FLAG RAISING — In line with record Pontiac sales nationally, the division's Pontiac zone office at 196 Oakland also reported new sales accomplishments. William W. Seventh Straight Record for Pontiac Monthly Sales

Pontiac Motor Division reported today that Pontiac and Tempest sales in April were 88,187, the highest monthly total in the division's history.

E. M. Estes, Pontiac Division general manager, said this exceeded sales in the same month a year ago by 49.6 per cent.

Estes also pointed out that the April record was the seventh consecutive monthly sales record since the introduction of the 1964 models.

"These outstanding sales have enabled Pontiac to increase its position of leadership," Estes said, "and are further proof of our products' increasing popularity."

He added that the strength of Pontiac's market is evidenced not only in reported sales but in the continuing high level of unfilled retail orders.

In the last 10 days of April, a record 39,740 units were sold, a 100 per cent increase over the 19,770 sold a year ago in the same period.

The April 21-30 sales were the best for any 10-day period in Pontiac's 37-year history.

Senate Passes Pay Increase for Legislature

Michigan Lawmakers to Receive Highest Salaries in Nation

LANSING (AP)—Without a vote to spare, the Senate today finally passed a pay raise that will make Michigan's legislators the highest-paid in the nation. But a last-minute compromise was necessary to make certain the new $12,500 total of salary and expenses will take effect Jan. 1, 1965, regardless of whether the state has a "de facto" legislature next year.

The earlier version of the legislation approved by the Senate called for the pay to go to lawmakers during the next term for which they are elected.

But because of the confusion over legislative districting, the possibility has arisen there may be no election this year and lawmakers may be frozen in their offices.

The pay hike, over-all a 52 per cent-increase, is included in the $32.9 million appropriations bill for general government in the 1964-65 fiscal year.

The compromise version of the bill was approved by the Senate on an 18-9 vote. It takes 18 votes to adopt a bill in the 34-member Senate.

The compromise also re-evaluated a Senate-proposed $3,500 bonus for the Senate president pro tempore. The House insisted on this after the Senate had removed House-approved bonuses for the House speaker pro tem and party floor leaders.

Voting against the general government measure and the pay raise were Sens. Arthur Delmon, R - Unionville, Lester Bogick, R - Bay City, Garland Lane, D - Flint, Harry Lidowich, R - Benton Harbor, Haskell Nichols, R - Jackson, John Smeekens, R - Coldwater, Thomas Schweigert, R - Petoskey, and Robert Vanderlaan, R - Grand Rapids.

The House earlier had approved the compromise 76-18.

The action put Gov. George W. Romney's proposed budget only a few steps from final approval at a figure of $629.1 million, a record.

Only Senate adoption of other conference committee reports on bills remained for the budget to become official. All budget bills cleared the House Tuesday.

Conference committees re-stored more than $2 million to the budget before sending the bills to the chambers for approval.

Wellbaum Loses Six Votes

The Oakland County Board of Canvassers covered seven voting precincts in Pontiac's recount yesterday and Emmett S. Wellbaum lost six votes, according to city and county officials.

However, the fast pace was accounted for by the fact that several voting machines were ruled "unaccountable" by the board because seals were not in place either on the machine or the paper roll.

Under state law, no machine can be recounted if the seals are broken or not in place.

The law requires machines to be sealed after elections and remain that way until it's determined whether or not there will be a recount.

The votes cast for three District 7 candidates in the April 20 City Commission election are being recounted at the request of former Mayor Robert A. Landry.

Wellbaum, a write-in candidate, beat Landry by 351 votes. The other candidate, Curtis L. Webb, placed third in the balloting.

Second Major Fire Hits in Walled Lake

Fire, which started from a rubbish pile at the rear of the building, raged through the Jebbo Corp. plant at Walled Lake beginning at 11 a.m. today.

Firemen from 12 area departments were on the scene seeking to control the blaze, which is the second major fire in a week in the area.

A week ago, Walled Lake Wholesale and Manufacturing Co. was damaged by a $100,000 fire just a quarter-mile from the scene of today's conflagration.

Walled Lake Police-Fire Chief James Decker said he believes today's fire started in a rubbish pile behind the wooden section of the building at 1225 E. West Maple.

The company manufactures plastic toys and other articles.

On the scene were firemen from the Walled Lake, Commerce Township, Novi, Franklin, Union Lake, Milford, Farmington, Farmington Township, White Lake Township, Wixom and West Bloomfield and Bloomfield township departments.

One West Bloomfield Township fireman, Doug Barnes, was reportedly overcome by heavy smoke, visible as far away as Pontiac.

Barnes, who works for the Walled Lake Department of Public Works, was rushed to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac where he was treated and released.

Jebbo Co. was formerly Palstray Corp. The section of the building hit by the fire is 300 feet long and 30 feet wide.

FIREMAN QUIT
Ironically, Walled Lake's Volunteer Firefighters Association quit last night in protest to the way their department was reorganized last month.

The group numbered 11 following suspension of two of its members in April.

The revised roster of fire fighters includes five volunteer firemen, five volunteer police-men and the city's four full-time police-fire officers.

Says Officials Blocked Plans

Developer Accuses Mayor, City Manager

Pontiac's major redevelopment of urban renewal land in the downtown area, Charles L. Langs, last night charged that the mayor and city manager had blocked his attempts to meet with the new commission to discuss redevelopment plans.

Langs of Waterford Township read a five-page letter to commissioners in which he pointed to the city's inability to sell him land for which he had committed himself to prospective builders and tenants.

His appearance at the meeting came as a surprise and several commissioners displayed open displeasure at his move.

Langs said he "tried to meet with the new commission but I have been informed by both Mayor Taylor (William H. Taylor Jr.) and Mr. Reineck (City Manager John F. Reineck) that the commissioners do not want to meet with me."

He listed reasons why urban renewal developments on his land is working have not proceeded as he had hoped they would.

LACK OF ACTION
Most of the reasons centered around the city's lack of action to rezone the land, vacate alleys, install improvements and, in some cases, purchase parcels of land which were to have been purchased long ago.

Langs referred to the "agreement" between himself and the former City Commission, giving him exclusive

GETS 'VICTORY' NEWS — Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace handles election reports in Indianapolis, Ind., this morning as totals in the state's presidential primary were tallied. Wallace was defeated by Indiana Gov. Matthew E. Welsh, but claimed a victory due to receiving a larger-than-expected number of votes.

Catholics Will Construct $1.4-Million High School

Purchase of an 80-acre parcel of land in northeast Pontiac for construction of a new $1.4-million Catholic high school was announced today.

The land, located on the southeast corner of Walton and Giddings, was bought by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Detroit, according to Father James Hayes of St. Michael's Catholic Church.

Operation of the 1,200-1,500 capacity high school is expected to begin by the fall of 1966.

Father Hayes, a member of a 25-man coordinating committee, said that the high school would accommodate students from five Pontiac area parishes.

The new secondary school will replace two Catholic high schools now in the city, freeing space for additional elementary students.

"The high schools will be phased out over a three-year period so that eventually all high school students would attend the new school," he said.

OTHERS INVOLVED

Other parishes involved in the land purchase are St. Vincent de Paul, St. Joseph, Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Auburn Heights and St. Benedict Catholic Church in Waterford Township.

In addition, Father Hayes said that St. Andrew's Catholic Church in Rochester and St. Joseph Catholic Church in Orion Township might join the other parishes.

An architect still must be chosen and a fund-raising campaign conducted to finance the proposed $1.4-million school.

Father Hayes said that Pontiac area Catholic elementary schools have been pinched for space.

"This is part of a strong trend toward centralized high schools," he added.

The site of the new school extends along the south side of Walton, a quarter mile east of Giddings and south along Giddings for a half mile.

The land was purchased from Judson Bradley, Detroit, and purchase was made through (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

High Temperature, Storms Predicted

Temperatures are expected to skyrocket again into the 80s tomorrow. Yesterday's high of 83 tied the temperature of April 17 for the high of the season.

Windy, and warm with scattered thundershowers is the prediction for tonight and tomorrow. The weekend will be a little cooler, but scattered showers will continue.

Southerly 5 mile an hour winds will become 15 to 30 m.p.h. late today.

Sixty-two was the low recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The mercury had climbed to 83 by 2 p.m.

Fails to Match Performance in Wisconsin

Welsh, Goldwater Get Party Delegates; Stassen Surprises

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Gov. George C. Wallace, the Alabama invader who championed states' rights, claimed a victory for his cause today, but Democratic Gov. Matthew E. Welsh held the field for President Johnson in Indiana's presidential primary.

Wallace, who made his campaign a crusade against Johnson's civil rights bill, piled up a big protest vote in yesterday's balloting, but his showing fell short of the upset race he ran in Wisconsin against another favorite-son stand-in for Johnson.

In a Republican race all but eclipsed by the steaming Democratic contest, Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater grabbed Indiana's 22 votes at the Republican National Convention.

But former Minnesota Gov. Harold E. Stassen, his only serious rival, made an unexpected dent in his margin.

With 4,369 of the 4,416 precincts counted, Welsh had counted 366,168 votes to 169,039 for Wallace.

30 PER CENT
That gave the Alabama governor almost 30 per cent of the Democratic turnout.

Three minor candidates split 31,116 votes.

Young, Taft Are Victors in Ohio Primary

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Rep. Robert Taft Jr., son of the late Ohio senator dubbed "Mr. Republican," and Democratic incumbent Stephen M. Young hurled the civil rights issue to clinch senatorial nominations in Ohio's primary.

Ted W. Brown, secretary of state and a veteran vote-getter, banked on his civil rights opposition in a sharp clash with Taft for the Republican nomination but failed to carry a single county in yesterday's voting.

"The results indicate that the civil rights issue perhaps was not as important as Mr. Brown thought," Taft said in a victory statement.

Young's nomination was unintentionally challenged by ailing Marine Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr., who withdrew from the race too late to have his name removed from the ballot.

Glenn, first American to orbit the earth, drew "therapeutic" support, but Young outpolled him by more than 2-1.

TAFT MARGIN
Taft's ratio over Brown was more than 3-1.

Returns from 12,610 of the state's 13,211 polling places gave Taft 583,540 votes and Brown 156,641. On the Democratic side, Young polled 481,113 and Glenn 182,758.

The peppery 75-year-old Young immediately girded for a showdown with Taft in the November general election.

He accused the Republicans of making his U.S. Senate seat their No. 1 target nationally.

LBJ's Fast Pace Hasn't Hurt Heart

WASHINGTON (AP)—Despite the whirlwind pace he's been keeping, President Johnson's heart—the heart that suffered an attack in 1955—apparently still doing fine.

That was the indication from the White House today in answer to a query concerning the state of the President's health.

The query was motivated by the fact the President, ever since he took office, has maintained a fast and vigorous working schedule—ranging from sudden airplane trips to fast-paced on-the-hoof news conferences held on the quarter-mile drive behind the White House.

At least one published report has said some of Johnson's associates have been worried about his energetic pace—in view of his history of having had one heart attack.

However, there are indications the President knows how to mix rest and relaxation with his fast-stepping work day.

NORMAL FINDING

The White House said Johnson's latest electrocardiograph examination—a test of his heart function—showed a normal finding. The same is true of his pulse, blood pressure and breathing rate.

Furthermore, there is "no enlargement of the heart," the White House said.

Developer Raps City Officials rights to land if he could offer an acceptable price and development plan.

The agreement was adopted last July 23 and is good for one year from that date.

Langs charged that the lack of action by the city prevented him "from proceeding with redevelopment" of urban renewal lands.

"I have spent many thousands of dollars in the past year," he said, "in developing plans, Langs said.

He added that the city had cashed checks he had deposited with them on several land purchase agreements but that neither the final sale contract had not yet been approved or he was being held up in building on the property.

If the commission doesn't give me a definite schedule for performance of the matters to be done and time to take the necessary action, I must then conclude the City Commission is breaching the agreement," Langs said.

"I will pursue the necessary redress to compensate for this wrong to me," he concluded.

NO INDIVIDUALISM

Taylor answered his criticisms, saying that "We are going to deal through the city manager and department heads; not as individuals like the manner practiced during the past two years."

"This type of dealing has left me very confused at times," he said. "There were many times I didn't know what we were doing, and I'm sure you were confused too."

Reineck said, "Mr. Langs called me a week or so ago, and I told him to talk to James L. Bates, the planning director."

"I told him he'd have to go through proper channels. This is something he's failed to learn in the last year," Reineck said.

NOT HEARD FROM

"I never heard from him again," he added.

As soon as commissioners started to retaliate, Langs suggested that "you all read this and give me your answers all at one time."

Commissioner Leslie H. Hudson replied, "Mr. Langs reminds me of the guy who takes the first poke at another guy and then shouts to hold things off and stop the whole thing."

"We've been here two weeks, and we're taking first things first," Hudson said. "I resent your attitude."

SECOND MEETING

Commissioner John A. Dugan said he was surprised. He said, "Here we are at our second meeting and we get a letter condemning the mayor and city manager."

"This redevelopment isn't going to be run by two or three commissioners. There are seven of us. I think you're looking for a little publicity," he said to Langs.

Commissioners are scheduled to meet informally for briefing on the urban renewal program from planning and urban renewal officials next Monday evening.

READS OPEN LETTER — To start discussion of the issues involved in his ouster as student editor of "The Observer" school newspaper at Oakland University, Wolf Metzger reads an open letter stating his stand. He told the some 100 students gathered at an open-air mass meeting between two dormitories last night that the main issue was censorship.

It's Censorship, Not Sex, Says Ousted OU Editor

Censorship, not sex was portrayed last night at a student meeting as the main issue separating the head of Oakland University and an ousted student editor.

The portrayal was offered by Wolf Metzger, 20-year-old economics major, who was fired Monday as editor of the school's newspaper.

Metzger characterized the issue at a mass meeting on campus of about 100 students.

The squabble between Chancellor D. B. Varner and Metzger resulted from Varner's order not to publish the May 1 edition of the student weekly, "The Observer."

That issue contained a news story and editorial concerning a questionnaire on sex activities of OU dormitory students.

ALLEGED THREAT

An alleged threat by the chancellor to suspend Metzger if results of the questionnaire were published was the basis for the story.

Varner objected to the survey, stating that it was not taken seriously by students and thus the results were totally meaningless.

"I deeply resent the implications about the character of OU students," said Varner.

GAVE OUT COPIES

Metzger presided over a hurriedly called meeting last night, distributing mimeographed copies of the suppressed newspaper articles.

The fired editor also read an open letter, claiming the issue was not sex, but censorship.

Tree Spray Blamed for Death of Fish

There may not be much Dutch Elm disease on trees at Hawthorne Park this year, but there aren't many live fish left in Little Silver Lake, either, according to City Commissioner Leslie H. Hudson.

Hudson said last night that tree spraying by city parks and recreation crews in the past few weeks "killed thousands and thousands of fish in Little Silver Lake."

He asked city administrators to look into the matter and to write the Michigan State Conservation Department apologizing for the error and asking the state not stop planting trout in the lake.

Trout had been planted this year in Silver Lake, and some made their way to Little Silver. Hudson said the spray was carried into the lake by wind a few weeks ago, killing many fish. "Then they did it again last week," Hudson said. "I saw thousands of dead panfish and trout out there."

Posts Filled for Planners

2 Newcomers Added; Member Reappointed

Two new members were appointed and one present member reappointed to three-year terms on the Pontiac Planning Commission last night.

The new planning commissioners are Dennis W. Loughhead, 48, of 415 Fourth, and F. Keith Hills, 55, of 36 Union.

Reappointed by the City Commission was Basil E. Brown, who has served on the planning commission since October 1961.

Loughhead and Hills filled a post left vacant by the resignation of Robert C. Irwin last week and replaced veteran commissioner John E. Linabury.

Linabury had been on the planning commission since 1952 and still holds a seat on the city's zoning board of appeals. He is to be honored in an official resolution at next Tuesday's City Commission meeting.

RESIDENT SINCE 1936

Loughhead, nominated by Commissioner John A. Dugan, has been a Pontiac resident since 1936.

He is a supervisor in the parts and accessories department at Pontiac Motor Division.

Hills was nominated by Commissioner Wesley J. Wood. He operated a barbershop at 98 E. Huron for many years, and now operates one in Waterford Township.

He has been a member of the Civic Improvement, Advisory Committee for two years and has lived in Pontiac 48 years.

ASSISTANT ENGINEER

Brown, of 48 Mary Day, was nominated for reappointment by Commissioner Emmett S. Wellbaum. He is an assistant plant engineer at Pontiac Motor Division.

All three appointments were by a unanimous vote of the commission.

The planning commission will hold its annual organizational meeting tonight.

As the recount reopened this morning at Eastern Junior High School, Wellbaum's vote-margin over Landry stood at 345.

There are 43 precincts in Pontiac.

Landry's attorney, Milton R. Henry, challenged the majority of write-in votes on the basis that only Wellbaum's last name was written on the roll.

He claimed an initial or first name is necessary to properly identify the candidate.

The board has ruled, however, that it will accept the last name only.

Port Strike Delays India Aid Grain

NEW DELHI (AP) — A port strike in Bombay is preventing unloading of 15,000 tons of U.S. grain for starving cattle in drought-stricken Western India, it was learned today.

The $600,000 aid shipment of milk and sorghum arrived at Bombay Saturday. Due to the strike, it may sit in the harbor for 20 to 30 days, an informed source said.

The Indian government sent an official of the Food and Agriculture ministry to Bombay to investigate the delay.

Transfer State Funds

LANSING (AP) — The State Administrative Board has approved a transfer of $10,000 in funds within the State Department of Social Welfare to provide for day care centers for children of migrant workers during the migratory labor season.

KIDNAPED BABY'S MOTHER — Mr. and Mrs. Chester Fronczak leave Chicago's Michael Reese Hospital yesterday, where Mrs. Fronczak last week gave birth to a boy who was kidnapped 37 hours after he was born. No trace of the child has been found in spite of an intensive police and FBI hunt.

Kalamazoo Attorney Seeks Judge Post

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Attorney Wade Van Valkenburg, president of the Kalamazoo County Bar Association and former Republican speaker of the House of Representatives, announced his candidacy Tuesday for the newly created third judgeship of Michigan's ninth judicial district.

The 64-year-old Van Valkenburg's decision returned him to politics after an absence since 1956 when he retired from the legislature.

Or Does It Give You the 'Willies'?

Remember Having the 'Heebie-Jeebies'?

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (U)—Memory is the golden bfire by which we warm our hearts in chill times.

The more you have to recall the warmer is the glow. It kindles the spirit to look back now, for example, and remember when—

You couldn't put on your shoes without an instrument called a button-hook.

Only sick people and very small children stayed in bed after 6 a.m. Seeing the sun rise was a daily inspiration to a majority of Americans.

No one could judge a woman's age for sure, but half our male citizenry were convinced they could tell how old a horse was by looking at its teeth.

If something upset you, you said it gave you "the willies." Or, if you were feeling under par, you remarked, "I've got heebie-jeebies."

NOTHING TO FIX

Repair costs around the house were negligible, as the only mechanical gadget that ever needed fixing was the well pump in the back yard.

The doctor would sometimes give you a nickel if you fed and watered his horse while he was making a house call. And if he really liked you, he'd let you ride in the buggy with him to the next stop of his rounds.

Anybody who got a long-distance call on the telephone knew at once some relative must be dead or mortally ill.

A child then got a bigger thrill from riding up two floors on a department store escalator than a modern child does from riding in a jet plane from New York to San Francisco.

NOT COMPLETE

No kitchen was complete without a rolling pin, or a basement without a tub and washboard.

Air conditioning was simple.

On hot summer days a housewife could always cool off by taking her rocking chair down into the cellar, and doing her darning there.

You could always learn the facts of life by reading the "Police Gazette" or that naughty novel, "Three Week," by Elmer Glyn. A radical was a fellow who believed that only William Jennings Bryan could save the country from political ruin—and had voted for him three times.

Christmas shopping for Dad was no problem. If his only necktie was still in good shape, he could always do with a new pair of suspenders.

SHINY NEW DIME

The best-known golfer in America was John D. Rockefeller Sr. If he really liked you, he gave you a shiny new dime as a sign of his approval.

You were a real sport if you wore a pair of pearl-gray spats, and gave the barber a dime tip when you got a two-bit haircut.

Any teen-ager who had to ask his parents for spending money was regarded as shiftless, and it was felt he was bound to come to no good end.

Junior Editors Quiz on ACCORDIONS

QUESTION: How does the accordion produce music?

ANSWER: The accordion is descended from an ancient Chinese instrument called the "cheng." Instruments of this class produce tones by the vibration of small metal tongues which are set in motion by air forced past them.

In the mouth organ, or harmonica, the player's breath supplies the air; but in the accordion, bellows built into the instrument provide the air blast, as they are pushed in or pulled out by the player.

The accordion was invented by an Austrian named Damer in 1829. The simpler, older type produces one note when the bellows are pushed in and a key depressed, and another when the bellows are pulled out.

This makes it possible to play a tune on one side, on the other are a couple of big keys which when pressed down give an oom-pah-pah accompaniment in simple chords. This instrument is cheap to buy and very easy to learn to play.

You can't get complicated music with it, but by jerking the bellows rhythmically, you can produce a gay swinging effect. This made it a great favorite with old-time seamen and for folk dancing.

In the modern accordion, the same note is produced on both push and pull but there are a great many buttons giving a great variety of chords.

One can get the same gay rhythm, making this instrument a great favorite to dance to.

FOR YOU TO DO: Learn to "tongue" a mouth organ. Cover all the holes but one with your tongue; get one clear note as you blow in, another as you pull air out. Shift to another hole and find out how to play a scale. Then try lifting your tongue off all the openings with a steady beat, giving an oom-pah-pah accompaniment to the tune.

Negroes' Dem Support Seems Unjustified

An observer would be hard put to find any trace of political logic in the continued overwhelming support of the Democratic party by Negroes.

A recent national poll showed President Johnson with 93 per cent of their preference against 7 per cent for Henry Cabot Lodge.

In the 1960 presidential election, the Negro vote ran 32 per cent for Nixon, 68 per cent for Kennedy.

The puzzling facts are that what strides the Negroes have made toward freedom and racial equality have been initiated under Republican administrations.

Historically, it was a Republican president who emancipated Negroes from slavery. And it was during President EISENHOWER's first term that the next significant move toward racial betterment was made. This was the famous decision of the U. S. Supreme Court decreeing school desegregation, and the President's actions later in implementing it.

Following that breakthrough, the Negro vote rose to 39 per cent for Eisenhower in his second-term victory in 1956, while giving the Democratic candidate, Adlai E. Stevenson, 61 per cent. Since then, however, the Negroes' preference for the party has steadily risen.

With control of Congress during 28 of the past 32 years, and the White House for 24 of them, the Democratic party has been in commanding position to further the cause of civil rights had it chosen to do so.

But the Dems not only side-stepped espousal of such legislation, they have blocked progress of Rights measures by unflinching filibustering tactics by the solid core of Southern Democratic senators.

Currently, it is the opposition of members of the same party that have stymied the civil rights bill in the Senate, clouding its eventual fate and composition.

Moreover, during the three decades in which the Negro vote has shifted from Republican to Democratic, it has been the states of the Democratic Solid South that have virtually disenfranchised its Negro citizens. By means of poll taxes, arbitrary and discriminatory registration regulations and outright intimidation, Negroes have all but been excluded from the voting booths.

It view of all this, it would seem that Negroes would give serious thought to the identity of the side which has better buttered their political bread, and prepare to vote accordingly.

U.S. Highway Design Marred by Scandal

Called the most gigantic construction project in the world, the Federal Highway System is at the halfway mark of its 1972 completion date.

The 16-year undertaking to date presents a mixed picture of achievement — splendid on the one hand, dismal on the other.

Opened to traffic are 16,550 miles of the 41,000-mile system of the interstate highway complex. The Federal Government has already spent or obligated $22.5 billion on the work completed or in progress, with the states adding another $9 billion.

But from inception of the vast highway design, imputations of scandal in the collaborating states became so numerous and varied that in 1959 Congress created a special investigating committee. It found:

- Fraud or carelessness involving right-of-way acquisitions in 24 states.
- Shoddy or deliberately dishonest construction practices in 21 states.
- Payola accepted by highway department employees in seven states.

Finally, it has been estimated that the completed program will now cost taxpayers double the $27.5 billion originally projected.

The revelation of such widespread misfeasance is indeed an evil commentary on the integrity of an untold number of government functionaries and the morality of numerous American construction firms.

HST Will Rank High as Leader

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Harry S. Truman, as brisk and cocky as when he left the White House in 1953, will be 80 Friday and if over the years he has sounded self-satisfied, and still does, it's no wonder.

He doesn't have to worry about his place in history. It will be high up.

In 1952, not long before Truman turned over the presidency to Dwight D. Eisenhower, the American historian, Henry Steele Commager, said in 50 years historians would regard Truman's administration as "one of unparalleled success."

Ten years later the New York Times reported a survey of 75 American historians showed they listed Truman among the near-great presidents.

They may plant him among the great in the years to come, by Commager's reckoning.

LIST OF GREATS

They named the great ones this way: Lincoln, Washington, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Wilson, Jefferson.

This was their near-great list: Jackson, Theodore Roosevelt, Polk, Truman, John Adams, Cleveland.

No president in history ever had dumped on him a load more terrible than the one Truman inherited when he stepped into the White House April 12, 1945: a war to be finished in Europe and the Pacific; a still unrecovered to peace, and, still unrecovered, of them, a cold war to be fought.

Except that he had been a hard-working senator, he was an unknown quantity when he became president.

'PRAY FOR ME'

He was overwhelmed. He said he felt the moon and stars had fallen on him. "Pray for me," he said.

But what he had was iron and the ability to make decisions.

What he needed was good advice. He sought it.

COLD WAR

By the fall of 1945 the cold war was taking shape. So was his thinking about it.

In a speech on Oct. 27, 1945 he announced the United States would keep the secret of the atomic bomb, to be safe and preserve peace, and he called for a large armed force.

Things piled up on him but he handled them all like iron.

What was the most tremendous decision of his presidency?

He said it was not dropping the bombs on Japan but going into Korea.

HIGH POINT

He was asked once what was the high point of his White House years.

He laughed and said it was his election to a full four-year term in 1948.

David Lawrence Says:

Rights Fight Breeds Legal Chaos

WASHINGTON — This period may go down in history as the "era of confusion."

For many people do not seem to know from one day to another just what is "the law of the land."

Nor is it clear any more what laws have to be obeyed.

Much of the difficulty, it has been said, will be erased if the civil rights bill is passed, because many of the points hitherto not covered by law with respect to racial discrimination will be subject to enforcement by the federal authorities.

But here, too, many difficulties present themselves, for the courts will take some time before they will pass upon the constitutionality of many of the provisions of the civil rights bill when it does become law.

Meanwhile, every individual has the right to test any law as to its constitutionality.

NO DETERRENT
If he is wrong, he must be punished, but this doesn't deter even governors of states from taking the risks involved.

With respect to desegregation of public schools, for example, the action taken by the Supreme Court of the United States this week in a case involving "racial imbalance" in the public schools of Gary, Indiana, has produced some disappointment among the ranks of Negro leaders, because "racial imbalance" was not ruled to be illegal or unconstitutional.

The Supreme Court refused to review the case and thus let stand the ruling of the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals that there was no obligation to abandon the neighborhood school to attain a better racial balance.

The school authorities in Gary, Ind., had transferred students from overcrowded schools, and in one instance there were 120 Negroes among the 140 students transferred from a predominantly Negro school to a predominantly white school.

NOT ADEQUATE
But this was not considered adequate by the Negro organizations which took the case to court.

The plaintiffs had based their case, in the words of the Circuit Court opinion, "on their fundamental theory that their right to be integrated in school is such an overriding purpose that little, if any, consideration need be given to the safety of the children, convenience of pupils and their parents, and costs of the operation of the school system."

Thoughts for Today

Love and business and family and religion and art and patriotism are nothing but shadows of words when a man's starving.

eration of the school system."

The plaintiffs also argued that in the 1954 "desegregation" decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, segregated public education was held to be incompatible with the requirements of the Fourteenth Amendment.

But in the Gary case, the Circuit Court of Appeals agreed that "there is no affirmative U.S. constitutional duty to change innocently arrived at school attendance districts by the mere fact that shifts in population either increase or decrease the percentage of either Negro or white pupils."

Bob Considine Says:

Dems Want a Kennedy as Running Mate for LBJ

NEW YORK — If matters continue as now headed, President Johnson is going to wind up with a running mate he does not especially hanker for.

Every sampling of opinion among Democrats, leaders and rank and file, shows clearly that they want Robert Kennedy to march with LBJ when he goes into political battle next fall.

If the attorney general were not around, they'd want Sen. Ted Kennedy (if he were old enough) or Sargent Shriver.

The reason, of course, is clear: The magic of the Kennedy name and the presumption that enough of JFK's qualities and style must have rubbed off on those who were close to him.

The White House bears the LBJ brand most unmistakably these days.

KENNEDY PARTY
But out through the country it is still largely the party of the brilliant young man who met death in Dallas last November while trying to bolster the party's image in that Republican stronghold.

The Atlantic City convention is almost certain to turn into a vast memorial service for the late president.

Out of it will come a yearning for somebody like him to be around the President, and the man most like him in looks, voice and style is Robert Kennedy.

LBJ and LBJ alone will make the final decision as to the No. 2 man.

LITTLE AFFECTION

There was never much affection or respect evidenced between the two during LBJ's tenure as vice president.

Bobby died considerably more popular within the Executive office than did the man destined to succeed to total power.

The attorney general reacts with Chief Justice Earl Warren

Spokesmen for the Negro organizations say that, while they have not gained their point in the Gary case, they hope that, in some other case which they will bring before the high court, a different decision may be handed down.

That is why in this "era of confusion" it is difficult from one day to another for the citizens to know exactly what "the law of the land" is likely to be on racial questions, and maybe that is one reason why the street demonstrations have not been abandoned.

Committee Chairman Sends Correction

An article in The Press about the newly-organized "New Horizons of Oakland County," a program directed at aiding mentally retarded young adults, quoted one of its supporters as saying that the project is "under the auspices of the Metropolitan Advisory Committee, a United Foundation agency."

We are sure that The Press reported this in just the way it was said. However, the spokesman himself was misinformed. The "New Horizons" undertaking is not under the auspices of the Advisory Committee or the United Foundation.

This is not to imply that there is any objection to what the New Horizons group is seeking to do. There is a great need for a sheltered workshop program. However, the group is in no way connected with the Metropolitan Advisory Committee which is a United Community Services agency.

'Residents Disappointed in Suit Result'

Residents of Lake Oakland Heights, Waterford Twp., are disappointed in the outcome of the suit brought against the township. Mr. Coleman and Mr. Seesterlin can be proud of themselves. They are an example of the type of officials we have. These elected officials have broken a contract made by the builder of our subdivision and the township in 1956 and the courts have sanctioned it.

Next election will find these men on shaky ground.

Landry's Daughter Writes on Election

I write to answer "District 7 Voter." I am confused about the way Pontiac is run. Why is my dad the poor sport when he tries to vote? It represents fairly the people who supported him in the election? It is within his rights to ask for a recount. Also, why wasn't Wellbaum called the poor sport knowing very well that the people in District 7 did not want him? How can a man fully represent a district when he was chosen third. This is unfair. Why wasn't Wellbaum called a poor sport when during the primary he also asked for a recount?

My dad has done his best to bring Pontiac up-to-date. And to my knowledge he has done a remarkable job. Before he was mayor, you never even heard of urban renewal, or the permaclear road, or the underground tunnel or the new drainage system. He got the ball rolling. If my dad is blamed for the bad things, why can't he be commended for the good?

The people got him out, so when nothing is done by the new commission, don't crab, because you put them there.

Driver Censures Policeman for Actions

Writes on True Meaning of Education

It is a misconception to suppose that education means the formal studies available in schools and universities. Education begins in the home, almost from birth.

It is the process of putting an immature mind in touch with a mature mind, which passes on life's human experiences. The kind and extent of our education depends a great deal on our happiness, for it determines our efficiency in terms of our work and the way we get along with others.

Education gives us a disciplined, rich mind; one that we can put to work for our own betterment and help others. It does not stop at the classroom door, but goes on through life.

Among the responses were rose cocoa, goodclean fawn, Chinese sage and Robert Shaw coral. Also Zane Gray and bi-partisan slate.

Why was it, we still wonder, that on encountering these tainted tint-labels, our hackles rose and we became so angry that we saw red? We are glad the horn blue on this nonsense, or we might have called its inventor on the telephone to vent our moody brown reaction.

Sen. Byrd Attacks

The New York Times

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., spoke in Washington at the convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and as the Senator's habit, he said a mouthful. His subject was the U.S. Supreme Court, with Earl Warren as Chief Justice.

This court, said the Virginia statesman, is guilty of an "ever-widening usurpation of power." It has now taken to telling the states how to map the districts from which members of the states' own legislatures are to be elected.

"Nothing," said Sen. Byrd, "could be further outside of federal jurisdiction" — even though many a state legislative district is unfairly mapped (gerrymandered) to favor one or the other political party.

In our opinion, Sen. Byrd is eminently correct in this attack on the Warren Court.

Further, we believe it is time for a well-organized, well-planned drive to be launched in Congress to curb and curtail the Supreme Court before it is too late — meaning before we find ourselves living under a judicial dictatorship.

How about Sen. Byrd starting such a drive?

Thanks!

The Hillsdale Daily News

One may argue that the tens of billions of dollars in foreign aid dispensed by the United States since World War II proceeded ultimately from our own self-interest. To expect thanks is just another indication of America's naivete.

Even so, it's nice to be thanked once in a while, and any expression of gratitude from abroad is such a rare event that it bears repeating. Noting that U. S. aid to Britain, which began with Lend-Lease in 1940, is now virtually ended, the Economist of London recently wrote:

"The United States has given Britain $8.7 billion since the war. It would be hard to imagine a European state in America's postwar position taking such a long and broad view of its history. Now that Western Europe, including Britain, is prospering, the least we can do is to pay tribute to the relative and partner who nursed us back to self-earned health, both when our very life was in danger and when we were being debilitatedly convalescent."

Thank you, Economist!

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

No Relation Between Epilepsy, Crime

Along with the tragic events in Dallas there has come a great deal of speculation about the relationship between epilepsy and crime.

To put the matter as simply as possible, there is no relationship. Nor is there a relationship between epilepsy and BRANDSTADT mental deficiency or insanity.

A false idea got started years ago. It was based on inadequate observation, and it has been very hard to stamp out.

It is as though a criminal or a mental defective was found to have diabetes (and many of them do).

FAULTY CONCLUSION

Then, as a result, we were to say, "Well, you know how it is with these diabetics!"

As a matter of fact, a large group of criminals in Massachusetts were studied and not one of them was found to be epileptic.

There are about 1.8 million known epileptics in the United States whose seizures are well controlled with the newer anti-convulsant drugs.

Yet, because of ancient fears and prejudices, they suffer unnecessary handicaps.

GOOD WORKERS

They often find it hard to get employment in spite of the fact they make good and safe workers.

They may also have difficulty in being accepted in schools and colleges despite outstanding mental ability.

They may in some states be barred from marrying although their disease is not directly transmissible to their off-spring.

When an epileptic does have emotional and behavior problems, it is often due to over-protection by loving but misguided parents, social rejection and other undue hardships heaped upon them by a poorly informed society.

UNRECOGNIZED FORMS

Finally I would like to say a word for those unfortunate persons who have mild forms of epilepsy that go unrecognized as such.

They go through life branded as ill-tempered, irritable or "difficult" when a simple brainwave test would put them on the track of proper treatment.

Anticonvulsant drugs have made enormous improvements in the dispositions of children who had been having a hard time with their classmates, teachers and parents until a wise doctor had the insight to order an electroencephalogram - the test which reveals the abnormal brain waves of epilepsy even when the victim is not having an attack.

Untreated epilepsy will not account for all the misfits but its discovery and treatment will reduce their number.

Head Count Cuts Funds

PASCO, Wash. (AP)—Pasco City officials should have quit while they were ahead.

About a month ago they ordered a new head count hoping for a substantial increase in the per capita distribution of state liquor and gasoline taxes to cities.

The census, which cost $1,567, showed a population loss of 623 since last year, down to 15,677. As a result, Pasco stands to lose about $13,100 this year in state funds.

Latin Tour Still On for French Leader

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle, who underwent prostate surgery April 17, still plans to make an extensive tour of South America next autumn, well-informed French sources said today.

De Gaulle, 73, was released from the hospital last Thursday. He plans to preside at a Cabinet meeting today.

De Gaulle's tentative itinerary for his South American tour includes visits to Venezuela, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru, Bolivia, Chile, Uruguay, Argentina, Paraguay and Brazil.

Busy Day for Romney Planned in Big Rapids

BIG RAPIDS (AP) — Gov. George Romney expects to take part Wednesday in a main street parade combining the celebrations of High School Band Day, honoring 12 area bands, and Romney Day. The schedule also calls for him to visit Ferris State College and serve as principal speaker at an evening banquet at St. Peter's Lutheran School here.

'Oswald Had No Chance for Fair Trial'

BOSTON (AP)—Dean Erwin H. Griswold of the Harvard Law School says television coverage of the aftermath of President John F. Kennedy's assassination would have made it impossible for Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused assassin, to get a fair trial in the United States.

"The district attorney in Dallas came on TV and outlined all his evidence," Griswold said

Tuesday, "and how in the world could anyone expect a fair trial after that."

Griswold spoke at a joint barpress symposium on the right of people to know and the right of an accused to a fair trial.

Oswald was shot to death by a Dallas night club owner, Jack Ruby, in view of a nationwide television audience.

Griswold said the standards and outlook of "the electronic media get lower and lower."

W. Theodore Pierson of Washington, D.C., attorney for broadcasting media, issued a statement denying Griswold "to prove the standards of TV people are getting lower and lower."

Blame Insecticides for Huge Fish Kill in Mississippi River

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Huge fish kills on the lower Mississippi by potent insecticides may force a choice between the farmer and the river.

Scientists from the U.S. Public Health Service told a pollution investigating committee Tuesday that Endrin and similar pesticides are the villains.

The kills, involving millions of fish, have hit the lower Mississippi and the Atchafalaya River, which branches off the Mississippi through Louisiana.

The problem is: Banning the pesticides would make life more difficult for farmers, who use them to destroy pests that prey on crops.

CHARGES DENIED

Some scientists, and spokesmen for manufacturers of the insecticide, deny charges that the chemicals are responsible for the river damage.

The PHS scientists testified before representatives of pollution control agencies from Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee.

Dr. Robert J. Anderson of the U.S. Department of Agriculture said afterward, "If it should be found that the cancellation of registration on Endrin, Aldrin and Dieldrin—two other pesticides—is necessary, the department is prepared to do so."

Anderson, deputy administrator of the department's Agricultural Research Service, added:

"Such cancellation could well jeopardize the continued ability of the American farmer to produce the quantity and quality of food feed and fiber vital to our national welfare. It is imperative, therefore, that this matter be studied with extreme care and that the decision reached be based on sound judgment and evidence."

Federal scientists testified that one source of Endrin pollution was located in the discharge of industrial waste and other drainage from the Memphis, Tenn., complex, particularly the plant of the Veloc Chemical Corp.

Velocel, named previously as a source of river contamination, has denied it is responsible for dumping Endrin waste into tributaries of the Mississippi.

Lake Drained; Danger Ends

MOSCOW (AP)—The vast lake created by the landslide in the Samarkand region began draining today through an emergency canal.

The government news agency Tass said the canal was opened by a final explosion early today.

The landslide April 24 blocked the Zeravshan River at a canyon between two mountains 100 miles north of the ancient city of Samarkand.

First official reports said there was danger the landslide-dam might give way and flood towns and villages in the Zeravshan Valley including Samarkand itself.

Later Soviet authorities said although a dam break might flood farming areas in the valley, there was no real danger to Samarkand.

Deputy Soviet Premier Ignaty Novikov told Tass today: "The danger of huge masses of water . . . rushing into the valley has been eliminated."

Pick Mrs. Hart Air Unit Head

Pilot Will Lead FAA Advisory Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson Tuesday named Mrs. Jane Hart, the wife of Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., to head a new 32-member Federal Aviation Agency women's advisory committee.

An experienced pilot, Mrs. Hart has taken part in numerous women's competitive air races.

Also named to the committee were Jean Pearson, aerospace and science writer for The Detroit Free Press, and Robert A. Steadman, owner-manager of Trimble Aviation at Montrose, Mich.

The President disclosed the existence of the committee Monday during presentation of a gold medal to Mrs. Jerrie Mock of Columbus, Ohio. Mrs. Mock, first woman to fly solo around the world, was named vice chairman of the advisory group by Johnson.

FAMILY USE

The committee is designed to provide "household understanding" of the increased family use of aviation in business and recreation. It will advise FAA officials on such matters relating to civil aviation as airport noise, sonic booms, safety incentives, improvement of airports and heliports, aviation education, career opportunities and encouragement of air travel.

Adrian Soldier Dies in Viet Plane Crash

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Adrian, Mich., soldier was among 16 persons killed in the crash of a U.S. Army Caribou transport plane Tuesday in Viet Nam.

Doty is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer C. Doty of Hillsdale, Mich.

The largest recorded infant of normal parentage was a 22½-pound boy who was born to an Italian woman in Sept., 1955.

2nd Rites Should Be Very Simple

By The Emily Post Institute Q: In February the firm my fiancé works for sent him to Paris. He was told that it might take six months to a year to complete the job. Because we did not want to be separated from each other for so long, we were married quietly at home by a judge and immediately after the ceremony we left for Paris. * * * He completed the job sooner than expected and we arrived back in the states last week. I would like now to have the church wedding and reception I had planned on having before this unexpected turn of events. * * * Officials of my church said it will be all right. What do you think about this? A: Since you did not have a religious ceremony the first time, it would be quite all right to have a second ceremony now in church but it should be very simple. * * * To have a large church wedding with all trimmings after being married for several months would be in very bad taste. * * * There are, however, no restrictions concerning the size of the reception. Your parents may give as large a reception as they wish in honor of your marriage. * * * Q: When writing to an organization run by women, how does one address them? "Mesdames" seems absurd but so does "Dear Sirs" and "Dear Ladies" certainly isn't correct. Is there an acceptable salutation? * * * A: "Mesdames" is French and not correct when writing in English. "Dear Madams" is the correct solution when addressing an organization run by women. * * * Details concerning the announcing and christening of a baby are described in the Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "The New Baby." * * * To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Emily Post Institute care of The Pontiac Press. * * * The Emily Post Institute cannot answer personal mail, but all questions of general interest are answered in this column.

Hubby's Cards Marked

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN DEAR ABBY: We were married 14 years and I never dreamed that anything was wrong with our marriage. Suddenly my husband started to take an interest in poker. Last March he went to a poker game that lasted all week. * * * At the end of the week, a woman called me three times in one day telling me that she and my husband were "in love" and he didn't have the nerve to ask me for a divorce. * * * I told her if my husband wanted a divorce he would have to ask me for it. He still hasn't asked me, and I am keeping my mouth shut. * * * But he still "plays poker" all night twice a week. I am 35, she is 39 and my husband is 35. * * * If he gets up the nerve to

What should I do? * * * WAITING DEAR WAITING: Get some counseling from either your clergyman or your family service association and try to put your marriage back on the track. * * * Find out why it becomes necessary for your husband to seek female companionship elsewhere. * * * You may not like what you learn, but it could save your marriage. Good luck. * * * DEAR ABBY: When I had my marriage announcements printed, I had the following message placed at the bottom: PLEASE-NO GIFTS! I did it for three very good reasons: (1) I do not need anything. (2) I have no room in my small apartment to store anything. (3) I have no time to write "thank you notes." * * * In spite of this, the gifts poured in. Why can't people be more considerate and oblige? * * * ANNOYED DEAR ANNOYED: Aw c'mon. Ingrained responses aren't easily changed. Surely you can find something other than your friends' generosity to "annoy" you. * * * DEAR ABBY: If that 16-year-old girl, whose drinking father hocked her boy friend's ring, wants to get the ring back, all she has to do is go to the pawn shop and demand it. * * * If they do not deliver up the ring, she can get the cooperation of the police in recovering stolen property (her father DID help himself to the ring, she stated). * * * Otherwise, she can (through a lawyer) reply the ring by legal process. * * * It all depends on how far the girl wants to go in making things uncomfortable for her father. * * * In my book, anyone who hocks property he does not own is no better than a common thief. * * * ANONYMOUS LAWYER (HARTFORD) Get it off your chest. Savings as Important as Birds and Bees

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

Most parents get the subject of the birds and the bees cleared up with their youngsters at an early age.

But it's only when the children's first paychecks begin rolling in that they never get to discussing the reproductive potential of dimes and dollars.

This story comes under the head of what every boy and girl should know! However, better late than never with the budget lessons.

Dear Miss Feeley, What, in your opinion, is the right amount for our son, who is almost 13, to save weekly?

His take-home pay is approximately $70. His fixed expenses are as follows: Room and board, $10; church pledge $1.15; gas for car, $12.

His second-hand car is paid for and he hopes to buy a brand new car in the spring of '65. His bank account is now at $140.

He has been working since last July and has paid $50 for his car, including insurance and licenses.

We think he should be saving more, but would like to have your comments as we don't want to be unreasonable.

Mrs. H. B., Mt. Prospect, Ill.

Seems to me your son has been doing pretty well on his own. In his circumstances, you could say that the money he paid for his car was savings in one form.

I gather that if he uses $12 worth of gas a week, his car is a necessity. So for the past eight months he has either literally saved, or used for investment, better than 30 per cent of his income.

A reasonable budget for him could shape up this way:

Room and board, $10; clothing, $8; savings, $15 ($10 of this toward the new car coming up and the other $5 for the permanent savings account); insurance, $5; personal expenses, $7; miscellaneous, charities, gifts, church, $5; recreation, $5; gas and car maintenance, $15. Total, $70.

That $5 allowed for "recreation" seems like pretty small potatoes. However, he may be able to chisel a dollar here and there from some other category.

I do feel that it's important for him to have some insurance as he can get it so inexpensively at this age—even though it may be some time before he appreciates that factor.

TWO ACCOUNTS

Also, this might be a good time to suggest the idea of two separate savings accounts—one for the car and the other for a "hands off" account. A special savings account tagged for a specific purpose often helps keep the budget plans working more smoothly.

Dear Miss Feeley, Would you please work out a budget for my daughter who will graduate from college in June? She is going to teach, and will receive $5,100 yearly.

She will operate her own car, which she will receive upon her graduation. Her personal insurance is $33 yearly, the car insurance amounts to $180 yearly. Thank you for your help.

Mrs. C. U., Norridge, Ill.

Dear Mrs. U., You don't say whether your daughter intends to board or set up her own apartment. However, we'll estimate her monthly take home pay at $350, based on that $5,100 annual income.

Why don't the two of you discuss the following budget and see how well your daughter thinks it will fit?

Housing, $70; household operating costs (if she takes an apartment), $20; food, $40; clothing, $50; savings, $45; personal expenses, $45; miscellaneous, church, etc., $30; medical, $14; recreation, $20; car costs, $30. Total, $350.

Her personal insurance can be paid out of her regular savings.

If she will be living in a small community, the amount allowed for housing and food will come nearer hitting the mark.

Otherwise, she may find it impossible to save quite as much as I've suggested. And she may also have to trim the clothing allowance. But at least this skeleton budget will give you something to work with.

Pontiac Press Photo

It's a big one! Tom Childers and Marie Williams get a preview of the "fish pond" to be featured at the Alcott School Fair. This and many other features will be open from 5 to 8 p.m. Friday. Tom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Childers of South Merrimac Street. Marie's parents are Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Williams of Monticello Avenue.

Churchwomen to Hear Speech on Hospitals

"Thy World Is Our Concern" has been the general theme of the Episcopal Churchwomen's program at Christ Church Cranbrook this year.

The Rev. Robert T. Pattie will add another facet to this general theme when he discusses "The Church and the Inner City Hospital" Tuesday at 1 p.m., following a noon luncheon at the church.

Currently the supervising chaplain at Receiving Hospital in Detroit, Rev. Pattie served for two years as interim chaplain at St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital in Houston, Tex.

A new volunteer plan which is in the process of being organized at Receiving Hospital will be explained and a question-and-answer period will follow the address.

All women of the community are welcome to attend and should make reservations for the luncheon by calling the church office no later than 10:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Digging Reveals Blooming Mess

At the sight of the first crocus, itchy fingers long to get started on summer's garden. It can be a messy job, since jeans, blouses and overalls can take a beating with stains and muddy soil.

Here's where liquid chlorine bleach can do a job by removing ground-in dirt in the washing machine. Add it to the water with detergent before putting in laundry.

One 8-oz. cup of liquid chlorine bleach to a top-loader, or half a cup for front-loading machines; it's your assurance that everything will come out clean and ready for the next "digging."

Lace Cap Holds Veil for Bride

The Robert Edward Kutcher (Paulette Fay Hempton) left for a honeymoon at Lake Michigan following their recent vows in Our Lady of the Lakes Church.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Walerych of Terness Drive. The bridegroom is the son of the Adam Kutcher of Bingham Farms. Hand-clipped Chantilly lace imported white silk organza and taffeta fashioned the bride's sheath gown and her cathedral-length train.

LACE CAP

A bouffant veil caught by a lace petal cap and a bouquet of white carnations and roses completed her ensemble.

With Mrs. Donald Kutcher, honor attendant at the noon ceremony performed by Rev. Frederick Delaney, were the bride's sister Barbara Hempton. Bridesmaids were Susan Barker and Constance Houser, both of Kalamazoo.

Donald Kutcher stood as best man for his brother. Ushers included Carl Babcock, East Tawas; Michael McCarthy, Birmingham, and John Wrobel, Royal Oak.

This evening reception was held at Maurice's. The couple will be at home in Royal Oak.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Guaranteed to happen as the vacation season begins and families hit the road by car:

The children will argue for the beach as a vacation site, father will want near a golf course and the family will end up with a long drive to visit relatives.

Everyone will vow to travel light and father will find himself trying to fit six suitcases into the luggage compartment.

The family will have been on the road 25 minutes when she will say, "did you lock the back door?" he will say, "No, I thought you were to tend to that." They'll turn around and go back to lock up.

FORGET MAP

The vacation route will have been marked out carefully on a map before departure and one hour on the road, someone will discover it has not been packed. The driver will refuse to return.

An hour later, Junior'll remember he didn't bring along his baseball glove and demand that they turn around and go back for it. The driver will refuse and the first howl of many on the trip will go up.

Everyone will look forward to staying at a motel with swimming pool, then find swim suits too were forgotten. She will want the windows up because the wind is blowing her hair; he and all the children will roll them down.

BATTLE ROYAL

There'll be a battle royal among the children over who counted the most Mail Pouch signs on barns and white horses in the fields.

Adults will order the children to keep their hands off doors and inside the windows.

The order will be repeated at intervals of approximately five minutes.

One of the children will partake of too many sweets and get car sick.

One of the children will mash a finger between car window and frame.

The driver will get into the exact change lane on a toll highway and find he's got only a five dollar bill.

She will volunteer to navigate but somewhere will miss the road sign. As he retraces the route she will say, "I'd have seen it, except you were going so fast."

She will tell him he's driving too fast at intervals of approximately 10 minutes each.

He will reply at 10-minute intervals, "Now lookahere, I've been driving for 20 years and ..."

The children will want to make rest stops at intervals of approximately 30 minutes each.

The driver will get lost but he will drive half an hour out of his way refusing to admit it and refusing to stop at a filling station to ask for directions.

She will say, "I think the fuel gauge is low, shouldn't we stop for gas at the next station?" He will say "There's plenty of gas" and 15 minutes later the car will run out of it. It probably will be raining at the time.

It will rain at least four of the days of the trip.

The family will have worked out a budget before the trip designed to cover hamburgers and such; at every stop the children will demand steak.

She will ask the waitress if she can have a paper sack to take leftovers out for the dog and one of the children will say, "Oh, mommy, you mean we're going to get a dog?"

Why Grow Old?

Sometimes when writing about figures I wonder if any of my readers think that I judge people by their measurements. Nothing could be further from the truth!

There are many fascinating overweight women whose love of life and warmth and personality make their figures so completely unimportant that you never even notice the extra weight.

However, since I know what a hazard obesity is to health, and since I believe that the average woman is affected by her waistline, I keep "pounding" away!

This week I am bringing you my 9-Day Reducing Diet which gives you a loss from five to 10 pounds.

How much you lose in nine days depends on several factors. STICK TO DIET

First is whether or not you stick with the diet faithfully.

Then, too, the amount of physical activity you indulge in and your metabolic rate influence the rate at which you lose.

You can substitute foods on this diet so long as you substitute a food from the same food group.

For instance, you can substitute a meat for fish or fowl or for a different kind of meat if you remove visible fat and leave off gravy and broil or bake rather than fry the item.

You can substitute one vegetable for another. However, this doesn't mean that you can put potatoes in the place of greens, although potatoes (baked) have a legitimate place on slimming menus.

Here are the menus for Thursday:

BREAKFAST
Half grapefruit
One thin dry piece of whole wheat toast, Black coffee

MID MORNING
Glass of tomato juice

LUNCHEON
Green salad with lemon or reducing dressing, 1 slice lamb roast (don't eat the fat)
One glass skimmed milk
One thin dry piece of whole wheat toast

MID AFTERNOON

DINNER
One piece of lean meat, steak or roast (five or six ounces)

One-half cup squash (yellow) (preferable)
One-half cup string beans
One glass skimmed milk, one apple

If you would like to have the complete diet in a booklet, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press. This booklet also gives you substitute allowable foods.

SEW SIMPLE

By Eunice Farmer

Dear Eunice: Can I make a thong belt out of satin seam binding and finish the ends with Japanese knots? Can fabric also be used?

Mrs. S. W.

It is possible to make a narrow cord belt with satin bias binding. Usually these are made from fabric of most any type, but you would have to cut your own bias strips of fabric.

These cannot be made by using the straight grain of your fabric, but must be made on the bias.

For full information about making finished cording and also the Chinese ball buttons, please send 10 cents and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Sew Simple, in care of this newspaper.

Knit Notes for Beginners: In case you haven't heard, use two balls of yarn and cast on both sleeves at once. Makes sleeves quicker, and no guess work about getting them exactly even!

Mrs. S. W.

BELT HELP

Make a truly professional looking belt for your summer cottons! Cut a strip of dress fabric 1/2 inch wider on all sides than the belting material. Be sure to trim one end into a neat point.

As you press the 1/2-inch fabric allowance over the belting material, spray lightly with spray starch. The fabric will stay nice and flat and crease sharply around the belting.

Remove the belting and lay it OVER the fabric, hiding the turned raw edges. Machine stitch in place, stitching from the belting material side for a more even stitching. (This does work beautifully and turns out perfect every time.)

This helpful suggestion won a Tailor Trix pressing board for Mrs. W. K. Sumner, Pouray, Calif.

Dear Eunice: I don't know how my sewing would turn out if it weren't for your great column, I have learned so much. One problem that has stumped me completely is the front of the waistline of all my dresses.

I carefully mark the waistline with chalk and string as you suggest, and when I finish the dress, the bodice drops below the belt. Please help me and tell me what I am doing wrong.

Mrs. R. M. R.

I imagine you are doing just exactly what I find most of my pupils doing, and that is standing too erect when you are marking the waistline.

This is a common thing for most of us to do when we are being fitted (guess we want to think "thin").

Try to relax and stand in a normal position. If your posture is naturally stooped a little, this is the way you will have to stand when marking your dress. I am sure that if you try this again, you will have better luck.

Dear Eunice: There is a new shift this year which is called a playtime shift. It is about 1 1/2 inches above the knee. What is worn underneath?

Slips and petti-pants are too long. Please answer as I have made about eight of these shifts already!

Mrs. E. S.

Since I am a little too old for these playtime shifts, I had to call on my two teen-age girls to help me out with an answer for you.

They both claim that petti-pants should normally be 2 inches above the knees and should work out perfectly.

Perhaps you are shorter than average, in which case I would suggest you sew in a fold of fabric above the lace of your petti-pants to shorten them.

This is the best I can do for you. Hope it works!

Many thanks for all the letters telling us about your sewing areas. It's not too late to send in more pictures of your own sewing area. Remember, you may win a Tailor Trix Pressing Board for the best planned sewing space. Send your information to Sew Simple, in care of this paper.

News Note From Around the World

Israel Tests Jordan Diversion; May Start Project in Summer

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel has started testing its Jordan River diversion project to channel irrigation water into the Negev Desert.

Officials said if several weeks of tests are satisfactory, the project will go into operation this summer.

Leaders of the 13 Arab states have warned they will oppose the project under "the legitimate right of self-defense." They are making plans to divert headwaters of the rivers.

LONDON (AP)—The Creoles of Sierra Leone have been refused independent statehood by a descendant of the antislavery campaigner who settled their ancestors in Africa 175 years ago.

The decision Tuesday, by High Court Judge Richard Wilberforce, ended three years of litigation brought by Dr. Prince Buck and five others.

LED SETTLEMENT

Judge Wilberforce's great-grandfather, William Wilberforce, led the campaign which resettled the Creole-slaves from America and the British West Indies — West Africa's Sierra Leone peninsula. The community, a crown colony, was later merged with the larger protectorate of Sierra Leone, and the entire territory was given independence in 1961.

Dr. Buck and the other five Creole plaintiffs contended that the British government had exceeded its powers. Judge Wilberforce ruled that the crown powers were sufficient, and ordered the plaintiffs to pay court costs of about $2,000.

MONTREAL (AP) — Hal C. Banks, deposed kingpin of the Canadian waterfront, has appealed a five-year prison sentence for conspiracy in the beating of a rival union official.

The Quebec Court of Appeals received the appeal Tuesday but declined to fix bail until it studied the trial transcript.

Banks, former president of the Seafarer's International Union of Canada, was convicted in connection with the beating in 1967 of Capt. Henry Francis Walsh, an organizer for the Canadian Merchant Service Guild.

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—An American sailor was found shot to death today aboard the U.S. destroyer Gridley, docked here on a goodwill visit.

The Gridley's public information officer said the sailor died of a self-inflicted wound. An investigation was under way to determine whether the death was accidental or suicide.

PANAMA (AP) — Panama's National Guard commander, Col. Bolivar Vallarino, Tuesday

brushed off speculation that he will prevent former President Arnulfo Arias from taking office if he wins next Sunday's presidential election.

Vallarino said in an interview his 3,000-man force, Panama's army, will support the election winner no matter who he is. Arias, regarded as having a slight edge in the seven-man race, has accused Vallarino of masterminding Arias' two ousters from the presidency, in 1941 and 1951.

Court OKs Bias Vote on Housing

LANSING (UPI)—The Greater Detroit Homeowners' Council had permission today to seek voter adoption this fall of an ordinance that would permit housing discrimination.

The State Supreme Court voted 5-3 yesterday to uphold the council's right to present petitions demanding a referendum on the question.

The decision reversed a permanent injunction Wayne County Circuit Judge Joseph A. Moynihan Jr. issued Feb. 13 to bar Detroit election officials from placing the question on the ballot.

In issuing its order, the court said it was protecting the right of the electorate to seek laws by initiative petition and not ruling on the constitutionality of the "closed housing" ordinance.

The council has collected 44,000 signatures demanding the proposed ordinance be put to a vote. Last Sept. 10, Edward D. Turner, president of the Detroit Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, filed for the injunction.

RESERVED RIGHT

The ordinance the homeowners' council proposed would reserve to property owners the right to decide whom they would rent or sell to.

Violation of the provisions of the ordinance could result in a $500 fine or 90 days in jail.

Thant Paris Visit Points to French Thaw

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.N. Secretary-General U Thant and President Charles de Gaulle of France seem to be having what the one would call a reconciliation and the other a rapprochement.

So it appears from the warm words Thant exchanged with French officials on a four-day visit to Paris last week.

The words haven't always

been so warm. For years, France has been standoffish toward the United Nations while in the minority here on such questions as independence for Algeria, France's base in Bizerte, Tunisia, and U.N. intervention in the Congo.

France refused financial support to the U.N. force in the Congo. French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville boycotted the General Assembly. The French delegation, while attending, remained silent during debate.

On April 11, 1961, de Gaulle announced that France would not contribute men or money to future undertakings of the "disunited nations." He called the United Nations "riotous and scandalous" and said its officers had "the ambition to intervene in all kinds of matters."

The late Dag Hammarskjöld was still secretary-general then. But Thant managed to offend the French after he succeeded Hammarskjöld in November 1961.

Thant blandly commented last September that "French foreign policy is based on the conviction that there is no danger of the Soviet Union launching a nuclear attack on Western Europe." He said France felt the North Atlantic Treaty Organization might not be needed and, if NATO was needed, U.S. participation might not be.

NO BUSINESS

In Paris, French sources replied that Thant had no business commenting on a member government's policy.

But when de Gaulle learned Thant was coming to Paris for a coordination meeting with executives of U.N. - affiliated agencies, he invited him to lunch. De Gaulle's prostrate operation kept them from meeting, but they exchanged warm notes.

Thant lunched with Premier Georges Pompidou and dined with Foreign Minister Couve de Murville. In a toast, Couve de Murville credited Thant with "a sense of reality" and said "France is gratified at the cooperation that has been established between you and us."

Thant replied that French policy was based on humanity and realism.

NOT WORRIED

Two days later, Thant told French diplomatic correspondents that he wasn't worried about France's Congo bill because France was showing confidence in the United Nations.

On troubled Southeast Asia, Thant sounded like de Gaulle himself, explaining that a military solution had failed and political means were needed.

When Thant was Burma's U.N. ambassador, he advocated a neutralized Viet Nam. Now de Gaulle is proposing the same idea.

Public Service Week

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George W. Romney has proclaimed May 24-30 as Education for Public Service Week in Michigan in recognition of the 50th anniversary of the University of Michigan Institute of Public Administration.

3 Minority Parties on Michigan Ballot

LANSING (AP) — Three minority parties—including the first in Michigan history to plan an all-Negro slate—have filed for positions on the November election ballot, reports Secretary of State James Hare.

Hare said the Freedom Now Party plans an entire Negro slate for office. Petitions also were filed before the May 3 line for ballot positions for the Socialist Workers and Socialist Labor parties.

All that remains now, Hare said, is official certification of the signatures on the petitions for ballot appearances. Less than 15,000 valid signatures are needed to place a party on the ballot.

Safety Week in May

LANSING (AP) — The second week in May has been proclaimed Safety Patrol Week in Michigan by Gov. George W.

Romney. The governor asked for a salute to young school safety patrol members and to the Optimist Clubs of Michigan for supporting their work.

Of 2 Virginia Policemen

Little to Go On in Killings

FREDERICKSBURG, Va. (AP) — A fingerprint report and sketchy descriptions of two automobiles are the main clues in the murder of two patrolmen in this northern Virginia city.

"We feel pretty futile about it," Police Chief R. W. Coble said. "There is, to be blunt, not a hell of a lot to go on."

Several persons were detained for questioning yesterday but were released.

The fingerprints were on the squad car in which Sgt. R. G. Wright, 31, and patrolman William Frank Mines, 27, were making their rounds before they were killed before dawn yesterday. Details of the FBI report were not made public.

Two cars with New Jersey license plates were said to have been noticed in the area of the slayings.

BEHIND CENTER

The bodies of Wright and Mines, both fathers of small children, were found by a delivery man at 5:30 a.m. behind a shopping center on the US 1 bypass.

Mines was in the front seat of the patrol car, and Wright was sprawled on the ground nearby.

Wright had been shot seven times and Mines three times by the same gun, a foreign make the size of a .32 caliber weapon. An autopsy also showed that neither officer had fired a shot.

GUNS REMOVED

When found, their guns and ammunition had been removed from their bodies.

The murders bore some similarities to the slaying April 17 of three officers in Georgia, but Frederickburg police discount any connection.

Public Hearing Tomorrow on Milford Z one Ordinance

By PAT MCCARTY
MILFORD — A full-fledged zoning ordinance — 76 pages strong — will be offered to Milford residents at a public hearing tomorrow night.

The code would replace four pages of regulations and a sketch which now control development in the village.

It is aimed at facilitating the master plan recently adopted here after some two years of study.

Promoting the outline of what

Milford should be like 20 years hence, the code is designed to aid city fathers in achieving that goal through more specific restrictions on residential, commercial, industrial and other uses.

The present ordinance, adopted in 1957, has virtually no control over uses made of property because of the many variances allowed, according to Village Manager Donald Weidner.

MERELY A DESCRIPTION
"It was designed to not rock the boat," Weidner said, noting that the current zoning map is little more than a description of how the property already had been used.

Most affected in the new scheme are residential areas. Where the present code contains a general definition of the zone, the proposed one breaks it down into six categories.

Currently, residential lots must be 66 feet wide and contain no less than 8,712 square feet.

The proposed code describes the average size in a subdivision. The four single-family residential classifications range from an average lot of 7,300 square feet to one of 21,780.

MAINTAIN AVERAGE

In the former, the average lot must be 60 feet wide, although lots 55 feet wide containing 6,600 square feet are allowed as long as the average for the subdivision is maintained.

The single-family zone with the largest lots required would have them an average of 120 feet wide, with 100-foot lots containing 17,500 square feet allowed.

Density figures for single residential property run from 1.5 units per acre in the most restrictive, or R-1 category to 2.3 in R-2, and 3.4 in R-3.

Also under the heading of residential uses are those for two families and multiple families. Added to these are restrictions on fencing, greenbelts and off-street parking.

PROPERTY VALUES

"This will protect the single-family residence owner from encroachment on his property values," Weidner said. "Now any residence can be converted for up to four families. There's no stability."

The central business district, the manager noted, would be consolidated into one area. Thus, problems peculiar to business areas, such as traffic flow and parking, could better be solved because of their isolation.

The proposed code, Weidner said, "encourages the orderly development of the commercial and industrial base in the future."

It was formulated on the idea that neighborhoods are not to be split. Each residential neighborhood, for instance, has a park recommended in the master plan.

FRAMEWORK FOR FUTURE
The manager noted the code provides the framework for future development but would not alter uses already permitted for existing structures.

The hearing is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in the multipurpose room of Avalyn Johnson Elementary School on General Motors Road.

Hough, 7424 Fisher, is an employee of the Michigan Proving Ground.

He was cited for his service to the Community Hospital near Almont and the Romeo Community Youth and Civic Center.

He is chairman of the hospital board and chairman of its building committee. He also serves as chairman of the Romeo Youth Center board.

State Road Deaths 650

EAST LANSING (AP)—Traffic accidents have killed 650 persons in Michigan so far this year, provisional figures compiled by state police showed today. The highway death toll at this date last year was 483.

Hospital Posts for 3 Area Men

Elected to Foundation at Meeting in Almont

ALMONT — Three area men are newly elected members of the Community Hospital Foundation.

They are Paul W. Bruske, 3377 Schooley, Romeo, Robert J. Land, 4773 Lockwood, Washington Township; and Rev. Bruno Bruckner of Capac.

Bruske was elected to succeed Harold Prescott who moved to Australia during his term in office. Rev. Bruckner was reelected after an absence of two years from the foundation and Lang was named to a three-year term.

At the annual hospital meeting foundation members reelected included Mrs. Franklin O'Connor, Armada; Leon Bishop, James D. Ligon, Thomas K. Richards, Dr. and Mrs. G. Clare Bishop; James Wade, Mrs. James Smith Sr., Charles Ferguson and Harold Hough, all of Almont.

Others are Carlton VanWagoner, Imlay City; Norman Brennan, Capac; and J. Gerald McLean and Eugene Lane, both of Romeo.

James Hough and Dr. John C. Nott, both of Romeo, were elected to the board of trustees. In addition, John R. Bartholomew, Romeo, who had completed Prescott's unexpired term, was elected to a three-year term on the board.

In his president's report Hough cited the high patient census during the past several months which has prompted the board to start preliminary discussions on relieving the overcrowded conditions.

Troy Resignations Called Setback

TROY — The resignation of City Manager David E. Firestone is being interpreted in various ways, including the one expressed by Mayor Robert J. Huber who calls it "a five-year setback."

"The shocking resignation of City Manager David E. Firestone, coupled with the pending departure of Charles Bieglin... has set the forward progress of the city of Troy back to the old guard days of five years ago," Huber said.

Bieglin, director of public works and city engineer, will leave Friday for a new position with Northwood Engineering.

At Monday night's special meeting of the common council, Firestone, just prior to discussion of next year's city manager's salary, informed the commissioners of his forthcoming departure.

Yesterday, he said he wanted to get his budget wrapped up but did not want his salary discussed, so submitted his resignation at the proper time in budget discussion.

LENGTHY SEARCH

"The abuse Firestone has had to take is readily documented," Huber said. "Citizens of Troy must now pay for the costly and lengthy search and training program of capable administrators."

Huber pointed a verbal finger of guilt at the "old guard" members of the commission.

"The old guard clique who are celebrating their recent victory are responsible for these chaotic conditions, and the blame must rest squarely on them."

"Them" refers to the two new commissioners, former police chief David E. Grattop and Clancy A. Fenseth. Some also group commission veteran Clifford Sutermeister with the two.

ERUPTION EVIDENT

Since Grattop and Fenseth replaced Robert B. Carey in the April 6 election, friction has been evident at the commission sessions.

Firestone fired Grattop from the police chief's post in August, 1963, on grounds that he was unable to handle the responsibility of the position, particularly the administrative and clerical duties.

With the backing of former commissioner Louis Yanich, Grattop and Fenseth were voted to the commission posts in an April 6 upset.

Many of Grattop's proponents were advocating the ouster of Firestone, following Grattop's dismissal, and before and after Grattop's victory at the polls.

The city manager will depart

June 4 for a similar position in Arvada, Colo.

Now that his termination is firm, Huber is suggesting to the people of Troy that they take a look at the present commission "for their own personal welfare."

He is also urging the people to have "representatives at all commission meetings and to form neighborhood study groups to investigate the hard facts now facing Troy."

Backers of College Install New Slate

Other officers installed include Mrs. Paul Lutz of Detroit, first vice president; Mrs. Marvin Banks of Royal Oak, second vice president; Mrs. David Collins of Clawson, recording secretary; and Mrs. Gene Moore of St. Clair Shores, corresponding secretary.

As members of the executive board it will be this group's duty to guide the 1,600-member organization in the determination of policies and projects designed to promote MCC.

Rochester Head Named Ford 'Citizen of Year'

Rochester Village President John F. O'Donnell, Macomb County Ford Motor Co. employee, has been named "Ford Citizen of the Year."

O'Donnell, 1216 Sycamore, an employee of Ford's Paint and Chemical Products Plant at Mount Clemens, was presented the company's highest honor for community service—a symbolic Town Crier's bell.

He was recognized for his work in public office, fundraising and youth activities.

Seven other employees of Ford facilities in Macomb County also were cited for outstanding community service at a dinner at the company's Sterling plant.

Among those receiving mounted silver scrolls bearing the engraved commendation of Henry Ford II, company board chairman, was James H. Hough of Romeo.

PROVING GROUNDS

Ford facilities in Macomb County include plants in Sterling Township, Mount Clemens and Utica, and the Michigan Proving Ground near Romeo.

O'Donnell has served two terms on the Rochester Village Council and earlier this year was elected village president.

As a member of the Michigan United Conservation Club, he was active in the water pollution control for the nation's rivers and lakes.

Since 1942, O'Donnell has been a volunteer member of the Brooklands Fire Department. He is past president of Metropolitan Club, Spirit 61.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

His other activities include participation in fund-raising drives of the Old Newsboys and Goodfellow organizations.

Hough, 7424 Fisher, is an employee of the Michigan Proving Ground.

He was cited for his service to the Community Hospital near Almont and the Romeo Community Youth and Civic Center.

He is chairman of the hospital board and chairman of its building committee. He also serves as chairman of the Romeo Youth Center board.

June 20 vows are planned by Linda Jean Wolgast and Harold North, whose engagement is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wolgast, 4526 Casey, Dryden Township. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Elaine North of Flint.

Fire Protection, Arranged for City

Walled Lake Volunteer Unit Quits

WALLED LAKE — The Volunteer Firefighters Association quit last night.

Resignation of the group was accepted by the City Council on the assurance of Police-Fire Chief James A. Decker that the community would be protected regardless.

"We're in better shape now than we were," Decker said, following the climax of a four-month controversy over organization of the fire department.

The firemen tendered their resignation in protest to the way their department was reorganized last month.

The group numbered 11 following the suspension of two of its members in April.

EMERGENCY CREW

A series of telephone calls made by Decker prior to the council vote last night set the number of those who could be enlisted in event of an emergency at 14.

The revised roster included five volunteer firemen, five volunteer policemen and the city's four full-time police officers.

Meanwhile, City Manager Frank Derby verified continuance of a mutual aid pact with Commerce Township, Novi and Wixom.

Vote on accepting the resignation of the volunteer firemen was 5-1. Former Fire Chief Frank Hamilton, who won a council seat in the midst of the fire department hassle, cast the single dissenting vote.

The council authorized Derby to continue his work on establishing regulations for the fire department.

"I don't see any large problem if everyone would cooperate," Derby said. He noted the firemen had not shown up at a meeting called last night for discussion of the two suspensions with Decker and himself.

The firemen answered that the meeting had been tentative and never confirmed.

EFFECTIVENESS
"This situation has affected our interests and enthusiasm to the point where our effectiveness is questionable," Robert Dodd, president of the association, said.

"It has become quite a bit personalized and extremely difficult. If we're stumbling blocks, we'll be glad to get out of the way."

Motion to accept the resignation came immediately from Councilman Robert J. Buffmyer. "Is there some particular reason why we still have to capitulate to this group?" Buffmyer asked. "The interference of the council in the past has made the volunteers think they could come to the council rather than the manager whose job it is."

Buffmyer urged that Derby be given time to work out operating procedures.

"This whole action is premature," Mayor Wendell G. Kellogg Jr. said. "The implementation of the proposal has not even been given a chance to be developed yet. Frank (Derby) hasn't been given a chance."

Decker reported he had sus-ended Russell Curl and Richard Tremper as "agitators" and "troublemakers."

"The volunteers think they have the city in a bind. They don't," he said. "We're not hurting. I've got to have men I can depend on, not men who will work only when they want to work."

PROVIDE PAY
The council took action to provide pay for the men who will work. Each will receive $3 a call.

How they will get called is another question. The monitors used to summon volunteers are owned by the association.

"We're going to keep them," one commented just before the group walked out of the council meeting.

DR. H. D. ANDERSON

New Section Chief at Rochester Plant

Parke, Davis & Co. today announced the appointment of Dr. Harlan D. Anderson as superintendent of the Parkdale Biological Laboratories at Rochester.

William G. Meier, Parke-Davis vice president, production and engineering, said Dr. Anderson, formerly of the Michigan Department of Health, succeeds Dr. A. E. Hook, who returns to the research division to head up biological development.

Dr. Anderson has been with the State Department of Health for the past 22 years, serving eight years as chief of the blood derivatives program and the last 14 as chief of the biologics products section.

Born in Plankinton, S. D., in 1914, Dr. Anderson went to high school there and, in 1934, was graduated from Pasadena Junior College.

Three years later, he obtained his B.S. degree from South Dakota State College and in 1939 was granted a M.S. degree from the University of Wisconsin.

Two years later, he obtained his Ph.D. from the same school.

Between 1940 and 1942, Dr. Anderson served as associate agricultural chemist for South Dakota State College before joining the Michigan Department of Health in 1942.

Dr. and Mrs. Anderson and their three children will move to the Rochester area in the near future.

Dr. Hook joined Parke-Davis in 1947 and served as a research virologist in Detroit until 1954 when he was transferred to the poliomyelitis vaccine unit at Parkdale, where he also continued his developmental work in addition to production responsibilities.

WITH STATE

Dr. Hook was with the Michigan State Department of Health and Duke University prior to joining Parke-Davis.

He and Mrs. Hook and their four children reside on Merritt Lane in Birmingham.

MORE ON CIVIL RIGHTS — Sen. Everett Dirksen, Republican leader from Illinois, sits on a desk in the press gallery in the Capitol to discuss efforts at ironing out differences among supporters of the House-passed civil rights bill. Progress was reported after the meeting. Another is scheduled for tomorrow.

Senate to Start Voting on Rights Changes Today

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate starts voting late today on its first amendments to the civil rights bill.

The timing of the long-awaited vote became a critical matter for senators invited to accompany President Johnson on his second Appalachian inspection tour tomorrow and Friday.

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield, Mont., told a reporter: "I hope no senators, regardless of their position on this bill, will leave the floor. If the President has invited them I hope they do not accept."

This was the 49th day of debate on the House-passed bill to ban discrimination in voting, education, employment, unions, public accommodations and use of federal funds.

Most Senate leaders doubted that voting on jury trial amendments could be finished tonight. Democratic whip Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., estimated it might continue until Friday. GOP leader Everett M. Dirksen, Ill., suggested that if this happened, the final jury trial voting might not come until next week.

EIGHT SENATORS

The eight senators from the four states Johnson will visit on his anti-poverty tour were invited to join him. Only one, Sen. Herman E. Talmadge, D-Ga., who sponsored the original jury trial amendment, had made tentative plans to go, joining the President in Georgia tomorrow evening and returning Friday.

or hold membership in any Methodist church. Bishop John Owen Smith of Atlanta, Ga., said the key word is "eligible." He said that doesn't mean persons of any race must necessarily be admitted to any Methodist church.

Bishop James K. Mathews of Boston, said it is his feeling that Methodist churches are under a "compulsion of faith" to abide by the intent of the law and thus are obligated to throw open their doors to everyone. The church's general conference, holding its quadrennial meeting in Pittsburgh's Civic Arena, adopted the new law Tuesday night. Approval came on a show of hands and without debate.

LAW WORDING
The law reads: "The Methodist Church is a part of the church universal. Therefore, all persons, without regard to race, color, natural origin, or economic condition, shall be eligible to attend its worship services, to participate in its programs, and to be admitted into its membership anywhere in the connection."

Bishop Smith was asked to give his interpretation of it. He said: "All people are eligible. Eligible means they are free to go and should be admitted. I don't know if that makes it binding on them to be let in."

If a person would be kept out of a church, the bishop added, it would not be a matter of prejudice but a matter of custom, particularly in the South.

'BARRIER SET UP'
Bishop Smith went on to say, "Demonstrations and picketing kind of set up a barrier. It has made a great many people think they did not come to worship but came more as a test case."

intent of the new law is fulfilled. But the job of enforcement would fall to bishops if disputes arose, he said.

Speaking generally of the rule he said, "It is entirely in accordance with Christian faith and therefore it seems a compulsion of faith for churches to abide by it."

The law was drawn up by the Committee on Membership and Evangelism. It was placed in the church's discipline (law) in a chapter entitled "Church Membership."

Bishop Mathews said it appeared to him it is the responsibility of pastors to see that the British Paratroops Break Out of Trap in Arabia Desert Battle

THUMAIR, South Arabian Federation (AP)—British paratroopers broke out of a desert village Tuesday night after being pinned down for 12 hours by Bedouin rebels. Two Britons and at least six tribesmen were killed.

The British struck at nightfall and seized hills where Bedouins armed with rifles, machine guns and mortars had been sniping at them all day under the broiling 110-degree sun.

Ten other members of the 120-man British company were wounded in the fierce fighting with the tribesmen. The casualties were flown to the British Middle East base at Aden, 50 miles to the south.

The paratroopers are part of a British force trying to clear about 600 rebels from the road between Aden and Khala, 60 miles to the north. Britain has about 2,000 men battling dissident tribes in the South Arabian Federation of British-protected sheikhdoms stretching across the southern end of the Arabian Peninsula.

WEAPONS SUPPLY

The British have accused neighboring Yemen and the United Arab Republic of supplying weapons to the rebels. There were unconfirmed reports that Yemen was trying to infiltrate 300 soldiers to help the Bedouins. The British offensive began Monday night when 600 men of the 45th Royal Marine Commando marched five miles through rebel territory and occupied two key mountains. The paratroopers, trying to take the rebels from the rear, took up positions on another escarpment deeper in rebel territory.

Moving toward the mud-walled village at dawn, the paratroopers were met by heavy machine-gun fire. The British charged with fixed bayonets and took the village after bloody hand-to-hand fighting. The Bedouins fled into the hills and poured fire on the village until the British scattered them at sunset.

British jets supporting the surrounded paratroopers blasted rebel strongpoints with rockets and cannon.

"Fighting could go on for weeks," said Brig. Louis Hargroves, commanding operations in the region. "The rebels may decide to talk turkey, but if they don't this could become another Korea."

A British official at Thumair, staging area for the operation, said the rebels "are as tough as nails and know every inch of the country. They would kill their grandmother for 50 rounds of ammunition."

Restaurant in Nashville Ends Bias

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Another downtown eating place here has admitted Negroes in the face of more student demonstrations and as 132 ministers marched three miles in response to President Johnson's call for moral leadership by the clergy.

The Arcade Tio Tio, a frequent target of civil rights demonstrations because it had balked at a general citywide desegregation move started last year, served soft drinks to 10 Negro demonstrators yesterday.

An 11th demonstrator had to leave because she had no money for a purchase.

The sandwich shop became the second downtown restaurant in two days to drop racial bars. Yesterday marked the ninth straight day of civil rights demonstrations here.

VIOLENCE SCENE

The Tio Tio has been the scene of sporadic violence attendant to the demonstrations.

The Negro and white, Catholic, Jewish and Protestant clergymen ended their three-mile march at the steps of the courthouse, where they paused solemnly and held a prayer service.

Then they went upstairs to Mayor Beverly Briley's office.

Rabbi Randall M. Falk read a prepared statement to the mayor that asked for a public accommodations ordinance, immediate school integration, desegregation of all public recreational facilities and the city government.

MAYOR'S REPLY

The mayor told the ministers that their requests were either already a reality or were out of his hands.

Mothers Deserve Festive Food

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Maybe the family will take you out for Mothers Day dinner this year. On the other hand, perhaps you will be entertaining your mother at home.

Even if you don't use the following recipes this Sunday, they'll be good for any festive occasion.

A thick slice of ham is just right for a small party of six or fewer guests. It takes care of leftovers which are a bug-bear to many cooks. And it's delightfully different when baked with a crusty applesauce topping.

Roast Ham Slice
1 or 2 slices ready-to-eat ham, 1 inch thick
Whole cloves
2 cups (1 lb. can) applesauce
1/4 cup cinnamon candies
1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
3 cups bite size toasted corn cereal crushed to 1 1/2 cups
1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine

Heat oven to moderate (350 degrees). Slash fat edges of ham every inch. Stud with whole cloves. Place ham in single layer in shallow baking pan.

Combine applesauce, cinnamon candies, lemon juice and ground cloves. Heat and stir until candies melt. Pour over ham.

Toss cereal crumbs with butter. Sprinkle over applesauce mixture. Bake for 55 minutes or until crumbs are crisp and slightly browned. Yield: 4-6 servings.

Blue cheese dressing for salad continues to gain in popularity. If you have an electric blender, this one is a snap to make.

Pass it at your Sunday dinner to dress a salad of mixed tossed greens. Any left over will keep in the refrigerator.

Gourmet Blue Cheese Dressing
1/4 cup evaporated milk
1/4 cup salad oil
3 tablespoons cider vinegar
1 teaspoon onion salt
2 ounces crumbled blue cheese

Combine all ingredients in container of electric blender. Cover and blend for a few seconds until smooth and thickened. Chill, tightly covered. Serve over tossed greens. Makes approximately 1 1/2 cups salad dressing.

And for dessert, how about a light and airy Lemon Angel Pie? This one has an unexpected strawberry surprise inside.

Lemon Angel Pie
1 baked 9-inch pie shell
1 envelope (1 tablespoon) plain unflavored gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
1/4 cup bottled lemon juice
1/4 cup sugar
1 1/2 cups heavy cream, whipped

1 10-oz. package strawberry halves, thawed and well-drained

Soften gelatin in cold water. In a small saucepan combine bottled lemon juice and sugar; heat to boiling. Add softened gelatin; stir until dissolved.

Chill gelatin mixture over ice water, stirring occasionally until just syrupy; beat until foamy. Gradually fold gelatin mixture into whipped cream. Mixture should mound when dropped from a spoon; if necessary, chill over ice water.

Spoon over cream mixture into pie shell to cover bottom; arrange strawberry halves over filling, reserving a few halves for garnish. Spoon remaining filling into pie shell; chill in refrigerator about 3 hours or until firm.

Garnish with remaining strawberry halves. Makes one 9-inch pie.

Apple Butter Filling for Sensational Torte

Reminiscent of Vienna's elegant confections is this Apple Butter-Sour Cream Torte. For your convenient version, cut an 8-inch round angel food cake into 3 equal layers.

For the filling and topping, 1/2 cup each layer, prepare this heavenly mixture. Cook together until thickened, 1 cup sour cream, 1 cup apple butter, 2 beaten eggs. Cool, and add 1 teaspoon finely grated orange peel, 1/2 cup chopped walnuts. Just before parading this sensational dessert to the table, strewn shredded coconut over the top.

For a crunchy texture for a baked-stuffing, add some crushed shredded-wheat biscuits to a soft bread mixture.

Oyster Stew Becomes Sauce for Asparagus

Serve an elegant spring lunch-on dish, made so easily with frozen condensed oyster stew. In saucepan, thaw a 10-ounce can frozen condensed oyster stew over low heat; stir often. Gradually blend in 1/4 cup milk or water into 1 tablespoon flour to make a smooth paste. Pour into stew and stir constantly until thickened.

Add 1 cup shredded sharp Cheddar cheese; cook until cheese is melted. Fold in 2 hard-cooked eggs (sliced). Pour over 1 pound asparagus, cooked and well drained. Garnish with a dash of paprika.

If you freeze cheese before trying to grate it, it will not stick to the grater.

Sweet Sour Beans

You and dad going out for dinner? Fix this delicious dish for the children. In skillet, cook 1/4 cup diced Canadian bacon until lightly browned. Add 1 can (1 pound) pork and beans with tomato sauce, 1/4 cup drained pineapple chunks, and 1 tablespoon brown sugar. Heat; stir now and then. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

Corn Flake Crumbs Add Crunch to French Toast

Crispy French Toast With Strawberry Butter
3 cups corn flakes or
1/4 cup corn flake crumbs
1 pint strawberries, hulled and washed
1/4 cup sugar
3 eggs, slightly beaten
1/2 cup cream
1/2 teaspoon vanilla flavoring
6 slices white bread, cut in halves

If using corn flakes, crush into fine crumbs. Crush strawberries, cover with sugar; let stand about 30 minutes. Drain strawberries, reserving syrup.

Combine eggs, cream, vanilla and 1/2 cup of the strawberry syrup; mix well. Pat bread slices in egg mixture; let stand until thoroughly moistened, turning once. Coat both sides of bread generously with corn flake crumbs.

Brown bread slices in small amount of heated butter or margarine, in heavy fry pan. Add butter as needed to prevent sticking. Serve immediately, accompanied by Strawberry Butter and sausage links, if desired.

Yield: 6 servings, 1 slice each

Strawberry Butter
1/2 cup soft butter or margarine
2 tablespoons confectioner's sugar
Crushed strawberries and remaining strawberry syrup

Whip butter until light and fluffy. Add sugar gradually, beating thoroughly. Add strawberries and syrup gradually, beating thoroughly after each addition. Chill until ready to use.

*One 10-ounce package frozen strawberries, thawed, may be substituted for fresh strawberries; omit sugar.

For Fewer Calories

Try replacing crackers with fresh apple slices or fingers next time you serve an appetizer tray. They are a natural taste-combination with cheese and, being low in calories, will be welcomed by the dieter.

FEATHERED SERPENTS, WATERMELON, AND CANVAS WORTH $100 PER INCH!

Mexicans have surrounded themselves with vital modern art. The works of the Mexican masters and the flourishing newer schools fill their galleries, decorate the walls of their fine buildings, and bring high prices in the world market.

Little wonder, for this art inherits the best of two traditions.

From Western Europe, out of the Renaissance by way of the Spain that gave us Velasquez and Goya, it has a great heritage... one that survives in its original form in Mexico's churches.

And from the ancient frescoes and sculpture of the Maya, Toltec and Aztec comes a massive simplicity, and traditional themes like the god-king Quetzalcoatl, the "feathered serpent."

Rufino Tamayo, for instance—one of the great Mexican moderns—has based paintings now in many of the world's great museums, on simple variations of the watermelon theme.

Knowledge of our modern neighbor is important today. Send for the free 16-page booklet, "Know Mexico," Box 1900, New York 19.

Call Ring's for Sheet Music

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD—This is Hollywood Boulevard—

Looking for a copy of a song you loved years ago? Chances are you could find it at Ring's sheet music store on Cherokee Avenue just around the corner from the Boulevard.

For 20 years the shop has been operated by Stanley Ring, a man who is short of stature and long of memory. Necessarily so, in order to hunt up songs from among the 450,000 different titles he stocks.

"How many songs do I know? Goodness, I have no way to figure," he says. "But I can find most requests, once I get the title straight. Trouble is, people give me the wrong titles."

The narrow store seems Dickensian with its dim lights, water-stained walls and carton upon carton of old sheet music stacked in every corner. Ring, 64, fits the premises well; he is cheery-eyed, with cheeks that puff up when he smiles and spectacles that keep sliding down his long nose.

Born in San Francisco, he started his long career with songs as a singing newsboy in New York City. He debuted in an Elsie Janis show at 10 and spent years in vaudeville with comedy sketches. When vaudeville died, he turned to a sheet music store in Los Angeles and it did well until a fire consumed his total assets.

He wanted to open a shop in Hollywood, but his fire insurance agent had skipped. Although he had no knowledge of horses, Ring placed $2 bets on longshots with bookies all over downtown L.A. In 30 days he had made $400, enough to start the Hollywood store.

"This place has turned a profit from the day I opened on Nov. 15, 1943," said Ring. The reason appears to be that his collection of old sheet music is unique.

"Every singer, every conductor has come to my store," he remarked. "A man from the Metropolitan Opera used to come regularly, looking for old scores."

"Irving Berlin once wrote me that he was making a movie called 'Alexander's Ragtime Band' and he asked me to send him 40 songs he listed. I found 39 of 'em. Sigmund Romberg used to commission me to buy operetta scores from all over Europe."

Charge Bias in Hiring

Auto Firms, NAACP to Meet on Riff

DETROIT (AP)—Chrysler Corp. and Ford Motor Co. Tuesday expressed willingness to meet with the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) to discuss complaints of racial discrimination in personnel policies.

Herbert Hill, NAACP national labor secretary, sent telegrams Tuesday requesting the meetings to board chairman George Love of Chrysler; Henry Ford II of Ford and Frederic G. Donner of General Motors.

General Motors acknowledged receipt of the telegram, but declined further comment. Chrysler President Lynn Townsend sent a telegram to Hill in New York saying he has "asked Mr. William M. O'Brien, our vice president and director of personnel, to meet with you."

Townsend said the meeting could be held at any mutually convenient time.

NEW YORK MEETING
A Ford spokesman said Allen W. Merrell, vice president for civic and governmental affairs, would arrange a meeting with Hill, probably in New York. The spokesman added that the company had not formally replied to Hill's request.

NAACP pickets demonstrated against alleged discrimination outside GM national headquarters here Monday. The auto firm has repeatedly denied any discrimination in its hiring policies.

Hill termed the demonstration as "the beginning of the end of second class citizenship for Negroes at General Motors as well as the entire auto industry."

He said any move to picket Ford and Chrysler "depends on what comes out of these meetings."

There are 22 1/2 million teenagers in this country today.

Traffic, Revenue Down for Mackinac Bridge

ST. IGNACE (AP) — The Mackinac Bridge Authority reported Tuesday that traffic over the Straits of Mackinac bridge fell off 11 per cent in April compared with the same month a year ago. Revenues were down 10 per cent.

Freddie M. Brown, chairman of the authority, said, "The reduction was expected inasmuch as the traffic generated by the Easter holiday this year took place in March. Our overall four month gain this year is substantially ahead of last year."

Only One Quad Born in England Is Still Alive

LIVERPOOL, England (AP) — Quadruplets were born last night to Mrs. Tom McKee, 36-year-old wife of a Liverpool dockworker, but only one still lived today.

The three boys and a girl were two months premature. Each weighed only two pounds. Susan, David and Michael died during the night.

Their brother, Paul, was reported to be "fairly comfortable" today at the Oxford Street Maternity Hospital.

Lifelong Learning Available

Education Becoming Part of Adult Life

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed.D.
Universities now offer opportunities for education to a surprising variety of persons.
Fifty years ago the university was primarily a young person's school. Most freshmen entered directly from high school.
After World War I a few adults (in their DR. NASON early 20's) showed up on university campuses. They were so outnumbered by younger students they felt somewhat out of place.

The surge of returning GIs after World War II changed all this. Now, the adult feels at home on a college campus.
Lifelong learning, available to everyone, has become a major university endeavor. If you can't go to the campus, the university will come to you.
John Doe dropped out of high school lacking one year of graduation. At 22 he was working in a small town where no high school evening classes were available. He felt trapped. He needed more education but was blocked without the high school diploma.
Helo came from a least expected source, the top educational institution of the state.

John was able to earn the credits for high school graduation through university correspondence courses. He was now back in step and continued his education through regularly accredited college courses.
OPPORTUNITY HERE
This is a land of educational opportunities. Any person 20 or over, can get high school credits, undergraduate college credits or graduate credits through correspondence courses offered by more than 60 universities.
Small high schools often enrich the offerings to their more capable students through the university correspondence service. High school teachers sometimes supervise the students in their correspondence work.
Inquiries for such information should be directed to the National University Extension Association, Secretariat, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn. For 25 cents you can obtain a copy of the NUREA Guide to Correspondence Study which lists both academic and non-academic offerings of the universities in the U.S.

Universities provide for continued adult learning through extension classes at various locations throughout their respective states. They also invite adult groups to their campuses.
This has become such a major endeavor that groups of buildings designed especially as centers for continuing education have been built on many university campuses.
For example, the center at Michigan State University, built with the support of the W. K. Kellogg Foundation, host some 400 professional, trade and agricultural conferences each year. They are attended by more than 45,000 adults.

I am not going to show the East-West hands today because it is up to you to find the proper line of play at three no-trump against a seven of spades opening.
Of course, in the Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament North and South had to reach three no-trump with South as declarer as a preliminary to collecting their par. Then South had to play the hand correctly.
Actually there is very little to the play if you remember to use the code word "Arch."
You Analyze the lead as the fourth best of a suit headed by ace-queen-ten and you confirm this when East plays low and your nine spot wins the trick.
Your Review of the bidding just tells you that East hasn't much of anything and your Count of winners and losers shows that you will surely make your contract if you can just gather in four heart tricks.

How do you get those four heart tricks? You go after the suit. Is there any danger? Yes! If East gets the lead he can shoot a spade through you and it will cost you four spade tricks.
East is not likely to hold the queen of hearts, but he may. Therefore, you play him for that card. You enter dummy with a club and lead the jack of hearts.
If East holds the queen, you will make all the heart tricks. If West holds the queen, your contract will not be in any jeopardy.

BERRY'S WORLD

BOARDING HOUSE

Kennedy Free World Trade Plan Gets Boost in Geneva

GENEVA (AP) — The drive that President John F. Kennedy started to free world trade got a green light today from the chief negotiators at the 75-nation Kennedy Round talks.

The world's trading giants—the United States, Britain and the European Common Market—agreed to negotiate on the basis of a 50 per cent in-the-board reduction in tariffs. But that is only a goal, and the final cuts won't average that much.

When negotiations are concluded in 1965 or 1966, the result should be more business for all and a brake on rising prices. This is the purpose of the Kennedy Round of trade negotiations, which the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade—

GATT—opened in Geneva this week.

Even some Communist countries will go along in this attempt to improve trade. Czechoslovakia already is a member of GATT. Poland is working hard for greater participation.

BASIS FOR WORK

American officials were pleased to pin down the 50 per cent figure, even as only a basis for work. President Charles de Gaulle's government, fearful of tougher foreign competition for France's growing industry, had opposed setting this reduction, the maximum allowed by American law, as the official aim of the talks.

The U.S. tariffs, though twice cut in half over the last 30 years, still are in many cases much higher than the tariffs of other countries.

A rule is to be worked out that will cut these higher American tariffs by the full 50 per cent and reduce the corresponding European tariffs by a lower margin, perhaps 25 per cent.

Each country involved also will submit lists of exceptions for items which must be dealt with separately. A deadline of Sept. 10 was set for these lists.

TOUGH BARGAINING

That is when the tough bargaining will start. There will be even greater delays in dealing with the matters that make the Kennedy Round the greatest exercise of its kind held since GATT began tariff cutting negotiations in 1948.

For the first time farm products as well as manufactured goods are to be included. Grains are the first order of business, but little can be done now because West Germany is holding out an agreement on a unified grain price for all six members of the Common Market.

This delay may last until after the West German elections in the fall of 1965.

Most nations want to see a change in the American rule that takes local sales prices into consideration when setting the value of imported goods, thus raising the amount of duty to be paid.

U.S. POLICY

Before this can be taken up, a dispute must be settled with the U.S. government on whether this requirement can be changed by the administration or whether a new law must be sought from Congress.

The New York Times reported today that the Soviet Union, which has repeatedly denounced the Common Market, has put out tentative feelers about establishing relations with the West European economic bloc.

A Times dispatch from Geneva said Western diplomats are speculating that the Russians soon will accredit a mission to the Brussels headquarters of the Common Market.

"The Russian interest appears to be an application of the maxim: if you can't lick them, join them," the Times said.

Diaper service firms in the United States do a business amounting to $50 million annually, the National Institute of Diaper Services Inc. reports.

Indict 39 for Roles in Suburb Sex Ring

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP) — Housewives, bartenders and restaurateurs are among 39 persons indicted on charges of being part of a Long Island call ring that recruited suburban wives and mothers as prostitutes.

Also indicted Tuesday by a Nassau County grand jury were a former county policeman and the reputed madam of the $200,000-a-year ring, Concetta McAlister, 35, divorced mother of three, of Hicksville.

She also was accused of grand larceny for allegedly taking $6,253 in welfare payments while earning nearly $30,000 from prostitution.

The sex-in-suburbia scandal broke last February with the arrest of 13 women. Dist. Atty. William Cahn called them "typical housewives who live in split-level houses in suburbia."

Cahn said other "housewife-prostitutes" were granted immunity from prosecution in return for testimony. The grand jury heard 400 witnesses.

The 181-count indictments also charged 10 corporations, including Val Anthony's restaurant in Roslyn Heights, the Tivoli Motel and the adjacent Accent Lounge on the Jericho Turnpike and the Raceway Motel and the Gam Wah Chinese restaurant in Westbury. All are near Roosevelt Raceway, Westbury.

John Beck, 39, of Wantagh who resigned from the Nassau County Police Force when the first arrests were made, was charged with aiding prostitutes to solicit business. He also was charged with neglect of police duty.

Also indicted was Mrs. McAllister's brother, Frank Pizzo, of East Meadow, N.Y., on two counts of aiding prostitution and one count of statutory rape.

Can't Please Everyone

Old Woes Plague New Brazil Regime

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

The new Brazilian government, in power just a month after the military overthrow of President Joao Goulart, is learning an important fact of life, which is that you can't please everyone.

The revolt against Goulart came on March 31, and on April 2 President Johnson sent his "warmest good wishes" to interim President Ranieri Mazzilli who held office until former Marshal of the Army and Chief of Staff Humberto de Alencar Castelo Branco took over the job on April 15.

The United States regarded it as an effective blow against communism in Latin America and the weaknesses which seemed to be leading Brazil into a leftist dictatorship.

From the Brazilian people also came wide acclaim.

Both inside and outside of Brazil there were hopes that a regime indebted to no political grouping and with no political ambitions at last could cope with Brazil's chronic social and economic ills.

HARD TO REVERSE

But the social ills were deeply imbedded and printing press money such a part of Brazil's inflationary way of life that from the beginning it was apparent that both would be hard to reverse.

The military-backed regime had other problems. What of the future of Brazil's relationship with Communist Cuba?

How far to carry out a right-wing political revolt against the left? How many to imprison? Whom to release after the first hectic days of mass arrests?

DISSATISFACTION

New public dissatisfaction with the regime is a reflection of its difficulties and hesitations in dealing with all of these.

Within the last year, the cost of living in Brazil has jumped 100 per cent and it was admitted the trend could not be stopped immediately.

The new regime, accordingly, jumped armed forces pay 100 per cent, setting the stage for later raises for employees on other government payrolls.

CUT SUBSIDIES

In the one, the government sought to cut back government spending by the elimination of subsidies costing $200 million a year. They are being used to provide cheap bread and gasoline, and to hold down the cost of newsprint.

The program also calls for tax increases.

In the agrarian field, landowners condemned the reform program as one which only could have been expected of the deposed Goulart regime.

Two fields of thought emerged over future relations with Castro Cuba.

QUICK OR SLOW?

One held that a break should come immediately. Another held out for slower action to avoid the charge of right-wing fascism.

The popular support which greeted the new regime proved the fallacy of Goulart's faith that he would receive the backing of military elements, the labor unions and the peasants.

Thousands of his followers now either are under arrest or in hiding. But among the military there is strong support for even more repressive measures.

In the Congress, the new regime has no effective opposition and can pass whatever legislation it wishes. It also has strong U.S. support.

Now it needs wisdom and strength of purpose.

Errors by Southfield Aid PNH

Pontiac Northern took advantage of a leaky Southfield infield yesterday to post an 11-6 decision in an Inter-Lakes League baseball contest.

The win was the sixth in a row for the Huskies and left them atop the I-L heap with a 5-0 mark.

In other I-L games, Waterford blanked Berkley, 5-0, and PNH sent 11 batters to the plate in the second, collecting four hits while the Blue Jays were assisting with three errors.

BIG INNING

Ron Turner and Bruce Mann knocked in two runs each in the big inning.

Jim Broome clouted a three-run home run in the second to back a sharp pitching performance by Don Rickert. Rickert gave up three hits and fanned 14.

Gary Grant checked Berkley on two hits and supplied the bailing punch as Waterford evened its loop record at 3-2. Grant collected two singles and drove in two runs.

Walled Lake ran its record to 4-1 with a 3-1 triumph over Farmington.

Northern scored eight runs in the second inning in trimming the Blue Jays, and coach Arnie Wilson, perturbed by the lack of hustle by the starting unit, pushed the reserves into action in the third.

In other I-L games, Waterford blanked Berkley, 5-0, and PNH sent 11 batters to the plate in the second, collecting four hits while the Blue Jays were assisting with three errors.

Pole Vault Mark Set in City Track

Les Hanspard is a big man in more ways than just size. The 63, 100-pound Pontiac Central senior set a school record of 13-7 1/2 in the pole vault yesterday as the Chiefs routed Pontiac Northern, 70-39 at Visner Fields.

It was PCH's fourth win over the Huskies in as many city track meets.

"What makes Hanspard's feat so unusual," said PCH coach Dean Wilson, "is that he also won the shot put."

"I've never seen a pole vaulter who successfully doubled in the shot. But Les has been doing it all spring."

Hanspard's record effort came on the first try. He missed three times at 14 feet. The old record was 13-6 1/2 set last year by John Stewart.

TOPS IN STATE

Hanspard now owns the best height reported this spring in the state.

In the shot put, the big senior pushed the 12-pound ball 50-4.

Otis Newkirk of the Chiefs won the 220 yd. and the 100 yd. He also anchored the 880 relay team that won in 1:33.

John Harris of Northern turned in a top effort in the broad jump.

The senior ace of the PNH team cleared 22-1 1/2 of ground to take one of Northern's firsts.

Bob Wilson of Northern repeated his 1963 city rivalry victory in the 880 with a clocking of 2:05. John Samulow took the 440 for PNH and the mile relay team triumphed.

The ladies are having their day on the par-3 links at Waterford Hill Country Club.

The ladies have organized a beginner golfer's league — with two flights — and they will kick off the season Thursday.

Two tee-off times are slated—10 a.m. and 1 p.m. George Ferguson, professional at Waterford, will conduct a clinic an hour before each flight starts.

Further information may be obtained by calling Thelma Bauer, 682-3609.

Lucas Leads NBA Stars

WARSAW (UPI) — Forward Jerry Lucas of the Cincinnati Royals scored 40 points Tuesday to lead a touring team of National Basketball Association All-Stars to a 94-58 rout of a Polish academic team. Lucas scored 18 points in the first half and 22 in the second half for his total.

A Triple Assignment

DENVER (UPI) — Regis College has announced the appointment of Arthur E. Mick Pahl to the triple role of athletic director, head basketball coach and director of physical education.

Kettering Posts Triumph; Waterford Is Defeated

Kettering ran away from two opponents in a triangular track meet yesterday, but Waterford High wasn't as fortunate in a dual meet with Cranbrook.

The Captains piled up 86 points to 46 for Oxford and 5 for Lapeer in a Tri-County meet. Cranbrook won its first meet of the season by whipping Waterford, 67 1/2-41.

Romeo took the six-team Marysville Invitational with 62 points as the host school came in second with 55 1/2.

Jim Haviland cleared 13-feet in the pole vault for Kettering. Lee Stewart won the 100 and 220 for Romeo. The Bulldogs' mile relay team set a meet record of 3:44.7. John Chapman in the 880 hurdles, Larry Boyck in the 880, George Tanner in the Broad jump and the 880 relay team also won.

Brother Rice whipped Delta-Salle 65-44 to hold first place in the Catholic League's first division with a 5-0 record.

Bill Moore won the high jump and broad jump. Art Jastrzdzski took both hurdles and Paul Gerald Henry was a double winner for the Chiefs. He took the low hurdles in 20.7 and high jumped 6-2 1/4. Don LaVallais won the high hurdles in 15.7 for Central.

Central had too much depth for the Huskies. The Chiefs dominated the second and third places. Actually, Northern did better than expected with its five firsts.

Al Keel, Central's top hurdler and a good high jumper, missed the most with a zero first.

He is expected to be in action before the week is over.

Baron Runs 4:16.7 Mile

Bloomfield Hills Ace Not Pushed

What's going to happen when Bloomfield Hills' miler Bob Richards is pushed hard in a track meet?

The result probably will make many Big Ten and AAU distance men envious.

The senior ace didn't have any competition yesterday, but he managed to burn up the cinders in 4:16.7. This is the best time posted in the state.

The victory helped the Barons to an 86-23 win over Northville.

Redford's Art Link had the best previous time this spring, a 4:16.8. If Richards and Link ever meet, and it's quite likely they will in the state Class A competition, there's no telling how low the state standard for the mile will go.

Richards' closest competitor against Northville was teammate Jim Townsend who finished second in 4:47.

DISTINGUISHED RIFLEMAN — John E. Meiers, 17, of 20 E. Hamlin, Rochester, stands before the trophies he has won as a top marksman with a 22 rifle. He is the Michigan State Junior Champion and State Gallery Champion. The rifle is an Anschütz super target 22.

Shooter Takes Aim at Olympic Berth

If anyone thinks John E. Meiers, 17, is aiming too high when he talks about the 1964 U.S. Olympic team they had better take a look at the sights he is using before passing judgment.

All the Rochester High School senior needs — on the right day at the correct time — are steady arms and a sharp eye.

His Anschütz super target 22 rifle will provide the passage to Tokyo late in September. However, there are several other top competitive shooters in the country with the same idea.

They will join John at Murrysville, Pa., May 16, for the preliminary Olympic tryouts. Those who finish at or near the top will advance to final tryouts later in the summer.

Toting an 18-pound target rifle to the firing line and lugging around an armful of trophies has been a continuing experience for John since he started shooting in competition three years ago.

He has piled up the highest honors this spring.

The streak started March 1, in Columbus, Ohio, where he won the Ohio Gallery rifle championship. He followed this with the Michigan gallery crown at the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club early in April.

STATE CHAMP
Young Meier captured the Michigan State Junior championship at Ann Arbor in April. But his greatest thrill came when he edged Tao-Yuen Wu, a senior Master from Ann Arbor, 780-778, in a Toledo course tournament.

He was the overall champion in this shoot.

"John often said that he wanted to beat Tao-Yuan more than anything else," said his mother, Mrs. Floyd Meier, 20 E. Hamlin, Rochester.

Mrs. Meier is mainly responsible for John getting interested in rifle shooting.

"I've always been interested, but only with a 22 rifle, and never in competition," she pointed out. "When John was small I used to shoot out in the backyard of the farm."

"He always wanted to shoot, but it was several years before I let him."

John's parents enrolled him in a shooting class at the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club four years ago. His interest quickly grew to shooting in competition.

He started shooting a Remington-Trimmaster 40x. On his last birthday he received the converted Anschütz, an Austrian-made free-rifle designed specifically for competition.

His scores increased almost immediately. He was Western Mark III Super Match 22 rifle ammunition.

John has an indoor range set up in his own home for practice and also shoots at the Detroit Edison and Roseville ranges. For outdoor practice, he shoots in a gravel pit at the Ford Photographic Farm where he has lived all his life.

John now carries the National Rifle Association classification of Master, highest possible rating that can be attained for a shooter his age.

He shoots in the South-Eastern Michigan League at Plymouth and holds first place among the 100 rifle men.

Redskins, Lakers Post Golf Wins

Milford ran its golf record to 7-3 yesterday with a 154-158 decision over Northville on the Highland Hills course.

John Choate paced the Milford squad, firing a one-under-par 35 that tied the school record.

In a second match, West Bloomfield downed Holly, 169-173, at Pontiac Country Club.

The Lakers' Gary West and Holly's Bill Taylor shared medalist honors with 41s.

Elk Hunting Measure Approved by Legislature

First Season Is Scheduled for This Fall

Deer Opener in U.P. Clarified; Governor Must Sign Bill

LANSING (AP)—The legislature Tuesday cleared up the last of its disputes over legislation enabling Michigan's first elk hunting season and sent the approved bill to Gov. George W. Romney.

Rep. Hans Rasmussen, R-Ladlington, who helped hammer out the House-Senate compromise, said Michigan now will become the only place east of the Mississippi where elk can be taken by hunters.

Gov. Romney is expected to sign the measure without delay.

The legislation empowers the Conservation Commission to set elk seasons this fall and in the fall of 1965, and to issue special $25 licenses for elk hunters.

OTHER LAWS

Aside from a dispute over the license price, the main points of contention were on other game law considerations injected into the bill.

The House had proposed to write into the law stipulations on "declaring" "any-deer" seasons. These were dropped in the compromise negotiations. The Conservation Department will retain authority to decide whether there will be a doe season in the Upper Peninsula.

The Senate also agreed to a House amendment calling for the deer season west of M-77 in the Upper Peninsula to begin on the Saturday nearest Nov. 15 instead of the Saturday preceding that date, as in existing law.

The Conservation Department may set the elk season in areas where elk have become a nuisance to farmers or where they threaten to wipe out the food supply of other animals.

Land Buying Proposals Top Agenda List

Land purchase proposals with a bearing on outdoor recreation will come before the Conservation Commission during its meeting Thursday and Friday in the Four Flags Hotel at Niles.

High on the Conservation Department's list of land matters is a recommendation to buy 93 acres with 1,400 feet of Lake Michigan frontage at the new P. J. Hoffmaster state park in Muskegon county.

If acquired, this tract would complete the department's roundup of shoreline ownership at the park. It would also provide lands needed for development and public use in the central sector of the park.

Also figuring in the parks improvement plans are 11 acres in the Cunningham Lake section of Brighton recreation area, Livingston county.

BOH Spring Show Success

By JERE CRAIG

Blessed by fine weather after last week's rainy spell, the Professional Horseman's Association Spring Show Saturday and Sunday at Bloomfield Open Hunt was a big success.

The large turnout of riders and mounts created some outstanding competition, as attested by Judge Alex Forman of Mendham, N.J.

"I've never judged better junior classes anywhere in the country," Forman commented Sunday.

Several notable results came from the show concerning local riders.

Talented Alison Cram of Birmingham qualified for the National Horse Show next fall at New York City's Madison Square Garden in two events on her mount Sonno.

She won the A.S.P.C.A. Horsemanship and the American Horse Show Association Hunter Seat Medal classes. She is a perennial qualifier for the National Horse Show.

THIRD STRAIGHT

Youthful Blyth Davis of Bloomfield Hills won her third straight blue ribbon this season in the 13-year-olds-and-under equitation on the flat competition.

She came along strong with her riding late last summer and appears destined for much success this summer. Some of her strongest competition will probably come from Pam Evans, another Birmingham rider.

Miss Evans won the age group's equitation over fences event. Another Birmingham rider off to a good beginning is Dick Schuster who won two events.

Michigan's Trout Waters Taken Over by Browns

LANSING (AP)—All right, Mr. Erudite Fisherman, just why are brown trout more plentiful in Michigan streams than the brook and rainbow varieties?

Simple. Brown trout have muscled their way into the majority, with an assist from nature and a killer.

Understanding how this has happened might shed a glimmer on the future of your fishing. To guide us, we have the knowledge of Fred A. Westerman, for 34 years the head of the Michigan Conservation Department's Fish Division.

Westerman, 74, who retired in 1959, points out that the trout are really Johnny-come-latelys when held up against preceding generations.

Michigan's three choicest trout streams, the Manistee, Au Sable and Muskegon Rivers, were choiced full of grayling for countless years.

Along about 1885, however, the number of grayling had diminished alarmingly and Michigan's conservationists began planting brook trout in the streams.

HEY-DAY NUMBERED
Rainbow and brown trout planting soon followed. Already the brook trout's hey-day was numbered.

"The success of brook trout fishing... in Lower Michigan speaks volumes for the value of fish planting in those days and the fact that environmental conditions were so favorable for them," Westerman said.

"Contributing greatly to the explosive manner in which brook trout spread themselves over these streams were the untold number of small, spring-fed tributaries in which brook trout spawned in gravel beds."

The brook trout reached their peak around 1900, Westerman said, following the time "when the pine forests dominated the lumbering scene in Michigan."

The forests were important, indeed, to the trout streams. Westerman said that in bygone generations, great expanses of timber held in check the run-off of surface water from tiny streams which helped swell the fishing waters. When the land was cleared, Westerman said, "the monster erosion, the monster erosion, was unleashed."

The forests had stabilized stream flows, water temperatures and clarity, and a minimized run-off and erosion.

The brown trout's muscling in? Westerman said many brook trout spawning areas are "now monopolized by brown trout that are larger, more aggressive and spawn during the same season in the fall as brook trout."

Harris Named Staff Director

LANSING (AP)—Conservation Director Ralph MacMullan today named Charles Harris, 47, as deputy director for staff operations.

MacMullan took over formally today as conservation director to succeed Gerald Eddy, who now heads the Geological Survey Division.

Harris has been regional manager for the southern half of the Lower Peninsula since February. He formerly was chief of field operations for the Parks and Recreation Division.

A native of Waterford, Harris is a graduate of Michigan State University. He joined the department in 1946.

Harris was selected from a civil service roster established by examination.

Planning Commission

Public to Air 6 Zone Requests

Six public hearings on zoning requests are slated for tonight's City Planning Commission meeting at 8 p.m. in City Hall.

In addition, planning commissioners will be asked to give several zoning ordinances and recommend a name for the new recreation center at Wessen and Walnut.

Topping the list of hearings will be one on a request for a Residential-3 zoning at 624 Orchard Lake Ave., from Kampen Realty Co.

The R-3 zoning is being requested so that a 20-family apartment building can be built on the site.

A developer has proposed to construct the two-story building, housing one and two-bedroom apartments contingent on the rezoning.

SITE LOCATION

The site lies on the northside of Orchard Lake between East Ironquills and Ottawa.

Hearings are also slated on requests for:

• A personal service district for property on the northside of Warden between Henderson and Prall.

• A residential zoning for commercial property between 228 and 248 W. Columbia, so that three houses can be built on the site.

• A commercial zoning for property on the northeast side of Oakland between Gordon and Blaine, for a used car lot.

• A commercial zoning for property on the northeast corner of Walton and Gliding for a proposed automotive sales and repair service.

• A commercial zoning for five lots on the east side of Oakland between Lounsbury and Northview so a seat cover retail outlet can be built on the site.

OTHER PROPOSALS

Ordinances calling for the rezoning of 15 acres south of Bethune School for a proposed 175-unit town-house-type development and for a proposed retail building site at 456 Mount Clemens are also up for approval.

Successful Investing

place the proceeds in equal dollar amounts of Liberty-Owens-Ford Glass, yielding 4.7 per cent and Continental Can, offering a 4.8 per cent return. I would switch Union Oil to General Motors.

These changes would add over $300 annually to your income.

Q: "I am interested in equal dollar amounts of series E bonds for series H to get current income. The bonds I hold matured some years ago. What about the interest they have accrued? Also, can I cash these H bonds whenever I need funds?"

A: You are wise to stay with savings bonds. They are the safest and most stable of all investments.

As soon as you make an exchange application, your E bonds are evaluated as to total principal and interest accrued to date. This amount is rounded off into minimum units of $500 — the lowest H bond denomination.

Income tax liability on accrued interest on all E bonds exchanged may be deferred until maturity or redemption of H bonds. These yield 2 1/2 per cent in the first 18 months and 4 per cent thereafter to maturity.

H bonds are redeemable at par after 6 months of holding and upon one month's written notice.

Teen Knifer Gets Probation
Four years probation was ordered yesterday for Carl V. Grandison, 19, for the fatal stabbing of another teen-ager inside the Pontiac Army last September.

The sentence was handed down by Oakland County Circuit Court Judge Arthur E. Moore.
The youth had pleaded guilty to felonious assault. An original charge of second-degree murder had been reduced to manslaughter in Pontiac Municipal Court before the appearance in Circuit Court.

Grandison, of 408 Osburn, was accused in the death of Aubrey Clayton, 16, of 510 Dittmar early last Sept. 1 following a dance at the Armory. Evidence showed Grandison had been struck three times by Clayton before the knifing.

In allowing Grandison to plead guilty to the lesser charge, the Oakland County Prosecutor's office held this was the best way to dispose of the case since the youth claimed self-defense.

Grandison has no previous criminal record.
Man Robbed of $60 as He Asks Directions
Arthur L. McEvers, 60, of 4005 Clintonville reported to Pontiac Police last night that he was robbed of $60 by a man he stopped to ask directions.

McEvers said the man got into his car on Franklin Road to show him the way to Saginaw Street when the bandit took a flashlight out of the glove compartment and threatened him with it.

Broomfield Proposes Defense Dollar Hike
WASHINGTON — Going counter to administration requests, Oakland County Republican Congressman William S. Broomfield yesterday urged a sharp increase in foreign defense appropriations.

Broomfield, a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, denied a partisan tie in his plans to offer an amendment to increase the flat $1 billion defense request by $250 million.

"I don't want to tie their hands on anything necessary to win the war in Viet Nam," said Broomfield of the appropriation sought to meet up defenses of friendly countries during the coming year.

His statement brought immediate replies from several Democrats on the committee who said they would oppose the amendment as a matter of support for the administration.

UNENITHASTIC
Democrats on the committee greeted Broomfield's suggestion with less than enthusiasm.

Chairman Thomas E. Morgan, D-Pa., told him McNamara had come to see both Republican and Democrat senior committee members and told them the $1 billion request was adequate.

LOCAL MICHIGAN BOOSTERS — Mayor William Taylor (center) is welcomed to the recent Pontiac Inter-Serve Club Luncheon at Pontiac Elks Temple to plan local observance of Michigan Week May 17-23. At left is Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce Manager Max Adams, local chairman of Michigan Week. Shaking the mayor's hand is Clyde Haskill, president of Pontiac Kiwanis Club, host club for the luncheon attended by members of four area Kiwanis clubs, Pontiac Rotary, Zonta, Business and Professional Women, and two area Lions clubs.

NAACP Hits Expansion of Housing Unit

The Oakland County Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People went on record last night as officially opposing the expansion of Lakeside Homes, Pontiac's lone public housing project.

In so doing, the NAACP reaffirmed the same request made by other Pontiac Negro groups several weeks ago.

They asked that an amendment to the 1955 ordinance prohibiting further public housing here be rescinded.

The amendment allows for expansion of the Lakeside project, but has no effect on the public housing ban elsewhere in Pontiac.

The amendment was adopted about a month ago at the request of the Pontiac Housing Commission.

Commissioners said they would consider the formal NAACP request and take action at a future meeting.

Junior High Students
Stage 5-Day Carnival
Students in Klara Hanson's ninth grade social studies class at Crary Junior High School, Waterford Township, are conducting a five-day carnival at the Tel-Huron shopping center to raise funds for a trip to Washington, D.C.

The carnival, which begins today, will feature rides and concessions. Hours are 3:30 to 9:30 p.m. today through Friday, and 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Broomfield countered yesterday that McNamara's statement was an effort to "switch the responsibility to Congress in case something goes wrong in Viet Nam."

"But we have 16,000 boys there, and we're not going to shortchange them," he stated. The responsibility is with the executive branch and what we're going to do there, and I don't want to tie their hands."

He said it is "up to the Democrats to give the necessary support" to get this amendment through.

Two Killed in County Accidents

David W. Miracle, 2, was killed when he ran out into the street in front of his home at 21737 Wheeler, Farmington Township.

August Maki, 67, of 1892 Creyts, Wixom, died when the car in which he was a passenger hit a tree beside Loon Lake Road last night.

Farmington Township police said David was struck yesterday afternoon by a car driven by Leonard Cox, 18, of 2714 Wheeler. The youth, police said, had given David's father Douglas Sr. and brother Douglas Jr. a ride home from work.

Cox was backing down the street to turn around in a driveway when the boy ran behind his car. Police reported David was dead on arrival at Redford Community Hospital. No charges were filed in connection with the accident.

Maki was a passenger in a car driven by Henry Janskelains, 75, of 1899 Creyts, according to Wixom police.

They said Janskelaine lost control of the vehicle east of Wixom Road and it swerved off the road, striking a tree.

Maki was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. G. Wellington Gibson, Oakland County deputy coroner.

Latin Strike
Losing ForceOnly Minor Disorders in Dominican Capital

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—A five-day-old strike by the country's 4,000 taxi drivers appeared losing some force and sympathy today.

With about 2,000 troops patrolling the streets, the only disorders Tuesday were minor stone throwing and burning of tires. Two persons were killed and dozens injured in weekend violence and about 700 persons were under arrest.

Santo Domingo depends on taxis for public transport, and there was growing concern that a continuation of the paralyzing walkout and disturbances might spawn an attempt to overthrow the country's ruling civilian junta.

The Dominican Republic's two largest labor organizations appealed to the taxi drivers, and 4,000 dockworkers who struck in sympathy, to go back to work.

The civilian junta kept Santo Domingo's docks functioning by bringing in hundreds of longshoremen from nearby ports. The taxi drivers struck to protest recent jury decrees banning public meetings without official authorization, increasing duties on cars and other exports and authorizing police to seize drivers' licenses for traffic violations.

Happy Days Here Again—
Sidewalks of NY Jammed

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — "Happy Days Are Here Again" — on Broadway... in Manhattan.

And they are... those shuffling shoulder-to-shoulder midnight crowds in Times Square... the sailors... World's Fair visitors... even Lyndon B. Johnson's bubble-top limousine attracts gapers... Sammy Davis' Copacabana opening was so jammed that Peter Lawford can't get a seat... and a little young man Danny Stradella signs a tab for about $2,000 to take 40 people to see Sammy, attesting that there must be prosperity in the land.

When "the Burtons" — Liz and Richard — arrived at the Copacabana to sit with Sammy's mother-in-law, everybody snapped up to look at them... whereupon Comedian Bob Melvin shouted to the restless audience: "Oh, so now you changed your mind about me? Now you're giving me a standing ovation."

But first about Big Spender Danny Stradella — operator of Danny's Hideaway for 18 years — a lower East Side boy, a junior-sized John Garfield, noted for his largesse toward celebrities.

He'd invited the Robert Horvath, the Dennis O'Keefe, Allen and Rossi, the Hal Marches, Lou Lanning, the Bob Adams, the Steve Lawrence... for parties both downstairs and up... and so people are asking about little Danny.

Well, he was once married to a lion tamer... so now probably an actor looks good.

He appeared fleetingly in a Hollywood western, speaking one line for which he got $550, though the trip, including entrance and $100-a-day bungalow, cost him $5,000.

His one line, "That's no way to treat a girl," had to be changed to "treat a lady," because he pronounced it "goil," and hardly any cowboys say it that way.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL... A chuckhead was heckling Hypnotist Pat Collins at the Basin St., "I dare you to put me under." Replied Pat: "I would but I don't have a shovel."... Women screamed, but really screamed, seeing TV star Doug McClure at Town and Country applauding Allen and Rossi... While waiting for the beverage license at their sidewalk cafe Opera Espresso across from Lincoln Center, Nora Hayden and husband John Harrison are serving free imported wine with meals, quelle gimmick!

WISH IT SAID THAT: Next to the World's Fair, the most exciting things that will be going on this summer will be Bikinis. REMEMBERED QUOTE: "It's a shame that when success turns a person's head, it doesn't also wring his neck just a little."

EARL'S PEARLS: Anybody who thinks the husband is the head of the average household doesn't know much anatomy. How is it possible for a woman to know what's in every corner of that closet at home, but not know what's in her handbag? That's earl, brother.

Pontiac City Affairs

Award Contract for Sewer Work

The City Commission last night awarded one contract for Murphy Park sewer construction, but rejected all bids on a second part of the dual-contract project.

The "Division A" contract went to the James R. Downing Construction Co. of Detroit. City officials will ask for new bids on the project's "Division B" contract.

Downing had originally submitted a bid of $206,896 for the "A" contract. It was second lowest according to the preliminary tabulation when bids were opened April 14.

Northwood Engineering, Inc., had been low bidder at that time, offering to do the job for $199,801.

However, according to City Engineer Joseph E. Neippling, the Detroit firm found it had made a $15,000 error in adding its cost estimates.

CORRECTED TOTAL

The corrected Downing bid was $192,128, about $6,000 less than the Northwood bid and some $65,000 under the original engineer's estimate of $257,855.

The contract covers large pipe work to be installed in connection with the big relief sewer which runs from St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital to the new sewage treatment plant.

It will relieve overloaded sanitary sewers in the southeast section of Pontiac and permit future expansion of GMC Truck & Coach Division in addition to opening some undeveloped areas to commercial, industrial and residential development.

A new addition to the hospital, now under way, cannot be utilized until the sewer is completed. Downing will require a maximum of 180 days to do the job.

SMALLER PIPEWORK

The "Division B" contract covers smaller pipe work. Neippling recommended that bids on the second contract be rejected and that the city advertise for new bids.

His original estimate for the "B" contract had been $309,309. Neippling made his recommendation because there was an "abnormally large difference" between the low bid (Northwood at $177,600) and the second lowest bid (Chris Nelson & Son, Inc., at $387,000).

"There were five bids for the contract," he said. "Four of them topped our estimate by better than $150,000."

He said the bids indicated that "possibly we underestimated the 'B' contract, and we'd like to revise it to include alternate routes and construction methods in the hope we will receive more favorable bids."

WORK TO START

The engineer noted that work under the "A" contract would begin soon. Work to be done under the "B" contract will not have any effect on construction being done by Downing.

In other matters, a low bid of $40,241.87 from Anderson & Ruzzin Construction Co., of New Baltimore, was accepted for an urban renewal site improvement contract.

The contract covers installation of water mains and sewers in Cass, Saginaw and the Auburn-Orchard Lake crossover inside the Perimeter Road.

It is expected to be formally awarded next week. The New Baltimore firm was lowest of five bidders. They presently hold the contract for construction of the last leg of the Perimeter Road and the Auburn-Orchard Lake crossover.

THREE BIDS

Commissioners also received a tabulation of three bids for a city-owned hotel, Lot 1, in the city's "Petitot Junction," near Columbia and Joslyn.

The highest offer was from Max A. Maxin in the amount of $8,330. Commissioners deferred final action one week.

Commissioners accepted a recommendation from the planning commission that Geer Associates Planning Consultants, Inc., of Bloomfield Hills, be hired to coordinate work under the city's "701" planning program.

The program gets its name from the federal government's 701 planning grant program. The Pontiac program is largely financed by a "701" grant.

DEVELOPMENT PLAN

Geer will be working on detailed plans to supplement the Pontiac General Development Plan adopted several years ago.

He will be paid a maximum of $12,000. Geer did preliminary plans for a $20 urban renewal project and coordinated the Central Business District Plan.

A three-party agreement between the state, city and Grand Trunk Western Railroad was also approved. It involves work on the proposed M59 freeway.

The agreement outlines technical construction requirements and responsibilities of the parties involved in building a grade separation structure to carry the railroad over the freeway.

SEWER CONNECTION

Commissioners also accepted a recommendation from Neippling that the city grant a sewer connection to prospective bidders on land at Boston and Telegraph, in Waterford Township.

A Dawn Donut Shop is proposed for the site. The owners have tentatively agreed to pay for installation of the necessary sewer line and a tap-in fee double that required for establishments inside Pontiac.

Tahitian Girls
Disapprove of Beatles' Dress

PAPEETE, Tahiti (AP)—John Lennon and George Harrison, two of Britain's rock 'n' roll quartet the Beatles, arrived in Tahiti yesterday, noticed only by three uninhibited girls who didn't like what they saw.

The Beatles' long hair and tight pants drew uncomplicated remarks in French from the girls.

Lennon and Harrison, who are vacationing, boarded a charter boat for a three-week cruise of the Tuamotu Islands. They began their vacation in Honolulu but left when fans refused to let them alone.

TV Pair Will Marry

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Gary Clarke, who plays Steve in television's "The Virginian," and Pat Woodell, 19, who plays Bobbie Jo in the TV series "Peterson Junction," got a marriage license yesterday and announced they would be married in Pasadena, Calif., Saturday.

Grover Cleveland, the country's 22nd and 24th president, dropped his first name of Stephen while a youth.

The owners will also pay the sewage rate charged Waterford Township users, which is about twice the rate charged to Pontiac residents.

A planning commission recommendation to deny a commercial zoning of land bounded by Kennet, Mansfield and Hollywood was refused back to the planning board for further study. The zoning was requested by Universal Oil Seal Co. for added parking space.

Church Will Build $1.4-Million School

Purchase of an 80-acre parcel of land in northeast Pontiac for construction of a new $1.4 million Catholic high school was announced today.

State Budget Near Approval

LANSING (AP) — Without a vote to spare, the Senate today finally passed a pay raise that will make Michigan's legislators the highest-paid in the nation.

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George W. Romney's proposed 1964-65 budget was only a few steps from final approval by the legislature today at a figure of $629.1 million, an all-time high.

Only Senate adoption of conference committee reports on four appropriations bills remained for the budget to become official. The House cleared eight bills yesterday.

Among the measures pending adoption was the $32.8 million general government bill which includes a pay raise for lawmakers.

Conference committees restored more than $2 million to the budget before sending the bills to the chambers for approval.

The pay boost will cost $629,000 per year. It was added to the general government bill earlier in the House and amended slightly by the Senate.

INCREASE PAY

It will increase lawmakers' pay from $7,000 to $10,500 a year and expenses from $125.00 to $250. This overall 52 per cent hike will make Michigan's legislature the highest-paid in the nation.

Romney's budget will stand at approximately $630 million more than the $550 million spending plan the legislature approved last year.

Included in the money put back into the budget was $1.9 million for capital outlay projects and $100,000 for the new state scholarship fund.

The scholarship fund was restored to the original proposal of $500,000.

CAPITAL OUTLAY

The capital outlay bill was approved at $57.3 million. This included restoration of $300,000 to remodel the east medical building at the University of Michigan, $190,000 for a power line at Michigan State and $500,000 for an administration building at Ionia State Hospital.

Archdiocese of Detroit, according to Father James Hayes of St. Michael's Catholic Church.

Operation of the 1,200-1,500 capacity high school is expected to begin by the fall of 1966.

Father Hayes, a member of a 28-man coordinating committee, said that the high school would accommodate students from five Pontiac area parishes.

The new secondary school will replace two Catholic high schools now in the city, freeing space for additional elementary students.

"The high schools will be phased out over a three-year period so that eventually all high school students would attend the new school," he said.

OTHERS INVOLVED

Other parishes involved in the land purchase are St. Vincent de Paul, St. Joseph, Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Auburn Heights and St. Benedict Catholic Church in Waterford Township.

In addition, Father Hayes said that St. Andrew's Catholic Church in Rochester and St. Joseph Catholic Church in Orion Township might join the parishes.

An architect still must be chosen and a fund-raising campaign conducted to finance the proposed $1.4-million school.

Father Hayes said that Pontiac area Catholic elementary schools have been pinched for space.

Tax Foe Hails Bill's Passage

Urges Romney to OK Limit on City Levies

BERKLEY (UPI)—Berkley Mayor George Kuhn, a militant foe of city income taxes, last night hailed the legislature's passage of the local tax limitation bill as the first step toward "sanity and control of local income taxes in Michigan."

Kuhn urged Gov. Romney to sign the "uniform city income tax bill" that will limit levies on nonresidents to one-half of 1 per cent starting next Jan. 1.

Final legislative action came yesterday in the Senate, which voted 26-5 to accept amendments added to the bill Saturday by the House.

Detroit's 1-per cent tax on residents would be disturbed by the bill on taxes, a 1 per cent ceiling on places. But the city claims it will lose $5.2 million annually by the 50 per cent slash in its levy on non-residents.

Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanaugh, reached in New York, declared: "The cities of Michigan and particularly Detroit are victims of a crass and not-so-slick political connivance."

"GREAT VICTORY"

Kuhn, chairman of the Vigilance Tax Committee, called the section permitting voters to force a referendum on a city's "decision to collect an income tax" a great victory for citizens of Detroit as well as for the committee.

He pledged, however, that the committee would continue its fight until the other one-half of 1 per cent of the tax on non-residents is eliminated.

Seventh Straight Record for Pontiac Monthly Sales

Pontiac Motor Division reported today that Pontiac and Tempest sales in April were 88,187, the highest monthly total in the division's history.

E. M. Estes, Pontiac Division general manager, said this exceeded sales in the same month a year ago by 49.6 per cent.

Estes also pointed out that the April record was the seventh consecutive monthly sales record since the introduction of the 1964 models.

"These outstanding sales have enabled Pontiac to increase its position of leadership," Estes said, "and are further proof of our products' increasing popularity."

He added that the strength of Pontiac's market is evidenced not only in reported sales but in the continuing high level of unfilled retail orders.

In the last 10 days of April, a record 39,740 units were sold, a 110 per cent increase over the same period.

The April 21-30 sales were the best for any 10-day period in Pontiac's 37-year history.

Southerly 5 mile an hour winds will become 15 to 30 m.p.h. late today.

Sixty-two was the low recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The mercury had climbed to 82 by 1 p.m.

Rights Issue Fails to Hurt Republican; Glenn Trails by 2-1

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Rep. Robert Taft Jr., son of the late Ohio senator dubbed "Mr. Republican," and Democratic incumbent Stephen M. Young hurled the civil rights issue to clinch senatorial nominations in Ohio's primary.

Ted W. Brown, secretary of state and a veteran vote getter, banked on his civil rights opposition in a sharp clash with Taft for the Republican nomination but failed to carry a single county in yesterday's voting.

"The results indicate that the civil rights issue perhaps was not as important as Mr. Brown thought," Taft said in a victory statement.

Young's nomination was unintentionally challenged by ailing Marine Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr., who withdrew from the race too late to have his name removed from the ballot.

Glenn, first American to orbit the earth, drew "therapy" support, but Young outpolled him by more than 2-1.

TAFT MARGIN

Taft's ratio over Brown was more than 3-1.

Returns from 11,710 of the state's 13,211 polling places gave Taft 553,997 votes and Brown 150,143. On the Democratic side, Young polled 437,657 and Glenn 184,037.

The peppery 75-year-old Young immediately girded for a showdown with Taft in the November general election.

He accused the Republicans of making his U.S. Senate seat their No. 1 target nationally.

"I welcome this challenge," he said, adding Ohioans had a clear-cut choice "between a general supporter of the Johnson-Kennedy program and a general opponent."

BACKS RIGHTS

Young also has supported civil rights legislation and has said "there cannot be any compromise on civil rights."

The big question in Ohio's political picture today was what effect the primary had on Sen. Barry Goldwater's chances for support of Ohio conservatives in the Republican convention in July.

GETS 'VICTORY' NEWS — Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace handles election reports in Indianapolis, Ind., this morning as totals in the state's presidential primary were tallied. Wallace was defeated by Indiana Gov. Matthew E. Welsh, but claimed a victory due to receiving a larger-than-expected number of votes.

Wallace, who made his campaign a crusade against Johnson's civil rights bill, piled up a big protest vote in yesterday's balloting, but his showing fell short of the upset race he ran in Wisconsin against another favorite-son stand-in for Johnson.

Commission Names 4 New Supervisors

The City Commission last night unanimously appointed four new city representatives to the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

Pontiac's new supervisors are Edward A. Maier,

Victor Woods, Mrs. Arnold Simpson and Howard O. Powers.

They replace Robert Jackson, R. Claire Cummings, Michael McAleer and Dr. Roy V. Cooley.

THEY'RE FOR ONE YEAR

In an accompanying motion, Commissioner Robert C. Irwin offered a resolution directing Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. to request that Pontiac be given a seat on the county ways and means committee.

Irwin pointed out that Pontiac had no representative on the committee this year and the city contributes in taxes about 16 per cent of the county budget annually.

The resolution was unanimously approved.

Mrs. Simpson of 140 W. Brooklyn is the first woman to be appointed from Pontiac in many years. Her husband is a tool grinder at Pontiac Motor Division.

The mother of four, she is president of the Baldwin-Wallace Community Club and active in the Northside Boys Club.

Maier of 39 Illinois is a Pontiac attorney associated with Lawyers Title Corp.

Woods of 279 S. Anderson is a Pontiac Motor Division employee and a real estate broker for Associate Brokers, Inc., of Pontiac.

He is presently serving as a member of the city employees retirement board of trustees.

Powers of 295 Cherokee is president and treasurer of Metes & Powers, Inc., a wholesale beverage distributing firm, and P & M Leasing, Inc., of Pontiac.

LACK OF ACTION

Most of the reasons centered around the city's lack of action to rezone the land, vacate alleys, install improvements and, in some cases, purchase parcels of land which were to have been purchased long ago.

Langs referred to the "agreement" between himself and the former City Commission, giving him exclusive rights to land if he could offer an acceptable price and development plan.

The agreement was adopted last July 23 and is good for one year from that date.

Langs charged that the lack of action by the city prevented him "from proceeding with redevelopment" of urban renewal lands.

Gov. Welsh, Barry Get Party Delegates; Stassen Surprises

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Gov. George C. Wallace, the Alabama invader who championed states' rights, claimed a victory for his cause today, but Democratic Gov. Matthew E. Welsh held the field for President Johnson in Indiana's presidential primary.

Wallace, who made his campaign a crusade against Johnson's civil rights bill, piled up a big protest vote in yesterday's balloting, but his showing fell short of the upset race he ran in Wisconsin against another favorite-son stand-in for Johnson.

In a Republican race all but eclipsed by the steaming Democratic contest, Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater grabbed Indiana's 32 votes at the Republican National Convention.

But former Minnesota Gov. Harold E. Stassen, his only serious rival, made an unexpected dent in his margin.

With 4,240 of 4,416 precincts counted, Welsh had captured 235,632 votes to 165,437 for Wallace.

29.6 PER CENT

That gave the Alabama governor 29.6 per cent of the Democratic turnout and 17.6 per cent of the total vote.

Three minor candidates split 27,389 votes.

Goldwater polled 227,703 votes in 3,701 precincts, Stassen had 91,119.

That gave him 26.9 per cent of the Republican turnout. Goldwater had 27.1 per cent.

Frank Beckwith, a Negro attorney from Indianapolis, captured 14,896 GOP votes. Joseph G. Ehl of South Bend had 5,666.

Tree Spray Blamed for Death of Fish

There may not be much Dutch Elm disease on trees at Hawthorne Park this year, but there aren't many live fish left in Little Silver Lake, either, according to City Commissioner Leslie H. Hudson.

Hudson said last night that tree spraying by city parks and recreation crews in the past few weeks "killed thousands and thousands of fish in Little Silver Lake."

He asked city administrators to look into the matter and to write the Michigan State Conservation Department apologizing for the error and asking the state not stop planting trout in the lake.

Trout had been planted this year in Silver Lake, and some made their way to Little Silver. Hudson said the spray was carried into the lake by wind a few weeks ago, killing many fish.

"Then they did it again last week," Hudson said. "I saw thousands of dead panfish and trout out there."

"Personally, I think our people can put up with Dutch Elm disease if the spraying is going to mean a less outdoor recreation."

LBJ's Fast Pace Hasn't Hurt Heart

WASHINGTON (AP)—Despite the whirlwind pace he's been keeping, President Johnson's heart—the heart that suffered an attack in 1955—is apparently still doing fine.

That was the indication from the White House today in answer to a query concerning the state of the President's health.

The query was motivated by the fact the President, ever since he took office, has maintained a fast and vigorous working schedule—ranging from sudden airplane trips to fast-paced on-the-go news conferences.

Wallace polled in Wisconsin April 7, in his first Northern foray against the civil rights measure, his Indiana showing would have been a major surprise.

Running against Wisconsin Gov. John W. Reynolds, Wallace captured 33.7 per cent of the Democratic vote and 24.4 per cent of the total turnout.

Welsh blamed Republicans who switched ballots for the Wallace showing.

held on the quarter-mile drive way behind the White House.

At least one published report has said some of Johnson's associates have been worried about his energetic pace — in view of his history of having had one heart attack.

However, there are indications the President knows how to mix rest and relaxation with his fast-stepping work day.

NORMAL FINDING

The White House said Johnson's latest electrocardiograph

examination—a test of his heart function—showed a normal finding. The same is true of his pulse, blood pressure and breathing rate.

Furthermore, there is "no enlargement of the heart," the White House said.

It was the first technical word on Johnson's health since Dec. 4, shortly after he took office.

None of Johnson's own doctors—and he has them in various parts of the country as well as the White House—were available for interviews on the subject.

TOTAL PICTURE

But one doctor outside the White House—who has nothing to do with President Johnson's case—told a reporter the information given out by the White House, together with the obvious fact that Johnson has been leading a fast work pace, add up to this in his opinion:

"The fact that he has been able to maintain the pace gives reassurance that his coronary attack of 1955 was well-healed."

Developer Says Mayor, Manager Block His Plans

Langs' on redevelopment plans, years said.

He added that the city had cashed checks he had deposited with them on several land purchase agreements but that either the final sale contract had not yet been approved or he was being held up in building on the property.

"If the commission doesn't give me a definite schedule for performance of the matters to be done and time to take the necessary action, I must then conclude the City Commission is breaching the agreement," Langs said.

"I will pursue the necessary redress to compensate for this wrong to me," he concluded.

NO INDIVIDUALISM

Taylor answered his critics' saying that "We are going to deal through the city manager and department heads; not as individuals like the manner practiced during the past two years."

"This type of dealing has left me very confused at times. I didn't know what we were doing and I'm sure you were confused too."

Reineck said, "Mr. Langs called me a week or so ago, and I told him to talk to James L. Bates, the planning director."

"I told him he'd have to go through the proper channels. This is something he's failed to learn in the last year," Reineck said.

NOT HEARD FROM

"I never heard from him again," he added.

As soon as commissioners started to retaliate, Langs suggested that "you all read this and give me your answers all at one time."

Commissioner Leslie H. Hudson replied, "Mr. Langs reminds me of the guy who takes the first poke at another guy and then shouts to hold things off and stop the whole thing."

"We've been here two weeks and we're taking first things first," Hudson said. "I resent your attitude."

SECOND MEETING

Commissioner John A. Dugan said he was surprised. He said, "Here we are at our second meeting and we get a letter condemning the mayor and city manager."

"This redevelopment isn't going to be run by two or three commissioners. There are seven of us. I think you're looking for a little publicity," he said to Langs.

Commissioners are scheduled to meet informally for briefing on the urban renewal program from planning and urban renewal officials next Monday evening.

It's Censorship, Not Sex, Says Ousted OU Editor

Censorship, not sex was portrayed last night at a student meeting as the main issue separating the head of Oakland University and an ousted student editor.

The portrayal was offered by Wolf Metzger, 20-year-old economics major, who was fired Monday as editor of the school's newspaper.

Metzger characterized the issue at a mass meeting on campus of about 100 students.

The squabble between Chancellor D. B. Varner and Metzger resulted from Varner's ordering not to publish the May 1 edition of the student weekly, "The Observer."

That issue contained a news story and editorial concerning a questionnaire on sex activities of OU dormitory students.

ALLEGED THREAT

An alleged threat by the chancellor to suspend Metzger if results of the questionnaire were published was the basis for the story.

Varner objected to the survey, stating that it was not taken seriously by students and thus the results were totally meaningless.

"I deeply resent the implications about the character of OU students," said Varner.

GAVE OUT COPIES

Metzger presided over a hurriedly called meeting last night, distributing mimeographed copies of the suppressed newspaper articles.

The fired editor also read an open letter, claiming the issue was not sex, but censorship.

Six Votes Lost by Wellbaum

Canvassers Continue City Election Recount

The Oakland County Board of Canvassers covered seven voting precincts in Pontiac's recount yesterday and Emmett S. Wellbaum lost six votes, according to city and county officials.

However, the fast pace was accounted for by the fact that several voting machines were ruled "unaccountable" by the board because seals were not in place either on the machine or the paper roll.

Under state law, no machine can be recounted if the seals are broken or not in place.

The law requires machines to be sealed after elections and remain that way until it's determined whether or not there will be a recount.

BEAT LANDRY

Wellbaum, a write-in candidate, beat Landry by 351 votes. The other candidate, Curtis L. Webb, placed third in the balloting.

When a voting machine is ruled "unaccountable," the vote totals reported and certified from that machine remain unchanged.

As the recount reopened this morning at Eastern Junior High School, Wellbaum's vote margin over Landry stood at 345.

There are 43 precincts in Pontiac.

Landry's attorney, Milton R. Henry, challenged the majority of write-in votes on the basis that only Wellbaum's last name was written on the roll.

He claimed an initial or first name is necessary to properly identify the candidate.

The board has ruled, however, that it will accept the last name only.

Posts Filled for Planners

2 Newcomers Added; Member Reappointed

Two new members were appointed and one present member reappointed to three-year terms on the Pontiac Planning Commission last night.

The new planning commissioners are Denzil W. Loughheed, 48, of 415 Fourth and F. Keith Hills, 55, of 36 Union.

(Reappointed by the City Commission was Basil E. Brown, who has served on the planning commission since October 1961.)

Loughheed and Hills filled a post left vacant by the resignation of Robert C. Irwin last week and replaced veteran commissioner John E. Linabury.

Linabury had been on the planning commission since 1962 and still holds a seat on the city's zoning board of appeals. He is to be honored in an official resolution at next Tuesday's City Commission meeting.

RESIDENT SINCE 1936

Loughheed, nominated by Commissioner John A. Dugan, has been a Pontiac resident since 1936.

He is a supervisor in the parts and accessories department at Pontiac Motor Division.

Hills was nominated by Commissioner Wesley J. Wood. He operated a barbershop at 98 E. Huron for many years, and now operates one in Waterford Township.

He has been a member of the Civic Improvement Advisory Committee for two years and has lived in Pontiac 48 years.

ASSISTANT ENGINEER

Brown, of 48 Mary, was nominated for reappointment by Commissioner Emmett S. Wellbaum. He is an assistant plant engineer at Pontiac Motor Division.

All three appointments were by a unanimous vote of the commission.

The planning commission will hold its annual organizational meeting tonight.

Argentines Ask Envoy Be Removed

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—A resolution is before the Argentine Senate requesting the government to expel U.S. Ambassador Robert McClinton because of a comment he made about the cancellation of Argentine contracts with U.S. oil companies.

The resolution, submitted Tuesday night by five leading senators from President Arturo Illia's Peoples Radical Civic Union, accused the ambassador of interfering in Argentina's internal affairs.

McClinton had planned to leave Argentina Sunday. He is being replaced by Edwin Martin, former U.S. assistant secretary of state for Latin American affairs.

The senators were irate over an article Saturday in the news paper El Territorio, of Posadas which quoted McClinton as saying U.S. investments in Argentina would end because of the oil contract cancellations.

CORRECTED STATEMENT

The U.S. Embassy on Monday corrected the statement to read that "the climate for North American investments in Argentina has been adversely affected by the annulment of the oil contracts."

Another, embassy statement Tuesday night said McClinton during conversations in Posadas with the governor of Misiones Province, "stressed his hopes that there would be increased American investment in Argentina."

Mothers Deserve Festive Food

Pontiac Press Food Editor

Maybe the family will take you out for Mothers Day dinner this year. On the other hand, perhaps you will be entertaining your mother at home.

Even if you don't use the following recipes this Sunday, they'll be good for any festive occasion.

A thick slice of ham is just right for a small party of six or fewer guests. It takes care of leftovers which are a bug-bear to many cooks. And it's delightfully different when baked with a crusty applesauce topping.

Rosy Ham Slice

- 1 or 2 slices ready-to-eat ham, 1 inch thick
- Whole cloves
- 2 cups (1 lb. can) applesauce
- 1/4 cup cinnamon candies
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
- 3 cups bite size toasted corn cereal crushed to 1 1/2 cups
- 1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine

Heat oven to moderate (350 degrees). Slash fat edges of ham every inch. Stud with whole cloves. Place ham in single layer in shallow baking pan.

Combine applesauce, cinnamon candies, lemon juice and ground cloves. Heat and stir until candies melt. Pour over ham.

Toast cereal crumbs with butter. Sprinkle over applesauce mixture. Bake for 55 minutes or until crumbs are crisp and slightly browned. Yield: 4-6 servings.

Blue cheese dressing for salad continues to gain in popularity. If you have an electric blender, this one is a snap to make.

Pass it on! On your Sunday dinner to dress a salad of mixed tossed greens. Any left over will keep in the refrigerator.

Gourmet Blue Cheese Dressing

- 1/2 cup evaporated milk
- 1/2 cup salad oil
- 1/4 teaspoon cider vinegar
- 1 teaspoon onion salt
- 2 ounces crumbled blue cheese

Combine all ingredients in container of electric blender. Cover and blend for a few seconds until smooth and thickened. Chill, tightly covered. Serve over tossed greens. Makes approximately 1 1/2 cups salad dressing.

And for dessert, how about a light and airy Lemon Angel Pie? This one has an unexpected strawberry surprise inside.

Lemon Angel Pie

- 1 baked 9-inch pie shell
- 1 envelope (1 tablespoon) plain unflavored gelatin
- 1/4 cup cold water
- 1/2 cup bottled lemon juice
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1 1/2 cups heavy cream, whipped
- 1 10-oz. package strawberry halves, thawed and well-drained

Soften gelatin in cold water. In a small saucepan combine bottled lemon juice and sugar; heat to boiling. Add softened gelatin; stir until dissolved.

Chill gelatin mixture over ice water, stirring occasionally until just syrupy; beat until foamy. Gradually fold gelatin mixture into whipped cream. Mixture should mound when dropped from a spoon; if necessary, chill over ice water.

Spoon enough cream mixture into pie shell to cover bottom;

arrange strawberry halves over filling, reserving a few halves for garnish. Spoon remaining filling into pie shell; chill in refrigerator about 3 hours or until firm.

Garnish with remaining strawberry halves. Makes one 9-inch pie.

Apple Butter Filling

for Sensational Torte

Reminiscent of Vienna's elegant confections is this Apple Butter-Sour Cream Torte. For your convenient version, cut an 8-inch round angel food cake into 3 equal layers.

For the filling and topping, 3/4 cup each layer, prepare this heavenly mixture. Cook together until thickened, 1 cup sour cream, 1 cup apple butter, 2 beaten eggs. Cool, and add 1 teaspoon finely grated orange peel, 1/2 cup chopped walnuts. Just before parading this sensational dessert to the table, stir shredded coconut over the top.

For a crunchy texture for a baked-fish stuffing, add some crushed shredded-wheat biscuits to a soft bread mixture.

Oyster Stew Becomes

Sauce for Asparagus

Serve an elegant spring luncheon dish, made so easily with frozen condensed oyster stew. In saucepan, thaw a 10-ounce can frozen condensed oyster stew over low heat; stir often.

Gradually blend in 1/4 cup milk or water into 1 tablespoon flour to make a smooth paste. Pour into stew and stir constantly until thickened.

Add 1 cup shredded sharp Cheddar cheese; cook until cheese is melted. Fold in 2 hard-cooked eggs (sliced). Pour over 1 pound asparagus, cooked and well drained. Garnish with a dash of paprika.

If you freeze cheese before trying to grate it, it will not stick to the grater.

Sweet Sour Beans

You and dad going out for dinner? Fix this delicious dish for the children.

In skillet, cook 1/4 cup diced Canadian bacon until lightly browned. Add 1 can (1 pound) pork and beans with tomato sauce, 1/4 cup drained pineapple chunks, and 1 tablespoon brown sugar. Heat; stir now and then. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

Corn Flake Crumbs Add Crunch to French Toast

Crispy French Toast

With Strawberry Butter

- 3 cups corn flakes or
- 3/4 cup corn flake crumbs
- 1 pint strawberries, hulled and washed*
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 3 eggs, slightly beaten
- 1/2 cup cream
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla flavoring
- 6 slices, white bread, cut in halves

If using corn flakes, crush into fine crumbs. Crush strawberries, cover with sugar; let stand about 30 minutes. Drain strawberries, reserving syrup.

Combine eggs, cream, vanilla and 1/2 cup of the strawberry syrup; mix well. Put bread slices in egg mixture; let stand until thoroughly moistened, turning once. Coat both sides of bread generously with corn flake crumbs.

Brown bread slices in small amount of heated butter or margarine, in heavy fry pan. Add butter as needed to prevent sticking. Serve immediately, accompanied by Strawberry Butter and sausage links, if desired.

Yield: 6 servings, 1 slice each

Strawberry Butter

- 1/2 cup soft butter or margarine
- 2 tablespoons confectioner's sugar
- Crushed strawberries and remaining strawberry syrup

Whip butter until light and fluffy. Add sugar gradually, beating thoroughly. Add strawberries and syrup gradually, beating thoroughly after each addition. Chill until ready to use.

*One 10-ounce package frozen strawberries, thawed, may be substituted for fresh strawberries; omit sugar.

FEATHERED SERPENTS, WATERMELON, AND CANVAS WORTH $100 PER INCH!

Mexicans have surrounded themselves with vital modern art. The works of the Mexican masters and the flourishing newer schools fill their galleries, decorate the walls of their fine buildings, and bring high prices in the world market.

Little wonder, for this art inherits the best of two traditions.

From Western Europe, out of the Renaissance by way of the Spain that gave us Velasquez and Goya, it has a great heritage . . . one that survives in its original form in Mexico's churches.

And from the ancient frescoes and sculpture of the Maya, Toltec and Aztec comes a massive simplicity, and traditional themes like the god-king Quetzalcoatl, the "feathered serpent."

Market Uncertain After Rise

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock market prices hesitated in trading today, uncertain whether a three-day rise would continue. Trading was fairly active. Prices had started to edge up at the opening bell but then numerous small minus signs appeared scattered through the list. Steels and oils maintained a slightly higher edge but motors, electronics and mail order-retail issues were no better than mixed. The market closed Tuesday with popular averages at or very close to 1964 highs. The three day recovery has surprised many market analysts who were not looking for a resumption of the over-all upward trend at this time. DRAG AVERAGES Once again a number of stocks trading ex-dividend resulted in a drag on the averages. Tuesday the Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 1.0 to 305.5. American Stock Exchange prices opened mixed. Off trac-

Red Sub Rate Equal to U.S.

Russian Construction May Match American

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union may be building atomic-powered submarines at a rate of seven to 10 a year, U.S. sources estimate. This would appear to about match the American production schedule. Available records show that in the last full year, the United States constructed nine nuclear-powered submarines, either Polaris or attack ships. This was below the planned average of one commissioning per month. That plan was upset by new but tighter construction safety requirements, established after the loss of the Thresher a year ago.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

"I am a widow, alone, and unable to work. My only income is from my stocks which include 184 shares American Telephone; 108 Bank of America; 50 Union Oil of California. I need a little more income. Do you advise switching any of these?" G. H.

Building Completed

The U.S. program carries construction through only about another two or three years, when building of 41 Polaris and 44 attack submarines will have been completed and the last of them put into fitting-out yards for final work. The Soviet Union has given no indication of a termination date for her atomic submarine program. As the Soviets have progressed into the atomic submarine field, they appear to have eased off on some of the superstructure which surrounded their effort at the outset of the attempt to catch up or surpass the United States. From time to time, Soviet nuclear-powered submarines were seen surfaced, whereas before they probably operated close to home or in arctic waters immediately north of the Soviet homeland. Those reported as sighted, up to now, have been in the eastern Atlantic region.

No Break Down

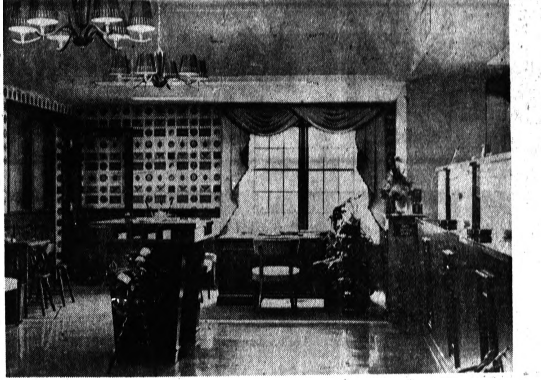

The estimated production rate for the Soviets is not broken down between missile-firing and attack submarines. The British publication, "Jane's Fighting Ships," says in its latest edition that the Soviet Union had by the latter half of 1963 some 26 nuclear-powered submarines in operation. At that time, the United States had about 30 in commission. The U.S. Navy now has 18 attack-type ships and 19 Polaris ships in commission, with 13 of the latter deployed on station in the eastern Atlantic.

OLD, NEW MEET — Not satisfied with just a colonial look on the outside of its new branch at M59 and Duck Lake Road in Highland Township, Pontiac State Bank carried the same theme indoors. Besides colorful period furnishings, the new branch also has the latest in office and computer machinery.

Pontiac State Bank Opens New Branch

First of three new Pontiac State Bank branches set to open this spring was officially ready for business Monday at M59 and Duck Lake Road in Highland Township. The single story, colonial-style structure, was also the seventh branch unit opened by the bank since it started in 1945. Described as a highly mechanized facility, it uses new automatic bookkeeping machines, check sorter, computer and teller-changer equipment. Other features include drive-in window and safe deposit boxes among full banking services. Robert J. Powers, 2431 Ridge, White Lake Township, is manager of the Duck Lake Road office, also known as the East Highland branch. He has been with Pontiac State since 1961.

News in Brief

Miscellaneous tools, two paint spray guns and a polisher, with a total value of $250, were stolen in a break-in at Bruce's Collision, 37 James, where Bruce Hetherington, reported to Pontiac police yesterday. Rocco Pugliese reported to the sheriff's office yesterday that his Marathon gas station at 8185 Commerce, Commerce Township, was burglarized and $55 stolen from the cash register. Vandals, throwing stones and shooting pellets, yesterday caused an estimated $800 damage to the Italian American Club, 60 N. Tilden, Waterford Township. Aluminum siding was damaged and several windows were broken. Under the triple expansion, at an estimated $270,000, identical buildings are nearing completion on Opdyke near the Blue Sky theater in Pontiac Township and at 970 W. Long Lake, Bloomfield Township. Fasting Minister Sent to Hospital in Weak State

CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—The Rev. Clayton K. Hewett, entering his 12th day of fasting to protest police brutality during recent civil rights demonstrations, has been moved from a makeshift jail in the Delaware County courthouse annex in Media to a Chester hospital. Dr. Joseph A. Dimedio said Hewett was moved to the hospital for closer observation. He said Hewett was "physically sound, but weak from not eating." Hewett, rector of Atonement Episcopal church in nearby Morton, was arrested April 24 and charged with inciting to riot. He has eaten only vitamin pills, juices and water since then. Mr. Spear cannot answer all personal questions, but will answer all questions possible in his column. (COPYRIGHT 1964)
