Dryden Edges St. Michael, 57-51

Rochester Defeats Utica in 'A' Finale

By FLETCHER SPEARS

It was a great evening for 'Birds' in state basketball district tournament action last night in Rochester.

Rochester's Falcons flexed their muscles in the second half and ended Utica's season with a 66-52 victory to take the Class A title, and Dryden's Cardinals (Class D) were forced to go overtime before halting St. Michael, 57-51.

And for the Rochester squad and coach Wayne Case, it's on to East Detroit for regional action, while coach Bob Mason and the Cardinals move on to Grand Blanc to try for a regional championship.

Utica was a slim choice to turn back the Falcons, but the Rochester victory came as no surprise since the team turned in a number of surprises during the regular campaign.

* * *

Picked to win the Oakland A League title, the Falcons dropped their first three league games and wound up in third place in the loop race.

OTHER SURPRISES

A couple of other surprises on the Falcons' schedule came in a pair of losses to seventh-place Madison (3-11), followed by a victory over Warren Cousino (13-1), the league champ and 12th ranked Class A team in the state.

* * *

And in beating Utica, it marked the third year in a row the Falcons ousted the Chieftains in district play. They beat them 79-77 two years ago and 60-50 last year.

Utica, which walloped Troy, 71-33, in reaching the finals, grabbed a 34-32 lead at intermission, and with Jim Jilek (6-3) and Bob Didur (6-5) shooting well and controlling the backboards, the team looked like it was on the way to victory.

But Rochester managed to put a lid on Didur and Jilek in the third period and picked up 12 points to take a 44-43 lead going into the fourth period.

For the Chieftains, the roof fell in the fourth frame. Ahead 50-46 with 4: remaining, Rochester outscored the Chieftains, 16-6, to break the game open.

Guard Bob Mills, who wound up with 17 points, was the key figure in the Falcons' surge in the fourth as he hit on nine of 10 free throw attempts.

* * *

Don Golding also collected 17 points and he, along with Mills, Dan Ludwick (12) and Jim Burton (11), tightened the defense in the second half in which the Utica team tallied only 18 points.

PRODUCTION FALLS

Jilek, who tossed in 17 points in the first half, picked up only four after intermission and he wound up sharing scoring honors with Didur at 21 points each.

* * *

With Jilek and Didur bottled up in the second half, the Utica attack slowed to a near halt. The team's guards, Gary Rojeski and Dennis Betz, tried to break the Falcon defense with outside shooting but both managed to make only one bucket apiece. Utica finished with a 16-2 record.

The Falcons will now join East Detroit, St. Clair Shores South Lake and the winner of tonight's Mount Clemens-Port Huron Northern game in the regional round.

The Mikemen of St. Michael outplayed heavily-favored Dryden for three quarters, but the Cardinals came on strong to tie the score at 51-all in regulation play and outscored the Mikemen 6-0 in the overtime session.

* * *

The Mikemen had a chance to win in regulation play when forward Ray Lavoie stepped to the free throw line with nine seconds left for a pair of shots and Dryden ahead 51-50.

MAKES FIRST

He dropped in the first to tie the game at 51-all, but the second bounced away. The Mikemen got the ball again after a traveling violation on Dryden but guard Butch Finnegan missed a 15-footer at the buzzer.

* * *

In the overtime, Jim Grondin and Ken Kitchenmaster tossed in two-pointers and Dennis Hilliker added a pair of free throws to ice the game.

Kitchenmaster and Grondin shared scoring honors with 16 points apiece and George Couzens tossed in 12.

St. Michael's Bill French, who gave the Mikemen control of the backboards through three quarters, fouled out with 5:55 remaining in the game, and when French departed, Dryden took command and wiped out a 48-42 St. Michael lead.

Lavoie collected 15 points to lead the Mikemen and French finished with 10. Greg Glynn, playing one of his best games of the season at a guard post, pushed in 13 markers and teamed with Tom Patch, Mike Thornberry and Jerry Stanton in putting defensive pressure on the Cardinals.

FLYING HIGH—Forward Don Golding (34) leaps high into the air to beat Utica's Dan Drca (31) to a rebound in the first half of their district tournament game on the Rochester floor last night. Golding pulled in this rebound and scored 17 points in pacing the Falcons to a 66-52 victory. At left is Harry Hogan (32), and moving into the action at right is Jim Burton.

GOING UP—Eddie Pruitt of Pontiac Central goes up for a close-in shot against Kettering last night. Jack McCloud, who scored 23 points for Kettering, is the defender. PCH won, 72-53, to win the district Class A championship.

Second Half Surge Earns 72-53 Victory

Chiefs Enter Regional Play; Captains Paced by McCloud's 23

By DON VOGEL

Pontiac Central shifted into every gear but reverse last night as the Chiefs dumped Kettering, 73-52, to win the Class A district basketball championship at Pontiac Northern.

The Chiefs started in low, shifted to second and then played the second half in high gear before a capacity crowd of 2.000. A 26-point final period blew the game wide open.

* * *

The victory boosted PCH into the Ferndale regional. Ferndale qualified last night by crushing Hazel Park, 66-42. The other two teams will be determined tonight.

Warren Cousino plays Royal Oak Dondero at Kimball and Birmingham Groves takes on Brother Rice at Seaholm.

"It was our best game in a month," said PCH coach Fred Zittel. "I think we're over the hump now."

The Chiefs had trouble getting the ball to roll the right way in the first half. Several shots rolled around and out instead of in. PCH had complete control of the backboards during the game and a tight defensive effort forced the Captains to shoot from outside.

Jack McCloud, who led all scorers with 23 points, kept Kettering in the game during the second quarter by hitting a basket and nine free throws.

HOT HAND

The Captains held a hot shooting hand in the first period and moved to a 6-3 before the Chiefs finally broke the field goal ice after 3:32 on a layup by Jessie Evans.

PCH players still couldn't get the ball in the basket and fell behind 13-5. Willie Craft scored the next basket for Central with 1:09 to play and the Chiefs started to move.

Kettering's rebounding was hurt early when Dave Cox drew three fouls in the first period and Dick Miceli went to the bench with four in the second quarter.

The Captains handled the ball very well, but their 14-12 first-period lead evaporated when their outside shooting fell off. In fact, PCH's defense was so tough in the second quarter that Kettering managed only eight shots.

McCloud hit the Captains' first field goal of the second period with 4:04 to play to cut a carefully built PCH lead to 24-23. The Chiefs spurted ahead again on a tip by Evans and two free throws by Jim McClendon.

* * *

But Cox returned to the game and dropped in two quick layups, including one at the buzzer, to knife Central's halftime lead, to 30-29.

Bob Von Bargan made a jumper with a minute gone in the third period to put the Captains ahead, 31-30. Eddie Pruitt dumped in a layup, Evans hit a one-hander and Craft pumped in two free throws to put the Chiefs ahead to stay, 36-31.

A couple of long shots each by Von Bargan and McCloud kept the Captains within 46-42 going into the final period, but it was obvious that the Chiefs were getting smoother and picking up speed as the game progressed.

They quickly opened a 10-point lead before Kettering could score again and that was the game.

Evans paced Central with 17 points. Craft scored 15, McClendon 14 and Pruitt 13. Larry Platt paced PCH's 46-31 rebounding edge with 14, one more than Evans.

Rick Bloodworth led Ferndale to its easier-than-expected win with 25 points. Hazel Park ace John Canine was held to 16.

N. Farmington Tops Walled Lake

When the Vikings of Walled Lake and the Raiders of North Farmington fashioned dismal records on the basketball courts this season, few people were surprised.

But a few were shocked when they watched North Farmington and Walled Lake battle their way into the district tournament finals on the Raiders' floor.

The showdown between the two — they had a combined record of 3-30 during the regular campaign — came last night and the Raiders walked off with the title after an 82-67 triumph.

The winners will now journey to Livonia Franklin next week where they'll do battle with district champions from Franklin, Dearborn, and U of D High School.

The Vikings (2-17) trimmed Plymouth earlier in the week to reach the finals while the Raiders bumped city rival Farmington and Milford from the tourney trail.

HEATED DUEL

Despite the unimpressive records, the two waged a heated duel for the title and the Vikings made a game of it for most of three quarters.

The Raiders started strong, hitting well and often in the first quarter to move out in front 22-10 and they left the court at intermission with a 39-28 advantage.

The Vikings made their move in the third quarter, cutting the lead to four points, but the Raiders' Rick Lorenz pushed in four quick buckets to widen the gap again and the threat ended.

For Lorenz, it was his best night of the season as he collected 12 field goals and eight free throws for a game-high 32 points.

Almont, Capac Ousted for Rules Infraction

LANSING (AP) — Capac and Almont High Schools were disqualified from the Class C District basketball tournament at Port Huron Friday because of a rules violation.

The decision was announced by Charles E. Forsythe, director of the Michigan High School Athletic Association. It came after a meeting between the association's executive committee, Forsythe and coaches and officials from both schools.

Both results were wiped from the books. Forsythe said Richmond would meet Armada today to determine the district champion.

Forsythe said an Almont player and three Capac players violated the association's rules by competing in church league games.

* * *

Dick Jimenez of Almont played in a church game in Capac on Feb. 20, and Bob Barth, Jim Ceranski and Bob Abrahams of Capac, competed in a church league game in Memphis on Feb. 27, Forsythe said.

Forsythe said MHSAA rules state a high school player cannot play for any team other than his high school squad during the season.

WSU Wins, Then Loses Cage Coach

DETROIT (AP)—Joel Mason, who became the most victorious basketball coach in Wayne State University history earlier this season, announced his retirement Friday.

* * *

Mason bowed out in winning style as his Tartars defeated John Carroll 79-69. The victory was the 185th for Mason-coached WSU cage teams over an 18-year span.

Mason, 53, intends to remain at Wayne State as an associate professor of health and physical education.

* * *

PAC CHANGES

Wayne State won the Presidents Athletic Conference title in 1957 and again in 1965. Mason's best season was 1952 when the Tarters posted a 19-6 mark and played in the NCAA tournament.

* * *

A native of Iron River, Mich., Mason was graduated from Stambaugh High School, and Western Michigan University. He later coached at Stephenson (Mich.) High School and played professional football with the Chicago Cardinals and Green Bay Packers, including the Packers team which won the National Football League title in 1944.

* * *

Mason also played pro basketball with the Sheboygan (Wis.) Redskins and played minor league baseball for a time.

New Clubs, New 'Legs' Help Linksman Devlin

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Bruce Devlin has a new set of clubs and a new set of legs, and he is counting on them to make the difference between second and first place finishes on the golf tour.

"I feel so good now I'm almost walking away from myself," the 28-year-old licensed plumber from Goulburn, Australia, said today. "It's like having a ten-pound weight taken off my ankles."

* * *

The willowy, 158-pound Aussie is one of those in hot pursuit of pace-setter and defending champion Doug Sanders going into the second round of the $65,000 Pensacola Open.

The second round was rescheduled from scratch after Friday's play was washed out by drenching rains with one-third of the 144-man field on the course. This postponed the third round to Sunday and the final to Monday.

* * *

Sanders is out in front with a nine-under-par 63, followed by baby-faced Gay Brewer of Dallas, 65, and Devlin, 66. There are 58 players under the Pensacola Country club's par 72 and 15 others even with it.

One of the sternest threats is Devlin, who is essaying a comeback in the tradition of Ben Hogan and Ken Venturi.

MISSED VICTORY

Last year Devlin missed victory in four tournaments by a single shot. He never won although he collected $67,567, good for sixth place in the money winning list.

Through all this frustration, he had physical miseries — an acute condition of varicose veins in his legs.

"In September I had my veins stripped in an operation in Houston. I was in the hospital almost two weeks. Then I went home. There I walked in salt water for two hours every day to get my strength back."

Local Matmen Eye Class A State Crowns

Four prep wrestlers from Pontiac Northern and three from Walled Lake were slated to battle in the semifinals today as the state Class A wrestling tournament continued at Michigan State University.

* * *

Carrying the PNH colors into the semifinals were Tom Kell (103), Ron Rayner (138), Bruce Tippin (154) and Troy Bell (heavyweight).

Moving ahead for Walled Lake's team, unbeaten this season, were Roger Nicolay (112), Fred Hering (120) and Dennis Brandt (180).

Dan Rodriguez of Pontiac Central won a pair of matches to move up in the 145-pound division, but teammate Bill Hollis (165), a regional champion, was ousted in the first round.

Other area matmen still in the running were John Castle (120) of Farmington; Jim Liston (127) of Berkley and Les Burger (127) of Hazel Park; Alf Joshua (145) of Roseville; Russ Hancock (154) of Royal Oak Dondero; Bill Hunze (165) of Hazel Park; Jim Gallery (180) of Royal Oak Kimball; and Dan Krause (heavyweight) of Utica.

St. Fred Challenges Eaglets for 'C' Crown

Rams Outlast Sorrows' Star; Brandon Falls

OL St. Mary Pushes Ahead in 2nd Half; Lakers, Avon Clash

By JERE CRAIG

Ambitious Orchard Lake St. Mary and upset-minded Pontiac St. Frederick collide at 7 o'clock tonight for the championship of the Class C District Tournament at Pontiac Central.

OL St. Mary (17-3) and St. Fred (13-6) powered their ways past scrappy foes Friday night to earn the championship final berths.

★ ★ ★

St. Fred held off rallying Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows, 78-67, despite a sparkling one-man show by the Lancers junior center Tim Doyle.

St. Mary's Eaglets took charge in the third quarter against game Ortonville Brandon and pulled away to a 64-51 victory.

Following tonight's "C" title clash, Avondale's Yellow Jackets are slight favorites to spoil West Bloomfield's "B" title hopes in the 8:30 nightcap.

Doyle, a 6-2 smooth, hard-working all-purpose performer—hit all but four of the Farmington OLS 19 fourth-period points as the Lancers struggled futilely to cut into St. Fred's lead.

FIRST HALF

The victorious Rams built a 42-31 edge in the first half aided by a 19-12 second quarter superiority. Doyle's eight points in the first quarter were offset by Tom Wright for the Rams.

They jumped their lead to 59-48 with the first basket of the final quarter. Despite Doyle's sharpshooting, the Rams' padded their cushion to 12 points twice in the closing minutes.

ZONE DEFENSES

Brandon's Black Hawks and the Eaglets of St. Mary waged a battle of zone defenses for one half with the Ortonville quintet having the advantage for much of the time. Its lead was only 23-22, at intermission.

OL St. Mary, however, only led once, and that was just before the break. While the Eaglets were pumping unsuccessfully from outside, the Ortonville boys took a quick lead with some good offensive rebounding.

St. Mary's first field goal came after 2½ minutes had elapsed, and with six minutes gone it trailed, 11-4. The quarter break had the Black Hawks still leading by seven, 14-7.

Center Joe Wojtys, in early foul trouble, returned to spark a second-period Eaglet drive that produced a 19-19 tie on his two free throws with 2:35 left in the half. In all, Wojtys tallied seven points in the session.

The Eaglets' superior rebounding and fire power began taking their toll early in the final half. Slow starting in each of the first two quarters, St. Mary had the lead for good within 1:20 of play in the closing half.

Strangely, it wasn't OLSM's big three — Wojtys, Connie Krogulecki and John Stepien —that did the damage.

Mike Kowalski and George Sawicki produced the first five points, and after two baskets by Krogulecki and Stepien, freshman Tim Megge (looking better every game) hit two field goals and Kowalski two free throws for a 37-29 lead.

It was the Black Hawks' lowest total in a 10-8 campaign that saw them tally under 62 only three times.

Hoosiers Splash Best in Big 10 Swimming

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — Short of draining the pool, there seemed to be little to keep Indiana from winning its sixth straight Big Ten swimming championship tonight.

The Hoosiers, laden with Olympic talent and with depth to spare, headed into the final day of competition sporting a 30½-point lead over Michigan.

★ ★ ★

But, playing it on the cautious side, Indiana Coach James Counsilman declined to claim early victory.

"I don't want to say if we have it or not," he said. "We'll wait and we'll see."

Michigan coach Gus Stager was a bit less reticent. He said: "Our places won't change unless something drastic happens. We can match them in swimming, but they have the diving."

RECORDS FALL

Three Big Ten records tumbled at the University of Iowa pool Friday night — two broken by Indiana swimmers and one by a Michigan relay team.

Bill Utley, a sophomore from Pittsburgh, Pa., set a mark of 1 minute, 43.9 seconds in the 200-yard freestyle and Ken Webb, a junior from Portland, Ore., established a standard of 4:17.3 in the 400-yard individual medley.

A time of 3:09.2 by the Michigan 400-yard freestyle relay team toppled a mark of 3:11.5 set last year by Michigan State.

Olympic Ace, Prep Shine at AAU Meet

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — A mercurial high school sophomore and an Olympic gold medalist provided the thrills at Friday's opening of the National AAU Indoor track and field championships.

Bill Gaines, 17, of Clearview High School, Mullica, N.J., raced to a 5.9 seconds clocking in the men's 60-yard dash trials, matching the indoor mark held by four others.

Edith McGuire, Tennessee State Tigerbelle who took the 200-meter crown at the Tokyo Olympics, clipped the indoor mark twice in the women's 220, with preliminary and semifinal times of 24.5 and 24.4.

Two indoor records were established in modified versions of the men's and women's 1,060-yard medley relays. Several AAU indoor meet records also were set.

N. Carolina Fails to Slow Duke '5'

By The Associated Press

In a throwback to the so-called good old days in college basketball the Duke Blue Devils edged the North Carolina Tar Heels 21-20 in the lowest scoring game of the season. The score at halftime was Duke 7, North Carolina 5. Honest.

A capacity crowd of 12,400 at Raleigh, N.C., booed throughout the game as the Tar Heels went into a stall from the outset in an effort to upset the nationally third-ranked Dukes in the semifinals Friday night of the Atlantic Coast Conference championship tourney.

★ ★ ★

"We don't call it a stall," said Dean Smith, the North Carolina coach. "We call it a delayed offense. We wanted to win and we played the kind of game we planned. I was wrong because we lost."

Smith wasn't wrong by much. The Tar Heels led 17-12 midway in the second half and, after Duke had tied the score at 20-20 on Steve Vacendak's basket, might have won if John Yokley had converted from the foul line with 1:40 left.

EARLIER ERA

The 21-20 score recalled games of an earlier era such as in 1935, NYU 19 Manhattan 18; 1932, Illinois 28 Purdue 21; 1930, Pitt 21 West Virginia 19; 1927, Notre Dame 19 Iowa 18; 1925, Princeton 23 Columbia 10; 1923, Kansas 21 Missouri 19; 1917, Washington state 23 Stanford 15.

In 1909 Chicago, then a Big Ten power, crushed Wisconsin 18-4.

Duke tries for the ACC title and an NCAA bid tonight against North Carolina State, the team which upset the Blue Devils in the ACC tourney last year. The Wolfpack reached the final with a come-from-behind 75-62 victory over South Carolina in the other ACC semifinal.

team named to the NIT, the other major post-season tourney.

Penn was ruled ineligible by the NCAA after it was first announced the Quakers would compete. Walter Byers, NCAA executive director, said the NCAA had no choice because a telegram from Gaylord P. Harnwell, University of Pennsylvania president, "confirmed the earlier non-compliance" over the controversial 1.6 academic rule. Syracuse, which was to have played Penn, then was given a first round bye.

Rhode Island gained an NCAA spot by defeating Connecticut 67-62 in the Yankee Conference playoff at Storrs, Conn. The Rams meet Davidson in the NCAA first round Monday at Blacksburg, Va., in a switch of sites from Philadelphia after Penn was declared out.

Oregon State wrapped up the Pacific Athletic Conference title and its accompanying NCAA berth by defeating arch-rival Oregon on the road 49-42.

East Detroit Wins Over Austin, 68-44

Unbeaten East Detroit, showing scoring balance, unleased its basketball juggernaut on Detroit Austin Friday night, and ousted the Friars from the district tournament, 68-44.

The Shamrocks, who led 31-18 at the half, upheld their No. 1 ranking in the final Associated Press poll in bumping off second-ranked Austin.

Doug Hess and Arch Price each pumped in 15 points for East Detroit. Ron Binge and George O'hara added 13 each and Bill Boyda had 12. John Parker topped the Friars with 13.

2 Boys' Hoop Squads Post Important Wins

The Wolverines defeated the Gophers, 28-15, and the Black Hawks trimmed the Eagles, 29-3, Friday to reach this afternoon's title rounds in the two-division Lakeland AA boys' basketball playoffs.

Ron Smith of the Wolverines and John Murphy of the Hawks each had 10 points in the wins. The latter team plays the Cardinals and the Wolverines meet the Spartans today at Irving Elementary School.

Late Effort Hands Loss to Pistons

By The Associated Press

The Detroit Pistons, playing in a battle of losers, came up losers again Friday night but it took some second heroics by Howie Komives of the New York Knicks to do it.

The Pistons, in last place in the National Basketball Association's Western Division, led New York most of the way in a game at Fort Wayne, Ind.

★ ★ ★

But the Knicks, holding down last spot in the Eastern Division, came from behind with less than one minute to go and won, 121-119.

In other NBA action, St. Louis slammed the Eastern Division leader, Boston, 132-112, Philadelphia downed Cincinnati 107-103 and the Western Division leader, Los Angeles, whipped Baltimore 123-106.

FINAL POINT

Detroit led the Knicks 119-116 with 1:08 to play. Dick Van Arsdale put the Knicks close with a pair of free throws. Komives put them ahead with two free throws at 33 seconds and added the final point on a charity toss with five seconds to go.

★ ★ ★

Komives was high point man with 37 points. Walt Bellamy scored 30 for New York. Dave DeBusschere led the Pistons with 29.

The Boston Celtics and the Philadelphia 76ers move into a show-down weekend home-and-home series starting tonight in the Eastern Division race.

★ ★ ★

The 76ers moved within 1½ games of the Celtics Friday with the victory while the Celts lost to St. Louis.

Philadelphia got 36 points from Wilt Chamberlain and ended a 13-game Cincinnati home court victory string. Chamberlain hit three field goals with just under six minutes remaining as the 76's opened a 12-point gap.

MIKEMEN'S STRONGMAN—St. Michael's 6-4 center Bill French grimaces as he pulls in a rebound in first half action against Dryden last night at Rochester. Bill scored 10 points and controlled both backboards until he fouled out with 5:55 left in the game. When French left, Dryden wiped out a four-point deficit and eventually won the game in overtime.

Pair Meets for 'B' Title at Howell

When the Broncos of Holly stampeded in a 52-39 victory over perennial Class B power Fenton early in the season, a few observers called it a fluke.

★ ★ ★

Holly went on to post a 10-6 record while Fenton never lost again in finishing 16-1.

Whether the victory was fluke or not should be decided this evening when the two meet in a rematch, this time for the district tournament crown at Howell.

The two arch-rivals advanced to the finals last night, Holly moving up by trimming Brighton, 72-63, and Fenton keeping pace by routing South Lyon, 97-53.

Game time is 7:30 p.m.

RUBBER GAME

Holly and Brighton split in their two meetings during the regular season in Wayne-Oakland League play. Brighton won the first, 80-64, and Holly took the second 63-49.

Jim Goodrich collected 26 points and Don Madden pumped in 15 in pacing the Fenton victory. Jim Tate tossed in 17 for South Lyon (7-10).

Heavyweights Still Lack Needed Welcome Mat

MONTREAL (AP) — The Cassius Clay-Ernie Terrell fight still doesn't have a home.

It has been asked to leave by such boxing centers as New York, Chicago, Montreal, Bangor, Maine and Verdun, Que.

★ ★ ★

But there are others clamoring for it. Lots of them. Bids came flowing in through the late night and early morning hours from such locations as Cobourg, Ont., Huron, S.D., perhaps Quebec City — the latter only if the American Hockey League will vacate the premises — possibly Toronto and maybe Manchester, N.H.

★ ★ ★

Those are the later bids. Already on file were those offers of Sorel, Que., and Edmonton, Alta.

The fight, billed for the world heavyweight championship and scheduled for March 29, has been looking for a home ever since it was turned out of Chicago after Clay sounded off in the wake of his draft re-classification.

At one time or another Pittsburgh, New York, Louisville, and Bangor, Maine turned it down.

LOOKING AROUND

So Robert Arum, a New York lawyer and an officer of Main Bout, Inc., which owns the closed-circuit television rights for the fight, started looking around Canada for a site. Loren Cassina of All-Canada Sports Ltd., joined him.

Montreal said "No" Thursday.

So the offer went to Verdun, a Montreal suburb. The city council deliberated Friday and decided against it.

U-M Gymnasts Edge Spartans for Loop Crown

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Michigan edged Michigan State in team competition of the Big Ten gymnastics meet and beat the Spartans for the conference championship Friday night.

It was the sixth straight title for the Wolverines. The Spartans were unbeaten in dual competition.

The championship was determined on scoring in both dual meets and the conference meet. Michigan State started with a one-point lead, but Michigan picked up 16 points to the Spartans' 14.

The eight top individuals in each event qualified for individual competition today.

Championship scores: Michigan 22, Michigan State 21, Illinois 17, Iowa 14, Minnesota 10, Wisconsin 9, Indiana 5, Ohio State 2.

Talks About Pennant Chances

Good News for Tigers: Kaline Feeling 'Great'

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

LAKELAND, Fla. — No story out of the Detroit Tiger training camp since 1953 has ever been completed without saying a few lines about the graceful gazelle of the outfield, Al Kaline.

This year is especially one of extreme importance, physically and psychologically for Kaline who in 1955 was the youngest player ever to win the American League batting championship with a .340 mark.

He has topped .300 in batting in seven years, but in the last two years, hampered by injuries and ailments he has failed to reach the coveted figure.

The question, similar to that often made in reference to the great Mickey Mantle, has been, "Just how much greater his seasons may have been under healthier circumstances?"

The operation on his left foot last fall to remove a growth under the toe which had begun causing him pains in recent years, was just one of the series of physical problems he has faced since 1959.

He had a broken cheek bone in 1959, broke a collar bone in 1962, suffered a rib injury in 1965, causing him to play only 125 games last year.

When the rookies first reported to camp Feb. 15, Kaline was in camp right with them getting an early start and putting his foot through the test.

"I feel great, I don't think I'll be bothered by this anymore," he said as he looked down at the scar which ran alongside his big toe.

LIKES CHANCES

"No one really knows how much this bothered me. It affected me psychologically, as I felt I didn't dare put too much weight on it. There were times when I felt I would stumble by going into a pitch or trying to get away from one."

"I want to have a big year and I want to stay healthy, and if our team in general can stay healthy I think our chances of winning it are the best since 1961."

That was the year the Tigers finished second and it was a .324 batting year for him.

In scanning the Tigers' situation, Kaline said, "We've never had enough pitching. We've always had the problem of wondering who was going to wind up as the third or fourth starter.

★ ★ ★

"This is a young team and I like the spirit of our young pitchers. It makes the whole situation look much better when you can start talking about putting a starter in the bullpen (in reference to Dave Wickersham) or talk about a fifth starter with the addition of Bill Monbouquette.

★ ★ ★

"As far as I'm concerned this is the best team we've had to talk about any pennants for Detroit.

"I know, people say every year they hear pennant talk in Detroit. But every year it was hope what we could get from the new guys. Now we've got a veteran at every position and some backup men to help.

"It's up to us, the hitters, to score some runs and to tighten our defense even more," he concluded.

In camp, Kaline has done more running and fielding this far than batting. "I like to take more time getting rid of that sting of the bat."

So, before trying to salt up his hitting, Kaline has been peppering up his glove.

He takes part in short pepper drills of fielding about an hour a day and devotes the rest of his training period to running, throwing and the challenge of "iron-Mike" the mechanical pitcher in the batting cage.

The Tigers started intrasquad games today to prepare for the exhibition season opener next Saturday against the Minnesota Twins in the official opening ceremonies of Lakeland's new Marchant Stadium.

State Ahead After 5 Days of Testimony

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The first week of the courtroom battle in Wisconsin's antitrust suit against baseball wound up Friday with the State succeeding in going on record with a heavy file of depositions, a congressional report and the lengthy testimony of four witnesses.

Circuit Judge Elmer Roller ordered the trial resumed at 9 a.m., CST, Monday after the conclusion of five days marked by sharp exchanges among attorneys and long delays to number exhibit items.

★ ★ ★

Attorneys for the State said they hoped to complete the presentation of evidence by the end of next week when lawyers for the National League and the Braves will present their side of the case.

The case was precipitated by the shift of the Milwaukee Braves to Atlanta.

★ ★ ★

The State startled defense counsel when a University of Wisconsin economist regarded as an expert in baseball history took the stand Friday. He described organized baseball as a self-regulating monopoly.

The State contends that baseball is a monopoly in violation of Wisconsin antitrust laws.

Bowie Kuhn, attorney for the league, and Earl A. Jinkinson, representing the Braves, struck out in their efforts to discredit Dr. Ralph Andreano, the economist, as a baseball historian, and to have his testimony stricken from the record.

Judge Roller held as admissable Andreano's testimony and exhibits, including a 2,000-page copy of the Celler Congressional Subcommittee testimony involving baseball and also the Celler Committee report relating to the monopoly power of baseball.

CONTINUES DOMINATION — Sponsor Roy Dorris (left) of Dorris & Son Realty has a third Pontiac Table Tennis Association League championship trophy on display. The squad made it three straight although Elliott Engineering, the runner-up, knocked off the champion, 6-4, Thursday to climb within four points of the top spot. Helping Dorris in a 119-65 season were (left to right) LeRoy Tibbetts, Perc Second, Howard Heckman (the captain) and Kathy Hardy Jones.

Gridders Lead Spartan Finalists

MSU's Big Ten Track Hopes Bright

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan State flooded the field with qualifiers to become the front-runner favorite for today's finals of the Big Ten Indoor track and field championship.

The Spartans also took the only Friday night final — the long jump. Football Halfback Jim Garrett went 23 feet, 6¾ inches, far from the conference record but still good enough for first place.

★ ★ ★

Giving the 56th annual conference championship at MSU's Jennison Fieldhouse a further football flavor, halfback Clint Jones and end Gene Washington equalled the conference indoor mark in the 70-yard high hurdles.

Their times of :08.4 equalled the record first set by Lloyd Duff of Ohio State in 1948, matched by Bennie McRae of Michigan in 1961 and Larry Howard of Wisconsin in 1962.

SEVEN MEN

MSU and Iowa both qualified seven men for the 14-event afternoon finals.

Iowa had been figured to duel with Michigan for third place in team standings. But after Wisconsin ran into a streak of bad luck the Hawkeyes became contenders for the runner-up slot.

★ ★ ★

Michigan and Wisconsin placed five each, Illinois and Indiana had four, Northwestern two and Ohio State and Purdue one each. Minnesota was blanked.

Michigan State also led in qualifiers for the Saturday semifinals in the 60-yard dash and 70-yard lows, where Washington is defending champ. Michigan was second with semifinal qualifiers, placing four.

Wisconsin, the defending team champion, was a hard luck team Friday night.

Gerry Beatty of Wisconsin failed to qualify in the high hurdles, where he was defending titlist.

CHAMP OUT

Barney Peterson of the Badgers, defender in the 1,000-yard run, also failed to qualify in his heat. He was slowed by a sprained foot. Last year he set a meet record with a time of 2:09.2 in the event.

Daswell Campbell of Michigan State was withheld from the 300-yard dash he won last year. Campbell broke a foot last fall and still is bothered by the injury.

Wisconsin, the winner last year with 46 points, only edged out Michigan State by a scant half point.

State's Grapplers Big 10 Contenders

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Defending champion Michigan and Minnesota went through the semi-finals of the Big Ten wrestling championship tied for the lead with 23 points each but Michigan State remained in strong contention.

Michigan State scored only 17 points but qualified five men for today's finals while Minnesota placed four and Michigan only three.

Wisconsin was fourth with 15 points followed by Indiana and Ohio State tied with 6 each and Iowa and Purdue with 4 each. Illinois had 3 points and Northwestern 2.

Bosox Form New 'Union' to Aid Team

By The Associated Press

The nation's latest labor union doesn't belong to the AFL-CIO, hasn't taken a stand on the President's wage-price guidelines, and isn't really a union at all. But it plans to do its best to help management bail the company out of the doldrums.

A committee of Boston Red Sox players got together at the Sox' Winter Haven, Fla., training camp Friday and decided to move the club's problems off Manager Billy Herman's shoulders and onto their own.

★ ★ ★

The unofficial union, led by outfielder Carl Yastrzemski and relief pitcher Dick Radatz, asked Herman to call a players-only meeting to discuss team hustle and spirit. The meeting, with management's blessings, will take place Tuesday morning.

"It's as simple as this," Yastrzemski told newsmen regarding the players' request. "Anyone who doesn't want to play can get out. We have too much talent to be where we are in the standings."

Radatz, the club's assistant player representative, asked Herman to arrange the meeting.

Orioles' Catcher Slated for Surgery

BALTIMORE (AP) — Dick Brown, first-string catcher for the Baltimore Orioles, says he is not particularly worried about undergoing exploratory neurosurgery Monday, but he is "definitely concerned" about ever playing ball again.

★ ★ ★

The 31-year-old receiver will be operated on at Sinai Hospital here. Dr. Clinton Harrison, head of neurosurgery, will perform the three-hour operation.

Brown and his wife agreed to surgery Friday.

Brown reported for spring training with the Orioles in Miami last week, but he complained of dizziness and headaches and was returned here for examination.

Coach Might Prove Right This Time

And this time he just might be right.

The Wildcats from Philadelphia's Main Line have won the last four IC4A indoor track team titles and seven of the last nine. Each year Elliott somberly predicted they didn't have a chance.

All indications are that, at last, he's right. Maryland, sporting the strength and depth that has been a Villanova trademark for years, is the odds on favorite to cop the team title tonight in the Madison Square Garden meet that has drawn entrants from 64 colleges.

Pilots Land Jets After Brush Over Detroit Airport

DETROIT (AP) — Two Michigan National Guard jet fighters collided over Detroit Metropolitan Airport yesterday, but both pilots landed their aircraft safely. Neither flier was injured.

The pilots involved were Maj. Donald Reid and Lt. Dean Crowder, both of Detroit.

They had taken off from Metro and were climbing through clouds when they became separated.

In swinging back through the clouds, the tail skid of Crowder's plane brushed the nose of Reid's.

Intruder Works Extortion Plot

BERKLEY (AP) — A man posing as a water meter reader forced his way into Mrs. Sylvia Ebaugh's home Friday and threatened to kill her and her three children unless her husband paid ransom.

Police in this Detroit suburb said the man forced Mrs. Ebaugh, 24, to telephone her husband, John, 31, at the Detroit supermarket he manages.

* * *

He was instructed to put $2,000 into a paper bag that police said apparently was picked up behind the store by another man working with the intruder.

Mrs. Ebaugh and her children, John, 3, Karen, 2, and Julie, 1, were not harmed although she was bound with adhesive tape and warned to wait 15 minutes before calling police.

Deputies Halt Rumpus at Howe's Lanes

Oakland County Sheriff's deputies early today broke up a shoving match among some 125 young men gathered in a parking lot at an Independence Township bowling alley.

Richard D. Moore, 21, of 8660 Big Lake, Springfield Township; and Lawrence D. Hopps, 20, of 3581 Lakewood, Waterford Township, were arrested by deputies who said the two were fighting.

Each was released on $50 bond from the Oakland County Jail pending arraignment in Justice Court on charges of being disorderly.

Deputies James McCririck and David Vernier said the group had gathered at Howe's Lanes, 6696 Dixie, apparently after reports of a beating at the site.

Mark Keelean, 19, of 6355 Maybee, Independence Township, told deputies two youths jumped him about 12:10 a.m. as he left the bowling alley.

Keelean was treated for facial lacerations and bruises at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

Keelean was unable to make positive identification of his attackers.

Bargaining Set in Waterford

Negotiating teams representing Waterford Township Professional Fire Fighters, Local 1335, and the Township Board will resume talks at 9 a.m. Monday at the water department on Tubbs Road.

No agreement was made at the first bargaining session held last month. However, the three-member Township Board committee reportedly agreed then that firemen's pay demands—totaling $12,000—were in line.

The pay hikes are proposed for all 18 members of the fire department, consisting of the fire chief, fire marshal, captain, two lieutenants and 13 drivers.

Until yesterday firemen had expected the issue to be settled at Monday's Township Board meeting.

* * *

They were surprised when they learned the matter was referred back to the negotiating table at an executive session of the Township Board Thursday night.

"Apparently our request has been turned down because they have sent their committee back into session," said Donald Somerville, president of the firemen's group.

Road conditions were reported clear when the collision happened about 7 a.m. on two-lane pavement near where the highway narrows from four lanes.

Reflections

HONESTY

J. L. VOORHEES

My father was an honest man. So were the men I worked for in my earlier, more formative years of business. Not knowing any different, I, too, became honest. I not only sleep well but I am at peace with my God.

M. E. SIPLE

And it has been rewarding. My friends are closer and my enemies are confused. Although the many and varied religions confuse me, I do recognize the fact that a basic moral law appears to be common to each of them and I do my best to recognize and abide by that law. You may lose battles but you never lose wars by being honest.

Earl in Filmland to View Two Celebrated Fathers

By EARL WILSON

HOLLYWOOD—I flew out here to cover the accouchement of Gary Grant who's a shoo-in for Father of the Year unless he's nosed out by Aaron Chwatt.

WILSON

Mr. Chwatt, who gave up that name to become Red Buttons, has just given the world a beautiful girlchild namer Amy Buttons. From his strutting, you'd think Red had just sired dectuplets.

"Amy Buttons! Isn't that a musical name?" Red flourished a picture of his daughter. It looked like other pictures of babies a few hours old, except to Red. He was at the General Service Studio filming his TV show, "The Double Life of Henry Phyfe," which is now rated 13th in a 30-city Nielsen.

"Look at that sheer unadulterated beauty!" Red howled. "And I'm not saying that because she's my kid."

Fred Clark, who plays Red's boss in the TV series, which has to do with a Certified Public Accountant who's the double of a spy, said to me that it has been like this since the birth of the baby.

★ ★ ★

"His feet haven't hit the ground yet," Fred said. "Somebody asked him how much the baby weighed when she was born and he said, '23 pounds.' "

"That was our TV rating," Fred explained.

Red was alert enough to exclaim, "And if you can maintain a 23 rating, you can stay on for 400 years and own half of the network!"

Barely a week later, the network announced that Red's show was one of the 17 not being continued next fall. But that's another story.)

THE WEEKEND WINDUP . . .

Paramount asked Charlton Heston to host a party for 400 after the re-opening of "Ten Commandments." "I've played Moses and Michelangelo," he said, "—now you want me to play Joe Levine?" . . . Susan Fonda— Henry's number three ex—took a house at Hunter Mountain for a winter of skiing.

Kate Smith's tour of one-nighters this fall will be her first . . Kirk Douglas says his "Cast a Giant Shadow" will be his biggest money-maker yet. . . . Teresa Brewer's secret for a bigger, greener garden: She uses soda water on it.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A fellow sighed that he'd had a terrible fight with his wife—it was the first time his secretary had ever forgotten her birthday.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Joan Fontaine refused to discuss future commitments: "You make plans, and God giggles."

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "A fat man is one who always knows where his cigar ashes are going ot land."—Anon.

EARL'S PEARLS: Arnold Glasow described a very nervous character: "He carries a book that gives the calorie count for fingernails."

Bobby Rydell told Mike Douglas that his accompanist, Jimmy Wisner, used an accordion in Viet Nam —he couldn't find a proper piano. "Also," cracked Nipsey Russell, "—it's harder to run with a piano." . . . That's earl brother.

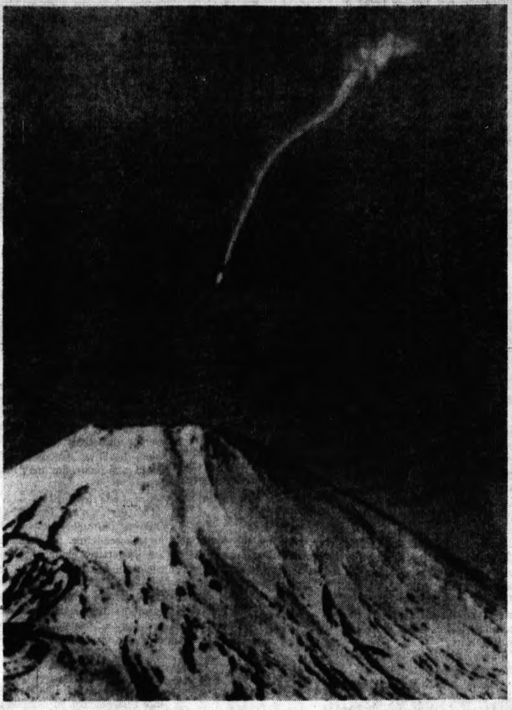
124 Are Killed as Jetliner Crashes in Japan



AP Photofax

HEADING TOWARD CRASH—A BOAC 707 jetliner, trailing smoke, heads for a crash on Mt. Fuji in Japan today. All 124 aboard were killed. The event was captured on film by a Japanese amateur photographer on vacation near the site.

84 Americans Die; Mt. Fuji Is Tragedy Site

Disaster Cause Said Unknown; Report of Collision Discounted

GOTEMBA, Japan (AP)—A British passenger jet mysteriously burst into flame and smoke over Mt. Fuji today and crashed on the sacred mountain's slopes, killing all 124 aboard.

Among them were 84 Americans — 75 in a single tour group sponsored by the Thermo King Corp., a refrigeration firm of Minneapolis, Minn.

The British Overseas Airways Corp. plane had a crew of 11.

It was the second major plane crash in the Tokyo area in less than 24 hours and the third in a month, with a death toll of more than 300.

What caused the crash was not known. There were treacherous winds in the area over the majestic snow-covered extinct volcano.

SHAKEN APART?

Some aviation experts said the four-engine blue and white Boeing 707 may have been shaken apart.

Reports that there had been a collision with a second plane were discounted.

Witnesses told of seeing it billowing white smoke, then black smoke.

Others said they saw flames. Several said it seemed to flutter to the earth like a leaf, disintegrating in its fall.

★ ★ ★

Almost 1,000 Japanese soldiers, police and firemen worked into the night carrying the bodies from the plane down to this town five miles away.

BODIES FOUND

Rescue workers said they had found all the bodies.

As they were taken from the plane they were wrapped in gray military blankets and placed in wooden coffins.

There was no sign of extensive fire or explosion aboard the plane. Rescuers said many of the bodies thrown from the plane were unmarked and unburned.

Japan's Weather Bureau issued several wind warnings just minutes before the plane — bound next for Hong Kong on a round-the-world flight — crashed about six miles below the volcanic crater after 2 p.m.

SUSTAINED WINDS

Weather officials in Tokyo said sustained winds around the 12,389-foot Mt. Fuji reached nearly 70 miles an hour at noon and by 3 p.m. 86 miles an hour with gusts likely higher.

One Japanese witness said he saw the plane flying straight up then a wing broke off, he said, and the jetliner plummeted trailing smoke.

Mt. Fuji is 55 miles west southwest of Tokyo.

The crash brought the death toll in three major plane crashes in Japan in the past month to 321.

Crippling Blizzard Eases Grip

FARGO, N.D. (AP) — A deadly blend of heavy snow and screaming winds began to relax its paralyzing grip on a vast section of the north central United States today.

The Weather Bureau called it one of the most savage blizzards in recorded history.

With blinding snow and winds clocked at over 100 miles per hour in some areas, it moved with punishing slowness northeastward from western South Dakota to northeastern Minnesota.

Behind it lay scores of communities so paralyzed they looked like ghost towns.

There were three known dead, all in Minnesota. But at least 27 persons were missing, the majority in North Dakota, where the storm's fury seemed greatest.

BRUTAL BLIZZARD

So brutal was the blizzard that tragedy stalked what would ordinarily be the safest, simplest tasks.

Near Woodworth, in central North Dakota, 13-year-old Betty Diede vanished while on a trip to close a banging chicken coop door 100 feet from her parents' home.

Her mother, Mrs. Raymon Diede, nearly died in a vain, groping search for her daughter

Studebaker Pulls Out of Auto Business

DETROIT, Mich. (AP) — Studebaker Corp. wrote a reluctant finish yesterday to its 64-year career in the auto-making business.

★ ★ ★

President Byers A. Burlingame said: "While sincerely regret the necessity of discontinuing Studebaker cars, the irreversible losses being incurred permit no other course."

His anouncement confirmed what everyone in the auto business had thought for some time—that Studebaker was fighting a losing battle in its effort to stay in the auto business.

Sales, which had hit a high of 268,229 in 1950, had gone steadily downhill. Less than 19,000 Studebakers were sold last year.

The company made several drastic moves in recent years in efforts to keep the automotive division alive. All failed.

PLANT MOVED

One was the move in December, 1963, of Studebaker's car-building operations from South Bend, Ind., to Hamilton, Ont.

The theory was that the Hamilton subsidiary plant was more modern and economical than the old plant at South Bend and that Canadian wages were somewhat lower than those in the United States.

In another move, Studebaker continually reduced its car offerings and in the 1966 line offered only 10 models at prices ranging from $2,200 to $3,000.

★ ★ ★

The company shunned the glamour-car market and the horsepower race and concentrated instead on a campaign to provide conservative, economical transportation. But it misfired in the market place.

DURING BOOM

Oddly enough, the closing of Studebaker's auto facilities came at time when virtually all other operations of Studebaker were booming.

The company had diversified in recent years, and its output now includes home appliances, electrical generators, commercial refrigeration, oil and fuel additives, lawn and garden tractors and tire studs, and reinforced plastics for aerospace and military use.

Studebaker, founded in 1852, won its first national recognition as a maker of wagon wheels, particularly the caissons used by the Union Army in the Civil War. It built military vehicles in both World Wars.

★ ★ ★

Studebaker stock has been one of the most active on the New York Stock Exchange in recent weeks. It has climbed steadily from a $26.75 figure in early February to its $40 closing price Friday.

Rumors of a posible merger with Allied Products of Chicago have been denied frequently by Studebaker.

★ ★ ★

Burlingame said the decision to scrap the auto business, "while most difficult, is essential if Studebaker is to program in its major rebuilding campaign."

★ ★ ★

He said the company would take steps to ease effects of the shutdown for about 900 Studebaker workers in the United States and Canada and for its 450 U.S. dealers and 125 Canadian dealers.

Chance of Flurries in the Area Tonight

There's a chance of snow flurries tonight with temperatures dipping to a cold 18 to 26.

Mostly cloudy and snow flurries, the highs reaching 30 to 35 is the forecast for tomorrow. Partly cloudy and not so cold is the outlook for Monday.

★ ★ ★

Morning southwesterly winds at 8 to 15 miles per hour will become southwest to west at 10 to 20 miles tonight and westerly at 15 to 25 miles tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Temperatures dropped to 26 at 7 a.m. today. The mercury had climbed to 38 by 1 p.m.

Flash

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union said tonight its spaceship which hit the planet Venus had been sterilized. The statement was in answer to widespread western fears earth germs may have contaminated possible life on Venus.

23 Will Vie for District Nomination

Twenty-three aspirants for City Commission in six of the city's seven voting districts will vie in primary elections Monday.

There is no primary vote in District 3. Only two candidates filed in that district.

William H. Taylor Jr., 50, of 247 Ottawa and William J. Winters, 39, of 293 Ottawa will be the District 3 nominees in the April 18 general election.

Voters will cast only one vote in the respective district primary races.

★ ★ ★

There will be two winners of nominations in each district. These two will vie in the general election when commissioners are elected from each district by the city-at-large.

32,320 REGISTERED

There are 32,320 registered voters in Pontiac, according to City Clerk Mrs. Olga Barkeley.

Districts 1,5 and 7 have attracted the largest number of candidates.

District 1 has four commission hopefuls, while Districts 5 and 7 each have five candidates.

★ ★ ★

Incumbent commissioners in the six district primaries are seeking nomination and reelection.

5 From State Die in Crash

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Five persons were killed today in a rear-end collision on the Ohio Turnpike just south of Cleveland near U.S. 21.

The Ohio Highway Patrol identified four of the dead as: Joseph McIntyre, 27; Robert Lee Born, 25; and Jerry Dale Shadwick, 25, all of Cassopolis, Mich., and Ronnie Joe Arnold, 23, of Niles, Mich. No identification was found on the fifth victim, the Highway Patrol said.

★ ★ ★

The truck driver, Kenneth L. Bonine, 32, of Odessa, Mo., and a passenger, Richard Griffin, 21, of Kansas City, Mo., escaped injury, the Patrol said.

★ ★ ★

Officers said the car was traveling east on the turnpike at a high rate of speed when it rammed the rear of the semi-trailer rig carrying 21 horses. Patrolmen said the truck was headed for New Holland, Pa.

U.S. Jets Attacked by MIGs Near Hanoi

SAIGON (UPI)—Soviet-built MIG jets opened fire today on American planes raiding a missile site on the outskirts of Hanoi. In heavy ground fighting in South Viet Nam a force of U.S. and Vietnamese was reported chopping up a large trapped and bewildered Viet Cong unit.

The American planes raided the Soviet-built missile sites outside Hanoi as a spokesman disclosed the Russian SAM missiles had shot down 12 Amercan planes since they were installed.

A spokesman said three MIG 17 fighters made firing passes at four U. S. Air Force F4C Phantoms but did not hit them.

Another flight of MIGs tried to sneak up on American planes striking railroads and highways 120 miles north of Hanoi but fled without firing a shot.

It was the first appearance of the MIGs this year.

★ ★ ★

The ground fighting centered in a valley six miles northwest of Quang Ngai on the coast 320 miles northeast of Saigon.

CLOSING IN

So far, U. S. Marines and South Vietnamese rangers closing in on the hard-fighting Reds have killed 311, a spokesman reported. Allied losses were "moderate."

A spokesman said the Americans and Vietnamese had boxed in a Communist regiment (about 1,500 to 2,000 men) in the valley.

He said the Viet Cong, apparently recruits, were not familiar with the terrain, did not know the escape routes and were forced to stand and fight — which is what the Americans wanted.

The U. S. Marines and government troops, flown in by helicopter, were on all four sides.

Two battalions were blocking escape routes while the other three sides were slowly closing in against constantly stiffening resistance.

Faas was alone in the car.

OU Tackles New Problem—Size

Growing large gracefully hardly seems like the kind of problem that would concern a 6-year-old, but when that 6-year-old is a state university growing by leaps and bounds, the problem takes on real importance.

When Oakland University opened its doors for the first entering class in 1959, it had an enrollment of 570 students. Today there are 2,450, and next year there will be approximately 3,400.

In the face of such rapid expansion, faculty and administrators began to be concerned about the possibility that increased size might have a detrimental effect on the close contact between students and faculty, which they felt was one of OU's principal assets.

They were also concerned that, in the future, it would be difficult to provide the same general education background for large numbers of students from different majors.

They felt that the "shared" academic experience of a smaller student body gives students of varied social attitudes and values a common intellectual "meeting ground."

COLLEGE WITHIN

In answer to these concerns, five OU faculty members last fall launched an experimental program called Charter College, a little college within the University.

The faculty includes: Sheldon Appleton, associate professor of political science; Melvin Cherno, associate professor of history; Alfred Lessing, assistant professor of philosophy; Gertrude M. White, associate professor of English; and Roger H. Marz, associate professor of political science.

In its first year of operation, the Charter program has approximately 150 freshmen. Each year, an additional class will be added until all four classes, freshman through senior, are represented.

★ ★ ★

It is planned that the total Charter enrollment will not exceed 500.

BROAD BACKGROUND

Charter College courses comprise only one-third of the student's total work toward a degree. They are designed to provide a broad, general background of knowledge and understanding to complement the

Johnson Order Adds Power, Prestige to State Department

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — With a new order from President Johnson, the State Department appears to have recovered the power and prestige in running U.S. foreign policy that it began losing in the closing years of the Dwight D. Eisenhower administration.

The White House announced Friday that Johnson has directed Secretary of State Dean Rusk "to assume responsibility to the full extent permitted by law for the over-all direction, coordination and supervision of interdepartmental activities of the United States government overseas (less exempted military activities)."

Simply put, this means that herafter State Department officials are to make the initial decisions on foreign policy moves, subject to the President's final decision, except in South Viet Nam.

This assignment of power radically changes the situation that developed early in the administration of President John F. Kennedy, who vested extensive practical authority in his own White House staff.

STARTED EARLIER

The process had begun earlier, however. Following the death of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles in 1959, President Eisenhower decided to embark on a personal crusade for peace in the world. He also undertook personal direction of critical areas of U.S. foreign policy, leaving Secretary Christian A. Herter to serve as his adviser and administer the State Department.

Johnson began to move away from the centralized Kennedy system early in 1964, his first full year in office. He began to rely much less on McGeorge Bundy, special assistant for international security affairs, and much more on the two Cabinet officers directly involved in foreign operations—Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

* * *

The shift to the new way of doing business developed slowly over a two-year period. Thus the order issued Friday is basically acknowledgement of an existing system.

One cornerstone of the system is the close relationship Johnson has with Rusk and McNamara. He praises both broadly. Rusk has seemed somewhat more aggressive in the development of foreign policy issues and decisions under Johnson's leadership than he was under Kennedy.

A COINCIDENCE

Johnson's move follows Bundy's departure last week from the White House staff. The former Harvard dean became president of the Ford Foundation in New York. While officials denied any real connection, the coincidence apparently underscores the down-grading of the Bundy office in the White House, which was once known as the little State Department.

Heart Attack Takes Retired Chrysler VP

Retired Chrysler Vice President L. Irving Woolson, 61, died yesterday of a heart attack at Martindale Hospital, Detroit.

Woolson had been general manager of the parts manufacturing division. He lived at 715 N. Glengarry, Bloomfield Township.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Monday at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. with burial in Woodlawn Cemetery Detroit.

He was a former president of the DeSoto Division, member of the board of directors of Chrysler, a graduate of Cornell University and a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham.

* * *

He was also a member of the Society of Automotive Engineers, the Detroit Athletic Club, the Detroit Golf Club, the board of directors of the Detroit Pistons Basketball Co., and the board of directors of the Metropolitan Young Men's Christian Association.

SURVIVORS

Surviving are his wife, Helen C., one daughter, Mrs. William Plevich of Peoria, Ill.; and one son, James E. of Wilton, Conn.

Also surviving are two brothers, G. Thurber Woolson of Bloomfield Township; and seven grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be sent to the building fund, First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham.

Two Directors Authorized for Child Guidance Clinics

Oakland County's Mental Health Services Board yesterday resolved a nagging problem of who should direct the county's child guidance clinics by authorizing two directors.

The mental health board generally had favored a psychiatrist director while the Child Guidance Clinics Inc. board wanted to retain the present nonmedical administrator as director.

A contract providing for financial support by the Mental Health Services Board for existing child guidance clinic programs and support for anticipated expansion of psychiatric services to children has been delayed due to the disagreement.

Yesterday's board action calls for the present director of the child guidance clinics to continue as administrative director.

* * *

A psychiatrist to be hired by the child guidance clinics will direct the clinical phase of the operation.

OBJECTED TO PROPOSAL

Dr. Harry Arnkoff, a psychiatrist and member of the Mental Health Services Board, objected to the proposal for two directors because their exact duties had not been made clear.

"I won't vote on the proposal because I have no descriptions of the functions," Dr. Arnkoff said.

In other business the board authorized submission of a tentative 1967 budget of $1,493,081 for the mental health operation to the County Board of Auditors.

* * *

The county share of the proposed budget would be $281,000. The state would contribute 75 per cent, or $1,119,810, and the remaining $92,271 would be from fees for services.

EXPANDED INSURANCE

Also yesterday, board members were told that beginning in September automobile company employes would receive expanded health insurance benefits including mental health services.

Karl Girshman, a representative of an independent research organization, advised of the impending UAW contract benefits and pointed out that it probably would mean a sharp increase in demands for mental health services.

Girshman said there are 100,000 county UAW family members and that about 1 per cent of these would seek services.

* * *

Board members agreed to meet with Girshman to explore the needs resulting from the insurance program and evaluate available resources.

in the swirling snow, but made it back to the house on hands and knees.

BIG DRIFTS

But where North Dakota gauges worked, they measured depths up to 34 inches at Devils Lake.

The storm shattered almost all activities dependent on outdoor travel.

Schools closed. Entire business districts shut down. Travel by any means was impossible in many areas.

* * *

Uncounted thousands of travelers were stranded. Lucky ones, like 120 at tiny Sterling Corners, in central North Dakota, had food and shelter. Some others made it to farm houses.

350 CAUGHT

An estimated 350 persons were caught after a basketball tournament in the Doland-Redfield area in central South Dakota.

Two hundred huddled in a service station complex, 80 in one farm, 80 in another.

For a time, nearly 500 passengers were stalled in three transcontinental Northern Pacific trains in central North Dakota.

* * *

Early today, 190 of them remained on an eastbound train at Eagle Butte, some 50 miles west of Bismarck. Food and fuel for the train were brought to them.

PUBLIC SHELTER

Another train took 135 passengers to public shelter in nearby New Salem, and still another 170 persons found haven after their train was returned to Jamestown.

Lt. Gov. Charles Tighe declared North Dakota a disaster area.

Gov. William Guy was reported hurrying home from an Arizona vacation.

With hoped-for moderating weather today, Tighe said National Guard and U.S. Air Force helicopters and ski-equipped planes, along with snowmobiles, would seek missing or stranded persons.

WIDE AREAS

Power and phone service was crippled over wide areas. In Pierre, S.D., National Guardsmen were called out to evacuate hundreds of persons without power in one section of the capital city.

Power companies, calling it the worst storm in their history, rushed extra crews toward Duluth, Lake Superior port which has been intermittently without power for more than a day.

Accuse Ex-Majors of Plot to Kill Fidel

HAVANA (AP) — Two former Cuban army majors were accused today of plotting to assassinate Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

* * *

A government communique charged the pair planned the assassination with agents of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency in Madrid, Spain, and with Manuel Artime, Cuban exile leader.

* * *

Open Probe in Crash of Canada Jet

TOKYO (AP) — Investigators today began piecing together the chain of events that brought a Canadian Pacific airliner to a splintering, flaming end at Tokyo's International Airport.

Sixty-four of the 72 persons aboard the jet perished in the crash Friday night.

One of the 64 dead was officially listed as missing but was presumed dead. The other 63 bodies had been recovered.

The four engine DC8, carrying Canadians, Americans, Europeans and Asians, snagged its wheels on approach lights then hit a retaining wall at the head of the runway.

EIGHT SURVIVED

The crash killed 62 persons outright. Two died in hospitals.

Eight passengers survived with injuries ranging from multiple fractures to a bruised knee.

* * *

Japanese authorities said a full-scale investigation of the crash was under way. Canadian Pacific Airlines Far East operations manager Peter P. Ainsworth said a company investigation team would arrive in Tokyo tonight.

The main international runway at Haneda Airport was still closed this morning as teams worked to clean up the wreckage.

Airport authorities said the jet was forced to remain circling above Tokyo for nearly 45 minutes due to heavy fog. When the plane was about to return to Taiwan, Formosa, the fog lifted slightly and the plane made its approach.

Order Search for Plane Overdue at Pellston

PELLSTON (UPI) — The Federal Aeronautics Authority today ordered out the Coast Guard, State Police and the Civil Air Patrol in search of a light plane overdue on a flight from Cleveland to Pellston.

The single engine plane was piloted by D. Piggot, Cleveland, and carried a passenger identified as Sanford Treat, also of Cleveland, according to the Cleveland Flight Service.

DuBois Clubs 'Subversive'

Members Are Told to Register With U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach has accused the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America—organizer of many anti-Viet Nam war demonstrations last fall—of being a Communist-front organization and asked it to register with the Subversive Activities Control Board.

Leaders of the group, which has 36 chapters and an estimated 2,500 members across the nation, denounced Friday's Justice Department move as "Red-baiting" and denied any affiliation with the Communist party.

* * *

Katzenbach, in a petition to the Subversive Activities Control Board, charged that the clubs were created and controlled by the U.S. Communist party.

"Historically, Americans have the freedom to organize in dissent," the attorney general said. "At the same time, in accordance with the law, young people who might consider joining this organization are entitled to know its nature and sponsorship."

HEARINGS DUE

Under the 1950 Subversives Activities Control Act, the board will stage hearings on the Communist-front charges. If the group is found to be Communist-dominated, it will be required to list its officers and the sources and distribution of its funds and printing equipment.

A spokesman for the DuBois Clubs described the Justice Department's petition as "part and parcel of the policies of the Johnson administration to suppress and silence critics of the administration's dirty little war in Viet Nam."

Patrick Hallinan, counsel for the club, added:

"Out of the Korean war came Sen. Joseph McCarthy. The situation is so similar we should not be surprised to find a whole new aura of Red-baiting to silence critics."

DENIES COMMUNISM

Hallinan's brother Terrance, national secretary of the DuBois Club, said, "We're not a Communist organization and we're not run by Communists. The only subversive activities we've been involved in are subversive to the Dixiecrats and the war hawks."

The 1950 law describes a Communist-front organization as one substantially dominated, directed or controlled by a Communist organization and operated principally to give ald and support to that Communist group.

Mossler Trial Jury Still Deliberating

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — An all-male jury pondered anew today meager on-the-scene details of Jacques Mossler's slaying.

There was no sign of a verdict in the second full day of deliberations. Judge George Schulz said he intends to keep the jury at its task over the weekend, if need be.

The jury's duty is to judge blonde Candace Mossler and her nephew, Melvin Lane Powers, accused of first-degree murder in the June 30, 1964, slaying of her aging multimillionaire husband.

The maximum penalty is death.

Mannle, who earned his bachelor of science degree in the School of Business Administration at Wayne State University, has served as a senior investment analyst in the trust department of the National Bank of Detroit for more than 11 years.

In this capacity, he was responsible for originating investment decisions governing the purchase and sale of stocks and bonds for the bank and its customers.

Man Captured After Chase

A 25-year-old Pontiac man was arrested and charged with uttering and publishing yesterday after a Pontiac policeman and two civilians apprehended him in a chase on a downtown street.

* * *

Leroy Perkins, 25, of 304 Elm waived examination on the charge and was bound over to Circuit Court for arraignment March 14. He was ordered held in $300 bond.

Patrolman Joseph W. Gallardo said Perkins attempted to cash a check at Community National Bank, 30 N. Saginaw, by presenting identification belonging to another man.

Gallardo was called by a teller at the bank who noticed the check was listed as missing or stolen.

* * *

Upon being questioned, Cooper reportedly broke from the bank building and headed up Saginaw toward Huron.

2 GAVE CHASE

Gallardo said two bystanders, George Steinbach, 20, of 188 E. Rundell; and Leonard Dennison, 17, of 529½ N. Perry gave chase to Cooper along with Gallardo.

Steinbach reportedly tackled Cooper as he headed in a store at 60 N. Saginaw and Gallardo, close behind, grabbed the suspect and placed him under arrest.

OU Tackles Size Problem

more specialized courses students will take in other University classes.

No grades, other than "satisfactory" and "unsatisfactory" are given in Charter College. Personal evaluations are made on the performance of each student, and these rather than standard grades, will be used to record their level of achievement.

Each member of the Charter faculty has complete freedom to design and teach his courses as he sees fit. With no departmental directives to guide them, tradition can be abandoned, and innovation may take over.

* * *

OU Provost Donald D. O'Dowd, ultimately responsible for all academic programs in the University, claims "this is one of the few times in academic history that a university faculty has given its fellow members the 'carte blanche' privilege to design a general education program at their own discretion."

COED DORM

Two-thirds of the Charter College students live on campus in Pryale House, currently the only coeducational dormitory at OU. Last semester, commuter students in the program took turns as guest residents in the dorm.

In this way, the split between resident and commuter students, a problem that plagues most universities with a large commuter enrollment, has been substantially reduced.

Because they live together and study together, their educational experience rarely ends when classes are over for the day.

* * *

Lectures and other programs are presented in the dormitory lounge, and the students band together to obtain group rates for theatrical and musical events in the Detroit area.

BEST FEATURE

Dean of Freshmen Frederick Obear, who also serves as Charter College coordinator, feels that one of the best features of the Charter program is that its faculty also serves as the students' academic advisers.

"We have a good advising program for all students at Oakland," Obear said, "but in Charter College, they see their advisers almost daily in the classroom, not just when they need to arrange their schedules for the next semester."

Appleton, who serves as Charter faculty chairman, emphasized that this is not an honors program, nor is it designed for students sharing the same academic interests.

Instead, he explained, the quality of the students is representative of Oakland's enrollment in general, and all academic majors and career interests are represented.

GOOD ATTENDANCE

How well is the program working? The faculty members generally agree the attendance rate for Charter College courses is better than normal, and most find they are able to present more challenging material.

"The best thing about it from my point of view is that I can now do the things which, from 20 years experience, seem to be worth doing," says Gertrude White, an associate professor of English.

Echoing her feelings, assistant professor of philosophy Alfred Lessing said, "we figure that, if we're excited about what we teach, the students will also find it easier to get excited."

Historian Melvin Cherno pointed to the interpersonal and social effects of the Charter Program. "The students have a lot of spirit and cohesiveness and this carries over into the classroom."

Colonial Theme Accentuated

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, Pontiac Press

The Ian R. Olleys have furnished their attractive white brick and batten board home on Country Club Drive, Shelby Township with a colonial theme.

Off-white walls, oyster-white antique satin draperies and smoke-green carpeting set the background in the living and dining area.

Ladder-back chairs with rush seats flank the massive glass-doored hutch cabinet on the long wall opposite the room's sliding glass doors.

Above one of the ladder-backs hangs an original oil by Larry Lumetta. In a charcoal and gold leaf frame, it duplicates and emphasizes the room's color scheme.

Grouped about the distressed fruitwood pedestal table are twin raspberry velvet chairs and a bold floral print sofa in raspberry, gold and shades of green.

Matching antiqued brass and white ceramic lamps on spoon-footed end tables light the grouping.

"I did most of my own decorating," said Mrs. Olley, "with an occasional assist from Wiggs Colony Shop.

"For instance, the pale green stool pulled up to the coffee table was the decorator's idea.

"And I'm so pleased with it. It adds just the right touch to the arrangement."

Raspberry-ice candles in crystal candlesticks and a pink rosebud arrangement center the oval cherry table in the dining portion of the room.

The wheeled drop-leaf serving cart proves a great help when the Olleys are entertaining.

The adjoining family room-kitchen is the relaxation center for the Olleys and their two daughters, Susie, 10, and Cindy, 8.

Focus Is on Satire for OU Arts Festival

Oakland University's fourth annual Fine Arts Festival March 18-26 will focus on the theme of satire and attempt to span the range of laughter in its scheduled events, according to Howard A. Coffin, university public relations.

* * *

Included in the series will be two major professional theatrical productions, a medley of student and faculty presentations and a student art exhibit.

Festival chairman Jeffrey Fox, Chicago senior at OU, announced the schedule of events for the forthcoming series at a recent committee meeting.

CITES OU GROWTH

Fox called the 1966 festival plans "a major departure from the three previous series," and cited the addition of the professional theatre presentations as evidence that "this year's festival will reflect in quality and importance the dramatic growth that has characterized Oakland University itself in the past four years."

"Over the Counter," a satirical review on the local scene, will be presented twice, once as the opening event in the festival on Friday, March 18, and again on Friday, March 25.

Produced by Henry Martin for Gilmar Productions, "Over the Counter" recently finished a 36-week run at the Vanguard Theatre and is currently playing in Windsor.

'GAME THEATRE'

"Game Theatre," an entertaining form of theatrical improvisation, will be making its Detroit area debut with the festival March 26. Already "in" in Chicago and New York, "Game Theatre" is designed to appeal to both the professional actor and the inexperienced theatre goer alike.

* * *

As it will be presented at OU, two professional players and volunteers from the audience play a variety of games in which the participants are required to portray certain roles, act out situations, or follow specified rules of movement and speech as they attempt to relate to other participants. One of the games, for example, might call for each of the participants to invent and act out a situation in which he is required to end with a sentence supplied him by the game director who umpires and coordinates the proceedings. The result is usually hilarious for both participants and spectators.

* * *

Viola Spolen, a member of the Sarah Lawrence College (N.Y.) faculty and the originator of Game Theatre will be on hand for the festival. She will give a lecture-demonstration on improvisational theatre March 25, and will introduce the two sessions of theatre games.

Members of the OU faculty will present a program of dramatic readings March 19, which will be followed on Sunday afternoon by a student program of skits, monologues, and readings.

LINGUISTS PARTICIPATE

March 20-21 will feature foreign language plays, folk dances and other presentations by the department of modern languages at Oakland.

University musical organizations will perform in concert March 24, along with individual dancers and dance groups from Oakland who will perform on the same program.

March 25, a student art exhibit will open in the University Art Gallery. Miss Spolen's lecture on improvisational theatre will be given on the same afternoon, and "Over the Counter" will be presented in the evening.

* * *

March 26, last day of the festival, Game Theatre will be presented cabaret style in two evening sessions, at 8 p.m., and again at 10:15 p.m.

Assisting Fox in directing the festival will be cochairmen Bruce Cameron, Birmingham senior, and Cynthia Sowers, Baton Rouge, La., junior.

BLOOMFIELD MIRACLE MILE NEWSY NOTES

SUGAR 'N' SPICE

And everything nice—that's what little girls are made of . . . and this season's fashions make it appear even more so.

This Spring, femininity is the key for the young set . . . soft fabrics, such as voile, patterned sheers, dotted-Swiss and batiste are in great abundance. Enhancing spring's new-found femininity: delicate smocking, hem and cuff flounces, puffy sleeves, lots of lace, lady-like knits . . . Ensembles, duo dresses with coats that are girlishly peek-a-boo or in companion fabrics.

LION has a wide selection of knits—dresses, coats and ensembles, many of Orlon, most completely washable. New at LION . . . the Piccolino line—children's addition by Gino Paoli . . . It has the same well-bred look, attention to detail and outstanding workmanship that has made Gino Paoli a great name in ladies' wear. I examined a navy and white ensemble, in double knit and found it had the grow feature hem . . . was amazed at the low price, dress $15.00, coat $30.00—I associate higher prices with Gino Paoli. Also at LION in rainwear, daisy print calico, plastic coated coat with matching umbrella, $7.00.

At PENNEY'S I found such an array of fashions for the young set . . . it was almost confusing. An adorable Carol Evans dress is in batiste with the permanent press feature, price $8.95 . . . Saw many more Carol Evans dresses from $4.98 to $10.00. The costume is very much in evidence at PENNEY'S . . . one charmer with the Easter look had the coat fully lined, price $11.98.

Dresses, slips, blouses, slacks and all-weather coats may be found in permanent press fabric. LION and YOUNGLAND carry all under various trade names . . . PENNEY'S use their Penn-Press lable on most of their permanent press garments.

Communion dresses may be found at LION, YOUNGLAND and PENNEY'S . . . all a confection of lace and eyelet trim . . . many destined to become heirlooms. Veils are available at YOUNGLAND.

Let's see what's new in boys' wear — next week.

Events Set for Spring by Sorority

The election of Mrs. B. T. Tompkins as treasurer of the Pontiac City Council, Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority, was announced at the March meeting of Alpha Alpha chapter in the '300 Bowl.'

SPRING AGENDA

On the spring agenda are the annual benefit sale next Saturday in the CAI Building and the annual state board meeting, March 20, in the Kingsley Inn.

Alpha Alpha members will join five other sorority groups in sponsoring a movie and style show, March 22, in the Huron Theatre. Proceeds will be tagged for playground equipment at the Children's Village.

* * *

Mrs. William Kay was elected to be included in the list of candidates for state office at the convention, April 22-24, in the Kingsley Inn.

Iron Sets Stain

Never press a stained area in clothing between washings or dry cleanings. Pressing sets stains permanently, and in some cases actually causes fabric damage.

Gleaners' Officers Elected

Some 60 members of the Wayside Gleaners Society gathered in the First Baptist Church on Friday for the annual spring luncheon and election of officers.

* *

Mrs. William Carls is incoming president; Mrs. F. L. Putman and Mrs. W. S. Freeman, first and second vice presidnts; Mrs. Edward R. Luscumb, secretary; Inez Slater, assistant; Mrs. Lewis Peters, treasurer; and Mrs. Thomas Racine, assistant.

HEAR MINISTER

Rev. Robert Shelton, pastor, spoke on the "Qualities of the Heart". Mrs Conrad Morrow was vocalist, with Mrs. Willard Lehman at the piano.

Mrs. Andrew Stimer greeted the arrivals and their guests. Mrs. George Cook and her committee served the luncheon.

Visiting Holy Land

Pastor and Mrs. V. L. Martin of Sunnyvale Chapel left Thursday to visit the Holy Land and several European countries.

Two members of the Sunnyvale congregation Mrs. Lillian Saunders and Mrs. Roma Parker will join them on the trip, sponsored by Bob Jones University Bible Land Tours.

Kathryn Goodall was honor maid at the candlelight rite performed by Rev. David E. Dee. Bridesmaids were Karen Wooley and Carolyn Masters. Timothy Goodall carried the rings.

Larry Auten was best man for the bridegroom, son of Mrs. Ben M. Powell of Orion Road, Independence Township, and the late Mr. Powell.

Can Appear Lovely Even With Specs

If you are one of the many women who wear glasses, you no longer should feel that your attractiveness is handicapped in any way whatsoever.

* * *

With the excellent choice of fashionable frames and colors, plus the beauty created with this year's exquisite make-ups, you may not only look attractive, but completely beautiful.

To help you in your quest, here are the important tips suggested by a well-known beauty authority:

Avoid overly exaggerated bangs. Instead, reveal a portion of your forehead area to give your face a lovely balance. Long, heavy bangs, resting on top of glasses, often distort the face.

* * *

When applying eye makeup, remember that glasses draw attention to your eyes, that lenses tend to magnify the make-up, and emphasize any imperfect applications.

Therefore, apply eye shadow, fluid eye liner, mascara, and eyebrow make-up with skill and artistry, and wear the same amount of makeup as you would if the glasses were not there.

CREATE BALANCE

Because even plain glasses are ornate, do not select large, overpowering earrings. When you wear them, choose them in sizes that create a well-balanced look. On the days you wear frames in bright shades, be sure they do not clash with your lipstick and eye shadow.

Study the colors you are wearing, and bring them all into flattering harmnoy.

Riding Same Wave Length

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — Take one British G2YL and one American K6KC1. Get them together and you have the recipe for the international ham sandwich made here recently.

* * *

England's G2YL is Miss Nell Corry of Walton Heath, Surrey, and Santa Barbara's K6KC1 is Mrs. Louis Weber. Both are women hams — licensed amateur radio operators — and members of the International Young Ladies Radio League.

* * *

The two women have been talking to each other regularly since their first radio contact in 1958.

When Miss Corry made a bus tour of Canada and the United States, she arranged a visit with her friend of the air waves.

SUSPECT ARRESTED — Oswald S. Pick, 27, of Clifton, N.J., covers up as he leaves with a U.S. marshal after he was held in $50,000 bail for further hearing on charges he threatened President Johnson. Pick was arrested by FBI agents on a Washington-bound train after he telephoned a challenge that agents find him before he carried out his plan.

Callenged FBI

Man Held in LBJ Threat

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A man who was taken from a Washington-bound train here after he allegedly threatened the life of President Johnson, is being held in $50,000 bail.

* * *

The man, Oswald S. Pick, 27, of Clifton, N.J., phoned the threat to the Federal Bureau of Investigation office in Washington early Friday morning, agents said.

* * *

The caller told the FBI he would be on the Pennsylvania Railroad's Congressional Limited express and challenged them to find him.

* * *

They found Pick and about 100 agents were on hand to remove him from the train when it arrived in Philadelphia. He was arraigned before U.S. Commissioner Edward W. Furia.

'NOT A CRIMINAL'

Furia said of Pick, "I think he is sick, not a criminal." He added, "Unfortunately I can't commit him to a mental institution."

Furia then set the bail and held Pick for further hearing.

* * *

The FBI said Pick, who works as a parts assembler, has twice been in a mental hospital, in 1963 and 1964. Agents also said he had a record of petty arrests and was "well known" to the FBI in Newark as someone who made telephone threats.

Under a new law making it a crime to attempt to take the life of the President, Pick could face a maximum sentence of life in prison if convicted.

One 'Gunsmoke' Regular Is Hoping for 11 More Years

BY BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — " 'Gunsmoke' has been going for 11 years," observed Ken Curtis, "and I'd be perfectly delighted if it went on for another 11."

The grizzled Festus Haggen of the CBS Western added that he didn't speak for his fellow Gunsmokers, Jim Arness, Amanda Blade and Milburn Stone. After all, they have endured the entire 11 seasons; Curtis entered the scene as replacement for Dennis Weaver only three years ago.

If the regulars could bear up under the ordeal, it's entirely possible that "Gunsmoke" could last another 11 years. When Weaver left the team, it was feared his loss would hurt the show. Ratings stayed at a high mark.

When the series doubled to an hour's length, some predicted the beginning of the end. "Gunsmoke" kept rolling up the ratings, even with the competiton of half-hour returns on prime network time.

IN COLOR

Next season the show will appear in color and perhaps — according to rumor — at 90-minute length.

"I don't know how we'll manage that," said Curtis. "Obviously we'll need two companies, because the shows will require nine days to shoot, and there aren't that many days in the week. But I have an idea they'll figure it out. They always do."

* * *

Curtis's contentment is understandable. An authentic Westerner — he grew up on a Colorado ranch and his Pa was sheriff of Las Animas — Curtis came to Hollywood in 1938 as a singing cowboy. He had a run in Westerns such as "Don Daredevil Rides Again," later appeared in many of the films of his former father-in-law, John Ford.

Not only has Curtis found happiness with the scroungy Festus; together with Milburn Stone he has discovered the bonanza of personal appearances on the cow circuit. They comprise the hottest act for rodeos, averaging $5,000 a day in towns some of us have never heard of.

* * *

"Milburn and I shell corn by the bushel," Curtis admitted. "It's strictly a cornball act, but boy! They sure eat it up. We've got offers from every top rodeo including Cheyenne, which has not booked entertainers.

"We work hard for our money. Millburn is an old song-and-dance man, and I used to sing with the Sons of the Pioneers, so we know how to put on a show."
