Local Watch Parties Planned for Summit League games

As Summit League Tournament action begins this weekend at John Q. Hammons Arena in Tulsa, Oklahoma, the No. 3 seeded OU men's basketball team and No. 1 seeded OU women's basketball team will find themselves vying for spots in the conference championship games scheduled for Tuesday, March 11.

The conference finals will be televised. If one or both teams reach the final championship round, alumni and friends are invited to cheer on their Golden Grizzlies at local watch parties at Rochester Mills in downtown Rochester. The women's championship game will begin at 3 p.m. EST (ESPNU), and the men's championship game will begin at 7 p.m. EST (ESPN)

The winner of the Summit League Championship earns an automatic NCAA Tournament berth. For complete conference schedules and tournament brackets, click on the links below.

For more information on the watch parties, please call the OUAA Event Hotline at 248-364-6140.
