Meet the New Supervisors

ON COUNTY'S GOVERNING BOARD—These are the 11 new faces on the 1959-60 Oakland County Board of Supervisors. From top to bottom, counter-clockwise: Edward Cheyz, White Lake Township; Robert D. Romer, Clawson; Alex Majer and Edmund R. Hocking, both of Hazel Park; Donald McPherson, Berkley; David R. Calhoun, Huntington Woods; Fred W. Hildebrandt, Troy; Curtis H. Probate Judge Vote Set for '60 by Supervisors

Governor Would Fill Additional Position if Voters Approve It

A proposed second Oakland County probate judgeship will be put to a county-wide vote next year.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday picked the presidential election in November of 1960 to submit the much-debated question to county voters.

After several previous clashes between Republican and Democrat supervisors over the question at other meetings, Monday's approval of the vote came without comment from the floor.

Should Oakland voters approve a second $22,500 per year probate judge, he would take office Jan. 1, 1961. The appointment would be made by the governor.

Several Democrats on the Board of Supervisors had accused Republican supervisors of stalling and attempting to devise a means of securing a second probate judge, without having the governor appoint him. Present legal requirements stymied this.

Republicans denied the charge, saying this was the soonest a new judge could be added.

The governor's appointee would serve for two years, through 1962. In the November election of that year voters would decide between candidates for the same office for the first regular four-year term beginning Jan. 1, 1963.

Should this all come about, it would mean that veteran Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore, a Republican, would be helped out on one of the heaviest probate and juvenile court case loads in Michigan.

Judge Moore said he agrees a second judge is needed, although he said he was never asked to appear before two committees of the Board of Supervisors to express an opinion on the question.

★ ★ ★

The committees, however, did work closely with a special committee of the Oakland County Bar Assn. which supposedly is in agreement with the supervisors on their plans.

Straley Appeals to Circuit Court

Adams Signs Writ for Records, Proceedings Linked to Ouster

Ousted Pontiac Police Chief Herbert W. Straley today filed an appeal of his dismissal in Oakland County Circuit Court in an attempt to win his job back.

Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams signed an order for a writ of certiorari which requires that all records and proceedings taken in connection with Straley's dismissal be turned over to the court by May 18.

Straley, who was hired as police chief in 1951, was fired April 4 by the unanimous vote of the three-member Civil Service Commission.

The commissioners found Straley guilty of inefficiency, incompetency, insubordination, neglect of duty and failure to maintain good behavior in the performance and discharge of his duties.

LISTS 7 REASONS

The appeal filed this morning by one of Straley's attorneys, Philip Pratt, listed seven reasons which claimed Straley was "illegally, unlawfully and erroneously suspended and discharged."

They were:

1. The Civil Service Commission acted without jurisdiction as the Civil Service Act was in conflict with the provisions of the City Charter.

2. Removal proceedings were not instituted by the proper party.

3. Order of suspension issued by City Manager Walter K. Willman was improper, illegal and contrary to the provisions of the act.

4. Written charges were either void or insufficient as they extended beyond the 90 days limitation as outlined in the act.

5. The Commission fired Straley contrary to the great weight of evidence as brought out during suspension hearings.

'ABUSED DISCRETION'

6. The Commission abused its discretion and acted without just cause and contrary to the evidence presented.

7. The removing officer failed to prove Straley guilty of acts, omis-

Need 18 Ballots for Bill to Pass State Senate

Stopgap Plan to Avert Bankruptcy Would Then Go to House

LANSING (AP) — The Senate took a vital step last night toward dissolving Michigan's acute cash emergency but put off an even more crucial decision until Wednesday.

Senate handicappers were betting on 18 or 19 votes for the trust fund bill on its second passage try, assuming no new alarms from Gov. Williams' office before the roll call.

Eighteen votes are required for passage.

The guessing was that 11 would come from Democrats, with an outside possibility that Sen. Philip Rahoi (D-Iron Mountain) might provide a 12th.

The rest would come from Republicans, building on the solid core of four that supported the bill last week—Frank D. Beadle of St. Clair, Lynn O. Francis of Midland, Clyde H. Geerlings of Holland and Haskell L. Nichols of Jackson.

Senate Gave Its All: Tension, Drama, Fun

LANSING (AP)—The massed audience looked down from the galleries and the speech-loving senators responded as senators always do.

The fervent oratory that rose from the floor of the high-ceilinged Senate chamber was the variety usually reserved for special occasions. Last night was one of them.

A standing-room-only crowd of nearly 700 state employes, lobbyists, college students, House members and all manner of other citizens jammed in to watch the debating over the fate of the veterans trust fund.

"Never saw anything like it," said Charles McNeil, legislative controller, who has listened to Senate debates since 1937.

"We've had big labor delegations before, things like that," he said. "But this is the first time I can remember a big cross-section of people like this."

It was a free show and it had everything—tension, drama, color and some good belly laughs.

"I'm willing to donate one month of my salary as a senator and if everybody but the little guys who can't afford it will do the same, it would get the state back on an even keel," he declared.

Sen. Charles T. Prescott (R-Prescott), former cattle rancher and at 74 the oldest senator, talked "the longest since I've been in the Legislature."

"Michigan Taxpayers are being taken for a ride," he said, "like Lady Godiva, who didn't win or place but sure did show."

The crowd roared.

Sen. Philip Rahoi (D-Iron Mountain), a former miner, said he had a promise to keep with his constituents, no matter what the feelings of his Democratic colleagues.

"My mother always told me to be honest and sincere and to stick with the boat once you've made your decision," he said in explaining his stand against utilizing the trust fund.

★ ★ ★

The rest of the Capitol was virtually deserted. The House whipped through its Monday night business and hurried to the other side of the rotunda to watch the Senate show.

Most of his cabinet huddled in

Sen. Lewis G. Christman of Ann Arbor, swung into their camp last night and Sen. John H. Stahlin of Belding, was expected to follow after clearing some lines in his district.

Sen. Elmer R. Porter of Blissfield, indicated he would supply the 18th vote if necessary. At one time or another, Sens. Lloyd C. Stephens of Scottville, and Arthur D. Dehmel of Unionville, have indicated they might back the bill.

Stung by criticisms from party leaders over the weekend, four Democrats who previously opposed the bill got behind it.

Panama Fears Cuban Attack

Charge Hired Fighters Massing for Invasion Attempts

PANAMA (AP)—Panama charged Monday night that hired fighters are massing in Cuba for more invasion attempts to overthrow President Ernesto de la Guardia.

Minister of Government Jose D. Bazan said the main body of the invaders had occupied and sacked the town of Nombre de Dios Monday after an advance of 35 miles along the coast.

An emergency meeting of the 21 members of the Organization of American States was called today in Washington to consider Panama's appeal for support in "resisting a foreign invasion."

Panamanian Foreign Minister Miguel Moreno said the OAS might fly a group down to study the situation.

The United States announced it is supplying Panama's 3,000-man defense force with small arms to fight off invaders.

Residents Don't Think Michigan's on Rocks

(Editor's Note: This is the first of a two-part series on the "Mood of Michigan," based on answers in a statewide poll on the state's financial difficulties. The survey was made by reporters of Associated Press member newspapers.)

By The Associated Press

If any state employe misses a payday because of a shortage of state money in Michigan it will come as a surprise to a lot of people.

Reporters who conducted more than 150 interviews throughout the state last week found that about two of every three people asked said they didn't believe the state's financial situation is desperate enough to mean no pay on payday.

They did find a lot who felt the situation is bad.

Lawrence A. Kenyon, a 32-year-old civil engineer in Marysville, says he feels certain Michigan is broke as far as cash goes.

"Why would anyone try to pull the wool over our eyes by mentioning payless paydays for state employes as a possiblity if it weren't true?" he asks.

Across the state in Niles, Archie Barkman, also 32, works in a drugstore.

He disagrees with Kenyon on payless paydays. But he adds:

★ ★ ★

But several people shared the view of Raymond J. Kelly Jr., a Flint stockbroker, who said "The state is 'cash' broke and the Legislature is not empowered to draw from its other stable accounts."

★ ★ ★

When it came to attempting to pin the blame, the answers varied widely.

Kelly said "Frankly the fault is with the people. Since no constitutional convention is held, the Legislature is tied to a Constitution which does not allow it to budget according to need."

In the interview one question read: "Gov. Williams says stalling in the Republican-controlled Legislature is to blame. What do you think?"

But Mrs. Lowran A. Cleaveland, a Grand Rapids housewife, said: "I've been a Republican all my life, but I think that's the trouble—stalling."

DOESN'T BLAME EITHER

John F. Boeheim, 65, a tailor in Saginaw, said he didn't think either Williams or the Legislature should be blamed.

"I think the financial crisis is the result of conditions in general . . . conditions would be the same no matter who was in office. It happens that I'm a middle-of-the-roader."

In Adrian, H. B. Mason, a clothing salesman, said he didn't think the Legislature was to blame but added: "The governor has a heck of a hard job."

A lot of the people felt both political parties rated at least some of the blame.

John J. Hacht, a heating contractor in Berkley said:

"I don't think the governor has been as efficient as he could have been, but final authorization comes from the Legislature.

"They were the ones who approved his spending. If they had been wide awake, they could have put the brakes on any time they wanted to."

A comment from Houghton: "The governor is trying to run the Legislature like a square dance but Elmer Porter and the boys don't like the way he calls the numbers."

John P. Haller, a merchant in Sault Ste. Marie, declared: "Both sides are acting like spoiled children and are making Michigan the

Here's Opinion Sampling of Pontiac Businessmen

(Editors Note: Pontiac Press reporters in participating in an Associated Press poll on the "Mood of Michigan," came up with these opinions from city residents contacted in the survey.)

Michigan isn't broke as some say it is.

The 50 million dollar Veterans Trust Fund belongs to everybody, not just veterans.

Schools are doing a pretty good job in Pontiac, although it might be a wise idea to utilize schools 12 months and thereby cut down the need of more school construction.

These comments came from five Pontiac businessmen as The Pontiac Press set out to find out the mood of Michigan.

Polled were John W. Hirlinger, manager of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce; John A. Riley, assistant advertising manager of The Press; Monroe M. Osmun, clothier; Thomas J. Whitfield, tax consultant; and Frank S. Lyndall, manager of the Sears Roebuck store.

All were well aware that the state has its problems, but opinions varied as to how serious they are.

"We have lots of money, but the Legislature can only touch about one-third of it because the rest is earmarked," Hirlinger said.

"Just the other day the state had $135,000,000 in its coffers, and at the same time we were talking about being financially strapped," he said.

"The fault for shortage of available funds lies not so much with the Legislature as with the people of Michigan who elected legislators to run our business, but at the same time surround it with so many constitutional amendments that it can't do the job," Hirlinger pointed out.

Riley joined with Hirlinger in saying the state is not broke. Osmun, Lyndall and Whitfield said it is.

Since there is general agreement that more revenue must be raised, the Pontiac men were questioned on whether they favored a one cent increase in the state sales tax, a graduated income tax, or a flat rate income tax.

Four — Riley, Osmun, Hirlinger and Lyndall — said they favored a sales tax increase to four cents, while Whitfield favored the graduated income tax.

Lyndall was torn between the tax increase and the flat rate income tax. He spoke out against the graduated tax.

When it came to the question about who was at fault for the stalemate in Lansing, it was generally agreed that the finger couldn't be pointed anymore at Gov. Williams and his Democrats than at the Republican-controlled Legislature.

Much of the trouble, the men said, was attributable to the playing of politics on both sides.

GM's Gordon Looks to 1965

'7¼ Million New Car Sales'

FLINT (AP)—President John F. Gordon of General Motors predicts an annual normal market of 7¼ million passenger cars by 1965.

He also says the car industry can expect sales increases averaging three per cent a year for the next five years.

GM's new president made the forecasts in a talk last night to the Flint Industrial Executives Club. Earlier he presided at the dedication of Chevrolet's new parts distribution center.

Gordon's predicted 7¼ million cars sales by 1965 would compare with the industry's 1955 record total of 7,170,000.

4.6 MILLION IN '58

Sales last year were 4,650,000. For this year 5½ to 6 million is predicted.

Pointing to an anticipated population of 190 million by 1965, he said experts have forecast an increase of 30 per cent in the number of families with annual income of $7,500 or more.

He said there will be a rise of more than one-third in the number of families owning more than one car.

At the dedication of the new parts center, Gordon said there are now more than 29 million General Motors cars and trucks on the nation's highways.

The parts center is an example of automation. It has an elaborate floor conveyor system on which driverless trucks travel a total of more than 9,000 feet carrying loads to storage places each predetermined by setting a dial on the truck.

Commission Set to Name Seven

New Police Trial Board Will Begin on Monday With Staggered Terms

Appointment of the seven-member police Trial Board is expected tonight.

Mayor Philip E. Rowston said he believed the City Commission was ready to act on a tentative list of nominees drawn up during an informal meeting Wednesday.

Replacing Civil Service, which voters repealed April 6, the new Trial Board will take office Monday, with staggered terms.

One term will expire in May of next year, three in May of 1961, and one each in 1962, 1963 and 1964.

The Trial Board is provided for in the City Charter. It governed the Police Department until 1957 when voters adopted Civil Service.

To make the new Trial Board more attractive to policemen, a special mayor's committee recommended that no more than three of the former Trial Board members be appointed to the new board.

The committee also recommended that the City Commission consider for appointment nominees from rank-and-file policemen.

There are seven public hearings scheduled tonight. One is on intention to construct a sanitary sewer on Court drive, from Mt. Clemens north 325 feet.

Three are on intention to install curbs and gutters on three streets, including Dellwood avenue, Earlmoor to Howard; Court drive, Mt. Clemens to Grandview; and Myra avenue, Voorheis to Sylvan.

Three are on special assessment rolls, covering paving on Pensacola avenue, Oakland to Monticello; Stanley avenue, Kinney to Kennett; and Wyoming avenue, Bagley to Franklin.

In other major business, commissioners will hear cost estimates on eight proposed curb and gutter projects and will authorize advertising for bids for the 1959 neighborhood paving program.

Double Birdie at Pine Lake Is Real Thing

Getting a double birdie is no mean feat in any golfer's league, but Clifford Kellstrom, Bloomfield Township, managed it last weekend on Pine Lake Country Club's 500-yard, par 5, 16th hole.

The hole started off normally enough, but Kellstrom's second shot sliced high and wide. Just as the ball was about to go out of bounds it hit a "south-bound duck." Both the duck and the ball fell inbounds, and Kellstrom finished out the hole with a birdie four.

The other birdie was eaten that evening in the club's grillroom.

REPORT ON ROCHESTER 'Y' — Howard Huttenlocher (left), retiring president of the YMCA, hears reports on the progress of the newly-organized branch 'Y' in Rochester. More than 500 persons have joined the new branch, it was reported yesterday at the Pontiac 'Y's annual meeting. systems. Although most of it amounted to praise, there was some criticism, like cutting out some of the "fancy frills" of construction and making schools more functional.

"Schools should be built for full-time use 12 months a year," Lyndall said. "This would eliminate much of the congestion in classrooms. A quarterly basis could be established for students so they would still get vacations."

None of those questioned expressed an opinion that teachers in the Pontiac school system were being overpaid. Most felt they were being paid what they should be.

Lyndall suggested what he called a "regimented" pay scale for teachers. "This way, we could pay fine teachers higher wages, thus providing an incentive to improve," he said.

Riley praised the six-hour curriculum at Pontiac Central High School, but criticized crowding of some classes where he believed more individual attention could be paid to each student.

Whitfield had his doubts about the value of some courses. He mentioned dancing, gym and swimming.

Warning was voiced by the majority about "floating" more bond issues to finance construction of more schools.

Whitfield said the more bond issues created the more money it takes from other operating expenses to retire the bonds. "It's sort of a dilemma," he said

It was suggested by Osmun that what money is available for our schools it should be used more to stress academic studies. He singled out the increase in science studies as an example.

During the questioning on what they felt were the strong and weak points of our educational system in Pontiac, Osmun said more attention should be paid to the counseling of students at the elementary and junior high levels.

"We need to point them in the right direction," he explained.

He was in favor of having citizens' groups working to bring about a higher tax or bond issue to enlarge the school system.

"It's a very fine thing when the public will come out to work for better schools," Osmun said.

"Campaigns will help schools and communities grow. Education means more highly educated people; educated people have more earning power; earning power means more buying power, which all adds up to better business," he added.

FAVOR SALES TAX

Hirlinger said business and labor people told him they would much prefer paying an increased sales tax instead of "having to shell out one large lump sum at the end of the year."

"For example," Hirlinger said, "a person earning $100 a week would have a sales-taxable income of only $50 a week, which means he would only pay about 50 cents more a week if the sales tax were increased one cent."

Those who favored the graduated income tax alternative stipulated that, should it ever be passed, all— low, middle and high — income earners should pay a share.

Whitfield said he believed the Veterans Trust Fund loomed as the most feasible source to help Michigan out of its fiscal troubles.

He added, however, that the fund shouldn't be tampered with without provisions to restore it.

★ ★ ★

"I feel that the Veterans Trust the state," Hirlinger countered. "I don't believe the people gave that money to the veterans forever, no matter what happens. It was for their assistance at the time the veterans were returning home."

Castro Debunks Charges

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Fidel Castro, en route to Buenos Aires for a Latin American economic conference, said here Monday night he has no interest in promoting revolutions in other countries.

★ ★ ★

The bearded Cuban prime minister spiked reports that he and his brother Raul, commander-in-chief of Cuba's armed forces, have been having disagreements.

Denying that he had any part in an attempted Panamanian revolution, Castro said that his only concern is in the Cuban revolution.

Earlier this week a small invasion force landed on the coast of Panama. Panamanian officials said several of those captured were Cubans and quoted them as saying Castro had encouraged them.

"We have not been helping any kind of movement in Panama," Castro told a news conference. "Our position (concern) is only in the Cuban revolution."

Castro was greeted by a crowd of 1,000 persons, shouting "Fidel! Fidel!", when he arrived in Houston.

Waiting for him was Raul who had flown in unannounced several hours earlier, amid reports from Cuba that the two brothers were in disagreement.

They held an unscheduled two-hour private conversation at the Shamrock-Hilton Hotel, where the brothers and their many aides occupied 56 rooms.

Fidel said he had phoned Raul Sunday and asked him to meet him in Houston. He said he had been out of Cuba for 10 days and he wanted Raul's impressions of how things were going.

Revive Vet Bill in State Senate

though "we are skating on very thin ice."

The biggest throng of the legislative session looked down from the gallery as senators, after thundering debate, voted 24 to 7 to revive the veterans trust fund bill.

The bill, which failed in a first passage test last week, provides for cashing the 50 million dollars in trust fund securities to fatten state treasury balances.

If the measure had failed to get a new life last night, it would have been as good as dead.

The Legislature's ultimate decision, and the timing of it, will decide whether four million dollars in poor relief payments to counties go out on time Thursday.

The semi-monthly pay of legislators and legislative staff members, due the same day, also hung in the balance. The next payroll for the bulk of the state's 32,000 employes is due May 7.

Eleven of the Senate's 12 Democrats backed the motion to reconsider, four more than supported the bill on passage last Thurday.

In an anti-climatic roll call test, the minority stood solidly together.

"This puts it squarely up to the Senate Republicans whether we are to have payless paydays and no money for welfare or not," Williams said.

He said tomorrow's vote will give the answer, adding:

"Any further delay would be disastrous."

Assuming the Senate finally approves the bill, it still faces House approval and immediate effect votes in both legislative branches.

Without immediate effect, which requires a two-thirds favorable vote, the legislation would be useless for 90 days.

Opponents assailed the bill as a "stopgap," a "rape of the veterans fund," a poor business transaction and as a device to force a personal income tax on the Legislature in June.

Straley Files Appeal With Circuit Court

sions and neglects specified in the written charges.

Pratt said the next stop will be the setting of a hearing before a circuit judge after he has had sufficient time to review hundreds of pages of hearing transcripts.

The judge, whoever is assigned the case, would base his decision entirely on these transcripts and records. No testimony will be necessary in Circuit Court, Pratt said.

The judge assigned the case conceivably could restore Straley to his job by reversing the ruling of the Civil Service Commission.

The other possibility is that the judge uphold the decision of the Commission.

If the latter happens, Straley will take his case to the Michigan Supreme Court for a further appeal, Pratt said.

Named in the writ issued today were the City of Pontiac; Stuart A. Austin, chairman of the Civil Service Commission, and Mrs. Ada R. Evans, city clerk.

Pratt said probably all that will happen on the deadline for submission of records will be the setting of a date when the assigned judge will hear oral arguments from Straley's attorneys and those representing the city and Civil Service Commission.

Pratt could give no estimate of when this might be. Nor would he guess how long the arguments would take.

Most Residents Feel State Not on Rocks

★ ★ ★

The people queried were asked about new taxes—would they prefer, if necessary, another penny on the sales tax, a graduated income tax, or a flat rate income tax.

FAVOR SALES TAX

The sales tax increase got the decisive nod, although frequently with reservations. A graduated income tax was next and a flat rate income tax last. A considerable number said they felt no new tax is needed.

Mrs. Paul Ruggles of Owosso said: "We could balance the budget with what the state is now taking in if we get rid of the deadwood."

"We're taxed enough now," said George Wilt of Adrian. "I don't know how the younger couples can afford the taxes we have."

Julius Levin, a Jackson attorney, summed up the views of many of the sales tax advocates, calling it "the most painless and least expensive method."

Herman Cole, a gas station owner in Algonac said: "As long as something has to be done, I believe in increasing the sales tax. That way everybody pays their share.

"We have many tourists, including Canadians, coming to this country, and with a sales tax they help to pay, and no one feels it is as severe as other plans."

The most frequent exception asked on the sales tax was for food. The Soo's John Haller suggested about two cents on food and clothing and four or five cents on other goods if necessary.

Nobody was overjoyed at the idea of additional taxes in any form. "If we're going to be stuck" is the way Charles W. Cribbs of Battle Creek prefaced his reply.

Those favoring a graduated income tax, such as Mrs. Josephine Brown of Lansing and Mrs. Robert J. Kinsella of Huntington Woods, feel it would be fairer for lower income groups.

EQUALLY DIVIDED

Those interviewed were asked if they looked upon the 50 million dollars in the veterans trust fund as belonging to all the people in the state, or just to the veterans. The answers—almost equally divided.

As for schools, most thought teachers' salaries are about right and that basic education is pretty good.

There were, however, some sharp exceptions.

The Day in Birmingham

Commission OKs Work on Road Over Protests

BIRMINGHAM — City commissioners last night unanimously voted to repave and widen Lincoln avenue from Pierce street west to Southfield road in spite of the many protestors who filled the meeting place to overflowing.

Prior to the session, Commissioners had received a petition opposing the project. All but 49 of the 281 signers live on side street areas which will be included in the special assessment district.

Again Commissioners heard the objection common to most projects of this type that "the street will become a speedway and will be dangerous for our children."

Commissioners pointed out the broken surface of the street is a greater hazard in that it can throw cars out of control.

It also was brought to the attention of residents that this is the only unimproved section of Lincoln avenue from Eton road west to Pierce street. From Southfield west to Cranbrook road the pavement is 40 feet wide. The existing concrete strip in the section under discussion is only 18 feet.

The assessment district for the Frank street project was approved along with that of the Landon-Ann street paving. All will be 37 feet wide.

A one-year agreement to permit the City of Troy to use Birmingham fire hydrants in a triangular area east of Adams road and north of Derby road was approved by the Commission. It will be forwarded to Troy officials for their consideration.

Mike Harabedian, Birmingham contractor, was awarded the contract to construct sewers in the Maple-Bates alley and the Lake Park drive storm sewers. His bid was $4,629.

Four new police cars and four new pick-up trucks will be purchased from the North Chevrolet firm. The firm quoted a price of $3,173 after trade-in on the cars and $3,202 on the trucks.

The first of the budget sessions is scheduled for Saturday morning.

Jack Ball of McClellan-Ball and Bernard Haag, horticulturalist, will speak at the monthly meeting of the Congregational Church Supper Club at 6:45 p.m. Friday.

The Young Adults Club of the Birmingham YMCA will hold an old-fashioned box social at 7 p.m. May 15.

Also on the May calendar is a canoe trip Sunday with members of the "Twenty-UP" Club of the Royal Oak Presbyterian Church. Reservations must be made with George Lyon, 1317 Smith St., Royal Oak, by tomorrow.

Members of the various groups of the First Methodist Church are going beyond immediate parish activities this week.

The Rhythmis Choir will take part in the service at Westminster Church in Detroit tonight.

On Thursday members of the Youth Fellowship will present "The Valiant" as part of the program of the Protestant Players Religious Drama Festival at Nardin Park.

On Sunday the youth choirs will sing at the Detroit District YF Rally at Metropolitan Church.

She is survived by her husband, Harry; a son, Russell; a daughter, Mrs. Edward Spicer; four grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren, all of Birmingham.

He was a food broker supplying wholesale houses in the Detroit area for over 40 years. He was a member of Christ Church Cranbrook and the National Food Brokers of America.

Four Police Officers Moving to Phoenix

All of them face pay cuts and loss of senority in making the move, but feel the switch is worth it.

Twenty-two officers announced plans for a caravan to Phoenix on March 6 during the removal hearing of former Police Chief Herbert W. Straley.

Only nine men went to Phoenix, however, and five failed to pass examinations.

Both Patrolmen Smith and Newman passed the Phoenix tests in mid-March and were accepted for employment.

Newman and Smith said the possiblity of more rapid promotion lured them to the new jobs, despite $55 a month pay cuts.

Evans, former vice squad head, and LaPonsie were rejected by the Phoenix force last month, on the grounds that they would probably not be happy taking pay cuts and lesser rank. They were accepted after appeals.

All of the officers said their leaving had nothing to do with the recent Police Department dissension.

Eastman said he was pleased to hear of the officers' being hired in Phoenix.

"It is a consistent policy of mine to help my officers advance themselves," he said.

"This will give other men a chance for promotion and that is the sort of thing which keeps a Police Department alive."

Many States Seeking More Tax Revenues

(State governments are beset by a variety of financial headaches. What are the roots of the problem, and what is being done? This first of three articles on the subject outlines the extent of the treasury doldrums.)

By CHARLES STAFFORD
Associated Press Writer

Like the nation's business enterprises, the nation's state governments were hit by last year's recession. Now, with economic barometers rising, governors and lawmakers are examining the damage.

Some states weathered the storm well. Others, caught in shaky financial positions, were less fortunate.

A check of state capitals by The Associated Press gives this picture: ten states, financially out of trim, are drifting toward dangerous shoals. Three more are fighting substantial unemployment, though fiscally sound. Sixteen must increase their revenues if they expect to continue operating in the black. Twenty are in generally good financial shape.

With their revenues so closely attuned to their economies, state governments can be hurt badly by business declines.

The recession of 1957-58 apparently hurt Michigan more than any other state. Caught in a political stalemate, Michigan was spending beyond its income when the recession hit. Today its position is critical.

TREASURY BROKE

Gov. G. Mennen Williams, a Democrat, and the Republican Legislature have been unable to agree on a new tax program. The treasury is broke. Unless something is done soon, Michigan will be 110 million dollars in the red when the fiscal year ends June 30.

Politicians talk of "collapse day" and "payless paydays." Actually both were narrowly averted recently when the governor persuaded industry to pay in advance 30 million dollars in taxes that weren't due until May or June.

Delaware, one of the smallest states, has one of the biggest financial headaches. For the time being, its income is balanced against its expenditures, but the new budget makes no provision for the state's 10 million dollar defieit. However, Gov. J. Caleb Boggs is hopeful that income tax revenues will reduce this to 6½ million. Delaware also has a bonded debt of $145,185,000, the highest per capita in the nation.

The recession brought a 178-million-dollar deficit in Pennsylvania. When Gov. David L. Lawrence took office, he immediately imposed an austerity program and asked the politically divided Legislature for 400 million dollars in new tax revenues to balance a $1,907,000,000 budget for the two-year fiscal period beginning June 1.

Ohio, another industrial state hit hard by recession, has dissipated a 213-million-dollar bankroll in 12 years while going one billion dollars into debt. It has under study a tax program that would yield some 360 million dollars in new revenue.

CONSIDER TAXES

Threatened by a record indebtedness of 78 million dollars, Washington legislators made some bookkeeping changes, boosted the sales tax from 3 1-3 to 4 per cent and raised over taxes to produce an additional 112 million dollars in new revenue during the next two years, enough to balance the 1959-61 budget and retire all but 38 million dollars of the general fund indebtedness.

With oil production slumping, an estimated 65-million-dollar deficit is expected in the Texas treasury at the end of the fiscal period Aug. 31. New taxes and increases worth 92 million dollars are under study.

California has run 68 million dollars into the red and Gov. Edmund G. Brown predics the deficit will top 250 million by next year. Connecticut expects a 10½-million-dollar deficit by June 30. Georgia, with its surplus funds dwindling rapidly, is outspending income by 22 million dollars.

★ ★ ★

New York has frittered away most of 600 million dollars accumulated during the war years. Millionaire Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller warned last January that the state was "on the brink of fiscal disaster." He pushed through a tax program yielding an additional 239 million dollars, but must still use surplus funds to balance the budget.

Though their treasuries are solvent, West Virginia, Maine and a section of Kentucky are plagued by serious unemployment.

States with lesser problems, those simply trying to make ends meet, generally must reconcile divergent points of view as expressed in Missouri recently:

"There will be no deficit financing in my administration," said Gov. James T. Blair, who asked the Legislature to dig up 40 million dollars in new revenue. "My people didn't send me down here to vote for any more damn taxes,' 'said one legislator, "and I'm not going to."

★ ★ ★

Other states with lesser problems include Alabama, Colorado, Florida, Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Vermont and Wisconsin.

★ ★ ★

Then there are states like Utah where Gov. George Clyde presented a tax program calling for modest increases to the Legislature with the suggestion "that Utah's long tradition of debt-free operation should be continued."

The Legislature agreed.

Law Anchors Animals

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — An old city ordinance requires that any animal, which would include tiny poodles, left on city streets must have about its neck a chain attached to a 20-pound weight.

An early census in 1660 revealed that New Mexico had 24,000 inhabitants — 1,000 Spaniards and 23,000 Pueblo Indians. There also were plenty of Navajo and Apache Indians, but they were not included in the census because they would not slow down long enough to be counted.

'Dial-a-Smile' Can't Be a Laughing Matter

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—A funny gag to one man, may be a gagging nauseum to another. And this is why I think Victor W. McGinnis, who owns all the laughing stock in Indiana, may be in for a down- (as opposed to land-) fall.

Mr. McGinnis, who naturally calls himself Mac, has just written to say that what everybody in America needs most is one good laugh a day. An apple may save doctor bills, he thinks, but a laugh will even save the cost of insurance.

Thus, Mac has invented a "dial-a-smile" service, to be installed soon in Indianapolis and, if successful, throughout the country. You call a certain number, like say GUffaw 1,2345 or TItter 3-4000, and the operator flashes you a quick joke, followed by a commercial.

The inventor of the quickie-quip idea evolved his plan, now being patent registered in Washington, after observing the success in Indiana of a "dial-a-prayer" plan offered by local churches. He already has enlisted the interest of several advertisers who hope to give a boost to products or at least build good will by sponsoring the phone service.

This, I cannot imagine.

In the first place, jokes do not sound funny on telephones unless you can visualize the person who is telling them, and better he should have shaggy hair and a monocle.

Third off, humor is such an individual matter of entertainment and ennui that automation comedy is bound to bore as many as it amuses. And there is already a superfluity of boredom at the other end of any given telephone line.

I am in favor of free enterprise and would love to see Mr. McGinnis have some titillating profits to chuckle over, but believe the "dial-a-smile" is hardly his answer. It is no laughing matter.

Dial "M" for madness in Indianapolis.

Ed Murrow goes on CBS radio this Thursday with a comprehensive report on "Higher Education for Women," in which he will analyze whether it's been successful—or if women would have been better off quitting after high school home ec.

Among those he'll interview is Dr. Sara Shriner, prominent psychoanalyst and mother of four children, who will debunk a few commonly held theories about grown girls.

She will say that the following contentions are utter myths:

(1) Women are more devoted to children than are men.

(2) Women have greater capacity for loving.

(3) Women are more concerned with their appearance than men.

(4) Women care more for the aesthetics of the home.

"These are myths, if you examine the real natures of men and women," Dr. Shriner says. "Woman's role in the home is likewise a myth. It used to be the idea that anatomy was woman's destiny. This is no longer true.

"Society today has given women a role far bigger than that of nurture."

Canada Gambles on Gander Terminal

GANDER, Nfld. (AP)—Canadians are gambling on Gander's ability to retain its title as North America's main air terminal for transatlantic flights to Europe.

More than 11,000 oceanic flights were serviced here last year, and it looks as if even more will be handled this year.

To meet the crush, a new $3,500,000 air terminal is slated for opening June 19. Last January, a new radar traffic control system made Gander Canada's only airport equipped with precision approach and airport surveillance radar.

But prophets of despair continue to predict the airport will lose its position because of advances in aviation technology, especially in jet flying.

Mayor Jack Robertson insists the "same old story" accompanied every forward step in aircraft development and that the airport's continued growth gives "the lie to those rumors."

★ ★ ★

The mayor believes the commercial air lines will always find it more profitable to carry extra passengers and stop here to refuel, than to scrimp on the passenger load and carry enough fuel to fly nonstop between North America and Europe.

BUILT IN 1937

Gander's strategic position was first recognized by the British Air Ministry, which cooperated with the Newfoundland government to build the airport in 1937.

★ ★ ★

The facilities were rarely used until World War II, when they became some of the world's busiest. Thousands of Europe-bound military flights stopped here for servicing and the community's population shot up from around 300 to 15,000.

★ ★ ★

Immediately after the war, the population dropped down to 3,500, but eventually reached the present 5,500 with the increase in commercial flying. Mayor Robertson predicts the population will rise to 10,000 to 1970.

★ ★ ★

The only signs of the military now are some 170 Royal Canadian Air Force men, about 50 U. S. Air Force personnel, and the streets—named after famous military fliers.

Gander's other claim to fame is Premier Joseph R. Smallwood, who originated his plans for entering Newfoundland into confederation with Canada while supporting himself here as a writer and hog raiser.

Goodrich College Aid $121,000 Last Year

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Colleges and universities have received $121,000 in gifts during the last year as a result of the B. F. Goodrich Co.'s aid-to-higher-education program, the company has announced.

★ ★ ★

The program is designed to assist in providing better facilities and to help promising young people and employes gain higher education.

★ ★ ★

The grants are "unrestricted" and are above and beyond the tuition-and-fee income regularly received by the institutions," Goodrich said.

Visit Our State Hospital for Mental Health Week

During the next few days "Operation Friendship" will be observed at the Pontiac State Hospital in connection with Mental Health week, which runs through May 2.

Many of us are unaware that mental illness is a serious threat to the nation's health. Unless you have an occasion to visit the hospital, most of us would be astonished to find out that we have 3,100 patients in the Pontiac State Hospital.

According to Mrs. Jerome Fink, president of the Oakland County chapter, their goal is one visitor for every patient during this week. "Visits will give new encouragement to patients," Mrs. Fink said, "and provide an opportunity for the hospital staff to show the progress the medical profession and related sciences are making in this vital health area."

The Pontiac State Hospital, along with all groups participating in the Mental Health week program, deserve a special vote of thanks for the outstanding work they are doing in this area.

★ ★ ★

Mental health problems continue and it is only through understanding that some of the outmoded ideas can be removed. A visit to the hospital will show what steady progress is being made.

Panama Incident Story Full of Contradictions

The whole story of the Panama incident is full of curious twists and contradictions. No doubt in time the truth will come out.

★ ★ ★

Currently Fidel Castro is mentioned as having sanctioned the revolutionary invaders. The few that have been captured named Roberto Arias, husband of British ballerina Margot Fonteyn, as their chief.

★ ★ ★

It seems that Arias has had business connections with JOHN WAYNE, which should not necessarily point a finger at WAYNE. The London Times writes:

"For weeks there has been rumor in the Caribbean of an invasion of Panama from Dr. FIDEL CASTRO'S Cuba, where rebel forces are also reported to be training to attack the Dominican Republic, Haiti and Nicaragua. Here is the fire of the Caribbean cauldron! As regards Panama, however, the movement does not seem to have the same popular or burning intensity.

"Even though some more rabid nationalists in Latin America refer to Panama as 'a little Suez,' and the leader of the Panamanian revolutionaries, Ruben Miro (who served a three-year prison sentence for implication in the assassination of a former Panamanian President), has his headquarters in Cuba, this seems to be another domestic affair.

★ ★ ★

"He has declared that the target of the revolt in Panama is not so much President DE LA GUARDIA as the commander of Panama's tiny but efficient National Guard, Col. VALLARINO, who, it is claimed, is the real power in Panama and, incidentally, a long-standing enemy of the ARIAS family."

★ ★ ★

Panama is just one of the political hotbeds in the Caribbean. In 56 years Panama has had 29 presidents.

Germans Contributing to Airlift Scholarships

In 1951 West Berlin and West Germany erected a memorial outside Templehof to the memory of 31 Americans, 39 Englishmen and seven Germans who died in crashes or airport accidents in the historic airlift of 10 years ago.

★ ★ ★

Now, as a further grateful gesture the people of West Berlin are collecting scholarship funds for the children of these American and English pilots who were killed in that operation.

At this time it is interesting to recall that American, British and French planes carried in more than 2.3 million tons of food and fuel in 277,264 flights. This was more than one ton for each of West Berlin's 2.2 million inhabitants.

Three airports were used and incoming planes flew two corridors across the Soviet Zone and outgoing planes a third. They moved at intervals of five minutes in blocks of 10, taking off seconds behind one another and stacked in the air each 1,000 feet above the plane in front. This went on for 462 gruelling days and nights.

The Russians again are acting threateningly in this area and it's well to remind ourselves that firmness and unity won in 1949 and could be needed again in 1959.

David Lawrence Says:

Law Expert Raps Supreme Court

WASHINGTON — The myth is widespread that anyone who criticizes the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States is either a "segregationist" or is trying to "undermine" our judicial system.

LAWRENCE

So, when a distinguished professor at Columbia University Law School, who himself favors integration in the public schools, makes a speech in criticism of decisions of the highest court in the land, one wonders why it was not widely reported.

Prof. Herbert Wechsler holds the professorship in constitutional law which is named in memory of the late Supreme Court Justice Harlan Fiske Stone.

When Prof. Wechsler delivered the annual Oliver Wendell Holmes lecture at Harvard University Law School recently, he questioned very sharply the grounds upon which the Supreme Court had decided the famous "desegregation" cases in 1954.

He criticized the Supreme Court also for its subsequent "per curiam" rulings on segregation problems. These are decisions handed down by the whole court but no individual opinions are issued to the public. Prof. Wechsler said:

"The original opinion (by the Supreme Court in 1954), you recall, was firmly focused on state segregation in the public schools, its reasoning accorded import to the nature of the educational process, and its conclusion was that separate educational facilities are 'inherently unequal.'

"What shall we think then of the court's extension of the ruling to other public facilities, such as public transportation, parks, golf courses, bath houses and beaches which no one is obliged to use—all by 'per curiam' decisions?

"That these situations present a weaker case against state segregation is not, of course, what I am saying. I am saying that the question whether it is stronger, weaker or of equal weight appears to me to call for principled decision.

"I do not know and I submit you cannot know whether the 'per curiam' affirmance in the Dawson case—public bath houses and beaches—embraced the broad opinion of the Circuit Court that all state-enforced racial segregation is invalid or approved only its immediate result and, if the latter, on what ground."

Prof. Wechsler went on to say that he is not troubled by the departure from earlier decisions, because he stands with the "long tradition of the court that previous decisions always must be subject to re-examination when a case against their reasoning is made."

He then refers to the 1954 "desegregation" opinion as follows:

"The problem inheres strictly in the reasoning of the opinion, an opinion which is often read with less fidelity by those who praise it than by those by whom it is condemned.

"The court did not declare, as many wish it had, that the Fourteenth Amendment forbids all racial lines in legislation, though subsequent 'per curiam' decisions may, as I have said, now go that far.

"Rather, as Judge Learned Hand observed, the separate-but-equal formula was not overruled 'in form' but was held to have 'no place' in public education on the ground that segregated schools are 'inherently unequal,' with deleterious effects upon the colored children in implying their inferiority, effects which retard their educational and mental development.

"For me, the question posed by state-enforced segregation is not one of discrimination at all. Its human and its constitutional dimension lies entirely elsewhere, in the denial by the state of freedom to associate, a denial that impinges equally on any groups or races that may be involved."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Some Doctors Ignorant of Function of Calcium

It is unfortunate, especially for people past 40 or 45, that both physiologists and physicians of the nineteenth century harbored a false notion of the function of calcium in the body. A good many physicians of the twentieth century are still as ignorant as their predecessors were about it, although physiologists today know better.

DR. BRADY

The body of a healthy adult contains from 2¼ to 2½ pounds of calcium, most of which is in the bones — the storehouse of calcium — but some is in the nerves, muscles, heart, arteries, joint tissues, teeth, blood and glands.

For various purposes of everyday life the body uses calcium, perhaps as much each day as is supplied by a quart of skim milk or four ounces of cottage cheese.

The "science writers," "research experts," "bone specialists," and "arthritis investigators" who warn the public of the danger of "calcium deposits" or "calcification" from "too much" calcium, do not venture to say just how much calcium is "too much" in any instance.

They are smart enough to leave that to the morbid imagination of the poor souls who think eminent specialists are all they pretend to be.

Isn't it odd that in many years of familiarity with medical literature, classical and current, I have not seen a report of a case of "calcium deposit" or "calcification" of any tissue or organ?

I have seen numerous reports of cases of so-called "gout" and so-called rabies in man, none of which was quite convincing, but not a single report of an authenticated case of "calcium deposit" or "classification" of this or that body tissue or organ from "too much calcium." I tell you, folks, they're all out of step but . . .

'VITE' IS THE THING

"Vite." That's the word for it. Can't stop to define it here — for one thing it means "extension of the prime of life in both directions."

For complete definition consult The Seven Keys to Vite (for the booklet send me 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope). Keeping the store of calcium in the skeleton replenished is essential for building and maintaining "vite."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Chronic Running Ear

One druggist refused to prepare the solution for running ear without a doctor's prescription. A second druggist made it up without question and gave me a blunt medicine dropper without charge . . . (Mrs. H. P. J.)

Answer — In the instructions for preparing and using the drops for chronic running ear (available on request if you provide stamped, self-addressed envelope) I suggest that if the druggist requires a prescription for pure grain alcohol, ordinary rubbing alcohol will do.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Channel Energies of Teenagers

Why is it that newspaper carriers and Boy Scouts and school athletes are rarely involved in teen-age hoodlumism? It is usually the idle kids who get into trouble, just as it is the idle farm dogs who become sheep killers; Scrapbook this case on control of the emotions; Use it in school,

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE B - 420: Stella and Della, aged 14, are the giggling twins mentioned yesterday.

★ ★ ★

"Dr. Crane," their mother pleaded, "what can we do to reduce their giggling at the table, especially when we have guests?

DR. CRANE

"Their father threatens to make them eat by themselves in the kitchen if they can't behave like mature young ladies.

"Why, if one of the girls even raises her eyebrow at the other, off they go into hysterical giggling.

"I was an 'only' child, so I never remember giggling the way they do."

HOW PREVENT GIGGLES

Yesterday I mentioned the psychological fact that giggles are usually an evidence of unexpended nervous energy.

★ ★ ★

Young people generally have far more energy than their parents or grandparents, so they are the chief gigglers in the household.

And the presence of the opposite sex helps increase the nervous tension, so teen-agers often grow hysterical with laughter on very flimsy excuses.

If a 14-year-old were without sleep for 24 hours, would she giggle as much as a rested girl of the same age?

★ ★ ★

If such a girl were to take a 10-mile hike, would she giggle as much after the trip as before launching upon it?

You can all get the right answers, for such knowledge is "horse sense."

Since activity drains off surplus energy, and thus reduces the likelihood of giggling, it is wise to see that young people have plenty of physical exercise. This can consist of athletics, as well as hard work.

If Stella and Della had helped cook the dinner and then had been responsible for serving it, they would not have been as likely to indulge in hysterical giggles.

For then they would not only have been more fatigued, but their attention would have been diverted by the problems of chef and waitress.

WHY SCHOOL RECESS

In grade schools, we schedule recess periods primarily to let the children run and romp till they can drain off some of their pent-up energy.

After so doing, there is less likelihood that boys will shoot paperwads or pull the hair of the girls seated in front of them. Likewise, there will be less giggling, less fidgeting and less inattention to the lessons.

Control of the emotions is largely a matter of diverting the attention. A lynching mob can thus be changed by any spectacular event that diverts the crowd.

★ ★ ★

Or it can deftly be led around a circle, as Marc Antony proved

at the funeral of Caesar. Music also helps reduce energy or control a mob.

"Count to 10," is a similar evidence of this rule, for when you are about to explode in anger, the mental task of counting will divert your attention and reduce your ire.

Teen-age hoodlums would seldom be that way if they were active in sports or Boy Scouts or busy carrying a newspaper route, or loaded down with home chores, as used to be true of farm youth and even city youngsters.

Send for my booklet "How to Control the Emotions," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

'Lower Income Groups Pay Bigger Percentage'

Michigan families with less than a $2,000 income are now paying 19.37 per cent of their income to the state for taxes. Those with $10,000 and over are paying 5.78 per cent.

The graduated income tax proposals still leave the low income groups paying as high or higher percentage as the high income groups. Why this talk of a "free ride" and "everyone must pay SOMETHING" when disparaging the income tax proposals?

You call it the Straley trial. I feel it wasn't a fair trial, but somewhat of a disgrace. It's like being able to pick the judge and jury and then deciding your own case. The Commission could have saved the taxpayers money if they had rendered the decision without a trial.

Ex-Student Defends Driver Training

Evidently Back to 3 R's doesn't know as much about the Drivers Training Program as he claims to. Children don't lose an hour a day from school. They take it as an extracurrricular activity; therefore they can only take it before or after school or during a study hall.

Electrification Measure Seen as Test of Power to Beat Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats are preparing an attempt to override President Eisenhower's veto of a rural electrification bill. They hope to gain a political advantage whether they win or lose.

If they can muster two-thirds of those voting in both houses and thus enact the measure, Democratic leaders feel they will have set a new pattern for more important bills likely to be bounced back to Congress by the President.

These include housing, airport aid and depressed areas legislation carrying spending authority substantially larger than Eisenhower recommended. No Eisenhower veto has been overridden.

If they lose, the Democrats believe they will have saddled the Republicans with a 1960 political liability — the enmity of farmers interested in REA expansion programs.

The argument over that started quickly, with statements and speeches both for and against overriding the veto.

County Police Seek Thieves

Probe 5 School Break-ins

Oakland County sheriff's detectives are seeking thieves who broke into five area elementary schools during the past 48 hours.

All five schools are in Avon Township and detectives believe the same persons are responsible for all the break-ins.

Three were reported Monday and two more this morning. Deputies said that Brookland School, 480 E. Auburn Rd., had been entered through a basement window. An adding machine was discovered missing.

Auburn Heights Elementary School, 260 S. Squirrel Rd., was entered in similar manner. Detectives said a thorough check of the school would have to be made today before it could be determined what was taken.

Yesterday, Meadow Brook School at Muster and Castlebar roads was entered through a broken window and a total of $16 was stolen from desks pried open in several classrooms.

Deputies said the thieves used scissors to pry open locked desks. Authorities at Hamlin School, 270 W. Hamlin Rd., reported several rooms ransacked and more than $11 stolen from the teachers' desks.

Detectives said several books of used matches on schoolroom floors indicated some, possibly all of the break-ins were committed at night and the burglars used matches for light.

Gypsum Stockholders Approve Acquisition

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — Stockholders of National Gypsum Co. approved today the acquisition of Huron Portland Cement Co. of Michigan.

National Gypsum Chairman Melvin H. Baker said the acquisition "will be the most important growth investment in our 34-year history."

Stockholders also voted to increase the number of common stock shares from five million to 10 million. The stock closed yesterday at $70.50.

Baker reported that more than 80 per cent of all the 4,340,985 outstanding shares of National Gypsum common were represented in today's vote.

The exact vote count was not immediately available.

Reds Aid Algerians

BERLIN (AP) — The East Berlin weekly Wochenpost reports Communist East Germany has made available 400 hospital beds for Algerian nationalists wounded in fighting for independence from France. It said 23 casualties have arrived, and adds: "Almost every field dressing kit carried by Algerian soldiers comes from Democratic (Communist East) Germany."

Toronto Stars in Seaway Test

Port Has Busiest Day in History as 11 Ocean Ships Move Cargo

TORONTO (UPI) — The half-billion-dollar St. Lawrence Seaway got down to business today with this Lake Ontario port starring in a testing role.

The eyes of shippers in ports ranging from Duluth, Minn., and Chicago to Buffalo, N.Y., and Sarnia, Ont., turned to Toronto to see what happens when big freighters from the seven seas unload and load cargo for the first time deep in the heartland of North America.

Toronto was the first port of call for the Dutch freighter Prins Willem George Frederik, which led an armada of foreign-flag vessels through the 130-mile seaway during the weekend.

The port that previously confined most of its business to lake freighters faced one of the busiest days in its history. A total of 11 deep-sea ships were unloading or scheduled to unload today at its enlarged docks.

Five ocean vessels, including two of the Dutch Fjell-Oranje Line, and two Canadian Steamship Lines lake ships arrived yesterday. A sixth foreign vessel, the Marquette from France, docked at daybreak and others were expected later today.

Although officials had been readying the 12 miles of berths for months in anticipation of the foreign ships' arrival, one admitted "We are having trouble handling these peaks."

He recalled that Toronto Harbor Commission officials had to do a major selling job to persuade shippers to use this port, which was criticized for slow handling of vessels two years ago.

Man Gets Probation in Morals Conviction

Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams yesterday placed Birmingham restaurant owner Peter Nick on probation for two years and assessed him $500 court costs for the statutory rape of a 15-year-old girl last fall.

Nick, 35, of 1564 Penistone St., was convicted last Oct. 30 by a Circuit Court jury.

He was sentenced Monday after many postponements while his Detroit attorney prepared to appeal the conviction to the State Supreme Court.

It was not immediately known whether the appeal would now be dropped, although leave to appeal had already been approved by the high court, according to the Prosecutor's Office.

★ ★ ★

Judge Adams said Nick received probation instead of a prison term because the crime was Nick's first felony conviction.

Detroit Sales Up

DETROIT—(AP) — Detroit department store sales in March were 14 per cent higher than those of the previous March, the Federal Reserve Bank reports. Up also were sales of women's apparel stores, 12 per cent; jewelry stores, 9, and men's clothing stores, 8. However, appliance store sales were down 2 per cent and furniture sales were unchanged.

13 Hurt as Bus Falls Into Lake

Driver Loses Control Trying to Avert Crash on Arkansas Bridge

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Thirteen of 16 persons aboard a Continental Trailways bus were injured today, four of them severely, when the driver lost control of the vehicle while attempting to avoid a collision with a truck.

The bus skidded, crashed through a wire fence, rolled down a 20-foot embankment and came to rest upright in three feet of water. The accident occurred on a causeway of Lake Hamilton on State Highway 7 about four miles south of here.

★ ★ ★

Bus driver James D. Crowell, 42, of Texarkana, said he jammed on the brakes of the Dallas-to-Memphis bus when he saw the truck speeding toward him in the wrong lane.

The truck did not stop.

Crowell broke a window beside Richard Lamar Rankin, 26, of Springfield, Ohio, and Rankin wriggled through. He crawled up the steep embankment and ran to a store where he summoned help.

State Trooper Glen Minton said when he reached the wrecked bus, a "terrible quiet" prevailed.

"I was afraid they were all badly injured," he said later.

Two fishermen in a boat came up and took the seriously injured to a nearby landing where ambulances waited. The other injured passengers climbed the embankment or were rescued by boat.

The injured were hospitalized at Hot Springs.

"This Car I Didn't Buy Has Done More for Me Than All the Cars I've Owned"

No—I wasn't one of the 15,246 who bought this first of the present-day Ramblers when it came out in 1950.

Instead, like a lot of others, I've bought other makes until this year, that is.

But, not one of those other makes has done as much—FOR ME—as this car whose wheel I never touched.

THE SIZE-HORSEPOWER RACE WAS ON

Those other makes got longer and wider and lower, year by year.

Each new model was more hopped up with excess gas-consuming horsepower that I couldn't begin to use, legally, anywhere.

Did I want this? Not at all!

But there's no telling how much longer the size-and-horsepower race would have continued if it hadn't been for Rambler.

Slowly but surely, Rambler kept gaining with the belief that it's the customer, not the competition, that really counts.

THE CONSUMER BEGAN TO SPEAK

By 1955, Rambler sales moved up to nearly 75,000. By 1957, they were nearly 100,000 . . . still a small total compared to the others.

Then, in 1958, came the explosion that blew the lid off the automobile industry! We, the customers, rebelled.

While industry sales dived more than 20 per cent, Rambler sales zoomed more than 100 per cent! Rambler sold nearly 200,000 cars in 1958 . . . shot from 12th to 7th place in the industry. And Rambler is still gaining in popularity. Currently, only five other makes sell more cars than Rambler.

Today, Rambler outsells not only most big cars, but all five of the largest-selling foreign cars combined.

The experts have been predicting a market for 2,000,000 compact cars by 1961. And Rambler is the Compact Car*.

RAMBLER GAVE US THE CHOICE

If it hadn't been for this first Rambler—and the Ramblers that have followed it with increasingly smart styling, fine engineering, quality construction and exclusive features—I feel sure the story wouldn't be what it is today.

If it hadn't been for Rambler—taking a leaf from modern aircraft construction and building this car a different and better way by Single Unit Construction*—we wouldn't have the choice we do today.

That's why I say this Rambler I never bought has done more for me than all the makes I did buy.

That's why I finally resigned from Detroit's size-and-horsepower race and got a 1959 Rambler of my own a few months back.

WHAT RAMBLER MEANS TO EVERY MOTORIST

Because Rambler gives me basic excellence, I have a greater and better choice of cars today. I have a car with an all-welded Single Unit body-and-frame-in-one.

I have a car that's backed by 20 years of experience in building cars this better way. I enjoy an unequaled standard of quality and workmanship; low first cost; low maintenance; high resale. I stand to get my share of billions of dollars in savings that the compact Rambler makes possible for American motorists.

Merchants to Begin Drive Against Tax

The Downtown Merchants Assn. will initiate a drive today to improve Michigan's business and industrial climate.

The association is kicking off a protest against personal property taxation that it hopes will sweep the state.

A meeting of retailers was scheduled for 10 a.m. at the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, where petitions calling for tax adjustments were to be distributed.

The petitions will go to the State Senate, calling for a special study committee to go over personal property tax laws with an eye to ending what the association believes are tax inequities.

The Michigan Retailers Assn. said it would inform chambers of commerce and retail boards throughout the state of the Pontiac action in hopes that similar petition movements will spring up elsewhere.

The Downtown Merchants association branded the personal property tax as "a major detriment to the growth and expansion of business and industry."

4th Set of Twins Beats 100 Million to One Odds

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — "We were kind of stuck for names for a while, as you can understand," said Joseph Volk.

It was easy to understand. His wife Vivian, 35, gave birth to her fourth consecutive set of twins Sunday.

Doctors at the hospital said the odds were at least 100 million to one.

Volk, a research director for a building materials firm, said "We decided on James Joseph and Sandra Sue."

The Volks also have one child who is not a twin.

Stop at Bermuda Ends World Tour for Prince Philip

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)— The Duke of Edinburgh emplanes for Bermuda today on the last leg of his world tour, ending a five-day Bahamas visit.

Monday Prince Philip was serenaded by 13,000 children singing "Our Sailor Prince". He asked that they be given extra days off from school.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — A 30-year-old newsboy and a sprightly 86-year-old great-grandmother observed their first wedding anniversary today and looked back on a year of happy married life.

★ ★ ★

"We never have any quarrels," Mrs. James Bough said. "Jim is such a nice boy. The thing I like about him is that he's honest, and it's always been my way to be honest."

Jim, who doesn't have much to say, added, "We're getting along fine."

It hasn't been smooth sailing. Jim has had a tough time earning a living — he lost some customers when the price of his newspapers went up, and odd jobs are scarcer — and his sight is not good.

"I'm worried when he's late," Mrs. Bough said. "He doesn't see as well as he used to, and I'm afraid he'll get hit by a car."

They get along, with the help of Mrs. Bough's monthly $60 pension check, in the tiny two-room house she owned before they were married.

Why did she marry a man only a little more than one-third her age? Mrs. Bough explained simply, "I was so lonely."

Student-Faculty Debate Slated at MSU on ROTC

EAST LANSING (AP) — The controversy over mandatory ROTC for able-bodied male students keeps bubbling at Michigan State University.

★ ★ ★

A formal debate will be staged Wednesday by students and faculty members under sponsorship of the forensics union and the All-University Student Government.

★ ★ ★

The Michigan State News reported Local 1310 of the Federation of Teachers has gone on record against it, and the MSU chapter of the American Assn. of University Professors soon will consider a stand.

Bill Callahan of Detroit, editor-in-chief, said two MSU trustees replied affirmatively to his letter query whether board members would welcome an expression of student opinion.

The development came despite counsel by John A. Hannah, school president, to protestors to consider their position carefully.

Under longstanding board policy, ROTC training is mandatory for male students in freshman and sophomore years unless they don't measure up physically or belong to the MSU marching band.

The Morrill Act which established the land grant college system in 1862 requires that the curriculum of all shall include military tactics.

Traditionally, such training has been compulsory. Of the 69 land grant institutions, only the University of Minnesota makes it optional.

★ ★ ★

The main argument by opponents is that mandatory ROTC has been outdated by 20th Century military and defense developments. Supporters dispute this, saying only its values have changed some.

Discover 'Dirty' Lens Cleaner

Dangerous Bacteria in Some Batches Could Cause Blindness

WASHINGTON (AP) — A California company recalled bottles of a contact lens cleanser after the Food and Drug Administration said it found dangerous bacteria in some samples.

Some of the bacteria could cause blindness in persons with eyes already weakened, the federal agency said Monday.

But H. W. Hind, co-founder of the company that produces the cleanser, "Barnes-Hind Wetting Solution," said: "In 19 years of use of this product, there has not been a single case of eye infection in any form reported."

★ ★ ★

He said that the company, Barnes-Hind Opthalmic Products, Inc., of Sunnyvale, Calif., was recalling all unused bottles from current stocks, which were declared nonsterile by the Food and Drug Administration. The agency said retail packages in the lot that could cause blindness bore the code number 010159.

The entire lot had been sold out, Hinds said. He added that steps are being taken to make future lots sterile.

★ ★ ★

The Food and Drug Administration said use of the solution with a healthy eye probably would have no harmful effects.

Princess Michiko Sets Precedent With Visit Home

TOKYO (AP) — Princess Michiko, pretty daughter of a wealthy miller who broke imperial tradition by marrying Crown Prince Akihito, went "home to mother" Wednesday and thus set another precedent.

It was her first visit to the family mansion since she left with tears in her eyes 18 days ago for the imperial wedding. It was the first visit home by the consort of a Japanese crown prince or emperor in Japan's 2,600-year-old history.

She was greeted by her wealthy father, Hidesaburo Shoda, mother Fumi, brothers and sisters.

Tell Hostess You're on Strict Diet

"Dear Mrs. Post: I have repeatedly refused invitations for lunches and dinners, and my husband, who loves to go out, is rebelling against this. But I am dieting and have always felt that it was not only rude but very unfair to the hostess to accept an invitation to dine and then not eat the food that is proffered. Don't you agree Mrs. Post?"

Answer: You can tell your hostess that you are on a strict diet and will not be able to eat her delicious food, but that you would love to come for her company and that your husband will enjoy not only the company but the food as well.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My son is soon to become engaged. He has informed me that his fiancee's mother does not like engagement parties and is not giving one for her daughter.

"In view of this, I would like to know if it would be proper for me to give an engagement party for the young couple. Some of the members of my family think it would not be right for me to give this party and that it would be "showing up" the girl's family to give it. What do you think about this?"

Answer: If you mean a party to announce the engagement, I agree with those members of your family who advise you not to give it. If such a party is given it should be the future bride's family who give it. However, after the engagement has been announced by her parents, it would be entirely proper for you to give a party in honor of their engagement.

Dear Abby . . .

Chased Her Around Kitchen in Quest of Birthday Kiss!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: I am the most shocked woman living. There is a woman friend of mine 10 years older than I am and she confided in me that my husband had been to her home twice without my knowledge and made advances to her. She said she had to run around the kitchen table to get away from him when he tried to give her a birthday kiss. She never cared for him (she is married) and still doesn't. She also confided this incident to her husband. She is leaving it up to me as to what to do. I am 51, my husband is 59, and this woman is 61."

ABBY

SHOCKED

DEAR SHOCKED: Your friend (?) has done a lot of confiding. Tell your husband it is unwise to try to kiss a woman who has such a big mouth. He'll understand.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: To the husband of 'STUMPED' who says that children should learn to sit in church quietly at an early age, I would suggest that someone arrange for him to sit for one hour or more on a hardwood seat, too high for his feet to reach the floor and too wide for him to touch the back without having his feet stick straight out in front of him. Place a taller person in front of him so that he can't see without stretching his neck. Then have someone up front reading aloud the writings of Aristotle (in Greek). I think he would not only become 'restless'—he would be fit to be tied."

GRANDMOTHER

"DEAR ABBY: A well-to-do widow recently asked your advice on how to get a man who wasn't a golddigger. You referred to them (the men) as rats after cheese. I would like to clear up that issue because I am one. Most of us have been born poor. We make enough to live on but not enough to do the things we would like to do. Today it is impossible to make a fortune legally. If we do, we are too old and sick to enjoy it. A rich wife would solve everything. I am 36 years old and support myself, my aged parents and a sickly brother. This leaves me nothing for luxuries. Is there anything wrong with my wanting a rich wife? Sincerely yours,"

GOLD-DIGGER

DEAR GOLDDIGGER: A "wife" (rich or poor) is still a woman. Women need to be loved for themselves. Cold, hard cash attracts cold, hard people. There is nothing "wrong" with your wanting her—but don't be hurt if she doesn't want you.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: It has taken a long time for me to get up the nerve to write to you. I've been married 16 years to a woman whose voice is driving me crazy! She shouts in normal conversation, screams over the phone and can be heard all over the neighborhood. When we eat in a restaurant all you can hear is my wife. Can anything be done about this?"

NERVOUS

DEAR NERVOUS: Have you ever spoken to her about it? If she makes an effort surely she can modulate her voice. There is also a possibility that your wife is hard of hearing, so it might be a good idea to have her see a doctor.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO ANNETTE: If you spend 9 years with a dog you can become "attached" to him. What you feel is definitely not love.

Better Figure

End Diet but Not Exercise

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

The directions and information I have brought you in my recent Spring Makeover columns could be used, with great benefit, as a way of life. This is true except in the case of my Nine Day Diet which was designed for a short period and a quick loss of from five to 10 pounds.

While I urge you to do so, I doubt very much that you will indulge in all of the beautifying routines every day for the rest of your lives. I do hope and trust that you will be faithful to the routines for a few weeks though. If you are, I know that you will be much happier in your summer clothes and your swim suits.

Tomorrow is the last day of my Nine Day diet. Here are the menus for tomorrow.

Breakfast
One poached egg
One thin slice whole wheat toast
Black coffee

Luncheon
Salad made of shredded lettuce and one medium tomato (Lemon for dressing)
Two tablespoons cottage cheese
One glass skimmed milk
One-half grapefruit

Dinner
Broiled liver
One portion beets
One portion spinach
One glass skimmed milk
One orange

I have given you seven exercises. Choose five out of the seven and gradually increase the number of times you repeat each exercise until you are doing each one 40 times daily. Work up gradually. If exercise leaves you exhausted rather than relaxed, you are doing too much.

I want to give you one alternate exercise which you can add or substitute in your daily routine. The "Double Cross" as I call it, does so many nice things for your figure.

This exercise is of little value if you bend your knees. Legs should remain stiff throughout. Go as far in each direction as you can without bending your knees.

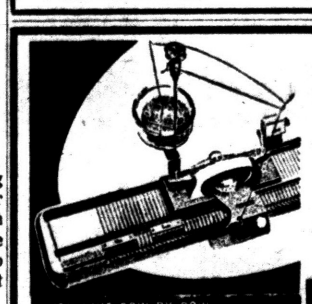

If you missed some of the menus for my Nine Day Diet, and would like to have the complete diet in a small booklet, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper. This diet gives you a loss of from five to 10 pounds in nine days.

Bob Considine Says:

Labor Force--World Tension Tie-in Seen

NEW YORK — Man named Moe Bilsky, of an organization named Labor Pool, Inc., which sells seasonal hands to industry, sees a connection between the availability of such manpower forces and the international situation.

To the layman, it might be as hard to pin down as the affinity between a full moon and love, but Bilsky insists the relationship is indisputable.

He reduces the lethargy or eager-beaverness of temporary workers to an "anxiety index." During the Berlin blockade 10 years ago, for example, he found a 100 per cent increase in the number of people seeking temporary work.

Other events which shot up the interest of people in temporary work: Nasser's seizure of the Suez Canal and attendant events, Russia's test of the H-bomb, Red Chinese intervention in Korea, first Quemoy-Matsu shellings.

What's behind these surgings? Patriotism? Naw. Chiefly it's a "live for today" attitude. People leave dull steady jobs and try for something interesting, figuring that all is over.

Others, according to Bilsky, approach his company seeking hard physical labor in the mood of penance for past luxuries, now that they fear Armageddon is on tap, closely followed by Judgment. Or are they looking for a nest egg to protect their families, come the day.

On the new Berlin crisis:

"The American public just doesn't care about it." Nobody has quit his job as bank president to apply for work as a riveter in a rocket plant.

HEAD OF LINCOLN

One of my proudest possessions is a bronze head of Lincoln done by Leo Cherne, executive director of the Research Institute of America. Cherne, one of the most articulate men in the land, I think, is active in many fields—notably in refugee work. Yet he has found time to win himself a new niche as a sculptor.

His first head, that of Albert Schweitzer, is in the Smithsonian Institution in Washington. Reproductions of it vie for top popularity with that of Michelangelo's Moses. "Unhappily," Cherne says, "there is no other point of comparison between the two."

His second work of art, a head of Jean Sibelius on the occasion of the composer's 90th birthday, is in the Sibelius Museum in Helsinki. Then he tackled Lincoln.

"I had in mind a particular head of Lincoln captured in only one photograph, taken of him by Alexander Gardner five days before the night in Ford's Theater," an explanatory note points out.

"The particular photograph and what it is I sought to capture in three dimensions were the contradictory paradoxes of warmth, wit and sadness, victory and fatigue—the essence of a gentle man who was party to the greatest act of violence our country had ever experienced.

"There was another aspect of that Lincoln. On an April Sunday afternoon with the war just ended, he cruised on the presidential yacht on the Potomac River and repeatedly recited the assassination lines from Macbeth.

"That entire day he was obsessed by the expectation of his own death and that day the last photograph of Lincoln alive was taken. That's the story behind my sculpture . . . the Lincoln of the Final Sacrifice."

The original is in the Lincoln Museum, Ford's Theater, Washington. The first copy is on the mantelpiece of the Cabinet Room in the White House.

President Eisenhower presented Mexican President Lopez Mateos with the third reproduction. Cherne has a busy sculptoring schedule ahead of him, if he can pry loose the time: A monument for the Washington headquarters of the Boy Scouts, a bust of Gen. Bill Donovan, and a head of Boris Pasternak.

★ ★ ★

How does a busy man become a renowned sculptor? In Cherne's case it was an order—a doctor's order. Dog-tired after a mission to Viet Nam as chairman of the International Rescue Committee, he was told that the best therapy was to steep himself in some enterprise completely different from that which had engaged him.

★ ★ ★

I'm glad he worked himself into such an acute fatigue, else the ineffably sad, thoughtful, magnificent face of Lincoln would not now be looking down upon this typewriter.

Air Cooling May Hurt Man

New Ills Are Forecast Due to Tampering With Normal Mercury Shifts

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A scientist said today that air conditioning may be a mixed blessing.

"Comfort of the moment," he said, "may have to be paid for in the future in the form of new respiratory and circulatory disorders."

Dubos said living creatures have "built-in biological clocks" which provide a daily or seasonal rhythm for such varied things as production of hormones and changes in body temperature. They also have evolved complex mechanisms for adjusting to variations in light, weather, purity of the air, and other environmental factors.

"It is obvious," Dubos said, "that air conditioning has already contributed to general comfort, relief of allergic symptoms, and increase in working efficiency."

So it might appear "that control of the indoor environment is always desirable."

He said "it is difficult to predict its distant and indirect effects." Little is known, for example, about the reaction of various organs "to sudden and repeated shifts from the hot humid atmosphere of the street to the cool and dry environment indoors."

The upshot, he said, could be "new respiratory and circulatory disorders" in the future.

Officer Should Have Left Well Enough Alone

GOLDEN, Colo. (AP)—Ray Starke received a telephone call at his home that the store managed by by him had been found with an unlocked door. Starke thanked the caller, Patrolman Bruce Andrews, hurried to the store, found everything in order, locked the door and returned home.

Came another phone call. It was Patrolman Andrews again. "Would you mind coming back down?" Andrews asked. "You locked me in the store."

'Bold Orion' Missile, Air-to-Ground, Fired

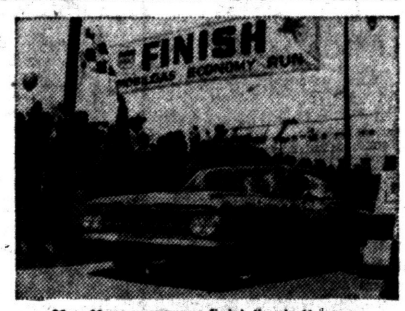

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A smoky two-stage rocket, one of the test models for the Air Force's new Bold Orion air-to-ground ballistic missile, roared aloft Monday on what appeared to be a perfect start.

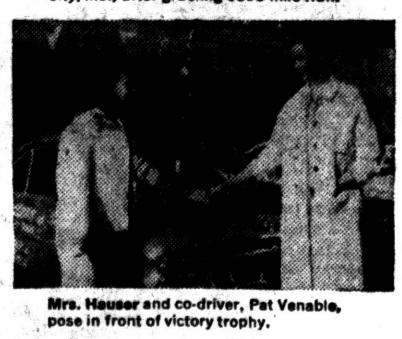

Air Force officials said only that a research and development vehicle was launched.

The aim of the highly secret Bold Orion program is to develop a nuclear tipped ballistic missile that could be fired more than 1,000 miles from beneath the wings of the nation's huge jet bombers.

Modern Methods Give Mental Patients Hope

By LEE WINBORN

LAPEER — Mental patients who years ago were destined to lives of darkness and despair today face brighter futures through modern care, training and rehabilitation.

★ ★ ★

How this is accomplished was described yesterday to a group of about 50 visitors to the Lapeer State Home and Training School.

They were guests at the first in a series of "open houses" being held there to mark "Mental Health Week which is now in progress.

Called "Operation Friendship," the program of events at state institutions from Monday through Saturday is authorized by the Department of Mental Health and the Michigan Society for Mental Health.

MEET IN AUDITORIUM

The visitors were state legislators, school superintendents and other public officials.

They met in the tastefully appointed auditorium in the Employes' Building for a briefing by Gail S. Smith, public relations director of the home.

The group was divided into smaller units which were taken on tours of the buildings and grounds. Their guides were members of the institution's staff of social workers.

Usually, patients under about six years of age are assigned to the nursery. There they are cared for by trained personnel in a self-contained unit which has all the latest medication and equipment.

In the cottages for 75 to 100 older children and adults each, which are joined mainly by enclosed walks, every effort is made to make the patients as comfortable as possible.

Two modern innovations which have helped this program, nurses said, were tranquilizers and television. And on almost every child's bed is a stuffed animal or doll—and sometimes as many as five or six.

"Habit training is one important aspect of cottage life," Smith said. Residents are helped to develop pride in their appearance, good eating habits and to assume some responsibility for their clothing. Many wear nail polish and had ribbons in their hair.

The two new clothing stores just opened this year—one for boys and one for girls—could match any found in a modern shopping center. They are immaculate—as are all the facilities—and the clothes are attractive and designed to appeal to the taste of any youngster or adult.

Supervisors of the cottages determine when new clothing is needed. Then the boy or girl—or older person—may choose the style or color they prefer.

Schooling is provided for children above the age of six who can profit from academic training. They attend school five days a week—and for the older residents part-time classes are offered.

SERVE ALL DENOMINATIONS

Religious services for all denominations are held regularly.

The complete program is rounded out by occupational training, recreation and entertainment. And there is a new hospital on the grounds as well as a bakery, shoe shop, print shop, dairy and farm and mattress shop.

Resident population of the home and school totals approximately 3,800. There are 200 now on the family care program which means they have advanced enough to profit from community living in selected foster homes.

Tday is "Church Day" at the institution. Tomorrow the facilities will be open to service clubs, on Thursdays to Child Study clubs, high school classes and the public and on Friday to professional groups child guidance clinic officials and special education teachers.

Members of yesterday's delegation left the home with mixed feelings of emotion — but mainly "counting their blessings" for the normal families they had at home.

Area Couple Married in Commerce Ceremony

COMMERCE — Pvt. Jack L. Boldt claimed Mary Alida Holmes for his bride Saturday before an altar decked with flowers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Holmes of 722 Andrews St, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Boldt of 37-Mile Rd., Almont.

For her wedding the bride chose a colonial-style gown of Chantilly lace and tulle. It featured a high neckline with a small collar, long sleeves and a fitted bodice.

Her fingertip veil was held in place by a crown of small seed pearls and heartshapes. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis on her prayer book.

Assisting the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Oril Ann. Sisters of the bridegroom, Mrs. Richard Termin of Commerce and Ruth Boldt of Avon were bridesmaids.

Ringbearer was Dannie Termin, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Termin. Kathy Heck, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Heck of Union Lake was flower girl.

Duties as best man were performed by the bridegroom's brother, William of Jackson. His older brother, Robert of Almont and Garry Perkins of Commerce were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors.

Pvt. Boldt returned yesterday to Fort Sill, Okla., where he is stationed prior to going overseas. The bride is staying with her parents.

Ex-Convict Mute on Robbery Charge

ALMONT TOWNSHIP—John W. Ward, 32, of 7550 Hough Rd. here, stood mute yesterday on a charge of armed robbery when he was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Herbert G. King in Lapeer.

Romeo State Police said Ward, an ex-convict, robbed and assaulted Frederick Dahn, 30, of 79464 Kidder Rd., Almont Township early last Saturday morning.

Dahn was having car trouble on Hough road and Ward approached him apparently to lend assistance, troopers said.

Instead, Ward robbed Dahn of about $12 and hit him on the head. Ward was apprehended later by troopers who found a bloody pair of gloves and a blood-smeared jack handle in the back seat of his car.

The victim was taken to Community Hospital near Almont where he identified Ward as his assailant, police said.

Likens Army to Farm Life

District Attorney Says Yankus Deserves No Special Sympathy

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — U.S. District Atty. Wendell A. Miles says he is glad an end has come to the Stanley Yankus crop restriction case.

Miles, who was required to enforce $5,000 in government penalties against the Dowagiac poultry farmer, said yesterday "I'm glad it's over."

In an interview the district attorney repeated a comment he had made to Yankus during the farmer's rebellion against wheat allotments.

Miles, in one of his communications to Yankus at that time, pointed out both he and Yankus had served in the Army in wartime in performance of patriotic duty.

He referred again to this in the interview.

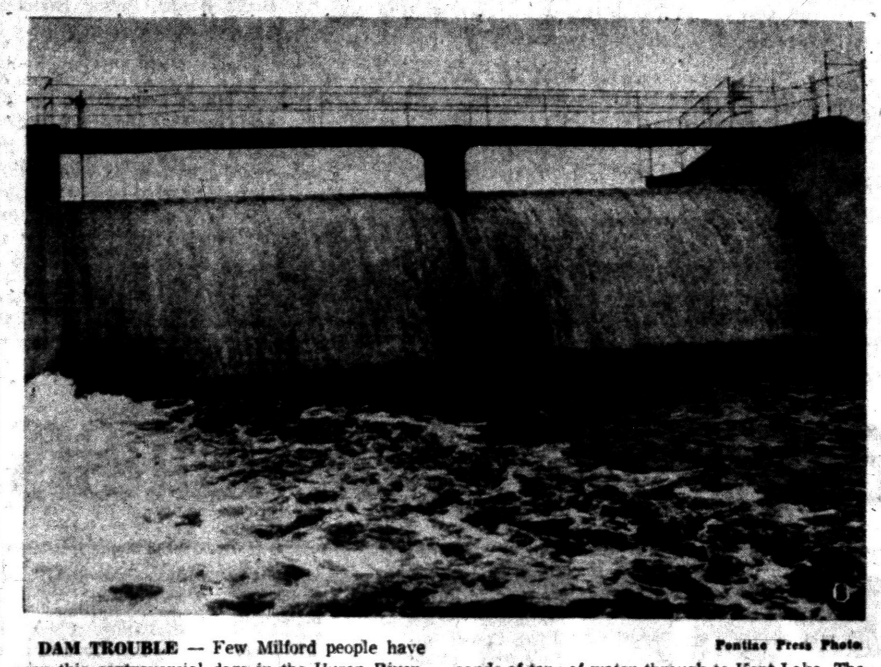

"Many of us who were in the Army had to do things we weren't particularly happy about," he said. "I don't think Yankus deserves any special sympathy."

Yankus, who auctioned off his farm in giving up his fight, has returned home from a visit to Australia. He is considering whether to return to Australia with his wife and three children.

RECEDED RIVER — What was once a beautiful scene in the heart of Milford has turned into a stench-laden mud hole because of the opening of floodgates in the main dam pictured above. Three ponds, Moore's Lake north of Milford and the Huron River were affected as water poured out of them into Kent Lake. Shown above is the Huron River receded more than 60 feet from the northbound shoreline.

Zoning Change Tabled; Mud Holes Probe Slated

MILFORD — This town's two current situations of emptied mill ponds and a proposed shopping center were merged into one major problem at last night's council meeting.

Members decided to table the zoning change from heavy industrial to commercial for the shopping center, until they know what to do about three big mud holes in the center of town.

Owner of all water rights connecting the former ponds, dams and power houses, James Robbins, opened the flood gates of the main dam in Huron River two weeks ago and all of the water from the ponds went pouring down the river, emptying into Kent Lake at Kensington Park.

Realtor Edward Steel, representing the Erin Metals Corp., said that he would advise his clients to instigate immediate court proceedings, forcing the council's decision on the eight-month-old zoning issue for the shopping center.

All during the succession of meetings with Erin Metals Corp. and council members no specific architectural or engineer-designed plans have been presented. An artist's conception of an 18-unit shopping center showed the stores situated along Summit street back of the former Ford plant, east on N. Milford road to Main St.

The Eri company had planned to level an unsightly hill into two of the Robbins ponds, west of Milford business section, and it is this area that council members have delayed rezoning.

City manager Oliver Taylor presented a proposed figure of $50,000 for purchase of the three dams and all water rights affecting not only the ponds, but the Huron River and Moore's lake levels north of Milford.

COSTS REDUCED

He also said that this cost would be reduced to $37,000 without the power plants equipment. Robbins had submitted the same figures to a former council last summer, and was flatly rejected because the price was felt to be too high.

President of the village, Joseph Gerrard said, "I have a feeling that the people of Milford would like to have the ponds refilled. This was a beauty spot that attracted many people in the first place and now it is one big mess."

All efforts for mandatory refilling of the stench-laden mud holes in the heart of Milford have failed, Gerrard said. There is absolutely nothing the town can do if they want the scenic ponds restored, except purchase the project and take over the maintenance, according to attorney Harry Mead.

Robbins said the ponds were emptied for insurance inspection, and that he has no intentions of re-filling the ponds with water. They will probably be refilled with land and sold as real estate, he said.

The entire problem was tabled until the May 18 council meeting when Robbins will be asked to appear and clearly state his position and future intentions.

One of the residents present last night, Keith Bird drew a burst of laughter from the audience when he said, "I don't think this dam story holds any water. Each pond is controlled by an individual dam, and it was not necessary to open the gates at the main dam."

Almont Voters OK 3-Mill Hike

3rd Try Within Year Successful After Board Warns of Half Days

ALMONT — On the third attempt in less than a year to raise extra millage for school operation, Almont voters yesterday approved a 3-mill increase by a vote of 530 to 421.

On March 20 the school electorate defeated a request for 2½ additional mills by a 17-vote majority. The count was 426 to 409.

Last July a proposal seeking 2 mills for two years lost by a two-to-one margin.

This time, as in the other recent elections, the Almont Board of Education had warned that if the extra millage proposition were defeated, kindergarten through the seventh grade would go on half-day sessions next year.

Two mills were needed, board members said, to pay off the existing deficit which would amount to $40,000 by the end of the year. At least half of the remaining mill would be used to balance the operating budget in the future.

Added support for the latest proposition was given by a newly formed group called the "Committee for Better Schools." The three mills will be levied for three years.

Welcome Guests in London

2 Heifers Stroll Into Hotel Ballroom

LONDON (AP)—Two heifers strolled down Park Lane today and into the ballroom of the Dorchester Hotel, thus causing a traffic jam of awesome proportions.

★ ★ ★

The Dorchester is a glittering home-from-home for potentates and princes of industry. It is visited by cows only once a year when the National Milk Publicity Council holds its annual convention there.

On this occasion the cows were a couple of high-born heifers named Buckingham and Ethelyne, from the Duke of Bedford's high-class dairy farm at Woburn Abbey, in Bedfordshire.

Ethelyne is a 2-year-old Guernsey with the eyes and coloring of a fawn. Apart from Eirlys Morgan, age 18, this year's national Dairy Queen, Ethelyne was easily the prettiest thing in the ballroom.

Buckingham is of the Chartley breed, white with a spattering of black spots. At 2½ she was somewhat more matronly than her smaller companion, but fine-looking just the same.

In the ballroom the two heifers were ensconced in portable strawlined stalls, where they stood contentedly chewing their cuds. The human guests stood at the bar contentedly downing whisky and gin.

The show lasted an hour and a half and passed off without incident.

"You can train a cow not to have incidents in a ballroom?" asked a reporter.

Neglected Children Find Refuge Here

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

Children who have been neglected, others whose parents could not provide for them, and still others who have had some slight brush with the law are all living together pretty much in harmony at one of the most unique schools in the country — the Oakland County Children's Center on Telegraph Rd.

More than 160 pupils from various parts of the country are taught the basic fundamentals of reading, writing and arithmetic, from kindergarten through the tenth grade.

More important — they are learning how to get along with each other, the results of right and wrong actions, and the satisfaction of personal achievements through individual daily chores.

Neglected children are either temporary or permanent wards of the court, depending on conditions, and usually come from parents who really do not care what happens to the children, according to the principal of the school, Arthur Johnson.

Those classified as "dependent" are from homes where one or both parents are unable to take care of the children in a proper manner.

They are brought in, given food, clothing and shelter until the parents can show that they are back on their feet, and indicate provision for the child.

STATE AID HELPS

Minor delinquents — those who have committed a small offense —are placed on a special rehabilitation program, and if they are outright delinquents, are sent to one of four state vocational training schools, Johnson explained.

State aid provides $190 for each child attending the schol, which is under the jurisdiction of the Waterford Township school district.

JEAN MARIE HOSACK

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hosack of 1250 Green Ridge Rd., Rochester, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jean Marie, to Darrel V. Thybault, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Thybault of 8520 Ortonville Rd., Clarkston. A wedding is planned for September 26.

The county is handed the tab for the balance of the expense of keeping the child, and last year's county bill totaled some $30,000 according to reports at the Board of Education office.

The first thing that a child gets after he has been registered at the center, is a refreshing, warm shower with "plenty of soap," Johnson said.

After the scrubbing they have a "square" meal — often sadly long overdue. Then they are assigned to a clean room and introduced to their room mate. "Invariably the reaction to these simple procedures is astounding," Johnson said.

Although most detention homes operate on a maximum two-week stay basis, some of the Oakland County Center children stay there for several years. This year's actual turn-over is expected to exceed 500 children, Johnson said, and added that "We have children here from 15 minutes to five years."

A child is never blamed for being in the home, Johnson said. "We try to project ourselves into the child's situation, and this helps to understand his problem."

For instance, a 14-year-old boy who recently was charged with breaking and entering a grocery store was asked what he did in his spare time and he answered, "I hunt for food." Johnson observed that judging by the way the boy consumed his daily meals for the next two weeks, he was telling the truth all right.

The fact that the school is not operated like a penal institution is evident by the air of respect and security which prevails in the seven classrooms in the building.

Each teacher in the school, has from two to three grades in progress at one time, but because there are a few pupils in each grade or about 20 to a room, they do not conflict, said Johnson.

Although officials anticipate difficulties from certain individuals in the school once in a while, Johnson said that a few years ago, he had stumbled on a simple formula for behavior that has proved it's weight in gold.

HAS THEORY

Two things are expected of each child: To act like a lady or gentleman one hundred per cent of the time, and to do the very best that he can at all times. "You'd be surprised how well this simple theory works out," the principal added.

Not only are there large airy dormitories and dining rooms in the school building, but a fully equipped dental office, barber shop and hospital facilities are available for the youngsters.

The dormatories are clean, because the children are taught cleanliness and are responsible for their individual rooms. Honor Rooms, a little fancier, with rugs, drapes and a radio, are assigned to those with the best kept quarters.

Some 80 boys, and 40 girls live in two different sections of the big building. Most of the rooms have one or two bunk-beds, and a few large wards accommodate as many as 14 boys or girls.

Upstairs there are separate recreation rooms equipped with books, lounge chairs, television and activity games for evening entertainment. On the first level, there are game rooms with ping pong tables, billiard tables, television and radios.

Outdoors two big, blacktopped courts are available for playing basketball, shuffleboard or just plain romping around. "Some of the children that come here, never had it so good, and they certainly respond to considerate treatment and healthful environment," Johnson said.

Each school day about 70 youngsters are transported by bus to the center. They are children who have run afoul in their home school area skipping classes or trying to quit school before they are 16, Johnson explained.

"After a few days of just a little more demand an individual usually begins to take an interest, home conditions have plenty to do with a child's attitude towards learning," Johnson added.

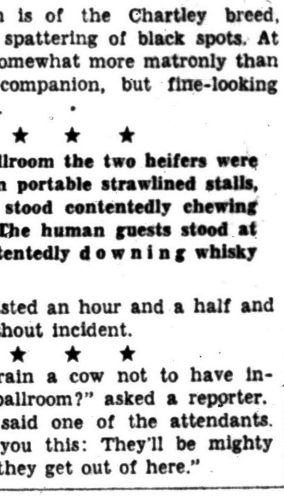

Future plans call for a dual program in the school, separating those academically capable, from others not interested very much in school work, Johnson said.

★ ★ ★

Those who dislike schoolwork and find it truly difficult will be placed on an ungraded basis. They will go through a testing program in order to be placed on the correct grade level. Teachers will take it from there to give the child the best possible education.

Johnson summed up the school's real purpose with "Our success here is measured by what we can do for a few, rather than how we can influence many, and getting youngsters back on the right track is our specific goal."

An August 29 wedding date has been set by Suzanne M. Yeager and Charles M. Gorman. Their engagement is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Yeager of 28000 Sunset Dr., Lathrup Village. The fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Gorman of 18800 San Jose Rd., Lathrup Village.

2 Demand Hearing in Robbery Charge

Accused of unarmed robbery, two men today demanded a pretrial hearing to determine whether there is enough evidence to bind them over to Oakland County Circuit Court for trial.

Demanding examination were Everett Epley, 45, of 45½ Wayne St., and Nathan F. Coleman, 37, of 4700 Hillcrest Dr., Waterford Township.

They are accused of strong-arming Alex Corbine, 56, of 471 Kenilworth Ave., April 23 and robbing him of $6. Both were arrested shortly after the robbery.

Coleman and Epley are being held in the Oakland County Jail pending examination May 1. Neither furnished bond set at $500 by Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

No Guts to Trade and No Traders to Do the Trading

Tigers—A Team of 8th Place 'Invincibles'

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

When Bill Veeck was in Pontiac for a banquet a few months ago, he made a couple of comments about the Tigers which hit the Detroit situation right on the nose.

His remarks were to the effect that the Tigers have been guided under the fallacy that they are world beaters.

Most of his comments were really directed at the front office, which has too often taken the attitude that there are too many good players on the team to be traded.

The Tigers themselves have come to believe this even while finishing in the second division for seven of the last eight years.

How can a team which has been in the first division only once since 1950, that being fourth place, claim to have so many invincible players?

Frank Lane answered this last winter. He said the Tigers "don't have the guts to trade."

And Lane isn't practicing what he doesn't preach. He was almost beheaded in effigy when he got rid of Ray Narleski and Don Mossi.

Every time the Tigers talk about trading, the questions and answers are the same. Trade Kaline? Heavens No! Trade Kuenn? Absolutely not! Trade Lary? Never! Trade Foytack, Bunning, Hoeft? No!

So it goes, we've got a team of pennant players, sitting in the basement.

Yet, when the shoe is on the other foot, the players offered are called "second rate." That's what Norm Siebern, Hank Bauer, Bobby Richardson and Marv Throneberry were called when they were included in the Yankee package.

The Tigers never consider the "invincibles" on the other team. Teams like Baltimore, Kansas City and Washington can put their best players together and still not get enough for a starting lineup to challenge the Yankees.

Any good baseball fan can associate the best player on each of the three teams. Mention Roy Sievers, Gus Triandos and Bob Cerv and Washington, Baltimore and Kansas City come to mind in that order.

Yet, the Tigers have made a bid for each of these players in as much to say, "Give us your best and you can have any one except these who are our invincibles." Those left wouldn't make fair trade with Charleston.

The sorriest day for Detroit was the day Veeck was refused the Tiger franchise.

"Mr. Sportshirt" could have supplied the needle the Detroit club sorely needed for 10 years.

Detroit fans deserve a better break than to have five and dime store salesman, disc jockeys, Texas cattlemen, lumbermen and miners from West Virginia guiding the representatives of this great state in professional baseball.

Just as it takes barbers to cut hair and dentists to pull teeth, it takes baseball men to run a Major League baseball team.

Norman Says Bengals Are Not Quitters

Tiger Manager Claims They'll Find Themselves

Detroiters Begin Home Stand Tonight Against Surging Baltimore

DETROIT (AP) — Bill Norman admits that if he were not the manager of the Detroit Tigers, the club's early season miseries would be pitiful to the point of being funny.

"But I am the manager," the harried Norman added quickly. "I can't laugh, ridiculous as things sometimes have been. Things ain't funny at all."

Norman is far from ready to concede anything, and he says not a player has given any indication that the team's 1-12 record is producing quitters.

"It's almost amazing how these boys are holding up," Norman said. "They haven't been pretty, and they know it. But there hasn't been one time where I've seen anyone quit. I have a lot of respect for my troops. They are giving me 100 per cent and more. I know it sounds awfully stale but we're going to get rolling."

The Tigers have a chance to end their second six-game losing streak of the young season tonight when they meet the Baltimore Orioles at Briggs Stadium. Only 10,000 fans are expected and it will mean a further drop in attendance, already off more than one third.

Norman has changed the batting order more times than he cares to count and he has switched left fielders and first basemen without coming up with a regular at either spot.

"Nothing works," he said. "It looks like we are snake-bit. It's really frustrating when you have three guys among the batting leaders and still win only once in 13 tries. We're probably leading the league in hitting but we're probably last in slugging and in runs scored.

"The way we've been going, it's just like being three or four runs behind when the umpire says 'play ball.' And the Tigers just can't afford to be that generous."

"Despite everything, we're only six games out of the first division. We're a good club and when it's all over we'll be in the top four. Until we get there I'm not pushing any panic buttons."

Patterson Defends Against London for $200,000

Floyd Tops Million Friday

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Floyd Patterson has been called the "unknown champion" often of late. When he hears about it he must laugh to himself. He probably would laugh out loud if he were the type.

★ ★ ★

For with his title defense against England's Brian London this Friday night, the heavyweight king's earnings in less than seven years of pro fighting will go over the million dollar mark.

From that Sept. 12 night in 1952 when he collected $75 for his first pro fight right through his last effort on Aug. 18, 1958, when he stopped Roy Harris, the quiet, mannerly Patterson has earned $904,000 in the ring.

This city is doing its share to help the bundles-for-Patterson movement. The 24-year-old champion figures to earn in the neighborhood of $200,000 including the television fee, against the lowly regarded Briton.

Indianapolis won this fight almost as an after-thought and is doing its utmost to make it a hit. They may scorn the fight in England and elsewhere, but here they're taking it dead serious. It's Indianapolis' first championship fight.

In less than two weeks close to $80,000 has been taken in at the box office. The fight may draw $125,000, which would put it in the black.

London, a cliff-jawed, 24-year-old husky, has made a lot of friends here. He has gone out of his way to be pleasant, much to the astonishment of the big British press corps which followed him here.

The six-foot, 206-pound Britain has looked fair in his workouts. He has shown fast hands if nothing else in his drills with Dusty Rhodes. The latter, interestingly enough, used to be Patterson's sparmate. London and Rhodes went three rounds yesterday.

Both London and Patterson expect to wind up their boxing with today's workout. Patterson's punching was real fast yesterday, close to the form he showed in knocking out Archie Moore for the title in 1956.

STARING INTO SPACE? — Manager Bill Norman of the Detroit Tigers wears a look of disbelief as he watches from the dugout while his team loses another game. Bewildered stares like this have been a daily occurrence for Norman, who has seen his club drop 12 of 13 starts. The Bengals open a home stand tonight at Briggs Stadium against the Baltimore Orioles and Tiger fans hope Norman's woebegone expression can take on a happier glow.

Four Canadiens Head NHL All-Stars

Rangers Take Other 2 Berths on First Team

Wings Place Quartet on 2nd Unit; Howe Honored 10th Time

MONTREAL (AP) — Andy Bathgate and Bill Gadsby of the New York Rangers today joined four members of the champion Montreal Canadiens on the National Hockey League all-star team for 1958-59. The Detroit Red Wings dominated the second team.

Bathgate captured the right wing position and Gadsby was named to one of the defense spots in a vote of sports writers and broadcasters in each of the six league cities. The Canadiens selected were goalie Jacques Plante, defenseman Tom Johnson, center Jean Beliveau and left winger Dickie Moore.

For 10 of the last 11 years Howe has been on either the first or second team.

Players on the first team will each receive $1,000. Those on the second team receive $500.

The voting was held twice, once in January based on performances through games of Dec. 31 and again in mid-March based on performances over the last half of the regular campaign. Gadsby, Plante and Beliveau trailed in the first half balloting.

Bathgate and Johnson made the No. 1 team for the first time. Bathgate, who finished behind Moore and Beliveau in the scoring race after leading until the final three weeks, captured the right wing position by a convincing margin over Howe, the circuit's five-time scoring leader. Howe garnered only 90 points.

HONORED AGAIN — Gordie Howe of the Detroit Red Wings yesterday was named to the 2nd honor squad of the 1959 National Hockey League all-star team, marking the 10th time in the last 11 seasons that he has earned a place on either the 1st or 2nd unit.

Family, Advisers Back Him Up

Johansson Confident He Can Lick Patterson

NEW YORK (AP) — Ingemar Johansson, surrounded by his family and advisers, stretched out in his plush midtown hotel suite today, and said he'd like to have one thing understood:

"If I didn't think I had a chance of beating Floyd Patterson for the heavyweight championship, I wouldn't be here now.

"I have a good right hand and a good left one, too. It could be I might beat Patterson with either."

Johansson, the European heavyweight champion from Sweden—who looks more like a Yale tackle than a fighter—was talking of his coming fight with Patterson for the title on June 25 at Yankee Stadium. Patterson must first dispose of Brian London of England in Indianapolis on Friday. But Johansson doesn't think London has a chance.

"I am not too impressed by Patterson," observed Henry. "He doesn't look like any superman to me."

Sniffed Al:

"I saw movies of Patterson's fight with Pete Radmacher. I thinks Ingy hits harder than he. Furthermore, Ingy can hit just as hard in the last round as the first. From what I saw in the movie, Patterson can be hit."

Ingy listened attentively to the family sumup and nodded.

Sitting close by was his fiancee, Birgit Lundgren. She, too, appeared to agree with the boys. She also serves as Johansson's secretary, and revealed that the boss gets a lot of mail from girls.

"But I'm not jealous," she laughed. "Most of them are for autographs anyhow. Not many proposals of marriage."

Well, this bloke is more than a fighter. He has a fishing boat business and owns four bulldozers, a couple of caterpillars and two trucks that are being used to build an athletic field in his native Goteborg.

Drysdale Pitches Dodgers Into National League Lead

By The Associated Press

Virtually no one but the other players in the National League considered the Los Angeles Dodgers a threat for the pennant. And even the players would shrug when they explained that the Dodgers "were too good to be seventh last year."

So who's in first? The Dodgers.

They made it a one-game lead last night, whipping Pittsburgh 9-3 with a five-run first inning. That supplied all the cushion Don Drysdale needed to beat the Pirates for the first time since 1957.

It was the lanky right-hander's third consecutive victory after losing his first decision of the season and he did it with a six-hitter.

That was the only game played in the majors yesterday. Only two others were scheduled, both in the NL, and they were postponed by rain.

Invade West Below .500

Yanks in Strange Position

By The Associated Press

Not since 1952 have the New York Yankees been a sub .500 ball club going into their first meeting with the west in an American League pennant race. But that's the way the defending world champions stand as they open a 10-game tour at Chicago tonight.

With the Yankees having their troubles, the western clubs dominate the standings. And it's the Baltimore Orioles, still chirping after a three-game sweep at New York, who have the unfamiliar role of spearheading the invasion by the eastern teams.

The Cleveland Indians, holding only a one-game lead over Chicago after the White Sox swept the last three in a four-game week-end series, are at home to the Boston Red Sox, tied with the Yankees for fifth.

The Yankees, with a 6-7 record and a four-game losing string, send Bob Turley (1-2) against the White Sox' Ray Moore (0-1) Turley, who lost a three-hitter in his last outing, was 4-0 against the White Sox last year when he won 21 and was voted baseball's No. 1 pitcher. Moore was 3-2 against the Yankees a year ago, twice shutting them out.

Cleveland, which had lost but one of 10 starts before bumping into the White Sox, picked Herb Score (1-1) to face the Red Sox' Tom Brewer (1-1), whose victory was a two-hit shutout over New York.

Fourth place Kansas City, holding a 3-2 edge over the White Sox but 1-4 against Cleveland, listed Ray Herbert (1-0) against the Senators' Russ Kemmerer (2-1).

With his Yankees below .500 for the first time at any stage of the race since 1954, manager Casey Stengel conceded that "a lot of things are wrong, and I just gotta do something." One move might be the return of Gil McDouglad to shortstop, with Tony Kubek going to the bench.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Wild with the driver.
DIAGNOSIS: Careless positioning.

Treatment: If any golfer ever is to achieve consistently accurate drives, he must learn to be consistent in how he places the ball with reference to his feet—or vice versa, if you prefer. The point is that unless you stick to a pattern in lining yourself up to the shot you can hardly hope to have your shots follow a pattern.

THE DRIVE

For the drive, the ball should be lined up just about even with the instep of the left foot. That is the correct alignment for nearly all golfers. There can be some variance, but it should be slight — no more than an inch backward or forward.

This is an important factor in achieving the repeating golf swing, which is one that can be counted on to do the same thing, or very near it, time after time.

For shorter shots than the drive, the ball positioning moves progressively nearer the middle of the feet. Always be careful about this lining yourself up with the shot. And whatever you do, don't forget the four way formula! Don't forget the fundamentals of head, hands, hips and heels.

California Horses Dominate Opening

DETROIT (UPI) — California horses walked off with most of the prizes as Michigan opened its 1959 racing season at Hazel Park Harness Raceway last night.

It was the second best opening night in the track's history as a hardy crowd of 10,741 turned out to wager $413,788.

Cold and a mild drizzle kept the track from eclipsing the all-time attendance mark of 13,741 set last year.

Five of the nine races were won by California campaigners.

Bowlers take heart. If you're disappointed over the way you finished in your league the past season this should make you feel better.

The South Joy Beauty School women's bowling team in Detroit finished the season with a record of one win and 115 losses.

The latest golf expression: "I fritzed on five and took a seven" — meaning "I took four putts on the 5th hole and finished with seven strokes. (It could be any hole and any number of strokes.)

Don't know how the word "fritz" was arrived for four putts. One explanation is the slangular result of the word "fritter" which according to Webster means to "disperse little by little, or break into small pieces."

Must mean piece by piece putting.

TRIPLE CROWN NOW BIG GOAL

The Triple Crown simply means the three major stake races for three-year-olds, namely, The Derby May 2nd, Preakness May 16th and Belmont June 13th.

The oldest is the Belmont Stakes with its 91st running. Greatest in prestige is the Derby in its 85th running and the biggest starting pot is the Preakness with $150,000 added and 138 nominees.

Belmont and the Derby each have 130 nominees and are $125,000 added.

NEW VENOMOUS "SPORT"

The bulging world of sports (and today most everything is considered a sport) has added another form of "athletics."

Down in Oklahoma they call them "rattlesnake roundups." More than 25,000 people jammed the town of Okeene, Okla. which has a population of 1,160 for the 20th annual roundup.

Hunters from 25 states crated over four tons of rattlesnakes to be sold at 50 cents a pound. Fried rattlesnake was the menu of the day.

FORE! ANOTHER GOLFER ARRIVES

Lookout, another red-headed golfer has come into the world. Robert James Wilson was a little overdue but he weighed in at a hefty 7 pounds, 15 ounces.

Proud cigar passer is Pontiac Country Club's Frank Wilson who would have gone bankrupt had it been a girl.

Finnegan, First Landing Rated Division Choices

16 Compete for Chance Saturday; Others Just Waiting

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The boom or bust Kentucky Derby hopes of 16 three-year-olds go on the line today in the Derby Trial, final tuneup before Saturday's $125,000-added classic.

The top eight or ten performers in the trial, split into two divisions for the first time in history, probably will be among those going to the post in the Derby.

★ ★ ★

But today's mile run is likely to convince owners of the lesser lights their charges don't rate an appearance in the mile-and-a-quarter run for the roses at Churchill Downs Saturday.

The Derby picture remains wide open, however.

Still to be accounted for are up to nine other possible starters now biding their time in the barns at the historic track.

The Trial gives a tempting East-West flavor. Finnegan, standard bearer of California, heads the field of eight in the first division at early odds of 8 to 5. And First Landing, last year's two - year - old champ from the East, is an even-money favorite to win the second.

Both will carry 122 pounds compared with Derby weight of 126. Each division is worth $15,000 - added money.

Two colts are expected to give Finnegan a real fight, Royal Orbit, another California contender, is rated a 7-2 choice with Jockey Bill Hartack riding. Chris Rogers will ride Bayard Sharp's Troilus, the Flamingo winner going off at early odds of 9-2 in the same race.

Mrs. Jacques Braunstein's Royal Orbit, Cain Hoy Stable's Hoist Away and Briardale Farm's Rico Tesio carry 116 pounds. Mosby from Llangollen Farm and Holtsinger and Davis' Bernmattar carry 114, and Elkcam Stable's Open View has 115 pounds.

Eddie Arcaro, winner of five Derbys, will ride Christopher T. Chenery's First Landing. Claiborne Farm's Dunce is rated the second choice in this division at 5 to 2 with Steve Brooks up. Our Dad, ridden by Pete Anderson, is another contender.

The second division also includes K. G. Marshall's John Bruce, Carrie C. Hillock's Quantrell and Robert S. Lytle's Sundown II, all carrying 116 pounds; Dunce and R. G. Burns' Steno Bill, 114; and Hatskin and Sair's Master Palynch, 122.

While these colts battle for a crack in the 85th running of the Derby, jockeys were named for two other all - but - sure starters Saturday.

The status of Easy Spur, On-And-On, Monk's Hood and Silver Spoon remains in doubt.

Brown Quits Bowl

Brown, who had coached a team in the game for the past nine years, gave no reason for quitting.

Sarazen Favors Young Players in U. S. Open

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) — Hogan, Snead, and Demaret are over the hill, says Gene Sarazen, and someone younger will win the United States Open this year.

"The younger players are every bit as good as were the players of the past," the 57-year-old erstwhile golfing great asserted. "The U.S. Open will be the toughest test for the pros in 25 years and there will be no fluke win.

"Sam Snead, Ben Hogan and Jimmy Demaret are great players but at their age they cannot put four rounds together to beat the type of competition they have today. They're in their 40s and they're over the hill."

Sarazen, of Germantown, N.Y., was the honored guest at a banquet last night, receiving northern California golf writers' tributes for his contributions to the game.

"The winner will have to be very accurate," says Gene. "This could be the toughest test a pro ever had. I believe this tournament will be 55 per cent putting and 45 per cent shotmaking."

He sees no reason for the long grass that parallels some fairways, saying: "When a great champion puts the ball in the rough grass you are putting handcuffs on him."

Sarazen suggested cutting the distance of par three holes so the average golfer could hit the green in one shot and reducing the length of the par fours so the greens could be reached on the average in two.

"Most of the time," he said, "is taken up waiting for the golfers on the shorter holes that are actually too long now."

City Golf Clinic Starts Tomorrow

The first of four Wednesday evening sessions of the annual Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department golf instruction clinic will be held tomorrow night in the boys' gymnasium at Pontiac Central High School from 7 to 9 p.m.

Dates for the remaining clinics are May 6, 13 and 20.

The course is designed to cover the basic fundamentals of the game of golf. Emphasis will be placed on the proper grip, stance, swing, rules and etiquette.

Persons who have not registered for this class should call the Parks and Recreation Department, FE 3-7131, or register at the gym when attending the first session.

Class members should come equipped with a No. 2 wood, 5-iron and putter in addition to a cotton or soft rubber practice ball. A few practice balls will be available at the school.

A fee of $1 for city residents and $2 for non-residents will be collected tomorrow night in the PCH gym.

NBA Discusses Third Division

NEW YORK (AP)—Plans for a third division of the National Basketball Assn., including four or five far western teams, were discussed at a meeting here last night.

Maurice Podoloff, NBA president, met with a West Coast group seeking a franchise for Los Angeles. A spokesman said the new division, with a target date the 1960-61 season, would include under current proposals Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle and possibly Denver.

The eight teams now making up the Eastern and Western divisions of the NBA would make one trip to the coast each season to play the third division teams.

Earlier, Podoloff was re-elected to a three year term at a substantial increase in salary at a meeting of the league's board of governors also voted the 1961 all-star game to Syracuse and the 1962 game to St. Louis. The 1960 game will be played Jan. 22 in Philadelphia.

OL St. Mary, Keego Teams Keep Rolling

Walled Lake Wins in Two Sports

Monday was kind of a cold, dreary day but Walled Lake sports fans didn't mind it a bit.

Two Viking teams posted impressive victories over local rivals featuring a busy prep schedule. Walled Lake walloped Pontiac Northern in track 90-19 and won out in a golf triangular with Waterford and Berkley with a 173 total.

The charges of John Koczman took all but one event at PNH as versatile Frank Fink accounted for 16¼ points. The victors swept all three places in four of the contests.

Franklin Hills was the scene of the triangular won by Walled Lake. The other entries wound up tied at 176 but The Bears won out in a playoff on two birdies. Chuck Canterbury of the Skippers was medalist at 38.

Avondale, Fitzgerald and Clawson were other track victors in Oakland B action at Fitzgerald. Avondale gained its 1st success by nipping Oak Park 56-53 paced by Tom Greenlees' 15 points. A surprise win by Jim McCoskey in the 440 and Conard Fulkerson's 2nd in the mile decided the issue. Orion was impressive despite the absence of dash ace Lee Shoup in bowing to the host team 58-51. Clawson walloped Madison 73½ to 35½.

Unbeaten West Bloomfield and Bloomfield Hills were other golf victors. Keego fired 157 to Holly's 175 at Davisburg featuring a 37 by Jim Hollister and 38s for Jon Shaw and Don Cole. Darrell Kinney led the losers with 39. Bloomfield whipped Milford 170-193 at Highland Hills with Bob Thompson and Steve Diltz sharing low honors with 41.

Holly gained a split for the day by belting Brighton in baseball, 10-3 backing some excellent pitching by Dale Coggins. Bill Haslock had a 2-run homer in the 1st Bronco win. Bill Boyd fired a two-hitter at winless Bloomfield Hills in a 6-0 Northville triumph.

OL St. Mary held its Suburban Catholic lead by whipping Royal Oak St. Mary 10-4 on the hurling and hitting of Stan Krogulechi. Mike Wiktor homered. St. James beat St. Rita 6-3.

North Branch stayed unbeaten in the South Central and won its 4th overall besting Millington 11-8. Ted Dziduch won in relief aided by the hitting of Bill Fricke. Lee Kirkey homered for Millington.

48 U. S. Gridders Already Signed by Canadian Pros

OTTAWA, Ont. (UPI) — When Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto and Hamilton open their training camps in June there may be anywhere from 75 to 100 Americans, both bright-faced collegians and hardened pros, shooting for jobs with the Big Four Canadian Football League clubs.

All told, thus far, the Rough Riders, Alouettes, Argonauts and Tiger Cats have announced the signing of 48 new Americans for the coming season, but the figure is expected to be almost doubled by the time the clubs reach their training camps in about 10 weeks.

A United Press International survey shows that when it comes to "names," the Riders are more than holding their own with their more wealthy brethren. Ottawa may be the "poor" club of the league, but it's the one which has shelled out the most money for new faces thus far.

High on the list of imports who will be wearing Ottawa uniforms for the first time this season are quarterbacks Don Allard of Boston College and Ohio State halfback Don Clark. They, along with the veteran Frank Tripucka, are rated in the five-figure bracket, while Kentucky halfback Bobby Cravens will receive a reported $8,000.

The Riders may have an even bigger "name player" in All-America quarterback Randy Duncan of Iowa. However, when coach Frank Clair signed Allard, the club sold the negotiation rights to Duncan to the British Columbia Lions who later signed him for about $35,000 for two years.

The Ti-Cats, league champions the last two years, continue to dip into the veteran ranks of the National Football League for newcomers, and of the 16 put under contract to date, eight have NFL experience.

★ ★ ★

Toronto has signed highly rated Baylor guard Charlie Horton, Oregon end Ron Stover, a Rose Bowl record-setter last year, and tackle Pete Johnson, former captain of the Idaho State University squad.

The early season shopping has taken its toll on the NFL clubs. Allard was the first draft choice of the Washington Redskins; Clark was the top choice of the Chicago Bears and Horton was selected on the second round by the Detroit Lions.

MONDAY'S FIGHTS

Ike Approves Pan-Am Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower Monday signed a bill authorizing a half million dollar appropriation to help finance the third Pan-American Games at Chicago this year.

The games, to run from Aug. 27, to Sept. 7, are expected to attract about 2,000 athletes from 25 or more countries.

A Day He'll Remember

Bernie Oliver will remember his first start as a pitcher for the Pontiac Northern junior varsity.

The PNH sophomore struck out 15 batters in pitching a no-hit, no-run game as his team went on to beat the Waterford Jayvees, 4-0. He gave up three walks and hit a batter.

Color Artist Rolls 1703, Leads Petersen

CHICAGO (AP)—Don Bartz, 30-year-old Milwaukee lithographic color artist, took the lead in the $250,000 Petersen Bowling Classic last night with an eight-game total of 1,703.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

The Milwaukean, who has been bowling seven years, appeared in two previous Petersen Classics but didn't finish in the money.

Brandstatter Top End at MSU

Promote Former Prep Ace

EAST LANSING (UPI) — East Lansing's Art Brandstatter, Michigan high school football player of the year in 1957, moved up yesterday to first string end after a 2½ hour spring drill at Michigan State University.

★ ★ ★

Coach Duffy Daugherty emphasized the promotions are not necessarily permanent and can change before the season starts.

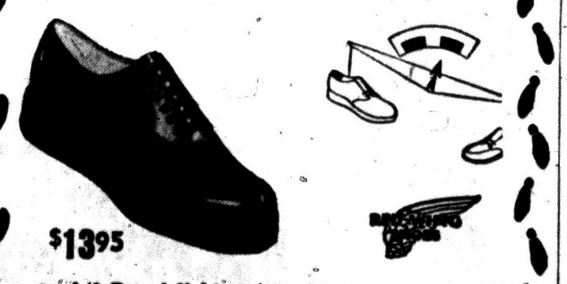

Injuries in the first two weeks amounted to only the usual bumps, bruises and sprains, Daugherty said.

Michigan Puts More Men in Prison for Longer Terms

(This is the second in a series of articles based on a survey of the Michigan prison system by the National Probation and Parole Association. It shows that Michigan's rising prison population will force the taxpayers to spend $9 to $14 million more a year within 10 years unless changes are made.)

LANSING—Why does Michigan face a 20 per cent increase in its prison population in the next 10 years?

The Mcihigan Crime and Delinquency Council, a citizen group, said an 18-months survey of the state's corrections system by the National Probation and Parole Association gives some answers and promises some solutions.

The state's prisons now hold about 10,138 men and women. By 1970, this inmate population could rise to 12,980.

The Council said the survey showed that Michigan sends more men to prison than comparable industrial states.

In 1956 and 1957, Michigan imprisoned 21 per cent more inmates than the national average, 77 per cent more than Iowa's progressive system.

The survey showed that Michigan's prison population is "very high" for its overall population —134 inmates per 100,000 of general population. This is higher than all but six states, most of which are in the Deep South. Michigan sends 48 per cent more men to prison than the average for the North Central group of states, also.

Michigan holds its prisoners for an average of 2.83 years, which is about the same as the national average, the survey showed, but which also is longer than such comparable states as Wisconsin, New Jersey and a number of North Central states.

The survey said the length of prison terms in Michigan is not the fault of state parole board delay or timidity—but rather the result of excessively long sentences required by law.

Michigan has more men serving life sentences (800) than any other state except Virginia and lists 21 offenses for which a life sentence can be imposed—compared to only one in Wisconsin. Michigan, the survey said, sent only 23 per cent of its inmates to prison for maximum terms of 4 years or less, compared to a national average of 46 per cent, a Central states average of 37 per cent, and a Wisconsin average of 84 per cent.

The Council said it used Wisconsin as a comparison frequently because it was a close neighbor and because it had demonstrated that more liberal policies do not endanger the public.

Michigan, the survey concluded, "is badly in need of statutory changes" to permit the courts to send men to prison for shorter periods and the parole board to release them earlier.

"Long terms have a negative effect," the NPA said. "For not more than two years or so, normally constructive work can be done with the prisoner. Thereafter, he receives little more than custody and mere custody without treatment is a predominantly destructive experience."

DANCING ON THE GREEN — Dancing on a grassy slope at Holland's Kollen Park on Lake Macatawa, Klompen Dancers go through their intricate paces for visitors who came to view a special children's festival revived in 1958 for the Tulip Time Festival. Dutch games, songs and dances, in vogue more than 100 years ago when the Dutch first came to Holland, are revived in this festival attraction. This year's festival is May 14-16.

Holland Mixes Tulips and Trade

(This is the fourth in a series of articles on Michigan's industrial and cultural achievements written by Michigan newsmen as an introduction to Michigan Week 17-23.)

By W. A. BUTLER
Editor, Holland Evening Sentinel

HOLLAND—Noted for its tulips and its churches, Holland is a city of unique advantages geared to wholesome living in the American pattern.

Founded in 1847 by a group of hardy Dutchmen headed by Dr. A. C. Van Raalte, Holland today still has many characteristics which long have been associated with people who put home, church and education on a high plane.

While these traits suggest a conservative tone, Holland, nevertheless, can show a progressive spirit that surprises communities which boast a more cosmopolitan attitude.

★ ★ ★

Last year, Holland tripled in size through an annexation program on a second-round vote, and chances are that Holland will grow even larger in an effort to solve pressing school and service problems. Holland today covers nine square miles and counts some 25,056 population.

TULIP FESTIVALS

Holland is perhaps best known for her annual Tulip Time festivals which attract about a half-million visitors each May. The festival this year will be a three-day event May 14 through 16 and will feature the popular Klompen dance by 300 high school girls, the well known street scrubbing cermonies, and the usual parades and other events which have made Tulip Time nationally famous.

★ ★ ★

With the majority of churches associated with the Dutch Reformed and Christian Reformed denominations, Holland's reputation on the religious front has been well established. More than 40 churches serve the spiritual needs of the area and a Sunday morning finds nearly all churches crowded.

With an innate love for education, Holland early established Hope College, a liberal arts school which enrolls more than 1,000 students. This school of higher learning was established as an academy shortly after the Holland settlement was founded. It is owned and operated by the Reformed Church in America.

Holland lies in the heart of the Western Michigan resort area. Beautiful Lake Macatawa provides a navigable path from Lake Michigan into the heart of the city. With miles and miles of shoreline, interlaced with paved roads, majestic dunes and green woods, Holland is the hub of a summer resort area.

Holland State Park on Lake Michigan is one of the busiest parks in the state, offering all the advantages of swimming, camping and fun-in-the-sun to please the most discriminating person.

Holland's channel welcomes lake freighters carrying cargoes of coal, iron, cement, road building materials, oil and gasoline each year. Pleasure boating, including sailboat racing, is another top summertime activity.

Attractions for the tourist include a visit to the Wooden Shoe Factory; the Netherlands Museum with its rare exhibits furnished by the royal family; Little Netherlands, a miniature replica of old Holland; Baker Furniture Museum, a permanent exposition of antique and modern furniture; excursion boat cruises on Lake Macatawa and Lake Michigan; and Poll museum with its collections of gasoline, steam and electric vehicles.

NEW CIVIC CENTER

In recent years, Holland's downtown area has been acquiring a new look through a gradually expanding off-street parking program. A new Civic Center has a parking lot for 300 cars, and brings athletic and cultural events to the city.

Holland is in the midst of a large rural area, mostly small farms with diversified crops. Dairying and poultry are near the top of the list. Zeeland, which lies five miles east of Holland, claims the distinction of being the poultry capital of the Middle West.

Construction is to start this summer on a big steam-powered electric generating plant being built by Consumers Power Co. at Pigeon Lake, in Port Sheldon township, 10 miles northwest of Holland. First unit, of 265,000-kilowatt capacity, is to be ready for operation in 1962, and a second unit of similar capacity is to be completed the following year.

Odd Query Sends Editor Digging for Answer

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Newspaper offices get some odd questions. A lady telephoned city editor Edward Barthelmes and asked:

"Could you tell me if a 10-quart bucket will hold $1,000 worth of dimes?"

George Gershwin Still Controversial Composer Among American Critics

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Ira Gershwin finds it amusing that his late brother, George, is still a subject of controversy among "intellectual critics" in this country although he is accepted as an unqualified genius abroad.

"You know," said the 62-year-old lyricist, "there are some people who are still jealous of the fact that he succeeded in getting a jazz element into a concert piece.

Ira, a gray-haired, portly man, got up from a chair in the living room of his home and took a large book from the shelf. It was a copy of the original orchestration of "Porgy and Bess," in George's own hand. The original is in the Library of Congress.

Then, getting an old scrapbook that George had compiled as a 12-year-old boy, Ira said: "This is to refute those who said George was strictly a Tin Pan Alley composer."

"He always was interested in serious music," said Ira. "True, he got his rhythm from jazz and popular melodies, but his harmonic and melodic elements were strongly influenced by Debussy and Tschaikovsky.

IS PLAYED EVERYWHERE

"I remember one night at Oscar Levant's house. Virgil Thompson —a wonderful critic and musician —was there, and so was another critic, who didn't like George.

"Thompson's main point was that no other composer has 'traveled' like George. What I mean is that some composers are played in some countries, but not in all. Brahms, for instance, is very popular in many nations —but not in Italy. But George is popular in all countries."

Puffing on a cigar, Ira said that George's greatest quality was honesty.

"His music was virile," of course, "but honesty was his greatest virtue. No matter whom he studied with—and he studied until the day he died—he always came out basically himself, even if he picked up some fringe benefits."

The movie version of "Porgy and Bess" will soon be out, and MGM is contemplating another film biography of the composer.

"You know," said Ira, "it's 22 years since George died (at the age of 38), but people still feel personally close to him. They come up to me and say, 'Isn't it too bad about your brother?'—as if it happened yesterday. It's a wonderful tribute."

Ira, who teamed with George to turn out some of Broadway's most memorable shows, has a book coming out this fall called "Lyrics on Several Occasions."

"It contains 100 lyrics with notes," he said. "If it sells 3,000 copies, I'll be very happy. It's quite informative, if anybody can live through it."

East Germany Claims Immigration Gains

BERLIN (AP) — Communist East Germany claims that 18,000 West Germans emigrated to the east in the first quarter of this year.

"This number is not as large as the number moving from east to west, but is steadily increasing whereas movement in the other direction is decreasing," said German Report, English language organ of the East German press office.

Reporting on the same period, the West German government said 33,605 East Germans registered as refugees in West Berlin and the Bonn republic. This was a decrease of 29 per cent over last year.

Noted as Organizer, Theoretician

Red China's New President 'Cold'

Liu, now 61, is a cold, thin-faced, humorless man with none of the gruff old soldier heartiness of Chu Teh or the suave, ingratiating charm of Chou En-lai.

Essentially a practical man, he is an exceptional organizer. He invariably dresses in a simple, unadorned uniform and wears a worker's cloth cap.

He is not popular with many of his colleagues. But the force of his dedication to communism and his intellectual achievements command their respect.

Although there have been reports that they were sometimes on opposite sides of the ideological fence, Liu has long been close to Mao Tze-tung and had been regarded as one logical successor.

Liu was a leading factor behind the great "People's Communes" campaign which swept over China beginning last August.

Under Mao, the presidency was almost entirely a ceremonial post with the control of the nation's affairs vested in the hands of the chairman of the Communist party—a post—Mao still holds.

It is likely now that the presidency will become a more important job.

Because of early associations with Soviet communism, Liu has often been viewed as an internationalist and a leading member of the Soviet clique in the Red Chinese setup. But Liu is strongly nationalistic and has been known to criticize the Soviets for not understanding China.

He was born of poor peasant parents in a village in central Honan province in 1898 and still speaks with a strong Honan accent. From the village school he went to a "middle school" and later entered a technical college in Shanghai.

In 1920, he enrolled in a Russian language class and joined the Socialist Youth Corps. A year later he was one of eight students sent to Moscow to study.

He returned to Shanghai in 1922 to begin his career as a professional revolutionary. When the Communists and Chiang Kai-shek's Kuomintang split, Liu went underground and at some undetermined date returned to Moscow for further study.

In 1932 Liu was back at the Communist base in Kiangsi. When Mao and his forces took the Long March to Yenan, Liu was left behind as an underground labor organizer.

In 1937 he was named secretary of the northern bureau of the Central Committee, although he was being criticized by a number of his colleagues. In 1941 he became secretary of the Central China Bureau of the Communist party and, following the defeat of the Communists in southern Anhwei that year, did much work in the reorganization of the New Fourth Army, of which he was commissar.

Liu became a Politburo member in 1942 and the next year finally went to the Yenan Communist fastness to work with Mao.

Promotion came rapidly. When the government was reorganized in September 1954, Liu became chairman of the Standing Committee of the first National People's Congress.

At the party congresses in 1956 and 1958, Liu gave the keynote speeches, a sign of his position as Mao's heir apparent.

In 1956, in addition to being re-elected to the party Central Committee, Liu was also re-elected a vice chairman of the committee and a member of the Politburo and the Politburo's standing committee.

6 White Youths to Face Trial

Arrested in Connection With Shooting of Six Virginia Negroes

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Six white Richmond youths have been arrested in connection with the shotgun wounding of six Negro teenagers which grew out of an inter-racial rock-throwing incident Sunday night.

★ ★ ★

Police said one of those arrested, Jerald Kenney, 17, was charged with felonious assault with a shotgun after he admitted firing the weapon from an automobile in a middle-class Negro residential section.

Two of the Negro victims, walking along the sidewalk when the shooting occurred, were hospitalized with serious wounds. Four companions received less serious wounds.

John B. Flournoy, 18, a sheet metal worker; Earl Price Garrison Jr., 17, a grocery bagger; Charles Melton Carlton, 22, a roofing worker, and his brother Robert Lee Carlton, 20, also a roofing worker, were all charged with being accessories before the fact.

Thomas Ashby Parkinson, 20, was charged with being an accessory before and after the fact.

Garrison, Parkinson and Flournoy were released under bonds of $2,500 each, pending preliminary hearings in juvenile and domestic relations court May 12. Similar bonds were set for Kenney and the Carlton brothers.

Canadians Hope for Good Tourist Climate in 1959

OTTAWA (AP)—Canada may have a record tourist year in 1959. Good weather and continued economic recovery in the United States could do it, says Alan Field, director of the Canadian government's travel bureau.

The royal tour of Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip, and the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway are the year's two major attractions.

Field said 1958 looked like a record year at first, but recession hit the United States and bad weather hit both sides of the border.

"People didn't feel like holidaying," Field said. "The United States needs hot weather to put Americans in the mood and make them start thinking of cool lake country."

A record year would mean that more than 28,600,000 American tourists would visit Canada and that tourists from all countries would spend more than 363 million dollars, the 1957 total.

"Americans are crazy about royalty," said publicity director Gordon Hogarth of Ontario. Typical advertisements placed in U.S. publications operate on that theory and show the Queen's photograph with the caption: "See history in the making."

Open Spaces Still Exist

ANTLERS, Okla. (AP) — Oklahoma is fast becoming industrialized but not all of it. Bill Hoffman of this southeastern Oklahoma town says there still are places in Pushmataha County where a man can ride horseback all day in one direction and not see a fence, a house or a road.

Salaries Committee—Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Attention: Mr. Frazer W. Staman, Chairman

Gentlemen:

The question has been raised as to whether where the Board of Supervisors raised the county portion of the Circuit Judges' salaries to the point that the total is in excess of $22,500, the state portion is thereby reduced by the amount of the excess.

That is what M.S.A. 27.195 in effect provides. That section reads as follows:

"Each circuit judge * * * shall receive and annual salary of $12,500. The amount herein provided shall be compensation in full for all services performed by each of said judges in this state, unless the board of supervisors shall have or at any regular session hereafter, shall vote to pay the circuit judge regularly holding court in such county an amount in addition to the salary herein designated: Provided, That if the board of supervisors shall have heretofore or hereafter voted an additional amount which when added to said annual salary will exceed a total of $12,500 said annual salary shall be such part of $12,500 as shall, when added to said additional amount, not exceed $12,500.00"

This formula was added by amendment by Act No. 155, August 31, 1954. Before the Act became effective the Attorney General issued his opinion, (No. 1801, dated August 2 1954) that the proviso was unconstitutional. This holding is premised upon the theory that the legislature must provide a uniform annual salary payable monthly to each circuit judge without regard to what additional salary any county may also provide.

It is the opinion of this office that the proviso is unconstitutional and we are in full agreement with the opinion of the Attorney General that it should be disregarded and held a nullity.

Very truly yours,
CHARLES A. DAVIS
Assistant Corporation Counsel

The letter was received and placed on file.

Letter read from Mrs. Harriet Phillips, requesting that the appropriation for the Child Guidance Clinic be increased. (Placed on file.)

Misc. 3420

By Mr. Staman

In Re: Salaries Committee Report For 1959

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors, Oakland County, Michigan

Ladies and Gentlemen:

In pursuance of a policy and precedent established in the year 1951, your Salaries Committee, in conjunction with the Board of County Auditors, herewith submits for the consideration of your Honorable Body their recommended salary budget for the year 1959.

Further in the interest of clarity, the report herewith submitted should be construed as a joint report of both the Salaries Committee and the Board of Auditors, except as follows:

The Proposed Salaries for the Following Named Group are Solely the Recommendations of Your Salaries Committee, and in No Way Should Such Recommendations Be Construed As Part of The Joint Report of Both The Salaries Committee and The Board of Auditors.

1. Recommended salaries for officials, elected or appointed, to fill Constitutional or Statutory offices for a definite term of office commencing on January 1, 1959 and, in addition, recommended salaries for those officials (see "Circuit Court Judges," page 2) who will be elected in the April 1958 election to fill offices for which the terms will commence on July 1, 1959 and January 1, 1960.

2. Recommended salary adjustmen s for officials when such adjustments are permitted by law.

An abstract of positions and recommended salaries has been prepared and copies distributed to members of this Board. A copy of said abstract has also been placed on file in the office of the County Clerk for use and information of the general public.

Following the same procedures as used in the previous years we have omitted from the official resolution all individual salaries except the salaries for the Statutory offices where new terms of office will commence on January 1, 1959 July 1, 1959 and January 1 1960.

We recommend to your Honorable Body that the elective and appointive officials who will fill offices for which an annual salary is established as listed below be fully informed that our recommended annual salary rates for such offices were predicated on the assumption that such officials shall devote their entire time to the county office to which they were elected or appointed during the work week and hours previously established by the adoption of Miscellaneous Resolution No. 2971 by this Board on January 21, 1958 as the official work week and office hours for all county offices and departments.

ELECTIVE OFFICES

CIRCUIT COURT JUDGES (5): Six year term — January 1, 1960 to December 31, 1965. Recommended county's portion of annual salary — $10,000. (State pays $12,500, making total salary of $22,500 per year which is the maximum salary allowable under the provisions of Act 155, P.A. 1954 (M.S.A. 27.195)). EMPLOYEES' SALARIES

SALARY ADJUSTMENTS:

The Board of Auditors, through its Personnel Division, has conducted a review and study of salaries paid by the various municipalities, industry and other types of employment in the area and compared the salary rates now paid by the county for similar positions with those now paid by such agencies and business concerns included in our survey. The study reveals that the present salary rates for county employees are in most instances in line with salaries now paid by the agencies and business concerns included in the survey. We therefore recommend no general salary adjustments for county employees.

Your Committee recommends that a special fund in the Salaries Reserve Fund be approved and that your Honorable Body grant the Salaries Committee and the Board of Auditors authority to make such salary adjustments from said fund during the year 1959 as may be necessary to rectify any inequities which may arise, provided such changes will not affect the budgetary procedures of the county

FRINGE BENEFITS:

Your Committee has considered a report prepared by the Board of Auditors recommending changes in the Employees' Annual Leave and Sick Leave Plans. These were established by Miscellaneous Resolution 2626 (Annual Leave Plan, adopted September 17, 1951) and Miscellaneous Resolution 2976 (Sick Leave Plan adopted April 12, 1955).

We recommend that the amount of sick leave with pay earned by employees whose salaries are based on a work week of 40 hours be reduced from the present one-half day per bi-weekly pay period to one day per month. The maximum of accumulation of 100 sick leave days would continue as provided in Miscellaneous Resolution 2976.

We further recommend that the amount of annual leave with pay earned by employees whose salaries are based on a work week of 40 hours be increased from the present 10 days per year to one day per month for the first nine years of county employment and be increased from the present 15 days per year to one and one-half days per month thereafter.

Under this plan employees considered a part-time or temporary employees shall not be eligible to earn and use sick leave and annual leave. Eligible employees whose salaries are based on work weeks of more or less than 40 hours shall earn and accumulate sick leave and earn annual leave at a pro rata rate based on the amount earned by the 40 hour week employee.

Your Salaries Committee further recommends that the formulation of the detailed rules and regulations for the administration of the sick leave and annual leave plans within the framework described above shall be the responsibility and authority of the Salaries Committee of the Board of Supervisors.

It is further recommended that the administration of the sick leave and annual leave plans shall be the responsibility and authority of the Board of Auditors.

If these recommendations are approved by your Honorable Body, it is recommended that the above outlined general plan for annual sick leave plans for county employees become effective January 1, 1959 and supersede the provisions of Miscellaneous Resolution 2626 which established the present annual leave plan and Miscellaneous Resolution 2976 which established the present sick leave plan.

RECOMMENDED NEW POSITIONS FOR YEAR 1959:

Your Salaries Committee this year was faced with the necessity of making drastic reductions in the number of new positions requested by the various county departments due to the certain deficit the county is facing as the result of increased welfare costs.

There were a total of 66 new positions requested by various county deparments. We recommend that 36 new positions be approved. This will include 27 positions in the Department of Public Works and 4 in the Drain Commission for which no salaries are asked in the budget. The 11 employees are to be paid from funds received by the financing of various public projects under the supervision of these two departments. Therefore only 25 new positions are included in the 1959 Salary Budget.

It is our understanding that the position of Director of the County Social Welfare Department was established in the year 1958 by resolution of the County Social Welfare Board, as provided by statute, and the said position of Director is presently held by a member of its Board whose term of office as a member of the Social Welfare Board will expire December 31, 1958. For your information, the Statute provides that the person employed as Director may or may not be a member of the Social Welfare Board and shall serve at the pleasure of said Board. We recommend that the person employed by the County Social Welfare Board to fill the position of Director receive an annual salary of $9,500 for the year 1959. Further, that the annual salary for the office of Director for all subsequent years shall be subject to review by the Salaries Committee and subject to revision by the Board of Supervisors.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Roads and Bridges Committee that the office of Chairman of the County Board of Road Commissioners be set up as an office distinct and separate from the office of Member of the Board of County Road Commissioners, we recommend that a salary of $1,500 be set for said office for the year 1959 if such recommendation is approved by your Honorable Body The salary for the Chairman shall be subject to review by the Salaries Committee and subject to revision annually by the Board of Supervisors. The position shall be filled annually to be held during the pleasure of the Board of County Road Commissioners.

NOTE: Funds for this salary, as well as the salaries of the Members of the Board of County Road Commissioners, are not provided from the county budget. They are paid from the budget of the Road Commission.

As in previous years, we recommend that the funds necessary to finance the new positions for the year 1959 be placed in the Salaries Reserve Fund and transferred to the affected department's salary appropriation only when the position is actually filled. The amount so transferred shall be for only that portion of the annual salary needed to cover the salary for the balance of the year 1959.

MISCELLANEOUS

We again reiterate the recommendations made in our report for the year 1958 concerning the following and further recommend that the provisions of the same remain in full force and effect until such times as they are amended or rescinded by your Honorable Body:

1. The Salaries Committee recommends that the Board of Auditors be authorized and instructed to contact all department heads and request that they notify their employees of the office hours established by the adoption of Miscellaneous Resolution No. 2971 which provides that the official office hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, except for those positions in certain county departments and institutions where the salaries are based on a work week of more than 40 hours. Lunch period to be 45 minutes (Misc. Res. 3132 as amended by Misc. Res. 3144)

2. In establishing the recommended salary rates for employees for the year 1959, we have based such rates on the assumption that all county employees shall devote their entire time to county affairs during the work week and hours previously established by the adoption of Miscellaneous Resolution No. 2971. Further, that each department head be held responsible for reporting all violations of this recommended regulation if approved by your Honorable Body. (Misc. Res. 3132)

While it may not be a prerogative of your Salaries Committee, we consider it proper to call your attention to the following matter.

Usually during the course of each year various members of this Board offer resolutions which provide that the employees receive extra time off before or after an established legal holiday with the provision that those employees, who because of the nature of employment and continuous operation of their respective departments, be given equivalent time off at a later date.

Because of the seven day per week and the three shift operation of the institutions and several other departments the extra time off creates, at certain periods, a serious problem in adequately staffing the institution or department for normal operation.

We respectfully recommend that all proposals affecting hours of work for county employees be referred to your Salaries Committee in order that proper provision may be made in respect to all departments of the county.

CONCLUSION

In order to comply with the schedule of dates for tax procedures, we have, previous to this dat, furnished the Ways and Means Committee with the amounts shown below, in order that the same could be considered in the preparation of the budget for the year 1959 to be submitted by that Committee.

WHEREFORE, on behalf of the Salaries Committee and the Board of Auditors, I offer the following resolution:

To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

The Drain Committee of the Board of Supervisors has given consideration to the responsibilities and duties of the various elected officials who have primarily administrative jobs. We find that the Drain Commissioner has responsibilities which include:

(1) The administration of approximately 300 drainage districts covering more than 600 miles of drains.

(2) The fixing and administration of various lake levels in Oakland County which is coming to be a very important problem to many of our residents.

(3) The handling and administration of the Twelve Towns Drain and the Eight Mile Road Drain along with several other large drains which are now being processed for early construction.

(4) He is a member of inter-county drainage boards including Red Run Drain and 5 other inter-county drains.

(5) He acts as agent for the County of Oakland in the administration of the Southeastern Oakland County Sewage Disposal District, the operation of which is his sole responsibility.

(6) He is a member of the Oakland County Board of Public Works.

The Drain Commissioner for the next several years will have some very important decisions to make involving the spending of very large sums of money, estimated at approximately $60,000,000.

The Drain Committee believes that the present Drain Commissioner is doing an exceptional job in the administration of his office; has brought several drainage districts ready for assessment which have remained inactive for many years, and has made effective progress on the processing of many new drains now under consideration.

In the past, the Drain Commissioner's salary has in most cases been less than, but never in excess, of the salaries paid to the County Clerk, the County Treasurer and Register of Deeds. We believe that his responsibilities are now, and will be, far in excess of these other positions.

Although it was the original plan when the Drain Commissioner was designated agent for the Southeastern Oakland County Sewage Disposal District, that any compensation paid to him by virtue of such appointment and the additional duties he assumed thereby by over and above the amounts set by the Board of Supervisors for salary, this has not been carried out in recent years. The result has been that the actual salary paid to the Drain Commissioner has been under the salaries paid to other County elected officials. It should also be pointed out that the Southeastern Oakland County Sewage District is under no obligation to reimburse any sum for the Drain Commissioner's salary, as has been assumed in reports made by the Salaries Committee for the past few years.

Your Drain Committee has reviewed the amount of salary recommended for the Drain Commissioner for the two year term as set forth in the Salaries Committee Report and, at a meeting of the Committee on September 12, 1958, adopted a resolution to recommend to the Board of Supervisors that the amount of the salary for the Drain Commissioner should be set at $12,450 per year, for the two year term beginning January 1, 1959.

Therefore, I move on behalf of the Drain Committee, that the report of the Salaries Committee be amended to set the salary of the County Drain Commissioner at $12,450.00 per year for the two year term beginning January 1, 1959, and that the sum of $1,200.00 be transferred from the amount reserved for Salary Adjustments to the Salary Budget for this purpose.

IN RE: BUDGET FOR FISCAL YEAR BEGINNING JANUARY 1, 1959 TO DECEMBER 31, 1959

To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Your ways and Means Committee herewith presents to this Board the budget for the operation of the County for the fiscal year beginning January 1, 1959 and ending December 31, 1959 and by way of explanation states as follows:

The report of the amounts set up by the Salaries Committee, totals of which were supplied to the Ways and Means Committee and which you have received, have been inserted as the recommended amounts in the 1959 budget.

It has been the custom of the Ways and Means Committee in the past, in accordance with good budgetary procedure, to place a conservative enough estimate on receipts so that in no case would the estimate be more than was actually received.

The amounts placed after the respective departments in the budget have been arrived at by reference to the budget recommendations of the Board of Auditors, Department Heads and Salaries Committee and consideration has been given to past experience as well as requirements of increase in service during the fiscal year the budget covers.

The amounts placed in the Supervisors item of the budget includes sufficient funds to permit an increase in Supervisors per diem from $10.00 to $15.00, and an increase for the Chairman from $10.00 to $25.00 per day, as approved in the Tentative Budget for 1959. It is the intention of this Committee that the adoption of this report shall constitute the exercise of this Board's prerogative of raising the per diem to $15.00 and $25.00 as above provided, pursuant to Act No. 270 of the Public Acts of 1957.

We again reiterate the recommendations made in the past years concerning the following policies.

We recommend the continuance of the policy to have the Board of Auditors submit quarterly reports to all members of the Board of Supervisors and each Department Head, as outlined in previous years.

We recommend that the salaries provided for be in lieu of all fees, which fees belong to and are to be credited to the General Fund.

Mr. Chairman, I move the adoption of the above report.

IN RE: AUDITOR GENERAL COMMITTEE REPORT

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Your Auditor General Committee respectfully reports that it has examined the list of 1957 and prior years tax rejections by the County Treasurer, which were approved by the Auditor General as of June 30, 1958, which have been reported to this Board for reassessment according to schedule as shown below and recommend that such taxes as constitute a valid assessment on the description on which they were returned, be reassessed to the year 1958.

We further recommend the said taxes which do not constitute a valid assessment on the description on which they were returned, be charged at large to the respective Township, City or Village.

eral Fund from those now shown. (Overhead charges have now been made and accounting report for the first 7 months operations indicate a reduction in the amount charged to the general fund from $14,422.80 to $1,386.24).

The housing of the offices of the D.P.W., Drain Commissioner and Planning Department under one roof has resulted in a close cooperative spirit between these departments, with mutual benefits accruing to all and this close coordination of efforts should continue in order to meet the needs of the entire county.

Accomplishments in the first full year of operation are considered to have more than justified the action taken by the Board of Supervisors in establishing the department, especially since greater progress could have been made had it not been necessary to go through the courts to determine the legality of the department. Certain opinions have been formed regarding future operations of the department as a result of activities to date.

In 1932 a detailed study of Oakland County government was made by Professor Thomas H. Reed of the University of Michigan. This study was made as a result of financing of the project by a private citizen. The Reed report was submitted after four months of study by Reed and several assistants, which contained numerous recommendations, some of which were adopted by the county, while others were not. Many of the recommendations could not be adopted due to constitutional and or statutory limitations.

In November of 1948 the Special Committee on Costs of Government of the Board of Supervisors retained the services of Public Administration Service, a non-profit public agency, with its main offices in Chicago, to make a survey of Oakland County government. In March of 1949 a report was submitted which has been referred to as the "Pope Report" since Mr. Pope was the Executive Director of that organization. The Pope Report likewise made many recommendations, some of which have since been adopted. The most recent adoption of one of the "Pope Report" recommendations was the consolidation of the offices of Register of Deeds and County Clerk effective as of January 1, 1959.

Both reports recommended the creation of a county public works department which was accomplished, following the enactment of necessary statutory provisions by the State Legislature, on June 24, 1957, by action of the Board of Supervisors under Miscellaneous Resolution No. 3237. However, both reports envisioned something beyond that which has been accomplished under the present D.P.W. structure.

Among the functions recommended to be carried out under the D.P.W. were the duties and responsibilities then and now performed by the office of Drain Commissioner.

In reviewing the functions of the Drain Commissioner, and the functions of the D.P.W. under Act No. 185 of 1957, it becomes apparent that the D.P.W. can and does operate in all areas as the Drain Commissioner, with the exception of lake levels, and in addition has the responsibility to act in all phases of water supply and distribution.

It is also evident that the D.P.W. can operate in these areas with a great deal more flexibility and speed than the Drain Commissioner can under laws designed for rural farm land areas.

The merits and demerits of the former recommendations to abolish the office of Drain Commissioner and place such functions under a D.P.W. have been given full and serious consideration by all concerned, including the present Drain Commissioner. The present Drain Commissioner, Mr. Barry, has a degree in Political Science and Business Administration and this has been of considerable assistance in these deliberations.

These considerations have resulted in the recommendation, concurred in by the Drain Commissioner that the office of Drain Commissioner in Oakland County be abolished and the duties and responsibilities of that office be delegated to the D.P.W. for the following reasons:

1. There is a considerable amount of overlapping of duties and responsibilities in the two departments.

2. It is apparent that all of the functions of the drain office can be more speedily effected under the D.P.W. Act.

3. The manpower available in the two departments could be more effectively utilized if they were in a single department.

4. Since the office of Drain Commissioner is not a Constitutional office, the recommendations can be carried out by minor statutory changes. The Statute now provides for the abolishment of the office under certain conditions.

5. The office of Drain Commissioner is not a policy making office, but rather designed to perform functions of public health and therefore should not be affected by political considerations. For this reason the recommendation is not considered an abridgement of the voters' rights to elect the official to perform these functions.

6. Continuity in performance and personnel can be maintained in relation to the present and future needs of the county.

Act 40 of the Public Acts of 1956, as amended. (Drains)

Act 185 of the Public Acts of 1957. (D.P.W.)

Drafts of the proposed changes to accomplish the intent of the recommendation have been prepared and if the proposal is approved by the Board of Supervisors they should be referred to the Corporation Counsel for review and referred to the Legislative Committee of the Board for submission to the 1959 session of the Legislature.

The recommendation is in no way to be construed as being based solely on a move for economy since we can in no way point to a dollars and cents savings in the operations as proposed. It is the contention, however, that by a more effective use of present and future available manpower, more can be accomplished in meeting the needs of the county for drains, sanitary sewers and water supply. In all good faith we should point out that it will probably be necessary to increase the annual compensation for certain key personnel, due to the increased work load but this should be a minor item in comparison to the anticipated accomplishments.

If this proposal is accepted, it would be further recommended, and is so contained in the proposed amendment to the D.P.W. Act, that the Board of Public Works consist of 7 members all of whom must be members of the Board of Supervisors. The present act provides for 3, 5 or 7 members and was established by the Board of Supervisors on June 24 1957 as 5 members, therefore, a resolution of the Board of Supervisors is all that is required to accomplish this. The Act now permits the members of the Board of Public Works to either have Supervisors or persons outside of that body on the Board of Public Works. The operations over the past year has evidenced the desirability of the Board being comprised of Supervisors. This will keep the total organization directly under the control of and responsible to a body either elected by the voters or appointed by elected officials.

There has, as previously mentioned, been complete cooperation between the D.P.W. and Planning Department. The D.P.W. has leaned rather heavily on planning to develop volumes of data needed to properly solve the present and future needs of the county in relation to its functions.

It is clearly indicated that greater effective use of the planning facilities available should be made by any county agency dealing with the needs of the citizens than has occurred in past years.

No real and lasting accomplishments can be made in the total field of public works without accurate forecasts as to present and future developments in the county for all phases, including population, commerce and industry. The department needs to know where things are now and where they can be expected to be in the future. The present and future needs are also things that must be determined.

This information can be obtained by the D.P.W. and other departments in two ways. One is by each individual department establishing a planning section of its own to deal with its specific problem. This is a program, however that will lead to needless expenditure of funds with a minimum of results.

The second and most sensible solution for acquiring the necessary information is for a separate planning department doing all the planning for the county, since proper water supply planning must be correlated with storm drainage, sanitary sewage disposal and roads. Roads determine the ultimate location of population, commerce and industry and the location of these determine the needs for water, sewers and drainage.

The Oakland County Planning Department has an outstanding staff of technicians fully qualified in all aspects to make the necessary determinations and this department should be utilized to its fullest capacities in supplying the necessary information in planning all phases of public works and other projects related to both individual municipalities and the county government.

It is felt that the D.P.W. phase of the work could be more economically and effectively accomplished by also consolidating the planning department with the D.P.W. As envisioned, this would in no way abolish or diminish the responsibilities of the County Planning Commission. This Commission would continue to function in the same manner except that the day to day responsibilities of the department would be administered through the Department of Public Works. The present program of the department in preparation for phases of planning not connected with public works would continue. It is further contemplated that the departments' assistance in planning to local units be continued. The change would bring about a more effective method for coordinating planning with construction at the least cost.

It is the considered opinion of those concerned, that such consolidation would strengthen both the Planning Department and the Department of Public Works. In addition the Planning Commission itself would be strengthened since they then would have all available public works information as a foundation for carrying out their functions.

To accomplish this would require no statutory changes but it would be advisable for the Board of Supervisors to spell out the operational procedures for the Planning Department or assign such responsibility to the Board of Public Works and Planning Commission.

If the organization as described herein were to be put into effect, it would basically create an organization as indicated on the attached chart.

It should be pointed out that no present employes of any of the departments concerned would be dismissed from county service as a result of the consolidation. While it has been pointed out that more efficient use of personnel would result, by excluding duplication of effort, it is recognized that present programs of public works will certainly require additional personnel in the D.P.W. and Drain Office but there may be a decrease in the number eventually needed as a result of carrying out this program.

September 8, 1958

Upon being elected Drain Commissioner, I was immediately aware that the office needed complete reorganization. I, thereupon embarked upon a program of rebuilding. I sought and obtained new quarters; I requested and obtained new and needed salaried positions; I instituted financial controls which gave me a sound fiscal policy; I initiated an accelerated maintenance program and put all derailed projects back on the track and once again under motion. However, progress is always limited to its operating environment. My environment was the Drain Code. It matters not under the Drain Law how acutely a project is needed or how desperately it is desired, all progression of procedural development is geared to the archaic requirements of its countless sections. It became clear to me that if a metropolitan county such as Oakland, in current need of drainage and sewage facilities, were to acquire such facilities, it would only be done by another agency than that provided in the Drain Office or it would take such serious revision of the Drain Law as to make that Law comprehensible and workable. It was at this time that the 1957 Legislature passed Act No. 185 Public Acts of 1957 allowing counties within certain population groups to create a Department of Public Works and in August of that year, by appropriate action of the Board of Supervisors, the Board of Public Works was born in Oakland County.

It became apparent to me upon perusal of the Department of Public Works Law, that here was a law under which it would be possible to work. Here were startling innovations in procedure and financing methods and even the scope of the law gave verbal warning of its strength. Upon applying the facility of the Statute, I determined to amend the Drain Law, if possible, to correspond to Act No. 185. I soon discovered, however, that there were considerable obstacles in the road to amendment. There was a feeling in Lansing and elsewhere, that there were too many requests for Drain Law revision. As a last resort, I determined to write a new chapter to the Drain Law, patterned after the Department of Public Works Law restricted by population for its application, and embodying a great deal of the strength and procedural short-stopping of that law. After a great deal of research, I, to possible content and form for the proposed new chapter to the law. It became evident that anything which I might be able to provide by a new chapter to the Drain Code was already provided for in the law creating the Department of Public Works. As a matter of fact, the Department of Public Works Law with its provisions for acquiring water supply and distribution facilities such provisions being totally lacking in the Drain Law, is in a far better position to accomplish a total job—it being quite evident that water and sewage cannot be separated for practical reasons. Subsequent to this knowledge, I began to consider the advisability, or propriety, both from a practical point of view and from a standpoint of political science and Public Administration, of a combining or merger of the Drain Office and the Department of Public Works.

I first of all examined the Office of the Drain Commissioner to discover its purpose at the time of its creation and its purpose as well as its effectiveness today.

The Office of the Drain Commissioner was created by the Legislature for the express purpose of the formation of a public agency at the County level to attend to rural drainage problems. Indeed, prior to the creation of the County Drain Commissioners, each Township had a Drain Commissioner whose duties and responsibilities following the passage of the Legislature of the State Drain Code creating a County Drain Commissioner, were transferred to the County Commissioner upon his election. Had time stood still, the Drain Law as originally enacted and subsequently amended, would have proven, as it was until recent years, to be wholly adequate and sufficient for providing solutions to rural, agrarian drainage problems. So long as the applications and petitions submitted to the Commissioner were for local drainage involving only a few parcels of property, the law was adequate.

However, in applying the general Drain Law to suburban problems involving unincorporated areas or only portions rather than the whole of incorporated areas, the short-comings of the Law are readily apparent. It is at this point that the Law becomes unmanageable. This is not to say that drains cannot be processed under the general Drain Law, it is to point out that it is a long and time consuming and tedious proposition.

For a few year following the first World War and until the depression years, Drain Commissioners in the more populous counties had managed to construct a remarkable number of drains. In a large sense, this was due to the nature of the times. Expansion was in evidence everywhere, monies for utility facility construction was readily available. Drain Commissioners were able to market drain bonds without a great deal of bother as to the advice of financial consultants or legal advisors. However, with the advent of the depression years, lawsuits attacking the validity of drain proceedings in an effort to escape the burden of taxation were initiated on a large scale. A great many drains were declared to be illegal and the bonds for these projects went into default. At the same time, the unfortunate decisions involving the "scavenger sales" in the state, left its mark upon a declining interest among bond buyers to support utility installation in the drainage and sewage fields.

To meet the changing times and attitude in thought, the Drain Code was amended in each session of the Legislature in an effort to provide legal controls upon the Drain Commissioner for the initiation of drain projects as well as to bolster the security of the bond buyer. In the process of such amendment, the entire Law became tremendously complex and unwieldly, requiring the constant vigilance of attorneys to interpret the seemingly ambiguous sections of the Statute.

Drain Commissioners in the metropolitan counties, cognizant of constantly increasing population pressures and the urgent need for solution to drainage problems on an unprecedented scale, attempted at various times to amend the Drain Code to make it more serviceable to their needs, only to meet with the rising opposition from rural counties who were intent upon keeping the Law as it was.

Between 1949 and 1951, Chapters 20 and 21 were passed by the Legislature to facilitate inter-county and intra-county drain construction. Chapter 21 is the section of the Statute under which were constructed the Red Run Drain and the Clinton River Spillway. Chapter 20 is the chapter of the Drain Law under which the Twelve Towns Relief Drains was initiated and processed.

While these two chapters have been immensely useful to the metropolitan Drain Commissioner and have made it possible to construct facilities of major importance and will continue to do so in the future, they still fail to solve the problem of needed drainage in areas where these two chapters can not apply. Still unsolved are the problems of the rural areas now being rapidly platted and subdivided. Still unsolved are the problems of populous but unincorporated areas.

There are but two methods to finance drain construction. For small drains, the law provides for their financing by Drain Order over a period not to exceed seven years. For the larger facility construction, the Law provides for the sale of bonds. However, without the full faith and credit of the county to back the credit of the Drainage District under the general Drain Law, the bonds would go unsold. Because of practical limits and the accepted method of Drain Order discount, this method of financing is not too acceptable. Thus large areas of the townships are unable to finance their needed facilities.

These are all problems which are capable of solution under the Department of Public Works Law. Drains would be able to be built and financed in a minimum of time and expense to the district.

There must, of course, always be, at least within the immediately forseeable future, a Drain Commissioner. The only machinery provided by Statute for the processing of inter-county drains is provided under the Drain Law. Presently, under plan are seven inter-county drains between Oakland and Macomb Counties and it is anticipated that the improvement of the River Rouge from the Ford Turning Basin to Eight Mile Road will be done under the provisions of Chapter 21. These inter-county drains already in existence such as the Red Run Drain and the Clinton River Spillway must continue to be administered. However, this function of Drain Commissioner would be performed by either the Director of the Department of Public Works or by his Deputy so designated.

There are a great many reasons other than the differences presented above in the Statutes under which the two departments work which inclines me toward merger of the departments. I shall enumerate the major reasons below:

1. Sewage Disposal Should All Be In One Department. At the present time the Department of Public Works is processing two interceptors to serve two disposal districts. The Drain Office is at the same time planning an interceptor to serve an enlarged disposal district. The same planning, both on a local and state level now being pursued independently, could be done in the name of one County Agency.

2. Engineering, accounting, maintenance, personnel, inspection and planning now being done independently by both departments would be able to be combined to a greater utilization of both personnel and time resulting in greater efficiency.

3. Pooling of joint resources would result in being able to render greater service to the County to meet citizen needs.

4. Continuity of Planning and Programming. Because of the nature of an elective office with its inherent chance change of governing head, the office of the Drain Commissioner should be appointive rather than elective. This statement should not be confused with elective offices which are but routine in character. The Drain Commissioner is responsible for all planning, programming, construction and maintenance for all drainage facilities in the County. This means that installation of adequate drainage facilities throughout the County or the complete absence of such needed installation is dependent upon the ability of one man to act or to vacillate. This brings to mind that no one Commissioner was elected upon the slogan: "I will not build a drain." This is nonsense in the field of basic utilities. Adequate planning and subsequent construction of needed facilities in an expanding community such as Oakland County is a "must." The only possible way to insure proper administration of such an office is to make the holder of the office at all times responsible to a competent authority which has the power of removal at any time.

5. Aid To Career Minded Personnel. Administration while emanating from the apex of the organizational structure must be powerful enough to be felt in the lowest reaches of the pyramidal hierarchy. This is in essence that at the meanest level of the lower echelon, pride of workmanship adequate advancement potentialities within classification categories and a sense of security must be present. It is most difficult to achieve this spirit within an organization when the department head must stand the test of shifting political winds each two years. Career-minded individuals, even in the most technical of positions, are never certain that their jobs may not be up for grabs and political patronage following any election.

6. In the Drain Office, at the present time, in varying degrees of procedural progress, are over $63,000,000.00 in projects. All such projects are anticipated to be ready for construction on the 1st of March, 1959. It seems fairly certain that such projects would suffer in scheduling with a change of office and would be considerably delayed. I use this as an example of the undesirability for this type of office to be elective.

7. Ability To Levy Taxes. The office of the Drain Commissioner is a taxing office. Drainage facilities must be paid for by the benefiting properties within any given drainage district. It is only natural that the citizen upon receipt of his tax bill will cast an attentive eye upon the holder of that office and place the stamp of his approval upon his drain tax at a subsequent visit to the polling place. Thus, it has been in the past that the Drain Commissioners have been loath to spread the maintenance taxes upon the September tax rolls for fear of reprisal at the fall elections. It may be readily ascertained therefor, that an appointive rather than an elective Commissioner would be better equipped to maintain a proper working balance in his Revolving Fund rather than to allow deficits to accumulate in any Drainage District to the detriment of his internal financial stability.

In conclusion, since the formation of the Department of Public Works, the Drain Office and that department have cooperated on a number of programs of mutual concern which, in their aggregate have demonstrated to me the desirability of a merger of the two offices in the best interests of the County.

Since both departments are interested in the nature and the amounts of storm water run-off and dry weather flow in the Rouge River Basin, especially in those portions of the Rouge River and its main branches which effect Oakland County, a joint endeavor was embarked upon, in cooperation with the USGS Service, in the establishment of gauging stations for recording flow data in the Rouge Basin. These stations were jointly financed by the two departments and the recorded data will be jointly tabulated and used in planning future facility development in that area.

A major portion of Oakland County must use the sewer system of the City of Detroit for disposal of its waste products. The three interceptor projects presently planned will deliver these waste products to the City of Detroit for treatment. Because we are using the sewer system of the City of Detroit, it is only natural that the nature and quality as well as the quantity of the liquids delivered be known not only to Oakland County but also to Detroit. For a time, Oakland County must be in conformance with the Sewer Ordinance of that city. It therefore became necessary, under the scrutiny of the State Health Department, to set up a testing laboratory to analyze all delivered flow. The Department of Public Works and the Drain Office jointly financed and constructed the required laboratory presently housed in the Southeastern Oakland County Sewage Disposal System Pumping Station at Eight Mile Road. The chemist in charge is also a state licensed plant operator and, as such, is in charge of the sewage disposal plants under the control of the Department of Public Works.

The Department of Public Works secured for the Drain Office, the petitions to construct the Eight Mile Road Storm Drain, a project of the utmost importance to Oakland County, for upon its completion depends the ratification of contracts with the City of Detroit for sewage disposal. This project will also serve as the overflow in times of storm when service to the City of Detroit is closed off for both the Farmington and the Evergreen Interceptors. A contract for this use will be entered into between the two departments at the time of the initiation of construction.

The complete accounting for the Department of Public Works by joint agreement, is handled by the Drain Office. This obviates the necessity during this formative period of the Department of Public Works for a separate accounting department to be set up.

IN RE: BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS MEMBERSHIP

To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas the Board of Supervisors has taken the initial action necessary to consolidate the office of Drain Commissioner with the Department of Public Works, and

Whereas among other recommendations made in the submitted reports, was a recommendation that the Board of Public Works be expanded from five (5) to seven (7) members and that said members be members of the Board of Supervisors, and

Whereas a close coordination of efforts between the two departments must be maintained in the interim period,

Now therefore be it resolved that Miscellaneous Resolution No. 3238, passed by this Board on June 24, 1957, be amended to establish the number of said members on the Board of Public Works as 7 members instead of 5, and

Be it further resolved that the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors be authorized to appoint the other two members, with a recommendation that they be members of the Drain Committee.

Mr. Chairman, I move the adoption of this resolution.

IN RE: REPORT ON PROPOSED LEGISLATION FOR 1959 SESSION

To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Your Legislative Committee respectfully reports that it has considered the many requests submitted by County Department Heads, Officials, Committees and Members of the Board of Supervisors for various new laws and amendments to existing laws. Two hearings have been held by your Committee on the many proposals submitted and the Committee recommends that the following proposals be included as part of the County's 1959 Legislative Program:

1. Plan submitted by the Drain Committee to transfer all duties and responsibilities of the County Drain Commissioner to the Department of Public Works through the Board of Public Works. Amendments to the following Acts are needed to accomplish this:

Act 40 of the Public Acts of 1956, as amended. (Drains)

Act No. 185 of the Public Acts of 1957. (D.P.W.)

2. Amendments to the State Dog Laws as suggested by the Health Committee. These changes will authorize the Director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture to establish the length of time (now 12 months) that immunity might be afforded by various types of vaccine. Other changes would permit townships in the county to adopt ordinances to regulate licensing of dogs and make retroactive the resolution of the Board of Supervisors requiring rabies vaccination for local units which may have adopted a dog licensing ordinance prior to the resolution of the Board. The present requirement for licensing dogs at 3 months of age would be changed to 6 months.

3. Amendment to Section 7 of Act 149 of the Public Acts of 1939 (Authority Act) as suggested by the Committee on Local Taxes to require local units to remit tax monies collected for the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority direct to the County Treasurer.

4. Legislation to set up machinery to collect taxes in a local unit where there are no local officials to levy or collect County, School or other taxes. This is intended to correct the Troy Township situation where there is a 3 acre parcel of improved land next to the City of Birmingham which has paid no taxes the past two years. No one lives on the property. The proposed bill presented to the State Legislature last year by Representative Roberts passed the House but was defeated in Senate Committee.

5. Legislation to separate the Michigan State Tax Commission from its present subsidiary position to one of Departmental status headed by one person with no other State responsibility. The size and importance of this department, plus the unexplored possibilities to be obtained by the undivided attention of a separate head offers unlimited opportunities not now available to local and county officials throughout the State.

6. Proposed new "Township Planning Act" as submitted by the Township Supervisors Association of the County.

7. Amendments to Act 18 of the Public Acts of the Extra Session of 1933, as amended, as suggested by the Supervisor of Royal Oak Township to permit townships to own and operate public housing. Such legislation would facilitate the urban renewal program in Royal Oak Township.

8. Amendment to Act 135 of the Public Acts of 1957 which would change procedures in connection with adjusting school boundaries. These are suggested by the County Superintendent of Schools. In general, the amendment would require that the petitioners for boundary changes pay for the proceedings, make certain changes in the scope of the appeals when made to the State Board of Education and make boundary changes effective in months of July or December to coincide with school enrollment and tax dates.

9. Amendment to Public Act 312 as amended by Public Act 22 of 1958 to increase the amount of State Aid for the support of the County Board of Education budget. At the present time the County Bord of Education receives only $33,000 a year from State School Aid. This is less than 20% of its budget. Most school districts receive 60% of their operating budgets from the State. This amendment would have the effect of producing a little over one-half the budget of the County School Office from state funds.

Oakland County has 10% of the children in the State. Presently it receives but 5% of the State School Aid afforded county school systems. The amendment would have the effect of giving the County School District its full share of State appropriations for this purpose.

The people of the County of Oakland through appropriations by the Board of Supervisors, extend support to the County School Office amounting to $127,000.00. This effort on the part of the people of the County of Oakland is more extensive than that in other counties of the state, including the County of Wayne. The effect of the amendment would be to have the state lend the same sort of support to the County of Oakland that most other counties are enjoying.

10. Amendment to Act 316 of the Public Acts of 1923 as suggested by the Corporation Counsel's Office which would permit the filing of policies of workmen's compensation and liability insurance in lieu of certain bonds now required by State law. Such bonds are now required on drain projects and are not readily obtainable. The amendment would also permit the County Drain Commissioner to set the amount of the performance bond required to be filed by successful bidders.

11. Amendments to existing laws to increase certain fees now collected by the Register of Deeds and the County Clerk's Offices to help make these offices more nearly self-supporting. The proposed changes are as follows:

Register of Deeds
Recording fees for deeds and mortgages	from $1.50 to $2.00
Mortgage redemptions	from $1.00 to $5.00
County Clerk:
Filing fees ($1.00 returned to County)	from $2.00 to $4.00
License fees for Pistols	from $2.00 to $3.00
Marriage License Fees	from $2.00 to $5.00
Judgment or Decree Fees—Courts:
Jury Trial	from $3.00 to $6.00
Default Judgment	from $4.00 to $6.00
Contested Judgment	from $3.00 to $6.00
Certified Copies	from $ to $ .50 per folio
Stenographer Fee	from $3.00 to $6.00
Assumed Name Filing Fees	from $2.00 to $6.00
Collection Agencies Fee	from none to $5.00
Tax Redemption	from none to $2.00

Your Committee is considering certain changes in the Mental Health Laws but is not ready to make recommendations at this time.

Consideration is also being given to new legislation to regulate the construction and operation of artificial lakes. Your Committee is awaiting report from the State Department of Conservation on the proposed legislation drafted for this purpose and will submit a further report on this at a later meeting.

Your Committee has also studied the possibility of presenting amendments to existing State laws to permit township police departments to issue drivers licenses. This matter was referred to your Committee at the Board meeting on July 21, 1958, at the time of the adoption of Miscellaneous Resolution No. 3400. However, in view of the recent revised regulation issued by the Michigan Secretary of State's Office which permits township residents to obtain renewals of drivers licenses at nearby city police departments, your Committee did not feel that legislative changes should be sought at this time.

Your Committee has also had under consideration certain legislation proposed by other counties included in the six-county area represented by the Supervisors Inter-County Committee. A meeting of the legislative group of the Inter-County Committee is being held later this month and your Committee will be in a position to report on legislation which would be of common interest to the counties at a subsequent date.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Legislative Committee, I move as follows:

1. That the foregoing report be received and the recommendations therein made be approved as part of the County's 1959 Legislative Program.

2. That the Corporation Counsel be instructed to draft the appropriate amendments or new laws to carry out the foregoing recommendations.

3. That a certified copy of this resolution be forwarded by the County Clerk to each of the candidates for offices of State Representative and State Senator in Oakland County.

ACT NO. 135—Public Acts of 1957
—Approved by Governor May 28, 1957

AN AMENDMENT TO SECTION 461

Section 461. The county board of education may, in its discretion, detach territory from one district and attach it to another when requested to do so by resolution of the board of any district whose boundaries would be changed by such action, or when petitioned by not less than ⅔ of the resident owners of the land to be transferred. (Such Petition or Resolution to Have Effect Shall be Accompanied by a Cash Deposit in an Amount Sufficient to Cover the Cost of Compliance by the County Board or Joint Boards With Sections 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, of This Act. Action on the Petition or Resolution Having Been Taken, the County Board of Education Shall Remit to the Petitioner or District Board of Education Any Amount Remaining of Said Cash Deposit After All Costs of Proceedings Under This Act Shall Have Been Paid.) The county board of education shall take final action in regard to the resolution or petition within a period of (6 Months) of the receipt of the resolution or petition. Only territory contiguous to a district may be transferred. Whenever the latest available taxable valuation of the area to be detached is more than 10% of the latest available taxable valuation of the entire school district from which it is to be detached, the action of the county board of education directing such detachment shall not be valid unless approved, at an annual or special election called for that purpose in the district from which the detachment is to be made, by an affirmative vote of a majority of the school tax electors of the district, voting thereon.

Sec. 463. Whenever the territory of districts the boundaries of which would be affected by the proposed alteration extends into 2 or more counties, the county boards of education of all such counties shall meet jointly and sit as a single board to consider and act upon the request for the transfer of territory. The resolution or petition for the transfer of territory, as set forth in section 461 of this act, may be addressed to and filed with the county board of any one of such counties and it shall then be the duty of the county superintendent of schools of such county to call the joint meeting of the affected county boards and to give the notice of such meeting as set forth in section 463 of this act. (Such Joint Meetings Shall Be Held in the Months of July or December). At such joint meeting of the county boards of education, they shall elect 1 of their members chairman and another secretary thereof.

Sec. 467. Any one or more resident owners of land considered for transfer from 1 district to another, or the board of any district (Or The Board of Any County School District) affected, may appeal the action of the county board of education or joint boards in transferring such land, or the failure to transfer such land, or the action taken relative to the accounting determination, to the state board of education within 10 days after such action or determination by the county board of education or the joint boards. If the county board of education or the joint boards fail to take action within the time limit prescribed in section 461, the appeal may be made to the state board of education within 10 days following the termination of the period. Such appeal shall have the effect of holding the effectiveness of the resolution from which appealed in abeyance until the appeal is acted upon by the state board of education. (Any Appeals Taken Under This Section Shall Issue in Writing and Copies Shall Be Served on the State Board of Education and the County Board or Joint Boards Being Parties to the Action).

The state board of education is hereby empowered to consider such appeals (Only Where it Is Alleged and the State Board Finds that the Disposition of the Petition or Resolution by the County Board or Joint Boards Resulted from Fraud, Error in Law or Error in Fact,) and to confirm, modify or set aside the order of the county board of education or the joint boards and its action on any such appeal shall be final.

Vote on report, as amended:

A sufficient majority having voted therefor, the report, as amended, was adopted.

IN RE REIMBURSEMENT FROM STATE TOWARD COST OF ENFORCEMENT OF MARINE LAW

To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas this Board, at its meeting held on June 13th adopted Miscellaneous Resolution No. 3380 which provided for an appropriation from the Contingent Fund not to exceed the sum of $5,000.00 to pay the cost of maintaining a lake patrol to enforce the State's Marine Laws on the many lakes in this County during the boating season of 1958, and

Whereas the Sheriff instituted a county-wide patrol consisting of approximately 25 special deputies who were paid on a per diem basis of $10.00 to cover their expenses for work performed on Sundays and holidays and who received a total of $2,970.00 for services rendered during the 1958 boating season, and

Whereas Oakland County has over 400 lakes which would require lake patrol and the appointment of three deputies as contemplated in the provisions of Act 310 of Public Acts of 1957 as amended by Act 208 of the Public Acts of 1958, would be useless, and

Whereas the results obtained by the system instituted by the Sheriff of Oakland County have been very satisfactory, and

Whereas the aforementioned Act provides for the reimbursement to the County at the rate of $750.00 per deputy with a maximum total reimbursement of $2,250.00 to be made by the State of Michigan.

Now therefore be it resolved that this Board, although aware that the Sheriff's plan for the employment of 25 special deputies on a per diem basis does not coincide with the provisions of said Acts 310 and 208, as to its reimbursement clause, hereby makes formal claim to the Michigan State Waterways Commission, by the adoption of this resolution, for the maximum amount of reimbursement, namely $2,250.00 for the year 1958;

Be it further resolved that this Board instruct its Legislative Committee to assist in whatever way possible to secure changes in said Act 310 of Public Acts of 1957 and Act 208 of Public Acts of 1958 which would allow more latitude to the various counties in determining its own course as to the best possible way to enforce the State's Marine Laws and yet qualify for reimbursement.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Ways and Means Committee, I move the adoption of the foregoing resolution.

IN RE: REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO STUDY FUTURE USE OF CONTAGIOUS HOSPITAL
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

In order to keep this Board informed of the study now being conducted by this Special Committee as to the best possible use to make of the County Contagious Hospital which was vacated by the Pontiac General Hospital on August 15, 1958, we wish to report as follows:

Because of the financial implication involved in the use of the former Contagious Hospital, the Ways and Means Committee, on August 8, 1958, approved the setting up of a Special Committee to study the future use and problems of the former Contagious Hospital. This Committee is composed of the Chairman of the Ways and Means, Health, Welfare, Tuberculosis Sanatorium and Buildings and Grounds Committees, along with the Board of Auditors and the County Health Director.

Your Committee has received several proposals for the use of this facility, some originating from members of this Board, others from County Department Heads and one proposal from a local hospital.

It may be well to state that the proposals or suggestions so received would cover the following uses:

1. That the vacant facility be operated by the county as a general or receiving hospital the management and control to be under the Board of Trustees of the Tuberculosis Sanatorium which is provided by State statutes with certain limitations as to types of diseases that may be treated.

2. Convert the facility to a County Mental Hospital and Clinic as suggested by Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore in his letter presented to this Board on September 8, 1958.

3. Equip and staff the hospital as a rehabilitation center for the aged now confined in boarding homes or convalescent hospitals.

4. Lease the premises for a definite term of years to a nonprofit organization which would operate the facility as a general hospital or an annex to its existing plant; any such lease to include an arrangement for the care of county contagious cases.

During the past several weeks your Special Committee has met on numerous occasions with various departmental heads to compile information regarding functions now related to various proposed uses of the hospital. The Committee has also sought the advice of professional people connected with allied medical centers. In addition the Committee has visited facilities in the area which are now rendering service to county patients on a per diem basis in its effort to determine whether the county, by operating its own hospital, could render better service, or of equal quality at a more economical figure.

As of this date, your Special Committee has no recommendation to make but the study will continue and it is hoped that within the next several weeks it will be ready to submit a report to this Board which in its opinion will be helpful to your Board in deciding what use can best be made of the vacant hospital that will best serve the citizens of this county.

This report is intended only to inform the Board of your Special Committee's activities and requires no Board action.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the entire Committee, I move this report be placed on file.

To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas a petition was filed with the County Clerk on September 25, 1958, for the incorporation of the Village of Woodcroft in Farmington Township pursuant to Act 3 of the Public Acts of 1895, State of Michigan, as amended, and

Whereas the territory proposed to be incorporated is described as follows:

All or parts of sections 19, 20, 21, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32 and 33, T. 1N., R. 9E., Farmington Township, Oakland County, Michigan, more particularly described as follows: Beginning at the northeast corner of the west ½ of the northwest ¼ of Section 21, Town 1 North, range 9 east, Farmington Township, Oakland County, Michigan; thence south along the east line of the west ½ of the northwest ¼ of said section to the east and west ¼ section line of said section; thence east along said quarter Section line to the northeast corner of the west ½ of the northeast ¼ of the southwest ¼ of Section; thence south on line between east and west ½ of northeast ¼ of southwest ¼ of section 21 to the south ¼ line; thence east on south ¼ line to north and south quarter section line of said section; thence south on quarter section line to the south quarter section corner; thence continuing south on the north and south quarter section between the east ½ and west ½ of Section 28 to the south quarter section part of section 28; thence east along the south section line of section 28 to the southeast corner of said Section; thence south along the east section line of section 33 to the southeast corner of said section; thence west on the south line of sections 33, 32 and 31 to the southwest corner of section 31; thence north on west section line of section 31, 30 and 19 to the northwest corner of section 19; thence thence east along the north section line of section 19, 20 and the north line of west ½ of northwest ¼ of section 21 to the northeast corner of the west ½ of northwest ¼ of section 21 to place of beginning;

and

Whereas pursuant to the provisions of the statute the petitioners caused a notice to be published in The Farmington Enterprise, a newspaper printed and circulated in this County, which states that they will apply to the Board of Supervisors for Oakland County on November 10, 1958 for an order incorporating the said Village of Woodcroft, and

Whereas your Boundaries Committee has considered the matter and recommends that a public hearing be held in the affected portion of Farmington Township in order that your Committee may more fully understand the feelings of the people in the area involved in the proposed incorporation since the procedure under the 1895 law will not afford them an opportunity to vote on the matter,

Now therefore be it resolved that the public hearing before the Board of Supervisors today be adjourned so as to afford the Boundaries Committee an opportunity to hold a public hearing on the proposed incorporation of the Village of Woodcroft on Thursday, December 11, 1958 at 8:00 P.M. at the Gill Road Elementary School, 21195 Gill Road, Farmington Township.

IN RE: EIGHT MILE ROAD DRAINAGE DISTRICT

The County Clerk presented to the Board a letter from the County Drain Commissioner submitting to the Board a certified copy of an order made by him on November 7, 1958 providing for the issuance of $4,400,000 of drain bonds by the Eight Mile Road Drainage District, and requesting that the Board of Supervisors pledge the full faith and credit of the county for the prompt payment of the principal of and interest on said bonds as the same shall become due.

By unanimous consent the said communication and order of the County Drain Commissioner were ordered filed with the County Clerk.

Misc 3438

Whereas proceedings have been taken for the location, establishment and construction of the Eight Mile Road Storm Drain under the provisions of Act No. 40 of the Public Acts of Michigan of 1956, as amended, at an estimated cost of $4,760,000; and

Whereas the said cost of $4,760,000 has been apportioned and assessed to the State of Michigan, the County of Oakland, the City of Southfield, the City of Oak Park and the lands in the special assessment district; and

Whereas the County Drain Commissioner has made an order dated November 7, 1958, providing for the issuance by the Eight Mile Road Drainage District of bonds in the principal sum of $4,400,000 to be dated January 1, 1959, to bear interest at a rate or rates to be hereafter determined not exceeding 5½% per annum and to mature serially in the years 1960 thru 1989 as in said order provided, said bonds to be issued in anticipation of the collection of a like principal amount assessed as aforesaid; and

Whereas Section 276 of said Act No. 40 provides as follows:

"In case bonds are to be issued in respect to an intra-county drain in a county now or hereafter having a population of 150,000 or more according to the latest or each succeeding federal decennial census, the county board of supervisors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of its total membership, pledge the full faith and credit of the county for the prompt payment of the principal of and interest on any bonds hereafter issued pursuant to this act. This shall not validate any bonds heretofore issued. In the event the county shall be required to advance any money by reason of such pledge, and if the collections from special assessments shall not be sufficient to reimburse the county therefor, the drain commissioner of such county shall, within a 5-year period from the date of advancement, reassess the drainage district as in the first instance in order to provide for the repayment to the county of the sums so advanced. The provisions of this section shall not permit the advancement of any moneys out of the general funds of any county to meet any deficiency in the collection of drain assessments confirmed prior to May 1, 1953."

Therefore, be it resolved, that in consideration of the general benefits to accrue to the County of Oakland from the location, establishment and construction of said Eight Mile Road Storm drain (over and above those for which it will be assessed at large on account of county highways), and in order to make the financing thereof possible, the full faith and credit of the County of Oakland is hereby pledged for the prompt payment of the principal of and interest on said bonds as the same shall mature.

IN RE: REPORT ON PROPOSED LEGISLATION FOR 1959 SESSION
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Since the last report to the Board, your Legislative Committee has met with the legislative group of the Supervisors Inter-County Committee and has considered legislative proposals made by some of the other counties.

After study of these proposals, your Committee recommends the endorsement of the following proposals made by Macomb County:

Amend Section 196 of the Drain Code of 1956 to increase the amount of the limitation for maintenance funds on drains. At present the amount is set at $800 without a petition. The Drain Committee has recommended and the Legislative Committee approves an amendment to increase the limitation to $500 per mile or fraction therof or 1% of the original cost of the drain.

Amendment to Section 26 of the Plat Act to broaden the powers of the County Plat Board so that new plats must first be referred to the Drain Commissioner for a report before being considered by the Plat Board.

Macomb County has suggested certain amendments to the one-man Grand Jury Law. While your Committee does not endorse the principle of the one-man grand jury, it does endorse the safeguards as proposed by Macomb County in adding the following words to Section 3 of Chapter 7 of the Code of Criminal Procedure:

"Providing, any person called before the Grand Jury shall be entitled to have legal counsel present at the time such testimony is given so that such witness may be advised of his legal rights, and, Provided Further, that such legal counsel shall be subject to the same requirements of secrecy as the witness"

Amend also Section 6(b) of this Chapter of the Code of Criminal Procedure to require the Judge who has charge of a Grand Jury not only to file a public account of all monies disbursed by him but to require also that such monies shall be disbursed under the control and direction of the County Board of Supervisors as to manner and amount.

Your Committee has also considered proposed legislation suggested by the Supervisors Inter-County Recreation Committee which would permit counties to establish parks and recreation commissions. While your committee does not feel that there would be any immediate need for such legislation for Oakland County, it does recommend that we endorse this new act in principle.

The Drain Committee of the Board has had under study for the past year proposed new legislation which would set up procedures to establish lake levels in the County. Mr. Barry, County Drain Commissioner, and the staff, have prepared a new act to accomplish this. On recommendation of the Drain Committee, your Legislative Committee has completely reviewed this new act and, after making some minor changes, have approved this and authorized and directed that copies be furnished to each member of the Board for study. These were forwarded to board members by the Committee Clerk on November 3, 1958. If there are any questions regarding this, there are members of the Drain Commissioner's staff present to answer them. Your Legislative Committee recommends the approval of such legislation.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Legislative Committee, I move as follows:

1. That the foregoing report be received and the recommendations therein made be approved as part of the County's 1959 Legislative Program.

2. That the Corporation Counsel be instructed to draft the appropriate amendments or new laws to carry out the foregoing recommendations.

3. That a certified copy of this resolution be forwarded by the County Clerk to each of the members of the State Legislature representing Oakland County.

IN RE: TRANSFER OF RETIRANT RIGHTS — HEALTH DEPARTMENT EMPLOYEES
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas the County Department of Health, as a part of the overall County Health Program, had taken over certain health functions formerly carried on by the City of Birmingham, and

Whereas both the County Retirement Commission and the City Commission of the City of Birmingham are of the opinion that equity demands that the retirant rights of these employees earned under the City Retirement System should in no wise be prejudiced by such transfer; and

Whereas the City of Birmingham has expressed its willingness to pay the accrued liability for the employer share of such retirant rights and said employees have agreed to pay the amount of their accumulated employee contributions together with accrued interest earned into the funds of the Oakland County Employees' Retirement System to the end that the accrued retirement rights of such employees would be at no cost to the County;

Now therefore be it resolved that the Oakland County Employees' Retirement Commission be and hereby is authorized, upon the payment of the sums above mentioned, to accept such sums of money and to credit on the rolls of the County Retirement System the time earned under the City of Birmingham Retirement System in the same manner and effect as if this time were earned in County employment.

Be it further resolved that this resolution shall in no wise be construed as an amendment to any provision or provisions of the resolution establishing Oakland County Employees' Retirement System as amended.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Oakland County Employees' Retirement Commission and the Retirement Committee, I move the adoption of the foregoing resolution.

IN RE: TRANSFER OF FUNDS FOR GENERAL RELIEF
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

At the October 6, 1958 meeting of this Board, your Ways and Means Committee submitted a report (Miscellaneous Resolution No. 3430) which revealed the condition of the 1958 General Relief Appropriation as of September 30, 1958.

To keep the members of this Board fully informed of the mounting deficit in our welfare program, we wish to submit the following figures covering the period January 1, 1958, to October 31, 1958:

		$1,090,979.82
Transfer of monies from other funds, on loan basis, previously confirmed by this Board:
Misc. Res. No. 3415—9/8/58	$384,019.14
Misc. Res. No. 3430—10/6/58	160,000.00
	$544,019.14
Transfer of monies from other funds, on a loan basis, authorized by the Ways and Means Committee on Nov. 5, 1958, action not yet confirmed by this Board:
Loan from Medical Care facility Fund	$100,000.00
Loan from Indigent Housing Fund	100,000.00
	200,000.00
Total funds advanced, on a loan basis		$ 744,019.14
Total 1958 appropriations, receipts and loans advanced		$1,834,998.96
Less expenditures, including commitments to October 31, 1958 — County's share (70%)		1,882,572.04
Excess over funds provided		$ 47,573.08

Using the net expenditures for the first 10 months of this year, as listed above, as a criterion for estimating expenditures for the months of November and December 1958, the General Relief Fund will be in a deficit of approximately $1,168,106.22 for the year 1958.

Wherefore, Mr. Chairman, I move that the foregoing report be accepted and the action of the Ways and Means Committee in authorizing the advance, on a loan basis, from the Medical Care Facility of $100,000.00 and from the Indigent Housing Fund of $100,000.00 at its meeting held on November 5, 1958, be ratified and confirmed;

Further that your honorable body authorize the Clerk of this Board to amend Miscellaneous Resolution No. 3430 as adopted on October 6, 1958, said resolution dealing with the confirmation of a loan to the General Relief Fund amounting to $234,019.14 by striking out the wording (not repayable) preceding that amount, thus making such wording of no force or effect.

IN RE: MEMORIAL FOR HARRY J. MERRITT
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

From our midst has departed one who has been very close to us for many years. He passed away on October 26, 1958 at the age of 62. All of us will miss Harry Merritt, who, as Corporation Counsel for Oakland County since 1939, did such a good job that on the very day that he was stricken with his fatal illness, we reappointed him to his position for the twentieth year. This occurred at our last meeting on October 13.

Now that Harry is gone, we can look back on the good life that he lived and his fine representation of our interests here in Oakland County. While he served us his advice, counsel and municipal concept kept pace with the great development of our area.

Harry Merritt was not only a good lawyer but a lover of nature and the great outdoors. As the poet Bryant observed in the opening lines of his "Thanatopsis": "To him who in the love of nature holds communion with her visible forms, she speaks a various language." Harry was also a good poet as well. He wrote many poems that expressed his thoughts and philosophy of life. Perhaps one of the most expressive was written by Harry in 1932—he called it "View Point":

I've no regrets for yesterday
And none for tomorrow
What joys I may still have today,
I'll not the future fear.

The Now is what I must surpass,
If Life to me'd be kind
Tomorrow then will never come
And yesterday's behind.

Time does not pause o'er my regrets
Nor heed my "should have dones"
Each golden hour I must enjoy,
As will all chosen ones.

It is not what I might have been
It is but what I am
The pleasure that I get today
Is gold. The rest is sham.

Tomorrow compasses my hopes
But holds for me no fears
Because it never, never comes,
Nor has in all the years.

I see that future day to be
Whence Angel voices call.
They bid me revel in Today,
My faith and hope are all.

A native of Oakland County, Harry J. Merritt was born September 6, 1896, in Pontiac to the late John and Margaret (Wiley) Merritt. After graduation from Royal Oak High School in 1914, he attended Albion College and the Detroit College of Law. When war came in 1918 he enlisted in the U. S. Army Air Service to become a First Lieutenant from the U. S. School of Military Aeronautics at the University of Illinois and was stationed in Texas, New Jersey and Selfridge Field. After the war, Harry Merritt returned to complete his education in the Law and in 1921 received his degree. In 1923, he served as Assistant Prosecuting Attorney and later as Circuit Court Commissioner. In 1939, he was named County Corporation Counsel.

He was married to the former Blossom Garland in Mt. Clemens on November 28, 1923, and besides his wife he is survived by three children, Mrs. Robert F. Masters, John J. Merritt and Virginia Lou Merritt all of Royal Oak.

He was a member of the Michigan and Oakland County Bar Associations and organized and became a lifetime member of both the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club and the Oakland Hunt Club. He was also a Past Commander of Frank Wendtland Post 253, American Legion, serving as State American Legion Treasurer in 1925; a Royal Oak Township Community Fund Chairman; a member of the Salvation Army Advisory Board; Royal Oak Lodge 464, F and AM, Moslem Shrine of Detroit and Royal Oak Lodge 1523, BPOE.

To all of us who have known Harry as a fellow public servant and friend, his integrity and fidelity to duty have been well recognized. It seems to me that the words from a poem which Harry wrote some time ago as a "Sonnet to Kipling" are very appropriate at this time:

Too short the years allotted him,

His body gone, his thoughts will live instead.
A comet blazed its way across the sky.
The flame is gone. The glow will never die.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the entire membership of the Board, I move that the foregoing memorial for Harry J. Merritt be spread on the records of this Board and that a copy be forwarded to his surviving wife and to each of his children.

The resolution was unanimously supported and adopted by the Board.

To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas Cyril V. Jason and Margaret Jason, his wife, are the owners of Lot 73 of Joanna Park Subdivision of the Northeast ¼ of the Northwest ¼ of Section 34, T 1 N, R 11 E, Royal Oak Township, Oakland County, Michigan, (now City of Madison Heights), and

Whereas a drainage easement for the Herring Drain recorded in Liber 3515, page 68 of Oakland County Records, was given to the County of Oakland, State of Michigan, across and through the said lot, and

Whereas said easement was described as the North 30 feet of the South 35 feet of Lot 73 of Joanna Park Subdivision, and

Whereas the said drainage easement adversely affected the full use and enjoyment of said lot and worked a hardship upon the owners of said lot, and

Whereas the Drain Commissioner has made an investigation and recommended the relocation of said drain at no cost to the county, and

Whereas said drain has been relocated according to the specifications by the Drain Commissioner, and

Whereas Cyril V. Jason and Margaret Jason, his wife, have executed and delivered a new release of right-of-way for drainage easement described as:

IN RE: 1959 LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM—SUPERVISORS INTER-COUNTY COMMITTEE

To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Your Inter-County Committee has held several meetings with the Legislative Committee of the Supervisors Inter-County Committee in the preparation and consideration of the many legislative proposals considered for endorsement by the six-county group representing Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair, Washtenaw and Wayne Counties.

The Supervisors Inter-County Committee, which was organized in 1954, seeks to assist counties in finding solutions to the many inter-county and regional problems resuting from the explosive growth of the metropolitan area. Some of these problems, such as water, sewers, roads and drainage, are regional in nature because the normal service area is larger than a single county. Others are regional because the six-county metropolitan area is faced with problems which are peculiar to such areas alone.

The foremost problem faced by all of the counties is the inadequacy of revenues to meet obligations. In the consideration of statewide problems, the Inter-County Committee asks the Legislature to maintain an awareness that in fixing county obligations, measures should be adopted to provide for local revenues so that counties may meet these obligations. Should the state be unwilling to expand local revenues to meet present obligations, it should then be willing to assume some of these obligations when local revenues now provided for are exhausted.

Counties with fixed revenues cannot adequately meet obligations thrust upon them by the tremendous growth. This is especially true in the metropolitan area surrounding Detroit.

Thus the program includes plans whereby county obligations in fields such as social welfare be fixed at the norm in terms of millage, the state bearing abnormal loads to enable local units to budget realistically.

All of the various legislative proposals approved by the Inter-County Committee have been finely screened and many of those originally proposed have been dropped from the program.

Your Committee lists below the proposals identified by category according to type of problem involved, the extent of the area to which it applies and the relative importance of the proposal.

Regional In Application and of Primary Importance

Legislation restoring the 50/50 matching provision in the state welfare formula which had been reduced to 70/30 by the legislature in 1957.

Amendatory legislature to increase the state contribution for care and treatment of tubercular patients throughout the state. (Now $4.00 per patient/day) to reflect 50% of the total cost.

Regional in Application and of Secondary Importance

Amendatory legislation to provide state participation in the cost of foster care for children, beginning at 10/100 of a mill rather than 15/100 of a mill.

Statewide in Application and of Primary Importance

Amendment to the drain law to increase the drain maintenance fund limitation from $800 to $500 per mile, or fraction thereof, or 1% of the original cost of the drain, whichever is larger.

Increase in the amount of fees collected by County Clerks and Registers of Deeds to make these offices more self-supporting, if permissive.

PROPOSALS TO FACILITATE COOPERATION BETWEEN UNITS OF GOVERNMENT

Regional in Application and of Secondary Importance

An appropriation bill for aid to regional planning operations by means of state matching funds.

Statewide in Application and of Secondary Importance

PROPOSALS TO STREAMLINE THE STRUCTURE AND ORGANIZATION OF GOVERNMENT TO DO A BETTER JOB.

Regional in Application and of Primary Importance

Resolution by the Supervisors Inter-County Committee urging sufficient appropriation to the Municipal Finance Commission to provide adequate staff to expedite the processing of bond applications made to the Municipal Finance Commission.

PROPOSALS TO STREAMLINE THE STRUCTURE AND ORGANIZATION OF GOVERNMENT TO DO A BETTER JOB.

Regional in Application and of Primary Importance

Enactment of a township planning act.

Amendment to the Plat Act broadening the powers of the County Plat Board to enable it to reject or disapprove proposed plats if the plat fails to provide for proper drainage.

Amendment to the Plat Act which would provide for an advisory committee to the County Plat Board to be composed of no more than six members and to include representation from the Board of County Road Commissioners, County Health Department, County Drain Commissioner's Office, County Board of Education, and the County Planning Commission, where such an agency is established. If permissive.

Regional in Application and of Secondary Importance

Legislation to set up machinery to collect taxes in a local unit where there are no local officials to levy or collect county, school or other taxes.

Legislation to permit counties to establish County Parks and Recreation Commissions.

Especially Pertinent to a Member County and of Secondary Importance

Amendment of appropriate statutes to permit any county having established a Department of Public Works to consolidate that department and that of the County Drain Commissioner.

Statewide in Application and of Primary Importance

Legislation requiring inter-county pipe lines to be laid at levels which will not block, obstruct or interfere with established drains or potential public drains in areas certified by the County Drain Commissioner and Department of Public Works as subject to future drainage.

Statewide in Application and of Secondary Importance

Amendatory legislation to permit the Register of Deeds to eliminate marginal references when deeds, mortgages and other instruments are microphotographed. If permissive.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Inter-County Committee, and with the concurrence of the Legislative Committee of the Board, I move as follows:

1. That the Oakland County Board of supervisors endorse the foregoing program of the Supervisors Inter-County Committee.

2. That a certified copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Supervisors Inter-County Committee and to each member of the State Legislature representing Oakland County.

IN RE: REPORT ON PROPOSED LEGISLATION FOR 1959 SESSION

To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Your Legislative Committee respectfully reports to the Board as follows:

1. A request submitted to it by Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore for County backing for an amendment to Section 3 of Chapter 8 of Act 288 of 1939, as amended, to provide for the appointment of a referee to hear certain matters in probate court and report the same for court action has been carefully reviewed.

"Provided, however, that any probate court in any county having a population in excess of two hundred fifty thousand (250,000), according to the last federal census, may also appoint a referee or referees and designate such referee or referees to hear any other matters, other than claims, including any and all petitions or motions before the said court with like proceedings and report thereon, if contested, as had in the case of hearings on contested claims."

Your Committee recommends that the Board not endorse this amendment since it is the opinion of your Committee that the proposal does not meet the problem faced by the County.

In view of the large volume of probate and juvenile matters in a county which is the second largest county in the state, your Committee recommends that the necessity for a second Probate Judge be referred to the Ways and Means Committee for study and report back to the Board.

2. A request presented by Supervisor Miller of Avon Township for an amendment to Section 9 of Act 279 of the Public Acts of 1909 (City Home Rule Act) which would provide for separate votes to be taken in each area where there is an incorporation of an existing village and additional territory into a new city was also carefully reviewed by your Committee. Endorsement of such legislation is recommended.

3. A recommendation of the Health Committee that our County Legislators be respectfully importuned to have the 1959 State Legislature appoint an interim study committee to review all of the existing dog laws, was also considered. We have been advised that there are many proposed amendments desired by other counties of the state as well as the several proposals advanced by the Michigan Department of Agriculture and Oakland County. We recommend that the Legislators be advised that this approach to the dog problem is endorsed by this Board.

4. Your Committee has also studied a suggestion made at the last meeting of the Board that amendments to the 1895 Village Law be sought. As the 1895 law now stands, the people living in a proposed village or area intended to be annexed to such a village organized under this old law, do not have the right to vote on a petition for incorporation or annexation should the petition be filed under this law. A later village law enacted by the Legislature in 1909 (Act 278 of the Public Acts of 1909) permits the electors to vote on the incorporation of a new village as well as on the annexation of lands to a village if the petition is approved by the Board of Supervisors.

We recommend amendatory legislation which would incorporate in the 1895 Village Act the same election procedures as are now found in the 1909 Act.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Legislative Committee, I move as follows:

1. That the foregoing report be received and the recommendations therein made be approved as part of the County's 1959 Legislative Program.

2. That the Corporation Counsel be instructed to draft the appropriate amendments for new laws to carry out the foregoing recommendations.

3. That a certified copy of this resolution be forwarded by the County Clerk to each of the members of the State Legislature representing Oakland County.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Legislative Committee, I move the adoption of the foregoing resolution.

To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas the Supervisors Inter-County Committee has again extended an invitation to the County to participate in an Executive Development Course to be conducted at Wayne State University for County employees of the six-county area, and

Whereas a survey made by your Committee of benefits enjoyed by the eighteen (18) County employees who participated in the course in this past year indicates that the course should be continued because of the resultant benefit to the County, and

IN RE: MEMORIAL FOR CHARLES W. HAMILTON

To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas Charles W. Hamilton of Novi died on November 6, 1958 at the age of 72, and

Whereas he was an honored and respected citizen in his community and a former member of this Board of Supervisors,

Now therefore be it resolved that he be memorialized by the entry into the records of this Board's meeting at follows:

Charles W. Hamilton was born at Northville, Michigan on November 22, 1887 and in 1904 he married Emma Lorenz who now survives him. He was a prominent farmer in Novi and a member and Treasurer of the Board of Education of the Novi-Stone School District for several years. He served as Treasurer of Novi Township from 1926 to 1928 when he was elected Township Supervisor in which capacity he served until 1934. After a two year service with the Michigan State Department of Agriculture, he was appointed to the former Oakland County Poor Commission and served from 1937 to 1939. When the Oakland County Social Welfare Board was organized in 1939, he was appointed as Member and Secretary of that Board and Superintendent of the Oakland County Infirmary. He retired on December 31, 1957.

Mr. Hamilton was a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Odd Fellows as well as the Optimist Club of Northville and a member of the St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Northville.

During his more than 30 years in governmental service for his township, county and state, Mr. Hamilton was known for his devotion to the many duties assigned him and for his quick wit and dry humor. He often was referred to as the "Will Rogers" of Oakland County. All who knew him enjoyed his friendship and his fun loving nature.

In addition to his wife, he leaves a son Lawrence, a daughter Mrs. Marian LaFevre and a granddaughter Muriel LaFevre.

It is with a deep sense of regret that this Board has to place in its minutes this record of the loss of a faithful public servant who formerly served as a member of this Board. To the members of his family, this Board of Supervisors expresses its sincere sympathy in their loss and joins with them in mourning his passing.

Mr. Chairman, I move that this memorial be spread on the minutes of this meeting and that certified copies be forwarded to his surviving wife and also to his son and daughter.

IN RE: FARMINGTON SEWAGE DISPOSAL SYSTEM

Mr. Thatcher presented to the Board of Supervisors a certified copy of a resolution adopted by the County Board of Public Works on January 30, 1959, fixing the amounts of the several annual installments to be paid to the County by the municipalities in the aggregate, under the contract of November 1, 1957, as amended, covering the $5,107,000 estimated cost of the Farmington Sewage Disposal System. These amounts correspond with the annual bond maturities in the bond resolution hereinafter set forth.

By unanimous consent, the said resolution was ordered filed with the County Clerk.

Misc. 3476

IN RE: FARMINGTON SEWAGE DISPOSAL SYSTEM

Mr. Thatcher offered the following amendatory bond resolution and stated that the same had been approved by the Department of Public Works:

Whereas the Board of Supervisors did on the 24th day of January, 1958, adopt Miscellaneous Resolution No. 3341 providing for the issuance by the County of Oakland of $4,900,000 "Oakland County Sewage Disposal Bonds—Farmington System" to be dated July 1, 1958, and

Whereas subsequent thereto the agreement dated November 1, 1957, between the County of Oakland and the several municipalities lying wholly or partly within the Farmington Sewage Disposal District was amended by an agreement dated December 22, 1958, which reads as follows:

Amendment to Farmington Sewage Disposal System Agreement

This agreement made this 22nd day of December, 1958 by and between the County of Oakland, a Michigan County Corporation (hereinafter called the "County"), the Township of Farmington, a Michigan Township Corporation, the Township of West Bloomfield, a Michigan Township Corporation in Oakland County; the City of Southfield, a Michigan City Corporation in Oakland County (whose territory was formerly a part of the Township of Southfield); and the City of Keego Harbor, a Michigan City Corporation in Oakland County,

Witnesseth:

Whereas on the 1st day of November, 1957 a contract in respect to the establishment, financing and operation of the Farmington Sewage Disposal System was entered into by the County of Oakland, the Township of Farmington, the Township of West Bloomfield, the Township of Southfield (now the City of Southfield in respect to the property affected by said contract) and the City of Keego Harbor, and

Whereas the parties hereto desire to mend paragraph 7 of said contract,

Therefore it is hereby agreed by and between the parties hereto that paragraph 7 of said contract of November 1, 1957 is hereby amended to read in its entirety as follows:

7. Each municipality does hereby pledge its full faith and credit for the prompt payment of the aforesaid obligations and shall each year levy a tax in an amount which taking into consideration estimated delinquencies in tax collections, will be sufficient for the prompt payment of any amount falling due before the time of the following tax collection, unless at the time of making such annual levy there shall be cash on hand (as provided for in paragraph 2, Section 12, of Act No. 185, Public Acts of 1957) earmarked for the payment of the current obligations for which the tax levy is to be made, then the annual levy may be reduced by that amount. Funds for which credit may be so taken, may be raised in the manner provided in said paragraph (2), Section 12 of said Act No. 185, Public Acts of 1957 as now existing or hereafter amended. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as attempting to require any municipality to levy a tax beyond the limitation prescribed in Article X, Section 21 of the Michigan Constitution, or any lawful decrease thereof. If because of said Article X, Section 21, the taxing power of any municipality to pay principal installments and interest as the same become due, then such municipality agrees that it will from time to time raise sufficient funds to pay the same by one or more of the other methods set forth in paragraph (2) of said Section 12 and that it will at the time of each annual tax levy set aside from the funds so raised or from other funds an amount equal to the next maturing principal installment and interest.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have caused this agreement to be executed and delivered by their respective duly authorized officers, all as of the day and year first above written.

Whereas the estimated cost of acquiring the said Farmington Sewage Disposal System has been increased from $4,900,000 to $5,107,000 which latter estimate has been approved by the Board of Public Works and this Board of Supervisors, and as a consequence the amendment of said bond resolution of January 24, 1958 is necessary; and

Whereas the Board of Public Works pursuant to said contract of November 1, 1957, as amended, has determined the aggregate amounts of the several annual installments to be paid under said contract by the municipalities, based upon the new estimated cost, which amounts are the same as the annual bond maturities herein after set forth; and

Whereas the Board of Public Works and this Board of Supervisors have approved the following agreement and have authorized its execution for and on behalf of the County of Oakland, to-wit:

Amendatory Farmington Sewage Disposal System Agreement

This agreement made this 9th day of February, 1959, by and between the County of Oakland, a Michigan county corporation (hereinafter called the "county"), party of the first part, and the Township of Farmington, the Township of West Bloomfield, the City of Southfield and the City of Keego Harbor, municipal corporations in the County of Oakland (hereinafter called the "municipalities"), parties of the second part,

Witnesseth:

Whereas the County of Oakland and the Township of Farmington, Township of West Bloomfield, Township of Southfield and the City of Keego Harbor did enter into a certain agreement dated November 1, 1957, for the acquisition, financing and operation of the Farmington Sewage Disposal System, paragraph 7 of which agreement was amended by an agreement dated December 2, 1958; and

Whereas subsequent to November 1, 1957, the City of Southfield was incorporated from certain territory within the Township of Southfield, which territory so incorporated includes all of the area to be served by the Farmington Sewage Disposal System; and

Whereas pursuant to said agreement of November 1, 1957, as amended, the Oakland County Board of Public Works did secure an estimate of the cost of acquiring said system which was in the sum of $4,900,000; and

Whereas after the receipt of construction bids the Board of Public Works found that the system could not be acquired within the said estimated cost and therefore caused a new estimate to be made of such acquisition cost, which is in the sum of $5,107,000; and

Whereas the parties hereto desire to make certain further amendments to said contract of November 1, 1957,

1. That the City of Southfield shall be substituted for the Township of Southfield as a party to said contract of November 1, 1957, as amended.

2. That the Board of Public Works shall proceed with the acquisition and financing of the Farmington Sewage Disposal System under said agreement of November 1, 1957, as amended, upon the basis of an estimated cost of $5,107,000 that said agreement shall be construed as though the said revised estimate were the original estimate.

3. That paragraph 5 of said agreement of November 1, 1957, is hereby amended to read as follows:

5. The amount to be paid by each municipality shall be divided into 30 annual installments, numbered in direct order of their maturities. The aggregate amount of each installment as to all municipalities shall be determined by the Board of Public Works prior to the time it shall submit to the Board of Supervisors a bond resolution or ordinance, which aggregate amount shall be divided between the municipalities on the basis of the total percentage of the total project cost which each municipality is required to pay computed in accordance with the applicable percentages specified in paragraph 4 above. Said installments shall be due in consecutive numerical order on the first day of April in each year, beginning with the year 1960, and all amounts thereof from time to time unpaid, shall bear interest from the date of the issuance of the bonds by the county, at the rate of 6% per annum until paid, payable on April 1, 1960 and on the first day of April in each year thereafter: Provided, that if the bond issue shall include any amount for capitalized interest, then the unpaid installments shall not bear interest prior to one month preceding the expiration of the period in which the capitalized interest will pay the interest on the bonds. If the amount of interest due on April 1 of any year on unpaid installments, shall be collected by the county in excess of the amount of interest which the county shall be required to pay upon its said bonds prior to the next principal installment due date, then any such excess in the amount so paid after deducting the annual fees and expenses connected with the payment of said bonds, shall be credited pro rata to the municipalities in accordance with the several amounts of interest paid by them in such year which credit shall be applied on the next interest becoming due. If any municipality shall fail to pay any installment or interest when the same becomes due, then the amount thereof shall be subject to a penalty, in addition to interest, of ½ of 1% for each month or fraction thereof that the same remains unpaid after the due date. Any municipality may pay in advance of maturity all or any part of an annual installment by surrendering to the county bonds issued in anticipation of payments to be made under this contract, of a like principal amount maturing in the same calendar year, with all future due interest coupons attached thereto. Accrued interest upon the amount so paid upon any installment and accrued interest upon the bonds surrendered, shall be adjusted to the date of surrender and any difference shall be paid in cash. All surrender bonds and coupons shall be canceled.

4. That this agreement shall be effective as of January 29, 1959.

Misc. 3493

Mr. Thatcher presented to the Board of Supervisors a certified copy of a resolution adopted by the County Board of Public Works on February 19, 1959 fixing the amounts of the several annual installments to be paid to the County by the municipalities in the aggregate, under the contract of November 1, 1957, as amended, covering the $5,748,000 estimated cost of the Farmington Sewage Disposal System. These amounts correspond with the annual bond maturities in the bond resolution hereinafter set forth.

By unanimous consent, the said resolution was ordered filed with the County Clerk.

Misc. 3494

IN RE: FARMINGTON SEWAGE DISPOSAL SYSTEM

Mr. Thatcher offered the following amendatory bond resolution and stated that the same had been approved by the Department of Public Works:

Whereas the Board of Supervisors did on the 24th day of January, 1958, adopt Miscellaneous Resolution No. 3341 providing for the issuance by the County of Oakland of $4,900,000 "Oakland County Sewage Disposal Bonds—Farmington System" to be dated July 1, 1958; and

Whereas subsequent thereto the agreement dated November 1, 1957, between the County of Oakland and the several municipalities lying wholly or partly within the Farmington Sewage Disposal District, was amended by an agreement dated December 22, 1958, which reads as follows:

Amendment to Farmington Sewage Disposal System Agreement

This agreement made this 22nd day of December, 1958 by and between the County of Oakland, a Michigan Corporation thereinafter called the "County"; the Township of Farmington, a Michigan Township Corporation in Oakland County; the Township of West Bloomfield, a Michigan Township Corporation in Oakland County; the City of Southfield, a Michigan City Corporation in Oakland County (whose territory was formerly a part of the Township of Southfield); and the City of Keego Harbor, a Michigan City Corporation in Oakland County,

WITNESSETH:

Whereas on the 1st day of November, 1957 a contract in respect to the establishment, financing and operation of the Farmington Sewage Disposal System was entered into by the County of Oakland, the Township of Farmington, the Township of West Bloomfield, the Township of Southfield (now the City of Southfield in respect to the property affected by said contract) and the City of Keego Harbor, and

Whereas the parties hereto desire to amend paragraph 7 of said contract,

Therefore it is hereby agreed by and between the parties hereto that paragraph 7 of said contract of November 1, 1957 is hereby amended to read in its entirety as follows:

7. Each municipality does hereby pledge its full faith and credit for the prompt payment of the aforesaid obligations and shall each year levy a tax in an amount which taking into consideration estimated delinquencies in tax collections, will be sufficient for the prompt payment of any amount falling due before the time of the following tax collection, unless at the time of making such annual levy there shall be cash on hand (as provided for in paragraph 2, Section 12, of Act No. 185, Public Acts of 1957) earmarked for the payment of the current obligatoins for which the tax levy is to be made, then the annual levy may be reduced by that amount. Funds for which credit may be so taken, may be raised in the manner provided in said paragraph (2), Section 12 of said Act No. 185 Public Acts of 1957 as now existing or hereafter amended. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as attempting to require any municipality to levy a tax beyond the limitation prescribed in Article X, Section 21 of the Michigan Constitution, or any lawful increase thereof. If because of said Article X, Section 21, the taxing power of any municipality is not adequate to provide a tax levy sufficient to pay principal installments and interest as the same become due, then such municipality agrees that it will from time to time raise sufficient funds to pay the same by one or more of the other methods set forth in paragraph (2) of said Section 12 and that it will at the time of each annual tax levy set aside from the funds so raised or from other funds an amount equal to the next maturing principal installment and interest.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have caused this agreement to be executed and delivered by their respective duly authorized officers, all as of the day and year first above written.

This agreement made this 9th day of February, 1959, by and between the County of Oakland, a Michigan county corporation (hereinafter called the "county"), party of the first part, and the Township of Farmington, the Township of West Bloomfield, the Township of Southfield and the City of Keego Harbor, municipal corporations in the County of Oakland (hereinafter called the "municipalities"), parties of the second part,

Witnesseth:

Whereas the County of Oakland and the Township of Farmington, Township of West Bloomfield, Township of Southfield and the City of Keego Harbor did enter into a certain agreement dated November 1, 1957, for the acquisition, financing and operation of the Farmington Sewage Disposal System, paragraph 7 of which agreement was amended by an agreement dated December 22, 1958; and

Whereas subsequent to November 1, 1957, the City of Southfield was incorporated from certain territory within the Township of Southfield, which territory so incorporated includes all of the area to be served by the Farmington Sewage Disposal System; and

Whereas pursuant to said agreement of November 1, 1957, as amended, the Oakland County Board of Public Works did secure an estimate of the cost of acquiring said system which was in the sum of $4,900,000; and

Whereas after the receipt of construction bids the Board of Public Works found that the system could not be acquired within the said estimated cost and therefore caused a new estimate to be made of such acquisition cost, which is in the sum of $5,748,000; and

Whereas the parties hereto desire to make certain further amendments to said contract of November 1, 1957,

Therefore it is agreed by and between the parties hereto as follows:

1. That the City of Southfield shall be substituted for the Township of Southfield as a party to said contract of November 1, 1957, as amended.

2. That the Board of Public Works shall proceed with the acquisition and financing of the Farmington Sewage Disposal System under said agreement of November 1, 1957, as amended, upon the basis of an estimated cost of $5,748,000; that said agreement shall be construed as though the said revised estimate were the original estimate.

3. That paragraph 5 of said agreement of November 1, 1957, is hereby amended to read as follows:

5. The amount to be paid by each municipality shall be divided into 30 annual installments, numbered in direct order of their maturities. The aggregate amount of each installment as to all municipalities shall be determined by the Board of Public Works prior to the time it shall submit to the Board of Supervisors a bond resolution or ordinance, which aggregate amount shall be divided between the municipalities on the basis of the total percentage of the total project cost which each municipality is required to pay computed in accordance with the applicable percentages specified in paragraph 4 above. Said installments shall be due in consecutive numerical order on the first day of April in each year, beginning with the year 1960, and all amounts thereof from time to time unpaid, shall bear interest from the date of the issuance of the bonds by the county, at the rate of 3½% per annum until paid, payable on April 1, 1960 and on the first day of April in each year thereafter; Provided, that if the bond issue shall include any amount for capitalized interest, then the unpaid installments shall not bear interest prior to one month preceding the expiration of the period in which the capitalized interest will pay the interest on the bonds. If the amount of interest due on April 1 of any year on unpaid installments, shall be collected by the county in excess of the amount of interest which the county shall be required to pay upon its said bonds prior to the next principal installment due date, then any such excess in the amount so paid after deducting the annual fees and expenses connected with the payment of said bonds, shall be credited pro rata to the municipalities in accordance with the several amounts of interest paid by them in such year, which credit shall be applied on the next interest becoming due. If any municipality shall fail to pay any installment or interest when the same becomes due, then the amount thereof shall be subject to a penalty, in addition to interest, of ½ of 1% for each month or fraction thereof that the same remains unpaid after the due date. Any municipality may pay in advance of maturity all or any part of an annual installment by surrendering to the county bonds issued in anticipation of payments to be made under this contract, of a like principal amount maturing in the same calendar year, with all future due interest coupons attached thereto. Accrued interest upon the amount so paid upon any installment and accrued interest upon the bonds surrendered, shall be adjusted to the date of surrender and any difference shall be paid in cash. All surrender bonds and coupons shall be canceled.

4. That this agreement shall be effective as of January 29, 1959.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have caused this agreement to be executed and delivered by their respective duly authorized officers, all as of the day and year first above written.

Whereas Section 9, Chapter 1 of Act No. 185 of the Public Acts of 1957 require that the consent of the municipality must be obtained prior to the furnishing of such service to individual users within the municipality, and

Whereas the Township Board of Commerce Township, by official resolution of said Board passed on February 13, 1959, has given its consent to the County of Oakland, by and through its Department of Public Works, to operate water system, and to serve individual users within the following subdivisions of Commerce Township:

Whereas the offering of said lots has previously been approved by the County Welfare Commission and the Welfare Committee of the Board, and

IN RE: REPORT RE: SECOND PROBATE JUDGE

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Your Ways and Means Committee and your Juvenile Committee, acting jointly, respectfully submits the following report:

This joint Committee has carefully considered the proposition that the Board submit the question of a second probate Judge to the electors of Oakland County and has received various communications, including a partial report from the Committee of the Oakland County Bar Association. Although the Committee from the Bar Association had not had time to complete a survey, it was recommended that although a second Probate Judge will be needed in the future, that the needs of the Probate Court could presently be filled by the employment of a clerk, being a duly qualified attorney.

Your joint committee considers this proposal to be the most desirable solution to the problem. However, since it appears that further information is forthcoming, this joint Committee expresses the desire to continue to study the matter further and report back to this Board.

IN RE: USE OF CONTAGIOUS HOSPITAL BUILDING

To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas your Special Committee appointed to study possible uses of the former County Contagious Hospital on October 13, 1958, advised members of the Board as to possible uses of said building, and

Whereas your Committee considered a proposal made by a local hospital to lease the facility for a period of five years with a provision for an additional five years which offer, while being very attractive from a financial standpoint, would, in the opinion of the Committee, not be in the best interest of the County since it would tie up this facility for too long a period of time, and

Whereas your Committee also received a proposal from a non-profit organization interested in operating the hospital for treatment of polio and allied diseases, which offer included staffing and facilities at the hospital for treatment of contagious diseases and emergency hospitalization and treatment of a limited number of mentally ill patients, and

Whereas your Committee being of the opinion that the aforementioned arrangement would provide the best use of this facility but has been unable to date to work out the details and is continuing negotiations with this non-profit organization in the hope that necessary finances may be arranged for it to carry out its proposed program, and

Whereas a number of resolutions adopted by several of the local units in the County, along with the request of Probate Arthur E. Moore, to use this facility for diagnosis and treatment of the mentally ill have been referred to and considered carefully by your Special Committee, and

Whereas your Committee recognizes the need for additional facilities for the care of mentally ill and commends Judge Moore, the Oakland County Mental Health Society and the various interested local units and groups for their concern and interest which has pointed out the inadequacy of facilities furnished by the State, and

Whereas your Committee, after very careful consideration of the matter, finds that it cannot conscientiously recommend that the entire building be used solely for that one purpose since the operation of publicly supported hospitals for the diagnosis and treatment of the mentally ill is solely the responsibility of the State government which has within its governmental framework a sion and staff to cope with the problems of carrying out a well-rounded program in this area, and

Whereas such services as rendered by a branch of local government would only tend to cause duplication of effort and relieve the State of its responsibilities to its citizens, and

Whereas in consultation with representatives of the State, your Committee has learned that any facility providing treatment for the mentally ill should be operated in connection with a general hospital in order that proper treatment would be available to mental patients should they develop physical ills which may require special care, and

Whereas your Special Committee from information submitted to it, finds that the cost of operating a facility for the exclusive treatment of the mentally ill, which is a very specialized operation, would be very high and the matter of financing its operations must be carefully considered due to the financial situation in the County;

Now therefore be it resolved as follows:

1. That the use of the entire facility of the former Contagious Hospital for the exclusive treatment and hospitalization of mentally ill patients be not considered.

2. That the members of the State Legislature representing Oakland County be used to seek additional legislative appropriations which

Grain Prices Steady Some

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures prices generally were steady to firm today in early dealings on the Board of Trade but brokers said the draggy activity did not appear to have the usual signs that a rally was shaping up.

For one thing, they said the buying was scattered and apparently in small volume, the kind often resorted to for testing resistance here and there.

After an hour wheat was ⅛ cent a bushel lower to ½ higher, May $1.94⅞; corn ⅛ to ⅝ higher, May $1.23½; oats ⅛ lower to ⅜ higher, May 64¾; rye ¼ to ⅝ higher, May $1.36; soybeans ⅛ to ⅝ higher, May $2.28⅝.

Five Face Trial in Store Holdup

Waives Examination, Bound Over Yesterday to Circuit Court

Five persons arrested after an unsuccessful attempt to hold up a Pontiac grocery store Friday evening waived examination yesterday and were bound over to the Oakland County Circuit Court by Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

Bond was set at $5,000 each for Jerry E. Smith, 24, of 36 Sanderson St.; James D. Stroud Jr., 28, of 736 W. Huron St.; and Billy J. Short, 31, of Harlan, Ky.

Bond for two women charged in the holdup was set at $500. They were Mrs. Muriel McColl, 22, of 657 Riverside Dr., and Mrs. Marilyn J. Morgan, 22, same address.

All were returned to the Oakland County Jail yesterday afternoon after being unable to furnish bond.

The five will be arraigned next Monday in Circuit Court on armed robbery charges.

Short was captured Friday night by Antonio Craparotta, 65, owner of the Father & Son Market at 856 Oakland Ave. Craparotta leaped at the gunman, grabbed his sawed-off shotgun and beat him up. Another gunman fled.

Short later told detectives the whereabouts of the other four, who were arrested early Saturday at the women's home. Stroud admitted going into the store with Short, while Smith drove the car to the robbery scene.

2 Ex-UAW Officials Face Prison Terms

DETROIT (AP) — Prison terms of up to 20 years today faced two former United Auto Workers union officials convicted of extortion.

Edward Drzewiecki of Roseville and Stanley F. Baker of Fair Haven were found guilty of extorting $100 from a vending machine operator. Drzewiecki was president of UAW Local 380 at Gear Grinding and Machine Co. in Hamtramck, and Baker was business agent.

The defendants admitted receiving the money from Harry D. Burkett, owner and operator of Oasis Vending Machine Co., Detroit, contending the cash was intended for the union's welfare fund.

Recorder's Judge John P. O'Hara freed the pair on $1,000 bond each and set sentencing for May 11.

Symington Criticizes Phantom Missiles

WASHNGTON (AP) — Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) said today he found no operational U.S. missile base in Britain although he reported Congress had been told that missiles "were sitting there and ready to go."

Symington said he visited the base, which he did not name, during a recent overseas trip. That was 10 weeks after he said a report on it had been given to Congress in January by Gen. Nathan Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Symington, mentioned as a possibility for the Democratic presidential nomination, told of the incident in a speech prepared for a National Press Club luncheon.

Long a critic of U.S. military preparedness, Symington cited it as part of what he called "a deliberate policy to conceal from the people the weakness of our position, and the ineptness of the administration in correcting that weakness."

But Financiers Defend Methods

Swiss Bank Secrecy Hit

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP)—Swiss bankers are making a good thing today out of international banking and stock buying for anonymous clients.

But the Swiss aren't too happy about some of the consequences, such as conflicts with the American government and the watchdogs over American securities because Swiss law veils all their depositors in secrecy.

Bankers here are particularly bitter about three charges well rooted in the American public's mind:

1. That the banks often don't know who is making use of them — possibly even the Communists;

2. that the banks vote proxies on American stocks they hold for anonymous clients engaged in raiding U.S. corporations; 3. that the banks offer Americans a chance to evade U.S. income taxes.

Top executives of the three largest Swiss banks have said in interviews that all Swiss banks refuse any deposits until they know who the client is and have checked on him thoroughly. This is true, they say, even when the account is carried on the bank's book as a number rather than a name (to give the depositor further secrecy from the bank's clerical staff).

But American officials point out that a known depositor could be acting as a cover-up for someone else. The Swiss reply that such a person could act similarly for another in dealing with brokerage firms in the United States.

The Swiss law forbidding banks to name depositors was passed Nov. 8, 1934. The Swiss say it was because in the years of bank shakiness a bank failure might ruin a depositor if his name were revealed.

★ ★ ★

Swiss bankers liken themselves to doctors and priests, holding that a man's financial affairs are as sacred as his bodily or spiritual status. Only a Swiss court order can make a Swiss bank name the depositor for whom it has made investments.

★ ★ ★

Both American and Swiss authorities agree that Americans can save on inheritance taxes if their money is invested anonymously through Swiss banks.

★ ★ ★

But the two governments made an agreement on income taxes that works this way: on dividends paid on stocks held by Swiss banks 15 per cent is withheld by the U.S. at the source. The Swiss bank pays another 15 per cent to the Swiss tax office.

★ ★ ★

If the stockholder is certified as a Swiss resident he gets this 15 per cent back. If he isn't a Swiss resident the 15 per cent is sent back to the United States, giving Uncle Sam a 30 per cent cut in all.

Painful Only for Some

LANSING (UPI)—A payless pay day would not be payless for all state employes, Gov. G. Mennen Williams indicated today. Williams said those employes paid out of restricted funds probably would get their money. The general fund and the school aid fund are the only ones threatened with bankruptcy.

Plan Arbor Day Programs in 4 City Schools

The Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department in cooperation with the staffs of four city elementary schools will supervise four half-hour programs in observance of Arbor Day tomorrow.

The purpose of this Arbor Day Program is to provide the youngsters with a conservation education program which will have a carry-over value in the future, according to Leonard T. Buzz, recreation supervisor.

The department will provide a tree for students at Franklin, Herrington, Wever, and Alcott schools and assist in the planting of each tree.

The program will consist of a recess period of about 20 minutes at each school, including a short dedication ceremony with instruction in the care of the tree, the tree's history, and planting of the tree.

Each program will be carried out by youngsters of the individual schools. At 10 a.m. Franklin School students will plant a Red Gum Tree. Herrington school students will plant a Modesto Ash at 10:30 ceremonies.

Ceremonies at Wever school are set for 12:45 p.m. when a Crimson King will be planted. The same type tree will be planted during ceremonies at 1:30 p.m. at Alcott School.

Senate Finally Votes on Mrs. Luce Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate, after many delays, votes today on Clare Boothe Luce's nomination as ambassador to Brazil. Her confirmation was considered assured.

Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore), an outspoken admirer of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, announced he would not let Mrs. Luce's criticism of the late Democratic president influence him to vote against her.

He thus took issue again with his senior colleague, Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) who spoke for 3 hours and 20 minutes Monday in opposition to Mrs. Luce. Morse assailed her 1944 campaign charge that Roosevelt "lied us into war" and criticized her record as ambassador to Italy.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Luce, 56, playwright, former Republican congresswoman from Connecticut and former ambassador to Italy, was praised by Sen. Prescott Bush (R-Conn) as "one of the 10 most admired American women."

Good Only for Golf

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Rep. H. R. Gross (R-Iowa) complained yesterday that daylight saving time is for golfers and spendthrifts. It does provide more time for golf, Gross said, and those in favor of it apparently think "we should live on borrowed time as well as borrowed money."

To Restrict East Turns From Saginaw Street

Eastbound turns from Saginaw street onto Lawrence will be eliminated on a trial basis May 11 to smooth the flow of downtown Pontiac traffic. Theodore M. Vanderstempel, city traffic engineer, announced today.

Southbound Saginaw street traffic will no longer be permitted to turn left onto East Lawrence, said Vanderstempel, nor will northbound Saginaw cars be allowed right turns.

Since Lawrence is open only to one-way eastbound traffic, westbound turns have not been allowed for some time.

Lawrence street traffic will still be permitted to make north and south turns onto Saginaw, Vanderstempel said.

The intersection, he said, is often congested by Saginaw street traffic waiting to make turns, with long lines of backed up autos stretching sometimes as far south as Pike street.

He said that control of the turning movements dovetails into the plan for a progressive light system on Saginaw.

Saginaw drivers wishing to head east on Lawrence will have to detour westward, he said, via Orchard Lake avenue, Pike or Huron street, reaching West Lawrence by means of Wayne street, Williams street or Cass avenue.

Community National Bank and Pontiac State Bank, which have drive-in stations on East Lawrence just east of Saginaw, have agreed to cooperate in the change, said Vanderstempel, and are notifying their drive-in customers of the detours.

Quiz Students in Kidnaping

FBI Probes Connection of School Dance Only Blocks From Jail

POPLARVILLE, Miss. (AP)—FBI agents Monday questioned several students at Pearl River Junior College, only blocks away from the jail where Mack Charles Parker, 23, Negro truck driver held on a charge of raping a white woman, was kidnaped.

A dance was being held at the campus late Friday and early Saturday when Parker, who maintained his innocence, was kidnaped from the jail by a group of hooded men.

In another development, officials announced that C. J. Mondy, who was in the jail with Parker and saw the kidnaping, will be released from jail on bond this week.

It was Mondy, 25, who gave officers the first account of the beating and kidnaping.

Mondy had been in jail for six months on a murder charge. His trial was scheduled for Tuesday. But it was put off until the next term of Criminal Court in November when Judge Sebe Dale adjourned the court term Monday.

★ ★ ★

Judge Dale postponed Parker's trial indefinitely. He condemned the mob that dragged away Parker, saying: "The floodgates of hate and hell have been opened upon us. The people of Mississippi have been sinned against. They do not deserve it."

With a rap of his gavel, he shut down the entire spring term of his court.

Mondy's lawyer, the county attorney and Gov. J. P. Coleman authorized the release on bond.

Highway patrolmen guarded the Pearl River County Jail on a 24-hour basis to prevent any intimidation of prisoners who saw the 8 or 10 hooded men who broke into the jail Friday night and brutally beat and kidnaped Parker. The jail normally is unguarded. No one was on duty Friday night.

Ike to House: Adopt Stronger Labor Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower will publicly urge the House to approve a stronger labor reform bill than the one passed by the Senate last week, Republican congressional leaders said today.

★ ★ ★

The leaders predicted after a three-hour meeting with the President that, at his news conference tomorrow, he will share their view that the Senate's Kennedy-Ervin bill is "grossly inadequate" and that the House should take steps to remedy deficiencies in the bill.

★ ★ ★

Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen and House GOP leader Charles A. Halleck said of the President's public endorsement of a stronger labor reform bill that they did not want to speak for him. They said they preferred to leave this to Eisenhower himself.

Retired Teacher Leaves $116,776 to Mail Carrier

MARTINEZ, Calif. (AP) — A court settlement approved Monday gives a Martinez mail carrier $116,776 and a $16,000 ranch from the estate of a retired Richmond school teacher the carrier had known since he was a boy.

★ ★ ★

The postman, Louis Bartolomei, 54, is the principal heir of the estate of Miss Emily Neukom who died last year. Miss Neukom, after leaving various small bequests, bequeathed the rest of her $148,211 on a share-alike basis to Bartolomei and Ralph Wight, a Martinez attorney. Wight died two years ago however, and Mrs. Neukom didn't change her will. She left no relatives, so Superior Court Judge H. Donovan approved a settlement giving Bartolomei Wight's share, too.

★ ★ ★

Texas Legislature OKs Johnson for '60

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, (D-Tex), who says he is not a candidate for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination, has the backing of the Texas Legislature if he decides to run.

★ ★ ★

The House Monday passed 129-15 and sent to Gov. Price Daniel a bill which would let Johnson's name appear on the 1960 ballot as a candidate for re-election and for president or vice president. The bill passed the Senate unanimously.

★ ★ ★

Eruption on 'Dead' Moon Alleged by Russian

LONDON (UPI)—A Soviet astronomer disputes the widely held theory that the moon is a dead body torn from the crust of the earth in some cataclysmic event of the very remote past.

In a personal communication to British selenographer (moon expert) Patrick Moore, the Russian astronomer, Nikolai Kozyrev, made it clear he thinks it quite possible that the earth and the moon had different origins.

And he is convinced that he witnessed a volcanic eruption actually in progress on the supposedly cold, dead heavenly body.

Kozyrev, who is held in high regard by astrophysicists, reported last November that he had observed unusual activity in the crater of Alphonsus which lies between the craters of Ptolemaius and Arzechel near the middle of the moon's disc.

He said he observed an eruption of ash and then a rush of gas estimated at some 3,500,000 feet. He took spectrograms of the gas which enabled him to determine that it contained a far higher percentage of the isotope carbon 13 than is common on earth.

This, he wrote, means that the earth and moon probably had different origins.

Kozyrev said that the eruption was powerful enough to bring about changes in the moon's surface near the central peak of the Alphonsus crater.

"Recently," said Moore, "two British astronomers, Dr. H. P. Wilkins and Dr. F. Brain, have reported that a reddish spot about two miles across has appeared on the southern slope of the peak since the eruption was reported.

"I've been plagued by cloudy weather in my own efforts to see the area. But experts all over the world are dividing the moon into sections and it will be intensively observed from now on for any other possible activity of the type reported by Dr. Kozyrev.

"It's not the first time Alphonsus has been mentioned in this way. A German astronomer believed he saw some activity near it in 1882. And a couple of years ago, an American, Dr. Alter, thought there was a minor obscuration inside Alphonsus."

More recently, a letter was discovered in the Leningrad archives of the Soviet Academy of Sciences indicating that a moon eruption was observed as long ago as 1783.

The letter, written by Johann Magellan (a descendant of the explorer) to Johann Euler, secretary of the St. Petersburg Academy of Sciences, said that the British astronomer Sir William Herschel saw a point of light on the moon's Mount Porphyrite on May 4, 1783.

Using Isaac Newton's telescope, he kept the area under observation and nine days later saw two cone-shaped mountains he had never seen before. He believed these had been formed during the eruption.

Passes Bogus Bill

Rescue Group Ready to Serve

13 Italian Volunteers Are 'Mad Daredevils' of Mercy

MODENA, Italy (UPI) — It is easy to understand why a group of 12 men and a woman call themselves "The Mad Daredevils."

Sometimes, they can be seen landing on the rooftops of a nearby mountain village by parachutes, or dressed like men from Mars, in special asbestos suits, dashing through the fire and smoke of a blazing shack.

They have been seen scaling telegraph poles to join high tension power lines. They swim icy rivers, ski around boulders and trees, leap like hares across ditches.

The Mad Daredevils of Modena are officially known as the Volante del Soccorso, the flying emergency squad, a privately-organized group of unpaid volunteers trained to tackle any emergency at any time or place.

The leader is Ariodante Mazzacurati, a 34-year-old former paratrooper, who has given the group instructions in flying airplanes, helicopters, driving all kinds of vehicles, including bulldozers and tanks.

The woman member is able to handle these man-sized chores in addition to her duties as a nurse, cook and midwife. The daredevils are financed by a group of Modena businessmen.

"We don't do this for profit," said Mazzacurati. "Our organization is the first in Italy and the second in Europe. In England, there is a similar group which has saved many lives. We also wish to save lives and we are always ready to do so. Try us. The phone number is Modena 31178."

See Good Years Ahead for State

Consumers Official Says Future of Michigan Not Behind It

"Your management looks to the months and years ahead with optimism. You are stockholders in a fine company, serving a great area in a wonderful state.

The former Pontiac resident said, "Don't let anyone tell you that Michigan's future is behind it. Our state, like every other, may have its ups and downs, but it has not even begun to realize its full potental. Wtih the natural advantages we have and the kind of people we have, Michigan will go on to heights of achievement and prosperity that we can only dimly imagine today."

Campbell said Michigan will attract and hold industry "for the same reasons as in the past.

"It is well located in mid-America. It has skilled manpower. It offers excellent transportation facilities, including water transportation via the Great Lakes and now the deepened St. Lawrence Seaway," he said.

"Living conditions and cultural avantages are exceptional. It's an attractive place to live and a wonderful location for industry, as proved by the fact that so many well-known manufacturing companies have developed and prospered in Michigan," Campbell concluded.

In the first quarter of 1959, he told the stockholders, Consumers Power Company's kilowatt-hour electric sales were 13 per cent above the first quarter of 1958 and gas sales in cubic feet were up 20 per cent. The company supplies electric service in 64 Michigan counties and natural gas service in 29.

Youth Gets 5-10 Years in Shooting Woman

FLINT (AP)—William J. Miller, 16, who shot and wounded a woman who refused to let him hunt on her property, was sentenced to a 5-to-10-year prison term yesterday.

The youth, convicted by a jury of assault with intent to do great bodily harm, was sentenced by Circuit Judge John W. Baker.

Miller fired a rifle at Mrs. Dale Leiter, 36, when she refused him permission last Oct. 30 to hunt small game at her Flint Township home. Miller was a runaway from the Starr Commonwealth for Boys at the time.

Mrs. Leiter, wife of the president of the Utley Board of Education, has been hospitalized since the shooting. Miller is the foster son of Dr. and Mrs. H. I. Miller of Flint.

BACK-TO-BACK FOR CANADA — Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip looked in opposite directions in this photo taken recently by Toronto photographer Donald McKague. McKague, who praised the Queen for her cooperation in the pictorial project, was on commission for the Canadian government. His work was done in advance of the royal couple's visit to Canada this summer.

Posing Cooperation Tops

Canadian Photographer Praises Queen

TORONTO (AP) — A Canadian photographer said today Britain's Queen Elizabeth was so cooperative in posing for him that she even asked him to help her select the dress she should wear.

Donald McKague, 37, said it was for an informal color shot and that she took his advice.

★ ★ ★

McKague spent four days at Buckingham Palace just before Christmas taking photographs of the Queen and Prince Philip for the Canadian government, which will be host to the royal couple on their tour of Canada this summer.

★ ★ ★

Beforehand McKague sent 25 or 30 suggestions as to poses and dress he had in mind. The Queen agreed to all. Philip returned the list submitted to him with the word "certainly" written across it in his own handwriting.

★ ★ ★

McKague wanted a back-to-back picture of the Queen and her husband to get both in profile. But the difference in their heights was too great. The Queen stood on a low platform, Philip on the floor. This made the prince lower than his wife.

McKague said he and the prince searched around the palace and found a two-by-four piece of lumber which had been used in the sets for some of the other photographs. The prince stood on this but was still too low.

★ ★ ★

Blame Loose Fitting for Seven Boat Deaths

SEATTLE (AP)—A loose connection that allowed sea water to seep into a 43-foot boat was blamed for the swamping of the pleasure cruiser with a loss of seven lives Sunday.

Survivors said some of those on board went forward to lighten the stern of the Lois Ann when the craft began shipping water. Five of the seven who drowned were trapped in the cabin. Five others were rescued.

Mediators Seek to Settle Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal mediators sought today to settle a strike of engineers and technicians at the National Broadcasting Co. which knocked its television and radio networks off the air for two hours Monday.

The Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service scheduled a meeting between NBC and the National Assn. of Broadcast Employes and Technicians (NABET). Both television and radio technicians walked out.

Union members Monday refused to handle video tape for Dave Garroway's "Today" program, scheduled for the NBC-TV network from 7 to 9 a.m.

The program, which included an interview with Brigitte Bardot, was filmed in Paris last week. The union claimed some French technicians were used in certain jobs during the taping, and that this was a violation of the contract.

Supervisory personnel took over handling of the electronic equipment. In some cases they were a little rusty, and there were occasional fluffs.

NBC reported it had several calls from advertising agencies concerning dim commercials, or commercials that were inserted somewhat abruptly. Several lacked sound.

An NBC spokesman said that all the television programs which had been scheduled for live broadcast were broadcast live, and the same would hold true today.

★ ★ ★

NBC operations in Hollywood, San Francisco, Philadelphia, Chicago and Washington were also affected by the walkout.

The company claimed it had complied fully with the contract. NBC employs about 750 members of the union in New York.

Bilko's Last TV Show Will Really Be Rouser

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Phil Silvers isn't too gloomy about his Sgt. Bilko soon going off the air here—because he's so big now in England.

WILSON

And so he'll be going to England late in May—to get even bigger there.

He and his cast including Private Doberman, of course, are winding up their filming, and they're going to make it a rouser.

The last show will have on it the writer who created Sgt. Bilko, Nat Hiken, and also the current gag writers, including the Pittsburgh wit, the pride of Pennsylvania, Coleman Jacoby, who once said, "Women don't like mustaches — because they don't look good in them," and also said, "I have the most wonderful wife in the country—and I hope she stays there."

★ ★ ★

It was also Coleman Jacoby who got a dun from a dentist who caustically noted, "This bill is a year old today!" Coleman sent it back with another note: "Happy Birthday!"

Rod Steiger's quiet divorce in January from actress Sally Gracie just came to light (so it's perfectly legal for him to woo and wed his "Rashomon" co-star Claire Bloom if he likes) . . .

Now during Passover I have a letter from Jerusalem, Israel.

"Dear Earl," it says. "I have been here for a month up to my ears in Zionist archives gathering material for a biography of the late great Zionist leader Henrietta Szold of Baltimore.

"Theaters, balelts, movies, opera, concerts were Standing Room Only. Saw lorry full of soldiers in uniform carrying bouquets of wild-flowers.

"Saw biologists doing cancer research in Hadassah Bldg. pocked with bullet marks where several scientists died serving humanity. And those Israeili breakfasts: Oranges bigger and better than California, so help me; olives, cottage cheese, herring, tomatoes, eggs, rolls, jam, coffee . . .

"Heard of Last Chance Cafe in Beersheba, popular with beatniks. Can't imagine beatniks in this gay, exciting little country. You'd think they hadn't an enemy in the world. Great place for women. Have seen Eleanor Roosevelt, Queen of Belgium, Sophie Tucker. Hear Liz Taylor is coming. Why not you?"

Seriously, Kim Novak could get an Oscar nomination for her completely believable love affair with a guy 56 (played by Fredric March) in "Middle of the Night," say our spies who've seen the picture. And March, winner of two Oscars, could make it three.

Royal Oak Youth Goes to Prison in Car Theft

A 19-year-old Royal Oak youth was sentenced yesterday to 1½ to 5 years in Jackson Prison for car theft while his alleged companion escaped the same fate as he suddenly changed his plea before Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams.

Searles, like Mallo Burge, 21, of 463 Bauman Ave., Clawson, pleaded guilty April 13 to stealing a car out of the Royal Oak police yard. They were apprehended later in the car in Ohio.

Soon after Searles was sentenced by Judge Adams yesterday, the judge asked Burge if he had anything to say before sentencing.

"I didn't steal that car," he answered. Judge Adams immediately set aside his previous guilty plea and entered a plea of innocent. The judge ordered the case set for trial.

New CBS Daytimer Dud but Its Potential Is Good

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI)—CBS-TV chipped into the monotonous slab of daytime programming yesterday with "On the Go," a new daily that packs a good deal of potential.

★ ★ ★

The half hour series will siphon its material out of the nation-at-large, wheeling its crew around in a specially-equipped bus and shooting people and places on videotape.

It's an intriguing idea and a welcome respite from the sludgy mash of filmed reruns, limp musical lumps and driveling audience participation shows that clog TV's drainpipes all day long.

Linkletter dropped into an assortment of California rookeries — a swimming school, the farmer's market, a night club — and trotted out such fragments as a 79-year-old swimmer, a Hawaiian singer and a gentleman who constructed cakes around champagne bottles.

All of this was somewhat less interesting than, say, a plumber's supply catalog. And Linkletter complicated matters a bit by playing the TV emcee — that is, shuttling between euphoria and hysteria.

SHORT SHOTS: Jack Sterling, substituting for Arthur Godfrey on CBS-TV yesterday morning, certainly raised the musical level of daytime TV a couple of notches.

Neville Brand in the role of Al Capone copped acting honors for the evening on part two of "The Untouchables" on CBS-TV's Desilu Playhouse.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: There's talk that Peter Lind Hayes, whose daytime ABC-TV show recently folded, will have a nighttime show on ABC-TV next fall opposite NBC-TV's Jack Paar.

At the request of the State Department, CBS-TV's Ed Sullivan will take a troupe of performers to Russia for an engagement at the Moscow Trades Fair Aug. 3-24.

Drop Fraud Charges Against Canadian

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Fraud charges against a Canadian in connection with an alleged puzzle contest conspiracy were dismissed yesterday. The same charges are to be dismissed in Detroit.

On motion of the government the charges against Lawrence A. Dyson, 32, a Canadian, were thrown out. Dyson was one of 12 men charged with defrauding newspapers in puzzle contests.

Chief Assistant U.S. Attorney George Woods of Detroit said the Philadelphia charges were dropped at his recommendation because of lack of jurisdiction. Woods said the Detroit charges against Dyson also will be dropped.

Doctors Cite 'Disorder' in Housewife's Slayer

FLINT (AP) — Two psychiatrists testified yesterday that 15-year-old Gerald Carlson, slayer of a young housewife neighbor, has a character "disorder" though he is not mentally ill.

Probate Court is holding a hearing for the 274-pound high school boy who fatally beat and slashed Mrs. Patricia Dixon, 24, mother of three children, in her home April 14.

The court hearing is to determine whether Gerald must face trial for murder as an adult.

Testimony was received from Dr. Adolph T. Rehn, superintendent of the Lapeer State Home and Training School, and Dr. R. A. Jarsma of Flint. Both said they were unable to get a motive from Gerald for the slaying.

Both experts said Gerald lacked respect for social custom. Dr. Rehn described him as dangerous.

Sometimes a man has three different incomes — the one he gets, the one he tells friends he gets, and the one he tells the government he gets . . . When a woman says she's dressing and won't be a minute — you can be sure she's right. —Earl Wilson.

Birds Returning North Again

Feathered Friends Busy Building Nest for Summer Stay

Land birds again flash through garden and orchard, the males defending their territory and attracting mates by song. Nest building usually is left to the females, and for most birds this job takes about six days.

Fewer birds may be seen and heard this season. Ornithologists have concluded, after a year-long survey, that eastern garden birds suffered severe losses in 1958.

However, nature takes its own perils into account. Most birds of passage raise enough young to compensate for losses and leave at least one pair to carry on reproduction.

In general, the migrants produce large sets of eggs; some brood more than once a season.

Were it not for calamity, these fruitful birds would soon exceed the earth's bounty. A single pair of robins, if all progeny survived, could produce some 19,500,000 descendants in 10 years.

Significantly only four or five species of North American birds have vanished into extinction since the continent was colonized. One of these, the passenger pigeon, laid only a single egg.

Barometer for Nation's Economy

Welfare Rolls Hold Steady

By CONRAD FINK
Associated Press Writer

State and county relief rolls, long a barometer for general economic conditions, are generally holding steady throughout the nation.

An Associated Press survey indicates that with a few exceptions there have been no large increases or decreases in recent months in the number of persons depending upon welfare agencies for existence.

Kentucky, with its chronic coal field unemployment, is an exception. Louisville alone dropped 3,600 families from relief rolls in April because funds ran out.

Michigan, a state with big financial as well as unemployment problems, shows signs of having difficulty meeting welfare obligations.

Detroit, with 16,000 families on relief and an annual welfare budget of eight million dollars, ran out of money last January. The state has been picking up the tab.

Highly industrialized Genesee County, 60 miles north of Detroit, is paying out about $250,000 a month in relief and debating new taxation to make an additional $1,200,000 available annually.

Helen Smith, welfare director of rural Antrim County, 200 miles northwest of Detroit, characterizes the effort to reduce welfare rolls.

She advised relief recipients: All able bodied persons will be dropped; drinkers are barred. Every family is expected to grow a vegetable garden to supplement relief.

Welfare officials cut payments 15 per cent and requested additional funds to add to the relief appropriation of $5,698,902. The 1958 appropriation was $4,357,902.

Texas with 191,500 unemployed in February reported no large change in relief rolls. However, more persons are receiving surplus commodities this year than last — 143,283 in March 1959, as compared to 111,283 in March 1958.

In the far West, the San Francisco County Public Welfare Department said, "There's nothing unusual going on in California."

Denver officials reported the monthly average of general assistance cases this year at 1,078. Last year it was 1,076.

Windmills Dwindling

AMSTERDAM (AP) — Holland is down to about 1,000 windmills — 400 fewer than prewar—and about half of those remaining are idle. The working ones, reports the Dutch Windmill Society in a booklet urging their preservation, operate drainage pumps and grist mills. The windmill, it notes, is not native to Holland; it originated in Persia or Arabia.

Twin Youngsters Make a Startling Discovery

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Five-year-old Patrick and Dennis McBride, who have become accustomed to being called "the twins," made a startling discovery at kindergarten recently.

★ ★ ★

23 Workers Rescued

MIHORO, Japan (AP)—Twenty-three Japanese construction workers were rescued today after being trapped in a tunnel at a dam construction site for nearly 40 hours. They came out unharmed.

Jordan Purging Reds

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — Jordan's government said today it is stepping up its purge of Reds and voiced hope that "the last Communist cell in Jordan will shortly be liquidated."

Charge Safecrackers Used State Convicts

Clemit Barnes and brothers George and Samuel Altman pleaded guilty in Circuit Court Monday to breaking and entering a feed store where approximately $600 was taken.

The state charged that Samuel Altman, a guard at nearby Lowell Correctional Institution, let prisoners out at night so his brother George and Barnes could use them on safe cracking jobs.

They were convicted last week on another breaking and entering charge involving a theft of $3,000.

Three state convicts pleaded guilty earlier to participating in the operation.

Soviets Take Over British Nuclear Idea

GENEVA (AP)—In an apparent tactical move, the Soviet Union has taken over a British suggestion to end the deadlock on banning nuclear weapon tests by agreement on a limited number of inspections of suspicious disturbances.

★ ★ ★

If the move was aimed at splitting the Western Allies, there was no sign it succeeded. Both the British and U.S. delegations to the three-power talks made clear they are willing to explore the idea.

★ ★ ★

Both insisted, however, that the test suspension program by stages proposed by both Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and President Eisenhower also must be given serious consideration by the conference. Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev already has given it the cold shoulder.

Girl, 11, Kills Her Sister in Pistol Accident

WASHINGTON (AP)—Police said an 11-year-old girl accidentally shot her 9-year-old sister in the forehead Monday night. The wounded child, Darlene Mill, died five hours later.

Urge Mental Group to Lead Crime Fight

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Institute of Mental Health was urged today to take primary responsibility in helping solve the problem of juvenile delinquency.

In an omnibus bill, the House Appropriations Committee gave the institute $60,409,000 for operating expenses during the fiscal year starting July 1. This is $8,025,000 more than President Eisenhower requested.

The problem of juvenile delinquency, the committee said, "is one about which parents, teachers, the courts, civic groups and other organizations have all expressed concern; but there seems to be no coordinated effort to do anything about it and no one group accepts responsibilitty for giving leadership."

The three-tiered, gem-encrusted crown was to have been presented to the Pope after his coronation last November when he received 3,500 pilgrims from the province in northern Italy.

★ ★ ★

The presentation was delayed because ecclesiastic authorities suggested minor changes in design. The pontiff himself suggested others. He asked that the difference in cost be used for charity.

The crown, originally to cost $10,000, was completed for $5,000.
