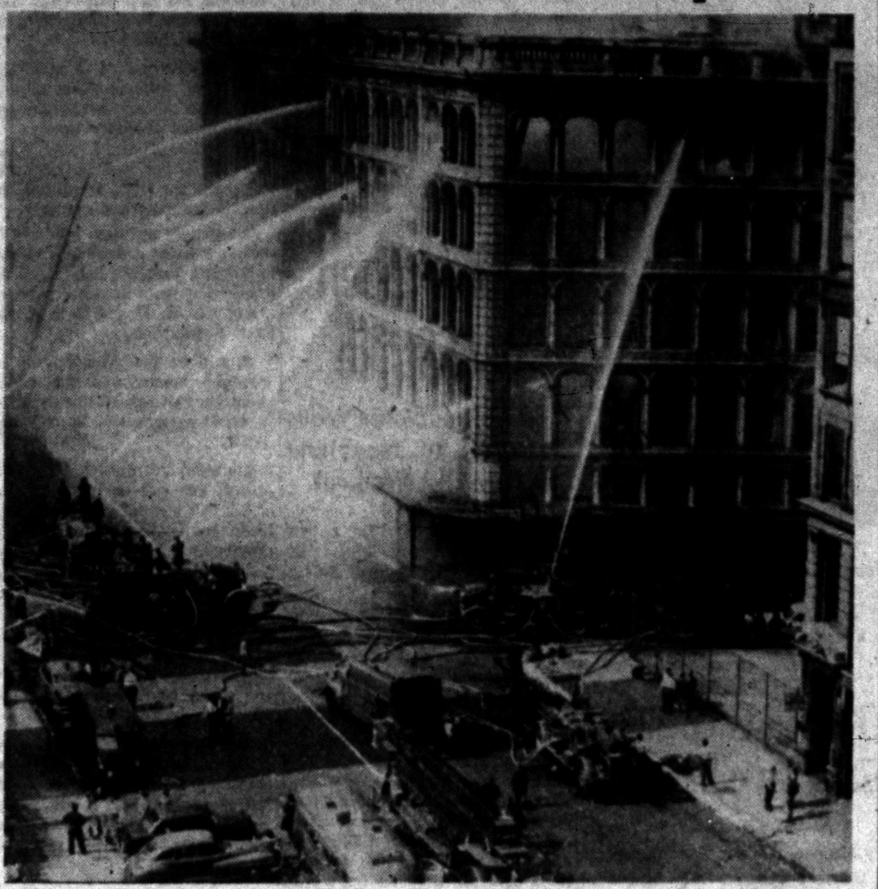
Fire Floods Two Subways



AP Wirephoto

WEEK-END BATTLE — Eight streams of water are directed against the shell of the former Wanamaker Department Store in downtown Manhattan as firemen fought throughout the weekend to quell the blaze in the abandoned building. The waters flooded subways beneath the building, causing a commuter tieup.

Fire KOs Subway Lines During Gotham Rush Hour

Nearly a dozen persons were felled by the heat during the morning rush hour as commuters pressed alternate routes to the busy Wall street and downtown sections because one subway line was closed.

Water from fire hoses poured onto the burning building cascaded into the IRT Lexington Ave. line and the BMT subway. Both link Brooklyn and Manhattan and serve a large area of Manhattan.

BMT trains were halted last night by water in the 8th street station. Today they were getting through on three of the four tracks.

The IRT line, however, was out of service between Grand Central and Brooklyn Bridge. Commuter crowds that normally use the IRT trains to get to the Wall street area and other downdown points had to get off at Grand Central. They jammed the huge station.

Loud speakers blared instructions for the riders to take other subway lines, and also announced extra buses had been pressed into service.

20 HOSPITALIZED

The toll of firemen treated for smoke poisoning, cuts and burns mounted to 216. Twenty were hospitalized.

Officials said a spark from an acetylene torch may have started the blaze Friday. Wreckers had recently begun demolishing the ornate stone and iron structure.

Caller Arrested in Kidnap Case

Ex-Employe of Baby's Father Booked by Police for Disturbing Peace

MINEOLA, N. Y. (INS)—Police announced today the surprise arrest of a reported former business employe of Morris Weinberger in connection with the investigation of the unsolved kidnaping of Weinberger's infant son, Peter, July 4th.

The man allegedly tried to make several telephone calls Sunday afternoon to the Weinberger home and was booked on a charge of "disturbing the public peace." The complaint against him was signed by the missing baby's mother, 32-year-old Mrs. Beatrice Weinberger.

Nassau County authorities identified the man as Harold Snyder, a salesman, 32, of Brooklyn. They said his attempts to phone the Weinberger home were made from the home of a sister he was visiting in Westbury, only half a mile from the Weinberger residence where the child was stolen from his carriage.

There was nothing in the police statement to indicate any direct connection between Snyder's arrest and the actual kidnaping. It was pointed out that the "disturbing the peace" charge was a minor one.

Snyder was held this morning at Nassau County police headquarters in Mineola. Although arrested shortly after 3 p.m. Sunday, he was not booked at the station until 12:15 a.m. today. Mrs. Weinberger made a midnight visit to the headquarters to sign the complaint.

Police at first said Snyder was employed until 18 months ago as a salesman for a wholesale drug firm at Garfield, N. J., owned by Weinberger's brother and in which Weinberger also has an interest. Later, however, detectives said they were still checking whether Snyder actually had been employed by the firm.

Dynamite Warning Grounds Airliner

SAN FRANCISCO (INS)—A telephone warning that "dynamite" was aboard a San Francisco-to-Chicago United Air Lines DC6 caused the airline to ground the plane at Elko, Nev., last night for 3½ hours.

Airport officials and police thoroughly combed the plane and the luggage of the 63 passengers aboard before the DC6 resumed its flight to Chicago at 11:18 p.m. (PDT). They found no trace of explosives.

The order for the Elko landing was issued after an unidentified man called the San Francisco office of the airline to inquire if UAL had an east bound plane departing at 5:30 p.m.

Assured that one took off at that time, he said: "Oh, my God, my wife's on board and there's dynamite on the airplane." He immediately hung up and efforts to trace the call were unavailing.

Short on Short Shorts

LONDON (INS)—Moscow Radio broadcast a brief comment today from Russian tourists who have just returned from a luxury cruise around Europe. The Russians fastened criticism on American tourists they saw at Capri: "their shorts were too short."

'Death March' Court-Martial Now in Session

Marine Sergeant Faces Manslaughter Charges in Recruit Drownings

PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. (AP)—The general court-martial trial of Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon, charged with manslaughter in the drowning of six Marine recruits April 8, opened at 9:02 today.

The former drill instructor, ramrod stiff, was present.

However, both the defense and the Marine Corps commandant, Gen. Randolph McC. Pate, agreed that McKeon's court-martial has become almost incidental.

The larger issue, both said, is whether the Marines' past methods of turning out hardened, disciplined fighting men was justified and, if so, was McKeon merely following known customs.

Specifically, he is charged with involuntary manslaughter, oppression of recruits, possession of alcoholic beverages and drinking in the presence of a recruit.

The 31-year-old sergeant from Worcester, Mass., could receive a maximum sentence of four years and eight months imprisonment if found guilty.

FATHER OF TWO

McKeon, who has two children, said he ordered a night march for his recruits last April 8 after he caught some of them frolicking during a smoking period. He said the march was "to teach them discipline."

He led a platoon of 78 recruits into a tidal creek on a moonless night. There was panic, and only 72 came back alive to this Marine Corps training center.

Defense attorney Emile Z. Berman of New York City said he would move immediately for the elimination of the two lesser charges involving alcohol.

Both, he claimed, prejudiced the case since neither was mentioned as a factor in the graver charges.

Fiery Cross Setter Forfeits Bail Bond

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 24-year-old Arlington, Va., man has forfeited bond in connection with the burning of crosses outside the hotel residence of Chief Justice Earl Warren and the home of Associate Justice Felix Frankfurter.

Police said Ronald Eugene Rowley, an electronics engineering student, admitted setting the fires. He was charged with two counts of kindling a bonfire between sunset and sunrise. He gave bond of $20 and was released.

The crosses were burned Friday night. About the same time other crosses were set afire outside the Washington residence of Solicitor General Simon E. Sobeloff and the home of Mrs. Douglas King at nearby Beltsville, Md.

Mrs. King is an official of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

Considerate Son?

CHICAGO (INS) — Twelve-year-old Peter Bosworth, when asked whether he wanted a little brother or sister, replied:

"If it wouldn't change Mommy's shape too much, I would like a pony."

WHILE 30,000 PLAYED — Thousands of GMC employes and their families were having fun, but Ralph Pahl was blissfully pounding his ear Saturday as the GMC Family Picnic reached its height at the Walled Lake Amusement Park. Like thousands of other children who attended, the little grandson of John Pahl, Plant 1 maintenance employe, became tuckered out as the afternoon wore on — with Ralph, it just happened a little earlier. Hopes to Contact Soviet 'Ham' Again

Pontiac Soldier Studies Russian

A Pontiac soldier stationed in Japan is studying the Russian language so that he might again contact a Russian amateur station.

Specialist William H. Bressler, picked up on his U. S. Army radio the Russian "ham" station Vaokja Friday and talked to "someone named Wladimir for about 10 minutes," the Army reported.

Bressler, 26, is a radio operator at Camp Schimmelpenning, near Sendai in the Military Affiliate Radio Service (MARS), an army-sponsored "ham" network. Sendai is at the southern tip of Japan.

WILLIAM H. BRESSLER

He said he monitored this message from the Russian: "My name is Wladimir. I live in the little town of Blagoqnsy near Moscow. The weather is fine. You are the first American I have ever talked to."

The Russian operator then asked Bressler to send him an acknowledgment of the contact to Box ZZ, Moscow.

The army's announcement of the contact said "after a little more conversation, Wladimir signed off, wishing Bressler good luck and saying he would call later. No further signals have been reported.

"It might be that he is memorizing a few more English passages and will call back when he can send them," said Bressler. He added he had begun studying Russian between calls.

Bressler graduated from St. Michael High School in June 1946 and entered the Army a year later making the service his career.

During the Korean War, when a prisoner of war, he gained freedom from the Chinese Reds by offering a guard a fountain pen his mother had sent him.

Capt. Townsend Reported Seeing Margaret Again

HAMBLEDEN, England (AP) — Princess Margaret and Group Capt. Peter Townsend shared headlines again this weekend amid speculation that they were having a last meeting before he starts a round-the-world jeep trip.

Margaret spent the weekend with seven other guests at the home of bookstall millionaire Lord Hambleden in this village 35 miles from London. Lady Hambleden declined to identify the other guests.

The World War II hero whom the princess gave up last year also was reported in the country with friends for the weekend but his mother refused to say where. He returned to England last week from Brussels, where he is air attache at the British Embassy.

The 41-year-old airman, who is quitting the Royal Air Force, plans to leave in October on his solo jeep tour. He is to be gone 18 months.

Lord Beaverbrook's Sunday Express, in a story asking whether Townsend also was a guest at the Hambleden estate, said:

"If the princess has decided on one brief reunion, this weekend may be the last opportunity for several years."

Hurry! Only 10 More Seats Remain on Theater Special

The swift Pontiac Press Special couldn't streak down the rails to New York City much faster than readers hurried to their mailboxes last week to reserve seats.

In fact, there is room for only 10 more places.

The group which will make the trip to see five Broadway shows in September overwhelmed the train's station master with a flood of applications which started coming in soon after the Press issued its first "All Aboard" last Monday.

The last 10 seats will be reserved on a first come-first filled basis from completed forms (on Page 2 of today's Press). Applicants who miss being in the last 10 will be put on a waiting list and added to the party as cancellations occur.

Under the deluge of requests for seats, planners of the train trip neared the completion of final arrangements for the excursion. Each event promises six days of fun and a lot of excitement.

Heading the schedule of events, of course, are the five top Broadway shows which train-members will see:

"Damn Yankees," "New Faces of '56," "The Most Happy Fellas," "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter?", and "No Time for Sergeants."

Excursionists will also tour the United Nations Building and have luncheon in its Delegates' Room, tour Manhattan Island by boat, see several television shows, gather at arrival and after-theater parties, and spend five days at one of New York's finest hotels.

The schedule also calls for plenty of free time for those who make the trip to see other sights in the city.

You still have a chance to go along, but time is short. Full in the form on Page 2, enclose a check or money order for $140 and mail it to the Pontiac Press.

Crash Injuries Fatal for Doctor in Southfield

Drayton Plains Headon Claims Two; 24 Others Killed in Michigan

A Drayton Plains man and a Southfield Township doctor were among three persons killed in Oakland County traffic accidents over the weekend. Twenty-four others died throughout Michigan in traffic mishaps, drownings, and a plane crash.

Dead in county accidents were: Robert D. Slade, 36, of 4520 Thirza St., Drayton Plains; Dr. Ned B. Kalder, 43, of 18270 Kirkshire St., Southfield Township; and, Chris DeMos, 60, of Detroit.

Slade and DeMos were victims of a head-on collision on U.S.10 near Hatchery Road in Waterford Township last night. Two others in the crash were hospitalized.

Robert Yost, 29, of Detroit, one of the drivers, is in "satisfactory" condition at Pontiac General Hospital today with severe body cuts and multiple jaw fractures. His wife, Elizabeth, 24, is also listed as "satisfactory" with multiple head injuries.

Slade, driver of the other vehicle, was traveling alone, Pontiac State Police said. Troopers reported the Slade car went off the right side of the road and then returned, striking the oncoming Yost car head-on.

Two other cars piled up behind the accident but there were no injuries.

DOCTOR PINNED UNDER CAR

Dr. Kalder suffered injuries which proved fatal at a blind intersection at Evergreen and 12 Mile Rd., Southfield Township.

Investigating police said the doctor's car was in a collision with one operated by Donald Gillies, 17, of Berkley, as he drove through the intersection, apparently failing to see a stop sign.

The medical director of the resident education program at Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital was pinned beneath his car. Gillies and a passenger, Richard DeMara, 18, also of Berkley, were treated and released at Beaumont Hospital.

OTHER FATALITIES

Elsewhere around the state:

George Stanfield, 65, Sterling, and William Maranda, 18, of Saginaw, Saturday night on M76, near Standish.

House Tackles Civil Rights Bill

Would Provide Greater Protection for Negroes; Has Ike's Backing

WASHINGTON (INS) — —The House tackles the civil rights issue today for the first time since 1950.

* * *

The measure, designed generally to provide greater legal safeguards for Negroes in the exercise of their civil rights, including voting, is backed by President Eisenhower. It is strongly opposed by Southern Congressmen.

The bill is apparently headed for House passage. However, opponents planned every delaying move possible in an effort to postpone a final vote.

While Senate action this year is not considered likely, many House members desire an opportunity to vote for a civil rights bill in an election year.

TWO DAY DEBATE

The measure will be debated for two days and voting will then get under way. Speculation was that it would take three to five days to complete action.

Under the proposed legislation, the Attorney General would be authorized to bring civil court suits on behalf of anyone whose rights were threatened or violated or who was prevented from exercising his right to vote. At present, a civil suit must be brought by an individual.

* * *

The bill also sets up a special civil rights division in the Justice Department and creates a Presidential commission to study allegations of civil rights violations.

Police said the other six passengers and four crewmen aboard the plane want to return to their Communist-ruled homeland. Police officials said they probably would be sent back sometime this week in the plane which broght them here.

Hamtramck Men Hurt in Unexplainable Crash

A Hamtramck man was hospitalized and his companion slightly injured when their car went off the highway and struck both a tree and a post yesterday.

Michael Shindak, 28, was in fair condition at Pontiac General today with neck injuries and a lacerated hand. William Furgol, 62, also of Hamtramck, was released after treatment.

Shindak, the driver, told investigating deputies of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department he could not explain how the accident happened on Avon Rd., Avon Township.

Reds Claim Invasion--- by American Tourists

By EARL WILSON

KIEV — "The Soviet is being invaded and occupied!" a Russian woman exclaimed to me dramatically.

"Invaded?" I said, wondering if war had come while I slept off too much borscht.

"Not by enemy troops—but by American tourists," she smiled. "Next year I think there will be more Americans here than Russians."

"What gang is that?" I asked our Intourist guide, Sofia Mironova, when a flock arrived with overnight plane bags.

"The architects," she said. "Can't you tell the way they look up at the buildings?"

Many sights reminded us of America; we even saw one Russian who looked like a hillbilly—a shaggy-haired guy carrying a baby.

RUSSIAN HILLBILLY

Then we flew to Minsk and on to Kiev in a no-seatbelt plane, to be met here by a German-speaking guide. It was midnight and only by use of my Russian vocabulary book could I figure out we were at the Hotel Ukrainia.

Next morning I thought I'd wander about. I was sure I'd find no English spoken here.

After a few words I said: "I'm a newspaper man."

"So am I," he said. "From Iowa."

I told him my name and he told me his and we broke out laughing.

He was Harlow Miller, Des Moines and Ladies Home Journal columnist whom I've been trying to meet for years. He writes about his B.W. also—started long before I did. Only his B.W. means "Biotic Warling," so he kiddingly says.

We went sightseeing together. Were we watched? I doubt it. The only person following me was a clerk making sure I paid for a call to Helsinka.

We found we were not nearly in as much danger of getting shot as getting half shot from the "wodka." One American told me that Americans are inclined to wear too much red when they visit here.

"They shouldn't bother," he said. "Red is the one thing Russia's got more than enough of."

Lung Infection Fatal for Whooping Crane

NEW ORLEANS (INS)—The last of New Orleans' celebrated baby whooping cranes is dead.

* * *

This cuts down the world's known whooping crane population to a mere 30—none of which are chicks.

Officials at Audubon Park reported yesterday that the rare month old crane was found dead in its cage, a victim of lung infections.

A second bird, hatched a few days after the one that just died, disappeared when it was about a week old.

The keepers have theorized that an animal managed to get into its cage and made off with the bird.

Now, zoo officials are hoping the parents of the two New Orleans birds will hatch other eggs before spring.

"Through two eyes," he said, adding, "She's the most unique person I ever met."

Grocery Store Breakin Solved by Blood Trail

A two-block trail of blood allegedly led to the arrest of a 23-year-old man, charged with breaking into a grocery store early Sunday, Pontiac police said.

Det. Olin Hoffman said the trail led from a broken window in the store at 338 Central St. to the home of Bacilio A. Ortega at 381 Irwin St.

Ortega admitted cutting his right hand and wrist as he smashed the window, Hoffman said. Nothing was missing from the store.

The Day in Birmingham

Supervisor Vacates Post for City's New Manager

He has indicated to City Manager D. C. Egbert that he is leaving the post so that Egbert's successor, Harold Schone, may be named by this city to the county board of supervisors.

Commending the city for its choice of new city manager, he says, "Schone has done an outstanding job as a supervisor and is on several important committees of the board."

He asks the board to make his resignation effective simultaneously with Schone's appointment to the board of supervisors.

Blenman was named to the board this spring, but had served previously until the city's delegation had been reduced by one member.

At tonight's meeting, bids will be received from companies wishing to buy Automobile Parking System Bonds and from possible purchasers of lots 56, 57 and 58 in Adams Park Subdivision.

It will be the second issue of revenue bonds, and the funds secured, $305,000, will be used for planned parking lots No. 3-A and 3-HH.

Minimum bid acceptable for the Adams lots will be in the amount of $29,100, according to City Clerk Irene Hanley, who says one bid previously received is for $28,100.

Other items on tonight's agenda are reports on the Twelve Town Drain, a Fairfield Property Owners zoning request, action on the Oak-Hunter - Woodward intersection, landscaping plans for Shain Park, and a hearing on the Maple-Bates-Martin alley.

Consideration is slated for Parking Lot No. 4, property acquisition for Parking Lot 3-HH, purchase of DPW Radio equipment and a Police three-wheel motorcycle, and flood plain restrictions.

No Break Seen in Steel Strike

Federal Mediator Waits for Call to Negotiate 16-Day-Old Walkout

From all outward appearances the industry and the United Steelworkers were standing pat as they gathered for a negotiating session.

A source close to the industry said there was no present indication it will change its offer of a 52-month contract, which it says would provide a package pay boost amounting to 17 2-3 cents an hour in the first year.

David J. McDonald, USW president, has estimated the package at 14 cents an hour for his 650,000 strikers, who averaged $2.46 an hour under the old contract. He reported no progress has been made since the negotiations resumed last Thursday.

Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, came back to Pittsburgh for resumption of the talks after making a report to Secretary of Labor Mitchell in Washington during the weekend. Finnegan said he would merely stand by in case his services were needed.

John A. Stephens, vice president of U. S. Steel Corp. and the industry's chief negotiator, has had no comment on the negotiations. He is being aided in the talks by representatives of Bethlehem Steel Corp. and Republic Steel.

Seventh Chance! Sixteen Words Can Mean $700

Once again the Press offers another chapter in its challenging summer word game, Pot-O-Gold, the eighth puzzle of which appears below. Aside from the cash prize it offers to whoever can reach a solution, Pot-O-Gold is fun and a worthy exercise of the mental processes. First read the directions on how to play — and then be sure to read the rules (or no matter how good you are at picking words you can't win if you break one). Good luck!

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

No entries will be accepted if they are in envelopes. Entries for Puzzle No. 8 must bear a Tuesday, July 24, postmark (or before). No entries received after that time, whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. 8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries become the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

Security for You

Smiths and Johnsons---America's 2 Top Names

By RAY HENRY

From J. S. of New Orleans: "A friend and I had an argument last night about the most common names in the United States. I said Smith was the most common and he insisted it was Johnson. I understand Social Security probably has the most complete list of names of persons in the United States. Can you tell me, according to this list, what is the most common American name?"

There are nearly 1,400,000 Smiths and slightly more than 1,100,000 Johnsons among the Social Security records. They are the top two most common names. The most common first and last name is John Smith (51,468). Running second is William Smith (32,268).

From L. O. B. of New York City: "I have worked for years. Now I'm 78 years old and have been under my doctor's care for a year with heart trouble. I draw $63 from Social Security each month. Can I draw any more?"

Your Social Security benefits are based on your earnings and not on need. Unless you have had additional earnings on jobs or self-employment covered by Social Security since you started to receive benefits, your present payments can't be increased.

From R. E. of Washington, D. C.: "My son owns a repair garage which he bought with the GI Bill loan. My husband has been working for our son in the garage. I talked to the local Social Security office about my husband being covered by Social Security. I was told he couldn't be. Is this right? Why?"

You were correctly informed. Work of a parent for his son or daughter cannot count toward Social Security benefits.

From J. W. of Los Angeles: "My wife and I will both be 65 by next October. I have worked at the same place for nearly eight years and paid Social Security taxes. I plan to retire when I reach 65. However, I will have a personal income of about $3,200 from rents on property, interest on bonds and loans and some insurance. I understand that I can only have earnings of up to $1,200 per year before my Social Security payments are reduced. Will this $3,200 be counted?"

No. Your income from rents and other investments would not have any effect on your Social Security benefits. You could receive Social Security for all months in the year if your earned income, that is wages or income from operating a business, does not exceed $1,200 a year.

From Mrs. S. S. M. of Minot, N. Dak.: "I'm a farmer's wife and have never had a Social Security number. My husband is now covered by Social Security as a farm operator and I understand that I will be entitled to benefits as his wife. Will I need a Social Security card?"

No. The card is issued to a wage earner or self-employed person to help the Social Security Administration in keeping a record of the amount of earnings for which he will claim Social Security credit.

(You may write Ray Henry in care of this newspaper about your Social Security or retirement problem. Please enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and 25 cents in coin.)

Cadillac

His Last Switch in Motor Cars!

We have no way of knowing, of course, how many different makes of motor cars this gentleman has owned through the years. But we'd wager that he has changed his preference a great many times in his years on the highway.

And we're also willing to bet that he has now made his last switch in motor cars!

For this time it's a Cadillac! And it is historically true that once a motorist makes the move to the "car of cars", he is usually a Cadillac owner for life.

What are the reasons for this great loyalty? Well, let us count them off.

First of all, there are the things which everyone recognizes in Cadillac. There is its great beauty . . . its matchless luxury . . . and the unquestioned respect which the car commands the world over.

Then there are those qualities with which anyone who has ever driven a Cadillac is familiar. There is its marvelous comfort and ease of handling . . . its magnificent power and performance . . . its wonderful balance and agility . . . and its extraordinary quietness of operation.

And, finally, there are those things which only Cadillac owners themselves can fully appreciate. There is the car's remarkable economy of operation and upkeep—its incredible longevity—its marvelous resale value—and the great pride and happiness that it bestows upon the man at the wheel.

* * *

If this little check list of Cadillac virtues coincides with what you've been looking for in a motor car, you ought to come in and see us very soon.

You'll find, by the way, that we have recently made two additions to this list of things you get when you make your decision for Cadillac.

We're talking about prompt delivery and a generous trade-in allowance!

Better come in while the circumstances are so favorable—and make your last switch in motor cars!

Bob Considine Says:

Gettysburg? And Where on Earth Is That?

NEW YORK (INS)—The passing show . . .

NBC put in a call from the recent Democratic meeting in Chicago to Jim Hagerty, the President's press secretary, at Gettysburg.

* * *

"Pennsylvania," the NBC fellow said.

There was a long pause, a kind of time out for station identification. Then Long Distance came back on the pipe.

"You'll have to have the county," she ruled.

"Adams County," said the NBC fellow, who works in the reference room with Shirley Booth.

* * *

Finally Hagerty answered.

"Jim," said the NBC fellow, "you don't have an unlisted number, you have an unlisted city."

LETTER LETDOWN

The Philadelphia Kellys heard from Her Serene Highness Princess Grace the other day, after too long. Eager hands ripped open the letter.

Was she indeed That Way? How was the honeymoon voyage? Was she happy? Would she return to Hollywood? How was the Prince? Having landed, did she find the natives friendly?

These and other breathless questions formed in the mind of the clan as Mrs. Kelly unfolded the letter.

"Please send some Kleenex," Her Highness wrote, pretty much like every other American tourist.

A fine, honest woman named Ruth T. Todd of Overland Park, Kan., may have provoked one of the greatest economic spasms in the history of the republic. On July 7 she took pen in hand and wrote as follows to United Airlines:

"Dear Sir—Enclosed check is for two guest towels taken from one of your airplanes. Sincerely, Ruth Todd."

Enclosed was a check for $1. This could lead to chaos unless it is only an isolated case of conscience.

* * *

Suppose all the people who have taken away bath towels, silverware, ashtrays, glasses, pepper mills, salt shakers, stationery, Gideon Bibles, brass rings, holy water, grand pianos and the like decide suddenly to purge their souls and return them or their equivalent in money?

BURDEN ON MAILMAN

The postal service would collapse under a shipment of goods countless thousands of megatons heavier than the peak traffic of Christmas packages.

* * *

Banks would be forced ot handle the greatest blizzard of small checks and money orders in their history. They would have no time to lend money, and thus would fail.

In the resultant passion of honesty, people would start paying so much more in taxes that the government could afford to buy Tito an H-bomb plant, with which he would promptly destroy us.

All on account of Ruth Todd, the person for whom Diogenes has been searching, man and boy, since the invention of the lamp.

At the "Millionaire Dinner" the other night in the Harwyn Club the menu read "Champagne cocktail, canape Russe, boula boula with amontillado, aiguillette de sole Anglaise V'eronique with pouilly fuisee, faisan roti en cocotte suvorof with chateau lafitte, pommes souffles, haricots verts au gratin, endive and beet salad, bombe abricontine, petite fours—with chateau d'iquem, cafe flambe, mints and liquers (optional.)"

* * *

That last word may have stopped an epidemic of gout among the hard-working millionaires on hand, many of whom had to catch the 10:25 to Rye to relieve the baby-sitter.

Chevy beats own Pikes Peak record . . . and tops all rivals including cars in every price range!

Last fall, Chevrolet broke the Pikes Peak record in a history-making pre-production test.

Chevrolet takes first, second and four of the top six places! Beats its own stock car record by a full minute and 16 seconds!

It happened on July 4. Running against the hottest competition in the land, Chevrolet won the Pikes Peak climb—a towering challenge open to all makes of cars.

This is far more than a blazing demonstration of power. It is unquestionable proof of Chevrolet's supreme roadability—the accuracy of Ball-Race steering, the solidity of outrigger rear springs, the traction "bite" that stems from balanced weight distribution.

There is no greater test of a car's road safety qualities than the Pikes Peak climb. See for yourself, in the car that's won the "crown" twice in a row!

Child Won't Read if Parents Don't

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

A mother signing herself Worried writes: "My 9-year-old boy is a reading problem. To enter the fourth grade this fall, he has to go to remedial school this summer.

"He doesn't want to. He says he'd rather repeat the third grade. Should I allow this? His teacher says that as he has this reading block, he may need special psychological help . . ."

I'll leave the "reading block" to the psychologist whose language it is.

In the meantime, let me ask her these questions: Does she enjoy reading herself? Do books come and go in her house constantly? Do her children love her to tell them stories and read from their books to them?

* * *

If her answer is "No" to these questions, her son's disinterest in reading may reflect her own negative feeling for it.

SCHOOLS BLAMED

Today, it's the thing to blame schools' new sight-reading method for our shocking increase in children's reading disability. Though I prefer the phonetic method myself, I think the new method has little to do with the problem.

* * *

Gordon Dupree of the Great Books Foundation expresses my view exactly in the Saturday Review of Literature:

"Ours is a society which does not honor reading. We turn our own depreciation of it to indignation and blame the school. If Johnny's parents don't read, why should he submit to the rigors of acquiring that discipline? When his parents read, he will too."

In America today, only 17 per cent of our adult population can be found reading a book at any given time as against 55 per cent of England's population.

Comments Dupee: "To presume that public education will conspire with Johnny to reverse the American trend to illiteracy is nonsense. We are asking the next generation to exhibit a virtue of mind which we ourselves have debased through indifference."

A parent who loves books transfers his feeling to his child spontanously. Because he experiences his own reading skill as a source of joy, he never presses the child to develop his as a piece of educational equipment. He just happily shares his own skill with the child.

* * *

And so the magical thing takes place. He creates the passion to read in the child—that fertile situation in which the eager youngster grabs at any teaching method you offer to unlock for himself the treasures glimpsed through his parent's reading skill.

He can't wait to read for himself any more than he can wait for you to reach down the jam pot for him.

So Mrs. Worried's real problem, instead of involving school grades, promotions and demotions, may be her own disinterest in books. In which case, she, not a psychologist, is the person to solve it.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tod Reed of Birmingham announced the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Ann, to Richard Lawrence Moran at a dinner party Saturday evening. He is the son of Mrs. Frederick L. Moran of Grosse Pointe and the late Mr. Moran. A fall wedding is planned.

MARGARET ANN REED

Ann Spademan Is Wed in Birmingham Rite

Ann Spademan and Ensign Howard H. Liverance were married at a 4:30 o'clock ceremony Saturday. The Rev. Harold E. Towne of St. James Episcopal Church, Birmingham, officiated.

* * *

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Loren C. Spademan of Warren court, Birmingham and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Liverance, also of Birmingham.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of Italian silk. The bodice featured a bateau neckline with Chantilly lace trim and cap sleeves. The bouffant skirt had Chantilly lace applique extending into a court train.

Her crown of Chantilly lace embroidered with seed pearls held her fingertip veil of silk illusion, and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis and white orchids.

Mrs. Loren C. Spademan Jr., was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Sherrell Adams of Lorain, Ohio and Martha Fuller of Ridgewood, N. J. They were gowned alike in pervenche-blue crystalette.

CRYSTALETTE BOWS

Deep square necklines and cap sleeves accentuated their princess line bodices and full waltz-length skirts. Tiny bows of crystalette accented the skirt at the front and back hipline. Their flowers were arrangements of blue delphinium and white Fugi chrysanthemums.

Bert H. Liverance of Cleveland, Ohio, was his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Loren C. Spademan Jr., C. Frederick Spademan and Richard G. Spademan, brothers of the bride, and Dean Berry and Lt. Robert Hardy, all of Birmingham.

The bride's mother wore a silk dress in shades of blue with a small white hat and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Liverance wore a gray-silk organza dress with satin trim. A beaded shell-pink hat and gloves completed her costume.

Be Careful in Sun

Be sure to time your outings in the sun if you are the fair skinned type to avoid severe sunburn. Even if you've been tanning, be wary of the sunshine if you've been out of it for a week or more.

Organdie is far too youthful for many women but you can look cool and charming in polka dots on white chiffon.

Ruffles and sash can add 10 years to the mature woman. So can a pony tail hairdo. Part of the new feminine look should be to look the sophisticated woman and not continue with little girl ribbon and bows.

Race Track Interest Whets Voting Appetite

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP—Interest in a proposal to rezone a section of the township for a race track is credited for the sharply increased voter registration here.

Floyd A. Cairns, township clerk, estimates that 700 new electors had been added to the rolls when registrations closed last week. He stated that on the last day of registration, when approximately 300 persons were registered, lines outside his office became so long that it was necessary to call in extra help to process applicants.

With an estimated 6800 persons now registered to vote, the township's six precincts are rapidly reaching their capacity. According to State law, machine-equipped precincts can handle 1400 voters. With the new registrations, there is now an average of 1133 per precinct.

Cairns stated that he has been authorized by the township board to purchase three more voting machines, and that he expects delivery on them some time next week. The township now has 12 machines.

It is expected that the new machines will be set up and in operation for the vote on the Consumers Power Co. franchise, Puly 25.

Clarkston Man Okay After Car Rams Train

Charles B. Smith, 25, of Clarkston, was only shaken up early Sunday morning when his car ran into the side of a train at a Waterford crossing, deputies of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department said today.

The incident occurred at Andersonville and Clement Roads. Smith told investigators he had stopped to allow the train to pass but must have fallen asleep.

Fred Johnson, conductor on the Grand Trunk train, disclosed the Smith car rolled into the passing train. He said the impact broke the coupling between two cars disconnecting them.

Waterford Girl Injured

Jacqueline Javerdine, 14, of 3120 Duck Lake Rd., Highland Township, was treated for minor injuries by a doctor yesterday after she was thrown from a horse while riding along Duck Lake Rd., North of M59. The girl fell to the pavement, according to the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

Wheat Soars on Grain Market

CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat prices soared on the Board of Trade today and the gains in this cereal created some firmness in other grains.

Buying in wheat followed news the Agriculture Department had accepted in part the grain trade's plan relating to wheat exports. The plan was expected to create a greater demand for this year's wheat crop.

* * *

At the start wheat had gains extending to more than 9 cents. This upturn was cut about in half in subsequent dealings on profit taking. Rye also was sharply higher. Feed grains and soybeans were ahead only slightly.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was four cents to 5⅝ higher, July $2.13; corn ½ lower to ½ higher, July $1.51; oats ⅜ lower to ⅜ higher, July 72⅝; rye 1 to 3 cents higher, July $1.34½; soybeans ½ lower to 1½ higher, July $2.64½; lard 15 to 23 cents a hundred pounds higher, July $11.05.

Speed 120 M.P.H.: 2 Seriously Injured

Two Flint men are in critical condition today after their car went out of control on a curve near Lapeer yesterday, rolling over several times. Police reported the pair was going 120 miles per hour.

In Hurley Hospital, Flint are Robert L. Truitt, 33, and Forrest C. Lockwood, 29.

Davison police officers began chasing the men when they went through the town at a high rate of speed. Lapeer County Sheriff's Deputies had thrown up a road block, but the pair never reached it.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ELIZabeth Gaskins, who passed away July 15th, 1955.
We do not forget her, we love her too dearly
For memory to fade from our lives like a dream
Our lips need not speak when our hearts mourn sincerely,
For grief often dwells where it seldom is seen
Sadly missed by husband, Carl Gaskins, daughters, Son in laws and grandchildren.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF PRESton Hibler passed away July 16, 1955.
Do not ask us if we miss him,
For there is such a vacant place.
Often we think we hear his footsteps
and see his smiling face.
Sadly missed by the Hibler Family.
