State Road Toll 23—Worst ONE COLOR in '67

By The Associated Press

A car whipped out of control on a rain-slick highway last night and crashed head-on into an auto, killing three persons and injuring eight.

The crash on M50 a mile and a half east of Dundee in Monroe County boosted Michigan's weekend highway death toll to 23—one of the highest for any weekend this year. It was one of two triple-fatality accidents yesterday.

Two of those killed and seven of the eight injured near Dundee were relatives en route to one of their family homes on Mother's Day.

Killed were Mrs. Nancy Shamblen, 26, of Southfield; her 15-year-old brother, Allen Dusseau of Petersburg, and a passenger in the other auto, Mrs. Gertrude Curtis, about 55, of Monroe.

Monroe County sheriff's deputies said the car driven by Mrs. Shamblen's sister, Mrs. Cheryl Dusseau, 18, of Petersburg, careened out of control on the wet highway and struck the auto driven by Mrs. Curtis' husband, Lawrence, 57.

Daniel Dusseau, 12, was taken to St. Vincent Hospital at Toledo, Ohio, in critical condition.

Eight-month-old Karen Dusseau was reported in serious condition at Mercy Hospital in Monroe.

Five other members of the Dusseau family and Curtis were in fair condition at the Monroe hospital.

Also killed:

Wayne D. McAuley, 24, of Pontiac, Township, when his car ran off a curve last night and smashed into a stone fence near Lake Orion.

HEAD-ON CRASH

Brent Hennerman, 10 months, of Lansing, when the auto in which he was a passenger collided head-on last night with a car on M66 in Calhoun County.

Daniel Weir, 16, of Waterford Township, was struck by a car last night on a road in Waterford Township near Pontiac.

Melvin Walter Stolt, 51, of Grand Rapids; Carl Homer McBride, 60, of Charlevoix, and McBride's wife, Ruth, 58, in the head-on collision yesterday of Stolt's and McBride's car on a curve north of the Mecosta County village of Stanwood.

HIT AT INTERSECTION

Ronald Burghdoff, 27, of Battle Creek, whose car was struck yesterday at an M66 intersection in Calhoun County by a car driven by a 16-year-old being pursued by a police patrol car.

Police said the 16-year-old ran a stop sign in Penfield Township.

Frank Thomas, 26, of Ionia, when his car ran off Haner Road and struck a tree Saturday night just north of Dildine Road in Easton Township, Ionia County.

Andrew C. Miner, 18, of Madison Heights, a passenger in a car involved in a two-car, head-on collision Saturday night at the intersection of U.S. 25 and Sibley Road, Brownston Township, Wayne County.

Keith M. Haner, 17, of Flint, when the car he was in ran off M54 Saturday night just north of McCandlish Road in Genesee County.

Filimon J. Lopez, 19, of Bay City, when his car struck a bridge on Old Beaver Road and plunged into the Kawkawlin River in Bay County Saturday night.

Leo R. Bjorling, 50, and his wife, Norma, 44, of Wayne, when their car hit a stalled road construction vehicle in Wayne County Saturday.

Helen Jankowski, 54, of Grand Rapids, when she was struck by a car in Grand Rapids Saturday.

2-CAR COLLISION

Charles D. Kaminski, 41, of Richmond, in a two-car, head-on crash in St. Clair County Saturday.

Robert L. Hibbert, 24, Romulus Township, when struck by a car on Ecorse Road near his home in Wayne County Saturday.

Michael A. Foster, 22, Clare, and Gary W. Kidd, 21, Port Huron, two-car crash on M20, five miles east to Mount Pleasant Saturday.

Howard D. Smith, 64, Michigan Center, two-car crash five miles south of Jackson Saturday.

Susan Goodgsell, 2, of Plainfield Township outside Grand Rapids, struck by a car Saturday on U.S. 131 near M44 in the vicinity of her home.

Romney's Eligibility for Presidency Eyed

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said today he sees no reason for a Republican commission to study Michigan Gov. George Romney's eligibility to run for president.

Rockefeller, who is Romney's major political backer in the East, commented on a statement by Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N. Y.

ROMNEY CELLER

Celler proposed a Republican commission to pass on Romney because the Michigan governor was born in Mexico of American parents.

He expressed "serious doubts" about Romney's eligibility.

"It's a matter of law. Gov. Romney and all of his friends are satisfied that he is qualified. I don't see why you need a commission," Rockefeller said.

'GOOD FRIEND'

The New York governor, who has said repeatedly that "under no circumstances" would he be a candidate for the GOP presidential nomination, also said that Celler "is a good friend of mine so I won't criticize him."

The Constitution stipulates that the president must be a "natural born" citizen. Celler said the records of the debates of the Constitutional Convention do not explain exactly what was meant by "natural born."

Romney was born to American parents and there was no question raised about his American citizenship.

★ ★ ★

The question, according to Celler, is whether one must be born within the nation's borders to be "natural born."

SHOULD CLEAR DOUBT

"The matter should be laid at rest by some group of men who are responsible, whose word will be taken," the House Judiciary Committee chairman said. "This is going to plague Mr. Romney from now on. It cannot be left in this kind of doubt."

Area Isn't About to Blow Its Cool

Weather forecasters blame the unseasonably cool spring on a wandering jet stream in the atmosphere. And it looks like it will continue off course for at least the next few days as temperatures are expected to average three to five degrees below normal.

Clear skies replaced this morning's showers with the day's high to range between 53 to 63.

Temperatures will fall in the 36-to-42 range tonight as skies remain clear.

Tomorrow, the jet stream will take pity on us and let the sun shine and the thermometer warm slightly.

Low temperature reading in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. was 44. By 2 p.m. it registered 57.

SEARCH CONTINUES — Rescue workers, deep in one of many caverns near Hannibal, Mo., use a metal detector along a passageway in hopes of locating the shovel and two flashlights carried by three young boys missing since last Wednesday. The boys were believed to have been exploring caves which lace the Hannibal hills. (See story, page A-2.)

Road Reopening Due Thursday

Oakland Avenue between Sanderson and the Cass-Montcalm intersection will open to traffic Thursday, Robert Coe, project engineer for the Michigan State Highway Department, said today.

At that time, Oakland will be made one-way northbound from downtown Pontiac to the intersection.

Traffic traveling south will be diverted at the intersection onto Cass, which will be one-way southbound, and then flow into West Wide Track Drive

The general managers of two automobile dealerships at the intersection said business has suffered since Oakland was closed to through traffic April 27.

★ ★ ★

"It hasn't been good at all these last few weeks," said Al Bauer of Matthew-Hargreaves Chevrolet, 631 Oakland.

TRAFFIC REDUCTION

Robert Luddington of John McAuliffe Ford, 630 Oakland, said "sales have really been hurt," because "traffic past here has been reduced at least 75 per cent."

Killed were Wayne D. McAuley, 24, of 2142 E. Walton, who crashed into a stone wall in Orion Township, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies, and Daniel T. Weir, son of Mrs. Raymond Weir of 805 Scott Lake.

Deputies said McAuley was driving south on Baldwin about 10 p.m. when he ran off the road near Indianwood and slammed into the wall.

A witness said McAuley, who died about 3 a.m., was thrown through the windshield by the impact.

Weir was struck by an automobile last night as he walked on the edge of Pontiac Lake Road near Orchid in Waterford Township.

'PASSING VEHICLE'

Township police said Robert W. Weinman, 26, of 9152 Cripple Creek, White Lake Township, was the driver of the car.

Weinman told police he was in the process of passing another vehicle when he hit the pedestrian.

The driver wasn't held, but the accident is still under investigation, police said.

Legal Battle Under Way Over New Trial for Speck

CHICAGO (AP) — The jury said guilty and recommended death. But a legal battle that could reach the U.S. Supreme Court is getting under way in an effort to save Richard Speck from the electric chair.

Speck, 25, was convicted April 15 for the strangling and stabbing murder of eight nurses whose bound, blood-soaked bodies were found July 14, 1966 strewn through four rooms of a town house on Chicago's South Side.

Today, the lean, tattooed drifter and his counsel, Public Defender Gerald Getty, will appear before Judge Herbert C. Paschen to argue for a new trial and Speck's life.

Getty, 53, is expected to submit that Judge Paschen and the prosecution, headed by youthful William Martin, assistant state's attorney of Cook County—Chicago — erred judically during the trial.

★ ★ ★

The eight-week trial, drawn out by six weeks of jury selection, was held in Peoria after Judge Paschen granted Getty's request for a change of location on the grounds that a fair and impartial jury could not be seated in Cook County.

POLICE PHOTOGRAPHS

Getty is also expected to press for a second trial on the point of appeal that the prosecution produced inflammatory evidence by showing the jury photographs taken by police of the dead girls.

Martin, 30, has prepared legal arguments against the points of alleged judicial error.

If the appeal for a new trial is rejected, Judge Paschen is expected to set a sentencing date sometime this month.

GMC Truck Adds Two New Models

Newly designed Suburban station wagons and panel delivery models that combine peak passenger and cargo space with sleek styling and rugged construction features join GMC Truck & Coach Division's truck line for 1967.

★ ★ ★

The roomy GMC Suburbans provide space for up to nine passengers or as much as a ton-and-a-half of cargo, while the panel trucks have up to 207 cubic feet of load capacity.

Both types of vehicles are 215.5 inches long, have 127-inch wheel-bases and are available in half-and three-quarter-ton versions. They come in either two- or four-wheel drive.

Powering these ruggedly versatile vehicles are 155-horsepower in-line 6s and 175-horsepower V8s. Extra powerful 170-horsepower 6s and 220-horsepower V8s are optional.

★ ★ ★

Built on a rugged truck chassis the GMC Suburban combines station-wagon styling and comfort with truck performance.

EASY PASSENGER ACCESS

Two curb-side doors permit easy passenger access. Rear loading is simpler, too, with a choice of tailgate or panel type rear doors.

Passenger comfort features include independent front wheel suspension and easy-action front and rear coil springs for an extremely smooth ride. Custom equipment includes custom trim, power steering and power brakes, automatic transmission, tinted glass, radio and tachometer.

When used as a combination passenger and cargo carrier, the Suburban seats three adults in the front and provides 181 cubic feet of cargo space in the rear.

★ ★ ★

Various seating combinations are available as extra-cost options. All seats are easy to install and remove.

COMPANION MODEL

The Suburban's companion model, the GMC panel delivery truck, offers the same smooth riding characteristics as the Suburban plus greater capacity and loading convenience.

Rear doors are held at 90 or 180 degrees for loading cargo into the 207 cubic inches of work space. Its nine-foot body has a 50-inch clearance between wheel-housings to permit the flat loading of standard 4-by-8 sheets of plywood and other building materials.

Floor-to-roof clearance at the rear doors is 43 inches, more than ample for loading standard appliances.

Safety-related and convenience features of both Suburbans and panels include instrument panel with padding, glare-reducing paint and flat knobs; padded sun visor; four-way hazard warning flasher; dual master cylinder brake system and thick laminated windshield.

SHOULDER BELT ANCHORS

Other features are front seat shoulder belt anchors and seat belts; telescoping steering shaft; passenger-guard door locks; front seat back lock; corrosion-resistant brake lines; low profile window control knobs; and safety door latches and hinges.

Both type vehicles have full-support, steel channel frame rails with sturdy crossmembers. A 10-inch clutch is standard with in-line 6 engines and an 11-inch clutch is included with V-8 models.

ROOMY—This GMC Suburban provides space for up to nine passengers or as much as a ton-and-a-half of cargo. (Related picture on page A-2.)

Juvenile Rights Guidelines Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court extended to juveniles today substantially the same constitutional protections given adults in criminal trials.

The landmark decision is certain to lead to broad reformation of juvenile court proceedings across the land.

The vote was 8 to 1, with three of the justices in the majority differing with the controlling opinion, given by Justice Abe Fortas, in some respects.

The dissenter was Justice Potter Stewart.

★ ★ ★

Using an Arizona juvenile case as a springboard, the court concluded that juveniles, like adults, are entitled to the following Bill of Rights safeguards:

- Notice of the charges placed against them.
- The right to have an attorney's assistance.
- The right to confront and cross examine complainants and other witnesses.
- Protection against self-incrimination, including the privilege of remaining silent.
- The right to a transcript of the proceedings.
- The right to have the case reviewed in higher courts.

Yank Losses Soar in New Viet Fight

SAIGON (AP) — Heavy ground fighting and severe Communist barrages continued to cause sharply increasing American casualties as a big new battle appeared to be building up between the U. S. Marines and North Vietnamese regulars just south of the demilitarized zone.

The Marines reported 12 dead and 92 wounded in attacks Sunday, and that did not include casualty reports from one of the day's sharpest pitched battles with the North Vietnamese.

In the air, the U. S. Command announced the loss of three planes Sunday — matching the number of Soviet-built MIG jets downed by American airmen in dogfights over the North.

One U. S. jet was lost to ground fire in the South, making 179 combat planes downed there since the war began. In the North, one jet was lost to ground fire and one to unknown causes, making 541 combat planes lost over North Vietnam.

Hanoi claimed seven U. S. jets were downed Sunday.

The three MIGs reported downed brought the American score for the weekend to 10 kills and two probables. The Air Force announced seven Red jets were downed Saturday and two probably were brought down.

★ ★ ★

The three MIGs were downed Sunday during raids four miles from the heart of Hanoi.

U. S. Marines reported killing 110 North Vietnamese regulars in a running battle southwest of Da Nang. The Marines have swept over a hill in the area and are pushing through a jungled valley toward the Ly Ly River.

The fighting there has been going on since last Friday. The Reds have clung doggedly to hidden bunkers and trenchlines buried in the jungles and along low ridges of the area.

★ ★ ★

Marine headquarters reported a patrol Sunday discovered a fresh Communist burial ground alongside the battlefield. They counted 73 bodies in North Vietnamese uniforms. This brought to 351 the number of Reds reported killed in the fight, in which 69 Marines have been killed and 311 wounded. This does not include Sunday's casualties, which were not yet reported.

Similar grim fighting was taking place in Quang Tri Province below the demilitarized border. Probes and artillery and mortar fire repeatedly raked the Marine camps at Gio Linh and Con Thien just south of the zone.

NEW PANEL TRUCK — The new GMC panel delivery truck has 207 cubic feet of cargo space. It is available in half- or three-quarter-ton weight ratings and two- or four-wheel drive.

850 Pct. Difference in Prices of Drugs Is Reported in NY

WASHINGTON (AP) — A variance of up to 850 per cent in drug prices in New York City was reported today by William Haddad, president of the Citizens Committee for Metropolitan Affairs.

But chances are only 1 in 6,000 that a drug will survive research tests and go on the market, so 'the successes have to pay for the failures," said C. Joseph Stetler, president of the Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association.

Haddad and Stetler commented in testimony prepared for a Senate Small Business subcommittee investigating drug prices.

Haddad said the highest drug prices invariably are charged in low income areas. "The poor are the real victims of high drug prices," he added.

PROFIT LIMIT ASKED

In other prepared testimony, Arthur Levitt, New York State comptroller, called for a profit limitation on drugs.

Noting that New York State annually buys more than $4 million worth of tranquilizers, he said it is "unconscionable for the state to be forced to submit to monopolistic exploitation in the purchase of drugs."

Stetler urged Congress to approach with caution any proposals to regulate drug prices. He said present prices allow manufacturers to continue research, which he said costs up to $1 million a day.

The alternative to industry research would be to let the government do it, he said, adding "there is little in the record to commend this course of action."

OBJECTS TO SPEECH

Stetler took issue with a Senate speech April 26 by subcommittee Chairman Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis. He said Nelson suggested that the sick can get cheap bargains in drugs and patients should try to influence doctors about which drugs to prescribe for their ailments.

"Much is made by some critics of the industry of so-called generic drugs," Stetler said. He added that some suggest that if doctors prescribed drugs by generic name rather than by trade name, immense savings would result.

★ ★ ★

Patients' best interests are served only if the doctor's judgment is unrestricted as to the medicine to be prescribed, Stetler said.

Oakland Ave. Reopening Due

Bauer and Luddington agreed, however, that business will benefit when Oakland is made one way and traffic is concentrated along the route.

"When drivers become accustomed to the route through Pontiac, I believe they will use Oakland rather than skirting the city limits on Telegraph," said Bauer.

Coe said that even though Oakland will be open this week, construction of a catch-basin and the paving of the intersection will still requir at least another week.

'Step-Up May Bring China Into Viet War'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., said today an expansion of American military might in Vietnam may bring Red China into the war and lead to World War III.

His remarks were in a prepared Senate speech.

★ ★ ★

Cooper, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and a former ambassador to India, said the history of Korea indicates that the Chinese would intervene if they feel North Vietnam is about to be crushed.

To prevent this, Cooper said, the United States should "confine and restrain its bombing — if bomb it must — to infiltration routes near the demilitarized zone."

He said if this met with an "affirmative response" from North Vietnam then the bombing of North Vietnam should be suspended.

RISKS INVOLVED

He said this would involve risks.

But he added, "The danger inherent in seeking a new initiative toward peace by a limitation of the bombing in North Vietnam is not as great as the danger of China's intervention as a result of the war's expansion. Nor would this new attempt to achieve negotiations be as dangerous as an increased involvement by the Soviet Union, and the greater peril of World War III.

"We cannot assume that the turmoil and struggle in Communist China will prevent it from intervening," he said.

"It is more likely that it would subordinate its differences to meet its declared enemy, the United States."

3 Hurt by Shot; Pair Arrested

Two men were arrested early today for investigation of attempted murder when a shotgun blast was fired during a party in a Pontiac home, injuring three persons.

Arrested were Ralph Zoltman, 23, of 217 Auburn and Neil Dennis, 21, address unknown.

They allegedly pointed guns at party guests Zoltman had ordered to leave about 2 a.m. at the Auburn address. Officers said the shot was fired from the inside of the house toward the porch.

Wounded were Daniel Rodriquez, 19, of 34 Hillside; James Maynard, 19, of 4394 Meigs, Waterford Township; and Charlene Zoltman, 17, Ralph Zoltman's wife.

Rodriquez, who is in fair condition in Pontiac General Hospital with a wound in the back, told police he was on the porch when the shot was fired and was knocked to the ground.

Maynard said he was standing next to Rodriquez and Mrs. Zoltman told police she was in the front doorway. Both were treated at General Hospital and released.

Police said they impounded a 30-30 rifle and a 12-gauge shotgun at the scene.

China Presses Hong Kong Rift

HONG KONG (AP) — Red China put official pressure on Britain today to meet Communist demands in Hong Kong, and Red newspapers in the colony urged Chinese residents to renew anti-British fighting. But Hong Kong was generally quiet.

★ ★ ★

The Communist campaign unfolded similarly to that in the neighboring Portuguese colony of Macao. After anti-Portuguese rioting there and ominous patrols by Red Chinese gunboats, the colonial administration capitulated to demands for admissions of guilt and compensation to victims.

★ ★ ★

A Chinese Foreign Ministry note handed to D.C. Hopson, the British charge d'affaires in Peking, accused the British of "fascist atrocities against Chinese workers and residents" and demanded punishment of "all those responsible."

There was no immediate reaction from London.

RED PAPERS

Both major Communist newspapers in Hong Kong, Ta Kung Pao and Wen Wei Pao, said in front page red-ink stories: "We are not afraid of their concentration camps. They are not big enough to imprison all our Chinese compatriots. We must dare to fight at any time and any place."

30-Year Man Heads Local at GM Truck

Joseph M. Arthur, a 30-year employe at GMC Truck & Coach Division, has been elected to a two-year term as president of Local 594, succeeding Robert White.

Arthur, 48, of 3302 Grant, Avon Township, will take office June 11.

A machine set-up man and chairman of the shop committee for Local 594 for several years, Arthur received a majority vote in the election last Thursday against two other candidates.

The local's election will resume at 2 p.m. Wednesday to select a skilled trades zone representative and a recording secretary because a majority vote for these offices was not received in last week's election.

★ ★ ★

Other newly elected local officers are Marty Holt, vice president; Ralph W. Pickrell, financial secretary; Robert Alderman, guide; and trustees Cliff Wallace, Andy Carter and Guy Coleman.

★ ★ ★

Leads Are Checked in Search for Boys

HANNIBAL, Mo. (AP)—All leads, however scant, will be thoroughly checked before the search for three missing Hannibal boys is called off, officials said today.

★ ★ ★

The search for Billy Hoag, 11, Joey Hoag, 13, and Craig Dowell, 14, entered its fifth day. The boys were believed to be exploring caves when last seen Wednesday.

Some of the numerous volunteers concentrated on the caves which lace the Hannibal hills, while others remained above ground searching the Mississippi River bluffs.

★ ★ ★

Caves were methodically inspected under the direction of William Karras, 44, of White Post, Va. Karras is president of the Speleogical Society of America and has taken part in numerous underground rescue operations.

LOST UNDERGROUND

Karras said Sunday night he was positive the boys were lost underground. But, he said to the father of the Hoag brothers, "If those boys are on the surface we should try to communicate with them. They might be alive and well but afraid to come home.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hoag issued pleas for the boys to return.

★ ★ ★

"Joey, Joey, Billy," Mrs. Hoag said as tears streaked her face, "Please come home. You won't be punished. You know we love you. Please come home before I have a heart attack. Your brothers and sisters all love you," she said. The Hoags have five other sons and four daughters.

★ ★ ★

Residents of the area, about 100 miles north of St. Louis, have provided numerous leads at the request of the search leaders. None of the clues has been valuable so far.

★ ★ ★

As the search continued, cave expert Karras estimated about $500,000 has been spent in the operation although most of this was in donated labor. Church groups from throughout this city of 20,000 population continued to maintain hot meal service for the men in the search parties.

House Facing Busy 2 Weeks

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's top allies in Congress face what maybe their toughest tests of 1967 during the coming two weeks.

The action will be in the House and involves aid for secondary and elementary education, rent subsidies and the model cities program.

★ ★ ★

The rent subsidy and model cities issues are tied up in the same bill, a $10-billion appropriation measure for about 20 independent government agencies. The bill is scheduled for floor consideration Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

It includes only $237 million of the $662 million the President requested for programs to help selected cities rebuild slums and blighted areas. And it provides only $10 million of the $40 million sought to supplement rental payments of needy families to landlords who provide privately financed housing.

★ ★ ★

Both programs are highly controversial and have barely survived past battles.

★ ★ ★

House leaders currently don't plan to try to increase the financial allotments, preferring to let the more friendly Senate handle that detail.

Holly Boy, 11, Killed by Train

An 11-year-old Holly boy was killed by a train Friday evening near the central part of Holly village.

★ ★ ★

Dead is Dale Falk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don L. Falk, 303 S. Saginaw. The family's home is three blocks from the crossing.

★ ★ ★

Holly police officers witnessed the accident and said the child darted in front of the train.

He was pronounced dead at the scene by a coroner, Dr. Gerald Buchanan.

Burglars Use Firm's Truck to Haul Away Loot

Thirteen television sets and several radios were stolen from a Pontiac business by burglars who used the firm's panel truck to haul away the loot, city police were told early yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Investigators said a power line was severed to cut the alarm at Hod's TV and Radio Service, 770 Orchard Lake.

★ ★ ★

Estimated value of the stolen items, including the truck, is more than $3,500.

Police said entry to the building was made by breaking a window.

In 1966, it is estimated that 16 per cent of the free world's total oil supplies came from underwater operations.

Bomb Is Found in Las Vegas Hotel

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A small homemade bomb containing black powder and a note demanding $75,000 for the location of two others were found early Monday in a tower room at the Sahara Hotel on the Las Vegas strip.

Discovery of the note touched off evacuation of thousands of guests in Del Webb hotels in Nevada, California and Arizona.

The Clark County sheriff's office said the bomb, which contained four plastic pipes filled with black powder, was discovered after a man called the pit, or center of the casino area, and said the device was set to go off about 5 a.m.

Deputies found the bomb in room 4014. It was in a wooden box attached to a wall in a closet.

Near the bomb was a page-long typewritten note cautioning hotel officials not to try to move the bomb or to notify police.

Officers tied a rope around the box and jerked it from the wall. Then a demolition team from nearby Nellis Air Force base moved it to a service elevator and took it out the back of the building.

There was no explosion.

The demolition experts dismantled the device, and found it contained black powder.

★ ★ ★

Det. Lt. Glenn Simmons, chief of detectives at the sheriff's office, said one member of the team said the bomb was strong enough to badly damage the room, but would not have caused extensive damage to the hotel.

Seek Pontiac Board of Education Posts

Seven candidates will be running for two seats in the Pontiac Board of Education election June 12.

Three candidates filed nominating petitions in the last two days before the 4 p.m. deadline Saturday. Four candidates, including two incumbents, previously filed.

The new additions are G. Winston DeLine, 398 W. Columbia; Robert E. Cunningham, 501 W. Iroquois; and Ronald S. Covault, 125 N. Johnson.

Cunningham and Covault have law backgrounds while DeLine is an employe of Pontiac Motor Division of General Motors Corp.

CUNNINGHAM

Cunningham, 39, is a Pontiac attorney who has practiced law here since he graduated from the Detroit College of Law in 1964.

A life-long resident of Pontiac, he ran for the Circuit Court bench in Oakland County last year. He is married and has a daughter attending Washington Junior High School.

Covault, 30, is chief of court operations for the office of the prosecuting attorney of Oakland County. He is currently a representative of the Oakland County Bar Association on the Pontiac Human Relations Committee.

A Pontiac resident for two years, he earned degrees from Michigan State University and the University of Detroit School of Law.

Covault is a former employe of the U.S. Treasury Department in Washington, D. C. He and his wife have three children.

Others in the race are two current board members whose four-year terms expire — Monroe M. Osmun, a businessman, and Russell L. Brown, a teacher.

CHALLENGERS

Challengers are Dr. Oscar K. Search of 4962 Whispering Pines, Mrs. Blanche W. Bell of 1665 Quarton and George T. Mann of 15940 Villa.

Three persons seek an unexpired one-year term: Rodger L. Coombs of 171 E. Lincoln, Herbert L. Ring of 2328 Derby and John C. Siegesmund Jr. of 315 Hupp Cross.

In the Bloomfield Hills district, two office-holders are running unopposed for four-year terms: Richard H. McGraw of 1438 Sodon Lake and Dr. Charles L. Bowers of 3355 Franklin.

Javitz Calls GOP Confab to Seek Viet Consensus

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Jacob K. Javits, initiator of the Republican policy report on Vietnam that widened cracks in the party's unity, has called for a conference of GOP senators to seek "consensus" on the issue.

The New York lawmaker disclosed yesterday he had asked Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, chairman of the GOP conference, to set up such a session.

It was a staff report by the conference that caused consternation in some Republican quarters over questions it raised on President Johnson's Vietnam policy.

Javits said it was he who moved that the study be made, and that he still felt it was "an excellent historic record" of the Vietnam problem.

★ ★ ★

Javits said all GOP senators will not agree on any point. But he said he thought "the great majority of them can come to certain conclusions; for example, the idea that we do back the commitment of the President is one that I think we have all come to already."

INVASION OPPOSED

He said a "good majority" of Senate Republicans probably would oppose invading North Vietnam and bombing Haiphong harbor and a "large number" would favor direct negotiations with the National Liberation Front, political arm of the Vietcong rebels.

Javits, in a radio-television panel show for New York stations, also said voters feel President Johnson "isn't doing well" and "will want some other team to try to work this out in Vietnam."

Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., warned that candidates who take a "soft stand" on Vietnam will not win the Republican nomination in 1968.

GOP Won't Recognize Durant Splinter Group

LANSING (AP) — The Republican State Central Committee has ruled that the newly organized United Republicans of Michigan have no right to collect money in the name of the party.

The action came Saturday at a committee meeting. Richard Durant, a conservative who organized the URM, was not present.

★ ★ ★

Arthur Saltzman of Franklin, former director of the Michigan Anti-Poverty Program, told his fellow committee members the new Durant group had failed to take control of the GOP in Oakland County.

"Now they are trying to take over by subterfuge," he said.

UNRECOGNIZED

The committee resolution said that the URM "has not been recognized by the legal Republican party and has not been authorized to raise funds for the Michigan Republican Party."

Snowfall Record Set by U.P. Town

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) —Norton Strommen, the state climatologist, says a new record was set last winter for annual total snowfall in Michigan. He says 282.8 inches of snow fell on the town of Herman in the northwestern Upper Peninsula. The previous record was 276.3 inches recorded in Calumet in the winter of 1949-50.

★ ★ ★

Strommen said other highlights of last winter's weather included a February snowfall of 33.4 inches at Alpena, the highest recorded in that city since 1887.

★ ★ ★

He said the most crippling snowstorm in the state's history occurred on January 26-27 when Michigan State University was forced to cancel classes for the first time in its 112-year history.

An Angry Farmer Denounces The 'Price Squeeze'

U.S. Food Policies 'Down' on the Farm

By ED BLUNDEN

LAPEER — Farmers sent government farm officials back to Washington with angry shouts, pleas for help and an ominous threat ringing in their ears.

About 600 farmers gathered at the community hall here Friday at the request of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Purpose of the meeting, one of several held around the Midwest, was to sound out what the man in the field wanted done in the present farm crisis.

This crisis is confusing in that while the price of food is obviously higher, the price farmers have been getting has dropped about 10 per cent, the officials said.

★ ★ ★

Many of the farmers, testifying angrily, placed the blame on government policies.

LISTEN IMPASSIVELY

The Washington officials, Dan Keister Adams of U.S. Agriculture dairy policy division and Dan McGarry of the bean policy division listened impassively.

However, as the afternoon wore on, they indicated a desire to close the hearing so as not to "take up too much time."

Farmers from the crowd shouted "We got the time," and "You're getting paid, aren't you?"

★ ★ ★

Frank Light, chairman of the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Board, conducted the meeting. He asked farmers for ideas on how to solve the current problem and urged them to present "the positive side" not consume time with criticism.

STEPS ADVOCATED

Among the steps advocated was halting of imports and raising of U.S. support prices.

Among the charges levied against the government was "a deliberate low food price policy," and "price fixing" to the disadvantage of the farmer.

Under attack was the "floor" price paid by the government for various commodities. If the farmer can't sell his product anywhere at a higher price, the U.S. buys it at the floor price, thus insuring a minimum return to growers.

But, as several farmers pointed out, "the floor has become the ceiling." A bean grower said Michigan beans were much in demand at about $6 a hundredweight, approximately the U.S. price.

TALL TALE

He said a buyer indicated he would pay $9, but told him, "Why should I, when I can get all I want for $6."

The same situation in which the farmer has no control over price, prevails in wheat, apparently, as Harley Hinkley or Ravenna indicated.

He illustrated his point by telling a tall tale of sending his mules to market all by themselves with a cartload of wheat.

When his neighbors asked him about this, Hinkley related, "I told them a jackass can bargain for the price of wheat as well as I can."

★ ★ ★

Another farmer complained he painted his barn to comply with "Lady Bird Johnson's beautification program," then found his property evaluation went up $500.

Dominant among the speakers were members of the National Farmers Organization (NFO), a group which has sponsored recent milk and meat holdouts in an attempt to raise prices.

The NFO speakers for the most part came with prepared texts and received loud applause from the audience.

They cited the success of strikes in industry and by teachers and municpal employes.

Hints were made of "work stoppages," "collective bargaining" and possible future "starvation in this country if farmers are forced out."

Near the close of the meeting, a gathering of all the farm organizations was urged, to get a "grass-roots movements," to achieve "muscle in the market place."

Indications were that such a group may be formed in the near future.

St. Joseph Guild Plans Card Party

ORION TOWNSHIP — St. Joseph's Catholic Church IHM Guild will sponsor its annual spring card party at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the parish hall, corner of Beebe and Shadbolt streets.

Proceeds from the party will be used for the parish's building plans, according to Mrs. Louis Janka, chairman. Tickets may be purchased from all members in advance of the party or at the door that night.

Millage Proposition to Top Area Ballots

Candidates Set for School Elections

Annual school elections will be held June 12 throughout the area. In most instances, Saturday was the deadline for candidates to sign up to seek election to school boards.

Heading ballots across the area will be a half-mill (50 cents per $1,000 assessed valuation) proposition to provide for the establishment of area vocational education centers.

Many areas also have local millage questions to pass upon.

The candidates listed below are those that have filed. In most instances the candidates' petitions still must be officially approved.

Clarkston

Two incumbents face two challengers for four-year terms.

★ ★ ★

Incumbents are: Ronald A. Weber of 6110 Overlook and Melvin Pohlkotte of 6609 Shelley, while their challengers are Richard Yarbrough of 5220 Maybee and Ingrid M. Smith of 6360 Eastlawn.

Avondale

It looks like an uncontested election here. Two board seats are up, while voters also will decide a 3-mill ballot question.

★ ★ ★

Incumbent Jack I. Slater Jr., 614 Provincetown, seeks the one 4-year term, while the one 3-year term is sought by incumbent Jessie H. Holmes, 6839 Dublin Fair, Troy.

Oxford

Three candidates have filed for the one 4-year seat. They are Billl Patterson, 43 Park; Mrs. Leonard Lackner, 1700 Coats; Kenneth F. Horton, 105 Seymour Lake.

★ ★ ★

An increase of 2 mills in operating taxes for three years is sought also.

Rochester

Seven persons seek two 4-year terms. The candidates are: Mrs. William Beardmore, 213 Nesbit; Thomas J. Fisher, 870 Ironstone; J. R. Hodson, 165 Montmorency; James R. Laidig, 301 Charles; James P. McAlpine, 31 Shagbark; Roy O. Simpson Jr., 2875 Gravelridge; and Dr. John F. Solverson, 6255 Winkler Mill.

Lake Orion

Two 4-year terms are sought by incumbent Robert Sheardy, 740 Lakeview; William Bonning, 440 Indianside; Mary Parker, 105 E. Jackson; Gordon Brown, 310 E. Flint.

★ ★ ★

Vieing for a one-year term are Lawrence Abbey, 2820 Buckner; Mrs. Walter Stirch, 455 S. Bellevue.

Romeo

Seeking two 4-year terms are incumbent Walter W. Sewell, 59140 Van Dyke, Washington; Arthur Smith, 73463 Lassier; and Gary Corbin, 7277 Lindrath, Washington.

An increase of 3 mills for five years operating expenses will also be sought.

Farmington

A one 4-year term is sought by George F. Adams, 30158 Fernhill, Farmington Township; Sidney Brown, 32280 Old Franklin; Sanford Bloomberg, 29570 Pipers Lane, Farmington Township; Mrs. Mary D. Johnson, 7345 Cold Springs, West Bloomfield Township; Albert R. Lorenger, 30190 Pipers Lane Court, Farmington Township; Harold H. Tayler Jr., 22743 Brookdale, Farmington.

Mrs. Barbara A. Brown, incumbent, did not file for reelection.

South Lyon

Incumbent Mrs. Rita M. Chenoweth is unopposed for reelection to a four-year term.

Walled Lake

Deadline for filing petitions is 4 p.m. today.

W. Bloomfield

Two 4-year terms are sought by incumbents Leonard Grossman and Earl A. Kreps.

Unopposed for the one 2-year term is incumbent Richard Swart.

Huron Valley

Four seats are the object of the school board race here.

Two 4-year terms: Incumbents, Lawrence Kinstle and Gerald Anderson, and Carl Feigley, 725 Canal, Milford; Carlos Trask III, 1607 Burns, Milford Township; Jules E. Caudron, 3316 Mapleridge, Highland Township; Anthony A. Coppola, 3452 Gadd Court, Highland Township.

Two-year term: Incumbent, James Smith; Dr. Norman Krieger, 1201 Garner, Milford Township; Dale B. Duncan, 2780 Campers, Highland Township.

One-year term: Arthur Burklund, 635 Atlantic, Milford; Gerald McNally, 1775 Porter, White Lake Township; Mrs. Lilly Threloff, 305 E. Liberty, Milford; Robert Ward, 811 Birdsong, Milford; Mrs. Harriett Wilson, 4990 Driftwood, Commerce Township.

Seeking the four-year terms are James D. Bradford of 2245 M15, Mrs. Rosalie M. Butler of 7130 Oakhill, Donald J. Carter of 1834 Bird and Mrs. Jane M. Vogel of 256 Granger.

Tools, Equipment Taken From School

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — About $150 worth of tools and carpenters equipment was stolen this weekend from the West Hills Junior High School, under construction on Lone Pine near Middlebelt.

Police said it was the fifth or sixth breakin at the new building this year. They said they suspect that some children in the neighborhood are responsible.

★ ★ ★

A ladder was used to gain entrance to an open window, according to police.

They said it apparently happened Friday or Saturday night. It was discovered by the construction superintendent yesterday.

Action Is Slated in Shelby Suit

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — Macomb County Circuit Court Judge Edward Gallagher was to consider a request for an injunction to stop work on the Detroit Water System at 2:30 p.m. today.

The township has recently filed suit against the City of Detroit contending it has not followed tap-in specifications in the contract and that excavation is seriously lowering the water table in the southwest portion of the township.

Sign-Up Set in Avondale

Kindergarten round-up in the Avondale School District is slated for May 26.

Any child reaching the age of 5 before Dec. 1, 1967, is eligible for enrollment. An official birth certificate is required.

Those who will attend Auburn Heights and Stone Elementary schools will register at the Auburn Heights Presbyterian Church. Auburn Heights enrollment will be taken from 8:30 a.m. to noon, Stone registrations from 1 to 3 p.m.

Registrations for Elmwood and Stiles will be accepted at the schools. All persons whose last name begins A through M are asked to register between 9:30 and 11 a.m., the remainder between 1:30 and 3 p.m. at Elmwood.

All persons living west of Livernois are asked to register during the morning hours at Stiles, those living east of Livernois in the afternoon.

Walled Lake Schedules Kindergarten Registration

WALLED LAKE — A series of meetings are scheduled this month for school district parents to register their children who will attend kindergarten next year.

Parents only will attend the meetings which will include an explanation of the kindergarten program. Each school will hold its own registration beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting dates are Dublin and Walled Lake elementary schools, May 17; Twin Beach and Decker schools, May 23; Oakley Park and Wixom schools, May 24; Keith and Union Lake, May 25; and Commerce and Glengary, May 31.

★ ★ ★

A special visiting day for the new kindergarteners will be held June 2. Current kindergarten pupils will be dismissed for the day.

In White Lake

Action Due on Zoning Code

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — The planning commission tonight is scheduled to act on a proposed new zoning ordinance and map for the township.

The proposed zoning changes were the center of a controversy two months ago when residents objected to a proposal to change suburban farms classifications to suburban estates.

The controversy was stilled, however, when the commission agreed to let the suburban farms classifications remain as they are under the existing ordinance.

Planning commission chairman Charles Harris has pointed out that, with the amendment, the proposed ordinance is changed very little from the present one.

The meeting will be held at 8 in the township hall.

LWV Will Meet in W. Bloomfield

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The League of Women Voters will hold its May meeting tomorrow at the main library on Orchard Lake Road.

Following a luncheon at noon, they will begin their study of local township government with a review of the history of West Bloomfield Township.

The proposed Oakland County millage for vocational education centers also will be discussed.

U.S. Air Power Is Adapting to Vietnam

WASHINGTON (UPI) — "U. S. Air Force Thunderchief and Phantom pilots used radar bombing techniques to pinpoint targets during their 45 missions (over North Vietnam). Pilots reported rainy and overcast skies hampered bomb damage assessment."

This brief statement appeared recently in an official Defense Department news report on one routine day in the war.

Behind it lies a remarkable chapter in the story of how air power has adapted to the unprecedented nature of the Vietnam war.

The chapter is not yet complete. Further improvement of night and all-weather bombing capability is one of the top priority items in Air Force research and development.

★ ★ ★

U. S. air power wasn't entirely ready for Vietnam, officials concede. As one Air Force officer put it, "We knew the things we needed and we were working on them, but we didn't know how badly we needed them until we were in the war."

ONE THIRD OF TIME

It is estimated that U. S. air operations over North and South Vietnam are hampered by weather one third of the time.

This is not the first war to have bad weather. But it is the first in which the rules of engagement — the targets which can be hit — are so rigidly limited by political factors.

It is also a war in which enemy tactics have stressed movement under cover of night and monsoon storms.

★ ★ ★

One U. S. pilot who has flown in three wars put it this way:

ONLY DISAPPOINTED

"In World War II if we missed the target a little bit we were only disappointed that we didn't get that precise target. The fact that we killed 500 to 600 people was just one of the breaks of the war.

"Now we are told to hit a power plant or a bridge and to hit nothing else. We've got to put it right down the pickle barrel."

In World War II "all-weather capability" meant only navigation — getting to the general target area and getting home.

★ ★ ★

There was the radio direction finder and radar which could pick out shorelines and prominent landmarks.

'DAMN LIMITED'

"We came out of World War II with a damn limited all-weather capability," the pilot continued. "We could fly in weather, but we couldn't find much. We had pattern bombing. We began to think of real big bombs — just get close and we could light up the world with megatons.

"We were thinking about this when Korea came along. We still had World War II gear."

The Korean War brought better navigation devices and also the rudimentary development of a true radar bombing system, which became known as MSQ-77. Pilots still irreverently call it "Miscue."

★ ★ ★

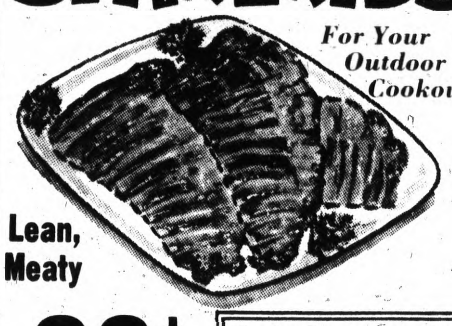

It involved a ground radar station which tracked the aircraft, directed the pilot to a precise spot over the target and told him when to release his bombs.

"Miscue," now renamed "Skyspot," has been greatly improved and highly computerized and automated and is used in South Vietnam to direct air strikes against enemy forces facing U. S. troops at rifle range, even though the pilots can't see the ground.

Chlorine is never found free in nature.

It Seems to Me . . .

Inexperience No Deterrent to Many Seeking Authority

At times, the complacent assumption of authority on the part of all of us is almost breathtaking.

Some school boys in their mass picketing and protests have intimated that they wanted to be part of the Board of Education or have a direct voice in the management of the Universities. Certainly few would object to earnest discussions on any matter with these groups. But there's a wide discrepancy in asking for explanations of matters you don't comprehend and demanding a voice in their settlement.

★ ★ ★

The opinion of a 21-year-old junior on the administration of an institution with thousands of pupils would hardly carry much weight with the faculty, the administrative board, the parents or in all probabilities the bulk of his fellow students. Always a small but very vocal minority cheers him on.

I've been in business for half a century but I certainly wouldn't feel qualified to move into Pontiac Motor Division and offer an untrained opinion on the effects of torque or lateral suspensions.

★ ★ ★

Just recently a self-appointed local committee descended upon the City Commission and suggested the matter of downtown development be turned over to them for settlement. This interest in important civic affairs is commendable and a heartening sign. But the ultimate objective of the group rather transcends its knowledge of the situation and the contributing circumstances.

★ ★ ★

Would you be interested in having someone that had never played golf tell you how to stop hooking? The opinion of the most skillful surgeon in Michigan wouldn't be of any particular value in helping a newspaper decide whether want ad pages should be eight columns or nine — or seven. And who in the newspaper business is qualified to administer an anesthetic?

★ ★ ★

This is an "uneasy age."

We all squirm and twist.

And in the process we develop the impulse to solve problems in which we have no training or knowledge. Everything that's "new" isn't necessarily better or even acceptable.

★ ★ ★

All of us have too many ready solutions for too many problems without the necessary background.

Double Daylight Time . . . .

Proponents of "double daylight saving time" in Michigan are still fighting to upest the Wolverine clocks completely.

We're on daylight savings NOW! Right Now! ! !

Some don't comprehend.

★ ★ ★

Many years ago, led by frenzied and misguided Detroit businessmen, Michigan left her natural time zone — Central — and advanced to Eastern. These busybodies wanted to "be like New York." Honestly, that was the reason they gave. This makes Michigan one solid hour ahead of her rightful, normal time every day of the year.

★ ★ ★

Hence, if these misguided proponents try to inflict "daylight savings time" on top of what we have, we'll be the only dizzy State in the union on Double Daylight time.

Can't common sense prevail?

Let's leave well enough alone.

Pornography in U.S. Mail . . . .

Pride and decency have departed from censorship over the United States mails.

During the past few years, photographs of uncovered ladies became increasingly "intimate" until it seemed the ultimate had been attained.

But wait.

There's a new low.

★ ★ ★

A New York firm broke all records for pornography in the mails with the offering of photographs that run the gamut of unbridled and undressed indecency. These pictures were "head-on" and absolutely nothing was left to the imagination. Further, an accompanying circular declared triumphantly that these "are legal now." The sales firm has no compunction about using our mails and they tell you that you needn't have any in ordering. When will that pendulum start swinging the other way?

Soon?

Most of us hope so.

And in Conclusion . . . .

Jottings from the well-thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

It's hard to believe, but some serious-minded scientists say there will be factories orbiting in space by the turn of the century. And that's not too far away—only 33 years. . . . . And further, we may have "floating commuter trains." . . . . Also, we'll have 165 million automobiles on the roads, more than 100% increase. . . . . Yes, and supersonic aerial whales will carry 500 passengers at 600 mph and 350 people at 1,800 mph. And service will continue in any and all weather.

★ ★ ★

The brightest laser in the world has an intensity 250 billion times as bright as the sun. They compare it to "squirting all of Niagara Falls through a water pistol instantly." . . . . Overheard: "A penny for most people's thoughts is a pretty fair price." . . . . About 30% of all men shave with an electric razor. Wouldn't you think it was double that? . . . . New York City has spent $200,000 for hidden detectors to spot vandalism in Gotham schools. The school board is properly wrathy and hot after the culprits.

★ ★ ★

DONNA

Scouts tell me Donna Harris ranks as one of the attractive young ladies in the area. . . . . 19,000 illegal stills were seized in 1966 producing 60 million gallons of moonshine. . . . . I understand the trading stamp industry is "becoming unglued by a combination of market saturation, governmental scrutiny and bad publicity." Testimony shows they tend to raise the price of merchandise.

100 Neediest Cases?

David Lawrence Says:

U Thant's Red Bias Must End

WASHINGTON — The time has come — in the opinion of many people in official circles here—to do some plain speaking of the failure of U Thant, secretary general of the United Nations, to face up to his responsibilities as an impartial executive of that organization and to cease being a partisan of the Soviet Union, Red China and the anti-American segment of Southeast Asia.

LAWRENCE

Peace negotiations in the Vietnam war might long ago have been begun if the secretary general had not given the impression that he sides with those who are convinced the United States will accept terms of virtual surrender.

The American government thus far has treated with politeness and courtesy U Thant's criticisms. Ambassador Goldberg has engaged for several months now in a polite and tactful dialogue rebutting the unfounded statements and inferences that have come publicly from the secretary general.

It is frequently argued that, since the Soviet Union has the power of veto in the Security Council, there's not much use going before that body. But the charter makes clear that the viewpoint of any nation or group of nations can be presented to the Security Council and, in effect, before the entire world.

Then, if a veto is exercised the case may be submitted to the General Assembly, which can itself authorize a peace-keeping operation and assume full responsibility for the ordering of an armistice.

When the U.N. stipulates conditions of a cease-fire, there is little risk for either side in an acceptance, since a palpable violation of the armistice would tend to line up world opinion against the party guilty of bad faith.

★ ★ ★

A number of the members of the General Assembly have leaned toward the Communists on the Vietnam issue, but certainly the time would seem to be ripe now to test the courage and peace-keeping philosophy of the majority of the United Nations.

Many Americans and Europeans as well have, indeed, long wondered why, in an emergency, the U.N. doesn't give closer attention to the high principles of its own charter.

For this document says explicitly that the General Assembly "may recommend measures for the peaceful adjustment of any situation, regardless of origin, which it deems likely to impair the general welfare or friendly relations among nations."

Electric Car Advocates Overlook Two Factors

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — Advocates of electric cars as a solution to city air pollution are overlooking two gigantic stumbling blocks:

Ruth Montgomery

● Utility companies cause 30 per cent of such pollution, and since approximately eight hours will be required to recharge the batteries of each electric car after only 50 miles or so, hundreds of thousands of plugged-in batteries would greatly magnify the load.

● Gasoline taxes amount to nearly $8 billion annually, totally financing our highway system, besides contributing about $2 billion to the general tax fund.

Thus, when enthusiasts wax lyrical about the economy of operating an electric car — about a penny a mile —they forget that if these vehicles replaced combustion engine cars their batteries would have to be heavily taxed to maintain and build roads.

Were it not for city, state and federal gasoline taxes, a gallon of gas would cost only 10 cents — considerably less than a penny a mile. This is one of the few products that has not increased in price during the past 10 years, although the product has improved considerably.

Is there then no hope for our air pollution problem?

ENCOURAGING NEWS

We posed this question to former Congressman Frank Ikard, a long-time Texas friend of President Johnson who now heads the American Petroleum Institute, and he gave us some encouraging news.

Prior to 1963, he said, the average car was emitting 547 pounds of toxic material into the atmosphere per year. This has since been reduced to 401 pounds, and the '68 models which will begin rolling off assembly lines this fall will cut the amount to 182 pounds.

Ikard is convinced that within five to six years automotive engines will be "relatively clean."

Air pollution is a direct result of our highly industrialized society, and a solution must be found. But anyone who has flown into New York City, noting the black smoke belching from Consolidated Edison's stacks should realize that daily recharging of hundreds of thousands of car batteries would compound the problem.

So hold your breath a little longer, Utopia is not yet at hand.

Question and Answer

CURIOUS

REPLY

We did a spot check of shops in Pontiac, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Rochester and Clarkston. Only one said tipping was customary in that shop. The rest said most customers don't tip and although they accept tips, the barbers as professional men don't expect them. All the shops we called said the average tip would be 25 cents.

Reviewing Other Editorial Pages

More Uncertainty

The Denver Post

The latest pronouncements on the subject of obscenity by the U.S. Supreme Court last week do very little to dispel the fog of uncertainty and confusion that arose from its earlier decisions.

Although the court struck down obscenity convictions under the laws of three states, it acknowledged candidly that its members are not agreed on what obscenity is. On the nine-member court, there are at least four views.

The court's latest decision brought paperback books and "girlie" magazines in New York, Kentucky and Arkansas within the protection of the free enterprise provisions of the First Amendment to the Constitution.

★ ★ ★

The court was apparently unable or unwilling to determine whether the publications appealed to "prurient interests," whether they had any "redeeming social significance" or to what extent that would have mattered.

In this decision as in the Ginzburg case, the judges appear to be turning away from the circumstances under which they are marketed.

★ ★ ★

By continuing to place emphasis on the manner in which publications are displayed, promoted and advertised, the court at least raises the possibility that all publications may one day be held permissible if they are not displayed, promoted or advertised in an objectionable manner.

There is also the possibility that relatively innocent publications may be interfered with if they are marketed in the wrong way.

A number of petitions to review obscenity decisions of lower courts are still on the Supreme Court docket for this term. When the court has occasion to speak again on this subject, we hope it can do so with greater clarity and a greater area of agreement.

Old Argument

The Grand Rapids Press

The same kind of opposition that arose many years ago when the State set out to eliminate water pollution is developing now toward the eliminating of air pollution.

Industries that were polluting the water protested that the cost of disposing of their waste products without dumping them into the State's rivers would put them out of business. Today industries that are polluting the air are putting up the same kind of argument.

★ ★ ★

The Legislature has it on the authority of the State's chief health official, Dr. Albert Heustis, director of the State Public Health Department and chairman of the Air Pollution Control Commission, that the air standards proposed for Michigan are not too costly or stringent.

Dr. Heustis says that his commission has tried to find a balance "for the betterment of the welfare of the State and the economic interests of industry."

★ ★ ★

We are inclined to believe him. We don't think the commission is trying to put any industry out of business.

Dr. Heustis has been unusually frank in warning industries that they might fare worse under federal control than they would under state control.

★ ★ ★

It isn't the fear of federal intervention, however, that should inspire prompt and decisive action against air pollution; it is the increasing danger to health and the knowledge that postponing effective remedial action in handling such problems inevitably means storing up worse trouble for the future.

'Our State Must Do Something About Crime'

Some dogs are more dangerous than others and should be kept tied up. But there are some things worse than bad dog bites and are not repairable, such as the rapists and murderers running loose every day. Mrs. Falls being killed last week was a good example. We must have something done in our state and fast. It seems to me too often our offenders get out and do more damage.

'Our Present Court Systems Hinder Justice'

When the courts excuse crime among those who can afford adequate legal representation while castigating their poorer counterparts, justice is not being served, it is being brainwashed. This deplorable condition in the courts, whose original purpose was to protect society against those who exploit and abuse it, is the result of a gradual erosion of the laws themselves.

★ ★ ★

The occasional decision handed down in favor of the accused set legal precedents upon which other decisions are based. Like rotten apples in the barrel, they undermine the original intent and purpose of the laws. Effective law enforcement and equal justice under the law will never materialize unless drastic changes are made in the court system.

Bus Driver Discusses Discipline of Children

Recently a fellow school bus driver was subjected to a tongue-lashing by an irate parent who believes the only job a bus driver has is to deliver the children home safe—that the bus driver has no right to discipline the children. Do parents have any idea what it is like on a school bus with 60 to 70 children four and five times a day without some kind of order?

★ ★ ★

This parent stated "bring my children home safely." How many times would children get home safely if the driver let them run rampant on the bus? I have found in my five years of driving that most children want discipline. Fortunately, the majority of parents cooperate when a driver has a problem, but the minority make our job a tough one.

★ ★ ★

I suggest if a parent is dissatisfied with the bus driver he come to the bus garage and get acquainted with the driver and try to clear up any problem that has arisen.

Opinions Continue on Capital Punishment

In reply to Jackie Felker, regardless of how inhuman a man may be, he is still a man. We will never be on the same level as a dog. A dog should be put away for mauling and attacking a human, because he is a dog. Do you approve of mercy killing? It, too, seems right at times. But I will never believe taking another man's life is morally right when other measures can be taken. When someone has cancer we don't kill him just because we have no cure. Why kill a person tortured by mental illness just because there is no cure?

★ ★ ★

Children will never be safe until we all become aware of the roots of mental illness and stop viewing man, regardless of how sick, in the same light as a dog. Possibly one answer instead of capital punishment, would be to print daily the history of as many sex offenders and other criminals as possible. The Press is instituting a great help by publishing the daily crime report to make people aware.

Comments on Township Water Problems

Members of the Sylvan Manor Association who signed a petition some time ago were asking for information, such as cost, financing, etc., about Detroit water. They did not expect to go to a meeting and find that the water assessment district was an accomplished fact. Why did Mr. Winkler not investigate the possibility of obtaining water from Sylvan, which already has mains in the subdivision and at much less cost? Many do not object to water but do object to the manner in which it has been forced on us.

Susceptibility to Fever Eyed

By Science Service

NEW YORK — Red-haired children and red rabbits, for some unknown reason, are especially susceptible to rheumatic fever.

Doctors long ago observed that children with red hair and freckles are more likely to contact the heart-damaging disease than others, but the coincidental similarity in red rabbits is something new.

Dr. Ben H. S. Lau, research microbiologist at the Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital, Hinsdale, Ill., reported his observations to the American Society for Microbiology.

Dr. Lau's experiments are thought to be the first in recent years to successfully induce heart damage in rabbits by injecting them with group A streptococci, the strain of bacteria that causes strep throat that sometimes precedes rheumatic fever.

NASA to Name Boeing as Apollo Capsule Watchdog

By Science Service

WASHINGTON — The National Aeronautics and Space Administration is about to appoint a shepherd for future Apollo space capsules, and also plans to cut the spacecraft's builder, North American Aviation, out of the bidding for the rich Apollo Applications Program.

The shepherding job, called systems integration, was originally to have been given to North American, which has by far the biggest share of NASA's Apollo business.

The contract was never awarded, said NASA head James Webb, because North American did not seem prepared to handle the task. Systems integration is the job of seeing that the individual spacecraft modules and rocket stages work when assembled into a unit.

North American has been in charge of integrating the three sections of the spacecraft itself, but the Saturn V booster, which will carry Apollo to the moon, has been in the hands of the Boeing Co., builder of the Saturn V's powerful first stage.

★ ★ ★

NAST now plans to give Boeing the job of integrating the entire package, including both spacecraft and rocket booster.

DEFINITE SLIGHT

Though the dollar value of the contract will not be large as Apollo costs go, it represents a definite slight to North American's management, which before the fatal spacecraft fire of Jan. 27 had gotten along with no sugegstion from the space agency that such supervision would be necessary.

Webb also told the Senate space committee today that NASA plans not to include North American among the contractors to be considered for the Apollo Applications Program.

This decision was made, said deputy administrator Robert Seamans Jr., "in order to reduce the burden of diversity otherwise borne by the mainline Apollo spacecraft contractor."

Before the Apollo accident, NASA had intended to spend more than $140 million on Apollo Applications in the coming fiscal year, which will be the first budget to contain any funds for the purpose.

In an effort to get the manned moon program back on its feet without exceeding its overall budget request of $5.05 billion, however, NASA has decided to slow the Applications Program down, cutting its proposed funding for next year back to about $55 million.

Among the juicy prospects for industry that will be part of the multibillion-dollar Apollo Applications Program are orbiting laboratories, workshops, manned and unmanned experiments, and other projects making use of hardware that has already been designed for Apollo.

Leaving North American out of the bidding means that the company will be out in the cold as soon as the projects get either sophistacated or big enough not to need Apollo space capsules, even though they will still be using Saturn boosters.

★ ★ ★

Ushers were Reginald Larson, Ronnie Edwards and Mark Robinson.

Mitzi Humphrey was flower girl and Tom Beadle ring bearer.

★ ★ ★

A reception in the church parlors followed the evening rite at the Five Points Community Church.

A Newcomer May Invite Neighbors

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: We have just moved into a semi-rural area. A "neighbor" who lives several miles away invited eight women to lunch to acquaint me with some of my other neighbors. I liked them and would be pleased to see them again. But how?

★ ★ ★

I do not wish to push myself on anyone and have been waiting for them to call on me. I did invite them to drop in to see me as I'm usually at home. —Mrs. M. M.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. M. M.: Since you have been properly introduced to these ladies, it's perfectly all right for you to make the next move. Rather than asking all eight to lunch, invite your hostess and two or three of the others. In this way you can get to know them more intimately, and they will undoubtedly return your invitation.

★ ★ ★

If possible, join a church group or other organization in which you might meet the same women again, and certainly will meet others.

BACHELOR

Dear Mrs. Post: When we have a male guest for dinner — a bachelor — does my husband serve his plate first, or mine?—Mrs. L.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. L.: Since you are the only woman at the table, he should violate the "guests first" rule and serve your plate first.

June Bride-Elect Feted at Many Area Parties

By SIGNE KARLSTROM

Kathleen Aho, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Aho whose marriage takes place on June 17 to Robert P. Lytle, Jr. son of Dr. and Mrs. Lytle is being honored at numerous parties.

Friday evening, Mrs. Delmar Garrison entertained at a miscellaneous shower in her home on Camelot Court.

Later in the month Mrs. Jack Lawson will give a linen shower and in June Kathleen's Pi Beta Phi Sorority sisters will honor the bride to be.

Presently, Kathleen has a busy teaching career at the Booth Elementary School.

Dr. and Mrs. Lytle will give the rehearsal dinner at the Village Woman's Club on June 16.

ELECT OFFICERS

At the Oakland Hills Country Club on Thursday the Birmingham Musicale elected their new officers.

Retiring president, Mrs. Richard O. Euppel relinquished the gavel to Mrs. Louis M. Randall Jr. Mesdames Wilson Richards and John C. Edwards were elected vice president, Mrs. Ted V. Linabury, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Bockmuehl corresponding secretary and Mesdames: Earl Cannon and Philip Whelan took over the duties as treasurer.

★ ★ ★

Others on the new board are Mesdames William E. Jackson, John F. Randall, Aileen Erdman and Thomas F. Crusinberry. Thursday's luncheon drew a crowd of 200.

Mrs. Clifford A. Nelson was the general chairman and Mrs. Clark Pardee was in charge of the musical entertainment.

Shortage of Nurses

Maybe Machine Goofed!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have a neighbor lady who is 78 years old. She's a registered nurse and served with the U. S. Army during World War I in France. She has pictures to prove it. She claims that she was called up to take a physical as they want her for active duty in Vietnam!

ABBY

Now Abby, this is kind of hard to believe. We may need nurses over there, but do we need them THAT badly?

ASKING IN SHREVEPORT

DEAR ASKING: Good nurses are always "badly" needed, but not at 78 and (probably) not in Vietnam. If your friend was "called," a computer must have "regressed" about 30 years.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My father and his second wife arrived here last January for a six-month visit. We have four children, ages seven to 17. Our eldest, a student in high school is married, and he and his wife are living with us. (She is expecting.) Our meager savings are dwindling away. I'm growing more nervous, have a twitch in my eye, my hands shake, and I cry over nothing.

★ ★ ★

I scream at the children and pick on my husband. Some mornings I hate to get up and face the day. We are terribly crowded. During my calmer moments I feel ashamed of myself. What is the matter with me? Am I selfish?

FEELING GUILTY

DEAR FEELING: Selfish? For coming unglued because nine (going on 10) people are living in quarters meant to accommodate six! I would say you are normal. Don't feel guilty. Under the circumstances your father and his wife should realize they are inconveniencing you, and clear out.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO "A DISTRAUGHT MOTHER": Your daughter and "her kind" are not necessarily "the scum of the earth." You need to replace ignorance and prejudices with some enlightenment and understanding.

★ ★ ★

Send me your name and address, which will be held in the strictest of confidence, and I will recommend some educational reading on homosexuality.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1.00 to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press.

Plan Convention for Mothers' Club

The third annual convention of the Michigan Organization of Mothers of Twins Clubs will take place in Port Huron this weekend.

A program of workshops will open at 9:30 a.m. Saturday with Mrs. Harry Kirban, Director of Day Care Centers for Sanilac and St. Clair counties, speaking on the topic of Day Care.

"The Child Molester" film will be shown Saturday evening following a banquet to which husbands are invited.

A Sunday workshop will feature the Ottenbacher twins, Michigan's first successful example of kidney transplant.

★ ★ ★

Any area multiple-birth mother or guardian is invited to contact Mrs. Donald Hawes of Stirling Avenue, or Mrs. Jerry Hockey of Broadway, for further information.

CAROL ANN BIEN

August 25 rites are planned by recent Oakland University graduate Carol Ann Bien and Spec. 5 Michael J. Harrington (serving in Vietnam). Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. John F. Bien of Bywater Street, Commerce Township, and the James P. Harringtons of Denby Drive.

THEODOSIA JOHNSON

High School Diploma Is Earned at 78

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — Theodosia Johnson is graduating from high school 62 years after quitting a one-room Georgia schoolhouse just as she was beginning to learn fractions.

She says those fractions kept bothering her during a half century of working as a waitress and taking in folks' laundry.

★ ★ ★

"My stepfather was a slave and he never went to school. When he was freed, he learned to read and write real good without school. He said we could do what he did," she recalls.

But one day in 1963, Miss Johnson, 78, told some passing school children to ask their teacher if she could come to classes, too.

"They were anxious for me to go when I asked them," she said.

She was advised to enroll in special adult elementary school classes and eventually transferred to adult evening classes at Rochelle Senior High School.

★ ★ ★

Today she steps forward with 28 younger students and receives her diploma.

With a wide, gentle smile, she added, "It was easier than I thought it would be. Teaching was plainer than when I was a girl."

CHANGES

At the turn of the century, Miss Johnson said, "They whipped you for making a mistake. Now a teacher explains why."

Born on a farm near Philema, Ga., Miss Johnson grew up in a series of small saw mill camps. Her first schooling was in a church classroom at Sibley, Ga.

All in the Family a Second Time

DETROIT (UPI) — Miss Claudia Sand, the 1966 Miss Detroit, had to part with her crown Friday night, but at least she kept it in the family.

★ ★ ★

The five judges chose her sister Rosalind, 19, as the city's contestant this year for the June Miss Michigan Pageant.

★ ★ ★

Rosalind, a pert 5 foot 4, 122-pound miss who measures 37-24-36, beat nine other finalists after being judged in bathing suit, evening gown and talent competition in events at Detroit's Masonic Temple.

Only Nobility Could Sit

Chairs a Status Symbol

A simple backrest attached to a seat — forerunner of today's comfortable arm chair — was a powerful status symbol of the 18th century, akin to ownership of the finest quality hi-fi stereo set today.

It achieved that position because it marked the period when the rising middle class was able to afford other than backless benches or stools for sitting.

Indeed, at some 17th century courts, only the highest titled noble present was permitted to sit on a chair which had a back.

★ ★ ★

In the 18th century, the chair with a back provided the dual delights of physical ease and social glamor for the rising merchant and artisan classes of Europe.

TOPS IN COMFORT

While no longer a mark of social distinction, the chair with a back today reaches the comfort pinnacle with scientific body-contoured design and "super-downy" foam rubber.

Eager to install the greatest amount of comfort in their wares, manufacturers of hitherto strictly functional director's chairs, for example, now impart delightful languor with form-fitting cushioned softness.

Good common sense helps you select chairs in the right scale and balance for your own living room. Your choice of upholstery colors depends more on personal taste and on their harmony with other colors used in the same room.

The National Association of Furniture Manufacturers recommends that you consider scale from these standpoints:

- Is the chair scaled for the person to use it?

The test of this is for the person to sit in the chair to see if height of seat and arms is comfortable, the seat is deep enough and is the right distance from the floor, and if the arms are of restful height and not too far apart.

- Is scaling of the chair in right proportion to other furniture in the same group?

In other words, you would not wish to pair a thin-line table with a bulky chair, nor a small lamp with a high-back chair.

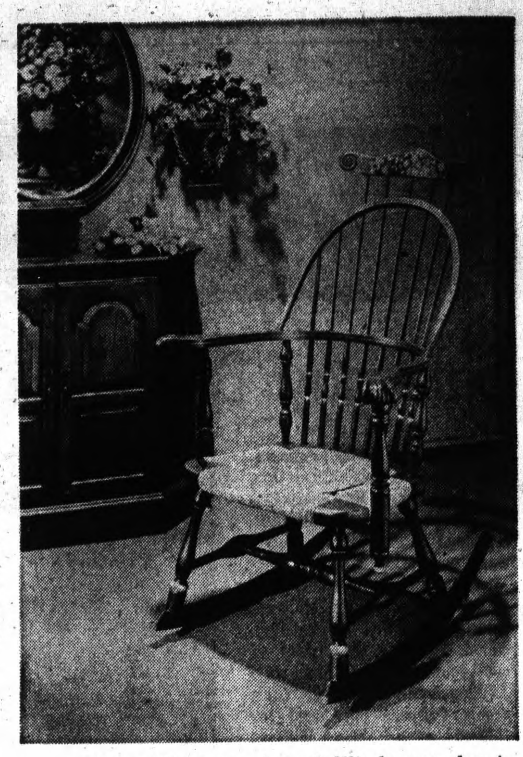

- Is the chair scaled according to the size of the room?

Lightly scaled chairs belong in small rooms; bulky ones are more at home in large rooms.

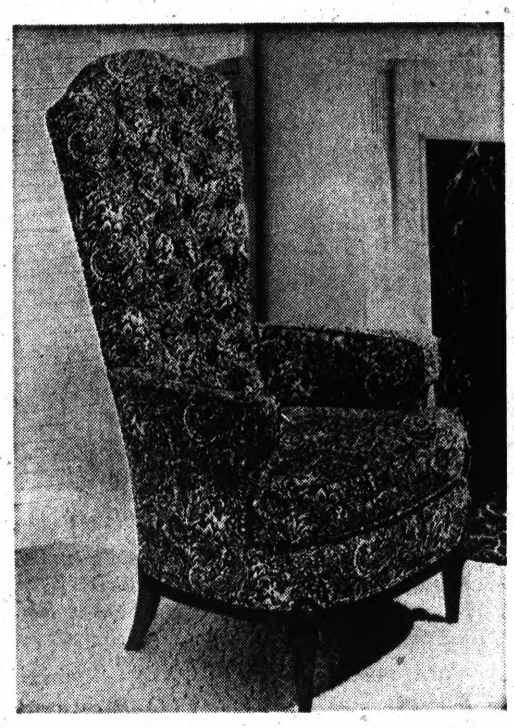

★ ★ ★

Chairs have a function in preserving or attaining right balance in a room.

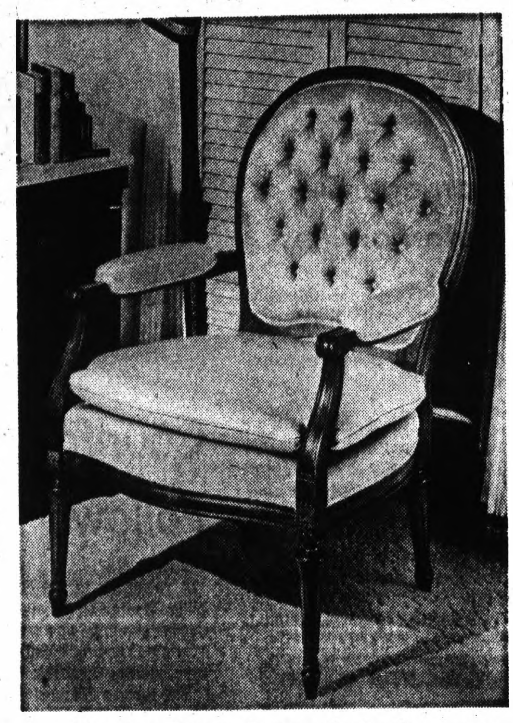

A pair of tall-back chairs, for instance, serve to balance a breakfront on the opposite side of the room, whereas two low-back chairs give equipoise to a low credenza across the room.

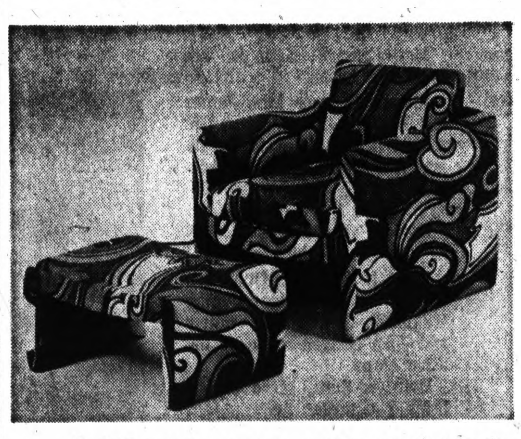

Ethan Allen's comb back Windsor rocker is an unusual and delicate version of the standard Comb Back, dating back to 1770. The sleek lines and good proportions make it suitable for about any room. Comes in plain wood, black and colors. Will be shown at the June Furniture Mart in Chicago. Line available locally.

The Italian boutique chair . . . has a dramatic hand-tufted high back, lavish tufting and gently-curved base, all calculated by Sam Moore Furniture Industries to lend distinction to a room. This new model from the "American Imports Collection" is shown in a swirling black and white printed cotton. Line available locally.

Elegance that is forever England . . . augments the current repertoire of classic chairs in Sam Moore Furniture Industries' popular "American Imports Collection." The hand-tufted cartouche back, carved detailing, upholstered arms and separate seat cushion are authentic details taken from a chair designed by Robert Adam in the mid-18th century. Only the scale is different; designer H. Thomas Keller has reproduced the chair on a larger scale so that even over-six-footers can sit comfortably. Line available locally.

Swirling art nouveau pattern conforms to the undulating curves of the new Thayer Coggin chair design because it's a new textured knit developed of Allied Chemical's Caprolan nylon yarns. The nylon upholstery print, is a Jack Lenor Larsen design shown in a hot magenta-orange-green combination.

Rules for Marital Spats

OMAHA, Neb. — Married people are going to fight — on this all experts (and non-experts) agree. But certain ground rules should be observed for this sport as for any other. Here are the ground rules recommended by Dr. Beverly T. Mead, Professor of Psychiatry and Neurology, Creighton University.

- "Fight fairly. No violence Don't leave emotional or physical scars.
- "Don't belittle your spouse. Don't disparage the wife's femininity or the husband's masculinity.
- "Fight privately.
- "Don't involve the children or make them take sides."
- "Break clean. Don't let it develop into a grudge fight.
- "Don't hope to settle many issues. The value of the fight is chiefly to get rid of pent-up feelings."

Nuptial Vows Spoken

MRS. F. DEAN LaBARGE

MRS. M. J. FREIBURGER

MRS. F. TUREK JR.

LaBarge-Froggatt

St. Mark's Lutheran Church was the setting Saturday evening for vows repeated by Ann Mabel Froggatt and Francis Dean LaBarge.

★ ★ ★

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Froggatt of Alden Drive, West Bloomfield Township and the Lauren Millers of Joslyn Road, Orion Township.

★ ★ ★

The bride wore a gown of white full length French lace and peau de soie. She carried white gladioli with Stephanotis and ivy.

★ ★ ★

Matron of honor was Mrs. Clifford Pfeifle. Virginia Nihill and Mrs. Donald Dayner were bridesmaids. Nancy Froggatt was flower girl.

★ ★ ★

Ronald LaBarge was best man. Ushers were Thomas LaBarge, Donald Dayner, Daniel Mirowsky and Jerry Mirowsky.

A dinner reception in Guinns Banquet Hall followed the rite.

Freiburger-Hrymecki

Pamela Jean Hrymecki became the bride of Myron Jay Freiburger Saturday morning in a ceremony at St. Patrick's Catholic Church.

The bride was gowned in floor length chiffon over lace with a squared neckline and shoulder train. Her shoulder length veil was secured by a pearl tiara.

★ ★ ★

Her flowers were carnations in a colonial bouquet.

Virginia Wing was maid of honor and Mrs. Harry Harding and Mary Hrymecki were bridesmaids.

★ ★ ★

Best man was Clyde Freiburger. Art Freiburger and Richard Hrymecki were ushers.

A reception at the Amvets Hall was held.

★ ★ ★

Parents of the newlyweds are Commerce Township residents Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Hrymecki of Havana Street, and the Henry Freiburgers of Arabelle Street.

Turek-McClay

At 6:00 p.m. on May 6, in Trinity Episcopal Church, St. Clair Shores, Carol Jean McClay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McClay of St. Clair Shores, bescame the bride of Frederick Turek Jr. of Grand Island, New York.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Turek Sr. of Lakewood Drive.

The bride's gown was of rippled chiffon. A bateau neckline accented its sheath silhouette. Her matching chapel train was widely edged in satin.

A floral coronet secured her bouffant, elbow-length veil. A bouquet of white roses completed her ensemble.

Sharon Nanni was honor maid with attendants Mrs. Paul Polus of Pittsburgh, Pa., sister of the bride, and Pauline Suppa of Roseville.

Michael Turek served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Carl Wilberg, James Kreger, William Rausch, and Thomas Kreger of Grand Island.

A Florida honeymoon followed the reception in the East Detroit Odd Fellows Hall. The couple will reside in Grand Island, New York.

Vote Mrs. Miller as Commander

Mrs. Ayers Miller was installed as Commander of the Navy Mother's Club No. 355 at their recent meeting.

Mrs. Melvin Smith of Hackett Road was hostess for the event.

Mrs. William Christie performed the installations.

Guests were Mrs. Helen DeLeon, Mrs. Betty Ayers and Mrs. Miner.

Mrs. Ball was named state organizer of Michigan.

VFW Unit Okays Gifts to Graduates

★ ★ ★

A life membership in the VFW National Home was approved and will be presented to outgoing president, Mrs. Joseph Pedrogo Jr.

★ ★ ★

Recent delegates to the Oakland County Council meeting were Mrs. G. D. Birdsall and Mrs. Dorothy Almas.

★ ★ ★

Both women were appointed and installed as color bearers at the council.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Birdsall and Mrs. Almas will be delegates to the Department of Michigan Convention in June.

Mrs. Virgil Vandecar and Mrs. Hazel Burns are alternates.

Foundation Gives Grant

NEW YORK (AP) — The Ford Foundation has established with a $434,000 grant a professional theater company and workshop to develop American Negro actors, playwrights, directors, technicians and managers. It will be called the Negro Ensemble Company.

W. McNeil Lowry, a Foundation vice president, said in announcing the project Sunday, that it would provide a new off-Broadway platform to expand opportunities for Negro actors.

It will deal with works on racial themes and offer professional training to potential new talents with materials which emphasize the Negro identity.

The ensemble plans a season of 26 weeks with four productions each year starting next fall.

Joanna Dale Lovett is a recent University of Michigan graduate of the school of nursing. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Houston Lovett of Aquarina Drive. She has taken a position with Pontiac General Hospital.

A recent graduate of University of Michigan College of Architecture is James F. Melstrom. His parents are Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Melstrom of Rochester. He will spend the summer in Europe.

Polly's Pointers

Rub In and Brush

DEAR POLLY — Do tell Martha that to clean a white felt hat I use white corn meal. Rub the meal in well with your hand, let it stay on a few minutes and then brush off. MYRTLE.

DEAR POLLY — The sky is the limit when decorating a young child's room. Paint the ceiling a darker color than the walls, perhaps midnight blue with light blue walls. After the paint has dried, stick on small silver stars, the sort that teachers use for marking first grader's papers.

At night the faint glow of a night light in the room seems to make the stars twinkle. Little things like his always make children feel that the parents are the best.—A LITTLE STAR

★ ★ ★

DEAR POLLY — ALIAS MRS. P. C. — Next to plagarizing Chopin, the composer, American have a habit of brain picking. You ask readers for hints and offer to pay them if they are published. I think that you pick ideas, embroider them and then send a letter to yourself. Mrs. P. C. are your initials. I sent in a Pointer and instead of giving me credit you dress it up and put it in as coming from a Mrs. P. C.

Well, I have had my brains picked before but I never dreamed a household hint columnist would steal from an American with a foreign name like mine.

★ ★ ★

My brother, who works for a Washington newspaper sent in an idea for a radio show and the idea was used but Walter got nothing, just like his sister Fran. Maybe you figure someone with a name like ours is dumb but I won $1,000 from the Milwaukee Journal when I was 15.

I also left something for a night club performer and his publicity man gave the idea to a movie star's agent. Ah, thieving Americans. Only the Milwaukee Journal was honest.—FRANCES WHO SINGS in six languages.

DEAR FRANCES — Thank you for writing and giving me your side of the story for that gives me a chance to give you mine. Have you ever stopped to think how many people in this great world have the initials P. C.? There are five in my own immediate family.

If I wanted to do as you suggest I do, I would certainly be smart enough to use initials other than my own. Many of the same Pointers have been sent in by dozens of people and, at times, there have been hundreds of duplicates. Sorry I had to omit parts of your lengthy letter but please do not write to chastise me for that, too.

Try to be a bit more trusting and believe me when I say we make every effort to be fair. America and all the world will look better to you if you will get that chip off your shoulder. —POLLY.

Single Gals Must Look Ten Years Ahead

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

The single woman who hopes to retire from her job at an earlier age than 65 needs to take at least a 10-year look ahead—to evaluate how much she'll have besides hopes. As a starting point in estimating her retirement income, her pension, of course, figures most importantly.

MARY FEELEY

Private pension plans, covering 26 million workers, are at best complex. Do you really understand what your own pension plan is saying with all those elaborate phrases? Some employees in business and industry are told, when they start on the job, that the prevailing pension plan there is a good one.

But often these plans are not lucrative for employees unless they have been employed for many years. So let's examine the over-all pension trusts, as they're known, in order to highlight features you may need to find out more about, as they bear on your individual situation.

★ ★ ★

Some of the things you will want to know about your own particular plan include:

- Is the pension plan based on the last 10 years of earnings, or on the highest earnings during the entire period of service?
- Is the pension payment determined both by your highest five years of earnings and the number of years you were employed by the company?
- Does the pension provide adequate death benefits? If it does not, check to find out if these are provided in a group life insurance program in effect within the company. It has been estimated that "adequate" death benefits should be equal to a minimum of two years' pension compensation.

Under some plans, the beneficiary of an employee who dies before retirement receives nothing. In others, the employee's beneficiary receives the amount standing to the employee's credit. A clear understanding of this point will affect your decision as to what additional provisions you may want to make for the protection of a dependent.

- Can you take a lump sum at retirement if you so choose?
- Does the pension plan permit early retirement, and what is the financial arrangement? As an example set forth in a research report of corporate retirement plans: If an employee with 20 years service was under a plan providing 1 per cent of salary for each year of service and wanted to retire at age 64, he or she would receive 91.8 per cent of his accrued annual pension per $1,000. But if an employee retiring at 62 would receive only 78.1 per cent of his accrued annual pension per $1,000.

It's generally estimated that a pension plan should at least provide 1 per cent of your income for every year of service — or a flat 40 to 50 per cent of compensation with due allowance for Social Security benefits.

Any pension predicted on the last five or 10 years of earnings, or on the highest 10 years, is more advantageous than one based on average earnings during the entire period of service — because it has more direct relation to cost-of-living.

You will also want to check on what type of health insurance coverage continues in the retirement plans of the company. In the research report referred to above, under 35 per cent of the commercial health insurance plans that are continued after retirement are paid for entirely by the company.

And in another 36 per cent of the plans studied (effective in 1,000 companies), the company pays at least part of the premium. In the remainder of the plans, the pensioner must pay the entire post-retirement premium.

The population of the United States at the end of 1966 was estimated at 198 million.

Miserable Spring, Huh? Blame It on Jet Streams

WASHINGTON (AP)—You can blame those meandering jet streams for the unusual spring weather we've been having, Weather Bureau experts said today.

Drought in the semitropical Florida Everglades, spring snows in the Rockies, chills in the north central states and heavy rains in the Northeast all are related to those high-level winds which frequently give airplanes a push across the continent.

The Weather Bureau takes a philosophical view of it all.

"The weather is always abnormal somewhere," one expert said. "Normal weather is sometimes a hard thing to come by."

Basically what is happening, the bureau said, is that a northern jet stream is going further north than usual and bringing cold air into the continental United States from Alaska and Canada.

From Alaska this stream moves into the Great Lakes region and the East.

A southern stream is slightly farther north than usual and is stronger than normal. It is bringing storm systems in from the Pacific Ocean to the central part of the nation.

Between these two giant rivers of air is what weather observers call a confluence zone—and it's here that snow and rain are falling from west to east.

TENDENCY

The tendency is for the opposing systems to spread moisture toward the north with a dry area to the south, thus accounting for the Everglades drought, the bureau said.

The jet stream dislocation began developing during March and it is anybody's guess when the wandering winds will go back to normal, one expert said.

★ ★ ★

During April, he added, it is normal for the northern mass to reach the Canadian-American border in the western part of the nation but it went as far as Alaska and is still there.

Just why the jet streams are meandering is a question the weather experts have not yet been able to answer with scientific accuracy. The streams are about 500 to 600 miles wide and their peak winds come between 30,000 and 40,000 feet.

There has been one advantage to all this, however.

The jet streams have moved rainy weather into the Northeast, plagued by drought the last five summers. But the bureau said drought could strike again this year when the jet streams move back on normal course.

New York City, which had been on the verge of a serious water shortage, now has an 97.3 per cent of capacity Saturday.

Last May 11, the city's water supply was only 80.7 per cent of capacity.

School Needs Told by Detroit Unionist

DETROIT (AP) — Mary Ellen Riordan, the president of the Detroit Federation of Teachers, says Detroit needs at least $400 million to build public school classrooms in the inner city.

Mrs. Riordan says another $6 million is needed to keep the buildings in top codition.

"Under our present school tax setup, Detroit will not be able to maintain the schools at the present level or to offer needed improvements," Mrs. Riordan said Saturday.

Detroit Fire Uncovers Log Cabin

DETROIT (AP) — Until last week, a 20-by-20 foot log cabin stood where it had for nearly 130 years—within two miles of downtown Detroit.

★ ★ ★

The cabin was discovered when a house was gutted by fire. Behind charred plaster walls firemen discovered the original log structure, apparently built in the 1840s.

★ ★ ★

The Detroit Historical Museum was notified of the find and it has been dismantled for reconstruction as part of a model of the original Detroit settlement.

★ ★ ★

The house's owner, Mrs. Geneva Parks, said she was unaware the cabin was there.

★ ★ ★

Investigation showed that lathe and plaster were placed over the cabin walls long ago and that the front of the house and a second floor were added sometime between 1910 and 1920.

David Kinsler, chief preparator for the museum, estimated the cabin was built 125-130 years ago on sunken posts and a heavy sill.

★ ★ ★

He fixed the time of construction by the joints at the corners, which are American construction—interlocking, squared and joined with pegs. This is in contrast to the criss-cross logs of the Lincoln era or of the French-type construction, said Kinsler.

He noted that clay used as weatherproof chinking was in remarkably good condition.

Despite 'Run-Ins' With Soviets

Joint Ship Training to Continue

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese and U. S. officials said today their navies will continue joint maneuvers near Japan despite nosing in by Soviet ships which bumped a U. S. destroyer twice last week.

The maneuvers are "not only safe, but more interesting recently," Adm. Ulysses Grant Sharp Jr., commander in chief of the U. S. Pacific Fleet, said with a smile.

Sharp and Kaneschichi Masuda, Japanese Defense Agency director, commented at a news conference following the seventh meeting of the U. S.-Japan Security Consultative Committee.

Masuda's agency reported earlier that close approaches by a Soviet destroyer and aircraft forced Japanese warships to suspend antisubmarine maneuvers with U. S. vessels briefly Thursday.

Foreign Ministry sources said the Japanese government felt no protest was warranted since the approaches came on the high seas — seas not under any nation's jurisdiction — and there was no collision.

Japanese military sources said a Soviet destroyer came within about 300 yards of the Japanese destroyer Makigumo Thursday about two hours before a Soviet destroyer brushed the U. S. destroyer Walker.

The Defense Agency released a photograph taken from the Makigum showing crewmen on the Soviet ship taking pictures and looking through binoculars.

The United States has protested to the Kremlin that Soviet vessels collided with the Walker both Wednesday and Thursday. The State Department in Washington says it considers the matter closed.

★ ★ ★

The Soviet Union protested to the United States that the American ships were operating too close to the Soviet coast. A protest note published in Soviet newspapers Sunday stressed that the incidents occurred within 275 miles of the Soviet naval base at Vladivostok.

WANDERING WINDS—Weather Bureau experts today blamed our unusual spring weather on an abnormal pattern of the jet streams, as illustrated on this map of North America. Normal pattern of the high-altitude winds is indicated by dashed lines, one bringing warm air from the Southwest to the mid-Atlantic states and the other with cooler air from the Northwest to the Northeast. Both streams are further north this spring.

Firm Offers Rust Warranty

No matter what model '67 car you buy, you'll be getting the best bargain on warranties ever offered; indeed, General Motors last week extended its warranties to include "everything except tires which are warranted by the tire manufacturers."

But is "everything" except tires on cars getting factory backing for longer periods? Not necessarily. Still unwarranted is the actual car body, except for defects in workmanship or paint.

Now a Detroit automotive rustproofing concern is matching the Big Four automakers by offering a five-year, or 50,000 miles, warranty on cars treated by its rustproofing process.

Ziebart Process Corp., 821 Oakland Ave., Pontiac, says the warranty will protect against "any rust through" over the prescribed period.

Developed by German immigrant Karl Ziebart who come to Detroit in 1953 and now lives in Traverse City, the process involves spraying a petroleum-based chemical coating "inside" door panels, headlamp fixtures and other areas susceptible to rusting.

The spray is applied by special equipment patented by Ziebart Process which penetrates down to the metal to seal against moisture-causing rust.

Average "treatment" says Roger Waindle, Ziebart president, costs about $55. Under his 5/50 warranty, motorists whose cars have been Ziebarted are called in each two years or 20,000 miles for a free inspection and "an extra shot of chemical if it's needed," says Waindle.

Cost-conscious City, State and Federal agencies have accepted the process enthusiastically, Waindle says. "We have all City of Detroit Vehicles," he boasts. In addition, Detroit Edison Co.'s fleet is Ziebarted, he says. Publicly-owned fleets in New York City, Indianapolis and elsewhere plus post office and military vehicles have undergone the process, he notes.

As proof that it works, Waindle likes to show visitors a 1953 Packard Ziebarted that year and still not rusted out.

Ziebart, of 821 Oakland Ave., Pontiac, will be happy to discuss their Guaranteed Protection program, just call FE 4-0502.

Early Weather News May Be Bad News

WASHINGTON (UPI) — More than 2,000 years ago Titus L. Carus remarked that "what is food to one man may be fierce poison to others."

Lucretius, as he was known to his friends and critics, was a poet. But there was at least as much truth as poetry in what he said. Every allergist knows that one man's meat may well be another man's poison, and the figurative applications of old T.L.C.'s saying are endless.

Take the weather. Did it ever occur to you that accurate forecasting for a week or more in advance might be a bad thing, for some people?

Dr. William O. Davis of the Office of Science and Engineering of the Environmental Science Services Administration (ESSA) and Dr. Joachim P. Kuttner of ESSA's National Environmental Satellite Center say this could be the case.

In a paper presented recently at a space meeting in Dallas, the two ESSA scientists predicted development in the next decade or so of a system of manned and unmanned satellite observatories which will watch constantly over man's earthly environment.

This system will predict long-range climatic changes, the state of the sea, the position and velocity of major ocean currents, the build up of dangerous seismic sea waves, floods, severe storms, periods of intensified air pollution, solar flares of possible danger to astronauts, the best frequencies for radio communications under upcoming conditions, and "a host of other environmental factors."

Weather forecasts, the scientists said, will be "more accurate and dependable than is possible today."

This, of course, will be great. Davis and Kuettner cited a study which said "ability to forecase weather accurately for a week or more in advance would be worth many tens of billions a year to the peoples of the world."

★ ★ ★

Long-range forecasts of ocean current movements, such as the gulf stream's, "would be worth millions annually to the fishing industry."

NO HAPPIER

For the ordinary citizen more dependable weather forecasts would mean the end of "much frustration and disappointment." But would everybody be happier? No.

Real knowledge of what the weather was going to be would be upsetting to many.

Resort hotels "might have to develop special rates for periods of predicted bad weather." All activities and facilities "which depend upon the weather would tend to be overcrowded during the good times and otherwise rather empty."

Speculative commodity markets would be affected, if the growing season climate could be predicted, and "the basis for writing crop insurance would have to be changed."

Just as T. Lucretius Carus said more than 2,000 years B.S. (before satellites), "quod ali cibus est aliis fiat acre venenum."

Now Possible To Shrink Hemorrhoids Without Surgery

...Except In Unusually Severe Or Persistent Cases

New York, N.Y. (Special): A scientific research institute has discovered a substance which has the ability to actually shrink hemorrhoids without surgery except in unusually severe or persistent cases.

In most cases the sufferer first notices relief from the itching, burning and pain. Then this substance starts right in to gently reduce the swelling.

Tests conducted on hundreds of patients by leading doctors in New York City, in Washington, D.C. and at a Midwest Medical Center proved this so. And it was all accomplished without surgery, injections, narcotics or astringents of any kind.

The secret is Preparation H® —the only formula for the treatment of hemorrhoids that contains Bio-Dyne®. In addition to actually shrinking piles — Preparation H lubricates, makes bowel movements more comfortable, and soothes irritated tissues. It also helps prevent further infection.

Preparation H comes in ointment or suppository form. No prescription is needed.

Heat Wave Relief Sought by Mexican Government

By Science Service

MEXICO CITY — With thousands of children hospitalized and deaths approaching 100 from the recent heat wave here, a search for means of relief has been started by the government's Anti-Disaster Committee.

Officials have denied there is any major problem, but reliable sources report that the government is beginning a study of the recurrent heat waves. They occur annually, but up to now have not aroused national concern.

The heat wave last week struck with particular virulence in the northern Mexican cities of Monterrey and Chihuahua. There, according to unofficial estimates, more than 50 have died and some 1,500 children have been hospitalized for heat-related illness.

In Saltillo, 80 infants have died and more than 950 were hospitalized nn the Capital at the Children's Hospital. A major cause of death, according to a medical spokesman, is dehydration resulting from improper care of children with dirrhea.

He also said authorities are becoming alarmed by a spiraling suicide rate during heat spells. Within one 24-hour period recently, 10 persons took their own lives.

Many cases of dehydration can be traced to poor families without a sufficient supply of potable water. They often do not realize that children with diarrhea need to drink more water than usual.

In areas such as Monterrey where the problem is of long standing, efforts have been made in the past by health authorities to get parents of dehydrated children to bring them to hospitals. The parents are often reluctant to do this or do not realize that effective treatment is available.

Fulbright Faces '68 Challenge

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Sen. J. W. Fulbright, of Arkansas, challenger of presidents and foreign policy for a quarter-century, faces his toughest political challenge as a dove in a state regarded as hawkish on the Vietnam war.

Two of Fulbright's most prominant fellow Democrats in Arkansas—former Govs. Orval E. Faubus and Sid McMath—think the senator is in trouble with the voters because of his attacks on administration war policy and so will be vulnerable in next year's primary.

★ ★ ★

Faubus and McMath, as well as Republicans bolstered by election gains last year, are seriously considering trying to unseat the maverick chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. But they all note that a lot can happen in a year.

"Most people think Fulbright's strength will depend on what happens in Vietnam," said Faubus in an interview.

"IN DIFFICULTY"

But, he added, "I think he's in greater difficulty than he's ever been before."

"He'd be defeated today because the majority of people in Arkansas don't support his position on Vietnam," said McMath, a ruggedly handsome lawyer and Marine Reserve major general who has spoken often on Vietnam since making a September trip to the war zone. McMath denies publicly he is considering taking on Fulbright but it is an open secret in political circles that he is.

Some prominant Arkansas businessmen who have helped to bankroll the party as well as support Fulbright and Faubus, tend to discount reports Fulbright is in trouble.

But some of them acknowledge privately that if Faubus does challenge Fulbright—and they would prefer that he take on Republican Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller—Fulbright will be in the political fight of his life. Fulbright has not announced whether he will run again.

However, Rockefeller believes Fulbright will be a formidable candidate and says he has gained strength in Arkansas "because he has the nerve, if you want to call it that, or the intestinal fortitude to disagree with the administration."

In an interview Sunday with Peter Jennings of ABC News, Rockefeller said, "The folks here in Arkansas are proud of our boy who stands up and takes a position, whether it is favorable or unfavorable."

The governor added he did not necessarily agree with Fulbright's stand.

When rumors began reaching Fulbright that his Vietnam dissent was rubbing voters the wrong way, he sought to run the reports down, a source said. He concluded some had been planted by those "who want to shut him up on Vietnam," the source added.

★ ★ ★

One Little Rock observer said there had been "curbstone speculation that LBJ Democrats might be stirring up some opposition to Fulbright" because of the senator's attacks on Johnson's Vietnam policy.

However, those in the Fulbright camp as well as others atuned to political high frequency say there is no evidence of this.

Some Fulbright friends reportedly are concerned enough to have urged him to be more active politically in Arkansas — to make more public appearances, to hire a pollster, to open an office in Little Rock.

★ ★ ★

Unlike most members of Congress, Fulbright does not have an official office in his home state, nor does he have a house there. His official residence is the Fayetteville home of Hal C. Douglas, who was the husband of the senator's late sister and who runs the Fulbright family interests.

Douglas feels Fulbright is "determined to let the chips fall where they may. As it is now, I don't think there is anybody who could beat him under any circumstances."

★ ★ ★

Other Fulbright supporters share this view.

Bill Darby, chairman of the National Old Line Insurance Co., says, "Fulbright's stronger right now than he's ever been. The people are getting damned fed up with this war. They are beginning to appreciate his position."

Mother's Day Is Very Special

COMPTON, Calif. (AP) — Mother's Day had special meaning for Ruthelma Hallam, who with her husband, Donald, is a foster parent for the Holy Family Adoption Center.

Her brood consists of 134 infants.

The Hallams have taken in foster infants for 13 years, providing the comforts of home until the children can be adopted.

The Hallams, who have four children of their own, adopted a son in 1962 and are now adopting another infant.

'Spy' Camera Use Charged at WSU

DETROIT (AP) — A student group at Wayne State University has charged the administration with hiding a camera in a men's rest room on campus to spy on alleged homosexuals.

Charles Larson, a student and president of the Wayne State Movement, told a Student Faculty Council meeting Sunday that he had an affidavit from a university employee backing the charges.

A university spokesman said that such secret films had been taken in State Hall three years ago.

The spokesman said it hadn't happened under President William R. Keast who became president of the university in the summer of 1966.

★ ★ ★

In the employe's affidavit, the late dean of students Howard Stewart and two university police officers were named in the hidden camera operation.

Larson said on the tip from the employe, who was not identified, the student group took photos of a hole in the wall of the lavatory where the camera was supposed to have been lodged.

"You could see the face of everyone using the lavatory," said Larson.

It pays to be a Credit Union Family

We'll take the credit for your vacation plans...at your

You can pay for a vacation in many ways. With credit cards. With savings. With a travel loan. But eventually you pay for it in just one way. With cash.

Lots of folks borrow cash. Some pay a higher price than others, and that runs up the cost of their vacation. The smart ones see their credit union.

A loan from your credit union usually costs less because credit unions are in business to help their members. They are owned by their members. And there's no point in charging yourself high interest rates.

So whether you're flying first class or roughing it in a state park, let your credit union take the credit for your vacation plans. It will probably cost you less money.

If you are not a member and would like more information, contact the C.U. where you work or one in your parish or call 332-9193.

He's Adamant on CIA Links

By DICK WEST
United Press International

WAHINGTON — New reports of Central Intelligence Agency involvement with private groups keep popping up.

WEST

In the latest controversy there were assertions, and some denials, linking the CIA with such diverse enterprises as the AFL-CIO, the Boston Symphony Orchestra, the magazine Encounter, the Congress for Cultural Freedom and an organization called PEN.

There still remain, however, a few events that have not aroused suspicion.

Anticipating that they also will eventually come under scrutiny, I have gone to the trouble of preparing the stories in advance.

● Garden of Eden — A spokesman for the Forbidden Fruit Co. denied today the CIA was involved in an apple-tasting plot designed to have Adam ousted from the Garden of Eden.

He said reports that CIA funds were used to hire a serpent, which served as a key figure in the alleged plot, were totally false.

The CIA reputedly was eager to promote Adam's fall so that he might be replaced with someone more sympathetic to American proposals to finance an urban renewal project in the garden.

However, the spokesman pointed out that America had not even been discovered at the time.

● Mount Ararat — A spokesman for the Noah Ark-Building Corp. denied today that its original vessel was subsidized in part by the Central Intelligence Agency.

He said he knew nothing about reports the CIA began backing the project after hearing rumors the Communists were preparing to build an ark of their own.

The spokesman acknowledged that building the first ark would have boosted Communist prestige and given them a valuable propaganda tool.

But he insisted that Noah acted entirely on his own initiative after consultations with an authority much higher than the CIA.

★ ★ ★

He also ridiculed reports that the ark was used for espionage. Although it might have passed over what is now Soviet territory, the whole country was under water at the time, he pointed out.

● Detroit — A spokesman for the Ford Motor Co. denied today that the Central Intelligence Agency was to blame for what happened to the Edsel.

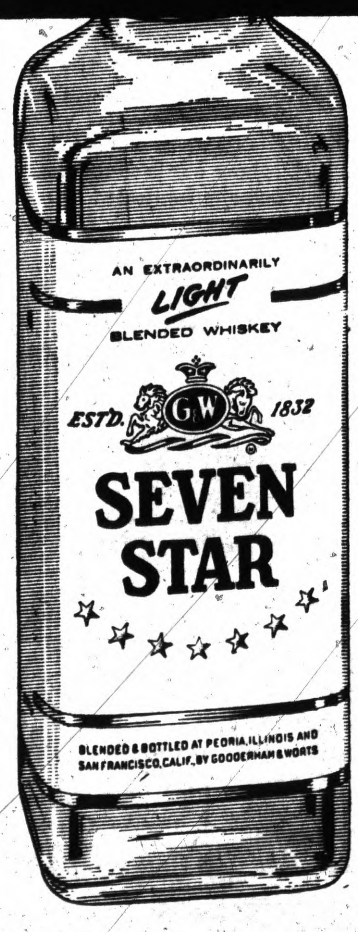

★ ★ ★

He said rumors to that effect apparently started after someone referred to the Edsel as Ford's "Bay of Pigs."

$4,000 Damage in House Fire

A house fire at 240 S. Lynn, Waterford Township, Saturday caused an estimated $4,000 damage.

Township fire fighters listed damage at $3,500 to the building and $500 to contents.

The 2½-story frame home was valued at $11,000 according to firemen. Owner and occupant is Ronald Frasure.

Firemen said the blaze started by a stairwell.

They answered the alarm at 10:59 a.m. and remained at the scene for nearly two hours. However, the fire was extinguished in 55 minutes.

No one was injured.

Radio Personality to Address Scouts

Dr. Thomas Haggai, noted speaker and radio personality, will be the featured guest at the Clinton Valley Council of Boy Scouts of America's annual meeting Thursday. The 6:45 p.m. dinner meeting is at the Oakland Center, Oakland University.

Other meeting highlights include presentation of Silver Beaver awards, the council's highest honor, to four adult leaders for distinguished service and the election of officers.

Dr. Haggai, known for his daily radio program, "Values for Living," has said "My only hobby is the Boy Scouts of America which I consider our finest preventative medicine in combating delinquency among male youth."

Health Club Slated for Waterford Twp.

Raise in Debt Ceiling Asked

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler asked Congress today to raise the ceiling on the national debt to $365 billion, up $29 billion from the present ceiling.

★ ★ ★

Beside asking for one of the biggest single increases in history, Fowler recommended that the new ceiling be made permanent.

At present the permanent ceiling is $285 billion, and various temporary increases have been granted on top of that.

★ ★ ★

The latest of these expires June 30, at which time, Fowler said, the debt is expected to be about $327 billion.

Slight Delay Along the Way on Mom's Day

Delivery was slow Saturday night on some Chicken Delight dinners and Mother's Day floral gifts.

Troy police report a Suburban Floral Delivery van driven by Daniel Z. Ususan, 19, of Madison Heights wound up going through the plate-glass window at the Guardian, Inc., building, 2011 Livernois.

★ ★ ★

Ususan was advised to see a doctor.

The driver of a Chicken Delight truck, Robert Raine, 17, of Clawson was ticketed for failure to yield right-of-way to Ususan.

TROUGH ON MOON — A trough cutting through several older craters was dicovered by Lunar Orbiter 4 in its mission of photo-mapping the moon. This trough is about 150 miles long and five miles wide in some places. Located near the moon's south pole, it is larger and appears fresher than similar features on the front face of the moon.

$1.65 Million Is Apportioned

Oakland County Treasurer James E. Seeterlin has released $1,653,560 in sales tax diversion funds to townships, cities and villages in the county.

The diversion funds are for the quarter ended March 31. The amount released for the same quarter last year was $1,645,675.

Royal Oak, with $193,468, received the largest single apportionment of the January-March 1967 funds followed by Pontiac with $192,708. All other cities received under $100,000.

Waterford received the highest township apportionment, $112,629. Farmington wes next with $61,262 and Bloomfield followed with $54,072.

★ ★ ★

Highest village apportionment was $20,719 to Beverly Hills. Novi was next with $15,336.

Talk on Heart

Dr. Roy V. Cooley, a Pontiac physician, will speak tomorrow night on "Your Heart and How to Keep It Going" at the weekly 8 p.m. health meeting at the Lakeside Community Center, 535 Branch.

The program, open to the public, is sponsored by the North Oakland Opportunity Center of the Oakland County Commission on Economic Opportunity in cooperation with the American Heart Association.

Highland Twp. Girl Injured as Car Hits Horse

A 14-year-old Highland Township girl was injured Saturday when struck by a car while riding a horse on M59 in Highland Township.

Reported in fair condition in Pontiac General Hospital is Kathleen Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Frances R. Johnson of 4300 W. Highland.

★ ★ ★

Allen L. Hoftiezer, 35, of Flint, driver of the car, told Oakland County sheriff's deputies he was traveling west on Highland about 4:20 p.m. when the horse bolted across the road and he was unable to stop in time.

The horse was killed, according to deputies.

1,800 Are Expected at Talk by Gregory

A capacity crowd of 1,800 persons is expected to attend a talk by comedian Dick Gregory tomorrow night at Bloomfield Hills High School.

"An Evening with Dick Gregory" is a presentation of the Oakland Community College 1967 lecture series.

All tickets for the 8 p.m. performance have been distributed, but some admissions may be available if ticket holders fail to attend, a spokesman said.

Fish and chips, not roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, is the national dish of Britain and the most popular food in Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland.

Wounded Man Listed as Fair

An Avon Township man, shot in the back during a holdup early Saturday morning, was listed in fair condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

The victim, Donald Close, 23, of 2948 Alexander, and four companions were assaulted by six youths after being taken to the city's south side by a hitchhiker who told him he could get them beer after hours.

The 4:20 a.m. shooting occurred on Howard McNeill between Clovese and Branch.

Also shot when he refused to get out of the car was Harwood Gladding, 20, of 2372 Auburn, Avon Township.

★ ★ ★

He was released from the hospital after being treated for a superficial chest wound.

Aircraft Falls, Pilot Killed

DETROIT (AP) — An autogyro put together from a mail-order kit fell and carried its pilot to his death Sunday in western Wayne County.

The crash victim was Royce D. Nygard, a precision machinist from Southfield. The aircraft belonged to his brother-in-law, Alex Serwatowski of Dearborn Heights.

An autogyro looks something like a helicopter. It has a propeller to give it forward motion and free running rotary blades which give it lift. The rotor is driven by the propeller's air stream.

Keeps in Practice

BRENTWOOD, N.Y. (AP)—When Ptl. Gus J. Guteres delivered an eight-pound boy here recently, it was almost a routine assignment for him. The Suffolk County policeman, himself the father of four, has delivered nine babies in the past nine years.

Young Tycoon Gambles on $4½-Million Film Epic

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

SALT LAKE CITY — He is an average-looking man, slightly overweight, with pink face and large, heavy-lidded eyes. But there is nothing average about the way David L. Welper operates. He is one of the new young — he is 39 — tycoons who are filling the vacuum left by the aging or deceased founders of the film industry.

THOMAS

After nine years as a producer of television documentaries, Wolper is making his bid for the bigtime. He is gambling $4½ millions on a World War II epic, "The Devil's Brigade," starring William Holden, Cliff Robertson and Vincent Edwards. Of course, the real gambler is United Artists, which is putting up the cash.

★ ★ ★

"I'm gambling with my reputation, too," asserts the producer. "I could have continued making documentaries and winning prizes with them. Or I could also get into the making of features and shoot for the big prize. I decided to shoot for it."

Now he is not fashioning documentaries out of miles of film from the vaults. He is working with real, live actors and a movie-making crew. He transported 119 people from Hollywood to film the training of the first Special Service force, a U.S.-Canadian outfit that was a forerunner of the Green Berets. Location scenes will also be shot in Italy and England.

'BIG LOOK'

"This picture will have a big look," Wolper assured. "In nearly every scene you will see 50 to 100 people. And in some scenes, thousands."

This has been made possible by the Department of Defense, which gave "The Devil's Brigade" its stamp of approval. Army men and materiel are supplied for use by the movie makers.

★ ★ ★

Wolper oversees everything. He is on the set while every scene is being filmed, though he is careful not to intrude on the functions of Director Andrew McLaglen. At night he works with writers on his next script.

"I've got four to do for United Artists," he said. "The next one will be 'Remagen Bridge' and I'll be going ahead with it as soon as I can find a bridge somewhere in the United States that will double for the real one.

TV WORK SLATED

"Then I've got a picture to do for Columbia, 'Of Good and Evil,' Ernest Gann's story of the San Francisco Police Department. And I'll be busy in television, too.

"I'm producing 12 Underwater World programs with Jacques Cousteau for ABC, and four National Geographics for CBS. Now I've signed John Glenn to make a series of films called 'The Great Exploration' for NBC. I came up with the idea of sending him on the same journeys of great explorers, and Glenn loved the idea. First he'll cover Stanley's route to find Livingstone, then he'll follow the voyage of Captain Cook."

What makes David run? There are varied theories on that. The only certain thing is that he has been running since he got out of the University of Southern California. Like many of today's new film bigwigs, he broke into the business by buying up old movies and selling them to television.

Not So, Says State Bill's Backer

Are Holiday Dates Sacred?

LANSING (AP)—What? Celebrate Washington's Birthday on any date except Feb. 22?

Why not?

★ ★ ★

George himself did until he was 20 years old.

And that's part of the argument of Rep. Thomas J. Anderson, D-Southgate, in favor of a bill which would juggle the dates of many of our traditional holidays.

IN SENATE COMMITTEE

The plan, which passed in the House last week and is now in committee in the Senate, was sponsored by Rep. Roy Spencer, R-Attica. The idea is to make sure seven of Michigan's eight nonreligious holidays would always fall on Mondays.

The point is to boost tourism by guaranteeing more three-day weekends.

★ ★ ★

New Year's Day would remain where it is—Jan. 1.

But Lincoln's Birthday wouldn't necessarily be celebrated on Lincoln's birthday (Feb. 12). It would be the second Monday in February.

THIRD MONDAY

Washington's Birthday (now celebrated on Feb. 22) would be the third Monday in the month, while the first Monday in July (instead of July 4) would be Independence Day.

Memorial Day would be the last Monday in May instead of May 30; Veterans' Day would would be the last Monday in October instead of Nov. 11; Thanksgiving day would be the fourth Monday in November instead of the fourth Thursday.

★ ★ ★

Labor Day would remain where it is—the first Monday in September.

The main argument against the bill has been that more three-day weekends would mean more holiday traffic deaths, because more people drive more miles when they have three days in a row to themselves.

But what Anderson is afraid of is an unspoken argument against it—the feeling that our holidays, as they are now scattered about the calendar, are somehow rigidly fixed in place by history and tradition and shouldn't be tampered with.

Not so, he says.

Take George Washington. He was born Feb. 22, 1732, right?

Right. And wrong. It depends on what calendar you use.

EARLIER DEBUT

When Washington was born, the English colonies in North America were still using a calendar initiated by Julius Caesar nearly 18 centuries before. According to that calendar, little George made his debut on Feb. 11.

In 1752, when Washington was 20, England and the colonies dropped the Julian Calendar and adopted a more accurate system established by Pope Gregory XIII in 1582.

★ ★ ★

But in the 18 centuries that had passed, people using Caeser's slightly inaccurate reckoning system had gotten out of step with the sun by 11 days. When that was corrected, Feb. 11 had become Feb. 22.

And why the Fourth of July?

Congress passed its resolution declaring independence from Great Britain not on July 4, 1776, but on July 2.

The famous Declaration of Independence was formally adopted on July 4, but all but six of its signers had penned their names to it two days before.

May 30 is Memorial Day because a Yankee officer — Gen. John A. Logan—chose it as the date in 1868 for decorating graves of Union soldiers who fell in the Civil War. That date stuck in the North, but several states of the old Confederacy don't recognize it even today.

President Washington chose Nov. 26, 1789, as the date for the first national Thanksgiving. When President Abraham Lincoln revived the custom in 1863, he chose the last Thursday in November.

★ ★ ★

President Franklin Roosevelt in 1993, 1940 and 1941, proclaimed Thanksgiving to be the third Thursday. After 1941, Congress put it back where Lincoln had it.

All of which may not prove anything—except that at least the current dates of our holidays are not as constant as the stars.

★ ★ ★

They've been juggled before.

"YOUR HEALTH"
SCIATICA

If you have ever suffered from or known anyone with sciatica, then you realize how extremely painful this condition can be.

The sciatic nerve is the longest and thickest nerve in the body, starting from the small of the back and traveling along the entire length of the leg to the foot.

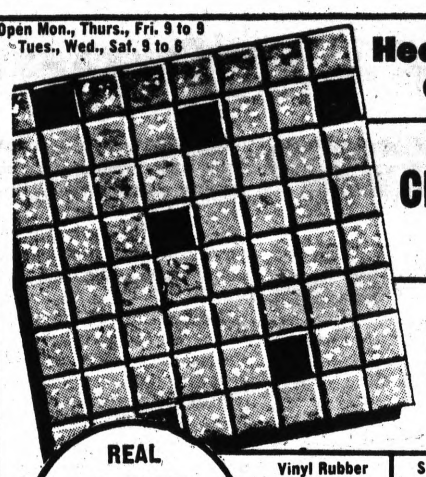

Pressure on this nerve usually follows a low back injury. Patients complain of pain usually in the buttocks side of the thigh, and in the calf of the leg. Some patients cannot sit, stand or lie down without severe pain.

Pain pills may help, but only for short periods of time. The sensible thing to do is to see your Chiropractor, who will give you a thorough examination, take X-Rays (to find the area of nerve pressure) and then remove this pressure through Chiropractic treatments. In many cases, you will relieve much pain, time, and possible surgery. Instead of just "living" with sciatica, call your Chiropractor and get well.

Junior Editors Quiz on ALCHEMIST

QUESTION: What were the old alchemists trying to do?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Our picture might be called "The Alchemist's Dream," because it shows alchemy's strange mixture of superstition, astrology and science, as well as the alchemist's purpose: to make gold.

Alchemy came from Egyptian, Greek and Arabian ideas and originated in the city of Alexandria in the 1st Century. The Greek thinker Aristotle had concluded that everything was composed of "prime matter" — although no one knew what that was.

From prime matter came the four elements — fire, air, water and earth. Aristotle believed that if one changed the proportions of these elements correctly, anything could be made.

The first alchemists were metal workers. They made gold into ornaments for wealthy people and constructed cheaper substitutes for others. Aristotle's ideas led them to think that, if they experimented enough, they could produce gold.

With their experiments they combined the ideas of the astrologers: that the positions of the stars were important in human affairs. Although the alchemists never produced gold, their research helped to lay the foundations of modern chemistry.

'Press Curbs Won't Insure Fair Trials'

NEW YORK (AP) — A study of the issues involved in the controversy of free press-fair trial says they cannot be solved by imposing curbs on the press to prevent publication of material prejudicial to a defendant.

★ ★ ★

It called, instead, for self-restraint on the parts of courts and law enforcement machinery in giving out prejudicial information and asserted that until the issues were resolved the press "should voluntarily adopt codes of ethics and conduct."

★ ★ ★

The study, appearing in book form titled "Crime and Publicity: The Impact of News on the Administration of Justice," is published by the Twentieth Century Fund, a foundation for research and public education on current economic and social questions.

Its authors are Alfred Friendly, managing editor of the Washington Post now doing special assignments in Europe, and Ronald L. Goldfarb, Washington trial lawyer.

BLOCKING ACCESS

The controversy over free press-fair trial, stimulated by the cases of Lee Harvey Oswald and Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, became more acute last October when the American Bar Association Committee on Fair Trial and Free Press recommended blocking newspaper access to some criminal case news and enforcing the restraints with the threat of contempt of court.

Referring to the curbing of press freedoms, Friendly and Goldfarb say that "with all its faults, the press serves the cause of justice far more than it subverts it. For it is the agent of public scrutiny."

★ ★ ★

They wrote:

"Laws and regulations that would make news coverage perilous would gravely reduce the potential of the press to monitor the step-by-step march of each defendant along the road to justice. It is unrealistic to expect the press to be the vigilant watchdog while at the same time it is being threatened with punishment for publishing something which may seem to it central to an exposure of justice going awry but which may appear to the court as willful disclosure of some item on the list of taboos.

WORSE THINGS

"For the sake of balance it is necessary to remember that if the press behaved precisely as its severest critics wished, the much worse roots of unfair trial would still remain: coerced confessions and other outrageous police procedure, absence of competent counsel, racial prejudice, clogged calendars, various economic discriminations, shabby conduct by attorneys in court, archiaic attitudes about psychiatric testimony, political pressure, community prejudice and plain and simple corruption.

"In the very exercise of the function that provokes the fair trial problem, the press is at the same time serving as the community's most effective instrument for detecting and exposing those other, more serious enemies of fair trial."

★ ★ ★

"The point may be illustrated," Friendly and Goldfarb assert, "by a consideration of pretrial confessions, something at the top of almost every critic's roster of items that should never be published before trial.

"Frequently the press publishes a report that a defendant has made a confession; it would be fatuous to assert that the press always does so to serve a lofty objective. But, whatever the intent, publication may nevertheless serve that objective. For the real social problem is not the publication but the coercion of confessions.

An Old Familiar Sound Returning on Shortwave

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (UPI) — On the morning of April 9, people around the world fiddled with the dials on their shortwave radios and wondered why they couldn't pick up an old familiar voice.

The reason could be found in a small New England town. In the dawn hours of that spring Sunday, a fire destroyed nearly $1 million worth of radio transmitting facilities in Scituate, Mass., and silenced for the first time in nearly three decades one of the world's largest private international radio voices — that of station WNYW, Radio New York World Wide.

The silence and the annoyance it provoked around the globe spoke eloquently of the role played by a station that is a stranger to most Americans but not to the world audience.

What AM radio is to the sale of headache remedies and FM is to fine music, shortwave radio is to the endless effort to win the minds of millions of people.

★ ★ ★

The battle is carried on endlessly by such agencies as the Voice of America, the British Broadcasting Corp., Radio Free Europe, Radio Moscow and Radio Peking.

But WNYW does it differently: it is the only commercial international shortwave station in the United States and one of a handful in the world supporting itself entirely by the sale of time, advertising and the support of private resources in the tradition of free enterprise.

And in that tradition, WNYW represents no one viewpoint. It is a marketplace of ideas in an environment almost totally dominated by government-owned stations representing more than 100 countries.

The fire in Scituate destroyed five of the station's large shortwave transmitters with a total of 280 kilowatts of transmitting power and disabled the station for eight days. Now it is back on the air, operating at 25 per cent of its former capacity with leased facilities until the destroyed equipment is replaced.

COMMODORE AND COMMANDER—North Dakota Gov. William Guy greeted Vice President Hubert Humphrey as he arrived at Fargo, N.D., Hector Airport on the weekend. The vice president flew to Fargo to take part in a special dinner honoring the North Dakota governor. Earlier, Guy gave Humphrey the rank of commodore in North Dakota's mythical "land-locked navy."

5 Hurt as Youths Riot at San Francisco Beach

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A beach riot by 1,000 youths, sparked when police tried to break up a fight, injured three officers and two bystanders Sunday.

Before it was over, windows were smashed, resort booths robbed and some bottles were tossed at police.

★ ★ ★

Two youths were arrested on suspicion of looting and 12 others on charges of inciting a riot, battery and resisting arrest.

One hundred police, armed with shotguns, nightsticks and tear gas, sped to Playland-at-the-Beach and restored order after two hours. The officers did not use the tear gas or the guns but were aided by police dogs in clearing the area.

At the same time, 1,000 hippies thronged the panhandle section of Golden Gate Park, causing police at first to report trouble also brewing there. Later police corrected it to: "Just a happening."

The beach trouble erupted after a fight broke out at a ticket booth. Youths broke windows in the booth and a girl ticket seller fled.

★ ★ ★

When three policemen arrived, "all hell broke loose," said William Silvia Jr., 24, a Playland employe.

"There were so many people milling around you couldn't tell what was happening," Silvia said.

★ ★ ★

"But I did see one cop go down. The mob wouldn't let them make that first arrest."

Johnson Making Noises Like Candidate for 1968

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) —When he can interrupt his absorption in Vietnam war problems, President Johnson is reaching frequently for his political hat with the air of a man whose 1968 plans are made, if unannounced.

Johnson's high praise for Democratic Gov. William L. Guy of North Dakota, coupled with a personal visit to Fargo by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, bore the familiar markings of a presidential candidate's efforts to enlist strong contenders to run with him on his party's ticket.

★ ★ ★

In reading Johnson's letter praising Guy as "a model public servant," Humphrey told his listeners Saturday to keep Guy in public life. Guy, chairman of the National Governors Conference, has a choice of running for reelection or opposing veteran GOP Sen. Milton R. Young.

This political byplay capped a week in which the President pleaded at a congressional fund-raising dinner for party unity, fought against a Senate bid to repeal the income tax financing of presidential campaigns and shook up the machinery for enforcement of the desegregation guidelines which have aroused boiling political controversy in the South.

DENIES CUTS

Johnson also denied paring the antipoverty program because of mounting Vietnam war costs. He reiterated his determination to push "Great Society" programs.

The President's political course in these and other respects seemed to parallel that taken by a beleaguered predecessor, Harry S. Truman, who decided 20 years ago to run again despite the bad news in the polls.

Truman was dealing with a Republican Congress which gave him the Greek-Turkish and European recovery programs but balked him on price controls, labor legislation, tax reduction and most other domestic issues.

Truman's answer was to propose sweeping social reforms and attack Congress for failing to enact any of them. He convinced the voters in 1948 that Republicans wanted to turn back the clock.

With Johnson, the problem is the unpopular war in Vietnam. He apparently hopes to offset this at least in part by his social programs.

★ ★ ★

Just as some highly placed Democrats tried to disassociate themselves from Truman in 1948 because they tagged him a loser, Johnson may find Democratic war critics conveniently absent when he campaigns in their states.

At least seven of the Democratic senators whose seats are at stake in 1968 have been so vigorous in their criticism of Johnson's conduct of the war that it would be embarrassing for them to appear on any platform from which he defends it.

Campaigning under these circumstances is not likely to be a picnic. But the President's supporters are confident that if Truman could overcome the political odds, Johnson can do it too.

English-Thai Phrase Book: Guide for Ugly American?

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — You, too, can speak Thai.

You may not win friends and influence people in this happy-go-lucky land, but it's easy to make yourself understood.

Just follow the translations in an English-Thai phrase book that is being made available to tourists.

For example, the tourist arrives at his hotel and refers to his "Quick and Easy Thai Speaking."

LOWER DOWN

"I am not pleased with my room," he says. "I want one lower down. If you can't give me something better I shall go away."

Having changed his room, he then calls the manager.

"The chambermaid never comes when I ring. I can't sleep at night because of the noise. This room is not clean. The sheet on this bed is damp and those socks are not mine.

"Have you seen my sock?"

The tourist then goes to the dining room.

"I can't eat this, take it away. I did not order this. Bring me the menu.

★ ★ ★

"Get the headwaiter."

On the way out he calls the manager.

"While I was dining someone has stolen my camera. I have left my glasses in the toilet."

That settled, he decides to go sightseeing. Naturally he thinks the driver is a thief.

★ ★ ★

"You are charging too much," he roars. "I will not give you any more. I will call a policeman. He can settle the affair."

More than likely a tourist who uses these handy phrases will make some one mad.

Just in case, the tourist is provided with one emergency phrase:

"That man is following me everywhere. Please call a policeman."

RED BARON'S HANDIWORK? — What at first appears to be the aftermath of a World War I aerial battle with the victor circling over his downed foe is actually a downed crop dusting plane near Sacramento, Calif. The pilot was on a dusting mission when turbulent air hit and flipped the fully loaded plane in the field he was spraying. The pilot suffered only minor injuries.

On Our Honor, Scouts! It'll Be Bye, Bye, 'Boy'

LONDON (AP) — Boys, be prepared. Britain's Boy Scouts Association is taking the "Boy" out of the Boy Scouts.

From now on, it will be known as the Scout Association.

"It's completely logical," said a spokesman. "It was felt that by dropping the word Boy from the association's title, the true nature of the movement's work in providing a program of training for youngsters of 8 years to young men in their early 20s could be more faithfully conveyed."

The spokesman said the association has recommended that the Boy Scouts of America also drop their Boy, "but that, of course, is up to the Boy Scouts of America." What would Lord Baden-Powell say? He founded the Boy Scouts 60 years ago this year.

"We believe he would approve," said the spokesman. "He would be the first to see the logic in the change. After all, he was a trend-setter in youth education."

The present Lord Baden-Powell, 30, a scoutmasher and London business executive, commented: "Oh, I quite approve, and I've known about the suggestion for some time."

The man behind the move is the chief scout, Sir Charles Hector Fitzroy Maclean, who is 51.

What's going to happen to the Girl Guides, called Girl Scouts in the United States?

"The change was considered," said a spokesman, "but we decided to remain Girls."

It's Adieu for Aegypti

WASHINGTON—By 1973, just nine years after the start of an antimosquito campaign, the Aedes aegypti will be eradicated from the United States, according to the Public Health Service.

The mosquito, a potential carrier of yellow fever, dengue and hemorrhagic fever, has been the target of a $23 million attack launched in 1964.

The carrier of these viral diseases can still be found in 10 southern states, Hawaii, the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico.

Aedes aegypti breed primarily in tree holes and in water containers about the home. Chemical sprays to kill larvae and elimination of breeding sites are part of the eradication program.

QUIET COVE

The chill of early morning envelops the cove. Intermittent sunlight chases the drifting ground fog, exposing the blues of the sea, the browns of sand and rock. A few yards off-shore sea lions bark and roll over to bask in the warming sun while seagulls wheel, screaming overhead.

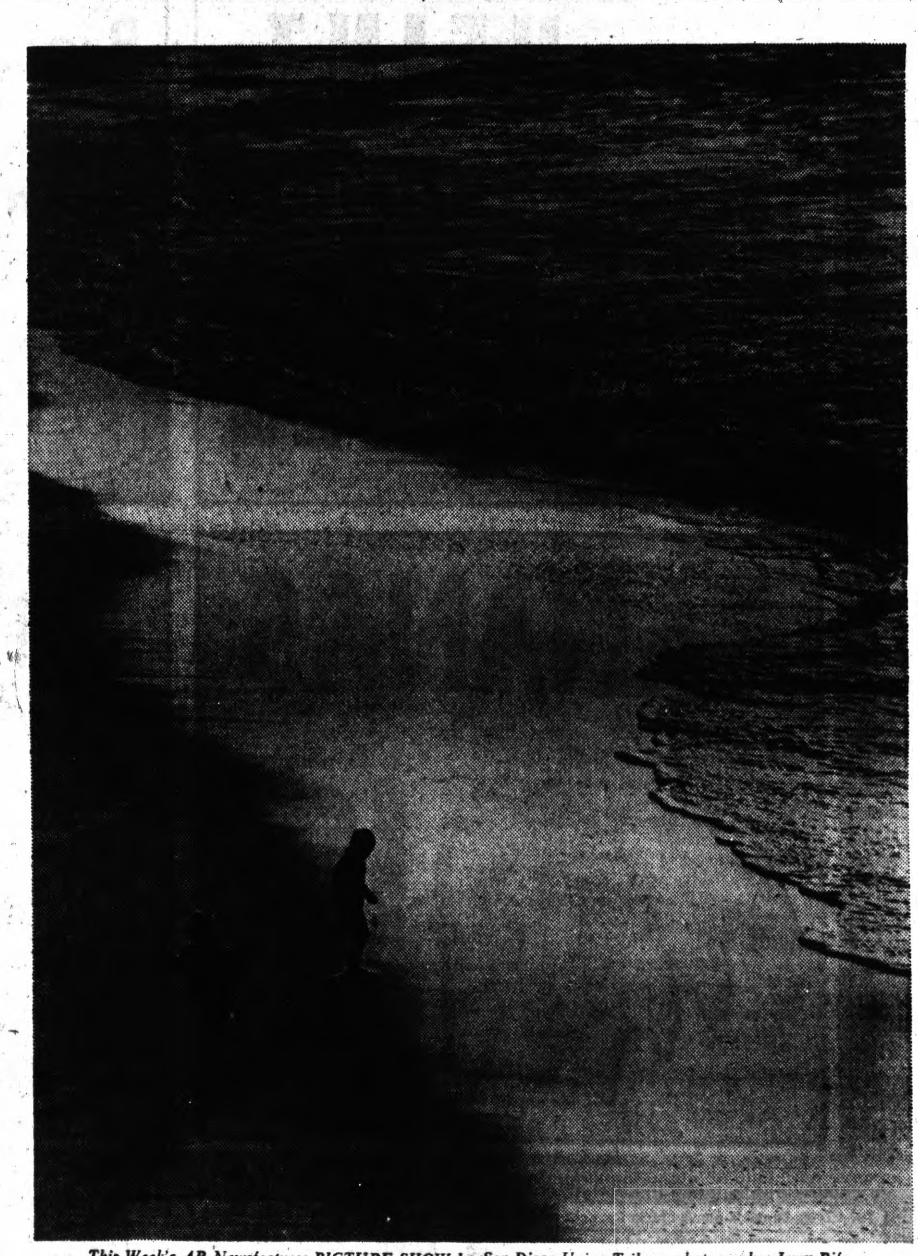

As day progresses, La Jollans come to their beach, to walk along the shore and stare at the sea. Children dance at the cold ocean edge, then warm themselves by standing in tidepools, gazing at the myriad sea creatures trapped there.

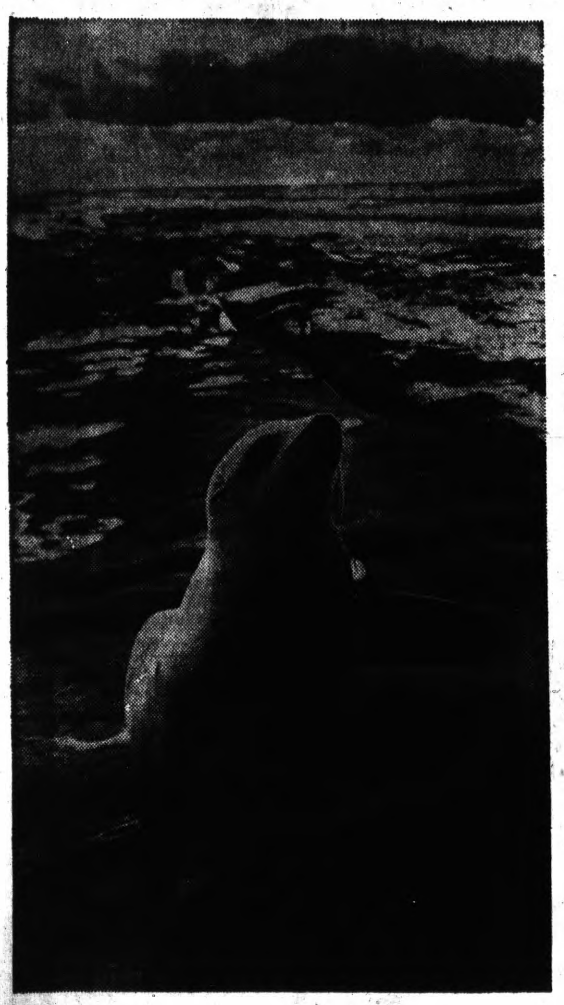

At noontime, business people come from town to sit on the grassy-topped cliffs for a lunch of sun and sandwiches. Here and there, artists set up easels and paint the small, quiet cove in its changes of light and water.

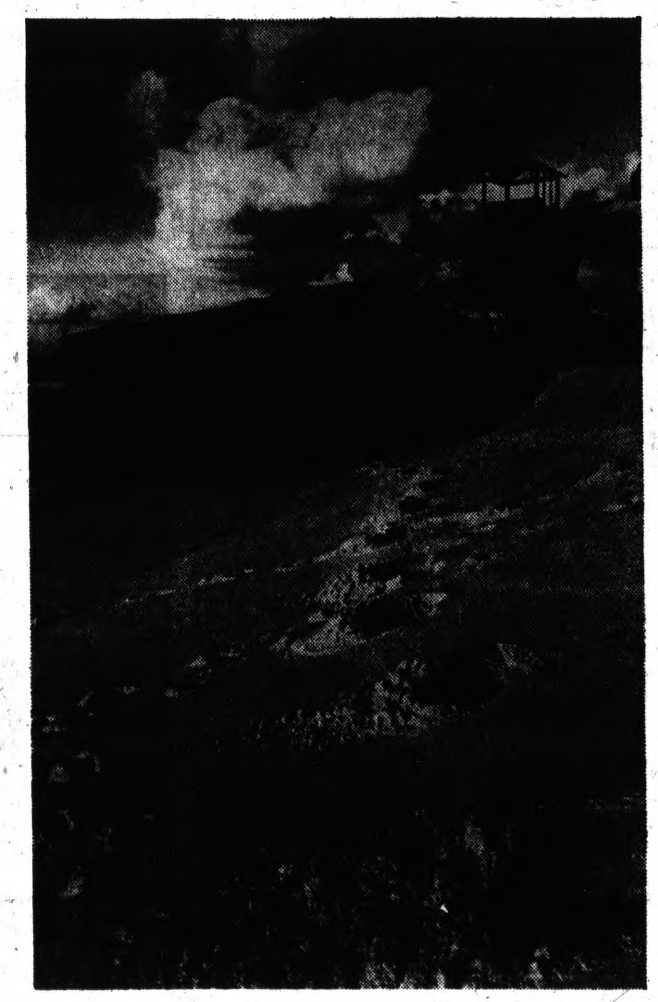

Farther out, in the rougher Pacific, whales blow streams of water high in the air as they make their yearly pilgrimage from Alaska. Sandpipers skip along the water's edge, playing games with the waves then are chased away by children on their way from school. Racing along the minute beach, the kids scramble up the path to cliff top, rolling and pommeling one another.

Just before twilight, the sea becomes calmer and its blues deepen toward gray. Seabirds congregate to make ready for night. A lone person stands above the cove and watches the California sky turn golden, then blaze into fire tones of red and orange. Day draws to a close at La Jolla Cove.

Panel Is Told of Wiretap Need

WASHINGTON (AP) — A presidential crime commission report says wiretapping is needed to battle organized crime, which is so rich it needs business experts to run it.

Organized crime is so sophisticated in its operation that there will be no place at the top for the uneducated, the report said.

★ ★ ★

The crime panel, formally called the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and Administration of Justice, released Sunday night the report on organized crime. It is the third of nine reports to be released following a sweeping study of all types of crime in the United States.

G. Robert Blakey, a law professor at Notre Dame University and a consultant to the commission, recommended federal legislation to permit carefully controlled, court-ordered wiretapping and electronic bugging to help combat organized crime.

NOT UNANIMOUS

Blakey's views, like those of other consultants, were not necessarily endorsed by the full commission.

However, the commission has recommended legislation on wiretapping and bugging. President Johnson has asked Congress to outlaw all such surveillance except in cases where national security is involved.

★ ★ ★

Another consultant, Donald R. Cressey of the University of California, Santa Barbara, said organized crime has gained power as it has moved into gambling, the loan shark racket and control of legitimate businesses.

★ ★ ★

This trend has brought a demand for experts in management to run the underworld, Cressey said. And, as the jobs become more complex, "there will be no place in the higher level of organized crime for high school dropouts."

UNDERLINGS

Cressey, a sociology professor, said that eventually the uneducated underlings will demand job opportunities and their rebellion will be "comparable in principle to the current rebellions of Negroes in the civil rights struggle."

Another report scrutinized how criminals corrupted officials at all levels in a city given the fictitious name of Wincanton. Reports are the city in question is Reading, Pa., which has had serious corruption problems.

Allies May Meet

MANILA (UPI) — Philippine Foreign Secretary Narciso Ramos said today the Vietnam allies may hold a new summit meeting later this year to assess the progesss of the war and the prospects for peace.

★ ★ ★

He said Korea had expressed interest in hosting a new summit.

Fire Destroys Floating Medical Clinic

HONG KONG (AP) — Fire today destroyed a floating medical clinic which provided treatment for more than 250,000 needy people in Hong Kong since it began opeation in 1963.

The clinic was operated by Projcet Concern, a nonprofit medical relief organization headed by Dr. James Turpin of Coronado, Calif.

Firemen said the fire started on the boat while it was undergoing its annual bottom-cleaning at a shipyard. No one was on board at the time.

Dr. Turpin was reported to be in South Vietnam.

OTHER CLINICS

Project Concern runs three other clinics in Hong Kong. Its funds, equipment and medical supplies are donated by individuals in the United States, Canada, Australia, Formosa and Hong Kong.

Some 100,000 earthquakes are heard over the earth every year, but only 1,000 are violent enough to cause any damage.

Russia Says It Invented Jets

MOSCOW (UPI) — Russia today claimed it invented the jet plane.

Ignoring a 1939 German flight of a turbo-jet and the 1941 success of a British jet, the Soviet news agency Tass said test pilot Georgi Bakhchvanji flew the world's first jet plane May 15, 1942.

★ ★ ★

Tass said the pilot was in his seventh flight of the BI-1 fighter March 27, 1943, when it crashed.

"It remained obscure why the plane unexpectedly lost control on landing and nosed into the ice of a small lake in the Urals. Bakhchvanji died after coming nearer than anyone else to the sound barrier," Tass said. It said he reached 480 miles an hour.

Beard Nearly Ends Hunt for Venus' Arms

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (AP) — A crisis threatening Mathon Kyritsis' beard and his search for Venus' arms is over.

Kyritis plans to undertake a third search of the harbor at Melos, Greece, for the missing arms of the famous statue of Venus.

★ ★ ★

Then the Greek Ministry of the Interior banned facial hair and miniskirts for tourists entering Greece.

Kyritsis wears a pointed goatee.

★ ★ ★

Horrified, he cabled Greek officials, threatening to call off his expedition which sets sail June 16 unless he received assurances that his beard would be safe.

ASSURANCE

Now he has received a cable from Demetrios Papaesspradiou, president of the Greek Tourist bureau.

It says: "Your party is not affected by the ruling for beatnik tourists. It is suggested that you continue your trip to Greece as planned."

★ ★ ★

Kyritsis, a restaurant owner, says there is evidence that Venus' arms were knocked off while she was being put aboard a French warship in Melos harbor. The statue is now in the Louvre in Paris.

Jim: "I see that there is a new book called, 'Bridge for Women' edited by Dick Frey and written by five of the best women players in the world."

JACOBY

Oswald: "I am not going to get myself in trouble by saying that the authors are the five best women players, but they are five of the best. The four Americans have one other thing in common.

"They are all happily married. Rixi Markus, the Englishwoman, has long been considered Europe's No. 1 woman player. The Americans, in alphabetical order, are Mary Jane Farrell, Bea Gale Schenken, Helen Sobel Smith and Peggy Solomon."

Jim: "How about quoting from Rixi Markus today?"

Oswald: "The game was an English team of four tournament with International Match Point scoring. At the table where Rixie sat East, she overcalled North's opening diamond bid with two clubs. She wasn't at all proud of her bid, but as she pointed out she wanted to deprive her opponents of the chance to bid spades easily.

"The best South could do was to try two diamonds. North passed and proceeded to make four odd for a score of 130. At the other table East merely overcalled with one heart. This did not bother South at all. He bid one spade and the bidding proceeded quickly to four spades. South made ten tricks for plus 620 and a net gain of 490 points or ten IMP's."

Jim: "I agree that East's one heart overcall was pointless. It couldn't bother his opponents and might cause his partner to make a bad lead or bad bid based on idea that maybe East would have something worth-while in hearts. As for Mrs. Markus' two club bid, it succeeded so it had to be good."

Oswald: "I don't think it would have done her much good in this country. If North and South were using the negative double, South would double and they would reach four spades with North as declarer and even if South bid only two diamonds a good American player would pull himself together and try two spades."

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Tuesday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21 - Apr. 19): Utilize creative resources. Finish old jobs — tackle new. Important to be independent, to stress original methods. Contact today proves beneficial. Be aware, alert and receptive.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 - May 20): What you seek . . . comes your way. You don't have to look far today. Individual who showed no previous interest comes over to your side. Be gracious. Highlight maturity.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20): Today your intuition is sharply honed. You learn answers in subjective manner. Means wisdom comes from within. Trust yourself . . . be true to your own convictions. Then you grow.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22): If you observe details, chance for profit is enhanced. Don't overlook apparent minor matters. There are loopholes. Be sure you use them to advantage. Observe!

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 22): Many admire you today because of personal magnetism. But don't substitute showmanship for knowledge. Know where you're going — and why. If creative you gain. Otherwise you may be disappointed.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22): Your ability to be analytical comes to fore. It is to your advantage to be a good reporter. Means see facts as they exist. Don't twist them. The truth can provide power.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22): Accent now on wishes, desires. Friend makes gracious gesture. Show appreciation. Social contacts likely. Evening is fine for romance, creative break from routine. Dine out.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21): Welcome competition. Fight tendency toward fear. If confident, you attract success. Otherwise you invite failure. Act accordingly. Stress today on career, prestige, advancement.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21): Fine day for long-range planning, travel. Especially constructive time to think about vacation. You also gain if you write, publish, advertise. Spread influence, avoid petty actions.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19): Money or reward due from past effort — or mishap. Cash in on specialized knowledge. Bring to the fore your hidden resources. Upsurge in fortunes indicated . . . if you are alert.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18): Take first things first. Partners, allies do have right to discuss issues. Listen and evaluate. If reasonable, you can succeed. Be aware of LEGAL RAMIFICATIONS.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - Mar. 20): Trust personal judgment. Others may have ulterior motives. Be prepared for surprises, controversy. Have facts at hand. Maintain poise . . . then mystery clouds due to vanish.

★ ★ ★

IF TUESDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY . . . Rewards are due because your convictions are verified. You are a determined individual but you could gain by being more flexible.

2 Feared Dead in Boat Mishap

WARREN (AP) — Vincent Rocca, 21, and Leonard J. Czarnecki, 25, both of Warren, were feared drowned today after a two-day search of Lake St. Clair failed to locate them over the weekend.

The two men went fishing Friday morning but Friday night their capsized boat was found by another fisherman about four miles from shore. A yellow raincoat was found and identified as belonging to one of the two men.

Summer Food Cost Hike of Up to 3 Pct. Seen

WASHINGTON (AP)—American housewives will be paying 2 to 3 per cent more for groceries by this summer, the Agriculture Department predicted today.

The anticipated hike in retail food prices is expected to wipe out a decline of nearly 1 per cent during the first three months of the year, then advance another 1 or 2 per cent on top of that.

★ ★ ★

For the year as a whole, the department forecasts an average jump of about 1.7 per cent in food costs above last year.

Primarily because of the projected price hikes, consumers are expected to spend about $94.6 billion for food this year compared to $91 billion in 1966.

FARMER'S PRICES DOWN

The forecast for higher retail food prices comes at a time when prices paid farmers for food they produce are down nearly 10 per cent from last summer and 7 per cent below last year's average.

Some of the expected increase in retail food prices would reflect anticipated upturns in some farm prices, particularly for meat animals. Somewhat reduced marketings of cattle and hogs are expected as a consequence of some contraction in livestock production under the pressure of prices unsatisfactory to farmers.

The department said current indications point to an increase in both production and marketing of farm commodities this year, with the upturn concentrated in crops.

Because consumer incomes went up while food prices eased off slightly, the department said consumers spent an averags of 17.5 per cent of their income for food during the first quarter of the year, the lowest of record. Last year, the percentage was 18.5.

ITEMS TO RISE

Items expected to rise later in the year besides meats include eggs, poultry and possibly some dairy products. Items expected to continue near present levels include citrus products, canned fruits, processed vegetables, potatoes and cereal products.

An "elastic water" that continues flowing up and over the edge of a pitcher after the pitcher has been set back on the shelf is about 99.5 per cent pure water and .5 per cent polyethlyene ozide, a powdery resin polymer used in paints and hair spray. The effect was discovered by accident.

Romney at Expo 67 for 'Michigan Day'

MONTREAL (UPI) — Gov. Romney and an estimated 1,500 of his state's residents joined in the "Michigan rendezvous at Expo 67" today.

The Republican governor and his wife, Lenore, flew to Expo aboard a private airplane Sunday for the "rendezvous" which was being promoted by the Greater Michigan Foundation (GMF) and the Economic Club of Detroit as a prelude to Michigan Week.

The two major purposes of the gathering of Michiganders, according to Noble D. Travis of the Greater Michigan Foundation are to "honor Canada on its centennial and extend a hand of friendship to our northern neighbor, and to focus attention on the Michigan Week program that starts May 21."

Romney's schedule for today was jammed with activities. He was to preside at a branch and introduce Paul Martin, Canada's minister of state for external affairs. Montreal Mayor John Drapeau also was to speak at the event, which was expected to draw about 1,500 persons.

★ ★ ★

The Romney agenda also called for a visit to the Russian pavilion, a reception at the U.S. pavilion and a jaunt into the city to present awards to the Detroit Red Wings' Gordie Howe and the all-time great Maurice Richard, now retired from the Montreal Canadiens.

RETURN SCHEDULED

The Romneys were scheduled to return to Michigan tomorrow night.

★ ★ ★

Michigan groups performing at Expo during the weekend included the Ford Continental Chorus, the Olivet College Chorus and the Interlochen Orchestra.

Michigan first participated in a day of its own at the New York World's Fair in 1964.

Detroit Metro Plans for Big Jets

DETROIT (AP) — The manager of Detroit's Metropolitan Airport planned to meet with airlines officials today to discuss a new master plan for receiving huge jets at the airdome.

"We expect seven of the big Boeing 747 jets a day at Detroit Metro beginning in 1969 and are making plans for them," said airport manager James M. Davey. He said the master plan would be ready in June.

★ ★ ★

He made the remark Saturday in response to a British airline official's charge that the airport would not be ready for the big jets, which can carry 490 passengers each.

"We have been in constant negotiations with foreign carriers and as early as 1962 offered them preliminary plans for a new concourse, costing $2 million," Davey said.

BOAC CHARGE

Sir Giles Guthrie, chief executive for British Overseas Airways Corp. (BOAC), said last week that the airport was slow in planning for the jets, and had made no provision for foreign air cargo.

The New York Stock Exchange had an average daily turnover of 7.5 million shares in 1966, setting a new record.

Bewildering Latin America Is Looking More Hopeful

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — South America, a bewildering continent, gradually is assuming a more hopeful look, but those who wish it well, keep their fingers crossed.

The process of change is agonizingly slow. Obstacles are formidable. Even though a new sort of leader appears to be emerging, Latin America needs more than that. It needs the administrative structure, and it needs the will in all sectors of the population to get on with the job.

★ ★ ★

The traveler finds bright spots here and there to support a hope that goals outlined at the recent Punta del Este meeting signified more than mere words. Yet the Punta del Este declaration of hemisphere presidents, looking toward economic integration in 18 years, is viewed cynically in the upper stratum of South American society, whence must come the impulse for change.

★ ★ ★

It is a continent where lands are rich and governments often are close to bankruptcy, where inflation is a way of life, where nations often accept help while resenting the source of the aid.

It is a continent of 230 million people, where 50 million past the age of 15 are illiterate. Yet it is a continent of superwelfare systems built by dictators to insure their power or politicians fending off pressure of organized resentment. Often governments run out of funds to meet their commitments.

ARRAY OF AILMENTS

With all that and much more standing in the way of cures for the continent's enormous array of ailments, some of the new leaders express conviction that collaboration among them is possible in a common search for a better future.

★ ★ ★

These are men like Presidents Eduardo Frei of Chile, Fernando Belaunde Terry of Peru and Raul Leoni of Venezuela, and some of those behind them.

★ ★ ★

Chile, Colombia and Venezuela — the so-called Bogota bloc — plan a meeting in July which will discuss common steps in development of petrochemicals and probably will consider prospects for cooperation in the automobile industry.

★ ★ ★

The idea is mutual self-interest in cooperative production. This impulse may induce others, such as Peru and Ecuador, to join in. Eventually, the reasoning goes, bigger nations such as Argentina and Brazil may feel obliged to take part.

PROSPECTIVE LOCOMOTIVE

Venezuela's leaders appear now to look at their country as a prospective locomotive for smaller nations. The Venezuelan bolivar is a stable, hard currency at 4.48 to the dollar. Unemployment is down.

★ ★ ★

Venezuela is building roads, schools and public services, training workers in specialized fields, opening up new areas of the interior, luring foreign investments and aiming at diversification of an economy. Oil now supplies 60 per cent of government income and 90 per cent of its foreign currency reserves.

★ ★ ★

Effective economic integration with other nations will take a good deal of doing. In Columbia, for example, the harassed government of President Carlos Lleras Restrepo is struggling with inflation and unemployment.

★ ★ ★

Venezuela's leaders appear to have adopted a wait and see attitude about the results of Punta del Este. Government figures say the conference was "positive" but that it will take many months before the hemisphere will be able to tell whether it bore fruit.

Octopus, Toad Chemicals Eyed

By Science Service

MONTREAL — Chemicals found in an octopus and a toad are undergoing preliminary tests to determine whether they could be used to treat human heart disease.

The two chemicals are in the class known as polypeptides, which are composed of short chains of amino acids — the subunits of protein.

The aim of the research is to synthetically tailor one drug that will both control blood pressure and correct the irregular beat, that often heralds or follows a heart attack.

However, that will be sometime in the future, Dr. Aurele Beaulnes, director of pharmacology at the University of Sherbrooke, Canada, told a seminar here.

★ ★ ★

One of the chemicals comes, so far as is known, only from the salivary glands of two species of octopus, found in the Bay of Naples.

VOLUNTEER WORK

It is called eledoisih, and has been tested on a few human volunteers in Italy.

The drug is so effective that Dr. Beaulnes believes further laboratory tests such as he has made should be conducted before the chemical is tried again on humans.

The chemical found in the skins of South American toads is known as physaleamin. Dr. Beaulnes said it is 10 times as potent as eledoisih.

★ ★ ★

When eledoisin was tested on the human volunteers, it caused a sharp drop in blood pressure, strong stimulation of the respiratory system and a massive allergic reaction.

Dr. Beaulnes is doing his research on the two chemicals with animals and with heart muscles kept alive outside animals.

China War Intervention 'Ifs' Reported

(EDITOR'S NOTE — The story following stems from an interview in Peking with China's Premier Chou En-lai by Simon Malloy, 41, U.N. correspondent for the French language Jeune Afrique, and other African newspapers. The material from Malloy's exclusive talks with Chou and other Chinese leaders is made available by the Chicago Daily News and Publishers Newspaper Syndicate, a sister company, who hold a copyright on it.

CHICAGO (AP) — Red China's top leaders were quoted as telling a Western newsman in recent interviews that China would fight the United States if North Vietnam is invaded or threatened with a "sell-out peace."

★ ★ ★

The declaration, attributed to Premier Chou En-lai, was reported by Simon Malley, a veteran U.N. correspondent, in a copyright story carried by the Chicago Daily News in its weekend editions. The News said Malley's findings will be carried in an exclusive 10-part series.

Malley, who also interviewed other top Red China leaders in Peking, was the first American newsman to be received in the Chinese capitol's forbidden city in two years.

Malley said that Chou asserted during a 2½-hour interview that the Chinese are "determined the Americans will not succeed" in Vietnam.

If Hanoi should request assistance, Chou said, China is "ready — tomorrow if need be" to send an avalanche of volunteers into North Vietnam.

Malley wrote that Chou said, "Americans won't be allowed to approach our borders. Our security would be at stake."

The Red China premier, Malley said, looked fit and healthy despite his 71 years.

Another contingency which would put China into the war in Vietnam, Malley quoted Chou, would be a "sell-out" peace.

Malley said Chou scornfully lumped the Soviet Union with enemies.

Malley said that throughout the United States as China's

Despite Soviet aid to North Vietnam, Chou was quoted as saying, the Soviet Union believes it is to her own interest to conclude the war through a compromise that would be "tantamount to defeat" for the North Vietnamese.

his talks in Peking, he found Chou and other Chinese leaders surprisingly candid about China's inner political turmoil, its relations with the Soviet Union and other issues concerning world peace.

Bombing Toll in Arabia Told

CAIRO (UPI) — Mecca Radio broadcast a Saudi Arabian government communique saying Egyptian jet planes today killed a woman and wounded 41 women and children in a dawn bombing raid on the Saudi town of Jizan near the Yemini border.

The broadcast said Soviet-built Egyptian jets dropped bombs "indiscriminately" after Saudi guns opened fire on them.

Earlier Saudi officials said U.A.R. aircraft killed two and injured four persons in a raid on a nearby town thursday.

Hippies Hold 'Arresting' Party

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — It was advertised an an "unbirthday" for Alice, sponsored by the Wonderland Civic Association. But it turned into a bad scene when police arrested 19 of an estimated 2,500 persons who turned out at Independence Hall for the celebration.

★ ★ ★

Those who came through the looking glass Sunday wandered through the lush park around Independence Hall, some claiming to enjoy psychedelic affects of the spring greenery. But before it was over the Queen of Hearts had had enough, it was "off with their heads."

Of the world's 200 million phones, the U.S. has 48 per cent of the total, 93.7 million.

One Shot Does Trick

Golfer Rude to Non-Member Nude

EFFINGHAM, England (AP) — Middle-aged Mrs. Alex Rundle, playing a round of golf Sunday with another woman at the Effingham Golf Club, was about to putt when a man stepped from behind some bushes in a bowler hat and nothing else.

Mrs. Rundle calmly drew a No. 8 iron from her bag and walked up to him.

"I say," she said, "are you a member?"

"No," replied the man. Mrs. Rundle hit him on the hat with her iron. The man picked up his bowler, ran back into the bushes and disappeared. The police couldn't find him.

"It must have sounded rather silly asking him whether he was a member," said Mrs. Rundle, "but it was the first thing that came into my head."

★ ★ ★

"Like any good golfer," said her companion, Dorothy Gibbons, "Mrs. Rundle took only one shot to solve this particular crisis and got rid of the fellow.

"You might say it was the equivalent of a hole in one."

Mayo's 'Luck' Missing, Tigers Tumble

Bengal Pitchers Mauled by Booming Bosox Bats

BOSTON (AP) — Manager Mayo Smith of the Detroit Tigers was unhappy and upset. Twin defeats by the Boston Red Sox hurt, but the loss of a dollar hurt more.

Smith, a personable veteran of baseball wars, took in stride the Tigers' 8-5 and 13-9 thumpings by the Red Sox Sunday. Then he discovered he was missing his good luck piece—a silver dollar.

"I've had that silver dollar since 1948," he said as he searched the floor of his clubhouse office. "I got it in Las Vegas. I hate to lose it. If I've lost that—."

The Red Sox and Tigers set an American League double-header record by banging out 28 extra base hits, including 12 homers, one triple and 15 doubles.

The old mark of 27 extra base hits was set by the Red Sox and Philadelphia Athletics in a twinbill in 1905.

Rico Petrocelli had a pair of homers and Carl Yastrzemski one while George Scott contributed a bases-loaded triple as the Red Sox snapped Detroit's seven-game winning streak in the opener.

Then Yastrzemski, Jose San-

NHL Vet May Coach

Kelly Retires

TORONTO (AP) — For someone who wasn't supposed to stand up to even 20 National Hockey League games, Leonard (Red) Kelly is leaving, after 20 seasons, a personal record that could well be used as a yardstick by which rookies could measure themselves.

KELLY

Kelly, who will be 40 in July, announced his decision Sunday to place his name on the Toronto Maple Leaf voluntary retired list in order to negotiate with Los Angeles Kings for their open coaching job.

The Kings, owned by former Toronto financier and sportsman Jack Kent Cooke and managed by former Leaf Larry Reagan, are one of six teams to be added to the NHL next season.

Kelly, whose name has been linked to the position for some months despite repeated denials both by himself and the Leaf management, said Sunday he had consulted with Stafford Smythe, the Toronto team president, and Punch Imlach, the team general-manager-coach, prior to taking the decision.

Europeans Bow to U.S. Drivers

Andretti Wins Pole Position for Indy '500'

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Americans whipped Europeans so soundly in the first half of the Indianapolis 500-mile race qualifications that a British car builder made a public apology to his drivers.

Mario Andretti hiked the 10-mile record to 168.982 m.p.h. Saturday and other Americans took the next 14 spots in the lineup. Then Lotus builder Colin Chapman apologized to his former world champions Jimmy Clark and Graham Hill.

Another scheduled session Sunday was rained out.

FAR BACK

Clark, the 1965 Indianapolis winner, had only the 16th best speed of 163.213 m.p.h. Hill, last year's winner, was so far off the pace in his warmup laps that he made no attempt to qualify Saturday.

★ ★ ★

Chapman explained that he spent too much time working with a 16-cylinder BRM engine, which wasn't quite ready for the big Indianapolis track, and it was too late to prepare the chassis properly when he shifted to Ford V-8s.

Late in the 1966 race, Britishers Jackie Stewart, Hill and Clark were running one-two-three. Stewart qualified for the 23rd starting spot Saturday at 162.221 in an English-built Lola Ford.

They weren't about to go home this year. Although Clark started and finished second in '66, Hill had started 15th and Stewart 11th. Andretti and other hot qualifiers fell out in wrecks and engine failures.

MISSES BARRIER

The Italian-born but thoroughly Americanized Andretti missed the Speedway's 170 m.p.h. "barrier" by only .06 second in his best lap that set a new standard of 169.779. His Hawk Ford, built by Clint Brawner of Phoenix, Ariz., was an all-American product except two small parts made by Jack Brabham, world road racing champion driver and manufacturer.

★ ★ ★

Dan Gurney, international racer from Santa Ana, Calif., moved into the front row beside Andretti with a 167.224 average in his own Eagle Ford. Gordon Johncock, Hastings, Mich., took the third spot at 166.559 in a Gerhardt Ford.

A. J. Foyt Jr. of Houston, Tex., who has won more major American open cockpit races than any other driver in history, made a great comeback after his worst season last year. He qualified a Coyote Ford of his own design with the fourth-best speed of 166.289.

LEADERS, NOT FOLLOWERS — The only one these three are slated to follow when the Memorial Day 500-Mile Race begins is the pace car. Qualifying Saturday at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway for the three front-row starting positions were (left to right) Mario Andretti, 27, of Nazareth, Pa.; Dan Gurney, 36, of Santa Ana, Calif.; and Gordon Johncock, 30, of Hastings, Mich. Their qualifying speeds ranged from Andretti's 168.982 miles per hour to Johncock's 166.559.

Torres Bidding to Regain Title

NEW YORK (AP) — Jose Torres aims to make boxing history Tuesday night by becoming the first former light heavyweight champion to regain the 175-pound division crown when he meets defender Dick Tiger of Nigeria.

Torres is a 9-5 favorite over the 37-year-old Nigerian in their return 15-rounder at Madison Square Garden. Tiger, giving away age, weight, height and reach, decisively whipped the sluggish, 3-1 favored Torres in 15 rounds at the Garden last Dec. 16.

The 15-rounder will be telecast nationally

Wins in New Orleans

Knudson Nips Nicklaus

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—George Knudson, like Frank Beard, will always have fond memories of the 15th hole at Lakewood County Club.

Knudson, an ex-caddy from Canada, used a shot "I didn't know I had in my bag" Sunday at 15 and went on to capture the $20,000 first prize money in the $100,000 Greater New Orleans Open Golf Tourney.

★ ★ ★

He beat Jack Nicklaus by a shot, keeping the Ohio strongboy from his first official victory on the PGA national tour this year and wheting Nicklaus' appetite for this week's Colonial National Invitational in Fort Worth, Tex.

NO EXCUSES

Nicklaus made no excuses, save for a wry comment about landing in a bunker "where it looked like about 30 people had been walking in it."

'Well, on to next week,' he said as he picked up his $12,000 check for second place.

Knudson, 29, was the only player in this year's tourney to get a birdie on the 53-yard par 5 hole. Beard, who finished third this year, won the tourney last year with an eagle on the same hole.

★ ★ ★

Nicklaus hit what "I thought was a good put" from three feet on the same hole for a birdie, "but it hit the bottom of the hole and came out."

Nicklaus and Knudson began the final round over the wind-swept course, with its 7,020-yards playing short because of sun-baked fairways, tied for the lead. Beard was two shots back.

Knudson wound up with a 70, two under par, for a 72-hole score of 277. Nicklaus' final round was 70. So was Beard's.

Oxford Track Title Grabbed by Howell

Oxford, Pontiac Northern and Bloomfield Hills added several school track records to their listings but none could put a winning trophy in its case Saturday.

Howell posted 44 points to Oxford's 34 in winning the sixth annual Oxford Invitational Track Meet. At the Schafer Invitational Relays, PNH and Hills tied for fifth with 13 points each, well behind cochampions Wyandotte and Ypsilanti.

Oxford and Howell each set three of the nine records in the Oxford meet, but the Highlanders registered two more first place finishes to an additional one for the host team.

Waterford, led by Larry Biskner's double victory, captured third place; Rochester, Romeo and Kettering followed in that order with the Bulldogs and Captains one first each.

The other winner was from Port Huron Catholic.

FIVE FIRSTS

Howell, in winning the title for the first time, had firsts in the shot put, the two-mile run, the mile run, the 220-yard dash and the 180-yard low hurdles.

The records came in the hurdles, the 220 and the two-mile (held for the first time).

★ ★ ★

Speedster Tim Kelley figured in three of the four first places for Oxford. He set a 100-yard dash record with a :09.9 timing, helped the 880-yard relay unit to a record-setting 1:33.5, and his 20-10¾ led the long jumpers.

Oxford's mile relay squad also set a new mark with 3:32.9. In both relays, however, Howell limited the Wildcats' point gain by finishing second.

Bisker soared 13-0¾ for a new mark in the pole vault and high jumped 5-9. His fewer misses in the latter event enabled him to break a three-way tie for the laurels.

Another standard setter was Kettering's Bill Penoza who covered the 120-yard high hurdles in 15-seconds flat. The 440-yard dash winner was Romeo's Mike Martin.

DOUBLES

At Schafer, Mel Cole was a double winner for Northern — taking the high jump at six feet and setting a meet record of :19.5 in the 180-yard low hurdles. He overtook runner-up Greg Myhra (:20.5) of Bloomfield Hills at the final hurdle.

Cole also anchored PNH's shuttle hurdle relay unit that took third place in a school record :58.6. Lawrence Carter, Sandy Seay and Dave Gibson ran the first three legs.

Myhra also was third in the 120-yard high hurdles. Mike Imirie registered another second for the Barons with a school-record 1:54.7 in the 880-yard run.

★ ★ ★

Imirie anchored the Barons' fifth-place mile relay quartet. The other Hills' record was set by two-miler Bruce Evans who took fifth place with 9:49.

Rain Holds Up Miss Prentice

DALLAS (AP)—Jo Anne Prentice set out today in search of her first tournament victory in three years and she had three strokes on the field of 51 that entered the delayed final round of the $16,800 Dllas Civitan Women's Open Tournament.

Miss Prentice, 34-year-old veteran of a dozen years on the tour, could consider her three-stroke margin quite safe if she plays the final like she did the third round when she fired a three-under-par 68 for 206.

Tied for second place with 209 were Beth Stone, Sandra Spuzich and Judy Kimball. The latter made it through a ruling that took a stroke off her score. This came after the third round was completed.

DUAL JUMPER — Waterford's Larry Biskner showed his jumping talents with and without the pole Saturday at the Oxford Invitational Track Meet, winning both the pole vault and the high jump. Biskner cleared 13-0¾ for a new pole vault record at the meet, then had the fewest misses among the three participants who were able to top 5-9 in the high jump. He helped Waterford to third place in the annual meet.

Top W-O Nines Post Easy Loop Victories

Clarkston kept a half game ahead of Northville and Bloomfield Hills Saturday as each coasted to a Wayne-Oakland League victory on the victim's diamond.

Once-beaten Clarkston whipped Brighton, 11-1, on a four-hit mound job by Rick Johnson and a grand-slam home run by Jerry Ostrom.

Bloomfield Hills dumped Milford, 6-2, scoring all its runs in the first inning on seven hits, then coasting behind John Baumann's two-hit hurling.

Bill Skelly and Dennis Primeau combined for a two-hit shutout as Northville walloped fourth-place West Bloomfield, 15-0. The winners and Hills remain tied for second place behind Clarkston.

In a nonleague outing, South Lyon (the Southeastern Conference champ) split a twin bill at Leslie. The home team won the opener, 3-2, and the Lions retaliated for a 4-1 verdict.

11TH WIN

Ray Beckstein hurled the victory for South Lyon which upped its record to 11-4, making it the second winningest prep nine in the county.

Tom Allen had three hits to lead Clarkston. Mike Irving doubled home a run in the first for Hills and later added two singles. Doug Anglin had a two-run homer for Northville, Primeau rapped two doubles and a single.

Local Ex-Ski Jumper Picked

BOREAL RIDGE, Calif. (UPI) — Eight persons, including two Michigan skiers were nominated during the weekend for the Ski Hall of Fame at Ishpeming, Mich.

Among the nominees was Henry Hall, 74, Farmington, the first American-born ski jumper to establish a world distance record.

Hans Petti Teichner, Glen Arbor, was nominated posthumously in recognition of having been a moving force in the development of recreational skiing in Lower Michigan.

★ ★ ★

He was a member of the German national ski team who later served in the U.S. Mountain Troops.

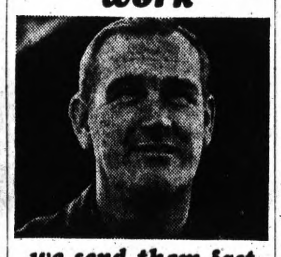

ALSO NOMINATED

Also nominated was Jill Kinmount, 31, Renton, Wash., who has been paralyzed since she broker her neck during the 1955 Snow Cup races at Alta, Utah.

Jill's former coach, Dave McCoy, 51, of Mammoth Mountain, Calif., was cited for his senior racing record plus winning the 1939 National Slalom Championship.

Officials of the U.S. Ski Association announced the nominations at the headquarters of the Auburn Ski Club here. Results of the final balloting for the Hall of Fame will be announced during the association's convention at Lake Placid, N.Y., June 7-9.

Junior Teams Plan Meeting

Representatives from each of the teams entering Waterford Township's junior baseball program will meet Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in Room 109 of Schoolcraft Elementary School at 6400 Maceday Drive.

Program director Bill Woods asked that only one representative from each team attend the meeting, at which plans will be outlined for the coming season.

Softball Blanks Hurled in Waterford League

Winning pitchers in Waterford Township softball action last night were in a rut. They all fired blanks.

Harland Keith fanned seven and fired a three-hitter as Spencer Floor downed Buckner Finance, 12-0; Bob Frasier fanned seven and gave up only two hits as Clyde's Wheel & Frame blanked Waterford Merchants, 10-0; and Jerry Thomas struck out 11 and pitched Day's Sanitary Service to a 10-0 nod over Clarkston Appliance.

Fred Milliron banged out and Chuck Graves and Doug Hall contributed two hits apiece to back Keith's pitching.

Duane Fornwall and Jim Swain picked up two hits each for Clyde's, which benefited from six walks and four Merchant errors.

Tom Studt sparked Day's with a double and single and Dick Cooper chipped in with two singles. Clarkston was guilty of five errors.

Pontiac Woman Moves Into 5th at Keg Tourney

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — The 41st annual Women's State Bowling Tournament moved toward its final weekend of action with only minor changes Saturday and Sunday, but one of those involved a Pontiac woman.

Mary Foster recorded a 689 total to move into fifth place in the handicap singles phase of the tournament.

There were no changes in the handicap doubles or team event.

In all events, Viola Blatt of Ada took over second place, while Evart's Kaye Derevage and Battle Creek's Jacqueline Brenner tied for fifth.

REACHES MILESTONE — New York's Mickey Mantle tosses his bat away and starts his tour of the bases at Yankee Stadium yesterday after belting his 500th career home run. Mickey, one of six players to reach the 500 mark, connected in the seventh inning against Baltimore's Stu Miller. Yankees won, 6-5.

Mickey Belts 500th Homer

Mantle Connects; Chisox Win

By the Associated Press

Mickey Mantle, whose 10-day ordeal has ended with a loud crash, is breathing easy again.

Eddie Stanky, whose 10-game joyride goes on without a wallop, is holding his breath.

"I'm glad it's over . . . it's a relief," Mantle said Sunday after blasting the 500th home run of his illustrious major league career to lift the New York Yankees past the Baltimore Orioles 6-5.

★ ★ ★

"I have never seen a club go this far on pitching alone," Manager Stanky said after his light-hitting Chicago White Sox ran their winning string to 10 games and swept into the American League lead with 4-2 and 3-1 victories over the California Angels.

SIXTH PLAYER

Mantle, who hit his 499th homer on May 3 at Minnesota, struggled through seven homerless games before unloading No. 500 against Stu Miller in the seventh inning Sunday and becoming the sixth player in history to reach the half-century mark.

★ ★ ★

"It's like winning the last game of a World Series," said the 17-year New York veteran, whose drive into the right field seats at Yankee Stadium admitted him to the exclusive circle that also includes Babe Ruth, Willie Mays, Jimmy Foxx, Ted Williams and Mel Ott.

Reminded by newsmen that the next milestone is Ott's career mark of 511 homers, Mantle shook his head. "511?" he snorted. "You mean you guys are going to start that now?"

★ ★ ★

"My next goal is 11," Stanky was saying in Chicago after Gary Peters completed the White Sox' sweep by tossing the eighth one-hitter in the majors this spring.

The double victory, coupled with Boston's 8-5, 13-9 doubleheader sweep over Detroit, sent the White Sox into first place — 1½ games ahead of the Tigers.

★ ★ ★

Elsewhere in the American League, Kansas City topped Minnesota 4-2 and Cleveland edged Washington 2-1 in a rain-curtailed five-inning game.

★ ★ ★

Mantle's homer gave New York a 6-4 lead after Joe Pepitone's two-run pinch-hit blast in the sixth wiped out a 4-3 deficit.

The Orioles closed the gap in the eighth when Mantle, still dazed by the roaring ovation given him by 18,872 Stadium fans, dropped a throw at first base and then fired wildly past the plate, enabling Frank Robinson to score.

★ ★ ★

"I was in a fog," he said. "It sure would have been pretty tough to hit the homer, then make an error that lost the game."

Peters stymied the Angels after yielding a second inning homer by ex-teammate Bill Skowron. It was the left-hander's fourth straight victory after an opening loss.

WINNING MARGIN

Tommy John and reliever Bob Locker combined for a five-hitter in the first game and Ken Berry's third hit — a two-run single in the seventh — gave the White Sox their winning margin.

The Chicago pitching staff has given up only 13 runs during the 10-game streak.

"There have been times when the pitchers carry you for four or five games," Stanky said. "But then the team will come up with some hitting to keep the streak alive. It's been all pitching for us."

Kansas City struck for four runs in the first inning — two on Mike Hershberger's double — and took their third straight from the Twins behind the strong pitching of Chuck Dobson and Jack Aker.

★ ★ ★

Cleveland's Sonny Siebert pitched a two-hitter, setting the Senators down in order until the fifth, when Frank Howard homered and Dick Nen beat out an infield single. Joe Azcue homered for the Indians, who swept the three-game set.

Teen Captures Trapshoot Title

RENO, Nev. (AP) — A 14-year-old boy, Ed Long, of Columbus, Ohio, broke 24 out of 25 targets in a shootoff Sunday to win the Golden West Grand American trapshoot championship at Harold's Trapshooting Club.

★ ★ ★

Shooting from his handicap distance of 20½ yards, he beat Ben Polacek, of Kelso, Wash., who broke 21 out of 25 from 21 yards. The two had tied at 99 prior to the shootoff.

★ ★ ★

It was only the second time in the 16 years of the championships that a teen-ager won.

Larry Gravestock, of Wichita Falls, Tex., won the overall title for the six-day tournament, breaking 952 out of 1,000.

Gene Sears, of El Reno, Okla., was the high all-around champion with 393 out of 400.

Young Petty Collects 55th NASCAR Win

DARLINGTON, S.C. (AP) — Lee Petty's NASCAR record of 54 victories in a career was surpassed in the Rebel 400 stock car race at Darlington Saturday, but Petty doesn't appear concerned about the situation.

The important thing, from the retired Petty's viewpoint, is that another Petty — son Richard — snapped the old mark.

Richard piloted his 1967 Plymouth to victory No. 55 despite a six-car crackup shortly after the green racing flag was waved, and also despite a hard-charging David Pearson in a new Holman-Moody Ford.

★ ★ ★

Petty, from Randleman, N.C., averaged 125.671 miles per hour for the one-lap triumph although there were five caution flags for a total of 31 laps. The Randleman driver's margin of victory was 1.6 seconds.

Pitch-and-Run Pale Hose Lead

CHICAGO (AP) — Arguments over what percentage pitching plays in baseball have varied throughout the years. Some baseball men have claimed it is 75 per cent of the game, others put the figure as high as 85 per cent.

Manager Eddie Stanky of the Chicago White Sox, who have stormed into the American League lead on the strength of a 10-game winning streak, agrees.

"Sure, it's 75 to 85 per cent of the game," says Stanky, "but not with this club. With us it's 99 and seven-tenths per cent. The other three-tenths is running."

KIDDING

Stanky was kidding, of course, but the little guy was kidding on the square.

During the streak Sox pitchers have given more than two runs only once and that was a 5-4 victory over Baltimore. There have been three shutouts, three one-run games and three two-run games.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, the Sox margin of victory, except for the 13-1 fiasco over Baltimore last Wednesday, has never been more than two runs.

Gary Peters and Tommy John have recorded three triumphs each during the streak and Joe Horlen has two. Can the Sox win the pennant strictly on this all-pitch, no-hit program which has carried them to a 1½ game lead over second-place Detroit?

The top winners think so and so does Stanky.

Untouchable Hands Miss Kusner Prize

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP) — Kathy Kusnes of Arlington, Va., riding Untouchable, won the individual jumping event at the Wiesbaden International Horse Show Sunday.

It was the second successive victory for Miss Kusner, who Saturday jumped faultlessly to win the feature event.

In brilliant sunshine Sunday she repeated her clear round to lead the field and take the trophy.

Pittsburgh Is Soccer Leader

Pittsburgh has moved into first place in the Eastern Division of the National Professional Soccer League while Toronto has fallen ever deeper into the cellar of the Western Division.

The Phantoms blasted the Falcons 2-1 Sunday on goals by Manfred Seissler and Ron Cocks while Oscar Lopez scored the lone Toronto goal.

In Saturday's action, Chicago and Baltimore tied 2-2, Atlanta shut out New York 2-0 and California stopped Los Angeles 4-0.

Chicago took a 2-0 lead over the Bays, who rallied for second-half goals by Ruben Garcettown and Dennis Viollet. Willie Roy scored twice for the Spurs in the first half.

Atlanta's victory came on two goals in the first period, scored by Graham Newton and Ron Newman. Goalie Sven Lindberg held the Generals in tow for the shutout.

★ ★ ★

California won on two goals by Mario Baesso and one each by Milan Cop, Barry Rowan and Milan Cop.

SPARTAN SNEAKS FOR SCORE — Green-shirted Jim Raye (16) goes into the end zone on a short plunge for a touchdown in the annual Michigan State spring scrimmage game Saturday at East Lansing. Raye quarterbacked the regulars to a 41-10 conquest of the reserves.

MSU's Duffy Smiling as Grid Drills End

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan State fullback Bob Apisa and quarterback Jimmy Raye have put a smile back on the face of Spartan football coach Duffy Daugherty that could last all summer.

Apisa, recovering from a knee operation which kept him out much of last season when the Spartans won their second straight Big Ten title, ran for touchdowns of three and four yards as the regulars crushed the reserves 41-10 in the final spring scrimmage Saturday.

Raye fired a 40-yard TD pass to halfback Dwight Lee and added another score on a quarterback sneak on his way to a scrambling performance which earned him the Most Valuable Player award among regulars.

UNDER PRESSURE

"I like the way he scrambled out of trouble for good yardage and threw the ball so well under pressure," said Daugherty. "But the game did show our pass defense needs a lot of sharpening."

★ ★ ★

Halfback Frank Waters, son of the Hillsdale athletic director, scored on a 14-yard dash for the regulars and end George Chatlos intercepted a pass and lateraled the ball to tackle Charles Bailey, who lumbered in for another TD.

Gordon Bowdell, a 6-foot-3 sophomore from Allen Park, scored the reserves only touchdown on a pass from quarterback Charlie Wedemeyer. The same combination clicked on a pass for a two-point conversion. Lee was tackled in the end zone for a reserve safety.

★ ★ ★

Bowdell was named the Most Valuable Player among the reserves.

"He'll be a good one when he gains some experience," said Daugherty. "And he wasn't even recruited. He was a walk-on, just showed up for practice one day."

Young Pitcher Blanks Phillies

By the Associated Press

Life gets easier all the time for young Gary Nolan, who was battling high school hitters in Oroville, Calif. a year ago.

Now, all he has to worry about are Willie Mays, Roberto Clemente and the rest of the National League.

★ ★ ★

"I was hit harder in high school than I have been so far this year," grinned Nolan after his five-hitter had blanked Philadelphia 1-0 and given Cincinnati a sweep of Sunday's doubleheader.

WIN OPENER

The Reds won the opener 2-1 on Vada Pinson's eighth inning homer and the four-hit pitching of Jim Maloney and Ted Abernathy.

Nolan is the precocious 18-year-old right-hander who came to the Cincinnati camp as a non-roster player and won a regular job. He is 3-1 with a .12 earned run average and the poise of a man twice his age.

★ ★ ★

"I don't get nervous because when I came to the Reds felt I could pitch big league ball," Nolan said.

Nolan had plenty on it against the Phillies. He struck out eight and now has fanned 48 in 46 2-3 innings. The shutout was his first in organized ball.

The youngster's confidence may come from the fact that he was the Reds' first choice in the free agent draft last June and a $65,000 bonus never hurt anybody's confidence.

★ ★ ★

In other National League games Sunday, San Francisco swept a doubleheader from Houston 11-6 and 4-3, Chicago split with Los Angeles, losing 2-1 in 10 innings before winning 6-3 in 11, New York dropped St. Louis 3-1, and Pittsburgh whipped Atlanta 5-2.

Ollie Brown's two-out, two-run homer in the ninth inning gave the Giants the second game.

Willie Davis delivered a run-scoring single with two out in the 10th inning of the opener, lifting the Dodgers past the Cubs. Don Drysdale, 2-3, who drove in the first Los Angeles run with an eighth inning single, was the winner.

Army-bound Ken Holtzman copped his fourth straight in the second game and ignited the three-run rally that won it in the 11th with a single. Ron Rairly cracked a two-run homer for the Dodgers.

★ ★ ★

The Mets ended Bob Gibson's nine-game winning streak against them as Jack Fisher beat the Cardinals. Jerry Buchek, traded by St. Louis to New York just before the season started, homered in the fourth, starting the three-run rally that won it for the Mets.

Roberto Clemente smashed a single, double and triple, scored twice and drove in another run as the Pirates downed the Braves. Bill Mazeroski drove in Clemente twice with singles and Donn Clendenon homered for Pittsburgh.

SLIPPERY CUB — Los Angeles Dodger catcher John Roseboro gained the umpire's decision briefly when he took a throw from third baseman Jim Lefebvre and put the tag on Chicago's Don Kissinger, but the Cubs' shortstop separated Roseboro from the ball in this collision and Chicago gained a run. The ball falls to the ground at right. Action came in Saturday's game between the two in Los Angeles.

City Golf Champ Leads Team in Publinx Play

City champion Paul Bada carded a two-over-par 74 yesterday at Pontiac Country Club in sparking that club to a winning start in the Michigan Publinx Golf Association team play.

With Bada leading the way, the PCC team downed Hickory Hollow No. 1, 11½ to 10½.

Wolverine Golf Club, another new team in the Publinx action, knocked off Bald Mountain, 12-10, in a Red Division match.

In Blue Division play, Oxford Hills dropped an 18½ to 3½ decision to Hickory Hills, and Rochester No. 3 trimmed Green Acres No. 2, 16 to 6.

★ ★ ★

In White Division activity, Rochester No. 2 downed Hickory Hollow, 11½ to 10½, North Brook gained a 16½ to 5½ nod over Green Acres No. 1 and Sylvan Glen emerged with a 16 to 6 decision over Romeo.

In two Gold Division matches, Salem Hills and Odyl Wyld battled to an 11-11 standoff, and Lilac Brothers posted a 19½ to 2½ win over Raisin River.

Briton, German Capture Honors in Roach Chase

PALERMO, Sicily (AP)— Paul Hawkins of Great Britain and Rolf Strommelen of Germany swept to victory Sunday in the 51st Targa Florio, the world's oldest open road auto race.

★ ★ ★

Driving a Porsche 2195 prototype, Hawkins and Stommelen raced around the 447 miles of twisting roads in western Sicily's Madonnie Hills in six hours, 37 minutes and one second for an average speed of 67.5 miles per hour.

★ ★ ★

Finishing second was the Porsche 1911 of Italy's Leo Clella and Giampiero Biscaldi in 6:37:48.1. Vic Elford of Britain was third in a Porsche 1911 in 6:41:03.4.

Cage Star, Sister Killed in Kentucky Auto Mishap

MADISONVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Dwight Smith, 21, Western Kentucky University basketball star, and his sister, Sheryl Kay Smith, 18, were killed Sunday afternoon when their car hit rain-slicked roads near here and plunged into a water-filled ditch.

Smith's brother Greg, another key player on the Western team, was injured, treated in a hospital, and released.

Hopkins County Deputy Coroner Harold Bandy said the car submerged in water, and speculated that both may have drowned before they could escape.

The three were returning to Western Kentucky University after a Mothers Day visit to their Princeton, Ky., home. The two brothers were guests of honor at a banquet Saturday night sponsored by a Methodist church.

Smith was a senior, had been drafted by both the American and National Basketball Associations, and was to have graduated this year.

★ ★ ★

Ryun Runs Slow Mile, San Jose Sets Record

By the Associated Press

Jim Ryun ran just fast enough to do what he had to do. Tommie Smith and three of his San Jose State teammates ran fast enough to do what they knew they could do.

The difference was a victory for Ryun's team on the one hand, and a world and American record for the San Jose runners, on the other.

★ ★ ★

Smith's incredibly fast 19.4 spring anchored the Spartans to a world 880-yard relay record at the West Coast Relays at Fresno, Calif., Saturday night. The time was 1:22.1, half a second under the listed mark.

SAME MEN

Then the same four men — Ken Shackleford, Bob Talmadge, Lee Evans and Smith — came back to turn the mile relay in 3:03.5, an American mark and second only to the world record of 3:02.8, set last year in the British Commonwealth games by a team from Trinidad and Tobago.

★ ★ ★

Ryun, running in Kansas' dual meet against Oklahoma in Norman, Okla., Saturday, yawned through the mile in 4:14.6, tying for the victory with teammate Tom Yergovich.

Though the San Jose runners provided the Fresno meet's climactic moments, there were a couple of other great performances. Ralph Boston won the long jump at 27-2¼, just 2½ inches under his world record.

And Bob Seagren of Southern California won the pole vault at 17-4½, 1¾ inches under the world mark.

OTHER MEETS

In Houston, at the Southwestern Athletic Conference meet, Jim Hines of Texas Southern tied the world mark in the 100-yard dash at 9.1 Saturday.

At the Heptagonal Games at West Point, N.Y., won by Army, Navy's John Lawlor ran the mile in 4:05.5 and came back for the two mile in 8:53.2.

★ ★ ★

Richmond Flowers led Kentucky to the Southeastern Conference championship with a 13.8 clocking in the high hurdles and a victory in the 100 in 9.7. Larry Kelly, also of Tennessee, ran a fine 880 in 1:48.5.

Michigan Belts Gophers Twice

Streaking OSU '9' Back in Title Picture

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ohio State's Buckeyes, all but discounted from the Big Ten baseball race a little more than a week ago, are back in first place, aiming for a third straight championship.

The Buckeyes swept a doubleheader from Purdue Saturday, 3-0 and 7-1, to run their victory streak to six games while Minnesota dropped a doubleheader to Michigan, 3-2 and 5-4, to fall into second place, one-half game behind Ohio State.

★ ★ ★

Although the season ends Saturday, the race could be decided Friday when Ohio State invades Minnesota for a doubleheader.

On Saturday, Ohio State goes to Iowa for a pair and Minnesota stays home to face Indiana twice.

JOLTS HOPES

Northwestern jolted Wisconsin's hopes Saturday with a 9-0 victory while Iowa eliminated Michigan State with a double triumph, 3-0 and 4-3 with the second game going 12 innings.

Indiana and Illinois split a pair, with Indiana winning the opener 6-3 and Illinois taking the nightcap 10-1.

As things stand now, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa retain mathematical title chances.

Ohio State heads the pack with a 10-4 record and if the Buckeyes win their last four games, that'll be it. Minnesota has a 9-4 record and must win a pair from the Buckeyes Friday.

HALF GAME

A Minnesota-Ohio State split would leave the Gophers a half game behind with two to play and Ohio State then could win it by taking a pair from Iowa Saturday.

To complicate things further, Michigan is sitting in third place with an 8-4 record. The Wolverines play Michigan State in single games Friday and Saturday.

Michigan could sneak in if Minnesota and Ohio State split and then run into at least one more loss each on Saturday.

If the top three teams all run into difficulties then Wisconsin (8-5) or even Iowa (7-6) could lay claim to the title by either of them sweeping four games.

Wisconsin is at Illinois for a pair Friday and then winds up at Purdue in a Saturday doubleheader. Iowa plays Indiana twice Friday before engaging Ohio State twice Saturday.

Bill Hartack Again Astride Barbs Delight

BALTIMORE (AP) — Bill Harttack, unable to ride Barbs Delight in the Kentucky Derby because of a previous commitment, is gaining the colt back through the same channels for Saturday's $150,000-added Preakness.

Kenny Knapp, who rode Barbs Delight to the runner-up spot behind Proud Clarion in the Derby, is obligated to ride this week at Garden State.

Trainer Hal Steele announced Sunday that he had secured the services of Hartack, who has ridden in six previous Preakness races and won with both Fabius and Northern Dancer. Barbs Delight with Hardtack aboard, had won the Derby Trial.

The 92nd running of the Preakness, at 1 3-16 miles, has only six likely entries to date.

Bengals Mauled by Boston Hitters

tago and Joe Foy cracked homers as the Red Sox completed knocking the Tigers from first place in the nightcap.

The Tigers joined in the slugfest, but a pair of homers by Willie Horton and one each by Norm Cash and Bill Freehan came with the bases empty.

★ ★ ★

"We just got the heck knocked out of us," Smith said. "It's part of the game and things like this will happen during the course of a season. Nobody likes it, of course. But you can't sit around and brood.

"Tomorrow's another day. We just have to go out and rebound, that's the big thing."

Detroit's highly touted pitching staff was mauled during 5 hours and 32 minutes of action. Denny McLain was pounded in the opener and five hurlers, starting with Mickey Lolich, were battered in the nightcap.

★ ★ ★

"I can't believe our pitching staff is that bad," Smith said. "It was just one of those days. Lolich didn't have bad stuff, but everything he threw up there—boom."

BIG INNING

Detroit scored five times in the nightcap off Jose Santiago and Don McMahon to close the gap to 12-9 as McAuliffe knocked in two runs on a double and Cash's single scored two more runs.

Larry Sherry gave up the final Boston run in the eighth then the Tigers were mowed down in order by Galen Cisco to end the long afternoon.

Boston, with 16 of the extra base hits, fell two short of the league mark for extra base hits by one team in a double-header-18 by the Yankees in 1927 and 1939.

★ ★ ★

Dave Wickersham, 1-0, will go to the mound for the Tigers tonight against Jim Hannan, 0-1, when they open a three-game set with the Washington Senators.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF DENNIS R. Brooks, who passed away May 15, 1964.
A bud that the Gardner gave us,
A pure and lovely child.
He gave him to our keeping
To cherish undefiled.
But just as it was opening
To the glory of the day,
Down came the Heavenly Gardner
And took our flower away.
— Sadly missed by Mother, Dad Kay & Kyle.

IN MEMORY OF OUR DAUGHTER Joan Miller, who passed away 5-15-61.
It's been six years since that cold day in May
When God whispered to you come, and you went away,
It was not our will,
But Lord thy will be done.
— Daddy and Mother

SAWYER
In loving memory of Glen Raymond Sawyer who passed away July 28, 1966.
Your memory is a keep sake with which we'll never part
Though God has you in our hearts.
We still have you in our hearts.
Sadly missed by wife, Merletta, sister Ione Tews.

FOUNTAINEERS
Girls — married or single. Are you looking for summer work? Do you need money for school or that extra something for the house? If your answer to either of questions is yes, then consider a job at Cunningham's.

The fountain business is brisk during the summer months and extra help is needed. You will find the job most interesting and the income derived from this work relationship, quite good. You will also have the opportunity of purchasing, at a discount, most of the items sold in our stores. This is a savings which the whole family can enjoy.

Our fountain stores in your neighborhood are now taking applications from people interested in working this summer.

2nd Body Found in Fatal Canoe Trip

OSCODA (AP) — The body of a second Wurtsmith Air Force Base airman missing since April 17 was found Sunday on the Lake Huron shore by Oscoda police. It was that of Airman Michael Bodi, 24.

★ ★ ★

Bodi and Airman Russell Blan disappeared on a canoe trip down the Au Sable River from Vanetta Lake. Blank's body was recovered last Friday.

★ ★ ★

The airmen had been presumed drowned since their overturned canoe and a paddle were found at the mouth of the Au Sable a day following their disappearance.

Painters Unit May Settle

DETROIT (AP) — Federal and state labor mediation officials today were hopeful a settlement would be reached on a contract covering 4,000 painters in the Detroit area.

★ ★ ★

The painters, members of District Council 22, have stayed on the jobs even though their contract ended May 1.

★ ★ ★

Painters and the employers group, Painters Association of Detroit, revised their contract demands last week, leading to optimistic predictions of agreement.

Reds Identify Captured Pilot

TOKYO (AP) — The North Vietnam News Agency today identified a U.S. pilot shot down Friday as Col. Norman C. Gaddis.

★ ★ ★

The identification was made in the caption of a photo showing Gaddis' Air Force identification card.

Tot, 3, Caught in Fall From Third-Story

NEW YORK (AP) — Leon Ismael was walking along a Bronx street early Sunday when he heard a scream from an apartment house.

★ ★ ★

Ismael dashed to the back and saw 3-year-old Sophia Thomas clinging to a ledge of her family's third-floor apartment. The child slipped just as Ismael arrived, and he caught her.

★ ★ ★

Police said Sophia was alone in the apartment with her sisters, Pamela, 7, and Stephanie, 2, and that they apparently didn't hear her cries for help after she climbed onto the ledge.

★ ★ ★

Her mother, Ernestine Thomas, 23, said she had been out "for a little walk." She was charged with endangering the life of a minor.

Convicted Man Is Proved Innocent

WARREN (AP) — Louis Nasir 30, a used-car salesman, is a free man today, but a year of his life was spent behind bars for a crime another man committed.

★ ★ ★

Macomb County Circuit Judge Edward Gallagher, at the request of Prosecutor George Paris, dismissed charges against Nasir over the weekend.

★ ★ ★

Another man has confessed to the crime of which Nasir was convicted on armed robbery charges, police said.

Churchmen Call for Bombing Halt

MUSKEGON (AP) — Delegates to the annual state convention of the United Church of Christ have adopted a resolution calling for an unconditional halt to the bombing of North Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

The resolution approved by the 800 delegates Saturday also asked for an immediate scaling down of U.S. military operations in Vietnam.

Soviets 'Jazz It Up' as Workshop Hosts

TALLINN, U.S.S.R. (AP) — Soviet soldiers in uniform played jazz here this week.

So did scientists from the Siberian scientific town of Novosibirsk, medical students from the Ukrainian city of Lvev, musicians from the Pacific Coast port of Khabarovsk and bearded youngsters from Moscow and Leningrad.

★ ★ ★

It once would have seemed impossible in the Soviet Union, where authorities long discouraged this type of music.

But performers and fans came from all parts of the vast Soviet Union to learn, to teach and to share the common language of their music with Swedes, Finns, Poles and Americans at the first big international jazz festival ever held on Soviet soil.

JAZZ WORKSHOP

Only two years after jazz was officially approved in Moscow, Soviet musicians here were conducting a jazz workshop in an art gallery before the kind of abstract and modern paintings still taboo in Moscow.

★ ★ ★

—The Little Star quartet from Riga, capital of Soviet Latvia, composed of three corporals and a private playing jazz in Red army uniforms.

★ ★ ★

—A Leningrad ensemble of pantomimists in tights dancing themes to jazz music. Despite the official Soviet line praising the working man, one part showed man at work, man working at a machine, then man turning into a machine.

—A pert brunette Estonian vocalist, Else Khimma, in a sexy-voiced rendition in English of "Love for Sale" to the jazz background of a Tallinn group.

17-PIECE BAND

—A 17-piece band from Moscow, in tuxedoes, playing swing music.

—Another Leningrad ensemble with six vocalists singing "bebop de doo bop beep" lyrics that need no translation.

★ ★ ★

Tallinn, the capital of Soviet Estonia on the Baltic Sea, has held jazz festivals before, but never on such a scale.

Never before had an American jazz group played at a Soviet jazz festival. This breakthrough followed a long bureaucratic argument.

AVANT GARDE

The American entry was the Charles Lloyd Quartet, one of the most avant garde of jazz groups anywhere.

Lloyd first was invited to appear, but not play. Then a promise that he could play one night was canceled at the last minute.

★ ★ ★

He repeatedly complained to festival officials that he thought he was being barred from playing because he is a Negro.

Lloyd finally played for an hour Sunday and got an ovation of 8 minutes 20 seconds that literally stopped the festival. The audience twice, booing efforts to continue the program with another group. An intermission was hastily called to quiet the audience.

'HOMEGROWN'

Festival officials did not explain why the Lloyd group was shut out until the last day. But this appeared to be connected with official Soviet efforts to develop their own homegrown jazz and downplay American influence.

★ ★ ★

The newspaper Soviet Estonia, organ of the Estonian Communist party and government, explained Sunday: "The purpose of the jazz festival is to raise standards of the players through contacts between jazz groups, and to further develop original Soviet jazz music."

★ ★ ★

Throughout the festival, Soviet groups did just that with themes based on Russian folk songs, traditional music of Soviet central Asia and music based on Russian poetry.

But from the beginning it was also clear that many of the Soviet jazz groups were borrowing from American jazz.

The first performers on opening night were the "Leningradsky Dixieland."

Mary's Performance Skips Laid to Virus, Not Dispute

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Mary Martin missed two performances of "I Do! I Do!" and, in as much as Mary's trying to get out of doing Saturday matinees, claiming the role's too strenuous, her absence may be interpreted as a strike against David Merrick, the genial genius of Broadway.

But we feel Mary's too professional for that. And we happen to know she has some sort of "upside down virus." What's that? Well, her temperature goes down instead of up, and when it gets to be about 80, you'd better stay home from school.

WILSON

"Wouldn't it be wonderful," Headwaiter Val and Hatcheck Beauty Eugenie were saying at Sardi's, "if 1967 skipped summer and went right into fall?" (The Year That Summer Never Came.)

3 Boys Hurt; Lit Powder

DETROIT (AP) — Three small Detroit boys were in serious condition today at a Detroit hospital, suffering from injuries when they exploded a two-pound can of gunpowder.

The boys said they placed a firecracker in the can Saturday and lit it. They received second-degree burns on their faces, hands and upper bodies.

★ ★ ★

They are Mark and Dewayne Walker, 10, twins, and Eddie Cunningham. Another boy, Gerald Ross, 9, also of Detroit, was treated and released.

Detroiter Reelected YMCA President

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — George E. Gullen Jr., Detroit, was reelected president yesterday of the National Council of YMCAs for a one-year term.

Gullen, vice president of Wayne State University, was reelected at the closing session of the national council's 41st annual meeting.

The 350 delegates represented about 1800 YMCAs across the nation with a membership of 5 million persons. The national council is the chief legislative and policy making body of the YMCA.

Police Trainees Have 2 Shifts

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit police recruits will be trained on double shifts because of the need for manpower to enforce the law, Police Commissioner Ray Girardin has announced.

★ ★ ★

Forty-nine men are enrolled in the fourth week of a 12-week training course. A second class of 30 started classwork today. Normally one class graduates before the next one's training begins.

AMC Elects VP

DETROIT (AP) — Earl K. Brownridge has been elected group vice president in charge of international automotive operations for American Motors Corp. Brownridge will continue to serve as president of American Motors Ltd. of Canada.

Death Takes Star of 'Wagon Train'

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actor Frank McGrath, who started as a Hollywood stunt man and later starred as the bearded cook Charlie Wooster in the "Wagon Train" television series, died Saturday night after suffering an apparent heart attack. He was 64.

★ ★ ★

McGrath, born in Mound City, Mont., originally planned to become a jockey. He got into motion pictures as a stunt man when a producer saw him jump from a fast-moving freight train on which he had hitched a ride.

Matthau Is Signed for 'Dolly' Film

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actor Walter Matthau will play the role of Horace Vandergelder in the film version of the Broadway hit, "Hello, Dolly!" Twentieth Century-Fox Studios announced yesterday.

Matthau, who won two Tony awards for his Broadway performances in "A Shot in the Dark," and "The Odd Couple," received an Academy award as best supporting actor of 1966 for his part in the motion picture "The Fortune Cookie."

Singer Barbra Streisand was signed earlier to play the title role in the "Dolly" film.

State GI Killed

FAIRFAX, Va. (AP) —A 21-year-old Army sergeant from Flint, Mich., was killed in a head-on collision Sunday when his sports car, carrying several servicemen, veered into an oncoming car, police said. The victim was Sgt. Franklin N. Dougan stationed at Ft. Belvoir, Va.

Baseball Bat Used in Killing

NEW YORK (AP) — A killer with a baseball bat pounded the life out of elderly musician Fred Cavi in his Greenwich Village apartment.

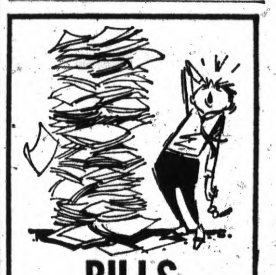

★ ★ ★

Two boys passing his open door Sunday discovered the body of Cavi, 71, a onetime piano and accordian player with the Freddy Martin orchestra and holder of the Silver Star for heroism during World War I, police said.

He won the medal and another decoration for capturing an enemy machine gun nest.

Detectives said they were unable to establish a motive for the killing, but that Cavi's wallet was empty.

Policeman Foils Attempted Holdup

DETROIT (UPI) — a policeman on his way to work foiled an attempted predawn holdup yesterday.

Police said Charles Menard, on his way to work at the Detroit Zoo, stopped for a red light in the city and saw a car driven by John Taylor pull up alongside another vehicle.

Taylor jumped out brandishing a gun, police said, and pointed it at Helen Thomas, a passenger in George Stevens' car.

Menard got out of his car and ordered Taylor to surrender.

At this point, Stevens started to leave the scene. Taylor jumped on the hood of Stevens' car, officers said, and Menard took off in hot pursuit in his squad car, firing four shots.

When Stevens stopped, a somewhat shaky Taylor slid off the car and meekly surrendered.

Lake Michigan Is Choice for Research Sub Tests

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Scientists will plumb the depths of Lake Michigan next month in a small submarine being tested for research work.

Seventeen dives are scheduled for the two-week testing period and University of Michigan researchers, who are handling the project, said the effort would give man his first view of the lake's depths.

★ ★ ★

The two-man sub, Star II, was leased from General Dynamics Corp. It is just back from a Caribbean expedition, where it was taken to depths of 200 feet.

The sub, builders say, can safely descend 1,200 feet underwater, putting Lake Michigan's bottom, 920 feet at its deepest spot will within reach.

Researchers said they will attempt to learn more about rock formations, living habits and movement patterns of fish, depths of rooted plants and the sediment on the bottom of the lake.

The submarine, 18 feet long and weighing five tons, has a 12-mile range at almost five knots. It's mother ship will be the Woodbine, a Coast Guard cutter.

The Star II carries a 250-pound payload of cameras and other equipment which will be used in the effort.

A crew composed of a U-M scientist and an operator from the Electric Boat Division of General Dynamics will man the sub on its dives.
