Laos Hints Both Reds, U.S. Halt Military Aid

But Washington Sees Russians Cheating

VIENTIANE, Laos (U-P) — A spokesman for the Laotian government said today it would be willing to stop accepting U.S. military aid if the Soviet Union would stop supplying arms to the rebels.

Information Minister Bouvan Norasing also insisted that the pro-Western government here would not accept a cease fire in Laos unless the Soviet shift stops.

The Laotian position is stronger than the one reportedly taken by the United States.

Officials here said Washington feels a halt in arms shipments to Laos would be unworkable because, as one source put it, "the Russians would be able to cheat too easily."

The civil war returned to a twilight state following a flurry of weekend combat reports. Military experts had no reports of serious fighting from any of the various fronts today.

At Jakarta, Indonesia and China held a threat over the West to turn Laos into another Korea if the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization sends troops into the stricken Indochina kingdom.

Peiping's Foreign Minister Chen Yi, winding up a visit to Indonesia, told newsmen that if SEATO sends troops into Laos, "then China will also send troops."

Marshal Chen Yi, who commanded the Chinese Communist 3rd Army before becoming foreign minister, alluded to SEATO's warning that it was prepared to take "appropriate action" to prevent an armed Communist take-over in Laos.

The plump, balding marshal insisted "that up to now China has not taken part in the Laotian civil war."

Crises Dampen Kennedy Easter

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President Kennedy figured in two crises over the Easter weekend, one a reported assassination-plot against his family and the other involving Southeast Asia.

The President and his smartly dressed wife attended Easter Sunday church services under a doubled security guard because of deep concerns about the Kennedy family's safety.

On the international front, the President's attention centered on what he called the potentially dangerous "situation" in Communist-ruled Laos.

Kennedy said the Soviet Union's reply Saturday to British proposals for restoration of peace in the Asian kingdom "offers hope that a way can be found to establish a neutral and independent Laos through negotiations."

The vacationing President commented on the Soviet note after he and Secretary of State Dean Rusk had studied it here.

Kennedy, who arrived here last Thursday, now is scheduled to return to Washington Tuesday.

On Wednesday at the White House he will start a round of conferences with Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan. Efforts to bring about a cease-fire in Laos will be a prime topic.

The President has had no comment on reported plots by pro-Communist Cubans to kidnap his daughter Caroline, 3, or assassinate the entire Kennedy family.

Nehru Backs West on Laos Cease Fire

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru today supported Western policy calling for a cease fire as the first step towards a solution of the Laotian crisis.

In a copyrighted interview with U.S. News & World Report, Nehru added, however, that he wasn't "quite sure" he saw Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev could go in ordering an immediate cease fire.

"After all, a lot of those who are actually doing the fighting are more or less guerrillas," he said. "It would be difficult to reach them even if they were organized — and more so under actual conditions."

Nehru said that if the Russians stopped sending supplies it would have an effect on the cease fire.

President to Visit De Gaulle in Paris

with the big three leaders of Western Europe.

MEET 8 DAYS AGO
The President met eight days ago at Key West, Fla., with Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan for discussion of the Laos crisis. They will resume their talks on this and other problems in Washington Tuesday.

And West Germany's chancellor Konrad Adenauer will be in Washington April 11-13 for conferences with Kennedy.

After a bit more than four months in office, therefore, Kennedy will have discussed with Macmillan, De Gaulle and Adenauer the administration's strategy on efforts to ease East-West tensions.

The talks are certain to embrace a variety of Western problems in dealing with the Soviet Union, including disarmament, the Berlin situation and Laos.

Kennedy's decision to accept De Gaulle's invitation to go to Paris reflects a change in travel policy as set forth by the White House about the time he took office in January.

At that time Salinger said Kennedy had no plans to go abroad for international conferences during at least the first six months of his administration.

The decision also reflects an obviously changing Kennedy attitude toward talks at the summit, including meetings with leaders of friendly nations.

The end was quite recently was that the new President favored a return to use of the ordinary diplomatic channels, with ambassadors and foreign ministers negotiating the fighting and chiefs of state or government.

Kennedy's trip to Paris will not be a full-blown state visit.

Some of the ceremony and high protocol accorded a chief of state will be omitted in order to give the President and De Gaulle more time for working meetings.

Arrangements for the Kennedy visit have been worked out during the past few weeks.

The formal announcement came after talks between Kennedy and French Ambassador Herve Alphand in Washington, between De Gaulle and U.S. roving ambassadors Averell Harriman and De Gaulle and James Gavin, the new American ambassador in Paris.

China Reds to Free Sick Businessman

LONDON (UPI) — Communist China has agreed to free critically ill Robert McKean of Alameda, Calif., an American businessman serving a 15-year term for "espionage," the Communist New China News Agency reported today.

The agency said McKean will leave Communist China April 8 with his wife who flew to China to visit him when she was told he was dying of cancer.

The agency said she arrived March 28 to appeal for his release.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (U-P) — The U.N. General Assembly today overrode bitter Soviet opposition and approved a temporary extension of Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold's Congo spending powers.

The vote on the stopgap resolution was 53-0 with 22 abstentions. The negative votes were cast by the Soviet bloc and Mali.

Soviet Delegate A. A. Roach challenged the legality of the assembly's action.

He said the United Nations is carrying out the Congo operation "in the interest of the colonial powers and is pushing itself into bankruptcy by actions which violate the U.N. charter."

"From top to bottom," Roach said, "the operation has been guided by the colonial powers."

The resolution authorizes Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold to go on spending $5 million a month on the military and civilian operations in the African territory up to April 21, closing date of the assembly session.

Hammarskjold's previous three-month spending authorization ran out Friday night, the day after the budgetary committee approved the Indian resolution 39-9 with 23 abstentions.

Murphy has forecast that about 110,000 out of the county's 350,000 registered voters will cast their ballots in the election, which could be the last of the biennials should a constitutional convention be approved.

Besides spotty, overcast skies and cool temperatures, were expected to have state and county election officials wondering about their estimates. Easter falling the day before the election might keep turnout low top, Murphy said.

About 94,000 Oakland voters cast ballots in 1958, an election which created more interest because of the balloting for Circuit Court judges.

Particular interest has been created in Waterford Township as a slate of Republicans have set their sights in dumping the incumbent Democrats headed by Supervisor Elmer R. Johnson.

Balloting for two justice of the peace posts in the township has helped, too.

Waterford Township Clerk James E. Seeterlin estimated that 2,000 out of the township's 22,000 registered voters had voted by 1 p.m.

City Commission's OK Sought on Five Contracts

BIRMINGHAM — Five contracts will be presented tonight to the City Commission for its approval. The agreements are for the construction of the Island View Parking Lot, the demolition of buildings for the Northwest Quadrant Parking Lot expansion, and the purchase of a civil defense rescue truck, a traffic signal and a machine for the forestry department.

City Engineer William T. Kitten, in a report to the commission, recommended that the parking lot construction bid be given to Stolaruk Asphalt Paving, Inc. of Oak Park.

Stolaruk's bid of $22,190 is the lowest of six submitted. Kitten said, and approximately 25 per cent lower than the estimate made by city engineers.

Andrew P. Butt, city building inspector, recommends that the demolition contract for three buildings on the Northwest Quadrant Parking Lot site be given to Joseph F. Heitach for his bid of $1,800.

Four companies submitted bids for the civil defense rescue truck. The bid of Stark Hickey Ford, Inc., will be recommended for approval by Asst. City Manager Robert S. Kenning. Hickey's low bid is $13,450.

A $400 contract to the Graybar Electric Co. of Detroit for a traffic signal at Adams and Porley will be placed before the commission for approval on the recommendation of Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley.

T. C. Brice, superintendent of the Department of Public Works will recommend to the commission that it accept a bid of $3,013 from the Miller Equipment Co. for a brush chipper machine.

Armed Bandits Strike Twice

One Gets $925. From Man in Alley; Other Takes $42 at Cleaners

Armed bandits struck twice in Pontiac over the weekend.

A holdup man Saturday night fled with $925 taken at gunpoint behind the victim's home, and another gunman took $42 earlier that afternoon from a dry cleaning firm.

Charles Akers, 22, of 388 N. Perry St., a salesman, told Pontiac police he was robbed of $925 when he parked his car in the alley behind his home and started into his backyard.

Akers said the bandit came running up from behind another car, demanded his money, then fled on foot.

Akers was carrying the large sum because he had just sold a boat, he told police.

The bandit was described as white, between 25 and 30 years of age, 6 feet tall with dark hair and a mustache. The robbery occurred shortly after 10 p.m.

The other holdup was at 3:30 p.m. at the Bayview Drive-In Dry Cleaners, 188 Orchard Lake Ave.

Mrs. Evald Buettner, 56, of 254 Liberty St. was asked for some clothing, and while she checked for the fictitious order, the holdup man pulled a revolver.

A member of the Pontiac Board of Education, Rev. J. Allen Parker, came into the store while the robbery was in progress, but though the bandit was another customer.

He tried to follow the gunman after he left but lost track of the man who fled east on Orchard Lake.

The robber was described as a Negro, 6 feet tall, weighing between 200 and 220 pounds, between 40 and 50 years of age and wearing a tan sweat overcoat.

East and South Are Afflicted by April Snow

Depths up to 9 inches were measured in the Upper New York foothills, and the fall on Buchanan County in Southwest Virginia was as much as 4 inches.

There were wide areas of chilly air in the nation's northeast quadrant, with freezing temperatures as far south on the Piedmont as Richmond and Newport News, Va.

GOP's Oscar List Jibes at the Dems

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Republican National Committee has drawn up a tongue-in-cheek list of "Oscar" nominees which jibes at officials of the Kennedy administration and members of the President's family.

The mock nominations included U.N. Ambassador Adlai Stevenson in "The Mouse That Roared." Caroline Kennedy in "The Entertainer," Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., in "Gone With the Wind," Rep. Howard Smith, D-Va., who lost a House Rules Committee fight with administration forces, in "The Angry Silence."

The GOP release also listed Dr. Janet Travell, White House physician who recommended the President use a rocking chair, in "Rock Around the Clock" and the President's father, financier Joseph P. Kennedy in "The Outsider."

In a category for the best screenplay, the Republicans listed "I'm All Right, Jack" by G. Mennen Williams, undersecretary of state for African affairs; "Left, Right and Center" by the Democratic Platform Committee and "Never Steal Anything Small" by the Cook County Democratic Committee in Chicago.

The GOP National Committee added a footnote: "With apologies to the producers of the films whose real titles were used herein."

Castro Men Grab More Control to Stop Uprisings

HAVANA, Cuba (UPI) — Cuban army units today controlled most of the island's naval installations to prevent further uprisings by naval personnel opposed to the pro-Communist policies of the Castro regime.

Twenty-one sailors and one officer — the entire detachment of a small navy post at Guanabacoa Beach — were reported to have defected and escaped aboard a Coast Guard craft Sunday.

On Saturday, reports in Havana said the government had broken up a counter-revolutionary movement by 300 naval personnel. It was the fourth reported mutiny by naval officers and men.

Informed sources said 60 sailors and officers fled to Haiti aboard three PT boats while others escaped in smaller numbers aboard lesser craft when the government learned of the plot.

In the past, he said, such increased communication has always preceded a Soviet space experiment.

District of Columbia
Receives Vote Right

A long standing wrong has been righted through a constitutional amendment permitting the residents of the District of Columbia to vote for President.

For more than 160 years, people living in the heart of the Nation's capital have been barred from casting a ballot for the Chief Executive unless they maintained a legal residence elsewhere. Many of them regarded this as a justified bit of evasion and no one can point the finger of reproach in their direction. In spite of this subterfuge, officials estimate that nearly a quarter of a million voters have been barred. Happily that's over.

Living in the very heart and center of our national life, they've been subjected to the ignominy of watching a Nation vote for their immediate neighbors, employers and associates with hands meekly folded. A wrong covering more than a century and a half has been righted. Why it has taken this long is still something of a national mystery.

Aid Program Success
Depends on Self-Help

From 1956 to 1959 the Organization for European Economic Co-operation (OECE) provided a total of $27.402 billion to help improve economic and social conditions in underdeveloped countries.

This sum represents the actual flow of money to these lands from the free nations of North America and Europe. It does not include commitments. OECE aid embraced direct government loans and grants, private loans and investments, export credits and so on.

The assistance, nearly half of which was provided by the U.S. helped to develop these areas. It saved them from becoming victims of the siren song of communism with its tempting theme of a short cut to industrial prosperity — and tyranny.

During the same four year period the Soviets provided less than $600 million in actual cash with promises of $2.3 billion more. Since 1954 the total Soviet-Chinese commitments are estimated to be about $3.8 billion.

In his special message to Congress, President KENNEDY stressed the fact that foreign aid not only is essential to our own security and the defense of free peoples but is a moral, economic and political obligation of all industrialized countries.

The President also emphasized that some proposed grants could be replaced by long term, low interest development loans repayable in dollars. He also pointed out that most of our aid finds its way back to the U.S. in payment of goods and services.

More equitable sharing of the burden by OECE nations is called for. A suggested figure is one per cent of their gross national product to be distributed through the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development. Aided countries also must do their part to bring about economic, social and political reforms and assume democratic responsibilities in their own lands.

Men, Let's All Join
Brothers of the Brush

There won't be flowing encouragement, but the city firemen and policemen can get into the beard and mustache fun now. Police Chief JOSEPH KOREK and Fire Chief JAMES R. WHITE have withdrawn from earlier indefensible positions, under heavy bombardment, and run up the white flag.

That puts the firemen and policemen on equal footing with the rest of the community in competition for hirsute honors.

Instead of going around with bare faces they may now enjoy two basic centennial rights: arguing with their wives about beards, and scratching their chins.

Let's adopt this premise from now until June: there is nothing basically unkempt or undignified about a beard or mustache.

Remain to Make Entries in Our $250 Baseball Contest

Procrastination: The thief of time, in which it might steal your $250.

Friday noon of THIS week is the closing time for you to be in line for your chance at winning $250. The hours are slipping away. Are you a slunker? The prize will be awarded for the nearest correct answer to:

What player, who has been at bat at least 25 times, will be leading an American League on the night of Thursday, May 11, and what will be his batting average?

It costs nothing to compete. Only one entry is allowed for each person, but every member of your family is eligible. Each entry must be on a separate piece of paper.

Simply jot down the name of your favorite player, and what you think his batting average will be on May 11. Then add your name and address.

For each other member of your family, regardless of age, a similar entry is acceptable.

See that your entries are received in our office by Friday of THIS week, and you've done your part toward winning the prize. The rest is up to your favorite player. He's ready to do everything in his power to win that $250 for you. But you must do your part. Do not flunk him by not getting your entry in on time.

In the entries already received, Al Kaline is running ahead of the field, with Mickey Mantle in second place. Other favorites comprise a list of several dozen names.

Remember, your chance is still as good as that of anybody else—if you do your part, which takes about a minute of your time. Is that worth $250?

Your principal concern right now is to bear this fact in mind:

All entries must be received in The Pontiac Press office by noon on Friday, April 7 — and by 5:00 p.m. Friday of THIS WEEK.

Surely ringing the bell for brutal contempt are the sentiments expressed in a letter over the signature of "One of Their Victims," which state that the starter of a grass fire "should have his head examined and all the holes in it plugged up."

"C'mon, I Said I'd Meet You Halfway"

David Lawrence Says:
Russ Stall Is Effort to Take Over

WASHINGTON—Russia is stalling, in effect, passes the buck on a cease fire to the two fighting factions in Laos. Meanwhile, the Communist-supported rebels there are gaining ground and winning victories. Soon they will have a big chunk of Laos—the northern section—the first toe-hold the Soviet Union will have gained in Southeast Asia.

It is a perplexing situation for President Kennedy and Prime Minister Macmillan. They don't want to start a big war—or participate in a little one either. Russia is relying on her customary tactics—long-drawn-out negotiations and palaver about "peace" and "neutrality" which will permit her own kind of government to be installed eventually in Laos.

The Soviet Union reply to the British note is an ambiguous and purposely confusing document. President Kennedy tactfully takes a euphemistic view of it. He says it is a "useful next step." But that's not the whole story.

"Quiet diplomacy" nevertheless has suddenly come to a halt. The Russians probably will blame President Kennedy for the change. They will point to his sensational appearance at a televised press conference when he read a blunt warning to the Soviets. It was followed by an implied threat of military action to be taken by the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization. This policy was dramatized by the conference at Bangkok attended by the U.S. secretary of state.

The Soviet note received over the weekend makes a direct criticism of these moves. In the unofficial translation from the Russian language given to the press at Palm Beach, the wording is as follows:

"It goes without saying that the threats of interference in the affairs of Laos by the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization military bloc and the tactics of subverting employed recently by certain powers not only does not promote the idea, but can seriously compromise the entire matter of settlement on the Laos problem."

The Soviet note says the rebellion in Laos was "raised by a group of plotters relying on outside military assistance," thus accusing America. The West, on the other hand, contends that the Soviets provided military assistance and officially instigated the rebellion.

So, with this impasse, the question arises as to what the Soviets really are proposing now in their

"I realized that vitamin A had done it—I had been taking two vitamin A capsules a day for several days. 50,000 units a day; for another purpose.

Several friends to whom I told of my experience have tried it, and they have had the same gratifying results. It should be a great boon to all who have such dread of night driving."

Vitamin A is the one I have generally designated the apocryphal vitamin. You can't prove by me even now that there is any serious shortage of vitamin A in any ordinary diet in this country.

It seems to me that the only vitamins most people need concern themselves about at all, for health's sake, are vitamin B-complex and vitamin C. Dr. Young insists and some invalids on restricted diet need supplementary vitamins of vitamins C.

As for vitamin A, vitamin E, and other alleged vitamins not so clearly defined, you may leave them entirely in the hands of your physician.

On request, if you enclose a stamped envelope bearing your address, I will send you a monograph on Vitamin (A) if you essay the role of guinea pig for your own experimental investigation.

"Everyone wants to be a little better but some are afraid to try for fear they might become better than they want to be."

Dr. William Brady Says:
He Took Vitamin A—and Now He's All Eyes

"To take out the car after dark" remarks a Connecticut Yankee, "used to be torture to me because, I was unable to see more than a few feet ahead. I had to creep along at snail's pace and at the approach of another car was so blinded by its headlights that I often had to stop altogether, making myself a nuisance on the road."

"One evening I was compelled to take the old bus out. To my surprise I discovered I could see and drive as well as anyone else."

"Curiosity made me try it again the next night, with the same result, and I have had no difficulty with night driving since."

"I wondered what brought about this change, until I came across an article of yours, telling of some doctor feeding Newfoundland fishermen a spoonful or two of cod liver oil and so fishing the men to resume their catching at night."

Voice of the People:

'Parents Should Be Glad
Children Were Not Struck'

I'm writing this to the parents of the two small children who ran out from between parked cars into the path of my truck on Johnson Avenue near General Hospital.

My advice to you is: Get down on your knees and thank God that your children are alive. If it had happened a fraction of a second later I would never have been able to stop in time.

Parents, please watch your children. Drivers, please watch also, as apparently some parents don't.

'Will JFK Make One
More Concession?'
Editorial Missed
Important Point'

The Press' editorial on "Yankee Imperialism" was published in the Chicago Tribune.

It missed the all important point that both "world wars" were promoted and financed by Wall Street. U.S.A. with taxpayers' blood and sweat.

It neglected to even mention that there isn't a trouble spot in the world today, not fed, armed and financed by the U.S., either directly or indirectly.

Communism is secretly promoted by the U.S. undercover and there are scores of documented facts to prove it! Russia and China were created by the U.S.

I would like to express my appreciation to the Waterford Fire Department for its prompt action which makes us proud to live in Waterford.

It's Time Teachers
Join the Boarde'

Now that the police, firemen and city hall have relaxed on their prohibition of boards, it is time for the school district to get into the community fervor that is sweeping Pontiac.

With our illustrious superintendent as chairman of Youth Day, it would almost be anti-climatic if the interested parties were denied the privilege of competing with their fellow citizens. I doubt that any extended growth on the face would seriously impact morals or dignity; more boards would contribute to the citywide success. Some of the appearances would be considerably improved.

Tax Tips ...

QUESTION: My husband died in 1959. Can I still file a joint return for 1959?

ANSWER: You may file a return as surviving spouse for two taxable years following the year in which your husband died providing you furnish over one-half of the maintenance of a home which is the principal abode of your dependent child or stepchild as an orphan.

Furthermore, you must have been able to file a joint return with your husband if he were alive and you have not remarried after his death.

'We've Done Plenty for Africa Already'

Why should Africa want any U.S. money? Look what we've done for them already. We've given "Soppy" Williams, America's great gift to the dark continent. You know, "Africa for the Africans" with Williams right in the middle of the tribal dance in Johannesburg and brown derby. Why doesn't Kennedy send him to the moon — the dark side?

Case Records of a Psychologist:
Home Tutoring Helpful to Children

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE CASE H-48: Tommy G., aged 5, has just entered kindergarten.

"Dr. Crane," his splendid teacher informed me, "Tommy uses very few words."

"In fact, he will enviously imitate a word without even knowing he is using improper language."

"So he is a detriment to all the other youngsters in the room. DR. CRANE: Wouldn't you please remind parents that they should at least help their children in school instead of hindering them?"

PARENTS, BEWARE! Conrad was a great psychologist who decided to test the effect of heredity vs. environment.

So he took the eggs of English sparrows and placed them in the nests of canaries.

When the sparrow eggs hatched, the canaries accepted the baby birds as their own.

Remember, the little sparrows never saw or heard their own kind. So what type of sounds do you suppose they used when they began to chirp?

Did they imitate their own sparrow ancestors? Or make trills like canaries? Go to your library and read a few chapters in my college text "Psychology Applied" for a full answer.

But I'll digest the results briefly. Conrad tells us that when the sparrows were 3 months of age, they began to trill like their foster parents, the canaries.

"None of these sparrows," adds Conrad, "ever had the characteristic call notes of the wild sparrow; but by and by adopted those of the canary."

Mother Saves Child in WellClimbs Down to Rescue Daughter; Sends Boy Half Mile for Help

HAMILTON, N.Y. (AP) — The mother took off her coat, acting calmly but quickly. She sent her son David, 6, running for help. Then she climbed 24 feet down a well to save her daughter, Barbara, 4, from drowning.

Mrs. Arthur Lindsay plucked Barbara from the water. Then she braced her back and feet against the rough walls of the dark, 3-foot-diameter well and waited.

David did his part. He ran a half mile to the nearest house.

Firemen arrived in 15 to 20 minutes, Mrs. Lindsay estimated.

"I was getting a little shaky," she related Sunday after firemen pulled her and Barbara to the surface with ropes.

Barbara had lost her balance and tumbled down the open shaft in an abandoned house.

School Laws to Be Topic at Annual Meeting

The Oakland County School Boards Association will hold its annual dinner meeting to discuss current school legislation Tuesday evening at Hazel Park High School, 2340 Hughes St., Hazel Park.

The meeting will be attended by school superintendents and school board members from throughout the county.

Principal speakers are Max C. Cochran, director of legislation, Department of Public Instruction, and Dr. Gerald Belcourt, director of community college services, Wayne State University.

Reports on school board working committees will be made by Mrs. Kathryn Loomis, association president.

Under discussion will be the plan to be taken by the county association this year on legislation concerning state aid, the intermediate unit and the community college.

Scientists Hit 2nd Layer of Earth's Core

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Scientists drilling in deep water off the west coast of Mexico have broken through to the second layer of the earth's core and may have solved a scientific puzzle.

A spokesman for the National Academy of Sciences said the breakthrough — termed a "milestone in the exploration of the earth" — happened early Saturday while oceanographers of Project Mohole were drilling at depth of 12,000 feet near Guadalupe Island.

William Bascom, project director, radioed the academy that a diamond-tipped drill went down 400 feet before stopping suddenly.

Samples of basalt—a hard rock formed by molten material within the earth—were brought up.

The boy died of freezing following exhaustion," Medical Examiner Dr. John F. Leach said Sunday. "It was evident he had put up a struggle to get home."

Jimmy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Frank, disappeared the afternoon of March 7.

That night the season's worst snow storm hit the area and although hundreds of volunteers scoured the area, the body wasn't found until another search was organized Saturday after all the snow had melted.

Gamble Benedict Gives Birth to Boy in N.J.

NEW YORK (AP) — Gamble Benedict Furumbeams, 20, runaway heiress who married a Romanian-born former chauffeur a year ago, has an heir of her own.

Mrs. Furumbeams gave birth Sunday to a 6-pound, 13-ounce son in a New Jersey hospital. The child will be named George Mihai, after its paternal grandfather.

"She was delighted, especially since it was a boy," said Dr. John Langstaff of New York, her personal physician.

Rusk Opens Briefing of 500 Broadcasters

WASHINGTON (AP) — A two-day foreign policy briefing for about 500 members of the radio-television industry opens today with a speech by Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

President Kennedy will address the group Tuesday. The sessions are sponsored by the State Department as a means of heightening public knowledge of foreign policy.

A similar two-day foreign policy conference for newspaper and magazine men is scheduled for April 24-25.

Dems Ask Public to Push Congress

Try Pressure to Pass JFK Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats are launching a big effort to bring public pressure to bear on Congress for enactment of President Kennedy's New Frontier program. Instructions have gone out from the Democratic National Committee to party workers across the country to drum up support for the President's program by urging citizens to write and call their senators and congressmen. Margaret Price, vice chairman of the committee, is sponsoring a "Support the President" drive among women. She has urged it in its initial stages toward House.

The House then passed a Republican substitute raising the minimum to $1.15 and covering 1.4 million additional workers. In what seemed an obvious attempt to give time for public Democratic leaders postponed Senate action on the Kennedy bill until the middle of next week. Through its publication, "The Democrat," the national committee spelled out some of the spending benefits it said states and local communities will get from a Kennedy program Republicans have attacked as offering "pie in the sky."

Differ on Death of John Birch

Namesake of Society Was Not a Hero, Some Associates Claim

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Different views were voiced today on the death of John Birch, for whom the right-wing John Birch Society was named.

Birch, then an Army captain, was killed Aug. 25, 1945, while on an OSS intelligence mission in central China.

In Billings, Mont., a radio-TV executive, Joseph Sample, who served in the same OSS outfit as Birch, said in an interview: "There was no real object lesson in Birch's death and certainly no glory."

In Los Angeles, stockbroker William P. Weiss Jr., — sometime OSS officer who made up the mission on which Birch was killed — said: "Certainly John was just as much a hero as any other American soldier who died for his country."

In Pasadena, a Los Angeles suburb, manufacturer Gustav J. Krause — another wartime comrade of Birch — said: "He brought about his own death. He didn't die the hero he was supposed to have died."

The John Birch Society, under fire from some national magazines, and newspapers and some congressmen, has been accused of using Fascist tactics in its self-appointed task of fighting communism.

Birch, a missionary's son, who spoke fluent Chinese, was shot by the leader of a group of Communist Chinese.

Women Add to Their Edge in Population

WASHINGTON (AP) — A decade ago the Census Bureau first reported that women outnumbered men in the United States.

Now, as results of the 1960 census roll in, the bureau says the women's margin is increasing. The reason is women live longer.

In 1950, the Census Bureau reported 100 women for every 99 men. Preliminary data from the 1960 canvass show 100 women for every 97 men — 81 million females and 83.3 million males.

The 1960 census also showed 9.1 million women 65 or older compared with 7.5 million men in the same age bracket. In 1950, women in this age group outnumbered men 6.5 million to 5.8 million.

Irishman Behan Feels 'Risen From the Dead'

TORONTO (UPI) — Irish playwright Brendan Behan seemed to have regained some of his former high spirits this morning.

He said from his bed at Sunnyside Hospital, "I feel like Lazarus, the fellow that arose from the dead."

When asked if he had any idea as to the date of his release from hospital, Behan said, "I'll think about it over my breakfast."

Fight Over Reds in Laos Regime

Harriman, Republicans
Battle About Inclusion in Government

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Ambassador W. Averell Harriman and two Republican legislators were at odds today over whether any coalition government in Laos should include Communists.

Harriman said the only way to make Laos a neutral country was to bring the Reds into a coalition regime. He said the Communists would not take over the government if the Eubank and Red Chinese were willing to "play the game."

But Sen. Bourke Hickenlooper, R-Iowa and Rep. Walter H. Judd, R-Minn., said inclusion of the Communists in a Laotian government would be a mistake.

Judd said a coalition regime was just what the Communists wanted as a first step toward winning their way into control of the entire government.

Hickenlooper, while opposing Reds in any coalition, said it probably would be unrealistic to try to exclude all Laotian politicians with Communist leanings.

Harriman, who returned recently from Europe and Asia, said Prince Souvanna Phouma should be a member of any coalition government. But he declined to say whether he thought the prince should be prime minister.

2-Car Crash Sends Drivers to Hospital

Two Union Lake residents were in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital today as a result of a head-on collision Saturday night on Cooley Lake Road near Charbone Street in Commerce Township.

Mrs. Grace E. Holey, 51, of 1389 Union Lake Road and Clarence H. Lucas, 44, of 905 Union Lake Road both suffered extensive cuts and bruises.

Sheriff's deputies said Lucas' car apparently crossed the center line, striking Mrs. Holey's car in the left front.

Seoul University Coeds Prefer Matchmakers

SEOUL (UPI) — A poll of this year's graduates of Seoul's Ewha Women's University showed the coeds prefer marriage arranged by matchmakers rather than love.

The results of the poll, released Sunday, said 73.4 per cent of the girls desire to have matchmakers find their husbands instead of selecting them themselves.

Swanson Will Address Body on Handicapped

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Michigan Gov. John B. Swanson, a double amputee, will be one of the featured speakers at this month's annual meeting of the President's Committee on Employment of the Physically Handicapped.

The meeting will be held here April 27. The president's committee is made up of individuals and organizations concerned with creating a favorable climate for placement of handicapped workers.

ELMER'S MAIL BOX — Elmer Berg of Verona, Wis., is a great one for a joke as witness his mail box. He combined an old coal stove, pipe and regulation box.

Czech Air Victims Not Shot, Say Docs

NUERNBERG, Germany (UPI) — Medical investigators have ruled out the possibility that some of the 52 victims of a Czech plane crash last Tuesday had been shot to death.

Dr. Alex Neiss, head of the investigating team, said X-rays of all the bodies were completed last midnight.

"Medical men can say for sure that the bodies did not contain bullets," he said. "Former indications that this might have been the cause (of death) did not prove true after closer examination."

The plane, a Soviet built turbo-prop airliner, crashed near Forchheim on a flight between Prague and Zurich.

"Because a pistol was found in the wreckage and some of the wounds appeared as if they could have been caused by bullets, the Erlangen prosecutor's office ordered further investigation."

Jewish Inmates Mark Passover With Their Kin

JACKSON (UPI) — Brothers and fathers and sons who hadn't broken bread together for up to 25 years did so over the weekend at Southern Michigan Prison.

In an unprecedented action, Warden William Bannan permitted Jewish inmates to celebrate the Passover together Saturday night. Each was allowed to invite his father or a brother.

Rabbi Morris Shapiro, a prison chaplain, set up the religious ceremony of the Seder for the prison's 33 Jewish convicts. He read from the Haggadah, the home service for the Passover.

There was irony. The ceremony of the Seder tells the story of the Jews' escape to freedom from the bondage of the Egyptians.

Mrs. Eaton Critical of Rusk 'Harmony'

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — Mrs. Cyrus Eaton, wife of the industrialist and financier, criticized Secretary of State Dean Rusk today for his alleged implication that "all is sweet harmony" in the Laos crisis.

"It is bad enough to learn that American dollars provided by the crushing taxation of our limping industry has been worse than wasted by American diplomacy," Mrs. Eaton said.

She added that it was outrageous for Rusk to return from Bangkok with the enthusiasm he had over SEATO's willingness for action. She claimed neither France nor Britain were willing to use military force in Laos.

China Complains Again

LONDON (UPI) — The New China News Agency said today a U. S. military plane flew into Communist China's territorial air space early Sunday. The Chinese foreign ministry issued its 139th "serious warning" about such incidents, the agency said.

Too Many Algerians?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Population Reference Bureau reported Sunday that the booming birth rate among Algerian Moslems threatens to wipe out any economic gains from a political settlement in the strife-torn country.

Coal Business Dead

TAYLOR, Tex. (UPI) — The U.S. Post Office in Taylor has 6 tons of coal waiting for anyone who wants to cart it away. The coal is left over from the days before the post office converted to gas heat. That was 30 years ago.

LARGEST EVER KILLED? — Preliminary measurements indicate this Alaskan polar bear was the largest bear ever killed. The hide measures 11 feet 4 inches from nose to tail. The bear was killed by Arthur R. Dubs, Medford, Ore., last month. This picture was taken at Kotzebue, Alaska. The big game rifle and Eskimo boy indicate the size of the hide.

Plan to Reintroduce Gas-Consumer Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Three House Democrats plan to reintroduce a bill designed to protect natural gas consumers by freeing most independent producers from federal control.

Rep. John E. Moss, Calif., John D. Dingell, Mich., and Torbert Macdonald, Mass., said in a joint statement Sunday they will reintroduce a bill to exempt 91 per cent of the independent producers from regulation by the Federal Power Commission (FPC).

Almost extinct in the early 1930s, gray whales have been making a comeback since 1937 when international whaling agreements were signed. More than 4,000 are expected in the current migration from their Arctic feeding waters to breeding grounds off Baja California.

About 200 rivers and streams empty their waters into Lake Superior.

Who Said It's Small World?

Population to Top 3 Billion

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The world's population will pass the three-billion mark this year, a U. N. survey, in making this prediction, says the rate of growth is 45 million to 55 million a year and the average life span is longer than ever. But with the cost of caring for the aged increasing, the "additional years" that modern society can bestow are unhappy ones.

Covering the years since 1953, the report said: People are making and spending more in most industrialized countries; The normal work-week is shorter but overtime more prevalent; A two-week vacation is now common and mandatory by law in more than 70 countries for a year's work;

FOOD CONSUMPTION OK
Food consumption is sufficient in most places but lower in Africa and the Far East than before World War II; Latin America's per capita income fell 1.3 per cent in 1959 after moving unevenly upward since 1953; Europe showed a bigger net percentage gain in per capita income than the United States but American families owning two or more cars rose from 11 per cent to 15 per cent; and The Soviet Union showed more of an inclination for luxuries with TV sets, refrigerators and washing machines in short supply despite rapid increases in production while radios and clothing go begging.

Thursday Evening at Madison Junior High

To Model '100 Years of Fashion'

Mrs. D. Richard Veasey of Delaware Drive, cochairman of the City Federation of Women's Clubs centennial card party, poses in a handsome costume with some of the lovely antiques in the Wisner home. Proceeds of Thursday's benefit will be used to continue restoration at the landmark.

Adah Shelly (center) of Washington Street, board member at the Wisner home, explained the antique furnishings of the mansion to models Mrs. Forest Lamson (left) of Erie Road and Mrs. James Donaldson of Preston Avenue. The two were soaking up atmosphere for their role in Thursday's 8 p. m. fashion showing for the City Federation of Women's Clubs.

"100 Years of Fashion" will be the theme for the City Federation of Women's Clubs party. Grace Ann Donaldson, (at left) of Preston Avenue and Mrs. Birum C. Campbell of Cherokee Road are among a score of localities who will model fashions of yore at Thursday evening's affair in Madison Junior High School. The public is invited.

2 Jobs on Her Hands

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I work with a man who says he's in love with me. I care for him, too, but I'm not as emotional about it as he is.
My problem is that the moment we are alone on the job he tries to kiss me. And he expects me to tell him every few minutes that I love him, too.
I don't care for that kind of stuff while I'm working, especially since we are not always alone and we never know when someone is going to walk in on us.
How can I let him know I would rather be just "friends" during working hours? He is very sensitive and easily hurt.
CAREFUL

DEAR CAREFUL: Since you obviously have better judgment than the Romeo who is trying to make time on company time, it is up to you to call the tune. Tell him to control his flame during working hours or you both could be fired.
DEAR ABBY: I know there is an "Alcoholics Anonymous" and a "Gamblers Anonymous," but is there a "Charge Accounts Anonymous" for people like me?
I don't know why I do it, but I run up charge accounts and can't seem to help myself. It is the craziest thing I do when I get into a store I go wild buying things I don't really need.
If I don't get help with this problem soon, I am going to lose my husband.
OVER MY HEAD
DEAR OVER: Go on a CASH basis and budget your monthly spending. And tell yourself, when the urge hits, that you're grown up now.

DEAR ABBY: Is it proper for a girl to offer a pencil and paper to a boy she meets at a dance? Many boys I have met at dances ask for my phone number and they never seem to have a pencil and paper.
I always carry a pencil and note paper for this purpose. My girl friend said it was not proper as it looked like I was too anxious. I would like your opinion.
PREPARED
DEAR PREPARED: It's not what you do but the way that you do it. Don't whip out a pencil and paper at the drop of a hint.
Give the boy a chance to come up with his own, and use yours only in cases of "emergency." And, by the way, young lady, be a little fussy or soon everyone in town will have your number.

U. of M. Letter Brings Campus News

By SHARON WARREN
Despite the prospects of midterm examinations starting them in the face, students at the University of Michigan took time out to enjoy last week's brief taste of spring weather. Thoughts strayed to the spring vacation, which will continue until April 10.

Moreover, plans are currently under way for the Spring Weekend, April 28-29. "Jest in Time" will be the theme of the biennial all-campus festival. It is a cross between a carnival, a picnic, and a free-for-all. It features canoe races, a parade, a skit night, and a dance.

The theme will be characterized by jokes on the peculiarities of time. Myrna Mosley of Birmingham is on the central committee planning the weekend. Myrna is a junior in the college of literature, science and the arts.

"Tactaba" was the title of the 1961 Junior Girls Play presented March 23-25 at the university. An original musical, "Tactaba" satirized elections. Betty Dillman played the leading role of Mundana. Betty lives in Rochester and is a junior in the college of architecture and design.

Two students from Birmingham also took part in the production. They were Sue Hard and Jan Lynch. Sue was a member of the chorus and Jan was a dancer. Both girls are juniors in the college of literature, science and the arts.

During the fall-campus elections, March 21-22, the following students won offices: Winning Michigan Union officers were Birmingham residents Charles H. Matthews and Michael Oldham. Charles is a business administration senior. Mike is a law student who received his bachelor's degree from Michigan State University.

Students securing posts in the four university schools and colleges are senior Elizabeth Johnson of Garland Avenue, who was the position of treasurer for the school of education; and William Blanton, Jr., of Rochester, who is now president of the school of business administration.

Lyn Hollis, Gary Relyea and Marilyn Vernon, Pontiac freshmen, will leave today with the Michigan Singers on concert tour in key cities in Northern Michigan and the Upper Peninsula.

Time to Nominate Working Women

Wednesday is the deadline for nominations for the five outstanding working women in the Pontiac area.

Choices will be made on the nominee's spirit of cooperation and sense of respect for her fellow workers, the inspiration she generates to those with whom she comes in contact and her ability to assume and use responsibilities with good judgment.

The local chapter of Zonta International is sponsoring the event.

Nominees need not be a member of Zonta, although they must work in the city of Pontiac, Waterford, West Bloomfield or Pontiac townships. Judges are Dr. Mary Ann Cusack, Joseph H. Shimnick and Adah Shelly. Nominations should be addressed to Miss Shelly, 132 Washington Street. Winners will be feted at a breakfast April 18 which will climax "Working Woman's Week" to be proclaimed April 30.

Newlyweds Take Trip Along Lake Michigan

MRS. HARLEY R. HOFF JR.

The Rev. Paul T. Hart officiated at the marriage of Gwen Hunsinger to Harley R. Hoff Jr., Friday evening in the First Methodist Church.

The bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Mudge of Cass Lake, who were hosts at a reception in their home following the nuptials. Mr. Mudge gave his niece in marriage.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. Ava J. Hoff of Oscoda Drive and Harley Hoff of Green Bay, Wis.

Stylish with a scalloped neckline and sleeves ending in wrist-ropes, the modded bodice of a ballerina-length skirt of white silk organza over taffeta.

A headpiece of pearlized flowers secured the shoulder-length veil of silk illusion. White feathered carnations comprised the bride's cascade bouquet.

Sharon Badger, honor maid, appeared in ballerina-length atazala pink taffeta and carried pink-tipped white carnations. Bridesmaid, Donna Humbaugh, wore aqua taffeta and held a cascade of aqua-tipped carnations.

Bruce Bergstrom assisted the bridegroom as best man and Gene Ribabucha of Drayton Plains seated the guests.

Returning from a honeymoon in Northern Michigan, then following the Lake Michigan western shoreline to Chicago, the couple will be at home in Auburn Heights.

For her niece's wedding, Mrs. Mudge chose a navy blue linen sheath dress with white accents. The mother of the bridegroom was attired in a beige linen sheath dress trimmed in satin. Both wore shoulder corsages of pink-tipped white carnations.

It's the Cut
by Aleda

There just doesn't seem to be any one hairstyle that is flattering to virtually all women. A coiffure must be designed individually for the shape of a woman's face and her features. It must emphasize all your good points and diminish the unflattering ones. An ingenious haircut is the first consideration for your new coif. It can defeat humidity, rain and even the steam from your bath. The set may loosen but the cut will keep it flattering.

Let us cut and shape your tresses. We have the know-how to create your individual coif. Make an early appointment.

Citizens Set Salaries and Approve Budgets

Township Voters All Business at Annual Meetings

In time-honored fashion, voters turned out at annual meetings in 18 Oakland County townships Saturday principally to set the salaries of their elected officials and approve budgets for the coming year.

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP
One of the most unusual sessions was held in Pontiac Township where residents discussed local matters for over three hours and then voted to adjourn the meeting until next Saturday.

The annual meeting in Pontiac Township will be continued at 1 p.m. Saturday.

Residents requested the adjournment so they could have more time to study the budget. Treasurer Goldie B. Malinin said she did not have enough time to complete her report for 1960-61 since the fiscal year ended the day before the annual meeting.

Township Attorney Herbert W. Gordon said the state law which allows holding the annual meetings contains a provision for adjourning the session to a later date.

Before adjourning, continuation of a two-mill tax for the fire department was approved and a motion to study combining the township's two fire districts also was passed.

MILFORD TOWNSHIP
Salary hikes were approved for elected officials in Milford Township.

The new salary schedule will give the supervisor a $500 raise, bringing his full-time pay to $5,500, plus $1,000 traveling expenses.

The clerk's salary was boosted from $5,000 to $5,500, and the treasurer's wages were set at $2,500.

Supervisor Mayen Hlond said the treasurer's salary is for five full months and two days a week for seven months. The salary rate for treasurer is completely new because in the past the post was combined for both village and township and each paid a portion. However, this year, each branch of government will have its own treasurer.

Township trustees will get a $5 a-meeting increase, from $10 to $15.

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP
A $88,453 budget for the 1961-62 fiscal year was approved in White Lake Township. This is approximately $9,000 over the current budget.

A portion of the additional funds went to set up new pay scales for the supervisor, clerk and treasurer. The posts of supervisor and treasurer also were made full-time jobs.

The supervisor was given a raise of $2,400 bringing his total salary to $7,500 and the treasurer's salary was boosted from $3,800 to $5,000. While the clerk's position remain part-time, a $1,500 increase was approved, from $1,200 to $3,000.

COMMERCIAL TWP.
Commerce Township voters agreed to the proposed 1961-62 budget of $113,000, a $9,000 increase over the current year.

The majority of the budget increase is for new salaries for elective officials. A $2,000 increase also was made in the fire department budget for additional wages for volunteer firemen.

The supervisor's salary was boosted from $6,000 to $7,500; the clerk, $2,500 to $3,000; and the treasurer, $3,000 to $4,500.

The salary increases were the first for the township in four years.

Panel Will Compare U.S., British Schools

CLAWSON — A comparison of English and American school systems will be the subject of a panel discussion at the Paul A. Schalm School Parent-Teacher Association Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Guest consultant will be Miss Brenda Hunt, an exchange teacher from England, who is teaching at Donaldson High School in Royal Oak.

Panel members will be Mrs. Patricia Locke, local fifth grade teacher; Mrs. Jeannette Helmholdt, kindergarten teacher; and Don Olmstead, PTA father vice president.

The sixth grade band is slated to perform, and an election of officers is also on the agenda.

and board of review members also so far the wage schedule hasn't been determined.

AVON TWP.
A tentative budget of $296,500 and salary hikes for township officials were approved in Avon Township.

The budget, up $22,300 over last year, was explained by Township Supervisor Cyril E. Miller to the nearly 100 residents gathered in the township hall for the township meeting type session.

Of primary concern to those present was the money earmarked for improvement of secondary roads in the township.

According to Miller, a total of $15,000 already has been transferred in matching funds to the county, added to the $5,000 transferred last year.

By unanimous vote of the township electors at the meeting, the township board was urged to make secondary road improvement its prima project for the coming year and to "put all available monies toward matching funds for that purpose."

Miller's salary was raised from $8,000 to $10,000 plus expenses and those of the clerk and treasurer from $7,500 to $8,500 to bring all three in line with neighboring townships.

Further action included the adoption of a motion to ask that 1 1/2 mills based on equalized valuation be spent for township purposes. This millage comes out of the 15-mill limitation from the County Tax Allocation Board.

The Township Board also was instructed to draw up a formal resolution citing Mrs. Frances Covert, retiring township clerk for her service over the past 32 years. She was given a rising vote of thanks.

HIGHLAND TWP.
A move to repeal the zoning ordinance was rejected by a slim margin at the Highland Township annual meeting.

Supervisor Louis F. Oldenburg said he wasn't sure if the ordinance could be repealed at the meeting, but since the question was raised he would seek a legal opinion.

The ordinance was adopted by voters last August, he said, after a number of attempts to bring it into existence failed at the polls.

An alternate agreement, however, was made concerning the zoning problem, Oldenburg said.

A motion was approved, he said, that will set up a steering committee between the zoning board and the dissatisfied residents.

The committee will be made up of five members who will be appointed by the township board. Also approved at the meeting

PREPARE FOR ELECTION — Immediately following last Saturday's annual meeting in Avon Township, retiring Township Clerk Mrs. Frances Covert (left) and Mrs. Theima G. Spencer, sole candidate for the post, began organizing election materials in preparation for today's balloting. Here they arrange the baskets according to precincts.

Two Youths Held in Fatal Stabbing
ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — Two 18-year-olds are being held in the Oakland County Jail for investigation of murder in the fatal stabbing here Saturday night of Arvie Patterson, 26, of Detroit.

The youths are Arthur L. Jones of 21812 Garden Lane, Royal Oak Township, and Freeman Genter of 21394 Glen Lodge St., Ferndale.

Royal Oak Township police said the stabbing occurred during a fight in front of the Glen Lodge Bar, Glen Lodge Street and 8 Mile Road.

Imlay City Milkman Among Traffic Victims
Among the 15 persons killed in weekend traffic accidents on Michigan highways was Charles A. Swales, 35, of 633 Sunset Road, Imlay City.

According to police, Swales was injured fatally when he apparently fell asleep at the wheel of his milk truck and hit a tree early yesterday morning.

The accident happened on M15, two miles south of Millington in Tuscola County.

Says Castroites Avoided Clash at Sea With U.S.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A Columbus Dispatch staff writer, Clair Stebbins, reporting from the U. S. Navy base at Guantanamo, Cuba, said today Fidel Castro's Cuban government had backed away from a military showdown with U. S. Navy air and sea power after intercepting an American cable-laying ship.

The ship, the Western Union, had been intercepted Friday in international waters five miles off the east Cuban port of Baracoa, Stebbins reported.

Stebbins said the Navy's Office of Information at Guantanamo was not authorized to release the information immediately.

House at MSU Gutted by Fire

Believe Hot Furnace Caused Blaze; Family Away at the Time

An overheated coal furnace apparently started off a blaze which gutted the interior of a two-story frame home on the grounds of Michigan State University Oakland yesterday.

Rochester Fire Chief George Rose estimated that damage to the home at 3325 Walton Blvd., Avon Township, was in the neighborhood of $5,000 to $7,000.

The renovated farm house, owned by the university, was rented to Daniel Sheen. The Sheen family was visiting in Royal Oak when the fire broke out. No one was hurt.

Flames burned through the first floor and up the stairway leading to the second floor. Damage caused by smoke and heat was extensive, according to Rose.

Farmington Twp. Store Site of $800 Burglary

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — The theft of more than $800 in cash from a drugstore here over the weekend is being investigated by township police.

The burglary at the Nellie Davis Drug Store, Orchard Lake and 15-Mile roads, occurred between 3 a.m. and 9 a.m. Saturday, police said.

Entrance to the building was gained by breaking a rear window. Only the money was taken.

Says 2 Won't Get Reappointment

Romeo Police Chief and Dispatcher to Be Relieved of Duties

ROME — Police Chief Edgar Welch has been notified officially that he will not be reappointed by the village president at the council meeting next Monday night.

Also informed that her service to the community will be terminated on the same date is Mrs. Dorothy Posey, license examiner, police matron and dispatcher for the past five years.

Given as the reason for the proposed changes is the recent election of three new council members, creating a new balance of power in the village administration.

Police committee chairman Tony P. Galan notified the pair of the anticipated action, Welch on Thursday and Mrs. Posey on Saturday.

Galan said, "There's no person other than politics. With the change of administration, council members want certain appointees who will be more help to them."

According to the charter, Village President Wayne N. Black has "full power to appoint a chief of police, and he is just exercising that prerogative," he added.

"We do not want to go on record as saying Welch is not competent. We just feel a change is needed," said the police commissioner.

Welch, who is 54, served 26 1/2 years in the Michigan State Police, retiring as a lieutenant stationed at district headquarters in Detroit in 1935. He was Romeo post commander from 1938 to 1945.

Black's predecessor Joseph E. Rymill recalled Welch to Romeo as police chief in 1958. Rymill was defeated for re-election by Black in 1960.

In this year's February primary Rymill lost out in his bid to unseat his successor. The same election spelled defeat for three veteran councilmen. Only one serving during Rymill's administration, Donald Payne, now remains in office.

NEWS OF THE AREA

Find 2 Area Ministers Dead in Plane Wreckage

Easter joy turned to tragedy yesterday for the families of two area ministers, both killed when their light plane crashed in Mississippi.

Wreckage of the plane was found near Woodland, Miss., ending a three-day search.

Dead are Rev. Charles C. Kirby, 71, of 1944 E. Big Beaver Road, Troy and Rev. Marvin H. Ellis, 57, of 1118 Ottawa Road, Royal Oak.

Rev. Kirby, pastor of Christ

Apostolic Church in Royal Oak, and Rev. Ellis, an evangelist, were flying with a third minister, Rev. Robert Mapes, of Fort Wayne, Ind., in a series of evangelistic services in the South.

The body of Rev. Mapes, a veteran pilot, was also discovered in a wooded area yesterday by two horseback riders out on an Easter Sunday canter.

The Civil Air Patrol said it received a distress signal from the single-engine plane late Friday when it was caught in a thunderstorm over Walnut Ridge, Ark.

Rev. Kirby is survived by his widow Nola; a son, Charles, 22, of Royal Oak, and a daughter, Mrs. Robert Rowe, of Berkeley.

Rev. Ellis leaves his wife Betty and two daughters, Mrs. Theima Boren of Royal Oak and Mrs. Alma Ruth Staley of Smithville, Tenn.

HOLDING ACTION by Farmers to Face Stiff Test
By United Press International
A $100,000 appeal to farmers to bargain for higher prices by holding their livestock off the market faced a stiff test today in the traditional roe-holiday strains in Midwest stock yards.

The National Farmers Organization last week asked farmers to cooperate in an experimental holding action beginning today to test rural support and market reaction.

NFO President Orin Staley called for the holding action in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, South Dakota and Wisconsin.

RESTRAIN LIVESTOCK
He advised NFO members and nonmember farmers to hold their livestock for $32.45 per hundredweight on choice grade steers and $22.75 per hundredweight on No. 1 and 2 hogs weighing between 130 and 210 pounds.

Both figures, based on county bargaining committee recommendations, were about 15 above last week's Midwestern averages.

Staley set a demanded minimum for choice wooded lambs at $25.45 per hundred weight, $11 to $13 over last week's average.

"We as farmers have the production. It is ours to sell, and when we open our tacked gates we lose our bargaining powers," Staley said.

He said the holding action would continue until further notice. It could go to include "other commodities and hold not only for the prices determined, but also for an agreement to stabilize prices and bargaining conditions," he said.

was a budget increase for the operation of the library. The new budget calls for an allocation of $5,000, a $600 increase.

A gasoline allowance for travel while on township business was given the supervisor. No amount was stipulated.

INDEPENDENCE TWP.
Independence Township voters approved adding $1,500 to the 1961-62 budget of $131,983, the figure proposed by township officials which already had marked an increase over last year.

The clerk's salary was increased by $200, bringing it in line with the treasurer's salary of $6,500. The supervisor's salary of $9,000 was unchanged.

Of the $1,500-budget increase, $2,000 was earmarked for the library fund which would not be available through the township budget.

The remaining $2,500 will go to the recreation department.

OTHER TOWNSHIPS
Only about five persons were on hand for the meetings in Addison and Oxford Townships. Crowds averaged from about 75 to 100 persons in most other townships.

Oakland Township residents approved an operating budget of $39,965.

Voters attending the Brandon Township meeting approved a $33,000 budget and $300-a-year salary increases for the supervisor, treasurer and clerk.

Salary increases of $300 annually were approved for the three top officials in Oxford Township where a $45,000 budget also was agreed upon.

A lower operating budget was set in Royal Oak Township. A tentative figure of $137,607, approximately $3,000 below last year's figure, was approved for 1961-62.

A $1,000 increase in the Springfield Township budget was approved over the current fiscal year bringing it to $26,000 for 1961-62.

The extra funds will be used to purchase new fire equipment in the near future, according to Supervisor John L. Carey.

Some 15 persons attended the hour-long meeting in Waterford Township's annual meeting are reported on page 1.

Generosity With Services Keeps Suburbs Outside

Cities Must Be Miserly to Grow by Annexation

By HOMER DOWDY
Staff Writer, Flint Journal
Written for the AP

While 30 square miles of suburban territory annexed to the City of Holland in recent years to obtain water and other benefits, an area of 225 homes nearby surrounded by the city showed no desire whatever to unite with the city. Residents there, though outside the city, already received city water.

Holland's experience tells the story of annexation in Michigan. The cities which have refused to extend city services beyond their borders — particularly water, sewers and schools — in general have been unsuccessful in growing by annexation.

The cities which have extended their services to independent suburbs are in many cases now lamenting a lack of growth, stagnating tax bases, pinched budgets and, in short, are crying "ouch!"

The story differs from city to city in details but is the same in principle. The cities showing considerable growth by annexation say to their suburban neighbors caught in the squeeze of rapid population growth, "If you want our services, join us."

"Fair enough when dealing in utilities," schoolmen often say.

"but educating our children should know no political bounds."

QUESTION SCHOOL FUNDS

But in Kalamazoo, Holland, Grand Rapids and Lansing the school boards questioned whether taxpayers in those cities should invest huge sums to erect new buildings for children coming into the cities from outside areas.

So they named cutoff dates for tuition students and refused to consider any annexations to the school districts without simultaneous annexations to the cities.

To offer use of city facilities to suburban residents often is to tie up funds paid in by city taxpayers in projects that would not have to be built, or built so large if they did not serve outsiders.

It is true that most suburban areas desperately need the services cities can offer and are willing to pay premium prices to get them.

But the answer heard in an increasing number of cities today is, if suburban development has reached the point that such services are needed, the services can be supplied when the outlying areas annexes to the city.

"The hard-boiled policy of no extension of services is cold blooded," admits Ray Fry, Midland city manager. "But it is absolutely essential if a city is to grow." Midland has tripled in area by annexation.

SAGINAW A CONTRAST

He contrasts his city to neighboring Saginaw where a ban against such extensions came, according to officials, "too late." For years, Saginaw permitted suburbanites to hook into city water and sewer lines, call on the fire department and send their children to city schools.

Said Mayor Dewey Stearns:

"We sold our birthright for a mess of pottage and that's what we have now — a mess."

Changing his metaphor, he said Saginaw tried to win friends outside its limits by a liberal policy, "but the unwelcome treatment we've received in return has given us a rude awakening."

Benton Harbor signed a sewage system contract with populous Benton Township that has 42 years to run. Already, says Don C. Stewart, city manager, there is serious disagreement on the terms.

Battle Creek City and Township once tried to work out an arrangement for a joint sewer program but the efforts resulted in bitter name calling.

BAD FEELINGS

Stewart pointed up the ill feelings some sentimental developers when one governmental unit owns the facility and the other "runs" it. He said Benton Harbor found it necessary to have further tap-ins to the city water system from outside.

Township people started filling jugs and tubs at faucets in the city parks. When they were stopped from doing this, "they called us nasty names," he said.

Suburban customers are not always happy with the treatment they receive from the cities.

Some who have moved to the country say as city residents they paid into a facility for years and are now entitled to a dividend on their investment.

Priest Slays Burglar in Rectory Break-In

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Richard E. Sanders, 28, convicted burglar and narcotics violator, was shot to death Sunday night by a priest who surprised Sanders and a companion burglarizing a Roman Catholic church rectory.

Detective Capt. Roy Tangey said the Rt. Rev. Magr. Delle A. Lemieux, 39, may also have wounded the second burglar who ran from the St. Catherine's church rectory after Sanders was shot in the stomach. Sanders died in an operating table at Denver General Hospital.

Tangey said the priest, alone in the rectory, heard a noise in the dining room and armed himself with a 12-gauge shotgun and a 23-caliber revolver. He surprised the two men yanking drawers of a dining room buffet containing silverware.

Student Loan Plan

OUR school has made available to its students a plan for financing tuition payments with a national organization that is devoted exclusively to educational financing. Through The Student Loan Plan students may make reduced monthly payments that extend beyond the completion of their course.

There is no good reason why any worthy young man or woman should forego the admitted advantages of specialized training just because they might feel their present financial condition should delay this opportunity.

It is immaterial to the school which plan of payment you adopt. The Student Loan Plan will enable you to set NOW. Ask for details at the school.

Griely Dachau Story Hard to Stomach

Eichmann Trial to Stir Up Bitter Ashes

(Editor's Note: Adolph Eichmann was on trial April 11 in Jerusalem for crimes so horrendous they are precisely, perhaps, indescribable. Millions of Jews, imprisoned, tortured, murdered. In 1945, the Canadian went to the scene of the crime to interview British concentration camp.)

By BOB CONSENSE

DACHAU—Sister Augusta, a little old doll of a nun, clucked her class of girls from the seventh grade together under a sign that identifies the "Krematorium." It was time for her to take the brood of apple-cheeked troublemakers back to school.

Not many little girls of the world had ever seen what their eyes had just beheld.

—The "Krematorium," for one thing, with its four gaping ovens into which were stoked tens of thousands of murdered, starved, and mutilated Jews, gypsies, political prisoners and prisoners of war.

—The sabotaged gas chamber, built to resemble a community shower bath, and to kill 100 inmates at once.

—The "hospital" where SS doctors were presented with an endless supply of human laboratory animals, for experiments in freezing, high altitude pressure, new drugs, induced diseases, and studies in how badly a doctor could tangle before the patient died.

—The execution wall, the gallows, the common graves, the ashes well, the site of the gallows from which the SS men and their wives and girls would top off an evening of partying by watching packs of hunger-crazed German shepherds or Doberman pinchers devour a screaming man, woman or child.

Sister Augusta quieted the whispering schoolgirls and told them in German that if a stranger was an American newspaperman, and he had asked why she and her girls had come to this place.

MEN WITHOUT GOD

"The Sisters of Notre Dame do this with all of our children," the nun said solemnly. "This shows the children what happens to men who live without God."

"It is good that one of these men who made this place, Eichmann, was caught. What happens to him must now go. One little girl volunteered the whole world will know and remember."

She asked those who had been brought there previously by their parents to raise their hands, and about half of the class of perhaps 30 reached skyward.

One little girl volunteered the information that her father, stunned by what he saw in Dachau while delivering goods there, gave his manager luncheon to the human skeleton who had plucked at his sleeve. The father was seized by SS guards, flogged, and given a six-month term for this act of kindness.

"Nobody really knew what was happening here and in the other camps," Sister Augusta said, looking at the stranger almost beseechingly. "Nobody really knew, not even here in the City of Dachau."

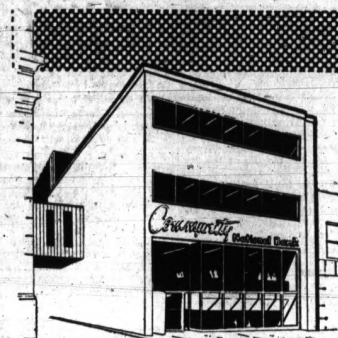

The uneasy mortification of Germany, as the April 11 evening of the trial of Adolph Eichmann in Jerusalem nears, is one of the major emotional aspects of this unique and historic drama.

Swirling about in the pretrial atmosphere, too, are doubts about the legality of the trial, the validity of precedents established at Nuremberg, conflicting opinions in Germany and Israel as to the disposition of the Nazi when/if found guilty, widespread incredulity, diminishing memories of unprecedented cruelty and—to the alarm of many thoughtful Israelis—much public indifference.

The Eichmann story, in effect, starts here at this ugly scar on the otherwise fair, fair face of the Bavarian countryside.

WAITING TIGER — Dick Brown, Detroit Tiger catcher, plays a waiting game. While Philadelphia Phillies' infielder crosses home plate, Brown awaits a throw from the outfield as umpire Charley Berry watches the play. The Tigers lost to the Phillies, 7-4.

Wings Made Believers Out of Leafs Tigers Have Only 8 Days to Find 'Silver Lining'

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Opening day is eight days off for the Tigers — but Bob Scheffing already is scanning the heavens for a cloud with a silver lining.

Things have been dark, gloomy, overcast for the Tigers the last few days. They've now lost four of their last five Grapefruit League games, the first two losses were to the New York Yankees, and couldn't be considered embarrassing occurrences.

But over the weekend the Tigers really made the new manager's life stormy.

The Tigers lost yesterday to the Philadelphia Phillies, who extended for a 16-8 season in a 7-4 victory, Saturday, the Tigers lost 11-5 to the Kansas City Athletics, who pounded out 13 hits.

Spring training games are unimportant, you might say. But check last year's standings and you'll see that the A's finished last in the American League and the Phillies were in the National League basement.

Getting mauled back-to-back by the tailenders entering the final week in Florida pointed up a deficiency in pitching, supposedly one of the Tigers' strong areas. After the A's rapped Frank Lary Saturday, the Phils hammered Don Mossi and three relievers yesterday.

Most allowed 10 hits in the seven innings he toiled, but left the game with a 4-3 lead. Gordon Seyfried, up from Denver, lost it in the eighth.

The rookie right-hander retired only one batter as he yielded four runs on three hits and three walks. His performance probably cost Seyfried a chance to stick with the Tigers this season.

The silver lining for Scheffing has been Steve Boros' work the past 10 days. The rookie Tiger third baseman kept up a good hitting against Philadelphia by slugging a 400-foot, two-run homer and a single.

Boros, a Flint youngster who was signed off the University of Michigan campus, apparently has the hot corner job nailed down. For the first few weeks of spring training, while the Tigers were hot, Boros was Scheffing's chief concern. Boros was deep in a hitting slump and his fielding had suffered.

Norm Cash's batting also has been pleasing to the manager. The young first baseman covered against Philadelphia in the fourth and singled before Boros' clutch tie 3-3 in the sixth. The Tigers were ahead briefly in the seventh when Al Kaline drove in Billy Bruton with a single. The only other

Detroit Quietly Awaits Canadian-Hawk Winner for Cup Finals

DETROIT (AP) — It took the Detroit Red Wings five and a half months to convince themselves they were a good hockey club — but only 10 days to make believers out of the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Now, after betting the stunned Leafs out of the Stanley Cup playoffs in just five games, the Wings have earned a rest while the Montreal Canadiens and Chicago Black Hawks are slugging it out for the other berth in the finals.

The Minnesota Twins Sunday hired Floyd Baker as a temporary coach to fill in for ailing Clyde McCullough.

Debbie Wilson of Bloomfield Hills took four hits in the Flint-Birmingham game last night and three more for older contestants. Both boys are from Birmingham.

Ohio University Sunday won the eight-team Greenbrier Intercollegiate Golf Tournament for the 3rd straight year. John Lott of San Jose State broke the record by 10 strokes with 282 in his final round.

Kruskie Retains Table Net Title

Women's Honors Taken by Gloria Hartman in City Tournament

Jerry Kruskie retained his singles championship and Gloria Hartman won her first singles title in the annual Pontiac Table Tennis Tournament Saturday at the Pontiac Central High School gymnasium.

Kruskie defeated Sid Britton to win the men's city crown for the second straight year. Miss Hartman became the women's 1961 city champion by conquering Janet Channing.

Championships were decided in 15 divisions. The tourney was sponsored by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department and conducted by the Pontiac Table Tennis Association.

Howard Weber took Marvin Barnhart to take top junior boys' honors and also captured top laurels in the boys' division by whipping Mike Curtis.

The new mixed doubles champions are Miss Hartman and Howard Heckman. Kruskie and Ron Beckman are champs in men's doubles and Paul Collis is the senior men's singles champ.

The city event served as a final tournament for area netters planning to compete in the National Table Tennis Tournament April 1-6 at Detroit's Cobo Hall.

Several local players will enter the national tourney.

Saturday's finals results: Junior boys' singles—Howard Weber def. Marvin Barnhart; Boys' doubles—Weber and Ray Chisholm def. Ray Travis and Barnhart; Boys' singles—Weber def. Experience Big Factor in Masters

Horton Smith Is Only Winner on 1st Try in '34

Wall to Miss Tourney for 2nd Year in Row Because of Injury

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Unless history is wrong, an inexperienced golfer hasn't much chance of winning the Masters Tournament. The only player who ever succeeded on his first attempt was Horton Smith, when he won the first Masters in 1934.

The massive and often deceptive 6-800-yard Augusta National course — where play starts Thursday — takes too much knowing for anyone to master it the first time out. Besides sheer power and sharp hitting, it calls for expertly placed drives, keen judgment on approaches and excellent putting.

But outside of defender Arnold Palmer, it's hard to see any of the past winners as likely contenders for the fifth championship — and they're the ones who should know the course best.

Palmer, of course, is the obvious favorite. He has won twice in the past three years. At 31, he's at the peak of his playing career. He has the big game suited to this big course and the kind of temperament that makes him do his best when he needs a birdie or two to win.

Going back a dozen years, only seven other winners are listed — Art Wall Jr., Doug Ford, Jack Burke, Cary Middlecott, Sam Snead, Ben Hogan and Jimmy Demaret.

Wall suffered a painful rib injury taking a swing at the last during the recent Miami Beach Open and will have to miss his second Masters since he won in 1958. A knee injury kept him from defending last year.

Ford, usually the hottest golfer on the pro tour, has played less than usual this year, has had one of his worst winter records.

Burke, a busy business man, has played in only six of 12 winter tournaments and hasn't finished better than sixth. Middlecott, who planned to return as a full time tourist this year, has played in eight, missing the 36-hole cut three times and placing no higher than 21st.

Although Hogan and Snead play in very few tournaments, both are reported to be hitting the ball very far from tee to green and they're always dangerous here. It is they're both going on 45, an age when putting begins to falter. Demaret is admittedly past 50.

SPORTS

MASTERS NEXT—Little Jerry Barber of Los Angeles was the first player to win the Azalea Invitational Tournament twice in a row. He defeated Chandler Harper in a one hole play-off and took the $1,200 first prize. Harper went into the final round with a three stroke lead. Barber posted 71-71-71-213 while Harper had 71-68-74-213. The players now head for Augusta, where the Masters tournament starts Thursday.

Barber Wins Azalea Open, Masters Next

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP)—Jerry Barber and Chandler Harper, a pair of happy guy golfers who are bound for the Masters Tournament opening Thursday at Augusta, Ga., mastered the youngsters Sunday.

They survived a grueling 36-hole final day in a tie for first place in the $4,000 Azalea Open and then played a sudden-death extra hole. Barber won with a par 4. They had tied at 213, three-under-par, Barber on three rounds of 71, Harper on 71-68-74.

The victory was worth $1,200 to the 37-year-old veteran from Los Angeles, who will be 45 this month. Harper, who is 47, pocketed $1,000.

Spann Shows No Signs of Slipping

By The Associated Press

The end of the rainbow's just 12 steps from Milwaukee around marvel Warren Spann, who can march on to the pot of gold this season by becoming the first left-handed pitcher in National League history to win 300 games.

That's one of the few honors left for the tireless, ageless Spann, a 20-year winner 11 times, the top active southpaw in baseball annals with 288 victories, and at 39 still the ace of the Braves' pitching staff.

And Spann has shown no signs of slowing down this spring while preparing for his 17th season in the big time. He's won four exhibitions without a loss—the latest a nine-inning, five-hit effort that stopped the Kansas City A's 5-2 Sunday.

Gonzales Increases Tennis Tour Lead

DUISBURG, Germany (AP) — Sweden's fencers Sunday took the first three places in the epee competition of the World Junior Fencing Tournament.

Hans Lagerwald defeated teammate Alexander Wahlberg in a fence-off after each had lost his first round in the epee. Ervar Lindvall of Sweden was third with four victories.

Catherine Bessieres of France won the women's foil championship when she won six of her seven bouts in the final round.

Madeline Myamoto of Fairleigh Dickinson University, Tuxedo, N.J., division, barely missed making the finals. She was defeated 4-2 in a fence-off with Marion Crawford of the Netherlands.

High School Senior Is Latest Swimming Sensation

Tall Players Still Score

3-Game Experiment Offers Nothing Startling

CLEVELAND (AP)—A three-game experiment with a pair of new basketball rules—designed to minimize the big man's advantage—seems to have had little startling effect on the game.

The Cleveland Pipers whipped the College All-Stars in all three exhibitions over the weekend—in Buffalo Saturday night, in Akron yesterday afternoon and here last night.

The games were played under rules proposed by the new American Basketball League, a pro circuit in which Cleveland will participate next season. Three points were recorded for a field goal of 25 feet or beyond and the foul lines around the basket were widened from 12 feet to 18 feet at the baseline.

But only 14 three-pointers were scored, nine by the college players. The wider foul lane seemed to bother the big men to some extent, but it was the ones who did most of the scoring. The Pipers started their top five players who won the National Basketball League title, the AAU championship and will form the nucleus of the U.S. team which tours Russia later this month. They are, Jack Adams, Dan Swartz, Ben Warley, Roger Taylor and John Barnhill.

Swartz and Warley each scored 23 as the Clevelanders won 126-102 at Buffalo.

In Akron the Pipers overcame a seven-point halftime deficit and topped the collegeans 100-82. Swartz had 20 and Adams, 19. Indiana's Walt Bellamy, who played only the first half, and Whitey Martin of St. Bonaventure, each had 18. Martin connected on four three-pointers.

Only the scoring of Don Kojis (20) of Marquette and Larry Siegfried of Ohio State (23) kept the All-Stars in the running here as Cleveland ran off with a 107-95 verdict. Swartz topped the Pipers with 27.

Weekend Fights in Brief

Short-Distance Chances Pinned on Steve Clark

California Prep Star Posts 2 U.S. Records in National AAU

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—The Nation's short-distance swimming hopes were pinned today on the capable shoulders of Steve Clark, a 16-year-old high school senior from Los Altos, Calif.

Clark staked a solid claim to being the world's fastest sprint swimmer by winning the 100-yard freestyle in an incredible 46.8 seconds Saturday in the Amateur Athletic Union's (AAU) indoor championships at Yale.

It was the schoolboy's second championship and second United States record in Yale's 25-yard Payne Whitney pool.

During the three-day meet, national records tumbled in 13 of the 14 swimming events.

Clark's time in the 100 yards was considered comparable to breaking of the four-minute mile in running.

Clark, under the tutelage of George Haines, coach of the American women's Olympic team at Rome, also won the 220-yard freestyle in two minutes even 7½ days. Upsetting Murray Rose of Australia, he prevented the Olympic great and U. of Southern California ace from completing a triple.

Southern Cal's Charley Bittick, however, did put together a triple by taking the 100-yard backstroke and the 400-yard individual medley.

Other results that fell in the finals: Michigan's Frank Legall, 100-yard butterfly, 51.9; Indiana's Chet Jastrzemski, 100-yard breaststroke, 58.6; Ted Stickle, also of Indiana, 400-yard individual medley, 2:02.1.

Rose beat his own 440-yard freestyle record in 4:18.2. The North Carolina A. C. took the 400-yard medley relay in 3:39.9 on the fine stroking of Thompson Mann, Peter Fogarty, Ed Spencer and Harry Bloom.

Don O'Brien of Columbus, Ohio, won the 3-meter diving title with 529.55 points.

The team title went to Southern Cal with Bittick and Rose leading in the accumulation of the school's 74 points. The New Haven S. C. was second with 44½ and the New Trier S. C. of Winnetka, Ill., third with 21.

White Takes First in 100-Mile Race
CONCORD, N.C. (AP)—Don White of Keokuk, Iowa, driving a 1960 Ford, took the lead on the 100-mile race and held on to win Sunday's 100-mile late model stock car race at Concord Speedway.

He won $700 of the total purse of $7,500. White's time for the 200 laps on the half-mile, banked, dirt track was 1 hour, 34 minutes, 2 seconds. His average speed was 63.8 m.p.h.

The race, watched by a crowd of 3,500, was sanctioned by the U.S. Auto Club. It was the first such race in the South to be sanctioned by USAC.

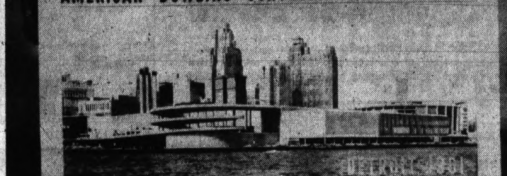

Norm Nelson of Racine, Wis., in a 1960 Ford, was second, and won $725. Elmer Musgrave of Glenview, Ill., also in a 1961 Ford, was third and won $485.

Fourth place and $388 went to Dave Landman of Libertyville, Ill., in a 1960 Ford, and Paul Goldsmith of St. Clair Shores, Mich., was fifth in a 1961 Pontiac and won $300.

AMERICAN BOWLING CONGRESS CHAMPIONSHIPS

PONTIAC FLAVOR AT ABC—There was plenty of Pontiac Centennial flavor at the ABC tournament Saturday night as 40 local teams competed on the Pontiac Motor Booster-Squad. Several legends were admired in the full celebration regalia of top hat, shoestring tie and beard. Some of them were, left to right, Bryan French, John Olson, Sam Johnson, Elton Behnke and Whitney Murphy.

Nickel Plate Tops Local ABC Squad

Al Bennett's Nickel Plate team rolled 2696 to lead the Pontiac Motor Division Booster Squad Saturday night at the ABC tournament. The top ranking was worth $100.

Tempest Trolling followed with 2619 for 57½. Die Room Nites Mechanists had 2597 for 66½. Bench Men had 2566 for 53½. Rudy's Market of Charleston 2554 for 46½. Owen Owens of Ottoville 2551 for 46½. Fire Prevention 2543 for 33½. Plant 2432, Foundry Millwrights 2422 and Pontiac Motor Laborers 2416.

Nine more Pontiac teams will bowl tomorrow night in booster competition. Included will be Motor Inn "B" entries Midget Bar, Gridiron Bar, Bismar Inn, Leonard's Jewelers, Weigley's Market, Drewry's and Stroh's plus Sylvan Lanes and Miller Realty.

Sylvania Electric of Ottawa, Ohio took the booster lead last night with 2612. A Sunday feature was a 616 rolled by 14-year-old Bill Warner Jr. of Conneautville, Pa. His dad had 432.

Plenty of heated action is expected this week with the classic division resuming headed by Strohs of Detroit, captained by Tony Lindeman, and Palstaff of St. Louis. The latter team is current national team, match-games champion with such stars as Billy Welu and Steve Nagay.

The Milford Doubles Tournament has a change of leaders over the weekend with Bob Rancour and Dave Pittman of Ann Arbor going ahead of the park at Fairgrounds with 1410. Glen and Bob Kuschel of Milford are 2nd at 1403. Bill Wilson of Charleston and George Bladen of Dayton Plains, have 1387, two Detroit duns follow at 1383 and 1362.

Lloyd Hoover of Walled Lake still owns the best game of 279 with four weeks of action remaining.

Chicago Needs One More Win
Black Hawks Have Not Been in Stanley Cup Battle Since '44

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Black Hawks and Montreal Canadiens tune up in brief drills today for the sixth and possibly final game of the Stanley Cup semifinals playoffs.

A win for the Hawks in the Chicago Stadium tomorrow night will put them in the finals of the world series of hockey for the first time since 1944. The Hawks took a 3-2 lead in the semifinals with a 3-0 victory over the Canadiens, the regular season league leaders, in Montreal Saturday night. The Hawks haven't won the Stanley Cup since 1938.

If the Canadiens, who have won the Stanley Cup the last five years, take tomorrow's game, the seventh will be played in Montreal Thursday.

The winner meets the Detroit Red Wings in the best-of-seven games finals for the cup. Detroit eliminated Toronto four games to one Saturday with a 3-2 triumph. The so-called home advantage hasn't worked out as such in this series. Chicago has won two of its three games at Montreal and was pressed to three overtime to win at home. Canadiens won one and lost one at Chicago.

Gains Early Leadership
NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)—Richard I. (Dick) Stearns, a slick star-class sailor from Northfield, Ill., skippered Gilder Sunday to victory in the first of three races for the 1961 World Cup championship as the annual Bahamas Regatta Week opened.

Wait Bellamy, 61-10½ ace from Indiana University, led the scoring with 20 points. Tex Harrison was high for the Globetrotters with 18.

After the collegians scored first to lead 24, the professionals took control, running up a 44-37 advantage at half time.

Parents Asked to Give Bike Riders a Chance

25 Cents Could Spare Your Child's Life

By PHILLIS BATTLE

NEW YORK — Johnny Smith — a wholesome, freckle-faced, fictional kid of 12 — was different from his friends in the neighborhood.

Encouraged by his dad, who didn't have as large an income as the other kids' dads, Johnny worked and saved his money.

He mowed lawns and shoveled snow and finally had enough to buy himself a bike, with which he elevated himself professionally to the post of messenger.

While other kids rode the school bus and the family car, Johnny pedaled swiftly and efficiently a bike, with which he elevated himself professionally to the post of messenger.

Then one night a car smashed into Johnny's bike and killed him. The driver said he didn't see the bike and boy — the potential VP — till he was right on top of them. He was released.

Technically, there was no crime involved.

But there was a crime involved. In reality, it was one of those crimes of stupid or careless omission that make you cringe, after the fact, even if you don't know any of the more than 400 American youngsters who are killed, annually, in just such accidents as this.

COULD AVOID TRAGEDY

For less than 25 cents, the tragedy could have been avoided.

The shockingly real truth is that many of these 400 — and a large share of the 30,000 other kids who are injured on bikes each year — were as blameless as the driver of the autos that struck them down.

They just became slow, invisible figures in the dusk and the dark until it was too late for swift, modern cars to avoid crashing into them.

And a few cents worth of precaution, in the form of a reflective tape, sealed to their bikes, would have made these youngsters brightly visible as far away as 250 feet, in plenty of time to avoid the tragedy," said a young specialist named Morgan Doughton.

The tape, he refers to, and reflector paints which do a similar job, can be purchased at dime stores, auto accessory shops and department stores.

Yet they're now used on only about 1 per cent of the nation's 77 million bicycles, even though they're inexpensive and take only moments to apply.

"But serious bike accidents," Doughton sighs, "are much like serious auto accidents — everybody thinks it couldn't happen to him."

"Kids, particularly. They trust drivers to avoid running them down. And parents — well, parents ride bikes back in the days when there weren't nearly so many cars on the road, and when families often had a curfew of 7:30 p.m."

"Parents just mentally refuse to look at bicycling as a potential danger to their children."

TO SPONSOR CAMPAIGN

Doughton is the 23-year-old, crew-cut president of the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce and Purpose: To inspect every kid's reason he is so shipped on bike in the country for mechanical perfection, to teach children of chapters under his leadership the dangers, and to provide reflective a "life-a-bike" campaign this month.

Of course it isn't mentioned! Newspapers haven't space to print silly gossip about what the First Lady wears!

Groups Parade, Stressing Peace

Quaker Unit of 25 Holds 42-Hour Vigil of Silence in Times Square

NEW YORK — Separate groups, appealing for world peace and an end to the armaments race held peaceful demonstrations about Manhattan Sunday.

A group of 25 Quakers — a segment of 284 members of the sect — ended a 42-hour vigil of silence in Times Square with a traditional Sunday morning religious meeting.

The Quakers, members of the Society of Friends, had stood quietly for three days, carrying placards to dramatize their opposition to war and violence.

They rotated the assignment, each shift standing for a two-hour period.

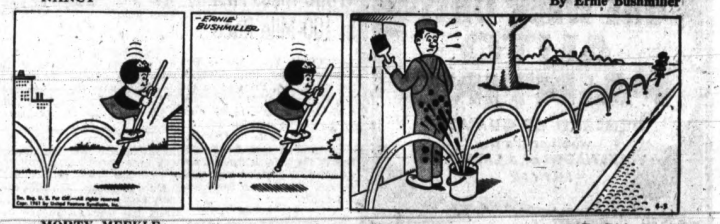

As the Quakers ended their vigil, a group of about 300 pacifists began a walk which carried them over 87 Manhattan blocks.

That group, which said it sought disarmament by both the major nuclear powers, delivered appeals at the United States and Soviet missions to the United Nations.

A spokesman said the "peace walk" was started March 11 by the New England Committee for Non-Violent Action at the Kittery, Maine, naval base.

Bureau Gets $75,000

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Carnegie Corp. Sunday announced a grant of $75,000 to the National Bureau of Economic Research to see whether an exact monetary value could be placed on society's investment in education.

The cries made by bats to 45,000 cycles per second, far above the range of the human ear.

Band Sings Hymns in Russian Church

MOSCOW (UPI)—Sixty-two members of the touring Michigan University Philharmonic Band celebrated Easter thousands of miles from home with a private service in the Russian town of Sukhumi.

About 30 of the band members later took part in a hymn fest with local Baptists in the Georgian resort town on the Black Sea.

The Americans held their Easter celebration to coincide with midnight bells in the Midwest. They finished a half-hour service in a flower-decorated hall with 18 hymns.

A spokesman for the band said the sun came out in the middle of the Easter service, bringing an end to three days of rain.

Ronald Bell, a band member of Traverse City, told United Press International during a telephone interview that the trip to the Baptist Church was a success.

$200,000 Loot at Grand Rapids

Take Gold, Silver and Gems From 8 Safes; Shirt, Tools Are Clues

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—Police and the FBI today sought burglars who carried off an estimated $200,000 in gold, silver and gems as loot from a jewelry firm Sunday.

An abandoned green sports shirt smelly of tear gas and some burglar tools were major clues.

Thieves broke into the H. R. Terryberry Co. and stole the valuables from eight safes. The firm is a manufacturer of school rings, pins and specialized jewelry.

Police said the burglars set off a smoke trap in a battle attempt to open three more safes. The sports shirt was found in a nearby alley.

The FBI entered the case because of financial protection of gold by other than a dealer.

The loot, police said, included 300 pounds of gold and silver pressed into sheets of varied thicknesses and uncut diamonds and other stones.

Also stolen were sample gold school rings that had been in display cases.

A. P. Terryberry, the firm's president, said the loss was partly covered by insurance. He said the large inventory of gold was on hand for the busy season of June school graduations.

Paper Is Target for Big Bomb

French Blast Probably Aimed at Red Printing Establishment

MARSEILLE, France (AP)—A powerful bomb exploded early today in a building housing the printing establishments for both Communist and a moderately right-wing newspaper.

The bomb was placed at the end of a corridor separating the Communist La Marseillaise and the conservative Le Meridional La France.

The bomb shattered the corridor and broke windows throughout the building. None of the printing equipment was damaged.

Police believed that the bomb was directed at the Communist paper, since most of the bombing attacks in France recently apparently have been the work of right-wing extremists.

In Algeria, Easter Sunday was marked by a series of rebel bombings and attacks in which 43 persons were wounded and 3 killed.

In Paris, a rebel commando unit attacked a police station in an Algerian section and wounded four Moulton police auxiliaries. Police killed two of the attackers.

Asked to Up Shares to Acquire Firms

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Studebaker-Packard Corp. stockholders have been asked to authorize an increase of 250,000 shares in the firm's second preferred stock and a million share of common stock.

The corporations said Sunday the new shares would be used to acquire major, diversified businesses.

Such an increase must be approved by stockholders at the annual meeting April 27.

Studebaker-Packard officials declined to name firms which S-P might acquire.

Voter Turnout Is Light

Calling Con-Con Major Issue in State Election

County Balloting is Far Behind Interest Shown in Presidential Race

Interest and turnouts weren't too great today as Oakland County and Michigan voters cast ballots in an election which could make history.

Probably the biggest point of interest is State Proposition No. 1—should a constitutional convention be held to rewrite the state's 53-year-old, multi-amended constitution.

The Pontiac Press will offer telephone information on voting returns on the state races and questions, and also on Waterford Township's election. The service will begin at 9 p.m., the number is Federal 2-8181.

from last fall's general election when interest ran high.

Polls will remain open throughout the county until 8 p.m. Those still in line at that time will be allowed to vote, according to County Clerk-Register Daniel T. Murphy Jr.

He has forecast that about 110,000 out of the county's 350,000 registered voters will cast their ballots in the election, which could be the last of the biennials should a constitutional convention be approved. Besides apathy, overcast skies and cool temperatures were expected to have state and county election officials wondering about their estimates. Easter falling the day before the election might keep turnouts low too, Murphy said.

About 94,000 Oakland voters cast ballots in 1958, an election which created more interest because of the balloting for Circuit Court judges.

At 9:30 a.m. only 17 had voted at Precinct 41 at the Webster School. At 10:00 a.m. at the three precincts at Wilson School a total of 42 voters had cast ballots.

First to vote at Precinct 27 at Wilson was John Kent, 246 Ferry Ave. He waited alone in line since 6:30, he said.

Find Pair in Sylvan Lake Home

2 Area Women Die in Fire

Two Oakland County women suffered to death early Sunday morning when a cigarette apparently set a Sylvan Lake home ablaze.

The victims were Mrs. Ethel Van Hecke Vrooman, 65, of 2955 Orchard Lake Road, where the fire occurred, and Mrs. Hildegard M. Laird, 45, of 3900 Kipling St., Berkley, sister-in-law of former Chrysler Corp. President William C. Newberg.

They were alone in the two-story frame house when overcome by smoke inhalation.

On his way home to Walpole Lake, Sheriff's Deputy Roland C. Pless said he spotted a flame, barely visible, coming out of a window on the east side of the house Mrs. Vrooman used as an office for her insurance agency.

The time was 12:55 a.m. Pless said he ran to a nearby laundromat, handed a man a dime and told him to call the fire department, and rushed back to the home.

"I knocked on all the doors but got no response," Pless said. He then used a clothesline support and knocked on the upstairs windows. Still no answer.

FULL OF SMOKE "The house was full of smoke and I put my hand on the rear door window," he said, "It was blazing hot."

Firemen from the West Bloomfield Township Fire Department battled the flames for several hours.

They discovered Mrs. Vrooman's body at the foot of the stairs in the kitchen. Mrs. Laird was dead at the top of the stairs.

The front living room and dining room and one of the upstairs bedrooms were gutted by flames.

Careless smoking was believed to have ignited an upholstered chair in the living room directly under the upstairs bedroom where the women had apparently retired for the night, according to Township Fire Chief Herbert Morgan.

Mrs. Laird was spending the weekend with Mrs. Vrooman, a widow.

Mrs. Vrooman's dog also succumbed in the intense smoke.

INVOLVED IN DIVORCE Mrs. Laird, who was being divorced from her husband Alexander, was the daughter of Charles W. Beck, Detroit industrialist living in Grosse Pointe. She is survived by her husband, father, mother, Mrs. Mary Beck, two brothers, Robert and Carl, and Mrs. Dorothy Newberg, a sister, of Bloomfield Township.

Service will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. at the Verheyden Funeral Home, 15200 Mack St., Grosse Pointe. Burial will follow, at the Woodlawn Cemetery.

Funeral arrangements are still pending for Mrs. Vrooman, awaiting the arrival here from Los Angeles of a son William. Her body is at the Huxton Funeral Home.

Other survivors are a daughter, Arlene of Peninsula, Ohio, and a sister living in Los Angeles.

Waterford Residents OK Budget, Pay Hikes

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

Waterford Township residents approved a proposed operating budget of $595,000 at the annual Township meeting Saturday, and okayed an increase totaling $1,900 in three officials' salaries.

Still subject to the Oakland County allocation board's action, the proposed salary hikes would raise the supervisor from $10,500 to $11,000; the treasurer from $7,400 to $8,000; and the clerk from $8,700 to $9,500. This is the first time in four years that a salary increase would be granted elected officials.

Although there was some opposition to the pay raises, most of the 78 persons present approved the move. One of the objectors, Frank Richardson of 6302 Rowley St., said, "I agree that pay increase are all right during prosperity, but certainly not at this time."

Trustee John Coleman gave a detailed explanation on why he thinks the hikes necessary, saying, "We are 40 to 50 per cent behind other communities of comparable population on officials' salaries. This is merely a cost-of-living increase, and if you want good government you should pay for it."

His talk was followed by applause from the audience.

A budget summary was presented to each person at the meeting on Tuesday.

Planning 3 Days of Talks With French Chief

JFK to Be in Ottawa Two Weeks Earlier; Trip Likely May 30

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President Kennedy will fly to Paris May 31 for three days of talks with French President Charles de Gaulle.

Announcing this today, the President's vacation headquarters said he will be accompanied by his wife Jacqueline.

In reply to questions, White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger told a news conference that at this time he knows of no plans to visit Paris.

BONN (UPI) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer will invite President Kennedy to visit West Germany during his visit to Washington later this month, authoritative government sources said today.

for Kennedy to visit other European capitals in connection with the Paris trip.

The Paris visit will be Kennedy's first trip abroad as President. However, he will go to Canada in advance of going to France.

Plans for a trip to Ottawa to address the Canadian parliament were announced earlier. Indications now are that Kennedy will go to Ottawa perhaps two weeks before visiting Paris.

Kennedy plans to leave for Paris by jet plane probably on the night of May 30.

They will leave Washington May 29 to attend a "Salute to Kennedy" dinner in Boston marking his 44th birthday, then go on to New York the next day for a dinner being given to raise funds to fight cancer.

Kennedy's talks with De Gaulle, whom he has never met, will complete a round of conversations with the big three leaders of Western Europe.

To Start Work on Laos Reply

British Minister Here to Combine With Rusk on Answer to Red Note

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lord Home, the British foreign minister, arrives here tonight to start preliminary work with Secretary of State Dean Rusk on a Western reply to the Soviet Union's note on Laos.

They are expected to have a draft reply ready when Prime Minister Harold Macmillan reaches here late Tuesday afternoon for conferences with President Kennedy.

U.S. officials speculated it is unlikely the reply will be delayed until the end of Macmillan's visit. The U.S. and British evaluations of the Soviet note virtually are identical.

The Soviet Union, in its note to Britain last Saturday, agreed with the British proposal to hold a 14-nation conference on the political future of Laos, but remained vague on the timing of a cease fire, which the British, backed by the United States, proposed as a first step.

In Moscow British Ambassador Sir Frank Roberts conferred with the Soviet government on plans for a joint British-Soviet cease fire appeal to the opposing forces in the Laotian civil war.

We'll Fight, Too, in Laos, Threatens Red China

Reminds SEATO to Remember Korea

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Red China today held a three-day session of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) summit conference, reminding the other members that if SEATO sends troops into Laos, "then China will also send troops."

Peiping's Foreign Minister Chen Yi, winding up a visit to Indonesia, told newsmen that if SEATO sends troops into Laos, "then China will also send troops."

Marshall Chen Yi, who commanded the Chinese Communist 3rd Army before becoming foreign minister, alluded to SEATO's warning that it was prepared to take "appropriate action" to prevent an armed Communist take-over in Laos.

The plump, balding marshal insisted that up to now China has not taken part in the Laotian civil war.

'REMEMBER KOREA'

"Remember China was compelled to participate in the Korean War only after the U.S. forces went to our border beyond the Yalu River," Chen said.

The foreign minister said Peiping's position in the fighting between pro-Western and pro-Communist forces in Laos is to "let the Laotian people settle their differences themselves and with the aid of foreign intervention. This would insure peace and neutrality in the country."

VIETNAMESE, LAOS (UPI)—Five new American-supplied helicopters, assembled by U.S. Marines in neighboring Thailand, made their first supply run today to "front line" areas of Laos.

about Moscow's latest proposals for a cease-fire in Laos, the U.S. government said it was willing to participate in the proposed 14-nation conference on the political future of Laos.

A communique on Chen Yi's talks with Indonesian President Sukarno contended that the United Nations efforts to solve world problems would be seriously weakened unless Peiping be admitted to membership in the international organization.

In Laos, fighting subsided Sunday as military sources reported no new major encounters with pro-Communist rebels.

REBELS ATTACKING

The government said Saturday the rebels were attacking three major points in eastern and southern Laos.

In Washington, officials cautioned that claims of the royal Laotian government about a large-scale rebel offensive should be considered with reservations.

The situation in Laos was described Sunday by Malaysian Prime Minister Abdul Rahman as "still extremely delicate."

He pointed out the vagueness of the Soviet reply to the British proposal about the timing of a cease-fire in the jungle kingdom.

SOVIETS HEDGING

Leaving Britain after a month-long visit, the Malaysian leader suggested that the Soviets were hedging about ending the fighting.

The neutralist Asian prime minister said "the fault in Laos lies on both sides, on the Western and the Communist bloc."

"The situation is still dangerous despite the Russian reply (to the British peace plan). My only prayer is that the Americans won't do anything to worsen it."

Radio Moscow said in a German-language broadcast, Sunday night, that "the way to a peaceful settlement in Laos may be regarded as opened."

Crises Dampen Kennedy Easter

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President Kennedy figured in two crises over the Easter weekend, one a reported assassination-plot against his family and the other involving Southeast Asia.

The President and his smartly dressed wife attended Easter Sunday church services under a double security guard because of deep concern about the Kennedy family's safety.

On the international front, the President's attention centered on what he called the potentially dangerous situation in Communist-threatened Laos.

Kennedy said the Soviet Union's reply Saturday to British proposals for restoration of peace in the Asian kingdom "offers hope that a way can be found to establish a neutral and independent Laos through negotiations."

The vacationing President commented on the Soviet note from Rusk and said it had been studied.

Kennedy, who arrived here last Thursday, now is scheduled to return to Washington Tuesday.

On Wednesday at the White House he will start a round of conferences with Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan. Efforts to bring about a cease-fire in Laos will be a prime topic.

The President has had no comment on reported plots by Castro Cubans to kidnap his daughter Caroline, 3, or assassinate the entire Kennedy family—father, mother, Caroline and John Jr., four months.

Secret Service agents have had the Cuban suspects — three men and a woman — under around the clock surveillance.

President to Visit De Gaulle in Paris

talks on this and other problems in Washington Wednesday.

And West Germany's chancellor Konrad Adenauer will be in Washington April 11-12 for conferences with Kennedy.

After a bit more than four months in office, therefore, Kennedy will have discussed with Macmillan, De Gaulle and Adenauer the administration's strategy on efforts to ease East-West tensions.

The talks are certain to embrace a variety of Western problems in dealing with the Soviet Union, including disarmament, the Berlin situation and Laos.

Kennedy's decision to accept De Gaulle's invitation to go to Paris reflects a change in travel policy as set forth by the White House about the time he took office in January.

At that time Salinger said Kennedy had no plans to go abroad for international conferences during at least the first six months of his administration.

The decision also reflects an obviously changing Kennedy attitude toward talks at the summit, including disarmament, the Berlin situation and Laos.

The word used quite recently was that the new President favored a return to use of the ordinary diplomatic channels, with ambassadors and foreign ministers handling negotiations rather than chiefs of state or government.

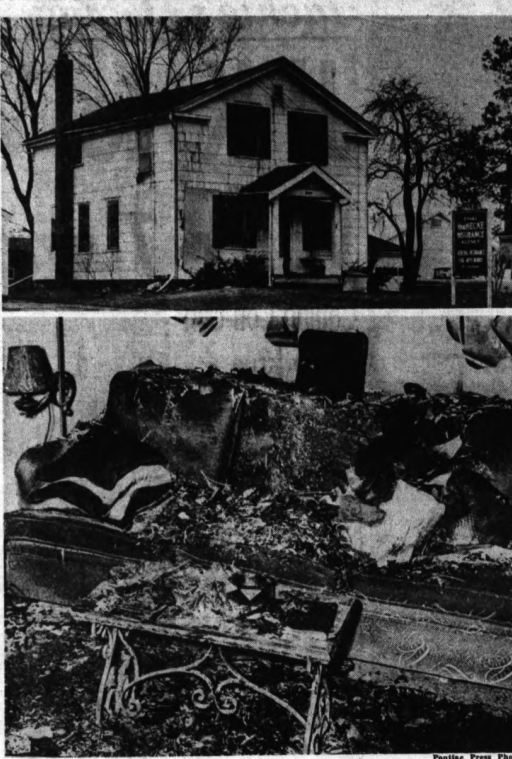

NOT FULFILLING VISIT

Kennedy's trip to Paris will not be a full-blown state visit.

Some of the ceremony and high protocol usually accorded a chief of state will be omitted in order to give the President and De Gaulle more time for working meetings.

Arrangements for the Kennedy visit have been worked out during the past few weeks.

The formal announcement came after talks between Kennedy and French Ambassador Horace Alphonse in Washington, between De Gaulle and U.S. ambassador Averell Harriman, and De Gaulle and James Gavin, the new American ambassador in Paris.

Vote Turnout Light in Statewide Election

created in Waterford Township as a slate of Republicans have set their sights in dumping the incumbent Democrats headed by Supervisor Elmer R. Johnson.

Balloting for two justice of the peace posts in the township has been light, too.

On a statewide level, probably the major interest is on the race for the four-year post of state highway commissioner now held by Democrat John C. Macle.

He is opposed by Republican Charles R. Redwell, an engineer with the Ford Motor Co. Tractor & Implement Division in Birmingham. He lives in Harper Woods.

Statewide contests for 11 positions in state government have been overshadowed by the constitutional convention question despite exceptionally talented slates of candidates on both sides.

State Elections Director Robert M. Montgomery predicted that as many as 1.5 million persons might vote, compared with the 1959 total of 1.2 million.

A second constitutional amendment also appeared on the ballot. Voters were asked to decide whether the state should be allowed to grant credit up to $5 million with legislative approval to aid public benefit corporations in financing industrial development projects.

Macle claimed he has moved Michigan up from 35th in highway construction to first in the nation. Bettel contended safety standards are inadequate and resulted in some 1,100 traffic deaths last year.

Democrats expected Macle to lead their ticket and hoped he would help pull eight other members of his party to victory in contests for educational posts.

One match pitted the incumbent Democratic Superintendent of Public Instruction Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett against an old Republican foe, Hugh H. Holloway of Sault Ste. Marie. Bartlett, who was seeking a third two-year term, defeated Holloway in 1959 by a bare 30,000 votes.

The other partisan battles were for posts on four university governing boards — Michigan State University, the University of Michigan, Wayne State University and the State Board of Education, which controls Eastern, Western, Central and Northern Michigan universities.

The present line-up gives Democrats control of all four boards, outnumbering Republicans 5-1 at MSU and WSU, 5-2 at U. of M., and 3-1 on the education board.

Also on the ballot were two so-called "nonpartisan" contests for State Supreme Court, where Democrats hold a 5-3 edge.

The positions before the voters currently are held by GOP incumbents, former Gov. Harry F. Kelly and John R. Deffenbacher. Their opponents were James H. McLaughlin and Ernest C. Boehm.

U.N. Balloting Today on Congo Payments

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly today overrode bitter Soviet opposition and approved a temporary extension of Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold's Congo spending powers.

Eighteen Latin-American countries are submitting a financing plan to the committee calling for the five permanent members of the Security Council—the United States, Britain, France, the Soviet Union and Nationalist China—to pay 10 per cent of the Congo operation. Countries whose public and private investment in the Congo exceeds $1 million each would pay 25 per cent. The other 5 per cent of the $120-million cost estimated for 1961 would be divided among all other U.N. members.

The resolution authorizes Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold to go on spending $8 million a month on the military and civilian operations in the African territory up to April 21, closing date of the assembly session.

Hammarskjold's previous three-month spending authorization ran out Friday night, the day after the budgetary committee approved the Indian resolution 38-9 with 23 abstentions.

Assembly approval is also certain, only the Soviet bloc is outspokenly opposed.

The temporary authorization to Hammarskjold gives the budget committee more time to seek a way of financing the U.N. Congo force and attached civilian employees through 1961.

Supervisor Elmer R. Johnson said this was due to last year's payment of $30,000 in delinquent taxes. The township's opening balance of the general fund in 1960 was $51,515. This year it was $69,323 as of Jan. 1.

Estimated revenue was reported at $75,000 for 1961-62 and the balance at the end of this fiscal year was estimated at $40,523.

The police budget was estimated at $112,500, or an increase of $10,000 providing for the hiring of two additional policemen.

The fire department budget was estimated at $91,650, an increase of $5,000 for one man, applications for whom are being determined at the present time.

Also included in the budget is some $23,000 for two sites and fire stations, being voted on as propositions today.

In the event the voters turn down the proposition, that money will be used to improve the police station, the parking lot and additional space for the township hall, Johnson said.

He added, "I think this meeting turned out to be a 'vote of confidence' to township officials, and that's a reassuring thought."

In spite of its descriptions as "miserable little" the coyote is much smaller than the true wolf and more closely resembles the jackal.

The Day in Birmingham

City Commission's OK Sought on Five Contracts

BIRMINGHAM—Five contracts will be presented tonight to the City Commission for its approval. The agreements are for the construction of the Island View Parking Lot, the demolition of buildings for the Northwest Quadrant Parking Lot expansion, and the purchase of a civil defense rescue truck, a traffic signal and a machine for the forestry department.

City Engineer William T. Killean, in a report to the commission, recommends that the parking lot construction bid be given to Starline Asphalt Paving, Inc. of Oak Park.

Starline's bid of $22,319 is the lowest of 16 submitted. Killen said, and approximately 25 per cent lower than the estimate made by city engineers.

Andrew F. Butt, city building inspector, recommends that the demolition contract for three buildings on the Northwest Quadrant Parking Lot site be given to Joseph F. Heitch for his bid of $1,800.

Four companies submitted bids for the civil defense rescue truck. The bid of Stark Hickey Ford, Inc., will be recommended for approval by Asst. City Manager Robert S. Kenning. Hickey's low bid is $11,655.

A $946 contract to the Graybar Electric Co. of Detroit for a traffic signal at Adams and Derby will be placed before the commission for approval on the recommendation of Police Chief Ralph W. Mosley.

T. C. Brien, superintendent of the Department of Public Works will recommend to the commission that it accept a bid of $3,013 from the Miller Equipment Co. for a brush chipper machine.

Service for Mrs. William B. Pace (Bertha Ann) Pace, 82, of 851 Humphrey St., will be 8 p.m. today at the Parsley Funeral Home, 1000 1/2 Ave. N. E. in the row in Hopewell Cemetery, Farm-land, Ind.

Mrs. Pace died Saturday at her home following a brief illness. Surviving are three sons, Herman of Utica, Orpheus C. of Birmingham and Lawrence C. of Memphis, Tenn.

Fred W. Johnson, 77, of 2300 N. Adams Road, will be 11 a.m. Wednesday at the Bell Chapel, 1000 1/2 Ave. N. E. in the row in Hopewell Cemetery, Farm-land, Ind.

Mrs. Johnson died yesterday in Henry Ford Hospital following a brief illness. He was president of Johnson, Larsen & Co., a mechanical engineering firm, until his retirement in 1947. He was a former president of the Birmingham National Bank.

He was a member of the First Methodist Church of Birmingham, Birmingham Lodge 44 F&M, Detroit Commandery No. 1, Knights Templar, Revere Club, the Birmingham 10-12 Club and the Oakland Hills Golf Country Club.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. E. L. Sommers; a son, Fred L., both of Birmingham; a brother and four grandchildren.

BALLOONIST PAYNE
DROWNS AT PORTLAND(By The Associated Press)
Portland, Mich., Aug. 26.—Roy Payne, a balloonist, lost his life late Wednesday afternoon when he landed in Grand river north of this village.

Payne was 30 years old, and had made ascensions all summer at Pine Lake, near Lansing. Failure to unhook his life belt is believed to have caused his death, as Payne was a good swimmer.

POLITICS BEGIN TO SIMMER HERE
AS AUG. 31 NEARSPARTY NOMINATIONS ARE THE CHIEF ELECTION ISSUE
EXPECT WARM CONTESTS

With primary election day but five days off, the political pot in Oakland county and throughout the state is beginning to boil. All of the contests, however, are in the county districts, the five other parties having contented themselves in the selection of but one candidate for each office upon which the party will center its efforts at both the primary and general election to follow.

What part of the women will play in politics this year when they vote for the first time at a gubernatorial election, is causing much speculation, but political leaders in the county are of the opinion that the women will be the principal parties will be the same as before.

With nine days in the ring in the gubernatorial race on the republican ticket, this contest is attracting particular attention throughout the county. The candidates are: Milo D. Campbell, Loren D. Dickson, and Charles B. Scully.

Thursday Evening at Madison Junior High

To Model '100 Years of Fashion'

Mrs. D. Richard Veazey of Delaware Drive, cochairman of the City Federation of Women's Clubs centennial card party, poses in a handsome costume with some of the lovely antiques in the Wisner home. Proceeds of Thursday's benefit will be used to continue restoration at the landmark.

Adah Shelly (center) of Washington Street, board member at the Wisner home, explained the antique furnishings of the mansion to models Mrs. Forest Lamson (left) of Erie Road and Mrs. James Donaldson of Preston Avenue. The two were soaking up atmosphere for their role in Thursday's 8 p. m. fashion showing for the City Federation of Women's Clubs.

"100 Years of Fashion" will be the theme for the City Federation of Women's Clubs party. Grace Ann Donaldson (at left) of Preston Avenue and Mrs. Birum G. Campbell of Cherokee Road are among a score of localities who will model fashions of yore at Thursday evening's affair in Madison Junior High School. The public is invited.

2 Jobs on Her Hands

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I work with a man who says he's in love with me. I care for him, too, but I'm not as emotional about it as he is.

My problem is that the moment we are alone on the job he tries to kiss me. And he expects me to let him every few minutes that I love him, too.

I don't care for that kind of stuff while I'm working, especially since we are not always alone and we never know when someone is going to walk in on us.

How can I let him know I would rather be just "friends" during working hours? He is very sensitive and easily hurt.

ABBY

DEAR CAREFUL: Since you obviously have better judgment than the Romeo who is trying to make time on company time, it is up to you to call the tune. Tell him to control his flame during working hours or you both could be fired.

DEAR ABBY: I know there is an "Alcoholics Anonymous" and a "Gamblers Anonymous," but is there a "Charge Accounts Anonymous" for people like me?

I don't know why I do it, but I run up charge accounts and can't seem to help myself. It is the cruelest thing ... when I get into a store I go wild buying things I don't really need.

If I don't get help with this problem soon, I am going to lose my husband.

OVER MY HEAD

DEAR OVER: Go on a CASH basis and budget your monthly spending. And tell yourself, when the urge hits, that you're grown up now.

DEAR ABBY: Is it proper for a girl to offer a pencil and paper to a boy she meets at a dance? Many boys I have met at dances ask for my phone number and they never seem to have a pencil and paper.

I always carry a pencil and note paper for this purpose. My girl friend said it was not proper as it looked like I was too anxious. I would like your opinion.

PREPARED

DEAR PREPARED: It's not what you do but the way that you do it. Don't whip out a pencil and paper at the drop of a hint.

Give the boy a chance to come up with his own, and use yours only in cases of "emergency." And, by the way, young lady, be a little fussy or nag everyone in town will have your number.

U. of M. Letter Brings Campus News

By SHARON WARREN

Despite the prospects of mid-term examinations starting this week, students at the University of Michigan took time out to enjoy last week's brief taste of spring weather. Thoughts strayed to the spring vacation, which will continue until April 10.

Moreover, plans are currently under way for the Spring Weekend, April 28-29. "Jest in Time" will be the theme of the biannual all campus fun-fest. It is a cross between a carnival, a picnic, and a free-for-all. It features canoe races, a parade, a skit night, and a dance.

The theme will be characterized by jokes on the peculiarities of time. Myrna Mosley of Birmingham is on the central committee planning the weekend. Myrna is a junior in the college of literature, science and the arts.

"Teatasha" was the title of the 1961 Junior Girls Play presented March 23-25 at the university. An original musical, "Teatasha" satirized elections. Betty Dillman played the leading role of Mudenda. Betty lives in Rochester and is a junior in the college of architecture and design.

Two students from Birmingham also took part in the production. They were Sue Hard and Jan Lynch. Sue was a member of the chorus and Jan was a dancer. Both girls are juniors in the college of literature, science and the arts.

During the all-campus elections, March 21-22, the following students won offices. Winning Michigan Union officers were Birmingham residents Charles H. Matthews and Michael Odham. Charles is a business administration senior. Mike is a law student who received his bachelor's degree from Michigan State University.

Students securing posts in the four university schools and colleges are senior Elizabeth Johnson of Garland Avenue, who won the position of treasurer for the school of education; and William Blanton, a junior of Rochester, who is now president of the school of business administration.

Lyn Hollis, Gary Belyea and Marilyn Vernon, Pontiac freshmen, will leave today with the Michigan Singers on a concert tour in key cities in Northern Michigan and the Upper Peninsula.

Time to Nominate Working Women

Wednesday is the deadline for nominations for the five outstanding working women in the Pontiac area.

Choices will be made on the nominee's spirit of cooperation and sense of respect for her fellow workers, the inspiration she generates in those with whom she comes in contact and her ability to assume and use responsibilities with good judgment.

The local chapter of Zonta International is sponsoring the event. Nominees need not be a member of Zonta, although they must work in the city of Pontiac, Waterford, West Bloomfield or Pontiac townships. Judges are Dr. Mary Ann Cusack, Joseph H. Shimmick and Adah Shelly. Nominations should be addressed to Miss Shelly, 132 Washington Street. Winners will be feted at a breakfast April 16 which will climax "Working Woman's Week" to be proclaimed April 10.

Newlyweds Take Trip Along Lake Michigan

The Rev. Paul T. Hart officiated at the marriage of Gwen Hunsinger to Harley R. Hopp Jr., Friday evening in the First Methodist Church.

The bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Mudge of Cass Lake, who were hosts at a reception in their home following the nuptials. Mr. Mudge gave his niece in marriage.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. Ava J. Hopp of Osceola Drive and Harley Hopp of Green Bay, Wis.

Styled with a scalloped neckline and sleeves ending in wrist-points, the molded bodice of Chantilly lace extended into a ballerina-length skirt of white silk organza over tulle.

A headpiece of pearlized flowers secured the shoulder-length veil of silk illusion. White feathered carnations comprised the bride's cascade bouquet.

Sharon Badger, honor maid, appeared in ballerina-length azalea pink tulle and carried pink-tipped white carnations. Bridesmaid, Donna Humbaugh, wore aqua tulle and held a cascade of aqua-tipped carnations.

Bruce Bergstrom assisted the bridegroom as best man and Gene Rihabcha of Drayton Plains acted as the groom.

Returning from a honeymoon in Northern Michigan, then following the Lake Michigan western shoreline to Chicago, the couple will be at home in Auburn Heights.

It's the Cut

by Aleda

There just doesn't seem to be any one hairstyle that is flattering to virtually all women. A coiffure must be designed individually for the shape of a woman's face and her features. It must emphasize all your good points and diminish the unflattering ones. An ingenious haircut is the first consideration for your new coiff. It can defeat humidity, rain and even the steam from your bath. The set may loosen but the cut will keep it flattering.

Let us cut and shape your tresses. We have the know-how to create your individual coiff. Make an early appointment.

Market Mixed in Heavy Trade

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was mixed with trading heavy early today.

Price changes held to a small range.

The ticker tape started lagging within 10 minutes after the opening. Airlines and tobacco tended to lead the upside. Aircrafts declined.

On blocks of 30,000 shares, United Aircraft advanced 1/2 to 22 and Allegheny Corp. rose 1/4 to 14.

General Motors picked up 1/4 at 21 on 10,000 shares. On another 10,000-share block, United Merchants and Manufacturers gained 1/4 to 22 1/2.

Chrysler, which received a $50 million Army contract for tanks, advanced 1/4. General Motors and Ford declined fractionally.

Larger gainers included Zenith, up 2, and Raytheon, also winner of a $56 million Army contract, up 1/2 on 10,000 shares.

Stock Pull of Nuts and Eastman Kodak went ahead about a point.

United Aircraft, Douglas and General Dynamics declined fractionally.

American Airlines and United Air Lines gained fractionally.

Laggett and Myers and Lorillard added about 1/4.
