LBJ Orders Navy Beef-Up

Pontiac Press Photo

FIRST DAY — Joseph A. Warren (center) eased himself into the Pontiac city manager's chair this morning and took the reins of the city's top administrative post. Explaining the routine of the first day on the job were John F. Reineck (left), assistant manager who has been acting manager for five months, and Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. Warren, former Jackson city manager, fills the spot vacated when Robert A. Carter resigned.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has ordered U.S. Naval forces beefed up in the Tonkin Gulf area, off Viet Nam, and has ordered them to destroy any force that attacks them.

He said the orders were issued yesterday in the aftermath of the assault on the U.S. destroyer Maddox by three North Vietnamese patrol torpedo boats.

Johnson said the commanders of combat aircraft and destroyers in the area where yesterday's attack occurred — in international waters — have been told "to attack any force which attacks them in international waters and to attack them not only with the objective of driving off the attack force but of destroying them."

EMPHASIS TO ORDER

With emphasis in his tone, the President said that these orders "will be carried out."

★ ★ ★

At the State Department, it was announced that the United States would make a formal protest to Communist North Viet Nam over what a spokesman called the serious incident of the attack on the Maddox.

The protest probably will be conveyed through the three-nation International Control Commission (India, Poland and Canada) set up by a 1954 Geneva Conference on Viet Nam.

- To continue the patrols in the Gulf of Tonkin off the coast of North Viet Nam.
- To double the force by adding an additional destroyer to the one already on patrol.
- To provide a combat air patrol over the destroyers.
- To issue the orders to drive off and destroy any force which attacks the U.S. force.

The 7th Fleet, in the western Pacific, has an ample force of destroyers from which to assign an additional ship to the Gulf of Tonkin patrol. Normally, the fleet operates with no less than 30 destroyers.

The air cover which the President ordered will come from a carrier operating in the general area of the coast of Viet Nam.

Customarily, carriers do not move into the comparatively confined waters of the gulf, bounded on one side by the Chinese Communist island of Hainan and on the other by the mainland and islands of Communist North Viet Nam.

However, fighter patrols from

Begins Duties Today

Pontiac Manager Takes Over

The big chair in the second-floor, corner office at City Hall was filled again today for the first time in five months.

Joseph A. Warren took over as Pontiac's city manager at 8 a.m.

On hand to greet him were Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. and John F. Reineck, who today resumed his duties as assistant city manager after filling in as chief administrator since last February when Robert A. Carter resigned.

Warren, 44, former Jackson city manager, was hired to the $20,000-a-year post by the City Commission June 30.

★ ★ ★

VACANT OFFICE

He was involved in many programs and municipal operations similar to those here while serving as Jackson city manager for 13 years.

★ ★ ★

SIMILAR PROBLEMS

Both cities are faced with similar problems of public transportation and are involved in community renewal program and downtown revitalization projects.

Warren received his Bachelor's Degree in political science and public administration from Michigan State University and his Masters Degree in public administration from the University of Michigan.

He was administrative assistant to the Jackson city manager for 14 months, then held the city manager's post in Ashland, Wis., for three years before returning to Jackson in 1951.

If nothing else, his presence should provide some interesting banter around the administrative wing when the annual Army-Navy football game comes due.

Warren served 4½ years on active duty in World War II as a commissioned officer in the U.S. Naval Reserve, attaining the rank of lieutenant.

SUSAN PILL

Beauty Title for Area Coed

Paving of M59 Set This Week

Believe Completion Will Be by Sept. 1

Bituminous concrete paving of M59 between Elizabeth Lake and Airport roads is scheduled to begin this week, and indications are that the 3.4-mile widening project will be completed by Sept. 1.

As originally contracted, the controversial project wasn't scheduled for completion until next June.

The former two-lane road has been widened to five lanes, and a new bridge was built across the Clinton River.

★ ★ ★

ROAD OPEN

The road has been open to local traffic ever since the work was started last January.

The State Highway Department had planned to close it entirely, but businessmen bordering the road obtained a court order to keep it open to local traffic.

A dispute arose, however, over interpretation of the contract which caused some delay in scheduling the blacktopping.

Okay Pay Hike for Servicemen

$207-Million Measure Needs LBJ Signature

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, without discussion and on a voice vote, swiftly passed today a bill that will bring $207 million in pay raises to most American servicemen and servicewomen.

★ ★ ★

House passage completed congressional action on the bill. It now goes to the White House, where President Johnson is expected to sign it quickly so the raise can begin Sept. 1.

★ ★ ★

The bill provides raises for all members of the armed services except draftees and lowest ranking enlisted men.

★ ★ ★

For most servicemen and servicewomen, the pay raise would be the second in a year. Congress enacted a $1.2 billion raise last year, putting it into effect Oct. 1.

★ ★ ★

All controversy on the bill evaporated when Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, decided to call it up under a special procedure known as suspension of the rules, which requires a two-thirds vote for passage.

NO AMENDMENTS

Under this procedure, the bill may not be amended. By bringing it up this way, Vinson assured that the bill, which is identical to the one passed by the Senate, can go directly to the White House without entangling it in a compromise conference between the two bodies.

★ ★ ★

During armed service committee deliberations, Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa., tried without success to amend the bill so it included pay increases for the draftees and lowest-ranking enlisted men as well as tht others. This was defeated by a 21-9 vote.

U. S. Destroyer Attacked By Torpedo Boats

Believe FDR Jr. Gaining Support as VP Nominee

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Political crystal ball-gazers speculated today on a possible new entry in the Democratic vice presidential sweepstakes — Undersecretary of Commerce Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr.

Reports yesterday indicated that Roosevelt, son of the former president and one of the architects of President Johnson's War on Poverty program, may have gained support from backers of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy for the No. 2 spot on the ticket in November.

Johnson ruled out Kennedy last week as a potential vice presidential nominee along with five other Cabinet-level officials.

According to the reports, serious consideration of Roosevelt would be a means of soothing some of the more ardent Kennedy supporters, who were angered by the President's action.

Roosevelt, 49, was identifed closely with the late president John F. Kennedy, and frequently visited the Kennedys on weekends.

He was an active campaigner for Kennedy in the late president's important 1960 West Virginia primary victory over Senate Democratic whip Hubert Humphrey, Minn., who is considered high on the list of potential vice presidential candidates.

In his role as one of the drafters of the poverty program, Roosevelt accompanied Johnson's tour of the economically depressed Southern areas earlier this year.

The addition of Roosevelt's name to the list of vice presidential contenders came as Robert Kennedy said "he would be glad to work" in Johnson's campaign.

Aerialist Killed at Tiger Field

Plunges 85 Feet as Loop of Twine Breaks

DETROIT (AP)—Twenty-two thousand people watched Sunday night as an aerialist fell 85 feet to his death in Detroit's flood-lighted Tiger Stadium.

Some thought as Edward Henry Knipschield, 55, of New Britain, Conn., spun toward his death that surely there was a safety rope around an ankle that would break the fall. There wasn't.

And "Captain Eddie," as Knipschield billed himself for his 100-foot high act on a swaying pole, became the victim of Detroit's second tragedy to befall an aerial performance in the last two and a half years.

It was in Detroit's Fairgrounds Coliseum Jan. 30, 1962, that the human pyramid of the "Flying Wallendas" came apart on a high wire and two died and another was paralyzed for life. Three injured lived to perform again.

★ ★ ★

A loop of twine that "Captain Eddie" used to dangle above ground broke and apparently caused his death, although eye witnesses conjectured for hours afterward on why he fell. The broken twine had deteriorated from age and mildew under a covering of tape, said Detroit Police Inspector Hiram Phipp who saw the fall and examined the loop.

BROKEN STRAP?

Herbert M. Boldt, a veteran Detroit News reporter, said the strap apparently broke as Knipschield started a spin, foot-in-loop and face down from a horizontal bar 85 feet up his 100-foot, thin and swaying pole. He was performing at the close of Detroit's police field day.

"Suddenly," Boldt said, "he fell free of the loop. As he fell his body kept turning in the same direction he'd been spinning on the pole.

"It sort of reminded me of a top slowing down. As he fell farther and farther, the circle got wider."

★ ★ ★

Rudy Klanseck Jr., 15, said it appeared to him "Captain Eddie" was twirling by his teeth from a strap when either the strap broke or he lost his grip.

BROKEN LOOP

★ ★ ★

Thunderstorms Predicted

Thunderstorms are predicted for this evening with a low of 64 to 72.

★ ★ ★

Yesterday's storm dumped .72 inches of rain in the vicinity. Rainfall this morning prior to 7 a.m. measured .14.

Tomorrow's outlook is for clearing skies and cooler with the high in the upper 80s.

The outlook for Wednesday is even better—fair and a little cooler.

Winds are southwesterly at 10 to 20 miles, becoming westerly tonight.

Sixty-nine was the low mercury reading preceding 8 a.m. At 1 p.m. it was 89.

U. S. Drill Nears Entombed Miners

CHAMPAGNOLE, France (AP) — A huge American-made drill advanced at the rate of three feet an hour today toward nine miners entombed for more than a week in a caved-in limestone mine.

The rescue workers said they hoped to reach the miners Wednesday.

Five other miners are missing in another part of the mine under Mt. Rivel. Officials hope one hoped to reach the miners may be alive.

CNB Announces $2-Million Expansion

Community National Bank today announced one of the largest bank expansions in Oakland County history valued at more than $2 million.

Plans call for the construction of three new branches, new offices for two existing branches, and remodeling of one of CNB's pioneer branch units.

A. C. Girard, bank president, termed the extensive program an "expression of confidence in the healthy economic climate of this area."

It will be used to replace present offices at 16 W. Flint, Lake Orion, and in North Hill shopping center north of Rochester, and to establish branches on Maple, west of Telegraph in Bloomfield Township, and at 14 Mile and Mound in Macomb County.

Each building will have 3,000 square feet of space, seven interior teller stations and outside drive-in windows. Customer safe deposit booths and a conference room will be available at each office.

The Lake Orion branch will be located west on Flint Street and will occupy a blockwide site extending to Shadbolt.

★ ★ ★

CNB will establish a third new branch at Maple and Orchard Lake in West Bloomfield Township. Its design is still in the planning stage.

'No Evidence,' Says Washington

Reds Claim U.S. Planes Raid N. Viets

TOKYO (AP) — Communist North Viet Nam has charged that four U.S. fighter-bomber planes from Laos bombed and rocketed a North Vietnamese border post and village. The Reds said the attack was unprovoked and blamed it on the United States.

U.S. officials in Washington said they knew of no evidence to support the charge, the second in as many days made by the North Vietnamese against the United States.

"This constitutes a provocative act on the part of the U.S. government and its henchmen which crudely violates the sovereignty and territory of the democratic Republic of (North) Viet Nam," The North Vietnamese foreign ministry said in a protest statement broadcast Sunday.

★ ★ ★

The United States has supplied the Laotian government of Premier Souvanna Phouma with propeller-driven T28 fighter-bombers which Laotian pilots fly against the Communist Pathet Lao. Unarmed U.S. Navy jets have also been flying reconnaissance missions in central Laos at Souvanna Phouma's request, and armed American fighters escort them.

NO DESCRIPTION

The Vietnamese protest did not describe the planes, saying only that they were U.S. fighter-bombers. But it said Prince Souvanna's neutralist faction in Laos "must bear heavy responsibility" for permitting the United States to use its territory to attack North Viet Nam.

The broadcast said that the raid took place at noon Saturday in a North Viet Nam area about 50 miles northeast of the Communist-held Plaine des Jarres in Laos.

★ ★ ★

The Vietnamese said that one villager was wounded and property damage was heavy.

On Saturday, North Viet Nam accused U.S. and South Vietnamese warships of an attack on North Vietnamese islands last Thursday.

CHINESE SUPPORT

Communist China meanwhile expressed support for the Soviet Union's renewed proposal for an immediate 14-nation conference on Laos. The Chinese, in a note to Moscow, also said they opposed the Soviet threat to stop being cochairman of the 1962 Geneva agreement which sought to neutralize Laos.

In South Viet Nam, seven U.S. soldiers were injured and two Vietnamese killed when a bomb shattered a bar in Saigon Saturday night. Two of the Americans were reported in critical condition. Police arrested five Vietnamese.

LBJ: Beef Up Navy off Viet Nam Shore

SHORT FLIGHTS

Jet fighters sent to deal with particular situations can fly from a carrier to any point in the gulf in a half-hour or less, even though the carrier may be outside the gulf at the time of launching planes.

According to the Navy, the Maddox was on patrol in international waters about 30 miles off the North Vietnamese coast when three unmarked PT boats opened fire with torpedoes and 37-millimeter cannon.

★ ★ ★

FIRST WORD

First word of the naval action reached Washington about 5 a.m. Washington time, and President Johnson conferred with top advisers during the day as further news came in.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk said: "The other side got a sting out of this. If they do it again, they'll get another sting."

Furthermore, he said, the United States will continue to "insist upon using international waters."

★ ★ ★

Administration sources said the PT boat action did not seem to be part of a new large scale assault from the North nor does Washington intend at this time to carry the war to the North.

CONTINUE EFFORT

The same sources said the attempt against the Maddox will not deter the United States from its commitment to the defeat of Red aggressors against South Viet Nam.

This includes continuing patrols such as that of the Maddox in the international waters of Tonkin Gulf, which is bordered by North Viet Nam and Communist China.

Thus, the official assessment appeared to class the incident along with other instances in which U.S. air or ground forces in South Viet Nam and Laos have fired back when fired on.

★ ★ ★

Authorities said the destroyer, like other U.S. forces helping the South Vietnamese campaign against Hanoi-supported guerrillas, needed no special permission from Washington to fire back when attacked.

REMINDER TO REDS

And they voiced hope that the vigor of the Maddox' response would help show the Reds the United States means what it says in its public declarations of its commitment there.

Coincident with the news of the naval engagement, Radio Hanoi broadcast a North Vietnamese foreign ministry accusation that four U.S. fighter-bombers flew in from Laos and attacked a village inside the North Vietnamese border.

Washington authorities said they knew of no such action. Some suggested that the Communists broadcast the charge to divert attention from the attack on the Maddox.

GOP CHARGES

But two Republicans saw in the incident evidence to support their charges of administration mismanagement in Southeast Asia.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said the affair points up the need for "a new hard look" at U.S. policy there.

Rep. Leslie C. Arends of Illinois, senior Republican in the House Allied Services Committee, said the incident "pinpoints the fear I've had that we're in real trouble in that part of the world."

Strike Blocks Work on Drain

Stalls Vital Part of 'Redevelopment Plans

A vital interlocking piece in Pontiac's redevelopment plans was removed from the board today with the beginning of another construction strike.

Work on a final leg of the Clinton River drain enclosure has come to a halt following a walkout by members of Reinforced Steel Workers Local 426.

A two-thirds majority of the 500-man Detroit local, which has jurisdiction over all of southeastern Michigan, voted yesterday not to ratify a new contract and approved strike action.

"This could really throw a monkey wrench into our plans to get the city back to normal," warned City Engineer Joseph E. Neipling.

★ ★ ★ ★

He said reinforced steel workers were needed to complete the Clinton River drain east of the Grand Trunk Railroad tracks and south of Orchard Lake Blvd. It is the final obstacle to paving of West Wide Track.

EXPIRATION DATE

Neipling said more delays could loom if the walkout is a long one, since other labor agreements with paving contractors are due to expire Sept. 1.

The reinforced steel strike is expected to seriously delay major building and bridge construction work throughout the Detroit area. Local 426 members set steel rods in concrete during the basic structural stage of heavy projects.

Local members had voted a 90-day extension to remain on the job when their old contract expired May 1.

During the interval, contractors added 25 cents an hour to the workers' base pay of $4.10.

Other industry disputes through the summer which have already been settled involved strikes by underground laborers, electricians, millwrights and sheet metal unions.

Abductor Frees Boys Unharmed

CASTLE ROCK, Colo. (UPI) — Two 11-year-old boys told police today they were kidnaped at gun point last week near their home in Lafayette, Ind., threatened repeatedly with death during a cross-country drive but released unharmed yesterday in the Colorado mountains.

Colorado State Patrol Sgt. Marion Reynolds of Castle Rock said a suspect was arrested early today for questioning in the kidnaping.

The boys identified themselves as Jackey and Douglas McCord, step-brothers. Indiana police said, however, that Jackey's last name was Laird.

★ ★ ★

Douglas County Deputy Sheriff Lloyd Scott said the boys were "dirty and tired but unharmed." They were sleeping late today at Reynolds' home in Castle Rock. Their parents were reported on the way from Indiana to pick them up.

HELD IN JAIL

Cline was being held in the Jefferson County Jail at Golden, a suburb of Denver.

Reynolds said he asked Cline why he had picked up the boys.

"He just shrugged his shoulders and said he didn't know what he was thinking of," Reynolds said.

The boys told Reynolds that the man who kidnaped them "threatened them all the way" and said repeatedly that if either tried to escape the other would be shot.

AT GUNPOINT

The boys said their abductor forced them into his automobile at gunpoint Wednesday in Lafayette, Ind., on the banks of the Wabash River.

Their abandoned bicycles were found in a wooded area near the river. A massive search was launched over the weekend in Indiana.

Reynolds said the kidnaper treated the boys well, despite his threats, but kept them in the car for the entire four days.

But he often bought them hamburgers and soft drinks.

Police Patrol Jersey City After Night of Rioting

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP) — Helmeted policemen patrolled the glass-littered streets of Jersey City's Negro district today where a rioting mob of young Negroes attacked officers, broke windows and looted stores.

Police said 13 Negroes were arrested during Sunday night's outbreak — the first incident of this scale in this northern New Jersey city that faces Manhattan across the Hudson River.

Mayor Thomas J. Whelan, at the scene just south of the Lafayette housing project, said, "It seems to me to be an overflow from the occurrences in New York City and Rochester."

Police said 23 persons, including 10 police officers, were injured during the more than four hours of disturbances. A white woman, her son and daughter, were beaten and their car smashed while driving down Grand street.

RANDOM MISSILE RIOTING

Much of the rioting was random missile-throwing with as many as 500 bystanders watching, by police estimates. But between 11 p.m. and 11:30 p.m. at least 200 Negroes formed in a group and moved down Grand street.

A car with seven Negroes inside drove toward a force of police on the street, almost running down several officers.

The car's occupants, six adults and one 17-year-old girl, were removed at gun point. The girl was held as a juvenile delinquent and the adults were charged with disorderly conduct, police said.

On orders to disperse the crowd, police formed a wedge and advanced, firing shots in the air.

CROWD BROKE

The crowd broke into small pockets and faded into doorways and down side streets.

At 10:45 p.m. John Hudak Jr., 22, his mother, Dorothy, 47, and sister, also Dorothy, 13, were set upon in their car by a group of Negro youths.

Hudak was admitted in satisfactory condition at Jersey City medical center. His face was cut severely. The mother and daughter were sent home.

Hudak's father, John Sr., who was at home during the incident, said today that his wife had black and blue chest injuries and his daughter was hurt in the knee. He said the rioters smashed all the windows and fenders of the car and beat the family. His daughter lay on the floor in the back until police rescued the family, he said.

Study Starts on Pictures of Moon

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Scientists began to sift the evidence today of the most important 13 minutes and 40 seconds in the history of man's inquiry into the nature of the moon. But those 13 minutes and 40 seconds may take years to analyze fully.

In that short space of time Friday morning, between an 80-second camera warm-up period and the death plunge of the Ranger 7 into the moon, scientists received 4,316 close-range photographs of the moon's craggy face.

Man has not been shown so much about the moon, particularly in so short a time span, since Galileo first peered at it through his homemade telescope in the early 1600s.

SHOWED MARKS

These pictures showed, like pores on a human face, the tiniest pockmarks on the moon's crust. The smallest was only 18 inches across — about the size of a wash basin.

Today scientists planned to launch a detailed study of the more than 4,000 other photographs.

They did not believe, on examination of the first photographs, that significant modifications will be necessary in manned moonships now being built by the United States.

Local Bank to Expand

more than double the size of the present branch at 584 N. Perry, which was first opened in 1946 and became the county's first bank drive-in in 1951.

Girard said the building will be extended toward Glenwood and have a modernistic glass and aluminum front. Four new drive-in windows will extend 65 feet from the southeast side. The branch interior will be redesigned and refurnished.

When the full expansion program is completed in early 1965, Girard said it would give CNB a total of 18 branches besides the Pontiac main office.

Political Signs Face Dangers

Watch for Opponents, Police, Work Crews

Thinking of tacking up some political signs around town for your favorite candidate?

You'll have to stay one jump ahead of:

- Workers for other candidates.
- Police.
- City, county and state road maintenance crews and utility company maintenance men.

Chief warning on where not to display political art came this week from the Michigan State Highway Department, quoting a state law which prohibits political advertising within highway rights of way.

"It has long been the practice of the highway department to cause immediate removal of political signs which start to appear within a few months of election," said Chief Maintenance Engineer H. J. Rathfoot.

★ ★ ★

In letters to state Republican and Democratic chairmen, Rathfoot urged them to think of the contribution to Michigan's highway building program by passing the word to go easy on posters.

ORDINANCES

Most cities and townships have ordinances with the same prohibition, and County Road Commission crews follow a policy of removing signs within county road property lines.

Consumers Power Co. likewise reported that the firm does not allow campaign posters to grace its utility poles. Maintenance workers tear down those they find.

The county prosecutor's office reports no recollection of violations coming to its attention; Pontiac police leave it mostly to the DPW to handle the problem and Oakland County Sheriff Frank W. Irons said his men have orders to leave all signs alone.

Despite the highway department warning, local officials believe an anti-poster policy is hard to follow anywhere, due to the lack of manpower to enforce it.

Adding to the problem is that many of the election signs belong to high state and county officials.

But They're Generally Optimistic About Primary

Apportionment Creating Headaches for State Election Officials

Reapportionment of the Michigan Legislature is creating headaches for election officials as they clear the decks for the state's Sept. 1 primary.

But a sampling of opinion by the Associated Press turned up a generally optimistic frame of mind among county clerks and others involved in the complicated preparations.

Elections Director Robert Montgomery said the preparations are difficult and have many confusing aspects. He added, however, "it appears to be working out.

"It will not be easy and we are being pushed on time, but everything will be done."

MAIN HANDICAP

Montgomery said time is the main handicap. He attributed this to the fact that the primary has been moved back and that the entire time schedule for it has been condensed.

"Nobody's got enough time, and that's true at all levels," Montgomery said.

He added that most of the confusion stems from a new state law under which precinct delegates are being listed on the ballot for the first time. Only larger counties had this provision before and in the others there was no necessity to print the delegates' names, he said. These were written in on the ballot.

"This throws the problem of printing different ballots on the county clerks at a time when there is a time shortage and the requirement is new to most clerks," Montgomery said.

LOCAL CONTESTS

He also pointed out that ballots must be printed in precincts where only voting machines are used. He said many local offices are being contested and that it isn't possible to get them all on the machine ballot. This means, Montgomery said, that additional paper ballots must be run off.

He also noted that redistricting has caused a revamping of precinct boundaries in many areas.

* * *

Four different ballots may be used in Bay County. Townships will have paper ballots for township offices, there will be separate ballots for precinct delegates in townships and cities, and state candidates will appear on machines.

County Clerk Steven Toth said a paper ballot would be used if candidates for the new state appeals court in the 3rd District are to be listed.

"It's going to be confusing no matter which way you look at it," Toth said, adding that he has contacted state elections officials to clear up some points which have been puzzling to him.

Macomb County will boast 17 different types of ballots. Some will be printed for six House districts and there will be two ballots for nonpartisan offices and one each for precinct delegates and township proposals.

* * *

The city of Warren has races in three House districts, and St. Clair Shores and Clinton Township have two district races each.

Ypsilanti Township in Washtenaw County has 36 candidates seeking 24 nominations. A paper ballot will be tacked on to machines for the township races. County and state voting will be on machines.

DIFFERENT PARTIES

Township officials feared that some voters will mark one party on a machine and another on the paper ballot.

Luella M. Smith, Washtenaw County clerk, said upwards of five townships might be forced to use paper ballots to augment the machines.

* * *

Three annexation proposals will be on the Ann Arbor ballot and in two adjoining townships.

Redistricting has added one district in Washtenaw County. The House contests and one for Congress include several three-way battles for party nominations, a factor which has crowded the ballot and added to the clerk's problems.

FACE PROBLEM

Election officials in Flint and Genesee County face a problem in setting up voting machines in one ward where the boundaries have been revised three times. Legislative redistricting has changed 11 precincts.

At Saginaw, precinct boundaries have been shuffled to prevent any from being split. The boundaries were changed twice in accordance with two Supreme Court rulings.

* * *

City Clerk Frank B. Niederstast said the only new twist in Saginaw's primary will be the addition of one House district.

Saginaw County Clerk Ernest R. Miller said he foresees no serious primary election problems.

OTHER AREAS

"We won't have the problems here they will have in some other parts of the state," Miller said.

* * *

Oakland County Election Clerk Mable Child said the splitting of some precincts to form new districts makes it extremely difficult to determine the exact number of petitions needed on nominating petitions and the maximum sum which candidates can spend in the campaign.

Mrs. Child also said it would be impossible to put all of the primary candidates on the county ballot. She said township officials will need either a second voting machine or paper ballots. Complicating this is the fact that the county has gotten rid of its ballot boxes and paper ballot voting booths, she said.

In Royal Oak, 4,500 voters are to be notified that they will cast ballots in new precincts because of redistricting. One new precinct has been created and seven others have been altered.

2 MACHINE BALLOTS

Ottawa County Clerk Harris Nieusma said reapportionment won't pose too many problems for him. Two machine ballots will be needed because the county has been split into two House districts. Paper ballots will be employed in townships where there are local races.

St. Clair County Clerk Howard Murray said there won't be enough room on voting machines for all the candidates, thus necessitating paper ballots.

Country Singer Dies in Crash

Find Plane Wreckage in Nashville Suburb

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The bodies of country singer Jim Reeves and his pianist-road manager Dean Manuel were found near here Sunday in the wreckage of the light plane Reeves was flying home Friday night from a business trip to Batesville, Ark.

* * *

The plane fell into trees which hid the wreckage for almost 48 hours. The crash site was in the fashionable suburban Brentwood area, less than one mile from the home of Grand Old Opry singer Marty Robbins who figured in the search.

* * *

IN MOURNING

The tragedy plunged the country music world into mourning for the second time in little more than a year. Opry singers Patsy Cline, Cowboy Copas and Hawkshaw Hawkins and Miss Cline's agent and pilot Randy Hughes died when their light plane crashed near Camden, Tenn., in March 1963.

* * *

Accidental deaths of several other country music entertainers followed in quick succession.

* * *

Opry singer Ernest Tubb, another Brentwood area resident and searcher commented in country style: "This thing has to still."

* * *

Joint services for Reeves and Manuel will be held here Tuesday afternoon. Manuel will be buried at suburban Madison where he lived. Reeves will be buried Wednesday in his hometown of Carthage, Tex.

HEAVY RAINS

Police said the plane, a single engine four seater rented by Reeves, apparently hit the trees at a steep angle. There was no indication what caused the crash. A radioed message that he was running into heavy rain was the last word from Reeves.

* * *

Reeves had a polished manner and restrained style. He zoomed to lasting fame with his 1953 recording "Mexican Joe" which sold more than one million copies. "Bimbo," almost as popular, followed. A tour of Europe and an Opry contract came next.

Endocrinologist Dead

3 Teens Drown Near Mouth of Flint Steel River

ONTONAGON (AP) — Apparently caught in an undertow while swimming, three teen-age Upper Peninsula boys drowned Sunday afternoon near the mouth of the Flint Steel River, about six miles northeast of this Lake Superior town.

The bodies of John Hoffman, 15, Robert Dupe, 17, and Don Neiderkorn, 15, all of Ontonagon, were recovered by sheriff's deputies and firemen about an hour after the tragedy was reported.

* * *

Firemen said the triple drowning was the worst such area tragedy in 10 years.

Relatives told deputies the boys appeared to be caught in an undertow. Deputies said they were not notified immediately because there was no telephone nearby.

She Covers the Thruway, Checking All the Eateries

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — There are 26 restaurants along the New York State Thruway and Patricia Ann (Trish) Lamb figures that she has visited each of them at least 10 times since June 11.

It's not that the 20-year-old Cornell University coed is so fond of eating. The visits are required by her unique summertime job.

* * *

Trish is spending her summer as a $100-a-week roving restaurant inspector for the Thruway Authority. And she is the only woman on the agency's 12-member inspection staff.

Her duties include scrutinizing the coffee shops, dining rooms, cafeterias, kitchens, food, service, garbage buildings, women's rest rooms, parking lots and landscaping of the franchised service areas along the 559-mile toll road system.

TOOLS OF TRADE

The tools of her trade are a keen eye and a pad of inspection forms, on which she checks 17 items as satisfactory or unsatisfactory. She turns in the reports to Thruway headquarters each week.

Trish inspects the quality and quantity of the food, as well as the conditions under which it is prepared and served. This requires some taste tests, of course.

* * *

"I haven't gained an ounce," she said proudly.

ON THE ROAD

Trish goes on the road for five days at a time, stopping each night at motels near the Thruway. She figures she has clocked nearly 10,000 miles in her official Thruway car since starting work six weeks ago.

Trish spends anywhere from 10 minutes for a spot check to 4 hours for a full-dress inspection. Her visits usually are made known in advance and she tries to arrange them for peak business hours to see whether service-area employes do a good job when hurried.

* * *

Her principal findings:

Food and service is "really good" in general, and reasonably priced.

Trish was selected for the job, partly because she is a woman and because of her special background.

HAD EXPERIENCE

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lamb, operated a restaurant for several years at Bolton Landing, on Lake George, and she had first-hand experience as a bus girl, waitress, hostess and assistant manager. At Cornell, where she will be a senior in the fall, she is studying in the school of hotel administration.

Said Joseph Paquette, Trish's boss on the Thruway staff:

"The idea was to get the woman's viewpoint of how service areas should be run and also to be able to check on women's rest rooms during peak hours."

How does Trish feel about her work?

And publicity about her activities has brought her international attention. The owner of a chain of snack bars in France has offered her a similar position after she graduates next June.

"I'm thinking it over," she said.

Romanian Leaves Paris With Cooperation Pact

PARIS (AP) — Romanian Premier Ion Gheorghe Maurer, the first chief of a Communist satellite government to visit France, returned home today with a French-Romanian cooperation pact in his briefcase.

Dingell Raps Kerr-Mills Act

WASHINGTON (AP) — The present Kerr-Mills program of medical aid to persons who are old and sick was criticized today by Rep. John D. Dingell, D-Mich., as having been tried and found wanting.

"It is not reaching the 10 million people it was intended to reach," Dingell said in a prepared House speech. "It is expensive, it is not uniformly available, and it involves a degrading 'means test.'

* * *

"Surely a great nation such as ours can offer more to our senior citizens than self-degradation to obtain aid in meeting the costs of health care."

Dingell is a cosponsor of the health care proposal advanced by the administration to become part of the social security system.

The chief drawback to the Kerr-Mills program, Dingell said, is that it calls for heavy state expenditures. He said poor states haven't the money, with the results that New York, Massachusetts, California and Michigan today give more than half the Kerr-Mills help distributed.

Man Murdered at Front Steps of Catholic Church

WHARTON, Tex. (AP) — Horror-struck worshipers saw an electrical repairman shot and killed in front of a Roman Catholic Church Sunday.

A bullet struck Alvin San Miguel, 33, in the chest as he talked with three young women at the curb. He staggered to the church steps before collapsing.

Pedro Quintanilla, 57, a farmer, walked into the office of Sheriff Mike Flournoy. He handed officers a .38 caliber pistol which had been fired twice.

Quintanilla was charged with murder. He posted $2,000 bond.

REASON GIVEN

Flournoy said Quintanilla stated he shot San Miguel because he did not want San Miguel "dating my daughters," — the three to whom the slain man was talking.

Record Low Backlog of Aid Carried Over for Coming Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — Foreign aid officials said today a record low backlog of unused aid funds is being carried into overseas assistance operations for the coming year.

★ ★ ★

The revised figures are a matter of some pride with the Agency for International Development which has passed them on to the Senate in advance of final action on the foreign aid bill.

One argument of congressional critics has been that the aid program has been too fat with a big backlog of money from previous appropriations. AID chief David E. Bell, a former budget director, has pledged improved efficiency.

Last year, according to revised figures, the aid program had $650 million from past appropriations in addition to the $3 billion in new money voted by Congress. In some years more than $1 billion has been available beyond the amount supplied from fresh appropriations.

NEW ESTIMATES

New estimates being submitted to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee showed today that only $22 million remains uncommitted from previous appropriations and $213 million is expected to be recovered during the year from commitments to past Projects which were not carried out.

Thus about $235 million would be available for foreign aid in the new fiscal year in addition to whatever Congress approves out of President Johnson's "bare-bones" request for $3.5 billion in new funds.

Both the $22 million in carryover and the $213 million in recoveries set new lows, according to AID accounts.

The next lowest total was $417 million extra available for foreign aid in fiscal 1961, when Congress voted a new appropriation of $4.4 billion.

PREVIOUS APPROPRIATIONS

In 1962, when Congress approved $3.9 billion in new money, the total available from previous appropriations was $1,058,000,000. In 1958, along with a new appropriation of $2.8 billion, the additional available came to $1,121,000,000.

Communists Are Advantaged by Civil Strife in America

No less an authority than J. EDGAR HOOVER has suggested many times that Communists are actively behind much of our current disorders and civil strife. He has made the point repeatedly over the past decade.

Current events lend emphasis.

★ ★ ★

William Epton, a self-avowed Communist declared over TV rather blandly and even with satisfaction that he was one of Khrushchev's boys and had been very active in Harlem. He found no reason to be secretive about his connections or his activities. He helped turn Negroes and whites against New York police and against each other. He seemed to glory in the fact and his attitude suggested "so what?"

★ ★ ★

Also, he had a hand in the inflammatory pamphlets which were distributed over the afflicted areas. The FBI is currently probing into the origin of the outbursts in Harlem and Brooklyn. This may be more important basically than the actual happenings.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Hoover has emphasized that Commies have great opportunities in racial disorders and civic rebellions. Riots are right up their private and bloody alley. They don't have to be racial riots, either. Anything goes, including the campus indiscretions of sophomoric college boys. These start spontaneously and are sparked without Red assistance. Then the Reds spring into action. All the crafty traitors want is some sort of rebellion against law and order. Sen. Jacob K. Javits, New York, says the Commies are always on hand for grand openings like these and go along for the free ride.

★ ★ ★

They dispatch their champions of unrest, riot and revolt to keep the pot boiling and inflame as many as possible who haven't been drawn into the fracas. They aim to keep the U.S. off balance and turn any sort of assembled crowds into "frenzied mobs bent on violence and destruction." Disunity means internal weakness and a step toward collapse.

★ ★ ★

Ready-made civil insurrections are duck soup for the disciples of the Red flag. Here they accomplish the maximum with the smallest expenditure of time and money. It's simple to pour gasoline into an open flame or a smouldering fire and the secret agitators are trained in circumventing law and order. It's far easier to extend violence, arson, looting, mayhem and discord than it is to start from scratch. Undercover agents are adept in spreading lies, hatred, and terrorism. Upholders of the law are "the enemy."

★ ★ ★

For the past decade, Mr. HOOVER has struggled to arouse the people and the Government to the dangers in these situations. If the Russians can fan enough outbreaks into open flames, they're helping the United States destroy herself from within as they've boasted they'd do, time after time. Often, Mr. HOOVER's voice has been a lone and unheeded cry in the wilderness. When nothing happens to you personally, people often don't grow alarmed.

★ ★ ★

The undercover Reds have always been especially aware of J. Edgar Hoover's great strength and have struggled to muzzle him and discredit the FBI. However, when these efforts finally become apparent, the American people rally to the Bureau's defense. Mr. Hoover and the FBI come as close to commanding unanimous support as anyone can in this opinionated Nation.

★ ★ ★

Currently the murderous Reds have staged one of their profitable and productive assaults against our internal peace and unity. Perhaps they have become emboldened because of recent Supreme Court rulings which have redounded to their advantage.

Izvestia, one of Russia's two biggest papers, has already blamed the Harlem riots "on conservatives in the U.S." Imagine that!

More power to the FBI.

There's the bulwark of our defense.

The military might of this Nation can hold the covetous Reds in check on the outside, but the enemy has made her greatest advances inside our walls — to their amazement — and to ours.

And in Conclusion . . .

Sign in New York nightclub: "Good, Clean Entertainment Every Night But Monday." . . . . . Desalting sea water has been cut from $4 per thousand gallons to one dollar. The objective is twenty-five cents . . . . . Within a few years, Michigan may have the greatest feminine tennis star in the world. She's "PEACHES" BARTKOWICZ, one of Mrs. HOXEY's many sensations. "PEACHES" is only fifteen, but sports writers say packed down inside that very attractive bundle of feminine charm is sensational ability plus the old killer instinct — and without the latter no athlete reaches the peak.

Mary Costa, the most beautiful soprano in Metropolitan history, and your humble scrivener were jogging along to show Miss Mary the glories of Oakland County. "Do you know," said y. h. s. timidly, "I told my wife I'd like to hear you sing 'Smoke Gets in Your Eyes' and she told me to forget popular songs with a great operatic star." Miss Mary smiled — and when Miss Mary smiles bells ring, lights flash and the whole universe is in tune. "I'll sing it for you right now," said the heavenly vision. So-o-o-o-o-o, she threw back that story-book head, that fabulous throat and Tyler McClendon and y. h. s. heard the greatest rendition of "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" of all time. (And the acoustics were super perfect.) . . . . . The most dangerous moments in all sports are the few seconds in a rodeo when riders try to stay the full eight seconds on a Brahma bull. More than half of the 250 bad rodeo injuries each year come when these infuriated bulls turn to paw or gore the dislodged riders.

Next is the polyunsaturated egg from specially fed hens and they'll cost you 12 cents a dozen more . . . . . Overheard: "The grass may be greener on the other side of the fence but it certainly grows faster at home." . . . . . First Lady: "I must hurry up and tell you this before I find out it isn't true." . . . . . Cheers and Jeers: the C's — those Meadow Brook Music Festivals; the J's — that bad corner at Oakland U. before and after the festivals.

David Lawrence Says:

Mansfield May Get 2nd Spot

WASHINGTON — President Johnson is perhaps one of the most adroit politicians ever to sit in the White House, but he took quite a gamble last Thursday in the way he ruled out Atty. Gen. Kennedy as his running mate for the forthcoming campaign.

LAWRENCE

The President has had Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota in mind right along for the vice presidential nomination, but he may wind up selecting Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, after all, because of the way the backfire started by supporters of Bobby Kennedy may develop in relation to the religious issue.

In the first place, it isn't good political strategy normally for a man who is sure of the presidential nomination to announce three weeks before a national convention just who he will not recommend for the vice presidential nomination.

★ ★ ★

A peculiar set of circumstances, however, had arisen. Those politicians who wished to see Atty. Gen. Kennedy nominated for the vice presidency were getting very active in organizing a movement for him.

EMOTIONAL DEMONSTRATION

There were reports that plans were being made to have a big emotional demonstration at the Democratic convention at Atlantic City— perhaps participated in by Mrs. John F. Kennedy —and that this would encourage a drive to name the brother of the late president.

It was presumably deemed best, therefore, for the administration managers to head off all such stratagems by deferring the memorial demonstration until after the balloting and for the President to announce now that he doesn't favor the attorney general.

But to make a statement singling him out might have seemed politically harmful.

For this reason, Mr. Johnson evidently decided it was better to eliminate at one fell swoop all the members of his Cabinet along with Messrs. Sargent Shriver and Adlai Stevenson, who sit in at Cabinet meetings.

This maneuver, however, hasn't disposed of one political issue involved — namely, that the Republicans have already nominated a Roman Catholic for vice president.

If the President, of course, had chosen the attorney general—who is a Roman Catholic—this factor in the campaign would have been immediately equalized or removed.

While Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota, another Catholic, has been mentioned for the vice presidential nomination, it's hard to see how the President could gracefully pass over Sen. Humphrey and pick his state's junior senator just because of the religious question.

So it looks as if Mr. Johnson has purposely planned to use the next three weeks to weigh carefully the situation that develops.

If the "backlash" from the Kennedy supporters appears sizable, Mr. Johnson will forego selection of Sen. Humphrey.

the man then named would be Sen. Mansfield, majority leader of the Senate, who happens to be a Roman Catholic.

It will be recalled that Mr. Johnson himself was majority leader of the Senate when nominated for vice president in 1960.

Mansfield is a tactful man and an intelligent one, who has won the respect of senators from all states. He fits the specifications for the vice presidential nomination which Mr. Johnson himself last Thursday prescribed.

Bob Considine Says:

Can't See Real Cuba From an Airplane Seat

HAVANA — It looks the same from the air. There's old Morro Castle, the big hotels and apartment houses along the blue harbor, the tree-studded prado.

CONSIDINE

But it doesn't take long to learn that it isn't the same and will never be again. The cab driver who hacked us in from the airport in his patched-up 12-year-old Buick pointed to a swatch of torn black cloth draped from his rear-view mirror.

"Part of a Yankee parachute," he said without rancor. "This parachute I found myself hardly 10 miles from Habana. It had lowered a, what you call, mortar? to be used after they landed against us in the Bay of Pigs."

The big bronze American eagle that presided over the Maine monument so many years had been removed.

The blackened steel spikes that kept it in place, as part of the tribute to the dead of the battleship whose destruction triggered the Spanish-American war that liberated Cuba, stick up today like broken fingers.

The Havana Hilton is now the Habana Libre. The music in the elevators is still the American pop tunes that were hits when the handsome place was reared by Conrad Hilton and his associates in the last years of the Batista dictatorship.

Its hall rugs today are stained and worn, the hot water a memory, the air conditioning uncertain, the cabarets closed, the once splendid bar on the second floor is bereft even of beer.

The staff carries on with speedy pride.

'Congress Hit New Low in Approving Pay Raise'

A new low in justice and integrity was reached when Congress voted itself a raise, only to follow up with a pitiful five per cent increase in social security benefits to needy old people.

★ ★ ★

Undoubtedly there are honest people in Congress, but they must be in the minority, because a majority vote was needed for the big "take." The House has already "pennied" out the five per cent social increase and unless the Senate raises that to an amount comparable to what they grabbed for themselves, they will have to admit to the same unscrupulous and dishonorable "steal" as the House.

Writes About Parking at City Hospital

Why do employes of Pontiac General Hospital have to pay for a parking lot? This is a shame. It's going to cost 75 cents a week to park in the lot. Even in the other lots the meters should be removed because they've paid for themselves. Building a new lot is fine, but people will still park on side streets because that's too much money for employes to pay.

'Writer Ill-Informed About Wide-Track'

Praise to J. G. Johnson for realizing how much Pontiac Motor Division has contributed. I feel he must be ill-informed as to the meaning of two unrelated, yet common terms: "Wide-Track (Drive)" and "Saf-T-Track." His letter stated that "Wide-Track" was becoming obsolete by "Saf-T-Track" in Pontiac Motor Division advertisements.

★ ★ ★

"Wide-Track" refers to the additional five inches between the tires. "Saf-T-Track" is a power lock axle assembly, causing both wheels to drive the car uniformly at any given time.

★ ★ ★

Think what General Motors means to us—employment through factories and offices, dealerships, appliances sold in stores and newspaper advertisements, not to mention the financial help, moral support and stature it lends to our community. This is a tribute that deserves a large "thank you" from our community.

'Barry Might Be Tough but We'd Be Dead'

Granted, Barry Goldwater probably could convince the Communists we are "tougher" and can be bigger "bullies" but in doing so he would probably cause World War III. Possibly the Johnson route is a little slow for Barry's supporters, but it's better than killing our husbands, children and parents.

In the end Barry might solve our problem but there would be no one to cheer him on to a second term.

Reviewing Other Editorial Pages

Ideal Gift

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat

Good Men in Government

The Atlantic Monthly

President Johnson often has said that one of the greatest contributions President Kennedy made to the art of government was the brilliance he showed in picking able advisers.

The President is in a position to know what he is talking about, for the success of his first year has been in large part in the hands of the Kennedy men.

All of the Kennedy Cabinet has been retained and more of the Kennedy White House staff has been kept on than was at first expected.

In recent weeks, however, the President has had increasing difficulty persuading officials of sub-Cabinet rank to remain in the government.

The majority of those who want to leave now or within the next few months are moved by family and financial considerations. The work load of top officials has always been heavy, and salaries have never compared favorably with those paid by private industry.

Roswell L. Gilpatric's departure as Deputy Secretary of Defense and Henry H. Fowler's departure as Undersecretary of the Treasury were planned before President Kennedy's death.

Both are highly skilled lawyers who made considerable sacrifices to work for the government for three years. They are the kind of men who are necessary to the success of any Administration.

★ ★ ★

Johnson has already learned that a vast amount of a President's time is spent looking for competent people and persuading them to serve their government.

Walter W. Heller, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, is an official whom the President values highly and wishes to keep at his elbow.

Heller has appealed to President Johnson as a thoroughly articulate and useful adviser, and the President spent considerable time trying to persuade Heller to stay in his job. But financial pressures were such that the President at last reluctantly agreed to Heller's decision to leave the government late this year.

Junk Mail

The Milwaukee Journal

It can be argued with some logic that "junk mail" has economic value. The advertising folders and special magazine offers that enjoy the cheap third class rate doubtless stimulate some consumer buying even though they irritate many householders. But to justify the "junk" on the ground that it creates postal jobs is fantastic.

Carl Oas, general superintendent of the mails for the Milwaukee post office, did just that in an appearance before the Wisconsin State Association of Letter Carriers. "If it were not for junk mail," he said, "50 per cent of all post office employes would not have jobs." He called this impact of third class mail "more important" than the economic value.

★ ★ ★

The Post Office Department is a multibillion-dollar public business. It renders services that are vital to America's personal, commercial and industrial activities. It is not a "make work" operation for the relief of unemployment. As the diligent and conscientious employes that most of them are, postal workers do themselves a disservice in advocating high mail volume regardless of type simply because it creates more government jobs.

Pauper

The Santa Ana (Calif.) Register

The government has nothing unless it takes from others. It is a pauper itself. Therefore, how can it fight a "war on poverty," in its financial condition?

LBJ Strategy Appears Aimed at Removing JFK Label

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson appears to have turned the corner in a politically touchy maneuver to substitute his own brand for the Kennedy label on his administration.

The President's action last week in ruling Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and several others out of consideration for the party vice presidential nomination was viewed generally as culminating seven months of efforts in this direction.

* * *

satisfied to have history say he helped get the late John F. Kennedy elected but would not like to have it recorded that he had to depend on the Kennedy name in his own elective try for the presidency. Those who know Johnson well think he decided long ago against taking Kennedy on the ticket with him.

They recalled the successful White House activity in February to head off the possibility that the attorney general might roll up more write-in votes for second place than Johnson's presidential nomination total in the March New Hampshire primary.

PROGRESSIVE PROGRAMS

Johnson's strategy has been to compile a record in Congress and in executive actions which would convince Democratic liberals and independent voters be could be relied upon to push progressive programs.

He seems to have become convinced that he has achieved that objective. Civil rights organizations have applauded his stand on that vital issue. Organized labor endorsements have been rolling in. White House surveys indicate that Johnson has attained a solid position in the industrialized Northern states. Thus in August the President does not need the Kennedy name on the ticket in that area, as he might have last December.

* * *

Beyond that, the attorney general has political liabilities Johnson is not eager to take aboard. Because of his civil rights enforcement activities Kennedy would provide a heavy drag on the ticket in the South. Johnson isn't going to let the South go by default to GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater.

The President demonstrated this when he directed the selection of Gov. Carl Sanders of Georgia, loyal to the President, as chairman of the Atlantic City, N.J., convention rules committee. He seems certain to bring Gov. John Connally of Texas before the convention — possibly along with Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California — to place his name in nomination.

RIGHTS EXPLOSION

The Johnson forces have been working quietly to minimize any convention civil rights explosion over the efforts of the Freedom Democratic party to replace Mississippi's delegation chosen under the leadership of Gov. Paul B. Johnson. Some of Kennedy's friends have been helping the Negro-dominated party get going.

Although it is not discussed publicly in any way, there remain vestiges of the religious issue. Kennedy is a Roman Catholic like his late brother, whose loss of three Southern, three border and 17 Midwest and Western states in 1960 was attributed by some in part to this issue.

* * *

Johnson has made a major pitch for business support in the campaign and his success in that quarter might be diluted with Kennedy on the ticket. Businessmen still remember the late President John F. Kennedy's pressure for the rollback of steel prices and the role the attorney general played in that endeavor.

These practical political factors obviously had weight in Johnson's decision to eliminate Kennedy and to take further steps to see to it that no embarrassing emotional buildup for the latter occurs at the party convention.

OBVIOUS PART

The scheduling of Kennedy memorial services after the presidential and vice presidential nominations have been made seemed an obvious part of this drive.

All of this, however, did not add up to the conclusion that Johnson wanted to eliminate Kennedy from public service — as long as the latter remained in a subordinate role as a Cabinet member or possibly even as a campaign manager.

* * *

Vice presidents have been known to go off on political tangents in the past that were embarrassing to presidents. Former Vice President John N. Garner was so strongly opposed to a third term for Franklin D. Roosevelt that he made a run for the nomination himself.

There is no dissent among those who know Johnson that he wants two elective terms. Nor is there any question among them that some of his political moves now take 1968 into account.

* * *

Johnson plainly is well aware that the Kennedy dynasty lives on and Sen. Edward M. Kennedy and the attorney general, in one capacity or another, will be around for a long time.

Johnson just wants them to postpone efforts to realize on any presidential ambitions they may have until after he is safely elected for the last term available to him.

Paint Firm Damage Is $1 Million

DETROIT (AP)—Damage is pegged at more than $1 million in an explosion and five-alarm fire which flattened part of a paint factory Saturday.

The blast, heard as far as eight miles away, hurled shattered glass over a 20-block area on the city's northwest side. Three persons a half-mile from the scene were cut by the flying glass, none seriously.

* * *

Nine employes were inside the plant of the Dtizler Color Division of Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. when the explosion occurred. All reached safety.

Several smaller blasts followed the original one, tossing 55-gallon paint drums into the air. Clouds of fire and smoke could be seen nearly 15 miles away.

CHIEF ESTIMATED

Cause of the explosion wasn't immediately determined. Fire Chief Glenn Thom, who estimated the loss, said the blast apparently occurred in a building where paint pigments are ground into powder.

The grinding plant and a mixing plant were destroyed and several other structures in the eight-building complex were damaged.

Looters tried to take advantage of smashed windows and some 150 policemen were rushed into the neighborhood to thwart them and to direct traffic.

RESIDENTS INJURED

Mrs. Geneva Adtkins, who lives more than a mile from the factory, said the blast knocked a dental plate out of her mouth. A neighborhood mortician, H. R. Pierce, said he suffered a neck injury and his son was cut by flying glass.

* * *

The explosion hurled three men down a stairway and into a bar they were just leaving across from the plant. They escaped injury.

Strike Reaches 21st Day for Two Detroit Papers

DETROIT (AP) — Detroiters went without their regular daily newspapers for a 21st consecutive day today in the strike of two craft unions.

A meeting between publishers and strikers, the first since July 20, has been scheduled for Wednesday by mediators.

The Detroit News and Free Press were struck the night of July 13 by Local 13 of the Pressmen's Union and Local 10 of the affiliated Paper and Plate Handlers in a dispute over terms of new contracts.

Man and Space

Mars Trip Worth the Effort?

By ALVIN B. WEBB JR.

HOUSTON (UPI)—The earth is definitely interested in Mars. The question: Is Mars worth the effort?

This is the interplanetary subplot to the No. 1 space story of the day—the bids that America and, presumably the Soviet Union intend to send men to a landing on the moon.

The moon, it is safe to say, is not the entire game, but rather a pivotal point from which earth's burgeoning space programs can go "inside" or "outside."

If "inside," the emphasis after 1970 will center on the thorough conquest of that relatively small part of space between earth and moon, including establishment of large, permanent stations and laboratories in between.

★

It "outside," it will be directed toward the planets—or, rather, the planet, since of the several dozen fellow denizens of the solar system, only one is generally deemed worthy of a visit by man.

FANTASY PLANET

And that one is the red planet Mars, the ruby dot in the skies that has been the subject of more theories and out-and-out fantasy than all the other planets plus the stars and moons combined.

While the spotlight has centered on the moon, the lunar-landing Apollo program and the spectacular success of the camera-carrying Ranger-7, a portion of U.S. space interest has shifted subtly but certainly in the direction of Mars.

In November, America plans to shoot a pair of 560-pound "space eye" probes named Mariner to try to get television pictures of the neighboring planet's reddish surface, mysterious polar caps and enigmatic "canals" from a comparative next-door reach of 15,000 miles.

But of even greater interest is the exciting prospect of getting men across the space gulf to a Martian landing.

One of the leading proponents of such a project is the venerable Krafft Ehricke, a one-time German missile scientist and now a "way-out" thinker for General Dynamics Astronautics in San Diego, Calif.

Ehricke wants America to shoot for a manned Martian landing around 1973-75, and he says bluntly that the decision to go must be made "while there is still time to develop the space systems and techniques required."

If Ehricke doesn't exactly speak for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), David M. Hammock and Bruce G. Jackson do. They are both among the top echelon at NASA's manned spacecraft center near Houston.

And Hammock and Jackson have compiled an imposing document entitled "Vehicle Design for Mars Landing and Return to Mars Orbit."

INTERESTING PART

The interesting part of the Hammock-Jackson paper is that basically it uses for the Mars mission the same machinery now being built for the lunar expedition — the thunderous, 7½-million-pound-thrust Saturn-5 booster rocket and a spacecraft markedly similar to the Apollo moonship.

"Mars is perhaps the most exciting target for space exploration following Apollo and its definition of the lunar characteristics," the two scientists said.

"Studies indicate the exploration of Mars is feasible with the present technology."

★ ★ ★

The Douglas Co. of Santa Monica, Calif., is attacking the problem of Martian exploration from another angle — the type of astronaut that should be selected for the long and expensive mission.

IDEAL TRAVELER

The firm's engineers call the ideal interplanetary space traveler the "20 percentile man," which is another way of saying he "typifies one of every five American men" — about five feet seven inches tall and no more than 145 pounds in weight.

This makes quite a difference, as the Douglas figures show. "In a recent manned Mars exploration study . . ." the engineers said, "researchers determined that 70,000 pounds could be shaved from the gross weight of the Mars vehicle if its six crewmen were 20 percentile men rather than heavier, hungrier astronauts in the 90 percentile group."

But the leading question, before all this studying goes much further, still centers around the value of getting to Mars.

★ ★ ★

"If there is a chance that life, at least as it is known on earth, could exist there, certainly scientists will consider Mars a prize to be grabbed up as soon as possible by man."

That is where the two Mariner probes this November will begin their work.

Crooks Stay Home as Clergy Patrols

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (AP) — Protestant, Roman Catholic and Jewish clergymen accompanied police patrols over the weekend in an experimental program aimed at reducing juvenile crime.

The clergymen were supposed to get a look at what happens on the city streets at night.

There was a burglary report Friday night, but it turned out to be a false alarm. Saturday night nothing happened. Police said it was one of the quietest weekends in years.

Is Orthodox Planning Unit at Vatican?

ROME (AP) — An Italian Roman Catholic newspaper says it is almost certain the Orthodox churches will send a permanent mission to Rome for regular contacts with the Vatican.

Il Quotidiano, an Italian Catholic Action daily, says a Pan-Orthodox conference opening on Rhodes Aug. 23 will consider nomination of the mission.

The report said six metropolitans—Orthodox prelates of episcopal rank — would make up the mission and that its main duty will be to have contacts with a similar Roman Catholic mission.

Il Quotidiano said news of the mission was learned by Msgr. Aristide Brunello, national delegate of the Italian Catholic Association for the Christian Orient, during a recent visit to Istanbul, Athens, Beirut and Damascus.

Patriarch Athenagoras of Constantinople (Istanbul), the spiritual leader of the Orthodox churches, told Msgr. Brunello the commission would not deal with theological and doctrinal questions at first, Il Quotidiano said.

Report Grace Expects Baby

LONDON (AP) — Princess Grace of Monaco is expecting a baby, says the News of the World, a Sunday newspaper.

"Only her closest friends and advisers have been told so far," said the News. "An official announcement is not anticipated until next month."

There was no confirmation of the report.

Opera Star Scores With Detroit Lions

Beautiful Mary Costa, Metropolitan Opera soprano who thrilled Meadow Brook Festival audiences, dropped in on the Detroit Lions and received some (eager) pointers from two of the greats.

★ ★ ★

She was dwarfed between Darris McCord and Wayne Walker (as she smilingly started to "suit up"). "I've always liked football a lot," said the gay and irrepressible Mary.

★ ★ ★

"How about the players?" queried McCord. She studied the questioner appraisingly. "If they're all like you, I'm for them, too." She turned to Walker. "Or you. Say, aren't you the great place kicker I've heard about?"

He swallowed. "I try to be."

DAZZLING DIVA

The dazzling diva picked up a football. "If I hold one, you won't kick my hand very hard, will you?"

"No, ma'am," said Walker earnestly. "I might Earl's, but not yours."

Darris took a ball and placed her finger (about a third the size of his) on top. "You'll have to kneel," he declared. Miss Costa complied.

"Be sure and kick the ball and not me." Wayne advanced. Mary held her breath and the ball boomed away. Darris supervised operations and they tried several more. "If you give up Grand Opera, we'll let you hold for our points after touchdowns and field goals. At least I will," said Wayne. "I don't know about that Mr. Wilson."

★ ★ ★

"If she talks to him, girl-to-man he'll give in," said McCord confidently. "Who wouldn't?" And on that happy note "practice" broke up.

Great Future Is Seen for False Eyelashes

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — Without batting an eyelash, David Aylott of London says his false fringes for the orbs have become a multi-billion dollar business.

Women in just about every corner of the globe are wearing them, said the 50-year-old former movie makeup artist.

The company which he and his younger brother, Eric, 46, operate sold half a million sets of false lashes last year, he said. In the current year, he expects to fringe a million pairs of eyes on the North American continent alone and another half million in other parts of the world.

At $5 to $10 per pair (the $10 gets you sable), it adds up to a pretty eye-widening total for the brothers who only started their business in 1947 after discharge from the Royal Air Force (RAF).

ELDER AYLOTT

He listed the United States, Canada, Austria, Germany, France, Zanzibar, Kenya, Mozambique, Nairobi, the Bahamas, Belgium, Brazil, the Canary Islands, Trinidad, Nigeria, the Philippines, Malaysia, Iran, Lebanon, England, Thailand and Cypress.

★ ★ ★

"Although," he said, "there is not much business doing now in Cypress. We're not selling directly to Russia, but we have good reason to believe they're going behind the Iron Curtain by way of Finland."

Aylott sees the day when false eyelashes will be as common a part of makeup as lipstick.

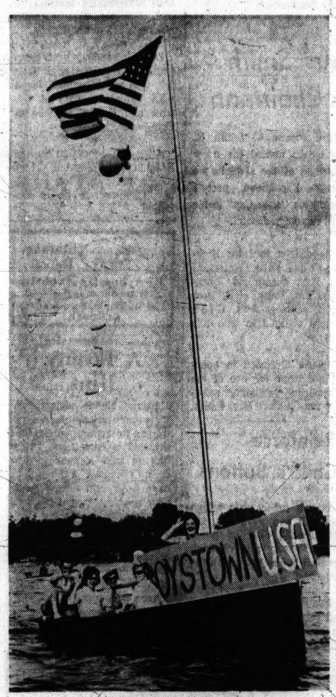

"The eyes are the most expressive part of the face," he said. "A woman speaks with her eyes. The more dramatic they are the sooner she gets her message across.

NOTHING NEW

False lashes are nothing new, he said. The movie queens of the 1920's and 1930's used them consistently. But it hasn't been until recently that the average woman — any age from 16 to 60 — began using them.

The Aylotts went into eyelashes by way of movie cosmetics, a field their father also was in.

To estimate paint quantity for a specified wall area, work out the total square footage of the walls to be covered. Then multiply the height by the length of each wall.

Subtract the door and window space. Allow about one gallon of paint for every 500 square feet of room area.

Take Door Key – Abby

Wants to Leave Home

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am sick and tired of having my parents on my back all the time.

I would like to know when I can leave home.

HAD IT

DEAR HAD IT: Moreover, your parents have probably "had it," too.

★ ★ ★

If you are able to pay for your own lodging, food, transportation, doctor and dental bills, insurance and entertainment, and bail yourself out of trouble of any kind—then you may leave home.

(But take a key to the back door when you go.)

DEAR ABBY: My problem is between my husband and me over a dog we don't even have yet.

We've been married for two years and we have no children. We both work five days a week. I leave for work at 7 a.m. and he leaves at 7:30.

We both get back about 4:30 p.m. All of a sudden my husband decides he wants a puppy. I say he's crazy.

★ ★ ★

Who is going to take care of it? Believe me, I am not going to. Our furniture is brand new and I've seen what a puppy can do to things.

Besides, it will tie us down and we like to go away for weekends occasionally.

He says, "We'll manage." Can you help me?

MRS. K. A.

DEAR MRS. K. A.: You seem to have all the answers and they sound sensible to me.

Personally, I pity the poor pooch that's brought into a home where he is unwanted by half the household, and left alone all day. (Who will feed him and walk him?)

★ ★ ★

Don't give an inch. If your husband wins this one, it shouldn't happen to a dog.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of parents who tell their children that ours are adopted?

★ ★ ★

We had not planned to tell our son that he was adopted until he was 10 years old, and able to understand, but the parents of other children have told their children, and, of course, they went ahead and told ours.

★ ★ ★

These people are relatives or we would never speak to them again.

Please print this so other parents won't be hurt the way we were.

CRUSHED

DEAR CRUSHED: I am not defending the parents who thoughtlessly told their children that yours were adopted.

But adopted children should be told that they are adopted as soon as they are able to understand what the word means. (Ten is too late.)

DEAR ABBY: What is the proper way to address a wedding invitation to a man and woman who are living together but are not married?

GETTING MARRIED

DEAR GETTING: Anyone so disdainful of holy matrimony could hardly be a wedding fan.

But if you must invite them, send each an invitation at his only known address.

Troubled? Write to ABBY, c/o The Pontiac Press. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Proper Fit For Nylons

Proper length and size of nylon hose mean better appearance, greater comfort and better wear, reports Mrs. Mae Barton, Pennsylvania State extension clothing specialist.

Once you find the brand of stockings that fit your legs satisfactorily, ask for them each time you buy.

Remove Hot Air

To remove hot, moist air from sink, dishwasher, range and dining areas, install a multiple switch controlled forced exhaust system.

A fan with a capacity higher than is needed to change the air in the kitchen every three minutes is the most effective.

Fast Redecorating With Cotton

For instant redecorating on a small scale take a remnant of attractive cotton fabric and a bottle of glue. You can quickly cover a lamp shade, waste basket, folding screen, clothes hamper, or back of a bookcase to use as a room divider.

Cotton upholstery and dress fabrics come in handsome vat dyed colors and patterns which make them fade-resistant.

Why Grow Old?

by Josephine Lowman

The following is a list which you might use to check up on yourself every few weeks.

We are all so prone to procrastinate, to allow less important things to rob us of self-improvement efforts which may not seem essential at the moment or show results immediately, but pay such tremendous dividends in the long run.

It is the day by day small investments which count up in an astounding way, like compound interest. It isn't the big periodic splurge in exercise that counts, or the frantic effort to eat as one should or the sudden concern about skin lubrication between long times of neglect.

It is the day by day small attentions to beauty and health which add up to good looks and that extra margin of energy.

* * *

Did you cleanse your face twice today — more if it is oily?

* * *

Did you use a lubricating cream if you are past 30 or have dry skin? Did you allow it to soak in for an hour or so?

DASHING LOOKS

Did you get any exercise other than that your regular work calls for? This is so important for dashing looks as well as health. It will prolong the youthful portion of your life.

Did you take any little rest periods?

Did you massage your scalp or brush your hair in such a way as to stimulate the circulation in your scalp?

* * *

Did you give any serious thought to the food you ate today? Did you make it a point to get all of the food elements so essential to health? Attention to nutrition is one of the most important parts of any beauty routine.

GOOD LAUGH

Did you have a good laugh?

Did you do something you are really interested in?

Did you add a new interest or at least add a new thought?

* * *

If you did all of these things you probably have a lot of happiness ahead of you. If you missed many you would be wise to heed the warnings.

A Beauty Hint
Margaret Merril advises that it is quite simple for every woman to promote an English countryside complexion. Her hint to gain a peaches-and-cream loveliness is to damp a cloth with cold water from your refrigerator and press it over your face for a few minutes once or twice a day. Then, to hold the good of the complexion-beautifying cold water smooth on a little tropical oil of olay. This oil is rather scarce and expensive but your drug store should be able to get you a small supply.

Let Sharpest Mate Handle the Money

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

Dear Miss Feeley,

In reference to some of your statements about wives managing the money, I have found that to give the average woman a checking account is like turning a bull loose in a china shop.

FEELEY

They think all they have to do is to write checks for everything, forgetting to enter some on their check book stubs. They also forget to enter deposits and seldom balance their accounts.

Then they are surprised when the account is overdrawn or else have to wait for the bank's monthly statement to find out how much is in the account and never know whether the balance as shown is correct.

Divided access to, or feminine control of, checking accounts has undoubtedly led to more arguments than if the husband controls the account. Relinquishing his position as head of the house (and this is an important phase of it) is in violation of God's law.

* * *

A man doesn't get to be head of his house — or stay there, either — simply because he can deposit and withdraw money at the bank and keep his arithmetic straight.

And what gave you the idea that all men are mathematicians? Read what Mrs. W. J. of Chicago has to say:

"After years of argument my husband has finally given me the task of 'money management.' I am appalled at the state of affairs and hope to try to balance the budget.

"Since his father handled the finances alone, my husband felt he should, too. I hate taking over if, in his mind, he feels he is losing family status as the head of the house.

But after 25 years it would seem we should be even with the books if not ahead of them."

And now, Mr. C. and Mrs. J., let's get this status subject straightened out. Some big income earners I know have been letting their wives handle the family funds for years.

Not only letting them, I might add, but insisting on it. They're too absorbed in their jobs to want to handle the details of daily, weekly, and monthly spending and planning.

And if you even hinted that they had relinquished their positions as head of the house, they'd laugh at you.

The big decisions as to where the family lives, where the children go to school, how much money can be spent and how much saved, are still very much their business.

They don't hesitate to raise their voices on any family matter, whether it involves money or morals, or whether the kids should join the glee club.

HAVE THE KNACK

Some people have a knack for keeping records and a head for figures. If it's the wife, then why not let her use her talents to the family's advantage?

If it's the husband, then he's the one to keep the budget. Surely two people with the same goal in life needn't quarrel over who earns the money and who totes it to the bank.

Some men like to cook and some women would rather mow the lawn. Whose business is it if they want to divide their labors to suit themselves?

Any man who thinks money alone makes him head of his house had better wake up. The job demands a lot more of him than that.

(You can get Mary Feeley's booklet, Living Within Your Income, by writing to her in care of The Pontiac Press. Enclose a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Recent Birth Is Announced

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Daciuk of Houghton Lake announce the July 24 birth of their daughter Lisa Diane at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

*

Mrs. Daciuk is the former Donna Needle of North Anderson Street.

Grandparents are the Daniel Daciuks of Windsor and Mrs. Francis Needle of Pontiac.

Pre-Washing Is Important

* * *

Pre-treat stains and areas of concentrated soil, sort the clothes into loads, select water temperature, and use the proper amount of detergent.

All these steps play a part in whether or not the machine washes clothes to your satisfaction.

Manner Guide With Teens in Mind

On the social scene "what to do when" can present problems for manner - minded teens. For example, if you spill something in a restaurant, do you apologize, clean up the mess or do nothing?

* * *

The third answer is correct. If a waiter isn't near when a glass is turned over or food is spilled, simply spread a napkin over the spot and say nothing. Talking about mishaps only impresses them on the minds of others.

* * *

This question — and the teen-tested advice — are part of a new free 30-page booklet for the high school girl. "Are You In The Know? answers questions on personality, dating, manners and good looks. From advice on how to keep the conversation going on a date, to the correct way to wear a corsage, the new booklet answers more than 80 typical teen questions.

Towels Add Style, Color

You can create a new style and color scheme in the bath each time you put out fresh towels.

Are you in a romantic "My Fair Lady" mood? Hand up matching towels and bath mat in a floral design. For a gay modern look use bright contrasting solid colors with coordinated striped fingertip towels and bath mat.

Many combinations can be made with vat dyed towels, as colorfast as they are beautiful.

Cotton and Linen

Colorfast and Washable – Yes!

Many June graduates will be job hunting this summer and fall. One of the things which makes an applicant appear cool and collected is color.

Shirts and dresses in vat dyed solid colored linen and cotton are as attractive to look at as they are cool to wear.

These washable colorfast materials also make it easy to keep freshly groomed, so important to job hunters.

Colorfast Fabrics—What Are They?

What does "colorfast" mean? The Vat Dye Institute says that when textile fabrics are described as "colorfast" you have a right to expect that the colors will resist fading through normal use, cleaning and laundering.

Generally, good quality cotton, washable rayon and linen clothing and household furnishings are vat dyed, giving them maximum colorfastness.

The Associated Press tabulation began at 6 p. m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

Mrs. Anna Heffelfinger, 72, of Toledo, Ohio, was injured fatally Saturday in a head-on crash on M 34 near Hillsdale. She was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Warm M., 79, who, police said, suffered a fatal heart attack shortly before the crash.

DETROIT SUBURB

Agnes Kralowski, 69, of Hamtramck, was struck and killed by a car Saturday as she walked past an alley in the Detroit suburb.

Joseph Haapapure, 16, of South Range, was injured fatally Friday night when his car ran off U. S. 41 near Copper Harbor and crashed into a tree.

$5,000 Taken From Troy Safe

TROY — Police yesterday discovered the theft of some $5,000, most of it in coins, from a safe in the offices of Automat Vending Inc., corner of Maple and Coolidge.

* * *

Entry into the building, at 2975 W. Maple, was gained through a window in the adjacent offices of Michigan Research Corporation, 1490 Coolidge.

Police said a door separating the two offices had been broken.

Either the thieves knew the combination or the safe was left open, as no damage was done to the container, according to police.

* * *

The crime occurred between 9 p.m. Saturday and 6 a.m. yesterday, when it was discovered on a routine police check.

* * *

Sacrifices Required to Work at NY Fair

Neil Smith and Carol Remer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Remer, of 47457 Shelby met while they were sophomores at Oakland University in Rochester.

They graduated in April with bachelor of arts degrees.

* * *

RAIN HELPED—The rain that fell this weekend helped a little to dispel the stench from a muck fire that has been burning for about three months, plaguing residents who live in the vicinity of Woodcrest, York and Greenwood streets in southwest Avon Township. The township board recently appropriated funds to ditch around the edges to keep the fire from spreading. Now Avondale Fire Department officials say the fire has just about burned itself out.

Pickup Kills Tot; Boy, 8, Driver in Ray Mishap

RAY TOWNSHIP (AP)—A small child has been killed in a farm field, victim of a truck driven by an 8-year-old boy.

State police said the victim, 19-month-old Chris Mikolowski, was struck by the pickup truck near this Macomb County community Saturday.

Trooper Charles Weber identified the driver as Gregory Goike.

He said the boy's father had shown Gregory how to drive so that the youngster could handle the truck and a tractor on the family farm.

Wever said the truck rolled over Chris' head when Gregory drove along a path to pick up his grandmother. The trooper said the driver wasn't aware of the mishap until he saw the prostrate child on the path.

A Holly man died early this morning after diving into 30 inches of water from a bridge eight feet above the surface, according to state police.

Richard F. Themm, 33, of 7441 Tipsico Lake was dead on arrival at McPherson Community Health Center, Howell, after the mishap at Orr Creek in Livingston County's Hartland Township.

State police at the Brighton post said Themm was swimming with several other persons when the accident occurred shortly before 1 a.m.

He had struck his head on the bottom in a previous dive from the bridge, witnesses told police. After the second dive, he floated to the surface of the water.

An autopsy was to be performed today.

Navy Plane Hits Boat; None Hurt

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — A huge Navy flying boat was about to touch down on San Diego Bay when the copilot spotted the running lights of a sailboat dead ahead.

He shouted, "pull up," the pilot did, there was a splintering crash — and the plane flew on, slightly damaged, and the sailboat sailed on, its main mast snapped off at the deck.

★ ★ ★

"We didn't see the plane until it was hard on us," said John O. Gardner, of San Diego, skipper of the 29-foot sloop Banera. "It's a pretty frightening thing to see such a plane bearing down on you."

The Navy and the Coast Guard are investigating the Saturday night collision.

ESCAPE INJURY

Gardner, his wife and two other couples aboard the sloop escaped injury, and made their way back to their dock with the auxiliary engine.

The plane, piloted by Lt. Nick Barber, 26, of Imperial Beach landed safely nearby and taxied to North Island Naval Air Station.

The Navy said the boat was in a restricted Navy landing area at the time. Garner said he thought it was the seaplane's fault, not his.

Seeks to Head Off Racial Conflicts

Big Problem Faces Rights Unit

By JOHN PIERSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — On the fifth floor of the granite and limestone Commerce Department building — amid stepladders, cardboard cartons and yards of new telephone lines — a dozen men and women are at work seeking answers to the nation's most urgent question:

Can the domestic tranquility be preserved during the Negro's current militant thrust for equal rights?

The agency was set up by the civil rights law to "provide assistance" to communities in resolving racial disputes that arise where people are denied rights guaranteed them by "the Constitution or laws of the United States."

The dozen men and women now working in the Commerce building are the advance guard of the service, which won't have a permanent staff until Congress acts on its $1-million budget, possibly by the middle of this month.

FIRST CASE

But the CRS already has tackled its first case — a school integration dispute in St. Helena Parish, La.

The CRS was hotly debated in Congress, and the controversy no doubt will continue as the new agency gets involved in racial disputes.

Southerners, in particular, want to know whether the Community Relations Service will be an instrument for ramming integration down the South's throat?

★ ★ ★

The answer to this is "No," according to former Florida Gov. LeRoy Collins, the service's new director.

NOT INTRUDER

In a recent speech to the American Municipal Congress at Miami Beach, Collins said that "the CRS is not some long, intruding arm from Washington trying to muscle in on local affairs."

But Collins also made clear that he believed passage of the Civil Rights Act in June meant the nation had committed itself to equal rights for all its citizens.

"We take the affirmative position that the new law must be complied with," he said.

★ ★ ★

As Collins put it, the CRS will take the initiative in helping to make the law as "understandable and as reasonable and acceptable as possible."

NO HAVEN

But he said it will offer "no haven for those who would disregard the law or evade its clear obligations."

"Our prime goal will be to encourage and promote voluntary compliance with the law, to head off those conflicts which erupt in the streets or work their way into harsh battles in the courts."

At another point, Collins stressed that the CRS has "no sectional or regional bias or flavor."

★ ★ ★

Racial problems exist "all over our land," he said. "We are all in this struggle together — North, South, East and West.

SOME GOOD

At a news conference a few days earlier, Collins said the service "wouldn't hesitate at all" to intervene in strife-torn Harlem if it was called in and thought it could do some good.

Still, the emphasis is on the South, and this is reflected in the people Collins has picked to help get the service started. It's no accident that most of them are Southerners.

The No. 2 man under Collins is Harold Fleming, 42, of Atlanta, formerly with the Potomac Institute in Washington, a research and information center on human relations.

PR REPRESENTATIVE

Special assistant to Collins is 35-year-old John Perry of Tampa, a public relations man who was with Collins for six years in the Florida state house.

David Pearson, 32, of Miami has charge of program development and press relations. Pearson, formerly with the Peace Corps, once helped Collins campaign for governor.

Chief counsel is Jerry Heilbron, 46, of Little Rock, who comes to the CRS from the Justice Department's Civil Rights Division.

The lone Negro among Collins' top lieutenants is Kermit Bailer, 43, of Chicago. Bailer, who was with the Housing and Home Finance Agency, is responsible for keeping in touch with other federal agencies.

NO QUOTA

A service spokesman guessed that when the CRS reached full strength, between one third and one fourth of its 50 staffers will be Negroes.

There's no quota, but the CRS is actively looking for qualified Negroes, he said.

Aside from Bailer, the only other Northerner involved at a high level in setting up the service is 47-year-old Julius Manger of New York, head of the Manger hotel chain. Manger is both an adviser to Collins and a member of President Johnson's National Citizens Committee for Human Relations.

The committee, numbering between 300 and 400, will include leaders from every state and is expected to play a key part in the service's efforts.

BARE OUTLINES

Service officials frankly concede they don't know precisely how they will operate. Right now they're drawing up guidelines. But the bare outlines of an operating procedure have already begun to appear both in their published statements and in the service's approach to the St. Helena Parish dispute.

First, the CRS will enter a community only after local or state officials either have refused to act to settle the trouble, or lack the machinery for acting, or have acted and failed.

During a recent series of visits to 16 state capitals in the North, Middle West and South, Collins told each of the governors that "we wanted communities to take care of these things on a local basis, that the last thing we wanted to do would be to go into anybody's state, provided the local authorities, the local communities and the state itself was doing an effective job."

★ ★ ★

Second, the CRS will only go into a community where it's wanted.

The Civil Rights Act provides that in public accommodations cases, where there is no state law against the discriminatory deed, the federal court may refer the case to the service.

MAY BE ASKED

Beyond that, the CRS may be asked in by local or state officials or an individual or it can offer its help. But it cannot go into a community unless someone there wants it.

What if one side wants the service to come in, but the other wants it to stay out?

If the service thought it could help, Collins told reporters, it wouldn't hesitate to go in "regardless of how much hostility there might be from some sources."

★ ★ ★

CRS officials were delighted that it was the St. Helena Parish School Board, defendants in the integration case, who asked for the service, rather than the Negroes. "We want to be regarded as nonpartisan," said one.

ACTUAL WORK

The actual work of conciliation will be done by members of the CRS staff from Washington, by paid consultants (the law authorizes the service to pay them up to $75 a day), by members of the President's committee from the state involved "and (by) anyone else who can help."

The idea is to move quickly to pull together a team suited to deal with the particular task at hand.

Heilbron was dispatched to St. Helena Parish, along with David Seely of the U. S. Office of Education.

★ ★ ★

Meantime, service officials got on the phone and hired the assistance of Dr. John Ivey, dean of Michigan State University College of Education.

CONSULTANT

Dr. T. P. Baker, administrative director of instruction for the Austin, Texas, Independent School District, was taken on as a consultant to the Office of Education.

These men closeted themselves with Louisiana State Atty. Gen. Jack Gremillion.

★ ★ ★

Discussions such as these will be carried on informally and in private.

WITHOUT PUBLICITY

The Civil Rights Act requires CRS officials to conduct their conciliation efforts "in confidence and without publicity."

Those who break the rule are liable to as much as a year in jail and a $1,000 fine.

Collins said that in many cases, the public might not even be aware that the CRS is at work.

★ ★ ★

In many disputes, the service will be "much more helpful" if it is "completely inconspicuous," he said.

GOOD RESPONSE

So far the response to the CRS has been good.

According to Collins, all 16 governors received him "with respect and with enthusiasm."

Service officials are hopeful that the four Deep-South governors who refused to see him will change their minds when they've talked with those who did.

★ ★ ★

POLITICAL PRESSURES

Sources close to the CRS believe that if it weren't for state political pressures, at least some of these men would be glad to have the service's help.

He also sees what he considers other hopeful notes:

★ ★ ★

On Capitol Hill, Sen. Spessard L. Holland, D-Fla., who fought the civil rights bill, called the Community Relations Service "the greatest hope we have" for working things out under the bill.

DIXIE AMENDMENT

Walter F. Carey, president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, asked businessmen to acquaint themselves with the CRS in working out "dignified solutions" to their local racial troubles.

Collins has received more than 1,000 letters from all over the country from people who want to know "what we can do to help."

★ ★ ★

Arrest Couple in NY Slaying

Find Engineer's Body Outside Bronx Home

NEW YORK (AP) — A New Jersey couple was arrested Sunday night in the slaying of an electronics engineer whose bullet-riddled body was found outside his Bronx apartment house.

Police said Hirsch had a "close association" with Mrs. Fazio, a secretary at the Foster-Wheeler plant. According to detectives, she made a statement, but its details were not disclosed.

HAD DINNER

Saturday night Hirsch and his wife, Judith, 26, had dinner at a Manhattan restaurant and returned to their apartment in the Riverdale section late in the evening.

★ ★ ★

The couple left their two children with Ruth Shalmon, 15. When they returned, Miss Shalmon told of several phone calls for Hirsch and said one voice was a woman's asking Hirsch to "meet us at a coffee shop," adding: "He'll know who we are."

★ ★ ★

Hirsch left his sixth-floor apartment alone and went to the street. Several minutes later shots were heard. Hirsch was struck by five bullets, police said. The murder weapon was still being sought.

★ ★ ★

Hirsch's car was missing, and the police said they recovered it when they picked up the Fazio couple.

REPORT CALL DENIED

The Fazios were quoted as denying that Mrs. Fazio called Hirsch or that either had any connection with the killing.

Fazio, police said, is an electrician employed by a firm in Perth Amboy, N.J.

Police said Hirsch had quarreled recently with the Fazios and had told Mrs. Fazio he would not see her any more. They said that Mrs. Fazio had recently returned to her husband's home after a separation.

Hirsch's work for the New Jersey firm involved nuclear submarines and was classified.

Teaching of Reading Is Under Assault

By LYLE WILSON
United Press International

The handiest place for President Johnson to start his educational blitz would be in the Democratic platform on which he will seek election. To a group of educators assembled last week in the White House rose garden, the President said:

"The first work of these times and the first work of our society is education."

The Reading Reform Foundation of New York has an idea on that. RRF is urging the political parties to commit the prestige and influence of the federal government to the reasonable idea that little children must be taught to read.

Otherwise, RRF contends, all chance of educating the children is lost and the schools must continue to spew forth dropouts and juvenile delinquents.

The present system of mis-teaching reading prevails in about three-quarters of American public schools. The system is built into U.S. education.

CONSTANT SUPPLY

It has become the source of a constant supply of more or less unemployable young people, of second-lass citizens and, to a lesser degree of hoodlums

On Wednesday, Aug. 5, there will meet in New York City the third annual convention of the Reading Reform Foundation.

To the parents of little children and to the little children themselves, this assembly in the Roosevelt Hotel is likely to be of much greater importance than this year's political conventions.

★ ★ ★

The Reading Reform Foundation is mightily striving to wrest control of the teaching of reading from the U.S. Educational Establishment. The Establishment in general terms embraces the teachers' colleges, the school administrators and the National Education Association.

40 YEARS AGO

It is an oversimplification but nevertheless revealing to say that the progressivists gradually made it the business of the elementary schools to teach the smaller children togetherness and such abstractions instead of teaching them the multiplication tables or to read.

The idea spread that almost any task was too heavy to ask of a second-grader.

★ ★ ★

Some educational Benedict Arnold devised a new method of teaching reading. This is a method by which the child skips the alphabet and syllables to confront entire words. Each word was a picture to be memorized by the child.

WELL-SUITED

This system of teaching reading is well suited to learning a picture, or hieroglyphic, language such as Japanese or ancient Egyptian.

With an alphabetized language such as English that system will not work. But the progressive educationists cling to it. If American parents realized what the progressive educationists were doing to their little children, there would be mass violence against those responsible.

An intelligent parent in New York City might attend this week's assembly of the Reading Reform Foundation. Any intelligent parent anywhere could inform himself by spending $3.95 for a book just published by Atlantic, Little, Brown entitled: "Tomorrow's Illiterates; The State of Reading Instruction Today."

Tomorrow's illiterate may be your little boy or girl, and a delinquent to boot.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "Itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

May Return Excess Land

State Eying Highway Right of Way Widths

LANSING (AP) — The Highway Department will study right-of-way widths along its nearly 10,000 miles of highways with an eye toward possibly returning excess land to private owners.

★ ★ ★

Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said today in testimony prepared for an interim Senate study committee on roadside advertising the question won't be decided until at least next year.

★ ★ ★

By then, a four-man governor-appointed highway commission will have replaced Mackie under terms of the new constitution.

Mackie said highway rights of way vary in width because of long-standing policy to increase scenic values in some areas by maintaining forest buffers along routes.

IMMATURE NATIONALLY

Unfortunately, the program did not mature nationally due to World War II and subsequent changes in national policy," he said.

★ ★ ★

Now, he said, the state must reassess the rights-of-way "against our predictable highway needs to 1980 because it would be a serious waste of the taxpayers' money to return right-of-way today if we had to buy it back tomorrow."

★ ★ ★

He said if excess rights of way are located, the commission could consider selling them to individuals or turning them over to other public agencies for use.

Sticky Case for Police

BANGOR, Maine (AP)— Police had a sticky problem on their hands after intruders broke into a feed company. A window was broken to gain entrance and in leaving the thieves tipped over a barrel and its contents of 50 gallon of malasses.

Search Finds Missing Trio in Lighthouse

WINDSOR, Ont., (UPI) — A widespread search of Lake St. Clair for a missing Windsor man and two boys ended happily yesterday when they were found at a lighthouse on the eastern end of the lake.

★ ★ ★

Ontario Provincial Police said Gene Labidie, 65, and two neighbor boys, Jim Roberts, 12, and his brother, David, 10, were found safe after a search by rescue boats, a private plane and a helicopter.

They reportedly became lost while fishing Saturday and their 14-foot outboard motorboat ran out of gas.

Police said they apparently spent the night in the boat on the lake and then in the morning paddled to the lighthouse.

★ ★ ★

The lighthouse is located at the mouth of the Thames River, 10 miles east of the Ruscomb Marina where they started out Saturday. Ruscomb is located 20 miles east of Windsor.

NOTIFIED POLICE

Home Owners! Read Labels!

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—The Department of Agriculture has cautioned home owners to be sure to read the small print on the label before they buy lawn seed.

"Some so-called bargain seed can be expensive, and some expensive seed may not be the best buy for your lawn," a Department spokesman said.

★ ★ ★

Fine-textured grasses are recommended for appearance and long-lasting lawns. Although coarse grasses usually last only a year or two, they are desirable in play areas where fine grasses would not survive rough usage.

Put-In-Bay Police Ready

Regatta Riot Didn't Come

PUT-IN-BAY, Ohio (AP)—Police in this Lake Erie island resort were ready, but the riot didn't come as it has in recent years on regatta weekend.

The reason probably was a beefed-up police force and a tightening of liquor sales that kept the college kids in line, the sheriff's office said today.

Much of the credit was given to Put-in-Bay's new police chief, Franz Schillumeit, a 6-foot-6, 215-pound ex-Marine who served notice he would not tolerate brawling such as that witnessed here last year.

In that fracas, more than 2,000 college students staged a "fun" demonstration that erupted into a bottle-throwing, window breaking riot.

Sheriff M. E. Hetrick, at his mainland office at Port Clinton, said "everything went well this year. The only thing my deputies reported was a traffic accident."

The sheriff said he felt tightening of liquor sales helped a great deal. "They weren't allowed in bars unless they were 25 years old or more. We think this may be the answer," he added.

Cyprus Fight Begins Anew

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Fighting erupted again today in the Kyrenia Mountains north of Nicosia, a U.N. spokesman said.

Firing between Greek and Turkish Cypriots echoed along both sides of the strategic, Turkish-controlled Kyrenia pass.

About 6,000 rounds were fired Saturday in the area about 10 miles north of Nicosia.

Today's outbreak occurred in and around the medieval castle of St. Hilarion, scene of intensive fighting last April at Dhikomo and around the old monastery of the Prophet Elias, now held by Greek Cypriots.

A survey team has concluded a two-year study of the 43 million volume Library of Congress to determine practical means of applying automation to this, or any other, large library.

Riots Flare Across Nation

Worst Food Shortage in India Since Independence

NEW DELHI (UPI)—India is in the throes of its most serious food shortage since independence.

Food riots have flared in several sections of the country and officials fear more trouble unless food is made available immediately to this nation's millions at reasonable prices.

S. K. Dey, minister of community development and cooperation, has warned that the situation "imperils the very democratic basis of Indian society."

Mobs looted grain shops in Hapur, northern India's largest grain market 30 miles east of here, and several persons have been arrested.

Food riots have occurred in Calcutta, Cooch Behar and a dozen other cities and towns, including Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri's home area.

MOST SERIOUS

The situation is most serious in an area covering half of India: the states of Uttar Pradesh, Rajasthan, Mamarasthra, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar and West Bengal.

In Uttar Pradesh, India's poorest farm area, there have been numerous reports of deaths from starvation.

Official government sources have denied these reports as "false and mischievous" rumors circulated by antigovernment elements.

* * *

There is disagreement on the cause of the shortage.

NO SHORTAGE

The government claims there is in fact no shortage in the staple crops of wheat and rice.

It accuses farmers and food wholesalers of withholding food from the market in an attempt to force an increase in prices.

* * *

The wheat crop of 1.2 million tons was increased to 3.2 million tons by foreign imports, the government claims.

EXAGGERATIONS

Private economists say the statistics are exaggerated. They blame the food shortage on the government's emphasis on heavy industry at the expense of agricultural development in the past 14 years.

The central government blames the state governments for contributing to the problem by not cooperating in attempts to solve it.

The state governments in turn chastize the central administration for not following a strong food price policy.

* * *

The price of food to the consumer has risen 15 to 30 per cent since the death of Prime Minister Jawarhal Nehru in June.

THE HARDEST HIT

U. S. Ambassador Chester Bowles announced last week that the United States would supply India with four million tons of wheat during the next seven months to alleviate the food shortage.

Bowles said the United States would also send a substantial amount of rice to be determined after the August harvest is in.

In New York, CARE announced the signing of an agreement to provide a meal a day to 200,000 school children of Calcutta.

SURPLUS WHEAT

The program will start in September as soon as shipments of surplus American wheat can reach this country.

The CARE program will increase to 7 million the number of children receiving food at school from the relief organization. This represents 15 per cent of India's elementary school population.

Robert Soltz, 31, the assistant CARE mission chief in India, who returned to New York last week, said India's food problem has grown worse in the 3½ years he spent here.

He attributed the situation to drought, the migration of villagers into the cities to find jobs and the return of one million Indians from Pakistan.

Communist and conservative elements in Indian politics are demanding that Prime Minister Shastri resign because of the situation, and his ruling Congress party finds its prestige at the lowest point since the Chinese Communist border attack in the fall of 1962.

Opposition members of Parliament have warned that they may move for a vote of no confidence when the parliamentary session convenes on Sept. 7.

Shastri hopes that imports of American wheat and rice under Public Law 480 will help to ameliorate the shortage.

On July 17, the government announced plans to force farmers and wholesalers to release stocks of grain, thus lowering prices, but this program is not likely to become effective until January. And enforcement of such a program is likely to produce an equally large problem.

It also increased the number of official "fair price" shops where grain will be sold at controlled rates to families with government-issued identity cards.

36-TONNER — Brenda Kay Jones, 14, who points out she can drive anything with wheels on it, takes over cab of a 36-ton trailer-truck at her father's terminal in Los Angeles. Brenda wants to be an airline hostess when she grows up.

Drives Anything With Wheels

14-Year-Old Littlest Teamster

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The 50,000-pound truck-trailer angled sharply, straightened and eased back over the grease pit. It looked like no one was driving.

But the cab door opened, and out popped the terminal's littlest Teamster—112-pound Brenda Kay Jones.

"I can drive anything that has wheels on it, sir," said the freckled 14-year-old in shorts and tennis shoes. "But I've got to scoot up the seat so I can see."

It started three summers ago when Zeb C. Jones, owner of the terminal, idly asked his daughter, "You want to back up that truck?"

She clambered into the cab and backed up the truck. She had been studying from the sidelines and was ready for the moment.

Her trips always end at the terminal driveway since she doesn't have a driver's license. But she has ridden trucks, with her dad, through most of the states.

While on these trips she admires the drivers' proficient shifting of the 20-speed transmission. In the terminal yard she doesn't get very far into the 20 speeds.

"Sometimes on the road they let me shift, too," she said.

Brenda — cute enough to be a teen-age model — has had a purifying effect on the terminal, says her dad.

A driver is apt to say something like, "Gee whiz, I'm sure having trouble with that darned carburetor."

Boyfriends?

"There was this one boy," she recalls. "He didn't believe I could drive a truck. I got him down here and showed him. He almost fainted."

"I didn't like him anyway."

'One Dozen Roses'

By DONNA LUGG PAPE

Ever since Beth and her Aunt Molly had taken over management of the city's floral shop, Phil Jacobs had been their most regular customer.

Weekly, Phil ordered flowers for three different girls.

At first he came into the shop to order. But for the past few weeks, he had ordered by phone.

★ ★ ★

'LADY'S MAN'

The last time he had phoned in his order and instructed Beth to write out the cards, Aunt Molly had remarked, "This Mr. Jacobs must be quite a lady's man.

"Goodness knows, he certainly can't be in love with three women at the same time."

That was the day Beth had done what she now considered an unforgivable thing.

★ ★ ★

When Aunt Molly had left the shop for a while, she had taken the three long boxes of roses and carried them to the back of the shop for the delivery boy.

SWITCHES CARDS

Then, on impulse, she had deliberately switched the cards.

She had put Sally's card in Denise's box. She sent Phil's love for Janie to Sally.

Now she remembered guiltily how she had chuckled as she imagined the expression on Janie's face when this number three girl in Phil Jacob's love-life opened her box of roses and read, "To Denise with all my love from Phil."

Beth frowned and said aloud, "I've just got to call Phil Jacobs and apologize for what I did. I can't live with myself."

★ ★ ★

CONFESSES

Beth sighed. "I might as well tell you what I did." Telling Aunt Molly how she had deliberately switched the cards did not help Beth feel any better. The look Aunt Molly gave her was worse than a severe scolding.

"What ever possessed you to do a thing like that, Beth," Aunt Molly asked.

Tears came to Beth's eyes. "I—I love him, Aunt Molly. But he doesn't know I'm alive. I thought it would be a good way to get him to notice me."

★ ★ ★

"I know the old saying is 'All is fair in love and war'," Aunt Molly said, "but even so, being in love with Mr. Jacobs didn't justify your actions."

SOBS

Beth blew her nose between sobs. "I know that now. I thought I had it all planned.

"I figured when the girls read their cards, they'd be furious.

"I thought they'd call Phil and blow their tops and — he'd come into the shop to give me a tongue lashing. But — but he never showed up and he hasn't even called."

★ ★ ★

FEARS FOR BUSINESS

"I only hope this doesn't jeopardize our business. If something like this gets around town, why, who knows how many customers we could lose."

Having their business get a bad reputation because of what she had done didn't seem as important to Beth as what she had done to the man she loved.

What if Phil really had grown to love one of those girls? Beth didn't want to be the cause of anyone's unhappiness.

★ ★ ★

Aunt Molly left early that afternoon, leaving Beth to lock up the shop. Beth couldn't keep her mind on her work and knew the only way she'd have peace was to get the unpleasant phone call over with.

DIALS PHIL

When he answered, she said, "Mr. Jacobs, this is Beth Carter from the Carter Floral Shop. I — I've done a dreadful thing.

"I feel terrible about it. I suppose you're furious about the card mix-up with the roses you ordered a few days ago. And I want you to know how sorry I am.

★ ★ ★

"It was all my fault. I deliberately tried to get your — your lady friends angry with you. I — I—"

BETH DUMBFOUNDED

Phil's low chuckle astounded Beth and she was even more dumbfounded when he said, "If you aren't doing anything, Miss Carter, we can discuss this matter over dinner tonight. May I pick you up in a half-hour at the shop?"

Beth stammered her acceptance of the invitation. In spite of her good cry that afternoon, she managed to have herself looking radiant —radiant as a rose when Phil Jacobs arrived.

She tried to apologize again, but Phil said, "I admit you did a terrible thing. And it's as mean and nasty as you say, it is. But I always admire a girl who can own up to her faults."

★ ★ ★

Beth couldn't look at Phil and sensed that he knew how she felt about him.

TAKES HER HAND

When she turned out the lights in the shop, Phil took her hand and said softly, "First thing tomorrow, will you send out a dozen roses for me. And sign the card, 'To Beth with all my love,' Phil."

Beth looked into Phil's eyes with a puzzled erpression.

He bent over and kissed her, then said, winking, "I really should tell you—the other flowers I've been sending were for my sisters."

(The End)

But Others Still Run Free

Congo Army Claims Rout of Rebels

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — The Congolese Army claims it has routed one rebel band 150 miles northeast of Leopoldville, scattering the primitively armed warriors in flight across the Congo River to the neighboring Congo Republic.

But other rebels, many of them Communist-backed, still run free over about a sixth of the Congo and remain the major obstacle to Premier Moise Tshombe's campaign to unite the country.

The army communique Sunday announced one of the government's few military victories since Tshombe took office three weeks ago, pledging to work for a national reconciliation.

The rebels were chased out of Kolo, about 25 miles from Bolobo, where they had crossed over from the Congo Republic (the former French Congo) last week, the communique said. They came and went in motorboats and dugout canoes fitted with outboard motors.

COUP RUMOR

Previous reports said there were about 200 rebels in the band and that they planned to marchsouth to Leopoldville and overthrow President Joseph Kasavubu.

The greatest rebel strength is in the eastern Congo. Tshombe has been touring areas there where the government still is in at least nominal control, appealing to the people to support his regime.

Replying to complaints that government administrators often did little more than line their own pockets, Tshombe promised a new deal. He received delirious welcomes, even in Stanleyville, center of leftist strength.

Tshombe says Red Chinese agents played a major role in the revolts. He summoned foreign diplomats in Leopoldville Saturday to display what he called new evidence of Peking's hand. He showed captured writings on guerrilla tactics by Red Chinese boss Mao Tze-tung.

LOSES CONTROL

The revolt in the eastern Congo began under Gaston Emile Soumailot with Communist support. But he appears to have lost control, and most of his rebels are loyal only to their tribal chiefs.

These bands hold more than 400 miles of territory from a few miles south of Bukavu, on Lake Kivu, to Baudouinville, close to the southern tip of Lake Tanganyika, including Albertville, provincial capital of North Katanga.

★ ★ ★

In Kwilu Province, in the southwest Congo, government soldiers have stood their ground against rebels organized by former Education Minister Pierre Mulele, who received guerrilla training in Red China.

Tshombe has a maximum of nine months before parliamentary elections must be held under a new constitution signed into law by President Kasavubu Saturday night.

DISMISSAL RIGHT

The constitution, replacing the "fundamental law" left by the Belgians, gives the president authority to dismiss the premier and his cabinet. It was approved by 80.82 per cent of the voters in a national referendum in June and July.

Another Portugal Rail Crash; 35 Hurt

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — An electric locomotive plowed into the rear of a passenger train near Santarem early today. Railway officials said 35 persons were hurt.

It was the third mishap in eight days on the privately owned Portuguese Railway Co.

Eighty-nine persons were killed in the derailment of a crowded passenger car near Oporto July 26. One person was hurt in a similar accident near Guimaraes Sunday.

MOSCOW (AP) — Mongolia has condemned Red China's political war against the Soviet Union and strongly urged an early meeting of the world's Communist parties to discuss the Moscow-Peking struggle.

Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, published the Mongolian attack, which was made in a letter June 12 to the Chinese Comunist party.

It was the sharpest anti-Chinese statement ever made by the Mongolians.

ACCUSES CHINA

The statement accused the Chinese of seeking to split the world Communist movement and take over leadership from the Soviet party.

CALCUTTA, India (AP) — New violence in northeast Nagaland has chilled hopes for a truce between the Indian Army and rebel tribesmen waging a guerrilla war for independence.

Three persons were reported killed Saturday and six others injured in a rebel attack on the Naga capital of Kohima, site of Indian Peace Commission headquarters. Indian troops returned fire as mortar shells fell near the commission headquarters and in a school compound.

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — The Netherlands has reopened the door for a major flow of Dutch goods and services to Indonesia by extending $27,690,000 in export credits for 1965.

Dutch Foreign Minister Joseph Luns announced the agreement upon his departure Sunday after a week's visit to Indonesia. Relations between the Netherlands and Indonesia, a former Dutch colony, were restored last year after a long dispute over former Dutch New Guinea, now West Irian.

Junior Editors Quiz on INSECTS

QUESTION: Why are certain beetles called ladybugs?

ANSWER: Many people think of all insects as enemies, without realizing that only 1/25 of 1 per cent are harmful to mankind. Insects help us in many ways, especially by spreading pollen that fertilizes plants.

Other insects help by eating the more harmful kind. And among these helpful insects, the cute little ladybug holds a high place.

Most of these short-legged little busybodies live by devouring insects which suck the juices from plants. Once, the orange and lemon orchards of California were threatened with ruin by an insect called the cottony cushion scale.

One hundred and forty Australian ladybugs of a kind known to eat this scale were imported. With a few years, the ladybugs had increased and eaten so many scales that the orchards were saved.

The value of ladybugs has been known since the Middle Ages. In fact, it is said that they were dedicated to the Virgin Mary at that time and this is why they are still called ladybugs, or, as many people call them, ladybirds.

FOR YOU TO DO: Go to your library and see what else you can find out about beetles.

Entering Junior High Is Critical Period

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.

For those who have not developed self-control and self-discipline, it can be a disturbing experience. No longer will they have an understanding elementary school teacher as a substitute mother to protect and direct them.

Suddenly they must adjust to several teachers who are interested primarily in subject matter and who expect their pupils to have acquired already a fair amount of self-confidence and self-discipline, along with proficiency in reading, writing and arithmetic.

Parents can help their children make the adjustment. During the vacation period, make a point of talking over with your child the new situations he will encounter.

Learn about such things as gym classes, community showers, luncheon periods and other changes in routine, and explain them to the youngster. It will do much to remove apprehensions. Even if you don't think so, the prospective junior high school student worries about these things.

It will be helpful if your child has one good friend who will be going to the school with him. And it's a good thing to have an older boy or girl who knows the ropes talk to him about the situations he will meet.

★ ★ ★

Children of junior high school age cooperate enthusiastically when they know what parents expect of them and when they know in some detail what they are expected to do. They are so full of energy that they need an unusual amount of direction.

CRITICAL YEARS

Junior high years are critical years. At a time when a boy is still a child in many ways, he must make decisions which will affect the rest of his life. At the end of the seventh and eighth grades, students must select courses which will remain part of their record as long as they live.

They must consider their future in high school, the possibility of college and the place in life they wish to achieve. Although the choices are his own, they are too important to be left entirely to the whim of a teen-ager.

The student needs his parents help in planning his days and evenings so that school work will have its place of first importance.

★ ★ ★

Homework at this stage becomes more important. The pupil will now be expected to do more on his own. He will need firm backing by his parents to put his mind to work — to read instructions carefully — to make a determined effort to understand — to keep abreast of each class.

Opening lead—♣ J

By OSWALD JACOBY

South "A"nalyzed the lead and "R"eviewed the bidding. He decided that West held both missing aces.

JACOBY

This left him with one sure loser in clubs and two losers in spades, provided East got a chance to lead spades or South had to play them himself.

When South arrived at "H" (How can I make this hand?) after "C"ounting the cards, he had completed the code word "ARCH" and he saw two potential lines of play.

If West held exactly three clubs, South could let the jack of clubs hold. Later, he would be able to discard one of dummy's spades on his own fourth club.

South's review of the bidding indicated that West would hold six diamonds and five spades. That would leave him only two clubs and clubs would not break.

Then South figured out an alternate play that might work. He took the first club and led a heart to dummy's king.

Then he led the three of clubs from dummy. His plan was to duck this trick around to West, whereupon West would have to lead either a diamond or spade and allow South to get away with the loss of only one spade.

Unfortunately for South, Sally Johnson of Westport, Conn. who sat East, had other ideas.

Sally also assumed that her partner had opened a doubleton club. If his second club were a low one, South was going to finesse against her queen anyway; if his second club were the 10, Sally could avoid all trouble by playing her queen of clubs. She played it and South's dream was shattered.

The CARD Sense

| North | East | South | West |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1 ♣ | Pass | 1 ♥ | Pass |
| 3 ♥ | Pass | 3 ♠ | Pass |
| 4 ♦ | Pass | 5 ♣ | Pass |
| 6 ♥ | Pass | ? | |

You, South, hold:
♠ A J 8 5 ♥ Q J 8 5 ♦ 3 2 ♣ A 9 8

What do you do now?

A—Pass. Your partner is not inviting seven and you should be happy with the small slam contract.

TODAY'S QUESTION

♠ A J 6 ♥ A Q J 10 9 8 ♦ K Q J ♣ 2

A Holiday Admiral

Barry Cruises on Ex-PT Boat

BALBOA, Calif. (UPI) — Republican Presidential nominee Barry Goldwater, an Air Force man himself, qualified as a holiday admiral here today by cruising the Southern California coast in a converted PT boat.

No one was suggesting that the Arizona Senator, a pilot and an Air Force reserve major general, was wavering in his love of flying. He was, however, reported in excellent spirits after a six-hour shakedown cruise yesterday on the yacht "Sundance."

There were even reports that the senator's firm no-press policy for his California vacation trip was softening. Although he declined to answer questions submitted by his press entourage yesterday, aides said some answers may be forthcoming before the Senator returns to Washington and his presidential campaign Wednesday.

No plans were announced for Goldwater's activities today, and the plush Balboa Bay Club, where he is making vacation headquarters, was still off-limits to newsmen.

There was a comic opera interlude yesterday when local police, handguns drawn, moved into a partially constructed home across the harbor channel from the club compounds to find two photographers arrayed behind cameras mounting cannon-like telescopic lenses intent only on photographing the return of "Sundance."

OLD FRIEND

Goldwater, his wife, and his two daughters and sons-in-law, boarded the yacht about noon (2 p.m. Pontiac time) yesterday. They were guests of Marvin Whiteman, a Beverly Hills, Calif., real estate man, a one-time airline pilot who is an old friend.

Press aides Tony Smith and Edward K. Nellor, who also made the trip, said Goldwater was at the helm as the boat moved out of Newport Harbor. He lunched on fried chicken with a couple cans of beer and took a lot pictures with color film.

Near Long Beach, "Sundance" approached within hailing distance of the submarine "Razorback," which was conducting exercises with a navy plane, and the Senator received a salute from officers and men on the submarine's bridge.

★ ★

Cruising back into Newport Bay, Goldwater received a less formal salute from a boatload of youngsters who chanted: "We want Barry."

★ ★

It was strictly a pleasure trip and aides said they heard no political conversation from Goldwater yesterday. They said the Senator, clad in shorts, a sport shirt and tennis shoes, controlled the 83-foot yacht for more than half of the six-hour outing.

WORLD PROBLEMS

Newsmen who accompanied the senator here had submitted a list of questions on world problems through the two press aides.

Nellor reported, after the cruise, that Goldwater declined to concern himself with the questions for the present, but said he would give the matter some thought.

Nellor said Goldwater made a passing mention of the newsmen, who are comfortably quartered in the plush Newporter inn here. He quoted the Senator as saying: "Why didn't you bring 'em along? I'd have given them some coffee."

Zanuck's Son Gets Job Done

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — "I suppose a lot of people looked at me with fish eyes when I got this job," says Richard Zanuck, vice president in charge of production at 20th Century-Fox Studios.

He adds: "That was only natural. But I hope they feel differently about me now."

The initial reaction to the Zanuck appointment almost a year ago was indeed natural. After all, wasn't Dick the son of the boss — boss Darryl F. Zanuck, founder of the film company and the man who returned as president to save it from the brink of bankruptcy?

But a year of action has proved that Dick Zanuck is not his daddy's errand boy. With Darryl Francis in New York and Richard Darryl at the Westwood studio, the Zanucks have managed one of the neatest resurrections in film history.

The record: $9 million profit for Fox in 1963 vs. an almost $40 million deficit the year before. Employment at 3,000 vs. 200 at the studio's low ebb. Eleven films finished since the studio reopened April 22, 1963, after a year's idleness.

GOOD OUTLOOK

The outlook: 45 stars and $62 million committed to 22 movies in the coming year.

Television production shows an amazing revival: 4½ hours of network films for next season vs. zero hours a year ago.

* * *

Young Zanuck, who is also president of the television operation, gave this explanation: "Television had always been the stepchild in the studio operation. When we faced a complete shutdown, we realized how nice it would be to have a television setup that would absorb some of the overhead when we weren't shooting features.

"So we went after television in a big way. We spent money for top talent and made deals that were attractive to stars. We were able to get names like Fess Parker and Tony Franciosa for series by offering them features as well."

LONG DAY

A graduate of Stanford and the Army, Dick begins his studio day around 8 a.m. and continues full-speed until 7 p.m., often staying later to run film. The new schedule made him give up golf because it didn't supply enough exercise; at least one lunchtime a week he leaves the studio for a fast tennis game.

Is he doing the work he wanted to do?

* * *

"Yes," he replied. "I always thought I would be doing some form of film making, though not necessarily heading a studio. I like this work. It has been my life."

He spent most of his boyhood in and around the studio, working in a variety of jobs. He was asked how his studio colleagues adjusted to working for a boss of 29 years.

* * *

"There doesn't seem to be any problem — or at least I don't know about it if there is," he said. "Most of the people I had worked with before, when I was producing pictures on the lot.

New Leaders in California Not Pro-Barry

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) —California's Republican leadership passed today a new team of officers with few close ties to Sen. Barry Goldwater's campaign organization.

Incumbent legislators Sunday turned back a pro-Goldwater threat to their traditional control of the Republican State Central Committee. A handy new law on bonus votes provided the difference.

The established group prevailed, too, in writing the Republican state platform. It rebuffed every major proposal by a militant minority of ultraconservatives, especially on civil rights.

Both the new chairman, Dr. Gaylor Parkinson, and vice chairman, James W. Hailey, pledged to work — and work hard — for the Goldwater-Miller ticket.

It wasn't until the committee was ready to adjourn that somebody got up and reminded members that they had failed to formally express support for Goldwater and his running mate Rep. William E. Miller of New York. A resolution was quickly adopted.

New and Ancient Meet in Far East

TOKYO (AP) — The newly remodeled Tokyo International Airport is completely modernized with a colorfully-appointed special waiting room which adjoins the departing passengers room and has plastic "portholes" through which people may talk, a rotating circular tbale fed by conveyor belts for baggage, television, and other modern conveniences.

On the roof of the modern terminal building is an Inari Shrine with its characteristic red "torii" or gateway.

* * *

It is believed that unless the deity who has resided in the area since before the airport is built is properly enshrined, his wrath will cause air accidents.

Teen Sweethearts Wed After 50-Year Lapse

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Two childhood sweethearts, who had not seen each other for half a century, were married here after a renewal of their teen-age friendship.

Bridegroom Ralph Long, 68, of St. Paul, and his bride, Mrs Mabel Septer, 69, of Corning, Iowa, had not seen each other for 50 years until recently. They had been corresponding since the deaths of their spouses over a year ago.

Collins Once Held Segregation View

WASHINGTON (AP) — LeRoy Collins, director of the Community Relations Service established by the new Civil Rights Act, says he once was a segregationist but later changed his mind.

"I was raised in an environment that recognized a segregated society," the former governor of Florida said yesterday while conceding that he had described himself as a segregationist in a letter to a constituent eight years ago.

"I am proud of my Southern background and always will be proud of my Southern background," Collins said.

But, he continued, "the South has an enormous challenge to become a part of the mainstream of American life." Segregationists, he said, "are not in the main current."

Besides, Collins said, since writing the letter "I've come to see and to understand that the nation's basic goal is to reach for a society that does not separate a class of its citizens for discriminatory consideration."

ON THE AIR

James J. Kilpatrick, editorial page editor of the Richmond Va., News-Leader, questioned Collins about the letter and his current views on the NBC radio - television program "Meet the Press." Kilpatrick said Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., had referred to the letter during Senate consideration of Collins' nomination.

"I do not have any opologies whatsoever, sir, for taking the stand that I take now and the stand that I've taken since that time," Collins told Kilpatrick.

Since writing the letter, he said, "there has been a great change in conditions in this country, in the law of the land, in my own understanding of moral responsibility in respect to this matter."

* * *

In response to another question, Collins said he is "quite pleased" with the way the nation, North and South, is complying with the civil rights law.

Still, the former governor said, "there is an absence of people who will say 'Come and let us reason together.'"

Lane County, Ore., still has 48 covered bridges in use.

A powder has been found that removes the protective wax from the bodies of insects and causes death by the evaporation of body water. Buildings treated with the dust are believed to be permanently free of insects.

New Duties for OU Official

Registrar to Become Aide, Student Dean

New responsibilities have been assumed by Herbert H. Stoutenburg Jr., director of admissions and registrar at Oakland University since 1959, Chancellor D. B. Varner announced.

In addition to continuing as registrar, Stoutenburg will serve as assistant to the chancellor and dean of student affairs.

Glen Brown, who has been associate director of admissions and director of scholarships for the past two years, has been named director of admissions.

Stoutenburg said one of his primary assignments in the coming year will be the promotion of a more diversified student life program on the campus; one designed to provide students opportunity for participation in a complete program of extracurricular activities.

Stoutenburg of 2933 Heidelberg, Avon Township is a former educational adviser in South Viet Nam and Nigeria, and will represent the university's interest in the Oakland County-Cali, Colombia, Project.

COOPERATION

This is an experimental program providing for cooperation between the two communities on a local level.

Earth Cave-In Engulfs Five in S. Africa

BLYVOORUITZICHT, SOUTH AFRICA (AP) — A white gold miner's family of five were apparently killed when their home was engulfed in a huge earth cave-in near Blyvoorcuitzicht gold mine early today, a senior mine official said.

The missing family included Johannes Oosthuizen 36, his wife Hester, 34, and their three children, Jacoba, 12, Johannes, 8, and Marian, 5.

They apparently were swept to their deaths as they slept.

Mine Secretary C. Imlburton said three houses were swallowed up in a hole 200 feet deep and 100 feet wide that opened up near the shaft of the gold mine.

★ ★ ★

He said one house was vacant and the family escaped from another before it went down. The Oosthuizens were lost in the third house.

RUMBLING HEARD

A loud rumbling preceded the earth collapse, and about 20 families fled from their homes in nightclothes.

Several major earth collapses have occurred in the area.

'Mighty Mo' to Stay in Puget Sound Port

BREMERTON, Wash. (AP) — The "Mighty Mo" is staying put, "ready for action in case of emergency," a Navy spokesman has made it known.

Many bigger cities than this Puget Sound port have tried to woo the mothballed battleship away. But "the Navy does not maintain this ship as a tourist attraction," declared the spokesman.

The latest suitor of the Missouri, aboard which the Japanese surrender ending World War II was signed, is San Francisco.

Manikins Being Integrated

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Writer

NEW YORK — Even before newly integrated schools open their doors this fall, Negro and white manikin youngsters will be lugging books together in department store windows displaying back-to-school wardrobes.

His firm with its two manikin factories as well as L. A. Darling Co., Grennicker-Zarla, and Flairplastics Manikins are among the national organizations stepping up its pace to meet a mushrooming demand for Negro figures.

★ ★ ★

Recently one of the smart set's most elegant mink and couture emporiums, Bergdorf-Goodman in New York announced it has taken a Negro brother and sister into it's manikin family.

They will make their debut Aug. 27 as nursery school tots in a six-window back-to-school display along chic Fifth Avenue.

Last January Bamberger's department store, Newark, N.J., pioneered with the unheralded appearance of several Negro figures in windows showing higher-priced ladies ready to wear.

★ ★ ★

The decision to use Negro manikins, said window manager Arthur Fischer, originated among display department personnel without pressure, influence or suggestion from racial groups or outside individuals. When Bamberger's executives were told about it, he said, "they were very pleased."

★ ★ ★

Andrew Goodman, president of Bergdorf's, says response to his announced intention to integrate the store's windows has been generally favorable. There were three anonymous "crank notes," Goodman said.

★ ★ ★

From time to time retail stores with large Negro clientel have ordered Negro manikins. But until this year the demand was negligible.

BOY FIGURES

Commissioned to originate the lady manikins used by Bamberger's last year, Mary Brownan's studios are now concentrating on styling Negro boys and girls up to age 8. By next year her artists expect to have window facsimiles of Negro youngsters through their teen years.

★ ★ ★

Thanks to the fashion influence of Peace Corps members among the emerging African nations, he says, native women want American-looking clothes and the businessmen there want to display them "in the American way."

★ ★ ★

Consequently, Leeds said, committees from Liberia and Lebanon have been eying his Negro manikins for future export.

Lions' Defense in True Form

Blues Defeat Whites, 10-0 Before 18,000

Plum's Field Goal, TD Pass Account for All Scoring

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

When the Detroit Lions' defense is healthy and in peak form it's tough enough for quarterbacks like John Unitas, Bart Starr and Billy Wade to get through a game unmarked.

The Blues, directed by Plum won a 10-0 intra-squad game over the White Saturday night at U. of D. Stadium before 18,000 fans and the defensive units of both teams stole the show.

The biggest cheer of the night from the shirt-sleeved crowd went up when Alex Karras, playing for the White team, shot through on the second play of the game to smear Plum.

Karras, Sam Williams and linebackers Max Messner and Wayne Walker bolted the blue attack, while Roger Brown, Bill Quinlan, Darris McCord, Joe Schmidt, Ernie Clark and Monte Lee scuttled White offense.

Morrall connected on only nine of 23 for 66 yards and Plum nine of 22 for 115 yards.

Actually, the passers' percentages would have been much better but several passes were dropped by receivers.

MISS FIELD GOAL

In the first period, Plum tried a field goal from the 47-yard line, but it was actually 57 yards since the goal posts were 10 yards behind the goal line.

It would have been good had the ball been moved 10 yards closer to compensate for the position of the goal posts, because it dropped just short.

On the second try, the ball was moved 10 yards closer and Plum's kick went 32 yards to make it 3-0.

In the 4th quarter, Plum hit Terry Barr for a 17-yard touchdown to account for the scoring.

Coach George Wilson was satisfied with the game and the play of some of the new faces on the team.

Defensive back Bobby Thompson was especially impressive as he covered the veteran receivers from the cornerback slot.

* * *

Nick Ryder, at fullback for the Blues led his unit's running with .23 yards in six carries while Dan Lewis had 22 yards in as many tries.

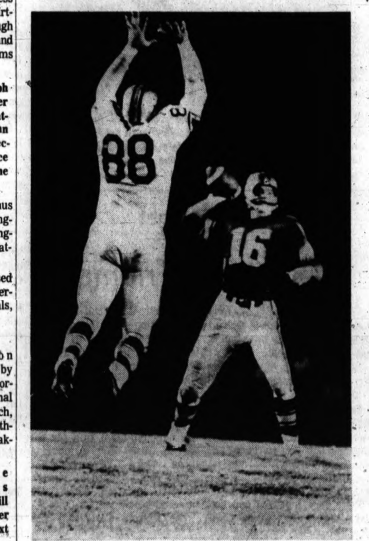

Larry Ferguson gained 28 yards in three attempts, Dan Watkins had 11 yards in five tries for the White team.

In pass receiving, for the Blues Terry Barr has three for 40 yards, Cogdill one for 9 yards, McInnis two for 27, Ryder two for 25 and Lewis one for 11; for the Whites, Warren Wells had three for 33, Studstill one for 23, Watkins two for 3 and Batten one for seven.

Wilson announced that the roster was trimmed to 48 when defensive backs Tom Hall and rookie Bruce Zellmer were traded to the Minnesota Vikings for an undisclosed draft choice.

Released were end Doug Bickle of Hillsdale, guard Currie Hall of Hampton Institute and tackle Ron Frank of YPI.

The proceeds of the game were put into a fund for the family of Ray "Scooter" McLean who died last March of cancer.

END TO COME — Sam Williams (88) defensive end who played with the White squad Saturday night goes high to try to stop a pass by Milt Plum (16) quarterback of the Blue squad. Plum got rid of the ball in time. He led the Blue team to a 10-0 victory.

Strong Tennis Field Left in County Open

The strongest array of singles and doubles tennis players will go into the final two rounds of the Oakland County Open tennis tournament next weekend at Oakland University courts.

The 5th annual tournament sponsored by The Pontiac Press and Pontiac Recreation department completed play through the quarterfinals yesterday and three of the top rated teams have advanced in doubles.

Defending champions Ralph Alee and Dick Mineweaser had close matches in defeating Bob Lorenz and John Slater, 6-4 and 6-2 in the second round and Norm Prance and Sam Walker III in the quarterfinals, 7-5 and 6-4.

Alee and Mineweaser will thus face Tom Kowalak of Farmington and Carl Leedy of Birmingham in the semi-finals next Saturday.

Kowalak and Leedy disposed of Clyde Taylor and Dan Talliercio of Troy in the quarterfinals, 7-5, 7-5.

Long and Ornekian have established themselves as doubles favorites and will await the winner of the upper bracket semi-finals for next Sunday's finale at 2:30 p.m.

Long, a teammate of Ornekian's at Northville is also a strong singles' choice. He whipped Leedy, 6-1 and 6-4 in the quarterfinals and will meet Prance in next Saturday's semi-finals.

In the other lower bracket match, Hibbs, the 1962 singles' champion faces Jerry Bunce in the simi-finals, while in the upper bracket Crampton meets Alee and Ornekian meets Bruce Gould.

'Little Things' by Tigers Costly

Indians Dump Bengals Twice

Sparma 2-1 Victim of 11-Inning Nightcap

The Detroit Tigers found out just how much the lesser aspects of the game can mean Sunday when they dropped 6-1 and 2-1 decisions to the Cleveland Indians before 8,980 customers.

* * *

In the opener, Jerry Lumpe was a step too slow in getting to a line-drive single by Leon Wagner and it was a play that paved the way for a three-run Indian uprising that cost the Tigers the victory.

ONE OF SEVERAL

A walk by Joe Sparma was one of several "little things" that occurred to the Tigers in the 11th inning of the nightcap and cost them another game.

The double setback dropped the Tigers deeper into the American League's second division/ They trail the New York Yankees by 15½ games and fourth-place Los Angeles by 4½

Detroit has lost five of its last six games and nine of its last dozen contests.

The Tigers were off today and Dave Wickersham was named by manager Charlie Dressen to hurl Tuesday night's game against the White Sox in Chicago.

In the first game, the Tigers and Tribe were deadlocked, 1-1 when Dick Howser led off the third inning with a walk. Wagner then lined a ball just out of the reach of Lumpe. Two outs followed and had Lumpe grabbed the ball Ed Rakow would have been out of the inning.

ADD 2 MORE

But, the Indians scored three runs with the aid of two more singles and an error by Dick McAuliffe. Cleveland added two more runs off Phil Regan to wrap up the win.

The second-game loss was an even tougher decision for the Tigers to take because they should have won the game.

* * *

Wagner leaped against the leftfield fence in the sixth inning to rob Al Kaline of a homer that would have given the Tigers a nine-inning triumph.

But, the game lasted for 11 innings and that's when the Tigers folded. Following another error by McAuliffe, a sacrifice and a single, Joe Sparma walked Tito Francona to load the bases.

A BIG PLAY

"You can't blame Sparma for losing the game," Dressen said. "But, that walk was a big play. It made us play the next two batters with our infield and outfield pulled in."

* * *

But, there was only one batter — Larry Brown. He blooped a fly that fell between Lumpe and Kaline. Kaline picked up the ball and made a force play at second base, but that was only the second out and the winning run had scored.

Palmer Loses Race With Aussies' Nagle

Nagle, a 43-year-old Australian with powderpuff drives and pinpoint irons, first outraced Palmer in the 1960 British Open when he beat golfing's master by one stroke.

He outran him again Sunday, slashing four strokes off the 7,090-yard Pinegrove course's par 71 and won the $50,000 Canadian Open Golf Championship with a 72-hole total of 277. Palmer, despite his patented finish, was two shots behind this time at 279.

* * *

"This fellow has got in my way before," Palmer told a presentation ceremony that awarded Nagle $7,500 for his first North American tournament victory and Arnie $4,000 for his fourth second-place finish this year.

Nagle turned in scores of 73 and 71 for the first two rounds, but blazed home on the second half with rounds of 66 Saturday and Sunday.

BLAZES HOME

Nagle went into the final round one stroke behind Palmer, Bill Collins of Grossinger, N.Y., and Ray Floyd of St. Andrews, Ill. Firing birdies on the second, fifth and sixth holes, he overtook the leaders and began setting his own pace.

* * *

Palmer missed seven putts of four feet or less but climbed right back into the big money with an amazing finish.

He knocked in a 15-footer on the 16th for a birdie, launched a second shot to within three feet of the pin on 17 and dropped it for another bird, and almost scored another on the 18th but missed a seven-foot putt.

* * *

Palmer, whose first tournament victory was the 1955 Canadian Open, wound up with a one-under 70 to edge Floyd for second. Floyd, with 280, earned $3,300 and Dan Sikes Jr. of Ponte Vedra, Fla., picked up $2,900 for fourth at 281.

Five players were tied for fifth place at 282. Jack Nicklaus, Jay Hebert, Gary Player, Collins and Billy Casper each earned $2,080.

Hornung Stars in Scrimmage

By United Press International

* * *

Not that he's not on schedule. He is. In fact, Coach Vincent Lombardi says, "he's in the best condition he's been in since I've been here."

* * *

Lombardi is starting his sixth year with the Packers and last year was the only year he was without Hornung, the running, passing and kicking star of the National Football League.

Hornung made his first start before the home folks in two years during the weekend and led the offense to a 16-9 win over the defense in the Packers annual intra-squad game.

The first time he carried the ball he galloped for 23 yards and when he came back to the huddle he received a standing ovation from the 28,000 fans on hand.

The ovation was even louder later when he kicked a 47-yard field goal and when he sparked the offense on a 70-yard drive by catching two of the three passes he caught in the game, the stands exploded.

"I felt pretty good for the first time out," said Hornung. "I've always been a slow starter. I've always had to work to get in shape. The only way to get in shape is by contact. I hope to get better."

The Chicago Bears worked for 1½ hours in 100-degree heat on timing and passing plays Sunday.

Surprise Win in Jr. Tennis

Rookie Stan Smith Upsets Favorite

KALAMAZOO (AP) — A newcomer to tournament tennis has returned the junior singles title to California for the first time since 1959 in the finals of the National Juniors and Boys championships.

Rookie Stan Smith of Pasadena surprised favorite Bill Harris of West Palm Beach, Fla., 6-2, 6-4, 6-3 Sunday to become the first Californian to wear the junior crown since since Dennis Ralston won it five years ago.

In the boys 16-and-under final, lightweight Alberto Carrero of San Juan, Puerto Rico, brought a halt to the upset string of unseeded southpaw Steve Avoyer of San Diego, Calif., 6-1, 6-8, 6-2.

Smith and Avoyer were members of the losing teams in the doubles finals. Jeff Brown of Carmichael, Calif., and Dean Penero of Stockton, Calif., defeated Smith and Jim Hobson of fullerton, Calif., in the junior division 7-9, 6-2, 6-4.

William Davidson of Bakersfield, Calif., and James Rombeau of Studio City, Calif. outlasted Avoyer and Don Lutz of Los Angeles in the boys' title match, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4.

RECORD-BREAKERS — Australian Murray Rose (left) set a new world mark in the 1,500-meter freestyle of the National AAU Outdoor Swimming Championships yesterday with a 17:01.8. A world mark also was set by Sharon Stouder, 15, of Los Angeles, who won the 200-meter butterfly in 2:26.4.

Performances Lift Olympic Swim Hopes

Nine World Records Erased; Californian Wins Three Events

LOS ALTOS HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Teen-age swimmers proved with record-shattering performances in the AAU Championships that America will send its finest swimming team in history to the Olympics this fall.

"Terrific, just amazing," said U.S. men's Olympic Coach Dr. James Counsilman after watching America's corps break nine world records, 16 American marks and 24 meet standards during the meet which ended Sunday.

Additionally, three official world marks were bettered in events where lower times are pending.

The Olympic Trials will be in New York Aug. 29-Sept 3.

Standout performers in an outstanding field of competitors were Californians Don Schollander of Santa Clara and Sharon Stouder of City of Commerce.

Schollander, 18, won the meet's outstanding performer trophy by sweeping the 100, 200 and 400-meter freestyle events, setting world's records in the 200 and 400 at 1:57.6 and 4:12.7.

Miss Stouder, only 15, also was a triple winner. She took 100-meter freestyle and the 100 and 200-meter butterfly events, besting the world's standard in the 200 with a 2:26.4.

Others who bettered recognized world marks were 16-year-old Dick Roth of Atherton, Calif., with 4:48.6 in the 400-meter individual medley, and Marilyn Ramenofsky, 17, of Phoenix Ariz., with 4:41.7 in the 400-meter freestyle.

Also besting existing world's standards was the 400-meter women's freestyle relay team from the Santa Clara, Calif., Swim Club.

Each one of those record bids was in an Olympic event.

Australian Murray Rose cast a big shadow on America's hopes at Tokyo when he came back on the last day of competition to register a world record-breaking 17:01.8 in the 1,500-meter men's freestyle.

This proved that the Australian, who lost to Schollander at the shorter freestyle distances, will pose a major threat to the United States at the Olympics.

Donna de Varona, the 17-year-old Olympic veteran from Santa Clara, failed to better a world mark but played havoc with the American and meet standards.

Takes Sculls Limelight

Detroit Duo Triumphs

NEW YORK (AP) — John Welchli and Dick Bell of Detroit stole the limelight by winning the 150-pound double sculls at Sunday's wind-up of the three-day National Rowing Championships.

The eight-oared event was listed as the feature over the 2,000-meter course at Orchard Beach Lagoon, but the Harvard-Laconia crew turned that into no contest by easily defeating the Buffalo West Sides.

They were bow and bow for about 500 meters, but the Cantabs then upped their beat and pulled far in front.

Harvard's winning time was 6:23 to 6:41.1 for the Buffalo crew. The New York A.C. finished third in 6:41.8.

In contrast Welchli and Bell, representing the Detroit Boat Club, rallied furiously in the last few strokes to shade Paul Reichenbach and Bob Hardegan of Philadelphia's Vespers by two-tenths of a second, 7:33.1 to 7:33.3.

The Vespers, however, won the national team title for the seventh time after a lapse of three years. They compiled 120 1-5 points helped by four individual victories during the three-days competition.

The Detroit Boat Club was second with 77¾ and St. Catharine's of Ontario, the defending champions, third with 74½. The New York A.C. was fourth with 72 and the Buffalo West Sides fifth with 70.

Mets Go Over Top

NEW YORK (AP) — After 41 home dates this season, the New York Mets already have broken their attendance record for a full season. The 19,699 fans who paid to see the Mets split Sunday's doubleheader with Houston boosted the total attendance to 1,082,801. In 1963 the Mets attracted 1,080,108 customers.

Miss Wright Wins Another

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — When Mickey Wright, the queen of ladies professional golf, is playing a tournament, the question isn't who won, but by how much did she lead the other gals in marching off with first prize money.

The latest tournament in point was the $12,500 Milwaukee Jaycee Open in which the tall, 29-year-old blonde picked up the $2,000 first place check Sunday by playing a steady par 72 game and withstanding a last-nine challenge from Ruth Jessen to win her eighth tournament of the season.

Miss Wright, who had led the LPGA in earnings the past three years, brought her total for the current tour to $18,912 with a 289, one over par total in the 72-hole competition at the North Shore Country Club.

She had previous rounds of 74, 69 and 74.

Races Are Washed Out

Exide Takes Diamond Cup

COEUR D'ALENE, Idaho (AP) — Bill Brow in the Miss Exide won the 7th annual Diamond Cup Unlimited Hydroplane race Sunday after Chuck Thompson set a course record on Lake Coeur d'Alene in the Tahoe Miss but failed to qualify for the championship.

Brow, a Seattle milkman, drove the Miss Exide to an average speed of 108.783 miles per hour in the championship race.

Thompson piloted the Tahoe Miss at an average speed of 111.801 miles per hour in Heat 1-B. This earned the Nevada boat 400 points, but it didn't make the title race because it had failed to finish Heat 1-C on Saturday.

Miss Exide's victory earned 1,100 points and $2,000 first prize money of the $10,000 Diamond Cup purse.

BARDAHL SECOND

The $800 third place spot went to Miss Madison, with Buddy Byers aboard, at 101.446 miles per hour for 925 points.

Norm Evans drove the Miss Eagle Electric to fourth place at 97.649 miles per hour for $500 in prize money.

Pilot Warner Gardner of the fifth-place Mariner Too averaged 75.418 miles per hour and collected $300.

Brown turned back challenges in the stretch by the Miss Bardahl and Miss Madison before a crowd estimated at nearly 60,000.

Miss Bardahl won Heat 2-B, with Mixx Exide second. Fascination headed into the pits early in the race. Gale V roostertailed briefly and then went dead in the water.

Miss Madison logged Saturfastest time, 106.508, in Heat 1-C. Miss Exide won Heat 1-B at 106.508, and Miss Eagle Electric took first in 1-A at 102.837.

Dick Goldsworthy kept CIO Local 594's hopes for a playoff berth in the Class A men's league alive with a 6-1, no-hit triumph over Pontiac Business Institute yesterday.

The victory ended the season for CIO (8-10), and the squad will now sit back and watch Cranbrook (8-8) in its final two games.

Huron-Airway, PBI and the Clippers have sewed up playoff berths. If Cranbrook wins either of its final two outings, Clippers tonight or Huron - Airway Wednesday, it will move into the fourth playoff spot. Two losses would force Cranbrook into a showdown with CIO.

Goldsworthy was far from perfect in fashioning his no-hitter. He struck out five, but walked 10 with four of the passes producing PBI's lone run in the third inning.

Catcher Jim Berg clouted a home run to put CIO out front 1-0 in the second inning, and Goldsworthy scored the second run on an error in the third.

Dodgers Bump Phillies

Giants' Strategy Sinks Pittsburgh

By The Associated Press

★ ★ ★

He ordered the potential winning run put on base Sunday and didn't have to soak up any boos from the fans. The gamble paid off as the Giants edged Pittsburgh 2-1.

The situation came about in the bottom of the ninth after Duke Snider's tie-breaking single gave the Giants the lead in the eighth. Here's what happened:

Bob Bailey singled for the Pirates with one out and moved to second on an infield out. Dark then waved in Billy O'Dell, who replaced Ron Herbel on the mound. With Roberto Clemente up, Dark ordered O'Dell to issue an intentional walk and Clemente trotted to first with the potential winning run.

THIRD STRIKE

★ ★ ★

The victory moved the Giants back to within 1½ games of the National League leading Philadelphia Phillies, who ran afoul of Maury Wills. Wills stroked a double and single, stole two bases and started two double-plays as the Dodgers belted the Phillies 6-1.

St. Louis kept third-place Cincinnati 4½ games off the pace by beating the Reds 5-4 despite a pair of two-run homers by Deron Johnson, the Chicago Cubs whipped Milwaukee 5-1 and Houston outslugged New York 9-7 in the opener of a doubleheader before the Mets won 4-2.

★ ★ ★

The Dodgers snapped a 1-1 tie in the fourth when a single by Willie Davis, Ron Fairly's triple and a single by Nate Oliver produced two runs. Tommy Davis later homered for Los Angeles.

The Cardinals built a 4-0 lead in the first three innings against starter Jim Maloney with Curt Flood hitting a homer, but Johnson connected with a man on in the fourth and eighth innings, both off Curt Simmons.

★ ★ ★

St. Louis then broke through for the winner in its half of the eighth on two walks, sandwiched around Julian Javier's double, and a sacrifice fly by Carl Warwick.

TWO STRAIGHT

Ernie Broglio, 5-9, won his second straight for the Cubs and ended Chicago's five-game losing streak by keeping eight Milwaukee hits well scattered.

Joe Amalfitano triggered a two-run first for the Cubs with a leadoff double and singled home the final run in a two-run second inning. Billy Cowan homered for the Cubs.

The Colts slugged 19 hits in the opener, winning it in the ninth when Joe Gaines and Walt Bond doubled for the tying run and Carroll Hardy followed with the clincher by hitting his first homer of the season.

White Sox Benefit From 'Sleeper' Deals

By United Press International

Then three weeks ago the Pale Hose acquired first baseman Bill Skowron in a waiver deal that involved four players.

Both figured in Sunday's 2-1 and 3-1 doubleheader sweep of Washington that moved Chicago to within one-half game of New York and Baltimore in the tight American League pennant race.

Mossi appeared in both games in relief and worked a total of two hitless innings. Lopez, noting the southpaw's history of arm trouble and age of 34, has been using Mossi sparingly.

In 28 games he has pitched only 30 innings with an earned run average in the 2.50's, and walked a total of six men. Along with Hoyt Wilhelm, he has been a late inning stopper for Lopez.

MOVING WELL

After a disappointing year in the National League, Skowron was sent to Washington and last month moved on to Chicago. In the past three weeks he has driven in 13 runs and sports a respectable .276 average.

His third inning single in the first game scored Al Weis with what proved to be the winning run as Joel Horlen picked up his eighth win in 14 decisions, allowing only three hits in 7 1-3 innings.

Righthander Ray Herbert also went 7 1-3 innings before Mossi bailed him out. Herbert gave up six hits and one run with Jim Landis' two-run sixth inning single breaking a 1-1 tie.

Elsewhere in the American League, New York blanked Minnesota 2-0; Baltimore edged Kansas City 8 - 7; Cleveland tripped Detroit 6-1 and 2-1 and Los Angeles beat Boston 2-1.

Bulldog Jim Bouton fired his second consecutive shutout, a three-hitter blanking of Minnesota, as Hector Lopez accounted for both Yankee runs with an infield out and his eighth homer.

The Orioles won their 26th one-run game of the year on eighth inning doubles by Jackie Brandt and Norm Siebern. The Birds now trail the Yankees by five percentage points for first place.

POWELL GETS 28TH

Boog Powell knocked in four runs and belted his 28th home run in a game that featured five roundtrippers. Bert Campaneris, Jim Gentile, Manny Jimenez and Ed Charles connected in a losing cause for the A's. Steve Barber worked four innings in relief of Robin Roberts and got the win, his sixth in 14 decisions. Moe Drabowsky took the loss.

Jim Fregosi walked, went to third on Joe Adcock's single and scored on Bob Rodgers' single with two out in the ninth inning as the Angels handed Red Sox relief ace Dick Radatz his fifth defeat to go with 10 victories.

Coach Ken Silvesti of the Milwaukee Braves played in 102 major league games. He was with the Yankees two full years but played in only 16 of their American League games.

St. John Wins in PBA

ROSEVILLE, Mich. (AP) — Jim St. John, scoring heavily in match play, picked up his first victory of the 1964 Professional Bowlers Association tour, Sunday in winning the $27,500 Detroit Open.

The San Jose, Calif., pro took $3,000 in first prize money by edging veteran Dick Weber of St. Louis 9,153 to 9,063 in total pins.

Fred Lening of Fairless Hills, Pa., finished third with 8,944 pins and $1,200.

Monroe Moore of Pontiac led the tournament after the first block with 1,341 and was in 4th place after 12 games with 2,587. He finished with 8,616 total and $725.

St. John, who won four PBA titles last year, including the World Invitational at Chicago, won 12 of 16 match games for 600 bonus pins. He took the lead six games into the final round and was never in trouble.

Norm Meyers of Los Angeles, who lead all qualifiers after 24 games, won only five of 16 games in match play and wound up in 12th place after 40 games.

Steel, Space Issues Show Strength

Market Mixed in Dull Trading

NEW YORK (AP) — Some strength in steels and aerospace issues featured a mixed stock market early this afternoon. Trading was dull.

The steels were encouraged by what Wall Street regarded as warmer prospects for steel price increases, but their gains were moderate.

The aerospace issues were jogged into life by the exchange of shots between a U.S. destroyer and North Vietnamese PT boats, re-emphasizing the tense situation in the Far East.

The leading auto stocks were off a shade on balance in view of the resumption of auto industry labor talks, underlining the market's concern over possibility of an auto strike which would impede the economy's progress.

Rails and oils nudged ahead on balance. Tobaccos, drugs, mail orders and electronics were off slightly. Chemicals, nonferrous metals, building materials and utilities were irregular.

Corporate bonds were irregularly higher. U.S. Government bonds were mostly unchanged in slow trading over the counter.

A BIG LEAGUE RESTAURANT

One of Michigan's busiest and most beautiful restaurants — the best of fine chops. You don't have to be an experienced operator to handle this high-level, money-earning deal — it's with the golden touch. Would make a beautiful absentee deal. Only $65,000. Now doing $300,000 gross a year — has the building, equipment and land is really excellent the curb service business. Can easily do a half-million gross annually. If you know the restaurant business, you'll know a deal if it takes to earn this gross.

GROCERIES, BEER and WINE

Want a busy growing store with little competition in area? A store doing 100% more than $100,000 per year? A store that can grow in volume above this by some effort? A store that doesn't cost a fortune to buy? Well, here is a busy, money making store that's your answer and $4,000 down plus stock is all it takes to own this prize.

MOTEL

Beautiful location, 12 units on main highway and on lake. Has coffee shop that's always busy. Owner's Widow can no longer operate. Wants to be relieved entirely of yourself in the motel business, so very, very cheap. Has spacious 3-bedroom owners apartment, a real sacrifice with low down payment and low sales price. Will trade. # Auto Union to Resume Pact Talks

DETROIT (UPI) — The United Auto Workers Big Three in an effort to write a new three-year contract for nearly 500,000 workers.

Today's negotiations marked another deadline in the summer-long bargaining sessions which began June 30. Today is the last day that UAW locals at General Motors, Ford and Chrysler can present local issues.

In 1961, unsolved local issues caused what amounted to a nationwide strike at GM. The Aug. 3 deadline for submission of local issues was put in effect this year in order to prevent any reoccurrence of the situation.

A reliable source said Saturday that the companies planned to present their economic proposals to the union on or about Aug. 12. The source said the economic proposals would be made "about 10 days earlier than last time."

★ ★ ★

During 1961 negotiations, the Big Three laid their economic proposals on the table Aug. 27. This year the UAW is seeking the largest package of contract demands in auto history. Included among the demands were:

UNION DEMANDS

More pay, longer vacations, more paid holidays, earlier retirement and higher pensions, improved medical and hospitalization benefits, better working conditions and improved production standards.

So far during negotiations the union has made its contract demands to company bargainers.

Automotive spokesmen, notably at General Motors, have termed union demands exorbitant and said talks during the early stages were being conducted "without an aura of realism." The company, in turn, has listed suggested changes it seeks in the current contract.

Will Be Mum in Solon Fight —Romney

He said the choice is up to the voters and added, "I won't interfere."

★ ★ ★

Romney also avoided endorsing Thayer at a similar dinner recently. Thayer was Romney's legislative leader this year in his role as Senate majority leader.

WOULD CRITICIZE

★ ★ ★

State Democratic Chairman Zolton Ferenzy said Friday that Romney's presence at the Meader testimonial "will imply that he supports Meader's candidacy for reelection and that he condones Meader's voting record against such important legislation as the civil rights bill, the minimum wage bill and Peace Corps Bill."

★ ★ ★

Romney, who said he would have voted for the civil rights bill, said he believed Meader's opposition was based on procedural and legal points.

English Police Airlifted to Scene of Teen Brawls

HASTINGS, England (UPI) — Three members of Britain's first airlifted riot squad were injured today in a wild night of stone-throwing between teen - age "mods" and "rockers."

The body of a 15-year-old boy was washed ashore here this morning. Police were investigating whether it was an accidental holiday drowning or connected with the long weekend's brawls.

Twenty-three youths were arrested in the Hastings area alone.

WORD PASSED

The teen - agers and their "birds," or girlfriends, had buzzed in on motorcycles or scooters when word was passed on the grapevine that "Hastings is the place this weekend."

An estimated 7,000 teen-agers in Hastings for the three-day August bank - holiday weekend apparently were bent on restaging the battle of Hastings, in which William the Conqueror's mods defeated King Harold's rockers in 1066.

★ ★ ★

The "mods" wear long, beatle-style haircuts and velvet collars. This weekend, they far outnumbered the "rockers," who prefer black-leather jackets and blue jeans.

ALL OVER TOWN

By yesterday, the teen-agers, some of them fortified by "purple hearts" (pep pills), were mixing it up all over town.

The police, having dealt with similar mid-rocker brawls at the resorts of Clacton and Margate on previous long weekends this year, were ready with reinforcements.

Seventy policemen who had volunteered to remain on special alert for the long weekend were flown in yesterday from Northolt Air Base, near London. They joined 300 constables from Hastings and neighboring towns.

★ ★ ★

But the teen-agers, after a night on the beach in sleeping bags, and more "purple hearts" for eye-openers, were ready for more today. Authorities sent for another batch of 70 airlifted police to help deal with them.

MISCHIEF ELSEWHERE

Mischief was afoot elsewhere. Police with dogs were sent to Pagham, where 50 teen-agers smashed up a fish - and - chips shop today.

At Birchington, another coastal town near Margate, somebody broke into a drug store and stole 5,000 purple hearts.

HST Gets Copy of Act Covering Senate Address

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman was presented a framed copy of Senate Resolution No. 78 Sunday by Sen. Claiborne Pell, D-R.I.

The resolution, passed last year, allows former presidents to speak on the Senate floor. Truman was the first to take advantage of it when he addressed the Senate on his 80th birthday anniversary May 8.

"The Senate can benefit from the experience of ex-presidents," Pell said. "When a former president feels strongly about an issue, he can speak to the Senate. The influence could be important in debate on the issue."

Itinerant Acting Star Moves Way Through Life

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — It'll be Moving Day in New York Oct. 1 — due to rents being decontrolled — but George Maharis, who's moved more than anybody of his age, won't be moving this time. He's perfectly happy with his little hideaway up on West 86th St. "without a kitchen."

WILSON

"I hate kitchens," the forthright actor-singer-painter said the other day. "They're a waste of space.

"I just open the icebox and set a chair in front of it and eat there," he explained, with a bachelor's approach to life.

"Now that I can afford to take taxis, this location is fine," he continued, leading me onto a sizeable terrace. "I have lived all over this city.

He mentioned that "while doing the series" — "Route 66" — I lived in a coldwater flat on W. 49th St., six flights up, the walking up kept me in shape . . .

★ ★ ★

"There was a bathtub in the kitchen and on hot days I used to sit in the bathtub and read. The reason I left was that people used to rifle the mailboxes. You were safe from thieves, though. No thief was going to climb six flights.

"One summer I lived over a boiler. I complained to the landlord and asked for a rent reduction. It was refused. So I left.

"But before I moved, I painted the whole apartment black. I figured it was going to cost the landlord three or four times my rent to have that black painted over.

★ ★ ★

"I move to a different place when I do a new picture. In Beverly Hills while I was doing 'Quick, Before It Melts,' playing a photographer who was kind of a swinger, I had a very plush apartment with wall-to-wall everything.

"That's my way of life," he said. "I walk away."

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "A depression is that period during which we struggle to get along without the things our grandparents never dreamed of."

★ ★ ★

EARL'S PEARLS: Alimony is something that enables a woman to profit by her mistakes.

An actor, just signed for a John Wayne movie, said he's sure his role is a good one: "They're giving me almost as much ammunition as they're giving Wayne." That's earl, brother.

Dems Warned on Petitions

'May Fail in Effort to Stop Ballot Law'

DETROIT (AP) — A warning that their petition drive against the so - called "Massachusetts Ballot" may be doomed to failure was conveyed officially to Democratic party officials Sunday.

Sherwood Colburn, director of special projects for the party and coordinator of the drive, told the Democratic State Central Committee that if petitions continue to come at the present rate, "we won't even have enough to file."

A minimum of 138,800 valid signatures are needed to force a Nov. 3 referendum on the ballot change approved by the Republican-controlled legislature.

Colburn said at least 225,000 named are needed to make sure the valid minimum can be met, and as of last Thursday only 90,910 had been received and tabulated.

MINIMUM SAFETY

At least triple that number of signatures must be collected "to be in an area of minimum safety," Colburn said, because he expects state election officials to go over the signatures with "a fine-tooth comb."

Colburn said that although the filing deadline is Aug. 28, the drive has been tabbed for completion by Aug. 14 to allow enough time for his office to validate signatures and also to avoid conflict with the Democratic National Covention.

NONE AT ALL

Colburn said some counties have exceeded their quotas, based on 25 per cent of the vote they cast for the Democratic candidate for governor in 1962, but others have turned in none at all.

"A key failure thus far has been in Wayne county, where only 19 per cent of the quota of 168,000 names was turned in by last Thursday, Colburn said.

Greek Beauty Takes Miss Universe Title

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Her coronation ball was the biggest party of her life and the new Miss Universe, Kiriaki Tsopei of Greece, stayed out until almost dawn to celebrate.

One thousand people came to dance. Hundreds more milled through the hotel where the ball was held in hopes of seeing the regal 20-year old Athenian or 99 other beauties saying goodbys.

MIAMI ESCORT

Her escort was Ted Kays of Miami, an "arranged" date. In Greece, her brother Basil, 17, escorts her to parties "because it is custom." Kiriaki's brother would have been proud Sunday night and he needn't have worried. She was well chaperoned.

The problem, in fact, was too many people. Since her crowning, Kiriaki's had little time to herself.

* * *

She and 20 other contestants were almost mobbed by 2,500 enthusiastic fans at a Miami railroad station when they went to meet comedian Jackie Gleason. Another 2,000 waved them along the 15 mile route to Miami Beach.

By midafternoon, Kiriaki was "tired and hungry. My feet hurt." But she's no complainer and she took the evening round of parties well in stride.

LIKE TO SWIM

Eyeing the ocean from her hotel suite, she said, "I'd like to swim, but I haven't had time. Perhaps tomorrow."

Perhaps, but it's unlikely. There's a frantic week of picture-taking, and plans to be made for a year of traveling. Pageant officials hoped one of her first trips would be to Greece. Kiriaki hopes so too.

* * *

For Brenda Blackler of London, first runner-up and Kiriaki's stand-in in emergency, there's to be a lazy week with Uncle Frederick Blackler in Boston "then back to working at becoming an actress."

CALIFORNIA TRIP

Third place Ronit Rinat of Israel is going to travel in California and sell Israel bonds.

Also headed for California is Siv Marta Aberg of Sweden who's to visit Swedish actress Ingrid Clermont, and friend May Britt Hakanssan, both of Beverly Hills.

Fourth runner-up Lana Yi Yu, Miss Republic of China, will visit Washington, New York and San Francisco.

Adenauer Working After Summer Cold

BONN, Germany (AP) — Ex-Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, 88 years old, was back in his office today, having thrown off a summer cold.

His health had caused some concern when he canceled a weekend speaking date. He is due to leave Aug. 15 for his regular summer vacation on the shores of Lake Como in Italy.

The snythesis of insulin has been accomplished almost simultaneously in the United States and West Germany.

Chemical Fluid Used in Cattle-Branding

HYDE PARK, Vt. (AP) — A way of branding cattle by use of a chemical fluid instead of a hot metal iron has been developed by a local corporation.

Because the fluid is caustic instead of acid, the hair is said never to grow back in the branded area.

Texas has 254 counties, more than any other state.

Cows Being Leased to Dairy Farmers

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — A local corporation has gone into the business of leasing cows to dairy farmers.

Under the plan, a farmer does not have to buy the cattle but is responsible for care and maintenance.

FIRST DAY — Joseph A. Warren (center) eased himself into the Pontiac city manager's chair this morning and took the reins of the city's top administrative post. Explaining the routine of the first day on the job were John F. Reineck (left), assistant manager who has been acting manager for five months, and Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. Warren, former Jackson city manager, fills the spot vacated when Robert A. Carter resigned.

New Manager for Pontiac Takes City Hall Post Today

The big chair in the second-floor, corner office at City Hall was filled again today for the first time in five months.

Joseph A. Warren took over as Pontiac's city manager at 8 a.m.

On hand to greet him were Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. and John F. Reineck, who today resumed his duties as assistant city manager after filling in as chief administrator since last February when Robert A. Carter resigned.

★ ★ ★

VACANT OFFICE

He was involved in many programs and municipal operations similar to those here while serving as Jackson city manager for 13 years.

★ ★ ★

SIMILAR PROBLEMS

Both cities are faced with similar problems of public transportation and are involved in community renewal program and downtown revitalization projects.

Warren received his Bachelor's Degree in political science and public administration from Michigan State University and his Masters Degree in public administration from the University of Michigan.

He was administrative assistant to the Jackson city manager for 14 months, then held the city manager's post in Ashland, Wis., for three years before returning to Jackson in 1951.

If nothing else, his presence should provide some interesting banter around the administrative wing when the annual Army-Navy football game comes due.

Warren served 4½ years on active duty in World War II as a commissioned officer in the U.S. Naval Reserve, attaining the rank of lieutenant.

Paving of M59 Set This Week

Believe Completion Will Be by Sept. 1

Bituminous concrete paving of M59 between Elizabeth Lake and Airport roads is scheduled to begin this week, and indications are that the 3.4-mile widening project will be completed by Sept. 1.

As originally contracted, the controversial project wasn't scheduled for completion until next June.

The former two-lane road has been widened to five lanes, and a new bridge was built across the Clinton River.

★ ★ ★

Perry Ratliff, president of the firm, last week anticipated some delay in obtaining aggregate materials for the project, but predicted completion no later than the end of August.

ROAD OPEN

The road has been open to local traffic ever since the work was started last January.

The State Highway Department had planned to close it entirely, but businessmen bordering the road obtained a court order to keep it open to local traffic.

★ ★ ★

A dispute arose, however, over interpretation of the contract which caused some delay in scheduling the blacktopping.

U.S. Drill Nears Entombed Miners

CHAMPAGNOLE, France (AP) — A huge American-made drill advanced at the rate of three feet an hour today toward nine miners entombed for more than a week in a caved-in limestone mine.

The rescue workers said they hoped to reach the miners Wednesday.

Five other miners are missing in another part of the mine under Mt. Rivel. Officials hope one or two of the missing miners may be alive.

Aerialist Falls 85 Feet, Dies in Tiger Stadium

Victim of Second Tragedy to Befall Performers in Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—Twenty-two thousand people watched Sunday night as an aerialist fell 85 feet to his death in Detroit's flood-lighted Tiger Stadium.

Some thought as Edward Henry Knipschield, 55, of New Britain, Conn., spun toward his death that surely there was a safety rope around an ankle that would break the fall. There wasn't.

And "Captain Eddie," as Knipschield billed himself for his 100-foot high act on a swaying pole, became the victim of Detroit's second tragedy to befall an aerial performance in the last two and a half years.

It was in Detroit's Fairgrounds Coliseum Jan. 30, 1962, that the human pyramid of the "Flying Wallendas" came apart on a high wire and two died and another was paralyzed for life. Three injured lived to perform again.

★ ★ ★

BROKEN STRAP?

Herbert M. Boldt, a veteran Detroit News reporter, said a strap apparently broke as Knipschield started a spin, foot-in-loop and face down from a horizontal bar 85 feet up his 100-foot, thin and swaying pole. He was performing at the close of Detroit's police field day.

"Suddenly," Boldt said, "He fell free of the loop. As he fell his body kept turning in the same direction he'd been spinning on the pole.

★ ★ ★

Rudy Klanseck Jr., 15, said it appeared to him "Captain Eddie" was twirling by his teeth from a strap when either the strap broke or he lost his grip.

BROKEN LOOP

Beef Up Naval Force

U. S. Destroyer Attacked By Torpedo Boats

LBJ Orders Destruction of Any Attackers

Issued in Aftermath of U. S. Ship Assault by Red Viet Boats

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has ordered U.S. Naval forces beefed up in the Tonkin Gulf area, off Viet Nam, and has ordered them to destroy any force that attacks them.

He said the orders were issued yesterday in the aftermath of the assault on the U.S. destroyer Maddox by three North Vietnamese patrol torpedo boats.

Johnson said the commanders of combat aircraft and destroyers in the area where yesterday's attack occurred — in international waters — have been told "to attack any force which attacks them in international waters and to attack them not only with the objective of driving off the attack force but of destroying them."

EMPHASIS TO ORDER

With emphasis in his tone, the President said that these orders "will be carried out."

- To continue the patrols in the Gulf of Tonkin off the coast of North Viet Nam.
- To double the force by adding an additional destroyer to the one already on patrol.

★ ★ ★

- To provide a combat air patrol over the destroyers.
- To issue the orders to drive off and destroy any force which attacks the U.S. force.

According to the Navy, the Maddox was on patrol in international waters about 30 miles off the North Vietnamese coast when three unmarked PT boats opened fire with torpedoes and 37-millimeter cannon.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy Backers Tied to Rise

FDR Jr. Moving Up VP List?

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Political crystal ball-gazers speculated today on a possible new entry in the Democratic vice presidential sweepstakes — Undersecretary of Commerce Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr.

Reports yesterday indicated that Roosevelt, son of the former president and one of the architects of President Johnson's War on Poverty program, may have gained support from backers of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy for the No. 2 spot on the ticket in November.

Johnson ruled out Kennedy last week as a potential vice presidential nominee along with five other Cabinet-level officials.

According to the reports, serious consideration of Roosevelt would be a means of soothing some of the more ardent Kennedy supporters, who were angered by the President's action.

★ ★ ★

ACTIVE CAMPAIGNER

He was an active campaigner for Kennedy in the late president's important 1960 West Virginia primary victory over Senate Democratice whip Hubert Humphrey, Minn., who is considered high on the list of potential vice presidential candidates.

In his role as one of the drafters of the poverty program, Roosevelt accompanied Johnson's tour of the economically depressed Southern areas earlier this year.

★ ★ ★

'GLAD TO WORK'

The addition of Roosevelt's name to the list of vice presidential contenders came as Robert Kennedy said "he would be glad to work" in Johnson's campaign.

In a reference to reports he was considering becoming Johnson's campaign manager, the attorney general told newsmen "I would be glad to be actively involved in the campaign," but said that his specific role had not been decided.

★ ★ ★

The attorney general said he and his brother had discussed politics, including his elimination as a vice presidential prospect.

★ ★ ★

"We discussed all those matters, but I won't go into it right now," said Kennedy.

Scientists Start Analyzing Ranger Moon Pictures

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Scientists began to sift the evidence today of the most important 13 minutes and 40 seconds in the history of man's inquiry into the nature of the moon. But those 13 minutes and 40 seconds may take years to analyze fully.

★ ★ ★

In that short space of time Friday morning, between an 80-second camera warmup period and the death plunge of the Ranger 7 into the moon, scientists received 4,316 close-range photographs of the moon's craggy face.

Man has not been shown so much about the moon, particularly in so short a time span, since Galileo first peered at it through his homemade telescope in the early 1600s.

SHOWED MARKS

These pictures showed, like pores on a human face, the tiniest pockmarks on the moon's crust. The smallest was only 18 inches across — about the size of a wash basin.

Today, scientists planned to launch a detailed study of the more than 4,000 other photographs.

★ ★ ★

They did not believe, on examination of the first photographs, that significant modifications will be necessary in manned moonships now being built by the United States.

CNB Announces $2-Million Expansion

Community National Bank today announced one of the largest bank expansions in Oakland County history valued at more than $2 million.

Plans call for the construction of three new branches, new offices for two existing branches, and remodeling of one of CNB's pioneer branch units.

A. C. Girard, bank president, termed the extensive program an "expression of confidence in the healthy economic climate of this area."

It will be used to replace present offices at 16 W. Flint, Lake Orion, and in North Hill shopping center in Rochester, and to establish branches on Maple, west of Telegraph in Bloomfield Township, and at 14 Mile and Mound in Macomb County.

Each building will have 3,000 square feet of space, seven interior teller stations and outside drive-in windows. Customer safe deposit booths and a conference room will be available at each office.

The Lake Orion branch will be located west on Flint Street and will occupy a blockwide site extending to Shadbolt.

CNB will establish a third new branch at Maple and Orchard Lake in West Bloomfield Township. Its design is still in the planning stage.

CLOSING IN — Earl Morrall, quarterback of the White team in the intra-squad game Saturday night at U. of D. Stadium, has to hasten to get rid of the ball as Bill Quinlan (83) and Darris McCord (in background) close in on him. The defensive units dominated the game played before 18,000 fans.

Blues Defeat Whites, 10-0 Before 18,000

Plum's Field Goal, TD Pass Accounts for All Scoring

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

When the Detroit Lions' defense is healthy and in peak form it's tough enough for quarterbacks like John Unitas, Bart Starr and Billy Wade to get through a game unmarked.

The Blues, directed by Plum won a 10-0 intra-squad game over the White Saturday night at U. of D. Stadium before 18,000 fans and the defensive units of both teams stole the show.

The biggest cheer of the night from the shirt-sleeved crowd went up when Alex Karras, playing for the White team, shot through on the second play of the game to smear Plum.

Neither side could muster any kind of running game and with the hard charging defensive units, the passing attack was also below par.

Morrall connected on only nine of 23 for 66 yards and Plum nine of 22 for 115 yards.

Actually, the passers' percentages would have been much better but several passes were dropped by receivers.

MISS FIELD GOAL

In the first period, Plum tried a field goal from the 47-yard line, but it was actually 57 yards since the goal posts were 10 yards behind the goal line.

It would have been good had the ball been moved 10 yards closer to compensate for the position of the goal posts, because it dropped just short.

In the 4th quarter, Plum hit Terry Barr for a 17-yard touchdown to account for the scoring.

★ ★ ★

Nick Ryder, at fullback for the Blues led his unit's running with 23 yards in six carries while Dan Lewis had 22 yards in as many tries.

Larry Ferguson gained 28 yards in three attempts, Dan Watkins had 11 yards in five tries for the White team.

In pass receiving, for the Blues Terry Barr has three for 40 yards, Cogdill one for 8 yards, McInnis two for 27, Ryder two for 25 and Lewis one for 11; for the Whites, Warren Wells had three for 33, Studstill three for 23, Watkins two for 3 and Batten one for seven.

Immediately after the game, Wilson announced that the roster was trimmed to 51 when defensive backs Tom Hall and rookie Bruce Zellmer were traded to the Minnesota Vikings for an undisclosed draft choice.

Both Hall and Zellmer are from the state of Minnesota.

Strong Tennis Field Left in County Open

The strongest array of singles and doubles tennis players will go into the final two rounds of the Oakland County Open tennis tournament next weekend at Oakland University courts.

The 5th annual tournament sponsored by The Pontiac Press and Pontiac Recreation department completed play through the quarterfinals yesterday and three of the top rated teams have advanced in doubles.

Defending champions Ralph Alee and Dick Mineweaser had close matches in defeating Bob Lorenz and John Slater, 6-4 and 6-2 in the second round and Norm Prance and Sam Walker III in the quarterfinals, 7-5 and 6-4.

LOWER BRACKET

In the lower bracket, Leon Hibbs and Bill Goff got by Charles Crampton and Bill Morgan, 6-1 and 6-2 in a semi-final match but in a finals match, they were defeated by Northville pair, Tom Long and Dakrin Ornekian, 9-7 and 7-5.

Long and Ornekian have established themselves as doubles favorites and will await the winner of the upper bracket semi-finals for next Sunday's finale at 2:30 p.m.

Long, a teammate of Ornekian's at Northville is also a strong singles' choice. He whipped Leedy, 6-1 and 6-4 in the quarterfinals and will meet Prance in next Saturday's semi-finals.

In the other lower bracket match, Hibbs, the 1962 singles' champion faces Jerry Bunce in the simi-finals, while in the upper bracket Crampton meets Alee and Ornekian meets Bruce Gould.

QUARTER FINAL ROUND

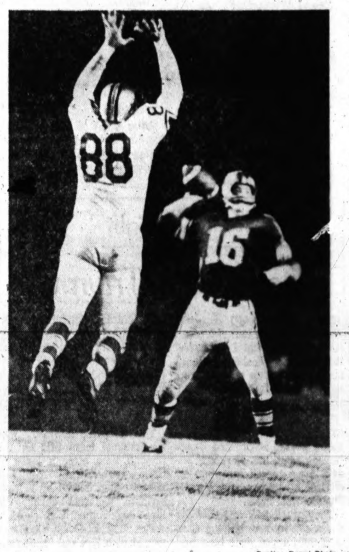

Crampton def. Mineweaser, 8-6 and 6-2; Alee def. Flore, 6-0 and 6-0; Gould won on def. over Parrot; Ornekian def. Murphy, 6-2 and 6-2; Hibbs def. Bigler, 6-1 and 6-2; Bunce def. Mehas, 6-2 and 6-3; France def. Lewis, 6-1 and 6-1; T. Long def. Leedy, 6-1 and 6-2.

Doubles

Prance-Walker def. Ohlwiler, 6-4 and 6-1; Alee-Mineweaser def. Lorenz-Slater, 6-4 and 6-2; Wawiatak-Leedy def. Andrews-Bunce, 6-1 and 6-2; Taylor-Taliercio def. Long-Parrott on def.; Hibbs-Goff def. Bigler-Lewis, 6-0 and 6-1; Crampton-Morgan def. Davisson-Walters 6-1 and 6-1; T. Long-Ornekian def. Mehas-MacLean, 6-1 and 6-2.

Semi-Final Round

'Little Things' by Tigers Costly

Indians Dump Bengals Twice

Sparma 2-1 Victim of 11-Inning Nightcap

The Detroit Tigers found out just how much the lesser aspects of the game can mean Sunday when they dropped 6-1 and 2-1 decisions to the Cleveland Indians before 8,980 customers.

★ ★ ★

In the opener, Jerry Lumpe was a step too slow in getting to a line-drive single by Leon Wagner and it was a play that paved the way for a three-run Indian uprising that cost the Tigers the victory.

ONE OF SEVERAL

A walk by Joe Sparma was one of several "little things" that occurred to the Tigers in the 11th inning of the nightcap and cost them another game.

The double setback dropped the Tigers deeper into the American League's second division. They trail the New York Yankees by 15½ games and fourth-place Los Angeles by 4½.

Detroit has lost five of its last six games and nine of its last dozen contests.

The Tigers were off today and Dave Wickersham was named by manager Charlie Dressen to hurl Tuesday night's game against the White Sox in Chicago.

In the first game, the Tigers and Tribe were deadlocked, 1-1 when Dick Howser led off the third inning with a walk. Wagner then lined a ball just out of the reach of Lumpe. Two outs followed and had Lumpe grabbed the ball Ed Rakow would have been out of the inning.

ADD 2 MORE

But, the Indians scored three runs with the aid of two more singles and an error by Dick McAuliffe. Cleveland added two more runs off Phil Regan to wrap up the win.

The second-game loss was an even tougher decision for the Tigers to take because they should have won the game.

★ ★ ★

Wagner leaped against the leftfield fence in the sixth inning to rob Al Kaline of a homer that would have given the Tigers a nine-inning triumph.

But, the game lasted for 11 innings and that's when the Tigers folded. Following another error by McAuliffe, a sacrifice and a single, Joe Sparma walked Tito Francona to load the bases.

A BIG PLAY

"You can't blame Sparma for losing the game," Dressen said. "But, that walk was a big play. It made us play the next two batters with our infield and outfield pulled in."

★ ★ ★

But, there was only one batter — Larry Brown. He blooped a fly that fell between Lumpe and Kaline. Kaline picked up the ball and made a force play at second base, but that was only the second out and the winning run had scored.

Palmer Loses Race With Aussies' Nagel

Nagle, a 43-year-old Australian with powderpuff drives and pinpoint irons, first outraced Palmer in the 1960 British Open when he beat golfing's master by one stroke.

He outran him again Sunday, slashing four strokes off the 7,090-yard Pinegrove course's par 71 and won the $50,000 Canadian Open Golf Championship with a 72-hole total of 277. Palmer, despite his patented finish, was two shots behind this time at 279.

★ ★ ★

"This fellow has got in my way before," Palmer told a presentation ceremony that awarded Nagle $7,500 for his first North American tournament victory and Arnie $4,000 for his fourth second-place finish this year.

Nagle turned in scores of 73 and 71 for the first two rounds, but blazed home on the second half with rounds of 66 Saturday and Sunday.

BLAZES HOME

Nagle went into the final round one stroke behind Palmer, Bill Collins of Grossinger, N.Y., and Ray Floyd of St. Andrews, Ill. Firing birdies on the second, fifth and sixth holes, he overtook the leaders and began setting his own pace.

★ ★ ★

Palmer missed seven putts of four feet or less but climbed right back into the big money with an amazing finish.

He knocked in a 15-footer on the 16th for a birdie, launched a second shot to within three feet of the pin on 17 and dropped it for another bird, and almost scored another on the 18th but missed a seven-foot putt.

Palmer, whose first tournament victory was the 1955 Canadian Open, wound up with a one-under 70 to edge Floyd for second. Floyd, with 280, earned $3,300 and Dan Sikes Jr. of Ponte Vedra, Fla., picked up $2,900 for fourth at 281.

Five players were tied for fifth place at 282. Jack Nicklaus, Jay Hebert, Gary Player, Collins and Billy Casper each earned $2,080.

Hutch Completes Hospital Tests; May Join Club

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds team physician said Sunday night that no definite time has been decided for the release of Manager Fred Hutchinson from Christ Hospital.

Dr. George Ballou said there's a possibility Hutch will be out the first of the week.

Dr. Ballou said Hutchinson is "feeling fairly good, resting well and we're through with tests for the present time."

Hutchinson, who has a chest cancer, entered the hospital last Monday. Results of the tests will not be made public, Dr. Ballou said.

Hornung Stars in Scrimmage

By United Press International

★ ★ ★

Not that he's not on schedule. He is. In fact, Coach Vincent Lombardi says, "he's in the best condition he's been in since I've been here."

★ ★ ★

Lombardi is starting his sixth year with the Packers and last year was the only year he was without Hornung, the running, passing and kicking star of the National Football League.

Hornung made his first start before the home folks in two years during the weekend and led the offense to a 16-9 win over the defense in the Packers annual intra-squad game.

The first time he carried the ball he galloped for 22 yards and when he came back to the huddle he received a standing ovation from the 20,000 fans on hand.

The ovation was even louder later when he kicked a 47-yard field goal and when he sparked the offense on a 70-yard drive by catching two of the three passes he caught in the game, the stands exploded.

"I felt pretty good for the first time out," said Hornung. I've always been a slow starter. I've always had to work to get in shape. The only way to get in shape is by contact. I hope to get better."

The Chicago Bears worked for 1½ hours in 100-degree heat on timing and passing plays Sunday.
