Pontiac Is His City — for Today

Benton Harbor Mayor Lauds Our Progress

Benton Harbor's Mayor Wilbert F. Smith got an impressive introduction to Pontiac civic progress this morning.

Touring Pontiac in the annual Mayor Exchange Day feature of Michigan Week, Mayor and Mrs. Smith visited the new City Hall and Public Safety Building.

From the second floor of City Hall they looked across S. Parke street toward the grassy site on which Pontiac will begin constructing its new main library this summer.

The Benton Harbor couple noticed site clearance across E. Pike street from the Public Safety Building, where the new main fire station is planned.

They heard Robert A. Stierer, assistant city manager, describe Civic Center expansion planned under the upcoming urban renewal project.

"Very impressive," said the Lake Michigan official as he and Mrs. Smith left for a tour of GMC Truck & Coach Division, where they were to be guests at a luncheon.

Mayor Smith was to visit Pontiac Motor Division this afternoon while Mrs. Smith makes an auto tour of the area with Mrs. Leslie R. Ware, Mrs. Edward A. Maier and Mrs. Walter K. Willman.

A 5 p.m. reception is planned at the City Club, with representative civic, industrial and business leaders attending. Accompanying the Smiths on their visit was their son, Wilbert Jr., 17.

The tour was arranged by the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce.

While the Smiths were in Pontiac, Mayor and Mrs. Philip E. Rowston were visiting Benton Harbor.

After a tour of Benton Harbor city hall, the Rowstons were scheduled to spend the day visiting local industry.

"I'm afraid our City Hall is not as impressive as Pontiac's," said Smith. "It's 25 years old, crowded and dingy.

Benton Harbor is in the same position as Pontiac was several years ago, before your city got its civic plans underway."

"Pontiac is very fortunate to have had such fine planning by its city administration and Chamber of Commerce.

"Your city is fortunate, too, in having such a large industrial tax base that is helping to make your beautiful Civic Center possible."

Gates Gets No. 2 Defense Post

Retiring Navy Secretary Named to Succeed Late Donald A. Quarles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thomas S. Gates Jr., retiring secretary of the Navy, was picked today to be the new deputy secretary of defense.

He will succeed the late Donald A. Quarles, who died earlier this month.

Gates had planned to return to private business at the end of this month. Instead, President Eisenhower picked him to be the No. 2 man in the Defense Department.

The choice promptly touched off speculation as to whether Gates later this year will be named to succeed Neil H. McElroy as secretary of defense. Prior to Quarles' death 10 days ago, McElroy had said several times that he would like to resign by the end of this year.

The White House announced that Gates' formal nomination will go to the Senate later this week.

Gates' plans to step down were announced by the White House last January. At that time, Eisenhower picked the undersecretary, William Franke, to succeed him.

Gates, 53, a Republican, had intended to return to his investment banking business. He was a partner in Drexel & Co. before entering government service.

Rush-Hour ELs Crash; 119 Hurt

Chicago Train Riders Hurled Around; Many Treated at Hospital

CHICAGO (AP)—At least 119 persons were injured, two seriously, in a collision today of two jammed rush-hour elevated trains carrying riders to downtown Chicago.

The impact telescoped a four-foot section of the Logan Square trains and threw standing passengers to the floor.

Scores were treated at the scene. Others were taken to hospitals for treatment or examination.

A spokesman at St. Elizabeth Hospital said later that the number of injured brought there was "at least 92 and probably more." But the spokesman said there was some duplication in the records of admissions that was being straightened out.

The collision of the two six-coach trains of all steel construction occurred when the first train stopped after leaving a station and was rammed by the second.

A passenger, Jerry Rogus, was in the rear car of the train that was hit. He said he turned his head and saw the other train approaching.

"There was a big bang and sparks were flying," he said. "All the people started running for the front of the car.

"One girl who had been standing near me started screaming for her mother. 'God help me,' she cried. Her leg was cut off near the bottom. Then there was a Japanese man. His arm was cut and he was bleeding from the mouth."

Ronald Nowok, a passenger on the train that rammed the second said "everything went black" upon impact. He said a side door in his car flew open, a woman beside him fell backwards and he hit his head on a seat.

Discard Topcoat but Best Keep Umbrella Handy

A few showers may dampen the weather scene tonight and Tuesday, but Pontiac folk can reach for their bumbershoots with a smile. The weatherman has promised long-awaited warmer temperatures.

Not so cool with a low near 52 is the pleasant outlook for this evening. Tomorrow the mercury is expected to reach a high of 70 degrees.

For the next five days, temperatures are expected to average near the normal 70 high and normal 49 low. Occasional showers are likely through Thursday.

In downtown Pontiac the lowest temperature recorded preceding 8 a.m. was 43. At 2 p.m. the thermometer registered 71.

No Major Change Reported in Dulles

WASHINGTON (UPI)—No major change has been reported in the condition of John Foster Dulles in his fight against cancer.

The last word on the former secretary of state came from friends who said Saturday that he was growing weaker with each passing day.

The State Department said there was nothing to report yesterday and that no announcement would be made unless there was "a major change" in Dulles' condition.

The 71-year-old diplomat, who is at Walter Reed Army Medical Center, was said to be receiving pain-killing drugs.

The State Department announced Friday that complications caused by pneumonia had persisted and that there had been "some further decline in his general condition."

Faculty Leaving Michigan State at Critical Rate

Hannah Says Failure to Meet Competition on Salaries Perilous

LANSING (AP) — John A. Hannah, Michigan State University president, told Gov. Williams today that resignations from the MSU faculty are rolling in at a rate of 50 per cent over a year ago.

He attributed the loss of teachers to failure to keep pace in salary competition among the larger Midwestern universities.

At a budget huddle in the governor's office, Hannah said 147 resignations were submitted in the last 10 months as against 108 in the 12 months for the 1958-59 fiscal year ended June 30.

He appealed for support of a requested $4,500,000 increase in the school's operating budget for 1959-60. Williams has approved a little less than half this amount, mostly for faculty salaries.

"You can ruin an institution that has taken years to build in a few months if you continue to lose faculty at this rate," Hannah said.

"The real problem is not those who already have resigned but those who we know have offers to go elsewhere."

Hannah said every public school in the Big 10 Conference except MSU and the University of Michigan had increases or held their own on salaries this year.

Williams earlier had said a Republican senator's budget blueprint tied to GOP demands for a use (sales) tax increase would be "utterly devastating" to the three major universities.

Another $2,180,000 in primary school interest payments went out today to 18 counties, plunging Michigan's general fund cash balance to less than $100,000, lowest in modern history.

The money for the new payout mostly sales tax and corporation franchise receipts, came into the state treasury Thursday and was shifted to the auditor general's office for payment today.

BOARD AGREES

Aud. Gen. Frank S. Szymanski said an estimated four million dollars in primary school interest will be mailed to schools tomorrow, leaving about six million dollars still owing on the May 15 payment, last of the 1958-59 fiscal year.

Gov. Williams and his Administrative Board agreed Friday to mail out primary school interest money as fast as cash pours into the treasury.

Every school district got half of its share of the 35½ million dollar payment.

Under an alphabetical priority system set up to pay out the rest, counties from Alger through Kalkaska got the rest of their share from another five million dollars available.

She received cuts on the hand, thigh and foot. The fish were caught a few minutes after Mrs. Goldback was injured.

Circuit Court Delays Ruling on Scene of Straley Appeal

Because it has been alleged the four Oakland County Circuit Court judges would be "prejudiced," the judges will decide jointly whether the appeal of former Pontiac Police Chief Herbert W. Straley will be heard here or moved to another county.

Judge Clark J. Adams this mroning delayed a decision of Straley's change of venue motion because "there's at least an implication that the judges would be prejudiced."

He said after he conferred with the other three judges he would decide on the request. No date was set when the decision would be entered.

Straley was fired April 4 by the Civil Service Commission for inefficiency, incompetency, insubordination, neglect of duty and failure to maintain good behavior. He appealed the firing to Circuit Court April 28.

Straley's attorney, Clarence L. Smith, said he could not receive a fair and impartial appeal hearing in Pontiac because the "judges of this court, by direct contact and association, are not in a position" to render such a hearing.

Smith asked for the appeal to be heard in another county, or that the state appoint an outside circuit judge from another circuit to hear

Operate for Tumor on Wife of Truman

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Surgeons removed a breast tumor today from Bess Wallace Truman, 74-year-old wife of the former President.

A research hospital spokesman described Mrs. Truman's condition as "very satisfactory" after the 2 hour and 45 minute operation.

The spokesman said it would be two or three days before it is determined whether the tumor was malignant.

Earlier her husband, Harry S. Truman, told newsmen the operation was "not as serious as we thought."

The hospital spokesman said laboratory tests will have to be made before a final determination.

Ministers OK Splitting Berlin, Package Plan

Dispute Flares Up Over How, When to Confer With Soviets on Crisis

GENEVA (AP) — Western foreign ministers at the Big Four conference quickly patched up today a brief but stormy dispute over how and when to negotiate with the Soviet Union on the Berlin crisis.

The United States, Britain, France and West Germany announced they are willing to discuss Berlin and other issues separately from the Western package plan for an all-German peace settlement.

But, while willing to talk about Berlin separately, they said no issue covered in the plan can be "settled in isolation."

With this, the West closed ranks and charted strategy for the second week of the East-West foreign ministers conference.

But the statement did not wipe out fundamental differences arising from the West German-French determination to pursue a hard line in the negotiations and the British-U.S. interest in more flexible tactics and a softer approach.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko asked today and got a secret meeting with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd. Observers thought it marked the start of a Communist drive to split the West and its peace package.

The Big Four foreign ministers opened the second week of their (9:28 a.m. EST) today. Gromyko was the chairman for the conference's sixth session.

WEST TALKS TACTICS

U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter met with his Western colleagues at his office in midday for about 40 minutes. They talked about tactics for dealing with the Soviets in the next few days. The statement on a united stand on Berlin was then issued.

The Western ministers want first a full-dress debate on rival

Reds Bombard Matsu Islands

Shelling After 7-Month Lull Seen as Offensive to Push U.S. Out

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI)—Rear Adm. Liu Hoh-Tu, spokesman for the Chinese Nationalist Defense Ministry, said today the Communists had shelled Matsu Islands to show the world Peiping still intends to try to drive the United States out of the Western Pacific.

Communist shore guns broke a seven-month lull in the Formosa Strait yesterday by firing 444 shells at the offshore Matsu complex, killing three Chinese military men and wounding eight other persons. None of the Americans in the military advisory detachment was hurt.

Admiral Liu said that one hour before the Red guns opened fire more than 10 Communist junks were spotted approaching the Matsus, 150 miles north of Quemoy. Nationalist patrol vessels gave chase and were fired upon by Communist shore batteries. The Communist vessels disappeared.

Liu said the Communists have increased the number of troops along the coast immediately opposite the Quemoy and Matsu offshore islands from 320,000 to between 350,000 and 400,00 men.

He also reported the Reds fired 54 shells at the Quemoy Islands yesterday although guns were silent today at both island groups.

Observers also said the guns were fired to strengthen the Soviet hand at the Geneva foreign minister's conference — proof of Communist worldwide solidarity.

Liu said the Communists had moved in 8-inch guns opposite the Matsus, bringing the three major islands within artillery range for the first time. In the past the 6-inch guns shelled Kaoteng, the northernmost island, sporadically, but yesterday 162 shells hit Nankantang, the biggest of the Matsus.

Warm Welcoming Irish Smile Brings Sunny Tour

BY HAROLD A. FITZGERALD
Publisher, The Pontiac Press

(Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of two articles. The second will be published tomorrow.)

A jet-prop inaugural flight to Ireland, a five day tour of the Emerald Isle and a lightning flight home spelled out an exciting and soul satisfying week for your peripatetic reporter.

Primarily, the Irish are a very friendly people and when I walked into the Shannon Airport terminal out of a cold, gray rain, an Irish biddy of seventy plus summers smiled warmly and said: "Shure and a real gude mornin' to ye, sur." Well, the sun didn't break through on the airport runways but it did inside and someway she must have caught the eye of the great Irish Deity; for after the first day we had simply perfect weather while you Michiganders were chilled by northern blasts.

That grand old woman stands out in the dawn of a bleak day as a symbol of friendly Ireland. In fact Shannon's airport proclaims itself: "The friendliest airport in the world."

Agriculture, the sea, tourists and hand production are the main supports of this brave little Island which boasted eight million people nearly a century ago and which humbly confesses to a mere 2,800,000 today. The Irish are a fiercely proud people and have an unconquerable pride. They champion their own heroes of earlier times and blast oppressors with a hostility that burns about as hotly as it did centuries ago.

They have almost been forced into migration for economic reasons. One cause is a stubborn refusal to farm much differently than their doughty ancestors did a thousand years ago. And most of those that leave, find sanctuary right here in the United States of America and then write appealing letters to young relatives and urge them to make the big break "and go out."

The average wage of a clerk runs around $25 a week and while living costs are much lower than ours, telephones, televisions, automobiles, bountiful meals and good clothing are in scant supply for the average family. And there's no plethora of newspapers, magazines or books and these electric gimmicks which you hold as normal and indispensable, are missing.

But an indomitable good nature and good humor abound. Make no mistake there. Perhaps some of this is brought about by those remarkably fine looking girls that you see on every side. I'll gamble a couple of bob and a guinea that these Irish colleens can stack up against the whole wide world (with the exception of County Oakland). Some Irishmen insist Limerick has the prettiest girls in the world. Their complexions are remarkable and they are gracious, respectful and "always a lady."

I remarked about these incomparable complexions to our own group at lunch one day and young Nancy Hartley of The Chicago Sun-Times—our only feminine compatriot—replied with a slight touch of asperity: "Well, the men have complexions that're just as good." O.K. Nancy, you're too grand to challenge.

DR. ROBERT WILLIAMS

U. of M. Man to Talk at Civitan Meeting

The Pontiac Civitan Club will have Dr. Robert Williams, administrative dean of the University of Michigan, as their featured speaker this Wednesday evening in observance of Michigan Week.

The usual noon luncheon meeting will be held as a dinner meeting at the Elks Temple, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

The title of Dr. Williams' speech will be "Problems of Financing Higher Education in Michigan," a timely topic in view of the state's current financial crisis.

In tune with the Michigan Week theme, all food served at the dinner will be raised in Michigan.

Court Delays Ruling on Straley Appeal

the appeal in Pontiac. Smith said he "much preferred" the latter.

Arguing that the venue motion be dismissed, City Attorney William A. Ewart denounced Smith's reasons for the change as being "an indirect attack on all of the judges."

In his written request, Smith said the father of one of the police officers who led the fight for Straley's ouster was a court officer.

This was reference to Vance L. Hanger, former police captain and now officer for Judge Frank L. Doty.

Further, with reference to Judge Adams himself, Smith said he had recently heard and ruled against the city on the case of the four police officers who sued Pontiac to win promotions.

Another member of the Straley opposition group aslo circulated nominating petitions for the two of the Oakland judges, Smith contends.

Names of the judges and members of the opposition were not detailed in the motion or mentioned in court.

One judge, according to Smith, was said to have told a local businessman not to aid in circulating petitions calling for Straley's reinstatement because "Straley was wrong in not obeying the order of the court" in the case of the four officers.

Two of the judges (Adams and Judge H. Russel Holland) are members of the same "leading" service club, which according to Smith's motion, recently elected City Manager Walter K. Willman vice president "for the purpose of indicating the club's attitude of sympathy and approval toward him and his position in this matter."

Besides, Smith said, one of the Civil Service commissioners was a member of the same club.

By coincidence, although it was not brought out in the motion, Straley, too, is a member of the club.

"This is only a left-handed way by Mr. Straley to bring this matter before another court and have costs charged to Oakland County," Ewart said.

Delay Sentence in Mooney Case

Sentencing of Arthur C. Mooney, dismissed Waterford Township teacher convicted of gross indecency with a 16-year-old student, has been postponed two weeks as Mooney is a patient at Pontiac General Hospital.

According to Mooney' attorney, Carlton S. Roeser, Mooney collapsed on a Pontiac street Saturday and was admitted to Pontiac General as an emergency patient, reportedly suffering from a liver ailment, according to Roeser.

Mooney's doctor, Dr. Isaac C. Prevette, was not available for comment. A hospital spokesman said his condition is fair.

Mooney, 50 of 1651 Grimshaw St., Commerce Township, was convicted of gross indecency May 6 stemming from a fatal auto accident last December involving four students, one of whom told detectives later of the immoral act with Mooney.

Mooney on the stand denied the accusation.

He faces a possible five-year prison term or $2,000 fine.

Ailing Dulles Receives 32,000 Get-Well Notes

At latest count today, there were more than 32,000 messages to the former secretary of state. Aides said the average was about 300 a day since he went to the hospital in February.

GREETS FEATURED SPEAKER — Charles M. Tucker Jr., left, president of the Oakland County Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, greets U. S. Senator Philip A. Hart Saturday evening. Hart spoke at a banquet here, which highlighted the state NAACP convention held in Pontiac over the weekend. The affair was attended by more than 200 delegates from the state's 23 chapters.

'No Sale Price on Survival,' Says Sen. Hart to NAACP

U. S. Senator Philip A. Hart told delegates at the annual state convention of Michigan National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Chapters in Pontiac Saturday night, "There is no bargain basement sale price on survival in the 20th century."

Hart, emphasizing the importance of American economic strength, put economy in the middle with equality as being necessary to fulfill our economic capacity and a thriving economy necessary for strength in world affairs and aid to underdeveloped areas of the world.

More than 200 NAACP delegates from all over Michigan heard him as featured speaker at the convention banquet held at the UAW-CIO Local 653 Hall, 386 Kennett Rd.

Hart blasted Vice President Richard D. Nixon and the President's Committee on Government Contracts for "actually riding on the coattails of the 13 state fair employment practices commissions."

"Almost every one of these committees process more complaints successfully in their individual states than does the National Committee throughout the whole country," he charged.

He called for it to "demonstrate more progress in eliminating racial and religious discrimination among government contractors before starting any more watered-down programs in industry as a whole."

The senator proposed that the Vice President reconsider his committee's previous opposition to a "Joint Cooperation Agreement" with State Fair Employment Practices Commissions, twice proposed by the Conference of State Commissions.

With such an agreement, "long drawn out delays in action could be reduced, enforcement action and follow-up on all complaints would be more effective."

"No amount of integration or desegregation is going to be successful," Hart asserted, "unless we have a thriving and growing economy where employment is high, adequate housing is available, better education for all is provided, decent labor standards are observed, and our agricultural families' income is secure."

Aside from asserting the need for passage of his anti-lynching bill, Hart endorsed the Douglas civil rights bill.

In recognition of the group he addressed, Hart praised the NAACP for its work in the field of civil rights and racial equality.

"I think none of us, not even the most devoted, knows the strength of this organization as well as those who oppose it," he declared.

"The stubborn resistance of your opposition in many ways may hinder progress, but it is a compliment in disguise. The opposition wouldn't be so strong if they took the NAACP lightly."

Hart said he felt a civil rights bill would be passed by Congress within a year and a half.

Referring to the Senate Judiciary Committee he said, "There's a lot of civil rights legislation being worked out in Congress, but very little through that Judiciary Committee."

In touching on economic expansion, and foreign aid, Hart felt there was too much emphasis on a balanced budget.

"We must recognize the first question as what are our needs, not how much is in the till. We are foolish if we operate under the assumption that the cost of survival will be less in 1960 than in 1959," he stated.

Hart was introduced by Mrs. Vera D. Devor, president of the Community Organizations of Pontiac.

Dr. Harry L. Riggs, of Pontiac acted as master of ceremonies.

Edward M. Turner, state NAACP president and president of the Detroit Branch, followed Hart with words of praise for the Oakland County Branch, located in Pontiac, and awards presentations.

Pontiac Life Membership presentations were conducted by City Commissioner Milton R. Henry. The life memberships cost $500, and their sale contributes greatly to the progress of the organization's many programs.

Local clubs which have bought the memberships during the current term are the Roma Club and the Business and Professional Women of Pontiac Organization.

Individuals on the list were Henry, Dr. Robert Turpin, Dr. Howard McNeill, and Leon Hubbard, a local attorney.

Praise of Charles M. Tucker Jr., president of the hosting Oakland County Branch, came from C. A. Allen, chairman of the convention and state conference treasurer.

The weekend convention got under way Friday afternoon when the state's 23 chapters began registering at convention headquarters, which was Benjamin Franklin Elementary School, at 5 p.m.

Saturday morning was consumed by various committee and council reports and was highlighted by welcome addresses by Mayor Philip E. Rowston and Milton R. Henry at the school.

The employment workshop was headed by Donald Slaiman, assistant director of civil rights, National AFL-CIO. Working with him were Everett C. Surplock, executive director of the Pontiac Urban League; and Olive Beasley, field representative of the Michigan FEPC.

The overall convention committee and their representative departments were Charles J. Harrison Jr., branch chairman; Linwood L. Flack, publicity; Sharlene Woods, banquet; Ann Williams, housing; and Johnny Mae Williams, entertainment.

Aside from Tucker and Harrison, who is first vice president, local branch officers hosting the convention were Annamarie McGlown, secretary; C. Louise Billings, asst. secretary; Arthur J. Dunlap, second vice president; and William F. Davis, treasurer.

Dignitaries present at the banquet included Robert C. Miller, Pontiac Postmaster; State Representative Arthur J. Law, from Pontiac; Dr. Dana Whitmer, superintendent of Pontiac Public Schools; and City Commissioners Robert Landry and John Dugan.

At the final conference session Sunday, Charles M. Tucker Jr. was re-elected as second vice president of the state NAACP.

Others re-elected to state offices were Edward M. Turner, president; Stewart Dunnings, first vice president; and C. A. Allen, treasurer. Cathy James, of Battle Creek is the newly elected secretary.

Smile Lights Up Irish Tour

just words in the dictionary in Ireland. Delinquency isn't low; it's just about non-existent. Sean Kennedy explained it in one simple sentence: "Fathers and mothers in Ireland possess big sticks and they use them."

Crime is rare. Sometimes several years go by without a murder. Compare that with Chicago which has approximately the same population. A homicide isn't as newsworthy in the Windy City as Nellie Fox's batting average. In Ireland the entire population would be agog.

News from the United States is scarce in Irish papers and the Tigers could have disbanded for all we knew. But Michigan was in the headlines. Our ignominy is now becoming international. At first this was confined to territorial limits but one day while we were there an Irish newspaper ran a two column head: "Michigan State Is Bankrupt." And the next deck read: "Governor Williams Unable to Pay Employes." Those of us from Michigan took a right royal ribbing but that's par these days for Michiganders wherever they go. Liz and Eddie Fisher crashed page one with a photo and John Foster Dulles' health was bulletined several times.

I repeat, the Irish are about the friendliest race I ever saw. As we bowled along the highway, little boys and girls waved with enthusiasm and good spirits. In this country, I'm afraid boys would have taken a crack at us with a bean shooter or a sling shot. We haven't enough big sticks at home. Of course, we always waved back at these little folk. In fact, frequently we waved at some of those handsome Irish colleens that were a bit bigger.

Ireland is a leisurely country—and proud of it. They're in no hurry and there's no reason to fret over delays. "So what?" seems to be the Gaelic counterpart of the Spanish "manana." A while back, the cliche "time is of the essence" swept this country and I fairly cringed after the first year or two. Well, it isn't of the essence over there. They speak of 1600 just as easily as you do of 1953. The phrase "Lincoln Slept Here' spread across every foot of ground that Abraham trod and Lincoln was a product of less than a century ago. In the St. Nicholas church they suppress a yawn and tell you quietly that "Christopher Columbus worshiped here." And that must have been around 1490 — some 470 years back.

The windows in the oldest homes are often very small and "Maurie" Dunne of the Irish Tourist Bureau told me that in early days, taxes were levied in proportion to the size of the openings. Imagine taxing away God's light and sunshine. On that basis, our modern American picture windows would give Michigan a billion dollar surplus by the Fourth of July.

Fishing and hunting are outstanding sports and offer visitors unexpected opportunities. Heady salmon from the salty Atlantic and rainbow trout from cold clear rivers are next door neighbors around Ashford Castle which is now run as a hotel and where we paused one noon. The variety of fish that calls this little Island "home" is astounding. Ashford costs more than a million pounds—not dollars—and claims its actual genesis around 1450—"fairly modern" in Irish genetics.

A big percentage of Ireland's great castles have suffered one of two fates: they were blockbusted in ancient days by invading hordes; or they're converted to hotels for guests. Both are unhappy destinies for a proud and imperious castle, but the second is a boon to the tourist. And the rates are very, very low.

The first day I asked Sean McSweeney why I hadn't glimpsed any of their vaunted Shamrocks? "You've seen a hundred million," said Sean solemnly. They're there—and there and there," and he swept his arm around the compass. The next time we stopped I got down on my hands and knees in the green grass and recognized hundreds of these tiny and world famous landmarks.

Dublin is the chief city and it's a great and cosmopolitan place of half a million. Dublin is the most modern part of Ireland but even here the pace and tempo are unhurried and contemplative. Cars are plentiful but they're tiny as gas is 75 cents a gallon and the cost of the smaller automobiles pleases the Irish purse.

I didn't see any of those celebrated Leprechauns—shoemakers to the fairies—who disport themselves after midnight. Anyway, the Irish insist that when you approach, they chin themselves on a moon beam and vanish into the vastness of the empyrean overhead. You accept that as gospel truth—and it isn't hard to do. After all, didn't Washington chop down a legendary cherry tree where one has never grown?

They have more rain than we do, but like everything else they accept it easily and with a kindly understanding Irish philosophy that admits no railing at things inescapable. What a weather report:

"Wind west, increasing to strong. Fresh and mostly cloudy with some rain or showers, which will really become heavy at times. But some bright intervals."

If you want the silver lining woven into the announcement of a long day, there it is: "But some bright intervals."

Your reporter was one of a party of 24 travel agents and newspaper people who were the guests of British Overseas Airways Co. and they really turned it on. In company with the Irish Tourist Association they rolled out the red carpet and we had a ball. The staffs covered themselves with glory and friendliness and courtesy are the prime commodities in all Irish activities.

Our jet-prop Britannia whisked us across that ocean the way you zip through an amber light. They have three classes of travel, but it's all the same plane with the same staff. The accommodations aren't as commodious in the lesser classes, but those jet-props don't linger long enough to let the fact sink in.

The chartered bus carried the two dozen of us into the northwest corner of Ireland where the next stop beyond is a collection of handsome icebergs guarding the North Pole—or America to west.

(This is the first of two installments covering a five day, whirlwind look-see at Ireland. The second will appear tomorrow.)

The Day in Birmingham

City's Recreation Director Resigns for Livonia Post

BIRMINGHAM — The city's first full-time recreation director, 30-year-old Robert E. Girardin, has resigned his post here to become superintendent of parks and recreation at Livonia. He will assume his duties there on June 8.

Girardin came to Birmingham three years ago after serving as director at Metropolitan Beach near Mount Clemens for one year.

He is chairman of the Conference of the Recreation Assn. of Michigan, a state representative of the Great Lakes District Conference of the National Recreation Assn. and director of the Recreation Assn. of Michigan.

During his term here, Girardin has furthered many recreational activities, including the Senior Men's Club, cosponsored by Birmingham Community House and the newly-formed Teen Center, where he is a member of the senior board.

He is vice president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, director of the Babe Ruth Little League and a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

Girardin said this morning that he and his wife and children will continue to live in Birmingham for at least another year.

Streets continue to hold the spotlight in Birmingham City Commission meetings. Tonight's agenda calls for discussion of the assessment roll for widening and paving of Landon and Purdy streets.

The roll for the three sections of the 1959 road oiling program, along with bids for materials, also is scheduled.

Frank Whitney, athletic director for the Birmingham School District, is asking for use of city-owned Springdale Park golf course for the Birmingham High School golf team.

Whitney said there will be eight practice sessions and two team matches scheduled if permission is granted.

In further business, commissioners will consider the request of B. F. Chamberlain Co., real estate dealers, for a parking lot at the intersection of Worth and Webster streets. A company spokesman said the lot would serve several nearby businesses as well as his own firm.

The Birmingham Democratic Club is holding a public meeting at the Community House at 8 p.m. tomorrow. A film on precinct delegates' work will be shown.

Charles T. Moore

Service for Charles T. Moore, 73, of 508 Catalpa St. will be held 2 p.m. Wednesday from Manley Bailey Funeral Home with burial in White Chapel Cemetery, Troy.

Mr. Moore died early this morning at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, after a brief illness.

He is survived by his wife, Estill, a daughter, Mrs. Eddie Renshaw, both of Birmingham; a sister and two grandchildren.

Mrs. Lila R. Dix

Service for Mrs. Lila R. Dix, 76, of 800 Henley Dr. will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow from Lain & Son, Inc., Funeral Home at Chicago. Burial will be in Acacia Park Cemetery there.

Mrs. Dix died Saturday at Pontiac General Hospital after a long illness.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. W. B. Booth and two grandchildren, all of Birmingham.

Local arrangements are under the direction of Manley Bailey Funeral Home.

Mrs. Augusta Mierow

Service for Mrs. Augusta Mierow, 86, of 394 S. Glenhurst Dr. will be held 2 p.m. tomorrow from Randle Funeral Home, Waukesha, Wis. with burial to follow there.

Mrs. Mierow died Friday in a nursing home after a long illness.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. J. W. Blaisdell, and one granddaughter, both of Birmingham, and a brother.

The body is being shipped today from Manley Bailey Funeral Home.

MAYOR PRO TEM Florence Willett will set another precedent tonight when she takes over the gavel at the Birmingham City Commission meeting for her first time. She is the first woman ever elected to the post here. Mayor Harry Denyes is in Saugatuck today for Mayor's Exchange Day as part of Michigan Week observances.

Aldous Huxley, novelist author of "Point Counterpoint" and "Brave New World," was born in 1894.

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—Princess Gabriella Pacelli, niece of the late Pope Pius XII, has a patrician face and the figure of a fragile girl of 16.

She has eyes that are enormously soft from having seen the world and loved it, and her voice has the tender lilt of a mother whose children can do no wrong.

"This I can remember like yesterday," she said, almost whispering it. "The boys and girls, you cannot know how many hundreds there were, following your American soldiers through the streets of Rome.

"They were hungry, these boys and girls, and they loved the American soldiers because they were generous. They gave candy and food and—" Princess Pacelli raised her eyebrows ever so delicately—"and cigarettes.

"But at night, these Italian children stopped where the soldiers stopped and were bitter cold. They pile up in heaps by corners of buildings to keep warm. They huddle under newspapers to keep from freezing. They have no place to go and they must stay near the American GI to prevent starving."

COULDN'T BEAR SIGHT

This was in December of 1944, and Princess Pacelli and her husband, Monsignor J. Patrick Carroll—Abbing (to whom she refers respectively as "The Monsignor") could not bear the sight. They had three children of their own—then aged eight, six and four.

So the monsignor rounded up about 2,000 of the war-orphaned waifs and told them:

"We'll go to see him—the Pope—just as the big shot do—kings, generals, presidents."

Like the pied piper of humanity, with a long line of bewitched urchins behind him, he visited the Vatican.

The monsignor asked the Holy Father to relieve him of his duties as a domestic prelate to the Vatican, received the blessing, and thus was born a great institution called "Boys' Towns of Italy."

It began with a damp cellar refuge in Rome, "The Shoeshine Hotel," and in the summer of 1945 after a fund and food-raising campaign by the princess and the prelate, it moved into a ruined villa nearby. Now, 15 years later, it has spread throughout the country.

"We could not have done it," said Princess Pacelli, "without the American armed forces. They gave us all the food they could spare, and blankets to keep our boys warm. Americans are the most sympathetic persons in the world. They do not care whose children it is—if it is children, they give everything."

The project has expanded into nine settlements for boys under 18, 25 nurseries and a girls town. "I have," smiled the princess, "5,200 children now.

"They have their own government. They rule themselves without any advice from us. We sometimes attend their jury meetings, to make sure they are not too hard on themselves. These are wonderful, and just."

She told the story of a young boy who, when angered, would bite and scratch. The boys' town judge and jury decreed that he should be forced to wear a collar and chain for awhile—so he could understand what a beast he had become.

"Ah, it was wonderful for Lola. She was the town dog. She learned the real meaning of freedom."

The lovely princess, who is called "la principessa" by her five-thousand-man family, is making a good will and thank you tour of America. It seems the U. S. has contributed more than any other country to her husband, the "Father Flanagan of Italy."

Celery Muck Long Since Gone

Kalamazoo Pioneers Shopping Mall

(This is the 21st in a series of articles on Michigan's industrial and cultural achievements written by Michigan newsmen as an introduction to Michigan Week 17-23.)

By DAN RYAN
Staff Writer, Kalamazoo Gazette

KALAMAZOO—The acres of rich black muck which once supported Kalamazoo's claim to the title of "Celery City" of the world have all but disappeared. Today a strange new type of gardening is about to be tested in the heart of this southwestern Michigan city.

Kalamazoo, long a leader in progressive community action, will become the first city in the United States to put a full scale, pedestrian shopping mall in its downtown area.

Burdick street, principal north-south merchandising street in Kalamazoo, will be torn up from curb to curb. What once was a five-lane street carrying one of the heaviest traffic loads through the heart of the city is to become a three-block-long garden, complete with trees, flowers and green grass.

In those three blocks of "back to nature" lies the hopes of merchants, property owners and civic officials for the salvation of the central core of this city of 80,000 people.

No traffic will be permitted on the three blocks to be converted into mall. Through traffic will circle the core of the downtown area on newly designed peripheral streets. Parking lots lie inside the circle now and more are planned.

Under the mall project, features are planned for shoppers to increase the attractiveness of "coming downtown." These will include style shows, concerts, art shows and various exhibits.

Will it work? It's too early to tell. Does everyone like it? No. Opposition can be found among merchants not on the mall, from taxpayers who wonder about the use of public funds in helping to develop the project, and from people who just don't like the idea.

This three-block mall is but the first stage of a full scale plan which, if carried out, is designed to create a traffic-free mall over 50 square blocks in the very heart of the city.

The backers of the plan, which include a large percentage of the merchants and property owners in the area, believe it can be carried out with public and private financing splitting the cost about evenly.

Kalamazooans are taking this experiment in stride. They are accustomed to new ideas, visionary thinking, community action. Kalamazoo was one of the first communities in the nation to adopt the now common city manager-city commission form of government back in 1908.

It's hard to find Kalamazoo celery in Kalamazoo markets these days. But as the celery dwindled, Kalamazoo's international reputation as a "Paper City" grew. Huge paper mills bloomed along the Kalamazoo River and today the paper industry hires the greatest percentage of all Kalamazoo labor. A great share of all of the paper containers, boxes and wrappers which are familiar to the housewives of America are products of Kalamazoo.

But Kalamazoo's industrail base is broad. Kalamazooans manufacture everything from automobiles (the Checker Cab) to aspirin tablets (The Upjohn Co.) and in between you can find brain drills, cigarette lighters, truck transmissions, sleds, furniture, plastic products, fishing tackle, air conditioning equipment, band uniforms, water heaters, rocket components and electrical equipment and many more.

The city has also developed one of the most unusual educational reputations for a town of its size in the world. It boasts a state university (Western Michigan University) with nearly 8,000 students; one of the top ranked private co-educational colleges in the nation (Kalamazoo College) with 600 students; and a fine liberal arts college for girls, Nazareth, operated by the Catholic Sisters of St. Joseph. All are growing rapidly.

With the encouragement of the educational institutions and the interest and financial assistance of industry, Kalamazoo has built a cultural center rare in a Midwestern city of its size. Kalamazooans are proud of their Civic Theater, their brand new $1,500,000 public library and museum, their symphony orchestra, and are looking to a new million-dollar-plus Art Institute to replace the present overloaded facility. All are located "downtown."

Kalamazoo has annexed large residential suburban areas surrounding it in the past decade. Similar action may be continued, at the will of the people, since the actual metropolitan population now tops 120,000 and former rural areas are blossoming with new housing developments at a staggering rate.

With growth has come all of the familiar problems of government, schools, taxation, sewers, streets, parking and so on. They are being approached with the same attempt at farsighted community action as is evidenced in the flower-lined mall.

Castro Enacts Land Curb Law

Peasants to Get Free Acres at Expense of Plantation Owners

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro's cabinet Sunday enacted a much-trumpeted land reform law to curb the size of ranches and sugar plantations, many of them American owned, and distribute the balance of the holdings to landless peasants.

The Cabinet session was broadcast by the former rebel radio, but poor atmospheric conditions blacked out much of the broadcast.

Initial reports reaching Havana said the new law restricts ranch holdings to 3,333 acres and sugar and other plantations to 1,000 acres.

Among U.S. concerns which will feel the effects of the law is the United Fruit Co., described as one of the largest owners of Cuban land.

Lands will be parceled out to landless peasants on the basis of 67 acres per family of five. Each family will have the opportunity to purchase an additional 100 acres.

Members of Castro's rebel army will have priority in land grants.

Dulles Library to Be Established at Princeton

WASHINGTON (AP) — The John Foster Dulles Library of Diplomatic History will be established at Princeton University as a tribute to the former Secretary of State.

The two-story structure at Princeton, N. J., financed by a group of Dulles's friends, will house his personal diplomatic papers as well as microfilm copies of official State Department documents.

The State Department and Princeton University, in announcing the project, hailed it as a significant landmark in historical research. Never before has the government cooperated in collecting and bringing together in one place such documents while the cabinet officer involved was alive.

Dulles was a 1908 graduate of Princeton. He already has turned thousands of his personal papers over to Princeton to start the project, and plans to release 10 more filing cases full of them. These papers date back to his views of the 1907 Hague Peace Conference.

41 Pct. of Great Lakes Belongs to Michigan

LANSING — Michigan is considered to have title to more than 41 per cent of the area of the Great Lakes, the Michigan Water Resources Commission reports.

Seven other states and the Province of Ontario have the remainder. The Great Lakes have 95,170 square miles of water surface.

Michigan had the longest shoreline of any state in the U.S. until Alaska was admitted to the Union. Now Michigan's 3,121 mile shoreline — equal to the Atlantic coastline from Maine to Florida — ranks as the second longest.

Wife's Death Kills Mate

ALBERTSON, N.Y. (AP)—Walter Fearns, 80, a retired carpenter, returned from church Sunday to find his wife Beatrice, 79, dead of a heart attack. He collapsed and 40 minutes later was pronounced dead, apparently of a stroke. The couple would have celebrated their 57th wedding anniversary in a week.

There were an estimated 4,200 producing oil and gas wells in Michigan at the end of 1958. The state ranks 12th in production of oil — more than 10 million barrels annually—and 16th in production of natural gas.

Dearborn Banker Takes Own Life

DETROIT (AP) — The body of Wallace J. Adams, 55, president of the Dearborn Federal Savings & Loan Assn., was found hanging in the basement of the association building yesterday.

The Wayne County Medical Examiner's office said he took his own life sometime Saturday.

The body was discovered by the bank's assistant manager, William R. Fischer. Adams was reported missing Saturday by his wife when he failed to return from a golfing date.

Police said a personal note was found near the body.

'Keep Happy,' Ike Tells Class at AF Academy

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Make sure your face doesn't grow longer every day," an honorary fellow graduate, President Eisenhower, told the first senior class of the Air Force Academy.

"Go to bed with a smile," he continued, "and you'll find a long, happy fruitful life—fruitful to your country and to humanity."

One purpose of his trip was to visit his ailing mother-in-law, 81-year-old Mrs. John S. Doud, in Denver. The President's wife had been with her mother since the middle of last week.

Eisenhower flew back to Washington Sunday night, after spending exactly 24 hours in Colorado. Mrs. Eisenhower returned with him.

Choose Detroit Violinist for Music Contest Finals

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Violinist Joseph Silverstein, 27, a native of Detroit, was selected over the weekend as one of 12 finalists in the Queen Elizabeth International Music Contest.

The 12, survivors among 41 entrants from 18 nations, will have a week to practice before the finals, in competition for prizes ranging from 150,000 francs ($3,000) to 10,000 francs ($200).

They must play "The Concert Royal," composed for this competition by Darius Milhaud; a piece of their own choice and one selected by the 11-member jury.

Reflect a Little and You'll Be Prouder

For one week we are being urged to do what we should be doing 52 weeks in each year.

May 17-23 has been officially designated as Michigan Week—a time for reflection and boosting.

It also is Oakland County Week —a time for extolling the local reasons why Michigan is a great state.

For it is right here at home that we are living with some of those principal reasons. Do we fully appreciate that fact?

Starting with what nature gave us, no other section of our state can offer such a varied assortment of most everything that appeals to the lovers of the great outdoors.

Oakland County, with its 423 fresh water lakes, and its rivers, creeks, hills, dales, scenic vistas and beautiful landscapes, is a recreational area that equals most any similar area—and surpasses many of them that are more highly publicized.

Adding to this is what man has built on this foundation. Located in the very heart of the greatest industrial area in the world, we have supplemented nature without detracting from what it did for us—in a great measure we have even improved on its original setting.

With civic enterprises that are world renowned, our community spirit is to keep pace wtih them. This with our schools and churches is the main reason we have become such an area of people who own and love their homes.

In no other part of our state or nation do we find so large a percentage of substantial homes located so near to the breadwinner's employment.

Perhaps we'd better look around a little, and get better acquainted with our home surroundings, as compared to those in other localities.

Then we will boost 52 weeks in every year.

Sukarno on World Tour While Indonesia Drifts

Ignoring all troubles at home, President SUKARNO of Indonesia and his retinue have set out on a carefree two month tour of the world, including Russia and the United States.

The "colonels' rebellion" in a number of islands is still smouldering. Chief grievance is that outlying islands produce 75 per cent of the country's income from exports while Java spends it.

President Sukarno admits that Indonesia is "deteriorating continuously" and urges Indonesians to "hurl away as far as possible liberalism and capitalism" and replace it with "guided democracy and socialism," whatever that means. He says this would not lead to dictatorship.

Indonesia is a very rich country potentially. Despite seizure, without compensation, of the well run Dutch properties there and expulsion of all Dutchmen, mismanagement of the whole economy is causing hardship and even hunger. Anti-Dutch and anti-West slogans are a poor substitute for food and offer a perfect climate for Communist infiltration.

Lately the United States has extended more aid to Indonesia. When Sukarno reaches this country on his world tour, it wouldn't be amiss for our leaders to question him closely on what he is doing for his people with our money. It will be remembered that when he was here four years ago on another world tour, he expressed admiration for Thomas Jefferson and our Constitution.

SUKARNO'S whole course of action in Indonesia has been at variance with these sentiments.

"THE earth's rotational speed, which had been decreasing for centuries, has been increasing recently," says the National Physical Laboratory of England. Intimate inspections and probes the earth underwent during Geophysical Year probably made it nervous.

The Man About Town

'Tis Blossom Time

Fruit Trees in Pontiac Area Making Good Start

Uncle Sam: A generous old gentleman who has most of the nations on his side—or on his back.

A drive into the country, or perhaps only a glance around your own premises, now reveals that our fruit trees have done a great color display and, if the number and intensity of the blooms is any indication, we should have a good 1959 crop. The winter was not as hard on them as has been feared.

However, our growers are keeping their fingers crossed, as we have so many nights when the mercury flirts with the freezing point. If we can escape a frost and other conditions are favorable during the next few months, according to

Karl D. Bailey,

District Horticultural Agent, this area should have a good production of the luscious fruit that the writer thinks beats the world.

"My father took me to the woodshed and blessed my nether anatomy with a heavy two-foot ruler when I acted like our governor and state legislators are acting," writes of Fenton, who adds, "Give me a supply of heavy rulers and I'd go over to Lansing and play dad to them. They'd discontinue 'sitting' in any more useless sessions."

Placing a fresh custard pie on a window sill to cool,

Mrs. Lottie Preswell

of Waterford wondered about all the commotion, and found a pair of blue jays and a neighbor's cat fighting over it. They'd made such a mess that the family dog wouldn't even sniff at the remains.

Pontiac's downtown stores are going all out in the window displays, especially attractive in the evening. And that new Pontiac sign on our main corner is worth a trip downtown to see.

Four leaf clovers are so numerous that they are not news. According to

of Elizabeth Lake Estates, "They are so plentiful in our yard that we don't expect anything but good luck for a long time to come."

Evidently struck by a car on the Dixie Highway, a deer in the vicinity of the home of

Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand Mosser is getting around on three legs, the other dangling from its shoulder.

A pair of deer come out of a big woods in Orion Township, and graze in a field where is working, paying no attention to him—unless his dog is along. Then they quickly get back into the woods.

"My grandmother used to say that it never was too late in the season to plant sunflower seeds," reports of Drayton Plains, who hopes that is true, as her two first plantings have been frozen out.

Mrs. Beverly Ostendorf

Another of History's Tragedies

Soviets Don't Need Pact at Geneva

GENEVA—Why should the Soviets agree to anything here? They have already been told officially that time means nothing—that there will be a series of foreign ministers conferences and "summit" meetings anyhow over a period of years.

LAWRENCE

This gives the impression that the Western Allies feel no sense of urgency, and it fits in, of course, with the Soviet idea that, as time goes on, the peoples of the "captive" countries will become discouraged and accept Communistic enslavement as their permanent lot.

What does a continuous hassle on the status of East and West Germany really mean?

As for the problem of West Berlin, this would be disposed of by Moscow in what is called an "interim solution," which means that it will hang like a Sword of Damocles over the heads of the West and threaten them with a crisis every time they show a bit of firmness on the reunification problem.

The evidence is clear. Tens of thousands of East Germans are fleeing every week from under the control of the Communists. There is a similar exodus from other countries behind the Iron Curtain. This flight from tyranny is significant.

HUNGARIAN SLAVES

Why, moreover, is there such silence, if not indifference, throughout the world with respect to the plight of the 63,000 human beings forcibly removed from Hungary in 1956 by Soviet troops and never brought back to their homeland?

Among them are 5,000 skilled workers taken from big industrial plants who were then shipped to China to work as slaves under the Communists there. The deported Hungarian boys and girls—many of whom were between the ages of 14 and 18—are still in Siberia today in prison camps.

In the last few days there have been rumors that, when they reach the age of 18, they are executed. This has been denied by the Soviets, but they never tell why they are keeping the Hungarians in bondage.

The lesson is plain. The Soviets feel they own all the "satellite" countries—Hungary, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, Rumania, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania as well as East Germany. They want to incorporate West Germany in their bloc of states.

The first move is to offer a "peace treaty" and recognize East Germany as a supposedly sovereign country. But the real plan is to get the Allied troops away from Berlin and the vicinity of East Germany so that the process of infiltrating and intimidating West Germany can go on.

NIKITA DEMANDS

The Soviet chief, in his speech over the weekend, rejected all proposals for reduction of armament in central Europe made by the West. His demand is that the military bases on the continent be abandoned by the West, that NATO be dismantled, and that American forces be sent back to the United States.

This comes just after the hopes of a credulous world were raised that a "serious negotiation" might be forthcoming this month in Geneva at a foreign ministers conference or at a "summit" meeting later.

What Khrushchev really is demanding is the unconditional surrender of the West. He thinks the Western Allies are divided and that their differences can be exploited. He is convinced that, in the final analysis, they are so scared of a nuclear war that they can be easily browbeaten into acceptance of Moscow's demands.

He is counting on a flabby public opinion in Britain as well as in America to accept peace at any price as preferable to war. He thinks the American people will soon forget the millions of people behind the Iron Curtain.

Where will the leadership come from that speaks firmly and is willing to risk war to avoid war? For repeated appeasements only bring on the same kind of situations out of which world wars have come in the past.

Smiles

Kites soon will be up in the air again to accomplish an inportant thing—make people look up.

People are happier when they learn to make the best of things they haven't got.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Don't Confuse Case of Cri With Allergic 'Sinusitis'

As people of more than ordinary intelligence know, cri (pronounced "kree") is any acute respiratory infection in the early stage of the illness — before one can tell whether it is, say measles, scarlet fever, meningitis, flu, pneumonia, diphtheria, poliomyelitis, tonsillitis or simply coryza.

This is over the head of the person of limited intelligence, so he calls it a "cold" and believes that it is the consequence of "exposure" to cold, draft, wet feet, change of weather, insufficient clothing, going out without extra wraps, baring the head on a raw winter day, or perhaps changing to light underwear or even going barefoot or swimming before the end of spring.

DR. BRADY

The sad part of this moronic view of cri is that most victims are so childish that even when it proves to be measles, diphtheria or pneumonia they still imagine cold or dampness brought it on.

It is in the earliest stage of cri that the infection is most communicable. It is unfortunate, for the smart alecks at any rate, that in a minority of cases coryza is not cri. That is to say in 7 to 12 per cent of cases of sudden stuffing up, sneezing, running at the nose and other symptoms of coryza, the trouble is not infectious, but either allergic or a manifestation of chronic rhinitis.

As characteristic as the sudden development of such symptoms, is the sudden relief that occurs in an hour or several hours, as a rule. This is NOT the way of cri — if the trouble is infectious, the onset is a matter of hours or a day or more; and recovery or relief is equally or more prolonged.

One with chronic rhinitis, chronic sinusitis, chronic pharyngitis, chronic bronchitis, if he is a smark Aleck, usually considers himself extremely sensitive to drafts, cold, dampness. It is indeed difficult to convince him that his frequent "fresh colds" are merely mechanical congestion which clears off as soon as the customary environment is restored.

The to-do these persons make over their spurious cri misleads ordinary observers and contributes to the unmerited reputation of many a "cold cure."

Perhaps the greater number of cases of non-communicable coryza are allergic, anaphylactic, hypersensitive, evanescent, hyperesthetic coryza, perennial or out-of-season "hay fever" or pseudo-sinusitis. These we shall discuss in a piece to follow.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

(Copyright 1959)

The Country Parson

"Some folks seem willing to go heavily into debt to prove they are as well off as their neighbors."

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Don't Rush Into Foolish Marriage

Ann is like too many modern youth who want to rush into marriage and then fall back on their in-laws to bail them out of debts or furnish free room and board when day-laborer "hubby" soon gets out of a job. Nowadays you should not think of marriage until a wife is at least 20 and a husband has a trade or profession.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE B - 437: Anne D., aged 18, says she is deeply in love.

"Dr. Crane," she began, "Bill and I want to get married. We love each other and have both graduated from high school.

DR. CRANE

"But our parents think we should wait for a year or two. Bill says he can get a job with a gas station, so why should we delay our wedding?

INFATUATION OR LOVE

No, even true love is not as important to the success of a marriage as admiration, mutual respect, and enough intelligent planning to finance a happy home for the next 50 years!

Both of these emotions give you butterflies in your stomach or make you tingle and feel aflutter.

But sexual infatuation can turn to hate in a matter of a few minutes, as was true in the case of King David's son Amnon (See II Samuel Ch. 13.)

In true love, each person is primarily concerned about the best interests of the other, not himself!

And any smart young man nowadays, aged 18, should know that he does NOT have enough manual training or professional education to guarantee a good income for his wife and children.

Moreover, an 18-year-old girl has NOT had enough education and business experience to handle the complicated job of operating a modern home.

For example, a modern wife is expected to know bookkeeping and a reasonable amount of business law, for she will soon be signing legal contracts for purchasing goods on the instalment plan.

TEST FOR WIVES

She should have worked for at least one full year to understnad how hard it is nowadays to earn a living and then budget it wisely.

She should also understand income taxes and be able to act as social secretary to her husband and treasurer of the family corporation.

It is well if she can cook, but that is secondary for she can learn the culinary art faster than many others that are essential for a successful marriage.

She should have had experience in public speaking, for she will be expected to work with the PTA in the schools after her children reach that age.

She ought to know how to play the piano and have had a course in musical appreciation so she can tutor her children in this aspect of their cultural background.

She should be able to sew, for this will save hundreds of dollars in the family budget.

She should also be talented in dealing with children, as from having taken charge of youngsters at Sunday school, or having worked in 4-H Clubs, Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts, etc.

B-437

WELCHING WIVES

A lot of young wives are welchers! They want to rush into a "quickie" marriage, though not 50 per cent prepared, and then let long suffering mamma furnish free board and room to the newlyweds when the young husband is out of a job.

The in-laws then are expected to furnish the family car to the young couple, too, and bail them out of debts or even help rear their children.

If you young folks think you are old enough to gamble with a serious business venture like marriage, then don't welch on the job and expect your in-laws to make up for your rash judgment and rasher debts.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

Suggests Girl Scout Work to Brighten Dull Routine

To all women who want to break the dull routine and who like young girls, why not try working with Girl Scouts or Brownies? You'll meet many fine mothers and other workers in this exciting field and form new friendships.

You will do new things and see new places on field trips that only scout work would expose you to. You don't have to be a born leader and training is provided. Many begin as co-leaders.

There's a serious shortage of leaders due to the large number of working mothers and hundreds of girls are being turned away from Scouting. As you grow with these wonderful girls, you'll learn why Scout work is so important.

Call your nearest elementary school to find out who's active in your neighborhood and contact the leaders for further information.

'Big Mouths Will Be Big Mouths'

Adds Her Views on Judge's Ruling

Concerning the discussion about the 15-year-old girl and the 35-year-old man, do you realize these girls were once as sweet and innocent as your own babies? They didn't go wrong alone, someone had to teach them.

You can't always blame parents for these things. Statistics prove that after a child reaches school age, he's under supervision and influence of others a third of his day and this increases as he grows older.

True, judges can make mistakes. So can a surgeon. One wrong decision from either can destroy a life. And I'd bet a plugged nickel it this had been a 17 or 18 year old boy, he would have been given a prison sentence, first offense or not.

'Religious Magazine Helps Pick Movies'

In response to choosing a decent movie for youngsters, we're fortunate in receiving a weekly publication, "Michigan Catholic," which gives the National Legion of Decency Code Listing on movies currently showing, plus all TV movies of that week.

If you have a Catholic friend nearby, find out if he receives this publication. I'm sure he would be glad to give this information. Too bad more parents aren't concerned about this condition.

My letter isn't a gripe or complaint. I'd like to say thank you for the excellent service our paper boy has given our home. He's always been on time and has never been anything but kind and considerate. He's left his route to pursue new interests and we'll sincerely miss him. We're hoping his successor will follow his excellent example.

'You Live Well While We Exist'

While a woman's boys are in college and she's working those 52 40-hour weeks for GM, and she's spending 99-cent dollars on extra frills, and picking Chevies off the tree, try to think of the men whose families are out of work because of the women who are holding down jobs that a family man needs and should have.

While they're living high on the hog, some families will be existing on welfare. If your husband is laid off it's a different matter, but if you are holding down two steady jobs in your family, you're depriving a family man of that job he needs.

I don't know where you work but you probably were hired during the war when the men were away fighting to keep you free.

Outer Space Living May Excel Suburbia

NEW YORK—People . . . places . . . and space . . .

Dr. Hans A. Bethe, who contributed much toward the creation of the atomic bomb, turned his thought onward to space—at the dedication of AVCO's new $15,000,000 research center at Wilmington, Mass.

"While I believe that we will travel to other planets within the next few decades, I think it will take many centuries before mankind will be able to leave the solar system," Cornell's atomic wizard said, with the modest certainty of the scientist.

"The distance to the nearest fixed star is 50 million times the distance from the earth to the moon. At the speeds now foreseen for space vehicles, it would take tens of thousands of years to travel this distance. Therefore, for centuries to come our knowledge of other stars will continue to depend on astronomical observations, by telescopes (on the moon, and mounted on space stations)."

Another scientist worried aloud over the exploding population of the earth, and saw a day—600 years hence—when every inch of the earth would be occupied as thickly as, say, the Puerto Rican slums in Harlem or the crowded ghettos of Hong Kong.

Dr. Peter J. W. Debye, who succeeded Dr. Albert Einstein as professor of theoretical physics at the University of Zurich in 1911, told the congregation at AVCO that the only chance for survival of the species would be for it to colonize space.

Lt. Gen. Bernard Schriever, the Air Force's ballistic missiles authority, unveiled the first nose cone ever recovered from an intercontinental missile—at the same affair. The cone, designed by General Electric, was encased in heat shield materials developed by AVCO.

It was a startling exhibit: A rocket snout a couple of feet wide, several feet long and with a belled bottom that spread it out to three or four feet. The forward portion of the cone was black and crusted.

And for good reason. It had reentered the thick atmosphere of the earth near the end of a 5,500 nautical mile flight from Cape Canaveral while flying at 15,000 m.p.h. Its skin temperature rose to around 12,000 degrees Fahrenheit. Yet, inside, its monitoring mechanism—including a tape recorder—performed perfectly.

Next, a mouse.
After that, a monkey.
Then man.

A recurrent theme at the dedication ceremony, wherein Cardinal Cushing offered a blessing on the work, was the sudden wholehearted acceptance in polite scientific circles of space work. Until the Russians put up Sputnik No. 1, we were inclined to take the "space cadets" with a shrug.

Dr. Harold C. Weber, the Army's chief scientific adviser, had something to say along those lines. He recalled that the late Dr. Robert H. Goddard, the neglected father of modern rocketry, reissued two of his old papers in 1945, just before his death. One, written in 1919, was called "A Method of Reaching Extreme Altitudes." The other, a 1936 effort, was titled, "Liquid-propellant Rocket Development."

In his foreword to the 1945 reissue, Dr. Goddard dryly remarked:

"The subject of projection from the earth, and especially a mention of the moon, must still be avoided in dignified scientific and engineering circles."

Dr. Weber added, "Today, only 14 years after Goddard re-issued his two papers, both the U. S. and U.S.S.R. have successfully launched trans-lunar probes stemming in part from Dr. Goddard's pioneering work."

Dr. Arthur Kantrowitz, director of the research laboratory, suggested that man would build better place to live in space than the earth affords. Plenty of places to live out there, he said—mentioned especially Mars, Venus and "numerous asteroids, moons, etc." Then he said, "There is, in addition, the possibility that it will be attractive to live in a nearly weightless condition on a space platform."

Well, it would beat dieting, Doc.

Educators Say Flunking Students Can Be Harmful

WASHINGTON (NEA)—The National Education Association has fired another salvo in the old war over automatic promotion of school children.

According to a recent investigation by the association into the causes and results of academic failure, forcing poor students to repeat grades they have failed often does the pupil and his school more harm than good.

The educators' report says that youngsters who are held in grades longer than other pupils seldom improve their ability to master the subject matter. They believe that failing children causes them to lose confidence in themselves and stifles their initiative to do good work.

The old controversy over whether children should be "left back" has been stirred anew by the re-evaluation of U. S. education set off by the Soviet Sputniks. Opponents of automatic promotion maintain that grade school pupils become convinced they can "get something for nothing," and often reach high school level without mastering fundamentals of reading, writing and mathematics.

While responsible professional educators admit this sometimes happens, they deny that forcing children to repeat grades is the answer. They cite a number of studies to back up their argument.

In one study of junior high school repeaters, four out of five were still not receiving passing marks. A fourth of these, forced by non-promotion to repeat courses that they had passed the first time, were making lower marks in them.

Another check was made on pupils who had failed the third grade. When first tested, their average scores in third grade reading, language and arithmetic had been five months below the standards. A year later, they had advanced only three months.

A similar survey compared the progress of students who had been guaranteed promotion at the beginning of the semester to that of pupils who were threatened with failure if they didn't meet certain standards. Teachers found that students who were assured of promotion did the best work.

Flunking pupils without trying to get to the real cause of their problems just makes things worse, officials declare. They believe that failure problems would be considerably reduced if schools would heed the following suggestions:

Eliminate grade lines and formal promotions. Place pupils in class groups and move them from one group to the other according to changes in their needs, aptitudes and maturity.

Change report cards to show a that teachers can know pupils better and give them the work they need most.

Eliminate administrative practices that virtually require some pupils be failed. An example is courses that demand the class cover certain ground in a given length of time.

Establish adequate guidance facilities and personnel to enable classroom teachers to turn over to specialists any pupil whose problems they are unable to solve.

Change report cards to show a child's rate of progress in relation to his own abilities and aptitudes.

Provide a curriculum varied enough to meet the needs of pupils of all levels and types of ability.

Establish close teacher contact with parents.

BEING LEFT BEHIND can be a rough experience for a young child, particularly if no one asks "Why did he fail?"

Warns Residents Against Setting Traps for Dogs

Area residents were warned today that persons who purposely set traps to catch and harm dogs can be fined $100 and be put in jail for 90 days.

Mrs. Karl R. Kocher, secretary of the Birmingham Humane Society, issued the warning after learning about a tri-colored female beagle who was trapped. She eventually broke loose, but at the same time crushed her left hind leg which may have to be amputated.

Another Tot Smothered by Plastic Cleaning Bag

DETROIT (AP) — Waymon Robinson, five months, suffocated last night when he apparently pulled a plastic dry cleaning bag over his face while sleeping.

The child's death came three days after Detroit dry cleaners were asked to warn customers about the dangers of children playing with plastic clothes bags.

Believe 9-Year-Old Lost in Detroit River

DETROIT (AP) — A 9-year-old boy was missing and believed drowned after a playmate told police he slipped from a dock and fell into the Detroit River last night.

Nathaniel Prince reportedly was throwing stones into the river near the old Detroit Stove Co. plant when he disappeared over the edge of the dock.

Police dragged the river today in a search for the boy.

Michigan annually produces minerals valued at nearly half a billion dollars. Production has more than doubled during the last 10 years, from $207.6 million in 1949 to an estimated $500 millions in 1958.

Pianist Plays Waltz

HST Hears Favorite

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — Concert Pianist Eugene List, who played former President Harry Truman's favorite waltz at the 1945 Potsdam Conference, repeated it for Truman Sunday.

"That's the waltz that made Stalin stand up and take note, and Churchill, too," said Truman. "It made old Stalin drink a toast to him (List)."

List, who is on tour, played the Chopin Waltz in A Flat, Opus 42.

Recalling his Potsdam concert, List said "this waltz was requested by the President. We had to send to Paris for the music. I learned it quickly, and the President graciously turned the pages for me while I played."

Truman expressed regret that Mrs. Truman could not hear List play Sunday. She is to undergo surgery in a Kansas City hospital today. The reason for the operation has not been revealed.

Solon's Brother Feared Drowned

Dr. Ronald Bridges' Boat Found Overturned Near River Home

PEMBROKE, Maine (AP)—Dr. Ronald Bridges, 53, prominent lay religious leader and brother of Sen. Styles Bridges (R-NH), was feared drowned today in the Pennamaquan River.

State Police reported Bridges, a doctor of philosophy and theology and religious adviser to the U.S. Information Agency, presumably drowned.

He came to Pembroke a week ago for a fishing vacation from his duties in Washington. His wife accompanied him to Pembroke but returned to their Washington home Friday.

He was last seen in the yard of his Pembroke home Friday evening.

The Coast Guard dragged the river Sunday but had to suspend operations until today when the winds picked up and the tide came in.

Sen. Bridges, who is hospitalized in Concord, N.H., for an eye inflammation, was told of his brother's disappearance. His physician said the senator cannot leave the hospital for another day or two.

Dr. Bridges is a former president of the Pacific School of Religion at Berkeley, Calif.

A pretty girl named Denise Prado, of Brazil, has been named the Pan American Coffee Queen. She was formerly a student at Oklahoma State University.

People Lie Most About Height, Not Weight

NEW YORK (AP)—The Oddity Almanac:

What do people lie about most—their age, their weight or their height. My opinion is, based on my experience as a reporter, that people actually lie most about their height. The majority would rather not discuss their real age or weight.

Is this true about you?

Most people have heard about a lynx but they have never seen one. According to "Outdoor California" the average lynx weighs between 12 and 25 pounds.

What was your father's favorite song? "I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen," sung so sweetly and so clearly and so memorably by that voice across the waters, Ireland's tenor—John McCormack, played on the old one-sided record, had the power to stir my father to tears. He liked to hear it all alone in a room without other noise, a problem in a crowded house.

What was your mother's favorite song? I never knew. It is my opinion that mothers hum an individual and nameless tune of their own, and make it up and change it as their life goes along. It is usually a croon of acceptance of life.

If West Doesn't Agree . . .

Reds to Sign Own Treaty

MOSCOW (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev declares that if the West doesn't sign a peace treaty with the Germans the Soviet Union will have a lot of company in signing one with East Germany.

"I think not only we but other Socialist (Communist) peoples which were once in a state of war with Germany will also sign a treaty, and perhaps some non-Socialist states as well," he declared in a speech at Kishinev, capital of Moldavia.

The Soviet Premier said Communist Poland and Czechoslovakia, which the Soviet Union is trying to seat as full participants at the Geneva foreign ministers conference, have already expressed agreement.

Addressing the Western powers familiarly, he added:

"If some of you don't want to sign it, well, we won't pull you by the arm. The time will come when you will understand the necessity and will sign the peace treaty because the people want peace."

Sientists have recorded temperatures of 125 degrees below zero in Antarctica.

When inflation tips the scale you pay for more than you get

Let's not fool ourselves about this. Inflation hurts everyone.

Families who have to live on fixed incomes suffer. Their dollars won't buy as much as before.

People who salt away some of their pay in savings suffer.

Men and women on salaries and wages also suffer. Sure, their pay may be rising. But wages don't always rise at the same rate as prices.

In the end, everyone pays the price of inflation.

You may think prices are bad enough today. But how can we keep the cost of living from getting completely out of hand?

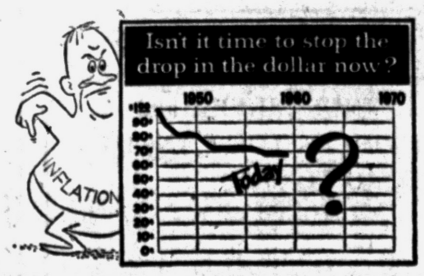
There is a way we can stop further inflation

As a first step, all of us can support every reasonable move to hold down government spending—federal, state and local.

Pressing for more and more spending on new projects at a time when we're already committed to a huge defense budget can lead only two ways. To higher taxes . . . or to more and more inflation. We can't get away from paying, one way or the other.

Many congressmen are already doing whatever they can to postpone new services, however desirable, until we can better afford them. You can assist by giving your representative the support he needs to make sure that the Government starts living within its income again.

That will strike a mighty blow against inflation and the rising prices it produces.



It will strike a blow for a stronger America, too, because millions of people will be encouraged to add to their savings.

Not only will a growing nest egg bring a comfortable feeling of independence and security. Those savings, as they are invested, will provide the capital needed for America's future growth.

This is the surest way to the most prosperous years you or America have ever known—a way that begins by all of us insisting on having a stable dollar.

Brought to you in the interest of every American who is concerned with preserving the value of the dollar.

Briton Produces Rose That Glows; It's Orange

LONDON (UPI) — Sam McGredy, Britain's leading rose hybridist, said today he had produced a rose that glows. McGredy said the new rose was almost fluorescent and could be seen a quarter of a mile away. He said it had taken him 5,000 seedlings and $14,000 to produce the orange rose, which he named "Orangeade."

Feels Nuclear Attack on U.S. 'Least Likely'

BAY CITY (UPI) — Army Secretary Wilber M. Brucker predicts that any war started by Russia is "least likely" to be an all-out nuclear attack.

Speaking at a cornerstone-laying for a new Army Reserve training center yesterday, Brucker indicated that any Soviet action was more likely to be a "limited war, or piecemeal attack, against weak or isolated points in our defense shield."

But he warned, "Soviet successes in limited war could, in the long run be just as deadly to the United States as nuclear devastation."

The Army, he said, must have strength "so real and apparent that even the most power-mad Communists will understand that to provoke a war of any kind could only result in their defeat."

Brucker and other Army partisans have campaigned against putting too much emphasis on the Air Force's massive nuclear retaliatory power and have plugged for ample forces to meet limited wars.

A COMMUNITY TO BE PROUD OF...

and Your CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Is Helping to Make It So!

IT ISN'T ENOUGH . . . if you believe that a city grows just because men are in business or work in a city, pay taxes and build buildings.

Cities grow because men work together on a well developed plan and program. In the Pontiac Area firms and individuals are working under the name of "CHAMBER OF COMMERCE" to make business better. It could be called "THE BUSINESS CLUB", "THE BOOSTERS' CLUB" . . . the name is immaterial. The organization only gives an opportunity for concerted and cooperative action.

When the CHAMBER OF COMMERCE encourages individuals and businesses to move into our area . . . that brings new jobs, new payrolls, new growth. When the CHAMBER works with our present industry so they will find it profitable to expand and remain in Pontiac . . . that is good business. When the CHAMBER represents our businessmen in legislative affairs, works for regular airline service, promotes urban renewal, slum clearance, new highways, city beautification . . . that brings business.

These are only a few of the scores of projects that the CHAMBER is working on.

Your CHAMBER OF COMMERCE is the forces of the community so organized that they have the talent to investigate, the vigor to enunciate and the strength to stimulate action which will best promote the health, the beauty, the intelligence and the industry of our community.

Your CHAMBER OF COMMERCE is continually working to make Pontiac a community to be proud of . . .

Nutritionist's Five Stages of Man

"Each period," says Dr. Fredrick J. Stare, professor of nutrition at Harvard University's School of Public Health, "involves different nutritional requirements for the maintenance of good heatth."

The five periods were listed by Dr. Stare as:

—Pregnancy, when both mother and embryo are affected.

—Early childhood, a period of rapid growth.

—Adolescence, another period of rapid growth.

—Young adulthood, when physical activity (and the need for calories) usually tapers off.

—Middle age and the years of aging, when it is desirable to consume even less calories and more proteins to ward off the aging of muscle tissue.

State Can Now Build Big Ships

Seaway Opens Vistas for Michigan Concerns in Boat Construction

BAY CITY — The largest ocean-going ship ever built on inland waters was launched here April 22 — thanks to the St. Lawrence Seaway.

The De Foe Shipbuilding Co. completed work on the first of four guided missile-launching destroyers under a $68 million Navy contract.

The company has started construction of the second ship and will build the other two during the next three years.

"Due to the scheduled opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway before the date set for completion of the first of these ships, we were able to obtain the contract from the Navy," said De Foe President Thomas J. De Foe.

"We have been qualified to build larger ships but, until recently, couldn't bid on this type of work because there was no water route to get them to the oceans of the world.

"Our coming position on the world's 'eighth sea'" opens a vast new field of business for our company and others located on the Great Lakes."

The destroyers being built by De Foe are 440 feet long, have a 4,500-ton displacement and 47-foot beams.

Longer cargo ships — such as the 759-foot ore carrier launched recently at River Rouge near Detroit — have been built on inland waterways.

But deep draft ships like the new Navy destroyers have been built exclusively on ocean ports until now.

De Foe built two 315-foot destroyer escorts for the Navy last year. They were taken to the Atlantic Ocean via Lakes Huron and Michigan, the Illinois waterway and the Mississippi River.

The Navy contract for the four missile-launching destroyers is providing steady employment for 1,450 workers.

The launching of the first destroyer, named in honor of the late Admiral Henry B. Wilson, was witnessed by nearly 200 Michigan Industrial Ambassadors.

The Ambassadors were named to boost Michigan as a place to do business.

If Warm Days Ever Come They'll Gauge Discomfort

WASHINGTON (AP)—Many weather bureaus over the country started putting out Saturday a new set of figures on why the weather might have got you down. They call it a discomfort index.

In the process the old saying, "It's not the heat but the humidity," takes a bit of a beating from the meteorologists. They say the combination is the culprit and not either factor by itself.

The new index is a complicated sort of combination. It represents an attempt to evaluate in figures the chance your body had to take care of itself through the process of cooling by evaporation of moisture.

Actual temperature is measured with a dry thermometer. Relative humidity is calcuated from that and the reading shown by an identical thermometer with its mercury bulb wrapped in a piece of wet cloth. The difference represents the cooling effect of evaporation from the wet cloth.

But even with the relative humidity figured out by the weather bureau it takes a mathematician-physicist to relate it to the temperature.

That's because relative humidity is a variable thing. It represents only a percantage of saturation—that is, how close the air comes to containing all the moisture it can hold.

And the air can hold much more moisture at high temperature than when it is cold. Thus relative humidity of 100 on a cold day means next to nothing in terms of comfort.

On the other hand even 80 per cent humidity on an 85-degree day gets many people down. They can't do much of their own cooling off through evaporation of perspiration.

One way the weather bureau gets at its discomfort index is to add up the temperatures shown by wet and dry bulb thermometers, take four-fifths of that sum and add 15.

Climatologists estimate that 10 per cent of the people will be uncomfortable before the resulting figure reaches 70. Half will be uncomfortable when it hits 75.

Everybody will be uncomfortable, and many acutely miserable, at 79. At 86, government regulation permit the boss to let workers go home from federal offices here.

Aside from the personal aspect, the weather bureau hopes the index can work into a guide for such things as when to turn on the air conditioning in buildings.

A revolutionary fish net being erected across the Snake River above Brownlee Dam in Idaho is designed to save downstream-bound salmon and steelhead fingerlings from a 395-foot drop over the spillway. The cost of the netting and the pipelines through which he fish are sent downstream is $5,000,000.

THEY SAID IT COULDN'T BE DONE

They were dreamers . . . the men who talked of a bridge some day linking Michigan's Upper and Lower Peninsulas.

But after nearly 100 years of dreaming, the bridge that couldn't be built is a reality.

The Mackinac Bridge — one of the world's wonders — stands majestically today as a symbol of the spirit, strength and unity of the people of Michigan.

Let it too be a symbol of the vision, the strength and the united determination of our own community.

Let us work together—no letup, no factions—for the progress and prosperity of our community. . . . Some will say it can't be done.

Join hands with your local industrial development organization and the Michigan Economic Development Department to help your community grow and prosper.

World Wars Bind Countries

King's Visit Emphasizes Belgium-U.S. Friendship

WASHINGTON — The present official visit of Belgium's young King Baudouin to the United States underscores the friendly ties long maintained between the United States and the small western European nation.

In two world Wars America's sympathy went out to German-occupied, devastated Belgium. The Allied fighting that raged there added such place names as Flanders and Ardennes to the American language.

In return, World War II gave Belgians a terse Yankee word—"Nuts"—the famous reply made by Major General Anthony C. McAuliffe to a German demand for the surrender of surrounded, hard-pressed Bastogne.

After the war, rebuilt Bastogne named the market square Place McAuliffe. Beside it stands the "Nuts' Museum which houses relics of the subborn resistance that held the city until relief troops came.

Present-day travelers find Belgium a fascinating mixture of ultramodern enterprise and medieval pageantry and architecture, says the National Geographic Society.

Belgium is about the size of Maryland. Motorists can drive in a few hours from the museum city of Bruges, with its 700-year-old bell tower, to the busy port of Antwerp, which handles some 40 million tons of cargo a year.

They can lose themselves in abbeys, castles, and cobbled streets of Ghent, or visit the roaring steel mills, glass works, and gun factories of Liege, the Pittsburgh of Belgium. The gun industry itself has five centuries behind it. The city's Museum of Arms displays some 8,300 weapons.

CITY OF CONTRASTS

Brussels, the capital, is a metropolis of nearly a million people. As host for the World's Fair last year, it offered all modern conveniences, including helicopter transport, to the millions of visitors.

Yet there, too, huge glass-and-steel office buildings look down on old, sharp-gabled Flemish dwellings. In the city's broad Grand'Place, shiny new cars park against a backdrop of ornately gilded and statue-crowned structures whose designs date from the 14th to 17th centuries.

Despite the evidence of an ancient past, Belgium is actually younger as an independent nation than the United States. Its sovereignty was won from the Netherlands in 1830 by a secessionist revolt that united the French-speaking people of the south with the Flemish-speaking inhabitants in the north.

The new state became "a constitutional, representative, and hereditary monarchy." Its first king — elected by the National Congress in 1831—was Prince Leopold of Saxe-Coburg, uncle of Queen Victoria.

ACQUIRED CONGO

Under the vigorous rule of Leopold II (1865-1909), Belgium acquired vast, fabulously rich Congo holdings in Africa. With smaller, mandated Ruanda-Urundi, the Belgian Congo is nearly 80 times the size of the European country. Its mineral wealth includes copper, cobalt, industrial diamonds, tin, zinc, gold, and uranium. From the Congo's enormous uranium deposits came raw materials for the first atomic bombs.

The present king, 28-year-old Baudouin, is the grandson of the third king of the Belgians, Albert I, who was much admired for his democratic ways, and leadership and courage during World War I. When he lost his life in a mountain-climbing accident in 1934, his son, Leopold III, succeeded to the throne.

Leopold III was severely criticized by many of his people for having surrendered to the Germans' overwhelming force in World War II. He abdicated in 1951 in favor of his son, Baudouin.

Tall, slim King Baudouin is one of the world's most eligible bachelors. Though considered shy and retiring, he has entertained European princesses in coveys, among them such suggested potential brides as Princess Birgitta of Sweden and Princess Marie Therese of Bourbon-Parma.

N.Y. Hospital Strike Agreement Drawn Up

NEW YORK (AP) — A tentative agreement to end a strike effecting six private hospitals was announced today by Mayor Robert F. Wagner.

He said the proposal will be submitted for approval to the membership of the striking Local 1199 of the Retail Drug Employes Union, possibly by tomorrow. Details of the plan here were not disclosed.

Detroit Pattern Makers May Strike Over Hiring

DETROIT (AP)—Some 2,800 Detroit job shop pattern makers were prepared to strike today in support of new contract demands.

State Labor Mediator Robert E. Lomasney said yesterday the workmen had told him they would strike Monday to back up demands in negotiations with the Pattern Makers Assn.

The talks have been going since September. The workers have been without a contract since October.

Lomasney said negotiations have been stymied by a hiring clause. The union has been hiring men at its hall, and the association is insisting on the right to hire at the company gate, he said.

Frankfort Resort Hotel Badly Damaged by Fire

FRANKFORT (AP)—The Park Hotel, 90-year-old summer resort and landmark in this northwestern Michigan community, was swept by fire yesterday.

The blaze, of undetermined origin, ruined the main part of the 34-room, three-story frame building. A west wing was partly damaged by smoke and water.

There were no injuries.

Owner Bruce Crissman said the hotel was vacant. He said it was being refurbished for opening June 27.

Crissman was unable to determine total damages. However, he said the hotel probably will remain closed for the summer.

Rap Teamster in Conspiracy

Jersey Garbage Probe Reveals Pact Between Union, Contractors

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) — The attorney general's office has charged teamster official John V. Serratelli and garbage contractors engaged in a "gigantic conspiracy to mulct the citizens of New Jersey."

In a report on a year-long probe of the garbage business, Deputy Atty. Gen. John Bergin recommended setting up a new state agency to control the industry.

He also recommended new laws to regulate labor-management relations in the industry and new criminal laws cracking down on labor corruption.

Atty. Gen. David D. Furman said he is having legislation prepared for introduction in the Legislature.

Bergin reported that Serratelli got a stranglehold on North Jersey's garbage business through his post as business agent for local 45 of the CIO Retail Clerks Union, which organized garbage truck drivers. When the AFL and CIO merged, Serratelli's union became local 945 of the teamsters union, which is independent.

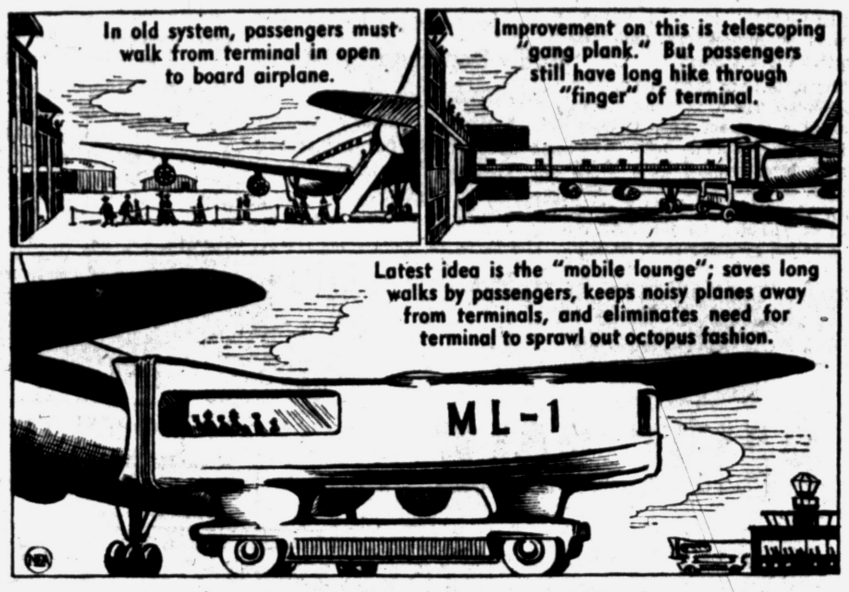
"Seizing on this power, Serratelli became the dictator," the report said. "With the acquiesence an cooperation of many avaricious contractors, they entered into a gigantic conspiracy to mulct the citizens of New Jersey for their mutual profit."

"An association was formed and the small private contracts were forced into the union," Bergin said. "Those who refused or attempted to bid on municipal contracts were denied dumping facilities or charged exhorbitant rates. There were threats, violence and bribery. Dumps were set on fire; sugar was put in gas tanks; brake hose was cut."

Bergin said that while Serratelli got a yearly salary of $8,000 to $10,000 from 1954 to 1956, he made $130,000 in deposits in his checking account in the same period.

Serrateli and five contractors have been indicted on bribery charges in Essex County.

Serratelli disapeared two months ago, just as he was to plead to the bribery indictment and appear before State Sen. Walter H. Jones' investigation committee.



JET-AGE JITNEY—The problem of sprawling airport terminals requiring long walks by passengers is under study. A new idea involving a "mobile lounge" — actually, a passengers' waiting room on wheels — has been adopted by the Federal Aviation Agency. Passengers will board the vehicle from the second-story level in the terminal at one end and exit to the plane at the other end. Sketch above shows it in operation and contrasts it with other loading methods. The lounges will ride on adjustable stilts over the wheels and be driven from either end. A fleet of the 15x60-foot vehicles, each carrying about 80 passengers, is planned for the Washington International Airport now under construction at Chantilly, Va. Cost: $100,000 apiece.

Hold Mackinaw Bridge Party

Tourist Center Opens

MACKINAW CITY (AP) — Two tourist parties from California wanted to compare Michigan's Mackinac Bridge with the famed Golden Gate.

They were among 567 tourist checking in for directions in the first 24 hours of operations of the highway department's new tourist information center at the southern approach to the bridge.

Motorists from Utah, Kentucky, Massachusetts and the Midwest, plus Canada, were given smiles and information — but no maps — at the new $62,000 facility.

Legislators have cut funds off for free highway maps and also money for the building of the installation.

The information center was dedicated Saturday with almost as much fanfare as the bridge's opening in the fall of 1957.

Tourist associations, state officials and Chamber of Commerce representatives showed up in strength.

Added attractions were the pretty blonde receptionist, a highway department queen and an indian chief with full regalia, squaw and a papoose.

Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie, who ordered building of the streamlined center complete to the last detail was praised by supporters.

"It took as much courage for Mackie to start this thing as it did for some of the men here today to dream of building the straits bridge," said W. S. Woodfil, chairman of the Mackinac Island State Park Commission and innkeeper of the island's Grand Hotel.

Woodfil suggested building a similar center at the northern side of the bridge. "Maybe we could steer a few more people over to the island," he said.

Mackie, who predicted a quarter of million tourist queries in the first year of operation, ordered the center built despite the opposition of some economy-minded senators.

Legislators cancelled publication of highway maps this year in a crackdown on spending.

The center had only six maps on hand to show — but not give away — to tourists. Mackie is asking for money for maps again next year and also funds for two new centers — one on the Detroit-Toledo expressway near the Ohio border and the other at Ironwood, across from the Wisconsin line.

Icebergs Detour Ships

HALIFAX, N.S. (AP) — About 200 icebergs are adrift in the North Atlantic east of Newfoundland, scattered across the normal transatlantic route out of the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Canada's ice forecasting center today warned shipping to use a route 150 miles south of the usual course.

Chisel Fatal Plaything

WEST HEMPSTEAD, N.Y., (AP) — Four young boys were throwing things at each other for fun Sunday. Suddenly 7-year-old David Shepard was struck in the throat by a flying chisel. He fell, mortally wounded, and died soon after in a hospital.

Four Wayne State Men Clobbered by Quiz Coeds

BALTIMORE (AP) — Four men students from Wayne State University were defeated yesterday by an all-girl quiz team from Coucher College on the College Bowl Quiz. The score was 250-35 in a nationally televised program.

Wayne State was represented by David Maxon, 23, Detroit; James MacKillop, 20, Pontiac; Bradley Iverson, 19, Dearborn, and Efrem Perlis, 22, Detroit.

They'll Pay for Litter

NEW YORK (AP) — Starting today, New York City pedestrians can be fined $25 for tossing empty cigarette packages or other litter on the street. Since April 6 more than 100,000 warnings have been issued for littering the streets, but from now on summonses to court instead of warnings will be handed to offenders.

The first automobile to use the steering column gear shift was the Benz in 1893.

Huge Job to Transport Met Opera

It will take two special passenger trains and 20 railroad baggage cars to get the Metropolitan Opera into Detroit Thursday.

The size of its company—325 full-time artists, technicians, musicians, chorus members, dancers and administrative personnel—makes the Met one of the nation's largest touring organizations.

TRAVEL 7,000 MILES

All in all, more than 7,000 miles will have been covered at the tour's end on May 31, with 16 cities in 12 states, the District of Columbia and Canada visited en route. A total of 54 performances will have been given in stands varying from one week to one night.

Planning for a Metropolitan Opera tour begins long before the trains pull out of New York on the first lap of the annual spring jaunt. For the individual company member, there are not only hotel reservations en route to be secured in advance, but a variegated wardrobe to be chosen against all kinds of spring weather from Dallas to Toronto.

Although there is time for relaxation and even some sightseeing on tour, Metropolitan company members are not entirely free of rehearsal commitments caused by last-minute changes. Otherwise, card playing, reading, chess, photography and talking are the principal diversions on long train jumps.

FETED EN ROUTE

Traditionally, the company is "wined and dined" on its rounds, and very often there isn't time to do all the entertainment offered by local well-wishers.

There is little spare time for the wardrobe department which must pack costumes to ship to the next stop, as well as keeping them clean, pressed and in good repair.

B Minor Mass Magnificently Produced

By BERNICE ROSENTHAL

The Bach B Minor Mass was magnificently performed last evening at All Saints Episcopal Church. Pontiac has come of age as a center of mature musical interests. With pride, we salute the Music Board of All Saints Church, which sponsored this tremendous undertaking. We applaud the genius, the foresight, and the hard work of Philip Steinhaus, its director, whose guiding hand brought this great choral masterpiece to its exquisite performance here.

We applaud the soloists, organist and instrumentalists whose professional skill brought such a measure of perfection to the music. Most of all, to the thirty-six members of the chorus, most of whom are volunteer singers, and to Christine Gaensbauer, their accompanist, go the greatest plaudits that anyone can give.

Their untiring work and the long hours of rehearsal were necessary for such a truly great performance. All the individuals, working together, displayed fine musicianship, deep understanding, and the complete oneness with its director which this work demands.

The B Minor Mass is not often sung, even by professional groups of high standing; because of its great difficulty. Written by the giant of all choral composers, Johann Sebastian Bach, this work is acknowledged by most scholars to be man's greatest choral testimonial to his belief in God. Not in the true sense a Mass, it is more like an oratorio.

It is gigantic in scope, and may be compared to a cathedral with its huge architectural structure, its strength, its beauty, its depth, its reaching heavenward on the one hand, and its completeness in every detail on the other. Far and beyond any other consideration is the underlying theme of man's striving for betterment, for peace, for the redemption of his soul.

With brilliance, Mr. Steinhaus, his chorus, soloists, organ and orchestra achieved this monumental task with professional excellence, and with the love and devotion that only the true amateur can command.

The Mass is divided into five parts:—Kyrie, Gloria, Credo, Sanctus, and Agnus Dei. Solo parts and duets are interspersed with the massed chorus parts.

Doralene McNelly sang the Laudamus Te joyfully and with great fluency with her full and rich soprano voice. Murial Greenspon sang the Qui Sedes and the Agnus Dei with great maturity and control in her deep and warm contralto. Robert Kerns, bass, sang the difficult Quoniam Tu Solus and the Et in Spiritum Sanctum with mastery and sincerity. Donald Nelson sang the tenor aria, Benedictus, with humility and conviction.

The duet, Christe Eleison, for two sopranos, was sung with gentle devotion by Mrs. Mary Louise Lindquist and Marilyn Rodgers. The duet, Dominus Deus, for soprano and tenor, was sung with a great spirit of togetherness by Mary Lewis and Mr. Nelson. Mrs. Lovell Tomlinson, soprano and Mrs. Rebecca Gould, contralto, sang Et in Unum Dominum, with its contrasting approach in both voices, with skill, vibrance and dynamic appeal.

The organist, Richard Roeckelein, accompanied with sympathetic understanding and support. The 20-piece orchestra contributed beauty, fullness and contrast.

By far, the greatest achievement was the work of the chorus. From the first Kyrie to the final Dona Nobis Pacem, there was consistency in beautiful tone control, the blending and balance of voices, clarity of attack and release, exact attention to diction and interpretation, and the confidence felt in the inspired direction of Mr. Steinhaus. We are fortunate to have him in our midst.

The Bach B Minor Mass was a rare musical performance of which Pontiac can be justly proud and grateful. We could well use more of these experiences to enrich our cultural life.

Dear Abbey . . .

Better Come In Out of Rain—Friend's Approach All Wet!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My name is Ruth and I have a girl friend named Madeline who works where I work. We are both 28 and go around a lot together. This Madeline has a gift of gab I wish I had. She can get away with doing things I never could do. For instance, she can go up to a man she's never seen before and say to him, "You think it's going to rain?" And before you know it he's moved his beer to our table and she's made a friend.

ABBY

She doesn't pick up men in a cheap way, Abby. She's just friendly. She loves everybody. I have tried to do this, but I felt cheap. Is meeting men this way all right or isn't it?

RUTH

DEAR RUTH: Rain or no rain, this "friendly" method of meeting men (unless he is a weather forecaster) is all wet.

DEAR ABBY: There is a rather attractive (and not old) unmarried lady in town who never takes off her coat. When she goes to a party she will sit in her coat all evening, no matter how warm it is. When she eats in a restaurant, she keeps her coat on. I am a good friend of hers, and I asked her why she did this and she says she thinks it is "immodest" to remove her coat. She wears dresses just like everybody else and she has a nice figure. Is there any way we can convince her to give up this childish habit?

A FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: Tell her that clothes are like a barbed wire fence. They should protect the property without obstructing the view.

DEAR ABBY: Our son was in the service and like many other boys he met a girl, was married and brought home a wife. My husband and I welcomed her although we were disappointed because they were so young and our son couldn't complete his education. They have made no effort to look for a place of their own. My daughter-in-law has taken over the house (not the work) and they now have one child and another on the way. What is wrong with young people, Abby? We don't wont to be harsh but wouldn't you think they would have more ambition?

DISAPPOINTED

DEAR DISAPPOINTED: Our young people (some of them) have never learned to shoulder responsibility because they've never had to. Take away the crutches and they'll walk.

DEAR ABBY: What would you say if I told you it took my wife five hours to dress to go to town? She gets up at 4:30 in the morning if she has to be somewhere at 9:30. There are no children to worry about. It takes her two hours alone to bathe and another three to get dressed, put her makeup on and fix her hair. We have been late to so many parties that they have stopped inviting us. We went someplace once and when we got there most of the people had left for home. Have you any suggestions?

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: If your wife is not ready to go when you are—go without her. She is selfish to deprive you of a social life, and you are foolish to let her.

Height Is an Asset—Use It

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

It has been a long time now since I wrote a few special lines for the girls and women who are especially tall.

Above average height is not a handicap unless you make it so by being self-conscious about your extra inches. If you feel this way, it will affect your personality adversely and cause you to assume poor posture.

Actually there are many advantages to being tall. You can wear stunning clothes and accessories which the shorter woman cannot get away with at all. Large bags and splashy jewelry are two examples. You also can wear the beautiful, colorful large prints which are impossible on the little woman.

LOVELY BELTS

There are such lovely and decorative belts on the market. These are your dish, especially the wide ones. These dress up a costume and add variety, and also make you look shorter. You also can wear color combinations which are unbecoming to the short or overweight woman. Jackets or tops which provide a color contrast to skirts are good for you and most attractive.

The tall gal can achieve a sophisticated look and a willowy grace which no small woman can hope for. Of course all of these statements are based on the assumption that you are the correct weight.

You always will be in the limelight more than your shorter sister. People are just more likely to notice you. This can be an advantage but it means that your figure, posture and grooming are even more important than they are to the woman of average height. Good posture is extremely essential to your attractiveness.

As to men, I really do not think that many of them care ft their dates are taller than they are. Some of the most attractive men I have known have been much shorter than their wives or their dates. Anyway, don't bother too much about a man who likes you for your height rather than for yourself.

When you are dating a shorter man, you certainly should not feel self-conscious. He would not have asked you to go out if your height were embarrassing to him.

If you wish to minimize rather than emphasize your height, there are a few things you should remember. Do not wear stripes which go up and down or buttons or designs of any kind which are arranged this way. Also avoid the extreme sheathe.

If you still feel like a monstrosity, perhaps you are surrounded by pigmies, or those who are much shorter. If all of your friends are inches lower, it might be a good idea to join a Tall Girl club if there is one in your community. These are pretty widespread.

The main thing, though, is to think of your height as an asset and make it so. Use the suggestions I have given you today for a stunning impression.

A wide belt will dress up a costume, add variety and also make you look shorter.

Reds Frantically Tear Down, Rebuild, Explore, Dig

By PRESTON GROVER
Chief of Moscow AP Bureau

MOSCOW (AP)—There is an almost frantic activity in the Soviet Union—tearing down, inventing, exercising, plowing, drilling for oil, exploring for iron ore, digging canals.

Foreign diplomats and journalists have traveled over a great deal of the country, finding new cities developing where nothing had been before.

Some of it is great building, some of it mediocre, some of it junk. But it is there. It would be hard to match the building momentum any place in the world except perhaps in the United States.

Actually it recalls the United States in its building and expansion rush in the period between the end of the Civil War and World War II.

'BIGGEST IN THE WORLD'

A deposit of 20 billion tons of 60 per cent iron ore, worked for many years, now is outlined to a point where the Tass News Agency declared it the "biggest in the world."

New oil wells are reported in the Ukraine. American diplomats have seen others, not massively important, in the new lands east of the Caspian. Offshore drilling has been started in the Caspian, that big shrimp-shaped sea into which the Volga pours.

The Baku fields—greatest in Russia—are there, and drillers are running their rigs far out into the water, just as in the Gulf of Mexico.

So much water has been taken out of the Volga for irrigation that the Caspian itself is lowering, causing all sorts of problems around the shore line. What to do? Bring some water into the Volga from another river, one that flows wastefully into the Arctic Ocean. Some of the upper waters can be carried into the Volga Basin by means of a dam and canal. It is still in the study stage.

Moscow itself reflects both the country's efforts and some of its problems. Some massive and acceptably good buildings have been put up—the Party headquarters, the foreign office and several new hotels.

Except for Party Headquarters, the shower buildings tend to look alike—the Ukrainia Hotel like the foreign office and both like two big apartment houses elsewhere.

All look as if poured out of a mold which with a little variation might have been used to make temples and cathedrals.

The Ukrainia Hotel has a white marble lobby with columns reaching high up to ceilings on which pink and gold figures float in sky blue mists. The ceilings look like some of the heavy duty painting in the Versailles Palace. Already they are showing signs of less than excellent building.

BUILDING IS FAST

Scores of huge, square apartment houses are going up as fast as cranes, bulldozers and long daily hours of work can do it. Fifty thousand people were moved into new houses during the first three months of the year, the Moscow press reports, adding that by the end of the year the figure will be 300,000. It is believable.

The road leading from the airport is lined with the same kind of square buildings, all of pinkish yellow brick, eight stories. They would be difficult to rent in an American city. Here they are in great demand. Much of the current building is suffering from speed and faulty construction.

Good, simple household equipment ies hard to come by. The forthcoming American exhibition, featuring a house with all that built in, will be a knockout here.

REDS WILL LIKE IT

Already the Russian press has begun calling it all a fake, beyond the means of ordinary people in America. It will be a disturbing factor here. People will like some of that in their lives.

The American rush to get big jobs done is matched to a degree here, and many foreigners have begun to see a similarity between the Russian and American peoples.

"Neither one likes to be told about it, but the two peoples are much alike," said Polish writer, Dominique Horodynsky, in an article printed in Moscow. He had seen both places.

"They are both competent, ready to face up to realities, are hard-working, and friendly."

Being a Socialist, Horodynsky thinks socialism's "spirit of universalism" will win out, but not altogether. He says:

"We will see a long period of rivalry and imitation between the two systems, in all fields. During that time we will witness the transformation of the two parts of the world, now divided, but tending inevitably toward uniformity."

Wooden Shoes Shipped to Alaska From Michigan

HOLLAND (AP)—Even Anchorage, Alaska, has a kinship with the Dutch at tulip time.

Del Van Tongeren, manager of Holland's wooden shoe factory, says 100 pairs of the klompen recently were shipped on consignment to Anchorage.

The nine-man factory which produces 12,000 to 15,000 pairs of wooden shoes each year is a feature attraction for visitors at the 30th Annual Tulip Time Festival in Holland.

Van Tongeren says about 70 per cent of the factory's production is shipped out of the state.

Wooden shoes, he says, "still have a number of practical uses."

Many are ordered by dance studios whose pupils include Dutch clog specialties among their routines. Some are ordered by workers at chemical plants where conventional leather footgear would be eaten away.

Still others are mail-ordered by farmers in Michigan, Pennsylvania, Iowa and elsewhere for wear at work in farm barns and muck fields.

The factory was started 32 years ago. Its products are started in rough form by machine and finished by hand.

Fred Oldemulder, a native of The Netherlands with 35 years in the trade, is chief carver. John Woldring, his assistant, has 14 years experience. Oldemulder appears with his craft at various exhibitions throughout the nation.

President and Mrs. Eisenhower, their grandchildren, and Vice President Nixon's family are among celebrities who have received souvenir wooden shoes from the Holland factory.

Undress Parade Story Still Being Recalled

LONDON (AP)—The colonel, 11th Earl of Airlie, barked out the order to 600 Highland infantrymen—"Off with your kilts!"

Lord Airlie had heard a rumor his men were wearing undershorts—strictly against the King's regulation and Highland tradition.

"So I undressed 'em," he told the House of Lords Thursday night. "Had to repeat the order twice—but they did it.

"I think I'm the only officer who has undressed a Highland battalion on parade."

Rumor was confirmed. A handful of men were wearing what only a Lowlander should wear.

"Didn't have to say anything," Lord Airlie continued. "Next morning on parade they grinned like mad at me—and not a pair of knickers among 'em. Great body of men."

"Doubt whether they would do it today," the 65-year-old Earl added.

The undress parade took place shortly after World War I. Lord Airlie recalled it during a discussion of lack of discipline among modern British youth.

Watch Manners Ye Mariners!

CLEVELAND (AP)—Brush up on your manners, ye mariners of the sea. The Queen is coming!

That's the word from Montreal to Chicago as emphasis is being placed on royal etiquette these days. It is part of the elaborate preparations for the visit of Queen Elizabeth and the royal yacht Brittania to the St. Lawrence Seaway next month.

The Ninth District Coast Guard Headquarters here issued a reminder yesterday in its "Local Notice to Mariners" to brush up on their manners. It was directed specifically to Great Lakes ore carriers and other workhorses of the inland fleet.

Said the notice:

"Attention is drawn to the ancient ceremony in which merchant ships salute the Queen and the Queen's ships by dipping their ensigns (national flags) on passing, or being passed by, one of Her Majesty's ships.

"This courtesy is observed the world over and is extended to the warships of all other countries."

Queen Elizabeth and President Eisenhower will dedicate the new waterway June 26 aboard the Brittania at the St. Lambert Lock at Montreal. It is the nearest of the seven new locks closest to the sea.

The Brittania, with an escort of Royal Canadian Navy warships and Royal Canadian Mounted Police patrol boats, then will carry the Queen through the St. Lawrence and the Great Lakes on the start of a 44-day royal tour.

The United States plans to send 28 warships to the opening and they may also join the Brittania on the trip up the river.

SHUNS MECHANICAL POWER — With his six-horse team hitched to a double cultivator rig, John E. King of Caledonia creates an awesome sight. King says live horsepower is cheaper.

Prefers Real Horsepower for Working 80-Acre Farm

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — When John E. King talks about his six-horsepower cultivator rig, there isn't a neighbor who believes he means some new type of toy.

King refers to the awesome sight of six huge Belgian horses hitched abreast to an eight-foot double disk unit, smashing the clods of overturned furrows in the heavy soil.

He owns a tractor, but it stands silent in his barn.

"Somebody talked my dad into buying it just before he died about nine years ago," King says. "I've never driven it cross a field and I don't guess I ever will."

King doesn't care for mechanical horsepower. His reason: "It doesn't cost near so much to feed a horse as tractor."

"A farmer can't afford to run a tractor these days with prices what they are now," says King. "I sell my milk to Jamestown for $2.95 a hundredweight and at the elevator the price of oats 57 cents a bushel and wheat is $1.82 a bushel."

With mechanical horsepower, King notes, there is tractor depreciation plus the costs of fuel, lubricants and repair items. Under the circumstances, he says, there isn't much left from the sale of farm products after subtracting the varied production costs.

So he works his farm with six horses.

He says they supply more than enough power to do all the jobs required on the farm. King adds that he could work with just four, but finds the margin of power in reserve is well worth keeping a third pair.

The Caledonia horse fancier harked back to last winter when snow lay deep on the ground. His neighbors were forced to pile manure from sheltered stock in their barnyards.

Live horsepower made it a comparatively easy task for King to haul loads to his fields every day.

With the coming of spring, King used a single bottom plow with a three-horse hitch. All six horses are hitched to the big disk rig.

None of them, he says, are shirkers. "This six-horse team can work all day in the heavy ground—from 7 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. — and still run and jump on the way back to the barn," King adds with pride.

Also Seek Bond in Oak Park

Ask School Tax Renewal

OAK PARK — District school board members here have voted to seek a five-year renewal of a three-mill operating tax which expires this year.

Both the millage and a $1,900,000 bond issue will be placed before voters on the June 8 school ballot.

Approval of the millage will mean that about $266,551 will be realized in taxes for the school district within the next five years at a cost to the taxpayer of approximately $5.60 per $1,000 assessed valuation, said Superintendent of Schools James N. Pepper.

The bond issue would be used to convert the Clinton Elementary School into a junior high school.

Approval of the bond issue would mean that full-day sessions could be resumed in September 1960, according to Pepper.

He said half-day sessions in junior and senior high schools are a certainty for next fall in view of the anticipated increased enrollment.

Dingell Asks Limit on Farm Price Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. John D. Dingell (D-Mich) said today a $50,000 limit on farm price support loans would "prevent maximum benefits from going to those farmers who need them least."

He said such a limitation, specified in a bill he has introduced, would put the U. S. farm program on a fairer and sounder basis and still a public clamor against the large loans.

"Only 134,000 farms, or fewer than 3 per cent of all farms, sell products valued at more than $25,000 annually," Dingell said. "It is obvious that the proposed limitation will therefore hit only a fraction of these.

"The publicity and criticism which has in the past few years accompanied the large loans has done much to undermine public confidence in the equity of the whole program."

He said the $50,000 limit would affect very few farmers directly and would lead to a more favorable public attitude toward the whole program.

Mother of Two Is Chosen 'Mrs. Oxford Homemaker'

OXFORD — It was a proud moment for the whole Daniel J. Delano family Saturday when Mrs. Delano was named "Mrs. Oxford Homemaker of 1959."

The announcement was made at a dance in the cafeteria of the high school which officially launched the "Beautify Oxford Community" program.

A lifelong resident of Oxford, Mrs. Delano has earned an enviable reputation for proficiency as a housewife, mother, substitute teacher and club woman, according to Contest Chairman Mrs. Clifford J. Taylor.

Mother of a 16-year-old daughter, Sharon, and a son, Earl, 13, Mrs. Delano was recommended for the title by friends who knew of her many accomplishments.

In letters to the BOC Homemakers Committee, they told of Mrs. Delano's talent with a sewing needle and a paint brush, too. They also related her interest in community activities.

Mrs. Delano has served as both president and secretary of the Child Study Club and is a past officer of the Gingham Girls Extension Club. She is also an active member of the Daniel Axford PTA.

In one letter to the judges, the writer said Mrs. Delano had painted the exterior of her home at 32 Dennison St. last summer herself. In adition, she has done extensive remodeling on the inside, the friend said.

"It was upon these recommendations and for her friendliness and personal appearance that the judge picked Mrs. Delano to reign as "Mrs. Oxford Homemaker" during the coming year. She received a crown, corsage and $25 gift certificate.

The presentation was made by Mrs. Taylor, who was also the 1958 titleholder.

Judges were Mrs. Thomas Culvert, Mrs. Mark Van Wagoner, Mrs. Lee Van Wagoner, Mrs. Carl F. Buechler and J. H. Trudell.

Tiger Luster of Two Weeks Starts to Vanish

Current Road Trip Now Shows Four Defeats in Five Games

BOSTON (AP)—Some of the luster picked up by the Detroit Tigers since Jimmie Dykes became manager two weeks ago appears to have worn off.

The Tigers, still trying to find the stairway leading out of the American League basement, are off to a poor start on their first swing through the east.

A visiting team considers itself fortunate to play .500 ball while on a trip around the circuit. The Tigers will have to hustle to reach the break-even stage. They've lost four games out of five on the current road trip.

Detroit dropped its third in a row yesterday. The Boston Red Sox tamed the Tigers 10-1, the score reminiscent of Detroit's horrendous start under Bill Norman this season.

Starter-loser Paul Foytack was having trouble finding the plate with his pitches. But Boston hitters had no difficulty slamming the ball when it came even near to the plate.

The Red Sox drove the right-hander to cover in the second inning with half a dozen runs, featured by Pete Runnels three-run triple.

Dick Gernert and Marty Keough hit solo homeruns off reliefer Gerry Davie, and the Red Sox got to Dave Sisler for their last two runs in the sixth inning after the game had been delayed by rain for 30 minutes. But those runs were just so much frosting on the cake.

Detroit's lone tally off Ike Delock, who picked up his fourth victory against one loss, came in the third inning. Eddie Yost walked and came around on singles by Larry Osborne and Charley Maxwell and a fielder's choice.

Harvey Kuenn, who entered the game as the league's leading hitter at .407, slightly injured his knee and back in the third inning while trying to catch a low liner. He was replaced later by Johnny Groth and may be out of the lineup today when Detroit winds up the Boston series.

Jim Bunning, who started a three game winning streak against Boston May 5, will hurl the series finale for Detroit. Frank Sullivan (1-2) was slated to pitch for Boston.

Detroit Chances for '64 Olympic Games Very Slim

ROME (UPI)—Detroit's chances for hosting the 1964 summer Olympics appeared very slim today as International Olympic delegates arrived here for their annual meeting.

A series of meeting to choose the 1964 site opened with a tour of the facilities where next year's Olympic games will be held. Later this week, delegates will move to Munich, Germany, where the final decision on the 1964 games will be announced.

A majority of delegates polled by United Press International agreed that Tokyo not only stood the best chance to be picked, but said it was likely the nomination would be made on the first ballot.

Hits Safely in 21 Games

Aaron's Bat Still Sizzles

By The Associated Press

Henry Aaron, who may become the National League's first 400 hitter in 29 years, must feel like a guy swimming against the tide.

The Milwaukee Mauler rapped a home run and single in the Braves' 8-3 victory over Los Angeles yesterday. That gave him a spectacular run of eight consecutive games in which he's made two or more hits. Yet, during that time he's tacked on only one percentage point to an average that now stands at .484.

That's not all. The slugging outfielder has hit safely in each of his last 21 games. Yet, during those three weeks, he's actually lost 16 points. He was batting an even .500 when he started the streak.

Aaron's homer No. 11 came in the fifth inning, broke a 2-2 tie, and set the stage for the Dodgers' fourth straight defeat. The victory enabled the Braves to retain their 2½ game margin over the runner-up San Francisco Giants, who defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 9-1.

Chicago Cubs crept to within two percentage points of the fourth place Reds, pulling out a split in their doubleheader with Pittsburgh. Ernie Banks' ninth home run provided them with a 7-6 triumph after Pittsburgh had won the opener 5-4. Rain forced the doubleheader between the Philadelphia Phils and Cardinals in St. Louis.

Lew Burdette made only 84 pitches in subduing the Dodgers for a 6-2 record. The Milwaukee right-hander permitted eight hits, including home runs by Don Demeter and Charlie Neal. Del Crandall had four hits, including a homer, for the Braves.

Shortstop Andre Rodgers supported Stu Miller's five-hit pitching with a pair of home runs and a single as the Giants won the rubber of their three-game set with Cincinnati. Willie Mays, continuing his hitting spree, slammed a homer and double. The defeat was charged to Bob Purkey.

Ten home runs featured the Pirates-Cubs twin bill. Bill Mazeroski hit two for Pittsburgh in the opener, Vern Law was the winner but he needed help from Elroy Face in the ninth.

Face came on with runners on first and third, none out and Pittsburg ahead 5-3. He retired the side with only one run scoring, that on a double play.

Dale Long hit two home runs for the Cubs. His second, in the nightcap, tied the score at 2-2. The Cubs went ahead 5-3 in the fifth on a three-run rally capped by Banks' homer off loser Bennie Daniels.

Stanford Tries New Grid Line

Offers Rhodes-Type, 4 Year Scholarships, to Student-Athletes

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP)—Stanford University is cranking up an all-out college try at producing big time football squads manned by athletes with class room brains as well as gridiron skill.

Nationwide recruiting of scholar type athletes is a key in Stanford's developing program.

New Rhodes-style four year scholarships will be awarded to high school sport stars graduating with B or better grades and top leadership records. The awards will pay up to $2,000 a year, according to the scholar-athlete's need.

Roy Iceberg of Pontiac has been touring golf courses for 27 years but not until Saturday afternoon was he able to shoot a hole-in-one.

Iceberg, president of the Michigan Publinx Golf Association and one of the area's better amateurs for many years, finally hit the packpot as Bob Howell and Alex Chekaway witnessed the feat.

Howell, the DDGA tornament chairman, and Chekaway, both from Birmingham, and Iceberg were playing at giant Warwick Hills Country Club near Grand Blanc where Pontiac's Gene Bone is head pro.

Iceberg, former State Publinx champ, made his hole-in-one on the 190-yard 3rd hole when he rifled a No. 1 iron shot to the green and the ball wedged itself into the cup. The ace helped Roy card a 40-39-79, seven over par.

Thomson Takes Pole Position at 145.9 M.P.H.

Unser Dies of Injuries Suffered in Practice Run May 2nd

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Three of the hardest driving veterans of American tracks — Johnny Thomson, Eddie Sachs and Jim Rathmann—will start in the front row of the 43rd 500-mile auto race May 30 at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

They won the up-front starting positions in weekend time trials marred by two spectacular wrecks and the death of driver Jerry Unser from injuries suffered in a crash May 2.

Tony Bettenhausen of Tinley Park, Ill., twice national big car driving champion, hit the wall and overturned Saturday in a practice run and Johnny Tolan of Norwalk, Calif., looped and crashed yesterday in a qualifying run. Neither was injured.

The durable 42-year-old Bettenhausen, USAC circuit champ last year, announced that he will try again next weekend in the new Epperly flat engine car owned by John R. Wills of Nashville, Tenn., and originally assigned to rookie Rex Easton of Springfield, Ill.

Unser, 26-year-old member of a famous Colorado racing family, died yesterday of complications from burns he suffered in a practice run crash 15 days before. He had started for the first time in last year's 500 and his car was tossed over the outer wall in the 15-car wreck on the first lap.

Unser's death was the 49th from a speedway mishap since the plant opened as a macadam track in 1909. There have been 43 deaths since the 500-miler was started on a new paved track in 1911.

The 14 weekend qualifiers left 19 spots open in the 33-car starting lineup. The 10-mile qualifying record set last year by Dick Rathmann of San Gabriel, Calif., was not broken but Thomson, 37-year-old Scot from Boyertown, Pa., turned in a one-lap 2½ mile record of 146.532.

Dick Rathmann made the lineup's second row with a 144.248 performance in the record-holding McNamara Special and he will share it with newcomer Bobby Grim of Indianapolis and veteran Rodger Ward of Los Angeles.

'M'-MSU Baseball Teams Eliminated

Minnesota Wins Big Ten Title

By The Associated Press

Minnesota rolled on toward its second straight Big Ten baseball title and reduced the magic number to one by sweeping a doubleheader from Iowa Saturday.

The Gophers defeated the Hawkeyes 2-1 and 5-3 while second-place Illinois split with Michigan State. The Illini took the first game 8-2 and then lost 4-1.

Minnesota needs but one victory in its final three games this weekend to clinch its third championship in four years. The Gophers could lose all three games and still clinch the championship if Illinois should lose one of its last three.

Except for Minnesota's big edge over Illinois, the rest of the league bunched up as Wisconsin, Northwestern and Purdue won doubleheaders.

With one three-game weekend remaining, the third-place Spartans and seventh-place Wolverines no longer can catch up with rocketing Minnesota.

The Spartans split a doubleheader with Illinois. Michigan State dropped the opener 8-2, but came back for a 4-1 nightcap victory paced by three hits apiece by Dean Look and Wade Cartwright.

The Wolverines dropped a pair of 6-3 games to Purdue. Michigan could collect only three hits in the opener and two in the nightcap. One of Michigan's second game hits was a home run by Dave Brown.

Wisconsin bounced Indiana 6-2 and 7-2 to move into a third place tie. Northwestern pulled within one-half game of fifth place Indiana by conking Ohio State 14-9 and 4-3.

The conference race ends this weekend with each team playing three games. Friday's schedule lists Wisconsin at Northwestern, Indiana at Purdue, Illinois at Ohio State, Minnesota at Michigan State and Iowa at Michigan.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

DIAGNOSIS: Pig headedness.

TREATMENT: All golfers, good and bad, occasionally find themselves hip deep in trouble — like our harried friend in the accompanying drawing. At such times, it is generally advisable to make a sacrifice shot to get the ball back on the track."

A willingness to take this sacrifice shot will very often mean the salvation of a decent overall score. It will keep you from running up those single-hole scores of nine to a dozen or more.

Unfortunately, however, few players are willing to quit trying to go for the green as long as a glimmer of hope remains. The player in the drawing, for instance, appears to be flying in the face of all the odds. He should, it seems to me, be trying ot play this shot to one side or the other instead of straight ahead.

Note that he would have room to take a backswing if he were content to play the shot as advocated above. Also, the clubhead could come into the ball without interference. If our friend doesn't change his mind, I'm afraid he will miss the ball altogether—perhaps several times.

Twinbills in AL Split; Killebrew Hits 2 More

By The Associated Press

It's time American League home run hitting perennials like Mickey Mantle, Roy Sievers, Jackie Jensen and Rocky Colavito started taking Washington's Harmon Killebrew seriously.

The 22-year-old redhead from Payette, Idaho, smashed two more home runs yesterday as the surprising Senators split a doubleheader with the second place Chicago White Sox. That gave him 14 homers in 34 games, three more than runner-up Colavito's 11.

After warming up with a double and single in Washington's first game 4-2 triumph, he hammered two circuit blows in the nightcap. The blows narrowed Chicago's 8-1 lead to one run but the White Sox tallied twice in the ninth for a 10-7 win.

Cleveland clung to its slim half-game lead over Chicago by splitting a doubleheader with Baltimore. The Indians won the second game 8-3 after the Orioles took the opener 8-7 in 11 innings.

In another doubleheader, Kansas City swamped New York 10-0 after the Yankees had won the opener 3-2 with three runs in the ninth.

Pete Ramos hurled a five-hitter against Chicago. The Washington righthander received ample batting support from Jim Lemon and Reno Bertoia. Each homered to account for three runs in the second inning of the opener and snap the White Sox' eight-game winning streak.

Gus Triandos was the big gun in Baltimore's first game uphill victory over Cleveland. He smashed a three-run homer with two out in the ninth to tie the score at 7-7. In the 11th, with the bases full and two out, Billy Klaus coaxed a walk off relief pitcher Jim Perry to force in the winning run. Gary Bell, backed by an 11-hit attack, won his third game for Cleveland in the nightcap. Vic Power drove in three runs with a triple and single.

Lefthander Bud Daley lost a heart-breaking first game for Kansas City. He had a three-hitter against the Yankees and led 2-0 going into the ninth. Then a walk and four consecutive singles gave the Yankees three runs and the game. The last Yankee hit, a single by Hank Bauer, came off reliever Ralph Terry and drove in the winning run. Don Larsen (3-0) won it.

Bob Grim handcuffed his former Yankee teammates with two singles in the second game. A six-run second inning against Tom Sturdivant was highlighted by Dick Williams' three-run homer.

Snead Wins by 11 Strokes

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W.Va. (AP)—A phenomenal 59 followed by a tidy 63. An 11-stroke victory in his own Sam Snead Festival. It may not be too late after all for slamming Sam to win that elusive National Open golf championship.

Snead wound up his competitive tuneup for the Open yesterday by shooting the lowest 72-hole total score of his 25-year professional career, 259—21 under par. It left runner-up Mike Souchak of Grossinger, N.Y., wallowing in his wake by 11 strokes and started up talk again that this may finally be the year for Snead, only nine days away from his 47th birthday, to win the Open title.

It was the 103rd tournament victory for Snead, including all of note except the Open, in which he has been runner-up three times.

"Sure, I'd like to win it," he said today, "because then I'd have won them all. But it's only a prestige tournament.

"I can't seem to get in the mood to win it. The field is not as good as some of the regular PGA tournaments because some of the better players fail to qualify.

"The courses are doctored up to make them unusually tough. That's not golf.

Snead himself will have to qualify for the Open June 11-13 at Mamaroneck, N.Y. He'll try it in Washington June 1.

This third round Saturday was one of the greatest of all time in golf and proved be still can make the game appear easy. It took him only 59 strokes on a par 70, 6,317-yard course. Yesterday, it was only 63 strokes on the 6,497-yard second course.

The PGA competitive record for 18 holes is 60 and Snead is one of seven holders. The PGA record for 72 holes is 257, held by Souchak. The festival here is not PGA sponsored.

Lapeer's Wilson Guides Varsity in New Offense

Spartans Show '57 Form in Ripping Old Timers Saturday, 34-7

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Spors Editor, Pontiac Press

EAST LANSING — The Michigan State multiple offense is dead! Long live MSU's double-winger T for 1959!

The Spartans showed some of their form of the 1957, when they finished with an 8-1 record and 2nd place in national rankings, Saturday by drubbing a prominent squad of Old-Timers, 34-7, with coach Duffy Daugherty's newly installed double-wing T.

Junior quarterback Tom Wilson of Lapeer, who was being considered only as a second stringer to Dean Look next Fall, directed the varsity attack and had the opposing pros stumped with his signal calling.

Look, who is playing with the Spartan baseball team, was being groomed by Daugherty to take over at quarterback from his halfback slot next season.

But Wilson took Most Valuable Player honors in the game and also may have pushed Look back into halfback duties.

Another standout for the varisty was Blanche Martin who made his football comeback after sitting out the entire season following a leg operation.

Martin was a 1957 regular and Saturday he showed old form in ripping off 42 yards and passing on a play which carried 37 yards.

The old-timers, loaded with professional taelnt couldn't get started in the first half and didn't score until early in he fourth quarter when Cleveland Browns quarterback Jim Ninowski sneaked in for their only touchdown.

Ninowski got the most valuable player award for the old-timers on the strength of his passing.

It was the first victory for the varsity in three tries. The first game ended in a 20-20 tie and last year the old-timers won 19-13.

Dave Northcross and John Marx caught Wilson's touchdown passes and Don Stewar ran six yards for another TD. Art Brandstatter kicked four of five extra points.

The varsity defense held the old-timers to a gain of 15 yards on the ground due to long losses on pass attempts and 93 in the air.

Wally Smith 1st in Publinx Field

Pontiac's Wally Smith survived a couple of errors Sunday at Sunnybrook to win the Michigan Publinx Golf Association's 2nd handicap tournament of the season.

Smith, a Royal Oak policeman, suffered a one-stroke penalty for finding the creek on the 4th hole and missed a 33-inch putt on the 18th green.

Despite these lapses, he shot 35-35—70 to equal Sunnybrook's par and gain a one-stroke victory over John Kurach (37-34) and Doug Wilson (34-37).

Smith divided handicap honors at 69 with four others in the top flight.

The day's best handicap score was a 61 by Hal DeWolfe, a 16-handicap player who carded an actual 77. A total of 255 golfers, the largest field in Publinx history, competed in the event which started at 6:55 a.m. and ended in total darkness at 8:35 p.m.

Wally Smith	35-35—70

Tables Turned in Rematch

AMHERST, Mass. (AP) —It took 100 years to do it, but Williams has wiped out a black spot on its athletic record.

Williams lost the first intercollegiate baseball game ever played, 73-32 in 26 innings, to Amherst in 1859.

They replayed it Saturday — using the same rules, the same type of equipment and the same style of uniforms with Williams claiming a 11-5 decision after six innings.

Players did not use gloves. The bat was about the size of a broom handle and the ball was a tiny, two-ounce affair.

The diamond was square, with the bases 60 feet apart. The "strikers" zone (where the batter stood) was midway between what is now first and home. There were 13 men to a side. There was only one out to an inning. But there were no foul lines, so hits could be recorded back over the catchers head.

Among the spectators for the centennial game were Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick and American League President Joe Cronin.

Fame Ends at Age of 18

ORADELL, N. J. (AP)—A freckled-faced schoolboy who matched the speed of the world's best ends his bid for international fame at the age of 18.

John Mostyn, 5-11, 160-pound Bergen Catholic High School senior, electrified the track and field world Saturday when he reeled off 100 yards in 9.3 seconds, tying the world record.

But after four more meets, Mostyn's competitive athletic career is over. Only July 1 he enters St. Mary's Novitate at West Park, N. Y. for one year's training preparatory to joining the Irish Christian Brothers order, the same group that operates the high school he now attends.

As a novie in the brotherhood, John will not be permitted to take part in athletic competition. He then goes to Ionia College at New Rochelle, N. Y., where he will live a semi-cloistered life.

"I made up my mind to join the Irish Christian Brothers last year and I'm sticking by it," said John. "Track is a sport to me, but it's not my whole life."

As to the opportunity to qualify for next year's United States Olympic team, he said:

Albion Repeats as Track King

Streak Reaches Six; Orion's Drake Sets Two Records

The Britons copped seven of 15 events in the Association's 67th annual field day here Saturday, rolling up 78½ points to runner-up Calvin's 42½.

Hope was third with 31¼. Kalamazoo had 27½, Hillsdale 26, Alma 16, Olivet 3, Adrian 0.

Kalamazoo won the MIAA tennis championship with an edge of 39-27 over second-place Albion. Adrian was third with 23. Alma got 19, Hope 19, Hillsdale 14, Calvin 14 and Olivet 4.

Four MIAA track records were broken, with Jim Drake of Hillsdale smashing two. The Lake Orion boy won the 100-yard dash in 9.8 seconds and the 220-yard dash in 21.5. The old marks of 9.9 and 21.7 were set by Bob Martin of Hope in 1937.

Short Pit Stop Enough to Win

Pistone averaged 88.66 miles an hour in his 1959 Thunderbird. His time was not announced.

The winner finished 11 seconds in front of Everett (Cotton) Owens of Spartanburg, S.C., who drove a 1958 Pontiac. Owens stopped for fuel for 57 seconds just past the 80-mile mark. He had been in the lead since the first lap.

Pistone also stopped for gas. But he took only 45 seconds out and he had already passed the 90-mile mark.

PCH Wins Sixth Regional Event in Wind, Rain

Cawley of Farmington Shines in Hurdles and Broad Jump

By H. GUY MOATS

Despite wind, rain and cold weather Pontiac Central's track crew came through with its sixth straight MHSAA regional track victory, Saturday, at Thurston High school. It was Thurston's first regional meet.

Chiefs compiled a 60 7-10 total to 40 1-5 for Farmington and 35½ for Birmingham, and 35 for Ferndale in a hot, 4-way battle.

PCH took four firsts, but collected enough 2nds and 3rds, plus a few other points to roll up its winning margin.

Warren Cawley, Farmington ace, was the top star for the Class A section, winning the hurdles and broad jump, and running a leg on the medley relay, for 10¼ points. On the way he equalled the national high hurdle mark for preps with a preliminary and final heat time of 13.9. He added a 19.0 low hurdle win and a 22 foot, one-half inch broad jump.

Birmingham's star vaulter Bill Alcorn won his specialty at 11-6, then went on to clear 13-2 in an exhibition that drew a hearty round of applause from the soaked fans.

Cranbrook's power-laden Class B squad steam-rollered that division for a record 84½-point total, led by Barney Crouse with 13½ points on 2nd places in the broad jump, 100-yard and 220-yard, and an 880-relay leg. Larry DeWitt and John Butzel were double winners, the former taking the 440 and broad jump and a relay leg for 11 points, while Butzel won both hurdles.

Clawson won Fitzgerald's Class B honors with a "last ditch" victory in the 880-yard relay. Tied with Lake Shore at 35 points the winner of this last event would win the meet.

Chiefs grabbed the first three places in the shot, with Bill Pritchett and Charley Brown tied for first and Jerry Rush 3rd. Fred Brooks won the high jump, Bill Ratcliff the 100, and the medley relay team of Van LaCore, Brooks, Jim Pritchett and Bob Richards was a victor. Chiefs were also 2nd to Farmington in the 880-relay, in which Pritchett and Cawley staged a redhot duel in the stretch, before the Farmington ace snatched a win.

Pontiac Northern placed in the 880 at Ypsilanti with Mike Montgomery close up to the winner in 2nd place. Jan Lawrence had a 4th in the pole vault.

Holman Again Victor in PYC Sunday Event

Clarence Holman sailed to his second straight Pontiac Yacht club victory, Sunday, showing himself master of both strong and light wind maneuvering. His crew was Mrs. Betty Holman and Mack Goodwin. Johnny O'Dell, with Jerry Liston and John Harbough, was 2nd, and Andy Roualet was 3rd, with Bob and Ted Flack crewing.

Smith's Hillsdale Scares Them Away

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (UPI)—Detroit Promoter C. W. Smith's Hillsdale was off to a running start as he seeks to duplicate his record of last winter and goes after his second straight win of the meeting this Saturday in the $100,000 Californian at Hollywood Park.

The Indiana-bred colt made a smashing summer debut Saturday when he won the $55,350 Los Angeles handicap by nearly three lengths.

Although 39 horses were nominated for the mile and a sixteenth Californian, first of five $100,000 races at the meeting, Hillsdale's big win at seven furlongs was expected to result in a small field in the race.

Likely starters in addition to Hillsdale were expected to be Amerigo, the Florida campaigner who was third Saturday and Seaneen, who finished second behind Hillsdale.

2,333 Golfers in U.S. Open Trials

It was just a couple of years ago that Jimmy Demaret blasted the United States Golf Association for requiring Sam Snead and other golfers of his caliber to qualify for the National Open championship.

Now Demaret sets out to do the same thing himself, along with 2,332 other golfers throughout the nation who are attempting to earn a spot in the U.S. Open tournament June 11-13 at the famous Winged Foot Country Club in Maroneck, N. Y.

Demaret, whose last tourney victory came about two years ago, will be shooting his 36 holes at Houston, Tex., one of 56 courses where local Open qualifiers are being held today and at Chicago tomorrow.

In Michigan today's 36-hole trials are under way at three locations —the Country Club of Detroit and Lochmoor in the Detroit area and Blythefield at Grand Rapids.

A total of 126 players are firing in the local qualifying here, 100 of them at C. C. of Detroit and Lochmoor. Twenty-three golfers, 18 from this area, will advance to the 2nd round June 1 at Grosse Ile Golf and Country Club.

Only Wally Burkemo of Franklin Hills is exempt from both the local and sectional trials by virtue of finishing in the top 10 of last year's Open championship.

The 2,333 golfers in the local qualifiers are shooting for 428 sectional berths. Another 49 players, including three past Open champs, U.S. Walker Cup members now in Europe and others with illustrious records, are exempt from the local trials but not the sectionals. Twenty are exempt from all qualifying.

Tee-offs got under way at 7:30 this morning at C.C. of Detroit and Lochmoor in what will surely be a dawn-to-dusk session.

The double qualifying system is new this year and probably contributed to the record entry list of 2,402. Only 150, including the 20 who are completely exempt, will start in the National Open tourney at Winged Foot next month.

Steady Putter Gives Littler One-Stroke Win

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Genial Gene Littler headed for Memphis and another match with $2,800 in winnings and the Hot Springs Open golf tournament title.

Littler, 28-year-old Navy veteran from Singing Hills, Calif., parlayed careful putting to a 270, one-stroke victory yesterday in the tourney at Hot Springs Country Club.

Critical putts marked his duel with second-place finisher Jim Ferree of Crystal River, Fla., who had a 67 and a 271 total to win $1,900.

Week for Big Ten Meets

By The Associated Press

Big Ten athletes in varied specialties will make Michigan the sports capital of the midwest this week.

The conference will decide three spring championships at Michigan State and Michigan.

The big event is the outdoor track meet at Ann Arbor Friday and Saturday with host Michigan, the indoor titlist, a heavy favorite. The golf championship will be decided at Michigan also with the tennis being played on the Michigan State courts at East Lansing.

The conference also will hold its regular meeting at Ann Arbor. A final decision on whether the Big Ten will continue participation in the Rose Bowl may come out of the meeting.

Only five individual champions return for the 59th annual championships in outdoor track and field. But lots of records could fall, especially if Michigan's Speedy Bahaman, sophomore Tom Robinson, has recovered from a gimpy knee. Robinson was a double winner indoors.

Purdue and Indiana are expected to battle for team honors in golf over 72 holes on the Michigan course Friday and Saturday.

Baseball standings:

	W	L	PCT.
Minnesota	10	1	.909

Chileans Loom as Cup Threats

By The Associated Press

Luis Ayala and his Chilean teammates may be the dark horses of the 1959 Davis Cup tennis campaign.

The next match will tell. The Chileans meet Britain's strong young team in the quarter-finals of the European Zone competition and the winner will be favored to qualify for the late summer interzone tests in America.

Chile qualified for the quarterfinals by whipping one of the European favorites, weden, over the weekend. Ayala did it almost single - handedly. He beat Ulf Schmidt in singles, teamed with Ernesto Aguirre to take the doubles from Schmidt and Sven Davidson, former Wimbledon champions, then he clinched the match Sunday with a 3-6, 10-8, 6-1, 6-3 triumph over young Jan Erik Lundquist.

New Decathlon Record Credited to Russian

MOSCOW (AP) — Vasily Kuznetsov of the Soviet Union was credited Sunday with bettering the world decathlon record held by America's Rafer Johnson by 55 points.

The Russian all-around athlete scored 8,357 points in the rigorous 10-sport competition in a 2-day Russian Federation-Ukraine track and field meet held at Lenin Stadium.

Belmont Next for Royal Orbit

Preakness Victor Will Improve Says Handlers

BALTIMORE (AP) — His handlers insist Royal Orbit is still growing and improving, but horsemen conditioning other 3-year-olds are convinced the flashy Preakness winner is already big enough and good enough.

"Shucks," scoffed groom Pete Kozar shortly before Royal Orbit left by plane yesterday for Belmont, "this horse is just coming to himself."

Less than 24 hours earlier he and 31,505 other bug-eyed witnesses at old Pimlico had watched the strapping chestnut streak to a four-length triumph over 10 of the classiest members of his division.

Circling the entire field, he shot from last place to collar the runner-up Sword Dancer with three-eighths left in the mile-and-three-sixteenths Preakness and won going away paying his backers $15.20 for $2.

His time, 1 minute, 57 seconds flat, was considered remarkable because of the absence of any pressure from any other horse in the stretch, and because of the unusual depth of Pimlico's sandy surface. Including Nashua's 1955 record time of 1:54 3/5, only three horses have run the distance faster in the last 17 years at Pimlico.

The performance was worth $136,200 for Mrs. Halina Braunstein, his owner, who took the biggest slice of the $190,300 melon — biggest ever offered for 3-year-old runners.

For trainer Reggie Cornell and jockey Willie Harmatz it was worth the usual 10 per cent stakes cut each — and then some.

For the 19th straight time, First Landing, a disappointing third in the Derby, went off as the favorite in the Preakness—a 16-10 shot, compared with 17-10 on Derby runner-up Sword Dancer — and this time he finished a mystifying ninth.

Area Golfers Do OK in Tri-County Loop

Pontiac area golfers gained their share of honors Saturday in stormy weather at Flint's Brookwood Golf Club in the Tri-County League's three-way competition.

The team of Mike Andonian and Ed Wasik, both from Pontiac, took best-ball laurels with a three-under-par 69. Davisburg Golf Club's team of Ron Rothbarth, Pontiac, and Earl Randall, Davisburg, scored a 10-9 victory over the Flint city course squad.

Individual medal honors went to Flint's Fred Turner, former State Amateur champion, who fired 73. Wasik was runnerup with 74. The Tri-County loop is comprised of eight four-man teams from Oakland, Genesee and Lapeer counties competing on a team, individual and best-ball basis.

CHICAGO — Two golfers won the U.S. Open and U.S. Amateur the same year. They were Bobby Jones and Chick Evans.

Billingham, 74, Noted as School Designer, Dies

KALAMAZOO (AP) — M. C. Billingham, widely known architect of school buildings, died Sunday at his home in Kalamazoo. He was 74.

Billingham headed his own architectural firm and had designed many school buildings in western and southern Michigan. He had been in business here for 50 years.

Cracks Sound Barrier Twice

Grandma Rides Jet

GEORGE AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — A 71-year-old great grandmother who is afraid to drive a car has broken the sound barrier—twice.

Mrs. Zaddie Bunker climbed out of an F100F Super Sabre Jet Saturday and announced "it was the greatest ride I ever had in my life."

The plane, named "Zaddie's Rockin' Chair," had just flown nearly 800 miles an hour in level flight at 36,000 feet. Then in a dive from 40,000 to 15,000 feet, it exceeded the speed of sound again.

"I didn't even realize it," said Mrs. Bunker, of Palm Springs, Calif. "I'm ready to go again right now."

Officer Finds His Children Dead in Fire at Home

CARLSTADT, N. J. (UPI)— A policeman dispatched to the scene of a fire early today suddenly realized it was his own home ablaze. He raced to the house to find his two children dead.

A fellow-officer had to tackle Patrolman William Lown, 34, to keep him from plunging into the blazing frame house.

His wife, Sonja, 32, was found wandering in a daze in the back yard of the two-story home. She was unable to account for the fire and was taken to a hospital.

New Brain Cuts Countdown Time

Able to Launch Missile in 15 Minutes With RCA Electronic Device

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — The Air Force is getting closer to its goal of being able to launch intercontinental missiles before they can be knocked out by a sneak attack.

A new electronic brain designed to cut pre-launching countdowns from hours to 15 minutes is being installed at this West Coast missile base.

Current ICBMs, both Soviet and American, take about 30 minutes to cover their 6,000-mile range. Assuming military crews here were alerted 10 minutes after the firing of an enemy missile, they could fire retaliatory warheads 5 minutes before the aggressor's missile landed.

Radio Corp. of America, which is installing the new countdown system, calls it a "great advance" over equipment used at Cape Canaveral, Fla. Arthur N. Curtiss, manager of RCA's West Coast missile department, said Atlas missile countdowns at the Cape "in some instances have required as long as 10 to 15 hours."

The authorized strength of the West Point corps is 2,496 cadets.

Little Johnny Led Astray by Dog Too Often

MARYVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — They're going to sell "Old Charlie," the pet hound that led two-year-old Johnny Rauhuff off into the mountains and then came home without him.

"Looks like that's the only way to keep Johnny from following him off and getting lost," construction worker Raymond Rauhuff said after his son spent his second night alone in two weeks in the foothills of the Great Smokies."

"And I'm going to move out of these mountains to someplace where it's flat and it won't be so hard to keep an eye on Johnny," he said.

Johnny disappeared Saturday night. He was found Sunday morning sleeping by a log at the foot of Bays Mountain in 40-degree weather.

The same thing happened May 3 while Johnny's family was picking berries. That time he was found next morning strolling on top of Bays Mountain.

Both times Johnny apparently followed Old Charlie.

Marquette and Benzie counties are Michigan's largest and smallest counties, respectfully. Marquette County has a gross area of 1,201,920 acres while Benzie County has an area of 218,880 acres.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Grapes have been cultivated by man so long that their place of origin cannot be definitely determined. Egyptians are known to have grown grapes and made wine 6,000 years ago. The oldest Hebrew, Greek and Roman writings all refer to the culture of grapes.

Hollywood Headlines:

Crosby Boys Embittered by Unfavorable Spotlight

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Phillip Crosby was the first to arrive at his brother Gary's house, high above the Sunset Strip.

A husky athlete with a stubble of white hair, he had just come from visiting his wife and their new-born daughter, first after a long line of Crosby males. Phillip reported a wire from father Bing, expecting his sixth child: "Congratulations. Hope it's a trend. Love. Dad."

Dennis came in next. Balding, pale and soft-spoken, he chided his twin for naming the new-born Dixie Lee; Dennis had also hoped to name a future daughter after his mother.

Next, the master of the house stormed in. Chunky in a one-piece zipper suit, Gary had just finished a day's work at 20th Century-Fox. The big living room started ringing with his jokes and caustic comments.

Lindsay, the youngest, strolled in almost unnoticed. A tanned, handsome lad, he listened to the banter of his brothers.

They gathered around a piano with vocal coach Bill Thompson and started singing "Blues in the Night," a number for the brother act with which they plan to tour the country. It was an intricate arrangement that required many rehearsals. Finally, they mastered it.

These sessions have been going on almost nightly for weeks and will continue until the June 15 debut at Hesperia, Calif. The boys are pouring $35,000 into the act. The reason for their effort and expense is simple: they know they are on a spot. Being Bing's boys, they must produce—or else.

The public scrutiny has played a large part in shaping their lives. They are bewildered and sometimes embittered by the kind of publicity they get.

Gary, the sharpest-tongued of the four, declared: "There will always be the blood-suckers who can only write about the drunk driving arrests, the fights and the other things that make the headlines. I don't think we drink any more or get in any more trouble than anyone else our age." (Gary is 25, the twins 24, Lindsay 21).

2 Dems Predict Small Aid Cut

Ike's Foreign Program Will Nearly Hold Up —Mansfield, Sparkman

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two influential Democratic senators predicted today Congress will make only moderate reductions in President Eisenhower's $3,930,000,000 Foreign Aid Program.

Sens. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) and John Sparkman (D-Ala) said in separate interviews they think the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, of which they are members, will approve an authorization of around 3½ billion dollars.

This amount looks like a target figure for action by the House Foreign Affairs Committee, which will begin its item-by-item scanning of the bill Wednesday. The Senate committee will not get to this phase until next week.

Sparkman said President Eisenhower, who has backed up his request vigorously, can expect some reductions in the over-all amount "but I don't believe they are going to be substantial."

Mansfield, the Assistant Democratic Leader, agreed that the Senate committee is likely to reach a figure of about 3½ billions. But he said he can't predict what will happen in the Senate itself.

Mansfield has proposed eliminating defense support and economic assistance grants from the program within a three year period, beginning next year. Defense support involves payments to other governments to help keep their military forces at a higher level than their economies can sustain.

'Hospitality Day' Slated at Pontiac State Police Post

The Pontiac State Police post will be no exception this week as posts throughout the state will be flying the state flag in observance of Michigan Week, May 17-23.

Although the public is always welcome to visit the local post, they will receive extra special attention Tuesday, as the Pontiac post holds its annual "Hospitality Day."

The day will consist of an open house from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. with officers escorting visitors through the post, explaining equipment and answering questions about how the state troopers operate.

"This will give area residents a marvelous opportunity to see their state police in action and take an inside look at the new, modern post," said Sgt. Lorenz Ahlgrim.

The new post was officially opened last fall at 1295 N. Telegraph Rd., about one mile south of U.S. 10, in Waterford Township.

Open houses of the past two years have been very successful, according to Ahlgrim, post commander. "Visitors who saw the old post will surely find a world of difference in the new tri-level building we now occupy."

The old post on Dixie highway was a house reconverted for police operations. The new structure was built with police work in mind and is far more functional.

British explorer John Speke discovered Lake Victoria in the heart of British East Africa.

Postmen Think Dad Deserves Time Off, Too

LONDON (AP) — The British Post Office Workers Union is going to press the postmaster general for paternity leave for its male members.

A woman member, Madge Jones, made the proposal at the union's annual conference.

Elderly Bill Marshall, head of the union's legal and medical department, pointed out that the post office already allows up to six days paid emergency leave for family medical crises.

"It is not practicable to ask the post office for more," he said.

"It is easy for him to say that," Mrs. Jones told the delegates representing 166,000 workers. "But he is not a man of 20 or 30 trying to build a home.

"Many young parents do not have Mum or Aunty or any other fairy godmother available to help around the house when baby comes. Any young father who exceeds his six days of special leave has to pay a substitute, sometimes at a rate higher than his own wages."

"Why," Marshall demanded, "should the post office pay for the man to stay at home when married life follows its normal course?"

Largest U.S. Family Calls Michigan Home

ZEELAND — Michigan, the largest state east of the Mississippi, has the largest living family in the U.S.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerit Kooienga have 21 children, including five sets of twins, ranging in age from 10 to 33 years old. Kooienga, a 55-year-old truck driver, was named national "Father of the Year" in 1951.

FBI Lynching Probe Irritates Poplarville

POPLARVILLE, Miss. (AP) — Citizens in this south Mississippi sawmill town are showing open irritation today over the FBI's investigation of the Mack Charles Parker lynching.

Reports that the FBI was poised to arrest seven men over the weekend in connection with the lynching failed to materialize.

Tension was heightened Sunday when one man was hospitalized for a cerebral hemorrhage a few hours after FBI agents questioned him.

Another man, J. F. Lee Jr., said agents questioned him and his wife twice and followed him more than a week.

J. P. Walker, a reported candidate for sheriff, said he would not submit to more questioning "unless they issue a warrant for me."

Twenty-three of the victims required hospitalization. The others were released after treatment at hospitals in Topeka, Holton and Lawrence.

"There was a pop and a bang and it collapsed," said C. W. Lawson of Perry, Kan. "There was no warning that it was going to give way."

Lawson was one of about 500 persons in the recently installed bleachers when it crashed to the ground. He was not hurt.

Witnesses said the spectators had just started to file out after the last performance of the four-day rodeo when the accident occurred. Performers, and other fans in the crowd of about 6,000, plunged into the wreckage to free the victims.

"There was a lot of screaming and shouting," said one witness. "Some of the people clung to girders but most of them piled up into just a big heap. It took several minutes to get them unpiled."

Cause of the accident hasn't been determined. The bleachers had been built for this year's rodeo. They were constructed of a metal frame and wooden seats. The section was 75 feet long and had 10 rows, the highest of which was about 16 feet from the ground.

One of the injured, Donald Troughton of Topeka, said a liquefied gas line was broken, setting on edge the nerves of victims and rescuers.

Thompson Sentence Postponed to June 8

Genesee Circuit Judge Stephen J. Roth today postponed sentencing of convicted Flirt Teamsters business agent Jack D. Thompson to June 8.

Defense attorneys requested the additional time to prepare arguments for a new trial sought by them April 21 on grounds Thompson was convicted contrary to the law and against the great weight of evidence.

Thompson, a 42-year-old ex-convict, was found guilty by a jury April 3 of being an accomplice in the burning of a dry cleaning outlet near Flint last August in which his fellow business agent Frank Kierdorf suffered fatal burns.

Thompson, who is free on a $1,500 bond, faces a possible maximum sentence of 10 years in prison.

Firmness Dots Grain Trading

CHICAGO (UP)—There were a few scattered spots of firmness in grain futures prices today on the board of trade but generally they were steady to slightly easier in early dealings.

Trading was unusually slow for a Monday which brokers attributed to a lack of any significant influences over the weekend. There was a report that Pakistan, which had been expected to buy a good volume of wheat early this week, had withdrawn from the market for the present.

France bought about a cargo of soybeans for shipment next month and there was a light scattered domestic demand.

Near the end of the first hour, wheat was 1⅛ cents a bushel higher on May to ⅜ lower on the new crop months, May $1.89½; corn unchanged to ¼ higher, May $1.26⅞; oats unchanged to ⅜ higher, May 68⅝; soybeans ¼ lower to ¼ higher, May $2.31.

Small Ford Slated Definitely for Ohio

LORAIN, Ohio (UPI)— Ford Motor Co. officials here this weekend confirmed reports that Ford's small car will be produced here despite protests from workers in Michigan.

The officials made the announcement Saturday after members of United Auto Workers Local 600 demonstrated at Ford's River Rouge plant. The union members were protesting the company's decision to build the Falcon in Ohio while production facilities in Michigan were idle.

Officials said the small Ford, to be introduced next fall, will be assembled at Lorain and engines will be built at Ford's plant in Lima, Ohio.

UAW officials in Detroit contended the work should be performed at the Rouge plant because more than 10,000 workers currently are laid off there.

Waterford Twp. Board to Act on Blacktopping

Two hearings with intent to proceed on blacktopping Landsdowne and Marion streets will be the only main items on tonight's Waterford Township board agenda, according to Clerk James Seeterlin.

Many controversial hearings have been held concerning the Landsdowne street blacktopping work and with tonight's presentation of a special assessment roll, the board hopes to conclude the project's paper work, Seeterlin said.

French Smash Red Spy Ring

Polish Embassy Man One of Three Arrested in Tricky Investigation

PARIS (AP) — French police said today they broke up a spy ring and arrested an employe of the Polish embassy after using agents disguised as Catholic nuns to shadow suspects.

The arrested Pole was identified as Casimir Depierala, secretary of the military attache at the Polish embassy.

Arrested with him were two French citizens who ran a religious library at suburban Fontenay-Sous-Bois. They were Austrian-born Hermann Bertelet and wife.

The police began watching the library on a tip agents dressed as nuns began to drop in for long stays to browse among the religious books.

Other agents shadowed Bertelet on trips to an industrial suburb. Long-range pictures showed Bertelet always stood close to one man—the Pole, Depierala — in such a way that they could talk unheard or pass messages.

Then the police raided the library and Bertelet's home, finding a compact and powerful radio sending and receiving set and a number of documents apparently in code.

The police said Bertelet has confessed. The three have been charged with attacks on the security of the state. It was believed they were arrested a month ago.

Gold, Motors Pace Market

NEW YORK (UP) — Gold shares and most motors were up in a mixed stock market early today. Trading was moderately active.

Gains and losses of fractions to about a point were the rule among most key stocks.

The gold mining stocks continued their advance of Friday on last week's news that the price of gold bullion in London reached its highest point in five years. The rise in the gold stocks shrugged off word from U.S. Treasury officials that the United States will not devaluate the dollar despite the increasing flow of gold from the country.

Homestake rose well over a point. McIntyre Porcupine was about a point higher. Dome Mines advanced another fraction.

Chrysler (ex-dividend) was up about a point while Ford and General Motors rose fractionally.

While the market was taken aback Friday on news of a boost in the prime lending rate by leading banks, economic news was good, including word that industrial output in March was at a record level.

Steels, chemicals and nonferrous metals were mixed. Raytheon was up about a point following news it is planning "sky stations" to hover above the earth. Other electronics were spotty.

Polaroid fell about 3 points. Losses of more than a point were taken by Pfizer and Merck. American Telephone and Lorillard were about a point lower.

EMPHASIZING MICHIGAN — A huge map stressing Michigan Week, May 17-23, will be one part of an elaborate open house at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday at Isaac Crary Junior High school, Waterford Township. Michigan history pupils Jan Appel, Richard Lawrence and Cathy Delorge finish up the big display. All eleven departments in the school will present a demonstration on the auditorium stage, and a skit titled "A Country School at the Turn of the Century" written by 7th-grader Sherry Zannoth, will be part of the program.

Spending Mark Shattered 1st 3 Months of '59 in U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Americans went on a record-smashing spending spree the first three months of this year.

Spending by individuals for personal consumption was up $4,600,000,000 to a record rate of 300½ billion a year.

Coupled with other factors, the spending helped the national output in the period climb more than preliminary figures indicated.

The Commerce Department said Sunday the gross national product—the value of all goods and services produced—jumped 14 billion dollars to a record annual rate of 467 billion. This was two billion more than the official estimate a month ago.

Payrolls and profits went up with the surge in market demand.

There wasn't enough data to provide national income totals, but the department said it climbed about 10 billion dollars for the third straight quarter—setting another new record.

Output has climbed 40 billion dollars from the recession low in the first quarter of last year. That's an increase of close to 10 per cent.

Cantor Breaks Down and Sobs

Cancer Claims Eddie's Girl

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Eddie Cantor joked about his five daughters, because he wanted a son.

But when his first-born, Marjorie, died Sunday the little comedian broke down and sobbed so hard a physician had to put him to sleep.

Cantor, 67, has heart trouble.

The news was not exactly a shock to Eddie. He had known, ever since she entered Cedars of Lebanon Hospital March 26 — her second visit there in a year — that Marjorie was dying of cancer.

Marjorie, 44, and unmarried, had never sought to share her father's limelight. But she was famous, she and her four sisters, because Eddie made them real to the millions in his radio and TV audiences.

There was a time when, publicly, Eddie was going to fire his wife Ida. Then he was going to see what kind of a trade he could make with Bing Crosby for one or more of his four boys.

But those were only public jokes, to draw him closer to his fans. His daughters understood and took the joking with good nature.

The jibes were never repeated in family talk because Eddie didn't mean them. He loved his daughters deeply.

Marjorie's four sisters, Natalie, Edna, Marilyn and Janet, were at her bedside when she died.

She had been ill two years but the sisters kept the gravity of the disease from their ailing parents until Marjorie was hospitalized for the last time.

West Patches Split in Ranks at Geneva

East-West plans for a German settlement. Second, they want to find out in secret discussions what the Soviets may be prepared to negotiate on seriously.

The U.S. and British delegations let it be known over the weekend that they felt the Soviet Union's adamant rejection of the Western package proposal for German reunification and a European security system necessitated negotiations on the immediately pressing question of Berlin.

Franch and West German officials insisted on continued firm support for the package program and a very tough line in negotiating with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

The joint Western statement denied that the Allies had decided to break up the Western package plan.

It said the Western powers had already stated that "the various questions included in the plan can be discussed one by one. But as they are, in fact, all connected, they cannot be settled in isolation."

PROPOSES ELECTIONS

"As to Berlin," the statement said, "the Western foreign ministers expect to discuss this problem along the line of the proposals on Berlin contained in Phase I of the Western peace plan."

The plan proposes that West and East Berlin be united by free elections and the unified city be guaranteed by the Big Four. This would be the first step toward German reunification.

Price Tag Set on Remodeling

Fisher Body to Spend $197,000 as First Step in $1 Million Project

A $197,000 price tag has been placed on initial remodeling of the Pontiac Fisher Body Division plant.

Structural changes and internal alterations are included in the first steps of the company's modernization program, said Carl Alt, Pontiac building inspector.

The inspection department today had ready the first building permit for the vast modernization program announced last month by T. F. Wiethorn, plant manager. Argonaut Realty Division, General Motors Corp.'s real estate wing, applied for the permit Friday.

It is expected that the entire 18-month remodeling program will cost one million or more. The remodeled plant will be capable of producing bodies for Pontiac station wagons and convertibles, which now are produced elsewhere, Wiethorn said.

Major remodeling will take place in plant areas now utilized for metal fabrication and body and paint operations. There will be a second assembly line installed, and new body paint, cushion and trim shops constructed, according to company plans.

Alt said initial construction would be centered in five locations within the confines of the existing plant, with no new buildings scheduled for construction.

Family Terrorized by Bleeding Thug

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—A gunman deserted his dying holdup partner after a drug store gun battle with two detectives, then terrorized a family and a hostage Sunday before police flushed him from a dingy attic. He was still defiant but out of ammunition.

The desperado, 32-year-old Ivan L. Deckard of Heltonville, Ind., was bleeding from an arm wound. Two detectives also were wounded, neither seriously, in the gun fight in a neighborhood drug store at suburban University City.

Cornered two hours later and five miles from the holdup, Deckard said: "I only regret I didn't have more bullets. I'm not yellow, I just ran out of ammunition."

A short time earlier near his hiding place in North St. Louis, Deckard had released his hostage, 23-year-old Richard Wetzel of suburban Wellston. Wetzel was unharmed.

The 6-foot-3 Deckard had been sought since his escape from the federal building in downtown St. Louis April 13. He was being held for possessing a machine gun.

His bandit partner, ex-convict Herbert J. Lorts, 34, was shot in the heart. They took only $104 from the drug store, much of it in checks.

As the bandits barged into the store, they didn't know that a telephone conversation between a boy and his girl was about to stymie them.

'CALL POLICE'

Bruce Zuckerman, 27, son of drug store owner Irwin Zuckerman, was in a telephone booth chatting with his girl friend.

Tersely, he told her:

"Call the police — I must hang up."

Minutes later, Detectives Raymond Bruno, 52, and Stanley Topper, 36, arrived — knowing only there was some kind of trouble.

They were greeted by bullets. But one of the wounded detectives shot Lorts. Deckard also took a bullet in a rapid exchange of shots.

State Highway Strike of Teamsters Averted

DETROIT (AP) — A threatened strike that would have disrupted work on 100 million dollars worth of Michigan highway projects has been averted.

The Michigan Conference of Teamsters and the Michigan Roadbuilders Assn. reached agreement over the weekend on a new contract. Details were withheld pending ratification by union and contractor memberships.

The union, whose old contract expired last fall, had threatened a strike today. It demanded a wage increase, improved holiday and vacation pay and higher truck rental rates paid independent truckers affiliated with the union.

The union has an estimated 1,500 members employed on highway projects. A walkout could have idled up to 5,000 workmen.

Michigan to Get 6-Week Lesson About Sclerosis

A six-week campaign will instrument the education of Michigan citizens to the largest known neurological disease in America—multiple sclerosis.

A board member of the Michigan Chapter, National Multiple Sclerosis Society, Mrs. Semon Knudson of Birmingham, reports that the United Foundation's "Education Weeks" program is well under way.

The period, from May 10 through June 21, was so proclaimed by Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

The Michigan Chapter, a United Fund-Torch Drive affiliate, supports scientific research into the cause and cure of multiple sclerosis patients and their families through clinical centers located in Detroit.

A research spokesman cited the crippling effects of multiple sclerosis on young adults between 20 and 40 years of age as a "problem of increasing concern to the citizens of Michigan."

There were over 300 multiple sclerosis patients given 3,800 treatments in Michigan last year.

Waterford Band Judged Superior

Compete in Holland's Tulip Time Revue; Gets Plaudits From Director

The Waterford Township High School Marching Band presented its finest appearance Saturday and was judged "superior" at the annual tulpi festival in Holland, according to Director Donald Perrin.

Nineteen bands from throughout Michigan were featured in the Tulip Time Band Revue.

Each band prepared a 10-minute stadium show and was judged on all phases of musical presentation, marching capabilities, special marching maneuvers, showmanship, and inspection of uniforms and instruments.

The show theme was a "Saga of Latin America," featuring the WTHS ban din formations of a sombrero, Spanish mission, southern moon and climaxed by a bull fight.

"Reflecting many hours of intensive drill by loyal band members, the show was very well received by the audience," Perrin said.

He added, "The citizens of Waterford Township can be proud to have such a fine group of pupils to represent us in surrounding communities."

The bands combined and presented three marches as a finale. The directors of the massed band program were noted music educators and also acted as judges at the revue.

They were Everett D. Kisinger, University of Illinois; Eugene F. Hester, American Band Master Assn., and William Stewart, Muskegon High School.

Thumbs Move as Collegians Hurl Challenge

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Nine men and a girl are practicing like mad at the University of Washington these days in preparation for an international tiddlywink match with Cambridge University.

Dave Stern, manager of the Washington team, says the English school accepted the challenge in a letter from Frank G. Kenshaw, honorary secretary of the Cambridge Tiddlywink Society. If financial arrangements can be made, Kenshaw said the West Coast contest would follow scheduled matches at Harvard, Yale, Dartmouth, Chicago and other universities.

Stern's team won its first collegiate match against Seattle University 19-9, and now is considering a challenge it has received from Washington faculty members.

Mom Seeks Help, Can't Return

5 Children Perish in Blaze

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., (UP)— "Mommy will put out the fire. Everything will be all right."

She tried to extinguish the flames with a pillow and pans of water before leaving the apartment to seek help from others in the building. When she tried to return to her apartment the fast-spreading flames drove her back.

The children all perished in the blaze. They were James, 7; Marsha, 4; twins Gail and Dale, 3; and Stephanie, 17 months.

"This was a case of human error," said Deputy Fire Commissioner George E. Hink. "We keep telling the public to get all persons out of the premises when a fire breaks out. In this case, the mother tried to fight the fire first."

Mrs. Stocker said she smoked a cigarette before she retired for the night about 12:15 a.m.

"I laid down in bed but I felt sure I had snuffed out the cigarette butt," she said.

Sen. Kennedy Wants New Immigration Law

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) has proposed a new immigration formula which would treat all foreign countries alike and admit 250,000 immigrants annually to the United States. Only about 150,000 may enter now.

Kennedy's bill, which was offered for consideration at Senate hearings starting Wednesday, would repeal the national origin quota system that has been blamed for the alleged discrimination against eastern and southern European nations under present laws.

Carpenters' Strike Halts Missile Jobs

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —Carpenters Union and contractor representatives scheduled a joint meeting today in another attempt to settle a strike that has halted work on several million dollars worth of military construction at the missile test center here and nearby Patrick Air Force Base.

Nearly 3,000 other union workers refused to cross picket lines. This halted work on several military projects—including the construction of new missile launching sites at the Cape—but did not affect rocket launchings.

The union is asking a one-year contract with a 25-cent an hour raise retroactive to April 1, when the old contract expired.

The contractors, who are bargaining collectively through the Patrick Air Force Base Contractors Assn., have offered a two-year pact with a staggered 35-cent an hour wage boost.

Carpenters now average $2.85 an hour.

NBC Midwestern Hayride Serves Grim, Green Corn

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI) — A country music show, Midwestern Hayride, checked in on NBC-TV last night and its corn is not only green, but grim.

Country music has, of course, moved steadily downhill in recent years. Its subject matter has gotten flabby, its instrumentation has gone cityish, and the influence of jazz and pops has almost destroyed its identity completely.

What is left are the external trappings and Midwestern Hayride carefully offers—like all commercial country music shows—the embalmed husk of the original: The spectacularly unattractive costumes, the gee-whiz-shucks snatches of talk, the self-conscious whoopee making, the corncake names of performers—Bonnie Lou, The Hometowners, Zeke and Slim. (Are there really people called Zeke and Slim anymore except on country music shows?)

There is a place for country music in the mass entertainments, but the trouble is, TV offers very little of the genuine product. Midwestern Hayride shows no signs of filling the gap.

SHORT SHOTS: Shelly Berman's monolog on last night's CBS-TV Ed Sullivan Show was a superb piece of business. Louis Prima and Keely Smith again were on board the Sullivan hour and they are badly in need of fresh material. They keep playing variations around the same joke—Prima's bumptiousness and Miss Smith's lack of response.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Split Personality, a Goodson-Todman panel show, bumps NBC-TV's soap opera, From These Roots, on June 29. . . . Another new NBC-TV show, Court of Human Relations, will elbow out Haggis Baggis on June 22.

Jonathan Winters has been cancelled out of next Sunday's NBC-TV Dinah Shore spot—Cliff Arquette will replace him . . . an audience participation show will replace ABC-TV's George Hamilton TV show which folds May 29.

'Sam Spade' Takes Over Cookie's Place

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—We've got a new Schnauzer here at our little love nest out where the West End Av. begins, who answers to the name of Sam.

WILSON

The reason we have Sam is a sad story I never wanted to write. We bought "Cookie," our first Schnauzer, about twelve years ago when our son Slugger was four. We decided that a boy ought to have a dog even in a big city.

It was the Slug who named Cookie—after his girl friend that week.

The next week he wanted to change Cookie's name to Gertrude.

Cookie guarded the front door and the back door faithfully—and oh, so loudly—while Slugger grew bigger than his parents, and went off to another state to school.

Cookie, we were sure, was the smartest dog in town.

"Show how sleepy you are," the B.W. would say and Cookie would yawn. When we got our monkey, Scratchy, Cookie became his friend and they often dined together from the same plate on the kitchen floor.

Cookie was really the wife's dog. My wife's truly wonderful warmth shows itself in her love of animals. She talks to strange dogs on the street and they understand her. And she understands what they say back.

SAM SPADE

My wife was so thoughtful of Cookie that she would stay home from a trip—and no one likes to travel more—rather than send Cookie off to a dog-sitter, or "strangers." Cookie never routed any robbers or turned in any fire alarms—but she was our dog.

Cookie had been breathing with a little effort lately and instead of jumping friskily up on the bed as usual, she liked to be lifted. "I'm going to have Dr. Blamey look at her tomorrow morning," the B. W. remarked one night recently.

And the B. W. was up early to have her coffee at the kitchen table, and to start out to the vet with Cookie in her arms. But on approaching the kitchen table, she found Cookie stretched out under it—dead.

"Cookie's dead!" my wife came crying to me, in an anguish I think I'll never forget.

Cookie evidently had suffered a heart attack even as a human being that she almost was. Everybody cried for some hours. About mid-afternoon, we all got the same idea: Get another Schnauzer immediately!

Drying her tears, my wife went out and, within an hour returned with Sam Spade who is similar to Cookie, even to the barking.

We are all feeling a little better now.

EARL'S PEARLS: Tony Pettito heard this dialogue: "I wish my car was a year older" . . . Why?" . . . "Because then it would be paid for."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: The average little boy uses soap as though it came out of his allowance. That's earl, brother.

Von Braun Criticized as College Speaker

WORCESTER, Mass. (UPI) — A professor's objection to Dr. Wernher Von Braun as Clark University commencement speaker because of his onetime Nazi connections was dismissed today by the school president.

Dr. Howard B. Jefferson said the controversy, which began with a letter written to the undergraduate newspaper by Asst. Prof. Marc Raeff, a Russian-born history and language teacher, was "just an informal discussion of the matter."

Raeff objected to the choice of the Army missile expert who he said belonged "to that class of technicians which do not seem to consider the moral implications of their activities."

Von Braun was born in Germany and helped the Nazis develop their V-2 rockets. He will receive an honorary degree at the ceremonies here June 7 in addition to delivering the main address.

Ike Gets Union Protest on Guards at Henderson

DETROIT (UPI) — The Michigan State AFL-CIO says it has sent a protest to President Eisenhower against the use of National Guard troops in a strike of workers at the Harriet-Henderson cotton mills at Henderson, N. C.

August Scholle, president of the 750,000-member labor group, reported that he wrote Eisenhower that "the use of federally supported troops to deny the legitimate aims of workers to improve themselves is repugnant to our democratic concept."

Scholle said he sent a similar protest to North Carolina Gov. Luther H. Hodges who ordered Guard units to the mills earlier this month after several outbursts of violence in the 6-month-old strike.

Widow of Ex-Solon Dies in Detroit at 81

DETROIT (UPI) — Mrs. Olive R. Calvert, 81, widow of a former state representative, died yesterday after a long illness. She was a former member of the Highland Park School Board and active in women's club work.

Mrs. Calvert's late husband, Frank J., served 20 years in the State House of Representatives before his death in 1947. Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Margaret C. Lane of Grand Rapids.

Paramount Studio Head Resigns; Cites Coronary

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The resignation of Y. Frank Freeman, 68, as head of Paramount Studio was announced today.

Paramount Corp. President Barney Balaban announced the resignation and named Jack Karp to succeed Freeman as administrative head of the studio.

Freeman's letter of resignation pointed out that last June he "suffered a very severe coronary." He said he determined recently that it was impossible for him to continue as studio head.

Reds Ignore Geneva Officials

Photogs 'Shoot' Newsmen

By EDDIE GILMORE

GENEVA (AP) — As all the world perhaps knows, reporters are not sitting in on the Foreign Ministers Conference. Newsmen get their information secondhand, from spokesmen for the four powers known as briefing officers.

For some reason, Soviet and east European photographers take far more pictures of correspondents than they do of the Soviet delegation's official spokesman, Mikhail Karlamov.

Even when the Soviets produced such a diplomatic star as Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin at a press briefing their cameras switched from correspondent to correspondent.

The Soviet briefings take place on the second floor of the press center. The room is huge, high ceilinged and well lighted. Flood lights play over the big audience of journalists from all over the world.

Ask Karlamov a question and you're nearly always shot. Or, just sit there and take notes and you'll find a movie cameraman training his lens on you.

One Western reporter asked one of the Soviets why they seem so preoccupied with taking pictures of newsmen.

"Just part of the job," was the laconic reply.

Residents of the village of Stinking Creek in Australia's island state, Tasmania, recently decided to change the name of their town. The new name is Aroma Rivulet.

More Iron Ore in Menominee?

Reopening of Mine at Eastern End Raises Public Speculation

ESCANABA (AP) — Public speculation on the possibility of more iron mining on the eastern end of the Menominee range has resulted from the reopening of the Groveland Mine near Randville in the Upper Peninsula.

This is an open pit operation to process low-grade iron ore.

Until the opening of the Groveland mine this year the only operating Menominee range mine in Dickinson County was the Bradley pit at Iron Mountain near the Wisconsin border. It produces a siliceous ore in a limited operation.

Most of the range's production is of high-grade direct shipping ores from mines in Iron County at the western end of the Menominee range.

M. H. Hanna Co. officials have announced that at a production rate of a million tons a year from their Groveland plant they expect that mine to become the greatest producer in the history of the county.

The eastern Menominee range had been regarded as largely depleted of iron.

The range has increased expectancy not only from its large deposits of low-grade ores but from the extension of the range beyond its historic limits.

These have been bounded on the east by the abandoned works of the old Breen mine at Waucedah.

The low-grade ores were not mined in the first era of mining because they were too low in iron content and because the means of making them usable furnace materials were not available.

Groveland is the first low-grade ore processing, known as beneficiating, plant of the new era on the Menominee range. There are two such plants on the Marquette range at Humboldt and Republic.

While the development of low-grade ore production proceeds, so does the search for other ore bodies beyond the familiar limits of the range.

'Space-Traveling' Prof Stirs Up Dutch Furor

THE HAGUE, Holland (UPI)—George Adamski, a self-styled professor who says he has taken seven rides on flying saucers to Venus and the moon, had a date with Queen Juliana today to tell her all about it. The Dutch press was indignant.

The Catholic newspaper "De Volkskraat" called the 68-year-old Californian a "quack" and indirectly recalled the national uproar in 1956 when the Queen's friendship with faith healer Greet Hofmans was reported to have caused a rift in the royal family.

One foreign newspaper, the London Sunday Express, reported the Queen's invitation to Adamski for a private interview had again split the royal household in two.

AFL-CIO Fight Looms on Kennedy Bill Provisos

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaders of the AFL-CIO meet today to decide on changes they want made in the Senate-passed labor control bill.

Federation chiefs are expected to condition their original support for the Kennedy-Ervin bill on removal or modification of amendments made to the bill in the Senate committee and on the Senate floor.

The AFL-CIO has indicated that unless changes are made it may switch its support for the bill authored by Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Sam J. Ervin Jr., (D-NC) and actively oppose the bill in the House.

The bill, along with other proposed bills to curb labor corruption, is now before a House Labor subcommittee. Several more weeks of House hearings are expected before a bill is ready in June or July.

The federation's present position is understood to be that Senate amendments to the Kennedy-Ervin bill made it too tough for labor to swallow.

Originally, the bill required detailed reporting to the government on labor union fund-handling, requirements for democratic procedures within unions, and powers vested in the secretary of labor to enforce the provisos.

Among amendments added in the Senate was a "bill of rights" authored by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark), spelling out rights of workers within unions and giving them power to sue to enforce such rights. AFL-CIO leaders say many of these new provisos would hamstring union leaders in administering unions.

Two unions with considerable influence in Congress, the Teamsters and United Mine Workers, both organizations outside the AFL-CIO, stepped up their opposition last week to any form of labor control legislation.

Here's a tip for those of you who enjoy outdoor living in the summertime. Whether you relax on the patio or just like to putter in the back yard you can avoid that mad dash to the house when the telephone rings.

We suggest an outdoor jack so you can take your portable telephone outside with you. Or, if your problem is just that you can't hear the telephone ring while you're outside, we can furnish you with an auxiliary bell with a switch inside the house so you can turn it off and on.

These are just two of many items which can help make your telephone more valuable.

Your service representative is well qualified to discuss these services with you. You can call her at the Telephone Company Business Office, FE 3-9911.

HAVE YOU NOTICED that the vacation trips that seem the most carefree are actually the ones that have been most carefully planned? Take the coming Memorial Day week end. The people who will get the warmest welcomes at motels and restaurants, the people who will never have to stand in line, are those who have arranged things well ahead of time—by telephone. It's the inexpensive way of doing things well.

MOST OF US know the bride who sets up house with fifteen coffee pots—and half a dozen bathroom scales—all wedding gifts. But there are some things brides never have enough of. Extension phones in color are one of them. Give one of these and you'll be a friend of the family for life. For every time they use the handsome extension phone you gave them, they'll think of you gratefully for saving them time and steps. Call the Business Office, Michigan Bell Telephone Company, about this novel, useful gift that speaks for itself.

Booster Engine Plan Pushed by Army

CLEVELAND, Miss. (UPI) — Dr. Wernher von Braun, the Army's top missile expert, says the Army is pushing, with "urgency" its huge super-booster engine of 1,500,000 pounds thrust.

He said it is bigger thany anything yet demonstrated by the Russians.

Von Braun, director of development operations at the Army Ballistic Missile Agency, Huntsville, Ala., delivered the main address at the annual meeting of the Delta Council here.

He said that the missile project, nicknamed Saturn, is being pushed "with a sense of genuine urgency."

The big engine, consisting of a cluster of eight Jupiter-type engines, is scheduled to be test flown for the first time next year.

"This is bigger than our competition has yet demonstrated," Von Braun said.

"With that kind of basic unit, it will be possible to orbit such heavy payloads as a communications satellite to provide world-wide transmission for the strategic air command, the navy and the army."

It's remarkable how you can remember a fellow's name for years and years — if he owes you money . . . They tell of the correspondence school student who wrote in and asked his teacher if he could leave the room. —Earl Wilson.
