Officials of Area Aid in Planning

Meeting on Wednesday Called on Civil Defense Survival Test

Southeastern Michigan officials will meet Wednesday in Detroit with federal and state civil defense leaders to plan participation in the federal civil defense national survival plan.

Detroit is one of 16 target cities in the nation chosen for participation in the program under a $10,000,000 grant from Congress, said Oakland County Assistant CD Director Ransford Bromley.

The meeting, called by Gov. Williams, is slated for 10 a. m. at the Detroit CD offices, 909 Merrill Plaisance, Palmer Park.

An Oakland delegation headed by Supervisors' Chairman Floyd Andrews will attend, said Bromley. Andrews will invite any other interested supervisors to be present. Mayors of 25 cities and city managers of 15 cities in the metropolitan area are expected with their CD directors.

The program's aim is to determine possibility of evacuating Detroit, what shelter facilities are available, how many people can remain in existing shelter areas outside the zone of total possible destruction, what future shelter requirements will be and long-range problems of caring for evacuees.

"Because the plan will be under Federal Civil Defense jurisdiction, it will allow us to get away from problems involving boundaries of individual political units with separate CD setups," Bromley explained.

Included in those expected to attend the conference are Val Peterson, federal CD administrator; Gov. Williams; C. F. Van Blankensmyer, Michigan OCD director; Detroit Mayor Albert Cobo and Maj. Gen. Clyde E. Dougherty, Detroit-Wayne County OCD director.

The Oakland group will include representatives from the Sheriff's Department, Red Cross, Board of Health, Welfare Department and Road Commission.

Man Dies Watching $250,000 Flint Fire

FLINT (INS)—A $250,000 fire destroyed three gasoline storage tanks, a warehouse and four trucks yesterday at the Blue Oil Co. in Flint.

Each of the storage tanks contained 15,000 gallons of high octane gasoline.

A 72-year-old spectator dropped dead of a heart attack at the blaze and four firemen were overcome as the fire raged out of control for 90 minutes.

The victim was Guy H. Morse, who collapsed in a field 100 yards from the fire as he was approaching the scene.

Forty firemen and 20 volunteers battled to keep the fire from spreading to seven other tanks in line with those burning.

Flames shot up more than 100 feet and oil clouds of smoke darkened the area. Intense heat peeled paint on storage tanks 50 yards away.

Fire Department officials believe the fire resulted from static electricity built up in a gasoline truck that was unloading fuel into one of the tanks.

NEW PARKING PLAN — Pontiac Motor has announced plans for a 300-foot long covered pedestrian bridge from the employees' parking lot to the engine plant. The bridge will enter the plant at the mezzanine floor between Plant 9 and the main cafeteria. Some 225,000 square feet of paved parking area will also be added, bringing the capacity to 8,606 cars.

Pontiac Motor to Boost Parking Area, Will Add Overhead Pedestrian Bridge

"Pontiac Motor will construct a modern 300-foot long covered pedestrian bridge from the employees' main parking lot to the engine plant and is adding 225,000 square feet of paved parking area, bringing its parking lot capacity to 8,606 cars, greater than ever before in our history," R. M. Critchfield, Pontiac general manager said today.

The insulated overhead walk will shelter plant pedestrian traffic from inclement weather. It will also relieve the congestion and safety hazard resulting from crossing the plant vehicle traffic artery during shift changes.

Steel for the new bridge is on order. Spanning the drive between the parking lots and the engine plant, it will save steps by eliminating the necessity of walking two different flights of stairs. The bridge will enter the plant at the mezzanine floor between Plant 9 and the main cafeteria.

Fluorescent lighting and exhaust fan ventilation will be used in the bridge. It will have a ground clearance of 14 feet for under passage trucks.

"The new bridge, expected to be finished before the end of the year, and the parking lot additions, near completion at this time, give our employees the best and most convenient parking facilities in the automotive industry," Critchfield said. He said the drained and lighted lots, patrolled by plant protection department to discourage pilfering of employees' cars, represent an investment for improvements alone of over $100 per car-parking space.

This does not take into account the value of the land, he added. Additional parking facilities are part of a planned program started last year when the added parking lot on the east side of Highland, capable of holding over 400 cars, was provided for employees.

Some of the additional parking space will become available when one of the Pontiac haulway companies vacates the lot north of Plant 14. New cars will be stored in the former haulway lot leaving the Plant 14 lot free for more convenient parking for employees. Critchfield said a rearrangement of parking in the main parking lot would provide a reserved area for supervisor parking at the west side of the mammoth lot.

Truce Indicated in Road Feuding

Senate, House to Try to Settle Rift Between Ziegler, Higgins

LANSING (INS)—Legislative intervention to stop feuding over the Michigan's proposed first toll road was indicated today.

Sen. Haskell L. Nichols (R-Jackson) and Rep. Emil A. Peltz (R-Rogers City), chairmen of the Senate and House Highway Committees, said their committees will meet jointly on the subject when the Legislature meets Nov. 1 in special session.

They said they intended to "question" State Highway Commr. Charles M. Ziegler and George N. Higgins, Turnpike Authority chairman, about their differences of opinion over the proposed toll road between Saginaw and Flat Rock.

But a joint statement by Nichols and Peltz suggested that they hope to end Ziegler's opposition to the toll road.

Higgins has charged Ziegler with seeking to block the toll road by building a competing parallel freeway.

NEED CITED
The lawmakers' joint statement said "with the tremendous need for highways in Michigan there is no reason for anyone to be backing or opposing any particular road. Nor is there any reason for roads competing with each other."

"The Turnpike Authority was created by the Legislature with the understanding that it would build a particular road. The last highway bill was passed to accelerate trunkline construction."

"We need all the roads we can get from all sources and differences of opinion must be settled as quickly as possible to provide those roads."

"We hope that a meeting between the members of the legislative committees on highways with Ziegler and Higgins will help straighten out all the difficulties and get everyone busy on the main task — providing roads for Michigan."

U.S. to Increase Sugar Output to Other Nations

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Agriculture Department announces an increase of 100,000 tons in the amount of sugar which may be marketed in the United States this year.

Under provisions of sugar control legislation, 96,000 tons will be allotted Cuba, the principal offshore supplier. The remaining 4,000 tons will be distributed among other Central and South American countries.

The increase was made because consumption has been running well ahead of last year. This has been reflected in recent increases in prices of both raw and refined sugar. The move was expected to prevent further increases in the near future.

Maureen O'Hara Gets Custody of Daughter, 11

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—An armistice has been reached in the battle O'Hara and her former husband, television writer Will Price, over the custody of their 11-year-old daughter, Bronwyn.

The raven-haired actress, under a stipulation approved yesterday in Los Angeles superior court, retained full custody of the child. Price dropped a charge that his wife openly "consorted" with a wealthy Mexico City attorney in the child's presence.

Wanted: Cream, Sugar

LOS ANGELES (INS)—Theft of 1,634,000 potential cups of coffee was reported yesterday. A truck-trailer stolen from a trucking company yard contained 17 tons of dry coffee—but no sugar or cream.

2 Boys Found Dead in Trunk

Brother of One, Admits Locking Chest So They Wouldn't Follow Him

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (INS)—Two young boys who had been playing space ship were found dead in an attic trunk yesterday. Police said the brother of one of them had admitted locking them in because he did not want them following him around.

Dominick Primicerio, 9, and Daniel Bencivenga, 8, had been missing since 4:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Neighbors and police searched the neighborhood all night long. Then late yesterday morning Dominick's 10-year-old brother James took his mother to the attic and opened the trunk.

Dr. Marvin M. Scarbrough, medical examiner, said the boys, in the trunk more than 17 hours, had died of suffocation.

James told police that after locking the boys in, he went out to play. He went back to the attic around 7 p.m., opened the trunk and felt the boys' faces. He said they felt warm and he closed the trunk without locking it.

Coroner James J. Corrigan was scheduled to hold a formal inquest today. He said that after his finding, James would be under jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court.

Theater Owners to Give Jimmy Stewart Award

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—The theater owners of America will present actor James Stewart with the "star of the year" award at a banquet in Los Angeles Saturday night which winds up the three-day convention.

Stewart will receive the award for his motion picture performances and "for good citizenship and active civic participation."

James Dean Leaves $100,000 Accident Policy

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—A court action has revealed that James Dean, 24-year-old movie star who died tragically in a traffic crash, left a $100,000 accident liability insurance policy and between $5,000 and $10,000 in cash.

The bobby sox idol's estate was disclosed when his business managers asked Superior Court for a letter of administration in his estate. He left no will.

Stalling, Prejudice Counts Heaped on Racing Officials

DETROIT (INS)—Charges of stalling and prejudice were leveled at the Michigan Racing Commission yesterday during a hearing on a proposed third track for the Detroit metropolitan area.

Two major stock subscribers of the proposed track in Troy Township pledged $1,100,000 toward financing the project at the hearing before James H. Inglis, racing commissioner.

The two are Dr. Jack I. Windshall, who pledged $500,000, and Edward Rosenberg, president of a Detroit building supply firm, who told the commission he could raise $600,000.

The Commission contends the track could not be built to standards for less than $5,492,000 and so far club subscribers have pledged only $2,968,000.

Questioned by Wilbur De Young assistant attorney general, Windshall testified he could obtain $300,000 from "38 to 60 corporations I own."

After the hearing had been adjourned to Oct. 27, Joseph Marshall, one of the attorneys for the Thoroughbred Turf Club, which is financing the proposed race track, accused Inglis of stalling.

"We want to get started on this track," he shouted. "There's no reason why we can't take this up again next week. You're just stalling."

Inglis said the Commission was not delaying the project but needed time to study three estimates on what the track would cost. They were submitted by Theodore Rogovoy, who designed the proposed track.

Club attorneys accused De Young of being "biased" against the track.

More subscribers will be questioned at the next hearing.

Other thoroughbred tracks in the Detroit area are the Detroit Race Course and Hazel Park Race Track.

Tampico Floods Claim U.S. Man

Marine 1st Loss Among Forces Keeping Wedry Mexico Port City Alive

MEXICO CITY (INS)—The first death was reported today among U.S. relief forces keeping flooded Tampico alive. Reports from the Gulf Coast port said a rescue launch from the destroyer Bassett overturned and a Marine was drowned.

The Marine's identity was withheld. The only other new death reported in the city was a suicide, a merchant apparently despondent over his property losses. By unofficial count, 326 others have died in the hurricanes and floods in the Tampico area.

The Panuco River, after a month of hurricane and rain-spawned flooding, dropped a few inches. Barring more rains, the fall was expected to accelerate sharply in a few days.

But new threats of famine and water shortage developed in Tampico, its above-water blocks jammed by the city's 110,000 population and 55,000 to 70,000 refugees from the surrounding coastal plain.

A conference of federal, state and local officials announced Tampico had drinking water for only another 24 hours, that the city was without bread, flour, salt, sugar and other necessary foods, and that medical supplies were still in short supply.

Food was stacked high on the airport outside the city, but washed-out highways and bridges kept much of it from reaching the 16 or so blocks still above water in the heart of the city. Four U.S. Army amphibious vehicles arrived by air from Pueblo, Colo., to shuttle supplies.

U.S. Navy helicopters lifted refugees to the airport and passenger planes shuttled them on to inland camps. In Mexico City, the federal government discussed the possibility of removing 40,000 of Tampico's people as soon as the waters recede enough to let trucks, trains and ships through.

Tampico's city manager, Anastasio Garcia, estimated the flood damage in the city alone at $2 million dollars.

Moose Meanders Near Soo Business District

SAULT STE. MARIE (INS)—The Soo gets some of the strangest visitors.

Quite frequently deer and bear stroll into town.

Shortly after last midnight a moose was seen wandering somewhat aimlessly along a street near the busy intersection of Asylum and Easterday, three blocks from downtown.

The moose, without horns, was the first one reported seen in the Soo. One person who saw it said he thought at first it was a horse.

The Day in Birmingham Library Group Members to Hear Prize Winner

BIRMINGHAM (INS)—Berrien C. Ketchum, president of Friends of the Baldwin Public Library, has announced the group's program for the season, which will open Oct. 19 with a lecture by Pulitzer prize-winner Royce Howes.

Howes is associate editor of the Detroit Free Press and will speak at an 8:15 p.m. open meeting at the library on "The Modern Newspaper — Its Problems, Operations and Aims."

Details of the November program for members only, have not yet been completed, but will feature a speaker now traveling abroad.

This will be followed by "Film-rama Adventure" on Jan. 17, another closed lecture. Members will hear Robert Barnard, who has lived in the Near East and India and traveled all over the world, narrate the color film, showing the highlights of nine European countries.

Edmund Fuller, author, novelist, critic and lecturer on contemporary literature, will close the season at a March 19 open session. His subject will be, "New Books, New Writers."

William W. Williams heads the program committee.

There'll be no zoo or baseball game in sight, but plenty of peanuts on the streets of Birmingham tomorrow. The Kiwanis and Soroptimist Clubs have joined forces and will peddle the roasted morsels in a joint venture to financially aid Camp Oakland.

The camp serves as a home for less fortunate children in the county.

Before the Hamilton crossover, which would allow northbound Hunter boulevard traffic to turn left onto Hamilton, is constructed, the Planning Board would like to see further studies made on the complete left hand turn movement anticipated.

The board at its meeting this week, thought consideration should be given to installation of a traffic light to aid those turning from north onto southbound Hunter, and will pass this request on to the City Commission.

Some 160 mothers new to the Quanton School area, and new teachers, were honored at a PTA tea held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Brookman yesterday, and were welcomed by the PTA board. Trust Company Kept for Dodge's Estate

DETROIT (INS)—In a probate court opinion in Detroit today, Judge Patrick H. O'Brien declined to remove the Detroit Trust Co. as one of the trustees of the $56 million estate of the late Horace E. Dodge, automotive pioneer.

The ruling by Judge O'Brien is a defeat for Mrs. Christine Cromwell Asserson, granddaughter of Dodge and his widow, Mrs. Anna Thompson Dodge, the other trustee. Dodge died in 1920.

Mrs. Asserson charged that the trustees, who have invested the fortune entirely in tax-exempt municipal and U. S. government bonds, could have enriched the estate by millions if they had bought common stocks.

Judge O'Brien also refused to allow a $16 million surcharge against the estate, and he accepted the 25th annual accounting of the trustees, with the provision that both sides agree to a charge against the trustees of $10,502.19, which represents a loss taken on the sale of $500,000 in bonds.

ing meetings to be held. Father Thomas M. Kenny welcomed over 100 added workers who will be active in the campaign. Will Best is memorial gifts chairman, with the general workers headed by Robert Tamm.

First Friday-of-the-month "Family night" will start at the YMCA at 7:30 tonight continuing until June. Parents and children, Y Members are invited to the evening of games and singing.

Nine-year-old Gary Moore, son of Mrs. E. M. Moore, suffered only bruises yesterday when police said he darted from in between some parked cars near his home at 292 Daines St., into the path of an auto driven by Mrs. E. B. Barton, 50, of 18185 Dublaine.

Mississippi Events 'Grieve' Churches

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The General Board of the National Council of Churches says it feels "deep grief" over the recent "tragic events in Mississippi."

However, the board did not mention specifically the case of Emmett Till, 14-year-old Negro boy, in its resolution. Two white men were tried on a charge of murdering Till but were acquitted.

Proposals to include specific mention of the Till case and Southern school segregation in the resolution were voted down at the close of the board's quarterly meeting yesterday.

U.S. to Press Atom Conference at U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States was expected to press today for another international atomic conference as the U.N.'s Political Committee turned to peaceful use of atomic energy. Sen. John O. Pastore (D-RI) was stated to take the floor for the United States. A U.S. spokesman said he probably would stress that the United States feels the international conference held in Geneva last August was such a success that a similar parley should be held within the next three years. American circles said the United States intends to cosponsor a resolution calling for such a conference and predicted it would get warm support from the 60-nation body.

Hal Boyle Says:

Her 'Wares' Include Mosquitoes, Elephants

NEW YORK (AP)—If you ever want to rent a mosquito—and, pray tell, who doesn't?—Lorraine D'Essen is just the young lady for you.

Mrs. D'Essen, a comely, hazel-eyed woman in her early 30s, has one of the oddest jobs in this oddest of all possible worlds. She is an animal talent scout.

In three years she has built up a $100,000-a-year business locating specially trained animals for the movies, television programs, advertising agencies and industrial firms.

Her casting bureau for animal actors now can draw on 750 furred or feathered creatures ranging in size from a sneering mouse to a dancing elephant.

"So far I haven't had a call for a tightrope-walking trained whale," mused Mrs. D'Essen. "and, frankly, I'd just as soon I never do."

If she does get such a call, she might rise to the emergency. Her failures are few.

One example of the crises that arise almost daily in her unusual career: A studio sent a hurry-up call for a mosquito—in the middle of February.

"I finally located one in Florida, and had it flown here," recalled Mrs. D'Essen.

"The mosquito had had no special training, but proved a great natural talent. The scene called for a close-up of him, biting a man's hand. He went through his role as if he had spent his life before a camera. The scene didn't require a single retake."

For this one performance the studio paid $100, making the mosquito perhaps the highest paid insect in history.

"What did we do with him?" said Mrs. D'Essen. "We turned him loose in the studio. I didn't feel like swatting him. Who wants to swat a $100-a-day performer?"

Her animal actors average $100 an appearance, whether it is for a moment, an hour, or a full day. Elephants, whose upkeep is more expensive, get the top rate—$750. Mrs. D'Essen rents some of the animals from other trainers, keeps many of her own on a 37-acre farm at Gillette, N.J. They often remain overnight in her four-story old brick home in Greenwich Village.

"We have an animal United Nations there," she said. "Right now we are keeping an American crow, a llama from Peru (he is named Lucky and has a girl friend named Linda), an English sheep dog, two great Danes, a wombat named 'Mr. Wimpole' from Australia, a Siamese cat, and a Yorkshire terrier called 'T. S. Elliot'."

"All of them are real characters. Each animal has his own personality. If you take the trouble to understand his personality, then he usually will take the trouble to understand yours."

Her current favorite is the bird, known as "Ole Crow," who makes one of the fastest livings of anything in feathers as the talking trademark for a firm that makes a well-known Kentucky beverage.

"Ole (pronounced 'oh-lee') is the member of a crow family that has spent four generations in captivity," said Mrs. D'Essen. "He has a vocabulary of 14 words (none are four letters) and can mew like a cat."

"He has been given an honorary college degree, owns a 36-by-36-inch Texas ranch, is an actual stockholder in a distillery, and loves to go to cocktail parties."

"Ole" won't eat crow for anybody. But he does love to dine on baked chicken, apple pie and ice cream, and cheese cake. At cocktail functions he is limited to an appetizer consisting of two drops of bourbon in water.

"If he takes three drops, he gets higher than an eagle," observed Mrs. D'Essen.

She has one tip to people who want to get along with dogs. "Never pat them on the skull," she said. "A dog hates this worse than you do a stranger who suddenly slaps you on the back. "As a matter of fact you should never try to pet a dog until he comes up to you first."

Spicy Testimony Doesn't Keep Juror Awake

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Asst. Dist. Atty. George Miller suddenly interrupted testimony in a spicy bawdy house trial yesterday.

Pointing to a juror, Miller said, "Judge, I think that man is asleep."

Juror R. F. Colston slept through the interruption. When Judge Byron Johnson of the County Court-at-Law spoke to him, Colston jerked up, blinking.

"Did you go to sleep?" the judge asked.

"I may have," Colston replied, still blinking.

Defense attorney Jack Knight promptly moved for a mistrial. "I thought he was going to fall out of his chair," he said of the sleepy juror.

Johnson overruled the motion but recessed court until today "to give the jury a little rest," a courtroom attache said.

RABAT, French Morocco (U. S. — Small French units still battled today with nationalist guerrillas along the border of Spanish Morocco.

As before, the fighting centered on the triangle formed by the little French outposts of Aknou, Boured and Tlat Ouzi.

The French force was estimated at 2,500 to 4,000 foreign legionnaires and Moroccan auxiliaries, supported by armored cars, jet fighters and a dozen cannons.

Opposing them are 3,000 to 4,000 Moroccan tribesmen, some with automatic weapons.

Yvonne Quits Traveling to Star in New Western

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
HOLLYWOOD (INS)—That

traveling gal, Yvonne de Carlo, is coming home to light right at her one-time studio, Universal-International.

This is the first time since 1951 that Yvonne, once under contract to U-I, has made a picture there. She likes the dramatic story of "Raw Edge," a real Western about a lumber camp in 1850 and so she agreed to cut short her travels.

BULLFIGHTER MARIO
True, Mario Lanza has been behaving himself almost too good to be true, but now he's got the bosses worried at Warners. Mario insists on taking lessons in bullfighting and this is a pretty dangerous pastime. Mario's completely fascinated with fighting the bull, and I mean the real animal.

His company, the "Serenade" crowd, has been working at the ranch of Pepe Ortiz, retired champion bullfighter, and Ortiz and Mario have become fast friends.

Anthony Mann has written that he's done his best to persuade Mario to leave the bulls to someone else, but Ortiz says there's no harm in waving the cape and urging them on to fight. No harm, if you don't get gored.

About Our History . . .

In 1921 the Wilkins family started in business here. Mother and dad rented the blacksmith shop for a garage and built and operated a hot dog stand next to it. Two years later, the first store was built. It is still being used for storage. In 1928 the new store and restaurant opened for business. A constant effort has been made to make Wilkins a pleasant memory to each year's caravan of customers. We hope we have succeeded.

With the Louisiana purchase, Missouri came to the United States and Dan Boone was back under the Stars and Stripes once more.

Just Who Runs Kremlin? Khrushchev or Bulganin

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Some Western diplomats are no longer so sure as they once were that jovial, back-slapping Nikita Khrushchev is the dominating figure inside the Soviet government.

At least a few believe that the key man—the chairman of the board within the ruling group—may be Premier Nikolai Bulganin. The distribution of power among Soviet leaders has provided a continuous guessing game for Western diplomats and foreign affairs officials ever since Joseph Stalin died. Each contact between top Russians and Western leaders is therefore carefully analyzed for signs of personal power positions.

The latest such occasion of substantial importance was the September visit to Moscow of West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and his foreign minister, Heinrich Von Brentano.

Von Brentano recently came to the United States and conferred with the American, British and French foreign ministers in New York as well as with State Department officials here.

He is understood to have remarked in these conversations that Bulganin rather than Khrushchev was clearly the dominant figure in the negotiations.

Adenauer and his associates went to the meeting prepared to find Khrushchev playing a lead role and doing the tough bargaining. Instead, they found that Bulganin took the lead in virtually all the talks and was an extremely able and tough bargainer.

On occasion they gained the impression of great personal strength which when necessary could be very harshly used. There were times when Bulganin appeared to crack down on Khrushchev with a look or word disapproving something Khrushchev had said a moment before.

The impression gained by the Germans was at variance with that reportedly gained by Yugoslav negotiators when the two Soviet leaders visited Belgrade earlier in the summer.

Education expenditures of Canada's 10 provincial governments climbed to a total of $259,000,000, or nearly 11 per cent, more than the year before.

Truman's Optimistic on Dem '56 Chances

BOSTON — Former President Harry S. Truman said yesterday Adlai Stevenson is "a friend" and Averell Harriman's age — 64 — is NOT TOO OLD FOR A PRESIDE.

He evaded the question of whom he will support for the Democratic nomination.

He told a news conference his presidential preference will come to light at the Democratic National Convention, where he expects to be part of the Missouri delegation.

He said Democratic chances "have always been good," and added, "I'm an optimist."

Romeo Educators Act to Acquire New School Sites

School Board Faces Problem

Officials Take Steps to Combat Overcrowding in Area Schools

ROMEO—The problem of providing classrooms for the ever increasing school population is again being faced by the Board of Education of the Romeo Community Schools.

At a special meeting last night Supt. T. C. Filippa indicated that by fall 1957, the increase of student enrollment would necessitate the completion of additional facilities to meet the needs on the secondary grade level.

The board members agreed to take the first step by having certain properties in the district investigated with the view to possible acquisition for elementary or high school sites.

A resolution to raise tax levies in the district on state equalized valuation was drafted by the board.

The two debt retirement funds were raised: one from 4.5 to 5 mills the other from 6 to 6.5 mills.

These tax levies do not exceed the total millage approved by the district voters in the last bond issue in April 1954, school officials reported.

The superintendent then presented his 1955-56 budget analysis with suggested revisions to the board. His recommendation, plus an additional $2,500 allotment for furniture and equipment and $12,000 for sites, were unanimously accepted.

Milford Board Looks at Plans

Blueprinted Layout is Shown for High School Site; Papers Signed

MILFORD—Two representatives from King Scott Associates, Kalamazoo, presented final preliminary plans for the new Milford High School, at last night's Board of Education meeting.

A detailed blueprint of the entire layout of rooms, gym, auditorium and furnishings were shown the board. Now architects can go ahead on definite working plans, according to Harold Hansen, superintendent of the Huron Valley Schools.

Legal papers were finally presented to the board regarding the controversial right of way owned by Capt. G. J. Larges. The board accepted the signed, sealed and notarized papers giving the school system access to the 60-acre tract of land owned by Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Drake on North Millford Road, which the school board now has options to purchase.

"To all intents and purposes, we can now go ahead with the architects on the working drawings," Mr. Hansen said. "However, it will still be a couple of months before we can ask for construction bids," he said.

School Building Increases While Enrollment Grows

Waterford Township school enrollment this year totals 8,949, an increase of 861 over last year, according to Superintendent of Schools William Shunk.

The number of teachers has been hiked in proportion, he stated, with about one instructor for each 30 pupils.

Crowding is felt worst in the 7th and 8th grades which are running in two shifts, with students attending either in the afternoon or morning.

A $1,500,000 bond issue was approved by district voters last year for elementary school expansion.

A part of the program was realized last year with a total 14 rooms added to the Jayno Adams, Williams Lake, Waterford Center and Four Towns Elementary Schools, Shunk explained.

Four new elementary schools are under construction now on Winding drive, Pontiac Lake road, Midland street and Crescent Lake road.

Their total cost will be about $1,000,000. When completed in February, each new building will have 12 classrooms except the one on Winding drive which will have 16. The four will accommodate about 1,400 pupils.

"The Board of Education is now considering an additional building program aimed at meeting the overload in grades 7 through 12," said Shunk.

The district is currently utilizing five rooms in the Community Activities Inc. Building for classes and four in the United Presbyterian Church.
