State Apportioners Reject Compromises as Deadline Looms

LANSING (AP) — Apportionment commissioners rejected two Saginaw-Bay City Senate compromises today as they neared their midnight deadline for redistricting the state.

There was no concrete evidence that the commission could agree before the court-ordered deadline.

If the commission cannot agree, the next step will be up to the Supreme Court.

Democrat Robert Kleiner proposed joining Saginaw with Midland instead of Bay City but four of the eight members of the bipartisan body — including Democrat Ivan Brown — voted "no," and two others abstained.

Republican William Hanna could get only a party-line 4-4 deadlock on his amendment to Kleiner's proposal, which juggled four municipalities in the area.

Republicans have argued that Saginaw and Bay City, now joined in a district controlled by Democrats, should be split. Democrats until today had insisted on keeping the two cities together.

★ ★ ★

Kleiner, who said he worked through the night drafting his plan, said it breached two county lines instead of three as at present but retained the Democrats' concept that Saginaw should not be entirely split from the metropolitan area of which it is a hub.

The plan would have put Sens. Jerome Hart, D-Saginaw, and Robert Richards, R-Saginaw Township, into the same district.

The State Supreme Court earlier this year gave the commission 60 days in which to produce new districting. It did not, however, specifically throw out existing plans.

Democrats yielded to Republican proposals shifting outlying areas of a Muskegon-area Senate district, but the GOP turned down over-all proposals incorporating the shift.

Again Republicans argued some population disparity should be permitted so that greater unity and regularity of districts, could be achieved.

But Democrats turned down the GOP's plan which included disparities of up to 5 per cent.

World Festive and Prayerful

Welcome New Year With Hope for Peace

NEW YORK (AP) — The world welcomes the new year tonight with joyous celebration and a prayer for peace.

It is a time of merrymakers, resolutions, popping corks — and cannons.

The West Germans will see 1966 in with a bang. They are all set to blow up $15 million worth of fireworks, almost 50 per cent more than last year.

According to German folklore, the bangs and flashes of Sylvester (New Year's Eve) are supposed to frighten off demons and evil spirits.

★ ★ ★

In the Moslem nations the observance of the new year may be somewhat subdued. It comes this year on the sixth day of Ramadan, the Moslem holy month of fasting.

NO KISSING, DRINKING

The Islamic faithful have been warned that kissing and drinking are forbidden.

Roman Catholics are looking forward to the new year as the start of a special jubilee proclaimed by Pope Paul VI to mark the closing of the Vatican Ecumenical Council.

In New York's Times Square — a traditional New Year's Eve gathering place — a new $10,000 illuminated digital clock controlled by signals from the U.S. Naval Observatory will time the arrival of 1966.

Road Mishaps Take Lives of 2 From Area

All Law Enforcement Agencies Strengthen Holiday Patrol Units

Area law enforcement agencies have launched stepped-up road patrol programs as the holiday weekend opened with three major traffic accidents resulting in the death of two persons and serious injury of another.

Killed in Pontiac area accidents last night and this morning were John G. Stewart, 14, of 7235 Meadowlake, Bloomfield Township, and Donald K. Pearce, 26, of 134 Williams Lake, Waterford Township. In serious condition at Pontiac General Hospital is Virgil Vandecar Sr., 48, of 116 W. Brooklyn.

Oakland County Sheriff Frank W. Irons and Sgt. Karl W. Lutz, commander of the Pontiac State Police Post, have bolstered regular road patrol units for the holiday weekend.

State police have canceled all leave days for the weekend and will have National Guardsmen assisting in patrol. The sheriff's department will use some 20 reserve deputies for road duty.

Irons, Lutz, Pontiac Police Chief William Hanger and Waterford Township Police Chief William Stokes all warn that drunk drivers will go to jail.

PHYSICIAN'S SON

The Stewart youth, son of a physician, died five hours after a car driven by his mother, Mrs. Maitland Stewart, was struck broadside by a truck at Telegraph and Maple.

Bloomfield Township police said Mrs. Stewart had started to make a left hand turn onto Maple when the collision with the southbound truck occurred shortly after 5:30 p.m.

Mrs. Stewart and Melvin L. Marek, 31, of Livonia, the driver of the truck, did not require hospitalization.

★ ★ ★

Pearce was killed when his car and a semi-truck, driven by Elmer J. Sahrow, 60, of Mount Clemens, met head-on at 3 a.m. in Avon Township on Auburn near Adams.

NOT INJURED

Sahrow was not injured.

Vandecar was a passenger in a car driven by his wife Beth, 44, when their vehicle and one driven by Donald J. Card, 20, of 4049 Island Park, Waterford Township, collided on Baldwin near Merrimac last night.

A passenger in Card's vehicle, Russell Lotan, 19, of 640 Lounsbury, Rochester, was listed in satisfactory condition today in Pontiac General Hospital.

Today's Forecast Is Staggering: Freeze-Up Is Due

The new year should arrive in wintery fashion tonight with lows of 22 to 30 and occasional snow flurries. Cloudy skies and windy weather are forecast too.

New Year's Day, tomorrow, will have variable cloudiness, cold temperatures and scattered snow flurries. Highs will range from 28 to 36.

Sunday's weather picture has partly cloudy weather with scattered showers and little change in temperatures.

Winds this morning were south-southwest at 15 to 30 miles per hour. Shifting to the west at 18 to 35 miles per hour late this afternoon, they will become northwesterly at 15 to 25 miles per hour tonight.

Fifty-two was the low temperature preceding 8 a.m. today. The mercury was up to 57 at 2 p.m.

New Yorkers in a Scramble

Subway, Bus Strike Set to Start Tomorrow

NEW YORK (AP) — Public officials and private citizens scrambled today for everything on wheels that could help keep this city on the move if the vast municipal subway and bus systems are shut down by a strike tomorrow morning.

Car pools were being hastily formed. Businesses began booking hotel rooms for employes.

Auto rental and charter bus companies were swamped with reservations for business companies and groups of commuters. Commuter railroads prepared for extra traffic.

John V. Lindsay, who will take office as mayor at midnight tonight, announced that group-riding in taxicabs would be permitted.

★ ★ ★

He urged that private cars not enter the city except to bring in people who were required to work and he said such cars should be fully occupied. Lindsay made the plea because of threatened traffic congestion.

Lindsay also suggested that employers work out "reasonable" staggered working schedules for their employes.

The AFL - CIO Transport Workers Union (TWU) has threatened a strike for 5 a.m. — an hour when New Year's Eve celebration stragglers would be about the only persons seeking transportation.

The full impact on the metropolitan area's 15 million residents would not be felt until Monday morning when the work week starts.

Press Will Publish Early Edition Saturday

The Pontiac Press will publish only one, early edition tomorrow so that Press employes may spend New Year's Day with their families.

Normal publication will resume Monday.

Drug-Giving Errors Said Not Uncommon

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

BERKELEY, Calif. — Many more errors occur in giving drugs in hospitals than is commonly assumed, a research team declared this week.

They range from serious or occasionally fatal mistakes to errors or giving a prescribed drug at the wrong time, or giving a different brand of the same basic drug, said Kenneth Barker of the University of Arkansas Medical Center Hospital in Little Rock.

A study six years ago in a Florida hospital showed that "at least every sixth dose administered was in error" in some way.

"Since the average patient received roughly six to eight doses a day, this was a ratio of approximately one error per patient a day," Barker said.

Similar rates of error have been found in other studies since then, he added, but a new experimental system in Arkansas of controlling drug administration has, in early testing, "cut the over-all error rate by more than half."

RATE REDUCED

If giving drugs at the wrong time — not on schedule, for example — is excluded, the error rate for all other error types combined was reduced 82 per cent.

If giving the wrong brand is also excluded, the over-all er-

Steel Company Raises Prices

NEW YORK (UPI)—Bethlehem Steel Corp. today announced a $5 per ton increase on large volume steel products in a surprise move that was expected to draw fire from the White House.

The price increase was announced less than two months after the Johnson administration defeated attempts by the copper and aluminum industries to institute a round of price increases for their metals.

A $6 per ton across-the-board steel price hike in 1962 was defeated by President Kennedy, but the steel industry shortly thereafter took another route—selected price increases—to obtain a higher return on a large number of steel items.

A Bethlehem spokesman in Bethlehem, Pa., said the price increases would apply to structural steel which accounts for about 7 per cent of the entire steel industry's sales on a nationwide basis.

The White House had no immediate comment today on the announcement.

Acting Press Secretary Joseph Laitin told newsmen at the Texas White House "I have nothing on it now."

Tentative OK in Ammo Strike

Hope Restoration of Supplies to Start Soon

WASHINGTON (AP) — After four days of intensive bargaining, negotiators in a gunpowder plant strike have reached a tentative settlement that the administration hopes will restore some dwindling ammunition supplies for Viet Nam.

The rebuilding of critical gunpowder stocks could resume after the New Year's weekend if the 4,200 strikers at the Olin Mathieson plant in East Alton, Ill., approve the agreement reached here Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

Bargaining for the month-long strike was switched to Washington Monday at the request of the Federal Mediation Service.

Chief Federal Mediator William E. Simkin said the tentative agreement was communicated to the White House and Pentagon and "everybody in the administration is gratified at this step."

AMMUNITION LOW

The Illinois plant is the sole manufacturer of a special gunpowder used in some rifle bullets, tracer bullets and 20 millimeter cannon shells which the government said were running low during the strike.

But Pentagon spokesmen emphasized that, up to now, there has been no ammunition shortage in Viet Nam.

The agreement was initialed by the three unions involved Thursday night.

Reds Defiant as U.S. Seeks Negotiations

Bad Weather Halts Plan to Visit Tito; India Is Next on List

WASHINGTON (AP) — Special presidential envoys carried America's Viet Nam peace drive today to France's President Charles de Gaulle and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization council. India's Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri is next on the calling list.

But the only open response from the other side was a defiant call from President Ho Chi Minh of North Viet Nam for the Viet Cong to press on for "new and greater victories."

The special envoys were U.N. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg, in Paris for talks with de Gaulle and a report to a hurriedly called session of the NATO permanent council.

Ambassador W. Averell Harriman had a date with Yugoslav President Tito today following up his conference with Polish leaders in Warsaw Wednesday but bad weather prevented his flying to see Tito. He is expected in New Delhi Saturday to see Shastri.

After a meeting with French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville preliminary to his call on de Gaulle, Goldberg said his mission could not be described "in terms of hope, optimism or pessimism."

'Early Retiring Creates Jobs'

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers said today its early retirement program created approximately 10,200 job openings during the first three months the plan was in effect.

The union said 9,200 workers retired before age 65 at the four auto firms and 1,020 retired under the same program at farm implement manufacturers in the United States.

The retirements in the period from September, when the program went into effect, through November, were compared with 241 early retirements from the four auto firms in the same period of 1964.

"To a considerable extent," said UAW President Walter P. Reuther, "early retirement . . . satisfies the need to create job opportunities for the unemployed, the underemployed and the young people entering the work force — and with a national unemployment rate of 4.2 per cent, we need those job openings."

★ ★ ★

The early pension plan was won by the UAW in 1964 contract bargaining with General Motors, Ford Motor Co., Chrysler Corp., American Motors Corp., International Harvester, John Deere and Caterpillar Tractor.

The union said its report for the September-November period was the latest for which figures were available.

The early retirement plan also took effect this month at approximately a dozen parts and supplier companies whose workers are represented by the UAW.

The program provides an incentive supplement which can give a pension of as much as $400 a month to union workers who retire prior to age 65.

★ ★ ★

At General Motors, 5,280 workers retired under this program in the three-month period this year, the UAW said. This was compared with 120 GM workers who retired prior to age 65 in the comparable three-month period of 1964.

AT CHRYSLER

At Chrysler, there were 1,753 early retirements in the three months this year, compared with 59 in the same period last year, the UAW said.

At Ford, 1,931 took early retirement, compared with 45 the previous year, the union said.

The UAW said similar figures for American Motors were 224 this year, 17 last year, and at International Harvester, 646 this year, 10 last year.

Federal Curbs Near on Exhaust Fumes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government moves closer today to national control of the air polluting materials which spew from cars and light trucks.

Proposed federal standards, to start with 1968 models, are being published in the Federal Register.

★ ★ ★

Suggested changes can be made during the following 30 days.

Then the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare will make any revisions it deems necessary, and publish the regulations in the Register to take effect immediately.

IMPORTANT STEP

"With these standards," Welfare Secretary John W. Gardner said, "we will take an important step toward controlling pollution from the nation's greatest single source of air pollution."

The secretary noted that similar standards already have been adopted in California starting with 1966 vehicles.

But a department statement said air pollution research indicates automotive pollutants contribute to eye and throat irritation and possibly to major respiratory diseases in all parts of the country.

And it said studies also have shown vegetation and property damage attributable to such pollution in 27 states and the District of Columbia.

WOULD APPLY TO ALL

The federal rules would apply to all gasoline-powered automobiles and light trucks, whether manufactured in or imported into the United States.

They were developed following this year's passage of the clean air act amendments which authorized regulation of vehicle discharges believed a hazard to health or welfare.

Among other things, the proposed standards would set maximum allowable rates for the discharge of two major automotive air pollutants —hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide. Hydrocarbons are a major ingredient in the formation of smog; carbon monoxide is a lethal gas.

The proposed standards for engines of 140 or more cubic inches cylinder displacement would limit tailpipe exhaust of hydrocarbons to an average of not more than 275 parts per million of exhaust and carbon monoxide to an average of 1.5 per cent by volume over the entire life of the vehicle.

The average car without an exhaust control system gives off about 800 parts per million of hydrocarbons and 3.5 per cent of carbon monoxide from its exhaust.

Less stringent standards were developed for smaller engines, including the small imported cars, because they discharge smaller volume of pollutants than the larger engines, the department said.

★ ★ ★

Gardner warned that stiffer controls will be needed before 1980 when motor vehicles will be so numerous as to make the present standards inadequate.

Said the secretary: "That will pose an even more serious problem for the motor vehicle industry, and they should begin thinking about it now."

36 Are Plucked From Sea as Vessel Rams Into Reef

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The 96-foot sailing vessel Mandalay smashed into a coral reef 20 miles southeast of Miami today, but Coast Guard helicopters saved all 25 passengers and 11 crewmen from angry seas.

★ ★ ★

The vessel, part of the fleet of Windjammer Cruises, was on a 50-mile run from Bimini Island in the Bahamas to Miami when she hit the reef about 3 a.m.

Twenty-five were flown to Homestead Air Force Base south of here. Eleven others were taken in a patrol boat to the Coast Guard base at Miami Beach. All appeared in good condition.

"It was a frightful experience," said Walter H. Ballard, president of the W. H. B. Chemical Corp. of Westchester, N.Y.

PITCH DARK'

"We were afraid the boat would fall apart. It was pitch dark and we were afraid of sharks."

"We did some praying," added M. C. Probst, 59, a teacher from Mansfield, Ohio. "We thank God we're alive."

★ ★ ★

Probst said seas ran from three to six feet, but the Coast Guard completed the rescue operation in 3½ hours after the Mandalay first rammed into the rocks.

The Mandalay was the fourth of the Windjammer Cruises boats to run into trouble in five years. The line's owner, Capt. Michael Burke, is in several lawsuits resulting from troubles at sea.

AWAKE IN CABIN

Clair Hall, 59, Indianapolis, Ind., real estate man, said he and his wife were awake in their cabin when "we felt a couple of bumps like the keel was hitting."

"Someone yelled for the captain," he said, "and he came quickly and tried to pull the sails down. But every time we hit, we hit harder.

★ ★ ★

"The waves drove us in until we hit so hard we were fast.

"But the only scarey thing was getting into the life raft. The waves rolled over the reef. I got hit by one that seemed 10 feet over my head, and it knocked me flat in the raft."

SON ASLEEP

When the Halls first felt the jolt of the vessel against the barrier reef, their son, John, 13, was asleep in the cabin.

"My husband and I were on deck and when big waves hit the boat we would joke, 'we just hit a truck,' " Mrs. Hall said.

ror rate was cut by 87 per cent. This is an error rate of 1.8 per cent of the total opportunity for errors, Barker told the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Other kinds of errors include failure to give prescribed drugs, giving the wrong drug to a patient, or too much, or too little of the prescribed drug, and giving a drug to the wrong patient.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Barker's coauthors were Dr. Wilson Kimbrough, research assistant for psychology, and Dr. William Heller, chief investigator of drug systems research at the Little Rock hospital.

FOUR DEATHS

"Recently, in Pontiac, Mich., and in Boston," Dr. Barker reported, "a total of four persons died from medication errors.

"From the published reports of the Michigan deaths, it appears that someone put ether in a bottle labeled Surital — just 'temporarily,' of course.

"However, our observers confirmed that such carelessness with labeling is common, and so such needless deaths will continue to occur."

★ ★ ★

SHARP REDUCTION

A sharp reduction in errors covered 3,043 doses given in that time, compared with 10,348 given over a six-month period under the old system, Barker said.

Under the new system, each dose of drugs is delivered to the nurses in premeasured, packaged, labeled and ready-to administer form. Computer-controlled systems of medication could also help reduce error, he said.

Barker noted that no adverse reaction of serious consequences had been observed in the Florida study, made at the University of Florida Teaching Hospital.

★ ★ ★

The causes for errors are complex, he said. Some are due to mistakes by nurses, some to situations, such as busy times; orders that are in error or are misunderstood. Sometimes, there are no clues as to why an error occurred.

Most errors probably are not even known to anyone, including the nurses who made them, Barker added.

ble changes in the French attitude toward Viet Nam, Goldberg suggested that reporters ask the French.

Goldberg was little more communicative after his meeting of an hour and 20 minutes with de Gaulle.

He said he had told the French leader of "President Johnson's earnest desire to seek an early and honorable settlement of the Vietnamese conflict" and asserted that such settlement can be achieved only "at the conference table without prior conditions."

Goldberg said de Gaulle "of course expressed his own view which I will report to President Johnson."

The envoy carried a message from Johnson to de Gaulle but it was not disclosed.

CANNOT SPEAK

"I cannot speak for the general," Goldberg told newsmen who asked whether de Gaulle had made any constructive suggestions for ending the Viet Nam war.

Goldberg is flying home tonight.

Harriman's next move was announced by the U.S. Embassy in New Delhi.

An informant, who had reported the plan earlier, said the hurried trip was necessary because Shastri is leaving Monday for Tashkent, U.S.S.R., for a summit meeting with President Ayub Khan of Pakistan.

The embassy said Harriman will stay only a day or two.

India, along with Poland which Harriman has already visited, and Canada where presidential assistant McGeorge Bundy has been, is a member of the three-nation control commission set up in 1954 for Southeast Asia.

Somewhat in line with the attitude of de Gaulle, Shastri has been critical in the past of certain aspects of American policy in Viet Nam.

Ho claimed "glorious successes" in what he called "the valiant resistance war against the U.S. aggressors."

In Moscow, Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin demanded tonight that Americans withdraw completely from South Viet Nam.

His scorn for President Johnson's latest Viet peace moves.

Kosygin made the statement to a group of Japanese newspaper correspondents.

"The Soviet government and the Soviet people condemn the U.S. aggression against the people of Viet Nam and they brand the aggressors with shame," he said.

Kosygin, whose remarks were published in the government newspaper Izvestia, added:

"The Soviet government fully shares and supports the position of the DRV Communist North Viet Nam and the National Liberation Front Viet Cong about regulating the Viet Nam problem. The U.S.A. must immediately halt its aggression . . . and must withdraw its forces and armaments from South Viet Nam."

Art Group's Program for Youth Is Upgraded

BIRMINGHAM —The Bloomfield Art Association has revamped its growing young people's program along the lines of the adult schedule for the upcoming winter term.

Five experienced, working artists have been added to the present staff of six to teach in the expanded program. The term starts Jan. 17 and will continue for 10 weeks.

Advanced students will work from live models for the first time in a new portraiture course, as well as the classes in oil painting and drawing and perspective.

The portraiture instructor is painter - sculptor Patricia Burnett.

★ ★ ★

COURSES VARIED

Placed according to age, youngster 6 to 12 learn the fun of art by working in sculpture, drawing, painting, printmaking, ceramics, weaving, metal work and hand design. Class times are once a week after school or Saturdays.

Creative casting — miniature sculpture and jewelry — is offered for the first time for the 13-to-18 year-old group. All phases of casting miniature sculpture in gold, silver bronze will be explored from design to casting and finishing.

Another innovation is a printmaking class for young people. Uses and techniques of silk screening and relief painting processes will be featured.

★ ★ ★

Printmaker and potter James Powell, another new instructor, will also teach students to construct their own printmaking equipment.

POTTERY IS POPULAR

Pottery, a popular repeat course for beginners and advanced students, 12 to 18, teaches both hand building and thrown techniques. This term, staff member William Clover is introducing Raku, an old Japanese process of firing and salt glazing.

Senate Dems Set to Block Appointment

LANSING (AP)—Senate Democrats plan to block confirmation of Maj. Gen. Clarence Schnipke as Michigan director of military affairs until court tests of his predecessor's firing are complete.

Majority Leader Sen. Raymond Dzendzel, D-Detroit, confirmed Thursday that his forces do not think Schnipke should get the job until Maj. Gen. Ronald McDonald, ousted by Gov. George Romney, has exhausted his appeals.

Democrats would have rejected Schnipke Thursday, said Dzendzel, but they did not have the required 20 votes present as the Legislature formally adjourned for the year.

When lawmakers return Jan. 12, there will be three days remaining before Schnipke would automatically take office.

HELD HEARING

Romney fired McDonald as adjutant general of the Michigan National Guard earlier this year after a lengthy hearing into National Guard irregularities. McDonald has twin cases in Appeals Court, one objecting to the hearing, the other to Schnipke's right to hold office.

Romney first named Schnipke adjutant general, then director of the state's military department, a new title created by government reorganization.

Dzendzel said Democrats have nothing personally against Schnipke. But he disagreed with Romney's firing of McDonald.

Ex-Mental Patient, 83, Falls to Death

DETROIT (AP)—An 83-year-old woman fell to her death from a room in the Roberts Hotel, police said. She was the fourth former mental patient in five months to fall to death at the hotel.

The body of Cathleen Naylor who, like the other three women, was a former patient at Ypsilanti State Hospital, was found today.

NATIONAL WEATHER—Rain is forecast tonight for the Mississippi valleys. Snow is expected to fall over the Great north Atlantic coastal region, the Ohio, Tennessee, and lower Lakes region, the upper Mississippi Valley, the northern Rockies and the Pacific Northwest.

Timely Tips for Tipplers

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (AP) — You can tell some of the real drinkers, even before they have had a drink, according to a student of alcohol and its effects on drinkers.

"On the way to the party the voice gets louder, mildly funny remarks are found to be hilarious, even drinking patterns are more carefree than usual before a drink is consumed," says Robert W. Jones, associate director of the Rutgers University Center of Alcohol Studies.

"Most people don't really want to get drunk on New Year's Eve — and they don't," Jones says "even by accident."

Both Jones and his associate, Dr. Leon Greenberg, discount word-of-mouth measures designed to prevent intoxication.

★ ★ ★

Steak is as good as a glass of milk to "coat" the tummy in advance, because anything with a high protein content serves the same purpose. They advise eating a good meal before drinking much liquor.

COFFEE MYTH

Both say coffee does not sober you up. "The only good it does is that you are not drinking alcohol while you drink the coffee," Jones says.

The coffee may wake you up but it won't sober you up, Greenberg says.

The best bet is to space your drinks, one an hour would be ideal, they advise. "If you think you've had enough, wander around with a glass of ginger ale instead of Scotch," Jones suggests.

★ ★ ★

What to do about a hangover, nothing, according to Greenberg, who has been studying the effects of alcohol for 32 years and enjoys an occasional social drink.

DRINK UNNECESSARY

But Greenberg says studies have shown that a partygoer who nibbles the night through on snacks and delicacies, smokes too much, and "runs around like a loon" will wake up the next morning with a hangover even if he didn't have any alcohol.

★ ★ ★

To those that did imbibe, a couple of drinks the next morning may bring temporary relief, "but it isn't exactly the thing to do—it just postpones the evil moment," Greenberg says. He adds:

A cold glass or water the first thing on awakening won't make you drunk again, as some say, it merely wakes you up enough to realize you are still drunk.

So suffer, if you've had too much. Only time will help, although you can distract yourself by taking pills, he concludes.

LOST HIS PUNCH?—Alabama Gov. George A. Wallace fractured a bone in his right wrist yesterday in Miami Beach, Fla., slugging a heavy punching bag in a gym. Wallace, Alabama Golden Gloves bantamweight champion in 1936-37, said he didn't know if the punching bags are harder these days or if he was "getting old."

Dr. Albert Schweitzer did not even begin the study of medicine until he was 30 years old.

Betting Bug Brings 60 Years in Jail

BALTIMORE (UPI) — A 30-year-old accountant who won a $5 bet on a Baltimore Colts football game three years ago and then stole $1.5 million from his firm trying for a repeat performance was sentenced to 60 years in jail yesterday.

Howard L. Raley of Baltimore, married and father of one child, wept as he told the court, "I was just trying to get even, and then quit."

Raley added that he has been a compulsive gambler since he was 5 years old.

He said that was nickle and dime stuff, playing cards with money he earned as a newspaper delivery boy.

★ ★ ★

The bug stayed with him, and that $5 win on the football game got him going on the big binge, he said.

DAILY BET

Raley admitted that in placing a bet a day ever since, he had embezzled $1,585,800 from his employer, the firm of Ramsey, Scarlett & Co. and its major subsidiary, the Baltimore Stevedore Co.

Raley said his betting was so regular that if he was sick and missed a day his bookmakers would call him up to see what was wrong.

He said his method of getting money for the bets was to take blank checks from the company safe and cash them for sums of up to $30,000 each at the Mercantile Safe Deposit & Trust Co. and the Equitable Trust Co.

★ ★ ★

At the time of his arrest in September, he said, he still owed his bookmakers $228,000 and was paying off his gambling debts at the rate of $30,000 a week with company checks.

DEATH THREAT

Raley said he started to embezzle the money after his debts reached such proportions that one of the bookmakers threatened to kill him unless he paid up.

★ ★ ★

Pleading guilty to five counts of embezzlement and one of falsifying a check, the weeping, balding clerk told Judge Dulaney Foster: "If I had any money, I would gladly make restitution."

★ ★ ★

Foster sentenced him to six consecutive, 10-year terms.

May Alter Draft Deferment Rule

Ponder Wartime Basis for College Students

WASHINGTON (AP) — The man-hunting Selective Service agency says it is considering revival of the Korean wartime deferment standards for college students — which made it harder for marginal students to get draft exemptions.

Some 2.2 million students now hold deferments, and are required only to be doing satisfactory work as full-time students at a properly accredited college or university.

★ ★ ★

"We're looking at some things that might be done to find less promising students," a Selective Service official said Thursday. If we need more men . . . one good place to look is going to be the students."

The Korean war standards were dropped in 1962. Under them, class standing and performance on a Selective Service qualification test were considered before a ruling on draft eligibility was made.

INCREASING CALL

A spokesman said the increasing draft board demands of the Viet Nam war — now responsible for about 40,000 draftees a month — has led Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey to summon state draft chiefs to a series of conferences.

Among other things, the spokesman said, the officials will discuss possible moves to increase the number of men available for induction.

★ ★ ★

The state draft chiefs also will discuss the Dec. 23 decision to review the cases of high school graduates who flunked the Selective Service mental examination. Some of those men — now classified 1-Y— may be subject to the draft. The 1-Y category also includes men rejected for physical or moral reasons.

Traffic Safety Hints:

NO. 13 Concentrating on only one part of the driving picture will block side vision temporarily. In fact, drivers have been known to watch the car in the next lane so intently that they have run into the car directly in front of them. This can happen because while you are looking at a part of the driving picture, the rest of it is constantly changing. Start now training yourself to move your eyes every two seconds—to see close in front of you, far ahead, to both sides, and into rear-view mirrors. You'll be a better driver because you'll see more, and you'll see it more quickly.

Board to Eye Rezoning Bid

A rezoning request for the manufacture and sale of travel trailer campers on Williams Lake Road between Hatchery and South Shaker will be considered at a future meeting of the Waterford Township Board.

Recommended for denial by the Township Planning Commission, the proposed zoning change is from public recreation district (RA-1) to light industrial district (M-1).

The applicant is Charles Booth.

Another rezoning request for expansion of a candy business at Elizabeth Lake Road and Theda will not reach the board as the applicant, Mary L. Williams, has withdrawn her proposal.

★ ★ ★

It likewise has been recommended for denial by township planners.

TWO REQUESTS

The planners will hold public hearings Jan. 25 on two requests. One is for rezoning from C-1 to C-2 a parcel of land at Williams Lake Road and M59 for a tavern.

The other is a special approval proposal for construction of a church at Elizabeth Lake Road and Airport.

The planners have approved a request for construction of a bowling establishment on Menominee, stretching from Telegraph to Pioneer. The applicant is R. C. Scribner.

★ ★ ★

Three other special approval requests have been denied by the planning commission.

The requests were for a retail boat salesroom at 3630 Dixie, a used car lot at M59 and Alma and boarding of a horse at 108 Clayburn.

Romney Riding High on Rising Economy

By DICK BARNES

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — A soaring state economy and legislation passed, ironically, by Democrats, puts Gov. George Romney of Michigan in a strong position 10 months ahead of his next elective test.

Though Romney's 384,000-vote reelection victory last year put him into prominent mention for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination, some thought a state legislature newly controlled by Democrats could wreck his national image.

News Analysis

But the governor, backing much of the year's record torrent of legislation, has sold himself well enough that no Democratic candidate has emerged yet for the 1966 gubernatorial race.

Many ranking Democrats say privately that their 1966 candidate probably will be sacrificial, just hoping to avert a Romney landslide which could balloon his presidential chances and win Republicans the State Senate.

HAS A LAUGH

Romney even laughs that what he calls "the Democratic candidates' dilemma" has caused him to delay his own announcement of whether he'll run for a third term or seek the U.S. Senate seat now held by Democrat Patrick McNamara.

Democrats admit Romney's image has profited from the year's legislation. But they say he's taking more credit than he's entitled to.

★ ★ ★

Senate Majority Leader Raymond Dzendzel, a Detroit Democrat, asks "how the governor can take credit for these programs when we've been introducing them for 30 years?"

Broadened school and university aid, senior citizen property tax relief and greatly expanded benefit for unemployed and injured workers were among major measures passed. Romney says 70 to 75 per cent of his program won approval.

WENT ALONG?

"He didn't get them when he had a Republican legislature but this year he had to go along," said Dzendzel.

The Johnson landslide and reapportionment helped Democrats win control of the legislature for the first time in three decades.

They were, however, four votes shy of being able to override vetoes without Republican help.

That led to executive-legislative compromises, especially in money areas. Major exceptions were the governor's vetoes of bills expanding veterans' tax benefits and providing a fund that small state-supported colleges could draw from if needed. By December arm-twisting of some Republicans, Romney avoided overrides.

MOVING INCOME

The governor said more taxes were needed to keep the state solvent by 1967-68, but income kept leapfrogging his forecasts. The state surplus grew to $136 million and many Democrats feared enacting an income tax during their first session in control. Romney's tax plans never got to the legislative floor.

Romney said this week that a hold-the-line budget for 1966-67 could just about be financed without tapping the surplus.

Both students were arrested during the demonstration Oct. 15, and were subsequently convicted on trespassing charges and given 10-day jail terms together with $50 fines, Kanter said.

State's Fiscal Report a Warm 1966 Greeting

GOV. GEORGE ROMNEY'S year-end report on the state of the State should easily top Michigan's best seller list.

ROMNEY

Unprecedentedly heavy tax revenues and augmented income from other sources together with efficient fiscal management in the Statehouse point to a $100 million treasury surplus.

★ ★ ★

The sizable increase in state income over last year is attributed mainly to the booming climate of Michigan's industry, led by the automotive segment.

ROMNEY pointed out, however, that a healthy diversification in industry is indicated by the $1.3 billion spent in 1965 on new manufacturing facilities apart from the auto industry.

Other cheering statewide indices show personal income 11 per cent and construction 26 per cent above last year's totals, while employment is ahead of a year ago by 145,700 and unemployment down by 22,000. The unemployment statistic is especially significant, reflecting as it does Michigan's rate of 2.6 per cent as compared with the national percentage of 4.2.

★ ★ ★

Although there is cause for rejoicing in the State's fat nest egg, making Michigan one of the few states not plagued by immediate financial woes, it is in one respect an embarrassment of riches for the governor.

It would seem to doom for the present at least any serious consideration by the legislature of the long-range program he advocates of fiscal reform eventually needed to keep the State's government economy in a sound and progressive condition.

★ ★ ★

Notwithstanding, we warmly commend Gov. ROMNEY and his administrative organization on the glowing financial report that reflects their continuous regard for the public welfare, and agree with the governor that "Michigan is no longer a problem state, but a problem-solving state."

Spain Shows New Face to Lands Once Sacked

At a time when U. S. concern is high over cracks in the governmental or fiscal structures of powers such as Britain and France, ferment in Africa and our own involvement in Asia, another nation is heard from. And signifying a welcome change of pace, the intelligence is favorable.

The nation providing it is Spain —all but forgotten in the global climate of stress and strain. But signs are plain that for Spaniards the pain in Spain is mostly on the wane.

★ ★ ★

Once a world power whose colonial empire embraced South America with a foothold in North America, Spain's New World might crumbled during the last century under the blows of Latin American Liberator Simon Bolivar and her loss of Caribbean sovereignty resulting from the Spanish-American War.

But between 1503 and 1660, Spain extracted $1 billion in gold and silver from Latin America while enslaving thousands of natives.

After her collapse in the West, Spain sank into several decades of economic and governmental chaos, until in 1938 Gen. FRANCISCO FRANCO overturned the royal regime and, while ruling with a dictator's iron hand, established comparative stability marked by slow social advancement.

★ ★ ★

Now, it appears that the course of the nation of 31 million people has come full circle and the erstwhile despoiler is about to become benefactor.

Such evidence comes from a recent meeting of the Organization of American States, where Spain's ambassador evoked tumultuous applause with the announcement of his government's intention to make available over the next ten years $1 billion in credits in furtherance of Latin America's programs for national improvement.

★ ★ ★

Thus has another nation — and a communism-hating one at that — aligned itself with the forces of progress interested in the alleviation of poverty-ridden peoples.

Doubt Congress to Be Revamped

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP)—A joint committee is expected to come up early next year with a host of recommendations for modernizing Congress.

But if any proposals involve significant changes in the operation or structure of Congress, they aren't likely to get anywhere.

The 12-member committee of six senators and six representatives was created by Congress last March and was given $150,000 to finance its studies and hearings. It has held numerous public hearings and is due to go out of business on Jan. 31.

Many of the recommendations made to the committee by congressional students both inside and outside of Congress would require changes which the practical politicians don't seem ready to accept.

★ ★ ★

One of the dominant proposals has been to abolish the seniority system of advancement in the Senate and the House. Under the present system, a member can aspire to becoming a committee chairman or at least chairman of a major subcommittee simply by getting reelected often enough.

NEWCOMERS EAGER

Much of the clamor for a change—to rotate chairmanships or provide for election of chairmen in party caucuses—has come from members fairly well down on the seniority list.

Most senior members want no change that might keep them from getting to the top or might curb their tenure once they got there.

Republicans, as well as non-partisan students, have advocated a stronger staffing for minority members of committees. If the joint committee should adopt this proposal, Congress might go along with it. It would provide more appointive, highly paid jobs.

★ ★ ★

Congress also might go along with recommendations to provide additional staffing for individual members. This, too, would provide some more good jobs and could result in more efficient service.

CHECK COMPLAINTS

The Joint Committee on Congressional Reorganization was created to see what it could do about complaints that the congressional machinery was too antiquated and needed overhauling.

Not since 1946 has there been a congressional reorganization act. A joint committee that year made almost 40 recommendations, many of which were ignored.

★ ★ ★

Opponents of any major changes in the congressional machinery have a strong argument going for them. The 1965 session, operating under the 1946 framework, set a record for legislative accomplishment. Its leaders aren't too enthusiastic about tinkering with the machinery.

First, Leave No Stone Unturned—

David Lawrence Says:

War Issue May Not Help GOP

WASHINGTON — Discussion of the possible impact of the Viet Nam war on the 1966 congressional and 1968 presidential elections has lately led many Republicans mistakenly to believe that they will surely benefit by developments.

LAWRENCE

Much depends, however, on exactly what the war situation is at the time the voters cast their ballots.

It is important to remember that a war can help the party in power to stay in office. The American people took the unprecedented step of electing Franklin D. Roosevelt for a third and even a fourth term while World War II was in progress.

The reasoning applied by the voters in 1940 and 1944 can be repeated politically in 1966 or 1968 if there is a big war going on in Viet Nam. For the people do not want "to change horses in midstream," as the saying goes in politics.

★ ★ ★

The deeper the nation is involved in war operations, the more there is an inclination on the part of the voters not to risk changes in the government in Washington.

STRONG SENTIMENT

There is a strong sentiment for keeping an administration in power also when other nations are in the midst of a war and the American people want this country to stay out of the conflict at almost any cost.

Back in 1916, President Wilson won a second term on the slogan, "He kept us out of war." When, on the other hand, American ships were torpedoed less than six months later the people responded to a declaration of war with a dramatic manifestation of bipartisan unity.

The one situation that has been referred to recently as likely to be paralleled in 1966 or 1968 is what happened during the Korean War.

The American people never like any war but, once they get into it, they give it their full support.

WENT ALONG

They went along with President Truman's decision to resist the invasion of South Korea in June 1950 and to join the United Nations in an internationalized operation to repel the aggression.

By November 1952, however, there was disillusionment about the Korean War. That's why the Democratic party lost strength at the polls in 1952.

History could repeat itself, with the Democratic administration suffering in 1966 or 1968.

But there is another possible turn of events. The war may wind up in a stalemate, as did the Korean War. The voters will then heave a sigh of relief, especially as the draft calls are diminished to normal size and the troops in Southeast Asia are brought back home.

FEATHER IN CAP

The Viet Nam war is hardly likely to be won before next November but, if it is being fought intensively, the administration would surely benefit. Also, an early ending under honorable circumstances would be a feather in the cap of the Democratic administration.

An unfavorable reaction from the administration's point of view could come only if the Viet Nam war drags on without getting anywhere and without full use being made of all power available — ground, sea and air forces, as well as trade embargoes and blockades of Communist ports.

Capital Letter:

Federal Agency Needed to Ride Herd on Parties

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON —The ever-burgeoning federal bureaucracy is sadly in need of a "conscience" agency as independent as the Federal Reserve Board to ride herd on our two great political parties, and the ethical conduct of elected officials.

Ruth Montgomery

The Senate Rules Committee's shameful handling of the Bobby Baker case is proof that Congress is ill-equipped to deal in a nonpartisan manner with morality and ethics.

Now the Democratic National Committee has come up with a shabby subterfuge to evade the Corrupt Practices Act: a campaign book called "Toward an Age of Greatness."

The slick-paper book contains 11 articles signed by Cabinet members and other top officials extolling the virtues of the Great Society.

Advertising in the book has been sold at $15,000 a page to big defense contractors and other industrial giants who hold government contracts.

KICKED IN

Railroads, shipping and airlines who scramble for federal subsidies also kicked in to help finance the 250,000 books, which are distributed free to party contributors who attend a series of fund-raising movie premieres. These are expected to raise another two or three million dollars.

The camouflage to get around the Corrupt Practices Act is something called "State Committees on Voter Education," organized by Democrats to get out the vote.

The Republican Congressional Committee, instead of expressing moral indignation and demanding an inquiry, has cynically decided to follow suit with a publication of its own about Congress.

★ ★ ★

Chairman Bob Wilson of the Republican Congressional Committee says he plans to sell $15,000-a-page ads for a publication next year.

TASK FORCES

The revenue would be used to finance GOP education and research task forces, since the overwhelmingly Democratic Congress staffs the committees with a preponderance of its own party faithful.

What is obviously needed is a man with the wisdom of Solomon, the courage of William McChesney Martin, and the power of a baseball czar who will say to both parties: "Refund the money, or prepare to stand trial under the Corrupt Practices Act."

Congress should then appropriate a two-party campaign fund for presidential elections, shorten the duration of the campaign, and require that the television industry set aside some free and equal time for both standard-bearers.

We can't legislate morality, but we can try to remove temptation.

'Small Businessman Fits Man of Year Description'

It isn't often that I honestly agree completely with an editorial in any newspaper—The Pontiac Press or any other.

However, the editorial on "The Man of the Year" was excellent. Your description was exact and extremely accurate to my mind. I wish more could be said or written about these individuals who truly are the backbone of our democracy instead of the multitudes of articles written about demonstrators and draft-card burners.

Suggests Each Motorist Pray for Safety

With 712 traffic deaths over the Christmas holiday, it's time for some concern on our part. The State and City traffic officials made a sincere effort to warn the people and gave them five safety rules, but in my opinion they left out the most important one — prayer. If each motorist would say a prayer for himself and for every driver on the road, and read Psalms 121, I sincerely believe we would have less traffic mishaps.

'We Need More Protection From Hoodlums'

It appears that no one is safe anywhere. Just before Christmas our two sons went shopping and it is unbelievable that right in a shopping center a group of hoodlums closed in on them and started screaming that they were "frats" and begging our boys to fight them. Our sons are not cowards, but what chance would they have with twelve to fifteen hoodlums who had obviously been drinking? In spite of our sons' efforts to ignore their taunts and foul language, they were grabbed from behind and one of them was hit in the mouth.

★ ★ ★

There is something terribly wrong with our society when an incident like that can happen in broad daylight with hundreds of shoppers around. We need more police protection and something should be done to stop gangs of hoodlums who are roaming the streets looking for trouble.

'Patriotic Americans Accept Responsibility'

In honor of the Prince of Peace we string festive lights and buy loving gifts for our children. At the same time we are sending our sons to rain bombs and jellied gasoline on the children in Viet Nam. I wonder how many American mothers could do what we are asking our soldiers to do?

The truly patriotic Americans are those who accept our responsibilities and demand that our troops withdraw from Viet Nam, and that we cease our aggression against that tiny, impoverished nation.

Replies to Questions on Party Differences

In answer to Paul A. Kern Jr., most of us could honestly state that we are confused. In regards to the difference between Republicans and Democrats, some thirty years ago the people became so dehydrated they had to repeal prohibition. The Republicans said that they would allow beer to be made with three per cent alcohol and the Democrats said that it must be three and one half per cent alcohol.

★ ★ ★

We used to have a paper called the Constitution of the United States which the presidents used to go by, but apparently that was lost back in the late 1930's and since then the presidents have had to think for all of us and do as they see fit. There was a revolution in this country because they had taxation without representation. The war was won and now we have taxation with misrepresetation.

Law-Breaking Professor

Chicago Tribune

It is bad enough for American college professors to get up in front of their students and glorify the Viet Cong, who are daily murdering American soldiers. But Staughton Lynd, the Yale associate professor of history who helped organize the beatnik peace demonstration in Washington last August, has done even worse.

★ ★ ★

He has taken off, at the invitation of the Communists, on a "fact-finding" mission to southeast Asia; and if he has gone into North Viet Nam, as reported, he has broken the law and made himself liable for a $5,000 fine and five years in prison. Travel to certain communist countries is not permitted without authorization of the state department.

★ ★ ★

The trip was arranged by Dr. Herbert Aptheker, Communist party theoretician. He, Lynd, and a young man who helped to found the far-left Students for a Democratic Society traveled by way of Moscow and Peking, and are said to have entered North Viet Nam by way of Cambodia.

Thanks to men like Lynd, the peaceniks are more voluble at Yale than at most colleges. Several thousand of them recently signed an appeal for recognition of Red China. Most of the signers were upper classmen and graduate students, who are perhaps beginning to feel the chilling air of the draft, and young members of the faculty.

We wonder if Prof. Lynd greets his students with a "Hello, suckers," like Tokyo Rose, before proceeding to indoctrinate them with the sins of patriotism and the discomforts and danger of being a soldier in Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

It is sickening to hear this sort of psychological sabotage defended as freedom of speech —a curious defense in view of the Communist attitude toward free speech. But Prof. Lynd, has gone farther than to exercise his asserted rights of academic freedom.

He has broken the law deliberately, and Yale can hardly brush this off as the sort of idiosyncrasy one must expect from professors. We shall await word as to what it and the department of justice are going to do about Prof. Lynd.

'Union' Messages Coming

The New York Daily News

Soon after Congress convenes, the President is to deliver his customary State of the Union message to that honorable body.

It is a rare President who can refrain from shooting politics into the supposedly non-political report.

★ ★ ★

Aware of that frequent Presidential weakness, leading Republicans in Congress plan to get out a State of the Union message of their own, about the time President Johnson issues his message.

To be got up under the supervision of Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (Ill.) and Rep. Gerald R. Ford (Mich.), the GOP message is advance-billed as opposing tax boosts for the Viet War, demanding a coastal blockade of Red North Viet Nam, and urging cuts in Great Society spending here at home.

★ ★ ★

We hope the Congressional Republicans will on no account abandon this plan. An opposition party is supposed to oppose, constructively and sincerely. If it shirks that duty, it is flirting with political death.

Milford Twp. Victorious

Camp Dearborn Tax Rate Is Upheld

MILFORD TOWNSHIP — The Michigan State Tax Commission has upheld the township's 1965 tax assessment on Camp Dearborn.

The ruling more than triples Dearborn's share of property taxes here and gives other township property owners an average relief of 3.5 per cent, according to Supervisor William L. Mainland.

Hearing before the tax commission resulted from an appeal by the City of Dearborn regarding the assessment, which was based on a complete appraisal of the Dearborn-owned property made a year ago.

Mainland said it was the first detailed appraisal ever made by the township.

Previously, a flat, lump sum estimate had been the basis for assessment, he said.

INCREASED FUND

The new assessment will provide the township with nearly $29,000 in tax revenue, compared to $8,400 collected from Dearborn last year.

The current appraisal set the value of the property at $2,167,200, compared to the 1964 appraisal of $608,400, according to the supervisor.

The 626-acre park includes six lakes.

* * *

While denying the right of the township to tax Dearborn on personal property items, the State Tax Commission upheld the township in dismissing the two major complaints of the camp owners.

PUBLIC PARK

Dearborn officials contended that Milford Township lacked the authority to tax Camp Dearborn, claiming the camp to be a public park open to the public in general.

Township representatives replied that the use of the park by persons other than Dearborn residents is controlled and permissive and is not a matter of right because it involves the payment of parking fees.

The city also claimed Milford Township was unfair, excessive and discriminatory in the amount of the assessment.

AREA NEWS

* * *

"Here, the findings of the tax commission, which made its own independent appraisal, were particularly gratifying in that it confirmed the conservative accuracy of our appraisal," Mainland said.

LOWER TAXES

The result is that township property owners will have their lowest school tax rate in recent years.

The Huron Valley School District tax would have been $56.40 per $1,000 of assessed valuation rather than $53.70 if Dearborn had been successful in its appeal, Mainland said.

"Instead of Dearborn's carrying less than 1.5 per cent of the property tax burden, it will now be required to meet five per cent of the current tax roll," he said.

* * *

"Thus an average relief of approximately 3.5 per cent will be experienced by other property owners throughout the township.

* * *

"Translated into dollars and cents, the savings will vary from just a few cents to upwards of $4,500 per taxpayer with the average approximating $20."

CHAMPION FELLED—Old age finally caught up with this giant elm in Pontiac Township and it had to be cut down. Reportedly one of the largest in Oakland County, the elm won first prize for its size in a contest sponsored by the Oakland County Foresters Association in 1954. It has a girth measuring 18 feet, seven inches. The tree is on the property of Mrs. Thelma Sawdon, 667 S. Squirrel.

2 Cousins Held After Alleged Terror at Homes

MILFORD TOWNSHIP — Two 19-year-old cousins are being held for investigation today by the Sheriff's Department after allegedly terrorizing the occupants of two homes yesterday afternoon.

Deputies said the pair, Delbert Spencer and Shelby Spencer, both of 772 Moran, Milford Township, gained entry to the neighboring houses on the pretense of using the phones.

The youths were taken into custody by Wixom and Milford police.

Four warning shots were fired by Wixom police when Shelby Spencer fled into a field behind the home of one of the victims, Elton R. Worden, 81, 2725 Wixom.

* * *

Four children alone in the adjacent house, 2737 Wixom, were the other victims of the intruders.

Kelley Cites Year's Progress in Michigan's Fight on Crime

LANSING (AP) — A project to bring out new efforts and ideas in the fight against crime was one of his department's major activities in 1965, Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said Thursday.

Kelley said his white paper on crime will be issued early next year.

* * *

But, he noted in a year-end report, two major white paper proposals already have been announced — compensation for victims of violent crimes and an immediate across-the-board pay raise for most police officers in the state.

* * *

Kelley listed major investigations of 1965 as:

—A soon-to-be-completed inquiry in to the operations of the Peoples Community Hospital Authority of Ypsilanti.

—A broad investigation into the tangled affairs of the Brookdale Cemetery in Livonia.

—An investigation into allegations of ticket-fixing in Wayne County, which led to his department's petition for a grand jury investigation.

—An inquiry into the aftermath of the Steren Assembly Club gambling case, including allegations of pressure on a key witness.

CONSUMER FRAUDS

Kelley also mentioned efforts to combat consumer frauds—including a statewide network of private and public agencies—and a crack-down on what he called certain unscrupulous second mortgage companies.

He described 1965 as a year of victories in the fight to prevent abandonment of Mackinac Straits railroad ferry service and of more than 300 miles of northern Lower Michigan railroad lines.

A court order kept the ferry Chief Wawaam operating between Mackinaw City and St. Ignace, he noted, and the Interstate Commerce Commission upheld Michigan's position on the proposed railroad abandonments.

Shop Is Cut From Romeo School Plans

ROMEO — The board of education has eliminated a machine shop addition to the high school because bids on a $1.4 million construction program were $250,000 over estimates.

The board will advertise for new bids on the other classrooms to be added to the school.

Contracts totaling about $600,000 for additions to the junior high school have been awarded, the general contract going to Devid Pettibone Construction Co. for $447,000.

The plumbing and heating contract went to Lyons Plumbing of Romeo for $149,000.

* * *

Contracts were previously awarded for a new elementary school to be located at Camp Ground and 29 Mile.

Moeny for the building program will come from a $1.4 million building program approved by voters last June.

An average of 59 cents of each dollar spent for distilled spirits in the United States is for taxes.

Got Chance to Boast as Corn Contest Host

Weather Was Curse of State Farmers in '65

LANSING (AP)—This waning year was one in which the Michigan farmer cursed the weather man, possibly praised the legislature and had an outstanding chance to boast about the state's corn—and its corn farmers.

Adrian was host to the National Cornpicking Contest in November. The contest fields, on Victor Knierim's farm, yielded a contest record 161 bushels an acre.

* * *

And Michigan men took two first places and one second in the contest's three divisions.

Knierim's farm had the benefit of good weather, though, while the central Michigan area went through the driest June 2-July 31 period on record.

OKs PROGRAMS

The federal government approved emergency haying and grazing programs for 22 counties, but later rejected applications by 31 counties for a program allowing purchase of government-stored feed grains at 75 per cent of the support price.

Besides the drought, which in some cases wiped out whole corn fields, a series of tornadoes raked the state on Palm Sunday, causing more than $16 million in farm damage.

* * *

Then heavy rains delayed harvests and early frosts caused additional damage.

One of the hardest-hit crops was dry edible beans, which yielded a crop 27 per cent smaller than last year's.

YEAR-END REPORT

In the State Department of Agriculture's year - end summary, B. Dale Ball, director, said production of seven major fruits totaled 707,000 tons—down 12 per cent from 1964's record yields but still above average.

The 13 major vegetable crops totaled 605,340 tons, an increase over 1964 while wheat, oats and barley declined substantially. Despite the drought, statewide corn totals were down only slightly. Soybean production was up and sugar beet production was down, by about 18 per cent from 1964.

* * *

Even though reapportionment put city dwellers pretty much in control of the Legislature, the Michigan Farm Bureau reported that farmers generally fared well.

A major gain for farmers was a statewide meat inspection program which goes into effect Jan. 1.

NOT CRACKDOWN

The program wasn't designed as a crackdown—but as a buildup for Michigan's meat industry. Lack of inspection in some cases has cost Michigan producers lost sales in dealings with institutions which require certain standards.

Another long-sought measure set up a uniform statewide dairy inspection system. The problem here, farmers said, was too much inspection in some cases.

* * *

They complained that an inspector from one agency might have very different standards than those used by the inspector from another agency.

Ball reported that two of the most stubborn animal diseases, tuberculosis and brucellosis, were brought to their lowest incidence in the state's history.

MOTH ERADICATED

And, after 11 years and nearly $950,000 expenditure of state and federal money, the Gypsy moth was eradicated, he said.

The department found that aerial spraying with Malathion was effective in controlling cereal leaf beetle, but scientists at Michigan State University continued looking for ways to stop the pest completely.

* * *

Another major MSU project is "Project '80"—an effort to calculate what Michigan's rural potential will be 15 years from now.

More than 100 scientists and about 350 rural leaders have been at work on the project. Reports on many areas of the rural economy were issued during the last year, some optimistic and some pessimistic.

POTATO POWERHOUSE

MSU scientists were working on helping Michigan become a "potato powerhouse." A multi-million-dollar potato processing plant opened at Greenville this year, boosting the state's potato industry.

They also were at work on some "crops" not ordinarily thought of when farming is mentioned.

One is sod, which contributes $50 million a year to the Michigan economy and is the basis for one of the fastest developing agricultural industries in the state. Sod acreage in 1965 totaled 20,000, up 25 per cent from 1964.

* * *

Another is Christmas trees. MSU researchers are looking for ways to grow the ideal Christmas tree, which would grow up perfectly shaped without all the shearing and shaping now used on about 90 per cent of the state's Christmas tree production.

Bogus Money Abandoned in Three States

WASHINGTON (AP) — Counterfeiters may be making more money and enjoying it less.

Phony fortunes in apparently abandoned bogus currency have turned up in recent days in California, Oklahoma and Texas.

* * *

A Secret Service official said today the finds were not related. But he said further details could not be made public because all the cases are under active investigation.

* * *

He did say that all of them appeared to be rather crude examples of the counterfeiter's art.

There has been no noticeable increase in counterfeiting activity over the past few months, the official said. However, the amount of illegal money manufactured has been running at a relatively high rate for several years.

* * *

"It is not unusual to find counterfeit money which has been dumped," the official said. "However, it is unusual for three or four batches to turn up in a short period of time.

* * *

"We find that a counterfeiter sometimes makes a large number of bills and then dumps them out of fear or panic when he discovers they cannot be passed easily. Policemen sometimes find counterfeit money left in the woods or in a building and usually there is little or no publicity in such cases."

* * *

Here are some samples that did get publicity:

In Fairfield, Calif., Wednesday, the wind wafted a stream of big bills — $50s and $20s — past a construction project. Workers gave chase and found a shoebox stuffed with $40,000 counterfeit.

Strong winds scattered $20 bills across the street in Oklahoma City Tuesday. An off-duty policeman, Frank Ginter, spotted them, and found sacks of bills abandoned behind a concrete post. More fake money was stuffed in a storm drain.

* * *

The cache filled the trunk of Ginter's automobile. Secret Service agent Pat Steele said the counterfeit bills totaled $467,200.

Secret Service agents fished two suitcases of bills from the Trinity River at Irving, Tex., Dec. 12. Both had come open, and there was a stream of money swirling down the river. The agents said they also recovered the metal plates used to print the money.

SWEPT AWAY

Agent Forrest Sorrells said about $100,000 worth was taken out of the river, and an estimated $400,000 to $500,000 more apparently was swept away by the current.

Two golfers called the Secret Service after they spotted the bills.

Three persons have been arrested, including two men police said tossed the phony bills into the river.

Two Oklahoma women were arrested in Springdale, Ark., Dec. 18 on charges of passing counterfeit money. They were picked up when store clerks spotted the bills as counterfeit moments after receiving them.

Two Oklahoma men were arrested in Texarkana, Tex., on the same day and on similar charges.

FAKE BILLS

Both cases involved fake $20 bills.

Although the counterfeiting problem is a continuing one, the Secret Service does not regard it as alarming. The $3.3 million in phony currency turned up in the 12-month period which ended June 30 is a lot of money. But it would have to be 100 times as great to equal one per cent of the amount of legal currency.

The Secret Service seized 75 per cent of the counterfeit currency before it was circulated.

There were 723 arrests for counterfeiting offenses during the last fiscal year. The arrest figure has varied very little over the past several years.

But the problems of combatting counterfeiting have grown in recent years with the widespread use of a photographic printing process.

Jail Is No Handicap

NOTTINGHAM, England (UPI) — Authorities at Nottingham Prison disclosed that among books requested by prisoners at the jail was "How To Win at the Races."

Colony of 'Bleeder' Dogs Aids in Study of Disease

WASHINGTON (AP)—A special colony of dogs afflicted with the "disease of kings"—hemophilia—has been established in Oklahoma, researchers reported today.

It was the second recent report of the use of dogs to help study the bleeding disease that affects man.

A researcher at Johns Hopkins University Medical School previously told of the establishment of a colony of dogs afflicted with diabetes.

Another hemophilic animal colony also is maintained in North Carolina.

The latest report is contained in a letter published in the technical journal, Science.

STRONG BLEEDING

Hemophilia is characterized by a tendency for spontaneous hemorrhaging, and excessive bleeding after minor hurts or surgical procedures.

Caused by an hereditary deficiency of a clotting factor in the blood, the disease has victimized a number of royal families over the centuries, but it's not limited to royalty. It occurs almost exclusively in males but it transmitted through females.

The Oklahoma researchers said their hemophilic pooches, all beagles, had "classic" hemophilia—functionally similar to the disorder in man—but that their disease is milder than that reported previously for another hemophilic animal colony in North Carolina.

* * *

Thus, they said, "this mild form of canine hemophilia permits greater longevity of the animals and facilitates their care during experimental procedures."

FREQUENT CASES

Episodes of severe bleeding are frequent, they said.

At least 10 dogs with proven hemophilia—plus 10 genetically predicted "transmitter" females — are kept in the colony at all times. And hemophilic females are bred to proven hemophilic males to obtain further subjects.

The venture—supported by a grant from the National Institutes of Health—is a cooperative effort of the Oklahoma State University College of Veterinary Medicine and the University of Oklahoma Medical Center.

* * *

Sean (007) Connery Is No. 1 in Britain

LONDON (AP) — Actor Sean Connery — secret agent 007 in the James Bond series — has been named Britain's most popular movie star for the second straight year.

* * *

The annual box-office survey by the London bureau of the Motion Picture Herald listed the top money-maker movie of the year in Britain as Walt Disney's "Mary Poppins," starring Julie Andrews.

Odd Weather Hits Nation

By The Associated Press

A crazy-quilt weather pattern, a combination of winter and spring temperatures, rain, snow and warm and cold winds, crossed the nation today.

A wintry storm, with snow, ice, cold and strong northerly winds, whipped across the Northern Plains and headed eastward. Temperatures dropped below zero across the plains of eastern Montana and the western Dakotas.

* * *

More rain and snow fell in the storm-swept Pacific Coast region but amounts generally were lighter than during the first part of the week.

Cloudy skies and unseasonably mild temperatures covered broad areas east of the Mississippi River to the Atlantic Coast. The mercury hit record high marks for Dec. 31 early today in some Midwest cities, including 61 at Moline, Ill. The weather bureau said readings in some cities equaled nighttime marks during the summer season.

COLD WARNINGS

Cold wave warnings were in effect in Montana east of the Continental Divide and the gusty winds fanned the Arctic air eastward into the Dakotas and Minnesota. Near blizzard conditions were reported at Dickinson, N.D. Snow amounts up to four inches were expected in the storm belt. Heavy fog in southern Minnesota last night cut visibility to a few feet.

Rain fell in scattered sections from Southern California to Puget Sound, increasing dangers of floods because of heavy rainfall in many areas this week.

* * *

Damage from the heavy rain storms that hit Southern California was expected to total millions of dollars. Some 30 families in the Lytle Creek section of San Bernardino County were evacuated from their homes after more than nine inches of rain caused flooding.

In the Midwest mild zone, Minneapolis reported a temperature of 47 Thursday night, tying the record for Dec. 30. Record marks for today included 55 at Lansing, Mich., and 49 at Rochester, Minn.

RECORD HIGHS

The mercury Thursday reached 72 at St. Louis and Springfield, Mo., record highs for Dec. 30. Other record marks included 68 at Kansas City, 65 at Springfield, Ill., and 61 at Burlington, Iowa.

Mary Tyler Moore Turns Pinup Queen for Viet GIs

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Dear Miss Moore, I saw your picture in Stars and Stripes, and I enjoyed it. When I was back home my wife used to say you had skinny legs. I didn't think so, and I'm glad to find out I was right. Would you please send me a photograph?"

THOMAS

The message was typical among the hundreds of letters Mary Tyler Moore has been receiving from GI's in Viet Nam. What started as a publicity stunt is shaping up as a full-scale move to make her a pinup queen of the Asian war.

* * *

Miss Moore spends her professional life as the fully clothed wife on "The Dick Van Dyke Show." But she is also an accomplished dancer and beneath those frocks and aprons is a whistle-worthy form.

Alert press agents, realizing this, proposed that Mary pose for some cheesecake photos that could be sent to interested servicemen in Viet Nam. A dozen photographers were invited to a snapping session, competing to produce the most attractive pose.

PHOTO APPEARED

A photograph of the photographers at work appeared in the overseas service newspaper, Stars and Stripes. That prompted the letters.

"It happened so suddenly that I haven't been able to get the photos yet," said Mary during a break in TV filming. "But I've been answering all the letters, turning out 25 to 50 a day in every moment I can spare. I'm getting writer's cramp but enjoying it.

"Some of the letters come with 20 signatures, so the work mounts up. But it's a very small thing that I can do, compared to what they're doing over there."

Mary quoted some of the letters:

THEY WONDER

"It's nice to know that someone in the States cares. We see pictures of those demonstrators in Berkeley, and we begin to wonder..."

"All I have to look at are snakes and the Viet Cong, neither of which is very attractive. A photograph of you would certainly brighten up this foxhole...."

* * *

In the photograph that Mary will be sending, she wears a form-fitting dancer's costume slit down the front. Only the legs are exposed. But then, Betty Grable did all right in another war.

Mary Tyler Moore will soon be shedding her housewifely role with the Van Dyke show and heading for other pursuits. The series will end after this season, not for the usual reason of poor ratings. It continues among the CBS leads.

FILMS PLANNED

But Van Dyke has a logjam of film commitments, as does producer-creater Carl Reiner. Mary told her plans:

"I'll go to Universal to start the first of 10 pictures. Or, if it's a bomb, the first of one. They have the options."

Yuri Gagarin, the Soviet Union's first cosmonaut, says a growing number of professions will take part in future space flights.

Gagarin noted in an interview with newspaper Red Star that pilots, engineers, a scientist and a doctor have been up already in Soviet spacecraft.

He described recent American space flights as "a major achievement" but said it would be a simplification to interpret the U. S. accomplishments as first steps on an unexplored way.

Gagarin said Soviet space-ships Vostok-3 and Vostok-4 had flown in formation.

QUINN

Actor Anthony Quinn and Miss Yolanda Addolori, a member of a prominent Venetian family, have taken out a marriage license.

Quinn, 50, met Miss Addolori five years ago in Italy and they have two sons, Frank, 2, and Daniel, 1. He obtained a divorce last Jan. 21 from his first wife, Katherine, daughter of the late movie producer Cecil B. DeMille.

He said the marriage will take place in Los Angeles "right after the first of the year.

'Self-Serve' Is Motto of Cincinnati's Mayor

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI) — Mayor Walton Bachrach served an eviction notice yesterday to the owner of the 'Wheel Cafe," which will be razed to make way for a downtown renewal project.

Partial to Animals

KIRBY MOORSIDE, England (UPI) — Miss Irene Petch, who died last July, left $280 for the care of her cat "Daisy" and an equal amount to the local church asking that special sermons be preached on kindness to animals.

Firm Reveals Building Plans

Consumers Power to Spend $134 Million

JACKSON (AP)— Consumers Power Co. plans to spend a record $134 million on capital improvement projects in Lower Michigan next year.

Construction plans for the Pontiac Division are included in the state figure and scheduled to be announced in detail late in January.

* * *

The Lower Michigan expenditures on construction and expansion projects would compare with $100 million invested in such projects this year, the firm said today.

The projects are designed to improve gas and electric service to Consumers Power customers in 67 Lower Peninsula counties, said A. H. Aymond, Consumers board chairman, and James H. Campbell, company president.

TO ADD CUSTOMERS

The company said it expects to add 20,000 electric customers to its lines and more than 38,000 gas customers in 1966. The firm said it serves more than 950,000 electric customers and 670,000 natural gas customers.

In the 1966 improvement program, Consumers said, $75 million is earmarked for electric projects, $515 million for gas expansion and $7 million for office buildings and additions to office, service, fleet and warehouse facilities.

* * *

Largest of the electric projects is the construction of a 385,000 kilowatt generating facility at the James H. Campbell Steam-Electric Plant at Port Sheldon, west of Grand Rapids. This project is scheduled for completion in March 1967.

Money also is earmarked for a 70,000 kilowatt power peaking plant at Gaylord for use in emergencies and at times of peak demand. Completion is intended in June 1966.

TO BUILD SUBSTATIONS

Consumers said major high voltage transmission substations will be built south of Flint and east of Grand Rapids to strengthen bulk power supplies to these areas.

Gas deliveries to Consumers will be increased by 75 million cubic feet per day, beginning Nov. 1, 1966, the firm said.

* * *

Plans call for conversion of the Ray natural gas field in Macomb County to a gas storage field, with accompanying additions of compressor and transmission facilities.

Bob Hope Troupe Returns to the U. S.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A troupe of 63 entertainers — led by comedian Bob Hope — has returned to the United States after a 12-day trip to South Viet Nam to entertain U.S. troops.

"The morale of our troops is just great," Hope said on arriving at Los Angeles International Airport Thursday night.

* * *

Hope said it is the first war he's seen that had an intermission.

"At An Khe, members of the 1st Cavalry Division came right off the firing lines to see our show. Then they faded back into the jungle an hour and a half later to continue the fighting."

After 42 Absorbing Years

Mrs. Tinney Is Retiring From Post Office

By MADELEINE DOEREN

First Pontiac area postal employe to receive a certificate for 40 or more years' service, signed by the postmaster-general of the United States will be Mrs. Homer C. Tinney.

Other certificates of recognition will be signed and mailed from the regional office in Chicago.

Mrs. Tinney worked 42 years under nine postmasters and for seven years has been secretary to Pontiac postmaster, William W. Donaldson.

"Chauncey Harris followed Floyd Babcock," she reminisced, "then came Joe Greenhalgh, T. W. Jackson, William Collins, George Stockwell, Leslie H. Dean, Robert Miller and Mr. Donaldson.

HERE SINCE '21

"I was born in Cass City and moved here with my parents in 1921," said the former Morea Beebeheyser.

"After completing a business course, I became secretary to Charles E. Rauhauser, Boy Scout executive, with offices in the old D. I. Oliver block on North Saginaw.

"After passing a civil service examination, I worked as temporary subclerk during the Christmas period in 1922. During summer vacation periods the following two years, I substituted at the Pontiac post office. A girl took my place at the Boy Scout office.

★ ★ ★

"No clerk appointments were made from the 1922 register so I wrote the civil service test again and was appointed classified subclerk by Mr. Babcock on March 1, 1925."

Mrs. Tinney's first duties were in personnel records and payroll. Then, she handled claims and inquiries about damaged packages, also losses and rifling of letters.

She informed the postal inspectors where there was a possible theft of the mails.

Distribution of the U.S. flags for deceased veterans and keeping an inventory of these was among her duties as well as posting "Wanted" circulars on the bulletin board and taking these down when the offenders were apprehended.

"I am turning back to the government almost a year's sick leave," she said. "I have always been conservative in its use with a thought to an unforeseen illness.

"This is still good insurance for anyone and I have no qualms about losing it."

BPW PRESIDENT

Mrs. Tinney who lives on Elizabeth Lake Road is currently president of the Waterford-Clarkston Business and Professional Women's Club. She served two years in this capacity a few years ago and was pressed into service again.

She is chairman of the Waterford Township Blood Bank sponsored by the BPW for the past nine years.

"I helped organize the post office blood bank in 1958," she says, "and served as chairman until now. Charles Smalley and Roy Hukka will be cochairmen after I leave. They represent the Carrier and Clerk Associations.

★ ★ ★

"During my second year as president, the Zonta Club sponsored Jutta Forwerk, an exchange student from Germany, in 1952. She made her home with our family the last half of her school year in Pontiac. We still keep in touch with her."

Mrs. Tinney is past-president and currently treasurer of Alpha chapter of Beta Theta Phi sorority and was chairman of the Federal Agencies for the Pontiac Area United Fund for four consecutive years.

After completing both the standard and advanced courses in First Aid furnished by the American Red Cross, she was instructor for four years.

IN 'WHO'S WHO'

She is listed in the fourth edition of "Who's Who of American Women" under government-community service.

Her retirement plans are legion.

There's daughter Barbara (Mrs. Charles Murphy) also two grandchildren, Jeff and Pam.

Her Irish setter, Ginger, will have more time to run in the back field with his owner.

"I have many friends in the post office. At Christmas, carrier Paul Giglio presented me with a 94-year-old antique clock that chimes. Gardening, furniture refinishing, sewing and trips to Canada Creek Ranch are also on my agenda."

What's been in some of the damaged packages? Everything from bad honey bees to sleepy baby alligators and turtles from Florida. Once there were turnip greens from Mississippi that spoiled and ruined two silk dresses.

MAILED MEAT

There was a local man who opened a box of fresh (?) pork from the south. He filed his claim with a remark, "I just took it out and buried it."

Pontiac Press Photo

About to dispose of a damaged package containing "a coffee pot smashed to smithereens" is Mrs. Homer C. Tinney, Elizabeth Lake Road, who retired Thursday after 42 years of postal service. She was secretary to Pontiac Postmaster William W. Donaldson for the past seven years.

June vows are planned by Janice Marie McGorman, daughter of the Jack W. McGormans of Rochester and Harold E. Brautnick, son of Michael Brautnick, Corriganville, Md., and the late Mrs. Brautnick. She is an alumna of Concordia College, St. Paul, Minn.

JANICE MARIE McGORMAN

Miss Marlatt Recently Wed

Troy's First Presbyterian Church was the scene of recent nuptial vows taken by Susan Ault Marlatt and Joseph Benson Bidwell III.

Parents of the couple are the Herbert E. Marlatts of Birmingham and Mrs. M. Kapeghian Bidwell of Philadelphia, Pa. and Joseph B. Bidwell of Troy.

Rev. A. F. Huish officiated for the couple who was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Holcomb of Saline.

★ ★ ★

A reception at Kingsley Inn followed the ceremony. The newlyweds will live in Houghton where the bridegroom attends Michigan Technological University.

BPW Clubs Are Planning Special Tour

Renewing friendships and establishing new contacts with business and professional women in Central and South America to learn more about their cultures and work will be the prime goals of officials of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., when they embark on a Hemispheric Friendship Tour, Jan. 7-17.

★ ★ ★

Participating in the tour will be president Helen K. Leslie of St. Petersburg, Fla.; president-elect Sarah Jane Cunningham of McCook, Neb.; hemispheric friendship committee chairman Marjorie da Costa of Reno, Nev. and Emma P. Hernandez of Santurce, Puerto Rico.

Starting from Miami, the tour will include San Salvador, Costa Rica, Panama, Colombia and Ecuador.

★ ★ ★

According to Mrs. Leslie, the purpose of the tour is "to renew contacts with business and professional women in several Latin American countries and make preliminary arrangements for the Second Conference of the Americas scheduled for Costa Rica in November of 1966.

"We hope to meet as many business and professional women as possible and tour such places as: housing projects, markets, farms, schools, medical centers, missions and business places."

★ ★ ★

"Friendship and fellowship are the bonds that hold women together, even when they do not speak the same language. By reaching across the boundaries and lines established by governments, we strengthen these bonds and all peoples benefit," said Mrs. Leslie.

Husband Will Be Glad Later

Seek Medical Advice

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Recently I have become a stranger to myself. I wake up every morning hoping I won't have to see anyone.

I was always such a friendly person, I can't understand it. People try to call on me and invite me places, but I usually turn them down with some excuse. If I do make myself accept, for my husband's sake, I become very nervous and just wish I could get away from them.

ABBY

Abby, I am 26 years old, have a wonderful husband and two adorable children. I have no reason to run away from people and nothing to be afraid of. Do you think I am heading for a nervous breakdown?

I suggested going to a psychiatrist, but my husband is against it. He says it's all in my head. Please give me some advice fast.

NERVOUS AND AFRAID

DEAR NERVOUS: Ask your family doctor to recommend a psychiatrist and to tell your husband why he did so. The psychiatrist may be able to tell you if it's "all in your head."

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: When our Sunday school class holds its class meetings at a member's house, there are always a few members who bring their knitting or handiwork. This irks me no end.

At the last meeting, the person in charge of devotions had to wait until one of the class members finished her stitches. Do you think this was right, and what should be done about it in the future?

IRKED

DEAR IRKED: Handiwork is out of place at a meeting where serious business is being conducted. The worst offenders are insensitive to "needling," so take a vote and let the majority rule.

Says Almond-Eyed Wife Has More Voice Than Suspected

ANN ARBOR—Most American men probably won't believe this, but a University of Michigan sociologist says that Japanese wives are far more verbal than American ones.

Associate professor Robert O. Blood admits that he originally hypothesized that American wives would win the verbal contest, but his year's research in Tokyo on a Fulbright grant proved otherwise.

★ ★ ★

An authority on marriage and family life, Blood centered his research on 444 married couples living in three large governmental housing projects in Tokyo.

From his research, Blood has written "Love-Match and Arranged Marriage," a study of two types of Japanese marriages and their comparison to American marriages. The book will be published by Free Press, a division of the Macmillan Publishing Company.

DEPENDENT

Blood also noted that Japanese wives lean heavily on their husbands in time of trouble, "telling their husbands their troubles about twice as often as American wives do."

"One clue," Blood writes, "is the greater Japanese emphasis on the importance of understanding in marriage. Whereas Detroit wives put their greatest emphasis on companionship (which means primarily having good times together), our Tokyo respondents pass over that concept almost completely to emphasize love, understanding."

★ ★ ★

Why do the Japanese believe it is so important to tell their troubles to each other? (Tokyo husbands also ranked "understanding" most important more often than Detroit wives did.)

"One reason perhaps is that Japanese people take their troubles more seriously than Americans," Blood states. "This is a sweeping statement, to be sure, but it was one of my indelible impressions from my year in Japan."

MORE SUICIDE

Blood adds that "an extraordinarily high suicide rate among young adults (in Japan) testifies to a frequent sense of the futility of life in the face of an oppressive social structure."

"Americans, by contrast," Blood says, "tend to be incorrigible optimists. Nurtured on activistic Protestant brands of Christianity, they view the suicide as 'chicken.' Born in a new country whose frontier only recently closed and whose labor force is remarkably mobile, they see life and opportunity stretching endlessly on . . ."

★ ★ ★

"Perhaps, then," Blood concludes, "American wives (and surely husbands, too) can manage half their troubles alone because they take them lightly."

"This is not to say that American culture is necessarily better than Japanese culture," Blood cautions.

★ ★ ★

"From the standpoint of marriage itself, there is a weakness in the American system of self-reliance. Here are personal needs which the partner could in most cases meet if he knew about them. But instead of turning to her husband, the American wife often turns to the TV set or goes to bed . . ." the sociologist says.

Patrice Chooses Pink and Red for Room

America's Junior Miss of 1965, Patrice Gaunder of St. Joseph, Mich. is tradition - bound in her choice of room decor but up-to-the-minute in the selection of easy-care fabrics and floor coverings.

A brilliant cyclamen bedspread of color-locked Eastman Chromspun acetate is quilted with polyester fiberfill for lasting puff and lightness of weight.

The 9x12 oval rug framing the bed, of polyester and modacrylic, is machine-washable and dryable.

★ ★ ★

Bright pinks and reds are repeated in the charming wallpaper design, an interpretation of crewel embroidery, and in pillows and shortie draperies. White overdraperies soften the effect.

★ ★ ★

The handsome furniture pieces are from The American Legacy Collection by Sprague & Carleton, a restatement of Early American style executed with flair and excellence of detail and scaling.

A portrait photograph of Patrice and enlarged snapshots of her experiences as the 1965 winner of the America's Junior Miss pageant in Mobile, Alabama, are mounted on fiberboard and used as decorative accessories over the bed and writing table.

America's Junior Miss, Patrice Gaunder, has a redecorated bedroom.

Has Answer for Helping Bored Teens

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Swimming is an excellent answer to teen-age problems of boredom, violent outbursts and sexual misbehavior, according to Dr. Alfred Bochner, a research associate of Dr. Benjamin Spock.

Bochner spent more than a year studying 250 boys and girls who trained daily at a California swim club which has produced Olympic champions Don Schollander and Donna de Varona.

GOOD TRAINING

"Swimming in itself is completely inane as an activity," Bochner said, "but it does train people to get organized and to live actively and with interest."

Bochner also believes that for non-swimmers, similar programs such as tennis or learning languages should be instituted.

"We live in a world where life could get very easy for human beings," the doctor said. "What are the children going to do with all their energy? Here is a safe and interesting way to harness it."

Food Ideas for This Reception

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: My daughter is going to be married here at home. There will be a stand-up wedding supper following the ceremony. Will you please be good enough to tell me how the table should be set and also what foods to serve?

I would appreciate any information you can give me.

A: For a stand-up supper, a single long table is set in the dining room. It is covered with a plain white damask cloth.

In the center is a centerpiece of white flowers. On it are piles of plates (preferably white, or white and gold), stacks of napkins, and rows of spoons and forks at intervals.

* * *

If there is a bridal table, it is usually set elsewhere. If not, the wedding cake is the feature of the buffet, put at the center of this table with a centerpiece of white flowers behind it or two floral pieces flanking it.

In evenly spaced places are such cold dishes as chicken and celery salad or ham mousse with chopped hearts of lettuce and such hot dishes as creamed crabmeat, chicken a la king, or chicken croquettes. Whatever the choice is, there are two or three cold dishes and at least two hot dishes.

Of first importance is to select food that can be easily eaten with a fork while the plate is held in the other hand. There should also be finger rolls and sandwiches, substantial yet small enough to eat easily.

There are dishes filled with fancy cakes, chosen for looks as much as taste. Usually there are also peppermints, caramels, and chocolates. Ice cream is the typical dessert.

After-dinner coffee is put on a side table, as is champagne or its substitute, punch.

As time runs out for the old year, we wish you the best, in the new. Thanks for letting us serve you!

Opening lead — ♠ Q

By JACOBY & SON

Here is a hand that almost caused a fight in an all-expert rubber bridge game about 35 years ago. The slam contract was a good one, although the bidding is not what one would expect today.

JACOBY

North was pretty proud of his hand and remarked as he put down the dummy, "Probably down two."

West looked it over mournfully and said, "How can it be down two with a dummy like that?"

South had no trouble going down one. He took two trump finesses and West made both his king and queen, whereupon South really became mad.

★ ★ ★

West should not have said anything. It is good to remember that you only need the words pass, double, redouble, no-trump, spades, hearts, diamonds, clubs and the numbers from one to seven to carry on a complete bridge conversation. Silence is golden. But that really did not affect South's play. He had taken the best percentage and it just happened that the best percentage did not work this time.

There are three plays at declarer's disposal with this card combination. None will work if West holds king-queen - small. The play that South did take would work against all combinations except the actual one.

The other two plays would have worked this time but each would fail against two combinations. The worst play, which is to finesse once and then play the ace, would lose against a singleton king or queen in the West hand. The Second-best play, which is to play the ace immediately, would lose against king-queen-small or king - queen and two small in the East hand, and as already stated, all plays would lose should West hold the king-queen and a small trump.

♠♣CARD Sense♥♦

Q—The bidding has been:

You, South, hold:

What do you do now?

A—Bid four no-trump. You are headed for a slam.

Vengeful Brazilian Kills 15 Gypsies

PONTE ALTO DO SUL, Brazil (UPI) — A vengeance-bent Brazilian killed 15 gypsies at a camp near here Wednesday night in a bizarre blood bath which escalated the toll of a tragic highway accident to 17 dead.

★ ★ ★

The trouble started earlier Wednesday, when a motorist accidentally ran down and killed a gypsy girl on the highway.

Members of her tribe seized the driver, decapitated him and set his head on a pole in their camp.

That night, the slain man's brother roared into the camp in a station wagon.

★ ★ ★

He ran over and killed 13 gypsies as they slept in their tents and shot down two who tried to flee.

The first voting machine was used in Illinois for the 1908 presidential election when William Howard Taft defeated William Jennings Bryan.

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Saturday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21 - Apr. 19): Study resolutions, promises. Aim high. Realize there are income opportunities. Make the most of them. Show appreciation to one who aided you in recent months.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 - May 20): Cycle moves up. Accept responsibility. Be aware, alert. Look forward to productive, happy New Year. Use care where personal appearance is concerned. Important people observe.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20): One you respect could make demand, specific suggestion. Indications are that you must go "out of your way." Prove friendship by doing so. Adhere to principles of GOLDEN RULE.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22): Highlight friends, hopes, wishes. Make resolution to KEEP RESOLUTIONS. Look to future. Avoid brooding about the past. Take steps in new directions. Be original, independent.

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 22): Stress ability to overcome obstacles. Then many around you confide valuable information. Your intuitive intellect is active. APPLY KNOWLEDGE. Be aware, alert . . . and CONFIDENT.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22): Good lunar aspect later accents travel, reunions. Fine time to express love, appreciation. Plan ahead. Future can be bright — if you have faith. Close friend can help.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22): Best to permit mate or partner to take initiative now. Make suggestions for key revision. But don't force issues. Start new year by show of diplomacy, understanding.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21): Study LIBRA message. Emphasize willingness to let by-gones be by-gones. Means avoid nagging. Make position clear. But also respect rights of others. Think positive!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21): Be aware of numerous blessings. Realize coming year offers promise of fulfillment of your potential. Stress good will, optimism. Important you obtain needed rest.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19): Favorable lunar aspect highlights joy, romance, fulfillment. Outline ideas, take notes. Analyze resolutions. Happiness gained from member of opposite sex.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18): Steer clear of controversy. Basic issues can be solved if you are mature. Key to advancement contained in FAMILY UNITY. Reflect . . . base decisions on LOGIC.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - Mar. 20): Surprise visit or message indicated. Time to plan future activities. New year off to significant start. Realize much of recent pressure will be relieved. Good!

★ ★

IF SATURDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY . . . your sense of timing is excellent. You easily win friends and influence people. Would do well as stateman, diplomat.

★ ★ ★

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle high for TAURUS, GEMINI. Special word to AQUARIUS: Individual at home due to make conciliatory move. Extend hand of friendship.

Rose Bowl Squads Rest for Showdown

State, Uclans End Workouts for Tomorrow

MSU Favored to Win by 14; Sun Returns After Heavy Rain

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Rival football teams, Michigan State and UCLA, were rested and ready to go in their Rose Bowl showdown on New Year's Day.

Both the Spartan and Bruin camps were cheered by warm sunshine Thursday following a pelting rain the day before. The Rose Bowl turf was reported in excellent shape for the climactic contest and the weather was expected to be brisk.

"A dry field won't bother us at all," commented Bruin coach Tommy Prothro, who has warned he will order a lot of passing. "Everybody on our outfit is O. K. and ready to go."

"I'm not conceding that they are a better passing team than we are," chimed in MSU coach Duffy Daugherty. "If they stop our running game, we might pass more than they do."

APISA WELL

Daugherty reported that his high-scoring fullback, Bob Apisa, is "back to normal and 99 per cent well."

Senior fullback Eddie Cotton will start the game, Daugherty said, promising that sophomore Apisa will make an early appearance.

★ ★ ★

Michigan State was a 14½-point favorite to continue unbeaten, untied and retain the Associated Press No. 1 spot in the national collegiate ratings.

The UCLA team has retired to a downtown hotel and won't leave it before game time, except for a short 35-minute workout Friday, Prothro said.

Michigan State retreated Thursday night to a monastery-like compound operated by the Roman Catholic Passionist Fathers.

★ ★ ★

Daugherty said he will workout his team briefly Friday, then take them in for a look at the Rose Bowl, tour the museum there and "soak up some of the tradition."

Daugherty couldn't resist one parting quip before he led his players into seclusion.

"I was told I was the first Catholic coach to take a team into this retreat," he said. "So I told the fathers I hope they had not used up all their prayers on the Protestants."

All-Everything 1961-1965

This Is Your Life—Juday

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

In short, this is the athletic life of Steve Juday, who will tomorrow lead the Michigan State Spartans in the 1966 Rose Bowl game against the Bruins of UCLA.

● Three sports star at Northville High School, 1960-62.

● All-Oakland County quarterback, football season 1961.

● All-State quarterback, 1961.

● Winner of The Pontiac Press Outstanding Player Award, 1961.

● All-County Class B basketball team, 1961-62.

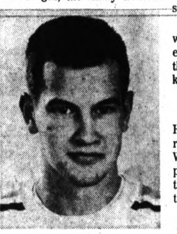
● All-County baseball team, 1962.

● Outstanding Player Award as MSU freshman, spring game 1963.

● All-Big Ten Quarterback, 1965.

● All-American by Associated Press, 1965.

In length, the many honors and accomplishments of this 6-foot and 178-pound athlete and the success of the teams with which he has played in his relatively short athletic career, could be bound into a solid volume of reading.



STEVE JUDAY
'61 Northville QB

At Northville High School, which enjoyed one of its greatest years in athletics during the 1961-62 school, he was the king of sports.

UNBEATEN GRID TEAM

Northville, under coach Ron Horwath, posted a 9-0 football record in 1962, winning the Wayne-Oakland League championship and finishing among the top 10 Class B teams in the state in the AP poll.

"He was Mr. Everything for our team," said Horwath when it was announced that Steve was the recipient of the McAn bronze shoe award presented by The Pontiac Press as Oakland County's outstanding football player for the 1961 season.

As a prep player, Juday was exciting to watch on offense and was hailed as a tremendous defensive player in his safety position.

He completed 61 per cent of his passes with 77 of 126 attempts for 1,112 yards and nine touchdowns. Seven other TDs were set up with his passing.

As a runner, Juday carried 65 times for 403 yards, better than six yards a carry. He ran for 14 touchdowns and two extra points and finished 6th on Oakland County scoring with 86 points.

Defensively, he led the squad in tackling, intercepted seven passes, recovered six fumbles, averaged 25 yards on punt returns and 24 yards on kickoff returns. He also did the punting and averaged 41 yards in 12 kicks.

CAGE CAPTAIN

From football, Juday moved to the basketball court where he captained the 1961-62 Northville team which also went unbeaten in 15 games in winning the W-O championship.

The Juday-captained Mustangs were rated No. 2 in Michigan and lost in the state basketball semifinals to perennial Class B power River Rouge, leaving Northville with an overall record of 20-1.

Northville cage coach Dave Longridge, took county coach-of-the-year honors with the Mustangs' Dan Brown making the all-county team and Juday the all-Class B unit.

"Steve's leadership was the key to our success," Longridge commented when Northville finished the overall campaign with a 20-1 record.

Before his basketball shoes cooled off, Juday had his spikes on and was at his varsity shortstop position when the season started.

Co-captain of the Northville diamond team, Juday was the leading hitter on the squad as the Mustangs won their third major sports championship in the Wayne-Oakland League with a 14-1 record.

Northville then entered the All-Oakland area baseball tournament sponsored by The Press and also walked off with the championship by defeating three Class A teams including Southfield, 1-0, in the finale.

★ ★ ★

This boosted the three-sport record for football, basketball and baseball, led by Mr. All-Sport Juday, to 41 wins and two losses.

AT MSU

At Michigan State, Juday limited his talents on the varsity side of football and baseball.

His baseball batting average was a robust .342 last season, and his passing has broken all Spartan records, including those of such names as Al Dorow, Earl Morrall and Gene Glick.

These are his passing records in three years:

Year	Att.	Comp.	Yds	Td's
*1963	68	30	509	5
1964	148	79	894	10
1965	168	89	1173	7
Totals	384	198	2,576	21
Totals	384!	198!	2,576!	21!

*Started first game as soph, but lost after six games because of shoulder separation.

! All records for season or for career.

Picked as the team's Most Valuable Player, All-Big 10, All-American and the outstanding Student-Athlete of college football, Juday's biggest disappointment came a few weeks ago when he was shunned in the draft selections of the pro football teams.

Tomorrow, before 100,000 Rose Bowl fans, Steve will be out to prove the pros wrong.

COUNTY'S BEST — The top football awards of 1961 in Oakland County went to Northville's Steve Juday, who won the Pontiac Press' Outstanding Player Award, and Pin Ryan (right) Royal Oak Kimball coach who was named "County Coach-of-the-Year."

TWO FROM '61 — The 1961 All-Oakland County Football as presented by The Pontiac Press brought forth two 1965 All-America college players both from Michigan State. Ron Goovert (upper arrow) from Hazel Park and Steve Juday of Northville (lower arrow) were members of the best county "11" that year. Two other outstanding players on that 1961 team in college ranks at the University of Michigan this year were end Craig Karby of Kimball (top right corner) and halfback Dorie Reid of Ferndale (lower right to Goovert).

NATIONAL AWARDS — Steve Juday (right) and his football coach Duffy Daugherty attend the 8th annual All-America awards banquet in New York where the Spartans cleaned up on national honors. Juday took AP All-America honors at quarterback, Duffy Daugherty its 1965 Coach-Of-The-Year, the Spartans were the No. 1 college team, and Michigan State was named recipient of the MacArthur Bowl plaque as the best team in the land.

Appearance in Bowls Is 4th for MSU

If you've bet that Michigan State's Spartans will be making their third appearance in a bowl game New Year's Day, you lose.

The team will be playing in a bowl game for the fourth time.

The Spartans downed UCLA in 1954, 28-20, and posted a 17-14 victory over the same squad in 1956.

MSUs other bowl appearance? That came in 1938 when the Spartans played Auburn in the Orange Bowl and suffered a 6-0 setback.

.07 Separates Top 2 Scorers in NCAA Race

NEW YORK (AP) — Dave Schellhase of Purdue and Bob Lewis of North Carolina are locked in the closest race in five years for the major-college basketball individual scoring lead.

This was revealed Thursday with the latest release of statistics through games of last Saturday by the NCAA Service Bureau. Schellhase leads Lewis by 0.07 points, the Purdue ace having scored 207 points in six games for a 34.50 average and Lewis 241 points in seven games for a 34.43 average.

Record in Bowl Event

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Jim Ryun, University of Kansas freshman, cut almost six seconds off the Sugar Bowl record in the 1,500-meter run Thursday with a 3:42.7 effort, about equivalent to a 3:59 mile run.

NOT IN DERBY — Detroit business executive Ralph Wilson, owner and president of the Buffalo Bills of the American Football League, told The Press today that he joins George Halas of the NFL Chicago Bears in keeping out of the "insane" money derby which the pros are conducting for college players.

President of AFL Champs Agrees With Halas

Bills' Owner Ralph Wilson Is 'Out' of Money Derby

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Ralph Wilson Jr., of the American Football League and George Halas of the National Football League have similar views about the skyrocketing bonuses and salaries being paid by pro teams to college draft choices.

Earlier this week, Halas, owner and coach of the Chicago Bears, said he was pulling out of the big money derby and offering his No. 1 draft choice LSU tackle George Rice to any NFL team who wants him.

"I agree with Halas," said Wilson, president of the Buffalo Bills who last Sunday won their second straight AFL championship by routing San Diego, 23-0.

"We're not going to get into this high bidding game either," said Wilson, and we made that clear when we did not get into the derby for our top two choices. (Mike Dennis and Jim Lindsay, Mississippi and Arkansas linemen).

"We didn't have a No. 1 draft choice playing Sunday and don't have a team of the great individual stars such as San Diego," Wilson added, "but we've got a ball club with great spirit and desire, and I don't care how many stars there are on a team you can't win without that heart."

"Sure, we need new players and we'll have to compete for them, but look at the rosters and you'll see plenty of choices from 10th to 20th listed."

MONEY PROBLEMS

Wilson emphatically pointed out that to get into money derby has and would create personnel problems. "There isn't a football player alive let alone an untested rookie worth 6-4-3-2 or any hundreds of thousands of dollars."

★ ★ ★

"We pay our players good salaries, fair salaries and this makes for a happy team, not a team of individuals.

★ ★ ★

"This bonus derby may last another year or two and the kids in this given period can say they were born at the right time. But a few years from now owners will look back and ask themselves how they ever lost their perspectives.

"I am sincere when I say the common draft is what we need to bring sanity back to the game."

The Bills' president said he was sure that "Green Bay's offer to Jim Grabowski was closer to $600,000 than the $100,000 for three years which was reported."

"I know what Miami offered him and he certainly wouldn't have signed for the $100,000. It was reported as such to keep the peace among the veterans."

He also commented that the bidding for Donny Anderson of Texas Tech is "ridiculous" as was the situation for Tommy Nobis.

"When some of the owners look at the rosters and see how many of these big bonus babies have been just average players, they will realize the waste of it all," he added.

COMMENTS ON TV

Wilson also commented on the recent NFL television package with CBS calling for $37.6 million for two years.

★ ★ ★

"It was a good boost, but the NFL had to give 50 per cent more exposure with night games, eight TV doubleheaders, so to balance it out they really got less.

"They (the NFL) wanted a four year contract, but TV doesn't want to take a chance. TV knows anything could happen to ruin the demand with all this crazy player bidding which could bankrupt a few teams in a couple years."

"And besides, now the NFL is permitting other games to be telecast into cities where home teams are playing. The saturation point has long been reached."

★ ★ ★

Wilson, whose primary business is insurance with his offices in Detroit, has interests in road building, trucking, oil drilling and horse racing. His trucking interests involve hauling of Pontiac cars and parts.

★ ★ ★

A graduate of University of Virginia and the University of Michigan Law school, he was a commissioned Naval officer during World War II at which time he was cited as one of America's outstanding officers, and unfortunately for Detroit Wilson's success in pro football has been in Buffalo.

And even though pro championships have been scarce in any sort of recent years for Detroit, natives of this area can feel they have at least some contact with a champion — Ralph Wilson and the Buffalo Bills.

Cazzie Russell Reported OK

U-M Ace Takes Spill in Wolverines' Win

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Michigan's Wolverines had to settle for fifth place in the Far West Classic basketball tournament, but they got some good news Thursday night about teammate Cazzie Russell.

Russell, Michigan's All-America performer, chosen the tourney's most valuable player, gave everyone some anxious moments during the game in which the Wolverines downed Washington State 93-81.

His head hit the floor hard after a collision in the last minute of play and he was knocked dizzy. He needed help to the sidelines. No apparent concussion or other injury showed in X-rays.

★ ★ ★

Russell's injury came as he stuffed the ball through the hoop for his 91st point in the tournament, breaking the tourney record of 89 set by Mel Counts of Oregon State in 1963.

Oregon State dribbled off with the tournament championship, whipping Stanford 62-46.

Nicklaus Still PGA Tour 'Apprentice'

NEW YORK (NEA)—Those who know Jack Nicklaus say there's only one thing that can melt the ice cubes which house his nerve ends—details.

His inattention to detail took the relaxation out of his winter restup.

His concern nowadays is over whether or not he is going to be certified a bona fide Professional Golf Association professional in 1966.

If so, he'll be eligible for selection to pro golf's prestigious Ryder Cup team, a personal pinnacle Nicklaus badly wants to reach. If not, he'll have to wait another three years, possibly more.

Nicklaus, as a PGA apprentice. didn't play the required 25 tournaments this year.

"I scheduled 27 tournaments," he said. "I had to cancel two of them because I got wrapped up in other commitments and I found I needed some extra practice time to get ready for the National Open."

CANCELS MIAMI

He didn't count on the cancellation of the Miami Beach Open, which left him one tournament short and chin-high in those dreaded details.

In PGA circles, the law's the thing and the rules are rigid.

Nicklaus applied for his PGA membership and was approved for tournament play—late in 1961. This meant he could play in the big tournaments, but he had to serve a five-year apprenticeship before he was eligible for full PGA membership and Ryder Cup play.

When he realized his plight a few weeks ago, he even tried to organize his own tournament, just to make the required 25.

JACK NICKLAUS

"The PGA turned it down," he said.

"Now I have to file application to have the PGA waive the 25-tournament rule, which would give me my fourth year credit.

"Then, under the rules, I could get credit for my fifth year by going to PGA business school in February."

★ ★ ★

The 25-year-old Ohioan conceivably could get PGA certification in time to earn enough tournament points to make the 1967 Ryder Cup.

But why all the fuss over making the Ryder Cup team, when at age 25 he has become the top golfer in the nation, or the world for that matter, and a millionaire to boot?

"It's a goal and it's an honor," he said. "It's added incentive to play well in all tournaments, because you make the team according to how well you do on the circuit."

★ ★ ★

If the PGA rules against Nicklaus, however, he won't get a shot at Ryder Cup play until 1969, since the matches are held every two years.

"We're waiting for his application," a PGA spokesman said. "He must show clearly that extenuating circumstances caused him to miss his 25 tournaments."

But the PGA, like all disciplined organizations, is reluctant to make exceptions.

"I respect that," Nicklaus said.

Red Wings Regain Parker MacDonald

DETROIT (AP) — Veteran Parker MacDonald was returned to the Detroit Red Wings Thursday from the Boston Bruins where he had gone last May in a package deal, the club announced.

The Bruins in exchange will get Pit Martin, 22, from the Red Wings' Pittsburgh farm club.

The 32-year-old MacDonald is expected back in Red Wings uniform in time for the New Year's eve battle with the first-place Chicago Black Hawks at Olympia Stadium.

RETURN TO CENTER

Norm Ullman, who had been in that spot since Nov. 28, will return to center between left wing Ron Murphy and right winger Floyd Smith.

★ ★ ★

"We tried everyone on left wing with Gordie and Alex but only Ullman worked out and then it was a case of putting all our eggs in one basket," Abel said.

"We wanted more balance," he added.

An eight-season National Hockey League veteran, MacDonald had most of his big successes while working with Howe and while he had only 13 goals last season, he rigistered 33 assists.

★ ★ ★

Abel commented that Howe and Delvecchio "were very active" in bringing about MacDonald's return.

MacDonald together with Al Langlois, Bob Dillabough and Ron Harris were swapped in May for Ab McDonald, Bob McCord and Ken Stephanson.

MacDonald had six goals and four assists in 20 games for the Bruins.

★ ★ ★

Martin had one goal — ironically one that decided a game against Boston — in 10 games before he was sent to Pittsburg. He tallied six goals and five assists for the Hornets.

★ ★ ★

"It's a good break for Pit," said Abel. "It gives him an opportunity to play in the league and Boston has a bunch of young players. I think he'll be happy."

CMU Five Beaten in Tourney Final

MARSHALL (AP)—Taylor of Indiana edged Central Michigan 71-69 Thursday night to win the championship of the Marshall Optimist Basketball Classic.

Anderson of Indiana took third place by dropping Albion 96-66, and Ohio Northern took fifth place by downing Adrian 107-79.

Ron Bocken was high man for Taylor with 30 points. Don Edwards was high for the losers with 21.

Gary Pate of Anderson poured in a dazzling 41 points to lead all scorers in his game. Tom Balistrere was high for the losers with 18.

Berry Stechachultz led Ohio Northern with 22 points and Jim Ingeldue got 19 for Adrian.

Big Jump Grabs Title

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A Pensacola High School senior, Allen Miller, rallied from 13th place to win the Junior Orange Bowl Golf Tournament Thursday.

Miller fired a one-under-par 71 in the final round for a two-day total of 146 and won the event by one stroke.

Field Conditions Uncertain

Piston Five Ends Skid, Beats Lakers, 117-114

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — Detroit broke an eight-game National Basketball Association losing streak by beating Los Angeles 117-114 Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

The Pistons, last in the Western Division, had failed to beat division leader Los Angeles in four previous meetings this season.

Detroit lost a 10-point lead as Los Angeles tied the score at 113-113 on Jim King's only field goal of the game with 1:08 to play, but two free throws by John Barnhill with 26 seconds left put the Pistons in front again.

★ ★ ★

Jerry West hit a free throw for Los Angeles with 22 seconds left. The Lakers called time out with five seconds on the clock but failed to get off a shot.

West scored 34 points, hitting 12 of 29 shots from the field and 10 of 11 free throws. Walt Hazzard added 32 for Los Angeles on 15 of 24 and 2 of 3. Dave DeBusschere led the Postions with 20 points on 9 of 20 and 2 of 2.

★ ★ ★

Bill Russell boosted his career rebound record past the 16,000 mark Thursday night. as Boston beat the San Francisco Warriors 116-113.

Russell pulled down 28 rebounds in the close one at Providence, R.I., making his total 16,023, while John Havlicek, Tom Sanders and Don Nelson paced the Celtic scoring.

Walled Lake 5 Is Loser, 74-55

Cold shooting again doomed Walled Lake to defeat — the Vikings' sixth straight — last night in the Northwest Suburban Invitational Basketball Tournament.

★ ★ ★

Redford Union Built a 64-40 lead in the first three period and coasted to a 74-55 triumph over Walled Lake in the battle for seventh place. The Vikings hit less than 20 per cent of their field goal attempts for the sixth game in a row.

★ ★ ★

Farmington captured fifth place and climbed above .500 with a 68-53 romp over Wayne; and Southfield took Ypsilanti, 92-88, in overtime for third place.

In the title game, Livonia Bentley nipped Berkley, 47-43.

At Flat Rock's Invitational, Cranbrook dropped a 66-57 verdict to Melvindale in the fight for fifth place. Brighton topped Ypsilanti St. John, 70-60, at Chelsea; and Capac was a 78-52 loser to Marysville in the Bangor Tourney.

Garrett Leans to AFL Team

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mike Garrett, University of Southern California star halfback, apparently will go to Kansas City of the American Football league, it was disclosed here Thursday.

Announcement of the move was made by owner Dan Reeves of the Los Angeles Rams.

Garrett was the 20th draft choice of Kansas City, but the No. 2 pick of the Rams.

The Heisman Trophy winner in his senior year with USC, Garrett was said to be worth 10,000 extra fans a game in Los Angeles.

NFL Title Foes Eying Weather

Tarp, Hay Protect Green Bay Gridiron

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The long range weather forecast for Packerland calls for a little rain and possibly a little snow for the rest of the week, leading up to a cloudy Sunday with the thermometer in the mid 20s and perhaps a light dusting of snow for the big game.

★ ★ ★

In other words, get ready for anything. Green Bay has been working all week on a damp practice field with soggy turf over a frozen base. It is something like lemon chiffon pie with a cement crust.

CAPACITY CROWD

A capacity crowd of 50,852 is assured for the National Football League championship contest between the Packers and the Cleveland Browns at 2:10 p.m., EST Sunday at Lambeau Stadium.

★ ★ ★

The game will be seen and heard on CBS radio and television, with Green Bay blacked out on TV.

Because of the slippery field, Coach Vince Lombardi has had to be careful with his limping warriors, especially Jim Taylor.

★ ★ ★

The Packer fullback pulled a groin muscle recently and is trying to nurse it back into shape. As a result he has not been running full speed on the soupy field.

Don't get the idea that the game will be played in these conditions. Lambeau Stadium rests cozily under a layer of hay plus a tarp.

It will be playable and surprisingly good, depending upon the weather when they roll the tarp back Sunday morning and remove the hay.

★ ★ ★

With about $7,000 at stake for every winning share and $4,600 for each loser, everybody expects another hard-hitting game like last Sunday's Baltimore-Green Bay battle. In case of a tie they will play sudden death overtime once again.

3 Grid Contests Today Open Last Big Weekend

By The Associated Press

Donny Anderson will close out his brilliant varsity career, rifle-armed sophomore Billy Stevens will be on the firing line, and a pair of richly talented all-star teams will have at each other in three games Friday ushering in college football's biggest post-season weekend.

Anderson, the two-time All-American halfback, will lead Texas Tech against Georgia Tech in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla. Stevens, the prolific passer, and his Texas Western teammates will play favored Texas Christian in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex.

★ ★ ★

And at San Francisco, East will tangle with West in the 41st Shrine Game.

But the top ones come Saturday—the New Year's Day spectacles. This time the four big bowls will show off the country's six leading teams, and the national championship will be at stake.

Top-ranked Michigan State plays fifth-ranked UCLA in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif.; Arkansas, No. 2, takes on Louisiana State in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas; third-ranked Nebraska and fourth-ranked Alabama battle in the Orange Bowl at Miami; and sixth-ranked Missouri meets Florida in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans.

★ ★ ★

A special poll will be conducted by The Associated Press after the New Year's action, with the national title going to the No. 1 team.

HEADLINER

Anderson may write his biggest headline after the Gator Bowl game — with his signature on a pro contract. Both Green Bay of the National Football League and Houston of the American Football League are after the versatile Texas Tech flash, and it might take a fabulous sum to get him — something like $800,000 in bonus and salary guarantees.

Anderson is one of many collegiate prizes who will be eligible to sign with the pros after bowl games.

Former City Athlete Dies in Service

Dixie Howell, 47, one of the best baseball players ever produced in Pontiac, died yesterday at Andrews Air Force Base in Washington, D.C., after a brief illness.

Lt. Col. Howell, a bomber pilot in the Strategic Air Command, was operated on in Guam shortly after being reassigned there for combat duty in Viet Nam.

Complications followed his surgery and he was brought back to the Andrews AFB Hospital. Burial will be in Arlington, Va.

Howell graduated from Pontiac High School in 1939 after playing football, basketball and baseball there. He was a standout in the city recreation baseball league and played professionally in the Texas League before entering the service.

He flew combat missions in the Far East campaign during World War II.

He is survived by daughter Dixie Lynn, 11 of Shreveport, La., and son William, 14, in Winnsboro, Tex. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jobe Howell (formerly of 47 Allison in Pontiac) now live in Church Road, Va., as does a sister Mrs. F. E. Clarke.

★ ★ ★

Another sister, Mrs. Charles Marion lives at 580 N. Cass Lake in Pontiac; and his brother Benny Howell lives in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

USGA Tightens Rules on Junior Expenses

NEW YORK (AP) — Junior golfers under 18 years of age will not be permitted to accept expenses to events in which non-juniors compete, the United States Golf Association announced Thursday.

The USGA said, however, that there may be rare exceptions to the new amateur rule which becomes effective Saturday.

Up to now, there has been no limit on expenses which a junior might receive from outside sources.

Detroit Given $150,000 Gift for Boat Area

DETROIT (AP) — A gift of $150,000 to establish a power-boat facility and memorial to Horace E. Dodge Jr. on the Detroit River was accepted by City Council Thursday.

Mrs. Anna Thompson Dodge, 95, offered the gift as a memorial to her late son, key figure in power boat races on the river prior to his death at age 63 on Dec. 22, 1963.

The memorial is to include launching ramps, a service area and a building near the city's Water Works Park on the river.

Spartan Cagers Take 3rd Spot

Maui Army Quintet for 97-69 Triumph

HONOLULU (AP) — Michigan State ran and shot its way to a surprisingly easy victory over U. S. Army Hawaii 97-69 in a battle for third place in the second Annual Rainbow Classic Invitational basketball tournament in Honolulu Thursday.

The Spartans dominated the boards and repeatedly scored on tip-ins and short jumpers. Big Center Matt Aitch came up with his top effort of the tournament, tallying 24 points and grabbing nine rebounds.

Steve Rymal had 19 before fouling out with four minutes left. Stan Washington scored 23, and John Bailey 14 as the Spartans came up with the top output of the tourney.

Ex-Detroit Piston Terry Dischinger of Army was high with 25 points and 14 rebounds but was erratic, losing the ball six times and hitting one of ten from the free throw line

5th Frame

By JERE CRAIG

The New Year will bring a jump in the price of bowling — local bowlers, though, needn't be alarmed unless they plan to bowl much in Detroit.

A general increase of five cents per line for open bowling will go into effect tomorrow at most Greater Detroit Bowling Proprietors' Association member establishments.

This will put the cost for a three-game series with the spouse or best friend up to $1.80 or even a $1.95 per person. This is equal to what is charged bowlers in prime-time leagues and will help offset the continuing cost rise.

* * *

However, Pontiac area houses reported yesterday no similar rise in prices is planned immediately. Currently bowlers may open bowl for as little as three games for a $1 up to 55 cents per line.

This holding-the-line policy by the owners doesn't reflect any sudden burst of holiday spirit or any reduction in overhead expenses. Nor do most feel the point of diminishing returns has been reached.

Rather the prime economic principle involved is supply and demand. Too many establishments now are competing for the large — though not unreached — number of participants.

Raising prices is an uncertain venture at most times since no one can be positive of how unfavorably the customers will react.

Nor can any local keg site say it is doing all the business it can handle; most, in fact, are well below top volume operation.

Adding to the establishment competition problem is the prospect of a new bowling lanes in Waterford Township. Plans for construction of one west of Telegraph and south of Menominee wer approved earlier this week by the township planning commission.

* * *

Experience has shown that prices locally closely follow the Detroit pattern, but not the same timetable. Therefore, it won't be surprising if by this time next year a general agreement among almost all local proprietors results in a price rise.

SPARE PINS

Meanwhile, the opportunity to welcome in the New Year with a group bowling session appears excellent. Very few Friday night leagues will have their normal competition today and most houses will be open into the new year.

Collier Lanes, Cooley Lanes, West Side Lanes, Orchard Lanes, Wonderland Lanes and Howe's Lanes will close early or have limited bowling due to parties.

Tomorrow morning, the majority of the sites will resume open bowling around noon and a few even later. Howe's, Cooley, Sylvan Lanes, Montcalm Bowling Centre and 300 Bowl will open by 10 a.m.

Wings Gain Right to Swede Skaters

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Red Wings have obtained exclusive professional rights to two members of the Swedish National Hockey Club, Sweden's national amateur team, a Red Wings spokesman said Thursday.

The two are Tord Lundstrom and Haken Nygren, both 20. Lundstrom stands 5 foot 11 and weighs 175 pounds, and Nygren is 5-foot and 170 pounds.

This marked the first time the Red Wings went outside the United States or Canada to look for hockey talent, the spokesman said.

Halfback Still Critical

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Tom Blanchfield, former star halfback for the University of California, was reported slightly improved Thursday but still in critical condition with congestive heart failure.

Blanchfield, 21, was hospitalized Friday.

Kentucky has the worst all-time won-loss record of any football team in the Southeastern Conference. The Wildcats have won 60 games, lost 106 and tied 12 during 31 years of competition.

Trade Heavy in Year-End Rally

Market Aims at New Highs

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market drove toward new highs in a year-end rally sparked by Bethlehem's steel price boost. Trading was heavy.

Some averages were above their recent closing peaks on an intra-day basis and the question was whether they could hold their gains until the close of trading for 1965.

★ ★ ★

Bethlehem's $5-a-ton price increase for structural shapes and piling caught Wall Street by surprise. Steel stocks were narrowly mixed at the opening but as investors acted on the news, Bethlehem converted a small loss to a gain exceeding a point. Other steels were up from 1 to 2 points.

The best gains by steels were trimmed somewhat after a published item to the effect that government economists were displeased by the price increases. Wall Streeters—mindful of the recent rollback in aluminum and copper prices—awaited further reaction but there was no immediate comment from the White House.

Aerospace defense stocks rallied as the U.S. peace offensive seemed to be ineffective.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 1.8 at 358.5 with industrials up 3.2, rails up 1.0 and utilities up .3. The AP average was above its record closing high of 357.3 reached Dec. 22.

Prices were irregularly higher on the American Stock Exchange. Trading was active. Ahead around 2 points were Computer Sciences, Northeast Airlines and Syntex.

★ ★ ★

Corporate bonds were mostly unchanged. U.S. Treasury bonds declined across the board.

Trade Efforts Said Lacking

Put Office Abroad, State Solons Urge

LANSING (AP) — A Senate committee wants Michigan to establish a trade-promotion office in Europe.

Seven senators, led by Sen. Gilbert Bursley, R-Ann Arbor, chairman of the Committee on International Commerce, visited New York and nine western European countries for three weeks this fall.

Their report given the Senate Thursday declared that "Michigan's sales efforts are not meeting fully the challenge of the international market place. In a rising European market, Michigan's proportionate share of sales appear to be declining," it said.

The report said there was "little evidence of positive programs, public or private, designed to cash in on these (European trade) opportunities."

HEAR REPORTS

Business and government experts abroad told the committee that small and medium-sized producers are especially not exploiting potential markets.

The report said the state departments of commerce, agriculture and tourism should establish international divisions or offices.

It called for a Michigan office in Europe under direction of the Department of Commerce, a nonprofit joint business-government corporation for promotion purposes and an institute for international commerce at a state university.

Brussels or Amsterdam were suggested as sites for the European office.

Most Prosperous Ever

Year of Records Ending

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The United States rings out tonight its most prosperous year. Records fell right and left. But problems there were aplenty and at year-end tensions were growing.

DAWSON

There was a lot of excitement in 1965, especially in the stock market, where prices swung widely and trading volume soared. And government and business squared off for some notable showdowns over wages, prices, interest rates, antitrust actions, overseas investments — with signs of bitter battles to come.

Still, 1965 turned out better on the business front than most people expected just a year ago tonight. And all the worries today about the top uncertainty — the course of the Viet Nam war — may make executives wary of adopting fixed patterns for their firms but generally confident that one way or another the 1966 economy as a whole will outdo even the record year now ending.

Americans this year produced some $672 billion in goods and services, up from $628.7 billion in 1964. Many think 1966 might see this Gross National Product soar to the $715 billion range.

INCOME HIGH

Personal incomes rose almost steadily all year to a record $540 billion, against $495 billion in 1964. The jobless rate, a major problem last winter, at yearend was down around 4 per cent, lowest level in years. And labor shortages were plaguing many employers needing highly skilled workers.

Business profits kept rising all year to total around $45 billion after taxes, up from $37 billion in 1964. Wage increases averaged around 4.2 per cent, largest in several years, and a faster rate than either prices or productivity were setting.

★ ★ ★

The year started out with French President Charles de Gaulle calling for a world monetary system based on gold, and turning in France's surplus dollars for the metal. The U.S. Treasury had one of its sharpest gold losses in years.

So fast were Yankee dollars flowing overseas that President Johnson called on U.S. corporations voluntarily to hold down overseas investments, and on U.S. banks to trim foreign loans and the buying of foreign securities. At yearend these controls, still called voluntary, were being further tightened.

SPURS BUSINESS

The U.S. government spurred domestic investments and consumer buying by relaxing in February depreciation rules for tax purposes and clipping $1.75-billion off excise tax collections in June, with more coming next month. Business stepped up buying equipment, and consumers kept retail sales mounting. At yearend some government officials were worrying more about blocking the threat of inflation than about stimulating a civilian economy that could conflict with a military one.

Government also collided with some industries over its guidelines on wages and prices. The White House monitored the steel wage talks. It talked of releasing tons of aluminum and copper and wheat from its strategic stockpiles, and price hikes in the metals were quickly rescinded. But all through the business world there was uneasiness lest this foreshadowed more controls over wage and prices than did the guidelines by themselves.

★ ★ ★

A clash over easy money vs. dear money enlivened the final month of the year. The Federal Reserve Board raised basic interest rates, saying it feared the economy would overheat and touch off a boom with inflation. The White House deplored this, saying economic expansion still needed cheaper money and lots of credit.

All of the year's events had their moments of reaction by the stock market. January saw stock prices setting a record high. Domestic and international crises set prices back for a time and then they hit a new high in May only to slide badly through June.

PRICES HIGHER

Prices made still higher ground in October, again in November, and after much see-sawing managed a record high at Christmas time.

Volume of trading was terrific much of the year, adding to the fears at yearend that speculative forces might be at work — one of the ingredients of past booms and busts.

So the year drew to a close with most Americans prosperous, many nervous, a majority confident, but with almost no one dead sure he had all the answers.

Q) "Our two married children are happy and prosperous. We have been giving them the maximum gift allowance from our large block of fine life insurance stocks listed below. We are retired with more than enough income outside of our stock list. Besides insurance stocks we own American Telephone; General Motors; General Foods; General Telephone; General Electric; U.S. Steel; Comsat. Should we take our profit in General Foods? Do you think we should buy more life insurance stock and more Telephone and Comsat now that the price is lower?" W.T.

A) You have at present well over $500,000 in life insurance stocks, which appears disproportionate. I like Telephone and Comsat as long-range holdings, but you are already sufficiently represented in these situations and you should diversify. I would hold General Foods which is an excellent growth vehicle.

Switch U. S. Steel into Corn Products for better growth and with other funds I suggest stocks for capital enhancement, such as Eastman Kodak and Honeywell.

FBI Breaks Up Big Theft Ring; Millions in U.S. Property Stolen

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — The FBI reports it has broken what it describes an inside theft ring which hauled away millions of dollars worth of government property from the Charleston Naval Shipyard.

Twenty-six men were indicted by a federal grand jury in Charleston Thursday in connection with the alleged thefts.

★ ★ ★

Among those indicted is Henry H. Harris, director of the naval supply center's storage division, and three marine engine dealers.

The FBI said that 20 of those indicted worked at the naval shipyard and that Harris "played an important role in the conspiracy by using his authority as director to transfer codefendants to various places and by calling 'safety meetings' of personnel not involved to facilitate the thefts and removal of property."

ARREST 11

FBI agents quickly rounded up 11 of the men and said they hoped to arrest four others. Eleven had been arrested previously and are free on bond.

The arrests climaxed a year-long investigation of government warehouse pilfering which allegedly took place between 1959-1964.

Much of the property, the FBI said, was sold to or through the three marine engine dealers, all indicted. They are Lamar Dennis of New Orleans, La.; Philip Bodne of Charleston and Miami, Fla.; and Melvin McEuen of Long Beach, Calif.

The bureau said the stolen goods included diesel engine parts, typewriters, insulated jugs, and brass and metal fixtures, plates and rods. It said $250,000 of property has been recovered.

WIDELY PEDDLED

The stolen property was allegedly sold to purchasers in Florida, California, Virginia, Louisiana, Texas and Oregon.

Three commercial truck drivers were also among those indicted. The FBI said they would drive into the shipyard during one of Harris' "safety meetings," load up at a warehouse without authorization and drive away.

Savings Association Hikes Interest Rate

A new higher earning rate on savings has been announced by Capitol Savings and Loan Association, 75 W. Huron.

Beginning tomorrow, funds will earn 4.4 per cent compounded quarterly compared with the previous rate of 4.25 per cent.

★ ★ ★

In making the announcement, Clifford W. McKibbin, president of the association, said that the continued healthy growth of the nation's economy and the steady increase in savings accounts and earnings have made the rate increase possible.

Soapy Is Said Ready to Run for Senator

DETROIT (AP)—Sen. Patrick McNamara, D-Mich., will retire from the Senate in 1966 and "within minutes" G. Mennen Williams will announce his Senate candidacy, Detroit Free Press Managing Editor Frank Angelo said today.

Angelo said also that Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh wants to make the race for the Senate "unless he can be talked out of it."

* * *

Angelo said he based his conclusions on "bits and pieces of evidence that have been accumulating over the past few weeks and were solidly confirmed in conversations amid the jollity of the annual Board of Commerce party Thursday evening" at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

He said the stage was left entirely to ex-Gov. Williams at the party. While McNamara and Cavanagh also were present at the affair, neither stayed very long, Angelo said.

On the Republican side, Angelo said, Gov. George Romney will run for governor, and Lt. Gov. William Milliken "probably will wind up being 'drafted' to run for the U.S. Senate."

Traffic Safety Hints:

NO. 14 Although you do need to check your rear-view mirrors before pulling out into traffic or changing lanes, it is also necessary to turn your head and glance back quickly. Why? You have to compensate for the blind spots at the right rear and the left rear of your car where your view is not covered by either mirror. And remember not to drive in another driver's blind spot at the rear left or right of his car for any length of time. If he can't see you in his rear-view mirror, he may suddenly move into your lane.

HANGS UP HIS GUN—Samuel W. Hardy, with the longest FBI service record outside of Director J. Edgar Hoover, retired yesterday after 41 years with the bureau. Hardy worked on many notorious kidnap cases in the 1930s. He plans to conduct schools for police officers and add to his collection of crooked cards and dice.

Says Hitler Feared Jewish Ancestry

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Adolph Hitler's suspicion that his grandfather was Jewish probably touched off his purge of the Jews — "the greatest mass horror in history," according to a leading historian.

Robert G. L. Waite of Williams College said there was suspicion that Hitler's paternal grandfather was a Jew, but added "it must remain in doubt. It is possible; it is not proven."

But, Waite said, there is a second and more important question. "Did Hitler harbor the suspicion, did he suspect karkly, that he might possibly have Jewish blood?

"My answer to this question is emphatic: yes, he did so believe."

* * *

Waite discussed the psychological approach to facts about the German dictator during a session on "The Historian's Use of Psychology" at the 80th annual meeting of the American Historical Association.

SOME EVIDENCE

He told the historians there is some evidence, none of it conclusive, on the subject.

Hitler's father was the illegitimate son of Marianne Schickelbruber, he said, and at the time her child was born, she had been working as a domestic in Graz "in the home of a Jewish family by the name of Frankenberger."

He said there was also testimony that Frankenberger paid maintenance money to the mother after the birth of the child, a fact which Hitler did not deny.

* * *

"In this connection, it will be recalled that in his Nuremberg racial laws, Hitler made a special point of decreeing that henceforth no German girl could work as a servant in a Jewish household," Waite said.

MADE SURVEY

He also pointed out that after Hitler took Austria, he had a survey made of the ancestral home of his grandparents, the little village of Dollersheim.

* * *

"The purpose of the survey was to ascertain the suitability of the area for a Wehrmacht artillery range. The inhabitants were evacuated, the village flattened by artillery fire and the graves of his grandparents rendered unrecognizable," Waite said.

"Why? Was it not perhaps because Hitler had an irrational compulsion to wipe out—quite literally — the 'taint' of Jewish blood by obliterating the graves of his grandparents?"

Link Pope Pius to German Plot

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Pope Pius XII was secretly a key link in a aborted attempt by a group of German officers to prevent World War II by overthrowing Hitler during the winter of 1939-40, according to a noted historian.

* * *

When the Pope became convinced the plot could not succeed, he personally warned the allies to expect a westward thrust by Hitler's armies, said Prof. Harold C. Deutsch of the University of Minnesota, who spoke at the annual meeting of the American Historical Association yesterday.

Deutsch said a Munich attorney, Joseph Mueller, who was an acquaintance of Pius XII, was recruited by the plot leaders to act as a go-between with the Vatican.

Col. Hans Oster and Hans Von Dohnanyi, two of the plot leaders, asked Mueller to "persuade the Vatican to act as intermediary with the British government.

* * *

The Germans wanted a promise from Britain that she would not attack during any coup and would negotiate a reasonable settlement of issues after Hitler was eliminated.

'COMPLETE ZERO'

The outcome of it all "after months of risk and anxiety was a complete zero," the historian said. The German officers received the British terms on Feb. 1, 1940.

* * *

Then, after weeks of waiting for their reply, Pius XII "felt himself compromised in the eyes of the western powers" and decided to warn them of the attack which he knew Hitler was planning for the spring.

Nazis Bormann, Mengele Said Dead

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Adolf Eichmann's son Horst says former top Hitler aide Martin Bormann and former Auschwitz concentration camp doctor, Josef Mengele, are dead.

Bormann and Mengele are wanted in West Germany on war crimes charges.

* * *

The 26-year-old Eichmann said in an interview Thursday that Mengele died somewhere in South America about four months ago and, "Who in the world doesn't know that Bormann died in Berlin?"

There have been persistent reports that Bormann escaped when the Russians stormed Berlin in May 1945 but all efforts to find him have failed.

EXPERIMENTER

Mengele, who took part in experiments at Auschwitz, has been variously reported as living in Argentina, Chile and Paraguay. Young Eichmann was reluctant to name the South American country where he says Mengele died.

Horst Eichmann's father was executed in Israel in 1962 after Israeli agents kidnaped him from Argentina to stand trial in Jerusalem.

LONDON (AP) — An Australian medical researcher says there may be less danger of lung cancer from roll-your-own cigarettes than from manufactured ones.

Dr. E. R. Threthewie writes about roll-your-own cigarettes in a letter in the current issue of Lance, a leading British medical journal.

* * *

Preliminary results of experiments by the physiology department of Melbourne University show that manufactured cigarettes may burn at higher temperatures than the roll-your-own type Threthewie says.

At the high temperature some chemicals in tobacco turn into substances similar to those believed to cause lung cancer, he adds.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union says "the most important space feat" of 1965 was Alexei Leonov's success March 18 as the first man to walk in space.

A yearend space review carried by Tass Thursday noted that "somewhat later an identical experiment was carried out by an American spaceman."

U.S. astronaut Edward H. White II strolled in space for 20 minutes June 3.

The only other Soviet reference to America's space achievements mentioned the rendezvous of Gemini 6 and 7 two weeks ago.

BERLIN (AP) — A Communist East German court Thursday night sentenced a West German to 12 years in prison for allegedly trying to take a car carrying his brother and two East Gernan girls through the Berlin wall.

* * *

His brother was shot to death by East German border guards.

The official East German news agency ADN said the trial of Horst Schoenberger, 24, of Dortmund was held in nearby Potsdam. His brother, Heinz, 27, was shot during the Christmas night escape attempt.

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet newspapers announced today that retail prices on sugar, cotton fabrics and other goods will be reduced in rural areas to bring them in line with city prices, starting Saturday.

Higher prices for consumer goods in rural areas were established in 1928 when Soviet industrialization was beginning and urban workers were favored over farmers in the government's economci policies.

* * *

Rural residents will save about 400 million rubles ($444-million) by the new reductions, the newspapers said.

Hundreds Flee Arizona Flood

Several Cities Hit; One Death Reported

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Hundreds of persons were being evacuated from along the Salt River today as floodwaters raged down the normally dry channel through Phoenix.

Residents in areas of Phoenix, Tempe, Scottsdale and Mesa headed for high ground.

* * *

The sheriff's office reported a boy apparently drowned when he tried to swim from a car which became stalled on a road in the river bed. Another passenger in the car climbed up on top of the vehicle and was rescued.

Officials of the Salt River Project said they were forced to release the water from dams above Phoenix as dams reached near capacity because of heavy runoff from December storms.

HIGHEST SINCE 1941

Officials were concerned because water is flowing into the Roosevelt Lake at the top of the Salt River chain. Water was spilling out of the dam for the first time since 1941. If the heavy runoff continues, the release from the dam will have to be increased.

Runoff into other reservoirs along the six-lake chain also filled them to capacity, forcing the release of more water.

* * *

The project has been in operation more than 60 years. In that time, many businesses and some homes have been built in the area which once was river bed.

Another dam at Lake Pleasant, northwest of Phoenix, also was full and spilling water which created another threat on the opposite side of Phoenix.

FEAR MORE FLOODS

More flooding also was feared along the Gila River, where residents of the Safford area were hard hit last week. There appeared to be no problem in southern Arizona where last week's rain caused more damage to crop land and more than a million dollars damage to the Tucson sewer system.

A number of Arizona roads and highways have been washed out or heavily damaged by the flooding of last week and today.

Machines Prod Pupils

DENVER (AP) — Schoolchildren, like taxpayers, are fast approaching the day when they'll be prodded by computers if their performance lags.

* * *

During a recent seminar of school officials here an anonymous student's grade average was transmitted to a Honeywell computer center in Boston which, seconds later, sent back a prediction of that student's grades for the coming year.

The prediction was based on historical grade samplings and numerous analyses stored in the computer memory.

4 Detroit Teens Die in Collision

By The Associated Press

Four teen - aged Detroiters were killed and two injured when their cars collided on wet U.S. 23 near Whitmore Lake today. The four were among 11 persons killed on Michigan highways in the early hours of the long New Year's holiday weekend.

The Associated Press reports holiday weekend fatalities from 6 p.m. Thursday night to midnight Sunday.

Victims of the Whitmore Lake crash, all age 17, were Charles Warren Adams, John Cris Economeas, Jeff Morrison and Donald L. Plattner.

The youths were returning to Detroit at high speed in two cars after a get-together at North Lake south of Whitmore Lake, State Police said.

TRIES TO PASS

A car driven by Adams attempted to pass the other, driven by Robert L. Stevenson, 17, of Detroit, near the interchange of U.S. 23 and Eight Mile Road, officers said.

The Adams car ran onto the shoulder and veered back onto the road, rolling over as it returned to the pavement. It collided with Stevenson's auto, police said.

Stevenson and a passenger in his car, Donald Francis Buckley Jr., 17, of Detroit, were treated at St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Held for investigation was Mrs. Jacob's estranged husband Darwin, 29.

Forms for Tax Relief to Be Ready Monday

Applications forms will be available Monday at the assessor's office in City Hall for Pontiac home owners eligible for Senior Citizens Tax Relief.

City Assessor James E. Kephart Jr. announced today that he had received the tax relief forms. Home owners, he said, have until about March 15 to file for the tax exemption.

Under a new state law, Act 27, passed this year, senior citizens 65 and over can obtain an exemption on their property taxes up to $2,500 on the assessed value as equalized.

Kephart said home owners, either husband or wife, who reached their 65th birthday on or before Friday will be eligible for the real estate tax exemption.

* * *

This act applies to persons owning their home or purchasing it under a mortgage or contract.

THOSE ELIGIBLE

The tax relief is granted beginning with the 1966 tax year to persons over 65 who earn less than $5,000 annually, have lived in Michigan seven consecutive years immediately prior to application and don't own properties in Michigan with a total assessed value exceeding $10,000 as equalized.

Persons applying for the tax exemption should bring proof of property ownership and their birth certificate or some document showing their date of birth, such as a Social Security application or discharge papers for those who served in the Armed Forces, said Kephart.

'Early Bird' Earnings Reported

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Communications Satellite Corporation reported today it took in $966,000 from the operation of the Early Bird satellite during the third quarter of 1965.

In its first quarterly report in history, COMSAT also said that as of Sept. 30, its total cash and temporary cash investments amounted to nearly $188 million.

★ ★ ★

Stockholders were further advised of the corporation's plans for the launching of two new satellites in 1966 for Atlantic and Pacific commercial service as well as for meeting the needs of the Space Agency's Apollo moon-landing program.

Other 1966 plans include the construction of new COMSAT earth stations in Hawaii and the state of Washington, and the installation of James McCormack as chairman and chief executive officer of the corporation. He succeeds Leo D. Welch.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Civilian pay rolls of the federal government increased by 19,176 during November to a total of 2,547,871, a congressional survey showed today.

This put the total near the August peak of 2,549,985 for the current fiscal year that began July 1.

★ ★ ★

Agencies listing increases from October to November included the Defense Supply Agency with a gain of 3,065; Army, 2,258; Navy, 1,754; Post Office, 9,837; Health, Education and Welfare, 1,415; Veterans Administration, 1,249, and Air Force, 753.

★ ★ ★

The civilian payroll for September, latest month available, was $1,483,571,000. The pay roll data is collected and released by the Joint Congressional Committee on Reduction of Nonessential Federal Expenditures.

WASHINGTON (AP) — James M. Quigley takes over as acting commissioner of the new federal water pollution control administration, established today under provisions of the Water Quality Act of 1965.

★ ★ ★

In naming Quigley to the new job, Secretary of Welfare John W. Gardner said he intends to use all the tools at his department's disposal to save the nation's streams and lakes from the threat of pollution.

"Our homes, farms and factories, our states and cities, all depend upon adequate supplies of clean water," Gardner said. "The sooner we all recognize this community of concern and follow it by common action in the public interest, the sooner we will remove the dangerous threat which exists to our nation's supply of clean water."

★ ★ ★

Quigley, assistant secretary of welfare, will serve as acting commissioner of the new department until a permanent head is named.

Science Quiz

By BOB BROWN

PROBLEM: Tricky weights.

NEEDED: Two heavy blocks from two-by-four lumber, drilling equipment, a long strip of wood to fit into the holes.

DO THIS: Cut the blocks of two-by-four and drill holes through the centers as shown. Drill smaller holes through the blocks and through the strip so that the nail will hold the blocks either at the ends of the strip or close together.

Hold the strip in one hand and turn it back and forth with the hand as the pivot point.

Try it first with the blocks close together and it is easy; try it again when the blocks are on the end of the strip and it is difficult.

HERE'S WHY: Rotational inertia increases as the center of gravity of the whole system moves farther outward from the center of rotation.

Moving the blocks outward increases this distance. The blocks should fit rather tightly on the supporting strip or rod, and the nails should fit snugly into the holes.

NEXT WEEK: A Safe Shocker.

A collection of the "Science For You" experiments is in book form under the name "Science Circus." It is on sale in bookstores, or may be ordered from Bob Brown, the author, care of The Pontiac Press.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ANNA B. Austin, who passed away Dec. 31, 1965.
Often a lonely heartache,
And many a silent tear;
But always a beautiful memory,
Of the one we loved so dear.
Sadly missed by children, Blanche, Beatrice, Rachel and George.

Redwood Trees Face LBJ 'Ax'

Budget Bureau Puts Ceiling on Park Fund

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson's economy hatchet may cut down plans for saving more of California's majestic redwood trees from the woodman's axe.

The Budget Bureau, it was learned today, has put a ceiling — reported to be $50 million — on the National Park Service's spending plans for a proposed Redwood National Park.

The Park Service's most ambitious plan, calling for a 93,400-acre park, was estimated to cost about $120 million. However, spokesmen for the California redwood lumber industry have scoffed at the Park Service estimate and contended it would cost at least $200 million.

If the Budget Bureau holds fast to the $50 million ceiling, the Park Service would probably be limited to a modification of the smallest of three park proposals it has advanced for consideration.

★ ★ ★

That proposal, calling for a 61,851-acre park, is certain to run into trouble with conservationists and Rep. Jeffrey Cohelan, D-Calif., who has introduced legislation to provide for a 90,000-acre park.

20,000 ACRES AFFECTED

One effect of a $50-million ceiling on the proposed national park might be elimination of more than 20,000 acres of virgin growth from the south unit of the proposed two-unit park.

Cohelan and some conservationists have insisted that a large stand of virgin redwoods on Redwood Creek south of the existing Prairie Creek Redwoods State Park be included in the national park. It is in this area, they say, that the world's tallest trees — including one towering 367 feet skyward — are to be found.

If the Park Service is limited to the smallest of its three park plans, about 16,750 acres of virgin growth in the Redwood Creek area would be cut out of the park.

Celebrators May Stay 68 Straight Hours

HOBOKEN, N.J. (AP) — For those hardy souls looking to celebrate an extended New Year's Eve, Hoboken is the spot.

★ ★ ★

The city's Alcoholic Beverage Commission announced it has given permission to the 200 taverns here to stay open for 68 straight hours, from 6 a.m. today to 2 a.m. Monday.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Says 'People' Song Will Bid 'Hello, Dolly' Goodby

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Composer Julie Styne told me a year ago that the "Funny Girl" hit, "People Who Need People," would eventually be a bigger standard than Jerry Herman's "Hello, Dolly!" — which at the time seemed a bit sacrilegious.

WILSON

But after Mimi Hines' successful singing of "People" when she took over the Barbra Streisand role, Styne repeated it more strongly:

" 'Dolly' is one of those songs which reminds you of so many other songs. But 'People' is a first-time song. Twenty years from now when we talk about the great songs, nobody is going to play 'Mairzy Doats.' In my opinion, 'Hello Dolly!' is in the same category as 'Mairzy Doats'—it's a good novelty song."

Jack Carter's opening at the Americana Royal Box will be long remembered. His bustaceous glamour girl singer Marlene made one ringsider very angry by flirting with him to the point that she blew her breath on his glasses and fogged them. Jack also had some lines that startled me, such as: "The Pope didn't go to California because he wasn't sure he could get an audience with Sinatra."

Spoofing Robert Goulet's stiff-legged walk, Carter said, "Sir Lancelot . . . he doesn't dancelot . . . because he's got rust in his pancelot." Carter privately told me that he's trying to make up with his wife Paula Stewart who's expecting in Hollywood . . . "I've been a naughty boy," he said. "Even when married, I've always had one foot out the door."

★ ★ ★

Well, that's the way it's done, you know . . . Henry Ford and his divorced wife, Anne McDonnell Ford, were on the receiving line . . . while his present wife, Christina Ford, was off in another section of the big pre-nuptial party at Delmonico's with friends . . . at the $25,000 shindig preceding dtr. Anne Ford's marriage to stock broker Giancarlo Uzielli.

★ ★ ★

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Jack Lemmon's wanted to play the dallying dentist in the "Cactus Flower" movie — but Columbia can't film it for another four years . . . Best performance in "The Chase" won't be seen (where one of the stars got belted for making a pass at another star) . . . The White House switchboard no longer accepts calls for Chef Rene Verdon, who's quitting. (The Loew's hotel chain made him a fat, firm offer).

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Buying a new dress for your wife is like buying a new car—the base price may be less than the accessories.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "Love your enemies — and they'll wonder what kind of a deal you're trying to pull."—Quote.

EARL'S PEARLS: The current trend in women's dresses makes you wonder where they'll be up to next.

Review Nixed on Discharge

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Navy review board has refused to act on a petition which would have given an honorable Marine Corps discharge to presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, it was learned yesterday.

The board said the petition, submitted by Oswald's mother, presented no new evidence. Oswald's earlier attempt to have his 1959 Marine Corps discharge changed from undesirable to honorable was also turned down.

★ ★ ★

The Navy said the latest petition has been sent to the board of corrections of naval records "which is now assembling all information on the case and will handle the matter in routine fashion."

There was no indication of when the petition would be finally disposed of. The earlier rejection of the Oswald petition was made by a military board while President John F. Kennedy was still alive.

Sen. Carl Hayden of Arizona was a county sheriff when Arizona was still a territory.

Expect Viet War to Intensify If Peace Bid Fails

By EDWIN Q. WHITE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — High military and diplomatic officials in Saigon predicted today that if the Viet Nam conflict goes on, military activity will be intensified in 1966.

They expressed this view on the last day of the old year as the continuing U.S. diplomatic peace offensive gave rise to more optimistic outlooks in other parts of the world.

★ ★ ★

The prediction coincided with an announcement that U.S. military strength in South Viet Nam has reached 181,000. The new year is expected to bring thousands more. There were about 23,000 American troops here last Jan. 1.

★ ★ ★

The last day of the year also brought a report that 34,585 enemy soldiers were killed in action in 1965. The figures for American dead during the year were put at 1,241 and for Vietnamese government troops at 11,000. Almost 6,000 enemy troops were said to have been captured.

STRONGER ENEMY

Despite these figures, enemy military strength was said to have grown from about 103,000 to an estimated 230,000 as the year ended.

★ ★ ★

The figures, released by headquarters of the U.S. Military Assistance Command, Viet Nam (MACV), listed an increase in Vietnamese armed forces during the year of from about 511,000 to 565,000.

★ ★ ★

With the massive American buildup in 1965, the general military outlook was termed more favorable, but increasing infiltration of regular North Vietnamese troops cast an ominous shadow. One high military source said it now is believed the infiltration rate has reached a predicted 4,500 men a month.

★ ★ ★

The presence in South Viet Nam of seven North Vietnamese regiments is said to have been confirmed. The presence of one more regiment is termed probable and still another possible.

READY TO FIGHT

It also is believed that the North Vietnamese have brought with them 120mm mortar elements that have not yet been used in combat. They probably will be tested soon.

There also is evidence that the North Vietnamese have introduced heavy antiaircraft machine guns in organized units.

★ ★ ★

Despite these moves, U.S. military men say the initiative now is held by the South Vietnamese and U.S. troops and their allies, bolstered by increasing firepower and mobility.

They concede, however, the Viet Cong and their North Vietnamese supporters still can launch quick, often destructive attacks, especially on government outposts and district towns.

RAIDS HURT

Air raids into North Viet Nam, now heading into the eighth day of a Christmas holiday halt, are said to have hampered infiltration and caused extensive damage to communication lines. They also are said to have hindered construction capability and to have had an impact on the economy of the Hanoi regime.

There are, however, no claims that the air attacks in the north have brought about a major change in the war.

★ ★ ★

The key to victory, in the view of high officials here, still is in the hands of the Vietnamese people who work the rice paddies and who live in the little hamlets and towns of the countryside. One official summed it up this way:

Victory will take place when the people turn against the enemy. A large part of the population has been neutral. It has bent with the wind. Neither side has been able to give the people the security they yearn for. The escalation in 1965 sets a trend of bringing about a moment of decision for the peasant farmers.

3 ALTERNATIVES

These people now were seen as having three alternatives:

Staying on their land, the choice most would prefer; moving to areas of government control; or joining the Viet Cong.

★ ★ ★

The choice the people make, whether in providing intelligence or other active support or whether in remaining passive or antagonistic to the government, still is believed by many here to be the decisive factor.

"The people," said one high American, "must and will decide."

ECONOMIC BOOM

The U.S. military buildup in 1965 was accompanied by an economic boom, according to figures released by U.S. military headquarters today.

★ ★ ★

At year's end, planned U.S. construction projects in South Viet Nam were valued at almost $1 billion and civilian personnel working on military construction projects were listed at more than 20,000. Last January these workers numbered only a few thousand.

★ ★ ★

Consumption of petroleum rose from 250,000 barrels in January to more than one million per month in December, the figures showed.

Imports by ship into South Viet Nam rose 800 per cent and intercoastal shipping doubled from the January tonnage of 25,000.

Junior Editors Quiz on SEASONS

QUESTION: Why does the earth have different seasons?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: There are many mysteries about the creation of our planet earth. One such question, as yet unresolved by the experts is why the earth rotates around the sun always tilted at an angle of 23½ degrees to the plane of its orbit.

Even if we don't know what originally caused this, we do know that it is this tilt which gives us the different seasons of the year.

Look at the top picture and find, roughly, the place where you live. Remember that the earth makes one full orbit each year around the sun.

In the top picture, it's summer; see how the arrows representing the sun's rays are shining down almost directly on North America.

That's why the summer is warm. But in winter (lower picture) North America is slanting away from the sun's rays, which must pass sideways through a large part of the earth's atmosphere.

Thus, much of the heat is absorbed. Consequently, the winter is much colder. It will help to study the lower left diagram, which shows the earth circling around the sun, yet preserving the same tilted axis all the time.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Imagine yourself taking a trip to Buenos Aires, far down the eastern coast of South America. Would the climate there, in summer and winter, be the same as that back home? Study the slant of the sun's rays hitting Buenos Aires and reason out the answer.

Striking Busmen Ratify Contract in Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Striking bus drivers voted Thursday night to accept a new contract offer from Grand Rapids Coach Lines Inc., but vehicles were expected to remain idle over New Year's until Monday.

The drivers voted to accept the new two-year pact by a vote of 89-21, President Arnold Heaney of Local 836 of the Amalgamated Transit Union said.

★ ★ ★

Bus company General Manager Ira W. Jackson said the buses could not be back in operation until Monday due to maintenance requirements. The buses have been out of action for one week.

The drivers struck last Thursday after the old one-year contract expired.

★ ★ ★

The wage and fringe benefit package amounted to about 20 cents an hour, Elmer Tyrell, the local's treasurer, said. The old base pay was $2.26 an hour.

Wild 'Mother Goose'

NOTTINGHAM, England (UPI) — Children have been barred from evening productions of "Mother Goose" because the hall where the production is staged serves liquor.

Yank Visitor in N. Viet Reports No Reaction to Bombing Lull

MOSCOW (AP) — Prof. Staughton Lynd of Yale University said in Hanoi today there had been no significant reaction there to the current halt in American air raids on North Viet Nam.

Lynd was asked in a telephone interview what reaction there had been in Hanoi to the lull which began at Christmas.

"Nothing of any significance," he replied.

★ ★ ★

Lynd and two other Americans, Thomas Hayden and Herbert Aptheker, arrived in Hanoi last Tuesday on a private mission seeking to clarify the position of the North Vietnamese government and the Viet Cong on peace negotiations.

Lynd is a spokesman for the "new left." His wife said in New Haven, Conn., that he had gone "because of his concern for peace."

GROUP LEADERS

Hayden is a founder of the Students for A Democratic Society. Aptheker, a frequent visitor to Moscow, is the leading theoretician of the U.S. Communist party.

The North Vietnamese invited Aptheker to visit Hanoi at a congress in Helsinki, Finland, and asked him to bring along one or two other Americans.

★ ★ ★

In the telephone interview, Lynd declined to comment on the results so far of their visit to Hanoi.

"We have been here only a few days," he said. "We feel it would be better to wait until our return to report on what we have found while here."

GIVES ANSWER

Lynd was asked whom they had met so far and where they had been in North Viet Nam. He consulted Hayden and Aptheker and then replied:

"We all agree that, in the interests of accuracy, we prefer to wait until our return, when you can question us, to make sure the story is told fully and accurately."

★ ★ ★

They expect to be in Hanoi another week or 10 days, Lynd said. He said he did not know what route home they would take.

Lynd said they had been informed of visits by U.S. Ambassadors W. Averell Harriman to Warsaw and Arthur J. Goldberg to Rome. He asked for further information but had no comment.

Uninvited Guests Helped Themselves

BARQUISIMETO, Venezuela (UPI) — Uninvited guests at a birthday party Wednesday night apparently believed it is more blessed to receive than to give.

When the invited guests turned out the lights to sing "Happy Birthday" to the guest of honor, thieves slipped into the house and stole the birthday cake and the phonograph which was to have provided music for dancing.

Home for the Blind

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Ground will be broken Jan. 15 for a $450,000 home for the blind in Grand Rapids. The home will accommodate 40 residents.

47th Straight Rise for State Tax Intake

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's booming business has provided a 47th straight month of increase in the sales and use tax going into the state treasury.

December collections marked a 17 per cent increase over figures for December 1964 — biggest jump in any of the 47 months, the State Department of Revenue reported Thursday.

The department reported tax receipts of $57,934,449 on $1.4 billion worth of retail sales and transactions in November. It was the biggest collection yet in the 1965-66 fiscal year.

U.S. Peace Drive Spreads

State Apportioners No Nearer Accord as Deadline Looms

LANSING (AP) — Apportionment commissioners entered their final house of deliberation today, still apparently far from agreement on Michigan Senate and House districting.

They balloted 12 times yesterday on various districting combinations but time and again the four Republicans and four Democrats opposed each other.

The commission, acting under State Supreme Court orders to reexamine districting approved in 1964, faced a midnight deadline for action.

Little compromise was apparent during yesterday's session and differences appeared to harden over Senate districting in the controversial Bay City-Saginaw area.

Republicans claim the two cities should be in separate districts.

They now are in a single district which elected Sen. Jerome Hart, a Democrat.

NO SPLITTING

Democrats said they would try to draft a plan separating the cities. But yesterday, Democrat Henry Dongvillo said there is "no (splitting) plan I can draft in the Saginaw area that I can support."

Later Republican William Hanna told Democrat Robert Kleiner he "cannot conceive of any Bay City-Saginaw districting I could support that you would vote for."

Political experts believe the Democrats would lose a Senate seat if the two cities were split into separate districts.

Democrats yielded to Republican proposals shifting outlying areas of a Muskegon-area Senate district, but the GOP turned down over-all proposals incorporating the shift.

Again Republicans argued some population disparity should be permitted so that greater unity and regularity of districts could be achieved.

But Democrats turned down the GOP's plan which included disparities of up to 5 per cent.

They consistently have argued that population equality must be the overriding consideration in districting.

World Festive and Prayerful

Welcome New Year With Hope for Peace

NEW YORK (AP) — The world welcomes the new year tonight with joyous celebration and a prayer for peace.

It is a time of merrymakers, resolutions, popping corks — and cannons.

The West Germans will see 1966 in with a bang. They are all set to blow up $15 million worth of fireworks, almost 50 per cent more than last year.

According to German folklore, the bangs and flashes of Sylvester (New Year's Eve) are supposed to frighten off demons and evil spirits.

★ ★ ★

In the Moslem nations the observance of the new year may be somewhat subdued. It comes this year on the sixth day of Ramadan, the Moslem holy month of fasting.

NO KISSING, DRINKING

The Islamic faithful have been warned that kissing and drinking are forbidden.

Roman Catholics are looking forward to the new year as the start of a special jubilee proclaimed by Pope Paul VI to mark the closing of the Vatican Ecumenical Council.

In New York's Times Square — a traditional New Year's Eve gathering place — a new $10,000 illuminated digital clock controlled by signals from the U.S. Naval Observatory will time the arrival of 1966.

Along some of the nation's turnpikes, highway patrols prepared big urns of coffee in

Road Mishaps Take Lives of 2 From Area

All Law Enforcement Agencies Strengthen Holiday Patrol Units

Area law enforcement agencies have launched stepped-up road patrol programs as the holiday weekend opened with three major traffic accidents resulting in the death of two persons and serious injury of another.

Killed in Pontiac area accidents last night and this morning were John G. Stewart, 14, of 7235 Meadowlake, Bloomfield Township, and Donald K. Pearce, 26, of 134 Williams Lake, Waterfor Township. In serious condition at Pontiac General Hospital is Virgil Vandecar Sr., 48, of 116 W. Brooklyn.

Oakland County Sheriff Frank W. Irons and Sgt. Karl W. Lutz, commander of the Pontiac State Police Post, have bolstered regular road patrol units for the holiday weekend.

State police have canceled all leave days for the weekend and will have National Guardsmen assisting in patrol. The sheriff's department will use some 20 reserve deputies for road duty.

★ ★ ★

Irons, Lutz, Pontiac Police Chief William Hanger and Waterford Township Police Chief William Stokes all warn that drunk drivers will go to jail.

PHYSICIAN'S SON

The Stewart youth, son of a physician, died five hours after a car driven by his mother, Mrs. Maitland Stewart, was struck broadside by a truck at Telegraph and Maple.

Bloomfield Township police said Mrs. Stewart had started to make a left hand turn onto Maple when the collision with the southbound truck occurred shortly after 5:30 p.m.

Mrs. Stewart and Melvin L. Marek, 31, of Livonia, the driver of the truck, did not require hospitalization.

★ ★ ★

Pearce was killed when his car and a semi-truck, driven by Elmer J. Sahrow, 60, of Mount Clemens, met head-on at 3 a.m. in Avon Township on Auburn near Adams.

NOT INJURED

Sahrow was not injured.

Vandecar was a passenger in a car driven by his wife Beth, 44, when their vehicle and one driven by Donald J. Card, 20, of 4049 Island Park, Waterford Township, collided on Baldwin near Merrimac last night.

A passenger in Card's vehicle, Russell Lotan, 19, of 640 Lounsbury, Rochester, was listed in satisfactory condition today in Pontiac General Hospital.

Today's Forecast Is Staggering: Freeze-Up Is Due

The new year should arrive in wintery fashion tonight with lows of 25 to 32 and occasional snow flurries. Cloudy skies and windy weather are forecast too.

New Year's Day, tomorrow, will have variable cloudiness, cold temperatures and scattered snow flurries. Highs will range from 30 to 35.

Sunday's weather picture has partly cloudy weather with scattered showers and little change in temperatures.

Winds this morning were south-southwest at 15 to 30 miles per hour. Shifting to the west at 18 to 35 miles per hour late this afternoon, they will become northwesterly at 15 to 25 miles per hour tonight.

Fifty-two was the low temperature preceding 8 a.m. today. The mercury was up to 59 at 1 p.m.

New Yorkers in a Scramble

Subway, Bus Strike Set to Start Tomorrow

NEW YORK (AP) — Public officials and private citizens scrambled today for everything on wheels that could help keep this city on the move if the vast municipal subway and bus systems are shut down by a strike tomorrow morning.

Car pools were being hastily formed. Businesses began booking hotel rooms for employes.

Auto rental and charter bus companies were swamped with reservations for business companies and groups of commuters. Commuter railroads prepared for extra traffic.

John V. Lindsay, who will take office as mayor at midnight tonight, announced that group-riding in taxicabs would be permitted.

★ ★ ★

He urged that private cars not enter the city except to bring in people who were required to work, and he said such cars should be fully occupied. Lindsay made the plea because of threatened traffic congestion.

Lindsay also suggested that employers work out "reasonable" staggered working schedules for their employes.

The AFL - CIO Transport Workers Union (TWU) has threatened a strike for 5 a.m. — an hour when New Year's Eve celebration stragglers would be about the only persons seeking transportation.

The full impact on the metropolitan area's 15 million residents would not be felt until Monday morning when the work week starts.

Press Will Publish Early Edition Saturday

The Pontiac Press will publish only one, early edition tomorrow so that Press employes may spend New Year's Day with their families.

Normal publication will resume Monday.

ITALIAN GREETS GOLDBERG—U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Arthur J. Goldberg (left) is greeted by Italian Premier Aldo Moro in Rome yesterday prior to their meeting on Viet Nam. Bad Weather Halts Plan to Visit Tito; India Is Next on List

WASHINGTON (AP) — Special presidential envoys carried America's Viet Nam peace drive today to France's President Charles de Gaulle and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization council. India's Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri is next on the calling list.

But the only open response from the other side was a defiant call from President Ho Chi Minh of North Viet Nam for the Viet Cong to press on for "new and greater victories."

The special envoys were U.N. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg, in Paris for talks with De Gaulle and a report to a hurriedly called session of the NATO permanent council.

Ambassador W. Averell Harriman had a date with Yugoslav President Tito today following up his conference with Polish leaders in Warsaw Wednesday but bad weather prevented his flying to see Tito. He is expected in New Delhi Saturday to see Shastri.

After a meeting with French Foreign Minister Mauricce Couve de Murville preliminary to his call on De Gaulle, Goldberg said his mission could not be described "in terms of hope, optimism or pessimism."

Drug-Giving Errors Said Not Uncommon

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

BERKELEY, Calif. — Many more errors occur in giving drugs in hospitals than is commonly assumed, a research team declared this week.

They range from serious or occasionally fatal mistakes to errors or giving a prescribed drug at the wrong time, or giving a different brand of the same basic drug, said Kenneth Barker of the University of Arkansas Medical Center Hospital in Little Rock.

A study six years ago in a Florida hospital showed that "at least every sixth dose administered was in error" in some way.

"Since the average patient received roughly six to eight doses a day, this was a ratio of approximately one error per patient a day," Barker said.

Similar rates of error have been found in other studies since then, he added, but a new experimental system in Arkansas of controlling drug administration has, in early testing, "cut the over-all error rate by more than half."

RATE REDUCED

If giving drugs at the wrong time — not on schedule, for example — is excluded, the error rate for all other error types combined was reduced 82 per cent.

If giving the wrong brand is also excluded, the over-all er-

Pole Wins Race for Freedom

SAIGON (UPI) — With four of his fellow countrymen in hot pursuit, a Polish officer of the International Control Commission (ICC) today raced into a Vietnamese police station and asked for political asylum.

★ ★ ★

Police identified the officer as 1st Lt. Anatole Slawinsky, an interpreter with the Polish delegation of the three-member ICC.

They said Slawinsky bolted out of the compound housing the Canadian, Indian and Polish ICC members this morning and down a street toward the police station.

Four more Poles roared after him in a Jeep, and nabbed Slawinsky at the door.

★ ★ ★

But the Polish officer was rescued by Vietnamese police who scuffled briefly with the Polish diplomats.

MASS ARREST

The white-uniformed police had tried to arrest all the Poles under the impression that they were engaged in some kind of nonpolitical brawl.

When they separated Slawinsky, he bolted into the station, shouting in English, "I want to see an American and be a Vietnamese citizen."

Tentative OK in Ammo Strike

Hope Restoration of Supplies to Start Soon

WASHINGTON (AP) — After four days of intensive bargaining, negotiators in a gunpowder plant strike have reached a tentative settlement that the administration hopes will restore some dwindling ammunition supplies for Viet Nam.

The rebuilding of critical gunpowder stocks could resume after the New Year's weekend if the 4,200 strikers at the Olin Mathieson plant in East Alton, Ill., approve the agreement reached here Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

Bargaining for the month-long strike was switched to Washington Monday at the request of the Federal Mediation Service.

Chief Federal Mediator William E. Simkin said the tentative agreement was communicated to the White House and Pentagon and "everybody in the administration is gratified at this step."

AMMUNITION LOW

The Illinois plant is the sole manufacturer of a special gunpowder used in some rifle bullets, tracer bullets and 20 millimeter cannon shells which the government said were running low during the strike.

But Pentagon spokesmen emphasized that, up to now, there has been no ammunition shortage in Viet Nam.

The agreement was initialed by the three unions involved Thursday night.

Cong Blast Billet, Warn of Offensive

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Viet Cong blasted a U.S. enlisted men's barracks at Dalat early today and threatened a major New Year's offensive against a provincial capital near the U.S. Marine beachhead at Chu Lai.

The Communists gave this new demonstration of their determination to fight on the eighth day of the suspension of U.S. air raids on North Viet Nam and in the face of intensive U.S. peace maneuvers abroad.

One American was killed, another was missing and 10 Americans and one Veitnamese were wounded in the guerrilla raid at the military compound at Dalat, a mountain resort 145 miles northeast of Saigon.

The area had been relatively free from terrorist activity.

★ ★ ★

A band of five guerrillas slipped by guards at Les Ravines billet shortly after midnight and opened fire with small arms and automatic weapons.

'Early Retiring Creates Jobs'

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers said today its early retirement program created approximately 10,200 job openings during the first three months the plan was in effect.

The union said 9,200 workers retired before age 65 at the four auto firms and 1,020 retired under the same program at farm implement manufacturers in the United States.

The retirements in the period from September, when the program went into effect, through November, were compared with 241 early retirements from the four auto firms in the same period of 1964.

"To a considerable extent," said UAW President Walter P. Reuther, "early retirement... satisfies the need to create job opportunities for the unemployed, the underemployed and the young people entering the work force — and with a national unemployment rate of 4.2 per cent, we need those job openings."

★ ★ ★

The early pension plan was won by the UAW in 1964 contract bargaining with General Motors, Ford Motor Co., Chrysler Corp., American Motors Corp., International Harvester, John Deere and Caterpillar Tractor.

The union said its report for the September-November period was the latest for which figures were available.

The early retirement plan also took effect this month at approximately a dozen parts and supplier companies whose workers are represented by the UAW.

The program provides an incentive supplement which can give a pension of as much as $400 a month to union workers who retire prior to age 65.

★ ★ ★

At General Motors, 5,280 workers retired under this program in the three-month period this year, the UAW said. This was compared with 120 GM workers who retired prior to age 65 in the comparable three-month period of 1964.

AT CHRYSLER

At Chrysler, there were 1,753 early retirements in the three months this year, compared with 59 in the same period last year, the UAW said.

At Ford, 1,931 took early retirement, compared with 45 the previous year, the union said.

The UAW said similar figures for American Motors were 224 this year, 17 last year, and at International Harvester, 646 this year, 10 last year.

Federal Curbs Near on Exhaust Fumes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government moves closer today to national control of the air polluting materials which spew from cars and light trucks.

Proposed federal standards, to start with 1968 models, are being published in the Federal Register.

★ ★ ★

Suggested changes can be made during the following 30 days.

Then the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare will make any revisions it deems necessary, and publish the regulations in the Register to take effect immediately.

IMPORTANT STEP

"With these standards," Welfare Secretary John W. Gardner said, "we will take an important step toward controlling pollution from the nation's greatest single source of air pollution."

The secretary noted that similar standards already have been adopted in California starting with 1966 vehicles.

But a department statement said air pollution research indicates automotive pollutants contribute to eye and throat irritation and possibly to major respiratory diseases in all parts of the country.

And it said studies also have shown vegetation and property damage attributable to such pollution in 27 states and the District of Columbia.

WOULD APPLY TO ALL

The federal rules would apply to all gasoline-powered automobiles and light trucks, whether manufactured in or imported into the United States.

They were developed following this year's passage of the clean air act amendments which authorized regulation of vehicle discharges believed a hazard to health or welfare.

★ ★ ★

Among other things, the proposed standards would set maximum allowable rates for the discharge of two major automoative air pollutants —hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide. Hydrocarbons are a major ingredient in the formation of smog; carbon monoxide is a lethal gas.

The proposed standards for engines of 140 or more cubic inches cylinder displacement would limit tailpipe exhaust of hydrocarbons to an average of not more than 275 parts per million of exhaust and carbon monoxide to an average of 1.5 per cent by volume over the entire life of the vehicle.

The average car without an exhaust control system gives off about 800 parts per million of hydrocarbons and 3.5 per cent of carbon monoxide from its exhaust.

Less stringent standards were developed for smaller engines, including the small imported cars, because they discharge smaller volume of pollutants than the larger engines, the department said.

★ ★ ★

Gardner warned that stiffer controls will be needed before 1980 when motor vehicles will be so numerous as to make the present standards inadequate.

Said the secretary: "That will pose an even more serious problem for the motor vehicle industry, and they should begin thinking about it now."

Senate Dems Set to Block Appointment

LANSING (AP)—Senate Democrats plan to block confirmation of Maj. Gen. Clarence Schnipke as Michigan director of military affairs until court tests of his predecessor's firing are complete.

Majority Leader Sen. Raymond Dzendzel, D-Detroit, confirmed Thursday that his forces do not think Schnipke should get the job until Maj. Gen. Ronald McDonald, ousted by Gov. George Romney, has exhausted his appeals.

Democrats would have rejected Schnipke Thursday, said Dzendzel, but they did not have the required 20 votes present as the Legislature formally adjourned for the year.

When lawmakers return Jan. 12, there will be three days remaining before Schnipke would automatically take office.

HELD HEARING

Romney fired McDonald as adjutant general of the Michigan National Guard earlier this year after a lengthy hearing into National Guard irregularities. McDonald has twin cases in Appeals Court, one objecting to the hearing, the other to Schnipke's right to hold office.

Romney first named Schnipke adjutant general, then director of the state's military department, a new title created by government reorganization.

Dzendzel said Democrats have nothing personally against Schnipke. But he disagreed with Romney's firing of McDonald.

NATIONAL WEATHER—Rain is forecast tonight for the Mississippi valleys. Snow is expected to fall over the Great north Atlantic coastal region, the Ohio, Tennessee, and lower Lakes region, the upper Mississippi Valley, the northern Rockies and the Pacific Northwest.

36 Are Plucked From Sea as Vessel Rams Into Reef

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The 96-foot sailing vessel Mandalay smashed into a coral reef 20 miles southeast of Miami today, but Coast Guard helicopters saved all 25 passengers and 11 crewmen from angry seas.

The vessel, part of the fleet of Windjammer Cruises, was on a 50-mile run from Bimini Island in the Bahamas to Miami when she hit the reef about 3 a.m.

★ ★ ★

Twenty-five were flown to Homestead Air Force Base south of here. Eleven others were taken in a patrol boat to the Coast Guard base at Miami Beach. All appeared in good condition.

"It was a frightful experience," said Walter H. Ballard, president of the W. H. B. Chemical Corp. of Westchester, N.Y.

'PITCH DARK'

"We were afraid the boat would fall apart. It was pitch dark and we were afraid of sharks."

"We did some praying," added M. C. Probst, 59, a teacher from Mansfield, Ohio. "We thank God we're alive."

★ ★ ★

Probst said seas ran from three to six feet, but the Coast Guard completed the rescue operation in 3½ hours after the Mandalay first rammed into the rocks.

The Mandalay was the fourth of the Windjammer Cruises boats to run into trouble in five years. The line's owner, Capt. Michael Burke, is in several lawsuits resulting from troubles at sea.

AWAKE IN CABIN

Clair Hall, 59, Indianapolis, Ind., real estate man, said he and his wife were awake in their cabin when "we felt a couple of bumps like the keel was hitting."

"Someone yelled for the captain," he said, "and he came quickly and tried to pull the sails down. But every time we hit, we hit harder.

★ ★ ★

"The waves drove us in until we hit so hard we were fast.

"But the only scarey thing was getting into the life raft. The waves rolled over the reef. I got hit by one that seemed 10 feet over my head, and it knocked me flat in the raft."

SON ASLEEP

When the Halls first felt the jolt of the vessel against the barrier reef, their son, John, 13, was asleep in the cabin.

"My husband and I were on deck and when big waves hit the boat we would joke, 'we just hit a truck,' " Mrs. Hall said.

★ ★ ★

"When we felt it slam onto the rocks, we said, 'There's that truck again'."

All passengers were on deck in less than 10 minutes, she said. While the rafts were being inflated, they stood on the high side of the sharply tilting vessel and waves broke across the deck.

LAST TO LEAVE

Four young skindivers were among the last to leave the vessel.

"It's a good thing I had my snorkel with me," said one of them, Rene Shupak, 19, a University of Miami student.

★ ★ ★

Their life raft sank, they said, and they had to swim to a helicopter lift. The others were Jose Egozi, 27, Miami; Richard Quick, 27, of Newburgh, N.Y., and Tremper Seltzman, 28, of Rhinebeck, N.Y.

Drug Errors Not a Rarity

ror rate was cut by 87 per cent. This is an error rate of 1.8 per cent of the total opportunity for errors, Barker told the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Other kinds of errors include failure to give prescribed drugs, giving the wrong drug to a patient, or too much, or too little of the prescribed drug, and giving a drug to the wrong patient.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Barker's coauthors were Dr. Wilson Kimbrough, research assistant for psychology, and Dr. William Heller, chief investigator of drug systems research at the Little Rock hospital.

FOUR DEATHS

"Recently, in Pontiac, Mich., and in Boston," Dr. Barker reported, "a total of four persons died from medication errors.

"From the published reports of the Michigan deaths, it appears that someone put ether in a bottle labeled Surital — just 'temporarily,' of course.

"However, our observers confirmed that such carelessness with labeling is common, and so such needless deaths will continue to occur."

★ ★ ★

At the Arkansas medical center, the new experimental centralized unit-dose dispensing system has been in operation two months.

SHARP REDUCTION

A sharp reduction in errors covered 3,043 doses given in that time, compared with 10,348 given over a six-month period under the old system, Barker said.

Under the new system, each dose of drugs is delivered to the nurses in premeasured, packaged, labeled and ready-to administer form. Computer-controlled systems of medication could also help reduce error, he said.

Barker noted that no adverse reaction of serious consequences had been observed in the Florida study, made at the University of Florida Teaching Hospital.

★ ★ ★

The causes for errors are complex, he said. Some are due to mistakes by nurses, some to situations, such as busy times; orders that are in error or are misunderstood. Sometimes, there are no clues as to why an error occurred.

Most errors probably are not even known to anyone, including the nurses who made them, Barker added.

Coroner Now Rules Actress' Death Accident

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Marie McDonald's death last Oct. 21 was accidental, not probably suicide as previously ruled, says the county coroner.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Theodore Curphy said Thursday a team of consulting psychiatrists and psychologists "based their finding on a review of the victim's past life and her normal pattern of living."

★ ★ ★

Miss McDonald, 42, was found dead at her dressing table in her suburban home. The death certificate said she died of "active drug intoxication due to multiple drugs."

★ ★ ★

Dr. Curphy said the actress had been taking medication for some time, particularly following a gastric operation earlier this year.

'Big Theft Ring Is Broken Up'

FBI Says Millions in U. S. Goods Stolen

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — The FBI reports it has broken what it describes an inside theft ring which hauled away millions of dollars worth of government property from the Charleston Naval Shipyard.

Twenty-six men were indicted by a federal grand jury in Charleston Thursday in connection with the alleged thefts.

★ ★ ★

Among those indicted is Henry H. Harris, director of the naval supply center's storage division, and three marine engine dealers.

The FBI said that 20 of those indicted worked at the naval shipyard and that Harris "played an important role in the conspiracy by using his authority as director to transfer codefendants to various places and by calling 'safety meetings' of personnel not involved to facilitate the thefts and removal of property."

ARREST 11

FBI agents quickly rounded up 11 of the men and said they hoped to arrest four others. Elven had been arrested previously and are free on bond.

The arrests climaxed a yearlong investigation of government warehouse pilfering which allegedly took place between 1959-1964.

Much of the property, the FBI said, was sold to or through the three marine engine dealers, all indicted. They are Lamar Dennis of New Orleans, La.; Philip Bodne of Charleston and Miami, Fla.; and Melvin McEuen of Long Beach, Calif.

The bureau said the stolen goods included diesel engine parts, typewriters, insulated jugs, and brass and metal fixtures, plates and rods. It said $250,000 of property has been recovered.

WIDELY PEDDLED

The stolen property was allegedly sold to purchasers in Florida, California, Virginia, Louisiana, Texas and Oregon.

Three commercial truck drivers were also among those indicted. The FBI said they would drive into the shipyard during one of Harris' "safety meetings," load up at a warehouse without authorization and drive away.

ble changes in the French attitude toward Viet Nam, Goldberg suggessted that reporters ask the French.

TALKED MORE

Goldberg was little more communicative after his meeting of an hour and 20 minutes with De Gaulle.

He said he had told the French leader of "President Johnson's earnest desire to seek an early and honorable settlement of the Vietnamese conflict" and asserted that such settlement can be achieved only "at the conference table without prior conditions."

Goldberg said De Gaulle "of course expressed his own view which I will report to President Johnson."

The envoy carried a message from Johnson to De Gaulle but it was not disclosed.

CANNOT SPEAK

"I cannot speak for the general," Goldberg told newsmen who asked whether De Gaulle had made any constructive suggestions for ending the Viet Nam war.

Goldberg is flying home tonight.

Harriman's next move was announced by the U.S. Embassy in New Delhi. An informant, who had reported the plan earlier, said the hurried trip was necessary because Shastri is leaving Monday for Tashkent, U.S.S.R., for a summit meeting with President Ayub Khan of Pakistan. The embassy said Harriman will stay only a day or two.

India, along with Poland which Harriman has already visited, and Canada where presidential assistant McGeorge Bundy has been, is a member of the three-nation control commission set up in 1954 for Southeast Asia.

Somewhat in line with the attitude of De Gaulle, Shastri has been critical in the past of certain aspects of American policy in Viet Nam.

Art Group's Program for Youth Is Upgraded

BIRMINGHAM —The Bloomfield Art Association has revamped its growing young people's program along the lines of the adult schedule for the upcoming winter term.

Five experienced, working artists have been added to the present staff of six to teach in the expanded program. The term starts Jan. 17 and will continue for 10 weeks.

Advanced students will work from live models for the first time in a new portraiture course, as well as the classes in oil painting and drawing and perspective.

The portraiture instructor is painter - sculptor Patricia Burnett.

★ ★ ★

Additional classes in introduction to art are being offered this term to met the increased demand.

COURSES VARIED

Placed according to age, youngster 6 to 12 learn the fun of art by working in sculpture, drawing, painting, printmaking, ceramics, weaving, metal work and hand design. Class times are once a week after school or Saturdays.

Creative casting —miniature sculpture and jewelry — is offered for the first time for the 13-to-18 year-old group. All phases of casting miniature sculpture in gold, silver bronze will be explored from design to casting and finishing.

Another innovation is a printmaking class for young people. Uses and techniques of silk screening and relief painting processes will be featured.

★ ★ ★

Printmaker and potter James Powell, another new instructor, will also teach students to construct their own printmaking equipment.

POTTERY IS POPULAR

Pottery, a popular repeat course for beginners and advanced students, 12 to 18, teaches both hand building and thrown techniques. This term, staff member William Clover is introducing Raku, an old Japanese process of firing and salt glazing.

★ ★ ★

Other courses available for young people are Exploring New Materials, a class comprised of study and creative work in such media as collage, watercolor, egg tempera, inks and resists, and drawing and perspective, in which the class reviews Renaissance and other systems of perspective and applies them to a wide range of subjects.

The association office is at 1516 S. Cranbrook.

Trade Efforts Said Lacking

Put Office Abroad, State Solons Urge

LANSING (AP) — A Senate committee wants Michigan to establish a trade-promotion office in Europe.

Seven senators, led by Sen. Gilbert Bursley, R-Ann Arbor, chairman of the Committee on International Commerce, visited New York and nine western European countries for three weeks this fall.

Their report given the Senate Thursday declared that "Michigan's sales efforts are not meeting fully the challenge of the international market place. In a rising European market, Michigan's proportionate share of sales appear to be declining," it said.

The report said there was "little evidence of positive programs, public or private, designed to cash in on these (European trade) opportunities."

HEAR REPORTS

Business and government experts abroad told the committee that small and medium-sized producers are especially not exploiting potential markets.

The report said the state departments of commerce, agriculture and tourism should establish international divisions or offices.

It called for a Michigan office in Europe under direction of the Department of Commerce, a nonprofit joint business-government corporation for promotion purposes and an institute for international commerce at a state university.

Brussels or Amsterdam were suggested as sites for the European office.

Local Bank Announces 2 Promotions

Two promotions at Pontiac State Bank were announced today by Edward E. Barker Jr., president.

Mrs. Juanita B. Tarlton, 3285 Airport, Waterford Township, has been named assistant cashier.

William L. Shaw, 139 Draper, was named manager of the bank's Opdyke-Walton office.

MRS. TARLTON　　SHAW

Mrs. Tarlton joined the bank in 1955 and worked as assistant to the manager of the Drayton Plains office for nine years. For the last year she has been in the mortgage department at the main office.

She has a son and daughter, and is a member of the executive board of the Pontiac Women's Bowling Association.

JOINED BANK

Shaw joined the bank in 1962 and worked as assistant manager at the Baldwin Avenue office prior to his new appointment.

A member of the board of governors and chairman of school relations of the American Institute of Banking in Oakland County, he is presently taking a course in business management at Oakland Community College.

Consumers Declares a 47½-Cent Dividend

The board of directors of Consumers Power Co. has declared a quarterly dividend of 47½ cents a share on the company's common stock, payable Feb. 21, to stockholders of record Jan. 1

The rate in the preceding quarter was 45 cents per share. There are 20,567,5650 shares of common stock outstanding.

Year of Records Ending

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The United States rings out tonight its most prosperous year. Records fell right and left. But problems there were aplenty and at year-end tensions were growing.

DAWSON

There was a lot of excitement in 1965, especially in the stock market, where prices swung widely and trading volume soared. And government and business squared off for some notable showdowns over wages, prices, interest rates, antitrust actions, overseas investments — with signs of bitter battles to come.

★ ★ ★

Still, 1965 turned out better on the business front than most people expected just a year ago tonight. And all the worries today about the top uncertainty — the course of the Viet Nam war — may make executives wary of adopting fixed patterns for their firms but generally confident that one way or another the 1966 economy as a whole will outdo even the record year now ending.

Americans this year produced some $672 billion in goods and services, up from $628.7 billion in 1964, Many think 1966 might see this Gross National Product soar to the $715 billion range.

INCOME HIGH

Personal incomes rose almost steadily all year to a record $540 billion, against $495 billion in 1964. The jobless rate, a major problem last winter, at yearend was down around 4 per cent, lowest level in years. And labor shortages were plaguing many employers needing highly skilled workers.

Business profits kept rising all year to total around $45 billion after taxes, up from $37 billion in 1964. Wage increases averaged around 4.2 per cent, largest in several years, and a faster rate than either prices or productivity were setting.

★ ★ ★

The year started out with French President Charles de Gaulle calling for a world monetary system based on gold, and turning in France's surplus dollars for the metal. The U.S. Treasury had one of its sharpest gold losses in years.

So fast were Yankee dollars flowing overseas that President Johnson called on U.S. corporations voluntarily to hold down overseas investments, and on U.S. banks to trim foreign loans and the buying of foreign securities. At yearend these controls, still called voluntary, were being further tightened.

SPURS BUSINESS

The U.S. government spurred domestic investments and consumer buying by relaxing in February depreciation rules for tax purposes and clipping $1.75-billion off excise tax collections in June, with more coming next month. Business stepped up buying equipment, and consumers kept retail sales mounting. At yearend some government officials were worrying more about blocking the threat of inflation than about stimulating a civilian economy that could conflict with a military one.

Government also collided with some industries over its guidelines on wages and prices. The White House monitored the steel wage talks. It talked of releasing tons of aluminum and copper and wheat from its strategic stockpiles, and price hikes in the metals were quickly rescinded. But all through the business world there was uneasiness lest this foreshadowed more controls over wage and prices than did the guidelines by themselves.

★ ★ ★

A clash over easy money vs. dear money enlivened the final month of the year. The Federal Reserve Board raised basic interest rates, saying it feared the economy would overheat and touch off a boom with inflation. The White House deplored this, saying economic expansion still needed cheaper money and lots of credit.

All of the year's events had their moments of reaction by the stock market. January saw stock prices setting a record high. Domestic and international crises set prices back for a time and then they hit a new high in May only to slide badly through June.

PRICES HIGHER

Prices made still higher ground in October, again in November, and after much seesawing managed a record high at Christmas time.

Volume of trading was terrific much of the year, adding to the fears at yearend that speculative forces might be at work — one of the ingredients of past booms and busts.

★ ★ ★

So the year drew to a close with most Americans prosperous, many nervous, a majority confident, but with almost no one dead sure he had all the answers.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "Our two married children are happy and prosperous. We have been giving them the maximum gift allowance from our large block of fine life insurance stocks listed below. We are retired with more than enough income outside of our stock list. Besides insurance stocks we own American Telephone; General Motors; General Foods; General Telephone; General Electric; U.S. Steel; Comsat. Should we take our profit in General Foods? Do you think we should buy more life insurance stock and more Telephone and Comsat now that the price is lower?" .W.T.

A) You have at present well over $500,000 in life insurance stocks, which appears disproportionate. I like Telephone and Comsat as long-range holdings, but you are already sufficiently represented in these situations and you should diversify. I would hold General Foods which is an excellent growth vehicle.

Switch U. S. Steel into Corn Products for better growth and with other funds I suggest stocks for capital enhancement, such as Eastman Kodak and Honeywell.

Q) "I am single and in seven years I will retire with my income in a much reduced bracket. I will then have a higher exemption on federal income tax. It occurred to me that from a tax standpoint, I would be better off holding Series E savings bonds than holding cash in the bank. Interest on these bonds may be deferred to maturity and is not until then subject to federal income tax. Is my idea sound?" G.R.

A) I believe your reasoning is entirely sound. I have received many letters along these lines since I pointed out that accruals on Series E bonds, like all other government bond interest, is subject to federal income tax.

Nevertheless, it is also true that if people so arrange their purchases that maturities fall into their retired low-income years, they may pay little or no tax on their deferred interest.

Furs valued at $215 were reported stolen yesterday afternoon from Waite's Department Store, 70 N. Saginaw.

Pontiac police are investigating theft of 20 batteries, valued at $200, from Pontiac Scrap, 135 Branch.

Falling Limb Lot of Trouble

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — A falling tree limb in a residential area here involved four different city departments.

★ ★ ★

The limb crashed through a city light wire starting a small fire. The fire department was called.

Police stood guard until the firemen arrived.

★ ★ ★

The city lighting department was called to repair the broken line, and the city street department was called to sweep up the debris.

Business Notes

A 38-year-old Bloomfield Township man has been named to the board of directors of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Bank.

ADAMS

The appointment of Charles F. Adams, 6139 Dakota Circle, executive vice president of MacManus, John & Adams, was announced yesterday by bank officials.

John McCarthy of 5506 Farmers Lane, Bloomfield Township has been named general sales manager of radio station WJR, Detroit. He previously held similar posts for radio stations in Albany, N.Y., and Louisville, Ky.

Orville Proksch, 1183 Portsmouth, Avon Township, has been appointed sales manager of the Ray O'Neil Realty firm, 3520 Pontiac Lake, Waterford Township. Proksch joined the O'Neil staff in 1958.

Police News on Computer

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — Information in the Chattanooga Police Department's new central records bureau ranges from wanted criminals to "who has been bitten by a dog today."

The department was the first in Tennessee to adopt the new system of police reporting and records keeping recommended by the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

Each complaint called in to the police station is recorded on punched computer cards in the central information center.

Dog Trained to Take Pill

ACTION, Ind. (AP) — Boots, a small dog belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Duane Julius, takes his own medicine while they are at work.

There was no one to give Boots his digitalis pill at noon, so Julius trained his dog to expect a marshmallow promptly at that time.

Then he devised a clock mechanism to open the lid of a box. Boots is there when the clock strikes, ready for his pill concealed in the marshmallow.

Savings Association Hikes Interest Rate

A new higher earning rate on savings has been announced by Capitol Savings and Loan Association, 75 W. Huron.

Beginning tomorrow, funds will earn 4.4 per cent compounded quarterly compared with the previous rate of 4.25 per cent.

★ ★ ★

In making the announcement, Clifford W. McKibbin, president of the association, said that the continued healthy growth of the nation's economy and the steady increase in savings accounts and earnings have made the rate increase possible.

Redwood Trees Face LBJ 'Ax'

Budget Bureau Puts Ceiling on Park Fund

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson's economy hatchet may cut down plans for saving more of California's majestic redwood trees from the woodman's axe.

The Budget Bureau, it was learned today, has put a ceiling — reported to be $50 million — on the National Park Service's spending plans for a proposed Redwood National Park.

The Park Service's most ambitious plan, calling for a 93,400-acre park, was estimated to cost about $120 million. However, spokesmen for the California redwood lumber industry have scoffed at the Park Service estimate and contended it would cost at least $200 million.

If the Budget Bureau holds fast to the $50 million ceiling, the Park Service would probably be limited to a modification of the smallest of three park proposals it has advanced for consideration.

★ ★ ★

That proposal, calling for a 61,851-acre park, is certain to run into trouble with conservationists and Rep. Jeffrey Cohelan, D-Calif., who has introduced legislation to provide for a 90,000-acre park.

20,000 ACRES AFFECTED

One effect of a $50-million ceiling on the proposed national park might be elimination of more than 20,000 acres of virgin growth from the south unit of the proposed two-unit park.

Cohelan and some conservationists have insisted that a large stand of virgin redwoods on Redwood Creek south of the existing Prairie Creek Redwoods State Park be included in the national park. It is in this area, they say, that the world's tallest trees — including one towering 367 feet skyward — are to be found.

If the Park Service is limited to the smallest of its three park plans, about 16,750 acres of virgin growth in the Redwood Creek area would be cut out of the park.

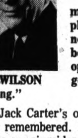
Says 'People' Song Will Bid 'Hello, Dolly' Goodby

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Composer Julie Styne told me a year ago that the "Funny Girl" hit, "People Who Need People," would eventually be a bigger standard than Jerry Herman's "Hello, Dolly!" — which at the time seemed a bit sacrilegious.



WILSON

But after Mimi Hines' successful singing of "People" when she took over the Barbra Streisand role, Styne repeated it more strongly:

" 'Dolly' is one of those songs which reminds you of so many other songs. But 'People' is a first-time song. Twenty years from now when we talk about the great songs, nobody is going to play 'Mairzy Doats.' In my opinion, 'Hello Dolly!' is in the same category as 'Mairzy Doats'—it's a good novelty song."

Jack Carter's opening at the Americana Royal Box will be long remembered. His bustaceous glamour girl singer Marlene made one ringsider very angry by flirting with him to the point that she blew her breath on his glasses and fogged them. Jack also had some lines that startled me, such as: "The Pope didn't go to California because he wasn't sure he could get an audience with Sinatra."

Spoofing Robert Goulet's stiff-legged walk, Carter said, "Sir Lancelot . . . he doesn't dancelot . . . because he's got rust in his pancelot." Carter privately told me that he's trying to make up with his wife Paula Stewart who's expecting in Hollywood . . . "I've been a naughty boy," he said. "Even when married, I've always had one foot out the door."

★ ★ ★

Well, that's the way it's done, you know . . . Henry Ford and his divorced wife, Anne McDonnell Ford, were on the receiving line . . . while his present wife, Christina Ford, was off in another section of the big pre-nuptial party at Delmonico's with friends . . . at the $25,000 shindig preceding dtr. Anne Ford's marriage to stock broker Giancarlo Uzielli.

★ ★ ★

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Jack Lemmon's wanted to play the dallying dentist in the "Cactus Flower" movie — but Columbia can't film it for another four years . . . Best performance in "The Chase" won't be seen (where one of the stars got belted for making a pass at another star) . . . The White House switchboard no longer accepts calls for Chef Rene Verdon, who's quitting. (The Loew's hotel chain made him a fat, firm offer).

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Buying a new dress for your wife is like buying a new car—the base price may be less than the accessories.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "Love your enemies — and they'll wonder what kind of a deal you're trying to pull."—Quote.

EARL'S PEARLS: The current trend in women's dresses makes you wonder where they'll be up to next.

Review Nixed on Discharge

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Navy review board has refused to act on a petition which would have given an honorable Marine Corps discharge to presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, it was learned yesterday.

The board said the petition, submitted by Oswald's mother, presented no new evidence. Oswald's earlier attempt to have his 1959 Marine Corps discharge changed from undesirable to honorable was also turned down.

★ ★ ★

The Navy said the latest petition has been sent to the board of corrections of naval records "which is now assembling all information on the case and will handle the matter in routine fashion."

There was no indication of when the petition would be finally disposed of. The earlier rejection of the Oswald petition was made by a military board while President John F. Kennedy was still alive.

Sen. Carl Hayden of Arizona was a county sheriff when Arizona was still a territory.
