsome son, favors links with Saudi Arabia despite traditional Saudi Arabian struggles with the Hashemite family.

ROYAL COUSIN

Some other family members want firmer links with Iraq, whose throne is occupied by King Faisal, a cousin of Hussein.

* * *

The harassed King, whose political activities cut down on his sports enthusiasm such as motor car racing, horse riding and airplane piloting, early last year married a cousin, the Sherifa Dina Abdel Hamid.

She also is an English college graduate and was a Cairo English teacher at the time of the romance. They have a baby daughter.

One thing that sort of fascinates . . . Yet always puzzles me . . . Is how a dog can close his eyes . . . And slumber constantly . . . Our dachshund, Pretzel, illustrates . . . That very lazy sight . . . He snores his head off through the day . . . And then he sleeps all night . . . Of course he has to eat and drink . . . And he runs out to play . . . But we can count the minutes he . . . Is actually away . . . And half of every little while . . . Our Pretzel may be gone . . . He seems to spend luxuriously . . . Stretched out upon the lawn . . . We do not mind his dozing, for . . . He is our precious pet . . . But when it comes to idleness . . . How lazy can he get?

Case Records of a Psychologist

Prominent Persons Can Exert Much Influence on Hero-Worshiping Teens

Timmy's case should make Hollywood stars, prominent athletes, beloved school teachers and all other heroes and heroines consider their moral obligations to their "fans." Children experience a natural stage of hero-hunger. They even organize fan clubs, so heroes should never betray them, a la Judas Iscariot.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case R-345: Timmy J., aged 12, recently came home very downcast and moody.

"Dr. Crane, I thought maybe he was sick," his worried mother began.

* * *

"And I guess he was, but not because of any germs or stomach upset.

"Timmy worshiped a certain famous athlete who was his hero. Timmy had pasted pictures of this young man all over his room.

"But today Timmy saw his hero pictured with a cigarette in his hand and endorsing a certain brand of tobacco.

"Well, Timmy's Boy Scout leader is a young physician who has warned the boys of the dangers of tobacco.

"So Timmy was crestfallen. His hero now was shown to have feet of clay. And because Timmy has boasted so much about his hero, Timmy hesitated to go to Scout meeting tomorrow night.

"He says he can't face his pals."

MORAL RESPONSIBILITY

Young people—both boys and girls—undergo a period of hero worship as they enter the teens.

* * *

This "hero hunger" is sometimes so strong that it causes youngsters to skimp on lunch money in order to buy a ticket to a performance where their hero is to perform.

Sometimes these heroes are athletes. Others may be movie stars or musicians, radio announcers and MC's on TV.

Fan clubs sprout up throughout the country and these teenage admirers often carry over into the adult age groups.

So, everybody who "fronts" before the public should realize that a grave moral responsibility devolves upon the shoulders of such heroes and heroines of modern youth.

Regardless of the hero's personal appetites, he should recognize his psychological obligation to his "fans" and not sell them out or betray them in Judas Iscariot fashion.

Irene Dunne in the movies and President Eisenhower in the White House are two outstanding examples of splendid moral leadership.

* * *

They have diligently tried to keep faith with teenage America and set a strong positive example regarding church attendance, freedom from liquor and tobacco, vulgar language or juvenile feuds with newspapermen.

Even the Bible contains a specific warning to movie stars, popular teachers, eminent athletes and other heroes or heroines of modern youth, for Christ stated:

"And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believeth in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea." (Mark 9:42)

That's pretty strong language, isn't it? If you believe that Jesus was the Son of God, then you better think twice when you are offered $500 or $1,000 to sign an endorsement of some product that is bad for God's little ones who happen to be banded together in your "fan clubs."

That $1,000 will soon be spent and forgotten, but not so the record against your name for selling out the hero-worshiping youth who idealized and almost idolized you heroes and heroines.

Don't think I am a clergyman in making such a warning, for I simply represent the majority of American psychologists who stand for moral integrity and don't want our youth betrayed.

We know the vast influence which heroes exert over their followers, so I am warning you thoughtless leaders to be fair to your fans.

* * *

And I urge you readers to clip this column and mail it to some of the athletic or Hollywood stars of whom your youth are enamoured at present.

For hero-hunger is a natural stage in youngsters, and our heroes can exert tremendous influence on future human behavior.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20¢ to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Opera House Fronted by Great Glass Wall

HAMBURG, Germany — Hamburg's new $1,000,000 opera house has a facade that is one great glass wall framed in concrete and chromium. Three foyers are one above another. The auditorium seats 1,649 and has no pillars or other visible supports.

* * *

Boxes and balconies are suspended from the roof by steel beams. Hamburg citizens contributed all the money for the building, which replaces one destroyed in the war.

Rodent Factory

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The zoo raises mice and rats, 8,600 of them in 1955, to feed to its reptiles and carnivorous birds.

Still Made a Profit

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) — Youth Day went off smoothly enough when high school seniors temporarily filled in for members of Fiscal Court—that is, until one student ofered a motion that each student be paid the $15 given the elected officials for attending a meeting. The adults took over pronto, but still voted to pay each student $5 out of their own pockets.

Cadillac-Soo Ends Operation

Production Costs, Keen Competition Close Old Lumber Company

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—One of the oldest and biggest lumber companies in the Upper Peninsula, the Cadillac-Soo Lumber Co., will close down operations.

* * *

W. Richard Murphy of Sault Ste. Marie, president, told the company's 154 employes that the "high cost of production in the face of growing competition" made it impossible to continue in business.

Cadillac-Soo has been in operation since 1923. It has timber holdings covering 48,000 acres in the Upper Peninsula, including 6,000 acres of virgin forest.

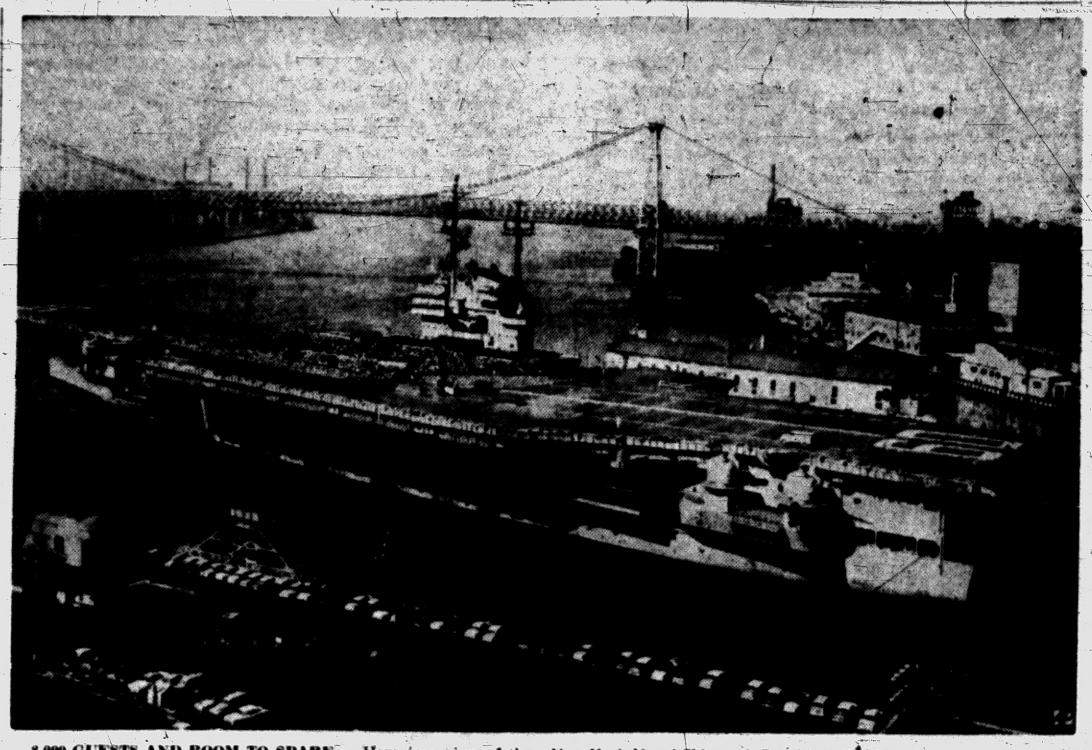

It formerly was headed by Sewell Avery of Chicago, onetime chairman of the board of Montgomery Ward & Co. He was voted out as president by the Cadillac-Soo board of directors a year and a half ago in a dispute over company operations.

Murphy said work in the woods will stop immediately. The mill will continue in operation until yard work is cleared up, with complete shutdown expected by June 1.

* * *

He said there is no immediate prospect of selling the company's holdings. Directors will meet in Grand Rapids May 16 to discuss severance pay for employes, who are members of Local 416 United Mine Workers.

The average length of life for U.S. wage earners has reached 70 years.

8,000 GUESTS AND ROOM TO SPARE — Here is a view of the USS Saratoga during commissioning ceremonies on the flight deck at New York Naval Shipyard, Brooklyn. The Navy's newest ship is 1,039 feet long with a beam of 252 feet.

Steel Shortage Delays Move to Wayne Airport

DETROIT (AP) — A Wayne County official said today a steel shortage will delay by "several months" the move of American Airlines from Willow Run to Detroit-Wayne Major Airport.

Leroy C. Smith, county highway engineer whose department operates Wayne Major, said the shortage will set back the shift until early 1958. The airline had planned to move by October 1957.

Sergeant Had Drunk Vodka

Wilson OKs Marine Corps Action for Court Martial

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top Pentagon officials say they believe the Marine Corps has taken the necessary steps to prevent any more incidents like the drowning of six recruits on a night disciplinary march at Parris Island, S.C.

Secretary of Defense Wilson told his news conference yesterday he thinks "the best possible solution was worked out and I hope it will be accepted by everybody."

Secretary of the Navy Thomas put out a statement saying he was confident orders issued by Gen. Randolph McC. Pate, Marine commandant, "will prevent the recurrence of a tragic incident of this kind."

REVAMP TRAINING

Earlier in the day, Pate reported to the House Armed Services Committee that, in the wake of a Corps inquiry into the drownings last month, he had reorganized the training command, ordered closer supervision of noncommissioned drill instructors, and shifted Maj. Gen. Joseph C. Burger, commander at the Parris Island boot camp, to Camp Lejeune, N.C. where there is no recruit training.

DRINKING VODKA

The Marines have recommended the court-martial trial of S. Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon of Worcester, Mass., on four charges, including manslaughter. McKeon, a World War II and Korean War veteran, ordered the night march that ended in disaster. The inquiry court found he was under the influence of vodka at the time of the unauthorized march.

* * *

Thomas said formal charges were being prepared in his office preparatory to bringing McKeon to trial. Maximum penalty on the manslaughter charge, the most serious of the four, is 10 years in prison.

Italian Judge Dead

TURIN, Italy (AP)—Judge Guiseppe Manfredi was found dead with his wrists slashed in a gas-filled room. Beside his body police found this note: "I am afraid I have convicted an innocent man."

Signs of the Times

SALEM, N.H. (AP)—The freshman class at Woodbury High School will hold its class hayride as planned next Friday—but the students will ride on trucks instead of in wagons. A class committee scouted Salem—noted for its farms and Rockingham horse race track—and reported rather ruefully that it could locate only one available horse.

Runs Car Into Prop of Plane; Fined $200

DENVER (AP)—A 21-year-old motorist who drove through the whirling propeller of a parked airliner last March 11 was fined $200 in Traffic Court yesterday.

* * *

Bryce L. Bredehoft, a civilian clerk at Lowry Air Force Base, was convicted of reckless driving and destroying city and private property.

Police said he ran his car through a fence surrounding Stapleton Airfield and onto a runway where a giant Trans-World Airways plane was warming up. The propeller cut huge slices in the car but Bredehoft emerged with only head cuts.

* * *

He testified he had attended a party and remembered nothing of the incident.

Army Vet Corps Has More Men Than Animals

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army's Veterinary Corps now has more men than horses and mules, including three horses on the retired rolls.

* * *

These statistics were presented to the House Appropriations Committee, which made them public today, during hearings on the 1957 military budget.

Estimated manpower of Veterinary Corps—466, of which 332 are assigned to food inspection.

* * *

Number of horses owned by the Army—124, plus 3 in retirement at no cost to the government.

Number of Army mules—314.

COMBINATION WASHER-DRYER

Biggest home laundry news in 20 years! New Easy Combination washes and dries clothes in one continuous automatic operation . . . in the smallest space ever!

Put in dirty clothes, push a button, take them out clean, sweet-smelling, fluffy-dry . . . ready to iron or put away. And Easy does the entire job so much faster.

Deep-Spinaway Rinse with 2 spray and 2 deep rinses whirls out more soap and soil. Dirty water can't drain through clothes.

Uses less water, less soap than other washers. Never re-uses dirty sudsy water. Each load "chooses" amount of water it needs. Saves up to 10 gallons on small loads.

Faster, gentler drying with twice the air circulation of ordinary dryers. Safest for delicate fabrics.

Clothes come out fluffy — smell sweet! No sun fading. No more heavy wet clothes to hang up . . . ever! Self-cleaning lint screen. No steam! No venting!

Full-size capacity yet fits anywhere. Takes only 27 inches of wall space. 36 inches high from floor to porcelain top! Takes less than half the space of separate units.

Bob Considine Says:

U.S. Strives to Prevent H-Bomb Damages

H-BOMB BOUND (INS)—The government's elaborately polite note to the Japanese government, promising no harm will come to Japanese people (or fishing) as a result of the new H-bomb tests, and pledging also that we'll pay for any damages, recalls that only 11 swift years have flitted by since we were preparing to drop one of them for real.

• • •

That time, however, there was a different sort of exchange of notes. We dropped leaflets on Hiroshima urging the people to leave, when it became clear that the scientists and engineers back home had indeed built and tested an A-bomb and ways and means had been found of packaging it so that it could be dropped from a B29.

There was another would-be exchange of notes, one that indicates to this day the feeling of guilt that many top nuclear physicists felt over their role in the creation of a bomb.

These were the men (and women, for Dr. Lise Meitner played an early role) who wanted this new-found energy used for the good of mankind not for his extermination.

Sixty of these scientists who were closely related to production of the bomb got together after the successful test of July 15, 1945, at Alamagordo, N. M., and signed a petition asking that the bomb not be used against the Japanese. Or anybody else.

• • •

The petition was taken to the Pentagon and an effort was made to see Gen. George C. Marshall, then chief of staff. Marshall was at Potsdam with Truman. The petition reached the hands of Marshall's deputy, Gen. Thomas T. Handy.

GENERAL SCOFFED

Handy scoffed at the concerned little group of scientists. They reworded their plea, making it read, in effect, "Tell the Japanese that we have a terrible new weapon, and maybe they'll surrender." Handy told them about lone Japanese fighting to the death in caves filled with dead comrades.

• • •

The persistent scientists rewrote once more. They asked, "Call Emperor Hirohito and his war cabinet to a safe place on Tokyo Bay, ask the Japanese navy to clear the bay of shipping, and demonstrate the bomb."

In Potsdam, Truman made what he later called the hardest decision of his life. He gave the green light to the multi-billion dollar project . . . and Hiroshima and Nagasaki took their ghastly places in the history of arms.

Lost in the shuffle was a request from one of the 60 signators to the scientists' plea. He had officially asked that he be strapped to the first bomb dropped on human beings, and atone for his role in its production by being blown to a million pieces.

Tempus fugits. "The acting secretary of state presents his compliments to his excellency the ambassador of Japan and has the honor to refer to the note from the Embassy of Japan dated Jan. 25, 1956, requesting assurance of compensation in the event of damage or economic loss arising from the forthcoming nuclear tests in the Pacific . . ."

SPEECH RECALLED

From there we went on to recall passages from Eisenhower's great speech of Dec. 8, 1953, in which we pledge to work for the peaceful use of atomic power.

• • •

We went into our attitudes expressed at the summit conference in Geneva, and recalled, in the guarded and sometimes timid language of diplomacy, that "military exercises are a traditional use of the high seas, and the government of the United States considers that inconvenience for other traditional uses which may result therefrom is not compensable as a matter of right." Then there was a big "however . . ." We're nice people.

We'll spend millions scouring clear a sea area about one-third again as big as Texas, to make absolutely certain that there is no recurrence of the tragic H-bomb "dusting" of the Japanese tuna trawler "Fortunate Dragon" in 1954.

Japanese fish handlers at home island ports have asked for assurances that they won't be contaminated by harmful radiation if they unload catches gathered after our upcoming blasts.

We'll find some way around that, too, I'll bet. It'll cost money, but we'll find a way. No power in history has ever gone to such ends to avoid hurting people's feelings or flesh.

Italian Tailor Is Amazed by Number of Cars Here

"So many, many cars," was the first impression of Arthur Corona who arrived just last week from Sora, Italy.

Corona, 41, has come to stay with his sister, Mrs. Vincent Alonzi, 443 E. South Blvd., whom he hasn't seen in 30 years.

April 13 Corona told his wife and five children goodbye in Italy and came to make his way in the United States and to renew acquaintances with his sister.

He was met in New York "by the lady with the arm up in the air," and the Alonzis' son, Vince stationed in Connecticut with the Navy. Vince put his uncle on a train for Pontiac, his new home.

Corona speaks no English yet but plans to attend citizenship classes here. When he becomes a citizen, his first task will be to arrange for his family to join him in Pontiac.

A tailor with a diploma and 33 years experience, Corona hopes to find work in the tailoring business and eventually work toward a shop of his own.

He left his own business in Sora, a city of about 40,000 population located between Naples and Rome, to come to America.

Of America, Corona said, he didn't expect as much as he found.

Changes the Attitude

TOKYO (AP)—The U.S. Air Force is scoring a major hit here with its 88-piece band from Washington. Thousands of adults and children are attending concerts and thousands more see and hear the band on TV and radio. The conductor, Col. George Howard, is happy. "We help the Japanese to feel the Air Force is something besides bombers and fighters," he said.

City PTA Council Hears Reports as Year Ends

Pontiac Press Photos

Each year members of the Oakland County Osteopathic Auxiliary gather for a benefit tea or luncheon using proceeds to support the Osteopathic Student Loan and Research Fund, for their scholarship funds or to support the Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital. Pictured as they gathered at the buffet luncheon held Tuesday at Federal Savings and Loan Building are (left to right) Mrs. Robert Woodruff of Rochester, vice president; Mrs. Joseph Sabato of Lake Orion, recording secretary; Mrs. Leonard Suidara of Berkley, president; and Mrs. Robert Tull of Royal Oak, president-elect.

Has Meeting at Whitfield on Tuesday

Presidents of Each Local Unit Outline Accomplishments

Members and friends of Pontiac Council of PTA met Tuesday afternoon at Daniel Whitfield School for the last session of the year. Mrs. William Wright and Mrs. William Mihalek read annual reports.

* * *

Presidents from each local were called upon to evaluate on what their locals had accomplished. Youth groups, such as Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Cub Scouts, Blue Birds and Girl Scouts, highlighted the year's activities of the majority of the locals.

The homeroom mothers, backbone of all good PTAs, seemed to have a very favored spot in each local's report.

Sources from which each local gained help were leadership training courses, Parent Education Institute, Higgins Lake Conference, presidents' meetings, problems

There are five pages in today's Women's Section clinics, state convention and district workshops. All locals reported several delegates were sent to each.

* * *

Fairs, bazaars, bake sales and dinners were ways and means of raising funds to meet each budget and help with the Pontiac PTA Council scholarship fund.

IMPORTANT ROLE

Fathers' groups and activities play a very large and important role in many schools of the city.

* * *

Homeroom dinners, family nights, banquets and picnics were highlights of the recreational programs.

District Seven Workshop will be held May 9 at Jane Addams School, Royal Oak. Workshops will be offered in the morning, and the afternoon session will be devoted to a discussion period answering questions from the morning.

The evening session will feature a panel of school superintendents who will discuss PTA policies. This will be followed by workshops on the effect of PTA policy on fund raising, legislation, programing, sponsoring youth groups and cooperating with the school.

A conference to provide training for local unit leaders and an opportunity to combine business with pleasure will be held at Higgins Lake Conservation Camp June 25 to 27.

The Pontiac PTA Council is cooperating with the Adult Education Department in helping distribute questionnaires and informative letters on the possibilities for adult education classes next year.

Letters will be provided for members explaining the adult education program. Questionnaires will be distributed by the schools.

18 Girl Scouts Enjoy Weekend on UM Campus

Girl Scout Troop 248 spent a recent weekend at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. Eighteen girls, 12 years old, took the trip.

* * *

Arrangements were made with the cooperation of the dean of women at the university. Housing was provided in a dormitory at the Women's League.

A tour of the campus buildings, a trip through the museum, and lunch with the students at a women's dormitory were among the events of the day.

Those enjoying the trip were Susan Arnkoff, Karen Bronoel, Sue Ann Dornan, Heidi Griffith, Klona Hahn, Mary Lou McLaughlin, Margaret Meltzer, Marcee Merrill, Virginia Norvel, Helen Ramsdell, Marjorie Rapaport, LaNetta Rowston, Rosemarie Smith, Rowena Smith, Judy Tiberg, Helen Thams, Diane Woolcock and Jeanette Wright.

* * *

Accompanying the girls were Mrs. Raymond Rapaport, troop leader; Mrs. William Merrill, co-leader; Mrs. Robinson Bronoel and Mrs. Harry Arnkoff.

Round Table Club Holds Installation

Presidency Taken by Mrs. Cleland at Luncheon Meeting

Mrs. H. E. McCulloch presided at the luncheon meeting of the Round Table Club held at Hi-Land Manor Tuesday when officers for the coming year were installed.

* * *

Mrs. Eugene Cleland is president. Her officers include Mrs. William Gordon, first vice president; Mrs. Paul Kantz, second vice president; Mrs. William Dawe, recording secretary; Mrs. A. T. Anderson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Smith Falconer, financial secretary, and Mrs. William Ford, treasurer. They were installed by Mrs. T. C. McFetridge.

Mrs. Edwin C. Williams, Mrs. George R. Eldred, Mrs. William H. Knudsen and Mrs. James H. McGuire were received into membership.

Mrs. Cleland reported on the Southeastern District Convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs at Sturgis, Wis. Marsha Thomas was chosen as the federation's scholarship winner for nurses' training at Ann Arbor.

* * *

Announcement was made of the open house at Oakland Child Guidance Clinic Thursday and adult education programs at Ann Arbor May 8 and 9.

Mrs. Leon Belknap, chairman of the new Mental Health Department, explained the project to members and also discussed the USO program for entertaining at the Nike Army base in Auburn Heights. Mrs. Cleland, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Fritzi Stoddard who gave two readings.

The next meeting of the City Federation of Women's Clubs will be a dinner May 9 at St. Benedict Church. Mrs. Carmi Odell will present a book review at the Oakland County benefit tea at the home of Mrs. E. G. Winn June 5.

* * *

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. W. J. Baumgartner, Mrs. Hazel Anderson, Mrs. C. O. Johnson, Mrs. Paul Herbst and Alta Springstein.

Meeting Conducted by Booster Class

Forty members and guests of the Booster Class of First Methodist Church were entertained recently by the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Havens of East Iroquois road.

* * *

Robert Tallman gave the devotions on "The Character of David." It was the same presentation he had given to the same class 34 years ago. The Rev. Mr. Havens showed colored pictures of his recent trip to England.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Bervel Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Williams and Mrs. Edna Worden served. Mrs. Elbert Proffitt of Green street will entertain for the May meeting.

Bleaches Bring Back Whiteness

MADISON, Wis. (INS)—Women should be reminded that laundry bleaches don't remove dirt—they only bring back whiteness.

So says Margaret Cooper, textile chemist at the University of Wisconsin.

Miss Cooper says the best way to keep clothes white is to wash them with soap and plenty of hot, soft water. She says rinsing clothes is important because that's what carries dirt away from fibers.

The textile chemist said women should pre-treat hems on slips and collars and cuffs to remove the grime that collects there.

Hint on Nail Polish

A mature woman should select her nail polish color with an eagle eye. Some women are slender enough, dress with flair and do the kind of work that makes brilliant nail polish seem in keeping.

But red polish looks out of character on many other mature women. A pale pink polish or a clear one may be more suitable.

Opti-Mrs. Club Conducts Installation at Breen Home

Installation of officers of the Opti-Mrs. Club of Pontiac was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Don Breen of Berwick boulevard. The group met at the Breen home for the business meeting following dinner at Devon Gables.

Mrs. Tom Hruska was installed as president with Mrs. H. A. Miller as vice president; Mrs. G. W. Stark, second vice president; Mrs. Dave Ewalt, secretary, and Mrs. Buhl Burt, treasurer.

Installation was conducted by Mrs. Irving Gillies and each incoming officer was presented with a personalized bracelet inscribed with the Opti-Mrs. Creed.

The Opti-Mrs. bracelets were designed by Mrs. Alan Robertson and a sample bracelet will be sent to Optimist International for recognition in the national magazine.

* * *

Invocation was given by Mrs. Fred Coleman. Mrs. Orrin Huntoon Jr. introduced Ellen Boston, who staged a skit about disc jockeys and panel experts.

Mrs. Roy Lewis, retiring president, was presented with a gift. A donation was collected to send three children to Camp Oakland. A donation was also made to the American Cancer Society.

Members of the program committee were Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Huntoon, Mrs. Rey Bassett and Mrs. Lewis.

Patient in Hospital

Mrs. Leo A. Martell of South Johnson street is a patient at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Couple United in Episcopal Rite

At a ceremony performed in All Saints Episcopal Church on Saturday, Mrs. Margery Donaldson became the bride of John Davies.

* * *

Mrs. Robert Donaldson Jr. and Lynn Davies attended the couple. The Rev. C. George Widdifield performed the 8 o'clock ceremony.

A reception was held at the home of the Robert Donaldsons on Berkley avenue immediately following the ceremony.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Davies will sail on May 23 for several months abroad.

Members of the Opti-Mrs. Club held a dinner followed by the reading of annual reports Tuesday evening. Growing Mental Ills Menace U. S.

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Facts you should know in connection with the May campaign of the National Association for Mental Health:

There are more people hospitalized for mental illness today than for all other diseases combined.

Some 2½ million men, women and children were treated for some form of mental disorder within the past year.

Mental disorder is an important element in 50 per cent to 70 per cent of all medical cases treated by physicians.

Of all people who seek hospital treatment for physical ailments, six million are suffering from serious mental and emotional illnesses which account for their physical ailments.

• • •

Twenty years ago the chance of being hospitalized for a severe mental illness was one in 20; today it is nearly one in 10.

MORE YEARS LOST

More working years of life are lost to mental diseases today than to any other group of illnesses which disable workers.

One billion dollars a year is the U. S. taxpayers' bill for care of mental patients.

The majority of our mental patients are given no more than custody in our overcrowded, understaffed, underequipped institutions.

Mental health treatment by clinics is available to relatively few. Of the 9,500 psychiatrists in the U. S., more than 3,000 are concentrated in New York and California.

• • •

"Homes are being broken up," warns the National Association for Mental Health, "children are becoming criminal, millions of lives are being ruined because of the insufficiency of clinics, private psychiatrists and guidance service to people with lesser mental disorders."

SUPPORT DRIVE

Its statements may encourage us to support its 1956 drive for funds. They may also stimulate the question: "Why is mental illness so impressively on the increase in this country that boasts the highest standard of material living in the world? What is it we Americans are so scared of?"

The true answer could well be the most important one that will ever be required of us.

"The painful insecurity on all sides," says psychoanalyst Rollo May, "is what gives us new incentive to ask is there perhaps some important source of strength we have overlooked?"

Gold Star Unit Names Delegate to Convention

Mrs. Leafa Doyle was voted a delegate to the national convention of American Gold Star Mothers being held in Tulsa, Okla., June 17-22, to represent American Gold Star Mothers Chapter Nine, who met in the American Legion Home Tuesday evening.

• • •

Others who will attend the convention are Mrs. Edna Olmstead, Mrs. Sybella Stevens and Mrs. Julia Thomas. Mrs. Verdi Weatherbee and Mrs. Edna Matheny will serve as alternates.

Plans were made to attend the Columbia Avenue Baptist Church on May 20. A report was given of the recent convention held in Hotel Statler, Detroit.

The regular memorial service of Chapter Nine will be held at the American Legion Home on May 29 at 7:30 p.m.

• • •

Mrs. Dee Lee invited the members to meet in her home on South Anderson street for an all-day sewing session on May 17.

Hawaiian Garments Now in Tapa Cloth

The tapa cloth is still the biggest item in the making of Hawaiian garments.

A Pan American report indicates that the nylon-acrilon-dacron era has reached the islands and no longer is the tapa beaten from tree bark and colored with roots, berries and charcoal. The new fabrics are an improvement, too, since they don't run in the warm, Hawaiian rains.

'T-Shirt' Stretches Into a Sports Shirt

NEW YORK (INS) — Inflation has hit even the T-shirt fashion.

The cotton knit shirt favored for sportswear has been stretched into a dress, and it turns out to be right in style for sheaths.

The T-shirt sheaths were created by a designer who figured women favoring the sleek lines of a knit blouse would like to look slick right down to their calves.

The effect is sinuous, and there's no trouble about finding the right waistline. You simply add a belt wherever you like your waistline.

Colonial rooms with interesting fireplaces and windows may look cozy with rich, deep-colored walls and light woodwork.

Hankies Become Functional, Funny and Fashionable

PARIS (INS)—The latest handkerchief models in Paris are functional, fashionable and educational.

French girls can now learn a language, check their luncheon calories or exchange cooking recipes simply by having a look at their hanky.

New de luxe handkerchiefs come with prints to be read or talked about instead of the classic floral patterns. One hanky, for instance, is covered with small pictures of different objects, each one captioned in French, English, Italian and German to enrich your vocabulary. On some handkerchiefs are receipts of famous French dishes complete with illustrations on how to prepare them.

For ladies following a diet there are hankies decorated with all sorts of food items and their calories.

On another Paris hanky you can check the names of famous perfumes pictured with their bottles. A handkerchief handy for the tourist season gives the exchange rates of currencies against French francs and dollars.

You can even check your eyesight. One hanky is printed with letters and figures in different sizes just like an optician's examination board.

First Baptist Church was the scene of the Saturday wedding of Patricia Ann Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glyn Stone of South Sanford street, and James H. McIlrath Jr. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James McIlrath of North Shirley avenue.

MR. and MRS. JAMES McILRATH JR.

Patricia A. Stone Speaks Vows in Baptist Service

A gown of imported French lace was worn by Patricia Ann Stone for her marriage to James H. McIlrath Jr. Saturday at First Baptist Church.

The 8 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Gerald H. Rapelje of Memorial Baptist Church. Dr. Henry H. Savage gave the closing prayer and benediction.

The bridal gown was accented by a high neckline and an empire waistline. The long sleeves were tapered to points at the wrists. Her circular headpiece secured an imported silk veil of fingertip length.

Joyce Harroun was maid of honor. Mary Stone, Jane Mallard and Sarah Faketty were bridesmaids. A gown of maize nylon over taffeta was worn by the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were gowned in shades of orchid.

Marjorie Justin, flower girl, wore a white nylon tulle frock for her duties.

Gene Terbush was best man. Ushers were Gary Devar of Clarkston, Glyn R. Stone and Robert McIlrath. Eugene Stone was ringbearer.

At the reception held in the church parlors Mrs. Stone greeted her guests wearing a dusty rose crepe dress. Mrs. McIlrath wore a navy blue dress with white accessories.

When the newlyweds left for their honeymoon trip through Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin, the bride was wearing a tweed suit with navy blue accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet. They will reside in Clarkston on their return.

2 Phrases Explained for Reader

Woman Asks How to Use 'At Home' and 'To Meet'

By EMILY POST

A letter tells me: "I notice that you use the phrases 'To meet' and 'At home' quite often in giving the wording for invitations. I would like to know if 'To meet' is used only when the guest of honor is a stranger, and 'At Home' only when the reception is taking place in one's own house. I'm a little confused on this and would appreciate your straightening it out for me."

Answer: "To meet" means that your hospitality is in honor of a particular person who may be a stranger or may be a member of the hostess' own family.

As a rule "At home" does mean that the party is taking place in the hostess' own house, but since the synonym of "at home" is "reception," which indicates great formality, "At home" is not incorrect even when the party is held in a club or possibly a private room in a hotel.

"Dear Mrs. Post: A man, whom my husband and I know through business, invited us to dinner and to spend the evening with him and his wife at their home. My husband met his wife once but I never have.

"I think his wife should telephone us if she really wants us. My husband thinks the man's invitation is sufficient, but how do we know if we will be welcomed by the wife? Will you please let me hear from you?"

Answer: To treat the husband's invitation as though he were a stranger in his own house is, in my opinion, unimaginable. Not to consider his personal invitation valid is hen-pecking at its extreme.

Correct Treatment Will Cure Most Acne

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Blackheads and acne can be truly disfiguring. The young man or woman who has a severe case may develop personality difficulties, especially when this occurs during teenage, before mature poise and evaluation have been achieved. This can cause acute and painful self-consciousness in an adolescent.

Even an adult with such a condition may feel handicapped in a career and in personal happiness. Whenever a physical defect which bothers us can be remedied it certainly seems wise to do so.

Great strides have been made in the treatment of acne and the pitting of the skin which sometimes follows it. Today let us consider some of the conditions which lead to acne.

Acne is caused by overactivity of the pilosebaceous glands. The face has more oil glands a square inch than any other part of the body. When these glands become pluged by dirt and oil you have blackheads. Sometimes bacteria get hemed in by these blackheads and multiply. This causes pus and sometimes cysts.

* * *

It is almost impossible to keep a teenage girl from picking at pimples and squeezing blackheads. Yet this is the very worst thing she can do. Such practice can lead to scarring. Squeezing blackheads may injure the skin. Blackheads should be removed by a dermatologist. I wish my readers would take this seriously.

EXPERT CARE

Most cases of acne can be cleared up by expert treatment. The usual case can be cleared up in three months. Sometimes severe cases take longer.

Treatment may include many therapies, depending on your individual condition and your individual physician. The happy message I am bringing you today is that much more is known now about the control of acne. If you have it in a mild form get expert help so that you may avoid scarring.

Tomorrow I will bring you some information about the removal of acne pitting. This is now possible.

* * *

If you would like my 9-Day Diet booklet, which will enable you to lose up to 10 pounds in nine days, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

May 12 Meeting in Lansing Set by Dem Women

Michigan Democratic women will assemble in Lansing May 12 for a meeting on political campaign organization techniques. About 600 women are expected to attend the Democratic Women's Day.

* * *

Following 9 o'clock registration the morning will be devoted to workshops on planning local programs, increasing attendance, assisting guest speakers, and hostess techniques for neighborhood teas and coffee hours.

Democratic achievements, publicity methods and fund-raising techniques will be discussed in the afternoon.

* * *

Speakers at the noon luncheon will be Mrs. Katie Loucheim, director of women's activities of the Democratic National Committee, and Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

'Dry Clean' Wood With Effective Wax

Cleaning wood furniture with water can cause the grain of the wood to swell and crack and may cause veneer failure by softening the glue. Additionally, soap is often difficult to remove and can leave behind a dull surface.

Instead try "dry cleaning" wood surfaces with furniture waxes which contain harmless but effective cleaning materials.

Follow These Tips in Bleaching Cotton

When bleaching cottons such as sheets, tea towels, tablecloths and the like, several rules should be followed.

Never pour bleach—either liquid or dry—onto your cloths full strength. It must be thoroughly mixed in water first. Hot water and agitation speed up the dissolving process.

Use the correct amount of bleach—no guess, measure accurately according to directions. Rinse thoroughly after bleaching. As long as any bleach remains in the fabric the bleaching action continues.

The prime rule of carving turkey is to cut across the grain of the meat. If you cut with the grain, the long meat fibers tend to give a stringy appearance.

Kate Never Found Time to Marry

This is the last of three articles providing an up-to-date, candied portrait of Kate Smith, who this week is observing her 25th anniversary as one of America's all-time top entertainers.

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE
International News Service

Compared with her less durable competitors in show business, Kate Smith literally is great.

• • •

In height she tops most women, 5 feet, 10 inches. In weight she exceeds most men: 220 pounds. In stamina, enthusiasm and personal appeal she outranks them all.

To explain why she's been a top-ranking star for 26 years, you have only to ask her.

"I love people. I just love almost all people," Kate says, voice booming like a hearty thunderbolt. "I think somehow that shows on me."

Kate says she never has had reason to dislike anyone, even when she was a stocky child who was made aware that there were more sylphlike girls in the neighborhood.

• • •

"Fortunately, I had a voice that people seemed to like to listen to," she explains, remembering those days in Greenville, Va., and Washington, D. C. "So I was always right in with the crowd, and never put on the spot because of my weight.

WRONG FOODS

"I really don't know how I accumulated as much as I have, except I guess maybe I indulged in too much of the wrong kind of foods, no doubt about it. While I was growing up, and dancing and singing in shows, I'd send out for sandwiches and cake instead of eating proteins and things that are good for you."

• • •

Kate's face grows serious, but not solemn, as she adds: "My advice to young girls who tend to be plump, naturally, is to watch the sweets. And then, if they want to be happy in spite of plumpness, they should return goodness for vitriolic remarks.

"An overweight person must never feel he or she is an ogre or a monster or a monstrosity, even if people talk about you. Just say, well, they don't mean it, and be nice to them — then they'll feel ashamed of themselves."

Kate Smith, at age 47 (her birthday was yesterday), considers her life "a very wonderful one."

She doesn't like to talk about the early years of her career, in the late 1920s when she sang in vaudeville halls and finally wound up on Broadway as a singing comedienne in "Hit the Deck" and "Flying High." "My life before I entered radio," she says, "I consider inconsequential."

After her inseparable manager, Ted Collins, "discovered" Kate and pledged his vow to make her a serious singer, success suddenly "busted out" like measles. On May 1, 1931, her 22nd birthday, she made her first broadcast — using a song for which she helped write the lyrics, "When the Moon Comes Over the Mountain," as her theme.

Together with Ted, she devised a friendly two-part, five-word signature: "Hello, Everybody," and "Thanks for listenin'."

She was immediately the girl most Americans wanted to join their family circle. For seven years, she just sang and the radio moguls booked her as "The Songbird of the South." Then in 1937, Collins saw that she was such a big hit that she might be just as popular, and save a little energy, if she only spoke her opinions.

"Kate Smith Talks" went on the air at noon every weekday, and she proved that her ideas were as sure-fire as her songs. At about the same time, Irving Berlin gave Kate a song called "God Bless America," and she belted it over the airwaves.

Such a sensation did she cause that President Roosevelt, in introducing the star to the King and Queen of England at the White House, said: "This is Kate Smith. This is America!"

After these many years of stardom, Kate plans now to relax. She will make a few special TV appearances, but swears ardently she will never go back to the five-a-week (she once had 11 radio and TV shows a week going) schedule. "Life goes by too fast," she explains.

She divides her time between Lake Placid, N. Y., where she has a motorboat and a storeroom full of antiques, and an apartment on lower Park avenue in New York City. She lives with her mother, having "never had time" to get married."

But maybe, she assures, "Little Katie" will find some time now for diversions.

• • •

"Who knows? I guess all women in their life would like to get married. There have been opportunities in my younger life, but I was too young then and naturally I turned them down. Then I got so busy.

ONE OR THE OTHER

I have never thought it fair," she says, "for a woman to try to conduct a career and a marriage too. I know there are dozens of examples of women who've done it, but as far as I'm concerned — it's one or the other."

• • •

Manager Collins, often ridiculously rumored to be secretly wed to Kate, grunted good-naturedly, from a nearby chair.

Kate sat up straight, grinned, and pointed a finger at him. "Remember when you took me on, what you said? You said, "Now don't just walk out and get married if you decide to. I got to okay the guy.' Isn't that right?"

Collins shrugged. "Still goes," he said.

A woman who dearly loves domesticity, Kathryn Smith has never visited the Stork Club. Does not associate socially with show people. Likes and needs the privacy of her two homes and the companionship of her mother, with whom she has always lived.

• • •

"Yet I love it when people stop me on the street and say hello, and they often do, because I'm pretty hard to miss."

A sentimental woman, Kate is still mourning "my dear little dog," Freckles, who was her companion for 15 years until he died recently. She loves gardenias and motorboating and dancing and new dresses and, most of all, people.

"You see," she says, "I'm just very ordinary."

Perhaps that is the key to the whole wondrous tale.

Norma Jeanne Darling and Clark F. Cryderman were married Saturday afternoon at Emmanuel Baptist Church. The bride, of Draper street, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Darling of Marlette. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Cryderman of Sault Ste. Marie.

Norma Darling Marries

A wedding trip through the Southern states is being taken by Mr. and Mrs. Clark F. Cryderman who were married Saturday afternoon. The Rev. Tom Malone of Emmanuel Baptist Church officiated at the ceremony.

• • •

The bride, the former Norma Jeanne Darling of Draper avenue, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Darling of Marlette. Clark, of Walled Lake, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Cryderman of Sault Ste. Marie.

For her wedding, Norma wore a Nile green ballerina length dress with matching headpiece and carried a bouquet of white carnations and roses.

A pink ballerina-length gown was worn by Mrs. Leonard Phipps who served as matron of honor. She carried pink carnations and roses. Burton P. Russell of Walled Lake was best man.

Following a reception at the home of the bride, she changed to an aqua suit with black accessories for traveling. On their return from the South, the newlyweds will make their home at Pontiac Lake.

Out - of - town guests attended from Flint, Marlette, Decker, Sault Ste. Marie, Detroit and Walled Lake.

Test May Help Prevent Postmature Baby Deaths

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A microscope test which may help prevent the loss of babies through postmature birth was described here today by a Cleveland physician.

• • •

Postmaturity, in which the baby arrives late, is more common than generally supposed, Dr. Allan C. Barnes of Western Reserve University School of Medicine told the California Medical Assn.

CASES CITED

He cited a series of cases indicating 22 out of every 1,000 births are postmature, and that 10 per cent of these result in stillbirths.

Postmature babies are fully developed but are malnourished because of deterioration of the placenta, the tissue which provides the vital connection between mother and baby.

• • •

The later the baby is in arriving the more malnourished he is likely to be because the placental deterioration is progressive. The infant becomes spotted. He loses his natural oily coat of a substance called vernix. He becomes wrinkled through loss of intestinal fluids.

CAN AFFECT OTHERS

Placental failure can affect even premature and full-term babies, Dr. Barnes said. It probably is responsible for about 15 per cent of all fetal deaths, he said.

• • •

Microscopic examinations of cells discarded into the birth canal can yield clues as to the condition of the placenta, Dr. Barnes said. It takes special training to recognize the significance of their appearance. In tests which were made on women in various stages of pregnancy it was about 75 per cent accurate, he reported.

• • •

These findings, along with other more common signs, can help the obstetrician to determine the critical time for delivery, he said.

Sprinkle two tablespoons of coconut into each custard cup before pouring in the custard mixture. The coconut custard is a good dessert for winter lunches.

Begin to Live Now, Not 'Someday'

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Someday, sure enough, Marie intends to begin living.

When she gets a job that's more creative than this dumb secretarial one she has now, she'll feel good at the end of the day and won't have to sink, exhausted, by the television set night after night.

Then, too, when she makes a little more money, she intends to move from that bleak furnished room, get a real apartment where she can cook a real dinner and maybe even have friends in.

Yes, someday Marie intends to begin living.

* * *

The trouble is, I've known Marie for 11 years. She's been intending to begin living all that time. The truth is, I'm afraid she may never begin.

CART BEFORE HORSE

Marie is putting the cart before the horse. She is saying, "As soon as things get good, I shall begin to live." The proper order is, "I shall begin to live right now and then things will get better.

* * *

Here, for example, is what Marie could do:

She could perk up on that dumb secretarial job and do it superbly. She could even take a course at night, along the lines of her job, to make it more interesting to her and to make her more valuable to the firm.

Then she couldn't help having a more "creative" job right where she is and she couldn't help getting more money.

Second, she could move this minute into a small apartment.

As it is, she spends a fortune eating out, partly because the tiny electric grill is hard to cook on and partly because the place is so depressing she can't stand to eat there.

If she would figure her budget, right now, she'd find that a tiny, sunny, inexpensive apartment might cost less than what she's now paying for a miserable room and dinners out.

Moreover, she would have some real excitement, picking out cheap curtain material and second-hand tables that she could refinish.

Friends would help her and she could fix them an inexpensive supper and have some real live companionship instead of the shadowy television pictures, which have constituted her whole life.

If you're in Marie's position, and haven't got what it takes to make the first step, the resolution to put the horse before the cart, what you need is to read some stimulating philosophical books which will spark you.

Send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope care of The Pontiac Press, and I'll send you a list of such books. Don't begin someday — begin now!

Earth Smaller Than Believed

Map Service Scientists Reveal New Studies on Circumference

WASHINGTON (AP)— Army map service scientists said today new studies indicate the earth's circumference is about half a mile smaller than previously believed.

• • •

Bernard Chovitz, one of them, said the new findings would help in tracking the "baby moon" satellites the United States plans to begin launching into space sometime next year.

He also said a current project aimed at making the first accurate measurement of the distance between Western and Eastern Hemisphere lands, across the Atlantic, conceivably could yield information that would aid in accurately firing an intercontinental missle.

• • •

In a report prepared for the annual meeting of the American Geophysical Union, the map service scientists said the equatorial radius of the earth — the distance from its center to the equator—is 6,975,336 yards or 140 yards less than the figure generally accepted since 1909.

Chovitz, a map service mathematician, told a newsman the new computation, applied to the circumference of the earth at the equator, would make the world 24,902 miles around at its widest point. This is about half a mile smaller than the old circumference measurement.

• • •

Chovitz said the new estimate is based on continuous measurements of arcs—many thousands of miles long—ranging from Alaska to Chile in the Western Hemisphere, and from Finland to South Africa in the Eastern Hemisphere. Each arc is as long as one third of the earth's circumference.

Couple Seeking Political Posts

California Man Runs for Congress and Wife for State Assembly

SAN MARINO, Calif. (AP) —Politics is a family affair for the Sobieskis of San Marino.

John Sobieski is running for Congress; his wife Marylyn is running for the California Assembly.

• • •

As of now, they stand a fighting, though outside, chance to duplicate the 1954 coup of another Western political couple, the Neubergers of Oregon. Richard Neuberger won a U.S. Senate post; his wife Maurine was elected state representative.

Like the Neubergers, the Sobieskis are Democrats. What makes their task extra formidable is that they're running in a district where Republicans hold an estimated 5,000-vote registration edge.

• • •

Sobieski, 49, Los Angeles-born, Harvard-trained attorney, is making his second try to represent the 25th Congressional District. In 1954 he lost almost 2-1 to Rep. Pat Hillings, Richard Nixon's successor when the later moved up to the Senate en route to the vice presidency.

It's the first run for Mrs. Sobieski, 48, who acts as her husband's legal secretary. She also seeks an office now held by a Republican, Assemblyman Montivel Burke of Alhambra.

• • •

The Sobieskis coordinate their campaigning to get the maximum political mileage. While one appears at a club meeting, the other usually is talking to another group nearby. Then they switch audiences.

'Cracker Boxes' as Home Force Family to Eat Out

CHICAGO (INS) — The president of the National Restaurant Association has charged home builders with constructing modern homes that force people to eat in restaurants to enjoy gracious meals.

• • •

Chicago restauranteur Marion Isbell asserts:

"The cracker boxes being sold as homes today do not contain a dining room in most instances.

"And in many cases there isn't even sufficient space for the family to eat together in what is called the dining area off the living room."

• • •

Isbell said that as a result many families are being forced to eat in restaurants to "recover the joys" of dining together at a communal table.

Noel Coward Refuses Critics' Cut in Lyrics

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Noel Coward confesses that his TV fan mail is frequently pan mail.

"When they sit down with their pens dipped in vitriol they're generally livid because I've said 'damn' or 'hell' or 'gin,' which apparently is very blasphemous," chattered the British sophisticate, in his apartment. "'Drink' and 'bed' they don't care for either."

★ ★ ★ ★

"And does it bother you?" I asked.

It didn't seem to, for he was rehearsing for 'This Happy Breed' on TV May 5. He's vastly amused at anybody getting agitated by those five horrid words.

NOEL COWARD

"I never pay any attention to that sort of nonsense!" Coward sat with hands clasping his knees. "When I did the show with Mary Martin, there was a lyric about 'a lot of sycophantic sluts forever wriggling their guts.' I got a garbled message saying that should be cut.

"I said it wouldn't be and it wasn't."

"A Hollywood paper was going to protect the morals of America or die in the attempt." Coward tossed his head. "I think it may die in the attempt."

★ ★ ★ ★

Coward wasn't aware that the critics had been much exercised.

"Critics!" he added. "If they were all that right, they'd be writing plays themselves and making a great deal more money!"

After the TV show, Coward goes to France, then back to Bermuda and Jamaica where he lives now and where he'll finish a novel.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Gary Crosby got his draft notice . . . Publisher John S. Knight had a minor throat operation in NY hospital . . . Jack Benney announced—at Edgar Bergen's 20th radio-anniversary lunch—that he'll play violin with the NY Symphony Oct. 2 at Carnegie Hall, "This being the equivalent of Maxie Rosenbloom being Sec'y of State."

Tony Martin (in great voice) and Phil Foster surely give the customers their money's worth in the pretty new Copa show. Typical Foster line: "In the Catskills I had a bed so hard I had to get up five or six times a night to rest" . . . Frankie Laine's "The Big Record" may replace Godfrey's Friends Wednesday nights starting in July.

Jackie Gleason turned up in Palm Beach; he rented a house near Horace and Gregg Dodge . . . Tab Hunter's paying his mother's way through college . . . Nerissa Nickel, a former hatcheck girl, is Barbara Britton's understudy in "Wake Up, Darling."

Alfred Hitchcock appears in "The Wrong Man" in a police lineup. When asked his offense he answers shyly, "Peeping Tom."

EARL'S PEARLS . . .

Maybe the country is in good shape, after all—a lot of people want to be president.—J. E. Jewett.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "The golden age of parenthood comes when the children are too old for baby sitters and too young to borrow the family car."—Jack Still.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: "If the Commies had as much to eat as they have to swallow, they'd be better off."—Howie Lasseter.

In spring, notes Rube Rustic, the most beautiful sound is the first week of birds chirping. The most annoying sound is the second week . . . That's earl, brother.

Lodge Fighting U.N. Assessment

Modified Scale Would Have U.S. Pay the Same but Reduce Others

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)— The United States says it will fight a proposal to hold the United States' share of U. N. operating costs at one-third while cutting the cost to other major nations.

• • •

A nine-member U. N. committee offered the plan to meet new conditions resulting from revenues expected from the 16 new members admitted last December.

WANTS OLD SCALE

Chief U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. argued that assessments should continue on the old scale, with the surplus from new members to be credited proportionally to all.

• • •

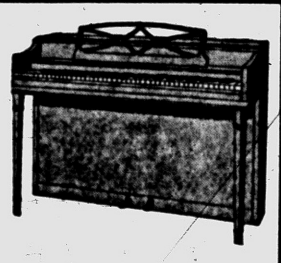

The U. N. budget now totals about 46 million dollars a year. Under the proposed scale, cuts would be made in the assessments of 51 old members — all except the United States and eight small countries paying the minimum share. Russia's share, for example, would be reduced from 15.28 to 13.96 per cent of the total U. N. budget.

• • •

Lodge said he would fight the plan in the 76-nation General Assembly next fall.

Sen. Gore Lauds Public Gas Quiz

Contends Industry Put 'Best Foot Forward' in First Open Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Gore (D-Tenn) said today "the oil and gas industry put its best foot forward" at the first public hearing held by a special Senate committee investigating lobbying and influence.

• • •

Referring to testimony yesterday by Maston Nixon of Corpus Christi, Tex., Gore told newsmen:

"I do not say that his testimony was instigated for that purpose, but he seems to have received no discouragement in appearing before the committee from any source within the industry."

Nixon is chairman of the General Gas Committee, set up in 1954 to work for passage of a bill to free natural gas producers from direct federal regulation.

• • •

In vetoing that bill, President Eisenhower said he was in accord with the basic objectives of the measure, but he denounced what he called "highly questionable" activities in its behalf by a small segment of the industry.

His veto message, plus the earlier disclosure that an oil company lobbyist had tried unsuccessfully to contribute $2,500 to the re-election campaign of Sen. Francis Case (R-SD) during Senate debate on the controversial measure, led to the current investigation.

• • •

Nixon—no relation to the vice president — testified the General Gas Committee, financed largely by oil and gas producing companies, gathered and distributed what he called "facts" about the gas bill, but did not engage in lobbying members of Congress.

TO GRADUATE — Mrs. Leroy Sassaman, a 52-year-old grandmother, has an all-A average at Spring Arbor High School where she will graduate in June. Her son, Marcus, 17, also will graduate. Mother and son are both from Allentown, Pa. Mrs. Sassaman, five times a grandmother, was urged to return to school by her husband, an Allentown mechanic.

Spring Arbor School Will Graduate Grayhaired Grandmother This June

SPRING ARBOR (AP)—A gray-haired high school senior who has five grandchildren will graduate in June along with her 17-year-old son.

Mrs. Mildred Sassaman, 52, went back to schoolbooks after a 35-year layoff and wound up with an all-A average at Spring Arbor High School. She and her son, Marcus, are classmates.

Grandmother Sassaman, who is know to her schoolmates and teachers as "Aunt Millie," decided to finish up the high school education she had interrupted after her sophomore year.

Her husband, LeRoy, encouraged her decision to go back to school. He is working as a skilled auto mechanic in Allentown, Pa.

MORE TO DO

"I just don't know what I'm studying for—my own satisfaction, I guess," said Mrs. Sassaman. As for her all-A record, she comments:

"I have more time than the others to study. I should get more out of my classes."

She finds little difference between today's "rock and roll" high schoolers and the teen agers of her own day except that "there's more for youngsters to do today."

Son Marcus has his career plans all laid out. He is going to study for the ministry at Roberts Wesleyan College in North Chili, N. Y.

• • •

But his mother hasn't decided yet. She is taking typing and shorthand this term in case she wants to do secretarial work.

"But I'm not sure," said Mrs. Sassaman. "I might even go on for more schooling."

Vaccine Sought to Kill Botulism

Food Poisoning Threat Causes Lethal Germs, Reveal Scientists

By AETON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

HOUSTON (AP) — New steps toward a vaccine to prevent deadly botulism — and food poisoning — were reported today to the Society of American Bacteriologists.

• • •

Botulism is caused by one of the world's deadliest germs. It is often mentioned as an extremely potent weapon of bacteriological warfare, if an enemy spread it through our water or food.

A series of reports by scientists from the biological warfare laboratories at Ft. Detrick, Frederick, Md., point toward a preventive vaccine.

The botulism germs sicken or kill form a poison which they release within the body. There are a number of types of these lethal germs.

• • •

One type alone, Type E, caused 17 outbreaks of food poisoning in the last 20 years. These involved 69 persons, killing 21 of them.

It thus seems to be highly lethal. But when the poison or toxin alone from Type E germ is injected into mice, it does not often kill them, the scientists said.

The poison does become lethal, however, if a normal digestive chemical in the stomach — the enzyme trypsin—is added to the poison. The poison becomes, in fact, up to 47 times more deadly.

The action of the trypsin is apparently the reason why these germs become so dangerous when consumed in contaminated food. The normal body chemical enhances the poisonous effect.

• • •

Based on this finding, the scientists used trypsin to make potent, purified preparations of the poisons from the various types of the germs.

From the poisons, they could make more potent vaccines against several types of botulism germs.

Jurors Pay Boost OKed; Hike Fee From $3 to $6

Jurors serving in Pontiac Municipal Court for both civil and criminal cases will soon receive $6 per day for their services as the result of action taken last night by the City Commission.

The commissioners instructed the city attorney to prepare a resolution to adjust the pay according to a 1953 Michigan law.

The jurors presently receive $3 per day under an ordinance adopted in 1942.

The $3 raise was necessitated because of difficulty in securing jurors, according to a report submitted last night.

A deed from Adolph and Helen Hohm for part of lots 18 and 25 in the Mt. Clemens Hills Subdivision was accepted by the commission as they met to take action on a 26-point agenda.

Also accepted were four right-of-way agreements for four lots in order to construct a storm drain in the area around Prall, Liberty, and Henderson streets.

The city clerk was instructed to record the four deeds in the register of deeds office.

The commission approved the 1956 Pontiac General Hospital budget in other action.

It also accepted the resignation of Harry Going from the Pontiac Historical Commission and appointed R. C. Cummings to fill the vacancy.

May 28 at 4 p.m. was set as the closing of bids for the two 1956 recapping projects for State street between Huron and Johnson, and for Osmun street between Saginaw and Sanford.

Public hearings will be held next Tuesday on the intention to construct the following public improvement projects in the city:

Two-inch concrete recap, curb repair, and related work on State street from Huron to Johnson. (Assessed cost: $7,175.61; city cost $16,342.39)

Two-inch concrete recap, curb repair, and related work on Osmun street from Saginaw to Sanford. (Assessed cost $8,235.68; city cost $22,768.92)

Water main to Peacock avenue from Joslyn to Fuller; Clara avenue from Fuller to east property line of assessor's plat 102 and Fuller avenue from Peacock to Columbia. (Assessed cost $10,212.97; city cost $ 291.93)

Engineer estimates were aired on all three projects at last night's meeting.

Other business included an agreement between the city and the Ralson Equipment Co. for water service being approved.

Action was deferred on two reports that were to be presented by the city attorney on negotiations for one lot and a garage in the city.

The city assessor was instructed to prepare assessment rolls on four projects on which hearings were conducted last night.

The commission passed four resolutions on special assessment rolls on which hearings will be scheduled for next week.

Six other hearings were held last night on rolls on public improvement jobs. Confirmation was deferred on all rolls.

And What Eliminated Turbulence Eliminator?

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif. (AP)—Did turbulence eliminate the turbulence eliminator?

• • •

This will be one question in a Navy inquiry into Lt. Bernard Tesch's mishap yesterday with a new delta wing Douglas F4D jet fighter.

• • •

The plane's heavy-weighted "turbulence eliminator" and an 18-foot wing tank pulled free from Tesch's plane at 35,000 feet. Both fell harmlessly into a field near Morgan Hill.

A record $7,175,000,000 was spent to repair, maintain and improve the nation's highways during 1955 compared with $6,280,000,000 in 1954.

Whatsamatta! You Teeched Me How to Put It In

READING, Pa. (AP) — Mrs. Fern Brewer taught her 5-year-old son Henry how to put coins in a parking meter so she wouldn't get tickets for overtime parking.

That fascinated Henry.

Yesterday his mother discovered that a family piggy bank had been broken open and much of the change collected in two years had disappeared.

She followed Henry when he went out to play.

Henry was sauntering along putting coins in every meter he could find. He had been doing so for two weeks, he told his mother.

Michigan Episcopalians Elect 1st Woman Officer

DETROIT (AP)—The Episcopal Diocese of Michigan has its first woman vestryman in its 123-year history.

She is Mrs. Blanche Motteram, who was elected by members of St. Peter's Episcopal Church to serve with eight men on the church board of vestrymen.

Women vestrymen were authorized for the first time at the diocesan convention Feb. 1 after church members had rejected the proposal at the seven previous annual meetings.

Add Fourteen Books to Library Shelves

Included in a group of 14 new book that have recently been added to the shelves of the City Library is one that should be eagerly sought by many Pontiac residents who had basements flooded by heavy rains last weekend. The title: "How to Waterproof Your Basement" by O'Brien.

Other books designed to help the hobby and "do-it-yourself" enthusiasts are: Practical Wood Carving Projects, by Bell; My Victims — How to Caricature, by Berger; Church Organ Accompaniment, by Conway; English Porcelain of the 18th Century, by Dixon; Feininger on Photography, by Feininger.

Others are: Cabinetmaker's Treasury, by Hoard; Stunts and Tumbling for Girls, by Horne; Art of Driftwood and Dried Arrangements, by Ishimoto; American Pewter, by Kerfoot; American Potters and Pottery, by Ramsay; Book of Knitting Patterns, by Thomas; Cooking for Christmas, by Turgson; and Craftsmanship of One-Act Plays, by Wilde.

American Motorists Defy Rising Traffic Death Toll

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (INS) — American motorists were accused by a public safety official yesterday of playing "Russian Roulette" on the nation's highways by using alcohol and poor judgment.

• • •

James Q. Du Pont of the Delaware Safety Council, in an address before the eastern regional conference of the President's Committee on Traffic Safety, urged use of the "political system to reduce the slaughter on the nation's highways."

"We must," he told some 1,000 citizen leaders and public officials from 11 states and the District of Columbia, "live and preach and practice safety. Start in your own homes and then in your precincts."

Du Pont pointed out results in safety come chiefly from "a never ending, deep conviction that accidents can be prevented and from showing people this truth over and over again.

FIRST REGIONAL MEETING

"But now, on the highways," he continued, "we sometimes go the reckless Russians one better by placing two death-dealing cartridges in the chamber of our gun—alcohol and poor judgment. Then we pull the trigger—only we call it stepping on the gas."

The eastern conference is the first of four such regional sessions convened at Eisenhower's request to draw up plans to combat the growing rate of traffic accidents.

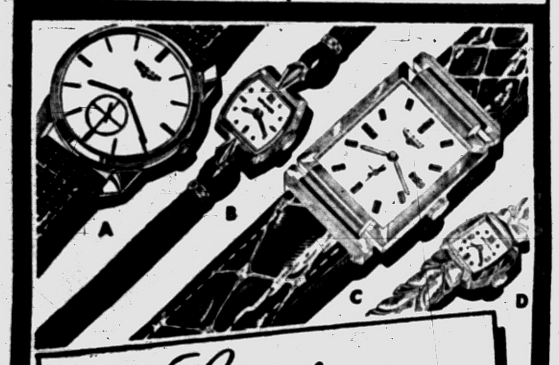

At today's closing session, the participants will meet by states to appraise specific needs, discuss services and assistance available and work out ways of building citizen support.

• • •

Members of the traffic safety committee represent agriculture, business, labor, media and public information organizations, public officials and women.

Clifford E. Cremeans, 17, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cremeans, of 129½ E. Pike Street is now stationed in San Antonio, Tex.

Airman 2-c Cremeans enlisted Jan. 16, 1956 and is now in basic training at San Antonio, Tex.

CREMEANS

Jarvis A. Raymond, 21, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Raymond, of Mill Lake Road, is stationed in San Francisco, California.

RAYMOND

Cpl. Raymond enlisted July 1953 and finished basic training at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Prior to his enlistment Cpl. Raymond was employed by Fisher Body.

Richard E. Myre, has been assigned to Amarillo Air Force Base for a three-month course in Student Food Services.

MYRE

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Myre, of 584 North Field.

Airman Myre was formerly a student at St. Mike's High School. In February 1956, he finished a 6 weeks basic training course at Parks Air Force Base.

Second Lieutenant Charles W. Peckham Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Peckham of Pontiac, has just completed basic multi-engine flying training and was awarded the silver wings of an Air Force pilot at a special ceremony.

PECKHAM

Lt. Peckham attended Denison University at Grandville, Ohio where he received a B. A. degree. He also attained his Air Force commission through the ROTC program there.

His wife is the former Mary Alice Crane, also of Pontiac.

Larry Pilkinton has been advanced to Hospital Corpsman 3rd Class. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pilkinton of 103 Pingree.

Pilkinton received basic training at Great Lakes, Ill. and was stationed at Chelsea, Mass. He is now in Rockville, Md. with his wife and daughter where he is attending Lab School at the National Naval Medical Center, Bethesda, Md.

Prior to his enlistment, he resided in Pontiac where he attended Pontiac High School.

Divorce Challenged by Keefe Brasselle

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actor Keefe Brasselle has accused his wife of obtaining a divorce last March 14 through fraud, and he wants her interlocutory decree set aside.

* * *

Brasselle, in a petition filed yesterday in Superior Court, charged that he returned from New York last January for what he thought would be reconciliation talks but instead was served divorce papers by his wife Norma, 29.

* * *

The actor, 32, signed a property settlement at that time "to clear the atmosphere" in a try for reconciliation, he said. He agreed then to pay $616 a month alimony and $150 a month for support of a son, Erin, 12.

Mrs. Brasselle denied his allegation of fraud.

Studies indicate that 90 per cent of the failures in business and industry are caused by lack of social skills.

Preemie Quads Live, Future Unpredicted

DALLAS (AP) — The four Hunter sisters continued to "do nicely" in their incubator at Methodist Hospital today but doctors said it would still be several days before they could predict their chances of survival.

* * *

The quads were born prematurely Monday night and yesterday morning to Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hunter. The mother is 25, and the father, an $80-a-week paint mixer at an aircraft company, is 42.

The lineup includes Marie Gay, 3 pounds; Marilyn Kay, 2 pounds 11 ounces; Alvie May, 3 pounds, 3 ounces; and Melanie Fay, 2 pounds 1 ounce.

Relaxing Fire Chief Spots Factory Ablaze

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Asst. Fire Chief Eddie Boatright was at home on his day off, taking it easy. His wife glanced out a front window of their home, which overlooks most of the city.

"You've got a fire on your hands," Mrs. Boatright announced.

Boatright took a look for himself and saw clouds of smoke billowing from a waterfront box factory.

He called the fire department with the first report of the blaze.

Everyone's talking about Wisk

Here's your chance to try it FREE!

Liquid Miracle

NO WASHDAY POWDER EVER MADE CAN GIVE YOU THE CONCENTRATED WASHING POWER OF THIS NEW BLUE INSTANT LIQUID

Wisk
FOR FAMILY WASH

Have you gotten your free Wisk coupon yet?

It will introduce you to the most sensational washday discovery of your life... a new, blue, liquid detergent that outdates–and outwashes–every powder ever made!

New, blue WISK is completely different from any other detergent ever made. It is so much more effective, so much safer, and so much nicer to use, that we're sure you'll never be without it – once you've tried it! And so we've sent you one of our special money-saver coupons. Take it to your grocer and start using WISK today!

WHAT MAKES WISK DIFFERENT?

In the first place, WISK is a liquid that you pour into your washer. It goes to work instantly. No waiting for powders to dissolve. But, more important, WISK is concentrated. It does three times as much wash as the same amount of powder – and does it better and safer, too.

MAKES ANY WASHER TURN OUT A CLEANER AND WHITER FAMILY WASH!

The first time you use WISK it will get your white things up to three shades whiter, no matter what detergent you used in the past. And concentrated WISK works wonders on spots and stains. It penetrates deep into cloth fibers in a way no powder can. It gets all your wash clean!

FIRST REALLY ALL-PURPOSE DETERGENT!

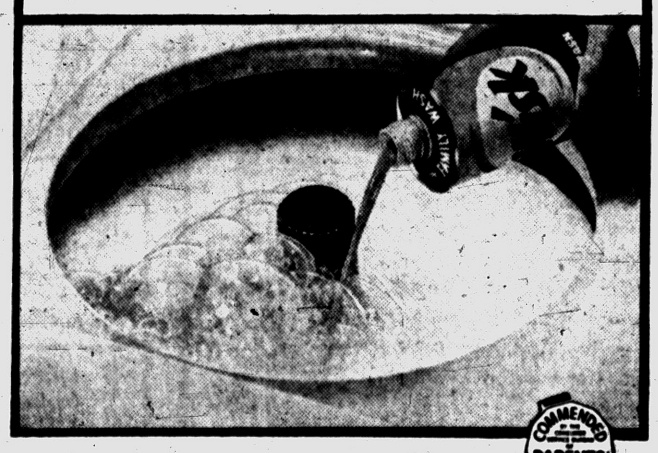

You will use WISK for everything. It soaks dishes clean. Concentrated WISK wipes grease off stoves and kitchen walls. It makes old, discolored linoleum look like new. It gets yellowed kitchen cabinets white and shiny again.

NO MORE MESSY, SNEEZY POWDERS!

WISK does away with "washday hay fever"... with clumsy, soggy boxes... with messy powders. And because it does so many jobs so well, you don't have to clutter your shelves with all those boxes and bottles you used to need.

WISK IS UNCONDITIONALLY GUARANTEED!

The sooner you get to know WISK, the easier your washdays – and every other day – will be! So take the coupon to your grocer today. And remember that WISK bears the famous Lever Brothers unconditional money-back guarantee. If you don't like it, you don't pay for it. Lever Brothers refunds every penny you paid.

Rocket Seeking Altitude Record

Navy Scientists to Try Launching Again Today From New Mexico

WHITE SANDS PROVING GROUND, N. M. (INS) — Navy scientists will try again today to send a single-stage rocket to a new altitude record of 185 miles into space.

* * *

Westerly winds threatened to send the Aerobee high rocket off the 90-mile target range at White Sands Proving Ground, N. M., if it were fired yesterday and the launching was postponed until today.

The 23-foot-long, pencil-thin Aerobee high rocket sports a 15-inch waist. Loaded with instruments and fuel, it weighs three-quarters of a ton.

* * *

The Navy hopes the rocket will go 30 miles higher than a single-stage Viking which reached 158 miles May 24, 1954. A two-stage rocket already has reached an altitude of 250 miles.

EVERYONE EXCITED

Even though the firing of the rocket was postponed, events leading up to the scheduled launching were almost as exciting as the real thing.

While technicians, observers, officials and newsmen waited for the launching of the rocket, named "Debbie" after actress Debbie Reynolds, smoke was detected from beneath the rocket's booster.

* * *

Emergency measures were put into effect until a cautious study showed that the sun's heat caused some analine fuel to smoke. The fuel apparently had dripped from a leak that had been corrected.

Tension released when the "all clear" signal was given.

* * *

Navy men, who hope to learn a great deal about ionospheric data and other information for the earth satellite program, are ready to launch the rocket this afternoon, weather permitting.

"Debbie," painted in international orange with white and black fin accessories, is ready, too.

Judges Asked to Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal judges with work backlogs may be asked to limit annual vacations to one month and chief judges may have to step aside when they reach 70. These were among proposals discussed here at a special session of the Judicial Conference, composed of the chief justice of the United States and the chief judges of the circuit courts of appeals. A report was made public yesterday.

Commentator's Third Wife Slashes Wrists

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Iris Vandercook, 32-year-old wife of John W. Vandercook, writer and American Broadcasting Co. commentator, slashed a wrist today in what police called an apparent suicide attempt.

* * *

She was taken to Bellevue Hospital. Her condition was reported good.

Vandercook told police he found his wife in the bathroom of their apartment shortly before 2 a. m. with a deep gash in her right wrist and holding a broken water glass in her other hand.

* * *

Vandercook, 54, said his wife took one of his sleeping pills at 10 last night and a short time later drank half a can of beer. Shortly after drinking the beer, he said, she began to feel abdominal pains and got out of bed at 1 a.m.

She is Vandercook's third wife. They were married in 1947.

Milo, the Model Officer Held in Burglary Count

EL CENTRO, Calif. (AP)—Policeman Milo Ploof was assigned to a downtown beat because Chief Wyatt Brigg said, "You have to have someone you can trust around those big stores."

Then Ray Roe, assistant chief, staked out in a department store where several thefts have occurred recently. Early yesterday, he said, a man let himself into the store with a passkey.

Roe arrested and booked on suspicion of burglary model policeman Milo Ploof.

Tone Seeking Custody of Sons for Summer

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Actor Franchot Tone has asked a court for summer vacation custody of his two sons by actress Jean Wallace, now the wife of actor Cornel Wilde.

Tone's petition, filed yesterday, asks modification of a 1952 court order granting Miss Wallace custody. The petition says Tone's work requires him to live in New York, making it impossible for him to visit Pascal, 12, and Tom, 10, on alternate weekends as provided in the custody agreement reached when the parents were divorced.

Rome Stores to Follow Summer Siesta Hours

ROME (AP)—Most Rome stores go on summer hours today to allow for the customary Italian hot-weather siesta.

Opening at 7 a.m., the shops will be closed from 1:30 p.m. to 5.

It's not so good in winter. The noon interval then is only from 1:30 to 4.

Butler-Hall Debate on Party Backing Elicits 'Boos' From Audience

WASHINGTON (AP) — Boos and shouts punctuated a Republican-Democratic political debate Tuesday before 3,000 delegates to the U. S. Chamber of Commerce annual meeting.

* * *

Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler was jeered when he said the Republicans are receiving big contributions from "vested wealth" and denied a contention by Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz) that the Democrats are aided by "compulsory contributions" from union workers.

The political debate had Republican Chairman Leonard Hall teamed with Goldwater vs. Butler and Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass).

TEMPERS FLARE

The audience of businessmen divided its applause fairly evenly—for a time.

* * *

But tempers flared on the platform and tension mounted in the audience when Butler, replying to Goldwater's assertion that "Walter Reuther doesn't speak for his members," named as some sources of 1952 GOP contributions — "the Rockefellers, $94,000; the DuPonts $74,000; the Fews, $65,000; the Mellons, $36,000, and H. R. Cullen, $53,000."

Moderator Lawrence Spivak, producer of the television and radio "Meet the Press" program, asked Butler whether the Democrats complained when the "Raskobs" were making heavy contributions to the Democratic party.

"The Democratic party never was the beneficiary of any vested wealth like this — " Butler began to reply.

DROWNED OUT

But he was drowned out by a roar of boos from the audience. He flushed and waited until the demonstration subsided, then said with some sarcasm,

"Thank you, fellow Americans, for the right to express myself."

Spivak's allusion was to the late John J. Raskob, financier and industrialist who resigned as chairman of the finance committee of General Motors Corp. in 1928 to become Democratic national chairman. Raskob, a liberal contributor himself, was highly successful in raising money for the party.

* * *

After the boos, Spivak appealed for fairness to Butler. He went on then to ask Butler about contributions to the Democrats from Cornelius Whitney and the governor of New York—presumably the present governor, millionaire Averell Harriman.

Butler said he would like to see evidence of any contributions matching those of the Republicans. At this point Hall broke in to assert:

"I'll confront you with a figure you can compare with it—the $400,000 you borrowed from John L. Lewis."

(Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers, lent this money from the union's treasury for the first re-election campaign of Franklin D. Roosevelt.)

* * *

Butler conceded the Democrats have had to "borrow lots of money," and said they apparently will have to borrow more.

He said Republicans had "sabotaged" a proposal that machinery be set up to permit both parties to share in nonpartisan contributions.

"NO, NO," CRIES

But Goldwater returned to the fray. The contributions cited by Butler, he said, were voluntary ones, whereas: "the money from (Walter) Reuther comes from compulsory dues paid by union members who must contribute in order to keep their jobs."

(Reuther is head of the United Automobile Workers, and was president of the CIO when the CIO and AFL merged.)

"Anybody who says that is bitterly and definitely opposed to organized labor," Butler cried.

Members of the audience shouted "no, no." But Butler went on to deny that there were any "forced contributions" and defied the Republican speakers to produce proof of their charge if they had it.

* * *

Goldwater asked if Butler would "publicly apologize if proof were provided." The Democratic chairman said he "certainly would admit it" if shown evidence—"but you can't prove it."

Collegians See Merit in Paying for Ability

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A suggestion that students pay university professors personally at the end of each semester on the basis of the quality of their instruction was advanced in the Washington University Campus newspaper.

* * *

"If instructor A was judged best of a student's teachers he would receive perhaps $100 of the total tuition," said an editorial in Student Life. "If B were good, but not so good, he would receive $50 and so on."

The newspaper has been critical of "too many mediocre faculty members" and an increase in tuition.

Hal Boyle Says:

It's Wonderful What Mail Can Teach You!

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

That the British Parliament first banned professional boxing in 1743.

* * *

That Joe Louis earned $4,626,721.69 during his years in the ring—and probably doesn't know himself where the 69 cents went.

MOST KNOCKOUTS

That the late Young Stribling scored the most knockouts in ring history—127.

That one of the real hard luck fighters of history was Sam Langford, "the Boston Tar Baby," who fought 244 times and knocked out 98 men — and never held a title in his life.

* * *

That while the active life of a boxer is supposed to be only slightly longer than that of a television comedian, 53 men have fought 20 years or more. The record is held by Daniel Mendoza who quit in 1820 after 35 years. Bob Fitzsimmons, who hung up his gloves after 33 years, is second.

* * *

That no one knows for sure how many bubbles there are in a glass of champagne, but it has 40 fewer calories than a scotch highball.

THIS ENGLISH!

That what an American motorist calls the glove compartment in his convertible, the Englishman calls "the cubby locker in the drophead." Our "choke" is their "strangler," our radiator ornament their "mascot," our "trailer" their "caravan." Everybody clear on the Queen's English?

That the high cost of living has ruined Ilka Chase's fine wisecrack, "America's best buy for a nickel is a telephone call to the right man." It takes a dime now in most places. All a girl with a nickel can do in a phone booth is to adjust her stockings while she wonders what to do next.

* * *

That they now have a bathroom scale with a dial that lights up when you step on it—thus making it harder than ever for a fellow to keep his weight in the dark.

* * *

That the ordinary heart beat of a horse is 30 a minute but that of a rabbit is 205.

That mice simply have to breathe deeply. The average mouse, pound for pound, requires 17 times as much oxygen as the ox.

* * *

That Khrushchev and Bulganin are not the first Russian visitors to raise eyebrows in England. When Czar Alexander I called in 1814 he startled the British royalty by asking for a bale of straw. It turned out he merely wanted to make a straw mattress so he could sleep on the floor comfortably.

That the first Queen Elizabeth, a lady of high style herself, once ordered the seats of Parliament widened after wide-styled men's britches came into fashion during her reign.

* * *

That last year rats bit 67 persons in the proud old city of Baltimore, including 33 children under 6.

HAIRPINS, TOO?

That a survey by the Hotel Edison in Manhattan showed more men than women leave things in hotel rooms. Did the survey include hairpins?

Dewey, Cooper Urged to Seek Senate Seats This Fall

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—White House aides were reported active today in efforts to persuade former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Ambassador John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky to run for the Senate.

• • •

There is no evidence President Eisenhower himself has taken a hand as some GOP sources say he did in nudging former Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay into Oregon's primary race.

But some party strategists said they have been approached by Eisenhower associates with suggestions that Dewey might be convinced he ought to undertake the New York senatorial race if certain conditions were met.

WILL GET SUPPORT

One of these was said to be assurances from members of the old Taft wing of the party that Dewey would have their support if he ran and that he would not be relegated to a back-seat Senate role if he won.

Dewey generally is credited with helping engineer Eisenhower's defeat of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio for the Republican presidential nomination in 1952.

• • •

Rep. Taylor (R-NY) has predicted Eisenhower may ask Dewey to seek the GOP senatorial nomination. Dewey said he hadn't heard of it. So did White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty. Dewey has insisted he has no plans to get back into politics.

UNDER HALL PRESSURE

McKay has said pressure for him to get into the Oregon Senate race came from GOP Chairman Leonard W. Hall and Eisenhower's No. 1 assistant Sherman Adams. Philip Hitchcock, who declined to withdraw when McKay suddenly entered the race, is credited with giving McKay a stiff battle for the Republican nomination to oppose Democratic Sen. Wayne Morse.

• • •

New York Republicans have reached no agreement on a candidate to oppose Democratic Sen. Herbert Lehman if he seeks re-election, as is expected. Atty. Gen. Jacob Javits has made himself available. So has J. Raymond McGovern, former state comptroller.

GOP CHANCE JUMPS

In Kentucky, GOP chances may have been heightened by the death on Monday of Democratic Sen. Alben W. Barkley. Thruston B. Morton, former congressman and former State Department official, is credited with a big lead for one GOP senatorial nomination there.

Morton is running for the seat held by Sen. Earle Clements. Clements has strong primary opposition from former Rep. Joe B. Bates, who is backed by Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler in a continuing feud with Clements.

• • •

Chandler will name a successor to Barkley to serve until the November election. But as the law now stands the November nominee for the remaining four years of Barkley's term will be named by the Democratic State Committee, controlled by Clements' forces.

SPECIAL ELECTION

At Frankfort yesterday, an associate said Chandler will not resign for appointment to the Senate by Lt. Gov. Harry Lee Waterfield. Any such action would necessitate a spcial election to fill the remainder of Chandler's term as governor, which runs until December 1959.

Cooper was urged by some administration strategists to run for the Senate before Morton tossed his hat in the ring. He declined, saying he wanted to return to his diplomatic post in India.

• • •

Many Republicans think that if Eisenhower passes the word, Cooper will take the second senatorial nomination which probably would be his for the asking. Cooper has served in the Senate twice but was defeated by Barkley in 1954.

DR. HENRY H. CRANE

City Exchange Club to Hold Ladies Night

Dr. Henry H. Crane, pastor of Detroit Central Methodist Church for the past 18 years, will be guest speaker at a special meeting of the Pontiac Exchange Club honoring Ladies Night Thursday at 6:30 p. m. at the Old Mill Tavern.

"Clear Thinking in a Confused World" will be the subject of his talk. Various selections will be sung during the program by Frances Capucilli.

Dr. Crane holds several college degrees and had served as pastor in four other cities before coming to Detroit in 1938. The speaker will be introduced by the Rev. Mr. Milton Banks of Pontiac Central Methodist Church.

Detroit Man, 101, Plans Marriage for Fourth Time

DETROIT (AP)—At 101, James H. Jones believes he's "just the right age to get married again."

Jones and Mrs. Mamie Blasingame, who gave her age as 55, applied for a marriage license yesterday. He said he has been married three times before and his prospective bride twice before.

The couple met six months ago while Mrs. Blasingame was nursing Jones.

3-Year-Old Girl Safe After Night in Swamp

NEW BALTIMORE (AP)—A 3-year-old girl who wandered away from home through a treacherous swamp was found safe last night.

• • •

Searchers often waist deep in water waded three hours through the bog land before they found Joan Stevens in a cemetery a mile from her home. She was found by two teenage boys who had forged ahead of the search party.

Hope had all but been given up for the child who walked off when left alone mometarily by her older sisters, Alice 8, and Jackie 6.

The older girls told their mother, Eleanore, 29, who called police.

A search party was organized and the swamp combed.

The two teenagers found Joan walking in the cemetery, wet to the waist.

Army Service Began Tuesday for Area Youths

Eighteen men from Pontiac and Oakland County left Tuesday for Detroit and induction into the Armed Services. Local Draft Boards 65 and 67 announced today. The men reported to Ft. Wayne for processing.

Cleon K. Henderson, of 2693 Genes St., Pontiac Township led the Pontiac group. The men leaving from Board 67 and representing the outlying areas were led by James S. McClelland of 545 Lochaven Rd., Waterford Township.

Others leaving from the city were: Jessie L. Curry, 221 Rockwell; James Bayley Jr., 713 E. Walton Blvd.; William A. Hefferman, 49 Carter St.; Charles E. Misener, of 66 Wall St.; Junior E. Ray, of 30 Front St.; and John D. DeShelter, 42 Murphy St.

The others on the list from outside Pontiac included: Loren L. Smith, of 85 Bloomfield Terr.; Robert B. Shores, Walled Lake; Jay W. Reinke, of 2911 Adams Rd., Avon Township; James B. O'Henley of Lake Orion; Roy D. Hendrix, Lake Orion; Richard R. Yenson, of South Lyon; Richard Robinson, of Drayton Plains; Karl Weber, of Walled Lake; Wiliam R. Danner, 408 Alberta Rd., Pontiac Township; and Thomas E. Winthrow Jr., 1100 Nokomis St., Waterford Township.

Gas Station Owner Gets Farm Allotment

CUBA, Ala. (AP)—A service station operator whose cotton patch was widely publicized last year is ready to plant his 1956 crop. But this time Joe B. Killian has a federal allotment.

• • •

Killian's patch is beside his service station. He planted it last year to attract tourists.

Killian wrote Secretary of Agriculture Benson when agriculture agents ordered him to pay a $6 fine for planting the 17-row patch without a government permit.

He paid the fine and left the cotton in the patch for tourists to pick. Much of the cotton was still in the boll when the 1955 crop was plowed under this spring.

Man Dies of Burns

DETROIT (AP) — Roy Johnson, 75, of Riverview died last night of burns. Johnson was burned over 70 per cent of his body when a rubbish fire blazed up. He had thrown oily rags on the fire.

Students Rebel Against Charge

Kalamazoo Teenagers Will Answer to City on Parking Lot Smooching

KALAMAZOO (AP)—The 2,300 students at Kalamazooo's Central High School don't take kindly to a grocer's description of a parking lot near the school as a student "passion pit."

To soothe the kids' ruffled feelings, City Manager Clarence H. Elliott says he, with Police Chief Sherwin Heyward and Edward E. Hallady, traffic bureau director, will meet with a committee of students to discuss the parking of student cars in the lot.

Teenager tempers flared after grocer Raymond Skedgell complained to commissioners last week that students were using a public parking lot for smooching in cars. The students got in their digs at a commission meeting two nights ago.

• • •

Jane Sherman, representing the high school, commented on complaints that students drove to school in cars rather than bicycling or walking.

"You don't drive horses and buggies any more," she said, then added, "we teenagers are fighting a tough battle against prejudice."

• • •

Another student, Bruce Schrier, said, "We regret very much that the whole student body is condemned for the action of a very few misled persons."

Alabamans Stop Folsom in Bid for High Dem Post

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—An advocate of racial segregation won a place in the national Democratic party's highest councils yesterday by crushing Gov. James E. Folsom in the Alabama party primary.

• • •

State Rep. Charles W. McKay Jr. author of Alabama's nullification resolution that seeks to void the U.S. Supreme Court's integration decrees, rolled over Folsom and Roy D. McCord in the race for Democratic national committeeman.

Unofficial returns from 1,820 of Alabama's 2,805 boxes gave McKay 133,268 votes to 44,730 for Folsom and 24,528 for McCord.

• • •

Throughout a campaign marked by bitterness over racial questions, McKay said Folsom showed weakness in defending Southern traditions of separation of the races. He contended that Folsom had aided the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People in its drive to topple Southern racial barriers.

In the other major race, Sen. Lister Hill defeated retired Rear Adm. John Crommelin. An unofficial count of 1,827 boxes gave Hill 139,391 votes and Crommelin 72,484.

BOYKIN RE-ELECTED

Rep. Frank Boykin won his party's nomination for return to Congress from the 1st District and Rep. George Grant had a substantial lead in his bid for the 2nd. Other members of the congressional delegation were unopposed. Nomination in the Democratic primary is equivalent to election in Alabama.

Candidates leaning toward Adlai Stevenson for the presidential nomination were the largest single bloc among leaders in the race for Alabama's 52-member delegation to the Democratic National Convention. The delegation, which will cast 26 votes, will go to Chicago unpledged.

PIN-WORMS MAY BE A FAMILY AFFAIR

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms . . . ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge . . . the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Barkley Had Heart Attack Before Elections of 1952

DETROIT (AP)—A Detroit paper said Tuesday it had learned that Sen. Barkley suffered a heart attack shortly before the 1952 election and one of his physicians was Dr. Paul Dudley White, famed heart specialist who recently attended President Eisenhower.

The news story said of Barkley's death:

"For Mrs. Barkley, it was the tragic climax to a secret she and the senator had kept so well for three years."

KEPT A SECRET

"Today one of her closest friends revealed that the former vice president suffered a heart attack shortly before the 1952 election. One of his physicians was Dr. Paul Dudley White of Boston, the famed heart specialist who recently attended President Eisenhower.

• • •

"It was Barkley's order to his family that the seriousness of his condition be kept a secret. His hospitalization, both at Paducah, Ky., and at Bethesda Naval Hospital in Washington was described as the result of a bladder infection.

ACTIVE ON FLOOR

"Despite his attack, he conducted a vigorous 1954 campaign to return to the Senate, was active on the floor and accepted the speaking invitations he loved so much.

"He knew and so did his wife that death might come today, next week or next year, but he handled his life as he wanted to do."

• • •

In Washington, aides of Sen. Barkley said as far as they know, he had no heart attack in 1952.

Derby Entry Box Expects 17 Horses

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The names of 17 horses are expected to be dropped into the entry box tomorrow for the 82nd and richest Kentucky Derby with Needles still the horse to beat in the opinion of the men who'll tighten the saddle girths on the finely tuned 3-year-old colts.

• • •

With only a dissenting vote here and there, the trainers went right down the line today in the selection of the son of Ponder, the 1949 Derby winner, to take down the major share of the $125,000 added purses.

If all 17 parade to the post at Churchill Downs as the bands play "My Old Kentucky Home" before the expected throng of some 100,000, the race will gross $167,400 with the winner earning a net of $123,300. Both figures surpass the record 1955 totals when Swaps won $108,400 of the gross purse of $152,500.

• • •

Post time is 4:30 p.m. EST. Television and radio (CBS) time is 4:15 to 4:45.

Victory of Calumet Farm's Fabius yesterday in the mile of the Derby Trial and the unexpected strong showing of several horses behind him only tended to increase the size of the field. Only once since Count Turf defeated 19 rivals in 1951 has as many as 16 faced the starting barrier. Sixteen were in the field the day Determine won two years ago.

• • •

Asked to name the horse to beat after Fabius step the mile in 1:36 3-5 and turn back the surprising stretch challenge of Countermand with Head Man third, the trainers of the leading candidates still strung along with Needles. The Florida Derby and Flamingo Stakes winner owned by Jack Dudley and Bonnie Heath, is expected to go postward as the 2-1 choice.

• • •

Jimmy Jones, Fabius, and Pintor Lea, Buddy Raines (Countermand) Syl Veitch (Career Boy and Head Man) and Harry Trotsek (Black Emperor) were among the trainers naming Needles as the horse to be headed in the testing mile and one-quarter run. Only Colin (Sandy) MacLeod was of a different opinion. He said he would string along with Countermand.

And from Hugh Fontaine, veteran trainer of Needles, came "I am afraid of them all."

• • •

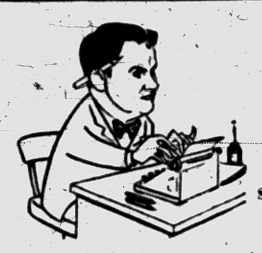

Fabius' victory in the trial, turned in under Willie Hartack's strong stretch ride, moved the Calumet entry into the second spot in the pre-race calculations at 3-1. As of now Fabius' running mate is Pintor Lea, more highly regarded than the son of Citation by trainer Jimmy Jones before wrenching a knee; Pintor Lea apparently has recovered from the injury and his name will be dropped into the entry box but Jones said a definite decision as to whether he'll start will be up in the air until the very last minute.

RECORD TRY — Here's Hudson Ray on the way to setting a new Wisner field high jump mark. The 6-5 PHS star cleared the bar at 6 feet 1¾ inches on this effort to chalk up the new figure during a Pontiac-Flint Northern dual meet yesterday afternoon. Chiefs swept this event.

WINNER — Turning in his best time in any dual meet, or other meet, Freeman Watkins (above) yesterday won the 100-yard dash in 10.1 seconds from Flint Northern's John Dennis, in the closely bunched pack behind the flying Watkins. The PHS athlete was running with a heavily bandaged left thigh.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

A tribute in story and song was paid to a legend yesterday.

This particular legend was born with the birth of Fielding H. Yost, April 30, 1871, in the coal mining community of Fairview, West Virginia.

Ten years ago, death claimed the man, but the legend was beyond burial. He died August 20, 1946.

Each year however, April 30th has grown to become as important on the calendar for Michigan men as February 12th or February 22nd, two dates which honor the memory of two of America's greatest statesmen.

★ ★ ★ ★

Yesterday at the Birmingham Community House, members of the Birmingham Exchange Club honored the man whose pronounciation of MEESHEGAN in his West Virginia drawl got to become as famous as the football tradition he gave to its University.

Honored guest at the testimonial luncheon was Mrs. Eunice Yost, the Nashville, Tennessee widow of Fielding Yost, who J. Fred Lawton, author of the book "Hurry Up" Yost, calls the original "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi."

"All the fine words said of him at this luncheon touches my heart with additional happiness," said Mrs. Yost.

★ ★ ★ ★

Telegrams and messages were received at the luncheon from all over the country lauding the great figure, the memory of whom was being honored by the Birmingham group.

A wire from one of Yost's students was that of George M. Humphrey, Secretary of the Treasury, who wrote, "please let me join in your tribute on his 10th Anniversary Memorial because my fondest memories are those associated with Fielding Yost at Ann Arbor.

Other messages were received from alumni clubs in Los Angeles, Chicago, Detroit and from prominent figures throughout the nation.

★ ★ ★ ★

Wally Weber, the assistant football coach at Michigan who "athleticates" Webster's dictionary to fit the sports-story he tells, was in rare form.

He recalled his playing days under Yost in 1925-26, "but the only thing I did best was to blow up the deflated football," he said jestingly.

"After all, there was no need for a fullback with Bennie Friedman passing to Bennie Oosterbaan all through the game," he laughed.

★ ★ ★ ★

Actually, the 40 years of athletics under Yost at the University of Michigan, going back to the "point-a-minute" teams from 1901 through 1905, up to his retirement as athletic director in 1941, were more fruitful than any in inter-collegiate athletics.

DITTOS FROM THE PRESS BOX

Wally Weber says that the switch of Ron Kramer to wingback is not going to be a fixed position next season for the East Detroit star. "We'll use him in the backfield, but he'll be back at end quite often," Wally said. Defensively, Wally sees Ron operating at right half.

★ ★ ★ ★

Bill Tuttle of the Detroit Tigers is a very underrated ball player. That's the opinion of other major leaguers according to a poll taken by a sports magazine. The poll rated Don Newcombe, Dodger hurler and Jim Piersall, Red Sox outfielder, as the most overrated players.

Hank Bauer of the Yankees and Wally Post of Cincinnati were also among the most underrated players.

More Than 200 Back USGA Move to Halt Calcutta Pools

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—A group of leading amature golfers has taken a full swing at Calcutta pools to back up the United States Golf Assn's anti-gambling crusade.

The golfers — 240 of them — signed a resolution with action or Calcutta betting pools at tournaments.

William C. Campbell, captain of the 1955 U. S. Walker Cup team, who described it as a "concerted and voluntary" effort to better conditions, released details of the resolutuion yesterday.

Campbeel said the resoultion had been circulated by mail and by request of the players. The signatures were listed alphabetically in order to avoid emphasizing the position of any indivduals.

Records Tumble in Chiefs' Victory

By H. GUY MOATS

Pontiac's all-winning prep track team ran into some unexpected strength, Tuesday afternoon, but finally rolled on to its 16th consecutive victory.

Wally Schloerke's young athletes got going in the latter part of the dual meet here with Flint Northern, and compiled a 62-47 victory.

Vikings offered real opposition, taking five firsts and a good smattering of seconds and thirds. Chiefs collected eight wins and a half dozen seconds, plus a few 3rd places.

Once more Chiefs' most consistent point maker led the way.

Hayes Jones won three events and ran a fast leg on the winning PHS 880 relay team. His 16 point total was a big help.

On the way Hayes set a new pole vault, and John Sharpe hit field record for the 120-yard high sticks at 14.4, one of the best prep marks in the country this season. The low hurdles (150 yards, 17.5 seconds) and broad jump (22 feet 6) were his other firsts. The jump was also a Wisner Field record.

Six new marks were established. Two were set by Vikings when Bill Collins topped 11 feet 8⅛ in the 52.5 in the 440.

Besides Jones' two records, others were hung up in the mile by Perry Williams (4:42.5); and Hudson (Goose) Ray in the high jump. Ray topped 6 feet 1¾.

The fleet Jones had it his own way in the hurdles. He was off fast and skimmed the barriers in perfect form to continue an almost perfect record of wins. He has failed only once to take both high and lows, and a mishap deprived him of that one. He has won every broad jump test this year, improving all the time.

PHS swept the high jump with Ray, Alex Barge, second, and surprisingly, hurdler Jimmy Taylor in the 3rd spot.

Freeman Watkins followed up his fine showing at Mansfield in the century, with his best effort, a 10.1 seconds victory over speedy John Dennis of Northern.

Probably the finest effort of the day, outside the record setting, was Charles Spann's great recovery of lost ground on the 3rd leg of the medley relay. A messed-up baton exchange left Spann 15 yards back of Arden Relaford of Northern. The big fellow dug in and more than made it up by the final transfer. However, Chiefs' anchor man couldn't hold Harrington, in a tight finish.

Tuesday's dual test was a fine tuneup for Friday's big Saginaw Valley meet at Arthur Hill's field, Saginaw. Pontiac is defending champion and meet favorite.

Summary

100-yard dash—Won by Watkins (P); 2nd, John Dennis (N); 3rd, Williams (N). Time 10.1 seconds.

180-yard low hurdles—Won by Jones (P); 2nd, Moore (N); 3rd, McGee (N). Time 17.5 seconds.

220-yard dash—Won by Dennis (N); 2nd, Spann (P); 3rd, Watkins (P). Time 23.65 seconds.

880-yard run—Won by Bill Douglas (P); 2nd, Dantzler (N); 3rd, Rod Treats (P). Time 2:05.3.

Pole vault—Won by Collins (N); 2nd, place tie, Beattie (P), Patrick (N). Height 11 feet 8⅛ (field record).

High jump—Won by Ray (P); 2nd, Barge (P); 3rd, Taylor (P). Height 6 feet 1¾ (field record).

Broad jump—Won by Jones (P); 2nd, Douglas (P); 3rd, Releford (N). Distance 22 feet 6 (field record).

Shot—Won by Aaron (N); 2nd, Releford (N); 3rd, Mike Hardiman (P). Distance 47 feet 1¾.

880 relay—Won by Pontiac (Watkins, Jones, Shorter, Spann). Time 1:33.5.

Medley relay—Won by Northern (Price, Releford, Thomas, Harrington). Time 2:35.5.

Elimination Tournament Is Suggested by Norris

NEW YORK (AP)—Boxing Promoter James D. Norris says he does not have exclusive contracts with the six leading contenders for the vacant heavyweight title but indicated he would like to have them.

• • •

Testifying in Federal Court yesterday, the tall, husky president of both the International Boxing Club and Madison Square Garden Corp., said he did have exclusive contracts with three champions, featherweight Sandy Saddler, lightweight Wallace (Bud) Smith, and middleweight Sugar Ray Robinson.

He said he had an exclusive with heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano but that expired just before Rocky's successful title defense against light-heavyweight king Archie Moore last September. The undefeated Brockton Bomber abdicated his throne last week.

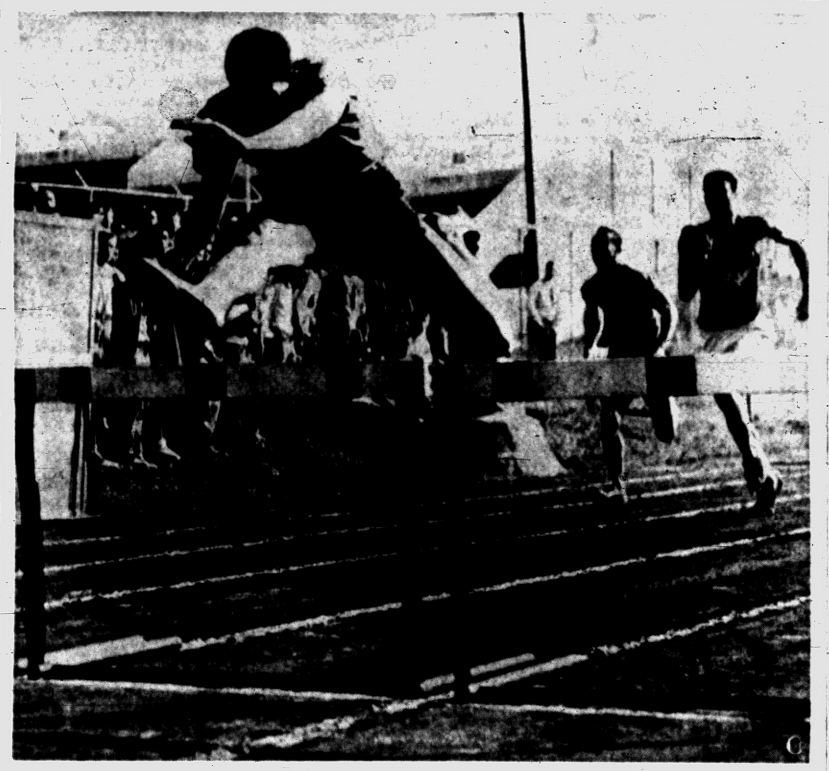

Norris suggested in court that the six leading contenders battle it out in an elimination tournament for the right to succeed Marciano. Then, during a brief recess, he told reporters he considered the top six contenders to be Moore, San Diego, Calif.; Hurricane Tommy Jackson, New York; Floyd Patterson, Brooklyn; Johnny Holman, Chicago; Bob Baker, Pittsburgh, and Johnny Summerlin, Detroit.

Baker and Holman clash in a 12-rounder at Miami Beach May 9 in an IBC co-promotion. The bout will be broadcast and telecast coast to coast.

Asked by Judge Sylvester Ryan if he had considered attempting to get exclusives with the top contenders, Norris replied:

"I would have to say I have been considering it. It has been in the back of my mind."

The government has charged Norris, his partner Arthur M. Wirtz, the International Boxing Clubs of Illinois and New York and Madison Square Garden Corp. with monopolizing the promotion of championship fights in the United States between 1949 and 1953 in violation of the anti-trust law. The government contends that part of the alleged monopoly was acquired through contracts for the exclusive services of champions and leading contenders.

Marbles Tourney Begins

The 9th annual Marbles Tournament, co-sponsored by The Pontiac Press and the Parks and Recreation Department, begins this week at 16 elementary and junior high schools throughout the city.

Mibs shooters from all sections of Pontiac start firing into the circle in an attempt to win school honors and earn the right to compete for the city title at Crofoot playground on Saturday, May 12.

Competition will be held in two divisions—midgets, for boys and girls under 12 years of age, and junior, for youngsters from 12 to 14 years old.

Each of the 16 tournament sites will run off local competition to determine the school winner. All finalists will assemble at Crofoot to vie for championship honors. The Pontiac Press will award trophies to the champion and runner-up in each division.

The schools where local tournaments will be held and their respective directors are as follows: Jefferson and Whittier, Don Bowen; Bagley and Whitfield, Eldon Johnson; Crofoot and Webster, Barbara Heflin; Bethune, John Harris; Longfellow and McCarroll, Ralph Grubb; Malkim, Patricia Kohlhaas; McConnell, Perry Ninotti; Owen, Mildred Hutchinson; Willis and Wisner, Mike Fiorillo; Linda Vista, Walter Gannon; and St. Frederick, David Jones.

All boys and girls who wish to participate in the Marbles Tournament should contact the above named directors at their local schools for further information or call the Parks and Recreation Department at FEderal 3-7131.

Last year's midget title was won by Manuel Ledesma of Bagley. John Taylor of Eastern took the 1955 junior crown.

PHS Takes Doubles, One Singles Match at Murphy Park

A very much improved Pontiac High tennis team gave Flint Central a hard battle, at Murphy Park here Tuesday, but missed on four of the five singles tests to lose the SVC match 4-3.

Vic Lindquist's Chiefs hammered out wins in the two doubles matches, but only Bill Bonner came through in singles. Bill defeated Jim Jesik 4-6, 6-0, 6-0, making his service pay off. Dave Scriven, John Doerr defeated John Howe and Spence Rutherford 6-2, 6-2; Dick Mallory, Fred Roeser defeated Bill Hart and Charles Arrand 6-2, 6-3.

Other results

Dick Miller def. Ted Wiersema (P) 6-1, 8-6. Bob Baum def. Bob Erb (P) 6-4, 6-4. Charles Kliesel def. Gary Thomas (P) 6-3, 6-1. Bill Lau def. Gary Wylie (P) 7-5, 6-3.

Underdog Going for TV Knockout

HOUSTON (AP)—Joey Brown, a 3-2 underdog seeking a rematch for the title, says he will try for a knockout against world's lightweight champion Wallace (Bud) Smith in their scheduled 10-round non-title boxing match tonight.

• • •

A crowd of about 7,500 is expected for the Sam Houston Coliseum match that will be televised nationally (9 p. m. EST).

• • •

Brown, a 29-year-old New Orleans Negro who calls himself the man nobody wants to fight, says a knockout, particularly by the sixth round, should force Smith to accept a rematch for the title.

Jim Hanes Bags Eagles to End, Open Golf Loop

Last fall when the Klingler Golf League closed its season, Jim Hanes wound it up properly with a two-under par eagle on the final hole.

So what does he do when the loop began its 1956 round of play recently?

That's right—he carded another eagle on the first hole of the new season.

One of the area's better golfers, Hanes bagged his closing eagle at Pontiac Country Club, his '56 beginning one at Bald Mountain. Both are par 5 holes, and each was played in three strokes.

Jim has also collected two holes-in-one in his links activities. He is a Sylvan Lake resident.

Mixed Views Given on New Golf Rule

NEW YORK (AP) — When Henry Cotton returns to England after his brief fling at American golf tournaments, he likely will start shilling for an American rule that has aroused some heated discussions here.

That is the U. S. Golf Assn. ruling which eliminated most of the penalties for hitting the flagstick with the ball and which, in effect, permits the players to use the stick as backstop on putts.

• • •

After a couple of tournaments in this country, Cotton has become an enthusiastic supporter of the change. Most of the touring pros like it, too, but a lot of oldtimers maintain that it isn't golf.

Fred Corcoran, former PGA tournament manager, argues that every course and tournament now should have two records—one for players who putt with the stick in the hole, the other for those who remove it.

• • •

But USGA President Dick Tufts, who fathered the new rule, and Executive Director Joe Dey insist the benefits have been more than anticipated, both in time-saving and in the condition of putting greens.

Dey adds that leaving the pin in the hole is a privilege of doubtful value because when a putt bangs against it, there's just as much chance that the ball will glance away as that it will drop into the cup.

• • •

To the weekend golfer, who probably never has read the entire rule book, it may seem very unimportant. But its a cinch that the dubs will copy the pros and leave the flag in place, even on 2-foot putts.

Briefly, here's how the rules were changed. In medal play the two-stroke penalty for striking an unattended flagstick with a shot from less than 60 feet was eliminated. At all times, the player making the shot is the only one who can say whether the flag shall be attended or removed.

• • •

When the flag is attended (i.e. when a player or caddie is holding it or standing near enough to remove it from the cup) the penalties in medal and match play still stand.

No one argues that this didn't end some time-wasting arguments in match play, where the old rule allowed either player to have the flag removed, and that it didn't eliminate occasional painful penalties when a perfect 59-foot shot hit the stick. But the other results, apparently not anticipated when the rule was made, still are being debated.

Two Crane Teams Score Victories

Cranbrook's track squad rolled over Romeo yesterday, 71 2-3 to 37 1-3, for its 5th triumph in six meets. The Cranes won 10 out of 13 events.

Romeo's Larry Fowler was the meet's high individual scorer with 15 points on victories in both hurdles and the broad jump. Herb Stanton of the Cranes won the 100 and 220 and tied for 2nd in the high jump to score 11 1-3 points.

Cranbrook downed Birmingham in tennis, 4-1 as Jerry Dobson, Bob Kline and Dave Dine posted singles victories. Birmingham's victory in the 1st doubles match prevented a shutout.

Homer Happy Yanks Blast Tiger Pitching, 9-2

4 Hurlers Get Shelled by NY Hitting Parade

Lary to Face Kucks in Second Game of Eastern Trip

NEW YORK (AP) — Ever since Frank Lary beat out an inside-the-park homer on opening day, home runs have played an important part in the 1956 fortunes of the Detroit Tigers.

At the moment the homers are on the minus side and the Tigers are suffering.

It was mighty nice to win the first game with Cleveland Sunday on Bill Tuttle's 10th inning blast into the seats. Then the tide suddenly switched.

The Indians pounded Tiger hurlers for five circuit blows in winning the nightcap and Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees reminded the Detroiters yesterday that a change of scenery doesn't always mean a change of fortune.

Mantle laced one of Steve Gromek's first inning offerings into the right field seats at Yankee Stadium and the American League champions went on to an easy 9-2 triumph over the Tigers.

Hank Bauer made it seven home runs in two games for the opposition as he hit one off Duke Maas in the sixth.

In many ways yesterday's was one of the Tigers' worst games. They committed two costly errors, had a runner thrown out at home plate and saw their pitching hammered for 11 hits. Only rookie Jerry Lumpe and first baseman Bill Skowron went hitless against Gromek, Dick Marlowe, Maas and Paul Foytack.

Foytack was the only pitcher to escape the shelling. He struck out one, walked one and blanked the Yanks without a hit in the last two innings.

Three of the nine New York runs were unearned but the Tigers' two were pretty cheap as well.

They scored only in the 7th with the help of three straight walks by winner Whitey Ford.

The Tigers, who had been leading the circuit in home runs with 16, dropped down to second behind the Yankees who now have 17.

Detroit ends its New York visit today with Lary due to face Johnny Kucks. Boston is next on the schedule.

FABIUS WINS DERBY TRIAL — Calumet's Farms Derby hopeful Fabius finishes ahead of Countermaid (2) and Head Man (hidden) in the Derby Trials at Louisville's Churchill Downs yesterday. Running fourth is Black Emperor (7). A list of 17 horses is expected for the classic which runs Saturday.

Skipper Golfers Win 6th

Paced by John Wettlaufer's 75, the Waterford High School golf team downed Walled Lake Tuesday afternoon, 311-324, in a dual Club. It was Waterford's 6th win in nine starts.

Wettlaufer took medalist honor with his round and teammate Dale Wheeler was right behind with 76. Jack Reynolds fired 78 and Cleland Charboneau had 81. Norman Dierkes led Walled Lake with 78.

Milford's golf squad won its 6th match in 10 attempts with a 279-287 margin over Bloomfield Hills in a six-man team affair at Highland Golf Club. The losers' Bud Badger was medalist with 38 while Fred Coxen was low for Milford with 42.

Day Filled With 3-2 Games in American League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If only Dalatron the electric brain could talk, maybe it would have some explanation as to why the Detroit Tigers are in seventh place in the American League today, just half a game out of the basement.

Dalatron, you may recall, picked the Tigers to win the pennant and no "ifs" about it. Most of the experts thought the New York Yankees would win it.

* * *

Actually, the reasons for the Tigers' failings are apparent enough. The power boys of the Bengal lineup—Al Kaline, Harvey Kuenn and Ray Boone — aren't hitting. Boone has a .262 average, Kaline .227 and Kuenn .190.

The Tigers dropped a 9-2 decision to the Yanks in New York yesterday. Although the defeat was humiliating, Manager Bucky Harris found some cause for optimism. Kaline and Boone each collected two hits and Kuenn one, so they may be snapping out of it.

When they do, the Tigers will be dangerous.

Elsewhere in the American League, the last-place Baltimore Orioles pulled out an 11-inning, 3-2 victory over the Chicago White Sox; the Indians turned back the Washington Senators, 3-2, on a run in the ninth, and the Kansas City A's edged the Boston Red Sox, 3-2.

The National League also had a new leader — the Milwaukee Braves. They inched past both the St. Louis Cardinals and the Brooklyn Dodgers by virtue of a 6-4 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies.

* * *

The upstart Pittsburgh Pirates knocked the Cards out of first-place with a 4-2 victory and the Cincinnati Redlegs, behind the six-hit pitching of Bob Klippstein, downed the Dodgers, 3-1. The New York Giants outlasted the Chicago Cubs, 2-1, in another game.

Baltimore's victory over the White Sox had an ironic twist. The Pale Hose played their first six games without an error, but made four in this one, and, as fate would have it, one led to the winning run.

White Sox relief pitcher Dixie Howell threw wild on Billy Gardner's sacrifice bunt in the 11th, permitting Bobby Boyd to jog home. Bill Zuverink, who pitched the last two innings, was the winner.

* * *

The Indians' triumph was a combination of the effort of Early Wynn, who hung up victory No. 3 on a seven-hitter, and Al Smith clubbing. In the ninth, Smith collected his third hit, a double, moved along to third, then scored on Chico Carrasquel's sacrifice fly.

The A's had to overcome a two-run Red Sox lead to gain the victory for Lou Kretlow. They scored once in the sixth and twice more in the eighth. Jim Finigan scored the winning run on a squeeze bunt by Joe DeMaestri.

Fan 13, Give Up Five Hits; Morrall Drives In Winning Runs

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Three Michigan State hurlers fanned 13 men and shackled Western Michigan with five singles to give the Spartans a 4-2 victory over Western Michigan yesterday.

* * *

Earl Morrall, MSU shortstop and All-America football quarterback, singled to left field in the 4th inning to send two men across with the winning runs.

John Palomski and Frank Palamara of MSU connected for the only extra-base hits of the game, both doubles.

* * *

Ron Perranoski, who went to the mound in the 4th inning, chalked up the victory and Al Loose was charged with the loss.

Secrets of Better Golf

(14th of a Series)

The chip shot is executed primarily by the hands and wrists with very little body movement. On the backswing, the club is taken back not quite waist high.

The initial movement back is made by the hands and wrists, with the body remaining as at the address. Your weight does not shift, and the club is kept low to the ground in the first action of the swing.

As the club reaches the top of the backswing, your hands will be approximately waist high. Your weight shifts slightly to the right foot as the club reaches the top of the swing. However, this is hardly noticeable except for a little bend of the left knee in toward the right. Both feet remain on the ground as at the address.

The hands and wrists have complete control of the club, and the head and eyes remain down over the ball.

The motion of taking the club back for a chip shot is one of deliberation. It should be a firm and controlled action with no flippiness to the stroke.

* * *

Because the backswing is short, there often is a tendency to pick up the club. To avoid this fault, make a deliberate point of keeping the club low to the ground on your first action back.

* * *

Also, I have the feeling that my right elbow more or less rides my right hip throughout the shot. By keeping your arm in this position you will be able to bring the club back correctly.

(Copyright 1956)

At the top of the backswing for a chip shot, the hands are not quite waist high. Notice there is no body action or pivot.

Three Schools Hit by NCAA

Texas A&M Gets Severe Penalty Plus Probation

Kansas and Mississippi College Slapped After Council Investigation

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Assn.'s council was expected to hand down some of its severest penalties today as it dealt with schools that have violated rules during the past year.

The 18-man policy-directing group placed three schools—Texas A&M, Mississippi College and the University of Kansas—on probation yesterday. Only Texas A&M received penalties besides the probation.

* * *

The Southwest Conference military school was barred from entering "athletes or teams in national collegiate championship competition and those invitational events which cooperate with the NCAA in the administration of its enforcement program." The ruling includes postseason football bowl games.

All probations were effective immediately. All except Texas A&Ms last for one year. The Texas school was placed on probation until May 14, 1957, the same date its probationary period in the Southwest Conference ends.

The council's action followed a report from the Committee on Infractions, headed by A. D. Kirwan of the University of Kentucky.

* * *

Clarence P. Houston of Tufts University, president of the NCAA and chairman of the council, said when a school is on probation its athletic program is "subject to close inspection and scrutiny."

"Any malpractice during the probationary period will seriously jeopardize the institution's membership in the NCAA."

* * *

The Texas A&M violations occurred in its football program, while the Kansas and Mississippi infractions were connected with basketball, said Walter Byers, NCAA executive director.

* * *

In its resolution, the NCAA council said Texas A&M was found guilty during April 1955 of offering at least two prospective student athletes "financial aid in excess of that permitted by this association and the Southwest Athletic Conference."

The NCAA said it had evidence that a Kansas staff member provided round-trip transportation for a prospective student athlete to visit in "at least one instance."

Shutout Hurling Sparks Skippers

By BILL CORNWELL

Waterford High School's team is currently hitting at an anemic .168 clip, yet the Skippers are making a strong bid for the Inter-Lakes crown.

What's the reason? Pitching.

The late Connie Mack's theory that pitching was 75 per cent of the game continued to assert itself Tuesday as the Skippers won their 3rd straight I-L decision via the shutout route. Waterford blanked Southfield yesterday, 2-0.

Chuck Gillis, who has been alternating with Jerry Kruskie in the art of tossing goose-eggs at the opposition, took his turn yesterday and silenced the Jays with only one hit, a triple by Kopec in the 4th inning.

League whitewashings over Walled Lake and Berkley preceded the Southfield triumph and six scoreless inning hurled by Kruskie against Birmingham now makes it 27 consecutive frames in which the opponent has failed to cross the plate.

As they did against Berkley Monday, the Skippers wrapped up yesterday's win over Southfield with two runs in the 1st inning. A double by Ron Kind, singles by John Woodman and Kruskie, and a walk turned the trick.

Berkley banged out nine hits to score an 8-4 verdict over Walled Lake in a night game Tuesday at Berkley. The Bears sewed up the decision with a five-run, five-hit outburst in the 1st inning off Dick Gotham. Senko went the distance on the mound for Berkley.

Morey pitched a three-hit shutout as Ferndale defeated Birmingham, 4-0, in an Eastern Michigan League game at Ferndale. It marked the 1st time the Maples had been blanked since 1953. Ferndale iced the decision with three runs in the 1st stanza off Larry Milford.

Lake Orion nipped Oxford, 3-2, in a well-played game at Oxford. Orion's Chuck Melchert and Don Atwood of Oxford waged a mound duel and Melchert struck out 12 batters. The Wildcats outhit the Dragons, 5 to 4, but two runs in the 6th frame handed Lake Orion the victory.

Bloomfield Hills chalked up its 1st win of the season with an 8-3 decision over Oak Park at Vaughn School field. Jim Jones sparked the winners with a home run and single to drive in three runs. Dave Vhay and Ken Newberry hurled for Bloomfield with Newberry receiving credit for the win.

To Run Saturday

Landy's Race Televised

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Miler John Landy of Australia figures if he runs slower at the start and faster at the finish he can lower his world record time of 3 minutes 58 seconds.

The second man in the world ever to crack the 4-minute mile also believes there are runners today capable under optimum conditions of clipping four or five seconds from his record. And he feels that some day, also under perfect conditions, a runner may go the mile in 3 minutes 50 seconds.

When Landy set the record in 1954 at Turku, Finland, he ran the first half mile in 1:58.7 which he now considers too fast a start for a speedy finish.

Landy says his showing Saturday in the nationally televised race (to be blacked out locally) will be largely dependent on how well he becomes acclimated between now and then.

Porter Ordered to Court

NEW YORK (AP) — J. W. Porter, 23-year-old Detroit Tiger catcher, has been ordered to appear in court today to answer a paternity charge brought by a New York night club singer.

Porter was seized yesterday when his ball club arrived in New York for its first season series with the Yankees.

Complainant is Mrs. Joan McKinney, known professionally as Joan Vosney. She claims she met Porter in Buffalo last September and that he is the father of a child she expects in June.

Special sessions justice William E. Ringel released porter without bail after Frank B. Conway, traveling secretary for the Tigers, promised that Porter would appear in paternity court today.

The singer reportedly was unmarried when she met Porter and was married only a few months ago.

Porter is married and has a son born last August.

Doubles Pair Still in Lead

Inkster Combination Is Short of Leaders in ABC Tournament

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Bowlers come and bowlers go but Bill Lillard and Stan Gifford of Chicago continue to sit atop the doubles division of the American Bowling Congress Tournament.

Lillard and Gifford rolled into the top spot with 1,331 back on March 25, when Lillard also took the lead in the all-events with 2,018.

So far no one has dominated any division as long as the Chicago pair in the marathon tourney which began March 3 and ends May 20.

Frank Pollock and Len Griffin of Inkster, Mich., rolled the high score in the doubles yesterday with 1,255 on Pollock's 616 and Griffin's 619.

16 Prep Nines in Invitational

Birmingham Listed as Alternate for Annual Battle Creek Meet

BATTLE CREEK (AP)—Battle Creek Central and Coldwater High Schools, defending champions in their respective classes, head a list of 16 entries in the eighth annual Battle Creek Invitational High School baseball tournament.

Arrangements for the single elimination tournament were announced yesterday.

Championship finals will be held May 30 in Battle Creek with the winners taking home the mythical state high school titles.

Competing in Class A will be Holland, Kalamazoo Central, Lansing Sexton, Lincoln Park, Niles and Battle Creek.

The winner and runnerup in an elimination tourney at Hamtramck May 12 will round out the entry list. Competing will be Hamtramck, Detroit Catholic Central, Ferndale and either Highland Park or Wayne.

Birmingham and Jackson are alternates in that order in the event other teams are needed to complete an eight-team slate.

Four Class A teams will compete in two brackets at Battle Creek May 25-26.

Class B entrants are Coldwater, Battle Creek Lakeview, Detroit Lutheran, Grand Rapids Goodwin, Hastings and Melvindale and two more teams to be decided at an elimination tournament in Marshall May 12.

One MSU Wrestler Remains in Trials

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Ken Maidlow of Michigan State University was eliminated last night in the 4th round of the Olympic wrestling team tryouts. He was decisioned by Brad Glass of the Navy team.

Dale Thomas, a schoolmate of Maidlow's, drew a bye. Both were wrestling unattached.

In 3rd round matches Maidlow decisioned Gray Kurdelmeier of Iowa University and Thomas decisioned Dan McNair of Auburn, Ala.

Skating Champ Will Aid MSU Olympic Fund

EAST LANSING (AP)—An ice show followed by three-and-a half hour telethon will be staged at Michigan State University Saturday night to help raise funds to send the U. S. team to the Olympics.

The MSU student government, sponsoring the affair, is shooting for a goal of $30,000.

Carol Heiss, Olympic figure skating champion, will star in the ice show. It will be followed by a televised variety show featuring personalties from the sports and entertainment worlds.

Isaac Crary Thinclads Outrun Lincoln Squad

Isaac Crary Junior High School's track team scored a 47-30 victory over Lincoln Junior High yesterday on the Waterford High cinders. It was the 2nd win of the season for Crary, which downed Eastern last week to post its 1st triumph over a Pontiac school.

Mike Ewer paced the Crary thinclads with 11¼ points. Ewer won the broad jump and 100-yard dash and anchored the winning 440 relay team. The winners took seven 1st places.

Court Ruling on Waterway Called Significant Action

LANSING (AP) — A recent court decision bearing on public boating and fishing rights on inland waters is expected to have far-reaching significance, the state conservation department said Tuesday.

* * *

The decision also was hailed as "very important" by Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh.

The case involved two Presque Isle County residents, Henry M. and Naomi Lucy who barricaded the outlet stream to a small lake which their property surrounds.

The barricade prevented boaters from coming down the stream into the lake.

Judge Phillip J. Glennie, at the request of the county board of supervisors, ordered the barricade removed and enjoined the Lucys from further interference with traffic between the stream and the lake.

Previous court decisions had established the right of the public to use of all navigable waters but the Lucy case was the first in which a relatively small stream was involved, the conservation department said.

Kavanagh said:

"Despite repeated decisions by our supreme court, we still find many private owners who insist that the stretch of stream that runs through their property is not navigable and have obstructed the public from passing over it.

"In view of this decision, we feel that we can now proceed with other cases held up pending the outcome of this one."

City Fireman Gets Nice Trout

Stephens Defies Cold, Snow, to Land 2 'Bows Near Kalkaska

Bad weather, with near-freezing temperatures and snow, didn't stop Pontiac city fireman Glenn Stephens, 32 South Marshall, from getting some nice trout, opening weekend of the season.

According to reports from Kalkaska, center for the National Trout Festival each spring, when the state season opens, the Pontiac man landed two fine rainbows on Log Lake, near Kalkaska. Stephens was not yet available at home for comment.

The big fish were nearly 14 inches long, Stephens was trolling, using night-crawlers as lures.

Most fishermen were driven off streams by the cold, but warmer weather could make this weekend a really heavy one on the trout streams.

Stephens not only got the two big ones, but he took his limit. His biggest fish was a 19 inch specimen. He fished from a boat, using some big "cowbells" spinners.

* * *

The trout in Log Lake, Stephens says, were filled with wigglers, on which they were feeding.

Opening day, Glenn says, there were few lucky anglers, but he reports seeing quite a number of fine fish on Sunday.

Beaver Trap Nips Wayward Coyote

NEWBERRY — Victor Miller of Seney is $15 richer because a coyote strayed out of its element.

The wayward coyote recently wandered out onto a dam west of Seney and got himself caught in a beaver trap set by Miller. The amazed trapper promptly turned the animal over to conservation officer Leslie Wahlstrom and will collect the $15 bounty payment.

Officers Arise Early to Make Pheasant Count

LANSING — Spring pheasant population surveys mean early working hours for many Conservation Department workers.

Game division personnel go out about a half-hour before sunrise and drive specified 20-mile routes, stopping every mile to listen for cock pheasant crows for two minutes. By tallying the number of calls and computing the area covered, biologists can get a count on the number of male pheasants in an area.

The annual crowing count, which has become a standardized census method in several states, was started in lower Michigan last week and will continue into June.

DIVERGENT TASTES — Two Pontiac trouters reveal divergent tastes on the opening weekend of the Michigan trout season, in a northern setting. At right is Charles Corwin who braved the elements to try for the flashing beauties in a stream. At left is Bob Nelson, who preferred the warm coziness of a cabin, where he was snapped probably frying some of the succulent fish.

Traveling Angler Reports—

Trout Fishing Continues 'Spotty'

By JACK PATTERSON
Pontiac Press Outdoor Writer

GRAYLING—Yesterday we took a look at what goes with the western streams.

Since the Manistee dominates the area and because we wanted to see if Consumers Power's Dave Gearhart had left any rainbows after his weekend operations, we picked the big "M" as a starter.

PATTERSON

Because the stream rises from land in which we have an interest, the headwaters seemed a likely place for the first sampling.

A sampling it was. Cold, cold water, minor activity with small fish. The pleasant mood induced by fishing one's own waters was interrupted a short time later by brief, but lively altercation over a fancied traffic violation.

Be that as it may we continued checking the Manistee at intervals in its downward course, and aside from a few small rainbows found scant activity. The stream is a bit high, still too cold, and mildly discolored. If present warmish weather holds, the Manistee should be ripe by next weekend.

* * *

Our local fishermen are apparently holding off for better conditions in this area. Most fishermen encountered represent the Ohio-Indiana-Illinois triumvirate.

* * *

The Betsie is high, dirty and needs at least a few days to get in good shape. The Boardman, too, needs time to get in peak condition. Down on the Baldwin and Little Manistee, fishing conditions average fair, but the outlook is definitely improving daily.

The Platte is producing fair brown trout fishing in highish, slightly discolored water. Most browns caught, however, are incidental to the pursuit of rainbow spawners.

The big fish are in the stream and quite often visible, but are inclined to display the rainbow's variable temperament and scorn the most attractive offerings. Again, a few more days of what we've decided to accept as decent weather, scoring on the big ones will improve.

As this column has pointed out many times, there is a great deal more to trout fishing than catching fish. With an eye out to next fall, we're pleased to note along streams—and this is general—quite a few more partridge drumming than last spring. The cycle which hit the pit in many areas last fall may be reversing itself.

* * *

Deer in so-called "starvation areas," or what we would call over-populated areas, are still dropping off daily from insufficient rations. There is plenty of available food now but some deer seem to reach a point of no return in short-food periods and when food finally shows up they either can't or won't eat. We've noted several samples of deer too weak to run—in one case too far gone to stand—in the last few days.

Little Known Nature Facts

The chameleon's changes in color are due to temperature, variations in light and the lizard's feelings.

Of the larger varieties of whales, only the sperm whale has teeth in the adult form. It also is the only one with a throat large enough to swallow a man.

Birds have a third eyelid or membrane which not only aids in keeping the eyeball moist, but also serves as a shade in strong light through which the bird can still see.

In spite of its description as "prairie wolf," the coyote's much smaller than the true wolf and more closely resembles the jackal. A native of the North American continent, it is a familiar item in cowboy song.

Unlike the Atlantic salmon which enters the fresh - water streams to apawn and then returns to the sea, the Pacific species spawn in fresh water and then die.

Woodpeckers are found around the world, except Australia and Madagascar. About 300 species are known.

Amateur Handicapper Has 'Day' at Laurel

LAUREL, Md. (AP)—The amateur handicapper will have his day at Laurel race course tomorrow.

The track management will give a $100 savings bond to the fan present who picks the most winners on the eight-race card.

All entry blanks must be filled out before the start of the first race and dropped in boxes placed at various points at the track. And like the professional handicapper, each person is limited to one group of selections.

Solunar Tables

Prepared especially for this area, John Alden Knight's solunar tables, announced today offer data on what should be the best periods for fishing during the coming week. Major periods last for an hour and a half or more, and the minor periods for a somewhat shorter time.

Law Breakers Aid State Library Fund

LANSING — The Stat eLibrary Fund will be increased by $310 as a result of conservation law convictions reported during the last week.

All money from fines for conservation law violations goes to the library fund.

The 31 persons convicted last week were ordered to pay $219 in court costs, in addition to the $310 in fines. Justices also sentenced two violators to 10 days in jail.

WHOPPER — Floyd Jones, of Gaylord, proudly holds an 8 pound 28-inch rainbow trout he landed opening day while fishing in Lake Louise near Gaylord. The lake has been developed by Conservation Department in experiments to produce monster sized trout.

Counting Noses!

State Checks Deer, Grouse

LANSING — A three-week census of deer and grouse populations is under way in northern Michigan, with some 300 rural mail carriers participating.

Current census, which started April 16 in the upper peninsula and April 23 in the northern lower peninsula, is designed to gather information needed for game management by the Conservation Department.

Each spring since 1952, rural and star route mail carriers have volunteered to count deer and grouse sighted during their daily trips. Game division field workers also are conducting annual counts of drumming cocks, another index of grouse populations. Other population counts are made in late summer and fall.

Department game biologists hope to get more information on grouse populations, which have been in the low of their 10-year cycle.

Pontiac Angler Lands Limit of Big Calicos

An unusually heavy concentration of big calico bass in the canal at Otter Lake has been giving a Pontiac fisherman a lot of fun lately.

According to Luther Kelly, 3915 Elmhurst, he has been taking limit creels of the fish, several of the catches tipped the scales at around 30 pounds, with some exceptionally big calicos among the fish.

"We took some that were 14 to 16 inches long, and probably weighed a pound or so," Kelly reported.

"I've fished a lot around here, but have never seen so many big, fine calicos like those we took during the last several days."

Conservation Program Has New TV Outlet

LANSING — Station WDMJ-TV, channel six in Marquette, is the newest member of the 13-station network carrying "Michigan Conservation," the Conservation Department's weekly television program.

Before its introduction to the Marquette area, "Michigan Conservation" was seen each week by an estimated 2,000,000 viewers in Michigan, Wisconsin, Ohio and Ontario.

Adamant Hoffman to Continue

Shakespeare Still 'Bard' —Marlowe's Crypt Empty

CHISLEHURST, ENGLAND (AP)—Stonemasons pried open a 400-year-old tomb today to prove William Shakespeare was a literary fraud but found nothing to damage the Bard of Avon's reputation.

* * *

After two hours of digging into the St. Nicholas Church tomb of the Walsingham family, they lifted a heavy marble slab to reveal a few fragments of glazed tile, a load of sand and a layer of brick.

They holed through the brick and lowered a light, revealing only a lead casket below. The government has decreed the casket may not be opened.

ADAMANT PROBER

The project was the brainchild of Calvin Hoffman, 49-year-old New Yorker. He had hoped to find early 17th century documents to prove his theory that Christopher Marlowe, an Elizabethan poet and dramatist, authored the plays and poems attributed to Shakespeare.

Hoffman was adamant.

"There are no bodies, no coffins, and no sarcophagus directly beneath the marble slab," he declared. "I intend to continue my researches."

SHAKESPEARE HIRED

Hoffman contends that history is wrong in saying Marlowe was killed in a Thames River tavern brawl in 1593. Instead, he theorizes, the poet's patron, Sir Thomas Walsingham, hid him out to save him from the headman's axe for alleged heresy and substituted another's body.

Then, Hoffman's theory goes, Walsingham hired Shakespeare, a little known London actor-manager, to front as the author of the plays and poems the fugitive turned out in his hiding place.

If evidence exists, Hoffman reasoned, Sir Thomas took it to the grave. He thought the papers might have been left outside the casket, underneath the slab.

Prices on Food to Remain Static

Spring, Late Summer Crop Yield to Be Huge; Vegetables Plentiful

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department has said large food supplies are in prospect for the late spring and early summer and that prices will remain fairly close to present levels.

* * *

In a report on the national food situation, the department said livestock products in the next few months will be plentiful, particularly beef, milk, dairy products, eggs and chicken.

CANNED FISH DIP

Pork supplies will continue above a year earlier, though production will be declining and prices strengthening as the marketing season for 1955 crop hogs closes and that for this year's spring crop begins.

The department said less canned fish will be available than a year earlier, at least until about late summer.

NON-CITRUS FRUIT

Fresh vegetables will become more plentiful as summer approaches, but supplies of processed commodities will continue lower than a year earlier and slightly higher in price until 1956 packs start moving to market in volume after midyear.

* * *

The department said more non-citrus fruit will be available this spring and early summer than in 1955 if growing conditions are average. Supplies of fresh oranges are larger this spring than a year ago, but indications point to a reversed situation for the summer.

* * *

The department said consumer food purchases are at a peak now and are expected to continue to expand.

Tuberculosis Cases Number 15 in Week

Helen Hayes Will Act to Lessen Bereavement

NEW YORK, May 1 (AP)—Helen Hayes has decided to make a motion picture in Europe this summer.

"It is always best to keep the mind fully occupied after tragedy," a close friend explained, referring to the veteran star's sorrow since the death of her husband, playwright Charles MacArthur, 10 days ago.

Miss Hayes will perform in "Anastasia" with Ingrid Bergman and Yul Brynner. She turned down the role prior to MacArthur's death. Shooting of the film is to start in Paris July 16 and take four weeks.

Because of limited pasture, Malta depends on goats for milk.

Italo-Pakistan Pact

KARACHI (AP)—Italy has proposed to Pakistan that their governments cooperate in producing motion pictures here. The Italian offer includes local capital, equipment and technical assistance.

Decides to Retire at 76

PORT HURON (AP)—William H. Wurzel figures being St. Clair County drain commissioner for 34 years is long enough. Wurzel will resign this year at the end of his 17th term and take a vacation. He is 76.

Barn Dance at Waterford

Lights Benefit to Be Saturday

Event to Meet Pledge Deficit of $800 for School Stadium

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — A giant barn dance in the big barn on Waterford Hill will be held Saturday beginning at 8 p.m. Sponsored by the White Brothers Real Estate in cooperation with Waterford Township High student council members and counselor Howard Bennetts, the affair has been arranged as a stadium lights benefit.

The student body thought the question of athletic field improvements was all settled when they made their big push the weekend of April 21 to pull in all pledge monies. Three thousand, eight hundred dollars was needed at that time to meet the $25,000 goal which would cover the cost of lights, fencing, enlarging the field for the fencing, legal fees, etc. A telephone campaign and neighborhood canvass brought in $2,000 in cash and $1,800 in promises that checks would be in within the week.

By unanimous consent, the Junior Trip Club and the teachers tennis court group loaned the student council the money to offset the "temporary deficit."

This action allowed the full amount to be in the Board of Education offices by Monday, April 23, and the wheels started to roll to make the lights available by cleared, contracts signed, etc.

However, last Friday students received a jolt when they realized that 16 pledges amounting to $800 had not been filled and they would not be able to repay loans as soon as promised.

IDEA FOR BARN DANCE

Several senior boys were helping Don White assemble his Chris Craft last weekend and the sad state of the stadium lighting project was brought up. The idea of a barn dance benefit was born, and with it, the knowledge that action would have to be immediate because of the Prom on May 12, the senior trip and other events.

Since the Dramatics Club is presenting "Harvey" in the high school auditorium Saturday evening, too, committee members are advocating that their friends make a gala night of it—attend the play first and then the dance. In fact they have sold fifty tickets to the play.

Music for the barn dance will be furnished by several orchestras affiliated with the Pontiac Federation of Musicians. There will be modern and square dancing with Lee Kaines and Billy Farnum doing the calling for the latter.

Hayrides to the top of the hill to view the panorama of this area at night will be a highlight of the entertainment. Hot dogs will be served free of charge from an open air grill.

* * *

Nancy Schack and Sheldon Smith are general chairmen and Bob Coonfield is in charge of entertainment. Bob Dorman, parking; Barbara Keniseck, refreshments; Jean Liimatta, tickets; Barbara Graham, decorations; and Bernard Torr, clean-up.

'Wildflowers' Subject of Talk for Garden Club

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—The local branch of the National Farm and Garden Club will meet at 1 p.m. Thursday at the Williams Lake home of Mrs. Arthur Arnold.

A tour of their hostess' wildflower garden had been planned for the members but the late spring has made it impracticable. However, Mrs. Arnold will give her talk on the subject as scheduled.

The annual election of officers is on the agenda for the business meeting. Mrs. H. R. Bayle will be cohostess.

Queen of Huron Valley Club Named at Milford

MILFORD — A beauty contest was held in the Milford theater last night and 12-year-old Sharon Knight, a seventh grader at Highland Elementary School, was the winner.

Sponsored by the Huron Valley Boys Club, Sharon competed in the finals with six other little beauties from the area who will make up the queen's court. Ages range from 8 to 15, and there were 39 entries according to the executive director, Gerald Blakeley.

On May 26, Sharon will appear on Ed MacKenzie's television program and he will present her with a jeweled tiara. There will be a coronation ball that same night at the White Lake Town Hall and Sharon will reign over the festivities.

Among the many gifts that she will receive will be a coronation gown to be presented by the Boys Club, a $25 savings bond and many other donations from area merchants.

TO LEAD PARADE

Decoration Day, Sharon will lead a parade beginning in Highland and extending five miles into the village of White Lake.

The eight-year-old Huron Valley Boys Club has a membership of over 200 boys up to 14 years old and "sponsors one of the finest Little League Baseball teams in the country," according to Blakeley.

Annual Dinner Set at Rochester

ROCHESTER—On Thursday, at 7 p.m., the Spring Dinner sponsored by the Men's Club of St. Philip's Episcopal Church, Rochester, and under the direction of Philip Hohl, club president, is to be held in the undercroft of the church.

This is an annual affair at which the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, Bishop of Michigan, is the main speaker. The dinner is not confined solely for the members of the Men's Club, but is open to men and women of the community as well as of the parish.

Tickets are available from any member of the Men's Club or by applying at the church office or calling OLive 6-1661.

"Bishop Emrich is a most dynamic speaker. His many friends in this area are invited to attend," Hohl said.

Metamora Club to Have Displays at Lapeer Meet

METAMORA — Members of the Metamora Hills Extension Club are planning displays at the annual Achievement Day for Lapeer County to be held at the Center Building in Lapeer on Thursday.

Displays are to be in place by 10 a.m., with the opening scheduled for 11 a.m.

A potluck luncheon will be served at noon, followed by a speaker from the Seeing Eye Dog Institute of Rochester at 1:30 p.m.

Avon-Rochester Groups Hold Meeting for Public

ROCHESTER—Seventy-five citizens attended a public meeting here last night pertaining to the proposed incorporation of Rochester as a city and the annexation of certain boundaries of the township. The meeting was called by the Avon Township Board and the Rochester - Avon Protective Committee.

Joseph Parisi, president of the State Township Officers Assn. of Kalamazoo, spoke on "The Right to Govern Ourselves," stressing the preservation of township, county and local government.

METAMORA—Metamore MOMS will meet at the home of their president, Mrs. Cleve Raymond, at 8 p.m. Thursday. Three birthdays are to be celebrated.

Lyon Township Deadline Set

Have to May 21 to File Nominating Petitions for 2 School Trustees

LYON TOWNSHIP — A deadline of May 21 has been announced for filing nominating petitions for candidates for two board of education trustee posts in Lyon Township. Voters will elect the two trustees for three-year terms at a June 11 election.

Petition forms, available at the office of the superintendent of schools, must be in by 4 p.m. on the deadline date, according to Frank Bartlett, superintendent of schools.

In order to be valid, each petition must be signed by more than 25 qualified electors of the district. A qualified elector must be a resident of Michign for six months, and a resident of the district for at least 30 days preceding the election, and be a citizen, 21 years of age or over.

Those who are now serving on the board and whose terms will expire this July 1, are Raymond Braun, trustee, and William I. Markham, who has been serving as the secretary of the Board of Education since the original consolidation took place in the summer of 1947.

Other questions to be voted on at the election will be announced at a later date as will the location and hours the polls will be open, Bartlett said.

Pender Named Police Captain

Waterford Board Okays Promotion; Raise Fees for Building

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Upon recommendations of Police Chief Frank Van Atta, Detective Millard Pender has been promoted to captain of the Waterford Township Police Department here.

He has been with the department since it was started Jan. 1, 1954. Up to the present time there has been no captain in the department. The board approved the promotion and a pay raise of $200 a year for Pender.

Building permit fees and septic tank fees were increased by the Board Monday. The septic tank fees were set at $5.

Building fees are $5 for the first $1,000; $1.50 per 1,000 up to $100,000; $1 per $1,000 from $100,000 up to $500,000; and fifty cents per $1,000 over $500,000.

The township agreed to grant an additional $1,000 to the Recreation Department construction budget. Board also agreed to pay for 35-mph speed limit signs to be placed on Frendes road, from Dixie highway to Hatchery road.

St. Andrew Boosters Sponsor 'Spring Swing'

ROCHESTER — St. Andrew School Booster Club members are sponsoring a "Spring Swing" dance Saturday, in St. Andrew Catholic Church Hall, with both modern and old time square dancing, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

This is one of a series of dances given by the club to raise funds for the school playground equipment.

Mrs. George Garland is general chairman.

Dates have been cultivated in Iraq since before 4,000 B.C.

Tomorrow in Pontiac:

Home Extension Groups to Hold Achievement Day

Home Extension Groups throughout the Oakland County area will take part in an Achievement Day, to be held from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Thursday in the First Congregational Church in downtown Pontiac.

The affair comes as part of the celebration of National Home Demonstration Week, being held through Saturday.

Featured speaker at the meet will be Dr. David Treat of Flint, a noted lecturer on family life. His topic will be "What Women Should Expect of Themselves as Wives and Mothers," and he will talk at 1:30 p.m.

A morning highlight will be a demonstration of various table settings and centerpieces by Hazel Dunlop of the J. L. Hudson Co. Speakers Bureau in Detroit. Also, a parade of buses made in wrokshops will be seen in the morning session.

Exhibits of hobbies as well as work done at club lesson sessions will fill the downstairs hall of the church. Each club will have a central story or theme exemplified in the display, and recognition of outstanding clubs will be part of the fun.

Name Delegates, Slate Installation

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — Latest meeting of the WSCS Executive Board of the Commerce Methodist church resulted in the selection of Mrs. Leonard Griffin and Mrs. Don Steinbrecher as delegates to the Detroit Conference of WSCS to be held May 15 at Michigan State Normal College, Ypsilanti.

The board also scheduled the installation of new officers for May 24, date of its next meeting. Prior to that meeting, the Isabella Thoburn Circle will serve a smorgasbord of sweets at 7:30 p.m.

A financial report revealed that the Kitchen Fund has reached the total of $718.81 to be applied toward the purchase of new kitchen equipment for the new building.

Dinner for Niparko

OAK PARK — A "Niparko for Congress" dinner has been scheduled for the night of May 18 at Sammy's Avalon Room in Oak Park, Democratic committeeman William Neff announced.

The $5 a plate roast beef or fish dinner will be followed by dancing. Niparko, former Hazel Park mayor, is campaigning for the Oakland County congressional nomination as a Democrat.

Illness Strikes--Kind Friends Keep Big Farm Running

By REBA HEINTZELMAN
Milford Correspondent

MILFORD—What happens when a farmer is taken to the hospital unexpectedly when there are 27 pure-bred Holstein cows to be milked, fed and cared for morning and night.

One night two weeks ago an ambulance pulled up in front of Joe Wessinger's farm house on Wixom road and took him to the hospital. He had some kind of an attack and probably, of the hundreds of farmers in the state of Michigan, Joe was the least likely to need hospitalization. Or so he thought!

WORRIES ABOUT FARM

Every kind of test was made to determine Joe's difficulty and for two days he laid in a bed in a hall at Pontiac General hospital, worrying about all of his cows, two children and wife Evelyn.

Four specialists examined Joe at various times and finally after two weeks, he was released. The doctors concluded that he had a virus infection of the inner ear.

What happened in the meantime? When Joe was taken to the hospital, Kenneth Rocker, one of Joe's best friends, was on hand that same morning, along with relatives to take care of the cattle. He organized a "help-Joe" schedule that includes friends, and relatives, young and old alike.

Morning and night, various people come in and do the chores on the 120-acre farm. Most of the men that are on the schedule, have farms of their own and Rocker himself has 30 head of cattle. Among the most faithful helpers has been Ervin Welfare, Charles Curtis, Earl Long and brother-in-laws, Howard Coe and Bud Nelson.

Saturday, 18 teenagers and adults swarmed into Joe's yard with rakes and baskets on a "Clean-Joe's-Lawn-Party." Within one hour the group had the half-acre of beautiful lawn all cleared of winter debris, in spite of a cold rain that drizzled down. The job usually takes the whole Wessinger family four days to complete.

This week, heavy farm equipment is being moved onto the farm. Tractors, corn pickers, plows and spring-tooth drags are lining the barnyard, as neighbors organize to do Joe's spring planting and finish stripping the corn husks.

Mrs. Willard Hartland has organized the women to feed the men, potluck, just as soon as the ground is dry enough to work.

* * *

More bad luck descended on Joe, when, after being home two days, he developed a bad case of pneumonia. This has retarded his recovery some, however, the big farm is still running almost as smoothly as if Joe were on the job.

Farmington Meeting Slated on Race Track

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — A meeting of the Farmington Township Civic Assn. will be held at the Junior High School gym on Thomas stret at 8 p. m. this evening.

The pros and cons of the proposed race track in Farmington Township will be discussed.

The Farmington Assn. of University Women have made a detailed study on the subject and will present their findings. A representative of the track promoters will also be present.

Church to Mark Golden Juiblee

Two Services, Banquet at SS. Peter and Paul to Observe 50th Year

NORTH BRANCH — SS. Peter and Paul Roman Catholic Church will commemmorate its Golden Jubilee here Sunday.

A Solemn Mass of Thanksgiving at 11:30 a.m. will mark the church's 50th anniverseary.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 3:30 in the afternoon will continue the Jubilee observance, and at 7 p.m. a banquet in the church assembly hall will conclude the day's special festivities.

The church property was purchased from the Episcopalian parish here in 1906. The original building, which faced Sherman St., was renovated and turned about to face Banker street.

Some years ago a new wing was added to the west side of the sanctuary and an assembly and recreation hall was constructed in the basement section. Last year a beautiful shrine was dedicated in the grounds at the east.

The Rev. Edward Eobczak is the present pastor.

Farmington Police Get $500 Pay Raise

FARMINGTON — City Manager Earl Scherffeus has announced a $500 annual raise in pay for Farmington policemen.

* * *

The current boost brings officers' salaries to $4,520, still short of the $4600 to $5000 range asked by the policemen at the budget hearing last week.

Quake Shakes Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Two light earth tremors shook Lebanon early today. Preliminary reports said there were no casualties and no material damage. The tremors occurred in the same district as the March 16 earthquake which killed 103 persons and left thousands homeless.

A United Nations report estimates there are between 30 and 40 million refugees in the world today.

Hollywood Headlines:

'Gauntlet' to Become Film Starring William Holden

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — For 10 long years "The Gauntlet," James Street's novel, has been reposing on a Paramount shelf. For some reason it was never made, although there was considerable talk about it at the time it was published.

Now, I hear through the grapevine, Edward Dmytryk has it in his hands and will direct it. The hero, a Protestant minister, is just what Paramount wants for William Holden.

After all Bill's wickedness in "The Proud and Profane," it is time he came back and played one of the heroes for which he is justly famous.

The idea that RKO has for George Gobel sounds very amusing. Goodman Ace has written the story, "So There You Are," and in it George plays a candidate in a Mr. and Mrs. America contest. His wife already has won a beauty award.

According to William Dozier, the picture will start July 16, George will only do one for RKO, and lucky they are to get him for one because "The Birds and the Bees" proved that he has all the charm that he has on TV, which sometimes doesn't happen with a TV star in movies.

ON THE STORK LIST

The Tommy Noonans, who lost an expected baby in September, are again on the stork's calling list and very happy about it. Although the doctor says that Carol will have to remain in bed for three months, she will take his advice and take good care of herself.

Good things seem to be happening to Tommy from all directions. I saw "The Ambassador's Daughter" and he was delightful in it.

Mike Curtiz also saw this and signed Tommy for Mike's "The Best Things in Life Are Free" at 20th. And now Tommy has been borrowed from 20th for the Debbie Reynolds-Eddie Fisher epic, "Bundle of Joy."

"I suppose when I return to the stage," Ethel Merman told me at the Walter Langs, "there will be a lot of talk, but it was a simple decision. My husband, Robert Six, will find that his business takes him more and more to New York, and I don't want to be separated from him.

"Besides," she continued, "I like the book of 'Happy Hunting,' the Lindsay-Crouse musical, so I'm going to do it on Broadway. I'll move the children there and we'll take an apartment. I'm looking for an apartment now, and I leave immediately."

SURPRISING DUO

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: A surprising twosome was Dorothy Malone and Mack Krim at the Graders. Surprising Mack didn't join Kim Novak in Europe.

Were Joan Collins and Sydney Chaplin trying to take up where they left off at Ciro's. Where was Arthur Loew Jr.?

Couldn't get over how much Maria Riva looks like her mother, Marlene Dietrich. Saw her on TV doing a commercial.

The get-together of the clan for Ethel Merman and Robert Six went on until past 6 a. m. Bob brought and barbecued shrimp.

Ann Sothern came with the devoted Bill Andrew. She just has to diet, that girl — she's too pretty to put on so much weight.

21 State Students Win Scholarships

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Twenty-one from Michigan were among 525 winners in the largest private scholarship program in the nation's history.

* * *

The $3,160,000 in college scholarships, with an average worth of more than $6,000 each, were provided by the National Merit Scholarship Corp. and 19 cooperating American corporations.

The winners represent the cream of the nation's 1,300,000 high school seniors. They were selected from among the 60,000 seniors nominated by their high school principals to take the first NMSC test last October.

* * *

Winners were selected because of high scores on college aptitude tests given nationally, leadership and extra-curricular achievement.

To Honor Eleven at City Hospital's Service Dinner

Eleven Pontiac General Hospital employes who have completed 10 years of service will be honored tomorrow night at the hospital's second annual service award dinner.

Gold pins will be presented to the 11 by Miss Lauretta Paul, hospital director, at the dinner to be held at the hospital at 6 p.m.

Those to be honored are: Mrs. Bula Brown, Miss Jean Lunau, Miss Edith Sclering, Mrs. Elsie Clark, Mrs. Beatrice Tomlin, Mrs. Mary Holmberg, Paul Opdycke, Everett Conway, Mrs. Josephine Harlan, Mrs. Ardis Reed, and Miss Katherine Schey.

Also scheduled to be present at the banquet will be the hospital board of trustees, and Dr. Harold Furlong, chief of staff, Mayor William W. Donaldson, and City Manager W. K. Willman.

Four Change Pleas on Robbery Charges

Four men who had stood mute Feb. 27 to charges of armed robbery changed their pleas to guilty at their circuit court trial yesterday.

The four are accused of the $103 robbery Feb. 13 of a Hazel Park woman. They were armed, police said, with two hunting knives and a plastic pistol.

Ronald Gregory, of Detroit; Louis Mallat, Jr., 18245 Roseland Ave., Birmingham; John R. Panzo of Dearborn; and Frank Mallat, of Detroit, all failed to furnish bond of $5,000 and are in Oakland County Jail awaiting sentence by Judge Frank L. Doty May 14.

Gets No Second on Light Move

Commissioner Carry Seeks Traffic Signal at Auburn-Astor

Commissioner John E. Carry (District 6) was alone last night in his bitter fight to get a traffic light installed at the Auburn-Astor intersection to protect school children.

* * *

Two motions by Carry to get the light died from lack of a second by his fellow commissioners.

Mayor William W. Donaldson moved the matter be tabled for one week.

Carry denounced a communication from City Traffic Engineer Theodore M. Vanderstempel, declaring he (Carry) "didn't care what the Michigan Highway Dept. thinks—I'm just trying to save a couple of lives."

* * *

"I want a light there and I'm not worried about policy and I am not ready to compromise," the commissioner angrily shouted.

Vanderstempel's letter, read by Carry last night, said the highway department would not install a light at the intersection, since Astor was an unimproved road.

It added that a light was 450 feet away at the intersection of East boulevard and Auburn avenue.

Planning Meeting Set

The next South Oakland County meeting will be held June 6 in Birmingham Municipal Building, chairman Herbert Herzberg said yesterday. Herzberg said a previous notice of the date was incorrect.

Earnings

NEW YORK (AP)—Radio Corp. of America set record first-quarter sales of $274,848,000, an increase of more than $18½ million over the first three months of 1955. David Sarnoff, board chairman, told the annual stockholders meeting yesterday. Net profits rose to $12,727,000, equal to 85 cents a share from $12,568,000 or 84 cents a share in the year-ago quarter. Income before taxes amounted to $25,395,000, an increase of $310,000 over the same period last year. The 1956 first-quarter revenues from foreign business were higher than for any comparable period on record, Sarnoff said. He reported that unfilled government orders on April 1 totaled $265 million and that RCA would deliver equipment valued at $229 million to the government this year, about the same as in 1955. Sarnoff declared RCA's volume of business in 1955 had reached $1,055,286,000, placing it in the select circle of billion-dollar companies for the first time.

NEW YORK (AP)—R H Macy & Co Inc reports that for 52 weeks ended Jan. 28 it had net income of $6,302,335, equal to $3.04 a common share, compared with $5,414,012, or $2.52 a share, for the preceding 52 weeks.

Order of Moose Installs Officers; Murphy Is Head

Whitney Murphy was installed as governor and Bernard Donlan assumed the duties of junior governor as the Loyal Order of Moose of Pontiac held its installation of officers at the Moose Temple recently.

Other officers honored were: John Baxter, past governor; Lloyd Labarge, prelate; Edgar Labarge, secretary; Percy Murphy, sergeant of arms; James March, inner guard; James Sargent, outer guard; and William Dobson, Vernon Taylor, and James Decker, trustees.

The new governor appointed a house committee which included Jerry Hould, Keith Nickerson, and James Van Scoyoc.

The installating officers were M. G. Kellogg, past governor, and James March. Outgoing governor Baxter was presented the traditional Moose ring.

Each officer talked briefly on the past and future of the lodge, pointing out the activities and accomplishments. The program concluded with a buffet lunch.

Pick William Wright for National Board

The National Board of United Cerebral Palsy announced the appointment of William G. Wright, director of special education for the Pontiac School system and principal of Linda Vista School, as a representative director to the board.

The Pontiac educator is also on the Board of Michigan United Cerebral Palsy. He lives at 184 Chippewa.

Announcement of his appointment coincides with the beginning of May, which has been designated as United Cerebral Palsy Month.

United Cerebral Palsy is supported locally by the Pontiac Area United Fund. The agency in turn conducts speech and physical therapy work for cerebral palsy victims in the area.

Cerebral palsy is a disruption of the speech and muscular controls of an individual caused by damage to the motor center of the brain. There are approximately 550,000 cerebral palsy victims in the United States.

In Critical Condition After Scaffold Fall

Robert Young, 28, of Detroit, was reported in critical condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital today as the result of a fall from a scaffold while doing construction work in Novi Tuesday.

Dr. Edward Gates said the man had suffered a "very severe head injury" in the drop.

The accident occurred yesterday afternoon. Young was working on a new automobile assembly plant. He fell 18 feet.

Waives Examination on Auto Theft Count

Arrested after driving a reportedly stolen auto in a crackup in Lake Orion last week, Gordon K. Dewey, 18, of 841 Stanley St. yesterday waived esamination on a charge of unlawfully driving away an automobile.

He was bound over for appearance Monday in Oakland County Circuit Court and remanded to jail under $1,000 bond set by Pontiac Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

Mixed Market Stars Aircrafts

NEW YORK (AP)—Aircrafts were strong today in a mixed stock market.

* * *

Prices in the early afternoon covered extremes of around 2 points higher to 3 points lower.

* * *

Trading was not expecially outstanding and reached a pace of about 2,400,000 shares for the day. That compares with 2,500,000 shares traded in yesterday's generally lower market.

* * *

Aircrafts came to life in the middle of the morning and posted good gains all around. There were several bits of encouraging news from Washington defense centers.

Aluminum issues were on the lower side of the list with profit-taking on recent strength assigned cause for the setback.

The steels were fairly steady as were the motors, with the exception of a weaker Chrysler, while the coppers were higher along with the railroads and many oils.

Man Waives Hearing on Concealed Gun Count

Charged with carrying a concealed .32 caliber revolver, Saturino R. Velez, 27, of 28 S. Paddock St. yesterday waived examination and was bound over for arraignment Monday in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Pontiac Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan freed Velez under $100 bond.

Police claimed Velez had the gun in his possession when arrested Sunday night in a downtown bar.

Business Notes

G. E. McNeive, manager of material handling and production control for GMC Truck and Coach Division, will outline modern material handling practices on May 17th in New York City at a conference of the Society for Advancement of Management.

He will cover trends toward mechanization in material handling and the greater profit potentials of an up-to-date handling program, and summarize conference findings at the conclusion of the two-day program.

Bean Futures Forced Lower

CHICAGO (AP) — A heavy wave of profit-taking swept over the high flying soybean futures on the Board of Trade today, forcing prices sharply lower.

Most other cereals also declined in active dealings. May wheat, down more than four cents yesterday, was an exception. It made a small gain. In the early trade, new crop corn futures advanced but they later turned downward with the rest of the market.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ¾ lower to ⅜ higher, May $2.31⅞; corn ⅝ to 1⅛ lower, May $1.53½; oats ¼ to ½ lower, May 65¾; rye ¼ to ¾ lower, May $1.27¾; soybeans 3⅛ to 6¼ lower, May $3.28, and lard unchanged to 30 cents a hundred pounds lower, May $14.35.

Proposals will be received up to 7:30 p.m. Eastern Standard Time Wednesday, May 23, 1956, at the offices of the Board of Education, located in Clarkston Elementary School, Waldon Road, Clarkston, Michigan, at which time the bids will be publicly opened and read aloud and taken under advisement by the Board.

ACCESS TO PLANS:

Plans are on file for reference at the following locations:

The Builders and Traders Exchange, Detroit, Michigan

F. W. Dodge Corporation, Detroit, Michigan

Office of the Architect, Pontiac, Michigan.

DEPOSIT ON PLANS:

Deposit of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars for each set of plans and specifications secured from the Architect, same to be refunded upon return of plans and specifications in good condition within ten (10) days after opening date of bids.

PROPOSAL GUARANTEE

Proposals must be submitted in duplicate, on forms, furnished by the Architect. A certified check or properly executed bid bond, made payable to the Treasurer, Clarkston Community School District, Clarkston, Michigan, in an amount equal to five (5%) per cent of the bid as liquidated damage, in case of failure on the part of the successful bidder to execute the contract and furnish the necessary Surety Bonds, within ten (10) days after notice of acceptance of proposal.

Accepted bidders will be required to furnish in accordance with the laws of the State of Michigan, satisfactory Performance and Labor and Material Bonds for one hundred (100%) per cent of the contract.

All proposals submitted shall hold firm the prices quoted for a period of thirty (30) days from the date set for the receiving of proposals.

RIGHT RESERVED BY OWNER

The owner reserves the right to waive any irregularities, reject any and/or all bids, or accept any bid when in the opinion of the Board, such action will serve the best interest of the Clarkston Community School District.

WALTON T. ROBBINS,
Secretary.

Youngster Bumps Head in Fall From Truck

Falling yesterday morning from the rear end of a bakery truck on which he "hitched" a ride, Johnny Ray, 7, of 12 Clovese St. suffered only a forehead bump, Pontiac police said.

The lad told them he slipped as he tried to jump off at the corner of Lane and Gillespie streets. The driver, Gerald K. Dudgeon, 53, of Detroit, said he had already warned the boy and a friend about climbing on the truck.

Anyone Want Siamese Twin Pigs for Pets?

PLATTEVILLE, Ill. (AP) —Ellis Hampson is wondering what to with 3-day-old Samese twin pigs, borne by a crossbred sow along with 15 normal brothers and sisters.

• • •

"I hate to think of killing them," he said. "They seem to be as healthy and lively as any pigs we have, but they are joined at the chest and can't walk.

"My wife Marjorie and I have been feeding them milk from a bottle every half hour, but we can't keep that up for long.

• • •

"It beats me. What would you do with them if they were your

Public Servant's Help Costs Loiterer $25 Fee

BALTIMORE (AP)—Patrolman Joseph Jones told Criminal Court he found Adam Zamencki, 39, creating a disturbance outside the accident ward of Johns Hopkins Hospital and warned him to leave quietly.

"You are nothing but a public servant and I want service," Zamencki was quoted as replying.

"I gave it to him," said Jones. Zamencki was fined $25 for disorderly conduct.

Cripple on Probation for Stripping Vehicles

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Le F. Whaley, 19, who virtually lives in a wheel chair, was put on three years probation for stripping automobiles from his vehicle.

He had pleaded guilty.

Whaley, whose legs have been paralyzed and useless since a childhood accident, was ordered to attend a trade school and to pay $1,743 to the owners of cars he stripped.

Check Your Clothing on Sending to Cleaner

BLOOMFIELD, N.J. (AP)—Do you leave coins and other items n the pockets of garments sent to the cleaners?

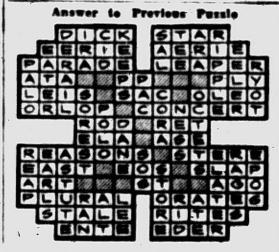

If so, don't feel bad. A man here left $1,800 in a suit coat pocket.

A shocked cleaning shop clerk found the wad and returned it to the patron. The shop withheld the patron's name because "it might prove embarrassing."

Sad Story Repeated

CROWHEART, Wyo. (AP) — The Harold Winchester ranchhouse near Crowheart was destroyed by fire forcing four of seven children into sub-zero weather. It was old stuff to the Winchesters. The same thing happened at the same site seven years ago.

Video Is Boon to Entertainers

Phil Stunned by Impact; Milton Views Medium From Experience

This is the third of six behind-the-scenes articles on TV's first 10 years, with stars telling how the fabulous medium has changed their lives.

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
INS Staff Writer

TV is the "dream medium" of show business.

• • •

Performers such as Phil Silvers, the new TV star, and Milton Berle, famous old-timer, agree that television is creating opportunities for talented entertainers to a degree never before known in the profession.

Both Silvers and Berle can talk authoritatively about TV and what it can do for a performer.

Berle, often referred to as "Mr. TV" when he was going real big, is a veteran of 342 live hour television shows in the past eight years. He's been through the mill.

• • •

Newcomer Silvers, on the other hand, is this season's "find" on TV although—like Berle—he had many years of experience in theaters and night clubs before trying the new medium.

ZOOMS TO STARDOM

Silvers plunged into TV as late as last fall. As Sergeant Bilko, he zoomed to stardom in the top-rated comedy series, "You'll Never Get Rich."

• • •

"I imagine," said Silvers in giving this writer his views on television "that the impact of the industry's growth has been gradual for the early birds like the Ed Sullivans, the Bennys, the Lucille Balls, the Garroways or the Robert Montgomerys. But to a newcomer like myself, the effect is staggering.

"A few weeks after my first broadcast I was suddenly plunged into the study of audience ratings, reviews, agency surveys, newspaper clippings, bags of fan mail.

"Then came the stunning realization of what TV really is, how fast it has developed into the greatest mass entertainment medium of all time.

• • •

"There's no doubt TV belongs to the jet-propelled age. And the way it's going, it's moving at sound-barrier-breaking speed. Tomorrow, audiences will be 100 million or more."

AS MILTIE SEES IT

Berle, of course, is just as articulate as Silvers about TV.

Berle, in an affectionate tone, characterized TV as a material-eating "monster." He said that when he started on TV in 1948 they were betting he'd exhaust all his material and that it would be only a question of time before he'd be off the medium.

"In the eight years I've been on TV I've used up over 4,000 acts," Berle continued. "You can see what a monster TV is in eating up material.

"TV has made me nationally known. Before I came into the medium, I was known to many people as a result of my years on Broadway, on the radio, in the movies and in nightclubs. But it took TV to make me really known from coast to coast."

• • •

Berle said his strenuous career has been hard on him socially and in his home life.

FAMILY NEGLECTED

"I haven't had time to enjoy myself," he went on. "I haven't been able to spend enough time with my wife and child (Vickie, aged 11.) I'm a normally healthy guy but working as hard as I have—the rat race of producing, directing and starring in my own show—does something to you."

• • •

Berle remarked that his first show in 1948 cost $12,000, including actors, music, scenery, etc. Now, he said, a Berle show costs around $232,000.

"I'm a pioneer in TV," said Berle. "I most certainly have served my apprenticeship. Now I'm looking forward to the time when I can take it easier."

Berle, it is understood, has signed an agreement with NBC to headline not more than four hour-long, top-budgeted programs during the 1956-57 season.

June 6-7 Date Selected

Clinic on Cerebral Palsy Is Slated

Parents of cerebral palsied children who want to learn the proper treatment for their children will have the opportunity June 6-7 when one of the country's six specialists in the field will conduct a clinic here.

* * *

A diagnostic clinic, free to the parents, will be conducted by Dr. Meyer A. Perlstein of Chicago on the scheduled dates, Wednesday and Thursday from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. in Stevens Hall in All Saints Episcopal Church.

* * *

Oakland County Society for Crippled Children, the Easter Seal agency, in cooperation with the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Disabled Adults will sponsor the clinic.

Any child in the county is welcome, said Mrs. Elizabeth Kirkby, executive director of the Crippled Children's Society. Parents must have a written request or referral from their family doctor in order to undergo examination, she said.

Examinations will be by appointment only. Applications are being taken daily at society headquarters, 152 W. Lawrence St., Pontiac, until May 29.

DR. MEYER A. PERLSTEIN

Mrs. Kirkby revealed that she will arrange transportation to the clinic for those who need it. However, she reminded, persons must call and make arrangements for this before the May 29 deadline.

* * *

Dr. Perlstein is a charter member and was first secretary for the Academy for Cerebral Palsy; is a member of the Medical Advisory Council on Cerebral Palsy to the National Crippled Children's Society; and is a consultant to the Division of Services for Crippled Children at the University of Illinois.

* * *

He is also chairman of the Medical Committee of the Michael Reese Cerebral Palsy Therapeutic Nursery; chairman of the Medical Advisory Board of the Illinois Hospital School; medical director of the Children's Neurological Clinic of Cook County and on the pediatrics staff of Northwestern University.

Army's Rocket Gadget to Aid Foxhole Diggers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army is developing a rocket-powered gadget to take some of the labor out of digging foxholes.

It's something like a bazooka and is light enough to carry conveniently. The digger is in the engineering phase.

Plans for the device were outlined by Army spokesmen before the House Appropriations Committee, which made their testimony public today.

Quaker Mentor Resigns

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Ray Stanley, who coached the University of Pennsylvania basketball team to one first-place tie and one second-place in Ivy League competition in his two years as mentor, has resigned.

Spirit Was Willing

MARTINEZ, Calif. (INS) — Contractor J. M. McChesney, 47, was sentenced to prison for one to five years for passing a $199.99 worthless check, despite this plea: "I didn't have a checking account at the time, but I expected to open one soon."

April Weather Called 'Just About Normal'

DETROIT (INS) — The Weather Bureau said today that April in Detroit was just about normal as far as weather was concerned.

The Bureau said average temperatures during the month were only seven-tenths of a degree below normal and total rainfall was only .87 of an inch above normal.

Sault Locks Free

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP) — Heavy rains and easterly winds have cleared virtually all ice from the Sault Locks and Whitefish Bay. Shipping now is back to normal after two weeks of intermittent tieups.

Ore Movement Total

CLEVELAND (AP) — Iron ore movement, slowed somewhat by ice conditions in the Soo locks and the sinking of the A. M. Byers in the St. Clair River channel, totaled 2,274,874 tons in the week ended yesterday. The Lake Superior Iron Ore Assn. said that total raised the 1956 tonnage to 5,421,566, compared with 3,498,603 tons in 1955 to this date.

Norwegian retail sales in 1955 rose by 5.5 per cent in rural districts and 4.2 per cent in urban centers.

Industry, Civic Leaders Set for Michigan Week

LANSING (INS) — Henry Ford II, Walter Reuther, Harlow M. Curtice and Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart were among 107 top state industrial and civic leaders just named to the 1956 Michigan Week executive board.

Michigan Week will be observed May 20-26 and will feature a one-day exchange of mayors and village presidents.
