Says Censure Unit Chairman Was 'Derelict'

Utah Senator Charges Joe Won't Be Happy Until Someone Is Shot

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy accused Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) today of being "derelict in his duty" in saying he didn't know if anyone was at fault in the Peress case.

Watkins fired back: "I don't believe you can ever be satisfied unless you can find somebody who could be shot or hung."

The two big figures in the McCarthy censure row confronted one another at a suddenly called hearing of McCarthy's Investigations subcommittee.

McCarthy said he scheduled it to find out whether Watkins could throw any light on who was responsible for the promotion and honorable discharge of Maj. Irving Peress, an Army dentist who had refused to say whether he had Communist connections.

Watkins told the Wisconsin senator the way to fix the responsibility was to question 30 Army officers whose names were submitted to the McCarthy subcommittee last June by Secretary of the Army Stevens.

Watkins said Stevens had advised that the list included all officers involved in the Peress case.

Meanwhile, Sen. Case (R-SD) announced today he will vote against one of the charges upon which he joined as a member of the Watkins inquiry committee in recommending censure for Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis). This is the count of alleged or guilty of the murder of his wife?

4 Navy Airmen Rescued at Sea by Coast Guard

Fifth Crewman Aboard Downed Plane Killed; Search Craft Missing

NORFOLK, Va. (INS)—The Coast Guard today rescued four of the five crewmen aboard a Navy patrol plane lost last night off the North Carolina coast.

A spokesman for the fifth naval district in Norfolk said the four airmen were floating in a life raft five miles south of Buff Point, N. C., when they were picked up shortly after 7 a. m. (EST) by a Coast Guard plane.

The spokesman said that the fifth member of the plane's crew lost his life.

The Navy identified the survivors as:

Lt. Robert Lawton, the pilot, of Towson, Md.; Lt. Cmdr. George Sanford Smith, Fairfax, Va.; Lt. Albert Winston Funkhouser, Edgewater, Md., and Airman Apprentice Dimitrius Georgius Sotiropoulos, Washington, D.C.

Two other fliers, who joined in the search for the downed patrol craft, also are feared lost. They were aboard a two-seater fighter plane which has been missing since last night.

Two of the four survivors appeared to be in good health. One crewman suffered a head injury while another had a broken leg.

The Navy said that the survivors were spotted in Pamlico Sound by a Coast Guard plane based at Elizabeth City, N. C., where the survivors were taken.

Meanwhile, a sea-air hunt continues for the two Marine Corps fliers aboard the missing search plane.

The Navy said it was not known why the crew of the Navy PB-2 were forced to ditch the plane about 6:30 p.m. yesterday.

The F3D Skynight Marine jet fighter, which was sent from Cherry Point, N. C., to join in the search, was reported missing hours after it was due to return to its base.

Openings Sealed to Choke Blaze After Explosion

Families Must Wait for Underground Fire to End to Recover Bodies

FARMINGTON, W. Va. (UP)—Grief-stricken families of 15 men entombed by an explosion at the Jamison Coal and Coke Co. No. 9 mine kept a lonely vigil today waiting for a raging underground fire to be choked out so rescue squads can bring out the bodies of the victims.

All five entrances to the large mine, which recently had undergone a $4,000,000 remodeling to make it safe, were sealed off with steel and concrete yesterday after state and federal mine officials and the United Mine Workers Union decided it was not safe to send additional rescue squads into the pit.

The 15 men, all maintenance workers, were trapped in the mine when an explosion, believed to have been caused by an accumulation of methane gas, belched black smoke and flames into the sky through the main portal and a fan house Saturday afternoon.

Howard Jenkins, a 38-year-old father of four children, was the first known victim. He was killed while standing in the fan house. The 16 deaths made it the worst mining disaster in West Virginia in ten years.

Officials said it may take days or even as long as a month for the fire to be extinguished by shutting off the air, depending on how big the fire was and how much air already was in the mine.

They will keep a constant check on the atmosphere in the mine by taking air samples at various bore holes to see when it will be safe to crack the concrete seals.

A big crane was used to lower fabricated steel plates over the top of the ventilating and hoisting shaft at the portal. They were sealed tight with concrete. The main slope was covered with earth.

Two rescue squads went into the pit through the tipple entrance four hours after the blast but were driven back after penetrating about one-quarter mile when their oxygen supply ran out. Two reserve teams

Over $1 Million Being Sent to Yule Club Members Here

Some 12,446 Pontiac and Oakland County residents began receiving early Yule presents today in the form of Christmas Club Fund checks.

Officials at Pontiac's two main banks say that more than $1 million worth of checks will be mailed out to members within the next 10 days.

Club members deposit set amounts weekly or bi-weekly for a year and the savings are mailed out in November in the form of checks.

Community National Bank officials announced today that they mailed 8,165 checks, totalling $704,536 Saturday.

Another $358,268 will be mailed by Pontiac State Bank next Saturday. Membership there totaled 4,341.

Sinking Builds China Tension

TAIPEI, Formosa (UP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's military chiefs met today to cope with an emergency caused by the sinking of a U.S.-built Nationalist warship by four Communist Chinese torpedo boats.

Latest unconfirmed reports said Nationalist warplanes and seaplanes had picked up all but 28 of the 200 crewmen who were aboard the destroyer-escort Taiping when it was attacked early Sunday.

The Taiping, formerly the U.S.S. Decker, went down north of the Nationalist-held Tachen Islands, 200 miles north of Formosa, which have been under Communist artillery fire for several weeks.

Sinking of the Taiping was the third spectacular Communist move in the recent outbreak of fighting around Chiang's outpost islands. Earlier the Reds had heavily shelled Quemoy Island, 115 miles west of Formosa, and bombed the northernmost Tachen Islands.

Nationalist naval authorities pointed out more than a year ago that fast motor torpedo boats would seriously threaten Nationalist naval supremacy in the Formosa Straights.

The action of the Red torpedo boats surprised military circles in Taipei, even though it had been reported that the Russians were handing over these craft to the Red Chinese in increasing numbers.

Police Seek Two in Holdup Case

One Believed Wounded as Gunfight Follows Robbery

Willhite, of 830 Orlando St., said he fired four shots from his .22-caliber pistol at the pair as they fled toward their car after they took $18 from the cash register.

He told police their dark colored auto was driven by a woman.

The victim said one of the men fell when presumably hit and was carried to the car by his companion. Willhite said he retreated back into the station and ducked behind a counter when the fleeing bandits returned his fire. One of the men, he said, was armed with a .45-caliber pistol.

According to Willhite, the pair stopped at his station at about 1 a.m. on the pretense of purchasing gas. They took the money after forcing their victim, alone at the time, back into the station.

Willhite described both as being about 20-25 years old and wearing jackets. The woman, he said, was wearing a red coat.

One Killed, Two Wounded at Opening of Buck Season

By UNITED PRESS

At least one hunter was dead and two were injured Monday as an estimated 400,000 deer hunters opened the Nov. 15-30 buck season.

The first of a predicted 15 hunting fatalities occurred Sunday, the day before the season actually got under way.

Rudolph Franson, 47, Ishpeming, was accidentally shot and killed by a hunting companion in their camp in Marquette County, State Police reported.

Police said Philip de Gabriele picked up a loaded .22 automatic pistol from a table to put it in a holster. The weapon discharged, striking Franson in the neck, police said.

Injured were:

Vernon Langworthy, 19, Muskegon, who police said was shining deer when he was struck by buckshot fired by an unidentified person in Osceola County.

Hunters, who began lining up at the Straits of Mackinac Saturday in one of the worst traffic jams in state history, legally opened fire at 6 a.m. Monday.

Conservation Department officials predicted at least 41,000 bucks would fall in the northern Lower Peninsula and more than 26,000 would be killed in the Upper Peninsula.

Area Hunters Report Early Kills of Deer

Three Pontiac area hunters reported early successes this morning as the statewide deer season opened.

Honors for bagging the 1st buck were shared by Leslie Hudson of 69 West Colgate street and Noah Sturgeon of 1219 Bamford drive. Each downed a 4-pointer at 7:45 o'clock. Hudson got his at Houghton Lake, while Sturgeon was hunting near Oscoda.

Gaylord Vreeland of Walled Lake shot the 1st buck reported in Oakland County. Vreeland brought down an 8-pointer near Milford at 9 a.m.

23 Lose Lives Over Weekend

Mother and 4 Children Perish in One Michigan Highway Accident

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four multiple-death highway accidents which claimed the lives of 12 persons Sunday pushed Michigan's weekend fatality count to at least 23.

Traffic claimed at least 20 victims, a home fire accounted for another, and two men died in falls.

Four deer hunters were killed early Sunday in a collision near Ishpeming and a mother and four of her six children were fatally injured in another collision near Bad Axe.

The four deer hunters killed on U.S.21 between Ishpeming and Negaunee early Sunday in a two-car crash were Joseph E. Beltrame Jr., 19, of Gwinn, Floyd A. Ellers, 49, of Flushing; Bernard W. Owens 40, of Flint, and William Slattery, 39, of Mount Morris.

Dale Kammers and Marguerite Bumpstead, both of Sault Ste. Marie, were killed in a four-car collision on M28, about 12 miles west of the Soo Sunday.

Henry Myles, 29, of Detroit, was fatally injured Sunday when his car crashed into a utility pole in Detroit.

Mrs. Juanita Whittaker, 21, of Detroit was killed early Sunday when a car in which she was riding hit a tree on Belle Isle.

Sheppard Case Recalls Other Crime Classics

Is Dr. Sam Sheppard innocent murder trials that made as large —or larger — an impact on the American public during the last 30 years.

Sensations of their days were New Jersey's Hall-Mills Case, involving a handsome young minister and his young choir girl sweetheart . . . the Snyder-Gray murder in which a plain, middle-aged New York suburban housewife helped club her husband to death for love of a persuasive traveling salesman . . . the Hauptmann trial for the kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby . . . Chicago's sordid Loeb-Leopold case . . the fantastic Cincinnati murder trial of the onetime "bootleg king," George Remus.

James L. Kilgallen, who will bring these American murder trial classics into fresh focus against the backdrop of the Sheppard case, covered most of these famous trials, and provides unusual background glimpses at the principals involved.

Full Review Planned in Haymes Deporting

The move made unnecessary the scheduled legal arguments on whether a restraining order granted last week should be replaced by an injunction.

Pheasant Hunter Bags Year's First With Car

TAYLOR TOWNSHIP (INS) — Thirty-year-old William Meadows of Taylor Township is an ardent pheasant hunter who tramped through Michigan woods this year without bagging a bird.

Yesterday, Meadows got his first pheasant. It crashed into the windshield of his car on the Edsel Ford Expressway near Detroit, sending him to Wyandotte General Hospital with face and neck cuts.

Rep. Borgman Struck With Revolver in Home; Farmer Held

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Police said State Rep. Edward A. Borgman (R-Grand Rapids) was attacked at his home today by a man who struck him with a revolver and attempted to shoot him as he lay on the floor.

Louis DeBoer, 43, of Grant was held for investigation of carrying a concealed weapon and felonious assault with a deadly weapon.

Mrs. Borgman told officers she answered the door and was brushed aside by DeBoer, who charged in to attack her husband. She said the man struck Borgman with a revolver and attempted to fire it at the fallen legislator.

Police said Borgman's life was spared because the gun misfired five times.

Rushed to a hospital, Borgman was described as in "good condition" after treatment for a wound in the left temple where he was struck by the gun.

Police said DeBoer told them he had had bad luck with crops since, had fallen behind in payments and was threatened with foreclosure of a mortgage he signed in purchasing the farm.

The Pontiac Area United Fund was an estimated $20,000 short of its $525,823 goal today as workers continued to tabulate late reports from solicitors.

The Detroit Edison Co.'s gift amounted to $2,600, with employes donating an additional $287.50.

Some 59 firms and organizations with average employe donations of $8 or over were cited by Campaign Manager Frank S. Lyndall.

More names will be announced later. Of the 59, the average donation ranged from $6 to $23.

In Hurry to Get Home

Army-Bound Youth Eludes Searchers in Stolen Plane

GLADSTONE (AP)—An 18-year-old Gladstone boy who had "fooled around planes some" yesterday flew a sleek stolen plane from Grand Rapids to Gladstone, giving several Air Force jets the bird en route.

After landing the single-engine, $26,000 Beechcraft Bonanza at a small airstrip near this Upper Peninsula town, Darryl Spaulding calmly said:

State police, who arrested him on investigation of at least three charges, including grand larceny, said he told them he intended to fly home for a visit and then pilot the craft to Detroit, where he was scheduled to be inducted into the Army today.

The youth's rush trip of 300 miles weaving along the coastline of Lake Michigan had the Air Force, Civil Aeronautics Authority, state police and civilian pilots dizzy in an air and ground search for several hours.

A Lear mechanic at Kent County Airport said he heard the plane's engine start but figured Edward F. Conklin, chief pilot for Lear, was in it until it weaved erratically while taxiing for takeoff.

Air Force jets intercepted the light plane but Spaulding, with his lower air speed, was able to outmaneuver them, the Air Force said. The jets were forced to turn back because of low fuel supplies.

The plane finally was spotted by Fred Sensiea, a private pilot, on a landing strip near Gladstone.

Police said he readily admitted the unauthorized flight. They quoted him as saying he had no formal pilot training. He was removed to the Delta County Jail at Escanaba.

Slayer Will Die Christmas Eve

Jury Finds Husband Guilty of Killing Wife to Collect Life Insurance

A Circuit Court jury yesterday found 59-year-old Ross Hawkins guilty of murdering his wife and then faking an automobile accident to collect insurance on her life.

The jury, which deliberated 15 minutes, refused to recommend mercy, making it mandatory that Judge Homer Currie impose the death sentence.

Hawkins held two $1,000 policies on his wife, one only a month old, when she was killed Aug. 22.

"If you turn him loose," Dist. Atty. Joe McFarland told the jury, "he'll collect on a third generation"—a $1,000 policy on his grandson.

The district attorney referred to the mysterious death of Hawkins' son. The boy was killed while hunting with his father several years ago and Hawkins collected on a $10,000 policy.

* * *

Hawkins testified he has collected a total of $17,000 in insurance. He said he collected $10,000 for the death of his son, $750 for the burning of his service station and $1,250 for injuries received when he slipped on a banana peel while stepping from a railroad train.

Julius May Soon Appear on Paar's Morning Show

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS) — Julius La Rosa's been offered $5,000 a week to co-star mornings on the Jack Parr Show and Parr said he sure hopes Julius signs. . .

Big problem with the soon-due re-run films of I Love Lucy is what to call it the second time around. . .

"Panama Hattie" was pleasantly tuneful fooling Wednesday night on TV. Ethel Merman was her customary just perfect. Jack E. Leonard delivered a warmly solid comic impact. Art Carney got better billing but took second clowning honors. . . .

Why is it that the scores of old Broadway musicals were enough for an evening twice as long in the theater but when adapted to TV, tunes from other shows have to be interpolated—I Love You, for instance, transplanted to "Hattie" last night from "Mexican Hayride."

That's My Boy is being dropped by the sponsor, who first got irked when one of the show's stars bought a car other than the one being advertised on the show. . .

FCC commissioner R. E. Lee suggested TV should hire a czar to hold down irregularities inside the industry as done in racing, movies and comics. . .

The Baird Puppets earned $3,000 a week on Morning Show and were paid $21,000 for the seven cancelled weeks as of being dropped. . .

Someone should rate the TV ratings: Godfrey's two TV nighttime shows, 6th and 9th in ARB's poll, aren's even visible in Nielsen's top ten. . .

Peter Lind Hayes fills in for vacationing Arthur Gorfrey next week. . .

Berle's and Caesar's hours are TV's most expensive—$100,000 each before the network's stations even get paid. . .

Droves of Detroiters Want to Be Postmen

DETROIT (AP) — Lining up at the rate of 500 an hour, thousands of Detroiters today applied for holiday postal jobs in December. The line sometimes stretched for a block and a half.

Postmaster Edward L. Baker said about 11,500 extra carriers, clerks, truck drivers and special delivery messengers will be hired for the Christmas mail rush. They will get $1.56 an hour. Preference will go to veterans and applicants with Civil Service status.

Unemployment Drops

Unemployment continued its downward slide here this week as the local office of the Michigan Employment Security Exchange reported jobless claims hit a low of 2,145.

The total is down 491 from last week's 2,636, said Luther Olson, Pontiac office manager.

Newspaper Plant Destroyed by Fire

WINTER HAVEN, Fla. (AP)—Fire early today destroyed the plant of the Winter Haven Daily News-Chief injured two firemen and threatened to spread over an entire city block in the downtown section.

The two-story frame stucco newspaper plant, which fronts half a city block, also housed a small department store and children's shop with living quarters.

Origin of the fire was unknown but it was believed to have started in the pressroom.

W. E. Rynerson, publisher, said the loss of the News-Chief building would approach $100,000, which he said is covered by insurance.

India to Recruit 500,000 Volunteers for Reserves

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — India is to raise a 500,000-man national volunteer force in the next five years to aid in the defense of the country.

This was announced today following a meeting of the Central Advisory Committee for a Territorial Army, under the chairmanship of Prime Minister Nehru.

A committee resolution said the volunteer force—similar to the U.S. National Guard—could serve as a "potential nucleus for future defense thereby reducing dependence on a standing army."

The average American lives 68½ years, an increase of nearly four years over the average life expectancy 10 years ago.

'Shrimps' Take a Beating

By MURRAY FROMSON

While the United States and the Republic of Korea swing their oratorical roundhouses, it's the man in the street who takes the body blows.

His money has little value. The price of rice—his staff of life—is going up, when it should be going down after a good harvest. There is no fuel for trucks and buses, nor for lamps and stoves. The enormous machinery which pumps millions of American aid dollars into the country is stalled.

* * *

The heart of the dispute, the ROK government says, is the exchange rate of the Korean hwan. The Koreans want it held at the present 180 hwan to $1. They insist that if the United States paid at that rate for the hwan it has borrowed from the government, the Korean economy would flourish.

* * *

The United States wants a devaluation of the hwan to something like its open or black market rate of 500-700 to $1, which the United States calls "more realistic."

But, in addition, it lists three more "minimum" conditions that Korea must meet before Washington gives the green light to a 700 million dollar economic and military aid program for 1955.

Korea must:

1. Give full information on dollar holdings of the ROK treasury.

2. Take strong anti-inflation measures.

3. Agree to buy goods in all non-Communist nations, including Japan.

* * *

The Koreans say the United States is trying to intimidate them and shove them around. Top U.S. officials say the United States is sick and tired of being kicked in the shins by the people it is trying to help.

The ROK government Oct. 1 refused to advance the U.S. 8th Army any more hwan until the army paid up its back accounts at the 180-1 rate. The United States in turn shut off gasoline and oil shipment to Korea to a trickle.

* * *

Gen. John E. Hull, U.S. Far East commander, hurried to Seoul for conferences with President Syngman Rhee. He left two days later, angrily terming his trip "a complete failure."

Hull began paying his 100,000 Korean employes in American greenbacks and treasury notes. The ROKs retaliated by cracking down on Koreans who accepted the currency. Hull then offered them payment in soap, cigarettes, blankets and toilet articles from post exchange supplies.

* * *

He also threatened to sell petroleum products on the Korean market to get hwan—at the 500-1 rate.

The ROKs softened somewhat under Hull's strong stand. Early this week they offered, and Hull accepted, an advance of 800-million hwan—"no strings attached."

But that is just about enough to meet one month's 8th Army payroll. It only postponed what must be the ultimate showdown.

The Koreans say they are willing to talk over hwan devaluation, providing the new rate would be made permanent. American officials won't buy it. They say a permanent rate would mean a permanent American subsidy of the Korean economy.

Tape Recordings Used as Correspondence Aid

LA MEA, Calif. (AP)—Tape recordings solved the correspondence problem for Navy Lt. (j.g.) John F. Taylor, a jet fighter pilot on the aircraft carrier Randolph, and Mrs. Taylor.

Mrs. Taylor said her husband "is a very poor letter writer" and that she herself prefers the 15-minute tape recordings they exchange ever other day—sent back and forth by air mail.

McCarthy Attacks Watkins

Utah Senator Charges Joe Won't Be Happy Until Someone Is Shot

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy accused Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) today of being "derelict in his duty" in saying he didn't know if anyone was at fault in the Peress case.

Watkins fired back: "I don't believe you can ever be satisfied unless you can find somebody who could be shot or hung."

The two big figures in the McCarthy censure row confronted one another at a suddenly called hearing of McCarthy's Investigations subcommittee.

McCarthy said he scheduled it to find out whether Watkins could throw any light on who was responsible for the promotion and honorable discharge of Maj. Irving Peress, an Army dentist who had refused to say whether he had Communist connections.

Watkins told the Wisconsin senator the way to fix the responsibility was to question 30 Army officers whose names were submitted to the McCarthy subcommittee last June by Secretary of the Army Stevens.

Watkins said Stevens had advised that the list included all officers involved in the Peress case.

Meanwhile, Sen. Case (R-SD) announced today he will vote against one of the charges upon which he joined as a member of the Watkins inquiry committee in recommending censure for Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis). This is the count of alleged or guilty of the murder of his wife?

As Americans ponder this question during the intriguing Cleveland trials, a great reporter goes back down the years to tell of other

4 Navy Airmen Rescued at Sea by Coast Guard

Fifth Crewman Aboard Downed Plane Killed; Search Craft Missing

NORFOLK, Va. (INS)—The Coast Guard today rescued four of the five crewmen aboard a Navy patrol plane lost last night off the North Carolina coast.

A spokesman for the fifth naval district in Norfolk said the four airmen were floating in a life raft five miles south of Buff Point, N. C., when they were picked up shortly after 7 a. m. (EST) by a Coast Guard plane.

The spokesman said that the fifth member of the plane's crew lost his life.

The Navy identified the survivors as:

Lt. Robert Lawton, the pilot, of Towson, Md.; Lt. Cmdr. George Sanford Smith, Fairfax, Va.; Lt. Albert Winston Funkhouser, Edgewater, Md., and Airman Apprentice Dimitrius Georgius Sotiropoulos, Washington, D.C.

Two other fliers, who joined in the search for the downed patrol craft, also are feared lost. They were aboard a two-seater fighter plane which has been missing since last night.

Two of the four survivors appeared to be in good health. One crewman suffered a head injury while another had a broken leg.

The Navy said that the survivors were spotted in Pamlico Sound by a Coast Guard plane based at Elizabeth City, N. C., where the survivors were taken.

Meanwhile, a sea-air hunt continues for the two Marine Corps fliers aboard the missing search plane.

The Navy said it was not known why the crew of the Navy PB-2 were forced to ditch the plane about 6:30 p.m. yesterday.

The F3D Skynight Marine jet fighter, which was sent from Cherry Point, N. C., to join in the search, was reported missing hours after it was due to return to its base.

Openings Sealed to Choke Blaze After Explosion

Families Must Wait for Underground Fire to End to Recover Bodies

FARMINGTON, W. Va. (UP)—Grief-stricken families of 15 men entombed by an explosion at the Jamison Coal and Coke Co. No. 9 mine kept a lonely vigil today waiting for a raging underground fire to be choked out so rescue squads can bring out the bodies of the victims.

All five entrances to the large mine, which recently had undergone a $4,000,000 remodeling to make it safe, were sealed off with steel and concrete yesterday after state and federal mine officials and the United Mine Workers Union decided it was not safe to send additional rescue squads into the pit.

The 15 men, all maintenance workers, were trapped in the mine when an explosion, believed to have been caused by an accumulation of methane gas, belched black smoke and flames into the sky through the main portal and a fan house Saturday afternoon.

Howard Jenkins, a 38-year-old father of four children, was the first known victim. He was killed while standing in the fan house. The 16 deaths made it the worst mining disaster in West Virginia in ten years.

Officials said it may take days or even as long as a month for the fire to be extinguished by shutting off the air, depending on how big the fire was and how much air already was in the mine.

They will keep a constant check on the atmosphere in the mine by taking air samples at various bore holes to see when it will be safe to crack the concrete seals.

A big crane was used to lower fabricated steel plates over the top of the ventilating and hoisting shaft at the portal. They were sealed tight with concrete. The main slope was covered with earth.

Two rescue squads went into the pit through the tipple entrance four hours after the blast but were driven back after penetrating about one-quarter mile when their oxygen supply ran out. Two reserve teams

Sinking Builds China Tension

TAIPEI, Formosa (UP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's military chiefs met today to cope with an emergency caused by the sinking of a U.S.-built Nationalist warship by four Communist Chinese torpedo boats.

Latest unconfirmed reports said Nationalist warplanes and seaplanes had picked up all but 28 of the 200 crewmen who were aboard the destroyer-escort Taiping when it was attacked early Sunday.

The Taiping, formerly the U.S.S. Decker, went down north of the Nationalist-held Tachen Islands, 200 miles north of Formosa, which have been under Communist artillery fire for several weeks.

Sinking of the Taiping was the third spectacular Communist move in the recent outbreak of fighting around Chiang's outpost islands. Earlier the Reds had heavily shelled Quemoy Island, 115 miles west of Formosa, and bombed the northernmost Tachen Islands.

Nationalist naval authorities pointed out more than a year ago that fast motor torpedo boats would seriously threaten Nationalist naval supremacy in the Formosa Straights.

The action of the Red torpedo boats surprised military circles in Taipei, even though it had been reported that the Russians were handing over these craft to the Red Chinese in increasing numbers.

Police Seek Two in Holdup Case

One Believed Wounded as Gunfight Follows Robbery

Willhite, of 830 Orlando St., said he fired four shots from his .22-caliber pistol at the pair as they fled toward their car after they took $18 from the cash register.

He told police their dark colored auto was driven by a woman.

The victim said one of the men fell when presumably hit and was carried to the car by his companion. Willhite said he retreated back into the station and ducked behind a counter when the fleeing bandits returned his fire. One of the men, he said, was armed with a .45-caliber pistol.

According to Willhite, the pair stopped at his station at about 1 a.m. on the pretense of purchasing gas. They took the money after forcing their victim, alone at the time, back into the station.

Willhite described both as being about 20-25 years old and wearing jackets. The woman, he said, was wearing a red coat.

One Killed, Two Wounded at Opening of Buck Season

By UNITED PRESS

At least one hunter was dead and two were injured Monday as an estimated 400,000 deer hunters opened the Nov. 15-30 buck season.

The first of a predicted 15 hunting fatalities occurred Sunday, the day before the season actually got under way.

Rudolph Franson, 47, Ishpeming, was accidentally shot and killed by a hunting companion in their camp in Marquette County, State Police reported.

Police said Philip de Gabriele picked up a loaded .22 automatic pistol from a table to put it in a holster. The weapon discharged, striking Franson in the neck, police said.

Injured were:

Vernon Langworthy, 19, Muskegon, who police said was shining deer when he was struck by buckshot fired by an unidentified person in Osceola County.

Hunters, who began lining up at the Straits of Mackinac Saturday in one of the worst traffic jams in state history, legally opened fire at 6 a.m. Monday.

Conservation Department officials predicted at least 41,000 bucks would fall in the northern Lower Peninsula and more than 26,000 would be killed in the Upper Peninsula.

Area Hunters Report Early Kills of Deer

Three Pontiac area hunters reported early successes this morning as the statewide deer season opened.

Honors for bagging the 1st buck were shared by Leslie Hudson of 69 West Colgate street and Noah Sturgeon of 1219 Bamford drive. Each downed a 4-pointer at 7:45 o'clock. Hudson got his at Houghton Lake, while Sturgeon was hunting near Oscoda.

Gaylord Vreeland of Walled Lake shot the 1st buck reported in Oakland County. Vreeland brought down an 8-pointer near Milford at 9 a.m.

23 Lose Lives Over Weekend

Mother and 4 Children Perish in One Michigan Highway Accident

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four multiple-death highway accidents which claimed the lives of 12 persons Sunday pushed Michigan's weekend fatality count to at least 23.

Traffic claimed at least 20 victims, a home fire accounted for another, and two men died in falls.

Four deer hunters were killed early Sunday in a collision near Ishpeming and a mother and four of her six children were fatally injured in another collision near Bad Axe.

The four deer hunters killed on U.S.21 between Ishpeming and Negaunee early Sunday in a two-car crash were Joseph E. Beltrame Jr., 19, of Gwinn, Floyd A. Ellers, 49, of Flushing; Bernard W. Owens 40, of Flint, and William Slattery, 39, of Mount Morris.

Dale Kammers and Marguerite Bumpstead, both of Sault Ste. Marie, were killed in a four-car collision on M28, about 12 miles west of the Soo Sunday.

Henry Myles, 29, of Detroit, was fatally injured Sunday when his car crashed into a utility pole in Detroit.

Mrs. Juanita Whittaker, 21, of Detroit was killed early Sunday when a car in which she was riding hit a tree on Belle Isle.

Sheppard Case Recalls Other Crime Classics

Is Dr. Sam Sheppard innocent murder trials that made as large —or larger — an impact on the American public during the last 30 years.

Sensations of their days were New Jersey's Hall-Mills Case, involving a handsome young minister and his young choir girl sweetheart . . . the Snyder-Gray murder in which a plain, middle-aged New York suburban housewife helped club her husband to death for love of a persuasive traveling salesman . . . the Hauptmann trial for the kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby . . . Chicago's sordid Loeb-Leopold case . . the fantastic Cincinnati murder trial of the onetime "bootleg king," George Remus.

James L. Kilgallen, who will bring these American murder trial classics into fresh focus against the backdrop of the Sheppard case, covered most of these famous trials, and provides unusual background glimpses at the principals involved.

Rep. Borgman Struck With Revolver in Home; Farmer Held

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Police said State Rep. Edward A. Borgman (R-Grand Rapids) was attacked at his home today by a man who struck him with a revolver and attempted to shoot him as he lay on the floor.

Louis DeBoer, 43, of Grant was held for investigation of carrying a concealed weapon and felonious assault with a deadly weapon.

Mrs. Borgman told officers she answered the door and was brushed aside by DeBoer, who charged in to attack her husband. She said the man struck Borgman with a revolver and attempted to fire it at the fallen legislator.

Police said Borgman's life was spared because the gun misfired five times.

Rushed to a hospital, Borgman was described as in "good condition" after treatment for a wound in the left temple where he was struck by the gun.

Police said DeBoer told them he had had bad luck with crops since, had fallen behind in payments and was threatened with foreclosure of a mortgage he signed in purchasing the farm.

In Hurry to Get Home

Army-Bound Youth Eludes Searchers in Stolen Plane

GLADSTONE (AP)—An 18-year-old Gladstone boy who had "fooled around planes some" yesterday flew a sleek stolen plane from Grand Rapids to Gladstone, giving several Air Force jets the bird en route.

After landing the single-engine, $26,000 Beechcraft Bonanza at a small airstrip near this Upper Peninsula town, Darryl Spaulding calmly said:

State police, who arrested him on investigation of at least three charges, including grand larceny, said he told them he intended to fly home for a visit and then pilot the craft to Detroit, where he was scheduled to be inducted into the Army today.

The youth's rush trip of 300 miles weaving along the coastline of Lake Michigan had the Air Force, Civil Aeronautics Authority, state police and civilian pilots dizzy in an air and ground search for several hours.

A Lear mechanic at Kent County Airport said he heard the plane's engine start but figured Edward F. Conklin, chief pilot for Lear, was in it until it weaved erratically while taxiing for takeoff.

Air Force jets intercepted the light plane but Spaulding, with his lower air speed, was able to outmaneuver them, the Air Force said. The jets were forced to turn back because of low fuel supplies.

The plane finally was spotted by Fred Sensiea, a private pilot, on a landing strip near Gladstone.

Police said he readily admitted the unauthorized flight. They quoted him as saying he had no formal pilot training. He was removed to the Delta County Jail at Escanaba.

Commissioners to Consider Naming Two Fire Stations

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — Zoning questions and the Fire and Police Departments will be under discussion at tonight's City Commission meeting.

Talk will center around an appropriation for an additional police officer, the naming and dedication of the city's two new fire stations, and driveway construction for the east side fire station.

A study will be made of the best use, under zoning restrictions for frame buildings located in the business section. The present building code restricts buildings over a certain size to residential usage.

Another zoning ordinance change to be taken up at a hearing would permit the use of a 12-foot height for lighting fixtures in Parking District B lots, instead of the present 8-foot restriction.

Lawmakers also will review bids received last week for the purchase of three new city trucks and two police cars.

abuse of Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker.

In a hearing spattered with sharp words and caustic phrases, Watkins refused to be budged from his position that perhaps no one was "criminally culpable" for the Peress matter.

Watkins said the Senate Internal Security subcommittee of which he is a member could undertake to nail down those "responsible" for the honorable discharge.

But if it did, he said, "I never could find out to satisfy you unless you could find some one who could be shot and hung."

McCarthy snapped back that "many young men will die" because of traitors. He said traitors should be "shot and hung."

McCarthy said it was "no laughing matter" when "secret masters in the military" cover up for Communists.

Watkins said: "I was not laughing and the record and the picture will so show."

"But a senator who represents the great state of Utah who comes here and says he does not know if some one ought to be blamed for promoting a man . . . who owes allegiance to a foreign country, a traitor to his country . . . such a senator certainly is derelict in his duty and that is putting it very mildly."

Boy's Skull Fractured When Car Strikes Him

Eight-year-old Thomas Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Allen of 3269 Maplehurst, Walled Lake, is reported in good condition today at Pontiac General Hospital with a concussion and possible skull fracture which he suffered when he was struck by a car Saturday on Commerce road.

Richard Livernois, 75, of 6475 Willow Rd., Commerce Township, the car's driver, said the boy, riding a bike west on Commerce road, turned into the side of his car. The accident occurred about ½ mile east of S. Commerce road.

The Allen child told deputies that he did not see the car approaching when he turned to cross the road.

Motorist Makes Protest on Collision With Plane

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Roland Lee Rumbold had some justification in his complaint that he was in the right when his automobile collided with an airplane coming along the wrong side of the street.

Rumbold's car smacked into an airplane piloted by Robert L. Mason, who told police the fog was so thick he mistook the highway for an airport landing strip.

First use of American railraods to convey the news came in 1828 when copies of a presidential speech were sent from Washington to Baltimore in one hour and 13 minutes.

Sterility Rumor Heard at Trial

Bay Village Policeman Repeats Story About Dr. Sheppard

CLEVELAND (UP) — A suburban policeman testified today at the murder trial of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard that he once heard a rumor the young osteopath was sterile.

Under questioning by Sheppard's chief counsel, William J. Corrigan, Patrolman Fred Drenkhan denied, however, that he ever heard other police say Sheppard's seven year old son Chip, was illegitimate.

Drenkhan, a cool, matter of fact type of police officer from Sheppard's suburb, Bay Village, was the first policeman to examine the Sheppard home the morning the osteopath's wife, Marilyn, was bludgeoned to death in her bed.

* * *

In the midst of a minute cross examination, Corrigan suddenly asked Drenkhan about a meeting of law enforcement officers held by Coroner Samuel R. Gerber shortly after the murder.

Corrigan wanted to know if Drenkhan heard Gerber say Sheppard was sterile.

"I heard that, but it was not Dr. Gerber," he replied.

"Who said it?" Corrigan persisted.

"It was a rumor," Drenkhan said. "We received some letters."

Drenkhan also said that he was unable to recall a statement that Dr. Sheppard killed his wife because she was pregnant. She had been pregnant about four months when she was killed.

went back into the smoking and flaming hole Saturday night but rescue operations were called off because of a buildup of gases.

No sooner were the operations halted when two more blasts rocked the mine, sending flames high into the air above the main portal. A fourth explosion occurred at 6 p.m. yesterday.

Rescue operations were to resume Sunday morning but officials decided at a pre-dawn conference to seal off the pit's five entrances to choke off the fire.

UMW President John L. Lewis, who flew here from Washington, said he "fully understood" the necessity for sealing off the mine. Lewis promised to cut red tape in providing relief to the miners' dependents.

The 12 married victims left a total of 17 children under 16 years of age.

LONDON (UP) — American musician Karl Krueger, former conductor of the Seattle and Detroit symphony orchestras and of the Kansas City Philharmonic, won praise from London critics today for his leadership of the big Royal Philharmonic Orchestra.

Krueger made his first appearance in Britain with the orchestra Saturday night and the Royal Festival Hall had a capacity audience of 3,400.

MARKING ANOTHER BIRTHDAY—Walter Williams, oldest of the nation's four surviving Civil War veterans, marks his 112th birthday with a cake and family reunion at his farm home near Franklin, Tex., yesterday. Standing beside him is his wife, Mrs. Ella Mae Williams, 80, to whom he has been married for 60 years. Although virtually blind and partly deaf, Williams insists he feels fine and hopes "to break the record of my grandfather who lived to be 119." About health, Williams says "I like a toddy for breakfast—they make a man eat real hearty. But you don't want to be drinking them all day."

Bad Luck Spell Plagues Family of Flint Banker

LANSING (UP) — You think you've got trouble?

On July 15, acting as pallbearer at the funeral of his uncle, Little felt something snap in his back. Driving home, he tried to stop his car and found he couldn't move his legs. He spent three weeks paralyzed in a Flint hospital.

After he returned home, Little's wife, Shirley, drove their car into a tree. Their five-month-old daughter was killed. Mrs. Little suffered torn shoulder ligaments and her teeth were knocked out.

Oct. 27, attending a relative's birthday party at St. Johns, Little got word his home had burned down.

Nothing bad has happened to the Littles for two weeks.

But some nice things have, to compensate.

Dimondale merchants, near Little's home, contributed $160. A contractor has offered to rebuild his house foundation free. His fellow workers spent Election Day cleaning up the fire rubble. The Littles are living with an aunt.

Three Car Collision Injures Two Drivers

BIRMINGHAM—A three-car collision Saturday at the Hunter-Oakland intersection injured two of the drivers slightly. Treated for head and arm injuries at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Pontiac, was Joseph T. English 18, of Ferndale. He was also ticketed for not having his car under control.

Harold J. Walker, 32, of Flint, was treated by his own physician for a knee abrasion.

English told police he was attempting to time his approach for the green light but defective brakes sent him crashing into the rear end of Walker's car, which was stopped for the light. In turn, Walker hit the rear end of an auto driven by Karl H. Sturm, 52, of Detroit.

Polar Air Route Opened Today

Scandinavian Airlines Flight From Los Angeles to Denmark Inaugurated

By HUBBARD KEAVY

LOS ANGELES, (UP)—The airliner Royal Viking took off early today to inaugurate the first commercial transpolar passenger service between Los Angeles and Copenhagen, Denmark.

The Scandinavian Airlines System's DC6B rose from fogbound International Airport at 12:22 a.m. with film actors Jean Hersholt and Walter Pidgeon, public officials and two dozen newsmen, including this writer, aboard.

Shortly before the takeoff, actress Cyd Charisse christened the Royal Viking with the traditional champagne bottle. A reception and dinner honored the passengers earlier in the evening.

At 8:10 p.m. today, a similar plane—and likewise loaded with newsmen and dignitaries—will leave Copenhagen headed West. The eastbound plane's flying time, for the 5,800-mile "short course," is 22 hours. But the westbound craft, due to prevailing westerly winds, will be in the air about 25 hours. It is due in Los Angeles Tuesday. There is, incidentally, a nine-hour differential between Denmark and the Pacific Coast.

Six exploratory flights by SAS established the practicability of the flight, which stops only at Winnipeg, Manitoba, in Canada and Bluie West 8, an airfield on Greenland. What military significance this transpolar route has no one has yet said, but undoubtedly it has some.

No matter what lotion or cream you have been using, regardless of price . . .

Softens extra-dry, rough hands

No other lotion or cream, regardless of price, can soften your skin (even extra-dry, rough hands) as quickly and effectively as Aloma Lotion. Your own good common sense tells you that no thin, watery lotion could ever replace natural skin oils that have been removed by weather, detergents or your daily work. This is why we make Aloma so full-bodied and extra-heavy . . . so extra-rich in lanolin and other skin softening ingredients. That's the reason why Aloma will quickly soften and smooth red, rough hands with real deep-down and lasting benefits.

De Soto Division Will Have Two New Lines for 1955

De Soto - Plymouth dealers Wednesday will display for the first time two completely new lines of De Soto automobiles for 1955.

They are the Fireflite series of 4-door sedans, Sportsman hardtops and convertible coupes, all wholly new in every detail and powered by the new Fireflite 200 horsepower hemispheric combustion chamber V-8 engine, and the equally new Firedome series with a new Firedome V-8 engine rated at 185 horsepower.

The eight new De Soto models for 1955 are dimensionally and statistically the longest, lowest, roomiest and most powerful in the history of the company (exclusive of special purpose vehicles).

Built on a newly designed chassis with a wheelbase of 126 inches, the 1955 models have an overall length of 217.9 inches; height has been reduced in the 4-door models to 60.6 inches and to 59.9 inches in the hardtops and convertibles; hip room and leg room has been substantially increased in all models.

Exterior features of the new De Soto models include: New body lines, massive grille integrated with bumper, recessed headlights, functional air scoop incorporating the De Soto emblem, full wrap-around windshields, sun cap visor of heavy chrome, javelin-like chrome strip running the full length of the car, semi-flush push-pull door handles, 13 solid colors and 42 2-tone combinations including brilliant metallics and soft pastels, tubeless tires.

The frame has been redesigned and is heavier and sturdier than ever before. Rear springs are mounted on the outside of the fully boxed side rails, 5.6 inches wider apart than on previous models. Front tread is nearly four inches wider.

Windshield wipers are variable speed electric.

Find Letters to Napoleon

Notes Sent by Empress During Exile Found in Stockholm Palace

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—More than 100 intimate letters from Empress Marie Louise to Napoleon during the most dramatic years of his life have been discovered in the archives of the King of Sweden, it was disclosed here.

The letters were written in 1813 and 1814, when Napoleon's empire tottered and collapsed and he was himself sent to live on the Isle of Elba.

• • •

Sometimes during these fateful years the Hapsburg-born Empress wrote as many as three letters a day to her husband. The most dramatic of them were jotted down while the Empress was fleeing on the roads of France in the company of Napoleon's sisters as the Allied armies pushed on toward Paris.

The discovery of what was called "a crown jewel in French history" was reported by Dr. Carl-Fredrik Palmstierna, personal secretary of King Gustaf VI of Sweden. He said the 127 letters were found during an inventory of parts of the Bernadotte family archives in the Stockholm Royal Palace.

• • •

He said the King had granted him permission to publish all the letters and that he would do so in France and Sweden next year. Dr. Palmsterna said it had been thought Napoleon had burned the letters.

The archives made it clear, however, that they were brought to Sweden by Queen Desiree, who was once engaged to Napoleon and later married Marshal Bernadotte, who became King of Sweden.

• • •

The first letters deal with the everyday household chores of the Empress and give intimate details of life in the Tuileries Palace. She speaks lovingly about their little son, "the King of Rome."

But as the great events move on their relentless course, the letters become packed with drama and tragedy. Some letters describe her vain efforts to obtain permission for herself and the son to join Napoleon on Elba.

• • •

After she was ordered by her father, Emperor Franz, to return to Austria, her letters to Napoleon become more and more infrequent until the final break.

Dr. Palmstierna said the letters would be published together with those written by Napoleon in reply, which were discovered 20 years ago in Austria.

The first railway horsecars were started in Scotland in 1812.

Envoy Attempts to Stop Slump in Coffee Prices

WASHINGTON (AP) — The coffee-producing nations of Latin America are trying to convince the American housewife she should pay more for coffee.

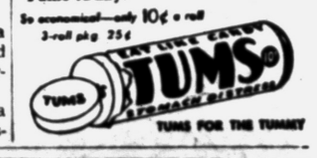

A campaign aimed at halting a current price drop was launched yesterday by Ambassador Eduardo Zuleta Angel of Colombia.

In a press statement, Zuleta said lower coffee prices mean misery in producing nations and a corresponding boost for communism.

1. Millions of families now have bigger paychecks. This is giving them the opportunity to build an adequate retirement program.
2. Today more than three times as many employees as in 1940 are participating in company retirement plans.
3. Millions of Americans can now build on their Social Security to help provide them with the retirement income they will need.

And there's been a big change, too, in people's attitudes toward retirement. They are giving up the idea of retiring from their present way of life. Instead, they are planning to retire to a new way of life.

To provide retirement income, more and more people are using life insurance and annuities. This is a significant trend. It is one reason why more than half of all life insurance benefits are now paid to the policyholders themselves!

In your parents' day, most people thought of life insurance only as a way to guarantee a financial backlog for the family if the father died... or as a sure means of building a cash reserve.

These are still its principal uses. But today's families are also turning to other important uses of life insurance. For instance—to cover the mortgage or to help pay for the children's education.

• • •

Judaism in U.S. Pictured on Verge of 'Golden Age'

Leading rabbis said this trend already has made the United States the largest center of the faith in the world.

And they reported:

1. A growing religious resurgence in synagogues across the land.

2. Rapid expansion in religious schools, libraries, seminaries, and Jewish fraternal and benevolent organizations.

3. A broad, reawakened interest in Jewish religious insights and scholarship.

* * *

"Not even Israel is the bulwark of our faith today as is the United States," said Rabbi Joseph Rauch, of Louisville, Ky.

He and other leaders were here for a series of services, ceremonies and meetings centered on the 1954 celebration of the 300th anniversary of America's first Jewish settlement.

* * *

Recalling conditions which sparked a great flowering of Judaism in medieval times, Rabbi Solomon E. Starels, of Savannah, Ga., said:

"The fourth century of Jewish life in the United States may prove to be another golden age of Jewish civilization."

He and Rabbi Rauch, among the ministers of the 14 oldest Jewish will be honored here tomorrow night, delivered sermons at local temples today.

* * *

It required several centuries for the medieval "golden age" of Jewish life to emerge, in eighth-century Spain, Rabbi Starrels said, adding:

"It would look as if in the past 300 years on these shores we have been going through a similar process of development and growth."

He noted the increase and affluence of Jewish cultural institutions, the expanding libraries, academies and publication societies, and said:

"The influence of the synagogue has spread and deepened. A fine spirit of interfaith relations prevails in our own land."

* * *

All this, he said, may herald another of Judiasm's "most brilliant and most productive eras."

Tomorrow's ceremonies honoring the oldest congregations will be followed by an all-day national assembly Monday of the Synagogue Council of America, representing Judaism's Orthodox, Reform and Conservative wings.

* * *

The events are focused on the tercentenary of the landing in New York in 1654 of the country's first 23 Jewish settlers—a number since grown to five million.

Savannah's Congregation Mickve Israel, now led by Rabbi Starrels, was founded in 1733, the same time as the colony of Georgia, and Louisville's Congregation Adath Israel, now led by Rabbi Rauch, was founded in 1836.

* * *

Shearith Israel (1654), New York; Touro Synagogue (1658), Newport, R.I.; Mikveh Israel, (1740), Philadelphia; Beth Elohim (1750), Charleston, S.C.; Beth Ahabah (1789), Richmond, Va.; Rodeph Shalmo (1800), Philadelphia; Baltimore Hebrew (1823), Baltimore, Md.; K. K. Bene Israel (1824), Cincinnati; B'Nai Jeshurun (1825), New York; Touro Synagogue (1828), New Orleans, La.; Shaarei Zedek (1837), New York; and Beth Emeth (1838), Albany, N.Y.

Boarder Hangs Self From Garage Door

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Jett E. Wilson, 61, was deeply grieved when he learned he was soon to be separated from the family with whom he had been living.

"He was very much attached to my small children," Mrs. Bennie Jean Lambert said of her boarder. "We decided to rent a smaller house and I told Mr. Wilson I would find him a new place to live."

Yesterday, when the moving van came, Mrs. Lambert said she found Wilson's body hanging from a garage door. Police said he committed suicide, using a noose fashioned from a pair of overalls.

Changing Times

Who would go to an incinerator plant to study sociological changes? Well, you never can tell.

The new plant being completed on John R Road by the Southeastern Oakland County Garbage and Rubbish Authority is a more interesting place than you would imagine at first glance.

In the first place, there is the huge bin into which the rubbish will be dumped from the trucks. Some fifty trucks will be required to haul the material in. Only one truck will be needed to haul away the ash residue.

Changed handling of food is reflected in this phase of the incinerator's operation. Rapidly increasing use of frozen foods is cutting down on the average volume of garbage per family.

Leaves and tops of vegetables today are removed before the food even reaches the grocery store or market. This fact makes it possible for fewer trucks to handle the collections.

In the second place, there are the three huge furnaces in which rubbish and garbage are burned. This phase of the operation also reflects changed customs and conditions.

There was a time when wooden boxes were used for shipping most merchandise. This wood frequently made it unnecessary to use additional fuel to burn community rubbish. Now, however, cartons are used and additional fuel is required.

Intercommunity effort in construction and operation of the whole project is of course another reflection of the changing conditions in Southeastern Oakland County. This area is building up rapidly. Substantial cities are growing up so closely joined that united activities of this sort are logical.

So the next time you drive past the incinerator, remember it isn't just a pile of bricks. Besides fulfilling the main purpose for which it was built it also serves as a historical marker, recording some interesting changes in our way of life.

Progress in Israel

It was a particularly happy circumstance which prompted the local chapter of Hadassah to have MEYER SIMON as principal speaker at its honor roll meeting.

Just back from a six month tour of Europe and the Middle East, Mr. SIMON was able to give the local women's Zionist organization a first hand report on progress in Israel.

His verdict is that the young democracy's accomplishments in its first six years have been nothing short of remarkable. Besides detailing the great social and economic advances, the honor guest told how irrigation has transformed desert areas into fertile lands.

His report on the growth of new schools and hospitals in the country where almost everyone arrives as a refugee, was of special interest to Hadassah members. Today the organization is maintaining in Israel a comprehensive health and welfare program. This includes a network of medical clinics and seven hospitals with a total bed capacity of 700.

An important part of Hadassah's many sided national program is interpreting Israel to the American public. Thus, its leaders believe, it is strengthening the friendly relations which link the two democracies.

THE person with a closed mind didn't close it until he had crammed it chockfull of prejudices.

Japan's Trade Needs

The goodwill visit to Washington of Japan's Premier YOSHIDA is focusing official attention on his country's urgent need for wider markets.

The pro-American leader of Nippon's coalition government said on his arrival that he would do nothing to embarrass the Administration. The fact remains that during his four day stay in the capital means of improving Japan's economic situation will get close attention.

Conditions have deteriorated steadily since large scale U. S. aid ended in 1951. Last year the trade deficit reached $1.135 billion and has continued to grow. As a result YOSHIDA, a staunch defender of co-operation with the United States and the West, has been under strong pressure from business to revive trade with Red China and other Communist Nations.

★ ★ ★

At stake not only is YOSHIDA's shaky political position at home but the whole question of relationship with the West. Like Britain, Japan must have trade to survive. This need is heightened by the fact that 87,000,000 people have to live in an area no larger than California.

For that reason the Premier undoubtedly will press for trade concessions. It is unlikely, however, that there will be any direct aid. Instead, the Administration has placed high priority on reciprocal trade to strengthen Japan's economy.

IF THE movies were as realistic as the industry claims, once in a while a movie player would pick up a phone and get a wrong number.

The Man About Town

They Must Register

Many 18-Year-Olds Fail to Respect the Army's Ruling

Venison: A product that will cause decreased sales at the meat markets —or will it?

Word comes from local draft boards that many 18-year-olds do not register on time, some of the delinquents openly stating that they did not think it now is necessary. That ruling, of course, still is in effect. Every young man must register within five days after his eighteenth birthday. There are no exceptions. The registrant must appear in person at his local draft board headquarters, which for Pontiac and the greater part of Oakland County are at 701 Pontiac State Building.

In a letter from his Detroit address, writes: "We drove through 11 Michigan cities on Veterans' Day, and Pontiac had the best display of the U. S. flag of any of them."

Merriwell Smith

Out of the 3,191 good sports who made entries in the MAT football contest, only two now remain. They picked Michigan to win Saturday's game with Michigan State. Michigan won, 33-7, so the eight of the ten remaining in the contest up to that game, and who picked Michigan State, are eliminated. In next Saturday's game between Southern California and U.C.L.A., both of these survivors predict that the winner will be Southern California.

It now appears certain that the manager of the 1955 Michigan State Fair will be an Oakland County man. The present holder of this $9,000 a year job,

James M. Hare,

will resign next month to take over his duties as Michigan Secretary of State. Inside information tells me that he will be succeeded either by

Lonely Folks Could Make Gifts for Patients

Recently there have been letters in your column from lonely people who would like to organize a friendship club. Such a club might be difficult to establish.

I would like to suggest that they organize a Santa Claus Club and make presents for underprivileged patients at Pontiac State Hospital.

There are 1,300 men and women who have no relatives or friends outside the hospital. Each year their Christmas present is donated by the Psychiatric Aide Association and other interested people.

There are many other outlets for lonely people: Church, Red Cross, Civil Defense. Learn a hobby such as photography or numismatics. Join clubs and meet people who are interested in the same thing.

Coins are almost as good as etchings, if you have either you have a good topic for conversation and something to invite others to drop by to see.

Babies Don't Inherit Good or Bad Habits, They Start With Only Chassis, Motor

Tom Duffy, chancellor of Journal University in East St. Louis, introduced me recently to a "class" of about 1,200 women readers. Notice some of their questions below. Your newspaper is America's greatest university, so teach your children to study it more thoroughly each day.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case M-367: Tom Duffy, aged 38, is the editor of the Journal at East St. Louis, under whose auspices I addressed a large women's audience earlier this year.

Mr. Duffy introduced me to the crowd, and in acknowledging his generous remarks, I told the audience that he was really the chancellor of their great local "University in Print," namely Journal University.

And that is true of every newspaper editor, too. All the rest of us who write for the newspaper are simply faculty members of the biggest and most influential university in the world, the newspaper.

For after people leave school forever at about 18, which is true of over 80 per cent of Americans, we lean upon the newspaper as our main educational aid for the remaining 50 years of our life.

This great women's audience at East St. Louis thus was simply a class session of Journal University in which we discussed the recipe for happiness.

And after the meeting, I answered their questions for nearly an hour.

"Dr. Crane, I adopted a baby," said one of the women, "because its mother didn't want it. She was so callous and selfish that she gladly offered it for adoption.

"But now I am wondering if the baby will inherit its mother's selfishness?"

The answer is "No," for although we are all reasonably selfish at birth, no special dose of abnormal unselfishness is passed along by heredity.

Neither can a child inherit special habits like criminality or kleptomania. Even if your adopted baby's original parents were a murderer and a prostitute, your baby has just as much chance of being a saintly person as does the offspring of a clergyman and his wife.

For babies do not inherit bad habits such as the above. Alas, they do not inherit good habits, either, such as piano playing or cartooning skill or engineering talent, etc.

God Almighty starts every baby afresh. It doesn't inherit the good or the bad habits of its parents.

It simply inherits its chassis (skeleton and muscle structure) plus a mental motor (I. Q.).

Thereafter it becomes good or bad, depending on the kind of training it receives from parents or foster parents, teachers, Scout leaders and other moral forces in the environment.

So you parents of foster children can feel completely reassured.

"Dr. Crane, how should I tell my 10-year-old adopted son that he is a foster child," another mother inquired. "We adopted him as a baby but have put off the matter of informing him of that fact."

In past years this has been a ticklish question. Now you can handle it with confidence.

Just tell the child that you "adopted" his Daddy for your husband because you loved him, even though you are not of the same blood kinship. And you wives thereafter feel closer to your husbands than to your own blood brothers and sisters with whom you grew up as children.

Then when you want a little boy or girl, you can adopt them, too, on the basis of love and voluntary affection. And you can feel closer to them than to your own blood kin.

To help improve your batting averages as parents, send for my 200-point "Tests for Good Parents," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus a dime.

David Lawrence Says:

Europe Falsifying Facts in Firing of J. P. Davies

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—While there is no parallel and no relationship whatsoever between the cases of J. Robert Oppenheimer and John Paton Davies, both of whom have recently been declared to be "security risks," there is a deliberate campaign of misrepresentation about both cases going on in Europe which cannot but damage American prestige and undermine the confidence that American foreign service officers abroad have in their own government.

The attempt is being made to attribute responsibility for both cases to "McCarthyism" and this ignores the fact that the Wisconsin senator never had either Oppenheimer or Davies before his committees, and that the proceedings in the cases against both men were initiated without any connection with the acts or speeches of Sen. McCarthy.

Why are some American writers as well as certain British newspapers trying to make it appear that Dr. Oppenheimer was punished for his views as a scientist and that Davies is being punished for his expression of views on foreign policy?

Neither statement is true, and there is ample evidence in the published record to show that both are false.

Dr. Oppenheimer was declared a security risk primarily because he lied to a security officer in the United States Army in wartime and failed for several months to come clean on the subject of a contact which the Soviet government tried to make with him through a friend. Dr. Oppenheimer refused for a long time to reveal the identity of his friend and protected him, and thus threw the security officers off the track.

All this has been published and Dr. Oppenheimer has since confessed it was "idiotic" on his part. The board which handled his case did not accuse Oppenheimer of disloyalty, and specifically said his views on scientific matters had nothing to do with the case and that he was declared a security risk because of faulty judgment in the matter of security.

Now the case of John Paton Davies has brought forth some of the same distorted criticisms. A special board of five has unanimously declared him to be loyal, but has said that "his lack of judgment, discretion and reliability raises a reasonable doubt that his continued employment . . . is clearly consistent with the interests of national security."

Yet a Washington dispatch last week to the "London Times," which is influential in moulding European opinion of America, said:

"Meanwhile anxious eyes were being turned to the State Department because of what many regard as the latest example of McCarthyist 'lynching,' the case of Mr. John Paton Davies, who, though repeatedly cleared of the senator's insinuations, has been summarily dismissed from the foreign service for 'indiscretion.' As a parallel to the McCarthy debate this unhappy affair is illuminating as a further instance of the price that can be exacted for bygone disagreements with the United States policy in China—and others have paid it before Mr. Davies."

Now the facts in the case are that Davies was not "cleared" on a security basis by the Truman Loyalty Review Board, for it had no authority to do so. When it did clear him of any charge of disloyalty, the board took pains in its letter to the State Department to point out it was not passing judgment on the security question.

It was the late Sen. Pat McCarran (D-Nev) who, acting for the Internal Security Committee before which Davies had appeared, transmitted on three separate occasions in 1952, to the Department of Justice charges alleging that Davies had committed perjury in his testimony. These charges were followed up in 1953 by a unanimous vote of the Republican and Democratic members of the Senate Internal Security Committee. Sen. McCarthy was not a member of this or the previous committee.

All the charges were examined for several months in the Department of Justice under the Eisenhower Administration, and the State Department felt it had to wait for a decision on this before it could take up the Davies case to determine his status under security regulations.

When the Department of Justice finally decided against filing a perjury case, the Department of State promptly appointed a special board to deal with the security question. Included on the board was a lieutenant general about to retire, who could be depended upon to be objective. The board reviewed all the testimony and all previous hearings and unanimously came to the conclusion that Davies was loyal but had used faulty judgment.

It was immediately asserted by defenders of Davies that his indiscretion was related to conversations with the press on news and views. Thereupon a campaign designed to vilify Secretary Dulles was begun, with citations of his own private conversations with correspondents in the past.

But there is no parallel here. Actually the indiscretions of Davies were more than talks with the press. They had to do with faulty judgment in relation to his superiors. Thus Ambassador Hurley found that without consulting him Davies had visited Mao, the Communist leader, in North China, though Davies was part of Hurley's staff in China at the time. There were other "indiscretions" on the part of Davies which had to do with faulty judgment in his relations with other agencies of the government. This had nothing to do with his views on our policy toward China as such.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before this God.—Daniel 6:11.

Prayer is the act by which man, detaching himself from the embarrassments of sense and nature, ascends to the true level of his destiny. —H. P. Liddon.

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Breathing, like the circulation (beating of the heart), digestion and other vital functions, is automatic; and hence its control or regulation, like the control or regulation of the other vital functions, is best left to nature. I mean to say that the less attention one pays to his breathing, pulse rate, blood pressure, digestion, etc., the better for health.

Pulse counters, chest expanders, food fussers, amylophobes (persons who imagine they can't digest starches), poor geeks who take "internal baths" and so sustain their "mucus-forming" capacity — what they need is a swift k—— elementary instruction in physiology and hygiene.

Breathing, unlike the beating of the heart, is subject to temporary influence of the will. One can breathe slower or faster, shallower or more deeply, or even stop breathing for a minute or two (as in underwater swimming), but as soon as one's attention is diverted autonomic regulation takes over.

In Little Lesson 21, "How to Breathe," (25c and stamped, self-addressed envelope) I describe the manifestations of oxygen deficit or anoxia, such as many persons suffer nowadays from exposure to atmosphere polluted with carbon monoxide, as in a smoke-filled room, a garage or adjacent office or apartment, or in an unventilated room heated by a fuel-burning stove without connection to stovepipe or chimney.

In the pamphlet "Belly Breathing" (stamped, self-addressed envelope) I explain how this exercise acts as a booster pump for poor circulation.

In order to understand how belly breathing (natural breathing) improves circulation it is necessary to visualize the main breathing muscle, the diaphragm as a partition between the chest or thoracic cavity and the abdomen or lower body cavity. It is composed of muscle and tendon in the shape of an inverted saucer, or like a tarpaulin stretched over the abdominal organs.

When the tarpaulin contracts, it lowers pressure in the chest cavity, in consequence of which air enters the lungs—inspiration or inhalation. At the same time the diaphragm presses downward on stomach, liver, bile apparatus, intestine, in consequence of which the belly bulges or, we might say, the bellows expands or inflates. That's all there is to learn about how to breathe. The effect of secondary muscles is unimportant.

When the diaphragm relaxes or rests, pressure on the abdominal organs is released, the muscle returns to its resting shape (high dome) and at the same time by its elasticity raises pressure in the chest cavity, in consequence of which air flows out of the lungs—exhalation, expiration.

Notice there is no allusion to chest expansion in this description of natural breathing.

Observe a sleeping person, or one under anesthesia or unconscious from any cause. There is little chest movement but marked rise and fall or inflation and deflation of the bellows.

40 YEARS LONG — It's taken 40 years to accumulate this ball of twine held by John L. Quigg, Trufant, (Mich.) rural carrier, and Mable V. Rose, postmaster. It was started around 1912 by Quigg's mother, who was postmaster at that time. Mrs. Rose has been adding twine during her 11 years in office.

McCarthy Won't Compromise

GOP Chiefs Fear Censure May Backfire on Party

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican leaders have about concluded they have a political bear by the tail in the McCarthy censure case with very little chance of letting go without a mauling from one quarter or another.

On one hand GOP leaders have in Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) a vigorous exponent of saying what he thinks about anybody who crosses up what he conceives to be his mission of ferreting Communists out of government.

On the other, there is determination among some Republican senators to chastise McCarthy for what they say are actions which tend to bring discredit on the Senate.

* * *

In the middle are Republican senators who say privately they think McCarthy may have gone to extremes at times in blasting those who don't agree with him, but who appear to believe that only rough and ready methods are effective in dealing with the Communists-in-government issue.

The result points to a split vote among Republicans, emphasizing a measure of disunity that might well carry over into the 1956 presidential campaign.

* * *

It is from the middle ground group that Republican leaders hope to draw strength for what, after a week of mostly futile conferences, can only be regarded as a waning effort to reach a compromise acceptable to a majority of the Senate.

McCarthy gives no evidence of wanting to compromise. He has said the Senate session would be a "lynching bee" and he would be censured for his conduct.

New Dodge Cars Feature Longer and Lower Lines

The 1955 Dodge passenger car line will be introduced this week in dealers' showrooms across the nation

William C. Newberg, Dodge president, asserts that car stylists have blended aircraft sleekness and power into a "design of refreshing beauty."

He revealed that Dodge engineers have incorporated over 100 structural and mechanical innovations in the longer, lower and wider 1955 line.

Three series—the new Custom Royal, the Royal and the Coronet—comprise the '55 Dodge line.

Dodge also offers a wide choice of engines — the "Get-Away Six" developing 123 horsepower, the all-new Red Ram V-8 rated at 175 horsepower, the Super Red Ram V-8 at 183 horsepower, and the super-powered Super Red Ram V-8 at 193 horsepower.

Another innovation is three-tone color combinations on the Lancer hardtop and convertible models. All 14 models have an increased wheelbase of 120 inches with as much as 16 inches gained in overall length. Windshields wrap around at both top and bottom of the glass. Gear selector lever is on the central panel.

A choice of two transmissions includes the automatic PowerFlite drive with Dodge's "seat" gear for safe passing, and standard shift transmission, with or without overdrive.

Optional new features on the 1955 Dodge line include power brakes, power-controlled seats, power window lifts, and a back seat hi-fidelity radio speaker. Tubeless tires are standard equipment on all models.

Thirteen colors are available, including 15 two-tone paint combinations and the first three-tone combinations in the industry.

Store Still Wants Eggs

HUMBOLDT, Tenn. (UP) — T. P. Bethshares began advertising in 1891 that his grocery "wants 1,000 dozen eggs." Maybe he never got them. His son, A. L. Bethshares, operates the store now and still "wants 1,000 dozen eggs."

Bromfield Will Sell Cows; Hits Dairying

MANSFIELD, O., (INS)—Louis Bromfield, author and farmer, will offer his Holstein herd for sale Wednesday because he finds dairy farming no longer profitable.

The famous master of Malabar Farm said almost any kind of farming is more lucrative and less trouble than keeping a dairy herd.

"It is not improbable," he said, "that if the present trend continues there will be a shortage of good clean milk within a couple of years."

He pointed out that the farmer in area only gets 7 cents for a quart of milk that brings 22 cents in the store.

THE FORWARD LOOK

"7 top fashion designers find Chrysler Corporation's 1955 cars a stimulating new concept of good design."

L. L. Colbert, President

At a special advance showing in New York, the celebrated fashion designers, above, saw a line of motor cars that was bright and alive and completely new. And what they saw, you can see soon!

They saw Chrysler Corporation's new 1955 cars—Plymouth, Dodge, De Soto, Chrysler, Imperial—the cars with the brilliant all-new concept of style we call THE FORWARD LOOK.

These experts found THE FORWARD LOOK a design that matches the moods, needs and attitudes of today's modern-minded motor car owners . . . and does it in a fresh and imaginative way.

They admired the all-new contemporary design, the long, low lines that America's motorists have been eager for. They were struck by the look of motion these cars give even when they are standing still.

The beauty and astonishing visibility offered by the New-Horizon windshields delighted them—for these are the only fully swept-back, fully wrapped-around windshields on any American cars today.

They were attracted to the rich fabrics and the compelling new colors. They found wonderful convenience in the unique new position of the PowerFlite Range Selector.

THE FORWARD LOOK that intrigued these famous designers will no doubt intrigue you, too. We believe you will find in these cars just what you've wanted, just what you've asked for and hoped for in your next motor car. In a few days, you will be able to see THE FORWARD LOOK. Don't miss it!

'Immature Judgment' Blamed in Slaying

KALAMAZOO (AP) — "Immature judgment" of student nurses was a "prime factor" in the rape-slaying of a Kalamazoo State Hospital student nurse by a sex deviate Nov. 5, the State Hospital Commission said yesterday.

The commission met for a three-hour, 50-page report by Dr. Roy A. Morter, medical superintendent of the mental hospital, on the strangling of 20-year-old Marilyn Kraai.

A commission statement after the meeting said:

"The immature judgment of student nurses and lack of attendant personnel are considered prime factors in the peculiar combination of circumstances which ended in the rape-slaying of Marilyn Kraai."

Coast Guard Academy Exams Set for Feb. 28

A competitive examination for entrance to the U. S. Coast Guard Academy will be held in 109 cities across the nation Feb. 28 and March 1, 1955 Rep. George A. Dondero announced today.

"There are no appointments or geographical quotas for entrance to the academy," Dondero said. "I urge all qualified young men who are interested in a worthwhile profession to write for details and applications as soon as possible.

"Coast Guard headquarters in Washington, D. C. is the place to write. Applications must be postmarked on or before Jan. 15."

The four-year course leads to a bachelor of science degree in engineering and a commission as a career officer in the Coast Guard.

Candidates must be between 17 and 21 and in good physical condition. A high school diploma is the minimum educational requirement, although high school seniors expecting to graduate by Jan. 30, 1955 are eligible to take the examination if they will have at least 15 credits by that time.

Late Season Typhoon Moves Close to Manila

MANILA (AP)—A vicious late-season typhoon bore down on the lippngiht, just a weekafter anot Philippines tonight, just a week after another lashed central Luzon, killing eight, leaving thousands homeless and causing millions of dollars in property damage.

The Manila Weather Bureau said the latest typhoon, Sally, had increased in intensity to 170 miles an hour and was moving west-northwest at eight miles an hour on a 400-mile front.

Apparently Just Not Creative

Women Never Listed Among the Great Composers, Painters---or Even Cooks

By RELMAN MORIN
(For HAL BOYLE)

NEW YORK (AP)—I see by the papers where a British scientist has been making comparative studies of men and women, and now has arrived at a conclusion.

He finds the ladies superior in most ways.

They live longer, he says, and have more vitality. They are less sensitive to cold. They have more courage and a greater emotional range. Linked with this latter point, the professor said, women are more dangerous than men when aroused, and more prone to mayhem, battery and assault.

Well, it is good to have all these facts certified to by science itself, although they are not exactly new nor worth a flash. Most of us suspected the situation.

However, I was unable to find any comparative data in the areas of intelligence, ingenuity, imagination or creative ability. If the professor's research covered these items, he seems not to have written any findings — possibly for reasons of personal safety.

* * *

Could it be that women are deficient in these fields?

For example, there is no great woman composer of music. Offhand, I can't recall a single name in that art.

Same with painting. Unless you like cows and horses, and therefore are a fan for Rosa Bonheur, the feminine batting average in this field is pretty low.

As for literature, there are some fair-to-middling women writers, but none who can play in the same league with Ernest Hemingway, or any of the other top-flight male writers. In fact, lady authors seldom produce "creative" literature. What they tend to produce is simply idealized reporting.

That is, they write about themselves, their families, themselves, babies, themselves, the other woman, themsel[illegible]

* * *

Nor have they done much in the theater, compared with the great dramatists. This is surprising, too, when you think of it, because the average woman has a fine talent for histrionics and high drama when she wants a new kitchen or a trip to Honolulu.

We will brush over the field of original thought, and simply say there are no great feminine philosophers.

Presumably, the ladies should finished one-two-three in the cooking and culinary departments. But the fact is that the great chefs are all men, and the truly noble sauces and recipes were created by men. Seems to indicate, again, that women have no creativeness and are not good at original thinking.

* * *

Moreover, getting back to the professor, it is not so surprising that women live longer.

The answer may lie in the fact that the average housewife doesn't have to overexert herself in the pursuance of her daily chores.

She will make it sound like a man-killing job, but this is largely sales talk. The soap operas, I'm told, are still getting along fine and the "vacuum cleaner audience" runs into the millions. Of course, afternoon bridge can be very wearing sometimes. But when a woman sighs, 'What a day I've had," it is usually designed to soften up Papa for cold cuts and canned beans.

Yes, sir, professor, it's a wonder women don't live forever.

Driver Falls Asleep, Car Uproots Tree

A sleepy motorist who lost control of his car early today on Crooks road in Avon Township, knocked over six guard rails with his auto and then uprooted a tree, throwing is across the road.

Denton Childers, 19, of 1440 Ruby, Rochester, the driver, told Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies Robert Metro and Billy Hargraves that he fell asleep while traveling south on Crooks road about 50 miles per hour, when he hit the tree just south of Hamlin road.

Two other autos received minor damage when they ran across the tree, which was one foot in diameter and blocked part of Crooks road, deputies said.

Childers was treated at Pontiac General Hospital for nose cuts.

County to Get $18,500 in Special Polio Aid

Oakland County will receive $18,500 as its share of $107,475 in special polio epidemic aid given nine Michigan counties by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The foundation said the contributions, given to bolster treasures depleted by caring for polio victims, brings the total of special grants to 44 Michigan counties in 1954 to $805,685. Only California has received more, the foundation said.

Nationalists Returned in New Zealand Voting

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP)—Prime Minister Sydney G. Holland still holds power today following New Zealand's general elections, but his parliamentary majority has been whittled down.

Virtually final returns from Saturday's balloting showed the Premier's Nationalist party holding 43 of the 80 seats in the onehouse legislature. Labor held 37. In the old house the Nationalists held 50 seats to the Laborites' 30.

Fish are the principal source of animal protein for the Japanese people and provide an estimated 85 per cent of their total supply of that variety of essential food products.

New Dodge Cars Feature Longer and Lower Lines

The 1955 Dodge passenger car line will be introduced this week in dealers' showrooms across the nation.

William C. Newberg, Dodge president, asserts that car stylists have blended aircraft sleekness and power into a "design of refreshing beauty."

Three series—the new Custom Royal, the Royal and the Coronet—comprise the '55 Dodge line.

Dodge also offers a wide choice of engines — the "Get-Away Six" developing 123 horsepower, the all-new Red Ram V-8 rated at 175 horsepower, the Super Red Ram V-8 at 183 horsepower, and the super-powered Super Red Ram V-8 at 193 horsepower.

Another innovation is three-tone color combinations on the Lancer hardtop and convertible models. All 14 models have an increased wheelbase of 120 inches with as much as 16 inches gained in overall length. Windshields wrap around at both top and bottom of the glass. Gear selector lever is on the central panel.

A choice of two transmissions includes the automatic PowerFlite drive with Dodge's "scat" gear for safe passing, and standard shift transmission, with or without overdrive.

Optional new features on the 1955 Dodge line include power brakes, power-controlled seats, power window lifts, and a back seat hi-fidelity radio speaker. Tubeless tires are standard equipment on all models.

Thirteen colors are available, including 15 two-tone paint combinations and the first three-tone combinations in the industry.

"7 top fashion designers find Chrysler Corporation's 1955 cars a stimulating new concept of good design."

At a special advance showing in New York, the celebrated fashion designers, above, saw a line of motor cars that was bright and alive and completely new. And what they saw, you can see soon!

They saw Chrysler Corporation's new 1955 cars—Plymouth, Dodge, De Soto, Chrysler, Imperial—the cars with the brilliant all-new concept of style we call THE FORWARD LOOK.

These experts found THE FORWARD LOOK a design that matches the moods, needs and attitudes of today's modern-minded motor car owners . . . and does it in a fresh and imaginative way.

They admired the all-new contemporary design, the long, low lines that America's motorists have been eager for. They were struck by the look of motion these cars give even when they are standing still.

The beauty and astonishing visibility offered by the New-Horizon windshields delighted them—for these are the only fully swept-back, fully wrapped-around windshields on any American cars today.

They were attracted to the rich fabrics and the compelling new colors. They found wonderful convenience in the unique new position of the PowerFlite Range Selector.

THE FORWARD LOOK that intrigued these famous designers will no doubt intrigue you, too. We believe you will find in these cars just what you've wanted, just what you've asked for and hoped for in your next motor car. In a few days, you will be able to see THE FORWARD LOOK. Don't miss it!

'Immature Judgment' Blamed in Slaying

KALAMAZOO (AP) — "Immature judgment" of student nurses was a "prime factor" in the rape-slaying of a Kalamazoo State Hospital student nurse by a sex deviate Nov. 5, the State Hospital Commission said yesterday.

The commission met for a three-hour, 50-page report by Dr. Roy A. Morter, medical superintendent of the mental hospital, on the strangling of 20-year-old Marilyn Kraai.

A commission statement after the meeting said:

"The immature judgment of student nurses and lack of attendant personnel are considered prime factors in the peculiar combination of circumstances which ended in the rape-slaying of Marilyn Kraai."

The four-year course leads to a bachelor of science degree in engineering and a commission as a career officer in the Coast Guard.

Apparently Just Not Creative

Women Never Listed Among the Great Composers, Painters---or Even Cooks

By RELMAN MORIN
(For HAL BOYLE)

NEW YORK (AP)—I see by the papers where a British scientist has been making comparative studies of men and women, and now has arrived at a conclusion.

He finds the ladies superior in most ways.

They live longer, he says, and have more vitality. They are less sensitive to cold. They have more courage and a greater emotional range. Linked with this latter point, the professor said, women are more dangerous than men when aroused, and more prone to mayhem, battery and assault.

Well, it is good to have all these facts certified to by science itself, although they are not exactly new nor worth a flash. Most of us suspected the situation.

However, I was unable to find any comparative data in the areas of intelligence, ingenuity, imagination or creative ability. If the professor's research covered these items, he seems not to have written any findings — possibly for reasons of personal safety.

* * *

Could it be that women are deficient in these fields?

For example, there is no great woman composer of music. Offhand, I can't recall a single name in that art.

Same with painting. Unless you like cows and horses, and therefore are a fan for Rosa Bonheur, the feminine batting average in this field is pretty low.

As for literature, there are some fair-to-middling women writers, but none who can play in the same league with Ernest Hemingway, or any of the other top-flight male writers. In fact, lady authors seldom produce "creative" literature. What they tend to produce is simply idealized reporting.

That is, they write about themselves, their families, themselves, babies, themselves, the other woman, themsel[illegible]

* * *

Nor have they done much in the theater, compared with the great dramatists. This is surprising, too, when you think of it, because the average woman has a fine talent for histrionics and high drama when she wants a new kitchen or a trip to Honolulu.

We will brush over the field of original thought, and simply say there are no great feminine philosophers.

Presumably, the ladies should finished one-two-three in the cooking and culinary departments. But the fact is that the great chefs are all men, and the truly noble sauces and recipes were created by men. Seems to indicate, again, that women have no creativeness and are not good at original thinking.

* * *

Moreover, getting back to the professor, it is not so surprising that women live longer.

The answer may lie in the fact that the average housewife doesn't have to overexert herself in the pursuance of her daily chores.

She will make it sound like a man-killing job, but this is largely sales talk. The soap operas, I'm told, are still getting along fine and the "vacuum cleaner audience" runs into the millions. Of course, afternoon bridge can be very wearing sometimes. But when a woman sighs, 'What a day I've had.'' it is usually designed to soften up Papa for cold cuts and canned beans.

Yes, sir, professor, it's a wonder women don't live forever.

Driver Falls Asleep, Car Uproots Tree

A sleepy motorist who lost control of his car early today on Crooks road in Avon Township, knocked over six guard rails with his auto and then uprooted a tree, throwing is across the road.

Denton Childers, 19, of 1440 Ruby, Rochester, the driver, told Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies Robert Metro and Billy Hargraves that he fell asleep while traveling south on Crooks road about 50 miles per hour, when he hit the tree just south of Hamlin road.

Two other autos received minor damage when they ran across the tree, which was one foot in diameter and blocked part of Crooks road, deputies said.

Childers was treated at Pontiac General Hospital for nose cuts.

County to Get $18,500 in Special Polio Aid

Oakland County will receive $18,500 as its share of $107,475 in special polio epidemic aid given nine Michigan counties by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The foundation said the contributions, given to bolster treasures depleted by caring for polio victims, brings the total of special grants to 44 Michigan counties in 1954 to $805,685. Only California has received more, the foundation said.

Nationalists Returned in New Zealand Voting

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP)—Prime Minister Sydney G. Holland still holds power today following New Zealand's general elections, but his parliamentary majority has been whittled down.

Virtually final returns from Saturday's balloting showed the Premier's Nationalist party holding 43 of the 80 seats in the onehouse legislature. Labor held 37. In the old house the Nationalists held 50 seats to the Laborites' 30.

Fish are the principal source of animal protein for the Japanese people and provide an estimated 85 per cent of their total supply of that variety of essential food products.

New Dodge Cars Feature Longer and Lower Lines

The 1955 Dodge passenger car line will be introduced this week in dealers' showrooms across the nation.

William C. Newberg, Dodge president, asserts that car stylists have blended aircraft sleekness and power into a "design of refreshing beauty."

He revealed that Dodge engineers have incorporated over 100 structural and mechanical innovations in the longer, lower and wider 1955 line.

Three series—the new Custom Royal, the Royal and the Coronet—comprise the '55 Dodge line.

Dodge also offers a wide choice of engines — the "Get-Away Six" developing 123 horsepower, the all-new Red Ram V-8 rated at 175 horsepower, the Super Red Ram V-8 at 183 horsepower, and the super-powered Super Red Ram V-8 at 193 horsepower.

Another innovation is three-tone color combinations on the Lancer hardtop and convertible models. All 14 models have an increased wheelbase of 120 inches with as much as 16 inches gained in overall length. Windshields wrap around at both top and bottom of the glass. Gear selector lever is on the central panel.

A choice of two transmissions includes the automatic PowerFlite drive with Dodge's "scat" gear for safe passing, and standard shift transmission, with or without overdrive.

Optional new features on the 1955 Dodge line include power brakes, power-controlled seats, power window lifts, and a back seat hi-fidelity radio speaker. Tubeless tires are standard equipment on all models.

Thirteen colors are available, including 15 two-tone paint combinations and the first three-tone combinations in the industry.

Store Still Wants Eggs

HUMBOLDT, Tenn. (UP) — T. P. Bethshares began advertising in 1891 that his grocery "wants 1,000 dozen eggs." Maybe he never got them. His son, A. L. Bethshares, operates the store now and still "wants 1,000 dozen eggs."

Bromfield Will Sell Cows; Hits Dairying

MANSFIELD, O., (INS)—Louis Bromfield, author and farmer, will offer his Holstein herd for sale Wednesday because he finds dairy farming no longer profitable.

The famous master of Malabar Farm said almost any kind of farming is more lucrative and less trouble than keeping a dairy herd.

"It is not improbable," he said, "that if the present trend continues there will be a shortage of good clean milk within a couple of years."

He pointed out that the farmer in area only gets 7 cents for a quart of milk that brings 22 cents in the store.

Mendes Visits French Canada

Premier Stops Over in Quebec En Route to Washington

QUEBEC (AP) —Dynamic, fast-moving French Premier Pierre Mendes-France plowed into a crowded round of calls on French Canada's leaders today.

The 47-year-old French statesman, en route to Washington and paying his first visit to Canada, planned visits to leaders of Quebec province and its capital city and an appearance at North America's oldest French-language university, Laval.

He and his beautiful Egyptian-born wife Liliane planned to board a plane afterwards for the brief hop to Montreal. After visits to two universities there and an address at a reception in his honor, the French Premier flies to Ottawa and on Wednesday to Washington.

The strains of "La Marseillaise," a 100-man guard of honor and a crowd of 500 greeted the French party yesterday when their trans-atlantic Air France Constellation deposited them at the Quebec airport after the flight from Paris.

March 1 Seen as Target for OK of German Pacts

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent

It looks as if March 1 may be made the target date for ratification of the London and Paris agreements to rearm western Germany and make it a sovereign nation—despite Russian attempts at sabotage.

March 1 is about the earliest possible date for final approval of the agreements by the nine powers concerned.

There may be minor crises meantime between France and West Germany over their agreement on the Saar coal region, which is linked with the armament treaty.

Russia is making a desperate attempt to sabotage the agreement and its note of Saturday proposing an all-Europe security agreement was its first big move.

The Kremlin has 15 weeks before March 1 to make new moves.

But advices from the capitals of the signatory countries indicate that ratification is certain, and that if there is any delay it will not be serious—nor will it be due to Russia.

The nine countries which agred to the armament treaty are the United States, Canada, Great Britain, France, Western Germany, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

A survey of the nine capitals indicates that Great Britain will lead the ratification parade and that the "Benelux" countries—Belgium, hTe Netherlands and Luxembourg—will be last.

The situation at the moment is:

Great Britain—The House of Commons will debate the agreements Wednesday and Thursday. They will be invited to approve the government's policy. But Queen Elizabeth, not Parliament, ratifies treaties. Soon after the debate, a copy of the agreements will be given to her for her signature.

France—The National Assembly is to debate the agreements starting Dec. 14. Then Premier Pierre Mendes-France will ask for ratification vote. The prediction is that with the support of the Socialists he will get it easily.

United States —President Eisenhower is submitting the agreements to the Senate today for its ratification. He will recommend that the ratification vote, which is sure to be favorable overwhelmingly, be taken soon after the new Congress meets Jan. 5.

Canada—The agreements will be among the first order of business when Parliament meets early in January.

West Germany—The Bundestag of the Bonn parliament will debate the agreements Dec. 16, 17 and 18. Ratification is expected late in February after long committee study. Chancellor Konrad Adenauer faces a fight because the Saar agreement is linked with the armament agreements, but it is predicted he will get a comfortable majority.

Italy—Ratification is expected late in February after study in parliamentary committees. Premier Mario Scelba is expected to have no trouble.

Benelux countries—All plan to ratify after France and Germany do. No trouble is expected.

Though Russia undoubtedly will keep on trying to sabotage the agreements, there seems no chance that she can even delay ratification.

Rayburn, Ike to Confer on U. S. Foreign Policy

BONHAM, Tex. (AP) — Rep. Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) says he will go to Washington tomorrow to talk with President Eisenhower about U. S. foreign policy.

The veteran Democrat, expected to be House speaker in the new Congress, said, "The President wants us to tell him how to get along in foreign affairs, and I'll have to admit that the President needs some help."

Teenage Crime Worrying Reds These Days, Too

VIENNA (AP)—Even the Communist bosses admit they are worried about a soaring teen-age crime rate and a decline in moral standards in Eastern Europe.

Western officials in Vienna feel that acts of teen-age rowdyism in the East are a reaction against the restrictions of communism.

Hungary and Poland seem the hardest hit. Hungarian newspapers say people in Budapest are afraid of leaving home at nights for fear of holdups. In Poland, teen-age hooligans reportedly terrorize entire neighborhoods. Polish newspapers have reported teenage crimes almost every day of the past six months.

Communist officials blame the high teen-age crime rate on police. Communist bosses also complain that judges are too lenient with offenders.

Naguib Ousted by Army Junta

President of Egypt Is Under Arrest; Nasser Grabs Control

By WILTON WYNN

CAIRO, Egypt, (AP)—Maj. Gen. Mohamed Naguib was in the political ashcan today after his ouster as Egypt's president by the ruling military junta. Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser, taking over as acting president yesterday, held undisputed power.

Naguib, popular hero of the 1952 revolution against ex-King Farouk, was charged with being implicated in a recent unsuccessful plot by the fanatic Moslem Brotherhood to assassinate Nasser.

* * *

A long rivalry between the two soldier-politicians had flared into an open struggle for power last spring. Nasser emerged then as the nation's strong-man ruler. Naguib became a figurehead president.

He was unseated yesterday and placed under arrest in a government house outside Cairo without any major outbreak of violence.

The capital remained still calm today, but the atmosphere was tense.

Dr. Sam's Fantastic Story Too Implausible to Be Lie?

CLEVELAND (INS)—"The reason why I think Sam Sheppard is innocent is because no guilty person who had more than five minutes to think could come up with a story as implausible as his is," said a veteran trail reporter the other night.

"I've been covering these things since 1906 and I must have heard a hundred defendants say 'everything went black and when I came to there I was with that smoking pistol in my hand.' For Sam, everything went black, white and gray.

"When he climbed the steps in answer to his wife's screams, he says he saw a 'white object' standing behind Marilyn's bed. He hasn't said clearly as yet whether it was human or not.

"When he chased after it downstairs, having regained his senses after being flattened, he says he saw something dark fleeing through the door that leads down to the beach. Down on the beach—where the cops say there were no signs of a fight—Sam says he got knocked out again by this thing, and then everything went gray.

"It went so gray, he says, that he wandered around the house for a long time, walking in and out of rooms, wondering what to do, making sure his wife was dead and the kid was still sleeping, and so forth. Things got so gray, he says, that it never occurred to him to call the cops. Instead, he called his friend Mayor Houk, and he identified the killer as 'they.'

"I say that he must be telling the truth. Anybody with an education beyond the kindergarten could invent a better story than that."

All hands concerned are taking the long view of the Sheppard case. A delegation of visiting reporters called on Judge Edward Blythin to ask that he adjourn court on the Friday after Thanksgiving, to enable them to return home for the long weekend. Fred Garmone, lawyer for the defense, joined in the request.

The old judge shook his jowls like an indignant gobbler and said he'd hear of no such sentimental nonsense in the middle of a murder trial. Saul Danaceau, of the prosecution force, said he might consider urging the judge to hold court on Thanksgiving Day.

A number of reporters are convinced the defense will string out the trial until Christmas Eve, at which time Dr. Sam will be acquitted while a boys' choir sings carols in the snow outside the courtroom.

One of the stranger and more poignant scenes of the environs of the trial is a nightly visit which relatives and friends pay to the ragamuffin prisoners who share the elegant osteopath's jail. No saws or bar files are passed for the simple reason that the visitors in question are not permitted inside the place.

"Gonna see if I can gitcha out next Monday-Tuesday, honey," a massive lady trilled up to a locked-up spouse on the eighth floor of the prison, as I was leaving the combination court and jail the other night.

"You hear me?" she called in a louder voice, just a trace impatient.

"I hear ya, sugar," a thin voice came down from on high. There was an imperceptible pause in which one imagined he wanted to add, "Can't you do it sooner?" but the addition didn't come. Instead he said, "Thanks."

Farther up the street a tough-looking kid with leather jacket, Luftwaffe hat, and a D.A. haircut leaned laconically on his parked motorcycle and shouted up the news to a less mobile delinquent.

"Cleveland's okay," shrugged Eddie Francis, the bailiff, during a recess the other day, "But it got more than its share of guys with fishhooks in their pockets." Eddie, long-time New Yorker who will return there as soon as he retires, says you could thirst to death in the average Cleveland bar before it would occur to the house to buy one.

Thus Mom Should Feel Sympathetic

Youngster's Pain Can Be Related to Her Experience

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

On Mrs. D.'s bedside table is a child-guidance book that contains a chapter titled "Jealousy in Your Child."

It has told her that when her Bobby runs off with his little sister's rag doll, pushes her away or otherwise hurts her, he is returning hurt for the hurt Janey did him by getting born.

So, though his jealous behavior often irriates her, his mother tries to give Bobby the "reassuring" love to make it safe to leave her children alone for five minutes.

Mrs. D. has been misled by the chapter title in her child-guidance book. Let me say this to her:

Jealousy in your child is no different from jealousy in you. To try to treat it as a childhood phenomenon can get you nowhere. Your book's implication that it can is your real problem.

It makes it impossible for you to feel Boby's need for reassuring love through your own experience of jealousy. It alienates you from your little human being who is suffering as you have suffered.

So, instead of reading any more about Bobby's jealousy, let's see if we can't begin to feel it.

What happened in Mrs. D. last week when Bobby's father complained about the grocery bill? When he said, "Why you can't manage this house on the money my mother can manage on, I don't understand," how did she feel?

How did she reply: Didn't she say angrily, "Will you please stop praising your mother's housekeeping to me? All that crimping she does to save a nickel! Why, the children never get enough to eat in her house! If you admire that kind of stingy housekeeping . . ."

Isn't this an attempt to push away her mother-in-law's housekeeping reputation just like Bobby's pushing Jane? Back of both, isn't there the same scared, lonely doubt of real appreciation?

If Mrs. D. can examine what was back of her attack last week, Bobby's jealousy will suddenly stop irritating her. The bad behavior will begin to dissolve like a mist, exposing the pain she has not understood.

And the "reassurance" her book has ben preaching about will burst from her so spontaneously that her little boy will begin to really believe in it.

For jealousy is suffering, no matter what age we are.

Woman Earns Pin Money With Emergency Nursery

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"I know you are always interested in hearing of young mothers who make money at home," Ellen G. writes, "and I thought you might like to hear about our Mrs. Clark.

"Mrs. Clark lives in our neighborhood and has a 3-year-old daughter. Before her marriage, Mrs. Clark was a nurse, but now she stays home and takes care of her house.

"There are seven or eight of us in the neighborhood who are also mothers of young children, but we go to work.

"Take, for instance, myself.

"I kept my job even after my little boy was born, because my husband is starting out in a profession and we need my paycheck.

"We have a good sitter who takes care of little Bobby, but even the best sitter sometimes doesn't show up—she gets a cold, or has trouble in the family, or something.

"Always, in the past, that was a major crisis—I couldn't get to the office on time, had a terrible scramble finding a substitute, and worried all day about little Bobby. But no more, thanks to Mrs. Clark.

"One day when I was in a big mess and the sitter didn't show, I thought of Mrs. Clark, and asked her if I could drop Bobby off there while I went to work.

"She was delighted, and Bobby loved her. He played with her little daughter and had a fine time.

"That night, I was talking with some of the other girls who work, and telling them about my happy solution. It was a problem all of them faced once in awhile, and they were much interested.

"So the next day we approached Mrs. Clark and asked if she would be interested in a deal whereby any time any of our sitters didn't show, we could leave the children with her. Sort of a temporary pre-school nursery, so to speak.

"She checked with her husband and the health authorities, and agreed to do it. She's at home anyway, with her own daughter, and not a week goes by that one or the other of us—sometimes several of us—doesn't leave one of ours with her.

"She does a wonderful job, the kids love her, and she picks up 20 to 40 dollars pin money monthly."

The longer I live, the more I see that any of us, if we look right under our noses, can find opportunity.

If you need extra money, see if there isn't some service you can perform right in your own neighborhood.

Overheating Will Steam Windows

By HUBBARD COBB

Around this time last year (it was a little colder as we recall) a friend asked us what he could do to prevent sweating windows.

We told him to get storm sashes and so he went out and got storm sashes. Day or so later he asked us what could be done about sweating windows and storm sashes and we told him to open the vents in the storm sash to allow the moist air to flow outdoors.

A few days went by and this certain individual comes to us and says he has opened the vents and drilled holes where there were no vents but things are still bad.

We tell him (this was our last hope) to try weatherstripping the inside sash, which he does and which fails to do any good.

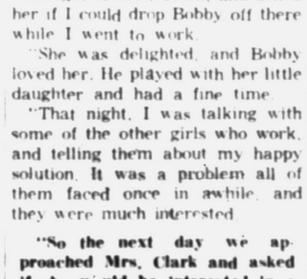

Now a situation like this can become, after a period of time, discouraging for all concerned; so one fine cold day we drove out to his house to see what this was all about.

We opened the door and for a minute we thought we were back in a jungle. The temperature in that house must have been close to 80 degrees and the humidity must have been close to 99.

They had hot baths running, hot showers running, the humidifier on the furnace running, things boiling on the kitchen range and the washing machine and clothes dryer going full blast. What's more, our boy was busy watering all the indoor plants.

We carefully explained that if you have a high indoor temperature and flood the air with moisture you are almost sure to get condensation and frost during very cold weather on certain surfaces exposed to the cold.

We said if he'd turn off those showers, reduce the humidifier and use an exhaust fan to remove the moist air it would help a good deal but we don't think he ever got around to doing it.

Another thing you shouldn't take too hard is the cider season.

Photo Cards Not Proper in All Cases

By EMILY POST

Today's first question concerns Christmas cards: "We have a snapshot of our two children sitting beside the Christmas tree. This picture was taken last year and it turned out so well that we are using it on our Christmas cards this year.

"However, my husband has many business friends to whom he sends Christmas cards and we were wondering if this card may properly be sent to them as well as to intimate friends and relatives.

"Somehow I feel that it is much too personal a card to send to business acquaintances and that a more formal type of card should be sent them. What is your opinion?"

Answer: It depends entirely upon how well he knows them and how friendly they are. If he has often spoken to them about the children, it would be entirely proper to send them a card with their pictures.

If they are people he hardly knows, and he has talked with them on business subjects only, then I think a less personal card would be better.

Dear Mrs. Post: When a bridal shower is given, is it proper for the prospective bridegroom to be present throughout the evening? Recently I was told that he should be invited too and that he should help the bride open the presents.

I should think he would feel terribly out of place. Will you please advise me as I am going to give a shower for a friend and want to know what to do about inviting the bridegroom-to-be?

Answer: So far as I know the bridegroom-to-be is never present while the presents are being opened. (Certainly not at a lingerie shower). Generally he comes in later to help her take her packages home.

Dear Mrs. Post: A friend of mine is going on a trip shortly to a country that is noted for its fine woolens which are far less expensive than they are here. Would it be an imposition to ask her to bring me back a sweater. I will pay for it of course.

Answer: If you remember to provide your friend with money to pay the customs duty as well as the purchase price, it would not be an imposition to ask her to bring you a sweater.

Baby Not Hurt by Little Falls

It generally takes one thumping fall for parents to realize that baby can get about with great ease. He can't crawl yet, and he only rolls one way, perhaps, but suddenly he's off the bed and plop on the floor.

Don't worry, he hasn't been hurt. But now is the time to keep a constant eye on him if you dress him on something high or let him lie on the sofa while you get his bottle.

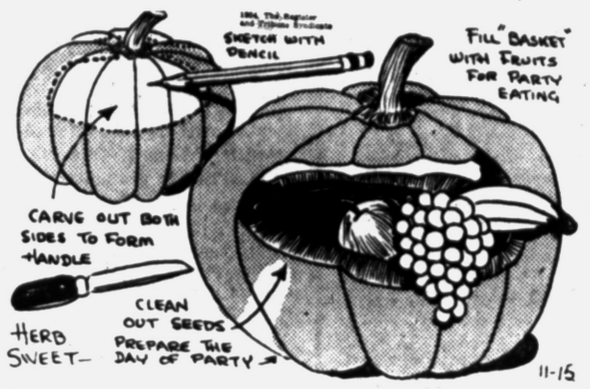

You may find that a card listing all the things you need for his bath may enable you to get everything assembled in advance so you won't have to go back for the diaper pins you forgot.

Cut Pumpkin Into Basket

It will not be too long until Thanksgiving Day is here. In fact, some of you may only have a few more days left before Thanksgiving vacation begins. If you are excited about this day and all that it means, how about helping Mother?

Part of the beauty of the Thanksgiving table is in the decoration. Mother is always busy fixing turkey and all of the trimmings, so how about having a talk with her about your doing the centerpiece?

I know that you are good at making pumpkin faces, so I'll bet that you are also good at making a basket from a pumpkin. Mrs. James H. Healy, Milwaukee, Wis., tells us that she uses these pumpkin baskets filled with fresh fruit.

The fruit can then be used for snacks during the evening. Draw your cutting plan on with a pencil, as shown, then cut away the shell. Clean, and your pumpkin is a basket ready for use. Mother will like this.

You can also wax your pumpkin with a coating of household wax, then shine it after the wax has dried about 20 minutes. This will give your pumpkin a "brand-new" look and it will match the fruit which will fill it.

Butterscotch Pie Made With Water

Mrs. Dale Kline's Rich Dessert Good Milk-Free Recipe

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Yummy butterscotch pie is the subject of today's recipe. Mrs. Dale Kline has used this recipe for over 20 years and thinks there is none better. Since it is made with water rather than milk, it will appeal to those who are allergic to milk and those who watch calories.

Mrs. Kline spends a great deal of time and travel in connection with her job and the lodge to which she belongs. For a year she ran a restaurant. A son in junior high school and two active grandsons provide the stimulus for anything but a quiet life.

OLD FASHIONED BUTTERSCOTCH PIE
By Mrs. Dale Kline

1 cup brown sugar
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup cold water
2 egg yolks, beaten
4 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 teaspoon vanilla
Baked pie shell
2 egg whites
3 tablespoons sugar

Mix flour and brown sugar, add water and beaten yolks. Cook until smooth and thickened. Add butter or margarine and vanilla. This is enough for a 7-inch pie.

Make a meringue with the two egg whites, adding the granulated sugar.

Girl Lacks Confidence With Boys

Should Shun Them Until She's Older, More Poised

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

It's easy enough to get carried away by an idea. Maybe it's a dress. A luscious black job. Very full in the skirt, very off-the-shoulder. You're sure you'd look divine in it—you pine and fume to have it, but mother says no—10 years from now maybe.

Maybe it's dates. You see dates going on—kids talk about them and whip up your steam. But nobody asks you for dates. The boys don't even know you're alive yet.

Clothes, dates, boys, driving the car, late hours, evenings out—lots of ideas like these get you by the throat. The pattern looks perfect and you want it for yourself.

But the bitter truth is that you don't fit into it. And you churn—as this girl does.

"Dear Miss Woodward: I'm 13 and I'm considering going to a girls' school because I find it difficult to get along with boys.

"I don't know how to act or what to say when I'm with a boy. My girl friend says I shouldn't run away from the fact. Please help me make this important decision."

There are boys all over the place at school apparently, and you have an idea that you should go over big with them. Other girls seem to. You think you should too.

But it's not like that. The boys panic you. Their very presence makes you feel strained, awkward, tongue-tied. It's deadly.

Running away from where boys are would postpone your chance of taking them as a matter of course. In fact, they might become even more important in your thinking.

You can stay right where you are and pay absolutely no attention to the boys for the time being. You can be so busy with the girls and your own work and activities that you can ignore them.

For it's highly possible that your idea of getting along well with the boys has hit you before you're really ready for it. It takes poise, merry gaiety, happy chatter, wit and good-humored self-confidence. And perhaps you're on the serious side, the bottled-up emotions side, the self-conscious sort of girl who isn't really at ease even with strange girls.

It takes time growing and getting around with your family and your girl friends to fashion the pattern of your personality. The design of some 13-year-old girls is already pretty well set. But there are others who take a bit longer to shape up.

A violent awareness of the boys may have happened to you before it's time. It's an uncomfortable idea. Convince yourself that it's a bother, inappropriate and unnecessary for you to anguish over it right now.

A bit later on when the boys show that they want to get along with you, you'll find you can handle them.

Who'll Be Honored in the Year 2001?

By MARY MARGARET MCBRIDE

For me, the most fascinating piece of masonry in New York City—maybe the world—is a stone in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine onto which in the year 2001 will be cut the name of the man (or woman) who has contributed most to the 20th Century.

I refect often on that blank stone and wonder just who, 46 years hence, will have the difficult task of deciding what name is to go there. First, of course, he (or more likely a committee) will have to determine what is meant by contribution.

Josef Stalin, for instance, was responsible for some of the major activity of the 20th century and so, it can't be denied, was Adolf Hitler. The two affected countless lives but it is certain that their names will never be cut into the cathedral stone.

Even after eliminating the predominately unpleasant among the key figures of the first half of the century, it still will be almost impossible to make a choice that will be acceptable to all.

A political leader? The selection of any one of them would raise a fury of protest. Try them out on any group—Wilson, Roosevelt, Eisenhower, Churchill!

We're always saying that this is the age of science, so maybe a scientist should have the honor. Only, who is pre-eminent? An atom-smasher? One who has been a guinea pig in the fight against disease? Perhaps there is someone living and working today—maybe a woman—who in the years remaining to the 20th Century will give cancer its knockout blow.

Almost the only category where women have an equal chance with men is in the field of science though Willa Cather would get my vote if writers were being considered. I suppose she would have to battle for the place with Hemingway, Faulkner, T. S. Eliot and men and women yet unborn.

I don't somehow believe a writer's name will be carved into that stone though, unless of course the writer becomes the popular hero again as he was in the time of Charles Dickens when multitudes of readers actually waited in the streets for the coming of the latest installment of a Dickens serial.

If a great spiritual leader were to be the choice, I think immediately of those four young wartime chaplains, a Catholic Priest, a Jewish rabbi and two Protestant clergymen who comforted and encouraged others, even giving away their life belts and finally going down with the ship in a fellowship as brave and fine as anything history has to offer.

I thought Gandhi was great, but the other day a man I'd always considered intelligent called him a faker. I guess it would be hopeless to try to peg down the name of one man who had made the biggest contribution to the world in even one year, let alone a century.

If I were on the committee, I think I'd suggest handling the carving on the stone the way nations honor the war dead. They erect memorials to the unknown soldier who then symbolizes all who have done their part bravely.

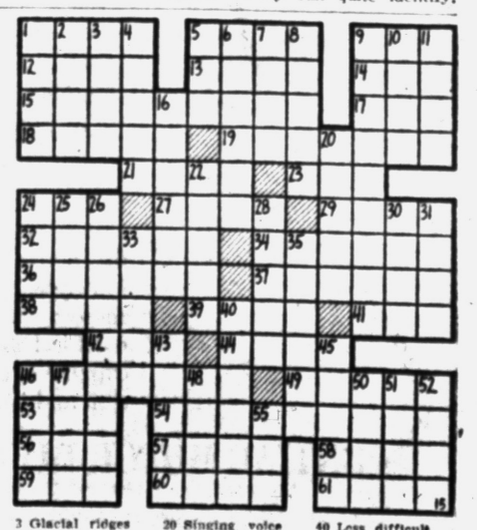

So on the cathedral stone might be cut The Common Man, for the largest contributions to our century are probably being made after all by that legendary figure whom nobody can quite identify.

Fashion Writers Recall Dream of Past as They Tour Hollywood Studio

This is the first of two articles by Judith L. Clemence, Pontiac Press Women's Editor who toured the Universal-International studios in Hollywood with visiting editors who were in Los Angeles to view spring fashions Oct. 30 through Nov. 8.

By JUDITH L. CLEMENCE

The sign over the gate read "Universal-International Studios" and suddenly there was a silence among fashion writers who were in Los Angeles to preview spring fashions.

Perhaps it was the accompanying sign which said, "Positively No Admittance" or it may have been that fleeting second when editors recalled their teen-age days. Days when they had made solemn promises to themselves that they too would grow up to become movie stars.

On this particular evening we had been invited by the studio to join with several studio executives and actors at a dinner party preceded by a tour of the studio.

The bus took us over the entire lot (388 acres) which is laid out very much like a small city—in fact it is called Universal City and has its own post office.

We drove down the little streets you have seen over and over—the sleepy western town, the little Mexican village, the typical English city and many others.

And down on a tiny stream within the gates of Universal-International we saw the paddle steamer used in the movie "The Mississippi Gambler."

Along another "street" the maintenance crew had stored hundreds of used props. One we recognized was the front of an Egyptian boat used in the picture "Cleopatra" starring Claudette Colbert.

There are natural mountains on one side of this studio but they have added a few props for some of their western pictures.

As we made a sharp turn we came upon the stars' dressing rooms which join one another, row after row very much like a motel section.

With the completion of the tour we walked over to the commissary to be greeted by two of our wonderful hosts, Jack Smith and Gail Gifford of the publicity department.

Right away it seemed like home coming week for these two are former Michiganders and still very much interested in this state and the manufacturing of automobiles.

Introductions to studio personnel had hardly begun when Miss Gifford said, "Mrs. Clemence have you met . . ." and your reporter was face to face with Joan Crawford!

A great deal flashed by at that moment. We recalled a room filled with every available picture of Miss Crawford. Pictures of her with dark tresses, with blond hair for "Our Blushing Brides," and dozens of pictures of her in her favorite costumes.

And here she was, the queen of motion pictures, telling us that she preferred casual clothes, saying that women want to "feel comfortable in the clothes they wear."

There were so many others to meet and we left Miss Crawford reluctantly, but before the evening was over, she returned to our table to chat briefly.

After formal introductions, Jeff Chandler, star of "Sign of the Pagan" told us that he fully appreciates the Pontiac car. In fact, he said he had driven a bronze convertible "very successfully for two and one-half years."

For those of you who rated him so highly as "Cochise" Mr. Chandler explained why he does not wish to continue with this type of role. Although he liked doing Cochise, he said, "It is riding a good thing into the ground."

Born Ira Grossel, this versatile actor remains humble, almost shy in face of the attention and adulation heaped upon him. In fact, he told your reporter, "It is hard to accept yourself as newsworthy."

Idol of the bobbysoxers Tony Curtis served as master of ceremonies for the dinner program, and announced that we would see a special screening of "Sign of the Pagan" right there on the lot.

It was our idea of comfort in a movie—deep, leather upholstered chairs with plenty of room between seats. We really enjoyed the picture which deals with Attila the Hun and his conqueror, Marcian. The producer, Albert J. Cohen, told us that huge sections of the studio were required for construction of this picture.

You will be able to appreciate this when you see ancient Rome, the sprawling Hun encampments and the eastern fortress of Constantinople unfold in this magnificent picture in technicolor and on cinemascope.

We met many other stars including Mamie Van Doren, Julia Adams, Rory Calhoun, John Agar, Barbara Rush, Tony Curtis' wife, Janet Leigh and Lita Baron, wife of Rory Calhoun.

That night we left this make-believe world happy in the knowledge that we were returning the following day to watch movies in action and to meet other people who help to make the wheels go round.

Lanolin Plus Can Make Any Skin Softer, Smoother and Younger-Looking Overnight

If you are young, you will have a smoother, softer, easier-to-make-up skin overnight. If you are older, you will lose all skin dryness overnight — never to return again as long as you keep up this delightful treatment. Your lines and "Crow's Feet" will soften and fade. Your make-up, too, over your new, smoother skin, will then give you a more youthful look.

One of the most significant moments of any woman's life occurs the day she looks into her mirror to see a tiny network of lines beginning to etch its way into her precious complexion. Those little lines tell her, as nothing else can, that the firm, supple skin of her youth is giving way to the dry, not-so-attractive complexion of an added year.

Time was, when such knowledge brought either panic or quiet resignation. Today, it's a different story. For with the progress of science, a way has at last been found to postpone the arrival of age-lines indefinitely, or to alleviate age signs that have already begun to form.

A "Miracle" Solution Is Discovered

It all began with a modern study of skin. What makes it softly silken? What makes it lose that envied quality? Scientists discovered that in youth, certain softening substances, known as cholesterols and esters, are found in the skin in adequate abundance. But as years roll on, nature more often than not becomes sluggish. Fewer of these important youth-keeping elements are manufactured by the body. And even worse . . . a frightening amount of lubricants are stolen away from the skin every day by wind, water, weather. Little wonder the complexion becomes dry and parched . . . a regular nesting place for ugly lines and "crow's feet"!

Having discovered an important cause of dry skin and its sad results, science set about to find relief. A solution was finally discovered that not only contained pure lanolin with its abundance of youthifying cholesterols and esters . . . but which presented those substances in a way that would penetrate skin of any age. Known as LANOLIN PLUS Liquid, this solution actually improves complexions overnight because it penetrates. It smooths the surface, then penetrates, to supply the skin with needed lubricants. Dryness noticeably diminishes. A fresh, moist look appears. And as the skin becomes more silky and supple with continued treatment, "crow's feet" and other lines become softer and less noticeable.

The Time Is Now . . No Matter What Your Age!

If your skin is still young and soft-textured, now is the time to protect that beauty . . to help keep that youthful glow indefinitely. Nightly applications of LANOLIN PLUS Liquid offer a new supply of the lubricants lost daily . . postpone indefinitely the onset of dry skin with its disfiguring lines. And in the meeantime, this skin-loving lubricant brings new dewy freshness to even the youngest of skins!

If You Are 30 or Older

If tiny lines have just begun to trace themselves around your eyes, mouth . . . on your forehead, don't let them make further headway! LANOLIN PLUS Liquid, applied nightly, and used as a powder base during the day—keeps your complexion in constant contact with these valuable, lubricating cholesterols and esters.

Older skins, too, are vastly improved by conscientious daily applications of LANOLIN PLUS Liquid. This softening substance helps prevent aging lines and "crow's feet" from etching themselves deeply into the complexion. Instead, as the skin becomes smoother and more elastic looking, lines seem to blend into the general softness . . . become delicate accents instead of harsh delinations.

How to Reap the Greatest Benefits From Amazing Lanolin Plus Liquid

Use the pleasant lemon-colored liquid tonight, to remove every speck of make-up. LANOLIN PLUS Liquid actually penetrates the pores, helps flush out stale cosmetics. Then massage a few drops of Liquid into your skin just before retiring. Blot off excess. Your skin will feel dewy-smooth as a baby's.

A few drops of LANOLIN PLUS Liquid, used as a make-up base, keeps your complexion in contact with beneficial cholesterols and esters all day long. And its invisible film protects your skin from drying air and rough, wintry weather.

Warmed slightly, this penetrating solution is excellent as a facial . . . makes the skin tingle with warmth and smooth-skinned freshness.

But no matter when and how you use it, do pamper your skin with LANOLIN PLUS Liquid, beginning tonight. Your complexion will be improved next morning after the very first nightly application. You'll actually SEE and FEEL this improvement. Keep it up. In almost no time at all, find your friends green with envy over your new looks. Only a dollar plus tax wherever cosmetics are sold.

"TWO" CONFUSING—Georgia Markos, "baby" daughter of Mrs. Filla Markos, Cleveland, Ohio, shows off some of the gifts she received from classmates after a rather stirring entrance as a freshman at Cleveland's Fenn College. College registrars were temporarily under the impression that they had enrolled a super-precocious two-year-old when studying Georgia's application. It gave her age as two. Besides the fuss at school, the dark-eyed blonde has been barraged with coupons, baby care booklets and foods and her mother has been receiving messages of congratulations on her "birth." Georgia says the mixup stems from the fact that she discovered her birth hadn't been recorded. A fresh certificate was issued. Next her birth was recorded in a newspaper list. Clerks filling out her college application missed the fine print explanation of her birth certificate. Georgia says she feels silly about being two now, but thinks it'll be fine being 17 some 15 years from now.

Oakland County Population Jumps 109,999

Pontiac Records Growth of 4,119

5,276 to 21,700 Increase in Oak Park Is Greatest

Since the U. S. Census was taken in April 1950, Oakland County's population has grown form 396,001 to an estimated 506,000, according to the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission.

Pontiac has increased from 73,681 to 77,800, a gain of 4,119.

The county has grown 27.8 per cent in the 51 month period. This means that on July 1 this year, about one of every five persons living in the county was not a resident in April 1950.

Oak Park showed the greatest increase of any county community, rising from 5,267 to 21,700, a gain of 312 per cent.

Royal Oak stood second gaining 15,502 and Southfield third increasing 10,801.

Among the townships, Southfiled was followed by Waterford with a 6,725 gain, Royal Oak with 4,834 and Bloomfield with 4,749.

During the 1940-50 decade, the population of Oakland County increased 55.8 per cent. "If the high rate of gain achieved from 1950 to '54 is continued, the county will show an even greater gain of 65.4 in the 1950-60 decade," the planning commission predicts.

Some 67.5 per cent of the 1950-'54 gain took place in the three southeastern townships (Southfield, Royal Oak and Troy) with their cities and villages.

A gain of nearly 384,000 was registered in the whole metropolitan area including Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties. An increase from 3,016,197 to 3,400,000.

Macomb climbed from 184,961 to 250,000 and Wayne from 2,435,235 to 2,644,000.

Macomb led in percentage increase with 35.2, followed by Oakland with 27.8 and Wayne with 8.6. The whole area grew by 12.7 per cent.

"Generally high employment levels from 1950 to '53 accounted for substantial gains of around 100,000 a year in the metropolitan area," the commission said.

"During the past year there was a more rapid growth of population in the suburbs and outlying parts of the. . .area. . .reflected in a 20.1 per cent increase in the number of residential building permits issued outside Detroit."

NEW POWER, ECONOMY CLAIMED BY BUICK — Increased horsepower in the V-8 engine and a new variable-pitch dynaflow transmission are among features of the 1955 Buick models. The 236 horsepower is an increase of 54 over the 1954 cars. In appearance the cars have complete new styling with a wide-screen grille and new bumper and bumper guards. The Super (shown above) and Roadmaster have 127-inch wheelbase, and the Century and Special, 122-inch. Cars will be displayed Nov. 19 and may be seen here at the Oliver Motor Sales Inc., 210 Orchard Lake Ave.

French-Arab Clashes Take Toll of 31 Dead

TUNIS, Tunisia, (AP)—Clashes between French security forces and Nationalist guerrillas in restive Tunisia and Algeria took a weekend toll of at least 31 killed.

Twenty rebels were killed in one encounter Saturday at Djebel Garbou, in eastern Tunisia. Thirty others were wounded and two captured. The French lost one soldier.

In the Aures Mountains of southeast Algeria, French paratroopers killed five guerrillas and lost two men in fighting near Djebel Uchmoul. Two rebels and one French soldier were killed in another clash in the Algier region near Gigzirt.

Rochester Turkey Farmer Uses Psychology on Birds

Although it won't be Thanksgiving until Nov. 25 this year, Orville Felmlee was dining this week, as he does every week, on turkey.

Turkey raising, for lo, these many years an unskilled, haphazard kind of operation, has gone scientific.

Not only that, but they're using psychology on the critters now, in order to get better birds for the oven.

According to Felmlee, who owns the Rochester Turkey Farm at 1171 S. Rochester Rd., a happy turkey with a calm, unruffled disposition gains weight faster and is more profitable to raise.

He explains it this way:

A bird with no worries doesn't run around so much, spends more time eating, and doesn't exercise his weight away charging back and forth across the lot. And when the fatal day arrives, a turkey that can be picked up and dispatched with no fuss is easier to clean and dress because his skin and muscles are relaxed instead of tight and tense.

Felmlee, a native of Minnesota, purchased his 13-acre farm on Rochester road only four years ago, but has been in the turkey raising business since his youth. At present, he has about 2,500 birds on hand, nearly all about five months old and nearly full-grown.

Eating about a ton of feed a day, the flock gains weight rapidly. Since being hatched in June, the toms now scale between 23 and 25 pounds each, while hens weigh from 12 to 14 pounds.

At the Rochester Turkey Farm everyone is busy getting ready for the big Thanksgiving trade. Although Felmlee doesn't sell to stores, he estimates some 1800 Oakland County residents will drive out to his farm to pick up their turkeys this year.

Christmas is the other big turkey day, and more birds are sold in December than for Thanksgiving.

Felmlee and his wife not only raise and sell turkeys, they eat them, too. Every week, all year round, Mrs. Felmlee roasts a big tom turkey for Sunday dinner, which also provides meat for snacks and sandwiches all week long.

DINNER ON THE HOOF—Standing knee-deep in turkeys at his farm on Rochester road is Orville Felmlee, who is responsible for the Thanksgiving dinner on many Oakland County tables each year. The sleek, plump birds gathered about him are, in his words, "the best, happiest turkeys you can raise."

General Collins Now in Charge in Viet Nam

SAIGON, Viet Nam, (AP)—Gen. J. Lawton Collins, special envoy of President Eisenhower, took charge of the U.S. mission in chaotic, non-Communist South Viet Nam today, replacing Ambassador Donald R. Heath.

Heath, a 60-year-old career diplomat who had served in Indochina four years, flew to Washington yesterday for reassignment.

Collins, formerly U. S. Army chief of staff, has the personal rank of ambassador. He is charged with coordinating American diplomatic, military and economic agencies in South Viet Nam.

London Project Will Fill in Gaps Left by Bombing

LONDON (AP) — A construction program, spurred by recent lifting of government restrictions, promises to fill the bombed-out gaps which still mar the heart of London.

Fine modern buildings, including a few baby skyscrapers, will go up in the empty spaces.

About one third of the City of London, a square-mile financial center, was devastated by German bombs. The city planning office estimates that one fifth to one fourth of the area, including buildings and streets, has been returned to normal use. This leaves a number of stark "bomb site" areas.

After the war, building materials were funneled into housing and into factories and other construction which directly aided Britain's economic recovery. Only recently, after prodding by business interests and newspapers, the Churchill government scrapped its building licensing controls and put the matter back into hands of local planning authorities.

Buick Restyles Models for 1955

Variable-Pitch Starter in Dynaflow Is New Engineering Feature

Buick today presents a complete new line of cars, in four series, featuring all-new styling and more powerful V-8 engines, plus a revolutionary new variable pitch Dynaflow transmission.

Style-wise the new Buicks feature a new front end with a new wide-screen grille, new rear fenders, new tail lights patterned after those on the experimental Wildcat II, and new interiors in many color combinations of nylon, leather and cordaveen.

Horsepower has been increased to 236 in the Roadmaster, Super and Century series and to 188 in the Special.

The panoramic windshield has been retained, along with the sloping doorbelt line and full rear wheel cutout on all two-door models. Tubeless tires are standard equipment on all models except those equipped with wire wheels.

Power brakes are optional on all models and power steering is standard on the Roadmaster and Super, and optional on all other models. Ventiports, the Buick "trademark" are restyled with four on the top three series and three on the Special.

New engineering development is the variable pitch started vanes in the Dynaflow transmission. For all normal driving the Dynaflow operates on the same principal as last year's transmission, for greatest cruising economy. When additional performance is desired, the driver presses the accelerator all the way down, which changes the angle of the blades on the Dynaflow starter, permitting the engine to deliver a quick surge of maximum power.

Buick claims gasoline economy increase in all series by an average of 1.6 miles per gallon at a steady 30 miles an hour.

Compression ratio in the top three series is increased from 8.5 to 1 to 9 to 1, among highest in the industry. In the Specials the compression is upped to 8.4 to 1.

Buick's 1955 line comes in 15 six-passenger models, mounted on two wheelbases, 122 inches for the Special and Century and 127 inches for the Super and Roadmaster, all the same as last year.

Windshield wipers on the new models have been improved to cover a wider area of the outside corners of the panoramic windshields.

Distinctive touch on the Roadmaster is gold exterior trim, distinguishing it from other series. Hood ornament, grille emblem and medallion on the front door aso are in gold.

America's Classic Murder Trials

Mystery Still Surrounds 1922 Hall-Mills Slaying

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff

The famous Hall-Mills trial of 1926 was one of America's greatest.

It was a reporter's dream, a classic courtroom drama replete real life "whodunit?" Newspaper readers from coast to coast devoured the millions of words sent out from the big, gloomy courthouse in Somerville, N. J.

The reams of testimony revolved around the double-slaying of the Rev. Edward Hall, handsome 41-year-old rector of a fashionable New Brunswick (N. J.) church, and Mrs. Eleanor Mills, 34, his blonde choir-singing sweetheart whom he called his "wonderheart."

Three persons, the rector's widow and two of her relatives, were tried for the crime—and acquitted after a lurid, month-long courtroom spectacle the like of which has seldom been seen.

Hall and Eleanor Mills had been secret lovers. They were a comparatively young and romantic couple who were married to older life partners.

On the late summer night of Sept. 16, 1922, a couple strolling in the moonlight in a lonely lover's lane made a gruesome discovery.

They found the bodies of Hall and Mrs. Mills neatly laid out under a crab-apple tree in what was known locally as De Russey's lane.

By his side lay the body of the attractive choir singer. She had been shot three times and her throat slashed. A scarf covered her face.

Love letters which the couple had exchanged were strewn around their trysting place. The rector's eyeglasses were in place. His calling card lay nearby.

The crime rocked the state.

There were many clues and theories. But none bore fruit. The newspapers, however, kept the case alive. There were intimations of bribery, police bungling and political interference. The big mystery story rocketed back and forth in page 1 headlines.

Amid the furors of rumors, theories and the swirl of small town gossip, suspicion was directed against the highly respectable Hall family.

Finally, after a lapse of more than four years, Mrs. Frances Hall, widow of the slain rector, a refined elderly woman with graying hair, and three of her relatives were indicted for the double murder.

The other three were her brother Henry Stevens, a Lavalette, N. J., fisherman; her other brother Willie Stevens, a quaint, middle-aged bachelor who hung around the fire house and chased fires wearing a red helmet, and cousin Henry Carpender, wealthy member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Charges against Carpender were dismissed but Mrs. Hall and her two brothers went to trial.

Nothing like the celebrated Hall-Mills trial ever had been seen in New Jersey. Throngs of newspapermen and women jammed the pretty little town of Somerville those November days of 1926.

There was great excitement. The influx of newsmen and witnesses taxed the town's facilities. At the height of the trial applejack-drinking reporters accidentally set fire to one of Somerville's small hotels one cold Saturday night.

I was one of the 300 newspapermen reporting the sensational courtroom proceedings, writing the "running story" for International News Service. The press gave the trial blanket coverage. Writers filed a total of 300,000 to 500,000 words a day.

The trial even transcended in public interest the trial now in progress in Cleveland of Dr. Sam Sheppard, the osteophatic surgeon accused of the slaying of his wife, Marilyn.

Much of the scandal involving the secret love life of the Rev. Mr. Hall and Mrs. Mills came out at the spectacular trial. Long before the trial got under way on Nov. 3, 1926, the affair between the rector and his choir singer had become more or less common gossip.

Hall, whose wealthy and highly respected wife was seven years his senior, had fallen hard for the attractive Eleanor Mills, mother of two teenaged children and the wife of James Mills, the wizened church sexton and part-time janitor who reputedly was "crowding 70."

The good looking, youngish rector, who could deliver a powerful sermon on sin, had led a double life. He and Mrs. Mills met surreptitiously at off-hours in the fashionable church of St. John the Evangelist and slipped love letters to each other. Some of their tender missives were reported to have been passed in hymn books.

Star witness at the trial was Mrs. Jane Gibson, 52, a woman who raised pigs on her farm near De Russey's Lane, scene of the crime. She became known in the press as "The Pig Woman."

Mrs. Gibson had claimed she rode a mule to search for corn thieves and came upon the scene of the murder in the moonlight.

In the midst of the trial Mrs. Gibson, seriously ill from cancer, was brought into court on a stretcher to tell her startling eyewitness story. Two nurses attended her as she lay on a cot in the well of the courtroom, telling her own story in quite some detail. Occasionally, she had to pause and rest. It was an eerie spectacle.

Mrs. Gibson at a preliminary hearing had testified she saw Mrs. Hall, her brother Willie, and another male figure near the scene of the crime in De Russey's Lane.

But, testifying in her weakened condition at the trial, she was vague about some of her recollections and not specific in her identifications. She made a dramatic witness, however.

Mrs. Hall, attired in black, took the stand and in a cultured, well-modulated voice, testified she believed the Rev. Mr. Hall was faithful and true to her. She swore she spent the night of the murders in her home.

The eccentric Willie Stevens, who to the surprise of the press turned out to be a smart witness, testified he was at home the night of the crime. He lived with Mrs. Hall.

Henry Stevens, a ruddy-faced outdoorsman and expert marksman, claimed he was fishing near his home 58 miles away the night of the double slaying.

A scandalous sidelight of the trial involved the testimony of Ralph Gorsline, vestryman and a member of Hall's choir. It developed that Gorsline had dated another pretty church member and was in a darkened car in the lover's lane the night of the crime. He, too, was married.

Gorsline saw nobody he knew the night he had taken his date to the lover's lane. His testimony amounted only to a juicy tidbit for small town gossip and contributed little to the trial.

The maid in the Hall home, Barbara Tough, revealed comings and goings there but, like others who had suspected that Hall was leading a double life, had said nothing to the rector's wife.

Charlotte Mills, the slain woman's daughter, was a witness for the prosecution. She also wrote first-person, byline articles on the case for a New York newspaper.

The lawyers had many field days during the trial. Alexander Simpson, New Jersey's "Napoleon of the Bar," tried hard to get a conviction. The battery of seven defense attorneys fought him tooth and nail.

Finally, the case went to the jury. It took the jurors only five hours to return its verdict of not guilty.

Today most of the principals in the unsolved Hall-Mills murder mystery are dead.

The famous crab apple tree is gone, carried away by souvenir hunters. The Hall home is now a dean's residence for the New Jersey College for Women. And the question — "who committed the Hall-Mills murders?" — is as much a mystery as it was the night the crime "broke."

Ike Hosts Surprise Party on Mamie's 58th Birthday

WASHINGTON (UP)—A certain Washington lady has celebrated her birthday just like you and me, except —

The certain Washington lady is, of couurse, Mrs. Eisenhower. And her husband, in the manner of all husbands, cut short a hunting trip to come home and congratulate the little woman with a big kiss.

It's probably unchivalrous to say so, but Mamie Eisenhower is now 58 years old—even if she didn't look it as she waved to the crowd on her way home from church yesterday.

But if Mrs. Eisenhower was playing the role of the gracious first lady yesterday, she was being "grandma" early last week at Abilene, Kan. A family get-together included the usual reminiscences and wet kisses from her three grandchildren—who, it was reported, smuggled gifts into Grandma's luggage.

But it was grandpa — better known officially as the President of the United States—who engineered the Washington festivities for his wife. He flew back from Ohio—and from more ducks he could have shot—to be host at the surprise party for "my Mamie."

Eisenhower had the usual problem of husbands of what to give his wife for her birthday. He was still looking around as late as last week—and the White House hasn't announced what his final choice was.

Censure Foes Pass Petition

10 Million Signatures Are Sought in Effort to Sway McCarthy Ballot

NEW YORK (AP)—Ten million signatures are being sought on a petition that supports Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis) and urges the Senate to reject censure charges against him.

The organization announced yesterday it would try to reach a goal of 10 million within the next 10 days.

Vice chairmen of the group are: Adm. William J. Standley, former chief of naval operations and former ambassador to Soviet Russia; Gen. James A. Van Fleet, retired 8th Army commander in Korea; Lt. Gen. Pedro A. Del Valle (ret.) of the Marine Corps; Charles Edison, former secretary of the Navy and former Democratic governor of New Jersey; Mrs. Grace L. H. Swordfish Insulted Jimmy Durante During Engagement at Atlantic City

By EDDIE CANTOR

The greatest resort city in all the world is Atlantic City. It's the home of the world's largest auditorium, which seats forty-one thousand people. It is here that the annual beauty pageant takes place.

I was down there on a dozen occasions for the beauty parades but it never excited me too much. Look, when a guy has girls parading around his home morning, noon, and night, for years and years, the novelty has worn off a bit!

To show people years ago Atlantic City meant trying out your show before it got to Broadway—the Ziegfeld Follies—George White's Scandals—and others. Comparative youngsters like Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis started out as a team at the "500 Club."

It was on the beach in front of the Ambassador Hotel that song writer Benny Davis wrote the words for a number which become a standard with me. He wrote it on the back of a menu, and "Margie" has been feeding me for 34 years.

The biggest hit I ever remember seeing in an Atlantic City night club was the team of Clayton, Jackson, and Durante. They packed the club night after night. The boys slept late, naturally, and Durante would make his appearance on the beach in front of the Ritz Carlton Hotel about three in the afternoon.

I'll always remember the day bathers became hysterical when Jimmy came out of the ocean and yelled, "Get me a lifeguard—get me a lawyer—I been insulted!" When we inquired, "What happened—what's wrong?" Jimmy replied, "I was takin' a dip in da soif when a swordfish came up to me. He took one look at my schnoz and said, 'I quit—you got a superior weapon.'"

Not long ago, Eddie Fisher broke all records on Atlantic City's steel pier. In discussing his engagement, I told Fisher that the audience there were truly representative of America—that at each performance you'd most likely be playing to people from the 48 states.

There's a reason why Atlantic City audiences are enthusiastic. They're vacationing—they're carefree—and there is a gala spirit about this resort where every hour of every day is Mardi Gras.

Escape Prison Camp Driving Guard's Auto

GRAYLING (AP)—Two men, driving a guard's car, escaped from a southern Michigan prison camp near here early today, State Police said.

The men were identified as Robert Southerland, 25, and Jack Partee, 29. They cut telephone wires leading into the camp, police said, and escaped in a guard's car containing a .30 caliber rifle and ammunition.

Meanwhile, two convicts who walked away from a southern Michigan prison camp near Brighton last night were apprehended. State Police said one of their patrol cars picked up Robert Nedrow, 20, and George Hayes, 23, early today near East Lansing.

Busmen Turn Holiday Into Do-It-Yourself Show

TEMPLE CITY, Calif. (AP) — A busman's holiday looked more like a do-it-yourself show when 28 bus drivers took the same day off to build a den their hospitalized coworker couldn't complete.

Metropolitan Coach Lines put other drivers on the Alhambra-Temple City line to sub for crewmen who weren't supposed to be off Saturday. Then the entire crew went to the home of Horace M. Rice, who is hospitalized after a heart attack, and completed everything but wall siding on the den. They said they'd return next week and finish the job.

Economists Predict 2nd Best Year in '55

WASHINGTON (UP) — Government economists predicted today that 1955 will be another second-best year for business, a little better than this year but not quite as good as 1953.

They said they expect the gradual economic improvement which started last month to continue without any serious setbacks. But they expressed confidence that President Eisenhower will step in with requests for emergency measures, such as tax cuts and a greatly expanded public works program, should the optimistic forecast go wrong.

These economists based their prediction mainly upon belief that the construction boom will continue, personal income will stay high, and that manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers will begin to build up inventories which they have been using up for the last year.

Heifer Rescued After Two Days Spent in Sewer

DECATUR, Ill. (AP) — Jewel, the heifer that behaved like a mole, is back on farmer Ernest Florian's farm today after two days in a sewer.

Jewel fell down a manhole into the sewer main, only an inch higher than she, on Friday. She had nudged aside several rescuers and retreated farther into the 500-foot line, which lies 4 to 2 feet below the surface.

Yesterday construction worker Eddie Seaton got into the sewer through a second manhole and prodded her toward the manhole she had entered. When she balked, he splashed her face with water from a pail he had carried down with him.

Driver Should Be Critical of His Own Driving Skill

By MARGARET LATROBE

A little more on the subject of driving. Even with the number of dreadful drivers abounding on our roads I really don't think anyone deliberately tries to drive badly. It seems to me to be a lack of realization as to one's own shortcomings which causes such a pattern of what-not-to-do.

If every one of us who drives could only be taught by an expert to improve our driving skills, the deaths and injuries from accidents would surely be fewer. But we see the other fellow's faults—never our own.

Take the road hog, for instance. These fellows, these are not always kindly old ladies. Some of the gentlemen behind the wheel go trundling slowly down the road, astride of the white line, and well under the speed limit. Nobody gets past, nobody knows which lane he belongs in—not even him.

He's busy talking with someone in the back seat, porbably explaining what a careful driver he is. "Never even so much as scratched a fender and I been driving 50 years!" Of course not—every sensible fender fled from view the minute his auto settled itself in the center of the road.

My favorite pest is the one who is parked parallel to the curb, hops in, and pulls out without so much as a backward glance. It is a pleasure to allow a parked car the right to join your lane, if only the driver has the courtesy to signal his desire to leave the curb. But the next jaybird who whips off my right fender, or causes me to toss my passengers headlong when the brakes are jammed—well, I'm thinking a few choice phrases to use on him.

Rather than waste time sniping at bad drivers, it seems to me that a constructive effort toward improving our driving skill and driving manners would be one answer.

Certainly it wouldn't be the whole answer, because the traffic problem is complex. The next time you are inclined to yip about incessant highway construction, just be thankful it's under way. Our highways, which looked so futuristic 10 years ago, are obslete. With 52,000,000 cars in operation, and more coming right out of the showrooms, our super highways aren't super any more.

Driving an automobile is just as dangerous as flying a plane. Or just as easy—depending on the kind of fellow you are behind the wheel. Depending on how much you know about your car, and how much you care about life.

Give yourself an extra five minutes to make it, eh? Don't use yuor car to make you a big shot. Use it as yet another means of showing courtesy. Five minutes more of your time might mean a child's life—not too much to ask is it?

Water Supply Work Continues

Avon Board Planning Nov. 23 Meeting on Financing System

ROCHESTER—The Avon Township Board is working overtime on the proposed water system for the southern part of the township.

Meetings are being arranged for the next two weks to continue work on the plans. On Nov. 23 they will take up the matter of financing the new system and construction of lines.

At a recent meeting the board received petitions signed by 80 residents of the area all urging the consideration of a system which will be adequate to service a growing community from Livernois Road to Dequindre.

S. J. Niedjelski, well driller who put down the new township well, has stated that the well is ample to service an area 10 square miles. miles.

Supervisor C. E. Miller said that homeowners there could expect to be "sprinkling their lawns by spring."

In other action the board passed a resolution to increase to cost of building permits and amended the zoning ordinance for this purpose.

Two representatives of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. explained to the board why the cost of the telephone signal system at the new Avondale Fire Department was $121.25 a month.

Several plans to cut the cost were discussed with future reports scheduled.

GOOD FLYING—Winging their way across the country today are two Waterford Township High School officials who are bound for Randolph Field and Lackland Field in Texas. They are also to inspect Fort Knox, visit the Pentagon and stop at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center near Chicago before returning to Waterford, Nov. 20. Wishing them good flying Saturday morning as they left the high school is William Shunck (right), superintendent of Waterford Township Schools. Shaking hands with him is Roy Larmee, principal of the high school and standing at the left is Donald Arsen, head of the social studies department. Larmee and Arsen are taking the week's tour sponsored by the U. S. Defense Department and the Michigan Secondary School Association. Their school is the "pilot" in this area in the new military orientation course offered in the school for high school boys. The trip was proposed by the defense department to acquaint instructors of the new program with the training carried on at different military bases.

Opposite Farm Groups Claim Election Victory

WASHINGTON (INS)—Two major farm organizations—which take opposite stands on crucial agricultural questions—are claiming individual victories in the recent congressional election.

The American Farm Bureau Federation says a resounding victory was won in the balloting by congressmen who led the fight to put through the flexible price support system incorporated in the agricultural act of 1954.

At the same time, the National Farmers Union maintains the proponents of rigid, high price props won some ground in the house and held their own in the Senate.

The Farm Bureau fervently campaigned for the flexible system, and even had its own bill introduced into the Congress. The Farmers Union just as strongly held out for continued high supports.

According to the Farm Bureau, "the election marks the second defeat suffered this year by the political price fixers in Congress — men who declared that variable price support could not be enacted into law before the passage of the agricultural act of 1954, and who then predicted that the voters would turn out of office those congressmen who supported the act."

On the other hand, the Farmers Union claims that the campaign for rigid supports picked up 17 backers in the House in the election, while in the Senate the status quo was maintained on the farm issues.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

A FLOATING WATER LILY

This water lily looks like some of those that grow in shallow ponds all over the world.

1. Trace the flower on strong white paper. With crayons, color the center of the lily green and make the stamens yellow. The petals are white. Cut out the flower, cutting the petals wll up toward the center. To make flower curl toward the center, draw a dull silver knife blade across the petals.

2. From a piece of green paper cut out a leaf about twice the size of the flower. Use the leaf diagram as a guide. Pinch the edge of the leaf so it stands up slightly. This is the lily pad. Draw veins on it as shown in the picture.

3. Cut out a piece of wax paper a little larger than the leaf. With plastic tape attach the wax paper to the underside of the leaf at points "A" and "B" in the picture.

4. Put a dab of white library paste on the bottom of the flower and attach it to the leaf at a point where the veins start toward the edge.

5. Place the completed lily gently into a pan of water or into a pond. It will float like a real lily for many hours.

Paper Defies Firm in Printing Picture

Price was an employe of the Commercial Services Co., Toledo, Ohio, which has been dismantling an old gas tank for several weeks.

Robert New, foreman on the job, threatened a Tribune photographer who took a picture of the scene where the worker was injured, the newspaper reported. "Police were notified of the incident," the paper said.

Car Flips on U. S. 10; Two Flint Men Injured

Two Flint men were injured Sunday morning when their car went out of control on U.S. 10, just north of M 87 and overturned according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

John St. Germain, 22, the driver, and Joel W. Presley, 41, a passenger, both of 916 Taft, were treated at Pontiac General Hospital for head cuts.

St. Germain said he was turning on the car radio when he lost control of his own northbound auto.

New Operation for Heart Told

'Tucking' May Correct Valve Leakage Caused by Rheumatic Fever

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Taking a tuck inside the heart looks promising for overcoming one dangerous kind of heart trouble, three surgeons said today.

The tucking could narrow a heart valve which became too wide because of rheumatic fever, a big heart killer disease. The widened valve lets blood shoot backward into the heart instead of being sent through the body when the heart beats.

It is done by cutting away a wedge of the outer wall of the muscular wall of the heart, at the proper spot. When this opening is pulled together by sewing, the inner wall of the heart is crowded or gathered together, to create a tuck or pleat which faces inward and closes over part of the faulty valve.

The heart-tuck method was described to the American College of Surgeons, opening a week-long clinical session here, by Doctors Elliott S. Hurwitt, Paul W. Hoffert and Ruthven Ferreria, of Montefiore Hospital, New York.

From successful tests on animals, the tucking method looks good for overcoming one kind of rheumatic heart valve trouble in humans, and is ready for trial in humans, Hurwitt said.

WHAT SHOULD I USE WHEN MY CHILDREN HAVE COLDS?

Chickens' Rights Even Outraged Under Russians

TOKYO, (AP)—What a Japanese politician saw on a Soviet collective chicken farm near Moscow last summer has convinced him he says that Communists "will stop at nothing to gain their ends."

"An operator steps on a pedal and one portion of food is sent into the stomach of the bird. Suddenly the stomach swells up and the hen screams. This is indeed an outrage of chickens' rights, as it were," says Imaizumi.

"I asked the woman in charge, 'Why do you do such a mean thing?' n1o)3xplained to me: 'Our primary objective is not to raise chicagens, but to get eggs . . . We do not care about the will of hens."

MSC Crushed, 'M' Points for Title Share, Bowl Bid

Buckeyes Shoot for Loop Title, Trip to Coast

Also Turn Eyes to a Possible National Championship

CHICAGO (AP)—An undisputed Big Ten title, a trip to the Rose Bowl, a perfect season and possibly the mythical national championship are at stake for the Buckeyes of Ohio State Saturday in their showdown clash with Michigan.

An Ohio State victory at Columbus would mean most if not all of these honors.

In an exhibition of sheer power, Bucks ground out 401 yards rushing against Purdue Saturday to send the Boilermakers spinning to a 28-6 loss.

Michigan, always tough when the chips are on the line, shocked Michigan State with a resounding 33-7 victory. That's the same Michigan team that lost to Indiana 13-9, after blasting Minnesota, 34-0.

The unpredictable Wolverines can share the conference title by whipping Ohio State and thereby become candidates for the Rose Bowl. In the event that Michigan wins, the Big Ten will vote to decide on a representative.

If that vote ends in a 5-5 tie, the team which last went to the Bowl — in this case Michigan—would be eliminated.

Michigan fans are hopeful, however, that a victory over the Buckeyes will be reason enough for the voters to decide on the Wolverines for the trip to Pasadena where the opponent will be Southern Cal.

Southern Cal and UCLA meet Saturday to settle the Pacific Coast title. Even if UCLA wins it cannot get the bowl bid since the Uclans played last New Year's Day.

'M' PASS OKEH—Ron Kramer, Michigan end who played a sparkling game against Michigan State, catches a pass good for 30 yards in the 2nd period on a toss by quarterback Jim Maddock. Identifiable State player is halfback Clarence Peaks. U-M won, 33-7.

Smashing 33-7 Win Snaps Spartans' Long Dominance

By H. GUY MOATS

ANN ARBOR—University of Michigan's hopes for a share in the Big Ten Title and another trip to college football's grand finale, the Rose Bowl, were much brighter today. Those already bright hopes were further burnished Saturday, with a smashing 33-7 victory over Michigan State's victory-hungry crew.

The jammed Michigan stadium (97,239) saw the Wolverines snap a long period of MSC dominance in these intra-state battles. The victory for Bennie Oosterbaan's team was the most convincing in the last five years. It was the 1st time since 1949 that the stadium had been packed full.

Saturday's win was Michigan's 6th against 2 losses. It was the sixth defeat for Spartans. Wolverines have won all but one of five starts in conference play and now go into the big finale at Columbus, O. on Saturday with a share of the title and a possible bowl bid hanging in the balance.

Buckeyes brushed aside Purdue, 28-6, for an unbeaten mark of 6 Big 10 wins. Competent observers say that a Michigan victory over the Bucks, which would tie up the conference crown, would almost certainly send UM to the Rose Bowl. A Michigan loss, of course, would leave OSU the only choice.

The Wolverine success, Saturday, was largely the story of two brilliant stalwarts wearing the maize and blue. For one, it cemented claims to possible All-America honor in his sophomore year, and for the other it wrote an outstanding chapter in an already shining gridiron career.

For Ron Kramer, the big, speedy, fast-thinking end who has been a star all the way this hectic season, the day was especially satisfactory. Kramer not only performed all the chores of his job, but did them so smartly that he proved the big, outstanding player on the field.

Kramer was literally in the Spartans' hair almost every play. He twice blocked MSC punts, one of which produced the 2nd Michigan score. On the 4th play of the 3rd period Kramer stopped Don Kauth's punt on the 6-yard stripe, then grabbed the ball in midair to crash in for the touchdown. The other blocked punt, in the final period, led to another touchdown. Lou Baldacci recovered on State's 27 and a half dozen plays later speedy Ed Shannon was in for UM's 4th tally.

Baldacci, too had a big day, along with most of the Wolverine club, which turned in a grand game all the way. Lou started at the pilot's post, then later on took over the job of fullbacking, which he did in superlative style.

One of the game's "spectaculars" was Baldacci's counter in the early part of the 4th period. On the 3rd play after the Spartans' only tally and subsequent kickoff, Danny Cline fired a pass to Baldacci on the Michigan 48. The powerful Wolverine picked up blockers, raced to the side of the field and down the sideline 52 yards for a TD. The play covered some 62 yards.

A junior halfback, Tommy Hendricks, added some fireworks of his own in the waning minutes. The high-stepping speedster, who had seen very little service this season, took a Spartan punt on his own 32 and with effective blocking downfield, went all the way, 62 yards, for the final scoring.

Michigan State's tally came after Clarence Peaks had intercepted Maddock's attempted pass to Kramer on the 49 at the end of the 3rd period, Peaks went to the UM 28. In 7 plays after the final period opened LeRoy Bolden went over from the four. Bolden was State's top ground gainer, with 46 yards net. Spartans also outgained Michigan on the ground, but failed in the clutches.

East Leaders Face Hard Path to Title Game

New York Pros Meet Rams, Browns, Steelers, Eagles in Order

By ORLO ROBERTSON
The Associated Press

The Detroit Lions, leading the Western Conference by two games, are safely on the way to their third straight National Football League playoff and a chance to win their third successive league title.

* * *

The Lions avenged their only defeat of the season yesterday when they whipped the San Francisco 49ers 48-7 for their sixth victory in seven games.

* * *

Meantime, the Giants, who took sole possession of their division yesterday by downing the Eagles 27-14, must face the always dangerous Los Angeles Rams Sunday and then take on the Browns, in the game that could well decide the title. Pittsburgh Philadelphia on successive Sundays.

* * *

The defeat of the 49ers yesterday, coupled with Los Angeles' 28-17 conquest of the Chicago Cardinals, put the Rams into a second place tie with the Frisco club.

Pittsburgh's title hopes faded greatly with a 17-14 setback by Washington. On Saturday night Green Bay defeated Baltimore 27-13.

* * *

After leading only 6-3 at the half, with all of the points coming on field goals, the Browns tallied twice within 37 seconds in the third period and then added two more in the final quarter on Otto Graham's passing and Chet Hanulak's running. Lou Groza contributed 13 points, 9 on three field goals.

* * *

The Rams-Cardinals game was one of long plays. Woodley Lewis carried the opening kickoff 88 yards for a Los Angeles touchdown. Jack Dwyer went 76 yards with an intercepted pass for another. Tank Younger 75 yards for a third and Billy Wade's pass to Bob Boyd was a 53-yard scoring strike. The Cards got into the act with a 57-yard touchdown run by veteran Charley Trippi.

Rookie Vic Janowicz's field goal proved to be the winning margin in the Redskins' surprise triumph over the Steelers.

Wings Defeat Canucks to End Scoring Slump

Wild 3rd Period Is Win Producer, After Early 1-1 Knot

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit's Red Wings eased their way out of the worst scoring slump they have suffered in several seasons last night in a wild three-goal 3rd period as they beat the Montreal Canadiens, 4-1.

Montreal's six-game National Hockey League winning streak was ended on third period goals by Bill Dineen, Vic Stasiuk and Glen Skov for the Wings.

The Wings, shut out in their last two games, had gone scoreless for more than 10 periods of hockey (209:23) until Johnny Wilson pumped in the 1st goal midway in the 2nd period.

Until Detroit staged its late three-goal spurt, the Canadiens carried an edge in play throughout the game. Tending goal for Montreal was Claude Evans, rookie Montreal goalie playing in the absence of injured Jacques Plante.

Each team scored in the 2nd period while the other was short handed. Wilson scored on a long pass from Marcel Pronovost for Detroit, but Jean Beliveau came back with a screened 55-footer which glanced off a Detroit player.

Greenberg Will Urge American League to Expand to 10-Team Circuit Quickly

CLEVELAND (AP) — A quick expansion into two more cities will be urged on the American League at its next meeting by Hank Greenberg, general manager of the Cleveland Indians.

* * *

Greenberg, who said yesterday he already had notified league president Will Harridge he will submit the plan at the Dec. 8 meeting, said he wanted a 10-team league at the "earliest opportunity." He added that he would ask formation of a committee "to investigate sites for the new franchises."

Although Greenberg refused to name specific cities into which he believed the league should move, San Francisco and Los Angeles have been mentioned.

Frank Lane, Chicago White Sox general manager, predicts those two West Coast cities will be in major league baseball within three years. He pointed out that San Francisco has approved a 5 million dollar bond issue for a stadium and that the Los Angeles Park District has earmarked 10 million for the same purpose.

"The time is rapidly approaching when one league or the other must move into the fertile area on the Pacific Coast," Lane contended.

* * *

"It's a question now whether the National or American League will be first to grab the territory, but whichever one it is will be top dog," Lane added.

* * *

Greenberg foresees a 10 team league by 1956 and says "We must push for it right now if we don't want the National League to get too far ahead of us."

Yank Farm Manager in Line as KC A's General Manager

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Arnold Johnson today prepared to make a key move in the face-lifting job he plans on his newly acquired Kansas City Athletics—naming a general manager.

Carroll is general manager of the New York Yankees farm club, the American Assn. Blues. The Blues have been Kansas City's Association entry since 1945.

One of the general manager's first official jobs will be to attend the major league draft meeting in New York next week. He faces the momentous job of trying to guide the A's out of the league cellar.

Johnson also is expected to name a field manager during his brief Kansas City stay. He probably will do that tomorrow.

Front office affairs of the old Philadelphia A's were handled by brothers Roy and Earle Mack who, along with their father, Connie, were the owners. Connie was president.

In buying out the Macks, Johnson announced Roy Mack had a three-year contract with the Kansas City club but has not said what Mack's duties will be. Roy was executive vice-president and treasurer of the old A's.

Carroll, onetime sports editor of the now defunct Kansas City Journal, joined the Minneapolis Millers of the American Assn. in 1942 as assistant general manager. In 1945 he moved into the Yankee organization as general manager of Newark in the International League and remained there until taking the Kansas City Blues post.

Lou Boudreau's name has popped up most frequently in speculation on a field manager for the Athletic.

The A's new owner flew into Kansas City yesterday and shortly after his arrival conferred with architects, engineers and attorneys on enlargement of the Kansas City stadium. The present seating capacity of 17,000 will be increased to 36,000.

26 Collegiate 11s Undefeated

NEW YORK (AP)—The ranks of collegiate football's unbeaten and untied teams listed 26 schools today as seven dropped from the select group over the weekend.

Only three major colleges—UCLA, Ohio State and Oklahoma—still boast unblemished records.

Other teams to tumble from the unbeaten-untied group were Michigan Normal, Montana State, Miami of Ohio, Carnegie Tech and Appalachian State.

A doe dashed into the path of his car near here Sunday. The carcass was turned over to the state conservation department and all Fugman got was $125 damage to his car.

NCAA's Ethics Board Meets

Case Involving Utah Cage Coach Believed Behind Session

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 15 (AP) — There were strong indications that the Ethics Committee of the National Collegiate Athetic Assn. considered at least one major case here yesterday.

NCAA officials said they could not discuss what occurred in the meeting of the committee, which studies allegations that the NCAA's code of ethics has been violated.

* * *

However, reliable sources have said the committee would hear charges that Jack Gardner violated the code in influencing two basketball players when he moved from Kansas State College to Utah University as basketball coach in 1953.

* * *

Two outstanding Big Seven Conference basketball players transferred to Utah with Gardner. They were Gary Bergen of K-State and Art Bunte of Colorado.

The committee met at the Hotel Muehlebach. Registered at the same hotel yesterday were Gardner of Salt Lake City, and three Kansas State officials — Lawrence (Moon) Mullins, athletic director; Tex Winter, basketball coach, and Dr. R. I. Throckmorton, faculty representative.

Recommendations of the committee must go to the NCAA council which will determine whether anything shall be made public about the investigations. The NCAA president, Dean A. B. Moore of the University of Alabama, is head of the Ethics Committee.

Hunters Bagging More Geese in Allegan Area

ALLEGAN (UP) — Sportsmen have killed more geese so far this season at the Swan Creek and Fennville state shooting areas than in any previous season, conservation department officials said today.

Charles E. Friley, biologist in charge of Swan Creek, said hunters have taken more than 1,200 birds at Swan Creek and nearly 500 at Fennville and the season has another week to go.

Friley said one of the big reasons for this year's big kill is that hunters "have finally learned" to hold their fire until the geese are in range.

Rose Bowl Host Southern California Is Only College Team With Post-Season Bid Clinched

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press

The list of candidates for the four major New Year's Day bowl games was down to manageable proportions today but there still was only one team with its spot definitely nailed down.

No matter what happens in its final two games against UCLA and Notre Dame, Southern California will be the host in the Rose Bowl.

* * *

ROSE BOWL — Southern California's Big Ten opponent will be determined Saturday when Ohio State and Michigan meet. If the undefeated Buckeyes, second in the weekly Associated Press poll of sportswriters and sportscasters, win, they will get the bid.

However, if Michigan comes out on top, the two teams would finish with identical 6-1 league records and a vote would have to be taken.

* * *

COTTON BOWL — The Southwest Conference winner, which usually is decided on the last day of the season, is the host team. Until last Saturday, it appeared there would be no complications this year. Arkansas seemed to have it all sewed up. But the Razorbacks got themselves beaten by Southern Methodist 21-14.

Now if SMU, whips Baylor and Texas Christian, its last two foes, the Mustangs are in.

* * *

SUGAR BOWL—The Southeastern Conference champion makes the trip to New Orleans. Right now Mississippi is in front with a 4-1 record and the chances are the Rebels will go on and take it barring an upset.

* * *

The second team in the Sugar Bowl probably will be Arkansas or SMU, whichever fails to make the Cotton Bowl. West Virginia of ORANGE BOWL—The host in this one is the Atlantic Coast Conference champion, Maryland, last year's national champion, is striving to make a repeat appearance. The Terps lost to Oklahoma last year 7-0 and have finished their conference schedule with a 4-0-1 mark. Duke, currently sporting a 2-0 record, still must play South Carolina and North Carolina.

The opposition is bound to be easier than last year. Oklahoma, the perennial Big Seven champion, is ineligible for having played in the game last year. That leaves Nebraska and Kansas State still in contention.

At Best in Return Bouts, Carter Favored to Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jimmy Carter, the return bout champion, aims for a record and a title on Wednesday night when he faces lightweight champion Paddy DeMarco in San Francisco.

The 30-year-old New Yorker lost the 135-pound crown and regained it once before. He's done the same thing often enough in non-title scraps. If he beats DeMarco—and he's favored to do so at 11-5 odds—Carter, of New York, will become the first lightweight champ to lose and regain the diadem twice.

In '52 he yielded the throne to Lauro Salas in May, but took it back in October. Montreal's Armand Savoie was the next to beat the stolid, hard-hitting New Yorker in a non-title affair. With the blue chips on the table, Jimmy flattened Savoie in five.

* * *

De Marco, a 26-year-old Brooklynite, outhustled Carter all the way to take the title in 15 rounds in New York, last March 5. Their return bout was twice postponed when De Marco suffered a virus attack and then injured an elbow.

The 15-rounder will be telecast (CBS, 10 p.m., EST), out of San Francisco's Cow Palace.

Undefeated Wildcats Beat St. Mikes, 27-6

Oxford's powerful Wildcats closed their season as Oakland County's only unbeaten-untied team Saturday night after handing Pontiac St. Michael a 27-6 trouncing in Wisner Memorial Stadium.

Victory was the 8th consecutive triumph of the season for Coach Jean Harkness' crew. St. Michael finished with a 4-5 mark.

Wildcats' converted-tackle fullback Larry Spencer sparked the victory with three touchdowns and an extra point. The 19 points gave the 5-foot 11-inch 180-pound senior the county individual scoring championship with 85 points.

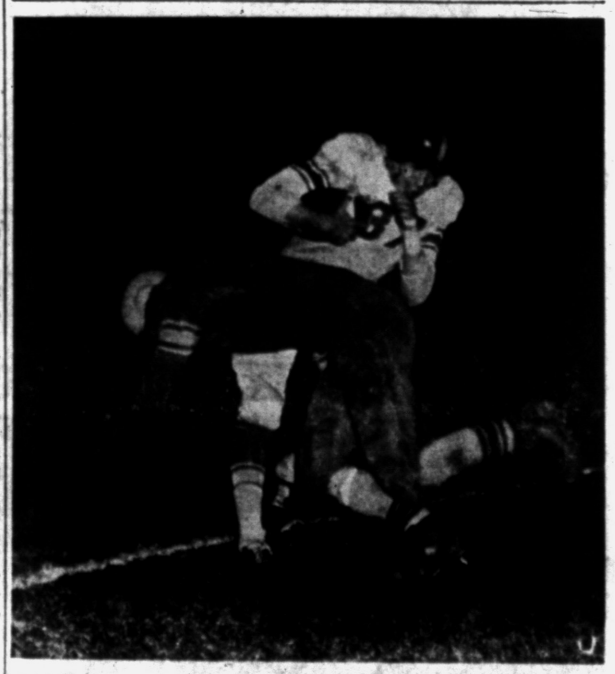

Shamrocks held Oxford to a 7-0 halftime lead, but yielded two touchdowns in the 3rd period. Each team scored once in the 4th quarter after both coaches flooded the field with reserves.

Danny Dropps, St. Michael's sophomore quarterback, accounted for the Shamrocks' only score on a 1-yard sneak. Oxford's other points came on a 10-yard TD by 2nd-string fullback Don Atwood and extra points by Clyde Groves and Pete Earp.

Orchard Lake St. Mary handed Hamtramck St. Florian its 2nd loss in 7 starts, 20-14, in another non-league contest. A 28-yard scoring pass from Ed Pilarski to halfback Len Mallat in the final two minutes broke a 14-all deadlock.

Tom Kalasz scored St. Mary's other two tallies, taking 19-yard pass from Paul Franckowiak in the 1st period and a 64-yard heave from Pilarski in the 3rd stanza. Kalasz kicked both conversions.

St. Clement of Center Line scored 26 points in the final period to rout Royal Oak St. Mary, 38-7, in the final game of the Suburban Catholic League campaign. Clems' victory moved them into a tie with St. Rita for the championship with a 6-1 record.

By JACK SAYLOR

DETROIT — Bud Parker, the man who "dies for Detroit every week" can live easily until the National Football League's championship game next month. It would take a collapse of the most complete proportion to keep Parker's Detroit Lions from representing the Western Division in the NFL title game for the 3rd straight year.

And few, if any, of the record crowd of 58,431 who saw the Lions in Briggs Stadium Sunday would bet much against the Detroiters winning the NFL crown for an unprecedented 3rd consecutive time.

The Lions were truly magnificent in their 48-7 pulverizing of the San Francisco 49ers. It was the worst defeat ever handed to the 49ers in their 9-year history.

Often known as a 2nd half team, Lions were having no part of a waiting game this nippy November Sunday. They had the ball 4 times in the 1st quarter and scored on each occasion, to roll to a 20-0 advantage.

Another tally was added in the 2nd quarter and 3 more touchdowns heaped on the hapless West Coast outfit in the 2nd half. Bobby Layne, Tom Dublinski and Bob Hoernschmeyer shared in the aerial festivities, completing 11 of 21 passes to 7 different receivers for 317 yards and 4 touchdowns.

Bill Bowman featured the ground offensive which added 172 more yards to the 474 net total. Doak Walker had a brilliant day, personally accounting for 18 points.

Despite these imposing figures, it was another tremendous victory for the Lion defensive platoon. While Joe Perry was of some concern, the heralded John Henry Johnson was stifled with a net of 14 yards. The 49ers made only 104 on the ground.

Y. A. Tittle's passes did no great damage and interceptions were made by Jack Christiansen, LaVern Torgeson and Joe Schmidt. From the outset it was obvious this was the Lions' day.

San Francisco fumbled Jim Martin's opening kickoff and Martin recovered on the 22. After Dorne Dibble dropped Hoernschmeyer's end zone pass, Walker booted a 34-yard field goal with the game slightly over one minute old.

A Layne to Walker pass play covered 53 yards to put Detroit on the Frisco 30 and 4 plays later Layne carried over from the 5. Walker added the 1st of his 6 conversions.

The Doaker returned a punt 47 yards to the 23-yard line to set up the next touchdown. On the 1st play, Layne pitched to Jim Doran in the end zone. Walker added a 13-yard field goal before the quarter ended.

Torgeson's interception put the Lions on the 49ers 37 in the 2nd period and Layne struck again through the sieve-like 49er pass defense to hit Jug Girard with a 25-yard payoff pitch.

In the 3rd quarter, Walker got behind the safety man and took Hoernschmeyer's pass for a 66-yard TD play. Dublinski got into the act later in the quarter by throwing a screen pass to Bowman who used expert blocking to complete another 66-yard scoring maneuver.

Detroit lost its shutout on the 1st play of the 4th quarter as Johnson threw a 10-yard touchdown to Billy Wilson. The scoring closed with a minute and a half to go as Bowman broke up the middle on a trap play and romped 43 yards to make the final, 48-7.

Bowman's 73 yards in 8 carries led the Lions, while Perry had 86 in 13 tries for the 49ers. Perry also grabbed 2 passes for 110 yards, while Walker's 2 receptions were good for 119.

ONE LIONS MISSED—End Dorne Dibble of the Lions has the ball in his arms in the end zone, but failed to hold it on a pass from Bob Hoernschmeyer in the 1st 30 seconds of Sunday's game with the San Francisco 49ers at Briggs Stadium. Jim Cason of the 49ers falls on his back. Lions won, 48-7.

Eskies Victors in WIFU's Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fullback Normie Kwong bucked a strangely-porous Winnipeg Blue Bomber line for more than half the ground yardage Saturday as the Edmonton Eskimos won the Western Inter-Provincial Football Union title with a 10-5 victory. It was the 2nd WIFU championship in three years for the split-T Eskimos.

About 19,000 fans shivered in 18-degree Edmonton weather while watching the Eskimos rip through the usually-tough Bomber line for 242 yards, 153 of them by the Canadian-born China Clipper. Bombers gained only 39 yards on the ground.

Eskimos, who won the opener of the best-of-three final series 9-3 and dropped the 2nd 12-6, now meet their farm club, the Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen, in the Grey Cup semi-final at Edmonton next Saturday.

The American League has a 13-8 margin in All-Star games.

SMU Seeks to End Baylor Jinx, Win SW Loop Title

DALLAS (AP)—Southern Methodist has two big reasons for beating Baylor in the Southwest Conference's top football game this week:

* * *

1. Furthering its championship claim.
2. Breaking a 5-year jinx.

The latter will make possible the former.

For five seasons SMU has failed to hurdle the Baylor menace. Each time the Methodists have failed to win another game after that.

SMU and Baylor get together in the Cotton Bowl Saturday with 60,000 expected to be watching. If Southern Methodist should lose it would fall out of first place in the Southwest Conference race and lose any chance at the championship.

* * *

It means considerable to Baylor, too. The Golden Bears can't win the title but they can tie for it if they beat SMU and Rice.

Coach Woody Woodard of Southern Methodist, who was quite optimistic last week to the point of virtually picking his team to topple unbeaten Arkansas and take over the league lead, feels differently about Baylor.

* * *

"Baylor," he said today, "has the best balanced attack in the conference. It had tough luck in early season with injuries and erratic sophomores. But the injuries have healed and the sophomores have developed and it's now a great ball club. I'm afraid we won't get the job done against them."

You Be the Quarterback

Answer

3. Receive. No! A kickoff over the goal line brings the ball out to the 20. If West Virginia is held there, its 41-yard punter should kick back to State's 39. State's 1st offensive effort would start there.

2. Defend a goal. This is better than No. 3 because State might choose to receive.

1. Kick. Best choice. If West Virginia's rugged defense can hold the Wolfpack, which seems likely, the Mountaineers should start their offense at around their own 48 rather than their own 20. This is figured as a result of a 32-yard punt from the 20.

The President scheduled an address at the kickoff luncheon of the Board of Directors of the new nonprofit, privately supported group aimed at the eradication and prevention of slums.

The movement is headed by retired Maj. Gen. Frederick A. Irving, former superintendent of the U. S. Military Academy, and a 53-member board made up of leaders in civic affairs, business, labor and the church.

May Expand Power Probes

Dixon-Yates Inquiry in '55 Seen Including Two More AEC Suppliers

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Democrats may dig into other administration power deals when they launch their promised investigation of the Dixon-Yates contract in the next Coongress, it was learned today.

A key Democrat said the inquiry may embrace Atomic Energy Commission contracts with Electric Energy Inc., and the Ohio Valley Electric Corp. Both are private power groups supplying AEC installations.

Administration spokesmen justified some of the terms of the Dixon-Yates agreement during hearings before the congressional Atomic Energy Committee last week by citing the precedents of the other two agreements. Democrats were understood to believe they can show that these contracts, too, have had bad features.

The promised "ventilation" of the Dixon-Yates contract was announced by Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex). It is expected to be entrusted to the congressional Atomic Energy Committee.

The committee voted 10 to 8 along party lines Saturday to let the Administration move quickly ahead with the plan. But Democrats will have the 10 votes when the new Congress convenes. And an outspoken critic of the contract, Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-N.M.) is expected to be committee chairman.

Another Berlin Musical Show May Be Filmed

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Another Irving Berlin musical, "Miss Liberty," is being discussed with Jeanmaire and Maurice Chevalier as the stars. You'd know, wouldn't you, after the smash business "White Christmas" is doing that Don Hartman would try to get another of Irving's musicals.

An amusing angle is that just as I was about to write the news that the French ballerina had been lunching with Arthur Freed and was top choice for "Cole Porter's "Cavalcade" with Gene Kelly at MGM, I heard about "Miss Liberty." Could be Jeanmaire will do both pictures.

"Of Hope and Glory," a coming up novel by Lionel Shapiro, to be published by Doubleday, must be good. Charles Brackett hasn't even seen the finish, but he persuaded Darryl Zanuck to buy it on the strength of what he read, and he believes it will have nostalgic interest for many people who saw service and had romantic experiences in World War II.

The hero is a young American staff officer, a married man, stationed in London. He meets a British girl who is engaged to be married. They fall in love, and how they work out their problem is yet to be decided.

Charlie believes Richard Egan, or someone like him, would be good to play the officer, and Jean Simmons, or someone like her, to play the girl.

The new Mrs. John Wayne will not make her acting debut with the Wayne-Fellows Co. She has already made a picture for Sol Lesser which was filmed in Bolivia two years ago.

It started out to be the filming of the actual search for the Spanish crown jewels, but developed into a feature film with Pilar carrying the romantic interest. The film is now being edited for television release and you can bet that Pilar will be billed as Mrs. John Wayne.

Chatter in Hollywood: Jane Wyman was in and out of the hospital so fast very few friends knew she'd been there. She had a recurrence of an old trouble with her side and was put into a brace for a few days.

She's so completely well that Saturday she drove up to Ojai to chaperon 14-year-old Maureen and her boy friend Johnny Buezli at a school dance.

"Quite a trip," said Jane, "went up one night and came home the next morning."

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Ida Lupino and Howard Duff both weekended in Palm Springs—but not together. She files for divorce tomorrow.

Joe E. Lewis, a dear friend to many of us, and one of the greatest comics who ever lived, underwent surgery Friday at Harkness Pavilion in New York.

Vera Ellen didn't even have time to wash her face or change her dress when she arrived in town for Victor Rothschild's birthday party. The plane was hours late.

Frank Sinatra's opening at the Sands in Las Vegas was the biggest yet. Ringsiding and sitting through two shows were Betty Hutton and Alan Livingston.

There will be two stag parties for Vic Damone—one next Thursday night given by Tony Martin, Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis, Jack Benny, Tony Curtis and Danny Thomas at the Villa Capri. The other will be given by Pep De Lucia at his restaurant.

In addition to Tony Quinn's double being tossed in the air during a scene for "Magnificent Matador" (formerly "The Number One"), a bull jumped the sidewall the same day and started running through the 30,000 customers.

I'll be surprised if Debbie and Eddie wait until June. She has been looking at houses and he'll be here for a month in December.

Speeches Today on Atom Peace

2 American Delegates to Talk in U.N. Assembly on Ike's Peace Proposal

By A. I. GOLDBERG

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., (UP) — Top U.S. delegates scheduled a speechmaking double-header in the U.N. Assembly today in an unusual maneuver to push ahead with President Eisenhowers atoms-for-peace program.

C. D. Jackson, presidential adviser who helped prepare the original program, was taken off the sidelines to make his first major speech as a U.N. delegate at this morning's session of the Assembly's main Political Committee.

Chief U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. planned to resume his government's arguments in the afternoon session, answering not only Russian objections voiced Friday by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky but some criticisms of the program by friendly Western delegates who do not think the U.S. proposal goes far enough.

Vishinsky has not indicated if Russia would accept a Western invitation to join the small committee which a Western seven-power resolution would set up to help arrange a proposed scientific congress next year on peaceful uses of atomic energy.

A U. S. Delegation spokesman said that the United States is inflexible on only two things involved in the program: It will oppose any veto power that could hamstring the agency and it will fight against a place for Red China either in the congress or the agency.

White - Negro Neighborhood Living Tested

TREVOSE, Pa. (UP)—A white research engineer and a Negro machine operator today settled down as next-door neighbors in an experiment in interracial living in a corner of booming Bucks County, once known mainly for its gathering celebrated artists and gentlemen farmers.

Planned specifically by a group of Quakers as "a true picture of democracy in action," their two newly occupied ranch-type homes are the forerunner of a 140-home community, first of its kind in the suburban Philadelphia area.

Federal and state officials joined with civic and religious leaders yesterday in an informal open house for the first two families, George and Eunice Grier shook hands with their new neighbors, Charles and Victoria Henry, the first Negro couple of purchase one of the 20,000 new homes in the county.

Over 65 people, most of them Quakers, put up $150,000 to get the 50-acre project started.

Tourists Needed Badly

75 U.S. Writers Attempt to Help Little Guatamala

By LAURA Z. HOBSON

GUATEMALA CITY (INS) — South of the border—I mean south of the Mexican border, mind you—I found myself in the surprising position of helping a nation recover from the blow of communism.

It made me feel real good.

Officially I was part of a delegation of 75 editors and writers from all over the U.S., flown down here by Pan American World Airways, with the blessings of our State Department, to help reanimate what was once a bouncing tourist industry and is now a limping little nothing.

The figures given out say that 50,000 tourists a year used to visit the spectacular little country that's often been called the tropical Switzerland for its mountains and the Egypt of America for its evidences of a really ancient civilization.

But that 50,000 was before the Communist - backed regime. By 1953, the official figures continue, the total of los turistas had dwindled to 4,000, but I noticed that no statistician ran around with the 1954 figures—maybe it had dwindled out of sight.

With the pro-Communists thrown out last June by the successful revolt led by the Guatemalan army officer who's now president, Carlos Castillo Armas, it just doesn't make any sense to permit tourist nerves to keep causing that awful downhill slide from 50,000 to 4,000 to ? ? ? ?

No sense for Guatemalans, and none for Americans who want to see to it that communism doesn't ever establish another beachhead so close to home. And is there anybody who can't see the connection between prosperity and no-beachheading

Another way of sizing up the value of that lost tourist business is in good old quetzals—well, dollars—and that came to about $2,500,000 a year.

In a country about the size of Tennessee, with the population of, say, Chicago, any $2,500,000 bite out of the annual economy is anough to start a few symptoms of galloping malnutrition, if not actual starvation.

Naturally, a whole lot more than the tourist business needs fixing up down here and pronto, too. And the biggest step toward doing something about it was announced just the other day by Ambassador Norman Armour—that decision of the U.S. to set aside $6,425,000 in economic and technical aid to the new anti-Communist government here.

Just the same, the collapse of the tourist trade is visible not only on big business levels but also to every taxi driver, to every barman, to every shoe-shine boy and souvenir dealer

So when Pan Am's huge DC6B tourist-type plane landed the eastern contingent of those 75 U.S. editors and writers, you'd have thought $6,435,000 wasn't in it with the magic powers of the press.

Under a brilliant moon, to the seductive sweet music of a great marimba band, huge signs in colored bunting said, "Bienvenidos, Periodistas!" which was helpfully translated into "Welcome, U.S. Press!"

A receiving line, headed by Guatemala City's mayor, Juan Luis Lizarralde, held so many smiling dignitaries of government and business, with hands out to welcome us one by one, that my own felt limp by the time I could stretch it out to receive a proferred white cup of hot black coffee inside the building.

It looked sure to be a terrific week for all of us—seeing Guatemala's cities and mountains and lakes and volcanoes, I couldn't wait, though instinct told me I'd soon be asking Guatemala to help me recover too.

Commies Too Helpful

VIENNA (INS) — The government of Austria's easternmost province of Burgenland bordering the Iron Curtain and suffering from nine years of Soviet occupation recently rejected a Russian offer to help combat an alleged typhoid fever epidemic. The suddenly generous Soviets wanted to supply a laboratory, drugs and specialists. The epidemic, government, officials explained, did not exist.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (AP)—The stock market declined today following five advances to new 25-year peaks.

The selloff in the early afternoon went to between 1 and 3 points with most losses small. There were many moderate gains, some running well past a point.

General Portland Cement was up between 3 and 4 points after directors porposed a two-for-one split.

HE'LL DIAL LAUGHING—While still in the middle of his nutty luncheon, Gustaf, an Orebro, Sweden squirrel, decides to dial his girl friend and tell her the good news. Just what the glad tidings are is top secret. Also hidden is the reason for Gus' merriment and his winter supply of nuts.

Once-Famed Comedian Succumbs in Atlanta

ATLANTA (AP) — Billy Beard, a comedian who made thousands laugh in the days of minstrel shows and vaudeville, is dead at 74.

He passed away at Grady Hospital of diabetes and complications yesterday in the southern city where he had made his home the past 35 years.

He was known as "the party from the south" and had appeared on programs with Eddie Cantor, Jimmy Durante and the late Al Jolson.

Grand Jury to Consider 2 Bank Robbery Cases

GRAND RAPIDS (UP)—A federal grand jury will reconvene here tomorrow to consider "several matters," including two bank robbery cases.

U. S. district attorney Wendell A. Miles said he would ask the jury to return indictments against three Ann Arbor men accused of robbing the Centreville State Bank of $4,301 on Oct. 21 and against a fourth man accused of taking part in the $16,000 robbery of the State Savings Bank at Elsie, near Owosso, last Aug. 19.

Japan, Korea Unable to Agree

Bitter Feud Continues to Block All Chances of Asian Defense Setup

SEOUL (AP) — Relations between Japan and South Korea — bitter rivals although two of America's principal allies in the Far East — are at low ebb.

The most recent Japanese-Korean talks broke up in November 1953 after a Japanese delegate said he believed the Koreans actually benefited under the 40-year Japanese occupation which ended in 1945. The Koreans have refused to meet again until the Japanese apologize for that remark.

Koreans want Japan to withdraw all property claims on Korea. They also want the controversial "Rhee Line" recognized before meetings are resumed. And they want back their national art treasures which they claim Japan took during the occupation.

The Rhee Line, extending 60 miles out from the Korean coast, is one of the most critical issues. It originally was established by Gen. Douglas MacArthur at the outset of the Korean War in 1950 to clarify areas of military commands.

There is renewed talk of bringing the adversaries back around the conference table. Some believe the United States, prompted by Red China's growing strength, may have to step in and take a firm stand.

American observers here and in Korea don't feel that would accomplish much. They say Korea wants to win the game before it even starts by forcing Japan to give up any bargaining position.

Three Children Injured as Driver Misses Turn

Three Lake Orion children received face cuts when the car in which they were riding Sunday night ran into a four-foot ditch at Chrysler street and Scott Lake road in Waterford Township.

The driver, Hiland E. Waggoner, 30, of 1443 Miller Rd., told Waterford Twosnhip police that he misjudged a turn and ran into the ditch.

Treated for Injuries

John Smith, 21, of 675 Purdy, Birmingham, was treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital for head and stomach injuries which he received Saturday when his car struck a tree at Adams road and Derby street in Troy Township, according to Troy Township Police.

TV Gals Complaining They Are Overdressed

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Just before Fred Allen's Circle Theater TV show the other night, shapely Barbara Nichols was told to wear a less revealing gown. She asked why.

"We'd probably get letters complaining," explained an assistant producer. "You've gotten letters like that after a show, haven't you?"

After Taffy Tuttle was on TV, she beefed, "They should've given me more to say and less to wear!"

Visiting M. Lincoln Schuster's enormous home, I saw the soundproof library once used by Joseph Pulitzer—who hated noise.

"He hated it so much," said Schuster, "that he kept to his yacht. He'd make a hotel reservation, say, in Paris; then to assure that there'd be no noise, he'd reserve rooms above and below his suite, also those on each side, even though he didn't intend to use them. Then, to make absolutely sure there'd be no noise, he'd cancel the reservation."

Debbie Reynolds and Eddie Fisher were on the dais at the big testimonial for Jennie Grossinger at the Waldorf—and toastmaster Georgie Jessel revived one of his standbys to wish them well. "I only hope," said he, "that you will be as happy as I might have been on several occasions."

As an ex-farm boy, I enjoyed ex-farm boy Durward Kirby telling on Garry Moore's TV show of a hen that laid a huge egg . . . a pound and a half or something.

"REALLY!" exclaimed Moore. "A hen laid a pound-and-a-half egg! Wasn't that remarkable of her?"

Boy, 12, Killed Playing With Loaded Pistol

THURMONT, Md. (AP)—A 12-year-old boy shot and killed himself near here yesterday when he accidently discharged a pistol while trying to put it away on a shelf.

State police said the boy had taken a loaded .22-caliber target pistol from a mantel. His older brother saw him and told him to put it back. As he was doing so, it went off. The bullet struck the boy in the stomach.

Noted Cardinal's Father Outlives Life Insurance

Spellman, who is 96, has outlived the policy. Insurance experts say that happens to only one person in 100,000.

Union Central Life Insurance Co. said the cardinal's father would be handed a check for several thousand dollars representing full payment on the policy.

Favorite Comic Pops Out of Box

Red and His Wife Get Her Personal Thanks at Private Meeting

NEW YORK — Red Skelton, one of Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower's long-time favorites, gave the nation's First Lady a thrilling surprise last week when he flew into Washington from Hollywood incognito and popped out of a giant box and performed at a birthday party tended her by 1,000 women of the League of Republican Women of the District of Columbia.

The affair was a luncheon given in the grand ballroom of the Mayflower Hotel and was attended by the wives of the President's Cabinet officers and other notables of the capital.

League officials had contacted the star in Hollywood requesting his surprise presence at the party, and the comedian, accompanied by his wife Georgia, flew to Washington disguised as "Mr. Van Dorn."

Toward the end of the luncheon, Skelton, unnoticed, crawled up into the bottomless box, measuring about six feet by six feet and containing a breakaway front. Wrapped in colored gift paper and entwined with red and white ribbon, the box was situated behind two screens on a stage directly behind the dais.

As the guests finished their baked Alaska dessert and coffee, the League chairman announced a surprise gift from Hollywood. As the lights were dimmed, the screens were removed, revealing the box, whose front bore a large greeting card with the words, "Happy Birthday to Mamie from Georgia."

At this point, Skelton popped through the breakaway paper front onto the stage with a big grin on his face. Mrs. Eisenhower gasped with delight, then started clapping and laughing. Red's first ad lib—"her husband was in my outfit during the war"—threw the 1,000 guests into a gale of laughter. Looking around, he grinned: "Everybody else is getting baked Alaska but you are getting baked ham."

Skelton thereupon regaled the guests with some of his famous routines, including the baby handling skit, the woman Sunday driver characterization, the broadcasting announcer bit and the "bad wittle boy" role. Once, Red asked for suggestions and Mrs. Eisenhower asked for more of the last-mentioned routine.

As is his custom, Skelton tossed off ad libs freely, remarking once that "it's really wonderful to come to Washington by invitation and not by subpoena."

The comedian turned serious toward the end of funfest. Addressing the First Lady, he said, "It's fun to make people laugh, because I think the greatest purpose of man is to build, not destroy. The important thing about a birthday," he added, "is not how old you are but how many close friends you have. I am convinced Mrs. Eisenhower has 160,000,000 of them all over the United States."

After she left the dais, the President's wife sent back an escort to ask the Skeltons to meet her alone so she could thank them personally for their visit. Later, Red and Georgia called on Chief Justice Earl Warren, an old California friend, in his chambers at the Supreme Court Building.

The words of the song "Annie Laurie" were first printed in 1824 but were not set to music until 1835.

Convicted in Strike Killing

Death Takes Former Red Who Fled to Russia in '29

LAWRENCE, Mass. (AP) — Fred E. Beal, who served four years of a 17-year prison sentence for conspiracy to murder in the fatal shooting of the Gastonia, N.C., police chief during a 1929 textile strike, is dead.

An admitted former Communist, Beal feled to Russia in 1929 and returned disillusioned after two years.

* * *

He died of a heart attack yesterday at his home. He was 57.

A native of Lawrence, Beal went to work in a textile mill at 14 and was active in the city's big textile strikes of 1912 and 1922. He said he joined the Communist party in 1922 believing it was "ushering in a new society based on love of one's fellow men, freedom from ... want and with security for all."

The Gastonia crime was the slaying of Police Chief O. F. Aderholt in a skirmish at union headquarters June 7, 1929, during a violent strike that began earlier that year at the Manville-Jenckes mill. Beal and six other strike leaders were convicted of conspiracy and appealed.

Beal said afterward the Communist party ordered the six to jump bail and flee to Russia. Their convictions subsequently were affirmed by the North Carolina Supreme Court.

He went back to North Carolina in 1936 and was sentenced, but he was paroled after four years.

Traffic Club to See Food Packaging Film

Guest speakers will be E. H. Van Wagner, packaging engineer and designer for General Motors overseas operations, and Don W. Kelsey, head of a Detroit package and container designing firm.

Both men recently completed an inspection trip of Air Force bases in Alaska, during which they reviewed packaging problems found in extremely cold climates. The movies were taken on the tour.

Per capita human consumption of grain and potatoes in the United States declined about 40 per cent between 1909 and 1952.

TV Gals Complaining They Are Overdressed

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Just before Fred Allen's Circle Theater TV show the other night, shapely Barbara Nichols was told to wear a less revealing gown. She asked why.

"We'd probably get letters complaining," explained an assistant producer. "You've gotten letters like that after a show, haven't you?"

After Taffy Tuttle was on TV, she beefed, "They should've given me more to say and less to wear!"

Bobo Rockefeller looked the loveliest I've ever seen her at the Colony with Bostonians Edward W. Ackley and Robert J. Markson. Her hair's now champagne color and higher and fluffier. In fact, Bobo looked like $6,000,000.

Visiting M. Lincoln Schuster's enormous home, I saw the soundproof library once used by Joseph Pulitzer—who hated noise.

"He hated it so much," said Schuster, "that he kept to his yacht. He'd make a hotel reservation, say, in Paris; then to assure that there'd be no noise, he'd reserve rooms above and below his suite, also those on each side, even though he didn't intend to use them. Then, to make absolutely sure there'd be no noise, he'd cancel the reservation."

Debbie Reynolds and Eddie Fisher were on the dais at the big testimonial for Jennie Grossinger at the Waldorf—and toastmaster Georgie Jessel revived one of his standbys to wish them well. "I only hope," said he, "that you will be as happy as I might have been on several occasions."

Eavesdropped by our New England spy, Tony Pettito: "Not only is she the most respected girl in the neighborhood, but she's the loneliest."

As an ex-farm boy, I enjoyed ex-farm boy Durward Kirby telling on Garry Moore's TV show of a hen that laid a huge egg . . . a pound and a half or something.

"REALLY!" exclaimed Moore. "A hen laid a pound-and-a-half egg! Wasn't that remarkable of her?"

Boy, 12, Killed Playing With Loaded Pistol

THURMONT, Md. (AP)—A 12-year-old boy shot and killed himself near here yesterday when he accidently discharged a pistol while trying to put it away on a shelf.

State police said the boy had taken a loaded .22-caliber target pistol from a mantel. His older brother saw him and told him to put it back. As he was doing so, it went off. The bullet struck the boy in the stomach.

Noted Cardinal's Father Outlives Life Insurance

Spellman, who is 96, has outlived the policy. Insurance experts say that happens to only one person in 100,000.

Union Central Life Insurance Co. said the cardinal's father would be handed a check for several thousand dollars representing full payment on the policy.

Convicted in Strike Killing

Death Takes Former Red Who Fled to Russia in '29

LAWRENCE, Mass. (AP) — Fred E. Beal, who served four years of a 17-year prison sentence for conspiracy to murder in the fatal shooting of the Gastonia, N.C., police chief during a 1929 textile strike, is dead.

An admitted former Communist, Beal feled to Russia in 1929 and returned disillusioned after two years.

* * *

He died of a heart attack yesterday at his home. He was 57.

A native of Lawrence, Beal went to work in a textile mill at 14 and was active in the city's big textile strikes of 1912 and 1922. He said he joined the Communist party in 1922 believing it was "ushering in a new society based on love of one's fellow men, freedom from ... want and with security for all."

The Gastonia crime was the slaying of Police Chief O. F. Aderholt in a skirmish at union headquarters June 7, 1929, during a violent strike that began earlier that year at the Manville-Jenckes mill. Beal and six other strike leaders were convicted of conspiracy and appealed.

Beal said afterward the Communist party ordered the six to jump bail and flee to Russia. Their convictions subsequently were affirmed by the North Carolina Supreme Court.

He went back to North Carolina in 1936 and was sentenced, but he was paroled after four years.

Traffic Club to See Food Packaging Film

Guest speakers will be E. H. Van Wagner, packaging engineer and designer for General Motors overseas operations, and Don W. Kelsey, head of a Detroit package and container designing firm.

Both men recently completed an inspection trip of Air Force bases in Alaska, during which they reviewed packaging problems found in extremely cold climates. The movies were taken on the tour.

Per capita human consumption of grain and potatoes in the United States declined about 40 per cent between 1909 and 1952.

Favorite Comic Pops Out of Box

NEW YORK — Red Skelton, one of Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower's long-time favorites, gave the nation's First Lady a thrilling surprise last week when he flew into Washington from Hollywood incognito and popped out of a giant box and performed at a birthday party tended her by 1,000 women of the League of Republican Women of the District of Columbia.

The affair was a luncheon given in the grand ballroom of the Mayflower Hotel and was attended by the wives of the President's Cabinet officers and other notables of the capital.

League officials had contacted the star in Hollywood requesting his surprise presence at the party, and the comedian, accompanied by his wife Georgia, flew to Washington disguised as "Mr. Van Dorn."

Toward the end of the luncheon, Skelton, unnoticed, crawled up into the bottomless box, measuring about six feet by six feet and containing a breakaway front. Wrapped in colored gift paper and entwined with red and white ribbon, the box was situated behind two screens on a stage directly behind the dais.

As the guests finished their baked Alaska dessert and coffee, the League chairman announced a surprise gift from Hollywood. As the lights were dimmed, the screens were removed, revealing the box, whose front bore a large greeting card with the words, "Happy Birthday to Mamie from Georgia."

At this point, Skelton popped through the breakaway paper front onto the stage with a big grin on his face. Mrs. Eisenhower gasped with delight, then started clapping and laughing. Red's first ad lib—"her husband was in my outfit during the war"—threw the 1,000 guests into a gale of laughter. Looking around, he grinned: "Everybody else is getting baked Alaska but you are getting baked ham."

Skelton thereupon regaled the guests with some of his famous routines, including the baby handling skit, the woman Sunday driver characterization, the broadcasting announcer bit and the "bad wittle boy" role. Once, Red asked for suggestions and Mrs. Eisenhower asked for more of the last-mentioned routine.

As is his custom, Skelton tossed off ad libs freely, remarking once that "it's really wonderful to come to Washington by invitation and not by subpoena."

The comedian turned serious toward the end of funfest. Addressing the First Lady, he said, "It's fun to make people laugh, because I think the greatest purpose of man is to build, not destroy. The important thing about a birthday," he added, "is not how old you are but how many close friends you have. I am convinced Mrs. Eisenhower has 160,000,000 of them all over the United States."

After she left the dais, the President's wife sent back an escort to ask the Skeltons to meet her alone so she could thank them personally for their visit. Later, Red and Georgia called on Chief Justice Earl Warren, an old California friend, in his chambers at the Supreme Court Building.

Claims Farm Programs Cost Family $45 Yearly

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (UP) — An economist says government farm programs and items related to them have cost the average American family $45 a year since 1932.

L. H. Simerl of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture calculated the average from federal figures recently announced.

The federal government said $37.4 billions have been spent for price supports, conservation, credit, school lunch programs, regulatory activities, wartime food subsidies, farm products used in foreign aid programs and extension work since 1932.

Simerl used 37.4 million as the average number of families in the nation during that period.

Guatemalan Indians Use Old Tires for Footwear

Old tires that escape the tire and auto graveyards in the United States often find their way to Guatemala, where they are used by the Indians for sandals. Tourists wondering at the quaint and ancient ways of the Indians are often amazed to find that the Indian footwear consists of a piece of 600:16 which presumably is taken for a retread instead of to the cobbler's when it wears out.

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UP)—Police Capt. Clyde Brown got a letter from Paris, France, the other day. The address on the envelope was: "Mr. and Mrs. Brown, EXbrook 5-9931, Santa Monica.
