AMC Profit Sharing Is in Doubt

Swainson Names Auditor General to Supreme Court

OTIS M. SMITH

LANSING (AP) — Aud. Gen. Otis M. Smith was appointed by Gov. Swainson to the Michigan Supreme Court today, making him the first Negro ever to sit on the high court

★ ★ ★

Smith will replace Justice Talbot Smith, 61, of Ann Arbor, who will leave the Supreme Court tomorrow to take over a federal judgeship in the Eastern District of Michigan.

At 39, Otis Smith will be the second youngest of the eight justices on the high court and one of the youngest in its history.

The appointment caps a meteoric political career for Smith, who has established a series of firsts for his race in Michigan.

★ ★ ★

Smith first caught the eye of former Gov. G. Mennen Williams in 1957 when, as a Flint attorney, he promoted John C. Mackie's bid for state highway commissioner. A few months later Williams named him public service commissioner, one of the most powerful appointive jobs in state government.

SOLID REPUTATION

Smith carved out a solid reputation for himself with the PSC, winning a reputation as a capable administrator and hard worker who cleaned up a backlog of cases awaiting PSC decisions.

★ ★ ★

Smith became the first Negro ever to serve on the state administrative board when Williams named him auditor general in September 1959, when Aud. Gen. Frank S. Szymanski became a Wayne County circuit judge. He was elected last year to a two-year term.

The appointment to the supreme court will run until the November 1962 election. It leaves Democrats with a 5-3 majority on the court.

Mild-mannered and thoroughly composed, Smith hides a drive and intensity that brought him ulcers in his 20's. As PSC chairman, he was under treatment periodically for hypertension.

★ ★ ★

Smith, tall and athletic looking, grew up in Memphis, Tenn., where as a boy he hawked newspapers to add to the family income.

He graduated from high school with a scholarship but didn't have the money to take advantage of it. Instead, he took a job as a messenger and porter in the Tennessee state capitol. In two years, he saved enough for a year at Fisk University in Nashville.

After 3½ years in the U.S. Army Signal Corps during World War II, he came to Flint and worked for a time at a Chevrolet plant. He left in 1946 to resume schooling at Syracuse University.

★ ★ ★

Later he moved on to Catholic University in Washington, D. C., and won a law degree in 1950. He was converted to Catholicism at 16.

JFK En Route to See Rayburn

Kennedy Changes Plans; on Way to Visit Ailing Speaker in Texas

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President Kennedy undertook today a sad, sentimental journey to Texas to comfort ailing Sam Rayburn.

★ ★ ★

The President switched plans and ordered his Air Force jet to head for Dallas, Tex., instead of back to Washington at the close of a weekend here—beside and on the sea.

Rayburn, 79, speaker of the House, is gravely ill in a Dallas hospital, combatting incurable cancer.

Distinguished national leaders and politicians have been phoning or dropping in to see him. Kennedy himself has been kept informed constantly of Rayburn's condition.

★ ★ ★

The decision was reached this morning to make the trip.

A POWERFUL ALLY

As the man who served longer than any other as speaker, as "Mr. Democrat" to both political friends and foes, Rayburn was a powerful ally of the President in Congress. He left Washington a month before Congress adjourned to go home and try to get rid of what he said was lumbago in an aching back.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy will miss Rayburn's advice and help. But he scarcely is in a position to broach with Rayburn a discussion of a possible successor. For regardless of what he may suspect, Rayburn has not been told by his doctors that cancer is striking down his long lustrous career in politics.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy might hesitate to bring up the matter in any event. Election of a new speaker will be the business of the House. And as a graduate of the House, before he moved on to the Senate and White House, the President is aware that even a friendly Congress is likely to resent any dabbling in its affairs by the chief executive.

Cloudy Forecast Doesn't Have a Silver Lining

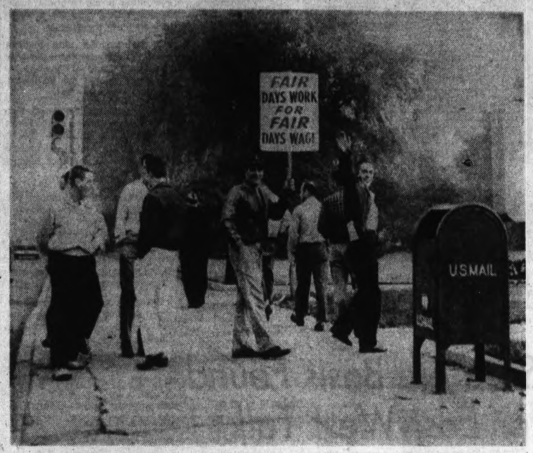

Sunny and clear skies will become shrouded Tuesday with clouds, rain and cooler temperatures, the weatherman forecasts.

PICKET AT FORD — Members of the United Auto Workers Union walk the picket line this morning in front of the Ford Motor Co. administration building in suburban Dearborn. The lines were formed to bar salaried personnel from the offices. Selected maintenance persons were issued cards by the UAW Local 600 and were permitted to enter. It was the first time the union has interfered with the coming and going of salaried personnel since the strike began seven days ago.

New Contract Rejected by UAW Local

Pickets at Ford Plant in Detroit Add to Fight for 3-Year Contracts

KENOSHA, Wis. (UPI) —The president of a United Auto Workers local that rejected American Motors' historic profit-sharing plan said today "meetings are being held all over to find out what the heck we do now."

By BEN PHLEGAR

DETROIT (AP) — The future of the auto industry's historic first profit-sharing plan — American Motors contract with the United Auto Workers Union—was cast in doubt today.

AMC Local 72 of the UAW at Kenosha, Wis., acting contrary to the four other locals of the company, rejected the plan Sunday.

★ ★ ★

An official spokesman for AMC said the company would make no comment until the UAW makes a statement on the situation. The spokesman said that as far as AMC was concerned a contract had been agreed to in negotiations and ratification was up to the union.

International officers of the UAW reportedly were in a huddle on what step to take next.

★ ★ ★

The AMC development came as another nettlesome problem in the months-long effort to settle on new three-year contracts in the auto industry.

Ford Local 600 of the UAW set out picket lines barring office workers from entering the company administration building in the week-old strike against Ford.

Since last Tuesday, Ford's 120,000 hourly workers have been on strike over local plant issues. Ford and the UAW already had agreed on a three-year economic package. But local disputes prevented a general settlement. Negotiations have been continuing.

JOKED WITH PICKETS

Office workers made no attempt to go through the picket lines. Instead, they joked with pickets and stood around. Pickets barred their cars from company parking lots.

Only General Motors has finally settled with the UAW — and this came only after a strike of nearly two weeks over local issues that idled more than 200,000 GM workers.

AMC Local 72's contract rejection, reportedly by a slim margin, came at a sparsely attended mass meeting of the local at Kenosha, Wis. Only about 3,000 of the local's 12,000 members cast ballots.

★ ★ ★

These reportedly included elimination of a five-minute washup period, changes in the seniority system, and the dropping of one cent an hour in cost of living pay in exchange for a five-minute washup period at the end of a shift.

Force Delay in Okay of Coalition for Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI) — Rightwing Laotian leaders today forced a 24-hour delay in seeking King Savang Vatthana's approval of a plan to form a coalition government with Prince Souvanna Phouma, Communist-backed neutralist, as premier.

The basic agreement was reached Sunday at a conference of the three princes of Laos in a candy-striped tent on the banks of the Nam Lik River in Hin Heup village.

Souvanna Phouma and his half brother, "Red" Prince Souphanouvong, agreed that Prince Boun Oum and Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, premier and vice premier of the present pro-Western government, should go to the royal capital at Luang Prabang today.

They were to arrange an audience with King Savang Vatthana for Souvanna Phouma at which the neutralist would seek authority to try to form a coalition government.

But today, the two government leaders announced they would not leave for Luang Prabang until Tuesday. They gave no reason but it was assumed they wanted to prepare strategy for bargaining still to come on the make-up of the new cabinet.

Gen. Phoumi Nosavan indicated Sunday that the agreement still could blow up over this.

ONLY MAN

It had been assumed all along that the suave, pipe-smoking Souvanna Phouma was the only man who could be agreed upon for the premiership.

The three princes agreed that the cabinet would consist of 16 members—4 of Boun Oum's supporters, 4 of Souphanouvong's supporters and 8 "neutralists." The disagreement came over who was considered a neutralist.

Souvanna Phouma — with the backing of his half-brother, Souphanouvong — took the position that neutralists were those that supported him.

The princes have been seeking a common agreement since last summer when they met in Zurich, Switzerland.

Soviet Officials Fight Dutch Over Passport

AMSTERDAM (UPI) — Soviet ambassador to the Netherlands P. K. Ponomarenko was punched on the nose today by a Dutch policeman in a fist fight over custody of the wife of a Soviet defector. The infuriated Russian diplomat said the airport fight would have "far reaching consequences."

AMSTERDAM, the Netherlands (AP)—A free-swinging fist fight broke out at an Amsterdam airport today between Dutch police and Soviet Embassy officials including Ambassador Pantelei-mon K. Ponomarenko himself, who was heard to shout at one point: "Do you know I am the ambassador?"

The brawl erupted in a dispute over the passport of a Soviet woman tourist who police feared was being taken back against her will.

It ended with the Soviet officials being bundled bodily from the police office—at least one of them nursing a bruise.

Premier Jan de Quay then summoned the Soviet ambassador to The Hague for a conference while the woman remained at the airport.

The Soviet tourist, Mrs. Alexei Golub, is the wife of a 35-year-old Soviet chemical engineer who defected Saturday and asked asylum here. She was brought to the airport today, accompanied by Soviet officials, to board a plane back to Moscow.

Soon afterward 15 Soviet Embassy men, including Ponomarenko, stormed into the police office at the airport demanding Mrs. Golub's passport. The policeman in charge, Frits Veltman, refused to hand it over until he talked with Mrs. Golub and had her assurance she was returning of her own free will.

Witnesses said a fight then broke out, involving at least six Dutch police and a similar number of Soviet officials. The Soviet ambassador was heard to shout during the scuffle: "Do you know I am the ambassador?" and "We are Soviet officials."

At least one Russian—press attache A. D. Popov—was hurt, witnesses said. Veltman also had a bloodied hand when he later spoke to newsmen.

Drag Pair Back Into East Berlin

Companions Tell About Escape Trap Set by E. German Vopos

BERLIN (UPI) — Eyewitnesses told police today that Communist East German border guards penetrated 25 yards into West Berlin Sunday night, seized two West German teen-agers and dragged them back across the border into East Berlin. The two may have been wounded.

The kidnaping was reported by two companions of the teen-agers.

Police said the four were lured to the border by a mock escape by East German police (Vopos).

Two Vospos told the four youths Saturday they wanted to take refuge in the West and then made an appointment to meet the youths Sunday night at the Rudow area of the border.

★ ★ ★

When the four arrived, police were told, at least 15 Vopos started firing with machine pistols. The two who escaped said their companions cried out as if they had been shot and the Vopos crossed the border and dragged them back into East Berlin.

The Communist gunfire drew an angry warning from West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt today that he will take action to "stop West Berliners being shot."

Head-On Crash Kills 3 in Area

Clawson Couple, Teen From Madison Heights Die on Stephenson Hwy.

A Clawson couple and a teenage girl were killed in Madison Heights last night in a head-on collision on Stephenson Highway.

★ ★ ★

Three other persons, two of them children, were injured in the two-car traffic accidents that occurred just north of 12-Mile Road about 8:40 p.m.

Charles M. Cumberlidge, 44, driver of one of the vehicles, and his wife Helen, 39, of 1176 Hendrickson St., were dead on arrival at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak.

Killed instantly when the impact of the crash threw her out of the car she was riding in was Linda Weaver, 16, of 2418 Parkdale St., Madison Heights.

Robert Roman, 17, of 28326 Palmer Road, Madison Heights, the driver of the car in which Miss Weaver was a passenger, is in satisfactory condition in the Royal Oak hospital with a brain concussion and fractured jaw.

CHILDREN HOSPITALIZED

Taken to the same hospital were the Cumberlidge's two children, Ronald, 5, and Sandra, 3. The boy suffered fractures of both legs and is in fair condition and the girl was treated for lacerations and released.

Madison Heights police said that the accident occurred when Cumberlidge, traveling north on Stephenson Highway, failed to get back in line of traffic after passing a string of cars and crashed into Roman's car coming in the opposite direction.

Henry J. Boullard of 30359 Garry St., Madison Heights, told police that he was nearest Cumberlidge's car when the collision occurred.

★ ★ ★

Boullard said Cumberlidge had just passed him and was attempting to move back into line of the heavy traffic but was unable to find an opening.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Soviet Union has set off the 19th fallout-producing atomic blast in the series of weapons tests started Sept. 1.

Teamsters Top AFL-CIO Plans

Executive Council Airs Hoffa's Fate; Getting Ready for Convention

NEW YORK (UPI)—The executive council of the AFL-CIO convened today under the shadow of the man who wasn't there — James L. Hoffa and his Teamsters Union.

The question of Hoffa's teamsters—kicked out of the international union four years ago on charges of corrupt domination—topped the issues facing the 27-member council as it drew up plans for the December national convention.

AFL-CIO President George Meany was under pressure from supporters of Hoffa, who are urging the teamsters' re-admission, and from others, headed by Joseph A. Beirne, president of the Communications Workers of America, who would set up a rival teamsters union.

Hoffa's union, with 1.7 million members, is larger even than the steelworkers or Walter Reuther's United Automobile Workers, and has been making aggressive inroads on the AFL-CIO.

★ ★ ★

Meany, at this meeting, was expected to propose some compromise such as opening the door to defecting teamsters by granting so-called "federal charters" to teamsters' locals.

Michael Quill, head of the Transport Workers Union, has urged re-admission of Hoffa's union, terming the Teamster boss "the cleanest man in America."

Other questions to be considered at the week-long meeting of the council included:

—The slump in union organizing. Most AFL-CIO leaders concede that the labor movement is falling behind in enlisting new members compared with the growth of the total labor force. A day-long session of the AFL-CIO General Board (heads of all 135 member unions) will be devoted to this topic.

—Civil Rights. A. Philip Randolph, longtime president of the sleeping car porters, has demanded an end to racial discrimination by unions. Meany appointed a three-man committee, headed by George M. Harrison, president of the railway clerks, to look into a long list of charges of union-promoted bias.

Yanks Erupt in First for 5-0 Lead

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI) — The powerful New York Yankees routed pitcher Joey Jay in the first inning today and shot into a 5-0 lead in the fifth game of the World Series on six hits, including a two-run homer by John Blanchard.

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—Cincinnati Maager Freddie Hutchinson shook up his lineup today in an effort to stave off the charging New York Yankees who lead 3-1 and need only one more victory to clinch the best-of-seven World Series.

The Yankees, however, started without injured Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra. Berra injured a shoulder in a slide Sunday.

Hutchinson counted on Joey Jay, his strapping right-handed ace, to keep the Reds' hopes alive. Jay, who beat the Yanks 6-2 on a four-hitter in the second game last Thursday, was opposed again by right-hander Ralph Terry.

★ ★ ★

It was clear and warm with the temperature in the 80s for the fifth game, last to be played at Crosley Field. If sixth or seventh games are needed they will be played in New York Wednesday and Thursday. Tuesday is an off day for travel, if so.

BLASINGAME BACK

Hutchinson restored Don Blasingame to second base in place of Elio Chacon and installed him in the leadoff position. Rookie John Edwards replaced Darrell Johnson behind the plate and batted eighth.

Blasingame had started the first game in New York but gave way to Chacon in the second after his hand was injured in fielding practice.

Hector Lopez took over Berra's job in left field and catcher-outfielder Johnny Blanchard played right field, Roger Maris moved from right to center as he has been doing in all of the games that Mantle has missed.

The Yank batting order had Blanchard in the No. 4 position and Lopez hitting seventh.

Manager Ralph Houk said Bill Stafford would be his sixth game pitcher if there is a sixth.

FIRST INNING

NEW YORK—Richardson singled. Kubek flied out to Pinson. Maris flied out to Robinson. Richardson took second on Coleman's error. Blanchard socked a home run. Howard doubled. CINCINNATI — Terry threw out Blasingame. Kasko singled. Pinson popped out to Boyer. Robinson flied out to Lopez. No runs, one hit.

SECOND INNING

NEW YORK — Richardson flied out to Robinson. Kubek singled. Maris doubled, scoring Kubek. Blanchard walked. Johnson came in to pitch for the Reds. Howard lined out to Freese. Skowron flied out to Pinson. One run, two hits.

Chiang Considering OK of Outer Mongolia in U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—Nationalist China's Ambassador to the United Nations T. F. Tsiang hinted Sunday night his country might not veto Outer Mongolia's membership in the world organization.

The Soviet Union has said it would veto membership for the new African nation of Mauritania if Nationalist China used its veto in the Security Council to block the seating of the Communist country.

Rejection of Mauritania would anger many new African nations that have indicated they might retaliate by voting to throw out Nationalist China and grant U.N. membership to Red China.

★ ★ ★

Although Tsiang branded Outer Mongolia "nothing but a puppet of the Soviet Union," he said his government has the question of its admission to the United Nations "under careful consideration."

Diplomats said Tsiang's disclosure he was still awaiting voting instructions from his government was an indication that Chiang Kai-shek was taking a new look at Outer Mongolia's bid.

But Tsiang said under no circumstances would the Nationalist Chinese accept a deal in which the Peiping regime would be given a U.N. seat to represent the Chinese mainland and the delegate from the Chiang Kai-shek government would represent only Formosa.

DENIAL OF PEIPING

Tsiang predicted the United Nations would deny membership to Red China this year. He said a majority of the members realized that the world organization itself would be endangered if Communist China were given a seat.

On another cold war issue, the United States and Russia maneuvered behind the scenes on a replacement for the late U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin were expected to exchange views early this week—either directly, or through small power mediators.

★ ★ ★

Burmese Ambassador U Thant's chances of becoming the third U.N. secretary general apparently hinge on whether he will be a leader or a follower.

The United States wants a single and independent chief executive of the U.N. Secretariat, as provided by the charter, while Russia wants some recognition of its geo-political "Troika," with a built-in veto. The Soviets want his pledge that he will name three or more assistants primarily on political or geographic considerations and "do his utmost" to "work in accord" with them.

After a three-weeks' search for a successor to Hammarskjold, a majority of the U.N.'s 100 members have concurred that U Thant is the most likely candidate.

Busy Agenda for High Court

Term Begins With Case of City Voters Asking Voice in State Matters

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court was ready today to re-examine a hot political issue: the city voter's fight for a bigger voice in state legislatures.

Last term the nine justices heard a test case from Tennessee. But instead of deciding it, the court ordered the additional arguments starting today.

Before the attorneys begin their allotted three and a half hours, the court must announce the result of its extended conferences last week on the summer backlog of cases.

★ ★ ★

In addition, the Communist party has asked for reconsideration of last June's decision requiring the organization to register with the government. Justice Felix Frankfurter has delayed the effect of the ruling until the court disposes of the re-hearing petition.

Reconsideration also has been urged for the decision upholding the validity of Pennsylvania's Sunday closing law.

A batch of racial "sit-in" cases came in during the summer. But the court already has scheduled arguments for next week on three such appeals from Louisiana.

HOLDS LATE ONES

When there are several cases on the same issue, the court often holds the late ones until the initial appeal has been decided.

Two important labor cases pose these questions:

—Does federal labor law permit a state to ban the "agency shop," which requires non-union workers to contribute to the union the equivalent of members' dues and assessments?

—Do workers protected by a seniority system have a right to "follow their jobs" when a plant shifts to a new location?

U. S. Solicitor General Archibald Cox has 45 minutes to state the federal government's position in the Tennessee reapportionment case.

The Justice Department has supported the complaint of the 11 Tennesseans who started the lawsuit. They contended that their voting rights have been diluted because of the legislature's refusal to count the population and redistribute the seats in the general assembly. The group included Mayor Ben West, Nashville.

Cash and Bonds Reported Stolen

Groveland Man Returns From Vacation to Find Safes Pried Open

Over $23,000 in cash and bonds was reported missing from two safes in his home yesterday by Dr. Lamar K. Mathews, 5990 Grange Hall Road, Groveland Township.

Dr. Mathews told Oakland County Sheriff's officers that bonds valued at $17,000, a $1,000 bill and an unknown amount of $100 and $50 bills were taken from a safe in the basement of his home.

Another $5,000 in cash was missing from a safe located in his wife's bedroom.

Both safes were pried open, but officers said there was no evidence of a forceable entry into the home. All rooms in the home had been ransacked, according to police.

Dr. Mathews reported the safe crackings to police yesterday after he and his wife Edith returned from a vacation in Pennsylvania.

Their son, Dr. Albert L. Mathews of 3915 Bald Eagle Lake Road, Groveland Township, reported that two other safes in his father's home were broken into Friday. Nothing was reported missing at the time.

Says No Basis Found for East-West Talks

LONDON (UPI)—A British Foreign Office spokesman said today that "no basis has yet been found" for East-West negotiations on the Berlin crisis.

★ ★ ★

The spokesman said he based his statement on information the Foreign Office had received on the weekend talks between President Kennedy and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

Gromyko will stop in London Tuesday on his way home from New York and was expected to confer with British leaders while here.

The Foreign Office spokesman said the Soviets had made no formal request for a meeting between Gromyko and British representatives.

★ ★ ★

But it was considered almost certain that he would meet with British Foreign Secretary - Lord Home, who returns to London Tuesday from a Scottish holiday.

Gromyko is scheduled to arrive in London Tuesday morning and fly on to Moscow shortly before noon on Wednesday.

Gromyko's visit here set off considerable speculation the Soviets may intend to press for British support of early East-West negotiations on Berlin.

NOT OVERLY OPTIMISTIC

Lord Home met with Gromyko in New York late last month. On his return to London, the British foreign secretary indicated he was not overly optimistic on the prospects for such negotiations.

★ ★ ★

The foreign office spokesman said that although no basis has yet been found for East-West Berlin negotiations the position in regard to such talks had not worsened following the Kennedy-Gromyko meeting in Washington.

"There is no change," the spokesman added in reply to a question at a regular news conference.

The spokesman made it clear at the same time that the next step would be for the Western powers to begin "an inquest" into the round of talks in the United States and their probe of Russian readiness for East-West negotiations.

Power needed to produce electricity used in the United States is the equivalent of 255 million tons of coal a year.

Rightists Urge Aid in Algeria

Secret Army Pirates Radio Wavelength to Appeal for Support

ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI)—The Algerian settler extremist Secret Army Organization (OAS) pirated a radio wavelength today to appeal for support for a French Algeria.

★ ★ ★

It was the third time in the last few weeks that the OAS, headed by ex-Gen. Raoul Salan, has made public broadcasts. The other recent ones were on television.

"Now is the time for each of us to realize that the OAS is the only salvation, the only hope," Salan said.

His voice was clear and easily recognizable.

"It is an honor," he said, "to be led away from the others who are on the road of shame and treason."

TO BLOCK RADIO

The rebels broke into the broadcast at 1:14 p.m. local time. Before Salan spoke, a voice announced the OAS had decided to block all French radio in Algiers.

The gesture was interpreted here as one of defiance of Spain's weekend detention of 17 French rightist exiles in Spain.

The OAS broadcast began with the five drum beats signifying "Algerie-Francaise."

'Nixon Must Obey If the People Ask Him to Run in '64

NEW YORK (AP)—Republican National Chairman William E. Miller says he believes former Vice President Richard M. Nixon "would have to succumb" if the people called on him to run for president again in 1964.

"I think Dick Nixon is absolutely intellectually honest in stating that this time it is his intention to run for governor (of California) and if elected to serve the four years," Miller said on a television program Sunday.

★ ★ ★

"If in 1964 it appeared that it was almost the unanimous desire of the delegates to our convention to nominate him, and the polls seemed to indicate that by and large the vast majority of the American people wished to elect him—I think that he would have to succumb to the draft."

Highway Department Offering Excess Land

LANSING (UPI)—Excess property in Washtenaw and Jackson counties will be offered for sale at Ann Arbor Oct. 26, the State Highway Departmet said today.

All except one of the parcels was in Washtenaw County. The department set $20,075 as the minimum price on all 29 parcels.

Parolee Admits to Bad Checks

Woman Teller Spots William Kleine Name, Delays Him for Arrest

Pontiac police say a 39-year-old parolee they arrested Saturday has admitted cashing $1,000 in bad checks in Oakland and Macomb counties.

★ ★ ★

William J. Kleine of Lansing waived examination on the charges at his appearance today before Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Judge Finnegan set bond at $500 and bound Kleine over to Oakland County Circuit Court for arraignment at 1:30 p.m. Oct. 16.

Kleine was arrested at 5:20 p.m. Saturday by Patrolman Ronald Counselor and Bruce Jarvis while he was attempting to cash a check for $50 at the Community National Bank Annex, 15 W. Lawrence St.

Teller Mrs. Donald Sweet recognized Kleine's name as one that had been on one of several worthless checks cashed in this area.

★ ★ ★

She notified other employes of his identity while she stalled him at the window. The employes called police and they arrived minutes later to take Kleine into custody.

★ ★ ★

Detective Robert A. Emery said Kleine said he had cashed about 70 worthless checks during the past two months in Pontiac, Birmingham, Keego Harbor, Royal Oak, Lake Orion, Utica and Mount Clemens.

★ ★ ★

Kleine, who had served two terms in Jackson State Prison for uttering and publishing, currently is on parole from Ingham County.

Vehicles Stuck, Town Cut Off

2 Feet of Snow in Rockies

By The Associated Press

One community was isolated and between 500 and 1,000 cars and trucks were halted across Southern Wyoming and northeast Utah Sunday night by a storm which spilled up to two feet of snow on the Western Rockies.

★ ★ ★

Highway travel was paralyzed throughout the southwest corner of Wyoming.

Road crews reported 24 inches of snow, sculptured into heavy drifts twice that height by strong winds, had isolated the village of McKinnon, Wyo.

BLANKETS CITY

At Lander, in West-Central Wyoming, a 24-hour snowfall blanketed that city of 4,200 with 18 inches of snow.

The sheriff's office at Rawlins, Wyo., estimated between 300 and 400 vehicles halted there by a roadblock. Others were stopped at Laramie, and about 500 others were stalled, stuck or halted at Rock Springs.

★ ★ ★

U.S. Highway 30, a main east-west route across Southern Wyoming, was closed to traffic for a 110-mile stretch between Rock Springs and Rawlins.

★ ★ ★

Hotels, motels and private homes were jammed with stranded motorists.

★ ★ ★

At Salt Lake City, Utah, the Union Pacific Railroad's City of Los Angeles and City of St. Louis passenger trains were delayed an hour because of the snow.

★ ★ ★

Twenty-six inches of snow fell in extreme Northern Utah, near the site of Flaming Gorge Dam. Below - freezing temperatures gripped virtually all the mountain region.

Genghis Khan, who died in 1227, left little or nothing of lasting material value. Not a stone is standing at the site of his great capital, Karaborum.

INJUN SUMMER — Crowds filled Ledges State Park, 3 miles north of Boone, Iowa, Sunday as rich autumnal color spotted the rocky bluffs of the Des Moines River scenic spot. Many waded in the spring-fed stream barefooted. Picnic tables were scarce and the newly opened wildlife exhibit in the south part of the park drew an estimated 20,000 people. Cars were bumper-to-bumper through the park. For a picture of contrast see Page 1. AP Photofax

Supreme Court Decides 5 Cases in News

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a busy session today, the U.S. Supreme Court made decisions on five cases that have attracted national attention during the past year.

Right-to-Work Laws

The court refused to review a decision that states having right-to-work laws may ban agency shop agreements.

The decision was given by the Kansas Supreme Court. Review and reversal by the highest tribunal was asked by the Teamsters Union.

★ ★ ★

The high court's refusal to consider the case was announced in a brief order which gave no reason. The refusal lets stand unchanged the Kansas Supreme Court decision.

An agency shop agreement requires nonunion employes to pay union dues.

Desegregation Try

The court agreed to hear a case involving efforts to desegregate a restaurant in the Memphis, Tenn., municipal airport building.

★ ★ ★

As presented to the high court, the principal question to be argued is whether a lower tribunal properly deferred a ruling in a suit brought by Jesse Turner, a Memphis Negro, who was refused service in the restaurant.

★ ★ ★

The lower tribunal, a special three-judge U.S. District Court, put off a decision to give Tennessee courts an opportunity to interpret state laws, regulations and city ordinances involved.

The restaurant is operated by Dodds Houses, Inc., which leases the building space from the city. The lease requires the firm to abide by all state laws.

Reds Must Register

The court refused to reconsider its June 5 decision that the Communist party must register as an arm of the Soviet Union.

★ ★ ★

In its petition for reconsideration, the party said the court's decision destroyed the protection of the Constitution's First Amendment and opened the way for Congress to "outlaw any dissident political group simply by making opprobrious findings."

★ ★ ★

Justice Frankfurter, author of the court's June 5 opinion, on June 20 granted a stay of effectiveness of the decision until the tribunal acted on the petition for reconsideration. If the stay had not been granted, the court's mandate for enforcement of the decision would have been issued June 30.

FCC Order Stands

The supreme Court today refused to review a Federal Communications Commission order canceling the 1957 award of Channel 10 in Miami, Fla., to Public Service Television, Inc.

The cancellation came after a House Investigating Subcommittee developed that an FCC member, Richard A. Mack, had accepted financial favors from Thurman A. Whiteside, a Miami attorney, during a contest among four bidders for Channel 10.

FCC ruled that three of the contestants engaged in improper conduct designed to influence the outcome and thus were disqualified from holding a TV license. It ruled out WKAT, Inc., and North Dade Video, Inc., in addition to Public Service Television. The TV channel was ordered transferred to the fourth applicant, L. B. Wilson, Inc.

Blue Laws Legal

The court refused to reconsider its May 29 decision upholding state blue laws against commercial activities on Sundays.

★ ★ ★

Reconsideration was asked in a petition filed by a firm using the name "Two Guys from Harrison-Allentown, Inc." with a store near Allentown, Pa., and in petitions from five Orthodox Jews having stores in Philadelphia.

★ ★ ★

The high tribunal on May 29 ruled on blue law cases from Maryland and Massachusetts as well as from Pennsylvania.

Chief Justice Warren said in the ruling that most blue laws are of a secular rather than a religious character, with basic purposes of preventing overwork and unfair competition.

Appointed to Oil Post

NEW YORK (UPI)—Rep. Frank H. Ikard, D-Tex., Sunday was named to the new post of executive vice president of the American Petroleum Institute. Ikard, of Wichita Falls, has served five terms in Congress representing Texas' 13th district.

Stubborn Red Crew Awaits Soviet Tugs

CHRISTIANSOE, Denmark (UPI) — Twenty Soviet sailors huddled together on a rock off Denmark today, refusing any form of help from friendly Danish seamen.

Even the fact that the Soviet Foreign Ministry requested the Danes to help made no impression on the sailors. They simly brushed off Danish approaches and said they would wait for help from the Russian government.

The 20 sailors were aboard a Soviet trawler which ran aground in clear weather Saturday night less than a mile off the coast of Christiansoe, a little Danish island in the Baltic Sea.

After the grounding, the trawler sprang a leak and rolled to a 45-degree list.

Two Danish cutters rushed to the ship, but the Soviet captain refused aid. Early Sunday, however, the Soviet ship fired SOS rockets and the cutters sped back to the scene, carrying Christiansoe's only doctor.

The captain again refused help and would not even let the doctor treat a crew member who suffered a bruised knee.

Another Soviet trawler turned up near the grounded ship with the news that Russian help was on the way.

* * *

Sunday night, the 20 crewmen left their ship and climbed onto the rocks, which impaled their ship, to spend the night and await the arrival of two Russian tugs to pull the trawler free.

Practice Makes Perfect

ALVASTON, Eng. (UPI) — A training exercise for 350 firemen was called off Sunday when one of their fire engines caught fire. Searchers fired a shotgun, sounded sirens and flashed lights through the night. The boys shouted back but their voices didn't carry far enough.

The group from Troop 633, St. Jerome's Catholic church, Holyoke, Mass., included Robert Richards, 11; Raymond Goulet, 12; Kenneth Lamontagne, Robert Pelequin and Dwight Harris, all 15.

The per capita consumption of water in 1960 was 150 gallons per day.

5 Lost Scouts Found in Woods

Compass Test Goes Awry for Boys Trapped in Wilds 23 Hours

WESTHAMPTON, Mass. (AP) —A compass test for five young boy scouts was something less than a success—they became lost in the dense woods of Pisgha Mountain for 23 hours.

A search party found the scouts 11 to 15 years old, huddled around a camp fire shortly before noon Sunday. They were tired, hungry, thirsty and chagrined.

Police Chief Earl Gett said Scoutmaster Chester Wronski told him he left the boys Saturday morning. They had compasses and a topographical map, and were to have hiked to Norwich Lake, eaten lunch there, then met Wronski at Pine Island Lake at 4 p.m. When they had not arrived three hours after the appointed rendezvous, Wronski notified police.

The boys said darkness arrived before they came in sight of Pine Island Lake so they lit a fire and decided to stay put. They had one flashlight and some candles, canteens but no place to fill them, no sleeping bags and no food.

Say 40 Michigan Citizens Picked by Administration

WASHINGTON (AP)— Michigan Democratic Senators Philip A. Hart and Patrick McNamara said Saturday "more than 40 Michigan citizens have been appointed to responsible federal positions in Washington and the state by the Kennedy administration."

★ ★ ★

The senators said that in addition more than 125 Michigan postmasters had been named since Jan. 20 by the admin stration.

Unit Sets Hearings on Collection Racket

GOP to Drive for Cut in Civilian Spending

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's probable request for a $50-billion defense budget will be met in the next session of Congress by an all-out Republican drive to cut civilian spending.

Sen. Styles Bridges, R-N.H., and Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois are expected to put before the Senate Republican Policy Committee early in the session proposals for a concentrated attack on New Frontier domestic programs. Bridges is committee chairman.

Because of recurring world crises, Republicans are unlikely to offer any serious challenge to increase in military outlays, which could set a new peacetime record in the fiscal year beginning next July 1. The current year's $46.66-billion arms budget is up about $6 billion from the last year of the Eisenhower administration.

The Republicans are certain to call for cutbacks in domestic spending and to resist new programs Kennedy is likely to suggest. In this effort, GOP members expect strong support from Southern Democratic conservatives.

EFFECTIVE ALLIANCE

This informal alliance has demonstrated that it can work effectively in both the House and the Senate, particularly on budgetary issues. On this common and familiar ground, most Dixie Democrats have no political qualms about opposing their president.

Administration leaders have predicted Kennedy will submit a balanced budget in January. But if military outgo is to approximate $50 billion in the new fiscal year, any such balance would depend heavily on skyrocketing revenues.

There are some indications that Congress may act in the next session on an increase in postal rates. The House Post Office Committee has approved a bill that would add $500 million to the revenues.

But almost no one believes Congress will vote any new general tax increases in an election year. In fact, a tax revision bill under study by the House Ways and Means Committee might result in a net revenue loss.

With a Treasury deficit of about $6 billion in sight for the current year, Republicans believe Kennedy will give them an unparalleled opening for an economy drive if he recommends further increases in non-defense spending.

In Snappish, Surly Mood

Blue Monday Really Black

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Mondays are a mental block.

They are like any other day, in actual duration, but they seem longer. The hours pass apace with snails. On Monday the sky seems less blue, the spirit more so.

★ ★ ★

If you have had a fine weekend, Monday is a shock to the nervous system.

If you have had a poor weekend, Monday is an extension of it.

If you do not like your work, Monday marks a return to misery.

FRUSTRATION

If you do like your work, Monday is frustration—because you are dealing with a world of people who despise your enthusiasm.

If you are a housewife, Monday is wash day, and if you are a mailman, Monday is the day when the weight of your world is piled on your shoulders. For a child, Monday is the day devoted to reacclimatizing to the obnoxious labors of feeding the brain; for a teacher, it is a day for pondering why you elected to quell mayhem on a virtually volunteer salary.

Monday is the time when in summer you have a bad sunburn and the elevator operator asks "Is it hot enough for you?"—and it is the time when in winter the car won't start and the elevator operator asks "Is it cold enough for you?"

Almost nobody gets paid on Mondays. Yet Monday is the day when more hoodlums (stupid planning) try holdups and burglaries.

Altogether, Monday is a snappish, surly, moody, murkish day which would never be missed. It can be abolished, in fact—except that abolishing Monday would contaminate Tuesday, which is a perfectly good day.

Of course, Monday is, as mentioned, only a mental block. With a few years of analysis, some folks might even get to enjoy Monday—but they'd have to keep it quiet or be called a nut or something; Monday is no day to reform your fellow man.

BRIEF HIATUS

There is, therefore, only one thing a great army of Monday-haters can do about this brief but hateful hiatus in an otherwise lovely week: Purge our peeves, blow off steam, and live through it. Remembering always that in the average life-span, there are only 10 short years-ful of Mondays.

Halting Spread of Fire in California Forest

KERNVILLE, Calif. (UPI) — Dying winds and the work of 550 tired fire fighters were expected to bring under control today a timber fire that has blackened 1,100 acres in Sequoia National Forest.

District Ranger Jim Tolin said the blaze — one of the biggest in California this year — was contained late last night.

The fire began Saturday morning and spread quickly, pushed on by 30-mile-an-hour winds. Hours later the fire had burned hundreds of acres of brush, grass and timber in a sparsley populated area about five miles southwest of here.

Religious Strife Threatening India Again

EDITOR'S NOTE — India is a land of many divisions—the bitterest religious. AP Correspondent Henry Bradsher analyzes the difficulties facing Prime Minister Nehru in trying to unify the vast populous nation.

By HENRY BRADSHER

NEW DELHI (AP) — Religious strife has once again flared up in India.

Student elections contested by Hindu and Moslem groups at Aligarh University erupted into city-wide battles. Eleven persons were killed. Aligarh is 75 miles southeast of New Delhi.

Other religious rioting broke out 60 miles away in Chandausi. Five were killed there.

Reports from Meerut, 40 miles north of New Delhi, said clashes between Hindus and Moslems Friday left two dead and 13 injured. City officials were said to have clamped on a 24-hour curfew.

The violence occurred despite the National Integration Conference of 130 of India's most important figures held in New Delhi last weekend. Under Prime Minister Nehru, the group sought ways to reduce the strength of divisive factors in this nation of 440 million persons were killed.

14 LANGUAGES

Nehru identified these factors as religious antagonisms, caste divisions within the Hindu religion, regionalism and the 14 different official languages in India.

The conference passed a number of resolutions seeking to reduce tensions through encouraging broader education and discouraging political parties from using religious or caste appeals.

* * *

The Aligarh riots were the latest in religious strife dating from the partition massacres of 1947 when more than a half million persons were killed.

Old British India was partitioned in 1947 into the nation of Pakistan for Moslems and independent India for the predominantly Hindu remainder. Despite mass migrations some 45 million Moslems were left in India.

Last August Moslem leaders held a convention here to protest they were being discriminated against in a country whose constitution says it is secular.

* * *

As a reaction to this meeting, a Hindu convention opened in New Delhi today. Its organizers announced not only the Moslem convention but also the National Integration Conference.

Denying India is a secular state these Hindus demand that Moslems be condemned as an anti-national factor.

They represent the Hindu Mahasabha, a political party with little machinery so it is difficult to determine the strength of the movement.

* * *

However, similar things are said by Jana Sangh, a political party that is showing rising strength in north India. Jana Sangh's organization rests on the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh, a Hindu strongarm group.

This group was responsible for the assassination of India's revered independence leader, Mohandas K. Gandhi, because he believed in treating Moslems as equals.

Overwhelmingly the strongest political force in the nation remains Nehru's — and Gandhi's —Congress party. Nehru himself is the strongest exponent of building a secular state with tolerance for all. He denies there is impending danger of India's ripping itself apart.

* * *

But observers here feel the Aligarh and Chandausi riots show that despite Nehru's great influence on the Indian people there are hard times ahead. Without Nehru, who is nearing his 72nd birthday, even harder times are likely.

'Ike' Rumored as Next U.N. Secretary General

Rumors are a dime a dozen. Sometimes they're less.

At the same time, when they concern as conspicuous a figure as Dwight D. Eisenhower, the world is willing to cock an attentive ear and have a look-see.

After the President had comfortably shaken the star dust of the White House from his clothes, the rumors began to flit about the better known pubs and gathering places. He was assigned a few laughable spots and some that were possibilities, save that they were probably all figments of fertile imaginations.

★ ★ ★

Last spring he was rumored as a candidate for the Senate. Harry Truman's name has been linked to the Senate ever since the Missourian left Pennsylvania Avenue. Hoover was written into the Upper House when he first retired to public life and probably Kennedy will fall under the same infallible rule.

★ ★ ★

Now, President Eisenhower's name is connected with the United Nations as Secretary General. Several Congressmen have proposed the idea and others have supported it. Eisenhower's own ideas are still unknown. He may shake it off, and on the other hand, it might appeal.

★ ★ ★

Russia won't like it.

That's for sure.

She knows already she won't have any chance to shove him around or control him through a tricky troika. Determined Russian opposition could block him. On the other hand, the Russians might be a little wary of slapping down the Ex-President of the United States, for he could conceivably command widespread support from the neutral nations and the "nearly neutral" nations that Russia partly controls.

★ ★ ★

If there's no other reaction, it will be interesting to watch the Russians squirm and twist as they struggle to lay this international giant on the sidelines.

This City Has Ability to Attract New Industry

South Haven, Michigan has set an example of luring new industries which might well be of interest to some of the larger cities in Michigan seeking new businesses.

In the short span of six years this small city of 6,200 in Western Michigan has added seven new industries and 28 varied industrial businesses. Local leaders say the trend will continue and perhaps even accelerate.

★ ★ ★

Just how do they accomplish this when many other cities seem frustrated in the same endeavor?

First off, their city administration according to reports, has been especially progressive. Added to this they have abundant power, soft water, low cost utilities and high quality labor.

★ ★ ★

Also, spearheading the drive for new business is the nonprofit South Haven Industrial Fund, Inc. This group offers prospective new industries full and complete factual data on available properties. It will help and encourage new industries to meet their needs . . . even going so far as to offer financial aid.

★ ★ ★

Another incentive has come from the existing industries where they have gone out of their way with efforts to help new businesses.

The original outlay of the local industrial group was $175.

Net results show $1 million worth of new buildings and hundreds of new jobs. Certainly the dividends were well worth the investment.

Speak of diversification for industry and look at this list: gas masks, precision parts for airplane carburetors, machined aluminum piston castings, denim dungarees, industrial diamond tools, pianos, ore carriers, paint manufacture, metal corrugated boxes and containers.

★ ★ ★

On top of all other services available to new industry was a helping hand, plus a welcome.

That Is Project of Civic Minded Pontiac Citizens

New car: What looks more attractive when you get an estimate on fixing up the old one.

In the program of the Pontiac urban renewal work, the Chapman Hotel building at the southwest corner of Saginaw and Pike streets is in line to be torn down. It is the most substantial downtown pioneer building.

This is the former Hodges House block, erected 120 years ago, and for a number of decades the leading hotel in Michigan, not even Detroit having anything to match it.

Now several prominent Pontiac people are getting together on a project to purchase the property, and restore it in a manner that would be in line with our city's progress.

An organization is being perfected to put the deal across. It ambitiously includes some of the adjoining property, in order to provide for parking space and other requirements.

Any suggestions will be thankfully received. What do you think about it?

When Midland defeated Pontiac Central, 7-6, Friday evening, 581 were eliminated in our football contest, being 539 who picked Pontiac to win, and 42 who predicted a tie game. The 602 who favored Midland remain for the next contest game Saturday. They predict: Michigan State, 418; Michigan, 164; tie, 20.

The prediction of the Old Farmer's Almanac for the Pontiac area for this week is:

"Rise and shine; weather's fine."

Clearing away the brush and other coverage on Cass Avenue opposite the Wisner Stadium, according to who lives near there, has caused the big cock pheasant who has been there many years, to move his harem to the woods on Oakland Avenue near the viaduct. But they make daily visits to their old habitat.

Back from a weekend up Vassar way I find the pheasants so plentiful that you have to dodge them with your automobile. But residents there tell me that they always go into hiding at the sound of the first shot.

A pair of wild geese who were separated from their flock last spring on their Northern migration because one of them suffered a broken wing have spent the summer on a Cass Lake cove near the home of and now show no intentions of leaving.

It's an Ill Wind—!!—Or Is It?

David Lawrence Says:

Quiet Diplomacy Can Take Months

WASHINGTON — "Quiet diplomacy" — now going on between Russia and the United States — means patient diplomacy. It covers months — not just days. Progress isn't measurable by public statements, nor is there always a concrete accomplishment to be noted in time for the next edition of the newspapers.

As for the world in general, it wants to know in advance whether there's going to be a war. On the basis of all the moves made to date, neither side has a logical reason for beginning a war. So it's the talk of "accidents" and of some arbitrary action by Soviet Premier Khrushchev, together with the long series of nuclear tests by Russia, which tends to make people nervous.

LAWRENCE

It is unfortunate that the techniques of negotiation are so unfamiliar to the public that such an exaggerated importance should be given to the conference, for instance, that President Kennedy had with Foreign Minister Gromyko here or to Secretary of State Rusk's long sessions with the Communist envoy.

Naturally, when the foreign minister of a potential adversary's government comes to this country, there is an opportunity for significant conversations. But anyone familiar with past practices doesn't really think for a minute that a tangible agreement can be reached in such parleys.

A dictator limits the scope of an ambassador's instructions. The word, therefore, that is used is "exploration." This leads in turn to comments by Mr. Rusk that the talks were "interesting" and by Mr. Gromyko that they were "useful."

★ ★ ★

But the truth is the quiet repetition of views doesn't mean too much. Acts mean more. The Soviets did cut off East Berlin and seal it with "The Wall." The West didn't resist. This was doubtless regarded by Soviet Premier Khrushchev as a sign that he could go further and not meet resistance.

But promptly the military build-up by the West around Berlin served notice, in effect, that the limit had been reached.

The over-all situation can be described simply. If Russia begins a fight, the West will resist. This word has been passed along to Moscow again and again. How did the whole crisis start? Moscow announced that a "separate peace treaty" with East Germany would be signed "before the end of the year." Since then the West has shown it isn't too much concerned about the mere signing of a piece of paper between Moscow and its puppet in East Germany, either this year or next.

What's important is whether there is any aggression — whether the West Germans or their Allies are to be denied access to West Berlin.

The Soviets can, if they like, repress their militancy and confine their interferences with access to Berlin to small incidents. That's why London and Washington are already urging the Bonn government to make up its mind how it wants to handle what may develop significantly as routine contacts with East Germany.

To arrange for the passage of persons and the transport of goods across the boundary isn't a difficult matter if each side understands that the word "access" really means access. The Soviet government has pledged that it will guarantee access rights.

So, seeming details are likely to be haggled about for several months. Meanwhile, big talk will come from Nikita Khrushchev when the Communist party and the Communist-block states hold important meetings soon. The world will be kept in a state of apprehension. This is a deliberate tactic by the Soviet premier, who thinks that the more he bluffs and threatens, the more likely the West will be inclined to grant concessions in the "negotiations."

Under these trying circumstances, it is regrettable that President Kennedy isn't getting more help from the members of his own party as well as from some of the newspapers in Western Europe.

The impression is being conveyed that the President's own strong words will be followed by a surrender in the end on essential points.

Dr. Harold Hyman Says:

Readers Let Columnist Have It With Brickbats

Bouquets and brickbats:—

From a "mother and a wife who has made an extensive study about health for several years."

"Dear Sir: In answer to your article on Salk Vaccine, I suggest you start reading ' . . . Magazine' and start asking your colleagues about how to prevent polio.

"In 1948 an epidemic broke out in a southern state and the board of health doctor got permission to broadcast one-half hour daily . . . to (ask) people to stop giving their children soft drinks, ice cream and candy. This the people did.

"In two weeks there was only three cases whereas thousands were falling to polio (previously).

★ ★ ★

"But, of course, this cost the companies over $1,000 in daily losses so the doctor was soon squelched . . . Every corner I turn informs me that there wouldn't be polio, cancer, heart illness and hundreds of other diseases if people ate right . . .

'CORRECT' WAY

"I can see why you do not advocate the correct way of health in your column. I'm sure you're being paid handsomely to keep people ill. After all, there is great profit in sick people."

I'll turn this information about the prevention of polio over to Dr. Salk, who is neither a wife nor a mother.

★ ★ ★

From the mother of a member of the USAF: "I can almost hear you snort in disbelief at the idea that association with a chihuahua dog can relieve asthma attacks. I laughed, too, when I first heard of it but my experience has taught me that there is something to it I didn't know."

My son, now 30 years of age, had asthma really all his life. Upon his return from Korea (he's with the Air Force), a friend told him about chihuahuas and he bought one.

'He was having an attack at the time but, before he reached home, the attack was relieved and from that time until he went overseas again he had only one attack.

"Of necessity the dog was left behind, and while overseas he has again had asthma.

If that wasn't enough to convince me, my daughter, who also has asthma, got a chihuahua and since we have had it in the home, more than four years, her attacks have been much lighter and less frequent.

★ ★ ★

"The dogs do not take the disease but something about them relieves the suffering. So there you are, believe it or not."

Notice to kennel owners:

STOCK UP ON CHIHUAHUAS. The asthmatics are coming.

Claims Nixon Too Tricky to Be in Public Office

I see that "Tricky Dicky" Nixon is up to his old tricks again. I can just imagine Nixon refusing to run for President in 1964.

Californians would do well by putting the nix on Nixon and voting him to political oblivion.

Edward Keeba

'U.S. Must Hold U.N. Together'

As a good friend of The Press, I regret that I must be critical of some of your recent editorials. Especially those dealing with foreign affairs and the U.N. Like many people, The Press has a tendency to over simplify the problems and the suggested solutions.

It is not a case of just being "hard-boiled" with Mr. K.

It is your editorial of October 2 that I am immediately concerned, especially the last paragraph in bold type.

The implication of that paragraph is that we are paying (in large part) for the U.N. and should, therefore, call the tune and that the U.N. is for the benefit of others than the U.S.A. and we should and can therefore abandon it should it make decisions contrary to ideas and expressed ideals.

That whole impression is wrong. Should the U.N. collapse (as it would if the U.S.A. withdrew) the U.S.A. would suffer as much (or perhaps more) than any other country. We must stand by the U.N. whatever happens.

When one does the correct thing or an unselfish act, one should not do it for thanks or a reward, but do it simply because it is right and/or unselfish.

Wants to Keep PCH in Saginaw Valley

Under Bruno Kearns' plan, PCH could visualize undefeated seasons over county competition. A poor substitute, however, for success in the Saginaw Valley Conference. The valley is the top league in the state and PCH has the potential to be champs in football, just as it has been in other major sports.

We read of those crowds of 10,000 and 15,00 fans in Flint and Bay City and the annual success that results from this backing. Why don't we have this in Pontiac?

★ ★ ★

The Flint Journal gives imaginative day-by-day coverage that creates civic interest and team inspiration. The Journal's coverage of the annual Flint Central-Northern game is fabulous. It also has excellent photography to back up the articles.

The Pontiac Press has failed in recent years. The Press gives no substantial inside coverage, no imagination, no confidence in our teams. It, instead, has an attitude of pessimism and defeatism.

★ ★ ★

It would seem that Pontiac Northern's gate receipts against county competition would be a clue to the fallacy of Kerr's ideas.

(Editor's Note: Almost all athletic history shows winning teams build crowds, rather than having the fans develop winning teams. Pontiac Central, with 60 years of alumni, played Bay City Central, the NUMBER ONE RATED team in Michigan and drew less than 4,000 at Wisner Stadium. A week later, Pontiac Northern, 3 years old, had closer to 5,000 for its game with Southfield. Two years ago, only 2,500 saw PCH upset Bay City, again No. 1 in Michigan, while 6,000 saw PCH play Waterford.)

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Blood Kinship Holds No Magic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE K-419: Bert R., aged 38, is a prominent California attorney.

"Dr. Crane, an interesting case was tried in our court not long ago," he informed me.

DR. CRANE

"An elderly lady of 69 was dying in a local hospital. Yet the latter's two married daughters and her adult son, all in the 40's themselves got into a fight at the mother's bedside.

"Apparently, the argument started over who should give their dying mother her medicine.

"The brother and one sister attacked the other sister. They blacked her eyes; then kicked and beat her into insensitivity.

"She later sued them for $10,000 damages. The case certainly illustrates your oft stated point that blood kinship holds no magic.

"Let's hope the dying mother was in a coma so she couldn't have been heartbroken as a result of this deathbed brawl between her own grown children."

HATEFUL CHILDREN

Previously, I have told you that the true parent-child bond is purely a spiritual matter.

★ ★ ★

I recommend that when a young couple cannot have children of their own, when sterility is a scientific fact, they might very profitably adopt a child.

This unfortunate case today indirectly proves the point that blood kinship holds no magic. Nor does it weld people closely together in love and devotion.

Cain killed his brother Abel. King David's son tried to kill David and seize the throne.

And today there are numerous cases of jealousy and quarreling between adult brothers and sisters, even at the bedside of their dying parents.

★ ★ ★

Certainly it is very common to find them starting feuds as soon as the heirlooms and property are to be parcelled out.

LOVE A SPIRITUAL BOND

I have seen adult children of the "flesh and blood" variety, actually bring their aged parents to the grave in shame and sorrow because the children wanted the property of the old folks, and couldn't wait until death.

Because the parents happened to be long-lived or might have remarried, the children then tried to have them adjudged insane or incompetent in hopes of getting control of the old folks' real estate.

Don't think that such ungrateful children are rare. And don't assume that they have a subnormal intelligence. Many of them are college graduates!

★ ★ ★

It nauseates me to think of the mercenary feuding that I have witnessed in my lifetime among people who were "flesh and blood" kin.

These evil children have never lifted their fingers to help amass the wealth of their aged parents. The old folks alone had slaved and saved to lay aside that money for their sons and daughters.

★ ★ ★

But the latter, like greedy vultures, often cannot even wait until the death of their parents before starting the grand battle over antique chairs or cupboards, as well as real estate and stocks or bonds!

PITY YOUR LOCAL JUDGES

It's a wonder our judges have any confidence in human nature at all after spending their working days listening to the petty wrangling and quarrels between husbands and wives or between brothers and sisters.

But such failures of parent-child relationships do not negate the fact that unselfish love can and does exist between parents and children.

It simply shows that blood is not thicker than water. It proves that the spiritual or psychological bonds are the only true evidences of kinship.

No adopted child would ever have treated this dying mother worse than her own children apparently have done, so have no hesitation in adopting youngsters.

23 Stricken on Excursion

Club Members Suffer Food Poisoning on Visit to Maryland Seminary

WASHINGTON (AP) — Twenty-three members of the West Philadelphia Mothers Club, on an excursion to a Roman Catholic seminary, were treated at two hospitals Sunday after they were apparently stricken with food poisoning.

★ ★ ★

None was believed to be seriously ill.

Dr. S. Ross Taggart said several other persons among the group of 80 visitors were treated at the seminary for nausea.

VISITING SEMINARY

They had come from Philadelphia by bus to visit the Christian Brothers Ammendale Normal Institute, Beltsville, Md. Most of them are relatives of boys in the school who are studying to join the order.

Taggard made the preliminary diagnoses of food poisoning. He said all those stricken had eaten earlier at the institute.

An institute spokesman said he understood some of the visitors had eaten previously in a restaurant between Washington and Philadelphia. He said about 100 residents of the school had eaten the same food the visitors had but only one of the residents was affected, mildly.

★ ★ ★

The meal at the institute was fried chicken, dressing, gravy, peas, tossed salad and ice cream.

14-Year-Old 'Baby' Unable to Act Grownup

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dear Mrs. Lawrence:

I am nearly 14 and date boys but my mother treats me like a baby, so I can't talk to her about my problem.

It is that the two older boys I date always try to get too fresh with me.

When I don't let them, they get sore or start making fun of me.

I don't know how to make them stop without making them sore and am very worried . . .

ANSWER: I don't wonder.

Look. You haven't had any instruction in geometry yet, have you? Suppose your teacher suddenly told you that you had to pass a geometry test. You would think, "This teacher is crazy. I'm not supposed to know how to do geometry yet! Nobody has ever taught me how to do it."

★ ★ ★

You wouldn't be worried at all about your geometry ignorance. You would just hand that test paper back and say, "This is too advanced for me."

Well, a world that treats girls "like babies" is crazy to expect them to deal with boys who get "too fresh." That's advanced work, too.

So I want you to ask some grownup you trust — your minister, your priest or the mother of some girl you know — for added reassurance that resisting boys' sexual aggressiveness is advanced work for girls of 13.

What is required of children today is really something.

May I remind parents that the easy firmness of the "No" it takes to be a woman is derived from long experience with the "No."

To be a woman, you've had to learn to honor resisting feelings in yourself as well as agreeing feelings, so that you can reject invitations to unwanted sexual adventure without anxiety, with an ease that enables you to say "No" with a minimum of offense.

You need experience with the "No" to all kinds of demands, including the male one. You don't get this experience if your parents still treat you like the baby whose obligation in life is to do what others tell him to do. Such a baby, flung into adolescent sexual war, can have a very rough time.

Until girl children have been allowed some practice in saying "No" at home, we really can't expect them to speak up in sexual contest. We can't have our cake and eat it too. We can't insist on a baby at home and then demand womanhood when boys start taking the "baby" out at night.

Australian Row Over Bikinis Is Still Raging

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI) — Australia's battle of the bikini bathing suits invaded the restaurant business Sunday.

In the fashionable suburb of Watson's Bay, six girls, wearing bikinis, were ordered out of a cafe after customers objected to their scanty apparel.

The girls entered the cafe wearing beach robes over their bikinis. After giving their orders, three of the girls removed their robes.

One male customer asked to have his meal taken away, explaining he could not concentrate on eating. Another man and wife became involved in an argument over the bikinis.

Family Fit and Chipper After Week in Shelter

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP) — A Long Island couple and their two small sons are "fit and chipper" after almost a week in a fallout shelter.

The parents called the test "highly successful."

The family emerged Sunday from an above-ground shelter where they spent 151 hours in a test sponsored by the Nassau County Civil Defense Commission.

★ ★ ★

A spokesman for the Roosevelt Field shopping center, where the shelter was set up, estimated that 40,000 persons witnessed the family's experiment. Many talked with the family through a microphone set up for that purpose.

The shelter had a picture window through which the family could see and be seen.

The family consists of Martin Kreese, 28, a self-employed electrician; his wife, Judith, 25; Robert, 5, and Martin, 3. They returned to their home in nearby East Northport as soon as they stepped out of their home-away-from-home.

'FIT AND CHIPPER'

Mrs. Kreese said they felt "fit and chipper."

Her husband said the confinement meant a "much needed rest." He said home cooking was what he missed most.

★

The family subsided on canned and concentrated foods — mostly soups, fruits, vegetables and meats—during their stay in the 16x17-foot cylindrical shelter, a converted 5,000-gallon oil tank.

★

They had a hot plate for cooking and a radio, telephone, books and magazines. There was a shade on the picture window, for privacy when wanted. The children ate a lot of peanut butter and jelly and crackers.

The parents said their 250-gallon water tank, air pump and sanitary facilities worked well.

The children played with toys much of the time, while the parents read.

A hot shower bath was the thing that all wanted most at the end, Mrs. Kreese said.

On Eve of Independence Day

Cuban Exiles' Hopes Rise

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Cuban exiles are beating the war drums again, even though a bit discordantly, on the eve of their country's independence holiday.

REVOLUTION THEME

Meetings and parties are planned on the badly divided exile political front to observe "Grito de Yara" (Cry of Yara) day Tuesday. It is the anniversary of the call at Yara, in eastern Cuba, for revolution against Spain on Oct. 10, 1868.

★ ★ ★

Revolution against Fidel Castro will be the theme.

Jose Miro Cordona, president of the Cuban Revolutionary Council, will observe the occasion by announcing reorganization of the council on what he hopes will be a potential war basis.

★ ★ ★

"Soon, very soon, Cubans will be fighting together to administer the final blow to the dictator," Miro Cardona said.

★ ★ ★

CHARGES APPEASEMENT

Prio charged the council isn't aggressive enough, and thus is playing into the hands of "those who counsel appeasement in the hope that world events will provoke Castro's downfall."

★ ★ ★

Cuban cafes in Miami are abuzz with rumors that something big against Castro is impending. No one seems to know just what.

★

REPORTS OF SABOTAGE

Arrivals from Cuba bring reports of sabotage and guerrilla activity against Castro.

Gonzalo Lage, of the "Escambray Anti-Communist Army," reported that a liberation army of 1,500 men has begun guerrilla action in Cuba's Escambray Mountains.

★ ★ ★

Three farmers reported guerrilla activity in Las Villas Province. They said 99 per cent of the farmers there are anti-Castro.

In Miami, 2,600 Cubans have applied for service in the U.S. armed forces, many in the hope that somehow they will have a chance to fight against Castro.

15 Persons Die in Traffic

Weekend Accidents Kill 21 in State

By the Associated Press

An elderly woman, her father, a Clawson man and his wife were among the 15 persons killed in weekend traffic mishaps on Michigan's highways.

★ ★ ★

In addition, three persons drowned and three other persons lost their lives in miscellaneous mishaps. One of the victims — a young mother — was hit by a train as she pushed her 6-year-old son from danger.

TRAFFIC:

Charles Cumberlidge, 44, and his 39-year-old wife, Helen, of Clawson and 16-year-old Linda Waver of Madison Heights were killed Sunday night in a two-car head-on collision in Madison Heights.

Mrs. Gladys Grice, 62-year-old, and her father, George Rouse, 82, both of Dearborn, died Sunday when the car in which they were riding was struck by two other vehicles at a U.S.27 intersection in Gratiot County just south of Ithaca. State police said the Grice car ran a stop sign.

Patricia Jones, 18, of Detroit, died Sunday of injuries suffered Saturday when she was struck by a passing car as she emerged from another auto which had stopped to let her out.

Frank Kaman, 73, of Grand Rapids, was killed Sunday when his car and another auto collided in Kent County near Sparta.

Burr Elliott and Dean McCosh both 16 of Hillsdale, were killed Friday night when the car in which they were riding ran off a dead-end county road near Hillsdale and struck a tree.

Eugene Weza, 20, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, was killed Friday night when his car ran off M35 south of Escanaba, snapped a tree in two and crashed into a boulder.

Robert Kosier, 44, of Taylor, died Friday night when his truck struck a bridge abutment about a mile west of Ann Arbor.

William Grier, 60, of Detroit, was injured fatally Saturday night when struck by an auto while crossing a street on Detroit's East Side.

David Reynolds, 19, of Romeo, was killed Sunday when his car struck a tree near Romeo.

Cecil Hopkins, 56, of Lansing, was struck and killed Sunday as he walked along a road 4 miles north of Dewitt in Clinton County.

Charles Carmichael, 24, of Lake was killed Saturday when his car ran off the road and struck a tree near Farwell in Clare County.

DROWNINGS:

Billy Copley, 18, of Ypsilanti, drowned Sunday when he fell from a boat into a water-filled clay pit about 13 miles northwest of Ann Arbor in Washtenaw County.

Lisa Madsen, 18 months old, of Route 1, Manistee, drowned Sunday when she fell from a private dock into Bar Lake, in Manistee Township.

Keith Ros, 16, of Rockford, drowned Saturday when he tried to ride a horse across the Rouge river about a mile south of Rockford. Police said that as Ross tried to ford the stream he was pulled from the saddle by the swift current and carried downstream.

MISCELLANEOUS:

Daniel Thacker, 2, of Detroit, was suffocated Saturday in a fire at his grandmother's Detroit apartment. The child was asleep when the blaze broke out.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Joseph Stach, 37, of Clawson, died Saturday when she was struck by a train on a railroad bridge over the Clinton river near Pontiac. Mrs. Stach, her husband and five children were walking on the bridge when the train approached. All the family, except 5-year-old Martha who was trailing behind ran to safety. Mrs. Stach saw her son in the path of the train, ran back and pulled him to safety but was struck herself.

Gerald Baker, 4, of Eagle Lake, was killed Saturday when apparently he fell from a jeep started up by his grandfather in the driveway of the Baker home.

Three-Car Mishap Leaves 4 Injured

Four persons were injured in an accident involving three cars on M59 east of Duck Lake Road, Highland Township, about 12:30 a.m. Sunday, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Admitted to Pontiac General Hospital were one of the drivers, Ellen R. Zeiber, 23, of 2770 Davista Dr., and her passenger, Jane D. Carl, 32, of 2757 Dean Drive, both of Highland Township. They were reported in satisfactory condition today with facial cuts.

The other drivers, Alex C. Nelson, 31, of 4072 Keelson St., Orchard Lake and Russell O. Fagerlie, 30, of 1055 Duck Lake Road, Milford, were treated and released.

Nelson said he was going east on M59 when the Zeiber car drove out of a driveway into his path and he struck her. Fagerlie ran into a ditch attempting to avoid striking the other two cars, said deputies.

The twisters ripped roofs open, smashed windows and uprooted trees, fences and power lines.

Nasser's Not Through With Syria

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

PARIS — The Syrian revolt dealt a severe blow to the prestige of U.A.R. President Gamel Abdel Nasser but the new Syrian regime is not yet out of the woods and Nasser probably has not made his last move.

American correspondents permitted for the first time into Damascus after the Sept. 29 overthrow of the Nasser regime in Syria reported an apparent broad base of support for the new government of Premier Mamoun Kuzbari.

The questions now are the steps to be taken toward recognition of the new regime by the big Western powers and the Soviet Union, Nasser's next move and the success of efforts by the Kuzbari government to solidify its support among the working people, peasants and students.

Nasser's next step especially must be awaited because the Egyptian leader has been on the ropes before, notably during the Anglo-French invasion of Suez, but has emerged successfully and still in control.

FURTHER NECESSITY

Correspondents in Beirut, Syria's next door neighbor in Lebanon, report that a further necessity for the success of the new government will be quick massive doses of foreign aid to finance the large-scale construction and development projects started under Nasser.

★ ★ ★

The first jarring effects of Syrian revolt on the Middle East as a whole appear to have been largely absorbed.

Israel, bordering Syria and a favorite target of Nasser propaganda attacks, naturally was pleased.

Jordan's young King Hussein, also from time to time a Nasser target, also was pleased and promptly recognized the new regime, as did Turkey which also borders Syria.

But it was notable that beyond Nasser's brief and abortive para-troop attack on the Syrian rebels, Mideast boundaries remained quiet and nowhere did troops go lunging toward a border.

French foreign office observers who traditionally keep a close eye on Mideast events now believe any threat of military action largely has disappeared.

Such action, they believe, would have to have taken place within the first few days.

If the new regime is successful and if there is no outside interference, such as from the Communists, it is possible a new Mideast alignment will develop.

But these are "ifs" dependent upon a still unsettled situation.

If the coup proved anything, it proved that there still is no such thing as Arab unity and that events in the Mideast revolve around a few outstanding individuals and ancient hatreds.

Iraq has remained silent but Premier Gen. Abdul Kassem undoubtedly would be willing to strengthen his hand in the struggle for Arab leadership against Nasser.

Saudi Arabia has mended its fences in its frequently strained relations with Nasser but there is no love lost between the Egyptian ruler and the ruling family composed of the sons of old Ibn Saud.

Turkey, a non-Arab country, also has had frequent troubles with Nasser under the former U.A.R., but in the present circumstances has worries of its own.

Turkey is scheduled to hold national elections next week in the beginning of a transfer from military rule back to civilian.

The Sept. 17 hanging of former Premier Adnan Menderes by the Committee of National Unity has left deep scars on a country noted for its vendettas and may be expected to keep that country preoccupied with its own affairs.

Militarily, there is little real change.

The single unifying factor in the Mideast has been the Arab hatred of Israel.

Within a few hours of the outset of any military action, Israel could muster 200,000 well-trained and equipped men in the field and remains the strongest military power able to hold its own against any proven Arab combination.

OFFICERS SUBORDINATED

Syria, whose army always has regarded itself as guarding the outposts of pan-Arabism, may have 50,000 men whose officers have suffered through being subordinated by the Egyptians.

Egypt may have 80,000 men battle equipped and Iraq 50,000. Jordan has 40,000. Saudi Arabian and Lebanese forces are negligible.

As the situation now stands, Nasser has lost much of the force with which he appeared as an Arab spokesman before the unaligned nations at Belgrade in September or as he appeared before the United Nations a year ago.

The French naturally are not unhappy about his predicament.

France has had no diplomatic relations with the Nasser government since the Suez debacle of 1956.

They have suffered further at his hands through his shipment of arms to the rebels in Algeria.

Lovers of Symphony Meet New Conductor

Pontiac Press Photos

New conductor of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra Felix Resnick (left, front) is introduced to the orchestra's committee and patron listing by Dr. Leo Wasserberger of Lake Angelus, president of the board of directors. Mrs. Resnick (at left, rear), orchestra vice president James Howlett of Lake Angelus and Judy Steinhelper of Spence Street were among board members and patrons who paid tribute to Mr. Resnick at dinner Friday evening in the City Club.

Pausing for an exchange of pleasantries before proceeding to dinner were the A. Roger Weltons (at left) of Birmingham and Dr. and Mrs. E. Duane Bigsby of James K Boulevard. Mr. Welton has appeared as flute soloist with the orchestra. The Bigsbys are new orchestra workers.

Card Party Is Planned by Club

Pontiac Navy Mothers' Club is planning a card party Oct. 23 in the First Federal Savings of Oakland Building.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Gordon Bolce, committee chairman for the affair, announces that tickets are ready. Mrs. Vidal Gonzales has been asked to assist in sale of tickets which may be purchased from any club member. Mrs. Ike Thurman will plan refreshments.

★ ★ ★

At the club's meeting Thursday in the Pontiac Naval Reserve Training Center Mrs. William Christie reported a meeting of VAVS workers and administrators of veterans' hospitals in Southeastern Michigan Oct. 11 in Dearborn Hospital. Officials from Battle Creek and Ann Arbor hospitals will be present. Area women interested in the work may attend the conference. Though unable to visit the above hospitals, the local club sends monthly contributions for the project.

★ ★ ★

The group has voted to contribute to the Michigan Cancer Fund and the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra.

★ ★ ★

The next business meeting will be at the training center Nov. 2.

Boy Should Pay Other Expenses

By the Emily Post Institute

Q: When a girl invites a boy to go to a dance with her, is she expected to pay all the expenses of the evening such as transportation, refreshments, etc., in addition to paying for the tickets? Some of my friends feel that since she is the hostess and he her guest, she is responsible for the entire evening. I think she pays for the tickets and he assumes any other expenses. Will you please give me your opinion?

BOY SHOULD PAY

A: Paying for the tickets is all that is expected of a girl. But just in case the boy she has invited does not understand this and has not brought enough money to pay for the extras, it will be wise if she brings enough to pay for them herself.

★ ★ ★

Q: A business acquaintance was recently hospitalized and I suggested the office send him flowers with our wishes for his speedy recovery. Someone said it was not proper to send a man flowers and the idea was dropped. I was amazed to hear this and would appreciate your comments on the matter.

A: Illness is the one occasion when flowers — especially a plant — may very properly be sent to a man. A hospital room without a flower in it looks very friendless.

Stre-e-etch Your Chores Into Exercise

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Housework can be made to work toward a better figure for you, says a physical fitness expert.

But to get the most in proper exercise from household chores, revamp your work methods — "Brush the cobwebs out of your habits," says Mrs. Bonnie Prudden, director of the Institute for Physical Fitness, White Plains, N. Y.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Prudden, who worked with former President Eisenhower's advisory committee on fitness, cautions against expecting housework alone to keep you fit and beautiful. "But there are ways of making . . . routine pay off . . .," she says.

Making beds, for instance. "Take huge stretches and reaches instead of comfortable, short ones," she advises. "I used to hate the mattress turning bit, but good as it may be for the mattress, it's a lot better for you. Every heavy thing you have to lift all your life is good for you, just as long as you are strong enough to do it."

GO AFTER IT

When objects slide under chairs, don't take the easy way and lift the chair out of the way," she continues. "Go under after it. Sounds active and unnecessary, I know. But consider the actions of children. They use the floor, and the more practice in stooping and crawling, the younger your body will be."

Mrs. Prudden's thoughts on how new habits in housekeeping can aid the figure are contained in her new book published today, "How to Keep Slender and Fit After Thirty."

Mrs. Prudden, mother of two daughters, originally established her fitness institute at White Plains but now has franchised branches in various parts of the nation. She is a slim, lively example of how her regimen for living, both in exercise and diet, can keep the body young even as the years advance.

"Bodies," she says, "were never meant to be fat, and that goes for any age." Her contention is that a reducing diet alone is not enough — the body needs the exercise to keep its tone.

DUSTING HELPS

Dusting even can be a figure aid.

She suggested that "When you dust, reach again. Plant your feet at one end of the piano and reach all the way to the other if you can. Only the young body stretches, and it stretches just as long as it is forced daily to stretch."

★ ★ ★

Even the mop handle can be turned into an exercise bar. When you lean down to slide the mop under furniture, keep your back and knees straight, she suggested. After you've finished mopping, grab the handle in both hands and step through the space between your hands, first with one foot then the other. Then step back again. This keeps the back limber and strong.

★ ★ ★

Another mop exercise for waist and midriff slimming: place the mop handle back of your upper back and then twist as far as possible to the left. Keeping the feet wide apart and the legs stiff, twist all the way to the right. Start with 20 twists and work up to 50.

FOR ARM MUSCLES

Mrs. Prudden suggested these other ways to get added exercise from household chores: Wring clothes in a direction opposite to what you're used to occasionally — wringing helps to keep the arm muscles strong. When you lift clothes from a washer, make a habit of lifting them high and carrying them above your head to the folding table — result, more stretching. Change the level of your feet as you stand ironing or washing dishes, by rising frequently on tiptoe. The more often you change level, the less tired your feet will be.

Can't Lick Dog Problem

Readers Bark Both Ways

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: You ran a letter from a mother who said she was careful not to let her dog lick her baby on the mouth because she feared the DOG would catch something from the baby.

ABBY

And you replied, "Now I've heard everything!" Well, you haven't heard everything until you've heard MY story:

I was raised on a ranch, and have been bitten and scratched by every kind of animal found on or near a ranch.

No infections resulted. Recently I was involved in a person-to-person fight. I was floored with a blow to my left jaw. This caused my own teeth to penetrate my inner mouth.

I was hospitalized for several days, during which time I was injected with every serum known to man to prevent tetanus from killing me.

My personal habits are clean. I have always brushed my teeth and bathed daily. The doctor shocked me with the following statement: "There are more dangerous germs in the human mouth than in the mouth of any animal."

"SHOCKED"

DEAR ABBY: I don't know when I have read anything as revolting as that letter in your column from the woman who didn't want her collie to lick her baby on the mouth because she was afraid of what the COLLIE could get.

Honestly, some people are nuts! Please tell her if she is so worried about the dog she should muzzle the baby!

REVOLTED

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Yes, that dog owner who wrote to you was absolutely right. A dog's mouth IS cleaner than a human's. You have never seen a dog with bad teeth, and you never will. I'd sooner give my dog a sip of my soda than you!

ANOTHER DOG OWNER

DEAR ANOTHER: Let him have it. It's bad for MY teeth.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Will you please tell that idiotic woman that it is dangerous to be licked on the mouth by a dog? Have her family physician explain the danger of cysticercus. I personally have seen children and adults die from it.

Sincerely,
M.D.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Apropos the letter in which a reader insisted that her dog's mouth was antiseptic enough to lick her baby's face, but she wasn't sure that the baby was germ-free enough for the dog's safety:

A similar controversy took place between my daughter-in-law and me over her standard French poodle.

She and I shared a large double bed (my son was away in service), and she invited her 66-pound dog to make it a threesome.

I gave her a choice. The dog or me. She chose the dog, and we haven't spoken since 1944.

Candlelight vows of Mary Louise Wood to Charles R. Verch of Drayton Plains were pledged before Rev. W. Cadman Prout Saturday evening in Four Towns Methodist Church, Union Lake.

Parents of the newlyweds are the Leland O. Woods of Williams Lake Road and Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Verch of St. Louis.

Fashioned of white coubello taffeta, the princess line bridal gown featured a deep yoke of Queen Anne lace appliqued with seed pearls. The short veil of lace-edged silk illusion was fitted to a half-crown of seed pearls and sequins. White carnations comprised the cascade bouquet.

Mrs. Danial D. Wood, her cousin's honor matron, wore intermission-length coppertone antique satin with velveteen hat. Bridesmaid Mrs. Merl Ingersoll, Union Lake, aunt of the bride, appeared in royal blue antique satin. Cascades of carnations matched their dresses.

Harry McGowan, Drayton Plains, was best man. The bridegroom's brother, Vernon D. Verch, also of Drayton Plains, ushered with Danial D. Wood.

After greeting some 300 guests in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, Drayton Plains, the couple left for Last Resort Lodge, in Central Michigan. They will live at Oxbow Lake.

Especially at Middle Age

Women Need Make-Up

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

I think that the middle-aged woman needs makeup even more than the younger woman, but she must choose it carefully and apply it skillfully. If she uses the wrong color or too much of any color, it will be aging.

★ ★ ★

As a woman grows older, her skin tone changes. You may still have a beautiful complexion, but unless it is ruddy, you are almost certain to need a bit more pink in your foundation and powder. The white flour look is harsh and unflattering to anyone, especially to the woman past early youth.

Most women need some rouge. Many chic women do not use rouge in the daytime. They rely on lipstick and eye make-up, but apply rouge at night. In putting on rouge be sure that you blend it so that there is no "circle" effect, and do not apply it too low on the face.

Lipstick colors should not be too harsh. The clear, soft reds, pinks, and light purplish reds, are flattering. Very dark lipsticks usually are aging, although some unusual types look well with this. The lips may thin some with age. For this reason, the woman of 50 should draw the line of her lips out a little. This should be subtle, of course. Also, be sure that the lip rouge on the lower lip extends further toward the corners than it does on the upper lip.

Be sure that your liquid powder or makeup base has enough oil. Most middle-aged women find that their skin is drier than it once was. And some women have thin, finely textured, but dry skin. This oily base protects your complexion against the weather. Also, if the foundation is too dry, it accumulates in any lines you may have.

More women of 50 should use eye makeup. For some reason women often shy away from this, even when they use other make-up aids regularly. They seem to feel that this is too obvious for them. To the contrary!

The middle-aged face needs the lift which clever eye and brow makeup give it. Mascara and a light liner or line drawn with a pencil add zest and youth to appearance if they are applied artfully.

I do not like dark eye shadow on the woman who is middle aged or older. The colored eye shadows can be most flattering if you choose the right shade for you.

★ ★ ★

If you would like to have my leaflet, "Women of Fifty," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 33. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Do the eyes have it? They should—mascara and eyebrow pencil add zest and youth to appearance if they are applied artfully.

Con-Con Down to Business

Delegates to Hear Report From Organization Unit

LANSING (UPI) — Work week arrived today for the 144 delegates to Michigan's constitutional convention as the session settled down to business.

The convention's committee on permanent organization was scheduled to report today on its recommendations and committee assignments probably would begin filling out.

Convention President Stephen Nisbet, Fremont Republican, met with the three vice presidents, George Romney, American Motors president, Edward Hutchinson, former state senator from Fennville, and Detroit Democrat Tom Downs, during the long weekend recess following the opening of the convention.

The meetings continued the bipartisan theme which has thus far marked the first constitutional revision meeting in the state since 1907.

The make-up of the committee is expected to mirror the two-to-one majority the Republicans hold in the convention with all the chairmanships going to GOP delegates, vice chairmanships in some instances to Democrats.

★ ★ ★

The organization committee report, by the committee chairman Richard Van Dusen, Bingham Farms Republican, contained the more than 70 recommended rules for the convention hammered out at a day-long meeting last week.

SECRET SESSIONS

Included was a recommendation that there be no specific rule on secret sessions for committees but that each committee should request permission for such executive sessions.

★ ★ ★

The Republican caucus had proposed that the committees be allowed to hold secret sessions but that all final votes be held in public. The recommendation was somewhat different but no particular problem was expected over its adoption.

Another recommendation focused on lobbying activities with the main feature the barring of lobbyists from press credentials.

The final decision on all rules rests, of course, with the delegates themselves. The recommendations were likely to be adopted, however, with few changes.

★ ★ ★

The peoples right to knowledge of convention actions was considered the only major issue involved in the setting of rules and the recommendation on executive sessions appeared to have affected a compromise between the groups seeking a completely open convention and those favoring closed door sessions.

Southfield OKs Appointment of City Planners

SOUTHFIELD — The appointment of Vilican-Leham and Associates as the city's first full-time city planners has been confirmed by the City Council.

Mayor S. James Clarkson appointed the Southfield firm Sept. 25 subject to the approval of the council.

At that time Clarkson also proposed that the city take advantage of the federal government-sponsored 701 program, which would pay three-quarters of the cost of a master plan.

The over-all cost of the three year program would be $98,000 and should the city apply for aid and be accepted, the city would then only have to budget $8,300 annually for the salary of the city planner.

The council has agreed to investigate the possibilities of the federal aid program.

Saddles Worth $975 Stolen From Ranch

Four saddles valued at $975 were reported stolen yesterday from a barn at the Tip Top Ranch, 5500 Highland Road, White Lake Township, according to Oakland County Sheriff's deputies.

Officers said thieves gained entry to the barn by forcing a hook on a basement door.

Romeo Youth Dies in Crash

Lost Control of Car and Smashed Into Tree on 31-Mile Road

ROMEO — A 19-year-old Romeo youth was killed early yesterday morning when his car left the road, smashed into a tree, bounced off and hit a garage. The motor of the car was hurled 146 feet.

★ ★ ★

Dead is David C. Reynolds, son of Mrs. Russel Mahaffy of 256 Fairgrove St., and the late Charles Reynolds. He was alone in the car when the accident happened.

According to Romeo State police, young Reynolds was traveling at a high rate of speed on 31-Mile Road, a mile west of Van Dyke when he apparently lost control of his car at about 6:35 a.m.

He was pronounced dead at the scene by Macomb County Coroner Raymond G. Markle. He had a fractured skull and crushed chest.

★ ★ ★

The victim was the "most popular" boy in the 1960 June graduating class at Romeo High School and was president of the Student Council in his senior year. He also had been president of his class in his sophomore and junior years.

He had just quit his job at the Ashland Oil Products service station, 238 Main St., and was to begin his apprenticeship as a linotype operator at the Romeo Observer Press today.

Surviving besides his mother and step-father are two sisters, Mrs. Charlotte Hazen of Detroit and Maureen Mahaffy at home; and grandparents, Clarence Reynolds of Detroit and Mrs. Mary Noll of Clawson.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the First Baptist Church under direction of Roth's Home for Funerals. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Seek to Save Lives in Fire With Markers

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — In a special drive to save the lives of invalids and disabled persons the Pontiac Township Fire Department is conducting a drive this week to put reflecting markers on the homes where these people live.

Beginning Wednesday members of the 60-man department will visit all of the 4,000 homes in the township. Their mission will be to deliver the markers which will enable them to do a more effective job of rescue in time of emergency.

One decal is to be placed near the house number on the homes where disabled persons live and a smaller one on the door of the room where they stay or sleep.

There will be a file at the fire department of every sticker and its location. In an emergency this information will be relayed to the fire-fighting team making the run.

WITHSTAND HEAT

The larger markers measure 4 inches in diameter. Both these and the smaller ones are made of an iridescent material which will withstand heat.

These decals are available to anyone in the township who houses a disabled person, according to Fire Chief Carl Schingeck.

During this week, which is National Fire Prevention Week the fire department will also be distributing fire prevention literature and call cards to be placed by the telephone.

The literature contains instructions for eliminating fire hazards from attics and basements and other dangerous areas in the home.

The firefighters will be canvassing the homes both in the daytime and at night so no one will be missed, Schingeck said.

Apparent Murder-Suicide Discovered in Hazel Park

HAZEL PARK (AP)—An apparent murder-suicide was uncovered yesterday, police said, when the bodies of an unemployed factory worker and his 5-year-old son were found in their rented bungalow in this Detroit suburb.

Both father and son had been shot to death with the same weapon—a newly purchased 22-caliber rifle.

Police said Richard Lambert, 28, of 23456 Hazelwood, apparently shot his sleeping son, Ned, twice, and then killed himself. He left a hand-written "last will and testament" on a nearby coffee table, they said.

Detective Lt. Harold Hill said both are believed to have died some time Saturday afternoon, although neighbors heard no shots or disturbance.

The will, written in pencil on notebook paper, was mostly concerned with disposition of Lambert's property and gave no reason for the shooting.

★ ★ ★

Judith Ann Wilson Sets Nov. 10 Nuptial Vows

Kennedy Asks Patience

Planning Further Talks Over Berlin

By JOHN HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration hopes to persuade U.S. allies in the next two or three weeks to go along with further exploratory talks with the Soviet Union on the possibility of negotiating a compromise settlement of the Berlin crisis.

Western consultations are expected to move forward on several fronts, including discussions among State Department officials and the ambassadors of Britain, France and West Germany.

★ ★ ★

One step in the process was scheduled today with a meeting between Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Ambassador Walter C. Dowling, the U.S. envoy to West Germany. West Germany's views on the development of Allied policy on the future of Berlin and related German issues are crucial to Western agreement.

★ ★ ★

The Allies appear to be basically split over Berlin policy problems.

The West German government, grappling with its own internal political difficulties, is apprehensive about agreeing to the greater flexibility on the Western side which Rusk and President Kennedy want for negotiations with the U.S.S.R.

WEAKNESS SIGN?

The French government is fearful that the Soviet Union may consider Western interest in exploratory talks a sign of weakness in facing up to Red threats over Berlin.

The British government is eager for negotiations and British officials have been reported mildly hopeful that a reasonable formula can be worked out with the Soviets.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy and Rusk are said to feel that at the very least it is extremely important to continue East-West exploratory talks.

★ ★ ★

The first round of such talks ended here Friday night in a two-hour meeting which the President and Rusk held with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko. This was the fourth of a series of conversations which began between Rusk and Gromyko in New York three weeks ago. The end result at this point is failure to agree on a negotiations formula.

★ ★ ★

West German Ambassador Willhelm Grewe said Sunday in a television interview — ABC — Issues and Answers — that the Kennedy-Gromyko talk represented a step back along the path toward finding a basis for Berlin negotiations.

★ ★ ★

Grewe said: "The disturbing thing is that the end of those talks were more negative than the beginning, which is not very encouraging."

At Newport, R.I., where Kennedy spent the weekend, White House press secretary Pierre Salinger discounted reports that Kennedy was discouraged as a result of his meeting with Gromyko. Salinger said the talks had not gone sour even though as yet they had not produced a basis for negotiations.

★ ★ ★

Rusk said Saturday in recording a television program for use Oct. 14 that the mood and atmosphere of the talks had been "serious and constructive."

U.N. Transfers Jets to 'Front'

Swedish Fighters Sent to Lualuabourg in Case Cease-Fire Ends

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI) — Transfer of five Swedish jet fighters to Luluabourg put the United Nations air attack force within striking distance of Katanga Province today.

★ ★ ★

The Swedish "flying barrel" jets arrived in Leopoldville last Wednesday.

They were flown Sunday to Luluabourg, just 325 miles from Elisabethville — half the distance from Leopoldville to the Katanga capital.

The United Nations was able to send the fighters without breaking the cease-fire provision that states Katangese and U.N. troops may not reinforce their positions during the truce. Luluabourg is not in Katanga.

★ ★ ★

The Swedish jets will give the United Nations the air support they will need if fighting breaks out again. Before the truce two French Fouga jets of the Katanga Air Force roamed the skies unmolested and were credited with swinging the balance of power to the Katanga side.

United Nations Mediator Mahmoud Khiari Sunday started a new attempt to arrange peace talks between the central government and secessionist Katanga President Moise Tshombe.

Khiari flew from Elisabethville to Leopoldville last Wednesday carrying a message in which Tshombe offered to send two emissaries to meet with representatives of Central Premier Cyrille Adoula.

Warren Harding was the first U.S. president to speak over the radio.

Actors' Boycott of Segregated Theaters Set

NEW YORK (UPI) — Actors Equity members will refuse to perform in any theater in the United States and Canada that practices segregation, starting June 1, 1962, it was announced Sunday.

Angus Duncan, executive secretary of the actors' union, said he hoped advance notice of the decision would give plenty of time for those theaters which now practice segregation to voluntarily stop the practice. The number of theaters involved was not determined.

★ ★ ★

Broadway producers and theater managers represented by the League of New York Theaters joined with Equity in the decision. It also had the support of the stagehands' union, the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employes.

C. of C. Council Notes Expenses

Reports Calls Session of Congress the Freest Spending in History

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Council of State Chambers of Commerce said Sunday the congressional session just ended was "the freest spending session in the nation's peacetime or cold war history."

A council analysis of the financial actions of the first session of the 87th Congress predicted the effects of this record "will not only be a $7-billion increase in expenditures over the original budget for 1962, but also a further rise to at least a $90-billion budget in 1963."

The analysis, prepared by Eugene F. Rinta, director of research for the council, said that while the Eisenhower administration and Congress cut the final 1954 budget recommendations of the outgoing Truman administration by over $12 billion in appropriations and $10 billion in expenditures, the Kennedy administration and Congress increased the Eisenhower budget for 1962 by $9 billion in appropriations and $7 billion in expenditures.

Witnesses said the car failed to straighten out after a curve.

Lead Series 3-1 After Saturday-Sunday Sweep

Yanks Expected to Finish Off Punchless Reds Today

CINCINNATI (AP) — The wounded but relentless New York Yankees were 3-2 favorites to close out the World Series today with a decisive fourth victory over the desperate Cincinnati Reds, whose last-ditch hope was their lone Series winner, strapping Joey Jay. The Yanks won 3-2 Saturday.

Jay's pitching opponent in this fifth World Series contest, the last—no matter what happens—in cozy Crosley Field, is the same rival who bowed to the 225-pound Cincinnati right-hander in New York last Thursday, 25-year-old Ralph Terry. The Reds won that 6-2 behind Jay's four-hit pitching.

The weather again was expected to be as perfect as Sunday when New York's Whitey Ford surpassed Babe Ruth's 43-year-old Series record for consecutive scoreless pitching innings and a bevy of other Yankees got into the act in a monotonous 7-0 shutout of the Reds. Ford now has pitched 32 runless innings, topping Ruth's old mark of 29 2-3.

★ ★ ★

It Jay should duplicate his victory in Yankee Stadium the Series would return to New York for a sixth game Wednesday and possibly a seventh game Thursday.

In perhaps an ironical coincidence, the Series may have ended for Mickey Mantle and decided against the Reds Sunday in the fourth inning when the ailing Mantle stroked a screaming hit to deep left center. That set up the first Yankee run and the only one they really needed to scuttle Cincy starter Jim O'Toole.

Mantle had to leave the game after his hit, a certain two-bagger under normal conditions. It sent home run king Roger Maris, who had walked, to third, from where he scored on a doubleplay.

Mantle, whose courage cost him great pain in trying to play two Series games, now is out of it, no matter if it goes the seven-game limit. The ugly wound on his hip where an abscess was removed 10 days ago has drastically bobbled the fleet slugger. The wound was bleeding badly when Mantle was removed for a pinch runner following his hit.

Besides Mantle, the Yankee sick bay required treatment of Ford, whose right big toe was badly bruised by a foul as he batted in the sixth inning, and the peerless Yogi Berra, who was gashed above his right eye by his sun-glasses when he made a fruitless try for a diving catch, also in the sixth inning.

While the Yankees are favored to take what could be the Series clincher today, the odds are 10-1 against the Reds making a comeback only three other clubs ever achieved in the Series. Last to pull the Series out of the fire after being down 3-1, were the Yankees themselves, rallying to take the 1958 classic from the Milwaukee Braves.

However, few of the 32,589 faithful fans who watched their "For Real Reds" sag before the excellent pitching of Ford and Jim Coates, believed Fred Hutchinson's National League wonder team could now overtake the well balanced Yankees.

★ ★ ★

The concensus in this baseball-whacky city was that while Reds' leg pitching hasn't been too bad, although the Yankees clubbed O'Toole, Jim Brosnan and Bill Henry for 11 hits, Cincinnati's own big guns have been almost completely spiked.

★ ★ ★

Ford allowed four hits in his six innings and Coates yielded only one in the three innings he worked after an emergency call from the bull pen. Ford's throbbing toe caused him to quit following Elio Chacon's inning-opening single in the sixth.

In the three previous games, the Reds had collected only 19 hits in 101 at bats. "Our big guys just aren't hitting," said Hutchinson.

Ford, a happy-go-lucky pitcher who, talked about nothing except golf before starting the game, apparently was not overly impressed in breaking Ruth's former scoreless Series string of 29 2-3 innings. That mark was set in 1916 and 1918 with the Boston Red Sox before the Bambino became baseball's premier home run hitter.

"Naturally, I'm pround about pitching 32 scoreless innings," said Ford, "but this is a record only talked about during a Series. It's not like Ruth's 60-homer record which Roger Maris broke this season."

Yankee Manager Ralph Houk now is in a position to become the third rookie pilot ever to win a World Series in his first year as a big league manager. Bucky Harris, as Washington's "boy wonder" boss in 1924 beat the New York Giants, while Eddie Dyer of the St. Louis Cardinals won in his first try in 1946 against the Boston Red Sox.

★ ★ ★

Without Mantle, the Yankee line-up today will again find Maris, whose only hit in 14 ab's was a third-game homer, moving to center and John Blanchard taking Maris' right field post.

The financial phase of the tourney, for the players at least, ended Sunday, with a total player pool of $645,928.28. Of that amount, 70 per cent, or $452,149.80 will be divided among the Yanks and Reds, with the other 30 per cent going to the second, third and fourth place teams in each league.

The winning pool is $271,289.88, about $8,000 per player for the Series champion and approximately $5,200 for each player on the losing club, based on an unofficial allotment of 34 shares per team.

Wilson Looks to Trial-and-Error System

Lions' Attack Fails in Loss to Bears 31-17

Coach Indicates QB Is Biggest Problem; Morrall Benched

DETROIT — The Detroit Lions' quarterbacking problem is so acute coach George Wilson will revert to the old trial-and-error system to pick his passer.

★ ★ ★

And Wilson hates it. He didn't like it when he had to choose between Bobby Lane or Tobin Rote. And he liked it less last year when he had to decide between Earl Morrall or Jim Ninowski.

"But there's not much else I can do," muttered Wilson after the Lions' offense flopped again yesterday and they lost 31-17 to the Chicago Bears before a crowd of 50,521.

The Bears spotted the Lions a 10-0 lead and it appeared Detroit was aroused enough by the 49-0 loss to San Francisco last week to erase all memories of the debacle. But Chicago rallies for three touchdowns in 9½ minutes of the final period for the victory.

★ ★ ★

Morrall, who won his pre-season battle with Ninowski for the No. 1 job completed only 11 of 30 passes yesterday.

Ninowski didn't even see action. But he'll get a fresh chance next week against the Los Angeles Rams.

Morrall was overshooting or under-throwing his passes throughout the game. Three times he threw the ball into the dirt on short swing passes.

Week after week the pressure has been on the defense. And finally, the defensive unit, called the NFL's best two weeks ago, has collapsed.

After the Bears tied the game, 10-10, midway in the third period on a 50-yard field goal by Roger Le Clerc, rookie Pat Studstill took the Bears' kickoff and rambled 100 yards for a touchdown to put the Lions ahead, 17-10.

★ ★ ★

On the first play of the final period, quarterback Billy Wade, in his first starting role for the Bears after coming from Los Angeles, fired a 37-yard pass to rookie end Mike Ditka for a touchdown which tied the score, 17-17.

★ ★ ★

The next time they had the ball, Wade hit Ditka again for 40 yards and a first down on the Lions one. Seconds later, Wade scored again around right end and the Bears were ahead, 24-17.

Willie Galimore put the icing on the Bears' cake with less than six minutes remaining when he galloped 52 yards around right end for another touchdown to make the score, 31-17.

Detroit scored first on Jim Martin's 32-yard field goal in the first period.

The Lions scored again in the first period on a 61-yard pass from Morrall to flankerback Terry Barr, one of Morrall's few successful aerials.

The Bears' first touchdown, shortly before the first half ended, was a beauty covering 98 yards from Wade to end John Farrington. The play was just one yard short of a NFL record.

Hornung Packer Star in 45-7 Rout of Colts

By The Associated Press

Versatile Paul Hornung, Green Bays perpetual man-in-motion who's a rarity among specialists with his triple threat abilities, is putting the power in the Packers' drive to retain their Western Conference title in the National Football League.

★ ★ ★

The 25-year-old former Notre Dame star had his best day in the play-for-pay ranks Sunday when he scored 33 points on four touchdowns, a field goal and six conversions in Green Bay's 45-7 romp over the Baltimore Colts.

★ ★ ★

Hornung, who set an NFL scoring record with 176 points during the 1960 campaign that swept the Packers to the top in the West, has amassed 64 points in the first four games this season, a pace that threatenes to smash his own standard.

★ ★ ★

The Green Bay victory, coupled with San Francisco's 35-0 thumping of Los Angeles, broke a four-way tie for first place in the Western sector and left the Packers and 49ers at the head of the class with 3-1 records.

★ ★ ★

Four teams remained tied for first in the East with 3-1 marks as Cleveland beat Washington 31-7, Philadelphia's league champion Eagles defeated Pittsburgh 21-16, New York whipped St. Louis 24-9 and Dallas downed Minnesota 28-0. Chicago moved up in the West by blasting Detroit 31-17.

★ ★ ★

Hornung broke Don Hutson's club record of 31 points set in 1945 by scoring on runs of 54, 1 and 10 yards, taking an eight-yard pitch from Bart Starr for another TD, kicking a 38-yard field goal and the half dozen extra points. The field goal sent the Packers in front to stay 10-7 in the second quarter.

★ ★ ★

Lenny Moore, league scoring leader last week with 42 points, plunged a yard for the Colts (2-2) only touchdown as the Packers defense smothered Baltimore's offensive thrusts by intercepting five. Johnny Unitas pitches and another by sub quarterback Lamar McHan.

The 49ers, shutting out the opposition for the second week in a row for the first time in the team's history, again alternated passers John Brodie, Billy Kilmer and Bob Waters effectively in the shotgun offense to overwhelm the Rams (1-3). Kilmer scored twice on short runs while Waters passed 26 yards to R. C. Owens for one TD and tallied on a four-yard burst.

★ ★ ★

Bobby Mitchell, who lost his starting job to rookie Tom Watkins, won it back with three long TD jaunts for the Browns, scoring on a 52-yard pass from Milt Plum, a 64-yard punt return and a 31-yard dash around end. The Redskins (0-4), losing their 12th in succession, scored on a six-yard pass from first-year quarterback Norm Snead to Tom Osborne.

A 17-yard TD flip from Sonny Jurgensen to Pete Retzlaff sent the Eagles ahead 10-7 against the Steelers (0-4) after an interference penalty gave them the ball on the 1-yard line. They scored the clincher in the final period, again after an interference penalty, when Jurgensen pitched a two-yard strike to Retzlaff. The key play in the winner, however, was Tim Brown's 84-yard run with a kickoff.

★ ★ ★

The Giants led 7-2 in the third period before breaking it open against the Cardinals (2-2) when the defensive unit swarmed over St. Louis passer Sam Etcheverry and caused two fumbles. They led to a one-yard scoring plunge by Alex Webster and a 12-yard TD ramble by linebacker Sam Huff with the second fumble.

★ ★ ★

Dallas' Don Meredith tossed a 12-yard scoring aerial to Bill Howton and a 52-yarder to Frank Clarke, who also grabbed a 23-yard TD pass from Eddie LeBaron. It was the third straight loss for the fledgling Vikings (1-3), who've lost a pair to the second-year Cowboys.

San Diego Lone Unbeaten in Torrid AFL Campaign

By The Associated Press

American Football League coaches know by now what it means to walk the tight rope—they do it every Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Since Oakland settled down and started playing football the AFL games have been as close as a glued toupee. The widest margin has been 14 points but more often it has been from two to seven.

San Diego, the only unbeaten team left in the league, has been escaping the real close ones but the margin wasn't exactly comfortable last week as the Chargers beat Boston 38-27 to stay firmly on top of the Western Division.

Jack Kemp had to give one of his patented performances in order for the Chargers to whip the tenacious Patriots, Kemp, who was used sparingly when he was in the National League but has been a workhorse with San Diego, passed for three touchdowns.

The most shocking note of the weekend was defending champion Houston's third straight defeat. The Oilers took a 22-12 trimming from Buffalo and plunged into the cellar of the Eastern Division, two games away from the leader, New York.

★ ★ ★

A fugitive from the National League and a fellow who turned on his old teammates proved to be the combination that knocked over Houston. Warren Rabb, who started in the NFL with Detroit last season, got in for the first time with Buffalo and proceeded to pilot the Bills to victory. His 13-yard touchdown pass to Perry Richards, waived by Houston three weeks ago, was the clincher.

Dallas hung in there with a 19-12 triumph over Denver. The Texans strengthened their second place spot in the Western Division when they ran up 19 points and then beat off a Denver rally that netted two touchdowns in the final period.

★ ★ ★

Denver beat itself at the start—Al Frazier fumbled the opening kickoff and Dallas got the ball on the Bronco 19. The Texans soon had a touchdown and were ahead to stay. Jack Spikes' 21-yard field goal and a 24-yard touchdown shot from Cotton Davidson to Chris Burford clinched it up for the Texans. Frank Tripucka passed for both Denver scores.

★ ★ ★

Division leaders clash in this week's biggest game as San Diego ip Kiox Kox Stasoid oSoq York Sunday. Oakland will be at Denver and Dallas at Buffalo in other Sunday encounters. Houston plays at Boston Friday night.

LINE SAGGED TOO MUCH — The Detroit Lions' offensive line had its troubles again Sunday against the Chicago Bears. On this occasion, Dave Whitsell, (23), Bear defensive halfback who formerly played for the Lions, broke through to block Jim Martin's (43) field goal attempt in the first quarter.

ROLLING BLOCK — Yankee first baseman Bill Skowron makes a hard slide into Cincinnati second baseman Elio Chacon in the fifth inning Sunday. Cletus Boyer grounded to third baseman Gene Freese who threw to Chacon to get a force-out. Chacon got off his throw to first for a double play.

Tops Babe With 32 Scoreless Innings

Ford Jokes About Setting Record

CINCINNATI (AP)—Babe Ruth probably would be glad to know a fun-loving fellow like Whitey Ford broke his cherished World Series pitching record. Off the field they would have had much in common.

When the crowd of newsmen surged into the New York Yankees dressing room after Sunday's 7-0 Yankee victory in which Ford ran his string of consecutive scoreless innings to a record 32, they found Whitey ready with a quip.

★ ★ ★

"Anybody here from California to make an offer:", he asked with a grin. "Say $500 for this ball."

Ford referred, of course, to the $5,000 a California restaurant owner offered to the man who caught Roger Maris' 61st home run at Yankee Stadium.

"I just had a call from New York," said Ford with a twinkle. "Toots Shor wants to give me $100 for the ball. But I'll probably put it in a drawer and the kids will use it to play catch with, just like they do with the others."

★ ★ ★

Ford was by no means overawed at breaking Ruth's record.

"I never really thought too much about it," he said. "It's a record not talked too much about except at Series time while Ruth's home run record was talked about every season, all summer long."

★ ★ ★

"I'm proud but—" he stopped suddenly. Then he continued, "I wanted to finish but I was scared to keep aggravating my right toe which hurt every time I stepped on it."

★ ★ ★

Ford turned his ankle slightly while pitching and then hit himself with his own foul ball while batting in the sixth inning. He left the game after Elio Chacon singled to open the Cincinnati sixth and Jim Coates finished the 7-0 shutout.

Ruth's old scoreless streak was 29 2-3 innings compiled in 1916 and 1918. Ford's first two shutouts Came against Pittsburgh last year. He blanked the Reds in the opener last Wednesday and got the last five Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Whitey is a chunky little blond (5-foot-10, 181 pounds). You can get an idea of his temperament from a story they tell about his first big league victory in 1950 over Detroit. Asked if that was his biggest thrill, Ford told newsmen:

"No, I remember pitching the Maspeth Ramblers to a 17-11 win over the Astoria Indians. That was a good one, too."

What next?

"I'm going to start working on my hitting next spring," Ford laughed.

Ford never will break the Babe's record in that league. In 317 American League games he has hit two home runs.

Richardson Batting .365

Sunday's Shutout 71st in History of Series

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Yanks' shutout over the Reds was the 71st blanking in World Series history, but only the second time a 7-0 score was recorded.

The only previous 7-0 game was on Oct. 6, 1958 when Bob Turley of the Yanks shut out the Braves in the fifth contest. He allowed five hits, the same total Whitey Ford and Jim Coates gave up Sunday.

Bobby Richardson of the Yanks, with 8 hits in 17 at bats (a .471 pace), has boosted his lifetime World Series batting average to a lusty .365. In four Series he has collected 19 hits in 52 trips.

When Frank Robinson of Cincinnati was hit by Yankee pitchers Ford and Coates, it marked the first time in Series play that a batter had been hit twice in a game by different pitchers.

★ ★ ★

Max Carey of Pittsburgh and Yogi Berra of New York are the only other players to get hit twice in a game. Walter Johnson of Washington hit Carey twice on Oct. 7, 1925 and Berra was the victim of Brooklyn's Carl Erskine on Oct. 2, 1953.

Coates, in tossing four shutout innings of relief, picked up where he left off the regular season. In his last four appearances, all relief jobs, Coates hurled 8 2-3 innings of runless ball.

The Reds' Gene Freese is the only player among those who have taken part in all four games without a hit. The Cincinnati third baseman is 0-for-12.

The Yankees' fourth inning and seventh have produced the most runs, four each. The New York sixth inning is next highest with three runs.

The Reds' offensive ineptness is reflected by their .182 team batting average. The record for the lowest batting average in a five-game series is .161 by the Athletics against the Giants in 1905.

Bill Skowron's 3-for-3 Sunday put the Yankees' first baseman back on the World Series batting beam. In the 1960 Series against Pittsburgh, Skowron had 12 hits to tie the record for most hits in a seven-game series.

Pinch-hitter deluxe Jerry Lynch of Cincinnati struck out Sunday, leaving him without a hit in two official pinch-hitting appearances. During the regular campaign he delivered 19 pinch safeties in 47 tries for a .404 clip.

Shakes Off Injury to See Series Game

CINCINNATI (AP)—What's a broken nose when there is a World Series game to watch?

Ask young John Lindgren of Indianapolis. He'll say it's nothing.

★ ★ ★

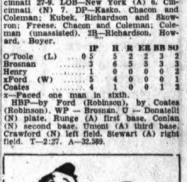

John, 16, was watching batting practice before Sunday's series game when a stray ball sailed into the stands and struck him in the face.

★ ★ ★

At a hospital John was advised his nose apparently was broken and would be wait for full treatment.

★ ★ ★

No, replied John. So, patched up temporarily, he went back to Crosley Field, saying he would wait for the Lindgren family physician to complete the job.

Irv Jaskolski set a school record Sunday while leading Orchard Lake St. Mary to a 27-28 cross country win over Dearborn St. Alphonsus. The Eaglet runner was timed in 10:16, eight seconds faster than the old mark set in 1958.

★ ★ ★

The Detroit Red Wings line of Gordie Howe, Norm Ullman and Alex Delvecchio combined for two goals Saturday night to lead the National Hockey League All-Stars to a 3-1 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks. Delvecchio and Howe got the goals.

★ ★ ★

The Detroit Tigers have asked waivers on 41-year-old Gerry Staley. The veteran relief hurler was acquired in mid-season from the Kansas City Athletics.

Michigan, State Await 'Big One'

From Our News Wires

"The boys" will be burning the night oil and plotting their strategy this week as they prepare for "the big one."

"The boys" are Michigan State's Duffy Daugherty and Michigan's Bump Elliott whose undefeated teams will clash in Ann Arbor Saturday.

Both teams scored convincing wins over the weekend. The Spartans turned back previously unbeaten Stanford 31-3, and the Wolverines outclassed Army 38-8.

Despite two straight one-sided triumphs, fumbles have Daugherty worried.

Daugherty said today that "fumbleitis" — a malady which struck the Spartans eight times during their 31-3 victory over Stanford Saturday—would be "a major problem to be solved" prior to the high-stakes game with Michigan this coming week-end.

In addition to losing the ball four times on fumbles, the Spartans had three passes intercepted by the Indians.

However, the green and white, led by sophomore halfbacks Dewey Lincoln and Sherman Lewis, rolled up 360 yards on the ground and 46 more passing to overcome their mistakes.

CLINCHED GAME

Lincoln scored a touchdown on a 20-yard run in the final period which clinched the issue. Lewis opened State's scoring in the opening period on a six-yard sprint.

The practice plans this week of quarterback Pete Smith were indefinite. The Ecorse sophomore's father died of a heart attack in the stands during the first half while watching his son direct the Spartan attack. Daugherty and all of the Spartans but Pete knew of it at halftime. Smith wasn't notified until after the game by two Catholic priests.

Star halfback Dave Raimey is the big worry confronting Elliott today.

Raimey, a speedy junior from Dayton, Ohio, and one of the Wolverines' main offensive cogs, injured his hip in the first half against the Cadets and sat out the last two periods.

★ ★ ★

"If it's real bad, he could be out two weeks," Elliott said, "but then again, he might play next week."

The Michigan coach indicated Raimey, who scored once in the Wolverines' second straight lopsided triumph before retiring, would be worked gingerly in this week's practices.

Michigan turned two Army fumbles into a 10-0 lead in the first period and then poured it on as the Black Knights of the Hudson rode a rickety steed.

Raimey scored Michigan's first touchdown on a 12-yard sprint in the first quarter. Halfback Benny McRae ran 47 yards for another score, fullback Bill Tunnicliff of Ferndale scored on a three-yard run, sophomore halfback Bruce McLenna hit paydirt on a seven-yard run, and end Bob Brown scored on a 36-yard pass from reserve quarterback Bob Chandler. Doug Bickle booted a 21-yard field goal and added five extra points.

GOOD DEFENSE

Michigan's defense gave the previously undefeated Cadets only 15 yards rushing and forced Army to take to the air for its only score—a 12-yard pass from quarterback Dick Eckert to end Dick Peterson early in the third period.

Elsewhere on the Michigan college scene Northern Michigan stopped Hillsdale 24-3 in a battle of the nation's top small college powers. The Dales were ranked No. 1 in the National Association of Inter-Collegiate athletics poll last week. Northern Michigan was rated No. 8 after having been No. 1 two weeks ago.

Powerful Bowling Green of Ohio belted Western Michigan 21-0 in a Mid-American Conference contest, and Western Illinois edged Central Michigan 12-7 in Interstate Conference action.

Ferris Institute improved its won-loss record to 3-1 by outscoring Eastern Illinois 20-16, and Wayne State was shellacked by Wheaton (Ill.) 57-0 in the season's opening game for the Tartars.

★ ★ ★

In an important MIAA clash at Holland, Albion came from a 14-6 first half deficit to score 20 points in the second half and defeated Hope 26-14.

Olivet further demonstrated its rise to power in the MIAA with a 13-6 victory over Kalamazoo. It was the fourth straight triumph for the Comets.

In a game played in Minnesota, Mankato State whipped Michigan Tech 19-0. Tech's only threat was halted on the Mankato 4-yard-line in the Northern State Conference clash.

Shamrocks 40-6 Victors; Lakers Post 1st Triumph

St. Fred and Eaglets Blanked; Emmanuel Bows, 12-0

St. Michael rolled on through another tuneup opponent and Our Lady of the Lakes won its first varsity game yesterday in another round of Suburban Catholic football action.

St. Fred and Orchard Lake St. Mary were blanked in the other loop contests. St. James was idle. Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows boosted its record to 3-1 by whipping St. Leo, 26-0.

Saturday night, Emmanuel dropped its 4th straight bowing to Southgate 12-0 at Wisner and Memphis took Anchor Bay by 29-13.

The Shamrocks remained tied with St. Rita for 2nd place just one-half game behind St. Clement by bombing Royal Oak St. Mary, 40-6. The locals meet the two powers the next two Sundays.

★ ★ ★

Gary Hintz paced the 3rd straight victory with two touchdowns and missed a 3rd when he fumbled going into the end zone. Teammate Tom Miedjelski got the points by falling on the ball. Jerry Martin ran 70, Dick Ghastin 3 and Gib Hoffman 16 for the others. The latter picked up a bad punt on the bounce and dashed in. Dave Hustosky kicked three extra points and passed for another.

St. Mike was strong on the ground again gaining 407 of a 491 total by rushing. Martin led with 112, Ghastin had 108 and Hintz 83.

A large Our Lady of the Lakes following was rewarded at St. Benedict as the visitors broke a 7-7 halftime deadlock to down the Ravens 20-7.

★ ★ ★

Converted fullback George Sharpe tallied the three Laker TDs, one on a 40-yard gallop. Wes Borys passed for the extra points. Tim Davis and Dave Ottman ran well, Ray DeLasko, Lou Mettler, Tom Somerville and John Zwack starred in the line. DeLasko suffered a broken bone in his foot and may be lost for the season.

Ram skipper Tom Kennedy had something to smile about for the 1st time this fall despite a 44-0 drubbing at St. Rita. He used mostly freshmen and sophomores and they looked good at times. They held well in the line but costly mistakes on pass defense and two long punt returns made it a one-sided affair. St. Fred got inside the Rita 15 three times but could not keep moving.

Mike Murphy, John Zavasky, Joe Doyan and Larry Walter were some of the frosh who were standouts along with vet John Bierline. Charley Dean excelled as a punter again.

St. Clement raced to a 14-0 lead at halftime and added another TD later to easily take the Eaglets, 21-0. Bob Vigneau led the way by garnering nine of the points.

Emmanuel got numerous breaks but could not take advantage of them largely due to a lack of blocking. Lancer tackling was also poor again despite the efforts of Jack Gillespie and George Crawford. Many long Southgate gains were nullified by penalties which totaled 165 yards.

Down 13-6 at the half, Memphis scored twice in each of the final periods. John Jakubiak's 14 points led the winners.

Top-Rated Hawks Lucky to Beat USC

Iowa Luster Tarnished on West Coast

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Iowa still wears an undefeated crown—but whether it was merely tarnished or thoroughly corroded by Southern California is difficult to determine.

Did the Hawkeyes show their true strength Saturday by scoring themselves or halting USC each time a wild comeback threatened to put the Trojans ahead?

Or did two costly USC fumbles hand Iowa a 35-34 victory that it didn't deserve.

Is Iowa that vulnerable? Or was the team as complacent as the equipment man who said before the kickoff that it was "rotten luck for us to have such a lousy game for national TV?"

★ ★ ★

Iowa, ranked first in the nation last week, faces doormat Indiana next Saturday and surprisingly weak Wisconsin a week later. Then the gauntlet begins: Purdue, Ohio State, Minnesota, Michigan.

Coach Jerry Burns would do little except praise Southern Cal and say the Hawkeyes couldn't sustain an attack. He only looked unhappy at the thought of the final four games.

★ ★ ★

USC didn't put Iowa on any plateau—"We could have beaten them," Coach John McKay said after the game.

Iowa was a point-a-minute team for the first 21 minutes, and logically could have grown overconfident. But Troy scored twice near the end of the half and again late in the third period to close to 21-20.

★ ★ ★

Iowa recouped with two touchdowns and seemed safe at 35-20 with six minutes to go. But quarterback Bill Nelsen hit Hal Bedsole with scoring passes of 71 and five yards, the latter with 48 seconds left.

USC tried another Nelsen-to-Bedsole aerial for a two-point conversion that would have put the Trojans ahead 36-35, but Sammie Harris knocked it down, and the Hawkeyes had won.

The Trojan coach said later he didn't even think of going for a tie by trying a one-point conversion.

Hershey Hands Wings 1st Loss in Exhibitions

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Red Wings absorbed their first pre-season exhibition loss in seven years last night when the Hershey Bears beat them 4-1 in Detroit.

Hershey scored three goals in the third period to hand the Wings their first pre-season loss in 70 games.

Gordie Howe scored Detroit's lone goal in the first period. Hershey's Claude LaForge tied it up in the second stanza and Mark Bolleau, Les Duff and Cleiand Mortson clinched the win for the Wings' American Hockey League farm club in the third period.

U.S. Ryder Cup Team Arrives in England

LONDON (AP) — America's Ryder Cup golf team arrived in England Sunday for next week-end's match against the British at the Royal Lytham and St. Anne's course.

The U.S. team lost 7½-4½ at Lindrick on their last visit to England in 1957. They won the next series at Palm Desert, Calif., in 1959.

U.S. Grand Prix Race Won by Scottish Farmer

WATKINS GLEN, N.Y. (AP)—Innes Ireland, a Scottish farmer, took the lead on the 57th lap of the 230-mile Grand Prix of the United States Sunday and stayed in front the rest of the way as he beat Californian Dan Gurney by 5.2 seconds.

Tony Brooks of Britain was third while the two favorites, Stirling Moss of Britain and Australia's Jack Brabham, had to drop out because of mechanical troubles.

★ ★ ★

Ireland, driving a Lotus, was timed in 2 hours 13:45.8 minutes for the 100 laps around the Watkins Glen 2.3-mile oval. His average was 103.22 miles per hour.

The crowd of 50,000 watched Gurney finish in 2:12.51. Brooks just edged Bruce McLaren of New Zealand. Brooks had a 2:14.34.8 and McLaren a 2:14.43.8.

★ ★ ★

Phil Hill, another Californian, who has already won the world title, did not compete.

Ireland took the lead after Moss and Brabham, both early leaders, dropped out. Moss, driving a Lotus, led at the halfway mark and Ireland was second. Brabyear ago, led for a time but was sixth at the halfway mark when a water leak forced him to the pits. He was never a contender after that and finally had to withdraw.

★ ★ ★

The only other Americans to finish in the top 10 were Roger Penske, who was eighth, and Hap Sharp, who finished tenth.

Betsy Rawls Wins Tourney at Albuquerque

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—Betsy Rawls fought back from an attack of the flu to win the $8,000 Albuquerque Ladies Professional Golf Swing Parade.

The 33-year-old South Carolinian from Spartanburg fired a 5-over-par 221 over the tough, wind swept Four Hills Country Club course to take home $1,313 for her second victory of the season.

Miss Rawls, still sniffing from a bout with the flu, shot a 73 Sunday despite the 25-to-30-mile an hour winds and nippy 50-degree temperatures.

Three strokes back in second place was the first-day leader, Marilyn Smith of Jupiter, Fla. She was one of the three ladies to better par on the hilly mountainside course. She had a 70 during the first day while Shirley Englehorn, who finished 13th, had a 71 also on opening day.

Beverly Hanson of Indio, Calif., finished third with a 226; Mickey Wright of San Diego, Calif., was fourth with a 28 and Kathy Whitworth of Jal, N.M., finished fifth with a consistent 77-77-77—31.

CLERMONT, Ind. (AP) — Len Sutton, Portland, Ore., and Paul Goldsmith, St. Clair Shores, finished one-two in Pontiacs yesterday in a 100-lap stock car race on Raceway Park's ½-mile paved track.

Sutton set a frack stock record of 48 minutes 31.61 seconds for the distance. He led from the start except for a few feet on the 13th lap when Whitey Gerkin of Chicago tangled with him. Gerkin ended up in the infield with a damaged car but unhurt.

Pontiac Motor Team Keeps S. E. Knudsen Golf Trophy

Pontiac Motor's golfers wrote a new chapter to an old story Saturday in the annual City Industrial golf tournament at Pontiac Country Club.

With Norm Thompson setting the pace, the Motor squad won the Industrial tourney for the 3rd straight year. And this time it was the most convincing victory of all.

Thompson rifled a 74 to equal par at Pontiac C. C. and Ermal (Red) Fender followed with a 75 as Pontiac Motor compiled a four-man score of 304 to win the 18-hole medal play event by a whopping 18 strokes.

Completing the Motor team's winning effort was a 77 by Jim Hanes and Don Bruske's 78.

The one-sided triumph enabled Pontiac Motor to retain the traveling Semon E. Knudsen Trophy, donated annually by the Pontiac Motor president for this golf outing.

It was a case of too much balance on the Motor squad, although scores were generally higher than anticipated.

Fisher Body took 2nd place for the 2nd straight year with a 322 total. Jack Raymond and Harley Hyatt each fired 80 for the Fisher team.

General Motors Truck and Coach finished 3rd at 329 with Ron Rothbarth shooting 76 to lead the way.

Glen Harding carded an even par 74 to share medal honors with Thompson and George Gran came next with 76, but Pontiac Business still could do no better than 4th at 330. Jerry Lampson's 78 was low for Baldwin Rubber, which placed 5th with 338.

★ ★ ★

Bell Telephone, the 6th entry in the tournament, automatically fell into last place and was ineligible for title contention when one player couldn't compete. Bell's three-man total was 251, headed by Jim Wade's 80.

Ideal weather conditions prevailed for the tourney. Host pro at P.C.C. was Frank Syron, who donated his course to the players for the event.

State Powers Impress

By The Associated Press

The best way to solve a problem is to get right after it. And that's exactly what Michigan and Michigan State are doing this weekend with the football-type log jam that's developing in the Big Ten.

Both teams have suddenly become top-flight contenders for the Big Ten title, and also for national honors, now that Iowa, currently ranked first in The Associated Press weekly poll, and Ohio State have been proven "human."

Michigan State, ranked sixth, crushed Stanford 31-3 Saturday for its second victory in as many starts, and now awaits the Wolverines, before a national television audience. Michigan wrapped up previously unbeaten Army 38-8.

Iowa skimmed by South California by the slimmest of margins, 35-34, while Ohio State had to buckle down to beat UCLA 13-3.

Iowa, Michigan and Ohio State all must play one another, and face the possibility of killing off each other's title hopes.

The same problem does not exist in the Southeastern Conference, where Alabama (3-0), leads the pack, but is pursued by Mississippi. 'Bama, ranked fourth, handed Vanderbilt its first loss 36-6 while second-ranked Ole Miss beat non-SEC foe Florida State 33-0, and has a good chance to move up to the top of the nation's powers.

Neither Alabama nor Mississippi play each other this year, and both have comparatively easy shots this week. Alabama meets North Carolina State (1-2) while Ole Miss goes against Houston.

A dogfight is shaping up in the Southwest Conference where Texas has set itself up as the team to beat. The Longhorns (3-0) turned on a fine display of offense to wrap up Washington State 41-8 while defending champion Arkansas handed strong Texas Christian its first loss, 28-3.

Georgia Tech had its dreams of revival stomped on by Louisiana State 10-0, snapping a 2-0 record the Yellow Jackets had gleaned so far. Maryland popped up as the strongman to challenge Duke in the Atlantic Coast race. The Terps surprised seventh-ranked Syracuse 22-21 while Duke won its third straight, 23-3 over Wake Forest.

Notre Dame proved it meant business about a comeback, beating Purdue 22-20 on a fourth quarter field goal, and this week takes on Southern California, whose second half drive had Iowa reeling. The Trojans lost when their pass for a two-point conversion was batted down in the final seconds.

The nation's three longest major college losing strings came to an end as West Virginia beat Virginia Tech 28-0 for its first win in 19 games, Southern Methodist won over Air Force 9-7 for its first victory in 14 games and Texas A&M broke a nine-game victory drought by beating Texas Tech 38-7.

Elsewhere, Kentucky handed Auburn its first home loss in 31 games, 14-12; Washington surprised Pitt 22-17; California held Missouri to a 14-14 tie; Colorado kept Kansas winless 20-19; Utah deadlocked for the Skyline lead, after a 6-6 tie; Yale, the defending Ivy titlist, won its 11th in a row over two years by downing Brown 14-3, and Northwestern turned back Illinois 28-7.

Lineup for Davis Cup Team Still Undecided

ROME (AP)—The U.S. Davis Cup team today gets down to the business of determining its final line-up for the interzone tennis final against favored Italy, starting Friday.

U.S. non-playing captain David Freed scheduled an informal tournament, including regular matches, to decide which of his four players he will use.

Freed had been expected to use Whitney Reed of Alameda, Calif., and Donald Dell of Bethesda, Md., in the singles.

But Sunday, after the Americans had their first workout on the courts of the Rome Tennis Club, Freed said Jo Douglas of Santa Monica, Calif., was playing very well and might capture one of the singles berths.

The fourth and youngest member of the squad is 19-year-old Martin Riessen of Evanston, Ill. Although he was unlikely to beat out his teammates for a singles berth, he could get a place on the doubles team.

Freed has said Dell will be the key doubles man, with the second man to be determined during the practice sessions this week.

Lema Captures Hesperia Title

Tony Wins 1st Event on Pro Golf Circuit Since 1959

HESPERIA, Calif. (AP)—Golfer Tony Lema, shooting over his head and under par, holds a winner's purse today for the first time in two years.

The 27-year-old professional from San Leandro, Calif., won the $12,500 Hesperia Invitational Sunday with a 5-under-par 67 in the second and final round.

He had shot a 71 in the morning round of the 36-hole event and his total of 138 left him three strokes ahead of Jerry Steelsmith of Glendale, Calif.

Bud Holscher of North Hollywood finished third with a 142 and Jacky Cupit of Longview, Tex., was fourth with a 144. Lema won $1,200, Steelsmith $1,000, Holscher $900 and Cupit $800.

Lema said this was his first victory since the 1959 Idaho Open. "I was shooting over my head," he said.

Press Conference Today

Oriole Pilot to Be Named

CINCINNATI (AP)—Lee MacPhail, president of the Baltimore Orioles, said Sunday night he will call a press conference Tuesday to announce the new manager of the club.

★ ★ ★

It is virtually certain that Billy Hitchcock will be the manager, but MacPhail refused to confirm or deny that Hitchcock is his man.

The Associated Press reported on Sept. 17 that Hitchcock was the No. 1 candidate for the Orioles managerial job made vacant by the departure of Paul Richards last August when he became general manager of the new Houston club of the National League.

Luman Harris, coach under Richards, took over as interim manager.

Hitchcock, 45, managed the Vancouver club of the Pacific Coast League last season. His team finished in second place.

A resident of Opelika, Ala., Hitchcock is a former American League infielder who spent 10 years with Detroit, Philadelphia, Boston and St. Louis. He also managed the Buffalo club of the International League and later was a coach with the Tigers.

Takes Big Toll in Working Days

Common Cold Still Unconquered

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

The common cold, which costs industry $5 billion a year, is still one of mankind's greatest medical mysteries. It is responsible for 30 per cent of all our missed days from work.

BOYLE

Hippocrates, the father of medicine, thought the common cold started in the brain. Some scientists today deny there even is such a disease. Others hold it is caused by from one to 50 different viruses.

But most doctors say: "There is no known cure for the common cold except rest and time. Most victims will agree.

EARNING AND OWING

Prosperity note: The more we earn, the more we owe. Americans today owe more than $196 billion on the installment plan.

A Tibetan school child never gets spanked for sticking out his tongue at teacher. In Tibet that's the way you show respect for a superior. Try it with your boss—and see what happens!

★ ★ ★

Highway sign: Danger: To touch these wires means instantaneous death. Anyone caught doing so will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law."

Literary note: More books have been written about the American Civil War than about any other subject except religion.

★ ★ ★

Our quotable notables: "The United States never lost a war or won a conference"—Will Rogers.

Machine age on the farm: In 1960 it took the labor of eight farmers to feed and clothe 10 families—their own and two others. Today a mere 12 per cent of our working population (instead of 80 per cent) are engaged in agriculture. A dozen men now raise more than enough to provide for 100 people.

BUSY EYES

Your eyes are the busiest visible parts of your body. In a single year they move up, down, or sideways some 36 million times. And you blink your eyes about 84 million times. If you are normal, you blinked as you read that.

★ ★ ★

Hints for dieters: You can pep up your meals with a portion of rattlesnake steak, only 200 calories. Five baked grasshoppers, 225 calories. Or a small serving of hippopotamus milk, 80 calories. All these foods are chockfull of vitamins, and none is habit-forming.

★ ★ ★

Historical oddity: The only U.S. President who composed his own epitaph omitted mention of his White House tenure. He wrote: "Here was buried Thomas Jefferson, author of the Declaration of American Independence, of the Statute of Virginia for Religious Freedom, and father of the University of Virginia."

Worth remembering: "The faster we go the more behind we get."

FILING TIME

Facts to file and forget: The sun weighs about two billion billion billion tons. The world still has more than 400 active volcanoes. The cricket can throw its "voice"—like a ventriloquist.

Thought of the week: "Baseball honors its no-hit pitchers. Why shouldn't we do as much for our no-hit motorists?"

If science could just figure a way to cross-breed chickens and queen ants, breakfast might be cheaper. A queen ant lays up to 100 eggs a day.

★ ★ ★

The theory has been advanced that a skilled heavyweight boxing champion could whip a gorilla. But none has volunteered to try. The truth: A fullgrown male gorilla has the strength of 10 average men.

It was John B. S. Haldane who observed, "I've never met a healthy person who worried much about his health, or a good person who worried much about his soul."

Rocket Society Opens Meeting

Consider the Feasibility of 6-Legged Robot to Explore the Moon

NEW YORK (UPI) — A group of America's leading authorities on rocket propulsion and space exploration open a six-day meeting on outer space problems today by considering the feasibility of a six-legged mechanical robot for scrutinizing the surface of the moon.

★ ★ ★

John D. McKenny of Space-General Corp. of Glendale, Calif., unveiled a prototype of his walking device for lunar exploration at an opening seminar of the American Rocket Society's meeting, "Space Report to the Nation."

Space age problems in all their implications will be discussed by military and civilian space scientists during the ARS meeting at the New York Coliseum, today through Sunday. More than 250 companies working on space projects will exhibit.

McKinny reported there are only two serious possibilities for workable lunar exploration vehicles—one using wheels and the other legs.

★ ★ ★

He listed several reasons why he believed his walking device was more suitable than its competition, the so-called "moon jeep."

He said the walking device, a triangular-shaped monster with two legs in front and four in back, had advantages of size and weight for delivery to the moon.

Once there, he said, it would operate with less internal friction and would be more able to cope with surface obstacles which scientists believe exist on the moon surface.

McKenny said a small working model his firm produced has demonstrated the practicality of the moon walker.

In other Rocket Society sessions today, scientists planned to discuss such subjects as booster system logistics, electronic propulsion, nuclear rockets, astrodynamics, manned space flights, missile testing, space vehicle materials, and propellant fuels.

Train-Car Collision Kills Three in Iowa

BURLINGTON, Iowa (AP) — A young girl, her mother and her grandfather were killed Sunday night when their car was struck by the California Zephyr at a rural railroad crossing two miles west of here.

★ ★ ★

The victims were Nick Boecker, 69, his divorced daughter, Florence W. Boecker, 34, and her daughter, Mary Louise Boecker, 11, all of Lomax, Ill.

★ ★ ★

Officers said the west-bound train was going 80 miles an hour when it struck the front end of the car. The car flipped end-over-end and burst into flames.

The Burlington Railroad passenger train resumed its trip after a check showed no damage was done to the engine or the tracks.

U.S. Soldier Arrested in Fatal Iranian Mishap

TEHRAN, Iran (UPI) — Frederick Adams, a Boston, Mass., soldier has been arrested in connection with the traffic death of a former member of the Iranian Parliament, police said Sunday.

Adams, a signal specialist attached to the U.S. military advisory mission here, was driving a jeep that struck Mahmoud Mahmoud Saturday night, police said.

Iranian officials said Adams would stand trial for the accident, but no further details were available.

The Venetians of the 1,400s are credited with having invented the double entry system of bookkeeping.

Tulane Cancels 'Diz' Because of White Pianist

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Tulane University canceled the on-campus concert by John "Dizzy" Gillespie, Negro jazz trumpeter, that was scheduled Tuesday because he has a white piano player.

The university said when it scheduled the concert, it had been assured Gillespie would bring an all-Negro band to Tulane.

The piano player is Lalo Schifrin, a native of Argentina, who joined Dizzy's band about a year ago. The university said a white musician with the band would violate a Louisiana law which prohibits whites and Negroes from performing together.

Gillespie refused to substitute a Negro pianist for the New Orleans appearance.

Ladd's Wife Recovering From Traffic Accident

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (UPI) — Mrs. Sue Carol Ladd, 47, the wife of movie actor Alan Ladd, was recovering at home today following a Friday evening traffic accident on Sunset Boulevard.

★ ★ ★

Officers said Mrs. Ladd was taken to Beverly Hills Emergency Hospital where she had 28 stitches made in her forehead, after the head-on collision.

Kennedy Plans to Tour West

Slates Speeches; May Lend Hand in Report on Congress

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President Kennedy will head west on a speaking tour in mid-November.

It could wind up with his lending a personal hand to Cabinet officers and other administration executives in reporting to the people what Congress accomplished and what more he would like it to accomplish.

★ ★ ★

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, announced Sunday Kennedy will speak Nov. 16 in Seattle at the 100th anniversary of the University of Washington and again Nov. 17 in Phoenix at a dinner honoring Sen. Carl A. Hayden's 50 years in Congress.

SINCE 1912

Hayden, who was elected to the House of Representatives in 1911, first took his seat on Feb. 19, 1912 —five days after Arizona was admitted as a state. He has been in the House or Senate ever since.

★ ★ ★

Plied with questions, Salinger said that after the Phoenix visit, Kennedy has "some other stops under consideration."

12-Hour Exercise in Preparedness to Ground Planes

DETROIT (UPI) — All commercial airliners and private planes will be grounded Saturday for a 12-hour period during a U.S. and Canada readiness exercise and public exhibits are planned at Detroit Metropolitan and Willow Run airports in the nonflying period.

"Operation Sky Sheld II" will keep the planes grounded from 1 p.m. Saturday to 1 a.m. Sunday.

Trans World Airlines will stage an exhibit at Willow Run featuring the Boeing 707 jet.

The exhibit at Metropolitan will be staged jointly by all airlines operating from that airport.

More than 90 per cent of all farms in the U.S. have electricity.

Seeking Return of Rubber Model Used in Tests

Chrysler Corp. is seeking the return of an government-owned air-inflatable canvas and rubber jeep model which was taken from a north Oakland county air-inflatable canvas and rubber jeep model which was taken from a north Oakland county field.

The jeep, which was not inflated but wrapped in a tarpaulin, disappeared from the site of tests Chrysler Corp. is conducting for the federal government.

★ ★ ★

A spokesman for the firm said today that the tarpaulin and its contents may have been taken by mistake, explaining that it is of no value except for government use.

Arrangements for returning the decoy jeep on a "no-questions asked" basis may be made by calling Chrysler Corp., JEfferson 9-2000, or the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

Weakened Frances on Way to Maine

HALIFAX, N.S. (UPI)—A rapidly weakening hurricane Frances moved toward Maine after reaching the mouth of the Bay of Fundy.

★ ★ ★

A weather bureau forecast said her winds, earlier reported as high as 80 miles per hour, would be less than 30 when the storm hits land.

Earlier, the Weather Bureau advised all ships in the path of the storm to exercise caution. Small craft warnings were issued in all regions in the maritime provinces.

Fidel to Execute Certain Women

Anti-Castro Group Finds Out Program Against Protesting Housewives

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — An anti-Castro organization says that the Cuban government plans to execute housewives to stop public protest about food shortages.

★ ★ ★

The first publicly known execution of a woman since Fidel Castro came to power will take place on Tuesday, a Cuban holiday, according to the organization, the People's Revolutionary Movement (MRP).

★ ★ ★

The MRP was considered one of the most effective underground outfits operating in Cuba before the unsuccessful April invasion. By report, it was forced to halt operations, along with the other underground groups, when the invasion failed, but recently was reorganized and now is operating again.

★ ★ ★

Ignacio Mendoza, a participant in Cuban revolutionary activities since the 1930s, said that information about the Tuesday execution and those to follow came from the MPR network in Cuba.

It's not very hard to be the most important fellow in town. All you have to do is find a town small enough . . . A fellow at a Manhattan night club stifled a noisy ringside heckler by asking the character's wife: "What does your husband want to be when he grows up?" — Earl Wilson

Trading Is Moderate

Stocks Show Downward Trend

NEW YORK (AP)—Few trading features appeared in a mixed stock market which showed a tendency to the downside early Monday afternoon. Trading was moderate.

★ ★ ★

Most key stocks showed fractional gains or losses. A few blue chips, however, took fairly sharp losses, dampening the overall average.

FORD EASES

Ford was soft in a spotty motor group as the strike dragged on with no immediate prospects for settlement. Steels edged off as little improvement was reported in steel production, dampened first by the General Motors strike and now by the Ford walkout.

★ ★ ★

Stock market comment was cheery, however, and forecasters looked for better prices in view of the continued business upturn and the apparent lull in international tensions.

Retail shares were mostly higher and aircrafts leaned to the upside. Most other major sections were irregular.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange moved generally higher in moderate trading. Aerojet-General added about 4 points while Apollo Industries, Gulf American Land, Pep Boys and Louisiana Land rose a point or so. F. C. Russell was an active fractional gainer. Losses were shown by Miller-Wohl Napco and Mages Sporting Goods.

★ ★ ★

Corporate bonds were mixed. U. S. Government bonds declined slightly in moderate trading.

Corporate Bonds Mixed

NEW YORK (AP) — Corporate bonds opened mixed today, with losses in rails offsetting gains in utilities and industrials.

The action in rails was a reversal of a strong showing late last week, but losses mostly were held to less than one point.

Over-the-counter dealers said governments were slightly lower in moderate trading.

The biggest loss in corporate bonds was in Canadian Pacific railways 4s perpetual, which dropped a full point to 74.

Other rail losses included Southern Pacific 4½s of 1969, down ¼ to 100; West Shore Railroad 4s of 2361, down ⅜ to 52⅝; New York, New Haven & Hartford 4s of 2007, off ⅛ at 18½, and Atlantic Coast Lines 4½s of 1964, off ⅛ to 100⅜.

Steel Industry Awaits Orders

Hoping for Improved Business in November From Automakers

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—Uncertain labor conditions in the automotive industry continue to keep the steel industry from hitting expected production levels, Steel Magazine said today.

★ ★ ★

The national weekly said Ford and Chrysler are buying cautiously, and General Motors has not released as much tonnage as steelmakers anticipated.

Steel sales officials have two theories—either auto steel inventories are bigger than they estimated, or automakers do not intend to boost their October output enough to make up for the production lost last month.

The magazine explained that if new-model sales are good, automakers probably will order more steel for November delivery than they'll take this month. Until they step up their purchases, the steel market will have a hard time getting off dead center.

Despite this uncertainty in the auto industry, steelmakers are cheered by uptrends in other important markets.

★ ★ ★

Steel said tank and boiler fabricators are stepping up their plate requirements and the shipbuilding and chemical industries are providing fairly strong demand.

U.S. Policy Change Ups Grain Futures

CHICAGO (UPI) — An apparent change in the government's corn selling policy, boosting spot prices 10 cents or more a bushel, drove all grain futures higher today on the Chicago Board of Trade.

★ ★ ★

The week's trading in soybeans began under influence of extremely heavy receipts—472 cars—compared with 358 all last week, when the price gain in contracts was about 2 cents a bushel.

The government's new estimate of harvest is due Tuesday. The last, predicting 720.4 million bushels — a little bearish — might be pared by recent dry weather in the Midwest.

Toymakers Want Santa to Keep Busy All Year

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — You'd think the nation's toymakers wouldn't be thinking of anything today but Christmas. From now till then 70 per cent of their annual output is bought by the public.

But toymakers would like to sell more toys earlier in the year — sort of give Santa Clause a year around job. So the First Annual Spring and Summer Toy Market Week is opening here today. This is the time to get retailers interested in post-Christmas buying and promotions.

★ ★ ★

This new accent on outdoor playthings and other spring and summer toys doesn't mean the toy makers are downgrading the Christmas season. They want to sell just as many in the closing weeks of the year as ever. But they'd like to raise sales in the first nine months of the year to parity with the closing quarter.

The trend already is that way. Before the war, only 15 per cent of the annual output was sold in the earlier months, and now it's 30 per cent. The toy industry thinks it should be a 50-50 split.

PLEASANT FIGURE

Since total sales this year are expected to be about $2 billion, with $1.4 billion of that still to be realized. Retaining this Christmas figure and boosting earlier sales to parity would give a pleasant $2.8 billion. So that's what toy makers are thinking about this week.

That's a lot of money. But toy sales have been growing rapidly in recent years. There has been a big jump in buying scientific toys, with all the latter-day miracles in real life adding to the demand in the make believe field.

Ideal, Transogram, Remco and many others are already in the outdoor and summer-toy business. A. C. Gilbert Co. is entering the field this year with a line of ready-to-fly plastic model planes. Up to now the company has been known for such indoor playthings as Erector sets, American Flyer trains, and science sets.

Making and selling toys on a year-around basis helps keep plant, machinery, engineering staffs, shipping facilities and the like operating at peak capacity all the time.

MODERN ITEMS

Missiles, space vehicles, supersonic planes—all inspire toy makers looking for outdoor, or year-around, products. Hence the Gilbert plane model with mufflers and an automatic copilot to help the really young operator.

The company also is entering the field of electronic toys and offering new types of microscopes and telescopes.

Lionel, noted for toy trains, has introduced a line of electronic and plastic engineering sets.

Infrared Industries sells most of its products—infrared detectors for missiles and satellites—to the government. But it is entering the toy field with a two-way phone. This will send the voice hundreds of yards without wires if the line of sight isn't broken. The phone will operate through glass, and the voice can be reflected off mirrors.

General Electric is offering seven assembly kits in the transistor electronics field. Included are laboratories and kits for transistor radios, analog computers, and transmitters.

Toy makers also offer small copies of atomic submarines, rockets, missile-launching sites—sometimes with an accuracy that alarms those fearful that defense secrets may be divulged. The toy makers insist the details are all publicly known anyway.

Many are for indoor play but also for use in the spring and summer months. And toy manufacturers say they'll increase promotion of sales in the early months of 1962.

Waterfront, Transit Plans

Detroit Seeking U.S. Aid

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit city officials are seeking $610,300 in federal aid to finance studies of a 4-mile waterfront and a six-county metropolitan transit system.

★ ★ ★

Mayor Louis Miriani has asked for $235,000 for a port study to update past studies of Detroit facilities.

"This information is necessary so that Detroit can determine what steps may be necessary to implement the expansion of our port facilities," he said.

Miriani had already authorized a request the Detroit Department of Streets and Traffic will make to Congress next week for $375,000 to be used for the transportation study.

★ ★ ★

The Federal money would be used with a grant from the Ford Foundation to examine mass transportation possibilities in the six-county area around Detroit.

Increased attention has been given to Metropolitan transit systems since a strike against Intertown Suburban Lines Corp. cut off bus service to 30,000 commuters in 13 downriver and Western Wayne County communities.

Leo J. Nowicki, Detroit Street Railways general manager, told a group of mayors from the affected communities he would like to extend DSR service to them.

★ ★ ★

However, under present state law the DSR is limited to a 10-mile radius of operation outside Detroit city limits.

The law would have to be changed if the DSR were to provide effective service to outlying suburbs.

Nowicki has advocated establishment of a Metropolitan Transit Authority with limited taxing power to supplement fare revenue. However, this would call for major state legislation.

★ ★ ★

The DSR has also been exploring the possibility of expanding service into Oakland and Macomb Counties.

Nowicki estimated a three-county operation would boost passengers carried per month to 3.5 million, 1.5 million more than are carried now.

Western Pacific Gets Into Case of Rail Control

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Western Pacific Railroad opened its case today in an Interstate Commerce Commission hearing into the battle between Southern Pacific and Santa Fe for control of Western Pacific.

President Frederick B. Whitman of WP was expected to be his company's star witness in the second week of the present hearings.

Witnesses for both Southern Pacific and Santa Fe faced cross-examination during last week's sessions.

Some agencies and groups have testified that Western Pacific should continue operating as an independent line, WP officials have indicated that the small railroad will fall victim to the merger trend eventually.

Western Pacific favors merger wiht Santa Fe.

U.S. Missiles Carry Powerful New Warheads

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The atomic bomb which devastated Hiroshima in World War II is a firecracker in comparison with the immense payload capability of the United States' big military rockets.

The Hiroshima bomb packed a punch equivalent to 20,000 tons of dynamite.

The Atlas and Titan intercontinental range missiles, if fired in anger, would deliver four megaton bombs — equal to four million tons of TNT.

★ ★ ★

An advanced Titan now under development will carry 10 megatons. The smaller Minuteman and Polaris missiles have warheads with the explosive power of 500,000 tons of dynamite.

Talks Resume Today in Teamster Strike

DETROIT (UPI) — Negotiations resume today between the Michigan Road Builders Association and the Teamsters Union on a dispute that has curbed road building throughout the state since Sept. 27.

The legal adviser of the association, William M. Saxton, said some progress was made in talks Friday.

About 3,500 Teamsters walked off the job late last month after refusing a contract offer by the association, which has about 100 members.

★ ★ ★

The strike stopped work on more than 300 miles of Michigan highways.

Chamberlain Metal Buys Powered Products Co.

FRANKFORT (AP)— Chamberlain Metal Products Co., announced today it has acquired manufacturing facilities of Powered Products Co. of Austin, Tex., and Rothbury. The firm is bringing its entire production of powered golf carts to Frankfort. Initial employment is estimated at about 75 persons.

The newly acquired firms were subsidiaries of Kysor Heater Co. of Cadillac. Chamberlain, which moved to Frankfort from Chicago last spring, was supported in its new venture by area industrial development financial aid.

Convicted Killer, 17, Is Taken to Prison

ALLEGAN (UPI)—James Scott Stephen, 17-year-old convicted killer, was taken to the Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson today to begin serving a 20 to 40 year term.

The youth was sentenced last week by Judge Raymond L. Smith for a conviction of second degree murder.

Stephen, whose home is just south of Holland, was convicted for shooting to death Carol Gee, an 11-year-old neighbor girl. She and Margaret Chambers, 12, another neighbor, were slain April 29 while picking wild flowers in the Macatawa Hills near their home.

Rayburn Names Broomfield to UNESCO Post

In perhaps one of his last official acts, "Mr. Democrat" Sam Rayburn has designated a Republican congressman from Oakland County to serve UNESCO.

Rep. William S. Broomfield over the weekend received a letter signed by the critically ill House Speaker. The letter named Broomfield a representative on the United States National Commission on the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization.

The term will last two years. Broomfield will represent the United States at the first UNESCO meeting Oct. 19-21 in Boston.

He said, "I appreciate the confidence which Speaker Rayburn has in me to serve on this important committee for the U.N., representing the U.S. Government.

Man Suffers Burns in Blaze at Home

A Pontiac grandfather suffered first and second-degree burns of the feet and legs in a fire that caused an estimated $3,750 damage to his home early Sunday.

Rushton Marsh, 53, of 65 N. Paddock St., was treated at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

Marsh told police that his grandchildren accidentally overturned a can of gasoline in a room at the rear of the home, and while he was attempting to clean it up a nearby hot water heater ignited the fumes.

Firemen fought the blaze for more than an hour. They said the fire spread to the kitchen, dining room and attic of the one-story frame home.

Damage was estimated at $3,000 to the structure and $750 to contents. The fire started shortly after 8.

CAMERA CONSCIOUS — Harry Dubsky, 21-year-old circus acrobat, eyes the camera dubiously at his wedding to Gabriella Rizzi, 18, also a member of the circus, in Sacred Heart Cathedral in Salina, Kan. Salina is the last town the circus played before going into winter quarters in Sarasota, Fla. About 25 other circus performers from the Clyde Bros. Circus attended the wedding. Gabriella will probably join the Dubsky family in its acrobatic act.

Southern Pastor Lauds Episcopal Freedom Riders

DETROIT (AP) — Integrationist leader Martin Luther King Jr. said Sunday the church should foster, not shy away, from freedom bus rides to test racial segregation.

★ ★ ★

Speaking in Detroit, the Rev. Dr. King of Atlanta, Ga., praised the all-clergy freedom ride of 28 Episcopal priests last month from New Orleans to suburban Dearborn.

"The Episcopal ride demonstrated the interest and concern of the church perhaps more than any other ride," he said.

He said the church too often interprets the light of the world as a "tail light,"—something to follow rather than to lead the way.

★ ★ ★

In the works, he said, is the testing of the Interstate Commerce Commission's new ruling that bus depots cannot segregate passengers. Voting "stand-ins" at registration booths and church "kneel-ins" are also on the agenda, he said.

'Reds Exceeding Fallout Limit'

Physicist Says Soviet Tests Have Surpassed Safe Annual Count

WASHINGTON (AP)—Physicist Ralph E. Lapp, who helped in development of the atom bomb, says it's his opinion that fallout from the Soviet Union's nuclear tests have exceeded the "safe annual limit."

★ ★ ★

The Soviets fired their 19th atmospheric explosion Sunday in their current test series.

"They have, according to the latest count, sent up over 10 megatons of weapons. I don't know precisely how much of this would be dirty, but this, in my opinion, exceeds the safe level that a number of scientists—some of them from the Atomic Energy Commission—agreed upon as a safe level back in 1957 when we didn't know about the different kind of fallout from Russian tests," Lapp said.

DUMP DEBRIS SOONER

"It turns out that Russian tests dump their debris back to the earth sooner than the American tests in the Pacific. And, therefore, we find out on the actual base of measurements that you get 10 times as much radiation dose from these arctic tests in Russia as you do from American tests in the Pacific.

★ ★ ★

"Therefore, the safe annual limit for Russian testing I would put closer to the value of 3 megatons per year than I would the old 1957 value of 10 megatons per year."

A megaton is the equivalent of the energy released by a million tons of TNT.

★ ★ ★

The Atomic Energy Commission in announcing the Soviet Union's 19th nuclear detonation, said the blast was in the atmosphere and was in "the low yield range." as equivalent to about 20,000 tons of TNT.

Menon Is Doing Well Following Brain Surgery

Menon, who underwent surgery Saturday, received visitors Sunday. He was expected to leave the hospital by the end of the week.

'No Papers? No Citizenship'

Technicality Causes Trouble for Hero of Army Born Abroad

CHICAGO (AP)—For 15 years a German-born salesman, Joseph Schallmoser, has been a registered voter. He is a thrice decorated U.S. veteran of World War II.

But last week the Immigration Service told Schallmoser he is not a U.S. citizen. Unless he applies for citizenship, the service says, Mr. Schallmoser will be Herr Schallmoser.

★ ★ ★

"I am a citizen. I've been a citizen almost all my life," said the 38-year-old salesman who came from Germany with his parents in 1929 when he was 6 years old.

"If I sign these papers and send in my five dollars, it's easy enough for me," he said. "But what about the thousands of other guys in the same situation?"

WHEN TROUBLES BEGAN

Schallmoser's troubles with the Immigration Service began last week when he tried to be a witness for a friend being naturalized.

Immigration authorities ruled Schallmoser's voting card, Army discharge, and father's naturalization papers were not enough.

★ ★ ★

"You are technically not a citizen," immigration officials told him.

"I was more than a little shocked," said Schallmoser.

His father was naturalized when Schallmoser was still a minor in the mid-30s.

NO ONE QUESTIONED

Schallmoser said he always listed his father's naturalization number with a note that it was not his. "No one ever questioned it before," he said.

Student Deaths Being Studied

College Pair May Have Planned Double Suicide With Cyanide

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Police Chief W. D. Blake says the cyanide poisoning deaths of two University of North Carolina students found dead in their room were "either double murder, a suicide pact or murder-suicide."

Police are continuing their investigation, while waiting for an analysis report on the contents of two milkshake cups found in the room shared by James Michael Barham, 20, of Burlington, and William Harrison Johnson Jr. 24, of Statesville.

BODIES FOUND

Their bodies were discovered Friday morning after they failed to report for self-help jobs in the dining hall.

★ ★ ★

An autopsy report Saturday said the deaths resulted from cyanide poison. A six-man coroner's jury received the report.

Chief Blake said, "If we can locate the source of the poison, I believe we'll be a long way in clearing up the mystery."

★ ★ ★

The chief said that during the investigation it was learned that a university student had deadly mercuric cyanide pills in his possession, but that the arrest of the student Sunday was not connected with the deaths.

Blake identified the student as Ralph Seargent, 20, a junior from Plainfield, N.J., and said he was released under $400 bond on a charge of dispensing poisonous drugs. The chief emphasized that Seargent cooperated fully with officers, and told them he didn't even know the two students who died.

CONFERS WITH COUNSEL — Dr. Robert Boehme (right), 41, who was charged with first-degree assault with attempt to kill his wife Dorothy with a poison injection in her arm, confers with attorney Richard Schultheis. Dr. Boehme said "I don't know what it's all about" and was released on $25,000 bail. The alleged incident occured Sept. 20 and was charged Saturday. Mrs. Boehme is recovering in the hospital. To Be Arraigned in 'Bizarre' Case

Claim Doctor Tried to Kill Wife

PORT ORCHARD, Wash. (AP) —Dr. Robert E. Boehme, 41, accused of injecting poison into his wife's arm, was to be arraigned today on a charge of first-degree assault with intent to kill.

His wife, Dorothy, 34, said she would leave her hospital bed to be at his side.

★ ★ ★

Boehme was freed on $25,000 bond after his arrest Saturday. An attractive nurse, Mary Boehme, 28, Annapolis Wash., was arrested as a material witness, and released on $4,000 bond.

Mrs. Boehme was married to the doctor's brother, Jack, an Oregon State University pharmacy student, for about three years. They were divorced in 1959.

Prosecutor Gordon Walgren said Dr. Boehme is accused of injecting poison into his wife's arm with a blood-sampling syringe Sept. 20.

HITS CHARGE

Dorothy Boehme called the charge "preposterous."

The doctor said his wife had been a diabetic for about 20 years and recently suffered from hepatitis, an inflammation of the liver.

★ ★ ★

"I love my wife," he said. "To say that I would try to destroy her is fantastic."

The couple has two sons, aged 8 and 10.

The involved case took another twist when the prosecutor said he and Mary Boehme had filed an application for a marriage license June 22.

Walgren, himself divorced and now engaged to another woman, said he never had any intention of marrying the nurse.

"I was investigating her conduct and wanted to see if she would go through with the idea of marriage," he said. "She broke off with me the same day."

★ ★ ★

Walgren said the investigation began nine months ago, after he learned Dr. Boehme had telephoned a woman in San Francisco and said: "You'll be swimming in my pool within six months."

Investigators said the physician made several trips to California while Mary Boehme was there. Dr. Boehme said his relationship with Mary Boehme was that of a doctor and a patient.

Mary Boehme, a former airline stewardess, is a nurse in the hospital where the doctor's wife was taken Sept. 22, two days after the alleged injection.

New Star on Broadway—Schnauzer Pup 'Adlai'

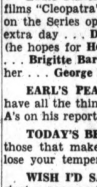

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—"Adlai"—which is the name of a Schnauzer pup—is Broadway's biggest star in years, and years, and years.

When Elaine Stritch strutted on stage in Noel Coward's "Sail Away" carrying this cute little Adlai dog in her arms, I dissolved and said, "What a show! What a HIT!"

"If Schnauzers ever get the right spotlight," I'd often said, "they'll take over from the French poodles!"

So Miss Stritch had Adlai and five or six other dogs tangled up in their leashes es in one scene — and right there in front of Marlene Dietrich, Myrna Loy, Hugh O'Brien, Margaret Truman, Lunt & Fontaine and EVERYBODY — one dog misbehaved . . . spectacularly.

WILSON

Would you believe it? Those French poodles tried to blame Adlai!

"Oh, NO! 'Twasn't Adlai!" Miss Stritch assured us later at a gala party at Sardi's East.

★ ★ ★

UN Ambassador Adlai Stevenson was even questioned. "If you ask me," he said, "the dog that misbehaved was probably named Dwight!"

Noel Coward merely said: "It never happened before . . . the dog that did it was merely trying to steal the show."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Eddie Fisher plans to record albums in Rome, while Liz films "Cleopatra" . . . Local cafe owners were rooting for rain on the Series opening day — to keep the crowds in town an extra day . . . David Merrick is preparing a show with roles (he hopes for Henry Fonda, his son Peter and daughter Jane . . . Brigitte Bardot asked to have "The Hustler" screened for her . . . George Raft escorted a 6-ft. brunette to the Voisin.

EARL'S PEARLS: The modern parent wants his son to have all the things he never had as a child — such as straight A's on his report card.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: There are two kinds of diets — those that make you lose weight, and those that make you lose your temper.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: A bore knows a million ways to start a conversation — and none to end one.

Jack Carter says he was disappointed in Paris: "They talk about those sidewalk cafes, with tables and chairs on the street. We have that here — but we call it 'getting evicted.'" That's earl, brother.

Mother of Comedian Run Over by Auto

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Mary Kovacs, 61, mother of Comedian Ernie Kovacs was run over Sunday by a car she had just parked on a steep driveway. She was reported in good condition at a hospital.

★ ★ ★

Police said she parked the car outside her son's home in Bel Air and was unloading packages when the brakes apparently failed. The car rolled backward and the open door knocked her down. One wheel rolled over her chest.

James Thurber Remains in Critical Condition

NEW YORK (AP) — Humorist James Thurber remained on the critical list at Doctors Hospital today, although he was reported slightly improved.

Thurber underwent surgery for removal of a blood clot on the brain last Wednesday after collapsing in his hotel room.

TV Programs Battle Over Rights to Berlin

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI)—Whatever else free access to West Berlin may represent to the Western Allies, it must rate as TV's secret programing weapon these days.

Look at the excitement Jack Paar generated by traveling there. And now comes Ed Sullivan to give his Sunday night CBS-TV format a badly needed lift by visiting the beleaguered city.

In Sullivan's case, tthe object was entertainment for about 6,000 appreciative U.S. and Allied servicemen and friends.

There were many shots of audience reaction and one highlight was the camera's recording of G.I. reaction to Connie Francis, who went into the audience to sing.

★

Another Sunday show that used the Berlin command for an audience was the "Show of the Week."

"U.S.O.—Wherever They Go!" was a tribute to the 20th anniversary of the service organization. They reeled off miles and miles of ancient film footage showing stars in action before World War II G.I. audiences.

Rather than fill the time with flesh-and-blood anecdotes, the program spent a great deal of time saluting the stars with shallow, obvious uninformative and repetitious little speeches. But Debbie Reynolds, Joe E. Brown and Dwight D. Eisenhower were among the few who supplied less mechanical comments—just enough to demonstrate what could have been done with a program of this sort.

★ ★ ★

UNFORTUNATE START

"1, 2, 3,—Go" a new program for children, I think, got off to an unfortunate start last night on NBC-TV.

The format requires a grown-up, namely Jack Lescoulie, to guide 10 year-old, Richard Thomas, into new, exciting adventures.

Because the use of electronic magic in steering youngsters into imagination-stretching adventures should be, in theory, TV's noblest pursuit, Sunday's opener was all the more disappointing.

★ ★ ★

The half-hour lacked cohesion and a point of view. Lescoulie and Master Thomas displayed a glaring lack of rapport. They were shackled by dialogue and posing that dampened whatever sparks were supposed to come from natural enthusiasm and eager, ideacharged inquiry.

Mountain-climbing was treated to a superficial exploration and the show ended as a plug for nature hikes.

The series should get better, though, if producer Jack Kuney and his associates decide what age group they're after, stick to one subject and get their teeth into it.

Dixie Cleric's Words Cheered Rocky's Kin

NEW YORK (AP) — The Rev. Robert L. Pierson, son-in-law of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, says a remark by one Southern clergyman made his "Freedom Ride" trip to Mississippi worthwhile.

Pierson told a congregation Sunday night that one unidentified clergyman told him "the fact that we came to the South shows what the church in the South has failed to do."

Pierson appears in a Jackson, Miss., court today to answer a breach of the peace charge growing out of his anti-segregation trip in September.

Paralyzed Man Burns to Death in Stalled Car

ANDERSON, Calif. (UPI)—Elzie McDuffy would stare out the window from his hospital bed and yearn for the weekend.

McDuffy, 68, was a victim of paralysis and his life in the Shafta County Hospital was a lonely and monotonous one.

But every weekend his close friend, Fred Woolley, would pick him up and take him for a leisurely drive in the country. The two men had been sharing the experience for years.

Sunday the car ran out of gas, so Woolley left McDuffy in the auto while he walked to a service station.

Somehow the car caught fire while Woolley was gone and McDuffy — unable to move — was burned to death.

Predicts Drugs to Treat Cancer

Surgeon Says Surgery Will Be Replaced On Many Forms of Disease

CHICAGO (UPI) — A Cleveland surgeon has predicted that the day is not far off when drugs will replace surgery in the treatment of many forms of cancer.

At the closing session of the annual meeting of the American College of Surgeons here Friday, Dr. William Holden said such a trend already was evident.

Holden said surgeons were using chemical therapy more and more "because most of them realize we have gone as far as we can in surgery for tumors and must look for other methods."

Holden said the surgeon was the logical man to administer chemical therapy. And he predicted that of the two chemical treatments now commonly used for cancer—infusion and perfusion — infusion would ultimately prove to be the more important.

Perfusion requires the cutting off of the regular blood flow to the malignant area and flooding it briefly with drugs. Infusion consists of introducing anticancer drugs during prolonged periods directly into the artery leading to the tumor.

HIS FIRST DAY AT SCHOOL

A TIME THAT MAKES YOU STOP AND THINK . . .

Will we be able to send him to college?

With a growing family, are we free to accept new opportunities?

Could my wife pay off the mortgage, if I were not here?

Will my family always be able to count on me?

Will my wife and I be independent in our later years?

How 5 unique advantages of life insurance help answer these questions... bringing peace of mind at the stroke of a pen

1 BY GUARANTEEING FUNDS FOR COLLEGE. By figuring in advance the cost of sending their children to college, parents can make sure—through their life insurance—that college expenses can be met.

2 BY ENABLING YOU TO ACCEPT NEW OPPORTUNITIES WITH CONFIDENCE. You know, in advance, exactly how much money will be available in your life insurance at any given time. Secure in this knowledge, you feel free to accept the risks of a new opportunity more readily.

3 BY SAFEGUARDING THE HOME. With life insurance, a man can safeguard the home his family loves by owning a policy which takes care of any unpaid mortgage.

4 BY GUARANTEEING FAMILY PROTECTION. With life insurance, a family is protected right from the start. For life insurance guarantees, at the stroke of a pen, an amount of money far greater than most couples could save in many years.

5 BY PROVIDING A STEADY RETIREMENT INCOME. A husband and wife can get more pleasure from their later years when they plan their life insurance to provide a steady income guaranteed to last for both their lifetimes.

The wise family head estimates his family's future needs, then plans his life insurance accordingly. Since family circumstances change, many couples review their program with their life insurance agent regularly. In this way, they get the most from their life insurance.

Teamsters Top AFL-CIO Plans at VIP Meeting

Executive Council Airs Hoffa's Fate; Prepare for National Convention

NEW YORK (UPI)—The executive council of the AFL-CIO convened today under the shadow of the man who wasn't there — James L. Hoffa and his Teamsters Union.

The question of Hoffa's teamsters—kicked out of the international union four years ago on charges of corrupt domination—topped the issues facing the 27-member council as it drew up plans for the December national convention.

AFL-CIO President George Meany was under pressure from supporters of Hoffa, who are urging the teamsters' re-admission, and from others, headed by Joseph A. Beirne, president of the Communications Workers of America, who would set up a rival teamsters union.

Hoffa's union, with 1.7 million members, is larger even than the steelworkers or Walter Reuther's United Automobile Workers, and has been making aggressive inroads on the AFL-CIO.

Meany, at this meeting, was expected to propose some compromise such as opening the door to defecting teamsters by granting so-called "federal charters" to teamsters' locals.

Michael Quill, head of the Transport Workers Union, has urged re-admission of Hoffa's union, terming the Teamster boss "the cleanest man in America."

Other questions to be considered at the week-long meeting of the council included:

ORGANIZING SLUMP

—The slump in union organizing. Most AFL-CIO leaders concede that the labor movement is falling behind in enlisting new members compared with the growth of the total labor force. A day-long session of the AFL-CIO General Board (heads of all 135 member unions) will be devoted to this topic.

—Civil Rights. A. Philip Randolph, longtime president of the sleeping car porters, has demanded an end to racial discrimination by unions. Meany appointed a three-man committee, headed by George M. Harrison, president of the railway clerks, to look into a long list of charges of union-promoted bias.

—Inter-union feuds. Meany has named a five-man committee headed by Al J. Hayes, president of the Machinists Union, to come up with some formula to stop bickering between industrial and craft unions. The idea is to find some way of picking outside arbitrators to decide such questions as who gets the work in a factory maintenance department — industrial union or craft union members, usually of a former CIO or AFL union.

Behind the scenes is the long-standing feud between Meany and Walter Reuther, UAW president. Meany feels, apparently, that Reuther wants his job. Reuther has asserted that Meany is not aggressive enough in leading the labor movement.

Week-Old Strike Finding Trouble in Local Issues

Kenosha Union Shocks Top Brass by Refusing American Motors Deal

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union today massed picket lines at Ford Motor Co. administrative offices in an attempt to bar salaried personnel from reporting for work.

DETROIT (AP) — Reaching settlement of local issues between the United Auto Workers Union and Detroit car manufacturers is becoming increasingly tougher.

This became more obvious today as the nationwide Ford Motor Company strike moved into its seventh day.

The Ford strike followed a two-week walkout by UAW workers at General Motors Corp. Plants last month over local issues.

A surprise development was tossed into the UAW frying pan Sunday night when Local 72 of Kenosha, Wis. rejected the historic profit-sharing plan worked out earlier with American Motors Corp.

ACTION SURPRISING

Local 72's move took even the UAW's top brass by surprise.

Norman Mathews, UAW vice president and director of the union's AMC department, said the profit-sharing plan was accepted in generally favorable terms by the UAW's 234 other AMC locals. Local 72 was the last to vote on the proposal.

Mathews said he couldn't speculate on how the local's action would affect the profit-sharing plan.

Edward L. Cushman, AMC vice president, also declined to comment on how the profit-sharing plan would be affected.

It appears that AMC may have rough sailing ahead. Local 72 with 11,500 members is the largest AMC local. Jack Beni, local president, said Sunday night "this contract will never be passed through this local."

There was a report that the margin was less than 100 votes, and that only about one-fourth of the local's members had voted.

The profit-sharing proposal was not the major stumbling block, according to the report. Objections apparently centered on the elimination of a five-minute washup period and changes in the seniority system.

The profit-sharing plan provides that the workers would get 10 per cent of the profits in cash and five per cent in stocks, after the company had deducted 10 per cent of its net worth for stockholders.

The proposed contract would cover five AMC locals, one at the Kelvinator appliance division in Grand Rapids, Mich., two units in Detroit and the body plant in Milwaukee.

Soviet Officials 'Kidnap' Wife of Defector to West

AMSTERDAM (UPI) — Ten Soviet embassy officials today fought their way into a Dutch military police office at Amsterdam's Schipol Airport and dragged away the wife of a Russian engineer who had defected to the West.

The Russians took the woman to the airport office of the Soviet Aeroflot Airline where they held her under guard.

The woman was the wife of a Russian chemical engineer, Alexei Golub, 35, who defected from a Soviet touring group and asked Dutch officials for political asylum Sunday.

Dutch military police took Golub's wife from the Soviet tourist party as it passed through the airport en route back to Moscow today. Police sources said they wished to ask her if she really wanted to go home or would like to remain in the West with her husband.

★ ★ ★

After Dutch police took her into their airport office 10 members of the Russian embassy staff then forced their way into the room. Witnesses said they scuffled with and punched personnel in the military police post and fled with Mrs. Golub to the Aeroflot Airline office.

UNDER GUARD

Mrs. Golub was placed under guard of about 15 Russians in the Soviet Airline office. Dutch military policemen surrounded the airline bureau, apparently waiting for orders.

★ ★ ★

The Soviet Tupolev airliner, which had been scheduled to take off with the touring Russians at 12:15 p. m. (6:15 a. m. Pontiac time), was still standing on the runway almost three hours later.

Dutch military police were holding Mrs. Golub's passport.

Golub himself had been held at police headquarters pending a justice ministry decision of his request for political asylum. Authe housekeeper of a small Amsterdam hotel early and asked her to call police.

With his wife, he had arrived in Holland with a group of 29 Soviet citizens on an intourist trip. His wife, however, refused to join him. She was later seen with an official of the Soviet consulate.

Press reports said Golub was interrogated all day Sunday by special branch detectives who learned that his wife took fright at the last moment because her parents were still living in the Soviet Union.

Drag Pair Back Into East Berlin

Companions Tell About Escape Trap Set by E. German Vopos

BERLIN (UPI) — Eyewitnesses told police today that Communist East German border guards penetrated 25 yards into West Berlin Sunday night, seized two West German teen-agers and dragged them back across the border into East Berlin. The two may have been wounded.

The kidnaping was reported by two companions of the teen-agers.

Police said the four were lured to the border by a mock escape by East German police (Vopos).

Two Vospos told the four youths Saturday they wanted to take refuge in the West and then made an appointment to meet the youths Sunday night at the Rudow area of the border.

★ ★ ★

When the four arrived, police were told, at least 15 Vopos started firing with machine pistols. The two who escaped said their companions cried out as if they had been shot and the Vopos dragged the border and dragged them back into East Berlin.

The Communist gunfire drew an angry warning from West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt today that he will take action to "stop West Berliners being shot."

Fog Forces Freighters to Anchor on Great Lakes

Force Delay in Okay of Coalition for Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI) — Rightwing Laotian leaders today forced a 24-hour delay in seeking King Savang Vatthana's approval of a plan to form a coalition government with Prince Souvanna Phouma, Communist-backed neutralist, as premier.

The basic agreement was reached Sunday at a conference of the three princes of Laos in a candy-striped tent on the banks of the Nam Lik River in Hin Heup village.

Souvanna Phouma and his half brother, "Red" Prince Souphanouvong, agreed that Prince Boun Oum and Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, premier and vice premier of the present pro-Western government, should go to the royal capital at Luang Prabang today.

They were to arrange an audience with King Savang Vatthana for Souvanna Phouma at which the neutralist would seek authority to try to form a coalition government.

But today the two government leaders announced they would not leave for Luang Prabang until Tuesday. They gave no reason but it was assumed they wanted to prepare strategy for bargaining still to come on the make-up of the new cabinet.

★ ★ ★

Gen. Phoumi Nosavan indicated Sunday that the agreement still could blow up over this.

ONLY MAN

It had been assumed all along that the suave, pipe-smoking Souvanna Phouma was the only man who could be agreed upon for the premiership.

The three princes agreed that the cabinet would consist of 16 members—4 of Boun Oum's supporters, 4 of Souphanouvong's supporters and 8 "neutralists." The disagreement came over who was considered a neutralist.

Souvanna Phouma — with the backing of his half-brother, Souphanouvong — took the position that neutralists were those that supported him.

Boun Oum's faction objected, saying that half the neutralist members of the cabinet should be persons who had not supported either of the last two governments.

The princes have been seeking a common agreement since last summer when they met in Zurich, Switzerland, while the 14-nation Laos peace conference was under way in Geneva.

Charles M. Cumberlidge, 44, driver of one of the vehicles, and his wife Helen, 39, of 1176 Hendrickson St., were dead on arrival at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak.

Soviet Union Sets Off 19th Nuclear Explosion

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Soviet Union has set off the 19th fallout-producing atomic blast in the series of weapons tests started Sept. 1.

The Atomic Energy Commission announced the new explosion took place Sunday in the Arctic near Novaya Zemlya and was in the "low-yield range." This meant it had an explosive force measured in thousands of tons of TNT.

New York Favored 3-2

Yankees, Reds Go for Broke Today

JOEY JAY

RALPH TERRY

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Oddsmakers picked the New York Yankees as 3-to-2 favorites to wind up the World Series today with the clinching fourth victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

The Yankees won their third game Sunday and need one more to clinch it. The Reds, who have been victorious once, have to win three straight to be acclaimed the world champions.

★ ★ ★

The Reds have placed their hopes on 20-game winner Joey Jay, who won the lone game. He will be faced by the same man who pitched for the Yankees in that 6-2 Red triumph, Ralph Terry.

The Yankees probably will be without the services of slugging centerfielder Mickey Mantle, He had to leave the game Sunday when a wound on his hip, where an abcess had been removed, began to bleed profusely.

Another injury victory in Sunday's 7-0 shutout of the Reds was winning pitcher Whitey Ford, but not before he broke a series record, one set by the immortal Babe Ruth 43 years ago. Before he left in the sixth inning with a badly bruised toe, he extended his string of scoreless series innings to 32.

Chiang Considering OK of Outer Mongolia in U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—Nationalist China's Ambassador to the United Nations T. E. Tsiang hinted Sunday night his country might not veto Outer Mongolia's membership in the world organization.

The Soviet Union has said it would veto membership for the new African nation of Mauritania if Nationalist China used its veto in the Security Council to block the seating of the Communist country.

Rejection of Mauritania would anger many new African nations that have indicated they might retaliate by voting to throw out Nationalist China and grant U.N. membership to Red China.

★ ★ ★

Although Tsiang banded Outer Mongolia "nothing but a puppet of the Soviet Union," he said his government has the question of its admission to the United Nations "under careful consideration."

Diplomats said Tsiang's disclosure he was still awaiting voting instructions from his government was an indication that Chiang Kai-shek was taking a new look at Outer Mongolia's bid.

But Tsiang said under no circumstances would the Nationalist Chinese accept a deal in which the Peiping regime would be given a U.N. seat to represent the Chinese mainland and the delegate from the Chiang Kai-shek government would represent only Formosa.

DENIAL OF PEIPING

Tsiang predicted the United Nations would deny membership to Red China this year. He said a majority of the members realized that the world organization itself would be endangered if Communist China were given a seat.

On another cold war issue, the United States and Russia maneuvered behind the scenes on a replacement for the late U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin were expected to exchange views early this week—either directly, or through small power mediators.

★ ★ ★

Burmese Ambassador U Thant's chances of becoming the third U.N. secretary general apparently hinge on whether he will be a leader or a follower.

The United States wants a single and independent chief executive of the U.N. Secretariat, as provided by the charter, while Russia wants some recognition of its geo-political "Troika," with a built-in veto. The Soviets want his pledge that he will name three or more assistants primarily on political or geographic considerations and "do his utmost" to "work in accord" with them.

After a three-weeks' search for a successor to Hammarskjold, a majority of the U.N.'s 100 members have concurred that U Thant is the most likely candidate.

DWELLED ON BERLIN

U.N. diplomats had hoped that President Kennedy and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko would iron out the thorny secretary general question during their conference in Washington last Friday. But the two were reported to have devoted their attention solely to the Berlin Crisis.

Busy Agenda for High Court

Term Begins With Case of City Voters Asking Voice in State Matters

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court was ready today to re-examine a hot political issue: the city voter's fight for a bigger voice in state legislatures.

Last term the nine justices heard a test case from Tennessee. But instead of deciding it, the court ordered the additional arguments starting today.

Before the attorneys begin their allotted three and a half hours, the court must announce the result of its extended conferences last week on the summer backlog of cases.

★ ★ ★

In addition, the Communist party has asked for reconsideration of last June's decision requiring the organization to register with the government. Justice Felix Frankfurther has delayed the effect of the ruling until the court disposes of the re-hearing petition.

Reconsideration also has been urged for the decision upholding the validity of Pennsylvania's Sunday closing law.

A batch of racial "sit-in" cases came in during the summer. But the court already has scheduled arguments for next week on three such appeals from Louisiana.

HOLDS LATE ONES

When there are several cases on the same issue, the court often holds the late ones until the initial appeal has been decided.

Two important labor cases pose these questions:

—Does federal labor law permit a state to ban the "agency shop," which requires non-union workers to contribute to the union the equivalent of members' dues and assessments?

—Do workers protected by a seniority system have a right to "follow their jobs" when a plant shifts to a new location?

★ ★ ★

U. S. Solicitor General Archibald Cox has 45 minutes to state the federal government's position in the Tennessee reapportionment case.

The Justice Department has supported the complaint of the 11 Tennesseans who started the lawsuit. They contended that their voting rights have been diluted because of the legislature's refusal to count the population and redistribute the seats in the general assembly. The group included Mayor Ben West, Nashville.

Checker Champ Nips Opposition

But Defeated by Trio of Pontiac Area Chess Players

Newell W. Banks swept past all his challengers in checkers Saturday night without a loss, but three Pontiac chess players conquered the blindfold champion.

★ ★ ★

When the long exhibition cosponsored by The Pontiac Press and the Pontiac YMCA ended near midnight Saturday, Banks' box score read this way:

Checkers: 25 wins; no losses; five draws.

Chess: Two wins; three losses; two draws.

Recording the draws in the checkers were: Clair Atwood, 671 Stirling Ave.; Dwight Fisher, Buckhorn Lake Road, Holly; Robert Dunham and his son Delos, both of 3666 Silver Sands Drive, Waterford Township; G. C. McKay, 36 Washington St.

★ ★ ★

Those that won over Banks in chess were: Robert W. Verhine, 9 Maynard Ct.; Dennis Gibson, 127 Osceola Drive, Peter Irwin, a student at Michigan State University Oakland.

★ ★ ★

Scoring draws in chess were Fred L. Morningstar, 4465 Major St., Waterford Township; and his cousin, Elton Dunn, 3654 Aquarina Drive, Waterford Township.

Kennedy Plans to Tour West

Slates Speeches; May Lend Hand in Report on Congress

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President Kennedy will head west on a speaking tour in mid-November.

It could wind up with his lending a personal hand to Cabinet officers and other administration executives in reporting to the people what Congress accomplished and what more he would like it to accomplish.

★ ★ ★

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, announced Sunday Kennedy will speak Nov. 16 in Seattle at the 100th anniversary of the University of Washington and again Nov. 17 in Phoenix at a dinner honoring Sen. Carl A. Hayden's 50 years in Congress.

SINCE 1912

Hayden, who was elected to the House of Representatives in 1911, first took his seat on Feb. 19, 1912—five days after Arizona was admitted as a state. He has been in the House or Senate ever since.

★ ★ ★

Plied with questions, Salinger said that after the Phoenix visit, Kennedy has "some other stops under consideration."

Says No Basis Found for East-West Talks

LONDON (UPI)—A British Foreign Office spokesman said today that "no basis has yet been found" for East-West negotiations on the Berlin crisis.

★ ★ ★

The spokesman said he based his statement on information the Foreign Office had received on the weekend talks between President Kennedy and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

Gromyko will stop in London Tuesday on his way home from New York and was expected to confer with British leaders while here.

The Foreign Office spokesman said the Soviets had made no formal request for a meeting between Gromyko and British representatives.

★ ★ ★

But it was considered almost certain that he would meet with British Foreign Secretary Lord Home, who returns to London Tuesday from a Scottish holiday.

Gromyko is scheduled to arrive in London Tuesday morning and fly on to Moscow shortly before noon on Wednesday.

Gromyko's visit here set off considerable speculation the Soviets may intend to press for British support of early East-West negotiations on Berlin.

NOT OVERLY OPTIMISTIC

Lord Home met with Gromyko in New York late last month. On his return to London, the British foreign secretary indicated he was not overly optimistic on the prospects for such negotiations.

★ ★ ★

The foreign office spokesman said that although no basis had yet been found for East-West Berlin negotiations the position in regard to such talks had not worsened following the Kennedy-Gromyko meeting in Washington.

"There is no change," the spokesman added in reply to a question at a regular news conference.

The spokesman made it clear at the same time that the next step would be for the Western powers to begin "an inquest" into the round of talks in the United States and their probe of Russian readiness for East-West negotiations.

★ ★ ★

The four power ambassadorial steering group composed of U.S., British, French and West German envoys was expected to start consultations immediately in Washington to evaluate the outcome of the first round of the U.S.-Soviet consultations.

Rayburn Names Broomfield to UNESCO Post

In perhaps one of his last official acts, "Mr. Democrat" Sam Rayburn has designated a Republican congressman from Oakland County so serve UNESCO.

Rep. William S. Broomfield over the weekend received a letter signed by the critically ill House Speaker. The letter named Broomfield a representative on the United States National Commission on the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization.

The term will last two years. Broomfield will represent the United States at the first UNESCO meeting Oct. 19-21 in Boston.

He said, "I appreciate the confidence which Speaker Rayburn has in me to serve on this important committee for the U.N., representing the U.S. Government."

Weakened Frances on Way to Maine

HALIFAX, N.S. (UPI)—A rapidly weakening hurricane Frances moved toward Maine after reaching the mouth of the Bay of Fundy.

A weather bureau forecast said her winds, earlier reported as high as 80 miles per hour, would be less than 30 when the storm hits land.

Earlier, the Weather Bureau advised all ships in the path of the storm to exercise caution. Small craft warnings were issued in all regions in the maritime provinces.

Rightists Urge Aid in Algeria

Secret Army Pirates Radio Wavelength to Appeal for Support

ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI)—The Algerian settler extremist Secret Army Organization (OAS) pirated a radio wavelength today to appeal for support for a French Algeria.

★ ★ ★

It was the third time in the last few weeks that the OAS, headed by ex-Gen. Raoul Salan, has made public broadcasts. The other recent ones were on television.

"Now is the time for each of us to realize that the OAS is the only salvation, the only hope," Salan said.

His voice was clear and easily recognizable.

"It is an honor," he said, "to be led away from the others who are on the road of shame and treason."

TO BLOCK RADIO

The rebels broke into the broadcast at 1:14 p.m. local time. Before Salan spoke, a voice announced the OAS had decided to block all French radio in Algiers.

The gesture was interpreted here as one of defiance of Spain's weekend detention of 17 French rightist exiles in Spain.

The OAS broadcast began with the five drum beats signifying "Algerie-Francaise."

★ ★ ★

The reception was almost perfect throughout Algiers and the regular broadcast remained off the air for some time. It was understood that the OAS blew up generators at the side transmitting station.

2 Feet of Snow in Rockies

By The Associated Press

One community was isolated and between 500 and 1,000 cars and trucks were halted across Southern Wyoming and northeast Utah Sunday night by a storm which spilled up to two feet of snow on the western Rockies.

★ ★ ★

Highway travel was paralyzed throughout the southwest corner of Wyoming.

Road crews reported 24 inches of snow, sculptured into heavy drifts twice that height by strong winds, had isolated the village of McKinnon, Wyo.

BLANKETS CITY

At Lander, in west-central Wyoming, a 24-hour snowfall blanketed that city of 4,200 with 18 inches of snow.

The sheriff's office at Rawlins, Wyo., estimated between 300 and 400 vehicles halted there by a roadblock. Others were stopped at Laramie, and about 500 others were stalled, stuck or halted at Rock Springs.

★ ★ ★

U.S. Highway 30, a main east-west route across southern Wyoming, was closed to traffic for a 110-mile stretch between Rock Springs and Rawlins.

Hotels, motels and private homes were jammed with stranded motorists.

★ ★ ★

At Salt Lake City, Utah, the Union Pacific Railroad's City of Los Angeles and City of St. Louis passenger trains were delayed an hour because of the snow.

Twenty-six inches of snow fell in extreme northeast Utah, near the site of Flaming Gorge Dam. Below freezing temperatures gripped virtually all the mountain region.

Seeking Return of Rubber Model Used in Tests

Chrysler Corp. is seeking the return of an government-owned air-inflatable canvas and rubber jeep model which was taken from a north Oakland county air-inflatable canvas and rubber jeep model which was taken from a north Oakland county field.

The jeep, which was not inflated but wrapped in a tarpaulin, disappeared from the site of tests Chrysler Corp. is conducting for the federal government.

★ ★ ★

A spokesman for the firm said today that the tarpaulin and its contents may have been taken by mistake, explaining that it is of no value except for government use.

Arrangements for returning the decoy jeep on a "no-questions asked" basis may be made by calling Chrysler Corp., JEfferson 9-3000, or the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

INJUN SUMMER — Crowds filled Ledges State Park, 3 miles north of Boone, Iowa, Sunday as rich autumnal color spotted the rocky bluffs of the Des Moines River scenic spot. Many waded in the spring-fed stream barefooted. Picnic tables were scarce and the newly opened wildlife exhibit in the south part of the park drew an estimated 20,000 people. Cars were bumper-to-bumper through the park. For a picture of contrast see Page 1.

Rayburn Given Anticancer Drug Experiment

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI) — Speaker Sam Rayburn, a relentless fighter for all his 79 years, has begun receiving injections that may help him in his battle with cancer.

Rayburn is taking an experimental drug called "5 Fluoro-uracil." If he responds well, he will get daily injections for around two weeks.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Ralph Tompsett, chief of internal medicine at Baylor University Medical Center, said the first treatment was given Rayburn Sunday. It will be several days, he said, before it is known whether the drug produces undesirable side effects.

★ ★ ★

The drug is not a cure, but it may halt the spread of cancer.

Rayburn appears to be doing about as well as can be expected. Each medical bulletin has said "rested fairly comfortably" or "ate reasonably well."

Rayburn is eating what he likes and Sunday had one of his favorite foods: honey.

Man Suffers Burns in Blaze at Home

A Pontiac grandfather suffered first and second-degree burns of the feet and legs in a fire that caused an estimated $3,750 damage to his home early Sunday.

Rushton Marsh, 53, of 65 N. Paddock St., was treated at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

Marsh told police that his grandchildren accidentally overturned a can of gasoline in a room at the rear of the home, and while he was attempting to clean it up a nearby hot water heater ignited the fumes.

Firemen fought the blaze for more than an hour. They said the fire spread to the kitchen, dining room and attic of the one-story frame home.

Damage was estimated at $3,000 to the structure and $750 to contents. The fire started shortly after 8.

Cash and Bonds Reported Stolen

Groveland Man Returns From Vacation to Find Safes Pried Open

Over $23,000 in cash and bonds was reported missing from two safes in his home yesterday by Dr. Lamar K. Mathews, 5990 Grange Hall Road, Groveland Township.

Dr. Mathews told Oakland County Sheriff's officers that bonds valued at $17,000, a $1,000 bill and an unknown amount of $100 and $50 bills were taken from a safe in the basement of his home.

Another $5,000 in cash was missing from a safe located in his wife's bedroom.

Both safes were pried open, but officers said there was no evidence of a forceable entry into the home. All rooms in the home had been ransacked, according to police.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Mathews reported the safe crackings to police yesterday after he and his wife Edith returned from a vacation in Pennsylvania.

★ ★ ★

Their son, Dr. Albert L. Mathews of 3915 Bald Eagle Lake Road, Groveland Township, reported that two other safes in his father's home were broken into Friday. Nothing was reported missing at the time.

'Ike' Rumored as Next U.N. Secretary General

Rumors are a dime a dozen. Sometimes they're less.

At the same time, when they concern as conspicuous a figure as Dwight D. Eisenhower, the world is willing to cock an attentive ear and have a look-see.

After the President had comfortably shaken the star dust of the White House from his clothes, the rumors began to flit about the better known pubs and gathering places. He was assigned a few laughable spots and some that were possibilities, save that they were probably all figments of fertile imaginations.

★ ★ ★

Last spring he was rumored as a candidate for the Senate. HARRY TRUMAN'S name has been linked to the Senate ever since the Missourian left Pennsylvania Avenue. HOOVER was written into the Upper House when he first retired to public life and probably KENNEDY will fall under the same infallible rule.

★ ★ ★

Now, President Eisenhower's name is connected with the United Nations as Secretary General. Several Congressmen have proposed the idea and others have supported it. Eisenhower's own ideas are still unknown. He may shake it off, and on the other hand, it might appeal.

★ ★ ★

Russia won't like it.

That's for sure.

She knows already she won't have any chance to shove him around or control him through a tricky troika. Determined Russian opposition could block him. On the other hand, the Russians might be a little wary of slapping down the Ex-President of the United States, for he could conceivably command widespread support from the neutral nations and the "nearly neutral" nations that Russia partly controls.

★ ★ ★

If there's no other reaction, it will be interesting to watch the Russians squirm and twist as they struggle to lay this international giant on the sidelines.

This City Has Ability to Attract New Industry

South Haven, Michigan has set an example of luring new industries which might well be of interest to some of the larger cities in Michigan seeking new businesses.

In the short span of six years this small city of 6,200 in Western Michigan has added seven new industries and 28 varied industrial businesses. Local leaders say the trend will continue and perhaps even accelerate.

★ ★ ★

Just how do they accomplish this when many other cities seem frustrated in the same endeavor?

First off, their city administration according to reports, has been especially progressive. Added to this they have abundant power; soft water, low cost utilities and high quality labor.

★ ★ ★

Also, spearheading the drive for new business is the nonprofit South Haven Industrial Fund, Inc. This group offers prospective new industries full and complete factual data on available properties. It will help and encourage new industries to meet their needs . . . even going so far as to offer financial aid.

★ ★ ★

Another incentive has come from the existing industries where they have gone out of their way with efforts to help new businesses.

The original outlay of the local industrial group was $175.

Net results show $1 million worth of new buildings and hundreds of new jobs. Certainly the dividends were well worth the investment.

Speak of diversification for industry and look at this list: gas masks, precision parts for airplane carburetors, machined aluminum piston castings, denim dungarees, industrial diamond tools, pianos, ore carriers, paint manufacture, metal corrugated boxes and containers.

★ ★ ★

On top of all other services available to new industry was a helping hand, plus a welcome.

That Is Project of Civic Minded Pontiac Citizens

New caf: What looks more attractive when you get an estimate on fixing up the old one.

In the program of the Pontiac urban renewal work, the Chapman Hotel building at the southwest corner of Saginaw and Pike streets is in line to be torn down. It is the most substantial downtown pioneer building.

This is the former Hodges House block, erected 120 years ago, and for a number of decades the leading hotel in Michigan, not even Detroit having anything to match it.

Now several prominent Pontiac people are getting together on a project to purchase the property, and restore it in a manner that would be in line with our city's progress.

An organization is being perfected to put the deal across. It ambitiously includes some of the adjoining property, in order to provide for parking space and other requirements.

Any suggestions will be thankfully received. What do you think about it?

When Midland defeated Pontiac Central, 7-6, Friday evening, 581 were eliminated in our football contest, being 539 who picked Pontiac to win, and 42 who predicted a tie game. The 602 who favored Midland remain for the next contest game Saturday. They predict: Michigan State, 418; Michigan, 164; tie, 20.

It's an Ill Wind—!!—Or Is It?

David Lawrence Says:

Quiet Diplomacy Can Take Months

WASHINGTON — "Quiet diplomacy" — now going on between Russia and the United States — means patient diplomacy. It covers months — not just days. Progress isn't measurable by public statements, nor is there always a concrete accomplishment to be noted in time for the next edition of the newspapers.

LAWRENCE

As for the world in general, it wants to know in advance whether there's going to be a war. On the basis of all the moves made to date, neither side has a logical reason for beginning a war. So it's the talk of "accidents" and of some arbitrary action by Soviet Premier Khrushchev, together with the long series of nuclear tests by Russia, which tends to make people nervous.

It is unfortunate that the techniques of negotiation are so unfamiliar to the public that such an exaggerated importance should be given to the conference, for instance, that President Kennedy had with Foreign Minister Gromyko here or to Secretary of State Rusk's long sessions with the Communist envoy.

Naturally, when the foreign minister of a potential adversary's government comes to this country, there is an opportunity for significant conversations. But anyone familiar with past practices doesn't really think for a minute that a tangible agreement can be reached in such parleys.

A dictator limits the scope of an ambassador's instructions. The word, therefore, that is used is "exploration." This leads in turn to comments by Mr. Rusk that the talks were "interesting" and by Mr. Gromyko that they were "useful."

★ ★ ★

But the truth is the quiet repetition of views doesn't mean too much. Acts mean more. The Soviets did cut off East Berlin and seal it with "The Wall." The West didn't resist. This was doubtless regarded by Soviet Premier Khrushchev as a sign that he could go further and not meet resistance.

But promptly the military build-up by the West around Berlin served notice, in effect, that the limit had been reached.

The over-all situation can be described simply. If Russia begins a fight, the West will resist. This word has been passed along to Moscow again and again. How did the whole crisis start? Moscow announced that a "separate peace treaty" with East Germany would be signed "before the end of the year." Since then the West has shown it isn't too much concerned about the mere signing of a piece of paper between Moscow and its puppet in East Germany, either this year or next.

What's important is whether there is any aggression — whether the West Germans or their Allies are to be denied access to West Berlin.

The Soviets can, if they like, repress their militancy and confine their interferences with access to Berlin to small incidents. That's why London and Washington are already urging the Bonn government to make up its mind how it wants to handle what may develop significantly as routine contacts with East Germany.

To arrange for the passage of persons and the transport of goods across the boundary isn't a difficult matter if each side understands that the word "access" really means access. The Soviet government has pledged that it will guarantee access rights.

So, seeming details are likely to be haggled about for several months. Meanwhile, big talk will come from Nikita Khrushchev when the Communist party and the Communist-block states hold important meetings soon. The world will be kept in a state of apprehension. This is a deliberate tactic by the Soviet premier, who thinks that the more he bluffs and threatens, the more likely the West will be inclined to grant concessions in the "negotiations."

Under these trying circumstances, it is regrettable that President Kennedy isn't getting more help from the members of his own party as well as from some of the newspapers in Western Europe.

The impression is being conveyed that the President's own strong words will be followed by a surrender in the end on essential points.

"Dear Sir: In answer to your article on Salk Vaccine, I suggest you start reading ' , , , Magazine' and start asking your colleagues about how to prevent polio.

"In 1948 an epidemic broke out in a southern state and the board of health doctor got permission to broadcast one-half hour daily . . . to (ask) people to stop giving their children soft drinks, ice cream and candy. This the people did.

"In two weeks there was only three cases whereas thousands were falling to polio (previously).

★ ★ ★

"But, of course, this cost the companies over $1,000 in daily losses so the doctor was soon squelched . . . Every corner I turn informs me that there wouldn't be polio, cancer, heart illness and hundreds of other diseases if people ate right . . .

'CORRECT' WAY

"I can see why you do not advocate the correct way of health in your column. I'm sure you're being paid handsomely to keep people ill. After all, there is great profit in sick people."

I'll turn this information about the prevention of polio over to Dr. Salk, who is neither a wife nor a mother.

From the mother of a member of the USAF: "I can almost hear you snort in disbelief at the idea that association with a chihuahua dog can relieve asthma attacks. I laughed, too, when I first heard of it but my experience has taught me that there is something to it I didn't know.

My son, now 30 years of age, had asthma really all his life. Upon his return from Korea (he's with the Air Force), a friend told him about chihuahuas and he bought one.

"He was having an attack at the time but, before he reached home, the attack was relieved and from that time until he went overseas again he had only one attack.

"Of necessity the dog was left behind, and while overseas he has again had asthma.

If that wasn't enough to convince me, my daughter, who also has asthma, got a chihuahua and since we have had it in the home, more than four years, her attacks have been much lighter and less frequent.

"The dogs do not take the disease but something about them relieves the suffering. So there you are, believe it or not."

Claims Nixon Too Tricky to Be in Public Office

I see that "Tricky Dicky" Nixon is up to his old tricks again. I can just imagine Nixon refusing to run for President in 1964.

Californians would do well by putting the nix on Nixon and voting him to political oblivion.

'U.S. Must Hold U.N. Together'

As a good friend of The Press, I regret that I must be critical of some of your recent editorials. Especially those dealing with foreign affairs and the U.N. Like many people, The Press has a tendency to over simplify the problems and the suggested solutions.

It is not a case of just being "hard-boiled" with Mr. K.

It is your editorial of October 2 that I am immediately concerned, especially the last paragraph in bold type.

The implication of that paragraph is that we are paying (in large part) for the U.N. and should, therefore, call the tune and that the U.N. is for the benefit of others than the U.S.A. and we should and can therefore abandon it should it make decisions contrary to ideas and expressed ideals.

That whole impression is wrong. Should the U.N. collapse (as it would if the U.S.A. withdrew) the U.S.A. would suffer as much (or perhaps more) than any other country. We must stand by the U.N. whatever happens.

When one does the correct thing or an unselfish act, one should not do it for thanks or a reward, but do it simply because it is right and/or unselfish.

Wants to Keep PCH in Saginaw Valley

Under Bruno Kearns' plan, PCH could visualize undefeated seasons over county competition. A poor substitute, however, for success in the Saginaw Valley Conference. The valley is the top league in the state and PCH has the potential to be champs in football, just as it has been in other major sports.

We read of those crowds of 10,000 and 15,00 fans in Flint and Bay City and the annual success that results from this backing. Why don't we have this in Pontiac?

★ ★ ★

The Flint Journal gives imaginative day-by-day coverage that creates civic interest and team inspiration. The Journal's coverage of the annual Flint Central-Northern game is fabulous. It also has excellent photography to back up the articles.

The Pontiac Press has failed in recent years. The Press gives no substantial inside coverage, no imagination, no confidence in our teams. It, instead, has an attitude of pessimism and defeatism.

★ ★ ★

It would seem that Pontiac Northern's gate receipts against county competition would be a clue to the fallacy of Kern's ideas.

"57" Team Captain

(Editor's Note: Almost all athletic history shows winning teams build crowds, rather than having the fans develop winning teams. Pontiac Central, with 60 years of alumni, played Bay City Central, the NUMBER ONE RATED team in Michigan and drew less than 4,000 at Wisner Stadium. A week later, Pontiac Northern, 3 years old, had closer to 5,000 for its game with Southfield. Two years ago, only 2,500 saw PCH upset Bay City, again No. 1 in Michigan, while 6,000 saw PCH play Waterford.)

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Blood Kinship Holds No Magic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE K-419: Bert R., aged 38, is a prominent California attorney.

"Dr. Crane, an interesting case was tried in our court not long ago," he informed me.

DR. CRANE

"An elderly lady of 69 was dying in a local hospital. Yet the latter's two married daughters and her adult son, all in the 40's themselves got into a fight at the mother's bedside.

"Apparently, the argument started over who should give their dying mother her medicine.

"The brother and one sister attacked the other sister. They blacked her eyes; then kicked and beat her into insensitivity.

"She later sued them for $10,000 damages. The case certainly illustrates your oft stated point that blood kinship holds no magic.

"Let's hope the dying mother was in a coma so she couldn't have been heartbroken as a result of this deathbed brawl between her own grown children."

HATEFUL CHILDREN

Previously, I have told you that the true parent-child bond is purely a spiritual matter.

★ ★ ★

I recommend that when a young couple cannot have children of their own, when sterility is a scientific fact, they might very profitably adopt a child.

This unfortunate case today indirectly proves the point that blood kinship holds no magic. Nor does it weld people closely together in love and devotion.

Cain killed his brother Abel. King David's son tried to kill David and seize the throne.

And today there are numerous cases of jealousy and quarreling between adult brothers and sisters, even at the bedside of their dying parents.

★ ★ ★

Certainly it is very common to find them starting feuds as soon as the heirlooms and property are to be parcelled out.

LOVE A SPIRITUAL BOND

I have seen adult children of the "flesh and blood" variety, actually bring their aged parents to the grave in shame and sorrow because the children wanted the property of the old folks, and couldn't wait until death.

Because the parents happened to be long-lived or might have remarried, the children then tried to have them adjudged insane or incompetent in hopes of getting control of the old folks' real estate.

Don't think that such ungrateful children are rare. And don't assume that they have a subnormal intelligence. Many of them are college graduates!

★ ★ ★

It nauseates me to think of the mercenary feuding that I have witnessed in my lifetime among people who were "flesh and blood" kin.

★ ★ ★

These evil children have never lifted their fingers to help amass the wealth of their aged parents. The old folks alone had slaved and saved to lay aside that money for their sons and daughters.

★ ★ ★

But the latter, like greedy vultures, often cannot even wait until the death of their parents before starting the grand battle over antique chairs or cupboards as well as real estate and stocks or bonds!

PITY YOUR LOCAL JUDGES

It's a wonder our judges have any confidence in human nature at all after spending their working days listening to the petty wrangling and quarrels between husbands and wives or between brothers and sisters.

But such failures of parent-child relationships do not negate the fact that unselfish love can and does exist between parents and children.

It simply shows that blood is not thicker than water. It proves that the spiritual or psychological bonds are the only true evidences of kinship.

No adopted child would ever have treated this dying mother worse than her own children apparently have done, so have no hesitation in adopting youngsters.

23 Stricken on Excursion

Club Members Suffer Food Poisoning on Visit to Maryland Seminary

WASHINGTON (AP) — Twenty-three members of the West Philadelphia Mothers Club, on an excursion to a Roman Catholic seminary, were treated at two hospitals Sunday after they were apparently stricken with food poisoning.

★ ★ ★

None was believed to be seriously ill.

Dr. S. Ross Taggart said several other persons among the group of 80 visitors were treated at the seminary for nausea.

VISITING SEMINARY

They had come from Philadelphia by bus to visit the Christian Brothers Ammendale Normal Institute, Beltsville, Md. Most of them are relatives of boys in the school who are studying to join the order.

Taggard made the preliminary diagnoses of food poisoning. He said all those stricken had eaten earlier at the institute.

An institute spokesman said he understood some of the visitors had eaten previously in a restaurant between Washington and Philadelphia. He said about 100 residents of the school had eaten the same food the visitors had but only one of the residents was affected, mildly.

★ ★ ★

The meal at the institute was fried chicken, dressing, gravy, peas, tossed salad and ice cream.

14-Year-Old 'Baby' Unable to Act Grownup

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dear Mrs. Lawrence:

I am nearly 14 and date boys but my mother treats me like a baby, so I can't talk to her about my problem.

It is that the two older boys I date always try to get too fresh with me.

When I don't let them, they get sore or start making fun of me.

I don't know how to make them stop without making them sore and am very worried . . .

ANSWER: I don't wonder.

Look. You haven't had any instruction in geometry yet, have you? Suppose your teacher suddenly told you that you had to pass a geometry test. You would think, "This teacher is crazy. I'm not supposed to know how to do geometry yet! Nobody has ever taught me how to do it."

★ ★ ★

You wouldn't be worried at all about your geometry ignorance. You would just hand that test paper back and say, "This is too advanced for me."

Well, a world that treats girls "like babies" is crazy to expect them to deal with boys who get "too fresh." That's advanced work, too.

So I want you to ask some grownup you trust — your minister, your priest or the mother of some girl you know — for added reassurance that resisting boys' sexual aggressiveness is advanced work for girls of 13.

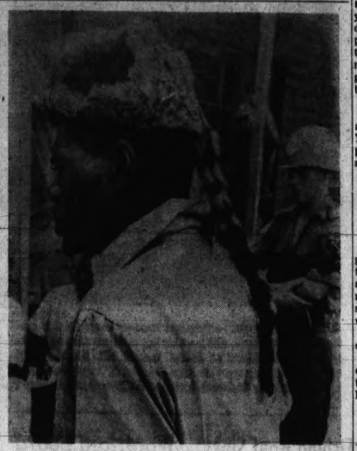

What is required of children today is really something.

May I remind parents that the easy firmness of the "No" it takes to be a woman is derived from long experience with the "No."

To be a woman, you've had to learn to honor resisting feelings in yourself as well as agreeing feelings, so that you can reject invitations to unwanted sexual adventure without anxiety, with an ease that enables you to say "No" with a minimum of offense.

You need experience with the "No" to all kinds of demands, including the male one. You don't get this experience if your parents still treat you like the baby whose obligation in life is to do what others tell him to do. Such a baby, flung into adolescent sexual war, can have a very rough time.

Until girl children have been allowed some practice in saying "No" at home, we really can't expect them to speak up in sexual contest. We can't have our cake and eat it too. We can't insist on a baby at home and then demand womanhood when boys start taking the "baby" out at night.

Australian Row Over Bikinis Is Still Raging

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI) — Australia's battle of the bikini bathing suits invaded the restaurant business Sunday.

In the fashionable suburb of Watson's Bay, six girls, wearing bikinis, were ordered out of a cafe after customers objected to their scanty apparel.

The girls entered the cafe wearing beach robes over their bikinis. After giving their orders, three of the girls removed their robes.

One male customer asked to have his meal taken away, explaining he could not concentrate on eating. Another man and wife became involved in an argument over the bikinis.

Several boats were damaged.

On Eve of Independence Day

Cuban Exiles' Hopes Rise

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Cuban exiles are beating the war drums again, even though a bit discordantly, on the eve of their country's independence holiday.

REVOLUTION THEME

Meetings and parties are planned on the badly divided exile political front to observe "Grito de Yara" (Cry of Yara) day Tuesday. It is the anniversary of the call at Yara, in eastern Cuba, for revolution against Spain on Oct. 10, 1868.

★ ★ ★

Revolution against Fidel Castro will be the theme.

Jose Miro Cordona, president of the Cuban Revolutionary Council, will observe the occasion by announcing reorganization of the council on what he hopes will be a potential war basis.

★ ★ ★

"Soon, very soon, Cubans will be fighting together to administer the final blow to the dictator," Miro Cardona said.

★ ★ ★

Ex-President Carlos Prio Socarras, one of several exile leaders politically at odds with Miro Cardona, called for a start with in four months of a "definite and crushing attack" against Castro.

CHARGES APPEASEMENT

Prio charged the council isn't aggressive enough, and thus is playing into the hands of "those who counsel appeasement in the hope that world events will provoke Castro's downfall."

★ ★ ★

Cuban cafes in Miami are abuzz with rumors that something big against Castro is impending. No one seems to know just what.

★ ★ ★

Pessimism that gripped the refugee colony after the April 17 Cuban invasion fiasco is disappearing.

REPORTS OF SABOTAGE

Arrivals from Cuba bring reports of sabotage and guerrilla activity against Castro.

Gonzalo Lage, of the "Escambray Anti-Communist Army," reported that a liberation army of 1,500 men has begun guerrilla action in Cuba's Escambray Mountains.

★ ★ ★

Three farmers reported guerrilla activity in Las Villas Province. They said 99 per cent of the farmers there are anti-Castro.

In Miami, 2,600 Cubans have applied for service in the U.S. armed forces, many in the hope that somehow they will have a chance to fight against Castro.

At the club's meeting Thursday in the Pontiac Naval Reserve Training Center Mrs. William Christie reported a meeting of VAVS workers and administrators of veterans' hospitals in Southeastern Michigan Oct. 11 in Dearborn Hospital. Officials from Battle Creek and Ann Arbor hospitals will be present. Area women interested in the work may attend the conference. Though unable to visit the above hospitals, the local club sends monthly contributions for the project.

Boy Should Pay Other Expenses

By the Emily Post Institute

Q: When a girl invites a boy to go to a dance with her, is she expected to pay all the expenses of the evening such as transportation, refreshments, etc., in addition to paying for the tickets? Some of my friends feel that since she is the hostess and he her guest, she is responsible for the entire evening. I think she pays for the tickets and he assumes any other expenses. Will you please give me your opinion?

BOY SHOULD PAY

A: Paying for the tickets is all that is expected of a girl. But just in case the boy she has invited does not understand this and has not brought enough money to pay for the extras, it will be wise if she brings enough to pay for them herself.

★ ★ ★

Q: A business acquaintance was recently hospitalized and I suggested the office send him flowers with our wishes for his speedy recovery. Someone said it was not proper to send a man flowers and the idea was dropped. I was amazed to hear this and would appreciate your comments on the matter.

A: Illness is the one occasion when flowers — especially a plant — may very properly be sent to a man. A hospital room without a flower in it looks very friendless.

Stre-e-etch Your Chores Into Exercise

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Housework can be made to work toward a better figure for you, says a physical fitness expert.

But to get the most in proper exercise from household chores, revamp your work methods — "Brush the cobwebs out of your habits," says Mrs. Bonnie Prudden, director of the Institute for Physical Fitness, White Plains, N. Y.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Prudden, who worked with former President Eisenhower's advisory committee on fitness, cautions against expecting housework alone to keep you fit and beautiful. "But there are ways of making . . . routine pay off . . .," she says.

Making beds, for instance. "Take huge stretches and reaches instead of comfortable, short ones," she advises. "I used to hate the mattress turning bit, but good as it may be for the mattress, it's a lot better for you. Every heavy thing you have to lift all your life is good for you, just as long as you are strong enough to do it."

GO AFTER IT

When objects slide under chairs, don't take the easy way and lift the chair out of the way," she continues. "Go under after it. Sounds active and unnecessary, I know. But consider the actions of children. They use the floor, and the more practice in stooping and crawling, the younger your body will be."

Mrs. Prudden's thoughts on how new habits in housekeeping can aid the figure are contained in her new book published today, "How to Keep Slender and Fit After Thirty."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Prudden, mother of two daughters, originally established her fitness institute at White Plains but now has franchised branches in various parts of the nation. She is a slim, lively example of how her regimen for living, both in exercise and diet, can keep the body young even as the years advance.

"Bodies," she says, "were never meant to be fat, and that goes for any age." Her contention is that a reducing diet alone is not enough — the body needs the exercise to keep its tone.

DUSTING HELPS

Dusting even can be a figure aid.

She suggested that "When you dust, reach again. Plant your feet at one end of the piano and reach all the way to the other if you can. Only the young body stretches, and it stretches just as long as it is forced daily to stretch."

★ ★ ★

Even the mop handle can be turned into an exercise bar. When you lean down to slide the mop under furniture, keep your back and knees straight, she suggested. After you've finished mopping, grab the handle in both hands and step through the space between your hands, first with one foot then the other. Then step back again. This keeps the back limber and strong.

★ ★ ★

Another mop exercise for waist and midriff slimming: place the mop handle back of your upper back and then twist as far as possible to the left. Keeping the feet wide apart and the legs stiff, twist all the way to the right. Start with 20 twists and work up to 50.

FOR ARM MUSCLES

Mrs. Prudden suggested these other ways to get added exercise from household chores: Wring clothes in a direction opposite to what you're used to occasionally — wringing helps to keep the arm muscles strong. When you lift clothes from a washer, make a habit of lifting them high and carrying them above your head to the folding table — result, more stretching. Change the level of your feet as you stand ironing or washing dishes, by rising frequently on tiptoe. The more often you change level, the less tired your feet will be.

New Look in Lace

(UPI) — Hand painting of laces is a new service offered by New York designer Sophia Swartz. Women's Wear Daily reports that the hand painting gives classic laces a completely new look.

Dance Club Steps Out

The Wednesday Dancing Club will open its 46th season this week at Orchard Lake Country Club.

The group of 95 couples with members from Pontiac, Bloomfield Hills, Birmingham and the Detroit area meets four times a year.

Officers for the 1961-2 season are E. K. Wellman, president; D. B. Eames, vice president; and John Madole, secretary-treasurer. Serving as directors are Henry Gotham, Ralph Lee, Mrs. Richard Patterson and Mrs. Paul Rich.

Committee chairmen are William Thomas, in charge of location; Mr. Madole, music; Mrs. Berkley Voss and Mrs. Verne Hampton, social.

Going Undercover

Can't Lick Dog Problem

Readers Bark Both Ways

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: You ran a letter from a mother who said she was careful not to let her dog lick her baby on the mouth because she feared the DOG would catch something from the baby.

And you replied, "Now I've heard everytaing!" Well, you haven't heard everything until you've heard MY story:

I was raised on a ranch, and have been bitten and scratched by every kind of animal found on or near a ranch.

No infections resulted. Recently I was involved in a person-to-person fight. I was floored with a blow to my left jaw. This caused my own teeth to penetrate my inner mouth.

I was hospitalized for several days, during which time I was injected with every serum known to man to prevent tetanus from killing me.

My personal habits are clean. I have always brushed my teeth and bathed daily. The doctor shocked me with the following statement: "There are more dangerous germs in the human mouth than in the mouth of any animal."

DEAR ABBY: I don't know when I have read anything as revolting as that letter in your column from the woman who didn't want her collie to lick her baby on the mouth because she was afraid of what the COLLIE could get.

Honestly, some people are nuts! Please tell her if she is so worried about the dog she should muzzle the baby!

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Yes, that dog owner who wrote to you was absolutely right. A dog's mouth IS cleaner than a human's. You have never seen a dog with bad teeth, and you never will. I'd sooner give my dog a sip of my soda than you!

ANOTHER DOG OWNER

DEAR ANOTHER: Let him have it. It's bad for MY teeth.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Will you please tell that idiotic woman that it is dangerous to be licked on the mouth by a dog? Have her family physician explain the danger of cysticercus. I personally have seen children and adults die from it.

Sincerely,
M.D.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Apropos the letter in which a reader insisted that her dog's mouth was antiseptic enough to lick her baby's face, but she wasn't sure that the baby was germ-free enough for the dog's safety:

A similar controversy took place between my daughter-in-law and me over her standard French poodle.

She and I shared a large double bed (my son was away in service), and she invited her 65-pound dog to make it a threesome.

I gave her a choice. The dog or me. She chose the dog, and we haven't spoken since 1944.

Couple Repeats Vows in Union Lake Ceremony

Candlelight vows of Mary Louise Wood to Charles R. Verch of Drayton Plains were pledged before Rev. W. Cadman Prout Saturday evening in Four Towns Methodist Church, Union Lake.

Parents of the newlyweds are the Leland O. Woods of Williams Lake Road and Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Verch of St. Louis.

Fashioned of white coubello taffeta, the princess line bridal gown featured a deep yoke of queen Anne lace appliqued with seed pearls. The short veil of lace-edged silk illusion was fitted to a half-crown of seed pearls and sequins. White carnations comprised the cascade bouquet.

Mrs. Danial D. Wood, her cousin's honor matron, wore intermission-length coppertone antique satin with velveteen hat. Bridesmaid Mrs. Merl Ingersoll, Union Lake, aunt of the bride, appeared in royal blue antique satin. Cascades of carnations matched their dresses.

MRS. CHARLES R. VERCH

Harry McGowan, Drayton Plains, was best man. The bridegroom's brother, Vernon D. Verch, also of Drayton Plains, ushered with Danial D. Wood.

After greeting some 300 guests in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, Drayton Plains, the couple left for Last Resort Lodge in Central Michigan. They will live at Oxbow Lake.

For her daughter's wedding, Mr Wood chose gold antique satin styled with tulip skirt. Mrs. Verch appeared in a blue lace sheath over matching taffeta. Both wore white carnations.

Especially at Middle Age

Women Need Make-Up

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

I think that the middle-aged woman needs makeup even more than the younger woman, but she must choose it carefully and apply it skillfully. If she uses the wrong color or too much of any color, it will be aging.

★

As a woman grows older, her skin tone changes. You may still have a beautiful complexion, but unless it is ruddy, you are almost certain to need a bit more pink in your foundation and powder. The white flour look is harsh and unflattering to anyone, especially to the woman past early youth.

Most women need some rouge. Many chic women do not use rouge in the daytime. They rely on lipstick and eye make-up, but apply rouge at night. In putting on rouge be sure that you blend it so that there is no "circle" effect, and do not apply it too low on the face.

Lipstick colors should not be too harsh. The clear, soft reds, pinks, and light purplish reds, are flattering. Very dark lipsticks usually are aging, although some unusual types look well with this. The lips may thin some with age. For this reason, the woman of 50 should draw the line of her lips out a little. This should be subtle, of course, Also, be sure that the lip rouge on the lower lip extends further toward the corners than it does on the upper lip.

★ ★ ★

Be sure that your liquid powder or makeup base has enough oil. Most middle-aged women find that their skin is drier than it once was. And some women have thin, finely textured, but dry skin. This oily base protects your complexion against the weather. Also, if the foundation is too dry, it accumulates in any lines you may have.

More women of 50 should use eye makeup. For some reason women often shy away from this, even when they use other makeup aids regularly. They seem to feel that this is too obvious for them. To the contrary!

The middle-aged face needs the lift which clever eye and brow makeup give it. Mascara and a light liner or line drawn with a pencil add zest and youth to appearance if they are applied artfully.

I do not like dark eye shadow on the woman who is middle aged or older. The colored eye shadows can be most flattering if you choose the right shade for you.

★ ★ ★

If you would like to have my leaflet, "Women of Fifty," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 33. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Do the eyes have it? They should—mascara and eyebrow pencil add zest and youth to appearance if they are applied artfully.

Con-Con Down to Business

Delegates to Hear Report From Organization Unit

LANSING (UPI) — Work week arrived today for the 144 delegates to Michigan's constitutional convention as the session settled down to business.

The convention's committee on permanent organization was scheduled to report today on its recommendations and committee assignments probably would begin filling out.

Convention President Stephen Nisbet, Fremont Republican, met with the three vice presidents, George Romney, American Motors president, Edward Hutchinson, former state senator from Fennville, and Detroit Democrat Tom Downs, during the long weekend recess following the opening of the convention.

The meetings continued the bipartisan theme which has thus far marked the first constitutional revision meeting in the state since 1907.

The make-up of the committee is expected to mirror the two-to-one majority the Republicans hold in the convention with all the chairmanships going to GOP delegates, vice chairmanships in some instances to Democrats.

★ ★ ★

The organization committee report, by the committee chairman Richard Van Dusen, Bingham Farms Republican, contained the more than 70 recommended rules for the convention hammered out at a day-long meeting last week.

SECRET SESSIONS

Included was a recommendation that there be no specific rule on secret sessions for committees but that each committee should request permission for such executive sessions.

★ ★ ★

The Republican caucus had proposed that the committees be allowed to hold secret sessions but that all final votes be held in public. The recommendation was somewhat different but no particular problem was expected over its adoption.

Another recommendation focused on lobbying activities with the main feature the barring of lobbyists from press credentials.

The final decision on all rules rests, of course, with the delegates themselves. The recommendations were likely to be adopted, however, with few changes.

★ ★ ★

The peoples right to knowledge of convention actions was considered the only major issue involved in the setting of rules and the recommendation on executive sessions appeared to have affected a compromise between the groups seeking a completely open convention and those favoring closed door sessions.

Romeo Youth Dies in Crash

Lost Control of Car and Smashed Into Tree on 31-Mile Road

ROMEO — A 19-year-old Romeo youth was killed early yesterday morning when his car left the road, smashed into a tree, bounced off and hit a garage. The motor of the car was hurled 146 feet.

★ ★ ★

Dead is David C. Reynolds, son of Mrs. Russel Mahaffy of 256 Fairgrove St., and the late Charles Reynolds. He was alone in the car when the accident happened.

According to Romeo State police, young Reynolds was traveling at a high rate of speed on 31-Mile Road, a mile west of Van Dyke when he apparently lost control of his car at about 6:35 a.m.

He was pronounced dead at the scene by Macomb County Coroner Raymond G. Markle. He had a fractured skull and crushed chest.

★ ★ ★

The victim was the "most popular" boy in the 1960 June graduating class at Romeo High School and was president of the Student Council in his senior year. He also had been president of his class in his sophomore and junior years.

He had just quit his job at the Ashland Oil Products service station, 238 Main St., and was to begin his apprenticeship as a linotype operator at the Romeo Observer Press today.

Surviving besides his mother and step-father are two sisters, Mrs. Charlotte Hazen of Detroit and Maureen Mahaffy at home; and grandparents, Clarence Reynolds of Detroit and Mrs. Mary Noll of Chewson.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the First Baptist Church under direction of Roth's Home for Funerals. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Seek to Save Lives in Fire With Markers

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — In a special drive to save the lives of invalids and disabled persons the Pontiac Township Fire Department is conducting a drive this week to put reflecting markers on the homes where these people live.

Beginning Wednesday members of the 60-man department will visit all of the 4,000 homes in the township. Their mission will be to deliver the markers which will enable them to do a more effective job of rescue in time of emergency.

One decal is to be placed near the house number on the homes where disabled persons live and a smaller one on the door of the room where they stay or sleep.

There will be a file at the fire department of every sticker and its location. In an emergency this information will be relayed to the fire-fighting team making the run.

WITHSTAND HEAT

The larger markers measure 4 inches in diamefer. Both these and the smaller ones are made of an iridescent material which will withstand heat.

These decals are available to anyone in the township who houses a disabled person, according to Fire Chief Carl Schingeck.

During this week, which is National Fire Prevention Week the fire department will also be distributing fire prevention literature and call cards to be placed by the telephone.

The literature contains instructions for eliminating fire hazards from attics and basements and other dangerous areas in the home.

The firefighters will be canvassing the homes both in the daytime and at night so no one will be missed, Schingeck said.

Officers said thieves gained entry to the barn by forcing a hook on a basement door.

Southfield OKs Appointment of City Planners

SOUTHFIELD — The appointment of Vilican-Leham and Associates as the city's first full-time city planners has been confirmed by the City Council.

Mayor S. James Clarkson appointed the Southfield firm Sept. 25 subject to the approval of the council.

At that time Clarkson also proposed that the city take advantage of the federal government-sponsored 701 program, which would pay three-quarters of the cost of a master plan.

The over-all cost of the three year program would be $98,000 and should the city apply for aid and be accepted, the city would then only have to budget $8,200 annually for the salary of the city planner.

The council has agreed to investigate the possibilities of the federal aid program.

Apparent Murder-Suicide Discovered in Hazel Park

HAZEL PARK (UPI)—An apparent murder-suicide was uncovered yesterday, police said, when the bodies of an unemployed factory worker and his 5-year-old son were found in their rented bungalow in this Detroit suburb.

Both father and son had been shot to death with the same weapon—a newly purchased 22-caliber rifle.

Police said Richard Lambert, 28, of 23456 Hazelwood, apparently shot his sleeping son, Ned, twice, and then killed himself. He left a hand-written "last will and testament" on a nearby coffee table, they said.

Detective Lt. Harold Hill said both are believed to have died some time Saturday afternoon, although neighbors heard no shots or disturbance.

The will, written in pencil on notebook paper, was mostly concerned with disposition of Lambert's property and gave no reason for the shooting.

★ ★ ★

In it, Lambert noted that there is $400 due his ex-wife, Ruth, now living in Jacksonville.

Judith Ann Wilson Sets Nov. 10 Nuptial Vows

CLARKSTON—A Nov. 10 wedding is being planned by Judith Ann Wilson and John L. Marsh whose engagement is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Marsh, 6543 Orion Road.

★ ★ ★

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wixom A. Marsh, 6851 Ortonville Road, Independence Township.

Committee to Deliver Assessment Report

SOUTHFIED — A first report from the new Assesment Procedures Committee is expected to be given at tonight's City Council meeting here.

★ ★ ★

The five-member committee was formed by Council President C. Hugh Dohany after Mayor S. James Clarkson fired Gerald Easlick as city assesor in June.

Clarkson claimed at that time that Easlick had not properly assessed Southfield property for the last three years.

Lead Series 3-1 After Saturday-Sunday Sweep

Yanks Expected to Finish Off Punchless Reds Today

CINCINNATI (AP) — The wounded but relentless New York Yankees were 3-2 favorites to close out the World Series today with a decisive fourth victory over the desperate Cincinnati Reds, whose last-ditch hope was their lone Series winner, strapping Joey Jay. The Yanks won 3-2 Saturday.

Jay's pitching opponent in this fifth World Series contest, the last—no matter what happens—in cozy Crosley Field, is the same rival who bowed to the 225-pound Cincinnati right-hander in New York last Thursday, 25-year-old Ralph Terry. The Reds won that 6-2 behind Jay's four-hit pitching.

The weather again was expected to be as perfect as Sunday when New York's Whitey Ford surpassed Babe Ruth's 43-year-old Series record for consecutive scoreless pitching innings and a bevy of other Yankees got into the act in a monotonous 7-0 shutout of the Reds. Ford now has pitched 32 runless innings, topping Ruth's old mark of 29 2-3.

★ ★ ★

If Jay should duplicate his victory in Yankee Stadium the Series would return to New York for a sixth game Wednesday and possibly a seventh game Thursday.

In perhaps an ironical coincidence, the Series may have ended for Mickey Mantle and decided against the Reds Sunday in the fourth inning when the ailing Mantle stroked a screaming hit to deep left center. That set up the first Yankee run and the only one they really needed to scuttle Cincy starter Jim O'Toole.

Mantle had to leave the game after his hit, a certain two-bagger under normal conditions. It sent home run king Roger Maris, who had walked, to third, from where he scored on a doubleplay.

Mantle, whose courage cost him great pain in trying to play two Series games, now is out of it, no matter if it goes the seven-game limit. The ugly wound on his hip where an abscess was removed 10 days ago has drastically hobbled the fleet slugger. The wound was bleeding badly when Mantle was removed for a pinch runner following his hit.

Besides Mantle, the Yankee sick bay required treatment of Ford, whose right big toe was badly bruised by a foul as he batted in the sixth inning, and the peerless Yogi Berra, who was gashed above his right eye by his sun-glasses when he made a fruitless try for a diving catch, also in the sixth inning.

While the Yankees are favored to take what could be the Series clincher today, the odds are 10-1 against the Reds making a comeback only three other clubs ever achieved in the Series. Last to pull the Series out of the first after being down 3-1, were the Yankees themselves, rallying to take the 1958 classic from the Milwaukee Braves.

However, few of the 32,589 faithful fans who watched their "For Real Reds" sag before the excellent pitching of Ford and Jim Coates, believed Fred Hutchinson's National League wonder team could now overtake the well balanced Yankees.

★ ★

The concensus in this baseball-whacky city was that while Red-leg pitching hasn't been too bad, although the Yankees clubbed O'Toole, Jim Brosnan and Bill Henry for 11 hits, Cincinnati's own big guns have been almost completely spiked.

★ ★ ★

Ford allowed four hits in his six innings and Coates yielded only one in the three innings he worked after an emergency call from the bull pen. Ford's throbbing toe caused him to quit following Ello Chacon's inning-opening single in the sixth.

In the three previous games, the Reds had collected only 19 hits in 101 at bats. "Our big guys just aren't hitting," said Hutchinson.

Ford, a happy-go-lucky pitcher who talked about nothing except golf before starting the game, apparently was not overly impressed in breaking Ruth's former scoreless Series string of 29 2-3 innings. That mark was set in 1916 and 1918 with the Boston Red Sox before the Bambino became baseball's premier home run hitter.

"Naturally, I'm pround about pitching 32 scoreless innings," said Ford. "But this is a record only talked about during a Series. It's not like Ruth's 60-homer record which Roger Maris broke this season."

Yankee Manager Ralph Houk now is in a position to become the third rookie pilot ever to win a World Series in his first year as a big league manager. Bucky Harris, as Washington's "boy wonder" boss in 1924 beat the New York Giants, while Eddie Dyer of the St. Louis Cardinals won in his first try in 1946 against the Boston Red Sox.

★ ★

Without Mantle, the Yankee line-up today will again find Maris, whose only hit in 14 ab's was a third-game homer, moving to center and John Blanchard taking Maris' right field post.

The financial phase of the tourney, for the players at least, ended Sunday, with a total player pool of $645,928.28. Of that amount, 70 per cent or $452,149.80 will be divided among the Yanks and Reds, with the other 30 per cent going to the second, third and fourth place teams in each league.

The winning pool is $271,289.88, about $8,000 per player for the Series champion and approximately $5,200 for each player on the losing club, based on an unofficial allotment of 34 shares per team.

Wilson Looks to Trial-and-Error System

Lions' Attack Fails in Loss to Bears 31-17

Coach Indicates QB Is Biggest Problem; Morrall Benched

DETROIT — The Detroit Lions' quarterbacking problem is so acute coach George Wilson will revert to the old trial-and-error system to pick his passer.

★ ★ ★

And Wilson hates it. He didn't like it when he had to choose between Bobby Lane or Tobin Rote. And he liked it less last year when he had to decide between Earl Morrall or Jim Ninowski.

"But there's not much else I can do," muttered Wilson after the Lions' offense flopped again yesterday and they lost 31-17 to the Chicago Bears before a crowd of 50,521.

The Bears spotted the Lions a 10-0 lead and it appeared Detroit was aroused enough by the 49-0 loss to San Francisco last week to erase all memories of the debacle. But Chicago rallied for three touchdowns in 9½ minutes of the final period for the victory.

★ ★ ★

Morrall, who won his pre-season battle with Ninowski for the No. 1 job completed only 11 of 30 passes yesterday.

Ninowski didn't even see action. But he'll get a fresh chance next week against the Los Angeles Rams.

Morrall was overshooting or under-throwing his passes throughout the game. Three times he threw the ball into the dirt on short swing passes.

Week after week the pressure has been on the defense. And finally, the defensive unit, called the NFL's best two weeks ago, has collapsed.

After the Bears tied the game, 10-10, midway in the third period on a 50-yard field goal by Roger Le Clerc, rookie Pat Studstill took the Bears' kickoff and rambled 100 yards for a touchdown to put the Lions ahead, 17-10.

★ ★ ★

On the first play of the final period, quarterback Billy Wade, in his first starting role for the Bears after coming from Los Angeles, fired a 37-yard pass to rookie end Mike Ditka for a touchdown which tied the score, 17-17.

★ ★ ★

The next time they had the ball, Wade hit Ditka again for 40 yards and a first down on the Lions one. Seconds later, Wade scored again around right end and the Bears were ahead, 24-17.

Willie Galimore put the icing on the Bears' cake with less than six minutes remaining when he galloped 52 yards around right end for another touchdown to make the score, 31-17.

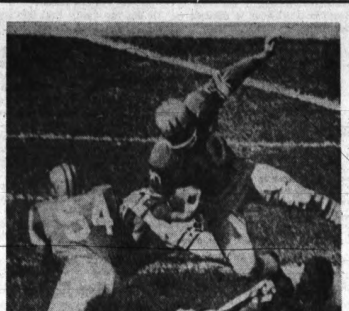

Detroit scored first on Jim Martin's 32-yard field goal in the first period.

The Lions scored again in the first period on a 61-yard pass from Morrall to flankerback Terry Barr, one of Morrall's few successful aerials.

The Bears' first touchdown, shortly before the first half ended, was a beauty covering 98 yards from Wade to end John Farrington. The play was just one yard short of a NFL record.

Hornung Packer Star in 45-7 Rout of Colts

By The Associated Press

Versatile Paul Hornung, Green Bays perpetual man-in-motion who's a rarity among specialists with his triple threat abilities, is putting the power in the Packers' drive to retain their Western Conference title in the National Football League.

★ ★ ★

The 25-year-old former Notre Dame star had his best day in the play-for-pay ranks Sunday when he scored 33 points on four touchdowns, a field goal and six conversions in Green Bay's 45-7 romp over the Baltimore Colts.

★ ★ ★

Hornung, who set an NFL scoring record with 176 points during the 1960 campaign that swept the Packers to the top in the West, has amassed 64 points in the first four games this season, a pace that threatenes to smash his own standard.

★ ★ ★

The Green Bay victory, coupled with San Francisco's 35-0 thumping of Los Angeles, broke a four-way tie for first place in the Western sector and left the Packers and 49ers at the head of the class with 3-1 records.

★ ★ ★

Four teams remained tied for first in the East with 3-1 marks as Cleveland beat Washington 31-7, Philadelphia's league champion Eagles defeated Pittsburgh 21-16, New York whipped St. Louis 24-9 and Dallas downed Minnesota 28-0. Chicago moved up in the West by blasting Detroit 31-17.

★ ★ ★

Hornung broke Don Hutson's club record of 31 points set in 1945 by scoring on runs of 54, 1 and 10 yards, taking an eight-yard pitch from Bart Starr for another TD, kicking a 38-yard field goal and the half dozen extra points. The field goal sent the Packers in front to stay 10-7 in the second quarter.

★ ★ ★

Lenny Moore, league scoring leader last week with 42 points, plunged a yard for the Colts (2-2) only touchdown as the Packers' defense smothered Baltimore's offensive thrusts by intercepting five Johnny Unitas pitches and another by sub quarterback Lamar McHan.

The 49ers, shutting out the opposition for the second week in a row for the first time in the team's history, again alternated passers John Brodie, Billy Kilmer and Bob Waters effectively in the shotgun offense to overwhelm the Rams (1-3). Kilmer scored twice on short runs while Waters passed 26 yards to R. C. Owens for one TD and tallied on a four-yard burst.

★ ★ ★

Bobby Mitchell, who lost his starting job to rookie Tom Watkins, won it back with three long TD jaunts for the Browns, scoring on a 52-yard pass from Milt Plum, a 64-yard punt return and a 31-yard dash around end. The Redskins (0-4), losing their 12th in succession, scored on a six-yard pass from first-year quarterback Norm Snead to Tom Osborne.

A 17-yard TD flip from Sonny Jurgensen to Pete Retzlaff sent the Eagles ahead 10-7 against the Steelers (0-4) after an interference penalty gave them the ball on the 1-yard line. They scored the clincher in the final period, again after an interference penalty, when Jurgensen pitched a two-yard strike to Retzlaff. The key play in the winner, however, was Tim Brown's 84-yard run with a kickoff.

★ ★ ★

The Giants led 7-2 in the third period before breaking it open against the Cardinals (2-2) when the defensive unit swarmed over St. Louis passer Sam Etcheverry and caused two fumbles. They led to a one-yard scoring plunge by Alex Webster and a 12-yard TD ramble by linebacker Sam Huff with the second fumble.

★ ★ ★

Dallas' Don Meredith tossed a 12-yard scoring aerial to Bill Howton and a 52-yarder to Frank Clarke, who also grabbed a 23-yard TD pass from Eddie LeBaron. It was the third straight loss for the fledgling Vikings (1-3), who've lost a pair to the second-year Cowboys.

San Diego Lone Unbeaten in Torrid AFL Campaign

By The Associated Press

American Football League coaches know by now what it means to walk the tight rope—they do it every Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Since Oakland settled down and started playing football the AFL games have been as close as a glued toupee. The widest margin has been 14 points but more often it has been from two to seven.

San Diego, the only unbeaten team left in the league, has been escaping the real close ones but the margin wasn't exactly comfortable last week as the Chargers beat Boston 38-27 to stay firmly on top of the Western Division.

Jack Kemp had to give one of his patented performances in order for the Chargers to whip the tenacious Patriots. Kemp, who was used sparingly when he was in the National League but has been a workhorse with San Diego, passed for three touchdowns.

The most shocking note of the weekend was defending champion Houston's third straight defeat. The Oilers took a 22-12 trimming from Buffalo and plunged into the cellar of the Eastern Division, two games away from the leader, New York.

★ ★ ★

A fugitive from the National League and a fellow who turned on his old teammates proved to be the combination that knocked over Houston. Warren Rabb, who started in the NFL with Detroit last season, got in for the first time with Buffalo and proceeded to pilot the Bills to victory. His 13-yard touchdown pass to Perry Richards, waived by Houston three weeks ago, was the clincher.

Dallas hung in there with a 19-12 triumph over Denver. The Texans strengthened their second place spot in the Western Division when they ran up 19 points and then beat off a Denver rally that netted two touchdowns in the final period.

★ ★ ★

Denver beat itself at the start—Al Frazier fumbled the opening kickoff and Dallas got the ball on the Bronco 19. The Texans soon had a touchdown and were ahead to stay. Jack Spikes' 21-yard field goal and a 24-yard touchdown shot from Cotton Davidson to Chris Burford clinched it up for the Texans. Frank Tripucka passed for both Denver scores.

Division leaders clash in this week's biggest game as San Diego meets New York at New York Sunday. Oakland will be in Denver and Dallas at Buffalo in other Sunday encounters. Houston plays at Boston Friday night.

LINE SAGGED TOO MUCH — The Detroit Lions' offensive line had its troubles again Sunday against the Chicago Bears. On this occasion, Dave Whitsell, (23), Bear defensive halfback who formerly played for the Lions, broke through to block Jim Martin's (43) field goal attempt in the first quarter.

ROLLING BLOCK — Yankee first baseman Bill Skowron makes a hard slide into Cincinnati second baseman Elio Chacon in the fifth inning Sunday. Cletus Boyer grounded to third baseman Gene Freese who threw to Chacon to get a force-out. Chacon got off his throw to first for a double play.

Tops Babe With 32 Scoreless Innings

Ford Jokes About Setting Record

CINCINNATI (AP)—Babe Ruth probably would be glad to know a fun-loving fellow like Whitey Ford broke his cherished World Series pitching record. Off the field they would have had much in common.

When the crowd of newsmen surged into the New York Yankees dressing room after Sunday's 7-0 Yankee victory in which Ford ran his string of consecutive scoreless innings to a record 32, they found Whitey ready with a quip.

★ ★ ★

"Anybody here from California to make an offer:", he asked with a grin. "Say $500 for this ball."

Ford referred, of course, to the $5,000 a California restaurant owner offered to the man who caught Roger Maris' 61st home run at Yankee Stadium.

"I just had a call from New York," said Ford with a twinkle. "Toots Shor wants to give me $100 for the ball. But I'll probably put it in a drawer and the kids will use it to play catch with, just like they do with the others."

★ ★ ★

Ford was by no means overawed at breaking Ruth's record.

"I never really thought too much about it," he said. "It's a record not talked too much about except at Series time while Ruth's home run record was talked about every season, all summer long."

★ ★ ★

"I'm proud but—" he stopped suddenly. Then he continued, "I wanted to finish but I was scared to keep aggravating my right toe which hurt every time I stepped on it."

★ ★ ★

Ford turned his ankle slightly while pitching and then hit himself with his own foul ball while batting in the sixth inning. He left the game after Elio Chacon singled to open the Cincinnati sixth inning is next highest with three runs.

The Reds' offensive ineptness is reflected by their .182 team batting average. The record for the lowest batting average in a five-game series is .161 by the Athletics against the Giants in 1905.

Bill Skowron's 3-for-3 Sunday put the Yankees' first baseman back on the World Series batting beam. In the 1960 Series against Pittsburgh, Skowron had 12 hits to tie the record for most hits in a seven-game series.

Pinch-hitter deluxe Jerry Lynch of Cincinnati struck out Sunday, leaving him without a hit in two official pinch-hitting appearances. During the regular campaign he delivered 19 pinch safeties in 47 tries for a .404 clip.

★ ★ ★

At a hospital John was advised his nose apparently was broken and would be kept for full treatment.

No, replied John. So, patched up temporarily, he went back to Crosley Field, saying he would wait for the Lindgren family physician to complete the job.

and Jim Coates finished the 7-0 shutout.

Ruth's old scoreless streak was 29 2-3 innings compiled in 1916 and 1918. Ford's first two shutouts came against Pittsburgh last year. He blanked the Reds in the opener last Wednesday and got the last five Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Whitey is a chunky little blond (5-foot-10, 181 pounds). You can get an idea of his temperament from a story they tell about his first big league victory in 1950 over Detroit. Asked if that was his biggest thrill, Ford told newsmen:

"No, I remember pitching the Maspeth Ramblers to a 17-11 win over the Astoria Indians. That was a good one, too."

What next?

"I'm going to start working on my hitting next spring," Ford laughed.

Ford never will break the Babe's record in that league. In 317 American League games he has hit two home runs.

Richardson Batting .365

Sunday's Shutout 71st in History of Series

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Yanks' shutout over the Reds was the 71st blanking in World Series history, but only the second time a 7-0 score was recorded.

The only previous 7-0 game was on Oct. 6, 1958 when Bob Turley of the Yanks shut out the Braves in the fifth contest. He allowed five hits, the same total Whitey Ford and Jim Coates gave up Sunday.

Bobby Richardson of the Yanks, with 8 hits in 17 at bats (a .471 pace), has boosted his lifetime World Series batting average to a lusty .365. In four Series he has collected 19 hits in 52 trips.

When Frank Robinson of Cincinnati was hit by Yankee pitchers Ford and Coates, it marked the first time in Series play that a batter had been hit twice in a game by different pitchers.

★ ★ ★

Max Carey of Pittsburgh and Yogi Berra of New York are the only other players to get hit twice in a game. Walter Johnson of Washington hit Carey twice on Oct. 7, 1925 and Berra was the victim of Brooklyn's Carl Erskine on Oct. 2, 1953.

Coates, in tossing four shutout innings of relief, picked up where he left off the regular season. In his last four appearances, all relief jobs, Coates hurled 8 2-3 innings of runless ball.

The Reds' Gene Freese is the only player among those who have taken part in all four games without a hit. The Cincinnati third baseman is 0-for-12.

The Yankees' fourth inning and seventh have produced the most runs, four each. The New York

Shakes Off Injury to See Series Game

CINCINNATI (AP)—What's a broken nose when there is a World Series game to watch?

Ask young John Lindgren of Indianapolis. He'll say it's nothing.

★ ★ ★

John, 16, was watching batting practice before Sunday's series game when a stray ball sailed into the stands and struck him in the face.

★ ★ ★

At a hospital John was advised his nose apparently was broken and would be kept for full treatment.

No, replied John. So, patched up temporarily, he went back to Crosley Field, saying he would wait for the Lindgren family physician to complete the job.

Budding Star Knew Lean Years

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD — If George Chakiris wears his new success well, there's good reason. He still remembers his seven years of drought in Hollywood.

George is a lad you'll be hearing about. Every two or three years, an unknown pops up on the screen with a clarity of performance that seems to spell stardom.

★ ★ ★

That happened at the preview of "West Side Story." One director said outside the Carthay Circle Theater afterwards, "Who was the kid who played Bernardo? He's great. Where did they find him?

THOMAS

George Chakiris is the kid — he's 27—and he was found in London. He began awaiting discovery in 1951, when he came to Hollywood.

DIDN'T HAVE DIME

"I had some pretty rugged times," he recalls. "There was once when I really hit rock bottom; I didn't have a dime to buy dinner with.

"I was taking dance lessons at a school on Hollywood Boulevard, and the other kids used to grab a bite at the delicatessen across the street. I dropped in there, figuring I could sit with some of the other dancers and maybe eat their bread. But when I went into the place, nobody I knew was there!"

★ ★ ★

George still looks underfed. He has a hipless figure, but it's from dancing, not malnutrition. He was here briefly, between a movie in England and a Garry Moore TV show in New York, and had a meeting with his agents. The figures they ricocheted around the room were enough to make the young actor dizzy.

★ ★ ★

What has George Chakiris got? He is darkly handsome with strong features that denote his Greek heritage. He moves with a dancer's grace, yet he has manly dignity. He was entirely believable as the tough leader of the Puerto Rican gang in "West Side Story."

WORKED FOR FATHER

He was born in Norwood, Ohio, reared in Tucson, Ariz., and Long Beach, Calif. As a boy, he helped in his father's produce market and that may partly account for his slimness—"After looking at fruits and vegetables all day, you can't stand to eat them."

George came to Hollywood, eager to be discovered. Hollywood didn't see it his way.

★ ★ ★

He got a few jobs in musicals like "Brigadoon" (his sword dance was cut), "There's No Business Like Show Business" and "White Christmas." The latter brought him a term contract at Paramount, but he was let out after a year.

★ ★ ★

A TV special as Sally Forrest's dance partner got him a test for "Peyton Place," but Russ Tamblyn won the role. After one five-month drought, George figured he had to get out of town. He went to New York, won the role of Riff in the London company of "West Side Story." After 18 months he tested for the movie, but was chosen for Bernardo to rumble with Russ Tamblyn as Riff.

Disappointed Protest Group Leaves Reds

MOSCOW (UPI) — A weary band of antinuclear marchers pulled out of Moscow Sunday on a first-class train, disappointed by the second-class reception Soviet officials gave their cause.

★ ★ ★

Probably more in a spirit of relief than triumph, the 23 tired marchers leaned out of the train windows and shouted, "Hip, hip, hooray" as they left for home.

★ ★ ★

On the platform was an old Russian in a shabby suit, waving goodby.

"He's the only Russian pacifist we've met," said Barton Stone, 23, of San Francisco, Calif. "He read about us in the papers and came to one of our meetings in Moscow. He applauded in all the wrong places."

'Objectives Attained' Despite Nike Blowup

POINT MUGU, Calif. (AP) — A Nike Zeus anti-missile missile "attained some of its objectives" despite second-stage self-destruction, says a military spokesman.

He would not elaborate further on Saturday's test of the United States' most advanced weapon against nuclear missile attack.

The blowup, second in a month, occurred five to seven seconds after the 48-foot-long weapon left its seaside launching cell.

The first Nike Zeus test—Sept. 9—ended with an explosion attributed to a communications break between the missile and guidance radar.

Peter Fonda Marries

NEW YORK (UPI) — Peter Fonda, 21, son of actor Henry Fonda, was married Sunday to Susan Brewer, 20, at St. Bartholomew's Church here.

Keely Smith to Leave Hospital in a Few Days

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Singer Keely Smith will be released from Cedars of Lebanon Hospital "within a few days," a hospital attendant said today. Doctors said her condition was "fine."

Miss Smith, 29, won a divorce last week in Las Vegas, Nev., from band leader Louis Prima, 49, and underwent surgery Friday.

Residents Get Free Meals, Movies

Town Evacuated at Countdown

By STANLEY HALL
United Press International

SURF, Calif. — This sleepy, shoreside community of railroad workers probably has been evacuated more times in the past three years than any city in the world. And, for the most part, it's been a ball for 25 residents every time.

* * *

Surf, appropriately named because the Pacific batters its back door with a deafening roar, is a phenomenon of the space age.

At times, the roar of mighty rocket engines climbing overhead even drown out the sea. It's at those times that Surf is empty.

The rockets, usually the Discoverer series satellites, are fired from Vandenberg Air Force Base, which borders Surf to the North and West. The Navy's Point Arguello missile facility borders it on the other side.

* * *

"Usually," said John Gilbert, a town spokesman and day dispatcher for the Southern Pacific, "everyone looks forward to being moved out."

The railroad is the only reason why Surf is allowed to remain in existence. All the residents — usually about 10 families — work on the main line running from Los Angeles to San Francisco.

* * *

When it's time for a scheduled rocket firing, the Navy comes from Point Arguello to take out the residents. They are loaded aboard a bus and taken to the Arguello administration building.

There, the Navy shows movies and sets up meals on the house.

"Usually, it's a lot of fun," said one young mother. "It gives us a chance to visit. It's kind of a break in the routine. Only now, we've done it so often, the evacuation is getting routine."

* * *

Figures on exactly how many times Surf has been evacuated are not available. But it must be at least 50.

The bus comes when the countdown reaches T-minus 60 minutes (an hour before scheduled launch). Often the count proceeds down to just a few minutes, only to have the firing postponed.

After some of the waiting — sometimes for several days in a row — without the rocket going, some residents became cranky about leaving.

One woman claimed the constant moving in and out disrupted her schedule with a new baby. She said she wasn't going to leave.

* * *

But the Navy, which officially says it cannot force the residents out, finally persuaded her to leave.

"Sometimes," she said, "they make me a little mad with the way they do things, but then I guess it's their job."

Now that Discoverer has shaken down during more than 20 launches, the waiting periods, and the evacuation without anything happening, are at a minimum. The shots usually go pretty much on schedule, despite occasional postponements.

* * *

"They've pretty much now learned, too," said Gilbert, a former Army enlisted man, "the old military game that's even more fitting in missiles: hurry up and wait."

Steel Industry Awaits Orders

Hoping for Improved Business in November From Automakers

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—Uncertain labor conditions in the automotive industry continue to keep the steel industry from hitting expected production levels, Steel Magazine said today.

* * *

The national weekly said Ford and Chrysler are buying cautiously, and General Motors has not released as much tonnage as steelmakers anticipated.

Steel sales officials have two theories—either auto steel inventories are bigger than they estimated, or automakers do not intend to boost their October output enough to make up for the production lost last month.

The magazine explained that if new-model sales are good, automakers probably will order more steel for November delivery than they'll take this month. Until they step up their purchases, the steel market will have a hard time getting off dead center.

Despite this uncertainty in the auto industry, steelmakers are cheered by uptrends in other important markets.

* * *

Steel said tank and boiler fabricators are stepping up their plate requirements and the shipbuilding and chemical industries are providing fairly strong demand.

U.S. Policy Change Ups Grain Futures

CHICAGO (UPI) — An apparent change in the government's corn selling policy, boosting spot prices 10 cents or more a bushel, drove all grain futures higher today on the Chicago Board of Trade.

* * *

The week's trading in soybeans began under influence of extremely heavy receipts—472 cars—compared with 358 all last week, when the price gain in contracts was about 2 cents a bushel.

The government's new estimate of harvest is due Tuesday. The last, predicting 720.4 million bushels — a little bearish — might be pared by recent dry weather in the Midwest.

Waterfront, Transit Plans

Detroit Seeking U.S. Aid

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit city officials are seeking $610,300 in federal aid to finance studies of a 4-mile waterfront and a six-county metropolitan transit system.

* * *

Mayor Louis Miriani has asked for $235,000 for a port study to update past studies of Detroit facilities.

"This information is necessary so that Detroit can determine what steps may be necessary to implement the expansion of our port facilities," he said.

Miriani had already authorized a request the Detroit Department of Streets and Traffic will make to Congress next week for $375,000 to be used for the transportation study.

* * *

The Federal money would be used with a grant from the Ford Foundation to examine mass transportation possibilities in the six-county area around Detroit.

Increased attention has been given to Metropolitan transit systems since a strike against Intertown Suburban Lines Corp. cut off bus service to 30,000 commuters in 13 downriver and Western Wayne County communities.

Leo J. Nowicki, Detroit Street Railways general manager, told a group of mayors from the affected communities he would like to extend DSR service to them.

* * *

However, under present state law the DSR is limited to a 10-mile radius of operation outside Detroit city limits.

The law would have to be changed if the DSR were to provide effective service to outlying suburbs.

Nowicki has advocated establishment of a Metropolitan Transit Authority with limited taxing power to supplement fare revenue. However, this would call for major state legislation.

* * *

The DSR has also been exploring the possibility of expanding service into Oakland and Macomb Counties.

Nowicki estimated a three-county operation would boost passengers carried per month to 3.5 million, 1.5 million more than are carried now.

Toymakers Want Santa to Keep Busy All Year

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — You'd think the nation's toymakers wouldn't be thinking of anything today but Christmas. From now till then 70 per cent of their annual output is bought by the public.

But toymakers would like to sell more toys earlier in the year — sort of give Santa Clause a year around job. So the First Annual Spring and Summer Toy Market Week is opening here today. This is the time to get retailers interested in post-Christmas buying and promotions.

* * *

This new accent on outdoor playthings and other spring and summer toys doesn't mean the toy makers are downgrading the Christmas season. They want to sell just as many in the closing weeks of the year as ever. But they'd like to raise sales in the first nine months of the year to parity with the closing quarter.

The trend already is that way. Before the war, only 15 per cent of the annual output was sold in the earlier months, and now it's 30 per cent. The toy industry thinks it should be a 50-50 split.

PLEASANT FIGURE

Since total sales this year are expected to be about $2 billion, with $1.4 billion of that still to be realized. Retaining this Christmas figure and boosting earlier sales to parity would give a pleasant $2.8 billion. So that's what toy makers are thinking about this week.

That's a lot of money. But toy sales have been growing rapidly in recent years. There has been a big jump in buying scientific toys, with all the latter-day miracles in real life adding to the demand in the make believe field.

Ideal, Transogram, Remco and many others are already in the outdoor and summer-toy business. A. C. Gilbert Co. is entering the field this year with a line of ready-to-fly plastic model planes. Up to now the company has been known for such indoor playthings as Erector sets, American Flyer trains, and science sets.

Making and selling toys on a year-around basis helps keep plant, machinery, engineering staffs, shipping facilities and the like operating at peak capacity all the time.

MODERN ITEMS

Missiles, space vehicles, supersonic planes—all inspire toy makers looking for outdoor, or year-around, products. Hence the Gilbert plane model with mufflers and an automatic copilot to help the really young operator.

The company also is entering the field of electronic toys and offering new types of microscopes and telescopes.

Lionel, noted for toy trains, has introduced a line of electronic and plastic engineering sets.

Infrared Industries sells most of its products—infrared detectors for missiles and satellites—to the government. But it is entering the toy field with a two-way phone. This will send the voice hundreds of yards without wires if the line of sight isn't broken. The phone will operate through glass, and the voice can be reflected off mirrors.

General Electric is offering seven assembly kits in the transistor electronics field. Included are laboratories and kits for transistor radios, analog computers, and transmitters.

Toy makers also offer small copies of atomic submarines, rockets, missile-launching sites—sometimes with an accuracy that alarms those fearful that defense secrets may be divulged. The toy makers insist the details are all publicly known anyway.

Many are for indoor play but also for use in the spring and summer months. And toy manufacturers say they'll increase promotion of sales in the early months of 1962.

U.S. Missiles Carry Powerful New Warheads

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The atomic bomb which devastated Hiroshima in World War II is a firecracker in comparison with the immense payload capability of the United States' big military rockets.

The Hiroshima bomb packed a punch equivalent to 20,000 tons of dynamite.

The Atlas and Titan intercontinental range missiles, if fired in anger, would deliver four megaton bombs — equal to four million tons of TNT.

An advanced Titan now under development will carry 10 megatons. The smaller Minuteman and Polaris missiles have warheads with the explosive power of 500,000 tons of dynamite.

Retired Singer Teaching Voice

Toti dal Monte, 68, Is Giving Lessons to Opera Hopefuls

VENICE, Italy (UPI) — In Moscow, Stalin kissed her hand and said her voice was like a sunny day.

Arturo Toscanini classed her as the best soprano for "Rigoletto."

She toured the world three times gathering everywhere the enthusiastic applause of opera lovers.

Toti dal Monte, the "Venetian Nightingale," is retired now at 68 but still is active in the musical world.

The famous soprano lives in a magnificent Venetian "palazzo" teaching singing to the younger generation.

She retired in 1949, still in full possession of her voice. She feared a sudden physical breakdown would spoil her career and decided to quit before it happened.

Some of her students already have tasted success. Sopranos Dolores Wilson and Giana O'Angelo both have performed at the Metropolitan in New York.

The local covers workers within the dairy plants.
