Drizzle Abates as Game Opens Under Dull Sky

Giants Put Antonelli on Mound to Oppose Cleveland's Wynn

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — Fans tricked into the soggy bleachers of the Polo Grounds several hours ahead of game time today as the New York Giants and Cleveland Indians squared off for the second game of the World Series under leaden skies.

A morning drizzle stopped before noon and the forecast was cloudy skies for the afternoon with a chance of thundershowers by evening.

The darkness gave an advantage to the two fast ball pitchers nominated by Managers Al Lopez of the Indians and Leo Durocher of the Giants. The Indians, seeking to even up the series after the Giants won a spectacular, 10-inning opener 5-2, are sending Early Wynn (23-11) to the mound. He is a right-hander and opposing him is Young Johnny Antonelli (21-7), a lefty.

Ford Frick, commissioner of baseball, announced at 11:3 a.m. that the game was definitely on. He ordered the gates opened.

A tarpaulin which had been placed over the infield was removed and the players began loosening up shortly before noon.

Because of the delay in getting started, the Giants had to cut short their batting practice and gave over the field to the Indians.

Van Fleet Gives Report on Asia

General Thinks U. S. Ought to Strike Back for Victory

WASHINGTON (AP) — Retired Gen. James A. Van Fleet submits to the Pentagon today his confidential report on Allied military strength in the Far East—where he thinks America should strike back for victory.

Van Fleet, who told the Senate internal security subcommittee that he thinks victory is still possible in Korea, expects to file his report with Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson.

The former 8th Army commander in Korea went to the Far East on a confidential mission for President Eisenhower. He said he could not make his findings public, but his public testimony left little doubt about his personal feelings.

He told the group, headed by Sen. William E. Jenner (R-Ind.), that Gen. Omar N. Bradley, former chairman of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Gen. J. Lawton Collins, ex-Army chief of staff, were "oriented entirely to Europe and couldn't see deployment in strength in the Pacific."

The retired officer also declared that the U. S. should break diplomatic relations with Russia, "as a major dramatic step in an effort to avoid World War III."

He said the U. S. should quit the United Nations if Red China is seated and force the world organization to move out of this country.

Asked about the Korean War, Van Fleet said "there were many opportunities when we (the U. N. forces) could have advanced great distances" following air strikes at the Reds in Korea, "but there were no orders to do so."

The general repeated his claim that the Korean fighting was the "right war, in the right place, at the right time, with the right allies."

It's Doggone Lonesome so Mugs Hugs Phone

WELLAND, Ont. (AP) — A telephone operator heard painful moans over a line yesterday and feared the worst. She called police.

Constable William Calder found someone was in trouble all right—a 6-month-old boxer puppy named Mugs. His owners had locked him in a shop six miles north of here.

Lonesome, mugs had knocked the phone off the hook, laid down beside it and whimpered.

Willie Mays: 'I Just Catch 'Em' Leo to Dusty: 'Grab a Bat, Wham! Game's Over Now'

Editor's Note: Jim (Dusty) Rhodes came off the bench in the 10th inning yesterday to deliver a pinch-three run homer that gave the Giants a 5-2 victory over the Indians in the first game of the 1954 World Series. In the following dispatch, he tells how he did it.

By JIM (DUSTY) RHODES

NEW YORK (UP)—The skipper told me to "grab a bat" in the 10th inning but I guess I reached out and grabbed the brass ring instead.

Happy! I don't know the right words to describe the feeling I got when that white ball hit that grey overhang in right field for a homer. It was the best hit I ever collected in my life.

Even before the 10th inning came along, we all sat there in the dugout and kept waiting and waiting.

Then after Willie Mays and Hank Thompson got on, the skipper, Leo Durocher, called out: "Rhodes grab a bat." I didn't stand around waiting to be told a second time.

Bob Lemon's first pitch to me was a high curve ball. I liked the looks of it real fine. So I went after it. The next thing I knew she was sailing out toward the promised land.

I looked at it and looked at it. I said to myself, "the ball game's all over now."

(By UNITED PRESS)

Blase World Series veterans babbled like cub reporters as they compared Willie Mays' fantastic catch Wednesday with the greatest catches in series history, but amass Willie grins and said, "I don't compare 'em—I just catch 'em."

There's no doubt that Willie's latest piece of outfield robbery saved the opening game for the Giants, for there were two men on base in the eighth inning for Cleveland when red-hot Vic Wertz clouted. (Continued on Page 18, Col. 1)

3 Bandits Get $5,000 in Holdup

White Lake Township Farmer and Neighbor Robbed in Home

A White Lake Township man was robbed yesterday of $5,000 by three men who threatened to "burn his feet" if he failed to tell them where he kept his money.

According to Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies Ted Gunn and Shelton Stiles, the robbery victim, Ray Shotwell, 65, of 1424 Porter Rd., an elderly farmer, was talking with A. O. Brisbois of 2254 Porter Rd., a neighbor who came to pay a feed bill, when the three bandits walked in on them.

Both men were bound with clothesline, and the bandits, each armed with a revolver and described as, between 25 and 40, took two wallets from Shotwell containing his savings, and another $15 in change from Brisbois.

Deputies said the three bandits "had to be someone in the know."

Gunn said one of the three talked about some bulldozing that he had to have done, and two of the men, were called "Steve" and "George." They fled south in a 1946 or 1950 red convertible with black top, police said.

Reply to Charges Made at FHA Probe

Most Residents Like Hoeft Road Homes

A majority of residents in a 24-home subdivision east of Walled Lake yesterday voiced few complaints against construction of their prefabricated houses, but a minority of three listed what they termed "numerous defects."

A Pontiac Press survey revealed that most residents felt their Hoeft-road neighbor, John Hobby, did not speak for the group when he appeared last Friday in Detroit before the Senate Banking Committee investigating Federal Housing Administration operations in Michigan.

A spokesman for the firm which built the subdivision, Colwell Homes Inc. of Birmingham, also asserted that most of the residents were "very satisfied."

Hobby told the Senators that his home at 2148 Hoeft had gaps in the walls and a defective septic tank when he moved in.

Senator Capehart (R-Ind.), chairman of the committee, criticized Wendell Edwards, FHA director

Square D Pact Restores Calm to Labor Front

Prolonged Seige Ends as UE Calls Members to Ratify Ceasefire

DETROIT (AP) — The settlement of the violence-marked Square D Co. strike restored labor peace to Detroit today for the first time in 3½ months.

Agreement came suddenly yesterday, a day after three strike leaders were jailed for 30 days and fined $250 each for contempt of a court order against mass picketing.

Striking Local 957 of the Independent United Electrical Workers called a rank and file meeting today for ratification of the settlement.

Terms were not publicly announced. However, they were assumed to include an agreement on the firing of 27 strike leaders.

Management wanted arbitration of each case before reinstatement of any. The company fired them for "acts of violence." The union demanded their jobs back ahead of arbitration.

The union, calling out its 1,200 members, went on strike June 15. Wages and a company demand for an iron-clad no-strike clause were at issue. The company makes electrical instruments.

The last of the strike probably has not been heard. Rep. Clardy (R-Mich.) said it is going to be investigated by the House Un-American Activities Committee of which he is a member.

Both Clardy and Rep. Kersten (R-Wis.) called the strike an instrument of Communists. The UE denied this.

Man Who Fleeced Police Out of $15 Gets 20 Days

For embarrassment he caused Pontiac Police, Detroit's James Glover, 31, will spend the next 20 days in jail.

Police testified they gave Glover $15 last Aug. 19 to make a purchase from a suspected narcotics peddler but that both Glover and the $15 vanished.

Arrested in Detroit this week, Glover pleaded guilty to larceny by conversion and was sentenced to pay a $50 fine or spend 20 days in jail by municipal Judge Cecil McCallum yesterday. Glover didn't have the $50.

BULLETIN

DETROIT (UP) — Freddie Hutchinson resigned today as manager of the Detroit Tigers after the board of directors turned down his demand for a new contract.

Detroit President Walter O. (Spike) Briggs informed Hutchinson by telephone that the directors would not offer him a two-year contract.

Briggs said he could have the job next year if he wanted it, but Hutchinson said it must be on a two-year basis or not at all.

No successor was revealed by Briggs.

TASTING AND TESTING—Chocolate pudding was one of the items tested yesterday at the Oakland County TB sanatorium by representatives of five county institutions. From results of the taste tests brands of food to be purchased by the county during the coming year will be decided upon. Above, comparing opinions, are Davy Marson, Contagious Hospital; Mrs. Mable Spence, Children's Home; Miss Edith Bandeen, TB Sanatorium; Mrs. Tony Martinez, Sheriff's Department and Mrs. Hazel Batloff, Infirmary.

Pontiac Starts Full Production

Calls Last of 18,000 Back Monday as New Models Roll

Pontiac Motor Division's full complement of over 18,000 employees will be back on the job Monday, Oct. 4 as the division resumes full production after model change and inventory, Robert M. Critchfield, general manager, announced today.

Approximately 1,800 employees, the last of those affected by the changeover operation which began Sept. 3 have been asked to report for work on Monday.

The majority of these employees are in the Pontiac assembly plant.

The maximum number of people affected during the model changeover period was 3,700 Critchfield said.

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Eight companies of firemen raced into a municipal courtroom when smoke filled the chamber.

They found the fire—in a wastebasket next to an air-conditioner intake duct two stories down.

Nibble 150 Entries Taste Appeal Sweepstakes Held by County Dieticians

"Pass the bicarbonate please, dear." This was probably a routine request in at least 15 Oakland County homes last night as a result of the county's second annual "tasting bee" at the TB Sanatorium yesterday.

Dieticians from five county institutions and representatives of the county purchasing department tested 150 different brands of food to determine which would best serve the county's needs and still have the most taste appeal.

The 15 "gourmets" present at yesterday's tests represented the jail, infirmary, TB sanatorium, children's home and contagious hospital.

"By having each of them participate in the taste test we cut down on complaints and the system saves the county money," said L. H. Gertz, county purchasing director.

Testers tasted 150 different brands of fifteen foods from numbered cans without labels. Then they marked their first and second choices on a ballot.

Brands that came out on top in this secret ballot system would be the ones purchased during the coming year.

Items tested ranged from apricots and asparagus to spinach and strawberry gelatin.

Testers moved about tables in the dining room at the sanatorium with spoons and paper cups, dipping into cans and wrinkling their brows in concentration.

Many speculative remarks were made as to what the testers would have for supper at their homes that evening. One suggested a doctor—for indigestion.

Coffee was available for relief and for refreshing taste buds.

Last item to be tested was pudding. Testers not only tasted (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Adenauer Sees 9-Nation Talks Ending Tonight

Spaak Wants NATO, European Alliance to Share Control

LONDON (AP) — The nine Western foreign ministers conferred in an atmosphere of elation and optimism today as agreement on West German rearmament for the defense of the West appeared near.

They met for a two-hour session this morning at historic Lancaster House and were to resume negotiations after lunch.

In the late afternoon, U.S. Secretary of State Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, French Premier Pierre Mendes-France and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer arranged to confer together on the companion issue of granting West Germany complete sovereignty.

Adenauer predicted the delegates would finish their task tonight. Others, notably, the French, thought the deal would take somewhat longer to work out.

Reflecting the ministers' confidence that an agreement was near, Dulles advanced his expected date of departure for Washington to Saturday night. Previously he had planned to fly home Sunday.

"It's going very well now," Canadian Foreign Secretary Lester B. Pearson told newsmen at the noon break. A British Foreign Office spokesman added that good progress was made at the morning session.

A conference source said the ministers spent most of the morning discussing a compromise proposal submitted by Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak on the crucial question of the control of German rearmament.

The plan was reported to call for sharing control between the proposed new seven-power European alliance and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Successful conclusion of these and the companion talks on German rearmament is expected to bring these results:

1. The United States, Britain and France will announce their intention to end the occupation of West Germany, giving the Bonn republic virtually full control over both external and internal affairs.

2. The Germans, then, will issue a declaration offering to join a proposed new seven-nation European alliance and the 14-nation North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

3. Under a reported compromise plan being worked out, the European alliance will organize controls to be placed on the arms. (Continued on Page 18, Col. 7)

Salesman Held in Child's Death

Month's Search Ends With Finding of Boy's Mutilated Body

SIOUX CITY, Iowa (AP) — A Sioux City detective said today "I think we have the right man" in the abduction - slaying of 8-year-old Jimmie Bremmer.

Detective Lt. Harry J. Gibbons identified the man as an itinerant salesman previously questioned at length in the case. No charge has been filed.

The salesman steadfastly denies any knowledge of Jimmie's death. "I think he knows a lot more than he's telling," Gibbons said.

The man has admitted talking to the boy on Aug. 31, the night he disappeared. Police decline to name the man.

The month long search for the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bremmer ended yesterday in a pasture only four miles from the lad's home. Three highway maintenance men found the mutilated body.

Sioux City police, Gibbons said, also are working with officials of Auburn, Maine, where a 12-year-old boy disappeared last July 22 under similar circumstances. His body was found nine days later in a river.

Gibbons said the salesman admits being on the East Coast last June.

The salesman, returned yesterday afternoon from nearby Yereke State Mental Health Institute, was taken to the scene where Jimmie's body was found. He had entered the institute as a voluntary patient.

The Day in Birmingham

Fire Chief Griffith Backs Proposed Advisory Board

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM—Fire Chief Vernon W. Griffith today voiced his approval of a recommendation by a committee which investigated the June 14 Couper home fire, calling for the establishment of an independent board to assist with problems in providing "adequate manpower and equipment for the two new fire stations."

In a formal statement, Griffith agreed with the investigators that the board, to act in an advisory capacity, should be formed. The committee, in its report, vindicated the fire department of any negligence in the blaze at 1189 Brookwood Ct., which cost the lives of three members of the Thomas Couper family.

Griffith further recommended that the portion of the City Charter (chapter III, section 16) outlining the powers of the chief of the fire department, be rewritten and voted on at the next election.

Griffith suggested further defining of the responsibilities of the department and termed the portion of the charter which provides for the razing or destruction of buildings to stop a fire, "outmoded."

Any charter change should also provide for appointment of a committee to "assist and advise the city manager and (city) commission, relative to fire and water production needs within the city," Griffith felt.

Besides commending the investigators — James Spencer, Charles Kass and Jonathan Ball — for their "fair, conscientious and considerate" treatment, Griffith thanked the hundreds of people who voiced their confidence in the policies of the department during the investigation.

Stating that the fire department was never beyond criticism, he said, "Department policy has always been that we welcome both constructive and destructive criticism, when it is supported by facts."

He warned, however, "The ending of this investigation should not place the citizens of Birmingham under a false sense of security, to the end that no more lives will be lost in the city because of fire."

Birmingham is now a nearly fully populated city and must expect incidents such as this, and similar to those occurring in large cities, with less frequency," Griffith asked that credit for the saving of one life in the fire be given to the citizens reporting the fire and telling the first-arriving firemen of seeing Mrs. Couper's father, Lawrence W. Cross, 62, alive in the house. Had this not been known, Griffith said his men would have attacked the fire under "strictly fire-fighting conditions."

"The firestop would have been spectacular, but there would have been a fourth victim instead of three," Mrs. Couper and her sons, Larry and Danny, died in the blaze.

Finally, Griffith asked that any personal clashes brought on by the investigation be forgotten, "for I am sure we all agree that it was another tragic incident in the history of this city, and sympathies should be extended to the father and husband of the late family."

Launching their phase of the Birmingham Bloomfield Franklin Torch Drive several weeks ahead of the official opening of the campaign with a dinner at the Community House last night, business leaders heard Claude Harman, business chairman, explain the chapter plan of contribution. "The chapter plan, which is available to any organization, makes a convenient, budget method of contribution possible," he said. "In this way, employees and others are able to give to a great number of worthy health and welfare agencies with a single pledge, and spread its payment over the whole year."

Extra help is needed from business this year, he said, "to meet our share of the community's record-breaking goal of $186,338."

While formal opening of the local branch of the Automobile Club of Michigan will not take place until ceremonies next Thursday, the club will open its doors to 7,000 club members in the area on Monday morning.

The new red brick building at 275 S. Hunter Blvd. will have Douglas Brown as division manager. Brown, former manager of the Pontiac division, is a Birmingham resident. Supervisor will be Mrs. Elizabeth Howell, also formerly of the Pontiac office.

The club will offer travel routings to its members, along with information and reservations on international travel. Parking space for 25 cars has been provided at the side of the building.

Thieves Nab $536 in Night Breakin

BIRMINGHAM — Thieves were busy last night breaking into an auto agency and a service station, and attempting to break into a second service station.

Police said $536 was taken from the Bob Frost, Inc. automobile agency at 850 S. Woodward Ave., and about $5 from candy and cigarette machines at the Neighborhood Service Station, 1575 Southfield Rd.

Entry into the agency was gained through a locked window, which had a faulty catch. A file cabinet had been broken, and a cash register smashed.

Police believe the same persons unsuccessfully tried two door locks at the Bond Service Station, at Woodward Ave. and George St.

2 Dogs Kill Sheep, Draw Fire of Police

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A flock of sheep belonging to Mrs. Laura Turner, owner of Devon Gables Restaurant, was attacked by two dogs last night, at Mrs. Turner's Devon Farms, Lone Pine and Telegraph Roads.

The dogs killed one and injured three of the flock. Police were forced to shoot another sheep which was badly hurt.

Police fired at the dogs, described as a black and white hound, and a redbone, but could not hit or catch them.

Plea of Guilty Brings $50 Fine, Jail Term

BIRMINGHAM — Appearing before Justice John J. Gaffill yesterday, Steve Gray, 40, of 464 Dittmar St., Pontiac, pleaded guilty to a charge of driving under the influence of liquor.

He was fined $50 plus $10 costs and sentenced to 30 days in Oakland County Jail. The jail term will be increased to 60 days if the fine is not paid.

Trolley Riders in Philadelphia All Gummed Up

PHILADELPHIA (INS) — The Philadelphia Transportation Co. added something new to its trolley cars today—chewing gum. And not the kind usually found stuck under the seats either.

As part of its plan to tap every possible source of revenue the PTC installed 50 penny chewing gum vending machines on five cars — 10 to a car — to see how the riders along the experimental route take (or rather, buy) it.

If the idea goes over, the PTC will put the machines in all of its 1,721 streetcars and trackless trolleys, 215 subway-elevated cars and 939 buses.

Registration Hours Announced by Clerk

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — City Clerk Robert Stadler has announced hours of registration for the coming November election.

The office will be open from 8 a. m. through 5 p. m. through tomorrow. Additional hours will be from 8 a. m. until noon Saturday, and from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. Monday, the final day for registration.

Willie May's Catch, Dusty's Homer Wins

It seemed impossible for Willie to catch, but he turned and ran straight for the center field barrier.

"I had a good lead on it all the way," Willie explained. "So I just ran until I got it. Anyway, any ball that is hit that high ought to be caught."

World Series financial figures, 1st game:
Attendance: 52,751.
Net receipts: $16,957.25.
Commissioner's share: $47,543.59.
Players' share: $161,648.20.
Club and league share: $107,765.46.
Federal tax: $31,738.42.
City tab: $15,863.28.

Dusty Rhodes' 10th-inning, pinch-hit home run Wednesday was the first of its kind which decided a World Series game.

Three other pinch homers have been hit in series games—but all were delivered in a losing cause.

They were Yogi Berra, Yankees, 1947; Johnny Mize, Yankees, 1952; and George Shuba, Dodgers, 1953.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (INS)—So far as the World Series is concerned, Pee Wee Reese, Brooklyn Dodgers infield star, would just as soon play golf today as watch it on television.

Reese shot a round yesterday on his home Louisville course.

"Why should I watch the series on TV?" said Pee Wee. "I saw enough of the Giant's during the season when we played them 22 times."

HAVANA, Cuba (UP)—Dusty Rhodes' home run yesterday came as a blessing to crewmen in a transport plane high over the Gulf of Mexico.

They were acting as a relay for transmission of the game to a Cuban television network and had been in the air four hours and 20 minutes when Rhodes settled the issue in the 10th inning.

"We were afraid the plane might run out of gas because of the length of the game," confessed Goar Mestre, president of the network. "But everything turned out okay."

Cigarette Is Probable Grocery Fire Cause

Pontiac fire department officials said today they were "almost certain" that a blaze in the Wrigley Supermarket at the Tel-Huron Center yesterday was started by a cigarette flipped between a wooden pen containing electrical controls and a stack of flattened cardboard boxes.

While supermarket officials could give no damage estimate they indicated that the fire, which was confined to a 20-square-foot area in the basement, did little or no damage to food stocks.

A Wrigley spokesman said the store would be re-opened this afternoon after fresh supplies of meats, produce and dairy products were put on the shelves.

While the fire was confined to the basement it sent clouds of smoke billowing through the first floor sales area, sending more than 60 employees and customers fleeing.

Pair Sees Newborn Baby Perish on Isolated Mount

BURLINGTON, Vt. (INS)—A young Massachusetts couple today tragically told of the unattended birth, death and burial of their first-born daughter—high on the slopes of Camel Hump Mountain and miles from the nearest shelter.

Mrs. Margaret Barich, 19, of Wollaston, Mass., gave birth to the baby on the mountain last Saturday with only her husband, Paul, 25, a Boston University student, to assist.

All night, the little mother and baby were sheltered only by boughs and the outer clothing of the father. When dawn came he carried them both about two miles until he found a deserted hunting cabin.

The baby, kept alive by breast feeding and warm by a blazing fire of logs, died the following Monday and was buried soon afterwards with the prayers of the mother and father.

State Police were skeptical of the strange story when Mrs. Barich arrived alone and walking at the doors of Mary Fletcher Hospital.

She said she had walked four miles down the mountain to find a Montreal-Burlington bus and that her husband had not accompanied her because she had only a little change left—not enough for her fare.

But when the 30-mile trip north was made and Barich was still at the cabin, police began to believe. They were positive when they were led to the small grave.

Washington County Jail at Montpelier and held on a vagrancy charge until an investigation is completed.

Paul once worked part-time as an orderly.

The couple had been evicted from a rooming house because they had no money to pay rent, and had sought shelter on the mountain, where the heart-break saga began.

The body of the baby was dug up and turned over to State Pathologist Joseph Spelman for an autopsy.

Robber's Wife Nabbed by FBI

Mrs. Cox Is Charged With Possessing Stolen Money

Mrs. Juanita Cox, 20, of Pontiac, wife of bank robber Hugh Cox, was arrested by FBI agents Wednesday on a charge of receiving and possessing part of the $32,300 taken by her husband and a companion in an April 2 Dearborn holdup.

The girl, a housemaid here who lives at 831 Inglenood Ave., is free on $7,500 personal bond today pending examination Oct. 20 in Detroit Federal Court.

Her husband was sentenced to 15 years in prison for the robbery of the Telegraph-Carlisle branch of the Manufacturers National Bank.

His accomplice, James J. Munder, 24, former University of Michigan student, drew a 13-year sentence.

George E. Woods, chief assistant U.S. district attorney, said that Mrs. Cox purchased a $3,000 car with some of the money from the robbery.

and armaments of member nations—Britain, France, Italy, West Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

4. The administration of these controls—primarily designed to prevent any runaway German rearmament—would be in the hands of NATO.

One obstacle to agreement appeared cleared when French sources said French Premier Pierre Mendes-France is now willing to discuss the future of the disputed Saar with Adenauer after the present conference ends.

years. The French want it controlled by the proposed seven-nation alliance. The Germans have been pushing for its administration by the 15-nation Council of Europe.

The differences between the conferees—apparently were broken through yesterday by a tradition-shattering British pledge of military support on the continent for the proposed European alliance.

Canada followed with a pledge to keep its men in Europe.

U.S. Secretary of State Dulles said if the conference could agree on a system of European unity, he would recommend that the United States promise to maintain its full share of the forces needed for European defense.

But if no agreement is reached, Dulles warned, the United States may have to pull its troops from the continent.

OH, CHUCKS!—Five-year-old Bill Pecha, of Eau Claire, Wis., sits on his front porch, with his pet woodchuck, "Woodie." The Pechas got Woodie as a cub from the farm of a relative. While tiny, he was fed from a doll's milk bottle. Now three months old, he has acquired a taste for toast with jelly on it, cereals and nuts. If his water pan is empty and he wants a drink, he'll scratch on the door until he gets service.

Bob Considine Says:

Latest Serum Would Put
U.S. in Pink-Colored Daze

NEW YORK (INS) — Medical science has come up with a serum which, when injected into the hide of a frustrated and worry-racked person, will instantly give the person a feeling of well-being and first class optimism.

The injected person is said to develop a sudden love for his or her enemies. All the gnawing pangs of suspicion, jealousy, doubt and fear disappear. Let's hope we can find some way to keep the stuff from becoming generally used.

Characteristically, the serum is extracted from snake venom. It takes no great stretch of the imagination to picture the ultimate tragedy that could overtake the United States if the serum was taken daily by every citizen.

If we had nothing to worry about, and our focus was blurred as to the nature of the dangers and responsibilities around us, we'd go to pot faster than if we were hit simultaneously with a thousand H-bombs.

A completely contented America is a pretty appalling thought to bring before the mind's eye. Newspapers would perish, beginning with the advice to the love-lorn columns. Department stores would collapse, for no one would care any longer to join in the battle of the bargain basement. The automobile industry would shut its gates. Everybody would be content with last year's car and be too blissful to covet the new models with the streamlined ash-trays.

No one, of course, would join the armed forces, since no discernible enemy could be seen through the rose-colored fog of the serum. West Point and Annapolis would become resort hotels and work would be stopped on the Air Force Academy.

Willie Mays would refuse to swing on a fat one offered by Early Wynn, on the ground that Wynn is a fine fellow—so why should he try to hurt him.

Rocky Marciano's fights would go the 15-round distance, inasmuch as no blows would be landed and the activity confined to esthetic shadow-boxing.

Golf would disappear because no one would want to be an accomplice to the stabbing of a defenseless rubber tree, which provides the gum for the ball. Tennis would try to get along for a time without gut in the rackets, thanks to the intervention of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Sheep.

All research, except in the field of perfecting more comfortable hammocks, would end in an instant. Epidemics would rage unchecked, causing no alarm. Schools, churches and hospitals would be among the first to go. Euphoria U. would be the only university left.

About the only industry remaining in the country would be the manufacture of plowshares at Oak Ridge, Tenn., Los Alamos, N. Mex., and Hanford, Wash. Streets would sound incessantly to the chant of "Happy Days Are Here Again."

And when the junk wore off we'd notice that all the street signs were printed in Russian, and big brother was watching.

Teaching Tots to Swim Takes Patience

It's a good idea for every child to learn how to swim. Expose your child to some water (besides the bathtub) if you possibly can. Before anyone can learn to swim he must feel easy and comfortable in the water. Fear is the greatest drawback in getting your feet off the bottom.

You almost never go to a public beach that you do not see some over-enthusiastic father carry a screaming, clutching child into the water.

There is no better way to prevent a youngster from learning to swim than by forcing him into the water when he is afraid. You only increase his fear.

It's a whole lot better to go to the other extreme. Let a youngster play on the shore, dig in the sand—if there is sand—until he himself wants to dabble in the water.

With some children it takes a long time. They may never get wet above the waist for a whole summer, but eventually even a timid child will discover it's fun to wade out into water up to his armpits. Then is your time to start teaching him strokes.

It's likely to be pretty frustrating, when the trip to the beach is a single day's expedition. You went to a lot of effort to get the kids to the beach and you know it won't be possible again for a long time.

You so much want them to enjoy swimming as you do. You just can't bear to see all the beautiful day being wasted without getting more than the toes wet.

You'd better just hold onto your self. Let your child enjoy himself the way he likes. You'll only do harm by forcing him into the water.

Next time maybe he will go in a little further, if he doesn't have a memory of a fright to get over. If your child is quite young you have plenty of time.

However if your child is getting on toward 10 and has had very little chance to go swimming give him a few lessons (perhaps at a YMCA or a YWCA) if you possibly can.

Under the guidance of a good teacher and with a group of youngsters of about his own age many a child will learn to swim quickly.

Most children are a little timid when they first approach water.

Masculine Tweeds Get Compliment But They'll Show Irregularities in a Woman's Skin

This fall's magnificent tweeds—plugged or nubbed, bright or somber, hairy or smooth, color-flecked or unflecked—will need adding machines to keep tab of all the compliments they're going to get.

Just the same, this is a masculine type fabric whose rough speckled and often harsh or hairy surface tends to highlight any irregularities—especially sallowness—of a woman's skin.

Therefore, the make-up for this strong fabric must go all out to make the lady tweed-wearer's skin look feminine and finished.

What is advised? By all means, wear a tinted make-up foundation. Choose and use it for enlivening skin color and glow, not for the thickness of its coating. To veil any or all little flaws, bring skin tones from hairline to an after-five neckline into one uniform tone, to impart an impeccable finish all you need to use of it is a film as sheer as chiffon.

Choose a cake-type make-up foundation if your skin is normal or inclined to oiliness, a cream-type, if you need a foundation that will ally dryness and give you a soft satin finish. Here are more tips.

In foundation shades, avoid those that are too brown, too beige or too drab-making. Tintings are also down on too-pink shades. "Tweeds" are too strong to take any sugar effects in make-up.

Wear rouge. Here is one of the most feminine aids a woman can use to cope with the dull texture or neutral coloring of tweeds.

For another feminine ally, don't forget what a velvety film of fresh face powder can do.

Best lipstick shade for No. 1, 2 and 3 fall favorites—gray, beige and black-and-white mixture tweeds—is a red as fiery as the costume is "cool." Wear more of the same hot-tempered lipstick for evening tweeds.

For the paler pink, black and honey-toned and other tweeds as fawn as a breakfast tangerine, get out your lipsticks in exactly matching or closely-allied shades.

Color experts claim yellow has the highest rating for general visibility.

Mrs. Charles Harmon Jr. of Peach street is pictured on the deck of the Holland-American Liner "SS Ryndam." She sailed recently from New York harbor to Geissen, Germany where she will join her husband who is stationed there with the United States Army.

Golden Legs Will Stroll Down Paris Boulevards

PARIS (INS) — Paris fashions are back on the gold standard. Women will wear stockings, enforced with real gold, "cause Jacques Fath is out to make women look and feel precious. And to achieve this he has concentrated on stockings, or to be exact, on stocking tops.

The latest Paris sensation prepared by Fath for fashionable women and their husbands — is stockings with the 2-inch top band reinforced by pure gold thread, the finest in the world.

This top band with the golden shimmer has the look and feel of a super luxurious material. An added attraction—for the husband only—is a diamond-trimmed golden garter-top.

Fath claims he took six months to perfect this new, deluxe accessory. He is now working on the all-gold stocking for the future. But that's not all. Monsieur Fath also has more visible stocking news for girls who go in for luxury of a less private character. The latest stocking is buttoned.

Pale peach-colored Fath hose-ry comes with tiny black buttons on a full-length seam on the outer side of the leg.

One stocking model has its buttoning in a straight line, while another is trimmed with a cross-cross cord facing between two rows of tiny buttons.

Counterparts of the stockings are Fath doll hats. These, hardly larger than the size of a hand, are tiny shapes of velvet or satin.

Some are cut to cover a high chignon. Others, flatter, like small pancakes, sit on top of the head and are secured by chin straps.

Fath's smartest doll hat is a pill-box of 4-inch diameter designed to sit on a chignon.

CHAIRS SHOULD BE "TRIED ON" FOR SIZE

IT'S generally believed that the softness of a chair's seat, alone, determines the degree of comfort it will afford you. Fact is, the pitch of the seat and back—the depth of the seat and its height—are major comfort factors. A chair that will lull an average size person to sleep may, to a six-footer, be somewhat less comfortable than a concrete block. And vice-versa.

HERE'S our commercial:—Because we operate our own exclusive custom workshop right here in Detroit, you can "try on" and select from many, many chairs and sofas—enjoy seating comfort that's exactly tailored to your needs. With more than a quarter of a century of fine furniture manufacturing experience behind us, it's a simple matter for us to vary widths, depths, pitches, heights, to provide foam rubber or spring construction—to your individual needs.

TO provide a still wider choice for you, we also handle pieces by such nationally-known manufacturers as Widdicomb and Heritage Henredon—which we consider to be among the finest. And naturally, you won't find dozens of chairs exactly like your own when you order from us—since you select from hundreds of fabrics, leathers, or luxury grade plastics. (Incidentally, we do custom re-upholstery work, too.)

SHOPPING at all our stores is leisurely. You're more than welcome to come in and just "look around."

ONLY AT OUR STORES can you have this smart imported chair individualized, color-keyed to your setting, with genuine leather or Victrix seat. Amazingly comfortable, the seat is foam rubber, the molded back available in birch or walnut. A good occasional chair—ideal for den or TV room. With tweed textured seat, $29.50. With leather or Victrix $33.00

WE LIKE GOOD LEATHER because it acquires a patina, mellows and improves with age and use. Choose it for this chair, in a wide range of colors, from dark tones, through bright ones—some pastels. Spring seat construction, as found in most of the durable leather chairs that seem to last a life time. $169.50

LADIES' LOUNGE CHAIR is small scale, has foam rubber seat. Would look well in one of our new linen covers—dyed to match your color scheme. From $140.00

ROCKING LOUNGE CHAIR has neat appearance of traditional lounge chair. Full foam rubber seat, kick pleats, button back, graceful arms. From $164.50

TRIM TRADITIONAL CHAIR is available as men's or lady's lounge chair. Frill-less and straight forward, it has foam rubber seat cushion. Choose from many fabrics. From $159.00

FRENCH PROVINCIAL LOUNGE CHAIR has exposed frame available in fruitwood, or any finish you may desire. Very attractive in a print; a bit more formal in velvet. From $199.00

FOR EARLY AMERICAN ROOMS—as a foil for modern—for parents of small children who like to be rocked to sleep, this authentic Boston Rocker has simple, rugged beauty. In black, with gay stencil design. (Also available in a child's size at $14.50) $27.50

Limit Jelly Batches

Jelly-making reminders: Jellies made in small quantities are usually more satisfactory. Work with not more than 8 to 8 cups of juice at a time.

If you use frozen shrimp, remember that the flavor is best if thawed in the refrigerator rather than at room temperature.

Nutritious Liver Achieves New Zest With Oranges

Wonderful liver deserves a very special place in your menu planning, not only for its high nutritive value, but for goodness of flavor and versatility as well.

This tender meat combines well with such old favorites as onions or bacon, but for a different, truly special treat, combine it with poached orange slices garnished with bits of crumbled bacon. This makes an attractive as well as delicious main course.

Good supplies of cattle now coming to market make beef liver an exceptionally good value at this time, though pork, lamb, veal and calves liver are also in good supply.

But whichever type of liver you choose, you'll be sure of bonus amounts of vitamins, minerals and high quality proteins so necessary to health and well being.

Liver is a delicate meat that requires constant refrigeration. If you purchase fresh liver, wrap it loosely and keep it in the coldest part of your refrigerator and use within 24 hours of purchase.

Frozen liver should be kept frozen until ready to use, and then thawed in the refrigerator or according to the directions on the package. A well-known brand name is your best guide to quality when choosing frozen liver. Because there is very little waste to liver, you may count on four good servings per pound.

Liver is an easy meat to prepare and lends its goodness to a variety of tempting dishes. Remember that liver need no soaking, parboiling or precooking if you plan to broil, pan-fry or braise it.

However, if you plan to grind the liver for patties or liver loaf, it should be pre-cooked as the recipe directs.

Thyme 'N' Orange Liver

4 slices bacon, chopped
1 pound beef liver, sliced
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon powdered thyme
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 oranges, peeled and sliced

Pay-fry bacon. Drain on absorbent paper. Pour off all except 2 tablespoons drippings. Combine flour, thyme, salt and pepper. Dip liver slices in the flour mixture.

Brown liver on both sides in the bacon drippings. Add oranges. Cover. Cook over low heat for 15 minutes. Makes four servings.

Mushroom Stuffing Peps Up Tomatoes

Once a year—during the height of the tomato season—you can indulge in the riotous use of fresh tomatoes. Stuffing them with a variety of fillings is a way to surprise your family.

Try mushroom-stuffed tomatoes. For eight large, firm tomatoes—tops sliced off and centers scooped out—make filling as follows:

Fry one-third cup chopped bacon and in the drippings brown 1 tablespoon finely chopped onion and one-fourth cup chopped celery. Blend with 1 quart of toasted one-half-inch bread cubes and add 1 can of condensed mushroom soup.

Stuff tomato shells with the mushroom mixture. Top each with one-half tablespoon grated Parmesan—cheese. Bake at 305 degrees for 30 minutes.

THYME 'N' ORANGE LIVER—Pictured here is a liver dish fragrant and savory with a delicate touch of thyme. The fruit flavor from the sliced oranges combines admirably with the meaty goodness of the liver. For contrast, crisp bits of bacon are added.

Jelly-making reminders: Squeezing or pressing the jelly bag causes cloudiness may be removed by straining the juice through a fresh bag.

Scalloped Potatoes Are Baked Whole

A different version of scalloped potatoes leaves them whole, bakes them in a flavorful milk sauce, and ends with a smooth creamy product.

Baked Cream Potatoes

2 pounds new potatoes
2 1/2 cups milk
1/2 cup melted butter
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup sliced onion
1/2 cup flour
Few grains pepper

Wash and peel potatoes. Place in lightly buttered 2-quart baking dish.

Combine milk, butter, salt and onion. Pour over potatoes.

Cover baking dish; bake in moderate oven (350) for 1 1/2 hours or until potatoes are tender.

Remove any film that forms during baking. Remove potatoes. Add flour mixed to a smooth paste in cold water; cook until thickened.

Season with pepper. Add potatoes; heat. Serves four to six.

Golden Bread Cubes Are Ideal Canapes

These golden canapes are ideal to serve with fruit juice, soups, salads and cocktails.

Remove crusts from a loaf of enriched yeast-raised bread, cut into 1 1/2-inch cubes. Toast in a 350-degree oven for 5 minutes. When blended, use on top of bread cubes; place on greased baking sheet.

Expect Coffee Drop of 10-15 Cents by '55

NEW YORK (UP)—The American housewife will pay 10 to 15 cents less for a pound of coffee before the end of this year, industry sources predicted today. "Prices must go down because we have more coffee available now than we had a year ago," one leading coffee roaster said. "Consumer resistance this year has cut coffee consumption by around 20 per cent. The law of supply and demand will push prices down further." Coffee prices started up last December and then took another spurt in the spring. Within the past six weeks, price cuts have shaved off some 40 per cent of the increase which sent coffee as high as $1.45 a pound. Alligators and caymans are distinguished from crocodiles by having shorter, blunter jaws, and they are considered to be less active and vicious.

School Rule Set After Accident

Romeo Superintendent Tightens Restrictions as 'Hooky' Ride Hurts 3

ROME — Supt. of Schools T. C. Filippa issued directives to parents, teachers and school administrators today as a result of an accident which occurred earlier this week in which three Romeo High School girls were injured while skipping school.

The three, Janet Sue Bentley, 17, Barbara Hopkins, 16, and Ann Phillips, 17, borrowed a car from a schoolmate, and went for a country ride.

According to State Police Trooper Bygones, Janet Bentley was driving at "excessive speed for road conditions," lost control of the car in loose gravel, and rolled it over several times.

The girls were taken to St. Joseph Hospital, Mt. Clemens, where Barbara Hopkins and Ann Phillips were treated for cuts and bruises, and released. Janet Bentley remains in the hospital, with broken ribs and possible back injuries. Her condition is described by hospital authorities as "good."

Supt. Filippa, in commenting on the accident, stated that the new rules of providing secretaries for all the principals, will enable the administration to keep closer check on absences.

In cases like the one resulting in the accident, where students are present for morning classes but miss the afternoon session, parents will be called to determine whether they are aware of the absence, he added.

Farmington Hearing on Zoning Scheduled

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — A public hearing has been called for 8 p.m. Monday at the township hall to discuss two proposed amendments to the township zoning ordinance.

Leo Kelly, chairman of the Zoning Board, stated the proposed changes concern two pieces of property north of 12 Mile Road on Rollcrest drive and on Northwest Highway and 14 Mile Road.

The presently unclassified Rollcrest property would be zoned Residential 4, the Northwestern frontage from commercial to light industrial, and the 14 Mile property from residential to industrial, to permit expansion of the Michigan Consolidated Gas company facilities.

South Lyon Readies for Harvest Festival

SOUTH LYON — Last minute preparations for a 3-day Harvest Jamboree, to be held tonight, Friday and Saturday, are under way. The festive affair, sponsored by Lovewell-Hill Post 2502, VFW, will take place at the intersection of Lafayette and Main Sts., here.

Democratic candidate for the lieutenant governor post Philip A. Hart will lead the main event of the jamboree, a parade to begin at 10 a.m. Saturday. He is substituting for Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

Bands from South Lyon High School, Highland, Milford, Walled Lake, Northville and Ann Arbor will take part in the procession. Other sections will include heavy equipment by Pontiac Division of the National Guard, Oakland County Sheriff's Department mounted division, horses and floats.

Contests for children and teenagers will be staged Saturday afternoon, and at 9 p.m. the winner of the girls' popularity contest will be given a $50 award.

Buggy Painter Returns as Artist

By WILMA GREENWAY

From painting horseless carriages back in 1896 to painting art pictures in 1954 is a long, long jump. But Ralph B. Johnson, formerly of Waterford Township and Pontiac, is a real sportsman and he was able to take that jump right in stride.

And to prove he's still an extra step or two ahead, the alert 70-year-old retired Fisher Body Co. executive has even tried a few innovations of his own.

One of them is painting in reverse on plastic, so that the completed picture, seen through the plastic, has an added gloss and color brilliancy pleasing to many.

Johnson, who with his wife, Alta, moved to California after his retirement in 1945, was born in Pontiac and lived for many years on Airport road just across from the airfield. Currently he and his wife are spending a three-week visit with the Louis A. Howells at 289 E. Pike St. here.

The former sportsman and auto body painter has never had an art lesson in his life. He started painting in oils only three years ago, at the age of 67, when a heart attack forced him to curtail his activities. Yet today he has close to 200 paintings to his credit.

As a paint specialist whom General Motors Corp. had thought good enough to send to Europe and the Far East to supervise their paint departments, Johnson really knew how to mix colors.

But, outside of painting fancy scrollwork and flowers on carriage bodies back in the days when he worked for Pontiac Buggy Co., art was a mystery to him.

Nevertheless, when he found himself confined to bed and an armchair, he called for the familiar materials — paint and brushes. Mixing his colors in tin jar tops, he started out to become an artist.

Whenever a friend sent a scenic postcard, out would come the paint and brushes. Soon a picture-size replica, painted in oils, would be mailed back as a gift.

There were plenty of cards. Health and strength returned gradually, but painting continued an all-absorbing interest.

Although experts have praised his work for its depth of color, Johnson doesn't think he can qualify as an artist yet.

"I've only got the spade work in," he says, "but I expect to get a lot better."

"After all, if Eisenhower can do it, and Churchill can do it, why can't I?"

During his visit here, the amateur artist isn't doing much painting though. He's having too good a time reminiscing.

He's well known in the sports world. He played tackle with the Detroit Tigers, forerunner to the Lions, back when Briggs Stadium was still Navin Field. Had the same locker as Ty Cobb. Played semi-pro football with the Pontiac Orioles during World War I, too, and ran a gym and refereed prize fights here.

He worked for Fisher Body when Lawrence Fisher was a foreman in the plant, and he can tell you that young Fisher was

Specifies Size for Interceptor

Minimum 15-Inch Pipe Ordered for Tienken Road Subdivision

ROCHESTER — A village council committee has decided that sewer interceptors near the proposed subdivision and shopping area at Tienken and Rochester Rds. are not of sufficient capacity to serve the development.

They have recommended a minimum 15-inch sanitary sewer interceptor be constructed, in accordance with plans submitted to the village council by McMahon Engineering Co. This would be a 3,720-foot line, costing an estimated $22,320.

Councilmen John Dahmann, Frank Hewold, S. Q. Ennis, Village Attorney Roscoe Martin, and Village Manager Robert A. Stone comprised the committee.

Village president Clarence Burr has proclaimed Oct. 23 as United States Day for the display of the national and state flags, and Oct. 24 as United Nations Day in anniversary of the founding of U. N.

Doyle Wilson and George Carey, owners of the Rochester Elevator at East Fifth and Water streets, asked the council if they might lease a space on the East street parking lot for a temporary storage building. The matter was taken under advisement. Manager Stone reminded the council that money is in the budget to complete the seal coat of the 1st.

In the interest of safety for school children, a proposal by Councilwoman Elizabeth Maltrott that the traffic ordinance be amended to restrict parking on seven streets adjacent to the high school was approved.

Several new stop streets were created in the area, including a four way stop at Wilcox and West Fourth street.

Patricia Messer Is Bride of Lt. L. O. B. Branch, Jr.

WALLED LAKE — Patricia Rose Messer became the bride of Lt. L. O. B. Branch, Jr. Saturday in an 11 a.m. ceremony at Our Lady of Refuge Church, Orchard Lake.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Messer of Walled Lake. Mr. and Mrs. L. O. B. Branch of Virginia Beach, Virginia, are the parents of the bridegroom.

A candlelight satin gown trimmed with seeded pearls, with a bouffant skirt flowing into a long train was the bride's choice for the ceremony. She wore a crown of seeded pearls with a silk illusion veil.

Carol Messer was her sister's maid of honor with Jean Souten Stutenburg of Virginia Beach as attendant.

Lt. Alvin D. Branch was his brother's best man, with Dr. T. R. Garrett and Grayson Whitehurst, both of Virginia Beach, serving as ushers.

A reception for the 100 guests followed at the Rotunda Inn. Following a four month honeymoon through the Western States and Mexico, they will live in Virginia Beach, Va.

Truck and Car Collision at Crooks, Long Lake Hospitalizes Three

TROY TOWNSHIP — Two brothers were injured yesterday when they were buried under a load of bricks as their car collided with a brick-truck at Crooks and Long Lake Roads.

In St. Joseph Mercy Hospital are Ralph Drinkard, 28, of Clawson, and Boone Drinkard, 26, of Berkeley, with cuts and bruises, and a fractured right arm and cuts, respectively.

Also hospitalized, truck driver Clark E. Seabert, 27, of Detroit, told Troy police he was going east on Long Lake Road, and stopped at the intersection. He said he started up, and didn't see the car. He has a fractured left shoulder and bruises.

Troy officers William Schwandt and David Bratop uncovered the Drinkards from the brick covered car.

Teen Canteen to Play Host to Disc Jockeys

MILFORD — During the month of October, the Milford Teen-Canteen will be host to many local disc jockeys who will spin platters from 9:00 to 12:00 for dancing.

Saturday night Joe Van will begin the scheduled programs and several hostesses to the guest will be chosen at a meeting of the officers and junior counselors this week.

The following Saturday night, Don McClure will be the canteen guest. McClure's program deals entirely with teenagers and has won outstanding praise for originality and drawing power.

Jim Yeager's Trio of the Pontiac Federation of Musicians will have charge of the Oct 16 party, and a full evening of square dancing is in store for the young people.

Next Tuesday night both the adult counselors and junior group will meet at the canteen to formulate plans for the winter months. In the meantime, skating on Wednesday nights is supplementing the Saturday night dancing.

New Hudson Youth Burned in Explosion

NEW HUDSON — Dana Sturdivant, eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Sturdivant is in critical condition in St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor, with third degree burns.

Playing in his yard yesterday, he threw a lighted match in a gasoline can, which exploded, setting his clothing on fire.

Neighbor women extinguished the flames.

Pick Architects to Draw Plans for Rochester High

ROCHESTER — The Board of Education voted this week to retain H. E. Beyster and Associates for the new high school building.

This action was taken after interviewing other leading school's architectural firms. Supt. of Schools Donald Baldwin was directed to proceed immediately with preliminary detailed planning, in conjunction with the high school planning committee.

It is anticipated that the next eight weeks will be spent on this phase of the project. As a special consultant, the board has hired Dr. Donald Lou, building consultant from Michigan State College.

Following completion of the preliminary planning details, plans and specifications will be prepared, and bids for construction are expected to be taken on the building, approximately March 1, 1955.

Construction will start as soon as spring weather permits. Approximately one year will be required for construction.

Safety Measure Brings Women Out on Patrol

ROCHESTER — The first safety patrol women were added Tuesday to help village school children cross streets safely.

Eleanor Aemisegger will now be stationed at West Fourth and Wilcox street, Lillian Hartwig is at the West Fifth and Wilcox crossing, and Ruth Heltrich will work at the corner of North Main and Woodward streets.

The three women have been deputized, and have police powers, hired by the village of Rochester and the community schools. They will guard the crossings three times daily.

Funeral Service Set for Waterford Pair

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Service for Mr. and Mrs. Frederick (Anna) Fuchs, of 4315 Waterloo St., will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Christian Lutheran Church, Waterford, with burial in Lakeview Cemetery, Clarkston. The bodies will lie in state at the Bendle Funeral Home, Holly, until noon Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Fuchs were killed in an auto crash near Saginaw Tuesday.

Surviving Mrs. Fuchs, 68, are two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy M. Boice of Waterford and Mrs. Helen E. Thompson, of Reno, Nev., three sons, Harold Fuchs of Waterford and Frederick and Donald of Holly, a sister, Mrs. Christine Schmidt of North Branch, and five brothers, Frederick and Henry Keller of Detroit, Edgar Keller of Pleasant Ridge, Carl of Fraser, and Ernest of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Surviving Mr. Fuchs, 71, are three sisters, Mrs. Laura Miller, Mrs. Lena Bimberg and Mrs. Mandy Sheely, all of Detroit, and two brothers, George Fuchs of Detroit and Oscar Fuchs of St. Clair Shores.

Rochester Church Women's Groups Slate Meetings

Giants Win 1st, Send Antonelli Against Wynn Today

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK (AP)—It will be necessary to go on and play out the World Series, for all the tickets have been sold, but it is difficult to think of anything that might happen from here on in that 10-inning opener yesterday at the Polo Grounds.

There was a real hard rock of a baseball game, from the moment the first ball was thrown until, more than three hours later, Dusty Rhodes draped the fourth pinch home run in all World Series history into the beckoning right-field stands to wrap it up for the underdog New York Giants 5-2.

As the result the Giants today were in an advantageous position. They have the fully rested Johnny Antonelli, a 21-game winner, poised for a second thrust at the Indians today. Antonelli, a left-hander, figured from the start to possibly give the Indians the most trouble of any Giant pitcher.

Bob Lemon, one of the two 23-game winners owned by the Indians, absorbed yesterday's defeat. Early Wynn, the other big winner, was Lopez's choice for the second game, starting at the usual 1 p.m. time. Another capacity crowd matching yesterday's 52,371 turnout, was expected to be on hand with a weather forecast of cloudy and warm.

It is true that Rhodes' climactic swipe was very much of the Oriental variety for which the Polo Grounds is notorious. No shorter home run can be hit in any ball park than was this 270-foot specimen that a fan muffed only inches above the green barrier. But it also is a fact that the slugging Indians had the same target to shoot at all through the sunny afternoon.

Also of glad tidings to the winners was the manner in which their relief star, the veteran Marv Grissom, walked in to stop the Tribe in its tracks after their starter, Sal Maglie, suddenly felt his 37 years in the eighth inning. And last, but far from least, it was their wonder boy and official team electricifier, Willie Mays, who saved the game from being lost with his truly amazing over-shoulder catch of Vic Wertz' towering 450-foot smash to the center-field wall with two Indians on base and none out in the eighth.

The boy from Alabama didn't get a hit off Lemon's sinking stuff, but he gave notice that he will be a telling factor all the way with that catch and his steal of second after Lemon had walked him for the second time with one out in the 10th. The steal caused the Indian ace to pass Hank Thompson purposely to set up a possible double play and that gave Durocher the opportunity he had been looking for all afternoon to insert the lefty swinging Rhodes for slumping Monte Irvin.

From the very start it was evident that Maglie was short on control. He hit Al Smith to open.

Bobby Avila, the American League's leading hitter, followed with a looping single into short right which Don Mueller kicked around somewhat, permitting Smith to race to third.

However, Sal settled and got Larry Doby and Al Rosen on pop-ups, bringing up Vic Wertz.

Wertz clanged one off the right-centerfield wall that would be going yet if it hadn't met wood. By the time it came back he was perched on third and two runs were across—the only runs the Indians were to get, despite the fact that Wertz slashed a double and two singles and nearly chased Mays out of the park on his next four times.

The Giants got them back off Lemon in the third, when the top of their order, led by Whitney Lockman, delivered three clean singles and drew a walk to push two scores across with only one away. But that was to be all. Irvin struck out, and little Davey Williams, who looked like he was out of his depth all afternoon against Lemon, rolled to short. From that point on until Rhodes finally got his chance, it was a question of one team and then the other threatening to beat the band, but failing to get the big hit. In all, the Indians stranded 13, the Giants 9.

'Just Wanted Hit'

Rhodes' Pinch-Homer 4th in Series History

By BEN PHLEGAR

NEW YORK (AP)—"Leo says he'll use me where he thinks I'll help most but I say all there is to baseball is hitting and if I couldn't hit I wouldn't have any fun."

James (Dusty) Rhodes, an Alabama boy who rose to fame in Leo

Durocher's "Star of the Day" technique of winning the National League pennant, showed his boss he had learned his part to perfection.

His dramatic pinch-home run with two on and one out in the 10th zoomed the Giants to their 5-2 triumph over Cleveland in the first game of the World Series.

The homer was only the fourth such pinch hit in series history and was the first by a player who never before had been at bat in a series game. And it came on the first pitch.

But Rhodes wasn't worried about records, or firsts, as he basked in the limelight of the noisy clubhouse after the game.

"I was just swinging for a hit," he said. "I wasn't trying for a homer. I knew it was safe but I didn't know it was going all the way till it fell in."

Hutch's Future With Bengals at Stake Today

Tiger 'Brass' Gathers to Consider Manager's Contract Demands

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers' decision on Manager Fred Hutchinson comes up today at a meeting of the club's board of directors.

At issue, reportedly, was Hutchinson's demand for a 2-year contract.

All advance signs indicated that it wasn't going to be easy to get, and that could mean that Hutchinson won't be around next season.

He has already let it be understood that unless he gets two years he might take either an offer from the Baltimore Orioles as a coach or a proposition from Seattle of the coast league as manager.

Walter O. Briggs Jr., president of the Tigers, said recently he was opposed to a 2-year contract for Hutchinson but that he would recommend a 1-year pact.

The Tigers' fifth-place finish was one rung above last year's, Hutchinson's first full season with the Tigers. The previous year the Tigers finished last, but that really wasn't Hutch's ball team. He inherited it in late season when Red Rolfe was let go.

Sawchuk Has Consolation in All-Star Game

Terry Doesn't Have to Face Shots of Lindsay and Howe

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit Red Wings goalie Terry Sawchuk, preparing for the Red Wings' encounter with the National Hockey League All-Stars, has one consolation—he won't face Gordie Howe and Ted Lindsay, high scoring Detroit stickmen.

Sawchuk has his job cut out for him. He has to try and stop one of the most powerful teams ever assembled, in hockey's 9th annual all-star classic. The best hockey players in the NHL will be ganging up on the Red Wings.

Ranging shots on Sawchuk will be Maurice (the Rocket) Richard, Bernie Geoffrion and Jean Beliveau of Montreal; Ted Smith and Ted Kennedy of Toronto; Ed Sanford of Boston, and the likes.

Roster of the rival squads—the Red Wings and the All-Stars—includes 10 of the 11 leading scorers in the league last year. Wings boast four of them—Howe, Lindsay, Red Kelly and Earl "Dutch" Reibel.

One of the great offensive units in hockey history, the Red Wings are not often opposed with a team packing more power. But they figure to be Saturday.

The advantage of closer teamwork may enable the Wings to defeat the All-Stars in one game—a feat most experts say couldn't be done on a regular league schedule basis.

Inglis Suspends Jockey Licata

Rider at Hazel Park Accused of Trying to Frighten Mount

DETROIT (UP)—State racing commissioner James Inglis suspended Hazel Park jockey Tony Licata's license Wednesday on charges he used a box full of pebbles to frighten a horse in an attempt to make it run faster and win a race.

Hazel Park stewards produced an aspirin box full of pebbles and films of the race to support their charges that the veteran rider violated the "corrupt practices" rule in the 1st race Tuesday.

Stewards maintained Licata was trying to frighten the horse to make him run faster. Cock-Of-The-Walk finished 6th.

Licata's license had been suspended seven years ago when he was charged with using a battery at Oakland Park.

New Shot Shell Makes 12-Gauge Gun a 'Magnum'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Production of a new shot shell which will transform the standard 12-gauge shotgun into a magnum duck and goose gun was announced here today.

The purpose is to reduce waterfowl losses by reducing the crippling shots which permit birds to flutter away, only to die unfound in marshes.

The new shell is being produced in Western Super-X and Winchester Super Speed brands by Olin Industries in size 2 and 4 shot.

3rd Triple for 'Shoe'

SAN BRUNO, Calif. (AP)—Willie Shoemaker, the nation's leading jockey, has ridden three winners on six different days in the 15-day old Tanforn race meeting.

Yesterday's triple was his third straight this week.

He has had 35 winners on 97 mounts for 36 per cent, unusually high.

Tough for Writers

The University of North Carolina football eleven this fall is making it tough for sports writers who may stumble on their spelling.

Among the Tar Heel players are Stavnitski, Marcinko, Muschamp, Boyette, Marcopolous and Kiochak.

Maryland Rated Slim Favorite Over UCLA '11'

Terps Are Slated to Arrive on West Coast Tomorrow

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Maryland's feared football team arrives on the scene Thursday for its intersectional game with UCLA Friday night, and most of the coast conference observers look for a close contest—and a Maryland victory.

Seventy thousand or so fans are expected to witness this initial game between Maryland, the top-ranked team in the nation last year, and the local defending champions of the coast conference.

The Terps were due in before dawn, with a workout scheduled later in the day in Memorial Coliseum.

Maryland was rated sixth in the Associated Press national poll this week, most likely because Coach Jim Tatum's team has played but one game, a 20-0 victory over Kentucky.

UCLA was tabbed in the fourth spot. Coach Red Sanders has seen the Bruins run over a weak San Diego Naval Training Center outfit and defeat Kansas, 32-7, last week.

UCLA shoots from the outset with a sophomore, Doug Bradley, in the key left halfback spot of the Sanders single-wing attack. Bradley has thus far shown better than the senior tailback, Primo Villanueva, completing 8 of 15 passes for 108 yards to no completions by Villanueva.

Bob Davenport goes at fullback for UCLA, with Terry DeBay at the quarter, or blocking back, and Jim Decker at right half.

Tatum will lead off with Charley Boxold at quarterback for his split-T offense. Halfbacks will be Ronnie Walker and Joe Hornig, and Dick Hieski, one of several Terp All-America hopefuls, goes at fullback.

Southern Cal Faces Wildcats

Trojans Are Favored in Intersectional Tilt Saturday

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Southern California's Trojan football team heads for the Midwest today, favored to defeat Northwestern in a Pacific Coast Conference-Big Ten intersectional at Evanston Saturday.

Coach Jess Hill's Trojans have won over Washington State, 30-0, and Pittsburgh, 27-7, and once again interest will center on the play of sophomore left halfback, Jon Arnett.

The Los Angeles youngster is the leading rusher on the team, with 123 yards gained on 20 carries for a 6.2 average. In the two games, Arnett has run for three touchdowns and scored two more on passes.

Even so, Hill indicated he would start the more seasoned Aramis Dandoy at left half. Dandoy has carried the ball nine times and gained but 17 yards.

Don't try to hold me back! My World Series ticket is in there!

MSC Is Concerned Over Lack of Passing Attack

EAST LANSING (AP)—It's easy to understand why coaches are concerned about the almost complete fizzle of the Michigan State passing attack against Iowa.

Three completions in 15 attempts isn't enough of a threat to keep any opposition defense honest. Opponents could concentrate on stopping the running game with only a casual eye on an occasional pass.

During the past three successful years, Michigan State has been known mostly as a ground power. But figures show that in each of the three years there was enough passing thrown in to constitute about one-third of the offense.

Last year, MSC won eight and lost one. The ground attack went for 1,980 yards and 20 touchdowns. But in addition, 58 of 124 pass attempts were completed for 874 yards and 11 of the total 31 touchdowns.

In 1952, MSC won nine and lost none. Spartans rushed for 2,452 yards and 29 touchdowns. Also, 73 of the 159 passes were completed for 1,406 yards and 16 of the total 45 touchdowns.

In 1951, MSC won nine and lost none. The rushing game was good for 2,645 yards and 28 touchdowns. There were 72 of 137 pass tries completed for 982 yards and 12 of the total 41 touchdowns.

Although rushing was the bread and butter, the passing was the jam. And the jam helped Michigan State get out of a jam to win many of those games.

DiMag Hails Willie's Catch

Mays Joins Gionfriddo, Martin, Stanky Slaughter on List of World Series Greats

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Mays' sensational catch of a tremendous smash by Cleveland's Vic Wertz in the eighth inning of yesterday's World Series opener was but the latest on the list of great plays that highlight World Series history.

The past decade alone has seen a number of outstanding plays featuring such players as Al Gionfriddo, Billy Martin, Enos Slaughter and Eddie Stanky.

Joe DiMaggio, the former Yankee Clipper who is covering the current series as a newsman, called Mays' catch greater than Gionfriddo's in the 1947 World Series between the New York Yankees and the Brooklyn Dodgers. And he should know since he was the victim of the Brooklyn outfielder's great play.

The Yanks led three games to two. In the sixth inning of the sixth

Unbeaten 11s Dwindle Fast

By JACK SAYLOR
The prep football season is only 2 weeks old, yet two-thirds of Oakland County's football-playing schools have already tasted defeat at least once.

Only 11 teams have escaped defeat. One of these (Rochester), has been tied; 2 others (Royal Oak and O' St. Mary) have played only 1 game, and another (Bloomfield Hills) doesn't play its 1st game until this week.

That leaves only 7 county teams that have played twice and won both games. Included on this list are Pontiac, Walled Lake, Holly, Oxford, Avondale, Birmingham and Ortonville.

Rochester plays at Flint Tech tonight to start a busy weekend schedule of 35 games. League activity begins in earnest in the area as 25 conference games are listed.

An early-season favorite in the Inter-Lakes Conference should emerge from games matching Southfield-Waterford and Walled Lake-Van Dyke. Top game in the Wayne-Oakland sends Clarkson to Keego Harbor.

Wolves won their 1st league start last week. Keego has lost 2 straight non-league encounters, but the defending champions still are regarded as a strong threat again this season.

Co-champions Avondale and Fitzgerald of the Oakland-B may battle it out again this year for top honors. Yellow Jackets open the league campaign at Troy, while Fitzgerald is at Madison.

Birmingham and Mt. Clemens get a head start on other Eastern Michigan loop members as they meet Friday on the Maples' gridiron. South Central champ North Branch plays its 3rd straight non-league foe, while a pair of SCC contenders, Ortonville and Imlay City, tangle at Imlay.

Feature in the Bi-County has Center Line at Utica, while Grosse Pointe plays at Royal Oak in a big Border-Cities tilt.

Millford seeks its 2nd Wayne-Oakland win against Northville and Holly entertains Brighton. Lake Orion is at Lapeer to meet ex-Tri-County rivals in the top game among the independents. Another big one is reserved for Saturday when Oxford hooks up with last year's state Class C champs, Flint Dye, at Linden.

The schedule:

TODAY

Rochester at Flint Tech

Pontiac at Ferndale; St. Clement at Mt. Clemens; Southfield at Waterford; Walled Lake at Van Dyke; Farmington at Berkley; Clarkson at Keego Harbor; Northville at Millford; Brighton at Holly; Huron Valley at Claremore; Avondale at Troy; Lake Orion at Lapeer; Clawson at Roseville; Fitzgerald at Madison; Grosse Pointe at Royal Oak; A. E. Smith at Bloomfield Hills; Hartland at South Lyon; Mt. Clemens at Birmingham; Ortonville at Lakeview; Almont at Ellettsville; Millington at Mayville; Center Line at Utica; Warren at Lake Shore; South Lake at Lakeview; Almont at Brown City; Apsar at New Haven; Memphis at Dryden.

ST. PETER'S at St. Benedict; Oxford vs Flint Dye at Linden; Cranbrook at Lake Forest; Mt. Pleasant at Muskegon CC; East Detroit at Monroe CC.

SUNDAY

Mt. Carmel at Burton; Royal Oak St. Mary at St. James; St. Rita at O. S. Mary.

Detroit-Rams Reserved Seat Ducats Sold Out

DETROIT (UP)—All 46,000 reserved seat tickets for the Detroit Lions-Los Angeles Rams National Football League game at Briggs field were sold, the Lions announced today.

In an unprecedented move, the seats and 3,000 standing-room tickets would go on sale at 9 a.m. today. Ordinarily, such tickets are held until two hours before game time.

Irish Honor Carideo

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (INS)—Notre Dame officials announced Wednesday that Frank Carideo, All-America quarterback with the Knute Rockne-coached Irish in 1929 and 1930, will be honored between the halves of the Notre Dame-Purdue game Saturday.

Carideo will be presented with a plaque admitting him to the National Football Hall of Fame. The gridiron shrine is located at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N. J.

Press Writer Heads North to Check on Hunting Areas

Declaring that he could be found "where the shooting is heaviest," Pontiac Press outdoor writer Jack Patterson left today for a week's tour of northern Michigan hunting areas.

Starting Saturday, Patterson will keep Press readers advised, in a daily column, of hunting conditions in the month and will report on field activities of local residents.

Following an itinerary designed to cover some of Michigan's choicest partridge, deer and wildfowl territory, Patterson plans to spend Friday, Saturday and Sunday in Alcona, Crawford, Otsego, Montmorency, Presque Isle and Cheboygan counties, checking on partridge shooting and bow and arrow deer hunting.

First of the week, he will move into the sharpshooting and prairie chicken regions of the eastern and central Upper Peninsula. He will take time out for a look at goose shooting possibilities in the vicinity of the Seney Wildlife Refuge, important nesting area for Canada geese, and a magnet for goose hunters from nearby states.

Thursday Patterson plans to return to the Lower Peninsula for a report on Emmet, Charlevoix, Antrim, Kalkaska, Wexford and Muskegon counties. At week's end, he will look into duck hunting prospects at Houghton Lake and the Dead Stream area. Wind up of the tour will be in the great duck marshes of Saginaw Bay.

Many Hunters Lose Out for Dec. 1 Season

LANSING (AP)—Out of 4,000 applications already received for permits to hunt in the Dec. 1 any-deer season, 600 are improperly filled out and can not be considered, the conservation department said today.

Officials urged applicants to be careful to sign their names and to list the number of the license, the license-prefix or the dealer's name.

The applications are available to those who buy deer licenses from license dealers. They must be mailed by Oct. 10 to be eligible for the drawing of 81,000 successful applicants for permits to shoot bucks, does and fawns in most of the northern third of the Lower Peninsula.

Few Fans Line Up for Series Ducats

NEW YORK (AP)—Only a few fans lined up outside the bleacher gates at the Polo Grounds early today waiting for the second game of the World Series.

Herbert R. Oliver, Colorado Springs, Colo., a 66-year-old great grandfather was in line. He said he came to see his first World Series as part of a 44th wedding anniversary celebration.

Also in line were Prince E. Bass, 30-year-old hotel chef of Ocean City Md.; Ralph J. Belcore, 39, Chicago; and four students from the Millersville (Pa.) State Teachers college.

Cloudy Weather Ahead

NEW YORK (AP)—The weatherman predicted some cloudiness for the second game of the World Series today.

The 5 a.m. (EST) forecast a "chance of a few showers or thunderstorms late this afternoon or evening."

The high temperature today was expected to be in the 70s.

You Be the Quarterback

ANSWER
2. Refuse the penalty. Better not! Another completed pass against any defensive alignment might well produce a touchdown. Any pass may go for 10 if receiver is in motion. His momentum may carry him over.

1. Take the penalty. Best choice. A pass defense, such as a 5-2-4, designed to guard against the longer passes might enable Tulane to complete a short one. It might be incomplete, too. Should a short one be completed, it should be stopped with a gain of around 10 yards. In such a case, it would leave a fourth down and 15 situation.

Giants Hoping Series History Won't Repeat

NEW YORK (AP)—Giant fans, beware!

In three of their previous series, the Giants won the first game, but lost the series.

In 1924 they beat the great Walter Johnson and the Washington Senators 4-3 in 12 innings, but lost the series in seven games. In 1936 they beat Red Ruffing and the Yankees 6-1, but dropped the series in six games. In 1951 they whipped Alie Reynolds and the Yankees 5-1 but again lost the series in seven games.

Jim Lee Howell, head coach of the New York Football Giants, is nicknamed "Senator." He once was elected to the State legislature in his native Arkansas.
