Harbert, Burkemo to Show Golf Skill

Booked for Golf Clinic

"CHICK" HARBERT

"WALLY" BURKEMO

Press Sponsors Clinic Aug. 24 for Local Fans

Nation's Two Leading Pros Will Demonstrate How They Top Field

During the last few years Michigan, and particularly the Oakland County area, has become increasingly aware of the potentialities of stocky, dark-browed, long-hitting Melvin (Chick) Harbert and blond, equally powerfully-built Wally Burkemo.

A year ago Burkemo hit his peak with his 2-up victory over slight Felice Torza in the National PGA championship at Birmingham Country Club. He had previously gone to the final round against Sam Snead but the Slammer won that one.

Harbert had gone out in an early round, last year. He has tried many times, but only last week emerged as PGA champion, dethroning Burkemo at St. Paul, Minn., in the finals.

Harbert just missed taking the Michigan Open, Sunday, when he lost out by one stroke to Horton Smith.

Fans of the area have had opportunity to see these two fine players in many tourneys in the district, but now they will be given a much better opportunity —a real closeup.

The Pontiac Press today announces a demonstration, or clinic, and an 18-hole match between these spotlighted shotmakers, on Aug. 24, at Pontiac Country Club.

Chick was signed several days ago. Wally agreed to come out here, during a weekend conference.

The clinic and match will be without cost to the golfing enthusiasts of the city and area. However, there will be opportunity for those who wish to, to secure green badges for a half dollar. Purchase of the badges is not compulsory. Funds received from the badges will be devoted to the work of the Pontiac Boys Club.

Appearance of the two stars has been set for 4:45 p.m. on the Aug. 24 date. A half hour to 45 minutes will be devoted at the start

Armas Halts Brief Revolt; Two Guatemalans Killed

GUATEMALA (AP) — A quarrel between Guatemalan military cadets and the "liberation forces" of Col. Carlos Castillo Armas, chief of the country's ruling junta, erupted into a battle today. Two persons were killed and several wounded.

The fighting caused reports the cadets and some others had revolted in sympathy with the deposed leftist government of Jacobo Arbenz.

But later it appeared the fight was an intra-mural conflict between the cadets and members of the Castillo Armas army, victors in the June-July revolution.

The fight started at 4 a.m. (5 a. m. EST) near Roosevelt Hospital where forces of the Castillo Armas army are encamped. A cadet was killed, and virtually the entire body of cadets then attacked the encampment. Firing from rifles, machineguns and mortars was heard about two hours.

Maj. Enrique Oliva, member of the Castillo Armas junta, and Col. Jose Ortega, chief of staff, moved forces into position for an attack on the military academy. Government planes were given orders to attack the school.

Sporadic fighting continued in the vicinity of Roosevelt Hospital, on the outskirts of the capital, until 8:40 a.m.

Casitllo Armas, who spent the night at Chimaltenango, rushed to Guatemala City by plane to pacify the contending forces.

Commanders at the capital's two principal regular army bases announced these forces were loyal to the government, but were being held in quarters. The commanders asked that the liberating army suspend its action against the military school, and a cease-fire order was given by Oliva and Ortega.

(Private advices reaching New York said there had been a Communist-inspired uprising at El Progreso, 50 miles from Guatemala City.)

City Hall Annex Offices Rifled

Electrical Department Files Ransacked; $25 in Money Stolen

Pontiac Police today are hunting burglars who ransacked the city electrician's office in the City Hall annex at 35 Hill St. over the weekend.

The thieves, who forced a basement door to gain entry, took $25 in change from a pried-open filing cabinet in the office. Miss Mary E. Knox, clerk - stenographer, said electrical installation permits in the file drawer were rifled. She said the permits were not damaged and office routine was not disturbed.

The stenographer said desks were not disturbed and the thieves overlooked a $67 camera in one. She said she had just deposited $151.89 in cash and checks received from issuance of electrical installation permits.

Detective Sgt. John A. DePauw said the thieves also made an unsuccessful attempt to open a first floor safe which contained recreation department trophies. The building was broken into Friday night or early Saturday morning.

Besides the electricians office, the annex contains the city assessor's, engineer's and the Parks and Recreation Dept. offices. All were entered but not ransacked, police said.

Showers Are Forecast Tonight and Tuesday

Moyer Gets New Fisher Body Job

Made General Factory Manager; M. J. Olson Comes to Pontiac

Carl W. Moyer, manager of the Fisher Body plant here since June of 1952, has been made general factory manager in charge of all Fisher assembly plants in Michigan.

M. J. Olson, formerly manager of the Fisher fabricating plant at Hamilton, Ohio, comes to Pontiac as manager of the plant here.

The promotions were among a number announced in the Fisher organization today by James E. Goodman, GM vice president and general manager of Fisher Division.

Moyer succeeds L. T. Dalecke who assumes special assignments under E. J. Hanson, general manufacturing manager. Moyer joined the Fisher organization in 1925 and held management positions in St. Louis, Norwood and Lansing and was general director of industrial relations before coming to Pontiac.

Olson started with the organization in Janesville and held management positions there, and in St. Louis, Flint and Baltimore before going to Hamilton.

Other changes in Fisher management positions include:

J. A. Kendall, who has been assistant manager at Hamilton; replaces Mr. Olson.

Ralph R. Nordyke, general director of industrial relations for the division, is appointed manager of Fisher's plant No. 1 in Flint, succeeding D. W. Fleser who is taking a leave of absence for reasons of health.

Commit Small to Institution

Judge Orders Dentist Confined Until His Sanity Is Proved

ALLEGAN (AP)—A circuit court judge today ordered acquitted slayer Dr. Kenneth B. Small, a Detroit dentist, committed to a state hospital until such time as the doctor proves his sanity.

Judge Raymond L. Smith said that under Michigan laws he had no choice but to order the dentist committed. The court ordered the State Hospital Commission to conduct hearings at which the doctor could try to prove his sanity.

Defense Attorney Leo Hoffman then filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus which would grant Dr. Small immediate freedom. Judge Smith said he would hold a hearing on the request later today.

900,000 Voters Expected to Cast Ballots Tuesday

Officials Predict Light State Turnout Despite Last-Minute Fervor

LANSING (AP) — An estimated 900,000 voters are expected to cast their ballots in tomorrow's primary election in Michigan.

The polls will open Tuesday at 7 a. m. and remain open until 8 p. m.

The people will choose Republican and Democratic nominees for governor, U. S. senator, lieutenant governor, Congress, the legislature, and county offices.

The politicians' last-minute fervor and widespread publicity appeared to be stirring the voters a little from their hot weather lethargy, but election officials generally expected a light vote, averaging 25 to 30 per cent of the registered voters in most localities.

Tuesday is the first election day under a new legislative reapportionment ordered by the people in the 1952 elections and implemented by the legislature last year.

Legislative candidates are running in their new districts tomorrow and will take office next January in an enlarged House and Senate. In Detroit, for the first time, legislative aspirants are running in individual districts instead of in the city at large. Detroit's cumbersome bed-sheet ballots are a thing of the past although there are 559 candidates seeking office in Wayne County as a whole.

The state's attention is centered on two statewide races—the Republican contest for the nomination for governor and the Democratic campaign to chose a lieutenant governor nominee.

The Republicans must pick a man to oppose Gov. Williams from State Treas. D. Hale Brake, Sec. of State Owen J. Cleary, former Lt. Gov. Eugene C. Keyes and Donald S. Leonard, former Detroit and state police commissioner.

The lieutenant governor candidates on the Democratic ballot are George S. Fitzgerald of Detroit, favorite of a strong wing of the American Federation of Labor, and Philip A. Hart of Birmingham, Gov. Williams' own choice for the job.

Governor Calls Special Session

Williams to Ask Funds for Addition to Ionia Reformatory Aug. 18

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams today called a special session of the Legislature for Aug. 18 to finance an emergency prison addition which the "Little Legislature" last week refused to provide.

The governor said he would ask again for money for a 150-man barracks at the Ionia Reformatory but that this time he will include a request for the installation of individual "Cubicles" which was discussed by the "Little Legislature."

For that reason, Williams said, the original estimated cost of $225,000 probably will have to be increased.

Last week, the "Little Legislature" or Emergency Appropriations Commission, contended it did not have authority to release the money Williams requested, and its leaders urged Williams to call the full Legislature. At that time, the governor refused, saying the attitude of Republican legislative leaders gave no promise of a successful outcome.

French Release Captive Leaders

150 to 200 Nationalists Freed as Autonomy Offer Made

TUNIS, Tunisia (AP)—The French freed a number of moderate nationalist leaders from house arrest today in the wake of French Premier Pierre Mendes-France's offer of autonomy for the North African protectorate.

There was no word of any change of status for Habib Bourguiba, top leader of the nationalist Neo-Destour party who has been confined to a farm near Paris. But Bourguiba appealed today for an end to the violence which has killed or wounded many Frenchmen and Tunisians in past months.

It was not announced how many nationalists had been freed. Bourguiba recently estimated 150 to 200 were under some form of detention.

Announcement of the offer of near - independence was generally hailed by Tunisian leaders as a step toward complete freedom, but die-hard French colonists angrily assailed it and some demanded the French national Assembly turn Mendes-France out.

Word of the promise of reforms for Tunisia touched off new violence in the sister North African protectorate of Morocco, resulting in the deaths of six persons.

In Tunisia, however, there was a lull in violent outbreaks following Mendes-France's offer Saturday to allow formation of an all-Tunisian Cabinet. The Premier's proposal would give the Tunisians control of all their own affairs except defense and foreign relations.

Governor's Race on GOP Ballot of Top Interest

No Opposition Offered Many Candidates for Party Nominations

Proposals for a new Oakland County Courthouse, and top interest in the GOP race for the gubernatorial nomination, are expected to boost Tuesday's primary vote in the county.

Possibility that the total vote may go slightly above the 1952 primary vote was expressed today by Lynn D. Allen, Oakland County clerk. The 1952 primary ballot totaled 59,883.

Approximately 229,000 voters are eligible to cast ballots, in a population which has gained substantially in the past two years. However, 1952 was a presidential year, which always generates maximum interest.

Of the county's 208 precincts, 141 are now equipped with voting machines.

Polls will open at 7 a. m. and remain open to 8 p. m. All voters

Voters will select nominees for seven county offices, six state representatives' posts, state senator and U. S. Congress.

In the state legislature, Fred G. Beardsley, incumbent, and Louis Dorman Jr. are seeking to represent the first district; Richard C. VanDusen, incumbent, and Wallace R. Furbur, third district; Robert A. Burns; Charles Trickey Jr. and Theodore F. Hughes, fourth district; Vernald F. Horn; William F. Voebel and Oscar A. Gorelick, fifth district; and Bruce P. McCarthy Scolding Action May Go to Six Senators WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) today formally asked the Senate to send the resolution to censure Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) and all amendments to the resolution, to a special committee of three Republicans and three Democrats.

Knowland said Vice President Nixon should name the six members of the special committee and that it should report back to the Senate "as expeditiously as equity and justice will permit."

Knowland made his motion an hour and a half after the third day of debate on the resolution by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) to censure McCarthy for conduct that tends to bring the Senate into disrepute.

The Republican leader did not ask that Nixon sit as a member of the special, or, as he called it, "select" committee.

The pending amendments to the Flanders resolution include the various specific charges which have been filed as bills of particulars by Sens. Fulbright (D-Ark) and Morse (Ind-Ore).

Before Knowland's motion, the Republican leader had told the Senate that Morse, who criticized McCarthy's attitude toward secret government information, had himself once revealed part of a "top

That law, under which a total of 115 Communist party functionaries have been arrested since 1949, makes it a crime to teach or advocate the forcible overthrow of the U. S. government.

Two Property Owners Ask Birmingham Council for Well Right Protection

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — Although cool weather and showers have eased the water pinch here, repercussions of it will be felt by the City Commission at its meeting tonight.

Two property owners who live just beyond the eastern city limits have written the commission stating that the Walker well, one of the city's eight municipal wells has deprived them of water from their own private wells—especially during the recent dry spell.

The two, Charles E. Brownell of 3239 Dorchester, and John T. White Jr. of 2720 Yorkshire, have asked that pumping from the Walker well be "drastically curtailed so as to discontinue the infringement of our water rights."

Also on the agenda is a communication from the Oakland County Department of Health urging the city's cooperation in "developing a uniform approach" in combatting the rabies problem in South Oakland County.

Street improvements in the Quarton Lake Estates also will be up for discussion as a result of a letter from Mrs. Howard Willett. Mrs. Willett, a leading figure in the drive to get that area's streets paved, urged in the letter that the streets be repaired this fall.

The commissioners will get a chance to view the equipment of the new Birmingham Ambulance Service, Inc. before the meeting. Owner Michael J. O'Hara plans to have the new ambulances parked in front of the Municipal Bldg.

O'Hara has stated a desire to negotiate with the commission regarding ambulance service for the fire and police departments. The city has not previously had an ambulance service.

3 Nabbed as Police Crackdown Begins

Following an announcement that they would not tolerate youthful rowdyism in Pontiac, police picked up three juveniles loitering on N. Baldwin Ave. Sunday night.

The youths, 14 through 16 years of age, were taken to police headquarters and questioned. They were ordered to return to their homes and stay off streets late at night.

Police picked them up near Beverly avenue about 10:30 p.m. in the start of a crackdown on youthful gangs.

The move to stamp out juvenile delinquency before it widened in Pontiac was started Saturday after youths beat up a teen-age pedestrain and a motorist.

Capt. Clark M. Wheaton, head of Pontiac detectives ordered patrolmen to pick up young loiterers in an effort to curb possible juvenile trouble.

Boy Fails to Identify Assailant in Lineup

A 15-year-old Pontiac youth who was slugged Saturday by a young assailant cleared two men picked up over the weekend in connection with the assault.

Capt. Clark M. Wheaton, chief of Pontiac detectives, said the beating victim, Danny Emory, 15, of 185 N. Perry St., viewed the suspects and said neither was involved in the early-morning slugging.

The men were arrested in a car answering the description of the one carrying the assailant. Emory said a car pulled up beside him early Saturday morning and a youth slugged him several times after asking for street directions. He said the youth was riding with several other persons.

Judge Refuses to Free Doctor

Sheppard's Attorney to Appeal Court's Refusal to Grant Writ

CLEVELAND (AP) — Common Pleas Judge Frank J. Merrick today refused to grant a writ of habeas corpus that would have given temporary freedom to Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard.

William J. Corrigan, attorney for the 30-year-old physician held in the murder of his wife, immediately announced he would appeal the decision.

Judge Merrick ordered the osteopath returned to the county jail, where he has been held since his arrest Friday.

Under Ohio law, the president of a city council in such a municipality as Bay Village — scene of the crime — has full authority to act for the mayor, if for any reason at all the mayor cannot act, Judge Merrick said.

That was the point on which Corrigan had asked the writ. He contended Gershom M. Barber, the council president who issued the warrant and committed Dr. Sheppard to jail, had no authority to act.

Barber acted because Mayor J. Spencer Houk, a friend and neighbor of the doctor, is expected to be a material witness. Houk was the first person Dr. Sheppard telephoned on the morning of July 4, when Mrs. Marilyn Sheppard's bloody body was found.

It was Corrigan's contention that a mayor cannot delegate his authority.

The courtroom drama took little more than half an hour. Dr. Sheppard was wearing the neck brace which he has used much of the time since the slaying. He says the intruder who killed his wife hurt him in a struggle.

Witnesses at the hearing were Barber, Houk and two arresting officers, Lt. Clifford Mercer and Patrolman Fred J. Drenkhan.

Dr. Sheppard's return to jail presumably opened the way for further questioning by detectives who talked with him about six hours yesterday. They indicated they had not learned much.

secret" document in a political speech."

Morse, springing up in rebuttal said Knowland was referring to a speech Morse made at Minneapolis during the 1952 election campaign.

And, Morse declared, the then President Truman had declassified the document and made it available for use in the speech.

In tones of astonishment, Knowland said "I am deeply shocked by the revelation" from Morse.

Knowland, in bringing up the matter, noted that Morse backs censure of McCarthy on grounds, among other reasons, that McCarthy had asked federal employes to hand over to him any information they might have on subversive activity within the government, even if it involved giving him secret information.

The Knowland - Morse clash came as the Senate pushed along on its third day of debate on the resolution by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) to censure McCarthy.

McCarthy, outwardly confident of victory, was calling for an early showdown.

And some of his critics were conceding they saw little chance of putting over the censure move.

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark), saying he was not passing judgment on the question of censure, suggested creation of a special Senate committee to draft formal charges against McCarthy with the aim of a vote before Congress adjourns. This idea met with little immediate enthusiasm.

Morse, who was elected to the senate as a Republican, broke with his party in 1952 and campaigned for the election of the Democratic presidential nominee, Adlai Stevenson.

of Detroit are unopposed on the Republican ballot.

Also of major interest is the outcome of the Democratic nomination for U.S. senator. Patrick V. McNamara of Detroit, member of the Detroit Board of education and a labor union officer, was left unopposed on the ballot by the death of former U.S. Sen. Blair Moody, but some segments of the CIO and the Democratic Party have advocated a "memorial" vote for Moody and the state watches to see whether it might be large enough to defeat McNamara.

Voters tomorrow will receive a ballot with the Republican candidates on one side and the Democratic candidates on the other. They may not vote on both sides.

Harbert is the long-time professional at Meadowbrook, where the recent Motor City Open was held. Burkemo is the popular pro at the Franklin Hills layout, scene of many top tournaments.

SOS for Blood Sent Out Here

Donors Urged to Visit Bloodmobile Tuesday at Donelson School

Milo J. Cross, Pontiac Chamber of Commerce president, today urged local people to give blood at Tuesday's emergency Bloodmobile visit to Pontiac.

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will take donations from 2 until 8 p.m. election day at Donelson School, 1200 W. Huron St., in a special effort to help fill Detroit Regional Blood Center shelves.

The blood "drought" has become so severe that it forced Pontiac General Hospital to seek its own blood donors for two patients this week.

"There's no vacation from the need for blood," Cross said today. "I think a citizen has almost as much a responsibility to maintain a supply of blood as to exercise his right to vote. We hope local people will shoulder both responsibilities Tuesday — I don't know what would happen if we had any disaster here and didn't have whole blood on hand."

Meanwhile, several community groups turned to help make Tuesday's blood drive a success.

Pontiac Urban League Guild manned telephones at Red Cross offices, FEderal 4-3575, last night taking calls from donors.

Junior Women's Club and Pontiac Y-Teens will man Red Cross phones from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Sunday. General Motors Girls Club is helping line up donors, Baldwin Rubber Local 125, UAW-CIO and several other Pontiac industries and unions have promised to send donors to Tuesday's blood clinic.

Anyone who can give blood at Tuesday's mobile visit is urged to call Red Cross offices for an appointment. Free rides to and from the clinic will be given donors if needed.

Pontiac Rape Slayer in Jackson Prison

Rumors that mental hospital authorities had freed rape-slayer Donald V. O'Brian, 27, of Pontiac were reported unfounded today by a Jackson State Prison official.

Edward L. Colbert, the warden's administrative assistant at Jackson, said O'Brian is imprisoned there now and is working in the prison's stamp plant.

He said O'Brian was transferred to Jackson by Ionia State Hospital on March 23, but is still under hospital jurisdiction.

O'Brian was declared a criminal sexual psychopath by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty last year in the rape slaying of Mrs. Hallie O. Perkins of Pontiac. He was committed to Ionia.

Driver's Condition Good After Head-On Crash

A Detroit motorist, who was involved in a head-on auto crash Sunday on U.S. 10, north of Grange Hall road in Groveland Township, is reported in good condition today at Pohtiac General Hospital with wrist and arm fractures.

According to Michigan State Police of the Pontiac Post, Alexander Bryce, 64, of 19303 Hersey, the injured driver, was driving on the wrong side of an unmarked highway on a curve and collided with an auto driven by William Hayes, 33 of South Burnaby, Ont., Canada. Hayes was uninjured.

3 Youths Stage Holdup

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — On the pretext of needing change for a dollar bill early Sunday morning, three youths waited until attendant Robert Sprout opened the cash register at Rochettit's Service station, Woodward and Square Lake Rd., and removed about $275 in cash while holding Sprout at gunpoint.

Bagley School Breakin Reveals Nothing Taken

A breakin of the Bagley School, 320 Bagley St., was reported to Pontiac Police today when the school custodian found a window pane removed from the principal's office.

Orion Youngster, 2, Found Dead in Lake

Robert Leon Smith, 2½, son of Mrs. Paula Smith of 1141 Elkhorn Rd., Lake Orion, drowned Sunday afternoon when he fell into Elkhorn Lake from a dock behind his home.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies said that the child, who had been in the water about an hour, was found by his mother in about three feet of water and taken from the lake by Peter Martin of Elkhorn Lake and Loyal Sundberg of Berkley.

Orion Township firemen tried for an hour to revive him. He was pronounced dead by Deputy Oakland County Coroner L. F. Cobb.

Funeral service will be Tuesday at 1 p.m. from the Allen Funeral Home, with burial in East Lawn Cemetery.

Surviving besides his mother are three brothers, Robert R., Russell and Frank, all at home, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hall of Lake Orion, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith of Goodrich.

Police Yank Down 25 Political Signs

Twenty-five more political campaign signs were removed from city property over the week end as Pontiac Police continued to enforce a 1905 city ordinance prohibiting the posters on public land.

About 650 political signs have been torn down so far in Pontiac, according to Police Chief Herbert W. Straley who issued the order recently following complaints by citizens.

"I don't believe that we have missed any of the illegally posted signs," said Straley. "We believe the city is clean now; but citizens should call the police department if some signs are seen in their community," he added.

Montana, Utah and New Mexico; Anna Correa Bary, 29, his wife and former organizer of the Communist party in Denver; Harold Zepelin, Colorado; and Lewis Martin Johnson, 28, Communist party organizer for Colorado, and Lewis Martin Johnson, 34, head of the Communist party in Utah.

Charles Brown, agent in charge of the Denver FBI office, gave no details of the arrests other than to say that all were arrested while standing on the sidewalk near the Capitol.

He said the arrests climaxed "a lengthy investigation." Kelley said he was aware of the investigation "some time ago." He said Mrs. Blau probably would be returned here for preliminary hearing on the same date as the other four.

Mrs. Blau, who the FBI said has been associated with Communist party activities since 1943, was arrested at her Los Angeles home where she lived with her husband. She had been working in a bakery for several months without public attention, the FBI said.

Long Distance Caller Held at Juvenile Home

BIRMINGHAM — A 16-year-old Birmiggham youth is being held at the Oakland County Juvenile Home after being apprehended yesterday by Michael O'Hara, owner of the newly opened Birmingham Ambulance Service, Inc., 1351 S. Woodward.

The boy, described by police as a "trouble maker," had entered the building and made two long distance telephone calls to Pennsylvania.

Sheet Metal Shop Fire Blamed on Burglars

A match or cigarette discarded by burglars was blamed for a small fire early Sunday morning at Elbling & Sons sheet metal shop at 73 S. Parke St.

The blaze was discovered at about 3 a.m. by a passerby who called firemen. Damage was negligible, according to police.

Girl Suffers Injury When Car Hits Pole

Minor injuries were suffered by Kay Fink, 15, of 364 Prospect St. Saturday night when the auto in which she was riding jumped a curb and hit a telephone pole on Mechanic street near N. Paddock street. She was treated at Pontiac General Hospital.

Pontiac Police quoted the driver, Adrian A. Sabourin Jr., 16, of 551 Community St., as saying he attempted to adjust a picture on the sun visor when he lost control of the car. Three other passengers were uninjured.

Model Has Teeth to Suit Each Mood

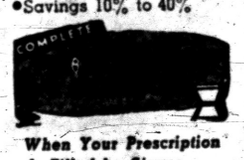

CLEVELAND, O. — (UP) — Most models have dozens of changes of clothing, hats, shoes and the like, but how many can boast of a set of teeth for every occasion? Louis Clarkbowers can!

The 55-year-old Clarkbower is custodian at Western Reserve's Dental School. He also doubles as a demonstration model for dentures, and, to equip him properly for this latter role, the school has provided him with eight sets of false teeth over the years.

By 1958, Clarkbower figures he'll have a dozen sets, but for now he's content.

"I rarely smile with the same teeth two days running," he said. "It's sort of luxurious to be able to change them like ties."

Why Vote for This Man?

FRED G. BEARDSLEY

1. The tax experts of Michigan entrusted to him, four Bills to amend the tax laws so the tax machinery would work. He introduced and procured the passage of these four Bills. No longer must our Tax Allocation Board work in the dark. These Bills did not increase your taxes but they really streamlined the taxing machinery.

Fred Beardsley procured the passage of these laws.

2. The census regulation giving credit for college students to the Cities where the colleges were located cost Oakland County Citizens much money. A resolution was offered to the Legislature, passed and forwarded to Washington protesting this regulation as being unfair to non-college localities.

Fred Beardsley offered the resolution and secured its passage.

Why would important tax bills be entrusted to him? Well, 13 years as a supervisor made him familiar with the taxing machinery. He knew what was wrong and how to correct it.

Why did he offer the resolution on the census? The answer to that is that he is alert to the interests of his constituents. Why was it possible for him to procure the passage of these and the other pieces of legislation? The answer is that he enjoys the respect and confidence of every member of the legislature. There is no substitute for experience.

Group Working on Indo Truce

India, Canada, Poland Sending Advance Party to Viet Nam

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The Indochina truce commission worked today on plans to begin at least token supervision in the Far East battleground by Aug. 11, the date on which the cease-fire becomes finally effective over the whole country.

Representatives of the three nations on the armistice group — India, Canada and Poland — agreed at an initial organization meeting here yesterday to send a 12-man advance party to Indochina within a week.

The cease-fire became effective in North Viet Nam last Tuesday and in central Viet Nam yesterday. It will spread to Laos on Aug. 6, Cambodia the next day and will take effect in South Viet Nam — the rest of the country — on Aug. 11.

Inaugurating the commission's first meeting, Indian Prime Minister Nehru told the representatives of Canada and Poland he doubted "whether we can really start functioning adequately" by the final cease-fire date, on which the Geneva agreement provides the group, is to begin its work.

But "it may be possible to start functioning in a formal way by sending somebody there," Nehru added.

5 Colombo Leaders to Discuss Asia Pact

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP)—Ceylon's Premier, Sir John Kotelawela, said today he will summon the five Colombo powers to sound out their views on Britain's invitation to attend talks in September on a Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

Kotelawela said the prime ministers of Ceylon, Burma, India, Indonesia and Pakistan—would meet in Rangoon to discuss the merits of SEATO.

An informed source said India's Prime Minister Nehru already has advised Kotelawela that he probably will not attend the conference proposed by British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden.

If Medical Expenses High, New Tax Rate Will Help

Editor's Note: This is the first in a series explaining how the new tax bill will affect individuals.)

By CHARLES F. BARRETT

WASHINGTON (AP)—If medical expenses are taking more than an incidental bite out of your pocketbook, you may get some help from another source: an income tax cut.

Bigger deductions for medical expenses starting last Jan. 1 included in the giant tax revision bill just passed by Congress. They will show up in your 1954 income tax return.

Under the new law you may deduct from your income, before figuring your tax, medical expenses above 3 per cent of your income. It was 5 per cent under the old law.

But there's another provision that may trim your benefits somewhat. Under the old law, all outlays for drugs and medicines were included as medical expenses. Under the new law you can count only those drugs and medicines which exceed 1 per cent of your income.

And remember you don't get any deductions for medical expenses unless you itemize all your deductions. You won't benefit if you take the standard deduction of 10 per cent of your income, which the government offers gratis to most taxpayers.

Because of the medical allowance and others, you may find you will benefit by listing your deductions next year although in the past you have been taking the automatic 10 per cent deduction.

Another change would be an especially big help if you run into really extraordinary medical expenses. Under the old law the maximum medical deduction was $1,250 per person, for yourself or your dependents, or up to $5,000 for a family. The new law doubles the maximum deductions to $2,500 per person and $10,000 for a family.

If your income is $5,000, you now can deduct allowable medical expenses that run above $150. Under the old law, you could deduct only those expenses above $250.

If your medical costs were actually $200, you could deduct $50 under the new law but nothing under the old law. If your expenses were $250 or more, you could deduct an extra $100 under the new law.

At the minimum 20 per cent tax rate, the extra $100 deduction would amount to a tax cut of $20. Your tax reduction would be greater if you are above the minimum bracket, or if your medical expenses were above the old maximum deductions.

Ford's Yacht Returns After Losing Its Sails

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Film director John Ford's yacht, the Araner, has returned to port safely under auxiliary power with 11 aboard after losing its sails 120 miles off the mainland.

Ford was not aboard. His daughter Barbara; her husband, actor Ken Curtis; Duke Kahanamoku, sheriff of Honolulu; and cowboy singer Shug Fisher were the passengers. There were seven crewmen.

MONTREAL (AP)—Police combed Montreal today for a bespectacled machinist with a "Charlie Chaplin mustache," wanted for questioning in connection with the sadistic sex slaying of 6-year-old Raymond Trudeau.

The machinist, identified as Lucien Picard, 43, was the last occupant of the basement apartment where the little boy's torso was found a day after his head and limbs were discovered on the nearby waterfront.

Authorities said Raymond, who was to have been given a birthday party by his parents Saturday, was the victim of a sadistic sex maniac.

A truck driver found the little boy's head, legs and hands, Saturday stuffed into two cardboard boxes atop a produce market garbage heap.

India Nationals Take Portuguese Village

BOMBAY, India (AP)—Nationalists took over another chunk of Portuguese India yesterday, marching 3,000-strong into the little town of Selvassa, 100 miles north of Bombay.

Reports reaching here said the pro-Indian group, spearheaded by the nationalist Goan People's party, overwhelmed the town's police and seized their arms.

Selvassa, a town of 5,000, is headquarters of the Portuguese colonial district of Nagar Aveli. Nationalists seized six other villages in the district last Thursday.

India demands that the Portuguese pull out of their small holdings on the subcontinent, but Portugal has refused to discuss the issue.

Shuffleboard was branded as a "gambler's hobby" in New England in 1845 and it was banned from public play in several cities.

Active Ex-President Works 12-16 Hours Day

Herbert Hoover to Mark 80th Birthday August 10 at His Home Town in Iowa

By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK (INS) — Former President Herbert Hoover, who will be 80 years old on Aug. 10 and celebrate the day in his home village of West Branch, Iowa, has no intention of retiring in the discernible future.

Surprisingly sound physically, the man who won his country's love and respect again in his old age after derision and political exile in his middle years has an active schedule in mind.

After the Iowa ceremonies (he was asked to attend by the joint invitation of the Legislature) Hoover will return to New York, where he maintains an office and home in the Waldorf.

For the remainder of the summer he will continue his job as chairman of the Commission on Organization of the executive branch of government—a job that takes him to Washington as often as three times a week—and handle myriad other chores.

Early in October, after a peek at the World Series, he will tour Germany. Chancellor Adenauer, a firm admirer, invited him to return to a land where he fought famine, depression, disorder, anarchy and crippling peace terms after both world wars.

After that, back to New York and more work, with a brief time out for a little fishing in Florida.

The mellowed, smiling and somewhat Will Roger'ish Hoover of 80 works about as hard as did the dour and unhappy Hoover of the White House and the muscular money-making Hoover of the mining fields of Australia, Russia, China, India, South Africa, Egypt and the Malay States.

"The Chief," as close friends have called him for 40 years, participates to the hilt in the bewildering job of reorganizing the government executive branch. He has attacked the many problems of streamlining, making more efficient and reducing the cost of operations with a commission composed of 200 top citizens and experts.

"Task Forces" are assigned to concentrate on each of the endless departments, bureaus, offices and services. Each has its chairman, research staff and advisers. Each chairman reports to Hoover.

In addition, Hoover still occasionally serves as a mining consultant, is on many boards, and works for a number of charitable institutions, notably the Boys' Clubs of America.

He doggedly refuses to join any organization to which he cannot give sufficient time and attention. It takes him between 12 and 16 hours a day to attend to the work he has cut out for himself and he works a seven-day week.

Hoover finds stimulation in his almost nightly dinner party for four or six friends and for friends of friends. There is little drinking, but always spirited talk of the great issues.

He almost never goes to the theater or concerts, likes to turn in no later than 10:30, but works or reads until later. His reading is confined largely to current history and politics, and memoirs of the great. He never reads fiction.

He is up at seven, frequently has guests for breakfast and lunch. An attack of gall-bladder trouble several years ago forced him off starches and fats, with the result that at 80 he is trimmer than at 50.

Work and more work has helped blunt the blow of the death of Mrs. Hoover a decade ago. They had been inseparable through the 45 years of their marriage.

Lou Henry Wallace, who met the future president of the United States while both were students at Stanford, went with him to the ends of the earth during his mining days, worked at his side as he headed up the postwar feeding of literally hundreds of millions of derelict persons, was co-translator with him of one of his 14 books—Agricola's "De Re Metallica"—and was much of his strength and resolve in the difficult years when his name was cursed and his character defiled.

Hoover's sense of humor, revealed only to close associates through most of his public life, has kept him going, too, his friends report.

"It got him over the treatment he received during his last two years in the White House and until President Truman opened the shade on him again after the war," one old Hoover crony told the writer.

"Few Americans ever had as much cause to be bitter," he continued.

"But the chief learned to laugh somewhere along the line. The only time you hear a real gripe out of him today is when he gets on some phases of Roosevelt's years. Some he likes, others he abhors. He never complains about what Roosevelt and those around him did to him. He is sore only at what they did to the people."

The speaker, it may be needless to add, was a lifelong Republican.

Hoover is at his most carefree at Bohemian Grove, Calif., where he is now putting pencil to the draft of the speech he'll make at West Branch on his birthday. He is working also on shorter speeches to be made at the dedication this week in Stockton, Calif., of the first of five elementary and high schools bearing his name and which will get what amounts to his blessing before the middle of August. They will bring to more than 30 the number of Herbert Hoover schools in the nation.

Bohemian Grove is the rustic upstate California camping site of members of the Bohemian Club of San Francisco. Hoover, through almost half a century, has become the sage, wit and father confessor of successive waves of important campers, which always include some of the best known men in America.

Along with his fresh linen (he got rid of the old high starched collars) Herbert Hoover will carry with him to West Branch, Ia., on his 80th birthday more memories than come to most mortal men.

They reach from the mud-bottomed old swimming hole in which he once splashed (and which is still there) to the H-bomb and the punishing challenges of today. He saw all the history in between and in his self-effacing way made some of it.

(Tomorrow: Hoover's estimate of some of the giants whose paths he crossed, and vice versa, his unhappy stay in the White House, and his unexpectedly sharp sense of humor.)

Bedell Says Commies Seek to Isolate U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Under Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith says the "new soft line" of Russia and Red China is an admission that their "openly bullying tactics of the past" have failed.

What the Communists are really trying to do by their overtures toward America's allies, Smith said in a television interview last night, is to weaken the free world's solidarity and particularly to "isolate" the United States.

He said he had seen no signs the Communist nations are ready to "settle down as peaceful members of society."

Poland Says U. S. Strafed 2 Ships

LONDON (AP) — Poland has charged U.S. fighters with strafing two Polish merchant ships off Hainan Island on July 26.

That was the day after two U.S. Navy pilots shot down two Chinese Communist planes which attacked them south of Red-held Hainan, off the Indochina coast, as the Americans searched for survivors from a downed British airliner.

A Warsaw radio broadcast, heard in London yesterday, said a note protesting the alleged strafing had been handed to the U.S. Embassy in the Polish capital.

The two ships were identified as the 7,836-ton Braterstwo and the 4,959-ton Pokoj.

The broadcast said Poland had demanded punishment of those responsible for the alleged attack and that measures be taken to prevent a repetition.

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

MONDAY, AUGUST 2, 1954

Be Sure to Vote Tuesday

Tomorrow, August 3, is primary day and every registered voter has an important date at the polls.

The primary is just as important a part of our election machinery as the election itself. It gives political parties their opportunity to submit for voter approval their slates of candidates for county, state and national offices.

Just as important, it gives voters the chance to elect delegates to county conventions. They in turn elect delegates to the State conventions which nominate all state candidates below lieutenant governor, and all candidates in the Spring elections.

In addition state conventions elect members of the national committees which in turn nominate candidates for the Presidency.

Actually a choice of county delegates is the vital first step in the election process. It is so important in fact that in areas where no delegate is elected, the county committee is empowered to fill the vacancy.

Commons OKs Suez Pact

Winston Churchill has won an easy victory in Commons for his government's agreement with Egypt to withdraw British forces from the Suez Canal Zone.

It was first feared that the pact, which caused wild rejoicing in Cairo, might result in the defeat of the Conservative Government. A small group of diehards, bitterly opposed to the withdrawal of the British forces, said they would vote to reject the accord. But the rest of the party remained loyal to the Prime Minister and Laborites supported him by abstaining.

Under the terms agreed upon the 83,000 British troops are to be removed from the Canal Zone within the next 20 months. Maintenance of British installations is to be provided by civilians with the help of 2,000 un-uniformed British technicians.

A vital section of the pact would permit Britain's reactivation of the base it has controlled for 72 years in the event of an attack on Turkey, Egypt or any one of the eight Arab League states.

For Egypt, of course, the agreement is of utmost importance as it completes that country's independence. Not only does it have the silent approval of our government, but has been called a triumph for Anglo-U. S. diplomacy.

While certain admitted risks are involved, it is believed the West will benefit from the end of the long and bitter dispute. Egypt now may co-operate in the Western defense of the oil rich Middle East. Cairo might even be able to swing Arab countries into Western defense against the Russians.

AEC Bill Up to Conferees

To the relief of Congress and the people alike, the Senate's longest filibuster has ended suddenly and the Administration's atomic energy bill awaits action by conferees of both chambers.

Bitter at times though the 13 day debate was, it ended in an atmosphere of friendliness. Thirteen Democrats joined 44 Republicans, including Sens. Ferguson and Potter, in voting for the modified bill. There were only 28 negative votes.

Changes in the measure forced by the filibusterers left both sides able to claim no more than partial victory in the long drawn out struggle. It now will be the task of conferees to bring the bill into harmony with that passed by the House in a form nearer to the Administration's desires.

In its present form the House passed version would permit long needed freer exchange of atomic information with our allies. It also would allow private industry to produce power for the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Much of the Senate debate, however, was aimed at this provision and the membership wrote into its bill a special safeguard. This would prohibit exemption of any corporation under such a contract from paying income taxes.

Two other changes won by the opposition (1) would permit AEC to produce power itself and (2) a preference clause giving rural electric cooperatives and public owned power companies first crack at AEC produced power.

How much the filibuster has delayed adjournment and hurt the Eisenhower program isn't yet clear. It is clear, however, that from the start the majority favored the major provisions of the bill and that the fight raged over what has been called a side issue.

for McCarthy and all his works. In this same way was Martin Dies persecuted. Any effective enemy of Communism will be the target for smears, lies, and ridicule. Only a man with a mission—a crusader—could carry on under such vicious unfair attacks.

Seeing loyal citizens jump into the fray on the Communist side is pitiful and alarming. The purpose of the committee is buried under a mass of Communist-built hatred and personal enmity for McCarthy himself. The man is unimportant, but Communist-led prejudice against anyone who happens to head the committee can destroy the committee itself, as well they know.

The fate of such committees could mean our country's fall or its survival as a free nation. They must have the people's support. Those who parrot the Communist anti-McCarthy line are driving nails in the coffin of freedom. If our nation should fall to Communism, it will not be by Communist force. The large segment of incredibly stupid, gullible "loyal citizens" will hand it over on a platter in the name of anti-McCarthyism. How, dumb can we get?

Few Businesses Are Making Big Profits Nowadays Because of High Competition

Like many other farmers, Henry accuses the middleman. But be cautious about misjudging your neighbor. Few Americans make big dough any more. For when you analyze the data from the meat industry below, you will be surprised at the tiny margin of profit. And that's typical of almost every business nowadays.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case L-373: Henry H. aged 37, is a fairly successful farmer.

"But it gripes me to realize how much profit the middleman gets from our farm products," he grumbled at a farm meeting which I was to address.

"For example, we receive only 25 cents per pound for the steers that we raise and fatten for market.

"But look at those $1.00 per pound T-bone steaks! It is the meat packers who make all the dough."

It behooves us to get all the facts before we jump to conclusions about other occupations than our own.

For here are the facts about the meat packers. At the start of this year 1954, they paid Henry $258 for a 1,000-pound steer.

How much weight do you suppose that steer lost in being prepared for the meat counters at various city butcher shops?

Well, a 1,000-lb. steer dresses down to only 590 lbs. of beef. And at the average wholesale price, the packers get only $241.90 for the steer that cost them $258.

In short, they actually lost $16.10 on the meat from that steer. If it were not for the by-products in the form of the hide, hair, etc., they couldn't stay in business at all.

"Then it must be the retail butcher shops that make all the dough," Henry might argue.

All right, again look at the facts. The retail butcher pays $241.90 for the 590 lbs of dressed meat from that 1,000-lb. steer.

But of that 590 lbs. he doesn't get to sell 140 lbs. for it evaporates as water loss, or is unsalable bones and fat trimmings.

So he pays for 590 lbs. but actually gets to sell only 450 lbs. across the counter.

Remember, too, that a 1,000-lb. steer produces only 35 lbs. of those T-bone and porterhouse steaks which sell at $1.00 per pound.

Then there are only 55 lbs of sirloin, that averages 88 cents. He gets about 100 lbs of hamburger from the steer, which retails at 42 cents.

So when he sells the total meat volume from the 1,000-lb. steer, it totals only $291.40 against his wholesale cost of $241.90.

Thus, your retail butcher makes a gross profit of only $49.50 on the total meat in an entire 1,000-lb. steer!

And out of this $49.50 per steer, he must pay his rent and lights and insurance and wages to his sales clerks, plus taxes, etc.

So you readers who think business men are now cleaning up millions, better realize the true state of affairs.

There are actually almost no quick-riches any more in efficient, highly competitive American business and industry.

Unless you accidentally hit an oil well or invent some clever new gadget (and few Americans rate these "windfalls" any more) you must work hard to make your modest retail net profits.

Too many Americans see only the cash register gross sales. They fail to deduct the many costs and overhead charges.

Be more charitable, therefore, toward businessmen. For they die prematurely of high blood pressure in trying to pay their exhorbitant taxes, yet enjoy few pleasures that the $50 per week clerk doesn't already experience.

David Lawrence Says:

Rhee Can't Understand America's Indifference

WASHINGTON—They finally announced last Monday the official casualty list of Americans in Korea—the dead 33,417. And Syngman Rhee came to Washington the same day to express his gratitude for the help the American people gave his country.

That's a lot of American boys—33,417—who gave their lives, and there were also 108,650 wounded, many of whom will be maimed for the rest of their days.

Nobody except Syngman Rhee seemed last week to have these American boys on his conscience. It is true that he came in a bitter mood. For nearly 2,000,000 of his countrymen—civilians as well as soldiers—have been killed.

But, coming from the battle zone to calm, peaceful, forgetful Washington, it was, indeed, a realistic if not an inexplicable, contrast.

For while Washington was polite and gracious to the President of the Republic of Korea, it was somewhat annoyed that he brought up the subject of what happens when you start a war, kill and wound 142,067 of your young men, and then fail to finish the war or to do anything which gives the impression that you really care about the sacrifices that have been made.

This week Syngman Rhee will pay his respects at Kansas City to former President Truman, who ordered the American Army, Navy and Air Force in June 1950 to help defend the Republic of Korea.

It was a magnificent action and Truman deserves the greatest credit for this step. But then, after a few months, Truman faltered—he listened to the timid voices of the European governments who feared that a war in Asia might endanger the safety of Europe.

Instead of taking the calculated risks of a battle already begun, Truman acceded to the request of the Allies and would not allow pursuit of the Chinese bombers to their bases in Manchuria.

He refused to order a blockade of the coast of China, whose government had intervened in Korea with more than 2,000,000 soldiers, and he failed to let the troops of Chiang Kai-Shek, still the recognized head of the Nationalist government of China, go to the mainland of China to fight against the Reds.

Then he summarily fired Gen. MacArthur — the commander-in-chief, for daring to advocate such a stern course. Truman has a lot to answer for in history.

Negotiations for an armistice had been begun under the Truman administration, so President Eisenhower felt it his duty to consummate them, because a commitment had been made to our Allies to end the fighting.

The plausible argument was advanced that aggression had been "repelled" and that the Communists had learned a lesson and that a third world war had been averted. Significant warnings against further aggression were then released by Washington in the hope of restraining the Communists from enlarging the war in Indochina.

But the warnings went unheeded and the Indochina War was enlarged, with aid from Red China. The Western countries in due time capitulated to the aggressor.

The 33,417 dead, morover, are forgotten or ignored in Great Britain. Yet this is more than half the number of persons killed by the bombing of Britain during all of World War II.

In spite of the fact that the United Nations has declared the Red Chinese government an "aggressor" the London government and almost the entire Parliament and the press want to accept the aggressor as a "peace-loving" member of the United Nations with a seat in the Security Council.

Admission of Red China, of course, means that the Republic of Korea will be forfeited to the Communists.

Syngman Rhee, who has lived the last four years in an atmosphere of great sacrifice in which the blood of the soldiers of many allied nations has been shed in the cause of human freedom, can't understand what's come over the free world, especially America.

He has studied American history and has read of such patriots as Patrick Henry who said they preferred liberty to death. He has read of how Abraham Lincoln said the union couldn't survive half slave and half free. Yet he hears of "peaceful co-existence" with the murderers of his countrymen.

But it didn't take long for the Korean President last week to be disillusioned — to discover that official Washington is far more interested in finding ways and means of curbing McCarthy's "methods" than it is in restraining the methods of the Communists in Asia even when they have already killed 33,417 American boys and have tortured tens of thousands of others.

He must have wondered about all this as he read of the debates in Congress where it seems more important to worry about whether some "pinko" may possibly get a tongue-lashing before a congressional committee hereafter than whether 33,417 American boys died in vain in Korea.

The 33,417 American dead may not be on anybody's conscience in Europe, but what's much worse it is beginning to look as if they aren't on anybody's conscience here in Washington either.

What a way to destroy the morale of our armed forces in a world where aggressors hold sway!

Baering Down

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

(International News Service)

It's long been our amateur opinion that civilizations have been wrecked by committees reporting progress.

Committees are wheels within wheels that do not show upon the dial.

They are indoor posses appointed for seniority in curiosity to put the finger upon what's wrong with what's right.

The result is indexed statistics in triplicate. They would be absoloosely confidential if it were not for the carbon copies.

This self-inflicted committee finds that the man who led three lives was born twins and adopted a foster-brother. This governmental Narcissus' pool was a rear-view mirror with built-in nepotism.

The three wise monkeys of Japan who saw, heard and spoke no evil, also kept no books. Today we have accumulated that dubious spot in life, liberty and the pursuit of the intangible where we are dusting picnic plates with fingerprint powders diluted with nutmeg.

The refinements of the stylized career have kept pace with organized indifference. In order to staff 164 committees with 96 senators it has been necessary to make political apple-sauce. The race is not always to the swift if only the committee sees the films of the photo finish.

We are not claiming that partisan loyalty looms biggishly in the results. But when time marches on it's well to hold a stop-watch in the official reviewing stand.

There is nothing in the original Bill of Riots that can be construed as constitutionalizing the sub-committee. In going back to erase your footprints you make other footprints. Let us return to the lofty principles of the foundering fathers when we knew the difference between right and wrong. And there was enough for second helpings.

In sixty more days there will be new faces in the old seats. Vote for the politician who makes more promises than he can break. We are at the fork of the roads with a nice paving contract down either one.

Dr. Brady Lists Types of Hernia Cases That Should Have Injection Treatment

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

The ambulant treatment of herina (rupture, breach), that is to say a series of injections of a chemical solution, administered in the physician's office at intervals of a few days, is not applicable in all cases.

Injection treatment is "indicated," as doctors say, meaning it is likely to prove satisfactory, for

(1) Industrial patients with small reducible hernia, especially those who do only light work

(2) Aged and infirm patients, for whom surgery is a hazard

(3) Infants and children with small hernia, for whom surgery is unsatisfactory owing to difficulties of post-operative care

(4) Patients with small reducible hernia who are fearful of an operation

(5) Patients with hernia of moderate size if the external ring measures less than three-fourths inch in diameter

(6) Patients with hernia that tends to recur after operation. In such cases a few injections properly placed may prevent what would otherwise develop into a recurrence

(7) Patients with small post-operative hernia — that is hernia through or near the scar left by any abdominal operation.

Injection treatment will generally cure umbilical (navel, belly button) hernia in a young child, if the bulging can be reduced or prevented by suitable bandage, binder or belt.

On the other hand, injection treatment is not indicated and as a rule should not be used, for it is not likely to prove satisfactory for

(1) Large hernia with ring measuring more than an inch in diameter

(2) Patients whose hernia is complicated with chronic cough, urethral stricture, prostatic hypertrophy, diabetes, tuberculosis, abdominal tumor, dropsy

(3) Irreducible hernia

(4) Hernia which cannot be retained by a truss.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Orion Pair Hurt at Accident Site

Car Crashes Into Auto of Couple Who Stopped to Offer Aid

A Lake Orion couple who stopped to give aid to an accident victim on North Rochester road north of Buell road in Oakland Township, were injured Saturday when another car went out of control as it approached the accident scene and overturned, rolling into the couple's auto.

William A. Monahan, 49, of 33 Hood St., driver of the careening car, was arrested for investigation of felonious driving by Oakland County sheriff's Deputies Ferris Holcomb and Steve Hubbell.

Monahan's car rolled about 1,000 feet, crashed into the auto of Clement T. Chalfant, 63, of of 2271 N. Rochester Rd., Lake Orion, and pushed Chalfant's car into a pickup truck, then sideswiped the deputies' patrol car, deputies said.

Chalfant, his wife, Emma, 61, and Monahan, were treated at Pontiac General Hospital for minor injuries.

The Chalfants had stopped to give aid to Mrs. Julie Blavins, 61, of 292 Huron St., who had fallen from the car of her son, Emmett E. Blavins, 36, of Dodd's Trailer Park, Pontiac Township.

Blavins told deputies he broke over the hill, applied brakes to slow down and lost control of his car which skidded into a ditch, throwing his mother to the ground. Mrs. Blavins was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital with a pelvic fracture and is reported in good condition to day.

Our Lady School Fund Campaign Totals $110,280

WATERFORD — Our Lady of the Lakes school building fund campaign, Waterford, has surpassed its minimum goal of $100,000 announces the Rev. F. J. Delaney. With a subscription of $17,060 at the second general report last week, the total to date stands at $110,280.

Canvassing of the parish began July 12, with a start of $52,000 in advance gifts. In one week the figure soared to $82,000. The campaign is now in its third week

The campaign was initiated to obtain funds for the construction of an elementary school in Waterford. At an estimated cost of $200,000, the structure will be a modern functional eight classroom unit to be erected on the parish property on Dixie highway south of Andersonville road in Waterford.

Waterford Board to Discuss Van Atta

More than 1,000 persons are expected to attend a meeting of the Waterford Township Board which convenes tonight to consider petitions calling for the reinstatement of Frank J. Van Atta, ousted police chief.

Van Atta was dismissed July 19 in an unexpected move by the board on charges that he was involved in the political race for sheriff.

A petition committee which formed after the board refused to reinstate Van Atta, expects to hand the board between 7,000 and 10,000 signatures demanding Van Atta's return, a spokesman said today.

The board refused to consider his reinstatement until it could be proved that most of the township was in favor of his return.

Cars Crash Head-On Injuring 2 Persons

Two persons were injured in a head-on crash on M87 at Tucker road Saturday when a motorist attempted to pass two parked cars and failed to see another oncoming auto, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Hospitalized were Mrs. Winifred M. Goodson, 49, of 6004 Grange Hall Rd., and Mrs. Adele Gruilbaut, 44, of Detroit. Pontiac General Hospital reports that Mrs. Goodson is in good condition today with a fractured arm. Mrs. Guilbaut, admitted for possible rib fractures, was discharged yesterday.

Deputies said a car driven by Mrs. Priscilla Ward, 31, of 6144 Grange Hall Rd., Holly, attempted to pass two parked vehicles and collided with an auto driven by William Ernewein, 48, of Cleveland, Ohio. Neither motorist was injured.

CHAPTER 29

Challee glanced at the court. There was an exchange of looks among the court, Challee, and Greenwald. The defense counsel rose for cross-examination.

"Commander Queeg," he said respectfully, looking down at the crayon in his hand, "I should like to ask you whether you have ever heard the expression, 'Old Yellowstain.' "

"In what connection?" Queeg looked genuinely puzzled.

"In any connection."

"Old Yellowstone?"

"Old Yellowstain, sir."

"I have not."

"You aren't aware, then, that all the officers of the Caine habitually referred to you as Old Yellowstain?"

The judge advocate jumped to his feet. "I object to the question! It is impertinent badgering of the witness."

Blakely said frostily, "How does the defense counsel justify this line of questioning?"

"If the court please, it is the assigned duty of defense counsel to disprove the words in the specification — I quote — without authority, and without justifiable cause.

"It will be the contention of the defense that the authority of Lieutenant Maryk was Articles 184, 185, and 186 of the Navy Regulations, and that his justifiable cause was the conduct, demeanor, and decisions of Commander Queeg during his command of the Caine.

The sobriquet 'Old Yellowstain' used by the officers of the Caine and the facts out of which that sobriquet arose, will be extremely relevant. I quote Article 185:

The conclusion to relieve his commanding officer must be one which a reasonable, prudent and experienced officer would regard as necessary from the facts thus determined to exist."

"Before ruling the court wishes to caution defense counsel," Blakely said, staring very hard at Greenwald. "The court recognizes that the defense is compelled to try to challenge the competence of the officer. Nevertheless, all requirements of legal ethics and military respect and subordination remain in force.

"The defense counsel will have to bear full responsibility for the conduct of his case, including indiscretions and abuses of his cross-examination privileges. Subject to the foregoing comment, the judge advocate's objection is overruled. Court stenographer will repeat the question."

The little yeoman in whites said tonelessly, "You aren't aware then that all the officers of the Caine habitually referred to you as Old Yellowstain?"

Queeg's head was down between his shoulders, and he squinted up at the air in front of him. He suddenly looked much more familiar to Maryk. "I am not aware of it."

"Commander," said Greenwald, "how many fitness reports did you write on Lt. Maryk, disregarding the one after he relieved you?"

"Two, I believe."

"One in January, and one in July?"

"That is correct."

"Do you remember their contents?"

"Well, they weren't bad fitness reports, as I recall."

"Did you give him the highest classification — Outstanding — in both of them?"

"Well, that was at the beginning. I may have."

"Photostats of the reports are available to refresh your memory, Commander."

"I can say definitely, yes, I was still classifying him as outstanding that early in the game."

"Did you state in your report of 1 July that he was qualified for command?"

"Well, as I say, he started off like a house afire. If you want to know how he ended up, why don't you bring up his last fitness report?"

"You wrote that report, Commander, did you not, after he relieve you on the grounds of mental illness?"

"That made no difference at all," exclaimed Queeg, with a touch of the old nasal voice. "The fitness report is not an instrument of retaliation or revenge—not in my hands, it isn't!"

"No further questions at this time." Greenwald turned to the court. "Commander Queeg will be called as a witness for the defense."

The eyebrows of the president signaled astonishment followed by resignation. Queeg was excused. He walked out of the room hurriedly.

"Call Lieut. Thomas Keefer," said Challee. The novelist came marching in, shoulders thrown back, head tilted a little to one side, his eyes looking blankly ahead.

Challee burshed through the opening questions in a monotone; then said, "Now, Lieutenant Keefer, coming to the morning of 18 December, will you describe how you learned that the captain had been relieved?"

"Mr. Maryk passed the word for all officers to lay up to the wheelhouse. When we got there he told us that the captain was sick and he had assumed command."

"Did Capt. Queeg show any external signs of being sick?"

"Well—" Keefer shifted in his seat and for a moment encountered Maryk's painfully intense glance. Maryk looked away angrily.

"Well, I have to say that at the height of a typhoon nobody aboard a four-piper looks very well. He was wet, and tired, and very tense-looking—"

"Was he raving, or foaming, or giving any other common indication of insanity?"

"No."

"Did he speak incoherently or giberingly when he protested being relieved?"

"No, he spoke clearly."

"What was your response to Maryk's announcement?"

"Well, things were happening very fast and in a confused way. Capt. Queeg was talking to us when the capsized George Black was sighted. Maryk began to maneuver to pick up survivors and for an hour that was all anyone thought about."

"Did you make any effort to persuade Maryk to restore Queeg to command?"

"I did not."

"Why not?"

"It would have been disloyal and contrary to the best interests of the ship to stir up my captain against my executive officer. Maryk had evidently abandoned his intention to pursue the matter."

"No further questions." Challee nodded at Greenwald.

The defense counsel rose. "No questions." All seven members of the court turned to look at Greenwald. Blakely, his eyebrows at maximum altitude, said, "Does the defense intend to recall the witness at a later time?"

"No, sir."

"No cross-examination?"

"No, sir."

Blakely beckoned to the judge advocate and whispered with him, then said, "No further questions. Witness excused."

Keefer stepped down, turned, and walked out rapidly. Maryk looked after him with a small dismal smile.

Missouri Sees Light Balloting

Primary Voters to Pick 11 Nominees for Seats in Congress

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) — Voters will select nominees for 11 congressional seats tomorrow in a quiet Missouri primary election in which only one statewide office is on the ballots.

A light vote is forecast.

Five Democratic congressmen and one Republican are without opposition tomorrow. The Democrats are Frank M. Karsten, Mrs. John B. Sullivan, Richard Bolling, A. S. J. Carnahan and Morgan M. Moulder.

Rep. Jeffrey P. Hillelson is the Republican unopposed.

Republican Rep. Dewey Short, chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, has engaged in the biggest fight of the primary with State Sen. Noel Cox in the heavy Republican 7th District in southwestern Missouri.

Other incumbents with primary opposition are Representatives Clarence Cannon and Paul C. Jones, both Democrats, and Republicans Thomas B. Curtis and William C. Cole.

State auditor is the only statewide office at stake. The incumbent, Democrat Haskill Holman, has no opposition in the primary. Three Republicans have filed for the office.

The Los Angeles metropolitan area has more automobiles per capita than any other — roughly 2,100,000.

Carrier Pigeon to Work Again for Anti-Reds

NEW YORK (AP) — A star campaigner in the 1955 Crusade for Freedom has arrived from Europe. She is Leaping Lena, a German carrier pigeon credited with having flown an anti-Communist message through the Iron Curtain.

Lena flew here from Munich yesterday — by airplane, this time — and will be used as an insignia and poster model for the crusade to raise money for Radio Free Europe.

In a race between two German cities last month, Lena got off course and was apparently found by a man in Pilsen, Czechoslovakia. Two days later, she arrived home in Germany with this message tied to her leg:

"We plead with you not to slow down in the fight against communism, because communism must be destroyed." It was signed, "Unbowed Pilsen."

Show Business

Anecdotes of Present and Past Include One of Ziegfeld Beauties

By EDDIE CANTOR

Thanks to Will Rogers—cowboy humorist—I am enjoying my forty-fifth year in show business.

During that period, I've associated and worked with almost every great star in the business—people like Will Rogers, Fanny Brice, Danny Kaye, Ethel Merman, George M. Cohan, Eddie Fisher and a hundred others.

Each day, in this column, I intend telling something about these people—anecdotes that have never been told before.

Like the time that one and only cowboy humorist, Will Rogers, said to me, while standing in the wings watching the shapely Ziegfeld girls, "Gosh, Eddie, look at 'em—they can't do a thing, but ain't it fun watching 'em do it?"

His stories about Ziegfeld's beauties were never-ending. He'd say to the audience, "It's tough on Mr. Ziegfeld when we start touring.

"In every town, some millionaire comes along and marries one of these wonderful girls Mr. Ziegfeld worked so hard to find—and some of 'em don't come back to the show for three or four weeks!—All those girls are so gorgeous! It's sad to think that twenty years from now, they'll all be five years older!"

Youth League in Red Listing

Control Board Finds Group Formed, Run to Aid Commies

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Labor Youth League was officially described today as an outright Communist-front organization formed by the Reds to promote class struggle and "a Soviet America."

The finding against the nation-wide youth group was issued after extensive hearings by Harry P. Cain, a member of the Subversive Activities Control Board.

Cain, a former Republican senator from Washington state, declared: "The policies, programs, positions and activities of the (league) have been formulated, adopted, and carried out for the primary purpose of aiding and supporting the Communist Party."

If Cain's ruling that the group is a Communist front is upheld by the full control board, the league's officers would have to register with the government and bare its financial affairs.

Similar proceeding have already been completed against the Communist Party and are in various stages for 10 other front groups. The party itself has defied the order and has taken its case to the courts.

The case against the league was based upon testimony at a parade of Justice Department witnesses including ex-members, former Communists and FBI undercover agents.

The league attacked most of the witnesses as "paid informants" and based its chief defense on the issue of "McCarthyism" as the "clear and present danger" which, it argued, "threatens American society."

Soldiers Love New Air Force Waitresses

"Everyone was very enthusiastic, especially the enlisted men who ordinarily pull KP every 15 or 20 days," said Lt. Joseph A. Hays, public information officer. The girls loved it too.

* * *

Sharon Ruch, a stenographer for the catering firm who helped in the kitchen the first day, said she liked it so well she's thinking of discarding her typewriter for an apron.

"The girls were overwhelmed by the reception," said Jack McGaha, southwest division manager for the Nationwide Food Service, Inc., of Chicago.

Asked if there was any chow-line flirting, he replied:

It was only the second day of the Air Force's experiment at turning kitchen police duty over to a catering service. But the trial, due to continue for 11 months, was immediately pronounced a tremendous success.

"Yes, there was some of that going on—you know soldiers."

Here's what the men thought of girl KPs.

"It's more appetizing—the food, I mean."

"They can feed me dog food now and I wouldn't know the difference."

"It's better than eating in a restaurant. The only difference is you walk out without paying."

Cafeteria style still prevails. But instead of the old trays where the gravy slopped over on the apple pie, good chinaware is used. The girls clean off the tables too.

Pour First Cement for Straits Bridge

ST. IGNACE (AP) — The first cement-pouring operations in caissons of the huge Straits of Mackinac bridge got under way today.

Grover C. Denny, project manager for Merritt, Chapman and Scott, the contractors for the substructure of the bridge, announced last night that the pouring operations would begin following the arrival of 8,500 tons of dolomite.

The dolomite arrived from Drummond Island, near De Tour, aboard the self-unloading freighter, J. L. Reiss.

The first caisson to be sunk will be a support pier for the giant bridge.

Hal Boyle Says:

Sioux Indian Recalls Day Tribal Jury Tried Horse

By HAL BOYLE

PINE RIDGE, S. D. (AP)—Did you ever hear of a horse being tried for murder?

Jake Herman can recall such an incident in his boyhood on the Pine Ridge reservation here, home of more than 11,000 Oglala Sioux Indians.

"The horse was sentenced to die because he killed my brother," he said.

Jake, who is a member of the executive branch of the tribal council, is he says, "half Sioux and half wild Irish rose—a pretty bad mixture."

He knows the philosophy and political outlook of both the Indian and the white man, and is at home in the culture of either. He went to Carlisle Indian College as a third grade grammar school student at the age of 20, and played right halfback there for three years. Later he trouped around the country for more than 20 years as a Wild West show trick rider and rodeo clown. Then he came back and settled down to ranching on No-Flesh Creek near Kyle, S.D.

Tanned and leathery, at 64, he still has the slim grace of a teenage cowboy. He loves most to talk about his childhood, such as the time his Indian grandmother handed him the raw heart of a turtle and told him if he ate it he would always be a brave man and a credit to his tribe.

"I ate it, all right—it tasted like liver, only tougher," he said, "but I turned out to be the biggest coward on earth."

In 1902 his father bought a black stallion from a trader. Turned loose on the range, it became vicious. One day the stallion dragged Jake's older brother, George, 18, from the saddle of another horse and kicked him to death.

"My father was very angry," Jake said. "He butchered some cattle, called in the tribe for a feast, and announced he was going to kill the stallion.

"But the tribal chiefs said no, he couldn't do that. The horse had to be given a fair trial. So they picked a jury of seven men to try the stallion."

On what grounds could human beings try an animal? Well, under the old Sioux code there were four great recognized disasters: (1) no food for the tribe; (2) losing an oldest son; (3) the lonely night wailing of a baby that has lost its mother; (4) the return of a brave from a war party with the news that he is the only survivor.

"The jury decided they could try the stallion for violating the second point in the code by causing the death of my oldest brother," said Jake. "They condemned him unanimously. Then they picked the Indian with the worst reputation in the tribe for being cruel to animals and ordered him to ride the stallion to death.

"He rode the stallion as hard and often as he could for two months but couldn't kill him. Then the jury gave him to another Indian who worked him until he could no longer move. He staked out the stallion, and it finally fell over dead.

"My father then butchered some more cattle, called in the tribe again, and held a great celebration feast. He felt my brother had been avenged. Of course such a thing couldn't happen today—but then it was regarded as simple justice."

Jake and his wife, Alice, have had six children, three sons and three daughters. His oldest son was killed fighting with the paratroopers in Europe in the last war, a second served in the Navy, the third was wounded in Korea and is still with the Marines.

His three daughters are named Grace Marie, Faith Marie and Hope Marie.

"Everybody asks me where's Charity Marie," said Jake, grinning. "But I tell them Jake is getting old—it is time he takes things easy."

The famous opera, "Madame Butterfly" was generally pronounced as an absolute failure when it was given its first public performance.

Montana Park Glaciers Slowing Their Retreat

WEST GLACIER, Mont. (AP)—M. E. Beatty, Glacier National Park chief naturalist, says increased precipitation, despite warmer weather, has slowed the retreat of the park's 60 glaciers.

During the 1940s, end of the glaciers was predicted before the year 2000. In 1900, Sperry, largest of the park glaciers, had an area of 840 acres. By 1950 it was down to 300 acres.

Kansas Eyeing Governor Race

Control of GOP Leans on Outcome; Twelve on Congressional Ballot

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—Predomnately Republican Kansas will nominate candidates for the U.S. Senate and six congressional seats tomorrow but the state's main interest has centered around the governorship contest.

Control of the Republican party machinery hinges on the outcome of a race between Fred Hall, the present lieutenant governor, and George Templar, former U.S. district attorney.

Rep. Sen. Andrew F. Schoeppel is seeking re-election but his opposition is not considered strong. He has remained in Washington while Congress has been in session.

These five Republican congressmen also are seeking re-election: Myron V. George, Ed H. Rees, Wint Smith, Errett P. Scrivner, and Clifford R. Hope.

Kansas' only Democratic congressman, Howard S. Miller of the 1st District, also is up for re-election. He, Scrivner and Hope do not have opponents in the primary. The others regard their opposition lightly.

There also is a spirited contest for the Democratic governorship nomination between William C. Salome, mayor of Wichita, and George Docking, a widely known Lawrence banker. Unless there is a strong division among Republicans, the Democrats in Kansas normally are not considered a potent factor.

In the GOP governorship contest, Hall has contended the state's government is dominated by Republican leaders interested only in power and indifferent to their responsibilities.

Templar has the backing of the administration forces of Gov. Edward F. Arn, although Arn himself has taken no public part in the contest.

Templar says he does not owe allegiance to any faction. Hall has called him "a hand-picked" candidate of the administration.

The tomb of the Unknown Soldier is in Arlington national cemetery.

Common Cold Research Work Sniffling Along

LONDON (AP)—In a stubornly fought campaign against an old enemy, the common cold, the British Medical Research Council has reported a little progress. As a result, the council said in a report submitted to Queen Elizabeth, there is a possibility the cold may someday be brought under control.

Researchers with the government-aided Common Cold Research Unit at Salisbury, which has been waging its scientific war for seven years, have discovered that the virus suspected of being responsible for the common cold can be propagated in tissue cultures of a human embryonic lung.

The common cold is the most familiar and yet one of the craftiest of diseases, the council observed. It is a difficult opponent to the scientist because its virus does not readily infect laboratory animals. Only chimpanzees and human beings get proper colds.

Chimpanzees and human volunteers are expensive to support at a laboratory. Moreover, they cannot be subjected to ruthless treatment, as a culture in a test tube may be.

It would appear also that there is no great supply of embryonic human lungs. But there are hopes that a process started in a lung may soon be continued in a laboratory, and that the research workers will have adequate supplies of the offending virus.

Munching Cow Hogtied

Philip A. Hart

Why HART Deserves YOUR Support:

- Phil Hart has distinguished himself in public service. After graduating from University of Michigan Law School, Hart practiced law in Detroit until he entered the Army in 1941. Wounded on D-Day at Normandy, Hart was decorated for bravery in action.
- In 1949, Hart became Michigan Corporation and Securities Commissioner, and in 1951 he was appointed Director of Michigan's OPS.
- As U. S. District Attorney in 1952, Hart was named "Outstanding Federal Administrator of the Year", and during his term Michigan's six Communist leaders were indicted.

Hart and your Governor have worked together as a team for many years. Now keep them together as a team—vote for BOTH!

Why HART Has GOVERNOR WILLIAMS Support:

Phil Hart has served the people of Michigan well. He has worked with Governor Williams ever since the Governor was elected in 1948.

Hart's opponent for Lt. Governor, George Fitzgerald, has consistently fought Governor Williams. In 1950, while holding a high party office, Hart's opponent walked out of the Democratic Party and publicly repudiated Governor Williams. By this action and public statements, he furnished the ammunition for the Republican attack on your Governor and was directly responsible for the recount. In 1952, Hart's opponent again deserted your Governor! To have a real Democratic team in Michigan's highest offices, nominate PHILIP A. HART for Lieutenant Governor!

Robin Renfrew Speaks Nuptial Vows

BIRMINGHAM — At a wedding Saturday at 3 o'clock in St. James Episcopal Church, Robin Renfrew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren Renfrew of Henley drive, was married to Frederick Griffith Bahr. He is the son of Mrs. Frederick C. Bahr of Gross Pointe and the late Mr. Bahr.

The bride wore a white organdy gown over taffeta with a very bouffant skirt, padded at the hipline. The bodice had a bateau neckline and short sleeves, and an organdy cap held her fingertip veil of illusion. Her bouquet was a cascade of thalaenopsis orchids with stephanotis and ivy.

Babies Appreciate Varieties of Food

Baby differs from adults not at all in that he doesn't eat as much on some days as on others. So don't make up your mind in advance how much food he should have and then try to force him to eat it.

He also may, from time to time, turn down food that he's previously liked. If he does this, don't offer this particular food to him for several days. Give him something different instead.

Generally, you'll find he tires most quickly of vegetables and cereals, but since there are many kinds of both, you can offer him a variety each week.

Don't Ignore Care of Feet

Pamper Your Chin, Throat While Pedicuring Toes

By ANITA COLBY

Foot-care day—you can learn to do a professional pedicure, too. It follows the same basic rules as a manicure, but somehow you don't seem to get to it as often, do you?

If you'll do what's good for you—that is, get about in bare feet a great deal more—sometimes on sandy beaches, and at home other times, exercising in bare feet—you'll be more conscious of them, care more how they look.

Then when you put on sheer-as-glass sandal nylons you'll be proud of a pretty set of toes.

Actually, your feet could stand fully as much pampering as hands. After all, they're carrying you around all day—they enjoy a massage, daily oiling, and regular changes of shoes.

Never go through a day and on into a night without changing your shoes and your stockings.

The closed quarters where your toes live are great areas for infection. Great care and super cleanliness are merely sensible precautions for a girl who wants to keep going places and doing things on her feet.

Your Pedicure

STEP 1. Soak feet in warm water and scrub with stiffest brush to stimulate circulation and remove dead calluses.

Use a pumice if calluses are pronounced. Dry briskly, going carefully between toes, and around nails.

STEP 2. Massage with cream. Thumb on instep, fingers on sole, draw firmly back along each tendon as if you were pulling on gloves.

Massage oil around nails, pushing back cuticle. Clip very little or no cuticle, if you can possibly manage it. Oil and shape with towel.

STEP 3. Cut nails — straight across. Don't curve down into corners — you're asking for ingrowing nails. Don't cut so short that you expose soft flesh at end of toe. Now wash away oil and file off snaggy edges with emery board.

STEP 4. Stuff cotton wads between toes to make painting easier and avoid smudging. Paint toenails all over. They're prettier, longer looking this way.

Bring polish right up over end of nail—this smoothness protects stockings.

When you bring home a pair of tired feet, do the kindest thing you can for them fastest. Get out of your shoes, then get off your feet, and get them up in the air—and into your Hollywood Slant position.

While we are on the subject of feet, here are some other ways to be nice to them:

Your Shoe Type

PITY THE POOR GIRL who hobbles from the dance with her shoes in her hand — no Cinderella, she.

Even if the shoe fits, don't put it on unless it's becoming. Shoes that flatter your feet improve your whole picture. Take thought, take pains when buying shoes.

TAKE THE HEAVY TYPE: She must emphasize length of line . . . wear a pump with V-throat or the D'Orsay type. Avoid stubby toes. Wear medium heels . . . simple styles.

Never wear shoes lighter-colored than dress . . . a single color carried down to grown lengthens the illusion.

Stick to the classics—keep away from fancy stuff. Too heavy, broguey types are unflattering, and so are too high heels.

There is flattery in the off-center pattern—the side cut (not too low), the medium-wide throat.

SHORT, SLENDER: She can wear high heels if she can maintain her good posture position in them. Medium platforms—never high ones. V-throat pumps, D'Orsays, small and simple trimmings—no wide straps.

TALL, SLENDER: This slender-ankled creature can wear anything — straps, multicolors, textured creations. If feet are pretty, they might as well say so.

THE WIDE FOOT: Keep away from bulky, broad styles, wide straps and square throats. Accentuate length of line with simplest of shoes—pumps again, but even in spectator types, ask for wing tips, not straight tips.

BOWLEGS—KNOCK KNEES: A long V-throat, a not too high heel (overtall could throw you off balance), a low platform, all help. Keep to the side cut or simple trimming device for ornament.

Chin Conditioners

SPEAKING OF THE LONG THROAT, how's your own? While you lie there with cotton between your toes, do some exercises to fight any ideas your chin might have about getting double or your throat about getting crepy.

First you give your neck a good oil-creaming. Now put a pillow under your shoulders . . .

Roll head as far back as you can. Jut out chin, with lower teeth pushed further frontward than uppers.

Open and close mouth 10 to 20 times, dropping lower jaw as far as you can, pushing it up to stretch right up from your chest.

Flapping the back of your hands from the wrists, slap up against chin with alternating movements. Do this 20 times.

After Treatment

DO THIS SERIES of chin conditioners while your feet are up in the air after each pedicure—especially if you're one of the people whose weight seems to go to the head.

If a heavy chin has become a real problem with you, give yourself a salon kind of treatment:

After your massage, you should work in a thick coat of stimulating oil, then bind chin with a commercial chin strap, or stockinette material, or an old cotton stocking.

Roll jowl muscle back up above jawbone if it is beginning to sag, and hold firmly in place by chin strap. Leave on for 20 minutes or more, keeping quiet and relaxed in your Hollywood Slant.

Your posture makes as many double chins as poundage, so . . . .

TO PASS MUSTER — run down this last-minute reminder list:

1. Use your head — to hang yourself by.
2. Sleep on a firm mattress—and throw out that pillow. (What's the good of holding your head straight all day if it's pushed forward all night? That's double-chin material.)
3. Keep your feet in condition, and fit shoes to them, not them to shoes.

4. Keep out of easy chairs. Sit on straight ones when there's a choice. Don't develop a bias posture. Watch you don't carry your groceries or packages always by the same arm—reverse or carry one in each.

Watch a horse run—and learn to walk with the same coordination of the extremities he uses: When one leg is forward, the opposite arm is back. It's efficient, and graceful.

Quaint Little Play House 'Fixed Up' by Children

Green Lawn, Vines, Mail Box Highlight Exterior of Tiny White Dream Dwelling in Corner of R. Y. Moore Back Yard

By MARILYN SHEARER

I was pleasantly surprised recently when I answered the phone and Mary Johnson, 10, enthusiastically told m ethat she and her sister, Janet, 8, and brother Jimmy, 11, had helped their neighbor, Susan Moore, 7, "fix up" her play house.

They are the children of the Willard V. Johnsons and the Robert Y. Moores of Shoreview drive.

After accepting their gracious invitation, I went out to see their little dream house which is located on a terraced corner of the lawn in the Moores' back yard.

As you approach the playhouse you can't help but notice the mail box and even an American Flag which is displayed above the entrance.

The quaint little white house is partially covered with grape vines which wind through open strips down each side of the house. These serve as windows. The vines most conveniently support large bunches of grapes, not quite ripe, near the cupboard which holds several cans of food. Part of a rose bush has also found its way into the charming house, eliminating the need for the planters grown-ups find so necessary in their decorating schemes.

Jimmy, as the man of the house, artistically arranged badminton equipment on the wall following an example he had seen in a magazine. Pictures which grace the walls were also taken care of by young Mr. Johnson.

When asked about the lawn in front of this little house he informed me that he does the job and it could use a trim at the present time, but it wouldn't take him long.

Using just a little imagination you could see the fluffy toy puppy just inside the door lapping up a bowl of water. (I was requested not to tell the dog catcher that their playhouse pet does not wear a collar and what's more important, a license.)

As I noticed the color scheme of pink, blue and white accented with orange and black, Janet said, "I think the orange could be removed." Mary hastily informed both Janet and myself that, "For a playhouse you want it decorated brightly." The house even has an attic which is used for storage purposes.

A fibre rug is laid wall to wall and books and magazines are available for guests who wish to read. It was easy to see that the dolls find their musical cradle quite comfortable.

As we concluded our talk there was no doubt in my mind that these ambitious children, who work their imaginations over time, will find no end to their pleasures.

Designer Is Quiet, Balding Man

Paris Applauding the Flat Form

By MARC PURDUE

PARIS (AP) — Christian Dior, with his conservative double-breasted suits, sober ties and impassive face, looks just like the man behind the mahogany desk in the loan department of a big bank.

Yet this quiet, balding, slightly paunchy onetime farmer is "fashion's creative genius," the man who's tossed another bomb into Paris fashions an H-line bomb.

It's called H-line because that's what the new form is supposed to resemble: narrow shoulders, flattened busts, waistlines at the hip. Skirts are full, pleated or tight.

There was no cheering for his idea in the United States, where women seven years earlier had enthusiastically adopted his "New Look." But curves are more important in America than in France, and there was loud applause at his showings here. If that's an indication, the ideas might win acceptance and start another fashion era.

It wouldn't be the first time for the 49-year-old Dior, the unchallenged leader of the French fashion world.

He burst into this bitterly competitive trade in 1947, immediately setting it on its ear with the revolutionary "New Look."

In one season he became dictator of high style and never since has anyone come near toppling him from that profitable pinnacle.

Dior denies any intention of making fashion sensations.

In a book he wrote about three years ago he said styles go in cycles with a complete revolution about every seven years.

The "New Look" now is seven years old. So we come to the current question: Is he trying to effect a change singlehandedly or just get out in front of an inevitability?

"Changes just come about and many things contribute when everybody is ready for them," he has said. "They are not forced by any one designer. They can't be."

He has little patience, however, with the people who keep measuring the distance between skirts and floor.

"Too many fashion writers seem to think there is a fixed standard for skirt lengths — so many inches this way or that. We designers are not scientists working with statistics. We work with the eye and by feeling."

Christian Dior's father, a wealthy chemicals manufacturer, planned a career in diplomacy for him, but the family fortune was wiped out in the depression and Christian had to leave the school of political science. He opened an art gallery in Paris, but a serious illness forced him to give it up and retire to the country.

At 30, he returned to Paris without work or money, but one of the paintings from the gallery saved him. He sold a picture by Raoul Dufy and lived on the proceeds.

He stayed with a friend who was sketching designs for hats and dresses. He persuaded Dior to do some. They sold, and "with the presumption of ignorance," Dior settled on designing as his livelihood.

He connected with a smart fashion magazine as an artist, then went to work for the House of Piguet as a "modelist." When the war came, he was mobilized as a private. After it ended he worked as a farmer until he could get back to Paris and a job with Lelong.

In 1947, Marcel Boussac, a plutocratic cotton manufacturer and racehorse owner, put up the money for Dior to open his own establishment. Success came overnight.

Extension Group Meets in Clarkston

Mrs. Charles O. Lanning of Clarkston entertained members of the West Side Extension Group in her home Thursday for an all day meeting.

The lesson of the day was on decorating wooden trays. In charge were Mrs. Warren Fitzgerald and Mrs. Don C. Milbourn who attended the camp craft session at Waldenwoods in June.

Future craft projects discussed included etching metal trays and weaving chair seats.

A cooperative picnic will be held by the group on Aug. 25 in the home of Mrs. Glen H. Arthur.

Plisse or Cotton

Napkins Need No Ironing

Napkins that you do not have to iron are here. You can make them yourself out of cool plisses, or delicately colored "Dip 'n' Dry" that the top fashion designers are using so stylishly.

In fact yard goods counters are heaped with many fabrics you can use. There are also hundreds of washable braids, fringes and rickracks that trim while they give weight to hems.

You can try some seersuckers or novelty piques shot with glittering Lurex. Or use fast-drying spun nylon, fringed and embroidered. And don't forget our grandmother's standbys—handwoven silk tweeds, Chinese raw silk, and all thee rushy, heavy ratines. They all come in heavenly colors, and mate well with today's fine plastic and straw mats.

Don't waste an enormous amount of handwork on making them either. Your main purpose is to save man hours. Fine napkins can be whipped together fast and pleasurably without any of the tedious, fine stitchery we used to associate with napkin making.

The more relaxed your attitude and your hand, the more successfully you will achieve a hem that doesn't pucker and draw after washing. Try to avoid the tightly drawn thread and the tiny close stitches. Hem by hand with big, loose embroidery stitches which trim as they sew.

Young Mother Learns at First Hand the Pitfalls of Home Typing Jobs

Too Many Interruptions

Work Proved Exhausting and Yielded Little Profit

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Judging by my mail, it doesn't matter how many times I explain that typing and stuffing envelopes at home is a losing proposition. A great many women still write in, asking how to get such work.

Yet, invariably, they will make just pennies from it—and not even that unless they are really terrifically fast typists.

Now, at last I have received a letter from a reader who found out for herself what a snare this kind of work can be, and who has given me permission to print her letter so other women can get the information at first hand.

"I am at home with a 14-month-old baby," this young woman wrote, "and the budget is awfully tight.

"Before marriage, I was a typist in a large firm. Feeling that it would be impossible to go out to work, I decided to type envelopes at home. After searching a lot, I found an organization which gave out such work.

"Well, it was bedlam. I set up the typewriter on a card table and spent every afternoon for a week typing envelopes.

"I worked from noon until 6:30 p. m., keeping one eye on the baby in his playpen, and of course taking a little time out to put on his supper and to answer the telephone.

"It was up and down all afternoon, and my back ached and my fingers were stiff, and I was irritable with the baby because he kept interrupting me, and every evening I almost took my husband's head off.

"At the end of this five-day period, when I had worked almost 30 hours, not counting interruptions, of which there were many, I had exactly $11. That comes to about 35 cents an hour—and I am a fast typist.

"The trouble is, I couldn't work without interruption, because the baby did need attention. But what a loss, personally and financially!

"Still, we did have to have extra income, so finally I talked it over with my husband. He had hated me during that week, I had been so exhausted and irritable.

"We decided it would be better for me to take a part-time typing job and pay a neighbor to take care of the baby. And it certainly was!

"I get $30 for typing at a local company afternoons, and only have to pay the neighbor $10.

"The baby is in good hands, I make $20 profit, and I will never type at home again!"

Melon Ball Appetizer Suggested

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

A recent visitor from Newton, Iowa, Rosslyn Hough, gave us this recipe for Melon Ball Appetizer. We've eaten it and it's delicious, also easy to fix. Use cantaloupe, watermelon or honeydew, or a combination of them.

Miss Hough is a music teacher at home. She plays the organ and directs her church choir, also accompanies a men's choral group. Club affiliations include a sorority, the DAR and PEO Sisterhood.

MELON BALL APPETIZER
By Rosslyn Hough

Cut cantaloupe, watermelon or honeydew into balls or cubes. A combination of the different melons is most colorful.

Place in a bowl and pour gingerale over them. Let stand overnight in the refrigerator. Serve in glass sherbets with a little fresh gingerale poured over them. Decorate with a sprig of mint.

These may be made just before serving, omitting the overnight chilling. Be sure all ingredients are cold.

Manners MAKE FRIENDS

We call it "gushing" when a woman hands out compliments she couldn't possibly mean. But that is no reason why a woman shouldn't be generous with compliments. She will never be accused of gushing if she looks for pualities she can honestly praise.

It's not the number of compliments, but the insincerity behind many of them, that we label "gushing."

In order to have a long run, a musical comedy must have a lot of good legs.

Immature Attitude Shown by Submission to Bullying

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

The other day psychoanalyst Donald Slesinger said to me:

"Yes, we all suffer from the effects of others' sins against us. But there's a platinum lining. We can begin to struggle against those effects on us.

"Indeed, we do not grow up until we can deliberately take the responsibility to immobilize evils done us by refusing to react to them."

Do these words mean something to a certain Mrs. K.?

Eleven years ago a sin was committed against her. Mr. K., overseas fighting Nazis, left her pregnant and in his parents' care. Her dependent state was exploited by Mr. K.'s mother.

When Mrs. K.'s baby was born, this woman took it over. She commanded all that was done for Carol eni nghe timifromnthui s from timing her sunnings in the yard to answering her cries. Today, Carol's relationship to her mother is a tense and unhappy one.

Mr. K. writes: "My wife frankly admits her preference for our younger child. She says that if I want to blame someone for her dislike of Carol, I can blame my mother. You sometimes write about forgiveness . . ."

This is not yet a problem for forgiveness. It's a problem of submission—of continuing obedience to the will of the woman who wished to dispossess Mrs. K. of her child. It is the refusal to begin the struggle against the effects of another's sin against her.

If, in our childhood, we learned to get approving pats on the head for submitting for rights to others' judgment, we continue to expect the approving pats for submission.

If one day it does not produce the pats, we are shocked and bewildered. If, instead of goodwill, our submission produces contempt, we can't believe what's happened. We become very, very angry.

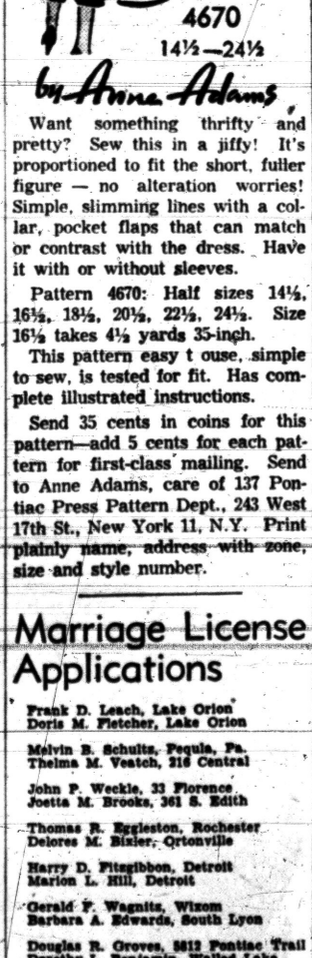

Well, some bullies pat us for submission; most don't. They just give us more contempt.

Once we discover this, they stop shocking us. They begin to bore us instead of making us angry. We say in effect, "Scat!" to them, having learned that they will run like rabbits.

But if we do not discover this, we continue to let them direct our lives. Like Mrs. K., instead of saying, "No madam, I will no longer obey your wish to divide me from my child," we let the bully direct our feelings for Carol.

That's submission if ever I met it. And all Mrs. K.'s self-justifying cries against the evil dope her are just a little girl's pleas to be excused from grownup responsibility.

Could Check Substitute for Flowers?

Neighbor Wants to Give Financial Aid to Widow

By EMILY POST

A woman writes: "The husband of a neighbor of mine has just died, leaving a family of three young children. He had been in and out of hospitals for some time and I know his illness has practically drained his wife of their life's savings.

"Instead of sending flowers, which are quite expensive, could I send a check, or might this be considered an insult?"

Answer: If you know her really well, you could write a note saying, "I feel sure that John would like help given to you and the children rather than flowers bought for him."

Dear Mrs. Post: A friend of mine has just adopted a baby. Would it be proper to send her a printed card of congratulation such as the ones sent to new parents of the birth of a baby?

Answer: If you can find one with suitable wording, such as "the arrival of the baby" instead of "The birth of the baby," it would be both proper and pleasing to receive.

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it proper to serve vegetables such as peas, corn and particularly stewed tomatoes, in individual vegetable dishes in a private house? Also is it ever proper to eat these vegetables with a spoon instead of a fork?

Answer: It is permissible to serve vegetables in individual dishes at a family meal. Corn or peas never are eaten with a spoon. If the tomatoes are so liquid that they run through the tines of a fork, it would be considered sensible to use a spoon, but avoid serving these when you are having people in for dinner.

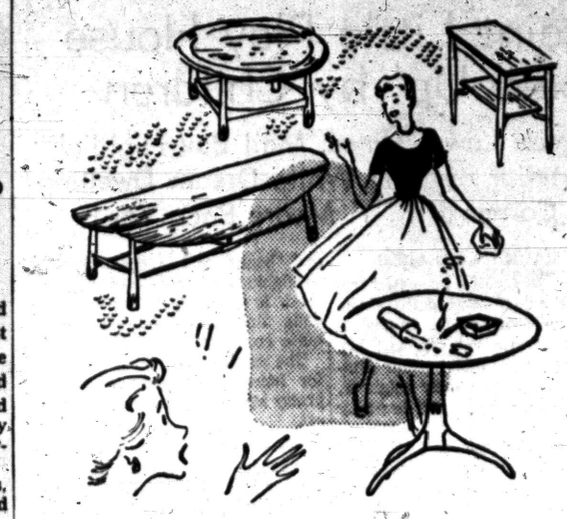

Dear Mrs. Post: The store from which I bought my wedding dress furnishes the services of a bridal consultant.

She not only helps to plan the wedding, but is there at the rehearsal and also on the day of the wedding to assist the bride. I would like to know if a small present, or a tip, is in order?

Answer: If it is an added service for which you receive no bill, then you would give her a tip.

New Tables Face Facts

Beauty and Duty Combine

By ELIZABETH HILLYER

Which comes first in a table, beauty or duty? It's only natural to want what appeals most to the eye. But a table shouldn't be a touch-me-not—too haughty for constant use.

The designs for coffee and occasional tables sketched here and others soon to be seen in the stores smartly contrast dark and light shades of walnut and cherry and are handsomely proportioned.

The tables are as special in practicality as they are in style. They face the facts that a well-used table risks scratching, burns and spills, and are laminated with plastic that does not change the beautiful graining.

Underneath is aluminum foil. Remember those kitchen table demonstrations? A fire can be lit on these table tops also, without leaving a burn mark.

Mrs. V. C. "I know our gray and green living room needs more color, and I hope I can add the brightness that would help so much in pillows and lamps.

"What color should pillows be bore the gray sofa? How shall I change brass lamps with white shades, or should I find new ones.

Pillows in three colors, perhaps bright yellow, medium bright orange or coral, and deep green would be color spark for both the sofa and the whole room. You might also add a matching pillow here and there on a chair.

The brass lamp bases are bright and should be good as they are, although deep green shades might improve them—you may need good repeats of colors you have, as well as new bright shades.

Add more of the yellow and orange in accessories, a few that are big enough to count rather than many, and the brass also might be repeated.

Mrs. W. B. "What is the most appropriate bedroom furniture for a small boy? He is outgrowing his crib, and we will buy a set of furniture when it is replaced by a bed. I like light oak but am told maple would be better."

Simple design in light oak is quite appropriate for a boy's room, and there are ranch-type designs in oak which especially appeal to boys.

Is It Wise for Girl to Date Him?

Lad's Footloose Only for the Summer

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I went steady with him for a while but we broke up two years ago. Since then we've gone out together off and on, and now he's going steady with another girl. But she's away for the summer and they have an agreement to date others.

"I still like him and I see him almost every night at the ice cream parlor. He doesn't think we could make a go of it again, but I disagree.

"Would it be wise for me to date him under these circumstances, knowing how I feel about him?"

You like him, so if he asks you why not go out with him?

He is free for the summer. If he takes any girl out it would be only for a social evening. He's not likely to want to get serious with anybody.

He said as much when he told you he didn't think you two could make a go of it again. He was giving you fair warning that he already had a girl, and he didn't want you to take to heart any attention he gave you.

The way you feel about him shouldn't keep you from going out with him for an amusing evening. But you must make up your mind to keep things casual and carefree. You mustn't go gooey or put out any hooks. Your act is to be the gay companion, with no strings attached.

If being with him, knowing that you must keep your heart out of it, is too tough for you, don't bother with him. He's only temporarily free, and the summer's half gone. His girl will be back and up will go that "no trespassing" sign.

So, if you can control your emotions, your hopes and your imagination and make a date with him just for fun and that's all, go out with him. But if it would be torture, skip it.

"Dear Miss Woodward: What is a nearsighted girl who wears glasses all the time expected to do on a date when she sits close to a boy—without jabbing him with the frames?"

It's conceivable that a nearsighted girl's glasses might get very much in the way at certain romantic moments. But, if he's that close, would she really need her glasses?

She won't be reading a book or dodging traffic. If she takes off her glasses, she won't have to see him to know he's close to her.

U. S. Said Ready to Up Indo Aid

Success of Economic Help Lies in Viet Nam Spirit, Counsel Claims

SAIGON, Indochina (AP) — Morris Wolf, general counsel of the American Foreign Operations Administration, said today the United States stands ready to increase its economic assistance to war-torn Indochina. But he warned the success of such aid in combatting communism "will depend on the spirit of the Vietnamese."

Wolf arrived from Washington yesterday as the second phase of the Geneva cease-fire went into effect, silencing the guns in central Viet Nam. The truce took effect in North Viet Nam last Tuesday.

Stop-shooting orders went out to the rival troops Sunday morning.

Four hours later the French said they had received no word indicating any hitch.

Under the Geneva agreement splitting Viet Nam at the 17th Parallel, about half central Viet Nam's 6,200,000 inhabitants will come under control of the Communist-led Vietminh.

Commenting on the problem of evacuating the stream of refugees from the north, Wolf warned "nothing can be accomplished with satisfaction" unless the United States, France and Viet Nam coordinate their efforts.

His words were pointed up by the firing of Hanoi's mayor in the dispute among Vietnamese officials over accepting French aid in evacuating civilians from the north. The mayor, Do Quang Giai, had been actively cooperating with the French.

He was replaced by anti-French Nguyen Van Mui, a backer of Dr. Hoang Co Binh, leader of those Vietnamese officials who insist that any French hand in the evacuation would hamper the cause of Vietnamese nationalism.

Wolf told newsmen he had come at the invitation of U.S. Ambassador Donald Heath and acting Economic Aid Director Paul Everett "to show the interest the government of the United States has in the present situation of the countries of Southeast Asia and the Western Pacific and to affirm its willingness to give full support to the nations of this region which have the firm desire to resist the Communists."

It will be up to the Vietnamese government, he aded, to decide how much economic aid equipment it will leave in the area to be taken over by the Vietminh.

Aho-Dori Bird Disappears but Returns to Isle

TOKYO (AP)—The Aho-Dori has come back from extinction! Maybe that doesn't mean anything to you. But it does to naturalists—and all the Aho-Doris.

Aho-Dori is a rare breed of albatross. He is so rare that he was found before the war only on Tori Shima, a small island 370 miles south of Tokyo.

Japanese naturalists took good care of Aho-Dori for years. But then came World War II.

After the war, the naturalists went back to Tori. Alas, no Aho-Doris. At least they could find none.

The Japanese weather station on Tori never gave up hope. Recently it found the body of a dead albatross and sent it to a science laboratory in Tokyo. Sure enough, it was an Aho-Dori!

That spurred the hunt of Japan's bird society. Now Yoshiteru Ono, a member of the society, is happy to report there are at least 20 Aho-Doris albatrossing around on Tori.

Williams Promoting U. S. Aid for State

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams has asked his Emergency Industrial Production Commission to take advantage of what he said was a federal government decision to speed up government spending.

He quoted Secretary of Commerce Weeks as saying the administration hopes to "nudge" the national economy into high gear.

Williams asked W. D. McIntyre, Monroe industrialist and acting head of the commission, to consider sending a represeintative to Washington to consult with Weeks. He urged Michigan be given first consideration in any federal measures to "bolster the economy."

The governor accused the national administration of a "form of discrimination" against Michigan in letting the economic situation adjust itself.

ROKs Bomb Truce Camp

Armistice Supervisors Escape Injury From Homemade Missiles

SEOUL (INS)—The U. S. Army reported today three homemade bombs were hurled into the neutral nations compound at Munsan as South Korean ultra-nationalists stepped up a campaign to drive Communist truce inspectors from the nation.

Only one of the make-shift bombs exploded and no one was injured in the latest of a series of incidents stemming from a warning to Czech and Polish members of the neutral nations supervisory commission to leave South Korea or risk being kicked out.

But the campaign to break up the year-old Korean armistice apparently was having no effect on the Red members of the NNSC. A Swiss member of the commission said the Czechs and Poles showed "no sign" of pulling out of ROK territory.

The bombs, hurled into the compound last night, were made of old beer cans packed with explosives. The assailant escaped unseen.

U. S. military police protection for NNSC members was increased following the assassination attempt against four Czechs at Pusan. An unidentified Korean fired two shots at the Reds from a .45 caliber automatic. The bullets struck the wall of a mess hall and the would-be assassin escaped MP's who gave chase.

Capture of Formosa Urged by Red Chief

Chu spent most of his aggressive speech building up Red China's claims on the island now held by the Chinese Nationalists under Chiang Kai-shek.

The speech, made on the 27th anniversary of the founding of the Chinese Communist army, was the strongest statement the Reds have made on Formosa in recent months. It bristled with attacks on Chiang and the United States.

"Comrades," Chu said, "Taiwan (Formosa) has been our territory from ancient times. As long as the Chiang brigands are not thoroughly wiped out, so long as Taiwan is not liberated, our task of liberating the whole of China cannot be considered completed.

"We absolutely will not allow other countries to interfere."

Peiping Reports Million Peasants Fighting Flood

TOKYO (AP) — Peiping radio said today "a fierce struggle" is going on between one million peasants and soldiers against raging waters of the flooded Yangtze and Huai rivers in Communist China.

The Reds said the heaviest rainfall in a century fell in the Yangtze Basin recently and that the great central China river, one of the world's largest, has been rising since June.

Robbers Retain Cash

TRENTON, N. J. (AP) — The robbers who held up a woman in front of a bank here took $39,000 in non-negotiable checks they snatched from her and dumped them into a police station garage. They kept $2,200 in cash.

Aluminum Co. Strike Begins

Debates Collapse Over Uniform Pay, Vacations at 8 Plants

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Workers at two widely separated plants of the far-flung Reynolds Metals Co., one of the nation's largest manufacturers of aluminum, were out on strike today. Employes at six other plants were expected to follow suit within the next few days.

Already idle, as the result of the breakdown of contract negotiations between Reynolds and the CIO United Steelworkers were approximately 2,500 USW members at Phoenix, Ariz., and Troutdale, Ore.

Union officials here said they expected between 5,500 and 7,500 more to walk out as the result of the strike call late Saturday.

The strike call came immediately after the company and the union failed to reach agreement on a new contract here shortly before midnight Saturday. Charles M. Smith, chief USW negotiator, said the talks collapsed when Reynolds refused to accept a union demand that vacations and weekend premium pay be made uniform at all eight plants.

Smith said the negotiators didn't even get around to the subject of pay raises. Earlier it had been indicated by both the company and the union that a wage agreement might be reached patterned after the 5-cent hourly boost granted USW workers Saturday by the country's biggest aluminum manufacturer, Aluminum Corp. of America (Alcoa).

In the Alcoa settlement, the union's general counsel, Arthur J. Goldberg, figured the new terms mean a "package increase of at least 12 cents an hour." Pay scales ranged from $1.54 to 2.24½ for the 15,000 to 20,000 Alcoa employes represented by the USW. Besides the 5-cent hourly increase, the contract also provides, Goldberg said: 3 cents an hour on the average to straighten out inequities in the present wage scale, plus pension and insurance program improvements.

Detroit Cabbie Laughs First, Bandit Last

DETROIT (INS)—John Coy, 23-year-old Detroit cab driver who knows a toy pistol when he sees one, laughed yesterday when a passenger produced such a gun and demanded his money.

"You'll have to get something better than that to take my money," said Coy.

The bandit then angrily whipped out a butcher knife with a long blade. Coy surrendered $7.

Demand Is Made to Draw Red Line

WASHINGTON (INS)—Undersecretary of State Waler Bedell Smith called upon the free world today to "draw the line somehwere" against Communist aggression.

"Otherwise," he warned on a Sunday night TV program, "we will be eroded, bit by bit."

Smith served a thinly-veiled warning to the Reds that further aggression in Southeast Asia may lead to an open conflict with the western powers.

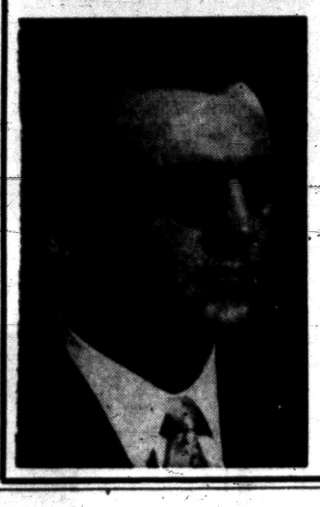

He said the Indochina truce has created a group of small, almost defenseless states—Viet Nam, Laos and Camobida — whose continued existence "must in some way be guaranteed."

He added: "That does not essentially mean that their borders are lines which would be defended, but it might well be said that if, by aggression, either overt or covert, those frontiers are crossed, that is evidence of ill faith on the part of the Comunimsts, and ay be a threat to our collective security."

Value Your Vote Don't Waste It

Crosses Must Appear Within Squares Near Candidates' Names

Directions on the ballots telling voters to put a cross (X) in the squares opposite the names of candidates mean just that.

A "yes" inside the square is invalid. A checkmark also means a lost vote.

The well-intentioned voter, who hurriedly marks his ballot and fails to complete the crossmark inside the square, also is disenfranchised.

So, on election day, make that cross inside the square. Then your vote will count.

Chance Phone Call Ends 34-Year Search for Sister

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—A search by an Illinois blacksmith for a sister he had not seen for 48 years since the two were children in a Chicago orphanage ended in Grand Rapids Sunday with a joyous reunion.

The meeting was a happy climax to 34 years of hope and heartbreaking disappointment. Samuel A. Nelson, 55, of Decatur, Ill., embraced his sister, now Mrs. Lillian Rauwerda, 51, of Grand Rapids, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Marvin Terbeck.

Nelson knew only that a family by Mr. and Mrs. John Proctor, of Mowequa, Ill.

His search for his sister began with fruitless probing into records of the Illinois home and aid society, and Cook County adoption records. Police departments and newspapers joined in the search but to no avail.

Nelson knew only that family named Rosendal had adopted Lillian. And it was not until 1952, after a constant search for even a small clue in official records, that Nelson learned the first name of Lilliam's adopted family was Richard.

The search picked up when he found out the Rosendals had moved to Manhattan, Mont. But the trail faded again when it was learned the family had moved out of the state.

Nelson went back to checking Chicago records. He said, "When officials told me of the huge costs that would be involved in trying to trace the family, I was about to give up."

Last week, Nelson, at a Dearborn Railroad Depot, idly thumbed through a telephone directory, looking for the name Rosendal, as he had done many times before.

The first call he made was a blank. But on the second call, he talked to a Peter Rosendal who listened to Nelson's story, then said, "Yes, I know her. She is my sister by adoption."

Mrs. Lilliam Rauwerda, the mother of three children and grandmother of 12, said, "I was stunned when I heard the news. I have many times dreamed that I would see him again. But I never really believed it would come true."

Nelson, his wife, four children, and two grandchildren, came to Grand Rapids for the reunion. He said he would stay a couple of days then return to his job as a blacksmith for the Wabash Railroad.

But the happy brother and sister said, "from now on we are going to visit often."

Teen Hoodlums in More Attacks

Despite Detroit Police Work, Young Toughs Busy Over Weekend

DETROIT (INS) — Despite the Detroit police crackdown, youthful hoodlums over the weekend were involved in a pitched battle with police, an attempted kidnaping, an attempted assault on a young woman and a savage attack on an elderly man.

As a result, nearly a score of young toughs face court appearances today.

The battle with police occurred in Harper Woods when officers halted a car traveling 60 miles an hour on Harper.

The occupants, 19-year-old Donald Adams and 19-year-old Lawrence Cleary, refused to show credentials and then attacked detective Albert Markesino and patrolman Joseph Laya.

Meanwhile, two young thugs followed a girl walking down a Detroit street and attempted to pull her into their car. Neighbors were aroused by the screams of the girl and the bullies fled.

In the other attempted attack a 26-year-old married woman, home alone at midnight, discovered a youthful intruder in her bedroom. She implored him not to molest her, and offered him $10 if he would go away.

The young man took the money, then ordered her into the bathroom. As he was about to attack her, the young woman let herself fall backward out of the open bathroom window and was unharmed. The intruder fled.

Pole Rescued From Ship Taking Him to Red Poland

LONDON (AP) — Britain granted temporary asylum today to a young Polish stowaway who sought freedom in the West aboard the same ship an American scientist chose to flee behind the Iron Curtain.

The dramatic switch of allegiance by the half-starved 24-year-old Pole, Antoni Klimowicz, and the 26-year-old American physiologist, Dr. Joseph Cort, stirred emotions in Britain.

Klimowicz wept as he thanked police who snatched him from Communist hands aboard the 3,219-ton steamer Jaroslaw Dabrowski in the Thames Saturday night after he had been caught as a stowaway.

Dr. Cort, a self-styled former Communist, sailed with the ship early Sunday on his way to Czechoslovakia—leaving behind a charge that he faced "political persecution and victimization" if he returned to the United States.

Britain refused to grant Cort political asylum after Washington called him home to explain why he failed to report for military service under the draft.

Sir Hugh Lucas-Tooth, Home Office undersecretary, told the House of Commons last week he felt there was "really no foundation whatever" for Cort's contention he would be imprisoned in America because of his Communist activities as a college student.

Klimowicz went into hiding in Britain over the weekend. He is due to appear in the court tomorrow on the write of habeas corpus which secured his release from the ship.

A Home Office statement said he was "not in detention of any kind; so far as we are concerned he is a free man."

The Polish ambassador has already protested to the Foreign Office over the forcible removal of Klimowicz just as the Jaroslaw Dabrowski was sailing back to Poland.

Leaders of the 144,000 free Poles in Britain marshaled support to allow Klimowicz to stay.

Prime Minister Churchill was kept informed of the rescue of the stowaway by Scotland Yard police who broke their way with fire axes into a cabin where he was kept locked.

The captain and crew of the Polish steamer refused to give up Klimowicz voluntarily. They stood by sullenly but offered no resistance when police smashed in the cabin door and took the young man off.

British dockers had discovered Klimowicz hiding aboard the ship Friday and tried to sneak him off after he pleaded for help in escaping. The Polish crew detected the escape attempt.

Congress Mulls A-Compromise

Solons Hope to Settle 3 Major Differences in Closed Sessions

WASHINGTON (UP)—Senate and House members start hammering out a compromise version of President Eisenhower's new atomic energy program today, and their efforts may have much to do with how soon Congress adjourns.

The conferees arranged to meet behind closed doors to tackle the task of resolving three major differences, and many more minor ones, in the Senate and House versions of a bill designed to open the atomic power field to private industry and to authorize a limited exchange of nuclear information with this nation's allies.

The product of their deliberations then will go back to the two houses for final passage, and Democratic supporters of some features the administration has opposed have promised a new round of lengthy Senate debate if their amendments are jettisoned.

The House is virtually finished with the work leaders have laid out for it, except to act on such things as conference reports on the atomic and other bills.

But the Senate, currently debating a move by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) aimed at the censure of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis), still has ahead of it bills on at least four major issues.

Temporarily sidetracked by the Flanders move was a bill to authorize the foreign aid program for the current year. The Senate also must act on a separate foreign aid appropriations measure.

After the first of these has been disposed of, Senate GOP Leader Knowland of California says he will call up the controversial farm bill, expected to touch off days of debate between supporters of rigid price supports and backers of the administration plan for flexible props.

Knowland says he will then calendar three bills recommended by Atty. Gen. Brownell as part of his antisubversive program.

Another major part of Eisenhower's program on which the Senate has not acted would broaden the social security program and raise benefits. The Senate may also be asked to pass on a proposal to hike the national debt ceiling.

Inquisitive Ant Throws Switch, Stops Railroad

The train braked to a halt near here when it hit a red semaphore signal. Fifteen minutes later it moved on after getting clearance, and curious railroaders checked the signal.

The ant was dead.

Convict Praises Woman Lawyer for Death Stay

SALT LAKE CITY (UP)—Speaking through a Utah State Prison guard, Don Jesse Neal praised his petite woman attorney as "the best lawyer in the world" yesterday after learning that U.S. Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark had canceled his scheduled date with a Utah firing squad at dawn tomorrow.

Clark's stay was issued over the weekend to allow Neal's attorneys to file a habeas corpus petition before the court. The action gives the Utah convict — sentenced to die for the 1951 shooting of a Salt Lake policeman

Although attorneys for the American Civil Liberties Union handled Neal's plea for a stay before the U.S. high court, his praise was directed at Miss Billy Hulsey, the Salt Lake City attorney who took over leadership of his fight for life last June.

"I am very thankful that the Lord's will has been done," Neal said. "I'm very grateful to Miss Hulsey, and to all the others who have helped me."

Herbert Monte Levy, staff counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union, said the new appeal will be based on contentions Neal did not have a fair trial because of the use of testimony "known to be perjured."

PGA's Prexy Finally Bags Michigan Open Title

DETROIT (AP) — PGA president Horton Smith, who has captured two Masters titles and a host of honors in over 25 years of campaigning, has added to his list one of the few titles to elude him — the Michigan Open championship. Smith, 46-year-old former Michigan PGA king, had never been able to win the Michigan open until yesterday.

And when he walked off the course after finishing a mediocre 71 round—his poorest showing of the tournament — Smith could well have thought he had missed again.

But 20 minutes later, the Detroiter learned that his 276 total, four under par for the Lakepointe Country Club's par 70, 6,515-yard layout, was good enough to beat defending champion Chick Harbert, Northville's PGA champ, by a single stroke.

Smith had been four strokes behind Harbert going into yesterday's 36 holes. But long-hitting Harbert slipped to a 74 on the final round after matching par in the morning.

That single stroke cost Harbert his 5th Michigan Open crown.

Harbert whipped Burkemo in the finals of the recent PGA championship. And in the open Burkemo still trailed the Northville slammer in 4th place with a one under par effort. He turned in rounds of 68-69-73-69—279.

Burkemo was a single stroke behind amateur Chuck Kocsis who carded a record-matching 65 on the final round. Kocsis wound up with 71-73-69-65—278.

Gene Woodward, Lakepointe amateur who staged a par-busting show in the early going, skidded badly on the closing rounds, firing a 73 and a 79 to end up in 8th place—2nd among amateurs—with a 287 total.

On his 2nd time around yesterday, Harbert fired a two over par on the 10th. That left him needing a birdie and a par on the last two holes to clinch the title.

He got the par on the 17th after dubbing a wood shot. But a 20-foot putt on the final hole failed to fall for a birdie and Harbert walked off the final green in the runnerup spot.

Last three holes were the most important of the tourney for both Smith and Harbert.

Smith was leading Harbert and was looking forward to a sub-par round when he stepped up to the 16th tee. From there on out Smith wasted shots by the bunch.

He bogied the 16th and 17th on identical miscues, landing in traps both times while trying to steer his irons.

And then on the final hole, Smith pulled one of his rare errors on the green. Acknowledged as one of the greatest putters in the game, He blew a four-footer that almost cost him that one, elusive title.

Adcock Not Mad at Anyone After Being Beaned Sunday

By ED CORRIGAN

BROOKLYN (AP)—"It's all part of the game, I guess," Joe Adcock sighed today before heading for Ebbets Field and another joust with the Brooklyn Dodgers. "I'm not mad at anybody."

Adcock was talking about his narrow escape yesterday when he was beaned by Clem Labine. The slugging Milwaukee Braves' first-baseman who broke a hatfull of records Friday when he hit four home runs and a double, was carried from the field practically unconscious after being hit

"When a fellow throws me high and tight, I don't mind," Adcock continued. "I can duck that kind of pitch. But when he throws behind your head, I think he means business. But what's there to be mad about? I'm just out there to make a living."

The beaning almost precipitated a full-scale riot when charges and counter-charges were hurled between the two teams.

Jackie Robinson and Lew Burdette of the Braves came closest to getting into a fight and had to be separated by players and umpires. While Adcock was on the ground, the Braves began accusing Labine of throwing the bean-ball on purpose.

Addressing a remark to Burdette, Robinson said:

"That was only an accident and you know it. You're a fine one to complain about bean-balls. You throw at practically everyone."

Then they went at it.

"Can you imagine that Burdette?" Robinson said indignantly later. "I was watching Ed Mathews out of one eye, though. I thought he'd try to sneak one in."

Labine, for his part, denied trying to hit Adcock.

"I wasn't trying to hit him in the head," Labine snapped. "That goes without saying, doesn't it? I was only trying to brush him back. Instead of twisting back, he actually ducked into the pitch."

Only the fact that he was wearing a protective plastic helmet, the type pioneered by Branch Rickey, kept Adcock from being injured seriously, according to Dr. Eugene Zorn, the Brooks' team doctor who examined the player. No X-rays were taken and Adcock had nothing more than a slight headache.

The Braves, incidentally, won the gam, 14-6, for their 10th-straight victory.

Top-Seeded Star Missing as Orange Test Starts

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (AP)—The Eastern grass courts tennis championships start at the Orange Lawn Tennis Club here today without top-seeded Tony Trabert of Cincinnati.

Trabert took off yesterday for Salt Lake City and a two-week vacation from big-time tennis after his upset by Eddie Moylan of Trenton, 3-6, 7-5, 8-6, in Saturday's semifinals of the Meadow Club tournament at Southampton, N.Y. The national champion is suffering from a blistered racquet hand.

Moylan, who beat Billy Talbert to win the Southampton finals, 6-0, 6-2, 6-4, faces William Quillian of Seattle today. Quillian also is fresh from the Southampton matches.

Unpredictable Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., is the No. 2 seeded player among the 63 American entries.

Gardnar Mulloy of Miami, Fla., who at 41 is the oldest active player making the major tournament circuit, is ranked behind Larsen. Mulloy faces Herb Brown of Columbia, S.C., in his opener.

The leading contenders in the women's division are Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Helen Fletcher of England. Australians dominate in the foreign men's division with Davis Cupper Lewis Hoad seeded first.

All-Stars Beat Loop Leaders

An estimated 1,000 fans—the biggest crowd of the city baseball season—turned out yesterday at Wisner Field to watch the Pontiac Baseball Federation's "Amateur Day" doubleheader.

General Motors' 1947 American Baseball Congress champs beat the Pontiac Oldtimers, 11-2, in the 5-inning opener. City Class A League All-Stars edged the league-leading Jets, 3-2, in the feature contest.

Charles Irish, president of the federation, threw the 1st pitch to Pontiac Mayor William W. Donaldson.

GMC's ex-national titlists scored five runs in the opening inning to coast to their victory. John Abel, who managed the team as well as catching and playing 1st, and Dick Hoover paced the victory with two hits apiece.

Roy Bone started on the mound and received credit for the victory before being relieved by Dick Baker in the 3rd.

All-Stars pushed across their winning run in the last of the 9th, when Lee Swindell doubled, moved to 3rd on a balk and scored on an outfield error. All-Stars had scored single runs in the 3rd and 4th frames. Jets scored once in the 4th and once in the 9th.

Zeke Morris, the last of four All-Star pitchers, took over in the 9th to receive credit for the victory.

Hasselle Wins First Feature

Troy Driver Succeeds While Troubles Hit Other Top Drivers

Bill Hasselle of Troy Township raced to his 1st feature event victory of the season Sunday at the Pontiac M-59 Speedway as trouble beset most of the Land O'Lakes Racing Association point leaders.

Joy Fair and Mickey Katlin came together in the 2nd lap and were forced from competition, while Rusty Kelly went out later with a flat tire. Hasselle wasn't seriously threatened for the lead.

Rocky Berkimer of Hazel Park was 2nd and Dorris Sanders of Troy, 3rd. Hasselle also won a heat race, while Glen Woodall also was a double winner in a heat race and the semi-final.

Katlin claimed the pursuit race and Johnny Wallace took the trophy dash, while other heat winners were John Scott, Bob Hewer and George Moore. Saturday's midget show was rained out and is rescheduled, Aug. 14.

Thus ends a career during which Caldwell won 391 games, several times going over the 20-game mark in a season.

Laurene First With 4 Titles

Pontiac Girl Judged U. S. Champion Fourth Time, at Denver

Laurene Anselmy of Pontiac was the senior ladies singles American amateur roller skating champion for the 4th straight time today after a delayed decision Sunday at Denver, Colo.

Miss Anselmy won the title Friday night but the decision was held up following a technical protest. She became the 1st person ever to win four American titles in a row when the judges finally declared her the winner.

Jeanette Fincher of Seattle, Wash., was 2nd and Marilee Olson of Middletown, O., was 3rd.

Moylan Wins First Major Tennis Title

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y. (AP)—Ed Moylan of Trenton, N. J., who was barred from amateur tennis for two years because he was working for a sporting goods firm, held his first major title today.

Moylan was returned to the good graces of the United States Lawn Tennis Assn. when he went into banking, but until he whipped U. S. Davis Cup Captain Billy Talbert, 6-0, 6-2, 6-4, yesterday in the final of the Meadow Club tournament, he never had won a real big one.

The victory established him as a player to watch on the grass court circuit.

Pirates Finally Blank Foe After 102 Games

PITTSBURGH (AP) — After going 102 games without producing a shutout, the Pittsburgh Pirates finally succeeded in holding an opponent scoreless. Southpaw Dick Littlefield turned the trick yesterday for the Pirates as he pitched a 2-0 three-hitter over the Chicago Cubs in the first game of a doubleheader.

World's Record Trout Claimed by Easterner

SUNAPEE, N. H., Aug. 2 (AP) — Ernest Theoharis of Nashua claimed a world's record Sunday with an 11-pound, 8-ounce golden trout caught on an 8-pound test line in Lake Sunapee.

The listed record for the species is 11 pounds, landed by Charles S. Reed from Cook's Lake, Wyo., Aug. 5, 1948.

Theoharis used flatfish bait to land the fish in a 30-minute tussle. Fish and Game Officer Jesse Scott said the trout measured 32½ inches in length and 17¼ inches in girth.

Oregon Man Is Winner in Motorcycle Event

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Eugene Thiessen of Eugene, Ore., sped around the Portland Meadows track five times in 3 minutes, 48.31 seconds yesterday to win the 5-mile national motorcycle championships.

The race was marred by the serious injuries suffered Saturday by Alex Pitton of Vancouver, B. C. He fell from his cycle in a practice run and suffered head and internal injuries. His condition was reported critical by a Portland Hospital late last night.

Likes Busch Stadium

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Wally Post, outfielder for the Cincinnati Redlegs, likes to play in Busch Stadium here. In five games at the Cardinals' park, Post smacked eight hits including two doubles and five homers. He batted in 11 runs. In the seven other National League parks, the Redleg had only two home runs and batted in a total of eight runs.

Free-for-All Causes Injuries to Players

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Aug. 1 (AP)—A free-for-all fight during the San Antonio-Oklahoma City Texas League ball game tonight sent one player to a hospital and brought injuries to a half a dozen others.

Some 50 fans got into the scrap which was touched off by trouble between Jim Neufeldt of Oklahoma City and Witty Quintana of San Antonio over a play at second base, with players from both teams mixing it freely.

The fracas went on for almost 20 minutes before order was restored and five players were ejected from the game.

Australians Are Expected to Dominate Swimming, Cycling Events in British Empire Games Today

By JACK HEWINS

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP) — With two of their favorite sports dominating today's calendar in the British Empire games, the Australians hope to skim away some of the cream from the English cup of tea which was the main course on Saturday's muscle menu.

The track and field athletes are taking today off and the chief attraction for sports-minded Vancouver and its thousands of visitors will be the swimming—and the Aussies are tops in the tank.

They are expected to dominate the cycling too, and the first spinning of the wire wheels is on today's program. Also scheduled is competition in wrestling, fencing, weightlifting and lawn bowling.

Records tumbled right and left as the 1954 games, fifth in the 24-year series opened Saturday. Eighteen-year-old Jon Hendricks of Australia predicted another mark would be brushed aside today in the 110-yard freestyle swim and if it is, he'll do it.

Henricks won his heat in the event Saturday in 56.9 seconds to beat the old mark of 59.6 and said the finals should produce a 56 clocking to lower it again.

Virginia Grant of Canada had the best time in the women's 110-yard freestyle, but Lorraine Joyce Crapp of Australia loafed to a victory in her heat of the race and is the favorite in the finals.

Gold medals were awarded to 11 champions Saturday and nine records were smashed. England picked off three of the medals, winning one each in track, fencing and wrestling and making its biggest show in the 6-mile race.

Peter Driver won the event in 29 minutes 9.4 seconds, a record for the games but a minute and a second slower than the world mark held by Czechoslovakia's Emil Zatopek. Frank Sando and Jim Peters followed him across the finish line to make it 1-2-3 for England.

From that triple triumph came a big chunk of the points which put England in front unofficially with a total of 68. Official team totals are not kept but the press corps scores final events on a 10-5-4-3-2-1 basis.

This put Australia second with 47 points, Canada third with 34 and South Africa fourth with 28.

Some of the chief thrills of opening day were provided, however, by athletes from the small countries. A medical student from Nigeria, Emmanual Ifeajuna, surprised even himself by high jumping 6 feet 8 for a games record. The little leaper is only 5 feet 6½ inches tall and his best previous effort was 6 feet 5½.

Mike Agostini of Trinidad earned a gold medal with a victory in the 100-yard dash. The women's 100 brought absolutely no surprise when Marjorie Jackson-Nelson of Australia breezed to an easy victory. Marjorie, who holds the world's record of 10.4 seconds, says she'll retire after this year's games.

Cambridge Club Claims 8 World Powerboat Marks

CAMBRIDGE, Md., Aug. 1 (AP)—Eight world records thought to have been broken during time trials for the 18th annual Cambridge Yacht Club powerboat regatta Sunday, still stood after officials rechecked the mile-long course and found it 30 feet short.

The course had been surveyed Saturday. Winds and tides shifted one of the buoys during the night.

In the featured Cambridge Gold Cup, for 266 cubic inch hydroplanes, Curt Martens of Hampton, Va., sped to victory. The favored Sagana, piloted by Henry Lauterbach of Portsmouth, Va., took second in the first heat but was forced by motor trouble to drop out of the second.

The Sagana, holder of the world record for 266 cubic inch hydros, hit 127 miles an hour in the time trials which would have been a new record had it stood.

William A. Rittner Jr., 21-year-old Marion, Pa., skipper who was just discharged from the Army yesterday, took firsts in the 225 cubic inch hydro event and the hydro free-for-all.

The 136 cubic inch event finished in a 700-point tie betwen Dick Sooy of Pleasantville, N. J., and Wally Rowland of Elkton, Md. Rowland took the first heat and Sooy the second with Sooy winning the event on elapsed time.

U. S. Netters Face Canada or Mexico

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—The United States tennis team will play the winner of a match between Mexico and Canada in the North American finals for the Davis Cup.

The successful U. S. players moved into the finals with a sweeping 5-0 victory over Cuba, winning every set of every match.

The U.S. took both final singles matches yesterday after victories in the doubles Saturday and the initial two singles Friday.

Hal Burrows, Charlottesville, Va., defeated Orlando Garrido 6-4, 6-4, 6-4, using clever drop shots to out-maneuver Cuba's No. 1 player.

In the other match, U.S. Capt. Hamilton Richardson, Baton Rouge, La., overpowered Reynaldo Garrido, Orlando's brother, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2 in just 58 minutes.

Weak Relief Hurling Stymies Bengals

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP)—A pitifully weak bullpen—both in numbers and in talent—is making a nightmare of Fred Hutchinson's job as manager of the Detroit Tigers.

Yankees have Johnny Sain. Boston has Ellis Kinder. Hutchinson has no one—that is, no one he can depend on.

Detroit's bull pen fell apart again yesterday and Tigers dropped a 10-8 contest to Ted Williams and the Boston Red Sox.

Al Aber, Tiger starter, faltered in the 1st inning, failing to retire any of the 1st four batter. Then the bullpen parade started—with Dick Marlowe, Ray Herbert and Bob Miller following Aber to the mound.

None could stop the Red Sox, Marlowe giving up three runs, Herbert two and Miller three. Williams led Boston to its victory, hammering his 18th home run, a towering 420-foot double and a single.

But some effective relief pitching—not much, just some—could have given Detroit a fighting chance. As it was, the Tigers outhit Boston, 16 to 15, and a closing spurt almost tied the score.

At the moment, Tigers have only three pitchers who are used exclusively in relief—the three who paraded in against Boston, Marlowe, Herbert and Miller.

Five other Tiger pitchers are starters. Ted Gray has a sore arm. He doesn't count. Nobody knows when he'll pitch again. Or if.

Miller, 19-year-old bonus rookie, at least derived one consolation from the loss. He retired Williams twice—1st time on a pop fly with the bases full.

The other pitchers didn't have as much luck.

Williams doubled off Aber in the 1st inning, knocking in one run. He singled to right in the 3rd against Marlowe for another run. Then he unloaded against Herbert for a two-run homer in the 5th.

Tiger hitters tried hard to get back into the game. They accounted for three runs in the 5th, one in the 8th and three more in the 9th. Bob Nieman hit a two-run homer in the 9th—but it wasn't enough.

Patterson-Harrison Bout Headlines TV Boxing Fare

NEW YORK (AP)—If Floyd Patterson knocks out Tommy Harrison tonight at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway, it is going to be tough to find opponents for the fast-rising former Olympic champion.

Harrison, who has been in with most of the ranking heavyweights, figures to be the toughest foe Patterson has faced—with the lone exception of Joey Maxim, the former light heavy champ. It was Maxim who snapped Patterson's streak of 12 straight, June 7 on a disputed decision.

Although Harrison, a Los Angeles Negro, was knocked out by Earl Walls, April 12 in his most recent start, he had beaten Walls in a major upset at Toronto, Jan. 26.

The eight-round match (because Patterson is only 19) will be carried on TV (ABC) starting at 10 p.m. (EST).

Prelims Start in Tam Tourney

Amateur Qualifying for Big Links Event Is Under Way Today

CHICAGO, Aug. 2 (AP) — Preliminary firing in Tam O'Shanter's big two-week golf sweepstakes begins at the Suburban club today, with men and women amateurs scrambling for places in the "All-American" tourney.

A field of 200 men swingers tee off in search of the 16 places open in the men's amateur division. Forty-two women players will vie for the eight berths open in the women's amateur division.

Following amateur qualifying today 300 men professionals shoot Tuesday and Wednesday for 60 berths in the money field.

Play in the tournament proper begins Thursday and ends Sunday, with men and women amateurs and men and women pros all swinging simultaneously.

The "All-American" is a sort-of warmup for Tam O'Shanter's "World Championships" Aug. 12-15—also played in four divisions.

Tigers Get Prep Hurler

DETROIT (UP)—Detroit Tigers announced the signing today of southpaw Malcolm Mohr, a product of the Jackson, Mich., sandlots, to a minor league contract.

The St. Louis Cardinals have played eight rookies this season. Six are still with the club.

Army Sergeant Wins Honors in Pistol Matches

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—As usual M.Sgt. Huelet (Joe) Benner was the whole show in the Southeastern Regional pistol matches which ended here yesterday.

The Army Sergeant from West Point who has been national pistol champion three times won every major title in the regional. He scored 2,625 of a possible 2,700 in the combined .22, .38 and .45 caliber events for the grand aggregate crown.

Anything over 2,600 is terrific. In fact, only 10 men in all recorded pistol shooting were credited with that high a score until yesterday. Then Marine Lt. Thomas Mitchell of Camp Lejeune, N.C., became the 11th with a score of 2,603 for runner-up honors to Benner.

Illinois Motorcyclist Wins Eight-Mile Race

WILLIAMS GROVE, PA. (AP)—Charles Carey of Rockford, Ill., flashed over the finish line in 8:1.42 yesterday to win the 8-mile National Championship motorcycle race before 12,000 spectators.

Ernie Beckman, Battle Creek, Mich., speed merchant, was second. Beckman had won the event both last year and in 1952.

Narragansett Racetrack Launches 21st Season

PAWTUCKET, R.I. (AP)—Narragansett Park launches its 21st season of horse racing today, a 25-day meeting that will feature four stake races topped by the $25,000 Providence Stakes for 3-year-olds.

Other big money races on the month-long program include the $10,000 Governor's Handicap and the King Philip and the Narragansett Nursery, both worth an added $7,500.

Duffy Daugherty is Michigan State's 15th head football coach.

Sports World Has Its Quota of Prodigies

By PAT ROBINSON

NEW YORK (INS)—The world always had precocious youngsters but never has precociousness paid off as it does today when school boys can get anywhere up to $100,000 merely for signing a baseball contract. The sports world has produced its full quota of precocious boys and girls.

Mel Ott joined John McGraw and the New York Giants when only 15 and never played a game in the minors.

If memory is not at fault, Bobby Jones won the Southern Golf championship when only 14 years old and the same year played in the National Amateur.

Lou Jones and Bob Gardner won National Amateur Golf titles when they were only 19 and in the long ago Horace Rawlins won the National Open at the same age.

Vinnie Richards, now a successful business executive and grandfather, won the national indoor tennis championship when only 15 years old.

One of the most rugged and dangerous jobs in sports is that of a hockey goalie. Yet Harry Lumley was tending goal in the National Hockey League when only 16 years of age.

Eddie Hanlon was fighting such a good world champion as Abe Attell when Eddie was only 15 and Tony Canzoneri, former world's featherweight and lightweight champion, was battling as a pro at the same age.

We say nothing of track and field or swimming youngsters because those babies seem to fall out of their cradles onto a cinder track or into a pool and start breaking records.

Bengals Sign Young Wisconsin Pitcher

DETROIT (UP)—Detroit Tigers have signed Harold Gauger, 18-year-old Oshkosh, Wis., righthander, to a minor league contract.

Gauger won 19 games and lost only one over a two-year span at Oshkosh High School and in the American Legion. He will report at Lakeland, Fla., next spring before being assigned to a farm club.

A 170-pounder, Gauger was chosen the most valuable player in both the Wisconsin American Legion and high school tournaments this year.

Shamrock Coach, Aide Attend 5-Day Clinic

St. Michael coach Bob Mineweaser and assistant Mike Kazakos left Sunday for Madison, Wis., where they will attend a 5-day coaching clinic at the University of Wisconsin.

Speakers at the football clinic will be Duffy Daugherty of Michigan State College and Ivy Williamson of Wisconsin. Basketball lecturers will be Hank Iba of Oklahoma A & M and Bud Foster of Wisconsin.

Braves Keep Surging, AL Race Remains Static

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Where would the Milwaukee Braves be today if they still had Johnny Antonelli?

Although they traded away the young lefty who turned out to be the top winner in the majors so far with a gaudy 16-2 record, the slugging Braves are a positive factor in the National League race.

All that hitting, and Antonelli, too, might very well have meant a sure fire pennant in Milwaukee this season. Of course, they may make it anyhow, the way they've been ripping and snorting on their 10-game-winning streak.

The Braves can't be criticized too harshly for they felt they needed long distance power in the outfield and could afford to sacrifice a front line pitcher. How did they know that Bobby Thomson would break his ankle in spring training and be lost for most of the season?

Antonelli's brilliant record and the Braves' late summer splurge both were very much in the news yesterday. Antonelli ran his winning streak to 11, longest of the season in either league, as the New York Giants roughed up Cincinnati 9-4 in the first game of a doubleheader. The Giants also won the second game 5-0 on Jim Hearn's six-hitter to pull 5½ games ahead of Brooklyn.

Milwaukee put the slug on Dodger pitching for their second 19-hit day in succession and a 14-6 romp, moving within four games of Brooklyn.

The three top teams in the American League—Cleveland, New York and Chicago—kept in step by winning doubleheaders. Consequently, the end of the day found them in the same position—the Indians leading the Yankees by 2½ games and Chicago by seven games.

Cleveland knocked over Washington 3-1 for Early Wynn's 15th and 5-4 on Hal Newhouser's decisive single. The Yanks had trouble in Baltimore but won two 8-6 and 2-1, using a total of seven pitchers, including Eddie Lopat and Allie Reynolds on relief. Chicago swept a pair from the feeble Philadelphia A's 6-5 and 12-1 with Virgil Trucks winning No. 15 in the finale.

* * *

Curt Simmons boosted the Phillies within a half game of the first division in the National with an 8-3 triumph over St. Louis.

Pittsburgh managed its first shutout of the year when Dick Littlefield blanked Chicago on three hits 2-0 but the Cubs didn't wait long to get even with a 12-2 romp as Dave Cole threw a two-hitter.

Cleveland continued to roll along, moving over the .700 mark with a 71-30 record. Wynn struck out nine while winning his fifth-straight but Mike Garcia needed help in the second. Newhouser's single off Bob Porterfield won the game after Vic Wertz' homer tied the score. Newhouser then retired nine men in a row over the last three innings.

* * *

Tom Morgan and Johnny Sain had all they could do to hold off Baltimore after Harry Byrd was knocked out in the first Yankee game. Yogi Berra had four hits and Gene Woodling his third homer. Ralph Branca, Brooklyn and Detroit castoff, made his first start for New York in the second, retiring because of wildness in the fifth. Marlin Stuart won on relief with Lopat and Reynolds to mop up. Enos Slaughter's pinch-double and Bill Skowron's pinch-single drove in the Yank runs.

Champ No Youngster

Harold Johnson Optimistic About His Title Shot at Archie Moore Aug. 11

In fact, Johnson thinks he's going to lift the crown off Archie's ancient head despite the 2½-1 odds against him.

Johnson should be an authority on Moore for they fought four times before Moore won the championship. Although Archie holds a 3-1 edge, the challenger is surprisingly optimistic.

"He ain't gettin' no younger," said Johnson, who will be 26 Aug. 9, "and I'm more experienced." Before the Childe Harold could elaborate, he was interrupted by Pete Moran, one of the many men associated in his management.

"He was only a baby when he fought Moore the first time," said Moran.

It turned out that Johnson was only 20 when he lost to Archie in Philadelphia April 26, 1949. He lost another 10-round decision to him Sept. 24, 1951, but beat him at Milwaukee Dec. 10 of the same year. Moore won again Jan. 29, 1952, at Toledo and then settled down to a career of boxing Joey Maxim.

One of the factors most encouraging to Johnson is the fact Moore, officially 37, weighed 189¼ for his most recent bout less than two months ago.

"I don't see how a man can come down from 189 to 175 (the light heavy limit) without being a little weak. I don't weigh 189 fully dressed, with an overcoat on."

Ulrich Grabs 1st Major Golf Win at Kaycee

Minnesota Pro Is 24 Under Par in Edging Mangrum, Littler

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Smiling Wally Ulrich of Rochester, Minn., had his first major golf tournament prize—$4,000—today and he knew "just what to do with the money."

Ulrich, former national intercollegiate champion and once second in the Canadian Open, won the $20,000 Kansas City Open with a record breaking 24-under-par 268 for 72 holes. He shot a final round 66, seven strokes under par, yesterday.

He edged out the veteran Lloyd Mangrum, of Niles, Ill., and young Gene Littler, each with 270s, on the Blue Hills Country Club course.

"I can spend that money at home," Wally confided. "I have a 5-year-old son, Jimmie, and a 6-month-old daughter, Barbara plus the missus. After all I haven't been picking up the big stuff like Mangrum and some of the boys week after week."

Ulrich won it with Littler and Mangrum working one threesome behind him. The 30-year-old Minnesotan shot the first nine yesterday in 31 for a 63 hole score of 233. Mangrum and Littler each were three strokes away at that point.

Littler, who started the final round in a tie with Ulrich at 202, had a 68, while Mangrum finished with a 67. It was the first PGA-sponsored tournament in which Littler was eligible to collect cash. He had just completed a six-month probationary period. He and Mangrum each collected $1,950.

Ed (Porky) Oliver, of Lemont, Ill., who shot a record 269, nineteen under par, in winning the tournament last year, finished well down the list with a 71 and 277.

Johnny Palmer, of Charlotte, N.C., finished fourth with 274 strokes. He matched Ulrich's 66 yesterday. Next came Earl Stewart Jr., Dallas; Doug Ford, Kiamesha Lake, N.Y.; E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, St.Louis, and Bob Toski, Livingston, N.J., with 276s.

Every club has a purpose. Your job is to make the clubs work for you. With them, you achieve different distances and trajectories to fit the shot required.

It varies only in length and leverage.

Control the swing through your hands, according to the position of the ball in relation to your feet.

The body is the generating power in your swing, the hands the controlling power.

Accelerate through the turn of your body.

Young Players Win Net Titles

California, Brooklyn Youths Are Victors At Kalamazoo

The 18-year-old Moss, seeded, defeated fourth-ranking Mike Green, Miami Beach, Fla., 1-6, 6-2, 6-1, 6-3, in the junior finals.

The top-seeded Silverman, 15, was extended in beating little Earl Buchholz, 100-pound youngster from St. Louis, Mo., in the boys finals, 3-6, 6-4, 6-4.

The favorites won in boys' doubles finals as Earl Buchholz, St. Louis, and Ned Neely, Atlanta, defeated the fourth-ranking Bruce Brian, Baltimore, and Don Ralph, Bethesda, Md., 6-2, 6-4.

Tiger Tales

DETROIT (AP) — Overheard in Briggs Stadium:

Hoot Evers made an appearance in a Detroit uniform yesterday for the 1st time since 1952. He pinch hit and knocked in a run with a ground ball.

The Tigers, who traded Evers to the Boston Red Sox in 1952, purchased him from the New York Giants last Thursday.

When he stepped to the plate, he was given the biggest hand any Tiger player received in Briggs Stadium this season.

If Ted Williams played full-time in Briggs Stadium, he might challenge some of the all-time hitting record. The thumper has compiled a .342 average in Detroit's ball park this season — pounding four home runs in his 24 times at bat.

Washington Senators visit Detroit for a four-game series starting tonight. It is vital to both clubs, as 4th place—the final berth in the 1st division—hangs in the balance.

Berkley Retains Spot in Legion Standings

Berkley stayed atop the 18th District American Legion baseball league 2nd half standings Sunday by edging past an improved Clawson nine, 7-6. Birmingham's Reds remained on Berkley's heels by nipping Huron Valley Boys Club, 6-5.

Larry Milford and Bill Watkinson paced Birmingham's 11-hit attack with 3 safeties each. Watkinson had a homer in the 2nd and Kirk Flack added a 4-bagger in the 7th for the Reds.

Lands Husky 'Calico'

Harvey Boatright, Voorheis Lake resident, got himself a nice big calico bass Sunday night while fishing for bluegills on Voorheis Lake. The calico was 14¼ inches long and tipped the scales at 1 pound 9 ounces. Boatright also took some bluegills and a bass, but lost three sizeable bronzebacks when they snapped his light line.

Pontiac Boat Racer Wins at Louisville

John Keating of Pontiac piloted his 225-cubic inch hydroplane Capri to a victory in an American Power Boat Association-sanctioned race at Louisville, Ky. Sunday.

Keating has been in boat racing for about 8 years and is doing very well with Capri, a new boat this season. He plans to race at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto next weekend, then at Buffalo, N. Y., to prepare for the national championships in the 225 class Aug. 22 at Cincinnati.

National trials in the 135-cubic inch class were part of Sunday's race at Louisville and the winner was J. C. Townsend of Port Arthur, Texas. He piled up 625 points in his Eight-Ball IV to 427 for Moonshine Baby, driven by Glenn Parrish of Dayton, Ky.

City Shuffleboard, Horseshoe Tests Set

Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department will hold a horseshoe and shuffleboard tournament Aug. 17, 18, 19 at Oakland Park.

Singles and doubles events are scheduled in two classes—men and women 15 years and over and boys and girls under 16. Application for entries may be made at the department's office at 35 Hill street. Entry deadline is Aug. 13.

for 2nd Time Saturday

Ivory Rangers defeated the Youngstown Polo Club for the 2nd straight time Saturday, 16-7, at Poland, O. Rangers had defeated Youngstown, 10-4, on Friday.

Today's Identity

Despite the fine opposition prevalent in her day, she so completely dominated women's tennis that she is generally regarded as the all-time "Queen of the Nets." She's Mrs. Helen Wills Moody Roark.

Gather Evidence in Phenix City

Mayor Is Out on Bond, More Arrests Are Due in Patterson Probe

PHENIX CITY, Ala. (INS)—Russell County authorities said today that they are piecing together evidence to be used for presentation to a Grand Jury investigating vice and corruption in Phenix City, "Sodom of the South."

The Grand Jury, which meets a week from today, will be given evidence gathered by state officials and national guardsmen who "took over" Phenix City—a spree town of some 17,000 residents—and superceed local and county law enforcement officials.

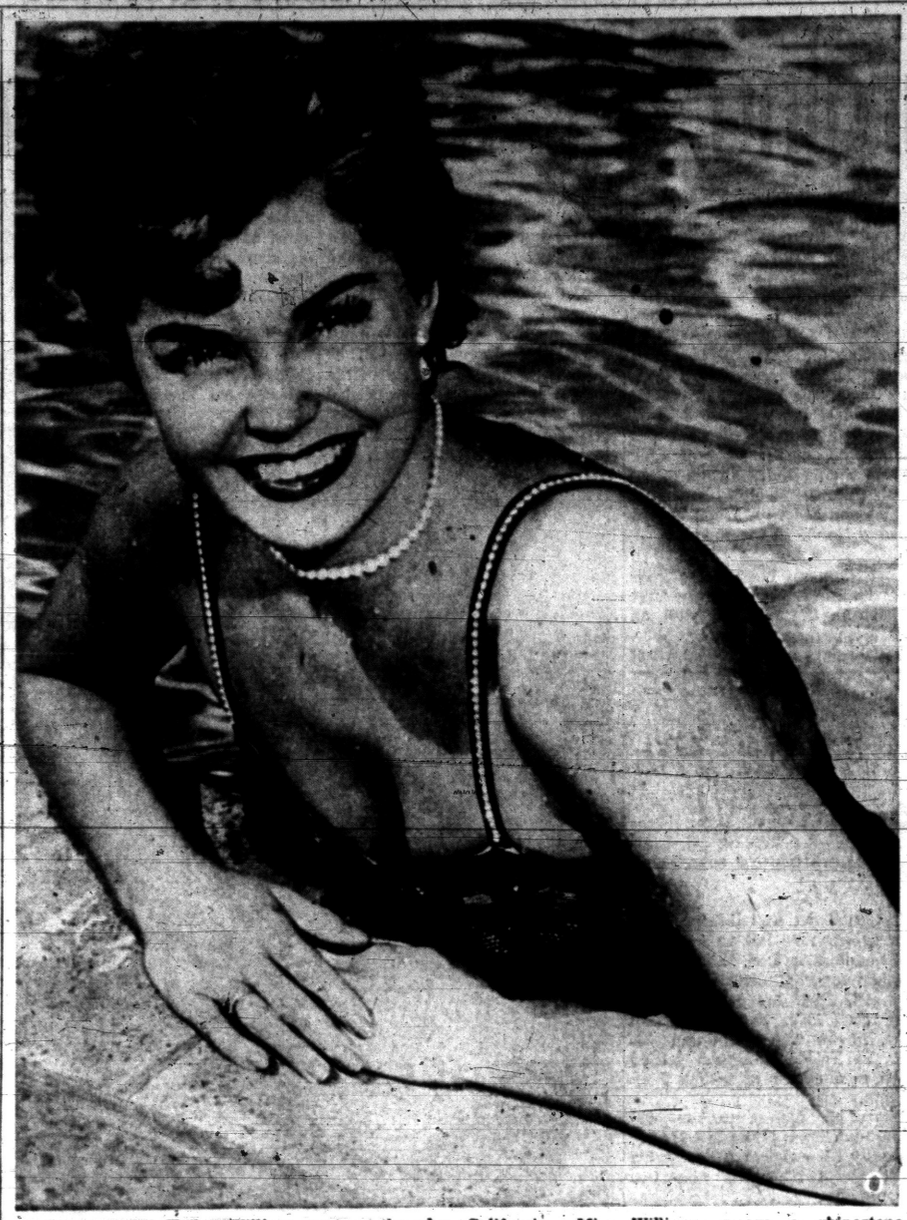

Mayor Elmer E. Reese already has been charged with willful neglect of duty in connection with wide-open gambling, illegal liquor and prostitution rings operating in Phenix City.

The Phenix City cleanup, accomplished mostly by armed Troopers raiding deadfalls, nightclubs and "girl-joints," was touched off by the murder of veteran attorney and crime-fighter Albert L. Patterson.

Patterson was virtually assured of election when he won the Democratic nomination for state attorney-general. He campaigned on a "clean-up" ticket and was shot to death June 18—the day before he was to testify before a Grand Jury investigating vote frauds.

Acting Russell County solicitor George Johnson said, meanwhile, that more "officials and reported bosses" will be arrested in the Patterson probe.

Water Patrol Seeks Pilfering 'Frogman'

BRISTOL, R. I. (AP)—Rhode Island conservation officers today were searching for a "frogman' they believe stole the outboard motor they use to chase law-breaking shell fishermen.

Walter Kenyon, skipper of the State Patrol Board, said only a "frogman," equipped with aqua lung and webbed flippers on his feet, could have cut their boat loose from its moorings Saturday night.

Man Dies of Malnutrition With $6,000 in Bank

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (AP)—After John J. Panso, 75, died of malnutrition in St. Vincent's Hospital last night, police searched his basement flat.

They found a bankbook showing deposits totaling $6,000 and two uncashed income tax refund checks for 1952-1953 amounting to $200.

14 Million Acres Better Left Fallow?

CUSTER, S.D. (AP) — Under Secretary of Agriculture True D. Morse said today 14 million acres in the Great Plains should be taken out of cultivation.

In a speech prepared for a meeting of the Great Plains Council, Morse said farming of the drier areas of the Great Plains "is exploiting farming."

"Those who gamble on cashing in on the few years of extreme high yields on such lands should be prepared to assume the risks and losses for the years when little or nothing will be produced," he said.

He recommended that farmers maintain reserves of feed and seed against dry years "far beyond the practices of most farmers and ranchers."

Combine Men Cut Swath From Texas to Canada

By LAURA Z. HOBSON

COLLYER, Kan. (INS)—We saw a truck carrying what looked like a stubby-winged airplane, and I said to my boys, "That's probably how they deliver heavy farm machinery out here."

We soon passed another, however, and saw earth clinging to the huge blades above. "That must be a second-hand one," we decided.

Then at a crossroads, with wheat stretching to the horizons, we saw a whole fleet of them, parked near a gas station and diner; some of them green, some red, some yellow, marked John Deere Massey-Harris, Gleaner, Case.

Across the fields to our left, two of the machines were cutting 15-foot swaths, and among the idle ones, signs of a night's camping were clear to see.

"The old journeyman tinkers," I said. "Modern style — migratory workers, plus million dollar machines. Let's find out."

In the cab of a grey GMC truck mounting a shiny new "Case combine," as bright red as flannel underwear, a young man and a teenage boy looked down in astonishment when I called up, "Hi, could I interview you for my paper?"

Lloyd Bailey, 28, of Ponca City, Okla., in khaki work clothes, said he was married, had two children, and then stayed shy and untalkative except on technical questions about combines.

But John Maddux, 18, of El Dorado, Kas., took to my queries as if he'd held a press conference every day in his young life. Husky in build, blue-eyed, a farmer's lad with cheeks of tan, John was far too polite to treat us like city slickers, but he did all but explain what wheat was.

"We traveled up from Texas," he said, "going north to Canada, and back. We hire out for a day or a week—getting in the wheat. Coming back in late August and September, we'll cut maize — that's feed for cattle."

Their team had two combines, and their bosses were in the diner having breakfast. Did they sign up their work beforehand, I wanted to know, travel the highway until they saw a field ready for cutting, or what?

"The farmers," said John, "know we're here." He waved around at the fleet of rival combines. "They come from all over, and set a deal. Might be one day's work, around 80 to 100 acres, or it could be two; three days. There's one farmer in this county has 17,000 acres. With our two combines, cutting around 100 acres a day, that'd take us near three weeks."

I let the arithmetic go and asked what farmers had to pay to "hire out the work" that way. "We get $2.50 to $3.00 an acre," John said promptly. "That's for cutting and then hauling to the grain elevators." He pointed to the red machine. "The wheat gets sucked up into the combine here, and the grain gets beat away from the straw. This funnel spreads the straw on the ground, to be plowed under, and the kernels go into this bin."

I asked how much a summer's work would net him. "I get $1.50 an hour," he said, "either cutting or driving. Some days, we work from 5 a.m. to ten at night—a 15-hour pull adds up a lot of pay. But then we might just lay around for three, four days, waiting. Before I get home, I'm figuring to clear maybe $500 — after buying my grub."

Diners were for bosses; Lloyd Bailey and young John got their grub on cook-stoves, slept on bedrolls in the truck or on the ground. But a cushioned life wasn't what John was used to.

"I had my first cow," he said, "when I was 8, and I've earned money ever since, right through school and all. I'm in senior high in El Dorado, but some day I'll have me my own farm. Maybe own one of these."

He put a brown hand on the bright red paint of the combine, then ran his fingers lightly across the steel teeth at one end of the cutting blade. "One like this," he added, "stands you around $6,000."

"John," I said, "I'm betting on you."

Every time we came to a city or town that displayed combines and tractors, I remembered bright-eyed young John Maddux. And each time the odds on his future seemed bigger than a 15-foot swath of ripe gold wheat.

Aircrafts Turn Mart Upward

NEW YORK (AP)—Demand for aircrafts turned the stock market upward today though price changes were generally small.

Steels and motors were also active but irregular. Chemicals and distillers found ready buyers. Utilities held firm but railroads eased. Trading was moderately active.

Missouri Pacific preferred opened up 3¼ points at 51¼ on a block of 4,700 shares. During the session, however, the gain diminished. After the close of the market last week, the Interstate Commerce Commission approved a new reorganization plan for the bankrupt road.

Along with the aircrafts, General Dynamics was a strong issue. The company expects to participate in both the government's aircraft and shipbuilding programs, which will be stepped-up according to a statement by Commerce Secretary Weeks over the weekend.

GENEROUS WALT
Still at Central Lincoln Mercury. Many of my old customers have been led to believe whether intentionally or by accident, that I am no longer selling used cars for C-L-M. Such is not the case. My office is now in the quiet and clean new car store located across from the used car lot, where the business of selling used cars can be conducted with a small amount of effort and noise. Come in, ask for WALT and receive the same generous trade-ins that you are accustomed to getting from him and him alone. Don't take NO for an answer. I will be around somewhere. Here is an example of one of my specials.

Open for Calls Clock Around

Can Furnish Shots for Many Scenic Places to Illustrate Songs

NEW YORK—Film libraries are as important to stations, agencies and TV producers today as morgues are to newspapers.

Newspapers use their filed data to fill out news stories, sometimes compiling entire features from morgue notes, while in TV, stock shot libraries are the mainstay of their events and play an increasingly vital role in most other video programming.

Besides their obvious value as time and money savers, there are many scenes made available which would be impossible to duplicate.

Many TV shows use the stock Film Library on a regular or part-time basis. Among items supplied are fashion and food shots for women's shows; scenic background for musical productions; round-the-world coverage for travel programs; animal and human interest material for children's shows; and endless news and special events shots for documentaries, quiz shows and educational programs.

Now the film library is available to local stations and outside producers to provide a solution to many of their programming and production problems.

To maintain this good service, the Film Library is open from 9 a.m. to 1 a.m. and librarians are on call at all other hours.

Examples of demands made on the library are calls for such shots as a fadeout to parades to illustrate martial music on Voice of Firestone, various scenic backgrounds for Your Hit Parade, shrimp boats for the song of that name, zany shots of flagpole-sitters and a spaghetti-eating contest for comedian Bob and Ray.

TV Film Library staffers are encouraged to use individual imagination to create the desired effects. One request called for a stampede sequence which was one of the few shots not on file.

However, the request was adequately filled by combining shots of two horses fighting and a herd of horses racing past the camera. puscles of a frog's blood, microscopic views of germs, and a front Recent orders were for corseat ride on a roller coaster.

Quinoa Might Replace Spinach

Andes Mountain Plant Reportedly Has High Nutritive Value

WASHINGTON — "Junior, eat your quinoa!" may one day supersede parental pleas for spinach consumption at America's dining tables.

U.S. food manufacturers have been experimenting recently with the thin leaves of the quinoa plant, an import from the lofty Andes, says the National Geographic Society. It appears to have possibilities as a substitute for much-maligned spinach.

For centuries quinoa has been the staff of life for millions of South American natives. It grows only in the cold, thin atmosphere 10,000 to 15,000 feet high in Peru, Bolivia and Ecuador — where neither wheat nor barley will ripen.

Its seeds are eaten raw, boiled, roasted, or ground into flour. They are used also in making beer, for medicinal purposes, and as a poultry and livestock feed. Tender young shoots serve as salad greens.

Dried stems make a quick, hot fire—an important element in a land where fuel of any sort is hard to come by, and the derath of oxygen hampers fire-building. The ash helps flavor the coca leaves which Andean Indians chew.

To the layman, quinoa resembles nothing so much as a large weed. It grows three to five feet high with a stout, much-angled stem, triangular leaves, inconspicuous flowers and a multitude of tiny, vari-colored seeds.

Quinoa cultivation goes on today much as it did when Pizarro first entered Peru in 1527. Indians sow the seed in the autumn. Seedlings emerge a week after planting, and a heavy head of seed matures in five or six months. Then the whole plant is cut and left to dry in the sun for several days. It is threshed by flailing with a stick. A quarter to a half ton of seed per acre is the average yield.

Experiments in quinoa growing have been conducted in both Europe and the United States, but results were not encouraging. To produce grain of high nutritive value requires intense heat. But night frosts are also essential to insure complete ripening.

Technologists of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations believe the plant has commercial possibilities. Their tests show that 100 grams of seed —a very small meal—contain more starch, proteins and vitamins than a plate of eggs, a fresh fish, a side dish of assorted vegetables, and a generous helping of condensed milk.

Jacobys Take Lead in Bridge National

WASHINGTON (AP) — An early lead in the national mixed team bridge championship was taken last night by Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Jacoby of Dallas, Tex., with Mrs. D. J. Cook, Winnetka, Ill., and Harold Rockaway, Houston, Tex.

In second place was an all-Detroit team of Mrs. Julia Cross, H. Sanborn Brown, Miss Joan Deshetler and Vincent Remey.

The mixed team event is part of the 26th annual summer national championships, conducted by the American Contract Bridge League, which end Wednesday night.

New Purges Reported in Communist China

HONG KONG (AP)—Purge and terror seem to be on the flood again in Communist China. A series of policy statements by the official Peiping Peoples Daily lately on political, legal and police work, call for tightening up against "criminal elements, saboteurs . . . counter revolutionaries . . . law breaching industrialists and merchants."

Similar statements preceeded the slaughters of 1951-52 and the lesser killings last year. They seem to reflect break-downs in Communist controls, new resistances, wavering loyalties. The news of the purges are pouring in from independent sources, some of which says as many as a hundred are being shot at a time in some cities.

Fund's Conscience Loot

HARRISBURG (AP)—Weldon B. Heyburn, state treasurer, has turned over some $58 in conscience money to the general fund. From Hancock, N. Y., he got $35 with a note saying "conscience debt;" $10 came from Meadville, Pa., with a notation "conscience fund" and $13 came from York, Pa., without notation.

Reclaim 1 Million Acres

NEW DELHI (AP)—The Central Tractor Organization of the government of India says is efforts have resulted in the reclaiming of more than a million acres of former jungle land since 1947. The organization provides fleets of tractors for land reclamation and agriculture.

UCLA's only defeat in football last year was a 21-20 setback at the hands of Stanford. The latter was beaten three times in 1953.
