

Gas Blast at Windsor Store Kills 10, Hurts 99

Tired Rescuers Probe Ruins for More Victims

Jack, Dick Fighting for Michigan Votes

Rain, Tottering Roof, Walls Add Danger, Difficulty to Search

WINDSOR, Ont. (P) — Tired, grimy rescue workers dug in rain-soaked ruins today for possible further victims of Tuesday's gas-triggered store explosion in which 10 or more persons died.

Seven bodies were recovered. Another person died in a hospital. Rescue crews worked through the night in near-freezing temperatures to free at least two more bodies which could be seen pinned beneath the rubble.

Other reports said there were three or more buried.

For a time today at the desolate scene rescuers paused in their work for fear a part of the store roof, hanging hinge-like, might fall in on them. Precautions were taken. Sagging wall portions were shored up.

At least 99 persons were treated for injuries Tuesday. Henry Bird, civil defense director for the area, said five store employees were unaccounted for.

"Everyone was screaming, everyone saying be quiet," said Mrs. J. A. Anderson of Windsor, one of about 150 customers and clerks who were in the Metropolitan Stores Ltd. building.

Mrs. Anderson said the mid-afternoon explosion "just shook the place, and all the lights went off all of a sudden." She said, "There was a big swirl as the air came back into the store, or something."

Store manager Joseph Halford, 31, said he was in the subbasement with Charles Ingram, a plumber, and Howard Schram, an electrician, when the blast occurred. The store's heating plant was being converted to gas.

"We decided to open the main (gas) line from the street," Halford said, "and all we got was air. And of a sudden the gas came through. I turned to leave the basement when it exploded."

Halford suffered burns on the face and hands and was reported in fair condition at a Windsor hospital.

A Detroit high school senior was driving his car out of the Detroit-Windsor tunnel, a few hundred yards across from the store, when the explosion occurred.

"People were running out sort of crazy-like, covered with blood," said Sheldon Gafan, 19, "There was this terrific blast. I drove my car through customs without stopping and left it in the middle of the street. The street was a ruin-storm of glass."

GRIM SEARCH CONTINUES — Rescue workers probe on into the night Tuesday through wreckage of the Metropolitan Department Store in downtown Windsor. An afternoon explosion, during shopping hours, killed at least 10 persons and injured 99. The disastrous blast was blamed on a natural gas leak.

President Hangs On to Report

Kennedy in State Now, Nixon Comes Thursday

WASHINGTON (P) — The White House refused today to make public a report which Democrats contend shows U.S. prestige abroad has declined.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty read newsmen a statement saying that Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and director George Allen of the U.S. Information Agency "have determined that this paper will not be made available outside the executive branch."

Making clear the White House backed up that stand, the statement said Herter and Allen had acted under policies approved by the President.

The report is understood to be one from USIA employees in the field, but its exact nature has never been officially disclosed.

Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the Democratic presidential nominee, has been on the campaign circuit contending the report supports his position that American prestige in the world has slipped. He has demanded that the document be made public.

His Republican rival, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, has said he has no objection.

But Hagerty said the document "is classified secret."

"What you are asking me about," he told reporters, as he read from words scribbled on a note pad, "is entitled an internal, low-level staff paper similar to many others that are periodically prepared by staff elements within the United States Information Agency for staff use. It is classified secret."

"Under policies approved by the President pertaining to internal working papers of the executive branch of the government, the secretary of state and the director of the United States Information Agency have determined that this paper will not be made available outside the executive branch."

Hagerty had been told that Thomas Roderick, a USA counsel, told Congress Tuesday that Allen was going to check with the White House for a decision on whether to withhold the report.

Hagerty was asked whether Allen had checked with the White House and what the decision was. The press secretary's short statement was the answer.

'Nixon Gains on Religion'

By JOHN KRAFT
(Special to The Pontiac Press)

Richard M. Nixon is gaining strength from the so-called "religious issue."

About one out of 10 people who have decided to vote for the vice president are quite outspoken in explaining their choice, according to the latest Kraft poll. In Southern Illinois, a grade-school teacher who has decided to vote for Nixon gave this reply:

"I'm terribly concerned about what is going to happen to this planet if our exploding population isn't somehow halted. Although I admire Mr. Kennedy personally, I cannot bring myself to believe that he would support birth control information for those poverty-stricken countries where it's desperately needed."

And down south, in North Carolina, a tobacco farmer couldn't have been more explicit. Pulling no punches, he said, "I don't want a Catholic in the White House." He would have to take orders from Rome. And in no time, every John in the bench would be Catholic, too."

When all the reasons for deciding to vote for Nixon are grouped, here's what emerges:

REASONS FOR NIXON

Nixon experienced 42%

Admire his team 36%

Better domestic platform 34%

Best at international relations 32%

Kennedy too young 17%

Religious issue 13%

Nixon likable 11%

Religion ranks sixth in this list of reasons for supporting a Republican ticket, but there's no denying that one out of 10 Nixon supporters felt no reluctance in discussing their opposition to the Democratic candidate on religious grounds.

But this one-in-10 pro-Nixon vote is offset by the people who were equally outspoken on this religious issue.

It's U.S. Move in Union Fight

Teamsters' Refusal to Submit Records May Touch Off Test of Law

The government was scheduled to take the offensive today in the court fight over the Department of Labor's subpoena of Pontiac Teamster Local 614 records in its investigation of possible violations of the new Landrum-Griffin labor reform act.

George E. Woods Jr., United States attorney, said he would file a petition in Detroit Federal Court demanding that the Union show cause why the disputed records shouldn't be turned over.

Local 614 and Local 299 in Detroit, home local of Teamster President James R. Hoffa, refused in court yesterday to open their 1958 records to inspection under the new labor act.

Federal Judge Fred W. Kaess had given the locals until 2 p.m. yesterday to surrender the records voluntarily.

The court action developed from a suit brought by the locals, challenging the constitutionality of the law.

If the court issues the show cause order and the Union-locals refuse to comply, it will probably develop a legal test of the law's constitutionality.

Her screens summoned a cousin, Carl Buxton, from his home across the street. He jacked the car up and extricated Washam's body.

Dr. John Harold, deputy coroner, estimated he had been dead about three hours.

KENNEDY

NIXON

DETROIT (P) — Sen. John F. Kennedy demanded again today that Vice President Richard M. Nixon release a secret government survey showing that 10 nations consider the United States is behind the Soviet Union in military strength.

The Democratic presidential candidate claimed the report has been suppressed to protect Nixon's assertions that American prestige is at an "all-time high."

He said, further, "the present administration has consistently followed a policy of suppressing important public information."

(However, the White House refused again today to make public a report on American prestige abroad. It is termed a low level staff paper similar to others that are prepared periodically.)

Kennedy said today in a speech delivered in Mount Clemens, that the Defense and State Departments, the International Cooperation Administration, which administers foreign aid, "and many other executive agencies have repeatedly refused the public free access to public information."

Even the Civil War Centennial Commission, he said, was given the authority to classify as secret some of its records.

"COMMITTEE BLOCKED"

A congressional committee was blocked from finding out why high bids were accepted and low bids rejected on some government contracts, Kennedy charged — and information sought about the administration of economic and technical aid in India, Laos, Pakistan and Bolivia was refused.

"This administration does not trust the people," Kennedy said. "It has kept the unpleasant truth from them in order to console them that, as Mr. Nixon says, they never had it so good."

In recent years the administration has classified (declared secret) three times as many documents as were classified in the entire previous history of American government."

Nixon told a mob of cheering crowd which filled the square in front of the Dayton, Ohio, courthouse, he believes his record as a member of the Eisenhower administration qualifies him for the nation's highest office.

The Dayton crowd was estimated at 20,000, about the same as Kennedy drew at last week's appearance there from the same platform.

With the aid of President Eisenhower, Nixon will shoot the political works in New York next Tuesday.

Then he will be joined by Eisenhower, vice presidential nominee Henry Cabot Lodge and GOP Sens. Jacob M. Javits and Kenneth B. Keating in what the Republicans hope will be New York City's biggest vote-tape reception. Nixon will star that night in a television appearance.

Castro's Cuba to Endure, MSUO Professor Says

By MAX E. SIMON

A Michigan State University Oakland professor indicted the nation's press Tuesday night for feeding a "false image" of South America to its readers.

Dr. Samuel Shapiro, 33-year-old assistant professor of history, told members of the MSUO faculty and administration that — all reports to the contrary — Castro's Cuba is here to stay.

"The Cuban papers may be muzzled under Fidel," Shapiro said, "but they tell the truth about their country more than American papers do."

He said coverage of that area by The Pontiac Press is superior to that of the other metropolitan dailies in the area.

Shapiro taught in Argentina last year under a Fulbright grant, and visited in Cuba during the summer. A specialist in Latin-American history, he described himself as a "not complete admirer" of the bearded leader.

Kefauver Blames Gold Rush on GOP

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver, D. Tenn., said Tuesday that London market speculation falsifying the price of gold was due to a "lack of confidence abroad in the Republican administration."

Kefauver said Sen. John F. Kennedy, Democratic presidential nominee, was not to blame. Vice president Nixon, Republican candidate, has said Kennedy had "brought fears over the future of the American dollar and that this was a major factor in the London market speculation.

"There is nothing in Mr. Kennedy's speeches to justify Mr. Nixon's charges," said Kefauver. "The reason is the increasing lack of confidence abroad in the Republican administration."

Santa Fe Road Eyes Western Pacific RR

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Santa Fe Railroad said it filed application with the Interstate Commerce Commission asking approval to acquire control of the Western Pacific Railroad through purchase and exchange of stock.

Ernest S. Marsh, president of the railroad, said that subject to ICC approval, Western Pacific stockholders will be offered 1 1/2 shares of Santa Fe common stock in exchange for each Western Pacific share.

Citizens League Tags Preferred Candidates

Opponents of some incumbent county officeholders — including Democrat James G. Kellis, congressional candidate — have been "preferred" in the annual election year ratings by the Oakland Citizens League, Inc.

Kellis, of Berkeley, retired Air Force officer who served in the Central Intelligence Agency, received the "preferred" tag over Republican Congressman William S. Broomfield, a veteran of four years in Washington.

Twenty-eight men and women interviewed candidates of the Republican and Democratic parties for 16 county offices, including two pending nonpartisan probate judge ships.

The organization said there was "no preference" between incumbent Prosecutor George F. Taylor and his Democratic opponent George J. Fulkeron, or between Drain Commissioner Daniel W. Barry and Roy J. Russell, a Democrat.

Surveyor candidates Ralph A. Main, the incumbent, and Stanley F. Dunn were not interviewed.

The League advocated "yes" votes on three state questions on the Nov. 8 ballot.

Mackinac City to Get New Shopping Center

MACKINAC CITY (UPI)—Aldwyn C. Wager and Rene Menard Jr., both of Harbor Springs, have announced plans for construction of a shopping and entertainment center here, with accommodations for as many as 41 shops.

The structure would be called "The Black Pagoda" and there would be a 75-foot-high pagoda surrounded by a center mall. Work is expected to start this fall.

Rep. Farrell E. Roberts, Republican, was selected over Democrat S. Jerome Bronson, Oak Park attorney, in the race for the county's 12th District seat in the State Senate being vacated by Lodge.

In District 1, Rep. Lloyd L. Anderson, a Republican, was preferred over his Democratic challenger Patrick M. Daly, a Waterford Township justice of the peace like Adams.

The committee rated as "no preference" the District 2 (Pontiac) contest between Rep. Arthur J. Law, a Democrat, and Richard I. Moore, Pontiac Republican.

Birmingham attorney and Republican Henry M. Hogan Jr. was favored over Democrat James M. McNeely of Milford in the District 3 race.

Rep. S. James Clarkson, D-Southfield, won the preferred selection in District 4 over his GOP opponent Raymond L. Baker.

Because District 6 Rep. John C. Hitchcock "did not cooperate" with the League, the committee could not make a comparison with his Republican opponent Robert J. Turner.

FRONT-PORCH POLITICS — Muncie, Ind., Democratic Rep. Randall S. Harmon, sometimes known as Front Porch Harmon, looks out of his latest campaign gimmick. He is capitalizing on national publicity over his charging the government rent for his front porch which he uses as an office. Executive Predicts Hike in Newspaper Rates

CHICAGO (AP)—A newspaper executive predicts that simple economics will compel more papers to raise their price to a dime a copy.

Arthur E. Hall, executive vice president of the Chicago Daily

News, said Monday the public for long has been getting a product that costs more to produce than the aggregate price of its sales.

"We put our product out each day, and have been doing it for so long, that readers and advertisers class us with death and taxes and rarely stop to worry much about our current troubles," Hall told the National Newspaper Promotion Association's regional convention.

A black granite statue of the head of Ramses II was discovered recently at Luxor. The 3,500 year old statue was intact, the features all clear-cut.

Study Finds Best Drivers Nonaggressive

Debunk Bad Driver-Broken Home Link

By PHYLIS BATTLE
NEW YORK — A man is a bad driver. He has a violent highway accident. The authorities investigate—discover he comes from a broken home. His father was an alcoholic and beat his mother. Does this mean that a person's sociological roots affect his driving skills?

"For 30 years we've thought so," said a Columbia University psychologist today. "How could we help it? We found so many violators who came from broken homes."

"But this year we examined the nation's safest drivers. In depth. And we found that about an equal percentage of good drivers as bad ones came from broken homes where pop was an alcoholic and beat up mama."

Dr. James L. Malfetti, director of a broad new program to discover what makes drivers safe indicated that this development—so contrary to a long-held theory—"proves we're on the right track in testing known safe drivers, rather than the violators."

"For too long we have taken our driving standards from misfits, and assumed anyone who could do better was doing all right. Now we're taking the pulse rather than negative approach, discovering new truths."

Out of nearly 300,000 of the nation's safest drivers (as recommended on their performance by the National Safety Council) Dr. Malfetti sifted the six "best" men.

He discovered certain characteristics that these men all had in common—the characteristics that made them exceptionally good autists.

They were as careful in running their lives as their cars. They bought nothing on the installment plan, for instance; never made purchases till they had the money. They had made plans for retirement long before the retirement date.

They were nonaggressive, yielded the right of way in their personal life as well as on the highway. No competitive or gambling spirit. They were so polite that it was a hard job getting them on an elevator, for instance; they'd let everyone get on first, and then look around for someone else to enter before them. When we tried to prod them into anger, they remained completely unfrustrated.

TROUBLE SURMOUNTED
"And they were happy men. As I say, some came from broken homes but they had overcome this psychologically."

Beyond the psychological observations on the safe driver, listed above, certain physical qualities were studied. "And what seems to be a most significant factor is the driver's ability to organize instantly all of the factors in a complex situation so that he does the appropriate and correct action immediately."

It is the efficiency of this high-speed 'computer mechanism' which separates the safe, average and unsafe driver.

Other discoveries:

Experience being equal, there is no difference between the potential of men and women to be safe autists. It is between the ages of 31 and 35 that a driver tends to perform at his safest.

And the intelligence of the individual appears to have a bearing on his propensity to drive safely. The persons at either end of the intelligence scale tend to cause problems on the road."

MSU Students Will 'Intern' in Legislature

LANSING UP — Two graduate political science students at Michigan State University will serve "internships" in the legislature under a new experimental program.

Chosen for the first assignment were Stephen V. Monna, 21, and William C. Spragens, 24, who both are working for doctor's degrees. The pair will supplement professional training with research, public relations and other work for legislative officials and committee chairmen.

The program financed from a special fund at MSU, is intended to lay the foundation for a five-year program of internships to be financed by the legislature and the Ford Foundation. The foundation has established similar programs in California and Wisconsin legislatures.

What's New in 'His-Hers' Private Planes

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI) — Neilman Marcus, which operates Dallas and Houston specialty stores patronized by many Texas millionaires, has mailed out its 1960 Christmas book and it features "hers" and "his" private planes.

The two planes—a seven-place Beechcraft Super G18 for "him" and a four-place Beechcraft Bonanza for "her" — are priced at a total of $176,000.

The Bonanza is white, with red trim, and there is a Russian white ermine jacket to match it. The jacket adds $2,975 to the bill.

Last year, the Neilman-Marcus Christmas book featured a 1,200-pound steer, available on the hoof or dressed, and a silver beef cart for $3,500. The stores sold three.

Rockets to Aid Storm Studies

Will Carry Cameras in Launchings to Help Conquer Hurricanes

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—Camera-carrying rockets will join planes next spring in tracking down the mysteries of tornadoes.

"It will be the most concentrated attack ever made on the study of severe storms," said Harry Wexler, head of meteorological research for the U. S. Weather Bureau. "More planes and equipment will be used than in even the hurricane study project."

Twenty-nine scientists from five government agencies are meeting in Kansas City to plan the program which will start March 1. Headquarters for the project will be Oklahoma City, Okla.

Special rockets will be launched from Ft. Sill, Okla., to photograph clouds from a height of 175,000 feet, said C. F. Van Thullen, project director.

Joining in the project are the Weather Bureau, Air Force, Navy, Federal Aviation Agency, and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

"It must be remembered that we are looking for something very small, very illusive and of short life when compared to a hurricane," Wexler said.

Areas Pounding at Catholicism

Kennedy Gets Report Protestant Pastors Talk Openly Against Him

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy received a report in Rock Island, Ill., Monday that he is being "murdered" in Minnesota on the religion issue, the Minneapolis Tribune said today.

William Rivkin, Chicago lawyer and Kennedy's liaison agent for Minnesota and Iowa, flew to Illinois to report on a county-by-county canvass of Minnesota.

The Tribune said Kennedy was told a number of Protestant ministers in Minnesota openly were working against Kennedy on the basis of his Catholic faith, that tens of thousands of anti-Catholic pamphlets were being distributed and that there was evidence that the campaign against a Catholic in the White House would reach a peak Sunday, "Reformation Sunday."

Rivkin's report also included Iowa, where he finds the religious issue cutting as deeply as in Minnesota, the story said.

Rivkin could suggest no step to special plea on the subject, it counteracted the religious feeling would only fan the religious feud, and said that if Kennedy made a ruling, the Tribune said.

HIGH HORSES — Looking down their noses at people passing by are these smooty horses who occupy a second-floor stable beneath a row of human-occupied apartments in a swank section of London near Hyde Park. Owned by the Civil Service Riding Club, the animals use a ramp to get to and from the street, and they don't seem to bother their upstairs neighbors.

Expect Record Vote of Americans Abroad

LONDON (AP) — More Americans living abroad are expected to vote in the approaching presidential election than ever before, but there is no reliable indication of which candidate they prefer.

One U.S. Embassy official said the submission of absentee ballots so far indicates at least half those eligible are using their franchise, in contrast with four years ago, when it was only a third.

There are three million potential voters living outside the United States.

Bertrand Russell Quits Disarmament Campaign

LONDON (AP) — Lord Russell, philosopher Bertrand Russell, resigned Monday as president of Britain's leftist campaign for nuclear disarmament after a row with its chairman, Canon John Collins of St. Paul's Cathedral. Russell said he believes, nonetheless, the campaign is doing good work and he will continue to support it.

The quarrel arose after Russell, 81, called for a campaign of civil disobedience and direct action to protest the H-Bomb. Collins, an officer of the established church, refused to join Russell's call.

APES GRAMPS — Gregory Scott Sorley, 5 months old, appears ready for his first three-alarm blaze as he looks down at his grandfather, fireman Guy Oliver of Indianapolis. Seems to be hoping for a hot time in the old town, doesn't he?

Wayne State Professor Dies in Naples Hotel

NAPLES, Italy (AP) — Valentino de Fazio, a teacher at Wayne State University, died here Tuesday of a heart attack. He was 40.

His body was found in a bedroom at the Metropole Hotel where De Fazio had been staying since his arrival here three weeks ago. Police said they found 750,000 lire ($1,200) and $16,000 hidden in a belt De Fazio wore under his jacket.

De Fazio came to Italy from the United States two months ago to visit his father, Bastilio, who lives in Accaria, a hamlet in the southernmost tip of Italy.

Dr. Pepper Co. Reports Near-7 Pct. Sales Hike

Dr. Pepper Co. president Wesley R. Parker Monday reported a net sales gain of nearly 7 per cent for the first nine months of 1960 over the like period of 1959. He said net income before taxes reached $1,073,312 or 80 7/10 cents per share after taxes as compared to 80 6/10 cents per share in 1959.

"The gain," Parker said, "was achieved in the face of a generally poor nine-month period with many major franchise companies' sales reportedly falling below last year's figures."

He said Dr. Pepper Co. opened 15 new markets in the period and that syrup sales rose nearly 6 per cent.

Directors declared a quarterly dividend of 15 cents per share of common stock. This marks the company's 124th consecutive quarterly dividend and is payable Dec. 1 to stockholders of record Nov. 18.

Both Candidates Pull International Boo-Boos

WASHINGTON (AP)—Each of the presidential candidates has pulled an international boo-boo: Vice President Richard M. Nixon on Quenyo and Matsuo; and Sen. John F. Kennedy on Cuba.

Nixon favored getting more deeply involved in the offshore islands than President Eisenhower was ever willing to permit and more than this country might go for in a showdown.

Kennedy's ideas—or some of them—on coping with Cuba's Fidel Castro would violate a treaty this country has with 20 other American republics by getting mixed up in Cuba's internal affairs.

If the candidates' dispute on these subjects proves anything, it's this:

1. That they've spent far more time discussing Cuba and Quenyo and Matsuo than those islands are worth in comparison with all the other problems which presidential candidates could be discussing at this moment.
2. The danger of presidential

Admits Anti-Kennedy Activity Among Masons

WASHINGTON (AP)—A spokesman for Scottish Rite Masonic lodges in 35 states today confirmed reports, that some state leaders of the order are urging defeat of Sen. John F. Kennedy for president because he is a Roman Catholic.

Norman S. Meese, aide to Grand Commander Luther A. Smith of Mississippi, said the state leaders have independent authority to act as they wish in the election campaign between Democratic Kennedy and Republican Vice President Richard M. Nixon, a Quaker.

"Although it is a fundamental tenet of the Scottish Rite movement that members are forbidden to engage in political activity or discussion within their lodges, Meese said, their actions outside are not circumscribed."

Meese said he is aware that Leslie M. Scott, sovereign grand inspector general in Oregon has sent letters to all Oregon members of Scottish Rite lodges urging them to vote against Kennedy. In other states, he said, similar activity has been undertaken. He did not say which states.

Roman Catholic priesthood seeks political power in America." It described Kennedy as "a loyal subject of the Vatican, bound to its mandates, to its designs of annulling American freedoms."

There are about 500,000 members in each of the Northern and Southern jurisdictions of the Scottish Rite Masons.

Husband-Wife Publisher-Editor Split Politically

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (AP)— Alicia Patterson, editor and publisher of Newsday, Tuesday endorsed Sen. John F. Kennedy for president.

At the same time, her husband, Harry F. Guggenheim, the newspaper's president and co-owner, announced his personal endorsement of Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The paper, which lists itself as independent, supported Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1952 and Adlai E. Stevenson in 1956.

In a signed editorial, Miss Paterson made it clear she was expressing the opinions of the newspaper in endorsing Kennedy.

Guggenheim, in a signed column opposite the editorial page, differed with the views expressed in the editorial.

In the 1940 presidential campaign there was a similar division in Newsday—with Miss Patterson supporting the late Franklin D. Roosevelt and Guggenheim supporting the late Wendell L. Willkie.

Japan Begins Trials of Demonstrators

TOKYO (AP)—A Japanese court today began trying the first group of demonstrators charged as a result of the violent demonstrations against the U.S.-Japan security treaty.

Nine leaders of the extreme-left Zengakuren-student federation — made up the first group. They were charged with trespassing last November with a mob that broke into the grounds of the Diet building.

The maximum penalty for the charge is three years in prison. Among those to be tried are persons accused of mobbing U.S. presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty June 10 at Tokyo Airport. The mobbing, from which Hagerty was rescued by helicopter, forced cancellation of President Eisenhower's visit to Tokyo.

Agricultural products account for 90 per cent of Pakistan's total exports.

So Abby Says: Don't Worry!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband was in the hospital for surgery. When he was too weak to shave himself he had a young nurse with a tight uniform shave him.

When he was able to walk around he could have shaved himself, but he still asked this young nurse with the tight uniform to shave him. I told him I could shave him if he couldn't do it himself, but he said I didn't know how. I know how as good as she did.

When he left the hospital he gave her a five-dollar tip and hugged her neck. Now he says he wants to go back to the hospital and visit his old roommate, but I think he wants to see this nurse.

He is 63 and so am I. Am I out of line for keeping him home?

DEAR JEALOUS: There's nothing wrong with building a snow fence before a blizzard hits, but I doubt if you have anything to worry about. It takes two to tango.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my mother and father. I am a 17-year-old boy and my brother is 15. My parents keep saying they want a little girl. Abby, when your mother is 44 and your father is 46, don't you think they should be satisfied with two boys?

THINK IT'S A SIN

DEAR THINK: Think again.

DEAR ABBY: Ever since I can remember I wanted to play piano. My father laughed at me and said music was for sissies. He tried to get me interested in sports, but I was never any good at it. (He was a good athlete.) I took piano lessons at school and stayed evenings to practice there.

When my mother bought me a spinet last Christmas I became the world's happiest boy. My father became the world's most disappointed man.

Abby, I love music and my teacher says I have talent. I know I have failed my father and I am sorry, but what can I do to make it up to him? I am 14.

BIG DISAPPOINTMENT

DEAR BIG DISAPPOINTMENT: You haven't "failed" your father. Your father has failed you. We are not all cast from the same mold. The world needs Beethoven as well as baseball. Do the best you can with the talents you have, and don't feel guilty.

CONFIDENTIAL TO BIG FRAT MAN AT THE "U": Don't waste money on a fraternity pin. It's diaper pins you'll be needing.

Don't Swallow Pills, Just Swallow Life

By RUTH MILLETT

Life Magazine can boast the most charming cover girl of 1960 in its recent cover photograph of Grandma Moses, taken in honor of her 100th birthday.

There she is with her eyes as bright and merry as a child's wearing a dress almost as colorful as the pictures she paints, with a lei of flowers around her neck and a nosegay in her hand.

It's a picture to inspire any woman — not with the promise of youth that can be bought at beauty shops or found in bottles, or in the kind of serenely promised by tranquilizers, or of the kind of fame that can sometimes be arrived at by elbowing one's way to the top.

No, the birthday portrait of Grandma Moses suggests as plainly as words: The way to live to be a bright-eyed, happy-faced old lady is to be so interested in living and doing and being that you don't have time to grow old.

The way to cultivate tranquility is not by taking pills but by taking life as it comes: working hard when there is work to be done, taking pleasure in the beauty all around you, putting your talents to work for your own pleasure and — if you are lucky — for the pleasure of others, and having the optimism of a woman who can say with a twinkle in her eye on reaching one hundred years, "I'll just have to start all over again."

I, for one, am tempted to frame that birthday picture of Grandma Moses and put it on my desk to remind me that a woman can sparkle at 100 — if she is still interested in the people and the world and the life around her, that "hidden talent" can be brought forth and nourished at any age, and that the greatest sin against oneself is to endure life instead of reaching out to make the most of every happy moment along the way.

Mrs. Charles Matson, Mrs. H. W. Chapman, Mrs. C. J. Morgan Jr. and Mrs. J. F. Williams assisted the hostess.

Mrs. Robert McDougall of Atlanta, Ga. was a guest.

Many Hedge on Sacrifice

Most Teens Want College

By EUGENE GILBERT

President,

Gilbert Youth Research Co.

Most high school students want to go to college, but they begin hedging when you mention the possibility that they might have to make sacrifices.

We discovered this when we questioned 1,042 teen-agers about their college plans and ambitions.

Nine out of 10 of the youngsters say they hope to enter college, and almost that many — 38 per cent — say they expect to make it.

But only about six in 10 say they would give up such things as summer vacation, dating, sports and running around with friends if it were necessary to pave the way toward college entrance.

But one thing they would cut down on is television.

RELY ON PARENTS

Most of the youngsters expect Mom and Dad to pay all or most of the bill, which they figure will come to something like $1,000 to $2,000 a year — which on the face of it seems a bit on the side of wishful thinking.

In expressing their hope to attend college, most of the youngsters agree with 17-year-old Lisa Bourkard of Tampa, Fla., who says: "It is becoming more and more necessary to have a college education in order to get a good job."

But some have other reasons. "I don't want to go out and work," says Larry Kosowsky, 18, of Brooklyn, N.Y.

And Patti MacKauf of Miami Beach says: "I want to get an education and get married."

While most of the youngsters are confident they will be accepted by the college of their choice, only 41 per cent are satisfied they have studied as hard as they could.

"I am not putting best efforts forward as I should," said Cheryl Faragah, 16, of Freehold, N.J., to whom we talked before school let out. "Too many other activities interfere."

Lawrence Rockwell, 18, of Tampa, Fla., said "no need to do so."

Only 50 per cent would sacrifice their summer vacation — 61 per cent of the boys and 56 per cent of the girls. Only 59 per cent would cut down on their dating — 63 per cent of the boys and 55 per cent of the girls.

Only 58 per cent would cut down on sports — 63 per cent of the boys and 53 per cent of the girls — and only 41 per cent would cut down on their conversations with friends.

Eighty-one per cent — 86 per cent of the boys and 75 per cent of the girls — would be willing to reduce their TV watching time if it were necessary.

The boys appear to be a little more willing to sacrifice than the girls. Many agree with Steve Gould, 15, of Webster Groves, Mo., who says, "I am willing to do anything to get into college."

Most of the youngsters have definite ideas about how they will finance their college educations.

OPTIMISTIC ON COSTS

But first a look at costs: Sixteen per cent believe they can get by on less than $1,000 a year; 25 per cent think their education will cost from $1,000 to $1,500 a year; 20 per cent from $1,500 to $2,000; and 12 per cent from $2,000 to $3,000.

Six per cent plan to spend more than $3,000 a year, while 21 per cent say they have no idea of the cost. Most experienced parents would regard these figures as pretty optimistic.

More than half of the youngsters expect their parents to pay from three quarters or more of the cost. Sixteen per cent expect to lean on their parents for half the cost, while 11 per cent expect less than half.

Eight per cent say their education will cost their parents nothing, and 13 per cent don't know.

Only 2 per cent expect to borrow money to finance their educations.

Scholarships play a very small part in the college plans of most high school students, it seems.

Sixty-seven per cent of the youngsters expect no help from scholarships and 13 per cent don't know whether they will get help of this kind.

Only 1 per cent expect to get complete scholarships; 3 per cent expect scholarships to provide more than 75 per cent of the cost, 4 per cent expect scholarships to provide half the cost, and 12 per cent expect some help — but less than half — from this source.

Among the college-bound teenagers, 57 per cent will attend out-of-town schools while 33 per cent will attend home-town colleges and live at home. Ten per cent aren't sure.

Many who wish to go away feel a problem. I feel their help is my wings and get away completely so I will not have the security that parents can get you out and help you out whenever you have a problem. I feel their help is wonderful, but I want to find what I can do on my own."

But 16-year-old Judith Murrow of Flushing, N.Y., will live at home and hit his FIVE-instructions because "I don't want my parents to spend too much money."

Try Swansdown Puff for Soft Natural Look

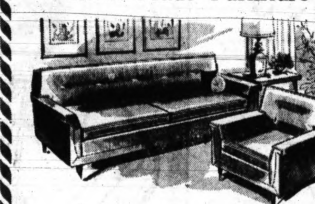

(NEA)—One of the very best helps to a beautiful skin is the powder puff that's made of swansdown.

There are many reasons for this. It fluffs the powder onto the skin rather than rubbing it in. Thus it neither spreads grime nor creates wrinkles. (A soiled powder puff is the origin of a good many skin troubles.)

It enables you to fluff on lightly and swiftly two dustings of powder which create a beautiful veil for the skin. Women who use an eyebrow pencil will find that the swansdown puff gives the penciled brow a far more natural look since it removes any trace of hardness or artificiality.

Many women regard the swansdown-puff as a fluff-piece of frivolity, pretty to look at but expensive out of all proportion. Actually, it's a very sound investment. It holds its shape and is really very durable. It's both long-lasting and washable.

Let Child Be Free to Draw Impressions

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

That evening we had a roomful of young artists—talented, serious, hard-working students of our local university's school of painting. But when I brought in the coffee and strudel, I waited to serve it because they were involved in a violent argument.

That morning in life class their teacher had called a fellow student's work an "abomination" and told her to take up bookkeeping.

"I still say that Professor Viviani should have taken Jancy aside to tell her a thing like that," protested a girl.

"Why?" demanded a boy hotly. "What's the sense of his letting her kid herself? Did you even wait her work? She can't make a free, sweeping brushstroke on canvas to save her life."

"Everything she paints is stiff and dead. Knowing rows of numbers in neat little lines is exactly what she ought to be doing!"

"She once told me that she'd been raised on coloring books," another girl said. "You know the kind that outlines pictures of clowns or seals balancing balls on their noses that kids fill in with crayons or water color."

There was an apalled silence. Then someone said, "What does parents can do to kids? If you ever had any talent, those things would be enough to wreck it."

That is an opinion I recalled this week upon receiving a review copy of a new kind of coloring book for children. Titled The Poetry-Drawing Book, its pages are blank except for delightful little verses chosen by editors William Cole and Julia Calmore to evoke intriguingly paintable images in your youngsters' imagination. One goes like this:

"When a Robin cocks his head sideways in the flower bed He can hear the tiny sound of worms beneath the ground."

If your child enjoys using crayons and water color, you might inquire about it at your bookstore. A painter's talent is not to reproduce the world around him but to recreate it. To recreate what he has seen a talented child should not be restricted to the outlined drawings of what other people have painted. Images in your young-

Just Ask Her to Look Over Silver

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: Recently the daughter of our next door neighbor was married. She had a rather large reception at home. One evening shortly before the wedding the mother came over and asked if she might borrow our punch bowl and some silver.

My husband and I entertain a great deal and have an ample supply of silver. I was only too glad to help out. The day after the wedding the bride's mother came over and returned the things she had borrowed. After she left and I was putting the silver back in the silver chest, I noticed that two forks and a spoon were missing.

I am very much upset over this and don't know how to bring up the subject to my neighbor without question to accuse her. Will you help me?

Answer: Just ask her please to look through her own silver to see if your missing forks and spoon were put away with it by mistake.

Dear Mrs. Post: Two of the girls with whom I work sent me a very pretty nightgown while I was in the hospital. I wrote a thank-you note and sent it to one of the girls. At the bottom of the note I asked her please to send the note to "Mary" after she had finished reading it. I understand "Mary" was hurt over this and feels that she received "second hand thanks. Will you please tell me if what I did was wrong?

Answer: Yes, you should really have sent a note to each of them. If they had felt together, one note addressed to them both would have been sufficient.

Dear Mrs. Post: I am involved in a question of courtesy which I would like you to settle if you will. The question is: When going through a revolving door should the man go first so that he may push the door, which is quite heavy, for her?

Answer: She gets in first and he pushes it around to the next compartment where he gets in. From this he can control the speed of the door and quite easily let her out.

Dear Mrs. Post: The other day a woman came into our flower shop to order some flowers. I was waiting on her when a telephone call came in from another customer who asked to speak to me.

The person who answered the telephone came over and told me about it, and I excused myself to the customer. I was waiting on and took the call. When I returned, she was very indignant for my having left her to "wait" on someone else.

She thought I was very discourteous to her and left the shop in a huff. Will you please tell me if I was wrong?

Answer: It was not wrong of you to leave your customer to go to the telephone and talk briefly on business with your other customer who asked to speak to you.

Cashless Society Near

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — The new catalogue of my favorite mail order house has a special item: A red cowhide wallet with windows for 80 credit cards. And no space for cash.

This is completely in line with current trends. The American dollar is obviously on its way to obsolescence. Soon it may be like the English guinea — they know what it stands for, but nobody ever sees one. The British, in fact, don't make guineas any more, although they still quote prices in terms of this old monetary unit.

At the moment, the last bastions of cash seem to be parking meters, five-and-dime stores and supermarkets. And even the supermarkets are adjusting to a cashless society. Most have established a check-cashing facility near their "in" door. Then the cash is collected at the check-out counters. But at least "shopping" houses have a chance to see greenbacks while taking their whirl around the shelves.

VULGAR GREENBACKS

But it is the males who are really having it rough. As is well known, in some circles it is now considered not only crass, but staid and revealing to handle a restaurant tab with vulgar greenbacks. The man who would be considered by his peer group to be a cosmopolitan, a sophisticated leader finds that out.

about any place he might land so he can sign with a flourish. It is increasingly possible to get along almost indefinitely without money. You get your salary check with the taxes, social security, pension fund, hospitalization, insurance already removed, and you even can have your savings automatically deducted. The check does go intact into one's checking account. One signs and charges all month and eventually comes the day of reckoning, consisting of writing checks.

All this is likely to change, however, particularly with the problems of transporting all those cards. If one must carry a bulky case containing up to 160 embossed, decorated cards of unyielding cardboard, somebody is going to rediscover flexible slim money.

Just think back how handy greenbacks are. A $100 bill doesn't weigh an ounce more than a $1 bill. And users need not go to the bother later of writing checks, gluing envelopes and buying a cosmopolitan, a sophisticated leader finds that out.

'For by Their Works Ye Shall Know Them'

What Makes a Camera Click?

The men in the picture above are rarely seen by newspaper readers. But their work often is. They're the photographers traveling with Democratic presidential candidate John F. Kennedy. Eleven of them are perched atop a caravan car — a typical working position.

Results of their efforts include: (top center) Kennedy hopping from a car hood over the windshield — the quickest way back in — during campaigning at Joliet, Ill. At top right, an Elgin, Ill. guard in the Kennedy caravan gets caught off guard and bumped into the car as the crowd surges forward.

A scene that has become familiar to Kennedy lensmen is his attraction for teen-age girls (lower left). This young girl who took a dive across the auto's hood to shake the candidate's hand was the Elgin crowd. As part of every campaign, there's the inevitable campaign speech. The camera caught Kennedy gesturing (lower right) as he spoke to 10,000 in front of the Aurora, Ill. City Hall. The photographers were snapped on their car-top perch at Davenport, Iowa.

Some showed signs of near exhaustion after clinging to the car for dear life as it turned and swayed along.

Mental Care Hospital Observes 50th Year

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. — Pine Rest Christian Hospital Tuesday celebrated its 50th anniversary with a formal program noting its prominence as a leader among private mental-care institutions. Administered by a nonprofit corporation, the hospital's $1,500,000 annual operating budget comes in part from contributions by members of Reformed and Christian churches.

The institution, located in suburban Cullerville, is the nation's largest church-oriented mental hospital and third largest private mental hospital.

Arthur S. Flemming, United States secretary of health, education and welfare, took part in the celebration as principal speaker. He also carried a message from President Eisenhower commending the hospital on its 50-year record.

Indiana Suffers in Highway Scandal

(Editor's Note: In a program involving acquisition of real estate of land and the award of bonuses of contracts, our people are likely to crop up. This second of four articles based on a five-month investigation of the federal highway program turns the spotlight on some of its darker corners.)

By BEN PRICE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sooner or later Congress will lift the lid on the nation's greatest highway program in history, probably after the November election.

And there's no doubt that some phases of the $4-billion program could stand a thorough airing.

Generally, progress is being made on a broad front, and good roads are being built at reasonable cost. But there have been retreats and defeats in some sectors — occasionally spectacular ones.

Where difficulties exist, an on-the-spot investigation of several months indicates they often revolve around land acquisition and sometimes around contract awards and contract performance. There have been instances of complete road failures and, to use a highway engineer's term, "distressed" roads that need repair shortly after completion.

SPECULATION FRAUD
For weeks House investigators have had reports from West Virginia, Florida, and Massachusetts which point toward land speculation and fraud.

In West Virginia, certain contractors reportedly charged the state for road building materials that did not actually go into the roads.

The Florida report deals with conflict of interest cases and around Miami there are reports of speculation in land for rights-of-way.

But this is not all. A special Florida legislative committee heard accusations at a public hearing that at least eight state highway department employees had been taking under-the-table payments from a Tampa road building firm, Cone Brothers.

Upon learning of the Florida hearing, the Federal Bureau of Public Roads announced Oct. 21 it had suspended federal highway aid payments on all projects in which the Cone Brothers are involved. The bureau said it did not yet know how much money was involved but had launched a full-scale investigation of the entire Cone Brothers operations.

The Department of Justice now has the 200-page report of a consulting firm hired by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads to investigate Massachusetts.

STRONG PRESSURES

A covering letter on the still-secret report indicates strong pressures were exerted to have land appraisers place unjustified values on selected properties. These properties were on rights-of-way acquired by Massachusetts for the nation's super-highway program.

Standard procedure in right-of-way acquisition for the interstate program is for the states to pay for the land, then submit a claim for reimbursement to the federal government for 90 per cent of the cost.

No Massachusetts claim for right-of-way reimbursement has been honored by the federal government since last January.

In Indiana, site of the now well-known 1957 scandal, rumors still circulate of secret "deals" among politicians, businessmen and contractors.

Any effort to check these hidden relationships leads ultimately to the Indiana Department of Securities, which keeps a record of major stockholders in Indiana firms. There the check ends. The department's records are secret.

HAVEN? MANPOWER

A staff member of the House subcommittee on the federal aid program was asked why the Indiana rumors hadn't been investigated. "There have been so many and they are so complicated," he replied, "that we just haven't had the manpower to do it."

The original Indiana scandals resulted in the indictment of two top aides to former Gov. George Craig on charges of conspiring to bribe Virgil W. Smith, highway commission chairman, in connection with the purchase of highway equipment.

Smith began serving a prison sentence of 2 to 14 years last month after conviction on a charge of soliciting and accepting bribes. Three others connected with this case and another involving charges of conspiracy to embezzle $28,000 in state funds, to speculate in rights-of-way have been convicted but are free on appeal bonds.

There were also indictments against three Carpenters' Union officials and Harry Doggett, former state right-of-way official, for conspiring to sell land to the state at a $81,000 profit. Their trial now is under way after almost three years delay. One of the officials is Maurice Hutcherson, Carpenters' Union president.

A state investigation of land purchases uncovered five property owners along Indianapolis' Madison Avenue Expressway who were paid $117,350 for land not needed for the road.

500 CASES IN COURT

State Atty. Gen. Edwin K. Steers has over 500 land condemnation cases pending in court. Steers estimated in an interview that it costs Indiana $2,500 to try a land case, mostly because the state pays independent fee appraisers $50 to $150 a day each for a court appearance. The cases rarely last less than two days, and three appraisers usually have to testify.

Juries in Indiana have had an almost unbroken record of granting large awards since 1927.

Here are three cases picked at random from court files.

Case 21133, Boone County, Lincoln Memorial Gardens, plaintiff. The state offered $570 for a piece of property. Court appraisers fixed the value at $14,320. The jury awarded $23,600.

Case 9036, Jackson County, Elmo J. Briner, plaintiff. The state offered Briner $12,711. Court appraisers set the property's value at $21,673. The jury awarded $28,475.

Case 31963, Clark County, James E. Hawes, plaintiff. The state offered $2,887. Court appraisers fixed the value at $5,529. The jury awarded $10,750.

CONDONE HIGH FEE

Why? Steers asked Judge John M. Lewis of the Jackson Circuit Court for his opinion.

"It is not mentioned in any case," Lewis wrote, "but due to the great publicity given the Madison Avenue affair, 75 per cent of the people in this county feel Welsh doesn't mention highways.

Gov. Handley observed, "All that could have been said was that the program would be continued and expanded. Why emphasize the obvious?"

In the election campaign, one of Welsh's main talking points has been the need to move faster and more efficiently on highway construction.

GOP DUMPS CHAIRMAN

Early in the campaign the Republicans dumped the present highway commission chairman, John Peters.

Peters sought nomination as state treasurer. Literally at the last minute Gov. Handley's aide, Robert E. Hughes, filed against Peters at Parker's behest and was nominated.

The latest Bureau of Public Roads report, listing figures as of June 30, 1960, credits Indiana with 12 miles of superhighways, completed to full or acceptable standards, and 1,439 miles of secondary, primary and urban roads built or improved.

The same report credits neighboring Illinois with 97 miles of superhighways and 3,307 miles of improvement or new construction in primary, secondary and urban roads.

Indiana's neighbor on the other side, Ohio, shows up in the report with 281 miles of superhighways and 1,341 miles of primary, secondary and urban road improvements or new construction.

Customarily there is a paper-work lag between the time a road is finished and appearance in the Bureau of Roads "completed" column. Parker has said during his campaign that Indiana will have finished 124 miles of superhighways by the end of this year.

The federal figures, however, are the most authoritative available comparison of the three states as of four months ago.

Says Venezuela Riots Crushed

Betancourt Claims That Mobs Seek to Impose Methods of Cuba

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—President Romulo Betancourt claimed Tuesday night that after six days of riots, his armed forces have crushed revolutionaries trying to impose "Cuban methods" in Venezuela.

Army patrols were ordered into the streets of Caracas after demonstrators massed in downtown areas and cheered the Soviet Union and Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro. Troops all over the country were ordered to break up demonstrations.

By Tuesday night Caracas was heavily patrolled, tense but quiet. The days of unrest left one killed, 35 wounded and 99 jailed. Riots also occurred at the airport of Coro, in western Venezuela. Ciudad Bolivar, in the east, and in Valle de la Pascua, in Guayana State.

Betancourt closed all Caracas schools. He said boys had been drawn into demonstrations by the leftists, and "the police could not move against 12- and 13-year-old boys."

Goldfish Survive Windsors Blast in Fishbowl

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP)—Two near-victims of an explosion and fire which destroyed a Metropolitan department store in downtown Windsor Tuesday appeared to be resting comfortably in a fishbowl.

The blast killed and injured several.

Photographer Bill Bishop of the Windsor Star found two goldfish in the basement of the demolished building.

They were swimming in a tiny pot filled with water which they shared with lumps of plaster and broken glass. They were apparently blown into the pot from a smashed aquarium.

The two—nicknamed 'Hell-Belle and Lucky George—were in good condition apart from a few missing scales.

7 Arabs Sent to Jail in Two-Year Spy Trial

HAIFA, Israel (AP)—Seven Israeli Arabs were sentenced Tuesday to prison terms of 2 to 14 years in a spy trial that lagged along for almost two years. Most of the seven were charged with spying for the United Arab Republic, passing information, conspiring to help the enemy and illegal arms possession.

Q. Is there such a thing as "lung worms" in a dog? How are they treated?—Becky Pizillo of Cleveland.

A. Common to the worm problem is among dogs, lung worms occur less frequently, thank goodness. The irritated lungs will cause the dog to cough, and the animal will usually show a pronounced loss of weight.

Diagnosis can only be made after the dog has coughed up the worms, re-swallowed them, and the worm eggs are present in the stool.

We're not too positive about the life-cycle of this type worm, and until recently we could only attack the problem while the worm was in the intestine. We now have a new drug that is given by injection and is showing fine success in coping with this trouble.

Ex-Ambassador Asks 5th Debate

Cuban Diplomat Says Whole Hour Needed to Talk on Castro Policy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Arthur Gardner, former U.S. ambassador to Cuba, said Tuesday that proposals by Sen. John F. Kennedy, D-Mass., for overthrowing the Fidel Castro regime "could easily result in war."

"Even if somehow war could be avoided over Cuba, incidents of a highly provoking nature would be multiplied and world tensions greatly increased," Gardner added in a statement.

Gardner urged that a fifth debate between Republican presidential candidate, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, and Kennedy, the Democratic nominee, be "limited to a discussion of Cuba."

"This subject is too difficult and too complex to be handled in the five or six minutes allotted to each of the issues in the debates so far," Gardner said.

Congressional testimony by Gardner, who was ambassador to Cuba from 1953 to 1957, and Earl T. Smith, another Republican-appointed ambassador, has been widely used by Kennedy and other Democrats during the current campaign.

Both Gardner and Smith told the Senate Internal Security subcommittee that warnings from them about Castro's prior associations had been ignored by the State Department and the Eisenhower administration.

Gardner said Kennedy "has proposed that the United States adopt a policy of supporting those who seek to overthrow a Latin American government which is unfriendly to us."

"Such an approach has a superficial appeal to those whose patience with Castro is exhausted," he continued. "It cannot help but dismay those who have been seeking, through patience and wise conduct, to overcome for all time distrust of the United States which for so many years led our southern neighbors to label us 'Yankee imperialists.'"

Dem Says Woman 'Smears' Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic National Chairman Henry M. Jackson said Tuesday the Republicans "have adopted the astounding device of hiding behind a woman's skirts to launch the most vicious underhanded attack imaginable" on Sen. John F. Kennedy.

Jackson hit in a statement at an assertion by Mrs. Styles Bridges, wife of Republican senator from New Hampshire, that Kennedy, the Democratic presidential candidate, "has a very, very soft record on communism."

Addressing the Bedford, N.H., Republican Women's Club Monday night, Mrs. Bridges also said:

"This man (Kennedy) is not a Communist—at least I don't think he is a Communist—but his record is soft."

Jackson, calling this a vicious smear, said it was a desperation effort to save Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon from defeat.

He said it was inconceivable that Mrs. Bridges would say this without clearing it with her husband, whom he called Nixon's top strategist.

Predicts Big Margin for Kennedy in N.Y.

NEW YORK (AP)—Time magazine says that Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, "stands to carry New York State by a margin ranging from 250,000 to 500,000 votes."

The Oct. 31 edition of the magazine said the conclusion was based on soundings by time correspondent John L. Steele in New York City, its suburbs and upstate.

The magazine said "Republican tradition goes with" Vice President

Richard M. Nixon, the Republican nominee, "update, but the issues of recession and religion are against him in cities where Catholics are many and jobs are scarce."

The state is traditionally Republican in presidential races, though native son Franklin D. Roosevelt won its 45 electoral votes four times, the magazine added. Dwight D. Eisenhower won the state from Adlai Stevenson in 1956 by a 15-million vote margin.

Flavored bread crumbs had sales of $10 million in 1959 and may reach $15 million by the end of 1960.

Reds Brag on Radio of Suppliant U.S.

TOKYO, (UPI)—Communists in China and North Korea Tuesday celebrated the 10th anniversary of China's entry into the Korean War with boasts of their victories over U.S. imperialism.

Both nations, in a series of speeches reported by the Communist New China News Agency and broadcast by the Peiping Radio, said the United States launched the war and "was forced to sign the armistice."

Observers in Tokyo saw more in the joint celebrations than just another propaganda attack on the United States. They believed it was a major effort by the Peiping government to win support from North Korea for its own brand of communism.

Dr. Norton was a one-time coordinator of music in Flint public schools and executive secretary of the Flint Community Music Association.

Jack Should Be Elected, Says His Mother Rose

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI)—Mrs. Rose Kennedy, mother of Democratic standard bearer Sen. John F. Kennedy, said Tuesday her son was "a very normal boy who should be elected president of the United States."

Mrs. Kennedy was in Grand Rapids to campaign for her son. It was part of her tour through Michigan.

Poor' Man Finds He's Very Rich

By DAVE DILES

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP) — Louis Zebic, 34, is a poor man and he has no room in his little home for tragedy.

He never complained about the poverty that beset him. Three years of unemployment, living on meager welfare checks, had not blighted his spirit.

A foot that pained him constantly because of an old bone injury did not mean that Louis Zebic had to feel sorry for himself.

The metal worker had come to Canada seven years ago from his native Yugoslavia. He wanted a better life for himself and for his children.

He and his wife, Edith, 35, had managed to keep the family together. That was the important thing. There was Debbie, 7, and Chico, 6. They were at St. Alphonsus school Tuesday afternoon.

Louis and his wife took Zora, 4, Tommy, 3, and Polly, 18 months, into downtown Windsor for some shopping.

Louis, 5'6", tall, sallow-checked man, left his wife and children in front of the department store where she planned to buy socks. He walked a few doors down the street to buy the meat for their supper.

"BETTER GO HOME"

Four hours later, Zebic told a newsman, "I guess we might as well go home. There's nothing else for me to do."

Tears cascaded down Zebic's face. A newsman heard his story and suggested they visit the three hospitals where the blast victims were taken.

"At each hospital the story was the same: 'Sorry, no one by that name here.' Zebic was near collapse. He could barely speak. They went home but the door was locked. Neighbors had not seen his family. He hurried back to the scene of the disaster. Zebic waited and watched. Then another check of the hospitals.

"Now it was 6 p.m. Slowly, Zebic trudged back to the automobile. "I guess we might as well go home," he said. "There's nothing else for me to do."

The drive home took about 10 minutes in heavy traffic.

"I guess we might as well go home," he said. "There's nothing else for me to do."

The lights were on in the house. Zebic bolted from the car and nearly tripped over a tricycle and a toy wagon.

He burst through the front door. Three children were seated on a couch. Debbie was thumbing through a book. Chico was munching on a cookie. Zora was looking at pictures of little dolls. Tommy was jumping up and down on a bed in the next room, playing with Polly's talcum powder.

Zebic wept and hugged each of his children.

"God bless, God bless," he cried in broken English. "You are all sweetie-pies, that is one thing for sure."

An unborn child saved the Zebic family. Mrs. Zebic started into the department store. She hesitated, then decided to go next door to the women's shop to try on a maternity dress she knew she could not afford.

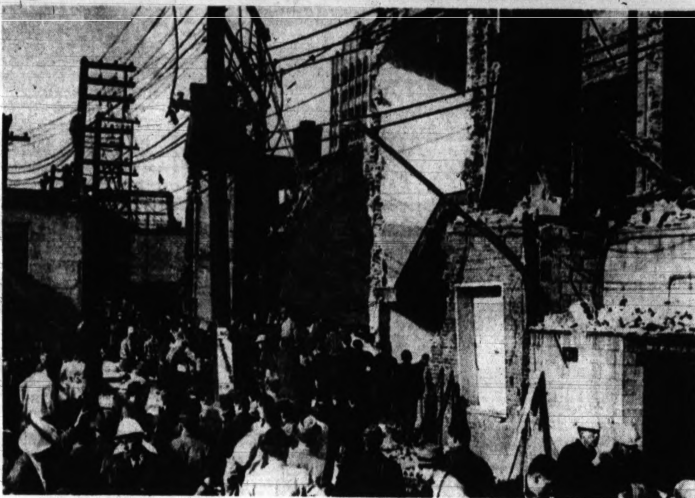

She was in the fitting room when the department store was rocked by the blast that took at least 10 lives and injured 99 others.

"God is wonderful," said Zebic. "God did all this. He saved us."

BACK WALL CRUMPLES — Here is the rear of the Metropolitan Store building in Windsor after two floors of the building collapsed Tuesday afternoon. The entire rear of the building blew out, injuring 99 persons and killing at least 10. Fallen wires behind the store caused several small fires, adding to the chaos.

HEART OF DISASTER — Rescue workers take a body up a ladder while other workers begin lifting a woman (circled) out of the debris at the downtown Windsor Metropolitan Department Store Tuesday afternoon. Building Commissioner Pat MacGuire said there is every indication that a gas explosion occurred.

SCENE IN FRONT — A crowd gathers in front of the Metropolitan Department Store in downtown Windsor after a blast had wrecked the building. The store is on Windsor's main street, Quennette, across from the tunnel exit.

Rescue Hero Tells His Story

Police Laud Ambulance Official for Help in Windsor Blast

WINDSOR, Ont. (UPI) — Wally Ballantyne, an ambulance service official, was one of the first persons at the scene of the explosion-crumbled department store in downtown Windsor and was hailed by police as one of the heroes of the rescue operation.

Ballantyne, covered with blood and feeling "83 instead of 38" years old, finally was ordered to rest by doctors who found him exhausted after hours of digging through the rubble for the dead and injured.

This is his story:

"It was the worst thing I ever saw in my life. We were called at 2:20 p.m. and when I got to the scene, glass and litter was all over the street outside the store.

"People were lying in the street and on the sidewalk, bleeding and bleeding. We took care of as many of the injured outside the store as possible, then went inside.

"I could hardly breathe. The store was filled with the odor of gas. People were screaming and moaning. Some of them were pinned under huge chunks of plaster. We could hear their voices, but it took a long time to reach some of them.

"Doctors were in the building giving pain relief shots and priests were giving last sacraments. No one took time to worry about his own danger.

"Some of the victims were hanging from rafters. There were a lot of toy dolls scattered around the basement and sometimes we'd dig out what we thought was a child and it turned out to be a doll.

"There was three feet of water in the basement and so many injured we didn't know where to start.

"In my business you try to prepare for this kind of thing. But you can't. When it happens, it's terrible. It shakes you."

Life insurance owned in the United States at the start of 1960 totaled 334 billion dollars, more than double the figure of 10 years ago.

REMOVE VIKTUM — Grim faced rescue workers carry an injured man from Windsor's downtown Metropolitan Department Store, which was rocked by an apparent gas explosion Tuesday afternoon. Ten are dead, with 99 injured.

HELP INJURED MAN — A policeman and an unidentified man assist an injured man after a blast had blown out the entire rear wall of the Metropolitan Store in downtown Windsor Tuesday afternoon.

RAISES RARE DEER — Springfield Township resident Dale Wilder feeds one of the four Japanese Sika deer he raises as a hobby and for an attraction at his "new, used and abused merchandise" business on the Dixie Highway. Wilder, owner of the Whoopee Bowl, also raises white squirrels.

Collects Pets, Knickknacks at Whoopee Bowl on Dixie

By JIM LONG
SPRINGFIELD TOWNSHIP — Dale Wilder is a collector, quite a collector in some respects, very haphazard in others. He'll search for years trying to find a particular rare animal he can breed for a hobby, but again not always sure from one minute to the next just what strange items have accumulated at his place of business.

Wilder, 50, is a junkman with a knack for raising unusual animals. The junkman tag doesn't upset Wilder at all. However, the reference to the 50,000 odds and ends on sale at his establishment is another story.

"It's new, used and abused merchandise, but never junk," said Wilder with a genuine sense of imagination.

While Wilder raises animals as a hobby the creatures also serve as an attraction for his business on the Dixie Highway, The Whoopee Bowl.

Currently, the stars of Wilder's menagerie are four Japanese Sika deer that romp over a large area of fenced-in property adjacent to the Whoopee Bowl.

Unlike deer of this country, the animals, instead of taking long strides when running, actually spring up and down, uncoupling forward with each motion.

Wilder purchased a pair of the animals from a Massachusetts breeder six years ago.

WHITE SQUIRRELS

white squirrels, true albinos, him at a rate of two truckloads a day.

"As far as I know they were bred in Ohio, Ind., but somewhere along the line someone has got their stories mixed because only last week I read where the squirrels can't survive outside that community," Wilder said.

The Indiana community Wilder referred to has a claim to fame of having the only large white squirrel settlement in the country. More than 700 of the animals make their homes there, and are even protected by city laws. A $25 fine is levied should anyone take a white squirrel from Ohio, since it is reported they can only live there for some unexplainable reason.

Wilder, who estimates he has raised more than 50 kinds of animals, birds and fish in his lifetime, said he would lay odds that under his care the squirrels could survive.

In the junk business 12 years, Wilder got sidetracked from his original intent when he moved to Springfield Township from Detroit where he owned a print shop.

"Actually, I had planned on building a recreation center on the site since I own lakefront property," Wilder explained, pointing to the two lakes behind his property, Bridge and Spring lakes.

"But I ran short of funds after making a start and decided to deal in used merchandise since I already had some recreation equipment for sale."

He said that for the first five years all his goods were purchased at auctions but now it comes to him at a rate of two truckloads a day.

Oakland Group Organizes Over Cemetery Plans

A new county group has been organized to discuss problems associated with cemetery operations and to keep abreast of state, county and township legislation pertaining to parks and cemeteries.

Nominated as president of the Oakland Area Cemetery Association, was Raymond Graessle of Waterford Township.

Vice president is Harold Dooler, Independence Township clerk, and B. J. Arcand, superintendent of Mount Hope Cemetery, was elected secretary-treasurer.

The group will meet Wednesday nights, once every two months for dinner at designated places. Following dinner there will be round table discussion on the best ways to serve the public, how to keep projects standardized and how to solve individual problems of various areas.

Band Concert Set Tomorrow

Mayor Proclaims Day in Honor of This Widely Known Group

OXFORD — A precision-drilled military unit will take over this village tomorrow.

But the 65 servicemen who march in here will be armed with trumpets and trombones rather than rifles and fixed bayonets.

All of them are members of the internationally acclaimed U.S. Air Force Band which will present two concerts at the Oxford Area Community High School.

High school students from Oakland, Macomb and Lapeer counties will turn out 2,000 strong for the band's matinee performance at 1 p.m.

An adult audience of comparable size will be on hand when the men in blue present their second performance at 8 p.m.

The village's main street will be decorated with red, white and blue flags for the arrival of the bandstand and Mayor Allen E. Valentine has proclaimed tomorrow as United States Air Force Band Day.

The afternoon program is designed to appeal especially to the teen-agers. Modern music will be presented in addition to classical and semiclassical compositions of great composers.

HIGH SCHOOLERS TO PLAY — Eight area high school students will join the band for the matinee.

The colorful musical organization has played throughout the world and its members have been selected from 1,400 professional musicians.

Represented in the Air Force Band are former members of 20 different symphony orchestras and 16 name band units.

Conductor of the aggregation is USAF Col. George S. Howard whose background includes experience as a soloist, composer and educator. He has a doctorate in music from the Chicago Conservatory of Music.

The Air Force Band and its 25-voice chorus known as the Singing Sergeants appear on a national radio show.

The concert will be staged in the multipurpose room of the high school. The performances are being sponsored by the Oxford Lions Club.

All proceeds will go toward the Lions Club charitable projects.

Square Dance Friday

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — A square dance, sponsored by Job's Daughters, Commerce Bethel 22, will be held Friday at 8 p.m. at the Commerce Masonic Temple, 4835 Broadway St. Tickets can be purchased at the door.

ARRANGE CONCERT — A final check on arrangements for two concerts to be presented by the U. S. Air Force Band in Oxford tomorrow is given by three members of the Oxford Lions Club, which is sponsoring the double event. They are (from left)

Robert Dick, club president; Al Post, band committee chairman; and John Flannery, matinee committee chairman. Proceeds from the concerts will be used for the Lions Club's charitable activities.

Carver Board's Dissolution Near

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — The Oakland County Board of Education is awaiting the results of a school board election here today which is expected to produce no winners.

No candidates have filed nominating petitions for any of the five vacant posts on the Carver school board and the only way new board members could be elected is through write-in ballots.

A write-in candidate would have to get 10 votes to be elected and five persons must be elected if the board is to continue.

The five former school board members resigned when it was learned that the school district could be disbanded in this manner.

The Carver School District has no high school of its own and neighboring school districts would not accept the students.

The Carver ninth graders now are attending classes which have been set up in the township until the situation is resolved.

School officials from Detroit, Oak Park and Ferndale say that economic factors rather than racial discrimination is their reason for refusing admittance to the Carver students.

With all indications pointing to dissolution, the question now is what neighboring community or communities the Carver School District will be annexed.

Defense to End Case Against Carpenters

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — The defense was expected to conclude its case today in the bribery trial of three top Carpenters Union officials.

The three, Union President Maurice Huchesson, Vice President William Blaker, and Treasurer Frank Chapman, were charged with bribing highway officials for information about proposed highway sites.

The prosecution accused the three of purchasing the land on proposed highway routes and then selling it back to the state.

Purpose of the conference is to acquaint educators with GM personnel.

Parent-Teen Guide Mailed

ROCHESTER — Copies of the "Guide for Parent-Teen Cooperation" were mailed yesterday to some 45 families of new junior and senior high school students in the Rochester Community School District.

The guide was drafted by the code committee of the Rochester Area Youth Guidance Committee. It was based on results of a survey conducted last year of some 1,000 teen-agers and adults in the local school district.

Further, it is designed to stimulate discussion of issues where there are conflicting opinions rather than provide a substitute for family-made rules.

According to the code committee, it should serve as a springboard from which family agreement may be reached on such issues as dating, drinking, smoking, entertaining and other activities.

The guide has the endorsement of area governmental agencies, the Rochester Board of Education, Ministerial Association and the local Parent-Teacher Association Council.

The meeting will be held at 7 p.m. in the Lake Orion Methodist Church House on East Flint Street.

A question and answer period will follow Judge Breakey's talk.

Couple Heads for Florida

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shearer of 800 East Road. The bridegroom's parents are the Walter V. Nabozny of Detroit.

For her wedding the bride chose a tailored white satin gown featuring a bouffant skirt, long sleeves and a chapel train. Her seed pearls crown held a fingertip veil of illusion, and she carried a cascade arrangement of white Fugi chrysanthemums.

Maid of honor was Rosemary Reamer of Detroit, Mary Lou Blais of Pontiac and Mrs. William Billock of Detroit were bridesmaids.

John Nabozny of Detroit assisted his brother as best man. Usher was William Billock of Detroit, and Dennis Shearer, brother of the bride, was a junior usher.

Poll Gives Proposal 53.1- to 32.4-Pct. Lead; Rural Opposition Rises

DETROIT (AP)—Despite what it termed growing rural opposition, the Detroit News reported today that its poll shows Michigan voters favor a constitutional convention proposal on the Nov. 8 ballot by 53.1 to 32.4 per cent.

The News said 14.5 per cent of those sampled, through indifference or lack of understanding, declined to vote.

The News said that two weeks ago it found rural voters almost evenly divided, but now found 51.9 per cent opposing and only 31.1 per cent favoring the proposal.

The proposal would change the representation for constitutional conventions from three for each senatorial district to one for each House and each Senate seat. It also automatically would fix a vote next April on the specific question of whether a constitutional convention should be called.

Gold Rush Hardly Dents U.S. Supply

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Treasury disclosed today that the outflow of gold from the United States was only a trickle last week despite international speculation in the metal.

The department's daily financial statement showed that foreign buyers reduced the U.S. gold supply by $11.8 million during the week. This compared with an average outflow of $47 million a week since July 1.

As of last Friday, the Treasury said, the gold stock stood at $18,571,000 — down about $750 million since midyear.

TAKES HORSE TO COLLEGE — A White Lake Township coal attending Central Michigan University, Geraldine Berry, 18, is shown here with her horse Lucky, that she took to college this year so she could be near him. She keeps the 5-year-old animal in a barn just a short distance from the campus. Jerry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Enos E. Berry of 5665 Caprice Road.

The "world-famous" Taj Mahal structure, known for its architectural beauty, is said to have cost $15 million.

Judge Uses Probation Citizen-Officers

ROYAL OAK — A probation program that is as effective as it is inexpensive is being evolved here. It may point the way for other communities worried about how to make law-abiding citizens out of youthful first offenders.

Used at the level of municipal court, which tries minor crime, it hopes to keep the offender from ever getting into the kind of trouble that will take him to circuit court, where probation is a standard effort towards rehabilitation.

Municipal Judge Keith J. Leenhouts is the first in Michigan to develop a probation "department" as a regular tool of his court.

He started it last April after consultation with the Michigan State Corrections Commission when Director Gus Harrison said it was unique among Michigan communities.

Judge Leenhouts' plan is simple. He asks local citizens with special interests or special training to act as "probation officers."

They give sympathetic understanding, counsel and help, if needed, to the offender. All are volunteers and are expected to give a minimum of five hours a month of their time.

A "chief probation officer" to whom each offender must report once a month is paid $50 a month for his time. That cost is privately underwritten.

Those sentenced by the court usually are on probation from 18 months to two years. Jurisdiction of municipal courts extends normally only to misdemeanors for which the maximum penalty is a

Sales of Flint Pleads Guilty

$5,000 Bond Continued in Abortion Charge at Muskegon

MUSKEGON (UPI) — Earl W. Sales, 61, a Flint real estate dealer, pleaded guilty Tuesday in circuit court to a charge of performing an abortion in a case in which the prosecution's main witness was found murdered a month after Sales' arrest.

Judge Henry L. Beers ordered a pre-sentence investigation for Sales and continued his bond of $5,000. Sales had been scheduled to go on trial on the charge this morning, but instead entered the guilty plea.

Sales was arrested at a motel in Whitehall in April and accused of performing an abortion. Mrs. Gloria England, 27, a Muskegon divorcee, in May Mrs. England's body was found in the Muskegon River. Her wrists and ankles were bound by wire and she had been dead several days.

Prosecutor Harry Knudsen said Mrs. England had been the chief witness. Sales' hearing on the charge had been postponed twice because Mrs. England could not be found.

Authorities still are investigating her death.

Knudsen had said records seized when Sales was arrested indicated he was with a large-scale abortion ring that had been operating in West Michigan.

Reno Principal Keeps Eye on Rising Skirts

RENO, Nev. (AP)—A ruling discouraging girls at Reno High School from wearing above the knee skirts brought two comments Tuesday.

David Rush, bachelor principal of the high school and author of the rule, said: "There was no edict to the students, only a statement to faculty members to watch for girls wearing short skirts. We felt that short skirts could lead to serious difficulties."

The other comment came from Robert Clogher of San Jose, Calif., a spokesman for the National Nudist Council.

"What is surprising to me is that a state which permits bare bottoms in Las Vegas should become perturbed about bare knees in Reno," he said.

Furnace Repair Bill May Exceed $1 Million

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—A preliminary inspection showed it may cost $750,000 to $1,500,000 to repair a ruptured blast furnace at the Detroit Steel Corp.'s Portsmouth Division.

That's the estimate made yesterday by A. E. Reinhard, general manager of the suburban New Boston plant. He said the lesser repair figure is estimated if damage is confined to the break-out area.

said Leenhouts. "The negative — punishment only — just doesn't seem enough; we ought to help the offender if we can."

How does it work?

"So far we're hitting 1,000 per cent," said Leenhouts. "Not that we're trying to make any record. We are trying it with some people's rough boys. We expect some failures."

There are now 56 men between the ages of 17 and 26 on probation.

Find Tab Hunter Is Innocent of Beating His Dog

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP)—Actor Tab Hunter has been found innocent of charges that he beat his dog.

A jury of 11 women and one man deliberated three hours on cruelty-to-animal charges against the blond leading man. He shook hands with the jurors as they left Municipal Court here Tuesday.

"I'm delighted beyond words," he said.

He had been accused of beating his two-year-old Weimaraner, Fritz. He said he had merely been disciplining the dog as directed by trainers. Veterinarians testified the animal showed no injuries.

Adams scheduled stops in Kalamazoo, Antrim, Charlevoix, Emmet, Cheboygan, Mackinac, Lapeere, Schoolcraft, Delta, Alger, Presque Isle, Alpena, Marquette, and Chippewa counties between Monday and Nov. 7, the day before the election.

The attorney general said Sen. Philip Hart and Prentiss Brown Jr., the Democratic candidate for Congress from the 13th District, would join in his "Meet the People" tour Tuesday in Alpena.

He's Happy With Arena That Bears His Name

MUSKEGON (UPI)—"I am well seen his dream come true in a content."

Local Carlisle Walker made this warm-hearted remark after touring a new brick and steel structure which brightens the landscape of downtown Muskegon.

The building is the L. C. Walker Sports Arena, which cost $1.5 million. The building is a gift to Muskegon from Walker.

Thursday night, in the wind-up of eight days of ceremonies, the handsome arena will be officially dedicated and presented to the city. For Walker it is the "fruition of a decades-old dream."

Walker, now 85 years old and confined by illness to his home, will be unable to be on hand when Vice President Richard Nixon makes the dedicatory speech and Mayor Donald Seyferth accepts the arena from John C. Besenma, chairman of the Arena Dedication Committee.

But the retired businessman has seen his dream come true in a wheelchair.

"I can't tell you how dear to me this visit is, how treasured this opportunity to see the arena," said Walker after looking over the facility which will be used for public community functions as well as sports.

Walker is a native of Farmington, a graduate of Alpena High School and the University of Michigan.

Walker's father was in the lumber business in Alpena, but he decided to turn to something else and went to work for a mail order house in Grand Rapids in 1898.

A short while later Walker and another man, A. W. Shaw, pooled their savings of $450 and started a business of their own in Muskegon. Since then the Shaw-Walker Co. has prospered and become a leader in the field of producing business aids and equipment.

HELPING CHILDREN — For the third consecutive year the Pontiac North Kiwanis Club is co-sponsoring a therapeutic swimming program for handicapped children in the area with the Pontiac YMCA. Here club President James Mann watches 11-year-old Terry McBride enjoy a session with volunteer instructor Mrs. Thomas Lusk. "The program is working out wonderfully well in helping these children adjust to a more normal life," said James Templeton, physical education director at the "Y." The club presented him with a check today to cover expenses for the coming year.

Living Costs Rise to a New High

WASHINGTON (AP)—Living costs rose two-tenths of one percent in September to a record high.

The Labor Department's living cost index went to 126.8, percent of the 1947-49 base period. This is 1.3 percent higher than a year earlier.

Practically every group of major consumer costs increased except for costs of new and used automobiles. Auto prices were down—due to additional dealer discounts.

Higher prices for housing and seasonal clothing cost increases exerted the most significant upward pressure between August and September.

He said he anticipates higher costs for clothing, food and transportation, the latter because of seasonally higher prices for new model automobiles.

The Labor Department also reported that the after-tax earnings of factory workers remained practically unchanged between August and September. At the same time, their buying power was down slightly due to the higher prices.

A factory worker with three dependents averaged after-tax earnings of $80.87 a week in September.

This was down from $80.91 in August.

Her Purse Vanishes — With $400 Inside

Mrs. Helen Richter, a Pontiac housewife, was $400 poorer after going shopping Tuesday afternoon — and she had nothing to show for it.

Mrs. Richter, 165 Gage St., told city police she left her purse unguarded on a store counter while she went to a lounge at 4:45 p.m.

When she returned a few minutes later her purse had vanished. Inside were four new $100 bills, she told officers.

Only the Bees Can Make Honey - A Universal Sweet

By JANET ODELL
Positive From Home Editor

In these days of man-made fabrics, synthetic drugs and chemically preserved foods it is good to know that one thing—honey—cannot be made artificially. The bees still have a monopoly on its manufacture.

Last summer, down in the Great Smokies, we had some of the best honey we've ever eaten. It was served with the little hot biscuits that appear at most meals down there.

You know, of course, that the flavor of honey depends on the flowers from which the nectar came. Which kind you and your family prefer is just personal preference.

Because honey absorbs moisture it keeps baked goods fresh for a longer time. It is rather complicated to substitute honey for sugar so you had better use recipes specifically calling for honey.

You may, however, use honey in any recipe calling for molasses. But you won't need soda; use one teaspoon of baking powder in place of each 1/4 teaspoon of soda called for in the molasses recipe.

Beehive cupeakes are little choc-

Beehive Cupeakes

2 cups cake flour
1/4 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter
2 cups honey
2 cups molasses
2 cups unsweetened chocolate, melted
Water

1 teaspoon vanilla
Honey Frosting
1 cup coconut, toasted
1/2 cup vegetable shortening, use 1/2 cup water; with butter or margarine, use 1/4 cup water

Sift flour once, measure, add soda and salt, and sift together degrees) about 25 minutes.

Remove cakes from cups. Invert and cover with Honey Frosting. Sprinkle with toasted coconut. Makes about one dozen large cupeakes.

Combine in top of a small double boiler:

Honey Frosting

1 unbeaten egg white
1 cup sugar
Dash of salt
1/2 cup water
1 tablespoon light corn syrup
1/2 teaspoon honey

Beat about 1 minute, or until thoroughly mixed. Cook over rapidly boiling water, beating constantly. Bring to a full rolling boil at high speed of electric beater, boil and immediately remove from heat. Skim, pour quickly into stand in stiff peaks. Remove from hot, sterilized glasses and seal. Makes 6-8 glasses.

Nut and fruit quick breads taste even better when they have a mild filling. The following one should be good with nut bread.

Honey-Orange Sandwich Filling

1/2 cup cream cheese
1/2 cup honey
1/2 cup orange rind
1/2 cup cream cheese, honey and orange rind. Yield: 1/2 cup, or filling for 2 sandwiches.

French dressing has an infinite number of variations. One of the interesting ones to be used with fruit salad is this one containing honey.

Nutmeg French Dressing

1/2 cup oil
1/2 cup vinegar
1/2 cup ground nutmeg teaspoon ground black pepper

1/2 teaspoon onion salt
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup honey
1/2 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup salad oil

Combine dry ingredients, then add remaining ingredients. Beat or shake well to blend. Makes 1 1/2 cups dressing.

An easy honey cookie is our last recipe. It is the chewy type of cookie.

Coconut Beehives

Dash of salt
1 egg, well beaten
2 cups coconut
Combine honey, salt and egg; stir in coconut. Drop mixture by heaping teaspoonfuls on a greased baking sheet. Bake in slow oven (325 degrees) 12 minutes, or until slightly browned. Makes about 1 dozen confections.

Zips Up Liver

Here's a tasty way to prepare liver: Dip sliced liver (1 pound) in French dressing then dredge in two-thirds cup enriched flour in which ¼ teaspoon garlic salt, ¼ teaspoon salt and ¼ teaspoon pepper have been mixed. Cook liver slowly in lard or drippings until well browned.

Need a quick and delicious party punch recipe? Combine 1 (4/5 qt.) bottle of any California dessert wine with 1 quart of the sherbet of your choice. Stir just until the lumps are out — it will be of milkshake consistency. Serve it in punch cups as an afternoon or evening treat.

Raisin Bread Makes Simply Elegant Toast

Food tastes turn with the seasons and as fall comes blustering around the bend into winter, we begin to change our menus. As an example, we particularly enjoy serving breads piping hot. Let's begin with one of the simplest best—raisin bread toast. Take it as a crisp golden slice of goodness or discover its many match-mates. Some of the best are fruit mixtures which give the sweet touch to toast.

Fruit-topped toasts go along delightfully with hot chocolate or coffee for the late evening refreshment, and they may also add the sweet touch to brunch or lunch. Peach-Clamton Toast or Orange-Raisin Toast would be perfect for these occasions. To follow the sweet and simple theme, select Butterscotch-Peanut Toast or Coconut Toast, a two-some certain to please teenage guests.

With a little more preparation, you may serve a French toast version. Pineapple Upside-Down French Toast or Apple Butter French Toast. These, too, are right for the day's little meals.

Pineapple Upside-Down French Toast
2 tablespoons butter
2 cups brown sugar

1 cup drained, crushed pineapple
1 tablespoon pineapple syrup
1 egg, beaten
1/2 cup milk
4 slices raisin bread
Melt butter in a 15- or 3-inch square baking dish. Blend in brown sugar and pineapple and spread evenly over bottom of the dish. Sprinkle sirup over pineapple mixture. Combine beaten egg and milk in a shallow pie plate. Dip bread slices, one at a time, into egg mixture, turning them to coat both sides. Place bread slices on top of pineapple mixture.

Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) until lightly browned on top, about twenty-five minutes. Let stand in baking dish one minute after removing from oven, then invert dish over a serving platter so bread slides out, sugared side up. Serve immediately. Yield: 2 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

Peach-Clamton Toast
4 slices clamton raisin bread
4 tablespoons butter
2 slices peach, drained
2 tablespoons brown sugar, sifted
Spread butter on bread. Arrange four slices canned peaches on each slice of buttered bread. Sift brown sugar over peaches and bread. Place on a shallow pan and bake in oven (450 degrees) for about ten minutes. Yield: 4 servings.

Orange-Raisin Toast
2 tablespoons grated orange rind

1/2 cup orange juice
1 cup granulated sugar
Dash of cinnamon
14 slices raisin bread toast
Combine orange rind, orange juice, sugar and cinnamon. Spread one tablespoon orange mixture on one side of each slice of toast. Place toast, spread side up, on an ungreased cookie sheet. Toast under low broiler heat for five minutes. Serve immediately. Yield: 7 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

Apple Butter French Toast
2 eggs, beaten
2 tablespoons apple butter
4 slices raisin bread

This is a Surprise

Are you surprised? A recent study made by the U.S. Department of Agriculture shows that homemakers who most often use convenience foods (such as prepared flour mixes, frozen foods, frozen complete meals, soups, etc.) are not those who work away from home, but those who stay home all day.

Judge Won't Bother Finch-Tregoff Jury

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The jury in the second Finch-Tregoff murder trial enters its seventh day's deliberations today.

"Unless something unforeseen arises," said Superior Court Judge LeRoy Dawson, "I'm going to let them alone."

Judge Dawson told newsmen he had no immediate plans to poll the jurors.

The first trial of Dr. R. Bernard Finch and Carole Tregoff ended last March 12 when the jury deadlocked after 374 hours of deliberations.

The doctor and Miss Tregoff, his ex-mistress, are accused of the murder of his estranged wife, Barbara Jean, 36, on July 18, 1959. Finch contends the fatal shooting was accidental.

Try to Appeal Sentence of Dr. Martin Luther King

DECATUR, Ga. (AP)—Defense attorneys sought today a speedy appeal for an integration leader sentenced to four months in a public works camp after recent civil demonstrations.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., one of 79 arrested during the sit-ins, was ordered by Judge Oscar Mitchell of the Dekalb County Criminal Court to serve four months of a probated sentence, for driving without a Georgia Driver's license.

The judge denied numerous defense motions to dismiss the proceedings to revoke probation and denied King bail pending an appeal.

The minister, who led the Montgomery, Ala., bus boycott, moved to Atlanta last February. He entered a plea of guilty to driving without a Georgia license last September and was given a 12-month probated sentence.

Georgia sells 1- and 5-year driver's licenses which expire on April 1. King said at the time of his arrest he had a valid Alabama license.

HELD BY REQUEST

While the other sit-in demonstrators were released on bond, King was held at the request of Dekalb County officials for violating the state antirape law while on probation. The law under which King and the others were charged makes it a misdemeanor to fail to leave private premises when requested to do so.

King's counsel argued the probated sentence was invalid since the law sets a limit of six months on such sentences. They also claimed the antirape law is unconstitutional.

D. L. Hollowell, head of King's five-man legal staff, also called officials of Rich's Department Store to testify that no formal accusation of violating the law had been made against King.

But Dekalb County Prosecutor Jack Smith said that no formal accusation was necessary to revoke the probation and he insisted that King violated the antirape law and thereby violated the terms of his probation.

AGREE ON TERM

Smith agreed that six months was the legal maximum for such probated sentences but demanded "that part of the sentence not in excess of the legal maximum (four months) be served."

The prison sentence was called shocking by Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, who was a spectator in the crowded courtroom.

He said, "its intent will be felt all over the country as a persecution rather than a satisfaction of a violation of a traffic rule."

Eye True Debate Between Candidates

NEW YORK (AP)—The television and radio networks have proposed that if the presidential candidates decide to hold a fifth debate they should meet face-to-face without a panel of questioners.

The networks, in telegrams to the television advisers of Sen. John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon, suggested that each candidate make a statement on an agreed-on subject, with each getting time for rebuttal.

The men then could question each other, with a moderator keeping the time—and the peace.

This format originally was suggested by the networks but turned down by the candidates.

The nominees have reached no agreement on a fifth debate.

Area Youngsters Like Square Dance Lessons

The enthusiasm for learning how to square dance has caught on with the youngsters of Waterford Township, according to Community Center Manager Robert Bauer.

At the opening session last Wednesday there were more than 80 children in the big gymnasium at the Community Center on Williams Lake Road.

Many more are expected to register tonight for dance instruction from 7 to 9 p.m.

For more information, residents have been asked to call the Community Center office.

City Receives Renewal Funds

$567,822 U.S. Check Opens Door to Deals for Property

The city has received a $567,822 check from the United States Treasury to begin initial property negotiations in the urban renewal program.

Negotiations won't get under way, though, until urban renewal authorities in Chicago approve the proposed list of initial acquisitions.

Robert A. Sliker, assistant city manager and urban renewal coordinator, said he expected acquisition approval shortly.

The check represents federal approval of the city's request for $700,000 in initial funds. Deducted, as expected, were several items: $80,112 FOR PLANNING

They include a deduction of the $50,112 advanced by the federal government two years ago for planning; interest on the $80,112; and $38,067, the estimated federal cost for auditing and inspection of the project over its anticipated five-year span.

The $700,000 is covered in the $3,165,044 revolving fund the federal government has set up to cover land acquisition costs.

Of Cars and Cows...

Michigan makes so many cars—and ranks so high as an industrial state—that the importance of agriculture to Michigan is often overlooked. Fact is that Michigan—with $740 million in cash receipts, the largest share (27%) from dairying—ranks among the top 1/3 of all states in farm marketing. And that's saying a lot because farming, by any yardstick, is the nation's biggest industry.

Farmers produce more, sell more, buy more, create more jobs than any other single industry.

- 40% of all jobs in private employment are created by agriculture—either on the farm, processing farm products or supplying farmers with their needs. In Michigan, 1/3 of all jobs are created by agriculture.
- Sales of farm products totaled $32 billion last year. That's twice the total of auto and truck sales.
- Farmers spent over $25 billion last year—including $7 billion for food and clothing; $5.5 billion for feed and fertilizer; $4 billion for automobiles, trucks, machinery and equipment. Farmers are Michigan's biggest customer.

Agriculture and industry—cars and cows—go hand in hand in Michigan and throughout the nation. Each has a vast production capacity. Each is a vast market for the other. They thrive together in a sound and stable economy.

Airtight Wrap May Harm Contents

Top each serving with a pat of butter. Makes 4 servings.

Golden Stuffed Onions

6 large sweet onions
3/4 cup butter
1/2 cup cooked elbow macaroni
1/2 cup shredded American process cheese
1/2 cup buttered bread crumbs

Parboil onions in salted water 15 minutes. Remove centers, leaving a shell about 1/4 inch thick. Meanwhile cook bacon until crisp. Drain; crumble. Add to macaroni and cheese. Toss well. Fill onion cavities with macaroni mixture; top with buttered crumbs. Arrange in baking dish. Bake in moderate oven (325 degrees) about 30 minutes or until onions are tender. Makes 6 servings.

NEW YORK — The Food and Drug Administration will make an intensive study of foods wrapped in airtight plastic packages to determine exactly how harmful these wrappings are, The Insider's Newsletter reported recently.

The study follows the report of two deaths in Minnesota last week which were attributed to botulism, a usually fatal type of food poisoning. In both cases a ready-to-eat brand of unsterilized smoked fish packed in airtight plastic wraps was blamed.

The FDA confirmed the presence of the fish of clostridium botulinum, a bacterium which grows only in the absence of air and which is readily destroyed at temperatures of 212 degrees F.

An FDA spokesman said that "Although basic processing of the fish was probably at fault, the airtight plastic wrapping was undoubtedly a contributing factor."

Now collecting samples of smoked fish and other non-sterile foods wrapped in airtight plastic packages for study, the FDA also reports an increasing number of reports of these products to supermarkets. Consumers have complained of a high percentage of spoiled fruits and vegetables which contaminate their neighbors more rapidly in the absence of air.

COOKING ONIONS

Give the Family a Dinner That's Different

No matter how good a cook you are, sooner or later almost any family is bound to become accustomed to the meals you serve. If you sense this reaction, it's time to throw a culinary curve. Change your style of cooking a little at a time — or put together a menu that's a complete innovation for you.

In taking the latter course you might begin dinner with a chilled soup. Concoct a simple version of vichyssoise by heating a can of frozen condensed cream of potato soup with part cream and part milk as liquid. Beat it smooth, then chill thoroughly. Serve the soup in chilled bowls, topped with sliced chives.

While the soup is chilling, prepare Chili Bean Pie for a zesty entrée. A well-seasoned ground beef mixture forms the "crust" of this pie. The filling is simply canned chili beans sprinkled with grated cheese.

Accompany this main dish with sautéed succinini and a lazy sun salad assortment of carrot, cucumber and green pepper strips to be dipped in mayonnaise blended with sour cream and horseradish.

Frosted Mocha Spice Cakes

made with whole bran cereal add an exotic dessert touch. Garnish these little cakes with chocolate shavings or a few curls of shaved chocolate.

Chili Bean Pie

1 cup bran flakes

1 pound ground beef

1 cup finely chopped onions

1 cup chopped green pepper

1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 garlic clove, minced
1/2 teaspoon chili powder
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup oil (1/4-cup can) chili beans in gravy
1/2 cup grated Cheddar cheese

Crush bran flakes slightly. Combine beef, onions, green pepper, seasonings, garlic, chili powder, milk and bran flakes; mix well. Press meat mixture around sides and bottom of 9-inch pie pan to form shallow shell. Pour undrained beans into shell; sprinkle with cheese.

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 30 minutes. Cut into wedge-shaped pieces; serve immediately. Yield: 6 servings.

Mocha Spice Cakes
1/2 cup whole bran cereal
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon ground cloves
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon instant coffee powder
1/2 cup soft shortening
1 cup brown sugar
1 egg

Combine whole bran cereal and milk; let stand about 5 minutes. Sift together flour, soda, salt, spices and instant coffee powder. Blend shortening and sugar; add egg and beat until light and fluffy. Add dry ingredients alternately with whole bran cereal mixture, stirring only until combined after each addition.

Fill greased muffin pans two-thirds full. Bake in moderate oven (370 degrees F.) 20-25 minutes. Frost with Mocha Icing. Yield: 9 cup cakes, 2 1/2 inches in diameter.

Mocha Icing
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup sifted confectioners' sugar
1/2 teaspoon instant coffee powder
1/2 teaspoon vanilla flavoring

Melt butter in hot milk. Combine confectioners' sugar and instant coffee powder and add to milk mixture. Add vanilla. Beat until mixture is of spreading consistency. Yield: sufficient icing for 9 cup cakes.

Note: Hot strong coffee brew may be substituted for milk and instant coffee powder, if desired.

Bake Flounder With Cheese

Flounders can be any size from little sand dabs to giant halibut. The National Fisheries Institute tells us. They are all flat fish which swim on their sides and spend a great deal of time floundering around the bottom of the sea. What we buy in the stores as flounder is usually either grey sole, yellowtail, winter flounder or lemon sole — all among the most tender of fish and delicately flavored. Fillets of flounder are easily prepared by broiling, baking or poaching. If you have a whole flounder, a detectable way to prepare it is to bake it with a crumb-cheese topping, like this:

Flounder Au Gratin
1 large flounder (about 2 1/2 pounds)
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1/2 cup grated cheese
1/2 teaspoon butter or margarine
1/2 cup minced onion

Have your fish dealer dress the fish for you, which means removing scales, insides, head and tail. Sprinkle fish with salt and lemon juice. Lay fish in greased shallow baking dish. Cover fish with bread crumbs, cheese, lumps of butter and minced onion.

Bake fish in a moderately hot oven (375 to 400 degrees) 35 to 45 minutes, or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Baste from time to time with juice in pan. Makes 4 servings.

Rigney Considered as Tiger Manager

NEW YORK (AP)—Bill Rigney, who was fired as manager of the San Francisco Giants last June, may be installed as pilot of the Detroit Tigers within a month.

The Associated Press learned yesterday that Rigney, who led the Giants to two straight third-place finishes before he was let go, applied for the vacant Detroit job during the World Series.

The Tigers have been without a manager since early this month when Joe Gordon resigned, then signed with Kansas City Athletics.

Rigney was not available for comment and the Tiger front office refused to confirm or deny whether Rigney would become the eighth Detroit manager in 10 years.

However, indication was given the club has, at least, spoken to Rigney.

Rick Ferrell, placed in charge of screening candidates only last week by president John E. Fetzer, said: "I'd rather not give out any names right now. I'm going to meet with Mr. Fetzer in the latter part of this week and at that time give him my recommendation. We'll discuss the possibilities of several names at that time and it probably will be several days before we can name the new manager."

Rigney, who spent his entire major league career in the National League, now, has his own radio program in Oakland, He applied for the Detroit job during the World Series.

Rigney, succeeded Leo Durocher as Giant manager at the end of the 1955 season. The slender, 6-1, 160-pounder has been groomed for two years as manager of the Minneapolis club in the American Association.

Despite sixth place finishes in his first two years, Rigney proved popular with his players and when Horace Stoneham took him to San Francisco after the 1957 season, Rigney continued as manager.

The Giants were a strong third in their first year on the West Coast. Rigney had the Giants, on top through most of the 1959 campaign but a last-month slump dropped the team into third place at the finish.

Stoneham stuck with Rigney in 1960 but it was generally known that Bill had to have the club on top by mid-season or he would be fired. The Giants, after a fast start, began to fade in June and on June 16, after the club had dropped three straight to Pittsburgh, Rigney was fired and replaced by Tom Sheehan, the club's super scout.

The Giants were in second place, four games behind, when Sheehan took over. They finished fifth, 16 games off the pace.

The Tigers finished the 1960 season in sixth place, 26 games behind the pennant winning New York Yankees, after swapping managers with Cleveland in August. In that "trade," Jimmy Dykes went to the Indians and Gordon came to Detroit.

Los Angeles Top AL Target

Junior Circuit's Expansion Plans Centered on LA

West Coast City, Two Other Applicants Head Dozen Candidates

NEW YORK (AP)—The American League today was expected to make its claim on Los Angeles at a meeting designed to expand the circuit to 10 clubs in time for the 1962 baseball season.

Los Angeles, together with Dallas-Fort Worth and Minneapolis-St. Paul, are regarded as the only cities among a dozen applicants being considered seriously for the ninth and 10th franchises.

The National League nine days ago beat its junior rival to the gun by swiftly grabbing Houston and New York in the first expansion move in the majors in 62 years. The American League voted last month to expand to 10 teams, too.

While the National League has a comparatively easy time coming to unanimous agreement, the American was expected to be engaged in a long, drawn-out debate regarding Los Angeles. It was highly possible no decision would be reached at this meeting, which may be held over for a second day.

"We're hopeful of coming out of the meeting with two new cities," said Al President Joe Cronin, "but I don't want to make a prediction as to what will happen. I know there will be lots of discussion. No one really knows what the outcome will be. In any event, it will be one of the most important meetings in American League history."

The AL clubowners first must solve internal problems concerning possible realignment before they can tackle the expansion movement. They are pretty much in agreement regarding Los Angeles, but they are not in agreement on the other two cities.

The rub, however, is in the manner of acquisition. One group, headed by Bill Veck of the Chicago White Sox, wants the league to grant an open franchise to LA, along with Dallas-Fort Worth.

Another faction, headed by Dan Topping of the New York Yankees, would like to see the Kansas City franchise moved to Los Angeles, thus opening the way for the league to approve franchises in Minneapolis-St. Paul and Dallas-Fort Worth.

'M' Pass Defenders to Get Tough Test

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Michigan's pass defense, which has proved its mettle against several high-class offenses, is now likely to get its toughest test on Saturday.

That's the belief of Coach Bump Elliott, who is stressing pass defense this week in preparation for the Wisconsin game at Madison.

Like Minnesota, which dumped the Wolverines, 19-0 last weekend, Wisconsin has a big line (averaging about 215 pounds) but Elliott says the greatest Badger threat is carried in the

"He is probably the best passer we've seen yet and may be the best we'll see all year," said Elliott, noting the Badger signal caller's completion percentage of 55.2.

"He's had some passes intercepted but anyone who throws as often as he does must expect that."

The Wolverine pass defense, in five games, has come up with nine interceptions and disrupted the aerial communications of several

Plum Keeps Passes Away From Defending Backs

NEW YORK (AP)—Milt Plum, who has had one of his toughest intercepted all season, leads the National Football League passers, and his teammate, Jimmy Brown, heads the ground-gaining ones.

Official league statistics released today show that Plum has completed 41 passes, good for 770 yards, six touchdowns and shows an average gain of 14 yards per pass.

NFL passing rankings are as follows:

Plum, who has had one of his toughest intercepted all season, leads the National Football League passers, and his teammate, Jimmy Brown, heads the ground-gaining ones.

Plum could break the completion average of 70.3 per cent set by Sammy Baugh in 1945. Plum's average is 71.5.

Halimi Claims Part of Title

Demands Bantamweight Fight With Winner at Los Angeles

LONDON (AP)—Alphonse Halimi, the newly-crowned bantamweight champion of half the world, said today he's out to make himself the undisputed champion of the whole world—by taking on the winner of the Nov. 17 fight in Los Angeles.

Halimi, 117½, won the European version of the world title by grabbing a controversial 15-round decision over British and European champion Freddie Gilroy Tuesday night.

The American National Boxing Association did not recognize the fight as a world championship and said the one between Eder Jofre of Brazil and Eloy Sanchez of Mexico in Los Angeles Nov. 17 would be for the world title.

The confusion over the world title arose by the retirement of Mexican Jose Becerra.

Belgian Referee Philippe de Backer gave Halimi, the 28-year-old French-Algerian, the verdict over Gilroy, despite the views of most ringside observers that the 24-year-old Irishman had done enough to win.

COMPARE PRICE AND PROTECTION AND YOU'LL BUY NEW DU PONT Telar NEVER DRAIN ANTI-FREEZE

Complete protection costs less than 2 tanks of gas

To protect most cars requires only $7 to $9 worth of "Telar" and as little as $3 to $5 for compact cars. Because it goes in for keeps, not just for one year, it costs less in the long run.

Du Pont "Telar" never needs draining as long as your car's cooling system is okay. Since "Telar" is added in the usual manner to regular water, you buy only the amount of protection needed. Any make-up occasionally required to replace normal loss is slight. Once "Telar" is installed, you save the bother and expense of draining old anti-freeze and buying a complete refill each year.

"Telar" Never Drain Anti-Freeze and Summer Coolant has exclusive Color Check to let you safely leave it in year after year—in old cars as well as new. See your servicing dealer now.

Hunters Report Seeing More Pheasants

Press Contest Draws Several Large Entries

Heaviest Bird Weighs 3 Pounds, 15 Ounces; Report Results

The heavy flow of entries in the Pontiac Press Pheasant Derby indicates hunters are having more success than last year.

Five different leaders in the weight class and three in the length division were recorded from Thursday's opening day through Monday morning.

Delbert Hawkins, 14 years old, of Holly entered the heaviest bird, a ringneck weighing 3-pounds, 15-ounces. He bagged the bird Saturday afternoon while hunting with Bruce Bentley on the Hawkins farm, 6 1/2 miles southeast of Holly.

The longest bird, a brightly colored ringneck, is 39 1/2 inches from tip of the beak to end of the tail. It was bagged Saturday by Don Nissen of Wixom on his father's West Maple Road farm.

All entries must be brought to The Press for weighing and measuring. A $50 U. S. savings bond will be given to the hunter bagging the heaviest bird. The hunter entering the longest ringneck will receive a $25 savings bond.

Dick Dougherty, 335 Linda Vista, Pontiac, reported he and six other hunters killed 26 ringnecks near Bad Axe. He said they could have killed more but were close to their possession limit of four each.

Ray W. Upchurch, 2775 Deland, Drayton Plains, bagged four during the first two days near Mariette. He caught one of the ringnecks by hand after it had been pointed by his dog, Upchurch's Saddleboy, a pointer.

Adolph Walter of Waterford, his son Carl and Brian Wohlcock, 381 McArthur, Pontiac, combined geese and pheasant hunting near One City with good success. They downed five blue geese and three ringnecks. Few birds were ever killed in Michigan because they usually consume most without stopping in any great numbers.

Following is a list of some of the larger pheasants entered in the Press Derby:

LONGEST PHEASANT
Virgil J. Myers Jr., 1285 Giddings St., Pontiac; 39 inches; shot Oct. 21 near Brown City.

Jim Brewer, 3333 Crooks Road, Rochester; 37 1/2 inches; shot Oct. 20 near Rochester.

Doyce Watts, 2858 Buick St., Pontiac; 39 inches; shot near Lake Orion Oct. 22.

HEAVIEST PHEASANT
Edward Egges, 464 Ross Dr., Pontiac; 3 pounds, 15 ounces; shot Oct. 22 in the Highland recreation area.

Valdon Garrison, Clarkston; 3 pounds, 10 ounces; bagged Oct. 21 near Brown City.

Carl Carr, 844 Desmond, Waterford; 3 pounds, 9 ounces; shot Oct. 21 near Howell.

Douglas Arthur, 135 Dover, Pontiac; 3 pounds, 15 ounces; shot Oct. 20 near Northville.

Barney Joe Civil, 2515 James Road, Pontiac; 3 pounds, 4 ounces; shot Oct. 21 near Pontiac.

Many hunters have phoned The Press requesting information on the size of the leaders. This way they know what they have to beat.

LONGEST ENTRY — Don Nissen of Wixom holds the 39 1/2-inch pheasant he shot Saturday near his home. It is the longest bird in the Pontiac Press Pheasant Derby. The contest closes Nov. 10. Many ringnecks entered have been 37 to 39 inches long.

Deer Hunters Wanted in Upper Peninsula

By The Associated Press
There's a place where they have more deer than people — and they've got 304,778 people.

What's more, they'd like to see at least 75,000 of their estimated 41,000 deer knocked off in the upcoming hunting season.

That place is Michigan's Upper Peninsula, and you'll find a welcome from the conservation officer, the national forester, and a considerable number of farmers.

The Michigan deer hunting season runs from Nov. 15 to Nov. 30. Over 5,465 square miles of the Upper Peninsula are deer-buck, doe — may be shot.

Hunters bagged 23,000 antlered deer and 15,000 antlerless deer for a total of 38,000 in the Upper Peninsula last year.

But David A. Arnold, district game supervisor for the State Conservation Department, says that wasn't enough, and John O. Wernham, supervisor of the Ottawa National Forest, agrees.

So is the Stonington Peninsula farmer who got only a sheaf of grain from a six-acre plot that deer turned into their personal dining preserve.

"We probably could safely take through hunting twice 38,000 each year," Arnold said. "And by the next fall, the herd would be just as big as the one from which 38,000 were taken."

"It would be a case of having your cake and eating it, too," Arnold continued, "because those deer that came through would have more fawns and would be in better condition for venison steak-making."

In Arnold's view, if hunters harvested more deer in the Upper Peninsula, a lot fewer would starve in winter there. An estimated 11,200 starved last year.

Wernham says foresters are winning their fight against disease, insects and fire, but "we are losing the battle with deer."

"Over-browsing conditions are spreading in our young timber stands," Wernham says. "We depend upon these stands to produce our future merchantable timber and our more aesthetic timber stands that attract the recreation visitor to national forests."

"A balanced economy requires maintenance of a healthy herd of deer in numbers compatible with forest management. It is recognized that deer themselves create income through hunter and recreation dollars."

"But timber is the No. 1 industry in the Upper Peninsula. The lumber and wood products industry is not only the largest producer of goods industry, but the largest employer of all manufacturing industries in the U.P. Maximum growth of quality wood products is essential to our future."

Arnold figures that in the 1950-56 winter a total of 53,750 deer died in the Upper Peninsula, including the 11,200 known to have starved. Dogs killed 1,500, another 2,000 were shot out of season, accidents (such as being hit by cars) claimed 2,200, 11,400 carcasses were found where starvation could not be blamed, and 25,350 signs of deer deaths were found where there was no way of determining the cause.

A farmer in the Stonington Peninsula that juts down between Big Bay de Noc and Little Bay de Noc, recently wrote to Arnold's office to complain of too many deer.

see it down to an average of 15 per square mile.

Arnold concedes that deer facing starvation in over-populated areas where they herd together in winter piles up terminal shots of trees as soon as they get tall enough to show their tops through winter's snow. Sometimes they eat off the limbs of valuable cedars seven to eight feet above the ground.

Whenever a terminal shoot goes the tree either dies or is stunted or forms a twisted trunk. In some deer-gathering or yard areas, Arnold said no natural timber reproduction is obtained at all, and in some planned areas seedlings are nipped to the ground.

Hassle Over Bait Might Mean Change

World Series Fishermen Protest While on Tour in Michigan

By DON VOGEL
Midway through the World Series of Sports Fishing, which was concluded Monday at Union Lake, a hassle developed over the use of live bait.

It seems a good number of the experts on the 9-day tour frowned on the use of minnows and worms. They tried to change the rules after the opening day session at Union Lake. But the majority felt "a true champion can beat both live and artificial bait fishermen."

As the tour moved through northern Michigan, the bait fishermen kept bringing in fish. It must be admitted that they were not the largest, but they added up when placed on the scales.

Another howl of protest went up from the "purists," mostly salt-water anglers. Don Staser of Lansing, who believes in using "what they are biting on," backed those backing the use of artificial baits.

He was only partially successful. During stops on the tour only artificial lures were allowed.

Many on the tour advocated "no live bait" for next year's World Series.

Fred Maly of San Antonio, Tex., has suggested a different type of lure be used each day, such as minnows, worms, spoons, flies and so forth.

Worms, the great favorite among this nation's anglers, was the big bone of contention. The majority of those on the tour felt worms should be excluded from any future contests.

As it turned out, Harold Enslay of Kansas City won the championship using artificial lures. Staser, the bait fisherman, was second.

Conservation department officials have checked their early season figures and found pheasant hunting "slightly improved" over 1959.

While the experts are counting birds and dividing them by the number of hunters and hours hunted, the wily ringnecks were heading for cover and a large number of hunters hung up the shotgun or turned to other species.

Although the season lasts until Nov. 10, about 75 per cent of the hunters give up after the first few days.

MUCC Distributing Educational Material

LANSING (U) — The Michigan United Conservation Clubs has announced a plan to put special education material on conservation, health and recreation in the hands of Michigan teachers.

The conservation group will print a special page in "Michigan Out-Of-Doors," its official publication, to assist elementary and high school teachers. The state conservation and public instruction departments will assist in the program, designed to reach some 50,000 teachers.

Except for Portage marshes near Escanaba, shooting was poor in the Upper Peninsula.

Blue and green-winged teal have mostly left the state. Big flights of blacks, mallards, baldpate, scaup and pintails are now arriving in Saginaw Bay, Houghton Lake, Point Mouille and other favorite stopping-off points.

About 75 per cent of the kill is normally migrants, en route from Canada to their southern wintering grounds.

"With the start of pheasant shooting, some of the hunting pressure has loosened up," Petoskey said.

Some arrests already have been made for shooting redheads and canvasbacks, which are just starting to arrive in sizable numbers. Both species were declared illegal this year in a move to revive dwindling populations.

Both ducks and divers, fighting on the big open waters favored mostly by experienced hunters who don't have much trouble with identification.

Grand Rapids Kennel Club Sets Show Date

GRAND RAPIDS — For the second time in two years, the Grand Rapids Kennel Club has advanced by a month the date of its annual winter all-breed dog show.

The event will be held in Civic auditorium here Sunday, Nov. 13, with two floors of the huge hall devoted to showing and judging.

Entries for the show will close at noon, Nov. 1, and entries should be mailed to the Bow Dog Show Organization, 9999 Broad St., Detroit.

The 130 acre bird sanctuary was started by the late W. K. Kellogg in 1927 and given to MSU in 1929. Besides the migrating birds, the refuge draws tourists in huge numbers. Van Dusen said. Recently, about 5,000 visitors stopped in one day one weekend.

Van Dusen said the ducks and geese have learned to stay inside the sanctuary — protected, from hunters — until sundown when hunting legally ends.

Then the wildfowl head for the surrounding fields to feed.

DIFFERENT COLOR — Larry Leach, 234 Alpers St., Pontiac, almost didn't shoot this albinos ringneck opening day of the pheasant season. Hunting in a corn field with his wife Edna, Leach hesitated when the bird first flushed, not being sure what it was. Then he reacted and the bird is now in the hands of a taxidermist. It was shot near Dryden.

More Ducks Arriving Waterfowl Hunting Better

LANSING (U) — Big migrations of ducks and geese are starting to pass through Michigan, raising the hopes of many a hunter who didn't fare so well in the early days of the season.

"The best hunting is yet to come, probably within the next seven to ten days," said Merrill Petoskey, waterfowl specialist with the state conservation department.

Mild and sunny "bluebird" weather at the onset of the season Oct. 7 induced many ducks to stay far out on open waters.

Cloudy, blustery weather last week drove them to sheltered areas where more hunters got a crack at them.

"Even with poor shooting reported in the Saginaw Bay area and the St. Clair flats, two of the prime waterfowl areas, hunters statewide reported 34 ducks per hunter the opening day compared with 35 last year, said Petoskey.

Better success than last year was reported on most inland waters except the Dead Stream swamp and Martin Lake near Mecosta in the Lower Peninsula, he said. Kills also were better than usual at Pointe Mouille.

Except for Portage marshes near Escanaba, shooting was poor in the Upper Peninsula.

Hunting Without Gun in Michigan Can Be Enjoyed

LANSING (UPI) — Outdoor enthusiasts who like to look at migrating waterfowl—but not shoot them—can have a field day soon at the Michigan State University Kellogg bird sanctuary near Battle Creek.

An estimated 4,000 geese and 2,000 ducks on the way south are expected to stop at the sanctuary about the first of November.

R. D. Van Dusen, biologist in charge of the sanctuary, expected a flock of 30 to 40 whistling swans to arrive for a short stay between Nov. 5 and Nov. 10.

African Nations Open Purses

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — Teen-agers and the new African nations have much in common. They resent parental control, but perpetually have their hands out for "allowances."

They want what the other kids in the new neighborhood have — and in a hurry. They insist on sharing the family car and pocket-book, but are reluctant to work their way up in the world slowly, like Dad did.

Not a single one of the new African republics expect to get along without foreign aid. All of them have asked us for financial help, and most are perfectly willing to accept it from Red Russia as well.

Moscow — like the dope peddler on the back street — is so anxious to make juvenile delinquents out of the young nations that Uncle Sam is in an unaccounted rush to shower them with dollar aid.

It therefore comes as a bit of a shock to Washingtonians to see how lavishly they intend to live among us, while counting on our largesse.

A week or so ago, the newly recognized government of the Cameroon (once a French protectorate) paid $200,000 for a field-stone mansion located in our most exclusive area overlooking Rock Creek Park.

The house, with its gracious drawing room, eight bedrooms and servants' quarters, changed hands six years ago for less than $75,000.

The new owner added a swimming pool, and picked up a neat profit in re-selling to the naive young nation-is-a-burly.

This nearly quarter-million dollar transaction provides only a residence for the Cameroon ambassador. The nation is still shipping for a chancery to house offices for him and his staff.

A few days earlier, Guinea proudly announced that for $25,000 it had acquired the residence of Frances Knight, chief of our State Department's passport division, and her husband.

This also produced a whopping profit for the owners, and seemed to indicate that the new African nations may have an inflated idea of what it takes to keep up with the Joneses.

Ghana, a slightly earlier newcomer to the family of nations, bought an equally lavish mansion last year in the same exclusive area adjoining the park.

These establishments are far superior to many of the Washington embassies of larger, more prosperous and better established foreign nations. Certainly the prices paid are setting new highs for extravagance.

Two years ago the Kingdom of Jordan paid only $150,000 for a house and all of its furnishings, which serves the ambassador both as a residence and a chancery office for the staff.

The house is not luxurious, but it was considered adequate to provide the setting for a happy party honoring the brave young pro-Western king of Jordan during his state visit here.

Why do the new-born nations of Africa demand such luxury of adobe and setting?

It is time to ask, before the other fourteen dark-continents nations newly admitted to the United Nations spend with similar abandon.

Swanson to Bid for County Vote

Due Friday for 13-Hour Swing in Traditionally Republican Oakland

In the election homestead, Democratic gubernatorial candidate John B. Swanson moves into Oakland County Friday for 13 hours in his attempt to capture the traditionally Republican county.

Swanson's day will begin at 11 a.m. at the gates of the Fisher Body Division plant, 300 Baldwin Ave., and end when he attends the "Fall Fun Frolic" being staged in Oak Park that night at George J. Fulkerson, Democratic candidate for prosecutor.

The Democratic committees in Waterford, Milford and White Lake Townships will host Swanson at a noon luncheon at Mitch's restaurant, 4000 Cass Elizabeth Lake Rd.

James G. Kelis, Democratic candidate for the county's 18th District congressional seat, will accompany Swanson on his swing around Oakland County.

His itinerary calls for the lieutenant governor to visit the Lincoln Mercury plant in Wixom from 2 to 3:30. After an hour's break, when he confers with party workers at the home of former Wixom mayor Joseph T. Stadnik, Swanson will join management officials of the Ford plant for dinner.

Before he goes to the dinner for Fulkerson, Swanson will stop over at the Tel-Huron Shopping Center in Pontiac from 10:30 to 11 p.m.

Before that other stops are planned for Farmington and Berkeley.

Happy Young Couple Thrill Non-Marrieds

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — FLASH: I just saw a glamorous married couple that isn't divorcing and is very happy together.

Steve Lawrence and his wife, Eydie Gorme, opened at the Copacabana with such warmth, charm and talent that Hollywood Producer Joe Pasternak said to me, "They are Mr. and Mrs. Delight."

"I have to go change my gown," Eydie announced—"NOW!" asked Steve. "Yes, I've been wearing it ever since I came 10 minutes ago." "And it's already out of style?"

That was a gimmick for Steve to work alone. Later Steve changed his gown so Eydie could work alone. Singing "Bill Bailey," Eydie changed the lyrics especially for a broad-shouldered ringsider, making them, "Bill Beldy, Won't You Please Come Home?"

Steve and Eydie'll do the very Gorme and Garry Moore TV shows — separately. (When those shows were booked months ago, Steve and Eydie didn't know they'd have an act). But Joe Pasternak, who made a movie star "Another Judy Garland" out of Connie Francis in "Where the Boys Are," was so enthralled, Hollywood may get them as a team before TV does.

Looking around the Copacabana when Steve and Eydie had everybody drooling into their scotchies about their pretty love story, I noticed something rather peculiar. They just love love stories about married people. They may not believe in them, they may not practice the idea—but they do love them!

Parents Protest Negro Students

Object to Their Transfer to Predominantly White Schools in Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—The parents of children at three predominantly white Detroit schools voted Tuesday night to keep their youngsters away from the transfer of 30 Negro children to the schools.

The parents of the 30 children, who are being transferred because of overcrowding at the two schools, voted to keep their children home Friday and next Monday and Tuesday from the Guest, Monnier and Noble schools. The Guest and Noble schools are all-white. The Monnier has a few Negro students.

They protested the transfer of the 30 children from the Brady and McKewen schools to the schools attended by their children. The Board of Education said the Negroes were being transferred because of overcrowding at the two schools.

Robert P. Williams, 40, an insurance agent and spokesman for the Northern Parents Club, said, "We are here as parents, not as property owners. We talk here from the standpoint of our children. Our children are worth more than property."

An unidentified Negro woman said neither the whites nor the Negroes were happy with the situation. School officials declined comment.

Detroit schools are integrated. The Guest, Monnier and Noble schools are predominantly white neighborhoods.

Cuba's Invasion Charge Headed for U.N. Debate

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Fidel Castro's charge that the United States is preparing an invasion of Cuba appeared destined today for debate after Friday in the U.N. Political Committee instead of immediate discussion by the General Assembly.

Demands for urgent consideration for the invasion charge, Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa, also accused the United States Tuesday of planning a "manufactured" attack on the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba, to influence the U.S. presidential election.

Despite Soviet backing for Roa, the assembly steering committee voted 123 to 5 abstentions to send the complaint to the 90-nation political committee, where the United States said it rightfully belonged.

The political committee already is bogged down with a heavy work schedule, and the Cuban charges appeared fated to wind up near the bottom of its agenda.

LITTLE CHANCE

Cuba had served notice that if the steering committee rejected the demand for immediate assembly debate on the complaint, it would try to get the assembly to overturn the committee recommendation. Diplomats gave the Cubans little chance of success.

The United States branded the Cuban charges a "monstrous fabrication" and warned the steering group against being stampeded into hasty action. It made clear, however, that it welcomed a full U.N. airing of Cuba's charges.

The Cuban foreign minister accused Sen. John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon of trying to make Cuba the scapegoat of the election campaign. In an emotional outburst, he declared the Cuban government had abundant proof a large-scale attack on Cuban territory "is about to break out."

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin echoed Roa's claim that the United States is preparing aggression against the Caribbean neighbor.

"This may be a second Guatemala and must not be repeated," Zorin said, referring to the overthrow of the Communist-dominated regime in that Latin American country six years ago.

James W. Barco of the United States said the invasion charge was "so fantastic that it was hardly worth the committee's time to discuss it."

The U.S. delegate said his government had instructed him to reiterate the assurances given last July and August that the United States has no plans or intentions to attack Cuba.

"That was three months ago," he declared, "and it is equally true today."

City Realtor Seeks Zoning Change Wants Planning Commission Overruled

By PETE LOCHNER

A prominent Pontiac realtor has urged the City Commission to overrule the planning commission in a spot zoning dispute.

The last time planners were overruled was five years ago, according to Henry Smith, plan commission secretary.

Bruce J. Annett, whom the Pontiac Board of Realtors chose as "realtor of the year" this summer, appeared before the commission last night after realtors for the third time had requested that planners reconsider their zoning bid.

The unusual request of the former president of the Pontiac Board of Realtors and the Michigan Real Estate Association was taken under study until next week.

"No one believes more in good zoning than I," said Annett.

Annett has asked that a vacant lot he owns at the northeast corner of Orchard Lake Avenue and Palmer Street be rezoned from residential to commercial for a laundromat, which a prospective purchaser wants to build there.

The proposal has gone back and forth between city commissioners and planners three times since it was made in May, with commissioners each time insisting that planners reconsider adverse recommendations.

The recommendation was unchanged when it was reported last night.

Planners insisted the move would be "spot zoning," a phrase planners use to describe rezoning of individual lots without regard to the neighborhood or master plans for neighborhood development.

OTHER LOTS AVAILABLE

Planners also noted that there was other commercially zoned property available in the neighborhood that should be used up first, and that the small size of Annett's lot.

They said it was too small and irregularly shaped for a proper commercial alley and parking lot.

The recommendation was unchanged when it was reported last night.

Gubernatorial Candidates Talk Taxes in Detroit

By The Associated Press

Republican gubernatorial candidate Paul Hawagell and Lt. Gov. John B. Swanson, the Democratic candidate, debated taxes Tuesday before the Detroit Life Underwriters Association.

Hawagell challenged Swanson to spell out his specific tax program, saying:

"I submit that Swanson is playing the well-known television game, 'I've Got A Secret,' with the voters. He knows and I know that he favors an income tax. But I don't think he has the courage on this day, or any other day, to state up and say what he recommends."

Swanson answered that he did not intend to make any specific statement on his tax program until after he heard from an advisory tax committee.

He said that Bagwell's endorsement of a one-cent increase in the state sales tax was "not a solution to our fiscal problems."

"In fact, it is a step in the wrong direction, and it is inequitable and inadequate, and secondly, it is not a permanent solution," he said.

Bentley and his Democratic opponent, Sen. Patrick V. McNamara, both campaigned in the state Tuesday.

Bentley told a Bay City audience that he had "a new plan to provide the health care needed by the government for private insurance coverage."

Bentley, who said the plan was an "entirely new concept of the approach to a sound program of health care for the nation's aging citizens," said the government should form a federal health insurance corporation which would make cash payments monthly to persons earning less than $1,800 annually. He said the money would be paid by retirees to pay their own private health insurance premiums.

NYC Will Consolidate State Freight Service

—LANING — The New York Central Railroad has been granted State Public Service Commission permission to consolidate freight service in two areas.

A traveling agent based at Jackson will now freight orders from Eaton Rapids, Charlotte, Hastings, Middleville and Mason. An agent at Saginaw will take orders from Roscommon, Gaylord, Indian River, Chelcygan, Grayling and Mackinac City.

The position of freight agent will be discontinued at the commission served by the traveling representative of the railroad.

New York State Paper Endorses Dick Nixon

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. (UPI)—The endorsed Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the presidency.

The newspaper, in an editorial, said it is backing Nixon's candidacy because of his "wide experience" and "training."

President Eisenhower was endorsed by the press in 1952 and in 1956.

Reich Army Will Train in France

PARIS (AP)—The spearhead of another German army will arrive in France next week, this time as an ally.

A spokesman for the French Defense Ministry said that units of the West German army will take up training positions in Eastern France on Nov. 3 for an initial period of three weeks. A total of about 2,000 men will be in the units.

The Germans are coming under an agreement the governments of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and President Charles de Gaulle signed Tuesday night.

The French are to make training and storage facilities available. The bases will remain under French control.

BEAT OPPOSITION

The arrival of the Germans soon after signing of the agreement means the two governments are hurrying to put the agreement into effect before opposition can crystallize.

The newspaper "Figaro" reported that as a gesture to French sensitivity, the initial German contingents will wear khaki uniforms similar to those worn by French, British and American soldiers and not the field gray Frenchmen associate with their Nazi occupiers.

The Defense Ministry said the Germans will train at Sissonne, near Laon, in the Aisne Department, and at Mourmelon, near Châlons-en-Champagne, in the Marne Department. Both areas saw little fighting in World War I. Sissonne also figured in the campaign of 1940.

Falling Car Crushes Area Father of Two

A 3-year-old father of two was crushed to death yesterday afternoon while working under his car in the yard of his home in Pontiac Township.

Theodore C. Washam, 46, of 4615 10th Road was underneath his car making repairs when the wheels slipped off blocks, pinning him to the ground.

His body was discovered three hours later by his wife. She had come out to call him to go to work at the General Motors Fisher Body plant.

Her screams summoned a constable, Carl Buxton, from his home across the street. He found the car up and extricated Washam's body.

Dr. John Harold, deputy coroner, estimated he had been dead about three hours.

Gas Triggers Explosion at Crowded Store

Walls Fall, Windows Shatter, Bodies Fly Into Street

WINDSOR, Ont. (UP)—A gas-triggered explosion in a crowded downtown department store here Tuesday caused in walls, shattered windows and hurled bodies into the street.

At least 10 persons died.

Seven bodies were recovered. Another person died in a hospital. Rescue crews worked through the night in near-freezing temperatures to find at least 10 more bodies which could be seen pinned beneath the rubble. Other reports said there were three or more buried.

At least 99 persons were treated for injuries. Henry Bird, civil defense director for the area, said five store employees were unaccounted for.

"Everyone was screaming, everyone saying be quiet," said Mrs. J. A. Anderson of Windsor, one of about 150 customers and clerks who were in the Metropolitan Stores Ltd. building.

Mrs. Anderson said the mid-afternoon explosion "just shook the place, and all the lights went off all of a sudden." She said, "There was a big splash as the air came back into the store, or something."

Store manager Joseph Harold, 31, said he was in the sub-basement with Charles Ingram, a plumber, and Howard Schram, an electrician, when the blast occurred. The store's heating plant was being converted to gas.

"We decided to open the main (gas) line from the street," Harold said, "and all we got was air. All of a sudden the gas came through. I turned to leave the basement when it exploded."

Hallway suffered burns on the face and hands and was reported in fair condition at a Windsor hospital.

"People were running out sort of crazy-like, covered with blood," said Sheldon Sofran, 19. "There was this terrific blast. I drove my car through windows without stopping and left it in the middle of the street. The street was a rain-storm of glass."

GRIM SEARCH CONTINUES—Rescue workers probe on into the night Tuesday through wreckage of the Metropolitan Department Store in downtown Windsor. An afternoon explosion, during shopping hours, killed at least 10 persons and injured 99. The disastrous blast was blamed on a natural gas leak.

City Receives Renewal Funds

$567,822 U.S. Check Opens Door to Deals for Property

The city has received a $567,822 check from the United States Treasury to begin initial property negotiations in the urban renewal program.

Negotiations won't get under way, though, until urban renewal authorities in Chicago approve the proposed list of initial acquisitions.

Robert A. Stiller, assistant city manager and urban renewal coordinator, said he expected acquisition approval shortly.

The check represents federal approval of the city's request for $700,000 in initial funds. Deducted, as expected, were several items.

$6,112 FOR PLANNING

They include a dedication of the $6,112 advanced by the federal government two years ago for planning; interest on the $6,112; and $38,067, the estimated federal cost for auditing and inspection of the project over its anticipated five-year span.

The $700,000 is covered in the $3,183,044 revolving fund the federal government has set up to cover land acquisition costs.

Sum of the People 'Nixon Gains on Religion'

By JOHN KRAFFT (Special to the Pontiac Press)

Richard M. Nixon is gaining strength from the so-called "religious issue."

About one out of 10 people who have decided to vote for the vice president are quite outspoken in explaining their choice, according to the latest Keph poll. In Southern Illinois, a grade-school teacher who has decided to vote for Nixon gave this reply:

"I'm terribly concerned about what is going to happen to this planet if our exploding population isn't somehow halted. Although I admire Mr. Kennedy personally, I cannot bring myself to believe that he would support birth control information for those poverty-stricken countries where it's desperately needed."

And down south, in North Carolina, a tobacco farmer couldn't have been more explicit. Pulling no punches, he said, "I don't want a Catholic in the White House! He would have to take orders from Rome. And, in no time, every judge on the bench would be Catholic, too."

When all the reasons for deciding to vote for Nixon are grouped, here's what emerges:

REASONS FOR NIXON

Nixon experienced 42% Admire his team 36%

Better domestic platform 24% Best at international relations 21% Kennedy too young 17% Religious issue 15% Nixon likable 14%

But this one-in-10 pro-Nixon vote of reasons for supporting a Republican ticket, but there's no denying (Continued on Page 7, Col. 3)

By MAX E. SIMON

A Michigan State University Oakland professor indicted the nation's press Tuesday night for feeding a "false image" of South America to their readers.

Dr. Samuel Shapiro, 33-year-old assistant professor of history, told members of the MSUO faculty and administration that—all reports to the contrary—Castro's Cuba is here to stay.

"The Cuban papers may be muzzled under Fidel," Shapiro said, "but they tell the truth about their country more than American papers do."

He said coverage of that area by The Pontiac Press is superior to that of other metropolitan dailies in the area.

By The Associated Press

The two major candidates for the presidency, Democratic Sen. John F. Kennedy and Republican Vice President Richard M. Nixon, are returning to Michigan to continue their battle for the state's 20 electoral votes.

Kennedy arrives today and Nixon is to arrive Thursday. Each was to cover ground the other covered in a previous trip. Kennedy lands at Selfridge Air Force Base in mid-afternoon. He is to give a 20-minute speech at Mount Clemens plugging himself, the Democratic ticket and Rep. James O'Hara of the 7th Congressional District.

He also is scheduled to attend party rallies at shopping centers in Warren and Roseville before going to Detroit.

Kennedy will make a brief stop at Campus Martius in downtown Detroit, then go to Hamtramck to give a speech in 9,000-seat Keyworth Stadium.

At 9 p.m., the Democratic aspirant delivers a speech at the Michigan State Fairgrounds' 8,000-seat Coliseum. It will be carried by WJBK-TV in the Detroit area.

Kennedy will leave Detroit Metropolitan Airport at 10:30 p.m. for New York City.

Nixon will visit seven cities during his 14-hour stay. A train will take him to Monroe, Ann Arbor, Jackson, Battle Creek, Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids and Muskegon.

Party officials said he would speak at each stop. They said he would be accompanied by Rep. Alvin M. Bentley, R-Mich., Republican candidate for U.S. Senate, and Paul D. Bagwell, GOP gubernatorial candidate.

KENNEDY NIXON

EN ROUTE WITH KENNEDY—Sen. John F. Kennedy charged today the Eisenhower administration is "afraid to tell the people the truth" and has repeatedly stamped the secrecy stamp on records for political purposes.

The Democratic presidential candidate, leading for a day's campaigning in Michigan, branded the issue he kept pushing on Tuesday in a marathon assault on largely Republican Chicago suburbs.

His complaint then was that, in order to help Vice President Richard M. Nixon make good his campaign contention that U. S. prestige is at an all-time high, the administration had hidden away a government-financed survey.

This report, he said, showed that the people—in 10 friendly countries believe the Soviet Union is ahead of this country militarily and will maintain or increase its lead.

Kennedy said today, in a speech prepared for delivery in Mount Clemens, Mich., that the Defense and State Departments, the International Cooperation Administration, which administers foreign aid, and many other executive agencies have repeatedly refused the public free access to public information.

Even the Civil War Centennial Commission, he said, was given the authority to classify as secret some of its records.

"COMMITTEE BLOCKED" A congressional committee was blocked from finding out who high bids were accepted and low bids rejected on some government contracts, Kennedy charged, and information sought about the administration of economic and technical aid in India, Laos, Pakistan and Bolivia was refused.

"This administration does not trust the people," Kennedy said. "It has kept the unpleasant truth from them in order to convince them that, as Mr. Nixon says, they never had it so good."

"In recent years the administration has classified (declared secret) three times as many documents as were classified in the entire previous history of American government."

Legal Publisher Dies

TOLEDO, Ohio—Charles L. McBride, 65, former publisher of the Toledo Legal News, died Tuesday in his home at nearby Temperance, Mich.

Temporarily for the next five days will average near the normal high of 56 degrees, the weatherman says. Saturday will be a little cooler, but Sunday and Monday will be warmer again.

Morning southerly winds at 10-15 miles per hour will shift to northwesterly tonight.

Precipitation will be less than one half inch in showers Friday night.

Forty-one was the lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The reading at 1 p.m. was 46.

Yet, the United States press called this a great triumph for this country.

"What finally was adopted was a milk-and-water resolution which contained no specific mention of the United States government to contain the Cuban revolution had ended in failure."

Not only is Castro popular in Cuba, said Shapiro, but also throughout Latin America.

He stated that at the recent meeting of the Organization of American States two foreign ministers refused to sign the United States resolution aimed at Cuba, while Mexico's representative signed only under pressure from Secretary of State Christian A. Herter.

Yet, the United States press called this a great triumph for this country.

"What finally was adopted was a milk-and-water resolution which contained no specific mention of the United States government to contain the Cuban revolution had ended in failure."

Not only is Castro popular in Cuba, said Shapiro, but also throughout Latin America.

He stated that at the recent meeting of the Organization of American States two foreign ministers refused to sign the United States resolution aimed at Cuba, while Mexico's representative signed only under pressure from Secretary of State Christian A. Herter.

Yet, the United States press called this a great triumph for this country.

Like Faces Prestige Poll Decision

Kennedy Again Cries Coverup

U.S. Information Chief to Ask White House for Directions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House apparently will have to decide whether to make public any government polls on the status of U.S. prestige overseas.

Sen. John F. Kennedy renewed charges that polls have been made showing a drop in American prestige and that the administration has concealed the findings to protect Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Rep. John E. Moss, D-Calif., chairman of the House Government Operations subcommittee, said Tuesday night a claim of executive privilege had blocked his staff's effort to learn whether such a poll is being suppressed by the U.S. Information Agency.

Moss quoted Thomas Roderick, USA general counsel, as saying USA Director George V. Allen is checking with the White House for a decision on whether such reports should be withheld.

James C. Hogarty, White House press secretary, brushed aside queries on the existence of such reports. He referred newsmen to a statement last week that the President's Committee on Information Activities had made no report and "no conclusions as to the status of U.S. prestige abroad."

Moss said Allen himself had refused to discuss the matter with subcommittee investigators after Roderick had advised Allen to claim executive privilege.

Kennedy and Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, had asked earlier for the reports without success.

Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, challenged Nixon to use his influence to obtain release of the reports.

"This appears to be a case of secrecy in government at its most objectionable for campaign time purposes," Gore said in a statement.

Doctors in Poll Accept Smoking as Cancer Cause

NEW YORK (AP) — A survey among 387 American doctors discloses that one-third of them believe cigarette smoking is a definite cause of lung cancer, says the American Cancer Society.

Another third regard it as a probable cause, the survey showed.

The figures, released Tuesday at the 47th annual meeting of the society, showed that 22 per cent of the 387 physicians questioned thought that cigarettes are a factor in lung cancer.

The tobacco industry contends that a definite link between smoking and lung cancer has not been determined.

Troy Boy Dies of Crash Injuries

Victim Ran Into Side of Car on John R Road; Driver's Statement Due

A 10-year-old boy died early today in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital as the result of injuries received in an accident Monday evening in Troy.

The victim, a fourth grade student at Troy Union Elementary School, was Robert McDowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. McDowell, of 6229 John R Road, Troy.

Police said the boy was reported to have been riding his bicycle on John R Road at the time of the crash.

The driver of the car, Robert H. Heimerger, 38, of 4745 Betty St., Utica, was to make a statement today at the prosecutor's office.

Robert's father is employed by the General Motors Truck and Coach Division. The McDowells have seven other children, five boys and two girls.

Robert's body is at the Piquette Funeral Home, Rochester.

He is a member of the County NAACP board, the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce and a council member of the Boy Scouts and the Big Brothers of Oakland County.

He also belongs to PTAs at Mark Twain, Jefferson Junior High, and Bagley schools, the Bohm Club and St. John Methodist Church.

A United Fund organization, the Pontiac Urban League is mainly concerned with housing and employment of minority groups in the area.

More than 3,500 teachers and administrators in Oakland County are expected to attend.

Nobel Prize for Literature Awarded to French Poet

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Jean-Jacques Perse, a French poet and former diplomat now a resident of the United States, today was awarded the 1960 Nobel Prize for literature.

Perse, now 73, had been mentioned for the award as long ago as 1956.

The 18-member Swedish Academy of Letters, in choosing him for the $43,627 prize, cited "the soaring flight and the provocative imagery of his poetry which in a visionary fashion reflects the condition of our time."

Husband-Wife Publisher-Editor Split Politically

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (AP)—Alicia Patterson, editor and publisher of Newsday, Tuesday endorsed Sen. John F. Kennedy for president.

At the same time, her husband, Harry F. Guggenheim, the newspaper's president and co-owner, announced his personal endorsement of Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The paper, which lists itself as Independent, supported Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1952 and Adlai E. Stevenson in 1956.

In a signed editorial, Miss Paterson made it clear she was expressing the opinions of the newspaper in endorsing Kennedy.

Guggenheim, in a signed column opposite the editorial page, differed with the views expressed in the editorial.

In the 1940 presidential campaign there was a similar division in Newsday—with Miss Patterson supporting the late Franklin D. Roosevelt and Guggenheim supporting the late Wendell L. Willkie.

Hard work, we're told, never killed anybody. Of course, it's scared some people half to death.

Seaway Sets Winter Closing

U.S. Section Will Shut Down Nov. 30; Later Dates for Canada

MASSENA, N.Y. (AP)—The American section of the St. Lawrence Seaway will close on Nov. 30 for the winter, the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp. announced.

The section was scheduled to close Nov. 30 last year, but remained in operation until Dec. 5.

Willis Crosswhite, traffic service officer for the corporation, said, the American section would close on time this year.

The Welland Canal is scheduled to close Dec. 12 and the Sault Ste. Marie Canal on Dec. 12.

Seaway officials anticipate an increase of possibly 15 per cent in tonnage carried through the inland-waterway this year.

By the end of September, traffic on the seaway was up 11 per cent over 1959 figures.

In Hamilton, Ont., however, the president of the Great Lakes Waterways Development Association predicted that tonnage passing through the Welland Canal would be about 30 per cent below estimates.

Gen. Howard D. Graham said tonnage passing through the canal last year was about 30 per cent below estimates and "it will be about the same again this year."

Graham's organization is seeking the removal of tolls from the Welland Canal.

Train Incident Recalls Dewey Campaign of '48

By MERRIMAN SMITH

ABOARD THE NIXON TRAIN (UPI) — Backstairs at the campaign:

At the start of Vice President Richard M. Nixon's current whistlestop tour in Washington the other night GOP National Chairman Thurston B. Morton was addressing a crowd at the rear end of the candidate's car.

"We are going back to a wonderfully romantic form of transportation," Morton said, "the old train and the whistle-stops."

Canada's Auto Industry Hurting

Low-Volume Market, High Taxes and Imports All Blamed for Trouble

OTTAWA (AP)—High taxes and a low-volume market were among the ills of the Canadian auto industry specified Monday by the big three—General Motors, Ford and Chrysler—before a royal commission.

Prof. Vincent Bladen of Toronto, a one-man commission studying the automotive industry now hit hard by low-priced foreign imports, inaugurated week-long hearings by questioning representatives of the three firms.

E. H. Walker, president of General Motors of Canada Ltd., said his company is "faster than you think" to turning out in this country the Vauxhall car produced by General Motors in Britain. It leads sales of foreign cars here.

An anticipated government step would shift the basis for duty valuation upward as of Dec. 1. But Walker indicated this isn't expected to end duty inequalities now enjoyed by imports to the disadvantage of Canadian products.

Rhys M. Gale, president of Ford Motor Co. of Canada Ltd., agreed with Walker that the effective increase in price for United Kingdom or European cars after Dec. 1 couldn't be evaluated yet.

Ron W. Tolman, president of Chrysler Corp. of Canada Ltd., said in a statement that the Canadian industry is at the most critical point in its 50-year history and any remedial action must be taken by the federal government at the point where foreign auto enter Canada.

cluding days of a bitterly fought campaign will dislodge many of these threatened non-voters.

New diesel locomotives driven hydraulically through torque converters instead of by electric drive are now being put into service.

At this tender moment, a train standing ready to let on a load-bliss of seats of driving out the chairman's next sentence.

Standing in the crowd beneath Nixon and the Xicans, a Republican official shuffled.

"The railroad engineers still remember Dewey," he said with a bitter chuckle.

It was in 1948 that Thomas E. Dewey, then running against President Truman, extended one of his side-swinging a track-side rally. The train suddenly began to move backward into the crowd and hundreds scattered in a fleeing alarm. Dewey reacted by roaring that his engine "must be a lunatic."

And everywhere Dewey traveled the news he saw written in the dust on hundreds of boxes: "Dewey for Truman."

One of the shelling things a campaign traveler encounters this election year is the depressingly large number of average citizens who display a harsh, cynical attitude toward both candidates.

This is an instructive fact, but fact it is, and every reporter traveling with either Nixon or Sen. John F. Kennedy runs into it.

A clerk in New York, a cab driver in Chicago, a bellhop in Denver, an entertainer in Los Angeles, all recently said essentially the same thing:

"I don't know who to believe. Both sides seem to be promising so much, so much that I know they won't be able to deliver."

And the even sadder aspect of this disillusionment is the next sentence one hears too frequently: "I may not even vote at all."

Perhaps the fever of the campaign is making many of these threatened non-voters.

Dale Wilder Just a 'Junkman'

Collects Pets and Knickknacks

By JIM LONG
SPRINGFIELD TOWNSHIP — Dale Wilder is a collector, quite an attraction for his business, very haphazard in some respects. He'll search for years trying to find a particular rare animal he can breed for a hobby, but against all odds he'll find it in the next just what strange items have accumulated at his place of business.

Wilder, 30, is a junkman with a knack for raising unusual animals. The junkman tag doesn't upset Wilder at all. However, the reference to the 30,000 odds and ends on sale at his establishment is another story. "It's new, used and abused merchandise, but never junk," said Wilder with a genuine sense of imagination.

Wilder raises animals as a hobby the creatures also serve as an attraction for his business on the Dixie Highway, The Whoopee Bowl.

Currently, the stars of Wilder's menagerie are four Japanese Sika deer that romp over a large area of fenced-in property adjacent to the Whoopee Bowl.

"I like deer of this country, the animals, instead of taking long drives when running, actually spring up and down, uncoupling forward with each motion.

Wilder purchased a pair of the animals from a Massachusetts breeder six years ago.

WHITE SQUIRRELS
Another of his pet pets are five

white squirrels, true albinos, at auctions but how it comes to shipped in from Wisconsin after a five-year search.

"As far as I know they were bred in Ohio, Ind., but some where along the line someone has got their stories mixed because only last week I read where the squirrels can't survive outside that community," Wilder said.

The Indiana community Wilder referred to has a claim to fame of having the only large white squirrel settlement in the country. More than 700 of the animals make their homes there, and are even protected by city laws. A $25 fine is levied should anyone take a white squirrel from Ohio, since it is reported they can only live there for some unexplainable reason.

Wilder, who estimates he has raised more than 30 kinds of animals, birds and fish in his lifetime, said he would lay odds that under his care the squirrels could survive.

In the junk business 13 years, Wilder got sidetracked from his original intent when he moved to Springfield Township from Detroit where he owned a print shop.

"Actually, I had planned on building a recreation center on the site since I own a lakefront property," Wilder explained, pointing to the two lakes behind his property, Bridge and Spring lakes.

"But I ran short of funds after making a start and decided to deal in merchandise since I already had some recreation equipment for sale."

He said that for the first five years all his goods were purchased by himself, she said.

The blonde coed works in the campus cafeteria after school to earn food money for the horse.

The 3-year-old horse has won various prizes at Western shows around Michigan and Kentucky since she bought him five years ago, Jerry said.

A 1959 graduate of Walled Lake High School, Jerry is on a two-year general curriculum at the Mount Pleasant university.

Lucky could come in handy if Jerry follows through with her present educational plans to change schools and major in agriculture at a Kentucky college.

AF to 'Take Over' in Oxford

Band Concert Set Tomorrow

Mayor Proclaims Day in Honor of This Widely Known Group

OXFORD — A precision-drilled military unit will take over this village tomorrow.

But the 65 servicemen who march in here will be armed with trumpets and trombones rather than rifles and fixed bayonets.

All of them are members of the internationally acclaimed U.S. Air Force Band which will present two concerts at the Oxford Area Community High School.

High school students from Oakland, Macomb and Lapeer counties will turn out 2,000 strong for the band's matinee performance at 3 p.m.

An adult audience of comparable size will be on hand when the men in blue present their second performance at 8 p.m.

The village's main street will be decorated with red, white and blue flags for the arrival of the bandmen and Mayor Allen E. Valentine has proclaimed tomorrow as United States Air Force Band Day.

The afternoon program is designed to appeal especially to the teen-agers. Modern music will be presented in addition to classical and semi-classical compositions of great composers.

HIGH SCHOOLERS TO PLAY
Eight area high school students will join the band for the matinee.

The colorful musical organization has played throughout the world and its members have been selected from 1,000 professional musicians.

Represented in the Air Force Band are former members of 20 different symphony orchestras and 16 name dance bands.

Conducting the aggregation is USAF Col. George S. Howard whose background includes experience as a soloist, composer and educator. He has a doctorate in music from the Chicago Conservatory of Music.

The Air Force Band and its 25-voice chorus known as the Singing Sergeants appear on a national radio show.

The concerts will be staged in the multipurpose room of the high school. The performances are being sponsored by the Oxford Lions Club.

Square Dance Friday

COMMERCIAL TOWNSHIP — A square dance, sponsored by Job's Daughters, Commercial Beloit 22, will be held Friday at 8 p.m. at the Commercial Masonic Temple, 1835 Broadway St. Tickets can be purchased at the door.

Carver Board's Dissolution Near

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — The Oakland County Board of Education is awaiting the results of a local school election here today which is expected to produce no winners.

If a new school board is not elected, the way will be paved for the dissolution by the county of the township's all-Negro Carver School District so it could be annexed to Oak Park or Ferndale or both.

No candidates have filed nominating petitions for any of the five vacant seats on the Carver school board and the only new board members could be elected in through write-in ballots.

A write-in candidate would have to get 10 votes to be elected and five persons must be elected if the board is to continue.

The five former school board members resigned when it was learned that the school district could be disbanded in this manner.

The knotty situation developed this fall when ninth graders from the Carver district were not accepted in Detroit high schools as they had been in the past.

The Carver School District has no high school of its own and neighboring school districts would not accept the students.

The Carver ninth graders now are attending classes which have been set up in the township until the situation is resolved.

School officials from Detroit, Oak Park and Ferndale said that economic factors rather than racial discrimination is their reason for refusing admittance to the Carver students.

With all indications pointing to dissolution, the question now is what neighboring community or communities the Carver School District will be annexed.

Supreme Court Aspirant to Speak in Lake Orion

ORION TOWNSHIP — Speaker to the township's dinner at the Orion Republican Club will be Judge James R. Breakey Jr. of Ann Arbor. He is a nonpartisan candidate for Supreme Court Justice in the Nov. 8 election.

The meeting will be held at 7 p.m. in the Lake Orion Methodist Church House on East Flint Street.

A question and answer period will follow Judge Breakey's talk.

Parent-Teen Guide Mailed

ROCHESTER — Copies of the "Guide for Parent-Teen Cooperation" were mailed yesterday to some 450 families of new junior and senior high school students in the Rochester Community School District.

The guide was drafted by the code committee of the Rochester Area Youth Guidance Committee. It was based on results of a survey conducted last year of some 1,000 teen-agers and adults in the local school district.

The purpose of the guide is to outline areas of parent and teen responsibilities to make for healthier family living.

Further, it is designed to stimulate discussion on issues where there are conflicting opinions rather than provide a substitute for family-made rules.

According to the code committee, it should serve as a springboard from which family agreement may be reached on such issues as dating, drinking, smoking, entertaining and other activities.

The guide has the endorsement of area governmental agencies, the Rochester Board of Education, Ministerial Association and the local Parent-Teacher Association Council.

Osteopaths' Prexy Will Be Installed

They will reside at 9815 Mandon Lake Road.

For her wedding the bride chose a tailored white satin gown featuring a bouffant skirt, long sleeves and a chapel train. Her seed pearl crown held a fingertip veil of illusion, and she carried a cascade arrangement of white Fugi chrysanthemums.

Maid of honor was Rosemary Roseberry of Detroit, Mary Lou Hale of Pontiac and Mrs. William Billock of Detroit were bridesmaids.

Area Coed Has Horse at School

Stables Stallion Close to CMU Campus so She Won't Be Lonesome

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — A Central Michigan University coed from here may have found the answer to the campus parking problem. She took her horse to college.

Gerladine Berry, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Enos E. Berry, 965 Caprice Road, admits she has yet to ride it to class, but claims she feels a lot less lonesome with her prize-winning quarter horse Lucky close by.

And close he is, for Jerry keeps Lucky in a barn located about a quarter mile from the CMU campus. She makes two trips to the barn daily to feed and exercise him.

Jerry, a sophomore whose family moved from Louisville, Ky., to the Union Lake area three years ago, said she took her horse to school because she didn't want to burden her father with feed bills.

"I felt that I shouldn't let my father take care of my horse while I was away, and decided to take Lucky to school and look after him myself," she said.

The blonde coed works in the campus cafeteria after school to earn food money for the horse.

The 3-year-old horse has won various prizes at Western shows around Michigan and Kentucky since she bought him five years ago, Jerry said.

A 1959 graduate of Walled Lake High School, Jerry is on a two-year general curriculum at the Mount Pleasant university.

TAKES HORSE TO COLLEGE — A White Lake Township coed attending Central Michigan University, Gerladine Berry, 19, is shown here with her horse Lucky, that she took to college this year so she could be near him. She keeps the 3-year-old animal in a barn just a short distance from the campus. Jerry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Enos E. Berry of 965 Caprice Road.

Judge Uses Probation Children-Officers

Royal Oak Tries Out Youth Court

ROYAL OAK — A probation program that is as effective as it is inexpensive is being evolved here. It may point the way for other communities worried about how to take law-abiding citizens out of youthful first offenders.

Used at the level of municipal court, which tries minor crimes, it hopes to keep the offender from ever getting into the kind of trouble that will take him to circuit court, where probation is a standard effort towards rehabilitation.

Municipal Judge Keith J. Leenhouts is the first in Michigan to develop a probation "department" as a regular tool of his court.

He started it last April after consultation with the Michigan State Corrections Commission whose Director Gus Harrison hailed it as unique among Michigan communities.

Judge Leenhouts' plan is simple. He asks local citizens with special interests or special training to act as "probation officers."

They give sympathetic understanding, counsel and help, if needed, to the offender. All are volunteers and are expected to give a minimum of five hours a month of their time.

A "chief probation officer" to whom each offender must report once a month is paid $50 a month for his time. That cost is privately underwritten.

Those sentenced by the court usually are on probation from 18 months to two years. Jurisdiction of municipal courts extends normally only to misdemeanors for which the maximum penalty is a fine up to $300 or a jail term up to 90 days.

Most sentenced to probation in the Royal Oak court pay a fine; some may also serve a brief jail term.

"We try to combine the negative and the positive approach," said Leenhouts. "The negative — punishment only — just doesn't seem enough; we ought to help the offender if we can."

How does it work?

"So far we're battling 1,000 per cent," said Leenhouts. "Not that we're trying to make any record. We are trying it with some pretty rough boys. We expect some failures."

There are now 56 men between the ages of 17 and 26 on probation.

Is probation preventive?

This is one case, and admittedly an extreme one, cited by the judge.

A youthful car thief headed for possible imprisonment was charged only with a misdemeanor, instead of a felony, to bring him within Judge Leenhouts' jurisdiction.

He was placed on probation and referred to a "probation officer" who also happens to be a psychiatrist. He was known to have a serious personality problem, and it was arranged for him to undergo treatment at the Lafayette Clinic in Detroit for six weeks.

This young man later, told George A. Martin Jr., the chief probation officer:

"I owe you everything. Now I can look forward to having a wife and family and amounting to something."

The Royal Oak court's "probation department" now includes 37 men. They include a psychiatrist, two psychologists, two ministers and a priest, school counselors and principals, a personnel director, an assistant city manager, a former Navy pilot with long experience in youth work.

Although the cost of the program is negligible, the 35-year-old judge intends to refrain from an attempt to institutionalize it into a regular city function.

Sales of Flint Pleads Guilty

$5,000 Bond Continued in Abortion Charge at Muskegon

MUSKEGON (UPI) — Earl W. Sales, 61, a Flint real estate dealer, pleaded guilty Tuesday in circuit court to a charge of performing an abortion in a case in which the prosecution's main witness was found murdered a month after Sales' arrest.

Judge Henry L. Beers ordered a pre-sentence investigation for Sales and continued his bond of $5,000. Sales had been scheduled to go on trial on the charge this morning, but instead entered the guilty plea.

Sales was arrested at a motel in Whitehall in April and accused of performing an abortion on Mrs. Gloria England, 37, a Muskegon divorcee. In May Mrs. England's body was found in the Muskegon River. Her wrists and ankles were bound by wire and she had been dead several days.

Prosecutor Harry Knudsen said Mrs. England had been the chief witness. Sales' hearing on the charge had been postponed twice because Mrs. England could not be found.

Authorities still are investigating her death.

Knudsen had said records seized when Sales was arrested indicated he was with a large-scale abortion ring that had been operating in West Michigan.

Find Tab Hunter Is Innocent of Beating His Dog

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP)—Actor Tab Hunter has been found innocent of charges that he beat his dog.

A jury of 11 women and one man deliberated three hours on cruelty-to-animals charges against the blond leading man. He shook hands with the jurors as they left Municipal Court here Tuesday.

"I'm delighted beyond words," he said.

He had been accused of beating his two-year-old Weimaraner, Fritz. He said he had merely been disciplining the dog as directed by trainers. Veterinarians testified the animal showed no injuries.

The amount of water which flows out of the Mediterranean Sea is less than the amount which flows in, largely because of a higher rate of evaporation on the water surfaces.

The attorney general said Sen. Philip Hart and Prentiss Brown Jr., the Democratic candidate for Congress from the 11th District, would join in his "Meet the People" tour Tuesday in Alpena.

Reno Principal Keeps Eye on Rising Skirts

RENO, Nev. (AP)—A ruling discouraging girls at Reno High School from wearing above the knee skirts brought two comments Tuesday.

David Rush, bachelor principal of the high school and author of the rule, said: "there was no edict to the students, only a statement to faculty members to watch for girls wearing short skirts. We felt that short skirts could lead to serious difficulties."

The other comment came from Robert Clogher of San Jose, Calif., a spokesman for the National Nudist Council.

"What's surprising to me is that a state which permits bare bottoms in Las Vegas should become perturbed about bare knees in Reno," he said.

Furnace Repair Bill May Exceed $1 Million

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (U)—A preliminary inspection showed it may cost $750,000 to $1,500,000 to repair a ruptured blast furnace at the Detroit Steel Corp.'s Portsmouth Division.

That's the estimate made yesterday by A. E. Reinhard, general manager of the suburban New Boston plant. He said the lesser repair figure is estimated if damage is confined to the break-out area.

Zips Up Liver

Here's a tasty way to prepare liver: Dip sliced liver (1 pound) in French dressing then dredge in two-thirds cup enriched flour in which 1/4 teaspoon garlic salt, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper have been mixed. Cook liver slowly in lard or drippings until well browned.

Need a quick and delicious party punch recipe? Combine 1 (4/5 qt.) bottle of any California desert wine with 1 quart of the sherbet of your choice. Stir just until the lumps are out — it will be of milk-shake consistency. Serve it in punch cups as an afternoon or evening treat.

Raisin Bread Makes Simply Elegant Toast

Food tastes turn with the seasons and as fall comes blustering around the bend into winter, we begin to change our menus. As an example, we particularly enjoy serving breads piping hot. Let's begin with one of the simply best — raisin bread toast. Take it as a crisp golden slice of goodness or discover in many match-mates. Some of the best are fruit mixtures which give the sweet touch to toast.

Fruit-topped toasts go along delightfully with hot chocolate or coffee for the late evening refreshment, and they may also add the sweet touch to brunch or lunch. Peach-Cinnamon Toast or Orange-Raisin Toast would be perfect for these occasions. To follow the sweet and simple theme, select Butterscotch-Pecan Toast or Coconut Toast, a two-some certain to please let-a-age guests.

With a little more preparation, you may serve a French toast version — Pineapple Upside-Down French Toast or Apple Butter French Toast. These, too, are right for the day's little meals.

Pineapple Upside-Down French Toast
2 tablespoons butter
1/4 cup brown sugar

1 cup drained, crushed pineapple
1 tablespoon pineapple syrup
2 eggs, beaten
1/4 cup milk
4 slices raisin bread

Melt butter in a (8- or 9-inch) square baking dish. Blend in brown sugar and pineapple and spread evenly over bottom of the dish. Sprinkle sirup over pineapple mixture. Combine beaten egg and milk in a shallow pie plate. Dip bread slices, one at a time, into egg mixture, turning them to coat both sides. Place bread slices on top of pineapple mixture.

Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) until lightly browned on top, about twenty-five minutes. Let stand in baking dish one minute after removing from oven, then invert dish over a serving platter so bread slips out, sugared side up. Serve immediately. Yield: 2 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

Peach-Cinnamon Toast

4 slices cinnamon raisin bread
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons brown sugar, sifted
Spread butter on bread. Arrange four slices canned peaches on each slice of buttered bread. Sift brown sugar over peaches and bread. Place on a shallow pan and bake in oven (450 degrees) for about ten minutes. Yield: 4 servings.

Orange-Raisin Toast

2 tablespoons grated orange rind

1/2 cup orange juice
1 cup granulated sugar
1/2 cup cinnamon
14 slices raisin bread toast
Combine orange rind, orange juice, sugar and cinnamon. Spread one tablespoon orange mixture on one side of each slice of toast.

Place toast, spread side up, on an ungreased cookie sheet. Toast under low broiler heat for five minutes. Serve immediately. Yield: 7 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

Apple Butter French Toast

2 eggs, beaten
1 tablespoon apple butter
4 slices raisin bread
1 tablespoon confectioners' sugar

Combine apple butter with beaten eggs in a shallow dish. Dip bread into egg mixture, one slice at a time, turning them to coat both sides. Bake in a hot, well-greased waffle baker until nicely browned. Serve immediately, topped with confectioners' sugar. Note: Does not need sirup when served. Yield: 3 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

Coconut Toast

1/4 cup thin confectioners' sugar icing
1/4 cup shredded coconut
8 slices raisin bread toast

Spread 1 tablespoon icing on each slice of toast. Sprinkle 2 tablespoons coconut over each slice. Place on a cookie sheet and broil under low broiler heat for five minutes. Yield: 4 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

Butterscotch-Pecan Toast

1/4 cup soft butter or margarine
1/4 cup brown sugar
4 slices raisin bread toast
1/4 cup chopped pecans

This is a Surprise

Are you surprised? A recent study made by the U.S. Department of Agriculture shows that homemakers who most often use convenience foods (such as prepared flour mixes, frozen foods, frozen complete meals, soups, etc.) are not those who work away from home, but those who stay home all day.

Polls Put Dems Ahead in State

News Survey Gives McNamara, Swinson and Kennedy Lead

DETROIT (UPI) — With just two weeks remaining before the election, the Detroit News polls Tuesday showed all three top Democratic candidates leading their Republican rivals in Michigan.

A poll published Tuesday had Democratic U. S. Sen. Patrick J. McNamara leading Republican Alvin M. Bentley 52.6 per cent to 47.3 per cent.

Polis published Sunday and Monday had Sen. John F. Kennedy leading Vice President Richard M. Nixon 53.5 per cent to 46.5 per cent, and gubernatorial candidate John B. Swinson in front of Paul Bagwell 54.4 per cent to 45.6 per cent.

Asphalt in its liquid, semi-solid and solid forms has some 4,000 uses.

Will Burst Friday

Set 'Time Bomb' for Nancy Anne

MONTAGUE (U)—Like time bombs loaded with affection, that's the state of this tiny community, neighboring Whitehall and nearby greater Muskegon, ticking off the days toward a giant homecoming for America's sweetheart.

They're triggered to explode Friday. That marks the start of a two-day program honoring Nancy Anne Fleming in her first home-town appearance since she was named Miss America in September.

The lovely 18-year-old brunette will spend Thursday in seclusion with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Fleming of Montague, and her three younger sisters and two brothers.

Their visit was arranged by the sponsoring Junior Chamber of Commerce for an undisclosed location to block intrusions.

"They're going to move the house," says Fleming. "I don't even know where we're going."

But back into the spotlight goes

Nancy Friday morning in a motorcade starting from Muskegon Heights, Greater Muskegon Jaycee President Ralph McKibbin has asked that area schools let their pupils out for a look.

The caravan moves to Muskegon where Nancy Anne, won the title of Miss Michigan last July, it passes through North Muskegon and speeds up for the 15-mile run to the chemical industry complex of Whitehall and Montague where combined population is 4,800.

Here the lid pops off in civic pride. Schools are being dismissed after morning classes to let students join the celebration.

Eighteen high school bands plus the Scottville-Crown Band line up for a parade starting at 1 p.m. in Whitehall. At least 34 other units, including civic and industrial floats from Western Michigan, join the parade. An Indian group from DeWitt is included.

NIXON CAN'T MAKE IT

The line of march leads to Montague's memorial athletic field and a mass reception. Rep. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., Whitehall Mayor Carlos Mikkelsen and Montague Mayor Ralph Dillabaugh are among principals. Prior commitments have blocked attendance by Vice President Nixon and Michigan's Gov. Williams.

Miss America is being joined at the field by Donna Jean Shepherd of Dowdage who was first runner-up in the state contest and new presides as Miss Michigan.

Nancy Anne also officiates in crowning Beverly Bartau, 18, as Miss White Lake. It's a title that started the winsome former life-size J-look clerk on her way to the Miss America crown earlier this year.

About 500 persons are expected later at a civic testimonial dinner for Nancy Anne at the high school where she graduated last June.

Miss America then departs for appearances at half-time before crowds watching football games of Whitehall and Montague High Schools, starting times for the games have been staggered to permit the separate visits.

A luncheon limiting attendance to personal invitations from Miss America starts the Saturday program.

A Miss America ball Saturday night for adults at a Muskegon hotel and one for teen-agers at the Muskegon Armory climax the whirlwind schedule.

Decorative signs already have blossomed in the area.

The feverish pace might leave Muskegon County celebrants limp but for Nancy it's a springboard toward commitments elsewhere on her good-will rounds as Miss America.

Newspapers Fair, Says MSU Survey

LANSING (U)—A survey by Michigan State University's Communications Research Center showed newspaper readers in tapers high in fairness and impartiality in reporting "politics."

Those questioned live within the circulation areas of the Bloomington (Ill.) Pantagraph, the Kokomo (Ind.) Tribune and the Greenville (Mich.) News. The papers were identified by letters X, Y and Z rather than by name.

"Does the paper usually present both sides of important political issues?" was one question.

Eighty-eight per cent of readers of paper X, 87 of Y and 74 per cent of Z replied "Yes." Most of the readers surveyed also answered "Yes" to a question whether their paper gives equal space in reporting speeches by candidates it favors and opposes.

$50,000 LAWSUIT — Actress Audrey Hepburn, boyish looking with a severe straight-back hairstyle, appears in court at Los Angeles Wednesday as defendant in a damage suit for $50,000. Another actress, Joan Lora, asks the damages for injuries she says she sustained two years ago when her car and Miss Hepburn's collided in Hollywood.

Refugees 6.5 Per Cent of W. Reich Population

BONN (UPI) — The West German Refugee Ministry reports that East German refugees make up 6.5 per cent of West Germany's population.

Ministry Secretary Peter Nuhn said that 255 refugees daily crossed the Iron Curtain during the first nine months of 1960 and that nearly half of them were under 25 years old.

Eton Grads in Demand

LONDON (UPI) — An article on employment in America in the 1960 edition of Opportunities for Graduates said "Old Etonians are much in demand as butlers, doormen, lifeguards, commissionaires and husbands."

A new kit boat is made by drawing a fabric "sock" over a corrugated paper form. After the fabric has been hardened with resin the form is removed.

Of Cars and Cows...

Michigan makes so many cars—and ranks so high as an industrial state—that the importance of agriculture to Michigan is often overlooked. Fact is that Michigan—with $740 million in cash receipts, the largest share (27%) from dairying—ranks among the top 1/3 of all states in farm marketing. And that's saying a lot because farming, by any yardstick, is the nation's biggest industry.

Farmers produce more, sell more, buy more, create more jobs than any other single industry.

- 40% of all jobs in private employment are created by agriculture—either on the farm, processing farm products or supplying farmers with their needs. In Michigan, 1/3 of all jobs are created by agriculture.
- Sales of farm products totaled $32 billion last year. That's twice the total of auto and truck sales.
- Farmers spent over $25 billion last year—including $7 billion for food and clothing; $5.5 billion for feed and fertilizer; $4 billion for automobiles, trucks, machinery and equipment. Farmers are Michigan's biggest customer.

Agriculture and industry—cars and cows—go hand in hand in Michigan and throughout the nation. Each has a vast production capacity. Each is a vast market for the other. They thrive together in a sound and stable economy.

Stuff Golden Onions With Macaroni

Autumn's golden rays often turn a chilly blue at sundown—a time when hurrying home to the warmth of a good hot supper makes pleasant anticipation. Rewarding indeed is the sight of a great steaming bowl of hot soup, ready to be ladled into mugs or cups to be sipped before, or along with the meal.

Soup's friendly. Sharing a cup of it is a cozy, warming affair. It stimulates good feeling, and warms the way for good things to follow. It's "friendly" toward other foods, too—seems to point up and complement the foods served with it. Best of all, it needs no preparation, and is only minutes from can to cup. Here, chicken and beef broth are "mated" and topped with a golden pat of butter.

Great golden onions, which abound at this time of year, are stuffed with a bacon-cheese-macaroni mixture and baked to delicious perfection. A side serving of stewed tomatoes might round out this menu, and baked custard top it off.

Hot Buttered Cream of Chicken - Beef Broth

1 can (10 3/4 ounces) condensed cream of chicken soup
1 can (10 3/4 ounces) condensed beef broth
1/2 cup canola water
Butter

Blend soups in saucepan; add water. Heat, stirring occasionally. Makes 6 servings.

Airtight Wrap May Harm Contents

NEW YORK—The Food and Drug Administration will make an intensive study of foods wrapped in airtight plastic packages to determine exactly how harmful these wrappings are. The Insider's News better reported recently.

The study follows the report of two deaths in Minnesota last week, which were attributed to botulism, a usually fatal type of food poisoning. In both cases a ready-to-eat brand of unsterilized smoked fish packed in airtight plastic wraps was blamed.

The FDA confirmed the presence in the fish of clostridium botulinum, a bacillus which grows only in the absence of air and which is readily destroyed at temperatures of 212 degrees F.

An FDA spokesman said that "Although basic processing of the fish was probably at fault, the airtight plastic wrapping was undoubtedly a contributing factor."

Now collecting samples of smoked fish and other non-sterile foods wrapped in airtight plastic packages for study, the FDA also reports an increasing number of returns of these products to supermarkets. Consumers have complained of a high percentage of spoiled fruits and vegetables which contaminate their neighbors more rapidly in the absence of air.

Cheese and Onion Give Muffins Special Appeal

Want something to make a meal something special? Cheese-onion gems will do that trick. Hot gems or muffins give a meal special appeal and are actually not difficult to provide.

Cheese-onion gems, made according to a recipe recommended by Reba Slaggs, home economist, are nutritious fare for they contain one-third cup of lard, an egg, a half cup of milk and two-thirds cup of grated cheddar cheese. All these ingredients have excellent food value.

A sprinkling of sesame seed and grated cheese over the tops of the gems, which are brushed with melted butter, gives them a touch of elegance and enhances their flavor, too.

Cheese-Onion Gems

2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 tablespoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup lard
1/2 cup finely grated cheddar cheese
1/2 cup finely chopped onion
1 tablespoon lard
1/2 cup milk
1 egg, beaten
2 tablespoons sesame seed, toasted
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

Grease 12 medium-size muffin pans. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in 1/2 cup lard until mixture has a fine even crumb. Stir in 1/2 cup cheese.

Cook onion in 1 tablespoon lard until tender but not brown. Add to flour and cheese mixture and mix "lightly with fork. Combine milk and beaten egg. Add to flour mixture and stir until just moistened. (Batter will be stiff.)

Fill muffin pans 3/4 full. Sprinkle tops of muffins with remaining cheese and sesame seed and spoon 1/2 teaspoon melted butter or margarine over each. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) for 18 to 20 minutes. Yield: 12 muffins.

African Nations Open Purses

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — Teen-agers and the new African nations have much in common. They're resentful of parental control, but perpetually have their hands out for "allowances."

They want what the other kids in the new neighborhood have—and in a hurry. They insist on sharing the family car and pocketbook, but are reluctant to work their way up in the world slowly, like Dad did.

Not a single one of the new African republics expect to get along without foreign aid. All of them have asked us for financial help, and most are perfectly willing to accept it from Red Russia as well.

Moscow — like the dope peddler on the back street — is so anxious to make juvenile delinquents out of the young nations that Uncle Sam is in an unaccustomed rush to shower them with dollar aid.

It therefore comes as a bit of a shock to Washingtonians to see how lavishly they intend to live among us, while counting on our largesse.

A week or so ago, the newly recognized government of the Cameroon (once a French protectorate) paid $210,000 for a fieldstone mansion located in our most exclusive area overlooking Rock Creek Park.

The house, with its gracious drawing room, eight bedrooms and servants' quarters, changed hands six years ago for less than $75,000.

The new owner added a swimming pool, and picked up a neat profit in re-selling the naive young nation-in-a-hurry.

This nearly quarter-million dollar transaction provides only a residence for the Cameroon ambassador, and her husband.

This also produced a whopping profit for the owners, and seemed to indicate that the new African nations may have an inflated idea of what it takes to keep up with the Joneses.

A few days earlier, Guinea proudly announced that for $225,000 it had acquired the residence of Frances Knight, chief of the State Department's passport division, and her husband.

It is time to ask, before the other fourteen dark-continent countries newly admitted to the United Nations spend with similar abandon.

Ghana, a slightly earlier newcomer to the family of nations, bought an equally lavish mansion last year in the same exclusive area adjoining the park.

These establishments are far superior to many of the Washington embassies of larger, more prosperous and better established foreign nations. Certainly the price paid are setting new highs for extravagance.

Two years ago, the Kingdom of Jordan paid only $130,000 for a house and all of its furnishings, which served the ambassador both as a residence and a chancery office for the staff.

The house is not luxurious, but it was considered adequate to provide the setting for a happy party honoring the brave young pro-Western king of Jordan during his state visit here.

Why do the new-born nations of Africa demand such luxury of adobe and setting?

It is time to ask, before the other fourteen dark-continent countries newly admitted to the United Nations spend with similar abandon.

CHOKED UP — K. T. Keller, former chairman of the board of Chrysler Corp., mumbled something about a cold and watery eyes as he tried to respond to Wilber M. Brucker, secretary of the Army, as he was awarded a medal for distinguished civilian service Tuesday night at Ft. Knox, Ky. The award was made at a meeting of the Army Scientific Advisory PKANEL.

530 Adults Take Courses at MSUO Night School

More than 500 adult students are taking fall term courses in the continuing education program at Michigan State University (MSUO) according to enrollment figures released today.

Dr. Lowell R. Eklund, director of continuing education, said that the 520 adults in MSUO's evening program are among 50 million adult students who have gone back to some kind of schooling this year.

MSUO's daytime enrollment stands at 908 full-time students.

Eklund called the interest in the adult program part of "The Cultural Renaissance of the 20th Century."

Adults have been attending colleges in increasing numbers since World War II, he stated.

More than half of the adults at MSUO — 35 per cent — are enrolled in courses in the humanities, languages and liberal arts classes, Eklund said.

The rest are in courses leading to professional advancement taught by special lecturers drawn from industry in the area.

The winter term, offering continuation of most courses and some new courses, will begin in January. All are noncredit courses in which interested persons may enroll. No previous college background is necessary, Eklund said.

Textile Output Shows Decline

Wall Street Chatter Says Mill Production Near Low for Year

NEW YORK (UPI)—A clear-cut textile-recession is now in the making, according to Prentice-Hall, Inc.

After a false upturn in May, mill production has resumed its decline and is now near its low for the year, the publishing house says.

Industry profits are also beginning to falter, as second quarter returns dropped below a year ago for the first time in two years.

P-H reports that selected textile securities will soon offer good opportunities for cyclical capital gains.

Clark, Dodge & Co. believes it most unlikely that the market lows will hold more than just temporarily and it is entirely possible that the 520-530 area will be reached before the election rather than after it.

Moody's stock survey says that no one could be surprised by a postelection spurt in the event of a Kennedy victory but it is too early for a well-grounded bull market to begin.

S. B. Laurie of Josephthal & Co. says that next year's earnings of Deere & Co. may double the $2.50 a share that seems likely in 1960. There's a potentially big replacement market in farm equipment, he says.

United Business Service lists 10 stocks the mutual funds are buying: AT&T, Gillette, IT&T, N.Y. State Electric & Gas, Pepsi-Cola, Philips Lamp, Reynolds Tobacco, Swift, Upjohn and West Penn Electric.

It Will Be Chili Instead of Talk at PTA Meeting

A chili supper from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Thursday will be served in Waterford Township in place of McVittie School's regular Parent-Teacher Association meeting.

The school is located on Midland Road just behind the Drayton Shopping Center.

There will be an open house at 7:30 tomorrow night at the Cooley PTA meeting.

Following a short business meeting and coffee period, Mrs. Phyllis Greenberg, coordinating chairman and consultant in the Waterford Township school system, will talk on new instruction in mathematics also discuss a mathematical subject. Dr. David Wells of the Oakland County Board of Education will also discuss a mathematical subject, "New Trends in Mathematics."
