Air Collision Kills Six GIs

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—A collision of two Army transport planes early today killed six soldiers.

Both planes were assigned to the 10th Air Transport Brigade of Ft. Benning, Ga., the Public Information Office at Ft. Jackson, S. C., announced.

Members of the brigade are among 32,000 on Air Assault II maneuvers in the Carolinas and Georgia.

The transport planes were flying in a formation of four aircraft when they collided.

★ ★ ★

The Army said it was not immediately learned how many were aboard the two planes, but that six bodies had been recovered.

NAMES NOT KNOWN

Names of the victims were not determined immediately, and the Army said they would not be announced until the next of kin had been notified.

The two planes normally carry a crew of three each. No other troops were believed to be aboard the planes.

Firemen said three bodies were in each of the air transport planes, which caught fire after they plunged into a field about 18 miles south of Augusta.

★ ★ ★

Army authorities sealed off the area and permitted no newsmen into the section. Some newsmen who reached the scene first were forbidden to leave the area.

One of the planes crashed in Richmond County and the other in Burke County, sheriff's officers reported.

The state patrol blocked Georgia 25. Small brush fires were started in the area.

Mrs. Ann Walker, who lives near the crash scene, said the planes collided shortly after taking off from a temporary air field.

"My aunt, Mrs. H. H. Mcdermot, saw them collide and came running in the house," Mrs. Walker said. "They were about a mile away, and when I went out they were already down and burning.

FLYING LOW

"They were low when they collided, and my aunt said the wings touched just before the collision. They caught fire and set the grass on fire.

"The temporary field, I understand, was set up for the maneuvers.

"Some say one of the crew members bailed out. They said they saw him parachute, but they have not been able to find him."

The planes were taking part in the 11th Air Assault (test) Division maneuvers in South Carolina and Georgia.

Dead on arrival at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital was Robert L. Gardiner, 37, of 5795 Southward.

Police said that Gardiner's northbound car skidded on the shoulder of the road, hit six reflector poles and then rolled over several times.

Gardiner was thrown from the car and was found on the ground 120 feet from the wreckage, according to police.

Bank Scandal Rocks Town

VALENTINE, Neb. (AP) — Business was at a standstill in Valentine, a town of about 3,000 that serves as a hub in a rich sand hills and cattle area, as its citizens shook off the shock of a bank scandal.

Richard Davenport, 45-year-old president of the Valentine State Bank, was held today on charges of embezzelment and making false entries.

State Banking Director Henry Ley said Davenport went to Lincoln, the state capital, and volunteered the information.

Ley quoted Davenport as saying he was "tired of living with it." Davenport used the money in land and cattle deals, the stock market and for gambling, Ley said.

3 CHARGES

Davenport, father of two, officially faced three charges.

The state specifically charged him with embezzlement of $100,000.

The federal government specifically charged him with making false entries involving a $90,000 note and involving a $150,000 note.

Ax Suspect Is Transferred

William Gravlin, 30, of Troy, accused of murdering his wife, daughter and five stepchildren, was transferred to Washtenaw County Jail yesterday for psychiatric observation by Ann Arbor area doctors.

Circuit Court Judge James S. Thorburn ruled Gravlin sane after considering testimony from a Pontiac psychiatrist, Dr. Abraham Tauber, two other doctors and an attorney at a sanity hearing Thursday.

Testimony of a Detroit psychiatrist, Dr. William Gordon, was disallowed because he had examined Gravlin only at the time of the murders, Judge Thorburn said.

It had previously been reported in error that Dr. Tauber's testimony was disallowed.

Romney-Barry 'Split' Tops State Politics

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. George Romney heads downriver today in search of Republican votes in predominantly Democratic Wayne County.

Romney was to visit so-called downriver suburbs of Detroit on a handshaking and shopping center tour.

Romney spent an hour on television last night — answering questions that ranged from his stand on a right to work law (he opposes it) to his seconding of Barry Goldwater's nomination as the Republican presidential candidate at the GOP National Convention.

Despite voice problems, he answered 23 questions in the hour-long, live telecast.

★ ★ ★

Aides said 3,007 questions were phoned in and that an estimated 3,000 more calls never got through because of jammed telephone lines.

On Goldwater, he said:

"In a contest, it is the sporting thing to make a decision unanimous and to be friendly."

His refusal to endorse Goldwater, he said, "was not personal; I've known him for eight years."

Romney, who made about 45 speeches in 56 hours in a 1,000-mile campaign blitz around the lower peninsula this week, had trouble with his throat yesterday.

DETROIT (AP) — Neil Staebler used President Johnson's Detroit visit to hit harder on the party unity theme and charged frantic effort for self-survival" as the Michigan gubernatorial campaign moved into its last three days today.

★ ★ ★

At the root of the Staebler unity strategy was Romney's refusal to endorse Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential nominee, and a Romney newspaper advertisement showing Democrats how to split their tickets for the governor.

The President lent his weight to Staebler in the tight campaign when he spoke to a noisy rally at Detroit's Metropolitan airport at midday yesterday.

"The whole United States is watching for you to elect a new governor in Michigan — Neil Staebler," the President declared.

Later yesterday Staebler learned of the advertisements paid for by Romney Volunteers and issued a scathing indictment of his opponent.

★ ★ ★

"We now have the incredible spectacle of the leader of the Republican party in Michigan trying to save himself from political oblivion by deserting his fellow candidates and clutching for the coattails of President Lyndon Johnson," said Staebler.

Barry Blasts McNamara at Phoenix Rally

Charges U.S. Short of Modern Weapons, Disarming in Peril

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater told a roaring rally in the desert sun today that "distorted minds" want to unilaterally disarm the United States in the face of the Communist challenge.

A home town crowd that packed 8,200-seat Phoenix Municipal Stadium cheered his charge that the Democrats have left U.S. forces short of modern weapons in South Viet Nam.

Waving Goldwater placards, the crowd roared again and again as the Arizona Senator tore into Defense Secretary Robert McNamara.

He said there were people after World War I and World War II who wanted the United States to "unilaterally disarm . . ."

★ ★ ★

"These same distorted minds are at work today, and unfortunately this time they sit in the seats of government. They sit too close to it for our good," Goldwater said.

ONE MAN

"And I refer to only one man, Mr. McNamara," he said.

" . . . This good bookkeeper should be removed from his duties of government and sent back to somebody's books."

Once again, Goldwater took on the pollsters.

"The latest polls," he said, "and I imagine very reluctantly, admit that we have been getting through to the American people . . . "

And he took what seemed to be a veiled attack at President Johnson on the case of resigned White House aide Walter W. Jenkins.

MORE CAREFUL

"Ninety-four per cent agree with me we ought to be a little more careful about who we pick to listen to the top secrets of this country," he said.

Goldwater said the defense budget is being foolishly cut.

"We're trying to cut corners where we shouldn't be cutting corners," he said.

Two Foes Meet Again in Top Waterford Race

Former Waterford Township Supervisor Elmer R. Johnson will face incumbent Supervisor James E. Seeterlin in the township's top election race Tuesday.

Johnson, a Republican, served six years in the highest township office before losing to Seeterlin, a Democrat, in April 1963.

Seeterlin, 38, of 4597 W. Walton is married and has seven children. He served six years as township clerk prior to his election as supervisor.

Married and the father of two sons, Johnson, 60, of 3220 Seebaldt has been in the real estate business since his unsuccessful bid for a fourth term as supervisor.

Vying for election as clerk are incumbent Elmer Fangboner, a Democrat, and Republican David S. Smith.

★ ★ ★

Married with four children, Fangboner, 56, lives at 3327 Meinrad. He assisttd in organizing the Waterford Fire Department and later served as its chief prior to his election as clerk in April 1963.

TWO CHILDREN

Smith, 42, of 3791 Aquarina is married and has two children. He presently serves as a township constable, a part-time elective post, and does free-lance engineering work.

Contesting for treasurer are Democrat incumbent Mrs. Dorothy Olson, 52, and Mrs. Lillian A. Weber, 43, a Republican.

Work Crew Is 'Haunted'

It had to happen on Halloween.

A construction crew laying water main in Waterford Township found a human skeleton this morning.

The Schwab Bros. Co. workers were trenching on Dixie just south of Williams Lake Road when the skull and bones were found on the state right of way.

The fact that Drayton Plains Cemetery is located next to the trenching operation provided a partial explanation.

Says Firing of Officers Was Illegal

DETROIT (AP)— Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley advised Gov. George Romney today that dismissal of three Michigan National Guard officers in connection with recently disclosed scandals was illegal.

★ ★ ★

In a telegram to the governor, Kelley said Romney had no authority to dismiss the three.

He said without a court-martial the governor was in error in dismissing Maj. Gen. Ronald D. McDonald, Brig. Gen. Carson Neifert, and Lt. Col. Versel Case Jr.

"Your action did not comply with . . . court-martial procedures nor was it undertaken under any removal authority," Kelley said. "Furthermore, there was no legal justification for your action solely on the ground that you are commander-in-chief of the armed forces."

★ ★ ★

Kelley said since Romney's action in dismissing the three officers last Oct. 8 had no basis in law, it was, therefore, "a nullity and should be so recognized by you."

URGES REINSTATEMENT

Kelley said the three officers should be reinstated immediately.

The attorney general said his opinion was based on a review of the situation by several key members of his staff who have prepared a complete legal analysis of the dismissal. In the telegram, Kelley said:

"My formal legal opinion will be available for you and your staff in your office on Monday morning.

★ ★ ★

McDonald has been state adjutant general, Neifert quartermaster general and Case executive officer to the quartermaster general before Romney ordered the three relieved of fulltime active duty.

Johnson Sees Breakthrough if He's Elected

Tells Delaware Crowd Goldwater Wants to Turn Back Clock

By FRANK CROMIER

DOVER, Del. (AP)—President Johnson predicted today his election would trigger an "American breakthrough" to an era of unprecedented abundance.

Campaigning in Delaware on his way to a major rally in New York's Madison Square Garden tonight, Johnson said that his opponent, GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater, wants to turn back to what he said Goldwater and his supporters "plainly believe were 'the good old days.'"

The President did not mention Goldwater by name in a text prepared for a Wilmington appearance, but he made it clear he was talking about the Republican candidate.

Alluding to the Depression that started in 1929, Johnson said:

"Those days were not good. I remember them. I grew up in the middle of them. So did many of you.

★ ★ ★

"In the 1920s, only four families in 10 had incomes sufficient to cover the basic necessities. Now we have that figure up to 8 out of 10 — and we are going to make it 10 out of 10."

'WAR ON WASTE'

Johnson began his day in Dover with what he called the declaration of a "war on waste."

He said he will fight against needless federal spending, economic waste caused by recessions, and the waste of war, which he called the "most awful waste of all."

In making two stops in Delaware, Johnson hoped to boost the election chances of Democratic Gov. Elbert N. Carvel who seeks the Senate seat of Republican John J. Williams. It was Williams who was instrumental in winning adoption of a resolution that led to the Senate investigation of the activities of Bobby Baker, once one of Johnson's close associates.

★ ★ ★

EVEN TORCHES

Mostly Fair Skies for Tricks 'n' Treats

Monday's prediction is cloudy with light showers and cooler temperatures.

School Officials Formulate First Antipoverty Program

Aimed at bringing the antipoverty war to Pontiac, a tentative program called SCAP has been drafted by school officials.

The first plan of a School Community Action Program (SCAP) has been unveiled for members of the board of education.

SCAP is one phase of a combined city-school-United Fund program to qualify for funds under the Federal Economic Opportunity Act of 1964.

As their share of the planning, school officials have an 11-point program that envisions a broad and comprehensive attack on:

- Low educational achievement
- School dropouts
- Unemployment
- Low work productivity
- Low morale and poor self-concepts
- Cultural deprivation

* * *

"... (we) will seek to break the cycle of poverty which for generations has created serious blocks to the happiness and productivity for millions of youth and adults from impoverished families," said Dr. Lee Haslinger, who directed the draft of SCAP.

PART OF PROGRAM

Haslinger said the school district's proposals are tentative and are a part of a total program by all agencies concerned.

All antipoverty programs in the county must receive the approval of the Oakland County Commission on Economic Opportunity. The commission will submit programs to Washington, D.C.

Pontiac schools propose preschool centers for youngsters, age 3-5, elementary school remedial and enrichment programs, music education, counseling services, and tuition free high school and summer school.

* * *

Also, the schools plan noonhour supervisory jobs for economically deprived adults, study training, employment and activity centers for handicapped young adults, work study for dropouts and potential dropouts and work experience programs for adults.

NO COST FIGURES

Haslinger, who said no cost figures have been calculated yet, described the first SCAP draft as the skeleton which will have meat put on its bones.

* * *

SCAP proposal will be implemented, he said, by extending existing programs and building from there.

So far as possible existing facilities will be used in line with the "community-school" concept, which is premised on facilities being close and easily available to the people.

Show Interest in China Plan

De Gaulle Is Warm to Summit Proposal

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle has expressed interest in Red China's proposal for a worlds summit conference to abolish nuclear weapons.

The French leader made his position known Friday in reply to a letter from Chinese Premier Chou En-lai who made the proposal to world leader two weeks ago in announcing that Red China had detonated its first atomic bomb.

"Let it be known that France is ready to participate in any serious negotiations that could be organized among competent and responsible powers to discuss the problems of disarmament on a constructive and practical basis," de Gaulle wrote.

The United States dismissed Chou's suggestion as a propaganda gimmick to divert attention from the nuclear test Oct. 16, which raised questions about new contamination of the atmosphere. President Johnson invited Red China to sign the nuclear test ban treaty outlawing nuclear testing in the atmosphere, but Peking rejected the idea.

REFUSED TO JOIN

France, like China, has refused to join the more than 100 nations that signed the limited treaty nor did it take part in he U.N. disarmament talks in Geneva. De Gaulle contends that the test ban creates an illusion of security because the nuclear powers could still plunge the world into war.

He argues that an independent nuclear deterrent is essential for France's defense and that his country will continue to develop its nuclear strength until genuine nuclear disarmament is attained.

Daring Jewel Theft Work of Amateurs?

NEW YORK (AP) — Thieves who stole the world's largest star sapphire, the "Star of India," and 21 other gems from the American Museum of Natural History may have been rank amateurs — helped along by lack of security measures.

* * *

Police searching the museum's J.P. Morgan Hall of Gems and Minerals for clues to the daring burglary found fingerprints all over the smashed jewel display cases and on a partly opened window that may have been the way in for the thieves.

Experts also said that while the thieves took gems valued at more than $300,000, their choices did not indicate expert knowledge.

* * *

They took unique and easily identifiable stones, difficult to cut, while many costly gems that would be more salable were ignored.

ECONOMY EFFORTS

Police said the museum's efforts at economy had made the job easier for the thieves.

The city-owned museum, with about one million square feet of space in 18 buildings, had only seven guards on duty during the night and museum officials have been pleading for more staff.

Detectives inspecting the display cases from which the gems were taken also found two burglar alarm systems, neither in operation.

WINS GRANT—Dr. Ellen Clemishaw Weaver, married to physicist and the mother of three, has been awarded a $39,000 AEC grant to continue photosynthesis research at Stanford University. Dr. Weaver, who says her family has top priority, thinks more college girls should combine science careers and homemaking.

Wife, Mother of 3 Is Honored Scientist

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — Ellen Weaver, 39, is a wife, mother and homemaker — also prize-winning research biologist.

The family knew of her talents, so they weren't too excited when she won a $39,000 grant from the Atomic Energy Commission to continue her Stanford University research into photosynthesis.

"Many more women can do what I'm doing," she said. Mrs. Weaver says the lack of women winning such grants is due to lack of encouragement.

Her husband, Harry, a physicist, said, "getting grants is something that's with you all the time. It's a relief when they come through."

ELUSIVE MATERIAL

Mrs. Weaver is seeking evidence about an elusive component called "P700," perhaps the primary energy converter in the photosynthetic process by which green plants and sunshine turn carbon dioxide and water into oxygen and plant tissue. This supports all life on earth.

Every day at 3 p.m. Mrs. Weaver leaves the Hansen Laboratories of Physics on the campus and heads home to meet children Patricia Lynn, 9, Mark, 8, and Tom, 5, when they return from school.

* * *

"I give them my time until they go to bed, then I go back to my studies," she said.

Mrs. Weaver credits her husband for much of her achievement. He encouraged her to continue school 20 years ago when they were first married while she was still a student at Western Reserve University in Cleveland. She took her masters' degree in biological science from Stanford and her Ph.D in genetics from the University of California.

MISSES SPORTS

She has given up civic activities and has little time for the skiing and tennis she enjoys.

"I made up my mind some time ago to do what I'm doing, and I'm lucky to be happy with my work and has a well-adjusted family," she said.

McClure, Scott Gagel of 94 Ivy and Stan Smart of 181 Westchester, Birmingham, all gave brief speeches about Goldwater during the display.

Builders Sign; Strike Averted

DETROIT (UPI) — Representatives of the carpenters' unions of Southeastern Michigan today reached a contract agreement with state contractors.

* * *

L.M. "Boots" Weir, secretary-treasurer of the Carpenters' District Council of Southeastern Michigan, said the council and four employer organizations have signed a contract agreement which averted a strike set for 8 a. m. Monday.

Agreement was reached following an all-night session with state mediators. It came after agreement on a clause that had been the center of the dispute.

* * *

The signing averted a walkout of 11,000 carpenters in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, St. Clair and Monroe counties.

Man Charged in Two-Death Car Accident

A Utica man in critical condition with injuries suffered in a Thursday night auto accident in which two persons were killed has been charged with manslaughter.

The manslaughter warrant was issued yesterday by the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office for Cameron J. Moore, 33, of 11360 Deno.

A witness told police that Moore's car ran a stop sign at Long Lake Road and Crooks in Troy and struck a car driven by Kerry D. Parke, 19, of 508 Gardner.

Parke was dead on arrival at St. Joseph Hospital. His companion, Linda Nesbitt, 18, of 1420 Stephen died shortly after being admitted to the hospital.

Moore, who suffered multiple external and internal injuries in the accident, has been listed as critical since he arrived at the hospital.

Ohio Crash Kills Detroit Woman, 29

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (UPI) — Mrs. Julia Ann Bedford, 29, Detroit, was killed Friday night when her car hit the rear of a slow moving truck on U.S. 25 near here.

The truck was reportedly slowing down to be weighed at the Portage Highway Patrol scales.

Its driver, David Apple, 24, Bowling Green, was not injured.

Waterford to Air Tax Opposition

Methods of opposing the income tax on non-residents recently approved by the Pontiac City Commission will be discussed Monday night by the Waterford Township Board.

The board took formal action opposing the tax levy two weeks ago.

In other business Monday, the board will act on the proposed 20-lot Candlestick subdivision plat submitted for final approval.

Also slated for board attention is the proposed transfer of a beer and wine licensed business at 6301 Williams Lake from Oval B. and Jessie Whitaker to William Keyes and Thomas Moore.

* * *

First notice of a request for a new beer and wine license at Elizabeth Lake Pharmacy, 3801 Elizabeth Lake, will be read. The store presently has a package liquor license.

A hearing on a proposed streetlight special assessment district for Fort and Woodlow streets will be held in conjunction with the meeting.

Fire Damages Shop Building

Fire at 9:45 p.m. yesterday caused an undetermined amount of damage to the hobby shop building at Camp Pontiac State Prison Farm, 8085 White Lake, White Lake Township.

Firemen said the interior of the single-story frame building was damaged extensively.

Cause of the fire has not been determined.

State Poll Shows LBJ, Romney Leading

DETROIT (AP) — President Johnson leads his Republican opponent, Sen. Barry Goldwater, by a 3-to-1 margin and Gov. George Romney holds an edge in the gubernatorial contest, according to a Detroit News poll of Michigan voters released Friday.

Johnson was favored by 68 per cent while Goldwater was the choice of 23 per cent of the voters participating in the poll, which was conducted the week of Oct. 4. Eight per cent were undecided and 1 per cent said they preferred neither presidential candidate.

* * *

The poll was taken by secret ballot of a geographical cross-section of voters from all economic, social and ethnic groups in the state.

In the governor race, Romney gained 48 per cent of the vote and his Democratic opponent, Rep. Neil Staebler, 44 per cent, with 1 per cent favoring the Rev. Albert Cleage, the nominee of the all-Negro Freedom Now party. Seven per cent were undecided.

2-TO-1 LEAD

Democratic Sen. Philip Hart held a lead of better than 2-to-1 over his GOP rival, Mrs. Elly Peterson.

It was Hart 64 per cent, Mrs. Peterson 28 per cent, Ernest Smith, Freedom Now party candidate, 1 per cent. Seven per cent were undecided or not voting.

* * *

The News poll also indicated the so-called Massachusetts ballot has 37 per cent of the voters opposed to it and 33 per cent in favor. Thirty per cent either did not understand the referendum or were undecided on how they will vote.

The Massachusetts ballot would make it impossible to vote a straight party ticket by pulling 1 lever on a voting machine or making only 1 mark on a paper ballot.

Democrats polled overwhelming majorities in the voting for secretary of state and attorney general.

Incumbent Secretary of State James Hare received 65 per cent of the votes, while Republican Allison Green got 26 per cent. Loy Cohen, the Freedom Now candidate, polled less than 1 per cent. Nine per cent were undecided or not voting.

Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley got 63 per cent of the vote. His GOP challenger, Meyer Warshawsky, took 25 per cent. Al Bibb, the Freedom Now nominee, received less than 1 per cent, while 12 per cent were undecided or not voting.

In the presidential and gubernatorial races, the percentages of both Johnson and Romney slipped in comparison with a poll taken last July.

74 PER CENT

At that time, Johnson was favored over Goldwater by a margin of 74 per cent to 21 per cent, with 5 per cent of the voters undecided. Thus Johnson slipped 6 percentage points and Goldwater gained 2 during the intervening three months. There also was a 4 per cent gain in the undecideds or "neither" vote.

The July poll was completed before the national party conventions when it was speculative as to whom the Republican nominee might be.

In July, Romney's share of the vote was 50 per cent and Staebler's 45 per cent. Since then, Romney has slipped 2 percentage points and Staebler 1 per cent, while the undecideds have climbed 2 per cent.

Down in the Mouth? Recall Luck of Jonah

Were it not that developing emergencies, be they of local or global extent, seem to awaken forces leading to their alleviation, you could get pretty low in mind about the indicated state of the world before the end of the century.

With a third of its 3-billion population now existing barely above a starvation level and overpopulation in some areas a mounting menace, the projected doubling of the world's inhabitants during the next few decades would seem to portend sustenance and habitable-space problems for which answers are not presently at hand.

Compounding the exigency would be the awesome necessity of providing employment for a sufficient number of workers to maintain a supporting economy as science through automation continuously lessens manpower use.

But as sobering as is this sociological look into the future, the threat from forces of annihilation in irresponsible hands is even greater.

With five countries now possessing the nuclear bomb, Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara recently pointed out the grim potential for destruction as more and more nations develop nuclear capacity.

The secretary predicted that because of advances in nuclear technology, the cost of nuclear weapons will fall drastically. "As it falls and as the technology becomes simpler . . . you can imagine the danger the world would face if tens of nations possess such weapons 10 or 20 years from now," he said.

Well, all this could give you a chronic case of the heebie jeebies were it not for one thing — a bit philosophical in nature. Mankind inevitably senses only phenomena, good or bad, that appears imminent. It is beyond human capacity to envision the reactive and reciprocal forces that eventually evolve and have remedial effect.

So it is that we have faith, despite ominous portents to the contrary, that our world is slowly progressing toward a state of enhanced well-being for its people, promising benefits beyond dreams for generations to follow.

Electors Vote by Ear, Shown By Soundings

Social researchers at the University of Michigan's Survey Center—aiming deeper than the "fever chart" polls of an election year—have for 16 years probed John Q. Voter's prejudices and frustrations, his hopes and satisfactions in thousands of kitchens and living-room interviews.

The findings throw interesting, if not wholly shining, light on the typical voter.

★ ★ ★

For him, it seems, politics stays on the fringe of his personal concerns — and his November vote will be more intuitive than reasoned.

He ignores much of the political uproar and hoopla, and makes his decisions on the basis of his own political tendency, his sense of how the Nation is going, how his own personal affairs are going.

Some 25 per cent of the voting population have no political awareness. When they decide how to vote, they just do so in the late days of the campaign — sometimes just hours before they go to the polls.

★ ★ ★

"By and large," says the head of the Survey Research Center, "the thing that people do react to is some sense that things are not going well — that the economy is unsound, or that foreign events are going badly, or that there is corruption or dishonesty in government."

It's enough to make a hard-campaigning, ripsnorting, demagogic politician tear his hair in anguish.

2 Basic Issues in 'Sticky' Race

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

MARLOW

WASHINGTON — Before the presidential campaign, Dean Burch, chairman of the Republican National Committee, said Sen. Barry Goldwater would not become involved in 40 to 50 issues but on the "vital ones" because "too many issues and the campaign can come unglued."

It's unglued now. It has been all over the lot and no newspaper reader could keep up with the statements of the candidates unless he kept a notebook, although from the start until now there were just two basic issues and they have remained valid and vivid all the way through.

Johnson is for big government with a broad, and broadening, responsibility for the general welfare; Goldwater is for less government, less government help, more reliance by the individual on himself.

The second issue is inextricably tied up with the first and voters can't separate them.

★ ★ ★

Which of the candidates, Johnson or Goldwater, can better be trusted with running the government and all that means in domestic problems, foreign dilemmas, and no doubt some crisis.

OTHER ISSUES

On top of them Goldwater added these as issues: Bobby Baker, Billie Sol Estes, South Viet Nam, "waning U.S. prestige around the world," the nation's whole foreign policy, morality in government, peace, corruption in government, the choice between "socialism and individual freedom."

But there were more: control of nuclear weapons, handling NATO, the United Nations, Cuba, Castro, dealings with communism, spending, space development, plane development, American defenses, Red China, Americans for Democratic action, civil rights, agriculture.

At first Democrats made their big pitch on Goldwater's "extremism." This was, in effect, a personal attack on him and it has remained a consistent Democratic tactic which got under his skin. But Goldwater has consistently made personal attacks on Johnson.

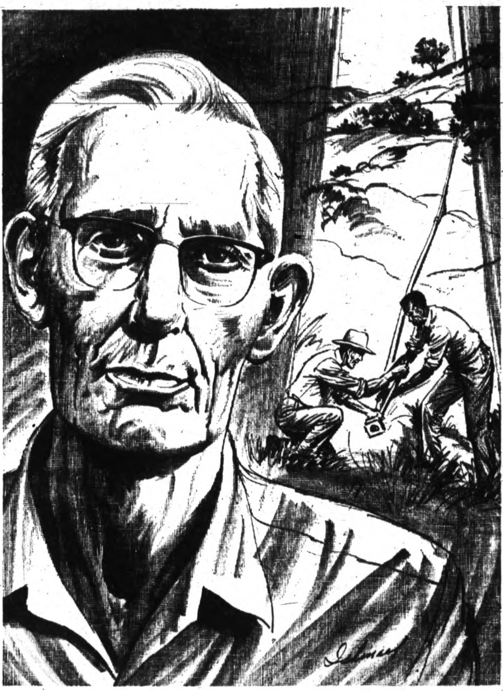
The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL



At an age when most men think of retirement, Dewey Landru left a $200 a week job and went into the mission fields with his wife to serve as a carpenter. They volunteered their services without salary for a period of two years under the World Brotherhood Exchange. From his modest savings Landru paid for transportation to the mission at Manantantely in South Madagascar.

Besides being a witness to Christian living through work, Landru found other ways to serve. The drinking water was unsanitary and had to be boiled, but he located a spring of pure water on a hill near the mission. He calculated how much it would cost to pipe the water to the community, and wrote home to friends at the Trinity Church in Santa Barbara, Calif. They raised the $2,000 needed for the project. Dewey Landru and his native helpers dammed the spring and put in the pipe line for the benefit of all, thus following the words of Jesus who said, "For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward."

Days of All Faiths:

Known and Unknown Saints Day

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

The reason for All Saints Day is something like the reason for having a Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. A lot of saints have lived and died "known but to God." Christians remember all saints, but it is only natural that the emphasis is on the unknown ones. The others all have their own days and their own special honors. On All Saints Day the Church thinks mainly of those who do not have days of their own.

Plainly, then, this ought to be the most important saint's day in the whole Christian year, for it takes in every saint there ever was, whether there is any record of him or not.

It is pretty generally thought that secular life does not produce many saints. The world of business, politics, etc., is just too tough. So we think most saints are religious "professionals" — clergy, nuns, monks, and the like. And the books of saints make it appear that this is true.

★ ★ ★

But All Saints Day is an assertion that it is not true at all. There are plenty of saints from all occupations and states of life—rich men, poor men, beggarmen, and yes, even thieves. We just don't know about them. They are not in the public eye the way the clergy are. But it is a basic fact of Christianity that one does not have to withdraw from the world to be holy. Indeed we are of more use to God if we stay in the world and lead holy lives. This is why the layman is so important.

MARTYRS WERE THE FIRST SAINTS

In the early days of Christianity anyone who was martyred was immediately acclaimed a saint, at least locally. But it did not occur to anyone that a person might have attained such a state of holiness without having been put to death for his faith. By 373 they had got around to thinking that all the saints ought to be honored on one day, but what they really meant was clearly stated: "all martyrs of the earth."

By the year 800 the occasion was enlarged to include many who were not martyrs. It was called All Saints Day and set for November 1, to be preceded by a three-day fast. The fast is no longer required.

ALL SOULS DAY

All Souls Day honors all the faithful departed except saints.

The Roman Catholic church would say we offer special prayers for those we love who are in Purgatory. There are other churches that observe All Souls Day although they do not use the word Purgatory and do not state their doctrines about the dead with quite so much precision. They do believe, however, that between death and entrance into the blinding presence of God an interim time of cleansing is surely necessary. They pray for their dead who have not yet attained the full vision of God.

Various religious orders kept All Souls Day according to their own forms from as early as the 9th Century, but the feast was not made official by the Pope until 1915.

The Church of England does not officially join in the day's observance, although many individual Anglican parishes will do so. But in the British calendar the same sort of commemoration occurs at the end of the All Saints Octave, under the name of "Saints, Doctors, and Martyrs of the Church of England."

No British Change Seen in Churchill Unit Ties

CONSIDINE

NEW YORK—Britain's Labor government is taking a hard look at such prestige ventures of the bygone Tory government as the costly participation with France in the creation of the Concorde, the first supersonic airliner.

★ ★ ★

But all's well in other fields, including cooperation with the U.S. Churchill Foundation, of which Carl Gilbert, chairman of Gillette, is president.

The nonprofit foundation was formed in 1959 to offer scholarships to selected U.S. students of science for advance studies at Churchill College, Cambridge University. Ten Americans are now in attendance there, one of whom recently wrote:

"The principal advantages (here) are that the American student experiences a different system of education which stresses individual initiative quite strongly, meets many students from all lands and trades ideas with them, and perhaps most importantly is in a position to see and discuss his own country from an external viewpoint."

He spoke, too, of the depth and breadth of research the college offers, and important European scientific meetings he is permitted to attend.

ONE OF FEW

Sir Winston, who will be 90 on Nov. 30, is one of the few men to have a major college named after him during his lifetime.

The last was Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah, in 1875.

George Washington's gift of $50,000 to Augusta Academy of Lexington, Va., induced its officials to rename the place Washington Academy in 1798. Robert E. Lee became its president after the Civil War and in 1872, a year after his death, it was renamed Washington and Lee.

★ ★ ★

Lafayette made the college grade, so to speak, in 1826 at Easton, Pa., eight years before he died. He and Churchill, by the way, are the only two men ever named honorary citizens of the U.S.

Voice of the People:

Letter From Goldwater Leads Election Remarks

I would like to express my sincere appreciation for your endorsement of my candidacy for the President of the United States. I am deeply grateful that your fine newspaper has chosen to support Bill Miller and myself for the two highest offices in the land.

★ ★ ★

Your newspaper, standing as it does for firm and fixed principles, is doing an outstanding job and I wish to commend everyone associated with it.

★ ★ ★

This campaign is more than an engagement between two political parties or two individuals. It is an historic confrontation between two political philosophies — the conservative philosophy of limited government and more freedom for the individual, and the liberal philosophy of big government and more regulation of the individual. This is the central issue in this campaign. And this is the choice which the Republican Party offers all Americans.

★ ★ ★

I pledge to continue to do all I can in behalf of the ideals your newspaper has espoused so well, and thus to merit your support.

BARRY GOLDWATER
WASHINGTON, D.C.

I wonder how many of the LBJ followers have taken time to read up on his life and know how he has coerced and incited his way to where he is. He promises to help the poor, the elderly and the working man only to get their vote. He is playing up to the unions only to get their vote.

He wants power and money and will go to any length to get it.

VISITOR FROM CALIFORNIA

The biggest evil force in the world today is communism, coupled with its sister socialism. If we love good we cannot tolerate this terrible evil that defies the very existence of God or close our eyes to the corruption and immorality in our nation's leaders. We cannot serve two masters.

MRS. B. COLE
CLARKSTON

It would be well to remember that Abraham Lincoln had little education.

How does being a member of the Michigan State Fair commission, on Senator Blair Moody's staff, Deputy Secretary of State, Democratic Deputy State Chairman, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, active in Boy Scouts, United Fund, P.T.A., church, Masons, Eagles and Elks compare to the three years Richard Kuhn spent working in Washington as a page boy?

MRS. CHARLES NASSTROM
208 E. IROQUOIS

This is an appeal for people to repudiate the "rather Red than Dead," philosophy of the current liberal-left administration. Herbert Philbrick, nine years a Communist for the F.B.I., knows great frustrations trying to warn the American people that "it can happen here."

★ ★ ★

Barry Goldwater can halt this turn to communism through socialism.

ROSS EASTTY
UNION LAKE

The tendency under the Democrats has been to raise our national debt by billions of dollars regardless of the inflationary effect on our money, and to inflict more government controls, which lead toward communism.

★ ★ ★

Did the unions, which support the Democrats, even consider what would happen to their privilege of striking and bargaining if our country keeps on drifting toward communism?

★ ★ ★

FOR THE GOOD OF OUR COUNTRY

The voters of the 19th district have an excellent candidate in Richard D. Kuhn.

★ ★ ★

Kuhn has an excellent background in governmental experience. He started out as a page, working three years in the House of Representatives. He has a degree in political science, also a law degree and is now a practicing attorney. He also has a small business and knows something about the problems of the small businessman. Kuhn helped write the new Michigan Constitution, as a Con-Con delegate. At the same time, his opponent and his opponent's party did everything possible to defeat the new constitution.

★ ★ ★

Kuhn's opponent has been asked more than once if he is now or has he ever been a member of the left-wing ADA. Neither has he told us whether or not he is still on the payroll of the union as an organizer.

I dare you to publish this letter. It may hurt your paper sales. When a newspaper is so biased as to endorse one person for political position instead of reporting the news for its people to decide for themselves, I personally don't want it.

★ ★ ★

As for those people who had their names in the paper saying they would vote for Goldwater, I personally wouldn't brag about it.

★ ★ ★

Ten to one, this letter never gets in the Voice of the People because it isn't for Goldwater.

MRS. L. E. LeVEQUE

In selecting the right candidate for office, a primary consideration should be the qualifications.

In Richard Kuhn we have a man deeply interested in good government. He will fight for what he believes and will not allow political expediency to lead him.

LBJ is promising to spend more of our money through Federal aid on what he thinks you need. Barry Goldwater promises to let you spend more of your money on what you think you need by reducing Federal aid.

LBJ seems to stress peace more than freedom in his political speeches whereas Goldwater has put the accent on freedom.

I'm tired of people saying that Barry Goldwater is against Social Security. What do they expect to gain by spreading these lies? Goldwater is for a stronger Social Security and against compulsory Social Security. Why should anyone be compelled to take it if he doesn't want it?

A READER OF THE PRESS

The campaign has two distinct programs, both outlined in the Bible! "Man shall work by the sweat of his brow," and where Christ was tempted by Satan and told that He could have the whole world if He would adore the giver.

* * *

The last clearly outlines the socialistic giveaway programs which our present group of leaders are presenting.

FOR GOD'S PROGRAM

The paper states that 40 per cent of the eligible voters do not vote. Is it because there isn't anything on the ballot that they want? They are no different than the rest of us. There isn't anything there that we want either, but we vote because we think we are better Americans if we do.

G. W. P.

If Madalyn Murray, the atheist, had a constitutional right concerning prayer and Bible reading in the school, then where can I find a lawyer who will fight that I have a constitutional right not to have my children taught the theory of evolution, which undermines my freedom of religion.

Petitions to restore this right have been brought to the attention of President Johnson, only to be ignored. Barry Goldwater is for amending this right. This may be our last chance to save our children from Godless tyranny.

ALARMED

If President Johnson is elected and he has another heart attack, Hubert Humphrey could become president. This radical man helped organize the leftist ADA. He said we should turn our nuclear stockpile over to the U.N., which is dominated by Communist countries. Can we risk such a possibility?

* * *

Also remember that Walter Reuther helped to frame the Democratic platform. Who knows what part he has been promised in our government?

INDEPENDENT VOTER

We are spending millions of dollars for the defense of our material interests. What are we doing for the moral aspects of this nation?

* * *

What can we tell our children today? How do we explain right from wrong when we put people of low morals in positions of high esteem?

* * *

We are the government. Can we expect more of our children than we do of ourselves?

MRS. KENNETH B. NICHOLS
FRANKLIN

I got a "Veterans for Johnson and Humphrey" sticker through the mail without asking for it.

I would like to ask Humphrey, a founder of the ADA, the following: Why does the ADA demand repeal of the Smith Act, the Internal Security Act, and the Communist Control Act, also the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities and the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee?

* * *

VETERAN

Workers have had more dollars in their pay since the income tax cut law was passed. But they will find, when they make up their income tax report, that instead of receiving a rebate, they will be sending a hundred dollars or so to Uncle Sam.

* * *

Medicare (a must with President Johnson) would cost me nothing. I am a retired worker, but I do not want it through Social Security, unless every worker who pays in toward it is eligible for the benefits after his retirement. If it is only a welfare dole, it should not be tied to Social Security.

* * *

There has also been a great advance in crime recently in the U.S. I am for a change in leadership.

A PONTIAC OBSERVER

Governor Romney in his State message came out for the removal of unfit public officials. The Governor has not followed through.

John P. Smeekens, Chairman of the Senate Labor Committee said, "With a Republican Governor in the front office, the Republican legislature would act on Democratic proposals that they have previously stymied or killed."

Allison Green, then Speaker of the House and now running for Secretary of State, told our governor to mind his own business over the question of removal of Rollo Conlin from the chairmanship of the House Taxation.

* * *

The Governor's impudence over question of public cost in setting up an income tax collection system on television caused the station to cut the interview off. Walter Kronkite, the newscaster, remarked, "Boy is that guy hotheaded." Fifty states heard that remark. I wonder if the Governor still thinks he is helping Michigan's image and prestige?

CONCERNED

If it wasn't so serious, some of the viewpoints would be very amusing. We must take God as our guide and not our small petty thinking as we are at a crucial period in our beloved country.

MRS. LeROY SHAFER
81 S. PADDOCK

If you really believe one's race doesn't make him less an individual American, why don't you paint yourself black and discover what you will become.

* * *

You won't last a week. Underprivileged is only a mild word to use in reference to the everyday mental and physical abuse every Negro must undergo.

* * *

Goldwater is quick to point out the riot involving Negroes but he is strangely quiet about the bombing death of four Negro girls, the country's bombings of Negro homes, the beatings and constant harassment that walks with every Negro in Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana.

C. SINUEL
433 N. E. BOULEVARD

I would urge all Waterford Township voters to know all you can about your candidates before you go to the polls on Tuesday. It is a privilege to vote but a duty to know for whom your ballot is cast.

Recently there appeared a large joint ad urging the reelection of some of the present township officials and the election of a new puppet for the clan. Some of these people are not so interested in the progress they advertise as in the power.

* * *

The new member they hope to have join their group is a teacher and a former missionary. But does this qualify him as a Trustee? How does he get along with his neighbors and how much is he respected in his neighborhood? What has he done for progress in his own area thus far? The answers are "he doesn't," "he isn't," and "nothing."

* * *

Please, voters, know the candidates' qualifications before handing them the reins to your future.

H. SMITH
WATERFORD TOWNSHIP

An ad for the Republican party of Pontiac Township said, "Let's all pull together and continue to do something for Pontiac Township." I didn't know they even started.

* * *

On Snellbrook road we've had a few problems and nothing has been done about them. As far as an open door policy, you may get a chance to discuss your problem, then nothing is done about it.

* * *

Pontiac Township should clean house like the city and maybe something will be done. Vote for a change!

MRS. FRANK WILLIAMS
2148 SNELLBROOK

As a former Republican legislator, I wish to concur with the statement of Neil Staebler that political programs are effectuated by political parties operating as teams.

* * *

In view of the fact that it is now accepted without rebuttal that the Democrats, as the established majority party in Michigan, will be in control of the state legislature come January 1, it logically follows that this legislative majority should have the benefit of leadership directed by its own proven leader. Hence, Neil Staebler should be elected Governor.

THEODORE F. HUGHES
ROYAL OAK

Many years ago our forefathers left England because they were being taxed out of their livelihood. What did they do? They left their country and came to the new world. But even then they were taxed by the king until they had had enough. The Boston Tea Party ensued and finally the war for independence.

* * *

But we cannot do this. We can, however, do two things. We can boycott the cities that impose such taxes improperly, and can and should see to it that the city council members that impose such taxes on the people are never again elected to public office.

D. M. DORSICK
3532 GRAFTON

In your editorial you endorsed Richard Kuhn for Congress in the 19th and Romney for Governor. You made mention of the good service rendered by the Democratic nominee, State Auditor General Billie Farnum but because of Kuhn's education you feel he is the better choice.

* * *

May I remind you that the present Governor, whom you have endorsed, is not a college graduate.

THEODORE ROTTARR
31 ELLWOOD

What has become of this country — gangs running wild, murders and dope addicts.

If only you will think of what is happening to this country you will want a change.

* * *

I have voted Democrat before but not this time. Please help us keep our freedom.

GO-GOLDWATER

As teachers in the Waterford Township Schools and members of the Waterford Education Association, we would like the voters of our township to know that the endorsement of several candidates in the present campaign is not the voice of the members. Although their campaign ads state "endorsed and paid for by the W. E. A.," this was done without the knowledge of the great majority of the members.

* * *

The executive board presented their recommendation to the representative council who had no previous knowledge of this. They had no opportunity to discuss the move with the teachers in their individual buildings — no time to poll the members — no chance to get the opinions of the people who are the Waterford Education Association.

* * *

We agree with the board that our organization has an obligation to fulfill in government, but we feel this should be on a non-partisan basis rather than an endorsement, unless there is a consensus. We are also

TEACHERS AND W. E. A. MEMBERS

Why were we far in debt when Democrats held the governorship? When Democrats tried to get a bill passed to decrease the debt, Republicans voted "no." When Romney tries to pass the same bill, Republicans vote "yes."

* * *

We don't need a governor who can't be more realistic.

A CONCERNED CITIZEN

It's time Mr. and Mrs. Main Street took stock of the news of the day and tried to evaluate what is good for America, regardless of party. An issue that has frightened people is the tactics used by Humphrey, an active member of the ADA.

* * *

What Americans need is a patriot party and J. Edgar Hoover as the top man. He knows the Communist story from the beginning. In the meantime, let's trust Mr. Goldwater. He has the intestinal fortitude to call a spade a spade.

VOTE RIGHT

Voters of this new 19th Congressional District should have some idea who they are voting for Tuesday.

The Republicans are offering Richard D. Kuhn, a successful lawyer and businessman. He is young, energetic and honest; not afraid to tell the voters where he stands.

* * *

Kuhn's opponent comes to the voters telling them he is in favor of foreign aid (our tax dollars) to Communist countries; he wants more Federal aid for anything and everything — you name it and this former AFL-CIO-UAW organizer says he's for it.

MAXWELL E. TAYLOR
LIVONIA

Goldwater voted against the Civil Rights bill because he declared a clause in the public accommodations part as unconstitutional. A Federal court later backed him up. Goldwater doesn't want to discontinue Social Security, he just wants to revise it.

* * *

It's time we initiated a get-tough policy against Communist aggression. I believe Barry Goldwater is the only candidate that can fill the bill.

ANTI-COMMUNIST

Your headline "Romney Hits Labor" was inept. He "hit" at Reuther, but Reuther is not labor in toto. Romney hopes to get a lot of votes from labor—those who think for themselves. Your head writers ought to apologize.

A History of Cats and Their Halloween Howl

Great ghosts! In the past, cats were widely associated with witchcraft but these modern cats seem terrified by this friendly ghost who apparently just swirled in to say: "Happy Halloween."

Small creatures that move swiftly and in silence and whose eyes glow in the dark would surely be made cats paws for those spreading superstitions about witchcraft.

As a matter of fact, in olden days cats were often accused of being witches in another form. Sometimes persons believed to be witches were burned at the stake with their cats.

After civilization progressed, the only cats which remain 'tinged' with evil are the black ones which inevitably perch on witches' brooms and cross unfortunates' paths.

Stories about cats no longer involve witches but seem to concentrate on little old ladies who keep 20 of them and then leave a small fortune to them.

COMING UP

Today, cats are coming up in the world — some are even advancing onto the pedestals on which they were regarded by the ancient Egyptians. There are approximately 26 million cats in the United States — almost one million more than the estimated number of dogs.

Close to becoming "man's best friend," most cats — 70 per cent — are owned by families with children.

* * *

There are seven shorthaired breeds and one longhaired, called Longhairs. The others are: Domestic Shorthair, Siamese, Burmese, Abyssianan, Russian Blue, Manx and Rex.

Pampered or persecuted most cats make good pets and are usually bewitching for their owners.

And Halloween is their night to howl.

Going Hints of Goings-On Between Boss, Secretary

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Four years ago my husband hired a pretty young secretary (married).

ABBY

I never paid much attention to her, although he did take her to dinner occasionally when he'd ask her to work late.

I know they lunched together, too, but I suppose many such luncheons are for the purpose of discussing business.

Three weeks ago my husband received word that he was being tansferred out of town.

Now he tells me that this secretary is getting a divorce (no children) and is going with him!

Abby, do you believe in a woman's intuition? He never mentioned that this woman was unhappy in her marriage. Why suddenly this?

I have the feeling that something is going on. Is it my place to ask my husband if he has something to tell me?

If he has, why should I make it easier for him?

WOMAN'S INTUITION

* * *

DEAR INTUITION: Yes, ask him if he has something to tell you, and don't worry about whether you are making it "too easy" for him.

It will be easier for you than waiting and wondering. The sooner you find out, the better.

DEAR ABBY: I used to have beautiful natural blonde hair that hung down to my shoulders.

My husband heard a man compliment me on my hair, and all I said to him was "Thank you," but when we got home my husband got mad and took a scissors and cut all my hair off one-quarter of an inch from my scalp.

I don't think I can ever forgive him for this act. He has always been a very jealous man with a terrible temper, and I have seen him smash mirrors and furniture, but he never touched me before this.

My hairdresser said it will take a year to grow 3 inches of hair and, in the meantime I either have to get a wig or wear turbans all the time.

What do you think a fitting punishment for a husband like mine should be?

NO HAIR

DEAR NO HAIR: Punishment? I would insist that he be subjected to a mental examination. Next time he might not stop at the scalp.

Better Lansing Than Troy?

When Louis Yanich was on the Troy City commission a few years ago, there weren't too many things that he and millionaire industrialist James M. Robbins saw eye to eye on.

They do apparently agree on one thing right now, however. According to the campaign expense voucher filed with the Oakland County clerk-register's office by the campaign committee for James F. Carey for the Sept. 1 primary, both Yanich and Robbins think Carey should be a state representative.

Yanich contributed $20 to Carey's successful campaign for the Republican nomination in the 63rd district and Robbins kicked in $25, the expense statement says.

What makes these facts all the more interesting is that Yanich has been a key member of the faction in Troy politics that was opposed to Carey when he was a Troy city commissioner and made Carey an ex-commissioner in last April's election.

Does Yanich believe Carey is better suited to government at the state level?

To residents of Avon, Orion and Pontiac Townships:

This is a reproduction from page 1 of the Sept. 23, 1964 "Tri-City Messenger" (Troy) for those who heard my opponent, Mr. Carey, state that someone is starting "vicious rumors" about his financial supporters.

Sincerely yours,
Robert J. Slingerlend

MRS. E. J. TOWLE

Parents of the couple are the James H. Stevensons of West Tennyson Avenue and the Eugene C. Towles of South Winding Road.

Alencon lace motifs in a rose design highlighted the bride's chapel-length gown and brief jacket of white peau satin.

SATIN AND LACE

A petal headpiece of satin and lace secured her illusion veil and white carnations and ivy comprised her bouquet.

With Cheryl Soule, maid of honor, were bridesmaids Mrs. James Lee, Susan Stevenson and Valerie Towle.

* * *

Dennis Bayma performed the duties of best man. Guests were seated by James and Robert Stevenson along with Gerald Smith of Warren.

A reception in the First Federal Savings of Oakland club rooms followed the ceremony performed by Rev. Richard Thomas.

Two Work Beyond Home

Women Run for Office

By MIRIAM NEAL

The two women running for the more prominent offices in the county are Lucille D. Marshall and Carolyn Murphy. Mrs. Marshall is running for county treasurer and Mrs. Murphy for state representative from the 62nd district.

One a Republican and one a Democrat, both are running for the first time and for many of the same reasons.

* * *

Both feel that a woman's responsibility goes beyond the home and both feel there should be more communicaton between the office they seek and their constituencies.

Mrs. Murphy of West Iroquois Road is a Republican. Her husband, Daniel, currently clerk of the county board of auditors, has been active in politics for many years. She has always been active on his behalf.

* * *

She chose the office of representative this year because no one else came forward.

As a Republican party worker she "became aware that no one was attempting to represent Pontiac in the state legislature as a Republican." She felt that "no party should win by default" so she offered herself as a candidate.

HEAVY ODDS

Running against Arthur Law who is seeking his fourth term, she recognizes there are "heavy percentages on the other side." But as of Friday she said: "If I could talk to everyone in the city I might win."

Mrs. Marshall of North Sanford Street is a Democrat who has been 'in' politics since she was seven years old. All the male members of her family were active politically during her youth and she "sort of grew into it."

* * *

"Let-Joe-Do-It apathy stirs me into action." She is particularly concerned with women's "it's-daddy's-job" attitude.

* * *

Feeling a need for education in favor of women's participation in government, she "got (her) feet wet" so she would be practicing her own doctrine.

* * *

She chose the office of treasurer because she felt "too many people know very little about it."

* * *

She chose to run this year because she felt that her opponent, Charles A. Sparks, had had 32 years to initiate a program for the excess county monies and had not yet done so.

* * *

Both women feel their husbands and children are behind them 100 per cent and both feel as Mrs. Murphy said: "A woman's world is housekeeping and cooking and sewing, but there is so much more."

Can Bring Along Own Molasses

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: Recently, my sister, who is a widow, and I and one of my granddaughters took a motor trip.

As I knew we would be having most of our meals in restaurants, I took along a small jar of molasses syrup (which is exceptionally good and not the thin, watery kind served in most restaurants), with me to put on my pancakes at breakfast.

When I set it out on the table one morning, my sister and granddaughter were horrified.

They said it was a terrible thing to do and belittling to the restaurant. Will you please tell me if there was anything wrong in what I did?

* * *

A: I see nothing whatever wrong in your having taken along a small jar of your exceptionally good molasses to put on your pancakes, and in all probability no one even noticed it.

If they did, they most likely thought it was a special kind of molasses you were using because of a diet you were on and not because you did not like the molasses served at the restaurant.

Q: Our son recently became engaged. His fiancee's parents are strangers to us.

I know it is up to my husband and me to call on them. However, I don't know quite how to go about it. Do we just go or should I telephone first and ask when we may come to see them?

A: You should telephone first or find out through your son when it will be convenient for them to see you.

Boat Club Reception Follows Rite

Reception in the Detroit Boat Club followed the recent vows of Barbara Gail Rutzen to Donald Bruce Dinning in the Epiphany Lutheran Church, Detroit.

* * *

Dr. E. T. Bernthal performed the double-ring candlelight ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Rutzen of Lenox Road and the Rankin Dinnings of Detroit.

BIANCHI GOWN

The bride's Bianchi gown of white silk peau de soie was styled with cathedral train. A crescent of phalaenopsis orchids rested on her white missal.

Deborah Rutzen was honor maid along with bridesmaids Lyn Hopkins and Kary Garrett of Ann Arbor. Barbara Jean Coopes attended as flower-girl.

* * *

With best man, Rollin Clinesmith of Detroit, were ushers John Connaughton and Willard Mulligan.

After a honeymoon in the Pocono Mountain area the couple will reside in Rome, N.Y.

Milk Needed for Overseas

Urgent Appeal for Dry Milk Donations

A shortage of contributed dry milk under the U.S. Government P.L. 480 Title III program is seriously threatening the churches' overseas feeding programs, a Church World Service officer warned this week.

James MacCracken, associate executive director of CWS, issued an urgent appeal to volunteers in its Christian Rural Overseas Program to help increase donations of dry milk and funds to purchase milk for shipment overseas.

"The cut in government-donated milk supplies to the voluntary agencies," Mr. MacCracken said, "reflects the over-all reduction, expected to be approximately 50 per cent, of commodities which will be available during 1965 under the P.L. 480 program."

CWS feeding programs in Asia and Africa will be the hardest hit, he said, particularly in Hong Kong, India — which is suffering a severe food shortage — Korea, Taiwan, and Algeria and the Congo.

In an effort to conserve all dry milk supplies now on hand, CWS directors for overseas programs are making detailed inventories.

Albert W. Farmer, national CROP director, has estimated that to send the same amount of dry milk overseas as was contributed through the government program, will cost from 30 to 40 times more money.

Mr. McCracken said that although the demand is too great for any one appeal to fill, CROP is being asked to undertake whatever special measures are possible to increase milk supplies, either in kind or in funds.

* * *

"It is hoped," he said, "That church people across the country will respond to this appeal during the coming Thanksgiving season."

Observes Communion

In peace America grew great. It was in peace that we grew strong and rich and accumulated the homes, plants, farms, mines and transportation that saw us through two wars. It was wars that brought us debt and taxes and inflation.—George M. Humphrey, former Secretary of the Treasury.

'Friendship Farms' Aid Poor Countries

A total of some 1,000 acres in 11 states are being planted in corn, beans and wheat this summer for CROP (Christian Rural Overseas Program). These include eight farms in Indiana—four in Elkhart County sewn in corn and others in Wells, Kosciusk, Cass and Gibson counties sewn in corn or beans.

Other "Friendship Farms" for the needy in underdeveloped nations have been planted in Maryland near New Windsor and in York County, Pennnsylvania. In many cases the planting has been done with seed and implements donated and lent by commercial firms.

Thirteen farmers in Lawrence County, Ill., have set aside "Friendship Acres" whose proceeds this fall will go to CROP. Other such single acres are planted elsewhere in Illinois, Michigan, Iowa, Indiana, Minnesota, Nebraska, Ohio and South Dakota.

The corn harvest from these Friendship farms and acres will be converted into such products as oil, syrup and meal to be used by impoverished peoples in dozens of countries through Church World Service — the National Council of Churches' overseas relief agency.

* * *

Corn syrup is used in milk formulas for babies in Ghana, corn meal is a staple in the diet for refugees in the Congo, and corn oil is a bread dip for school children in land-poor areas of Greece. Beans from CROP contributors provide protein to many undernourished people, and wheat is one of the basic foods shipped overseas by CWS.

Rabbi Tells America: Learn About Negroes

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—A rabbi who is active in the civil rights movement told a conference of Catholic teaching nuns recently that Americans need a "crash" education and information program to help them overcome their "illiteracy" with regard to the history and plight of the American Negro.

"The growing white backlash makes us painfully conscious of how wide is the gulf that separates the white man's true understanding of the Negro's psyche and social predicament from that of the Negro's understanding of self, his desperate situation and his real relation to the white majority," Rabbi Marc H. Tanenbaum, of the American Jewish Committee, said in one of a series of lectures before the Sister Formation Conference at Marquette University.

In this world, it is not what we take up but what we give up that makes us rich—Henry Ward Beecher.

Religious Ideals Lost

WASHINGTON (AP) — J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, says "Too many Americans no longer care about religious ideals and heritage." In a Thanksgiving message to law enforcement officials, he said yesterday that such persons "shirk the mere suggestion of individual responsibility. Their purpose in life is lost in moral lethargy, self-indulgence and neglect of duty."

He said the Pilgrim Fathers, founders of the Thanksgiving Day custom, "were bound by spiritual unity and love of and faith in the supreme being."

Let Dinner Determine the Lunchbox Menu

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Homemakers who hold down an outside job get in the habit of planning tomorrow's dinner today. The same can be done in planning food for school lunchboxes.

This is called "the supper surplus system." It's a simple two step operation. You have to figure on enough left over from tonight's dinner to provide the menu for tomorrow's lunch.

When you have a roast, it is usually easy to find an extra cup of meat. With it you create a quick stew, some of which goes into school lunch vacuum bottles, the rest into the refrigerator for stay-at-home eaters.

The secret of this speedy cooking is using condensed canned soup. Vegetable beef soup is used with beef roast. But the variations can be endless.

Small amounts of leftover vegetables can be added to lunchbox soups and chowders. Potato soup is an excellent base for chowders with the addition of chicken, tuna or some leftover whole kernel corn.

The best part of this whole idea is that it leaves you free to improvise. And it assures you and your lunchbox toter that lunch will never get monotonous.

A sampling of foolproof luncheon soups is given on this page. Given also are other suggestions to make your planning of those five traveling lunches each week easier.

Pears Good to Include in a Lunch

Pack a pretty, nutritious lunch with golden Bartlett pears. It's easier to provide the balanced meal we want for our families with the wide-mouth vacuum bottles for soup or other hot dishes. Add the ever-popular sandwich, of which there is endless variety. Top it all with a fresh, sweet Bartlett pear.

Pacific Bartlett pears are always welcome with their warm color and spicy juiciness. They are so easy to eat with their smooth thin skin that they're ideal for carried lunches. Bartletts are best ripened off the tree, so if you buy them when still green, hold them at room temperature a few days until golden.

Take full advantage of this king of fruits. Use them often in salads, compotes, pies and cobblers.

Try these quick pick-ups for lunch-box, after school or study-time snacking.

Fresh, juicy Bartlett pears and your choice of salted peanuts, buttered popcorn, pretzels, assorted crackers or cheese cubes.

Blend softened processed cheese spread with enough dairy sour cream to make dipping consistency. Use pear wedges for dippers.

Chocolate Crunchies and a succulent fresh Bartlett pear make good partners. Melt 1 (6 oz.) package semi-sweet chocolate pieces over hot water. Add 1½ cups crushed corn chips. Mix until corn chips are thoroughly covered with chocolate. Drop by spoonful on waxed paper. Chill until set.

PEARS IN LUNCHBOX

Recommend Pattern for Packing Lunches

Let's get the jump on the carried lunch. Packing it can be a bit of a game. Knowing the rules, sends you flying clear of the hurdles.

Hurdles to trip you in this morning dash to prepare the away-from-home meal are: Making it nutritionally sound and packing enough food to meet energy and nutritional needs. Wherever this lunch is eaten — school, office, or plant, it can be inviting, nutritious, and economical.

* * *

The good lunch supplies one-third of the day's food requirements of calories, protein, vitamins, minerals and energy. Such a simple lunch pattern is recommended by the National School Lunch Program.

It includes two ounces protein-rich foods; three-fourths cup vegetables or fruit, or both; one or more portions of enriched or whole grain bread, two teaspoons butter or margarine and one-half pint milk.

This pattern as seen in the packed lunch includes one or more protein-rich foods — meat, eggs, cheese or peanut butter which may be used as sandwich fillings. Sandwiches are two-fold sources of protein-rich foods — fillings and enriched bread.

* * *

Four slices of enriched bread contribute approximately 12 per cent of the daily protein needs as recommended for the average yong man. Active adults and teen-agers need two or three such sandwiches.

Fresh vegetables are carried as relishes or salads. Lettuce may be packed separately to be added to the sandwiches at lunch time.

Desserts give the satisfying, finishing touch to the packed lunch. Cake, cookies, and pies, from bakery or food mart, do double duty, too. They add variety and help meet the high energy needs of growing children, teen-agers and adults who are on-the-go.

Clean Lunchbox Easy to Have With Soda

If you're getting reports from school that your small fry isn't eating your home-packed lunch the way a small fry should, better search your conscience. When meals are picked on at home, too, you can chalk it up to poor eating habits and initiate firmer discipline at the table. But if breakfast and dinner are downed with relish, then look to other possible causes for having a nose turned up at your lunch.

First, it may be that you're in a rut . . . providing the same old fare day after day.

A second possible cause for lack of mid-day appetite is the state of the lunchbox.

Because it's closed up tight so much of the time the interior and all the various trappings tend to harbor odors . . . and those left over from yesterday's meal can taint the taste of today's. This is simple to prevent if you'll just get into the habit of opening the lunchbox as soon as it reaches home. Then it can air out.

Wash the vacuum bottle and plastic containers used for salads or puddings with a baking soda solution. Or leave the package of soda sink-side, within your youngster's reach, so that filling the empty containers with water and adding a teaspoon of soda becomes one of the regular daily chores.

COUNTRY GARDEN CHOWDER

1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of potato soup
1 soup can milk
½ to 1 cup cooked vegetables (greenbeans, carrots, peas, corn, tomatoes, spinach, etc.)
Crumbled bacon or chopped ham (optional)

In saucepan, combine soup and milk. Add vegetables. Heat, stirring now and then. Do not boil. Garnish with bacon or ham, if desired. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

SUPPER SURPLUS SYSTEM LUNCHEON STEW

1 cup diced cooked beef
¼ cup chopped onion
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 can (10¾ ounces) condensed vegetable soup
½ cup water
Dash garlic power
Dash black pepper
2 tablespoons chopped parsley

Lightly brown beef and onion in butter. Stir in remaining ingredients. Heat. Stir now and then. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

WHISTLE-STOP CHICKEN VEGETABLE SOUP

1 can (10¾ ounces) condensed chicken vegtable soup
1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of chicken soup
1 cup milk
1½ cups water
½ cup cut asparagus, cooked or canned

In saucepan, combine soups; gradually add milk, water and asparagus. Heat. Stir now and then. Makes 4 servings.

FRANKFURTER BEAN BAG STEW

4 frankfurters, cut in ½-inch slices
¼ cup chopped onion
2 teaspoons butter or margarine
1 can (11¼ ounces) condensed bean with bacon soup
½ cup water
2 tablespoons ketchup
2 tablespoons pickle relish
1 tablespoon brown sugar
1 lemon slice

Lightly brown frankfurters and onion in butter. Stir in remaining ingredients. Simmer a few minutes. Discard lemon. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

Send Hot Dogs in Lunchbox

Frankfurts — taken to school and eaten HOT! It's easy, too, and the kids appreciate it as a neat trick to show off to their friends.

All you need is that small vacuum bottle that held ice or cold drinks in the picnic season.

Take two frankfurters and tie around each one a string or heavy linen thread about eight inches long. Fill the vacuum bottle with hot water.

While the bottle is heating, cook the frankfurts in the regular way, by dropping them into a pan of water, bringing the water to a boil. Then turn off the stove and allow the hot dogs to stand in the hot water in the covered pan for a few minutes.

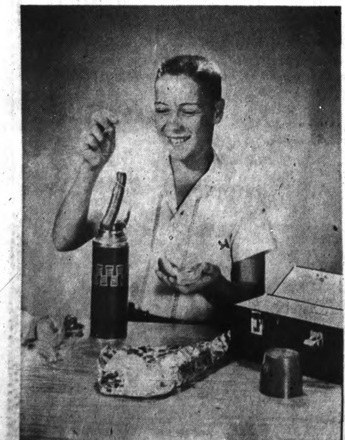
When ready, empty the bottle and drop in the hot dogs by their thread, being careful to leave the other end hanging over the edge of the bottle.

Add two to three tablespoons of boiling water. Cover quickly, making sure the two string ends are still outside!

The hot dogs will still be hot by the time your child gets around to eating them — and how he will enjoy fishing them out of the water without spilling a drop!

Include two buttered hot dog buns wrapped in waxed paper or aluminum foil, together with dabs of mustard and relish in small plastic containers. What a treat!

For dessert, add an apple, some grapes or an orange with a few cookies.



HOT DOG STAYS WARM

Jam Sauce Tops Pears, Oranges

Delight your family and guests with a dessert that looks and tastes like "something special" but is actually one of the simplest things you could make.

"Mandarin Gold Pears" is a combination of tender fresh Bartlett pear slices and mandarin orange segments drizzled with a warm sauce subtly flavored with apricot jam, cloves and lemon juice.

It's delicious as-is, but if you want to turn it into a more elaborate dessert, top each serving with a scoop of ice cream or a dollop of whipped cream.

Mandarin Gold Pears

2 teaspoons cornstarch
⅛ teaspoon ground cloves
1 can (11 oz.) mandarin orange segments
1 tablespoon lemon juice
½ cup apricot jam
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
2 or 3 fresh Bartlett pears

In saucepan mix cornstarch and cloves. Blend a little liquid from oranges with cornstarch mixture to form smooth paste; stir in remaining liquid; lemon juice and jam. Cook and stir until thickened; remove from heat and stir in butter.

Halve and core pears; slice lengthwise. Arrange pears and oranges in 6 shallow bowls. Drizzle with sauce. Top with whipped cream or ice cream if you wish. Makes 6 servings.

Low Calorie Dressings Help in Sandwiches

The chic New York career girls who save their money by carrying their lunch to work (often disguised in Bonwit Teller or Saks-Fifth Avenue bags) have started an idea worthy of adoption by chubby teen-agers and figure-conscious working women everywhere. Fixing sandwiches at home and carrying them to work or school is a great way to save on calories as well.

* * *

What's more, the sandwich lunch will probably be more enjoyable — more filling and less bread, more protein nourishment and less gooey mayonnaise binder.

* * *

And the "take-with" sandwich luncheon can include a variety of different delicious embellishments that make the meal more satisfying and nutritious, thus eliminating the need for a high calorie pick-up in mid-afternoon.

Who ever heard of ordering celery or carrot sticks or green pepper strips along with a sandwich at a lunch counter? Yet these crisp and crunchy relishes can easily be included with the sandwich you carry, providing flavor and texture contrast during the meal and satisfying nibbles for between-meal pangs.

The weight-control experts who developed the sandwich suggestions given below, point out that the economic savings to be made by carrying lunches should not be underestimated as an aid to weight control.

Tuna Fish Salad Sandwich

1 can tuna, drained and flaked
½ cup coarsely grated carrot
5 tablespoons new low calorie French dressing
Salt and pepper to taste
8 slices protein bread
4 lettuce leaves

Combine tuna, grated coarsely, seasonings, and 3 tablespoons of the low calorie dressing. Mix thoroughly. Spread bread slices with remaining dressing. Spread 4 bread slices with the tuna mixture. Top each with a lettuce leaf, and cover with a slice of bread. Yield 4 sandwiches, 194 salories each.

Vienna Sandwich

4 Vienna sausages
1 hamburger bun, with some center dough scooped out
2 teaspoons Italian-style low calorie dressing.

Slice hamburger bun and remove some of the soft dough in the center. Spread each half with a teaspoonful Italian-style low calorie dressing. Arrange 4 Vienna sausages on bottom half, and cover with top half of bun. 1 sandwich, 280 calories.

Sink Island Separates Work Area In Kitchen

Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

July's torrid heat wave didn't phase the Archie Pattons of Waterford Hill Terrace, Independence Township. Their home is air-conditioned from top to bottom.

* * *

Contemporary in feeling, both inside and out, the bilevel is built on a hillside.

In the Japanese-influenced front courtyard, redwood beams outline a raised garden underneath an apple tree. The tops of the broad beams make ideal seats to bask "in the shade of the old apple tree."

The red-orange entrance door opens into a blond oak paneled foyer floored in terrazzo. The foyer and adjoining hall provide an efficient traffic pattern to all areas of the home.

Located at the back, overlooking the garden, is the formal living room. Mrs. Patton selected white walls and white linen draperies as the complement to the red-orange tweed area rug.

BUTTERFLY PRINTS

Contemporary butterfly wall prints emphasize the colors found in the split-stone fireplace.

The room's free-form sofa is covered in brown and highlighted by throw pillows of beige, green, gold and orange. Interesting is the walnut cocktail table with casters.

"This cocktail table," said Mrs. Patton, "can lead a double life. With its cushion, which matches the sofa, it's a comfortable seat. Without, it's a table."

* * *

The adjoining family room preserves its appearance though it takes a beating as the site of wrestling matches between the Pattons' 4-year-old son Greig and Puff, his lumbering, lovable St. Bernard. And Gigi, Greig's French poodle, sometimes joins the frolicking twosome.

The room's terrazzo floor is accented by the blond oak paneling and black baseboards.

Beige vinyl covers the walnut-framed sectional which converts into extra sleeping space should it be needed.

A hanging frosted-glass globe, accented in brass, adds decorator interest over the corner table.

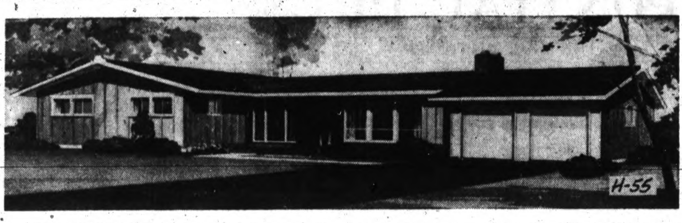
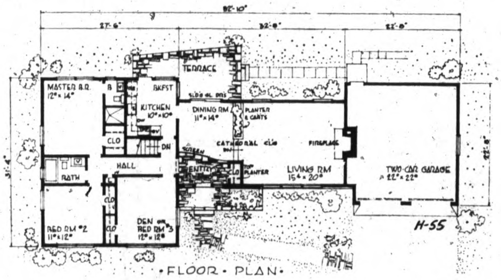
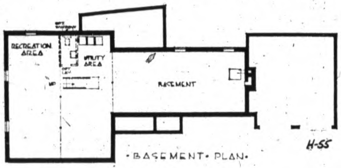
Economy House Has Western Look



WESTERN STYLE—There's an air of spaciousness about the T-shaped design of this house, yet its six-room interior, with an indoor-outdoor living plan, falls into the modest budget category.



FLOOR PLANS — Good traffic circulation permits entry into this house from the front or rear and movement to the kitchen or bedrooms without crossing the living-dining area.



Architects often are asked to design four and five-bedroom houses which will fit on narrow lots.

* * *

But it is surprising to learn that architects also get requests to design a two-bedroom house with a modest living area in terms of square feet — yet having the appearance of a much larger house.

People making such requests have no need for a big house, but nevertheless want a house with an impressive exterior, to enhance the neighborhood and satisfy their own desires for a home with a look of bigness.

The latest in the House of the Week series is just such a house. Designed by architect Fenick A. Vogel, it has a modest 1,392 square feet of living area, but seems to be much larger because of its T-shape and the placement of the two-car garage.

* * *

Adding to the impression of size is the wide roof overhang on all four sides and the sweep of the roof itself, giving it a spacious, Western look.

COMFORTABLE HOUSE

All of the things that go to make up a comfortable house are included in Design H-55. The living room is typical. It is dropped two steps from the dining room and has a planter wall divider with cabinets underneath.

The cathedral ceiling rises high, and at the far end there is a paneled wall, high-lighted by a raised fireplace with brick in the wall section above it.

Also, the living room has 100 per cent cross ventilation, the T-design permitting windows at the front and rear.

* * *

The dining room is set off from the flagstone entry by a curved screen. There is a wall of sliding glass doors leading to the stone terrace beyond, facilitating outdoor dining when desired.

Neither the living room nor the dining room need be disturbed by family traffic, since the kitchen and bedroom area can be reached either by way of the front entrance or the door connecting the terrace with the kitchen.

The kitchen is compact, with an L arrangement of counters, cupboards and appliances to save steps. There is a breakfast nook in one corner near windows that look out over the terrace.

* * *

Two bathrooms are in the bedroom wing, the one in the master bedroom having a stall shower.

WALK-IN CLOSET

This bedroom also has a walk-in closet. Both rooms have two exposures.

The third room in this area can be used as a den, study or spare room, with its two exposures and large closet.

The two-car garage is oversized and has plenty of space for storage, as has the basement.

* * *

Depending on the needs and finances of the family, the basement can be completely or partially finished.

H-55 STATISTICS

Design H-55 has a living room, dining room, kitchen, two bedrooms, two baths, a den, two-car garage and a terrace. The living area, excluding the terrace, is 1,392 square feet. The over-all dimensions of the house, including the garage, are 82' 10" by 31' 4". The basement can be finished as desired and includes plans for a recreation room and utility area.

Masonry Patio Can Be Covered

If your masonry patio is becoming chipped and broken, you can cover it with a wood deck.

Just nail ordinary Douglas fir 2x4s to the masonry, then nail your deck boards to the furring pieces.

Generally 2x4s are ideal for this deck, and they can be arranged in many interesting patterns like herringbone, checkerboard, diagonal, or in diamond shape.

U.S. Homes Adapt Style

Many contemporary U.S. homes carry a distinct oriental imprint.

Upswept roof lines and exposed beam ceilings were long evident in the Orient before becoming popular in this hemisphere.

While now distinctly Americanized, wood plank-and-beam construction traces its ancestry to Japan.

Cleaning— No Problem

Two areas most likely to produce added living space in your home are the attic and the basement. But utilizing these areas shouldn't add to the burden of the busy homemaker.

Colorful and easy-to-clean materials such as ceramic tile should be used in creating these new living spaces.

Floors, walls and countertops of ceramic tile are stainproof and offer no special cleaning problems.

Season Lumber Before Framing

"Framing" is the builder's term for lumber that forms joints, studs, rafters and other structural elements of homes.

This lumber should be properly seasoned and "pre-shrunk" before being surfaced to final size. If so, lasting nail holding ability is assured.

Peruvians Give Nod to Red Brick Housing

NEW YORK (UPI)—It would seem that homebuyers in Lima, Peru, are conformists.

A recent conference on international housing was told 9 out of 10 homebuyers in the city want red brick because "it has always been used."

A fire occurs on an average of every 24 seconds in an American city. Every 45 minutes a life is lost in a fire somewhere in the nation.

Hydronics— Defined in Dictionary

Baseball's Casey Stengel is well known for making up words for his famous "Stengel Syntax." A few years ago, the heating industry took the ball from "Ole Case" and invented a word of its own—hydronics. And a bona fide word it became.

On page 713 of the 1960 Webster's New World Dictionary of the American Language the word is defined as "the science of controlled systems for heating, cooling, etc. by the forced circulation of liquids or vapors."

So there it is, Somebody dreamed it up and now it's an honest-to-goodness word in widespread use. How does that happen? In the case of hydronics, it happened like this.

Prior to June, 1957, several rather clumsy and inadequate terms were used to describe what we now call hydronic heating — among them, hot water heat, wet heat, liquid heat and fluid heat. Some of these were not only inadequate, but carried a bad connotation as well. Who, for example, would want to have heat that's "all wet?"

* * *

Because of this confusion, it was decided to call a meeting of industry "idea men" to come up with a better term.

They met in the summer of 1957 and unanimously decided upon "hydronics" as the best candidate.

Though the word is relatively new, already it is accepted and understood widely, and regardless of the name, the heating method involved has been popular, and growing, for a good many years.

In fact, hydronic heating sales have gained nationally five per cent a year for the past five years.

So — though you may not have realized it — if your home is equipped with boiler-supplied radiators, baseboards or radiant panels, your home is being heated hydronically. How about that, heating fans?

Bedroom Converts to Study Area

If your child is ready to start first grade, or if a teen is to enter high school in the fall, now is a good time to think about converting the bedroom into a combination sleeping-study area.

* * *

In most cases, the modifications and additions can be incorporated into a general facelifting.

A good place to study is a "must", of course, in a child's bedroom. This might take the form of a standard desk or a built-in unit. In either case, provide plenty of storage space.

Lighting is another important factor. Make sure that the lighting is well-placed and does not cause a glare on the desk.

* * *

If the room is large enough, you might want to build a divider between the bed and study area. This divider might serve double duty as a storage unit and display board.

EASY-TO-HANDLE

If Dad wants to handle most or all of the work, use an easy to-handle paneling. Tongue-and-groove edges simplify fitting.

The planks are installed with wallboard adhesive right over old walls, or framing.

A durable tempered hardboard base will withstand hard wear. The paneling's smooth plastic finish is washable. Plastic-finished hardboard plank comes in modern colors and handsome woodgrains.

* * *

Some home handymen like to complete the whole job, while others have a cabinetmaker assemble the built-ins while they do the paneling. In either case, planning and work should begin soon if the room is to be ready this fall.

Combined Areas Help Housewife

In addition to the usual appliances and storage, some modern kitchens are equipped with dining nooks, television sets, play areas and picture windows.

This is in line with the trend toward combination kitchen-family rooms.

* * *

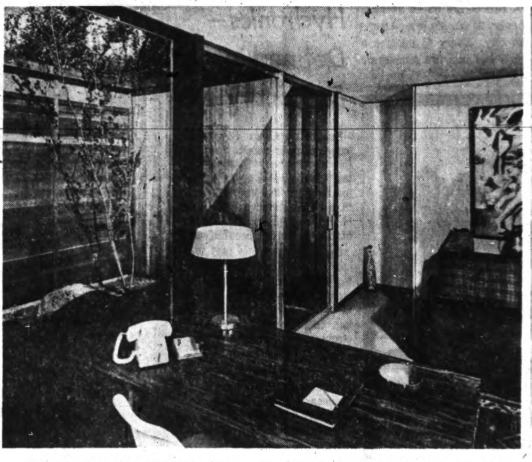
The natural golden color of southern pine paneling lends a sunshiny touch to the setting:



INDOOR - OUTDOOR STUDIO — Every man needs a lair of his own, and here's the ideal — a cozy studio extended outdoors with a private patio walled in resawn western red cedar. Studio's interior features a man's choice of deep colors and crisply styled furniture, complemented by solid board paneling in vertical grain west coast hemlock.

Turn Your Grizzly Into a Honey

A Home Within Your Home

Whatever happened to that sweet guy you married?

* * *

Today he comes home gruff as a grizzly. Snarls at the kids. Kicks the hi fi set when the latest Beatles platter plays.

How do you shake him back to his former, lovable self?

One solution is to inherit a fortune and take him for a five-year honeymoon cruise. Or, a more practical suggestion is to give him a home within his home — an escape hatch where he can enjoy his own hobbies and interests without competing for space with the children and ironing board.

* * *

Often space for your man's private lair can be found in basement, attic or garage. But if you can't squeeze enough inches for it within existing walls, try building on. It's a worthwhile investment.

DEN DESIGN

When designing the den, keep the man in mind. Sound - proof the room with carpeting and with solid lumber paneling which will also provide that much - needed masculine atmosphere.

Woods are a man's favorite for paneling, and winning increased popularity are the soft colored species, like west coast hemlock. Ponderosa pine and Idaho white pine are two other favorites for a man's room.

These woods are especially good for the small den, where fine graining and light colors expand space. Finished clear with a penetrating sealer - finish coat, or with one of the new lacquers that are brushed on but have a hand-rubbed look, hemlock and the pines rate tops in appearance.

* * *

Furnishings for the studio shold be clean - lined and comfortable, or course. Give him a crisply styled desk and chair, a sofa for snoozing, and a good reading light. He'll also need built-ins for books, cameras, and hobbv equipment.

Built-ins should be tailored for their specific job and the studio will look its best if the storage units are designed to match the paneling. Tongue - and - groove material can be used for cabinet fronts and doors.

* * *

Now for an extra fillip sure to win a man's raves, extend the den outdoors with a private, walled patio or deck. If he's a nature lover, he'll enjoy quiet moments outdoors in sunlight or under the stars. The privacy screens can be built with resawn western red cedar siding lumber applied to a conventional frame, and no finishing is necessary.

Shower-Heads for Boys and Girls

If the youngsters in your family enjoy their daily ablutions in the form of a shower, try installing a child-size shower head.

* * *

This can be done by tapping into the regular shower standpipe about half way from the top.

* * *

A cut-off valve is connected at the top shower head. Floors in a shower stall should be surfaced with unglazed, slip-proof ceramic tile.

It's a good idea, too, to have a ceramic "grab bar" installed three to four feet from the floor.

Wood Grain Exposed

The light, airy form that wood siding gives to a home disguises concealed strength and structural values.

* * *

With wood siding, it's possible to integrate the house framework and surfacing more closely than with other materials.

* * *

When strong woods with high nail holding power, such as southern pine, are utilized, the security factor is further enhanced.

Three Factors Set Moving Charges

Three factors determine the cost of a long-distance or interstate move.

They are: weight, mileage and accessorial (packing) services.

* * *

Weight is checked on a registered scale by weighing the van before and after the furniture is loaded. Charges are based on this figure, not on the figure which appears on the estimate sheet.

* * *

Hydronic Heating for Unheated Garage

There is no reason to put up with an unheated recreation room or garage.

* * *

Country's Party Split Could Grow Wider

K's Hug May Hinder Chief of India's Reds

By CONRAD FINK

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—A. S. Dange can testify that a bear hug from a Russian may prove embarrassing—four years later.

Dange is the beleaguered leader of the pro-Russian wing of India's splintered Communist party.

* * *

Nikita Khrushchev was beginning a tour of India in 1960 when he met Dange at the airport. He wrapped himself around the Indian Red in a show of affection that clearly indicated Dange was Khrushchev's man in India.

* * *

For four years, the hug served Dange well as he struggled to survive cutthroat infighting that all but wrecked the Indian party. After the 1962 India-Communist China border war, pro-Chinese Reds split away.

KHRUSHCHEV IDOL

But about 60 per cent of India's Communists chose Khrushchev as their idol and kept the man he hugged as their leader.

Now the infighting is reviving. Reds who survived the last intramural battle are scrambling to land on the right side now that Khrushchev is gone.

Initial policy guidelines from the top reportedly are, in effect, "down with Khrushchev and everybody he bear-hugged."

Dange was traveling in Eastern Europe when the news broke of Khrushchev's ouster. He immediately went to Moscow for talks with the Kremlin's new leaders. Whether he survived the distinction of being Khrushchev's man in Iidia still is not clear.

QUIET QUARREL?

If Khrushchev's successors try to quiet down the quarrel with Communist China, Dange will be in for rough days. For he, like Khrushchev, has been bitter in his condemnation of Peking.

Dange would be a great obstacle to any attempts toward reunification of the Indian Communist movement, just as Khrushchev was regarded by the Chinese as an obstacle to Communist cooperation on an international scale.

* * *

If a decision has been made to heal up the wounds in India's Communist party, Dange, like Khrushchev, almost certainly would have to go.

The Indian Communists might gain much if they closed ranks and cooperated in these days of political and economic troubles in India.

FOOD PROTESTS

The Communist party, though weakened by internal bickering, already has had considerable success in organizing food demonstrations and protest marches against Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri's government. A unified party could do more.

The past has a way of rising and embarrassing Dange.

* * *

Last April, some of his foes dug up a letter he had written 40 years before, offering to work for British intelligence if the British officials then ruling colonial India would free him from prison.

Dange barely survived that one.

GOOD MORNIN' MISTER COOPER
"COOPER," EH? 'TIS A GOOD LAST NAME FOR MY WHOLE FAMILY

QUESTION: How did people get to be called by different names?

* * *

ANSWER: If we had no names and a teacher could only say "You over there, the boy with the snub nose and three freckles on his right cheek—" the world would be a confusing place to live in.

No one knows just how or when names began, but they probably had to do with some personal peculiarity, such as "lightfoot." Many of our first names come from the Bible, and these had meanings, such as John (gracious gift of Yahveh) of Elizabeth (oath of God).

The first people to have more than one name are said to have been the Chinese, family names being decreed by the Emperor Fushi around 2852 B.C.

In the Middle Ages, in Italy, high-born people began to adopt family names to call attention to their ancestors and show they were different from commoners. But people of more ordinary rank liked the idea too.

Our illustration shows how many such family names started, for an expert cooper or carpenter or smith was proud of his trade and decided to have such a word become the last name of his family.

Places also became attached to people to become last names of families: a settler built a house on a hilltop and became Mr. Hill, and his children James, Billy, Edna and Mary Hill and so on.

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: Some dictionaries give lists of the meanings of many first names. See if your name is among them.

WW I History Good Reading

Marshall's Book Is Fine Library Addition

History of World War I
By
S. L. A. Marshall

By CORENNA ALDRICH

If ever there were a history book to satisfy both avid history readers and individuals who shun anything but historical novels, it is the American Heritage "History of World War I" by S. L. A. Marshall.

From his account of the first spark in Sarajevo that ignited the whole world, through the blunders at Versailles which were to incubate seeds of World War II, Gen. Marshall's vibrant narrative maintains a compelling style.

Even his detailed descriptions of battle strategy avoid slipping into the minuscule tediums often associated with works of this scope.

Though vastly comprehensive, this history of the Great War is no mere collection of documentary data. Battles, dates, generals and such are only a part in the illumination of significant aspects of a naive world that entered war almost as small boys play soldier, only to find itself trapped in a monumental slaughter that would change and entangle the entire course of history.

Th human side of war, lost in many standard histories, comes agonizingly alive.

Magnificently printed and illustrated, this is a book to be studied and reread, a fine addition to any library.

There is so much to be said for its writing, content and physical beauty that only personal examination will give a true picture of its quality.

Retired from the Army in 1960 after sevrice in both World Wars, Brig. Gen. Marshall has had wide experience in military life and the writing field. Now a resident of Birmingham, many in this area are familiar with his work as former editorial writer and military critic for The Detroit News.

Carl Sandburg has said Gen. Marshall "rates among many of us as the greatest of writers on modern war." Readers of American Heritage's "History of World War I" will wholeheartedly concur.

New City Preschool Program to Start in Neighborhoods

A program to prepare preschool youngsters for kindergarten is scheduled to get under way in Pontiac.

Approved Thursday by the school board, the program calls for the establishment of preschool centers in selected neighborhoods under the sponsorship of the school district and the Pontiac Area Urban League.

The Urban League has also given the program approval.

The preschool training is aimed at getting youngsters ready for kindergarten.

"Some children are not ready for school because of home conditions," said William J. Lacy, assistant superintendent for instruction.

"Some youngsters," he continued, "have had little or no contact with books, pencil and paper or other children."

PAST PROJECTS

Lacy said the preschool program was developed from two volunteer projects conducted in the past at All Saints Episcopal Church, Williams at Pike, and Whittier Elementary School.

He did not know how many centers would be set up, but expected initially "more than one" would get under way.

The school board will furnish a coordinator for the program, Mrs. Pearlina Butler, Bagley School principal; one-half the cost of a secretary; office space and equipment, if available; an administrator for a management committee, and $500 toward instructional supplies and materials.

Main job of the Urban League, according to Lacy, will be to furnish volunteers to do the actual instruction.

Lacy said the preschool program would attempt to cover areas not included in any eventual antipoverty programs.

While Lacy expects the preschool program will make a contribution to human relations, the object is not to relieve defacto segregation but to prepare children to go into kindergarten.

★ ★ ★

Total cost of the program, including $7,000 for an assistant elementary principal at Bagley School to help out Mrs. Butler, was put at $8,650 for the balance of the fiscal year.

Pontiac's Gift Sent to Rescue

Plane Used to Carry Wounded Filipino

"The Spirit of Pontiac" Helio-Courier airplane made an emergency flight to a remote mountain village recently to rescue a man in critical condition from a head wound.

★ ★ ★

The plane, given to the Philippine government by the citizens of Pontiac in 1960 for use by the Summer Institute of Linguistics (SIL), brought a Tigwa Manobo man to a clinic operated by the Association of Baptists for World Evangelism, according to a spokesman for the institute.

The man had walked four hours from his home to the village where Jean Hagar and Clarice Strong, linguist-translators with SIL, were working.

That afternoon, the girls talked by radio to their base headquarters, requesting the Helio-Courier plane to fly out.

★ ★ ★

Bob Griffin, the pilot, had just returned from Manila and was able to fly the man out. Surgery at the ABWE clinic closed the wound and the man is expected to recover.

It would have taken the man two and a half days by raft to travel from his home to the clinic, the spokesman said.

3 From County Retain Mental Health Unit Posts

Three county residents have been elected to the state board of directors of the Michigan Society of Mental Health at its annual membership meeting.

Another Oakland County resident was honored for his work in behalf of mental health.

Mrs. Clarke F. Andreae and Joseph M. Sullivan of Birmingham and Mrs. Worth Kramer of Bloomfield Hills were reelected to the society's board.

State Sen. Farrell Roberts, chief sponsor of Michigan's new Community Mental Health Services Act (P.A. 54), was honored for his work in the legislature.

Court Halts Insurance Cut

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Studebaker Corp. was forbidden by federal court injunction Friday to end life insurance coverage for more than 3,000 retired employes.

The United Auto Workes has challenged in a court suit what it describes as Studebaker's contention that the coverage ends when the present labor agreement expires today.

U.S. District Judge Robert A. Grant handed down the temporary injunction and gave Studebaker until Dec. 8 to answer the UAW suit before setting a date for a hearing on a possible permanent ban.

IF YOU BELIEVE . . .

that some problems should be handled by local governments — some by national government, and some where there should be cooperation between them . . .

that every effort should be made to make taxpayers out of tax consumers by reducing school dropouts, juvenile delinquency and crime, by improving employment and educational opportunities, by teaching trades, providing means and facilities for all, qualified students to go to community colleges and universities and re-educating the unemployables. (It costs 15 times as much to support these problems as to cure them.) . . .

that we need to identify, admit, treat and cure as many of the mentally ill as possible, so that they may be safely returned to productive life . . .

that business expansion should be encouraged by eliminating the business activities tax . . .

PLEASE CONSIDER the FOLLOWING!

- PROGRESS, whether it be better ROADS or WATER and SEWER SYSTEMS it usually results in some inconvenience during the construction stages, but we must look forward to the completion time, and the benefit to the COMMUNITY as a WHOLE.
- TAXES, for your TOWNSHIP SERVICES amount to only about 7% of the total property tax bill, and is the only property tax money under the CONTROL of your TOWNSHIP BOARD.
- WATER and SEWER CHARGES are only paid by the USERS of the systems similar to the way you pay for electricity, gas, or telephone service.
- LIBRARY SERVICE was established in 1963 after Waterford, by VOTE OF THE PEOPLE became a charter Township, which allowed the Township Board to levy up to 5 mills for services to the people in this and other areas. It is true a Library proposal which would have required a Library building costing a minimum of $250,000.00 was voted down in 1959, but let us compare that cost with the Library now under construction. First let's take the cost of the Library building $61,000 - then subtract the Federal Grant of $30,000.00 - then subtract the excess Sales Tax appropriation of $12,000.00 — This leaves a total cost to the Taxpayers of $19,000.00 or about 35 cents per person.
- TOWNSHIP BOARD DECISIONS MUST BE MADE AT TIMES which might be subject to criticism, but you as voters realize that some people favor greater police protection, some greater fire protection, others would like more parks and recreation facilities, and still others want improved library service. Your Township Board as elected representatives of ALL the people in Waterford must try to satisfy the wants of ALL people, and still keep first in their minds the ability of the Taxpayer to pay for these services.

Captains Win League Crown by Rallying

L'Anse Runs Kickoff for Fast Touchdown; 3 Scores for Nutter

By FLETCHER SPEARS

Even on the football field, it's wise not to put all your eggs in one basket.

L'Anse Creuse tried it yesterday, stacking its defense to stop Kettering's fleet halfback Jim Haviland, and came out on the short end of a 27-14 score.

The visiting Lancers kept Haviland pretty well in check, limiting him to five yards rushing, but they forgot about another speedy halfback in the Kettering backfield — Pat Nutter.

Nutter moved about almost unnoticed in scoring three touchdowns before the Captains' Homecoming crowd.

The win was Kettering's seventh in a row and brought the team its first Tri-County League football championship. The Captains shared the title last year with Oxford.

The loss was the first for L'Anse (4-1-1), but the team did wind up in second place in the loop.

The game was the tightest the Captains have been in this season and the issue was in doubt until late in the final quarter.

TAKE LEAD

Kettering took a 13-7 lead in the opening quarter, traded touchdowns with the Lancers in the third for a 20-14 lead and added its final marker in the fourth stanza.

L'Anse shocked the Captains on the opening kickoff when quarterback Randy McConnell fielded the boot on his 11-yard line and raced 89 yards for the TD. Jeff Plonka's PAT run made it 7-0.

* * *

The Captains pulled within a point, 7-6, at 3:13 of the opening period on quarterback Mike Shipman's only pass completion of the afternoon.

On third down at the Lancer 35, Nutter slipped behind the secondary and hauled in a pitch from Shipman for the six-pointer.

Late in the quarter, defensive guard Ken McLean blocked a Lancer punt and fell on the ball at the L'Anse six-yard marker.

Haviland bucked over from the three two plays later and Ron Prince added his first of three PATs for a 13-7 lead.

A bobbled punt set up the Captains' third score in the third quarter.

* * *

Kettering covered the bobble on the Lancer 37 and on the first play, Nutter scooted around right end for the score.

McConnell took the Lancers in after a 71-yard march midway in the third. He ate up most of the yardage with tosses of 21 yards to Mike Davenport and 34 to Ron Arschene, the second giving the team a first down at Kettering's 14.

Halfback Dick Skelton ripped off five yards to the eight and went up the middle on the next play for the six points.

Nutter found himself alone again at 6:59 of the final period and turned right end for 45 yards and TD.

Skippers Sink Bathers, 14-12

A solid defensive effort combined with the passing of quarterback Rick Ziem assured Waterford of a winning season last night.

The Skippers slipped past Mt. Clemens, 14-12, as Dave Farris successfully booted two extra points. Mt. Clemens made the final score close with a touchdown in the last five seconds.

* * *

Farmington ripped Roseville, 32-19, yesterday afternoon to give the Inter-Lakes three wins in four games with Eastern Michigan League foes.

Walled Lake downed East Detroit, but Pontiac Northern was dumped by EML champion Port Huron.

Waterford now has a 5-1-1 overall record with two games remaining. Mt. Clemens is 2-4-1.

Tackle Tom Taffe, playing heads up football for the second straight week, pounced on a Mt. Clemens fumble at the Bathers 21 to set up Waterford's first touchdown in the second quarter.

TOUCHDOWN PASS

Ziem passed eight yards to Tom Hoke for the six-pointer.

Bob Harvey had given Mt. Clemens a 6-0 first period lead on a 31-yard dive play.

The Skippers marched 65 yards in the third quarter. Ziem, who hit all 12 of his competions in a row during one stretch of the game, scored from the one foot line on fourth down.

Quarterback Dave Lockwood hit tackle eligible Bob Decker on a long scoring pass just before the game ended.

It was the second straight week that Farris' kicking had produced the margin of victory for the Skippers. Last week he also kicked two placements as Waterford tripped Farmington, 14-13.

"We stopped them five times with fourth and one," said winning coach Stu Thorell. "This should indicate how well our defense played."

* * *

Farmington and Roseville each scored 19 points in a wild second quarter, but the Falcons continued the explosion in the next period to add 13 more and gain their fourth win against three losses. Roseville is 2-4-1.

Roy Leach scored twice for Farmington in the second quarter on four and one yard bursts and picked up two more TDs in the third period from the three and six.

The other Farmington touchdown in the second period came on a 46-yard pass from Mike Wilson to Dick Johnson.

Leach was the game's leading rusher with 142 yards in 23 carries. He had been handicapped since the third game with injuries.

* * *

Jim Greiner on a four-yard run, Dan Provost on a 46-yard pass from Terry Noble and Doug Firoaz on a 11-yard spring scored for Roseville.

Wayne Johnston kicked two conversions for the Falcons while Provost scored the extra point for the Wildcats.

Tie Not Enough for Deckerville

North Branch Champ; Millington, Imlay Win

The South Central League showdown last night saw Deckerville tie North Branch, 7-7, but it wasn't enough to give the Eagles a share of the crown.

North Branch took the league laurels with a 3-0-1 log compared to Deckerville's 2-1-1. Both teams tallied in the second quarter.

The champion threatened several times in the final period and the tilt ended with it on Deckerville's three-yard-line.

Millington clinched a piece of third place by walloping Harbor Beach, 47-7. Imlay City — which still could tie the Cardinals — won a non-leaguer, 28-12, at Flint School for the Deaf.

Imlay counted three touchdowns in the second quarter. Dale Goodrich ran for one score and passed to Rick Bogart for two others.

A 72-yard scoring pass from Wayne Schmit to Randy Turnbull was Deckerville's only offensive threat against Harbor Beach.

CAPTAIN SLOWED — Kettering fullback Joe Duran is brought down after a short gain in Captains' win over L'Anse Creuse yesterday. Duran carried the ball 14 times and picked up 54 yards. Pulling him down is tackle Dick Olejar (41) Coming up to assist are tackle Walter Heatlie (44) and guard Paul Miller (42).

SAILS FOR CAPTAINS—Kettering's Pat Nutter heads for pay dirt on a 37-yard scamper in the third quarter yesterday in the Captains' 27-14 victory over L'Anse Creuse. Nutter scored three touchdowns. Trying to bring him down are Henry Ross (28) and Randy McConnell (20).

Groves Closes League Season With 4th Loss

Defending Northwest Suburban League football champion Birmingham Groves closed its loop season without a win yesterday afternoon as it lost to Oak Park, 27-7.

* * *

Only a two-yard scoring plunge late in the game by Mike Rafferty prevented the Falcons from being blanked by all four league foes this year.

The touchdown was Rafferty's first of the season. The loss consigned the Falcons to a losing season after last year's fine 5-1-1 mark. They are now 2-5 with two games left.

Oak Park regained its scoring touch following a two-game slump. The Redskins had started the year with four straight shutouts but then stumbled in league play.

Al Ravitz passed for one score to Jim Finn and ran 17 yards for another. Finn tallied twice on passes, going 67 with Ravitz's toss and 35 with one from Jack Speelman. Bob Singer also ran 58 yards to score.

The triumph clinched third third place for Oak Park.

RUNNING ROOM—Ken Holder (29) sets off on one of his frequent wide end sweeps for Troy in last night's 33-7 conquest of Rochester. Jeff Quandt (14) leads the way while Tony Szafranic (64) pursues the fleet Colt halfback. Troy clinched at least a share of the Oakland-A title with the victory. Included in one of Holder's jaunts was a 65-yarder for the Colts final touchdown. He also kicked three extra points. Avondale and Lake Orion were defeated and Cousino upset Fitzgerald in other league action. (Story on Page B-8).

Royal Oak Stumbles in Tie With Maples

Berkley and Ferndale rolled up impressive victories but Birmingham Seaholm knocked Royal Oak Kimball out of a title share as the Southeastern Michigan Association closed its first football race Friday.

* * *

Ferndale romped over Hazel Park, 34-6, and Berkley trimmed Southfield, 41-6, to deadlock for the crown with 4-1 marks. Kimball rallied to tie Seaholm, 13-13, and finish 3-1-1.

Seaholm led 13-6 after Howard Dubin went over from the one-yard-line, culminating 60-yard march with 67 seconds left in the game.

But a pass interference penalty at the Maples' six-yard-line gave Kimball a final chance and John Beumann powered over with 17 seconds to go. Ron Hare's kick tied the score.

Birmingham now is 3-3-1 but only 1-3-1 in the SEMA.

TWIN SCORERS

Bruce Pettigrew and Terry Myers scored twice each for Ferndale as the Eagles pushed their mark to 5-1-1 over-all.

The winners led 13-0 at halftime and wrapped up the verdict with three fourth-period tallies. Myers went 21 and 26 for his scores while Pettigrew scored on short plunges.

* * *

Rick Krumm threw four scoring passes for Berkley. The Bears are 5-2 on the season. They led Southfield, 27-0, at intermission.

Jim Prince caught one pass for a 34-yard score, ran for another touchdown and kicked a PAT. Ken VanLoon also caught a pass and kicked four conversions. Jerry Borcland and Bill Spurgeon also caught scoring aerials.

Vikings Record Sixth Straight

There was nothing unusual about the grinding and thumping coming from the Walled Lake High school football stadium last night.

The Vikings, as usual were grinding out points. The thumping noises were East Detroit backs futilly trying to move the ball against the strong Walled Lake defense.

The 27-0 victory was the the sixth straight for Inter-Lakes kingpin. One of the earlier victims was Berkley, co-champion of the Southeastern Michigan Association. The Vikings lost their opening game.

East Detroit, runnerup in the Eastern Michigan League, never penetrated the Walled Lake 40. The losers collected only three first downs, 44 yards rushing and 20 passing.

Walled Lake, mixing in passes with its strong running game, took a 14-0 first half lead and then wrapped up the verdict with two fourth quarter TDs.

STOP RUNNER

Greg Giglio gained 113 yards in 21 carries and scored one touchdown to spark the Vikings' attack.

Walled Lake wasted no time scoring enough points to win. The Vikings chalked up a touchdown the first time they had the ball.

After pinning the Shamrocks deep in their own territory, Walled Lake took possession on the East Detroit 35 after a punt.

Terry Lehman hit Pat Godfrey with a 34-yard pass to the visitors' one. On the next play, Ken Lewis powered over.

Walled Lake scored again just before the half. Russ Streeter picked off an East Detroit pass to trigger a 72-yard march that took 11 plays. Lehman passed six yards to Charles Williams for the touchdown.

* * *

Al Becker's interception set up the third touchdown in the fourth quarter. The Vikings took control on the EDHS 35 and Giglio ran 29 yards to the six. Moments later he bucked across from the one.

Steve Fogle climaxed a 77-yard march by plunging one yard with seven seconds left in the game. An 18-yard carry by Lehman was the big play in the drive.

East Detroit now has a 3-4 overall record.

Flint's Indians Ambush Wolves for SVC Lead

Flint Central was just too quick for Bay City Central Friday night as three big plays carried the Indians to a 21-6 Saginaw Valley Conference showdown victory.

The win put Flint alone atop the standings and handed the Wolves their first setback. A rugged Flint defensive wall held Bay City to four yards on the ground.

The two teams battled 0-0 for most of the first half; but Lewis Patton got loose for a 60-yard touchdown run on a Statue of Liberty play with 2:44 remaining.

Then three seconds before intermission, SVC scoring leader George Hoey broke off tackle for a 53-yard paydirt jaunt.

Just after the second half kickoff, Patton matched Hoey's run and Tom Peek's third PAT kick ended the Flint scoring. Bay City tallied in the closing minutes of the tilt.

LATE TALLY

Flint Northern won at Bay City Handy, 12-6, on a 98-yard run by Dave Mitchell with 58 seconds left in the game. The Vikings had just recovered a fumble at their own two. Mitchell also scored earlier.

Idle Pontiac Central's next opponent, Flint Southwestern, yielded touchdowns to Saginaw the first three times the Trojans had the ball, suffering a 20-6 loss. Bob Markey tallied two of the six-pointers.

Huskies Growl But Suffer 6th Defeat 27-14

Port Huron Pulls Away in Second Half; Long Run by Samuilow

Special to The Pontiac Press

PORT HURON — The football season grew a little longer for Pontiac Northern last night, but the Huskies managed a few strong growls before bowing, 27-14, to Port Huron.

The setback was the sixth straight for the Huskies after an opening game win. For the first time this season, however, they managed to puncture an opponents' goal more than once.

* * *

PNH battled the Big Reds even until midway in the third quarter.

Port Huron took charge at that point by breaking a 14-14 tie and later added an insurance TD.

Port Huron, champion of the Eastern Michigan League, evened its record at 3-3-1.

Triggered by a 50-yard kickoff return by Denny Herrick to the PNH 18, the Big Reds scored on the game's first series. Bod Wedge ran over from the three.

Northern tied the game 7-all early in the second quarter on a 54-yard march.

KEY PLAY

The big play was a 26-yard pass from quarterback Bill Curtis to halfback Mike Samuilow on a third and 13 situation. Mike Woodruff pounded over from the one to cap the march.

Tim Jones intercepted a Northern pass on the Huskies' 48 and Port Huron scored in two plays. Quarterback Jack Morris passed 17 yards to end Dick Johnson and then hit Herrick with a 31-yard scoring aerial to earn Port Huron a 14-7 halftime lead.

Port Huron partially blocked a PNH punt early in the third period, but the play backfired on the Big Reds. Jim McMillan of the host school came up with the loose ball. He in turn fumbled and PNH recovered.

Samuilow promptly swept around left end and ran 40 yards for the touchdown.

On the first play after the kickoff, Wedge galloped 47 yards to the PNH 13. Six plays later he powered across from the one. The final PHHS tally was recorded in the fourth period on a 72-yard march with Morris carrying the final 13 yards.

Smaller Ortonville Overpowered, 44-0

Ortonville gave way height, weight and touchdowns to Lake Fenton in taking a 44-0 lacing last night.

The Black Hawks played a fine defensive first half, allowing 12 points in the second period, but the bigger Fenton team was overpowering in the final stanzas.

Dennis Lutz scored on runs of six and seven yards, Dave Lemere scored twice on a 65-yard run and a recovered fumble in the end zone.

Ortonville could not get past mid-field in the second half.

Clarkston, Lakers Rally Victims

Milford, Holly Win in Big Way

By JERE CRAIG

The point totals for Milford and Holly continued to grown handsomely Friday night in the Wayne-Oakland League race and time is now all in the former's favor.

Milford clinched a share of the W-O crown with a 42-0 sprint past Bloomfield Hills; Holly stayed alive by drubbing Clarenceville, 54-13.

Clarkston and West Bloomfield both suffered discouraging 20-14 losses in the closing minutes at Brighton and Northville, respectively.

Aerial rockets went off before the game; but Milford's explosive ground attack proved the undoing of Bloomfield Hills.

After being stalled on its two first drives, the speedy Redskins struck suddenly. All-County halfback candidate Jim Ward broke off left tackle for 54 yards and a score.

Ward's nin -yard end sweep in the second quarter led to a 14-0 halftime margin. This total was matched in each of the last two quarters as Milford runners continually sped away from Baron tacklers.

John Kasper and Mike Yeager went over on 16 and 34-yard dashes, respectively, in the third period; and Kasper (10-yard sweep) scored again in the fourth.

Ward's third touchdown came on an excellently executed screen pass play that covered 37 yards behind splendid blocking.

The blocking of Kurt Achenbach and Jack Ward was very efficient all night. The latter also booted six extra points in six attempts.

The winners' defensive line, led by linebacker Jim McFarland, made the Hills' running game very ineffective. The Barons kept the ball for more than four scrimmage plays only twice.

MATCHING

At Holly, Perry Leib matched Jack Wards' six conversions, Mark Phalen and Jim Starr each duplicated Jim Ward's three touchdown running, and the defensive line was even more impressive.

* * *

Holly scored three touchdowns in each of the first two quarters and added two more in the third. However, Clarenceville's Jim Bedson made the night's most exciting touchdown—an 85-yard kickoff return following the first Holly score.

But running plays netted the losers' only 10 yards as linemen Chuck Rossel, Bill Elliot and Starr spent much time in the Trojans' backfield.

West Bloomfield fell behind late in the first quarter at Northville, but quickly went ahead with an 83-yard drive culminated by Greg Hepinstall's two-lard sweep.

Following the second half kickoff, fullback Jay Williams raced 52 yards to the Mustangs' eight, and West Bloomfield's Bruce Ferguson went over on the next play.

Later in the third quarter the Lakers gambled and lost on fourth down at their own 36. Northville went in to paydirt with Quarterback Tom Baughman sneaking the last two yards.

* * *

Late in the fourth period, Northville drove to the Lakers' 10, lost the ball on a fumble, then recovered a West Bloomfield fumble at the 26.

Doug Swiss scored on the first play to grab the decision for the Mustangs and put them alone in third place with 4-2.

The story was much the same at Brighton. Visiting Clarkston moved the ball at will except when near the goalline.

Two short touchdown plunges by Randy Armstrong had the Wolves up, 14-6, entering the last session. But Mike Fournier scored his second five-yard six-pointer for Brighton to cut the gap.

Then with time running out, Doug Zimmerman shook loose on a 65-yard scoring jaunt that changed the verdict.

* * *

The victory pushed Brighton into a fifth place tie at 2-4 with West Bloomfield and left Clarkston and C'ville deadlocked for seventh at 1-5.

Milford can win the title at the latter's field next week.

Troy Whips Falcons in O-A

Clinches Share of Circuit Title

Fitzgerald Dropped; Avondale, Orion Fall

By HERB PETERS

Troy clinched at least a share of the Oakland-A Conference championship last night by walloping Rochester, 33-7, as both the Falcons and Warren Fitzgerald fell from contention.

Warren Cousino sidetracked the defending champion Spartans with a 19-12 upset in their cross-town rivalry.

Clawson whitewashed Avondale, 32-0, and Madison blanked Lake Orion, 25-0, to keep their slim hopes for a title-tie alive with 4-2 records.

Only an unexpected collapse at Lake Orion next Friday can prevent the once-beaten Colts from claiming the title outright, and the awesome power displayed in their Homecoming fray makes that unlikely.

They rushed for 357 yards, mainly on the running of Jeff Quandt (152) and Ken Holder (128), while wrapping up their fifth win with a 20-point second period blitz.

Quandt, a shifty little fullback, scampered to the first two touchdowns on runs of 26 and four yards. Then quarterback Phil Ciesliga surprised the Falcons with a 16-yare bolt up the middle.

After George Lenivov went four yards for a third quarter TD, Rochester scored on a nine-yard burst by Al Boughner. Ken Holder wound up matters with a 60-yard run from a fake punt formation in the final 45 seconds.

COMES BACK

Ken. Mooney gave Fitzgerald a first period TD with a 52-yard gallop, but Cousino came back in the second for a 13-6 halftime lead.

Nick Guitar passed 24 yards to Len Norkiewicz for one touchdown, and Jess Moore plunged three yards to put Cousino ahead to stay.

Jim Knack's one-yard sneak in the third cut the deficit to one point, but Moore crashed over from the one in the fourth to make things secure for the Patriots, who evened their record at 3-3. The loss dropped Fitzgerald down with Rochester at 3-2-1.

Clawson scored in every period as Avondale dipped to 1-5. Jerry Ganey went over twice on five-yard runs and Terry Maznio on a 10-yarder in the first three stanzas.

Pass interception runbacks of 80 yards by Mark Babich and 20 by Larry Cornell accounted for the Trojans' fourth period tallies.

Lloyd Hood's four-touchdown spree sparked Madison's rout of winless Lake Orion. The Eagles fullback completed three drives with short plunges following a scoreless first period and then raced 22 yards for his fourth TD in the final period. Hood set the pace after a 6-0 first half.

Dryden, Anchor Bay Knotted in Thumb

Dryden experienced Friday the first phase of the near-miracle needed to give it the Southern Thumb Football League title.

Entering the final two league games of the season in a four-way tie, the Cardinals drubbed Armada as Tom Sterner went over four times, 27-7, and today find the tie cut in half.

* * *

Only Anchor Bay remains deadlocked with them at 5-1. The New Baltimore team ripped winless Capac, 43-7. Almont and New Haven practically eliminated themselves by tying, 20-20.

The fourth loop contest saw Brown City rip Memphis, 42-12.

Dryden now has only once-victorious Memphis between it and at least part of the championship. The Cardinals could take it all should New Haven dump Anchor Bay next Friday.

Sterner gained 165 yards rushing against Armada. The tricky senior quarterback scored on runs of 6, 15, 70 and 20. End Dennis Hilliker kicked three PATs.

* * *

The winners led, 20-6, at halftime.

BIG PERIODS

At New Haven, the host Rockets punched across three six-pointers plus two conversions in the second period for a 20-0 halftime margin.

Cliff Duncan ran for 14 of the markers, and Rich Chennault connected with Gordon lee for the other six.

Almont, however, roared back the first three times it had the ball in the final half. Ken Schulte ran 48, Harry Hoffner went 26 and added two PATs, and Larry Milliken closed the scoring on a 10-yard burst.

Tom Stanek was the big gun in Anchor Bay's lopsided victory. The Tars' flashy back gained 164 yards in 17 tries, scoring three six-pointers. He ran 4, 11 and 61 to score.

* * *

Larry Kandler also went over twice (8 and 4); and Joe Roland (3) and Buster Lentine (2) tallied on two other runs.

Capac's only touchdown came on a short run by Jerry Bullock. Al Kobayashi kicked the point.

OOPS GOES A TD — Rochester's Al Boughner failed to hang onto this pass from Sandy Sutton in open field and muffed an excellent chance for a touchdown. Such scoring opportunities were limited in the Falcons' loss to Troy last night.

Emmanuel Christian Rallies for 6-6 Tie

By FLETCHER SPEARS

Emmanuel Christian turned a fake punt into a touchdown last night with 1:25 remaining in the game to earn a 6-6 deadlock with Hamtramck Immaculate Conception.

Part of the Emmanuel Homecoming crowd had started filing toward the exits when the Lancers found themselves in a fourth-and-15 yards to go situation on their own 35-yard line.

The clock was approaching the 1:40 mark when quarterback Tim Mayer stepped back into punt formation.

Mayer grabbed the snap and lofted the ball to halfback Paul Lenker in the left flat.

The speedy Lenker hauled in the toss and danced down the sideline for the score. The visiting Bengals stopped the PAT attempt at the one-yard line.

Emmanuel had a chance to win the tilt with 54 seconds remaining.

The Lancers stopped the Bengals at their own 24-yard line and took over at the visitors' 37 after a 13-yard punt.

But a run resulted in a five-yard loss and three passes fell incomplete.

TAKE LEAD

The visitors went out in front in the second quarter on a one-yard plunge by Peter Bilyk that climaxed a 37-yard drive. The Bengals had taken over at the 37 after recovering a Lancer fumble.

Emmanuel had three scoring opportunities in the opening half.

The team moved to the Bengals' 10 in the first quarter before losing the ball on downs, and lost the ball again on downs at the 27, midway in the second quarter.

With time running out in the half, Mayer moved the Lancers from their own 37 to the Bengals' two-yard stripe, but the drive died when junior fullback Ron Morgan was dropped short of the goal as time ran out.

Mayer kept the team moving well on the ground and in the air.

He connected on eight of 17 passes for 142 yards and the ground attack netted 116 more.

BOO! I'LL GET YOU — Defensive back John Allen of Emmanuel Christian wasn't trying to scare Immaculate Conception quarterback Steve Stasyk (15) with his Halloween-like appearance but he did move in for the tackle. The Shamrocks will visit the Lola Valley Junior High School in Detroit for a 2:30 p.m. encounter with rugged St. Agatha. The two will close their Northwest Catholic League play.

St. Agatha must win to tie OLSM for first place while St. Mike needs a win to stay in contention for part of the third spot.

The Mikemen will need help, too, from Royal Oak St. Mary which visits defending champion Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows. The Irish must tie or win over FOLS to prevent the Lancers from clinching third place outright.

Two interesting parochial games are on tonight's card. St. Frederick will entertain Waterford Our Lady of Lakes at 8 p.m. under the lights of Wisner Stadium in a traditional tilt.

AFL's Leader Levies Fines

NEW YORK (AP) — Ernie Ladd, San Diego's huge defensive tackle, and veteran Houston quarterback George Blanda have been slapped with the heaviest fines levied against players in the five-year history of the American Football League.

* * *

Commissioner Joe Foss handed down the fines Friday for "actions detrimental to the best interests of the American Football League" in last Sunday's Houston-San Diego game. Foss also warned that further infractions would draw stiffer penalties.

Foss, who said the fines were the largest against players in the league's history, declined to announce the amount.

The New York Daily News, however, said it had learned that Ladd's fine was $500 and Blanda's $250.

OFFICIAL CALL

The commissioner said Ladd was fined for striking Houston's defensive tackle, Ed Hausmann, with a helmet during Sunday's heated game at Houston in which the Chargers held on for a 20-17 victory.

Blanda was fined for some outspoken comments about the official call on his field goal attempt in the closing seconds of the game. Officials ruled that Blanda's kick went wide.

"If a player, coach or club official has a legitimate complaint about game officiating, the place for him to file it is with the commissioner's office," said Foss.

* * *

Blanda said after the game that the officials who were in charge were "the worst in the league."

"I'll guarantee you the ball went through," he went on. "Sure, it drifted off to the right after it crossed, but that's not what counts. It was good when it went over. I'm no cry baby, but we got this one stolen from us."

Ladd was banished just before halftime in the game when a fight broke out and brought a half dozen players from each side into the fracas.

* * *

A San Diego spokesman quoted the 6-foot-9, 320-pound Ladd as saying it all started when John Wittenborn of the Oilers hit Ladd when he was down.

Whittenborn denied it and gave this account of what occured:

"Husmann lost his helmet and Ladd grabbed it and jumped on Ed and started beating him over the head with it."

* * *

Wittenborn then said that Houston tackle Bud McFaddin tried to cover Husmann's head with his bare hands "to keep Ladd from caving it in."

British Wary About Taking 'Free' Manor

LONDON (AP) — Britain's hard-up track and field officials hesitated Friday over accepting the gift of a $18,000 country house and estate as an Olympic training center.

The house is Timbury Manor in Hampshire. The British Olympic team trained there for 10 days before going to Tokyo last month.

* * *

Oliver Cutts, 44-year-old gasoline magnate, offered Timbury Major as a gift to British athletics. He said he would give it either to the official British Amateur Athletic Association or to the International Athletes' Club, which is run by British track and field stars.

But the estate costs $14,000 a year to maintain. Neither body has much money.

Sharp Final Round Earns Nicklaus Tie

SYDNEY (AP)— Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio, was three strokes behind the leader with eight Australians in front of him at the halfway mark Friday of the 72 hole Australian Open Gold Championship.

Nicklaus was plagued with putting trouble on wet greens. He had a one-under-par 71 for a two round total of 146.

John Sullivan of Adelaide held the lead with a second round 73 and a total of 143.

South African Cobie LeGrange, who won the big tournament in Melbourne last week failed to qualify among the top 50 to play the final two rounds Saturday. He missed the cut-off mark of 153 by one stroke.

Miami Nips Titans, 10-7

DETROIT — A stern defense by the University of Detroit could not overcome the anemic offense the Titans had in trying to gain a win over the University of Miami.

The Hurricanes from Florida were rebuffed six times inside Detroit's 20 yard line and finally in the third period a pass from Bob Bilentnioff to Fred Brown gave Miami a 10-7 victory.

U. of D. scored first on a 65 yard drive in the first quarter with fullback Danny Hacket going over from the three and Tony Richardson adding the point.

Both teams utilized a large number of sophomores and the visitors tightened their defense so as not to allow the Titans past their own 41 in the last three quarters.

In the second period Don Cifra booted a 37 yard field goal after missing a 52 yard attempt earlier. He later missed another from the 26 yard line.

The Titans put themselves into a bad stop on the opening kickoff of the second when the two deep men bumped and lost the ball. Miami recovered and took over on the 19.

★ ★ ★

U. of D. led by 6-minute end Tom Beer set the Hurricanes back to their own 32 and took over the ball.

Quarterback Ron Bishop however couldnot get the team moving and U. of D. had to punt from deep in its own territory following a 15 yard penalty.

STOPPED TWICE

The Hurricanes moved in twice but the missed field goal and an intercepted pass stopped both threats before Art Zachary intercepted a Bishop pass to set up the winning tally in the third quarter.

★ ★ ★

They drove to the Detroit eight and scored on the pass to Brown. In the final six minutes the Titans started to move twice but both times long passes were intercepted to stop the threats.

Detroit now stands 2-5 for the season and the Hurricanes are 1-4-2 and this is the first win in 10 games for Miami since last year.

Steeler Gains Armor

PITTSBURGH (AP)— Linebacker Myron Pottios, who has been out of action with a broken arm, has been put back on the active roster of the Pittsburgh Steelers and may play Sunday against Cleveland, the Steelers said Friday.

'Elimination' Game Faces Lions-Rams

The magic number of contenders for the Baltimore Colts in the Western Division Conference of the NFL may be cut to one Sunday as the LA Rams and Detroit Lions play an "ouster" battle at Tiger Stadium.

★ ★ ★

The Rams and Lions are tied with 4-2-1 records, each standing one and a half games behind the Colts who are 6-1. Ties do not count in the actual standings.

The loser Sunday would narrow its chances down to mathematical possibilities as the Colts are expected to run over the San Francisco 49ers in Baltimore Sunday.

The Lions are hurting with several key injuries including Milt Plum's ailing elbow and the Rams are expected to be keyed up for the game after their big 27-17 win over Green Bay last week.

Six rookies will be in the game for the Rams and Roman Gabriel will start at quarterback for the coast team.

★ ★ ★

In other NFL games, Cleveland will be favored to avenge its lone loss at the hands of the Steelers. The game is in Pittsburgh and the Browns, now holding first place all alone in the Eastern Conference will be ready for the Steelers this time.

The Green Bay Packers are favored also to avenge a 21-20 loss they suffered at the hands of the Minnesota Vikings, and the Chicago Bears, hit with a host of sick players because of intestinal virus will meet the Dallas Cowboys in Chicago.

Washington is at Philadelphia and St. Louis plays at New York in other games.

★ ★ ★

Baltimore may have kicking troubles in view of the fine and discipline levied against veteran Lou Michaels yesterday.

Michaels was out after curfew and was involved in an auto accident suffering bruised ribs.

AFL GAMES

In the American Football League, the Buffalo Bills, only unbeaten team in the league goes after its 8th straight against Houston while the Boston Patriots battle the New York Jets for runnerup honors in the Eastern Division.

With Al Davis hitting his peak for Oakland last week, the Raiders may be ready to score another upset, this time against the San Diego Chargers, while Kansas City and Denver meet in the other game in the circuit.

MY NAME'S BIMBO — A yearling buck deer took over the family room at the Ralph Wright home on Lake Sherwood Wednesday and in the process made friends with the family cat. It turned out that the deer's name is Bimbo. A Detroit family raised the deer from last spring until it was picked up by the Conservation Department and released in Oakland County. Bimbo was more interested in the cat than he was in going outside of the house.

Deer Drops in for Dinner

Young Bimbo 'Right at Home'

Bimbo has been returned to the environment in whch he was born. Will he stay there or will he once again seek out the luxuries of the civilized world?

Conservation officers are hoping the yearling buck deer decides to stay with his own kind. The young whitetail is making his third start in the wilds — at last report.

★ ★ ★

"We hope he starts acting like a deer should," said Herb Chambers, assistant manager of the Proud Lake recreation area. "Right now, he is down at the nature park — we think he is —where the school children take field trips."

"He comes and goes."

Bimbo was born early last spring near Cadillac. He was plucked from the woods by a local resident who turned the fawn over to a man from Detroit. The deer spent the summer and early fall as a family pet.

According to state law, a permit is needed to keep a wild animal in captivity. And these are difficult to obtain.

Bimbo's guardians had no permit and eventually the conservation department learned of his whereabouts. The deer was picked up last Monday and released in the Proud Lake area.

★ ★ ★

The buck, with nubbins starting to form between his ears, apparently didn't take to batching it in the woods. Wednesday morning he created a stir at Lake Sherwood in Commerce Township.

PATIO SCENE

"My neighbor, who lives three doors down, phoned me and said there was a deer standing on the patio of her home," reported Mrs. Ralph Wright, 4799 Surfwood.

"I went over to see the deer," she continued.

Mrs. Fred Draheim, 4781 Surfwood, was standing near the patio when joined by Mrs. Wright.

"The deer started running toward us and we ran behind a tree," Mrs. Wright related. "He was a little deer and just stood there watching us."

The two women tried coaxing the deer closer. Bimbo responded.

"We started walking slowing toward my house," said Mrs. Wright, "and the deer followed us."

Bimbo followed the women right through the double glass doors and into the Wrights' family room where he preceded to make himself at home.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Draheim said she first saw the deer at "about ten to nine."

Bimbo spent the day dining on apples and lounging around the family room. He didn't object to being petted and made friends with the Wrights' cat.

Mrs. Wright called conservation officers at Proud Lake and learned about the background of the deer and that its name was Bimbo.

"I understand he had the run of the neighborhood in Detroit and a pool to swim in," said Mrs. Wright.

Bimbol who still carries faint traces of brown fawn spots in two lines on his back, was picked up for the second time by conservation officers and returned to a much larger neighborhood.

★ ★ ★

He now has thousands of acres at his disposal and numerous lakes instead of a pool where he can go for a swim.

Officers hope Bimbo takes a liking to his new surroundings.

Communists Most Powerful Single Force in New Sudanese Government

KHARTOUM, Sudan (AP) — Communists have emerged as the most powerful single force in the Sudanese civilian government which took office today, closing the books on six years of military rule.

Ahead was the task of restoring order swept aside during 10 days of rioting in which mobs were cut down by waves of machine-gun fire from turreted armored cars and scattered by volleys of tear gas bombs.

* * *

At least 30 persons were killed and more than 200 wounded.

The rioting students and workers forced President Ibrahim Abboud, who with seven other generals took power in a bloodless military coup six years ago, to capitulate.

ARMY COMMAND

Abboud managed to retain command of the army and the title of president, but technically he is stripped of most executive power.

The new prime minister, El Khatem Khalifa, 40, and his cabinet, met Friday night and pledged that they would begin work as "good civil servants" immediately after the swearing-in this morning by Abboud.

OPEN ROLE

Khalifa's cabinet includes all political tendencies but the Communists had disproportionate power and an open role in government for the first time.

They achieved this position by successfully infiltrating labor and professional groups. Moderate Sudanese tend to discount the Communist representation, however, claiming it will be short-lived and counterbalanced by moderates and the extreme Moslem brotherhood members in the cabinet.

* * *

Khalifa retained for himself the defense ministry, held formerly by Abboud, and gave the interior ministry to politically independent Clement Mboro. The foreign ministry went to old time politician Mohamed Ahmeed Magjoub, who held the post before the military take-over in 1958.

Khalifa, a former deputy undersecretary in the education ministry, named three Communists to the 15-man cabinet Friday morning, and a fourth Communist Friday night. The fourth was Shafei Ahmed Sheikh, appointed labor minister. Sheikh spent nine years in prison and only recently emerged. He is secretary of the General Sudan Worker Federation.

OTHER THREE

The other three Communists are Ahmed Soleiman, 43, a lawyer imprisoned for several months for publicly criticizing Abboud's regime; Abdine Ismail, head of a lawyer's syndicate and former assistant attorney general; and Elamin Mohamed Elamin, 52, head of a farmers' association that embarrassed the military regime by calling a strike of cotton pickers this year.

* * *

It remains to be seen whether the senior army generals, under house arrest, will remain peacefully in the background.

Younger officers, who directed the withering bursts of gunfire that routed demonstrators from Khartoum's streets, demonstrated that the army is still a power in the country.

Khalifa has announced the end to martial law and pledged liberty, freedom of speech, press and public assembly. His government is pledged to an anti-imperialist, nonaligned foreign policy.

FREE ELECTIONS

He termed his government temporary, promising the people free parliamentary elections not later than next March. Parliament would draw up a permanent constitution to be followed by formation of a constitutional government.

Trouble which eventually toppled Abboud's regime began Oct. 20 when police broke up a student meeting in Khartoum University, called to discuss a rebellion in the southern Sudan.

* * *

Students refused to disperse and several stone-throwing fights followed. Police then opened fire, killing one student and wounding several others.

The student's funeral, the next day, brought demonstrations throughout Khartoum and its two adjoining cities, North Khartoum and Omdurman.

VIOLENCE CONTINUES

Police were not expecting an outbreak of such dimensions and were unable to cope with the situation. Abboud reinforced the police with army units but the violence continued.

Wednesday morning, the mobs charged across the area where in the late 1800s the Sudanese cut down the English and Egyptian garrison of Gen. Charles George Gordon. Armored cars opened fire killing 15 demonstrators.

* * *

A short time later, Abboud announced he was bringing an end to the military regime. The "national front," formed of all the opposition parties, was called in the next day to form a civilian government.

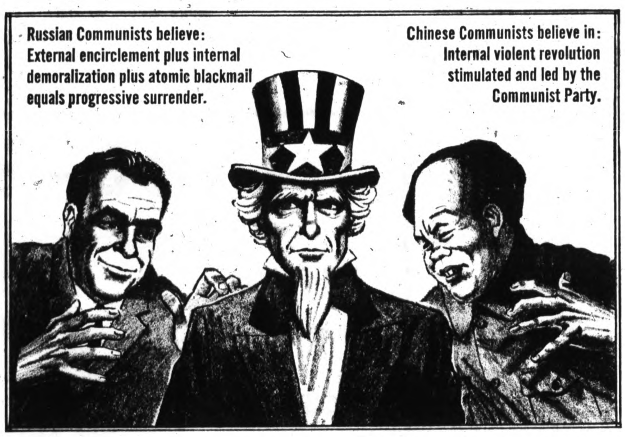
What is the argument between the Russian and Chinese Communists all about?



Russian Communists believe:
External encirclement plus internal demoralization plus atomic blackmail equals progressive surrender.
Chinese Communists believe in:
Internal violent revolution stimulated and led by the Communist Party.

Reduced to essentials, the Russians and Chinese disagree about one thing—what is the quickest and surest way to conquer the United States.

AREAS OF AGREEMENT

There are many more points of agreement between the Russian and Chinese Communists than there are points of disagreement. Both agree on the following:

1. The United States of America is the source of most of the evil in the world and must be destroyed. Both concurred in this definition of the United States which was signed by 81 Communist Parties of the World: "the greatest international exploiter, the center of world reaction, the chief bulwark of modern colonialism, the international gendarme, the main force of aggression and war, and the enemy of the world."
2. The International Communist Movement is the instrument to accomplish this destruction of America.
3. The program by which this destruction is to be carried out is called "Peaceful Coexistence." Both define this as conquest without thermonuclear war.

AREAS OF DISAGREEMENT

The Russians and Chinese disagree over the best methods to follow under the title of peaceful coexistence. The Russian Communists believe that the formula of conquest is—external encirclement plus internal demoralization equals progressive surrender. The Chinese Communists believe the best method is—internal violent revolution stimulated and led by the Communist Party concentrating upon minority groups, the unemployed workers, and the disgruntled intellectuals.

RUSSIAN———CHINESE

COMMUNIST POLICY FOR U.S. CONQUEST

RUSSIAN

To carry out their policy, the Russian Communists believe that they should:

1. Encourage wars of "national liberation" in Asia, Africa, and Latin America.
2. Neutralize Western Europe.
3. Demoralize and isolate the United States.

Conquest would then come about through a series of "accommodations" with the external encircling, blackmailing communist-dominated world power. They desire a government in power in the U.S. that will agree to these "Accommodations."

CHINESE

The Chinese Communists believe that the conquest of the United States is primarily the responsibility of the American Communists and the American people. From Marxist-Leninist doctrine they believe that a majority of the American people are in a state of potential rebellion against the capitalist system and the government and that a courageous and dedicated communist minority can ignite and lead this revolutionary explosion.

POLICY WITHIN AMERICA

RUSSIAN

The official American Communist Party under the leadership of Gus Hall is an obedient servant of the Russian Communists. In accord with Russian strategy, their policy is:

1. Build an image of law abiding respectability for U.S. and Russian communists.
2. Create the image of a phony fascist danger in the United States growing out of an alleged ultra-right conspiracy.
3. Focus the energies of the party on this alleged ultra-right conspiracy by a vicious attack on Senator Barry Goldwater.
4. Give qualified support to programs of the present administration.
5. Infiltrate and influence the Civil Rights movement but keep within its mainstream by supporting the established Civil Rights leaders and organizations.

CHINESE

Those communists in America under the influence of the Chinese Communists advocate the following policies:

1. The communists should proclaim their role as revolutionary leaders and seek to inspire and lead others to acts of revolutionary violence.
2. The attacks should be focused on the party in power.
3. They teach there is no real difference between the nature of the two parties and they have no choice between Senator Goldwater and President Johnson. Their attitude is, "A plague on both your houses."
4. Communists should lead independent Civil Rights groups in open violent rebellion.

THERMONUCLEAR WAR DIFFERENCES

On the record, the Russian Communists have shown greater thermonuclear adventurism. It was the Russian Communists who placed the missiles in Cuba and brought the world to the brink of thermonuclear destruction. The Chinese Communists did not reprove them for removing the missiles but for putting them there. They claimed this was a departure from fundamental communist principles. The official Chinese Communist statement on the question of missiles in Cuba is as follows:

"The Communist Party of China and the Chinese people have always maintained that the course of history is decided by the great strength of the masses of the people and not by any weapons. On more than one occasion we have made it clear that we neither called for the establishment of missile bases in Cuba nor obstructed the withdrawal of the so-called 'offensive weapons' from Cuba. WE HAVE NEVER CONSIDERED THAT IT WAS A MARXIST-LENINIST ATTITUDE TO BRANDISH NUCLEAR WEAPONS AS A WAY OF SETTLING INTERNATIONAL DISPUTES. Nor have we ever considered that the avoidance of a thermonuclear war in the Caribbean crisis was a 'Munich.'"

THE GREATER PERIL

Both forms of communist strategy are evil and dangerous. When communists, following the advice of the Chinese, lead violent mobs to arson, murder and pillage on the streets, the American people become aroused. Nevertheless, the greater threat to the continued existence of a free America comes from the subtle, clever, integrated program of Russian communism. If concern is focused on the obvious Chinese Communist activities, while the Russian Communist strategy continues without recognition or opposition, the communists will have won a great and possibly a decisive victory. You are just as dead if you are strangled slowly as if you are shot or stabbed.

New England Police Fear Teen Fights

CONCORD, N. H. (UPI)—Four New England communities today were threatened with Halloween "rumbles" by teenagers.

Police feared that riots may be triggered during or after high school football games today when thousands of teen-agers will be crowded together in close quarters.

Extra police kept an around the clock guard at Concord, Claremont and Plaistow, N.H., and in Haverhill, Mass. The new Hampshire National Guard was on a standby alert.

Police in each of these communities reported "all quiet" throughout the night. No disturbances broke out. They kept a close watch on teen-age hangouts but saw no unusual activity.

Groups of teen-agers were broken up quickly. Suspicious persons were questioned and their names recorded.

CLERGYMAN CORPS

Priests, ministers and rabbis banded together in a clergyman's corps in Haverhill. They rode in police cruisers to urge groups of youngsters to disperse. They were on call if any disturbance broke out.

Riot-trained police, armed with three-foot-long night sticks, took the place of laughing, costumed children in the communities. Traditional Halloween parties and door-to-door "trick or treat" marches were called off.

California: GOP Necessity, Dem 'Bonus'

(EDITOR'S NOTE: California, with 40 electoral votes, is one of four states Republican nominee Barry Goldwater says he must carry. But polls show President Johnson substantially ahead.)

By ROB WOOD

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—California, rich in electoral votes and flexible in its political loyalty, has become a Republican necessity and a Democratic prestige factor in the 1964 presidential election.

GOP candidate Barry Goldwater has tagged California as one of four states he must carry in November to win the presidency. The others are Ohio, Illinois and Texas.

★ ★ ★

President Johnson wants California, the most populous state in the nation, removed from the Republican column where it has rested since 1952.

Most Democrats say privately they believe Johnson can win the election without California.

DEM LANDSLIDE

But the President has called for a Democratic landslide, far above the minimum 270 electoral votes needed for victory.

Democrats believe the addition of California's 40 votes—second only to New York's 43—would insure that landslide and, simultaneously, injure the Goldwater image by stripping the GOP candidate of a vital state in his native West.

★ ★ ★

Goldwater has appeared frequently in California, campaigning, fund-raising and vacationing. Johnson visited the state this week for the third time.

But while the President has been in Washington or other sections of the nation, others singing his praises have been heard throughout California, including Gov, Edmund G. Brown; Democratic Sen. Pierre Salinger, seeking a full six-year term; and Cabinet officials.

Most Democratic congressional candidates have sewed their campaigns to the Johnson coattails.

Goldwater depends primarily on himself and a volunteer organization that is working relentlessly ringing doorbells, making personal contacts and mailing campaign material.

★ ★ ★

GOP senatorial candidate George Murphy admits he is running a "pro-Murphy campaign" without embracing the Republican presidential nominee.

Republican Sen. Thomas Kuchel has avoided a public endorsement of Goldwater.

BEST SHOTS

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon recently campaigned in California — his former home — for Goldwater.

Goldwater has saved his best shots for Southern California, while Johnson, who earlier made his major campaign speeches in the northern area, invaded the southland this week. Goldwater must build a large lead in Southern California to offset the traditional Democratic counties of the north.

In California, a military and space industry center, Johnson took off the wraps on two major defense secrets — radar to give instant warning of approaching missiles and systems to destroy nuclear-armed satellites.

The President was replying to claims by his Republican rival that the administration has faild to provide any new strategic systems for meeting a possible Communist attack.

MEXICAN LABOR

In California, Goldwater has criticized state Democratic leaders for supporting the closure of the program under which Mexican laborers are brought into the United States to harvest vegetable, fruit and cotton crops.

A state senate fact-finding committee reported that the death of the program would trigger a major labor problem in California.

★ ★ ★

Democrats who expect a Johnson victory point to the polls and recently released registration figures.

The California Field Poll, considered a reliable political gauge shows the President leading Goldwater 58 to 32 per cent with 10 per cent undecided.

ONLY GAINER

This October poll, however, reflected a decline of 4 per cent for Johnson. Goldwater dropped 1 per cent, with the undecided column the only gainer.

Democrats also boast their heaviest registration in 14 years, claiming 57.9 per cent of the state's record 8,184,151 eligible voters.

★ ★ ★

The Republicans have 38.9 per cent with the remainder distributed between miscellaneous and those who decline to list party preference.

Not since 1950, when the percentages were 58.4 and 37.1, have the Democrats had such a margin.

Roger Kent, state Democratic chairman, said the registration "reflects a repudiation of Goldwater."

John P. Vukasin Jr., an official of the Volunteer Citizens for Goldwater organization, said Californians traditionally have crossed party lines and "have and will continue to vote their convictions, not party labels."

In 28 elections since statehood, Californians have supported 18 Republican presidential candidates and 10 Democrats.

They have voted with the loser only four times since 1912. And close elections in California are the rule, not the exception.

★ ★ ★

In 1912, Theodore Roosevelt and his Bull Moose ticket carried the state by a 174-vote margin out of 673,000 ballots.

Californians gave Harry S. Truman an 18,000 vote victory in 1948 when more than four million ballots were cast.

King Repudiates Freedom Now Party

DETROIT (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King, the Negro civil rights leader who won the Nobel Peace Prize this month, repudiated Michigan's all-Negro Freedom Now party Friday.

Sharing a news conference with Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers Union, King said "I do not now and I have never advocated the formation of an all-Negro political party.

★ ★ ★

". . .I believe the fundamental political aim of the Negro people is to join with other progressive segments of this society to create a political force capable of further democratiza tion of our country," he asserted.

King objected to what he said were efforts by the Freedom Now party to link him with its cause.

CONSIDERABLE DISTRESS

"I note with considerable distress," he said, "that the Freedom Now party has used my photograph to forward its aims." He accused the party's organ, the Illustrated News, of "grossly misquoting me."

The Freedom Now party, formed this year, has a full slate of Negro state and county candidates on the state's Nov. ballot.

★ ★ ★

Reuther, also touching on politics, disclaimed an assertion by Republican vice presidential candidate William E. Miller that the UAW chief could be a choice for secretary of labor if President Johnson is reelected.

". . .I am not interested in any political office," Reuther said, "I would rather stay in the trade union movement as long as the membership will have me."

98 PER CENT

King, in Detroit on a "Get-Out-the Vote" drive, predicted 98 per cent of the American Negro vote will be against Republican Sen. Barry Goldwater in his bid for the presidency. "The Negro voter realizes that Mr. Goldwater espouses a philosophy which gives aid and comfort to racists," he said.

★ ★ ★

King said he did not know how much power the Freedom Now party entertained, "but if it develops sufficient strength, it could take a considerable number of votes which could be used far better through the two established parties.

"I have always supported increased political participation and organization by Negroes, not in isolation, but along with the labor movement, the churches and liberals to make firm and alliance which has proven its power by achieving in 1964 the passage of the most compresensive civil rights Bill in our history," he said.

Federal agencies spent more than $100 million last year to gather and compile statistics, Rep. Arnold Olsen of Montana recently reported in the House.

A man who sent monthly checks for life to an employee when illness kept her from working.

He's the kind of a man who interrupts a hectic campaign to sit quietly for a while with an old friend dying of cancer. "There aren't many left who care what happens to her," he told his impatient campaign manager, "and I want her to know I care."

In Fatal Fight

3 Face Exam on Assault

Three men, arraigned yesterday on charges stemming from an Oct. 3 fight in Waterford Township, are free on $1,000 bond each pending their Nov. 18 preliminary examination in Waterford Justice Court.

The trio, charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm less than murder, stood mute at their arraignment before Waterford Justice Patrick K. Daly who set the examination date.

Released on bond were Lindell Dalton, 21, of 1490 Nancywood, Waterford Township; Michale Drake, 23, of 46 N. Anderson, and his brother, John Drake, 20, of 689 N. Perry.

They are charged with attacking James Corgiat, 24, of Bessemer outside Airway Lanes, 4825 W. Huron, Waterford Township.

* * *

Another man, Richard D. Bromm, 26, of 1069 Edgeorge Waterford Township, attempted to break up the fight between Corgiat and the trio. He was knocked down by Corgiat and died of resulting injuries five days later.

MAN CLEARED

After reviewing circumstances of the fight, Asst. Oakland County Prosecutor David Breck cleared Corgiat of blame in Bromm's death.

Corgiatt admitted striking Bromm in the fight but he said he thought Bromm was another attacker.

Corgiat told police that the Drake brothers and Dalton attacked him outside the bowling alley. The three men maintain that Corgiat attacked them.

Trail Dusty, Costly for Lesser-Known Campaigners

(EDITOR'S NOTE — While the Johnsons, Goldwaters, Humphreys, and Millers are in the spotlight, thousands of other candidates are seeking office on Nov. 3. The following is a portrait of one such man and what he has to do to win election in a rural area.)

By JAMES R. POLK

SPENCER, Ind. (AP) — For a state legislator, the campaign trail can be dusty and demanding, unpaved and often expensive.

For State Rep. Charles W. Edwards, R-Spencer, it means smiling through countless chili suppers at country churches, passing out pencils at general stores, striding through milkweed and briars to tack up as many as 2,000 posters on utility poles.

* * *

"You get to the point where you become a connoisseur of telephone poles," he says. "You look for the big, fat, round ones."

Edwards is one of 7,819 state legislators in the nation. Most of them face trial by ballot every two years, including this fall. Their campaigns are far divorced from the silvery siren songs of television jingles and the fusillades of political propaganda from the speaker's stand. More often than not, the quest for votes consists of a handshake, a brief chat, and a personal appeal for help.

EXPENSES GREATER

Yet by election day Edwards will have spent more money on gas, posters and the tolls of campaigning than he will get back in legislature salary if reelected.

Edwards, 42, represents a rural constituency and is running for a third term. He is already House majority leader and if he wins — and if his party stays in power — he will probably become speaker of Indiana's 100-man lower chamber of the legislature next January.

* * *

Like many other state legislators, Edwards must seek out the voter personally at the crossroads hamlets and the courthouse squares. His appeal is a subdued one in an election contest that pivots more on personality than on any debate of burning issues.

On a typical day, he loads his car with posters and pencils stamped with his name. He swings through Cloverdale, Greencastle, Fillmore, Bainbridge, Roachdale and Russellville in the middle of the three counties that make up his district.

PASSES OUT PENCILS

In Roachdale, he passes out pencils in grocery stores, a bank, the hardware store, and a cafe, telling voters, "Hello, I'm Charles Edwards. I'm running for the legislature."

In Russellville, a woman replies, "Now I'm not going to promise you anything." Edwards answers, "Fine, I'm not looking for promises. I need votes."

* * *

The pencil-and-poster routine is a carefully calculated one. "I like pencils better than matches," Edwards explains. "More people write than smoke."

Wielding a staple gun, he spends most of the day putting up black-and-white posters with his name and picture on strategically selected utility poles at factory gates, crossroads where motorists must slow, and town intersections. He picks up his first splinter wound within an hour.

KEEP UP SHOTS

"The first thing you learn in this business is to keep your tetanus shots up to date," he says.

Edwards is the only one of the top six leaders in both parties in the 1963 session seeking reelection to Indiana's General Assembly. He is opposed by a popular Greencastle school teacher, Harold W. Stewart. In a normally Democratic district, Edwards won by 148 votes in 1960 and 138 in 1962. He concedes personal appeal counts more than voting traditions or issues.

* * *

To finance his campaign, it costs $750 for the pencils, $500 for newspaper advertisements, $200 for posters and another $750 if he decides to mail campaign flyers to voters. He emptied his pockets of an additional $1,500 for the May primary.

The sum is twice the $1,800 annual salary he receives as a legislator, and the expense total still does not include gas costs or the long hours away from his profession as a lawyer.

Edwards himself pays the bills. "On this level, campaign contributions are darn few," he says.

WHY RUN

What, then, makes Edwards run?

He says, "I think part of it is conceit," then adds, "mainly it's a sense of accomplishment. There is a tremendous exhilaration in getting a job done — especially a tough one."

* * *

While Edwards can expertly discuss possible changes in sales tax exemptions with a merchant in Fillmore and insurance licensing with a man who stops him in front of the Putnam County courthouse in Greencastle, he thinks the issues do not play a dominant role in his campaign as a rural state legislator.

"The real issues — taxes, reapportionment, anything else — are going to be largely obscured because of the national campaign," he says.

CROWDED WITH MEALS

His campaign schedule is crowded with smorgasbords by volunteer fire departments, civic luncheons, church suppers — any place where voters congregate. He shakes hands and passes out more pencils after the meals, which almost invariably consist of fried chicken, chili or fish.

A rarity in Hoosier politics, Edwards does not eat chicken but he manages to get his fingers greasy going through the motions of tearing it up on his plate.

* * *

"The second thing to go is a politician's digestion," Edwards says. "The first thing is his mind, or he wouldn't be in this business."

To voters who ask him how the campaign is going, Edwards says: "I don't know."

RIGHT-AROUND HERE

There are those around us who blame public apathy in our township for the conditions that exist. Well friends I say very emphatically that this isn't so. After the fine way you turned out for the primary in September, it showed concern at its best, not apathy. I believe most of you people moved here because you were taken by the natural beauty of Waterford Township and not because it was just plain convenient. You found the people here pleasant and many lasting friendships have been formed in our lakeland paradise. Truly a beauty spot of Oakland County.

There's a strong feeling of community pride here, with desire for progress as strong as any place else, but I don't believe very many want it forced on them at the cost of the scenic beauty that brought us together here in the first place.

Without regard to the wishes and votings of the majority, our fine area could become a chaotic tax loaded mess. I for one do not want this to happen. And if you should so choose to have me as your clerk, I'll strive to prevent it on a full time basis.

VOTING MACHINE INSTRUCTION BALLOT — General Election, Oakland County, Michigan, November 3, 1964

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF WATERFORD

INSTRUCTIONS FOR VOTING ON THE VOTING MACHINE

1. Move the RED HANDLE to the RIGHT until the bell rings. Leave the HANDLE there.
2. Turn down a VOTING POINTER over the word "YES" or "NO" of each proposition. Leave Voting Pointers DOWN.
3. Pull the LEVER 2 of your party to the RIGHT. This votes a straight ticket for National, State and County Officers only.

To vote a split ticket; after you have pulled the party lever (thereby voting a straight ticket) turn up a voting pointer over the candidate's name you wish to cut out, and turn a voting pointer down over the name of any other candidate for the same office.

4. VOTE YOUR LOCAL OFFICERS BALLOT Following the Same Instructions in Step 3 (Rows F and G)

To Correct a Mistake—Turn Up a Voting Pointer Voted in Error and Turn Down Another in Its Place

As no votes are registered until the Red Handle is moved to open the curtain, you can make as many changes as you desire while the Red Handle is at the right side. The machine is so arranged that you can turn down only the proper number of voting pointers for each office; you cannot spoil your ballot by voting for too many candidates. Each candidate's voting pointer is located just above the name; a voting pointer must be turned down over the name of each candidate for whom you wish to vote. Leave the voting pointers down. No one will know how you have voted because the movement of the Red Handle returns the voted voting pointers to the unvoted position before the curtain begins to open.

5. To vote for a Candidate whose Name does not appear on this Machine: Raise the Metal Slide DIRECTLY over the Name of the Office for which he is a candidate and write or place the Name of such Candidate on the Paper exposed.
6. Move the RED HANDLE to the LEFT.

REFERENDUM ON ACT 240 OF THE PUBLIC ACTS OF 1964 (MASSACHUSETTS BALLOT).

Shall Act 240 of the Public Acts of 1964 be approved? This act eliminates a straight party ticket and requires a separate vote for each candidate voted for and which provides that in General Elections, candidates' names shall be grouped under office titles (Massachusetts-Type Ballot) rather than under party headings (Present System).

Actor Turns 50

Coogan Still a Boy at Heart

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — "The Kid" is 50.

There is still a touch of boyishness in his face, though his head is slick as a casaba — caused partly by age, partly shaved for a television series. His outlook is youthful as ever.

THOMAS

Jackie Coogan at the half-century mark is a thoroughly alive legend. At 16 months he made his movie debut in a film starring Bryant Washburn in Chicago. At 2 he toddled onstage during his father's vaudeville act and so convulsed the audience that he became part of the act.

IN AUDIENCE

At 4 he was playing in the Coogan act in Los Angeles when Charlie Chaplin happened to be in the audience. Jackie seemed to be just the right boy for a movie the comedian had been planning, "The Kid." Jackie's face, cap askew, eyes furtively searching for the cop on the beat, became famous the world over.

On a day off from playing Uncle Fester in "The Addams Family" television series, Jackie relaxed in his modest North Hollywood home and talked about his birthday this week and other matters.

★ ★ ★

"I didn't have a party or anything like that," he said. "I dropped by CBS to chat with Red Skelton. Then I came home and had a quiet dinner with my wife and daughter, who is 11. My wife cooked a goose I had shot at the opening of duck season, and we had a cake."

Jackie was the first great child star of films, and he set the pattern for those to follow.

NAME EVERYWHERE

"We pioneered the commercial tieup market," he recalled. "At one time my name was on 50 or 60 different items, from dolls to pencil boxes. Peck and Peck paid us $100,000 per year to put out a Jackie Coogan line of clothes. Millions and millions of caps were sold."

Where did all the money go? Not to Jackie. After turning 21, he sued his mother and stepfather for an accounting of the $4 million he said he earned as a minor. He never saw the money. California enacted "the Jackie Coogan law" which now protects the earnings of child actors.

★ ★ ★

During his near-50 years in show business, Jackie has made 125 movies, numerous tours in vaudeville, including one with his first wife, Betty Grable; legitimate plays and night clubs, plus 750 television shows.

"TV is where my future lies," said Jackie. "I think there is no end to its possibilities."

Ousted Execs Map Action

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Two ousted executives of Curtis Publishing Co. today mapped plans for "aggressive action" against their dismissal by the board of directors.

Clay Blair Jr. and Marvin Kantor, leaders in a campaign against the policies of Matthew J. Culligan, were given their dismissal notices Friday after a stormy closed-door meeting. The vote for their dismissal "in the best interests of the company" was 8-3.

★ ★ ★

Blair, 39-year-old $75.000-a-year editor of the Saturday Evening Post and editor-in-chief of all Curtis publications, and Kantor, 37-vear-old $80.000-a-year chief administrative officer, claimed the board action was totallv unwarranted and legallv indefensible. They also were senior vice presidents.

Although fired, Blair and Kantor retained their posts as board members and refused to resign. Only the stocvkholders may fire a board member, and the next scheduled stockholders meeting is not until April.

Name Woman Missing at Sea

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A woman who disappeared from the luxury liner S.S. Lurline at sea was identified by the FBI Friday as the widow of a Detroit advertising executive.

Agents said Mrs. Victoria LaDriere had apparently booked passage on the ship under the name of Ruth Ladd of Grand Rapids, Mich. They said she was about 50 years old.

★ ★ ★

The FBI said her identity was determined through handwriting studies conducted at its Washington, D.C. laboratories. The agents said a note was found in Mrs. LaDriere's stateroom after she disappeared between Oct. 15 and 16 at sea. The contents of the note were not disclosed.

Agents said the widow had been traveling since the death of her husband about three years ago, and that relatives in the United States had asked U.S. officials abroad to locate her.

JACOBY

North's two-club response was Stayman and asked South to show if he had one. South was delighted to oblige and after North raised to three spades, South continued to game. He did have 17 very good points for his no-trump opening.

The play at four spades illustrates the use of deceptive techniques by an expert.

★ ★ ★

South won the first club lead. He had to lose one trump trick, one heart trick and one or two club losers at the start, but he had a chance to discard one of them on dummy's fourth diamond.

Thus he started proceedings by cashing the ace and king of trumps. This left the queen of trumps outstanding somewhere. Then South started on the diamond suit.

The ordinary good player would lead the ace of diamonds followed by the queen and a small diamond. East would trump the third diamond and lead a club, whereupon the defense would cash two club tricks then a heart trick later.

★ ★ ★

South would complain about tough luck, but an expert South probably would bring home the bacon. He would cash his ace of diamonds and lead the deuce of diamonds to dummy's king. His next play would be the jack of diamonds from dummy and the odds are that East would not ruff. This would put South in his hand with the queen of diamonds. He would continue by leading a heart to dummy's ace and playing the diamond ten. East could ruff or not, but South would have his club discard.

'Old Reliable' Redstone

U.S. Retires Rocket

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — "Old Reliable," the Redstone missile which launched America's first astronaut into a sub-orbital flight, has been officially retired with a warm tribute.

A band played and several hundred persons watched as leading officials at Redstone Arsenal applauded the record of the missile, now being replaced by the Pershing at defense sentinels around the world.

"Although the Army is not overly sentimental about equipment that has done its job, it is no more than right for us to pause for just a moment and give the Redstone a last salute," said Arsenal Commander Maj. Gen. John G. Zierdt during Friday's ceremony.

He hailed the Redstone as an instrument which "served the Army and our nation with distinction." Dr. Wernher von Braun, head of the Marshall Space Flight Center, also was present to watch the official retirement of a missile he worked with since its infancy.

It was the Dedstone which launched the nation's first satellite from then Cape Canaveral, Fla. on Jan. 31, 1958. Later, the Redstone was used as a launch vehicle for the first sub-orbital flight of American astronaut Alan Shepard on May 5, 1961.

Zierdt said of the 69-foot missile: "It stood guard in Europe through six troubled years and the best testimony to its service is that it was never fired in anger."

Recounting other exploits of the "Old Reliable," Zierdt said it launched the first object fired over an intercontinental range, and carried and detonated a nuclear device for the first time.

Von Braun joined the tribute. The missile expert said he felt almost like he was retiring himself "since the Redstone embraces a large part of my career." The missile was called the "Major" in its earlier days, he recalled.

"Redstone was the pride of the Army and much of the free world in its heyday and has earned its rightful place in rocketry's hall of fame," Von Braun said.

Profits Double at Bethlehem

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bethlehem Steel late Thursday reported third quarter profits doubled those of a year ago on only a slight rise in sales, but Chairman Edmund F. Martin said he was not satisfied with the firm's return on sales.

This is as far as he went toward any indication of the need for a steel rise. Martin ruled out any discussion of steel prices at his quarterly news conference in the wake of President Johnson's reported opposition to a steel price increase.

Sharp Wednesday Loss Prevents Over-All Gain

Preelection Caution Edges Mart Lower

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market took a small loss this week as Wall Street was enwrapped in pre-election caution.

If not for a sharp loss on Wednesday, stocks probably would have established a moderate gain on average. On that day, however, the stock market was struck by a series of adverse items regarding steel.

The most important item was President Lyndon B. Johnson's reported concern about the possibility of a price rise for steel. In addition, U.S. Steel reported a drop in earnings from the second quarter to the third quarter, creating considerable disappointment among market analysts. To make things worse, Wheeling Steel omitted its dividend on common stock and deferred its payment on the cumulative preferred.

★ ★ ★

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell 1.0 to 330.2.

The week's volume was 23,154,970 shares compared with 23,905,310 the previous week.

★ ★ ★

The week began with the good news that the 31-day General Motors strike was officially ended, but a large number of local disputes remained unsettled and continued to hamper production. Throughout the week, GM made slow progress towards settling these plant disputes. As the week ended, analysts were revising downward their estimates of GM's earnings for this year.

Ford Expands Car Rentals

DETROIT — Ford Motor Co. announced it was broadening its car rental business to a nationwide scale.

★ ★ ★

However, it will be able to compete in only 40 per cent of the market. The other 60 per cent of the market is at airports where Ford will not compete.

★ ★ ★

Ford hopes eventually to have 4,000 to 6,000 cars available for daily rental.

Soybeans Up at Week's End

Wheat Higher; Corn, Oats, Rye Are Lower

CHICAGO (AP) — Heavy short covering Friday put soybeans ahead for the week despite three days of successive declines on the grain futures market. Wheat futures also finished higher but corn, oats and rye ended lower.

The volume trade in soybeans and corn increased for the four-day period through Thursday while transactions in wheat declined.

★ ★ ★

More than 268 million bushels of soybeans were traded compared with 206 million last week. Corn volume increased to nearly 88 million compared with 63 million, with wheat down to about 24 million against 31 million a week ago.

On Friday, wheat moved higher on prospects of heavy export sales next week of hard wheat and rumors that the sales to Yugoslavia would include sizable amounts of red wheat.

CORN PRESSURE

Corn continued under pressure from hedge selling as the harvest progressed, but commercial demand together with exporter and elevator buying held declines in check.

An announcement late in the week by the Commodity Credit Corporation that it was halting sales of sertable corn to country elevators also was a factor in the corn trade.

★ ★ ★

Transaction in oats and rye continued light and mostly followed the action of other markets.

At the close of trading Friday soybeans were 1¾ cents higher to ¼ cents lower than a week ago. Wheat was unchanged to ⅞ higher, corn ⅜ to 1⅝ lower, oats ⅜ to ½ lower, and rye 2⅜ to 3¾ cents down.

STOCKS, COMMODITIES DIP — The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined this week to 330.2 from 331.2 of a week ago. Led by livestock, the commodity index moved lower this week to 164.6 from 164.9.

Friday Upturn Fails to Erase Steer Mart Loss

CHICAGO (AP) — Prices for slaughter steers and heifers turned upward Friday, the first day of substantially higher prices since late September, but failed to erase losses earlier in the week.

Prices for the week closed 50 cents to $1 lower on steers and 50 to 75 cents down on heifers.

Trading on steers and heifers was slow throughout the period on total receipts of 39,700 head, up 4,200 from a week earlier.

Top price for the period was $26, down 50 cents from the $26.50 paid most of last week.

In the hog market, butchers finished 25 to 50 cents lower and sows were down 50 to 75 cents. Receipts were 39,400 head, compared with 40,900 last week.

The sheep market ended with wooled slaughter lambs mostly 50 cents lower and slaughter ewes steady to 50 cents off.

Retailers Report 1964 Business Extraordinary

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK—This is an extraordinarily good year for retail trade.

That's the report from J. Gordon Dakins, executive vice president of the National Retail Merchants Association, which has a membership of 14,750 department and retail stores across the country.

Total retail sales held up well despite the inroads of the General Motors strike which saw new car sales fall 23 per cent in the middle 10 days of October.

Dakins estimated that 1964 retail sales would amount to more than $260 billion up from $246.4 billion last year.

For department stores alone, he figures that the 1964 gross would approximate $17.9 billion, up 7 per cent from $16.8 billion in 1963.

The association is engaged in its annual survey of Christmas season prospects, and Dakins said: "We feel Christmas sales should be up 5 per cent over 1963, which was outstanding."

Merchants report that their cash registers are ringing up higher profits this year.

This, they say, is due to the fact that volume has increased, people are buying more expensive goods and the average sales check has grown.

INCREASE EFFICIENCY

In addition, many merchants have increased their efficiency of operations and are able to carry smaller inventories through use of computers which enable them to keep a closer check of stocks on hand.

A look at figures released by large retail chains indicates the scope of the business expansion. These include Sears, Roebuck & Co., the nation's largest with 770 stores, Montgomery Ward Co., and J. C. Penney Co.

Sears' sales rose 12.5 per cent in September to $509,330,183 from $452,553,814 a year earlier. For the first eight months of the fiscal year which began Feb. 1 the chain's sales totaled $3,817,940,478, an increase of $416,836,595, or 12.3 per cent over the like period of 1963.

Montgomery Ward reported September sales as $125,574,000, a net gain of 10.1 per cent over $114,083,163 a year earlier. The 1964 eight-month total of $1,052,685,000 represented an increase of 13.3 per cent over $929,258,828 last year.

Penney said sales in September climbed 15.2 per cent to $169,096,981 from $146,850,262 in September 1963, while the total for the eight months ended Sept. 30 amounted to $1,213,722,949, up 13.4 per cent over $1,070,265,737 in the same period a year earlier.

Financial Briefs

See Common Market Growth

BRUSSELS (AP)—Continued economic growth is expected for the European Common Market in 1965, the executive commission said Friday in its third quarterly report of 1964.

Economic expansion is expected to slow down in the first half of the year, but the gross national product is expected to increase with at least four per cent in 1965.

Expectations are that the economic situation will continue to differ from country to country with rising home demand in West Germany, which may lead to higher prices.

Prices are expceted to rise in Belgium also, but in France and The Netherlands a slowdown is expected. In Italy economic activity will remain relatively low. Italy needs to modify its economic policy by slowing down production costs and stimulating investments, the commission said.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Power Commission Friday began a new study to determine the disposition of certain refunds received by gas distributing utilities from natural gas pipeline companies.

★ ★ ★

The study will cover refunds approximating $400 million by 42 interstate pipelines to about 750 gas distributing utilities in 40 states and the District of Columbia during the period from Nov. 1, 1962 to June 30, 1964.

VOTE

To choose between candidates is one of the most important factors in a Republic, for ourselves and our children; that choice requires critical discrimination, wisdom and assumed responsibility of a patriot. The race for presidency is no longer a simple choice between two worthy men; it touches every phase of our life; it is Big Business done on the gargantuan scale of Picture Words, Phrases, impassioned emotional pleas to selfish interests, gimmicks and rosy dreams.

Let's look at Voting in its simplest terms: a salesman comes to sell you a bill of goods; you listen, discriminate, erase his flowery statements, get down to reality, decide. An election campaign is a sales pitch; we are buying a future of disappointments or pleasure. Our decision is in that "X" we mark on our ballot. Vote as you would buy a new appliance for the home; you wouldn't buy fluff, you would buy satisfaction and only facts can deliver them. Vote wisely.

The World's Week

'64 Campaign Heading Down Stretch

By The Associated Press

In tornadoes of oratory, the long presidential campaign swirled toward its close.

Most of the polls, as the week ended, said Lyndon Johnson was far ahead, but the President, a great reader of the polls, wasn't taking any chances and was working hard to make them come true. Barry Goldwater, who also reads them, said he didn't believe them. He predicted that the political upset of the century was in the making.

★ ★ ★

A record vote was forecast. Predictions ranged upward from 71 million ballots to 75 million. The existing record is 68,838,000, in the 1960 Kennedy-Nixon battle. Since then, population increases have added 4.9 million voters to the potential. In addition, District of Columbia residents will vote for the first time, poll taxes are now illegal, and thousands of Negroes have joined the registration lists.

Republican National Chairman Dean Burch said he expects Goldwater to carry Texas, Johnson's home state; make a clean sweep in the South, pick up a couple of border states, win key states in the Midwest and West, and "pull some surprises on the eastern seaboard."

NO CLAIMS

Johnson, criss crossing the country by plane as balloting day neared, was making no claims. At one point he said: "Anybody who counts those votes before they are in the ballot box is gambling with his life and the future of this nation. The risk is too great." The President's consistent theme was for calm, deliberate actions in a nuclear age. At one stop he said, "Some people have more guts than brains." Time and again he used a favorite saying: "Telling a man to go to hell and making him go there are two different things."

Goldwater made his last call in the East Thursday, then headed west to finish up his campaign in California, one of the states he has said he must carry to win. All the way he hammered hard at two main themes, communism and moral decay.

On Tuesday, as the storm clouds clear, Johnson will be in Texas watching the returns. Goldwater will be in Arizona.

Elsewhere in the world:

Rebellion, mainly by tin miners and students, raged for days in Bolivia, with at least 50 persons reported killed. Thursday night, the government of President Victor Paz Estenssoro broke relations with Communist Czechoslovakia, accusing the Czech Embassy in La Paz of supplying arms to the rebels.

Joint amphibious maneuvers of United States and Spanish military forces, involving 120 ships and more than 30,000 men, ended Friday. The war games, conducted along a 145-square mile sector of the Spanish coast, cost the lives of 13 Americans, killed in plane and helicopter crashes.

Britain's new Labor government wasted no time in moving to strengthen the British economy. It announced a 15 per cent surtax, effective immediately, on all imports except food, raw materials and tobacco. The measure, said to be temporary, was designed to stimulate domestic business enterprises and reduce the outflow of money for things which Britain herself can make. Hardest hit were members of the Common Market, 57 per cent of whose exports go to Britain. Next hardest hit was the United States. First official Washington reaction was one of understanding.

Reports from Moscow said the Kremlin was advising Soviet party organizations and foreign Communist parties that Nikita Khrushchev was booted out because of 29 instances of political error and personal misconduct. Those who said they had seen the 40-page document said it listed these crimes, among others:

Khrushchev erred in sending missiles to Cuba, because he lost face by being forced to withdraw them. He reduced the fight with Red China to the level of a personal vendetta with Mao Tse-tung. He was wrong about how long it would take the Chinese to build an atom bomb. His agriculture policy was wrong. He built his own cult as bad as the Stalin cult.

★ ★ ★

Khrushchev himself still had not been seen since his abrupt downfall Oct. 14. He was reported to be living in a four-room apartment near the Kremlin, getting a pension of $1,100 a month. He had a couple of neighbors, the reports said: V.M. Molotov and Georgi Zhukov.

As the Ecumenical Council came to grips with the birth control issue, Roman Catholic leaders split into conservative and liberal camps. The liberals were demanding a thorough restudy of Catholic doctrine on marriage and birth control. The powerful backing received from senior church leaders was described as a "turning point" in Catholic church history. It was likely, however, that no final enunciation of Church teachings on marriage and conjugal relations would emerge for several years.

The final 1964 Nobel prizes were announced in Stockholm. A British woman, Mrs. Dorothy Crowfoot Hodgkin became the third woman in history to win the chemistry prize, Madame Marie Curie and her daughter Irene being the others. Mrs. Hodgkin won the $53,000 prize for her work in determining, through the use of X rays, the structure of biochemical compounds essential in combatting pernicious anemia.

An American, Prof. Charles Hard Townes of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, shared the physics prize with two Russians, Prof. Nikolai Basov and Prof. Aleksander Prochorov, for their work in the development of maser and laser beams. They will split the prize money, half to Townes and the other half to the Russians.

The UAW has set a Nov. 6 deadline for strikes at Ford plants lacking settlements by that date. Ford and the UAW have agreed on a national contract. Local agreements supplement the national agreements.

Air Collision Kills Six GIs

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — A collision of two Army transportplanes early today killed six soldiers.

Both planes were assigned to the 10th Air Transport Brigade of Ft. Benning, Ga., the Public Information Office at Ft. Jackson, S.C., announced.

Members of the brigade are among 32,000 on Air Assault II maneuvers in the Carolinas and Georgia.

The transport planes were flying in a formation of four aircraft when they collided.

★ ★ ★

The Army said it was not immediately learned how many were aboard the two planes, but that six bodies had been recovered.

NAMES NOT KNOWN

Names of the victims were not determined immediately and the Army said they would not be announced until the next of kin had been notified.

The two planes normally carry a crew of three each. No other troops were believed to be aboard the planes.

Firemen said three bodies were in each of the air transport planes, which caught fire after they plunged into a field about 18 miles south of Augusta.

★ ★ ★

Army authorities sealed off the area and permitted no newsmen into the section. Some newsmen who reached the scene first were forbidden to leave the area.

IN TWO COUNTIES

One of the planes crashed in Richmond County and the other in Burke County, sheriff's officers reported.

The state patrol blocked Georgia 25. Small brush fires were started in the area.

Mrs. Ann Walker, who lives near the crash scene, said the planes collided shortly after taking off from a temporary air field.

★ ★ ★

"My aunt, Mrs. H. H. Mcdermot, saw them collide and came running in the house," Mrs. Walker said. "They were about a mile away, and when I went out they were already down and burning.

FLYING LOW

"They were low when they collided, and my aunt said the wings touched just before the collision. They caught fire and set the grass on fire.

"The temporary field, I understand, was set up for the maneuvers.

"Some say one of the crew members bailed out. They said they saw him parachute, but they have not been able to find him."

★ ★ ★

The planes were taking part in the 11th Air Assault (test) Division maneuvers in South Carolina and Georgia.

Dead on arrival at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital was Robert L. Gardiner, 37, of 5795 Southward.

Police said that Gardiner's northbound car skidded on the shoulder of the road, hit six reflector poles and then rolled over several times.

Gardiner was thrown from the car and was found on the ground 120 feet from the wreckage, according to police.

Bank Scandal Rocks Town

VALENTINE, Neb. (AP) — Business was at a standstill in Valentine, a town of about 3,000 that serves as a hub in a rich sand hills and cattle area, as its citizens shook off the shock of a bank scandal.

Richard Davenport, 45-year-old president of the Valentine State Bank, was held today on charges of embezzelment and making false entries.

State Banking Director Henry Ley said Davenport went to Lincoln, the state capital, and volunteered the information.

Ley quoted Davenport as saying he was "tired of living with it." Davenport used the money in land and cattle deals, the stock market and for gambling, Ley said.

3 CHARGES

Davenport, father of two, officially faced three charges.

The state specifically charged him with embezzlement of $100,000.

The federal government specifically charged him with making false entries involving a $90,000 note and involving a $150,000 note.

Ax Suspect Is Transferred

William Gravlin, 30, of Troy, accused of murdering his wife, daughter and five stepchildren, was transferred to Washtenaw County Jail yesterday for psychiatric observation by Ann Arbor area doctors.

Circuit Court Judge James S. Thorburn ruled Gravlin sane after considering testimony from a Pontiac psychiatrist, Dr. Abraham Tauber, two other doctors and an attorney at a sanity hearing Thursday.

★ ★ ★

Testimony of a Detroit psychiatrist, Dr. William Gordon, was disallowed because he had examined Gravlin only at the time of the murders, Judge Thorburn said.

It had previously been reported in error that Dr. Tauber's testimony was disallowed.

Romney-Barry 'Split' Tops State Politics

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. George Romney heads downriver today in search of Republican votes in predominantly Democratic Wayne County.

Romney was to visit so-called downriver suburbs of Detroit on a handshaking and shopping center tour.

Romney spent an hour on television last night — answering questions that ranged from his stand on a right to work law (he opposes it) to his seconding of Barry Goldwater's nomination as the Republican presidential candidate at the GOP National Convention.

Despite voice problems, he answered 23 questions in the hour-long, live telecast.

★ ★ ★

Aides said 3,007 questions were phoned in and that an estimated 3,000 more calls never got through because of jammed telephone lines.

On Goldwater, he said:

"In a contest, it is the sporting thing to make a decision unanimous and to be friendly."

His refusal to endorse Goldwater, he said, "was not personal; I've known him for eight years."

Romney, who made about 45 speeches in 56 hours in a 1,000-mile campaign blitz around the lower peninsula this week, had trouble with his throat yesterday.

DETROIT (AP) — Neil Staebler used President Johnson's Detroit visit to hit harder on the party unity theme and charged frantic effort for 'self-survival" as the Michigan gubernatorial campaign moved into its last three days today.

★ ★ ★

At the root of the Staebler unity strategy was Romney's refusal to endorse Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential nominee, and a Romney newspaper advertisement showing Democrats how to split their tickets for the governor.

The President lent his weight to Staebler in the tight campaign when he spoke to a noisy rally at Detroit's Metropolitan airport at midday yesterday.

"The whole United States is watching for you to elect a new governor in Michigan — Neil Staebler," the President declared.

★ ★ ★

Later yesterday Staebler learned of the advertisements paid for by Romney Volunteers and issued a scathing indictment of his opponent.

★ ★ ★

"We now have the incredible spectacle of the leader of the Republican party in Michigan trying to save himself from political oblivion by deserting his fellow candidates and clutching for the coattails of President Lyndon Johnson," said Staebler.

Barry Scoffs at Polls Saying He Will Lose

Candidate Will End Vote-Hunting Drive of 80,000 Miles

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, scoffing at polls that rate him a loser, stages a final vote-hunting mission to the South today on the last long leg of an 80,000-mile presidential campaign.

The Arizonan wound up perhaps the most hectic of his campaign swings early today. He crossed the continent, criss-crossed the Southwest and ran into everything from an empty jet fuel truck to a heckling helicopter.

On today's campaign docket:

—A rally in his native Phoenix.

★ ★ ★

—A jump over to San Antonio, in the state that experienced, Goldwater said, "one of the darkest elections in our history" in 1948 when President Johnson won his U.S. Senate seat by an 87-vote margin.

SOUTHERN FINALE

—A Southern finale in Columbia, S.C. It is to be beamed across the south on a 13-state television hookup.

In Cheyenne, Wyo., the truck refueling his jet airliner ran out of gas. It went for more and got caught in a traffic jam.

The helicopter buzzed a Mexican-American rally in Los Angeles Friday night, bearing a light-bulb sign that spelled out "in your guts you know he's nuts." Republicans drove it off with the glare of a searchlight.

Although Goldwater derided surveys that show him trailing, he cited a favorable sampling on the issues, and used it as the theme for his speeches in Las Vegas, Nev., Tucson, Ariz., and at Los Angeles.

HAS FEELING

"I've had a feeling for the last two or three weeks that we are going to win this thing," he said. "I know the polls don't agree with me, but they never have."

Goldwater boasted of his crowds. "On quite a few occasions we have actually outpulled the President of the United States, which is something we shouldn't be doing," he said.

He said more people should want to see the President than a senator from Arizona.

CAUGHT IN ACT — When two bandits grabbed $61,819 from an Atlanta branch of the Bank of Georgia yesterday, motion picture cameras caught one of them pointing a gun at an unidentified person in the bank lobby. The customers and employes in the bank were made to stand with their hands against a wall or to lie on the floor.

ECLIPSES GOVERNOR—Waving his hat to crowd outside downtown Chicago hotel last night, President Johnson inadvertently hides the face of Illinois Gov. Otto Kerner. Afterwards the President spoke at Chicago Stadium.

Two Foes Meet Again in Top Waterford Race

Former Waterford Township Supervisor Elmer R. Johnson will face incumbent Supervisor James E. Seeterlin in the township's top election race Tuesday.

Johnson, a Republican, served six years in the highest township office before losing to Seeterlin, a Democrat, in April 1963.

Seeterlin, 38, of 4597 W. Walton is married and has seven children. He served six years as township clerk prior to his election as supervisor.

Married and the father of two sons, Johnson, 60, of 3220 Seebaldt has been in the real estate business since his unsuccessful bid for a fourth term as supervisor.

Vying for election as clerk are incumbent Elmer Fangboner, a Democrat, and Republican David S. Smith.

★ ★ ★

Married with four children, Fanboner, 56, lives at 3327 Meinrad. He assisted in organizing the Waterford Fire Department and later served as its chief prior to his election as clerk in April 1963.

TWO CHILDREN

Smith, 42, of 3791 Aquarina is married and has two children. He presently serves as a township constable, a part-time elective post, and does free-lance engineering work.

Contesting for treasurer are Democrat incumbent Mrs. Dorothy Olson, 52, and Mrs. Lillian A. Weber, 43, a Republican.

Formerly a civilian supervisor in the Army Corps of Engineers disbursing department, Mrs. Olson has been treasurer the past 7½ years. She is married, has one son and lives at 3599 Shoal.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Weber of 4171 Windiate is married and the mother of a son and daughter. A township resident for 27 years, she has been employed as a bookkeeper-cashier.

SEEK REELECTION

Seeking reelection to the two trusteeships on the township board at stake in the election are Loren Anderson, Republican and Democrat Charles Evans, plus newcomers Roger Johnson, a Democrat, and Republican E. Frank Richardson.

Anderson, 44, of 2361 Edinburgh is the only Republican on the present township board. Married and the father of three children, he has lived in

Says Firing of Officers Was Illegal

DETROIT (AP)— Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley advised Gov. George Romney today that dismissal of three Michigan National Guard officers in connection with recently disclosed scandals was illegal.

★ ★ ★

In a telegram to the governor, Kelley said Romney had no authority to dismiss the three.

He said without a court-martial the governor was in error in dismissing Maj. Gen. Ronald D. McDonald, Brig. Gen. Carson Neifert, and Lt. Col. Versel Case Jr.

"Your action did not comply with . . . court-martial procedures nor was it undertaken under any removal authority," Kelley said. "Furthermore, there was no legal justification for your action solely on the ground that you are commander-in-chief of the armed forces."

★ ★ ★

Kelley said since Romney's action in dismissing the three officers last Oct. 8 had no basis in law, it was, therefore, "a nullity and should be so recognized by you."

URGES REINSTATEMENT

Kelley said the three officers should be reinstated immediately.

The attorney general said his opinion was based on a review of the situation by several key members of his staff who have prepared a complete legal analysis of the dismissal. In the telegram, Kelley said:

"My formal legal opinion will be available for you and your staff in your office on Monday morning.

★ ★ ★

McDonald had been state adjutant general, Neifert quartermaster general and Case executive officer to the quartermaster general before Romney ordered the three relieved of full-time active duty.

Johnson Vows Economy Drive in Government

Tells Delaware Crowd He'll Cut Needless Spending in All Areas

DOVER, Del. (AP)—President Johnson, making a final appeal for votes in the Northeast, said today he will "declare a war on waste" throughout government.

Johnson, in a campaign talk prepared for delivery from the steps of Dover's old statehouse, said he will make war against needless federal spending, economic waste caused by recessions and the waste of war — "most awful waste of all."

The President lined up speaking dates in Dover and Wilmington, Del., a big swing through New York's suburban Nassau County and an appearance tonight at a big Demcratic rally in Madison Square Garden.

In making two stops in Delaware, Johnson hoped to boost the election chances of Democratic Gov. Elbert N. Carvel who seeks the Senate seat of Republican John J. Williams. It was Williams who was instrumental in winning adoption of a resolution that led to the Senate investigation of the activities of Bobby Baker, once one of Johnson's close associates.

★ ★ ★

EVEN TORCHES

Thousands turned out for the parade which featured Kleig lights, elaborate floats, bagpipe bands and even some flickering torches.

The stadium crowd turned out by the Democratic organization of Mayor Richard J. Daley interrupted Johnson with applause — accompanied by appropriate organ music—after virtually every sentence.

Perhaps because of the persistent interruptions, which seemed automatic, Johnson for the first time in the campaign stuck to his prepared text, offering none of the off-the-cuff observations that have become a hallmark of his campaign appearances.

★ ★ ★

In Chicago, Johnson plugged for his antipoverty program and reported that in 1960, as Senate democratic leader, he voted 96 per cent of the time for the foreign policy proposals of Republican president Dwight D. Eisenhower. He said Sen. Barry Goldwater voted against Eisenhower 76 per centofthetime.

Mostly Fair Skies for Tricks 'n' Treats

Trick-or-treaters will have mostly fair skies with not-so-cool temperatures on their rounds tonight. The low expected is 38 to 45.

November will begin tomorrow with cloudy skies and mild weather. The high forecast is 60 to 67.

Monday's prediction is cloudy with light showers and cooler temperatures.

The low mercury reading this morning was 36. By 1 p. m. the area had warmed up to 64.

IF THE SHOE FITS—Six-month-old Daniel Meblin finds a size 50 boot a bit too large for him in San Francisco. The boot, hand-made in Switzerland for the California Winter Sports Fair starting in San Francisco Nov. 13, is 36 inches long and 22½ inches high.

Daring Jewel Theft Work of Amateurs?

NEW YORK (AP) — Thieves who stole the world's largest star sapphire, the "Star of India," and 21 other gems from the American Museum of Natural History may have been rank amateurs — helped along by lack of security measures.

Police searching the museum's J.P. Morgan Hall of Gems and Minerals for clues to the daring burglary found fingerprints all over the smashed jewel display cases and on a partly opened window that may have been the way in for the thieves.

★ ★ ★

Experts also said that while the thieves took gems valued at more than $300,000, their choices did not indicate expert knowledge.

They took unique and easily identifiable stones, difficult to cut, while many costly gems that would be more salable were ignored.

ECONOMY EFFORTS

Police said the museum's efforts at economy had made the job easier for the thieves.

The city-owned museum, with about one million square feet of space in 18 buildings, had only seven guards on duty during the night and museum officials have been pleading for more staff.

Detectives inspecting the display cases from which the gems were taken also found two burglar alarm systems, neither in operation.

★ ★ ★

One system, an electronic "eye' 'that set off an alarm, had not worked for years. Also long disconnected was a system of triggers under the bigger stones that would set off an alarm the moment the stones were lifted.

The theft, one of the largest in recent history, occurred between a 9 p.m. inspection Thursday and 10 a.m. Friday, when a custodian unlocked the hall of gems.

★ ★ ★

Huge iron gates at each end of the hall had not been disturbed but the custodian found the glass shattered in three exhibit cases.

One case contained only three stones. The "Star of India," 2½ inches in diameter and weighing 563.35 carts or nearly a quarter of a pound, is valued at $100,000 but is actually priceless.

School Officials Formulate First Antipoverty Program

Aimed at bringing the antipoverty war to Pontiac, a tentative program called SCAP has been drafted by school officials.

The first plan of a School Community Action Program (SCAP) has been unveiled for members of the board of education.

SCAP is one phase of a combined city-school-United Fund program to qualify for funds under the Federal Economic Opportunity Act of 1964.

As their share of the planning, school officials have an 11-point program that envisions a broad and comprehensive attack on:

- Low educational achievement
- School dropouts
- Unemployment
- Low work productivity
- Low morale and poor self-concepts
- Cultural deprivation

★ ★ ★

". . . (we) will seek to break the cycle of poverty which for generations has created serious blocks to the happiness and productivity for millions of youth and adults from impoverished families," said Dr. Lee Haslinger, who directed the draft of SCAP.

PART OF PROGRAM

Haslinger said the school district's proposals are tentative and are a part of a total program by all agencies concerned.

All antipoverty programs in the county must receive the approval of the Oakland County Commission on Economic Opportunity. The commission will submit programs to Washington, D.C.

Pontiac schools propose preschool centers for youngsters, age 3-5, elementary school remedial and enrichment programs, music education, counseling services, and tuition free high school and summer school.

★ ★ ★

Also, the schools plan noonhour supervisory jobs for economically deprived adults, study training, employment and activity centers for handicapped young adults, work study for dropouts and potential dropouts and work experience programs for adults.

NO COST FIGURES

Haslinger, who said no cost figures have been calculated yet, described the first SCAP draft as the skeleton which will have meat put on its bones.

★ ★ ★

SCAP proposal will be implemented, he said, by extending existing programs and building from there.

So far as possible existing facilities will be used in line with the "community-school" concept, which is premised on facilities being close and easily available to the people.

Show Interest in China Plan

De Gaulle Is Warm to Summit Proposal

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle has expressed interest in Red China's proposal for a worlds summit conference to abolish nuclear weapons.

The French leader made his position known Friday in reply to a letter from Chinese Premier Chou En-lai who made the proposal to world leader two weeks ago in announcing that Red China had detonated its first atomic bomb.

"Let it be known that France is ready to participate in any serious negotiations that could be organized among competent and responsible powers to discuss the problems of disarmament on a constructive and practical basis," de Gaulle wrote.

The United States dismissed Chou's suggestion as a propaganda gimmick to divert attention from the nuclear test Oct. 16, which raised questions about new contamination of the atmosphere. President Johnson invited Red China to sign the nuclear test ban treaty outlawing nuclear testing in the atmosphere, but Peking rejected the idea.

REFUSED TO JOIN

France, like China, has refused to join the more than 100 nations that signed the limited treaty nor did it take part in he U. N. disarmament talks in Geneva. De Gaulle contends that the test ban creates an illusion of security because the nuclear powers could still plunge the world into war.

He argues that an independent nuclear deterrent is essential for France's defense and that his country will continue to develop its nuclear strength until genuine nuclear disarmament is attained.

Keating-Kennedy Debate Finally Gets to TV Screen

NEW YORK (AP) — The long-debated broadcast debate finally came off between Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating and his Democratic challenger, Robert F. Kennedy. It lasted 1¼-hours, ending early today.

The topics covered such diverse items as Keating's voting record, Kennedy's role as a mediator in the Indonesia-Malaysia dispute, Teamsters President James R. Hoffa, reapportionment of state legislatures, aid to President Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

★ ★ ★

The debate was orderly. Both men remained calm throughout the radio program, moderated by Barry Gray on station WMCA. Most of the predebate wrangling had been over formats for a television debate.

Kennedy attacked Keating's voting record on housing, federal aid to education and aid to depressed areas.

COMPARES RECORD

He said Keating had voted more consistently with Sen. Barry Goldwater, the republican presidential nominee whom he has refused to endorse, than with Jacob K. Javits, New York's senior Republican senator.

Keating accused Kennedy of the "most outrageous distortions" of his record through "nit-picking" and said he resented his liberalism being questioned.

★ ★ ★

When Keating complained that Kennedy had been careless in quoting his record, the former attorney general said "all the statements are in the record. Maybe you'd like to erase your record. But it's there."

WINS GRANT—Dr. Ellen Clemishaw Weaver, married to physicist and the mother of three, has been awarded a $39,000 AEC grant to continue photosynthesis research at Stanford University. Dr. Weaver, who says her family has top priority, thinks more college girls should combine science careers and homemaking.

Wife, Mother of 3 Is Honored Scientist

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — Ellen Weaver, 39, is a wife, mother and homemaker — also prize-winning research biologist.

The family knew of her talents, so they weren't too excited when she won a $39,000 grant from the Atomic Energy Commission to continue her Stanford University research into photosynthesis.

"Many more women can do what I'm doing," she said. Mrs. Weaver says the lack of women winning such grants is due to lack of encouragement.

Her husband, Harry, a physicist, said, "getting grants is something that's with you all the time. It's a relief when they come through."

ELUSIVE MATERIAL

Mrs. Weaver is seeking evidence about an elusive component called "P700," perhaps the primary energy converter in the photosynthetic process by which green plants and sunshine turn carbon dioxide and water into oxygen and plant tissue. This supports all life on earth.

Every day at 3 p.m. Mrs. Weaver leaves the Hansen Laboratories of Physics on the campus and heads home to meet children Patricia Lynn, 9, Mark, 8, and Tom, 5, when they return from school.

★ ★ ★

"I give them my time until they go to bed, then I go back to my studies," she said.

Mrs. Weaver credits her husband for much of her achievement. He encouraged her to continue school 20 years ago when they were first married while she was still a student at Western Reserve University in Cleveland. She took her masters' degree in biological science from Stanford and her Ph.D in genetics from the University of California.

MISSES SPORTS

She has given up civic activities and has little time for the skiing and tennis she enjoys.

"I made up my mind some time ago to do what I'm doing, and I'm lucky to be happy with my work and has a well-adjusted family," she said.

County's Party Split Could Grow Wider

K's Hug May Hinder Chief of India's Reds

By CONRAD FINK

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—A. S. Dange can testify that a bear hug from a Russian may prove embarrassing—four years later.

Dange is the beleaguered leader of the pro-Russian wing of India's splintered Communist party.

★ ★ ★

Nikita Khrushchev was beginning a tour of India in 1960 when he met Dange at the airport. He wrapped himself around the Indian Red in a show of affection that clearly indicated Dange was Khrushchev's man in India.

★ ★ ★

For four years, the hug served Dange well as he struggled to survive cutthroat infighting that all but wrecked the Indian party. After the 1962 India-Communist China border war, pro-Chinese Reds split away.

KHRUSHCHEV IDOL

But about 60 per cent of India's Communists chose Khrushchev as their idol and kept the man he hugged as their leader.

Now the infighting is reviving. Reds who survived the last intramural battle are scrambling to land on the right side now that Khrushchev is gone.

Initial policy guidelines from the top reportedly are, in effect, "down with Khrushchev and everybody he bear-hugged."

Dange was traveling in Eastern Europe when the news broke of Khrushchev's ouster. He immediately went to Moscow for talks with the Kremlin's new leaders. Whether he survived the distinction of being Khrushchev's man in Iidia still is not clear.

QUIET QUARREL?

If Khrushchev's successors try to quiet down the quarrel with Communist China, Dange will be in for rough days. For he, like Khrushchev, has been bitter in his condemnation of Peking.

Dange would be a great obstacle to any attempts toward reunification of the Indian Communist movement, just as Khrushchev was regarded by the Chinese as an obstacle to Communist cooperation on an international scale.

★ ★ ★

If a decision has been made to heal up the wounds in India's Communist party, Dange, like Khrushchev, almost certainly would have to go.

The Indian Communists might gain much if they closed ranks and cooperated in these days of political and economic troubles in India.

FOOD PROTESTS

The Communist party, though weakened by internal bickering, already has had considerable success in organizing food demonstrations and protest marches against Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri's government. A unified party could do more.

The past has a way of rising and embarrassing Dange.

★ ★ ★

Last April, some of his foes dug up a letter he had written 40 years before, offering to work for British intelligence if the British officials then ruling colonial India would free him from prison.

Dange barely survived that one.

About three-fourths of all the fiber consumed in the U.S. is cotton, with wool and the synthetics accounting for most of the remainder.

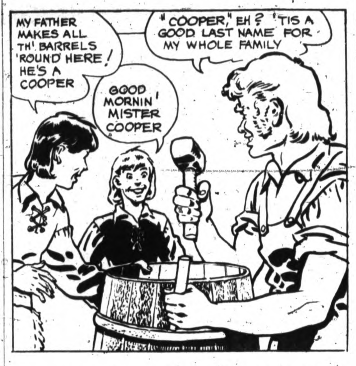
Junior Editors Quiz on Names



MY FATHER MAKES ALL TH' BARRELS 'ROUND HERE! HE'S A COOPER
"COOPER," EH? 'TIS A GOOD LAST NAME FOR MY WHOLE FAMILY
GOOD MORNIN' MISTER COOPER

QUESTION: How did people get to be called by different names?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: If we had no names and a teacher could only say "You over there, the boy with the snub nose and three freckles on his right cheek—" the world would be a confusing place to live in.

No one knows just how or when names began, but they probably had to do with some personal peculiarity, such as "lightfoot." Many of our first names come from the Bible, and these had meanings, such as John (gracious gift of Yahveh) of Elizabeth (oath of God).

The first people to have more than one name are said to have been the Chinese, family names being decreed by the Emperor Fushi around 2852 B.C.

In the Middle Ages, in Italy, high-born people began to adopt family names to call attention to their ancestors and show they were different from commoners. But people of more ordinary rank liked the idea too.

Our illustration shows how many such family names started, for an expert cooper or carpenter or smith was proud of his trade and decided to have such a word become the last name of his family.

Places also became attached to people to become last names of families: a settler built a house on a hilltop and became Mr. Hill, and his children James, Billy, Edna and Mary Hill and so on.

WW I History Good Reading

History of World War I
By
S. L. A. Marshall

By CORENNA ALDRICH

If ever there were a history book to satisfy both avid history readers and individuals who shun anything but historical novels, it is the American Heritage "History of World War I" by S. L. A. Marshall.

From his account of the first spark in Sarajevo that ignited the whole world, through the blunders at Versailles which were to incubate seeds of World War II, Gen. Marshall's vibrant narrative maintains a compelling style.

Even his detailed descriptions of battle strategy avoid slipping into the minuscule tediums often associated with works of this scope.

Though vastly comprehensive, this history of the Great War is no mere collection of documentary data. Battles, dates, generals and such are only a part in the illumination of significant aspects of a naive world that entered war almost as small boys play soldier, only to find itself trapped in a monumental slaughter that would change and entangle the entire course of history.

Th human side of war, lost in many standard histories, comes agonizingly alive.

Magnificently printed and illustrated, this is a book to be studied and reread, a fine addition to any library.

There is so much to be said for its writing, content and physical beauty that only personal examination will give a true picture of its quality.

Retired from the Army in 1960 after sevrice in both World Wars, Brig. Gen. Marshall has had wide experience in military life and the writing field. Now a resident of Birmingham, many in this area are familiar with his work as former editorial writer and military critic for The Detroit News.

Carl Sandburg has said Gen. Marshall "rates among many of us as the greatest of writers on modern war." Readers of American Heritage's "History of World War I" will wholeheartedly concur.
