Ohio Delegates Give 'Margin' Felt Necessary

Arizona Senator Has Conference With Ike, Plus Stage Fright

COW PALACE, San Francisco (AP)—With pomp and ceremony—and backstage battling — Republicans opened their 1964 convention today to choose the man who will carry their standard against President Lyndon B. Johnson in the fall.

Barring some kind of thunderbolt, the man will be Sen Barry Goldwater.

Even as the convention doors swung open, Goldwater dashed farther ahead in the race for delegates, picking up 42 of Ohio's 58 convention votes in a caucus of the delegation. He had been credited with 20 in advance.

Here, in all likelihood, Goldwater found the "few more" delegates he felt he needed to sew up the nomination on the first ballot Wednesday and roll over his real opponent, Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania.

But although the nomination was almost in his pocket, Goldwater acknowledged he was suffering a bit from stage fright.

★ ★ ★

Asked how he felt as the convention was opening, Goldwater replied, as he was leaving his hotel: "Scared to death as always."

IKE APPOINTMENT

Goldwater asked for an appointment today with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower. An aide to the ex-president said they would confer today.

Robert Schultz, an assistant to Eisenhower, said the former president had set aside time to see Goldwater in his suite at the St. Francis Hotel.

As to a move by Scranton forces to try to change convention rules and force a secret ballot, Goldwater said it would be undemocratic.

Goldwater was described as "boiling mad" last night over a letter Scranton sent him, and then made public in a late-hour move to try to stop the hurtling Goldwater bandwagon.

Pennsylvania Delegates Rebel

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A rebellion within the Pennsylvania delegation threatens to short-circuit Gov. William W. Scranton's bid for the Republican presidential nomination.

Supporters of Sen. Barry Goldwater within the 64-vote delegation attempted last night to seek a head-count to test sentiment.

Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, acting as chairman while Scranton was at a $500-a-plate GOP fund-raising dinner, quickly gaveled them down and adjourned the caucus.

Theodore L. Humes—an early Goldwater advocate—burst out of the closed-door session shouting, "He refused to let me speak."

★ ★ ★

Until yesterday, The Associated Press delegate poll gave Scranton 62 votes and Goldwater two. Three other delegates abandoned Scranton yesterday, making themselves officially uncommitted.

Privately, all three indicated they will like for Goldwater on the first ballot.

Humes contended there would be a minimum of 10 Goldwater votes on the first ballot.

The rebellion developed within an hour after Scranton issued a formal challenge to Goldwater for an unprecedented debate before the Republican National Convention. Goldwater rejected the challenge as "ridiculous."

Late last night, Scranton and 49 top supporters and advisers — including the man who is to nominate him Wednesday, Milton Eisenhower, brother of the former president—met to review the status of the Scranton effort.

Sen. Hugh Scott, Scranton's convention floor manager, said the group unanimously reaffirmed its support of the Pennsylvania governor.

Scott said they heard reports of "important inroads" on Goldwater delegates, but he declined to specify states or totals.

State Delegates Maneuvering

By HOWARD HELDENBRAND

SAN FRANCISCO — If the plans of the Founding Fathers had not been upset by the political hand of fate, do you know where I'd be now?

Home.

Think you must have missed something in the beginning, eh?

Well, for those who came in late, the F.F.'s never planned on political conventions. They never even planned on political parties. A bit naive, wouldn't you say.

Their idea was that every four years a body of independent electors representing the states would assemble and, inspired by buttered rum, forthwith vote on a panel of outstanding figures considered qualified to serve as president.

Heldenbrand

★ ★ ★

Mission accomplished, someone would move to adjourn, and one and all would scram out of there and hop the first stagecoach for home.

Simple, wasn't it?

The plan worked fine — for two presidential choices. But by the election of 1800, party politics had reared its conniving head.

It was not until 1831, however, that the first nominating convention of a major political party was held.

NO RELATION

It was known as the National Republican party, an offshoot of Jacksonian Democrats, and not related to the present-day GOP.

The Republican party, as we know it today, held its first nominating convention in Philadelphia in 1856.

Ripon, Wis. and Jackson, Mich. have contended for the honor of having cradled the party. Informal meetings in Ripon early in 1854 led to the later organizational meeting in July.

So you can cast your own vote as to where the elephant first saw the light of day.

In the 27 conventions held, including the first one, 19 nominees were picked on the first ballot; one on the second; three on the third; one on the fourth; one on the sixth; one on the eighth, and in 1880 it took 36 ballots to give Ohio's James A. Garfield the decision.

The Republicans went on to win the presidency 16 times and have been tenants of the White House a total of 64 years.

★ ★ ★

So much for the background of the 28th Republican convention for which a plane loaded with assorted politicos and representatives of news media were heeding the advice of Horace Greeley and heading west Saturday evening.

HOT CONVENTION

Those who predicted that this would not be a hot convention must have been affected by the heat. It was 90 the day we landed, setting a record for San Francisco.

Gov. Romney was on hand in front of the Jack Tar Hotel to greet and shake hands with all members of the contingent as they de-bused at 10:30 p.m. from the 15-mile ride from the airport.

And then just to show that all pay and no work makes Jack a playboy, he called a caucus for 30 minutes later.

It lasted only 45 minutes, during which John Martin and Mrs. Ella Koeze, both of Grand Rapids, were reelected to four-year terms as national committeeman and committeewoman respectively.

MADE NOMINATION

Ivan Stein of South Haven nominated W. Tyrrone Gillespie of Midland to oppose Martin, a move which might have been interpreted as reflecting Goldwater sentiments.

A roll call vote, however, got Gillespie but a fistful of votes, and Richard Durant, chairman of the controversial old 14th Congressional District moved that a unanimous ballot be cast for incumbent Martin.

Later, the governor and Durant exchanged pleasantries over a resolution offered by the latter which would virtually have freed the Michigan delegation from its first ballot support of Romney.

★ ★ ★

Turning over the chair to State Central Committee Chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr., the governor went to the floor and, mincing no words, told Durant that the resolution was a reflection on his integrity.

State Church Gets Bishop

CLEVELAND (AP) — Dwight Ellsworth Loder, president of Garrett Seminary, Evanston, Ill., became bishop of Michigan's 283,000 Methodists yesterday at consecration rites concluding the quadrennial North Central regional meeting.

He succeeds retiring Bishop Marshall R. Reed who served 16 years. Under church regulations, Bishop Loder will be eligible to serve 12 years before transfer.

Bishop Loder was among four new bishops elected at the meeting, including Thomas M. Pryor of the First Methodist Church, Kalamazoo, who will serve the Chicago area.

Loder, who turned 50 July 8, is one of the youngest men to be named a Methodist bishop.

"And this was no present," he said with a laugh. "I feel like I'm stepping over a big high fence on the farm into another pasture."

REAL AGONY

Loder, a native of Nebraska, added: "It's going to be a real agony leaving the work that I have been doing. Leaving Garrett is not like leaving a parish."

Loder says he does not classify himself "in any one school of theology," but reads all current theological literature.

Is Body That of Rights Worker?

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—A pathologist checked the remains of a mutilated body today while the main search for three missing civil rights workers shifted location.

The body — the lower half — was found draped across a log in a sluggish offshoot of the Mississippi River, about 17 miles south of Tallulah, La. The feet were bound with rope.

There was a "good possibility" the body was that of Michael Schwerner, one of the three missing men, an officer said.

Officers said divers were called to help search the Old River which used to be the main channel of the Mississippi but now is a slow, muddy loop with little current except during high water.

An all-out attempt was mounted to try to identify the portion of the body, which was badly decomposed.

DIRECTS EFFORT

In addition to laboratory work on the body, police tried to identify some of the personal effects taken from the blue jeans on the corpse.

Romney Plans to Battle for Stronger Rights Plank

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Gov. George W. Romney said he would join a floor fight to write into the 1964 Republican platform a stronger plank on civil rights and a statement on extremism.

Romney said although the platform committee appears to have hammered out a draft guided by the GOP's principles and heritage, it nevertheless was deficient in several areas he considers to be important.

"I personally cannot vote for the platform, if it does not include changes in the civil rights plank and statements on extremism," Romney declared.

A Michigan caucus backed Romney in proposing that the civil rights plank call for action at state, local and private levels to eliminate discrimination.

Delegates agreed that discrimination should be curbed in education, employment opportunities, housing and access to public accommodations.

Romney told newsmen he has no intention now to step out of his current role as Michigan's favorite-son presidential candidate.

STRONGER POSITION

He said by retaining this position, the Michigan delegation's position is strengthened in its efforts to get the platform amended to reflect its views.

"This also is a way of letting the nation know what we have done in Michigan," Romney said.

Detroit Start Seen for LBJ Election Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson may open his election campaign with a Labor Day speech in Detroit and take a "whistle stop" train swing west, Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., said yesterday.

The Washington senator stressed that "the President has not committed himself to anything."

But, he said "some of the people on the national committee, myself and others" have thought a Detroit campaign start, traditional for Democratic presidential candidates seeking reelection, might be a good idea.

Cloudy Skies, Rain Forecast

Mostly cloudy skies and occasional rain are predicted through tomorrow. It'll continue cool with temperatures in the 50s tonight and a high tomorrow between 64 to 70.

Winds today are northerly at 15 to 25 miles per hour. They will be mostly northwesterly at 10 to 20 miles tomorrow.

Fifty-six was the low mercury reading for the morning. At 2 p.m., the thermometer recorded 71 in downtown Pontiac.

State Road Toll 1,011

EAST LANSING (AP)—Traffic accidents have killed 1,011 persons in Michigan so far this year, provisional figures compiled by state police showed today. The highway death toll at this date last year was 853.

225 South Viet Casualties in 2nd Biggest '64 Battle

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — A weekend battle around a mud-walled fort called Vinh Chen shaped up today as the second biggest engagement between government forces and Communist guerrillas in the Mekong Delta this year.

A roll of government casualties compiled by Vietnamese and U. S. sources totaled 225—50 dead, 110 wounded and 65 missing.

The Communist Viet Cong assault forces also were reported to have suffered heavily. One Vietnamese officer estimated Communist losses at 300. U.S. Advisers, however, said they doubted more than 100 were killed or wounded.

The Communists were said to have captured about 100 weapons.

The action, set off by a Red attack on the fort early Saturday, was the biggest since a four-day series of engagements in April around Kien Long, 10 miles from Vinh Cheo.

BATTLE CASUALTIES

There, the government suffered more than 300 casualties. More than 100 of these were killed.

Using the 56 militiamen garrisoning the fort as bait, the Communist guerrillas lured four Civil Guard companies to the outpost and opened fire from ambush.

The badly mauled Civil Guard forces were withdrawn Saturday night. Four regular Vietnamese battalions lifted the siege Sunday.

BORDER CHARGE

Premier Nguyen Khanh charged that regular North Vietnamese troops had crossed the border to attack South Vietnamese installations several days ago.

During an inspection tour of the northern frontier Saturday, he warned that the Saigon government would "soon take new, special steps to halt this Communist invasion."

Khan did not elaborate. He has never openly discussed direct military action against North Viet Nam.

Radio Hanoi said a North Vietnamese military court is trying 17 Chinese Nationalist commandos, the survivors of a group of 26 agents landed in North Viet Nam July 28.

VESSEL SINKING

In Taipei, the Chinese Nationalist Chung Shino news agency claimed anti-Communist guerrillas in the South China province of Kwangtung sank a 120-ton Red Chinese naval transport that was believed to be carrying military supplies to North Viet Nam. The report said the transport, one of three, was blown up on July 3 in Chinchow Bay, in southwest Kwangtung.

3 Killed in County Accidents

Traffic accidents in the area over the weekend took the lives of three men. Two were killed in one crash.

The dead are Homer Session, 31, and John Holbrook, 30, both of 3981 Bird, Groveland Township; and John G. Stevenson, 35, of Madison Heights.

Session and Holbrook suffered fractured skulls when the flat-bed truck in which they were riding collided head-on with a diesel tractor in Springfield Township Saturday.

Session was riding in the cab with the driver, Elliott Patterson, 50, and another passenger, John Dow, 20, both of the Bird address. Holbrook was in the rear.

Both of the operator of the diesel, John Katona, 43, of Frankenmuth and Patterson told sheriff's deputies that the other vehicle was in their lane of traffic.

Police are still investigating the accident.

TREATED, RELEASED

The drivers of the trucks and Dow were treated and released following the 2 p.m. accident, which occurred just east of Tindall Road.

Police said the four in the flat-bed truck were employed on a farm at the Bird address.

Stevenson was killed early yesterday morning when the car he was driving hit a large tree beside Woodward in Birmingham. He was dead on arrival at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak.

The car swerved off Woodward near Redding shortly after 2 a.m., according to Birmingham police.

Fear Cyprus Flare-Up

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — The possibility of another explosion in the simmering Cyprus dispute faced the U.N. peacekeeping force today after it reported the landing of reinforcements to both Greek and Turkish Cypriots.

Archbishop Makarios, Greek Cypriot president of Cyprus, convened an emergency session of his Cabinet yesterday to consider what a government source called "the clandestine landing of Turkish troops on Cyprus."

The source said the government expects the U.N. Security Council and the Commonwealth prime ministers' conference, now meeting in London, to help the Greek Cypriots meet the Turkish aggression."

He indicated urgent appeals would be sent to both bodies, but made no mention of the even larger landings of Greeks reported by the U.N. command.

Over the past five weeks, a U.N. spokesman said Saturday, U.N. patrols have observed some 800 Turkish military personnel put ashore in the Mansoura area of northwest Cyprus, the only coastline controlled by Turkish Cypriots.

The spokesman also said some 3,000 men and artillery pieces had landed from Greece in support of the Greek Cypriots.

The Turkish Foreign Ministry issued a statement in Ankara saying that the only Turkish soldiers sent to the island were routine replacements for the regular 650-man Turkish Cyprus garrison.

Cypriot Interior Minister Polycarpos Georgadjis said 2,800 men had arrived at the port of Limassol from Greece. He said that 2,300 were Greek Cypriot university students returning home for the summer and 500 were Greek Cypriots who had "deserted" from the Greek Army to offer their services to the Cyprus government.

Maj. Gen. M. P. G. Carver, the retiring British deputy commander of the U.N. force, denied that U.N. patrols had seen regular Turkish troops land, but he added: "We have, though, observed the arriving of a number who received military training in Turkey."

Of arrivals from Greece, Carver said: "Who they are, we don't know. They could be Greeks or Greek Cypriots from the mainland of Greece."

City-County Development

Back Joint Airport Plan

Joint city-county development of Pontiac Municipal Airport as a general aviation facility was recommended to the county aviation committee today by Leigh Fisher Associates, Inc., of San Francisco, airport consultants.

* * *

The recommendation was made in a preliminary report resulting from a three-month, $10,000 survey of the Pontiac area air traffic situation.

The study included all airports in the Oakland-Macomb county area.

H. A. Parry, Leigh Fisher representative, told the committee in a meeting at the County Service Center that development of a large, commercial-type jet airport anywhere in the area is economically unfeasible.

* * *

Major airlines are already well established at Flint, Wayne Metropolitan, Willow Run and Detroit City airports, Parry pointed out, and the volume of traffic to be expected at such a facility in the Oakland-Macomb area would not support it.

DISCOURAGED PLAN

The report also discouraged the proposed development of the Allen Airport into a major air terminal because of air space problems.

Approach corridors necessary for large planes at the Allen site would overlap air corridors leading from existing fields in the Detroit area and Flint, Parry explained.

Scheduled air service at Pontiac Municipal is on its way out, Parry predicted. Development plans for the city field should consider the rapid growth of corporate and small private and commercial aviation, which is showing a rapid growth trend, he said.

The Leigh Fisher report estimated cost of proposed development of Pontiac Municipal, including construction of a north-south runway and acquisition of 450 acres of additional land, at $7 million.

COUNTY SHARE

The county's share of the cost would approximate $3,728,000. Federal aid would provide $2,240,000 and state aid would be over $1 million, the report said.

The aviation committee tabled the report for further study and set July 20 as the date for its next meeting.

Delegates Maneuvering

held out against full-delegation support of him.

This position, said the governor, he accepted then and still respected. But, he added, that in the same spirit, the remainder of the delegation should be expected to honor their commitment.

The resolution got nowhere, and Durant was 0-for-1 for the caucus.

WINDING UP

Romney wound things up by saying the embattled civil rights plank, over which the Platform Committee is sweating, is shaping up more to his liking.

He thought that by today when another caucus will be held, that issue will have been finalized and his own position clarified with respect to the acceptability of the platform.

* * *

But the Sunday morning papers reported that the Platform Committee passed a 60-to-31 a pretty mild civil-rights plank—with which Romney might not be happy.

The three workers disappeared June 21. They were not seen again after being arrested in Philadelphia on a speeding charge, held for several hours, then released on bond about 11 p.m. that night.

Police said one of the best was a key chain. Two keys were on it, one of them embossed VBI 67.

There also was a gold wrist watch, stopped at 5:55, a water soaked piece of paper bearing the words "A&M College, rural Mississippi," a penny and a package of cigarettes.

A leather belt bore a buckle with the initial "M" on it. From the size of the belt, police deduced that the dead person stood 5 feet 6 or 5 feet 7 and weighed about 135.

Birmingham Area News

'Parking Lot' Really Not; City to Seek Solution

BIRMINGHAM — It may surprise a few motorists to learn that the area south of Shain Park where they've been leaving their cars during the last several months is not a parking lot.

City Manager L. R. Gore will ask city commissioners tonight to hold a hearing on the necessity of creating a parking lot there.

The area now cleared for use is L-shaped. All of the lots on the south side of Merrill from Bates to Henrietta and two easterly lots on the north side of Townsend were acquired by negotiation last year.

The remaining four lots in the block were acquired by condemnation.

Those houses acquired by negotiation were razed last fall and the property graded for temporary usage.

* * *

However, no special assessment district has been established to pay for the project estimated to cost $360,000.

Before determining the district, the city must have the proposed project approved at a hearing before property owners involved.

ASK AUGUST HEARING

Gore has asked that the hearing on necessity be set for Aug. 3.

He has recommended that the city maintain its policy of including only business-zoned property within a 200-ft. radius of the proposed lot in the special assessment district.

Owners of this property would pay 40 per cent of the bill with the city's parking authority paying the rest.

* * *

The manager also has asked that Merrill be closed between Bates and Henrietta to allow for extension of the lot, which then could be laid out for a 206-vehicle capacity.

SIDEWALK CONTRACT

The commission tonight is expected to award a contract for the 1964 sidewalk improvement program. Century Cement Co. of Trenton was the lowest of three bidders at $39,803.

Mrs. John M. Blakey

Requiem Mass for Mrs. John M. (Josephine R.) Blakey, 24, of 140 N. Glenhurst, Birmingham, will be 10 a.m. tomorrow at Holy Name Catholic Church. Burial will follow in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Southfield.

Mrs. Blakey died Saturday after a long illness.

The Rosary will be recited at 8:30 tonight at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co.

Surviving besides her husband are a son, John J., at home, and her mother, Mrs. Henry B. Royce of Birmingham.

Mrs. Edward W. Cook

Service for Mrs. Edward W. (Elva I.) Cook, 79, of 1797 Maryland, Birmingham, will be 3 p.m. tomorrow at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Burial will follow in Woodlawn Cemetery, Royal Oak.

Mrs. Cook died Saturday after a long illness.

Damage Is Put at $14,500 in Area Home Fire

Fire gutted a Waterford Township home early today, causing an estimated $9,500 damage to the house and $5,000 to the contents.

The house at 3934 Florine is owned by Rodney W. Liley, according to Waterford Township firemen.

The cause of the blaze has not been determined.

Firemen were called to the scene twice, the first time at 8:44 p.m. and again at 2:20 a.m. when the fire rekindled.

Most of the damage to the one-story frame house was caused by the second fire.

University of Michigan Ups Rent for Rooms

F. W. MULHOLLAND

Buyer to Run in 63rd District

A Pontiac Township man has announced he will run as a Republican candidate for the 63rd District State House of Representatives seat in his first bid for public office.

He is Frank W. Mulholland, 36, of 658 Jamestown. A salesman-buyer, he was formerly part owner of the Mulholland Department Store in Birmingham.

He has twice served in the Army Corps of Engineers, at the end of World War II and again during the early part of the Korean War.

Active in Birmingham Chamber of Commerce activities, Mulholland has also been a United Foundation fund worker.

The 63rd District includes the southeast part of the City of Pontiac, townships of Pontiac, Avon, Oxford, Addison, Orion, Oakland, and the north part of the City of Troy.

Romney Will Join in GOP Floor Fight

last night and early this morning with supporters of Gov. William Scranton, who is contesting Sen. Barry Goldwater for the presidential nomination—on the question of a floor fight over the platform.

The Scranton camp plans to submit a minority report on the platform. It is expected to recommend many of the changes urged by Michigan's governor.

For one thing, Romney said, the platform should express more directly the party's disapproval of so-called right-to-work laws.

OTHER POINTS

In addition, he added, it should:

- Repudiate efforts of extremists groups of both the right and the left to infiltrate or attach themselves to the GOP or its candidates, "but we should not repeat the sins of the extremists by condemning all for the actions of some."
- Include a pledge to do everything possible to encourage state and local governments, groups and individuals to take action to eliminate discrimination of all kinds.

Another so-called deficiency listed by Romney was a failure to include a pledge to seek methods "by which states can be assured of judicial review of decisions by federal administrators that use the power of the purse to go beyond the intent of Congress to shape state policy and organization."

The governor also criticized the proposed platform for what he said was its failure to recognize the basic principle that state legislatures should represent people, and that apportionment plans for both houses of bicameral state legislatures must be controlled by a regard for population.

GOP Convention Opens Today

fired off a letter to Goldwater yesterday, challenging him to a debate at the convention and asserting the big issue is this:

"Will the convention choose the candidate overwhelmingly favored by the Republican voters, or will it choose you?"

Questioning that Goldwater has as many delegates as he claims, Scranton charged that "with open contempt for the dignity, integrity and common sense of the convention, your managers say in effect the delegates are little more than a flock of chickens whose necks will be wrung at will."

* * *

SAID STEAMING

But his aides said he was steaming and he failed to show up at a $500-a-plate fund-raising gala last night that Scranton attended. Hoping the letter would boomerang, the senator's aides ran off thousands of copies to be distributed to delegates.

While today's convention fare is speeches and more speeches, a floor fight loomed tomorrow over the platform carrying the senator's brand which the convention will be asked to adopt.

An Associated Press survey credited him with 740 first-ballot votes, including 303 delegates who favor him but are not officially bound. The survey counts Scranton's delegates at 170, none bound.

SCRANTON COUNT

In his letter, Scranton declared he is certain Goldwater does not have enough delegates for nomination on the first roll call, and said:

"I have doublechecked the arithmetic of my staff, and I am convinced that a true count at this minute puts your first-ballot strength at only some 620 votes."

Scranton said "Goldwaterism has come to stand for a whole crazy-quilt of absurd and dangerous positions that would be soundly repudiated by the American people in November."

"Among these, he said, was "refusal to stand for law and order in maintaining racial peace" and being afraid to forthrightly condemn right wing extremists."

Taunting Goldwater, he said the Arizona senator, "should not fear a convention you claim to control, and I would hope we have not reached the point where you fear to face the nation."

Scranton has charged that Goldwater's strategists were treating delegates as "a flock of chickens whose necks will be wrung at will."

The 'Swarm' on the Farm Held Harm

Charles A. Pace, 51, of 6527 Maple Drive, Independence Township, bumped into a "swarm of bees" with a mighty big sting in his yard yesterday afternoon.

Pace was showing a friend his property when the two heard a buzzing sound in some high grass about 300 feet from the Pace home.

* * *

His visitor remarked, "It sounds like a swarm of bees." Closer investigation showed the "swarm" to be a three-foot rattlesnake, coiled and ready for action.

Pace ran to the house for a rifle and shot the intruder.

He said it had six rattles on its tail and was one of the largest rattlesnakes he'd seen in Oakland County.

ELMER R. JOHNSON

Ex-Supervisor to Run Again

Johnson of 3320 Seebaldt will run on the Republican ticket.

The primary will be held Sept. 1 and the general election, Nov. 3.

"The current administration's adventures with tax dollars to get political support of self-interest groups illustrates why I changed party designations in protest against attitudes I felt were not conducive to good government."

Johnson, who served three terms as a Democrat, 1957-63, announced his change in affiliation in January 1962, saying "I am convinced that I can best serve the interests of all the people of Waterford Township by joining the ranks of the Republican Party, and I shall in the future run for office on the Republican ticket."

DEFEATED IN '63

He was defeated in 1963 by Democrat James E. Seeterlin, present officeholder.

Continuing his candidacy announcement, Johnson said "I believe a sound fiscal policy must be established that is compatible with our tax base.

"Accordingly, it must be implemented with an understanding of the structures of tax rates and expenditures.

"We need to be responsive to the desires of the people we purport to represent when providing public improvements, and by looking ahead plan ways to improve our tax base so as to expand our tax revenue and relieve the burden on the residents.

But Consumer Demands Not Met

Russia Income Up 61 Pct.—K

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev claimed today that the real income of the Soviet people has risen 61 per cent in the last decade.

But he said not enough is being done to satisfy the people's demands for consumer goods. He called for greater efforts to increase production of consumer goods.

* * *

Main items on the agenda were plans to increase pensions and subsidies for collective farmers and wages in public service industries such as catering and education.

BIGGEST PROBLEM

Khrushchev said that improving the living standards of the people is the most important problem for the Soviet Union.

The premier reported that half of the Soviet working people have high school education or better. More than 30 per cent of the national income is spent on education, he said.

Although 12 million tons of grain were purchased abroad he said, this was only testimony to the strength of the economy. Measures are being taken to increase agricultural production, he said.

Khrushchev outlined the new program of pensions for collective farmers, emphasizing that the amount of the pensions would depend on the success of the farmer's collective.

RECEIVE PENSIONS

More than 26 million Soviet citizens are receiving pensions. Most collective farmers have been outside this system because agricultural production was very low, Khrushchev said.

Khrushchev said the total expenditure would come to about 1.4 billion rubles—$1.55 billion at the official rate—a year. Farmers will contribute 2 per cent of their income this year and 3 or 4 per cent in future years.

Khrushchev said the old age pension would begin at the age of 65 for men and 60 for women, with the requirement that men have worked 25 years and women 20. About 6.5 million farmers would come under the program. Pensions would range from $55 to $112.20 a month.

Outlining the plan, Khrushchev hedged pensions around with numerous limitations. One was that a meeting of a collective organization can decide to withdraw the pension rights from anyone who had not worked well.

SHOWS ANGER

Krushchev gave optimistic reports from various parts of the country on this year's crops. But he noted that spring had been late and the harvest therefore will be very rushed. He did not venture an over-all prediction of the harvest.

Khrushchev announced pay increases for more than 10 million Soviet workers. These include 2.2 million teachers, 2.6 million other workers in education, 500,000 doctors, 1.5 million nurses and other medical workers, more than two million in housing and more than four million services.

Khrushchev said the teachers would receive an average of 25 per cent more pay with a 40 per cent rise in elementary schools.

A teacher with only a secondary education now earns $57.20 a month in a village school and $62.70 in a city school.

The new wage scale will go as high as $150.70 after 25 years' experience and pay supplements can raise this to $180.60 rubles.

Khrushchev also announced plans to raise the minimum wage for all Soviet workers from the present $44 a month to $49 by the end of 1964. He said retail prices will not be changed.

Begin Season for Showboat

CHESANING (UPI) — The Chesaning Showboat was scheduled to open on the Shiawassee River tonight.

It will be the 23rd annual revival of the community enterprise put on by the Chamber of Commerce. The profits from the showboat have been spent for village projects, including a nine-hole golf course, a stadium that seats 6,500 and a swimming pool.

The project was started in 1937 by Chet Howell as a means of building community spirit.

16 Die in Weekend Traffic

By The Associated Press

A car-train crash killed a man and a wife in Grandville Sunday night, pushing Michigan's weekend highway death toll to 16.

Drownings claimed three other lives.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. George Visser of Jenison died when their car struck a train at the Chesapeake & Ohio tracks on a street in the West Michigan community. Police said the Vissers were in their 50s.

The death toll was combined by the Associated Press from 6 p.m. Friday until midnight Sunday.

THE VICTIMS

Clinnie Miller, 74, of Flint, was killed Sunday when a car in which he was riding collided with another auto at an intersection in Genesee County.

John W. Allen, 54, of Detroit, was fatally injured Sunday when his car ran off a Ford Freeway ramp in Dearborn and struck a railroad bridge abutment.

* * *

Wilson Small, 53, of Royal Oak, was killed Sunday when his car skidded on wet pavement on Eight Mile in Detroit and struck another auto head-on.

Stephen Waltz, 13, of Monroe, was killed Sunday when the bicycle he was riding was struck by a car at an intersection on US. 24 about three miles north of Monroe. The driver, who told police the boy turned in front of him, was not held.

CAR OVERTURNS

John Ball Sr., 77, of Warsaw, Ind., was killed Sunday when his car went out of control and overturned on I-94 south of Battle Creek.

John Logsdon, 19, of Detroit, was fatally injured Sunday when the motorcycle on which he was riding with his brother, James, 15, went out of control and struck a fence post at a Traverse City intersection. James was hospitalized in critical condition.

* * *

Ronald K. Norwood, 27, of Comstock, was injured fatally Sunday when his car failed to make a curve on M43 and struck a tree in Richland Township of Kalamazoo County.

2-CAR CRASH

George Perpich, 67, of Dearborn, died Saturday in a two-car collision in western Wayne County.

Homer Session, 31, and John Holbrook, 30, both of Clarkston, were killed Saturday when their truck collided head-on with a semi-tractor on Holly Road northwest of Pontiac.

Christopher Blake, 4, of Detroit, was struck and killed by a car Saturday near his home.

Timothy Merryman, 7, of Cedar Lake, was killed Saturday when he was struck by a car on M-46 in Montcalm County.

FLINT COLLISION

Mrs. June H. Gilbird, 33, of Flint, was killed Friday night in a two-car head-on collision in Flint.

* * *

Loren Topper, 7, of Taylor, drowned Saturday in Base Line Lake in Livingston County. Police said the child fell from a boat.

Marc B. Hyman, 3, of Flint drowned Saturday in a swimming pool at his parents' summer home at Lobdell Lake in Genesee County.

Pontiac Press Photos

WHAMMO! — Members of the North and South Skirmish Association started the weekend's annual Blue and Gray Shoot Saturday with a bang from this 12-pound Napoleon cannon. The cannon crew included (from left), Brian Russell, 327 Harrison, Rochester; Robert Herr of Clawson; and Barney Pelletier of Warren. All are members of the 8th Michigan Cavalry, sponsor of the two-day event near Davisburg.

Record $1.4-Million Budget for Orion School District

LAKE ORION — The board of Lake Orion Community School District is all set to spend a record $1,438,950 for operation of schools during the 1964-65 academic year.

Although the board has adopted a total budget of $1,359,967, any balance remaining would be carried over to the following year.

The new budget provides for a 4 per cent increase in both student enrollment and valuation of the district.

Most of the operational cost, $1,094,417, will be used for instructional purposes.

ITEMS INCLUDED

Included in this category will be the hiked teachers' salary schedule, approved this spring, as well as money for a new counselor and nine additional teachers.

A recent increase in custodial salaries is also included in the new budget, as are funds for a new junior high assistant principal.

The anticipated tax rate for school operation, 15¼ mills, includes 8¼ allocated, 6 mills previously voted in the district and 1 mill that could be needed of the four authorized by the electorate last summer.

* * *

Schools Supt. A. A. Reed said, "There is the possibility we may not even need the 1 mill because of increased state aid and valuation."

SAFETY MEASURE

He said, however, it was being included in the budget as a safety measure.

Other major spendings in the budget include $12,000 for a new roof at Blanche Sims Elementary School, and another $12,000 for a bus maintenance garage.

The budget also covers pay increases for administrators, clerks, and bus drivers.

* * *

Asst. Schools Supt. Lewis Mundy pointed out that although formally adopted, the budget will remain flexible to adjust to factors now evident that weren't known at the time of its formulation.

Office Building Hearing Set Tonight in Rochester

ROCHESTER — Plans for construction of a $1.5-million, six-story office building here will be aired during a public hearing at tonight's regular meeting at the village council.

* * *

A group of area professional men is holding options on 2½ acres of property for the proposed edifice at the site of the American Legion Hall on West University.

Pontiac attorney Mitchell L. Bacow, spokesman for the developers, has requested rezoning to permit erection of a building higher than 35 feet. Under the present general business classification this is not allowed.

Lower level of the building would house the National Bank of Rochester, according to developers.

Professional offices also are proposed for the structure.

OFFICE SPACE

The property features 190 feet of frontage on West University.

Backing proposed construction of the building, in addition to Bacow, are Fred Houghton, Rochester businessman; Dr. Douglas Chandler, Birmingham physician; and Cyrus A. Lockhart, president of the Pontiac Farm and Industrial Tractor Co.

* * *

Talk Topic Is Juveniles in Rochester

ROCHESTER — Dr. D. Lloyd McKinney, principal of the Wayne County Youth Home School, Detroit, will be guest speaker at a general meeting of the Rochester Newcomers Club Thursday at North Hill School.

Title of Dr. McKinney's talk to be given at the 8 p.m. session is "Three Minus One Equals Everything."

Because of citizen concern about the problem of juvenile delinquency, the Newcomers meeting will be open to members their husbands and interested guests.

In his work, Dr. McKinney deals with deliquent juveniles between ages of 7 and 17.

* * *

He draws upon his own experience as administrator, teacher, psychologist, social worker, ex-patrolman, church lay-leader and piano player to help the young unfortunates.

DOCTOR'S GOAL

Dr. McKinney's role, along with his staff, is to try and accomplish correction and rehabilitation of a group that totals over 6,000 annually.

The home, of which he is principal, is operated by Wayne County Juvenile Court and the Detroit Board of Education.

Romeo School Budget Hearing Set

ROMEO — Residents of the school district will have an opportunity to air their views on the proposed school budget of $1,226,672 at a public hearing Thursday night.

The new budget, up over last year's, will necessitate a tax hike of just under a half mill.

The total tax levy will be 23.72 mills as compared to 23.28 last year.

* * *

The new budget was based upon an estimated increase of 78 students, expected to hike the enrollment to 2,650 during the coming year.

NEW FORMULA

It is also based on a greater sum from the state resulting from a new state aid formula.

Schools Supt. T. C. Filppula estimated that $77,000 in cash will be left at the close of the school year just ended.

The anticipated budget hike resulted from the increase of salaries for school personnel. Teachers' pay raises account for most of the $85,765 figure.

* * *

Contributing to this total were an increase in number of teachers needed next year, several staff positions authorized last year that will be filled this year, normal teacher raises and pay increases voted for them by the board last spring.

SALARY HIKES

The salary hikes included $100 per year across-the-board plus $50 each for the last two increments.

There also were some pay increases for the non-instructional staff.

Another change, necessitating an additional outlay of funds, was the reduction of hours for custodians from 49 to 44 hours a week. This cut requires the hiring of extra help, Filppula said.

* * *

Another innovation in the budget is a proposal to hire an assistant superintendent at an estimated salary of $10,000 per year.

NO DECISION

This proposal has been discussed by the board of education at several meetings but no decision has been made and no search for the administrator begun.

The superintendent has been instructed to prepare a more complete report on the qualities and duties of the position along with a proposed salary schedule before final action is taken.

An increase in state equalized valuation of $1.06-million to a new figure of $29,362,000 is expected to help meet many of the budget expenditures.

The total operating tax rate will be 18.73 mills with 4.99 mills levied for debts making the 23.72 mills total this year.

* * *

The hearing will be at 8 p.m. in the board office.

Heart Attack Proves Fatal

Shelby Dispatcher Dies

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — Joseph Wozniak, 46-year-old Shelby Township radio dispatcher for the past two years, died of a heart attack Saturday while driving home.

Wozniak of 52712 Schoenherr, was traveling north on Romeo Plant, between 21 and 22 Mile, Macomb Township, when his car began swerving and ran into a ditch, according to Macomb County sheriff's deputies.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Joseph Hospital, Mt. Clemens, shortly after 10 p.m.

Sergeant-at arms for Shelby Metroplitan Club, Spirit 86, Wozniak was a member of the Macomb County Deputies Club, the Grand Lodge, Fraternal Order of Police, and the Shelby Township Special Police. He was also a former volunteer fireman.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Suzanne Moody of California; two sons, Joseph Jr. of Shelby Township and Marty of Roseville; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wozniak of Shelby Township; and two sisters, Mrs. Genevieve Dzieskowski of Detroit and Miss Virginia Wozniak of Shelby Township.

OTHER SURVIVORS

Also surviving are five brothers, Peter and Leopold, both of Hamtramck; Stanley of Center Line and Alfred and Mathew, both of Shelby Township; and two grandchildren.

* * *

Requiem Mass will be 10 a.m. Wednesday at St. Isidore's Catholic Church, Macomb Township. Burial will follow in St. Lawrence Cemetery.

* * *

N.C. Police Break Up Riot at Integrated Truck Stop

HENDERSON, N. C. (UPI) — A dispute at an integrated truck stop yesterday flared into a three-hour riot in which 300 whites and Negroes battled with rocks, bottles, bricks and tire irons.

Police used tear gas to break up the violent outburst. One Negro was hospitalized with deep scalp wounds. Seventeen persons, four whites and 13 Negroes, were arrested.

Women joined in the fray which broke out in the early morning hours at the motor freight restaurant where both races had been served without incident since passage of the civil rights law.

Authorities said the battle resulted from an argument between white and Negro customers inside the restaurant.

* * *

When manager Ellis L. Peoples ordered the disputants outside after the argument started, the dispute suddenly flared into an all-out fight with reinforcements joining in a series of battles around a parked automobile, the restaurant and an adjoining service station.

INTENSIVE PROBE

Vance County Sheriff L. B. Falkner began an intensive investigation last night of the outburst.

"I plan to get to the bottom of what touched off the trouble," he said.

Police said during much of the battle the Negroes chanted that Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and the Federal Bureau of Investigation "would take care of them."

* * *

USED NIGHTSTICK

He was injured when he allegedly attacked Vance County Deputy Sheriff F. T. McGhee who used his nightstick to subdue him.

When released from Jubilee Hospital, he awaits charges of assault, failing to obey an officers and resisting arrest.

Others were charged with failing to heed an officer and engaging to incite a riot. All were released on bond yesterday.

* * *

NEGROES CHANTED

Police said the Negroes chanted "Bobby Kennedy will take care of you'all. The FBI will take care of you'all. The FBI and Bobby Kennedy will take care of us."

After the worst of the battles, officers repeatedly ordered the participants to leave.

Those who did not respond to three or four warnings were arrested.

Police said some of those at the restaurant when the riot broke out were "stragglers and drinkers."

* * *

The motor freight restaurant remained closed all day yesterday and appeared to have received little damage either inside or out. A spokesman said it would probably be closed until things were completely back to normal.

Grants Go to U. of M.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Welfare Department has announced two grants totaling $193,875 to the University of Michigan for projects on the health of mothers and children.

Tranquilizer

For your telephone is always there, ready to provide the warmth of a loved one's voice, the comfort of help when it's needed, the security of keeping you informed about everything from the weather to what's keeping the kids out so late. Why wonder and worry, when you can telephone and be sure.

Your telephone saves you money while making life easier. In fact, the more you use it, the more you're likely to save. You save time and expenses that would mount up if you had to rush around everywhere in person.

It's hard to imagine what life would be like without a telephone—the tranquilizer that keeps you informed and secure. And it's still one of the biggest bargains in your family budget. Use it often.

It Seems to Me . . . .

Nation's Economy Boosted by Peak Auto Production

A few weeks ago, this column quoted two of the most astute and perceptive men in the automotive business, who predicted that car production would continue at splendid levels right through 1965. And—the motor car is the bell cow for the Nation's economy.

★ ★ ★

Earlier, a score of national leaders had confidentially asserted the summer and fall would see current economic activities continue but Messrs. Knudsen and Townsend were the first to carry the forecasts appreciably farther.

Since then, many top executives have expressed similar ideas. The two area kingpins merely led a swelling parade. Some assert the continued high levels are attributable to the tax cut in the first quarter. Others are sufficiently sanguine to express belief that the American economy is simply "heading that way" indefinitely.

★ ★ ★

The number of job holders is around 71 million — an all-time high. A normal summer slackening is in the cards because of seasonal fluctuations, but the "paid brigade" holds well. The only speck in the sky lies in the number of unemployed in the teen-age division. There the idle rate hovers around 16% and reflects high school dropouts and total lack of experience.

★ ★ ★

If union negotiations can be resolved as squarely and fairly as President Johnson seems to think they should, Mr. and Mrs. United States can look forward to a fine period of incomes on the highest levels in the world. Already your peripatetic reporter has heard a few hard-headed automotive executives speak cautiously — but firmly — of the ten million car year in the relatively near future. Already the Ford Motor Company is erecting another stamping plant which will use 4,000 new employes.

★ ★ ★

FREDERIC G. DONNER, GM Chairman, says that a decade ago three million families owned more than one car.

Today it's 10 million.

"This growth rate is continuing," says he, "and we may expect an additional two and a half million families owning more than one car in the next five years." This inspires unadulterated awe. The figures are breathtaking. And you can picture just where our own staunch, sturdy and absolutely sensational Pontiac will figure in this upward sweep.

★ ★ ★

American Citizens? . . .

Periodically, a group of half-wit students insists on "a trip to Cuba." The United States Government is opposed and this year the FBI was asked to intervene. But 75 went, anyway.

Cuba lent a hand.

And a Communist led the way.

★ ★ ★

One of the misfits immediately endorsed the Communist line. The group held "press conferences" and downgraded and lied about their homeland and ridiculed the Country of their birth. Washington is considering the possibility of summoning them to the capital for "a discussion."

Why waste the time?

★ ★ ★

Bundle the whole tribe back to Cuba for two or three years. If they want to "learn about Castro," let's help. Existence for that length of time under the Communist Cuban mess might teach them — and the next contingent — a lesson that would make an impression.

Why kowtow to dubious citizens?

And in Conclusion . . .

When the Beatles opened in Hong Kong at a fabulous wage, 40% of the seats were empty. . . . . Now they're experimenting with plastic eyeglasses that become tinted when they're exposed to the sun and which revert to normal when you move out of Old Sol. . . . . Attention turns from Michigan's greatest strawberries to raspberries, sweet cherries, gooseberries, dewberries and zucchini squash. All have bumper crops. . . . . DICK BURTON played Hamlet for the 101st time, breaking BARRYMORE'S all-time Broadway record.

He can be honorary President of "C Plus U." . . . . . The dark horse sensation of the movie world is "242nd Street."

Bald-headed men are less susceptible to cancer. . . . . The University of Michigan ranked first in all Big Ten athletic competition with four outright championships and finished lower than second only once. Very Popular In Some Quarters

David Lawrence Says:

Delegate Totals Never Certain

SAN FRANCISCO—The state of mind of the majority of the delegates at the Republican National Convention is best illustrated by a piece of advice that the late Sen. Claude Swanson of Virginia once gave to his fellow politicians in what came to be known as "Swanson's Code."

LAWRENCE

"One of the admonitions was as follows: 'Always climb aboard the rear platform of a train before it actually leaves the railroad station.'"

Sometimes this has been referred to as "climbing aboard the bandwagon." But, whatever the setting, the connotation remains the same. Delegates—especially the non-committed — don't like to be left behind and go back home to face their constituents with a record of having misjudged the prevailing trend.

It might be asked then why a minority of the delegates have hesitated to go with the tide and come out for Sen. Goldwater.

★ ★ ★

One reason is that advance claims as to delegate strength are often discounted. And no one can be sure whether the number really lined up for a prospective nominee is as big as it is made out to be.

LOGICAL ARGUMENTS

Often there are delegates who waver and vacillate as seemingly logical arguments are pressed upon them.

Gov. Scranton of Pennsylvania and his managers here have been hoping to create such doubts and to bring about a crossover, but the effort hasn't proved successful.

This writer traveled here for two days on the Santa Fe Railroad's special "caucus" train, bearing former President Eisenhower and his brother, Dr. Milton Eisenhower, and many delegates.

The Goldwater strength is conceded.

Dr. Eisenhower, who is president of Johns Hopkins University and is to make the principal speech nominating Gov. Scranton, gives the impression that the Arizona senator is on top but that there is still hope for a miracle to bring about a shift to Scranton.

All that the American people can do is to pick a man who has common sense and a rugged honesty.

All kinds of advice are given a president, but in the final analysis it is his obligation to form a judgment based on what is honest, what is fair and what is for the best interest, not just of a political party but of the nation.

★ ★ ★

If former President Eisenhower is truly neutral—he will go along with the nominee of the convention whoever he happens to be and will do his utmost to help the Republican party win the election.

★ ★ ★

He is convinced, incidentally, that the outcome is by no means a foregone conclusion.

Capital Letter:

Barry: Cyclone on Stump, Zephyr Around the Home

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

SAN FRANCISCO—The public and private images of Barry Goldwater seem as dissimilar as a tornado and a summer breeze.

On the stump, the GOP presidential frontrunner is a hard-hitting, wide-swinging politician who sounds to his critics like an ancient Cassandra and to his cheering fans like a modern-day Revere.

RUTH MONTGOMERY

He's a gregarious host who acts as his own bartender, pausing occasionally to beat out rhythms on a Rube Goldberg-type musical instrument which his sons gave him.

★ ★ ★

JEWISH IMMIGRANTS

The grandson of Russian Jewish immigrants, he was reared an Episcopalian by his remarkable mother, who was thought to be dying of tuberculosis when she went to Arizona in her youth.

Cured by the dry desert air, she married Baron Goldwater, bore two sons and a daughter, drove them every day to which the American flag raised and lowered at an Army post nearby, and is still frisky today.

Exactly one year ago, when I interviewed Barry Goldwater about his possible presidential candidacy, he stated candidly:

"I may not be the best qualified man for the job. I've only had a year of college—though I expect I know more about more subjects than most people."

Certainly few top candidates can boast a wider diversity of interest than this engaging, gregarious man whose principal fault seems to be a tendency to shoot from the hip when he ad-libs.

SIMILAR TENDENCY

Harry S. Truman shared a similar tendency. Yet the man from Missouri, whose formal education ended with high school graduation, may well go down in history as one of America's more outstanding presidents.

The presidency itself sobers a man.

Businessmen Support Tax Exemption Hike

Believing it is not logical to help people living in poverty by taking money away from them, the nation's independent business proprietors have voted in support of HR Bill 378 introduced by Rep. John Lesinski. It provides for an increase in the personal income tax exemption from $600 to $1,200. Our vote was 72 per cent in favor, 16 per cent against, with 2 per cent undecided. The exemption of $600 has existed for years, despite the rise in the cost of living.

★ ★ ★

When this bill was presented it was pointed out that this would release many present taxpayers from any tax liability, and that the lower income groups pay the major share of personal income taxes. Yet businessmen feel this relief should be passed by Congress.

The nation's independent business proprietors fail to understand how these people can be helped to a better life by first taking the money from them and then returning 66⅔ per cent less administration costs.

Dislikes New Name for Perimeter Road

Many people feel that naming perimeter road "Wide Track Drive" showed lack of judgment. The phrase "wide track" is featured in current advertising for Pontiac cars and as such is a fine phrase, but what will Pontiac be featuring as a catch-word next year?

Meanwhile the residents and businesses along the street are stuck with a name nobody will recognize. The city owes a lot to GM, but there are other businesses, so why make it look as if the whole city has been taken over. I hope the matter will be reconsidered and a more appropriate name chosen.

English Papers Comment on Cyprus

The London Guardian discusses the prospects of peace in Cyprus. It says the first and apparently friendly meeting between General Grivas and the United Nations senior civilian representative in Cyprus suggests that peace may be closer than it seemed a week ago.

If the General can help the U.N. by restoring discipline among the Greek irregulars he will have done much to make negotiations possible. The Guardian says this help should not be scorned. The restoration of law and order is still much the most important and immediate task; but it does not matter who restores it as long as the job gets done. The Guardian writes:

"It is beginning to look more and more as if the safest solution for the Turkish minority, whose needs are more pressing than anyone else's, would be for Cyprus to unite with Greece. They would then be protected not by the way-ward irregulars of President Makarios' National Guard but by Greek policemen owing allegiance to the Government of Greece, and, in the last resort, by the Greek Army. Greece could and should give special pledges to the Government of Turkey about the Turkish Cypriot safety. They will be far better off if their security depends on responsible men in Athens and not, as at present, on the threat of invasion from Turkey."

★ ★ ★

The London Daily Mail says the Cyprus alarm bells are now ringing loudly. The secret movement of troops by night, however facile the excuses given, have all the signs of an impending coup de main. The first words last week of General Grivas sounded moderate, but his subsequent speech was inflamatory and his actions are suspect.

The Daily Mail says:

"This sort of activity just when intense diplomatic talks are taking place in several capitals to seek a solution is dangerous, impertinent, and foolish. The Greek Cypriots may think that they are in a position now to impose a solution, but are they wise to take this confident view? Most of the disastrous wars in history took place because one side, secure in its belief of holding most of the cards, thought that its opponents would climb down."

The Daily Mail adds that if the Greek Cypriots are relying on the Turks not fighting they had better think again. The mood is dark, the paper says, the way ahead dangerous.

Russia Warns NATO Against N-Force Plans

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union has warned the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to drop plans for the multilateral nuclear force or the Russians will take "appropriate measures."

In notes delivered Sunday to the embassies of the United States and other NATO countries, the Russians denounced the plan for a fleet of surface ships armed with nuclear missiles as a device to give West Germany access to nuclear weapons.

ATYLIA, Greece (AP)—More than half the people of Styli gathered Sunday on the 40th day after the death of a kinsman for the traditional Greek Orthodox memorial services.

The widow, Ioana Apostopoulon, 60, had arranged the service for her husband, Gregory. She also prepared the customary mourning dish of boiled wheat germ, Kuliva, eaten as an offering to God to erase the sins of the deceased so he may enter heaven.

* * *

Within 90 minutes after the service, villagers began complaining of pain.

By nightfall, 23 persons were dead and 128 seriously ill. The village chief said the widow had mistakenly sprinkled the wheat germ with insect poison instead of powdered sugar.

Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai ended a surprise two-day visit to Rangoon Sunday. The Burmese Foreign Ministry said the chief topic in the talks between Chou and Gen. Ne Win, head of Burma's military government, was Southeast Asia.

The announcement said both leaders were determined to seek a "peaceful settlement" to troubles in the area.

TOKYO (AP)—Premier Chou En-lai of Red China reportedly has told Japanese Socialists he is willing to sign a nonaggression pact with Tokyo despite the U.S.-Japanese security treaties.

The Socialists quoted Chou as saying he would sign the pact after Japan and Communist China establish diplomatic relations. Japan's conservative government has shown no inclination to establish such relations, however.

* * *

The Socialists, who included three members of Parliament, arrived in Hong Kong Sunday after a two-week tour of Red China and spoke with correspondents of Japanese newspapers.

Spears, Bows and Arrows Too Much for Congo Army

BUJUMBURA, Burundi, (AP)—Mulelist rebels fighting with spears and bows and arrows and wearing bird wings in their hair routed the Congolese Army in an attack to the west of Albertville over the weekend.

Radio reports picked up here in the capital of neighboring Burundi said the rail junction of Kabalio, about 200 miles from Albertville, has fallen, and Kasongo and the important provincial capital of Kindu are gravely threatened.

* * *

Four trains jammed with 3,000 refugees and Congolese troops have arrived in Kindu, and Europeans are being removed from the town.

President Tshombe of Manlema Province is trying to rally the fleeing army. The troops have demanded three steamers to carry them up the Lualaba River to Ponthierville, on the way to Stanleyville.

28 KILLED

Radio reports from agents of the CFL, a Belgian commercial organization, said 28 Congolese troops were killed in the rebel attack on Kabalio.

The rebel advance gives them control of an area roughly 200 miles by 250 miles to the west of Lake Tanganyika.

* * *

If Kindu falls, the rebels, who are led by former provincial Justice Minister Gaston Soumialot, will again pose a serious threat to outflank Bukavu, on the shores of Lake Kivu.

The Congolese Army appears to have been demoralized by the offensive even though they are much better armed and often outnumber the attackers.

* * *

In their panic to escape Kabalio several soldiers and civilians drowned as they tried to fight their way on to a river steamer.

The rebel warriors, who have declared their loyalty to leftist guerrilla leader Pierre Mulele, attack shoulder to shoulder and are confident that witch doctor magic has given them an immunity to bombs and bullets.

Jury Clears Durocher in Affection Suit

ORANGE, Conn. (AP)—Baseball coach Leo Durocher planned to rejoin the Los Angeles Dodgers today after being absolved of stealing the love of a Vermont bricklayer's wife.

Durocher, 58, was expected to drive to New York and then fly to St. Louis, where the Dodgers play tomorrow night.

The controversial baseball figure was cleared by a jury Saturday in a $150,000 alienation of affections suit brought by bricklayer Rene Morin, 31, o. Middlebury, Vt.

Morin charged that Durocher stole the love of his wife, Anna, 31. But Durocher said he loved Orin's daughter, Carolyn, 26.

22 Eggs Laid at Zoo

Stork to Visit Rare Reptile

A pair of the rare iguanas was brought here from Puerto Rico June 23. Zoo director Frank Thompson said today the blessed event — 22-fold — is expected between Aug. 1 and Oct. 1.

After the female laid her 22 eggs, zoo officials quickly removed them to an aquarium to maintain a constant temperature and close surveillance.

The lizard-like reptile, prehistoric in appearance, is so named for the three blunt horns on its snout. The Mesker iguanas are each about 3 years old, weigh 15 pounds and are three feet long.

* * *

Thompson said the species is found in only 10 other zoos in the United States and is becoming extinct.

Expect New Talks on Plumbers' Contract

JACKSON (AP) — Working to schedule new talks this week under a strike deadline of Aug. 1, in efforts to reach agreement in efforts to reach agreement, state mediators are expected on a contract for 170 members of Local 313, Plumbers and Pipefitters Union. The workers voted Saturday to strike if their demands are not met.

Eagle Feathers for U.S. Indians

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government let it be known today it is sending 1,000 eagle feathers to the Indian tribes of the southwest.

Eagle feathers are highly important to ceremonial costumes of several Southwest Indian tribes, the Interior Department said, but the feathers have been hard to get.

* * *

Federal laws safeguard eagles, their feathers, nests and eggs. Nobody may possess them unless he has a permit from the secretary of the interior or acquired them before protective laws were passed.

* * *

Interior's Fish and Wildlife Service has salvaged the feathers from some 20 eagles found dead in different parts of the country, primarily in North Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois and Missouri.

FEATHERS ON WING

The larger undamaged wing and tail feathers are being sent to the Wildlife Service's regional office in Albuquerque, N.M., for distribution among the tribes.

WASHINGTON (AP)—She is still Sen. Maurine B. Neuberger, D-Ore., even though she is now Mrs. Philip Solomon. Sen. Neuberger, 57, and Dr. Solomon, 50, a Boston psychiatrist, were married Saturday night at the Washington home of David L. Bazelon, chief judge of the U.S. Court of Appeals.

* * *

An aide said Sen. Neuberger would continue using that name for official business. She announced that she plans to seek reelection when her present term expires. She succeeded her husband, the late Richard L. Neuberger, in the Senate seat.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Both government and industry should move promptly to improve the use they make of the nation's 1.7 million scientists and engineers, a special presidential committee says.

* * *

There is need, too, for accurate, meaningful data on the supply of such specialized manpower, said the study made by a committee from the National Academy of Sciences. The late President John F. Kennedy had requested the study.

The manpower data would help with such decisions as in decisions on undertaking major technological projects, such as a lunar landing.

INADEQUATE DATA

"Because of the inadequacy of such data, decisions affecting utilization have so far been based largely on hunches, intuition and fragmentary information," the report said.

Sarah Churchill Fined for Disorderly Conduct

LONDON (AP) — Actress Sarah Churchill, second daughter of Sir Winston Churchill, was fined five pounds ($14) today for disorderly behavior at London Airport two weeks ago.

Miss Churchill, charged in the name of Sarah Lady Audley, pleaded guilty to behaving in a disorderly manner. The prosecution offered no evidence on a further charge of being drunk.

In the Middle Ages, Bibles were so expensive that they were chained to a wall or shelf in churches and monasteries to prevent theft.

State Air Unit in Bomb Test

ALPENA (AP) — Eight RB-57A jets of the Battle Creek Air National Guard were to fly to Hill Air Force Base in Utah today to participate in the Michigan unit's first high altitude night photo bombing mission.

Shortly before their departure a C-97 transport, provided by the 151st Troop Carrier Group of the Utah ANG, will fly equipment and Michigan support personnel from the Phelps-Collins ANG Base here to Hill AFB.

Maj. Richard A. Rann, deputy commander of operations, Michigan ANG, said the mission will be carried out by the 130th Air Control and Warning unit at Salt Lake City, the Ogden Air Materiel Area at Hill AFB and the Michigan ANG unit.

"We plan to shuttle three jets between Alpena and Utah daily," Rann said, adding that three more RB-57As will leave for Hill AFB Wednesday, with three returning the same day.

Rann said the same procedure will continue through Friday when all Michigan aircraft and personnel are scheduled to return here.

Despite Prevalent Attitude, Astronauts Are Not Rich

By ALVIN B. WEBB JR.

HOUSTON (UPI)—My home telephone rang, and the caller identified himself as a New York magazine writer who was getting up a story "about those astronauts living high on the hog."

In fact, he revealed in a confidential tone, "I understand they own a very exclusive and expensive Houston nightclub called the Turtle Club."

That was a shocker. By the good graces of astronaut Alan B. Shepard Jr., I am a member in good standing of the "Interstellar Association of Turtles, Outer Shell Division."—But I could not recall that my status on the hog had risen appreciably as a result.

The Turtle Club, the caller was patiently told, is an informal organization dedicated to nothing particularly good or evil. It has perhaps hundreds of members (including astronauts), one password (its only secret), and no dues.

And certainly no nightclub.

The question, however, was indicative of an apparently prevalent opinion that the pocketbooks of America's astronauts are bottomless pits of wealth and that the title of "spacemen" assures its owner of a lifelong bed of roses.

ANNUAL INCOME

But John Glenn, America's No. 1 space hero, today has an annual income of slightly less than $10,000—his Marine Corps pay.

And today he is facing the prospect of paying a single bill for $9,500—the debt incurred during his ill-fated entry into politics earlier this year to run for the U.S. Senate seat from his native Ohio.

"I went into this political thing with all good reason to believe everything would come out all right," he said.

But that was before a disastrous bathroom fall last February that left him practically unable to walk. He had to drop out of the political race to concentrate on getting well again.

FLASHED SMILE

For a brief instant, Glenn flashed that freckle-faced smile. "I guess they all thought I was a Texas millionaire with a fortune in oil wells."

The result of this year's series of events left Glenn with no pay either as an astronaut or as a U.S. senator. Gone, too, were the "fringe benefits" of the personal life story contracts the active spacemen have signed with a private publisher.

The net effect was "having my income cut by almost two-thirds," said the 43-year-old spaceman who rode to the pinnacle of success on America's first manned orbital trip into space slightly more than two years ago. And, chances are, Glenn's estimate of the cut was conservative.

"So I am facing about $10,000 worth of debts and my two kids are getting ready to start college," Glenn said matter-of-factly. Plus there is his wife, Annie, who recently underwent two major operations and who is still recovering.

NOT THE TYPE

But John Glenn is not the type to feel sorry for himself, and his threshold of discouragement is extremely high.

"I expect to pay off the campaign debts," he said confidently. He gives few, if any, thoughts to any future political plans. "I just want to provide for my family right now."

Glenn's major aim now is to get back firmly on his feet, decide which of the many job offers he will take and to get his life—and those of the other members of his family—back on an even keel.

His progress is encouraging. Gone is the agonizing, shuffling walk that characterized the early days of recuperation from the ear injury that affected his balance and coordination. He gets around now with comparative ease.

ANY HUSBAND

The worries of John Glenn today are the worries of any husband and father in the same circumstances. But even when the Glenn family fortune is back on the rise, there will never be any "living high on the hog."

As someone once said, the man has class.

Pacific Trip Washes Out

Hogan 62, put out from Ventura Saturday in his 14-foot electric motorboat, vowing to get to Honolulu "to prove that it could be done." Honolulu is approximately 2,200 miles from here.

Hogan, a North Hollywood grandfather and retired merchant seaman and typewriter mechanic, carried with him a supply of canned goods, 18 gallons of drinking water and 58 gallons of gasoline to power a generator.

He was rescued yesterday by a patrol boat as his aluminum craft drifted toward nearby Mandalay Beach, about a mile and a half from where he started.

U. of M. Wins Award for Educational Films

CHICAGO (AP)—The University of Michigan has won one of the American Bar Association's 16 gavel awards for 1964 for its series of 20 educational films, "A Quest for Certainty," examining the nature and value of the U.S. legal system. The award will be presented Aug. 13 in New York.

Los Angeles, New York, and Washington, D.C., in that order, were the leading metropolitan area new home builders in 1963. They accounted together for one out of every five new housing units authorized in the U.S.

GOP Platform to Be Battleground for Last-Ditch Scranton Fight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton's forces are making the proposed Republican platform the battleground in their do-or-die struggle to deny Sen. Barry Goldwater the presidential nomination.

But Goldwater, whose strength on the platform committee was displayed in the crushing of key proposals sought by Scranton, said he isn't afraid of the result of any floor fight the Pennsylvanian may be able to organize Tuesday.

That is the day for considering the party statement. Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, Scranton's manager, promised to force votes on major amendments in a struggle for "the soul of the Republican party."

Such a fight would be a major element in Scranton's drive to change enough delegates' minds to block Goldwater's indicated first-ballot nomination Wednesday.

BATTLE CRY

The Pennsylvania governor sounded the battle cry in a letter accusing Goldwater of allowing "the radical extremism to use you" and saying "Goldwaterism has come to stand for nuclear irresponsibility . . . being afraid to forthrightly condemn rightwing extremists . . . refusing to stand for law and order in maintaining racial peace."

From across the party line came indications that Democrats were girding for the fray on the assumption that Goldwater and the platform would win GOP approval.

* * *

Democratic National Chairman John M. Bailey in Washington called the Republican platform draft a "fantasy, conceived in a shadowland of fear and hate" and containing "every radical right cliche."

But the platform committee chairman, Melvin R. Laird, said the group was not dictated to by Goldwater or anyone else. The Wisconsin congressman predicted its product will be "supported by the overwhelming majority of delegates Tuesday night."

The document being sent to the rank and file delegates—while Scranton forces map their parliamentary strategy to fight it—reflects Goldwater's expressed views on point after point and omits the major position statements for which Scranton pleaded in person and through his representatives on the drafting group.

Scranton wanted a repudiation of political extremism, with a specific disavowal of the John Birch Society and a plank opposing any shift from the president to any military commander of authority over use of any nuclear weapons.

These didn't get into the draft platform at all, and instead of declaring the new Civil Rights Act constitutional, as Scranton demanded, the document writers pledged "full implementation and faithful execution."

The platform, completed Sunday after protracted argumentative night and day committee sessions, differs from the 1960 document in several respects—with the Goldwater influence notable.

The Goldwater view on medical care of the aged through federal-state arrangements was adopted and the 1960 document's proposals for modest federal aid in building elementary and secondary schools were dropped. Some switching of taxes from federal to state treasuries was proposed as a substitute for various federal aid programs.

The platform writers jumped into a seething controversy by calling for an amendment to affirm the right of voluntary religious exercises in public places.

* * *

The platform proposed recognition of a Cuban government in exile, rejected "the notion that the United States should take sides" in the quarrel between the Soviet Union and China and said trade with Communist countries could be justified only if "it would serve to diminish their power."

It praised the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and called for halting what it termed deterioration of that alliance, demanded reforms in the United Nations, promised to "move decisively to assure victory in South Viet Nam and demanded demolition of the Berlin wall was a prerequisite for negotiations with the Soviet Union on Germany.

The party document promised to "end 'second-best' weapons policies" and "false economies which place price ahead of the performance on which American lives may depend." It called for letting Communists know the United States recognizes no "privileged sanctuaries"—a term used, especially in connection with the struggle in Southeast Asia, for Communist territory employed as a base for subversive attacks within Western-allied nations.

The platform also recommended:

—Amending the Constitution to modify a recent Supreme Court decision and allow states to allot seats in one chamber of their legislatures on a basis other than population.

—Cut spending at least $6 billion.

—Keep government out of labor disputes as much as possible and reorganize the national labor relations board.

In an "indictment" section, the platform accused the Democratic administration of "weakness before communism," impeding investigations "which might implicate public officials in the highest offices," having "exploited interracial tensions by extravagant campaign promises" and practicing federal extremism at the expense of individual freedom and creative enterprise.

All Set for Summer Turkey

"TURKEY ROAST" — One of the rewards of modern living is this boneless, succulent roll of turkey meat, pre-seasoned and ready for a golden roasting. Bake it in the oven and serve it grandly for Sunday dinner, or let it turn on the patio rotisserie for informal buffet eating. It's equally good either way! You have a choice of all white meat or white and dark rolled together.

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Turkey in the summer is no longer unusual. Americans have discovered that turkey is fine, not only for summer buffet meals, but also for outdoor cooking.

You have your choice of whole birds, or parts (our market carries breasts and thighs), or of rolled boneless roasts.

If you have never tried the last one mentioned, we would suggest your doing so. Some rolls contain only white meat; others have both light and dark rolled together. We prefer the latter.

The advantage of the rolled roast is its ease of serving. It slices nicely and is excellent on a platter with ham or beef. Serve hot or cold.

Leave roast in original wrapper and thaw in refrigerator from 1 to 2 days, or under running cold water. Remove wrapper and leave string in place while cooking.

If roast is not prescasoned, rub with salt, MSG, and pepper. Use ½ teaspoon MSG per pound of turkey.

Place on rack in shallow baking pan. Insert meat thermometer so bulb is in center of meat. Brush entire roll with melted butter or margarine. Place in preheated 350-degree oven.

Baste or brush occasionally with melted butter or margarine, especially any dry areas. If roast becomes too brown during roasting, cover with loose tent of foil.

Continue roasting until done. Roast meat thermometer should register 170 to 175 degrees. Pan drippings may be used for making gravy.

Insert spit rod through center of turkey roll. Insert skewers firmly in place and screw tightly. Test balance.

Meat must balance on spit so it will rotate smoothly throughout the cooking period. Place spit on rotisserie.

Brush roast with melted butter or margarine. Follow manufacturer's directions for rotisserie temperature setting; roast until done. No further basting is necessary.

To test for doneness, insert a meat thermometer in center of roll, being careful not to touch spit. Thermometer should register 170 to 175 degrees.

In either method of cooking, allow roast to stand 20 to 30 minutes to absorb juices. Remove string; use a sharp knife or meat slicer and slice thinly across the roast.

Timetable for Cooking Boneless Turkey Roast

Purchased Ready-to-Cook Weight	Oven Temperature	Interior Temperature	Guide to Total Roasting Time*
3 to 5 pounds	350° F	170° to 175° F	2 to 2½ hours
5 to 7 pounds	350° F	170° to 175° F	2½ to 3½ hours
7 to 9 pounds	350° F	170° to 175° F	3½ to 4 hours

This recipe for Orange Glazed Turkey Roll combines the luscious, fresh fruit with an economical turkey buy.

The delightful fresh flavor of oranges is particularly compatible with the delicacy of turkey meat. The roll is basted during the last half hour of roasting with a sauce composed of orange juice and rind, sugar, salt and thyme.

The remainder of the sauce and pan drippings are then thickened and served hot with the cooked roll.

Orange Glazed Turkey Roll
3 - 4 pound turkey roll
⅔ cup orange juice*
¼ cup sugar
1 tablespoon orange rind
½ teaspoon thyme
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup water
1 tablespoon cornstarch

Roast turkey roll according to package directions.

Combine orange juice, sugar, rind, thyme and salt in small saucepan; heat to dissolve sugar.

Add remaining orange sauce to drippings in pan. Add water mixed with cornstarch; stir to boil. Serve over turkey with orange and grapefruit sections, if desired. 6 servings.

*If desired, ¼ cup frozen orange juice concentrate, thawed and undiluted, may be substituted for orange juice and rind in above recipe.

Turkey Luau Cooks on Your Rotisserie

Should your choice of turkey not be a boneless rolled roast, you'll enjoy the following recipe for Turkey Luau. Small birds, quartered, are marinated in a tangy orange and spice mixture.

Turkey Luau
1 can (6 ounces) frozen orange juice concentrate, thawed, undiluted
2 tablespoons soy sauce
¼ teaspoon Tabasco
1 teaspoon salt
1 garlic clove, crushed
2 tablespoons slivered candied ginger
1 small (6¾-7½ pound) turkey, quartered

Combine undiluted orange concentrate, soy sauce, Tabasco, salt, garlic clove and candied ginger. Pour over turkey parts in shallow dish; let marinate in refrigerator about 3 hours or overnight, turning occasionally.

Remove turkey parts from orange sauce; insert spit rod through meaty parts of bird. Insert skewers firmly in place in bird and screw tightly. Test the balance. Bird must balance on spit so it will rotate smoothly throughout cooking period.

Place spit in rotisserie. Brush turkey with orange barbecue sauce. Follow manufacturer's directions for rotisserie temperature setting and roast until done.

Allow 2 to 2½ hours for a 6-8 pound bird; interior temperature should reach 185 degrees. Baste turkey parts with orange barbecue sauce while cooking. Remove from rod; serve hot.

If desired, cook any leftover barbecue sauce and serve hot with turkey. Yield: 6-8 servings.

Luau Garnish Plate
2 cups chilled or canned orange and grapefruit sections, drained
Berries in season
Candied ginger

Arrange orange and grapefruit sections with berries and ginger. Serve with turkey luau. Yield: 6-8 servings.

Vegetable Kabobs Are Cooked on Grill

Corn and Green Pepper Kabobs

Remove husks from corn, brush off silks and cut into 2½-inch pieces. String corn on skewers, alternating with green pepper squares. Brush with melted butter or margarine. Cook over a very slow-burning charcoal fire, 20 to 25 minutes, turning to cook corn uniformly.

* * *

Remove from skewers, brush with melted butter or margarine and sprinkle with salt and ground black pepper to taste. Serve hot. Allow 3 pieces corn and 3 squares green pepper per serving.

Grill Banana Bundles

For the fun of a picnic lies in the change of scene; the relaxed informality, the special flavor familiar foods take on cooked outdoors. Again, it's fun to be adventurous with these very same staples.

* * *

Take bananas, for instance. Fine to eat-out-of-hand for an energizing snack any time, any place, at a low cost in calories (only 88 in a medium banana). But combined with ham and cheese, sparked with mustard and neatly bundled in foil, they make a novel and appetizing grill candidate. Easy to prepare at home or on the spot and easy to eat right out of the foil package.

The fruit takes on a new and intriguing taste that blends delightfully with the flavors of melted cheese and ham.

Banana Bundles
8 slices boiled ham
Prepared mustard
1 8-ounce package American cheese slices
8 bananas
Aluminum foil

For each bundle, place one slice of ham on a square of aluminum foil large enough to extend several inches on each side. Spread ham with mustard and top with one slice of cheese and one peeled banana. Wrap ham and cheese around banana. Use drugstore wrap to close foil.

Roast over hot coals of grill about 15 minutes. INDOORS: Bake bundles in 400-degree oven for 15 minutes. Makes 8 servings.

Raising Children

Grandparents Are Indulgent

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

So Lonnie's gracious grandmother moved into the home to help rear Lonnie and keep house for her son, who was Lonnie's daddy.

DR. CRANE

"But I think you better mail her a copy of your newspaper 'Test for Good Mothers.'

"For she is too indulgent of Lonnie. She lets him get away with murder, in a figurative sense, for she spoils him terribly.

"She lets him get sassy and impolite. Why do grandmothers give children more privileges than the 'youngsters' own mothers do?"

Grandmothers need to be very careful if they are the constant supervisors of children.

For it is quite true that grandparents are usually more lenient than are the parents of those same youngsters.

TAKE CARE

But when grandparents assume the steady job of rearing young grandchildren, then they must take care!

Part of the task of being a good mother (or grandmother, too) consists of training a child to become a self-reliant, morally upright member of adult society.

This means that a child must not be allowed to shirk his proper household chores.

He should thus brush his teeth regularly and make his own bed and help with the dishes, etc.

"Yes, Dr. Crane," you may reply, "but why is it typical of grandmothers to show more leniency?

"They are more experienced, than parents, so they should be more careful to make sure their grandchildren hew to the line."

Well, grandparents subconsciously sense the fact that the Grim Reaper is not too far away.

When people grow mellow and philosophical about death, they are contemplating such major events that they tend to dismiss childhood faults as too petty to fret about.

Thus, whether a child eats candy before his meals or has an extra ice cream soda, is too petty to disturb a grandmother who may permanently say farewell to this earth within a few years.

This broader philosophical outlook tends to dwarf many minor but very essential rules regarding child rearing.

So grandparents, such as Lonnie's grandmother, should by all means send for the 200-point "Tests for Good Parents," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus twenty cents.

* * *

Local 594 Picnic Called Big Success

Pontiac Press Photos

Happiest was William Baldridge, 1212 Hemingway, Orion Township. He didn't have to carry his prize—it carried him.

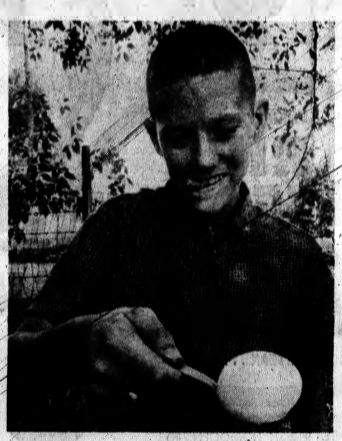
From start to finish the picnic was termed a "smashing success" by Local 594 President Andy Wilson. "Everything went smooth.

The union-sponsored event drew an estimated 5,000, double the attendance of the local's first picnic last year.

"We gave out 12,000 ice cream bars, and the credit union donated 9,000 bottles of pop, and we still ran out," said Wilson.

WINNING FORM—With urgings of "Come on, you can do it," Mrs. Leo Eason of Avon Township turned champion as she sends her footwear flying to win the shoe-kick contest.

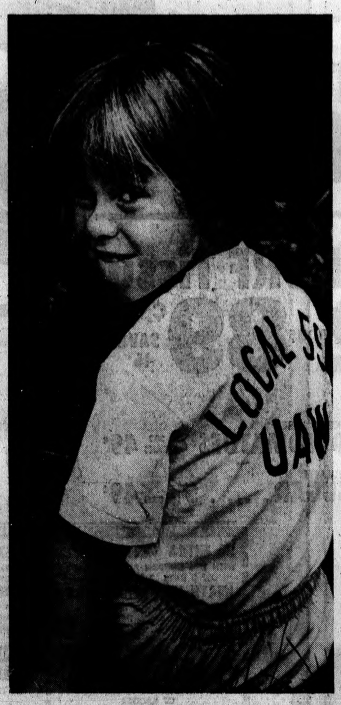
PRO ADVICE — Undefeated in his six election bids, former Gov. G. Mennen Williams gives some friendly tips to Mrs. Mary Knuff of Birmingham on how to circulate nominating petitions. Williams toured the picnic grounds with Local 594 President Andy Wilson (right) and spoke briefly besides shaking hundreds of hands.



SHELL GAME — Bruce Cushman, 13, of Avon Township grimaced and gingerly walked across the finish line of the spoon and egg contest for youngsters at the Local 594 picnic.

TICKLED TERI — Amusement park kiddie rides haven't lost their kick in the space age as witnessed by smiling 3-year-old Teri Hess. Children of Local 594 members swarmed over the rides at Walled Lake park and didn't seem to mind a bit if they had to wait in line — it was worthwhile.

NO RAIN TODAY — An upside-down umbrella makes no difference to 4-year-old Kenneth Gee Jr. who found it handy for portable shade. The sun shone bright over the estimated 5,000 attending the Local 594 picnic at Walled Lake.



I BELONG, TOO! — Proudly modeling the T-shirt she won during the ticket drawing is Janet Kirby, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seeber Kirby of Walled Lake. Other gift shirts were rapidly filled out as youngsters helped consume a truckload of ice cream and pop.

KANGAROO PACK — You'd think David Asher (foreground) had practiced his sack race skills all week as he hopped away from competitors. The 12-year-old came in first to win the prize, leaving the others holding the bag.

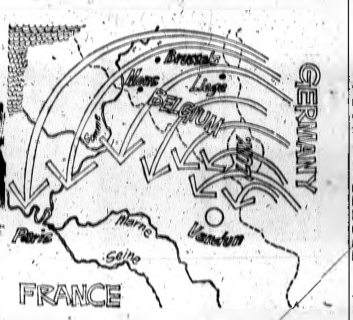
VII. The Armies March



Europe's Troops Went Marching Off

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is another in a continuing series on World War I appearing in The Pontiac Press throughout the summer.)

By PHILIP VAN DOREN STERN
DRAWINGS BY JOHN LANE

Disaster had struck the world at Sarajevo on June 28, 1914, when Austria's Archduke Franz Ferdinand and his wife were killed there by a Serbian assassin.

But the world paid little attention, because it thought that this was only another outburst of local Balkan violence. Yet Austria and Germany were directly concerned.

A week after the assassination, Germany promised to back Austria on any move she might make against Serbia. With that promise the war was launched; what happened during the next few weeks was merely the transformation of political dissension into open conflict.

Serbia meekly agreed to nearly all of them, but that was not enough. Austria declared war on her on the 28th and bombarded Belgrade the next day.

* * *

Those shots were the first of millions that were to split the skies for more than four years. Within a week all Europe was to be at war.

DON UNIFORMS

Civilians hurriedly put on uniforms, and anxious-faced women watched tearfully while their beloved ones marched away. Hardly any of the first soldiers to go into combat were to survive four years of battle.

When Russia mobilized, Germany issued a 12-hour ultimatum demanding that she recall her troops.

* * *

But there is no way of stopping a tidal wave when it starts to build up strength. All over Europe armies were getting ready to fight.

The only question was where they would meet and what paths of attack they would take.

The German Schlieffen plan called for an invasion of Luxembourg and Belgium so the Kaiser's army could sweep west of Paris and come around to surround the city on three sides.

Meanwhile, other German forces were to attack Russia in a two-front war. Trains rolled both east and west with men and guns.

By August 2, tiny Luxembourg was overrun. Belgium's turn was next. Now England was involved, for she had guaranteed that small country's neutrality.

When Germany demanded free passage to France, Belgium rejected the ultimatum, and the Kaiser's troops entered with guns blazing. England, although torn by international disagreement, stood by her guarantee.

After speaking in the House of Commons on August 3, Viscount Grey of Falladon, Secretary of the Foreign Office, stood looking at London as dusk fell that night.

"The lamps are going out all over Europe," he said. "We shall not see them lit again in our lifetime."

Youth Is Charged With Ike Assault

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP)—Melvin Phillip Floyd, 23, was to face Corporation Court today charged with simple assault on former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

* * *

The charge against the Spearman, Tex., youth grew out of an incident which occurred during Eisenhower's stopover here Saturday. A placard thrown in the air struck the former president in the side.

* * *

Eisenhower telegraphed Mayor F. V. Wallace of Amarillo Sunday that the incident "was nothing but a spontaneous reaction to excitement" and "I trust the matter will be dropped."

MAURICE THOREZ

French Reds Mourn Leader

Expires Aboard Ship En Route to Russia

Thorez, head of the French party for 34 years, died Saturday aboard a Soviet ship crossing the Black Sea to Yalta, where he was to be treated for a chronic heart condition.

* * *

The body was landed at Varna, Bulgaria, where Communist officials said after a post mortem that Thorez had died of a heart attack.

Thorez' widow, Jeanette Vermeersch, also a party leader, was with him when he died. A Soviet plane Sunday brought her and the body to Paris, where they were met by a large crowd and three of Thorez' sons.

LIES IN STATE

The body was taken to lie in state today and Tuesday in the City Hall of Ivry-sur-Seine, a workers' suburb with a Communist city government. Thorez represented the district in the National Assembly. The body will be moved Wednesday to party headquarters in the center of Paris, and the funeral will be Thursday.

* * *

Soviet Premier Khrushchev, in a cable to Mrs. Thorez, saluted her husband as "an outstanding figure of the French and international Communist and workers' movement, a true friend of the Soviet Union, our brother-in-arms in the great struggle for the liberation of mankind."

A coal miner at 12, Thorez at 20 was a founder of the French Communist party. He became regional party director in 1923 and national secretary-general in 1930.

* * *

In 1934 he was instrumental in organizing the Socialist-Communist Popular Front against Fascism. When World War II broke out in 1939, he fled to the Soviet Union and was convicted in absentia of desertion. He was given amnesty later.

AFTER LIBERATION

He returned after the liberation of France to a party that had nearly a million members.

* * *

The membership has slowly dwindled. Now only about 240,000 French men and women carry party cards. But the party still attracts 20 to 25 per cent of the vote on national issues.

$6,000 in Jewelry Is Stolen From Hart's D.C. Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — Diamond jewelry valued at $6,000 was reported stolen Sunday from the home here of Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich.

* * *

Neither the senator nor Mrs. Hart were at home when the house was broken into and three jewelry pieces were stolen from an upstairs bedroom, police said. Reported taken were a diamond pin valued at $1,500, and diamond and platinum bracelets valued at $3,000 and $1,500.

Hillsdale Grad, 96, Expires in Jackson

JACKSON (AP) — Funeral service will be held Tuesday for Charles P. Hulce, who had been the oldest living graduate of Hillsdale College.

Hulce was graduated from Hillsdale College in 1895 and received a masters degree from the University of Michigan. He was a former superintendent of Hillsdale schools and served as a teacher in both Upper and Lower Michigan communities.

Gleanings From the Mailbag

Like Father, Like Son, Not Often Done

By HAL BOYLE

Only one in four American sons follows the same career as his father. The highest percentage—40.1—is in the professional group, including doctors and lawyers.

It has been estimated that the average person learns at a rate of only about 10 per cent of his full capacity, so—strain that brain.

Cheerful news for any man planning to go into a hospital: more than half of all U.S. registered nurses are under 40.

A civilization can be judged by how much paper it uses—and for what purposes. America consumes more than seven million tons of newsprint annually, and last year it used 287,756 tons of facial tissues—a figure not to be sneezed at.

OWES A DEBT

Every office worker owes a debt to Turkey. The reason: the first coffee break originated in Istanbul in the 16th century. The coffee house, or cafe, also started there.

Litter cleanup costs the taxpayers about half a billion dollars in 1964. We dump 20 million cubic yards of junk on our roadways, enough to cover a 3,000-mile highway between New York and San Francisco a foot deep in discarded cartons, paper cups, cans, bottles and assorted trash.

SUPPOSED TO LAST

"Honeymoon" gets is name from the fact that the period of idyllic bliss after marriage was supposed to last a full month or, poetically, a moon.

San Francisco Is Now Up to Its Ears in Convention Hoopla

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Having survived the gold rush, the earthquake and the Japanese beetle, this city of grace and taste is now choked with corn as high as an elephant's eye, assorted nuts, promoters, press agents, world-savers and pamphleteers, including one pushing "a positive program for responsible extremism."

* * *

While the Republican convention itself gets started today on an incoming tide of oratory and an ebb of suspense, the parade of hoopla, spontaneous and synthetic, continues in what has been called the hill before the fall.

* * *

There are all kinds of people here, even delegates, but the ones who seem to be having the most fun are the wandering bands of kids. Like street urchins in an Italian movie, they go from one free load to another, from one hospitality suite to the next, collecting loot, punch, soda, campaign buttons and tracts with fine impartiality.

For all the noise, bands, exhibitionists, for all the pickets for "Bingo (of the Beatles) for President" or those crying "Earl Warren must repent," for all the big button wearers, including those whose pins cry simply for "Help" or "Mother" or "Stop Stassen," memorable wit remains hard to come by.

NEVER BEEN THERE

However, one Goldwater delegate was overheard asking another Goldwater delegate: "What do you think of Scranton?" Answer: "Don't know. Never been there."

With all the important people here, unless you're Dwight D. Eisenhower or one of the major candidates, about the only way to attract any real attention is to look conspiratorial in a hotel lobby. The thing to do is lean over to a friend and whisper, "I must get in touch with my people immediately." Do that and you'll be drowned under reporters, blinded by camera lights and choked to death with televidoi.

* * *

Another way is to undress in public. One healthy young blonde drew off the mob in front of the Mark Hopkins Hotel by appearing in a blouse cut down to her waist. On one side of her striking superstructure she wore a Goldwater button; on the other, a Scranton button but nothing for the middle of the roaders.

Delegates are scattered over 42 hotels and one of the unhappiest is a Virginia delegate who is housed on North Beach in what he calls a "swarm of ethnic grops." He is surrounded by pizza parlors, first-run Chinese movies, strip joints, bearded beatniks and sailors on the prowl with a gleam older than politics.

This easily must be the most overcommunicated convention in history. Also the one with greatest mutual suspicion. Everybody seems to be thoroughly wired to talk to everybody else by special complex phone systems, by radio, walkie-talkie and creeple-people. The rival camps have been thorough about de-bugging their facilities to prevent the enemy from listening.

Private security police are employed everywhere, even by the television networks. At the Mark Hopkins, on the backstairs between the Goldwater headquarters on the 18th floor and the Scranton command post on the 16th, there is a no-man's-land guarded by Pinkerton men on the 15th and Burns men on the 16th. The Pinkertons wear blue; the Burns men, gray. We may reach Appomatox Wednesday.

* * *

As usual, there are organized adolescents wandering around town for each candidate, carrying signs, distributing literature and haranguing the populace with song and slogan. As usual, each side says all its own people are strictly volunteers while the other has to subsidize its adherents.

Each side plans to run about 18G screaming teen-agers into the Cow Palace when its man is nominated for the traditional processional. Additionally, however, the Goldwater camp owns most of the sergeants at arms and pages in the convention hall. They are supposed to be officially neutral.

* * *

There are no new wrinkles this year among the gadgets or the speaker's podium. There are lights and clocks to tell a speaker when he's going overtime. Unlike past podiums, however there is no clock telling him the time on the Atlantic seaboard. The Republican Eastern establishment appears to have lost all around this year.

HEY, LOOK AT US — It's not too easy to gain attention these hectic days in San Francisco, but these GOP supporters are doing their best. Under the wigs and campaign material are four men from Orange County, Calif. The large glasses are to keep them from being dazzled during the proceedings.

Excommunication Is Lifted in Play Rift

IONIA (AP) — An Episcopal bishop Sunday rescinded the excommunication of an Ionia couple involved in a hassle with their church rector over a girl's dance in a high school play.

But the Rt. Rev. Charles E. Bennison, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Western Michigan, said while he lifted the excommunication of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clore they still are denied the sacraments of the church, including Holy Communion.

* * *

The Clores were excommunicated by the Rev. Raymond Bierlein, their parish priest, last April 13. This came after a letter was published in the Ionia Sentinel-Standard in which the Clores took issue with the priest's objections to 16-year-old Christy Honson's dance. Christy, playing the temptress Lola in the musical Damn Yankees, had danced into the audience and pinched cheeks.

Bishop Bennison, reached by telephone at his home in Kalamazoo, said the Clores were advised of the action in a letter handed to them Sunday morning at St. Johns Episcopal Church in Ionia, where the bishop preached the sermon.

LETTER UNDISCLOSED

He declined to disclose details of the letter.

Clore, 50, an electrical contractor and proprietor of a bowling alley, said he and his wife expected the letter as a result of a meeting they had with Bishop Bennison at Kalamazoo July 2.

The Clores' said the church's chancellors had ruled that, since a priest does not have the authority to excommunicate, the Rev. Bierlein's order had no effect.

However, a priest does have the authority to deny the sacraments of the church, and the Clores said they have been advised that this is true in their case.

Tell-Improvement for Panama's Arias

STOKE MANDEVILLE, England (AP) — Dr. Roberto Arias of Panama "had a comfortable night and has maintained his improvement," a medical bulletin issued by Stoke Mandeville Hospital said today.

Arias emerged from a five-day coma yesterday. The hospital had reported a deterioration of his condition when he went into the coma. His wife, Ballerina Dame Margot Fonteyn, rushed to his side.

Arias, 46, was shot by a political opponent in Panama City June 8. He is paralyzed from the waist down.

Got on Wrong Bandwagon

Sen. Kuchel: Loneliest Man in Town

He isn't even a delegate.

* * *

The assistant Senate Republican leader scanned the skyline of San Francisco from his 23rd-floor hotel suite and said cheerfully, "I'm here as a sightseer."

JUST A SPECTATOR

"Otherwise," he said, "I'll just be a spectator in the gallery."

* * *

Kuchel, you see, backed the wrong candidate in California's June 2 primary. He was for Nelson A. Rockefeller. More than that, he was chairman of the 86-vote delegation pledged to the New York governor.

* * *

Former Sen. William F. Knowland led a rival Goldwater slate to a victory that served to turn the national convention into an apparent walkaway for the Arizona conservative.

It also lifted Knowland out of the political shadows to which he was consigned after giving up his Senate seat in 1958 to run, unsuccessfully, for governor of California.

ALMOST JAUNTY

An obviously happy, almost jaunty Knowland presided over an organizational caucus of the state's delegation Sunday.

Pointing to boxes of campaign literature left for Californians by supporters of Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania, the Oakland publisher said, "I'm not going to undertake to distribute it."

He said he had no objection to any delegates helping themselves. After all, he said, it might be good for notepaper "or any other use you want to put it to." The room rocked with laughter.

* * *

As for Kuchel, he's not even sure he'll stay for the entire convention. Supporting Scranton, he is equally silent on whether he'll swing behind Goldwater in November if he heads the GOP ticket.

Not many years ago, Kuchel was very junior in the state Republican hierarchy to former Gov. Earl Warren, Knowland, former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

LEST SCENE

Kuchel's re-election in 1962, despite a lopsided Democratic registration, set off talk that he might aim for the governorship in 1966.

* * *

Joseph C. Shell of Los Angeles, a former state assemblyman who opposed Nixon in the 1962 Republican gubernatorial primary, has joined other Goldwater delegates in admonishing Kuchel to get behind their candidate.

"If he doesn't," said Shell, "he might not win his own party primary when he seeks reelection in 1968."

Businessman Expires

WINNETKA, Ill. (AP) — Walter F. Straub, 67, died Sunday in his Winnetka, Ill., home at the age of 67. He was president and manager of W. F. Straub & Co., a director of Wieboldt Stores, Inc., and president of the Wieboldt Foundation.

Candidate States Prohibition Planks

HILLSDALE (AP) — Republicans and Democrats have yet to name their standard bearers, but the tiny Prohibitionist Party has settled on 60-year-old Earl H. Munn.

Munn, a teacher at Baptist-affiliated Hillsdaye College, will have to write his name on the ballot in his — and the party's — own state of Michigan. The group failed to gather the 14,496 signatures necessary to get on the ballot.

"I prefer President Johnson as a man, to Sen. Goldwater, but Goldwater's views are more in line with my own thinking."

FRONT-RUNNER

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona is the front-runner for the GOP nomination.

"I have a personal feeling that, ethically, President Johnson's standards are higher than Goldwater's. Sen. Goldwater, for one thing, is careless and indiscreet in his language.

"On the other hand, Goldwater holds views in such areas as private enterprise, states' rights and our national sovereignty that are similar to mine. I have the feeling that in states where my name is not on the ballot, members of my party will vote for him," Munn added.

PLATFORM ISSUES

They also drew up a platform opposing the peacetime draft, surrender of national sovereignty, industrywide collective bargaining, and the use of "arbitrary pressures" to settle civil rights disputes.

The platform endorses "right-to-work" laws, the nuclear test ban, reduced government spending, a free-market program for agriculture, and sale of government-owned businesses to private industry.

* * *

Munn plans to stress these issues — and not just prohibition of alcoholic beverages — in his nationwide campaign. His goal is to change what he thinks may be the party's national image.

* * *

"We're anything but a bunch of old fuddy-duddies," he insists. "Anybody who believes that should come to one of our conventions and see all the bright young people."

Needy Apply for Sterilization

BEREA, Ky. (AP)—"Times is hard. We just can't take care of any more children," the gaunt woman said as she signed for a sterilization operation.

"My folks had 10 of us young 'uns and didn't send a nary one of us to school a bit. I want to school my children as best I can and I think I got all I can handle."

At 29, the woman is the mother of four. She had to make her mark on the application. She can't write. Her husband, a tenant farmer, earned about $700 last year.

"These are the sort of people we want to help," said O. L. Keener, volunteer contact man for a committee that is sponsoring a six-month program of voluntary sterilization for needy parents.

PROGRAM

The program is administered by the Human Betterment Association for Voluntary Sterilization of New York. It is financed by a $25,000 gift from Jesse Hartman, a New York businessman.

Dr. Louise Hutchings, president of the Mountain Maternal Health League, is chairman of the Berea committee. Her group has been advocating birth control, including sterilization, for 28 years.

* * *

"I went to see a doctor about three years ago," another mountain woman recounted. "I was pregnant with my 10th child and my legs swelled up so much the doctor said he didn't know how I could stand.

"The doctor told me about the operation. I wanted it."

OPERATION

This woman and another, who underwent the operation 10 days ago, had the operations at the same time as childbirth. Their hospital stay was only a day or two longer than normal.

The committee sponsoring the program here would prefer that men underwent sterilization rather than their wives, but it often is difficult to convince a man to allow it, they say. Male operation costs about one-seventh as much, is much simpler and does not require hospitalization.

* * *

But many men feel that sterilization would be a stigma. Some fear loss of work time—even a few hours.

Keener said his group believes sterilization is one answer to the poverty that grips the mountain country of Appalachia.

COUPLES APPLY

So far, six couples have applied for the operations. They have a total of 53 children and four of them, with 35 children, have a total income of $4,000 a year.

* * *

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Notes from the foreign news cables:

CHINESE TO VIET NAM: With the silent if not wholehearted approval of the United States, Nationalist China is increasing its involvement in South Viet Nam.

The Nationalists announced last week they were tripling the size of their agricultural advisory team in Viet Nam.

Now there are persistent reports in Taipei that the Nationalists will help the South Vietnamese Army set up a political department along the lines of its own highly effective system.

Privately, U.S. government and military men have expressed concern that the Nationalist help could provkie Peking with another excuse for provocation.

* * *

Should the farm technicians be caught in a Viet Cong raid, the Communists easily could claim they had nabbed a Nationalist soldier.

Ordinarily the body, meets at the end of the year to adopt the annual budget and economic plan.

No agenda for the special meeting has been announced but reliable sources say it will pass welfare legislation to carry out Premier Khrushchev's determination to boost individual incentives to raise productivity.

Legislation will provide higher salaries for teachers, physicians, engineers and expand the pension system to peasants who are not now covered. Introduction of a universal 40-hour week also is expected.

BREAK IN THE WALL? West Berliners' hopes for an East-West agreement to permit visits to Communist East Berlin are being raised again.

Talks between West Berlin and East German officials have been extended beyond the expected target date and some of the meetings have lasted several hours.

This has led to rumors that the negotiators actually are down to working out details of an agreement which would give West Berliners compassionate passes to visit East Berlin relatives on urgent family matters such as illness.

* * *

NO PEACE IN CYPRUS: Diplomats in London are writing off changes of a Cyprus settlement in the current Geneva mediation effort.

Attempts at formal negotiations so far have been frustrated by Greek refusal to participate in a round-table conference.

American pressure apparently has made no impression on the Greeks.

At the same time, the reported Greek military buildup in Cyprus is seen as an attempt to force a political solution rather than bring it about by peaceful negotiations.

ON THE DRAWING BOARD: The French Sud-Aviation Aircraft Construction Co. reportedly is drafting plans for a new middle-distance jetliner as a successor to the highly-successful "Caravelle."

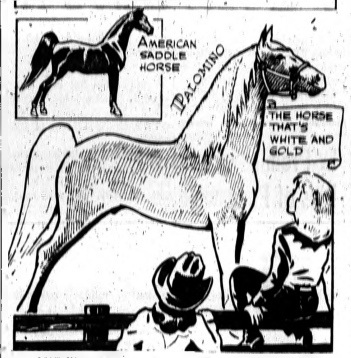
Unconfirmed reports say the British might be invited to participate in the project as they already are doing in the long-range supersonic "Concord."

Rights Survey Ended in 39 State Counties

DETROIT (AP) — A survey by the Michigan Civil Rights Commission to insure nondiscrimination in the state's public accommodations has been completed in 39 counties and some 1,800 hotels, motels, resorts, taverns and restaurants, Commission director Burton I. Gordin said today.

Junior Editors Quiz on Horses



QUESTION: Is the Palomino horse a separate breed?

ANSWER: Horses are generally grouped into three kinds, draft or heavy horses, light horses and the smaller ponies. Light horses are the ones usually used for riding and driving.

These have been developed by breeding—mating animals of similar type—so that their foals will be like their parents.

These breeds include the Arabians, Thoroughbred (racing horse) Standardbred, American Saddle Horse, Morgan, Tennessee Walking Horse and American Quarter Horse.

Horses, when born, may have different colors, such as black, seal brown, bay, etc. Palomino is simply one of these colors: it means a golden body color with blond or silver mane and tail.

Palominos are so popular that they are often called by this name rather than the breed of horse they represent. Check in our picture with how the shape of the Palomino resembles the American Saddle Horse, which is this Palomino's breed.

Two Palominos, mated, might produce a foal of another color, which is why they are not a separate breed. Except for Thoroughbreds, Palomino coloring occurs in almost all breeds.

FOR YOU TO DO: Put a gold color over the body of the Palomino to get a better idea of the color of this beautiful horse. Watch for Palominos on horse farms.

Truthfully, are credit union loans really low cost?

THEY CERTAINLY ARE . . . as 50,000 people—who borrowed over $50 million from Oakland County's 76 credit unions last year—can verify!

Credit union members usually enjoy the lowest loan costs obtainable anywhere, regardless of "quoted rates." They know the interest they are paying—just 1% per month on unpaid balance . . . pay interest only—no extra charges . . . with one rate in all—no sliding scale based on your credit rating or assets. And they often can get longer-term loans or extensions without penalty.

Most credit union borrowers receive interest refunds—often saving 10-20% more on loan costs. While repaying loans, they are covered by life and disability insurance at no extra cost!

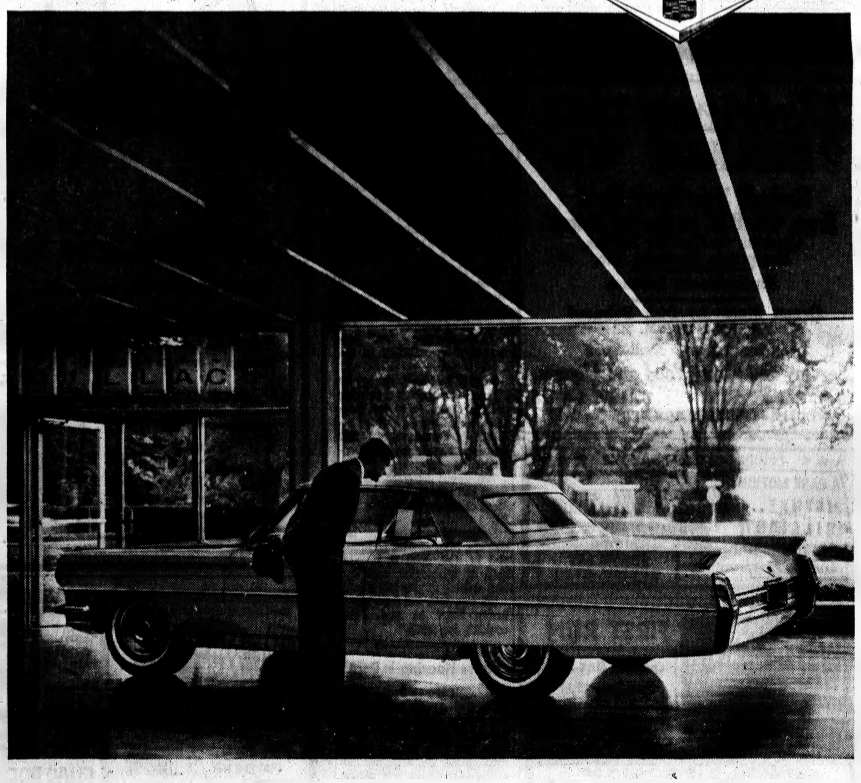
Cadillac



YOU MAY BE LOSING MONEY BY PAYING LESS

There are many cars that cost almost as much as a Cadillac. But it is a matter of fact that the decision to buy one of them could be a false economy.

Consider the major items included in the price of a Cadillac that are usually extra on other cars: automatic transmission, high-performance engine, power steering and power brakes, automatic cornering lights, and power windows on most models.

Then think of what a new Cadillac can save you on operation and maintenance. Cadillac is actually the rival of much smaller, lighter cars in gasoline efficiency—and it is so soundly built that it has reduced upkeep expense to the practical minimum.

You're ahead again—every mile you drive.

Finally, reflect on Cadillac's high trade-in value. No car at or near its price preserves its original investment so well.

So add it all up. You'll see what most owners mean when they say you don't spend more for a Cadillac. You just invest a little more—and get a lot more back.

If a Cadillac has long been in your plans, visit your dealer and get all the dollars-and-cents facts.

Senate Must Get in High Gear, Says Mansfield

WASHINGTON (AP)—Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., said today the Senate "must get into high gear and stay here" if members of Congress hope to sojourn the weekend of Aug. 22.

But he referred with elation to the pace the Senate has set in the three weeks since it finished a 15-weeks debate on civil rights, and expressed confidence that goal will be met. The Democratic National Convention meets in Atlantic City, N.J., starting Aug. 24.

* * *

Both the Senate and House are in recess this week while most Republican members are in San Francisco for the Republican convention. Both houses will reconvene next Monday.

Mansfield, who as Democratic leader supervises the flow of legislation through the Senate, has picked half a dozen bills for Senate action next week.

* * *

Topping the list is a controversial antipoverty measure asked by President Johnson with a first-year cost of $962.5 million.

Among Republicans already publicly opposed to it is Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., the indicated GOP standard bearer.

* * *

Mansfield also listed these measures for Senate consideration in the first post-convention week:

—A $262-million yearly increase in military pay which was recommended last week by the Senate Armed Services Committee. It would provide a 2½ per cent raise in base pay for military personnel of all ranks except enlisted personnel with less than two years service.

FOREIGN AID

—A foreign aid authorization bill which must be passed before the Senate can act on a separate money bill to finance it.

—Two more of the annual appropriations which supply operating funds to the numerous government departments and agencies for the fiscal year which began July 1. These provide money for Congress and its related activities and for the District of Columbia.

New Methodist Bishop Is Assigned to Chicago

CLEVELAND (AP) — Newly elected Bishop Thomas M. Pryor of Kalamazoo was assigned to the Chicago Area Saturday by the committee on episcopacy at the North Central Jurisdictional Conference of the Methodist Church. Bishop Dwight E. Loder of Evanston, Ill., was named to the Michigan Area.

Ex-Premier of Iran Dies of Pneumonia

In 57 years as a diplomat and politician, Ala was premier twice. He also once was ambassador to Washington.

Clues Sought in Slaying of D.C. Negro Educator

COLBERT, Ga. (AP)—FBI and Georgia state agents today pushed an intensive investigation into the mysterious shotgun slaying of a Washington Negro educator.

J. J. Casper, assistant director of the FBI, would say only that the investigation is continuing. "I'm in no position to make any comment," he said.

State investigators fanned out Sunday along the route taken through northeast Georgia by Lemuel Penn, 49, director of Washington's vocational high schools, when he was shot at the wheel of his car early Saturday by a night-riding gunman.

Residents along the rural route said agents of the Georgia Bureau of Investigation moved from house to house in their questioning Sunday. Public Safety Director Lowell Conner said there were no arrests and that he had nothing to report.

SHOTGUN BLAST

Penn, a lieutenant colonel in the Army Reserve, was killed by a shotgun blast fired from a car which passed his automobile from the rear about 10 miles northeast of Colbert. Two other Negro officers riding with Penn escaped injury. The three men had completed a refresher course at Ft. Benning.

The only investigator talking was Madison County Sheriff Dewey Seagraves, who said he was getting nowhere.

"They are not either," Seagraves said, referring to the FBI.

Several residents, spurred by a report that Penn was carrying a large amount of money, theorized that it was a robbery attempt by someone who had followed the men from Ft. Benning.

The sheriff disagreed. He said Penn had only $39 and a government check for $543 in his wallet.

Seagraves said the other two officers, Maj. Charles E. Brown and Lt. Col. John D. Howard, both of Washington, could tell him nothing to give him a lead.

"It was dark and there was a heavy fog," he said. "You couldn't see much."

Faces Hearing in Death

FLINT (AP) — Pedro Moya, 23, of Capac faces a court hearing Friday on charges that he murdered Harold Smith, 26, of Flint in a Flint bar last Friday night. Moya was arraigned Saturday and is being held without bond.

Church Reception Honors Pair

Genella Grace Williamson chose an ivory floor length gown of peau de soie for her marriage Saturday evening to Joseph Lawrence Shea of Short Hills, N.J.

* * *

Some 150 guests watched as Rev. Malcolm K. Horton united the daughter of the Frank H. Williamsons of Bielby Street and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shea of Sea Cliff, N.Y. in the First Congregational Church.

THREE ATTENDANTS

Robert Large of Rochester, N.Y. performed the duties of best man. Ushers were David Klinke, Salem, N.J. and Frank H. Williamson Jr., a brother of the bride.

* * *

A reception followed in the church hall.

After a honeymoon in the eastern United States the couple will make their residence in Short Hills, N.J.

U of M GRADUATE

The new Mrs. Shea is a graduate of the University of Michigan. Her husband is a graduate of the University of Dayton, and received a Ph.D. in chemistry from Michigan State University.

Wed Saturday in the First Congregational Church were Genella Grace Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Williamson of Bielby Street and Joseph Lawrence Shea of Short Hills, N. J., son of the Edward Sheas of Sea Cliff, N. Y.

Recent Nuptials Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Barnes of West Rundell Street announce the recent marriage of Mr. Barnes' daughter, Marilyn Sue, to Robert Dowell.

The couple was married in South Lyon where the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dowell, live. The bride wore a pink shift and carried white miniature roses for the ceremony.

* * *

After the wedding, the pair journeyed to Bicknell, Ind. where they visited the bride's mother, Mrs. Muriel Young.

Newlyweds on Miami Honeymoon

Christ Church Cranbrook was the scene of the Saturday afternoon wedding of Deborah Fitzsimmons Hoey and James Frederic Menzel. The double-ring ceremony was conducted by the Rev. John H. Albrecht.

SILK ORGANZA

* * *

Parents of the bride are the Harry D. Hoeys of Cranbrook School, Bloomfield Hills. The bridegroom is the son of the Frederic Menzels of Midland.

Mrs. Lee Wolgast of Dearborn Heights was matron of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. Anthony Morse of Grosse Pointe and Mrs. Robert Crawford of Birmingham.

Mark Menzel of Denver, Colo., was best man for his brother's wedding. Ushers were James O. Friel of Detroit, Philip A. Doyle of Ferndale, Robert W. Crawford of Birmingham, and Kenneth Block of St. Louis, Mo.

GARDEN RECEPTION

"And it's heigh-ho, come to the fair." Mrs. Richard Gould, president of the Lake Angelus Guild of St. Mary's in the Hills Church, beckons to prospective fair goers. The church will have its 11th annual summer fair Saturday from 10 a.m. to midnight.

Nothing 'Humoresque' About It

Should Play 'Far Away'

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We live in a project. In summer we keep all our windows open and so do the neighbors.

There is a kid next door who takes violin lessons. He's about 11, and he practices all the time, but he doesn't seem to improve any.

ABBY

I always thought the teacher gave the kids a new piece every week. Well, something is wrong here because this kid has been playing "Humoresque" all summer.

I saw his father on the street and I said, "Your Marvin sure practices a lot. I hear him night and day."

His father said, "Don't complain. It's free. Some day you'll have to buy a ticket to hear him play."

I don't want to file a complaint, Abby, but that kid is really disturbing my peace. Any suggestions?

A NEIGHBOR

* * *

DEAR NEIGHBOR: If Mother Love is "blind," Father Love is "deaf."

Buy Marvin a mute, or buy yourself some ear plugs until it's time to buy the "ticket."

DEAR ABBY: I have a very dear friend whose feelings are easily hurt.

It seems that anything I buy, be it furniture, toys for the children or clothes, she always ends up with one like it.

This has been going on for a long time. Our husbands work together and we go around in the same crowd.

I suppose I should be flattered that she likes my taste so much, but people are beginning to call us "THE GOLD DUST TWINS."

A "GOLD DUST TWIN"

* * *

DEAR GOLD: You cannot possibly tell your friend that you resent her copying you without hurting her feelings.

Either do your shopping out of the city, or tell her how you feel about this "Kate and Dupli-cate" routine and be prepared to write off the friendship.

DEAR ABBY: The woman who boasted that she had taught her children to inquire (on the telephone), "WHOM is calling, please?", needs to go back and study her elementary grammar.

Doesn't she know that WHOM is objective, and it should be "WHO is calling, please?"

Did she tell you what the response to their "WHOM is calling, please?" was?

CURIOUS

* * *

DEAR CURIOUS: No. But it was probably, "It's ME!"

DEAR ABBY: I am not asking for advice, I just want to cry on your shoulder, and hope that the right people read this and do something about it.

I am living with my oldest married daughter. I have two other married daughters, and a married son, but this daughter is the only one who knows she has a mother.

I make my home with her as I am a widow. I realize every family needs to be alone once in a while, but I have nowhere to go.

I wish some of my other children would invite me for a weekend, or even a night, but they don't.

I am not independent. I am not able to earn my own living. I have nothing. Sign me—

St. Mary's to Sponsor an Auction, Food, Fun

From 10 a.m. to midnight Saturday one stone building, once a school house on an old estate, will bristle with people and ring with the voice of an auctioneer.

* * *

Saint Mary's in the Hills Episcopal Church, Lake Orion, is holding its 11th country fair, the proceeds of which will support church work.

* * *

"Going, going, gone" will sound the final purchase of a next-to-new garment, record, book, hat, bag or perhaps a handmade birdhouse.

The bidding customers will find plenty-to eat among the homemade foodstuffs offered and if they're still hungry, can purchase a ham supper in the church undercroft from 5 to 7 p.m.

CRACKERBARREL

Pony rides, a kiddieland, music, hay bales, straw hats, even a crackerbarrel and checkers, are also promised for all wishing to attend.

To end the day, a square dance will be held in the undercroft from 8 p.m. to midnight.

Auxiliary Has Installation

Past State Department Commander, Mrs. Andy Taylor, was the installing officer. New officers include Mrs. Julia Thomas, commander; Mrs. Katie Tuson 1st vice commander; Mrs. William Schulty, 2nd vice commander; Mrs. Frank LaLonde, chaplain; and Mrs. Ray Jewell, treasurer.

Mrs. Edna W. Olmstead, retiring commander, will be executive committee woman. Mrs. Jewell was recently elected as state senior commander.

Families Start an Exchange Program

By BETTY CRAWFORD

* * *

They are the Norman Cheals of North Lake Shore Drive and the Antonio Medinas of Duitama, Colombia, a city about 200 miles northeast of Bogota, the capital.

* * *

Pontiac Press Photo

Packing a suitcase can be a welcome chore especially when it's for a trip. Here (from left), Maria Theresa Medina, 17, of Duitama, Colombia helps Barbara Cheal, also 17, of North Lake Shore Drive with her packing. The girls will live with each other's family until after Christmas in a unique foreign exchange program.

While Barbara is getting a taste of South America culture, Maria Theresa (she prefers both names) will be learning American customs. The exchange will last until after the Christmas holidays.

FIRST SUGGESTION

This unique foreign exchange program was first suggested by Mr. and Mrs. Medina whose oldest daughter, Gloria, 19, spent some time with the Cheals this year through the "Experiment in International Living" program.

The program was so successful for the two families that they agreed to exchange Barbara and Maria Theresa.

"I think it's a wonderful experience for both girls," was Mrs. Cheal's comment.

* * *

During the months ahead, each will have a chance to practice and improve her knowledge of the language of the respective countries.

Maria Theresa wants to brush up on her English in order to prepare for college in the United States. She will audit courses as a post graduate at Waterford Kettering High School.

SHORT STUDY

Barbara only started studying Spanish this May with the help of Mrs. Kay Hamilton, a Spanish instructor at Pierce Junior High. But her short study shouldn't present a problem since both Mr. and Mrs. Medina speak English.

* * *

In Duitama, a typical Spanish home—brick with red tile roof and a surrounding garden—awaits Barbara. High in the Andes Mountains, Duitama has a population of 30,000 or about half the population of Pontiac.

* * *

Colombia is chiefly an agricultural country noted for its coffee crop. Only 13 per cent of the people are engaged in manufacturing, and just 4 per cent work in commerce and trade.

* * *

Mr. Medina owns a trucking firm, which distributes steel. Barbara's father is an automotive engineer at Pontiac Motor Division.

NO SCHOOL

Unlike Maria Theresa, Barbara will not attend school in Colombia, as the public schools there are reportedly very poor.

* * *

However, she will have a chance to take in two of her favorite sports, horseback riding and water skiing. The latter is a popular form of amusement in Bogota.

* * *

WHAT FUTURE?

Gloria will be her companion. The two plan to spend a week in Venezuela visiting Gloria's cousins. A highlight of the summer will be Gloria's country club debut in August.

* * *

And what is the future for this foreign exchange program? If all goes well, the two families will eventually exchange all their children.

The Cheals have five besides Barbara, and the Medinas, a total of eight. Looks as if Colombia and America won't run out of "ambassadors" for awhile.

Married Saturday

Wedding Bells for Four Pairs

Parker - Duvall

Deborah DuVall and Army Pfc. David Bruce Parker exchanged vows and rings before Rev. Raymond A. Penner and Dr. Edward W. Willcox Saturday at Franklin Community Church. Dr. Willcox united the bride's parents in marriage 20 years ago.

* * *

FLOOR LENGTH

* * *

MRS. DAVID PARKER

Rieman of Birmingham. Carol Parker, the groom's sister, and Dawn Hayden served as bridesmaids. Junior bridesmaid was Deborah Bartlett. Sara Bartlett was flower girl.

The bridegroom's brother, Richard Parker served as best man. Ushers were Owen DuVall, the bride's brother; Rex Bennett and Roger Myers.

* * *

After a honeymoon in Washington D.C., Williamsburg Va. and Virginia Beach, the couple will live in Lawton, Oklahoma, where the bride groom is stationed.

Watts - Zinn

CROWN

Her bouffant silk illusion veil was held in place by an imported crown of seed pearls and sequins.

Doma Martin was maid of honor for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nicholson of St. Petersburg, Fla.

* * *

* * *

MRS. VERNON WATTS

* * *

Williams - Fauble

* * *

The bride carried white carnations and pink sweetheart roses.

Parents of the bride are the Theodore R. Faubles of Snellbrook Road, Pontiac Township. The bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams of Harlan, Ky.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Fred Townsend of Ortonville, the bride's cousin. Ruth Barlins was bridesmaid.

MRS. F. R. WILLIAMS

MRS. J. P. ROGERS

Rogers - Dalby

A reception in the church parlors followed the Saturday evening nuptials of Sandra Lee Dalby and J. Patrick Rogers in Central Methodist Church. Dr. Milton H. Bank officiated at the double-ring rite.

Parents of the couple are the Robert L. Dalbys of Lehigh Street and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight J. Rogers of Steinbaugh Court.

PEAU DE SOIE

* * *

The bride's sister, Paula A. Dalby, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Terre K. Dalby, another sister, Mrs. Gary Smith and Kathline Owens of Battle Creek.

* * *

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

Q. "Please tell us what to do for the little spider veins on our legs, and bruises which make us self-conscious in swimsuits."

* * *

A. Some people bruise more easily than others. In some instances a vitamin C supplement seems to be specific and banishes the bruises. Ask your doctor about this. I judge you mean the little capillaries which often appear in the thighs.

* * *

Q. "I am 13 years old, 5 feet, 2 inches tall and weigh 127 pounds. My bust measures 32 inches, waist 28 inches and hips 36½ inches. I know I am terribly overweight, but how much should I lose? Can you give me a few exercises?"

* * *

A. Yes, you are a lot overweight. You should weigh about 110 pounds. Start in and swim every single day this summer and you will find that you are much slimmer at the end of the summer — if you also watch your diet!

* * *

Take smaller servings and no seconds or between-meal snacks.

Q. "Can a person do anything to improve the figure after the age of 40?"

* * *

A. Heaven help us! You are a mere girl at 40 today. You can lose pounds and inches at any age.

Favorites Win Forest Lake Golf Title

SPORTS

Play at Tam O'Shanter

137 in Women's GAM Field

A field of 137 women teed off this morning at Tam O' Shanter Country Club in the qualifying round of the 48th annual Women's Michigan Golf Association closed championship.

The low 32 scorers in today's round will move into match play tomorrow in the championship flight. The next 80 low scorers will be divided into five additional flights.

Single matches will be played tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday with the semifinal and final matches listed on the Friday schedule.

One of the early favorites in the field is Mrs. Keith LeClair of Ann Arbor, winner of the Women's District Golf Association title three weeks back at Franklin Hills.

With defending champion Mrs. T.M. Werner, whose second child was born June 26, missing from the field, Mrs. LeClair's strongest competition is expected to come from Patti Shook, national collegiate champion, and 19-year-old Joyce Kazmierski of Detroit, runnerup in the collegiate tournament.

Race Horse Given Air by Trainer

Mrs. Eileen Steele, in an interview with the Seattle Times, said the drama occurred at nearby Longacres Race Track when her horse, Correlson, fell as she was giving it a workout early Saturday.

★ ★ ★

"About a sixteenth of a mile before he fell, I could hear him gasping for air," she said. Then Correlson fell. Mrs. Steele landed on her feet. The horse fell on its neck.

"He had stopped breathing," she reported. "I straightened his head and started resuscitation until he started breathing again."

★ ★ ★

Track veterans said they never heard of such a thing.

"I don't know why I did it," Mrs. Steele explained. "It was just like someone told me to do . . ."

Former Ram Refuses Offer

★ ★ ★

Waterfield, vacationing in Las Vegas, Nev., telephoned Harland Svare, the present Rams coach, with the news. A club spokesman said Waterfield simply refused the post and gave no reason.

Svare fired his offensive backfield coach, Don Heinrich, Saturday, saying only that "things hadn't worked out." Svare then asked Waterfield to take the job.

Upsets Mark Other Flights of Invitational

Nederlander - Eyler Score 4-3 Victories in Last 2 Matches

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

The title that eluded them a year ago in the first Forest Lake Invitational now belong to Harry Nederlander and Gene Eyler who played precision golf to defeat two challenging teams Sunday by the same 4 and 3 score.

Favored from the start, Nederlander, playing his home course, and Eyler, out of Oakland Hills, needed a 15-foot birdie putt in Saturday's quarterfinals on the 18th hole to defeat Bill Michaels of Bloomfield Hills and Bob Smart of Detroit Gold Club, 1 up.

Sunday morning, the championship pair scored a surprisingly easy win over Knobby Walsh and Don Hargrave of Indianwood, 4 and 3.

Walsh, the former assistant to Bob Gajda at Forest Lake who has been reinstated to amateur status, and Hargrave, held the upper hand for the tournament with 8 under par through the quarterfinals.

They won over Mike Gullett and Mike Jackson of Red Run in the quarterfinal round, 1 up, and then were ousted by the eventual champs if the semifinals.

ANOTHER SURPRISE

Bob Podlesak of Forest Lake and Frank Jarrard of Warwick Hills also surprised one of the favored teams, Dr. Len and Dr. Harry Latos of Red Run in the semifinals, 1 up yesterday morning.

But in the afternoon, Nederlander and Eyler lost only one hole, a birdie-3 on No. 12, to defeat Podlesak and Jarrard, 4 and 3.

After five holes of the shotgun start, the winners led 2-up. On the 540-yard 5th hole, they reached the green in two but it was 100 feet to the pin. Nederlander putted to within one foot of the hole and won with a birdie-4.

Nederlander and Eyler had three birdies and no bogeys. On the 6th hole, Nederlander dropped in an 8-foot putt after a nice chip by Eyler to get the par-4 and halve the hole.

EX-CHAMPS

Eyler is a former Pine Lake champion, while Nederlander won the Birmingham Invitational championship four years ago with Tom Draper. He will play

Clubs Split Doubleheader

Oriole Reliefer Aids Tigers' Nightcap

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Tigers Manager Charlie Dressen assured the writers assembled in his office Sunday night that he had never been talked out of a decision by any pitcher.

The question came up after Detroit catcher Mike Roarke blooped a single over a drawn-in infield to send in two runs and give the Tigers a 4-3 10 inning victory over the Baltimore Orioles in the second game of a doubleheader Sunday.

Baltimore had won the first game, 4-2 on a three-run eighth inning rally climaxed by Brooks Robinson's two-run homer.

"No sir," said Dressen, "when I go to the moound, my mind is made up."

INTENTIONAL

The Orioles scored in their half of the 10th, to take a 3-2 lead, on Larry Sherry's wild throw of Luis Aparicio's sacrifice bunt.

★ ★ ★

Norm Cash walked to open the Tigers' half and was forced at second by Don Demeter. Don Wert singled and both runners advanced on a passed ball.

It was then that Bauer motioned to put Roarke on — first waving, then taking off his hat and waving it. He finally called time and went to the mound.

"Yes, he talked me out of it," Bauer admitted. "He told me that Roarke had never faced him and he figured he could get him out with his slow stuff.

"I said all right but told him to be careful."

Bauer later added that maybe his team had one loss like this one coming to it since it had taken 21 of the previous 23 one-run decisions.

SOMETHING NEW

Roarke, not used to having a crowd gather around his locker, said he actually checked his swing and the ball hit the bat and went over Jerry Adair's head.

"I was trying to hit the ball up the middle," Roarke said. "I checked my swing because I didn't think the ball was a strike."

★ ★ ★

The Tigers had a chance to go ahead in the seventh when they loaded the bases with only one out. But Dick McAuliffe bounced back to the mound and Steve Barber, pitching in relief of Chuck Estrada, snatched it and turned it into a double play.

The Orioles scored earlier on Aparicio's first inning homer and a single by Aparicio and Sam Bowen's double in the fourth.

Billy Bruton tripled home Jake Wood and scored himself on a ground out for Detroit's two runs in the third inning.

Aparicio also played a big role in the Baltimore uprising in the first game. He opened the eighth inning with a single then stole second and third and scored on an infield out.

The Tigers also threathened in the ninth inning as Gates Brown and McAuliffe singled with one out. Miller came on to pitch to Cash and the Tigers first baseman tapped the ball back to the mound on a checked swing and the O's turned it into another double play.

The second game victory was the first by the Tigers over Baltimore in six starts at home.

Dave Wickersham (12-5) and Wally Bunker (9-2) were the scheduled starting pitchers for this afternoon's finale.

Swimmers Set Marks at LA

California Teen-Ager Tops World Record

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Three world marks and numerous American records were set before the water calmed at the end of the Los Angeles Invitational swim meet.

In Sunday's finale, 15-year-old Sharon Stouder of Arcadia, Calif., set a world mark of 2:28.1 in the 200-meter butterfly —her third entry in the record books in the four-day meet.

Rose, trying for his third Olympic berth, stroked his way to an easy victory in the 1,500-meter freestyle, beating his nearest competitor by nearly the length of the 50-meter pool.

Mickey Wins 4th U.S. Golf Crown

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Mickey Wright, undisputed queen of the gal golfers, owns the United States Women's Open Golf championship for an unprecedented fourth time.

Blonde Mickey from Dallas defeated blonde Ruth Jessen from Seattle in an 18-hole playoff Sunday for the USGA title, shooting a three-under par 70 to her opponent's 72 over San Diego Country Club's sun-drenched par 36-37—73 course.

The pair had finished even at 290, two under par, at the end of the regulation 72 holes Saturday.

The finale was jammed with tension. At one stage it was possible for a three or four-way tie, with only a couple of holes to play. Mickey finished with a 73, Miss Jessen a 71.

RUNNERS-UP

Runners - up included Sandra Haynie, 295; Peggy Wilson, 296; Joann Prentice and Marlene Bauer Hagge, 298, and Kathy Whitworth, 300.

Sunday's play-off was excellently played. Miss Jessen, 27, who plays out of Bonsal, Calif., had one birdie and .17 pars.

Miss Wright 29, fired four birdies and had one bogey, the latter coming when a 3-foot putt curled in and out of the cup on the ninth.

Mickey went ahead on the sixth when she holed an 11-foot birdie putt. She was never headed and made the turn one stroke in front.

Parnelli Jones in Close Race

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Parnelli Jones passed teammate Rodger Ward with 10 miles to go and won Sunday's 200-miler for late model stock cars at the Wisconsin State Fairgrounds.

Jones, of Torrance, Calif., drove one of the pair of 1964 Mercurys entered by Bill Stoppe of Los Angeles. He finished one second ahead of Ward of Indianapolis.

★ ★ ★

The race, on a one-mile paved track, was halted for 20 minutes by a five-car pileup on the 38th lap. The crash sent Johnny Rutherford of Fort Worth, Tex., to a hospital for a checkup. He had walked away from the crash but complained of chest pains.

Snead Scores as Senior in World Tourney

WENTWORTH, England (UPI) — Slammin' Sam Snead showed the English he still has what it takes by defeating England's Syd Scott, 7 and 6, for the World Senior Professional golf championship Sunday.

★ ★ ★

The 52-year-old White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., veteran, who teamed with Ben Hogan to win the Canada Cup for the U.S. in 1956 on this same Wentworth course, and who was on the Ryder Cup team that beat Britain here in 1953, was five up on Scott after the first 18 holes.

★ ★ ★

Snead lost some ground on the 19th but regained his five stroke lead with a birdie on the par four 27th. He then went on to take the 28th and 30th holes and the match.

Dragway Record Set

DETROIT (UPI) — Don Garlits of Tampa, Fla., turned in a record speed of 200.44 miles per hour at the Detroit Dragway Sunday.

Ohio Archer Takes Pro Championship

★ ★ ★

Partin scored 1173 out of a possible 1200 in the two-day tournament. Runnerup was John H. Rudy of North Syracuse, N.Y., with 1161. Defending champion Bill Bednar of Suffield, Ohio, finished third with 1160.

Defending women's champion Margaret Tillberry of Springfield, Ohio, retained her title by scoring 1084 out of a possible 1200. Marie Horvath of Harrisburg, Pa., was second with 1043, followed by Ann Clark of Cincinati, with 1020.

46th PGA Tournament Promises to Be Best

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — The 46th annual Professional Golfers Association PGA tournament is already assured of being the most lucrative in history before the first ball is put on the tee at Columbus Country Club this week.

With over $170,000 in advance ticket money tucked safely away in the bank, the total has already surpassed the previous all-time high of $108,000 set in 1960 at the Akron Firestone Country Club.

"When the PGA awarded its 46th annual championship to Columbus two years ago," PGA President Warren Cantrell said, "we were certain this would be one of the greatest golf tournaments ever held."

Included in the qualifying field of 170 of golf's greatest stars will be 18 former PGA champions dating as far back as 1936-37 champion Denny Shute of Akron.

Venturi Second

Texas Pro Robin Winner

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP) —The pro golfing tourists shake the arithmetic out of their brains and move into Columbus today for the PGA Championship but they'll leave behind their latest tournament winner Miller Barber.

The paunchy, 32-year-old Texarkansas, Ark., pro, who beat out National Open champion Ken Venturi for the $5,000 first prize in the Wykagyl Round Robin, isn't eligible for the pros' private tee party, starting Thursday.

He is two weeks shy in completing the five-year apprenticeship.

The bespectacled former assistant pro, on the tour less than two years, staged a rally to over take the front - running Venturi in the 90-hole, four-day mathematical monstrosity played over the Wykagyl Country Club course.

Venturi made a game try at throwing the event into a sudden death playoff when he hit an iron approach to within 12 feet of the cup on the 487-yard, par five closing hole and almost sank for an eagle.

★ ★ ★

But he didn't and when Fred Hawkins, playing in the same foursome, sank a 10-foot putt to tie him on the hole, the victory went to Barber.

In this unique event, every player opposes each of the others in the field on a head-to-head, match play basis over a period of four days. Points are awarded for holes won and subtracted for holes lost.

In a Move 'North'

Braves Rap Phillies Twice

By The Associated Press

The Milwaukee Braves are moving—but in a northerly direction.

Rumored to be headed to Atlanta and subjected to some caustic comments about their talents, the Braves ignored the former and answered the latter Sunday by continuing their sudden climb up the National League standings into fifth place.

The Braves, bogged down in ninth place two weeks ago, made it 11 victories in their last 15 games by sweeping a doubleheader from Philadelphia 4-3 and 6-2, knocking the Phillies into second place behind San Francisco.

The Braves' latest outburst came just two days after the Milwaukee County board chairman, Eugene Grobschmidt, fired a verbal broadside at the players, charging they were "definitely capable of playing better baseball."

Hank Aaron collected four hits against the Phillies — including No. 2,000 of his career—and extended his hitting string to 16 games. During that stretch, Aaron has driven in 17 runs while hitting at a .394 clip and lifting his average to .312—sixth best in the league.

The Phillies, meanwhile, lost their fourth straight and again changed places with San Francisco in the tight pennant struggle.

The Giants moved one game out front despite losing to Houston 5-4 in a weird game in which San Francisco reliever Billy O'Dell was ejected before throwing a pitch and Gaylord Perry took over, then proceeded to change his shoes while sitting on the pitchers' mound.

Elsewhere, the New York Mets swept a doubleheader for the first time in more than a year by beating Cincinnati 1-0 and 5-1 while the Chicago Cubs downed Los Angeles 6-3 before the Dodgers won the nightcap 8-2 with a six-run ninth inning explosion—equalling their biggest inning of the season.

The St. Louis at Pittsburgh doubleheader was rained out.

The Braves jumped on Chris Short in the opener for all their runs in the fourth inning. Aaron drove in the first two with a single and Gene Oliver's double brought home another pair.

At Houston, O'dell was called in for a relief role in the seventh inning, but was tossed out before he even threw one pitch because of a disagreement with Umpire Lee Weyer. Perry then got a hurry-up call, trudged in and sat down to change his shoes.

TIES SCORE

Perry ultimately was touched for a run-producing single by Nellie Fox that tied the score 4-4 and lost it in the ninth when Eddie Kasko, Dave Roberts and Fox stroked singles for the winning run.

Galen Cisco of the Mets won a battle of six-hitters with the Reds' Joey Jay in the opener when New York scored the game's only run in the ninth inning on consecutive doubles by George Altman and Joe Christopher.

The Mets wrapped up their first doubleheader sweep since June 23, 1963, as Ron Hunt collected three hits, including a homer, and drove in three runs in the nightcap. Frank Lary got the victory, his first as a National Leaguer.

Morey's 2 Teams Win in Publinx

Morey's No. 1 and No. 2 golf teams in the Publinx League scored victories yesterday with Joe Peak helping the No. 1 team over Romeo 18 to 3½ with an eagle on the 530-yard 10th hole.

CIO, Talbott 9's Post Upsets in 'A' League

Upsets of the first and second place teams and an outstanding pitching performance by the Clippers' southpaw Don Glowaz highlighted the city Class A baseball action Sunday.

CIO No. 594 won a see-saw, 12-10 decision from league-leading Huron - Airway, Talbott Lumber stayed off runner-up Pontiac Business Institute, 4-3, and the Clippers ripped Cranbrook, 9-2.

The results found four of the six teams in action changed places in the standings. The Clippers (8-4) replaced PBI (7-4) in second place for the major switch.

CIO (4-7) took fifth place from Cranbrook (4-8), and will attempt to move in on fourth place Talbott (6-6) tonight at 8 o'clock in a Jaycee Park tilt with PBI.

Huron-Airway (11-2) was betrayed by its usually reliable defense and pitching. CIO had a four-run first inning and six-run third but still needed two in the bottom of the sixth to hold off the losers.

Ex - Huron - Airway infielder Gene Luppino had two doubles and a single to account for four runs in the winning cause.

The Clippers Glowaz tossed a two-hitter and fanned 13 in whipping Cranbrook. The winners' were led by Rick Foster's three-for-three, including a solo home run.

Talbott scored all its runs in the first inning aided by three PBI errors and Gary Heaton's triple. John Augusten retired the final five hitters in the game without letting a ball out of the infield to protect the win for Al Foraker.

Wilhelm's Single Helps White Sox Sweep A's

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Hoyt Wilhelm, the balding bullpen specialist of the Chicago White Sox, was holding court in the clubhouse and for once, his knuckle ball never entered the conversation.

"Two-for-two and I batted in the winning run — how about that," said the veteran right-hander. "(Eddie) Fisher, you owe me a steak—you said I wouldn't get two hits all season."

SCORE TIED

The score was tied 4-4 with two out in the eighth with a man on second when John Wyatt, Kansas City's top relief pitcher, walked catcher J. C. Martin intentionally to get to Wilhelm.

Wilhelm surprised everyone, including himself, with a ground single to right scoring the winning run. Another run scored on an error on the same play. It touched off a seven - run blast capped by Pete Ward's grand slam homer for an 11-4 White Sox victory and a doubleheader sweep.

* * *

Wilhelm scored from second base on an infield single behind second for the third run. He stroked another single to right in the ninth.

Manager Al Lopez was asked what he had done to improve Wilhelm's hitting. The Senor replied:

Wilhelm, who'll be 41 in two weeks, couldn't remember ever getting two hits in one game. The fact is, he got two hits all last season and two hits in 1963.

In other AL games, Los Angeles took Minnesota 2-1 and 3-2 in 10 innings, Washington trounced Boston 10-3 after losing 5-3 and New York battled Cleveland to a 2-2 tie in a game called in the seventh because of rain.

The Angels' Bob Rodgers had his 18-game hitting streak stopped in the opener but singled home the winning run in the 10th inning of the nightcap. Shortstop Zoilo Versalles helped set up the run with a two-base throwing error on Willie Smith's grounder.

8TH DEFEAT

The Senators' defeat in the opener was their eighth straight, equaling the longest losing streak in the majors this season. The Red Sox won it in the seventh on Russ Nixon's sacrifice fly and Felix Mantilla's two-run homer.

* * *

Jim King's three-run homer in the second helped launch Washington to the second-game victory. The Senators added three in the sixth on Ed Brinkoud's two-run error and a single by winner Al Koch.

Publinx Meet Starts; Jaycees at North Hills

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UPI) — The Poor Man's golf tournament, for pay-to-play regulars, opens today when the National Public Links championship gets under way at the municipally owned Francis A. Gross course.

Today's 150 competitors survived from an entry list of 2,393 slashed down through sectional qualifying, and must go through another 36 holes of medal-play testing before advancing in the match play sequence which leads to Saturday's 36 - hole championship round.

* * *

The early choices to go all the way were defending champion Bobby Lunn, 19, and Steve Opperman, 22, both from San Francisco, and both involved in golf to make their living. Lunn is a clerk at a driving range and Opperman works at a nine-hole course.

Ten Michigan Publinx golfers qualified for the tournament at Dearborn and Western Country Clubs in June.

Jay Law of Rochester GC leads the contingent. Others who qualified include Allan McMasters of Sylvan Glen; Sal Pomante of Sylvan Glen; Tom Balliet of Bald Mountain; Gary Pageau of Redford; John Law of East Detroit; Al Krol of Rochester; Gene McAlester of Warren Valley and Ed Leonard of Rouge Park.

* * *

The full field will play 18 holes today on the par 70, 6,595 yard course with another 18 holes of qualifying on Tuesday. Then the 64 low scorers advance to match play entailing double rounds of 18 holes each on Wednesday and Thursday and 36-hole semifinal matches on Friday.

JAYCEE TOURNEY

Junior golfers from communities throughout the state opened play this morning in the Michigan Jaycee Golf Tournament at North Hills in Birmingham.

The top four in the field of 78 will advance to the National Jaycee Tournament at Minneapolis St. Paul August 3-8.

The players, all under 18 years of age, started their first 18-hole round today at 10 a.m. The field will be trimmed by one-third for the final round tomorrow.

In other flights, the closely fought first flight saw the veteran team of Dr. J. O'Neil of Detroit Golf Club and Tony Skover of Meadowbrook defeat Ed Wasik and Jim Anderson of Bald Mountain, 2 and 1.

O'Neil and Skover were favored to get to the finals, but against Bob Babbish and John Grave. However, Wasik and Anderson handed Grace and Babbish, 1-up in the semi-finals.

Bud Erickson, publicity director of the Detroit Lions, found himself without a partner in second flight play when Ernie Gullour took ill after Thursday's qualifying.

At 7:30 a.m. Friday morning Erickson finally arranged Ted Panaretos of Western Golf Club as a partner and they went on to win the flight by defeating Tom Restrick and Tom Bramson of Orchard Lake, 2-up.

* * *

In the third flight, J. L. Conroy of Detroit Golf Club and E. Williams of Saginaw won over P. C. Hucker and Art Watkins of Essex Golf Club, 3 and 1.

Former Bloomfield Hills high golfer Chuck West and brother George took fourth flight honors by winning over C. Coe and John McColl of Edgewood, 1-up on the 19th hole.

Home course pair Walt and Sandy MacKenzie were 5th flight champions, defeating B. McDonough of Forest Lake and George Smiley of Red Run, 3 and 2.

U.S. Lassies Await Russians

Of the 13 events on the AAU senior program, seven had new records today and two of the established marks were equalled.

Now the national team members open training at the same Hanford High School track for their meeting in Los Angeles against the USSR women, July 25-26.

They vow a better showing than in 1953 at Moscow when they didn't win a single first place and were overwhelmed 70-26.

America never has won the women's duel since the USSR series was inaugurated in 1958 and again the Russians will be favored. But not by one-sided odds.

Some of these AAU championship performances show why.

City 9 Splits in Inter-Loop

Pontiac's 300 Bowl softball squad split two games in Inter-City League action yesterday at Midland.

The local team trimmed Port Huron in the first game, 7-5, and dropped a 5-2 decision to Midland in the second tilt.

300 (5-2) scored three runs in the top of the seventh in the victory over Port Huron. Doug Hall picked up the decision and Art Ruelle sparked the attack with three hits.

Adults Needn't Fear Returning to School

By LESLIE J. NASON, ED. D.

Adults are often like children when it comes to starting night school classes. They don't know what subjects to take or where to start.

NASON

The mere thought of returning to school brings up fears and questions. "Can I still study?" Why if they find out how little I know? Perhaps I should take a very elementary course to start!

If I do, will it take me years to get to the courses I really want? Maybe I had better take a course that I really want and would be interested in right now. Maybe an old dog CAN'T learn new tricks.

Going back to school isn't as hard as it sounds. Yet the prospective evening school student sometimes needs counseling. "Difficult decisions" can be made to look easy by one trained for the job.

A recent survey at Boston University indicated that two-thirds of the evening students felt they needed counseling. Of those who felt they did, 54 per cent sought educational counseling.

They wanted to know which courses to take to improve their education. Thirty-two per cent sought vocational counseling. They were interested in changing their jobs and meeting new requirements and they needed over-all programs to reach their goals.

* * *

Evening school counselors at the college level not only help adults get started, but salvage students who have not done satisfactory work as full-time college students.

CORRECT GOALS

Boston University reports that 50 per cent of the students with scholastic troubles who transferred to evening classes selected more realistic goals and appropriate courses and were eventually re-admitted to their day colleges.

Counseling of a returning adult means bridging the gap between previous schooling and goals for the future. The approach to this bridge is too important to be left to chance.

Counseling appointments should be arranged at the earliest possible date. They can usually be made ahead of time by phone. This is better than waiting until the day of registration, when there will be little time available for serious consideration of individual programs.

* * *

Once a student is in the right class he can get help from his teacher. Teachers of adult classes know that it takes time to readjust to school after an absence of years.

RUNNING START

Getting a running start and succeeding in an evening school class, whether it be on a high school or college level, follow many of the same principles that bring success to day school students.

* * *

A student must be prepared to to take advantage of the work presented in class at the very start. He should know how to handle his mind while listening to lectures and taking examinations.

Jacoby on Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY

"Always cover an honor with an honor," is a pretty good rule, provided you change the word "always" to "most of the time."

JACOBY

One time when you should not cover is when your honor will be sacrificed when you do and when the honor may turn out to be of value to you if retained.

If South covers the queen of spades with dummy's king, he may win that trick. Once every year or two, someone leads the queen from ace-queen against a four-heart contract.

This isn't one of those once a year occasions and the ace is sitting back of dummy's king. If you cover, you will lose that first spade trick and assuming the defense doesn't fall apart you will lose one diamond and two clubs later.

You will complain about your bad luck because the ace of spades and king of clubs were placed badly for you but you will have helped your own bad luck along.

Opening lead—♠ Q.

Let's see what happens if you play a low spade from dummy.

West will hold the lead and will probably shift to a trump.

* * *

You will win with dummy's nine and lead a low spade from dummy. East will play the ten spot and you will ruff.

* * *

Then you lead a second trump to dummy's ten and lead another low spade from dummy.

This time East will have to play his ace of spades and your king of spades will now be high.

You will still lose the club finesse, but you will be able to discard your seven of clubs on that good king of spades and wind up with one club loser instead of two.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of rebidding one no-trump, your partner has gone to two diamonds after your one heart response. What do you do now?

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR

For Tuesday

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Be a peacemaker. Don't push, force or demand. Strive for harmony. You will gain most by being a good listener. Express interest in the problems, ideas of others. Good time for planning.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): Diet, proper rest, pacing of utmost importance. Planetary aspects indicate SELF-DECEPTION. Avoid this by insistence on facts. Decide on basis of logic, not emotion.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20): Express yourself. Applies especially where romance is concerned. Don't be shy. A member of opposite sex know where you stand. Day features change, creative endeavors and TRAVEL.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22): Attend to details in connection with current project. Don't let others talk you into involvement in various schemes. One thing at a time. Best now to concentrate on FINISHING.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22): Ideas sparkle. But they require refinement. Means leave no loose ends. Get formal programs, presentations in proper order. Many observe with interest. Live up to potential!

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22): Day to absorb knowledge, add to possessions. Your judgment accurate, although you may have some doubts. Assistance from one which takes you to heart of matter. STOP PROCRASTINATING!

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Reach out in various directions. Avoid being fixed or stubborn. Your greatest chance for success comes through VERSATILITY. Efforts favored in connection with groups, organizations.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Develop latest potentialities. Much may be "hidden." Dig deep for information. You can gain inspiration through work, hobby. If you are patient, chance for success is enhanced.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Avoid being dogmatic. Friends want to express themselves. Give them a chance. If you listen well, you also learn. Highlight personality, charm. You'll be happier because.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19): Problems will grow smaller if you utilize thinking processes. Illustrate your points clearly. Don't take people or conditions for granted. Those in position to help will now be favorable.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18): Assert self as it should you do care. Stress UNDERSTANDING. Utilize natural qualities of humanitarianism. Many opportunities due for creative expression. Your kind of day! Make the most of it.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to Mar. 20): Avoid childish attitudes. Worries are mostly groundless. LOGICAL APPROACH best bet. You have time, talent on your side. Money problem not as serious as you might imagine!

* * *

IF TUESDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you love to solve problems, get basic information and come up with complete story. Would make excellent teacher, psychologist or detective!

* * *

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle high for LIBRA, SCORPIO, SAGITTARIUS. Special word to ARIES: No day is for cementing agreement. Wait for air to clear. Then you get your way.

Autos, Steels Provide Leadership

Stocks Climb to New Highs

Trading was fairly active, running at a pace somewhat better than five million shares for the day.

Prices were higher from the start. During the morning they backed away slightly but re manned in the plus column. Some brokers were confident Friday's upward burst had ended a short consolidation period. Most thought the Republican presidential nominating convention would have little effect on the market.

At noon the Associated Press 60-stock average was up .6 at 319.5 with industrials ahead .5, rails up .9 and utilities higher by .2. The bill-time closing high of Friday was 318.9.

ALL-TIME HIGHS

GM opened at 92¼ and Chrysler at 52½, both all-time highs, and both up more than ½. They remained at around that level. Ford, American Motors and Studebaker added small fractions.

The motors apparently were helped by a weekend settlement between unions and 15 new car hauling concerns on the East Coast. A three-week-old strike has piled up new cars at assembly plants.

U.S. Steel and Republic each gained around ¾. Jones and Laughlin was higher by a smaller fraction while Bethlehem was unchanged.

Prices also remained higher on the American Stock Exchange in moderate trading.

UAW Outlines Stock Proposal

Plan Extends GM's Benefits Contribution

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers union today presented General Motors contract negotiators with a plan for UAW members to purchase GM stock.

Under the proposal, outlined by Leonard Woodcock, UAW GM department director, the company would tie corporation contributions to the stock purchase plan to the present Supplemental Unemployment Benefit (SUB) program.

Woodcock said that when the SUB trust fund now in effect under the present contract reached maximum funding, GM would continue to pay into a new fund for the purpose of purchasing stock for workers.

Under the present contract, GM pays five cents an hour per worker into SUB, a plan which bolsters state unemployment benefits. When the amount in the fund reaches the "cutoff point," determined by a formula based on several factors, GM now ceases its contributions.

POSITION PAPER

The stock purchase plan was included in the 37th and last "position paper" presented by the UAW in its GM contract negotiations.

Negotiations between GM and the UAW entered the third week today.

The talks were recessed for the weekend Friday as the UAW neared completion of preliminary presentation of the largest package of contract demands in its 27-year negotiating history with GM, Ford Motor Co., and Chrysler Corp.

The weekend recess came as President Johnson predicted, in an impromptu news conference in Washington, that negotiators would settle their differences without government interference.

Sen. Morse Urges Cut in Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., filed with the Senate today a statement of personal views that President Johnson's $3.5-billion foreign aid program should be cut $446,700,000.

Disputing administration claims that the President's request is a "bare bones" one, Morse said that hearings by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee made it clear that "there is a great deal of fat clinging to the bare bones."

"The committee majority recommended $3,446,700,000, a $50 million cut of Johnson's request.

The majority report, submitted by Chairman J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., after the measure's 13-to-3 approval by the committee, maintained that foreign aid is "being steadily rationalized and improved."

The bill reported by the Foreign Relations Committee is an authorizing measure, in effect setting ceilings for foreign aid appropriations. Actual funds will be provided in a separate bill.

TO PRESS FIGHT

By filing his statement, Morse was serving notice he would press in the Senate the fight he lost in the committee to cut the authorizations.

In a third report on the bill, Morse and Sens. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, and Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., demanded higher interest rates for economic development loans abroad, including those made under the Alliance for Progress program in Latin America.

They lost 8-7 in committee when they sought to boost the interest rates.

Congress last year set the minimum interest rate at 2 per cent after a 10-year grace period during which interest may be as low as three-fourths of 1 per cent.

ICC Approves Rails Merger

Pennsy Must Shed Financial Holdings

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interstate Commerce Commission has approved the consolidation of the Norfolk and Western, Nickel Plate, and Wabash railroads into a 7,480-mile system.

The ICC, in announcing the decision today, said the Pennsylvania Railroad must get rid of all of its financial interests in the N&W and the Wabash, because the Pennsylvania "is in a position to extend its control over the proposed system."

* * *

The transaction involves the merger of the Nickel Plate—formally known as the New York, Chicago & St. Louis Railroad—into the Norfolk & Western, and the subsequent lease of the Wabash.

The result would be a rail network extending from the port of Hampton Roads, Va., to the Great Lakes and Midwest.

10-1 VOTE

The decision was adopted June 24 by a 10-1 vote. The ICC said the consolidation may not take place unless the Pennsylvania notifies the commission by Sept. 16—30 days after the order takes effect—of its intent to divest.

No particular plan of divestiture was specified, but the ICC said all holdings in the new system must be disposed over a 10-year period.

The order requires that all management ties between the Pennsylvania and N&W be severed by mid-October.

A Pennsylvania spokesman said the railroad would study the ICC report before commenting on the divestiture requirement.

LINE LOCATIONS

Norfolk & Western operates 2,747 miles of line in Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky, Maryland and North Carolina. It derives most of its revenue from carrying coal from Southeastern mining areas to the port of Hampton Roads and the Great Lakes.

The Nickel Plate is primarily a general freight line running over 2,170 miles in New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois, serving such major cities as Toledo, Cleveland, Chicago, Buffalo and East St. Louis, Ill.

Teen Hospitalized After 2-Car Crash

He was a passenger in a car driven by his brother, Morris, 16.

Morris and the driver of the other car, Gladys Horton, 54, of Flint, were treated and released.

Hairdresser Group Elects New Officers

Others are Ann Zilka, reporter; Ray Elmy, public relations chairman; Mary Lee Davis, calling committee; and Dorothy McGinnis, chairman of door prizes. All are of Pontiac.

Michigan will be the host state for the national association's 44th annual convention in Cleveland July 19-27.

Police Nab 3 Escapees

SOUTH HAVEN (UPI) — State police today identified three men in custody as escapees from an Alabama prison camp.

They are William R. Gibson, 39, Ted Wayne Campbell, 23, and Harvey Lee Cowan, 22, said to have fled from Camp Florence, Kilby State Prison, Ala., last week.

The three men were arrested by police early yesterday when they were parked in a car off the road on I-196 south of Holland in Allegan County.

Officers said a check showed the ignition switch was missing and wires substituted in the car, owned by Douglas Cook of Muskegon, had been stolen earlier in Muskegon.

* * *

According to state police it was the second time the trio, serving burglary terms, escaped from prison in Alabama.

City Man to Russia for USIA Exhibit

A 24-year-old Pontiac man, Lawrence De Milner, was among a group of United States Information Agency (USIA) specialists leaving for Russia last weekend to open a communications exhibit.

* * *

De Milner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin De Milner, 4865 Motorway, joined USIA on graduation from University of Michigan in June. An amateur radio enthusiast, he studied Russian in college.

* * *

The exhibit will open July 25 in Leningrad to begin a tour of the Soviet Union.

* * *

Barn in Pontiac Twp. Burns Down to Ground

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — A vacant barn at Walton and Snellbrook burned to the ground yesterday after being ignited by children playing in the old building, according to Fire Chief Carl Schingick.

* * *

Schingeck said the blaze was out of control when firemen arrived about 4 p.m. Owner Fred Coe, 2424 Pontiac, estimated the damage at $1,000. He said the barn was not insured.

Psychiatrist Says Ruby Is Haunted by Psychosis

DETROIT (AP) — A Detroit psychiatrist who interviewed Jack Ruby in his Dallas jail cell says the condemned slayer of accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald is haunted by "psychotic delusions."

Ruby is convinced that he and other Jews from all over the United States are being "rounded up" for systematic slaughter, says Dr. Emanuel Tanay in a copyrighted story published Sunday by the Detroit Free Press.

* * *

Tanay, former assistant director of Detroit Receiving Hospital's psychiatric department, made two visits to the Dallas County Jail after being retained by Ruby's family last May 14.

Tanay told Free Press Staff Writer Don Beck he found Ruby to be "like a caged animal." Ruby, convicted of first-degree murder and sentenced to death by electrocution, "definitely wants to commit suicide," Tanay said.

RUBY'S WORDS

During his visits with Ruby, Dr. Tanay said the former Dallas night-club operator sat on the edge of his bunk with his hand cupped to his ear and leaning forward, apparently straining to hear something. Tanay quoted Ruby as saying:

* * *

* * *

"They say I'm the killer of the President. They believe I did it. That's why they're bringing them in.

* * *

"They've brought in thousands already.

* * *

"You must convince Earl that he should take his own life before they torture him. You are a Jew, too, and you should, too."

HIS BROTHER

Earl Ruby is Jack's brother, who lives in nearby Southfield.

* * *

The warning of the impending purge of Jews, Tanay said, was the same as was voiced by Ruby in his interview last month with U. S. Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl Warren, head of a special commission probing the assassination last Nov. 22 in Dallas of President Kennedy.

* * *

Tanay said Ruby is convinced that "they" have tied him to President Kennedy's death and that a natural consequence is the systematic slaughter of America's almost 6 million Jews.

MAN APART

This, Tanay believes, contributed to Ruby's sense of apartness, being not only a member of a minority but different from the "typical" Jew with close family ties and a rich family life.

* * *

Tanay said Ruby developed an aggressive defensiveness which, he said, "extended to President Kennedy and other 'champions' of the Jews."

Libya Pressing U.S. to Give Up Air Base

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — Libya is pressing the United States for immediate agreement in principle to withdraw from the Wheelus Air Base, the last such U.S. installation in Africa, "reliable sources said today."

Those sources said Libyan foreign minister Hussein Mazak, in Cairo for a forthcoming African summit conference, is accusing the United States of refusing to give such an agreement and seeking to hold the base six more years.

Bang-Up Descent in Convention City

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — "I'm afraid if I get in, this thing will probably fall," said 240-pound Frank Lanterman as he hesitantly stepped aboard a crowded elevator at the Huntington Hotel yesterday.

But, encouraged by an assurance from someone in the elevator that "there's always room for one more," Lanterman and several others stepped on at the ninth floor, and the elevator started its descent — a descent that did not stop until the elevator crashed with a jolt in the basement.

None of the dozen persons on the elevator, including five Goldwater delegates, was injuredeion seaiy. Several received cuts and bruises from flying glass, but none required hospitalization.

California state Sen. Jack Schrade of San Diego was one of those who got on the elevator with Lanterman at the ninth floor. Lanterman is a member of the California State Assembly.

WOULDN'T STOP

"But it wouldn't stop," Schrade said. "It went faster and faster, swaying back and forth

"Nobody said a thing except for the operator who told everybody to brace themselves. Then we crashed in the basement."

Only one person fell to the floor, but an overhead light shattered and spread flying glass over the passengers. Everyone walked away after being checked by a doctor in the hute.

Hotel officials declined to speculate on the cause of the accident.

Hoffa Trial Winding Up

May Be Last Week in Pension Fund Case

CHICAGO (UPI)—The 12th week of James R. Hoffa's $25-million teamster pension fund trial began today. It could be the last week.

Hoffa and six associates are charged with fraudulently obtaining $25 million from the Teamster Union's pension fund and diverting $1.7 million for their own use.

The government claims most of the diverted funds were used to bail out the Sun Valley Inc., a Teamster retirement land development, in which Hoffa had a 45 per cent interest.

U.S. District Judge Richard B. Austin Friday told jurors "It's getting close to the time when you might start leading normal lives again."

* * *

The final defense witness will be heard Wednesday, prosecutors indicated, but closing arguments could stretch into next week before the case goes to the jury.

ONE ACQUITTED

After the government rested its case Tuesday, Austin dismissed seven mail fraud and wire fraud counts and acquitted New York attorney Herbert R. Burris, 42.

Hoffa and the six other remaining defendants still face 15 counts of mail fraud, five of wire fraud and one of conspiracy.

Possible penalties include five years imprisonment and $1,000 fine on each fraud count and five years in jail and $10,000 fine on the conspiracy count.

* * *

The six other defendants are Benjamin Dranow, 57, a former Minneapolis, Minn., department store owner; his ex-partner, Abe I. Weinblatt, 67, Miami Beach, Fla.; Samuel Hyman, 76, Miami Beach hotelman; Calvin Kovens, 40, Miami Beach builder; Zachary A. Strate Jr., 44, New Orleans, La., builder; and Burris father, Sr., George Burris, 66, New York accountant.

Minister's Play Is Censored

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan State University's television channel has rejected an Episcopal minister's play on racial discrimination because, officials say, it "contains too many curse words."

The Rev. Malcolm Boyd, a Wayne State University chaplain, said the words were "damn" and "nigger."

He called the ban "a matter of content and not of words.

"I think the play was just too strong for the university people to take because I feel it cuts deeply and gets to the heart of what race discrimination is all about," he said.

NOT THE PLACE

Armand Hunter, director of broadcasting at MSU at East Lansing, said under other circumstances the play could be "acceptable but I don't see the need for all the cursing. Mr. Boyd has been censored largely because television is not the place for the dialog contained in his play."

Hunter said the play "did not fall within reasonable limits and we had reached the limit of toleration."

* * *

The MSU channel planned to show two other plays in Chaplain Boyd's three-part series, Sunday night. The chaplain said Sunday night. . .

The rejected play is "Boy: An Experiment in the Search for Identity," written by the chaplain in 1960 after he returned from a freedom ride.

COM-PAH! — Brian Donelson, son of Judge and Mrs. Morgan Donelson of Princeton, Mo., couldn't resist trying a tuba left on the lawn of a Masonic Home yesterday. His father rescued him, however. The instrument belongs to a member of a Shrine band playing for the 75th anniversary of the home for the aged.

3 Convicts Escape Ionia Reformatory

* * *

Police said the three, serving terms ranging from one to 10 years, walked away from an outside dormitory. Sought were Harold Pressler, 19, of Inkster; Ronald Branlett, 20, of Allen Park, and Jackson Lowe, 21, of River Rouge.

Unless President Running

Study Backs TV Debates

WASHINGTON (AP)—Television debates between presidential candidates are generally desirable, a study commission says, but "in some . . . situations it may be contrary to our national interest for the president to engage in debates."

The conclusions were reached by a nine-member commission of the American Political Science Association, headed by Carl J. Friedrich, a professor of government at the Harvard Graduate School of Public Administration.

"The presidential candidate who also is president," the commission said, "must consider fully the duties and responsibilities of his office before engaging in campaign debates. Only he can decide whether he will debate his opponents during the campaign. The decision is properly his."

A highlight of the 1960 campaign was the series of debates between John F. Kennedy and Richard M. Nixon. Before his assassination, Kennedy said that even as president he would be willing to debate his opponent in 1964.

NO ANNOUNCEMENT

Legislation which would waive equal time provisions to permit such debates this year still is waiting for final approval of Congress. Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the Democratic leader, said during the weekend he has no plans for immediate Senate action.

* * *

The study commission said that properly conducted television debates between presidential candidates "are a desirable extension of traditional campaigning" and "add a useful dimension to American public life" if the incumbent is not involved.

"However, the matter is less certain when one of the major party candidates is president," the report said. "Extraordinary situations may be created by the exigencies of the world situation and the international position of the United States."

CITE EXAMPLES

It cited the Cuban invasion and the missile crisis as recent examples of situations in which presidential debates might hurt the national interest.

The study was financed by a grant from the National Broadcasting Co., but the association said the study commission "had complete independence."

Horseless Carriage Tale Goes Back Half Century

By EARL WILSON

WILSON

You have to get hold of yourself and realize you're riding in right-hand drive cars that you start by cranking, and that are 50 years old.

* * *

But he cranked the Stearns-Knight and threw her into hand gear — and off we chugged toward Virginia City, passing many a Chalmers, Overland, Reo and five-cylinder Cadillac on the way.

The whole thing smacked of history. We paused in the bar known as the Crystal where Thomas Alva Edison wrote his name in the register in the 1870s, and Ulysses S. Grant tippled slightly before. And there was a picture of Mark Twain, who published the Territorial Enterprise — then a mustachioed chap with a high silk hat — decorating the wall.

* * *

These "old car nuts" must be wealthy — for besides owning four or five of these old pre-1915 cars, they keep them repainted and in perfect running order, and they also buy their wives the proper 1910-1915 hats, gowns — and shoes.

"We took our granddaughter in one of these cars," a man told us, "and she said, 'Grandpa, where's the radio?'"

The owners of the old cars must be "authentic" in their restoration" — the cars have the old bulb horns . . . and occasionally they have the problem of overheating on the highway.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN NEW YORK . . .

Liz Taylor's "Sandpiper" role requires her to pose nude for a sculptor in one scene; Producer Martin Ransohoff is hoping it'll get the censor's OK — and Liz's . . . Barbra Streisand bought a $20,000 Rolls Royce and hired a chauffeur (though she usually drove it herself); but it made her feel "self-conscious," so she sent it back.

Milton Eisenhower wouldn't talk politics at the Rainbow Room — he wanted to discuss the All-Star game . . . Little Club Duo: Phyllis McGuire and Sy Zybalik . . . Eddie Fisher's dating model Renata Boeck again; they were at the Colony Record Shop, where he bought albums of Winston Churchill's speeches.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: Will Rogers once defined a lieutenant governor: "A man who gets up every morning and inquires whether the governor is any worse."

EARL'S PEARLS: Marriage has been described as the only business where, after it fails, one partner continues to get money.

A fellow who spent a fortune on his boat said his second happiest moment was buying it: "And my first happiest moment was selling it." . . . That's earl, brother.

Cadillac Youth Victim in Crash That Killed Nine

WAYNESVILLE, Mo. (AP)—A Cadillac, Mich., youth and five other soldiers from Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., were among nine persons killed Saturday night in a four-car crash near Waynesville in south central Missouri.

* * *

Authorities said Spec. 5C Theodore J. MacConnell, 18, son of Edwin Mibbennell of Cadillac, was driving the car in which all the soldiers were killed.

The Missouri Highway Patrol said the auto bearing the soldiers was going north on Highway 17, seven miles north of here, in an attempt to pass another car, it collided head-on with a southbound car, officers said. A second southbound auto hit the MacConnell car broadside.

Malcolm X Is Seeking Africa Summit Support

He said he hoped to win support for U.S. Negroes from the African Summit Conference, opening here this week.

Roses were believed to have medicinal value in ancient times. Pliny the Elder, Roman naturalist, listed 32 remedies from rose petals.

SHORTY A 2-Minute Short Story

'Aunt Dora'

By ESTHER LACY

My Aunt Dora was 82 when she died a few weeks ago and for the past dozen years I thought she was senile.

When I was a child I remembered Aunt Dora as a stocky and jolly woman, older than my mother, who played the piano and sang and always helped with the dishes.

She worked for the government and was at our house so often father used to call her the "star boarder." This was a joke, of course, because he was very fond of her.

As I grew up, mother often scolded me for never visiting Dora, who was living and working in a town 50 miles away.

* * *

Somehow I never had time to do more than write her a card, if I remembered her birthday. But she never forgot mine.

HOW LIFE GOES

Well, you know how life goes. My folks died and I saw Aunt Dora at the funerals, a gray-haired stranger who told me she was retired and lonely and asked why didn't I come and spend a weekend with her?

I was about all the family she had, except for a few cousins in California. But I had a job and boyfriends, never seemed to find the time to visit the old lady.

When I married I sent her an invitation, of course, and she sent us a cut-glass pitcher with a note saying she didn't get around much.

* * *

What made me realize the old girl was senile was that twice a year, on my birthday and Christmas, she always sent me a bottle of orange blossom perfume.

ORANGE BLOSSOM

Orange blossom! I only use a certain type French perfume and for a time the unopened boxes of orange blossom piled up in my closet.

About five years ago I'd forgotten a Christmas gift for the new janitor and, as we were a little short of money, I gave him a package of perfume for his wife, was ashamed to look him in the face.

To my astonishment, the following day he told me, "The wife sure appreciates that perfume. You want anything fixed in your apartment, anything at all, just let me know!"

* * *

The next Christmas I unloaded boxes of the perfume to mailmen, the elevator operators in my office building, while my husband used them as gifts to his women customers, exhausting my supply.

He asked me, "Hon are you certain orange blossom is really a corny perfume? The women I gave it to seemed happy, promised me plenty of orders."

REAL CORNY

I told him, "The biddys have no taste when it comes to perfume."

Every year I'd get a neat parcel post package for my birthday and at Christmas, only to realize I'd forgotten Aunt Dora's birthday or would rush to mail her a belated Christmas card, use the perfumes for minor gifts.

* * *

FORGOT AUNT DORA

This Christmas I'd completely forgotten Aunt Dora, nor did I miss her usual perfume package until a week ago, when I received a letter from a lawyer stating that Aunt Dora had passed away in November and it would be to my "advantage" to contact him immediately.

I regret to say that anticipation of my expected inheritance overwhelmed whatever grief I might have felt over Aunt Dora's passing.

All I can say is to excuse myself is that I hardly knew her, she was old and her death was to be expected.

* * *

But she had thought well of me and her simple gift of perfume should have been appreciated from the motive that inspired it.

LITTLE TOWN

We drove the 50 miles to the little town where Dora had lived and died. The lawyer, a stuffy old gent in a stiff collar, told me, "As you probably know, your aunt lived on a pension, which stopped upon her death.

Her estate consists of a cottage worth about $1,500, after some back taxes are paid, and $87 in the bank.

The cottage was left to three cousins, living in California. The $87 goes to you. Your aunt was a shrewd woman and . . . well, let me read this part of her will:

* * *

"To my niece, Esther, my favorite relative, who always was kind enough to send me a Christmas card; I know she will understand why I am leaving the house to my cousins, who never wrote me.

TOKEN BEQUEST

"It is a token bequest. To save Esther paying inheritance taxes, I have given her all of my modest savings, over $3,000, as she knows, by sending her two bottles of my favorite perfume each year, with a $100 bill wrapped around each bottle . . ."

Ontario Blaze Kills 5 Men

KIRKLAND LAKE, Ont. (AP) — Five elderly men were killed last night when fire broke out in a boarding house in this eastern Ontario community.

The men had been placed in the home by welfare agencies. One was partially paralyzed, another had only one leg.

"I tried to rush back in to get another man out," said Davidson, "but the firemen stopped me and kept me from getting trapped myself."

* * *

About a million tons of dust from the distant space falls on the earth every year. The cosmic particles are so small that a microscope and special equipment are needed to identify them.

Beatle Fans Grab Glass

LONDON (UPI) — After Beatle George Harrison's sleek new sports car was involved in a collision here yesterday, dozens of fans of the singing group gathered at the crash scene to battle over splinters of glass from the broken headlights.

No one was injured, but the other driver was taken back a bit by the bumper - to-bumper meeting with a Beatle.

"Nice to meet you, but I'm sorry it was like this," the motorist said.

The insect known as the mayfly lives only one day and has no mouth or stomach. It spends its life in dancing and mating.

State Delegates Maneuvering

By HOWARD HELDENBRAND

SAN FRANCISCO — If the plans of the Founding Fathers had not been upset by the political hand of fate, do you know where I'd be now?

Home.

Think you must have misused something in the beginning, eh?

Well, for those who came in late, the F.F.'s never planned on political conventions. They never even planned on political parties. A bit naive, wouldn't you say.

Their idea was that every four years a body of independent electors representing the states would assemble and, inspired by buttered rum, forthwith vote on a panel of outstanding figures considered qualified to serve as president.

Heldenbrand

Mission accomplished, someone would move to adjourn, and one and all would scram out of there and hop the first stagecoach for home.

The plan worked fine — for two presidential choices. But by the election of 1800, party politics had reared its conniving head.

It was not until 1831, however, that the first nominating convention of a major political party was held.

NO RELATION

It was known as the National Republican party, an offshoot of Jacksonian Democrats, and not related to the present-day GOP.

The Republican party, as we know it today, held its first nominating convention in Philadelphia in 1856.

Ripon, Wis. and Jackson, Mich. have contended for the honor of having cradled the party. Informal meetings in Ripon early in 1854 led to the later organizational meeting in July.

So you can cast your own vote as to where the elephant first saw the light of day.

In the 27 conventions held, including the first one, 19 nominees were picked on the first ballot; one on the second; three on the third; one on the fourth; one on the sixth; one on the eighth, and in 1880 it took 36 ballots to give Ohio's James A. Garfield the decision.

The Republicans went on to win the presidency 16 times and have been tenants of the White House a total of 64 years.

★ ★ ★

So much for the background of the 28th Republican convention for which a plane loaded with assorted politicos and representatives of news media were heeding the advice of Horace Greeley and heading west Saturday evening.

HOT CONVENTION

Those who predicted that this would not be a hot convention must have been affected by the heat. It was 90 the day we landed, setting a record for San Francisco.

Gov. Romney was on hand in front of the Jack Tar Hotel to greet and shake hands with all members of the contingent as they de-bused at 10:30 p.m. from the 15-mile ride from the airport.

And then just to show that all

Romney to Join Scranton in Platform Floor Fight?

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Gov. George W. Romney retained his status as Michigan's favorite son presidential candidate today and indicated he might join in a floor fight to strengthen the proposed 1964 Republican platform.

Romney said although the platform committee appeared to have hammered out a draft guided by GOP principles and heritage, it nevertheless was deficient in several important areas.

The governor said he would consult with others "to see if satisfactory methods and means could be devised to correct these deficiencies and forge an even stronger platform of principle for the Republican Party."

A Romney aide said a fair interpretation of the governor's statement would be that he may join the forces of Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton — who is contesting Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater for the presidential nomination — in a floor fight.

The Scranton camp plans to submit a minority report on the platform. It is expected to recommend many of the changes urged by Michigan's governor.

★ ★ ★

For one thing, Romney said, the platform should express more directly the party's disapproval of so-called right-to-work laws.

OTHER POINTS

In addition, he added, it should:

● Repudiate efforts of extremists groups of both the right and the left to infiltrate or attach themselves to the GOP or its candidates, "but we should not repeat the sins

Detroit Start Seen for LBJ Election Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson may open his election campaign with a Labor Day speech in Detroit and take a "whistle stop" train swing west, Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., said yesterday.

The Washington senator stressed that "the President has not committed himself to anything."

But, he said "some of the people on the national committee, myself and others" have thought a Detroit campaign start, traditional for Democratic presidential candidates seeking reelection, might be a good idea.

Barry's Team Drives for Win on First Ballot

Out-Gunned Scranton Forces Try to Rally His Tattered Support

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The gates swing open today on the 28th Republican convention, fenced in tightly by hard-driving supporters bent on giving Sen. Barry Goldwater a first - ballot presidential nomination.

Thundering over the opposition Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton was attempting to provide, Goldwater's outriders already had put the Arizona senator's conservative brand on the platform the convention will be asked to adopt tomorrow.

Goldwater moved into the convention's opening day with 740 first-ballot votes credit to him in an Associated Press poll — 85 more than the 655 needed for nomination if they remain in his column.

This total includes 303 delegates who favor him but are not officially bound. The survey credited Scranton with 169 votes, none of them bound to him.

★ ★ ★

See Stories, Pages A-10, B-6.

MILLER TO START

At the cavernous Cow Palace, National Chairman William E. Miller, a leading candidate for the vice presidential nomination, was scheduled to bang the gavel at noon.

Opening session greetings were to follow, along with the election of Gov. Robert E. Smylie of Idaho as temporary chairman.

Probing for an opening in the encircling Goldwater forces, Scranton fired off a letter last night challenging the Arizona senator to an unprecedented debate before the convention.

Rebellion Threatens Rift in Pennsylvania Delegation

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A rebellion within the Pennsylvania delegation threatens to short-circuit Gov. William W. Scranton's bid for the Republican presidential nomination.

★ ★ ★

Supporters of Sen. Barry Goldwater within the 64-vote delegation attempted last night to seek a head-count to test sentiment.

Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, acting as chairman while Scranton was at a $500-a-plate GOP fund-raising dinner, quickly gaveled them down and adjourned the caucus.

Theodore L. Humes—an early Goldwater advocate—burst out of the closed-door session shouting, "He refused to let me speak."

★ ★ ★

Until yesterday, The Associated Press delegate poll gave Scranton 62 votes and Goldwater two. Three other delegates abandoned Scranton yesterday, making themselves officially uncommitted.

PRIVATE SENTIMENT

Privately, all three indicated they will be for Goldwater on the first ballot.

Humes contended there would be a minimum of 10 Goldwater votes on the first ballot.

The rebellion developed within an hour after Scranton issued a formal challenge to Goldwater for an unprecedented debate before the Republican National Convention. Goldwater rejected the challenge as "ridiculous."

★ ★ ★

Late last night, Scranton and 49 top supporters—and advisers—including the man who is to nominate him Wednesday, Milton Eisenhower, brother of the former president—met to review the status of the Scranton effort.

RESTATE SUPPORT

Sen. Hugh Scott, Scranton's convention floor manager, said the group unanimously reaffirmed its support of the Pennsylvania governor.

Scott said they heard reports of "important inroads" on Goldwater delegates, but he declined to specify states or totals.

Possibly One of Rights Trio

Find Half of Body in River

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — Authorities today examined the lower half of a body, found floating in the Mississippi River yesterday with its legs bound, to determine if it is one of three civil rights workers missing for three weeks.

An FBI source said there is a "good possibility" the body could be that of one of the missing men.

★ ★ ★

The badly decomposed lower torso and legs were rushed here from a Tallulah funeral home last night by the FBI.

AT HOSPITAL

Gwen Cole, chief investigator for the Mississippi Highway Patrol, was at the University Hospital morgue when the body arrived.

★ ★ ★

He said the body was clad in blue jeans and black and white sneakers.

GOLD WATCH

A belt buckler carried the initial "M."

★ ★ ★

Michael Schwerner, 24, of Brooklyn, N.Y., Andrew Goodman, 20, of New York City and James Chaney, 21, a Negro from Meridian, Miss., have been missing since they were released from jail after being stopped for speeding in Philadelphia.

FISHING FROM BOAT

James Bowles said he was fishing from a boat in the Mississippi when he saw the body in the water.

Cloudy Skies, Rain Forecast

Mostly cloudy skies and occasional rain are predicted through tomorrow. It'll continue cool with temperatures in the 50s tonight and a high tomorrow between 68 to 75.

Winds today are northerly at 15 to 25 miles per hour. They will be mostly northwesterly at 10 to 20 miles tomorrow.

Fifty-six was the low mercury reading for the morning. At 1 p.m., the thermometer recorded 71 in downtown Pontiac.

State Church Gets Bishop

Seminary President Will Head Methodists

CLEVELAND (AP) — Dwight Ellsworth Loder, president of Garrett Seminary, Evanston, Ill., became bishop of Michigan's 283,000 Methodists yesterday at consecration rites concluding the quadrennial North Central regional meeting.

He succeeds retiring Bishop Marshall R. Reed who served 16 years. Under church regulations, Bishop Loder will be eligible to serve 12 years before transfer.

Bishop Loder was among four new bishops elected at the meeting, including Thomas M. Pryor of the First Methodist Church, Kalamazoo, who will serve the Chicago area.

Loder, who turned 50 July 8, is one of the youngest men to be named a Methodist bishop.

★ ★ ★

"And this was no present," he said with a laugh. "I feel like I'm stepping over a big high fence on the farm into another pasture."

REAL AGONY

Loder, a native of Nebraska, added: "It's going to be a real agony leaving the work that I have been doing. Leaving Garrett is not like leaving a parish."

Loder says he does not classify himself "in any one school of theology," but reads all current theological literature.

FAVORITE SON — Michigan Gov. George Romney greets Rep. Gerald R. Ford prior to a caucus of the state's GOP delegates in San Francisco last night. Ford, rumored a favorite for running mate to GOP presidential front-runner Sen. Barry Goldwater, will nominate Romney as a favorite-son candidate for the presidential nomination.

225 South Viet Casualties in 2nd Biggest '64 Battle

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — A weekend battle around a mud-walled fort called Vinh Cheo shaped up today as the second biggest engagement between government forces and Communist guerrillas in the Mekong Delta this year.

A roll of government casualties compiled by Vietnamese and U. S. sources totaled 225—50 dead, 110 wounded and 65 missing.

The Communist Viet Cong assault forces also were reported to have suffered heavily. One Vietnamese officer estimated Communist losses at 300. U.S. Advisers, however, said they doubted more than 100 were killed or wounded.

The Communists were said to have captured about 100 weapons.

The action, set off by a Red attack on the fort early Saturday, was the biggest since a four-day series of engagements in April around Kien Long, 10 miles from Vinh Cheo.

BATTLE CASUALTIES

There, the government suffered more than 300 casualties. More than 100 of these were killed.

No Americans were involved in the clash at the fort, 100 miles south of Saigon.

Using the 56 militiamen garrisoning the fort as bait, the Communist guerrillas lured four Civil Guard companies to the outpost and opened fire from ambush.

The badly mauled Civil Guard forces were withdrawn Saturday night. Four regular Vietnamese battalions lifted the siege Sunday.

BORDER CHARGE

Premier Nguyen Khanh charged that regular North Vietnamese troops had crossed the border to attack South Vietnamese installations several days ago.

During an inspection tour of the northern frontier Saturday, he warned that the Saigon government would "soon take new, special steps to halt this Communist invasion."

Khan did not elaborate. He has never openly discussed direct military action against North Viet Nam.

* * *

VESSEL SINKING

In Taipei, the Chinese Nationalist Chung Shino news agency claimed anti-Communist guerrillas in the South China province of Kwangtung sank a 120-ton Red Chinese naval transport that was believed to be carrying military supplies to North Viet Nam. The report said the transport, one of three, was blown up on July 3 in Chinchow Bay, in southwest Kwangtung.

3 Killed in County Accidents

Traffic accidents in the area over the weekend took the lives of three men. Two were killed in one crash.

The dead are Homer Session, 31, and John Holbrook, 30, both of 3981 Bird, Groveland Township; and John G. Stevenson, 35, of Madison.

Session and Holbrook suffered fractured skulls when the flat-bed truck in which they were riding collided head-on with a diesel tractor in Springfield Township Saturday.

Session was riding in the cab with the driver, Elliott Patterson, 50, and another passenger, John Dow, 20, both of the Bird address. Holbrook was in the rear.

Both of the operator of the diesel, John Katona, 43, of Frankenmuth and Patterson told sheriff's deputies that the other vehicle was in their lane of traffic.

* * *

TREATED, RELEASED

The drivers of the trucks and Dow were treated and released following the 2 p.m. accident, which occurred just east of Tindall Road.

Police said the four in the flat-bed truck were employed on the farm at 3981 Bird.

Stevenson was killed early yesterday morning when the car he was driving hit a large tree beside Woodward in Birmingham. He was dead on arrival at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak.

The car swerved off Woodward near Redding shortly after 2 a.m., according to Birmingham police.

TEACHERS GO TO THE DOGS—Pontiac schoolteachers participating in the district's community resources workshop, an inservice course to catalogue Pontiac area resources, went to the dogs Thursday. The teachers toured the headquarters of Leader Dogs for the Blind near Rochester. Kennel man John Osier introduced one of the leader dogs.

Fear Cyprus Flare-Up

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—The possibility of another explosion in the simmering Cyprus dispute faced the U.N. peacekeeping force today after it reported the landing of reinforcements to both Greek and Turkish Cypriots.

Archbishop Makarios, Greek Cypriot president of Cyprus, convened an emergency session of his Cabinet yesterday to consider what a government source called "the clandestine landing of Turkish troops on Cyprus."

The source said the government expects the U.N. Security Council and the Commonwealth prime ministers' conference, now meeting in London, to help the Greek Cypriots met the Turkish aggression."

He indicated urgent appeals would be sent to both bodies, but made no mention of the even larger landings of Greeks reported by the U.N. command.

Over the past five weeks, a U.N. spokesman said Saturday, U.N. patrols have observed some 500 Turkish military personnel put ashore in the Mansoura area of northwest Cyprus, the only coastline controlled by Turkish Cypriots.

The spokesman also said some 3,000 men and artillery pieces had landed from Greece in support of the Greek Cypriots.

The Turkish Foreign Ministry issued a statement in Ankara saying that the only Turkish soldiers sent to the island were routine replacements for the regular 650-man Turkish Cyprus garrison.

Cypriot Interior Minister Polycarpos Georgadjis said 2,800 men had arrived at the port of Limassol from Greece. He said that 2,300 were Greek Cypriot university students returning home for the summer and 500 were Greek Cypriots who had "deserted" from the Greek Army to offer their services to the Cyprus government.

Maj. Gen. M. P. G. Carver, the retiring British deputy commander of the U.N. force, denied that U.N. patrols had seen regular Turkish troops land, but he added: "We have, though, observed the arriving of a number who received military training in Turkey."

Of arrivals from Greece, Carver said: "Who they are, we don't know. They could be Greeks or Greek Cypriots from the mainland of Greece."

Although Greece and Turkey have the right to intervene individually under the 1960 Cyprus independence treaties, the U.N. Security Council's March 4 resolution creating the peace force called on all U.N. members to refrain from any action "likely to worsen the situation in the sovereign republic of Cyprus."

GOP Liberals Attend

Rights Rally Roasts Barry

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater was denounced as a totally unacceptable Republican presidential candidate by speakers at a massive civil rights rally Sunday.

The demonstrators, both Negro and white, were estimated by police to number around 35,000. They moved slowly, 15 abreast, up Market Street to the Civic Center Plaza where they were addressed by Negro civil rights leaders including James Farmer, national head of the Congress of Racial Equality and William Chester, chairman of the San Francisco Negro Labor Assembly.

* * *

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Henry Cabot Lodge and New York Sens. Jacob Javits and Kenneth Keating also addressed the marchers. They did not mention Goldwater by name.

Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania, who has campaigned for a stronger civil rights plank in the GOP platform, was not present at the rally. Aides said this was because the governor had many previous commitments, including an appearance on a national television show.

"This is the face of freedom, the real America, and the Republican party must listen," Farmer told the demonstrators. "If the Republican party nominates Goldwater, it will sound its own death knell."

* * *

"We are not against the Republican party, but we want the world to know that Sen. Goldwater is not fit to be a candidate for president of the United States."

* * *

"We share your aspirations," said Rockefeller, "and we're going to fight to the end."

Lodge called for steps to end discrimination, including "a Marshall Plan for our cities and our schools."

Fires Raze 2 Churches in Mississippi

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP)—Predawn fires burned two Negro churches to the ground in a rural community near this southwest Mississippi city today.

Sheriff Odell Anders of Adams County said he called in investigators from the State Fire Marshal's Office to probe causes of the fires.

* * *

Burned were the Jerusalem Baptist Church, located about two miles north of Kingston, and the Bethel Methodist Church, about one mile east of Kingston Road.

Fire department crews from Natchez were sent to the scene of both blazes.

PLEDGE HELP

* * *

Chief J. T. Robinson said pieces of the broken glass were recovered and sent to the Mississippi Highway Patrol laboratory in Jackson for analysis.

F. W. MULHOLLAND

Buyer to Run in 63rd District

A Pontiac Township man has announced he will run as a Republican candidate for the 63rd District State House of Representatives seat in his first bid for public office.

He is Frank W. Mulholland, 36, of 858 Jamestown. A salesman - buyer, he was formerly part owner of the Mulholland Department Store in Birmingham.

He has twice served in the Army Corps of Engineers, at the end of World War II and again during the early part of the Korean War.

Active in Birmingham Chamber of Commerce activities, Mulholland has also been a United Foundation fund worker.

NATIONAL WEATHER—Showers are due tonight from the Ohio Valley northward into north Atlantic states. Showers also are due over parts of central Rockies, upper Lakes and south Atlantic and eastern Gulf Coast states. It will be cooler in Pacific Northwest, from north Atlantic states southward to Ohio Valley, and in parts of southern Plains and western Gulf Coast region. It will be warmer from southern Plateau northeastward to northern Plains and upper Mississippi Valley.

Delegates Maneuvering

pay and no work makes Jack a playboy, he called a caucus for 30 minutes later.

* * *

It lasted only 45 minutes, during which John Martin and Mrs. Ella Koeze, both of Grand Rapids, were reelected to four-year terms as national committeeman and committeewoman respectively.

MADE NOMINATION

Ivan Stein of South Haven nominated W. Tyrrone Gillespie of Midland to oppose Martin, a move which might have been interpreted as reflecting Goldwater sentiments.

A roll call vote, however, got Gillespie but a fistful of votes, and Richard Durant, chairman of the controversial old 13th Congressional District moved that a unanimous ballot be cast for incumbent Martin.

Later, the governor and Durant exchanged pleasantries over a resolution offered by the latter which would virtually have freed the Michigan delegation from its first ballot support of Romney.

* * *

Turning over the chair to State Central Committee Chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr., the governor went to the floor and, mincing no words, told Durant that the resolution was a reflection on his integrity.

SIX HELD OUT

He pointed out that in a meeting with the Michigan delegation in June, just six delegates held out against full-delegation support of him.

This position, said the governor, he accepted then and still respected. But, he added, that in the same spirit, the remainder of the delegation should be expected to honor their commitment.

The resolution got nowhere, and Durant was 6-for-1 for the caucus.

* * *

WINDING UP

Romney wound things up by saying the embattled civil rights plank, over which the Platform Committee is sweating, is shaping up more to his liking.

He thought that by today when another caucus will be held, that issue will have been finalized and his own position clarified with respect to the acceptability of the platform.

* * *

But the Sunday morning papers reported that the Platform Committee passed a 66-to-31 a pretty mild civil-rights plank—with which Romney might not be happy.

This suspense is awful.

Romney May Join in GOP Floor Fight

● Include a pledge to do everything possible to encourage state and local governments, groups and individuals to take action to eliminate discrimination of all kinds.

Another so - called deficiency listed by Romney was a failure to include a pledge to seek methods "by which states can be assured of judicial review of decisions by federal administrators that use the power of the purse to go beyond the intent of Congress to shape state policy and organization."

* * *

The governor also criticized the proposed platform for what he said was its failure to recognize the basic principle that state legislatures should represent people, and that apportionment plans for both houses of bicameral state legislatures must be controlled by a regard for population.

Romney said such plans should allow deviations only to reflect the need for effective representation of all citizens.

whether the convention will choose "the candidate overwhelmingly favored by the Republican voters, or will it choose you?" The Pennsylvania governor has cited polls which show him widely preferred over Goldwater as the nominee.

SCRANTON VIEW

Scranton said "Goldwaterism has come to stand for a whole crazy-quilt of absurd and dangerous positions that would be soundly repudiated by the American people in November."

"Among those, he said, was "refusal to stand for law and order in maintaining racial peace" and being afraid to forthrightly condemn right wing extremists."

Taunting Goldwater, he said the Arizona senator, "should not fear a convention you claim to control, and I would hope we have not reached the point where you fear to face the nation."

Scranton has charged that Goldwater's strategists were treating delegates as "a flock of chickens whose necks will be wrung at will."

FRAMES REPLY

Indignantly, Denison Kitchel, Goldwater's campaign manager replied in a statement that Scranton's remarks "tragically reflect upon the character of the Republican party and every delegate to this convention.

"Perhaps on consideration," he added, "the governor will recognize the intemperate nature of his remarks."

IKE CONFERENCE

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower scheduled an afternoon news conference. But Scranton apparently could hope for no reinforcements from that quarter.

Arriving by train, the general said that neither publicly or privately would he express a preference for the presidential candidate.

Appearing as a television commentator for ABC, Eisenhower said he may have made a mistake in announcing 14 months ago that he was not going to express such a preference.

In obvious reference to previous remarks indicating he thinks Goldwater will head the ticket, Eisenhower added:

TRUE TO PARTY

"And if we have made a mistake or any of us think we have made a mistake in the particular nominee we have set up to lead us during the next campaign, we have got to live with that mistake and we will be true to our party."

Birmingham Area News

'Parking Lot' Really Not; City to Seek Solution

BIRMINGHAM — It may surprise a few motorists to learn that the area south of Shain Park where they've been leaving their cars during the last several months is not a parking lot.

The area, now cleared for use, is L-shaped. All of the lots on the south side of Merrill from Bates to Henrietta and two easterly lots on the north side of Townsend were acquired by negotiation last year.

The remaining four lots in the block were acquired by condemnation.

Those houses, acquired by negotiation, were razed last fall and the property graded for temporary usage.

* * *

However, no special assessment district has been established to pay for the project estimated to cost $380,000.

Before determining the district, the city must have the proposed project approved at a hearing before property owners involved.

ASK AUGUST HEARING

Gare has asked that the hearing on necessity be set for Aug. 3.

He has recommended that the city maintain its policy of including only business-zoned property within a 600-ft. radius of the proposed lot in the special assessment district.

Owners of this property would pay 40 per cent of the bill with the city's parking authority paying the rest.

* * *

The manager also has asked that Merrill be closed between Bates and Henrietta to allow for extension of the lot, which then could be laid out for a 206-vehicle capacity.

SIDEWALK CONTRACT

The commission tonight is expected to award a contract for the 1964 sidewalk improvement program. Century Cement Co. of Trenton was the lowest of three bidders at $39,003.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — City officials this morning reported an expectedly light voter turnout for the special election here today.

Mrs. John M. Blakey

Requiem Mass for Mrs. John M. (Josephine R.) Blakey, 24, of 140 N. Glenhurst, Birmingham, will be 10 a. m. tomorrow at Holy Name Catholic Church. Burial will follow in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Southfield.

Mrs. Blakey died Saturday after a long illness.

The Rosary will be recited at 8:30 tonight at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co.

Mrs. Edward W. Cook

Service for Mrs. Edward W. (Elva I.) Cook, 79, of 1797 Maryland, Birmingham, will be 3 p.m. tomorrow at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Burial will follow in Woodlawn Cemetery, Royal Oak.

Mrs. Cook died Saturday after a long illness.

The 'Swarm' on the Farm Held Harm

Charles A. Pace, 51, of 6527 Maple Drive, Independence Township, bumped into a "swarm of bees" with a mighty big sting in his yard yesterday afternoon.

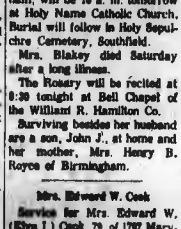
Pace was showing a friend his property when the two heard a buzzing sound in some high grass about 300 feet from the Pace home.

* * *

His visitor remarked, "It sounds like a swarm of bees." Closer investigation showed the "swarm" to be a three-foot rattlesnake, coiled and ready for action.

Pace ran to the house for a rifle and shot the intruder.

He said it had six rattles on its tail and was one of the largest rattlesnakes he'd seen in Oakland County.



ELMER R. JOHNSON

Ex-Supervisor to Run Again

Johnson of 3330 Seebaldt will run on the Republican ticket.

The primary will be held Sept. 1 and the general election, Nov. 3.

"The current administration's adventures with tax dollars to get political support of self-interest groups illustrates why I changed party designations in protest against attitudes I felt were not conducive to good government."

Johnson, who served three terms as a Democrat, 1957-63, announced his change in affiliation in January 1962, saying "I am convinced that I can best serve the interests of all the people of Waterford Township by joining the ranks of the Republican Party, and I shall in the future run for office on the Republican ticket."

DEFEATED IN '63

Continuing his candidacy announcement, Johnson said "I believe a sound fiscal policy must be established that is compatible with our tax base.

"Accordingly, it must be implemented with an understanding of the structures of tax rates and expenditures.

"We need to be responsive to the desires of the people we purport to represent when providing public improvements, and by looking ahead plan ways to improve our tax base so as to expand our tax revenue and relieve the burden on the residents.

Motors Leading Pace

Market Above Friday Record

Motor issued led the way as they had last week. Most gains were limited to fractions of a point.

* * *

GM and Chrysler each gained more than ½ in opening trades to set new all-time highs. Over the weekend a settlement was reached in a strike of new car haulers on the East Coast. The settlement must still be ratified by Teamsters locals. In addition the auto union is expected to complete this week the first round of negotiations with the Big Three auto companies on a new labor contract.

RAILROAD JUMPS

Nickel Plate Railroad jumped 3 as the Interstate Commerce Commission granted conditional approval to its merger into the Norfolk and Western Railway. The Norfolk and Western gave up a small fraction.

Other rails were mixed.

Friday the Associated Press average of 60 stocks gained 1.3 to reach a high of 318.9.

* * *
