Cuba Seeking More Arms

Says Jack Eyes Bob for Attorney General Post

President-Elect Pores Over Plans to Change Defense Department

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Times said today that President-Elect John F. Kennedy "is giving serious consideration to the appointment of his younger brother Robert as attorney general."

A Palm Beach, Fla., dispatch by W. H. Lawrence added: "No final decision has been made and none probably will be until the two brothers have had an opportunity to talk out the matter fully."

Robert Kennedy, 34, already has made a national reputation as counsel for Senate investigating committees.

Among them was the Senate labor management committee which investigated teamsters' head James R. Hoffa.

Inquiries at Kennedy headquarters in Palm Beach concerning possible Cabinet appointments brought the reply that nothing will be decided or announced until after Thanksgiving.

Gov. Abraham Ribicoff, of Connecticut, Kennedy supporter who has been conferring in Florida with the president-elect, refused to comment on or off the record about the Times story on Robert Kennedy.

Sen. Kennedy, meanwhile, tackled a study of the Defense Department looking toward the streamlining he says it needs for this nuclear age.

For the study, to continue over the weekend, the Democratic winner called in Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., secretary of the Air Force in the Truman administration and mentioned frequently as a possible Kennedy choice for secretary of defense.

At Kennedy's request, Symington has been charting Defense Department reorganization for some time and now is ready to make recommendations for the program the new administration will send to Congress shortly after Jan. 20.

Fly to Germany for Gold Talks

Sec. Anderson, Dillon Want Bonn to Increase Its Foreign Aid

BONN, Germany (AP) — Two American officials fly here today for what are expected to be stormy economic talks designed to stem the drain on the U.S. dollar and gold reserves.

Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson and Undersecretary of State C. Douglas Dillon are bringing more than 20 experts from Washington with them.

The two men will try to persuade the West German government that it must contribute more money to aid underdeveloped nations.

The United States reportedly feels the prosperous West Germans haven't made a sufficient effort to help the less fortunate countries.

The government has been unwilling to say just how much money it was prepared to spend.

The Cabinet, however, has approved a foreign aid program which informants said would total between $832 million and $909 million.

The bulk of the money would come from industry, which has agreed to make available $360 million by buying bonds paying 5 per cent interest over 15 years.

Another $119 million would come from the sale of shares of the state-owned Volkswagen company.

Three Die on Their Job

Spectacular Fire Traps, Kills New York Firemen

NEW YORK (AP) — A nine-alarm fire roared through old buildings in lower Manhattan Friday night, trapping and killing three firemen and injuring a dozen others.

The flames, belching dense, black smoke, vari-colored sparks and embers high over the Manhattan skyline, could be seen for miles. Thousands of spectators thronged to the scene.

The three firemen literally slid to death into the basement of the five-story loft building.

The men, the first to reach the scene, started down to the basement only to find the stairs had been converted into a chute for sliding merchandise to the cellar.

Once in the smoke-filled basement they were unable to find their way out.

The fire broke out shortly after 5 p.m. in a 100-year-old brick building housing textile concerns at Broadway and Grant St. Within minutes it was turned into a torch as flames mushroomed through the building, then spread to five neighboring structures. The fire was out of control for more than eight hours, feeding on bolts of cloth and other materials.

Five alarms were sounded in Manhattan and four in Brooklyn, bringing 54 pieces of fire equipment and more than 350 firemen.

OK MSUO Accelerated Program

By MAX E. SIMON

EAST LANSING—Michigan State University Oakland will have a stepped-up program of education starting next fall.

The Michigan State University Board of Trustees yesterday approved a plan under which next year's MSUO freshmen will be able to graduate in two and two thirds years instead of four.

The plan provides for three 15-week sessions called trimesters. Students will go to school throughout the year, with the exception of the month of August.

Tentative planning calls for the three sessions to run from Sept. 5, the day after Labor Day, to Dec. 20; from Jan. 3 to April 13, and from April 23 to Aug. 5. This would mean only seven weeks of vacation annually instead of the usual 20.

Trustees raised the possibility of MSUO adding a summer term, which would make MSUO's schedule similar to that of MSU.

"Under our plan, there would be fewer starts and stops during the year," Varner said. "I realize that we at MSUO are departing from some longheld notions.

"But MSUO is a new and small institution—and we have the opportunity to experiment. We'd like to give it a try."

Varner said other academic schedules permitted students to begin vacations in June.

"If we are to meet the need for educated brains, then students must remain in school for more than nine months of the year," Varner declared.

"Our second session will end in April which is not a convenient time for students to stop. Therefore our plan contains a 'hidden persuader' which will encourage students to enroll in year-round classes."

MSUO's plan provides for faculty pay of three per cent of an

Castro Skirts Rocket Rattling, Red Hand Seen

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — Premier Fidel Castro is mortgaging Cuba's future for more Communist weapons despite a Red-supported buildup which already has given him the largest military force in Latin America, American officials said today.

They said Castro's chief lieutenant, Ernesto (Che) Guevara is known to be making more deals for Communist tanks, planes and other armaments during his current trip behind the Iron Curtain.

In Havana the muting of Castro's rocket-rattling warnings to the United States heightened speculation that Moscow has advised him to take a more moderate course in his dealings with Washington.

The Kremlin's hand may be behind the lessening of attacks in the government press against President-Elect John F. Kennedy—in contrast with the increased tempo against President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard Nixon—possibly with a view to keeping a path open to later conciliatory approaches.

It was noted that Castro's newspapers and radio made no mention of Soviet rocket support in their blasts at President Eisenhower for ordering U.S. Navy ships and planes to set up anti-invasion patrols off Guatemala and Nicaragua.

HAVANA (UPI)—Five million pounds of sugar cane was destroyed by fire today near Consolacion del Sur in Pinar del Rio Province in what was considered the first big act of sabotage committed by anti-Castro underground forces.

The U.S. State Department Friday night claimed that Castro, with a 40,000-man regular army and a well-armed militia of more than 200,000, has a military force 10 times as large as Cuba had before he came to power.

The department said Cuba had received more than 28,000 tons of Communist armaments, mostly from Russia and Czechoslovakia.

In addition, the department said Castro had obtained large quantities of arms from other nations, principally Belgium.

In a special statement, this coun-

Party Changes Being Eyed in Both County and State

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

The 1962 and 1964 elections aren't as far away as some might think—or hope.

Much facelifting is expected in the ranks of both Democrats and Republicans—on a state and county level—before then.

Already in Republican ranks there is talk of who will run for governor in 1962 with the announced exodus of twice-defeated candidate Paul D. Bagwell. Some are talking about drafting Bagwell despite his insistence that he's through running.

Gov.-Elect John B. Swainson is shaping up his "cabinet" of appointees. These should be pretty well known by the time the Democratic State Central Committee meets Dec. 4.

A number of Oakland County Democrats are wondering what's in store for Mrs. Harriett Phillips, an eight-year member of the State Central Committee and one of the party stalwarts in the county.

This depends largely, some believe, on the future of State Chairman Neil Staebler and Vice Chairman Mrs. Adelaide Hart. The vice chairmanship of the state party always goes to a woman.

Asked if she would accept this position, Mrs. Phillips, a Huntington Woods housewife, said "I don't know yet. I'll have to discuss it with my husband," she said.

Mrs. Phillips spearheaded the drive in the county to elect Swainson. Bagwell, however, beat Swainson here by 32,970 votes.

Although slightly discouraged by not turning the county into their column after a massive reorganization program from chairman on down, Oakland Democruts have met several times already since the Nov. 8 election to start the work toward 1962.

James M. Ginn, appointed chairman in August after the reshuffling of party leaders after a succession of losses, has called for reports on how to strengthen the party's precinct organization and finances.

"We're not satisfied, naturally, because we hoped we could do better," Ginn said.

He said the county committee was awaiting the official canvass of the Oakland vote, expected to be finished next week, before making a statistical analysis of where the party gained and lost compared to previous years.

★ ★ ★

Besides shopping around for a candidate for governor, state and county Republicans are pondering who they want to lead the party as chairman for the next two years.

★ ★ ★

For his work in maintaining the GOP edge in Michigan's second largest county, some would like to reward Arthur G. Elliott Jr., county chairman, with the elevation to the state level.

★ ★ ★

Lawrence B. Lindemer, current chairman, said he'd probably announce in the next two weeks whether he will seek to hold onto the reins again. He said he expects to make his decision sometime after a meeting of the Republican State Central Committee on Dec. 3.

Of Elliott, Lindemer said, "Art is obviously one of the top ones."

'But he's written me that he would support my candidacy if

Chicago Opens $35 Million Hall

Bids to Keep Conventions

By HAROLD A. FITZGERALD
Publisher, The Pontiac Press

CHICAGO — In a tremendous bid to retain the convention headquarters of the nation, this city opened McCormick Place last evening with a huge banquet.

★ ★ ★

Several hundred businessmen from all over the nation — including half a hundred from Europe and South America — met to see the new $35 million edifice which Chicago proposes to make the exhibitors' center of the country.

★ ★ ★

The building is 1,100 feet long and they say you could put Yankee Stadium and Wrigley Field in the two ends with Chicago's Soldier's Field between.

Arthur H. Motley was the principal speaker of the evening. He is the publisher of Parade and president of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

I had a nice visit with George Halas (Papa Bear) and asked him how he expected to come out with Detroit tomorrow, "The Lions will win," said George solemnly. Cautioned he might be quoted, Halas replied: "I still have to say the same. I'm afraid my little boys will be 'let down' after last Sunday's game.

★ ★ ★

Joe DiMaggio was there and I told him I played golf with an old pal of his — Charley Gehringer. "How's he doing?" asked DiMaggio instantly. Told Charley was doing very well, Joe said, "He has what it takes in baseball or business. He's one of the greatest." Gehringer and DiMaggio are probably two of the best businessmen baseball ever graduated. And incidentally, both look lean, hard and fit to play today.

★ ★ ★

Bernard Ridder Jr., an old associate on the AP Board of Directors, and publisher of the St. Paul Pioneer Press, told me Oakland Hills would be eased slightly for the 1961 National Open.

"Some wanted to make it even harder than it was last time," said Bernie, "but that was ruled out. We're going to give everyone a little fairer chance." Ridder is one of the directors of the United States Golf Association.

This world gets smaller and smaller and smaller. I was thumped on the back by a great braw of a man who must stand 6 feet 5 and who is chairman of the board of Life, Time, etc. "I thought you were in Europe," I said to Andrew Heiskell. "Came back Wednesday," said he, "and I return Sunday." Imagine — interrupting a business trip to Europe to return home for three or four days.

★ ★ ★

John S. Knight was on hand and he said he hoped The Pontiac Press was picking up some of those Detroit Times subscribers. I told him that some wel-

try accused Communist nations of contributing to Caribbean tensions and of taxing the shaky Cuban economy with an excessive arms burden.

The department said in effect that Russia flouted Cuba's Latin neighbors by stepping up arms deliveries to Castro after the Western Hemisphere foreign ministers in August condemned Soviet and other Red intervention in hemispheric affairs.

The department's statement came only 24 hours after Eisenhower's disclosure that he had ordered U.S. warships and planes deployed off Cuba to block any Communist - backed aggression against this country's Latin American friends.

The Eisenhower order — the result of a request from Guatemala and Nicaragua who charged unsuccessful revolts against their governments in the past week were aided by Cuba — set off a chain furore, including both critical and approving comment in Latin America on the naval action and a Cuban letter of protest to the United Nations.

Guatemalan President Miguel Ydigoras also said he favored a Korean-type police action against Cuba, and both Guatemala and Nicaragua were reported considering invoking the hemisphere's 1947 Rio de Janeiro treaty of mutual assistance.

At the United Nations, Cuba complained to General Assembly President Frederick Boland about the U.S. order to protect Guatemala and Nicaragua.

LINKS IT TO AGGRESSION

Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa in a letter to Boland, linked the peace patrol with his pending charge that the United States is planning "armed intervention" in Cuba.

★ ★ ★

This kind of talk abated after Castro himself told Cubans on Nov. 9 not to depend too much on Soviet offers of assistance and to rely on their own strength.

This speech followed by three days another by Soviet Ambassador Sergei M. Kudryavtsev at a labor rally.

Though almost every other Cuban speaker took glowing note of promises of Soviet rocket support in case of U.S. aggression, the Soviet diplomat stressed peaceful coexistence.

Well-informed sources said some of the Soviet diplomatic mission have dropped hints that the Kremlin, busy with its own problems with the United States, would like Castro to be a little less belligerent.

★ ★ ★

The session with Symington on revamping of the Defense Department comes against the background of a lengthy briefing Kennedy got Friday on the situation in the Caribbean area.

There, on orders from President Eisenhower, American warships and planes are on guard to prevent any Communist-led attack on Guatemala and Nicaragua.

Deputies Seek Gunman in Area

Sheriff's deputies today were still searching for the gunman who terrorized an Oxford Township couple in their home Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

He held Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tatu of 2730 Drahner Road at gunpoint for almost an hour before deciding to leave. "You seem like good people," he said and left them unharmed.

★ ★ ★

Earlier, he had fired a shot after Mrs. Tatu, 51, when she attempted to flee.

"We have a prime suspect and are checking with other departments," said Detective Leo Hazen, acting undersheriff, today. He expected a more positive identification would be made later today when photos arrived from other police departments in the state.

★ ★ ★

The gunman had admitted to Tatu, 46, that he was wanted by the law.

He was in the Tatu home when the couple arrived at about 7 p.m., and surprised them at the door with a .22 caliber pistol.

The couple described the fugitive as about 28 years old, approximately 5 feet 7, weighing near 150 pounds. He was dirty and needed a shave, they said, and was wearing a black jacket with a red hood pulled over his black hair.

Deputies theorized the man was a fugitive from the law elsewhere in the state, and had broken into the darkened home in search of something to eat.

★ ★ ★

He had fried himself a couple of eggs before the couple arrived.

Officially, Building Inspector; Unofficially, Novi Manager

By JIM LONG

Unofficially, he is the village manager.

The arrangement could continue almost indefinitely.

Ackley was given the job as manager temporarily last June after the village council fired Fred E. Olson as chief administrator of the two-year-old village.

At that time the village, the largest in Michigan, covering some 27 square miles, was beset by internal difficulties among councilmen, among residents, and between councilmen and residents.

★ ★ ★

Since then the giant village has quieted down considerably, reworked its budget, paid off indebtedness, and is now on solid financial ground.

Residents, village employes and elected officials all agree that Ackley seems to be the one most responsible for the cooling-off period.

"Being so large the village is a good source for groups wanting to fill areas for future development. We have ordinances controlling these areas and turn down many such requests just because they don't meet our specifications," he said.

"But then they go into court, get relief, and our ordinances seem useless."

Ackley pointed out that in many cases land filling is a necessity but it must be done properly or pollution of nearby waters could result.

Ackleys background makes him naturally aware of the high and low land problems that Novi faces as it continues to develop.

His interest in land development dates back to 1924 when he started working for the Michigan State Highway Department. His 12 years with the highway department ended in 1937.

"Those were the years that the state would sometimes go broke and we wouldn't work for a year," he said.

STUDIES BRIDGE

He recalls it was 1930 that he was part of a crew that did preliminary work on the even-then proposed Straits of Mackinac Bridge.

"Our job was to take depth sounding and boring of the rocks under the Straits. We never did find rock hard enough to support a bridge."

The success in constructing the bridge came after it was learned that rocks could be hardened artifically using a compound under pressure.

After leaving the state highway department he worked for the Schoolcraft Company Highway Department in the Upper Peninsula for a year.

A native of Germfask in Scoolcraft County, Ackley explained that the community was partially named after his grandfather, Edikel Ackley, the first settler and first supervisor of the township.

He said that when the settlement got around to naming the settlement they decided to use the first letter of the last name of each pioneer.

Ackley lives at 150 Angle Road with his wife and three of four children. He has a married daughter living in North Carolina.

He has been a resident of Walled Lake since 1943. For four years he owned and operated the Walled Lake Electric shop.

★ ★ ★

In 1947 he became building inspector for Novi Township and then for the village when it incorporated.

Not satisfied with administering Novi's $179,000 annual budget as one of his chief duties in the village, he has added responsibilities in Walled Lake.

Last April he ran for election on the city council and won.

Physicians Failing Tests May Face Deportation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The State Department reports that 2,481 foreign physicians who failed recent American medical examinations may have to leave the country.

★ ★ ★

Department officials said Friday the doctors, who are working as interns and residents in U. S. hospitals, will lose their status as exchange visitors if they lose their jobs.

The American Medical Association (AMA) has informed hospitals they will lose accreditation to train doctors unless those who failed the examination are discharged by Dec. 31.

AMA officials told the State Department they will announce in about 10 days a plan to "ameliorate the situation for at least some of the doctors." Details of the plans were not made public.

The State Department said it recognized the doctors' problem but that "maintenance of acceptable standards of patient care" was more important.

★ ★ ★

Officials said some of the doctors could remain in this country by transferring to other exchange programs in which they would not treat patients. They also said there would be no rush to order the doctors out of the country, even though they were technically deportable.

★ ★ ★

They said the 2,481 doctors come from all parts of the world, many of them from the Philippines. They were among 8,713 foreign doctors who took the accreditation examination. Another 2,456 got marginal grades which allow them to continue working and retake the test in two years.

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, has made public a letter in which he urged the State Department to prevent what he called "an obvious injustice" in the case.

come tidbits were dropping into our modest but always outstretched hands.

I went over on the night Grand Trunk train but returned in a plane with Anthony De Lorenzo, GM public relations boss, and Edward Cole Chevrolet's GM.

W. D. Maxwell, editor of The Chicago Tribune, was the mainspring in this gigantic civic undertaking and has been the sparkplug from the start. Maxwell is one of America's greatest newspapermen.

Chicago is grimly determined to stand as the top convention city of America. This internal wrangling in Detroit's Cobo Hall better cease, pronto. Also, the lack of hotel rooms will apparently weigh heavily against Detroit. Cobo Hall is a tremendous building, but when exhibitors squawk loudly about the costs and the hotel accommodations are insufficient, our near neighbor to the south has a problem.

Chicago suffers from neither of these deficiencies. Strictly old pros at conventions and a leader in the last half century, Chicago proposes to step aside for no one. She issued a ringing challenge Friday night and served notice on the whole, wide world.

decided to go again," the Stockbridge attorney said.

★ ★ ★

"I've decided I wouldn't think along those lines until after the first of the year," Elliott said.

The Royal Oak realtor said, "There's still plenty of work to do here."

The chairman will be decided by party delegates in convention in February, two years after Lindemer won his second term in a battle with the conservative element pushing Sen. John P. Smeekens for the job.

Aside from where he stood on the chairmanship of the party which failed to push Bagwell to victory for the second time, Lindemer said he knew of "no definite program" being waged at this time for selecting the 1962 gubernatorial candidate.

He said it was too early.

"We are informally encouraging people to make their availability known, however," he said.

"It strikes me there won't be any elimination below two or three during the next year," the chairman said.

They are American Motors Corp. president George Romney, who received a spattering of write-in votes in the past election, Rep. Gerald R. Ford Jr. of Grand Rapids, Rep. Robert P. Griffin, once a resident of Pontiac who gained national attention for his co-sponsorship of the Landrum-Griffin labor reform bill, and Henry Ford II, president of Ford Motor Co.

Oakland County resident Richard C. Van Dusen, Detroit attorney who ran along with Bagwell in 1956 for attorney general, has been mentioned. Friends say he might have landed a job in Washington had Vice President Richard M. Nixon won. Van Dusen, of Bingham Farms, was Michigan chairman of the Volunteers for Nixon.

Giving a qualified yes to whether he'd run is Gordon T. Getsinger, Bloomfield Township trustee and GOP State Central member.

After carving a third term as the county's representative in Washington, some have asked about Congressman Whitlap S. Broomfield.

"He wants to stick it out in Congress," said Chad M. Ritchie, GOP party leader in the county.

Then there's defeated senatorial candidate Alvin M. Bentley of Owosso, Sen. Carlton H. Morris, who ran unsuccessfully against Bagwell in the primary, and Sen. John Stahlin of Belding, whose committee probed State Highway Department expenditures last year.

There may be others.

Yanuszeski to Be Chief for Township Firemen

BIRMINGHAM — Bloomfield Township Fire Marshall Volly V. Yanuszeski has been named chief of the 14-man township fire department, it was announced today.

The post has been vacant since a year ago with the resignation of Ralph Hemmerly.

A member of the department since 1948, Yanuszeski, 38, will take over the top fire job immediately. He has been fire marshal the last three years.

The appointment was recommended by township fire Commissioner Homer Case and authorized by the township board.

Yanuszeski, who lives at 151 N. Avery St., Waterford Township, is married and the father of two children.

A successor to the fire marshall's post has not yet been named.

Along with Yanuszeski's appointment officials announced that the township's newest fire station will be open for public inspection Nov. 27.

The open house will be held from 2 to 4 p.m.

COST $58,000

Recently completed at a cost of $50,000, Station 3 houses a new four-wheel-drive FWD pumper that has a capacity of pumping 750 gallons of water a minute.

Cost of the vehicle, including all the other necessary apparatus, plus an inhalator, was $22,000.

Presently the new station is manned by one fireman at all times, and will at a later date be manned by two firemen.

Along with the 14 paid members of the department the township has 40 volunteers on the fire fighting roster.

The new education building and cloister of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham will be dedicated at Sunday services, Nov. 27.

An open house will be held from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. that day.

Dr. Ralph Waldo Lloyd, president of Maryville College, Maryville, Tenn., will be the guest speaker at the morning dedication services.

Dr. Lloyd spoke at the dedication services of the original building.

The new facilities double the area used for the Christian education program, and care for children and youth, from infancy through high school, according to church officials.

The rooms will be used by the many adult organizations of the church for meetings and study programs.

A cloister, faced with 15 stained glass windows depicting the parables of Jesus, links the addition to the main sanctuary area.

An enclosed inner courtyard has been developed as a result of the new construction. It will be used for meditation and worship.

GLENDALE, Calif. (UPI) — Hollywood said goodbye to Clark Gable today.

Filmdom's king, who died Wednesday of a heart attack, was buried with full military honors.

James Stewart, Robert Taylor and Spencer Tracy were among the pallbearers. Gable was laid to rest in a crypt beside that of Carole Lombard, third of his five wives, who was interred in 1942.

She died in a plane crash while on a World War II bond tour. It wasn't long afterward that Gable enlisted in the Air Force as a private.

Three years later he was a major with an air medal for five missions over enemy territory. The Air Force will conduct the simple rites in honor of Gable's wartime service.

The public was not permitted to attend. Friends said Gable wanted a quiet funeral.

The Pontiac Traffic Club will hold its monthly meeting at the Waldron Hotel at 6:30 p.m.

Guest speaker will be Donald E. Burnham, supervisor of tariff legislation, Ford Motor Company.

The topic of his speech will be "Problems of Tariff Legislation and Freight Classification."

Dirty, Hungry Commerce Twp. Youngsters Put in County Home

Four young children, described as suffering from malnutrition and living in squalor, were removed from their Commerce Township home yesterday afternoon by sheriff's deputies and placed in the Oakland County Children's Home.

The mother, Mrs. Marjorie Biggins, was away when officers arrived at the home at 3346 Royal Blvd. They were summoned by neighborhood youths who were baby-sitting with the youngsters.

Deputies said they found the home in an unsanitary condition upon arrival. The children were dirty and ill-fed, they said.

Baby sitters, Frank Voge, 19, of 3340 Royal Blvd., and Gilbert Shaw, 19, said the children had had nothing to eat since that morning when they were fed an egg and potatoes.

The mother had left her children, Rickey 4, Steven 3, Cathy 2, and Allen 4 months, in care of the baby sitters at 8 a.m. when she went to Pontiac. The youths said this was a common occurrence and that the youngsters never had enough to eat to their knowledge.

Deputies told county juvenile authorities that a kitchen oven supplied the only heat for the home, as there was no fuel for a space heater.

The authorities ordered the children removed to the county home for proper care. The mother was to be notified upon her return home and will be summoned to appear in Juvenile Court Monday, authorities said.

Hospital OKs Ward at Mount Clemens

MOUNT CLEMENS (UPI) — Mount Clemens General Hospital announced today it plans to reopen its maternity ward Sunday after determining that apparently no bacteria was responsible for a mother's death Friday.

The mother who died and three other maternity patients had symptoms similar to those of meningitis. The ward was closed Friday as a precaution. Meningitis is caused by a bacteria.

Hospital officials said "all investigations tend to indicate there was no bacteria involvement." This would indicate that there was "no contagious condition," officials said.

Firemen realized men were trapped in the basement when contact was lost with them via walkie-talkie radios. Fighting through flames, they managed to pull two to safety, but could not reach the other three. The firemen died within 10 feet of a stairway.

Millionth Door for Firm

Berry Marks Milepost

Their millionth door was a Detroiter model.

The corporation thus became the first manufacturer of steel garage doors to top the one-million mark in production.

Established before World War II, the Berry corporation moved into a new plant at 2400 Lincoln Ave, in 1955.

It also has subsidiary companies in Detroit, Chicago, and Wingham, Ont., and a manufacturing plant in West Bend, Wis.

Dr. Paul Miller, MSU provost said: "Although the plan puts the MSU teacher at a slight disadvantage, I'm sure that our people can live with this in the interests of educational experimentation.

"Some negative reaction is sure to arise.

"It's one way to find out if my office is resilient," he quipped.

The corporation has also recently added a line of wood garage doors, enabling them to offer the widest range of garage door styles and prices in the industry.

Arrest 100 in Big Raid

WASHINGTON (AP)—At exactly 3:15 p. m. EST Friday, in 54 cities across the country, federal agents raided more than 100 gambling joints.

The results: More than 100 arrests, at least $65,000 and eight cars confiscated.

* * *

The clockwork raids came on the eve of another big football weekend, and seemed in some cases aimed at football betting pools. Football parlay sheets were seized at many places.

In Connecticut the Internal Revenue Service agents pressed a Coast Guard helicopter into action to help round up gamblers in most of the raids.

* * *

What the tax agents were after were those who had not bought the required $50 gamblers' tax stamp, or the $250 stamp required for coin-operated gaming machines. Some also failed to pay the 10 per cent tax on gross gambling receipts. These federal taxes are required whether or not gambling is illegal in the state involved.

Negotiators Strike LA Transit Pact

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Tentative agreement in the Los Angeles transit strike, which tied up bus and trolley transportation in the city for four days, was announced after an eight-hour session that stretched into the early morning hours today.

Negotiators for the Metropolitan Transit Authority and 900 striking mechanics said a new 27-month contract had been approved, subject to ratification by individual union members.

The conciliators said terms of the pact would not be made public until acted on by the union membership at a meeting sunday.

DETROIT (AP)—Cadillac television station, WWTV, headed by John E. Fetzer, president of the Detroit Tigers baseball team, has been found guilty of unfair labor practices by the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB).

The NLRB announced its verdict here Friday after a review of the trial examiner's findings by a three member NLRB panel.

It Seems to Me . . . .

1964 Presidential Possibilities Being Discussed by GOP

Although the final returns haven't been completely tabulated on the 1960 elections, I hear political discussions about 1964.

★ ★ ★

Obviously, the Democratic candidate is already established, but the GOP nominee will be a matter of uncertainty for most of the next four years. The three names arising already are:

Richard Nixon
Nelson Rockefeller
Barry Goldwater

★ ★ ★

Perhaps the first is automatically through. The "burning desire" may have left. I hear he has had a lucrative position offered him in New York and he may say to himself: "I've had it." On the other hand, NIXON certainly deserves another whirl in the light of 1960 results. It's still possible he may have captured more votes than JOHN KENNEDY.

Who can equal this?

Who is better qualified?

★ ★ ★

Nelson Rockefeller is a possibility. He wants it. Republicans are out of sorts over his abortive effort in New York State this fall. No one feels that he really "put out" to help Nixon. He went through certain formal surface motions, but he never seemed to have his heart in his work and the biggest electoral vote in the country hung in the balance. Rockefeller was considerably less than a ball of fire. It's an absolute cinch that the GOP doesn't owe any obligation to this synthetic campaigner. Personally, I'd say that his best chance at the moment consists in becoming a compromise choice or even one by elimination.

★ ★ ★

BARRY GOLDWATER is probably the outstanding "contender" at this time. Whether he can rally the conflicting segments of the GOP is problematical. Right now he's a bright star in the western skies. GOLDWATER seems to pack "sex appeal" in a political sense and his current reputation doesn't bear the semblance of a smear or a smirch. He has friends and supporters all over the nation. The extent and number of these are surprising.

★ ★ ★

A hatful of names will bob up between now and the summer of 1964, but the Dems have their man selected and ready to go.

He occupies the Glory Seat.

★ ★ ★

Apparently American voters rally around a "hero" more than they do a party label when it comes to the Presidency. The elephant is stalking the jungles on a still hunt for such a glamorous chap or for someone who appeals to the average man's fancy instead of his intellect.

Look Who's Talking . . . .

Often I'm interested in what foreign newspapers say about us and our customs.

★ ★ ★

In commenting on our current presidential election, The London Guardian says:

"Politically, the mind of America is as confused as it has been for the last decade or more."

Oh, yes?

★ ★ ★

Our good brothers across the sea may think we're slightly balmy in a political sense, but we're bearing up under this condition of ineptitude and mental chaos in good shape and high spirits. Personally, I think the British themselves are a bit foggy politically—and otherwise—on many occasions.

★ ★ ★

And in Conclusion . . . .

Whoops! I'm in error. They tell me (emphatically) HARRY WISE is getting help and assistance from the C. of C. Industrial Committee on his project. All castigations are hastily canceled with apology and in confusion . . . . . Michigan had 28 golf courses in 1900 and she possesses 285 today . . . . . A Peruvian publisher told me that Peru's weather has been perceptibly cooler for the past three years and he attributes it to the "H" bombs. Scientists insist this isn't true but it's a popular belief . . . . . Trusted scouts tell me SALLY SHUNCK, our recent goodwill ambassador to Turkey, deserves nomination as an especially attractive young lady of the area. SALLY, you're nominated . . . . . .

SALLY

. . . . Only three men in all baseball history have hit four consecutive home runs. ROCKY COLAVITO is one. And only four men in all history have hunted as many hundreds of hours as ROCKY and never shot a deer. He's at it right now.

★ ★ ★

Tobacco News says Americans put more than a billion dollars a year in coin operated machines for cigars and cigarettes. Soft drinks follow with one third this take and candy is next . . . . . They were discussing a dear, departed comrade. "I wonder," said one mourner, "how much he left?" A small pause ensued. "I think," said another, "he left it all." . . . . . Cranberries are especially good this year and we're all urged to buy an extra supply to make up for the beating the growers took last fall . . . . . Bill Lemmon, Cleveland, tells of the seedy character that sidled up in Cuba and said: "Yankee, you go home—and take me with you." . . . . . The trampoline trend is downward because of accidents.

★ ★ ★

Northwestern University's freshman class has the highest scholastic rating in history . . . . . "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer," has outsold "White Christmas" by five million records . . . . . LIZ TAYLOR has been on a dozen magazine covers this fall . . . . . Miss America (Michigan's own NANCY FLEMING) isn't allowed to attend a cocktail party, and she can't go anywhere without her chaperone . . . . . Dept. of Cheers and Jeers: the C's—HAROLD EULER, for his fine showing in the financial management of our City Hospital; the J's—those election night "electronic computers" that figured KENNEDY was a "330 to 1 choice to win." As events proved, he was 330 to 329.5 choice. What a farce that contraption proved itself to be.

The POWER of FAITH

by Howard Brodie

The spirit of Thanksgiving is manifested in the graces of the faiths:

Protestant: "Bless, O Lord, this food to our use, and us to Thy service, and make us ever mindful of the needs of others, in Jesus' Name. Amen."

Jewish: "Lift up your hands toward the sanctuary and bless the Lord. Blessed art Thou, I Lord our God, King of the universe, who bringest forth bread from the earth. Amen."

Catholic: "Bless us, O Lord, and these Thy gifts, which we are about to receive from Thy bounty, through Christ our Lord. Amen."

Days of All Faiths:

Thanksgiving Is a Traditional Day

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

Early Pilgrims Traded Christmas for Thanksgiving

Do you think Thanksgiving is a national holiday? Do you think the first Thanksgiving in America was the one the Pilgrims had in 1621? If you do you are wrong on both counts.

Thanksgiving is a legal holiday only in those states that have statutes making it so. From a national point of view it is only traditional. The president recommends each year that the country observe a day of thanksgiving, and suggests that it be the last Thursday in November, and by custom everybody goes along.

But in some states this means only that the people follow tradition, while in others it means that the state has anticipated this annual proclamation from the President by legally declaring this last Thursday of November to be a holiday.

This is good American states-rights practice. No president is going to tell the people of a state when they should stop business and say their prayers.

President Roosevelt caused considerable consternation when, in his 1939 Thanksgiving call to prayer, he suggested the third Thursday in November instead of the traditional fourth. Nobody even now is quite sure why he upset custom, but it made things very awkward for those states that already had the fourth Thursday set aside by law. In some places they lampooned the situation by having two Thanksgivings. The president lost this one. In 1940 he was back in line, recommending the fourth Thursday.

FIRST NEW WORLD SERVICE

The first service of Thanksgiving on the North American continent was held 43 years before the one in Massachusetts. On May 27, 1578, a little colony of English people in Newfoundland gathered for special prayers of gratitude for their safe journey from the homeland to this wilderness. This was, however, only a service and not a day set apart. Also, the fact that this service was held in May shows that it could not have had the harvest festival character of our familiar Thanksgiving.

The Thanksgiving to which all Americans look back is the one observed by the Pilgrims in the Plymouth Colony in 1621, in gratitude for the plentiful harvest after their first summer in the new world. Most of us, probably, take for granted that from then on Thanksgiving was an annual festival. This is by no means true.

It did take hold in New England, partly, perhaps, because it made a convenient substitute for Christmas, which the ultra-Protestant Puritans there had renounced as a "Popish" invention. But it was not until 1863 — a matter of two and a half centuries — that a United States president came out with a formal call for the whole country to observe a day of gratitude for God's blessings. Lincoln was the president.

FIRST PRESIDENTIAL PROCLAMATION

Washington in 1789 had asked for a day of thanksgiving for the final adoption of the Constitution. Madison in 1815 had proclaimed a day of thanksgiving for the end of the War of 1812. And, because the impulse toward a harvest festival seems to have been eternally present in human nature, various individual states had had their own Thanksgiving Days.

That Virus Diagnosis Satisfies Most Patients

In the past year three members of our family, widely separated, have had what their doctors call "a virus." It seems to me the doctors are brainwashed on "virus" — when they don't know what the trouble is, just call it "virus" and shoot the patient full of penicillin . . . (C.W.F.) . . .

DR. BRADY

Ans. — Yahbut the customers go for that sort of thing, don't they?

. . . constant deep-seated pain between the shoulder-blades, which was worse after rest in bed . . . could hardly move my shoulders. Since I began using the iodin ration, no pain at all and feel better than I have for years . . . (Mrs. E. D. P.)

Ans. — You describe one of the typical manifestations of hypothyroidia, for which a suitable daily ration of iodin is specific. On request I'll send the FREE pamphlet "The Iodin Ration" to any reader who provides a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ans. — An electric razor is better, I think.

Where can I get barley water as recommended for the additive to . . .? I should like to have my druggist procure it for me, but he can't find any distributor . . . (C.C.)

Ans. — Boil a tablespoonful of barley (grain or pearl) in a quart of water for 20 minutes and strain — that is barley water. Your question reminds me of the reader who asked which druggist carried the somersaults Dr. Brady recommends.

Yahbut, try and find a doctor who will deliver at home. If you have a baby at home and call a doctor, he will send an ambulance to take you to the hospital — or else decline to be responsible and tell you to call someone else. (Mrs. M. J.)

Ans. — Evidently the doctors in your community think they have you over a barrel.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not diagnosis, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of People

Paul D. Bagwell Grateful for Election Support

I would like to avail myself of your Voice of the People column to thank the many people in your community who voted for me for governor in this past election.

★ ★ ★

It is a source of personal satisfaction to me that the people approved the program I presented on taxation and government reform even though I lost by a very narrow margin. In this respect, I believe that this was a constructive election campaign which accomplished a great deal of good for the general public interest.

★ ★ ★

It is impossible to thank each of 1.6 million voters personally, so I am taking this means to say "thanks for your help" to all those who voted for me. I am deeply grateful for the confidence they placed in me, and I hope now we all work together to make this a better state in which to work, to live and to raise our families.

Paul D. Bagwell

'State Institutions Are Not Up to Par'

While lack of money is one of the major reasons for inadequate facilities and personnel at state institutions, the more correct cause would be the public and administrative indifference to the kinds of treatment patients should be receiving.

Several weeks ago it took a brave woman from Royal Oak to air charges about the horrendous conditions at Lapeer, and it will take much more enlightenment as to the true facts about our state hospitals.

★ ★ ★

We have progressed from the term insane asylums to state hospitals, and so must we regard sick people there as having illnesses as serious as any organic disturbances afflicting physically-ill patients.

★ ★ ★

Twenty - five thousand people are confined to our six state institutions and nearly one million throughout the country live behind the silent, nameless and almost undefinable ailments known as "mental illness." These institutions are not so sacrosanct that they cannot be criticized, especially when they are caring for people who have no one to turn to except sometimes the arbitrary treatment and decisions of hospital authorities or even the antiquated treatment of lengthy confinement which serves only to intensify the illness.

★ ★ ★

In the name of decency and brotherly concern there will continue to be those who extend hands and words to lonely and depressed people who wait and hope for recovery and the return.

'Offers From Urban Renewal Unfair'

The taxpayers should be on guard when they face the urban renewal group that makes the offer that will move you from your home.

★ ★ ★

Why didn't they take Jack Habel's property at their price, and why did they not take the Union Hall? The homes on Bliss Street at City Hall's front door fall under the same category.

★ ★ ★

Let's fight for our rights. They have spent thousands of dollars for appraisals now. They must pay fair prices for the property, or duplicate the property at cost of building today.

Portraits

By JOHN C. METCALFE

When the juicy steaks are broiling . . . In the Gray Moss Inn . . . And to stars the smoke is rising . . . There are dreams within . . . Darling, don't be sad and lonely . . . In the amber glow . . . Of the lamplight all around you . . . For my love you know . . . When the pallid moon is shining . . . Through the towering trees . . . Do not fear a single moment . . . Only you he sees . . . For he knows that I am always . . . Somewhere near its wall . . . And will come to sit beside you . . . If your heart should call . . . So whenever you are present . . . In the Gray Moss Inn . . . And the smoke from steak arises . . . Look for dreams within.

Today is Saturday, Nov. 19, the 324th day of the year, with 42 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its first quarter.

The morning stars are Mercury and Mars.

The evening stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history

In 1831, James Garfield, 20th president of the United States, was born near Mentor, Ohio

In 1863 President Abraham Lincoln delivered the now famed Gettysburg Address at ceremonies dedicating the battlefield of Gettysburg, Pa., as a national cemetery.

In 1874, William Marcy Tweed, political boss of New York's Tammany Hall was convicted of defrauding the city of about $6 million.

In 1874, the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union was organized in Cleveland, Ohio.

In 1919, Congress rejected the Treaty of Versailles.

A thought for today: American poet John Greenleaf Whittier said: "Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest are these: "It might have been!"

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

No man has power to retain the spirit, or authority over the day of death; there is no discharge from war, nor will wickedness deliver those who are given to it.—Eccl. 8:8.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Transvestitism Afflicts Both Sexes

Girls, would you marry a man if you knew he secretly dressed up in female lingerie in the privacy of his own bedroom? This habit is called "transvestitism" and afflicts both women as well as men. Scrapbook this case for it applies to far more Americans than you would imagine.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE G - 430: Bill W., aged 34, is engaged to a young widow.

"Dr. Crane," she began, "I think Bill is wonderful. He has been very generous and kind to me.

DR. CRANE

"He was a very satisfactory mate to his first wife, who was a friend of mine. She died two years ago of cancer.

"But I have learned something this past month that makes me afraid. I have found out that Bill dresses up in women's clothing!

"In fact, I have several colored photos of him in women's flimsy dresses, plus silk hose and high heels!

"What is wrong with Bill? And would he be able to serve as a good husband?"

TRANSVESTITISM

This is not a rare case. Sometimes a woman will likewise affect male clothing. In fact, almost the whole female sex has gone in for slacks and male shirts!

But many men in the secrecy of their bedroom will cherish articles of female clothing, especially lingerie.

This seems very "sissy" to normal men. And it even lowers the romantic thrill of such males to their sweethearts.

"Dr. Crane," Bill's fiancee added later, "although Bill is quite normal in his ardor toward me, I have lost some of my respect for him as a man."

Often this transvestitism indicates a subconscious desire to identify oneself with the other sex.

Sometimes a rude father or tactless mother openly bemoans the fact the new baby is a boy.

"I wish he were a girl," may openly be said in his hearing even after he is old enough to understand.

The reverse is often true, for a man who has several daughters but no sons, may angrily remark of the last baby girl:

"I didn't want any more girls. I wish she were a boy."

The "victim" of such unfair parental attitudes may thus sense the yearning of the parents for the opposite sex.

So the victim may subconsciously try to change over into the category of the other gender.

Thus, the boy may affect feminine ways. Or the hated girl may become a tomboy, fishing pal, hunting companion and rough talking, whisky drinking partner of her Dad.

SEX SYMBOLS

Many auto erotic males thus thumb through mail order catalogs and generate excessive ardor via the pictures they see of girls modeling lacy lingerie, panties, etc.

Among adult homosexuals, the "female" of the two males generally dolls up in rouge, lipstick and female clothing.

But a lot of normally erotic males have been conditioned in childhood to relish the silken feel of stockings and women's lingerie, so transvestitism is not a sure sign of active adult homosexuality.

Bill, for example, functioned normally as a husband, yet he often dressed up in female apparel.

Our sexual habits are ALL learned reactions, so they can

Parke-Davis Company Established in Japan

TOKYO (UPI) — Parke-Davis & Co. of Detroit and the Japanese firm Sankyo Kabushiki Kaisha Friday announced establishment of a new pharmaceutical firm called Parke-Davis and Sankyo Kabushiki Kaisha.

In a joint statement, Harry J. Loynd, president of Parke-Davis, and Sankyo President Manpei Suzuki said a wide range of Parke-Davis antibiotics, vitamins, hormones and steroids will be manufactured in Japan.

The new company will be staffed and managed by Japanese personnel, with Parke-Davis supplying technical assistance, patents, trademarks and manufacturing specifications.

First federal gasoline tax was imposed in 1932.

Hospital Refuses Maternity Cases

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — Mount Clemens General Hospital ceased accepting maternity patients Friday after the death of one such patient with symptoms of meningitis.

Hospital officials said the illness remained to be verified by tests.

Three other women of 17 in the maternity ward were reported affected by similar symptoms although none was regarded as seriously ill.

John Zempke, medical administrator, said the results of tests might not be known before Monday.

Dr. Oscar D. Stryker, director of the Macomb County Health Department, said the hospital was cooperating fully with his office in the inquiry.

Joan's Keeping Active in Late Husband's Job

By EARL WILSON

HONOLULU — Joan Crawford Steele was busy in her penthouse in the morning, getting massaged, writing letters and reading her Bible . . . in the evening there'd be a gay dinner climaxed by Joan saying, "How about a midnight swim?"

WILSON

Joan Crawford Steele seemed to be leading a fascinating, whirlwind life that even Joan Crawford would have envied.

Joan sat on a divan, stirred a 100-proof vodka, which is her second favorite drink, and described how she has become good will ambassadress for that soft drink company which her late husband, Al Steele, headed when he died.

"The widow Steele is doing the most glamorous job of press-agenting I've seen," I had remarked to a company official. "I hope she's getting properly paid for it."

"No, I just think she's doing it for Al," he said.

Now I asked her if that's how it was. Joan's voice lowered. "Yes, I would think so." Her mood became very serious.

JOAN

She's a director, the holder of 1200 shares of stock, and she tells Herbert Barnet, president of the company, when she wants time off to do TV or a movie—still, she said, she isn't paid for her work.

"The last speech Alfred made," she said, "was in Washington thanking me for contributing so much to him as a man, and to the company.

"And so, continuing that is my job and my purpose in life."

"Do you think you might marry again?"

"I don't know. It's a very lonely existence . . . very lonely."

I asked about "Clipper" Squires, retired New York textile millionaire.

"I adore 'Clippery' she said, softly.

★ ★ ★

Joan sold her Hollywood home to Donald O'Connor, still has a small apartment in Loretta Young's Hollywood home Realty development—but the swank apartment at 2 East 70th in New York which she and Steele fitted out is her real home. She's there between acting chores.

Necessarily, Joan lives a lot on planes.

"I have my three poodles and I aways go TWA because they let me travel with my dogs," Joan said. "They know my dogs are well-behaved.

"I give them half a tranquilizer when I go to the airport. One sits here on this side, one here on the other side, and one on my lap. They're never any trouble."

EARL'S PEARLS: Automobiles continue to be driven at just two speeds—lawful and awful.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A good diamond will cut into almost anything—including a man's bank account.

★ ★ ★

WISH I'D SAID THAT: It's nice to have relatives visit occasionally for a short while. In fact, that's the best way.

Remember the fellow who used to conveniently forget his wallet? Well, he's changed. Now he forgets his credit card. That's earl, brother.

Reflections

J. L. VOORHEES

SMILES WIN

"I had added spice to a cake recipe," the lady began, "when the doorbell summoned me. I was angry. Ran to the door. As I expected a man stood there, with frayed cuffs, soiled hat, run-over shoes that shone, the epitome of failure — until he smiled. That smile! It struck me square, soaked up my anger. I felt drawn to him. He stammered. I laughed outright. He was so ill-at-ease and yet so obviously anxious to be sincere.

M. E. SIPLE

"'I'm so sorry to disturb you,' he began, looked at my hands. 'You're mixing a cake; I'll come back later.' Again that smile. 'I'm not a salesman,' came out as a sigh as he turned to go.'"

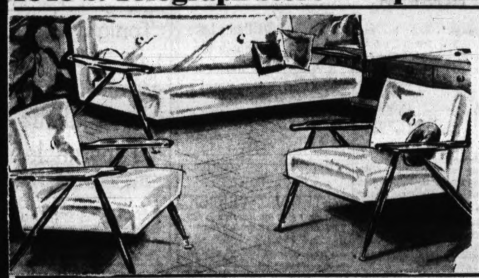

"Oh yes you are," I said, surprising myself. "You've sold me the value of a smile, made my day brighter, happier. I can buy whatever you have for sale anywhere but I can't buy what you have given me; wordless integrity." She smiled. "I bought another can opener."

Millions to Read 23rd Psalm

American Bible Society Sponsoring Program Through Christmas

In fifty countries, and in a score of languages, millions of people will read the 23rd Psalm on Thanksgiving Day to launch the annual observance of Worldwide Bible Reading.

★ ★ ★

The program, which runs to Christmas, is sponsored by the American Bible Society.

The program is one in which persons all over the world join in an act of spiritual unity by reading the same passage of the Bible each day during the holiday season.

★ ★ ★

Different passages are read as indicated in a list distributed by the society. More than 15,000,000 copies of the list are distributed each year.

President Eisenhower serves as honorary chairman of the program and former presidents Hoover and Truman are among its sponsors.

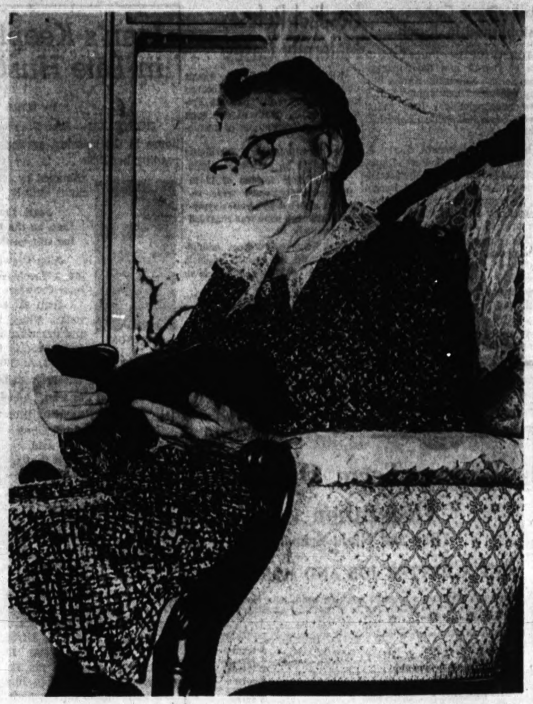

Worldwide Bible Reading, now in its 17th year, was born during World War II when a lonely Marine on Guadalcanal wrote his family in Philadelphia to suggest that close spiritual ties could be maintained by agreeing upon selected Bible passages in advance and reading the Scriptures daily. The society was asked to provide a reading list and did so.

The next year, officials decided to suggest the practice to others with relatives in the armed forces and the program subsequently grew into worldwide dimensions.

The list of readings, and the dates on which they are to be read, follows:

Nov.	24	Psalms 23:1-6
	25	Psalms 46:1-11
	26	Ephesians 6:1-24

	23	Philippians 3:7-21
	24	Luke 2:1-20
	25	John 1:1-18

Bookmarks carrying the suggested passages, with the listing of dates on which each is to be read, are available without charge from the American Bible Society, 450 Park Ave., New York 22, N.Y. A booklet containing the Christmas Story, designed for family reading on Christmas Eve, also will be sent without charge.

THANKFUL FOR FRIENDS—As Mrs. Franklin A. Peck of 2560 Silver Lake Road reads Mark, her favorite Book of the Bible, she considers her many blessings, health, home and a host of friends. She is also grateful that she lives in a peaceful country. Mrs. Peck who makes her home with a daughter, Sally, will be 93 years old in January.

Former Russian Minister Speaks at Church of God

The Rev. Peter Varonof, a former minister in Russia, will speak at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the First Church of God, 25 S. East Blvd.

"Communist plan to conquer the world by 1973," the guest speaker said.

"Their objective is complete domination of the entire world. The talk of peace by Communists today is only a scheme to lull the western nations into a false sense of security. They are talking peace yet they are building up the largest navy, army and air force in the world," he added.

Varnoff said he believes the Communists will some day attack the North American continent from the north. "Fifty-four miles from Alaska are 32 Russian divisions ready to establish a beachhead on our continent," he said.

The former Russian is sponsored by the Crusade for God and Freedom Inc., Cleveland, Ohio.

Need Christian Service in Heart of Big Cities

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Declaring that the "great frontier" of Christian service is right in the heart of large cities, the Rev. Dr. James H. Robinson of New York, told a Disciples of Christ convention here:

"In every one of our cities, churches are either making an insignificant impression upon the problems of sin and evil, or are seeking the first opportunity of flight to a more favorable environment."

'Stewardship' Sermon Theme

Canvassers Will Visit Congregation; Business Meeting Monday

Pastor Edmond I. Watkins of Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church will preach a sermon Sunday morning on stewardship entitled "Making a Difference in the World."

At 3 p.m. elders, deacons, trustees and other leaders will meet with canvass director Francis Oak to receive charts and assignments for the Every Member Canvass.

Callers will explain to members of the congregation the budget for 1961.

Canvassers will make no solicitations on their visits, since their work is to tell the people of the financial condition of the church.

The congregation will get together for a dinner meeting at 6 p.m. Monday. Mrs. Clifford Brown, chairman of the fellowship committee, will present a brief program.

Donald Johnson, chairman of the corporation, will conduct the business session and Mr. Oak will present the budget for adoption.

We have only to be patient and to pray, and to do His will, according to our present light and strength, and the growth of the soul will go on. The plant grows in the mist and under clouds as truly as under sunshine. So does the heavenly principle within. — Channing

Thus man is made equal to every event. He can face danger for the right. A poor, tender, painful body, he can run into the flame or the bullet or pestilence, with duty for his guide. — Emerson

As soon as we lay ourselves entirely at His feet, we have enough light given us to guide our own steps; as the foot soldier, who hears nothing of the councils that determine the course of the great which he must himself obey. — George Eliot

That which is often asked of God, is not so much His will and way, as His approval of our way. — Smiley

I would have you, one by one, ask yourselves, wherein do I take up the cross daily? — Pusey

Worship in New Church

Men of the congregation are doing all the work at an estimated cost of $25,000 for the present unit.

The Rev. Stanley A. Munroe, pastor, said savings on labor amounted to $14,000.

Sunday school is held at 10 a.m. each Sunday; morning worship at 11 o'clock; young people's service at 6 p.m.; and Sunday evening evangelistic service at 7:30.

The Rev. Mr. Munroe discussed plans for a Baptist church near Four Towns after a survey taken three years ago showed area residents were interested in the project.

The first service was held on Jan. 29, 1958 in the Four Towns School with 29 people attending.

Families joining in the organization included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rall and children, Carla and Bobby; Mrs. Clarence Nichol; Linda and Fern Davis; Mrs. J. D. Goodson; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Potts and daughter, Peggy; Mr. and Mrs. William Kane; Mrs. Don Hinds and daughter, Carol; and Jerry Dooley.

Other charter members were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil R. Pigg, Gary Clement, Judy Colan, Mrs. Irene Johnson, Mrs. Lowell Hunt, and the Rev. and Mrs. Munroe and children, Kathy and Ricky.

Land for the church was purchased in May 1959. A few months later in August men of the congregation started to work on the basement Saturdays and evenings.

The first service was held in the basement in October. Last Sunday members worshiped in the uncompleted sanctuary.

THE TEXT:
TRUST IN THE LORD WITH ALL THINE HEART AND LEAN NOT UNTO THINE OWN UNDERSTANDING. Prov. 3:5.
This text is taken from the Proverbs of Solomon, the man who is frequently called the wisest man that ever lived. I Kings 4:31. Independent of the Lord who said, BEHOLD A GREATER THAN SOLOMON IS HERE, Matt. 12:42. This text is not a mild request nor is it haphazardly spoken, but it is an admonition of wisdom backed by years of experience, careful consideration and deep meditation. It is a command which all men of all ages in all lands should be constrained to both heed and obey. It is a command of confidence. Here man is admonished, commanded and encouraged to TRUST IN THE LORD. The word TRUST means to rely or depend on or to put confidence in. IT MEANS TO REPOSE COMPLETE CONFIDENCE IN AND TO ACCEPT FULLY. Certainly now will arise that if the world today were to ACCEPT FULLY the Lord and PUT COMPLETE CONFIDENCE IN HIM we would make gigantic strides toward spiritual and religious unity and an attack would be declared against Satan and his works such as the world of today has never dared to think could be possible. In this mortal realm where: 1. Sickness is common. 2. Obstacles are many. 3. Temptations are great. 4. Satan pleasures existing. 5. Sin paramount. 6. Degeneracy evident. 7. Death inevitable. One should surely be constrained to TRUST IN THE LORD. Prov. 3:5, and OBEY HIM. Heb. 5:9, and LIVE SOBERLY, RIGHTEOUSLY, AND GODLY IN THIS PRESENT WORLD. Titus 2:12.
As trust involves confidence, one who trust in the Lord will not hesitate to do HIS WILL, Matt. 7:21, or obey his commands, for with complete assurance he knows the Lord will see him through. Is it not strange then that some put their trust in: MAN ..... when the Bible teaches . . . DON'T TRUST MAN, Psa. 118:8, Jer. 10:23. THE HIGH POSITIONED . . . when the Bible teaches . . . DON'T PUT CONFIDENCE IN PRINCES, Psa. 118:9. RICHES ..... when the Bible says . . . BE THAT TRUSTETH IN RICHES SHALL FALL, Prov. 11:28. STRENGTH AND WEAPONS ..... When the Bible teaches . . . I WILL NOT TRUST IN MY BOW, Psa. 44:6, SOLDIERS ..... when the Bible teaches . . . HE THAT TRUSTETH SELF IS A FOOL, Prov. 28:26. IDOLS ..... when the Bible teaches . . . HE WHO TRUSTS IN IDOLS SHALL BE ASHAMED, Isa. 42:17. Surely none should be trusted in save the Lord, for He: 1. Loves us—Jno. 13:13, 2. Is able to save to the uttermost—Heb. 7:26, 3. Our Mediator—I Tim. 2:5, 4. Our SAVIOR, LORD, REDEEMER, KING, TEACHER, GUIDE, MASTER, AND FRIEND, 5. Hath the words of eternal life—Jno. 6:68.
Would you trust Him? You cannot unless you are willing to heed His word and respect it to the end you will obey it, for to trust in the Lord is to obey His law, Pro. 28:9. The Lord commands us to HEAR THE TRUTH, Acts 15:7, BELIEVE THE TRUTH, Acts 15:7, REPENT OF SINS, Acts 3:26, CONFESS CHRIST, Acts 8:37, BE BAPTIZED (a burial in water for remission of sins), Acts 2:38, THUS IS OBEYING THE TRUTH. I Peter 1:22. BELIEVETH THOU THIS

Methodists Returning to Congo

More than half of the 110 Methodist missionaries evacuated from the Congo in July have returned to their posts, including almost all of the men and many single women. All Methodist stations again are being served by missionaries on either a full-time or visitation basis, it is announced by the Board of Missions.

Schools have been reopened at Methodist centers, some with record enrollments, the board notes.

Bishop Newell S. Booth reports to the board from Elisabethville that 56 Methodist missionaries are at work again in the Congo, including 16 men in the Central Congo Conference (principally Kasai Province), and 40 men and women in the Southern Congo Conference (Katanga).

In the Southern Congo, missionaries are at work at all of the stations. Missionaries of the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church are again serving at Elisabethville and Mulungwishi, and at some stations wives and children have rejoined their husbands.

Bishop Booth reports that thirteen new missionaries are at language schools just outside the Congo, learning Swahili preparatory to entering the country as soon as they can. Other new missionaries are studying in Europe prior to leaving for the Congo.

Twenty of the evacuated missionaries still are working or studying in Southern Rhodesia, awaiting their time for return.

Two other events which mark the return to vitality of Congo Methodism are the dedication of a major new medical facility, and the anticipated opening of the first Protestant theological seminary.

DEDICATES WARD

Bishop Booth recently dedicated a 35-bed ward at the Lambuth Memorial Hospital at Wembo Nyama, one of the largest Methodist Medical centers in Arica. All other units of the new hospital are in the last stages of completion and are to be dedicated in the near future. A missionary engineer who has given several years to the construction of the hospital, Alfred Burlbaugh of New Castle, Pa., was present for the dedication.

Planned to open in November, the new Protestant theological seminary in Elisabethville will provide training for African ministers on a higher level than ever before. Five denominations have joined in founding the seminary and three, Methodists, Presbyterians (U.S.) and Disciples, will furnish the first faculty members.

In addition to full-time beginning students, the seminary will train special students for one year and will give refresher courses of a few weeks' duration. Bishop Booth is chairman of the board.

In his latest report, Bishop Booth listed several needs which the Methodist Church faces in the Congo, including:

★ ★ ★

"A dynamic approach to evangelism and Christian nurture; creative, imaginary activities in education; expanded medical services and training; and know-how of modern agriculture and the multiplication of manpower by light mechanized machinery. Other needs are activity in literacy and literature; development of media of mass communication; sustained apin urban centers, and formation of truly Christian life.

★ ★ ★

"Increasingly it looks as though the Congo will need massive help from outside if the church here is to measure up to the challenge of need of the people and the call of Christ to meet that need."

HOW THE Federal Home Loan Bank System

HELPS US SERVE SAVERS AND BORROWERS AT ALL TIMES

What Is the Federal Home Loan Bank (FHLB) System?

This central reserve banking system was especially created by the federal government to establish a reserve line of credit for savings and loan associations. It is similar in structure to the Federal Reserve System for commercial banks. The FHLB operates through 11 regional banks, one of which serves the Michigan, Indiana area.

FHLB stock is owned entirely by member savings and home financing institutions. Today this central reserve banking system serves 4,501 savings and loan associations with combined assets of 60 billion dollars. During the life of the bank system, it has lent $9,200,788,633 to savings and loan associations and it has all been repaid without loss.

To Qualify For Membership

An association must pass rigid examinations by the regional FHL bank to check compliance with the statute and FHLB regulations. An association must prove stability and soundness of operation, competence and integrity of management.

Furthermore, to qualify for insurance of accounts, an association must maintain membership in the FHLB system.

Member Associations must meet Liquidity Requirements.

The FHLB sets a minimum liquidity that associations must maintain in cash and U. S. government bonds for the purpose of meeting the cash needs of savers. The current required liquidity ratio is 6% of savings capital. Pontiac Federal's current ratio is 12%.

Actually, Pontiac Federal regularly holds cash and securities more than sufficient to cover six months normal savings withdrawals. (This no commercial bank can ever do because a commercial bank normally pays out deposit withdrawals equal to its total deposits in about two weeks.)

Federal Supervision of Insured Associations

Comprehensive annual examinations are made by qualified FHLB examiners. Such important points are checked as: adequate reserve allocations, maintenance of required liquidity in cash and U. S. government bonds, and a careful and detailed review of all investments and loans authorized by the officers and directors during the year. An association must follow strict FHLB rules and regulations for sound operation.

FHLB offers a Reserve Line of Credit.

Member associations may borrow funds from their regional FHL bank and have a source of liquidity equal to 50% of their savings capital. In the case of Pontiac Federal, this figure amounts to $11,850,000.00 all of which is available for emergency savings withdrawals.

Through its membership in this reserve bank, an association has access to both short and long term advances especially designed to suit seasonal, cyclical and emergency needs. Advances are made on the security of mortgages pledged as well as on collateral consisting of U. S. government obligations. Thus the savings and loan system has liquidity and flexibility which enables it to serve the needs of both the saver and home-buying family.

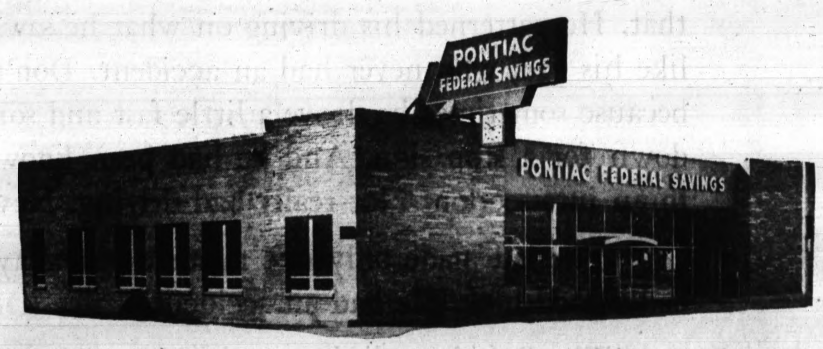

In view of these facts, no reasonable person can doubt Pontiac Federal's ability to honor withdrawal requests promptly in any amount. In fact, since founding in 1934, Pontiac Federal has paid every saver's withdrawal request, regardless of amount, "on demand".

FEDERAL HOME LOAN MEMBER BANK SYSTEM

This emblem displayed in offices and advertising of an association indicates membership of that institution in the FHLB system.

Obituary

The President died yesterday. He was 18 years old.

The people of this nation are not aware of their loss. Only a local newspaper carried the report.

The people will never know the void caused by his death. They will never read the newspaper accounts of his election to the Presidency. That event would have occurred in 1996.

The world will never honor the shrine erected to the memory of this man who would have led humanity to lasting peace and international understanding.

He had everything.

Nothing was being spared to make his education complete.

He was taught the rules of good behavior almost as soon as he could talk.

He played football and basketball and spent long hours of practice and study so that each play, each motion, was perfect in every respect.

This habit of practice and more practice, careful coaching and teaching was an essential and integral part of his life—in his school work, in religion and in play.

Of course all of these things were taught in part by his parents, but they recognized that he should have training by experts—by others more qualified. They recognized that these teachers were essential to give this bright-eyed lad the help and direction which would lift him out of mediocrity.

And the driving of an automobile? I guess no one thought of that. He patterned his driving on what he saw others doing — people like his dad, who never had an accident. Don't know why he didn't because sometimes he drove a little fast and sometimes he just slowed down for a stop sign. And he had been known to pass another car in an intersection. Not really bad driving. Never had an accident.

The lad made only one mistake yesterday. He did not have his dad's good luck. He had an accident.

The President died yesterday.

They're Knee Deep in Next Year's Fashion Swim

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Swim suits—the eye-popping bikini or the demure sheath — leave nothing to chance in their newest versions. All have figure beauty built right in.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

In Southern California, known as the swim suit capital of the world, designers are making even higher bids for fame this season with the most varied collections imaginable. Figure faults are endearingly camouflaged through designing techniques and strategic draping. Fabrics are swim-tested for perfect performance, resistant to anything under either sun or water.

Cole of California this season presents two entirely different types of swim suits for two kinds of women. For the woman of elegance he brings the "drawing room to the beach" in understated suits of subtle colors and charming nostalgic prints. And for the woman with the gypsy in her soul he offers a collection noted for boldness, daring and blazing colors.

NOT FOR CHEAPIES

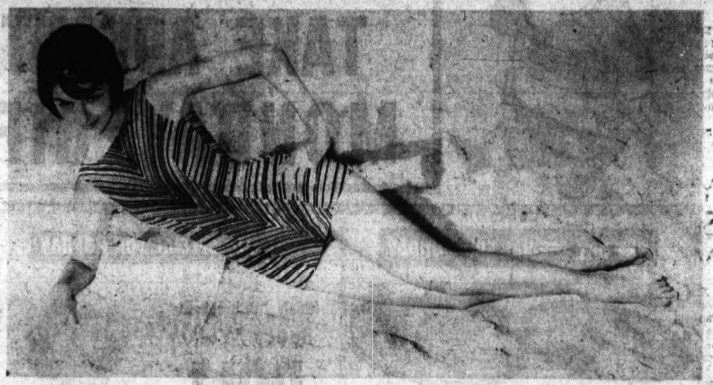

Not for penny pinchers are his bikini called "mad money", with both bra and wee shorts solidly covered with tinkling gold gypsy coins. Feverish stripes, and such colors as a fiery red called "bonfire", "hot-blooded violet," and "flaming tangerine" burst forth in a pyrotechnic display.

Swim suits in the Elisabeth Stewart collection, on the other hand, are the very quintescence of uncluttered, understated design. "Trimming," designer Betty says, "is like garlic. There should be just a hint."

One of the most important trends in dress fashions the lowered waistline and the long-torso silhouette are starred. Vastly figure flattering it is bound to win many friends. The most "extreme" version of this look is seen in her "flapper" suits with overblouses fitted and loosely belted over trim little shorts.

Mary Ann DeWeese presents her "water wonders" in rainbow colors, but no rainbow ever was so vibrant. The backless suit, called the "deep dip" fits flawlessly with her famous "stretch strap", which completely circles the neckline in a continuous design.

Rose Marie Reid gilds the lily with her softly draped sheath swimsuit with a single wide shoulder strap, in 24-carat gold on nylon tricot. She also gives an almost evening dress look to many of her suits with lace appliques, jeweled touches and insets of shining gold.

A high neckline belies the low back of Rose Marie Reid's supersonic design. Its bold black and white, or brilliant blue and white print is borrowed from the pattern of sonic waves. In lightweight woven Helanca, it has a stark sheath silhouette and contains a special "circolair" bra designed for use with weightless fabrics.

Ladylike elegance is projected in Rose Marie Reid's limited edition swimsuit. White nylon lace over nude is used in the decollete bodice which tops the satiny sheen of black vyrene. A lace jacket (not shown) completes the regal ensemble, ideal for the cruise season.

This draped shimmering satin lastex suit (at left) is printed with romantic orchids in tones of brown with topaz or violet with green. The neat bra and slightly longer length shorts of the suit at right gives a trim tailored simplicity to the fully lined cotton plaid gingham. Both designs are from Catalina's 1961 swimwear collection.

Inspiration for this gracefully draped white Arnel jersey swimsuit was the drapery of a Greek goddess. It has an undersheath of elasticized bengaline and the waist is encircled with a 14 karat gold and jet jersey band. From the collection of Rose Marie Reid.

No Paris Gowns, She Promises

Fashion-Plate Jackie Sets Capital Agog

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON: Capital society matrons — particularly those who have brave expectations of White House invitations in the Kennedy regime — are taking a hard new look at their wardrobes and their checkbooks.

Haute monde fashion, which has little concerned most distaff members of Washington's elite during the past few presidential administrations, is suddenly becoming only slightly less important than Berlin, Quemoy and Matsu.

The next First Lady, for the first time since the aging President Cleveland brought a young and glamorous bride to the White House, is certain to be a pace-setter in fashion.

Jacqueline Kennedy's tastes run strictly to "le dernier cri." Not for her are the tried and true styles that, after a season or so, begin to look almost normal to the husbands who write the checks.

★ ★

She is daring—she was virtually the only Washington society woman to buy and wear a sack evening dress—and she has a flair for knowing what is "right" for her individual type.

SHE KNOWS

Stylewise, indecision plays no part in Jackie's make-up. In an interview with this correspondent, she said frankly: "I know what I look best in."

★ ★

She should. She studied at the Sorbonne, won the Prix de Paris Fashion Award for her sketches and creative designs, and might have had a career in that field.

Talking with this writer recently in her drawing room, she confided: "The only way to be correctly dressed is to be ruthless. Keep your wardrobe small but right; wear it out in a single season. Discard it. Left-over dresses never look well the next year."

★ ★ ★

Her wardrobe will obviously now be expanded for White House affairs of state, ship christenings, charity teas, and all the other multitudinous chores which settle on a president's wife. Fortunately, as the wife of a multimillionaire, she can afford the additional expense.

NO LEFT-OVERS

Just before the election, she described her wardrobe to me as "really very small." She said that each spring and fall she buys a suit, a coat, two wool dresses, two afternoon dresses and an evening gown.

★ ★ ★

"Each must be absolutely perfect for what it is," she said, "and in that way you are always correctly groomed. I wear my clothes very hard, and try to avoid having any left-overs."

★ ★ ★

At that time she proudly admitted that her wardrobe included several French gowns from the best Parisian designers. That would all be changed, she added, if Jack should win the election. Her reasoning was this:

"Until now, it was nobody's business whether I wore French gowns. Should I have an official position, I will wear only American clothes."

★ ★ ★

If she keeps that promise, the public can be assured that whichever couturiers she favors will suddenly have a flourishing business on their hands.

★ ★ ★

Periodic Checks Correct Flaws

Take a Look at Yourself

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

If you want to become your most attractive self (and what woman doesn't?) it is essential that you look at yourself objectively and check yourself periodically.

* * *

There always are defects we can improve and often these happen to us or slip up on us before we realize it.

If you are going to check yourself here are some of the things to put on your list. What about your hair? Have you neglected it?

Would you profit by a new hair style or rinse or tint? Do you have it shampooed and set often enough to keep it well groomed?

LUBRICATE COMPLEXION

Your complexion: Do you cleanse it regularly twice a day? Do you lubricate it daily? This is one of the greatest aids if you are serious about remaining youthful in appearance as long as possible.

What about your make-up? This can make a tremendous difference in the way you look. Experiment. Don't use the same thing just because you started using it years ago.

Be sure your powder has the right tone. Avoid a white, powdered look. Your powder should be one shade darker than your natural coloring.

Check and experiment with colors in lipstick and rouge. If you have not tried eye make-up, learn to use it subtly.

Observe your posture in a full-length mirror. You will look old at 30 if you slump and droop and shuffle along. Good posture gives the impression of youth at any age.

Measure your bust, waist, abdomen and hips. Measure straight around the body at the fullest part of the bust, at your natural waistline, around the largest part of your abdomen and hips.

If you find that you are out of proportion begin special exercises for the spot you wish to reduce or build up.

Let these suggestions act as a skeleton for a more detailed, individual chart. I think you will find this fun because having definite goals adds zest to a beauty routine.

If you would like to have my exercises for waist or abdomen or hip-slimming, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 5. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

YWCA Seeking Members

A drive for 300 memberships in the Pontiac Young Woman's Christian Association has been announced by Mrs. Robert S. Nelson of Ottawa Drive, membership chairman.

"Since one-third of the basic membership fee of $1.50 goes to the National YWCA of the United States, which in turn shares these fees with the world YWCA, it is necessary for us to have 1,000 active adult memberships by the end of the year in order to keep our commitments to the national Y," Mrs. Nelson said.

"Shared fees have a real meaning to members of the local YWCA," she added, "because through reciprocal membership they can feel they are a member in any YWCA in the United States and, in fact, almost anywhere in the world."

The Pontiac YWCA draws its members from an area which includes Waterford, Drayton Plains, Birmingham, Rochester, Clarkston, Milford, Farmington and a few more distant areas.

Young married women who attend the varied classes offered (their preschool children are cared for in the Y nursery) and Golden Agers from 65 to 95 years of age, comprise the greatest bulk of the adult membership. There are also some 400 Y-Teens in junior and senior high school clubs in the area.

Participating in the membership drive are Mrs. Robert A. Armstrong, Mrs. J. L. Bennett, Mrs. Myron Buck, Avis Carey, Maude Chambers, Mrs. Harold Euler, Mrs. Charles Harmon, Mrs. B. B. Kimball and Mrs. J. Allan Parker.

Others are Alice Serrell, Mrs. Maynard Slater, Norma Strickland and Mrs. C. George Widdifield.

The current campaign will close Nov. 28 when the augmented committee meets at 8 p.m. in Mrs. Nelson's home.

He also attended Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn. and has studied at Manchester University in England.

Sue Harris Married in Waterford

A reception in the Italian-American Club followed the nuptials of Rebecca Sue Harris and Edward N. Aninos solemnized by the Rev. John L. Phelan Saturday in Our Lady of the Lakes Church, Waterford.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Harris of Deland Road, Drayton Plains, the bride appeared in a gown of traditional white satin. Medallions of Alencon lace accented the scoop-neckline of the molded bodice and were set into the floor-length skirt.

Fingertip veiling of French illusion was secured by a diadem of seed pearls and sequins. A white orchid centered a spray of white rosebuds atop the bride's prayer book.

* * *

Gail Winter of Waterford Township performed the duties of best man for the bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas P. Aninos of David K Drive, Drayton Plains. Seating some 200 guests were the bridegroom's brother Nicholas and Terrance Ball.

Brown accessories complemented Mrs. Harris' soft gold sheer wool sheath dress, chosen for her daughter's wedding. The mother of the bridegroom, attired in an avocado green knit suit, selected black accessories. Both mothers wore cymbidium orchids.

Leaving for a Southern Michigan honeymoon, the new Mrs. Aninos was wearing a deep lavender knit sheath dress and purple accessories.

Abby Blames Husband

Discuss the Problem Freely, He Might Change His Mind

BY ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: When my husband goes out of town he makes sure our car is never left at home for me to use. He doesn't come right out and say he doesn't want me to have it, but he either leaves it with his brother (who has a car of his own) or else he promises it to "one of the boys" at the office.

ABBY

I've never had an accident or a ticket, so he doesn't have to worry about that.

And I've never given him any cause to doubt me or to be jealous. Why does he do this, and how can I change him?

DISCOURAGED

DEAR DISCOURAGED: Your husband's insecurity is showing. In the "old days" men would keep their wives pregnant or barefoot to make sure they didn't stray. Today, they remove the "wheels."

Bring the subject out into the open and discuss it freely. Once he's gained self-confidence he'll leave you the car.

DEAR ABBY: I am what is known as a "brain." I always get straight As. This may sound wonderful, but it isn't. The other kids are so jealous, they shun me . . . even the smart kids. I try to be friendly and never brag about my grades, but the resentment is always there. I would like to have some friends, but I am not going to get poor grades on purpose to do it.

THE BRAIN

DEAR BRAIN: Face it. There are plenty of "brains" who have lots of friends. If you are disliked generally, there must be another reason. Use some of that brain power to figure out why.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Please advise me if I was right or wrong for accepting a diamond ring from a man who, at the time, was still married, claimed he was going to get a divorce, but instead was trying for a reconciliation with his wife. We have nothing to do with each other any more. Am I right in keeping the ring, or should I return it to him?

TYLER

DEAR TYLER: You were wrong to accept the ring under those circumstances. Return it.

DEAR ABBY: That foolish girl who whined because she has to wear braces on her teeth in high school doesn't know when she's well off. I am 13 years old and will have to wear a 14-pound brace on my back for the rest of my life.

10 Ways to Save Money

1. Deal only with firms whose dependability can be established by intelligent inquiry.
2. Be sure the salesman represents the company he claims to represent.
3. Don't sign papers before you understand the terms and conditions of the sale.
4. Before you sign, be sure that the name and address of the firm is printed on the contract.
5. If promises are made verbally, be sure that they are represented in substance in the contract.
6. Retain a copy of the contract.
7. When you are satisfied that the job is completed, only then should you sign a completion certificate.
8. Pay your bill by check or money order made out to firm. Don't pay cash to a salesman unless you get a bonafide receipt bearing the name of the company he represents.
9. Compare price quotations with those of other firms.
10. Beware of inferences that because a loan is insured by a Government agency the agency guarantees material and workmanship.

He Played Rough in Movies, Gentle With Pals... This Gable

(Editor's Note: This is another in a series of three dispatches on the legend and life of Clark Gable, dealing with the man behind the myth which made him one of the greatest stars in movie history.)

By VERNON SCOTT

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Clark Gable was a paradox—bolsterously rough - and - ready to millions of movie - goers, but a quiet, almost introspective man to those who knew him.

Though he played self-assured, brash roles in pictures, the very essense of dashing independence, the handsome leading man desperately sought security most of his life.

His two marriages to women many years his senior (Josephine Dillon and Rhea Langham) and his record - breaking tenure at Metro - Goldwyn - Mayer studios — long after stars of his stature had struck out on their own — were evidence of Gable's quest for a sheltered, secure life away from movietown's razzle-dazzle.

The actor played gregarious characters on the screen, but in real life he had few intimate friends.

Those who were close to the handsome leading man were fiercely loyal. He was one of the finest men I have encountered in or out of the motion picture industry.

★ ★ ★

Gable was outspoken about issues, but scrupulously avoided discussing personalities. Rarely was he disposed to say anything unkind, and conversely few are those who had a bad word for Clark.

★ ★ ★

His first love was the movies. He spoke out against film stars appearing on television, saying such performers were destroying motion pictures. He vowed never to appear on TV, and kept his promise.

MARRIED 5 TIMES

Though he was married five times, Gable was held in such high esteem by the picture industry and the public he never gained the reputation of such flamboyant contemporaries as Errol Flynn and Tyrone Power.

As much as possible the rugged star avoided publicity and the limelight.

"Heck," he said, "you've got to keep your balance in this business. The minute you start taking yourself seriously you're in trouble."

★ ★ ★

Clark had the happy faculty of being able to kid himself. But whenever possible he channeled conversation to other subjects. The man with the "Great Lover" reputation was far more at ease among men than with the opposite sex.

Only once during his life did Clark leave the shell of self-conscious semiseclusion. That was during his brief marriage to Carole Lombard.

The extroverted glamour girl liked parties and people. Gable's great love for his third wife overcame his own reticence to mingle with the movie colony. They became the King and Queen of Hollywood.

Following Carole's tragic death in an airplane crash in 1942, the jaunty Gable of the screen retreated to his solitude, played golf and read vociferously.

RANK OF MAJOR

Seven months later he joined the Army as a buck private and rose to the rank of major before being discharged.

Back in Hollywood his fellow workers gave him a standing ovation when he returned to MGM Studios, and the moguls cast him opposite Greer Garson. The country was flooded with ads proclaiming, "Gable's back and Garson's got him."

But a series of mediocre pictures did not live up to his prewar record at the box office. The results hurt and confused the actor, causing him to withdraw even more to his estate in Encino.

A fourth marriage, to Lady Sylvia Ashley, lasted only a few months, and the 'King' of the movies still was without the security he sought.

He had no family, no children and his career had hit the doldrums. And at one time he attempted "temporary" retirement.

Then, in 1955, the man with the big grin and warm appeal changed his life abruptly.

MARRIED KAY

He severed his 20-year ties with MGM to free lance, and he married Kay Williams Spreckels, his fifth wife. At last he found the peace and security he had sought for so long. Kay's children — Adolph, 11, and Joan, 9 — gave him a ready-made family.

"I am a very happy man," he told me recently, "and for the first time I'm enjoying the wonders of being a father. I feel as if they were my kids. It's fun raising youngsters at this stage of life. Everything is new to them. And seeing things through their eyes gives me a fresh outlook on life, too."

The crowning bit of happiness in the actor's life was last summer's news that he was to become a father. He was ecstatic with the thought of parenthood.

Those who know Clark Gable best mourn the fact that his child will never know the warmth of his smile, the gentle good judgment of its father.

Finds New Evidence Linking Fidel to Reds

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP)—The Costa Rican government announced Friday it had new evidence of a link between Nicaraguan rebels and agents of Cuba's Fidel Castro and international communism.

★ ★ ★

The government made the announcement in deporting Virgilio Vega, a Nicaraguan opposition leader, to Honduras. It said documents found in Vega's possession showed a Castro-Communist connection.

The government deported Carlos Urcuyo, another Nicaraguan opposition leader Thursday after announcing similar documents had been found in his possession.

State Police Head Will Retain Position

LANSING (UPI) — Joseph A. Childs will continue in his position as state police commissioner next year, Governor-Elect John B. Swainson said.

Swainson said he asked the commissioner to "continue the same kind of complete, honest law enforcement policies" in operation in the past years.

Feb. 1 Last Overseas Date

AF Kin Must Stay Home

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force has taken the first concrete step to carry out President Eisenhower's order to reduce the number of wives and children living overseas with American servicemen.

The Eisenhower order is aimed at curbing a heavy flow of gold from this country.

The Air Force Friday set a deadline of next Feb. 1 for overseas travel orders for dependents of its uniformed personnel.

★

After that date, the Air Force said, those going to overseas assignments must go without their families.

The Air Force said exceptions "will have to be granted for humanitarian considerations, hardships and peculiarities of selected Air Force units."

Secretary of the Navy William B. Franke said detailed Navy plans are now being prepared to carry out the gradual reduction of overseas dependents.

Army Secretary Wilber M. Brucker, for the second day in a row, Friday implied that the order might serve to weaken American military effectiveness abroad.

Brucker told a Retired Officers Association convention the presence of service families overseas is evidence to friend and foe that U.S. "forward strategy is not a fly-by-night arrangement." Previously he had expressed concern over the effect of the order on morale of overseas troops.

Racket Nipped in Tokyo

TOKYO (AP) — A man who made a racket out of teasing dogs into biting him and then collecting damages from their owners was sentenced Friday to a year in jail. The Tokyo District Court found Yoshio Itsuki, 35, guilty of collecting a total of $73.33 from nine dog owners this year. The 10th he tried his racket on called the police.

Convention Loss Shocks Mayor

Detroit Lacks Hotel Space

DETROIT (UPI) — There was general agreement today in Detroit that the Motor City needs more hotel space if it is to be a convention city and make the fullest use of Cobo Hall.

The American Legion executive committee in Indianapolis announced Friday that it had withdrawn the 1962 convention from Detroit because of lack of hotel space.

Mayor Louis C. Miriani said he was "flabbergasted" by the decision which apparently will cost the city some $8 million in convention revenue.

He added, however, that he would do anything he could to reverse the decision but he didn't know what could be done.

"This is new evidence that we need a new hotel," the mayor said. "I've always maintained we could use another one."

The legion group indicated that of 5,524 rooms offered in Detroit only about 4,500 were considered satisfactory.

★ ★ ★

Some hotel owners said more rooms wouldn't have made any difference and said that Detroit hotels are never overtaxed.

Politician or Professor? Bagwell Faces Decision

EAST LANSING (AP)—Politician or professor?

Republican Bagwell has got to make up his mind pretty soon, indicated Michigan State University President John A. Hannah Friday.

Bagwell currently is on leave from MSU — his fourth leave from his $15,500-a-year job as director of scholarships.

Then Bagwell ran unsuccessfully — but led his ticket — as the Republican candidate for auditor general and twice for governor.

He has announced he will never again seek political office.

But the pressure is on Bagwell to remain as titular head of the Republican party in Michigan.

There always is the thought that Gov.-Elect John B. Swainson might goof, and not be as strong as six-term Gov. G. Mennen Williams — then Bagwell could coast in on an "I told you so" ticket.

★ ★ ★

But Hannah said:

"When he comes back — if he wants to come back — it has to be on a full-time basis. There will be no more leaves. We are thinking in terms of expanding the job, but we want the man on the job full-time."

Hannah said the leave given Bagwell this time was indefinite and added he would like a commitment before the spring term.

"I haven't made up my mind," said Bagwell, contacted at his "Bagwell-for-Governor" headquarters.

Bagwell explained his supporters had set up a trust fund to match his former MSU salary, good to the end of the year.

"Then I'm on my own," he said. "I want to study, travel and rest. I'm thinking of going down to Mexico and doing some research on those ruins."

County Elector Won't Switch

Snubs 'Bama Lawyer's Letter Suggesting He Reconsider Ballot

The South could be rising, again today.

A Montgomery, Ala., attorney, R. Lea Harris, hoped that his letters to presidential electors throughout the nation would turn out a large enough group in his hometown "to give the South a greater influence in national affairs."

One elector, Zigmund J. Niparko, Ferndale school teacher, won't be there.

"My unqualified vote is still for John F. Kennedy in Lansing on Dec. 19," Niparko said. He is one of Michigan's 20 Democratic electors who will meet then to cast their ballots for Kennedy.

★ ★ ★

Harris, 41, lists three plans in letters to Niparko and other electors which are attempts to force Kennedy to make concessions in party policies if electors hand him their votes.

One plan would reverse the position of Kennedy and Vice President-Elect Lyndon B. Johnson, making Johnson president and Kennedy vice president.

"No statesman from the 11 southern states has been president since Civil War days," Harris said. "Thus, for over 100 years, no man from the South, which is almost one-third of the nation, has had the privilege of occupying the presidential chair."

Harris reportedly sent the letters to both Democratic and Republican electors. Oakland's GOP elector Dr. John P. Wood was out of town and unavailable for comment.

Harris' first plan would assure Kennedy the electoral votes of the 11 southern states of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Tennessee, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas if he would "adjust" a foreign policy which Harris said, gives financial assistance to Communist countries.

Questions Recall of Dependents

Presence of Service Families Overseas Is Backed by Brucker

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army Secretary Wilber N. Brucker said Friday the presence of service families overseas provides persuasive evidence to friend and foe that U.S. "forward strategy is not a fly-by-night arrangement."

★ ★ ★

In a speech to the Retired Officers Association convention, Brucker also said the presence of these American families "helps immeasurably to stimulate and sustain the spirit of our allies" and is "persuasive evidence that we are not trying to play it safe but are willing to take the same risks that they take — that we are staying, come what may."

★ ★ ★

For the second time in as many days, Brucker was in effect publicly questioning the wisdom of the Eisenhower administration's decision to reduce the number of military dependents overseas.

In his first comment Wednesday, Brucker implied concern that it might weaken morale and fighting capabilities.

★ ★ ★

The pentagon has said the new order will not force extensive separations of military families now overseas.

Jack Gains in Recount

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Bexar County Republican leaders asked a recheck of the 423 voting machines used in the Nov. 8 general election here. In the first day of the recheck Friday, the Kennedy-Johnson Democratic ticket gained 50 votes on their 11,369-vote margin.

Wayne State University donated $18,750 for the Institute of Labor and Industrial Relations, a joint operation of the two universities.

Blind Couple Deliver Baby at Their Home

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Albert Lehcool is almost blind. So is his wife, Drenice. Yet they managed to deliver their 6-pound, 7-ounce daughter at home Friday without the aid of a doctor.

"I didn't do much," commented Lemcool, 25, who has had no previous experience at baby delivery.

Lemcool, an X-ray darkroom worker, and his wife, 22, had been expecting the baby for three weeks. It arrived at 3 a.m.

The parents, who met at the Saginaw Institute for the Blind, have been married four years and have a two-year-old daughter.

Lemcool has 21 per cent vision. His wife is able to see to a distance of about six inches.

Pay Hike Due Steelworkers

Contact Provides for Increase Dec. 1; Price Change Uncertain

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Basic steelworkers get a contract pay raise Dec. 1, heightening speculation whether the industry will boost steel prices to cover increased payroll costs.

★ ★ ★

Top management executives who must make the final decision aren't discussing their plans in public. But so far there has been no indication of any impending price changes.

A. B. Homer, president of Bethlehem Steel Corp., said recently his company would make a careful study of the price situation after the Steelworkers' wage increase goes into effect.

Some 464,000 members of the United Steelworkers Union will receive pay hikes ranging from 7 to 13 cents an hour, depending on job classification. Next Oct. 1 hourly wages will go up 7 to 10 cents.

The pay raises, plus various fringe benefits, were provided in last January's contract settlement that followed a 116-day strike. The current average hourly rate is $3.11.

★ ★ ★

For the past five months the basic steel industry has been operating generally between 50 and 55 per cent of capacity. Prospects are dim for any significant production upturn in the next few months.

★ ★ ★

Because of this slowdown and the poor outlook, most sources close to the industry expect no immediate price hikes.

Car Accident Kills Dad, 6 Children

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP) — A Minnesota pastor and the six children he was caring for while his wife attended a school play were killed Friday night when his car slammed into a concrete bridge abutment.

"The worst I've ever seen and it makes it more terrible because of the children," said Sheriff Gerald E. Cunningham.

"It looked like that car had been cut down the middle by a giant pair of shears."

Killed were the Rev. John Eastman, 28, and all his children — Pamela, 7, Mary, 5, James, 4, Carol 3, Thomas 2, and John about 10 months.

The crash came on a county road near Dover, 15 miles east of here, as Eastman was driving the children to visit the family of a fellow pastor at Plainview.

The sheriff reported the impact drove the concrete bridge shaft about eight feet into the car pushing the instrument panel into the rear seat.

Eastman was thrown from the car. The children were mangled within it. Wreckers had to be called before all the bodies could be removed. The pastor died in an ambulance on the way to a Rochester hospital. A passing motorist found the wreckage.

Prof Says Debates Won for Jack

DETROIT (UPI)—Had the presidential election been held three weeks earlier, Vice President Richard M. Nixon today would be president-elect, possibly the victor by a landslide vote, a University of Michigan election researcher maintains.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Warren Miller of the university's survey research center said Friday Republican Nixon would have easily beaten Democratic President-Elect John F. Kennedy if election day were Oct. 15.

"While we haven't yet gotten into our study of this year's election," Miller told the International Labor Press Association's convention, "I suggest that if the vote had been taken on Oct. 15, Nixon would have won 3-2."

Miller said voters knew only two things about Kennedy when the campaign opened — that he is a Catholic and a Democrat.

"However," said Miller, "during the campaign — particularly in his television debates with Nixon — he was articulate, forceful and demonstrated he had a phenomenal grasp of many of the problems facing the nation.

'Unlike many presidential races which are decided before they start, the campaign made all the difference this year."

McConnells Come to Eastover Estates From Indiana

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

About a year ago the Earl McConnell family moved from South Bend, Indiana to the Pontiac area. With their 13-year-old daughter, Pat and their 9-year-old son, Bruce, they now occupy a house in Eastover Estates. That's in the Square Lake Road and Squirrel Road neighborhood.

Their home, built by Ardmore Building Company of Birmingham, was six months old when they bought it. It's a pink brick house with white board and batten trim and black shutters. At one end is a large attached garage. The lot covers half an acre.

* * *

You walk through the front hall to the living room at the back of the house. A picture window and double louvered doors take up much of the outside wall. The doors which are a change from the usual sliding glass ones are painted to match the walls and have pink and white porcelain knobs.

Beige carpeting is used in the living room, hallway and bedrooms. Living room walls are a pale loden green. Although the fireplace wall is paneled, it is painted the same green.

At one end of the room is a flowered sofa, flanked by twin cherry lamp tables. Next to the fireplace is a cherry chair with pink upholstery. A pair of beige arm chairs is placed in front of the window with a low cherry coffee table between.

PINK, PINK

Above the Philippine mahogany cupboards there is strip lighting. Oven, range, dishwasher, telephone and accessories are all pink.

The paper in the breakfast room is gold and white. One wall has storage behind louvered doors. The wall next to the front vestible has opaque ribbed glass in the upper part with shelves on the breakfast room side.

The breakfast set is bronze-tone with beige upholstery. A gold line in this plastic repeats the gold in the wallpaper.

In the family room the cork-tone tile floor is several shades of tan. Three walls are paneled; the fourth one, holding a fireplace and barbecue unit, is pink brick. There are two levels to the raised hearth, both of which are capped with stone.

The sofa has an interesting covering. The background is beige linen. Drawings of paperweights in green, aqua and gold are scattered over it. Two turquoise chairs have been ordered, but still haven't been delivered.

Pat, on the other hand, has short white curtains under a chintz ruffle. Her walls are gold. Blue chintz slipcovers the little chair. Furniture is maple.

In the master bedroom the walls are the same green as the living room. Draperies are white. There are gold spreads on the mahogany twin beds.

Can Keep Ceiling Paint Off Side Walls With Care

There are several different ways to prevent the wall color from getting in the ceiling when painting, and these same methods will work when adjacent walls are of a different color.

It is best to paint the ceiling first so that any splatters will not land on your newly painted walls. If latex paint, which does not show lap marks, is being used, the first step is to paint a narrow strip all around the perimeter of the ceiling where it meets the walls.

If you use a brush, protect the walls with pieces of cardboard—the kind laundries use for men's shirts—or with handy metal strip known as the painter's time-saver. Be sure the under surface of the guard is free of paint when you move it to a new location.

Even easier are edging rollers which are so constructed that it is impossible to deposit paint on the wall while the strip is being applied to the ceiling, and vice versa.

If a latex paint is not used, the procedure is slightly different. The walls are protected in the same way, but instead of painting all around the perimeter, paint two-foot strips across the width of the room. Paint from a dry area into a wet one and overlap the strips slightly. This technique prevents lap marks.

Once the ceiling is thoroughly dry—an hour or less for latex paints and several hours for alkyd paints—you are ready to tackle the walls. Here the procedure is just the reverse of that described above. The ceiling is protected by the cardboard or metal time-saver, and the paint is applied to the walls.

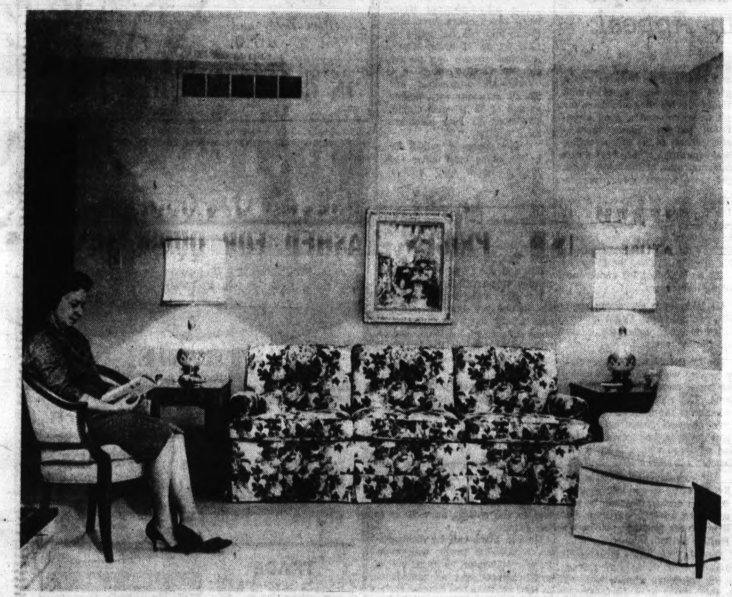

Again, if the latex is being used, it is possible to paint a strip all around the perimeter of the walls and then complete the job. If non-latex paint is used, paint an area about two feet wide and work down to the baseboard. Move the ladder and repeat.

Of course, if the edging roller is used, then the cardboards and metal guard are unnecessary.

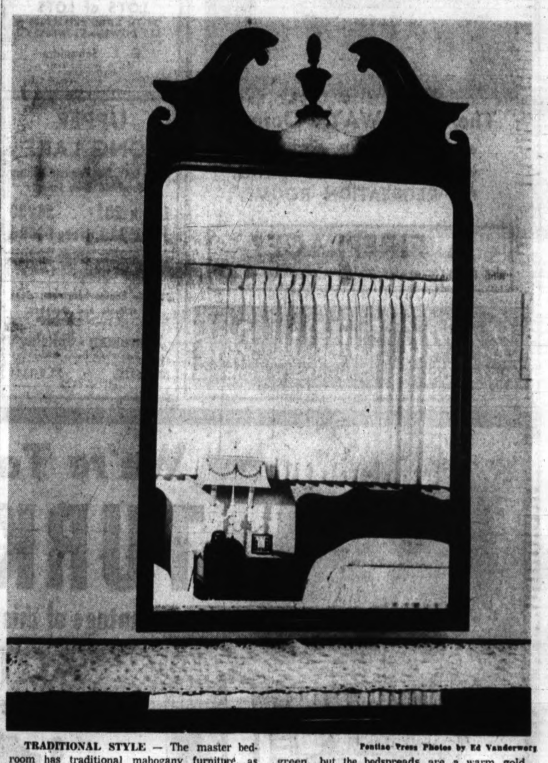

The same principle applies when painting two walls that meet at right angles and which are to be of a different color. Using the cardboard, guard, or edging roller, to protect the already painted wall (after making sure it is thoroughly dry), apply a narrow strip of the second color to the adjacent wall.

An entirely different method of getting a clean line between the two areas is through the use of masking tape. Be sure to apply it in a straight line. While paint will not penetrate the tape, take care that you do not apply the paint so generously that it goes over the tape and onto the unprotected adjacent surface. Remove the tape when the paint is nearly dry.

Since most of us have difficulty working overhead, the tape is better used only on the horizontal wall surfaces and not the ceiling.

GREEN AND PINK — Mrs. McConnell is happiest when she has some pink in her decorating scheme. The chair in which she is sitting has a soft pink upholstery, intensified by its position against green walls. There is pink in the sofa covering. The chair at the right is beige. Lamps have an attractive gold design on the white bases.

TRADITIONAL STYLE — The master bedroom has traditional mahogany furniture, as seen in this mirror shot. The walls are a cool green, but the bedspreads are a warm gold. Curtains are white.

Pontiac Press Photos by Ed Vanderwerp

SMALL SCALE — The little spinet piano fits well into this part of the living room. Near it is the cherry drop leaf table — Provincial style. The chairs have an interesting design on the back. Those two pictures over the table are oriental; they depict spring and summer. A drop ceiling fixture furnishes adequate light for dining.

EASTOVER ESTATES — This contemporary ranch home is in Eastover Estates. It is owned by the Earl McConnells who moved here from Indiana a little over a year ago. Ardmore Building Company of Birmingham constructed the pink brick house. Trim is white board and batten. Shutters are black.

Treat Driftwood

Folks who vacation by the sea can enjoy the fun of collecting driftwood. After the driftwood has been allowed to dry thoroughly in a warm room for a few weeks, you can enhance its appearance by sanding and applying a coat of stain or clear varnish. Driftwood looks very decorative on mantels and shelves, and can also be used to make novel lamp bases and stands.

Paint Over Burns

You can camouflage cigarette burns on rugs and carpets with a little flat paint of the same color. There are so many paint colors available, you can easily find a matching shade.

FLOOR PLAN
B-39

FLOOR PLAN — Note how handy kitchen is to front door, with foyer linking up the three main sections of the house.

RURAL CHARM — The homespun appeal of the American farmhouse characterizes this three-bedroom ranch. While the exterior harks back to an earlier day, the interior is arranged to bring all modern conveniences to the assistance of the housewife.

Farmhouse Ranch Style Has Homespun Appeal

By DAVID L. BOWEN

"Farmhouse ranch" is the name Architect Samuel Paul applies to the style of this graceful, inviting home designed to simplify housekeeping for the housewife and to create a haven for the pursuit of rest, recreation and family togetherness.

It doesn't have any gimmicks; its straightforward design revolves around the requirements of the average American family looking for a three-bedroom home. An attempt has been made to get an especially harmonious relationship between house and land, an essential characteristic of rural American architecture.

Since it expresses American living in its broadest form, B-39 in the House of the Week series can be adapted to local environment in any section of the country.

While the American heritage played a big part in design of the exterior, on the inside Architect Paul's prime concern was a good functioning layout which would provide adequate space for all activities—and a good circulation pattern linking them—plus privacy in the bedroom wing and separation of the service and informal area of the house from the more formal living area.

These goals were met in a floor plan covering 1,220 sq. ft. of habitable area. With a double garage, the width of the L-shaped home is 55'2". With only a single garage, this drops to 45'2" — small enough to fit on a 60-foot lot under most zoning ordinances.

All told, there are seven rooms with two full baths. Cellar space is called for only under the kitchen and family rooms.

The front entrance is strategically located where the two wings of the house meet to form protecting arms. The roof extending all the way across the front of the garage adds physical protection. A spacious foyer is just inside the door and equipped with a large 6' coat closet.

Although the ends of dining and living rooms merge into a space 21½ feet across, they can be separated by a folding partition. The living room fireplace provides a feature for both rooms.

Another feature, strategically placed toward the rear for privacy, is the handsome window wall with a door going to a partially covered terrace. As you enter either the dining or living room and look toward the window wall, your eye passes into the pleasant view beyond. The flowing together of the inside and out gives an illusion of greater space within the house.

The kitchen and family room are almost one yet separated. Anyone approaching the front door can be observed through the front window. Children at play in the backyard can be watched through the rear window.

The family room portion of the combined space is 10 by 12 and has easy access to the rear terrace. A closet is handy for children's coats and other family items.

Separating the family room from the garage is a stairway to the partial cellar. As you can see in the plan, this stairway is convenient to the outside as well as to the garage.

Kitchen plans call for dishwasher, counter-top range, wall oven, large refrigerator, 16 lineal feet of wall cabinets and an abundance of floor cabinets and counter space. The through ventilation will provide quicker air changes, preventing odors from going through the house and making it more comfortable to work.

On the other side of the house, away from the noisy activity, is the bedroom wing. Three bedrooms and two baths are arranged around a bedroom hall. The master bedroom has two exposures. It has a private bath with shower and two large closets. The other two bedrooms can hold twin beds for the larger family. Off the bedroom hall is a linen closet four feet wide.

The cellar portion of the house is located under the kitchen-family room area only. The remainder of the house can be either crawl space or slab.

B-39 Statistics

This seven-room farmhouse ranch offers three bedrooms and two full baths in 1,220 sq. ft. of living space. Attached garage can be for either one or two cars.

Over-all dimensions are 55' 2" in width with double garage or 45' 2" with single. The front-to-rear measurement is 43' 8".

Lack of Money Spurs Imagination

When decorating time rolls around, imagination and ingenuity are as important as money.

★ ★ ★

A tight budget was indirectly responsible for the handsome dining room of one newlywed couple. Their dining table had a top made of a slab door and a base of two porch columns. They painted the table black and spattered it lightly in gold. They used inexpensive peel cane tub chairs around the table.

★ ★ ★

For a storage and serving piece, there was a marble-topped Victorian chest rubbed down to a natural dull finish. They painted the walls of the room hot pink and hung two black coach lights on one wall.

It's Tough Wood

One advantage of using rough-sawn siding for wall paneling inside the home is that it will not show nicks and scuffs. This is true when saw-textured Douglas fir or western red cedar is used.

Some Exterior Walls Are Drier After Painting

One way of cutting fuel bills is to paint exterior brick, stone, stucco and cinder block. All these building materials absorb considerable amounts of water, and it takes more fuel to counteract the clammy dampness in the walls.

There are a variety of paints available that are designed for use on such surfaces. If you want to keep the appearance unchanged, use a colorless silicone water repellant.

Finish Wood Paneling in One of Three Ways

One of the greatest attributes of lumber and lumber paneling is its ability to take various finishes—stains in wood tones, clear finishes, or the newly-popular pigmented stains in every color of the spectrum.

Many stains come ready-mixed. Other color stains can be made up according to formula and applied either by the professional or the do-it-yourselfer who shows reasonable care and patience in their mixing and subsequent application.

One of the first and most important steps in finishing lumber is to be sure that the wood has been carefully sanded. This is true of most all woods, including the 11 kinds that grow in the western pine region. Many people will devote loving attention to the sanding of a rare and exotic wood but they lose sight of the truly magnificent finishes that can be achieved on the economical, readily available, and easy to work softwoods.

A great deal of paneling is made from lumber grown in the western pine area, and a good many people in their enthusiastic rush to put on their stain, may be tempted to give the paneling a lick and a promise with sandpaper, thinking that the stain somehow is all there is to a finish. The truth is that they will be rewarded for every bit of trouble they take to give the paneling a really good sanding.

If the job seems too big to be done by hand and the home-owner doesn't own an electric sander, it is worth knowing that many paint or hardware stores will rent them at reasonable rates. If hand-sanding, one should start with a coarse paper and then use a 3/0 or finer paper, rubbing with the grain. All sawdust should be carefully wiped from the wood before it is stained.

STAIN FIRST

Staining is best done before installation of the paneling. In this way more even coverage can be achieved, and there will be no spots of raw wood to show up later in hard-to-reach corners. Clear finishes are best applied after paneling has been installed since the gloss of a clear finish could be marred during installation.

Commercial stains should be used according to their directions. Color stains made up by the home-owner usually are applied with a brush-on, wipe-off technique. The color is brushed on and wiped off while still wet with a clean, soft rag. These stains lend color but still allow the natural characteristics of the wood to show through. Thus, the selection of species is important if one is interested in a particular grain or type of knot formation.

For example, the western pine region species afford a considerable variety among themselves—different grain patterns, large or small knot formations, and various depths of natural color tone.

For a long-lasting and easy-to-care-for surface over the chosen stain, the home-owner may apply the following finish: one coat of laquer sanded, when dry, with 6/0 paper; then a minimum of two coats of clear varnish, lacquer, or shellac sanded between the coats and rubbed after the final coat with 3/0 steel wool. A paste wax may be used after this.

Those who would like to receive free folders on color stain formulas should write to Dept. 1060A, Western Pine Association, Yeon Building, Portland 4, Oregon, and ask for "finishes folders." They will find a great range of color possibilities to bring out the beauty of lumber and lumber paneling in new and exciting ways.

Protect Window Sills

If your windows "sweat" during cold weather, water stains on the window sills can be avoided in several ways. One is to wax the painted surface with any good furniture wax. A second way is to coat the painted sills with a good exterior varnish such as spar varnish. Of course, if you have painted the sills originally with a gloss enamel, water spotting should not be a problem.

Defects Will Show

Remember that the greater the degree of gloss in a paint or enamel, the more it will show up any defects in the underlying surface. So, if you are planning to apply gloss or semi-gloss enamels or paints, be sure that you first sand the surface as smooth as you can after repairing any cracks and filling any nail holes.

Wood for House Exterior Has Many Advantages

The manufacturers of materials used on the outside of a house are continually extolling the virtues of the particular products they turn out.

This, of course, is to be expected. But if one were to believe all the claims made for the many different types of sidings, the perfect house exterior would resemble a crazyquilt pattern.

The truth is that each kind of siding has its own character as well as its practical assets. This very often brings the choice down to a question of individual taste. When that occurs, wood siding ranks high on the list of preferred materials, especially among those who have always looked upon anything made of wood with something of an affectionate eye.

The use of wood facings in different widths, designs and color combinations helps builders avoid sameness among homes in large developments. While the necessity for repainting wood at certain intervals is regarded by many as a disadvantage, there are others who consider it a distinct advantage.

Wood is a natural insulating material. As the National Lumber Manufacturers Association points out, one inch thickness of wood is equal, as an insulator, to about six inches of brick.

The three major types of wood siding are bevel, drop and vertical. Bevel siding is a direct descendant of clapboards. Also called lap siding, it is made by sawing square-edged boards diagonally to produce two wedge-shaped pieces.

These pieces are usually 3/16-inch thick on the thin edge and ½ to ¼-inch thick on the other edge, depending on the width of the piece. The usual widths are from 4 to 12 inches. The distinguishing characteristic of bevel siding is the outward slant of each board; the surfaces of the other main types of siding are usually flush or flat.

Drop siding, including some patterns known as rustic, is machined on the edges so that each board joins the next in a tongue-and-groove or lap joint. It is usually ¾-inch thick and up to eight inches wide.

★ ★ ★

Vertical siding may be plain or patterned boards (such as V-Cut) with ship-lap or tongue-and-groove joints or square-edged boards covered at the joints with battens.

Rules for Drilling Plastic Laminate

Plastic laminate can be drilled much the same as wood provided that two rules are observed: first, always drill into the decorative side, since some chipping may result where the bit comes out; and secondly, punch a tiny indentation with a nail point before starting the drill.

While wood bits work fairly well, metal drills will perform more smoothly. If you have a sharp 8-point, 10-inch hollow ground blade, you can cut plastic laminate smoothly and accurately on a standard table saw. However, if the blade is not very sharp, or if you have to buy a new blade, the carbide-tipped type is best.

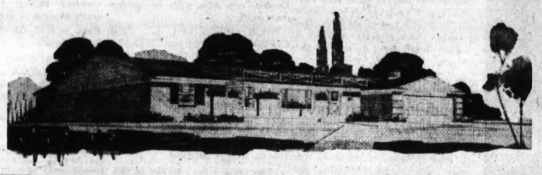

In either case, the laminate must be moved into the saw very slowly and carefully to avoid chipping. The carbide-tipped blade costs more, but will need less frequent sharpening when used on a hard material like plastic laminate.

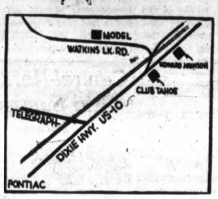

By threatening to assassinate the Venetian artisans of the 17th century were able to hold a world-wide monopoly on the manufacture of mirrors.

Pontiac Central Gridders Crush Northern by 54-14 Margin

By BILL CORNWELL

The Chiefs of Pontiac Central scored almost at will Friday night at Wisner Stadium to completely crush the Pontiac Northern Huskies, 54-14, in the first annual football clash between the city's two Class A public high schools.

An estimated 4,800 spectators saw 10 touchdowns posted on the scoreboard, eight by PCH, in the in the final game of the 1960 season for both teams.

They were faster and heavier than their crosstown rivals and it took just a little bit more than one quarter of action for the Chiefs to prove how outgunned the Huskies really were.

The 170-pound senior speedster tallied half of his team's eight touchdowns, giving him 14 TDs for the year, and he personally accounted for 178 of the Chiefs' 409-yard rushing total.

A perfectly executed pass play covering 64 yards from quarterback Bruce Norton to halfback Dave Moczarski gave PNH a brief 7-6 lead in the 1st stanza and a 15-yard penalty nullified another TD in the 2nd.

The Chiefs scored twice in the 1st quarter for a 13-7 edge, hit pay dirt two more times in the 2nd session for a 27-7 bulge at halftime, and mushroomed their margin to 48-7 with three 3rd-period TDs before PNH was able to tally again.

The Chiefs forced PNH to punt and took possession on their own 38. On the 3rd play from scrimmage, Roach shot through a quick hole in the middle of the line and zipped 47 yards untouched for a counter. Larry Brennen's kick for the extra point was wide and PCH led, 6-0.

Northern clicked for its first TD three plays after the ensuing kickoff. Norton passed to Moczarski, who was all alone at midfield, and he raced into the end zone unmolested. End Jerry Mineweaser booted the point and the Chiefs trailed, 7-6.

The Huskies' trip into the wonderful land of enchantment ended with only 17 seconds remaining in the 1st quarter when McCauley notched the 1st of his four TDs by streaking 72 yards through the center. Brennen booted the 1st of six straight conversions and the Chiefs were ahead to stay.

Central marched 76 yards in 12 plays to chalk up TD No. 3 in the 7th minute of the 2nd period. A Pomeroy-to-Roach aerial eating up 19 yards helped the drive and Roach finished the surge with a thrust from the five.

The Huskies tried to fight back against their 20-7 deficit and a razzle-dazzle pass play for a 27-yard TD from Norton to Moczarski to Steve Thompson appeared to furnish the necessary tonic.

But PNH suffered an interference penalty on the play, the TD was nullified and two plays later a 4th-down gamble backfired into Central's 4th TD of the evening.

PNH lost the ball on downs and PCH took charge on the Huskie 33 with 20 seconds to go in the 1st half. On the 1st play Pomeroy connected with Shorter, who caught the ball in the end zone between two PNH defenders, and the Huskies were behind by three TDs at intermission.

McCauley romped 32 yards for another marker in ghe 2nd minute of the 3rd quarter to make it 34-7.

Then Roy Couser intercepted a Norton aerial on the PCH 35 and scooted to the PNH 24 to set up TD No. 6. McCauley ripped 18 yards for the tally on the 2nd play and the count soared to 41-7.

The Chiefs scored again with 17 seconds left in the 3rd period. Tolbert Carter recovered a PNH fumble on the Huskie four and McCauley struck pay dirt on the 1st play to make it 48-7.

Aided by a series of three penalties against PCH, the Huskies pushed 69 yards for their 2nd and last TD with Bill Young scoring from four yards out. Mineweaser converted.

Roach galloped 49 yards for a touchdown late in the 4th quarter to wind up the scoring.

Central's convincing triumph enabled the Chiefs to finish their season with a record of four wins, three losses and two ties. The Huskies' final mark stands at three victories, five defeats and one tie.

CHIEF "HUNG" — Pontiac Northern students hanged the Pontiac Chief in effigy last night, but the Chiefs came alive on the football field to win, 54-14.

PNH Upset Hopes Short Lived

Season Satisfies PCH Coach

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

"I may finally get some sleep tonight. I was worried all week about this game."

This was Pontiac Central coach Paul Dellerba talking after the Chiefs whipped city rival Pontiac Northern in the first game between the two schools, 54-14.

Dellerba envisioned a keyed up Northern team coming to Wisner Stadium and pulling a startling upset over the favored Chiefs.

For about three minutes of the first quarter Pontiac Northern fans may have thought Dellerba's fearful visions might come true.

The Huskies pulled a 64 yard pass play, made the point and led 7-6. The momentum for a possible upset continued when on the ensuing kickoff Northern recovered Central's fumble on the PCH 40.

The frenzied Red and White followers already started adding another seven points on the scoreboard but it wasn't in the books.

★ ★ ★

"They were hitting hard and they never quit despite the score," Dellerba said paying tribute to the beaten Huskies.

Northern coach Ed Heikkinen was naturally dejected but not disappointed with the effort the Huskies made.

"Our boys did their best, that's all we asked, Central just had too much for us," commented Heikkinen.

Does the score indicate that Central pbured it on?

In some corners along North Perry there was a feeling that the starting backfield of Dick McCauley, Andy Roach and Roy Couser wasn't needed with the scoreboard reading 54-14 and 2:50 to play.

Heikkinen did not comment on this subject.

Dellerba was disturbed with any direct or implied statement that he poured it on.

"Everybody played," he said, "I'm real sorry some people feel that way."

In McCauley's case, Dellerba admitted that after he learned that the little halfback had a chance to gain the county scoring title he returned him to the game for that purpose.

★ ★ ★

"He's a good all-state halfback, and it was his last game, so if getting the points necessary would help gain him the honor, he deserved a chance to do it," Dellerba pointed out.

McCauley needed 33 points to overtake county scoring leader Steve Jacobsen of Birmingham. He got 34 and finished with 90.

As far as the season goes, Dellerba, in his first year as PCH coach expressed satisfaction.

When the campaign started very few gave the Chiefs a chance to win more than two games. They finished 4-3-2. Their best effort coming against the current No. 1 team in the state, Flint Northern, which they lost, 25-21.

The two ties were the disappointments for Dellerba. "But that's over the dam, they would look good in the win column, but they look better as ties than in the lost column, so I'm satisfied."

With cautious optimism Dellerba looked ahead to 1961. Some of top performers, including quarterback Bob Pomeroy, backs Andy Roach, Roy Couser, Elbert Hall and Roy Collins, along with dependable linemen Gary Wesley, Milford Hillie, Dick Richards, Tom Eichorn and Elick Shorter would be back, barring unforeseen circumstances.

★ ★ ★

"Considering the number of sophomores, what else can I say but that I'm satisfied," Dellerba concluded.

Off he went to catch up on the sleep, and another local prep football season came to an end (Much to the satisfaction of the basketball coaches who eagerly awaited a switch in uniforms by some of the players).

CENTRAL WAVE — Huskie back Chris Payne is smothered by a Pontiac Central wave of tacklers headed by Wayne Lee (60) and Tony Rubio despite a try by Jerry Mineweaser, PNH end, (80), to stop the rush. The Chiefs stopped the PNH running game with 75 yards as they whipped the Huskies, 54-14.

STOPPED — Pontiac Central back Roy Couser is finally stopped by an unidentified tackler in the rear and Pontiac Northern's Steve Thompson (13). The Chief running game however could not be stopped as they amassed 409 yards rushing.

DETROIT (AP)—Unbeaten Detroit Denby staked a strong claim for the mythical state high school football championship by winning the Detroit city title with a stirring comeback.

Denby rattled off its ninth straight victory last night with two last-period touchdowns that turned apparent defeat into a 21-18 victory over parochial champion Detroit Catholic Central, Warren Puggini slammed the last two yards with 4:05 to play for the winner as Denby won the Detroit's 23rd annual Goodfellow game before 39,196 at Briggs Stadium.

The victory kept Denby in the running for state honors that won't be decided until the traditional Thanksgiving battle between Flint Northern and Flint Central.

Northern, 8-0 and victor last week over previously unbeaten Bay City central, was No. 1 in this week's Associated Press Class A poll. Denby was third, behind Bay City Central.

In a sparse schedule last night, Pontiac Central steamrollered its city rival, Pontiac Northern, 54-14 and Toledo Catholic Central nipped Muskegon Catholic Central 14-13.

Denby trailed 18-8 before snapping into action, mainly on an aerial bombardment launched by Bob Schram. He passed for all 62 yards needed in a drive that whittled Detroit Catholic Central's margin to 18-14. A 33-yard pass to Ray Anderson got the touchdown.

Matthews-Vaillant Bout Heads Philly Ring Card

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Promoter Al Lewis announced Friday he had signed Len Matthews, the No. 1 lightweight contender, and Cuban champion Doug Vaillant to head a program of four, ten-round bouts at Convention Hall Dec. 6.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Other bouts will match Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich. and Algerian Lahourai Godih, lightweights, middleweights Jimmy Beacham and Jesse Smith and welterweights Charley Scott and Carl Hubbard, all Philadelphia, although Smith now fights out of Chicago.

Colleges Seeking Bowl Berths

By The Associated Press

For a team that was stamped a major disappointment earlier in the season, Syracuse, the dethroned national champion, was floating on cloud nine today.

The Orangemen are under consideration for three major bowls —Orange, Liberty and Gotham. They'll probably take the one that offers the biggest financial return.

Syracuse wound up its season Friday night, turning back Miami, Fla., 21-14, in another one of its last-ditch efforts. Just 36 seconds before the end, Ben Schwartzwalder's operatives had to beat back a fierce Miami drive six yards from the goal line.

So Syracuse finished its season with an 8-2 record. Its only defeats were at the hands of Pitt, 10-0, and Army, 9-6.

Miami, too, had high hopes of playing in a post-season bowl game. The Hurricanes, however, already have lost three games and they still must play tough Florida and the Air Force Academy. Their chances appear slim.

Ernie Davis scored twice for Syracuse, once on a three-yard back and once on a 25-yard sprint. Gary Fallon notched the other Syracuse score on a 36-yard jaunt.

Ron Fritzsche and Jim Vollenweider collected the Miami touchdowns, both on short plunges. The Hurricanes fought back to deadlock the score at 7-7 at the half and 14-14 at the three-quarter mark before Davis got the clincher.

Meanwhile, another fistful of teams finish their seasons today with Missouri in a position to win its first national championship in history.

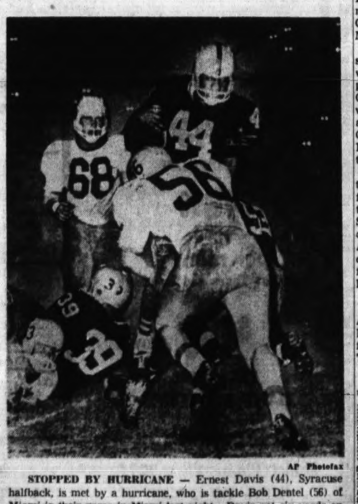

The Tigers meet Kansas and a victory would undoubtedly mean the national title, and the Big Eight crown as well. Missouri already is assured of playing in the Orange Bowl since Kansas is on NCAA probation.

Minnesota, No. 4 behind Missouri, Iowa and Mississippi in this week's Associated Press poll, plays arch-rival Wisconsin. A Gopher victory would mean a tie with Iowa for the Big Ten title and a bid to the Rose Bowl. The Gophers already have beaten Iowa and that would be the determining factor.

Likewise Duke was in a position to win the Atlantic Coast Conference championship with a victory over North Carolina. Utah State could nail down the Skyline crown with a triumph over Utah. A decision by Yale over Harvard could give the Elis their first perfect season since 1923 and the Ivy League championship.

Arkansas, (7-2), No. 7 in The AP poll, was out to cement at least a tie for the Southwest Conference title by beating Texas Tech.

STOPPED BY HURRICANE — Ernest Davis (44), Syracuse halfback, is met by a hurricane, who is tackle Bob Dentel (56) of Miami in their game in Miami last night. Davis got six yards on the play. Syracuse defeated Miami, 21-14.

HAPPY TRIBE — Pontiac Central's dressing room contained a happy tribe of Chiefs last night. Dick McCauley, (24) the PCH first flight back was hoisted to the shoulders. He scored four touchdowns in the game.

Jofre 1st Brazilian Ring Champ

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Brazil has its first boxing champion in history today and Eder Jofre's right hand thus becomes as famous as coffee and the samba in the South American republic.

Jofre, who boxes like Sugar Ray Robinson and punches like a diminutive Joe Louis, took the National Boxing Association version of the world bantamweight championship Friday night with a lethal one-punch knockout of Mexico's Eloy Sanchez.

The lights went out at 1 minute and 30 seconds of the sixth round for the stole Sanchez. Jofre's right didn't travel far, but it didn't have to.

"I was surprised when he stayed down," Jofre, a 2-1 favorite, said later.

Sanchez lay flat on his back several long moments after Referee Mushy Callahan raised the Brazilian's gloved hand in victory.

Ironically, the knockout punch came as Sanchez was delivering his best punches of the evening. The round was savage with Sanchez uncorking a right that sent the Brazilian's mouthpiece flying.

The punch brought a rousing ovation from the predominantly Mexican audience of 6,500 but Jofre's lethal right cross quieted both the Sanchez fans and Sanchez.

Wild confusion broke out among the 200 or more flag waving Brazilians in the crowd as scores of them climbed into the ring screaming Portuguese congratulations to Brazil's new national hero.

The new champ wants to take on Alphonse Halimi of France next to clear up the world title dispute. Halimi is recognized as the European bantamweight king.

There seems little doubt that the Jofre-Halimi world championship fight will be held in Sao Paulo.

After the bout, Vicente Saquar Presas Jr., president of the Federation of Boxing of Sao Paulo, extended an invitation to Los Angeles promoter George Parnassus to hold the fight there. He said he hoped the contest could be held in January.

Austrian Named Coach

INNSBURCK, Austria (AP) — Austrian 1952 Olympic ski gold medal winner Othmar Schneider disclosed Friday he has been hired to coach the U. S. men's ski team this season.

Last season, Schneider was Austrian national ski trainer. He also coached U. S. ski ace Buddy Werner of Steamboat Springs, Colo.

MacKay Bows in Aussie Final After Leading

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Big Barry MacKay, America's top Davis Cup hope, started fast, then faded and was beaten today by Australia's Neale Fraser in the final of the New South Wales Tennis Championships, 10-8, 6-4, 7-5.

A crowd of 4,000 at White City Stadium saw the left-handed Wimbledon and U. S. champion outserve the Dayton, Ohio, 25-year-old in gusty wind conditions.

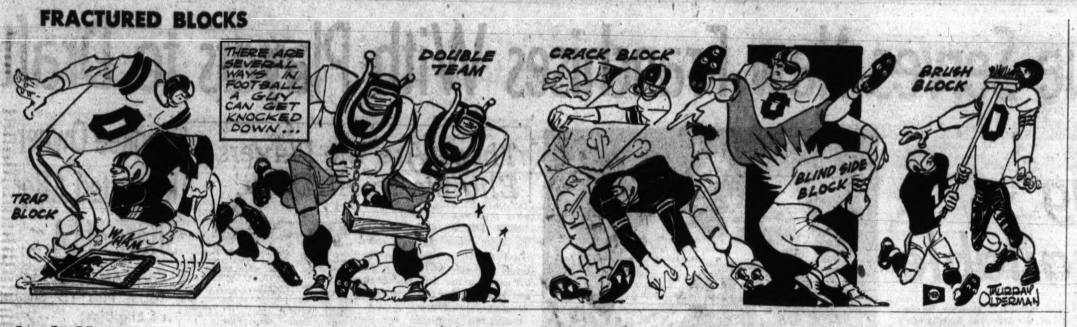

The Aussie southpaw seemed completely recovered from the food poisoning which hampered his play in the semifinals on Thursday.

Hank, Armstrong on TV

NEW YORK (AP) — Henry Hank, knockout conqueror of 33 of his 60 opponents, and boxer Ace Armstrong, who never his been stopped, meet tonight in a television 10 rounder at Madison Square Garden.

The bout will be telecast by ABC-TV at 10 p.m., EST, coast to coast.

This is a big fight for both. Hank, a 25-year-old contender from Detroit, makes his debut in the Garden after seven years of pro battling. The Michigan slugger is anxious to make good.

Colombian Newspaper Raps Caribbean Moves

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — El Tiempo, Colombia's largest newspaper, Friday criticized the dispatch of U.S. warships to protect Nicaragua and Guatemala.

The move "disturbs us profoundly," El Tiempo said. "The news is alarming because it appears the action was taken without taking the Organization of American States into account — and without even consulting other governments of the hemisphere."

BIG GAIN — Cleveland Brown halfback Bobby Mitchell is swarmed over with Eagles but not until he picked up 10 yards in the second period. The Browns beat the Eagles, 41-24, before 56,000 at Philadelphia's Franklin Field. This was the largest home crowd in 10 years for the Eagles. Forgotten Man Will Replace Injured Lewis

Underdog Detroit Club Hopes to Snap Losing Streak Against Bears

The veteran pass-catcher has been a benchwarmer while the Lions have won three of their last four games.

Coach George Wilson—in a reshuffling due to Danny Lewis' injury — has assigned Middleton to flanker back for the Bears' game at Wrigley Field.

Middleton has caught only one pass in the last six games and only four all season.

The Doc, who's an intern at University of Michigan hospital, usually plays his best ball against the Bears. He was a star three years ago in the 21-13 victory at Wrigley Field that enabled the Lions to continue their dramatic march to the world championship.

The Bears are favored by six points in the 53rd meeting between the two ancient National Football League rivals.

The Lions haven't won at Wrigley Field since 1957 and have lost their last four games with the Bears.

This season the Bears have been something of a disappointment with a 3-4-1 record. The Lions are 3-4, but we expected to be so-so.

However, Chicago's defense led by tough Bill George is making things as rough as ever for opposing ball carriers and passers.

Baltimore's Johnny Unitas can attest to that after last Sunday. A few plays before he pitched the controversial winning - touchdown pass in the final minute to Lenny Moore he was racked up by George. Blood was streaming down Unitas' cheek when his pass won the game, third straight the Bears failed to win.

Favored to Keep Title

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Defending champion Lowell North of Mission Bay, Calif., was the favorite Friday to retain his title in the World Star Yachting Championships starting here Sunday.

Tom Skahill, also of Mission Bay, Calif., will be North's crewman.

Giants and Eagles Open Key Back-to-Back Rivalry

By The Associated Press

The last time the Philadelphia Eagles and New York Giants met on consecutive Sundays the Eagles swept the pair to climax their third straight Eastern Conference championship in the National Football League. That was 1949.

Now the Giants are shooting for three titles in a row and are 3-point home favorites to defeat the conference-leading Eagles Sunday in the headline game of six on the NFL schedule. The Eagles (6-1) and Giants (5-1-1) meet again next Sunday at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, beaten only by the Cleveland Browns, is riding a six-game winning streak and wants to extend it right on through to 11-1, matching their record in '49, the last year they won the title.

The Giants must win to take over first place Sunday. The Eagles can retain the lead with a tie.

Both clubs have been hit with injuries.

Philadelphia will be without Clarence Peaks, the League's fourth leading ground gainer with 465 yards and a key blocker in front of passer Norm Van Brocklin. Peaks suffered a broken leg favorites over the Steelers (2-5-1). A Philadelphia victory would send Cleveland into second place, but last Sunday in a 19-13 victory over Washington.

Veteran quarterback Charley Conerly and end Kyle Rote are both New York question marks. Conerly hurt his knee in directing a Giant rally that beat Pittsburgh 27-24 last week and Rote has had a fractured bone in his hand for two weeks.

The third-place Browns (5-2) are at Pittsburgh and rate 5-point the Browns probably would prefer Giant victories both this week and next because of the schedule. The Eagles already have split with Cleveland and have a relatively easy schedule after the Giants. The Browns, beaten once by New York, get another crack at the Giants.

In the Western Conference, the Green Bay Packers (5-2) can tie the idle Baltimore Colts (6-2) for the lead by beating the Los Angeles Rams (2-5-1) at Milwaukee. Green Bay is favored by 12.

In other games, the St. Louis Cardinals (4-4) are road favorites by a touchdown over Washington (1-4-2) in the East, and San Francisco (3-4) is at the Dallas Cowboys (0-8) in a Western battle the 49ers figure to win by 14.

Two of the NFL games are rematches. The Browns beat the Steelers 28-20 on Oct. 2 at Cleveland, and the Cards licked the Redskins 44-7 on Nov. 6 at St. Louis.

Boston Drubs Dallas, 42-14, Friday in AFL

Leaders - Tailenders Tangle

By The Associated Press

It's the leaders vs. the cellar-dwellers on Sunday's American Football League program with Denver invading Houston and Buffalo moving into Los Angeles.

New York and Oakland are idle on the three-game weekend slate which began Friday night as the Boston Patriots drubbed Dallas 42-14, reached the .500 mark with a 5-5 record and moved into second place in the Eastern Division.

The Broncos, 4-5, who held the Western Division lead for a couple of weeks, are facing heavy odds against the offensive-minded Oilers 6-3. All-purpose back Al Carmichael, one of Denver's top rushers and their No. 1 pass receiver is out of action with a broken leg.

Houston will throw a hard-charging group of backs—Dave Smith, Charlie Tolar and Bill Cannon—against the Broncos while veteran quarterback George Blanda matches his pitching arm against Denver signal - caller Frank Tripucka.

Howie Ferguson, Charley Flowers and Paul Lowe head the Los Angeles 6-3 backfield crew that has pushed the Chargers into the top spot in the West after an early season slump. Jack Kemp, who has completed almost 54 per cent of his passes, is the quarterback.

Unknown Takes Lead After Being 22nd

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Bill Eggers of Portland, Ore., pushed his way from a tie for 22nd into a three-stroke lead Friday with a 139 total at the halfway mark of the $7,500 Almaden Open Golf Tournament.

He was followed by amateur George Archer of San Francisco at 142 and John McMullin of Fair Oaks, Calif., who had a 143.

Eggers, who uses an unorthodox putting stance that looks like someone lining up in a game of croquet, shot a 73 in the opening round but came back with a 6-under-par 66 that moved him in front.

Defending champion Ken Venturi of Palo Alto, Calif., added a 78 to his 73 for a 151 total that put him way back while former PGA champ Bob Rosburg, also of Palo Alto, has 72-74—146 and a tie for 11th.

USGA Reinstates 2-Shot Out-of-Bounds Penalty

NEW YORK (AP)—The U.S. Golf Association Saturday abandoned its distance-only penalties for lost or out-of-bounds balls, adopted for an experimental year, and returned to the old stroke-and-distance penalty.

The change, which takes effect Jan. 1, permits clubs to modify the out-of-bounds penalty under certain conditions and provides for a new option when a ball is unplayable.

In announcing the 1961 changes, the USGA Executive Committee said the trial period had shown the lighter lost ball penalty tended to discourage diligent search. It also caused delays, since a 5-minute search was required before the penalty could be taken. Under the 1961 rule, a player may declare his ball lost without the long search.

As recently as 1951, the USGA had tried having different penalties for lost and out-of-bounds balls, but found this led to questions whether a ball was lost in bounds or went out of bounds.

If a club considers the out-of-bounds penalty too severe on its course, it may adopt a local rule providing that a ball may be dropped, under penalty of one stroke, within two club lengths of where the ball last crossed the boundary line. The USGA emphasized that such a rule should not be adopted where there is likely to be difficulty in determining whether a ball is out of bounds or where it last crossed the boundary line.

If a player hits a ball out of bounds, then plays a provisional ball because of uncertainty, he may take advantage of the local rule to drop another, but must continue to play the provisional ball.

The experimental options for 1961 on unplayable lies are: Drop a ball within two club lengths of where the original ball lay, under one-stroke penalty a new option; take stroke and distance penalty; or drop a ball behind the point where the original ball lay, with one stroke penalty. If the original ball was in a bunker, the ball must be dropped in a bunker.

Jacobson County Point Champ, McDonald 2nd

By CHUCK ABAIR

His total was enough to hold off a strong finish by Pontiac Central flash Dick McCauley. The versatile Chief senior scored four touchdowns against PNH but fell nine points short of pulling out the title.

Jacobson, who played only 10 minutes of his last start due to suffering a broken leg, won the crown by tallying 15 touchdowns and eight extra points.

Avondale standout Jim McDonald wound up 2nd at 94 featuring a 30-point night. Jack Newton of West Bloomfield was 3rd with 92 playing one less game than the leaders. The swift Laker had led all the way.

Thirty different schools are represented among the top 45 county scorers. Unbeaten Lake Orion leads the way with four players, Central, Rochester and Ferndale placed three apiece, the Huskies, Avon, Dondero, Royal Oak Shrine, Lamphere and Royal Oak Kimball two each.

Robertson Keeps Rolling

Royals, Warriors Win

The Big O is making points, victories and money for the Cincinnati Royals of the National Basketball Association.

The Royals pulled up to the .500 mark in the Western Division Friday night by whipping the St. Louis Hawks in overtime 129-128.

Robertson made the points (35), the victory (his three free throws in the last 46 seconds decided it) and the money. The game drew 7,363 spectators, giving the Royals a total home attendance greater than all last year.

In nine games this season—Robertson's first with the club—the Royals have drawn 62,202 fans. For the entire 1959-60 campaign, they attracted only 61,984 for 31 home dates.

In the only other game of the night, the Philadelphia Warriors turned back the New York Knickerbockers 101-99 and snapped a four-game losing streak.

Joe Grabowski's 30-foot set shot with one second left, decided it for the Warriors, who were led by Wilt Chamberlain's 34-point performance.

The Royals-Hawks game was interrupted twice by fights among the players. In the second quarter Wayne Embry of the Royals and Bob Pettit of the Hawks tangled as they battled for a rebound. They were pulled apart quickly.

A few minutes later, Phil Jordon of Cincinnati and Woody Sauldsberry of St. Louis hooked up. This one almost developed into a free-for-all before it ended.

Regulation play ended with the score tied 119-119. Robertson scored five of the Royals' 10 points in the extra period as the Hawks hurt themselves by blowing five free throws. Cliff Hagan wound up with 36 points for the Hawks.

The decision was unanimous.

American League Serves New Franchises With Players to Draft

Yost is Among Those Available

NEW YORK (AP) — The Detroit Tigers seem intent on going all the way with rookie Steve Boros as their third baseman in 1961.

The Flint, Mich., youngster, who jumped from the University of Michigan to the Tigers in 1958, apparently has won the regular job by default.

Eddie Yost, third baseman for the past two seasons, was among the Tigers made available yesterday for the draft by the new Washington and Los Angeles American League clubs, the Associated Press learned. The new franchises will pay $75,000 for each player picked up from the eight established clubs.

Yost, possibly headed to Washington as player manager, was the only Tiger regular on the partial list learned by the AP.

Others from the 1960 Tigers were Pete Burnside, a part-time starting pitcher, and Dave Sisler, the club's best reliever last summer. Outfielder Neil Chrisley and infielder Coot Veal and Dick Gernert also were made available.

The rookies listed were Al Pehanick, Bob Sprout, Wyman Darey and Aubrey Gatewood.

The Tigers have had Boros up for several previous trials. Last spring they attempted to convert him to an outfilder. The experiment failed and Boros was farmed to Denver. He became the American Association's Most Valuable Player with Denver's League champions.

One surprise on the list was Dean Look, former Michigan State quarterback and Chicago White Sox bonus baby. When they signed Look a year ago, the Sox had big plans for him.

Another was Kenny Hamlin, a Battle Creek youngster who played shortstop at Western Michigan and was a regular with the Kansas City Athletics in 1960.

★ ★ ★

Several former Tigers were listed by other clubs. Cleveland made Red Wilson and Steve Demeter available. The White Sox placed Earl Torgeson and Joe Ginsberg on the list. Others were Baltimore's Billy Hoeft and Walt Dropo, Minneapolis-St. Paul's Tom Morgan, and Kansas City's John Tsitouris and Ned Garver.

Tightly Packed Field at Cajun

Pott and Gustin First at 136 in 3rd Round of Play

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP) — The $15,000 Cajun Classic Golf Tournament heads into the third round today with Johnny Pott and Jon Gustin pacing the tightly packed field.

Pott, 25, has won almost $24,000 this year and is considered the most improved player on the tour. Despite the fact that he played through a steady shower he carded a 5-under-par 66, the day's best round.

Gustin, who has won only about $5,300 on the tour, added a 69 to the 67 he picked up Thursday on the 6,531-yard Oakbourne Country Club course.

Surviving the cutoff were 62 professionals and nine amateurs, including Alvin Dark of Lake Charles, new manager of the San Francisco Giants.

Britains Pace 'Prix' Practice

Moss Breaks Track Record Second Time in California

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP) — Fifteen of the 25 formula one cars entered for the U. S. Grand Prix Sunday have broken the previous track record set in sports car races by American Billy Krause in a Birdcate Maserati.

Britain's Stirling Moss shattered the record for the second time as he tuned up Friday for Sunday's event, the final in the series of championship races.

Moss was clocked at slightly more than 105 m.p.h. on the 3.275-mile oval. He is driving a privately entered Lotus. He nosed out Dan Gurney of Riverside, who was in a BRM, and Jim Clark of England in a Lotus team car.

British cars have dominated practice runs so far.

Yankee Owner Reported After Share of LA

Each American League Team Puts 15 on List of Eligibles

NEW YORK (AP)—New York Yankee co-owner Del Webb was off today on what was supposed to be a secret mission in an attempt to line up a buyer for the Los Angeles franchise in the American League in 1961.

Cronin said Webb had been commissioned to see Walter O'Mally and learn from the Los Angeles Dodger owner the extent of the damages he would seek for the invasion of a second major league club.

It was learned, however, that Webb had a two-fold reason for hastening to Los Angeles. First, he wanted to confer with O'Malley and second, he wanted to interest a group he had in mind to take over the Los Angeles franchise.

"Webb said he knew some people in Los Angeles who he was certain would be acceptable to the league," said the informant. "He didn't want to identify those people because he wasn't sure they wanted to own a big league club but he said he'd try to line them up."

★ ★ ★

This disclosure indicated that the American League owners were not particularly enthused over an offer by Charles O. Finley, a Chicago insurance broker, who pledged five million dollars Friday to the operation of the LA club.

"Finley was the only one to apply for a franchise in person," said Cronin, "although we had several other bids on the telephone and by telegram."

★ ★ ★

He refused to identify the other bidders but it was learned that one came from J. A. Smith, an industralist who owns part of the San Diego club of the Pacific Coast League and another from Elliot H. Stein, a St. Louis investment broker, who had withdrawn negotiations for the purchase of the Kansas City Athletics.

★ ★ ★

Cronin recessed the day-long meeting Friday to lead a committee to Ford Frick's office for a conference with the commissioner in order to clarify the Los Angeles situation complicated by Frick's insistence that "suitable" damages be paid to O'Malley for invading his territory.

Frick has stated that before he would approve an American League club in Los Angeles, a "fair and equitable" amendment must be made to baseball's territorial rule which now forbids moving into a city already occupied by a major league club without unanimous consent of the two leagues.

The American League has put such a rule into motion but it cannot be ruled upon until the joint major league meeting scheduled in St. Louis Dec. 8.

★ ★ ★

"We discussed the Los Angeles situation with the commissioner," said Cronin, "and we told him we would be happy to sit down with O'Malley and strive for an amicable solution to the problem."

Because of these complications, Cronin extended the deadline for the player selection for the new franchises from Sunday to Friday, Nov. 25.

Each of the eight established clubs listed 15 eligibles from their current rosters. It is mandatory for the two new clubs—Washington and Los Angeles—to purchase 28 players each at $75,000 per player. The cost to each of the newcomers is $2.1 millions. Each of the incumbent clubs will lose seven players but will be enriched by $525,000.

★ ★ ★

Such familair names as Ted Kluszewski, Gene Woodling, Don Newcombe, Billy Goodman, Bobby Shantz, Don Larsen, Ned Garver, Hank Bauer, Red Wilson, Eddie Yost, Bob Cerv, Earl Torgeson, Walt Dropo and Louis Arroyo were included on the lists which were not released officially.

The lists also included such high priced bonus youngsters as Mike ($80,000) Lee, Dean ($50,000) Look Gene ($35,000) Leek, Ralph ($20,000) Lumenti, Frank ($35,000) Zupo and others.

Plenty of Bucks Left for Hunters

By DON VOGEL

★ ★ ★

Since the regular season opened Tuesday, the kill of bucks has not been as heavy as last year at this time. Fewer mid-week hunters is one reason.

The heaviest deer entered in the Pontiac Press Deer Contest is a 167-pounder. It was an 8-point buck shot opening day by Robert Sparkman, 4100 Airport Road, Waterford.

He downed the deer at 7:20 a.m. Tuesday with one shot from a 30-30 Marlin. This was his second year of hunting.

Many other hunters have contacted The Press about deer they have shot. But they failed to supply the necessary weight slips. A $150 U.S. Savings Bond is awarded to the hunter entering the heaviest deer.

Only bucks killed in Michigan by full-time Oakland County residents are eligible. The deer must be weighed on a state inspected and approved scale. The slip must be signed by the person doing the weighing, a disinterested witness and the hunter Addresses for all three must be included.

Many hunters reported seeing fewer deer this year. Warm weather has not helped, nor did the rain which fell opening day and yesterday. Because fewer hunters were in the woods the initial four days, deer could bed down during daylight with a good chance of not being disturbed.

Everything will all change this weekend. Few deer will get a chance to rest with so many hunters prowling the ridges and swamps.

In the private club area north of Curan, the kill remains light. R. E. Oliver, Pontiac, added a 6-pointer to the game pole at Camp 24 where two bucks were tied opening day.

At John Cowe's ranch, two bucks have been taken. Although this is one more than taken in 1959 at this location, the ex-mayor of Pontiac said fewer deer have been observed.

Ted Sage, Pontiac, shot a buck at the Eng-Law Camp. A cub bear was also taken at this camp.

Theatre Group May Enter AL Led by Durocher

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Times says one of the applicants for the American League franchise in Los Angeles is National Theatres & Television, Inc.

Its vice chairman, Gene Klein, told the Times that if its bid is successful, former Dodger and Giant manager Leo Durocher will be named manager and director of player procurement.

"We feel that Durocher would be the ideal man to manage the team on the field and be in charge of player procurement," said Klein.

"Durocher and I are prepared to fly to New York at a moment's notice and present our case. It is my understanding this matter won't be settled for several days, so we feel we have a good chance."

Pari Mutuel Track Refused for Ionia

DETROIT (AP) — An application for pari-mutuel harness race track at the Ionia Fair Grounds was denied yesterday by State Racing Commissioner James H. Inglis.

Inglis said the application by the Ionia Racing Association was turned down for several reasons.

The commissioner said the application failed to include "much required information." He also claimed the applicant "does not have a clear-cut control of the proposed site," and there is strong opposition to establishment of such a track.

Opponents claimed leasing the track for pari-mutuel harness racing would be a violation of the 1914 deed by which the city obtained the fair grounds.

Coast Colleges Fear Television of Baseball

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Giants, long under pressure to televise some of their road games, now are urged just as strongly to stay off the screen during football games at Stanford and California.

Alfred R. Masters, athletic director of Stanford University, said Friday that competition from the Giants would carry "the almost certain possibility of destroying intercollegiate football."

Only a month ago, the San Francisco Board of Supervisors passed a resolution asking the Giants to telecast some away from home games. The Giants announced this week they will televise all 11 of their games at Los Angeles.

Since the National League schedule still is being prepared, it is not known whether there will be any conflicts.

Cal Soccer Squad Has International Flavor

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — International flavor prevails on the University of California soccer team scheduled to play in the NCAA quarter-finals at St. Louis Monday night.

Red Wings to Get Severe Road Test

BOSTON (AP) — The long, enforced wanderings on enemy ice that were supposed to be the Detroit Red Wings severest test end this weekend.

And the Wings have improved in stature in the National Hockey League as a result of their journey.

Since Nov. 9, when Detroit started a swing of seven of eight games on the road, the club has moved from third to a tie for second place, a point from first. The Wings have three victories and a tie to show for their last six games.

The final two road games of the wandering period will be played tonight at Boston and tomorrow night at New York. The Bruins and Rangers are the bottom two teams in the NHL.

After the weekend and departure of the ice follies from Detroit's Olympia Stadium, the Wings return home for four of their next five games.

Tonight, the Wings will find a reshuffled band of Bruins. Bruce Gamble has been called up from the Providence farm club to replace Don Simmons at goal. Simmons, angry with his demotion to the American Hockey League, said he is quitting the game.

Gamble has appeared in only two Rangers in 1958-59. One was against Detroit and the Wings found him easy prey.

★ ★ ★

Another Bruin newcomer is Willie O'Ree, up from Hull-Ottawa for two weekend games. He played two games for the Bruins a few years ago and was the first Negro to play in the NHL.

Demotion Angers Simmons

Bruin Goalie Is Quitting

BOSTON (AP)—Goaltender Don Simmons of the punchless Boston Bruins says he's through with hockey.

The 29-year-old Simmons called it quits Friday night after the Bruins demoted him to the Providence Reds of the American Hockey League. Bruce Gamble was called up from Providence to fill the Boston nets.

General Manager Lynn Patrick also announced the recall of Willie O'Ree—first Negro to play in the National Hockey League—from Hull-Ottawa of the Eastern League.

O'Ree will play left wing on a line with Charley Burns and Gerry Ouellette as the Bruins try to put some spark into a listless lineup that has lost four games in a row. The Bruins play Detroit here tonight, and meet Toronto Sunday night, also at Boston Garden.

"I won't go to Providence," said Simmons, "I don't feel it was a justified move."

He told Patrick of his decision —and said Patrick "admitted to me that I was playing all right, but that he had to make a change somewhere for the fans' sake.

"They're trying to make me the goat," said Simmons.

Patrick denied that. "I was satisfied enough with Don's play, but when a team continues to lose, changes must be made. I had to make a move. I'll make more, too, if we don't straighten out," he said.

Patrick also said Simmons' demotion had not been intended as a permanent step.

Boston, one point out of the NHL cellar, has a dismal 3-9-6 record, without a win on the road this season.

Simmons has given up 59 goals so far in his fifth NHL season. Boston has scored only 46.

Said Simmons:

"I have a little bit of pride. I think I'm capable of playing in the National Hockey League. At the moment I don't know what I'm going to do.

"I wish the Bruins would trade me, but now I guess that's out of the question."

Ex-Tiger Stockholder Interested in LA Club

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Free Press said today Kenyon Brown, former Detroit Tigers stockholder, and western actor Gene Autry are in a syndicate bidding for the new Los Angeles franchise in the American League.

Brown sold his minority holdings in the Detroit Baseball Co. last month to John Fetzer, enabling Fetzer to take majority control of the Tigers and become the clubs president. He is a Los Angeles radio executive.

FOUL LINE FINISH
By Bill Lillard

The finishing touch is as important in bowling as it is in all action games.

If you're not in proper position when you release the ball, you will be disappointed at the results. That's the reason I always try to duplicate the foul line form I used in becoming a triple crown winner in the American Bowling Congress Tournament.

Drivers: Read 1961 Warranties Carefully

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT—Buyers of 1961 model cars probably can save themselves money if they read the exact terms of the new extended warranties which come with them.

For the first time every American manufacturer is giving the original purchaser written assurance that the major parts of his new car will give trouble-free service for the first 12 months, or the first 12,000 miles — whichever comes first. One make — Lincoln Continental — is covered for 24 months or 24,000 miles.

A close examination of these warranties, however, may show that items you hadn't considered also are covered. And you may save yourself some grief and heated arguments which could result from trying to apply the warranty to something specifically omitted.

Each company has variations, but basically the terms are broad.

As an example, consider the warranty which accompanies Ford cars, the first of the manufacturers to announce the shift from the old 90 days or 4,000 miles to 12 months or 12,000 miles:

★ ★ ★

If your new Ford needs an engine tuneup, you pay for it, just as you always have. If a headlight burns out, it costs you nothing. The sealed bulb, and the labor charge for replacing it, is paid by Ford.

★ ★ ★

When you need new sparkplugs, filters or ignition points, you pay. If the clock quits, the voltage regulator goes haywire or a tube burns out in the radio, Ford pays.

You pay to have your brakes inspected. Ford pays if the serviceman finds some defect in them.

What Ford is saying is that every part that goes into your car is — under normal use and service — free from defects in material and workmanship for the period of the warranty.

SERVICE MANAGER SAYS:

Much of the burden of seeing that the new warranty is understood by the dealers has fallen upon Paul F. Lorenz, national parts and service manager of Ford division.

"Most of our dealer comment has been overwhelmingly favorable," Lorenz said in an interview. "They view it as a chance to recapture some of the service business which has been going to filling stations and independent garages. And it is a valuable aid in selling new cars."

Normal service means following the recommendations in the owner manual. For Ford these include a change of oil and the oil filter after the first 1,000 miles (owner expense), change of oil every 4,000 miles thereafter (also owner expense); one engine tuneup and a brake inspection at or near the end of the first 12,000 miles or 12 months.

★ ★ ★

"This work doesn't have to be done by a Ford dealer to keep the warranty in effect," Lorenz said, "although of course we'd rather have it done by a dealer. If a man brings his car to the dealer it gives him the opportunity to check on other items such as door rattles, or burned out bulbs."

Lorenz has been busy meeting with Ford dealer groups, emphasizing the importance of providing adequate service. He admits it will be up to the dealers to make the extended warranty work.

Lorenz says Ford's decision to extend the warranty was no quick move. "We have been working up to it for some time," he said, "and new improvements made it possible, such as our 30,000-mile interval between grease jobs, our aluminized mufflers, new oil filter and our new system which eliminates entirely the need to change the fluid in automatic transmissions."

★ ★ ★

Ford believes it took the other automakers by surprise and forced their hands on the new warranty. "I don't believe any of them would have done it if we hadn't announced it," Lorenz said.

The other companies disagree, particularly General Motors.

All of the companies have had an extended warranty arrangement with their dealers since the end of World War II covering major components such as automatic transmissions.

The dealers on occasion would extend this to the customer although often it would be made to appear an extra favor. Some dealers charged the customer for the work, then received payment from the factory as well.

"Fortunately," Lorenz said, "I believe such dealers were few and far between."

None of the new warranties covers tires. The tire manufacturers have their own. Ford covers batteries fully for the first 12 months or 12,000 miles, then prorates the difference up to 24 months.

If a part is replaced during the original warranty period, the replacement part is guaranteed for the rest of the warranty, or for 90 days or 4,000 miles, whichever is longer.

Normally no major trouble develops in the first 12,000 miles of any car. But it took the manufacturers 52 years to guarantee this in writing to the buyer.

Takes Charge in Hall Dispute

Mayor Miriani Plans to Cover Preconvention Negotiations for Cobo

DETROIT (AP) — Mayor Louis Miriani, by his own order, has taken charge of all preconvention negotiations with Cobo Hall exhibitors who will come to Detroit for future conventions.

In addition, Miriani went afield to see how other cities handle their convention affairs. He ordered that an investigator be sent to Cleveland to look at that city's methods.

He said "I understand they've been in the business there for 30 years and they never had any major problems. Maybe we should see what they are doing."

★ ★ ★

The mayor said he was dissatisfied with the way the Civic Center Commission handled matters. The $54-million Cobo Hall is the newest showpiece of Detroit's Civic Center.

Hot words continued right up to the end of the bottlers show Thursday evening. Representatives of the service bureau that supplies convention labor and the firm which handled the show disputed heatedly.

Exhibitors among the bottlers had charged union interference with their displays. They also complained about labor costs. The unions said they only followed established practice and denied that costs were too much.

Polish Arrest Third 'U.S. Agent' in Week

WARSAW (UPI) — The Polish News Agency Pap reported that security agents had arrested a third U.S. intelligence agent within a week.

Pap identified the man as Jerzy Goldman, a resident of Zernica. It said he had visited Germany last year and turned over to a member of the U.S. intelligence staff, identified as "Wilnowski," information on the Polish state.

★ ★ ★

Pap did not give any further details nor connect it with the previous arrests of Stanislaw Pawlak near Wroclaw and Wieslaw Stepek, editor of a Polish language newspaper in West Germany. They also were said to be working for U.S. intelligence agents.

Kodak Workers to Get Record Wage Dividend

ROCHESTER (UPI) — Employes of Eastman Kodak Co. got the good news Friday. Their annual wage dividend, to be paid next March, will be bigger than ever.

★ ★ ★

The board of directors voted a record dividend to be shared by some 47,000 Kodak employes in the United States.

Eligible employes will receive $36 for each $1,000 they earned with the company during the five years 1956 through 1960.

The rate compared with $34.50 per $1,000 of earnings paid the employes last March.

The 48th dividend declared since the profit-sharing plan was started in 1912, it will be paid to employes March 21, 1961.

Total wage dividends to be paid in 1961 amount to $48 million, compared to $44.5 million last March.

U. N. Assembly Meeting Today

U.S. Will Be Pleased If Kasavubu's Delegates Win Congo Seats

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) — The General Assembly was summoned today into an unusual Saturday session which appeared certain to approve the seating of a Congolese delegation appointed by pro-Western Joseph Kasavubu.

The action, quarterbacked chiefly by the United States, would mean a major boost to President Kasavubu's prestige as the acknowledged top governmental authority in the Congo.

It would be a serious blow to the efforts of Russia and some Asian and African countries to restore the prestige of ousted leftist Premier Patrice Lumumba.

At least seven speakers were listed for today's debate. They represented the Ivory Coast, the Philippines, the Soviet Union, Romania, Greece, Guinea and Mali.

★ ★ ★

In Leopoldville, three Ghana diplomats ordered out of the Congo by Col. Joseph Mobutu's high commission began packing up today even before the official expulsion order was delivered to their embassy.

A foreign ministry spokesman said the expulsion did not mean the Congo was breaking relations with Ghana.

U. N. deputy special representative Gen. Inderjit Rikyhe said the United Nations would not interfere in the order because the world organization considered the incident an internal affair between the two nations.

GOP Sends Probers Into Eight States

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican trouble-shooters are being sent into eight states to take a "close, hard look" at the presidential election results—and decide whether recounts could change those results.

The decision was taken Friday at a meeting of three of Vice President Richard M. Nixon's top echelon campaign strategists, Leonard W. Hall, Robert H. Finch and Fred C. Scribner. Finch emphasized that Nixon himself had no part in the plan and hadn't been consulted.

Republican party representatives are being sent to Illinois, Texas, Missouri, New Mexico, Nevada, South Carolina, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

25,000 COMPLAINTS

Lou Guylay, spokesman for the Republican National Committee, said an estimated 25,000 complaints claiming voting irregularities have been received, many urging recounts.

★ ★ ★

He said the party agents will check these complaints and try to determine whether a recount in those states might turn Republican defeat into belated victory for Nixon.

As it stands now, with vote counts still trickling in here and there, Democrat John F. Kennedy still has assurance of 300 electoral votes, 31 more than the minimum for election.

Kennedy—33,895,468

This gave Kennedy an edge of 185,395 out of the more than 67½ million votes cast for the major party candidates.

Two Architects Join Firm of Harry Denyes

The Pontiac architectural firm of Harry M. Denyes Jr., Associates, located in the Community National Bank Building, has announced the addition of architects Richard A. Pearson and Jack I. Lamb.

Pearson, of 69 N. Ardmore St., was formerly with the Pontiac architectural firm of William Zimmerman Associates. He participated in design and construction of many local commercial structures.

He is a graduate of the University of Detroit and has worked in the Pontiac area for the past 16 years. With the Denyes firm he will be designer and project manager.

Lamb, of 5181 W. Doherty Drive, West Bloomfield Township, joins the firm as project manager and chief draftsman. He is a graduate of Lawrence Institute of Technology.

Prior to entering the Denyes firm he worked for several architectural firms in Detroit.

Flocks of birds are believed to have caused the crash of an Electra Oct. 4, which killed 62. Thursday a huge flock of birds forced an Eastern Airlines jet to a stop as it was taking off with 108 persons aboard.

Central and Northern Bands Meet 1st Time

Most of the cheers that rocked Wisner Stadium last night were for football players battling each other for the first time.

But working just as hard were the Pontiac Central and Northern bands. They strutted in all their finery for the first time on the same gridiron — and the last time on any gridiron this year.

Friday marked the fifth show for each band this season.

The fast-stepping Pontiac Central Band played at Saginaw, Oct. 14, and first appeared in Pontiac with a political show at the Flint Southwestern game Oct. 21.

The band played for homecoming Oct. 28 and did an outstanding "Compact Car Show" featuring the Pontiac Tempest at the game a week ago Friday.

Morse has been assisted in presenting the halftime shows by music instructors Fred Smith of Jefferson Junior High, and Gerald Irish of Washington Junior High.

★ ★ ★

Under the leadership of Eldon Rosegart, the Northern band presented shows at all Pontiac Northern home games.

With both bands meeting on the same field, people attending the game saw a double barrel halftime show, win or lose.

'Bama Papers Seek to Sway Kennedy Electors

MOBILE, Ala. (UPI)—Two Alabama newspapers began a campaign Friday aimed at keeping John F. Kennedy out of the White House, and an Alabama lawyer said he was getting "terrific support" for a similar plan.

The Mobile Press-Register, Inc., publisher of two daily newspapers, urged Southern presidential electors to organize and force the election into the U.S. House of Representatives.

The newspapers plan to continue their editorial campaign until the Electoral College meets Dec. 19.

Lea Harris, a Montgomery, Ala., lawyer, said last night he has written the 119 electors in Southern and border states suggesting a meeting to discuss the "South Versus Kennedy." Harris said response was "terrific."

SLAP BACKFIRES — Singer-actor Elvis Presley was supposed to be the victim in this scene from the 20th Century Fox picture "Wild in the Country," being filmed near Napa, Calif., but instead it turned out to be Millie Perkins. A studio physician bandaged her wrist and gave her a pain tablet.

Schoolboy Stabbed in Unprovoked Attack

★ ★ ★

Gerald Smith was hospitalized in serious condition in what police called an unprovoked attack. They were holding 10 Negro youths for investigation of felonious assault.

Smith was stabbed twice in the back as he and Olivia Ramirez, 17, left the school. Miss Ramirez was unharmed.

★ ★ ★

Clare West, 45, a teacher who witnessed the attack, said he heard one of the youths say: "Let's get this one." West said he tried to halt the attack and one of the youths swung a wine bottle at him.

Three Judges Eye Integration

New Orleans Uneasy but Calm as It Awaits Court Decision

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — An uneasy calm settled over this strife-troubled city today while a three-judge court decided what course school integration would take.

There was no indication when the court would rule.

The judges, all Southerners, considered these paths:

★ ★ ★

They can put off integration until emotions subside and a federal-state tangle unravels. They can leave in effect a court order that admitted four Negro first grade girls to two white schools.

★ ★ ★

Or they can dismiss legal action against Louisiana which blocks its legislature from running New Orleans schools on a segregated basis.

★ ★ ★

New Orleans first public school integration since reconstruction brought a week of school boycotts, unruly protest demonstrations, and street fights.

TEMPERS COOLING

Tempers finally cooled as schools recessed for a week to allow teachers to attend statewide conventions in Baton Rouge and for the Thanksgiving holiday.

★ ★ ★

The court's decision could set in motion the lowering of the traditional segregation barrier in the city's Catholic schools.

★ ★ ★

Catholic officials say parochial first-grade classes will admit Negro pupils when and if public school racial mixing is working.

In Baton Rouge, Louisiana's legislators toned down their dander and called for an end to violence. The legislature adjourned until Wednesday.

Farmington Twp. Woman Dies of Burns

Mrs. Catherine Petrimoul of 29287 Rochcastle St., Farmington Township, died yesterday at William Beaumont Hospital from burns suffered in a fire at her home last Sunday.

She had burns over 80 per cent of her body.

Her husband, in fair condition, suffered burns over 40 per cent of his body.

Group to Study Tenure Case

State Commission May Decide Vogel Contract in December

The Michigan State Tenure Commission last night indicated it would study the case of dismissed Pontiac school teacher Mrs. Isa M. Vogel and possibly may hand down a decision before Christmas.

Mrs. Vogel, former Herrington Elementary School teacher, appealed her case to the tenure commission last summer after the Pontiac Board of Education refused to renew her contract at the end of the 1959-60 school year.

At the second appeal hearing last night, the Pontiac Board of Education indicated that after reading transcripts of the five hearings held in Pontiac, it would stick by its decision not to renew the contract.

The three-member tenure commission now has copies of the transcripts and will read them between now and Dec. 9, the scheduled date of the next hearing.

"If any other testimony is to be added it will have to be added by that date," said William R. Beasley of Ferndale, attorney for Mrs. Vogel.

★ ★ ★

"Otherwise, the commission indicates it will reach a decision on the basis of these transcripts," he said.

Whether hearsay testimony is acceptable as evidence in a local school board hearing into grounds for dismissal of a teacher was questioned.

Nonunion Standard Oil Workers Get Pay Hike

DETROIT (AP) — Standard Oil Friday raised the wages of nonunion employes in Michigan's Lower Peninsula by 5 per cent and announced an offer of the same wage increase had been made in contract negotiations in Grand Rapids and Detroit.

A total of about 500 employes was said to be included.

The company said it made the 5 per cent offer in a two-year contract proposal to Local 103 of the Central States Petroleum Union in Grand Rapids and Local 1 of the United Oil Workers in Detroit.

Cranberries Safe for 1960 Holiday

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government reports the 1960 cranberry crop is safe—free of a weed killer which caused cancer in laboratory animals and led to warnings of possible danger to humans last Thanksgiving.

Sec. Arthur S. Flemming of the Health, Education and Welfare Department told a news conference that all reports of this year's expected record crop had been "favorable."

Flemming said the Food and Drug Administration had been watching the crop "very closely" and had found no evidence of contamination by aminotriazole — the suspect weed killer.

Flemming's disclosure three weeks before last Thanksgiving that parts of the 1958 and 1959 cranberry crops had been tainted by the weed killer dealt a severe blow to the cranberry industry.

In a peacetime year nine states use 80 per cent of the U. S. supply of steel. They are New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, California and Texas.

DeSoto All Done, Says Chrysler

To Wind Up Production Nov. 30, With Rebate Offered Up to 1963

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. will stop producing its medium priced DeSoto car Nov. 30.

The corporation blamed shifts in market patterns, the general buying trend away from the medium price field in favor of less expensive, economy type cars.

But shifts within the Chrysler family of cars indicated the corporation had planned well in advance for the final discontinuance.

In the 1960 model year DeSoto was trimmed to two series of six cars as Dodge moved from the medium price field to the so-called low price field with the introduction of the Dodge Dart.

In 1961 the DeSoto was trimmed to two cars when Chrysler division offered a new, low price series called the Newport, priced right where DeSoto had tried to sell. Except for the front grille the DeSotos were almost identical to the Newport series.

As in the case of Ford's ill-fated Edsel, another unsuccessful venture into the medium price field, Chrysler announced a rebate plan for people who had bought 1961 DeSotos.

They can get a $300 rebate on another Chrysler product, providing they trade before Jan. 1, 1963. The Edsel rebate, also $300, carried no cutoff date.

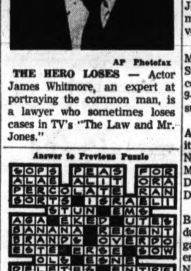

In the 32 years since it was introduced by Walter Chrysler, DeSoto has sold just over two million cars. One million still are in operation. But sales dropped spectacularly after 1957 and had dwindled almost into oblivion in recent months.

Robber Camera Shy

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—When the Liberty National Bank & Trust Co. branch was robbed of $18,000, a hidden automatic camera took pictures every 15 seconds as it was supposed to do. But, said bank officials Friday, the robber was out of range in every picture.

U. S. Gets Word From Governments Anxious to Contact Kennedy

The State Department was reported today to have received a number of messages for Kennedy from foreign sources. These were described as including some invitations to him.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter has instructed that all such messages be passed on to Kennedy representatives speedily and without volunteered comment or advice.

Under Herter's directive, advice may be given, however, if Kennedy's representatives ask an opinion or recommendation.

★ ★ ★

Herter has appointed Asst. Secretary William B. MacComber Jr., who handles State Department relations with Congress, to serve as the contact man between the department and Kennedy's staff.

The word "mind" was originally a verb rather than a noun.

PET DOCTOR

By A. W. Moller, D.V.M.

Q. My female boxer has a blood cancer. Will an operation prolong the dog's life? — Mrs. E. V. Cropler, Jacksonville, Fla.

A. It is difficult for me to advise you without knowing the exact type of cancer involved. Surgical removal of the benign cancer will rid the dog of this growth for once and for all.

If diagnosis has shown malignancy and the cancer is localized, surgery followed by radiation treatment may save her life. When this dread disease has spread out of control, it is humane to relieve the animal of its suffering.

If your veterinarian has advised surgery, take his advice. I'm sure he feels there's hope, and in any case, it can do nothing but help your boxer.

Gauge Firm Purchased by American Radiator

NEW YORK (AP)—American Radiator & Standard Sanitary Corp. Friday acquired the Rochester Manufacturing Co., Inc., in exchange for about 125,000 shares of common stock.

American Radiator & Standard Sanitary said the Rochester, N.Y. firm will be operated as part of its Detroit Controls Division. Rochester Manufacturing makes gauges and instruments.

Former Circuit Judge Dies in West Branch

CHEBOYGAN (AP) — Former Circuit Judge Edward Bilitzke of West Branch dropped dead of a heart attack outside a Cheboygan Funeral home Thursday night. He was 66.

Bilitzke at one time was Otsego County prosecuting attorney at Gaylord and a former assistant state attorney general. In recent years he had been practicing law at West Branch.

About 75 per cent of all Tennessee's land is in farms and upwards of 60 per cent of all Tennessee's people are engaged in agriculture.

19 Plants Assembling Autos on Overtime

DETROIT (AP) — Ward's Automotive Reports said Friday 19 auto assembly plants are working overtime this week, boosting industry production to 149,494 passenger cars.

The statistical agency said 10 Ford plants, 6 Chevrolet plants and 3 Buick-Oldsmobile-Pontiac plants were scheduled for six-day weeks.

The Ford and B-O-P plants at Atlanta were closed all week. Plymouth in Detroit and Valiant and Dodge Lancer in Hamtramck worked only four days.

Ward's said total car and truck production for 1960 passed seven million during the week.

Building Up in October but Less Than in '59

The department estimated that work was begun on 107,000 housing units. This represented an annual rate of 1,231,000 or 15 per cent more than the September rate of 1,066,000.

The improvement, however, failed to erase all of the decline from August to September and left housing starts last month 11 per cent lower than a year ago.

S-P Plans Layoff in South Bend Plant

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Studebaker-Packard Corp. has announced tentative plans to cut "at least 1,000" men from its South Bend work force early in December.

★ ★ ★

L. E. Minkel, vice president for marketing, said the cutback, planned for the week of Dec. 5, reflects the Studebaker share of an industry-wide slowdown.

★ ★ ★

Minkel said if a recent surge in fleet buying continues, the company may postpone the layoffs, although "the industry in general has been having a tough time marketing the 1961 cars because too many 1960 models are still in stock."

The South Bend operation employs about 9,000 production workers.

New York City Vetoed as World Fair Site

PARIS (UPI) — The Bureau of International Expositions Friday turned thumbs down on New York City's plans to hold a world's fair in 1964-65.

The bureau announced it recommended to its member countries that they abstain from taking part in any exposition in the "American zone" during the next 10 years other than the fair to be held in Seattle in 1962.

A bureau official said the decision was reached on the basis of the bureau's ruling that no more than one international fair should be held in a zone within 10 years.

Ambassador Will Head NY Herald Tribune

NEW YORK (UPI) — Robert M. White II, president and editor of the New York Herald Tribune, has resigned and Ambassador John Hay Whitney will take over the duties of president and publisher soon, it was announced.

Whitney said in a statement that White "has informed me of his desire to resign those offices, and his resignation has been regretfully accepted, effective when I return."

Whitney also said that whe he retires from the Court of St. James in London, he will make management of the newspaper his primary interest.

Cuba Seeking More Arms

Castro Skirts Rocket Rattling, Red Hand Seen

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — Premier Fidel Castro is mortgaging Cuba's future for more Communist weapons despite a Red-supported buildup which already has given him the largest military force in Latin America, American officials said today.

They said Castro's chief lieutenant, Ernesto (Che) Guevara is known to be making more deals for Communist tanks, planes and other armaments during his current trip behind the Iron Curtain.

In Havana the muting of Castro's rocket-rattling warnings to the United States heightened speculation that Moscow has advised him to take a more moderate course in his dealings with Washington.

The Kremlin's hand may be behind the lessening of attacks in the government press against President-Elect John F. Kennedy—in contrast with the increased tempo against President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard Nixon—possibly with a view to keeping a path open to later conciliatory approaches.

It was noted that Castro's newspapers and radio made no mention of Soviet rocket support in their blasts at President Eisenhower for ordering U.S. Navy ships and planes to set up anti-invasion patrols off Guatemala and Nicaragua.

The U.S. State Department Friday night claimed that Castro, with a 40,000-man regular army and a well-armed militia of more than 200,000, has a military force 10 times as large as Cuba had before he came to power.

The department said Cuba had received more than 28,000 tons of Communist armaments, mostly from Russia and Czechoslovakia.

In addition, the department said Castro had obtained large quantities of arms from other nations, principally Belgium.

In a special statement, this coun-

President-Elect Pores Over Plans to Change Defense Department

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Times said today that President-Elect John F. Kennedy "is giving serious consideration to the appointment of his younger brother Robert as attorney general."

A Palm Beach, Fla., dispatch by W. H. Lawrence added: "No final decision has been made and none probably will be until the two brothers have had an opportunity to talk out the matter fully."

Robert Kennedy, 34, already has made a national reputation as counsel for Senate investigating committees.

Among them was the Senate labor management committee which investigated teamsters' head James R. Hoffa.

At Palm Beach, the president-elect tackled a study of the Defense Department looking toward the streamlining he says it needs for this nuclear age.

For the study, to continue over the weekend, the Democratic winner called in Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., secretary of the Air Force in the Truman administration and mentioned frequently as a possible Kennedy choice for secretary of defense.

At Kennedy's request, Symington has been charting Defense Department reorganization for some time and now is ready to make recommendations for the program the new administration will send to Congress shortly after Jan. 20.

DEFENSE PLANS

During the campaign Kennedy said that as president he would seek increased efficiency in the Pentagon setup and aim at economies in administration of the huge defense program.

On the other hand, Kennedy also is on record as favoring a 2½ to 3 billion-dollar hike in spending to bolster the nation's military might.

Fly to Germany for Gold Talks

Sec. Anderson, Dillon Want Bonn to Increase Its Foreign Aid

BONN, Germany (AP) — Two American officials fly here today for what are expected to be stormy economic talks designed to stem the drain on the U.S. dollar and gold reserves.

Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson and Undersecretary of State C. Douglas Dillon are bringing more than 20 experts from Washington with them.

The two men will try to persuade the West German government that it must contribute more money to aid underdeveloped nations.

The government has been unwilling to say just how much money it was prepared to spend.

The Cabinet, however, has approved a foreign aid program which informants said would total between $600 million and $900 million.

The bulk of the money would come from industry, which has agreed to make available $300 million by buying bonds paying 5 per cent interest over 15 years.

Another $119 million would come from the sale of shares of the state-owned Volkswagen company.

Three Die on Their Job

Spectacular Fire Traps, Kills New York Firemen

NEW YORK (AP) — A nine-alarm fire roared through old buildings in lower Manhattan Friday night, trapping and killing three firemen and injuring a dozen others.

The flames, belching dense, black smoke, vari-colored sparks and embers high over the Manhattan skyline, could be seen for miles. Thousands of spectators thronged to the scene.

The three firemen literally slid to death into the basement of the five-story loft building.

The men, the first to reach the scene, started down to the basement only to find the stairs had been converted into a chute for sliding merchandise to the cellar.

Once in the smoke-filled basement they were unable to find their way out.

The fire broke out shortly after 5 p.m. in a 100-year-old brick building housing textile concerns at Broadway and Grant St. Within minutes it was turned into a torch as flames mushroomed through the building, then spread to five neighboring structures. The fire was out of control for more than eight hours, feeding on bolts of cloth and other materials.

Five alarms were sounded in Manhattan and four in Brooklyn, bringing 54 pieces of fire equipment and more than 350 firemen.

OK MSUO Accelerated Program

EAST LANSING—Michigan State University Oakland will have a stepped-up program of education starting next fall.

The Michigan State University Board of Trustees yesterday approved a plan under which next year's MSUO freshmen will be able to graduate in two and two thirds years instead of four.

The plan provides for three 15-week sessions called trimesters. Students will go to school throughout the year, with the exception of the month of August.

Tentative planning calls for the three sessions to run from Sept. 5, the day after Labor Day, to Dec. 20; from Jan. 3 to April 13, and from April 23 to Aug. 5. This would mean only seven weeks of vacation annually instead of the usual 20.

Trustees raised the possibility of MSUO adding a summer term, which would make MSUO's schedule similar to that of MSU.

"Under our plan, there would be fewer starts and stops during the year," Varner said. "I realize that we at MSUO are departing from some longheld notions.

"But MSUO is a new and small institution—and we have the opportunity to experiment. We'd like to give it a try."

Varner said other academic schedules permitted students to begin vacations in June.

"If we are to meet the need for educated brains, then students must remain in school for more than nine months of the year," Varner declared.

"Our second session will end in April which is not a convenient time for students to stop. Therefore our plan contains a 'hidden persuader' which will encourage students to enroll in year-round classes."

MSUO's plan provides for faculty pay of three per cent of an

Party Changes Being Eyed in Both County and State

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Political parties don't roll over and play dead after an election.

The 1962 and 1964 elections aren't as far away as some might think—or hope.

Much facelifting is expected in the ranks of both Democrats and Republicans—on a state and county level—before then.

Already in Republican ranks there is talk of who will run for governor in 1962 with the announced exodus of twice-defeated candidate Paul D. Bagwell. Some are talking about drafting Bagwell despite his insistence that he's through running.

Gov.-Elect John B. Swainson is shaping up his "cabinet" of appointees. These should be pretty well known by the time the Democratic State Central Committee meets Dec. 4.

A number of Oakland County Democrats are wondering what's in store for Mrs. Harriett Phillips, an eight-year member of the State Central Committee and one of the party stalwarts in the county.

This depends largely, some believe, on the future of State Chairman Neil Staebler and Vice Chairman Mrs. Adelaide Hart. The vice chairmanship of the state party always goes to a woman.

Asked if she would accept this position, Mrs. Phillips, a Huntington Woods housewife, said "I don't know yet." "I'll have to discuss it with my husband," she said.

Mrs. Phillips spearheaded the drive in the county to elect Swainson. Bagwell, however, beat Swainson here by 32,970 votes.

Although slightly discouraged by not turning the county into their column after a massive reorganization program from chairman on down, Oakland Democrats have met several times already since the Nov. 8 election to start the work toward 1962.

James M. Ginn, appointed chairman in August after the reshuffling of party leaders after a succession of losses, has called for reports on how to strengthen the party's precinct organization and finances.

"We're not satisfied, naturally, because we hoped we could do better," Ginn said.

He said the county committee was awaiting the official canvass of the Oakland vote, expected to be finished next week, before making a statistical analysis of where the party gained and lost compared to previous years.

★ ★ ★

Besides shopping around for a candidate for governor, state and county Republicans are pondering who they want to lead the party as chairman for the next two years.

★ ★ ★

For his work in maintaining the GOP edge in Michigan's second largest county, some would like to reward Arthur G. Elliott Jr., county chairman, with the elevation to the state level.

Lawrence B. Lindemer, current chairman, said he'd probably announce in the next two weeks whether he will seek to hold onto the reins again. He said he expects to make his decision sometime after a meeting of the Republican State Central Committee on Dec. 3.

Of Elliott, Lindemer said, "Art is obviously one of the top ones." But he's written me that he would support my candidacy if I

Chicago Opens $35 Million Hall

Bids to Keep Conventions

CHICAGO — In a tremendous bid to retain the convention headquarters of the nation, this city opened McCormick Place last evening with a huge banquet.

★ ★ ★

Several hundred businessmen from all over the nation — including half a hundred from Europe and South America — met to see the new $35 million edifice which Chicago proposes to make the exhibitors' center of the country.

★ ★ ★

The building is 1,100 feet long and they say you could put Yankee Stadium and Wrigley Field in the two ends with Chicago's Soldier's Field between.

Arthur H. Motley was the principal speaker of the evening. He is the publisher of Parade and president of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

I had a nice visit with George Halas (Papa Bear) and asked him how he expected to come out with Detroit tomorrow, "The Lions will win," said George solemnly. Cautioned he might be quoted, Halas replied: "I still have to say the same. I'm afraid my little boys will be 'let down' after last Sunday's game.

★ ★ ★

Joe DiMaggio was there and I told him I played golf with an old pal of his — Charley Gehringer. "How's he doing?" asked DiMaggio instantly. Told Charley was doing very well, Joe said, "He has what it takes in baseball or business. He's one of the greatest." Gehringer and DiMaggio are probably two of the best businessmen baseball ever graduated. And incidentally, both look lean, hard and fit to play today.

Bernard Ridder Jr., an old associate on the AP Board of Directors, and publisher of the St. Paul Pioneer Press, told me Oakland Hills would be eased slightly for the 1961 National Open.

"Some wanted to make it even harder than it was last time," said Bernie, "but that was ruled out. We're going to give everyone a little fairer chance." Ridder is one of the directors of the United States Golf Association.

"Came back Wednesday," said he, "and I return Sunday." Imagine — interrupting a business trip to Europe to return home for three or four days.

try accused Communist nations of contributing to Caribbean tensions and of taxing the shaky Cuban economy with an excessive arms burden.

The department said in effect that Russia flouted Cuba's Latin neighbors by stepping up arms deliveries to Castro after the Western Hemisphere foreign ministers in August condemned Soviet and other Red intervention in hemispheric affairs.

The department's statement came only 24 hours after Eisenhower's disclosure that he had ordered U.S. warships and planes deployed off Cuba to block any Communist - backed aggression against this country's Latin American friends.

The Eisenhower order — the result of a request from Guatemala and Nicaragua who charged unsuccessful revolts against their governments in the past week were aided by Cuba — set off a chain furore, including both critical and approving comment in Latin America on the naval action and a Cuban letter of protest to the United Nations.

Guatemalan President Miguel Ydigoras also said he favored a Korean-type police action against Cuba, and both Guatemala and Nicaragua were reported considering invoking the hemisphere's 1947 Rio de Janeiro treaty of mutual assistance.

At the United Nations, Cuba complained to General Assembly President Frederick Boland about the U.S. order to protect Guatemala and Nicaragua.

LINKS IT TO AGGRESSION

Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa, in a letter to Boland, linked the peace patrol with his pending charge that the United States is planning "armed intervention" in Cuba.

★ ★ ★

This kind of talk abated after Castro himself told Cubans on Nov. 9 not to depend too much on Soviet offers of assistance and to rely on their own strength.

This speech followed by three days another by Soviet Ambassador Sergei M. Kudryavtsev at a labor rally.

Though almost every other Cuban speaker took glowing note of promises of Soviet rocket support in case of U.S. aggression, the Soviet diplomat stressed peaceful coexistence.

Well-informed sources said some of the Soviet diplomatic mission have dropped hints that the Kremlin, busy with its own problems with the United States, would like Castro to be a little less belligerent.

Deputies Seek Gunman in Area

Sheriff's deputies today were still searching for the gunman who terrorized an Oxford Township couple in their home Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

He held Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tatu of 2730 Drahner Road at gunpoint for almost an hour before deciding to leave. "You seem like good people," he said and left them unharmed.

★ ★ ★

Earlier, he had fired a shot after Mrs. Tatu, 51, when she attempted to flee.

"We have a prime suspect and are checking with other departments," said Detective Leo Hazen, acting undersheriff, today. He expected a more positive identification would be made later today when photos arrived from other police departments in the state.

★ ★ ★

The gunman had admitted to Tatu, 46, that he was wanted by the law.

He was in the Tatu home when the couple arrived at about 7 p.m., and surprised them at the door with a .22 caliber pistol.

The couple described the fugitive as about 28 years old, approximately 5 feet 7, weighing near 150 pounds. He was dirty and needed a shave, they said, and was wearing a black jacket with a red hood pulled over his black hair.

Deputies theorized the man was a fugitive from the law elsewhere in the state, and had broken into the darkened home in search of something to eat.

He had fried himself a couple of eggs before the couple arrived.

Berry Marks Milepost

Their millionth door was a Detroiter model.

Established before World War II, the Berry corporation moved into a new plant at 2400 Lincoln Ave. in 1955.

It also has subsidiary companies in Detroit, Chicago, and Wingham, Ont., and a manufacturing plant in West Bend, Wis.

"It gives me a tremendous thrill to see this one-millionth door come down the assembly line," said Glen Berry, president.

"I feel as if I'd made each of these doors myself but of course this record could never have been achieved without the wonderful cooperation we have had from our employes."

The corporation has also recently added a line of wood garage doors, enabling them to offer the widest range of garage door styles and prices in the industry.

DISCUSS NOVI NEEDS — Acting village manager of Novi Harold Ackley talks over some of the everyday problems of the growing community with Police Chief Lee BeGole. Ackley, given the job of administering village affairs last June on a temporary basis, is the village building inspector. He is also a member of the Walled Lake City Council.

Officially, Building Inspector; Unofficially, Novi Manager

By JIM LONG

Unofficially, he is the village manager.

The arrangement could continue almost indefinitely.

Ackley was given the job as manager temporarily last June after the village council fired Fred E. Olson as chief administrator of the two-year-old village.

At that time the village, the largest in Michigan, covering some 27 square miles, was beset by internal difficulties among councilmen, among residents, and between councilmen and residents.

★ ★ ★

Since then the giant village nas quieted down considerably, reworked its budget, paid off indebtedness, and is now on solid financial ground.

Residents, village employes and elected officials all agree that Ackley seems to be the one most responsible for the cooling-off period.

★ ★ ★

"Being so large the village is good source for groups wanting to fill areas for future development. We have ordinances controlling these areas and turn down many such requests just because they don't meet our specifications," he said.

"But then they go into court, get relief, and our ordinances seem useless."

Ackley pointed out that in many cases land filling is a necessity but it must be done properly or pollution of nearby waters could result.

Ackleys background makes him naturally aware of the high and low land problems that Novi faces as it continues to develop.

His interest in land development dates back to 1924 when he started working for the Michigan State Highway Department. His 12 years with the highway department ended in 1937.

"Those were the years that the state would sometimes go broke and we wouldn't work for a year," he said.

STUDIES BRIDGE

He recalls it was 1930 that he was part of a crew that did preliminary work on the even-then proposed Straits of Mackinac Bridge.

"Our job was to take depth sounding and boring of the rocks under the Straits. We never did find rock hard enough to support a bridge."

The success in constructing the bridge came after it was learned that rocks could be hardened artifically using a compound under pressure.

After leaving the state highway department he worked for the Schoolcraft Company Highway Department in the Upper Peninsula for a year.

A native of Germfask in Schoolcraft County, Ackley explained that the community was partially named after his grandfather, Ezikel Ackley, the first settler and first supervisor of the township.

He said that when the settlers got around to naming the settlement they decided to use the first letter of the last name of each pioneer.

Ackley lives at 150 Angle Road with his wife and three of four children. He has a married daughter living in North Carolina.

He has been a resident of Walled Lake since 1943. For four years he owned and operated the Walled Lake Electric shop.

★ ★ ★

In 1947 he became building inspector for Novi Township and then for the village when it incorporated.

Not satisfied with administering Novi's $179,000 annual budget as one of his chief duties in the village, he has added responsibilities in Walled Lake.

Last April he ran for election on the city council and won.

Physicians Failing Tests May Face Deportation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The State Department reports that 2,481 foreign physicians who failed recent American medical examinations may have to leave the country.

★ ★ ★

Department officials said Friday the doctors, who are working as interns and residents in U. S. hospitals, will lose their status as exchange visitors if they lose their jobs.

The American Medical Association (AMA) has informed hospitals they will lose accreditation to train doctors unless those who failed the examination are discharged by Dec. 31.

AMA officials told the State Department they will announce in about 10 days a plan to "ameliorate the situation for at least some of the doctors." Details of the plans were not made public.

The State Department said it recognized the doctors' problem but that "maintenance of acceptable standards of patient care" was more important.

★ ★ ★

Officials said some of the doctors could remain in this country by transferring to other exchange programs in which they would not treat patients. They also said there would be no rush to order the doctors out of the country, even though they were technically deportable.

★ ★ ★

They said the 2,481 doctors come from all parts of the world, many of them from the Philippines. They were among 8,713 foreign doctors who took the accrediation examination. Another 2,456 got marginal grades which allow them to continue working and retake the test in two years.

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, has made public a letter in which he urged the State Department to prevent what he called "an obvious injustice" in the case.

The chairman will be decided by party delegates in convention in February, two years after Lindemer won his second term in a battle with the conservative element pushing Sen. John P. Smeekens for the job.

Aside from where he stood on the chairmanship of the party which failed to push Bagwell to victory for the second time, Lindemer said he knew of "no definite program" being waged at this time for selecting the 1962 gubernatorial candidate.

He said it was too early.

"We are informally encouraging people to make their availability known, however," he said.

"It strikes me there won't be any elimination below two or three during the next year," the chairman said.

They are American Motors Corp. president George Romney, who received a spattering of write-in votes in the past election, Rep. Gerald R. Ford Jr. of Grand Rapids, Rep. Robert P. Griffin, once a resident of Pontiac who gained national attention for his co-sponsorship of the Landrum-Griffin labor reform bill, and Henry Ford II, president of Ford Motor Co.

Oakland County resident Richard C. Van Dusen, Detroit attorney who ran along with Bagwell in 1956 for attorney general, has been mentioned. Friends say he might have landed a job in Washington had Vice President Richard M. Nixon won. Van Dusen, of Bingham Farms, was Michigan chairman of the Volunteers for Nixon.

After earning a third term as the county's representative in Washington, some have asked about Congressman William S. Broomfield.

"He wants to stick it out in Congress," said Chad M. Ritchie, GOP party leader in the county.

Then there's defeated senatorial candidate Alvin M. Bentley of Owosso, Sen. Carlton H. Morris, who ran unsuccessfully against Bagwell in the primary, and Sen. John Stahlin of Belding, whose committee probed State Highway Department expenditures last year.

There may be others.

The Day in Birmingham

Yanuszeski to Be Chief for Township Firemen

BIRMINGHAM — Bloomfield Township Fire Marshall Volly V. Yanuszeski has been named chief of the 14-man township fire department, it was announced today.

The post has been vacant since a year ago with the resignation of Ralph Hemmerly.

A member of the department since 1948, Yanuszeski, 38, will take over the top fire job immediately. He has been fire marshal the last three years.

The appointment was recommended by township fire Commissioner Homer Case and authorized by the township board.

Yanuszeski, who lives at 151 N. Avery St., Waterford Township, is married and the father of two children.

A successor to the fire marshall's post has not yet been named.

Along with Yanuszeski's appointment officials announced that the township's newest fire station will be open for public inspection Nov. 27.

The open house will be held from 2 to 4 p.m.

COST $50,000

Recently completed at a cost of $50,000, Station 3 houses a new four-wheel-drive FWD pumper that has a capacity of pumping 750 gallons of water a minute.

Cost of the vehicle, including all the other necessary apparatus, plus an inhalator, was $22,000.

★ ★ ★

Presently the new station is manned by one fireman at all times, and will at a later date be manned by two firemen.

Along with the 14 paid members of the department the township has 40 volunteers on the fire fighting roster.

The new education building and cloister of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham will be dedicated at Sunday services, Nov. 27.

An open house will be held from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. that day.

Dr. Ralph Waldo Lloyd, president of Maryville College, Maryville, Tenn., will be the guest speaker at the morning dedication services.

Dr. Lloyd spoke at the dedication services of the original building.

The new facilities double the area used for the Christian education program, and care for children and youth, from infancy through high school, according to church officials.

★ ★ ★

The rooms will be used by the many adult organizations of the church for meetings and study programs.

A cloister, faced with 15 stained glass windows depicting the parables of Jesus, links the addition to the main sanctuary area.

An enclosed inner courtyard has been developed as a result of the new construction. It will be used for meditation and worship.

Clark Gable Is Buried in Quiet Rite

Filmdom's king, who died Wednesday of a heart attack, was buried with full military honors.

James Stewart, Robert Taylor and Spencer Tracy were among the pallbearers. Gable was laid to rest in a crypt beside that of Carole Lombard, third of his five wives, who was interred in 1942.

She died in a plane crash while on a World War II bond tour. It wasn't long afterward that Gable enlisted in the Air Force as a private.

Three years later he was a major with an air medal for five missions over enemy territory. The Air Force will conduct the simple rites in honor of Gable's wartime service.

The public was not permitted to attend. Friends said Gable wanted a quiet funeral.

Find 4 Children Living in Squalor

Dirty, Hungry Commerce Twp. Youngsters Put in County Home

Four young children, described as suffering from malnutrition and living in squalor, were removed from their Commerce Township home yesterday afternoon by sheriff's deputies and placed in the Oakland County Children's Home.

The mother, Mrs. Marjorie Biggins, was away when officers arrived at the home at 3346 Royal Blvd. They were summoned by neighborhood youths who were baby-sitting with the youngsters.

Deputies said they found the home in an unsanitary condition upon arrival. The children were dirty and ill-fed, they said.

Baby sitters, Frank Voge, 19, of 3340 Royal Blvd., and Gilbert Shaw, 19, said the children had had nothing to eat since that morning when they were fed an egg and potatoes.

The mother had left her children, Rickey 4, Steven 3, Cathy 2, and Allen 4 months, in care of the baby sitters at 8 a.m. when she went to Pontiac. The youths said this was a common occurrence and that the youngsters never had enough to eat to their knowledge.

Deputies told county juvenile authorities that a kitchen oven supplied the only heat for the home, as there was no fuel for a space heater.

★ ★ ★

The authorities ordered the children removed to the county home for proper care. The mother was to be notified upon her return home and will be summoned to appear in Juvenile Court Monday, authorities said.

Sol Dann Adds to Suit Names

Case Against Chrysler Asking Receivership in Court Wednesday

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—Detroit attorney Sol A. Dann Friday sought to include 12 companies and six individuals as defendants in a suit he has filed asking chancery court to put the Chrysler Corp. into the hands of a receiver.

★ ★ ★

Chancellor Collins J. Seitz set Wednesday for a hearing on Dann's motion. It asks permission to file a second amended complaint augmenting Dann's original suit for receivership.

Dann asked the court to include as defendants: Welker Manufacturing Co.; Eugene Welker; Electric Autolite Co.; Sam Keller Jr.; Yale & Towne Manufacturing Co.; Dearborn Machinery Movers; L.B. Roberts; Detroit Time Study School; Morgan Brenner; Ethel and Rosetto Silverman; Etco Sales Co.; Greenblatt Jewel & Supply Co.; Metal Products Co.; Miller Manufacturing Co.; Engleside Engineering Co.; Parliament Engineering Co.; and Berg Engineering Co. They were not otherwise identified.

The petition states that from 1940 to 1955, during which time K. T. Keller was president of Chrysler Corp., Keller and his family used his position and theirs to obtain millions of dollars in kickbacks and secret profits from suppliers.

One of the media through which this was accomplished was the Welker Manufacturing Co., operated by Eugene Welker, a brother-in-law of Keller, Dann's petition charges.

It adds that L. L. Colbert was chosen by Keller to succeed him as president of Chrysler so Keller could retain control of the huge automobile manufacturing firm.

It alleges that Colbert had fulfilled Keller's every expectation and has participated and is still participating through Electric Autolite and other sources in kickbacks and secret profits which would otherwise be within the exclusive province of the Keller family.

Central and Northern Bands Meet 1st Time

Most of the cheers that rocked Wisner Stadium last night were for football players battling each other for the first time.

But working just as hard were the Pontiac Central and Northern bands. They strutted in all their glory for the first time on the same gridiron — and the last time on any gridiron this year.

The fast-stepping Pontiac Central Band played at Saginaw, Oct. 14, and first appeared in Pontiac with a political show at the Flint Southwestern game Oct. 21.

★ ★ ★

The band played for homecoming Oct. 28 and did an outstanding "Compact Car Show" featuring the Pontiac Tempest at the game a week ago Friday.

Morse has been assisted in presenting the halftime shows by music instructors Fred Smith of Jefferson Junior High, and Gerald Irish of Washington Junior High.

★ ★ ★

Under the leadership of Eldon Rosegart, the Northern band presented shows at all Pontiac Northern home games.

★ ★ ★

With both bands meeting on the same field, people attending the game saw a double barrel halftime show, win or lose.

Smith was stabbed twice in the back as he and Olivia Ramirez, 17, left the school. Miss Ramirez was unharmed.

Clare West, 45, a teacher who witnessed the attack, said he heard one of the youths say: "Let's get this one." West said he tried to halt the attack and one of the youths swung a wine bottle at him.

Cranberries Safe for 1960 Holiday

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government reports the 1960 cranberry crop is safe—free of a weed killer which caused cancer in laboratory animals and led to warnings of possible danger to humans last Thanksgiving.

Sec. Arthur S. Flemming of the Health, Education and Welfare Department told a news conference that all reports of this year's expected record crop had been "favorable."

Flemming said the Food and Drug Administration had been watching the crop "very closely" and had found no evidence of contamination by aminotriazole — the suspect weed killer.

Flemming's disclosure three weeks before last Thanksgiving that parts of the 1958 and 1959 cranberry crops had been tainted by the weed killer dealt a severe blow to the cranberry industry.

Nonunion Standard Oil Workers Get Pay Hike

DETROIT (AP) — Standard Oil Friday raised the wages of nonunion employes in Michigan's Lower Peninsula by 5 per cent and announced an offer of the same wage increase had been made in union contract negotiations in Grand Rapids and Detroit.

A total of about 500 employes was said to be included.

The company said it made the 5 per cent offer in a two-year contract proposal to Local 103 of the Central States Petroleum Union in Grand Rapids and Local 1 of the United Oil Workers in Detroit.

Three Judges Eye Integration

New Orleans Uneasy but Calm as It Awaits Court Decision

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — An uneasy calm settled over this strife-troubled city today while a three-judge court decided what course school integration would take.

There was no indication when the court would rule.

The judges, all Southerners, considered these paths:

★ ★ ★

They can put off integration until emotions subside and a federal-state tangle unravels. They can leave in effect a court order that admitted four Negro first grade girls to two white schools.

★ ★ ★

Or they can dismiss legal action against Louisiana which blocks its legislature from running New Orleans schools on a segregated basis.

★ ★ ★

New Orleans first public school integration since reconstruction brought a week of school boycotts, unruly protest demonstrations, and street fights.

TEMPERS COOLING

Tempers finally cooled as schools recessed for a week to allow teachers to attend statewide conventions in Baton Rouge and for the Thanksgiving holiday.

★ ★ ★

The court's decision could set in motion the lowering of the traditional segregation barrier in the city's Catholic schools.

★ ★ ★

Catholic officials say parochial first-grade classes will admit Negro pupils when and if public school racial mixing is working.

★ ★ ★

In Baton Rouge, Louisiana's fiery legislators toned down their dander and called for an end to violence. The legislature adjourned until Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

She had burns over 80 per cent of her body.

Her husband, in fair condition, suffered burns over 40 per cent of his body.

Group to Study Tenure Case

State Commission May Decide Vogel Contract in December

The Michigan State Tenure Commission last night indicated it would study the case of dismissed Pontiac school teacher Mrs. Isa M. Vogel and possibly may hand down a decision before Christmas.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Vogel, former Herrington Elementary School teacher, appealed her case to the tenure commission last summer after the Pontiac Board of Education refused to renew her contract at the end of the 1959-60 school year.

At the second appeal hearing last night, the Pontiac Board of Education indicated that after reading transcripts of the five hearings held in Pontiac, it would stick by its decision not to renew the contract.

The three-member tenure commission now has copies of the transcripts and will read them between now and Dec. 9, the scheduled date of the next hearing.

★ ★ ★

"If any other testimony is to be added it will have to be added by that date," said William R. Beasley of Ferndale, attorney for Mrs. Vogel.

"Otherwise, the commission indicates it will reach a decision on the basis of these transcripts," he said.

Whether hearsay testimony is acceptable as evidence in a local school board hearing into grounds for dismissal of a teacher was questioned.

Churchill Now Free From Pain in Back

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill had a peaceful night free from pain in his injured back, an informant close to his family said today.

It was the best news of the 85-year-old statesman's condition since he broke a small bone in his back last Tuesday night and was confined to bed in his London home.

GOP Sends Probers Into Eight States

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican trouble-shooters are being sent into eight states to take a "close, hard look" at the presidential election results—and decide whether recounts could change those results.

The decision was taken Friday at a meeting of three of Vice President Richard M. Nixon's top echelon campaign strategists, Leonard W. Hall, Robert H. Finch and Fred C. Scribner. Finch emphasized that Nixon himself had no part in the plan and hadn't been consulted.

Republican party representatives are being sent to Illinois, Texas, Missouri, New Mexico, Nevada, South Carolina, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

25,000 COMPLAINTS

Lou Guylay, spokesman for the Republican National Committee, said an estimated 25,000 complaints claiming voting irregularities have been received, many urging recounts.

★ ★ ★

He said the party agents will check these complaints and try to determine whether a recount in those states might turn Republican defeat into belated victory for Nixon.

As it stands now, with vote counts still trickling in here and there, Democrat John F. Kennedy still has assurance of 300 electoral votes, 31 more than the minimum for election.

Kennedy—33,895,468

U. N. Assembly Meeting Today

U.S. Will Be Pleased if Kasavubu's Delegates Win Congo Seats

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) —The General Assembly was summoned today into an unusual Saturday session which appeared certain to approve the seating of a Congolese delegation appointed by pro-Western Joseph Kasavubu.

The action, quarterbacked chiefly by the United States, would mean a major boost to President Kasavubu's prestige as the acknowledged top governmental authority in the Congo.

It would be a serious blow to the efforts of Russia and some Asian and African countries to restore the prestige of ousted leftist Premier Patrice Lumumba.

At least seven speakers were listed for today's debate. They represented the Ivory Coast, the Philippines, the Soviet Union, Romania, Greece, Guinea and Mali.

In Leopoldville, three Ghana diplomats ordered out of the Congo by Col. Joseph Mobutu's high commission began packing up today even before the official expulsion order was delivered to their embassy.

A foreign ministry spokesman said the expulsion did not mean the Congo was breaking relations with Ghana.

U. N. deputy special representative Gen. Inderjit Rikyhe said the United Nations would not interfere in the order because the world organization considered the incident an internal affair between the two nations.
