Michigan to Defend Use of One-Man Grand Jury

From INS and AP Dispatches

DETROIT—The state of Michigan prepared today to defend its controversial one-man grand jury law before the U. S. Supreme Court which has criticized the law in the past as having "no semblance of due process."

In consenting to review the conviction and sentencing of two gambling-graft grand jury witnesses for contempt, the highest tribunal in the land has agreed to rule on the constitutionality of the law.

The case before the court involves John White, proprietor of the Gotham Hotel in Detroit, and Lee Roy Murchison, one of the policemen suspended as a result of a gambling raid on the home of Edward (Indian Steve) Stephan last March.

One-man grand juror Recorder's Judge John P. O'Hara sentenced White to 90 days and a $250 fine for refusing to testify without his lawyer beside him in the grand jury chamber. Murchison was found guilty of giving false testimony and sentenced to 60 days.

The Supreme Court is expected to docket the Michigan case for March or April. Judge O'Hara's grand jury expires March 16.

Although the Supreme Court has never ruled on the constitutionality of the Michigan law, it observed in deciding a related case: "It is not the province of the courts to question the wisdom of legislative enactments."

Rep. Hugh Scott (R-Pa.) reports from the Uruguayan capital that the driver of an electrified sound truck emblazoned with the hammer and sickle inadvertently put on the wrong record.

"God Bless America" blared from the truck for several blocks before the horrified Communist driver realized his error.

That Man in Your Life

Gifts That Will Please Him Are Offered for Holiday in Moderate Price Range

By JANET ODELL

That man in your life deserves the best gift you can give him at Christmas. By best we do not necessarily mean the most expensive. The best gift is one that suits the recipient and caters to his taste.

Of course you're going to give a tie to some man on your list. This year, however, give one of the new dacron ties for $2.50 that can be washed without losing its shape. These ties come in all colors in the popular small patterns.

No longer is it considered sissified for a man to wear pastel colors, especially not when the colors come in shirts and sweaters.

One store has pastel checked sport shirts for under five dollars; you may have your choice of small, medium or large checks.

Nylon or orlon pastel sweaters in beautiful pale colors are available for ten dollars and up. Couples might enjoy matching sweater sets or matching shirts. The sheerest wool imaginable is the material for other sport shirts in the Donegal weave; these are six dollars.

Fast U.N. Action Expected in Try to Free Airmen

Resolution for Debate Poses Despite Soviet's Bitter Opposition

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.
—Western diplomats predicted today that the U. N. Assembly will vote speedy approval of a resolution by the 16 Korean allies demanding release of 11 American airmen held in Red China on spy charges.

The 15-nation Steering Committee voted over bitter Soviet opposition last night to call for urgent Assembly debate Wednesday on the Allied proposal.

The resolution, agreed upon after a series of private talks by the 16, touches on three main points:

1. It charges Red China violated the Korean armistice agreement by holding the fliers.

2. It declares the Assembly should condemn such violations.

3. It asks the 60-nation body to call on Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld to use "unremitting efforts" to obtain release of the men and report back to the Assembly by Dec. 31.

American sources said they anticipate no opposition to the resolution except from the five-nation Soviet bloc and perhaps a few Arab-Asian states. Burma and Syria abstained in the Steering Committee balloting yesterday on grounds the case should first be placed in the hands of the Korean Armistice Commission.

Lodge reported that five fruitless requests had been made for action by that group.

Informed sources predicted India would abstain on the resolution to avoid being aligned with either side in case she is requested to act as go-between with Peiping. The case originally involved 13 men, including two American civilians who were not serving under the U. N. banner. For that reason, the United States decided to limit its case here to the 11 airmen.

Iranian Royalty in New York City on Unofficial Visit

NEW YORK (INS) — Shah Mohammed Riza Pahlavi of Iran and his wife, Queen Soraya, today were looking over the sights of New York City following their arrival by plane for a two-month unofficial visit to the United States.

The royal couple is living in a suite on the 35th floor of the Waldorf Towers during their brief New York stay.

The Shah will enter New York Hospital Thursday or Friday for a three-day checkup and possibly undergo some medical treatment of an undisclosed nature.

He and Queen Soraya will go to Washington Monday for a three-day visit that will include a meeting with President Eisenhower.

Then the couple will travel to Los Angeles to visit the Shah's sister, Mrs. Ali Hillyer, the former Princess Fatemi.

Heavy Early Winter Snow Falls on Port Huron Area

AP Wirephoto

SEE WHAT WE MISSED—Winter wonderland scenes like this were common in the Port Huron area today as another two inches of snow fell overnight on top of the 12 to 14 inches that covered the city Monday in a localized storm. Plows had main thoroughfares open but driving was difficult on side roads.

12 Below Recorded at Pellston

Pontiac's Weather Warm Compared to Rest of State

By ALFRED W. LOWMAN

So you think it was cold in Pontiac yesterday and last night?

Well, believe it or not, this area was the second warmest in the state as Michigan became the nation's icebox over the weekend.

Although the temperature last night dropped to a bone-chilling 15 degrees, the mercury in Pellston plunged to 12 below zero, coldest in the nation. Pellston is located near the northern tip of the Lower Peninsula.

Other overnight lows, practically all of them the lowest for the winter in the respective communities, were: Cadillac, -10; Traverse City, -3; Houghton, -5; Grand Marais, -8; Gladwin, -5; Saginaw, -9; Battle Creek, -10; Flint and Jackson, -11; and Detroit, -18.

Meanwhile Port Huron today dug out of a 16-inch snow dumped in the area yesterday and last night by a localized storm which hit almost the entire Thumb area yesterday.

But cheer up—weather forecasters are predicting a general warm-up for the state. Following a 20-degree low tonight, temperatures here are expected to climb to a high tomorrow of between 33 and 37. Little snow is expected except in the Upper Peninsula tomorrow and Thursday and the weatherman says the Thumb storm has petered out.

Around the state, at least two persons were left dead in a rash of fires which accompanied the cold.

Five more persons were injured by blazes, 206 school children were routed from classrooms in Hesperia and 21 Detroit families were forced to flee a burning apartment.

Mrs. Ann Maken, 90, died in a fire that destroyed her one-room cottage in Nankin Township near Detroit. An old fashioned stove was blamed.

George Thomas, 78, Spaulding Township died in a similar blaze near Saginaw Monday.

The Detroit apartment fire injured five persons, two seriously, and forced 21 families to flee.

The blaze was believed set by a four-year-old boy who was stuffing paper into a space heater. One piece reportedly fell to the floor, igniting the rug.

In Hesperia, a fire which started in the boiler room, swept the gym of the community school. Students fled without injury and the blaze was confined before the building was seriously damaged.

On the national scene, the cold snap caused shivering as far south as Florida with winter still two weeks away.

The biting arctic air pushed the temperature down to 16 degrees in New York City. Accompanying snow piled drifts four feet deep on

Yoshida, Cabinet Resign in Last Minutes to Avoid No-Confidence Vote by Diet

TOKYO —Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida, the sly old fox who guided Japan's destinies through seven troubled postwar years, stepped down today in the face of overwhelming opposition from both the right and left.

His likely successor is Ichiro Hatoyama, a conservative pro-American, as is Yoshida. Unlike Yoshida, however, Hatoyama favors diplomatic relations and increased trade with Russia and Red China within a framework of friendship with the West.

The Diet Parliament will vote tomorrow or Thursday on a new leader.

Yoshida and his Cabinet resigned just hours before the Diet almost certainly would have toppled his government with a no-confidence vote. Hatoyama led the conservative - Socialist coalition that introduced the no-confidence motion Sunday. The coalition controls about 253 votes in the powerful lower house. Yoshida could muster but 185.

Until the revolt against him, Yoshida ruled the Diet with an iron hand, backed by a working majority in the lower house. Hatoyama may find the road more difficult. He must depend to some extent on the Socialists, who said again today they would support him at least temporarily.

If the Socialists withdraw their support, the Japanese political kettle will probably boil over again.

The resignation may mean the end of the political trail for the 76-year-old Yoshida, who signed the San Francisco peace treaty for Japan and maintained close liaison with the Western nations. He will remain a member of the Diet, but beyond that his future is cloudy.

Probers Slate Public Hearing

But McCarthy's Elbow May Keep Him From Presiding for 2nd Day

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Senate investigations subcommittee holds its first open hearing today since Chairman Joseph R. McCarthy was condemned by his colleagues, but it was uncertain whether he could be present.

McCarthy yesterday sent word to the group, meeting in closed session, that he was still suffering pain from his injured elbow. He asked other GOP members to run the inquiry into alleged Communist infiltration of defense plants — particularly the Bethlehem Steel Co.

Sens. Karl E. Mundt (R-SD) and Charles E. Potter (R-Mich.) took turns presiding and said later that "more than one" of the witnesses refused to answer questions on grounds of possible self-incrimination.

McCarthy's elbow injury, which forced a 10-day recess in the Senate session debating censure charges against him and required him to cancel two out-of-town speaking engagements in the past three days, may prevent his presiding today.

The scheduled public session marks the launching of the first full-scale probe by the subcommittee since the beginning of the Army - McCarthy hearings early this year.

It may well also mark the Wisconsin Republican's last investigation of this type for at least two years, since he will lose chairmanship of the subcommittee when the Democrats organize the Senate on Jan. 5.

Key witness of yesterday's closed door session was former FBI undercover agent Herman E. Thomas of Allentown, Pa.

Brucker Speaks at Pearl Harbor Arlington Rites

Tribute to those who died during World War II will be paid by Wilbur M. Brucker, defense department counsel and a former governor of Michigan.

Off to Flying Start

Local Organizations Back War on Traffic Accidents

Oakland County's S-D Day campaign to halt traffic accidents throughout the nation for a 24-hour period Dec. 15 received overwhelming backing today.

Many groups and organizations here threw their support behind the drive to obtain at least 10,000 signatures from county residents on petitions pledging a conscientious effort to keep the area free of all traffic accidents that day.

Adding to the success of the campaign so far, Clyde R. Haskell, S-D Day chairman, reported that 2,500 signatures were collected during the drive's first day yesterday.

Over 500 Pontiac residents signed the pledge of the "Army of 10,000" of the petition drive yesterday. The scroll will be forwarded to President Eisenhower probably on Dec. 14, claiming this city's leadership in the fight against loss of life on America's highways.

The President's Action Committee for Traffic Safety proclaimed Dec. 15 as Safe-Driving Day after citing the alarming figure of 38,300 lives lost in 1953 in traffic accidents, Pontiac's

Search Plane Reports Seeing Raft Last Night

Choppy Seas Hamper Efforts to Find Seamen Missing in Gulf

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A fourth rescue ship joined the search early today for a raft carrying the survivors of a sunken tug's 11-man crew in the choppy waters of the Gulf of Mexico.

A Coast Guard plane reported sighting the raft during the night, but lost sight of it later in the wind-whipped waters. The plane reported people were on the raft.

The Coast Guard cutter Cartigan, the SS Almeria Lykes and the tanker Bradford Island scanned the area during the night for rafts carrying crew members of the tug Bertha R. of Tampa, Fla. The Bertha R. sent out distress signals about 3 p.m. yesterday and presumably sank after losing radio contact with the Coast Guard.

The Coast Guard said here that the SS Helen Lykes joined the search shortly after daybreak.

The search was pinpointed about 90 miles southwest of Appalachicola, Fla. Coast Guard planes circled the area during the night-long vigil and illuminated the area with flares.

The search was hampered by the choppy waters with planes reporting waves six to eight feet high, whipped by winds about 25 knots. Air temperature was reported at 38 degrees, and the water temperature was 77.

The Bertha R. owned by the Blue Stack Towing Co., of Tampa sent out distress signals about 3 p.m. yesterday.

In a series of signals, the tug reported it had come loose from an oil barge and was having rudder difficulty. The captain radioed that his craft was taking on more water than his pumps could control. The Coast Guard said it lost contact at 4:45 p.m. and the boat presumably had sunk.

City Seeking to Work Out Reid-Paterson Assessment

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM — Still dickering over the Reid-Paterson share in the Columbia Relief Sewer project, the city commission after an hour's discussion last night, asked City Manager Donald C. Egbert to consult with the building firm on a possible compromise agreement.

The problem dates back to more than a year ago, when Reid-Paterson, in conjunction with its Adams Village development, agreed to pay about $7,000 as its share in the sewer on Columbia, between Haynes and Hazel streets only.

Commissioners now contend the developers should pay an added $12,000 for the Eton relief sewer, which connects with both the Eton and Columbia sewer systems.

Further debate on improving parking conditions at the Pierce-14 Mile road shopping center led to a request that Egbert prepare plans for construction of an alley and parking lot behind the stores.

Dominic Caputo, owner of the proposed parking property north of the alley, has offered to sell his land to the city, in order that the lot might be financed through special assessments.

Royal Oak Youth Mute in Prison Escape Case

Barney Malak, 18, of 26681 Park Ct., Royal Oak Township, yesterday stood mute on a charge of aiding escape of a prisoner from the Royal Oak Township Jail Sept. 10.

A not guilty plea was entered for him by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

Royal Oak Township Police Capt. Robert Richardson said Malak handed a hacksaw blade into the cell of Vernon Kirby, 18, who was AWOL from the Army and since committed to Jackson State Prison for car theft.

Malak was arrested Sept. 11 by Richardson. He is free on bond pending trial in the present court term.

Water Said Valueless Under Christmas Tree

CHICAGO — A man who sells 80,000 of them every year says it's just silly to put the butt of your Christmas tree in water on the theory that it will keep it fresher.

"And water with sugar added—that's even sillier," says Gust Bellas, who wholesales trees.

Bellas said today the supply will be ample this year, but was wary of predicting retail prices. He said this is approximately what the retailer should charge: 8-foot tree, $12 to $15 to $18; 6-foot, $7 to $10; 4-foot, $3 to $5.

Researcher Finds Hope for Heart Disease Cure

CHICAGO — A cancer doctor originally searching for a cure for skin disease has found evidence that a low fat diet might stave off heart attacks in persons with diseased heart arteries.

Dr. Frederick Urbach, associate chief of cancer research at Roswell Park Memorial Institute in Buffalo, N. Y., described his work today at the annual meeting of the American Academy of Dermatology and Syphilology.

MEN ONLY—But it was a woman's world last night as the men of the town invaded Birmingham's stores en masse to do their Christmas shopping in short order. The third annual Men's Night attracted about 2,000 of the male population and brought them out from all areas, as proven in the picture above. Vern Wheeler of Pleasant Ridge got a helping hand from (l-r) Mrs. Wellington Waters and Mrs. Robert Craig at one of Birmingham's apparel stores where clerks modeled the latest casual fashions. Hot coffee was welcomed at many stores by those who braved the cold for the occasion and "who bought and bought well," according to Charles Mortensen, Chamber of Commerce manager.

The job of defending the law will fall to Attorney General-Elect Thomas M. Kavanagh who takes office Jan. 1. Kavanagh has stated that he favors the grand jury law, as recently amended by the State Legislature.

In other action, the Supreme Court ruled yesterday that states may not bar interstate truckers from their highways, even for repeated and illegal overloading.

And that decision set off a new round of discussion today on the effect of heavy trucks on the nation's highway system, and how to enforce weight limits imposed by states.

Two influentially placed Democrats—Sen. Monroney of Oklahoma and Rep. Harris of Arkansas—said the new Congress may consider giving states more police power. But a spokesman for the American Trucking Associations said present laws are quite adequate.

Boys' Club Will Hold Mother and Son Night

Over 500 are expected to attend the first annual Mother-Son Night Wednesday at 7 p. m. in Pontiac Boys' Club, 530 E. Pike St., according to William V. Coullacos, executive director.

"Purpose behind the new annual event, said Coullacos, is to 'create a better association between son and mother with relation to Boys' Club work and activity."

"The affair will give the mothers a better idea of the type of guidance their sons are receiving at the club," he said.

Included in the program will be a tumbling team demonstration, for which the club has won praise among other groups.

Chairman will be Joseph Chevalier, club advisor, assisted by Michael Fiorillo, athletic director and William Pyles, wood shop instructor.

Prizes offered the mothers in a contest will be various items that the boys made in the wood shop, added Coullacos.

undercut President Eisenhower in every possible way," Hall said. At New Orleans, meanwhile, Adlai Stevenson, the man Eisenhower defeated for the presidency in 1952, was quoted by Democratic sources as believing the Democrats can win in 1956 even if Eisenhower runs again.

The sources said Stevenson concedes the President still is a popular figure but that the Republican party will lower his popularity as time goes on.

Butler's statement about Eisenhower also was criticized by Louisiana Governor Robert F. Kennon, one of three southern governors who supported Eisenhower in 1952.

Kennon said he thinks the President "has done a better job of uniting his country in the past three crucial years than anyone could have done." He said he will vote for Eisenhower in 1956 again if Stevenson runs.

Yesterday in downtown Pontiac, the mercury climbed from an 18-degree low to a high of 27 coupled with snow flurries and biting winds.

A year ago the highest temperature recorded was 47 following a low of 29 degrees.

Local Groups Back Safe Driving Day

Sheriff Clare L. Hubbell instructed deputies to set up instruction centers in the county informing residents of S-D Day.

"S-D Day is the most important project we have had yet to save people from killing themselves on roads and highways," said Hubbell.

A highlight of the campaign will be reached tomorrow when Pontiac Motor, Fisher Body and GM Truck and Coach Divisions will begin at 9 a. m. to circulate the petition among their thousands of employees.

It would seem now that the Army of 10,000 may well reach closer to the 30,000 mark, noted Haskill.

Increasing the campaigns' hopes today, the following moved to pledge their organization and employees:

The Pontiac Insurance Agents' Assn., the various city and county departments, Walled Lake, Waterford Township, Bloomfield Township, Drayton Plains, Pontiac YMCA, Boy Scouts of Clinton Valley Council, and the Pontiac Ministerial Association.

The association, said Haskill, has agreed to sound church bells all over the city at 9 and 11 a. m. on Dec. 15 as reminder of the S-D Day cause.

All General Motor plants will blast their whistles for one minute at that time also.

Seven more days of signing are left to make the campaign a success.

"Pontiac can keep its promise to the nation — in leading the President's campaign — only with the help of every pedestrian and motorist. Do that by signing the petition and avoiding traffic accidents," said Haskill.

The pledge may be signed at Huron and Saginaw Sts. where Pontiac police are stationed to take signatures. Others will be seeking signatures throughout the downtown area and in residential sections.

Oxford Motorist Admits Driving While Drinking

Unable to furnish a $20 bond, Bennett was returned to Oakland County Jail, pending his trial today.

Mitchell Against
'Right-to-Work'

Labor Secretary Raps
State Laws Prohibiting Union Shops

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell today came out flatly against state "right-to-work" laws outlawing labor contract provisions that workers must become union members.

Mitchell's declaration that he was opposed "categorically" to such laws now in effect in 17 states, mostly in the South and West, came as a surprise in a speech prepared for the annual CIO convention.

Labor unions are as much or more concerned with getting such laws repealed and preventing enactment of new ones in other states as they are with changing or repealing the federal Taft-Hartley law.

Both the CIO and AFL have outlined campaigns to have state legislatures ditch the "right-to-work" laws next year. They generally make illegal any labor contract arrangement for the union shop or similar proviso requiring workers to join unions.

Mitchell, whose speech also conveyed "warm personal greetings" to the CIO from President Eisenhower, practically invited their repeal of such laws by recommending that they be "further considered" by states.

The Taft-Hartley law permits union shop contract clause but specifically says they are illegal in any state which prohibits them.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

The Ghost of Christmas Present showed Scrooge the people of London cheerfully shoveling snow off their roofs. They were happy and full of glee, for it was Christmas morning.

And he showed Scrooge the shops, rich to bursting with the abundance of Christmas.

And then the church bells rang from every steeple, and Scrooge saw the people flocking to church in their best clothes and with their gayest faces.

Keep Baby Upright, Parents Cautioned

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Keep the baby upright, particularly after feeding him, if you want to minimize vomiting, a Cincinnati doctor who studied X-rays of more than 10 infant stomachs advised today.

Persistent vomiting, Dr. Frederic N. Silverman, reported, may cause serious trouble, even death by starvation. It also may result in injury to the diaphragm.

Primitive peoples apparently know something about this, the physician said, and keep their babies erect. He cited the American Indian, who carried his pa-poose upright on his back.

Monty's Boy-Beating Idea
Runs Afoul of Educators

By LAURA Z. HOBSON
NEW YORK (INS)—"A good beating with a cane," said a famous man the other day to about 1,500 educators, "can have a remarkable sense of awakening on the mind and conscience of a bad boy."

A remarkable sense of horror came upon me, to read such a statement in this day and age, and my horror wasn't lessened by the fact that these words were uttered as part of a lecture called, "Education for Leadership."

Nor was it soothed away by the fact that they were spoken by a British war hero, Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, who had just received an honorary LL.D. degree from Columbia University.

The very idea of canings and beatings in 20th century schools struck me right across the face like a sudden slap, and I started checking around a bit with some modern authorities on the bringing up and educating of children—to see whether I'm a dunce or not.

First I turned to that famous pediatrician whose word has been law to millions of American mothers through his "Pocket Book of Baby and Child Care." He's Dr. Benjamin Spock, of course, with the Mayo Clinic until 1951, and since then professor of child development at the University of Pittsburgh.

Discussing the problem of spankings and physical punishment in general, Dr. Spock was talking more of younger children and of home discipline, but every word he writes, I'm sure, applies equally to older children and school discipline.

"Where does punishment fit in?"

Dr. Spock asks, "I disagree with the grim or irritable parent who seriously believes punishment is a good regular method of controlling a child."

Then I turned to another famous book, "How To Help Your Child in School," by the well-known Mary and Lawrence S. Frank, and found what to me is the $64 question.

"Who is to draw the line between spanking and physical cruelty?" they ask. "Who is to say what kind and amount of spanking the child should get?"

Turning from books, I then asked various officials in the world of education whether "caning and beating" would be permitted in American schools. And I very nearly got my mouth washed out with soap and my knuckles rapped smartly with a ruler!

Freedom, Discipline, Go Hand in Hand, Waterford Parent Study Group Learns

By JANE WINDELER

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—"Self-discipline, Responsibility and Freedom" was the topic presented last night to members of a program planning committee participating in the adult education course on "Parenthood in a Free Nation." Lay leaders Mrs. Francis Davis, Mrs. Lyle Crowley and Mrs. Lester Carlson directed discussion at the meeting, held at Covert School.

This is the fifth part of the program which is being sponsored by the University of Chicago, under the direction of Ethel Kavin, as an experiment in connection with Waterford Township schools.

Using the study guide, the group found that "discipline in its true meaning implies a voluntary following of rules or principles . . . All good discipline eventually becomes self-discipline."

"Training a responsible person—that is, one who is trustworthy and can be depended upon—begins at a very early age and is interrelated with self-discipline."

"True freedom means knowing how, and opportunity to use this knowledge effectively. It is not merely freedom from, but is also freedom for something," the group was told.

Stars and City Merchants Join Oakland Celebration

By ABBIE KUCSERA
Motion Picture Editor

CinemaScope—film's mighty baby, now one year old—was first introduced to Pontiac on the screen of the Oakland Theater, Dec. 8, 1953, via 20th Century-Fox's magnificent picture "The Robe."

Theaters and theater-goers in every important city of the world are helping to celebrate the first birthday of the revolutionary "youngster" which marked the beginning of an even greater era of progress and enjoyment than did the advent of "talkies."

Here in Pontiac much excellent entertainment has been packed into the year since the Oakland's manager, Arthur H. Sanford first announced the installation of a giant, 42-foot screen, anamorphic lens and a stereophonic sound.

turn, "New Faces," "Three Coins in the Fountain," "Ring of Fear," "The Egyptian," and "Brigadoon." This week, congratulatory telegrams and messages are pouring into the Oakland from local merchants, movie stars and other film personages.

Among them were telegrams from stars Richard Widmark, Gene Tierney, Robert Wagner, Jean Peters, Elizabeth Taylor, Michael Wilding, Ann Blyth, Esther Williams, George Murphy, Gene Kelly and 20th Century-Fox President Spyros P. Skouras.

In the theater lobby is enclosed a huge, four-tier cake from a well-wishing local bakery in honor of the CinemaScope celebration. The cake will be passed on to a charitable institution for the enjoyment of its residents, Sanford said.

"THE ADVENTURES OF HAJJI BABA"

John Derek and Elaine Stewart are starred in "The Adventures of Hajji Baba," scheduled to be at the Oakland Dec. 12-18, is double-billed with a different guest feature each day. To appear with "Hajji Baba" respectively are, "How to Marry a Millionaire," "Garden of Evil," "Broken Lance," and "River of No Return."

"SITTING BULL"

Released through United Artists, "Sitting Bull," starring J. Carroll Naish, Dale Robertson and Mary Murphy, is due at the Oakland on about Jan. 15. The historical film, in CinemaScope and the new Eastman color, was directed by Sidney Salkow and is a W. R. Frank presentation.

Radio Future Brings Heated Controversies

Network Boss Forecasts Fall

Ad Rate Reductions Indicative of Decline as CBS Holds On

By WAYNE OLIVER —

NEW YORK (AP)—How sick is radio? What are its chances of surviving in a television era?

Conflicting diagnoses have been heard in recent days from several top industry figures—who should know the answers. But out of these confusing bedside bulletins these appear to be the facts:

1. Network radio business has been declining and some in the industry have raised the question of whether all four nationwide chains will survive.

2. Individual stations have been holding their own or gaining, and over-all radio broadcast business is near record levels, or close to half billion dollars a year.

3. Radio, according to Nielsen Audience Surveys, still reaches more people in daytime hours than television, but TV moves into a big lead at night.

The controversy was touched off recently when David Sarnoff, board chairman of Radio Corp. of America and the subsidiary National Broadcasting Co., told NBC affiliates there is "only one direction, income-wise, for radio network to go, and that is down instead of up." He added, "It may be possible to eke out a poor existence for radio networks, but I don't know."

This brought roars of protests from heads of other networks, including a particularly tart comment from Dr. Frank Stanton, president of Columbia Broadcasting System. His network's publicity office issued a release quoting him as saying, "Those who do not believe in it (radio) should make way for people who do." But the same office 14 days later issued another release beginning "CBS radio will reduce cost-to-advertisers of its network evening time an average of approximately 20 per cent" two weeks from that date.

It was one of several reductions in radio network night rates since TV began cutting into evening audiences.

Meanwhile, Sarnoff's comments had led to speculation that NBC might be planning to drop its radio network, and he followed up with a statement saying that if any nets dropped out NBC "would be the last, and not the first, to abandon the field." He added that his intention in his earlier talk was "to call attention to the realities."

As for figures, the latest report of Publishers Information Bureau indicates total network broadcast time sales for the four nationwide radio chains in the first nine months of this year ran more than 12 per cent behind a year ago—104 million dollars against nearly 119 million. ABC radio with a slight gain ran counter to the trend.

But total business of all stations, including both independents and network affiliates, plus the networks' own gross, is expected to approximate 500 million dollars, for the full year, about the same as in 1953 and more than 65 per cent above 1948 when TV still was in its infancy.

The number of radio stations, meanwhile, has increased from about 1,800 in 1948 to more than 2,600 standard stations now, and the total number of sets in use has increased.

The decline in importance and popularity of network radio shows has been accompanied by an increasing reliance on local programs or recorded shows broadcast on a local basis. Individual radio stations have been withstanding TV competition better than network radio.
