

Tentative OK Gained in Radio-TV Dispute; Terms Not Revealed

NEW YORK (AP) — Negotiators reached tentative settlement today in the nation's first radio and television strike that put celebrities on picket lines and programming on a schedule of old films and reruns. The strike began March 29.

Terms of the agreement between the American Federation of Radio and Television Artists and ABC, CBS and NBC were not revealed pending a union vote. But shirt-sleeved bargainers laughed and shook hands as the settlement was announced at 6 a.m. today after a session that began at 11 a.m. Sunday.

Pickets still walked outside NBC at Rockefeller Center in New York City, however, and mediators would not say if the lines would be withdrawn. No date was announced for the union vote on acceptance.

"The strike is still on," one picket said.

Immediately involved in the settlement was the fate of the motion picture Academy Award show, scheduled for tonight on ABC. It was not known if arrangements could be made to broadcast the show.

MEET WITH MEDIATOR

Observers said a break in the talks came at 3 a.m. when the parties met jointly with federal mediator Ralph C. Patterson. They talked for an hour and 20 minutes, then separated with a network spokesman announcing: "The union people will call us when they want us."

IN TUNE — Sen. Philip A. Hart (right) and George Googasian, Oakland County Democratic chairman, gather around Dr. Howard McNeill while he plays the organ during a reception for Hart in McNeill's Bloomfield Hills home Saturday. The party preceded a dinner in honor of Hart at Oakland University.

Hart Sees 1-Man, 1-Vote Fight

By JIM LONG

A new and bitter fight is brewing over the one-man, one-vote legislative apportionment concept, according to Sen. Philip A. Hart.

Hart's warning came at a speech delivered at a dinner in his honor at Oakland University Saturday night.

Some 800 persons paid $5 each to give tribute to the Oakland County Democrat making it the most successful in the 10 years that the event has been held.

An advocate of the Supreme Court ruling which called for reapportionment, Hart said the looming battle would likely be confusing.

"I would feel more confident about the outcome if the opposition forces were not headed by Sen. (Everett) Dirksen, whose skill and eloquence have never been in question," said Hart.

FILIBUSTER BLOCK

Dirksen was blocked by a Senate filibuster last year in his attempt to have Congress pass a constitutional amendment and is now trying to overturn the court's decision with a constitutional convention called by the states.

Hart said that so far 32 of required 34 states legislatures have asked for a convention.

"The law," he explained "requires that Congress shall call a convention upon the application of two-thirds of the states."

"But are all the applications valid?" Hart asked.

HAS DOUBTS

He said he doubts it because in many cases state legislatures passed their resolutions before they were reapportioned in accordance with the Supreme Court ruling.

The Dirksen proposal, Hart said would allow one house of a state legislature to be apportioned on the basis of land area instead of strictly on population.

"Basically, the issue stems from the rapid growth of cities and suburbs and the understandable desire of rural areas to conserve their diminishing political power," Hart added.

"But I think each citizen should have the same voice in government regardless of what part of the state he lives in. 'And I think the Michigan Legislature is wise, indeed, in not joining the constitutional clamor,'" said Hart.

On other issues, Hart said he was opposed to the administration's gun bill, and that he would only support a measure that did not include "long guns."

"Concealed weapons are the things we should make tough to get," said Hart, adding that the present proposal would unduly hurt the sportsman.

U.S. May Open Door for More Latin Trade

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (AP)—The United States, besieged by clamor for bigger Latin shares of U.S. markets, left the door open a crack today, with the hint that President Johnson may offer this gift at the summit.

While refusing to open a special door through U.S. trade barriers, Secretary of State Dean Rusk did agree after 11 wearing hours of bargaining in a presummit conference to permit Alliance for Progress dollars to be spent outside the United States.

Rusk insisted to his tired colleagues, however, that this could be done only "to the maximum extent consistent with the balance of payment position of the capital exporting countries."

The possibility that President Johnson might breach the protective wall around U.S. markets for the Latin Americans could be read between the words of U.S. officials sources.

One such source two days ago said in answer to a reporter's question about Latin trade preference, "I don't think I ought to scoop the President."

MAJOR CONCESSION

The alliance spending agreement stood as a major concession by Rusk.

Earlier, a U.S. official source said alliance dollars could be spent only for U.S. goods and services "because of the balance of payments."

The United States gave in after foreign ministers of the hemisphere harped in speech after speech on the need for preferential entry into U.S. markets by Latin products and commodities.

Rusk hoped his alliance spending back-up might stem the rising demands for access to U.S. markets.

Since trade represents 98 per cent of Latin income and aid only 2 per cent, it appeared somewhat a calculated risk.

This and other stubborn snags still faced the ministers as they went into closed-door bargaining again today, the pace stepped up as American presidents began arriving for their summit confrontation beginning in 48 hours.

"If grown-ups were as generous with their dimes as they are with advice, we'd have it made."

NASA Chief: Apollo Errors Can Be Solved

WASHINGTON (AP) — James E. Webb, administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said today that errors had been found in the Apollo spacecraft program but the Apollo team is capable of overcoming them.

Webb said the astronauts themselves are confident that deficiencies pointed out by a NASA review board which investigated the Jan. 27 spacecraft fire that killed three astronauts will be overcome so that the spacecraft is safe to operate.

Webb was the first witness called by Rep. Olin E. Teague, D-Tex., at a hearing by the House subcommittee on NASA oversight which will look into the review board findings.

Meanwhile, a committee member, Rep. Ken Hechler, D-W. Va., said that NASA's Apollo spacecraft manufacturer, North American Aviation, Inc., and other contractors need a shake-up.

He said the review board report, released yesterday, will surely produce such a shakeup.

SHOWED COURAGE

Hechler said NASA had shown courage and candor in setting up an independent review board and giving it a free hand.

Hechler called for sweeping changes and a tightening up of administration.

He said that unless the deficiencies pointed out in program management, contract relationships and relations between NASA centers are aggressively corrected, other aspects of the space program will suffer.

Webb said the difficulty in organizing the strength of more than 20,000 contractors and 400,000 men and women in industrial fields has prevented establishment of a clean-cut operating pattern that could be adhered to without change.

BUSY SCHEDULE

Teague said the hearings would continue morning, afternoon and night in an effort to complete the inquiry quickly.

Declaring that the report brought out almost incredible laxness, Teague said he noted particularly that:

- No features for fire protection has been incorporated into the design of the Apollo spacecraft.

- Noncertified equipment had been installed in the command module, the small compartment occupied by Astronauts Virgil I. Grissom, Edward White II and Roger Chaffee.

- "There was all kinds of carelessness, and some of it was unbelievable," Teague said.

High Winds Howl Into Pontiac Area

Northwest winds at 15 to 35 miles howled into the Pontiac area this morning, showing spring and its balmy temperatures into the background.

The weatherman predicts the return to wintertime weather will persist through tomorrow. Tonight's low will fall in the 25-to-32 range.

The moderate gale winds will diminish by tonight, leaving clear skies with the promise of sunshine tomorrow.

Spring will return Wednesday with increasing cloudiness, higher temperatures and a chance of showers.

LOW READING

Low temperature in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. was 36. By 2 p.m. the mercury climbed to a brisk 41.

Following the Wednesday warming trend, temperatures will remain 4 to 7 degrees above the normal high of 45 until the weekend. Showers totaling one-half inch rainfall are expected.

State Feels Truck Slowdown

By The Associated Press

A nationwide lockout of Teamsters Union drivers caused an almost immediate slowdown today on Michigan business and industry.

Ford Motor Co., one of the nation's Big Three auto makers, said its truck plant at Wayne was placed on two four-hour shifts instead of the normal two eight-hour shifts to "conserve the flow of incoming parts."

At two other Ford plants — the Dearborn assembly plant and Econo-line assembly plant at Lorain, Ohio — all overtime was eliminated to conserve materials.

A spokesman for General Motors Corp. said all of its plants would continue in full operation today, but added that the outlook for tomorrow was uncertain.

"This might affect some of our plants, but it's too early to say which ones," he said.

STILL CHECKING

Chrysler, the third member of the Big Three, said it was checking into the situation. American Motors had a similar comment.

Auto company spokesmen said it was too early to ascertain the long-range effect the lockout might have on production because it was not known just how many trucking firms would shut down.

The lockout was called by Trucking Employers Inc. in a move it said was in retaliation for scattered strikes around the nation by Teamsters.

The employers and Teamsters are deadlocked in Washington in negotiations for a new national contract.

MOST COMPLAINING

David Johnson, secretary-treasurer of Teamsters Local 299 in Detroit, said it appeared that nearly all major firms in Michigan are complying with the lockout request.

A survey of firms in the Upper Peninsula showed that firms taking part in the shutdowns included Gen Denning Motors of Ironwood, Olson Transportation of Escanaba, Short Freight Lines of Sault Ste. Marie, and Clairmont Transfer in Escanaba.

As elsewhere around the state, truck traffic in and out of Grand Rapids slowed down, although many large independent operators continued to operate. Only major truck lines have been affected so far.

Dar Darling, president of Darling Freight, Inc., said he was still operating on advice of the firm's labor attorneys.

STILL OPERATING

"We're operating, but we don't know for how long," he said.

Darling has about 300 trucks and employees about 110 Teamster Union members.

Another Grand Rapids operator, Interstate System, shut down yesterday. But M. M. Noblet, vice president in charge of operations, said the employers group has set up a system of communications to move perishable freight, drugs and other emergency items.

Some 150 Lansing area truck drivers were locked out.

Alleged Slayer Due Extradition

Donald V. O'Brien of Pontiac, who escaped from the Ionia State Hospital two weeks ago and was captured in Texas Saturday, is awaiting extradition to Michigan where he will be questioned in the rape-murder of a 10-year-old girl.

O'Brien was apprehended by Odessa, Tex., police who said they were acting on a tip.

He was accused of slaying little Roma Cypher of Grand Ledge by fellow escapee Donald Ringler, 35, who surrendered to police Thursday at his mother's home in Sturgis.

Rona was found raped and strangled April 1 in the Grand River, several hours after disappearing while on an errand from her grandparents' house.

Ringler reportedly told police he knew O'Brien had killed the girl, but officers said there was doubt as to whether Ringler could have known O'Brien's whereabouts at the time of the murder.

HAD BEEN TOGETHER

Police said O'Brien and Ringler had been together from the time of their escape from Ionia March 26 until they separated in Grand Ledge the morning of April 1.

Michigan Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said O'Brien will be brought to Michigan to face an escape charge. Extradition proceedings could delay his return until the end of the week.

O'Brien, committed from Pontiac as a criminal sexual psychopath in 1963, Ringler and two patients committed from Detroit saved their way out of the hospital while other inmates were watching a movie.

CAPTURED SOON AFTER

Daniel Grzywinski, 38, and William Hayes, 41, were captured by Brighton police three days later.

An Ionia farmer identified Ringler and O'Brien as the men who tied him up and stole his truck March 29, according to police. The truck was later found in Grand Ledge.

O'Brien was committed to Ionia after being charged with the sex murder of a 55-year-old Pontiac woman and at least five other assaults on women.

Drug May Stop Coronary Clots

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A Denver physician today reported a possible breakthrough toward developing oral drugs that might help eliminate "our worst killer" — blood clots that cause coronary heart attacks.

Describing development of a series of new, synthetic compounds that can dissolve abnormal blood clots in the test tube, Dr. Kurt N. Von Kaula of the University of Colorado School of Medicine told the 153rd national meeting of the American Chemical Society.

"Grounds for optimism now exist that oral-administered synthetic drugs can be developed which will dissolve intravascular blood clots."

"Such clots are the cause of fatal heart attacks by occlusion blockage of the coronary artery, and are annually responsible for several hundred thousand deaths in the United States... and the crippling of an equal number more."

He added in his report: "It is emphasized that the new drugs are not yet ready for clinical use and, in fact, have not been tested beyond the laboratory test tube. New findings, however, indicate the opening of promising pathways of attack on a major medical problem."

At the same meeting, Dr. Manfred E. Wolf of the University of California Medical Center, San Francisco, reported apparent solution of a 200-year-old mystery as to how the drug digitalis works against heart failure.

He said the finding constitutes "a major breakthrough" toward developing new, synthetic drugs having digitalis-like action, but conceivably offering greater effectiveness than the natural drug.

Digitalis, an extract of the purple foxglove plant, has been used since the 18th century to make a failing heart work more efficiently. It strengthens and slows the heart beat, but the chemistry of its action long has been a riddle.

CONVENTIONAL TREATMENT
Von Kaula said that, at present, conventional treatment aimed at dissolving potentially harmful clots calls for use of natural chemicals called enzymes.

He said this method is "extremely expensive and very cumbersome" can only be applied in selected hospital centers to a minute fraction of patients who could benefit from it; and cannot be applied on a preventive basis.

He said further development of the new drugs is being accelerated.

LBJ: Extend Rail Cool-Off
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson asked Congress today to extend for 20 days the no-strike period for railway shop workers that ends at 12:01 a.m. Thursday.

Senate Democratic leader Charles McNamara told an informal news conference that the complete agreement at a three-hour White House meeting of congressional leaders on this proposal to head off a strike when the railway labor law's present 60-day cooling off period ends.

Early this year the Pentagon chief said he expected draft calls the first six months of this year to be on the order of 101,000 men. Today's announced call for June provides a total considerably lower — 87,000. For the same six month period last year 177,000 men were inducted.

of the Colorado research could lead to these advances:

1. Development of pills that could be administered orally on a preventive basis to dissolve possibly dangerous clots. Such drugs would not interfere with the normal clotting of the blood, that occurs for example, to stop bleeding from a cut.

2. Creation of improved, more potent anti-inflammatory drugs for treating diseases like rheumatoid arthritis, gout and related conditions.

He indicated that the latter possibility is suggested by a finding that certain drugs long employed against arthritis and related conditions also have ability to dissolve unwanted blood clots.

At the same meeting, Dr. Manfred E. Wolf of the University of California Medical Center, San Francisco, reported apparent solution of a 200-year-old mystery as to how the drug digitalis works against heart failure.

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese military rulers are expected to put off announcement of their candidate for president until new election laws are written late this month or early in May.

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky said he and Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu are the only possible military candidates, and expected to put off announcement of their candidate for president until new election laws are written late this month or early in May.

Presidential balloting is scheduled Sept. 1 under the new constitution framed by the 117-member Constituent Assembly to return Vietnam to civilian rule. The assembly began meeting on the election laws Thursday but was sidetracked by a demand by militant Roman Catholics that a reference to a "Supreme Being" be restored to the final version of the constitution's preamble.

The assembly issued a statement today affirming the constitution's "religious basis" and expressing the assembly's "deep concern to the Supreme Being of all religions." The statement was offered as a compromise by Chairman Phan Khac Suu, who said it was too late to amend the constitution.

REWARD RAISED
The Detroit News, which originally offered a $2,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the rapist, raised its offer to $5,000 following today's shooting.

Miss Ross told police that a man dragged her into an alley as she walked to her eighth grade classes at St. Francis School at 7:50 a.m.

As she struggled, the girl said, the man struck her over the head and on the body with a pistol and the gun discharged.

The man then fled in a car parked in the alley.

Doctors said Miss Ross appeared to have suffered several broken ribs.

She staggered to a nearby house for help, and police took her to a hospital.

Oscar Winners Named Tonight

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The 39th annual Academy Award contest approached its climax tonight with "A Man for All Seasons" and "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" as the favorites to win.

Although "Virginia Woolf" scored 13 nominations, "A Man for All Seasons" appeared to have a slight edge to dominate the ceremonies at Santa Monica Civic Auditorium. The recipient of Sir Thomas More's martyrdom was nominated in eight categories.

Although negotiators announced a tentative agreement in the performers' strike against the television networks early today, TV broadcast depended on ratification of the agreement.

A source close to the union said indications are that the Oscars on ABC-TV will be permitted to go if the tentative strike settlement is approved by the AFTRA national board. If it does not approve it, the strike will go on, but the Oscar show will not.

72 Scholarships

DEARBORN (AP) — Seventy-two high school seniors in 14 states have won four-year scholarships from the Ford Motor Co. Fund. The scholarships are limited to sons and daughters of employees of Ford Motor Co. and its affiliates. The 72 winners were selected by educators from 1,500 candidates. Michigan led the awards list with 25 winners.

Commission Will Hold Organizational Meeting

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission will hold its organizational meeting today to elect a mayor and mayor pro tem.

Robert W. Page, reelected to the commission last week, is presently mayor, serving his second one-year term in the office.

Mayor pro tem is William E. Roberts.

In addition to the election, Page and Commissioner Charles W. Clippert, also successful in his bid for reelection, will be given the oath of office.

They were elected to three-year terms.

PUBLIC HEARINGS
Two public hearings also are scheduled for the 8 p.m. meeting.

They include the rezoning of a lot on the north side of Bessieville east of Woodward from two-family residential to parking; and the revision of use regulations in B-4 zone classifications.

A hearing to vacate an alley south of Hazel between Elm and Hunter was scheduled for this evening but will be postponed until June.

The city attorney, in researching the title, has found there is a problem in determining the exact owners of the property. A title search will be required.

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Police Sgt. Richard Reuther has been promoted to lieutenant in charge of the traffic department effective immediately.

The announcement was made today by Chief Newton Tubbs.

Reuther, 36, joined the department Oct. 1, 1966. He, his wife and two children reside at 4605 Welland, West Bloomfield Township.

Jury Sworn In for Coppolino

NAPLES, Fla. (AP) — A jury of 12 men was sworn today to try Dr. Carl Coppolino for murder of his wife, Carmela.

Francis Gidley, a retired contractor and one of five retired on the jury, was chosen to fill a vacancy left when a member of the panel selected Friday pleaded hardship today and was excused.

As both sides questioned prospective jurors, lawyers for Coppolino claimed that the state's evidence is not strong enough to warrant the death penalty.

Coppolino is accused of murdering his first wife, Carmela, with drug injections.

OBJECTION
Chief defense counsel F. Lee Bailey objected to prosecutor Frank Schaub's demand to know whether jury candidates could return a verdict based on circumstantial evidence.

"The state should ask for the death penalty if it intends to continue that line of testimony," said Bailey. "But Mr. Schaub knows the evidence is not strong enough to warrant asking the death penalty."

It Seems to Me . . .

Horse-and-Buggy Streets, Income Tax Not for City

An unexpected but highly vexatious problem arises in connection with Pontiac's paved streets that "may have to be covered with gravel instead of repaired."

This seems unthinkable.

Of course, cold cash doesn't suddenly evolve from the murky atmosphere and the bill has to be faced and faced squarely. The ravages of the past winter are probably the greatest in the history of most American cities. Practically all of them have been hit — and hit hard.

We're pretty much alike.

But we can't fold up.

Water and excess snow have been one of the great sources of disaster and apparently this area has escaped the worst assaults from such a devastating source.

If this city made gravel streets out of our paved thoroughfares, I'm afraid the fact might be chronicled from one end of the Nation to the other. Wouldn't we be plastered with the lamentable charge of absolute civic retrogression? We might set a record of the wrong type.

This is just part of the general problem that faces so many cities today. Costs have skyrocketed beyond income in an appalling manner everywhere. The need for additional taxes is so apparent there can be no debate. The only problem is this:

HOW?

The City Commission wants to come up with the method most acceptable to the largest number of taxpayers. It's that simple—or that complex. I vote for the latter.

The Commission has a hand-picked group of honest and capable citizens studying the problem in all of its manifold ramifications. This group has been working diligently to evolve the most satisfactory answer.

Personally, I doubt whether the income tax is the solution. We already have one monstrous Federal income tax around our individual and collective necks. The State of Michigan has a second one up its sleeve and Michigan needs funds as badly as the municipalities do. If the State imposes a tax, unless this embraces some relief for cities, a third Income tax would have very dubious appeal.

People would rebel.

I think the ten mill limitation should be lifted and increased assessments allowed to answer the question.

The argument against this says: "those who don't live in the City won't have to pay." This is true, but they pay where they live. The income tax ignores the hundreds of million of dollars of property owned by General Motors and all our other businesses. Income tax supporters say their tax method would reach the heads of all Pontiac businesses who live outside the City the property assessment doesn't.

That's true but if the income tax were used, these outside residents would only pay half of what those do who live in town. And does anyone think the sum total of this equals the valuation of a property tax on General Motors and the hundreds of other businesses? If the assessed value of property is used, all business face the increase 100% alike. It doesn't matter where the owners live.

There's no perfect solution.

But the method that appeals to me the most is the property increase as I think it's the fairest and the simplest to levy and collect.

Some small taxpayers say, "those with the bigger incomes will have to pay more tax than we do." That's true. But it's also true that those who live in bigger homes pay more property tax.

The Nation collects a staggering income tax already. And if the State collects a second, I doubt whether there will be any universal cheering on the part of the citizens in general for a third bite out of this same torturing piece of pie.

I air the views of one man.

But they're the views of a taxpayer who pays taxes on his home right here in Pontiac and who pays taxes on a business right here in Pontiac. My managerial associates here at The Press live inside the City and outside. They're affected both ways. And yet they agree with the problem as I've tried to state it here.

Power of the Press . . .

Attending a meeting of the Inter American Press Association at Montego Beach, Jamaica, leaves me with an even firmer conviction on one vital matter.

The publications of this hemisphere are the greatest protection we possess against communism and dictators. All international stumblebumps in these categories hate us mightily. We're their number one foe. And they know it.

The defense of this hemisphere rests in active, assertive and even belligerent action when the show-downs come and the IAPA forces most of these.

And in Conclusion . . .

Jottings from the well-thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

When these 500-passenger jets are in service, the fares may be cut two thirds. And they're wondering how to unload passengers and service the baggage expeditiously. . . . The anti-American feeling in France is having an impact on our travel there. U.S. requests for trips have slumped half in the last three years. This costs the peppy French almost a billion dollars.

David Lawrence Says:

Powell Ruling Proves Unsettling

DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — More issues are raised than were settled by the decision of Judge George L. Hart Jr. in the U.S. District Court here declaring that the federal judiciary has no authority to interfere with the action of the House in excluding Rep. Adam Clayton Powell.

Judge Hart ruled that the courts do not have the power to question the validity of the House resolution which ordered that Powell be deprived of his seat.

The reason given for the dismissal of Powell's suit is that this is a "political question" and that to interpose any judicial decree would be to violate the doctrine of the "separation of powers" as between the three branches of the government.

The Supreme Court has always refused to pass on any case regarding the unseating of members of Congress, and has argued that these are "political questions." Judge Hart, therefore, cites the court's refusal in the past to rule on the merits of cases involving the exclusion of elected members of Congress.

Certainly Judge Hart's decision, while strictly in accord with early precedents, ignores the fact that the Supreme Court of the United States did in recent years step in and order a reapportionment of state legislatures on a "one man, one vote" formula. This, too, had been regarded as a "political question" in previous reasoning by the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court now will have an opportunity to review Judge Hart's ruling and may possibly take into account the confusion that exists over the phrase "political question."

SUBJECT FOR CONVENTION
If the high court fails to decide the issue, this is one of the subjects that a national constitutional convention might tackle.

A new amendment to the Constitution could make clear the rights of the states and the extent to which the courts' power to review may be applied even to "political questions."

Bad Goof Means Trouble for Folks at the Garden

NEW YORK — People . . . place . . . things . . . My friend Harry Markson of Madison Square Garden sets me straight on a bad goof.

"The late Walter St. Denis had a favorite expression: 'Never spoil a good story with facts,'" Harry writes.

"For the record, however, the National Anthem was indeed played at the Garden on the night of the recent heavyweight championship bout." (I had written that it wasn't, and wondered if the Black Muslims had vetoed it.)

"It has been policy for many years to have the anthem played at the opening of the boxing shows, at 8:30 p.m. There may have been one or two exceptions to this over the past several years but I don't recall any."

"I write because our switchboards have been overloaded with phone calls from indignant patriots. I'm sure you did not intend that things turn out quite this way, but we stand condemned as anti-Americans or pro-Black Muslims, maybe even as Communists. We sin't none of these, Bob."

Gen. de Gaulle may not be the Administration's favorite hero, yet it may be quietly grateful to him for forcing NATO out of France.

This has enabled the Pentagon to withdraw 15,000 troops and 21,000 dependents from Europe, taking at least some of the strain out of our balance of payments deficit.

A further easing may become possible as a result of NATO's current study of how many troops it really needs to maintain.

Contrary to the impression sometimes conveyed, Germany also favors a reduction. Economic pressure may be the primary reason for its refusal to purchase more American arms, but Bonn also recognizes, if only unofficially, that the post-cold war atmosphere has made a reduction possible, and that its efforts for better relations with the Eastern bloc make it desirable.

The Kiesinger government has let it be known in a roundabout way that if British and American forces are reduced, it also would like to reduce the 12 German divisions, all assigned

How much intelligence does it take for one to know what a fine mess mature college students have made of our country? I wonder if high school dropouts could have done a better job. We probably would not be in the mess we are today—rioting, rabble-rousing on campuses.

I agree that all these punks in college who are so ready to riot and harangue should be given a gun and turned loose against someone who can and will fight back.

Seeks Answers on Proposed School Plan

Waterford Township school officials failed to offer solutions to expressed problems at the Mott High parents' meeting. With keen public concern about accident rates, and awareness of inadequate roads, I object to busing students to two schools daily.

Why were the three high schools planned to be built so close together? Students must yield to the schedules of two schools, lose time in extra busing, yet we are told subject selection and education quality will not be sacrificed.

Students affected by Mason Junior High building delays are again in the affected group. I suggest abandoning the phase-in plan while there is still time to prevent problems which will unnecessarily burden these students.

We were fortunate to be able to spend the Easter holidays in Florida, on the beaches of Daytona and Fort Lauderdale. Yes, there were thousands of youngsters there but we didn't see any trouble. We read about the Fort Lauderdale incident in the paper. It said 50 per cent of those arrested were soldiers, MPs, local residents, waitresses and three school teachers. Tax Talk

The New Orleans Times-Picayune

Republicans making up the GOP Coordinating Committee had no serious policy problem to solve before coming up with a statement demanding that President Johnson drop his plans for a six per cent surtax on incomes and, instead, strive "to achieve social goals within the nation's current means."

All that was necessary to validate this stand was to take a look at the charts showing a somewhat sluggish economy at this point.

The business curves mean generally smaller profits, more labor - industry disputes and at least some spotty unemployment for a few months.

The administration itself has shown that it too is aware that this is not an opportune moment for pressing legislation of disturbing economic import.

It has not sent the surtax bill to Congress, and is not expected to do so until late in this session.

Without the surtaxes, however, a steep increase in size of next year's deficit must, on the basis of current estimates, be expected. That is one side of the current outlook that will more and more plague Congress and the administration.

Nazi Cruiser May Be Raised

OSLO, Norway (AP) — American divers who were to take over Oslo when it was captured, probe the chances of raising the Nazi cruiser Bluecher.

The Bluecher, then Hitler's newest warship, was sunk by a gallant handful of Norwegian coastal battery gunners on her first operation 27 years ago when she was part of the German fleet invading Norway.

She carried 2,300 men, including 1,500 crew, troops and Gestapo officials who were to take over Oslo when it was captured. The exact number of casualties is not known. Estimates on the number of bodies in the wreck range from 600 to more than 1,200.

The salvage attempt is to be made by Ocean Systems, Inc., a subsidiary of the Union Carbide and General Precision Equipment corporations.

Ocean Systems, based at Santa Barbara, Calif., helped recover the H-bomb dropped accidentally off the Spanish coast last year.

Chief diver Lyle Kirlin, of Santa Barbara, told an interviewer that this would be the first full-scale bid to assess the possibility of raising the Bluecher. She lies aslant — 223 feet deep at the stern and 295 feet at the bow.

"If we raise the ship she will be the biggest ever salvaged from so deep," Kirlin said.

Kirlin and two other American divers, D.C. Todd and Edward Woods, both from Santa Barbara, will begin diving next Saturday.

TV RELAY

Their underwater explorations will be relayed by television cameras and recorded on videotape.

Kirlin said they want to determine the extent of hull damage and how many watertight compartments were breached.

The initial exploration is expected to last three to five days. It will take three to four weeks to evaluate the results. Then the decision will be made whether and how the ship may be raised, Kirlin said.

Gunnar M. Lund, a Norwegian businessman who initiated the project, said the Norwegian government granted the salvage rights to Norwegian commercial interests.

OWNERSHIP RIGHTS

But the government retained the ownership rights of documents, trophies and anything of historic value that might be found, Lund added.

Lund said the West German War Graves Commission had accepted an invitation to send observers in connection with possible recovery of the bodies. Associated with Lund in the project is a British businessman, David M. Kay.

The Bluecher, the pocket battleship Leutow and the light cruiser Emden, with escort vessels, sailed from Kiel May 8, 1940. Early next morning they were deep into the Oslo Fjord, headed for the capital. At 15 miles from Oslo they ran into fire from the Oscarsborg fortress, on an island in the narrow channel.

The first two shots were hits but did little damage. Then the main gun, an old piece called Moses supplied by the German Krupp works in 1892, scored a direct hit on the command bridge from more than 1,000 yards although the gunners had no range finder.

Another shot disabled the steering gear and the cruiser slewed across the fjord. Two torpedoes from the fortress exploded the ship's ammunition. She capsized and sank. Hundreds of men lined the decks as she disappeared in the flame-covered waters.

Later in the day the Norwegian garrison was put out of action by a combined air, sea and infantry attack.

After Enlistment Row

Recruiter, Father of 4, Switched to Viet

DETROIT (UPI) — An Army sergeant on his way to Vietnam said he had been transferred from his job as a recruiter because he tried to enlist three youths involved in an armed robbery.

Sgt. Robert Fulton, a father of four children, left his suburban Oak Park home yesterday for duty with the 9th Infantry Division in Vietnam's Mekong Delta region.

"All I tried to do is to be a nice guy," Fulton said, explaining the circumstances which he said led to his transfer.

Fulton said he was told by a supervisor of the Recorder's Court Probation Department that a youth facing a robbery charge apparently had the qualifications to be enlisted for military service.

Under a court program, youths facing minor charges can be permitted to enlist, if they pass Selective Service tests.

Fulton, a former combat medic in Korea said he arranged for the youth, Thomas Kania, 19, Dearborn Heights, and the codefendants, Mark Kalski, 17, and Wayne Pryce, 17, both of charges against him also were dropped.

The charges later were reinstated, however, when the court was told by the probation department that no agreement was made to erase Kania's previous conviction.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

In Most Cases Unique Substance Promptly Stops Itching, Burning and Pain of Piles

New York, N.Y. (Special): One of the most tormenting afflictions is the burning itch caused by piles. It's most embarrassing during the day and especially aggravating at night. No matter what you've tried without results—here's good news.

Science has discovered a substance with the ability to promptly stop the burning itch, pain—and it actually shrinks hemorrhoids without surgery except in unusually severe or persistent cases.

Tests conducted on hundreds of patients by leading doctors in New York City, a Southern Clinic and a Midwest Medical Center proved this so. And it was all accomplished without surgery, injections, narcotics or astringents of any kind.

The secret is this unique substance (Bio-Dyne®)—now combined with other medically approved medicaments in Preparation H®. And only Preparation H has it. Preparation H also lubricates, soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form. No prescription is needed.

Vanishing Breed?

Supervisor: Minority of 1

By L. GARRY THORNE
Assistant City Editor—Suburban

A minority of one: the supervisor. New terms begin today for township supervisors in the area. They were elected last fall.

The township supervisor is an outmoded animal. He is both executive and legislative. According to recent happenings, he often is a minority of one.

While chief administrator responsible for the daily operation of this township, which in Oakland County can range in population from a couple of thousand to 60,000, the supervisor is also a policy maker.

He acquires this latter role as a voting member of the township board. The supervisor, however, has but one vote. The single ye or nay is easily outweighed by the balance of the board.

'GETS STICKY'

This is where township government frequently gets sticky.

Of course, supervisors have no corner on brains or insight. Since they have daily contact, however, it follows that their view might be different than that of a township trustee.

Ideally, whether for good or evil, township government functions most efficiently when the township board and the supervisor bear the same political brand.

The disadvantage of township government was cited last week in a report made by a citizens committee in West Bloomfield Township. The suggestion was offered that the township give serious consideration to a different form of local government.

2-MONTH PROBE

West Bloomfield citizens took two months to probe charges made by Supervisor Duane K. Sanford, who resigned in January. In brief, he charged the board with harassment and failure to delegate authority.

The citizens partially agreed, but attributed such goings-on to the type of government rather than to specific wrongdoing.

Primarily intended for a rural setting, township government encounters difficulty when the character of the land changes from rural to suburban.

Planners claim the trend is less suburban and more urban. Unless there are some changes, more than a few area townships may find it rough going.

Mrs. Hazen Peter Readies Her School Bus For The Afternoon Run

... For School Bus Duty

Woman Driver Favored

By JEAN SAILE
ROCHESTER — It's true, gents!

Women make the best school-bus drivers. The authority is Richard Overturf, director of transportation for the Rochester School District.

He said that women, because of their aptitude for handling children, make the best bus drivers, but he added that men are better drivers.

He was watching Mrs. Hazen Peter, 2959 St. Clair, Avon Township, get her bus ready for the afternoon run.

Mrs. Peter has 15 years' experience as a bus driver, and to her the job is "just fine."

SHARE OF TROUBLE

She's had her share of breakdowns and stormy days, but the assets are enough to overcome the liabilities.

"No matter what's gone wrong during the day, when those kindergartners get on the bus at noon it makes everything all right."

She tells of the little fellow who announced he had a new baby brother.

Mrs. Peter, being the kind of a driver she is, said, "Isn't that nice. I'll have to write your mother a note."

OTHER STORIES

And the child said, "That's all right. My mother already knows about it."

There are a lot of other stories she can tell, but they're going into a book. She's got a hundred pages written already.

The Rochester School District like most other districts in Oakland County, is running short of drivers.

Overturf thinks if women knew how easy driving a bus actually is that there would be more applicants.

MUST PASS TEST

All it requires is the ownership of a chauffeur's license and the passage of a driving test.

The pay is good — $2.45 an hour for beginning drivers with a minimum of $9 a day. Some of the old-timers make more than $100 a week — and this on a part-time basis.

4-H's Study Citizenship

About 40 members of Oakland County 4-H clubs are participating in a citizenship short course conducted by the Oakland County 4-H Youth Program.

The course involves a series of five meetings consisting of lectures, discussions, tours and visits by political officials.

Objectives of the course are:

- To learn the various aspects, meanings and application of citizenship as they relate to social responsibility.
- To be aware of available resources that can be helpful in planning local 4-H citizenship activities.
- To learn the structure, function and operation of local, state and national governments.
- To be aware of and learn the importance of historical monuments and shrines and how they relate to state and national heritage.

Following the course, 16 members will be selected for a trip to Washington, D.C. in August to attend meetings and tours.

The members will each pay a third of the trip while the rest will be paid by donations or "scholarships" from service clubs in the county.

Those not going to Washington will take a trip to Lansing and northern Michigan.

Teaching Study to Be Discussed

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A new study of remedial teaching will be introduced by a panel of educators at the April meeting of Scotch School PTA tomorrow.

Representatives of the Oakland County Schools and the Pontiac Schools will discuss with parents new ways to help children overcome learning problems.

There are runs in the morning and again in the afternoon and six at noon taking the kindergartners home.

Any mechanical trouble is taken care of by a mechanic reachable by radio from some of the buses.

UP TO THE DRIVER

The discipline is up to the driver, and Mrs. Peter reports she's always had cooperation.

She sits up high in front on the drivers seat and from there those buses are big — high — and long!

Controls for the heater, lights, defrosters, etc., and the emergency flashing signals sit to her left.

The dashboard is fairly standard, though the gearshift is a five-way shift and the clutch is a bit tricky.

But she accelerates and it moves, and she turns the steering wheel and the bus turns, brakes and it stops.

BUMPY ROADS

A word of warning — bumpy roads mean bumpy rides and a wise driver is accompanied by a soft cushion.

Most of Rochester's 42 drivers are women. The men are mostly retired, though some of them work night shifts.

Overturf would really be interested in either kind of driver. Last Friday he had to call 10 substitutes.

Negotiation With Dems Next GOP Step in Tax Battle

By JIM NICHOLS

LANSING (AP) — Although the first round of this year's tax battle is clearly a Republican round, the Democrats are sure to be heard from before the war is over.

In both the House and Senate, Republicans have been determined to put their own fiscal reform package to a vote without seriously soliciting amendments, comments or suggestions from the other side of the political aisle.

And, although Republicans have majorities in both houses of the Legislature, their program has suffered a tentative defeat in the Senate and probably faces another in the House.

This does not mean the prospect of new taxes for Michigan residents is dead for the year. It just means the process of juggling the state's tax structure is a little more complicated than it looks.

Legislative Republicans so far have adopted a go-it-alone attitude — putting their stamp on a tax package and laying it before their Democratic colleagues, who can take it or leave it alone.

UNTOUCHED BY DEMS
Democrats, not surprisingly,

have shown a marked inclination to leave it alone.

Gov. George Romney's tax proposals — including a state income tax and other fiscal alterations — suffered a setback in the Senate two weeks ago when the income tax bill — key to the whole package — was defeated by a 23-14 vote.

And that despite the 20-18 Republican Senate majority.

The point is, of course, that not all Republicans voted for the Republican governor's package — and the same thing could happen in the House.

MAY IGNORE DEMS

But although House Republican leaders may suspect this, they are likely to call for a vote — possibly this week — without paying much attention to suggestions from Democrats.

There are a number of possible explanations for the Republicans' insistence of drawing up and voting on their own exclusive package.

Republicans themselves are likely to simply claim it's the best arrangement that can be reached.

And some Democrats insist the one-party approach is designed to kill tax reform — on the theory Republican Romney, a presidential contender, would like to be known nationally as a budget-cutter, not an imposer of new taxes.

THIRD EXPLANATION

A third possible explanation, which assumes most GOP legislators honestly desire a fiscal package, goes like this:

Republicans have legislative majorities, and expect to have dominant say about the contents of any tax package passed by the Legislature.

But they don't have the votes to pass such a package by themselves, because some GOP lawmakers simply can't be convinced to vote for it.

So the next step is to negotiate for Democratic votes.

NECESSARY VOTES

How many of those are needed? The fewer the better, from the Republican point of view.

According to this explanation,

FALSE TEETH

Chewing Efficiency Increased up to 35%

Clinical tests prove you can chew more efficiently — make dentures average up to 35% more effective — if you sprinkle a little PASTERIN on your plates. PASTERIN is the alkaline (non-acid) powder that binds false teeth more firmly on their feet more comfortably. No gummy, sticky taste. Doesn't sour. Checks denture odor. Dentures that fit are essential to health. See your dentist regularly. Get PASTERIN at all drug counters.

tion, a legislative vote on the tax package helps answer that question, if nothing else.

In the House, it takes 55 votes to pass a bill. If only 50 of the 55 Republicans go along with the tax program in its present form, then GOP leaders will have to woo five Democrats. If 48 Republicans support the program, they'll need seven votes from across the aisle.

The fewer Democrats you need, the need, the Republican theory holds, the better — because you'll have to make fewer concessions. It's easier to attract three Democrats than five, and easier to attract five than eight.

Viet Ground Fighting Is Up Sharply

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. command today reported a sharp increase in ground actions throughout Vietnam with 315 Communists killed in the preceding 24 hours.

The first wave of three B52 bombers to be based in Thailand arrived there today from Guam after dropping 180,000 pounds of bombs on a suspected Communist camp only 51 miles from Saigon.

Three more B52s will arrive at Utaepao Air Base, in southern Thailand, later this month, cutting their round trip time for raids on South Vietnam from 12 hours to less than three.

The ground action included a sharp barrage of recoilless rifle shells on the U.S. 3rd Infantry Division headquarters at Chu Chi, about 35 miles northwest of Saigon. The predawn shelling, which killed three American soldiers and wounded 20, was the second in two days. The helicopter from U.S. 1st Cavalry, Alamo, Division headquarters at An Khe was hit Sunday. American pilots flew 80 miles over North Vietnam Sunday despite bad weather. All-weather jets hit the Thai Nguyen steel plant 35 miles from Hanoi and other radar-directed aircraft missile sites 30 miles from the Red capitol.

Heavy ground fighting raged 60 miles southwest of Saigon after U.S. 9th Division soldiers flushed a major force of Vietcong guerrillas in a three-day drive. Battleship shells hit Vietcong supply lines from infantry, air and artillery pounding.

The battle erupted Sunday when a 9th Division sweeping force ran into skirmishes of a 750-man guerrilla battalion. Air artillery began pounding the Reds, who scattered with units of the 9th in pursuit. Heavy fighting was reported several times throughout Sunday night and this morning.

Continuing the sweep in the muddy delta paddy lands, the 9th Division reported it was again in heavy contact this afternoon, with jet strikes and artillery again pouring in.

FIRST OF MANY—One of the first wave of three B52 jet bombers sits on the runway of Utaepao Air Base in southern Thailand today after arrival from Guam. The jets, by being based in Thailand rather than Guam, will save more than nine hours on their round-trip bombing runs to South Vietnam targets.

MRS. HARRY LEROY SMITH

Kirk in the Hills was the setting for Saturday evening vows taken by Cynthia Anne Kyes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger M. Kyes of Bloomfield Hills and Harry Leroy Smith, son of Mrs. Austin O. Smith of Detroit and the late Mr. Smith.

Cover Up for Style on Beach

A girl doesn't have to sacrifice glamour to achieve the covered up look. Demure one-piece swimsuits are designed with admiring glances in mind.

The tunic makes the most of natural attributes or neatly camouflages problem areas. Jantzen makes artful use of draping and seaming for slimming effects.

Firm but gentle power net swim-slimmers appear in a rainbow array of exotic prints.

The "new art" of the 1890's is the print news of now, in Jantzen's Art Nouveau swimsuits.

Real-live Jantzen Smile Girls Sanna Saare of Brenon College wears a tunic swimsuit (left) and Paula Hicks, University of Florida, a ball-buttoned swim-short of elegant simplicity.

Rich colors were inspired by Tiffany stained glass: pink shock with curry or marina blue with green, on shimmering Antron nylon.

Cynthia Anne Kyes Wed in Saturday Ceremony

A slender line of satin accented the white antique silk gown worn by Cynthia Anne Kyes as she exchanged wedding vows with Harry Leroy Smith at Kirk in the Hills Saturday evening.

The long sheath gown featured a satin bow at back neckline which was the starting point for a full length cathedral train.

Completing the ensemble was a Brussels lace Cathedral length mantilla.

Her flowers were a cascade arrangement of calla lilies and caladium leaves.

Parents of the bridal couple are Mr. and Mrs. Roger M. Kyes of Bloomfield Hills and Mrs. Austin O. Smith of Detroit and the late Mr. Smith.

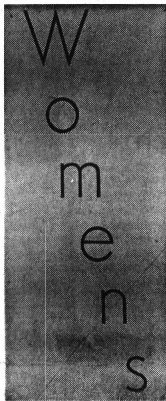

Diana Gornick was maid of honor along with bridesmaids, Jane Guest, Christine Jones, Ann Livingstone, Susan Gerdan of Indianapolis, Ind. and Mrs. Lawrence Grelle of Champaign, Ill.

Joseph W. Albright Jr. stood as best man.

The usher corps consisted of Richard Howe, Dale McGlimmen, Donald Parks, Roger Piazza and Thomas Kennedy.

Couple Takes Sunday Vows

Sandra Sue Mills of Scott Lake Road and Joel N. Goldberg exchanged vows Sunday afternoon in the home of his parents the Harold S. Goldbergs of James K. Boulevard with a reception and luncheon immediately following.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mills of Alpena were re-embroidered Alpena lace applied on English net.

The street length, straight line gown ended in a scalloped hem.

Her three tier veil fell from a Juliet cap of matching lace.

She carried a colonial nosegay of white marguerite daisies and baby's breath with ribbon streamers of yellow and white satin.

English Girl a Guest at Newmarch Vows

When Brenda June Ouellette became the bride of Larry David Newmarch Saturday evening, a special wedding guest was Jill Watson of Crofton, England.

The two girls have been pen pals for about 10 years. Jill who arrived Tuesday will stay here until April 20.

For her vows in Grace Lutheran Church Miss Ouellette wore a gown of white satin peau de sole with bateau neckline and natural waistline.

Her skirt had a carriage-back train trimmed in Alencon lace and pearls. A pill-box secured her floor length veil.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Donald P. Sparkman, with attendants Mrs. Terry Lancaster, Mrs. Jay Warren, Hazel Newmarch, Charlene Griffith, Shirley Arama. Flower girl was Sherry Hancock.

Donald Wagner was best man.

Ushers were Terry Lancaster, Neil Williams, Richard France, Archie Hunt, James Newbanks and ring bearer Mark Smith.

Following a reception in the Fisher Body Union Hall, the couple left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls.

Parents of the pair are the Clifford T. Ouellette of Pennell Street and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy D. Newmarch of Dixie Highway.

MRS. L. D. NEWMARCH

Why Grow Old?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

In 1957 Dr. George Christakis and three other researchers with the Bureau of Nutrition (Public Health Department) formed New York's Anti-Corohary Club. Eight hundred and fourteen men between the ages of 40 and 59 were enrolled.

They were put on a diet high in vegetable fatty acids and low in animal fats. This was called the Prudent Diet. The results were reported in a fall issue of "The Journal of the American Medical Association."

The diet lowered the men's cholesterol blood levels significantly. Many researchers and physicians feel that a high cholesterol level is one of the factors leading to heart attacks and strokes.

Among the members of the club, the occurrence of heart disease was two thirds less than that among the members of a control group of 463 men in the same age group. These latter did not adopt the low-animal-fat diet.

In general the Prudent Diet calls for avoidance of ice cream, pastries and hard cheeses. It substitutes skim milk for whole milk, and margarine and vegetable oils for butter and hydrogenated shortenings.

Also, the total intake of fat is much less than in the average diet. The question of fats in the diet is a highly controversial subject, and Dr. Christakis and his co-researchers do not indicate that all the questions are answered. However, this study is certainly interesting and the Prudent Diet seems to have been good preventive medicine.

Show Is Antique, but Food Is All Modern

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Regular attendants at the All Saints Antique Show and Sale look forward to some of the same food each year.

The women in the kitchen have earned a reputation for delicious dishes.

One of the more popular salads is a corned beef mold. This is an excellent salad to remember for summer luncheons.

This salad will be served Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The show opens daily at 11 a.m.

Gardeners Meet for This Month

A miniature flower arrangement made on buttons was displayed at Friday's meeting of Interlakes branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

Mrs. E. A. Linder, designer of the collection, had used nuts, twigs, leaves and dried moss to assemble the arrangements.

Mrs. Newton Kilgore of Hammond Lake Road was hostess with Mrs. Charles Sempere and Mrs. A. J. Zujko assisting.

Guests were Mrs. Jack Smith and Mrs. Eileen Hosner.

Orders for petunias and other flowers will be taken by any members of this branch before May 5.

The Village Woman's Club was the setting for the recent meeting and spring luncheon of Brookside branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

Cohostesses for the event where some 33 members and guests were present, were Mesdames Charles Galloway and M. A. Cully.

G. F. Baker Jr. spoke on "A Walk Through the Garden."

Mrs. S. J. Nye and Mrs. Edward Sammut will act as hostesses from this branch at the April 26 annual Wright Kay show.

They've got him treed! John Cover, Hazlett Street, plays Lil' Abner in the upcoming production of the musical by the same name. The Lakeland Players will present it Thursday and Friday at 8 p.m. in Mason Junior High School, West

He Wonders, She Wanders

See-Through Evidence

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What is a man, who has been married for almost 20 years, supposed to think when he accidentally finds hidden in his wife's closet six or eight beautiful sheer, shortie nightgowns and negligees he has never seen before?

They were certainly not ever worn in MY presence.

Perhaps that explains why she slips her luggage in and out of the house when making increasingly more frequent out-of-town trips - alone.

Please answer in your column, as I am beginning to WONDER in their food!

DEAR WONDER: Either your wife is taking in laundry or you've caught her with evidence that anyone can see through.

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for 30 years and have two married children. While they were growing up my husband took me on business trips, family drives, and week-end trips. As soon as the children left home he stopped taking me places.

Now he goes out alone several nights a week, and he plays cards and bowls on week-ends. I am never invited, and if I ask to go with him, he stays home and sulks all evening.

A widower who lives in our neighborhood enjoys driving and would like my company on short trips to scenic areas around our city. Should I go?

DEAR HOUSEBOUND: No unless you want one of those "you-go-your-way, I'll-go-mine" kind of marriages.

DEAR ABBY: This is for "Church Ladies" who hesitated to eat at the home of a member because she kept cats and they were afraid of finding cat hair in their food!

I raised three healthy boys and the amount of money I spent on doctors wouldn't even pay for the frame on a medical diploma. Yet these strong sons of mine ate and slept with dogs and cats from the time they could toddle. They brought home all kinds of creatures, you name it: if it was lost, hurt, or hungry, we took it in.

My boys needed broken wings, put fledglings back in the treetops, and gave warmth, love, and food to strays. Not once were they bitten or diseased by their contact with these friends.

What I am trying to say is that animals are neither as dirty nor diseased as some human beings. Oh, yes, one of my boys did have a communicable disease - impetigo. He got it from another boy. Sincerely yours, MRS. L.D.: POTTSTVILLE, PA.

Candlelight Vows Taken by Couple

A candlelight ceremony in Bethany Baptist Church, with reception immediately following, marked vows Saturday for Nancy Louise Crawford and William Russell Maxfield.

For the evening rite the bride wore her mother's wedding gown of ivory silk tulle and chapel train. An ivory seed pearl pillow held her ivory illustrious veil. She carried a bouquet of Amazon lilies.

Matron of honor for the daughter of the Wilbur C. Crawfords of Mark Street was the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. James Ward.

Attendants were Sandra Briney, Betty Stoel of Charlevoix and Susan Collins of Toledo, Ohio.

Carol Jean and Jennifer Lynn Crawford were their sister's junior bridesmaids.

Ronald Joyner was best man for the son of the Gerald Maxfields of South Avery Road.

Ushers were Bruce Lewis with Michael and Gregory Maxfield and J. Donald and J. Richard Crawford, brothers of the bridal couple.

This Member Is Speaker

Mrs. Thomas Nichols presented a paper on "Pressed Glass" to members of the Heritage Society at a recent meeting in the Warrington Drive home of Mrs. Daniel Hosler.

Mrs. James Youngblood led a discussion on national historical groups which maintain and preserve old homes and on local historical societies.

Mrs. Z. F. Mitchell was appointed chairman of the May dinner slated in the home of Mrs. Robert Boyd of Lakewind Drive.

MRS. W. R. MAXFIELD

Students Winners in Competition

Eastern Junior High School musicians received five first and two second division ratings in competition on Saturday.

The Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association Junior High School Solo and Ensemble Festival was held at Roseville.

First ratings went to Louise Smith, Beth Ann Stickney and William Katip.

A brass sextet, composed of Anthony Thomas, Gwendolyn Grant, William Katip, Douglas Carrothers, Roger Beedie and David Thomas won first, as did a cornet trio with Anthony Thomas, Gwendolyn Grant and Phillip Loase.

Second division ratings went to Sandra Nelson and a flute trio of Lynn Ann Clark, Louise Smith and Christine Tedder.

Piano accompanists for these students were Mrs. Robert Schadel and Robert Wolters.

All of these students are members of the Eastern Junior High School band.

The band, under the direction of Mr. Robert Schadel will present their annual spring concert, May 24 at 7:30 p.m.

Showers Fete Mrs. Newmarch Before Vows

Mrs. Larry D. Newmarch (Brenda Ouellette) was honored at a number of bridal showers prior to her Saturday marriage.

Mrs. Jack Hawk of Beverly Hills assisted by the junior Mrs. Hawk was hostess for a gala.

Miss Ouellette was also honored at showers by Mrs. Raymond Riley of Oakland Lake, Mrs. Jay Warren, Shirley Arama and Charlene Griffith. Elizabeth Ballard, Judy Law and Shirley Smith were co-hostess for a shower by her co-workers.

Mrs. Richard Jorgensen also entertained. She was assisted by Mrs. Terry Lancaster and Hazel Newmarch.

Hear Rev. Lewis

Rev. Alger Lewis, pastor of the Avondale Baptist Church, spoke before some 30 members and guests of the Wayside Cleaners in the First Baptist Church Friday.

Mrs. Glen Ebey and Mrs. Leftoy Eastham entertained the group with duets.

Mrs. Clarence Brush and her side of new officers were installed.

Grandmother Runs for Congress

She Challenges Powell

NEW YORK (AP) — For a woman facing almost certain defeat at the polls Tuesday, Lucille Pickett Williams is the most exhilarated and happy candidate you ever saw.

Most of her fellow Republicans concede that Democrat Adam Clayton Powell is high to unbeatable in the special congressional election April 11.

But a few of her diehard friends hold out a faint hope because, they say, "it's a secret ballot and you never know how people will vote."

But for Mrs. Williams, a strikingly handsome and young-looking Negro grandmother who can't care less if you know she's 50, the outcome of the election really isn't the point.

"What I hope is that I will make a good showing, to demonstrate to the world that there are people here in Harlem who believe in honor and dignity. It would help the image of Harlem."

As for scoring a victory, she admits "that really would be something."

Tuesday morning she plans to get up at 6 as usual. "Then I'll go to as many pools as I can to say hello to everyone," she says.

"Tuesday night, when the returns are in-win, lose or draw—I want people to think I've conducted a dignified, clean campaign."

With the odds generally given to Mrs. Williams, even the most seasoned politician might understandably be depressed.

But she says: "The campaign has added 10 years on my life. I'm dead tired when I go to bed, but the next morning I'm rarin' to go."

Mrs. Williams is 6 feet in the spike heels she always wears. She is a well-proportioned size 18—"in the better dresses."

FINE COOK

In Harlem she's known as a fine cook — "she can really dress a table," exclaims one admirer — and as a friendly, unpretentious hostess who can handle 200 guests as easily as a bride foursome.

Even her opponent, Powell, says gallantly that she is "a lovely woman and a fine lady." She has no illusions, though, that any of that necessarily adds up to votes.

Her three-week campaign is being run from three small rooms in an office building on 125th Street in the heart of Harlem.

DAILY WALK

Every day though she walks to lunch several blocks down the street, shaking hands and occasionally getting a chance to wave at her son, Bill, 31, father of her 12-year-old granddaughter, as he drives a Transit Authority bus along 125th Street.

MRS. LUCILLE P. WILLIAMS

After lunch she walks another few blocks, greeting people who know her, to the Square Deal Republican Club, where she has been a leader for more than 20 years.

Her second husband, Edward, a widower she married five years ago, is also a bus driver.

"He's a Democrat," she says, "and he's very proud of me now. But he was leery at first. He thought I might run into trouble."

"He said, 'You're my life, I love you. I can't see you out there running risk, and for what?'"

If defeated, Mrs. Williams, a beautician, will probably return to the $7,000 a year job she has held for eight years as secretary to the New York State Cosmetology Advisory Committee.

She took a leave of absence to campaign.

IF SHE WINS

What if she does get into Congress?

"Why then I would like to do all the things that Adam went in — and didn't. I know I'd be a freshman, but so would he be now."

"I haven't had his education or congressional experience, but I'd employ the best people to help me — and I'd always be there on the job."

"I so much want to make a new image of hope and pride for women — not just black, but all women all over the world."

Auxiliary Sets Town Hall in Rochester

Start Now to Plan Retirement Income

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

Women are retiring from their jobs in business and industry at an earlier age these days. This trend is pointed up in a recent research report made by the National Industrial Conference Board.

Approximately 20 per cent of the 1,000 companies studied

indicated that the percentage of women who retire early is noticeably larger since Social Security benefits were made available for women at age 62. Some companies arrange to adjust the pension plan so that if a woman chooses to take it at age 60, she will start with the same sum she would receive if she retired at age 62. Then, when Social Security benefits become effective, the pension is adjusted downward accordingly.

So — a woman's 50th birthday will well mark the point in her life when she takes a critical evaluation of how her retirement income, with all angles considered, is likely to shape up.

I'm talking now to the single woman who's planning her future years on her own. Economic experts estimate that a retirement income should equal from 50 to 60 per cent of the final working salary. This allows for a reasonable amount of comfort. So the woman of 50 should lose no time in tallying up her possible assets. Among them will be some or all of these:

- Pension plan. Find out what it really includes.
- Social Security. Send a request for retirement income information to the nearest local office, to have facts and figures on your benefits.
- Life insurance. Determine the total values in those policies no longer needed for protection, of someone they may have originally been designed to protect, in order to determine how much of your insurance will produce cash or income.
- Weigh the advantages of an annuity, or figure in the income of one already owned.
- List savings accounts, stocks, bonds, mutual funds and U.S. Savings Bonds, in order to get a clear picture of estimated retirement income.

• Estimate possible income from any real estate owned; its likely market value or rentals.

In order to understand the specific details of a pension plan, you may find it advisable — even necessary — to have a company official explain the provisions. Some pension plans are couched in such complicated language it's not always easy to be sure what you can expect.

It's a good idea to write out how the plan works for you. Jot down the highlights on a sheet of paper and attach it to the printed plan for future reference.

In trying to arrive at an estimate of what your retirement income will be, remember that the cost-of-living increase over the past ten years has generally been from 15 per cent to 2 per cent.

So it's important to allow for this trend in the years ahead. For example, a $400 pension payment 10 years ago is now worth only $340 in purchasing power.

If you see that a stepped-up saving plan is in order, take action now. If you can manage to save $100 a month, starting now, it could build to a little over $15,000, assuming interest at 4 1/2 per cent compounded semi-annually, by the time you are 60. Assuming an income of $8,000-$10,000 a year, the following savings are logical enough:

Do your own cleaning and dispense with domestic help, saving $30 a month. Go to the beauty shop every two weeks instead of every week for a saving of $10 a month.

Take better care of your wardrobe and organize your outfits — save $30 a month. By cutting back on purchase of cosmetics, paring entertainment costs and gifts, you might easily put aside another $30 a month. A total of $100.

In other columns coming up, I'll go into the types of annuities that might well interest the single woman. Also, the types of pensions generally in use and what they mean in the way of retirement income; and the new regulations governing Social Security benefits geared especially to women.

(For Mary Feeley's "Make Every Dollar Count" booklet, send $1 to her in care of The Pontiac Press.)

Local Artist Gets Award

Ray Fleming of East Long Lake Road will receive a $150 prize from the Michigan Water Color Society for his painting, "Antarctica."

This painting will be on display at the 21st Annual Michigan Water Color Exhibition in the Flint Institute of Arts, April 16-May 14.

The exhibit then moves to Mercy College in Detroit, opening June 4.

Sandra Goodrich Wears Lace and Organza Gown

Sandra Lee Goodrich chose an Empire gown of Alconon lace over silk organza with detachable Watteau train for her Saturday wedding.

She spoke vows with Frank Charles Hawkins in the Lakeland United Presbyterian Church.

A reception in the church parlors followed.

Lace petals with pearls and crystals held her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion. She carried her mother's Bible with white lace and baby roses edged in pink.

Parents of the bridal couple are the Donald R. Goodriches of Eldridge Road and Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Hawkins of Poplar Street.

Sights, Sounds of Change Evident in Sweden's Capital

By EDWIN SHANKE
STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Stockholm hasn't experienced war in almost 160 years, but at first glance you'd think this vibrant capital of the north must have come under bomber attack.

Great holes gape toward the sky. Huge areas stand leveled or with buildings partly demolished. Many a graceful old building has vanished. You definitely get a boom town feeling. Outwardly at least, change is on all sides.

It strikes you with the rhythmic clang of the pile drivers sinking steel shafts for the structures of the future and for the tunnels and overhead roads which will speed traffic in the new Stockholm.

Phosphate in Food Helps Cut Decay

By Science Service
CHICAGO — Phosphate-treated cereals given to Bloomington, Ind., children are credited with reducing dental decay. Scientists of Indiana University's School of Dentistry divided 500 children into two groups, one receiving cereals with small amounts of sodium dihydrogen phosphate added, the other receiving no phosphate. Both groups ate cereal that had been pre-sweetened.

Twenty to 40 per cent fewer tooth cavities appeared in the group eating phosphated breakfast food.

The phosphate acts systematically rather than in direct contact with the teeth.

Reporting the study in the March issue of the Journal of the American Dental Association were Profs. George K. Stookey and Joseph C. Muhler, with Dr. Roger A. Carroll.

Twenty-five years ago the streets were piled high with cordwood to heat homes cut off from normal coal and oil supplies. Hot water was a luxury once a week. Bicycles and ancient cars fueled by wood gas generators pattered along the roadways.

SKYSCRAPER CENTER

Today there's an automobile for every four Swedes and the air throbs with traffic.

The old-fashioned heart of the city around the Hay Market with its quaint up-and-down streets has given way to a new skyscraper center beckoning to the future. But in the sprawling central underground station and shopping center, you momentarily have the feeling of having slipped back to another age.

There youths gather with hair longer, dress more eccentric and appearance more unwashed and unkempt than this correspondent has experienced in any other European capital, London included.

By reputation it's in the suburbs where youngsters meet narcotic pushers, where gangs gather to think up some devilry in an effort to avoid boredom, where the provos — agitators — get steamed up and organize demonstrations against anything, but particularly against America's role in Vietnam.

MORE WIN

Prohibition is long past but Swedes are being encouraged to drink more wine instead of spirits, such as aquavit. Drunkenness once was a main target of the Swedish press. Today papers devote columns to the spread of drug addiction, especially among the youth.

Over the years, education, taxes and the gradual unfolding of the welfare state have operated as great levers.

The Socialist way of thinking became imbedded since the Labor government first took office 37 years ago. And Swedes have fallen more and more under the influence of the American supermarket. Self-service is becoming the thing.

CONTRACEPTIVES

Vending machines at bus stops and on street walls offer contraceptive devices.

Sex is flaunted as never before on all sides and in the mass media and yet there are limits — a male strip-tease act and the use of a four-letter word on television caused a storm among viewers.

What's happening to the Swede's reputation for stiff, cold formality?

"Intellectuals, leftists and small fringe pressure groups feel they have to find causes these days," says one knowledgeable Swede. "In a way, I suppose it's a form of purification. A reaction to the days of 25 years ago when Swedes stood on the sidelines."

MATERIAL COMFORTS

"Meantime, we've grown plush with material comforts of all kinds and there may be a twinge of conscience about the neutral part we played in the last war. These people, for instance, feel Sweden should be doing more about the underdeveloped countries. We're probably at the bottom of the list there except for humanitarian work.

"They seem to feel that Sweden should react to the American participation in the Vietnam conflict although they know nothing about war. They feel they have to react against (Francisco) Franco in Spain, (Antonio de Oliveira) Salazar in Portugal with its colonies, against the apartheid policy of South Africa.

"So you have the protest meetings, the burning of the American flag, the smashing of windows in the American Embassy, demonstrations against an official Portuguese delegation. I don't believe this is the real Sweden."

Can you afford to let another year go by?

Cadillac is by far the soundest automotive investment in the world. Some of Cadillac's twelve models cost less than the corresponding models of other, fine cars. And, in a surprising number of cases, they cost little more than cars in the middle-price range. One reason is that Cadillac is gifted with a wide variety of equipment that would cost extra on lesser cars. A Cadillac price sticker is always worthy of careful study. Then, there is the matter of resale. It is a very real fact that Cadillac craftsmanship is an irresistible attraction to those who buy previously owned Cadillac year after year. This enables a person who buys a new Cadillac to drive his car for substantially less than many well-known makes over a one, two, or three year span. And, of course, Cadillac ownership offers satisfactions that cannot be measured in terms of cost. For how can you price its wonderful and relaxing quiet? Or its rewarding comfort? Or its incredibly smooth ride? So don't let another year go by without appreciating Cadillac price, Cadillac comfort, Cadillac performance and Cadillac value. Ask your authorized dealer for a demonstration.

Camera Angles

Real Test for Miranda

By IRVING DESFOR
AP Newsfeatures

Rarely have I tested a camera under such exciting but adverse photographic conditions! A 35mm Miranda Senorex camera was loaned to me for an afternoon's tryout simultaneously with a sudden photo assignment at a Metropolitan Opera dress rehearsal.

This was not a routine opera rehearsal. It was the first press preview of what world-famous artist, Marc Chagall, could do when given a free hand in redesigning a traditional German opera, "The Magic Flute" by Mozart.

The great stage would be a riot of Chagall color in stage sets, props and costumes.

With 13 full stage curtains each 70 feet wide and 40 feet high, three dozen partial backdrops, 121 costumes and assorted stage props, "The Magic Flute" could easily be the biggest and most melodic one-man art show in the world.

On my way to the opera's new quarters in Manhattan's Lincoln Center, I examined the Miranda camera.

It's a single-lens reflex with 50mm f/1.9 normal lens and a built-in, through-the-lens CDS meter. Its shutter release button is on the front of the camera, not on top.

The viewfinder is large and bright and I practiced focusing through the microprism control spot. With routine subjects, there seemed no problem getting precise focus.

To activate the light meter, a small level atop the camera is turned "On" and a needle snaps into action at the right edge of the viewfinder.

To achieve proper exposure, a pointer must match the needle. The pointer is moved by turning either the shutter speed knob or the lens diaphragm.

Exposure evaluation in the Senorex is unique in that the exposure being determined is for the small center spot in the viewfinder, the most important part of the picture being photographed.

By the time I reached the opera house, the camera's basic operations were noted and it was loaded with Tri-X film.

There, fortunately, Don Langer, photo columnist for the New York Post, guided me through the backstage labyrinth to the darkened auditorium.

Rehearsal was under way and we picked our way through the aisles.

While going through an aisle to get another angle, I stopped short of a seated group intently following the stage action.

It was a thrill to recognize Marc Chagall with Rudolf Bing, managing director of the Metropolitan Opera and Guenther Rennert, director of the opera in rehearsal.

I turned my camera toward them and could barely see the exposure needle in the dark area. I opened the lens to full aperture. It wasn't enough.

I turned the shutter dial to slower speeds. When the needle and pointer seemed to coincide, I braced my elbows on a seat and pressed the release gently.

PESSIMISTIC

On checking later, the exposure was 1/4th second at f/1.9. It had been very difficult to focus in the dim light and I was sure there would be camera movement during the slow exposure.

To sum it up, though it had been an exciting experience, I was very pessimistic about having any usable pictures.

I was wrong and the camera came through better than I dared hope.

Wide World Photos serviced two photos in advance of the opening performance of "The Magic Flute" at the Chagall.

And my difficult shot of the personalities behind-the-scenes of the opera was a good character study . . . an unexpected extra bonus. For camera and assignment: mission accomplished.

Paraguay Leader Object of Attention

ASUNCION, Paraguay (UPI) — A prime object of attention at the three-day meeting of American presidents in Punta del Este, Uruguay, beginning Wednesday, will be Paraguayan President Alfredo Stroessner.

Stroessner holds the current Western Hemisphere record for office tenure.

A military officer since 1921, Stroessner became president in a one-party (Colorado party) election July 11, 1954. He has survived innumerable plots and coup attempts since that date.

His opponents call his regime a dictatorship, because of the one-party rule and internecine bloodshed that has occurred. But he periodically has indicated desire to establish a free democracy.

As a lieutenant in the Chaco War with Bolivia, Stroessner won a reputation as a leader and as a crack shot with a rifle, mortar or howitzer.

WITHSTOOD ONSLAUGHT

At Campo Aceval, his artillery battery plus two infantry battalions withstood an onslaught by four Bolivian regiments. When the Bolivians fled, they left behind 150 of their dead.

Stroessner again saw action in July 1947. Rebels approached Asuncion from Concepcion in a fleet of river steamers, in an attempt to overthrow the regime of Gen. Higinio Morinigo.

Stroessner told his gunners to wait. In a four-day battle, they captured 1,500 rebels, and some 400 fled across the Paraguay River into Argentina.

He became commander-in-chief of the armed forces in October 1951. In later years Stroessner made official visits to Brazil and Argentina.

CHIEF ACHIEVEMENTS

He lists as chief achievements of his government an end to galloping inflation; construction of basic services, such as schools, roads and bridges; and establishment of a national merchant fleet.

Public services in this capital city now function as well, or

Suburb Has Merchants' Gun Clinic

HIGHLAND PARK (AP) — While its big city neighbor, Detroit, is discouraging the use of guns by merchants in the face of rising holdups, Highland Park police are running a free gun clinic to teach store owners and residents how to use firearms.

"Store owners and citizens in Highland Park and Detroit are afraid," said Police Chief William E. Stephens of Highland Park. "In the past several days residents have been flooding our offices requesting gun permits."

"If the police department is to give these people permits, then it is only reasonable to instruct them how, when and where to use their guns."

The program, begun last week, is designed solely for self-protection of businessmen and others against thugs and holdup men, said Stephens.

ARGUES AGAINST PLAN
Ray Girardin, Detroit police commissioner, tried to discourage a similar program sponsored by a Detroit grocer's group.

Girardin argued the plan could lead to more violence and shootings in holdups, and that a grocer's gun might be used against him.

Walter Shamie, a former mayoral candidate and editor of Gruner's Spotlight, a trade journal, organized a Detroit clinic after his efforts to have Detroit police sponsor the plan failed.

"I don't feel arming grocers would encourage more violence," Shamie said. "The type of punk committing these crimes would be frightened off if he knew his intended victim had a gun."

In the past five weeks, five holdup men have been shot to death by Detroit grocers during attempted holdups. Bandits have slain two grocers.

Stephens, who has 31 years experience as a police officer, was asked about his decision to establish the gun clinic in view of Girardin's fears.

"He has his troubles, I have mine and we've got crime," replied Stephens.

Highland Park, a suburb surrounded by Detroit, has 38,000 residents and a number of small grocery stores and small businesses on six main thoroughfares. Stephens said crime has increased by 27 per cent in Highland Park in the last year.

Lead in Potential Genius

Japan's Children No. 1 With 'Old Math'

TOKYO (UPI) — Little sail-or-uniformed Japanese children who learn their arithmetic on a 3,000-year-old adding machine are leading the world in potential mathematical genius.

Educators say there are a number of factors involved in the education of Japanese children, which may have bearings on the fact that they topped the list of a 12-nation survey on international achievement in mathematics.

The Japanese children according to the survey by Torsten Husen of the University of Stockholm, held a strong lead in the critical high levels of math excellence which produces scientists and scholars.

Do they do it with new math?

No indeed. Japanese children learn their arithmetic on the Chinese abacus — A Chinese adding machine which first became popular around the 6th Century B. C.

They slide little black beads along vertical wires on a wood frame to add, multiply and divide and some of them become so adept at this prehistoric calculator that they can beat an electric adding machine in a race.

Japanese children aren't exposed to very much "modern" education.

Besides learning the abacus while they are primary school students they must also memorize a basic character-alphabet about twenty times longer and infinitely more difficult and complex than the 26 A's, B's and C's their western counterparts learn.

The Swedish math survey didn't surprise many scientific observers in Japan.

Dr. Walter Hodge, representative of the National Science Foundation attached to the U. S. Embassy, said, "Every Japanese kid has to master the old abacus."

"It is a built-in computer. There have been cases where people using an abacus have won in races with electric adding machines."

"There is also the fact that Japanese children work harder and longer. I see these children going to school early in the morning on my way to work. And they put in six days a week," Dr. Hodge said.

"They pound the basic three R's into them at a younger age. There is less of the new education here."

CITES STATISTICS

"If repetition brings success and apparently it does in basic arithmetic — then the Japanese are ahead," Dr. Hodge said.

He said recent surveys have shown that Japan is educating a greater proportion of its children than most western nations.

"One study showed that more than 80 per cent of industry managers in Japan have college educations," Dr. Hodge said, adding, "This compared with about 30 per cent elsewhere."

"This country is so compact that there are few backwoods areas. The need for education is felt deeply nationwide, the pressure is on every student," he said.

Dr. Hodge pointed out that many students who fail the very stiff competitive examination for college entrance return again and again to keep trying.

"Back home the feeling seems to be that if you flunk out, just forget it," he said.

$1-Million Gift to Workers Is Boss' Reward

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — A wealthy businessman who sold his company for $63 million last November says he is going to distribute some of the money to his employees.

Geno F. Paulucci announced he would give tax-paid cash gifts to all his employees at the Chung King Corp.

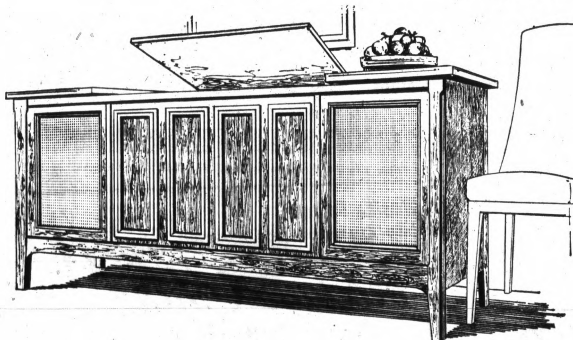

The gift, he said last weekend, was "in appreciation for long and faithful service. I felt we had a moral partnership and wanted them to have a little nest egg, too."

Employees of 40 years or more will receive an equal share of a million-dollar distribution, tax free. It was estimated that individual checks would amount to about $50,000.

Employees with less than 10 years will receive smaller checks, but Paulucci said they will average several thousand dollars.

Paulucci sold his Chung King Corp. to the R. J. Reynolds Co., and it is now operated as a Reynolds subsidiary headed by Paulucci.

RIOTER ARRESTED—Helmeted Nashville riot police lead a rioter away from the scene of Saturday night's racial violence, which continued in sporadic eruptions this morning. The scene was near predominantly Negro Fisk University.

New Attacks on Liu Hint Criminal Action

TOKYO (AP) — Mao Tse-tung's forces, reportedly bolstered by a 6-5 endorsement in the Chinese Communist party's policy making body, stepped up their attacks on President Liu Shao-chi today. It accused him of "eight serious crimes" and charged he was a "traitor."

The new attacks against Liu, already denounced as a counter-revolutionary, indicated Mao may be preparing a criminal action against the 66-year-old chief of state.

Correspondents in Peking for the Japanese newspaper Yomiuri and the Yugoslav news agency Tanjug reported that the standing committee of the Political Bureau of the party Central Committee had voted 6-5 to back Mao in his struggle to wrest the party and government machinery from Liu and his supporters.

If this information is correct, it could explain the sudden explosion of open attacks against Liu. It could also mean that Premier Chou En-lai, the reputed mediator in China's strife, has swung all the way over to Mao's side.

CAPITALIST ROAD

The New China News Agency

told of a Peking rally against Liu and said one of the speakers reported that in 1964 "he had charged the number one party person in authority taking the capitalist road (Liu) with eight serious crimes but had been brutally persecuted by the tiny handful of party persons in authority taking the capitalist road."

The eight crimes were not explained.

The attacks on Liu by official Mao press organs started in the last week of March although he had been under fire in unofficial Red Guard newspapers and posters for months.

The New China News Agency described the campaign against Liu as an "unprecedented mass movement." It said 20,000 workers, peasants, soldiers, revolutionary cadres and Red Guards held rallies in Peking Saturday and denounced Liu for launching "wild attacks on Chairman Mao and the thought of Mao Tse-tung."

Vessels in the U. S. Merchant Marine must carry crews composed of not less than 75 per cent U. S. seamen.

Violence Sporadic in Nashville

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Sporadic violence continued early today in the Negro college section of Nashville where gunshots, fires and looting marked the second straight night of racial trouble and left one student seriously wounded.

Police charged two Negroes with inciting a riot. They were identified, as George Washington Ware, 26, of Atlanta and Ernest Stephens, 25, of Tuskegee, Ala., and were held under $2,500 bond each early today.

Ware told police he was with "black power" advocate Stokely Carmichael here Saturday. Stephens said he was a worker for the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, headed by Carmichael.

The charges stemmed from riots which erupted Saturday night — a few hours after Carmichael spoke at a symposium at predominantly white Vanderbilt University. The violence was triggered when police ejected a Negro from a Negro tavern at the owner's request. Police said Carmichael was not seen in the area of the rioting.

STUDENT SHOT

One Negro college student was shot in the neck Sunday night and hospitalized as Negro rioters fired at police, stoned passing cars and roamed the streets between the campuses of predominantly Negro Fisk and Tennessee State universities a mile apart.

In two nights of violence, at least 50 persons were arrested. Most charges ranged from disorderly conduct to unauthorized possession and transportation of explosives. Four white men arrested had a shotgun and a pistol in their possession. Police arrested six men and a woman at a house where officers said they found some Molotov cocktails.

Three businesses, one owned by a white man, were set afire by Molotov cocktails, police said, and one vacant house several trucks caught fire. Rocks were thrown at fire engines en route to the blazes, which were extinguished quickly.

At a food store, several Negroes fled under a hail of police bullets after a window was broken.

MANY INJURED

Hospitals reported many persons injured by rocks and bottles thrown from behind bushes, trees and stone walls.

The area during the night and at the Tennessee State campus, where officers attempted to disperse a growing crowd, shots rang out for 20 minutes.

Police said the shooting began when they fired into the air as a warning. Officers said the gunfire was returned from the campus, and bullets struck a rock wall behind which police had taken cover.

The wounded student, Calvin Conners, 18, of Memphis, was standing in a crowd of Negroes here, you white s.o.b.," White said.

Hospital officials said his condition was satisfactory.

SQUADS WITHDREW

Riot squads withdrew from the Tennessee State campus after the shooting.

Ronald White of Madison, driving past the Tennessee State campus, said a Negro threw a brick through the window of his car, narrowly missing his 2-year-old daughter.

Some one said, "Get out of the two nights."

COMMUTERS WATCH FIRE—Commuters stand on a train platform (foreground) and have a close-up view as firemen pour water on an abandoned eight-story building which is being consumed by flames yesterday in Chicago. The building is near the University of Illinois Circle Campus and adjacent to the Eisenhower Expressway, just a couple of miles from Chicago's downtown.

Pakistan to Be Balky at Parley

By United Press International
Pakistan will be checking in as the second most reluctant pact member behind France at the meeting of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) ministers in Washington this month.

The reasons are three-fold: She doesn't want to commit herself unequivocally on Vietnam; she doesn't want to annoy Communist China and she opposes SEATO's confining itself to Communist aggression only.

Pakistan is not likely to quit SEATO because that would bring a split with Washington, but observers in Karachi forecast she will send an observer and not a participant.

France won't attend at all. No date has been set yet for a summit meeting aimed at deciding the future course of the European Common Market.

The meeting should have been held in Rome March 25 to mark the 10th anniversary of the signing of the Common Market treaty.

It has been delayed because it is feared French President Charles de Gaulle would not see eye to eye with other government heads, notably on the question of British membership.

Market experts in Brussels say any meeting now may be merely a ceremonial gathering of market heads of state.

NO KREMLIN HAPPENINGS: There is an apparent lull in the Soviet initiative, domestically and externally, although there is every reason in Moscow to believe the Kremlin is pondering at least two problems.

(1) The growing split in the international communist camp, with Romania drawing further away from Moscow and still uncertain whether it will attend the pan-European communist conference late this month;

(2) The deadlock on the Vietnam peace overtures is inevitably slowing down two-sided efforts for an East-West detente.

The Kremlin is expected to continue a cautious wait-and-see policy rather than seek to force a decision one way or the other.

TWO-HEADED PARTY:

Italy's two-headed Socialist party is in for trouble, with its two joint secretaries pulling in opposite directions.

Democrats of President Giuseppe Saragat and the formerly pro-Communist Socialists of Vice Premier Pietro Nenni merged last October after 19 years of division.

Both hoped the unity would give them a larger say in the government, dominated by Premier Aldo Moro's Christian Democrats, and post a challenge to the big Communist party.

But the unit is weaker than hoped and there have been a number of setbacks in local elections. Observers in Rome feel the situation will get worse.

Radiation Boosted for Breast Cancer

By Science Service
BOSTON—Results with surgery in advanced cases of breast cancer are so poor that surgeons, as well as radiologists, are advising radiation alone—especially the use of cobalt 60.

Dr. Eleanor D. Montague of the M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute, Houston, Tex., told a meeting here she would not go so far as to prescribe radiation alone for all stages of breast cancer, but Dr. Oliver Cope of the Harvard Medical School does.

$6,000, Furs, Gems Stolen

More than $6,000 in cash and coins plus an undisclosed amount of diamond jewelry and furs were reported stolen Saturday evening from the Anthony DeMiglio residence, 465 W. W. Bloomfield Township. Police said the DeMiglios were out for the evening when a thief gained entry by breaking a glass in the front door.

The loot includes $500 in silver dollars, $3,000 worth of half-dollars, $2,400 in cash, an undetermined amount of savings bonds, considerable jewelry, a mink coat and collar, silverware, perfume and luggage.

Police are continuing an investigation.

Rings, Watch Said Stolen

Jewelry valued at more than $500 was stolen from an Avon Township woman's home, Oakland County sheriff's deputies were told yesterday.

Mrs. Jo Ann Clark of 1145 Avon Manor told deputies four rings, including an engagement ring, wedding ring set, and a watch were taken.

Investigators said they found no sign of forcible entry.

Latin Common Market Clears One Hurdle

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (AP) - American foreign ministers, after 11 hours of hard bargaining, agreed early today to set in motion measures intended to lead to a common market for Latin America's 200 million people.

The foreign ministers are trying to smooth the way for the summit meeting of their chiefs of state opening Wednesday in this seaside resort. They still faced stubborn snags in establishing new foreign trade policies for Latin America.

Latin Americans want a bigger share of the U.S. market for their commodity exports. The United States has been resisting the demands for preferential treatment of hemisphere goods. However, the United States was reported trying to compromise with an offer to lift the requirement U.S. credit dollars be used only for the purchase of U.S. goods.

ISSUES UNRESOLVED

With President Johnson expected Tuesday, issues remained unresolved which could reduce the final declaration to a set of generalities. However, the ministers agreed on the economic integration and industrial development of Latin America.

The United States had wanted the common market started in 1970 and completed by 1980. But it bowed to demands that the term be extended to 15 years, feeling that the process may speed up of its own accord.

Latin Leader in State Ousted

A Pontiac man elected in January to head the state Latin Americans Union for Political Action (LAUPA) was ousted from office yesterday at a meeting in Pontiac.

Thomas Chavez Jr. of 122 W. Fairmount, head of the Michigan LAUPA for the past 15 months, was replaced as state president by Paul S. Olvera of Saginaw.

The special meeting at the Waldron Hotel was called over a month ago amidst allegations of "irregularities" in a LAUPA vote taken in January.

Two other Pontiac men were named to office, Clemente Flores being elected vice president and Guillermo Garcia sergeant-at-arms.

Other officers elected include Hector Cisneros of Detroit, corresponding and recording secretary; and Ricardo Meana of Grand Rapids, parliamentarian. They will serve until next January.

FAIL TO AGREE

The foreign ministers failed to agree on whether the preamble to the final declaration of the presidents should contain political statements.

Buendia started the foreign ministers with a demand that the Alliance for Progress be converted into a program like the Marshall Plan, which involved the United States spend-

City Man Robbed by Armed Quartet

A Pontiac man was robbed at knife-point early yesterday in the parking lot of a restaurant at S. Saginaw and Wilson, it was reported to City Police.

Anderson R. Lawson, 46, of 60 Douglas told officers four men threatened him with a switchblade knife and took his wallet containing $150 in cash.

Lawson said he also lost three pairs of eyeglasses valued at $120 during the alleged robbery.

GOP Club Will Meet

The Waterford Township Republican Club will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Pierce Junior High School.

James Barrett of Birmingham will be guest speaker, using the subject, "Mainstream of Human Progress."

Now retired, Barrett formerly was secretary-treasurer of the Murray Corp. of America and is a certified public accountant.

Freight Company Is Broken Into; Machines Taken

Business machines valued at $900 were stolen from the H. E. Ball Motor Freight Co., 124 Franklin Road, Pontiac police were told yesterday.

Taken were a typewriter, a billing machine and an electric calculator, police said.

Entry was made by breaking through windows and prying doors open, according to investigators.

Knights Templar Leader Elected

A Brandon Township man, John R. Ousnamer of 2773 Davison Lake, has been elected commander of Pontiac Commandery No. 2, Knights Templar.

Ousnamer will be installed along with other new officers in ceremonies at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Masonic Temple, 184 E. Lawrence.

Bill T. Maine, 20, suffered a fractured right leg when car driven by James V. Morocco, 21, of Rochester went out of control on Orion Road near Silverbell Road about 3 a.m., according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Morocco was not reported hospitalized.

Three Ponies, Chickens Saved in Barn Blaze

SHELBY TOWNSHIP-Three ponies and a flock of chickens were saved from a blaze early Saturday which did an estimated $7,000 to a barn owned by Roy Fischer, 11142 21 Mile.

A defective furnace in a workroom of the $20,000 structure was blamed by Shelby firemen for the damage. The flames reportedly raced up a stairway to the barn loft.

Firemen were on the job from 6:40 a.m. until 7:47 a.m. Assistance was received from the Macomb Township Fire Department.

Drive? Then You Can Use a Computer

By JOSEPH L. MYLER

WASHINGTON (UPI)—You're not too stupid to drive an automobile, are you?

All right. If you can learn to drive a car, you can learn to use a computer. And if you can use a computer, you're in. By the same token, if you can't, you may as well holler uncle and retire to the country.

It would not be precisely true to say this is the word from the President's Science Advisory Committee (PSAC) and its panel on computers in higher education.

It wouldn't be altogether false, either.

PSAC and the panel recently put out a report in praise of the computer. You can't launch spacecraft, fire missiles, sell airplanes, tickets, transport freight, automate factories, or manage hotel reservations well without computers.

CAN FREE MIND

Astronomer Urges Probes Beyond Mars

LAS CRUCES, N.M. (AP)—The astronomer who 37 years ago discovered Pluto, the most distant, known planet in our solar system, wants to send space probes beyond Mars.

Dr. Clyde W. Tombaugh warns that the road to discovery will not be easy — but man should aim at the mysteries of the largest planet, Jupiter, and the long orbits of the comets, and the rings of Saturn.

Furthermore, he believes there could be vegetation on Mars, and that this is responsible for the color changes that sweep the planet.

He notes Jupiter's "baffling display of great changes in the dark belts and light zones, the great Red Spot, the dark and white spots. Jupiter also exhibits great differences of color in various regions and changes in color, totally different from Mars."

A peculiar and giant comet which orbits the sun, known as Schwassmann-Wachmann 1, sometimes appears to erupt to a brightness a hundred times greater than normal. Within a few weeks it fades to the original faintness.

"The frequency of these outbursts may indicate an undreamed-of realm of interplanetary matter in the outer portion of the solar system," Tombaugh says. "We should send out a deep space probe to investigate it."

is get the best possible education in many fields of science and scholarship.

Computers can relieve the student of tedious problem-solving chores, thus increasing his learning time and freeing his mind for more creative activity.

PSAC recommend that the government help poor colleges to acquire computer services which the richer schools already provide for their students.

But computers are pretty complex, and what undergraduate is smart enough to run them? How do you persuade a computer to do your work for you, anyway?

TALK TO IT

You, uh, program it, of course. How do you program a computer? Why, you talk to it — in computer, or machine, language. Speak civilly to it in Fortran and a reasonably well-bred computer will knock itself out for you.

But Fortran, the committee report said, may be "unnecessarily complicated for student use." Happily, there are simpler computer languages such as Mad (used at the University of Michigan), Basic (Dartmouth), and Corr (Cornell).

Deadly Game for Formosans

China-Watching Is Fine Art

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI)—Formosa is the "peeping tom" of Asia where spies play a deadly game of China-watching with torture and death to the losers.

On this Nationalist Chinese island, science and human courage have pried apart the bamboo curtain to reveal secrets the Chinese Communists had hidden for years.

"We know everything that's going on in the mainland militarily and economically," a Nationalist intelligence source said, "and there's not much taking place politically that we don't know about."

The Nationalists are using the latest espionage and detection equipment, supplied by the United States.

In addition they have agents planted throughout China and swear their intelligence network reaches deep into the inner workings of the Peking regime.

LATEST MODELS
The latest models of the high-flying U2 spy-plane soar back and forth across China, using photographic equipment so secret that no Chinese are allowed to touch it.

Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) men install and maintain the equipment and personally process all the film.

At least three of the U2s have been lost over the mainland.

presumably due to engine failures which forced the pilots down to lower altitudes where they were destroyed by Communist fighters or missiles.

In Macao, riots earlier this year were a bitter blow to the Nationalists who had been using the Portuguese colony in the Pearl River estuary as an escape route for their agents.

EXODUS HALTED
Many Chinese in Taipei believe the riots in Macao were trained to force the Portuguese authorities to halt the exodus of mainland "refugees."

"The majority of these people are refugees," an intelligence officer said. "But there were also times when important agents who were trapped across the border to Macao, claimed they were refugees and were then spirited back here."

Planting spies in Red China has never been much of a problem for the Nationalists. They can easily be parachuted.

The Nationalist offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu have also been used as dispatch points for agents who were put ashore at various coastal rendezvous points in speedy "air-sea rescue boats."

OPERATED BY AMERICANS
Some sources here insist the boats were operated by American crews.

The Nationalists operate a sophisticated, high-powered communication system on Formosa.

Communist radios, teletypes and Morse code broadcasts are constantly monitored and their contents analyzed by intelligence experts.

The bulk of the intelligence work is carried out at a secret Formosa airfield where the U2s are based.

In a fenced and guarded remote section of the field are the hangars and the living quarters of the crews.

THOROUGH SCREENING
Every pilot has been thoroughly screened by Chinese security officers before joining the squadron.

The first of these pilots were sent to Okinawa where they were trained by the U.S. Air Force.

Once they join the elite U2 squadron, the pilots stay with it until death or retirement.

All are officers and most of them majors in the Nationalist air force.

The flights are long, sometimes as much as 12 hours, and the cramped, high-altitude environment has had the unusual effect of causing many of the pilots to lose all their hair.

In some cases the hair has grown back in; others are permanently bald.

Reapportioned

PETOSKEY (AP)—The Emmet County Board of Supervisors has reapportioned itself from a 22-member body to 11 members to comply with a new constitutional requirement.

Fever Protection Is Seen in Vaccine

By Science Service
WASHINGTON — Dengue fever vaccine has been tried out of U.S. troops with promising results, Dr. Charles Wissman Jr., head of the department of microbiology at the University of Maryland reports.

Caused by a virus and transmitted by the bite of mosquitoes, the disease is marked by severe pain and is sometimes called breakbone fever.

The largest trial of the vaccine was conducted in Puerto Rico during a 1963 outbreak when about 600 high school boys were vaccinated and compared with an equal number of controls.

The disease is common in the tropical Americas, in India and New Guinea, in addition to Vietnam. The vaccine was developed over 10 years of laboratory work with animal tests included. Human trials have been on volunteers. One of four strains taken from an epidemic in Hawaii is believed safest and most effective.

Russia to Open Arctic Site to Tourists

OSLO, Norway (AP)—The Soviet Union has offered to open a tourist people into Arctic Russia. The Norwegian government, mindful of past complications, has decided to look the other way.

The Soviet state travel agency, Intourist said that from May 1 tourists of all nationalities may visit a tiny segment of the Soviet Union called Boris Gleb. They may stay 48 hours without visas.

Boris Gleb adjoins a tongue of Norwegian territory thrust between northern Finland and the Soviet Union's Murmansk region, more than 150 miles north of the Arctic Circle.

In response to the Soviet offer of March 2, Norway said Wednesday it did not consider Boris Gleb significant enough as a tourist attraction to open a border station at Skaffenfjord, the closest point of approach.

The Norwegian statement said the government would stick to the regular border crossing at Storskog, farther away. It said if the Soviets want to admit tourists there without visas just to visit Boris Gleb, that is their own business.

It was at Boris Gleb that Newcomb Mott, an American vacationer, wandered across the border in 1965. He was arrested and died mysteriously in Soviet captivity.

Junior Editors Quiz on ANGELUS BELL

QUESTION: Why is the Angelus bell rung?

ANSWER: It is part of the devotions in the Roman Catholic Church that a bell, called the Angelus bell, is rung at 6 a.m., noon, and 6 p.m., to signal a time for prayer.

The first prayer starts, "Angelus Domini nuntiavit Mariam" and tells of the angel Gabriel's annunciation to the Virgin Mary that she was to become the mother of Jesus Christ. This first sentence starting with "angelus" is what gave the Angelus bell its name.

Many artists have used the idea of the Annunciation as a theme for famous pictures, such as the one in the upper left which is taken from an exquisite painting by Fra Angelico.

The feeling of sanctity and devotion in this picture is echoed in the drawings to lower right made from a famous painting by Jan Francois Millet. Two peasants, while digging potatoes, have heard the sound of the Angelus bell coming from a distant church tower and have paused for a few moments of devotion and prayer.

SEARCH FOR CAMELOT—Davis Evans passes a soil conductivity meter over an area at South Cadbury, England, while David Calderwood makes notes on a graph. Return to Indonesia Indicates U.S. Hopes JAKARTA (UPI) — Anyone harboring doubts that the United States is back in business in Indonesia should have been at Kemajoran International Airport here when a U.S. Air Force jet touched down last week. It carried a 35-member team of military experts from the U.S. National War College here for a brief 14-day visit as guests of Gen. Suharto's "new order" Indonesian government.

Their arrival was greeted with dignified reserve. But it signaled what the West is hoping will be a new era of Indonesian-American military assistance, an era marked by the conspicuous absence of Sukarno from the Indonesian political scene.

The United States, for the past six months, has been quietly stepping up a renewed military training program touching all branches of Indonesia's sprawling armed forces.

Although it started with a handful of Indonesian officers last fall, informed sources claim the program is working successfully and more Indonesian military "trainees" are being scheduled for the future.

EXERCISING CAUTION

The program, halted during Sukarno's rush toward communism, calls for the training of Indonesian military personnel in the United States.

With Sukarno out of the way, acting President Gen. Suharto appears more than happy to have the program re-established. But both governments are exercising extreme caution in keeping public attention diverted from the project.

It has been 1 1/2 years, since the now-banned Indonesian Communist party (PKI) staged an unsuccessful coup attempt.

The party enjoyed widespread popular support, and there is strong evidence that its underground components are still supported in Central and East Java.

COUNTS ON RED AID

Indiscreet publicity of such projects closely linking Indonesia with the western military machines could deliver Suharto's government into the hands of the adroit Communist propagandists.

Suharto is also counting on

Protests Affect Policy---RFK

'Make LBJ Conduct of War More Cautious'

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — The University of Michigan student newspaper reported yesterday that Sen. Robert Kennedy, D-N.Y., told an interview last week he believes the current vocal protest against the Vietnam war has made President Johnson conduct the war more cautiously.

"People are much more conscious now of what our national policy is because of the protests," Kennedy told the Daily in a telephone interview.

"If the protests hadn't occurred and if dissent didn't exist, we'd be doing things in Vietnam we aren't doing."

Kennedy told former Daily editor Mark R. Killingsworth, "Supporters of the war have had to answer a vocal segment speaking in behalf of the different viewpoint."

ADVOCATES HALT

Kennedy recently has advocated a halt in the bombing of North Vietnam but indicated he did not think this view would prevail.

"People who oppose the current policy are a minority. My own viewpoint is in the minority — the position that the bombings should be stopped."

"If you go from me to those who favor even more extreme positions, you still have a minority of the people," Kennedy told the Daily. "This group even if it acted together, can't turn the rest of the country to their view."

The senator boosted student activism. "I think the administration has been paying more attention to students and young people since the protest began," he said.

Road Dept. Probe Figure Is Reassigned

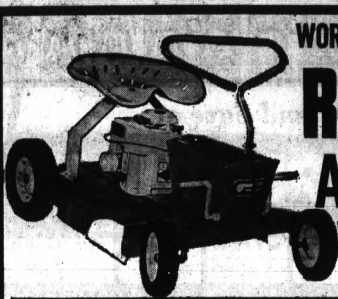

LANSING (AP) — Ben Williams, a planner for the State Highway Department and a key figure in an investigation of the agency, began a new job today.

Williams, 45, was reassigned Saturday and ordered to work at the East Lansing office of the traffic survey and analysis section of the traffic division. Williams said he is not qualified for the job.

"It's fairly obvious what they are trying to do," said Williams. He declined to elaborate. The new assignment was made by Highway Director Howard Hill.

Williams provided data to former Asst. Atty. Gen. Eugene Townsend, which led to charges of misappropriation of public funds and illegal payments to a contractor.

Still unproved, the charges prompted a full-scale investigation of the department by Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley.

Universities Tackling Urban Needs Now

By WHITNEY M. YOUNG JR.,
Executive Director
National Urban League

The campus of the College of the City of New York is situated on top of a hill overlooking the central Harlem ghetto.

Its geographic position is symbolic of the separation which exists between many urban universities and the communities they serve.

Too often the university perches on the hilltop, oblivious to the needs of the city.

Fortunately, many schools are leaving the ivory tower and coming into the valley, using their expertise and resources to tackle the immense problems faced by the urban population.

CUNY recently offered to break with tradition by asking the City Board of Education to let it operate five schools in Harlem.

The college intends to work together with the community to develop programs to make these ghetto schools into model educational institutions.

CLOSE WORK
In effect, the college would become the board of education for these five schools and would work closely with the community to make them better.

As of this writing, the board has yet to decide whether or not to accept the college's offer, but I hope they do.

Such close relations with a nearby college will help motivate pupils, permit greater involvement of parents, utilize the brains and techniques available to top colleges, and free schools from bureaucratic traditions, replacing them with the new ideas and the fresh approach the colleges can bring.

CUNY is not alone in attempting to become more involved with the total community. Other schools in metropolitan areas, across the country are showing that they too, understand that their role in urban life should be one of leadership.

CANNOT BE ISOLATED
They know that the modern university cannot exist as an isolated bastion in the midst of poverty and slums.

New York University, for example, is working with a school in the Bedford-Stuyvesant ghetto, attempting to make it a model school.

NYU also has a program whereby some students from Harlem, whose grades or finances would not ordinarily permit them to go on to college, get full scholarships to the school of education in return for promising to go back to Harlem to teach after graduation. Thus the students get the chance for a career in teaching, and the community will get an influx of trained, motivated teachers to help other kids escape from the slums.

Many colleges and universities are also involved in the anti-poverty program.

The Ford Foundation helped the University of Wisconsin establish a Department of Urban Affairs in Milwaukee and launch a program to help the poor there improve living conditions and opportunities, Rutgers to develop an anti-poverty effort in Newark, and Purdue to conduct a family service effort in Chicago.

Dozens of other universities are engaged in tackling the urban dilemma.

These activities pay off for both the schools and the cities. The schools benefit because they become more vital institutions, training their students for life in this society, not some ideal nonexistent one.

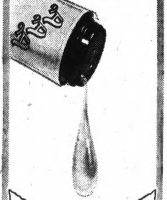

By working together with the community to solve problems affecting their common concerns, they build a creative atmosphere in which they can grow and prosper.

BEST BRAINS
The university faculty represents the best brains in the area, people of ability, genius and vision. By setting them to work on urban problems, cities can get ideas and expertise available nowhere else.

The public schools are perhaps in the best position to benefit from this partnership. Fresh ideas and fresh faces are needed more than anything else and the colleges have them.

But they are not the only source of new vitality for public schools.

White House Starts Screening Scholars

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The White House is beginning the screening of high school students for its 4th annual Presidential Scholars Program.

Some 120 boys and girls, two from each state, Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia and from American families living abroad, will be selected for Bronze Medalion awards.

A presidential scholars commission will pick the winners in May and President Johnson will make the presentations in June.

No One to Collect Taxes in the Philippine Islands

MANILA (AP)—It's income tax time in the Philippines but soon there may not be enough tax collectors left to bring in the money.

Finance Secretary Eduardo Romualdez has fired 20. More than 250 others, accused of keeping the lion's share of their collections, are under investigation.

"We have barely started our housecleaning," Romualdez says.

Lenore Will Speak to Family Service

Michigan's first lady, Mrs. George Romney, will be guest speaker at the Family Service of Oakland County meeting Wednesday night.

The 17th annual meeting is 7 p.m. at Devon Gables. Mrs. Romney will discuss "Goals for Family Living." She is a mother, grandmother and active church leader, yet she also averages five speeches a week.

Contact the Family Services of Oakland County 2351 W. 12 Mile, Berkley, for a reservation. Tickets are $5.

Jim: "Who would you prefer not to have as a partner? The man who always returns your lead or the man who never returns it?"

Oswald: "I'd like to avoid both of them but the man who never returns your lead has to be the least desirable." Jim: "Like almost everywhere else there is a happy medium. Let's discuss it this week."

Oswald: "Here's a 'good example from a recent tournament. West opened the deuce of hearts. Dummy played low and East won with the king. East was one of those players who always return their partner's lead so back came the nine of hearts. South won and led dummy's king of clubs."

"When West led that hold, South led a second club. West ducked again. South cashed the ace of hearts and led a third club which West had to win. West led a low diamond. South went up with dummy's king, came to his hand with the ace of spades and took his last two clubs and jack of hearts to wind up with two overtricks."

Jim: "I suppose that East explained that he was afraid declared would hold both ace and ten of diamonds and that a diamond shift might cost him a trick."

Oswald: "Naturally. It never occurred to East that the odds were three to one that West would hold one of those two cards, and that even if West held the nine a low diamond lead might be all right anyway."

Jim: "The diamond return would hold declarer to his contract. Since North and South were likely to play and make either two spades or three clubs I imagine that East's bid would make the difference between a top and bottom score."

Warren Hits Trial Delays

DETROIT (AP) — Chief Justice Earl Warren says that "the judiciary and bar of this country must move into the 20th Century as far as judicial administration is concerned."

The chief justice told 500 celebrating the Detroit College of Law's 75th anniversary Saturday that in one state it takes six years to obtain a civil jury trial, and in many others it takes four years.

"Such long waiting periods," he said, "constitute denials of justice."

And he added that it takes more than the simple addition of judges to cope with the problem.

CHIDES SCHOOLS, BAR

The chief justice also chided the nation's law schools and bar associations for what he called their failure to upgrade the practice of criminal law.

"There is no more honorable thing than to protect a man who is innocent," he said. "But it's just not considered respectable for those of the elite to go down to the jailhouse to see a man to protect his rights."

State Flier in Raid on N. Viet Trucks

SAIGON (AP) — Thailand-based Air Force F106 Thunderchief pilots made 18 strafing runs on a long truck convoy north of the Km 94 Pass in North Vietnam Saturday, destroying seven trucks and damaging numerous others.

Pilots, including Capt. Richard D. Lee, 25, of Kalamazoo, Mich., had to maneuver their aircraft through the pass under heavy anti-aircraft fire.

DYNAMIC DUO—Mao Tse-tung (left) and Lin Biao are making war with words and threats against both the United States and the Soviet Union. Lin, known as "the butcher of Korea" for the atrocities he condoned, is Mao's heir-apparent.

China Strife Makes Intervention Unlikely

By FRED SPARKS
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK—The chance of direct Chinese intervention in Vietnam has been reduced in recent weeks.

Chinese willingness and ability to supply Hanoi indefinitely with the stuff of war is now in question.

These are the views of the leading China-watchers in the world—in Moscow.

More than 200,000 Chinese troops, which were concentrated along the border with North Vietnam—the possible nucleus of an expeditionary force—reportedly have been assigned elsewhere, giving much comfort to those charged with the security of U.S. forces in the south.

Knowledgeable persons in Moscow, who make a business of collecting such information, explained there are two reasons why that threatening force has been shifted:

• Peking's final split with Moscow and the enormous tensions that the split has created. This has necessitated the dispatch of Chinese troops to its sputtering 4,000-mile border with the Soviet Union.

• The internal Chinese upheaval, which has brought large areas of the world's most populated nation to the thin edge of insurrection. This has also called troops from their normal stations to impose tranquility on provinces beset by thundering violence.

THIRD REASON

On top of these two setbacks for China's foreign ambitions, is a third: The American presence in strength in neighboring Vietnam and Thailand has bitterly divided the Chinese high command into hawks and doves.

The hawks, Mao Tse-tung and Defense Minister Lin Biao, as part of their "continuing revolution," have been advocating deeper Chinese involvement in Vietnam, despite all their current difficulties.

Who's Sorry Now? Most Tattooed People

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Seven out of 10 people who get tattooed regret it later and seek surgical aid in having the art work removed from their skin. Among the diseases spread by unclean tattoo needles are hepatitis, tuberculosis and syphilis.

If people kept their dogs chained, the U.S. postal service would be a mile less deep in red ink. The canine appetite for mailmen: 7,000 are bitten annually. This costs Uncle Sam $1 of million in sick leave and medical expenses.

Now that spring is here, don't absentmindedly start nibbling on strange plants. They can be deadly. Among familiar ones that are toxic are lilies of the valley, oleander and rhododendron.

LAZY MONARCH

Oh, for the life of a lion: It seems the king of the jungle is a lazy monarch. On a typical day he will spend three hours walking and stalking (he leaves most of the killing of prey to his wife), two hours eating and 19 hours resting or sleeping.

The time spent by employees in coffee breaks is resented by some employers today. But in 17th century England, coffee houses were so popular with husbands that a group of women signed a petition declaring,

"This bitter, nasty puddle of water so attracts that we scarce have two pence to buy bread, nor can we find our husbands even to call a midwife."

PAY THROUGH NOSE

Quotable notables: "What a holler would ensue if people had to pay the minister as much to marry them as they have to pay a lawyer to get them a divorce." — Claire Trevor.

If you don't eat 17.2 pounds of candy a year, your sweet tooth isn't as sweet as the average.

Driving can be a strain on the heart as well as hard on the nerve. British scientists found that anxiety in heavy traffic caused the hearts of some motorists to beat twice as fast as normal.

Perhaps one reason for the anxiety was fear of what the woman driver in the car ahead of them would do next. Rome solved that problem in 265 B.C. by passing a law prohibiting women from driving chariots.

NO KIDDING!

Geographical fun: You'd never expect to find a pessimist in Happy, Tex.; Happyland, Conn.; Happy Valley, Pa.; Happy Inn, Mont.; Happy Corners, Wis., or Happy Hollow, Ky.

Secret: The toughest phone number in Manhattan to get is the one for the dressing room of

WOMEN OFTEN HAVE BLADDER IRRITATION

Another Entertainer

Fine Art of Politics Shown

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Art Linkletter, regarded by many housewives as the greatest thing since instant cake mix, has been giving a series of lectures on "Entertainers in Politics."

His talk here was delivered at the Congressional Club, where members are married to senators and congressmen. They probably thought Linkletter was going to discuss their husbands.

But Linkletter was referring to people who are entertainers before they get into politics.

Most senators and congressmen don't become entertainers until after they start passing laws and having testimonial dinners. Or, as far as their wives are concerned, until after they get married.

An actor, Linkletter said, has both advantages and disadvantages when he runs for public office.

CAST AS VILLAIN
If he has frequently been cast as a villain, the voters may refuse to support him — except, of course, in Berkeley, Calif.

Nevertheless, Linkletter said, "You are going to see many more of them" getting into politics.

I have developed a habit of stiring up the political prospects of the show business people I meet, and Linkletter himself impressed me as a person with great potential.

Besides having his own daytime television show, "House Party," he demonstrated another valuable asset.

"I'm not a member of any organized political party," he said. "I'm a Republican."

By that you can tell he has a large repertoire of old jokes, which is virtually indispensable to a well-run campaign.

Linkletter disclaimed any political ambitions, however. He mentioned Robert Vaughn, "The Man From U.N.C.L.E.," and Chuck Connors, "The Rifleman," as the two actors most likely to be the next to take the plunge.

Maybe so, but I personally am convinced that George Kirby, the mimic, would make a better candidate.

Imagine what an effective campaign he could put on by adjusting his voice to fit the type of audience he was appearing before.

He could speak to a group of Teamsters in the voice of Bobby Kennedy; use the voice of Dean Martin to seek the votes of prohibitionists; cater to intellectuals with the voice of Tennessee Ernie Ford.

In politics, Kirby would make an unbeatable combination.

LONG LIVE THE KING—Often referred to as the king of jazz, former orchestra leader Paul Whiteman and his wife, Margot, were guests of honor recently at the annual dinner-dance of the New Hope, Pa., Historical Society. The band leader now lives in New Hope. The society gave the party in observance of Whiteman's 77th birthday and his 50th year in the music business.

Stars Set Despite TV Strike

Show Goes On for Oscars

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD — TV or not, TV. Joe Pasternak has gone quietly about his job of lining up the most star-filled cast for tonight's Academy Awards.

Even when the network strike made it appear that the show would be seen only by the 2,500 guests at the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium, the producer did not flinch. He has filmed a flock of backstage movies, and nobody needed to tell him that the show must go on.

As late as last Friday, Pasternak was making changes in the program.

"Liz Taylor isn't coming?" said he. "Okay, we'll put in Irene Dunne."
Miss Taylor was reported unable to leave her movie in Europe. Hence Miss Dunne was enlisted to present the Jean Hersholt humanitarian award to veteran film executive George Bagnall.

DIFFERENT CAST

"The rest of the show is going on as planned," said Pasternak. "I didn't take any chances this year. I started lining up the talent three months in advance."

He has performed the somewhat thankless chore for several years, and for tonight's show he aimed at a completely different cast from last year. Except for last year's acting winners, of course. They traditionally return to present Oscars to the new winners. Julie Christie, Lee Marvin and Shelley Winters will perform that function tonight, but Martin Balsam couldn't be sprung from his New York play. "You Know I Can't Hear You When the Water's Running."

wick singing "Alfie"; John Davidson with "A Time to Love"; and rock 'n' roller Jackie DeShannon on "Wishing Doll."

The awards show was rehearsed last week and through the weekend under a waiver from the striking union, the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists.

"That is, we rehearsed everything but Bob Hope's monologue," said Pasternak. "Bob doesn't like to do it before the show because someone might steal his gags. Besides, he knows the orchestra will only laugh at them once."

FAA Official Dies
HOLLAND (AP)—Dr. Chester Van Appleton, 56, a medical examiner for the Federal Aviation Administration and noted lecturer on American Indian lore and Michigan wild flowers, died at his home Sunday.

Father of Kidnaped Youth
Carried Gun to Rendezvous

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Herbert Young armed himself and drove to pay off his son's kidnaper with a microphone and a tape recorder hidden in his car.

On the way, Young stopped at his bank and picked up $250,000 in $100 bills — as demanded by the kidnaper — and left stocks as collateral.

The boy, Kenneth, 11, was delivered to an apartment house garage a few hours later. The boy, unharmed and apparently in good health, goes back to school today.

The decision to take the loaded 38-caliber pistol to the rendezvous was his, Young said Sunday night.

SKEET SHOOTER

"It's up to you," FBI agents had told him. Young, an Army veteran and a skeet shooter, said he decided to take the gun "in case the man attempted to get rough."

FBI agents placed the hidden microphone and recorder in Young's car.

As ordered in the note found on the rumpled bed from which his son was taken early last Monday, Young went last Wednesday night to a service station in Westwood Village, about four miles from his expensive home in Beverly Hills.

Young stepped into an outdoor telephone booth from which the line was being tapped by FBI agents, Young said. The kidnaper directed Young to drive a short distance away where he approached the wealthy financier's car on foot.

WANTS BAG

"Give me the bag," he ordered from outside the driver's window. "We can't keep this quiet any more," Young said. "There are too many people calling and asking questions. How is my son?"

"Your son is fine," came the reply. "Go straight home and wait for a call from your son."

The conversation was recorded while Young sat tensely, the pistol tucked under his left leg.

A few hours later, early last Thursday morning, Kenneth telephoned his parents from an apartment in the building where he was taken, blindfolded and tied.

California law permits police to use electronic eavesdropping devices so long as one participant gives permission in advance. Asst. Atty. Gen. Miles J. Rubin said.

The procedure is "the same as allowing another person to listen in on your extension phone," Rubin said.

Low...for people of all ages and families of all sizes—

Board of doctors announces a remarkable new extra cash hospital plan—expense-free, tax-free extra cash paid direct to you over and above any other insurance or Medicare—and, regardless of your age or size of your family, you can enroll for only $1.00!

AT LAST, HERE IS A PLAN THAT ACTUALLY PAYS YOU: ■ extra cash for sicknesses ■ extra cash for accidents ■ extra cash for maternity ■ increased extra cash for cancer, heart attack or stroke ■ extra cash doubled when husband and wife are both injured ■ all in addition to any other insurance or Medicare!

Now, during this Limited Enrollment Period, you can enroll yourself and all eligible members of your family with no red tape and without any qualifications whatsoever—but you must mail your Enrollment no later than Midnight, May 14, 1967!

Think of it. Now, simply by the stroke of your pen, you may enjoy the expense-free, tax-free protection of The Doctors Hospital Plan—the new "bonus" plan that pays extra cash direct to you when a sudden accident or an unexpected sickness hospitalizes you or a covered member of your family! And you may enroll during this Limited Enrollment Period—without having to see a company representative and without any red tape whatsoever!

Why You Need The Doctors Hospital Plan In Addition To Ordinary Hospital Insurance

The unique Doctors Hospital Plan was created by Physicians Mutual Insurance Company, an insurance company run by doctors. It has specialized in health and accident protection for physicians, surgeons and dentists exclusively for more than 65 years. Now this fine old "doctors company" has created this remarkable new "extra cash" plan—and at a cost substantially less than you might expect. Doctors know that ordinary hospital insurance—even Medicare—simply will not cover everything. Actually, even if your ordinary hospital insurance covers all your medical and hospital bills, what about all your other expenses—the bills that keep piling up at home—the tremendous and costly up to your budget, your reserves, and your family life? Consider for a moment:

If you, as husband, father and breadwinner are suddenly hospitalized, your income stops, your expenses go up. Even if you have some kind of "savings insurance" it probably won't come close to replacing your full-time pay. Where will the money come from for the rent or mortgage? For food, monthly payments, and all the other bills that keep coming in while you're hospitalized?

If your wife is suddenly hospitalized, who will look after the family, do the laundry, the marketing, the cleaning? You may have to take time off from your job—or hire full-time domestic help—to take care of things at home.

If one of your children is suddenly hospitalized, you will certainly spare no expense. As a parent, you wouldn't even think of the cost.

If you're over 65 and suddenly hospitalized, Medicare, fine as it is, won't pay all of your hospital expenses or any household expenses. Most senior citizens won't want to live on savings it may have taken a lifetime to accumulate...they want to retain their independence and all the other bills that keep coming in while you're hospitalized.

If you are the only parent living with your children, we suggest the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN. This covers you and all unmarried children living at home between 3 months of age and under 21. Under this plan, of course, future additions are not included since no maternity benefit is provided in the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN.

If you have no children, or if your children are grown and no longer dependent on you, you will want the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN. Or, if you are living by yourself, choose the INDIVIDUAL PLAN.

If you are suddenly hospitalized, when do my benefits begin?

On all plans, your cash benefits are paid from the very first day you enter the hospital, for as long—and for as many times—as you are hospitalized, right up to the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of the plan you select.

If you have no children, or if your children are grown and no longer dependent on you, you will want the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN. Or, if you are living by yourself, choose the INDIVIDUAL PLAN.

If you are suddenly hospitalized, when do my benefits begin?

On all plans, your cash benefits are paid from the very first day you enter the hospital, for as long—and for as many times—as you are hospitalized, right up to the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of the plan you choose.

Without "extra cash" protection, a hospital emergency may leave you with savings gone, debts you can't pay, peace of mind shattered—and even recovery can be seriously delayed!

Now, thanks to the valuable new plan created by a board of doctors, you can stop worrying!

How The Plan Protects You And Your Family

Now, with the unique "extra cash" protection of The Doctors Hospital Plan, you can avoid these worries—because you can be assured of extra cash income when you or any covered member of your family goes to the hospital. No matter how large your family, no matter what your age or occupation and without any qualifications whatsoever, you can choose any of four low-cost plans, specially tailored to suit your family's needs.

CHOOSE THE PLAN THAT SUITS YOU BEST—You can enroll for only $1.00!

$10,000 MAXIMUM—ALL-FAMILY PLAN: $100 a week ($14.28 a day) extra cash for you, $75 weekly ($10.71 daily) for your wife, $50 weekly ($7.14 daily) for each of your eligible children.

$7,500 MAXIMUM—ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN: $100 a week ($14.28 a day) extra cash for you, $50 weekly ($7.14 daily) for each of your eligible children.

$7,500 MAXIMUM—HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN: $100 a week ($14.28 a day) extra cash income for you, $75 weekly ($10.71 daily) for your wife.

$5,000 MAXIMUM—INDIVIDUAL PLAN: $100 a week ($14.28 a day) extra cash for you.

If you're a young, growing family, we recommend the All-Family Plan. You and your wife are covered at once for accidents, for new sicknesses after 30 days, and for maternity benefits after 10 months. And all your children (including future additions) between 3 months of age and under 21 are included at no extra cost as long as they are married and live at home.

If you are the only parent living with your children, we suggest the One-Parent Family Plan. This covers you and all unmarried children living at home between 3 months of age and under 21. Under this plan, of course, future additions are not included since no maternity benefit is provided in the One-Parent Family Plan.

If you have no children, or if your children are grown and no longer dependent on you, you will want the Husband-Wife Plan. Or, if you are living by yourself, choose the Individual Plan.

On all plans, your "extra cash" benefits are paid from the very first day you enter the hospital, for as long—and for as many times—as you are hospitalized, right up to the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of the plan you select.

On all plans, your cash benefits are paid from the very first day you enter the hospital, for as long—and for as many times—as you are hospitalized, right up to the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of the plan you choose.

SPECIAL EXTRA BENEFITS!

Whichever plan you choose, you get:
50% INCREASE IN YOUR CASH BENEFITS! If you or any member of your family is hospitalized for cancer (including Leukemia and Hodgkin's Disease), heart attack (acute myocardial infarction, coronary thrombosis and coronary occlusion), or stroke (apoplexy).

If you choose the All-Family Plan or the Husband-Wife Plan, you get in addition:
DOUBLE CASH BENEFITS! If both you and your wife are injured and hospitalized at the same time: You get twice the amount—$350 A WEEK!

Important: Here is another real "plus"—if you have been told that anyone in your family is "uninsurable!" Even if one of your covered family members has suffered from chronic ailments in the past—ailments that come back again and again, or are likely to recur—you will be covered for these pre-existing conditions after your policy has been in force for two years!

Naturally, The Doctors Hospital Plan will cover any new accident or sickness. Accidents are covered immediately. After your policy is 30 days old, you are covered for sicknesses which begin thereafter. There are only these minimum necessary exceptions: pregnancy or any consequence thereof (unless you have the All-Family Plan which covers maternity after the policy is in force for 10 months), war, military service, nervous or mental disease or disorder, alcoholism or drug addiction (if something happens "on the job" and is covered by Workmen's Compensation or Employers Liability Laws).

You are free to go to any hospital of your own choice that makes a charge for room and board, with these exceptions: only nursing homes, convalescent or self-care units of hospitals, Federal hospitals, or any hospital primarily for treatment of tuberculosis, alcoholism, drug addiction, or nervous or mental disorder.

In addition to the extra cash hospital benefits, you get all these valuable "extra" features:

How Your "Health-Bank Account" Grows Each Month

Here's a wonderful benefit, no matter which plan you choose—almost like having an extra "Bank Account." When your policy is issued, your insurance provides up to $10,000, $7,500, or $5,000—depending upon the plan you choose. This is your "Health-Bank Account."

Then, every month your policy is in force, a sum equal to your regular monthly premium (including your first month's premium) is actually added to your maximum. When you have claims, your benefits are subtracted from your "account." It's much like putting money in and taking it out of a bank account. Enjoy Peace Of Mind And Security

For as long as you live and continue to pay your premiums, we will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—and we guarantee that we will never cancel, modify or terminate your policy unless we decline renewal on all policies of this type in your entire state or until the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of your policy has been paid.

You Get Paid In Addition To Your Other Insurance Or Medicare!

Yes, The Doctors Hospital Plan pays you in addition to any other company's health insurance you carry, whether individual or group—even Medicare! Furthermore, all your benefits are tax-free! In some cases, you may come out hundreds of dollars "ahead." Of course, you may have only one like policy with Physicians Mutual.

Surprisingly Low Cost

Membership in The Doctors Hospital Plan costs considerably less than you might expect. You pay only $1.00 for your first month's coverage (regardless of your plan), then only $7.95 a month for the All-Family Plan; only $5.95 a month for the One-Parent Family Plan; only $5.95 for the Husband-Wife Plan; and the Individual Plan costs only $3.50. (When you become 65—or if you are over 65 now—special Senior Citizen rates apply. See the modest increase in the box following.) And remember, regardless of age, size of family or the plan you select, you get your first month for only $1.00!

SPECIAL NOTE IF YOU ARE OVER 65

Even though Medicare will pay most of your hospital expenses it will not cover all of your needs. During this limited enrollment, you can get the extra cash protection you need during the high-risk senior years without any qualifications just by using the form below!

It's a fact that people over 65 are greater risks. They go to hospitals more often and have larger hospital bills than any other age group. That's exactly why senior citizens need extra cash protection! And that's why some hospital plans won't accept them or charge rates beyond their means. But The Doctors Hospital Plan not only accepts you regardless of age, it gives you easy-to-carry protection that is within your means. If you are over 65 now, or when you become 65, the following modest monthly increase applies. (This is the only increase that can ever be made as you continue your policy in force):

19 Important Questions Answered

ABOUT THE NEW DOCTORS HOSPITAL PLAN

1. What Is The Doctors Hospital Plan?

The Doctors Hospital Plan is a brand-new, low-cost health protection plan that pays extra cash direct to you when a covered accident or illness hospitalizes you or a covered member of your family.

2. Why do I need The Doctors Hospital Plan in addition to my regular insurance?

Probably your present hospital insurance won't cover all your hospital expenses, but if it does, you will still need help to cover all your household expenses when you are hospitalized.

3. Can I collect even if I carry other health insurance?

Yes, The Doctors Hospital Plan pays you in addition to any health insurance you carry. Whether individual or group—even in addition to Medicare! And all your benefits are tax-free! Of course, you may have only one like policy with Physicians Mutual.

4. Is there a lot of red tape to qualify?

None at all. Your only qualification is to complete and mail your Enrollment Form by the deadline date shown.

5. When plan can I choose?

You may choose any of four low-cost plans—you can actually select the exact plan that suits you best!

If you're a young, growing family, we recommend the ALL-FAMILY PLAN. You and your wife are covered at once for accidents, for new sicknesses after 30 days, and for maternity benefits after 10 months. All your children (and future additions) between 3 months and under 21 are included, at no extra cost, as long as they are married and live at home.

If you are the only parent living with your children, we suggest the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN. This covers you and all unmarried children living at home between 3 months of age and under 21. Under this plan, of course, future additions are not included since no maternity benefit is provided in the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN.

If you have no children, or if your children are grown and no longer dependent on you, you will want the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN. Or, if you are living by yourself, choose the INDIVIDUAL PLAN.

7. How much can I be paid?

Each plan has its own "Aggregate of Benefits," what we call the maximum amount the ALL-FAMILY PLAN, the maximum is $10,000—$100 a week ($14.28 a day) extra cash income for you, $75 weekly ($10.71 daily) for your wife, $50 weekly ($7.14 daily) for each of your eligible children.

Under the ONE-PARENT PLAN, the maximum is $7,500—$100 weekly ($14.28 daily) for you, $75 weekly ($10.71 daily) for each of your eligible children.

Under the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN, the maximum is $7,500—$100 weekly ($14.28 daily) for you, $75 weekly ($10.71 daily) for your wife.

Under the INDIVIDUAL PLAN, the maximum is $5,000—$100 weekly ($14.28 daily) for you.

Yes: You receive a 50% increase in cash benefits if you or any covered family member is hospitalized for cancer (including Leukemia and Hodgkin's Disease), heart attack (acute myocardial infarction, coronary thrombosis and coronary occlusion), or stroke (apoplexy).

If you and your wife are both injured and hospitalized at the same time and are covered on the ALL-FAMILY PLAN or the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN, you get double the amount—$350 A WEEK!

You will be covered in any hospital that makes a charge for room and board, except nursing homes, convalescent or self-care units of hospitals, Federal hospitals, or any hospital primarily for treatment of tuberculosis, alcoholism, drug addiction, or nervous or mental disorder.

It becomes effective the very same day we receive your Enrollment Form. Accidents are covered on that date. After your policy is 30 days old, sicknesses which begin thereafter are covered. Under the ALL-FAMILY PLAN, childbirth or pregnancy or any consequence thereof is covered—right up to the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of the plan you select.

Even if one of your covered family members has suffered from chronic ailments in the past, pre-existing conditions are covered after the policy has been in force for two years.

Only these minimum necessary exceptions: pregnancy or any consequence thereof (unless you have the ALL-FAMILY PLAN which covers maternity after the policy is in force for 10 months).

FAMILY PLAN, war, military service, nervous or mental disease or disorder, alcoholism or drug addiction, or any consequence thereof (unless you have the ALL-FAMILY PLAN which covers maternity after the policy is in force for 10 months).

We will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—for as long as you live and continue to pay your premiums. We guarantee that we will never cancel, modify or terminate your policy unless we decline renewal on all policies of this type in your entire state or until the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of your policy has been paid. You, of course, can drop your policy on any renewal date.

18. Why Is The Doctors Hospital Plan almost like having an extra "bank account"?

When your policy is issued, your insurance provides up to $10,000, $7,500, or $5,000—depending upon the plan you choose. This is your "Health-Bank Account." Then, every month your policy is in force, a sum equal to your regular monthly premium (including your first month's premium) is actually added to your maximum. Gay 'Comes Back' to Win

Brewer Wipes Out Memories of 'Choke' in '66 Masters

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press
AUGUSTA, Ga. — Gay Brewer might make a good subject for a TV commercial because as the hair tonic slogan goes, "he came back."

The pug-nosed veteran of 10 years of touring pro golf had the opportunity presented him for the second straight year in the Masters golf championship and this time he didn't flub it.

He came back from the three-putt disaster on the 18th last year to win the coveted green jacket yesterday with a five-under-par 67 for a 280 total.

This was one stroke ahead of Bobby Nichols, the leader through 64 holes who had a 70 for 281.

Brewer thus broke a 7-year strugglehold on the Masters held by Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player, and not only picked up the $25,000 first prize but a $100,000 which many say are worth a million dollars in commercial endorsements.

Dark horse Bert Yancey, the 25-year-old ex-West Point cadet who led the first two rounds and was in a three-way tie with Julius Boros and Nichols after Saturday's third round, refused to fold until he bogeyed the 16th and 17th holes to finish with 72 and third place at 284.

Boros, the 47-year-old barned veteran who was hoping to become the oldest Masters winner, was the sentimental favorite. He added his second two-under par on Saturday, but yesterday, after admitting taking some pep pills, he tallspinned on the backside.

He bogeyed the 11th hole and took a double-bogey on the treacherous 155-yard 12th hole, where he hit his tee shot into the "thick brush back of the green and finally three-putted.

His disappointing round ended on the 18th with a bogey after his blast shot was caught near the lip of the trap.

Boros finished fifth, one stroke behind Palmer, and he picked up $5,500 for his 286. Palmer, five shots behind at the 54-hole mark, shot a respectable 69 yesterday, but after missing a 12-foot eagle putt on the 18th he said, "It was then that I figured it just wouldn't be my day."

The man who won the hearts of the galleries on Saturday with his spectacular 66, Ben Hogan, the 54-year-old all-time great, saw his putter desert him Sunday and he struggled home with a 77 for 280 total and $2,720.

For Brewer it was coming back from what was called the big "choke" of 1966.

It was on the 18th green where he needed only a par for the title. He three-putted from 40 feet, leaving a five-footer at the lip.

In the playoff, Jack Nicklaus won with a 70, Tommy Jacobs had 72 and Brewer, 73.

BOTH MISSING

Nicklaus and Jacobs however weren't around yesterday. Both were eliminated at mid-point, but it was Nicklaus who helped the new champion with his green coat.

"I enjoyed seeing the others guys' expressions," said Nicklaus, who toured the course in a caddy cart.

"I guess I am the happiest man in history to win here," said Brewer when a given the Masters jacket.

It was a comeback win for Brewer as Nichols sank a 25-foot putt on the first hole to go three shots ahead. After picking up birdies on No. 2 and No. 7, Brewer finally pulled even with Nichols on No. 18.

Nichols, the former PGA champion, bogeyed by missing a 10-foot putt and then fell one stroke behind at the 19th.

At the 15th came the turning point. Nichols was on the green in two with a 50-foot chance for an eagle, while Brewer overshot the 520-yard green.

Brewer, however, chipped 10 feet past the cup and sank the birdie putt. Nichols also made his birdie but Brewer kept the one shot advantage.

At No. 18, with some memories of 1966 still in his mind, Brewer watched as Nichols tried for a 25-foot birdie to tie it. He missed by two feet.

Then Brewer lagged his ball from 20 feet to 18 inches and canned it for his par and the championship.

"I may have thought of it, but this was a different match, different year, different putt and I didn't worry about," he said. "I'm just tickled now to be wearing this green jacket for the next year."

Ruby Is Winner of Auto Club Championship

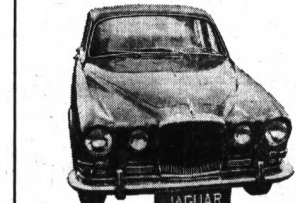

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Lloyd Ruby of Wichita Falls, Tex., led every lap to score a convincing victory in the accident-marred Jimmy Bryan 150-mile U.S. Auto Club Championship race Sunday.

The 38-year-old racing veteran pocketed $9,199 of the $21,300 total purse.

Ruby averaged 86.295 miles per hour in his rear-engine Offenhauser over the Phoenix International Raceway's one-mile paved oval to easily outdistance Roger McCluskey of Tucson, Ariz., the official second place finisher.

Gordon Johncock, Hastings, Mich., was third, followed by Joe Leonard, San Jose, Calif., and A. J. Foyt, Houston.

Two accidents involving five cars, marred the race, injuring two drivers and putting all five machines out of the running.

Tigers, Twins to Contend

AL Skippers Respect Orioles

By the Associated Press

Most of the American League managers agree with the odds and the experts that the Baltimore Orioles are the team to beat this year.

Minnesota and Detroit get strong support and, of course, nobody is going to finish last and all hope to wind up in the first division.

The National Leaguers expect no runaway while designating Pittsburgh and San Francisco as the teams to be respected. Everybody talks about being a contender, except Grady Hatton of Houston, West Western of the Mets and Leo Durocher of the Chicago Cubs.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Hank Bauer, Baltimore:

"I see no signs of complacency. I don't like making predictions, but we should be right up there as a contender. It could be a close race."

Sam Mele, Minnesota: "I'm definitely optimistic about our chances to recapture the pennant we won in 1965. But it's going to be a tough year, not only for us, but for Baltimore as well. Detroit looks awfully tough, and if Chicago comes up with a guy who can score runs for them, they'll be rugged. Cleveland is in good shape."

Mayo Smith, Detroit:

"I think it's going to be a real good race. You're going to have better balance in the league than there has been in the past few years. Baltimore is the club to beat, but Minnesota may be tough. Chicago, Kansas City, California all could be in there. The Yankees could make trouble. Boston will score a lot of runs but won't have the pitching."

"Our club is in there. The bullpen is the answer. If it turns out good we will be in the thick of it. Injuries to key personnel could probably be the key factor as to which club wins it."

Eddie Stanky, Chicago:

"Baltimore has to be rated as the team to beat and Detroit as No. 1 darkhorse in the American League. Anytime you have enough pitching and defense to be in every game, although we may be a little short on hitting. The whole league is stronger."

Ralph Houk, New York:

"I believe the team is improved. They are not a 10th place club. I guess everybody would consider it a miracle if we won the pennant. But maybe the White Sox, you have to be rated as a genuine contender."

Joe Adcock, Cleveland:

"We have five good starting pitchers. Beyond that I don't know. We'll just have to wait and see."

Bill Rigney, California:

"I like my players and I think our pitching is going to be better than everybody thinks. I keep feeling we'll be better defensively and offensively although we haven't seen a lot of offense this spring. We could have finished third or fourth last year if we had Rick Reichardt for the whole season."

CHALLENGERS

Alvin Dark, Kansas City:

"Baltimore has to be the favorite and Detroit, Minnesota and Chicago should be strong challengers. I think we could be right in the thick of it. We have enough pitching and defense to be in every game, although we may be a little short on hitting. The whole league is stronger."

But Must Dethrone Milford Nine

Clarkston Hopes High in W-O Chase

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the fourth in a series of articles in which coaches discuss the outlook for their teams in the 1967 baseball races. Today: the Wayne-Oakland League.)

Every team has its nemesis, and for Clarkston's baseball team, Milford fills that bill. The Wolves recently added the Wayne-Oakland League baseball title to their trophy case at Clarkston, and now they're gunning for the baseball championship.

The Wolves have a lot of talent. Everyone in the league knows it and they've all climbed onto the Clarkston bandwagon.

Milford and Northville, co-champions last year, and Bloomfield Hills fight to battle for the No. 2 spot.

After those four should come Holly, West Bloomfield, Clawsonville and Brighton.

NEED PITCHING
Teams that win in the W-O do it, primarily, with pitching and Clarkston is strong in that department.

The Wolves have a pair of strong right-handers in Dan Fife, an All State basketball player, and Rich Johnson. The team also has the hitting to back the pitching.

But Clarkston's problem is beating Milford. The Wolves haven't beaten the Redskins in the past three years, and Fife, who posted a 7-3 record last season, suffered two of those setbacks at the hands of the Redskins.

And to win in the W-O you have to beat Milford, a team that has won or shared the title for seven of the past nine years. Northville won in '62 and Bloomfield Hills took it in '63.

The time is ripe for the Wolves and coach Pete Thompson.

TOUGH HURLER
In posting a 7-3 record, Fife struck out 120 batters, walked 30 and yielded only 34 hits and 14 earned runs in pitching 68 1/3 innings. Johnson compiled a 4-1 record, fanning 30 in 31 starts.

Fife, who also plays shortstop, batted .357 last season and ranked second to second baseman Tom Allen (.418) in that department.

Other performers Thompson is counting on include Randy Nicolson (third base), John Getzan (center field), Jeff Keyser (catcher) and Jerry Ostrum (outfield-first base).

Milford may be short in the hitting area but the Redskins have right-hander Chris Mortimer who posted a 3-0 record and helped the Skins to a 14-5 over-all record.

First baseman Jim Kaspar, who hit .261 last season, also figures prominently in the Milford plans. Other regulars returning are third baseman Herb Mick and catcher Bob Cook.

GOOD PITCHING
Bloomfield Hills has some pitching that could produce a title.

Heading the Hill's squad is captain Bob Calhoun, a senior pitcher-first baseman who is the center of coach Hal Henderson's hopes.

Calhoun, who also captained

the football and basketball teams, posted a 4-2 mound record along with a 2.06 ERA. The other pitchers who could boost the Barons are Stacey Walters (1-1) and John Baumann (1-0). Both are right-handers.

Kim Kezarian batted .350 last season for the Barons, tops on the club, and he'll be back patrolling an outfield slot. Catcher Brian Parrott was the only other strong hitter at .308.

West Bloomfield suffered through a 1-12 campaign last year and hopes were high for this year's Laker crop. But which placed second to Southwest would have been a good thing to show up and two freshmen ball players last year. One who also earned letters decided to bypass baseball.

GREEN TEAM
So, new coach Bill Mason finds himself with a green team at most positions.

Two of the three regulars returning for the Lakers hit over .300 last season. First baseman Jerry Robb batted .326, while second-sacker Brownie Maslow led the club with a robust .357 mark.

Major league prospect Doug Swiss heads a crew of nine left-handers returning at Northville.

Swiss, a catcher, batted only .278 last year, but coach Bob Kucher is confident the veteran backstop will hit that mark.

Kucher's big problem will be replacing pitcher Steve Evans, who piled up a 12-2 record that included two no-hitters last year. He's now at University of Michigan.

Reagan Ending First 100 Days

By BILL BOYARSKY
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Ronald Reagan has swept through his first 100 days as governor of California with a dash and glamor reminiscent of his movie star days, but he concedes it hasn't been a honeymoon.

A Democratic opponent calls it a period of "on-the-job training" for a newcomer to office.

Nevertheless, Reagan has been propelled into the national spotlight as a possible Republican presidential nominee — praised and condemned for his determination to keep campaign promises of governmental economy and to move California along a conservative path.

"I think he has made more headway this year than any other possible Republican candidate for president," said Oregon's first-term Republican governor, Tom McCall.

PLENTY OF NOISE
Reagan, inaugurated Jan. 2 as chief executive of the nation's most populous state, completes his first 100 days Tuesday.

There has not been the flood of new laws that sometimes marks the advent of a landslide victor, but there has been plenty of noise and fire as Reagan has tried to redirect the course of the state accustomed to the liberal programs of his Democratic and Republican predecessors.

For one thing, Reagan confronts a legislature controlled by the Democratic opposition; and sometimes his Republican colleagues have disagreed with him.

In three months he has changed from a Hollywood personality to an executive who takes a briefcase of papers home at night and makes decisions next day from one-page memos typed by his staff.

RETAINING POPULARITY
In four paragraphs, they summarize the issue, the facts, the discussion and the recommendation.

Reagan has spoken before 10,000 demonstrators protesting his effort to charge tuition at state colleges and universities.

Polls indicate he has retained much of the popularity which carried him to an almost million-vote victory over Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown last November.

At the age of 56, Reagan is enjoying the job and is jaunty and full of the charm that made him a hit on the screen and on the political platform.

His hair is still a youthful brown, and his lined face is of ten creased in a friendly grin.

With his national prominence increasing, the governor intends to lead a Reagan-for-president favorite son delegation to the 1968 Republican National Convention.

NOMINATION POSSIBLE
He maintains he is not a serious candidate, but his California supporters believe he could wind up with the nomination if the convention should deadlock.

In his 1966 race Reagan promised more local control and strict economy — a program he called the "Creative Society."

He concedes he has had problems but insists, "I believe we have made a good start toward implementing the Creative Society."

"I'd been led to believe there was a honeymoon period, but evidently I lost the license on the way to the church, because I haven't had any honeymoon. His Democratic opponents agree with this.

"Largely on-the-job training," is the way Democratic Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh sizes up the first months.

Republican Lt. Gov. Robert H. Finch differs, saying, "By and large, the public is going to give him a big 'E' for effort and thinks he is trying to do what he set out to do.

"The first 100 days have been a shakedown period, setting up relationships. The governor's staff has been jockeying to see who will be closest to his ear and there has been jockeying by legislative leaders."

Reagan so far has fallen short of his goals in economy.

He is heading for a bitter fight with legislative Democrats and Republicans over his opposition to proposed withholding of state income taxes from salaries.

LARGEST BUDGET
He is now asking for a $5.06-billion state budget, largest in the history of any state.

He blames the need on the former Brown administration, which he says left the treasury bare.

To replenish state funds, he has called for a $946-million tax increase, largest in state history.

He announced for this year his effort to charge tuition, and has delayed slightly the projected firing of some thousands of employees in the state mental health program.

Some newspapers which endorse him are now critical of his economies and what they say is insufficient communication with the legislature.

On the plus side, Reagan can point to a $20-million reduction in current spending and a $27-million cut in departmental budget requests.

BILLS APPROVED

The Senate has approved his bills to increase penalties for robbery, burglary and rape.

Antipornography bills have cleared a committee. Proposals to ease farm labor disputes and improve rural living conditions are before the legislature.

He has announced plans to reform judicial appointments, reorganize the executive branch and improve welfare and park administration.

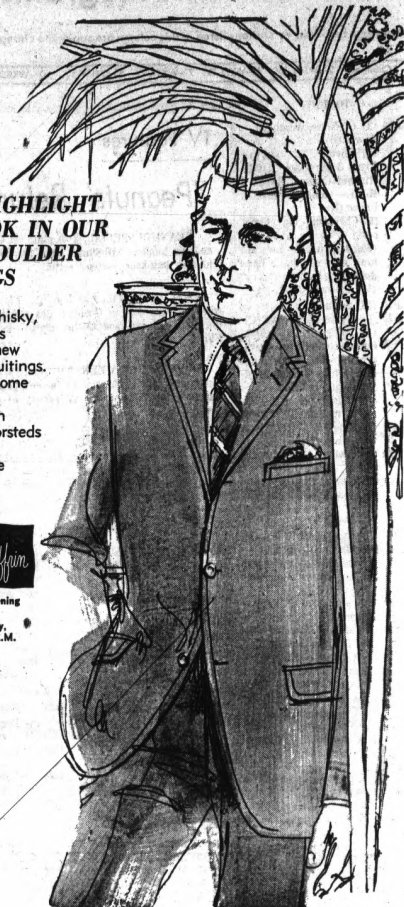

He has put volunteer task forces of business executives to work on tax reform, governmental efficiency and problems of minorities.

Tentative OK Gained in Radio-TV Dispute; Terms Not Revealed

NEW YORK (AP) — Negotiators reached tentative settlement today in the nation's first radio and television strike that put celebrities on picket lines and programming on a schedule of old films and reruns. The strike began March 29. Terms of the agreement between the American Federation of Radio and Television Artists and ABC, CBS and NBC were not revealed pending a union vote, but shirt-sleeved bargainers laughed and shook hands as the settlement was announced at 6 a.m. today after a session that began at 11 a.m. Sunday.

Pickets still walked outside NBC at Rockefeller Center in New York City, however, and mediators would not say if the lines would be withdrawn. No date was announced for the union vote on acceptance.

"The strike is still on," one picket said.

Immediately involved in the settlement was the fate of the motion picture Academy Award show, scheduled for tonight on ABC. It was not known if arrangements could be made to broadcast the show.

MEET WITH MEDIATOR

Observers said a break in the talks came at 3 a.m. when the parties met jointly with federal mediator Ralph C. Patterson. They talked for an hour and 20 minutes, then separated with a network spokesman announcing: "The union people will call us when they want us."

IN TUNE — Sen. Philip A. Hart (right) and George Googasian, Oakland County Democratic chairman, gather around Dr. Howard McNeill while he plays the organ during a reception for Hart in McNeill's Bloomfield Hills home Saturday. The party preceded a dinner in honor of Hart at Oakland University.

Hart Sees New Fight Over 1-Man, 1-Vote

By JIM LONG

A new and bitter fight is brewing over the one-man, one-vote legislative apportionment concept, according to Sen. Philip A. Hart.

Hart's warning came at a speech delivered at a dinner in his honor at Oakland University Saturday night.

Some 800 persons paid $5 each to give tribute to the Oakland County Democrat making it the most successful in the 10 years that the event has been held.

An advocate of the Supreme Court ruling which called for reapportionment, Hart said the looming battle would likely be confusing.

"I would feel more confident about the outcome if the opposition forces were not headed by Sen. (Everett) Dirksen, whose skill and eloquence have never been in question," said Hart.

FILIBUSTER BLOCK

Dirksen was blocked by a Senate filibuster last year in his attempt to have Congress pass a constitutional amendment and is now trying to overturn the court's decision with a constitutional convention called by the states.

Hart said that so far 32 of required 34 states legislatures have asked for a convention.

would allow one house of a state legislature to be apportioned on the basis of land area instead of strictly on population.

'Permissive Society'

HAMILTON, N.Y. (AP) — Rep. Gerald Ford, House minority leader, says the nation is facing a mounting crime wave because the administration's "Great Society" has become "a permissive society which encourages disrespect for the rule of law."

"The law," he explained "requires that Congress shall call a convention upon the application of two-thirds of the states."

"But are all the applications valid?" Hart asked.

HAS DOUBTS

He said he doubts it because in many cases state legislatures passed their resolutions before they were reapportioned in accordance with the Supreme Court ruling.

High Winds Will Abate Tonight

Northwest winds at 15 to 35 miles howled into the Pontiac area this morning, shoving spring and its balmy temperatures into the background.

The weatherman predicts the return to wintry weather will persist through tomorrow. Tonight's low will fall in the 25-to-32 range.

The moderate gale winds will diminish by tonight, leaving clear skies with the promise of sunshine tomorrow.

Spring will return Wednesday with increasing cloudiness, higher temperatures and a chance of showers.

LOW READING

Low temperature in downtown Pontiac prior to 3 a.m. was 36. By 1 p.m. the mercury climbed to a brisk 40.

Following the Wednesday warming trend, temperatures will remain 4 to 7 degrees above the normal high of 45 until the weekend when rainfall is expected to total one-half inch.

Johnson Flying to S. American Summit Tonight

U.S. Moon Program Faces Further Delay

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson flies to South America tonight for a hemispheric summit meeting that, in the view of American officials, can't possibly bear much solid fruit until the 1970s.

The main purpose of the 19-nation talks at Punta del Este, Uruguay, is to line up broad support for south-of-the-border development schemes that would require at least several years of planning before their impact would be felt.

Johnson thus has made it clear in advance that he expects neither surprises nor spectacular developments at this first meeting of hemispheric presidents in 11 years.

The chief executive sets out at 11 p.m. EST, from Dulles International Airport in suburban Virginia and is to fly non-stop to the Uruguayan capital of Montevideo — a 10-hour trip.

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — America's man-to-the-moon program faced further delay today to allow time to overcome workmanship and management deficiencies revealed in a blue-ribbon board's final report on the spacecraft fire that killed three U.S. astronauts.

The eight-man board which spent seven weeks in an exhaustive investigation of the Apollo 1 tragedy said it uncovered "many deficiencies in design and engineering, manufacture and quality control."

The report recommended a major overhaul of Apollo spacecraft, including a quick-escape hatch, fewer combustible items inside the moonship, and a review of components in Apollo electrical, communications and life-support systems.

House and Senate Space Committee members said the National Aeronautics Space Administration and its contractors should take time to correct the ills.

"These deficiencies must be catalogued and corrected and must not be repeated," said Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., chairman of the Senate Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee.

'UNBELIEVABLE CARELESSNESS'

Rep. Olin E. Teague, D-Tex., whose subcommittee on NASA oversight began its own Apollo 1 investigation today, said "there were all kinds of carelessness, and some of it was unbelievable."

The Apollo 1 board-review said in its final report released yesterday that a bruised or broken wire most likely sparked the blaze that killed Air Force Lt. Col. Virgil I. Grissom and Edward H. White II and Navy Lt. Cmdr. Roger B. Chaffee in a launch pad test Jan. 27.

While "no single ignition source could be conclusively identified," the report said the probable cause was either an electrical arc or short circuit in "DC direct current wiring . . . providing power to environmental control system instrumentation."

An electrical arc is a band of sparks between two closely placed electrical sources, such as open ends of a broken or bruised wire.

PROBABLY ORIGIN

In its 3,000-page final report, the board said the fire is believed to have started in the left-hand equipment bay, beneath Grissom's couch, where the suspected wiring was located.

The board, headed by Dr. Floyd L. Thompson of NASA's Langley Research Center, said it found numerous examples of spacecraft wiring which had been poorly designed and installed in Apollo 1.

The board released a picture showing a wrench socket that had been inadvertently left wedged among several cables in the area where the fire is believed to have started. The board did not link the socket to the blaze, however.

It also said no evidence was discovered that suggested sabotage.

"Deficiencies in design, manufacture, installation, rework and quality control existed in the electrical wiring," the board said.

From there he will move by helicopter 90 miles to the conference site at Punta del Este, a seaside resort city.

FORMAL MEETINGS

Formal meetings begin Wednesday and wind up Friday when, if everything goes according to the well-orchestrated advance script, the 19 presidents will sign a "Declaration of Punta del Este."

If the national leaders agree, the declaration will feature a pledge to work toward a Latin-American common market that would evolve gradually between 1970 and 1985.

Other items that will receive considerable attention from the presidents include proposed policy statements aimed at increased food production, better education and health standards, improved communications and highways among South American nations, and, possibly, some agreement to dampen the traditional enthusiasm among Latin military men for spending better money on guns.

Donald V. O'Brian of Pontiac, who escaped from the Ionia State Hospital two weeks ago and was captured in Texas Saturday, is awaiting extradition to Michigan where he will be questioned in the rape-murder of a 19-year-old girl.

O'Brian was apprehended by Odessa, Tex., police who said they were acting on a tip.

He was accused of slaying little Rona Cypher of Grand Lodge by fellow escapee Donald Ringler, 32, who surrendered to police Thursday at his mother's home in Sturgis.

Rona was found raped and strangled April 1 in the Grand River, several hours after disappearing while on an errand from her grandparents' house.

Ringler reportedly told police he knew O'Brian had killed the girl, but officers said there was doubt as to whether Ringler could have known O'Brian's whereabouts at the time of the murder.

HAD BEEN TOGETHER

Police said O'Brian and Ringler had been together from the time of their escape from Ionia March 26 until they separated in Grand Lodge the morning of April 1.

Michigan Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said O'Brian will be brought to Michigan to face an escape charge. Extradition proceedings could delay his return until the end of the week.

O'Brian, committed from Pontiac as a criminal sexual psychopath in 1953, Ringler and two patients committed from Detroit sawed their way out of the hospital while other inmates were watching a movie.

Newsman Hurt in Viet

SAIGON (AP) — Two American news correspondents and a Vietnamese cameraman were among six persons injured by a Claymore mine today near Rach Kien in the Mekong Delta.

Truck Shutdown Effect Eyed

By The Associated Press

Fearful of disruption, Michigan business and industry watched today to gauge the impact a lockout of Teamsters Union drivers may have on the state's commerce.

Trucking Employers Inc. — with 1,500 members handling 65 per cent of the nation's over-the-road trucking business — ordered member companies to shut down as of midnight Saturday. It said this was in retaliation for scattered strikes by teamsters.

The employers and teamsters are deadlocked in Washington in negotiations for a new national contract.

Even preliminary efforts were hard to gauge, since the shutdown came on a weekend and just how many Michigan firms would follow the association's lead was uncertain.

The first Michigan company to announce a lockout was Melvina Truck Lines of Alpena.

COVERED BY AGREEMENT

Local-haul drivers basically are covered by an agreement between the Michigan Cartage-men's Association and the Teamsters Union.

Charles H. Quig Jr., speaking for the cartage-men, said, "We have not as a group been committed to the TEU," but he added his group tentatively planned to take a vote today on whether it would follow suit.

Gordon Knapp, public relations director for Trucking Employers Inc., said in Washington industries depending upon truck-delivered raw materials would be the first to feel the shutdown.

Knapp said there would be little immediate impact on consumer goods such as fresh food and beverages, including milk, because TEU members do not handle these products to any great extent.

MAY BE HARD HIT

If the lockout continues, however, smaller non-TEU companies may be hard hit by loss of feeder business to and from the larger, interstate carriers.

A Teamsters spokesman said in Detroit that no Michigan firms have been struck by his union and there have been no plans formulated to strike any.

In addition to haulway drivers, he said those who supply grocery stores are not affected by the lockout, and he forecast no immediate crisis would develop in this area.

"I think they are overestimating themselves," said Robert Homes, an international Teamsters vice president and also head of Detroit Local 337, said of the TEU lockout.

WITHIN 24 HOURS

Should haulways be affected, a General Motors Corp. spokesman said it was his opinion "we would begin to hurt within 24 hours."

A Ford Motor Co. spokesman said, "we are very dependent upon truck transportation, especially in Michigan, where plants are relatively close."

Chrysler Corp., centered in Detroit where most interplant truck drivers are members of the United Auto Workers said it will have to study the situation as it develops "before we can come up with any real answers."

MRS. HARRY LEROY SMITH

Cynthia Anne Kyes Wed in Saturday Ceremony

A slender line of satin accented the white antique silk gown worn by Cynthia Anne Kyes as she exchanged wedding vows with Harry Leroy Smith at Kirk in the Hills Saturday evening.

The long sheath gown featured a satin bow at back neckline which was the starting point for a full length cathedral train.

Completing the ensemble was a Brussels lace Cathedral length mantilla.

Her flowers were a cascade arrangement of calla lilies and caladium leaves.

Parents of the bridal couple are Mr. and Mrs. Roger M. Kyes of Bloomfield Hills and Mrs. Austin O. Smith of Detroit and the late Mr. Smith.

Diana Gornick was maid of honor along with bridesmaids, Jane Guest, Crystine Jones, Ann Livingstone, Susan Gerdan of Indianapolis, Ind. and Mrs. Lawrence Grelle of Champaign, Ill.

Joseph W. Albright Jr. stood as best man.

The usher corps consisted of Richard Howe, Dale McGlimmen, Donald Parks, Roger Piazza and Thomas Kennedy.

Cover Up for Style on Beach

A girl doesn't have to sacrifice glamour to achieve the covered up look. Demure one-piece swim-shorts are designed with admiring glances in mind.

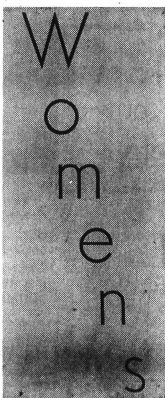

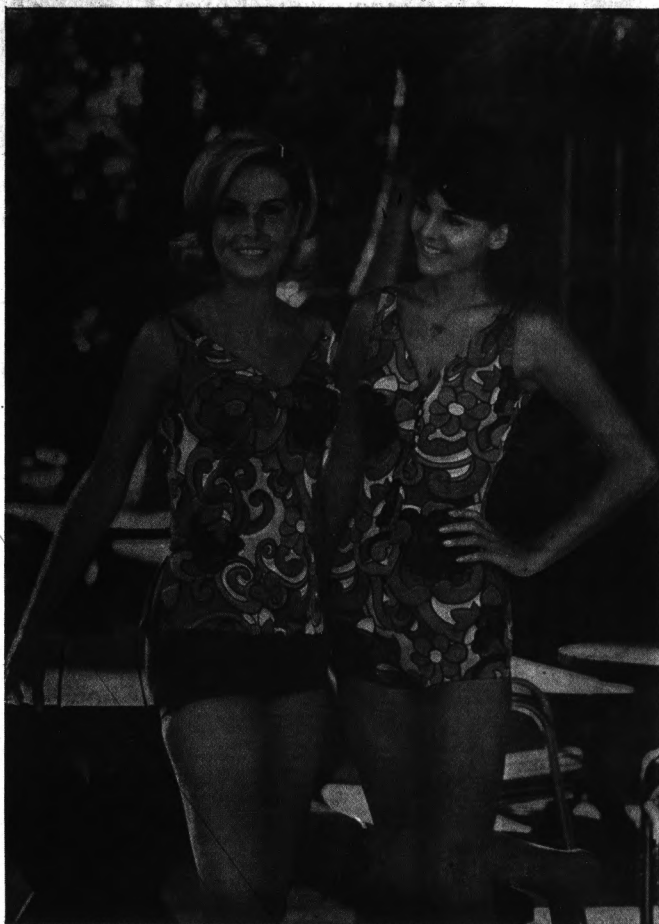

The tunic makes the most of natural attributes or neatly camouflages problem areas. Jantzen makes artful use of draping and seaming for slimming effects.

Firm but gentle power net swim-slimmers appear in a rainbow array of exotic prints.

The "new art" of the 1890's is the print news of now, in Jantzen's Art Nouveau swimsuits.

Rich colors were inspired by Tiffany stained glass: pink shock with curry or marina blue with green, on shimmering Antron nylon.

MRS. JOEL N. GOLDBERG

Couple Takes Sunday Vows

Sandra Sue Mills of Scott Lake Road and Joel N. Goldberg exchanged vows Sunday afternoon in the home of his parents the Harold S. Goldbergs of James K. Boulevard with a reception and luncheon immediately following.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mills of Alpena wore re-embroidered Alencon lace applied on English net.

The street length, straight line gown ended in a scalloped hem.

Her three tier veil fell from a Juliet cap of matching lace. She carried a colonial nosegay of white marguerite daisies and baby's breath with ribbon streamers of yellow and white satin.

Pakistan to Be Balky at Parley

Pakistan will be checking in as the second most reluctant pact member behind France at the meeting of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) ministers in Washington this month.

The reasons are three-fold: She doesn't want to commit herself unequivocally on Vietnam; she doesn't want to annoy Communist China and she opposes SEATO's confining itself to Communist aggression only.

Pakistan is not likely to quit SEATO because that would bring a split with Washington, but observers in Karachi forecast she will send an observer and not a participant.

France won't attend at all. No date has been set yet for a summit meeting aimed at deciding the future course of the European Common Market.

The meeting should have been held in Rome March 23 to mark the 10th anniversary of the signing of the Common Market treaty.

It has been delayed because it is feared French President Charles de Gaulle would not see eye to eye with other government heads, notably on the question of British membership.

Market experts in Brussels say any meeting now may be merely a ceremonial gathering of market heads of state.

NO KREMLIN HAPPENINGS: There is an apparent lull in the Soviet initiative, domestically and externally, although there is every reason in Moscow to believe the Kremlin is pondering at least two problems.

(1) The growing split in the international communist camp, with Romania drawing further away from Moscow and still uncertain whether it will attend the pan-European communist conference late this month;

(2) The deadlock on the Vietnam peace overtures is inevitably slowing down two-sided efforts for an East-West detente.

The Kremlin is expected to continue a cautious wait-and-see policy rather than seek to force a decision one way or the other.

TWO-HEADED PARTY:

Italy's two-headed Socialist party is in for trouble, with its two joint secretaries pulling in opposite directions.

Democrats of President Giuseppe Saragat and the formerly pro-Communist Pietro Nenni merged last October after 19 years of division.

Both hoped the unity would give them a larger say in the government, dominated by Premier Aldo Moro's Christian Democrats, and post a challenge to the big Communist party.

But the unit is weaker than hoped and there have been a number of setbacks in local elections. Observers in Rome feel the situation will get worse.

Radiation Boosted for Breast Cancer

By Science Service
BOSTON — Results with surgery in advanced cases of breast cancer are so poor that surgeons, as well as radiologists, are advising radiation alone — especially the use of cobalt 60.

Dr. Eleanor D. Montague of the M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute, Houston, Tex., told a meeting here she would not go so far as to prescribe radiation alone for all stages of breast cancer, but Dr. Oliver Cope of the Harvard Medical School does.

The Wolves have a lot of talent. Everyone in the league knows it and they've all climbed onto the Clarkston bandwagon.

Milford and Northville, co-champions last year, and Bloomfield Hills figure to battle for the No. 2 spot.

After those four should come Holly, West Bloomfield, Clarkston and Brighton.

NEED PITCHING

Teams that win in the W-O do it, primarily, with pitching and Clarkston is strong in that department.

The Wolves have a pair of strong right-handers in Dan Fife, an All State basketball player, and Rich Johnson. The team also has the hitting to back the pitching.

But Clarkston's problem is beating Milford. The Wolves haven't beaten the Redskins in the past three years, and Fife, who posted a 7-3 record last season, suffered two of those setbacks at the hands of the Redskins.

And to win in the W-O you have to beat Milford, a team that has won or shared the title for seven of the past nine years. Northville won in '62 and Bloomfield Hills took it in '63.

The time is ripe for the Wolves and coach Pete Thompson.

TOUGH HURLER

In posting a 7-3 record, Fife struck out 129 batters, walked 30 and yielded only 34 hits and 14 earned runs in 314 innings. Johnson compiled a 4-1 record, fanning 30 in 33 frames.

Fife, who also plays shortstop, batted .357 last season and ranked second to second baseman Tom Allen (.418) in that department.

Other performers. Thompson is counting on include Randy Nicolson (third base), John Getzan (center field), Jeff Keyser (catcher) and Jerry Ostrum (outfield-first base).

Milford may be short in the hitting area but the Redskins have right-hander Chris Mortimore who posted a 50 record and helped the Skins to a 14-5 over-all record.

First baseman Jim Kaspar, who hit .261 last season, also figures prominently in the Milford plans. Other regulars returning are third baseman Herb Mick and catcher Bob Cook.

GOOD PITCHING

Bloomfield Hills has some pitching that could produce a title.

Heading the Hills' squad is co-captain Bob Calhoun, a senior pitcher-first baseman who is the center of coach Hal Henderson's hopes.

Calhoun, who also captained

ANN ARBOR (UP)—Three of last week's top handicap teams were replaced Sunday in the seventh weekend of competition in the 41st annual Women's State Bowling Tournament.

Joseph's Hairdressers of St. Clair Shores rolled a 304 series to take over second place, one pin behind the leading handicap team, Thunderbird Lanes No. 3 of Ypsilanti.

Another strong challenger, Shore Lanes Grille of St. Clair Shores, came within two pins of upsetting the handicap team lead, but had to settle for third place with a 3105 total.

Harris Machine Tool Electrical Co. of East Detroit rolled a 3085 series to grab fourth spot among the handicap teams.

In the only other weekend change, Mary Pyle of Battle Creek took over fourth place in the handicap all-events with a 1919 series.

The top five bowlers, with actual leader, in each class:

HANDICAP TEAM
1. Thunderbird Lanes No. 3 of Ypsilanti, 3085; 2. Joseph's Hairdressers of St. Clair Shores, 3044; 3. Shore Lanes Grille of St. Clair Shores, 3105; 4. Harris Machine Tool Electrical Co. of East Detroit, 3085; 5. Mary Pyle of Battle Creek, 1919.

the football and basketball teams, posted a 4-2 mound record along with a 2.06 ERA. The other pitchers who could boost the Barons are Stacey Walters (14) and John Baumann (14). Both are right-handers.

Kim Kezarian batted .350 last season for the Barons, tops on the club, and he'll be back patrolling an outfield slot. Catcher Brian Parrott was the only other strong hitter at .308.

West Bloomfield suffered through a 1-12 campaign last year and hopes were high for this year's Laker crop. But two junior letter-winners failed to show up and two freshmen who also earned letters decided to bypass baseball.

Major league prospect Doug Swiss heads a crew of nine lettermen returning at Northville, which placed second to Southfield in the Pontiac Press Baseball Tournament last year.

Swiss, a catcher, batted only .278 last year, but coach Bob Kucher is confident the veteran backstop will hike that mark.

Kucher's big problem will be replacing pitcher Steve Evans, who piled up a 12-3 record that included two no-hitters last year. He's now at University of Michigan.

HEAVY HITTER—West Bloomfield's batting power is concentrated in husky first baseman Jerry Robb, a 6-1, 185-pound senior. Last spring he hit a healthy .326 for a struggling Laker nine. Any improvement by the young Lakers will likely revolve around him and second baseman Brownie Mascow's (.357) stick work.

BARONS' HILL HOPES—Returnees John Baumann (left) and captain Bob Calhoun must come through on the mound if Bloomfield Hills is to show any title possibilities in the Wayne-Oakland League race. Calhoun won four times last season, Baumann added one win. Letter winner Tracey Walters also should help the Barons.

300 last season. First baseman Jerry Robb batted .326, while second-sacker Brownie Mascow led the club with a robust .357 mark.

The other regular returning, Robin Brennan, batted only .182 and saw action at third base.

The Lakers' primary problem is finding some pitching to go with what could be a good hitting team. Chief mound prospect is sophomore Mickey Elwood, a right-hander.

FIRST GAME

Michigan, now 10-4, won the first game from Detroit as Keith Spicer drove in three runs on four hits.

Dave Renkiewicz, a sophomore from Wyandotte, held Detroit hitless in the final three frames of the second game to pick up his second victory.

Wolverines' third baseman Glenn Redmon riddled five hits, driving in two runs and scoring five.

Ed Sherry blasted two home runs and pitched Ball State to victory in the first game against Michigan State. The Spartans won the nightcap with a 10-4 victory.

Tom Allen and Dennis Barath combined to shut out Ball State in the first game. John Clay's three-run homer was the big blow in the Huron's victory in the nightcap.

Gordon Green fanned Mike Strickland of Ferris State with the bases loaded in the seventh inning to cut off a Bull Dog rally and preserve Northwood's victory in the opener. Northwood's Roger Benham of Imlay City held Ferris to three hits and struck out six in winning the nightcap.

Jim Johnson fanned 14 in hurling a two-hitter as Western Michigan beat Bowling Green. Bowling Green's only run came in the seventh on a walk, two errors and a single.

Al Martus stole four bases, including home, in Olivet's second game loss to Aquinas. He scored two of his team's three runs and slashed out two hits.

Olivet won the first game when relief pitcher Mac Knight of Aquinas walked in the winning run in the bottom of the seventh.

Howell, still in uniform, went to Faulkner Hospital in Boston in a police car where doctors said a preliminary examination showed his daughter, Mary Beth, 5, suffered a broken leg.

Howell had already fouled out of the game and was on the bench when he received the news.

A Celtics spokesman said Mary Beth fell from a second story window.

Michigan Nine Takes Twinbill From Detroit

Spartans Divide Pair With Indiana Team; EMU Wins Two

By the Associated Press
Michigan's Wolverines, warming up for the coming Big Ten baseball season, swept a double-header from Detroit Saturday to extend its winning streak to six games.

Michigan won the first game 11-0 and took the nightcap 3-1.

Michigan State split a twinbill with Ball State of Indiana, dropping the opener 6-4 and winning the nightcap 3-1.

In other games, Eastern Michigan won two from Alma by scores of 7-0 and 14-2, Northwood Institute swept Ferris State 6-5 and 15-0 and Western Michigan beat Bowling Green of Ohio 6-1 in a Mid-American Conference game. Aquinas split a twinbill with Olivet, winning the nightcap 4-3 after dropping the first game by the same score.
