Faces Mistreatment Charge

AP Wirephoto

Marines to Decide Recruit Abuse Case

PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — More defense testimony was scheduled today in the general court-martial of a Marine sergeant accused of roughing up recruits and accepting payoffs from them.

The court-martial panel—composed of seven Marine officers — was expected to begin deliberating the case against S.Sgt. Ralph Grant later today.

The 26-year-old drill instructor from Racine, Wis., is charged with soliciting and receiving $230 from members of Ohio's Steel Valley recruit platoon. Two charges of assault are also leveled against him.

If convicted on all four specifications, the Korean combat veteran could be sentenced to a dishonorable discharge and 9½ years in prison.

The general courts-martial of Sgt. Willard B. Poss of Augusta, Ga., and Sgt. Ronald J. Heller of Milwaukee, Wis., will follow Grant's military trial.

★ ★ ★

Poss, like Grant, is accused of assault and with soliciting a $690 sergeants' kitty made up of $10 donations from each of the 69 recruits in the platoon.

Heller, the third drill instructor in the Buckeye platoon, is accused only of assault.

Grant's defense attorneys sought to show Monday that the uproar over treatment handed out to the Ohio recruits at this Marine training center was stirred up mainly by some of their parents.

★ ★ ★

That contention hinged on admissions by some of the witnesses that they had given sworn statements harmful to Grant only after prolonged discussions with their parents.

Alaska Will Be State Officially This Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — Alaska will be proclaimed the 49th state and a new design for the American flag will be announced by the end of the week.

★ ★ ★

Alaskans arranged hurriedly for a solemn observance for their territory's admission after the White House announced that President Eisenhower would issue the statehood proclamation sometime this week.

★ ★ ★

Hagerty said the proclamation will be accompanied by an executive order redesigning the Stars and Stripes for the addition of the new state.

News Flash

TORONTO (AP) — Three Americans, one reported sought on a charge of robbing a South Carolina bank of $29,000 last Wednesday, were arrested in downtown Toronto early today after they apparently squabbled and became involved in a gunfight.

Two of the men were said to be Detroit taxi drivers.

Police declined to give details of the case, saying they were not ready to "release the story."

Appointed

DONALD M. FRANCIS

Irons Appoints Undersheriff

Donald M. Francis Is Selected to Succeed Elmer L. McQuern

Oakland County Sheriff Frank W. Irons today announced the appointment of Donald M. Francis as undersheriff, effective midnight tomorrow.

Retiring after 22 years with the department is Elmer L. McQuern, 65, who was appointed undersheriff in January, 1955. He served as a full-time law enforcer since 1936, under eight different sheriffs.

McQuern was honored last night at a farewell party given him by members of the department. His immediate plans call for a well-earned vacation in Florida, which he plans to embark on next week.

Francis, 55, entered the Sheriff's Department in February, 1942. He was promoted from the uniformed division to the detective bureau in January, 1946.

In June of that year he resigned from the department to accept a position as Oxford police chief, a position he held until 1948 when he rejoined the department as a uniformed deputy.

Francis again was promoted to the detective bureau in 1955 when Irons took office.

Francis and his wife, Bernice, live at 86 Dennison St., Oxford. They have four boys and five girls.

A native of Oakland County, Francis was born and raised on a 25-acre farm in Oxford Township. He is an active Mason.

Broomfield Heading Back to Fight 'Waste' Spending

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL Jr.

Oakland County Congressman William S. Broomfield will head for Washington Friday to start his sophomore term on Capitol Hill and Round 2 in his fight to trim federal spending.

Broomfield took time out from his packing yesterday to gaze into his congressional crystal ball. He came up with a year-ahead preview and the opinion that the 86th session of Congress will be "the most critical in the history of the country."

"The fiscal problem heads the list of issues which will confront us," he said. "The big question is whether to try and hold a balanced program intact or spend without regard to the national deficit."

Bill finished out his first two years as practically the country's lone voice in the halls of Congress protesting unnecessary federal spending.

He was responsible for trimming some 300 million dollars in "pork barrel" public works projects, which he said were but "feathers in the caps of certain congressmen's bids for re-election."

The 36-year-old lawmaker from Royal Oak, about to enter upon his 11th year in public office (eight in Lansing), has a 1959 model

Blizzard Rages Through Texas and New Mexico

4 Lives Lost; Hundreds Abandon Cars as Drifts Block Highways

DUMAS, Tex. (AP)—A raging blizzard has buried Albuquerque, New Mexico's largest city, under its heaviest snowfall, stranded thousands of motorists and claimed four lives. Snow continued falling on the Southwest today.

Winds up to 60 miles per hour whipped the snow into drifts of up to six feet, blocking highways across eastern New Mexico, the Panhandle of Texas and into western Oklahoma.

Four hundred motorists — most of them Iowans bound for Pasadena, Calif., and the New Year's Day Rose Bowl football game between Iowa and California—were stranded at Tucumcari in Eastern New Mexico when snowdrifts blocked all roads in the area.

They were housed in the National Guard armory and private homes after all hotels and motels were filled. Twenty inches of snow fell at Conchos Dam, 35 miles north of Tucumcari.

Another 400 motorists remained stranded today in this Texas Panhandle town after the howling blizzard drove a 6-inch snow into drifts six feet deep. Twenty-five persons doubled up in a small cafe and motel at the nearby crossroads hamlet of Four-Way.

1,000 CARS MAROONED

The New Mexico State Police said approximately, 1,000 automobiles were marooned on 18-mile stretch of U.S. Highway 66 about 60 miles east of Albuquerque.

Hundreds of other motorists found shelter in scores of Texas and New Mexico towns.

The 11-inch snowfall that crippled and isolated Albuquerque was the heaviest on record. Thousands of residents were without electricity or transportation as the howling blizzard knocked out power lines and blocked all roads into the city.

Linemen worked through the night to slowly restore service after nearly 30,000 of the city's 68,000 electric meters were knocked out by broken power lines.

★ ★ ★

Snow continued to swirl early today in eastern New Mexico, the Texas Panhandle and western Oklahoma. The U.S. Weather Bureau said another 3 to 4 inches could be expected before the snow tapered off later in the day.

Seek Circuit Court Posts

14 Lawyers File as Candidates

Fourteen Oakland County lawyers, including three incumbent judges, have filed as candidates for the five Circuit Court judgeships to be voted on April 6.

When the Elections Section of the Secretary of State's office in Lansing declared the deadline for filing nominating petitions had passed at 4 p.m., the following had submitted as candidates in the state's Sixth Judicial district:

Incumbent Judges H. Russel Holland, Clark J. Adams, and William J. Beer; Frederick C. Ziem, county prosecutor since 1952; Milton F. Cooney, Pontiac attorney; Theodore F. Hughes, of Berkley, former state representative.

Others were Maurice A. Merritt and Stanton G. Dondero, both of Royal Oak; James Renfrew, Huntington Woods justice of the peace; Verne C. Hampton, Circuit Court commissioner since 1937; Ralph F. Finley, Berkley justice of the peace; Wendell Brown, Farmington Township trustee; James C. Allen; former state securities and exchange commissioner; and Maurice E. Finnegan, Pontiac municipal judge.

This was one of the largest fields for a non-partisan judicial election in the county.

It will necessitate a primary on Feb. 16, at which time the 14 candidates will have to be narrowed to 10, two for each of the five judgeships, to be placed on the April 6 general election ballot.

Up for grabs in the judicial balloting, which occurs every six years, are these five six-year,

N.Y. Teamsters to Picket Police

Setting Up Lines Jan. 12 in Drive to Organize City Workers

NEW YORK (AP)—The Teamsters Union, bent on organizing the city's police force, plans to dramatize its drive by daily picketing of police headquarters beginning Jan. 12.

Henry Feinstein, Teamsters official, said the picketing is aimed at Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy.

"We are going to give the commissioner a taste of the economic force and pressure of the Teamster Union," Feinstein said.

"His threat to fire policemen for joining the Teamster Union makes him unfair to our union and to all of organized labor."

Feinstein is leading a nationwide campaign to bring all policemen, firemen and other state, county and municipal workers into the union. The drive was announced last month by Teamsters President James R. Hoffa.

Feinstein said the threatened 40-man picket line would remain outside police headquarters for an indefinite period.

Other picket lines will go up outside police depots and supply stations, Feinstein said, in an effort to cut off deliveries of fuel and other items.

Feinstein, president of Teamsters Local 237, said Kennedy "will freeze in his office."

Commenting on the picket plan, Deputy Police Commissioner Walter Arm, in charge of community relations, said: "Any group has the right to picket peacefully and if pickets are sent to police headquarters, the Police Department will provide police officers to see that the pickets are not interfered with and to preserve order."

Fair and Colder; Cloudy Tomorrow

Fair but colder is the U.S. Weather Bureau's prediction for the Pontiac area tonight. A low of 10-17 is forecast.

Wednesday will be partly cloudy with easterly winds at 10-15 m.p.h. and little change in temperature. Tomorrow's expected high is about 35 degrees.

The outlook for New Year's Day is partly cloudy in most of Michigan, except for a little snow in the Upper Peninsula.

Twenty-two was the lowest recorded temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The thermometer registered 26 at 2 p.m.

Cuban Police Seize, Hold 2 Americans

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Cuban Nationalist policemen stormed aboard an American airplane at Havana Airport Monday and seized two Kentucky school teachers, homeward bound after a Caribbean vacation.

Passengers of the plane said the two seized men had been discussing the Cuban revolution in the Havana Airport shortly before the incident, and that was apparently the reason for the arrest.

The State Department instructed the U.S. Embassy in Havana to inquire into the case.

The teachers were identified as James Reid, 38, and Larry F. Brantley, 22, both faculty members of Waggener High School, Louisville, Ky. Brantley's father said his son and Reid went to Jamaica for a holiday vacation.

"Larry had no interest in Cuban politics beyond what he read in the paper, like anybody else," he said. "He was just traveling through there."

Elma Sebastian, one of three stewardesses on the plane, said the police stormed aboard the craft and seized the men before she realized what was happening.

★ ★ ★

"I was standing at the rear door checking the passengers aboard, she said. "Reed and Brantley were near the middle of the cabin. The plainclothesmen pushed past me.

"They grabbed Reid from his seat, and he said: "What's this for? You can't do this. I'm an American citizen'." she said.

"Then one of the Cuban police said. 'It has something to do with what you said in the terminal'."

Carry Off Stores of Ammunition, Dynamite Rest

Castro Claims Victory; Report Heavy Fighting Near Santa Clara

HAVANA, Cuba — (UPI) Cuban rebels struck into the heart of Havana province today with a daring raid on an explosives depot in which they dynamited the huge stores of ammunition they could not carry away.

The raid on a privately-owned explosives depot at Guanabacao across the bay from Havana followed Rebel claims to have smashed government forces in central and eastern Cuba. The Rebels were boasting they were "at the doors of triumph."

Government sources disputed the sweeping Rebel claims but admitted there was heavy fighting around the city of Santa Clara in central Cuba where the Rebels have claimed major successes in street fighting.

The army said its forces were on the offensive in central Cuba and were driving the Rebels ahead of them despite Rebel propaganda broadcasts to "create unrest."

The blast of the Guanabacao explosives was heard in lower Havana. Police called in all reserves and alerted the 19 precinct stations in the greater Havana area. Roads and airports were blocked off.

First reports said several armed men aboard a six-wheeled truck pulled up in front of the explosives storage of the "Armera de Cuba," importers of explosives, at 6:30

Clarkston to Get New Gas Line

Pipe Part of Consumers Power Plan to Increase Service in County

A new Clarkston pipeline is included in Consumers Power Co. plans for $117,500,000 in improvement and expansion of its electric and natural gas systems in 1959.

Construction of a 24-inch pipeline to Clarkston from Northville, 20 miles away, may be completed by the end of next year, Edward L. Karkau, Pontiac area manager, said.

It will provide the means to supply additional gas to potential customers in Pontiac and such suburban communities as Oxford, Lake Orion, and Avon, Pontiac, Waterford, West Bloomfield and Independence townships, Karkau said.

At Northville, the pipeline will connect into a 121-mile, 26-inch line to be constructed from the Indiana-Michigan border near White Pigeon. At Clarkston, it will end at the regulating station, the terminus for two existing pipelines from Lansing and Manchester.

Karkau said the pipeline is planned to meet the needs of the growing north Oakland County area. He said the amount of natural gas available to the area may be accelerated if Consumers can contract for additional supplies.

Other details of the expansion program were released by Dan E. Karn, Consumers president.

The $117,500,000 was broken down into $56,600,000 for gas projects, $55,900,00 for electric projects and $5,000,000 for miscellaneous construction and expansion.

Karn said his company had a waiting list of 125,000 seeking gas home heating service and that Consumers had contracted for a large additional supply of natural gas from Texas and Louisiana, beginning next October and increasing until 1963.

Consumers supplies gas service to 29 outstate counties and electric service to 61. Combined, the area covers 70 per cent of the Lower Peninsula.

A Near-Tragedy on Telegraph Road

Pontiac Press Photo

25 TONS OF GRAVEL SPILLED IN 4-VEHICLE CRASH — Telegraph and 14½-Mile road was the scene of a near tragedy yesterday when a huge double-bottom gravel truck jack-knifed, struck a State Police car, another auto and overturned on this new station wagon, spilling 25 tons of gravel. Redford Post troopers said it was a miracle no one was injured. The accident occurred as the truck driver, Boone Stone, 45, of Walled Lake, attempted to stop on the slippery pavement to avoid hitting another wrecked auto across the road. State Police said traffic had to be rerouted for two hours while seven wreckers worked to clear the busy highway.

W. ALLEN BOOTH

Finance, Civic Leader Dies

Service for W. A. Booth to Be Held Wednesday in Pontiac

W. Allen Booth, manager of Pontiac Community Finance Co. for 27 years and a civic leader here, died Monday evening at his home, 194 E. Iroquois Rd. He was 75.

Mr. Booth was born in Lima, Ohio. He attended Lima schools and was graduated from Kenyon College.

In 1919, he joined the Wilson Foundry & Machine Co. where he was in charge of industrial relations. Later he entered the employ of American Steel Foundries Co. of Detroit.

When the Pontiac Community Finance Co. was organized in 1927, Booth was selected as manager and secretary-treasurer, a position which he held until he retired in 1954.

He had served as treasurer and director of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce, director of Pontiac Employes Mutual Benefit Assn. and treasurer of the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children.

He also had been director of Oakland County Housing, Inc., and Pontiac Community Loan Co.

A city resident for 40 years, Mr. Booth was a member of First Presbyterian Church, the Pontiac City Club, the Pontiac Rotary Club and Delta Tau Delta.

Besides his wife, Harriet, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Charles F. Libs of Flint.

Service will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Donelson-Johns Funeral Home. Officiating will be Dr. William H. Marbach. The body will be taken to Lima for burial in Woodlawn Cemetery.

City Takes Step to Tighten Curb on Sunday Sales

First step to tighten Blue Law controls in Pontiac is scheduled to be taken by the City Commission tonight.

Up for first reading is an ordinance prohibiting the sale of all but bare essentials on Sunday.

Although some commissioners have indicated they will oppose the ordinance, it is expected they will approve the first reading in order to open up the subject for debate.

Sale of some 28 items is prohibited by the proposed regulations. Not affected are such essentials as food, medicines and gasoline. Nor is the sale of beer and wine.

The movement to crack down on Sunday sales developed after a large downtown Pontiac department store remained open on Sundays before Christmas.

There were only four other minor items of business on tonight's agenda.

GOP Liberals Seek Slate for Senate Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican liberals agreed today to back a slate headed by Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky for the party leadership in the Senate.

In a 2½-hour meeting, eight GOP insurgent senators agreed also to support Sen. Thomas Kuchel of California for whip, or assistant leader.

The group decided not to contest the re-election of Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire as chairman of the GOP Policy Committee and of Sen. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts as chairman of the Conference of all GOP Senators.

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)— Republican liberals seek agreement today on a slate of candidates to challenge conservative colleagues for control of their party's Senate leadership.

With fewer than a dozen of the Senate's 34 Republicans represented, the GOP insurgents showed few signs of agreement on either tactics or personalities in advance of a closed meeting in the office of Sen. George Aiken (R-Vt).

Sen. Prescott Bush (R-Conn), who proposed at a previous session that the group get behind a full leadership slate, said he is offering Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky) as a candidate for the floor leader post vacated by retiring Sen. William Knowland (R-Calif).

★ ★ ★

Cooper said in a separate interview he hasn't canvassed anybody to vote for him, but is willing to run for the job if the group backs him.

Broomfield Returns to Fight Spending plan in his fight in this direction. But it poses a problem.

He said he believes one way to cut federal expenditures is to send many projects — "not in the realm of federal responsibility" — back to the states.

Broomfield looked at the crippled treasury of his own state and agreed this poses a problem, too. He said the state and others will have to cut back and learn "to live within their needs."

★ ★ ★

"If we can get more of our government back home, in the long run we will be saving money," he said.

Broomfield mentioned the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) as an example of where he believed the states should assume more fiscal responsibility.

A further problem pops out of his suggestion on saving. Broomfield, like his fellow congressmen, realize it is rather difficult to cut spending in Washington and still win the projects for his constituents, which eventually put a drain on federal funds.

"All of us in Washington have to watch the dividing line between what absolutely is necessary to meet the needs of our growing country, and what amounts to unnecessary bills," he remarked.

Broomfield, who begins his second term Jan. 7 at swearing-in ceremonies, listed several measures he said he will push for. These included:

1. A plan to place the full faith and credit of the federal government behind municipal and county public works bond issues.

2. New postal facilities for county communities — Southfield, Rochester and Wixom, to name a few.

3. Raising the ceiling of what persons can earn and yet not jeopardize social security benefits. He said the present level is "unrealistic in the light of the high cost of living."

4. A bill to make it a federal offense to participate in the bombings of churches or synagogues.

5. A bill to allow the President select veto power on appropriation bills, and one to outlaw voting proxies on all congressional committees. These will be reintroduced from last year.

Broomfield promised he would watch closely measures providing funds for the Pontiac Municipal Airport, urban renewal funds for Pontiac and Royal Oak Township, and those creating highway appropriations.

The congressman will have company during the coming session. His wife, Jane, daughters, Susan, 16, Nancy, 5, and Barbara, 1, will fly to Washington later next month to set up home in Kensington, Md. Last year Broomfield commuted between Royal Oak and Washington.

The critical nature of the coming session, which has seen the Republican ranks dwindled since the November Democratic sweep, will be enlivened due to the coming 1960 presidential election, Broomfield predicted.

"They'll be playing politics more than ever," he mused.

Besides scrutinizing the federal budget, the young congressman from Oakland said top billing should be given a second attempt to pass a labor reform bill. Politics was blamed for killing the last one.

He said he would look into many complaints from citizens about the federal excise tax on telephone service. He predicted something might come up again on the issue of the excise tax on autos.

Broomfield cited some of the "extravagant expenditures" of the federal government which he deemed unnecessary.

★ ★ ★

"They bought a hotel for four million dollars to be used by congressmen during renovation of present quarters and found out after buying it that the floors were so old they wouldn't hold the weight," Broomfield said.

Sound waves move four miles a second through steel and only about one mile a second in fresh water.

Square Dancing Classes Will Start on Jan. 7

The Parks and Recreation Department announced that advanced square dancing classes will begin at 7:30 p.m. Jan. 7 at Malkim School. They are for persons already familiar with the basic steps, said John A. Streit, assistant director.

For the eight-week session, there will be a fee of $2 per couple for Pontiac residents and $4 per couple for non-residents.

Cuban Rebels Claim Smashing Victory

a. m. and with the aid of two of the three soldiers on guard loaded the vehicle.

They tied up a civilian watchman and the third soldier and dynamited what explosives were left.

Police established roadblocks in the area, adjacent to the Hebrew cemetery in Guanabacao, and also put a special guard at the private airport in nearby Bacuranao. Roads leading out of Havana also were placed under vigilance, particularly the central highway leading to Pinar Del Rio province at the western end of the island.

It was the second Rebel-authored incident of sabotage in Havana province in 12 hours. A small bridge was blown last night at Guira de Malana.

At the same time a new radio station which identified itself as the "Voice of the Communist Party" appealed to all workers and members of the party to join forces against the "last stand of the dictator" President Fulgencio Batista.

Rebel radio broadcasts said insurgent forces had captured 80 per cent of the rich farming province of Las Villas in central Cuba in a major Rebel victory that would cut the island almost in two and seal off Havana from its food supplies.

Other broadcasts reported sweeping victories in Oriente Province, the center of Rebel activity in Easternmost Cuba. Rebel radios said the army was on the run

The government bombed the Rebels relentlessly in around-the-clock bombing and strafing attacks in perhaps the heaviest fighting of the Fidel Castro-led revolution, but heavy street fighting was reported underway in Santa Clara, the capital of Las Villas Province, 160 miles east of Havana.

Santa Clara, a city of 150,000 is one of the principal communication centers of Cuba. It controls all main north-south and east-west railroads and highways and supplies Havana with much of its meat, sugar, coffee and tobacco. Already a meat shortage was reported in Havana.

A Rebel broadcast said their troops smashed through government lines to enter the city of Santa Clara and capture the University of Santa Clara three miles from the city limits.

regular terms, one six-months short term for the fifth judgeship, and another shorter term to fill out the unexpired term of the late Judge George B. Hartrick.

Cooney and Hughes submitted petitions for the short term. Only Judge Beer turned in petitions as a candidate for the vacancy. He was appointed by Gov. Williams to take Judge Hartrick's place until the 1959 election.

Cooney, Hughes, and Judge Beer also filed as candidates for the regular full terms.

Mrs. Mabel M. Child, county election clerk, said as far as she could determine now the primary run-off would be necessary for only the five regular terms, since there are no contests in the two other races.

She said she would confer with the three-member Election Commission to determine if these two races would go on the Feb. 16 ballots anyway.

Missing among the incumbent judges is Judge Frank L. Doty who cannot by law seek re-election because of his age.

There was a total of 144 candidates for Circuit Court judgeships throughout the state filed by yesterday. Twenty-eight of the aspirants submitted their papers in the final hours before the deadline.

The spring election will see 81 circuit judges chosen for six-year terms in 41 circuits by non-partisan balloting.

It will mark the first time county voters have selected a fifth and new judge for the local bench. The new post was approved by the Legislature and governor this year.

Lawmakers of the county strived for several years to achieve this goal to lessen the case load per judge in the county, considered the heaviest of the judicial circuits.

The 1959 election represents also the first regular election at which the fourth judgeship, now occupied by Judge Adams, is being voted on.

Michigan Teacher Killed in Car Crash

CHICAGO (AP) — A sports car which police said was traveling 80 m.p.h. collided head-on with another auto early today on the far northwest side, killing two persons and seriously injuring six others.

The impact of the collision split the small sports car in half and overturned the other vehicle, a station wagon.

Police identified the dead as Miss Janice Marston, 22, a school teacher of East Lansing, Mich. and Lee Sterrett, 18, of suburban Park Ridge, a Northwestern University student.

Police said Miss Marston was driving with Pvt. James J. Speer, of Park Ridge, home on leave from Ft. Ord, Calif. They said she was a house guest of the Speer family. Speer was injured.

Deadline Near for Young Man of Year Entries

Deadline for the Outstanding Young Man of the Year contest is a week from tomorrow.

Civic organizations must have submitted nominations by that date to the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce, said W. B. Neal, contest chairman.

Candidates must be 35 years of age, or younger, and will be judged on the basis of community service.

The winner will be given the Jaycee Distinguished Service Award. He will be named at the annual Bosses Night banquet to be sponsored by Jaycees Jan. 14 at Elks Temple.

Last year's winner was Dr. Lynn Allen Jr., a Pontiac optometrist.

Bagley and Wessen 'Off Limits'

Continue Vice Crackdown

Customers of vice were warned today that the intersection of Bagley and Wessen streets is "off limits" to them.

The warning came from Detective Richard G. Evans, head of the Pontiac vice squad, as officers continued a strict policy of vice suppression in the city.

★ ★ ★

Eight persons were arrested at the Bagley-Wessen corner Saturday night. All were accused of seeking prostitutes or attempting to make an illegal purchase of liquor.

Evans said police officers in plainclothes are stationed throughout the area, and will bring in anyone who asks them where they can find prostitutes or buy liquor illegally.

The arrests are made under a city ordinance which forbids such soliciting, Evans said.

Two persons arrested for soliciting the illegal sale of liquor pleaded guilty before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum yesterday and were fined $50 and two days in the Oakland County Jail.

They were James Elliott, 56, of 251 Raeburn St., and Edward Pitts, 52, of 258 Elm St.

Two others pleaded guilty before Judge McCallum to soliciting an immoral act. They will be sentenced Jan. 2. Out on $50 bond each are James F. McGuire, 19, of Birmingham, and Edward Conway, 20, of Livonia.

★ ★ ★

Four others pleaded not guilty before Judge McCallum to soliciting an immoral act. They were John Alvaredo, 21, of 77 Osmun St.; Gilbert Hernandez, 20, of 322 Central St.; Jimmie L. Hatley, 17, and Randall Taylor, 17, both of Keego Harbor.

★ ★ ★

Bond for Alvaredo and Hernandez, whose trial date is Jan. 7, was set at $500 each. For the Keego Harbor youths, who will be tried the following day, bond was set at $100.

Anyone convicted under the city ordinance which prohibits soliciting faces a jail sentence, Judge McCallum said.

Many of the persons arrested for soliciting are out-of-towners, Evans noted.

He disclosed that since Public Safety Director George D. Eastman announced a strict policy of enforcement against vice on Nov. 27, 105 arrests have been made by vice squad officers.

Seventy-three persons have been arrested on gambling charges, 15 for soliciting acts of prostitution, 11 for soliciting illegal liquor sales, two for soliciting the purchase of narcotics, and one for aiding and abetting an illegal liquor sale.

One arrest has been made for carrying a concealed weapon, one for possession of an unregistered gun, and one for possession of numbers slips.

The Day in Birmingham

Approve Skowron Post; Up Traffic Court Costs

BIRMINGHAM — City commissioners last night approved the appointment of Wesley J. Skowron as warrant officer and gave motorists an added incentive for good behavior and prompt payment of fines. An additional $2 was added to the present $3 "court costs."

★ ★ ★

Court costs are added to the regular amount if fines are not paid prior to the warrant officer's receiving the ticket. Motorists have three days in which to pay fines before two reminder notices spaced a week apart are mailed.

★ ★ ★

The warrant officer enters the picture at the end of the second week.

The appropriations of $3,144 was approved for the publication of the revised fire ordinance.

Commissioners also approved a $2,000 sum for the DPW to repair water gates and hydrants.

A traffic study was requested at these high accident intersections: Pierce and Brown streets, Oak street and Woodward avenue, and Baldwin and W. Maple avenues.

Fire destroyed most of the interior and some furnishings of a $35,000 model home at 6952 Sandalwood Dr., Bloomfield Township, yesterday afternoon.

Firemen said the blaze apparently started when a cooking utensil was left on an electric stove. They believe that the metal melted, flowing into a control panel which started the blaze.

The house is owned by the Starfire Building Co. of Detroit. No estimate of damages to the house yet has been made by firemen or the owner.

Firemen from the township, Bloomfield Hills, and Franklin Village fought the blaze for over an hour.

They reported the central portion of the structure as being gutted by flames while the bedrooms escaped with smoke and water damage only.

An unidentified man passing the uninhabited house noticed the fire in the living room and turned in the alarm, firemen said.

Co-sponsored by the Birmingham Community House and Recreation Board, the third annual New Year's Eve dance will be held at the house tomorrow, beginning at 10 p.m.

Baldwin Public Library will close at 5 p.m. tomorrow instead of observing the customary evening hours. Miss Jeanne Lloyd, librarian said regular hours will be resumed Friday.

Milford Father of 3 Dies From Injuries

A Milford father of three died this morning in St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor, from injuries received in an auto accident six miles west of Ann Arbor, Dec. 17.

Noble Ashley Jr., 44, of 555 Sunset Dr., was the third person fatally injured in the two-car crash on sleet-covered U.S. 112.

His mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary E. Cogger, 75, of 1120 Maple Height Rd., Commerce Township, a passenger in the car with Ashley, and Angeline M. Merkel, 31, of Chelsea, the driver of the second car, were killed instantly.

Ashley's wife, Dorothy, 45, and daughters, Barbara, 17, and Nancy, 10, have been released from Ann Arbor hospitals.

Herbert Cogger, 79, Ashley's father-in-law, who was driving the auto, is still in the University Hospital.

A civil enginer, Ashley was employed by the Oakland County Road Commission.

Incumbents Assured of Nomination

3 Waterford Dems Unopposed

Democratic incumbents in three top Waterford Township posts were unopposed today as a battle loomed in the Republican primary.

Supervisor Elmer R. Johnson, Clerk James E. Seeterlin and Treasurer Mrs. Dorothy Olson were assured of nomination without the necessity of a primary runoff on election day, Feb. 16.

But by yesterday's deadline, three Republicans had filed for supervisor, two for clerk and one for treasurer.

★ ★ ★

Challenging Richard D. Kuhn, who's seeking the supervisor's nomination for a second time, are two candidates with the same last name as the township's popular Lloyd L. Anderson, former supervisor and present state representative. They are Loren Anderson and William R. Anderson.

★ ★ ★

Gerald W. Nienstedt and Richard G. Hamilton both filed for clerk on the Republican ticket and also face a primary runoff. Mrs. Florence Allen is unopposed for nomination as treasurer.

Six Republicans and eight Democrats are entered in the race for nomination for the three township trustee positions.

Republicans are Donald E. Taylor, Gerald E. Zubalik, Charles F. Shotwell, Dr. M. G. Prosser, Byron Cole and David Hertler.

Democrats are William Morrissey, John E. Verhey, Lewis B. Ruelle, Joseph McGee, John Coleman, Lewis G. Bromm, Charles E. Evans and Robert M. Wheeler.

Incumbent Donald E. Adams, a Democrat, faces no opposition from either party in his bid for re-election as justice of the peace.

Republicans Willard Johnson, Ray R. Peterson, Clayton Tibbals, Wilfred Mitchell and Newton S. Dempsey filed for seats on the township committee; incumbent Lloyd Gidley filed for constable, and Newton Dempsey filed for Board of Review.

Democrats Fred V. Haggard, Adams and Patrick Daly filed for the township committee; Gerald Carter, Arlo G. Flesher, Floyd A. Tonkin and Howard H. Somerville filed for constable, and Robert Chapin filed for Board of Review.

Tanker in Distress Off Maryland Coast

'African Queen' Breaks Up

OCEAN CITY, Md. (A)— The Liberian tanker African Queen broke in half in shallow water 10 miles off shore today and 25 of her 47 man crew were seen, gathered on the stern section, by a Coast Guard plane.

★ ★ ★

The Coast Guard in New York said both sections of the 13,800-ton tanker were aground.

The whereabouts of the rest of the crew and of the captain, Kia Danielsen of Norway, was not immediately known.

★ ★ ★

The African Queen, bound from Columbia to Paulsboro, N.J., with a cargo of crude oil, first radioed just before dawn that she was breaking in half but was in no danger.

★ ★ ★

About 8 a.m. she sent an SOS, and the Coast Guard dispatched planes and three cutters from its Cape Maj, N.J., station.

The 590-foot ship was built in Kiel, Germany, in 1955 and is owned by African Enterprises, Ltd.

Child Neglect Hit by Phillips

Congressman Accuses Coldwater Home Head of Taking 'Easy Out'

DETROIT (AP)—State Rep. Harry J. Phillips (R-Port Huron) takes issue with Supt. E. J. Rennell over the cause of troubles at the Coldwater State Home and Training School.

"That's the easy way out," Phillips commented yesterday on Dr. Rennell's complaint of insufficient attendant personnel at the institution.

Phillips is chairman of a special house committee of the Legislature appointed to look into practices and policies of the Coldwater school. The committee is to report to the new Legislature convening Jan. 14.

A complaint was heard yesterday from the parents of a third child who had been brought home for the holidays from the school.

Grady Shellie, unemployed factory worker, said his daughter, Denise, 9, showed signs of neglect when she was brought home for Thanksgiving day.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Rennell has scoffed at complaints that the children might have been injured by school attendants. He said corporal punishment is strictly forbidden and that the children probably were harmed only in rough play among themselves. He said the school has too few attendants to care for all the inmates.

Romney Expects 6 Million Cars

Forecast Doesn't Allow for Strikes, Outside Controls or Events

DETROIT (AP) — George Romney predicts a sales year of 6 million cars for 1959 barring "crippling strikes, excessive monetary and credit control, and adverse international developments."

The president of American Motors Corp. also says the market for the small or compact car for 1959 should be one million or more as against about 600,000 this year.

Romney made the forecasts in an "Outlook for 1959" statement. Emphasizing the role of the smaller car, Romney aid the entire U.S. automobile market will rise "importantly" in 1959 and "the greatest growth by far will be in the small and compact car areas."

He said this is a "revolutionary trend" and that it will continue "until by some time before the end of the 1960s more than half of all the cars sold in this country will be small or compact."

Romney said American Motors expects sales of its Rambler and Metropolitan cars to account for about six per cent of the total car market and about 36 per cent of the small and compact car market in 1959.

Four Teenagers Dead as Result of Crash

THREE RIVERS (UPI) — Two brothers were killed instantly and two teenage girls died today from injuries they received in a one-car accident on an icy rural road last night.

Killed instantly when their car went out of control and hit a tree in Lockport Township about four miles northeast of here were William Garvey, 16, and his brother, Patrick, 15.

Diane Rollins, 16, died shortly after midnight in Three Rivers Hospital while Bonnie Lott, also 16, died about 11 a. m. today.

Wreck Polaris Shortly After Good Launching

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A sleek Polaris test rocket roared off to a beautiful start today but was blown up minutes later when it drifted off course.

It was the third time in a row that a Polaris was destroyed after launching.

★ ★ ★

The temperamental two-stage missile blasted straight up at 9:58 a.m. The two stages of the missile separated as planned and Polaris appeared to be on the way.

However, 15 minutes after the spectacular blast off the Navy announced that the range safety officer destroyed the missile when it deviated from its planned trajectory.

The League of Nations was founded Jan. 10, 1920, and dissolved Jan. 10, 1946.

Cadillac

New Incentive for Forty Million Dreamers!

If you could look into the dreams of America's motorists—you would behold more than forty million beautiful Cadillac cars.

That, at least, is the number of people who—according to authoritative estimates—hope someday to own and drive the "car of cars".

And what a thrilling incentive Cadillac has placed before them during 1959!

There's new temptation in its every graceful line. From the jewel-like brilliance of its new grille to the sweep of its new rear fenders, it is a symphony of line and contour.

Cadillac's luxurious new Fleetwood interiors are an eloquent invitation to ownership all in themselves. Beautiful, spacious and perfectly appointed, they are as enchanting to behold as they are delightful to ride in.

And yet, it is on the highway that Cadillac's winning ways are at their brilliant best. The car rides with an incredible smoothness and steadiness and quietness . . . and handling ease is so marvelous that even parking now becomes downright pleasure!

So if you count yourself among the forty million who have lost their hearts to Cadillac—this is the year to say "yes" to your dreams.

From a standpoint of beauty, or luxury, of comfort, or performance or value—this is simply Cadillac's finest!

We suggest you visit your dealer soon—take the wheel for yourself—and learn the story of each of Cadillac's thirteen new models.

We know you will find a personal appraisal and demonstration to be a rewarding experience.

Hurricane Is Nature's Most Lethal Force

The word "hurricane" comes from a Carib Indian word meaning big wind. It is used to describe any tropical storm with winds of seventy-five miles an hour or more.

In India they are called cyclones, meaning circles of wind. In the Pacific they are called typhoons. No matter what you call them, they are Nature's most lethal weapon. Man has been trying to learn how best to cope with them since Columbus' time.

★ ★ ★

Fortunately, Columbus did not encounter such a storm on his first trip to the New World. If he had, he might never have returned. In 1494, however, he lost three ships out of his small fleet in one of these storms.

★ ★ ★

It long was believed that hurricanes were great masses of air moving at high velocity in a straight line, but in 1821 WILLIAM REDFIELD discovered they were huge whirlwinds. The son of a sailor, turned peddler, he observed the path cut by a hurricane as it traveled across the country.

He noted that for over a hundred miles all the trees were blown down and lying in the same direction. Further on, all the trees were lying in the opposite direction. After talking with the victims, he realized it had been a huge circular storm. He devoted the rest of his life to a study of hurricanes and finally published his Law of Storms.

★ ★ ★

He held that all hurricanes are giant whirlwinds that blow about an axis in spirals, blowing counter clockwise north of the equator. The velocity of rotation increases from the outer edge toward the center of the storm, and the whole body of air also has a forward motion.

★ ★ ★

He declared that such storms in the Atlantic Ocean all start in the equatorial regions of the West Indies and move northwest to approximately the thirtieth degree of latitude. Then they curve northeast and parallel the American coast. They may reach one thousand miles in diameter and may travel three thousand miles.

In 1854, during the Crimean War, the French and British lost many ships in a storm, after which NAPOLEON III of France set up the first organized attempt to map the weather. The newly invented telegraph aided in this effort.

★ ★ ★

In 1870 Congress set up an American weather service. Then came the war with Spain in 1898. It was vitally important for us to find some way to warn our ships of these great storm dangers in the West Indies. A string of bases was set up in the islands with the cooperation of the British and French. The wireless telegraph, just invented, helped materially.

Soon, however, these reports were so promptly broadcast that ships fled from any area menaced by a hurricane. So little more was learned about them through shipping. Then in 1943 came the big break. Man found he could fly an airplane through a hurricane and thus study it at first hand.

Scientists now hold that hurricanes originate from small tropical disturbances which occur frequently each year in tropical waters. Only a few develop into full grown hurricanes, when wind and moisture conditions set the exact stage needed. It is possible to predict their exact course in advance. Thus constant tracking by planes is required.

★ ★ ★

Man has not yet learned to control these storms, but he has learned how to provide advance warnings, so loss of life has been greatly reduced.

★ ★ ★

Once we have learned to control a space satellite and can use it for forecasting, we may learn the details we still do not know about hurricanes. This is one field out of many in which information learned through satellites may prove helpful.

Information Exchange Asked by Health Group

By unanimous vote the U.N. General Assembly has invited the World Health Organization (WHO) to carry out plans for an International Health and Medical Research year in 1961.

★ ★ ★

WHO is chiefly responsible for coordinating programs, supporting research and providing personnel. In 10 years it has made spectacular gains against malaria, tuberculosis, yaws and other diseases. For instance, in 1957 there were 200 million cases of malaria the world over (144 in the United States, mostly imported) with only one per cent resulting in deaths. On a worldwide basis the nations themselves meet two-thirds of the total costs.

★ ★ ★

The goal of the plan for a research year along the lines of the International Geophysical Year just ending, is better co-ordination of national efforts, in fields where international operation is necessary, and exchange of medical knowledge and research.

In his State of the Union Message last January, President Eisenhower stressed the need for such international co-operation as an instrument of peace. Legislation to implement our part of the program will come up in the next session of Congress.

★ ★ ★

Such exchanges could not hurt any country and would help to break down barriers of suspicion and distrust.

"If We Balance This It'll Bring Vaudeville Back"

David Lawrence Says:

Europe Economy Plan Important

LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — People sometimes complain that the run of the news in the world is pessimistic or unfavorable and that certainly there must be some good news somewhere. Today there is news of a decidedly encouraging nature, but it will not be so obvious to the average reader because it happens to concern the complexities of international finance.

★ ★ ★

When, as was made effective this week, the British pound sterling is freed from some of the restrictions by which it is exchanged with the currencies of many of the countries of Western Europe as well as with the United States and Canada, it is an event of transcendent importance.

When also, as has just been announced, the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund together increase their loanable funds by 15 billion dollars, it's like launching a powerful missile on the economic front of the "cold war."

Not only does all this mean increased opportunities for exports and imports all around, but the very fact that several nations in Europe are to come together in what is called a "common market" to reduce trade barriers and tariffs is in itself a milestone on the road of recovery from the effects of World War II.

The Western European nations now feel strong enough to promote what ultimately will become a single economic unit patterned after this country. The idea of a "United States of Europe" has long been advocated as one way to strengthen the economy of smaller countries which cannot go it alone.

★ ★ ★

The biggest significance, therefore, attaches to the fact that Western Europe is able now to initiate economic and currency reforms. This represents a triumph for those officials in the Truman and Eisenhower administrations and those members of both parties in Congress who have insisted ever since the close of World War II that Europe could be put on her feet only through continued aid by the United States, symbolized by the Marshall Plan of 1947. The policy has proved successful.

★ ★ ★

Those of us who remember the failure of the United States after World War I to recognize that the seeds of a future war were being sown in the economic and financial chaos that enveloped Central and Western Europe now see a point of view vindicated as essential steps are being taken to prevent a third world war.

For the strengthening of the economy of Western Europe has far more than just material implications. It means that the bulwark against a third world war has been strengthened. A stronger economy in the whole of Western Europe gives the Soviet Union a rival in every sense.

★ ★ ★

It means that there are 165,000,000 persons banded together in Western Europe who have the skill and the know-how and the financial resources to increase their productive capacity and to improve their own standard of living through wider trade relationships with other countries.

The Country Parson

"We prevent a child from putting poison in his stomach — and then poison his mind with our prejudices."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Coronary Attacks Typical of Sedentary Modern Life

The coronary arteries, right and left, branch off from the great artery (aorta) and carry freshly oxygenated blood to the right and left sides of the heart, to the heart muscle. Not only our knowledge of coronary disease (coronary occlusion, thrombosis, etc.) but, I believe, the disease itself is largely a 20th Century matter.

DR. BRADY

Speed, haste, hurry, excessive busy-ness and impatience are typical American traits that have developed to a pathological degree since Americans quit walking. We quit walking when we gave up the horse-and-buggy and the bicycle for a vehicle which moves us about while we loll on our ischial tuberosities.

All of this busy-ness makes it imperative for us to RELAX, so we have to go farther away and faster than the Joneses to do it when we have a holiday, or else use enough alcohol and other narcotics to dull the sense of fatigue, strain or tension and enjoy for an hour or so an imitation of peace of mind. That's what so-called tranquilizers, now arriving by the carload, purport to do for the defectives who resort to them.

In India, Drs. Malhotra and Pathania reported in British Medical Journal last February, vegetarians living on a low fat diet are as frequently subject to coronary disease as Americans living on a mixed high fat diet. Furthermore, one-half of the patients with coronary diseases are Sikhs, whose religion forbids smoking. The Sikhs are no less subject to coronary disease than Hindus, whose religion does not proscribe smoking.

As in Western countries, the Indian physicians observed, persons leading a "chairborne" life showed a higher incidence than those earning their living by honest — I mean hard—work.

Here I am reminded once again — please excuse my chuckle — of the lady's two old bachelor brothers who employ a "clinic" racketeer in preference to a physician who practices under his own name. When the lady serves choice cuts of meat the two fatheads carefully dissect it, removing every visible trace of fat, because the trick specialist has told them beef fat contains cholesterol which is "deposited" in the arteries, etc. etc. etc.

If you are interested in the prevention of coronary disease let me suggest as a preliminary study Cannon's Bodily Changes in Pain, Hunger, Fear and Rage (Appleton). I suggest that you walk (don't ride) to the public library and get your name on the waiting list — or you might be lucky enough to find a copy gathering dust in the back shelves of a bookstore.

'Why Not Spread Things Around?'

Why is it all the organizations give their Christmas food and clothing baskets to the same families? My family is on welfare, and the children don't even have winter coats. Some days between welfare orders I've fed them bread and milk twice a day. Then I watched our neighbor, also on welfare and ADC, receive food and clothing from three different organizations. Why don't the organizations get together and avoid this mistake?

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Offers Shortcut to Bottle Feedings

Rita certainly has my full sympathy for when the first baby arrived in the Crane household, we had an old bachelor pediatrician who was a "book" doctor. He had no "horse sense" and deliberately complicated the simple job of caring for a new baby. We later used "horse sense" with the next four, and it was a snap.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case A-414: Rita R., aged 24, is the mother of a three-months-old baby.

★ ★ ★

"Dr. Crane, I get very little done except tend the baby," she protested in dismay.

DR. CRANE

"For it has been a feeding problem. We now have it on a four-hour schedule, with orange juice offered in between.

"But that means I must sterilize five big bottles just for the milk alone, not counting one or two more bottles for orange juice and water.

"By the time I boil all those bottles and a nipple for each and get them in the refrigerator, I hardly have room or time for anything else.

"Isn't there some shortcut I could use?"

"HORSE SENSE"

Rita, you certainly have my sympathy! When our first baby arrived, an Evanston pediatrician likewise insisted on this "old maidish "idea of sterilizing a whole case of nursing bottles every morning.

Maybe he could be excused in part, for he was an old bachelor and a "book" doctor.

By that, I mean he followed books instead of modifying what the authors said by use of good old-fashioned "horse sense."

Literally, it took about an hour to sterilize all the bottles and fill them with the formula. Then they had to be racked up and put into the refrigerator where they occupied a full shelf.

This irked me, as well as my practical wife, but we went along with this folderol with the first baby.

★ ★ ★

By the time the second arrived, I had decided to enter medical school. Then I found that most of the doctors used "horse sense" with their own infants.

SIMPLE FEEDING

So I immediately cut out all the sterilizing except for two bottles. One of these was for milk and the other for orange juice or water.

And we quit making a full day's supply of formula. Instead, when it came time for a feeding, we took the sterilized bottle and squirted the proper amount of evaporated milk therein.

Then we added the prescribed amount of sugar right out of the sugar bowl on the dining room table. And then poured in boiling water to bring the volume up to the four ounces or whatever was required.

★ ★ ★

As soon as the baby was through, we rinsed the bottle with water from the teakettle and also rinsed the nipple. Then we put them back into the refrigerator to use with the next feeding.

In this manner, one feeding bottle will last all day for the five or six meals required by your baby.

And two bottles, plus two nipples, are all that the usual clean household needs to handle the baby's food and orange juice all day.

Gone was the messy, old maidish plan of cluttering your refrigerator with maybe 10 or 12 baby bottles, plus 10 or 12 nipples, rubber bottle caps, etc.

STERILE TRAVEL CARE

If you are traveling with a bottle fed baby, you can employ similar efficiency.

We would buy a small can of evaporated milk, but carry a thermos bottle full of hot water.

★ ★ ★

Whenever the baby wanted its bottle, Mrs. Crane would puncture the small can of evaporated milk and squirt the required quantity into the previously sterilized bottle.

Then she'd add sugar from a small glass jar and fill to the required height with hot water from the thermos bottle.

When the baby was finished, she'd rinse with the thermos water, and cover the nipple with a small paper cup, after which she'd put it back in the travel kit. Such a method simplifies travel, so try it.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his phychological charts and pamphlets.

Gift Gun Used to Shoot Wife

Husband Charged With Murder After Using Rifle She Gave Him

PALMYRA, N.J. (AP) — Mrs. Jeannette Willard gave her husband a rifle for Christmas.

He used it Monday night, police said, to kill her.

The husband, Edwin L. Willard, 21, was arraigned today on a charge of murder.

The shooting took place at the home of the victim's mother Mrs. Louise Divenney. The couple's 3-year-old son was also in the house.

Police said Mrs. Willard had taken the child Monday morning and had gone to her mother's home. Willard went to the house and tried to talk his wife into returning home with him.

An argument ensued, and police said Willard ran from the house to his car, returning with the .22-caliber rifle.

Mrs. Divenney was trying to wrestle the gun away from her son-in-law when it went off and hit Mrs. Willard in the hip, police said. A second shot was fired just as Mrs. Divenney managed to get the gun away from Willard.

The bullet went into the ceiling. Police quoted Willard as saying it had been meant for himself.

Police quoted Willard as saying he had not meant to fire the rifle but had merely planned to frighten his wife.

Lawsuit Hits Police at Madison Heights

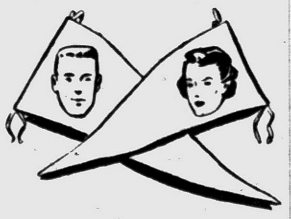
MADISON HEIGHTS—Damages totaling $50,000 have been asked in a lawsuit against Madison Heights Police Chief Robert E. Richardson, six police officers, and one constable by Stanley C. Widlak, a bulldozer operator.

Widlak, 37, of 29385 Spoon St., claims in his suit filed yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court that he was falsely jailed for four days and beaten and kicked by the officers in October.

Police arrested him for investigation of grand larceny in the alleged theft of lumber from a home construction site in the city. Widlak says no warrant was shown him for his arrest.

At the conclusion of his trial in November, a lesser larceny charge against him was dropped for lack of evidence, his attorney claims. He further charges that the warrant wasn't issued until the day he was released from jail.

Is Your Child College Material?



That depends. By today's standards, he probably is. By standards ten years from now, perhaps not. How can that be? Is his I.Q. likely to change? No. But conditions are.

Many college classrooms are crowded today. By 1967, applications are expected to double. Low salaries are driving too many qualified teachers into other fields.

By the time your child reaches eighteen, there may not be any room for him in any college.

This is a frightening situation. Now is the time to put a stop to it. Help the college or university of your choice now. The rewards will be greater than you think.

If you want to know more about what the college crisis means to you, write for a free booklet to: HIGHER EDUCATION, Box 36, Times Square Station, New York 36, New York.

His Dog Dying of Cancer

Blind Man's Heart in Agony Also

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sheba dies a little bit every day. And a piece of Ray Myers' heart goes with her.

★ ★ ★

They're buddies, you know. Close as only a blind man and his dog can be.

For three weeks the gray German Shepherd has lived on will power and love. She goes right on working, guiding her master through the city hubbub.

The scores of people who scurry past them at the little sidewalk stand where Myers sells novelties little know she's in agony from the cancer eating her intestines and throat.

VET KEEPS HER ALIVE

"She should have been put to sleep three weeks ago," said Morris Kaufman, a cafe owner, and a friend of the blind man. "The vet is trying to keep her alive until Ray gets a new dog."

Sheba's not old. Ray trained her himself when he bought her for a dollar 2½ years ago when she was young.

He won't be training his new dog. Professionals will do that. On Jan. 10 he starts two or three weeks of schooling with the dog which will become his new eyes. This was one of the things arranged by Kaufman.

★ ★ ★

Kaufman also got a new room for Ray when he was evicted because of Sheba. And patrons of the cafe and employes of a large store nearby chipped in on expenses for the new dog and it's training.

Sheba scarcely touches her food now. Each day she gets more gaunt and finds it harder to get to her feet. She gets pills three times a day, for the pain.

She'll go to her well-earned rest just before the new dog enters her master's life, if she lives that long.

For Ray it's a sad New Year's. But there's a silver lining.

★ ★ ★

Even though he can't see them, friends have come out of nowhere to surround him with warmth.

They borrowed a ring.

They also borrowed $20.

They borrowed a car and drove to Memphis—but this time they forgot to ask.

Authorities intervened and yesterday in federal court the boy was ordered to serve two years in a federal reformatory. The girl was placed on probation for two years and returned to Atlanta.

2 Hurt in Collision at Walton, Sashabaw

A Drayton Plains couple were slightly injured in a two-car collision Monday on Walton Blvd. at Sashabaw road, Waterford Township.

Treated at Pontiac General Hospital and released was one of the drivers, Robert J. Davis, 24, of 6380 Barker St., and his wife Ernestine, 27.

The other driver, Leroy W. Osborn, 46, of 810 Emerson St., was uninjured, sheriff's deputies said.

Why Did You Stay Outside?

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: Last week my husband stopped off at a business associate's house to discuss something with him. I went along with him in the car but waited outside. He said he wouldn't be very long. Shortly after my husband went inside, the wife of his business associate came out and asked me to come into the house. I said, "No, thank you, I'll just wait here for my husband." I certainly did not want to barge in on strangers.

"When my husband came out he was furious with me and said that I was very rude to refuse her invitation to come inside. Will you please tell me if I was wrong?"

Answer: While perhaps not, as your husband thinks, very rude, it was certainly not gracious of you to refuse her invitation to come in. It would have been different if you had explained some reason, such as your hair being up in curlers, etc., for wishing to stay in the car.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I teach the third grade in a public school. At Christmas time I received quite a few presents from my pupils. These presents were obviously bought by their parents for me. I thanked my pupils for their lovely gifts. I would like to know if further thanks should be written to their mothers?"

Answer: Thanking the children for the presents they bought you is all that you need do.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My mother died several years ago and my father has just recently remarried. I am going to be married soon and would like to know how my invitations should be worded. Should my stepmother's name be included on the invitations or should they be sent in my father's name alone?"

Answer: Your stepmother's name must be included but the wording "his daughter" on the third line explains that she is not your mother.

Simplicity Plus Glamor Accent Ski Fashions for Men, Women

NEW YORK (UPI) — Ski clothes are more down-to-earth this year, designers report.

No more $650 white mink jackets or chinchilla, said Jules Andre, the man who last year designed the white mink parka.

"We aren't doing much in fur this year. Mink isn't popular now. The customers want seal if they want fur at all. There's a definite trend to practicality," Andre added.

★ ★ ★

We figured this was quite an about-face from the man who once boasted he never asks women what they want — he tells them. So we checked around, and sure enough, we women — and men, too — are going for simplicity on the slopes.

"One advantage of simplicity, however, is that clothes are more striking," said one store official.

ACCENT ON VARIETY

Ski jackets come in a variety of prints, from peasant designs to abstract patterns which look like handsewn needlepoint.

A new idea in shirts are the "kajaks" from Denmark. Of brushed wool and nylon, they have bright peasant-inspired patterns.

★ ★ ★

Sweaters are designed to peel off easily when the sun gets warm. They come in bulky but lightweight knits. Also popular are giant cableknit cardigans in solid and contrasting cable patterns, plus pullovers with extra tall turtlenecks.

Tow coats — eclipsed last winter by hooded nylon jackets — are back, this time bigger and shaggier than ever. They come in mohair and other bulky wools, either in solid colors or plaids coordinated with jacket and pants worn underneath.

★ ★ ★

The two pants with one jacket idea has been introduced for ski suits — one pair in a basic color and the other bright.

Fashionable colors this year are violet and orange, turquoise, coral, lemon and red. Black and white are used in quantity, often as background for bright patterns.

After-ski wear is dressier this season. Slacks come in flower prints, tile patterns and brocade. Skirts are both full and slim, sometimes with fringed hems, and often decorated with gold metallic or jewel-toned thread. Other skirts are mohair with blanket plaids or stripes.

Blouses are softly tailored, often silk. Sweaters range from bulky and bright to flat-knit dressy types.

For snow bunnies who have everything else, there's a curly white lambskin jacket for after-ski wear, imported from Bavaria.

Here's Answer to Her Prayer

Here's an answer to your prayers — literally! When you go hatless and want to drop into church or chapel, carry one of the new nylon lace prayer caps.

They are as easy to carry in your purse as a kerchief, and as easy to launder.

Dear Abby . . .

Retarded Children Can't Speak Up to Plead Their Own Cause, Either!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: For 'Animal Lover' who wrote: 'People can ask for food when they're hungry and tell you where it hurts when they're sick, but dogs and cats have to depend on humans.' God wasn't as generous with some children as He was with animals. If 'Animal Lover' was with me just one of the many nights I prayed my little girl could tell me where it was hurting her, I think she'd change her mind.

ABBY

"My child is over 5 years old but she doesn't know me from Adam. If people have money and don't know what to do with it, there are an awful lot of retarded children who couldn't find a glass of milk if it was two feet away from them. I'll bet a cat could."

CHILD LOVER

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: My husband and I were divorced two years ago but we still have a lot in common. We have started to see each other again and what's bothering me is that all the mouths in the neighborhood are working overtime. He comes to see me and stays the night sometimes. We are both 40 and think that this is nobody's business but our own. Are we right or not?"

DIVORCED

DEAR DIVORCED: It IS your business—but you should be aware that you are doing business without a license.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: I could kick myself for letting this go on for 30 years but I kept thinking things would change. Have you any idea how humiliating it is for a wife to BEG her husband for every dime he gives her? I never knew what it was to have an extra penny in my purse. It is a war to get a little money for the collection plate. I never was foolish with money. I make all my own clothes (but I can't make my shoes) do all my own work and when a gift is due I can knit, crochet or sew it. Please answer this in the paper and give my husband the works. He deserves it."

SLOW BURN

DEAR SLOW: (and you WERE slow, Lady) You can't teach an old dog new tricks but yours could be a valuable lesson for others. Newlyweds should set up a budget, and the wife should have an "allowance" to call her own—even if it's only two dollars a week.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: How can a 13-year-old girl tell her own mother to please wash the dishes with soap? My mother just rinses them under the hot water and says, 'That's good enough.' My father also never washes the ring out of the bathtub after himself. Once I counted six rings. I've tried everything but it doesn't do any good. All I get is ridicule when I tell them to use soap. They call me 'PRINCESS GRACE.' What can I do, Abby?"

GRACE

DEAR GRACE: Don't try to educate your parents, just quietly honor your mother and father and use lots of soap.

Often She Can Make or Break Him

Does Wife Affect Executive's Job?

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

A bright young executive recently signed a five-year contract, at a large salary, to become vice president in charge of sales for an old and well established firm located in a small Midwestern community.

The young executive, however, did not give up his New York apartment nor did he move his attractive wife and two children to a new home close to his job.

Instead, he chose to commute back to New York for weekends with his family, and set up bachelor quarters near his office in which he lived the other five days of the week.

NO PLACE FOR WIFE

"This proved he was really bright," remarked the head of the executive recruitment firm which had placed him with the company. "He liked the job, he liked the money, but he had met the top officials of the firm and their wives — and he realized that the presence of his own wife in the community would mean nothing but trouble for him."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Executive, however, neither ate with her knife nor turned abusive on her third martini. She was, in fact, attractive, extremely chic, well read, a charming hostess and considered very witty.

"The social life of the company officials and their wives was as carefully organized as that of an Army post," continued the placement man.

"The president and his top executives were all self-made men who had married young. Their wives were older, comfortable — and not the least bit sophisticated and smart. They would have loathed — and been frightened by — our man's wife. They wouldn't have tried to compete with her, but have made things so difficult with their husbands that her husband wouldn't have lasted a year in the job.

★ ★ ★

His arrangement is working out beautifully. During the week, he keeps up his social end — and everybody loves having an extra man for dinners. He is doing a splendid job and he apparently is reconciled to weekly plane trips."

A 'NEW LOOK'

The bright young executive actually pulled a reverse switch on what is gradually becoming standard operating procedure in employment offices. In many, if not most, of the higher echelons of hiring, the little woman is getting almost as close a scrutiny as her husband before a firm job offer comes through.

★ ★ ★

Because more and more businesses think of themselves in family terms, it is often no longer enough that John Jones, candidate for sales manager, is ideally equipped for the job. A yardstick — usually quietly but sometimes obviously — is more and more frequently being used to measure Mrs. Jones as the prospective sales manager's wife.

Is she a good hostess? How is her English? Are her clothes in good taste? What kind of a home does she run? Is she a nag, a hypochondriac? Is she catty, a gossip, a potential trouble-maker?

★ ★ ★

In the nation's business community, where today's trend is toward bigger and bigger organizations, employers often are enlisting the help of psychologists and psychological tests to cue them on a man's abilities and potentials.

No longer is it enough for a position-seeker to turn up for an interview with an employer dressed in his best blue serge suit and white shirt. Today he is likely to sit down to a long test which is designed to reveal whether he is happy, adjusted, stable and would fit into a company pattern.

And because a man's private life and his home life are increasingly considered to be part of his business life, his wife is often required to submit to some probings, too.

TESTS UNDER FIRE

The move toward the psychological testing of prospective employes has in recent years come under sporadic fire from critics who hold that such tests in many cases constitute an invasion of privacy, that the tests themselves were originally developed for clinical use and contain many questions more nosy than useful and that results often prove more about the adjustment of the person who grades the test than about the subject.

★ ★ ★

When it was learned that one company was enlarging its psychological scope to include wives, more thunder came from the opponents of testing techniques.

"You could destroy a marriage with a test like that," remarked the head of one big firm of management consultants. "If a man thought he was in line for a good job and never heard anything more about it after his wife took a test, both the man and his wife might well believe that he lost his big chance because of her. And if she were shy, or insecure, or even normally sensitive, this could have dreadful results in a marriage."

STUDY PERSON

"You don't need psychological tests to learn about people," said another man who specializes in executive manhunts for large corporations. "If you know what to look for, you can find out just about anything you want to know about a man and his wife by spending a few hours with them — including some at their home."

★ ★ ★

"But this is very tricky stuff," remarked a personnel man. "Let's say the wife turns out to be spoiled, selfish and luxury-loving instead of serene, helpful and selfless. Does this mean her husband won't turn out to be the best man for the company?

"I'd hate to have to estimate the number of men who were forced to become successful because their wives demanded mink coats, bigger houses, better schools, more money to lavish on personal whims.

"Who really can say, on the basis of some psychological slide-rule, what kind of a woman a man needs to make him a good employe or even a good executive?"

No Habitual Tears

Women Can't Fight So They Cry

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Yesterday I wrote about tears — especially a woman's tears. I brought you some quotations which were not sympathetic. Today I am going to give you some which highly recommend the feminine teardrop — for sentimental reasons as well as for health.

Many physicians and psychologists feel that women need a release in tears occasionally. After all, a woman cannot "fight out" physically her resentments and anger as a man can, without great penalty in attractiveness.

Even if a woman raises her voice, she is in danger of being considered a fishwife or a shrew. I never have been able to work out in my own mind or to my satisfaction, why a woman is so much less attractive or appealing when angry than a man is. I will think this over for another few years and let you know what I come up with.

Well, here we go with some OLD thoughts for the NEW Year; these authors believed in feminine tears!

"Tears fall, no matter how we try to check them, and being shed, they ease the soul."—Seneca.

★ ★ ★

"Oh, that I were dead now
Or up in my bed now,
To cover my head now
And have a good cry."
—Thomas Hood

"Give other friends your lighted face
The laughter of the years:
I come to crave a greater grace
Give me your tears."
Edwin Markham.

★ ★ ★

"I loved thee for the tear thou couldst not hide."—Tennyson.

★ ★ ★

"I wept not, so of stone grew I within."—Dante, (Inferno).

★ ★ ★

"None are so desolate but something dear, Dearer than self, possesses or possessed A thought, and claims the homage of a tear."—Byron.

Tears are a fine release once in a while. If they become a habit, it usually is because the person is really ill or because of self-pity. The latter emotion, in my book, is the most destructive of all human emotions.

It is wise to remember that the individual who has not been accustomed to weeping and suddenly finds herself doing it as a habit, may well be the victim of nervous exhaustion. She may have been subjected to emotional strains for a long time before this happens to her.

So — weigh your tears! If they are occasional, you probably will be better off because of them. If they are habitual, you may need medical help. If you always have been the weepy type, you may need some specialized guidance.

I am inviting the men who read this column to send in their description of their reaction to a woman when she cries. As I said yesterday,, if I quote you, I will not use your name.

Pretty Swirl Biscuits Top Creamed Casserole

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Wondering what to do with that turkey? Or are you sick of it and want something entirely different? Either way, you'll like Mrs. Mark Stewart's recipe for a Swirl Top Casserole.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Stewart is active in both the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association and an Extension group in Waterford.

SWIRL TOP CASSEROLE
By Mrs. Mark Stewart

3 tablespoons chopped onion
½ cup chopped green pepper
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 teaspoon salt
6 tablespoons flour
1 can cream of chicken or cream of mushroom soup
1½ cups milk
1 can (7 oz.) tuna or 1 cup turkey pieces
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Saute onion and green pepper in butter or margarine. Add salt and flour and blend well. Add soup and milk and cook and stir until thick and smooth. Add tuna or turkey and lemon juice. Pour into greased casserole.

Swirl Top

Make up a recipe of baking powder biscuits and roll out on floured board. Cover with bits of pimiento and grated medium sharp cheese. Roll up like a jelly roll and cut into slices.

Place on top of creamed mixture. Bake 15 minutes at 450 degrees. Lower heat to 425 degrees and bake another 15 minutes.

Peas may be added to the creamed mixture if desired.

Forget Dead Past; Live Fully Today

By RUTH MILLETT

You're missing a lot if you—

Aren't interested in becoming a friend of anyone who isn't in your own age group. The enthusiasm of those who are younger than you are is catching, and those who are older may teach you something.

Keep wishing things were the way they were once. They never will be again, so you might as well get pleasure out of things as they are.

Keep putting off the things you would really like to do. It is never convenient to make the effort required for self-expression. There will always be other demands on your time, other ways of squandering what leisure you have. Face that fact and you won't keep putting off the things that are really important to you.

Never make the first gesture of friendship. You never really choose your friends if you sit back and wait for others to come to you.

Won't let anyone do anything for you because you don't want to be indebted to anyone. Those you allow to help you are as interested in you as you are in them.

Are highly critical of other people. You have to accept people as they are instead of picking them to pieces if you want to be close to them or to really enjoy their friendship.

Keep wishing you could go back and do things differently, instead of forgetting the past and deciding to do better right now and in the future.

For Pickup, Let Feet Go 'Round in Small Circles

A recent study revealed that men actually sit more than women. As a result, the girls have trimmer hips. They also have fatigued feet.

A good exercise to perk up leg and foot circulation is to make a circle with each foot about 10 to 20 times.

Rita L. Hawk Becomes Bride of Donald Carroll

Poinsettias and greens banked the altar of Emmanuel Baptist Church for the Saturday evening wedding of Rita Louise Hawk of Golf drive and Donald Ray Carroll, of Drayton Plains. Dr. Thomas Malone officiated at the ceremony before 275 guests.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ben S. Hawk Jr. of Kittanning, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carroll of Drayton Plains.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of silk bombazine trimmed with Alencon lace. The gown featured a basque waistline and scalloped neckline accented with sequins and long sleeves. The bouffant skirt formed a chapel train and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Mary Virginia Buchanan of Dothan, Ala., was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Kay Hawk, the bride's sister from Kittanning, and Janice Joss. Their ballerina-length dresses were of green velvet fashioned with cap sleeves and bell skirts. They carried bouquets of Mimi carnations.

★ ★ ★

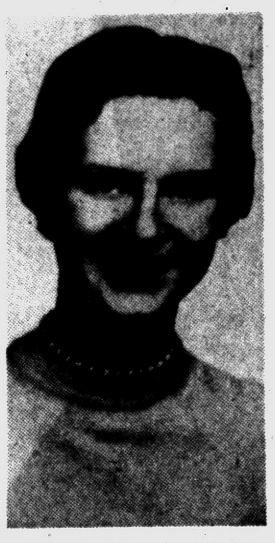
Best man was Winford Rogers of Waterford. Ushers were Charles Joss, Harold Keith of Drayton Plains, Richard Buchanan of Dothan, and Gene Hawkins of Waterford.

Before leaving on a honeymoon to Pennsylvania, the bride changed to a mint green dress with a white hat and coat. The couple will live on Golf drive.

Mrs. Hawk wore a navy blue dress with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Carroll was dressed in royal blue with white accessories.

MRS. DONALD R. CARROLL

The bride is a graduate of Bob Jones University.



PATRICIA E. PEPPERELL

Mr. and Mrs. Jack S. Moore of Birmingham announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Elaine Pepperell, to Ray Richard Ward. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R Ward of Detroit. No wedding date has been set.

'I've Grown Accustomed to My Face'

We get so accustomed to the way we look that we are sometimes unaware we have changed some in appearance. Hair can become lackluster with the passing of time. Elbows can roughen and skin become dry. We can develop lumps and get thick through the waist without really feeling much different.

★ ★ ★

But gradually, these little changes add up to a picture of a careless, middle-aged woman. And sometimes in passing a mirror, we are given back an unpleasant and startling reflection. It can't be a true reflection, we think. But on closer inspection, we find that it is.

★ ★ ★

About the only way to avoid having this happen is to check on your appearance each day. A critical glance in a full-length mirror will do the trick and keep you in the proper mood to diet, exercise, use a hairbrush or hair tint as it's needed.

Patricia Lee Graham Wed in Church of the Nazarene

Patricia Lee Graham and Alvin B. Clark were married Wednesday afternoon at First Church of the Nazarene. The Rev. Kenneth Hutchinson officiated at the ceremony before 175 guests.

★ ★ ★

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin M. Graham of Michigan avenue and Mrs. Marie Clark of Seminole avenue.

The bride wore a gown of nylon tulle over satin. The chantilly lace bodice featured a sweetheart neckline and puffed sleeves embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The bouffant hoop skirt was accented with Chantilly lace inserts, and a pleated tulle ruffle formed a chapel train.

Her fingertip veil was held by a sequin-trimmed capelet, and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered by an orchid on a white Bible.

Mrs. Wilfred Robinson was matron of honor. Her ballerina-length dress was of royal blue iridescent taffeta with cap sleeves and she carried a cascade bouquet of peppermint carnations.

★ ★ ★

Bridesmaids were Janice Henderson and Karen Burnworth. Their dresses were similar to the matron of honor's in baby blue, and they carried identical bouquets.

Kathy Robinson and Suzanne Grogan were flower girls. Their dresses were of iridescent baby blue with full ballerina-length skirts with white rosebuds on the overskirts. Their nosegay bouquets were of peppermint striped carnations.

John Manes was best man.

MRS. ALVIN B. CLARK

Ushers were Lee Allen Graham and Richard Mann.

A reception was held in the parish house. Before leaving for a northern honeymoon, the bride changed to a royal blue faille sheath dress with a royal blue hat and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple will live in Cleveland where the bridegroom is stationed with the U.S. Army.

Mrs. Graham wore a pink lace dress with a sequined hat and black accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Clark was dressed in a blue faille dress with a white hat and black accessories.

Just Like Mother One Day

By VIVIAN BROWN
By The Associated Press

If a girl looks like her mother, will she be built like her? That's a question that worries one 17-year-old.

"My mother is very heavy," she writes, "and recently a boy I like called attention to it by saying that he was sure I'd be just like my mother in another 10 years. He sure hurt my feelings, but main concern has been that it could keep him from proposing to me.

★ ★ ★

Do you think he really was concerned about it? Do you think it necessarily follows that I will be a carbon copy of my mother? She is very nice in every way, except for the extra weight."

★ ★ ★

It doesn't necessarily follow that you will be exactly like your mother, but it is something to think about in this way: Does your mother eat too much, is she lazy (hates exercise, for instance), is she addicted to sweets? If you can put your finger on why your mother is fat, then perhaps you can avoid falling into the groove.

Doctors disagree on the connection between glandular disturbance and weight gain. Many doctors feel that the only way one can gain weight is by eating too much.

★ ★ ★

I would not worry about the boy's attitude. If he loves you, he will not be bothered about anything else. Boys are likely to be tactless; however, and he may very well taunt you about this from time to time. One way to solve it is to show him that it hurts.

New Method Successful in Relieving Pains of Arthritis, Bursitis, Rheumatism

Helps Circulation! Clinically Tested Heat-and-Massage Pad an Amazing New Concept in Pain Relief!

Extensive clinical tests in several of the nation's leading institutions have proven that Thermo-Cyclopad, an entirely new concept in pain relief, can help diminish discomfort and pain symptomatic of Arthritis, Bursitis, and Rheumatism. Now, for the first time, and in your own home, you can get the pain relieving benefits of mankind's oldest boons — heat and massage — simultaneously. It combines soothing controlled heat with deep penetrating Cyclo Massage® in one soft, comfortable pad. This dual action gets down into bone and tissue, helps to increase circulation and dispel pain sensation. The individual can use the Thermo-Cyclopad fully dressed, wherever and whenever the need arises — while sitting, resting, reading, reclining or even working. Of course, for severe or persistent pain, see your doctor.

Thermo-Cyclopad is as convenient to use as the average household appliance. It does its wonderful work without the harmful side effects sometimes associated with pills, drugs, lotions or liniments. For all who suffer from Arthritis, Bursitis, Rheumatism and for those who would like to help improve their blood circulation, this is indeed a milestone in scientific achievement.

All Township Petitions In; Campaigns to Pick Up

Voters Choose Candidates in February 16 Primary

Political campaigns for the Feb. 16 primary elections in the townships and villages will steadily pick up steam now that the deadline for filing petitions has passed.

★ ★ ★

The last names of those seeking election to township posts were filed at 4 p.m. yesterday with the various clerks throughout Oakland County.

However, in townships that nominate by party caucus, potential candidates have until Feb. 16 to launch their bids. That is the statutory day for the caucuses.

Following is a rundown of contestants for public office who will compete in the township primaries where more than one candidate from each party has filed.

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP

Supervisor Leroy Davis (D) will be opposed for re-election in the February primary here by Lewis Roy Wahl (D). Running against present township clerk, Greta V. Block (R) will be Nancy Myers (D).

★ ★ ★

Candidates for the two trustee vacancies are incumbents Emery Mitchell and Stephen A. Douglas, and newcomers Mont Bodman, Claude Arnett Jr., and George Lyle. All are Democrats.

Running against Kathryn A. Copple (D), who is seeking re-election as township treasurer are Goldie Mailahn (R) and Irene Bates (D).

Robert W. Hodge (R) will be opposed by Leonard Grumblatt (D) in his bid for another term as justice of the peace.

★ ★ ★

Those who filed for the four positions open as constable are incumbents Arthur Petersen (D) and Louis Zywicki (D) and newcomers Eugene Davis (D), Ralph Myers (R), Leonard Thompson (R) and Harold Van Housen (R).

Candidate for membership on the township board of review is Garrett Roerink (D), and for the Democratic party committee is Donovan Gillmore.

ORION TOWNSHIP

Filing for the office of Orion Township treasurer to succeed Marcella Schroeder (R), who is retiring after 12 years in office, are William D. O'Brien (R) and Frederick Hormer, Norma Walter and Marie Corneail, all Democrats.

★ ★ ★

Running for re-election as supervisor is Ferris B. Clark (R). His opponent on the Democratic ticket is Waldo Leipprandt, now Lake Orion village president.

Margaret Stephen (R) is a candate for clerk, the position she now holds, and opposing her in the February primary will be James Haddrill (D). G. Eugene Thompson will run against incumbent Helmar Stanaback (R) for the office of justice of the peace. Other candidates for this post are John G. Chittick (D) and Truman Smith (D).

Candidates for the four constable posts are incumbents Harold Maphis, Neal Leonard and Charles Lortz and newcomers Frank Volant and Harold Van Camp, all Republicans. Democratic candidates are Lyle MacDermaid, Lyle McCoon, Kenneth Ferguson and Harold Page.

★ ★ ★

Filing for the office of township trustee in place of Gail Bracken, who is not seeking re-election, are Edward Knickerbocker (R) and Harold Gingell (D).

Marguerite Slater (R) incumbent, is running for one of the two positions open on the library board. Other candidates are Omelia Thompson (R), Harriet Kennedy (R), Ruby Walter (D) and Helene Kennedy (D).

Candidates for the three vacancies on the township committee are Harriet Davidson (R), incumbent, and newcomers Harriet Harris and Ernest R. Crawford, both Republicans. Democratic candidates are Jean M. Walter, Jacob Bushbacher and William L. Bailey.

ADDISON TOWNSHIP

A candidate for the office of treasurer in Addison Township, opposing incumbent Donald Hickmott is Walter Griffin.

Only other contest will be for the one position of township trustee for which Lee Gravlin has filed to run against incumbent Ransford Bromley.

Supervisor Frank F. Webber will be unopposed in his bid for re-election. Also unopposed are Robert J. McCallum, township clerk; Raymond Snyder, justice of the peace, and Alex Yule, member of the board of review.

Filing for the four positions open as constable are Mildred Strong and Francis Westphal, both incumbents, and Theodore Jarrett and Kenneth Pease, making their initial bids for election. Lawson Sheik, Leonard village president, is also a candidate for a constable post.

Candidate for chairman of the Democratic Party in the township is Julius Lee Terry. Petitions were field for McCalum making him a candidate for chairman of the Republican Party in the township.

Terry filed a petition to enter the Democratic Party on the ballot —a formality to recognize that party as long as all of the other candidates are Republicans, McCallum said.

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP

One of the hottest primary elections in the area is forecast in Washington Township where several candidates from the villages of Romeo and Washington have filed for each of the major posts on the township board.

Running against R. Eugene Inwood (R), seeking re-election as township supervisor, are Republicans Kenneth Gray of Romeo and Harold Masters of Washington, and Rae Becker, Democrat of Washington.

Earl L. Stone (R) recently appointed to fill the unexpired term of William M. Oming, ousted township treasurer, has filed for election to this office. Oming faces examination next month for embezzlement of $1,400 in township tax receipts.

Stone will be opposed by Ronald Barnett, Democrat of Mt. Vernon, and Marie Wilson, Republican of Romeo.

Filing for the office of clerk being vacated by Harold Masters, who is a candidate for supervisor, are Ellen Thurston (D), and Richard J. Poljan (R), both of Washington, and Alton J. Donaldson, Republican of Romeo.

Alex McConnell, Democrat of Washington, filed for justice of the peace in addition to Charles R. Bock (R) of Washington and Gary Corbin (R) of Romeo.

Running for township trustee is Frank Wilcox (R) incumbent from Romeo.

Candidate for member of the board of review is Maynard Seaman (R) of Washington, and candidates for constable are Barton Verellen (R) of Romeo and Warren Spence (R) of Washington.

AVON TOWNSHIP

All incumbents plus a large number of new candidates for public office filed their petitions by the 4 p.m. deadline yesterday in Avon Township Hall.

Opposing Cyril E. Miller (R) in his bid for re-election as township supervisor is Clarence F. Bushman (D). Running against Frances Covert (R), who is seeking re-election as clerk is Sam Cubba (D) and Thomas Vern Case (R).

Treasurer Helen V. Allen (R) will be opposed for re-election by J. W. Davis (R) and Daniel A. Diehr (D).

Earl Dean (R), incumbent, will run again for one of the two trustee vacancies. Apopintee Wayne C. Frink (R) is a candidate for the other. They will be opposed by Peter Campbell and Floyd L. Cobb Jr., on the Democratic ticket.

Incumbent Luther C. Green (R) has filed for re-election as justice of the peace, and Harold E. Weaver will seek re-election as a member of the township board of review. Weaver's Democratic opponent will be Edward J. Holly.

There are two openings on the library board, and candidates for these positions are incumbents Hudson J. Hill (R) and Alexander M. Lovchuk (R). Edwin L. Cantrell (D) is also a candidate for this office.

Samuel A. Howlett, Robert E. Bolinger and Scarfield J. Franklin, all Republican incumbents, have filed for three of the four positions open as constable. New Republican candidate is Harold W. Graves, and on the Democratic ticket is Harry L. Howard.

Democratic candidates for membership on the township committee are Floyd L. Cobb Jr., Peter Campbell and William K. Benson.

Incumbent Charles E. Bratton (R) will be opposed by John B. Moats (D) in his bid for re-election as highway commissioner.

BRANDON TOWNSHIP

For the first time in township history candidates filed nominating petitions by the 4 p.m. deadline yesterday instead of being named as candidates for public office at a township caucus as in previous years.

Running against Alex R. Solley (D) who is seeking re-election to his present post of supervisor is Milton N. Miller (R). Incumbent township clerk Helen M. Jencks (R) will be opposed by June Bartle (D).

Donald J. Tucker (R) will be challenged in his bid for re-election as township treasurer by George Marbel (D).

Filing for the one position open as trustee were Ronald H. Sutton (R) and Charles Pangus (D). Candidates for the township board of review are Baxter L. Hamilton (R) and Leroy Bartle (D).

Claude Owen (R) is running for justice of the peace as well as Alferd Bernor (D). Opposing each other for the two posts of constable are William McFeely (R), Glenn Vincent (R), Jack Maloney (D) and Clarence C. Fischer (D).

★ ★ ★

Candidate for highway commissioner is Albert Primas (R).

With only one candidate from each party filing for township offices, there will be no primary election and office holders will be determined in the general spring election in April.

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP

The only primary election in Commerce will be within the Republican Party where Burnell B. Fraser and Harold M. French have both filed for justice of the peace.

Thomas C. Tiley (R), incumbent, and Thomas V. Montgomery (D) have filed with their respective parties for supervisor. Others who have filed but remain uncontested are:

Harry H. Helvey (R) incumbent for clerk; Blanche Cummins (R) incumbent and Nelson E. Nedeau (D) for treasurer; Ewald Schaffer (R) incumbent and Richard J. McLennan for trustee; Dan M. McVety (R) and Robert J. Baker for board of review.

Charles L. Crandell, who was appointed by the township board this year as constable, will seek election to that post. His term would not expire until April 1959.

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP

While incumbent Supervisor Francis J. Stephenson is unopposed for the post within the Democrat Party in Farmington Township, two Republicans have filed petitions seeking to run for the position against him. They are Curtis Hall and Joseph P. Brennan.

Five Republicans and two Democrats have filed for two openings as trustees in Farmington Township. They are:

Republicans — William Fisher, who was appointed to the post in 1957, Floyd R. Jaye, Arthur S. Bassett, Raymond B. Wilcox, and Albert Gain, former supervisor.

Democrats are Norman L. Peterson and Edward Scmid.

Allen C. Ingle and Robert Nelson, both Republicans, have filed for justice of the peace. Others having filed are:

Floyd A. Cairns (R) incumbent and Robert Hilton (D) for clerk; Mrs. Elise P. Avery (R) incumbent and Theodore M. Anderson for treasurer; Harold E. Shpiece (D) for justice of the peace; Paul Inman (D) and Victor J. Saliba (R) for board of review.

LYON TOWNSHIP

There will be no primary elections in Lyon Township. Those having filed petitions are:

Incumbent Supervisor William K. Smith (R); Kirk Joslin (R) incumbent and Daniel F. Foley Jr. (D) for clerk; Bernard Carver (R) and Edgar Adams (D) for trustee; Jack Ellis (D) and Charles Mackey (R) for constable.

Others are Charles Roby (R) for justice of the peace, Alfred W. Haack (R), incumbent for treasurer, and John Butterfield (R) for board of review.

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP

Three candidates for supervisor are seeking nomination in the Primary Election, February 16.

Supervisor Duane Hursfall, 40, of 119 N. Holcomb St., has filed for reelection for a second term on the Democratic ticket.

The present township treasurer Ira J. Snader of 8620 Sashabaw Rd., and Carl P. Anthony Jr., 48, of 6151 Sunnydale Ave., will battle for nomination on the Republican ticket.

Republican township clerk, Harold Doebler of 9261 Pine Knob Rd., has been in office for 16 years and will be challenged for the position next month by Democrat William P. Jones of 6038 Main St.

Kenneth L. Johnson, 44 E. Church St., a Democrat will attempt to win as township treasurer against nominee Mrs. Helen E. Johnson 35, of 6590 E. Church Street.

Republican attorney John W. Bell of 7951 Perry St., has filed as the only candidate for the Board of Review.

Another Republican attorney, William H. Stamp of 6188 S. Main St., is seeking re-election as justice of the peace against Democrat Wallace D. McLay of 7900 Dixie Highway.

Democrat Jack Levitsky is running against Erwin Baker, Ferris Holcomb, Everett Fredericks and Robert G. Phillips as constable. Four candidates from each party are eligible to be placed on the ballot.

Three Republicans have filed for Township Committee and include Roy Alger, Clifford Bennett Jr., and Lester McDonnell.

MILFORD TOWNSHIP

Because of one candidate, it was necessary to file a petition at the township offices this year, in order to place the Democrat Party on the election ballot.

The Democrat was George S. Martin, Jr., of 1620 S. Commerce Rd., who filed as a candidate for constable. All other candidates were Republicans.

Supervisor Mayon H. Hoard of 103 Summit St., will battle to keep his position against Frank L. Walker of 2311 W. Commerce Rd.

Treasurer Mrs. Amber Culham of 918 Atlantic St., was uncontested in filing for re-election, as was new candidate for township clerk Mrs. Elizabeth Hubbell of 1335 S. Milford Rd.

Seeking re-election as township trustee is Robert K. Floyd Jr., of 2744 E. Commerce and Maurice J. Pierce of 3725 S. Hill Rd.

Justice of the Peace, James Van Leuven of 625 E. Commerce St. was uncontested in filing his petition for re-election.

Sole candidate for the board of review, was Melbourne Hewett of 512 E. Commerce St., and Miriam Johnson and Mrs. Hilda Torrence filed as township library trustees.

OKFORD TOWNSHIP

Challenging Fred F. Stevens for re-election to the office of justice of the peace in the first primary election to be held in Oxford Township will be newcomer Chauncey Brooks, Sr. In previous years the township held caucuses to determine whose names would appear on the ballot.

Also filing by the 4 p.m. deadline yesterday were incumbents Lee H. Clack, for supervisor, Herbert V. Rahm, clerk; and Harold Albertson, trustee. Clerk Luella Francis will be opposed by Kenneth W. Karnes.

Running for the three positions open on the township committee are Leta Beemer, Ella M. Howland and William J. Matus.

Candidates for trustees on the library board are Josephine Meads, who seeks to fill the two-year unexpired term of Virginia Chamberlin, and newcomers Evelyn Unger and Florence Oberg, both running for six-year terms.

All of the incumbents are candidates for re-election as constables. They are Lee Gardner, LaVern Robinson, Albert Roberts, Harold E. Sitzes and Ray Westphal.

Lee Gardner is sole candidate for membership on the township board of review.

HIGHLAND TOWNSHIP

With the exception of Ora E. Jones filing for position as constable on the Democratic ticket, all candidates for the primary election are Republicans.

Supervisor Louis Oldenburg of 234 N. Center St., was the only candidate who filed. He has held the position for 12 years.

Sole candidate for township Clerk was Mrs. Normagene Waters of 3410 Duck Lake Rd., who filed for re-election.

Mila B. DeGarmo of 280 N. Center St. was uncontested as township treasurer for the twelfth year, and G. Freeman Williams of 3520 Woodland Dr., has filed for the first time as justice of the peace.

Board of Review membership is sought by Maurice Peasley and Ellsworth Huff of 634 Wardlow Rd., is seeking re-election as trustee to the township board.

Republican constables seeking nomination are James A. Winners, Edward Krajenke, Daniel Aldrich and Henry Jones.

HOLLY TOWNSHIP

No Democrats filed petitions in Holly Township. However, the Republican party will be holding a primary election on Feb. 16. Following are the Republicans who have filed:

Incumbent Supervisor Seeley Tinsman, seeking re-election, will be opposed by Donald Vinton.

Others are Jess Furbush, incumbent, for clerk; Madeline Lockwood, incumbent, for treasurer; Stanley Hansen, incumbent, and Jack Bennett for trustee; Donald Bremer for justice of the peace; Jake Killian and Constance Temming for constable; Zelma Jackson and Teresa Klopman for library board.

WHITE LAKE

The present supervisor, Forrest I. Brendel (R) is not seeking re-election but has filed a petition for the board of review instead. He is unopposed.

James L. Reid (R), Kenneth E. Goodell and Edward Cheyz, both Democrats, have filed for supervisor.

Clerk for more than 30 years, Bert A. McKeachie (R) is uncontested for that position within his party, as is the present treasurer, Ronald C. Voorheis (R) who has filed for re-election.

Others who have filed are C. Stanley Freville (D) and Bernard J. Hickey (D) for clerk; Joseph P. Hynds (R) and Charles W. Chill (D) for justice of the peace; Mrs. Margaret Malm (D) for treasurer; Leroy Thompson (R), incumbent, Walter H. Weinman (D), Everett Gillow (D), and Edward Mollencops (D) for two trustee positions.

Also, for constable, Ray E. Kurnz (D) and Republicans Arthur O'Hara, Doolege Powers Jr., Harvey M. Bruns and Clifford K. Howard; R. Brooks North (R) for highway commissioner and Leonard Frund (D) for board of review.

NOVI TOWNSHIP

Frazer Staman, Republican supervisor of Novi Township will be unopposed in the February election.

Other candidates who filed yesterday were: Hadley J. Bachert (R) and William H. MacDermaid (R), for clerk; Ray D. Harrison (R), Herbert O. Ostlund (R), Charles Trickey (R) and Robert S. Norton (D), all for treasurer and Frank Watz (R), George F. Merwin (R) and John F. Kubeck (D), all for trustee.

Herbert Koester (D) will vie for the justice of the peace post against John T. Meier (R).

Others are John A. Harnden, (R) board of review, Leon D. Dochot (R), constable.

Running for a post of the township Democratic committee will be Archie L. Marsh, William R. O'Brien and Mrs. Sylvia I. Klerks.

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP

Three of the four incumbents in West Bloomfield Township running for office are unopposed.

★ ★ ★

They are Frank Hallett, clerk; Lillian S. Warner, treasurer and Robert F. Scott, justice of the peace.

Opposing the present supervisor Hiland M. Thatcher will be Chester A. Okopski.

Candidates for trustees are John F. Warren, Walter J. Whitmer, Paul J. Curran, Charles B. Forbes, Alfred J. Close and Charles E. Scully.

Joseph D. Nephew and Edwin N. Heiron will vie for the constable post as will Mrs. Helen Freund and Mrs. Susanne Moses for the library board position.

Honest Lottery Winner Returns Blank Check

OVINGTON, England (UPI) — It was really nothing, but it was still more than Basil Sharp expected for having his number drawn in Britain's state-run lottery.

A letter from the National Savings Movement informing Sharp he had won was accompanied by a signed blank check.

He returned the check.

IN GOOD SHAPE — Hundreds of Canadian wild geese are weathering the winter well in Kensington Park Bird Sanctuary, near Milford. They are keeping plump on dried corn-on-the-cob fed to them daily by Mrs. John Kingsley. Summer and winter the big birds forsake their natural instincts for a sure meal at the park, Mrs. Kingsley reports.

Chooses Man From Ohio

Milford Picks Manager

MILFORD — A village manager was selected last night by council members and will assume his new duties February 1 for the $6,500 a year job.

Administrafive assistant to the city manager of Springfield, Ohio, Oliver S. Taylor, 29, was chosen from 28 applicants to assume the responsibility as the town's first manager.

Prior to his present Springfield job, Taylor was managing director of the Bureau of Municipal Research in New York. He was graduated from Harvard University and received his masters degree in public administration "with distinction" at Syracuse University in New York.

Taylor is married, has two children and plans to move to Milford as soon as possible. The newly adopted home rule charter requires that he become a resident of the town within 120 days after his appointment.

Highland realtor Edward Steele was present at last night's meeting and presented an artist's conception of a proposed planned shopping center to be located on N. Milford road and Summit street.

Steele, who represents a Detroit firm, has received the approval of council members to level a steep unoccupied hill into a pond at the base of the incline.

The plans are a replica of a newly constructed shopping center in Birmingham providing for 14 store units and entrance and exits from a large black-topped parking area onto two main highways.

The council in other business has asked local automobile dealers to submit three quotations on a police car lease plan when they meet next week.

Mrs. George Eberle was present and officially terminated all of the Civil Defense Ground Observer Corps activity in Milford.

She pointed out that since the village owns one-half of the small lookout building, it may now have the entire building due to the termination of the GOC by the U. S. government.

CAP Offering Plane Rides

Give Flights to Youths Between 14, 18; Taking Off at Walled Lake

WALLED LAKE — Free airplane rides will be provided on Saturday and Sunday to cadet-members of the local Civil Air Patrol squadron and to boys and girls between the ages of 14 and 18 who are interested in joining the unit, it was announced today by Don Patterson, education director of the squadron.

★ ★ ★

Two ski-equipped aircraft will operate from the ice on Walled Lake in front of Taylor's Garage on East Walled Lake drive. They include the CAP's own L16 and a Piper Tripacer on loan to the unit. The planes will be flown by Capt. Stolan Domingue, acting squadron commander, and by Patterson.

The planes will be used "from sunup to sundown," Patterson said.

The CAP is operated as an official auxiliary of the U. S. Air Force, and assists in search and rescue operations for the Armed Forces. Its primary function, as explained by Patterson, is the training of young people and the building of interest in aviation.

Meetings of the local squadron are held each Thursday at 7 p. m. in the Walled Lake Junior High School.

People of half or more Indian or Eskimo blood are not required to have hunting licenses in Alaska.

Royal Oak Man Pleads Innocent

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — Luther J. Green Jr., accused of the first degree murder of a 33-year-old Royal Oak Township mother of four last month, yesterday pleaded innocent when arraigned before Oakland County Circuit Judge William J. Beer.

Green, 28, of 20815 Woodside St., asked Judge Beer to appoint an attorney at the county's expense because he had insufficient funds to hire one to defend him when his trial comes up sometime next month.

Green has been held in the county jail since he gave himself up to township police Nov. 19 shortly after he stabbed Mrs. Ann Mosley, of the same address as Green's, following an early morning quarrel, police said. Officers said he admitted stabbing the woman in the abdomen with the six-inch hunting knife.

Ordinance Halts Sand Removal

Digging in Southfield Must Stop Wednesday Under New Law

SOUTHFIELD — The General Sand Co. of Detroit will be stopped for the second time on Wednesday from digging and removing sand from its 25-acre site on Berg road.

The city council has adopted a topsoil ordinance with emergency status which will go into effect on Wednesday.

Residents in the area have been protesting the noise and dust caused by removal of the sand.

The city council passed an ordinance in November forbidding the firm to remove the sand.

The General Sand Co. took the matter to court and the city of Southfield lost its case, because the topsoil ordinance was not in effect. The company resumed operations.

Under the new law the firm will have to apply for a permit, deposit $150 with the city and then wait for a public hearing. Residents in the area are expected to continue to fight the firm's operation, Patrick Flannery, city clerk, said.

Gingellville Will Hold New Year's Eve Dance

GINGELLVILLE — Both square and round dancing will be featured when the Gingellville Community Center stages its New Year's Eve dance tomorrow night from 9:30 p.m. until 1:30 a.m. The center is located at 3575 Baldwin Rd.

The dance is open to the public and refreshments will be made available, Mrs. Harold Van Camp, committee chairman, said today.

DOROTHY MARCIA BIRKETT

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Birkett of 2105 Joy Rd., Pontiac Township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Marcia to Roy Brown. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Brown of Imlay City, formerly of Pontiac. The fiance is a member of the U.S. Air Force and is stationed at Amarillo AF Base, Tex.

MARGARET ANN KEMP

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kemp of 31 Scott Lake Rd., Waterford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Ann to Louis Jay Schramm. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schramm, 63850 Indian Trail, Romeo. Both are students at Moody Bible Institute, Chicago. A June wedding is planned.

NOLA EILEEN VESS

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Rollin D. Vess of 8950 Clarridge Rd., Clarkston, announce the engagement of their daughter, Nola Eileen to Pfc. Dennis G. Gritzinger. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Gritzinger of 8715 Bridge Lake Rd., Clarkston. No date has been set for the wedding at this time.

KERRIE ELLEN SEE

Mr. and Mrs. Herald E. See of 37735 1-Mile Rd., Walled Lake, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kerrie Ellen to William Lynn Sonnenberg. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Sonnenberg of 21503 Collingham Rd., Farmington. No date has been set for the wedding at this time.

BARBARA ANN BERRIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. Valmore Berridge of 609 Clinton Rd., Drayton Plains, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Ann to Richard R. Barrow. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Barrow of 63 Midland St., Drayton Plains. No date yet has been set for the wedding.

JANICE ARLENE PETERSEN

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Petersen of 2305 Hester Ct., Keego Harbor, announce the engagement of their daughter, Janice Arlene to Patrick T. Wyatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Wyatt of 2922 Marietta Ct., Drayton Plains. Her fiance is presently home on leave from Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and is scheduled to return for Jan. 3.

Fish caught for food around the world are now estimated to weigh upwards of 26 million tons, according to surveys by the United Nations.

Berlin Reinforcement Denied by U.S. Army

BERLIN (AP)—The U.S. Army today denied that delivery of six armored personnel carriers to its West Berlin garrison meant the garrison had been specially reinforced because of the Communist threat to the city.

★ ★ ★

An Army spokesman said the 12-man carriers were standard equipment for the two American battle groups stationed in West Berlin. He said no additional manpower came with the vehicles, which have been delivered during the past two weeks.

★ ★ ★

"There is not a bit of truth in reports that there has ben any special reinforcement of the garrison," the spokesman declared.

Changes in Social Security

Tax Rate Goes Up January 1

By RAY HENRY
Associated Press Writer

(Editor's note: This is the first of three columns explaining changes in Social Security which go into effect Jan. 1.)

Your take-home pay is going to be less after Jan. 1 if you're covered by the Social Security system.

How much less will depend on the amount of your earnings and whether you work for somebody else or for yourself.

The reason: Your Social Security tax rate goes up due to a change Congress made in August.

Your new tax rate if you're working for someone else will be 2½ per cent of all your earnings up to $4,800 a year. It has been 2¼ per cent of your earnings up to $4,200.

This means that if you have earnings of at least $4,800 the increase in cash in 1959 will be $25.50 a year with a yearly total of $120, compared with a total of $94.50 this year. If you have earnings of less than $4,800 the increase, of course, will be less than $25.50.

Your employer will have to pay the same increase since under the Social Security law he's required to match your tax payments.

If you're self-employed—that is, you work for yourself—your new tax rate will be 3¾ per cent of your net earnings up to $4,800. It has been 3⅜ of $4,200 a year.

This means you'll have to pay a tax of $180 in 1959 if your earnings are $4,800 or more. In 1958, the most you could have paid was $141.75 if you had net earnings of $4,200. A self-employed person's tax is more because he's his own boss and there's nobody to match his payments.

Self-employed people should remember this: The additional tax bite won't actually have to be paid until you file your income tax return for 1959 in 1960. The tax return you file between Jan. 1 and April 15, 1959, will require you to pay your Social Security tax at the 3⅜ per cent rate on your earnings up to $4,200.

The reason for the tax increase in 1959 is the raise in payments which also goes into effect on Thursday and for other changes made this year by Congress in Social Security.

This tax increase will not be the last. It will go up again in 1960 and every three years after that until a final jump in 1969. There may even be more if Congress changes Social Security again in the near future.

The future increases are to take care of the heavier demands which will be made on the Social Security funds in the future. For instance: Nearly everyone 65 or older will be entitled to collect Social Security retirement payments by 1975. Right now, only about two out of three people 65 or older are getting retirement payments.

If during 1958 you worked for someone else on two or more jobs and had total earnings of more than $4,200, you may be due a refund. You collect the refund by taking credit for it on your regular income tax return.

In a later column, as the time gets closer for filing your income tax report, I'll explain how you can claim the refund if one is due.

Hollywood Headlines

Next 2 Months Impose High Tax on Movie Film

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Now begins Hollywood's dog days.

Heaven knows, the days have been doggy enough, with film shooting down sharply from previous years. But the first two months of the year are traditionally the worst for production here. The reason: there's a big tax in March on exposed film in the state.

That means that the studios avoid filming in January and February and try to have all their films finished and shipped out of California before the tax is due. Samuel Goldwyn offers an example of how it can hurt. He won't be able to have "Porgy and Bess" finished in time for the deadline. He figures the tax will add more than $100,000 to the movie's cost.

With the picture business in bad enough shape, some industry sources think there should be relief from this state tax. . . .

Bill Holden is taking off for a safari to central Africa, one of the few regions of the world he hasn't visited. Then he goes to Europe, returns briefly and takes off for the Orient.

All these travels aren't merely wanderlust on Bill's part. He is convinced of the value of worldwide salesmanship for the movies he's in.

"I thought it was a lot of bother to visit so many German towns for 'Bridge on the River Kwai,'" he said. "But now I can see the results. We're going to take three million dollars out of Germany, more than any German picture ever made and double what a foreign film has done."

"Some Came Running" is getting a good reaction from the Hollywood crowd. There are many who are prepared to hand Shirley MacLaine the Oscar right now. It's hard to see how she can miss; her role as the floozy has Academy Award written all over it. . . .

"Inn of the Sixth Happiness" was also well received. Ingrid does another of her stunning portrayals; it's hard to imagine any other actress who could have fulfilled the role.

Chaplin Settles Tax for Little Over Half

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Charlie Chaplin has settled a $700,000 United States income tax claim for $425,000.

His attorneys handed a check covering the settlement to Internal Revenue Service officials Monday. The check was drawn on a Swiss bank.

Tax officials said the British-born comedian, now living in Switzerland, owed $542,000 in back taxes for the years 1951 through 1953. Interest at 6 per cent raised the amount to $700,000.

Mexico Village Orders Marriage or Servitude

IGUALA, Mexico (AP) — The good people of the southwest Mexican village of Xotitla have declared war on the men and women living together out of wedlock.

In a public assembly this week they voted that such couples would be declared village flunkies, performing such menial tasks as delivering letters and running errands.

The unpaid service will continue under the supervision of the police chief until a marriage is arranged, or the affair is broken up.

Actress Asking for Legitimate Name for Child

NEW YORK (AP)—Actress Kim Stanley wants her youngest child to bear the name of her third husband, actor Alfred Ryder. She married Ryder two years after the child was born.

★ ★ ★

Miss Stanley asked in State Supreme Court Monday for a new birth certificate for her daughter Laurie Rachel, 2, listing the father as Ryder.

★ ★ ★

Ryder acknowledged paternity of the girl in an affidavit accompanying the 33-year-old actress' petition. Ryder and Miss Stanley were married Aug. 1.

Justice Charles A. Loreto set a hearing for Jan. 15 on the plea.

Rogers to Use Antitrust Act

Attorney General Plans Drive to Jail Labor Racketeers

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Herald Tribune said today that Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers plans to use the Sherman Antitrust Act in a drive under way to jail labor racketeers.

The government will charge racketeers with having conspired to restrain trade. It will ask federal grand juries to indict racketeers under the criminal provisions of the 68-year-old law, the paper said.

Although unions are exempt from the antitrust laws, lawyers explain that the government will be able to invoke the Sherman Act because the exemption applies only to the legitimate activities of labor unions, the paper said.

The Herald Tribune said: Rogers intends to use the Sherman Act because it is the only federal criminal statute that provides for granting immunity to a witness who gives self-incriminating evidence.

Government lawyers are confident the immunity provision will permit a federal judge to demand that a balky witness answer a grand jury's questions or else face an immediate jail sentence for contempt of court.

Bob Hope Back Home After Christmas Tour

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Bob Hope is home from an 18,000-mile Christmas tour entertaining some 50,000 U.S. servicemen. It was his eighth Christmas tour.

"The greatest thrill was the gratification of all those kids overseas," Hope said. "They were wonderful."

Senator to Push Big School Bill

McNamara Promises to Fight for $2 Billion Construction Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new fight for a two billion dollar, two-year school construction bill was promised today by Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich).

★ ★ ★

McNamara said he will reintroduce his measure, which was rejected by the senate last session. It called for matching grants to states to assist in school construction.

McNamara said its passage would produce 100,000 new classrooms over the two-year period, including 6,000 in his own state of Michigan.

"State funds freed by the federal assistance could be used to increase teachers' salaries," McNamara said in a statement.

He said the new Congress convening Jan. 7 also should give special attention to accelerated hospital construction, better medical insurance programs, civil rights legislation "including an end to the Senate filibuster rule," and revision of farm policy "to provide farmers their fair share of America's prosperity."

Baby Sitter in Court Over Death of Child

CADILLAC (AP) — David Wilson, 20, demanded examination yesterday at his arraignment in the death of 18-months-old John Lenon for whom he was baby sitter.

Wilson, charged with second degree murder, is said to have admitted striking the baby because it cried. The baby died of a brain hemorrhage.

Recorder's Judge Frank H. Miltner set no hearing date for Wilson pending appointment of a prosecutor to succeed James E. Herrinton. Herrinton has resigned.

The Green Empress

(Copyright 1958) . . . by Elizabeth Cadell

THE STORY: Angus Graham, invalided out of the Navy, is amused at being hired by Sir Claud as a "liaison officer" for the simple job of courier on a superlative luxury bus tour in Europe. He's filling in for his friend Wax Sealing. The passenger list sounds impressive —Lord Lorrimer, father of a Navy friend, with his lovely daughter, Angela Clunes, and his secretary, Lionel Yule, obviously in love with Angela; Mr. Zoller, philanthropist, and his wife; Admiral Peterson and his psychic sister, Mrs. Denby-Warre; the irrepressible young Sir Maurice Tarrant; Stanton Holt, an American, who asks to meet Miss Seton, with the warm, humorous, intelligent eyes. The crossing to France is uneventful. Miss Seton confides to Angus she is half-sister to Rosamund Blake who has just completed a film in Italy and is sailing to South America. She plans to surprise Rosamund by meeting her boat in Lisbon. Ferdy Brewer, the driver plans to stay close to the Green Empress during the night. In the middle of the night Miss Seton receives a mysterious phone call, with bad news. Prowlers tried to get at the Green Empress. Angus and Angela are in love but Angus feels he should have something to offer her. Lord Lorrimer suggests he could write to several people in England who might have something to offer Angus, and tells them they must grasp happiness when it's offered.

CHAPTER XIII

"Angus, I know what you are thinking," Angela said. "You don't want my father to do anything, because other people have tried and haven't succeeded. Well, other people weren't my father.

"When he says he'll try, it usually means he'll try successfully. Angus, don't you ever kiss a girl when you take her for a walk along a wooded path on a dark night?"

★ ★ ★

"Never. It's asking for trouble. I wait until I've got her back to the lights."

"And then?"

"Then I give the briefest salute —like this . . ."

"And then?"

"Then I take her indoors and leave her, as I'm going to leave you."

But before he left her, he explained that she was rather a special kind of girl and he took her in his arms. Then they went in, and he left her and went up to his room. He lay in his bed looking at a thousand little images of her on the ceiling. When sleep came at last, it was deep and dreamless.

On the following day, he saw little of the passengers. He and Angela spent the time together, going out after breakfast with a picnic lunch and tea, and returning to a late dinner.

They walked by the river, they lay on its banks; the sun was warm, the country at its best.

SLEPT DREAMLESSLY

Angus slept that night as dreamlessly as he had done the night before, and woke to the hope of seeing Angela for an hour or two before the coach was due to leave.

But once more, he had to come down to reality. As he dressed, a message was brought to him, the driver would like to see him.

Angus, with a sense of foreboding, finished dressing as quickly as possible, and went down to the garage. Ferdy met him with a sober countenance.

"I'm sorry to have sent for you, sir. I thought if I went up to you, the passengers might see me and feel there was something wrong."

"What's up, Ferdy?"

"Someone came to the window last night. That window there. Just daybreak, it was, good time for burglars, they can see where they're going, but you can't see who they are.

★ ★ ★

"I heard this chap, and I knew he was creeping round to the garage window, and I thought to m'self: All right, Frenchie, if you want it, you can have it. So I crept in here, sir, and waited for him.

"I was going to wait until he tried to get in, and then I was going to pull him the rest of the way and shine a torch on him to get a look-see."

"And—?"

"It didn't come off, sir. All I got was a whack at him with my torch. Got him on the wrist. I tried to shine the torch on him, but the ruddy switch jammed. I saw his hand and I clutched at it, meaning to drag him in, but he twisted away and all I managed was a crack at the last minute."

"I wish I'd been here," said Angus yearningly.

"In a way, I wish you had, sir. We might've got him in, between us. But what I asked you to come down for was to tell you this, sir, and to say I think you ought to report it to the manager.

"He's on our payroll and he's responsible for the place and I think he ought to have a watchman out at night, on the lookout for prowlers.

ANOTHER ONE COMING

"When this Empress goes out, another one comes in; if the chap doesn't get in one night, he might have more luck another time."

"I'll go and see him now," said Angus. "Have you any idea whether it was a young man or an old one?"

"No, sir. If he was an old 'un, he was pretty nippy."

"I'll speak to the manager," said Angus, "but I don't think we'll say anything to the passengers."

"No, sir. Wouldn't do any good."

Angus went thoughtfully to the office. It was odd, he reflected, that there had been two attempts at two different stopping places, to enter the garage.

★ ★ ★

Ferdy had not appeared to attach too much importance to the incidents, but they would have to go down on the report, and Sir Claud would doubtless feel that they were the direct result of breaking his rule and employing an untrained man.

When the passengers were aboard and the coach once more on its way, he would have liked some leisure to think over the matter, but Mrs. Denby-Warre came to his compartment and asked to be shown the route they were taking to Lisbon.

Angus was surprised by this unusual sign that somebody was aware that the coach was going anywhere, and he proceeded to trace a line across the map.

"We go down—" he began.

"Down?"

"We go south to—"

"South. Just one moment, please. I always get the points of the compass mixed up. As we're facing now, which is north?"

"Over there."

CAN'T SEE MAP

"I see. Well, I shall face that way, and then I know that south is behind me and east is on my right hand and—"

"But if you look that way, I'm afraid you won't be able to see the map."

"Of course not. How silly of me. Where are we at the moment?"

"Just here," said Angus, pointing to a spot on the map.

"Do you mean to say that in all this time, we've only got as far as that?" she asked in astonishment.

"We've really made quite good time."

"Oh—time! I was speaking of distance."

Angus struggled on, wondering how a woman could have lived so long and learned so little.

★ ★ ★

On the whole, he decided, he preferred the frankly ignorant to these who, like Mrs. Denby-Warre, imagined that they knew a great deal.

When the exhausting session was over, he went into the main part of the coach to get the drinks ready. Carrying them round, he saw the admiral look down at Maurice Tarrant's hand and give a gruff exclamation.

"Nasty bruise you've got there," he said.

Maurice, with a quick movement, pulled down his cuff, but Angus, standing over him, had already seen the long, livid mark that covered his wrist.

"How did you get it?" asked the admiral.

Maurice made a gesture that thanked the Admiral for his sympathy and at the same time waved it aside. He looked up at Angus and took his glass with the left hand.

"How did it happen?" asked Angus slowly.

'DON'T WORRY ABOUT IT'

Maurice met his look with a blank and unruffled air.

"I expect I gave it a knock," he said. "Please don't worry about it, it doesn't inconvenience me at all."

"How did it happen?" repeated Angus.

"I'm not absolutely certain." Maurice met his glance with a wide, challenging grin. "Something hit it, I'm not quite sure what. I rather think, though, that it was a torch."

For the next two hours, Angus' mind was too full of speculation to enable him to devote much attention to the route or to the passengers.

He forced himself to appear as interested and as helpful as he had been during the earlier part of the day, but his thoughts were busy supplying possible reasons for Maurice Tarrant's action.

He wondered what Ferdy would make of it—and decided that he would say nothing to him until he had spoken to Tarrant and heard his explanation. He would, he resolved, try to get Tarrant alone after lunch.

It proved easy. Maurice showed not the slightest desire to avoid a meeting. Accepting a cigarette from Angus, at whose table he had lunched, he rose and strolled out of sight of the other passengers. When Angus came up to him, he spoke carelessly.

"Not much scenery today, is there?"

Anger flooded Angus, and he waited to get himself under control.

Prisoner Who 'Bought' Parole to Learn Fate

DETROIT (UPI) — A man sentenced to life for the murder of his sister-in-law will learn tomorrow whether he will be returned to an Alabama jail, despite his protests that he bought a parole for $500.

★ ★ ★

Circuit Judge Victor J. Baum said he would decide the case of George Savage, 32, by tomorrow.

Savage told the judge yesterday he was approached by an official of Alabama's Kilby Prison who told him he could buy his way out of jail if he scraped together $500.

★ ★ ★

Savage, father of four, was accused of killing his sister-in-law in a fight over possession of his children following the death of his wife.

Man Steals $1,000 From Detroit Bank

DETROIT (UP) — A man who said he wanted to open a Christmas savings account robbed an east side branch of the Detroit Bank and Trust Co. today of an estimated $1,000.

★ ★ ★

Police said the man walked to the cage of teller Norma Reed and handed her a large brown envelope. He said he wanted to open an account. When Miss Reed opened the envelope she found a note saying she had 15 seconds to stuff it full of all her large bills.

Lansdowne Residents Rap Costs of Repairing Road Surface

Some 21 Waterford Township residents were present at last night's township board meeting, as trustees attempted to iron out difficulties on the blacktopping of Lansdowne street.

★ ★ ★

A special hearing was held and property owners protested the cost of repairing the one-mile stretch. They claimed they had paid for repairs by the Oakland County Road Commission two years.

Supervisor Elmer Johnson plans to meet with a delegation of Lansdowne residents and the Road Commission some time this week, he said. Results of the study will be presented at the Jan. 12 board meeting, Johnson added.

In other business, the Board okayed purchase of a new Ford pickup truck for $1,780 to be paid from the Water System No. 1 improvement fund.

Local heating contractors requiring a license to work in outside communities will be examined by the Detroit Gas and Oil Heating Board until the newly-appointed township heating commission is fully established, it was decided.

Approved was a request from Joseph and Henry Polzin for transfer of a liquor license and dancing permit for their Club Tahoe, from 3412 Dixie Hwy. to 4769 Dixie.

U. S. Moves to Forestall Another Airlines Strike

By United Press International

Federal mediators moved today to forestall a threatened strike of 1,500 administrative workers which could cripple a third airline during the January back-to-work travel rush.

Officials of National Airlines announced yesterday in Miami that a government arbiter would be asked to help settle a dispute over a National ticket agent's firing in New York.

Meanwhile international representative Pat Cain, Air Line Agents Association, said about 1,500 agents and other clerical workers would walk out in the next two weeks unless a settlement is reached.

In other strikes which have tied up Eastern Airlines and American Airlines through the holiday rush, negotiations appeared at a standstill, with no hope for a break before Thursday.

The striking Air Line Pilots Association today resumed consideration of a federal proposal to end their 10-day walkout against American Airlines, but indicated no announcement would come before later in the week.

ALPA's five-man negotiating committee reportedly received a clarification of the government recommendations from Mediation Board Chairman Leverett Edwards.

American Airlines accepted the 12-point plan when it was issued last week.

At Miami, federal mediator Warren Lane said "new ideas" presented to Eastern Airlines and its striking flight engineers had not been accepted.

Lane said it was pointless for him to meet further with the opposing sides unless there are unforeseen developments.

Accuse Youths of Forgery

Charge 2 Boys Took $500 in Merchandise by Using Charge Plate

Two Detroit 20-year-olds were expected to be arraigned this afternoon on a charge of forgery in the alleged use of a charge account plate to purchase some $500 in merchandise from the Northland Center, Inc. in Southfield.

★ ★ ★

Paul M. Mandel, assistant Oakland County prosecutor who today issued the order for a forgery warrant, said investigation would continue in the belief the boys passed the same plate among friends in a club.

Scheduled to face a forgery charge were Anthony F. Czanstke of 17672 Springer St. and Kenneth D. Collins of 14704 Eastwood Ave.

Both have denied anything to do with the scheme, Mandel said.

They were arrested by detectives from the Redford State Police Post after a license number of the car of the boys was taken by a gas station attendant.

Report Offer of Money for Murder

VENTURA, Calif. (AP)—A brunette carhop says Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan asked her to kill Mrs. Duncan's daughter-in-law.

Mrs. Barbara Jean Reed, 27, said Monday she had told a secret grand jury hearing here last week about the offer.

Three other persons also told the grand jury of such offers.

Rudolph Romero, a kitchen helper, said he told the jury Mrs. Duncan, 54, had offered him $2,500 to kill Mrs. Olga Duncan, 30, put her body in a bathtub, and pour lye over it.

Augustine Baldonado and Luis Moya informed the jury Mrs. Duncan had offered them $6,000 to kidnap, kill, and bury the estranged wife of Mrs. Duncan's son, Frank.

Mrs. Reed and Romero said they had turned down the offer. Authorities said Baldonado and Moya had accepted, then kidnaped, throttled, beaten and buried the nurse near a lonely road Nov. 18.

The grand jury indicted Baldonado, Moya and Mrs. Duncan on a murder charge.

February Quota Announced

47 in County Face Draft

Oakland County draft boards will induct 47 men into the Army during February, it was announced today by Col. Arthur A. Holmes, State Selective Service director.

Holmes said state draft boards will induct 753 men during February, with 47 men coming from Oakland County boards and 365 from Wayne County.

Boards 65 and 67 in Pontiac will induct five and 12 men, respectively, with Board 66 in Royal Oak accounting for the remaining 30 county draftees.

Another 2,022 registrants throughout the state will be ordered to take preliminary physical examinations during February in preparation for induction.

All registrants summoned for induction will be at least 22 years old, except for delinquents or volunteers, Holmes said.

Titans Rip Army as Wolverines Rout Princeton

New Attendance Mark for Detroit-U. of M. Championship Certain

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

It will be East versus East, Army and Princeton, and West versus West, Detroit and Michigan, in the final round of the Motor City Basketball Classic tonight at the U. of D. fieldhouse.

U. of D. and Army staged a hot-shooting battle in the first game last night as the Titans scored a 98-87 victory to go into the finals tonight against the Wolverines of Michigan who whipped Princeton, 71-58.

★ ★ ★

Princeton and Army will play the first game tonight at 7:30 p.m., with the U. of D. — Michigan slated for 9:15.

The Titans, with six players hitting in double figures, hit a fantastic 53 per cent of their shots in defeating the Cadets, who also had a hot night from the floor with 46 per cent.

The first half of the game was a thriller with Army taking a fast lead. The Cadets hung on to a two point advantage for the first nine minutes and moved ahead by six, 33-27 with 7:50 to go.

★ ★ ★

U. of D. grabbed a 34-33 lead on Ray Albee's jump shot and pushed the margin to 51-43 at halftime.

In the second half, the margin was 11 points for Detroit most of the way except with six minutes left when Army got within six, 79-73.

Larry Hughes of Walled Lake then hit on a jump shot from the corner and from there on the Titans widened the gap to as much as 13 points.

★ ★ ★

In the nightcap, Michigan was cold but Princeton was frigid as the Wolverines took a 10-2 lead after six minutes of play.

It took Princeton more than four minutes to score a field goal and at halftime it was 34-25 for Michigan.

The Ivy Leaguers under ex-Michigan coach Frank Cappon missed layups persistently and managed only four points in the first nine minutes of the second half.

★ ★ ★

In the final seven minutes Princeton came to life and with 5:30 to go, the Tigers got within eight points, 58-50.

Two quick goals by Terry Miller broke the game open and in the final three minutes Princeton was forced to foul trying to get possession.

Coach Bill Perigo of Michigan did not substitute once during the game, except when George Lee fouled out at 9:30. He was replaced by Gordon Rogers of Utica.

★ ★ ★

High scoring forward M. C. Burton of Muskegon Heights was held to nine points in one of his coldest nights.

High point man for the evening was Army's Darryle Kouns who hit for 38 points, just two shy of tying the record of 40 points held by Bill Ebben of Detroit against Northwestern two years ago.

Kouns got 17 points in the second half and his output of 17 field goals set a new tournament mark.

The 98 points scored by Detroit is a tourney mark for a single team and the Detroit-Army total of 178 is also a new output for two competing teams.

The championship tonight between University of Detroit and the University of Michigan will be the first meeting on the court between the two schools since 1918 when the Wolverines won the lone instance.

Spartans Batter Duke, 82-57; Face North Carolina Tonight

MSU Reaches Dixie Semis

By The Associated Press

Add St. John's (NY), Oklahoma City, Dartmouth, Texas A&M, and Oregon State to the list of Christmas week tournament champions, but keep Kentucky on top in the reckoning for the team to beat in college basketball this season.

Adolph Rupp's Wildcats, who wrapped up their tournament package a week ago in the Kentucky Invitational, ran their all-winning streak to nine last night with an 82-69 victory over Navy as Johnny Cox ripped in 23 points.

Their victory over Navy and Jerry West's 44-point show in fifth-ranked West Virginia's 76-72 decision over Tennessee were the only regular game developments to break through the rash of tournament competition.

Four giants of the hardwoods have reached the semifinals in the tournament of tournaments —the power-packed Dixie Classic in Raleigh. It's Cincinnati against North Carolina State, and a pair of unbeatens, North Carolina against Michigan State.

No fewer than 16 major tournaments were in action last night and five crowned their champion.

St. John's whipped St. Joseph's (Pa.) 90-79 in the ECAC Holiday Festival at New York's Madison Square Garden.

Oklahoma City was rude host again, bagging its third All-College title at home by turning back Duquesne 75-59 in the final.

Dartmouth won the Queen City tournament at Buffalo 72-69 over Canisius.

Texas A&M downed Texas Christian for the Southwest Conference tournament title, and Oregon State won the Far West classic at Corvallis, Ore., topping Iowa, 72-71.

The list will balloon up to 13 after eight more finals tonight.

Mississippi, a 71-47 winner over Florida, meets LSU in the Gator Bowl windup at Jacksonville. LSU beat Georgia 63-60 last night. Defending champion Memphis State and Mississippi State play for the Sugar Bowl championship in New Orleans. Last night, Memphis State nipped Loyola of the South 73-71 and Mississippi State dropped Maryland 56-45.

In the Richmond Invitation final, it's Richmond vs. Penn State, in the Hurricane Tourney (the old Orange Bowl) in Miami, it's Miami of Ohio vs. Miami of Florida. Kansas State, a 73-59 winner over Oklahoma, plays Colorado for the Big 8 Conference tournament title at Kansas City, and Utah State meets Ohio University for the All-American city title at Owensboro, Ky. Finalists in the Providence College Invitational are Boston College and Colgate.

Cincinnati, winning its sixth straight, whipped Wake Forest 94-70 in the first round play Wednesday as Oscar Robertson got into a scuffle with Wake Forest's Dave Budd but wound up scoring 29 points and grabbing 14 rebounds.

North Carolina State went into overtime to nip Louisville, 67-61, Michigan State battered Duke 82-57 and North Carolina, the defending champ, humbled Yale 92-65. Lance Olson led MSU with 17.

Unbeaten St. Francis (Pa.) and George Washington, Davidson and Fordham reached the semifinals of the Carrousel Tourney at Charlotte, N. C. The Frankies beat Bucknell 73-65 and play Davidson, a 62-55 overtime winner over South Carolina. Fordham defeated Pitt 85-76 and George Washington clipped Clemson 72-53.

7,168 at Opener

Crowd Mark at Classic

A new Motor City Basketball tournament attendance record is certain tonight when Michigan and Detroit meet for the championship of the 7th annual classic.

Last night a crowd of 7,168, a new first night record, watched the two games.

A capacity crowd of 9,200 may fill the U. of D. fieldhouse for the first time tonight. The Wolverines, pre-tourney favorites, and the Titans will meet following the 7:30 consolation game between Army and Princeton.

Largest attendance for the two-night classic previously was the 12,082 figure in 1954.

Tickets were still available for tonght's games early today at the U. of D. fieldhouse.

MOTOR CITY ACTION — There was plenty of action at the U. of D. Memorial last night as the annual Motor City Classic opened with the host Titans and Michigan winning. They meet tonight for the title. "M" forward M. C. Burton (24) collided with a Princeton player when this photo was taken in the 1st period. Princeton's James Brangan is 10. (43) is John Tidwell of Michigan.

Writers in Favor of 2-Point Rule

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The Football Writers Assn. of America favors retention of the new two-point conversion rule and return of the goal posts to the goal line in college football.

The members voted against a return to the platoon system.

Bert McGrane, veteran grid expert with the Des Moines Register and Tribune and secretary of the Football Writers Assn., today announced the results of a national poll conducted by the organization:

The writers voiced opinions on other phases of the game. There was a sharp trend against the rule placing the ball on the 20-yard line when a kick is downed in the end zone. There was a plea for uniformity of pro, college and high school rules. Free substitutions were favored and condemned. One-arm blocking was opposed. Some were for eliminating the extra point.

Hard-running Kentucky halfback, Bobby Cravens, is reported by his father to have signed a contract with Ottawa of the Canadian League. The 195-pounder, on the Blue-Gray squad, will receive $9,000 for next season, his parent says.

Detroiter Ted Wright was winner of the recent welterweight scrap in Rome, with Italian Fernando Spallotta. The AP says The Italian was erroneously reported as the winner.

★ ★ ★

Dennis Whitaker, 16, has been crowned champion of two events at the Pontiac YMCA. He won the "Y" table title by defeating Bill Donovan, 17-21, 21-13, 21-19. Then he added to his laurels by winning the checkers tournament.

★ ★ ★

Construction of a new challenger for the Harmsworth trophy will be started in London, Ont. Friday, to be known as Miss Supertest, J. Gordon Thompson said today. Thompson spoke for his son Jim Thompson who is building the unlimited class hydroplane speedster. It will be completed early in April, Thompson said. Bob Hayward of Canada is expected to be its pilot.

Kentucky 1st, MSU Climbs to 7th

NEW YORK (AP)—Kentucky's Wildcats, for the second straight week, edged out Cincinnati today for first place among the nation's college basketball teams.

★ ★ ★

Sportswriters and broadcasters, voting in The Associated Press' fourth weekly poll, gave Kentucky 63 first place votes and 1,338 points to 56 No. 1 ballots and 1,286 points for the runner-up Bearcats.

Neither team was in action last week. Kentucky had an 8-0 record and Cincinnati 5-0 on games played through Saturday, Dec. 27, on which the poll is based.

★ ★ ★

Kansas State (7-1), by virtue of their 69-66 victory over Missouri in the first round of the Big Eight tournament, wrested third place from unbeaten North Carolina, 843 — 797.

North Carolina had 13 first place votes to six for Kansas State but the Wildcats had more second and third place votes.

North Carolina State (6-1), although idle last week, moved up a notch into fifth place with 463 points, displacing West Virginia, which fell to 11th place by losing to Northwestern in overtime. The Big Ten Wildcats, now 6-1, soared from 12th to sixth on the strength of their 118-109 triumph over the Mountaineers. Their 447 points barely topped the 435 total of Michigan State, which advanced them from ninth to seventh place.

★ ★ ★

Unbeaten Mississippi State (7-0) and Auburn (6-0) each dropped a notch to eighth and ninth, respectively.

Mississippi State, idle last week, will be thoroughly tested this week in the Sugar Bowl and in Saturday night's game against Auburn. The Tigers, who attracted 363 points to 377 for the Maroons, downed Florida State Saturday for their sixth straight and 17th in a row over a two-year span.

★ ★ ★

Unbeaten Bradley, which defeated Dartmouth and Gonzaga for its sixth and seventh triumphs, jumped from 13 to 10th, replacing Xavier, which didn't make the top twenty after absorbing an 81-54 trimming by Oklahoma City. Bradley received 285 points.

Bowl Elevens Eye Weather

DALLAS (AP) — The concensus is that you shouldn't feel too sorry for "little" Air Force Academy in its battle with big Texas Christian in the Cotton Bowl Thursday.

★ ★ ★

Manpower may not have anything to do with it and if it does Air Force seems to have enough to take care of the situation.

Coach Ben Martin is using the two-unit system and plans to continue it in the Cotton Bowl. Even in the tie against Iowa, the strongest team played during the season, he was able to substitute by the clock.

Coach Abe Martin of Texas Christian wouldn't say he thought reserve strength would be the major point—he merely declared that "I think the second team will have a lot to do with this game."

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Clemson isn't banking on any help from the weatherman against Louisiana State's national champions in the Sugar Bowl on New Year's Day. But it's no secret a wet field will impede the speedy Bayou Bengals and an uncooperative forecast calls for rain for the next day or two.

Forecasters said they don't expect any rain on the 82,000 fans Thursday, but heavy showers were on tap for today and tomorrow and a heavy field probably will greet the teams.

Coach Frank Howard had his Clemson squad working out in mild, springlike weather at Biloxi, Miss., yesterday. The balding veteran of 19 seasons at Clemson said —perhaps with tongue in cheek— he hoped the good weather will last.

Coach Paul Dietzel of undefeated LSU had little comment on future weather conditions. But one of his toughest regular season games was 7-6 muddy victory over Mississippi State, a team his Bengals were favored to beat by a prohibitive margin.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The temperature for the Orange Bowl game with Oklahoma New Year's day was of much concern to Coach Ben Schwartzwalder of Syracuse as he sent his squad through a double workout Monday.

"I don't know whether we can stand heat or not," he said thoughtfully.

The Oklahoma squad held only an afternoon workout Monday, with Coach Bud Wilkinson apparently satisfied with the condition of the players.

Arizin Tops 10,000 Points, 500 Victories for Auerbach

By The Associated Press

A couple of milestones have been reached by Paul Arizin and Red Auerbach in the National Basketball Assn.

★ ★ ★

Arizin, the Philadelphia Warriors' sharp-shooter, passed the 10,000 point mark in the NBA, and Boston Coach Red Auerbach was presented with his 500th NBA victory by Bob Cousy.

The Philadelphia star, a 30-year-old ex-Marine, joined a select group of four in the 10,000-plus club when he clicked for 25 points in leading the Warriors to a disputed 95-93 victory over Minneapolis in the first game of a doubleheader at St. Louis Monday night.

St. Louis, paced by Bob Petti whipped Cincinnati in the second contest, 124-112. That moved the Hawks 5½ games in front of Detroit in the Western division. And Boston pulled 4½ games ahead of New York in the East with its 107-105 triumph over Syracuse on Cousy's five points in the last 90 seconds.

★ ★ ★

Arizin was just five points short of five figures when he went against Minneapolis.

★ ★ ★

The 6-4, 200-pounder is in the elite set with George Mikan, the retired Minneapolis great, Dolph Schayes of Syracuse, Ed Macauley, now coach of the St. Louis Hawks, and the marvelous Cousy.

Wolverine, Long Lake Teams Win

Long Lake and Wolverine Lake were weekend winners in the Inter-Lakes Hockey League sponsored by the Walled Lake Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Brick Foster's two goals paced Long Lake to a 4-2 triumph over Lower Straits. Two goals apiece by Chris Canaday and Rick Anderson offset a hat trick by Bud Williams as Wolverine Lake outscored Walled Lake 6-3.

Wolverine Lake and Long Lake play Saturday and Walled Lake meets Lower Straits at 3.

Celtics, Hawks Dominate Stars

Shue on Western 5 for NBA Feature Contest in Detroit, Jan. 23

NEW YORK (AP) — The pace-setting Boston Celtics and St. Louis Hawks each placed three men on the Eastern and Western squads for the ninth annual National Basketball Assn. All-Star game at Detroit, Jan. 23.

★ ★ ★

The Celtics, leaders of the Eastern division, are represented by Bob Cousy, Bill Russell and Bill Sharman. The other two Easterners on the first five are Ken Sears of the New York Knickerbockers and Paul Arizin of the Philadelphia Warriors.

★ ★ ★

Bob Pettit, leading scorer of the pro circuit, Cliff Hagan and Slater Martin, make up the St. Louis contingent. Picked with them were Gene Shue of Detroit and Elgin Baylor of the Minneapolis Lakers. The only newcomer is Baylor, the versatile rookie.

The selections were announced Monday by NBA President Maurice Podoloff.

Pettit Retains NBA Scoring Leadership

NEW YORK (AP) — Towering Bob Pettit of St. Louis still is the ruler of the National Basketball Assn.'s sharpshooters but the pro circuit has a new playmaking leader in an old hand—Boston's Bob Cousy.

Pettit is the top gun with 817 points and an 28.2 per-game average of 29 games. Cousy moved ahead of Detroit's Dick McGuire in the assists department with 30 feeds in his last three outings for a total of 221. Tricky Dick has 217.

Figures released today by the NBA cover games through Sunday, Dec. 28.

The scoring leaders:

	G	GF	FT	Pts	Avg.
1. Pettit, St. L.	29	281	255	817	28.2
2. Arizin, Phila.	29	242	240	724	25.0

U.S. Only Step Away From Davis Cup

Highest Honor in Tennis Can Be Won Today

Doubles Victory Over Aussies Puts America Near Coveted Award

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — America's Ham Richardson and Alex Olmedo made a dramatic — almost impossible—comeback just when all seemed lost today and won the doubles over Mal Anderson and Neale Fraser to move within one step of recapturing the Davis Cup from Australia.

Behind two sets and their backs squarely up against the wall, Richardson, the No. 1 player in the U. S., and Olmedo, the borrowed Peruvian, won an exhausting four-hour marathon, 10-12, 3-6, 16-14, 6-3, 7-5.

The triumph gave the underdog Yanks a 2-1 lead in the best-of-5 competition and puts them in a favorable position to clinch the International tennis trophy in the final singles tomorrow.

Olmedo, who scored a sensational first-day victory over Anderson, will play Wimbledon champion Ashley Cooper in the first match (10:15 p.m., EST), while Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, will meet weary, harried Anderson in the final test.

★ ★ ★

Teh confident American camp is sure the 22-year-old Olmedo, who is playing brilliant tennis, will whip Cooper, the world's top amateur, and make the final match a mere formality.

But even if he fails, the most rabid Australians concede MacKay, with his booming service, stands a good chance of licking Anderson, a chronic worrier who now is fretting over two straight setbacks.

It was Anderson, his legs wobbly from weariness, who finally cracked in the 81st game, losing his service at love in the 11th game of the fifth and final set.

★ ★ ★

First he netted a weak volley. Then two fine shots by Richardson made it 0-40, and finally Olmedo won the game — clinching point with a great lob. Fraser, who played well most of the way, smashed the ball at Alex's feet. The national collegiate champion from Southern California swung and the ball wafted over the Aussies' heads, just within the baseline.

Then, Olmedo, with the sweet scent of victory urging him on, unleached the biggest services of his career, won the 12th and deciding game without the loss of a point.

Rose Bowl Secrets Hidden Until New Year's Day

Iowa, Cal End Heavy Work

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Hard work was behind Iowa and California today and whatever the rivals have cooked up for the Rose Bowl battle must remain top secret until New Year's Day.

Coach Pete Elliott of California planned a one-hour session today. The Bears had a rough session of almost two hours yesterday.

Forest Evashevski of the Big Ten champions had similar plans for the Hawkeyes. A spirited dummy workout yesterday featured the pin-point passing of All-America quarterback Randy Duncan.

Cal's quarterback star, Joe Kapp was healthy after a bad cold, and both teams figure to be in excellent shape for the game.

★ ★ ★

Elliott named his probable starting lineup but cautioned it was subject to a revision at one or two spots by kickoff time.

As it stands, Kapp heads a backfield of halfbacks Jack Hart and Hank Olguin and fullback Bill Patton.

Across the line, Elliott named ends Jerry Lundgren and Tom Bates, tackles Pete Newell and Frank Sally, guards Pete Domoto and Don Piestrup and center Terry Jones.

Most observers look for a high scoring game. One expert predicted 30 or more points for each team.

Elliott said he anticipates a few surprises from Evashevski's vaunted wing-T attack. Replying to another question, the Cal mentor inferred he might have a few surprises from his split-T offense.

"Coaches usually have a few new things for a bowl game. They have time to prepare for such things," Elliott noted.

★ ★ ★

Neither the Hawks nor the Golden Bears are noted for defense. Oliver Keuchle, sports editor of the Milwaukee Journal, says a study of past Big Ten season records produces this fact, based on statistics:

Iowa has the second best offensive record of any Big Ten team which has come here, and the second worst defense.

★ ★ ★

Iowa in nine games yielded 134 points while scoring 234.

California's 10 opponents proved the Bears can be hurt, 162 points being the total, while the Bears collected 195.

Through as Grid Coach After 7 Years

Clarkston Drops Ed Hintz

Edward Hintz will be relieved of his duties as football coach at Clarkston High School in the near future, it was announced today by superintendent L. F. Greene.

The popular skipper, who had directed the grid fortunes of the Wolves for the last seven seasons, will stay on at the school in the position of athletic director which he had held while coaching.

In making the announcement, Greene disclosed that a verbal agreement had already been reached with the veteran mentor's probable successor. His name was not revealed.

Greene said the decision had nothing to do with Hintz' losing record the past two seasons although he commented the football situation had not been very bright during that time.

★ ★ ★

"There comes a time you have to make some changes. It's true Ed's record has not been a winning one but we don't have that kind of pressure here."

"Our staff is expanding and he is being given extra duties as athletic director. Part of his new work will include freeing the principal of some of his duties," stated Greene.

He said Hintz woud continue as a fulltime teacher but that it was not certain if he would still be assistant coach in basketball. It also has not been determined if head basketball boss Dom Mauti will continue as football aide.

★ ★ ★

Hintz finished with a combined record of 25 victories, 28 losses and six ties after being on the winning side of the ledger for the 1st five seasons.

His 1954 eleven won the Wayne-Oakland championship while winning five of eight while the 1952 and '55 contingents were runnerups. The Eastern Michigan grad had his best year in 1955—7-2.

Hintz had a 20-18-4 slate before the roof started to cave in during 1957. Injuries wrecked the Wolves last fall after a good start.

Lanny Leak and Dick Johnston, who went on to small college stardom at Albion, were among the many top performers turned out by Hintz.

★ ★ ★

The dropped coach had predicted Clarkston would bounce back in football during the next two years last month following the final game.

No 1st Down for Gifford

Movies Support Officials

NEW YORK (AP) — Movies of the Giants-Baltimore Colts pro football championship game Monday showed officials were correct in ruling New York's Frank Gifford did not make a first down in a key fourth quarter play.

Gifford slashed for three yards plus a few inches just past the New York 43 when he had to make the 44. That was on third down with the Giants leading 17-14 with 2½ minutes left to play. If he had made the first down, the Giants would have kept the ball and could have run out the time with four line plays.

Since he didn't make it, New York Coach Jim Lee Howell ordered a punt. Baltimore marched from its own 14 for a tying field goal and then won in overtime, 23-17.

Gifford said he was certain he had made the 44 and most of the Giants did, too.

Howell, in running the movies Monday, stopped the action and re-ran it a couple of times, almost in the hope that Gifford might get that needed distance. But each time the play ended, Frank was in the same place.

North, South Squads Begin to Shape Up

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Coaches Paul Brown of the South and Joe Kuharich of the North began shaping up their teams Monday for the Senior Bowl football game Saturday.

★ ★ ★

The 25-man squads took things fairly easily in the morning session, devoted mainly to picture taking. But they made up for it in a long afternoon drill.

★ ★ ★

Brown, head man of the pro Cleveland Browns, worked Baylor's Buddy Humphrey, the nation's leading passer, at the No. 1 quarterback post for the South.

★ ★ ★

Also seeing extensive service in the tentative No. 1 offensive backfield were Bill Stacey, Mississippi State quarterback who ran at a halfback post; back Don Brown of Houston; and fullback Theron Sapp of Georgia.

Southfield, Holly Make Finals of Tournaments

The basketball teams of Southfield and Holly can complete a happy holiday season tonight by winning the championships of two area Christmas tourneys.

Southfield, host to the Northwest Suburban, upset previously unbeaten Livonia Bentley 68-62 in the big game there.

Holly gained the finals at Fenton by whipping Brighton 66-54 matching Southfield's feat of beating a team it had bowed to earlier.

Southfield will go against another unbeaten quintet in Redford Union tonight. Holly tangles with host Fenton which defeated the Broncos in their season opener.

★ ★ ★

The Bluejays of Southfield could not stop Livonia hotshot Tom Eveland but they still managed to lead all the way paced by Cliff Solberg and Tom Ridley with 20 and 16 points. Eveland hit 30.

Redford reached the finals by nipping Farmington 53-52 in a thriller all the way. Harvey Chapman hooped 19 in defeat.

★ ★ ★

Holly led Brighton all the way after posting an 18-9 1st period edge. Backboard control featuring the work of 6-6 George McDaniels, Ted Wagner and Darrel Kinney sparked the Broncos.

★ ★ ★

Ron Moreland swished 20 points as did McDaniels to pace the offensive attack. Sean Lavan had the same total for Brighton.

★ ★ ★

Milford was eliminated from a chance at consolation honors by dropping a 57-50 verdict to Flint Bendle in Monday's other game.

Game Cash Just Start for Colts

Gift Purses Totaling $50,000 to Be Shared by Players, Coaches

BALTIMORE (AP) — The $4,718.77 received by each member of the Baltimore Colts for winning the National Football League title is only the beginning.

Two gifts totaling $50,000—to be split up among players and coaches—were reported today. A substantial "merit award" also is likely from Colt owner Carroll Rosenbloom, who has doled out post-season gifts as high as $1,000 in the past to also-ran teams.

Another windfall is due next fall when the Colts play the College All-Stars in Chicago. And finally, a half dozen or so Baltimore players will collect again Jan. 11 when they participate in the All-Pro game at Los Angeles.

One gift of $25,000 was announced today by President Jerold C. Hoffberger of National Brewing Co., sponsors of the Colt games on radio and television for the past four years.

Hoffberger said the money was a gesture of appreciation for the acclaim the Colts have brought to the city as world champions of football and for the "unmatched sports enjoyment which they have given their fans."

Sports editor Jesse A. Linthicum of the Sun also reported another $25,000 gift. He said in today's edition the money was contributed by a fan "for all of the pleasure they (the Colts) have given me this year." The donor was not further identified.

The money received from Sunday's title game against the New York Giants was divided into 42½ shares by the Colts. On the same basis, the $50,000 would amount to almost $1,200 a full share.

PORT HURON (AP) — Dearborn and Port Huron, victors in last night's opening games, meet tonight for the championship of the Port Huron Junior College Basketball Tournament.

Totaling 50 points together, Terry Callaway and Jim McIntyre led Dearborn to a 79-72 triumph over Bay City while Port Huron won from Highland Park 70-63.

U.S. National Skaters Beat Wolverines, 6-2

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The touring U.S. National hockey team scuttled Michigan 6-2 last night in its last warmup before its New Year's Day game with the Soviet Russian team in New York's Madison Square Garden.

With far too much class for the Wolverines, the American all-star aggregation gave a sharp exhibition of stickwork for its 10th victory in 14 games. One was a tie.

Coast Player Says Officials Help Cincy Star

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A College of the Pacific basketball player charged Monday that All-America Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati gets help from officials on his home court.

★ ★ ★

Dave Klurman told a Northern California basketball writers luncheon that two weeks ago in the COP-Cincinnati game the Big O had only 10 points at half time.

"Near the end of the half," Klurman said, "Oscar said to me, 'You're playing me too close. I'm going to tell the referee about it.'

★ ★ ★

"I thought he was joking," Klurman continued. "But when the second half started this official came to me and said, 'You'll have to give Robertson room, or I'll call a personal on you.'"

Geoffrion Eyes 2 NHL Records

MONTREAL (AP) — If Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion, the Montreal Canadiens' burly right-winger, can keep up his present scoring pace he will be bidding for a couple of National Hockey League records at the end of the season.

★ ★ ★

The league's official statistics, released today, show the Boomer comfortably on top of the scoring parade with 48 points. He has scored 19 goals and collected 29 assists with the season one-game short of the midway mark.

Geoffrion needs 96 points to set one record and 57 assists to set another. The record for points is 95, made by Gordie Howe of the Detroit Red Wings in the 1952-53 season. The assists record for a season is 56. It was made by Bert Olmstead, now with the Toronto Maple Leafs, when with the Canadiens in the 1955-56 season.

The leaders:

Asia May Swing Back to Communism

By ARNOLD DIBBLE

TOKYO (UPI) — Asia saw the steady drift toward communism checked slightly in 1958 but may see the pendulum swing back somewhat to the left again in 1959.

One of Asia's biggest stories next year though, may involve communism only indirectly. Its focal point would be a vast, primitive land known variously as Western New Guinea or West Irian. Claimed by both Indonesia and the Netherlands, it is freighted with an explosive potential involving both East and West.

These other headlines are possible for Asia in 1959:

Red China Aims New Campaign at Formosa

Singapore Swings to the Left

Nehru Steps Aside in India

Japan's Prime Minister Kishi Resigns

New Anti-Communist Pact Launched

The West had its eyes pinned on the Formosa Straits for the last half of 1958 and little noticed the gradual buildup of tension over New Guinea.

The 159,375 square miles of jungle and mountain, home of fewer than 1,000,000 persons, is now administered by the Dutch.

President Sukarno of Indonesia claims the land as his under the 1949 independence agreement with the Netherlands. And government spokesmen have said Indonesia will invade, if necessary, to back up its claims.

The Dutch sare said to have only a half-heart for defending what so far has been a deficit area (although high hopes are held for future development), but Australia, which administers the eastern half of New Guinea, has let it be known it not only will back the Dutch to the end, but even might oppose any Indonesian military adventure by itself if need be.

★ ★ ★

What frightens many observers is the possibility that in case of any serious fighting, Sukarno undoubtedly could count on Red Chinese and Russian support—just as he got economic and logistic support during this year's ill-fated rebellion in Sumatra and the Celebes.

★ ★ ★

Elsewhere in the Far East, the year 1958 saw military men step in and check the tide of communism in Pakistan, Burma and Thailand—even if at the cost of democracy as it is practiced in the West.

But early next year, Singapore will elect its first self-government and the leftists are seen certain to gain considerable strength, due, in part at least, to squabbling among middle-of-the-road factions.

Also in this southeast Asia complex, the Communists seem to be making slow but steady advances in Laos, Cambodia and perhaps in Indonesia, where Red strength already is strong.

★ ★ ★

But elsewhere in Asia, anti-Communist bulwarks are expected to remain strong. And there is even a possibility that Korean President Syngman Rhee will realize in 1959 his long dream to unite the Philippines, Viet Nam, Formosa, Korea—and possibly even Japan.

Perhaps the most predictable event in 1959 will be new provocations by Red China against Formosa. You can time this to precede any major United Nations or other major diplomatic meeting—Red China's exclamation mark to its efforts to get into the U.N.

★ ★ ★

Personalities may change on the Asian scene, too.

India's Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru has been talking of stepping down and devoting his energies to reorganizing the Congress Party.

Even if he rides out the current government crisis, there's a good possibility Japan's Prime Minister Nobosuke Kishi may resign sometime before next spring. The trouble is that there are no strong, active leaders in the Japanese Conservative Party.

As a long shot, very long, it's possible former strongman-premier Shigeru Yoshida might be coaxed out of retirement.

And in Korea, Syngaman Rhee is 83—strong and hearty but still 83. If he steps down, the best chance to succeed him goes to Assembly Speaker Lee Ki Poong, 62.

It may also be the year that Mao Tse-tung, 65, taps his potential successor in China.

Chiang Kai-shek is 72, but still going strong and there is no clear-cut successor in sight.

Hare Questions Detroit Dealer

State Secretary Says Auto Firm Handled 200 Uncertain Sales

DETROIT (UP) — A Detroit auto dealer accused of illegal sales procedures has been summoned to a hearing today at a secretary of state's branch office here.

Secretary of State James M. Hare said evidence shows Al Novick, doing business as Easy Motor Sales, handled more than 200 "questionable transactions."

Novick failed to record 104 auto purchases by private individuals and 22 purchases from other dealers, besides failing to inform the state when 40 cars were junked, Hare said.

Titles of another 50 cars found on Easy Motor Sales lots were not recorded, he said.

Hare said he plans a series of hearings on illegal auto sales procedures.

★ ★ ★

"Laxity can open the doors wide to scores of illegal and possibly criminal activities," Hare said. "We must examine our motor vehicle and tax laws and initiate legislation to close all loopholes which could make it possible for a few dishonest dealers to cheat the state."

Space Craft 'Air' Brakes Considered

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A young Seattle physicist reported today he is studying possible ways of using meteor trails and the wakes of satellites as brakes to slow down superfast aircraft for earth landings.

★ ★ ★

The idea is to determine whether the trails and wakes contain magnetic fields to regiment the electric particles which they are known to contain.

★ ★ ★

If magnetic fields are present they may force the electrical particles to move within a long, cylindrical mass which could act as a kind of headwind for slowing test aircraft, said Ira L. Karp of the Boeing Airplane Co.

Karp delivered a paper on the subject before the American Physical Society.

Passengers Hustle From Burning Plane

CHICAGO (AP)—Fire broke out in an engine of a chartered United Air Lines DC6B shortly after it landed at Midway Airport Monday night and some of the 64 passengers scrambled out through evacuation doors. Others left through the usual exits.

One passenger, William Dreier, 44, Chicago, suffered a possible fractured leg in a leap from the wing of the four-engine plane. No one else was injured.

A United Air Lines spokesman said the blaze, which started when oil caught fire in an engine, was put out quickly.

The plane came to Chicago from San Francisco with passengers who attended Saturday's East-West Shrine football game.

Grain Futures Firm in Spots

CHICAGO (AP) — The grain futures market showed some firming tendencies in spots today on the Board of Trade after several consecutive sessions of general weakness.

Soybeans continued their downward trend in early activity while the grains held about steady, within small ranges both above and below previous closes.

Brokers said some of the early steadiness appeared to be related to belief that the market had been oversold during the price declines.

Near the end of the first hour, however, wheat was ¼ to ½ cent a bushel higher, March $1.94⅜; corn unchanged to ⅜ higher, March old type contract $1.12⅜; oats ¼ to ⅜ higher, March 64¾; rye ⅛ to ⅜ higher, March $1.30½; soybeans ¼ to ½ lower, January $2.12¾.

7-Cent Tax Expensive

DETROIT (AP)—Wayne County loses money every time it bills Boleslaw Gawel. His house is assessed at $2,010. But Gawel gets a $2,000 soldier's homestead tax exemption, and the tax on the remaining $10 is only 7 cents. Officials say it costs 50 cents to send a bill for the 7 cents.

Junior Miss Contest Deadline Extended

The Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce will continue to receive nominations through Saturday for the Michigan Junior Miss Contest.

★ ★ ★

But only those organizations that already have applications will be allowed to submit nominations now that the deadline for applications has passed, said W. B. Neal, contest chairman.

The contest is open to any Michigan high school senior who will be at least 16 years old but no more than 17 on March 8, 1959. Michigan contestants will be judged in Pontiac Jan. 16 and the winner will go to the national contest in Mobile, Ala., March 4.

There will be $10,000 in scholarships as national prizes.

'Small World' Still Lost

LONDON (AP) — The balloon Small World is still lost. Expedition organizers here said today they still have had no word about the four British adventurers or their plastic balloon.

Brisk Market Shows Gains

NEW YORK (AP)—The Stock Market moved along briskly to further gains in active early trading today.

Pivotal issues advanced fractions to about 2 points. A few small losers dotted the list.

★ ★ ★

The Market was once more progressing into record ground in a resumption of a yearend rally. The ticker tape was late for a seven-minute period at the opening.

Motors were active and higher. The rise accompanied reports of increased car sales and bright forecasts for 1959. Steels did well as the current industry operating rate was scheduled for a 14-month high. World Trade prospects continued to look rosier in view of the new convertibility of European currencies.

Fractional gains were made by the big three motors while American Motors gained about a point. U.S. Steel and Goodyear, which are among issues rumored as likely stock split candidates, rose 2 points or so.

★ ★ ★

American Telephone, Zenith and Bethlehem rose around a point each. Fractional gains were made by a wide variety of issues including Jones & Laughlin, U.S. Rubber, International Harvester, Boeing, Anaconda, Allied Chemical, Eastman Kodak, Westinghouse Electric, A&P, New York Central, Texas Co. and U.S. Gypsum.

'Horsepower for Safety, Not Speed'

LANSING (AP) — An Oldsmobile official has taken note of the controversy revolving around the auto industry's horsepower race. "Horsepower is for safety—not speed," says Clare D. Harrington.

Harrington, an administrative engineer, spoke yesterday to a Lansing service club.

"Top horsepower is there when you need it," Harrington said. "It helps you get in and out of traffic on today's congested highways and it enables you to avoid being trapped by yellow lines."

He noted that 1959 cars probably have about 75 more horsepower than necessary to travel at 65 miles per hour. "But," he added, "we'd have difficulty selling a vehicle with any less horsepower."

10-Day Jail Term Due for Woman TV Critic

NEW YORK (AP)—Miss Marie Torre, radio and television critic of the New York Herald Tribune, chose today to serve 10 days in jail rather than disclose for a federal court the source of one of her stories concerning singer Judy Garland.

U. S. Dist. Judge Sylvester J. Ryan ordered Miss Toree to surrender at 10 a.m. Monday to begin serving the sentence.

She is the mother of two children.

SORRY!
WE ARE NOT . . .
HAVING A GIGANTIC
Super-Colossal Sale
WITH FANTASTIC BARGAINS, NOR DO WE CLAIM TO SELL CARS WITH NO DOWN PAYMENTS OR OTHER SUCH FOOLISH COME-ONS.
— BRAID —
MOTOR SALES
STARTED IN BUSINESS IN JANUARY 1924 AND SINCE THAT TIME WE HAVE SOLD 7,214 USED CARS — THE LARGEST PERCENTAGE OF WHICH HAVE BEEN SOLD TO REPEAT CUSTOMERS AND FRIENDS OF CUSTOMERS.
OUR EVERY DAY . . . methods are based on low pressure selling and good sound values.
WE CANNOT . . . honestly claim to have the most, the cheapest, or even the best used cars in Pontiac — however, we do have a large selection of good reconditioned used cars — Mostly new car trade-ins.
WE HAVE . . . written guarantees but we think our word is far more important. It is upon one's word that future happy relationships are dependent.
PLEASE . . . give us the opportunity of helping you if you are considering the purchase of a used car or are contemplating selling your present car

'Playhouse 90' Presents Drama

Hollywood Actor Plays Part of Lawyer Faced With Dilemma

NEW YORK—Jack Lemmon heads a cast which includes James Gregory, Rip Torn, William Hansen, Henry Hull, Ann Meacham, Larry Gates and Malcolm Atterbury in the CBS television network's "Playhouse 90" adaptation of "Face of a Hero," the latest novel by Pierre Boulle, author of "The Bridge Over the River Kwai," which will be presented Thursday, Jan. 1 from 9:30 to 11:00 p.m.

★ ★ ★

"Face of a Hero" is the story of David Poole, a brilliant young prosecuting attorney in a Southern United States town, who looks on, paralyzed by fear, as a young girl accidentally falls into a river and drowns.

Subsequently, when he is called upon to prosecute a ne'er-do-well charged with the girl's death, Poole must decide whether to try for a conviction or admit his own cowardice and suffer public disgrace.

John Houseman produces Robert Joseph's adaptation of the Boulle novel. John Frankenheimer, who directed the rave-winning "Days of Wine and Roses" and "Old Man" for Playhouse 90 earlier this season, will direct "Face of a Hero."

Adapter Joseph, producer of such Broadway plays as "Major Barbara" and "Tiger at the Gates," will produce "Face of a Hero" on Broadway later this season.

Lemmon, in his second "Playhouse 90" appearance, stars as Poole. Well known to moviegoers for his standout performances in such pictures as "Mr. Roberts," "Cowboy," "Bell, Book and Candle" and other films, Lemmon starred in 'The Mystery of Thirteen" on the award-winning "Playhouse 90" series last season.

FACE OF A HERO — Jack Lemmon portrays David Poole, a young prosecutor strangely committed to an impossible code of ideals in "Playhouse 90's" production of Pierre Boulle's "Face of a Hero" Thursday night on CBS-TV. Co-starring are James Gregory, Rip Torn, William Hansen, Henry Hull, Larry Gates and Anne Meacham.

Big New World Opens When Earl Gets a Hat

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — For 1959, I'm resolving to wear a hat. You see, somebody gave me a gift certificate for $10 worth of hat. I've been one of the bareheaded boys for years . . . but that gift coupon I couldn't waste. I picked out a flap-top, gray, snap-brim model. Jose Ferrer, Danny Kaye, Tina Louise, Mamie Van Doren, and Irving Berlin wear hats . . . and before me there opened up a whole new world that would have better remained shut.

WILSON

You see, I'm inclined to lose hats.

Not that it's my fault. But since Huntington Hartford married lovely Marjorie Steele who used to be a checkroom gal in Hollywood, the hatchicks have been looking for millionaires . . . of which I'm not one.

"You won't keep your hat two weeks," my B.W. (the Beautiful Wife) prophesied. She was still mad at me for saying I'd chased her gloves from coast to coast and host to host for going on 23 years.

The first night out was a narrow escape.

★ ★ ★

I cringed as I was leaving a party George de Witt was giving for Hugh O'Brian—because the checkroom was so crowded, they put some of the wraps in the kitchen.

"My new hat they're probably making into a stew!" I gasped.

But they found it. On somebody's head. Somebody who had been waiting for his hat had decided to take mine and blow.

I wore it the other night to a Broadway opening. Nothing happened there except I forgot I was wearing a hat and sat on it. Aren't hats wonderful?

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Zsa Zsa Gabor and architect-builder Hal Hayes "announced" they're getting married. Hal said Zsa would become a vice prez of his company. Mama Gabor here said, "He's a very sveet guy, I vould like to have him as a son-in-law" . . . Peter Townsend and his Belgian girl friend, Maria-Luce Jamagne, daughter of a cigarette tycoon, about whom there were marriage rumors, seem to have broken up. Townsend plans to visit the U.S. soon.

Richard Boone of "Have Gun, Will Travel," sent writer Dick Gehman a live duck for Christmas.

★ ★ ★

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "Nowadays you have to have a sleep-in television repairman."—Walter Slezak.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: "One thing that never turns out as it should is the car in front of you."—Charles A. Knouse.

New Year's thought: A Boston taxi company has this sign: "Take no chances . . . let us drive you to drink." . . . That's earl, brother.

Pentagon to Be Questioned About Red Missile Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — Members of two Senate committees said today Pentagon officials will be asked about reports that the Soviet Union will have 300 intercontinental ballistic missiles within 18 months.

★ ★ ★

A report to that effect, without any verification, was made public at a weekend meeting of the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science. It said half the 300 ICBMs would work, with a range and accuracy that could destroy the U.S. Strategic Air Command's retaliatory power.

There was no comment from military officials.

Roger Hilsman, deputy research director of the Library of Congress' Legislative Reference Service, said he got the report second-hand from a meeting of a minority group of the Council of Foreign Relations in New York early this month.

★ ★ ★

But members of the Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations committees said the estimate calls for an early statement by the Defense Department to the two groups.

Sen. Mike Mansfield (Mont), assistant Senate Democratic leader, said closed door sessions of the two committees to receive the appraisal "unquestionably will be among the first orders of business" after Congress meets Jan. 7.

Senators John Sparkman (D-Ala), Prescott Bush (R-Conn) and John S. Cooper (R-Ky) all said Congress will ned some early comment from the Defense Department on what the known facts are.

Mansfield said the estimate, if it is found accurate or even nearly so, "ought to wipe away any complacency" stemming from this country's feat in sending the talking Atlas ballistic missile into orbit.

Son's Trial Begins in Petoskey Slaying

PETOSKEY (AP)—A jury today began hearing the murder trial of Paul Achenbach in the death of his 78-year-old mother, Mrs. Clara Achenbach.

Achenbach, 46, a former insurance broker, is accused of first degree murder. His mother's body, covered with a sheet, was found in her apartment last month. She had been dead for months, authorities said.

Selection of the jury was completed yesterday.

Restaurant Units Offer Free 'Coffee-for-Road'

RED BANK, N.J. (UPI) — The Garden State Parkway will buy motorists "one for the road" in the form of tea or coffee early New Year's Day.

The nonalcoholic beverages will be on the house at Parkway restaurants between midnight and 8 a.m. Thursday to those bearing invitation cards handed out by toll collectors.

Snow Slides Kill Six

VIENNA (UPI) — Avalanches have killed six Austrians in the Austrian Alps this winter, police said today.

Q. I have been wearing contact lenses for over three years. How often do you think I should have my eyes examined? L. B.

A. For the best preventative eye care it is felt that all eyes should have a yearly examination. With contact lenses it is even more important, as there are more tests required. See your dentist twice a year and your optometrist once a year. That's really good advice.

Q. Can you give me an idea of the type of pain caused by contact lenses? Is it like a toothache, or a cinder in the eye, or like a stone in the shoe? J. D.

A. Actually at no time is there any pain connected with the fitting or wearing of contact lenses. For a short period of time (about a week) there is an odd feeling sensation of slight lid pressure while wearing the lenses. But there is no hurting.

Q. When is the best time to apply eye make-up when you are wearing contact lenses? Mrs. R. M.

A. You should always put on your contact lenses first before using mascara, eye shadow, doe-eyes, etc. This will prevent you from accidentally getting any make-up in the eye upon lens insertion. And besides, you will be able to see what you are doing!

'Beefeaters Must Pay More Rent

LONDON (AP) — The government raised rents today for the Beefeaters at the Tower of London despite their threat to strike.

The Beefeaters are colorfully uniformed yeoman warders who provide a bit of medieval pageantry in the ancient, central London castle by the Thames Rivers. The men are retired warrant officers from the military services who live with their families within the tower's gray walls.

★ ★ ★

They have been paying only a nominal rent of 5 shillings (70 cents) a week and in return performed such duties as night security work, standing guard on winter Sundays when the tower is closed and appearing in church parades.

★ ★ ★

Tower authorities announced two weeks ago they would increase the rent to a pound ($2.80). The Beefeaters said they'd stop the extra work if that happened. Today the minister of works made the increase official.

The Beefeaters called a conference with their trade union to decide their next move.

MSU Foreign Students Hear International Talk

EAST LANSING (AP) — Some 75 foreign students participating in Michigan State University's annual "Christmas Adventure in World Understanding" will hear today from a U.S. State Department international affairs expert.

Mrs. Rachel C. Nason will speak on "Human Rights: The Most Important Thing in the World Today."

Mrs. Nason is a foreign affairs officer in the state department's Bureau of International Organization Affairs.

600,000 More Pay Tax

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An estimated 59,817,000 income tax returns were filed with the Internal Revenue Service for 1957 — an increase of more than 600,000 from 1956.

CBC Employes Vote to Honor Picket Line

MONTREAL (UPI)—Some 1,000 Canadian Broadcasting Corp. employes voted unanimously last night not to cross picket lines set up around network facilities here by the newly formed television producers' union.

The action will affect both radio and television, the international service and particularly French TV and radio networks. The strike was called by the producers who are seeking salaries equivalent to those paid producers in Toronto. They now make between $5,000 and $10,000 a year.

Time Magazine Picks De Gaulle Man of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — President-elect Charles de Gaulle of France is Time's Man of the Year. His picture will appear on the cover of today's yearend edition of the newsmagazine.

★ ★ ★

De Gaulle was previously selected Man of the Year by editors of 3,700 radio stations and newspapers in an Associated Press poll.

Land slippage amounting to almost 21 feet was recorded during the disastrous earthquake which rocked San Francisco in 1906.

Highland Park Pair Mute in Theft Case

DETROIT (AP)—Fireman John McFarland of Highland Park and his wife, Mary, stood mute yesterday to charges of concealing stolen goods worth less than $100.

The McFarlands, accused by police of getting stolen property from teenage burglars, are free on $1,000 bond for trial Feb. 17. They were arraigned in Highland Park Municipal Court.

The original charge against the couple was possession of stolen property.

He Appeals to Unions

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) wants labor to refrain from any wage demands which basic industries could use to justify price increases.

Call on Long Distance

HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI) — Hartford police dispatcher David Van Iderstine recently issued a routine call that would have required a 1,000-mile drive by the patrol car which received it. Due to freak atmospheric conditions, his broadcast had been beamed to a patrol car in Chicago.

Gay New Year's Often Secretly Despised

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—Twenty-four hours from now, the hurdle race of the year will be well on its way.

It's the annual sprint to temporary oblivion — with each merry escapist dashing headlong against the clock and the competition trying to get there first.

★ ★ ★

Where? Just there. Beyond memory and reason.

What fun. What jollity. What a bore.

New Year's Eve is the one night of the year that most people secretly despise. It is a night full of casualties, casualties that are unlisted by the National Safety Council: Regrets, fears, and antagonisms, brought on by martinis, Scotch and champagne.

It is a night when tradition makes it mandatory to be gay. And people follow the obligation with the same resentment that children follow orders: "I'll do it, but you can't get me to like it!

★ ★ ★

So the funny hats go on, and the funny horns blow, and the drinks are slugged, and the prices are raised, and sometime during the evening almost everybody becomes terribly depressed or belligerent at the whole absurd idea.

A girl always cries on a windowsill, and a man generally leaves a party without his wife.

Some people try, annually, to escape from New Year's Eve. They go to Bermuda, or to bed, and try to blot out the loud sounds of the herd having themselves a raucous time.

This is even worse than following the edict, because they cannot escape themselves. And New Year's Eve is the night for thinking nostalgically of the past and peering timidly into the future. It is that imaginary fence one must cross over from an old year into a new, and it is even harder on the conscience to sit on that fence and ponder, than it is to leap it with pseudo abandon like the rest of the runners.

★ ★ ★

Even children, before the age of regret and disillusion, have a tough time on New Year's Eve. For if they are this young, they must stay upstairs and listen longingly to what appears to be gaiety in the parlor or street below—and feel frustrated, because they are too innocent to realize that what they are missing is a painful nothing.

The race to get over the old year and into the new, without too much agony, is won by the rare few who have one thing in common:

They genuinely like themselves.

These are the fortunate persons who are neither too cynical nor too idealistic—the thoughtful minority who have passed through the cycle of soul-searching to self-acceptance and ultimate self-liking . . . the hard to find people who can genuinely follow the command, "Love they neighbor as thyself."

To them, the New Year's Eve "Be Gay" order is only a splendid suggestion. And the champagne is just gravy.

How Grateful Are You . . . ?

We have so many good things in this life. The good health with which we are blessed, the ease of travel the world over; and the constant presence of good reading and education are only a start.

The beautiful and kindly funeral service for those departed is one of todays real blessings. Everything, yes everything is done to restore peace and tranquility to those in sorrow — for which all are most grateful.
