

Hawaii Wins Statehood by Big Vote

Preparation Key for Residential Growth in City

Pontiac can win new residential expansion, if it prepares for it, according to Edward A. Maier, president of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce.

"The building boom is going to continue, and it will continue here if we provide the right facilities," Maier told the Greater Pontiac Community Council last night, meeting to discuss the proposed $3,300,000 bond issue for more sewage treatment facilities.

"The areas that are willing to provide adequate facilities for new homes are the ones that will get the nod from developers for new building projects," Maier predicted, urging a favorable vote on the bond issue April 6.

Maier listed indications that home building will expand next year.

The number of new mortgages is up 25 per cent nationally, he said; FHA down payments have been sharply reduced and power companies are planning expansion in this area.

Pontiac has about six square miles of undeveloped land that is idle because the existing over-worked sewage treatment plant couldn't handle the additional load if sewers were extended there, he said.

"Expanded treatment facilities are the key to residential expansion in Pontiac," Maier said. Four other speakers also addressed the meeting.

City Manager Walter K. Williams said that expansion within the area Maier referred to could boost the city's tax base by $100,000.

John Hennessey, superintendent of the present plant, explained its deficiencies, while Harold A. Kelley, consulting engineer, told how new facilities would increase the plant's capacity by five million gallons a day.

"That would bring us up to a capacity of 20 million gallons a day, enough to meet the city's estimated needs for another 20 years," Williams said.

Dr. John D. Monroe, acting director of the Pontiac Health Department, said that inadequate facilities represent a potential health hazard.

"Raw sewage from overflowing septic tanks lines drainage ditches after some heavy rains," he said. "Children do play in these ditches. They are being exposed to a grave potential danger."

The new funds Eisenhower is asking for the period starting July 1 would continue into a 13th consecutive year the government's massive military-economic programs in 70 friendly countries.

In his January budget message, Eisenhower put the cost of his new foreign aid proposals at $1.5 billion less than he asked last year. Congress cut last year's figure by 600 million dollars.

The new program would set aside $1,600,000,000 for military weapons help to allied nations. This would go mainly to Middle (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

Hate Is a Costly Ogre of Mankind

By DR. EVERETT R. CLINCHY

President, National Conference of Christians and Jews

In 1920 I was a minister in a small, friendly country parish in New Jersey. One of the trustees was a farmer of steel-like integrity, whom I deeply admired and respected.

One night a cross was burned by the Ku Klux Klan in a valley below our hill. The spirit of the entire community stiffened with hate, distrust, vicious rumors of lawless night raiders, all adding up to the same intent: "The Roman Catholics moving into the valley are going to be frightened out."

I was 23 then, and confident that America could be made safe for differences. I remember asking our church organization if we meant the things we fought for in the great war just ended; more important, if we meant the compassion, understanding, and love our faith taught us.

Shortly thereafter, it was a profound shock when the trustee, whom I admired and respected, so much, said: "The men met last night in the valley. The Protestant Churches had better remain quiet. The Klan is gaining strength."

I was painfully puzzled that a man with such moral depths could have this blind spot of intolerance.

Legislators Quit for Weekend; Pass No Bills

GOP Floor Leader Beadle Sees Friday the 13th as Unlucky

From Our News Wires

LANSING — The Senate adjourned for the weekend at 10:30 a.m. today, six minutes after killing the last hope for a compromise ballot solution to Michigan's cash crisis.

In rapid-fire order;

—A Republican caucus rejected pleas of party leaders for a consideration of a compromise 100-million-dollar bond issue and the entire Senate voted 19-14 against a House-approved 50-million-dollar bond issue.

Only two Republicans, Sens. Haskell Nichols, Jackson, and Perry W. Greene, Grand Rapids, voted with the 12 Senate Democrats on the issue.

One senator missed the show-down vote — Sen. John Stahl (R-Belding), who said he had "urgent personal business" in Florida.

House Speaker Don R. Pears (R-Buchanan) called the Senate action "disappointing." House Minority Leader Joseph Kowalski (D-Detroit) said it was "ridiculous."

Senate GOP leaders, who yesterday retreated from insistence on a sales tax hike and said prospects were good for a compromise, were instructed by a party caucus today to do a Friday-the-13th flip-flop.

GOP Floor Leader Frank Beadle (R-St. Clair) announced:

"We are more firm than ever that we will not accept any bonding proposal that does not provide means of payment."

Beadle, who said Friday the 13th usually was "my lucky day," said some Republicans still hoped "somebody will pull a rabbit out of a hat."

Beadle indicated he thought the caucus action was not politically sound.

"We will just have to take the consequences," he said.

DEMS ON SIDELINES

Williams and minority Democrats sat on the sidelines, prepared to take almost whatever Republicans agreed on short of a sales tax increase to retire the bonds.

The prospect of possible payless paydays and skipping poor relief checks about May 1 cast a long shadow over the proceedings.

Five caucuses occupying a total of three hectic hours yesterday failed to heal the breach that developed Wednesday night and early Thursday.

"I think we're making a terrible mistake if we don't do something to forego this cash crisis," said Sen. Frank D. Beadle of St. Clair, Republican majority leader after one of them.

Sen. Haskell L. Nichols (R-Jackson) said, "We'll be crucified."

Twenty-four hours before, the GOP had stood unyielding for a sales tax plan, an answer the six-term governor and his Democratic followers consistently had branded totally unacceptable.

Watch Mrs. Gall Steadily After Suicide Attempt

Constant watch was put on Mrs. Anne D. Gall yesterday after she attempted to take her own life by slashing her arms with pieces of a smashed light bulb.

Mrs. Gall, accused of the fatal beatings of her 12-year-old daughter, was discovered stretched out on her third floor cellblock bunk shortly before 10 a.m. by Mrs. Mary Cremer, matron at the Oakland County jail.

She called for help and an ambulance later hurried Mrs. Gall, still conscious, to Pontiac General Hospital. Here Dr. Isaac C. Prevette made about 20 stitches in the woman's wrists and at the bend of both elbows.

"They were mostly superficial lacerations," Dr. Prevette said. She didn't need a blood transfusion and remained conscious while he applied the sutures.

The 35-year-old mother of three is confined to the jail awaiting trial for first-degree murder in the Feb. 16 death of Judith Anne Gall. Judith, a doctor said, died of pneumonia brought on by a series of beatings with sticks.

Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem estimated that Mrs. Gall might be tried in the latter part of next month or early May.

Sheriff Frank W. Irons said Mrs. Gall apparently hoisted herself up on some bars to reach one of four light bulbs along a 35-foot passageway outside her cell.

She had been allowed to roam outside her cell in this locked corridor, Irons said, as long as another woman prisoner was with her.

School Bus Driver Averts Train Crash

The quick thinking of an Oakland County woman school bus driver who avoided a train collision by remaining calm drew praise today from the Pontiac Police Dept.

Mrs. Fern Robertson, 43, of 1809 Petrolia St., West Bloomfield Township, was credited with averting possible tragedy when she drove her bus into a railroad pole to avert hitting a small, open trolley.

Driving a bus of the Oakland County Children's Home with 25 youngsters aboard, Mrs. Robertson said the brakes failed as she approached the W. Huron street crossing of the Grand Trunk railroad.

She spotted the small, motorized car carrying five railroad workers, and swung her bus into the pole supporting the warning blinkers.

Moments later two trains roared down the tracks.

No one was injured, and the only damage to the bus was a few scrapes on the bumper.

The children were being returned to the Children's Home from several schools in the area.

Waikiki Beach Goes Wild, Say Two Local Vacationers

WAIKIKI BEACH — Hawaii's joyous statehood celebration was "pandemonium" to two Pontiac area vacationers caught up in the jubilation.

"I've never seen such excitement," said Eleanor Lockman, 4297 Ledgestone Dr., who is spending two weeks in Waikiki Beach with a friend, Norma Ansley, 2219 Hartford Dr.

The Waterford Township vacationers are both employees of The Pontiac Press.

They joined thousands of others who crowded Waikiki Beach last night as an hour-long display of fireworks burst gloriously over the bay.

"Hotel lobbies were so packed we could hardly get through," said Miss Lockman.

Before rain forced people indoors, she said, streets in front of the tourist center's plush hotels were filled with milling crowds. Dance stands were set up in

Bill Goes to Ike Today; Passes House 323-89

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Hawaiian Islands will become the nation's 50th state within the year.

Congress answered the territory's half-century of pleading for statehood Thursday with a resounding 323-89 vote in the House. The Senate assented a day earlier with a 76-15 vote.

President Eisenhower gets the bill today. His approval is certain.

Presidential secretary James C. Hagerty said the President is delighted.

In four to six months Hawaii could be a full partner in the union. It will take that long to set up elections for the nearly 600,000 people to choose their first state officers, their two U.S. senators and one representative in the House. Hawaii will qualify for a second House seat after the 1960 census.

There is a maximum time schedule set out in the state constitution which the people of Hawaii, tired of waiting, adopted in 1950.

The maximum of 400 days between the date the President signs the bill and the date of the general election. The actual time could be less.

Hawaii Is Comprised of 8 Principal Islands, 613,000 Residents

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The soon-to-be new state of Hawaii is made up of eight principal islands about 2,200 miles west of San Francisco with a total area slightly larger than that of Connecticut and Rhode Island combined.

Its 613,000 residents are 85 per cent native-born American citizens of diverse racial and national backgrounds. Twenty-three per cent of the total population is caucasian, 37 per cent Japanese, 17 per cent Hawaiian and the remainder Filipino, Chinese, Korean and Puerto Rican.

Specifically excluded from the new state under the legislation enacted by Congress is Palmyra Island, a small family-owned atoll nearly 1,000 miles south of Honolulu, making it the longest county in the world.

The new state also will not include nearby Midway Island to the northwest nor Johnston and Sand Islands to the south nor Kingman Reef off Palmyra, all of which are U. S. owned.

From the standpoint of size and population, Hawaii's most important islands are Oahu, where Honolulu is located, Maui, Molokai, Lanai, Hawaii and Kauai.

Sugar and pineapple production and tourism are Hawaii's major industries. Last year 200,000 tourists spent nearly $3 million dollars in Hawaii.

Hawaiians last year paid $165,300,000 in federal taxes, more than the total from 10 other states.

NEW YORK (AP)—Flag makers are in a flutter.

With the admission of Alaska to the union, the flag manufacturers began turning out 48-star versions of Old Glory at top speed to have a big supply on hand when the new flags become official July 4.

Now with Hawaii about to become a state also, the manufacturers are in a dither over the possibility that a 50-star version will be needed even before those with 48 can be used.

Digby Chandler, president of one of the industry's largest firms, pleaded for postponement of adoption of the 50-star flag until July 4, 1960. "The flag industry faces ruin," he said.

Chandler said the industry already had turned out about 300,000 48-star flags.

"If we are forced to throw all these away and start making 50-star flags for next July 4 there will be no flag industry left."

The flag makers are hoping that statehood approval by the people of Hawaii, plus adoption of a new design by the President's flag committee, will take so much time that the 50-star version will be delayed beyond next July 4. That would mean another year's grace.

News Flash

MADRID (UPI)—A passenger plane of Spain's "Aviacion Y Comercio" airline crashed with 18 persons aboard while landing on the Mediterranean island of Minorca today. First reports of the accident reaching here said all aboard were believed injured but that none of the passengers were known to have been killed.

front of the leading hotels, and musicians bravely played on through the showers that damped garments, but not spirits.

The Pontiac tourists found the celebration "orderly," but gaily punctuated with cheering, horn-blowing and fire crackers. Laid-back celebrators filled bars where free champagne cocktails were served.

Waikiki Beach, like the rest of Hawaii, had closed up shop yesterday afternoon, beginning today's official holiday early.

Jet planes roared overhead, and Navy destroyers provided a bombardment, which the Pontiac couple missed. But the Navy promised to do it again today.

Around 6 p.m., before the rain, the press of the crowd in front of the Hotel Moana "was unbelievable," said Miss Lockman.

date for something, has not said which office he will seek.

Hawaiians will have other things to vote on, besides officers. They must decide:

1. Whether they want statehood; they voted for it 2-1 in a plebiscite 19 years ago, but they must vote again.

2. Whether to accept the boundaries defined by Congress. This excludes Palmyra Island, a tiny privately owned, coral atoll 960 miles south of Honolulu.

3. Whether to accept the federal land grants and reservations specified in the statehood bill.

Hawaii consists of eight major islands and a number of smaller ones with a total land area of 6,434 square miles. Hawaii would be the 49th state in size, bigger than Rhode Island, Delaware and Connecticut.

In population, Hawaii now outranks Alaska, Nevada, Wyoming, Vermont, Delaware and New Hampshire.

Although 85 per cent of the territory's residents are American citizens, the bulk of the population is of oriental and Polynesian native Hawaiian ancestry. In the 1950 census, Caucasians comprised 23 per cent. The largest ethnic group was Japanese, 36.9 per cent.

Opposition melted in the final hours of House debate. House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.), long a formidable opponent of Hawaii statehood, issued a statement congratulating Hawaii. He said the territory will be "an asset to the United States."

Charges of communism in Hawaii played a significant part in the final debate. But Chairman Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.) of the House Committee on Un-American Activities is convinced that under the new responsibilities of statehood, the patriotic people of Hawaii will break the hold of communism and labor leaders such as Harry Bridges and Jack Hall.

Residential Growth Keyed to Preparation covers are in part due to the inadequacy of the existing plant, Hennessy said.

Built piecemeal since 1919, it could handle 15 million gallons a day, with improvements, but at present is overwhelmed by a heavy storm, he said.

In response to questioning from the small audience of 50 persons, Willman said that no decision has been reached as yet by the City Commission as to whether the city will undertake more sewage service for fringe areas.

"What we propose to build is solely for the benefit of Pontiac," he said.

Another person questioned the $60,000 earmarked for a new administration building, equipped with a luncheon and washroom in addition to laboratories, office and maintenance areas.

"Working at a treatment plant is an unsanitary business," said Hennessy. "It's important that the men have a clean place to eat lunch and a place to wash their hands."

Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams, president of the council, expressed disappointment at the small turnout.

"As too often happens, the people of this community don't seem to care to learn about those issues on which they're going to vote in a few weeks."

Waikiki Goes Wild, City Vacationers Say

headlines of the islands' two newspapers reflected the excitement.

"STATEHOOD!" proclaimed the Honolulu Star-Bulletin in huge red letters. "YES!" was the even briefer announcement of the Honolulu Advertiser, referring to Congress' acceptance of Hawaii as the 50th state.

"Tension had been building up here all week," reported Miss Lockman, who flew in Sunday.

"Statehood was the talk everywhere. We can't get over the fact that we were fortunate enough to be here when the big moment came."

At 10 a.m. yesterday, minutes before the House in Washington followed the Senate in approving statehood, the Pontiac women were with a tour at peaceful International Cemetery, located in historical Punch Bowl Crater overlooking the beach and the bay.

Suddenly, the sound of air raid sirens came floating up from Waikiki Beach, signaling statehood.

As the tour bus headed down to the town, children lined the road, Miss Lockman said.

"They waived to us happily and called out, 'Thanks! Thanks for voting yes!'"

By the time the bus reached Waikiki Beach, the excited Hawaiians were already preparing for celebration, Miss Lockman said, with stores closing up, the schools closed, and hundreds of children filling the streets with shouts and cheers.

It wasn't until 3:30 a.m. this morning (8:30 a.m. Pontiac time) that the streets were quiet again, reported Miss Lockman by telephone to The Pontiac Press from her hotel room in the Reef Hotel.

Hawaiians were getting a little sleep before official festivities begin again today with thanksgiving ceremonies at Kawaiahae Church.

The Pontiac women hope to watch the procession of religious and civic leaders from Iolani Palace to the church.

They and thousands of other Hawaiians plan to gather this afternoon in Honolulu Stadium, where a five-hour variety show will be staged.

Storm Toll High in New England

List 22 Dead in Wake of Wind-Lashed Snow, Called Season's Worst

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A severe mid-March snowstorm which hammered the Northeast, crippling normal activities and leaving a heavy death toll, tapered off today.

The late winter storm, worst of the season, dumped more than a foot of snow in sections of New England and New York state. Light snow fell during the early morning in the extreme Northeast as the intense storm moved out into the Atlantic.

At least 22 deaths were attributed to the storm, which earlier had lashed areas in the Midwest.

Most of the deaths were attributed to heart attacks suffered while shoveling snow.

Huge cleanup jobs confronted the storm-battered sections. Strong winds which whipped the heavy snow covering into huge drifts slowed snow removal.

Falls ranged up to 22 inches in New Hampshire and Maine. The covering at Caribou, Maine, measured 34 inches, and was 26 inches at Rumford, Maine.

New York state, which was hit by a covering up to 18 inches in some places, was lashed by strong winds during the night, especially in eastern areas. Travel in many sections was halted. Four deaths in New York were blamed on the storm.

DR. EDWARD V. HOWLETT

Doctor's Funeral Set Tomorrow

Served as Physician and Surgeon in Pontiac for Nearly 50 Years

Service for Dr. Edward V. Howlett, a Pontiac physician and surgeon for nearly 50 years, will be held 3 p.m. Saturday at Donelson-Johns Funeral Home with Dr. William H. Marbach of First Presbyterian Church officiating.

Cremation will follow at White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Dr. Howlett died unexpectedly of a stroke yesterday at his home.

Long active in professional societies, Dr. Howlett had served as president of the Oakland County Medical Society and was a life member of the Michigan State Medical Society.

He became a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons and a Fellow of the Academy of International Medicine.

Dr. Howlett was born in Gregory Jan. 20, 1876. He was graduated from the University of Michigan Medical School in 1902.

Prior to coming to Pontiac in January 1910, he practiced in the community of Trimountain in the Upper Peninsula.

Two years later Dr. Howlett and Dr. Lucius E. Farnham joined offices.

A former chief of staff at Pontiac General Hospital, he took an active part in local civic affairs. He was a member of the Rotary Club of Pontiac and for many years an avid golfer at Orchard Lake and Pine Lake Country Clubs.

In his earlier years the doctor made an annual event of venturing to the Ten Buck Hunting Club near Alpena for a period of complete relaxation.

Other survivors include two sons, Dr. Robert R. Howlett of Caro and Lucius E. Howlett of Pontiac; two grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. G. A. Reid of Stockbridge and Mrs. Howard E. Marshall of Gregory.

The family said memorials may be made to the American Heart Assn.

Citizens Warned to Be on Alert for Bogus Bills

A warning to local citizens to be on guard against bogus bills which have been circulating increasingly in Pontiac the past week was issued today by Pontiac police detectives.

Bogus check passers are splitting bills lengthwise and passing them off to unsuspecting persons according to Detective John Williams.

The latest victim of the practice was a cab driver, Frank A. McDonald, of 844 N. Faddock St. He told police yesterday a customer handed him a $10 bill, then asked for its return after receiving his change because a phone number was written on the bill.

Then, McDonald told police, the rider carelessly tossed another $10 bill on the front seat and walked off.

Hours later when McDonald looked at the bill he saw that one side was part of a $10 bill, while the other was part of a $1 bill. Detectives today urged area residents to carefully examine all bills they receive.

Eastman Makes Announcement 3 Police Officers Promoted

The promotion of three Pontiac police officers was announced yesterday by Public Safety Director George D. Eastman.

Detectives Herbert C. Cooley and James LaPonsie were promoted to sergeant and Sgt. Ray E. Meggitt to lieutenant.

Cooley joined the police department on June 30, 1951, and was promoted in September 1955 to detective. He is a past president of the Pontiac Police Officers Assn.

LaPonsie, a police officer since June 19, 1949, was named a detective in July 1954.

Meggitt has been a Pontiac police officer since Feb. 18, 1946. He was made a sergeant in July of 1954.

The promotions marked the end of a long legal hassle between police officers and the city administration.

In a Circuit Court lawsuit, filed in June 1956, officers complained that City Manager Walter K. Willman and now suspended Police Chief Herbert W. Straley violated the State Civil Service Act by failing to promote them.

Bale and Goines were promoted Jan. 6.

On Feb. 10, Judge Adams granted the policemen's attorney, Paul W. Hart of Southfield, a motion to amend the original writ so as to spell out specifically which vacancies on the department the men must be promoted to.

By elevating Bale and Goines to positions created with the retirement of Claude A. Evans, the city was not complying with the writ, Judge Adams said.

59ers to Cross Canada Border

ALASKA PIONEERS HOPE TO PASS ALBERTA LINE ON TREK TODAY

SHELBY, Mont. (UPI)—Detroit's 59ers, a modern day group of 35 pioneers headed for Alaska, hoped to pass across the Canadian border today.

The 59ers, most of them riding new automobiles to be delivered in Alaska and some of them traveling in a 1934 moving van, were finding it easier going than did the 49ers of the past century.

Instead of raiding bands of Indians, the 59ers have been running into hospitable chambers of commerce.

In fact yesterday it was a true reversal of form when one Indian woman whipped out a camera and started taking pictures of the homesteaders.

The homesteaders arrived here last night after a 260-mile trip from Glasgow, Mont. The group planned to go through Canadian customs today at Coutts, Alberta.

The pioneers who didn't have house trailers spent the night in the Shelby Civic Center.

The worst the 59ers have had to deal with thus far in their 4,300-mile journey to Alaska's Kenai Peninsula is that 1934 model Reo van which has broken down a number of times and has needed a complete change of gears.

The homesteaders are working on a plan, however, to lick the slow pace maintained by the moving van.

They plan to send the van ahead of the convoy, traveling 24 hours a day with a station wagon and three men to act as drivers.

Gerber Firm Changes to Idle 700 for 6 Weeks

FREMONT (AP)—Some 700 Gerber Products Co. workers will be laid off March 28 when the firm closes for six weeks to remodel and install equipment.

Ernest M. Weisner, plant manager, said full production was expected to resume May 1 but added that cereal production and warehouse operations would continue normally during the shutdown.

Lenten Guideposts Hate Costly Prejudice

the committee formed the National Conference of Christians and Jews, and startled me by asking me to run it.

At our very first seminar I remember plastering the walls from floor to ceiling with hate posters I had collected, and the men who came were shocked into a first-time realization that such venom really existed in America, the cradle of tolerance.

At the suggestion of a Catholic priest, we began Brotherhood Week. It is now celebrated in 3,000 cities and towns and is a national institution, independent of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

In 1953, Elmo Roper completed a 12-year study of employee relationships in the U.S. He estimated the price of prejudice to American industry at $30 billion dollars a year in wasted manpower, production, and morale! That means that $10 out of every $75 paycheck is wasted on the phony luxury of indulging our prejudices. The figure cannot include the incalculable cost in human suffering and indignity.

"In his best moments every person feels the hand of God choosing him to work for the vision of brotherhood worldwide," Rabbi Le Baack said. "Each of us may be different but each of us, by the Grace of God, is of God's substance."

Every "other" I began to realize, is my brother. This lighted a new meaning in the term, "my fellow man." It gave fresh significance to the words of Jesus, which are usually translated "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." The exact meaning is, "Thou shalt love thy other; he is as thou."

When The Master taught that what is done to the poor, the needy, the sinful, is done to Him, Jesus was expressing this concept of the "other" being "my own other," "my brother." The Bible has it; the poor, the needy, the sinner, the saint is "thy poor," "thy needy," "thy sinner," "thy saint."

It is a truism, that freedom from hate always brings the individual happiness. The Master told us that there is only one family for the world—the family of man.

The Day in Birmingham 2 High School Students Win Traub Travel Grants

BIRMINGHAM — At a special Bloomfield Hills High School assembly yesterday, the two winners of the Robert C. J. Traub Memorial Scholarship Travel Fund were named for 1959.

Stephen Thomas Manhard, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Manhard, 4375 Oakgrove Rd., Bloomfield Hills, received the art award. Vocalist Penny Holloway, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Holloway, 876 Bloomcrest Dr., Bloomfield Township, was the winner from the music department.

School Superintendent Eugene Johnson said "that in addition to the winners, Clason Shumard and Sue Woodside, music and art students respectively, were named alternates."

Clason, 17, is the son of Mrs. Harry James, 20486 Cameron Dr., Detroit. Sue, also 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Woodside, 148 Linda Ct., Bloomfield Township.

Manhard has done cartoons for his school paper and is the art editor. He also is the St. Dunstan Guild Players poster artist, and has maintained a three-year "A" average in art at school.

Penny is a member of the school choir and her church choir and sings with the Popular Jills, high school specialty group.

Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor Traub established the fund in memory of her late husband. It permits two young people to spend a summer in Europe before entering college.

Group Criticizes State Hospitals

Pontiac, Northville 2 of Units Hit for Mixing Children, Adults

A survey by the Michigan branch of the American Assn. of University Women (AAUW) has criticized the housing of mentally ill children with adult patients at six state hospitals, including Pontiac and Northville State Hospitals.

The survey showed there are 73 children at the Pontiac hospital and 119 at Northville. Other figures showed 128 at Ypsilanti, 73 at Kalamazoo, 27 at Traverse City, and 25 at Newberry.

This mixing arrangement is harmful to both groups, the report said.

It said there was a total of 445 mentally ill children at the six institutions. In addition, the report goes on, some children are housed with delinquents at the Pontiac, Northville and Newberry hospitals.

The survey quotes one superintendent as saying this situation comes about because many courts send delinquent children under the mistaken belief they are mentally ill.

"This concurs," the report points out, "with the opinion of some probate judges that the diagnostic facilities available to the probate courts are insufficient."

Disc Data and Chatter

Music in the Round

by Dick Saunders

The Capitol people came along and turned a dull March into something worth talking about with the release of a new batch of LPs this week.

There's some good stuff here for the fan who buys his LPs with mood or dance music in mind. Heading the list are two nice Paul Weston LPs with equally appealing covers, "Music for Dreaming" (T-1154) and "Floatin' Like a Feather" (T-1153). The latter is light and bouncy with some unexpected soloists popping up here and there.

"Dancing - Smooth 'n' Easy" (T-1156) is strictly for the dancing crowd featuring the bands of Glen Gray, Freddy Martin, and Guy Lombardo. Another goodie for dancers is "The Joy of Living" (T-1148), by Nelson Riddle.

Kenyon Hopkins, a talented composer-arranger, has been given an album of his own, "Contrasting Colors" (T-1158), and he does well by it. Good for both dancing and listening.

Going to the ultra-relaxed, Jackie Gleason's Orchestra with two full string sections and Bobby Hackett's superb trumpet will have you drifting with their LP "That Moment" (W-1147).

For a quick brace the teenage crowd will find "Jackie Davis Meets the Trombones" (T-1180) good for a start and "Hey Boy! Hey Girl!" (T-1180) a full course rocker.

The latter LP is by Louis Prima & Kelly Smith with Sam Butera and the Witnesses who work together to create happy havoc with wild workouts on tunes from the motion picture of the same name.

We'll try and cover some of the Capitol vocal LPs of note, plus a few jazz items, at next week's meeting around the turntable spindle.

FIVE ACES: It's a far cry from the famed armless wonder, but "Venus" (Frankie Avalon) is first place among Pontiac area sellers this week in a close race.

The disc which has been red hot for several weeks has a battle on its hands this time with "Charlie Brown" (The Coasters), which made a strong bid for the top.

Third spot goes to "Tragedy" (Tom Wayne). A new disc in the upper crust and looking like a hot one is "Come Softly to Me" (The Fleetwoods), in fourth after failing to make the top five on its first time around.

Last place goes to "There'll Never Be Anyone Else But You" backed by "It's Late" (Ricky Nelson). Both sides are now selling and between them the record is doing very well.

Other educators are from Hillsdale, Lenawee, Macomb, Monroe and Washtenaw counties.

University faculty members and representatives of area schools planned the two-day conference, which is sponsored by the State Science Committee of the Department of Public Instruction.

Purpose of the workshop is to stimulate school district action for science and mathematics improvement and provide an opportunity for exchanging ideas on improving the content of such courses.

'He Tried Hiring Me to Murder His Wife'

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Wealthy business man Kris Albert is charged with offering a man $5,000 to kill his crippled wife.

Detectives said Miguel Angulo, a farmhand, told them Albert tried to hire him, saying: "She is very sick and it would be merciful to put her out of the way."

Pearl Albert, 46, a multiple sclerosis victim, said her husband once threatened her life and said she would be better off dead.

Albert, 46, of Beverly Hills, is free under $25,000 bond.

Housing Contracts Down

DETROIT (AP)—Future construction contracts for residential housing in the metropolitan Detroit area in January totaled $12,189,000, a decrease of 12 per cent over contracts in January 1958. F. W. Dodge Corp., building industry statisticians, said nonresidential building contracts in the same period totaled $10,796,000, down 42 per cent from contracts issued in January of 1958.

Balsa wood, said to be the lightest known, weighs only seven pounds to the cubic foot of measure.

GOP Supports Bill for Jobless

Dem Measure to Halt Cutoff of Benefits Is Drastically Changed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Republicans rallied today behind a drastically modified version of a Democratic plan to prevent a cutoff April 1 in jobless pay for an estimated 300,000 persons.

The bill, overwhelmingly approved by the House Ways & Means Committee yesterday, appeared to be assured of House passage Monday.

One key Republican said it was his guess that President Eisenhower would have no objection to the measure.

House Democratic leaders originally planned to seek a one-year extension of the emergency benefit program enacted by Congress last year as a stop-gap antirecession measure.

They even talked about giving Eisenhower power to cut off benefits after three months, thus handing him a political hot potato.

But the measure, which the committee approved simply would extend the program only for workers who file valid claims before April 1 and have some benefits left.

Those who exhaust state benefits after that date would get no extra payments.

Sentenced 6 Months for Starting Big Fire

ELLSBORO, Calif. (AP)—A judge has sentenced the son of a prominent Lake Elsinore family to six months in jail for starting one of California's largest brush fires with an incendiary bullet.

Jerry H. Stewart, 21, was also fined $150 and placed on three years probation by Judge Stanley S. Root.

The fire, which took one life, swept 66,000 acres in three counties in the Cleveland National Forest Area last Dec. 14-17.

Most of the U. S. highways bear even numbers for the east-west routes and odd numbers north-south routes.

Van Doren's Mother Baffled at Quiz Champ's Success

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mrs. Dorothy Van Doren, mother of quiz winner Charles Van Doren, is no expert on bringing up geniuses.

"It was a great surprise to me," she said about her son's $129,000 winnings on "Twenty One" in 1957. "Everyone wants to know how we did it, but I have no idea how to raise a quiz champ."

"Perhaps it was the kind of household. He was brought up in a reading family, interested in different things. We always ran to the dictionary to settle arguments."

The family did not pay attention to Charles' appearances on the show at first, but "then we heard so much about it, we had to watch. His father got so he couldn't bear to watch, and his brother, John, never did. John's wife would look, then go to another room to report what was happening."

Strangers plagued the Van Dorens with phone calls and letters. Would she want to go through the experience again?

NEVER AGAIN. "Never, never, never," she said. However, Mrs. Van Doren relived her son's exploits long enough to put them in her second book about her family, "The Professor and I" (Appleton-Century-Crofts), just published.

A plain, reserved woman with a smile that breaks her coolness, Mrs. Van Doren has written articles, and five novels, including "The Country Wife," also about her family.

Her husband, Mark, is a professor at Columbia University, has written novels and poems, and hopes to have a play, "The Last Days of Lincoln," produced next fall. Now semi-retired, he soon will retire completely.

"We don't want to make plans."

Sen. Hart Slates Talk

DETROIT (AP)—Sen. Philip A. Hart (D-Mich.) will be the main speaker at an Issues Day symposium March 21 in Detroit. The symposium is sponsored by the Wayne County Democratic business and professional committee.

We're just going to be free and easy," Mrs. Van Doren said. "I've always found my best time to write was when my husband was teaching. I don't know how it will be when he retires," she added with a twinkle in her eye.

She said she writes better in their Greenwich Village apartment than in their 12-room farmhouse in Cornwall, Conn., where they spend four months each year.

Mrs. Van Doren met her husband on the magazine, The Nation, when she was an editor. The couple will celebrate their 37th anniversary next fall.

"I worked until the children were half grown, then after four or five years' retirement, got another job. I've often wondered whether a working mother harms her children, but I decided it didn't do mine any harm," said Mrs. Van Doren.

Steels, Airlines Lead Market

NEW YORK (U.S. — Steels, airlines and selected issues were in demand as the stock market advanced in heavy early trading today.

Gains of leading stocks ran from fractions to about a point. There were many small losers among various groups including rails and coppers.

Ford dropped about a point on the news the Ford Foundation plans to sell another 2,000,000 shares of Ford Motor stock to the public.

Aveco was extremely active in the wake of news it had received more than 40 million dollars in new contracts in February. It opened on a huge block of 33,000 shares, up 1/4 at 14.

An unusual parade of very big blocks was traded, reflecting keen investment interest.

Tidewater Oil, which has risen on various rumors including that it had developed a new "smogless" gasoline with hit by profit taking and fell 1/4 at 26 on a delayed opening of 12,000 shares. The news was out on its new gasoline.

Other oils were narrowly mixed. Republic Steel and Lukens, with gains of a point or more, were about the best among steels. Aside from Ford, the auto group showed little change, Chrysler rising a fraction, General Motors lost a fraction while American Motors eased.

International Telephone rose about 2 after opening at 41 1/2, up 1 1/2 on 16,000 shares.

In a delayed opening, Thokol advanced 7 1/2 to 144 on 1,700 shares. Allied Chemical fell 2 1/2 to 106 on a block of 2,000 shares. Also delayed in opening, Zenith dropped 1 1/2 to 268 on 2,000 shares following yesterday's 26-point rise.

The ticker tape was late for a prolonged period under the rush of trading.

Opening blocks included: American Airlines up 1/4 at 30 1/2 on 15,000 shares; Braniff Airways up 1/4 at 17 1/2 on 12,000; Underwood up 1/4 at 30 on 4,000; General Motors unchanged at 45 1/2 on 4,000; Ford off 1/4 at 55 on 3,000; and American Telephone up 1/4 at 242 on 1,000.

ORDERED BY B&O RAILROAD — This is part of the fleet of 491 GMC trucks being put into service by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

Part of B & O's Large New Commercial Fleet

GMC Pickup Truck Can 'Ride the Rails'

Some 491 new GMC trucks—including a number of pickups especially equipped to "ride the rails"—are being put into service by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, according to R. C. Woodhouse, general truck sales manager of GMC Truck & Coach Division.

This is one of the largest commercial fleet orders ever placed with GMC Truck Division.

Each pickup has two retractable rail wheels at each end. When lowered, these hold the vehicle on the track and permit it to travel along the top of the rails on its standard wheels. With all four tires gripping the rails, the pickup rolls along like it would on a regular highway.

Many units are equipped with special devices for performing their work along rail right-of-ways. Sixty-nine of the stake trucks, for example, have winches mounted on the truck chassis and five have rear-mounted cranes.

Bonds Financed Trip to Sweden

Gustaf (Gus) Persson, native-born Swede and a Pontiac Motor employee since 1927, needs no reminder that the purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds through the payroll deduction plan is a mighty handy way to meet unexpected expenses.

Through use of the savings plan the V-8 plant employee and his wife, Hannah, were able to satisfy the recent request of Persson's aging parents in Sweden for "one last visit."

The Pontiac couple, who reside at 291 Starr St., spent 30 days abroad during the middle of last year.

"Thanks to the bonds we made two fine people very happy," Persson said. Mrs. Persson, who met her in-laws for the first time, was also able to visit the birthplace of her own father.

"The bonds took care of 50 per cent of our expenses," Persson revealed. "And we traveled nicely aboard the Swedish Kungsholm and Gripsholm ocean liners."

Many units are equipped with special devices for performing their work along rail right-of-ways. Sixty-nine of the stake trucks, for example, have winches mounted on the truck chassis and five have rear-mounted cranes.

Each pickup has two retractable rail wheels at each end. When lowered, these hold the vehicle on the track and permit it to travel along the top of the rails on its standard wheels. With all four tires gripping the rails, the pickup rolls along like it would on a regular highway.

A Success Story

Bonds Financed Trip to Sweden

Gustaf (Gus) Persson, native-born Swede and a Pontiac Motor employee since 1927, needs no reminder that the purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds through the payroll deduction plan is a mighty handy way to meet unexpected expenses.

Through use of the savings plan the V-8 plant employee and his wife, Hannah, were able to satisfy the recent request of Persson's aging parents in Sweden for "one last visit."

The Pontiac couple, who reside at 291 Starr St., spent 30 days abroad during the middle of last year.

"Thanks to the bonds we made two fine people very happy," Persson said. Mrs. Persson, who met her in-laws for the first time, was also able to visit the birthplace of her own father.

"The bonds took care of 50 per cent of our expenses," Persson revealed. "And we traveled nicely aboard the Swedish Kungsholm and Gripsholm ocean liners."

They Took Whole Shanty This Time

Ernest Russell of 5899 Tubbs Rd., White Lake Township, is a fisherman without a shanty today. Oakland County sheriff's deputies handle a string of shanty break-ins each winter, with losses ranging from fishing gear to small stoves, but today they are looking for a burglar who had bigger ideas.

Russell, who yesterday decided to make a sojourn to his shanty on Duck Lake, thought for a moment when he arrived at the favorite spot that he was on the wrong lake.

He told deputies someone had stolen the shanty and its contents including an oil stove. The loss was estimated at $500.
