Milford Youngster, 8, Killed by Blast of Shotgun

Believe Brother Triggered Shot as Pair Played

Sharon Balay Victim of Accidental Shooting in Living Room

A shotgun blast, believed fired accidentally by a younger brother, took the life of an eight-year-old Milford girl this morning.

The victim, Sharon Rose Balay, of 2273 North St., died shortly before 10 a.m. after she was struck in the head by a charge from a 12 gauge, single-barreled shotgun.

The shot was believed to have been fired by a three-year-old brother, Clarence, while the two were playing in the house's living room.

Police were notified by the child's mother Evelyn, who rushed into the house when the shooting was reported to her by Edward Smith, 10, a half-brother of the slain girl.

Edward reportedly was in the house when the shot was fired, and had run out to summon the mother while she was hanging clothes in the back yard. The girl was dead when police arrived, according to investigators.

The victim's father, Clarence F. Balay, told Milford police that the gun was standing in a bedroom and was not loaded, leading officers to believe that the boy may have put the shell in the chamber himself.

Sharon was a third grade pupil at Baker Elementary School in Milford. The Balay home is located about two miles west of the village.

Balay, a production worker at the Ford Motor Co., Milford Carburetor plant is reported to have told police that he had taken the children hunting in the past, but that Clarence never was allowed to fire a gun.

The child's body was taken to the Richardson-Bird Funeral Home in Milford.

Partly Cloudy, Colder Seen for Saturday

It will be partly cloudy and colder tomorrow with a high ranging from 36-40 degrees according to the U.S. Weather Bureau.

A low of 21 to 25 was expected tonight, followed by a high of 36 of 40 tomorrow and a low of 20 to 24 tomorrow night.

A light snow fell in northern Michigan today but the Pontiac forecast doesn't call for any rain or snow.

The lowest temperature shortly before 8 a.m. was 22 degrees. The thermometer registered 34 at 2 p.m.

President Displays Renewed Strength as He Enjoys Family Holiday at Farm

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) —President Eisenhower counted the blessings of returning health and a happy family gathering on Thanksgiving Day. He also had a joyous outing with his grandchildren and their pony and cart.

The President is looking so well that his personal physician now believes he may be able to return to the White House permanently at Christmastime.

The Eisenhowers are scheduled to go back to Washington Dec. 22 for a family Christmas.

However, it was originally thought he would have to return to Gettysburg or go South after the holiday to continue his recuperation from the heart attack he suffered Sept. 24.

He was not expected to return to Washington on a permanent basis until sometime in the new year.

But signs now point to a steady and speedy recovery. His personal physician, Maj. Gen. Howard Snyder, who has examined the President at least once daily since he left the hospital Nov. 11, reports consistently that the President's "pulse and blood pressure remain normal" and that he has suffered no fatigue from his steady increase of activity.

His work schedule, with intervals for rest, has become almost as heavy as the days he customarily put in at the White House before his heart attack.

Yesterday, out on his farm to give his grandchildren a pony cart ride, the President looked lean and fit. His face was ruddy and his eyes sharp. He was in a gay and happy mood.

During the past two weeks, Eisenhower has presided over meetings of the National Security Council and Cabinet. He has conferred with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles on the implications of the Russian attitude at the Big Four Geneva meeting, and U. S. policy to meet it.

He has gone over the State of the Union message he will present to Congress in January, and the 1957 fiscal year budget that will go up a few days later.

The President has come into his Gettysburg office almost daily for a morning's work.

Monday, he will take over political leadership of the Republican Party again when he confers with GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall.

Area Housewife Wins New Auto in TV Contest

A Drayton Plains woman had to enter a New York television contest to win a prize which is produced right in her own back yard.

Mrs. Marshall Pridmore, of 3384 Meinrad, Drayton Plains, was informed Wednesday that she is the winner of a 1956 Pontiac.

Included in the winnings is a three-day trip to New York, with all expenses paid.

Faure Demands Confidence Vote

Stakes Government on Question Concerning Electoral Reform

PARIS (AP) — Premier Edgar Faure, fighting against delays in his program for quick elections, asked today for a vote of confidence on the question of starting debate next week for an electoral reform law.

The Premier thus staked the life of his government on a ballot scheduled to be taken in the Assembly Tuesday afternoon.

The vote will be on a procedural question. The agenda committee of the Assembly this morning decided that a debate should start Tuesday on a question submitted by Francois Mitterand, former minister of the interior.

His question denounces indecision on the part of the government and implies that the Faure regime is no longer capable of carrying on.

Faure asked for the confidence vote on the question of turning down the recommendations of the agenda committee and instead opening debate Tuesday on the electoral law.

At the same time Faure announced that the government is submitting a new project to speed the elections. The original government bill calls for ending the present assembly on Jan. 2, with elections in December. Since this is no longer possible, the Premier proposes that the mandate of the present Assembly should be ended seven weeks after the new election law is voted, or if no agreement can be reached on an election law, on Feb. 16 at the latest.

This, Faure said, would give Parliament until Dec. 31 to work out an agreement on a new election law.

ICC Head Submits Resignation to Ike

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower today accepted the resignation of Hugh W. Cross as Interstate Commerce Commission chairman. Cross has been under fire by Senate investigators.

In his letter of resignation, dated last Wednesday, Cross said that charges of improper conduct against him were "baseless," but added:

"I am realistic enough to know that, unfounded as they are, the mere pendency of such charges impairs my further service on the commission and its proper functioning in the public interest."

Eisenhower, accepting Cross' resignation effective immediately, did not comment on the investigation of the ICC head by the Senate Investigations subcommittee but said he fully appreciated Cross' reasons for quitting.

The President voiced "appreciation for the years of diligent service you have rendered with the commission and for the contructive contributions to its work that you have made."

Waterford Man Raps Proposed Merger Plans

Businessman Doubts If City Has Anything to Offer Township

A Waterford Township businessman has voiced opposition to a proposed merger of Waterford Township and the city of Pontiac.

Donald E. White, of White Brothers Real Estate, has come out against such a plan. Earlier, Waterford resident Frank W. Steere suggested that such a merger of the two municipalities be studied.

"I have discussed the subject of annexation of Waterford Township to the City of Pontiac with a large number of the local residents and businessmen and have yet to find one person in favor of such a move," said White.

"I personally would vigorously oppose such an attempt as I do not see that Pontiac is in a position to offer our township anything of any significance.

"Our township is twice the size as the City of Pontiac, our population is approximately half that of Pontiac and in another 10 to 15 years, according to Edison Study prediction, will be almost the same.

"Many people have moved to Waterford to live a suburban life instead of that of an industrial city such as Pontiac. We have our problems in this township, but I think in spite of our rapid growth we are coping with them in a satisfactory manner.

"Our three problems in Waterford are schools, water and sewers. We now have one of the most modern and finest school systems in the State. What could annexation do to improve this, and would the plan call for the merger of the Waterford school system into the Pontiac system or just the governmental units?

"New wells and systems are being installed within the township to solve our present and future water needs. Waterford did not

Name Schimmel Delegate to Education Conference

Pontiac School Board President Louis H. Schimmel will be a regional delegate to next week's White House Conference on Education in Washington, D. C.

Superintendent of Schools Dr. Dana P. Whitmer and Board Member Glenn H. Griffin will be present as observers.

President Eisenhower has called the meeting to formulate new policies on America's educational needs.

Schimmel's status as a delegate will allow him to take part in the discussions and other activities.

He and other delegates will discuss six subjects which have been studied previously in most of the 4,000 community and 53 state and territorial conferences on education during 1955. The topics are:

What should our schools accomplish? In what ways can we organize our school systems more efficiently and economically? What are our school building needs? How can we get enough good teachers—and keep them? How can we finance our schools—build and operate them? How can we obtain a continuing public interest in education?

The conference will run from Nov. 28 to Dec. 1.

The conference is the subject of a controversy in Washington. Angry Democrats on the House Education Committee have rejected White House invitations to sit as observers.

They declared it was an "affront" to the committee that they were not asked to come as delegates and participate in the discussions.

The sponsor of the House School Aid Bill has charged that the White House conference is "stacked" with those who oppose federal assistance to states.

Rep. Augustine B. Kelley (D-Pa) whose subcommittee drafted a measure which was approved by the education committee a few days before Congress adjourned this year, leveled his accusation at the meeting which opens Monday.

LOUIS H. SCHIMMEL

Rader Pleads Guilty to Manslaughter

Hugh H. Rader, a prominent Highland Park lumber dealer, pleaded guilty to manslaughter today before Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick.

Sentence was set for Dec. 12, according to Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor.

Rader, 60, of 2870 Pine Lake Rd., West Bloomfield Township, drove a car which was involved in a collision on Middlebelt Road near Pine Lake Road June 27. The mishap resulted in the death of John C. Welch, 18, of 128 Oakwood, Walled Lake.

Rader is free on bond pending sentence. Manslaughter carries a maximum 15-year prison sentence.

Reds Eye Ways to Assist India

Bulganin, Khrushchev Get Warm Welcome in City of Poona

NEW DELHI, India—While the Kremlin's two bigwigs are touring India and making speeches, their top aides here are examining ways of supplying promised Russian technical and economic aid to the subcontinent.

Five Russian mining experts already have reached the capital to advise the Indian government on prospecting for oil and nonferrous metals.

Russia's Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin and Red party boss Nikita S. Khrushchev arrived in Poona today for a 24-hour visit.

The welcome given the visiting Soviet party was warm, but far removed from the spectacular greeting on their arrival in Bombay two days ago.

There were no mobs at the airport, nor along the highway into the city. Only a few school children and banners lined the route.

Khrushchev was in the limelight last night at the final event of their crowded stay in Bombay.

He told an audience of 600 guests gathered in the plush Turf Club of the west coast industrial port that the "microscopic" results of the recent Geneva Conference were the fault of the West.

Rangoon in Burma is getting a spring cleaning for the seven-day visit next week of Bulganin and Khrushchev.

Mishaps Claim Three Residents of County Area

Toll Is Called Worst for One Day Holiday in State History

Three county residents were among 22 who died yesterday in what State Police have called the worst of any one-day holiday traffic toll in Michigan history.

State Troopers, who anticipated little trouble in what has formerly been a holiday of light traffic and few deaths, were at a loss to explain the sudden rise in fatalities — more than double the 1954 toll of nine.

"Traffic was not heavy," one spokesman said, "but highways were clear and that encouraged speeding."

County dead are:

Peter J. Burns, 63, of Holly, who was struck down by a car as he walked with traffic along M57 west of Holly. Dana A. Steele, 20, of Fenton, driver of the car, told Sheriff's deputies he was passing another car and saw Burns too late to avoid hitting him.

Edgar O. Lacey, 17, of Pontiac Township, who died on Squirrel road a mile north of Auburn Heights when his car, bouncing off a high bank on the right of the road, rolled and threw him to the pavement.

Two passengers with Lacey, Miss Norman Hutchinson, 17, 3194 Auburn Ave., and her brother Thomas Hutchinson, 16, were treated for minor injuries and released from Ponitac General Hospital.

ville, who was killed at Telegraph and Goddard Roads in Taylor Township returning from a family dinner in Flat Rock. Five persons were hospitalized after her grandson, 21-year-old Robert Capron of Ortonville, collided with Frank Hanson, 16, of Taylor Township.

In other Michigan accidents nine persons died in two collisions in Livonia and Montcalm County.

The Livonia crash occurred when cars driven by Joseph Adams, 41, of Taylor Township and Joseph Zascavage, 21, of Detroit, collided head-on. Adams and Zascavage were killed as were Adams' wife.

Traffic Fines Stiffer

DETROIT (INS) — First to feel the sting of Detroit's tightened Safe Driving Day campaign was 21-year-old Robert T. Walker of Ferndale.

He drew a $100 fine today and lost his driving privileges for one year for driving into the side of a policeman's car at Grand River and Woodward. Usual fine for reckless driving is $50, but it was doubled for the campaign.

The stiffer fines will continue at least until the end of the campaign, Dec. 11.

Local Advertising Man Harvey Gardner Luce Dies

Harvey Gardner Luce, executive vice president and assistant to the president of MacManus, John and Adams, died last night en route to William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak.

He had suffered a heart attack at his Bloomfield Hills home.

A noted artist, Luce, 55, had had one-man shows in Detroit, Washington and New York. He joined the firm in 1923.

HARVEY G. LUCE

Serving in both world wars, he was a major and Deputy Chief of Publications Branch, Military Intelligence Service of the War Department staff in World War II.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, he was a member of the Bloomfield Hills Country Club, the Recess Club of Detroit, and the Pere Marquette Rod and Gun Club.

Surviving are his widow, the former Lois Wickerts, two sons, Robert of Washington and Christopher of Bloomfield Hills, and two daughters, Gwen and Jeanne, both of Bloomfield Hills.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed, but the family has requested that donations be made to the American Heart Association Fund.

Funeral will be held at the Christ Church Cranbrook, at 11 a.m. Monday, with arrangements by the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co.

Joins With Harriman

WASHINGTON (INS) — Rep. Francis E. Walter, one of Adlai Stevenson's most bitter political foes, has announced his support for New York Gov. Averell Harriman for the Democratic presidential nomination. Walter is the first important Democratic congressional leader to climb aboard the Harriman bandwagon.

Mrs. Ann Woodward Tells Her Story

MINEOLA, N. Y. (INS) — A Nassau grand jury began taking testimony today to obtain "the entire story" of the mistake-slaying of millionaire-sportsman William Woodward Jr.

The jury began its probe this forenoon without awaiting for the arrival of Mrs. Ann Woodward, the once-beautiful former model and actress who has said she shot her husband to death in the belief he was a prowler.

Mrs. Woodward, who spent three weeks in a New York Hospital under treatment for shock and bereavement after the fatal shooting Oct. 30, was determined to testify despite the statement of her physician that she was in no condition to do so.

Society beauties mingled with small-town policemen as the grand jury hearing got under way.

Among the first persons on hand ready to testify was stunningly beautiful Mrs. David Gimbel, red-haired wife of one of the famed Gimbel department store family. Enshrouded in mink, she became the center of all eyes as she took her place in the witness waiting room.

Mrs. Gimbel was one of the guests at a lavish party given for the Duchess of Windsor by socialite Mrs. George F. Baker, the night before the Woodward shooting.

The sportsman, owner of the racehorse Nashua, and Mrs. Woodward had attended the Locust Valley function only a few hours before the shotgun tragedy.

Others among the first group of witnesses on hand included:

Patrolman Henry Cormier of the small Oyster Bay cove police force . . . he was believed to be the first policeman on the scene after the shooting.

Lt. C. Russell Haff, chief of the Oyster Bay cove police force . . . it was to Haff that Mrs. Woodward cried out "I shot my husband!" as she cradled the body of Woodward in her arms on the floor of the bedroom hallway where the shooting occurred.

Mrs. Ann Gorney, the Woodwards' cook . . .she was asleep on the second floor of the house and told police she heard nothing.

Also called to testify was Paul Wirth Jr., confessed prowler who has told police he was on a roof of the Woodward home at the time of the shooting and heard the two shotgun blasts fired by Mrs. Woodward.

Wirth, 23-year-old German national who came to the U.S. in 1953, has been granted immunity from prosecution in this one case, to tell his story of his activities on the fateful night.

Special squads of police were on hand at the Mineola courthouse as the grand jury hearing got under way. Some 30 uniformed policemen and plain-clothes detectives kept a careful guard over all principals in the case.

What went on in the grand jury room was, of course, secret. Newsmen knew only who came and went — but not what the witnesses related to the jury.

Police and the Nassau district attorney already have stated that from their investigation the shooting appeared accidental.

H-Bomb Tests Due in Spring

Sen. Anderson Hints U.S. Blasts to Answer Big Red Explosions

WASHINGTON (INS) — The top congressional atomic authority indicated today that the U. S. will stage new H-bomb tests in the Pacific to answer Russia's apparent mastery of the secret of superbombs.

Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM), chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Committee, said the enormous Russian explosion, revealed Thanksgiving Eve, only emphasized that America must continue to test and improve the most destructive of all weapons.

Preparations for new hydrogen tests in the Pacific have been under way for more than a year. The staging reportedly was delayed because of a desire to emphasize "atoms for peace" in 1955, but now is expected to be held next spring.

Administration sources, meanwhile, saw a new government policy emerging from the Atomic Energy Commission's sudden decision to announce that Russia has set off a blast equal to millions of tons of TNT—a feat possible only with large H-boms.

The policy involves an attempt to persuade the American people that they can have security, even though Moscow has the power to order the complete destruction of the U. S. — provided the U. S. maintains a similar ability to completely destroy Russia.

Reached at his home in Albuquerque, Sen. Anderson said:

"I think this recent Russian test is pretty good evidence of the intention of the Russians to go ahead with an aggressive program in spite of all these smiling faces."

The belief that a new administration policy is in the making stemmed from the fact that the AEC's announcement departed from all previous precedent to describe the size of the Russian explosion as "in the range of megatons."

A megaton is the equivalent of a million tons of TNT. The hydrogen bombs set off by the U. S. have varied from 5 to about 13 megatons. The largest atomic bomb known to have been set off—25 times more powerful than the explosion over Hiroshima in 1945—was equal to 500 thousand tons of TNT, which is only half a megaton.

Racial Traveling Bans Outlawed by ICC

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interstate Commerce Commission today ordered an end to racial segregation on interstate trains and passenger buses. It ruled too that segregation of interstate travelers in public waiting rooms is unlawful.

* * *

The commission, in years past has gone along with the theory that separate accommodations for the races met the requirements of the Interstate Commerce Act, so long as they are equal.

But it said in today's rulings:

"The disadvantage to a traveler who is assigned accommodations or facilities so designated as to imply his inherent inferiority solely because of his race must be regarded under present conditions as unreasonable.

* * *

"Also, he is entitled to be free of annoyances, some petty and some substantial, which almost inevitably accompany segregation even though the rail carriers, as most of the defendants have done here, sincerely try to provide both races with equally convenient and comfortable cars and waiting rooms."

French U.N. Boycott on Algiers Nears End

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—France's boycott of the U.N. General Assembly was believed near an end today with agreement reported on a plan to drop the explosive Algerian question from the Assembly agenda.

Informed sources said the Asian-African bloc and France have approved an Indian resolution declaring no discussion of the issue is necessary at the present time and the Assembly is no longer concerned with the question.

No serious opposition was foreseen and the French boycott was expected to be called off by the end of the day.

Graham May Get Criminal Lawyer Assigned Today

DENVER (INS) — Two temporary attorneys for accused mass murderer John Gilbert Graham will tell Denver District Judge Eddard J. Keating today whether they were successful in obtaining a criminal lawyer to defend their client.

Attorneys Jerome Strickland and Frank Hays obtained an 11-day continuance Nov. 17 of Graham's arraignment in order to give them time to secure a lawyer to defend the 23-year-old father on a charge of killing his mother by placing a time-bomb in her suitcase before she boarded a plane Nov. 1.

Graham is scheduled to plead to the charge Monday before Judge Keating.

He originally confessed to placing 25 sticks of dynamite on a United Air Lines DC-6B which exploded in mid-air near Longmont, Colo., killing all 44 persons aboard. Later, however, he repudiated the confession which he claimed had been secured by the FBI under duress.

Graham spent Thanksgiving Day quietly reading a book and pacing his cell in Denver County Jail. He enjoyed a dinner of fried chicken, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce, dressing, bread, pumpkin pie and coffee.

Lonardi Will Visit U.S. to Consult Physicians

BUENOS AIRES (INS) — Maj. Gen. Eduardo Lonardi, first Argentine provisional president after the fall of Juan Peron, will sail for the U. S. next Tuesday.

The 59-year-old army officer has confirmed reports of the impending trip. He described it as a rest trip.

It was understood, however, that Lonardi also will consult U. S. physicians during his stay. He suffers from ulcers.

The general will be accompanied by his wife, Mercedes, and his daughter and son-in-law.

Attorney General OKs Right to Ban Hunting

LANSING (AP)—Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh today upheld the right of the Legislature to set aside wild olde sanctuaries and forbid hunting for any game there.

The opinion refers specifically to the Pine Lake (Lake Lansing) wild life sanctuaries and forbid County but Kavanagh said that the Gull Lake Sanctuary and the Goguac Lake Sanctuary were covered by the same type of legislation.

Ex-Pontiac Gridder Named on MIAA Team

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Unbeaten-untied Hillsdale dominated the all-MIAA football team announced today by grabbing five places on the 12-player first team.

Named for Hillsdale were linemen Roger Davis, Dave Trippett, Warren Temple and Andy Kincannon and back Nate Clark. Temple, who captained the Dales at tackle this season, is a former Pontiac High School star.

The teams were announced by Degay Ernst, judge advocate of the MIAA.

Ann, 40, and their youngest son, Norman, 7. Five other persons were hurt, including the Adams' other son, Larry, 12.

A two-car collision at the intersection of M57 and M66 about 13 miles north of Ionia took five lives. The dead were Joseph D. Wyman, 50, of Lansing; his wife, Lavange, 45; and son, Terry, 19; George Edwards, 38, of Clio, and Mrs. Arlene Marshall, 33, of Flint. Three others were injured.

Other fatalities included:

Dr. Alonzo Wheeler, 84, of Berrien Springs, killed in a two-car collision on U.S. 31 in the outskirts of Niles, and Michael J. Kubecka, 54, also of Berrien Springs.

Pvt. William Hackett, 21, of Hudson, home on furlough from Ft. Knox, Ky., killed when his car left M34 and overturned about 11 miles east of Hillsdale.

Mrs. Lillian Luscombe, 42, of rural Charlotte, killed when a car driven by her husband, George, 50, missed a turn at the end of an Eaton County road and struck a tree.

Henry A. Schoettle, 75, of Detroit, struck and killed by a car as he crossed a street in Detroit.

Mrs. Elizabeth Katzenmeyer, 75, of Ann Arbor, killed in a Monroe County collision in which seven members of a family were injured.

Mrs. Margaret Tynan, 48, of Detroit and Mrs. Clarence Kreiner, of Port Huron, were killed in a three car wreck four miles south of Mt. Clemens on U.S. 25. Four others were hurt.

Mrs. Violet Ruark, 74, of Inkster, killed when struck by a car as she was crossing U.S. 112 in front of Wayne County General Hospital.

Steve R. Forgac, 50, of Detroit, identified by police from papers found on the body, killed when he was struck by a car on a Detroit street.

Former Restaurant Owner Succumbs

Stephan Palaian, 62, former restaurant owner, died suddenly Wednesday at his home 453 Lowell St. of a heart attack.

MR. PALAIAN

Born in Turkey, he was the son of Garabed and Altoun Palaian. He was married to Evangel Yeretzian in Detroit Dec. 25, 1220.

Mr. Palaian came to Pontiac from Detroit in 1927. He was a member of St. John's Armenian Church, Detroit and was a veteran of World War I.

Three months ago, he retired from his restaurant business which he owned and operated near the Pontiac Motor Division.

Surviving, besides his wife, are four children, Charles, George, Mrs. Ann Beamish and Mrs. Mary Lou Malkasian, all of Pontiac.

A brother, Nick Palaian, and seven grandchildren also survive.

The funeral will be held at 11 a.m. Monday in the St. John's Armenian Church, Detroit with his pastor, the Rev. A. Kasparian officiating. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery, Pontiac.

Friends may call after 5 p.m. this evening at the Edward Korkoian Funeral Home, 11545 Woodward Ave. Detroit.

have any sprinkling bans last summer such as our neighbor Pontiac.

"There are areas in Pontiac that do not have public sewer facilities today. It is my understanding that the present Pontiac sewer system is inadequate to serve the present city needs, and I fail to see how this condition would help Waterford Township in its sewer problem.

"It is hard for me to understand why the sudden interest in the annexation of Waterford Township when the City of Pontiac recently turned down the annexation of property containing a proposed large shopping center in Bloomfield Township.

"I do not object to any study being made by an impartial group on annexation, providing there is equal representation by both Pontiac and Waterford residents.

"To clarify a misunderstanding of a number of people, I believe it's true Mr. Steere is only recommending a study be made and not actually recommending annexation," said White.

WASHINGTON (INS)—Two lawmakers, winding up a nation-wide study of narcotics addiction, today urged stiff penalties for first of fenders.

Chairman Hale Boggs (D-La), of a House Ways and Means subcommittee, said mandatory sentences under a 1951 penalty law for repeaters have driven narcotics kingpins to use newcomers, usually teenagers, for peddling.

Committee member Frank Karsten (D-Mo), joined Boggs in urging that judges be required to send first offenders to jail.

Both also suggested licensing drug manufacturers to control distribution of sleeping pills and the so-called "goof balls." They noted testimony at public hearings held in six cities that the barbiturate habit is reaching "alarming" levels.

Boggs said they found that many addicts of heroin and morphine had "graduated" from sleeping pills.

Pontiac Deaths

Mrs. Jessie R. Griffiths

Mrs. Jessie Riddington Griffiths, formerly of Pontiac, died Wednesday of pneumonia. She had been in ill health for four years.

Before moving to Detroit, where she made her home at 2503 Manistique Ave., Mrs. Griffiths had lived here 30 years.

She was born in Minnesota July 16, 1896 and attended school in Chicago.

She had been employed by the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. in Detroit and the Square Deal Co.

Service will be held Saturday at 1:30 p.m. from the Huntoon Funeral Home with the Rev. James Luther of the Silvercrest Baptist Church officiating. Burial will be in Oakview Cemetery, Royal Oak.

Edgar Allen Lacey

Edgar Allen Lacey, 17, who was killed yesterday in an automobile accident on N. Squirrel Rd. was the son of Sherman and Grace Owens Lacey of 141 Auburn Ave.

He was born in Clinton, Tenn. Sept. 8, 1938 and attended Longfellow and Eastern Junior High Schools.

A member of the Calvary Missionary Church, he was employed as a mechanic by the Rogers-Willy's Sales & Service.

Surviving are his mother and father and a sister, Gloria June, at home. Two grandmothers, Mrs. Alcia Lacey of South Clinton, Tenn. and Mrs. Estes Owens of Marlow, Tenn. also survive.

A prayer service will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Dudley H. Moore Funeral Home, Auburn Heights. He will then be sent to the Holly Funeral Home in Clinton. The funeral will be held Monday at 2 p.m. from the Farmer's Grove Baptist Church with the Rev. Rose L. Davis officiating. Burial will be in the Farmers-Grove Cemetery, Clinton.

John Daniel Odneal

John Daniel Odneal, 40, of 379 Winding Drive, died suddenly in Boonville, Mo., Wednesday.

He was born in Missouri April 15, 1915, the son of Martin and Lon V. Smith Odneal and married here 20 years ago to Maye Hubbard.

An international representative for the UAW-CIO, he had lived in Pontiac 27 years, coming here from Missouri.

During World War II, Mr. Odneal served in the U. S. Navy.

Besides his wife and parents, a son, John Daniel Odneal II of Pontiac, survives. A sister, Mrs. Gracie Lee Janicky of Pontiac, also survives.

Mr. Odneal will be at the Pursley Funeral Home until noon Monday. He will then be taken to the Christian & Missionary Alliance Church for service at 2 p.m. The Rev. G. J. Bersche, pastor of the church, will officiate. Burial will be at Perry Mt. Park Cemetery.

Friends may call after 7 p.m. tonight.

Record Crowd Views Detroit's Big Parade

Featured in the three-mile-long spectacle were 20 floats, 11 bands, clowns, mounted police and scores of grotesque figures — including Mickey Mouse, the Old Woman in the Shoe and Cinderella.

Vying for the popularity prize with the thousands of youngsters along the streets were the perennial star of the show, Santa Claus, and his new friend Davy Crockett.

NEW OFFICE DEVELOPMENT—Shown above is an architect's sketch of the new one-story office building being constructed on Adams road at Webster in Birmingham, by the W. E. Reid Development Co. It will be completed by about March and will be rented either for single occupancy or as many as 11 240 square foot office units.

The Day in Birmingham

New Office Construction Set for March Completion

BIRMINGHAM — A March completion date is anticipated for a new office building now under construction on Adams at Webster.

So stated Hamilton H. Paterson, president of the W. E. Reid Development Co., in emphasizing that the structure will be rented either in its entirety to one tenant or to several people. Ultimately, the one-story structure could have 11 offices, he said.

Of red brick, block and steel construction, the building will encompass 3,300 square feet, Paterson noted, and will be well lighted through a predominance of windows used throughout.

Paterson said the "strictly office building" will face Adams and is on a 48 by 120 foot lot. Other features include summer air conditioning, acoustical ceilings and a hot air heating unit.

Architects for this latest project of the development company, whose vice president is Wallace E. Reid, are O'Dell, Hewlett and Luckenbach, with Harry Denyes as associate architect.

With Thanksgiving over, the Y's Men's Club is losing no time in getting in the Christmas spirit and members will embark tomorrow on their annual Christmas tree sale. The smell of fresh pine and balsam will greet would-be customers any day between 10 a.m. and 9 p.m. until Dec. 24, for 2,000 balsam, scotch pine and jack pine trees will be available in the lot adjacent to the YMCA Building.

As an extra precautionary measure, fire safety instruction sheets will be made available for each purchaser.

Dave Hubbs, Roland Erickson and Robert Lotz, cochairmen, said the club hopes to realize enough profit for a down payment on a used bus for the Y swimming and summer programs. The present bus will be disposed of next summer.

Tomorrow's 10:30 a.m. story period at Baldwin Library will feature the reading of "Cinderella" and "Bremen Town Musicians." The half-hour program is open to all kindergartners through sixth graders.

Her teachers say Margaret Davis, 18-year-old Birmingham High School senior, is excelling in her school and athletic activities, perhaps a little more difficult for her than it would be for some, since Margaret is here as an exchange student from her New Zealand home, Timaru.

As proof, Sally Reid, gymnasium instructor, has just announced that Margaret copped top honors in the girls' riflery program which closed last week, and was awarded the shooting trophy.

Here through the American Field Service program, Margaret is making her home with the Lawton Tabors, 18280 Devonshire. She is active in all school sports, has written articles for the "Highlander" and spoken before local groups on her homeland, where she will enter college next year to become a teacher.

The line-up of guest stars appearing at tomorrow's Platter Party includes Patty Jerome, the Classmates, the Melodaires and the Cheers, attributed with making popular the current song hit, "Black Denim Trousers."

Doors of the Birmingham Theater will open at 10:30, with the hour show broadcast over the radio half an hour later. Sheila James, of Bloomfield Hills High School, will conduct the press conference during an interview with Miss Jerome. Royal Oak High will be represented by Sandra Kraase, listing her school's choice for the week's three top tunes, according to a teen survey.

Teen-of-the-Week honors will go to the football captains of Royal Oak, winners of yesterday's traditional Thanksgiving Day game between Birmingham and Royal Oak High.

Mrs. Edwin C. Errickson

Private service for Mrs. Edwin C. (Irma Rogers) Errickson, 64, of 636 George St., will be at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home, with cremation to follow at White Chapel Memoral Cemetery.

Mrs. Errickson, who had formerly served as substitute teacher in the Birmingham schools, died Wednesday following a long illness.

Besides her husband, she leaves three sons, Rogers W. of Birmingham; Donald C. of Pontiac; and E. Robert of Long Beach, Calif.; and four grandchildren.

Mrs. Jeffe A. van den Berg

Service for Mrs. Jeffe A. (Susan Talbot) van den Berg, 76, of 1987 Graefield Terrace, will be at 11 a.m. Monday at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. with burial in Greenwood Cemetery. Mrs. van den Berg died Thursday after a short illness.

Survivors include her husband; one son, Kent of Minneapolis, Minn.; and two grandchildren.

Traffic Accident Hospitalizes 4

Woman Listed in Poor Condition; Five Others Escape Serious Harm

Four persons were hospitalized and two others injured in a traffic accident last night.

Mrs. Lois Peck, 280 Fisher St., who is in poor condition in Pontiac General Hospital, told police "I don't know where the car in front of me came from."

She struck the car of McKinley Scott, 25, of 361 Wessen St., at 11:30 p.m., when Scott made a left turn onto Bagley St. from Diston Ave., according to police.

Mrs. Peck was traveling south on Bagley. She suffered head, back and internal injuries.

Another passenger, James Brome, 19, 36 Wessen St., is in good condition in St. Joseph Hospital.

Two other passengers in Scott's car were released after treatment from Pontiac General Hospital. They are Mrs. Mary Kitts, 503 Highland Ave., and Mrs. Violet O. Nichols, 62 Orton St.

Do Ruffled Bedrooms Stifle U.S. Husbands?

By PHYLIS BATTELE

NEW YORK (INS) — A discreet hassle is going on in New York today over the vaguely indiscreet question of whether too many so-called "master bedrooms" are being designed to look like boudoirs — thus turning husbands into manic depressives.

William Pahlmann, a noted designer, says that "a man constantly surrounded in his bedroom by pale lilac walls, off-white taffeta curtains, periwinkle wall-to-wall carpets and pink sheets feels like a fool."

He will "eventually look for repose and relaxation elsewhere — preferring an austere hotel bedroom or a club."

Dino Levi, a Venetian designer who deals in dainty objects d'art, says that is nonsense.

"Even after they are married a long length of time," he insists dreamily, "the man likes to feel that the wife is a hostess in her own boudoir, and that he is the guest. Does he want her to give up perfume? No, of course. Then it reasons he still wants her to live in frou-frou."

Pahlmann, he noted, is a bachelor. "A most talented bachelor and a likeable fellow," says Dino, "but he is wrong when he says the average businessman is embarrassed by cupids and ruffles and ribbons . . .

"He love them, he love them!" We tried to cam down Levi by pointing out that Pahlmann perhaps takes the America approach to the bedroom decrating problem, whereas Levi is a European born and bred. European men, we reminded him, take a considerably different attitude toward their women.

"Ah, crazee," he responded. "I have been in these fine country for 15 years and I think I know about this men. On the outside, they would not want the men they work for to think they sleep in pistachio sheets under flower print ceilings. But they are kidding the man they work with.

"Perhaps," he shrugged innocently, "they are kidding even themselves?"

When a man is a bachelor, he went on, he wants stuffed fish on his walls. "But when he is in love, he rather have a stuffed teddy bear on his bed."

Asked what his own "master bedroom" decor consists of, Dino took on a beautific look. Ah, he said, it is all turquoise with eggshell draperies, and has a blue chandelier, a blue bed extra large, a chaise longue, two armchairs and a shapely imported secretary — which is not what you thought, or I thought, but is a writing desk for his wife.

He says his own bedroom color, blue, is currently the most popular shade in today's feminine-decorated master bedrooms. "A few years ago, the color was pink — and I will agree with Pahlmann that a man does look a bit shocking all in pink."

To sum up, Dino assumed a look of out-and-out outrage:

"It is unfair for a man to tell a woman how to do her bedroom. The rest of the modern house is so functional — she must have a refuge, a show-off place for her femininity.

"When she is in her bedroom with the silk and fluff, she can be the girl he fell in love with all over again.

"And if a room has happiness and romance, can the decor be wrong?"

WHICH WAY? — This confusing signpost got plenty of laughs from pedestrians, but certainly not from drivers. Located at heavily traveled Park Square in Boston, Mass., its upside-down detour sign and straight-up arrow puzzled many a motorist. The traffic commission finally replaced the detour marker, but the directions to the Mystic River Bridge may still mystify the literal-minded driver.

Chicago Man Pays $20 for Dream Bird

CHICAGO (INS) — Strange noises awoke a Chicago night newspaperman yesterday afternoon.

The newsman, Edward Romaine of the suburb of Park Forest, thought he saw a pheasant. He dismissed this as a dream and rolled over to go back to sleep. Then he noticed the window had been shattered and the blind rippe

The dram was not only real but expensive. Romaine was about to kill and dress the bird when his wife pointed out he had no license to hunt and kill pheasants. A policeman was summoned and released the bird in a nearby forest preserve.

Romaine was stuck with a $20 bill for the broken window.

Pontiac and Waterford Should Consider Merger

With Waterford beginning to assume the size and importance of a full-fledged city, the question of a possible union with Pontiac is natural.

The matter has been referred to a committee to study the whole problem and even engage an outside firm of experts to bring in a recommendation.

No one would organize two firms in identically the same business and place them side by side with a complete duplication of functions and management; and yet that is precisely what Waterford and Pontiac are heading toward.

It would seem inconsistent for the area to have two city halls, two mayors, two sets of commissioners, two school systems, two fire departments, two sets of police, two water systems, two sewer systems and a complete duplication of functions with two sets of administrative officials drawing pay from the taxpayers.

One should suffice. One co-ordinated city could probably best serve the residents of both communities. And one would save the taxpayers lots of money.

However, the matter is something that should be investigated thoroughly. Perhaps Waterford will be opposed. Perhaps Pontiac will want no part of it. Perhaps it would prove sound for one and unwise for the other.

In any event, the annexation could only take place by a favorable vote in each community. Thus each division can speak its own mind and make its own decision, irrespective of the other.

It takes a double affirmative to bring about the union.

Probers Should Reveal Facts in ICC Inquiry

There is room for public concern over hints that have come out of a Senate subcommittee's closed door investigation of the conduct of Interstate Commerce Commission Chairman Hugh C. Cross.

According to these hints he is said to have intervened with presidents of railroads serving Chicago, in the interests of his old friend, John L. Keeshin. The ICC chairman reportedly wanted the contract for carrying passengers between Chicago stations transferred from the Parmalee Transportation Co. to the Railroad Transfer Service.

Another report said Mr. Cross denied having been offered an executive job with the successful bidders. Other rumors are to the effect that if he would resign, the subcommittee would not go on with the projected public hearing in this case.

In some Washington circles it has been presumed that the subcommittee's intention is to protect the ICC chairman from public embarrassment. The result, however, might be not only to embarrass Mr. Cross but the subcommittee as well.

We hope this talk about abandonment of the public hearings proves untrue. We also hope that before it is too late, the subcommittee will realize that its job is not to force the resignation of a quasi-judicial agency's chairman. It is to expose the facts the public has a right to know.

It would be fat better for Mr. Cross to have everything brought out into the open than for him to become the subject of continuing rumors, whisperings and innuendos.

40,000 Shovels

During its investigating career the Hoover Commission has uncovered some fearful and wonderful examples of how military procurement can waste taxpayers money.

Nothing it discovered, however, ranks for sheer inexcusable waste with the story of 40,000 army shovels. It seems that a citizen had bid one-half cent apiece for these surplus implements and they were sold to him. Immediately the army demanded that he move them out of the warehouse because it needed the room.

Then it developed that the reason this room was needed was the army's purchase of 40,000 more shovels at $1.70 each and they were being delivered. The purchaser suggested that the new shovels, which were exact duplicates, be delivered to him and that the army save itself a lot of trouble by keeping the old ones.

The army brass said it couldn't do this, explaining that the old shovels were dated 1945 whereas the new ones were stamped 1955. Total bill for keeping the army shovels up to date was $68,000.

It was the French.

who was a "news butcher" on the Pontiac, Oxford and Northern Railway around the turn of the century. Now, a part of the Grand Trunk System, the same railway handles less than one passenger per day over its entire line of 100 miles between Pontiac and Caseville. Scobey recollects that when the road was built its bridges were constructed by of Leonard from timber cut on its own right-of-way. Excursion trains of several cars were run to Detroit at $1 for the round trip from Caseville. It really opened up the thumb section of Michigan, and its trains sometimes hauled the natives away from forest fires. It brought whole trainloads of people to Pontiac when the state fair was held here. Even on ordinary days its depot on Oakland avenue could not accommodate the waiting crowds.

Pontiac always has been the biggest city on its line. Station stops were numerous in its early days, but have gradually been lessened as the auto grabbed off the travelers. At one time there were five stops in Oakland county after leaving Pontiac, being at Eames, Cole, Oxford, Shoup and Leonard. The Grand Trunk now seeks to discontinue all passenger service on the line, which in its early days was known as the "Polly Ann," and still does a good freight business.

The remaining four miles of blacktop covering on the Dixie Highway in Springfield and Groveland Townships has been completed, and we now have that smooth as silk pavement the entire distance between Pontiac and Flint.

"Great! Now We'll Show You the SOVIET Rope Trick"

David Lawrence Says:

Dems' Outcry Against Peace Policy Won't Fool Average U. S. Voter

WASHINGTON—Are the Democrats blundering their way into the next campaign as the "war party?" This question is being asked now in view of the tenor of the recent speeches by Stevenson and Harriman.

The two rivals for the Democratic presidential nomination have just given the country a preview of their arguments against President Eisenhower's peace policy, and it looks as if their alternative to peaceful negotiation might only be a belligerent policy that could, if the Democrats won the election, bring on the most terrible war in all history.

What do the Democrats really want? Before Geneva, Stevenson was making speeches demanding that the Eisenhower administration "compromise" with the Russians and insisting that there must be no bluster or intransigence in the American delegation's attitude.

Now he speaks of the "mists of illusion" at the "summit" conference and criticizes Eisenhower for alleged failure at Geneva.

By the same token, Stevenson is criticizing Foreign Minister Macmillan of Great Britain and Foreign Minister Pinay of France, who, with Dulles, formulated the Allied policy at Geneva.

Stevenson also is demanding more armament. He says:

"America's military might has been reduced—while at the same time we talked louder and tougher. But if our threats were sincere, then our pretensions of peace were insincere. And if we did not mean what we said, then we were bluffing."

This is a strange role for Stevenson, and it is not made less belligerent by his remark that "our position is more perilous than it has been since Korea."

Governor Harriman, to be sure, calls the whole Eisenhower foreign policy "a classic in the history of bungling." Is this because President Eisenhower, with the almost unanimous support of the American people, tried out a policy of conciliation at the first Geneva conference, as Stevenson and Sen. George urged?

The President dealt with the leaders of the Russian government courteously and with the same good nature that has always been so characteristic of his personality. Now comes the backfire from the Democrats.

Much is being said derisively, for example, about Ike's "smiles," and there are Democratic Party spokesmen who are accusing the President of having been drawn into a supposedly artificial pose by the coaching of "the Madison Avenue boys."

The public generally may not know what "Madison Avenue" symbolizes. It is a street in New York City where some of the best of the creative minds of America have their offices—and they have developed the most effective way to sell ideas through advertising that any country has ever known.

They have contributed greatly to American prosperity and full employment.

America needs more "Madison Avenue" knowledge and experience in "selling Americanism" to the rest of the world. But Eisenhower's kindliness and spirit of personal friendliness were born in him 65 years ago. Nobody in Madison Avenue had to teach him how to be a gentleman in representing the government of the United States.

The average American voter isn't going to be fooled by the outcry that the "failure" at Geneva was the fault of Eisenhower or John Foster Dulles.

Everybody knows that the refusal of the Russians to agree to the proposals laid down not merely by the United States but by France and Great Britain led to the "failure" at Geneva, and by no stretch of partisan zeal can this be distorted into an American "failure."

There are, of course, some critics who would prefer to hold Russia blameless if it only would fix blame on the President and secretary of state of their own country and win an election.

But, happily, American public opinion is too well informed to be misled by that kind of mischievous misinterpretation of the truth.

As for the Democratic speakers they will have to point out soon what they would have done before Geneva and what they would do now that the two Geneva conferences have been held.

Would they go to war with Russia? Do they believe in preventive war? Would they surrender Germany to Russia and abandon all principles just to get a paper agreement?

These questions go to the heart of the present political debate. There are lots of international questions to talk about in the 1956 campaign, not the least of them being which party was responsible for the "mess" in foreign policy which the Eisenhower regime inherited.

Exercise May Help Joints Afflicted With 'Rheumatiz'

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

There are no general statistics, and I'm not sure I'd be much impressed if there were, on the question of the effect of overweight upon the joints.

Theoretically it seems reasonable enough that a person, let's say a lovely lady—looks her best when she carries ten or fifteen pounds surplus properly distributed but it puts some strain on the joints.

But what of it? The joints are built to work and, in my opinion they will keep in better condition if we use 'em.

Here arises the question of the nature of the joint disability under consideration. If it is really inflammation of the joint then the attending physican can judge whether rest or work is advisable.

On the other hand, if the disability is physical degeneration of joint tissues, it would be advisable to use the joint to the limit of normal capacity every day.

Chronic (say over a year in duration) inflammation of the joints is commonly called "arthritis" an impressive term, if you're a credulous customer.

DEGENERATION OF TISSUES

Physical degeneration of joint tissues is the usual cause of chronic joint disability. Since there is no common name for this condition I call it rheumatiz—not rheumatism, please, but just rheumatiz.

If a person with the rheumatiz runs from trick specialist to "clinic" racketeer for shots of a new miracle drug, he or she will probably keep as much weight off the joint as possible—or pain will restrict use of the joint to a minimum.

If this is not the usual history of "arthritis," the truth has been kept from me too long.

FILE SWELLING

In the past five years my rheumatiz file has swelled with reports from people who write:

For the first time in years I am almost unconscious of my aching knees. I can jump up at the drop of a hat! (J. R.)

After two years of treatment with medicine and shots discontinued . . . began Co, D, B and I . . . that was about 18 months ago . . . All the pain and lameness has left . . . (Mrs. H. M McC)

Every time I sat a while my knees got so stiff . . . in one knee for years and the past year or two the other . . . now walk a mile without pain or fatigue . . never felt better . . . can't thank you enough . . . (K. M.)

CONSULT DOCTOR

If you think you have arthritis you had better consult a physician. If you think you have rheumatiz, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask in writing for the pamphlet Calcium and Rehumatiz.

In the pamphlet I suggest suitable supplements for your inadequate diet, but no medicines.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Voice of the People

Wants All Turnpike Facts Aired Thoroughly in Press

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

New roads and improvement of our old ones are essential, everyone agrees. The controversial toll road, its pros and cons have been followed very closely by the factual reporting in The Pontiac Press.

However, until recently I was under the impression it was another of the usual political wrangles over "Who can do it better." I am sure there are many others under the same delusion.

After the publication of Commissioner Ziegler's recent letter outlining the facts, namely that if the toll road is built, he must agree that there will be no competing roads and he specifically mentioned the extension of Northwestern Highway.

In checking this statement I went over what meager information an average citizen has at hand, and made one discovery. The proposed toll road from all intent and purpose is to move traffic long distances fast.

If that is true, why does this one wander all over the place? It is obvious. To pick up local traffic and with no competing roads, these boys have hit the jack pot.

If the building of a toll road depends on giving the bond holders a guarantee of a profit at the taxpayers' expense and discomfort, then it certainly becomes a matter of newspaper business. If my facts are right, I respectfully suggest this newspaper give the matter a thorough airing.

From where I sit, it appears someone is holding the lid on and trying to make Mr. Ziegler a goat.

Dems Have Own Version of Ike's 'Middle of Road'

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

As President Eisenhower eases himself more and more back into the burdens of the presidency, it is becoming increasingly apparent that this eminent political amateur is importantly influencing thinking in both major parties.

Eisenhower's posture as "a middle-of-the-road" leader, which seems more consonant with public sentiment during an economic boom than the previously popular "left of center" role of Eisenhower's two immediate predecessors in the White House, has created a "me tooism" in the opposition party.

The impact of business prosperity on political sloganeering caused two pros to develop a Democratic counterpart for the "middle-of-the-road" position. There is a word for this Democratic equivalent, namely, "moderation."

Former Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, Democrat aspirant, said: "I agree that it is a time for a catching our breath; I agree that moderation is the spirit of the times . . . Moderation, yes. Stagnation, no!" It should be added that the Stevenson speech brought enthusiastic praise from former President Truman.

Another major potential contender for the Democratic presidential nomination, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, endorsed the moderation theme, saying: "There is a cry for moderation in the air. I am in accord with it. But I also know, as you know, that moderation does not mean sitting becalmed on dead center."

MAKES FRIENDS

All of this adds up to the fact that President Eisenhower, a newcomer in politics, has taken a stance which makes friends and influences people.

Of the major Democratic personalities, only Gov. Averell Harriman of New York has thrown down the gauntlet to the middle-of-the road position. He said at a news conference: "There is no such word as 'moderate' in the Democratic party."

"Are we 'moderately' for the farmer?" he asked. "Are we 'moderately' for the small business man? No, we are for him all the way."

MORE CLARITY

Of course, when the public thinks the problem through and recognizes that business is not a special interest but constitutes the facilities by which free men procure more and better goods for a week's work, there will be more clarity in the forthcoming battle of labels.

However much the governor of New York, who is multimillionaire son and heir of the late E. H. Harriman, railroad trust maker, and himself former head of the big Union Pacific system, may shed crocodile tears for little business, the government could not achieve its defense program without heavy reliance on the facilities of the giant corporations.

Nor could anything like the current standard of living in the United States be achieved without the economy and productivity of large business as well as small.

Men, Don't Hesitate to Adopt Children; Spiritual Tie Is Stronger Than Blood

Men, if you have a chance to adopt a baby, don't muff it. The true parent-child relationship is solely spiritual. So don't make the fallacy of thinking blood is thicker than water. Even natural fathers have nothing to do with the children they procreate, for chromosomes are simply 24 tiny batons passed from one runner to another in this unique human race. We don't originate the chromosomes.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case Q-305: Billy B., aged 6 weeks, is a healthy baby boy.

"Oh, Dr. Crane, I have a chance to adopt him," his prospective foster mother exclaimed with shining eyes.

"But my husband vetoes the idea. He is angry and says he will never take any other man's son.

"He concedes that if I were to find a baby girl, he might consider adopting her. But no boy—ever!

"Dr. Crane, we've been married six years and the doctors say I can never have a baby of my own. I've searched and looked and hoped and prayed for three years for this baby.

"Now that I've found him, I don't want to lose him. Will you please talk to my husband for me?"

EGOTISTICAL MEN

Young husbands are often unduly egotistical. And in their wounded pride they may talk harshly to their wives and even curse such babies as Billy, calling them "brats."

But that is due to wrong thinking. The true parent-child relationship is based on love, not blood kinship.

The Bible is thus full of evidences that blood kinship means nothing unless there is also spiritual or love kinship.

Jesus stated that same idea when a messenger informed him that his mother and brothers were outside, waiting for him.

TRUE KINSHIP

"And who is my mother and who are my brethren?" spake Jesus. Then he answered his own question by saying: "Everyone that doeth the will of my Father which art in heaven, the same is my mother and my brother."

So when a husband marries his wife from strange blood lineage, he really "adopts" her. Yet they become much closer than brother and sister.

A man can likewise adopt a son or daughter and they, too, will be closer than flesh-and-blood kin, if they are trained to love and respect one another.

Actually, we have long cherished a delusion about procreation, anyway. A father doesn't create his own children, nor does a mother do likewise.

The 24 chromosomes of the male, which unite with the 24 chromosomes of the female, to produce a new offspring, are not developed by either the father or the mother.

We are simply the temporary "carriers" of the chromosomes which God Almighty started in the human race when the first man and woman were established on the earth.

We haven't the slightest influence on our chromosomes. Our children get nothing original from us, for we don't make the chromosomes. They are just an instance of the continuation of germinal seed from the beginning of time.

So adopt children when you have the chance. And rear them to love and respect you.

You'll find that they will become real sons and daughters, for true kinship is always spiritual, not a matter of blood ancestry.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

'Christmas' Cities Swamped With Mail

Christmas customs of mailing cards and gifts are headaches to all post offices. But the worst headaches occur in towns with names connected with Christmas.

Although Santa Claus, Ind., has a population of only about 250 persons, the volume of mail cleared through its post office each Christmas season is estimated to be around 3½ million pieces.

Fort Chirstmas, Fla., also finds its mail volume far out of proportion to its population of 200, with some 300,000 pieces of mail to handle.

Mrs. W. N. Thorpe, who had been postmistress of Christmas Cove, Maine, resigned recently after 23 years on the job. Because her post office was closed in the winter, she used to take all Christmas cards and packages sent to her for stamping over to South Bristol and remail it.

Sometimes she sent it back at her own expense, for which she was either repaid with thank-you notes or nasty letters.

The new postmistress, Mrs. Catherine Sawyer, lives in South Bristol because the Christmas Cove post office is open only four months in the summer.

Many people in these communities think their town names are handicaps, but there is tradition behind each of them. Santa Claus, Ind., was originally Santafee.

A combination town meeting and Christmas party was staged in 1852 to change that name because there was another Santafee in the state.

Because of the children's shouts for Santa Claus to hurry with their gifts, that name was selected.

Fort Christmas, Fla., was established by the Army during the second Seminole War and finished on Christmas Eve — hence its name.

NO WINTER MAIL — Christmas Cove is fringed with Christmas trees on Rutherford's island off the coast of Maine. Postmark fanciers are stymied by its post office closed in winter.

You Can Feed Family of Nine on $18 a Week

LANSING (AP) — Women! Stop complaining about your food budget. You can feed a family of nine on $18 a week.

So says the State Health Department anyway. But it quickly adds that such a budget should be only for emergencies.

The department says its $18-a-week meal plan will fill all nutritional requirements except vitamin D for 10 cents per person per meal.

A typical day's menu: Brekfast — oatmeal, sugar, milk, bread, margarine; dinner—beans, orange juice, milk, bread, margarine; supper—fried eggs, applesauce, bread, milk, margarine.

"Except in extreme cases, the Health Department wouldn't want to recommend such a menu," sayd

"Even though the food plan includes a chicken in the pot on Sunday, this hardly makes up for eating within very strict limitations day in and day out, given a choice, you would want more variety," she said.

Many bags of groceries brought home by housewives today are high in cost and low in food value, Miss Anderson commented.

She said some family meals cost two or three times as much as the 10-cent-per-person menu worke out by the department and yet they fall short of good nutrition.

Boots Has Weakness for Empty Beer Bottles

DALLAS (AP)—In the past three weeks, Boots, a 4-year-old bulldog-terrier, has lugged a couple of cases of empty beer bottles home to his back yard.

"He isn't going to the dogs," says his master Jerry Waldrop, 16. "He was raised in a nondrinking home and he doesn't drink the stuff. He just comes home in the evenings with a beer bottle in his mouth."

The Waldrops say Boots has good business sense—he passes up empty beer cans which bring no refund for the bottles, which should earn him a tidy income.

Boy, 9, Saves Six From Home Blaze

CHICAGO HEIGHTS, Ill. (AP)—Police today credited a 9-year-old boy with saving the lives of six of his brothers and sisters last night in a fire in their home.

Police Lt. Ezell Irons of Chicago Heights, a Chicago suburb, said Joe Bradley Jr. raced into the burning house several times to carry or lead the children, ranging in age from 2 months to 8 years, to safety. A baby sister, Denise, 15 months, died in the blaze. The family is Negro.

Pope's Late Vision of Christ Called 'Significant'

"So far as has been reported, it is unique in our age," said the Rev. Herbert Rogers, Fordham University theologian.

Not since the fourth century has an occurrence of this kind had the weight of such authority behind it.

"Truly singular and significant," said a Catholic scholar, Msgr. John Dougherty.

"It brings out the proximity of heaven and earth, which so often escapes us in our busy, active lives."

Not since the days of the apostles has there been a recorded vision of Christ more vivid or specific than that by the Roman Catholic pontiff.

GENTLE FIGURE

Italian accounts say that in the depths of his illness last year, but in complete wakefulness, the Pope "saw beside his bed the gentle figure of Jesus," and that Christ spoke to him.

Msgr. Dougherty, of the Immaculate Conception Seminary, Darlington, N.J., said that only once before, so far as cursory research could determine, has the Lord appeared to a Catholic Pope.

That was in the 300s when the Emperor Constantine had halted the savage Christian persecutions in Rome. The vision came to Pope Sylvester as he was consecrating the mother church of St. John Lateran there.

A mosaic in the historic church today recalls the mystical episode.

Although the modern Pope's deep piety and high intellect doubtlessly will produce wide acceptance of the authenticity of his vision, church scholars emphasized an individual Catholic may accept or reject it.

"It isn't binding on the faithful," Father Rogers said.

Fr. John Sheerin, editor of the Catholic World, noted:

"A private revelation, such as that given to the Holy Father, is not part of the teaching given by Christ to the church.

"A Catholic who accepts a private revelation does so not on the infallible teaching authority of the church, but because of the credibility and integrity of the person to whom the revelation has been given."

As late as 1951, the Vatican cautioned against excessive readiness to believe in reported visions by highly emotional persons.

RARE OCCURRENCE

Although there have been numerous visions of the Virgin Mary reported—at Lourdes, Fatima and other shrines—the record of appearances of Jesus are extremely rare.

* * *

1. Pope Sylvester.

2. In the 12th century, St. Francis of Assisi, on an island in Italy's Lake Trasimene, told of seeing Christ on the cross—and of the stigmata—the marks of Christ's crucifixion—appearing on the body of St. Francis himself.

3. In the 14th century, St. Catherine of Sienna, Italy, described manifestations of Christ to her.

4. In the 17th century, St. Margaret Mary, a French nun, had a series of visions in which Jesus appeared in full figure, urging greater devotion to him. It was this phenomenon that started the movement of Catholic devotions to the sacred heart, as a symbol of love.

In Catholic teachings, there are two kinds of visions.

One is the imaginative vision, in which the object is only a mental concepton — like Jacob's ladder. Such "intellectual visions" of Christ—seen with the eyes open or closed—were reported by St. Teresa of Avila, Spain, in the 16th century.

CORPOREAL VISION

The other is the corporeal vision in which the figure is externally present, or a supernatural power so modifies the retina of the eye as to produce the same effect as if the figure actually were present.

From Pope Pius' description, his vision apparently was of the corporeal type—seen with his eyes open and in a wakeful state.

"The occurrence was in keeping with a person of his great holiness and great leadership," Msgr. Dougherty said. "What makes it so tremendously impressive is that it comes from a man of his great intellect and practical mind."

Beyond the events recorded in scripture, church legend describes a later appearance of Christ to the Apostle Peter as he was leaving Rome in the midst of violent attacks on Christians.

"Whither goeth thou?" the story has Peter asking Jesus.

"I return to Rome to be crucified again," Christ is said to have replied. Peter himself then about-faced and returned to Rome.

Scriptures recount that after Christ was slain, he appeared several times before ascending to heaven, including these events:

In a great light, he appeared to St. Paul on the road to Damascus and said, "I am Jesus whom you persecuteth," then dispatched Paul to the city to work for him.

To Mary Magdalene, the risen Jesus said: "Touch me not, for I am not yet ascended to My Father, but go to My brethren and say unto them I ascend unto My Father and your Father and to My God and your God."

9-Year-Old Boy Drowns in Pond Near Reed City

REED CITY (AP) — Nine-year-old Lesley Shauger fell through thin ice and drowned yesterday in Knaut Pond five miles northwest of Reed City.

The boy was playing with cousins, Michael and Richard Garvon. They were 40 feet off shore when the ice broke. The Garvon boys scrambled to safety and ran for help. The pond is 20 feet deep.

Solons to Enter Newsprint War

Lawmaker Tells Firms Group Will Take Action if Price Hikes Continue

WASHINGTON (INS) — Rep. Samuel N. Friedel (D-Md) warned today that Congress will take some action if Canadian newsprint manufacturers continue to raise prices.

Friedel is a member of a House interstate and foreign commerce subcommittee headed by Rep. Arthur Klein (D-N.Y.) which is studying newsprint supplies. It recently made a survey of southern newsprint facilities.

The congressman said that the 'British government's decision to lift restrictions next March 1 on the size of English newspapers "is going to make it tough" for newspapers in this county.

"Much of the newsprint now being furnished American newspapers by Canadian producers will go to England," he said.

Friedel asserted that if Canadian producers take advantage of the situation and raise prices again, "Congress is not going to be asleep." He declined to say, however, what it could do.

Eleven of the 36 major North American producers of newsprint have announced price increases of $3 to $5 a ton.

'QUITE WORRIED'

The Maryland legislator said his group is "quite worried" about what may happen next year, but some of this concern if offset to a degree by indications that southern newsprint production is on the rise.

Friedel said one pulp concern in the south is spending 40 million dollars expanding its facilities, while another is investing 14 million dollars in more modern machinery.

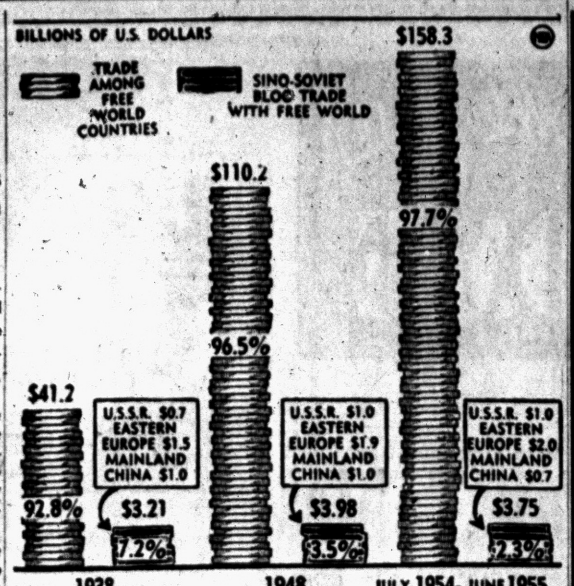

The congressman said: "We were pleasantly surprised while in the south to find that we have all the supply we need down there for newsprint. The forest supply is more than ample.

"However, one problem is that so many producers would rather manufacture tissue papers, wrap the like rather than newsprint because there's more profit in it. We have the resources there, but we have to find some way of encouraging producers to go into newsprint."

'MUST DO SOMETHING'

Rep. John R. Bennett (R-Mich), another member of the newsprint subcommittee, also said, in a separate interview, that Congress "must do something to stimulate greater production."

"But I don't see anything that the government could do. I wouldn't favor fixing prices and I don't want to see the government go into the newsprint business," he remarked.

HOW TRADE WITH REDS SHRINKS — Chart above, from Dept. of Commerce data, shows how the Communist nations' share of the free world's trade has shrunk since 1938. Although the dollar amount of trade with Reds has remained about the same, it is only 2.3 per cent of the total whereas in 1938 it was 7.2 per cent. During this period, trade among the free world's countries rose from 41.2 billion dollars in 1938 to 158.3 billion in 1955. "Eastern Europe" in chart refers to satellite countries Albania, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland, Romania. East Germany is included only in the 1948 and 1954-55 figures.

Troops Still Patrol Quieted New Castle

NEW CASTLE, Ind. (AP)—National Guardsmen continued around-the-clock patrols of the Perfect Circle Corp. foundry area today but no violence had been reported since Connersville infantrymen entered the city Thanksgiving Eve.

Maj. John S. Anderson, the unit commander who also is mayor-elect of Connersville, said no disorders of any kind had been reported.

Gov. George N. Craig ordered out the 95 troops after a fresh outbreak of window smashing at the foundry and shotgunnings of nonstrikers' homes. Guardsmen had been withdrawn only six days earlier after patrolling the area since an Oct. 5 gun battle between nonstrikers and striking CIO United Auto Workers.

Negotiations are to be resumed in Chicago tomorrow in the 18-week-old strike. Federal mediators have said the main obstacle to a settlement is the UAW demand for a union shop.

Needy Philly Woman Had $65,000 Saved

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Miss Katherine Weisler, 83, had lived for years, in apparent poverty, in a tiny south Philadelphia room illuminated only by an oil lamp and heated by a small coal stove.

She had seldom left the room in the 25 years since the death of a sister with whom she had operated a small grocery store until 1930. Neighbors said she went out only to church and to make scant food purchases.

Yesterday relatives took a Thanksgiving chicken to the room. There they found Miss Weisler's body.

Eden's Offering to Israel Open

He's Ready to Discuss 2nd Peace Plan Though First Was Rejected

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Eden says his government still stands ready to help negotiate a Palestine peace settlement although his earlier offer has been rejected by Israel.

Eden told the House of Commons last night his recent declaration that Britain is willing to mediate in any peace talks was made without consulting either the Israeli or Arab governments.

"I took the opportunity of advising both sides that if they want peace they must take some compromise between the positions they have taken up," he said. "I did not attempt to lay down where and how that compromise should be found, nor do I propose to do so now."

Israel turned down the previous offer on grounds it would mean a contraction of the Jewish state. Response from the Arab nations generally has been favorable.

Eden's broad proposal of Nov. 9 suggested settlement might be reached somewhere between the U.N. proposals of 1947 envisaging the creation of separate Jewish and Arab states in the territory that formerly comprised Palestine, and the 1949 armistice settlement allowing the Israelis to hold some war-won tersitory beyond those the U.N. proposed for her.

That's Not the Way Father Drives a Car

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A 14-year-old Oklahoma County farm boy, who carefully watched his father drive, decided to try it on his own yesterday. He landed in Mercy Hospital with a broken leg and several bruises.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith said they had left the boy alone while they visited a friend in the hospital. They said they left the hospital only a few minutes after their son arrived—in an ambulance.

"I don't think he wants to drive very much any more," Mrs. Smith said.

Peiping Radio Salutes Poet Walt Whitman

TOKYO (AP)—Peiping radio broadcast today a lengthy tribute to American poet Walt Whitman on what it said was the 100th anniversary of the publication of his lusty "Leaves of Grass."

(The Modern Library edition of the volume, in a foreword by Prof. John Kouwenhoven of Barnard College, lists the publication date as July 1855).

"The poets of New China," said the broadcast, "prize the works of Whitman as a valuable part of the world cultural heritage which they are to carry forward."

Crash Halts Flights

TOKYO (AP)—Far East Air Force headquarters today grounded all its C124 troop-carrying Globemaster planes pending investigation of the crash of one on Iwo Jima Sunday which killed 10.

SAPULA, Okla. (AP) — Sheriff's officers are searching for an avid western movie or TV fan. An investigation into a building fire disclosed someone had shot a flaming arrow into the door to set the blaze.

Reds Say U.S. Admiral, Chiang, Talked War

TOKYO (AP) — Adm. Felix B. Stump, Pacific commander-in-chief, met today with Gen. L. L. Lemnitzer, United Nations and U.S. Far East commander.

Stump is on a routine visit to Navy installations in the Far East.

Red China's Peiping radio said today that on Formosa Stump held "discussions on increased supply of U.S. military equipment to Chiang Kai-shek and the training plan for the use of new weapons." It asserted he and Chiang exchanged views "on war preparations."

Refugees' Problems Eased by Neighbors

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A German refugee family, Konrad and Ernestine Bussman and their two sons, gave thanks yesterday.

They came to this country under sponsorship of a Ft. Knox master sergeant, but found the sergeant had been transferred to Ireland.

The plight of the refugees was told in the newspapers.

So, yesterday—on Thanksgiving—calls poured in offering housing, turkey dinners and employment.

Japanese Fires Increase

TOKYO (AP)—Fire, a national menace in tinder-box Japan, reached postwar record proportions last year, national fire defense headquarters said today. The agency said 27,870 fires destroyed almost 100 million dollars worth of property in 1954. Both are postwar records.

A British travel report shows an 8.8 per cent increase in American tourists this year.

Suddenly you know how a jet pilot feels!

It happens like that in this fabulous '56 Pontiac.

You know you're in for a thrill the moment you hear the muted purr of the exhaust as the all-new Strato-Streak V-8 comes to life.

At first you'll just want to sail along, smooth and easy, drinking in the new sensations. This long and lovely creation stops, starts, turns, moves and goes with swift and sure precision—as though in response to your wishes themselves.

You lean back luxuriously, listening to the miles whisper past. Then, ahead, you see the opportunity you've been looking for . . . the highway up front arching high over a hill. You touch the accelerator lightly—and only for a moment. Instantly, that great Strato-Streak V-8 takes over. Smooth as soaring, the rush of power catapults you up and over . . . your solo flight!

This is how it feels . . . seemingly limitless power at your command—smooth, effortless power for slower city driving, jet-fast in an emergency to flick you past loiterers on the highway.

By this time you're certain — Pontiac has everything—size, beauty, roadability and with it the greatest "go" and safety ever built into a car.

Drive this fabulous '56 Pontiac and find out how it feels to fly. This car will show you—fast!

Greatest "Go" On Wheels

No other car performs like a Pontiac because Pontiac alone has the Strato-Streak V-8—most modern and efficient power plant in the industry. And for 1956 this great engine delivers 227 blazing horsepower with an ease and smoothness that must be experienced to be believed. For the "go" of the year, go Pontiac!

TICKETS, PLEASE — If this lineup for tickets is any indication, the Pontiac High School J-Hop "Fantasy in Frost," to be held Dec. 3, should draw a big crowd. Manning the ticket booth is Marylee Mogg, general co-chairman for the Hop. Waiting their chance to buy tickets are, left to right, Nancy Wood who is chairman of publicity, Dolores Barron, Marjorie Doyle, and co-chairman Marceiene Dennis. Snowflakes and wintertime decorations will carry out the frosty theme of the dance. Juniors, with their faculty advisor Elma Waterman, have worked hard to make sure the affair will be a big success.

PHS Prepares for Play, J-Hop

By VICKY MICU

Pontiac High School students along with students throughout the city, enjoyed Thanksgiving holidays this week, with the return to school scheduled for Monday. Because of the short week, much activity was suspended until next week.

Juniors were one group who, despite the short week, remained busy working on the fast approaching J-Hop. "Fantasy in Frost" is the theme of the J-Hop that will take place a week from tomorrow in the high school gymnasium from 9 p.m. to midnight.

Under a canopy of snowflakes and winter figures, juniors will dance to the music of Sam Cosma and his orchestra. Chairman for the affair is Marylee Mogg, assisted by co-chairman Marceiene Dennis. Juniors next week will order rings and pins.

Not to be overshadowed by juniors, the senior class was hard at work this week. Meetings were set for Monday to make plans for the senior prom, which will take place in January. Time, theme, and committees must be decided upon.

Seniors also returned proofs for senior pictures, and some re-sittings were made. College bound seniors also met, and many of them checked up on scholarships and application blanks.

Hardest working group at PHS this week was the cast of "Our Town," Thornton Wilder hit play to be presented by the high school next Thursday and Friday. Tickets went on reserve this week, and cast and committee members were busy selling tickets, sewing on costumes and rehearsing.

CAST LISTED

Leading part of the "stagemanager" will be played by Bob Crandall; Dr. Gibbs by Ken Lenigan; Joe Crowell by Ronnie Brown; Howie Newsome by Jerry Young; Mrs. Gibbs, Marie Meyer; Mrs. Webb, Carolyn Hawn; George Gibbs, Phebe Henderson; Wally Webb, Bob Skinner; Emily Webb, Barbara Kenney; Professor Willard, Bog Groenberg; Mr. Webb, Don North.

The woman in the balcony will be Cecile Dumbrigge; man in the auditorium, Harold Cummings; lady in the box, Donna Chilvers; Simon Stimson, Jack Larson; Mrs. Soames, Carol Venner; Constable, Ray Freebury; Si Crowell, Harold Mapely; Sam Craig, Dick Kors; Joe Stoddard, Leonard Berry.

Baseball players will be Charles Williams, Fred Roeser, Bob Keavy; assistant stage managers are Charles Williams and Ray Freebury. The wedding guests will be Mary Chasteen, Janet Ellender, Toby Gilbert, Marilyn Gregg, Marilee Minesinger, Norma Passage.

the cast will be assisted by singers from Central Elementary School. Monday for the "More Completing the cast will be the church choir, comprised of Jeanne Andrews, Judy Baker, Kay Buchner, Jo Ann Dearing, Marie Dworin, Ray Freebury, Elizabeth Gregory, Arlene Kehrl, Sally Maier, Helene Prizant, Sonja Ryan, Joyce Rose, Sally Roth, Jo Ann VanTassel, Charles Williams and Janet Wiltgen.

Monday evening, nearly 40 high school girls attended the session of girls' basketball sponsored by the Parks and Recreation Dept. Teams were organized and practice play took place.

The Radio Workshoppers were hard at work also, this week preparing for forthcoming broadcasts. Next Wednesday on the "It's Story Time" series, the story of a flying squirrel and his animal friends will be presented in the show entitled "Flying Squirrel Gathers Bulrushes." Judy Lauckner will be the Story Princess, and Wonderful Than Magic" series, the science show will be entitled "Penny's Pet Salamander."

MAGIC ACT IS FUN — Perched atop a desk as he gives an example of legerdemain at Wever Junior High School is 7B student Randy Rupprecht, a member of Instructor Leo Kawicki's Magic Club. The club, always a popular one, meets every Thursday morning for instruction in magic stunts and some entertaining demonstrations by members. "Sometimes our tricks don't quite come off," says Randy, "and that brings a laugh. But generally, we're getting to be sm-o-o-o-th operators." The young magicians find their art a popular one at parties, and say it also gives them a prestige with younger brothers and sisters that nothing can quite equal.

Junior Highs Roll Along With Dinner, Programs

Junior High Schools throughout the city are rolling along in high, with pre-Thanksgiving events and plans for Christmas festivities taking a huge slice out of the shortened holiday week.

FEAST AT WEVER

Wever Junior High students practiced up for the Thanksgiving Day feast by a kind of cramming they never do otherwise, even before exams. That is, charming in the turkey at the annual school Thanksgiving dinner held Tuesday. For the sum of 35 cents, the school served Turkey and all the trimmings—mashed potatoes, fruit salas, cranberry sauce, pumpkin pie —and students say it really prepared them for the big test at their family dinner tables Thursday. Over 600 were at the dinner.

The students are working hard at the Christmas float. Right now they're building the oven, in which the witch will be thrown during the all - city parade on Dec. 2. Sue Johnson has been chosen for the part of Gretel on the float, and Michael Nyberg will be Hansel.

Wednesday from 3 to 5 p.m. the Booster Club will put on its Varsity Drag, for all the school. The dance, honoring the football team and managers, will include a chorus line, singing and a skit during intermission time.

Magic Club students have fun mystifying others with their tricks.

Wednesday night the ninth grade Family Night will be held, sponsored by the PTSA, starting at 7 p.m.

Looking to the future, homerooms are starting to work up plans for Christmas parties.

ASSEMBLY AT EASTERN

At Eastern Junior High, an all-school Thanksgiving Assembly was held Wednesday in the auditorium. Skits symbolizing the "Four Freedoms" were put on by Herbert Sanford's civics classes and speech classes directed by instructors Dawn Davis and Mildred Loper.

There were vocal numbers by the girls and boys glee clubs, and the audience participated in such familiar songs as "Come Ye Thankful People, Come," "We Gather Together," and "This Is My Country." Narrator for the program was Frances Ward.

The audience joined in the pledge to the flag and the song which closed the program. Staff members who worked hard to make the assembly a success were Henry Elling, Margaret Snyder and Florine Tompkins.

"Be-Bop Hop" is the name of the dance which Maurice Levine's homeroom is sponsoring right after school Tuesday in the girls gym. Refreshments and entertainment will highlight the activity.

PROGRAM AT WASHINGTON

The Washington Junior High Girls Glee Club filled the air with song Wednesday, when they held their special program under the direction of instructor Faith Cook.

Some 300 Washington boys have started annual basketball tournaments. Twenty 7th, 8th and 9th grade homerooms, with their captains, are ready for their second game.

To keep basketball rolling, Mrs. Betty Heimke and her Boosters Club is having a contest to pick this year's cheers. A skit for the pep session is also being planned.

St. Michael's Gives to Needy

St. Fred's Set for Varsity Dance Tonight

In Pontiac's two Catholic high schools, a varsity club dance tonight and the distribution of Thanksgiving baskets to the needy Wednesday were among activities that claimed students' attention.

At St. Frederick High, reporter Ann Schachern says students are eagerly awaiting the Varsity Club dance which the club is sponsoring tonight. Dancing from 8:30 to midnight will be to the music of Elaine Titus and her band. Those who failed to get tickets can do so at the door. Janet also reports:

The basketball team has started practice and moans and groans can be heard from various centers, guards, and forwards as they climb or descend the steps. Coach Wright says that practice makes perfect, so the boys are in there fighting. St. Freds first plays St. Clements, Dec. 9, at Center Line.

Cheerleaders, too, are practicing hard for the coming basketball season, making the "winter changeover" from football to basketball. Captain Betty Bader announced that senior Jo Ann Johnson would fill the vacant place on the varsity cheering squad. Moans and groans also have been heard from Jo Ann—she isn't used to turning cartwheels.

The choral club has been making "beautiful music together." Director Dominic Kline will be content with only perfection for the Christmas cantata, so practice has already started on old Christmas favorites as well as many new selections.

ST. MICHAEL ACTIVE

At St. Michael High sodality projects have been most prominent among school activities this week, according to Press correspondent Janet English. She reports as follows:

Thanksgiving baskets were prepared for the needy by the senior class and the sodality. The latter sent their contributions to Mensecotta for the aged residents.

Thirty sodalists attended the Vocation Day held Sunday at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral. Those who attended said the afternoon, spent in inspecting and studying the various exhibits, provided invaluable information as to what is being done and can be done for others.

Tuesday, members of the sodality held a candy sale in which the entire high school took part. The profits are to be used for some future project.

Three cheers for seniors Jerry Steinhelper and Duane Priebe, two of St. Michael's gridiron heroes, who received honorable mention from the Michigan Catholic for their outstanding accomplishments on the football field this past season.

The American History classes, which are made up entirely of seniors, embarked upon a little close harmony last week. (Well, let's give them credit for trying). They had just completed a study of Michigan past and present, and had a desire to give way with an expression of patriotism. So, under the direction of Mother Dolors, these classes sang "Michigan, My Michigan."

READY FOR A BALL? — "You bet!" says Varsity Club member Charlie Phipps as he demonstrates how he and other letter-men literally stood on their heads to prepare a bang-up Varsity Club Ball, to be held tonight at St. Frederick High School. Holding Charlie's feet to make sure he doesn't let down on his efforts is Dave Jones, decorations chairman.

Thrills, Chills, Grins at Area Highs

Thrills or chills, laughs or tears — anything you name, they had it at area high schools this week. Activities run the gamut of a Thanksgiving production, a spine-chilling mystery play, a formal Charity Ball and even a scheduled catch-as-catch-can Sadie Hawkins Dance.

AT BLOOMFIELD HILLS

Bloomfield Hills High School's 7th and 8th graders have the Sadie Hawkins dance scheduled from 7 to 10 tonight. The junior high femmes warn they're out to get their men, by hook or by crook. Looks like the best thing the boys can do is turn out en masse, so they won't be outnumbered.

The Hills students got a chance to soak in some really highbrow music, when stars from the New York City Opera Co. appeared as guests at an auditorium performance. By the applause, the students fully enjoyed the performance.

Since serving the first hot lunch last October, an average of 349 students have been fed daily in the school cafeteria. The room is attractive with its light green walls and contrasting red columns. Red-topped tables, natural birch stacking chairs, and efficient all-steel kitchen and serving tables make the cafeteria something to write home about.

AT WEST BLOOMFIELD

West Bloomfield High School's spine-chiller "The Night of Jan. 16" kept capacity crowds on the edge of their seats during its three performances Tuesday and Wednesday. Comments everywhere were enthusiastic in their praise of both play and players.

Winner of the Good Citizens chosen jointly by the senior class contest is Greta Oman, senior and the faculty.

Basis for the choice was patriotism, service, dependability and general citizenship. The contest is sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

AT ROCHESTER

Highlight of the week's festivities at Rochester High School was the year's first formal dance, the Charity Ball. A park scene and falling autumn leaves lent atmosphere, while Phil Grahm and his orchestra provided music.

The ball is sponsored annually by the junior and senior girls of RHS with all proceeds earmarked for charity.

Spirits at Rochester have been given a real boost with the forming of a new "Step For Pep Club," sponsored by Daniel Eskin. President of the club is Joyce Tolhurst; veep is Ron Nordquist; and secretary-treasurer is Barbara Jones.

The senior play, "Time Out for Ginger," is still a topic for discussion among Rochesterites. The play was a sellout at both performances.

AT EMMANUEL

With Sunday's Thanksgiving play a success — close to 1,000 persons jammed the auditorium and enthusiastically applauded the production — students of Emmanuel Christian High School are already rehearsing for their next venture — a Christmas play.

Sue Langdon will have the lead part of Norma in "Home for Christmas." The three-act play will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 21 in the auditorium.

Theme of the Emmanuel float in Pontiac's Christmas parade Dec. 3 will be "Christmas in Many Lands." About 15 students under the direction of instructor Floyd Osburn are working like beavers to construct what they hope will be the top-ranking float in the parade. They hope to have it ready by Monday or Tuesday.

5-Day Holiday at WTHS

By JEAN LIMATTA

With an extra day added, Waterford Township High School students will celebrate the Thanksgiving holiday until next Tuesday.

Monday Waterford Township educators will attend a workshop to study standardized tests that will be given at Waterford schools next year. Purpose of the tests is to compare Waterford's educational progress with that of schools all over the nation.

Although students attended only three days of school this week, classes and clubs kept them on their toes. Term papers were worked on, and tests were given by many instructors.

Wednesday, students heard a 15-minute Thanksgiving assembly over the public address system, presented by Speech II classes under the direction of Instructor Patty Looman.

Grange Rips Government Foreign Farm Program

CLEVELAND (AP)—While a farm emergency exists at home, the government is blocking competitive sale of surplus crops overseas by encouraging old customers to raise their own farm products, the nation's oldest farm organization charged today.

Such government practices are making "second-class citizens" out of the little and middle-sized American farmers, whose income has dropped to prewar levels, it was stated in a report adopted last night by delegates to the national Grange convention.

The Grange has a membership of 850,000 in 37 states. Its 89th annual convention closes today.

"American agriculture is in a state of emergency," the report said. It added:

"Neither 90 per cent, nor 75 per cent, nor 60 per cent price support levels provide any assurance against the buildup of surplus stocks of major export crops as long as government policies block the competitive sale of those crops on the world market.

"As one branch of the government is sponsoring lower price supports and advocating curtailment of production, another branch of the government is restricting foreign sales and endorsing huge expenditures to expand the agricultural output of foreign nations that once were our customers.

"Those foreign nations are now competing with us and underselling us."

Delegates were told that 9 per cent of the nation's farmers produce 51 per cent of farm commodities that move commercially.

Some 1½ million farmers earn less than $1,000 a year, while on a somewhat higher scale are 3,300,000 family farmers.

The report said their incomes have been sliding down in order to foster agriculture in other countries, at the same time that the nation's wages, corporation earnings, retailing, processing, communications companies and other parts of the economy are experiencing record prosperity.

Congress and the administration were urged to provide for export sales at competitive prices to recoup a fair share of world markets, to establish stronger soil conservation measures, to set up commodity-by-commodity programs to match production with demands, and to adjust trade programs.

Approved by the Grange were resolutions favoring social security for farms, expansion of federal highway programs, catastrophe insurance with government backing, a strong United Nations, uniform traffic laws in all states, and gradual reduction of armaments.

* * *

The Grangers voted disapproval of any threat to abolish the rural electrification administration and frowned on toll television, a federal sales tax, socialized medicine, the serving of liquor on airplanes, daylight saving time and peacetime military training.

Hospital Increases Electricians' Wages

Pontiac General Hospital trustees have unanimously adopted an increase in pay for electricians at the hospital in a move to adjust the scale to that of city electricians.

The trustees also agreed to change the classification of electrician 2 (M11) to M10 and boost the pay to $2.63 per hour, a 13-cent increase.

The adoption arose from a grievance filed June 13 by Local 100, Government and Civic Employes Organizing Committee on behalf of Lawrence Goldsworthy, an electrician at the hospital.

The union charged that the hospital failed to comply with the city of Pontiac's wage scale in the electrician 2 classification.

GETTING OUT OF THE WOODS
A Game

Junior Editors were hurrying to get to Grandmother's house before the sun went down and the woods became dark. But they kept seeing all sorts of interesting things. And while they stopped to look, the time slipped by.

Paste this game on cereal box cardboard and color with crayons. Make the paths yellow and the fields green. Color all the obstacles brightly.

Use small buttons, one to each player, as markers. Toss a penny to determine who plays first and the number of moves. If it's heads, make two moves; if it's tails, one. Play in turn.

Enter at the lower left corner and follow the path. If you stop to watch the butterfly, this will send you back one square. So will the red leaf, the mushrooms and grapes.

When you come to the bear you'll jump two squares ahead, right over the bag of nuts. The other obstacles will send you back one each.

You must toss the right number to get out exactly — or you'll have to toss again. The first one out of the woods is the winner.

Junior Editors pays $10 for any reader's idea that is used. Write your suggestion to "Junior Editors" in care of this newspaper; it cannot be acknowledged or returned.

Black Suede Shoe Sought in Slaying

CHICAGO (AP)—Police searched today for a second black suede slipper as a possible clue in the strangulation of a 48-year-old divorced mother of six.

The body of Mrs. Edith Jamieson was found Wednesday morning a few blocks from her South Side home. She had been bound with rope and garroted. Police said she was neither robbed nor raped.

One of her slippers was found a short distance from an alley where her body was discovered by a man on his way to work. Police hoped discovery of the matching suede slipper might provide an important clue.

Police said Robert S. Dean, 37, a cab driver, was given a lie test but it was inconclusive. Dean was picked up after a coworker of Mrs. Jamieson in a downtown bank said the victim had been getting a "free ride" home in a cab after work. The cab driver will be questioned again today. He denied knowing the woman.

Freight Train Derailed

WAMSUTTER, Wyo. (AP)—Twenty-three cars of an eastbound Union Pacific freight train were derailed three miles west of here yesterday, tying up traffic on the railroad's main line through Wyoming. Railroad officials said there were no injuries and the cause of the derailment was undetermined.

Union Money for Politics Probe Won't Be Held

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Hennings (D-Mo) says his Senate subcommittee on constitutional rights will not check on whether labor union members are being made to contribute to help political causes with which they are out of sympathy.

Hennings wrote Sen. Curtis (R-Neb) yesterday that the subcommittee has a policy of staying clear of problems that are "capable of full solution . . .

UM Profs Grow Miniature Plants

Lab Tests Accidentally Reveal Pioneer Method for Half-Size Produce

ANN ARBOR (AP)—University of Michigan scientists working with chemicals to clean bacteria off plant roots have discovered a way of growing miniature plants.

Dr. A. G. Norman, professor of botany, says the miniatures are flourishing plants, half the size of their normal brothers born at the same time.

During investigations of root growth, Dr. Norman said, a number of anti-bacterial chemicals were tested for ridding the roots of bean plants of unwanted external micro-organisms.

"To our surprise," we found that the compound pyridinethione repressed growth of the whole plant in proportion to the concentration applied," he said.

So the doctors decided to try the method with other plants. Soon they had miniature tomato plants, cucumber, corn, petunia plants and others. It satisfied them that their first experiment had been no quirk.

Each miniature plant produces its own half size fruit. Cucumber vines only a few inches long bore miniature cucumbers and healthy bean plants, only a foot high, flowered and bore small beans.

Dr. Norman thinks the chemical sets only on the roots, limiting their size and their ability to support a larger plant. He also found that too much of the chemical kills the plants.

One discovery: Seeds from the swarf plants grow normal sized plants.

There is little commercial value seen in the process now. But the experiments have taught scientists a little more of the nature of growing plants.

Crusading Mayor Vindicated for Unusual Charity Fines

MADRID (INS) —The barren mountains of the Sierra Morena in southern Spain are the setting for many a legend of generous bandits who stole from the rich to give to the poor.

The Supreme Court of Spain has vindicated the mayor of a mountain village accused of doing just the same.

Agustin Sanchez Lopez-Conesa, a tall, handsome landowner with all the dignity of a true Andalucian, was 30 and full of new ideas when he became mayor of Santisteban Del Puerto on March 30, 1946.

His town, perched high in the Sierra Morena, was one of the most miserable in the drought-stricken province of Jaen. Reliance on a single crop — olives — and the general depression of Spain at the time had brought actual starvation to Santisteban.

When Don Agustin found a worker dead of starvation on a roadside, he says, "I decided there were too many people of means in the town to allow the poor to die of hunger." He knew he could expect little help from the hard-pressed government.

With the approval of his town council, Don Agustin established a benefit fund and put down 1,000 pesetas ($25) of his own. Voluntary contributions began rolling in and the starving were fed.

"Then I decided that charity was not enough. We had to give the people work," Don Agustin says. In addition to the benefit fund, he established a "special account" in the town books and more funds came.

Don Agustin built two schools and 14 houses for the homeless, he constructed two new streets and paved others, he built water mains and put up a post office and a labor union building.

Local artesans were put to work to replace the church images and an altar destroyed during the Civil War. Much to the pride of the citizens, the town band was put in uniform and the town hall was made presentable.

Two thousand of Santisteban's 8,500 inhabitants had been unemployed. Now there was work for all. Santisteban became one of the most prosperous towns in Jaen.

GOOD WORKS COSTLY

But Don Agustin's good works cost money. He had raised 604,367.30 pesetas (about $15,000) through many devices.

He relied largely on voluntary contributions. He also instituted special fines — when he ran his car into a piece of municipal property he fined himself 1,000 pesetas. He fined his mother, his relatives and his friends and enemies alike.

When Don Agustin threw Cruz Nunez Vidal in jail for 34 hours to force him to pay a contribution of 2,000 pesetas ($50), he went too far.

Vidal and two others brought a criminal suit against Don Agustin in the provincial court of Jaen in April, 1949. Don Agustin was removed from his job immediately.

Five years later — in July, 1954 — the Jaen court found Don Agustin guilty of "illegal taxation," sentenced him to one month in jail, deprived him of his civil rights for six years, and ordered him to pay back the 604,367.30 pestas. But the court acknowledged that Don Agustin had made good use of the money.

Don Agustin appealed to the Supreme Court in Madrid. Fifty inhabitants of Santisteban came all the way to Madrid to sit through the hearings.

When the decision was announced they cheered. The Supreme Court "fully absolved" Don Agustin because he had been "inspired . . . with the sole desire to solve honorably and effectively the problems" of Santisteban.

Livonia Woman Dies After Suffering Burns

LIVONIA (INS)—A 60-year-old woman who was burned over 70 per cent of her body when her clothing caught fire while she prepared dinner, died yesterday in Wayne County General Hospital.

Mrs. Edna C. Burken was found unconscious on the kitchen floor by her husband, William, 64. Livonia Police believe Mrs. Burken's sleeve ignited as she passed her arm over a burner.

Surefire Stream Cleaner Plugged by Inventor

COTTER, Ark. (INS) — Fishermen, if you want to catch bass, then you'd better jot down the name of Ambrose Lafferty, Cotter, Ark., in your little book.

For this 65-year-old guide has developed a fishing lure that many anglers will tell you is a surefire "stream cleaner."

This plug—Ambrose whittled his first one 20 years ago and discovered that people would pay money for it—is made out of sassafras wood and is as nameless as a new-born suckling pig.

The natives call them "hambones." The famous outdoor writer Robert Page Lincoln termed them "Sassafras Specials," while most of the anglers refer to them as "Ambrose" lures.

Ambrose doesn't call them anything—he just whittles them. Each year when he finishes his duties as a guide at Elmo Hurst's float line operation on the White river in Southern Missouri and Arkansas, he hibernates with his jackknife, some sassafras blocks, and a batch of "store-bought" gang hooks and turns his home into one of the largest one-man fishing lure factories in the country.

During the whittling season, Ambrose turns out about 1,000 lures—and they're gobbled up by hungry bass fishermen. He does all his own work—from applying the hardware to painting the plug.

Ambroses's lure should work — he's spent 40 of his years guiding fishing and float parties on the cool White river. He noticed that when a large plug was cast into the waters, it startled the bass.

The idea for the "hambones" was born when he reasoned that a lightweight plug, with good action, might not create as much of a disturbance.

Ambrose picked Sassafras over cedar because he considers it more nearly waterproof. Although difficult to cast, the lure has made a hit with spin fishermen. It is a topwater lure that travels under water at the depth of about two feet when being retrieved.

Modern techniques invaded Ambros's operation last year when he installed a jig saw with which to tackle the tougher blocks of sassafras. He still puts the finishing touches on each plug with his knife.

He had his eye on the future when he mechanized. He plans to retire as a guide one of these days, when he does he will be able to turn out about 4,000 "Sassafras Specials."

* * *

Ambrose's retirement will make a lot of anglers unhappy, but the increased output of his "factory" will be good news to bass fishermen the country over.

Goods Output Hike Seen

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Federal Reserve Board believes that Americans will produce about 387 billion dollars worth of goods and services by the end of 1955, approximately seven per cent more than last year.

Sees Hawaii, Alaska Winning State Status

WASHINGTON (INS) — An advocate of statehood for Hawaii and Alaska said today there is "a good chance" Congress will act favorably next year on admitting the territories to the union.

Rep. Arthur L. Miller (R-Neb) predicted that both the House and the Senate will give their approval "if President Eisenhower's recommendations on Alaska are accepted."

Hair Stylists Predict Christmas of 'Swirlawaves'

'Ladylike Short' Has Star Billing

Boyish Coiffures Are Not in Vogue for Holiday Time

The artists are members of the Styles Body of the Hairdressers Board of Trade of New York, Inc., in Atlanta for the All-Star Beauty Forum, a gathering of 1,200 beauticians from all over the Southeast.

"The "swirlawave" is a deep, swirling wave that shows up in creations by each of the artists, hair styles designed to highlight the holiday season.'

All hairdos shown were described as "ladylike short," as opposed to the boyish short of not so long ago.

The swirlawave showed up in various places—swirled across the back of the head in a dramatic sideswept hairdo, swirled into a modified upswept effect, swirled back from the forehead—any way the individual artist felt like interpreting the trend.

ORIENTAL EFFECT

The Oriental influence, showing up particularly in makeup, was carried out in modified form in the swirlawave hairdos. The Oriental effect might come, for instance, in the form of a half bang.

The Italian influence, though not pronounced as it has been, was carried out in some of the models —not in an unkempt look, but in flat, flirtatious curls framing the face of the model.

Some of the styles were described by their creators as semi-Italian, with an Oriental influence, and designed in general to compliment the features of the subject.

Hair in all cases was cut short enough to leave a "kissable neckline," and then swept either forward, or from one side to the other, upward. Soft bangs or loose curls around the face contributed to the "ladylike" effect advocated by all the artists.

Even models with dramatic coloring were given a general softening swirl, rather than the sleek look so popular a few months ago.

The styles are designed for easy combing as well as beauty.

Pat Favole, styles director of the group, demonstrated the ease with which his model could comb her backswept waves into place. Properly cut and set, the swirlawave is designed to hold its shape through all holiday festivities.

Pigskin gloves keep their softness if a few drops of glycerine are added to the last rinse water when they're washed.

A roast carves more easily if it's allowed to cool half an hour after it is taken from the oven.

The youthful zest and carefree spirit of the old court jester inspires this Jester's Fling coiffure designed by the official Hair Fashion Committee of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association. The wings sweeping upward from the temples recall the pennants and streamers of a jester's collar and scepter in a theme of gaiety especially suited for the winter season's party fun.

A dramatic sweep of wave inspires breathtaking loveliness for evening glamor, and romantic flair for daytime smartness, in the Swan Wing swirlawave coiffure by the Official Hair Fashion Committee of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association. Note that the beautiful swan wing effect of the wave is the result of an extremely fine sensibility for line in the design of the coiffure.

Church Auxiliary Planning Bazaar

By RUTH SAUNDERS

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Church Cranbrook will hold its annual bazaar Wednesday afternoon from 1 until 5 and tea will be served.

The bazaar will be an international affair with decorations and Mrs. Dwight C. Ensign, president of the auxiliary, announces that Mrs. Hugh Ralston is chairman of the bazaar assisted by Mrs. Maxwell E. Fead, in charge of the Japanese tea.

Mrs. Max Roensch will manage the baked goods counter where many foreign delicacies will be offered, along with recipes for some. Mrs. N. C. Kern will preside over the apron booth, Mrs. William McNamee will direct the ABC group's North Pole and Mrs. Francis McMath will have the fish pond.

Mrs. George Cutter will supervise the plant display, Mrs. J. Beall, the kitchen counter, Mrs. Melville Lindquist, stuffed toys, and Mrs. George Dixon, candies.

Mrs. W. K. Barclay is in c ge of the colorful decorations.

LUNCHEON PLANNED

Next Wednesday Mrs. George T. Trumbull and her daughter, Mrs. William D. Seibert, will entertain at a luncheon in the Trumbull home, "Springwood," on Dunston road.

The luncheon will honor Mrs. Donald Graves who has recently moved here with Mr. Graves from Las Vegas, Nev.

Guests will include Mrs. Jess D. Chamberlin, Mrs. Frederick Gagnier, Mrs. John Adamson, MKrs. Gene White, Mrs. Robert E. Fife, Mrs. William K. Downey, Mrs. George T. Trumbull Jr., Mrs. Thomas Torgerson and Mrs. Jerry C. Earl.

On Dec. 10 the Birmingham Junior League will give its annual party for crippled children at the Cranbrook Institute of Science.

St. Dunstan Guild will celebrate its 25th anniversary by again producing the very first play put on when the guild was started in 1930. "The Lost Elevator," a one-act show by Percival Wilde, was given in Brookside School that year. Mrs. Harry D. Hoey will again take the leading part.

Mrs. John Warner is the director.

A play given in 1941 will also be repeated with all members of the original cast taking part. It is "The Pride of the Claghornes" by George S. Kaufman and Howard Dietz.

The cast again includes Harry D. Hoey, J. Morrison Taylor, John W. Knecht, Mr., and Mrs. John W. Blanchard and Miss Jessie Winter.

The second act from "The Torchbearers" by George Kelly will complete the programs to be given Dec. 2 and 3 in the Cranbrook Pavilion. Mrs. Robert Harris is the director and Mrs. F. C. Guest, the producer.

Henry S. Booth and Alan Wentz are designing and constructing the sets, Mrs. Edward T. Bennett is in charge of properties, Ned Schneider will manage the lighting and Mrs. Frederick G. Weed is in charge of makeup.

Mrs. Charles Conrad is looking up costumes assisted by Barbara McDonald, Mary Elizabeth Smith, Marguerite Jones and Mrs. Jasper B. Reid.

Oakland Hills Country Club will honor its president, Norbert J. Brennan, at a formal dinner-dance Dec. 3.

Plans Revealed for Greek Night in Hellenic Hall

Mrs. William Mitchell is general chairman of Greek Night to be given by Philoptohos, the women's auxiliary of St. George Greek Orthodox Church Sunday evening. The affair will be held in the Tellenic Hall on Mariva avenue at 7:30.

Mrs. George Pratt is ticket chairman, Mrs. Phillip Christi is entertainment chairman and Mrs. Nick Williams and Mrs. George Varon are cochairmen of the refreshment committee. Mrs. Soterious Gouvellis is publicity chairman.

A Greek band will play for folk dancing, and homemade Greek pastries and food made by the women of the club will be served during the evening.

Mrs. Bohlman Named Leader of Ruth Circle

Mrs. Fred Bohlman was elected president of the Ruth Missionary Circle of the Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church Tuesday afternoon.

Others elected for the coming year were Mrs. Lyle Cox, vice-president; Mrs. Walter Hubner, recording secretary; Mrs. Lloyd Hoyt, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Harry Lunsford, treasurer.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Eugene Hoisington, and Mrs. Bohlman presented the program.

It was reported that hospital gowns and scrapbooks made by the group have been sent to Egypt for distribution.

Mrs. Glenn Hoisington of Northfield drive was hostess for the circle meeting.

The next meeting will be a Christmas party Dec. 12.

Fabric dyes are frequently used these days to stain unpainted furniture. It should be covered with an outer coat, shellac or varnish.

Blood Collection to Be Discussed

On Wednesday Mrs. John Blanchard of Bloomfield Hills, chairman of the blood advisory committee, and Mrs. Mildred Bennett, executive secretary, both of Oakland County Chapter, American Red Cross, will attend the regional blood committee meeting at the St. Clair Chapter House in Port Huron.

Regulations and suggestions on mobile planning and operating procedure will be discussed by representatives from both the career staff and volunteer staff of each chapter attending.

They will also discuss intra-region transfer of blood and blood credit, that is, mutual aid between counties in the need for blood.

Patriotic Tree Theme

You can make an attractive Yule tree for the table by trimming a white one with large beads as well as ornaments.

Girl Says Goodnight in Hallway

Her Escort Thinks She Should Unlock Door First

By EMILY POST

"I am presently dating a girl who feels that it is proper for a boy to say goodnight in the hall and leave, after which she unlocks her door and enters her apartment.

"I feel it is rather awkward to leave the girl standing in the hall, and am of the opinion that she (or perhaps I) should unlock the door, say goodnight in the doorway and closet the door as soon as I start to leave. I would appreciate your advice on this matter."

Answer: I agree with you.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My good wife passed away two months ago. No one can ever take her place, but I am very lonely and long for companionship of the right kind.

"Can you tell me what is the conventoinal length of time that should elapse before a widower can show attention to another woman without causing comment."

Answer: Six months.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Would it be proper for me, an engaged man, to go to a wedding to which my fiancee was not invited? I received an invitation to the wedding of an ex-Army friend of mine and my fiance thinks that I should decline the invitation since she was not invited. The bridegroom-to-be knows that I am engaged but he has never met my fiance."

Answer: You should write or call your ex-Army friend and tell him that the bride's mother doesn't know that you are engaged. Tell him your fiancee's name and give her address, and take it for granted that she will be sent an invitation.

"Dear Mrs. Post: What is one supposed to say to a man and his wife receiving at their golden wedding anniversary? I mean when the guest doesn't know either one very well, but is a friend of a member of the family?"

Answer: All best wishes.

Paris Vogue Determined by Fabrics

PARIS (INS)—In Paris you can tell a fashionable lady by the fabric of her clothes, which changes according to hour and occasion.

Leather coats and jackets this season are considered high style, but chic Parisiennes wear them for sports-wear only.

Tweed has proved so popular that there is hardly any woman in Paris without at least one tweed garment, a coat, suit, skirt or dress. You may wear black and white tweed in the afternoon. But keep the colored tweed clothes day-time and change into something else if you go out after six.

Velvet can now be worn around the clock, particularly if it's in a neutral shade such as beige, grey, brown or black.

Women in Paris wear jersey all day and all evening. The simplest jersey sweater, for example, can go any place in Paris as long as the skirt worn with it marks the hour or occasion. Don't wear a black skirt sweater combined with a black skirt before lunch. It looks sad. But with a rough tweed skirt it turns smart and Parisian.

Elegant Parisiennes wear taffeta and satin only when they really "dress up" for a party, theater or a very fashionable restaurant. In smaller restaurants and even at cocktail parties you usually see them in that elegant "little faille or velvet.

Butter pans before melting chocolate if you want to pour it easily without sticking.

Styles Reflect Yule Spirit

Light weight Pellon shapes the smooth fitting midriff and flaring skirt of this holiday dress by Mr. Mort. An all-over cafe-print covers the cream-colored silk cotton background, and the empire bodice has a deep rounded neckline with shoestring ties.

Here is Suzy Perette's unerring copy of one of Dior's designs straight from Paris. In black peau de soie, a smooth lined bodice has a wide cut V-neckline which extends into short cap sleeves. The skirt curves out gradually over the hips with two inverted unpressed pleats on either side which fan out in graceful folds.

Personal News of Interest

Celebrating Thanksgiving dinner in the Emmanual Baptist Church were members of the Harry White family of North East boulevard. Thirty-four relatives attended.

Mrs. Clarence Whisner of Des Moines, Iowa arrived Thursday evening at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gortner of Orchard Lake road. Mrs. Whisner will leave for her home Monday.

Yule Plans Made by Wesleyan Class

Christmas plans were made when the Wesleyan Class of the First Methodist Church met at the home of the Lester Mehlbergs on North East boulevard.

The class will give a Christmas basket to the mission, and will hold a farewell party for M.A.L. Norris, former teacher of the class.

Devotions were read at the recent meeting by Mrs. William Kovin. She showed colored slides of Plymouth and Provincetown, describing rituals of the Pilgrims and the first Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Robert Murphy, Mrs. Ralph Williams and Mrs. Dudley Colby were hostesses to the class. The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Blackett on Dixie highway.

Leaving Hospital

Mrs. Ray Upchurch will arrive at her home on Deland street Saturday after six weeks in Henry Ford Hospital, wher she underwent major surgery. A registered and special duty nurse, Mrs. Upchurch was formerly associated with Pontiac General Hospital.

Boy Upsets Plans With Unexpected Visits

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: Before we moved here I'd been going steady for 10 months. Until school started we continued to go steady, but when I got on my feet in my new school I wanted to date with my new friends, so I ended the steady business. I told him I still liked him and would date him when he came to see me.

"So now he comes up without letting me know, and I usually have a date, as I'm going out quite often with another boy.

"I don't want to hurt my old friend's feelings, but how can I let him know that I can't break a date just because he turns up unexpectedly?"

Answer: If he has turned up at your house several times only to find you getting ready to go out with someone else, he should have learned his lesson. But he apparently keeps on taking his chances. If he's dashed enough he'll get discouraged and won't come to see you at all.

There are two things to do to avoid that. If it's at all possible, the next time he pops up, dig up another girl and take him along with you on the date. That will make his trip worthwhile, and will give you a chance to make a definite date with him for the next time.

Of course, you can do the date fixing even if you can't include him in the date you already have. Pin him down to committing himself on his next visit.

Tell him it's a shame for him to make the trip for nothing when he could phone you or write you a note ahead of time.

You do want to see him (lay that on thick) and as often as he can come over — but he should alert you first so you can be sure to be free.

"Dear Miss Woodward: All the boys at my new school think I'm 'stuck up' because I was valedictorian last year. I don't talk to them much (I believe in lessons first, boys later). But it's really because I don't know them very well and I'm shy.

"How can I make them realize that I'm not 'stuck up' and that I'll be okay as soon as I get to know them better?"

Answer: A willingness to mix and mingle with the boys instead of standing off will go a long way toward helping you get to know them better. Go about it shyly at first, but be willing to be friendly with one boy after another. Smile a lot to cover up the lack of talk.

But speak up when you can, ask questions, laugh with them. Get acquainted with one boy at a time —a smiling, talking, joking acquaintance. Make that sort of casual contact with several of them.

Soon enough the word will get around that you're just shy and not stuck on yourself at all. The other boys will be convinced. And will give you a better break.

Remember the Baby! He's Closest to Floor

Dust and dirt not only wear rugs and carpets faster, but it is unhealthy and unsaitary for the household. If there are small children or a baby who crawls, remember that their small faces are much closer to the dusty carpets than an adult's.

They breathe the germ-laden dust into thir lungs. Serious illness may result. Especially in homes where they are small children a good vacuum claner should be used often — every day if at all possible, at least twice a week.

Turkey, Wedding Cake Go Together for Sutters

Leo, 55, and his wife, Agatha, 56, were married on Thanksgiving Day 35 years ago.

A daughter, Elizabeth, 33, now Mrs. John Koscielniak, was a Thanksgiving bride 11 years ago.

Mrs. Sutter's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Fetzer, 81, of Findlay, Ohio, was married on Thanksgiving in 1893.

Yesterday, another daughter, Marcella, 20, was married to Patrick McCabe, 19.

Most of the Sutters' 15 children and 23 grandchildren gathered for the ceremony and dined afterward on—turkey and wedding cake, naturally.

Yards, yards and yards are for the tall. Modify, modify and modify for the petite or overweight figure.

Long fabric coats are a significant trend for evening. The full coat of white taffeta looks wonderful on tall women but is a little too grand in scale for small figures —in that case the narrower green velvet is a good choice.

Retiring Carpenter Seeks Project

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"My husband is a wonderful carpenter," a woman writes. "He does all kinds of odds and ends around the house. He will be retiring before very long and we would like to think of some product or piece which he could make for sale.

"He loves working with wood, but doesn't want to be a real cabinetmaker. If we could think of some small object or piece of furniture that he could make, I could help sell it and advertise it. It would be such fun.

"We've racked our brains to think of something different enough, yet useful. Have you any ideas?"

It's wise to think this over. The only way to make money is to have one specialty which you are good at and are known for. Usually, it is something that fills a unique need which nobody else in your community provides.

Stay away from the weird and gadgety things. They may sell at first but they soon wear out their market.

Here are some ideas:

SPICE SHELF

A spice shelf might be popular if made just the size for holding all the herbs and spices which are so popular in cooking.

Most women resent having them in regular deep cupboards, where you knock over the bay leaves while looking for the mustard. Done attractively and inexpensively, these shelves might sell well.

What about the problems of storage space in small apartments? A deep window seat, covered with foam rubber and attractive fabric, built with a lid which can be opened for storing blankets and things like that, might fill many needs.

Screens are usually good sellers. Consider a nursery screen to block off one corner of the room or a screen to separate the kitchen from the living room.

THREE MORE IDEAS

An unusual design for window boxes might be worth thinking of, or really attractive footstools, or perhaps a dual purpose toy chest.

My suggestion would be that you keep your eyes open in your own home and when you visit friends.

Start a list of things that don't now exist but would be worth thinking about. This requires imagination, but imagination, like everything else, grows with exercise!

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dr. Albert E. Heustis, Michigan's commissioner of health, is one of 12 advisers named by the Atomic Energy Commission yesterday to help it keep private atomic plants safe and healthy.

All 12 are state officials. The aim is to establish close teamwork among the 48 states and the AEC in setting up safety regulations for the atomic power era.

Television Set Thief

The theft of a $310 television set Tuesday from the home of Salvador Tolmantez, 217 Fisher St., is being investigated by Pontiac Police.

Sgt. Raymond E. Meggitt said the thief may have had a key to the front door, since Tolmantez claimed the door was locked and there was no evidence that the lock had been tampered with.

Does Your Furniture Have Missing Links?

Maybe you haven't noticed, but your furniture has some missing links. Your home can function very well without them, but it functions much better with them.

Attractive suspendable shelf pieces are available, if you want them, to give an unbroken surface area along a wall, or around a corner.

Builds House at 72

DELHI, Ill. (AP) — You're never too old to build, is the theory Henry Hummel, 72, is following as he builds a house of logs. Hummel cut the trees, hauled the logs by pulling them with a winch, notched them and hoisted them into place. He plans a 2 story 4 room structure.

Hay, potatoes and turnips are about equal in area.

French Newspapers Report Fakery in Verse Credited to 8-Year-Old Girl

PARIS (INS)—A literary battle centering on an alleged 8-year-old poetess has exploded again in Paris newspaper headlines.

The supposedly precocious poetess is Minou Drouet, 20 of whose poems and letters have been put into book form by publisher Rene Julliard.

The slim, limited edition volume was greeted by rave reviews on one hand and disbelieving cynicism on the other.

And chief of the disbelievers were Pierre and Helene Lazareff's daily France-Soir and weekly magazine for women, Elle.

Today, France-Soir reported that two expert graphologists accredited by French courts, had stated that the letters attributed to Minou Drouet were in reality written by Claude Drouet, the spinster who adopted the little girl when Minou was 2.

WRITING COMPARED

The paper said two representatives of Elle had obtained a specimen of Minou's hadwriting, had the graphologists compare it with hand-written letters attributed to Minou and a photographic copy of a handwritten letter writen by Claude Drouet.

Julliard thought he had struck true literary gold when he first saw Minou's verses scrawled in their childish hand. The publisher is the same one who discovered Francoise Sagan, the teenaged French girl whose "Bonjour Tristresse" is a best seller around the world.

But the dispute over whether Minou is a hoax or a genius at 8 has provided some good headline battles already.

When Elle first published its suspicions about the authorship of the poems, Paris' newest daily, L'Express, came quickly to the child's defense.

But if Minou's poems prove to be fakes, there may be some red faces in French literary circles. For one French academy professor described little Minou as "simply a being of genius."

2 Detroit Businessmen Plan Merchandise Mart

DETROIT (AP)—Two Detroit businessmen say they plan to convert a seven-story downtown warehouse into a million-dollar merchandise mart.

Richard Cohen and his father, Sam, told Mayor Albert Cobo that wholesalers can start moving into the mart in January, and by April 1 it will be able to accommodate 25 to 45 firms.

Honey, Beeswax to Hit New High State Output

LANSING (AP)—The State Agriculture Department states production of honey and beeswax will hit a new record in Michigan this year, with the crop valued at more than $1,500,000.

The department, which surveyed 80,099 bee colonies during the year, said honey production will total some 10 million pounds.

Turn-About Fate

PAWNEE CITY, Neb. (AP) — A stray dog shot a man with a gun intended for use in disposing of the animal. The dog, being transported in a pickup truck, thrashed around so much, it discharged the gun lying on the floor of the car, and injured the driver in the foot.

Candy Sales Increase

CHICAGO — Candy and gum sales account for 1.8 per cent of the average supermarket's sales. About 7 per cent of the items in the average chain food store are candy items.

Halloween is the biggest promotion date for candy; Easter and Christmas are the two next important.

New Town Rising in Arctic Wastes 1,500 Miles Northwest of Edmonton

OTTAWA, Ont. (AP)—A 20th century community has started to rise in desolate arctic wastes some 1,500 miles northwest of Edmonton, Canada's gateway to the North.

Ground was broken this summer and early autumn at the new 600-acre site for Aklavik, now located on a delta on the west bank of the Mackenzie river, south of the Arctic Ocean.

Aklavik, an Eskimo word meaning "place of the black bear," is to be moved to the east channel of the Mackenzie about 33 miles east of the present site and linked with the outside world by an airport. The move is necessary because melting permafrost turns Aklavik's terrain into a quagmire in summer.

F. J. G. Cunningham, director of the northern administration and lands branch of the Canadian Northern Affairs Department, said the 1955 season was a year of preparation for the new community.

He estimated that the new Aklavik may some day have a year-round population of 5,000, eight times that of the present 96-acre settlement. The four-year building job and the moving of salvageable structures from the present site will cost about 10 million dollars.

The permafrost on which Aklavik is located consists of equal proportions of silt and ice Crystal. Once the protective moss covering is removed, the heat of summer turns the perma frost into mud, preventing the construction of facilities.

WELL WOODED AREA

The location of the new Aklavik, chosen last fall, is a well-wooded area. A thick layer of gravel under the permafrost will provide adequate foundation for buildings and other services.

The site rises in terraces from the channel of the river, which is 800 feet in width at this point and deep enough for river transports.

Cunningham said departmental engineers, using native labor, completed construction of two of the four miles of road to be built. They also built a large garage and workshop, 11 small homes for Eskimos and Indians, and laid pile foundations for six large warehouses.

Next year engineers plan to complete the road program and build 50 more homes for natives, a wharf, an eight-unit apartment building and eight warehouses. Work on the air strip also is expected to start.

Cunningham said the "Crash Construction" program will take place in the summers of 1957 and 1958. During the winters salvageable buildings will be moved from the present site to their new foundations by sledge. The moving job will cost about $500,000.

Cunningham said a study of the soil shows that it will be possible to grow vegetables, flowers and forage crops in areas adjacent to the new townsite.

Two Boys Taken From Flames by 16-Year-Old

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Two young boys, bewildered and terrified, were led to safety from a burning house yesterday by a quick-thinking 16-year-old youth.

Firemmen said Gary Arvidson, awakened by the screams of the boys, smashed a second-story window with his first, gulped some fresh air and led his younger brother William, 11, to safety.

He then turned back and found 12-year-old Kenneth Palmer, an overnight guest, in near collapse from smoke inhalation. Gary pushed Kenneth down a stairway and out of the house.

The brothers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Arvidson were also treated for smoke inhalation.

Police of the suburban town of Amherst said defective wiring caused the fire. Unofficial estimates of damage ranged from $5,000 to $10,000.

West German Army to Get 1,300 Tanks

BONN, Germany (AP)—The German army will have more than 1,300 tanks, the Defense Ministry announced today. A spokesman said most of them would be the American M47 Patton heavy tank.

German army planners also are hoping to get some M48 Patton tanks, the latest type now in service with the U.S. Army. The M48 mounts a 90mm. gun, weighs 97,000 pounds and costs almost $110,000.

The United States has agreed to deliver a "considerable quantity" of arms to the new West German army.

Christmas Cards for '55 Imitating Paris Fashions

NEW YORK (INS) — Christmas cards are going along with Paris fashions for '55 — they favor the "slim Jim" variety.

The narrow shape has been around for several years, but this year the unconventional form has received top attention for the traditional holiday.

The artistic influence of other lands can be seen in candle cards, decorated with glitter in Oriental fashion. Mosaics, an old-time Italian idea, make for striking religious cards, particularly those dealing with the Three Kings.

The Holy Family is often depicted in cameo style, heavily embossed in white against a soft blue background like Wedgewood ware. Other distinctive designs feature gold stippling and the use of dots and broken lines against solid color backgrounds.

Simulated "gems" spark up many cards, often used to represent Christmas tree ornaments or the jewel-like beauty of the beads on a Rosary card.

Full-color photographs of snow-scenes, still life arrangements of holiday decorations and diminutive religious figurines are expected to be popular, says a spokesman for Hallmark cards, as well as designs by noted artists.

Many religious cards are decorated by modern paintings, although the Old Masters are still strongly represented. Excerpts from Christmas hymns, reproduced in rich manuscripts to imitate medieval monk's writing, are popular this year — some even contain the actual music from the hymns.

The old-world Advent card is also available. It's a large and colorful card with a series of tiny panels that are opened, one a day during the Advent season, to tell a story.

Magic kits and games are some of the bonus surprises to be found in cards for children this year.

There's a "can-do" Magic Kit card which contains six easy-to-do tricks, an easel, a box to hold apparatus, as well as play glasses, mustache and conjurer's wand.

The string telephone can be easily assembled from the materials supplied in one new card while another provides a game in which Santa Claus moves along various routes from his North Pole headquarters to "your house." A spinner determines the moves and colorful markers are included.

To bring home to children the significance of the season a number of juvenile Christmas cards have religious themes. Some tell favorite stories of the Yuletide season in verse with colorful illustrations, others feature a selection of Christmas prayers. A quickly assembled card shows a full-dimensional Navity scene.

WW II Hero Obtains Williamston Paper

WILLIAMSTON (AP)—Ben Kuroki, Nebraska newspaperman and much-decorated Nisei airman during World War II, has purchased the Williamston Enterprise at Williamston from Mrs. Hope B. Thompson.

He will take over the 83-year old weekly newspaper Dec. 1.

Kuroki, American-born of Japanese ancestry, flew for the U.S. in the North African, Italian and European air war campaigns. Under a personal directive from Sec. of War Stimpson, he flew in active combat over Japan and had completed 58 heavy bombardment missions before the end of the war.

Kuroki graduated from the University of Nebraska and previously was editor and publisher of newspapers in Nebraska and Idaho.

Cordell Hull, former U. S. secretary of state, was practicing law in Tennessee before he was old enough to vote.

HIGH-POWERED HONEY
with the low-down price tag

How about this one?

How about this robust new 1956 Buick SPECIAL that comes to the American scene as the biggest prize-package of high-powered performance and high-fashion luxury ever offered in Buick's lowest-price Series?

For this one's priced so close to the well-known smaller cars, you can hardly count the difference. (And the price we show here proves it.)

But brother!—you can sure tell the difference when you see it, sit in it, drive it.

It's Buick powered—with a big new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine that delivers its walloping power at a record-high compression of 8.9 to 1.

It's Buick solid—with a brilliantly engineered new chassis that puts a new buoyancy, a new levelness, a new sweetness to the car's every inch of travel.

It's Buick big and Buick roomy and Buick sure in its handling ease—and when you boss the miles in it, you know you have a brawny and beautifully balanced automobile under your command.

And for sure—at modest extra cost—you can have this high-powered honey with the sizzling double-action take-off of Buick's advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflow.†

So—how about this one?

And how about coming in to see for yourself how much more sheer automobile your money buys here than the same money buys elsewhere? Come in this week and we'll show you that if you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick—and be a lot happier in the bargain.

ST. IGNACE (UP) — George R. Saunders takes pride in his reputation as a mudslinger. In his occupation as a derrick operator on the Straits of Mackinac bridge project it's a mark of distinction.

Since 1953, Saunders probably has moved more Straits mud than any other human in history. He was one of the first derrick operators hired when Merritt-Chapman & Scott started construction of a pipeline across the Straits.

Saunders believes a Great Lakes record of some kind was set on that job.

"We had the big scoops down 250 feet in places to clear a path for the pipeline," he says.

In 1954 he was at the controls of a derrick spudding toe from Moran Bay, enabling the construction fleet to begin operations. Saunders' derrick set pilings for survey towers and cofferdams and dug tons of mud for dams and caissons in 1954.

WORKED PROJECTS

He has worked for various firms on marine projects in Michigan and Wisconsin and now is employed by American Bridge Co. on the multi-million dollar Straits span.

Saunders manipulates 14 levels in maneuvering the derrick boom. Recently, his job outlook has switched from lowly mud to overhead operations.

He lifts workmen and steel skyward, balanced on the tip of the 160-foot boom.

"A fellow's got to be a lot more careful how he handles one of these things now," he says.

He also guides huge steel beams into place 124 feet above his derrick cab where riveting crews wait to "tack" them into place. The slightest jerk of the boom might jar one of the crew from the lofty perch, sending him falling to the frigid waters of the Straits.

State Red Tart Cherries to Jump in Production

LANSING (UP) — Michigan, which already leads the nation in production of red tart cherries, will have about 28 per cent more tart cherry trees in six years, the State Agriculture Department predicts.

The estimate was based on a cherry tree planting survey made recently by the federal-state crop reporting service.

The department said there are some 3,450,000 bearing tart cherry trees in the state now. In six years, the total is expected to reach 4,400,000.

Yields for the past five years averaged about 77,500 tons — 60 per cent of the national crop. In six years, the crop is expected to total 100,000 tons.

Pontiac Police Swear in First Academy Graduates

Pontiac Police Department's first recruits to attend Detroit Police Academy were sworn in yesterday in City Hall.

The six will graduate tonight and begin "pounding a beat" with the Uniform Patrol Division Saturday.

Police Chief Herbert W. Straley said that advantages in attending the eight-weeks course in Detroit were all-police environment and longer, more extensive training.

William L. Hargraves, Brent L. Hart Jr., Elden B. Mudge, William B. Newman, Floyd Blackman Jr. and James A. Teal Jr., all of Pontiac, were sworn in by Straley. They are the first to join the force this year.

City Manager William K. Willman welcomed the recruits and said:

"You are front-line as far as the city's public relations is concerned. You will deal with the public all the time.

"In meeting citizens, do your job honestly, cheerfully and to the best of your ability," he said.

Chief Straley said that with the addition of the six, the department's total force numbers 124.

"But that's considerably below the number we should have, and I've asked that next year's budget include funds for 18 more officers," he said.

Gobs Won't Be Lonely

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—About 1,600 sailors are planning to hold a big "South Seas Ball" Tuesday night, but until today there was some doubt that any girls would be there. However, officials of the Navy's destroyer force at Newport have taken care of that situation. They sent notices to 25 hospitals and industries employing large groups of girls, inviting the girls to be guests at the ball.

Countess' Son Seeking Common-Sense Wife

LONDON — Edward C. J. B. Halliburton, 31-year-old son of the Countess of Mayo, said after his recent divorce:

"I need to marry again for my boy's sake. So I am going to advertise for a wife. But don't think I am looking for romance. I want a partnership on a practical common-sense basis."

Halliburton, unfortunate in a business venture, had just been released from prison where he was placed after refusing to take the oath at his examination in bankruptcy. "Respectability," he mused, "is one thing I shall really demand of my future wife."

His baby son Charles is heir to an $85,000 trust fund from which Halliburton gets a weekly allowance.

Pentagon Will Furnish Johnson With Records of Solons' Travels

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Defense Department states complete records on congressoinal "junketing" to Europe and other parts of the globe during the last two years will be supplied to the Senate preparedness subcommittee early in 1956.

A Pentagon spokesman said the information has been requested by Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex), chairman of the subcommittee, an that it will be up to Johnson whether the record is made public.

The list is to include "consultants," "guests" and members of the congressmen's families, as well as the names of the congressmen themselves and the dates and places to which they have been flown by the Air Force's Military Air Transport Service.

The projected report, which will be taken from the files of MATS, will be the first complete record of congressional "junketing" ever prepared.

But the spokesman said that Johnson requested the data only since Jan. 1, 1953, and that it will therefore cover only the last two years.

Bob Considine Says:

General's Name Ruins Truman Interview

NEW YORK (INS)—The passing show . . .

Almost had an exclusive interview with Harry S. Truman the other day in Chicago. Friend of mine who is close to the ex-President was discovered at the bar in the Blackstone—he had dropped in to inquire the way to vespers—and when he spotted me he said, "You ought to go upstairs and see the boss. Be a good story for you."

Well, one thing led to another, double, and an hour later my friend led me into the suite of the former President. Truman, looking fit, stood in the middle of his living room which overlooks Lake Michigan. We approached him with pencil poised, ready for scoops galore.

"Boss," said our mutual friend, "I want you to meet my good friend Bob Considine, the official biographer of Gen MacArthur."

When Sen. Estes Kefauver referred to Gov. Averell Harriman as "my old friend Gov. Harrison" at the $100 a plate Democratic dinner last Saturday night, a wag in the rear called out:

"William Henry . . .?"

Lab Tests Supersonic Model Plane Conditons

WASHINGTON (INS) — The thousands of miles that will be flown by America's future supersonic fighting plane has been shrunk, temporarily, to a 20-foot high, air refueling laboratory, made to simulate a flying altitude of ten miles.

Planes, official publication of the Aircraft Industries Association, said the laboratory, part of a $2.5 million aeronautical research installation, is a typical development of one major aircraft company to economically and efficiently insure qualitative superiority of American aircraft.

CHRISTMAS IN KOREA

Francis Cardinal Spellman will spend his fifth straight Christmas in Korea, shunning once more the seasonal splendor and the creature comforts that go with his ranking in the church.

He'll celebrate Mass along the frozen front as usual. For a "refresher," the cardinal will fly to Thule, the U. S. Air Force base for a short trip next week.

Jim Bishop, author of "The Day Lincoln Died," drops me a note from aboard the SS Constitution, en route to Gibraltar.

"I have Gayle Peggy (age 11) with me and life on shipboard, as a consequence, is anything but dull. Rome coming up. Then Cairo and Jerusalem. There I will meet some Franciscans who have promised to help me research a book called 'The Day Christ Died.'

"This type-casting can become dangerous. Sooner or later I'll find myself writing 'The Day Joe E. Lewis Was Half-Shot.' Incidentally, I finished the Jackie Gleason biography and I can tell you, bub, he has courage.

"It requires large chunks of viscera to permit the whole truth to be told about you when you're 'way up on top. From Lincoln to Gleason to Christ — it sounds blasphemous to me. Also to Gleason, he says."

Southfield Board to Open Bids on McKinley Addition

Fruit Growers' Series to Open

A fruit meeting for non-commercial growers of tree fruits, small fruits, vegetables and other backyard problems, will be held at 8:30 Tuesday. The meeting will be held in the block building of the 4-H fairgrounds, on north Perry street just south of the intersection of Walton Boulevard.

This is the first of a series of eight meetings slated throughout the winter months to acquaint the fruit grower with up-to-the minute information on spraying, insects, pruning, and cultural practices.

In charge of the meeting will be John K. Bray, assistant county agricultural agent and Karl D. Bailey, district horticultural agent. Specialists from Michigan State University will address the group.

The Tuesday meeting will be a review of insects and disease problems of last year. Those attending are asked to bring samples of diseases they encountered during the past year.

Your PTA Is Planning:

Leonard Group Schedules Family Supper Tuesday

LEONARD — The Leonard PTA will hold a family night supper Tuesday. Members are to bring one passing dish, sandwiches, and table service.

There will be a short business meeting and a program, presented by the students.

Davisburg

Plans for a program to be given by the teachers and a skit by homeroom mothers later in the year were made at the November meeting of the Davisburg Elementary School PTA.

"Grandmother'ss Attic", a display and exhibit will take place the third Monday in January.

The nominating committee for 1956 was named. They are: Kenneth Aldrich, chairman, assisted by Mrs. David Field, Mrs. Emmett Lieb, Wayne Moulinan and Ed Davis.

The next meeting of the group will be January 16.

Metamora

Metamora PTA will serve a dinner for principals of the various schools in Lapeer County at the schoolhouse at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 14.

The Planning Committee is composed of Mrs. Lloyd Andison, Mrs. Richard York, Mrs. Titus Brown and Mrs. Edward Brecht.

A membership drive is planned by the group with Mrs. Kenneth Gilbert and Mrs. Titus Brown heading the committee. Volunteers for the project are asked to contact these women.

Clifford

Clifford PTA will hold a card party at the Clifford Fire Hall at 8 p.m. Friday, Dec. 2. The public is invited.

Council Votes to Sue for Recovery of $500

UTICA — A three member city council voted unanimously this week to authorize suit against Councilman George Albrecht to recover $500 for alleged services during the city's water pollution trouble.

Councilmen said the money was "wrongfully paid to and received by" Albrecht who turned in the $500 bill when the trouble ended.

Will Add Ten Classrooms

School Group Continues Study of Possible Sites for Future Building

SOUTHFIELD—The Southfield School Board will open bids on an addition to McKinley school, 10 Mile and Southfield Roads, which will include 10 class rooms, a new broiler room, heating equipment and a multi-purpose room.

Bids will be accepted by the board on a station wagon, Ford, Chevrolet or Plymouth model, to be used to transport children attending special education classes in Royal Oak, Berkley and Farmington township.

Robert Hall, athletic director of the township schools, told board members there was some talk of a change being made in participating schools in the Inter-lake conference as many of the participating schools have lighted athletic fields which permit evening games and larger adult attendance.

He estimated it would cost in the region of from $16,000 to 20,000 for lighting, and that the funds could be raised by civic groups, organizations, clubs, etc. rather than through taxation. He was authorized to obtain further information but no action was taken by the board. Lights on the present field were financed in this way.

Glenn Schoenhals, superintendent of schools, explained the new state legislation which would provide approximately $40,000 more for increased salaries to school employes.

Bonds will be signed at the school offices by Mark Rehbine and Fred Leonard Dec. 2. Each will sign 3,500 bonds for the First of Michigan Co. which purchased the bonds several months ago and will resell them in the near future.

The board is continuing a study of possible sites for future school construction and a discussion period was given to this subject. Also discussed were improvements and additions necessary in the near future which would come under next year's budget.

Fire Put Out; Flares Again

Flames Destroy Room in Novi Township Home After Family Leaves

NOVI TOWNSHIP — Fire destroyed the bathroom and caused $1500 in damage to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Kurilik of 623 South Lake Dr.

Commerce Township Fire Chief Ray Price stated that the Kurilik's apparently had a fire on a mattress earlier in the day and had put it in the bathtub to extinguish it.

Assuming that the fire had been put out the owners then left the house and the fire started up again.

The department rescued two birds and a dog from the burning house.

PROPOSES H-BOMB EXPLOSION — Thomas E. Murray, member of the Atomic Energy Commission, spoke before the golden jubilee dinner of Fordham University Law School in New York recently. Murray proposed that the United States explode an H-bomb before the eyes of world leaders as "a declaration of American power" and to spur the quest for peace. Murray told a newsman earlier that he was speaking for himself and not the AEC.

Revived Sport of Skiing Gathering More Fans

Thousands flock to a host of ski resorts each weekend in areas which not too long ago were barren hills, considered worthless at any time of the year.

Why has this sudden interest swept the state when only a few years ago skiing was considered a millionaire sport? Few really know, but the boom has not gone unnoticed by any means.

New ski resorts continue to pop up. This year, for instance, marks the opening of Mio Mountain, a mile southeast of Mio, and the Au Sable Ranch and Ski Club, eight miles southwest of Gaylord.

Like their contemporaries, which aren't too much their senior, the more conveniences offered by these new ski resorts, the better chance they have of luring skiers to their nest. Offered are comfortable nearby lodging, reasonable rates for a "ski week," and the usual things skiers have come to take for granted: warming huts, snack bars, rented equipment and ski schools.

BOOKLET EXPLAINS SPORT

Quick to realize the economic importance of skiing in this state, Michigan State University's bureau of Business Research, headed by David J. Luck, has published a 59-page book on the subject under the sponsorship of the Michigan Tourist Council.

The book, entitled "Winter Resorts in Michigan," covers virtually every facet of the sport, its economic advantages and growth as well as an attempt to explain some of the reasons for the boom.

Briefly, the report states:

1. Michigan holds the best skiing potential in the central part of the nation, both for climate and nearness to a huge rich market of tourists.

2. Skiing has grown to over three times the participation of five years ago when growth already was well under way.

3. An estimated six million dollars is spent by skiers each year in the state, mostly by city people.

4. Nearly all skiing is done on weekends.

5. The number of skiers attracted to privately-operated areas have advanced faster than community-run ones.

6. Some areas with "very adequate" facilities fall flat on their face because they don't promote and advertise what they have.

7. Everyone agrees skiing not only is here to stay, but has a great future expansion ahead. Tacked under this is a list of "ifs," such as:

Adequate promotion, entertainment and accommodation, instruction, control and maintenance of ski slopes (including better tows), snow and road condition reports and community-wide support.

Actor James Millican Dies in Filmland at 45

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—James A. Millican, 45, a character actor who had appeared in more than 400 films since he came to Hollywood in 1933, died yesterday after a brief illness.

The actor in recent years had appeared in television also. His best known screen work included parts in "Strategic Air Command," "High Noon," "Man From Laramie" and "I Died a Thousand Deaths."

Kaiser Steel to Japan

TOKYO (AP)—The Japanese Trade Ministry today annouced an allocation of $7,200,000 for the import of 100,000 tons of pig iron from the Kaiser Steel Co. of the United States.

The word chenille is French for caterpillar. Chenille carpets get their name from the fuzzy stripes of wool in the pile which resemble the furry creatures.

U.S. Law Volumes Presented to British

LONDON (AP)—Britain's House of Commons today got a complete file of the U. S. Code, more than 100 volumes of the laws passed by the American Congress. The gift from the U. S. Information Agency will be kept up to date as the laws are changed.

U. S. Ambassador Winthrop Aldrich made the presentation at a tea given by the Inter-Parliamentary Union. W. S. Morrison, speaker of the House of Commons, accepted the gift and sent his house's good wishes for President Eisenhower's continued recovery.

Also present were American senators and members of the House of Representatives now visiting London.

Kefauver Blasts Power Contract

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) says the repudiated Dixon-Yates power contract "is merely one instance" of what he terms Eisenhower administration concern for "the selfish interests of private power lobbies."

Promising a continuing Senate investigation, Kefauver said last night the government's decision to pay no damages on the canceled contract will not slacken the public vs. private power battle.

Kefauver is chairman of a Senate Antimonopoly subcommittee which heard testimony that bulked large in a government decision to regard the contract as invalid.

That decision was announced Wednesday by the Atomic Energy Commission. It held that the contract, which it signed at the direction of President Eisenhower, involved a "conflict of interest."

The Dixon-Yates group disputed this, saying it would challenge the action in court.

In taking credit for the AEC decision, Kefauver and other Democrats made it clear they look on the Dixon-Yates matter as a potent political issue.

In framing the AEC decision, Chief Counsel William Mitchell raised the question whether "material violations of the law and public policy" were involved.

At issue was the role played in contract negotiations by Adolphe Wenzell, a New York financier. Wenzell was part-time consultant to the Budget Bureau while the First Boston Corp. — of which he was senior vice president — was acting as financial adviser for the Dixon-Yates interests.

Under the terms of the contract, private power from a proposed 107-million-dollar plant at West Memphis, Ark., would have been fed into the Tennessee Valley Authority system to replace TVA-generated electricity used by AEC installations.

Eisenhower ordered the contract canceled last July after the city of Memphis, Tenn., decided to build its own power plant rather than use energy from the Dixon-plant. Most of the electricity from that plant had been intended for Memphis.

Pakistani Freighter Sinks; 52 Rescued

HONG KONG (AP)—The 6,771-ton Pakistani freighter Fakira sank in the South China sea about 500 miles southwest of Manila early today. Rescue vessels took off her 52 crew members.

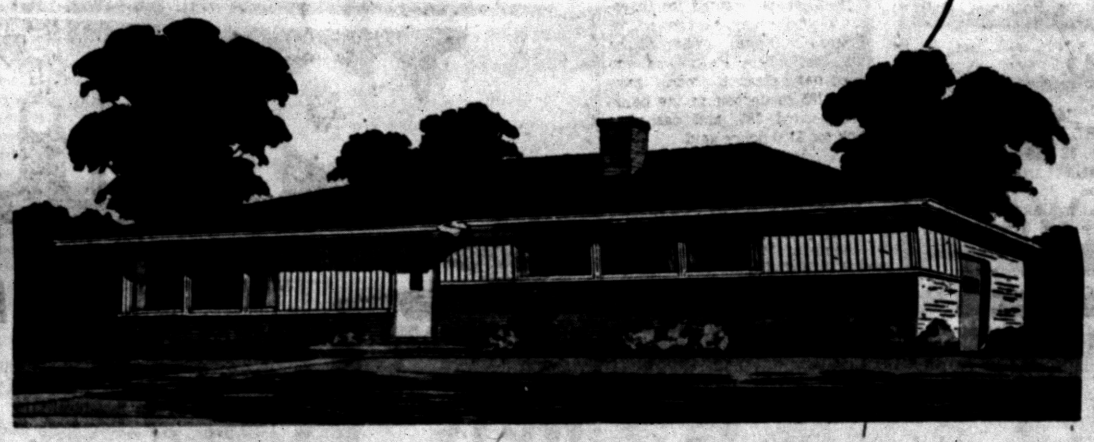

The Hong Kong-bound freighter sent out distress signals Wednesday night after springing a leak in a cargo hold. All ships in the area went to her aid.

The Fakira, owned by the East and West Steamship Co. of Karachi, was built by the George A. Fuller Co. of Wilmington, N.C.

Defensive Skill May Decide Service Tilt

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Army and Navy meet on the football field tomorrow for the 56th time with the statistics indicating this colorful gridiron classic at Municipal Stadium could well be a test of defensive skill.

Army, a 6½-point underdog, is the nation's No. 1 defensive team on the basis of having yielded only 139.5 yards per game in compiling a record of 5 victories in 8 starts. Navy, last year's 27-20 winner, ranks third. The Middies have given up an average of 169 yards a game while winning 6, losing to Notre Dame and tying Duke.

But, as has often been the case when these two service academies meet in their heated rivalry, the offense could well rise to unexpected heights.

The Navy's attack is geared to the throwing arm of 165-pound George Welsh from Coaldale, Pa., fully recovered from a sore toe that hampered his play in late season games. Navy Coach Eddie Erdelatz calls Welsh the greatest quarterback he has ever coached.

Don Holleder, a 187-pounder from Webster, N.Y., and one of the most controversial figures in college football this season, directs the Army attack. A great end last year he was switched to quarterback from where he has shown greater ability at running the ball than at passing. But at that, the figures show he has completed aerials for 6 touchdowns, only 2 less than his more highly-touted rival.

* * *

Both coaches were confident of victory as they led their teams into Municipal Stadium today for brief workouts before retiring to suburban clubs to await game time tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. (EST).

The weather prospect was fair and cool with a fast field. That is just what Blaik ordered for his swift backs, led by Pat Uebel who scored all of the Army's touchdowns two years ago in a 20-7 victory and ripped the Middies' line apart in a losing cause last year.

Physically, both teams are in the best condition of the year. John L. Hopkins, Navy captain, has his broken jaw wired together but he is scheduled to be in the starting lineup at left tackle. Bob Kyasky, one of Army's swift backs, still is bothered with a trick knee but Blaik said he'll probably start. If not, he'll see plenty of action, alternating with Dick Murtland.

Meantime, the vanguad of the capacity crowd of 102,000 took over the City of Brotherly Love. Millions more, including President Eisenhower, are expected to watch the game on television (NBC) starting at 1:15 p.m. (EST). The colorful ceremonies in the stadium will get under way at noon when the 2,400 members of the Corps of Cadets and the 3,600 making up the Brigade of Midshipmen march into the big arena and start their pre-game show.

The hotel lobbies were jammed with plenty of brass and gold braid today. Special trains Saturday morning will bring in thousands more along with fans high in the political and business life of the country.

LARAMIE, Wyo. — Wyoming is looking up literally in basketball because no less than seven of the squad are more than six feet five inches tall.

Lions Carve Packers, 24-10

DETROIT (AP)—Halfback Lew Carpenter, the subject of considerable criticism this season, silenced many of his doubters yesterday by leading the Detroit Lions to a 24-10 victory over the Green Bay Packers.

Carpenter scored two touchdowns, ran 120 yards from scrimmage and caught five passes for 26 yards in a brilliant one-man show which saved the annual Thanksgiving Day game in Briggs Stadium from being a real "turkey."

Carpenter broke up the almost comical, fumble-filled game with an explosive 49-yard touchdown run early in the 4th quarter.

His dash cracked a 10-all tie and brought the Lions their 3rd victory against seven losses. It also squared Green Bay's record at 5-5 and just about ended all hopes the Packers had for a title in the western division of the National Football League.

Carpenter's touchdown run was a work of art. He took a handoff from quarterback Bobby Layne, cut between right tackle and guard and was gone before the Green Bay secondary knew what had happened.

Later in the period, Sonny Gandee hailed down the decision for Detroit by catching Fred Cone's bobble in the air and racing 46 yards for a touchdown.

The victory moved Detroit into a temporary tie with San Francisco for 5th place in the Western Division. Parker said he hoped the 49ers would beat Baltimore Sunday so that the Lions would get the 1st regular choice in Monday's modified NFL draft in Philadelphia.

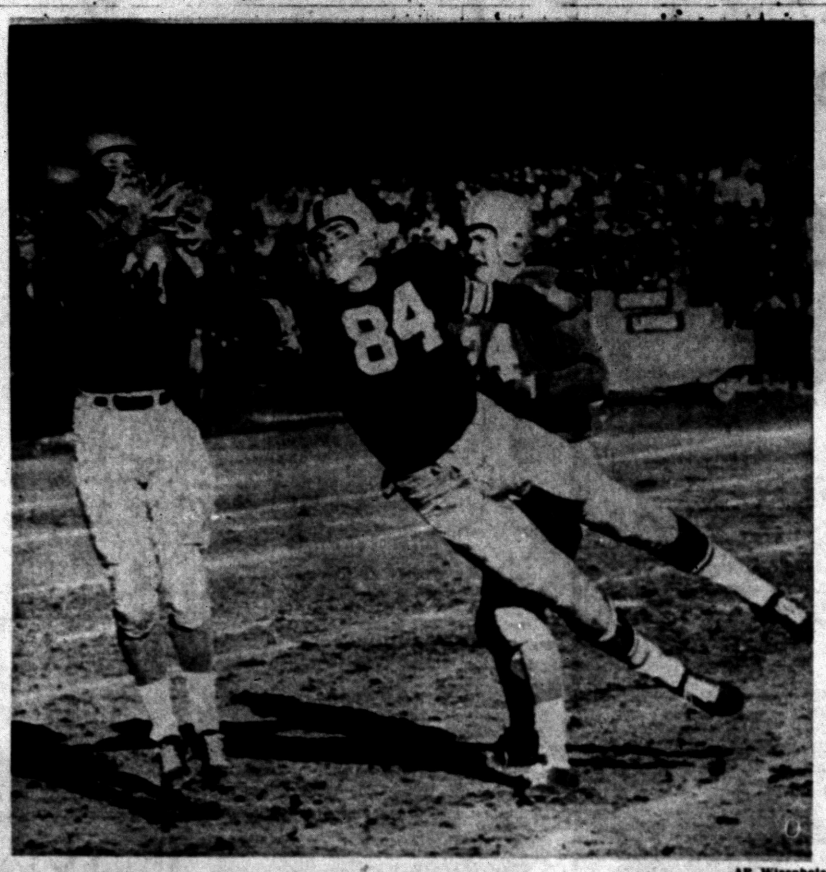

It is the 1st time anyone could recall that Parker had rooted for San Francisco to win a game.

Packers turned two Detroit fumbles into a 10-0 lead in the first quarter. Richie Woit, just signed to a Detroit contract Wednesday, fumbled the opening kickoff and Cone recovered for Green Bay on the Lions' 18. After three plays failed to get a 1st down, Cone kicked a 21-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead after only 1:11 of play.

Later, Detroit drove deep into Green Bay terrirtory but lost the ball when Leon Hart, playing fullback instead of his usual end spot, fumbled.

Green Bay marched 95 yards in 14 plays to score, with quarterback Tobin Rote hitting end Gary Knafelc with a five-yard payoff pitch. Cone added the point and Green Bay's lead was 10-0 at 13:40.

As it turned out, that was all for Green Bay.

Texas A&M Surveys Damage by Longhorns

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP)—Texas today basked in the glory of a glittering comeback that saw it win the big one—over Texas A&M—while the Aggies sorrowfully surveyed the wreckage of their flimsy bastions that fell in one of the Southwest's great upsets.

The Longhorns, humiliated and scorned in one of their worst seasons, arose with tempestuous fury yesterday to whip Texas A&M 21-6, virtually wreck the Aggie hopes of a Southwest Conference championship and take the conference off the spot in its probationary action that denied A&M participation in a bowl game.

They wrote the names of Walter Fondren, Delano Womack, Ed Hawkins and Charley Brewer into the Hall of Fame at Texas today for what those fellows did in leading the Longhorns to a victory that must be classed with the greatest of all-time in the 61-year-old rivalry between the two state schools.

With Fondren, Womack and Hawkins carrying the ball and Brewer piloting the team flawlessly and pitching in with some vital runs and passes of his own, Texas dominated the game even when it was behind 6-0 just before the first half ended.

Social Outcast Is Pimlico Bet

Winning the Special Would Put Him Among Race Horse Greats

BALTIMORE (AP)—Social Outcast can make it Old Home Day at Pimlico tomorrow by winning the special.

His owner, Alfred G. Vanderbilt, started the special 18 years ago, with an idea of making it a race to settle any championship or other burning question of the tracks as the year drew to a close.

The race never actually panned out that way although the second running in 1938 did bring together the great Seabiscuit and War Admiral in a match race won by the former.

Other great horses such as Challegon, Whirlaway, Twilight Tear, Armed, Assault, Citation and Tom Fool won the special. But Vanderbilt, the former track president, never had an entry.

Irish-Trojans Wind Up for 27th Meeting

Notre Dame Favored, With Nearly 100,000 Expected

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Notre Dame and Southern California, meeting for the 27th time on the gridiron in an epic series that started in 1926, wind up their 1955 campaign tomorrow, with the Irish favored to hand the Coast team its fifth defeat of the season.

Quarterback Paul Hornung and his "Teammates of Desire," as the invaders have been called, rate at least a 1 touchdown edge over the Trojans, if not more. Terry Brennan's fighting lads, have lost but one game, to Michigan State Oct. 15.

The Irish hold a 17-7-2 margin over the Trojans in the series, but upsets have dotted the rivalry over the years.

A crowd approaching 100,000 is expected to sit in on the kickoff, set for 5 p.m., EST.

Six seniors on each starting eleven will be playing their final college game.

The two lines are about equal, each averaging slightly over 200 pounds, Coach Jess Hill says the Trojans will continue to use a multiple-style offense, which includes the split-T and single wing.

The Notre Dame backs are not rated explosive—the longest run from scrimage this season was 31 yards—but Hornung, a junior, is typed as a take-charge field marshal.

Dales 'Too Strong' for Tangerine Bowl

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — The Tangerine Bowl selection committee is scheduled to meet tonight and is expected to choose the football teams that will play in the Jan. 2 charity game.

Chairman of the selection committee, said four teams are on the active consideration list. They are Juniata at Huntington, Pa.; Missouri Valley at Marshall; McMurray at Abilene, Tex., and Tampa University at Tampa, Fla.

Hillsdale College of Hillsdale, Mich., has been dropped from the list, Parson said because it would be "too strong" for the other teams.

Terps Dominate All-Southern INS Grid Team

ATLANTA (INS) — Maryland, Mississippi and Auburn players dominate the International News Service All-South football team for 1955.

The undefeated, untied, Orange Bowl-bound Maryland Terps placed three standouts on the all-sectional eleven. Mississippi, likely southeastern conference champions, and Auburn, high on bowl lists, won two spots each.

In addition the mythical eleven includes players from West Virginia, champions of the Southern Conference, from Duke, Tulane and Mississippi state.

The teams—(first team)—Phillips, Auburn and Sorrell, Duke, ends; Sandusky, Maryland and Bosley, E. Va., tackles; Suberm Miss. St. and Sardisco, Tulane, guards; Pellegrini, Maryland, center; backs, Day, Miss. (qb), James, Auburn, and Vereb, Maryland (halfbacks); Cothren, Miss. (fb). Second team — Humilello; LSU, and Laraway, Clemson, ends; tackles, Bartholomew, W. Forest and D'Agostin, Auburn; guards, Davis, Maryland and Allison, Miss. center, De La Torre, Florida, backs, Tamburello, Maryland, Pascal, Duke, Majors, Tenn. and Childress, Auburn.

Central Blanks Rival Northern

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Royal Oak High School upset favored Birmingham, 27-20, and Flint Central blanked Flint Northern, 20-0, in a pair of traditional Thanksgiving Day football games.

Central's triumph gave it a half share of the Saginaw Valley Conference title and dropped Northern to the bottom of the league for the 1st time in the school's 28-year history.

Charlie Thrash, who picked up 78 yards rushing, scored two Central touchdowns. He plunged one yard to climax a 60-yard drive in the 1st quarter and smashed two yards to end an 85-yard Central march in the 2nd quarter. William Williams set up and scored Central's other tally.

Unbeaten Sooners Honor Their 'Grand Old Man'

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—It seems strange that in the midst of Bud Wilkin's amazing regime Oklahoma football followers would take time to recognize another Sooner caching great.

Yet that's what will happen tonight when about 500 young and old turn out for Oklahoma's "Grand Old Man" of football. He never looked like he belonged on the gridiron because he was so small. But Benjamin Gibert Owen showed them and they'll never forget him — either as player or coach.

Bennie Owen, now a spry 80, piled up a record of 128 victories against 52 losses and 13 ties for an all-time mark of .711 in his 22 years at the Sooner football helm.

The testimnial dinner is in honor of Owen's 50th anniversary of coming to Oklahoma as football coach.

Owen was one of those gritty little glys who won the undying respect of his teammates for the way he stood up under the punishment while playing against men twice as big as himself.

He weighed 126 pounds dripping wet as a quarterback for Kansas before the turn of the century. He was the linebacker, too, looking like a mouse scurrying around in the midst of a herd of elephants.

One of the favorite Jayhawks plays was to have a couple of hefty guards toss Owen over the scrimmage line. Bennie more often than not dug a hole in the ground with his head.

Lindsay Paces Red Wings to 1st Win Over Montreal

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Red Wings, who aren't accustomed to beating anyone this season, and the Montreal Canadiens, who aren't accustomed to being beaten by anyone, reversed roles in their National Hockey League game last night.

Capt. Ted Lindsay paced a rollicking 3rd period rally to pull the wings from behind to a 3-2 victory over the Frenchmen.

Lindsay, who opened the scoring in the 1st period, assisted Dutch Reibel and Red Kelly for two more in the final stanza as Detroit handed Montreal its 4th defeat of the season. It was Detroit's 1st win over their arch-rivals this season and the Wings' 5th victory in 21 games.

The victory boosted Detroit into 4th place in the NHL standings, nine points behind the front-running Canadiens. Montreal hadn't been beaten in 11 previous starts.

Lindsay cashed the only 1st period score at 10:44 with a deflection or Reibel's long shot while Montreal was short handed.

Reibel drove home the equalizer at 1:35 of the action-packed third period with a blast of Lindsay's passout. Kelly followed up with the winning goal at 6:57, killing Lindsay's rebound.

Both teams had four days rest prior to the Thanksgiving Day game. It was the fastest, and best game the Wings have played this season. A holiday crowd of 14,177 saw the game.

Acorns Trip Maples, 27-20

By BRUNO L. KEARNS

Time doesn't stand still, and no one experienced this truth a harder way than did Birmingham High School yesterday.

Maples saw the clock run out on them twice, in the 1st half and at the end of the game, 27 yards from pay dirt with the score reading 27-20 in favor of arch-rival Royal Oak.

It was a wide open game and a breathing-room-only crowd of more than 5,000 realized this by staying put until the final second.

In the 1st half both teams had possession of the ball seven times with five touchdowns being scored.

Birmingham scored the 1st time it got the ball after taking possession on its own 37 following a Royal Oak quick kick. In eight plays climaxed by a 25-yard sprint by John Appleford, Maples had a 6-0 lead. George Huffman's kick was wide.

Royal Oak then returned the kickoff to the 40 and followed with a 60-yard march, with fullback Herb Deromedi picking up most of the yardage and little Dick Jordan going over from the 10. Darrell Harper's kick was no good and it was 6-6 as the quarter ended.

Following the kick Birmingham again made a drive from its own 20. Big play in this series was a 33-yard end-around to the 13 by Jim Traa. Quarterback Bill Swaney, on the option, hit Bob Isbell with a five yard pass for the touchdown. Huffman's point made it 13-7.

The lead was short lived, however, as the Acorns marched 65 yards. It was climaxed by a double reverse and handoff from Harper to Jordan who went 38 yards to score. Harper's point made it 13-13.

After the kickoff Birmingham punted from deep in its own territory to the Royal Oak 38. A five yard penalty put the ball on the 43 and on the 1st play Harper hit end Fred Wasen with a pass on the Maple 35 and he went all the way for a 50-yard scoring play. Harper made it 20-13.

In four plays the Maples moved from their own 20 to the Acron 29, but the half ended the threat.

Twice, early in the 2nd half, Royal Oak had the ball within its own goal post shadows, but the booming quick kicks by Harper forced the Maples way back.

Attempting to get moving, Swaney's pass was intercepted by Bill Owen to set up the final Acorn tally. He returned the ball from the 50 to the 23. Harper took a pitchout from Ron Bill and went eight yards to score. Harper made it 27-13.

With less than five minutes left, Traa made a great catch of Swaney's pass and went over in a play covering 38 yards.

A penalty for too many men on the field was a crucial factor against Birmingham. It enabled Royal Oak to get a 1st down on what would have been a punting situation, thereby cutting two minutes off the time.

With 35 seconds left Swaney passed 43 yards to Appleford for a 1st down on the Acron 27. Three long passes into the end zone failed, and the game ended before the 4th down came up.

It was a bitter defeat, the 4th straight Turkey game loss at the hands of Royal Oak, and 1st of the season for Birmingham.

Both teams had good control of the ball without fumbling. Quarterback Ron Bill was the unsung hero along with the running of Dick Jordan, Darrel Harper and Herb Deromedi. Maple end Jim Traa gave a spectacular exhibition of pass receiving and carrying the ball on several end around plays.

The pass interception which led to Royal Oak's final score was only the 2nd taken away from Bill Swaney this season. It was the most disastrous.

Sooners Head for 2nd National Title

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—When the 20th annual Associated Press college football poll ends this weekend, Oklahoma's Sooners may have achieved their second mythical national championship.

To nail down this honor, the Sooners — who close Saturday against Oklahoma A&M — must hang onto the No. 1 spot in the AP poll which is the basis for awarding the coveted Father O'Donnell Trophy.

Results of the final week's poll will be published Tuesday.

Engraved with this inscription, "National intercollegiate championship football trophy," the O'Donnell award has gone to the final AP poll winner each year since 1948, as did the Williams Trophy for seven previous years.

The O'Donnell Trophy, named in honor of the late Rev. J. Hugh O'Donnell, former Irish football player and Notre Dame president from 1940 through 1946, must be won three times to be retired.

Notre Dame's fighting Irish inherited sponsorship of a national championship trophy by winning the University of Minnesota's Williams Trophy for the third time in 1947.

Thus, this weekend, the nation's sports writers and TV-radio sportscasters, through the long-established AP poll, again will crown the country's championship team.

Oklahoma took the O'Donnell Trophy in 1950 and must hold fast in the determining AP poll against Michigan State and Maryland, who also have one leg on the trophy with 1952 and 1953 triumphs respectively. Michigan State, currently No. 2, and third-spot Maryland already have finished regular season play.

The winner of last year's AP poll was Ohio State, just crowned Big 10 champion for the second straight year, while Michigan won the O'Donnell Trophy its first year, 1948; Notre Dame captured it in 1949; and the other winner was Tennessee in 1951.

Father O'Donnell was a letter-winning center on the 1915 Notre Dame football team. He entered the Holy Cross Order shortly after he graduated and despite his priestly and administrative duties always kept close touch with Irish football.

After his death in June of 1947, the same year Notre Dame retired the Williams Trophy, the Notre Dame Monogram Club created as a memorial to Father O'Donnell the national grid award.

Notre Dame's famous Coach Knute K. Rockne, had previously been honored by the second of a series of four trophies presented to the nation's top football team. The Rockne Trophy (1931-1940) was retired by Minnesota and had been preceded by the Rissman Torphy (1924-1930).

Pellegrini No. 1 Player

Maryland Terrapins Place Five Men on Atlantic Coast Conference Eleven

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Maryland's Orange Bowl-bound football team placed five men on the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team annouced today by the Associated Press ACC regional board.

Heading the Maryland representation was Bob Pellegrini, who made the switch from guard to center and won the board's acclaim as the No. 1 player of the conference.

Duke, which can tie Maryland for the conference title if it beats North Carolina next week, took 3 places, with Wake Forest, North Carolina and Clemson each gaining 1.

The line, despite a pair of light ends, averages 206 pounds, just a pound under that of last year's star team. The backfield is a pound heavier at 188.

The backfield is a dynamite-packed quartet of Maryland's Ed Vereb and Frank Tamburello, Duke's Bob Pascal and Joe Wells of Clemson. Tamburello and Wells are among the four juniors on the team.

The ends are light but make up in drive and fire what they lack in size. Fiery Will Frye, a 190-pound Duke flanker, played consistently fine football all season.

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

OFF LINE TO RIGHT—You hear this complaint most frequently: "Can't hold the line. Finishing to the right." It's the old, old bugaboo at work—the wrong first step. That very little zag to the right does it. Just a little off to begin with, and it exaggerates itself at the foul line. You're pretty far off the correct finishing spot.

This applies especially to women, because the weight of the swinging ball naturally throws the footwork to the right. Let me give this valuable tip: The first step with the right foot (4-step footwork) must be slightly inward, to the left, as the sketch shows.

By stepping inward, the right hip clears out of the way for the backswing; keeps the swing in the groove, close to the body. The zag will be eliminated. Try it, and you'll immediately sense the change in footwork and swing. The stride will be straight-on, all the way, with the result that the arm, swinging true, will follow through to release the ball accurately. You'll reach out, instead of "pulling" the ball high on the head pin from an "outside" swing caused by zagging to the right. Bowling will be easier, more fun—with more strikes and better direction for spares.

Sugar, Cotton Bowl Openings Up for Grabs

Two Remaining Berths at Stake in Saturday Tilts; Navy Key Team

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tomorrow is $$$-day for Navy, Mississippi, Georgia Tech, Auburn and Vanderbilt in college football as Sugar and Cotton bowl officials take a last look at the five contenders before making selections to fill their two remaining lucrative January 2 berths.

Navy, geared for its traditional inter-service run-in with Army at Philadelphia, is the pivotal club in the five-team bowl parlay. It was Navy which broke the ice for the service academies by accepting a shot in the Sugar Bowl last New Year's Day, and word has it the Middies are favored for the Cotton Bowl this time opposite Texas Christian.

* * *

If Navy declines the bid, or loses to the Cadets, it would leave the Cotton and Sugar bowl selectors switching their bids to the SEC quarter—Ole Miss, Tech, Auburn and Vandy.

The SEC champ generally winds up in New Orleans at the Sugar Bowl, but there's no guarantee.

There's no guarantee as to who the SEC champ will be, either. All four of the bowl hopefuls have a chance.

The Gator Bowl, Sun Bowl and lesser post-season games also hinge on the outcome of tomorrow's games.

Two bowls already have their pairings made in view of conference tieups. The Rose Bowl matches Michigan State of the Big 10 and UCLA of the Pacific Coast. The Orange Bowl pairs Oklahoma, of the Big 7, and Maryland of the Atlantic Coast Conference, both unbeaten.

All four powers are listed among the top six in The Associated Press poll, with Oklahoma No. 1 and in search of its 29th straight victory in a regular season windup against Oklahoma A&M tomorrow. The other three already have called it quits until Jan. 2.

Argentinian in Televised Bout

Lausse Favored Over Gene Fullmer in 10 Round Argument

NEW YORK (AP) — Eduardo Lausse, a power-punching middleweight contender from Argentina, and slugging Gene (Cyclone) Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, colide tonight in a Madison Square Garden 10-rounder that has the fans buzzing as if it were a title fight.

The winner of what figures to be an all-out slugfest could go on to a championship fight this summer. The bout will be broadcast and telecast (NBC-TV and radio, 10 p.m. EST) coast to coast.

Boasting a victory streak of 29 over a span of more than three years, the swarthy, left-hooking Argentinian is a 5-2 choice over the muscular, 23-year-old pride of the Rockies.

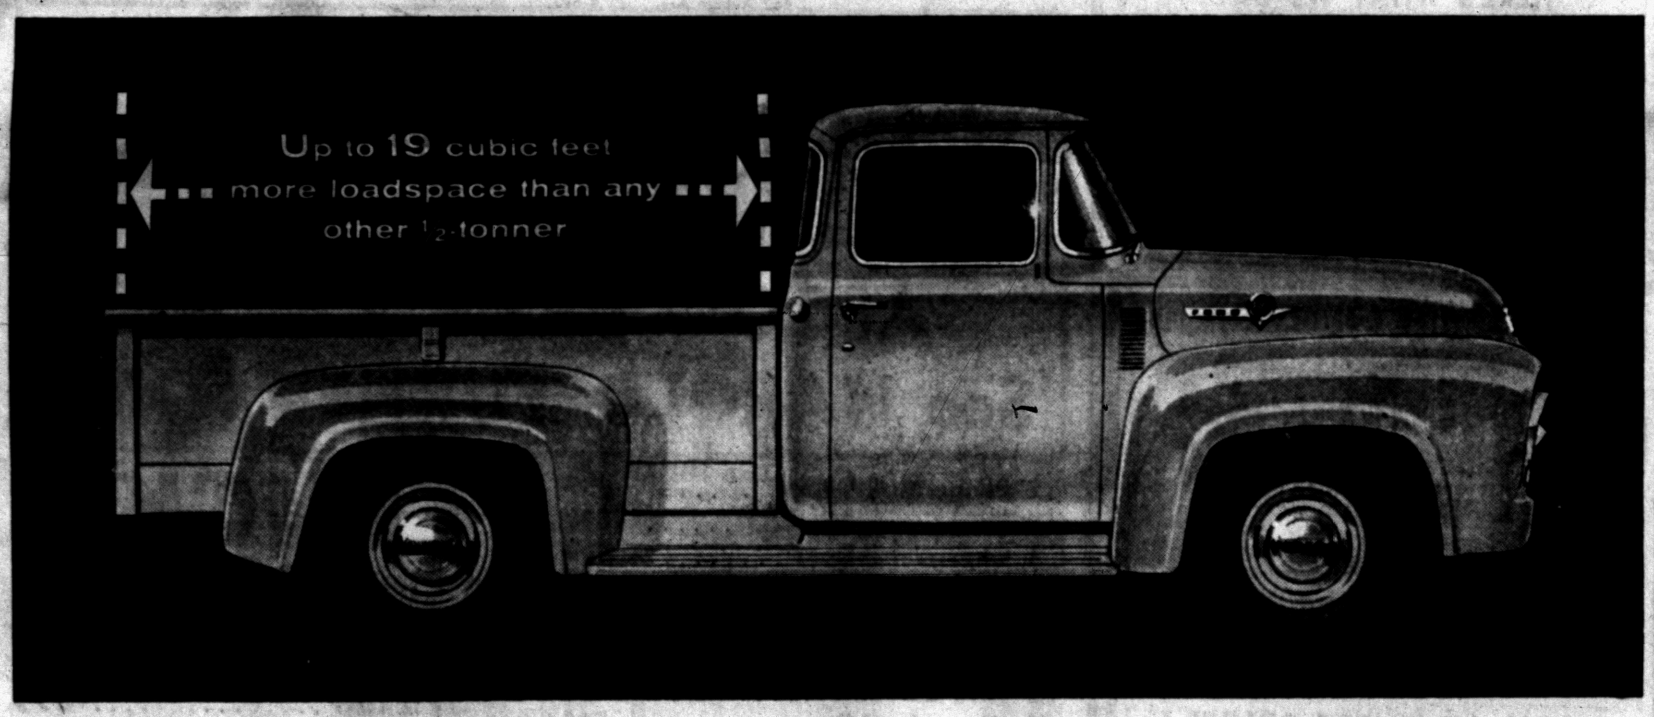

In piling up his win string, the 28-year-old Lausse flattened 25 of his rivals. He has a .720 kayo mark for his 67 fights which includes 59 victories, 6 losses and 2 draws. He has stowed away 48 rivals and never has been stopped himself.

Brazil Begins State of Siege

Modified Martial Law for 30 Days Requested by Ramos, Military

RIO DE JANEIRO (INS) —Brazil was placed today under a state of siege for the next 30 days.

The declaration had been requested by Ramos and three military ministers, chief among them War Minister Gen. Henrique Teixera Lott.

It was aimed primarily at blocking legal efforts of Joao Cafe Filho to reclaim the office of president. Cafe stepped down indefinitely because of illness on Nov. 8. Last Monday, he sought to return to office.

Twelve hours before the Senate approved the measure, Cafe declared emphatically that he would not resign as the constitutionally elected president of the largest republic in the Western Hemisphere.

The president met with newsmen in the home where he had been kept a virtual prisoner by army troops or police since Monday.

"It is impossible to tell exactly where Brazil is headed, but the position of Gen. Lott is not different from that of Getulio Vargas in 1937, when he established a dictatorship."

The Senate vote of 35 to 15 came at the end of a 16-hour session last night. The Lower House had approved the siege bill early yesterday morning after a day and two nights of virtually constant debate.

Earlier this week, Congress approved a resolution declaring Cafe was incapable of resuming power.

Lott said he acted to prevent a coup which would have overthrown the results of last October's election and blocked President-Elect Juscelino Kubitschek from taking office next Jan. 31.

Swim-Swing Dance to Be Held Tonight

Decorations will be centered around the traditional turkey when the YMCA Swim and Swing club holds its Thanksgiving Dance from 9 to 12 tonight at the Y building.

Teenagers from all over Pontiac and surrounding communities as well as vacationing college students again are invited to attend the swim and swing session, usually closed to all but club members. The last open dance drew a crowd of 150.

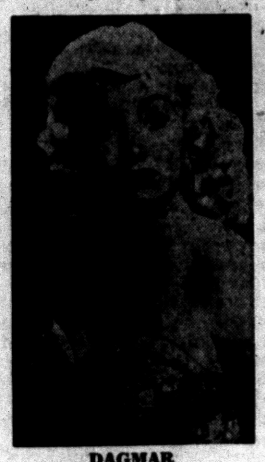

There will be an orchestra, a swim session concurrent with dancing from 9:30 to 10:30, and food will be available at the snack bar. Tickets are 50 cents each, and may be purchased at the door. Swimmers are asked to bring their own suits.

Dagmar Fools Hubby With Two-Party System

By EARL WILSON

OIL AROUND THE TOWN . . .

"Twas my mother-in-law's 71st birthday . . . also the birthday of Dagmar's husband, actor Danny Dayton. Dagmar found a way to guarantee the success of a surprise party for him which she calls "the two-party system."

DAGMAR

She first got a friend to give him a small party at the friend's home. While that was on, people invited to the surprise party were gathering at his own apartment. Not suspecting he'd be given two parties in one day, he was completely surprised when he got home, heard the Happy Birthdaying—and saw some of the same guests.

The idea's brilliant — except that the guest of honor may not feel real good next day.

Goodman Ace and the publishers of his book, "The Book of Little Knowledge," have sent out humorous corrections of a section which says Jackie Gleason neglected to give credit to his writers for a show. Gleason did give credit in a segment which Ace didn't see. "This error," Ace told friends, "just demonstrates the accuracy of the title of the book."

I tried this one on son Slug and he said it's typical of dads. Walter Framer of "Strike It Rich" told of a father about to punish his son, but the mother said, "Don't punish him now . . . wait until he does it again." The father retorted, "Yeah, but what if he doesn't do it again?"

Wyandotte Flats Burn; All Safe

WYANDOTTE (INS)—Thirteen families were driven into the 24-degree cold in their nightclothing early today when fire virtually destroyed a three-story apartment building in Wyandotte.

The blaze raged out of control for three hours.

One occupant, 88-year-old Mrs. Julia McCourt, was rescued by Howard Graff, 40, another tenant. She was taken to Wyandotte General Hospital suffering from smoke inhalation, but her condition was not considered serious.

Illinois' Attorney Caught 'Prowling' in Own Office

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (AP)— Deputy Sheriff Donald Gelling grabbed his gun and keys and hurried to the courthouse. Someone said he saw another someone inside the Lake County Courthouse on a holiday and Gelling was determined to get that so-and-so prowler or else.

Inside he found State's Atty. Robert C. Nelson, who said he thought it was a good day to catch up on his office work.

Czechs Banish Magazine Table

Iron Curtain Falls on U.S. Embassy Project in Prague

WASHINGTON (AP) — Communist Czechoslovakia's effort to prevent its people from reading Western publications has reached into the flower garden of the U.S. Embassy at Prague.

The story, as reported today by officials who served there, goes like this:

Long before the Communists came, the people of Prague enjoyed taking Sunday walks. Traditionally, all the embassies which lie in the shadow of the presidential palace have thrown open their gates to the strolling public on Sunday.

This fall, the American Embassy set up a small table in its courtyard. On the table were spread back issues of U.S. magazines which the embassy staff had received from home. These publications included fashion magazines, periodicals and some news and picture magazines.

Czechs leafed through them and by the end of the first day all the magazines had disappeared. In time, the embassy was doing a land office business in back-issue magazines.

Soon the Communist regime — which forbids all Western literature to its people—got wind of what was happening.

On Nov. 11 the Czech Foreign Office called in Harold C. Vedeler, in charge of the embassy in the absence of Ambassador Alexis Johnson.

Vedeler was told the display of U.S. magazines within ready reach of Czech citizens was "unwelcome." He argued the magazines were not propaganda but simply reflected American culture.

County Donates 856 Pints of Blood During November

Voluntary contributions of blood by Oakland County residents reached 856 pints during November, according to Dr. Ernest Bauer, chairman of the area Red Cross program.

Dr. Bauer said that the donation of 48 pints by employes of the Baldwin Rubber Co. ended the November bloodmobile drive and allowed the blood bank to operate over the Thanksgiving holiday.

The official stated that the county will operate only four mobile units in December to avoid a possible oversupply. The usual Christmas deficit, he said, will be staved off this year by the expected contribution of a supply from the Milan Prison blood bank.

Bloodmobiles during December will stop at St. Dennis Hall in Royal Oak Dec. 5; Lathrup Townsite Community Church Dec. 6; the Pontiac Elks Temple Dec. 12, and the Fisher Body Division Dec. 15.

Job Stipulation: Job

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Wallace Davis, a retired advertising man, is building a series of dams for fresh water lakes on his place. He had one stipulation for firms wanting the job; They had to give him a job driving one of the tractors.

Crop Acreage Drops

WASHINGTON—American farmers planted 353,000,000 acres to 59 principal crops in 1955, a decrease of 1,000,000 acres from the 1954 total and some 12,800,000 acres below the record wartime planting of 1944.

Hollywood Headlines:

SOS for Yvonne's Hubby Breaks Into Honeymoon

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Yvonne De Carlo should have kept her honeymoon plans as secret as she kept her wedding plans.

If she had, her brand new bridegroom, Bob Morgan, might not have been found so quickly in Las Vegas and ordered back to Hollywood to do the stunts for the ailing Sterling Hayden in "Bed of Fear."

Sterling slipped a disc in his spine on Wednesday morning and was unable to do the strenuous action scenes which Morgan was helping him on before he up and eloped with Yvonne.

Never let it be said that Yvonne's stuntman husband isn't a trouper. He caught the first plane to Hollywood after the SOS went out about Hayden, arriving Wednesday afternoon.

DAN PHILOSOPHICAL

Dan Dailey was very philosophical when I talked with him in the Cedars of Lebanon Hospital after his horse threw him.

"I figure I'm very lucky," said Dan. "I might have broken my back instead of cracking my neck. This traction isn't the most comfortable thing in the world, but it could be worse."

Dan says his horse was more frightened than he was when the animal put his foot in a hole and fell.

"My horse might have fallen on me," he said, "we were going so fast. Anyway, I'm getting a nice rest in the hospital."

Gwen has been with Dan every day, and up to date there have been no more quarrels.

STILL TOGETHER

When I printed that Leigh Snowden and Dick Contino had said goodbye to romance, I didn't really believe they would stay apart — there was too much unhappiness on both sides.

So when I saw them together at the "Guys and Dolls" premier I wasn't too surprised, although both say they will not marry and will not see each other as often as in the old days.

Universal-International is helping Leigh forget her troubles by picking up her option for one more year and sending her on a personal appearance tour in connection with "All That Heaven Allows" which will take her to Tennessee to spend Christmas with her family. While there Leigh will pick up her two children.

I feel sorry for Leigh and Dick, who are so in love, but under existing circumstances can't marry.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Andrea Leeds Howard hurried in from Palm Springs to be with Bob Howard, who is in St. John Hospital. Tomorrow Bob will undergo surgery for kidney stones.

Baron Patrick Rothschild, whose father, Baron Eric Rothschild, was often in the company of Greta Garbo, is visiting here. The young baron escorted Peggy Connolly to the "Sincerely Yours" premiere.

Jimmy McHugh leaves Monday for New York where he and Harold Adamson will have conferences about "Stripped for Action," the play for which they wrote the words and music. They expect to be in the East at least a month for rehearsals.

Greg Bautzer has been elected to the board of directors of the Beverly Hills Hotel, which is a nice compliment considering it always has been a closed corporation.

At the Mocambo, Jon Hall held hands with Linda Danson all through Eartha Kitt's singing and dance number. Jon and Linda are expected to marry by the first of the year.

Donald O'Connor, after carefully pampering his mustache, has promised the Sahara Hotel in Las Vegas that he'll shave it off for his opening there Dec. 28.

Bob Hope sent the following telegram to Dean Martin: "If Jerry gives you any trouble, let me know. I'll be standing by." Then he sent the identical telegram to Jerry.

More Hamburg Eaten

CHICAGO—The American Meat Institute forecasts that Americans will consume a record eight billion hot dogs and some 200,000,000 pounds of hamburger in 1955, helped by backyard grill chefs. In 1954 the hamburger figure was 180,600,000 pounds and in 1950 it amounted to a mere 76,000,000.

Teacher Hired From the South

Nebraskan School Man Signs Up Mississippi Instructor on Purpose

DUNNING, Neb. (AP)—School opening was approaching last fall and Supt. C. Floyd Boydston was having no luck getting an instructor in bookkeeping, typewriting and English from this area.

So, said Boydston today, "I purposely turned to the South and looked for a Negro."

That is how Charles Carpenter, 23, came to be a Negro teacher in this all-white north central Nebraska town of 254, located in the heart of the rich sandhills cattle land.

Boydston got Carpenter, one of 13 children of a sharecropper at Magnolia, Miss., out of a bakery. He was working there while looking for a teaching job after graduating wth honors from Xavier University, New Orleans.

* * *

"I didn't hesitate one second," Carpenter related. "I was hitchhiking to Nebraska the day after I was told I was hired."

He said when he arrived here he was "met with a warm handshake everywhere" and "I knew my big step was a good one."

"Here I'm helping establish the fact we can intermingle," he said.

He told how his students "keep me busy" teaching him the horseback riding, hunting and fishing habits of cattle country people.

* * *

Boydston speaks for Dunning in these words: "We are fortunate that we took this step. The people and his students are proud of him and we have a good teacher."

Ohio Nearing Record on Saving Bond Buys

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohioans are socking more money into U. S. Savings Bonds this year than at any time since the end of World War II.

Treasury Department aides said today that $297,593,000 worth of "E" and "H" bonds—those sold to individuals — were purchased in Ohio in the first 10 months of this year.

That, said the treasury, probably means the state will top its 1954 postwar record of $319,777,867.

"And it just isn't true—as some people seem to think—that most of the buyers are cashing their bonds right after they purchase them," a treasury man said.

"Nationally about 15 per cent of the bonds sold this year have been redeemed. That would be approximately true for Ohio."

Typewriter Key Inventor Warns of Patent Shock

SEATTLE (AP) — Prof. August Dvorak, inventor of the simplified typewriter keyboard which the government is testing, says the General Services Administration apparently is in for a slight shock.

The GSA said yesterday it understood the patent on the machine had expired in 1953 and Dvorak would receive no financial benefit if the government adopts it.

Dvorak said today the government is laboring under a misapprehension; that under a 1949 act of Congress he has obtained a 6-year veteran's extension on his patent, making its expiration date 1959.

He said he is "absolutely delighted," however, to hear that the government has said it's attitude wasn't influenced by whether or not the patent was in effect.

Trading Slow in All Grains

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains sold off early and then climbed back up on the Board of Trade today. In most cases prices recovered above the previous close.

Trading again was slow in all pits. Public interest in the market continued very limited and local traders were not inclined to do much in the one-day session sandwiched between Thanksgiving Day and the weekend.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ¼ to ⅝ higher, December $2.03⅝; corn unchanged to ⅜ higher, December $1.25⅛; oats unchanged to ⅜ lower, December 63⅜; rye ½ to ¾ lower, December $1.11; soybeans ¾ to 1¼ higher, January $2.33½, and lard 5 to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, December $10.90.

ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS

The Board of Education of School District No. 3 Fractional of Bloomfield Township and Bloomfield Hills City, Pontiac, Michigan, will receive sealed bids for the drilling of a well and for site clearance and rough grading at the site of the Hickory Grove Elementary School, Bloomfield Township, Michigan until 8:00 P. M., E. S. T. Wednesday, November 30, 1955 at the office of the Board of Education, School District No. 3 Fractional of Bloomfield Township and Bloomfield Hills City, 156 East Square Lake Road, Pontiac, Michigan, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

Proposal A—the drilling of a well.

Proposal B—site clearance and rough grading.

Proposals must be on forms furnished by the architect and be accompanied by a bid bond or certified check in the amount of 5 % of the proposal submitted.

Plans and specifications may be obtained on and after Tuesday, November 22, 1955, at the office of the architect, Architect Linn Smith, A.I.A. 114 South Woodward Avenue, Birmingham, Michigan.

A check in the sum of $10.00 must be submitted as a deposit for each set of plans and specifications, same to be refunded upon return of plans and specifications in good condition within ten (10) days of the opening of bids.

Accepted bidder will be required to furnish satisfactory performance bond and labor and material bond, each in the amount of 100% of the contract, the total cost of which shall be paid by the accepted bidder.

All proposals submitted shall remain firm for a period of thirty (30) days after official opening of bids.

The Board of Education reserves the right to reject any or all bids in whole or in part, and to waive any informalities therein.

Railway Stocks Dominate Mart

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market drove ahead today after its Thanksgiving recess with railroads exceptionally strong in the early afternoon.

Santa Fe was up between 5 and 6 points, and displaying gains in the neighborhood of 2 points were Southern Railway, Union Pacific, and Rock Island.

As a general rule gains went to between 1 and 2 points at the best throughout the list while losses in most instances were a point or les Trading was moderate at a pace a little higher than 2,000,000 shares for the day. That compared with 2,500,000 shares traded Wednesday when the market was higher.

Chevrolet to Produce Two Millionth Today

DETROIT (AP)—The two millionth Chevrolet produced in U.S. plants this year will roll from an assembly line in Flint today.

T. H. Keating, general manager of General Motors' Chevrolet Division, said a new record was assured in Chevrolet production during a single year. The company turned out two million cars in 1950, but the figure was not reached until Dec. 29.

Keating said records also were set this year in daily production (10,172) as well as weekly (53,510) and monthly (208,263) production.

Gals Avoid Antarctic

WASHINGTON (INS) — Rear Adm. Richard E. Byrd, who leaves today to take command of his fifth expedition to the Antarctic said: "No woman has ever set foot in the Antarctic. We found it to be the quietest and most peaceful place on earth."

Studebaker Line to Make Debut

'Golden Hawk' to Head New Sports-Type Series —Showing December 7

Studebaker's new "Hawk" line, described by its makers as "the first American-made series of sports-type cars," will be introduced in Studebaker-Packard dealerships across the country December 7.

The line will be presented in two hardtop and two coupe models in four different series. Each will hold five passengers.

Engines in the cars will range from 275 horsepower, 9.5 to 1 compression ratio, in the "Golden Hawk" down to 161 horsepower for the "Flight Hawk."

Other series will include the "Sky Hawk" which has a 210 horsepower V-8 engine and the 170-horsepower V-8 "Power Hawk."

Wheelbases will measure 120½ inches; overall lengths will be 203 inches. Heights will be slightly over 56 inches while the widths will be about 70½ inches.

In pre-production tests at the company's South Bend proving ground the Golden Hawk averaged 54 seconds in acceleration from 30 to 60 miles an hour. The same model reached 60 miles an hour in 8.6 seconds from a standing start.

Special safety equipment, standard on all models, will include safety door latches, tubeless tires, safety beam headlights, self-tightening wheel bolts and padded seat backs. Padded instrument panels and seat belts will be standard on the Golden Hawk and optional on other models.

The line's design features high, long front fenders thrust over the headlamps. A "rub rail" extends from the headlamp rim through the door and terminates in a chromed "vee" check at the forward end of a tail fin running the length of the rear fenders.

Both the Golden Hawk and the Sky Hawk will have finned safety brakes, said by the manufacturers to give 100 per cent faster brake cooling.

Despite Reds, Formosa Gets Buddhist Relic

TOKYO (AP)—Despite heated protests by the Red China radio at Peiping, a Chinese Buddhist religious relic was flown to Formosa today, Kyodo news service reported.

Five members of the All-Japan Buddhist Assn. flew to Taipei with a portion of the skull of the seventh century monk Hsuan Chuang, acquired during the Japanese occupation of China.

Previous Peiping broadcasts have said parts of the monk's skull were enshrined in Buddhist temples in Red China. Hsuan Chuang was famous for translating Buddhist scriptures from Sanskrit into Chinese.

Comic Believes Filmed Recordings Are Equal to Live Shows

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS) — Bob Hope was in the halls of Hollywood and we were on the shore of Miami Beach as we chatted, courtesy of Mr. Bell's contraption.

Bob was in a mood to talk of many things—his next TV show (with guest stars Betty Grable, James Mason and a slew of continental types to be selected when he gets to Europe shortly), his next movie (co-starring Katharine Hepburn, who will play a Russian aviatrix to Hopes's U.S. Army Captain in a Tovirich-type comedy).

But mostly Bob wanted to discuss the difference between TV shows being filmed, and his own recent productions, which have been kinescoped.

Bob maintains kinescopes, when properly lighted and presented, are "just as good as 'live' shows, and I defy any one to tell the difference."

Bob expanded a little on that divergence from our opinion by adding: "Why, out here in Hollywood, we get all our TV shows by kinescope, because of the time difference, even the ones originating out here."

And there, we suspect, is the rub. Bob was voicing a simple provincial outlook, where the expedient has been accepted through constant utilization as the norm.

Because the West Coast TV customers must take kinescope recordings, viewers out there have been able to adjust their optical acceptance to kinescopes as regular fare.

SHOW FOR BERGEN

Starts in January. Barbara Stanwyck was runner-up . . .

Caught Jack Paar's afternoon nonesense recently; he's still the slickest, most charming TV small-talker of all, with a merry modern attitude and a good cast; Edith Adams is perky, pert, purty and maybe even perfect, though it's a word we value too much to trot it out casually . . .

We could do without the small labored, obviously rehearsed gags of contestants on the 64-G opus, which clumsily take up time that always seems needed at the hurry - up - and-let's-get-in-one-more-commercial finale . . .

"Honeymooners" has climed a few Trendex points to 29.2 versus Perry Como's last half-hour rating of 22.9, but Perry's first half-hour hit a new high of 30.6 to 14.7 for "Stage Show," giving Perry an hour-long average of 27.6 to the CBS-TV's 24.6.

LONG-HAIR TV

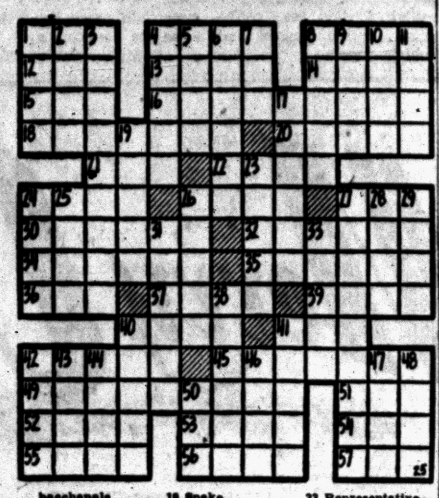

What intellectual can still look snootily down his horn rims at TV after Maurice Evans' fine production of 'The Devil's Disciple" on Hallmark Theater? . . .

Lisa Kirk's expected to start a whole new career Sunday on the General Electric show when she emotes in a backstage drama, "Take It Fron the Top." Jack Carter plays Lisa's agent . . .

Rocky Graziano has a strange mission in life, proving he is no traitor to his class: He constantly tries to sell all TV shows on hiring ex-pugs.

TV's "Cain Mutiny" trumph had a marginal effect we admired — the commercials were not splashed into the intermissions hard on the heels of scenes that were emotionally shattering. Good going.

State Mail Order Firm Faces FTC Allegations

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) today charged the Michigan Bulb Co., of Grand Rapids, with deceiving the public about flowers and shrubs it sells by mail.

In all, the FTC complaint alleged 24 instances of "deception of the public" by the company.

The FTC said the company advertises over the radio, in newspapers and in magazines, offering package sales of nursery stock said to include "42 gorgeous rose plants, flowering shrubs and hedge plants," "100 gladiolus bulbs," and "indoor winter flower garden."

The 42 plants and shrubs, FTC said, were advertised as a $26.77 value, for $2.98.

The FTC said it charged in its complaint that:

"This assortment (of 42 plants) contains no roses, and the two hydrangeas are in reality two wild plants known as the seven or nine bark plant . . . some are either dead or so weak they will not grow. . . The assortment is not a $26.77 value . . .

"Gladiolus bulbs received are often bulblets . . . not capable of the full production ascribed to them.

"The 'beautiful young evergreens' are not, as represented, grown in Michigan and inspected by the State Department of Agriculture."

The complaint noted that the firm also trades under these names: Michigan Bulb Importers, Rapid Specialties Co., Flower-of-the Month Club, and Garden Specialties Co.

FTC said the Holland Bulb Co. "participates in business" with Michigan Bulb, and that Holland Bulb Co. is the partnership name of Forrest and Louis Laug.

Forrest and Louis Laug, plus Gerald D. Laug, were named in the FTC complaint as officers of Michigan Bulb.

Parties to the complaint were given 30 days to reply. The FTC scheduled an examiner's hearing in Grand Rapids next Feb. 6.

House of Lords Hears Marquis Talk Rabbits

LONDON (AP)—The Marquis of Cholmondeley (pronounced Chumley) made his first speech in the House of Lords last night after 32 years in the British Parliament's august upper house.

"At long last," he told his fellow peers, "I have been brought to my feet by the wish to do something about rabbits."

Speaking with weighty emphasis the 72-year-old Lord Great Chamberlain, who is Queen Elizabeth's custodian of the houses of Parliament and theatrical censor among other posts, said:

"I know a neighbor who will not try to catch his rabbits and the only way to deal with him is by drastic legislation. I do not believe that propaganda will do it.

"There should be healthy fines, and maybe jail and if some of your lordships land in jail, it's your own fault."

Rabbits do great damage to crops in Britain and the subject of how to control them is debated constantly in Parliament.

Chaplain Is Promoted to Major at Air Base

Promotion of Capt. Russell C. Haggard to the rank of major has been announced by authorities at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Haggard, of 34 N. Johnson Ave.

A chaplain, Major Patterson was pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church in Saginaw before entering military service. He is a veteran of World War II and the Korean War.

Harriman Says Criticism True

GOP's Silence to Blasts at Foreign Policy Admits Wrong, He Declares

NEW YORK (AP)—New York Gov. Averell Harriman says Republican leaders have "obviously recognized the truth" of his criticism of American foreign policy during a Western speaking tour.

Harriman told newsmen as he arrived by plane yesterday:

"The Republican high command, in trying to answer what I said in Seattle about foreign policy, obviously recognized the truth of my analysis since they avoided any comment on the facts that I brought out—that the Communists had gained, our cause had lost during the three months that the spirit of Geneva reigned."

* * *

Harriman made one-day visits to Seattle, Portland, Ore., and Lewiston, Idaho, to speak in behalf of Democratic candidates.

* * *

In his Portland speech he criticized Republican handling of natural resources. In Lewiston, from where he flew here, he accused the Eisenhower administration of a deliberate attempt to drive farm prices down.

He will leave here Wednesday for the South.

He plans to fly to Mobile, Ala., and then drive 40-odd miles north for a day of deer hunting with a group of Democrats.

* * *

He will be the guest of Gov. James E. Folsom of Alabama and Rep. Frank Boykin at the Boykin game preserve in McIntosh, Ala. He will spend Thursday at the Boykin preserve and go to New Orleans Friday.

He will speak in New Orleans and Oklahoma City Friday and Saturday and then return to Albany.

Tear Gas Quells 2-Hour Teenage Grid Game Riot

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP) — Police fired a tear gas bomb into an unruly mob which staged a two-hour riot in the heart of Savannah last night after the annual Savannah High-Benedictine football game.

The bomb did the job—but not until six policemen had been injured and hundreds of dollars worth of fire-fighting equipment destroyed. Several persons were arrested for disorderly conduct.

Two of the officers were hospitalized briefly.

Police said between 6,000 and 7,000 students, adults and spectators jammed the area at Bull and Broughton streets.

"It was just one of those things," said one police officer. "It happens every year—only this time the students worked up a little more enthusiasm than usual."

The mob attempted unsuccessfully to overturn two fire chiefs' automobiles and the patrol wagon. An officer was injured when a brick was thrown through a police patrol car.

County Red Cross Collects 150 Gifts

The collection of 150 gifts for distribution to servicemen serving aboard ships at Christmastime has been announced by officials of the Oakland County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Mrs. Benjamin Mills, of Bloomfield Hills, secretary of the Veterans Service Council, states that the distribution will be part of the Red Cross' "Christmas on the High Seas" program.

The council serves a 5-county area made up of Oakland, Monroe, Macomb, St. Clair and Wayne.

Molotov Plays St. Nick to American Housewife

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Mrs. Rae Ann Hillmann wanted a pair of Russian dolls to round out her collection so she wrote Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov last July asking for two between 6 and 18 inches tall.

Back came the dolls last week.

"Naturally they had to outdo the rest," Mrs. Hillmann said yesterday. "Their dolls are 20 inches tall—bigger than any others in my collection."

She said the fine needlework on the clothes showed they weren't made on a production line—they "must have been made especially after my request."

Military authorities said the circumstances suggested suicide but the cause of death had not been determined. An autopsy will be held. Authorities said he had been despondent over a military assignment.

Grant, missing since Wednesday, was an anesthesiologist at the Ryukyus Army Hospital. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ruth B. L. Grant, who lives on Okinawa.

Grant was a graduate of the University of Michigan and was licensed to practice in Michigan.

Kentucky City Nervous as Thieves Get Arsenal

WINCHESTER, Ky. (AP) — Winchester could be in for a nasty time.

Thieves broke into the C. R. Henry store and swiped $800 worth of best-quality rifles and shotguns —14 of them.

And, police said, they emptied several ammunition boxes, apparently loading the guns on the spot. Also stolen were five pocket knives, four hunting knives and five blackjacks.
