Senate OKs Bill to Circumvent 5th Amendment

Measure Will Furnish Immunity to Witnesses in Subversion Probes

WASHINGTON (J N S)—The Senate passed today the administration's bill to give immunity from prosecution to witnesses who cooperate in anti-Communist probes.

The bill, approved by voice vote, is the first major measure in Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr.'s Communist control program to win congressional approval.

It is aimed at halting the practice of witnesses before congressional committees who invoke the Fifth Amendment and refuse to testify on grounds of possible self-incrimination.

The legislation empowers federal courts, at the request of a congressional committee or a U. S. attorney, to grant immunity to witnesses provided the attorney general is notified in advance.

If a witness who had balked at testifying still refused to answer questions after he was granted immunity, he then would be subject to possible contempt prosecution.

Sen. Herbert Lehman (D-NY) objected to the Senate action on grounds that senators had not been given a chance to study changes made in the original legislation by the House.

The bill, passed by the House last week, differs sharply from both the legislation approved by the Senate last year and the proposal originally made by Brownell.

The initial Senate bill would have given Congress the final say on granting immunity and would have applied to any type of congressional investigation. Brownell had asked that the attorney general have sole power to grant immunity.

Under the bill which goes to the White House, a congressional committee by a two-thirds majority vote could apply for a court order to grant immunity, but first would have to notify the attorney general.

A U. S. attorney, with the approval of the attorney general also could apply to federal courts for an immunity order for witnesses ap.

Doctors Drown Near Petoskey

2 Michigan Physicians Die in Tragic Climax to Farewell Dinner

PETOSKEY (U)—Two Michigan physicians drowned Tuesday night in a tragic climax to a vacation farewell dinner for one of them. Their wives and another couple were rescued.

The victims were Dr. Donald Beaver, 59, of Women's Hospital, Detroit, and Dr. Harris Lilga, 44, of Boyne City.

Police said the party of six was returning to the Beaver cottage on Walloon Lake after dinner at a resort hotel. The Beavers' cabin cruiser struck a rock marker buoy a half mile from shore and started to take water.

In the excitement, officers said, Dr. Beaver apparently suffered a heart attack. He was revived but a few minutes later stood up in the boat and fell overboard.

Dr. Lilga drowned while attempting to reach shore. His wife, a strong swimmer, succeeded in reaching safety and summoned help. A cottager put out in a boat and rescued Mrs. Beaver and Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Litzenger of Boyne City, the other two members of the party.

Neither body was recovered. The dinner was in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Beaver who were returning shortly to Detroit after a vacation at their cottage on the lake. Dr. Beaver has been prominent in the area for many years.

Ike Is Against Split With Reds

Severing of Diplomatic Ties Would Not Benefit U.S., Gen. Clark Told

WASHINGTON (U)—President Eisenhower said today the United States could not possibly serve its interests by severing diplomatic relations with Russia.

The President also told a news conference the free world is building up a structure which he believes will be impervious to any Communist assault.

As for waging a preventive war against the Communist world, as some people have urged, Eisenhower said there is no such thing as a preventive war—that it would be unthinkable for this country to undertake such a project.

Eisenhower's remarks came in connection with a request for comments on views expressed by Gen. Mark W. Clark.

Clark, retired former U.S. commander in the Far East, told the Senate Internal Security subcommittee yesterday that he favored breaking relations with Russia and reorganizing the United Nations to exclude the Soviet Union.

Eisenhower said he feels that, in general, many world tensions have eased in the last couple of years and the free world now

15-Year-Old Rochester Girl Will Reign Over 4-H Fair

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE

A 15-year-old, green-eyed queen will reign over this year's 4-H Fair which opened last night before the largest first-night fair crowd in Oakland County 4-H history.

The fair continues through Saturday afternoon. Nancy Kathleen Johnson, Rochester High School sophomore, a tall brunette who entered the contest because no one else from her 4-H club was eligible, was selected by the judges from a bevy of 4-H beauties.

Each entrant, in order to qualify for the queen's role, must be 15 years old, wear a cotton dress and have a summer project on exhibit at the fair. Each 4-H club is entitled to one candidate. Queen Nancy has a food project on display and has entered a 4-H club girl exhibit.

Farm Plan Sure of Being Law

Last Night's Senate Vote Passed New Bill by 62-28 Margin

WASHINGTON (U)—An administration plan for farm price supports which would move up or down as stocks on hand vary was certain of enactment into law today following 62-28 Senate passage last night of a big new farm bill.

The Senate Monday night okayed the same 82½-90 per cent range passed by the House, so that will not be an issue in the conference committee, but there are a number of other points of difference which must be ironed out. Approval of the compromise by both branches is deemed to send the measure to the White House.

"Our toughest job will be acceptance of the Senate version of supports on dairy products," said Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.), chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee and head of its conferees.

After a hard-fought Senate floor fight, Aiken won approval of the order of Secretary of Agriculture Benson for a reduction to 75 per cent of parity in government supports on butter, cheese and dried milk. The order took effect last April 1, and the House voted to lift dairy supports to 80 per cent of parity on Sept. 1.

GM to Expand Proving Ground Office Facilities

Program Also Includes Garage, Parking Lot, Fuels Laboratories

A major building expansion program which will add nearly 70,000 square feet of floor space to present facilities is under way at the 3,863-acre General Motors Proving Ground at Milford, it was announced today by Charles A. Chayne, GM vice president in charge of engineering staff.

Construction of a new building to house administrative and general offices will start in September. Its main section will have two stories and a full basement, of steel and reinforced concrete construction. External walls will be of glass and enameled steel panels.

Attached to this administrative building will be a one-story wing with a spacious lobby and quarters to be occupied by the plant protection, communications and medical departments.

Garage space for fire trucks, ambulance and emergency service cars is incorporated in the structure connecting the two units of the administration building, forming an L shaped building with a total floor area of 55,500 square feet.

This building will be located approximately 30 feet east of the existing gatehouse which will be dismantled upon completion of new construction.

The area between the new administration building and the garages, a total of 450 feet, will be converted to a traffic control circular roadway. It will be the terminal for the seven main test roads and access roads to all garages which converge at this location.

A new, 400-car parking lot for employees will be constructed north of the administration building. Pedestrian traffic between the administration building, main entrance gate, parking lot, and the garages will be through a tunnel under the traffic control circle.

A new entrance gatehouse, to serve both the military and commercial proving grounds, will be erected north of the intersection of General Motors and Hickory Ridge Rds. All traffic to and from the proving ground will clear at this gate.

A group of three special fuels laboratories and storage and dispensing buildings now is under construction near the test track. They will have a total of 22,240 square feet of floor space.

The floor space of the administration building and fuels laboratories will bring total square feet of floor space at the Milford ground, Desert Proving Ground, Arizona, and Pike's Peak Engineering Test Headquarters, Colorado, to 509,147.

Group Will Ask That Tax Plan Be Resubmitted

Supervisors to Study Idea, Meet on Aug. 23; Last Proposal Lost

A special committee decided today to ask Oakland County supervisors to resubmit a tax plan for financing a new county courthouse to voters Nov. 2.

The 10-member body also indicated that a legal question may require another vote on the proposed $4,500,000 bond issue that apparently was passed in the Aug. 3 primary election.

The tax proposal for a half mill tax increase to guarantee retirement of the bonds was defeated in the primary. Construction of the combination courthouse and office building hinged on passage of both proposals.

The Board of Supervisors is scheduled to hold a special meeting Aug. 23 in the County Office Building to consider the recommendation.

In a meeting this morning, with Claude Stevens, Detroit bond attorney, the county's special building committee passed the resolution recommending another vote on the tax program.

Members also asked for a legal study of the bond issue vote, after Stevens pointed out the legal entanglement might nullify its passage.

He pointed out that the bond issue might require a majority vote of the ballots issued, not just the ballots cast. Thus, if many ballots were spoiled, the "yes" votes tallied might not be enough to pass the proposal.

In the unofficial primary tabulation, the bond proposal carried by a 20,485 to 18,529 vote.

During the discussion H. Lloyd Clawson of Royal Oak, courthouse committee chairman, said, "Our

John Explains Flight to Reds

Ex-Bonn Security Chief Tells Press He Wants to Warn Against U.S.

BERLIN (U)—Dr. Otto John declared today he went over voluntarily to the Communists in order to warn the world against what he called U.S. plans for a new war which would destroy Germany. He said he is now going to work for peace.

John told a news conference in the Soviet sector of Berlin he deserted as West Germany's security chief on July 20 to expose what he termed revival of Nazism in West Germany and to tell the "real truth" about the European Defense Community treaty.

Appearing before more than 400 correspondents of the world press, John declared he went over to the Reds to join what he described as the only forum he could find to warn the world the United States is using Britain, France and the Bonn regime as "tools" for another war which would destroy Germany.

In Bonn, Allied and West German officials plunged into special conferences to consider the impact of John's own statement he had voluntarily deserted to the East.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government and the U. S. High Commission had contended John was lured or tricked into East Germany by the Communists.

Naturally dressed, nervous for a while but finally at ease, John read a long, prepared statement and then jostled with correspondents in a rapid fire question and answer period.

He answered them all, in his way, quietly and firmly, with one exception.

Asked about the wife he abruptly left behind when he crossed into the Soviet sector the night of July 20, John said he would not discuss private matters.

Press Writer Tours 'Newsprint Country'

By JOE HAAS
(Pontiac Press Staff Writer)

VANCOUVER, British Columbia—The ultimate consumer of print paper—and that means most everybody, including you—may be surprised to learn that very commodity is in a top place in Canada industry.

The paper on which you are reading these printed lines was made in Canada. That's where 75 per cent of the newsprint used by the newspapers of the United States comes from.

In that part of our nation where most of the newsprint is used over 85 per cent of it comes from Canada. That's where the newsprint

JOE HAAS
ada. That's where the newsprint for the Pontiac Press comes from.

This paper's supply comes from mills in the Quebec area, but the greater volume of the Dominion's production has a further west source of supply in its raw material.

Newsprint is made from wood pulp, of which Canada apparently has an almost inexhaustible supply. In our own nation wood pulp is dwindling.

The major portion of a 3,000-mile trip on a railroad that crosses the continent farther north than any other means of land transportation is through a forest of trees of varieties that make good newsprint.

In this area, fir, spruce, cedar and several kinds of pine are predominant. The palsied aspen, the white birch and several members of the willow family are found everywhere.

The maples, elms, ash and nut bearing trees are scarce, also that sturdy tree for which Oakland County was named. It seems that Canada's forests were made to produce newsprint.

Large trees are very scarce. The logs going to the paper mills mostly ranging from three inches to a foot in diameter. Most of the larger ones long since have gone into lumber.

In the region 200 or more miles above Lake Superior there is a single branch railroad line that hauls out 200 carloads of newsprint every day. Another branch line brings out 100 carloads every day, and there are several other mills making from 25 to 75 carloads daily.

In addition to having these great forests, Canada also has a water supply to provide ample means for the making of paper. Water plays a prominent part in the manufacturing process. At the mills they say that a thousand tons of water is required to produce one ton of paper.

This water largely comes from the numerous streams on which the enormous rafts of logs are floated down to the paper mills, so water thus fills a double purpose. Log rafts 10 to 20 acres in extent are a common sight.

While the forests of Eastern Canada give way to the wheat and other grain fields in the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, they resume with much vigor here in British Columbia, and newsprint again becomes a major product.

Mills on the coast of British Columbia make most of the paper used by the newspapers of our western states.

It is claimed that over 100,000 men are employed in Canada's paper industry, in its various phases between the tree cutters and trimmers and the finished product.

In recent years it has become a highly mechanized industry. The brawny woodsman has passed out. He no longer swings an axe or pulls a cross-cut saw.

That work is done by gasoline power, often far away from any other means of power. The woodsman is not the tough customer of bygone days. The men now trim off the limbs with power trimmers, much on the same principle as the barber trims your hair.

The same portable power saw cuts the tree into convenient lengths. A winch on the truck lifts the logs aboard. Even the old fashioned canthook is used very little.

Log rolling in the water is rarely practiced, as most of the logs are too small to support a man. They are assembled by men using pike poles and working from a boat. Outside logs are chained together.

Acting Postmaster Bids for Permanent Position at Office in Birmingham

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM — Acting Postmaster Roland W. Reese said yesterday he will be one of those making application to the U. S. Civil Service Commission for the regular job of postmaster here.

He added that he would like to hold his position for at least a year.

Announcement came from the commission yesterday that applications for the $6,370 a year position will be accepted until Aug. 31.

No written test is given, but applicants are rated on a competitive basis, on evaluation of their business or professional experience and training, along with general fitness.

Persons competing must have several years of experience indicating the ability to direct, manage and efficiently operate a large business.

A one-year residency is required and those applying must be between the ages of 30 and 63.

Reese was named acting postmaster two months ago, when Bernard E. Fowler was relieved of his duties. Fowler had been in charge of the office for almost six years.

One of the biggest affairs of the Lions Club, the annual family picnic, is being held tonight at Springdale Park. Wives and children of the members start gathering at the park at 5 p. m. and a 6:30 dinner will be prepared and served by the Lions only.

Games, rides and other entertainment are planned for the evening.

The only overnight trip included in this portion of the YMCA Da-Y program got under way this morning when youngsters, carrying sleeping bags, swim suits and the other necessities of outdoor life, headed for Kensington Park. They will be back home by 5 p. m. tomorrow.

Much wrangling transpired at this week's City Commission meeting.

to keep the raft from breaking up.

Through the major part of Canada's paper pulp country there is no other industry, no farming, no clearings and no population for hundreds of miles, except the habitations of the railroad maintenance workers. We have no area in the United States to come near matching it.

Perhaps the Canadians learned a lesson from their neighbors to the south. We devastated our forests, with apparently little concern for future generations. As a result, our timber is mostly gone and our paper pulp material threatened.

In most of Canada's provinces they now have laws that compel anybody who destroys a tree to plant at least one seedling in its place. In some areas these young trees already have a good start at replenishing the virgin forest.

The writer thinks the Canadians are smart.

Crosby Admits Senate Defeat

Governor of Nebraska Concedes With Third of State Votes Counted

OMAHA (INS) — Gov. Robert Crosby conceded Nebraska's GOP senatorial nomination to Rep. Carl Curtis today with only a third of the state's precincts counted.

Crosby conceded the nomination to the full six-year Senate term when returns from 669 precincts out of 2,110 precincts showed Curtis leading by a 4 to 3 margin with 19,333 votes to 13,583 for Crosby.

On the Democratic side, former Gov. Keith Neville held a 2 to 1 lead over two opponents, Joseph Benesch and Edward Dosek. Neville had 11,416 votes to 5,276 for Benesch and 5,198 for Dosek.

Curtis and Crosby campaigned on similar platforms, both coming out for the administration's program of flexible farm price supports, the Bricker amendment and the Byrd-Bridges amendment to balance the budget.

Curtis, however, had claimed the backing of the late Sen. Hugh Butler, who was extremely popular with Nebraska voters and this is believed to have given him the edge.

The deaths of Butler, Sen. Kenneth Wherry and Wherry's successor, former Gov. Dwight Griswold, left both Nebraska Senate seats open and made for an unprecedented situation which necessitates the election of three senators in November.

Candidates to fill the four years remaining on Butler's term were unopposed. They are Democrat James Green, an Omaha attorney, and Republican Congresswoman Roman Hruska.

A short-term to fill the final two months of Wherry's term, however, attracted 16 Republican and three Democratic candidates. Mrs. George P. Abel of Lincoln led the GOP ticket by a large margin and former state Democratic chairman William Meier of Minden appeared to be the Democratic winner.

In the gubernatorial race, former Lincoln Mayor Victor Anderson won the Republican nomination over Lancaster County Attorney Frederick Wagner and former state Democratic Chairman William Ritchie of Omaha appeared to be the Democratic winner.

Three quonset huts and 12 tents than 70 dealers are participating in the fair, showing everything from modern construction materials and methods to electrical equipment and home furnishings.

Tonight at 7:30 the annual parade of clubs with their colorful floats will take place on the fairgrounds, followed by a recreation program including the pig scramble.

Thursday's program includes hog, sheep and beef judging, and beef showmanship. The dress review, with girls modeling their own designs, will be staged Thursday night at 8.

On Friday, the tractor field day program is scheduled, with the machinery parade and 4-H amateur program during the evening. An all-day horse show on Saturday climaxes the annual event.

15-Year-Old Shoots Youth in Revenge

DETROIT (UP)—Police said today a 15-year-old boy has admitted shooting an 18-year-old youth because he "knocked down one of my buddies."

The youth, Kevin Martin, was in Receiving Hospital with a hip wound. His condition was listed as "temporarily serious."

Lt. William Sterla of the Palmer Park Station said he picked up the 15-year-old on a "hunch" and the boy admitted the shooting under questioning. Sterla said the boy told him he went to his home and got a .22-caliber pistol Tuesday night when his friend complained that Martin attacked him.

Sterla said juvenile authorities may be asked to waive jurisdiction in the case. He said eight other persons believed to have seen the shooting were being held as police witnesses.

Ex-President 'Glad' to Help Republicans

reporter asked him if he intends to make any campaign speeches this fall.

"I have no specific plans," he said, "but I'll be glad to help in any way I can."

Hoover's appearance, on his 80th birthday, deeply surprised people who had not seen him in some years. He was full of vigor. He marched through a warm sun, delivered a lengthy speech without a falter, rode dusty miles to dedicate schools in Iowa City and West Branch — and was still in a joking mood at the end of a long day.

"Some people have to endow a school to have it named after them," he told a crowd at a new elementary school. "I am more fortunate."

The force with which he attacked the actions of the Democrats, and the applause he evoked, showed that he is still capable of taking part in a political affray.

Among the major points he made were:

1. "Unrestrained presidential actions have resulted in a shrinking of human freedom over the whole world. From these actions came the perils of the cold war. As a by-product, these actions have shrunk our freedoms by crushing taxes, huge defense costs, inflation and compulsory military service."
2. "Our tacit alliance with Soviet Russia spread communism over the earth."
3. "More terrible were such agreements as our recognition of Russia which opened the headgates for a torrent of traitors."
4. American "acquiescence" in Soviet annexationist policy "extinguished the liberties of tens of millions of people" in Poland, the Baltic states, Mongolia, North Korea and China.
5. These actions were a "misuse of power."
6. Socialist doctrines had gained headway in the United States, and elsewhere in the world; the Socialists "furnished the boarding ladders by which the Communists captured the ship of state."
7. Individual initiative, enterprise and courage are stifled by Socialist doctrine and practice.
8. "Spies and traitors, when exposed, sought sanctuary for their infamies in the Fifth Amendment. Such a plea of immunity is an admission of guilt."
9. What the nation needs now is "to restore the checks and balances of power, to reinvigorate state and local governments, and to deflate bureaucratic empires."

Hoover charged that during the 20 years immediately after his administration the White House "encroached" on both the legislative and judicial branches of government.

The whole speech was one of the strongest attacks on the Democrats since the 1952 presidential campaign.

pearing before grand juries or in court trials.

The bill would limit the immunity, however, to witnesses at proceedings involving the national security such as treason, sabotage, espionage, sedition, or conspiracy to overthrow the government.

Still pending in the Senate are other House-passed measures requested by "Brownell in his drive to tighten controls on Communist activities."

These include legislation to legalize use of wire-tapping evidence in court trials, strip citizenship from convicted Reds, and provide the death penalty for peacetime spying.

The wire-tapping bill is tied up in the Senate Judiciary Committee, but the Senate is expected to approve the other two measures before Congress adjourns.

The estate lies north of Lakeville Lake in northeast Oakland County. One part of the property borders that lake.

Seventy-acre Shadow Lake is located on the property. The estate also boasts a 75-foot-long swimming pool.

Buildings include a main English Manor home which has hand-hewn window casings and lead windows. The 23 x 48-foot living room has a plank pegged oak floor, a natural log-burning fireplace and a ceiling of heavy hand-hewn oak beams.

Its 18 x 20-foot dining room, floored with flagstone, overlooks the lake and pool. Servant quarters are located in the main home.

Other buildings include a two-bedroom guest house, and a four-car garage near the entrance to the property.

There are three farm houses. Barns and other out-buildings are about a quarter of a mile from the main home.

The sale was handled by Clarence Knechtel of the Pontiac real estate firm.

Dem Strategy Confab Ends

Map Senate Campaign During 2-Day Meeting at Williams' Home

LANSING (AP) — Michigan Democratic leaders came out of a two-day strategy conference last night exuding fight, confidence and plans.

Party big-wigs met in the home of Gov. Williams so that details of their plans would not leak to enemy Republicans.

It was the first top party strategy conference attended by Patrick V. McNamara of Detroit since he won the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senator.

McNamara said, "Events of the past few days and these thoroughly constructive meetings with party leaders mean, in my opinion, that the Democratic Party has served notice on the Republicans that they had better run for cover in November."

"It becomes more apparent daily," he said, "that the Democratic Party is dedicated to a complete victory this fall. The Republicans have shown, since the moment they took office, that they represent only the giant financiers and corporations. The people of Michigan now know that their party is the Democratic Party."

Williams said after the conference, "We had a very satisfactory discussion of campaign issues and how best to bring them to the people. Pat McNamara and I have very much the same views of the issues and we are working out the organization for a thoroughly integrated campaign. I am sure the Democratic Party is going to present the best coordinated campaign we have ever waged in Michigan."

The conferees discussed campaign organization, finances, speaking schedules and issues.

Rumor Stevens Going to Lisbon as New Envoy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Resignation of M. Robert Guggenheim as ambassador to Portugal has revived speculation that he may be succeeded there by Secretary of the Army Stevens.

The White House yesterday made public an exchange of correspondence in which Guggenheim tendered his resignation "for personal reasons and because of the factor of health" and Eisenhower accepted the resignation with "earnest wishes for your full and speedy return to health and vigor."

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary said Guggenheim's successor hasn't been chosen yet.

Pontiac Deaths

Mrs. Dave (Evelyn) Hogan, 50, of 54 Crawford St., died last Sunday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after an illness of three months.

She was the daughter of Joe and Carrie Gafford Monroe and was born in Cincinnati, Ohio in 1904.

Mrs. Hogan was married in Toledo in 1928. For the last 19 years she has lived in Pontiac and she was a member of the Newman AME Church.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two sisters, Edna Byrd and Ruth Monroe of Cincinnati; four brothers, Daniel of Chicago, Ill., William of Ironton, Ohio, James of Detroit and Edward of Pontiac.

The funeral will be held at Trinity Baptist Church at 2 p. m. Thursday. The Rev. J. Allen Parker of the Newman AME Church will officiate with burial in Oak Hill Cemetery.

The body will be at the William F. Davis Funeral Home this afternoon at 3 p. m.

Detrouer Charged With Molesting Girl

A 30-year-old Detroit man, shot in the foot Tuesday by the mother of a 14-year-old girl he is accused of molesting, is scheduled to be arraigned this afternoon in Troy Township Justice Court on an indecent liberties charge.

Ralph A. Cook of 1350 E. Grand Blvd. was arrested at the girl's Troy Township home after he was wounded by a .22-caliber rifle shot.

Troy Township Patrolman William Schwandt said the girl identified Cook as the man who came to the home Monday and molested her after requesting a drink of water. The man, according to the girl, said he would return Tuesday.

The girl's mother, a widow, told police she remained home from work yesterday and confronted Cook at the locked screen door after her daughter identified him as the Monday intruder. The mother said she shot Cook in the right heel after he refused to wait for police being summoned by the daughter.

Cook denied the charge.

Eisenhower Veloes Break With Russia has a better chance than before to obtain a solid peace.

The conference also touched on these other matters:

ATOMIC LABOR — The President said he favors using all possible legal devices to avert a threatened strike at atomic plants in Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Paducah, Ky. This was in reply to a question as to whether he plans to ask Atty. Gen. Brownell to seek a strike-blocking injunction under the Taft-Hartley law.

Paducah production workers voted last night to go out on strike tomorrow and the situation at Oak Ridge also is touch-and-go.

FARM — The President congratulated Senate leaders on pushing to approval a farm bill based on the administration's call for a shift from the present rigid price-support program to flexible supports. He said he wanted to make one thing very clear—that the administration victories reflected in the bills passed by the Senate and House were in no sense political victories.

Eisenhower called them steps toward a stable economy and therefore measures which will benefit everyone.

business is too big for present facilities and we've got to provide more room.

"If we start right now to acquaint county residents with the need for new facilities to carry on functions vital to their welfare, I think the proposals will pass."

Clawson appointed a steering committee for the project composed of Harold K. Schone of Oak Park, Harry W. Horton of Royal Oak, David Levinson of Birmingham and Clare R. Cummings of Pontiac.

Oakland Republicans Will Meet Tomorrow

Fluorine Natural in 55 Localities

Several Oakland Water Systems Contain Some Anti-Decay Chemical

Several public water systems in Oakland County are among 55 in Michigan which naturally have from 50 to 150 per cent of the amount of fluorine necessary to prevent tooth decay, the State Health Department announced today in Lansing.

The department said that actually fluorine is present in trace amounts in the water supplies of most Michigan communities, but in many it is not enough to give protection against tooth decay.

Dr. Fred Wertheimer, chief of the public health dentistry section, said 21 localities have almost enough or slightly more than enough fluorine in their water supplies now from underground mineral deposits. These have from 0.7 to 1.5 parts of fluorine per million parts of water. One part per million is considered the ideal amount for tooth protection.

Five communities, he said, are known to have more than 1.5 parts per million and probably should remove some of the fluorine to prevent possible mottling or staining of the teeth.

Twenty-nine communities, he said, have 0.5 to 0.7 parts per million.

Following is the list:

More than 1.5 parts per million: Fowler, Centerline, Garden and Bridgeport Township of Saginaw County.

Between 0.7 and 1.5 (in ascending order of concentration): Berkley, Caro, Clio, Elkton, Freeland, Gladwin, Hudson, Parchment, Stockbridge, Ubly, Vassar, Brown City, Carleton and Columbiaville (both with exactly one part per million), Epworth Heights, Fraser, Memphis, Port Austin, Richmond, Rogers City and Ypsilanti State Hospital.

Between 0.5 and 0.7: Alma, Almont, Birmingham, Bloomfield Village, Carsonville, Cass City, Clawson, Elizabeth Lakes Estates, Elsie, Fowlerville, Huron Gardens, Ionia, Ithaca, Jackson, Marlette, Mayville, Montrose, Mt. Pleasant, Ovid, Owendale, Pigeon, Pontiac State Hospital, Pittsfield Village, Romeo, Royal Oak, Sandusky, Williamston, White Pigeon and Waterford Township of Oakland County.

Fannie Would Give Away Her Child Before She'd Throw an Ace in Gin

I miss Fanny Brice. To me, she was more than the girl comedienne—the Baby Snooks of radio. She was a good friend.

When I look back at the years we both worked for Ziegfeld, I recall that nothing ever bothered her. She had no worries—no nerves.

Did you ever hear the famous story about the opening night of the Follies in Atlantic City when she was almost late for her first entrance?

The assistant stage manager kept yelling—"Miss Brice, you're on!" Where was Fanny? Selling one of her hats to a show girl in a dressing room.

A few years ago, when Fanny had a heart attack, very methodically, she telephoned the doctor and then sent for an ambulance. When I heard she was at the Cedars of Lebanon Hospital in Los Angeles, I hurried to visit my old Ziegfeld playmate.

Imagine my surprise when I walked into her room to see Fanny in an oxygen tent, with a racing form and phone, placing bets all over the country.

I would have bawled her out, but how can you do that to someone who will give you a winner!

Fanny loved cards, too, but she was the most aggravating player to ever shuffle a deck. I played Gin Rummy with her three or four nights a week.

Before she made up her mind to throw away a card, you could lie down, take a nap, have a massage, get up and shave, and Fanny would still be muttering, "What shall I give this man? What does he need? He picked up a ten of spades."

And for her to part with an ace! She'd rather have given away her children! This is a big build-up for what's to follow:

One day, I had my bags packed, with a car waiting in front of the house to take me to the station. Fanny dropped in and said, "Eddie, what about one game?" I agreed.

As usual, Fanny took forever on one of her decisions. I said, "Excuse me, for just a minute."

I jumped into the car, was driven to the station, got a train to take me to Chicago and then to New York, where I sent Fanny a telegram with one word: "Well?"

GI Seeks U.S. Entry for Czech Warbride

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, Minn. (AP)—Pfc. William G. White, 24, Kellier, Minn., and his Czechoslovakian bride of 24 hours were en route today to Winnipeg, Man., to seek her entry into the United States.

White and Erny Pinsker, 27, were married yesterday in a ceremony on the International Bridge connecting this city with Ft. Frances, Ont.

Erny, who is in Canada on a nonquota visa, cannot join her husband in the United States until she obtains the proper papers. The Whites hope the U. S. consul in Winnipeg will solve their problem.

The couple's wedding climaxed a two-year romance that began in Frankfurt, Germany, where White was stationed and Erny worked in a home. She left Czechoslovakia in 1946 with her mother and five brothers and sisters.

Jimmy Wilde, one of the cleverest of world's flyweight champions was one of the most devastating of fighters. He looked anemic but he was one of the hardest hitters in modern times.

AUGUST SLUMP

This is, perhaps, the hardest time of year to look our best. The hair is bleached and dry and the skin is dark and dry. We often don't realize in August how bad we are going to look in September.

You needn't let this happen to you. A color treatment can blend those sun streaks in your hair into a lustrous shining whole—and it is quite harmless and very natural when properly applied. Proper hair shaping and a soft permanent will take care of the straggly ends. Sun dried skin needs lanolin — daily care is most effective. Don't forget to use your hair brush. It encourages the natural oil and makes it possible to give you a much better permanent.

Faces Retirement With Pleasure, Rather Than Terror

Consider Plastic TV

If you're going to buy a new radio or television set, you'll be wise to consider plastic cabinets. These are increasingly popular because they don't warp, don't show scratches, and are easy to keep clean with soap and water.

If you want to give your plastic radio or TV set an extra luster, wax it after washing. Make sure, of course, to disconnect the set before waxing.

Only about 15 per cent of the world's forests are scientifically managed.

Consider Color Carefully

In Buying a DIAMOND Color Helps Determine Value

Color, in diamonds, is one of four factors that affects price. Those with body color of blue or white are more valuable than those showing yellowish tinges.

Since the untrained eye does not readily detect these color variations, let us, by means of precision instruments, show you the differences and explain, graphically, why price varies with color.

It will take only a matter of minutes - is easy to understand - and you'll know exactly what to look for in buying a diamond.

After Years of Careful Preparation

Bookkeeper Opens Her Own Business

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Some women face retirement from their jobs with terror and a conviction that there's nothing they can do about it but try to live on a pension, and stay on the shelf the rest of their lives.

Other women plan for it in advance, take it in their stride, and have a good life for years and years.

Jane L. is one of these. Her company retires women workers at 60.

Jane began preparing herself on her 50th birthday. She is a bookkeeper, and a good one. And she loves it.

"I decided that after I retired, I would set up my own little bookkeeping service," she told me.

"After all, I knew there were plenty of people who need bookkeeping services just a few hours a week, and I could handle a good many part-time customers like that. But there was a lot of ground-work I had to do.

"First," she said, "I studied a course in business management, where I learned how to set up a small service business, how to get new business, how to keep accounts.

"Then I studied advertising in a course, because it interested me and also because I knew I would be inserting small ads in our local paper to get new business and I wanted to know how to do it right.

"I also studied publicity and public speaking. After all, if I could give little talks, at business groups, I might get customers for my service.

"I took these courses at night, in a leisurely way through the years. It was fun, and at the same time it added to my social contacts.

"Honestly, I was the only one I know at our company who almost looked forward to retirement some day."

Plisse Gown Cool

Coolest nightgown you can climb into this summer is dress length cotton plisse with nylon trim. Needs no ironing.

"By the time the big day came, I was ararin' to go, and I must say I have quite a successful small business.

"I work about six hours a day, and it brings me a good deal of money - to say nothing of the feeling of being busy, useful and really alive.

"I'm 67 years old now, and the doctor says I have a lot of time ahead of me still!"

Siren Look of Late 20's Back Again

New Heim Revivals Include Fox Muffs and Slinky Satins

PARIS (INS)—The flossy look of 1929 sirens will be high-style in the fall of 1954.

That's the prediction from Paris, where designer Jacques Heim revived the swathed-hip, full-hemmed, small-bosomed silhouette for the coming season.

Heim, who previewed his collection during the first day of Paris' long-awaited "fashion openings," featured what he called the "tall look." It consisted of a slim upper torso, hunched hips and skirts flaring from just below mid-thigh depth.

Heim, a specialist in novelty fashion furs, showed lemon or red or white-dyed rabbit fur linings in sporty wool coats and jackets. Berets matched the linings.

One white lamb coat was worn over a red satin sheath dress, for a startlingly slinky effect.

Other striking fur details included flat white fox hats matched to large fox muffs... 1925-style silverfox collars slung over suit and dress tops... small ermine or mink collars on jackets.

Heim's hats were shaped to clutch the head during the daytime, and made of white, brown or green feathers. For evening, the hats are large and fluffy-made of ostrich plumes.

Stop Baby Fatigue With Restful Naps

When Baby begins to walk about the house, he'll spend the day in endless activities. It's up to you to guard against his becoming overtired. He should have his rest at the same time each day even if he doesn't sleep.

He can't let you know that he's tired because he isn't aware of it himself. So watch for the signs of fatigue: irritability and restlessness.

A leader in a newly created line of school dresses for the kindergarten set is this full-skirted style in plaid and plain broadcloth with grownup fabric belt. A fetching tassel fastens the tab collar which is edged in plaid, and a deep hem is easily adjusted to the needs of a fast-growing lass.

Mail Stork Gifts to Her

Absentee Guest of Honor Would Appreciate Party

By EMILY POST

A reader asks: "Would it be proper for me to give a stork shower for a dear friend of mine who is now living several hundred miles from here. Her husband was transferred several months ago, but prior to that she lived in this city and all of her relatives and friends are living here. 'Some are of the opinion that it would be wrong to give a shower since she cannot be present; and others have advised me to have the shower and send the baby things to her. Please help me out in my dilemma as I do not wish to be criticized.'

ANSWER: Yes, you could give her a "shower by mail" - collect all the presents, wrap them up in one large package and send them to her. I think it would be even more appreciated than if she were home.

Dear Mrs. Post: Our new minister will arrive next week and we would like to know how he should be spoken to. (1) Shall we address him as Doctor, as Reverend, or as Mister? (2) Several members of the congregation knew him well in college. May they call him by his given name when meeting him socially?

ANSWER: (1) If he has a doctor of divinity degree, he is called Doctor. Otherwise, he is usually called Mister.

(2) When in public, no; but alone or within the group that knew him at college, you could call him by his given name.

Dear Mrs. Post: I would like your opinion as to the good taste of young women appearing in public with their hair up in pin curls, even when covered with a scarf.

One sees this so often today, and in my opinion it looks very sloppy and shows an "I-don't-care-what-people-think" attitude. Shouldn't the hair be combed and fixed before appearing in public?

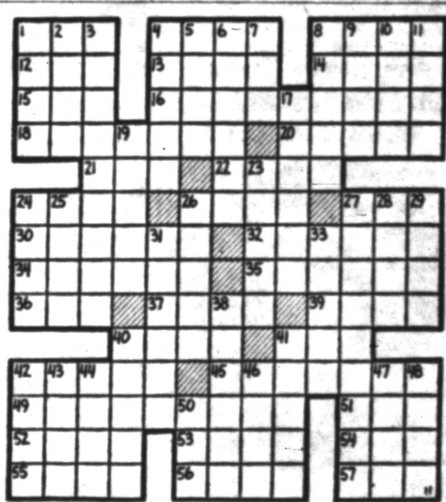

Answer: If possible, definitely, yes!
