100 Pupils Hurt in Wisconsin Train Smashup

'Passing' Gravel Truck Rams Excursion Cars; Injuries Slight

WAUKESHA, Wis. (AP) —More than 100 school children and teachers were injured yesterday when their baseball excursion train was wrecked in a collision with a loaded gravel truck.

The diesel locomotive remained on the tracks, but 10 of the 16 cars hurtled off the rails. The train was carrying 907 pupils and their adult escorts from Portage in south central Wisconsin to Milwaukee for a Milwaukee-Brooklyn baseball game.

A total of 104 persons were admitted to two hospitals. Thirty-seven, 23 of them children, remained overnight. None were listed in critical condition.

The truck driver, Gordon Hinckley, 35, Wales, Wis., suffered compound fractures of both legs and internal injuries but was listed in "fair" condition.

The crash occurred at the Duplainville crossing, five miles north of here and 25 miles west of Milwaukee.

THE GRAVEL FLEW

Engineer George Ives, 56, Oconomowoc, said the truck "hit the first coach so hard that gravel was thrown over the coaches. That car was struck so hard that it went off the track first, causing derailment of the other nine coaches."

Ives said the crossing is designated as a 70 m.p.h. zone and that he had slowed down to that speed.

The first 10 coaches veered off the rails, tearing up 1,500 feet of track. Two cars lay on their sides when they came to a rest.

"I just heard a bump," said Violet Groskreutz, a 14-year-old pupil from Westfield in Columbia County.

"The next thing I knew, we tipped over."

The little brown-haired girl was one of those detained in the hospital here with cuts and bruises on her face and injuries to her arm and back.

"I crawled out. No one helped me," she said. "I got out by myself, through a smashed window."

George Ives, engineer, and W. S. Pirkl, traveling engineer in the cab of the Milwaukee road special 16-car train, said the gravel truck drove around five automobiles which had stopped at the crossing and tried to race across the tracks ahead of the train.

Warmer Wednesday, Weatherman Says

The forecast weather for the next five days will be average. It will be cooler Friday or Saturday. Scattered showers are expected Thursday or Friday and possibly again about Sunday.

The lowest thermometer reading preceding 8 a.m. was 36 degrees. The mercury rose to 54 at 1 p.m.

America Flexes Her Defensive Muscles in New Atom Tests

SLIM, DEADLY COURIER OF MIGHT—Its fiery tail whipping it into the skies, this Northrop B-62 Snark begins a test run. The Snark is the first U. S. intercontinental missile revealed to the public. It is capable of carrying a hydrogen warhead. The jet-powered Snark can be guided along predetermined courses of up to 5,000 miles at a speed of 500 miles per hour. It is the so-called "air-breathing" type since it stays in the earth's atmosphere.

U. S. Air Force Photo

MAJESTIC, OVERPOWERING SPECTACLE—Fifty miles away, the tornadic fireball of a hydrogen explosion sheds its lurid light. Tests in the Pacific duplicate this scene, photographed in the Marshall Islands in 1952. This was the appearance from 12,000 feet in the air, two minutes after the detonation. Ten minutes later, nearing its maximum stage, the cloud stem had pushed upward to 25 miles. The mushroom had spread 100 miles.

Waugh Plans to Attend Rites

Injunction Restraining Jehovah's Witnesses Is Dismissed by Judge

Chester Waugh, 36, who claims he was "disfellowshipped" by a Drayton Plains Jehovah's Witnesses church, said yesterday he will continue to attend the services with or without a temporary injunction.

The injunction, issued April 30 by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty, yesterday was dismissed by the judge on the grounds his court has no jurisdiction in church matters unless property was involved.

It had restrained the "Kingdom Hall" congregation and its pastor William P. Strong, of Drayton Plains, from preventing the Pontiac factory worker from worshipping there.

"The injunction is immaterial if the Jehovah's Witnesses allow me to attend the church as they should," Waugh said. "And I will continue to attend the services in a peaceable manner."

Asked whether the congregation would continue to bar Waugh from the church, Strong said: "We will continue to follow the church rule to keep the congregation clean."

Waugh, of 55 Newberry St., had charged Strong and other members of the church had conspired together to prevent his worshipping.

Dam to Honor Barkley

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress has been asked to give the name of Alben W. Barkley to a Kentucky dam and reservoir. Williams Opens Tour With Talk

By LAWRENCE S. MARTZ JR.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams told 70-odd Democrats and a smattering of Republicans at a civic breakfast this morning that the state government must "drive the team right down the middle" to explain to both labor and capital they have nothing to fear from automation.

Calling automation "a new dimension, a real revolution," the Governor emphasized that its power must be "directed for the benefit of all mankind."

The Governor and three Democrats of the State Administrative Board attended the breakfast this morning in Pontiac's Elks Temple, touching off "Government Day" in Oakland County and the latest of his "nonpartisan" reports to the people.

Williams said he regrets that Highway Commissioner Charles Ziegler and Superintendent of Public Instruction Clair Taylor were "too busy to be with us today, although both have been invited."

CHIDES REPUBLICANS

The Governor added, "It seems to me the interests of the people would be better served if the Republican leaders, instead of sending hired press agents and publicity men to talk for them, had sent their office-holders down here to meet with you themselves."

He also "regretted" that Republican State Chairman John Feikens had called his "reports to the people," conducted to date in Kalamazoo, Kent, Macomb and Genesee counties, "political rallies and nothing more."

* * *

He said Feikens is "beginning to believe what his imported $25,000 public relations man from Oregon tells him."

Reviewing State problems, Williams touched on water supply, sewage disposal systems, public education and mental health.

TOLL ROADS 'IN DOUBT'

Answering a question from Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams, master of ceremonies at the breakfast, Williams said the prospects of toll roads for the state is "still in doubt."

He said Michigan Turnpike Authority Chairman George N. Higgins has "what he hopes is a workable new plan" for the proposed Rockwood-to-Saginaw turnpike, but did not elaborate.

He added he believes Michigan needs both toll roads and freeways, and regretted the absence of Highway Commissioner Charles Ziegler, saying:

"His position is crucial . . . his passive or active obstruction makes the whole problem more difficult."

The Governor said in response to another question he is now trying to step up traffic enforcement

Via Horseback

Couple Rides Into the West

MONROE (AP)—A Monroe couple, "like horses," set out yesterday on a trip calculated to give them plenty of what they like.

Kenneth King, 30, and his wife, Joanne, 29, set out of horseback for Pendleton, Ore., 3,000 miles away. Their belongings trailed behind on a packhorse, and they estimated the trip would require four months.

Their goal is a job for King on a ranch. Their Monroe apartment-home had been in a riding stable and they professed "we both like horses" in announcing their decision to pull up stakes and head west.

They plan to camp along the way and to follow a northwest route to Ludington, then across Lake Michigan by boat and on to Oregon via Wisconsin, the Dakotas and Montana.

Weather Delays H-Bomb Tests

'Undesirable Wind' May Postpone Flight Again of Target Plane

ENIWETOK (AP) — A show of man's mightiest power, the H-bomb, waited today for a power he doesn't control, the weather.

Shot Cherokee, the H-bomb blast, is scheduled tentatively for Thursday (tomorrow, U. S. time) if the weather is right. It hasn't been.

The shot has been postponed twice.

Scientists reported "strong, undesirable" winds at all altitudes, winds which might scatter radioactive particles outside the marked-off danger area of 375,000 square miles.

Three huge B52 jet bombers are parked on Eniwetok. One will carry the bomb and drop it over Namu Island, some 190 miles away in Bikini Atoll.

TALK TO CREW

Newsmen were permitted to talk to the seven crew men with the specification that no questions be asked regarding technical aspects of dropping the bomb or regarding matters touching on the men's psychology.

Hare Orders Crackdown Campaign on Bad Drivers

LANSING (AP)—The State Safety Commission has decreed a drastic campaign against bad drivers including a summons to speeders and reckless drivers for license re-examination on their first offense.

The crackdown, accepted Monday as a watered down version of an earlier plan discarded as beyond the state's powers, will be inaugurated Monday.

Under the new program, state police and local law enforcement officers will be distributed forms on which they will cite drivers for another license examination.

After they are filled out, the forms would go to the Secretary of State's office for review. Most of those cited then would be called before license examiners and face possible 30-day suspensions.

Secretary of State James M. Hare, commission chairman, said State Police will be instructed to use the forms but that authority is lacking to compel their use by sheriff's officers and local police.

The target will be not only persons caught speeding or driving recklessly but also those considered obviously either physically or mentally unable to drive safely.

The cooperation of local law enforcers will be solicited in telegrams to be sent out before the drive begins.

The commission, at its meeting yesterday, tentatively agreed on a "statewide crusade for safety" modeled after the successful safety campaign conducted in Muskegon County.

Indiana Result Draws Greatest National Interest

Tydings Gets Democrat Nod in Maryland; Five Vie for Ohio Chair

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Five states held primary elections today in the wake of yesterday's Maryland primary, in which Democrats gave Millard Tydings a hairline edge in his fight to regain the U.S. Senate seat he lost in 1950.

Residents of Indiana, Ohio, Florida, West Virginia and New Mexico were balloting today, but national interest centered chiefly on the relative Republican-Democratic vote in Indiana.

Republicans expected to get most, as usual, but Democrats hoped for a substantial farm vote switchover. Relative performances of President Eisenhower on the Republican and Sen. Estes Kefauver on the Democratic side were sure to be watched closely.

In yesterday's Maryland voting, nearly complete returns gave Tydings a narrow popular vote lead over George P. Mahoney, challenging him for the Democratic nomination for the seat now held by Republican Sen. Butler.

Maryland Democrats gave their 18 national convention votes to Kefauver, who was opposed only by an uninstructed delegation. He won by a much narrower margin than in the same race four years ago.

Highlights of today's primaries:

INDIANA — In presidential preference voting, Eisenhower had little opposition on the GOP side and Kefauver none on the Democratic side. But the turnout was viewed as a sort of popularity contest between the two candidates.

Republicans usually consider Indiana safely in the GOP ranks, but some Democrats predicted large numbers of Republican farmers would switch to the Democratic column.

National convention delegates will be chosen by both parties later at state conventions, but delegates will be bound to vote on the first convention ballot according to today's vote. Thus Eisenhower is assured of 32 votes and Kefauver of 26 on first roll calls.

Williams Speaks at Breakfast Here in an effort to cut down the state's highway death rate, which has risen 12 per cent over last year.

Williams, who spoke for 15 minutes and answered audience questions for another 15, left the breakfast to attend the dedication in Detroit of the new Lafayette mental health clinic.

In parting, he told the audience he was happy to have had the "exchange of ideas" with them.

Williams and his group will return to Pontiac tonight for a "town hall meeting" in Lincoln Junior High School at 8:15, where they will answer audience questions from the floor.

GOP TOSS QUESTIONS

At previous "reports to the people," Republicans in the audience have taken advantage of the forum-type meeting to toss the Governor questions they hope will be awkward to answer. Republicans here have indicated they plan to repeat the performance.

Appearing with Williams were Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart, Attorney General Thomas M. Kavanagh and Treasurer Sanford Brown. Secretary of State James M. Hare and Auditor General Victor C. Targonski are scheduled to meet the other officials in Detroit in time for a telecast at 1:30 p.m.

Serving on the committee for the breakfast were Pontiac Mayor William W. Donaldson, Bernard Girard, Monroe Osmun, Rev. Milton Banks, Willis Brewer, Rev. J. Allen Parker, Floyd Andrews, Dr. George Petroff, Thomas Gillotte, Rev. Carl Nelson, Fred Haggard, and Mrs. Lola King.

38-Point City Commission Agenda Includes Michigan-Lois Drain Subject

Commissioner John E. Carry (District 6) lived up to his word when he told his fellow commissioners in January they hadn't heard the last of the Michigan-Lois street drain episode.

Scheduled on tonight's 38-point agenda facing the City Commission is a request from Carry that the three-year-old debate be opened again.

The remainder of the slate involves seven reports from the City Plan Commission and 14 public improvement items and other miscellaneous business.

The drain case concerns 19 lot owners on the east side of the city who calm they were improperly assessed for drainage improvements.

Kicking off the agenda will be a resolution authorizing the state to charge the city for widening and concrete paving of a portion of the M-24 state trunkline in the city.

An answer is expected from the commission on a Pontiac Police request for uniform allowance.

The commission is also expected to appoint the National Bank of Detroit as paying agent in the sale of $600,000 worth of revenue bonds to finance the new off-street parking project.

Two agreements between the city and the Jerome Building Co. for a water main project and combined sewers in the Sallee Woods Subdivision are slated for action tonight.

Three property deeds to the city are listed on the agenda.

Included in the seven reports from the plan group is a recommendation to rezone lots 85-89 of Anderson's Western Addition to Residential 3. A protest petition against the rezoning has been filed, making a ¾ vote by the commission necessary to approve the change.

Another report from the Plan Commission will recommend the bumping shop ordinance, as amended by the commission last month, be tabled indefinitely.

Public hearings will be held on intention to construct the following public improvement projects:

Recap curb repair and related work for State street between Huron and Johnson, and for Osmun street from Saginaw to Sanford.

Water main in Peacock avenue from Joslyn to Fuller. Clara avenue from Fuller to the east property line of assessor's plat 102, and in Fuller street from Peacock to Columbia.

Further action will include four resolutions to receive special assessment rolls for three sidewalk projects and one grading and graveling job in the city.

Public hearings on special assessment rolls involving the following projects will also be aired tonight:

Curb, gutter, and related work for the north side of Madison avenue from Joslyn to Highwood and for recap on the south side of Madison from Joslyn to Highwood.

For Wolfe street from Edison to Montcalm, Rutgers avenue from Baldwin to Carlisle, Longfellow avenue from Baldwin to Carlisle, and for Grandle avenue from Baldwin to Kimball.

Sanitary sewer in the alley east of Baldwin avenue from 120 feet north of Montcalm to lot 55 of the Marquette Subdivision.

Storm sewer in Astor street from Maines to lot 87 of the Clinton Heights Subdivision and for outlet in outlet A of the subdivision and Astor street from Maines to the Clinton River.

Action is expected on a request that Mario Giglio be appointed special administrator to the estate of Tony Giglio on a special designated merchant license at 441 N. Perry St.

First readings are scheduled on two ordinances to amend two sections of city zoning ordinance 944.

A petition requesting grading and graveling of the alley in assessor's plat 13 from Linda Vista drive to the east line of lot 40 of the plat will be acted on.

Schools Drop Annual Meeting

25 Districts of Area No Longer Will Hold Yearly Sessions

Dr. William Emerson, county superintendent of schools, reminds county residents that certain school districts will no longer have annual meetings.

Because of a change in the school code, effective last September, these meetings have been discontinued, Emerson reports.

They will have regular annual elections, however, he said, either in the second Monday in June or the second Monday in July.

Former duties accomplished by the annual meetings are now performed by the school board, except for the fixing of school board members' salaries. These remained unchanged unless the voters, at an annual election, make a change, he continued.

These fourth class school districts are involved: Avondale, Bloomfield Hills, Brandon Township, Carver, Clarenceville, Clarkston, Clawson, Dublin, Farmington, Hazel Park, Holly, Huron Valley, Lake Orion and Lamphere.

stepping down to run for the U.S. Senate seat now held by Republican George H. Bender. Lausche is unopposed for the Democratic nomination and Bender is unchallenged on the GOP side.

Lausche had token opposition in his bid to head the 58-vote Democratic delegation to the national convention, but was assured of 49 of the 58 before voting began. Sen. John W. Bricker is unopposed in his move for control of the Republicans' 56 convention votes.

WEST VIRGINIA — There was no presidential preference voting and delegates are not tied to any candidate, but 10 candidates were seeking the Senate seat of the late Harley Kilgore.

FLORIDA — A six-man tussle for governor — which means election in predominantly Democratic Florida — highlighted the voting.

The field includes the incumbent, Leroy Collins, and former Gov. Fuller Warren. If no candidate gets a majority, the two top men will fight it out again May 29.

Florida residents also vote May 29 in an important presidential preference primary featuring a clash between Kefauver and Stevenson.

* * *

NEW MEXICO — There was no presidential preference voting. Gov. John F. Simms seeks renomination in the Democratic primary and is opposed by Ingram B. Pickett. Simms supports Adlai Stevenson for the Democratic presidential nomination, Pickett favors Gov. Averell Harriman of New York.

Edwin L. Mechem has no GOP primary opposition in his attempt to become the first New Mexican governor ever to regain the job after leaving office.

900,000 Jobs Opened Up Last Month in Nation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Employment jumped 900,000 last month to a new April record of 63,990,000 while joblessness dropped by 270,000, the Labor and Commerce Departments reported today.

* * *

The unemployment total dipped to an estimated 2,564,000, the departments said, even though joblessness among auto workers increased and unemployment among factory workers generally failed to show the normal springtime decline.

* * *

The gain in total civilian employment was 912,000 from March to April, and the number of jobholders reached a level two million above the employment total a year ago. Seasonal factors, including a 700,000 rise in farm employment, were responsible for most of the gain.

The Day in Birmingham

C. of C. Wins Reprieve for Parking on Maple

BIRMINGHAM — Parking on Maple avenue will remain as it is until five other road projects planned for this year are completed.

Commissioner William Roberts' motion was approved 4 to 2 after heated debate among commissioners and members of the Chamber of Commerce. Roberts pointed to the projected Hamilton and Oak street crossovers, both through Hunter boulevard; Willets and 14 Mile road widening and 16 Mile road improvement.

"The east and west traffic that will be siphoned off Maple avenue when these five projects are completed in this calender year may solve the problem," he said.

"We'd be acting too hurriedly," he said of the proposal to restrict parking to only one side of Maple during rush hours.

An amendment to Roberts' motion by Commissioner Charles Renfrew never was put to a vote, but drew much discussion from the score of merchants present. It asked a study of whether traffic snarls might be reduced by prohibiting left hand turns off Maple at Woodward and off Henrietta at Maple, and retiming Bates and Woodward stop lights on Maple.

Speeding traffic through town in late afternoon would deprive merchants of business, the Chamber's members argued. "Don't take away our bread and butter hours," said Mrs. Ruth Atling, owner of The Little Folks Shop on Maple.

Property values on Woodward decreased as traffic increased on Woodward during the 1920's, according to City Manager S. D. C. Egbert. But, it went back up after siphoning off excess traffic when Hunter avenue was built, a Chamber of Commerce spokesman said.

"Don't ruin Birmingham like Pontiac was ruined" was what Pontiac shoppers in Birmingham told merchants, according to Sam Bruni, a grocer on Woodward. Heavy through traffic can swing business to outer-area shopping centers, agreed city-hired traffic expert T. M. VanderStempl.

VanderStempl's survey, submitted with a report by the Chief of Police, was not the only survey. Donald Cummings of the C. of C. off-street parking committee reported that delay on Maple traffic was only from 20 to 65 seconds.

"That's a 50 per cent delay," parried Renfrew. "That much delay all the way to Detroit would be something to worry about."

* * *

Running Oak street through Hunter boulevard and trading land with Socony Mobil Oil Co., Inc., was tentatively approved so that Socony can proceed with its station at that point of land.

Affirmative votes were given for paving Lincoln, east from Eton 29 feet wide for safety along playground areas, and for assessing for 14 Mile road paving, east of Greenfield. Any objections to Ferndale-Park and Holland paving project assessments will be heard May 28.

The proposed swimming pool ordinance health restrictions will be reduced, but fencing rules kept, commissioners decided. They deferred action on the motor bus ordinance.

Budget for Bloomfield to Be Studied Tonight

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The Bloomfield Hills budget for the coming year comes before the city commission tonight, and the decision will be open for public discussion later this month.

Two alternatives are possible, one requiring higher taxes for road improvements.

Bids for paving of Lone Pine road from Orchard Ridge to Lahser also will be opened tonight.

Now, Honestly, Mr. GOVERNOR!

Here's another question you were asked in Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids, and Detroit. You refused to answer it. Will you answer it today on station WWJ-TV in your "Report to the People"?

Now, HONESTLY, Mr. Governor — Is everybody entitled to protection, or just your friends?

★ The people would like to know why John Gunaca hasn't been sent back to Wisconsin to stand trial on a felonious assault charge?

★ You remember John Gunaca, Mr. Governor. He's the man accused of beating up a worker.

★ The State of Wisconsin wants to give Gunaca a fair trial, and for months has sought to extradite him. Why do you, Mr. Governor, continue to provide a Michigan sanctuary for a man wanted for trial in a friendly neighboring state?

★ Does the fact that Gunaca's attorney is a brother to your friend, UAW Secretary-Treasurer Emil Mazey have anything to do with your refusal to act?

★ Now, HONESTLY, Mr. Governor—how can you claim to be a champion of law and order for everybody when you grant special protection to your friends?

★ The people want to know. Will you tell them today, on your "Report to the People"? HONESTLY, Mr. Governor?

Controversial Hells Canyon Dam Bill Holds Pre-Election Attack on President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic leaders were reported clearing the way today to bring the controversial Hells Canyon Dam bill before the Senate for a pre-election assault on President Eisenhower's power policies.

* * *

Party leaders were represented as ready to recommend the transfer of Sen. Long of Louisiana from the Interior to the Foreign Relations Committees in a shakeup of Democratic assignments following the death last week of Sen. Alben Barkley of Kentucky.

If this move gains expected approval of the Democratic Steering Committee and the Senate, Long would be replaced on the Interior Committee by an as-yet-unselected Democrat favoring a bill to authorize construction of a federal dam at Hells Canyon, on the Snake River near the Idaho-Oregon border.

* * *

OPPONENTS ALIGN

Long has lined up with Republican members of the interior group against the federal Hells Canyon project.

His stand has kept bottled up in the committee a bill which Democrats have come to regard as a symbol of their conflict with the Eisenhower administration over power policies.

* * *

The Federal Power Commission has authorized the Idaho Power Co. to build three low-level dams on the Snake. This is in line with the Eisenhower administration's policy of sharing natural resource development with private enterprise.

* * *

Although Idaho Power's permit has been challenged in the courts, the company already has begun work on two of the three dams which would flood the site of the proposed federal high dam project.

Philippines Excited by Atom Site Offer

MANILA (AP)—Philippine leaders generally are enthusiastic about the proposed establishment of an American-sponsored atomic research center here. But privately some have expressed misgivings about the reaction to the project in other Asian countries.

* * *

Some sources feel the Washington decision was based purely on political reasons and not on realistic grounds. They admit such countries as Japan, India and Ceylon are more advanced in nuclear knowledge than the Philippines and should have been the location for Asia's first atomic plant.

* * *

Others feel Asia is not yet ready for an atomic center, that it must first acquire more knowledge.

And she learned to like the olden mode of transportation so well that today she is on a horseback trip to her home in Syracuse, Ind.

Before leaving yesterday, she said she expected the trip to require two weeks.

She said she would return to her work in August but that her horse, Bob, would be vanned back. "It's just too hot to ride him from Indiana in August," she said.

Texans Endorse Johnson Today

'Favorite Son' Suggests Other States Back Him as Presidential Choice

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Texas County Democratic conventions meet today, the vast majority of them to put their stamp of approval on Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson as both the state party leader and Texas' "favorite son" candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

* * *

SEEKS SUPPORT

He declared he was not seeking the support of delegations from other states but when asked if he would accept the nomination, replied:

"I would," and after a pause added "—as of now."

Johnson, who was named chairman and delegation leader in his own precinct Saturday, plans to attend the Blanco County convention at the old stone courthouse of the public square at Johnson City today and then fly back to Washington.

WANTS STATE UNITY

The senator, who scored a 4-1 win over Shivers for the job of leading the Texas delegation to the Democratic National Convention in Chicago, said he accepted the role of "favorite son" presidential candidate purely in an effort "to unify the party in Texas."

* * *

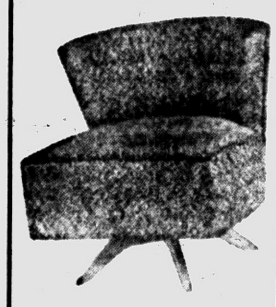

Johnson had said earlier he would be willing to head a delegation that "represented all Texas Democrats, not just one faction." He had called for a delegation that would endorse the party's nominees "and then come back to Texas to work for their election."

Shivers, who stressed states rights in his campaign, has said he would support the party ticket only if the Democratic presidential nominee was acceptable to him and he indicated that he might support President Dwight Eisenhower again. Shivers, who headed a 1952 delegation that was seated at the national convention, later bolted the ticket and helped swing Texas into the Republican column.

Dublinski 'Out of Picture' for '56

By BRUNO KEARNS
Pontiac Press Sports Editor

At the Lions press and radio luncheon yesterday, kicking off the season ticket campaign, coach Buddy Parker said that Dublinsky indicated he "would not play in Detroit" regardless of the judges decision now pending in an Ontario court.

Lion president Edwin J. Anderson said that the decision on Dublinsky as a result of the hearing held last month was due May 1, but the judge then decided to rule on the case in two weeks, or about May 15.

* * *

"This has become strictly a test case," said Anderson. "If the judge rules in our favor then it may be a step to stop raiding."

Anderson brought up the case of Tom Tracy who was under similar option to Ottawa of the Canadian League.

"A decision against us in the Dublinsky case, would likewise be a ruling against the Ottawa option in Tracy's situation," he stated.

However, Anderson said a settlement was expected to be negotiated with Ottawa without going to court, and Tracy will probably be playing with the Lions next fall.

Parker then looked over the Lions picture and saw the biggest problem to be Bobby Layne's arm.

"We think Jerry Reichow, the top draft choice from Iowa, will do a fine job as quarterback, but he will need the experienced help of Layne," said Parker.

Along with other leading draft choices, including Howard (Hopalong) Cassady of Ohio State and Don McIlhenny of SMU. The Lions will get some help from Uncle Sam.

Four veteran players and possibly a fifth may be ready for the 1956 season. Halfback Gene Gedman has already been released from the service with halfback Yale Lary and tackles Oliver Spencer and Jerry Perry due for discharge late this summer. Fullback Jow Bowman is another likely returnee before the season begins.

Optimistic about the Lions chances Parker said, "We are not eager to make any trades unless someone makes an offer which might interest us."

In regard to Anderson's suggestion that the city buy Briggs Stadium the Lions prexy said he hoped Detroit would buy the stadium.

He indicated that such action by the city would then spur the possibility of buying the Detroit Tigers. "The Lions are interested in the Tigers to the extent of raising $250,000 to put into escrow to show good faith and intent," said Anderson.

General manager Nick Kerbawy said that Detroit has taken the initial step in the NFL in shaping a television agreement with CBS which would bring all of the Lions road-games back to Detroit.

The Lions, who in 5 years have seen their season ticket sales jump from 8,685 in 1950 to 36,434 in 1955, are aiming for a goal of 37,000 this year.

As of May 1, a total of 27,959 season tickets had already been sold, which according to ticket manager Maurie Schubot "should reach a new record in 56 sales."

Detroit drew 311,372 for 6 home games in 1955 which is an average of 51,895 for each game. After opening on the road against Green Bay and Baltimore next Sept. 30 and Oct. 6, the Lions lift the home lid Oct. 14 against Los Angeles, which Parker says is the team to beat.

Tribe Is on the Spot Against Yankees

NEW YORK (AP)—Confident, cool and composed, the Cleveland Indians arrived in town for a three-game set with the New York Yankees.

* * *

The Tribe was squarely on the spot. There is an undercurrent of despair in the rest of the American League at the Yanks' overpowering strength. The Indians are the only contenders they haven't bullied.

* * *

Casey Stengel's men browbeat the Boston Red Sox four out of five, then polished off the Chicago White Sox twice Sunday. That, by a process of elimination, leaves the Indians.

* * *

"Well," said Stengel before the game, "we've seen them all except Cleveland, and I see no point in getting afraid now."

* * *

The Professor refuses to be drawn out on the possibility of the Yanks wrapping it all up early but in response to a laughing query as to how he'd feel if his club was home safe by midseason, he sighed:

* * *

"I'd just like to have the pleasure of knowing how it feels."

What has the rest of the league in a state of desperation is the fact that the Yanks are operating at almost half power. Mickey Mantle, Yogi Berra, Hank Bauer and Moose Skowran all have been powdering the ball, but Joe Collins, Gil McDougald, Andy Carey and Billy Margin own a combined average of about .201.

Still, Senor Al Lopez doesn't seem worried. He has his three top pitchers—Early Wynn (paired with Tommy Byrne in the opener), Herb Score and Bob Lemon—set for the series, and had kind words for the rest of his team.

Secrets of Better Golf

By Patty Berg

18th of a Series

The natural force of your swing will send the clubhead following after the ball. Do not detain this action. A complete follow-through is essential to your sand trap shot.

In this explosion of the ball from the trap, your clubhead will take quite a divot of sand, sending it off in the direction of the ball.

Do not be in a rush to see the result of your shot. If you are, I can tell you right now you won't be pleased with it. Stay down with your shot and let the clubhead follow the ball. Do not raise your head or eyes until the ball is well on its way to the green.

Unless you follow through on the sand trap shot, you will quit before you contact the ball. You must have it pictured in your mind to swing to the finish in order to pop the ball up and out of the trap.

Your follow-through should be equal in length to your backswing. The club should be swung high, with the hands and arms finishing high and the head and body facing the objective. Your weight will be almost entirely on the left foot, and the right heel will come up from the sand at the completion of your swing.

To review briefly the fundamentals of a good sand trap shot, I think there are only three for the golfer to learn. First, use an open stance, open shoulders and open blade. Second, aim one inch behind the ball at the address. And third, swing to the finish and hold it.

* * *

For a sand trap shot around the green, these are all the average golfer needs to know. By perfecting the basic rules, every player can build his confidence when trying to get out of a sand trap. Just learn the rules and you'll gain the necessary confidence.

(Copyright 1956)

DON'T BE IN A HURRY TO SEE RESULT OF SHOT

Immediately after impact, the club head follows the flight of the ball taking plenty of sand as it does. The head and eyes remain down as at the address.

Bolt, Balding Test Features Ft. Worth Event

U. S. Pros Hope to Wrap Up International Tourney Today

FORT WORTH, Tex., (AP)—Tommy Bolt meets Al Balding in the feature singles test of the International PGA Matches today as the United States seeks to wrap up its fifth straight Hopkins Trophy.

These two shot the hottest golf yesterday in the four-ball matches which the United States won 5½ to 3½. Bolt and Gene Littler beat Bill Mawhinney and Murray Tucker of Canada 9-up and scored 3 points. Bolt, could do no wrong on the greens.

* * *

"If I had putted like that yesterday," said the lean Texan, speaking of the Colonial National Invitational Tournament, in which he finished second, "I'd have won that one in a breeze."

* * *

Bolt and Littler had a best ball of 61, Mawhinney and Tucker a 70.

Balding and Gordon Brydson of Canada walloped Mike Souchak and Cary Middlecoff 5 and 4. Balding amazed even his teammates with his wizardry on the greens. Balding and Brydson, who played a terrific game himself, had a best ball of 61 despite a double bogey 6 on the 15th hole.

* * *

The Balding-Brydson duo won the full three points (one point for each nine and one for the match) and it was up to the other team match — Doug Ford and Ted Kroll of the United States vs. Bill Kerr and Stan Leonard of Canada —to decide the issue.

* * *

Ford and Kroll managed to win the second nine 1-up after the teams tied in the first. Thus the United States got 2½ points to ½. It would have been a flat tie of 1½ points each but for a missed birdie putt by Leonard on the final green.

Nashua May Shoot for Winning Mark

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—Nashua, who recently moved up into the millionaire class, may try to surpass Citation's all-time money winning record in Saturday's Valley Forge Handicap or the Camden Handicap the following week at Garden State Park.

* * *

Delany Plans 'Different' Race Next Time

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Irishman Ron Delany, beaten in the mile just once, flies back to California this week with another kind of race in mind for Australian John Landy.

The 20-year-old Villanova sophomore will meet the world record holder Saturday in the West Coast Relays at Fresno, but he doesn't plan another fast getaway.

* * *

Delany whisked himself well ahead in the first quarter of the special mile at the Los Angeles Coliseum last Saturday. He sped through the first quarter in 59.6 but finished third behind Jim Bailey and Landy.

Bailey and Landy both broke the 4-minute mile for the first time in the United States, Bailey a stride ahead of his countryman in 3:58.6. Delany finished in 4.05.5.

"That first quarter was too fast," said Villanova Coach Jim Elliott, who will accompany Delany on the trip West.

"He wasn't told to set that pace. He's a runner who hangs back and comes up. He was told to go out and get out of the mob, but he kept going ahead."

* * *

"When he beat Santee indoors in the Knights of Columbus Games at Boston," added Elliott, "Santee took the lead at the three-quarter mark. Delany was 30 yards behind at the time. He had a sprint similar to Bailey's and won in 4:06.3."

* * *

Elliott is counting on Delany stretching out his initial speed and running his old race. Also, he said: "This week the pressure isn't on him. He's the underdog like Bailey was. He'll be more relaxed."

Marbles Tourney Finals Moved to Wisner Field

An overdose of water has forced a change in location for the windup of the city-wide marbles tournament.

* * *

The 9th annual mibs tourney, co-sponsored by The Pontiac Press and the Parks and Recreation Department, was originally scheduled to conclude its activities this Saturday at Crofoot.

But Crofoot playground is hidden under water, thus necessitating switch of site. Saturday's championship finals will now be held at Wisner Field starting at 9 a.m.

* * *

Two new entries in the marbles tournament have expanded the field to 18 schools. Players have entered from Hawthorne School and a group of boys from the Pontiac State Hospital will also compete.

Champions in Midget and Junior divisions will be crowned Saturday. Trophies will be awarded by The Pontiac Press to the winner and runner-up in each class.

White Refuses to Get Nervous

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Bill White, 22-year-old New York Giants rookie, is a somber young man who refused to be nervous over his first appearance in a major league lineup.

* * *

The speedy 6-foot Negro last night couldn't see why he should be jumpy over his first major league game—after all he was with the Giants spring training.

* * *

It was the St. Louis Cardinals who became nervous when White smashed a home run his first time at bat, then added a double off the right-field screen and a single for a 3-for-4 evening.

* * *

It appeared the youngster, in his fourth season in organized baseball, had taken a long stride toward establishing himself as the Giants first baseman.

Waterford Golfers Win Over Berkley

Waterford High's steady-shooting golf team chalked up its 7th victory in 10 starts Monday with a 325-355 decision over Berkley in an Inter-Lakes match at Pontiac Country Club.

Jack Reynolds led the Skippers with a medalist round at 76. Dale Wheeler, John Wettlaufer and Bill Cumberworth all fired 83's for Waterford. Cochran was low for Berkley with 77.

Sports Briefs

Ron Jackson, White Sox first baseman, and Frank Sullivan, Red Sox pitcher, are the tallest players in the American League. Both are 6-6½.

* * *

Pitcher Bob Lemon of the Cleveland Indians was quite effective as a pinch hitter in 1955. He made four hits in 10 appearances for a .400 average.

* * *

Joe DiMaggio averaged 35 home runs a season in the majors.

Ted Kluszewski hit 47 homers and 25 doubles in 1955.

THE POWERHOUSE

By JIMMY POWERS

Our Olympic athletes are being forced into the position of a rider attached to the economic cold war now flaring on all fronts.

If the U. S. team, which has always made a strong showing in the overall point rating since revival of the ancient festival in 1896, should falter this time, it is safe to assume the Red propaganda mill will seize the occasion in pursuit of its interests. From all reports, this is a distinct possibility.

The problems we have in holding trials, assembling athletes, providing first grade equipment and transportation, are tremendous when compared with the Soviet way. Money is no object in Russia with the state openly picking up all tabs on a year-round basis.

Here the U.S. Olympic committee has a perpetual problem—adequate financing. An estimated $800,000 is the minimum requirement needed for the round trip to Melbourne.

I concur that in a democracy it is not the task of the government to subsidize athletic teams, regardless of the importance of the project. Our team represents the U.S.A., but it is put into motion and it functions strictly as a result of the people behind it.

All of which brought me to a luncheon yesterday and a perfect example of capitalism in action. One of the nation's leading companies, employing about 20,000, disclosed it would contribute 10 cents to the Olympic committee for each box top and wrapper of 12 of its products.

The box tops (please don't tear off the head of your neighborhood grocer) can be deposited in handy display bins in stores across the nation.

The potential of such an offer is tremendous. Every man, woman and child has the opportunity of helping to pay our Olympic freight. Just one wrapper tossed into a designated place and a dime is on its way to help pay for the trip of Melbourne.

Merchandising experts contend a million wrappers easily may result from this brilliant promotion and if that figure is attained our Olympic group will net a check for $100,000.

What's most important, a major part of the fund-raising work will have been accomplished with the direct help of people throughout the land.

That a respected concern chose to devote a major part of its promotional campaign to helping the sports project is the perfect illustration and the perfect example of countering the Soviet way of doing things. This is democracy and athletics working together in a happy capitalistic society.

Puts 'House' in Order

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State University, placed on a year's probation recently for infractions of the Big 10 athletic code, is moving quietly to put its house in order.

* * *

Dignified acceptance of the penalty, and solemn promises by all concerned to live within the rules, greeted the edict handed down by Western Conference Commissioner Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson.

Wilson, who addressed some 1,000 high school coaches on the campus last weekend at a banquet sponsored by the university, said he "admired the way Ohio State has accepted this thing (probation and Rose Bowl ban) and the way they are proceeding."

* * *

President Howard Bevis said the university had swallowed its medicine, was determined to live within the rules, and would be heard from within the rules.

Athletic Director Dick Larkins, in a letter mailed to alumni, explained the reasons for the probation, said Wilson had conducted a long, thorough and fair investigation.

"We have done our utmost to assist in this investigation by being honest and truthful, and at no time have resorted to covering up the facts," Larkins said.

Larkins termed the penalty as "severe without question," but added:

* * *

"It gives us an opportunity to strive diligently in the conference circles for a set of more realistic rules under which we can operate more practically and with less hypocrisy. It will enable us to gear our problem of unearned financial aid in conformity with, not only established law and order, but standards of decency to the young men on our squads."

Old Timers Enjoy Party

Pontiac Old Timers' Baseball association opened 1956 activities during the last weekend with a banquet. Held in the VFW hall here, the affair proved highly interseting. The hall was filled to capacity, Paul Parks, chairman, reported, and he added that the gathering was "a fine tribute to the high interest shown in old-timers' activities."

Major R. G. Savage of St. Thomas, Ont. was a fine toastmaster, and the crowd enjoyed the talk by former Tiger ace "lefty" Diz Trout, who will join the Old Timers' ranks himself this summer. Diz, it was stated, will be a hurler for the Detroit Old Timers, in the Old Timers' International League.

Prominent sports figures from Detroit and Toledo, as well as from the Pontiac area were among the guests. Some of them Bob Calahan and Lloyd Brazil of the U. of D.; Al Mueller, Jim Smart and Ed Decker of the Toledo IN team; Ace Lee, Jack Moran, Detroit; Gene Bone, Ted Reaver, Charles Irish (city federation prexy); Bill Latozas and Len Buzz. Joe Carry of the local recruiting service showed films of the last Army-Navy grid battle.

Bud Leslie of the Pontiac OT team recived a trophy as the most active in 1955. Gifts were presented the Ladies Auxilliary for providing the dinner.

The OT International will meet May 26, in Toledo to talk schedule and other matters.

Majors Seek Young Father

ASBURY PARK, N.J. (AP)—An 18-year-old father of two children has the New Jersey high school baseball world in an uproar and major league baseball scouts in a sweat to sign him.

RAINBOW—Proof that Oakland County's waters produce some nice trout is seen in the above picture of J. T. Perkins of 7650 Bridge road, Clarkston. The rainbow, a beautifully colored 19-inch, near 2-pounder, was taken Sunday on a night crawler lure, fished in Maceday lake, from the bank. "It was my biggest trout and my only fish for the day," said Perkins.

* * *

He's Lee Owen, a righthander who has pitched three no-hitters for Asbury Park High School and allowed a total of only nine hits and four runs in six games. Scouts of the New York Giants, Cleveland Indians, Milwaukee Braves, Philadelphia Phillies, Cincinnati Reds, Pittsburgh Pirates and Kansas City Athletics have looked him over in the past month, although they can't sign him until he graduates in June.

* * *

Owen is understandably more anxious than most high school pitching phenoms to make the majors, and in a hurry.

"College would probably be best for me, but I just couldn't go unless I had a scholarship which would let me take my family along and schools just don't give them out to baseball players," he said. "I'm going to try to make the majors."

GREATEST WOMAN ATHLETE — Mrs. Babe Didrikson Zaharias, established as one of the world's greatest woman athletes is fighting the greatest battle of her life against cancer. The Babe came out of Beaumont, Tex., in 1932 to win two Olympic championships, the 80-meter hurdles and the javelin and to be disqualified after taking everything, basketball, tennis, swimming, diving and became known as the greatest of women golfers. She also holds the girls' mark for throwing a another, the high jump. She excelled at every baseball — 296 feet. Her fight against cancer has become a national concern.

Ex-PHS Star Kept in Shape While in Army

Back in circulation again after a tour of duty with the U. S. Air Force in Germany, Walter Beach, former PHS athletic star is hoping to get into college sports after clearing up some credits in a summer course.

Walt came home last week from three years in Germany with air force security units. He was last stationed at Landsberg, Bavaria, where his unit cage team, the Bavarian Hatters, won the area title, but couldn't make a tour of the state-side, world-wide tourney. He played a guard.

Beach engaged in footballl with the Bremerhaven Blue Devils as a left halfback. A Valley dash champion in high school, his best time overseas was 10.3 for the 100 meters. Walt also ran the 220 and was on the 6910th Security Organization's half mile and medley relay teams.

Lake Trout Decline Pinned to Lamprey

WASHINGTON (AP) — The decline in Lake Michigan trout has been pinned anew on the sea lamphrey.

This time, the fish and wildlife services says, a new and different study did it.

The study was aimed at finding out whether the sea lamphrey, the destruction of young trout by the use of small-mesh nets by chub fishermen, or the near or complete failure of natural reproduction caused the fishery to plunge from an annual catch of 6½ million pounds in 1946 to a mere 34 pounds in 1955.

Paul H. Eschmeyer, service biologist, made the study.

Bruins Buy Center From Toronto Club

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League have purchased Jack Caffery, a 6-1, 170-pound center from the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Caffery, who will be 22 in July, was sidelined by sickness and injuries most of last season while with Toronto's American Hockey League farm in Pittsburgh. He registered 15 goals and 11 assists with the same club in the 1954-55 season.

Clarkston 9 Practices

The Clarkston Tri-County baseball team will practice Wednesday at 6 p.m. and Saturday at 2 p.m. on the Clarkston High School diamond. Holly will meet the Tri-County nine Sunday afternoon at the same field. Game time is 2 p.m.

Pitching Spotlighted in Major Tilts

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

George Zuverink, the guy nobody wanted, right now is the No. 1 relief pitcher in the American League, getting the job done almost on a daily basis for the Baltimore Orioles who can hardly do a thing without him.

* * *

The 29-year-old righthander, who in his 11-year career has failed to hang on with Cleveland, Cincinnati and Detroit and who wound up in semipro ball as a free agent after his first year in the minors, has strolled in from the bullpen in 12 of Baltimore's 20 games this season. And of the nine games the Birds have won to date, he's saved six and won two.

* * *

Zuverink, purchased in desperation from Detroit last July, was called upon for the third time in two days last night and with two pitches snapped off a Tiger rally and picked up a 4-3 victory that lifted Baltimore into sixth place while reducing his earned run average to a nifty 1.50.

Pitching was the pass word in the other three games played in the majors yesterday, too. In the American, Tom Brewer struck out nine and cut off Cleveland on four hits in a 5-1 Boston victory. In the National, Milwaukee's Bob Buhl beak Brooklyn 3-1 on six hits to retain the Braves' slim hold on first place, and St. Louis, helped by a weird five-run inning and dandy relief pitching by Lindy McDaniel, Gordon Jones and Jackie Collum, smacked the New York Giants 6-3 to tie idle Cincinnati for second place.

* * *

Brewer won his third against one defeat by granting Cleveland only two singles in eight innings. He retired the first 16 men in order, striking out seven, while the Red Sox were pasting Mike Garcia for 11 hits and four runs in five frames. Billy Goodman singled and tripled for the Bostons while Dick Gernert and Norm Zauchin homered.

Buhl, now 2-0, had the help of two killing doubleplays while dumping the champion Brooks to their third straight defeat. Del Crandall drove in two runs and Hank Aaron homered as Carl Erskine lost his second.

* * *

Three singles, two of them bunts, three walks, a hit batsman, a wild pitch and a sacrifice fly brought the Cards from behind as starter-loser Windy McCall, Hoyt Wilhelm and Marv Grissom had their troubles in the sixth inning.

Milford Heavy Favorite in Wayne-Oakland Meet

The Wayne-Oakland League track and field meet will be held tonight at Milford, with the host Redskins heavy favorites to repeat as champions.

Russ Gabier's thinclads have raced to easy victories over league foes in dual meets this spring and there is nothing to indicate that the picture will change when the six-team loop assembles tonight.

Clarkston, last year's runner-up, and West Bloomfield are expected to furnish the stiffest opposition, with Brighton a possible "dark horse." Holly and Clarenceville are afforded little chance.

Milford ran away with last year's league meet, amassing 73½ points to outdistance the Wolves by a wide margin. Sprinter Lee Averill is the most consistent scorer for the Redskins, but the squad is characterized by sound balance.

Tonight's preliminaries get under way at 6:30 p.m., with the finals immediately following.

Softball Practice

Practice sessions have been arranged for tonight and Wednesday for Pontiac Elks softball team. Both are set for 5:30 o'clock.

Tonight's workout will be held at Webster Field. Tomorrow, the club drills on the North Side field.

Flint Bribery Trial Resumes

Involved Optometrist Asked Delay in August on Illness Excuse

MASON (AP) — A state optometry board official who testified he witnessed Benjamin D. Ritholz in the act of giving a bribe returned to the stand for defense questioning today in Ritholz's bribery trial.

* * *

Dr. Chauncey J. Howe Jr., Hillsdale, board secretary-treasurer, swore Monday in Circuit Court that Ritholz, Chicago, president of the King Optical Co., passed three $100 bills to Dr. Julien Feiler, Flint, in a Lansing hotel room last Aug. 8.

Ritholz told himself, Feiler and Dr. Clare L. Grigware of Grand Rapids, a third board member, Howe said, that the sum was to "bind the bargain" made earlier for a $6,000 payoff.

The trial, delayed because of the defendant's illness, began Monday before Judge Philip A. Hadsell of Niles. It is expected to last two weeks or longer.

Howe testified the money was offered to board members to "wash out" a complaint then pending before it against Edwin L. Sanchik, a Lansing optometrist.

A board inspector had filed the complaint, alleging that Sanchik engaged in "unprofessional" conduct by acting as a "steerer" and referring persons who came to him for eye examinations to the King Company's Lansing office for purchase of the optical equipment prescribed.

The King firm operates in 17 states.

The board subsequently upheld the complaint against Sanchik. He took the case into court and it still is on appeal.

UM Agrees to Augment Ann Arbor Fire Costs

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The University of Michigan has agreed to pay 18 per cent of the costs of operating the Ann Arbor fire department.

The agreement, a university official said, would give the city of Ann Arbor an additional $60,000 a year for its fire department.

The agreement was reached through negotiations between a committee representing the Ann Arbor City Council and the University of Michigan's Board of Regents. The agreement still must be approved by city council.

Granger and Simmons Pass Citizenship Test

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Stewart Granger and his wife Jean Simmons, British film players, have passed their final test for U. S. citizenship.

"We are also looking forward to welcoming another American citizen in a few months—our first child," the couple said.

They will receive their citizenship papers at a court hearing the date to be set later.

Bakeries Merge

Nolingberg will continue to operate as a division of the Escanaba Bakery which serves Central Upper Michigan and Northeastern Wisconsin.

Bob Considine Says:

Your Rock Really Started Something, Ug

ABOARD USS MOUNT McKINLEY OFF ENIWETOK PROVING GROUND (INS)—An open letter to UG. (Editor's note: UG, an old friend of the author, was born in the year 1,715,000 before Christ and lived to the ripe old age of 33, by which time he was undisputed head of his duplex cave. The author ghosted a book for him called "The Ug Story, or 30 Seconds Over Neanderthal Man.")

Pal Ug:

Look what you done! You should never have hit that kid Hnk in the head with that rock.

* * *

You remember that caper? That you were busy at your hobby of painting them purty pictures on the wall of your den. Your hairy belly was bloated with a good meal off the side of a raw brontosaurus and two tender trees that later became a bush known as lettuce.

The paint was flowing real nice and you were getting good conformation on your pet unicorn.

You had everything, Ug, and a lot more than some of them bums in them other caves. You had invented the last word in conveniences, a kind of suitcase handle to attach to short-haired dames, the better to drag them home.

* * *

There never was no trouble with long-haird babes, natch, and hadn't been for million or two years. But then that new hairdo come in. The pterodactyl cut they called it, and dames went for it like crazy. You were ready, though, with that old handle. You had everything, pal o' mine.

BIEW YOUR STACK

Then you blew your stack, Ug. You looked up from your masterpiece, which is now in the Metropolitan Museum of Art minus the unicorn's horn, and saw Huk dragging one of your short-haired babes.

* * *

I know what offended you, of course. He was using one of your suitcase handles. Still you shouldn't orter have done what you done.

You picked up a rock and gave him a dinger on his noggin, you did. You know the rest. He went back to his cave and grunted as follows: "This means wah. Ah fate, ah, but here it is. Somebody find me a bigger rock."

None of his constituents had ever heard of wah but they were all for it. You got clobbered with that bigger and better rock in what will always be remembered as the first waH in history. Your kids began looking around for even bigger rocks.

* * *

Well, pal o' mine you should be out here to see what's come of that there impetuous act of yourn.

BETTER WEAPONS

People who lived after you and the kids and their kids come up with better weapons than no rock—hard as that will be to believe.

* * *

Oh, they thunked things up like sharp rocks for instance, and hatchets, spears, swords, bows and arrows, guns, tanks, planes and gas and now something real crazy that is all mixed up with splitting and fusing atoms.

They call it a hydrogen bomb and everybody wants one since some Russian plug ugly named Khrushchev announced they got one so neat it can be dropped from something we call an airplane—which you also wouldn't believe.

When you hit Huk, Ug, you said something that gave you your name. You said "Ug." It was the only thing to say, really. Nowdays, you wouldn't believe the aftermath, scientific and political, of even a parctice heave of this here H-rock.

* * *

There's more mysterious equipment out here than could have been comprehended by Einstein, a fellow born some time after you. We are having trouble with some friends in a place named Asia because the last H-rock we heaved gave off dust that hoited people who got in the way.

UNARTISTIC CAMERA

You as an artist couldn't understand a thing we call a camera. A camera would for instance have been stupid enough to put that horn on the unicorn whereas you attained the abstract and said to hell with the horn.

* * *

Well, Ug, they were showing us a camera the other day which was built to photograph the first mewling microseconds of H-rocks exploding. It takes pictures at a rate of 3½ million frames per second.

The man who explained it to us apologized. He said there was now that took eight million frames per second.

The H-rock could kill or stun millions of people for thousands of square miles, Ug. You sure started something with that there rock you pegged.

Yours in sports,

Bob Considine.

Grains Rally After Sell-Off

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains sold off early in moderately active dealings on the Board of Trade today, losses running to around a cent before the market stablized and staged a small rally.

* * *

Selling largely represented a continuation of the liquidation which cropped up toward the finish of the previous session. It had some influence on price levels in view of the absence of any news to stir up aggressive demand.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was unchanged to $\frac{5}{8}$ lower, May $2.25\frac{5}{8}$; corn $\frac{5}{8}$ lower to $\frac{3}{8}$ higher, May $1.52\frac{1}{4}$; oats unchanged to $\frac{1}{4}$ lower, May $65\frac{3}{4}$; rye $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ lower, May $1.26\frac{1}{2}$; soybeans $\frac{1}{2}$ lower to 2 cents higher, May $3.23\frac{1}{2}$, and lard 5 to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, May $13.50.

Improved crop prospects continued to be the underlying factor in early easiness of new crop wheat. An Agriculture Department crop report is due Thursday and may show an increase in the winter wheat estimate from a month ago.

Earnings

NEW YORK (INS) — Sinclair Oil Corp. yesterday reported net income for the quarter ended March 31 of $24,245,569, equal to $1.68 a common share. This compared with $21,207,915, also equal to $1.68 a common share on a smaller number of shares in the same period last year. Revenues increased to $316,649,538 from $281,791,247 in the initial three months of 1955. P. C. Spencer, president, said "demand for petroleum products continues strong and there is every indication that 1956 will be a year of record volume."

NEW YORK (INS) — Alco Products, Inc. announced net income for the quarter ended March 31 of $774,000 equal to 40 cents a common share. This compared with $879,000 or 31 cents a common share in the same period last year. In 1955, preferred dividend requirements were higher than this year, accounting for the variation in common share earnings. According to P. T. Eckert, president, "Current operations indicate second quarter shipments and earnings will show substantial improvement over the initial three months."

PITTSBURGH (INS) — Superior Steel Corp. reported net income for the quarter ended March 31 of $192,619, equal to 57 cents a common share. This compared with $415,833, or $1.19 a common share, in the same period last year. Sales declined to $8,225,615 from $9,216,229 in the initial three months of 1955. Earnings were adversely affected by the lull in automotive production. Automakers are major customers of Superior, which produces carbon strip steels, stainless steels and clad-metal products.

DETROIT (AP) — Goebel Brewing Co. reported a net loss of $81,263 in this year's January-March quarter compared with a $274,234 profit in the same period last year. Sales declined to $3,361,840 from $4,818,501. Company President Edgar J. Anderson said losses resulted from closing the California Brewery and a modernization program at one Detroit plant.

Stocks Display Irregular Look

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market presented an irregular and somewhat lower appearance today in early dealings.

Many leading issues were off 1 to 2 points and there were a few gainers up that much. Minus signs dominated the list.

The steels, motors and oils were active and mostly lower. Oils, recently quite strong, were hit by profit-taking at the start.

Railroads were higher on balance with good plus signs appearing. Aircrafts were unchanged to higher. The chemicals were mixed.

High-priced Union Pacific sprinted away on its own rally with a gain that ran to around 4 points.

Mesta Machine was up between 1 and 2 points, and Long-Bell Lumber had a similar gain.

Studebaker-Packard, yesterday's most active issue up 1, opened today on 5,000 shares off ⅜ at 8⅜ and then lost a little more. The stock has been under the influence of rumors and denials for some time.

Royal Dutch Petroleum opened on 1,000 shares off 1¼ at 110, and some other blocks were U.S. Steel 2,500 off ¼ at 59¾, Reynolds Metals 1,000 off 1½ at 76, Alleghany Corp. 4,500 off ⅛ at 10⅛, General Motors 4,000 off ⅛ at 44⅛, and Bethlehem Steel 1,000 off 1⅜ at 156.

The market yesterday was irregular most of the day and it finally turned down at the close as a result of a late selloff. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was down 90 cents at $190.40.

Peron Moves to Colon at Other End of Canal

PANAMA (AP)—Juan D. Peron has moved from one end of the Panama Canal to the other. The exiled Argentine ex-dictator set up his new home in an apartment in Colon, at the Caribbean end of the canal, 38 miles northwest of the Pacific end here at Panama.

Isabel Gonzalez, a night club dancer Peron has been keeping company with here recently, also moved to Colon.

Church Sniper Is Hospitalized

'I Am Against Nobody,' Suspect Says, Giving 'V' Finger Sign

NEW YORK (AP) — An unemployed handyman who admits firing a volley of shots that killed one worshiper and wounded five others outside a Romanian church has been sent to Bellevue Hospital for mental observation.

Romanian-born Todurchi Sava, 61, surrendered to Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan yesterday.

Sava later told reporters he had fired the shots, adding:

"But I wanted to scare, I didn't want to hit."

NO EVIDENCE

Sava was arraigned before Magistrate Anthony M. Livoti on charges of homicide and felonious assault. Later he was sent to Bellevue.

Hogan said there was no evidence that Sava intended to shoot any particular person in the throng outside St. Dumitru's Romanian Orthodox Church Saturday night. Hogan also said there was no conspiracy or "international intrigue" involved.

'Dead' Battery Saves the Lives of Possum Brood

SHERMAN OAKS, Calif. (AP) — Mother Opossum made a slight error in selecting a home for her brood of five, but they all came out all right.

* * *

She gathered some straw and made a bed atop the engine of Robert J. Anvoots' automobile.

For two weeks Anvoots didn't use the auto. Yesterday he got in, stepped on the starter, but heard only a click. The battery didn't turn over the engine. It had a dead cell.

* * *

Anvoots lifted the hood, found the possums resting comfortably in the straw nest. If the battery had done its work the straw would have been set afire.

Anvoots turned over the opossums to the animal shelter.

Edison Head Reports '56 Profits Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—Profits of Detroit Edison Co. will be "substantially higher" this year than last, it was predicted yesterday by Walker Cisler, president, in a report to stockholders.

At the same time, Cisler said, earnings as measured on a per share basis will be lower, but by no more than four per cent. The reason: an 11 per cent gain in the number of shares outstanding.

Cisler reported sales of industrial power in the first four months of this year were 8 per cent ahead of the comparable 1955 period, despite a 20 per cent decrease in Detroit's automobile production.

U.S. Steel Estimates Cost of Growth at $5 Billion

HOBOKEN, N. J. (AP) — Stockholders of United States Steel Corp. were told yesterday that the big company during the next 10 years faces an annual bill of 500 millon dollars for expansion.

Addressing 871 "big steel" shareholders at the annual meeting in the Stevens Institute of Technology fieldhouse, Blough said the company will have to expand its capacity by a million tons a year for 10 years to help meet the steel needs of the nation.

But, he declared, a substantial part of the company's profits which would normally finance this expansion are "phantom profits, eaten up by inflation, almost before we get them."

Now, Honestly, Mr. GOVERNOR!

Here's a question we didn't ask you at Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids or Detroit.

Now, HONESTLY, Mr. Governor—Are you really interested in traffic safety as you claimed last week when you asked for 30-day suspensions of drivers' licenses for first offense major violators? Or, were you just talking out of the other side of your mouth again?

★ The people of Oakand County question your concern for traffice law enforcement when your own top state law enforcement holds a serious record of violations. You may recall that the Attorney General was summoned for re-examination of his right to drive because of a series of moving traffic violations.

But he was told by your Secretary of State's office to forget the summons.

How do you account for that? Are there two kinds of justice in the Secretary of State's office—one for the people and another one for Democrats?

Would you advocate the 30-day suspension of your Attorney General's license the same as you do for the rest of the people?

★ Now, HONESTLY, Mr. Governor, your own record shows you're not honestly concerned with traffic safety. In the last session of the Legislature your Secretary of State openly opposed a bill creating local bad-driver training schools. Now you advocate 30-day license suspension. Tell us in your "Report to the People" today—what do you really stand for—traffic safety or clever politics?

Justice in Lapeer Faces Imprisonment

LAPEER—Elmer S. Holman, 38, a Lapeer County Justice of the Peace, today faced the next one to two years in Southern Michigan Prison for mingling public funds with his own and not turning in fines and costs within 30 days.

Holman, reported $6,808 short by Aud. Gen. Victor Targonski, resigned last March 19. He made full restitution of all funds claimed due.

Under the law he was required to deposit all fines and costs with the Lapeer County treasurer within 30 days after receiving it.

Targonski claimed Holman's records were incomplete and that he had been mingling state and personal funds for five years.

Circuit Judge Timothy Quinn, who had known Holman for years, said in passing sentence: "I would be shrinking my obligation if I let this offense pass without imposing stiff punishment."

Honor Outstanding Senior at Walled Lake Banquet

By ELEANOR DUCKWITZ
Walled Lake Correspondent

WALLED LAKE — Versatile Woodrow Donovan, Walled Lake High School senior, was awarded an engraved watch at the Rotary Club Banquet for senior lettermen last night.

The award is presented annually to the boy voted "Outstanding Senior" by the faculty on the basis of scholarship, leadership and service to his school.

WOODROW DONOVAN

Ranking fourth in his class with an average of 3.83, "Woody" qualified in all fields since transferring from Cooley High to Walled Lake as a junior. He is member of the National Honor Society and the Student Council.

He has been editor of the Viking, the school yearbook; and sports editor of the Echo, the school newspaper. His other memberships include the Latin, math, science, photo, and pep clubs. Football and track were his choices in sports.

When he has spare time, Woody likes to read, garden, and enjoys listen to most any kind of music except some of the rock and roll variety.

Not only is this student unusual in his achievements, but the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacobus Louwman of 1425 West Lake Drive, Walled Lake, is also one of the most widely traveled members of his class.

At various times he has called the Netherlands and the states of California and Washington his "home."

Woody's abilities were recognized by Oberlin College last week when he was notified that he was the recipient of a $3,000 scholarship. When he enrolls next fall, he will embark on a pre-medical course.

Service has been his motto thus far. It does not seem strange that service to mankind should be his choice as a career.

Argentina Clamps Bars on Peronistas

BUENIS AIRES (AP) — President Pedro Aramburu's regime is clamping down on followers of Juan Peron who persist in demonstrations of loyalty to the fallen dictator.

• • •

Ivan Adolfo Mirando Naon, 19, began singing the battle hymn of Peron's followers, "Peronista Boys," yesterday on a crowded street. A passer-by complained and a policeman arrested Naon. The youth insisted he was only trying to win a bet.

Federal Judge Luis Botet ordered him held for trial.

Earlier in the day, Botet ordered two men held for trial on charges of soliciting contributions for the Peronista underground from employes of the city bus firm.

• • •

These were the first actions under the government's anti-Peron propaganda decree. Peron was ousted last September.

Alert, Athletic Priest Nabs Poor Box Thief

The Rev. Joseph M. O'Malley, a former amateur boxer, captured George Wilbur Stinson, 30, after a 6-block chase by auto and on foot. Stinson surrendered without a fight.

Detectives said Stinson, an ex-convict, admitted the robbery. He was carrying $107.50 when arrested.

Communist Slave Camps Break the Spirit

By PHILIP LUKER

"The Communist prison guards ordered us to put our hands through the bars . . . then they'd stamp on them. Or sometimes they'd string us up by our hands for a day."

• • •

The Chinese-Italian who told me this in Shanghai was Guiseppe Francisco Jovino, a Roman Catholic layman who knows as much about conditions in Chinese Communist jails and slave labor camps as almost any man. He spent four years in them.

In 1951, the Communists charged Jovino with possessing eight unregistered firearms, and with not registering his fishing ships under maritime law.

The 40-year-old Shanghai resident said he had registered the weapons and ships under the Kuomintang (Nationalist) government, but had neglected to re-register them when the Communists took over.

PRISON EXPERIENCE

Jovino told me some of his prison experiences:

"They pushed a half of basin of cold water through the bars of my cold cell each morning for eight of us to wash in. We all shared a latrine bucket in the eight-by-four-foot cell.

"We had to meditate our crimes sitting erect for two periods of three hours every day. If we moved the guards would stamp on our hands, or force our hands behind our backs and make us hang by them, until we yelled for mercy."

Jovino's story put to scorn the idea that conditions in the "model" Peiping Municipal Prison shown me were anything like conditions in other jails. It showed how Communists maintain an unlimited supply of slave labor on starvation rations.

After two years in jail, Jovino was sent to a slave labor camp north of Shanghai.

He explained the camp was one of 12, each covering about 100 acres of swamp land and holding 10,000 political prisoners, marriage violators, thieves, deserters from the Korean war, dope addicts, grafters and Chinese priests.

Prisoners lived in leaky mud huts, 60 in one 20-by-60-foot building. They slept on planks laid over the earthen floor. Total food each day amounted to 28 ounces: Eight ounces of rice broth in the morning, 14 ounces of dry rice and a vegetable in the afternoon and six ounces of broth at night.

A weak or "unprogressive" prisoner who did not fulfill his work quota was first only deprived of cigarettes. If he still didn't reform, he was shackled in chains around his ankles, so he could barely walk. He still had to work in chains, at the same rate as other prisoners. He was not allowed to rest for ten hours at a stretch.

PRISONER-TRIALS

Jovino described "trials" of "unprogressive" prisoners. The guards would shout: "What will we do with them?" The other prisoners, mindful of their own future, would shout, "Kill them . . . kill them."

The guards, trying to appear merciful, would say, "We don't do that. We'll put them in irons. How long should we put them in irons?"

"A year," the crowd would shout.

"No, we won't be as hard as that," the guards would say. "We'll put them in irons for only two months."

TIED OUT IN COLD NUDE

Jovino explained how the next step in the campaign to reform a prisoner who did not respond to chains was to strip him and leave him tied to a pole outdoors, in one of the coldest countries in the world.

Jovino said he and his fellow prisoners always knew when one of them was to receive the supreme penalty for being unable or unwilling to complete work quotas. They would all be herded into a field and surrounded by machine guns.

These trials were always a farce, because the prisoners' fate would have been already decided. He would not be allowed to speak, and had no one to speak for him. Jovino continued:

"The last time I saw this happen the man was accused of spreading rumors that the Kuomintang was coming back.

"The prisoner was grabbed by soldiers and shot, his brains spewed out of his head."

EXTEND SENTENCES

"The Communists," said Jovino, "made a great fuss when they reduced anyone's sentence for propaganda. They reduced the sentences of six or seven men out of the 10,000 in my camp, while I was there."

"But," he added, "they increased the sentences of more than 30. One man originally sentenced to three years ended up with 18 because he couldn't or wouldn't work hard enough.

"Those due for release had a very poor chance of getting one. Their family and the Communist-controlled street committee in their locality had to agree to the release, and the prisoner had to have a job to go to. The street committee would decide whether he was wanted and needed by the society.

• • •

"It was an easy matter, then, for a prisoner to be kept working. The authorities had only to suggest to the street committee to declare the man "not wanted" and he could be kept working for life."

Wayne May Raise Wedding Permit Fee

DETROIT (AP) — Even the price of love may go up!

• • •

County Clerk Edgar M. Branigin has suggested that the $2 fee for marriage licenses should be increased to $5.

"I'm not trying to toss roadblocks in the path of the Love Express," said Branigin. "It's an idea to help combat generally rising service costs."

Branigin said he doesn't think a change would hurt — "If a couple can't afford $5 to get married," he added, "they ought to go home and save their pennies."

He will write the Board of Supervisors suggesting the change. He indicated he might seek raises elsewhere, too, such as doubling the 25-cent fees for birth and death certificates.

• • •

"I'm sure they will react favorably when they note the added revenue possibilities," said the clerk.

'Joe and Mable' Starts June 12

New Program Based Upon the Home Life of Taxi Driver

BY ARTRA BAER

NEW YORK (INS) — Guy Lombardo's music will be the sweetest this side of another network starting June 12, when CBS scraps his show (currently Tuesdays 8 to 8:30 p.m.) in favor of a series starring Nita Talbot called "Joe and Mable."

The spokesman for Lombardo, who announced the switch, said the maestro has no "ill feelings," but added that Guy's present sponsor, Pharmaceuticals, Inc., was given a choice of backing the new series or giving up its time.

Reportedly "delighted" with the old pro's ratings, Guy's sponsor will probably buy "Joe and Mable" but will definitely hunt for an advantageous time spot to present the Royal Canadians on ABC or NBC this fall.

"Joe and Mable," based on the homelife of a cab driver, has kind of been a TV waiting-for-a-streetcar gag. The series was kinescoped and ready to go well over a year ago, and nothing happened except yawns.

We hear that it has been revamped and rewritten and now shapes up as one of the more palatable situation comedies.

EDDIE GOES WEST

Eddie Fisher's show has moved to Hollywood and will continue to be beamed from the coast until sometime in November after Eddie and Debbie's baby is born.

The show continues in its 15-minute format with one big change: Eddie is packaging it through his newly formed company, "Ramrod Productions," which should mean a considerable financial gain for the father-to-be.

The Fisher stanza goes off for the summer June 8 and will return Aug. 29.

During the vacation interim, the Fishers take time out to do a picture for RKO titled "Bundle of Joy."

In November or early December, Eddie and Debbie return to New York to scan scripts for a Broadway musical.

Look for the biggest news yet to come out of the Godfrey camp. (Perhaps a switch of one of his shows to an early Monday night spot come fall) . . . but when this happens, it will be just part of the ensuing headline.

OLD-TIME GREATS

If you look fast on Thursday's Lux Video Theater (NBC), you'll glimpse a dozen of the silent screen's all-time greats.

Stanley Quinn, Video Theater producer, has invited them to play the jury in the courtroom drama "The Night of January 16th." Among those present will be Ramon Navarro, Julia Faye, Viola Dana, Mack Sennett, May McAvoy and Francis X. Bushman.

Hal March, recently wed to Candy Toxton, stars on the July 15 NBC spectacular "The Bachelor." Steve Allen is now hard at work on the show's music and lyrics.

June Havoc, in our book better looking and a funnier female than most any comedienne around, has reportedly solved her TV series problems. She has been mulling over a deal based on a comic strip and the script has gone through alterations so it just about fits.

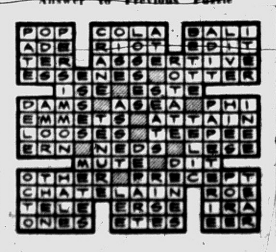

Word is that June was ready to go quite awhile ago, but got into a verbal hair-pulling session with the wife of a Madison ave. nabob and wound up distressed.

June's sister, Gypsy Rose Lee, maintains she won't tackle TV because she can hear the guys in their livingroom balconies shouting, "Turn it off, turn it off!"
