LBJ Vows U.S. Help to 'Kennedy' Tariff Talks

GENEVA (AP) — President Johnson pledged United States help to bring the Kennedy round of tariff negotiations "to a happy and fruitful conclusion."

Former Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, the President's chief trade negotiator, delivered Johnson's message to the formal opening session today of the Kennedy round.

The session marked the beginning of a marathon tariff cutting effort by the 75 members of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) which is expected to continue for at least two years.

"Upon the opening of this meeting of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, an important and effective instrument for the expansion of world trade, I should like to send you the best wishes for success from the people of the United States," Johnson said.

"Your meetings, universally known as the Kennedy round, exemplify the hope and commitment of our late president to bring together the nations of the world in peaceful pursuits.

NECESSITY OF SUCCESS

"I believe, as he did, in the necessity of success in your work.

"We in the United States look upon these negotiations as an important opening to a better world.

"If we act together with dedication of purpose, all can gain and none need lose.

★ ★ ★

Not only the major commercial nations, but all the countries of this shrinking world — poor and rich alike — have the right to expect success from our endeavors.

FRUITFUL CONCLUSION

"For the United States, I can assure you that we shall spare no effort in seeking to help bring this meeting, and the meetings which will follow, to a happy and fruitful conclusion."

Hard bargaining on tariff cuts cannot begin before Sept. 10, authoritative sources said.

That is the date when 75 of the nations have tentatively agreed to submit their lists of exceptions—goods and products which they refuse to submit to blanket tariff cuts.

Herter's U.S. delegation has

Senate Bloc Fails in Bid to End Session

Anti-Romney Group Seems to Be Weaker in Adjournment Move

LANSING (AP) — In a surprise move, 14 senators —all members of the anti-Romney bloc formed in the Senate 12 days ago — tried unsuccessfully today to call off the Senate session.

The move apparently was aimed at preventing Republicans of both houses from adjourning the legislature tomorrow noon.

If the strategy was plotted by the bipartisan bloc which in a post - midnight revolt mustered 20 votes it appeared the coalition has weakened seriously.

Ten Republicans joined 10 Democrats in forming the 20-vote bloc, but today only four GOP senators joined with 11 Democrats in support of the adjournment motion of Minority Leader Raymond Dzendzel, D-Detroit.

Republicans of both houses would prefer adjournment by tomorrow noon so that whatever districting bills are enacted would be in effect in time for the Aug. 4 primary.

★ ★ ★

Also pending action is a bill to postpone the Aug. 4 primary until the early part of September.

Without two - thirds majorities in both houses to give immediate effect, it takes 90 days —beginning with final adjournment—for an act to take binding effect.

Gov. Romney indicated today he will call a special session if the legislature fails to act on "certain matters now pending before it."

Romney would not list the proposals to which he referred; but it appeared he meant congressional and legislative redistricting, related elections bills and a court of appeals bill.

The governor said he does not expect to be forced into ordering a special legislative session.

A plan to give Republicans and Democrats 52 "sure" seats per party in the Michigan House was to be submitted to party caucuses today.

Agreement on House apportionment was reached by a 14-member, bipartisan committee of representatives Saturday night. The remaining six seats could swing to either party in an election, a committee member said.

'AN HOUR'S PAY' — Labor and Pontiac Area United Fund leaders met Friday at the Community Services Building to discuss formation of a Labor Advisory Committee. A campaign theme "an hour's pay per month" was adopted. Attending the meeting were (from left) Fred V. U.S. Sees No Pullout of Rockets on Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department said today it has "no information indicating any change in the characteristics of the ground-to-air missiles installed in Cuba, despite published reports."

The statement was handed to reporters by Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of defense and the Pentagon's top spokesman. He was referring to accounts of a belief, current here, that the Soviet Union may have pulled its better rockets out of Cuba and deprived Fidel Castro of means to blast high flying spy planes from the skies.

When one reporter suggested the statement could be interpreted as other than a denial, Sylvester said:

"It's intended to be a denial."

A pullout of the higher-flying rockets would lessen the likelihood that the dispute with the Red-ruled island could erupt in a clash of arms.

★ ★ ★

It would go a long way toward explaining Prime Minister Castro's May Day statement that Cuba is alone in her dispute with the United States.

Castro has conceded that his armed forces cannot shoot down the high-flying American planes without the Soviet rockets.

Thus, when he said on May Day that "we will prevent these flights to the limits of what our weapons can do," he may have —in a veiled way—been revealing a new weapons limitation.

★ ★ ★

The Soviet rockets are a remnant of the 1962 arms and manpower buildup which reached crisis proportions when detected by U.S. intelligence.

★ ★ ★

Soon after a showdown that October, the Russians pulled out their intermediate range ballistic missiles and began reducing their armed forces.

SOON WITHDRAW

Two weeks ago, authorities here reported about 3,000 Russians remained on the island, but that they would soon be withdrawn, leaving in Cuban hands 24 antiaircraft missile bases equipped with Soviet rockets.

Now the word is that the missiles have been removed along with some troops, but that a large proportion of the military force remains.

Last week Washington reminded Cuba that reconnaissance flights would be continued. Castro, in turn, said the Cuban people no longer would tolerate them and Soviet Premier Khrushchev charged the flights threatened "the abyss of another war."

Still, although Castro implied force, he also said he would be patient and use all legal means to solve the problem. He is expected to carry his protest to the United Nations, starting with the Security Council.

Western diplomats in Havana reportedly believe Castro will steer clear of a showdown with the United States for at least several months.

Vote Recount Set Tomorrow

The recount of votes cast for District 7 candidates in the April 20 general city election is scheduled to get under way at City Hall tomorrow.

The candidates, their legal counsel and appointed observers, will meet with the Oakland County Board of Canvassers and other officials at City Hall at 10:30 a.m., according to County Clerk - Register David R. Calhoun.

Former Mayor Robert A. Landry, requested the recount of votes cast for himself and two other District 7 candidates in all of the city's 43 precincts.

The other candidates were Curtis L. Webb and Emmett S. Wellbaum. Webb was on the ballot with Landry, and Wellbaum ran as a write-in candidate.

★ ★ ★

Wellbaum won by a 351-vote margin over Landry with Webb finishing third in the balloting.

The recount may take several weeks to complete. Calhoun estimated the board can count votes on "four machines or better per day."

The mill pond is at the rear of Thomas' house.

Thomas had been in the water for about five minutes when he began screaming for help, his companions said, but they were unable to locate him because of the darkness.

Mercury Up; Rain on Way

Today and tomorrow temperatures will reach nearly 80 degrees, Pontiac's highest since April 17.

However, there's a cloudy lining to this silvery forecast. Over the next five days, precipitation is expected to total one-half to three-quarters of an inch in scattered showers or thundershowers Wednesday through Friday.

Other than occasional dampness, beautiful weather should continue with temperatures predicted to average 6 to 8 degrees above the normal high of 65 and low of 46. Cooler temperatures are anticipated toward the end of the week.

Before 8 this morning, temperatures dropped to 48, but by 2 p.m. they had climbed to 79.

2 Big Names on Ballot in Ohio Contest

Eye Voter Reaction to Ailing John Glenn, 'Liberal' Robert Taft

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The feeling in Ohio today is that anything might happen in the Democratic and Republican primaries tomorrow.

By all the odds, Sen. Stephen M. Young, who is observing his 75th birthday today, should win renomination handily.

But there is the intriguing question of how a famous name on the Democratic ballot—that of ailing astronaut Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. — will fare.

In the Republican contest, Rep. Robert Taft Jr. has all the betting on his side in a contest with Secretary of State Ted W. Brown for the GOP senatorial nomination.

★ ★ ★

But here, too, there is the rather unbelievable issue of whether the son of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, who was known as Mr. Republican, is too liberal to succeed his famously conservative father.

MAN NOT THERE

The New Hampshire primary seemed to prove that, as far as it concerned Republicans, the man who wasn't there fared best in a presidential contest.

Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, half a world away in Saigon, South Viet Nam, walked off with the state's 14 delegates in a tremendous write-in surge.

The situation in Ohio is comparable only in the fact that Glenn has not been able to campaign because he fell against a bathtub in Columbus late in February and developed an inner ear disturbance which he announced would not permit him to run or to accept nomination even if the voters gave it to him.

★ ★ ★

The Ohio voters are going to have their say on several questions.

Does a famous name and personality override in the average citizen's mind the service that may have been given to him by a sitting senator?

Is there what might be called a therapy vote by those who think it might help Glenn's ear condition if they said they wanted him for their senatorial nominee.

'Birch Vote Sought by Wallace'

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Gov. Matthew E. Welsh charged in his presidential primary campaign windup today that Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace is begging for a Republican crossover and soliciting John Birch Society support in tomorrow's voting.

Welsh said in his final news conference that Wallace can count on the support of any Ku Klux Klan remnants in Indiana "or members of the White Citizen's Council which is precisely the same thing."

See Stories, Page 10

The Indiana governor, running as a stand - in for President Johnson declined to make any prediction on the percentage of Democratic votes Wallace might receive.

Wallace has campaigned chiefly on a theme of "state's rights" and against the pending civil rights bill.

★ ★ ★

Welsh told a questioner that while there would be some Republican crossover, "it will not be massive."

VOTE CHALLENGE

The Democratic local organizations throughout the state have been told to challenge any suspected crossover voters.

Wallace, meanwhile, was making his last scheduled campaign bid at a noon serv-

Hassle Starts Over Sound Truck

NAACP Pickets GM in Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—A reported 200 to 300 civil rights demonstrators began picketing the General Motors Corp. headquarters building today.

★ ★ ★

Police said the demonstration, sponsored by the NAACP, was orderly at its start.

Arthur Johnson, a spokesman for the NAACP Detroit branch, said the six-hour demonstration would reach its peak shortly after 4 p.m. when he said hundreds of workers would join the picket line.

The picketing was centered on the front side of the block-long GM headquarters and under police rules, marchers had to walk single file in two separate lines on each side of the building entrance.

★ ★ ★

A heated argument developed between Johnson and other NAACP leaders with police over the presence of an NAACP sound truck with trailer attachment in front of the building, normally a no-parking area.

NO PLATFORM

Johnson said Police Commissioner Ray Girardin, who issued the demonstration permit, had turned down a request for a platform to be built on the sidewalk in front of the building but had imposed no other restrictions.

Johnson told his men "leave the sound truck right where it is. We won't move it. If the Detroit police want to move it, they'll have to tow it away."

Both Johnson and police at the scene were trying to contact Girardin for a ruling.

The signs carried by pickets said "GM Crow Must Go," "GM Job Practices Unfair."

An open truck filled with prepared signs for the marchers to carry drove up in front of the GM headquarters building, but police told the driver to move on as his picketing permit was not effective until noon. Police said at that time the demonstrators could distribute their signs and turn on their sound truck.

★ ★ ★

Several groups of pickets stood around waiting for distribution of their signs while four pickets began an informal march with homemade signs.

The NAACP said it was protesting what it has referred to as GM's "lily white" personnel policy.

To Close East Pike Tomorrow

East Pike, prematurely closed for Clinton River Drain construction a month ago and later reopened, will again be closed to traffic between Mill and the Perimeter Road tomorrow morning.

★ ★ ★

The last time it was closed, barricades were removed when construction crews were needed at other points on the river, and work on the East Pike bridge was delayed.

The East Pike bridge is next to Pontiac's Main Public Library at 60 E. Pike.

At the same time, said City Traffic Engineer Joseph Koren, East Huron will be closed to through traffic from Mill to Union.

He estimated that both streets will remain closed for five to eight weeks for river work.

UNION OPEN

"However, Union should be opened to traffic between Mount Clemens and East Huron sometime Wednesday," Koren added.

That stretch of Union has been closed for several weeks.

Persons trying to gain access to City Hall and the Public Safety Building from the west can take Water Street to the Perimeter Road to Pike, or Mount Clemens to Union to Pike.

LBJ Pledges U.S. Help to Tariff Talks

congressional authorization to seek across-the-board tariff cuts of 50 per cent.

The United States probably will consider itself fortunate to win tariff cuts of 30 to 40 per cent, informants said.

In a brief opening speech, Herter complained that the long preliminary talks have made little progress in dealing with farm products, considered essential to the negotiations by Washington.

Nor, he said, has anyone come to grips with other barriers to international trade.

A high U.S. official said a pledge may still be sought to set a goal of 50 per cent in tariff reductions, but he was far from optimistic of winning such a cut.

SIXTH MEETING

The meeting is the sixth worldwide conference since 1947.

The late President John F. Kennedy set the stage for the conference by pushing through Congress the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, which gave him the right to cut U.S. tariffs by as much as 50 per cent in exchange for reciprocal concessions.

One of his principal objectives was to keep the European Common Market open to U.S. products, thereby linking the Atlantic community economically as well as politically and militarily.

French President Charles de Gaulle struck this design a sharp blow last year when he barred Britain's entry into the Common Market, and French objections are likely to be a major stumbling block in the negotiations ahead.

FRENCH AGRICULTURE

De Gaulle is unlikely to allow American products to make further inroads on the markets for French agriculture or industry.

He will exert strong pressure on other members of the Common Market — West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—through his finance minister, Valery Giscard d'Estaing.

Only Bruised in Plane Crash

A Brighton pilot and his Bloomfield Township passenger escaped serious injury yesterday afternoon when their airplane crashed at Spencer Airport in Wixom.

Clarence E. Stites, 48, told Wixom police he was taking off from the airport when the cowling of his Cessna 170A tore loose and began flapping in front of the windshield.

With the plane about 300 feet off the ground, Stites made a sharp turn back toward the field. The engine stalled about 30 feet above the ground and the plane crashed to the right of the runway.

The plane, which spun around several times after its landing gear collapsed, was totally demolished in the accident, police said.

They reported Stites and his passenger, E. R. Foxworthy of 4845 Tullamor, Bloomfield Township, suffered minor bruises.

Transport Strike Threatens Dominican Republic Junta

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—A threat to the Dominican Republic's seven-month-old ruling junta appears to be developing from a transport strike which touched off violence in the capital.

★ ★ ★

Police failed to halt demonstrations Sunday that accompanied the strike of taxi and bus drivers.

Unruly crowds burned tires, smashed bottles and dumped garbage in Santo Domingo streets.

STRIKE ILLEGAL

The government declared the drivers' strike illegal, saying it was politically motivated and that the union had failed to give written notice stating the date and reasons for a strike.

Repeated government radio broadcasts warned the public that a 1962 decree of national emergency still was in effect. The decree authorized deportation of any person endangering public order by agitation or subversion.

Military leaders ousted President Juan Bosch Sept. 25, accusing him of being soft toward the Communists. The military then relinquished control to a three-man civilian junta.

The present triumvirate — Donald Reid Cabral, Manuel Tavares Espaillat and Ramon Caceres Troncoso—is regarded as conservative and anti-Communist.

The transport workers struck in protest against three recent junta decrees.

These banned public meetings without authorization, increased duties on a wide range of imports, including automobiles and auto parts, and authorized the police to seize licenses of drivers involved in traffic violations.

"Extremist political forces and certain economic interests" were blamed by the newspaper El Caribe for the strike. It did not identify the interests.

In Puerto Rico, where he has lived in exile since the coup, Bosch told a newsman, "The people are very much disgusted with the chaos and injustice which has followed the military coup which ousted my government."

The campaign which provided a national dramatization of the civil rights issue and the civil rights bill now before the Senate is expected to send a presidential primary record total of voters to the polls tomorrow.

Turnout estimates ranged up to 500,000 for each of the two parties for a total of a million or more.

Both Welsh and Wallace had nearly completed their personal appearance schedules over the weekend.

Wallace, who has campaigned for a protest vote against the civil rights bill and for states' rights, spoke yesterday morning in the Fremont Baptist Church at Crawfordsville while orderly pickets paraded outside.

The press secretary said the trip was planned to give the President another opportunity to inspect the Appalachian area in connection with his antipoverty program.

More Rioting in Soviet Bloc

Red Youths Bar Path to Church in Sofia

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—The Soviet bloc's second riot in three days broke out in Sofia as Communist youths blocked the path of Bulgarian Orthodox churchgoers en route to Easter Mass.

Youth group demonstrations during Prague's May Day celebration Friday turned into battles with Czechoslovak police and resulted in 31 announced arrests.

The official Czech news agency, CTK, confirmed the disturbances in Prague, but Bulgarian government agencies remained silent about the clashes in Sofia.

Reports from Sofia said hundreds of churchgoers had been involved in clashes with both police and Communist youths.

ENTRANCES BLOCKED

Entrances to Aleksander Nevsky Cathedral in Sofia were blocked by youths shouting atheist slogans. Police closed the cathedral doors to prevent incidents, and the fighting ensued.

Patriarch Cyril, spiritual leader of the Bulgarian Orthodox Church, was to have celebrated the Resurrection Mass, climax of the Orthodox Easter celebration.

An announcement said the patriarch was ill, and Bishop Nikolai, rector of the Academy of Theology, had taken the patriarch's place.

In Prague CTK said the 31 persons under arrest had been charged with disturbing the peace. The news agency denied reports received outside Czechoslovakia that university students had led the rioting against the police.

CTK said only one of the 31 arrested was a university student and that this "disproves the irresponsibility of agency reports which suggested that Prague University and college students were the instigators and main participants in the incident."

3,000 STUDENTS

Reports received in Vienna said 3,000 students had participated in the rioting in Kinsky Park, where they had gathered for traditional May Day poetry reading.

The reports, relayed by diplomatic sources, said the violence had bordered on open revolt. They said the students had shouted antigovernment slogans after police had ordered them to disperse.

CTK, however, said an official investigation had showed that "small groups of young people, mostly employed in Prague and numbering approximately 100, tried to disturb the peace by shouting and behaving in a foolish manner."

Train-Truck Crash Fatal for Man, 50

IMLAY TOWNSHIP — A 50-year-old Oak Park man was killed here early today when the pickup truck he was driving was struck by a train and pushed along the tracks for a half mile.

Lapeer County sheriff's deputies said Phillip Greener of 24651 Scotia was crossing the tracks on Doran when the mishap occurred, shortly after 6 a.m. Greener was alone in the vehicle.

There are no warning signals where the tracks cross the gravel road, about three miles east of Imlay City.

Police are continuing their investigation of the accident.

Singer Really Sends 'Em

Teens Riot at English Estate

LONDON (AP) — "It was wonderful, and it was hell," said the Marquess of Bath after the teen-age riot at his stately home.

A mob of 10,000 juveniles broke through barriers and laid siege to Longleat, the Baths' 16th Century country home.

Seven were injured, one seriously. Forty fainted.

Damage was estimated at 500 pounds ($1,400).

The teen-agers were after one of their idols, a singing guitarist named Billy J. Kramer and his group known as the Dakotas.

POP CONCERT

The 10,000 had paid 35 cents each yesterday for a sundown pop concert outside Longleat, one of Lord Bath's schemes to help pay the expenses of his big place.

Things were fairly orderly until Billy J. swung into his hit song, "Little Children."

With a chorus of shrieks, the mob surged forward, breaking the barriers.

Billy J. and the Dakotas fled into the house as Lord Bath, 49, and members of his family battled with the fans. Finally, with blood running down his hand, his lordship and his grown sons retreated inside and barred the ancient oak doors.

City Manager Still Firm on Rubbish Agreement

BIRMINGHAM — Rebids on the city's rubbish disposal contract have not changed City Manager L. R. Gare's opinion of the request of the present contractor.

★ ★ ★

Gare will recommend to the City Commission again tonight that the agreement with the Detroit Rubbish Co. continue to be enforced.

I. J. Giacolone, owner of the firm, asked the commission in February to renegotiate his contract or relieve him of it.

The agreement provides that the firm collect residential rubbish from Jan. 1, 1963, to Dec. 31, 1965.

★ ★ ★

Cost to the city was to be $152,000 plus a 7½-cent fee per residence per week for rear door garbage pickup.

COST INCREASE

Giacolone in February reported his business costs had increased 40 per cent since he bid on the work.

Gare maintained that if the contract were rebid, there would be little use in the city's taking bids on any future work.

The commission in April authorized Gare to seek the new bids.

The three bids for the 18-month period left in the contract ranged from $111,456 to $129,600.

FORMER DECISION

Gare plans to stick by his former decision and make no recommendation on the new bids.

Also to be considered by the commission at their 8 p.m. meeting is a $1,939,711 proposed budget for fiscal 1964-65.

The budget requiring a 17.2-mill levy would cost taxpayers no more than the present one, which is $70,348 lower than the proposed figure.

Miss Marion E. Goodale, headmistress of Kingswood School Cranbrook in Bloomfield Hills, recently was elected to the executive committee of the Independent School Association of the Central States.

★ ★ ★

Her election marks the first time a woman has been named to the committee.

Dr. Donald C. Somers

Service for Dr. Donald C. Somers, 62, of 4205 Valley Forge, Bloomfield Township, will be 11 a.m. tomorrow in the William Sullivan & Son Funeral Home, Royal Oak. Private burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Dr. Somers, an orthopedic surgeon and breeder and racer of standard-bred harness horses, died Saturday after an illness of several weeks.

★ ★ ★

He was a staff member of Harper Hospital, Detroit; Highland Park General Hospital; and William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak.

He was also a member of the American Medical Association, Wayne and Oakland county medical societies and the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons.

Surviving are his wife, Catherine M.; a son, David P. of Royal Oak; a daughter, Mrs. Roland B. Calhoun of Glencoe, Ill.; a brother; a sister; and five grandchildren.

Witnesses said it looked as if the princess hit almost 120 miles an hour on the broad highway.

Order Test for Intruder on Romney

LANSING (AP)—The Ingham County prosecutor's office today obtained a probate court order for a psychiatric examination of Charles P. English.

★ ★ ★

English, 37, of Bogota, Colombia, was arrested Friday by state police when he tried to enter Gov. George W. Romney's office in the State Capitol. Police said they found a loaded revolver in English's attache case and a knife on his person.

★ ★ ★

Thomas Skehan, chief assistant prosecutor, said State Police Sgt. Steve Galat asked for the examination order.

★ ★ ★

Two psychiatrists will examine English today, either at Ingham County Jail at Mason or St. Lawrence Hospital at Lansing, Skehan said.

EXTEND LIMIT

If the psychiatrists say English needs treatment, Skehan said, a detainer order expiring at 5 p.m. can be extended. A mental hearing then would be scheduled, he said, and English would be advised of his right to retain an attorney or demand a jury trial.

★ ★ ★

Merger Brings Confusion

Laos Leader Acts in Coup

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Neutralist Premier Souvanna Phouma flew to the pro-Communist Pathet Lao's headquarters in the Plaine des Jarres area today, trying to unravel the tangled situation created by the right-wing coup.

Souvanna was expected back later in the day — weather permitting — after a discussion with his half-brother Prince Souphanouvong, the Pathet Lao leader.

Prince Souvanna was accompanied by British and Soviet envoys representing the cochairmen of the 1962 Geneva Conference that treated Souvanna's coalition government.

Britain and Russia and the United States have repudiated the coup led by Gens. Kouprasith Abhay and Siho Lanphatacoul, who have demanded that Souvanna reorganize his cabinet along lines they have proposed.

* * *

Souphanouvong has denounced the coup and has refused to deal with its leaders. Souvanna was expected to try to get Souphanouvong to support him on the basis that the right wing has merged with his neutralist faction.

REMAIN ADAMANT

However, the feeling in Vientiane generally was that Souphanouvong would remain adament. A Pathet Lao spokesman said the right wing-neutralist merger announced by Souvanna Saturday actually meant the rightists had swallowed up Souvanna's group.

* * *

There was fear in Vientiane that the Pathet Lao would use the confusion created by the coup to expand their sphere of influence, which already covers about two thirds of Laos.

Girl Dies, 30 Hurt in Lebanon Election

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — A 14-year-old girl was killed by gunfire and about 30 persons wounded in the final round of elections for Lebanon's new Parliament.

Despite the death, the second in Lebanon's instalment plan elections, Beirut papers said balloting was orderly in south Lebanon, near the border of Israel.

* * *

The reports gave no details of the shootings, which took place in remote villages. Some injuries were reported caused by supporters of rival candidates throwing stones at each other.

Nehru Leaves Capital; First Trip Since Stroke

Schools Seek Mills, Bonds

Rochester Vote Today on Building, Budget

ROCHESTER — Voters of the Rochester School District today will determine the fate of a scheduled 30-classroom expansion program and a tentative 1964-65 budget of $2,668,817.

The ballot questions seek permission to renew a 2-mill levy and to issue $1.5-million in bonds. However, both the budget and building plans are contingent on voter okay of the two proposals.

If passed, the 2-mill levy would continue for five years. It would not cost district residents any additional tax money, although it brings in approximately $120,000 of the school budget.

The Rochester school board, school administrators and several local civic organizations have taken strong positions in favor of the two issues.

★ ★ ★

On the other side of the fence, a group led by former board member John Patterson opposes both proposals, on grounds neither is required for efficient school operation.

The polls will remain open until 8 p.m.

Boys Exposed to Radiation

Parents Watch 16 for Possible Ill Effects

NEW YORK (AP) — The parents of 16 boys kept an anxious eye of the youngsters today for signs they might have suffered ill effects from playing near a radioactive device.

★ ★ ★

The boys, aged 10 to 14, were rushed to a hospital Sunday after they were spotted playing near an X-ray machine being used to test for flaws in steel beams in construction of the new Metropolitan Opera House.

The examining physician at Roosevelt Hospital said that in cases of radioactive exposure where there is no nausea or external burns, there is no test that could determine whether there was any injury.

UNUSUAL SYMPTOMS

He released the boys to their parents, telling them that if the children developed any unusual symptoms they would be returned to the hospital.

The X-ray device, contained in a lead box the size of an overnight case, is used only on Sundays when there are no workers about.

★ ★ ★

Two technicians operating the machine said they were about 150 feet away—the minimum safety distance—when they spotted the boys playing near it. Some were only a few feet away, they said.

The technicians said the device generates 800 milliroentgens of radiation, and that anything over two milliroentgens is considered unsafe.

The construction site on the grounds of the Lincoln Center for Performing Arts is surrounded by a wooden fence, and is patroled by private guards.

It Seems to Me . . . .

Nixon Steadily Increasing as Possible GOP Candidate

As we approach the GOP convention, RICHARD NIXON continues to stand quietly in the wings, gaining slowly but steadily. No one can accurately forecast what that heterogeneous mob of delegates will do; in fact they don't know themselves. But several things are becoming apparent.

★ ★ ★

Barry Goldwater will enter with approximately 600 actually committed according to current estimates. Nomination requires 655. However, his opponents assert that unless he receives the official nod on the first few ballots he's done. They feel his chances of acquiring additional strength are slim. The "liberal" section of the Eastern U. S. doesn't cotton to Goldwater. Still, the stout Arizona contingent asserts that there are many delegates who will spring to his banner when his early strength is flaunted before the convention.

★ ★ ★

Gov. ROCKEFELLER's chances are ebbing away. "ROCKY" is still giving it the old college try, but his appeal seems to have lessened. There can always be a reversal and no one can foretell how the uncommitted hordes will vote. Gov. SCRANTON, of Pennsylvania, has been playing it with admirable restraint and has been sufficiently coy to intrigue some of the powers. As things stand now, he lacks the strength for an all-out run for the wire. Our own GEORGE ROMNEY has his hands full in Michigan and his recalcitrant nincompoops in the legislature need another term of a forceful, determined leadership right here.

★ ★ ★

Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge is in the peculiar position of a man contesting for a nomination thousands and thousands of miles away with no "public appearances." Either would appear to be an insurmountable obstacle, but he "hangs in there" persistently and has a widening circle of admirers.

And how about NIXON?

Well, he's edging forward.

NIXON probably has more sheer ability to lead his ticket than any of the contenders and he is equipped beyond the Democratic opposition. He stands out as the "poor man's candidate," according to The Chicago Tribune. Our immediately past president came from one of the wealthiest families in the Nation. ROCKEFELLER occupies the same niche. LYNDON JOHNSON and LADY BIRD are many times millionaires and SCRANTON is really wealthy. If NIXON wins the nomination he will need plenty of financing, but that shouldn't be a major obstacle. It's the man himself that counts. And right there RICHARD NIXON has great stature.

Humphrey's Idea . . . .

Sen. HUBERT HUMPHREY himself mentioned several times as a possible candidate for the Vice Presidency along with LBJ, offers an interesting possibility.

★ ★ ★

Says he:

"How about Janey Hart?"

The Minnesota Senator explains that Oakland County's Janey Hart "has eight children, pilots her own plane and has passed the exam for astronauts." In fact, she requested the late JFK to put her on the list scheduled for outer space.

Just think: this vice president could settle down at the controls of the Presidential helicopter or orthodox plane and whisk him anywhere he wanted to go. It was President JOHNSON's own idea to put women in jobs and occupations previously held by men.

List Mrs. HART among the possibilities.

Not Quite Fair . . . .

The Senate Democrats who hush-hush this BOBBY BAKER case are sinking to a lowly level.

WALTER JENKINS, an aide to President JOHNSON, is charged with possessing valuable knowledge, but the Republican minority has been absolutely unable to flush him out of the bushes into the open. His donkey compatriots have the cloak of secrecy draped about him at all times.

★ ★ ★

This is quite in contrast to the SHERMAN ADAMS' case which arose under EISENHOWER. He accepted modest gifts from industrialist BERNARD GOLDFINE. Nothing was concealed. The Republicans uncovered all the facts and SHERMAN ADAMS was abruptly thrown out of the White House into Pennsylvania Avenue where he bounced a couple of times and then skidded to a halt against a trash barrel.

★ ★ ★

Tycoon GOLDFINE was ruthlessly exposed in every detail, to the point he collapsed completely and lost his possessions.

★ ★ ★

The voters were entitled to know what had transpired and the GOP aired the whole smelly mess. Now, with the shoe on the other foot, the Democrats are scurrying for cover to conceal the participation by a Presidential aide. Their ultimate report may center on poor Bobby but his associations and his gallavanting in wrong places will remain as deep and dark a secret as the Dems can make them.

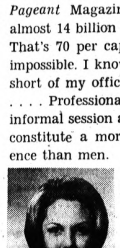
Fair play?

What do you think?

And in Conclusion . . .

Jottings from the well-thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

Scientists have spotted a group of stars never before seen and are absolutely flabbergasted to discover that they're traveling nearly 100,000 miles a second. They're the most distant objects yet discovered. How absolutely little we know about the universe. . . . . Sign on a high school sidewalk: "John loves Mary, Sue, Edith, Pearl, Gladys and Louise." . . . . According to Pageant Magazine, Americans ate almost 14 billion hot dogs last year. That's 70 per capita and it sounds impossible. I know I'm two or three short of my official quota. . . . . Professional comedians in an informal session agreed that women constitute a more responsive audience than men.



JUDY

Trusted scouts advise me that Judy Smith is one of the especially attractive young women in the area. . . . . The Nation's most talented and accomplished pickpockets and purse snatchers have descended upon the World's Fair in New York in full force. The elite of the nefarious trade will be in operation daily. . . . . . Overheard: "I told my wife she was overdrawn and she said she wasn't either. We were simply under-deposited." . . . . . Some weather students assert we have just completed the coldest, longest, meanest winter in modern history. Shucks. Who's sure it's over?

★ ★ ★

The Dodgers won the pennant and slaughtered the Yanks in the World Series, but they won't even win the title in their own league this year. That's from the horse's mouth. . . . . RUDY VALLEE, old-time radio favorite and recent Broadway star, will bring a summertime TV series in July. The show will feature professional performers "on the brink of stardom." . . . . . Overheard: "My neighbor's boy's so well adjusted she lets him walk to the psychiatrists' all alone." . . . . . Dept. of Cheers and Jeers: the C's —Pontiac's bowling champions ;the J's — Queen JULIANA for not attending her daughter's wedding.

It Makes An Elephant Yelp, Too

David Lawrence Says:

Jury Trial Change Needs Study

WASHINGTON — What's the "jury trial amendment" to the civil rights bill all about?

On its face, it seems to be a question of whether a person who could be put in jail on a charge of contempt of court should have the right to trial by a jury.

Would a person prefer to have judgment passed on him by a jury of 12 citizens or by just one individual —a judge?

This is not an easy question to answer.

For sometimes a jury is not able to understand the fine points of the law and may make a mistake, whereas a judge who is familiar with all the intricacies of the statutes would presumably do a better job — though often some judges seem to be politically minded.

Basically, the whole controversy arises now in connection with civil rights because of a fear that juries in the South may not administer justice as it should be.

But the legislation pending in the Senate is designed to cover citizens in all parts of the country and to secure justice for everybody — not just people in one section.

WHAT IS CONTEMPT?

What constitutes "contempt?" It involves disobedience of an order issued by the court or else misbehavior inside a courtroom.

There seems to be universal acceptance of the idea that any disorder inside a courtroom should be punished by the judge without any jury trial.

There is a distinct difference of opinion, however, as to what should be done with respect to disobedience of a court order outside the courtroom.

The issue as it is being debated in Congress is a very serious one.

It is something that ought to be given many months of deliberation instead of just a few days.

It strikes at the root of the American system of justice.

It is evident that neither side is all wrong or all right on this issue and that serious consideration should be given to the whole matter because it involves a precedent of far-reaching importance.

POLITICAL PRESSURES

It is just one of a number of civil rights measures that are being rushed through Congress because of political pressures and intimidation by threats of violence or street demonstrations.

★ ★ ★

This is not the proper way to enact legislation dealing with fundamental principles of justice.

Bob Considine Says:

Red Spy in U.S. Finds Job Is Blank-ety Tough

NEW YORK—There's a general belief that Russia does not need a very extensive spy system in this country because Americans print, broadcast or yap about everything they know.

Well, yes and no.

Picture, if you will, the delight of Soviet agent X-19 when in course of tip-toeing stealthily through the sales department of the Government CONSIDINE Printing Office, he finds and purchases the 589-page report succinctly entitled "Department of Defense Appropriations for 1965—Part 3—Procurement."

X-19 flips his lid, then flips through the index, and there's what he's looking for: Minuteman program—pages 108-112.

Then picture, if you will, the poor slob's mounting dismay as he hungrily reads from the hearings by Rep. George H. Mahon's subcommittee of the Committee on Appropriations as it questioned the Air Force's deputy chief of staff for systems and logistics, Lt. Gen. Thomas P. Gerrity:

Congressman: Will you eventually replace all Minuteman I's with II's?

Gen. Gerrity: We have programmed —— Minuteman I's to be replaced with II's.

Congressman: As against that —— inventory, how many do you have now?

Gen. Gerrity: We have already procured —— Minuteman I's.

Congressman: Will you get any —— in the next fiscal year?

Gen. Gerrity: They will come in starting in ——.

Congressman: ——?

Gen. Gerrity: That is right.

Congressman: What is the significance of the —— miles? Who are you mad at —— miles away?

Gen. Gerrity: ——!

Congressman: How many targets can you preset in each missile?

Gen. Gerrity: ——.

X-19 whips out pistol, starts playing Russian Roulette.

Voice of the People:

'LBJ Will Lose Election for Lifting Dog by Ears'

President Johnson will never win the election for that stunt of pulling a dog up by its ears. I liked the man before, but he is going to be surprised at the dog lovers who will turn against him. I've never read or heard of such a thing. Those hunters must be a bunch of sadists.

'Board Clarifies Library Position'

I recently found that Waterford Board members were making themselves clear on an issue under discussion — the library. A Mr. Peters seemed to probe to see whether or not he was right. He appeared to be a sort of technical troublemaker and called Mr. Coleman's remarks indignant. Mr. Coleman's statement was in no way indignant. He was very effective in making his point clear. The board does not need a referendum or vote by the people to pass what it feels is an adequate proposal.

I do respect Mr. Peters for admitting his lack of knowledge of the library case.

Complains About Hospital Experience

I have heard complaints about Pontiac General Hospital and wonder how many people have had the same experience we did. My son was scheduled for surgery and the hospital was to inform him what time to come. On the date scheduled he called at 9:30 a.m. and was told they would call back at 12:30. After numerous delays and promises to call back the doctor's secretary telephoned saying the operation was canceled because a room was not available.

★ ★ ★

The assistant administrator explained that they only have 381 beds—all full, and emergencies are taken care of first. This I can understand, but how many beds do they need to hold?

★ ★ ★

My son needs this operation very badly and will have to go to another doctor so he can get a room—not at Pontiac General. Do some doctors have preference or does the hospital personnel run the show?

My son had already made arrangements for a two-week leave from his job and the Army Reserve. If a patient is unable to keep an appointment, he is expected to pay, but how about the patient's loss of time?

'Vandals Hurt 90-Year-Old's Business'

People have broken the boats and dock of a 90-year-old gentleman who is trying to make a few pennies by renting boats to fishermen.

Threatening letters were written telling him to quit renting boats or else. In the past three years, they have repeatedly poked holes in his boats and damaged his dock. Evidently they want the whole lake for speed boats and water-skiing.

What kind of people would do this to an old man?

Plain Disgusted

Shocked at Commissioner's Behavior

I attended the last, special meeting of the old commission and was shocked at the attitude shown by Mr. Landry. People talk about juvenile delinquents who can't run their lives, but what about some of these adults who couldn't run a city? They didn't realize how well off they were with an excellent city manager like Mr. Stierer.

Is this sort of actions and poor sportsmanship supposed to set a good example for tomorrow's adults?

I am at ease, knowing that this growing city is now being run by capable, mature adults who will try and make it a better place to live.

Water and Power

The Holland Evening Sentinel

Over the country today there are growing indications that we are going to need all of the technological and scientific development we can muster to help solve some of the water and sewer problems.

Water is a very valuable natural resource and it continues to become more and more so

Consumption continues to increase and as the country is settled more there is bound to be more run off. Just look at the low water in our lakes in this area.

Much encouragement can be drawn from some of the reports that are coming out of Washington from the study groups.

One states that by 1975 it will be economically feasible to build a nuclear plant that could supply electricity for a city of 2 million people and water enough for up to 6 million in a coastal area.

There are many things involved. Some programs could cost perhaps $300 million. This would help in the development of the huge reactors and desalinization facilities.

★ ★ ★

We in the Great State of Michigan are fortunate that we have the Great Lakes to go to for water.

Many of our larger cities are finding that they are going to need to find ways to finance the pipelines to the Great Lakes. In many cities work is already in progress.

An Illinois school superintendent tells schools to warn pupils on the dangers of smoking. That may help, but the best way to stop the nicotine set from smoking is to make it compulsory.

Jumping Off Sinking Ship

The New York Herald Tribune

The point has been raised within the International Brotherhood of Teamsters that the union is violating Federal law by paying the lawyers' bills of its president, Mr. James R. Hoffa.

Hoffa's various encounters with the law in recent years were undoubtedly expensive in points of money.

But until last month's Tennessee jury-tampering conviction, Hoffa had always ridden out the storms. And neither the union brass, nor for that matter the government, ever raised any questions.

Now that Hoffa is on the griddle again, this time in Chicago for allegedly misusing union pension reserves, some of the Teamsters' directorate have risen up and stopped the counsel payments pending further scrutiny.

★ ★ ★

Whether this was done with or without Hoffa's approval is irrelevant. The fact remains that the secondary command mounted a substantial challenge to authority.

Is Hoffa then losing his dictatorial grip on the biggest and most powerful union in the country? Probably a great deal depends on how Hoffa fares in Chicago and on the Tennessee appeal.

But Hoffa can hardly feel very comfortable. For the boss has been attacked this time from within his own establishment. He must wonder about the durability of power and friends. The throne, as always, is a dangerous place.

★ ★ ★

Hoffa doesn't need sympathy; he would be the last to ask for it. But if Hoffa was wrong all the while, as his family critics now contend with apparent substance, why were they so silent until after that Tennessee conviction?

★ ★ ★

Sounds like another case of jumping off the sinking ship.

Detroit Strike Settled

DETROIT (AP) — A 23-day strike at the Detroit Amplex-Harper plant of Chrysler Corp. has been settled. Some 300 United Auto Workers walked out in a dispute over work assignments. The plant makes parts for the auto industry out of powdered metal.

State Poll Shows 46.9 Pct. of GOP Prefer Lodge

DETROIT (AP)—Nearly half of the Michigan Republicans polled by the Detroit News prefer Henry Cabot Lodge for the GOP presidential nomination, the News reported Sunday.

★ ★ ★

The News said 46.9 per cent of the Republican vote went to the U. S. ambassador to South Viet Nam. Former Vice President Richard Nixon was runner-up with 31.6 per cent.

Far behind were Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater, with 9.1 per cent; New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, 7.2 per cent; and Pennsylvania Gov. William J. Scranton, 5.2 per cent.

Lodge led in all voter categories except that of Negroes, where Rockefeller was leader.

Gleanings From the Mailbag

President Taft Was Beside Himself

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

President William Howard Taft, who weighed up to 332 pounds, often bought three seats for himself when he attended the theater, so he could sprawl over them in comfort. This worked fine except for the time he discovered two of the seats were on one side of the aisle—and the third was on the opposite side.

BOYLE

Manhattan is for the birds. Some humane society officials believe it has more pigeons than people.

Half of the U.S. couples over 65 have an income of less than $2,800 a year. One-third of the elderly have less than $100 in cash savings.

Except for religion, more books have been written about the American Civil War than any other subject.

College graduates with incomes of $7,000 a year are happier than grammar school graduates who earn $3,000 or less annually. But when the income is the same, the highly educated are not as happy as the poorly educated.

LOTS OF REASONS

"We have 40 million reasons for failure, but not a single excuse"—Rudyard Kipling.

Roman emperors used lotteries to finance building projects and increase imperial revenues, and they were popular in Europe from the 15th century on.

Folklore: Sleep with a pair of scissors under your pillow and you'll never get rheumatism. Carrying an onion in your pocket will ward off diseases. To keep from having cramps, wear an eelskin around your ankle.

OLD BOWLING BALLS

Bowling balls have been found in Egyptian tombs dating back to 5,200 B.C. King Edward III and other British monarchs forbade bowling because, unlike archery, the game provided no training for war. Although he banned his subjects from playing, King Henry VIII himself enjoyed bowling between executions.

Cultural news from abroad: Tahitians no longer rub noses as a sign of affection. They have adopted the European custom of kissing each other on both cheeks when meeting or parting.

Campaign Tempo Picks Up; 7 Primaries Set Tomorrow

By LARRY OSIUS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Seven primary elections tomorrow will touch off one of the most active preconvention weeks of the political season.

Voters in Indiana, Ohio, Oklahoma, Alabama, Florida, New Mexico and the District of Columbia and state conventions in Delaware, Michigan, Alaska, Nevada and Wyoming will:

—Express a preference for a presidential nominee.

* * *

—Choose 139 Republican and 202 Democratic delegates to their party nominating conventions.

* * *

—Nominate candidates for two governors' mansions, four Senate seats and 63 House seats.

—Decide other issues ranging from unpledged presidential electors to a right-to-work labor law.

* * *

ATTENTION ON INDIANA

Most of the attention will be on Indiana, where Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama makes another bid for Northern votes in his campaign against the Johnson administration's civil rights bill. He is opposed in the Democratic presidential preference primary by Indiana Gov. Matthew E. Welsh, a stand-in for President Johnson, and three other candidates. The winner can lay claim to 51 first-ballot votes.

* * *

On the Republican side, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona is the odds-on favorite to top a field of four which includes Harold E. Stassen of Philadelphia and two lesser-known candidates. The winner gets Indiana's 32-first-ballot votes at the Republican National Convention.

* * *

Delegates to both conventions will be chosen next month.

Also at stake in Indiana are nominations for 11 House seats. Five incumbents have primary opposition, five don't. Rep. Donald C. Bruce is quitting to seek the Republican Senate nomination at the state convention next month.

In other key elections Tuesday, Ohio's Rep. Robert Taft Jr., son of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, seeks the Republican Senate nomination, and former football coach Bud Wilkinson makes his political debut in Oklahoma's Senate Republican nomination race.

The 139 GOP convention delegates to be chosen this week will push the number selected to 652 —almost half of the 1,308 authorized. It will take 655 to nominate a candidate.

Goldwater, leading with 209 of the 513 chosen according to an Associated Press survey, could pick up more support at the Delaware convention Tuesday and at Republican gatherings in Michigan and Wyoming Friday and Saturday.

Delegates to both conventions also will be chosen in the Ohio and District of Columbia Primaries. Democratic delegates will be selected in the Alabama primary and at conventions in Alaska, Nevada and Wyoming.

Goldwater won a thumping endorsement in a relatively light turnout of Texas Republicans for a preferential poll Saturday.

In other weekend activity, Goldwater picked up eight more delegates in Georgia, Missouri and Tennessee. Maine Republicans pledged their 14 first-ballot votes to Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, a favorite daughter.

Lodge Finishes Surprising Second

Texas Republicans Back Goldwater

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater has received a hearty—and expected—show of approval in a straw vote designed to advertise Texas' sentiments for a Republican presidential candidate.

But the biggest surprise, perhaps, was Henry Cabot Lodge's second-place finish in the GOP preference poll which was staged in the Republican primary Saturday.

* * *

The name of the ambassador to South Viet Nam was not on the ballot. With a write-in following, he beat out such contenders as Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, and Harold E. Stassen, whose names appeared on the ballot.

Goldwater, whose name was on the ballot, got 99,143 votes. Lodge got fully one-tenth—11,222 —on write-ins.

HOTTEST CAMPAIGN

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., won Democratic renomination in the hottest campaign of either primary.

Sen. Yarborough, who received 56.95 per cent of the vote counted through Sunday, whipped what he called "the greatest electronic blitz" in political history.

It might have been, too. Multihour telecasts on statewide hookups were no novelty to the strenuous campaign mounted by his young opponent, radio executive Gordon McLendon of Dallas.

* * *

McLendon used television, radio and newspaper advertising in his ever-increasing campaign tempo until election day when he canceled further appearances because of sheer physical exhaustion.

Gov. John Connally, former Navy secretary and assistant to President Johnson when he was in the House and Senate, had little trouble in beating Don Yarborough, Houston attorney.

FIRST TERM

When he ran for his first term, Connally barely nosed out Yarborough, no relation to the senator. This time he received 68.98 per cent of the vote, with about 1.5 million cast.

Rep. Joe Pool, D-Tex., found himself facing a runoff in his quest for a second term as Texas' congressman-at - large. Pool received only 48.14 per cent of the votes and must face Robert Baker of Houston in the second primary on June 6.

* *

George Bush and Jack Cox, two Houston Republicans, also face a runoff to see who opposes Sen. Yarborough in November's general election.

Frightening Asthma Attacks End In Minutes As New Formula Unblocks Lung Passages Fast
New Medical Formula Restores Free Breathing Without Vaccines, Shots Or Narcotics. Calms Anxiety. No Prescription Needed.
New York, N.Y. (Special)—A team of scientists has announced a new formula that stops frightening asthma attacks in minutes and unblocks lung passages fast.
Medical tests prove this formula promptly restores free breathing, so calms anxiety and relieves the worst symptoms of asthma—the straining for breath, the gasping, the wheezing, the terrible fear of suffocation. All without vaccines, painful shots or habit-forming drugs. This formula is so safe when used as directed, it can be sold without prescription in tiny tablets called BRONITIN®.
Doctors know that when asthma strikes, breathing tubes become swollen, lung passages become blocked, so air is "trapped" inside lungs and less and less oxygen can enter. Now BRONITIN, with two asthma relieving medicines that doctors prescribe for their patients, acts quickly to open bronchial tubes and loosen the mucus that blocks lung passages. Trapped air is released and new vital oxygen enters the lungs.
The result is: free breathing is restored, tension eased and so fears are calmed in minutes. Sufferers can now look forward to restful sleep.
Get BRONITIN—available at all drug stores without prescription.

Global Discrimination—I

Bias Practices Are Found Worldwide

(EDITOR'S NOTE — The form that discrimination takes in many nations is the subject of a special worldwide report by United Press International correspondents whose findings have been compiled in five dispatches. The following account of current frictions in Great Britain is the first of these reports.)

By JOHN MARTINCO
United Press International

Discrimination is worldwide, and Negroes are not alone in feeling its sting.

From Eskimos in Greenland to Koreans in Japan, from Copts in Egypt to Oriental Jews in Israel, from West Indians in London to Chinese in Indonesia — the issue of discrimination is a live one.

The reasons are diverse — difference of race and religion, economic and social status and the fear of job competition, national origins, as well as color of skin.

In many countries throughout the world, discrimination is forbidden by law, a worldwide United Press International survey showed.

But human beings still have not been able to surmount all of the ages-old discrimination barriers.

ATTENTION FOCUSED

Most world attention has tended to focus on the racial situation in the United States and that in South Africa, where the official government policy is to enforce a "cradle to the grave" separation of the races.

Discrimination takes many forms in various areas, including:

BRITAIN — Some landladies refuse to rent to West Indian Negro immigrants or to Indians and Pakistanis.

SPAIN — A member of the Protestant minority may find it difficult to get a job, and his survivors may not even be able to bury him in the town cemetery.

JAPAN — The child who is a product of postwar fraternization between Negro GIs and Japanese girls, tends to be ostracized and relegated to special institutions.

* * *

AFRICA — In some newly independent African countries, a white man is not welcome in an African bar. In another spot in Africa, Black Africans may drink in the lounge of a fancy hotel but are not permitted in the hotel's bars.

SEPARATION

In South Africa, colored persons are separated from the whites by law from cradle to the grave.

Officially in Britain there is no discrimination of any sort. But color discrimination has developed in postwar years and it is mostly economically prompted.

The average Briton's attitude toward Negroes — a term little used in England — and "colored," become discriminatory only where the situation hits his pocketbook or living conditions.

* * *

The problem began after World War II with an influx of Indians and Pakistanis from the commonwealth, followed by a wave of immigration of Negroes from the West Indies and former African colonies.

TAKING OVER

The nonwhites have been taking over greater and greater areas of central London and sectors of large British cities, and more and more whites are moving out to the suburbs.

A comparison can be made between the British attitude toward the nonwhites and that of Northern and Western Americans toward Negroes — little overt prejudices, no discriminatory laws, but some innate prejudices in jobs and housing.

Local branches of British unions — particularly those of the bus drivers — have threatened to strike when jobs have been offered to nonwhites.

Many London landladies won't rent to a Negro or an Indian. A typical explanation: "I've nothing against them, dearie, but I can't stand the smell of curry."

Parents in the London suburb of Southall demanded segregated schools on the grounds immigrants unfamiliar with the language slowed up the educational process for all. The education minister rejected their demand.

Racial frictions in England have exploded into race riots in London, Nottingham, Sheffield, and Dudley.

The most violent riots occurred in London's Notting Hill area in 1958, where Molotov cocktails were hurled at Negroes who had barricaded themselves against white mobs.

* * *

In London alone, the West Indian population has more than tripled since 1958. Government officials predict that within 20 years, there will be 2 million Negroes and other colored people in Britain.

JUST BEGINNING

Some observers feel the problem in England is just beginning. Most of the colored population now is first generation and happy to have a job and any old slum-place to live.

Their children, however, are getting an English education and the day is probably not far off when they will demand equal jobs and housing opportunities.

2 Eichmann Aides Deny Death Roles

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI) — Adolf Eichmann's two aides today pleaded innocent to helping kill 437,000 Hungarian Jews, but admitted taking a suitcase full of extortion money from the victims.

★ ★ ★

"But I don't feel guilty at all," said ex-Gestapo Lt. Col. Hermann Krumley.

"Me? I had nothing to do with Krumley except one time when we picked up the suitcase of money together," testified the second defendant, ex-Gestapo Capt. Otto Hunsche.

Both defendants appeared hurt when Chief Judge Arnold Schmidt pressed them about charges they first extorted money from the Jews of Hungary and then helped Eichmann ship them to the gas chambers of the Auschwitz death camp.

★ ★ ★

Eichmann was in charge of Adolf Hitler's wartime program to exterminate Jews. He was convicted and hanged in Israel for mass murder.

DENIES PART

"I never took part in any deportation of Jews (to Auschwitz). And I never gave any orders for that," Krumley said.

Judge Schmidt: "What about extorting money?"

Krumley: "Well . . . I only got into the act when the money was picked up . . ."

Judge: "You knew the Jews were being deported?"

★ ★ ★

Krumley: "Well, yes. But I didn't know they were being liquidated. When I finally learned they were being killed, I tried to help where I could . . ."

'NEVER TOLD TRUTH'

The former Gestapo lawyer, accused of tricking Jewish leaders into paying money for salvation they never got, said Eichmann never told him the truth.

Besides, he said, "This court always looks at this with the eyes of the prosecutor—as though it was a fact that Eichmann and his staff, including me, came to Hungary for the single purpose of killing the Jews.

"That simply is not true. The main aim was to stop Hungary from leaving the Axis . . . like Italy."

★ ★ ★

Judge: "That's why Hitler sent the troops, not the Gestapo."

★ ★ ★

Hunsche, "Yes, yes. But we were only a part of the security police. We were supposed to fight the dangers arising from the Jews."

Judge: "Did you know Jews were being killed?"

★ ★ ★

Hunsche: "Yes, but I dndn't know Auschwitz served the purpose of liquidating them. I only found out after the war . . . I wondered and asked Eichmann. He told me Auschwitz was Germany's main armament center."

God or Man? Methodists to Discuss Obedience in Race Issues

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Controversy over the race question continued on and off the floor today at the 1964 General Conference of the Methodist Church.

In the forefront was a report which endorses civil disobedience within "most carefully circumstanced limits." The report, "Christian Social Concerns," is scheduled for debate tonight.

★ ★ ★

Integrationist forces moved behind the scenes to bring back to the floor a plan which calls for integration within the church on a voluntary and gradual basis. Integrationists want the plan strengthened.

The "Christian Social Concerns" report was presented over the weekend by the Rev. Harold A. Bosley, pastor of Christ Church, Methodist, New York.

MORAL DILEMMA

Part of the report said:

"Christians have long recognized that after exhausting every reasonable legal means for redress of grievances, the individual is faced with the moral and legal dilemma of whether or not his peculiar circumstances require obedience to God rather than men."

The report contended that individuals must make such judgment in certain instances in the current struggle for racial justice.

It continued:

"In rare instances where legal recourse is unavailable for redress of grievances from law which are clearly unjust or immoral, the individual is justified in obeying God's authority rather than man's. Even then, meticulous care must be taken to prevent proliferation of civil obedience beyond most carefully circumstanced limits."

During debate Saturday, the Rev. G. Ross Freeman of Atlanta, Ga., moved for removal of the paragraph referring to obedience to God's authority rather than man's.

TRAGIC VIEW

"It would be tragic for the news to go from this place that the Methodist Church endorses civil disobedience and, therefore, anarchy," the Rev. Mr. Freeman said.

Debate on the report followed an all-night vigil by Methodists from many parts of the country who came to Pittsburgh to protest what they said was a weak effort by the conference to end segregation in the church.

★ ★ ★

After the vigil, in two downtown churches, and a kneel-in at the city's modernistic Civic Arena, where the conference is in session, some delegates vowed to try and force a new vote on a plan to merge the church's Negro jurisdiction with its white conferences.

The demonstrators had been protesting the plan, saying it failed to provide speedy action.

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson of Philadelphia, president of the World Methodist Council, said Sunday night renewal and expansion must be the objective of this year's general conference.

Addressing 9,000 persons at the World Methodist Night program, Bishop Corson said: "Our assignment is not to hold the line, and to withstand simply the encroachments of a secular and pagan society which seeks constantly to ensmall the church.

★ ★ ★

"We can no longer afford to rationalize the encroachments upon religious freedom as minor denials which many would like to think amount to little or nothing."

The World Methodist Council is a fraternal association of Methodist denominations.

MERGER PROPOSAL

In another development Saturday, Bishop Reuben H. Mueller of Indianapolis, president of the Evangelical United Brethren Board of Bishops, presented his case for merger with the Methodist Church.

Bishop Mueller, who also is president of the National Council of Churches, said he could not speak for EUB members but was certain the majority supported him.

NY Tot Found Unharmed; Fate of 'Abductor' Unclear

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP)—Police will decide today what to do with a lonely young dishwasher who said he picked up a 3-year-old boy in New York City because "he looked lost and cold."

The dishwasher, James Savage, 17, admitted picking up Timothy Hughes near the World's Fair Saturday and bringing him 25 miles by bus to his rented room in Woodbridge. The boy was found there Sunday, unharmed and apparently well cared for.

Savage, a runaway from a state school who has been in 25 foster homes, was held in Middlesex County juvenile detention quarters, booked on an open charge.

He was to appear in County Juvenile and Domestic Court before Judge Aldonna B. Appleton. New York City police said they would be on hand to discuss jurisdiction in the case.

GOES HOME

Timothy was back to Queens, N.Y., with his policeman father, Gerard, his mother, Lorraine, and brother, Richard, 7.

"I don't want any mother to go through a night like I did," Mrs. Hughes said after the couple drove to Woodbridge to pick up Timothy.

★ ★ ★

New York police had conducted a block-by-block search for the boy in the Flushing section of Queens, where he was last seen by his mother in a playground.

★ ★ ★

Savage said he spotted the boy outside the World's Fair, about eight blocks from the playground, at 5 p.m. Saturday.

'LOST AND COLD'

"He looked lost and cold," Savage told police, "and I've been lost and cold myself."

He said he had tried to find the boy's parents.

Savage told police he fed Timothy cereal, milk and candy before giving him a bath and putting him to bed.

★ ★ ★

Sunday morning, Savage left his room to go to work at a restaurant.

Timothy cried and was heard by the landlady, Mrs. John Madarski. She went upstairs and noticed Timothy's polo shirt inscribed, "I am a little angel."

She had heard about a missing boy with such a polo shirt and sent her husband for the police.

Don't Tell of Other Invitation

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: My husband and I were invited to a cocktail party at a friend's house. We met a very charming and socially prominent woman.

When she left she invited my husband and me to tea at her house that coming Sunday.

The day after the cocktail party I called the hostess to thank her for inviting us to the party and to tell her how much we enjoyed it.

★ ★ ★

I did not mention anything to her about the guest who invited us to tea.

My husband thinks I should have since we met the guest at her house and that she may feel we are trying to hide it from her. Was I wrong?

★ ★ ★

A: There was no necessity to tell your cocktail party hostess of this invitation to tea.

In fact, it would have been lacking in tact to have told her because if she had not been invited too, it may have distressed her.

Q. My daughter is going to be married this summer. We plan to have the reception at home and because of lack of space we will only be able to invite 100 guests.

What is the proper number of invitations allotted to the bridegroom's family? I have been told that the bride-to-be's family are entitled to two-thirds of the invitations and the grooms's family one-third.

Is this true?

★ ★ ★

A: Unless they live in a distant city and only a comparatively few of their relatives and friends will be able to come to the wedding, the bridegroom's family should be allowed an equal number of guests.

Q: Please tell me the correct procedure for a man to follow when leaving the theater with a woman companion.

Does he lift up his seat and stand against it so there is space for the lady to pass in front of him and go out ahead of him, or does he go out first?

★ ★ ★

Mom's Day Tip

Think of Mother-in-Law

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Mother's Day will soon be here and I wish you would say something in your column to remind "young marrieds" to remember their mothers-in-law, too.

ABBY

Even if it's only a card or a note. There were so many years when I should have remembered my mother-in-law but I was too "busy."

This year I will send her a spray of flowers — to the cemetery — bitterly regretting that I failed to send her flowers while she was living.

I should have appreciated her more, written her more about her grandchildren, whom she loved so much, and most of all I should have let her know how much I had grown to love her.

I hope others will not make the same mistake I made because next year may be too late.

Abby, please sign my real initials so my father-in-law will know how I feel.

J. O. (Oceanside, Calif.)

DEAR ABBY: I was interested in your reply to "DIRTY OLD MAN'S WIFE." You said, "He's sick. Get him to a doctor."

★ ★ ★

I've known for years that my husband is "sick." It is so humiliating to sit in a restaurant with him while he flirts with the waitresses, or any woman sitting nearby whose eye he happens to catch.

★ ★ ★

And when he stares at the young girls from their feet up, and then down again, I want to run!

I meet my friends away from my home because they won't come by if they know he's there.

★ ★ ★

I have many worthwhile interests, such as music, gardening, books and church work, but, oh, for a companion to grow old with!

Yes, I realize he's sick. But how do you get a man in his 50's to a doctor?

WISHFUL THINKING

★ ★ ★

DEAR WISHFUL: You can't call the men in the white coats and ask them to come and throw a net over him.

But you can call your family doctor and tell him what you have told me.

★ ★ ★

Together you can work out a scheme to get your husband to submit to a PHYSICAL examination.

The mental examination can be subtly worked in without arousing your husband's suspicion.

There IS help for your husband's illness (and it IS an illness) — and it's more common than you think.

DEAR ABBY: Just read about "Papa Joe," who was born in the old country and didn't know his birthdate so he picked one himself.

My husband was in the same boat and picked a day in November for his "birthday."

★ ★ ★

When he took out citizenship papers, he wrote to his sister in the old country and asked her to send him his birth certificate.

She sent not only his birth certificate but also the certificate of his baptism.

★ ★ ★

That's when we found out he was really born in March, and according to the "birthday" he had been celebrating, he was baptised before he was born!

GOOD JOKE

CONFIDENTIAL TO MRS. "F.": The letter you sent me from your mother contained a treasury of good sense.

You would be wise to implement her "three suggested rules" for disciplining your children.

She loves you or she would not have been so candid.

Get it off your chest. For a personal, unpublished reply, write to ABBY, care of The Pontiac Press. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Save Tax Cut Money, Watch It Grow

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

Dear Miss Feeley: Why is everyone making such a to - do about the tax cut relief? Most of us are hardly going to have enough to show. What am I going to do with a couple of bucks to make myself financially stable? E.S., Portland, Oregon.

MARY FEELEY

Dear E.S.: Don't make the mistake of sneering at a couple of bucks. As one financier pointed out the other day, $2.34 deposited in a savings account each week, at four per cent interest, will grow to about $2,500 in 15 years. If you don't know what to do with $2, maybe you can think of something to do with $2,500.

Dear Miss Feeley: I would like your advice. I baby sat for my daughter while she went on her vacation. Is it proper to take money from her? I feel guilty. Mrs. C.E.T., Chicago.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. T.: Even if your grandchild is a living doll, baby sitting is work. You earned your wages and should accept them with a clear conscience. You undoubtedly make it possible for your daughter to enjoy her vacation with no worries, and I'll bet she feels she got the best of the deal.

Dear Miss Feeley: I have some savings bonds purchased in May of 1952, which I understand are maturing this May. Do I have to sell them? M.M., Birmingham, Ala.

★ ★ ★

Dear M.M: You probably have either series J or K savings bonds, which start maturing on May 1 of this year. Unlike E and H bonds issued through January, 1957, no extension period has been granted for J's and K's.

You'll have to present them at a bank for redemption — unless you want to exchange the J's for H's. If so, this must be done promptly at maturity. H bonds pay interest at the rate of 3¾ per cent, with interest checks sent you semi-annually.

Dear Miss Feeley: Would you please advise me as to what would be fair to both father and child, and an adequate amount for the father to pay to the unmarried mother for support of a child (an infant now).

★ ★ ★

Should this amount be static or should he cover the necessities as they are needed? The baby will be cared for by my parents until I can take complete responsibility.

The child should have the intelligence and the desire to attend college, so this should be considered. The father's income is about $8,000. I plan to work as soon as possible. "West Coast"

★ ★ ★

Dear "West Coast," I won't attempt to get into the moral, legal or psychological aspects of this situation or what's fair to father and child.

But some figures compiled by the Community Council of Greater New York may give you a dollars-and-cents basis for discussion:

Median cost for maintaining a boy from birth through 20 years, $18,736. Same for maintaining a girl; $17,918.

★ ★ ★

Keep in mind that these living costs are based on 1962-63. And that they do not allow for a college education.

Usually settlements in such circumstances as yours are not spread over the lifetime of the child. However, if the child's father is making a voluntary gesture toward support, his ability to pay is the one realistic figure you have to reckon with at this stage.

(You can get Mary Feeley's handy new Budget Leaflet by writing to her in care of The Pontiac Press. Enclose a long, self - addressed, stamped envelope.)

Polly's Pointers

End Droopy Rollers

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — Many of the pointers have become habits with our family. Here's one for you:

Put a headband around your neck BEFORE rolling up your hair on the large rollers. When set, pull the headband up around the bottom rollers at the neck, ears and forehead.

★ ★ ★

Keeps the rollers from drooping. This is especially good for those of us with fine hair. — MRS. F. A. M.

DEAR POLLY — Threads from old nylon stockings are useful for mending many things. Pull out some of the threads in a discarded one and wind on a thread spool.

Collect several shades and use the thread that matches best to mend other usable hose that might have small tears.

★ ★ ★

This thread is also excellent for mending nylon, dacron and all kinds of knitwear.

Try it on wool. The threads blend beautifully.—MRS. R. T.

DEAR POLLY — If you like to wear your pearls or other beads under a dress or sweater collar and find the string too short, take a sweater guard and clip to both ends of the necklace.—M. D.

Church Rites Unite Four Couples

MRS. S. L. WALTER

MRS. D. A. VOYER

MRS. B. W. MANNING

MRS. G. FITZPATRICK

Walter-Bisbikis

The First Methodist Church in Clarkston was the setting for the candlelight vows of Jane George Bisbikis of Clarkston to Stanley Lloyd Walter on Saturday.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bisbikis of Bloomfield Terrace, the bride chose a gown of white nylon organdy over taffeta, with lace bodice touched with seed pearls and sequins.

* * *

A pearl and crystal tiara secured her veil of nylon net and her semi-cascade bouquet included white roses and carnations.

SISTER ATTENDS

Mrs. Greg Hockstad was her sister's only attendant.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Leo Finzel of Maple Drive, Independence Township, and Russell Walter of Ortonville Road, had Alfred Storm for best man.

* * *

Peter Bisbikis ushered at his sister's wedding, along with the bridegroom's uncle, James Fisk of Walled Lake.

* * *

Voyer-Hester

Lana Marie Hester, daughter of the Carl A. Hesters of Provincetown Road, exchanged vows with David Allan Voyer, Saturday, in the Donelson Baptist Church.

A church reception followed the candlelight ceremony performed by Rev. Lee LaLone before 200 guests.

LACE MOTIFS

Motifs of Alencon lace appeared on both bodice and skirt of the bride's gown of white organza over taffeta. Her chapel-length train was detachable.

A bouffant shoulder-length veil of illusion was fitted to a lace and pearl headpiece. White feathered carnations were arranged in a bridal cascade.

* * *

Dyanna Hester attended her sister as maid of honor and Diane Hunt was bridesmaid.

The bridegroom, son of the Louis A. Voyers of Stockton, Calif., had his cousin, Duane Hilliker of Flint, for best man. Robert Hester, Lee Hunt and Earl J. Moon ushered.

* * *

After a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Ont. the couple will reside on Prall Street, going later to Stockton where he will attend college.

Manning-Stewart

White palms with bouquets of white and yellow chrysanthemums adorned Marimont Baptist Church, Saturday for the candlelight vows of Sandra Kay Stewart and Brockie William Manning of Norton Street.

Joining the couple at the church reception were her parents, the Ernest L. Stewarts of Winkleman Drive and his foster parents, the Robert Gordons of Jackson Boulevard, White Lake Township.

* * *

A lace panel highlighted the bride's gown of white satin-finish silk organza styled with basque waistline, pleated hipline and cathedral train.

PEARL CROWN

A pearl crown caught her illusion veil and a white orchid centered her bouquet of white roses and Stephanotis.

With Drucilla Hotchkiss, her cousin's honor attendant, were bridesmaids, Ruth Bartles, Kathy and Christine Stewart, sisters of the bride.

* * *

Phillip Mortensen was best man. William Stewart, Charles Gordon, Alan Somers, Larry Clower, and Thomas Ritchie seated some 300 guests.

The couple chose the Canadian route to Niagara Falls for their honeymoon.

Fitzpatrick-Gilbert

A candlelight ceremony marked the marriage of Sandra Lee Gilbert to Gregg Bentley Fitzpatrick, Saturday evening, in the Central Methodist Church.

Daughter of the Donald J. Gilberts of South Lynn Street, the bride appeared in a tiered gown of Alencon lace over taffeta with detachable train. Her bodice featured a jewelry neckline and wrist-point sleeves.

ROSES AND CARNATIONS

The all-white chapel bouquet included roses and feathered carnations.

Honor attendant was Mrs. George E. Bowers, sister of the bride, with bridesmaids Vicki St. Dennis and Mary Healander. Becky Bowers was flower girl; George Richardson carried the rings.

Armand P. Fitzpatrick of North Little Rock, Ark. was best man for his brother.

They are the sons of Mrs. James G. Weaver of Merry Road and Paul R. Fitzpatrick of Pontiac Lake Road. George Havens and Fred Alexander seated the guests.

A new home on Ledyard Street awaits the couple who left for a northern honeymoon after the reception in the IOOF Hall.

Miss Etter Is Honored at Showers

Sharon Dawley Etter of Birmingham is being honored at parties in the area before her marriage to James Dwyer Knowles on June 20.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Frank Langstrom Jr. will give an evening dessert and linen shower in the home of Mrs. Robert Magill. Cohostesses will be Mrs. James Edwards, Mrs. Martin Strandbergh and Mrs. Clifford Newcomer.

PERSONAL SHOWER

Mrs. Jack Wingard will serve dessert preceding a personal shower May 14, with Janet Nechman, cohostess.

* * *

A luncheon on May 16 will be in the Birmingham home of Mrs. Douglas Brown. On the following Saturday, Mrs. Charles J. Sitta will give a shower and tea, assisted by Mrs. Joseph Wheeler and Mrs. Robert Voss.

* * *

The Theodore F. Etters are parents of the bride-elect and her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Knowles of Bloomfield Hills.

Cleaning Tips for Furniture

Lawn furniture and cookout equipment can present big cleaning jobs come spring.

Here's an easy way to get everything shiny in a hurry.

* * *

Apply oven cleaner to the really dirty items — maybe the grill that was stored without being property cleaned — and chrome cleaner to other items.

To eliminate the added chore of washing soiled rags, apply all cleaner with paper towels.

* * *

When the cleaner is ready to be removed, just turn the garden hose on everything. Wipe dry and polish with handfuls of paper towels.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Cerankosky of Lotus Drive announce the engagement of their daughter Sandra Sue Hale to Gary George Peel, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Peel of North Shaker Drive.

Sitting Saucers

Place a saucepan upside down on the bottom of your salad bowl before filling it with vegetables.

The salad will remain crisp because the moisture will run underneath the saucer.

Neither Rain . . . Can Stop Golf

Everybody knows by now that a golf enthusiast never gives up the game despite rain, sleet, hail and snow.

At a London, England, fashion show rainwear makers came up with the first practical aid — an umbrella with transparent panel with which to view the fairway.

Suggest Mandatory Schooling Until Age 18

Teens Tell How to Solve Dropout Problem

Gilbert Youth Research Co.

Has anybody thought of asking the teen-agers themselves what should be done about the problem of teen-agers dropping out of high school?

We did, and got two pieces of strong advice.

One was that young people should be forced to stay in school until 18 years old — instead of the more usual age of 16.

The other was that vocational training in school should be increased.

* * *

Just what the educators, politicians and others who have sounded off freely on the subject would say about this advice we don't know, but the 1210 boys and girls we consulted asserted in general that today's high schools place too much emphasis on college preparatory courses, and neglect students who will go from high school directly to jobs.

MORE SPECIALIZATION

As Kenneth Elam, 17, of Pennsuaken, N.J., puts it, there is need for "more specialization and attention to the individual students in the various departments outside of the college prep course."

But a large number of teenagers don't think a change of curriculum would be enough.

They feel the student should be required by law to stay in school longer.

* * *

Joan Keitenback, 17, of Lansing, Mich., was one of those who suggested "raise the age to quit school to 18 or until you graduate."

WORK PROGRAMS

Mary Leusky, 15, of Coatesville, Pa., offers another solution. She wants more programs "where students could be in school for half a day and work the other half."

Some of the boys and girls think potential dropouts need more advice from guidance counselors, teachers, friends and parents.

Others would try to combat a poor environment to convine a student to stay in school.

* * *

Most of the teens know other young people who have dropped out.

CONSIDER LEAVING

And 15 per cent of the girls and 13 per cent of the boys say they themselves have thought about leaving school at one time or another, but realized in time they needed the education.

Why did they consider giving up their education?

"School became a bore," to Yvonne Sheppard, 16, of Matpuxent River, Md.

"The work seems to just pile up until you can't get it done."

NOT APPEALING

"School was not appealing, and I wanted to tour the country," reports Bruce Rector, 14, of Redondo Beach, Calif.

"Lack of reason for going," adds Bruce Jones, 19, of Detroit.

What made them decide to continue school?

* * *

Most young people realize that without at least a high school diploma, it is difficult to get any kind of job.

COULDN'T DO IT

"I want to make something of myself and I sure couldn't do that without a high school education," maintains Sue Hinson, 17, of Fairborn, Ohio.

"The future looks pretty dim for a high school dropout," seconds Sandra Lewis, 17, Nashville, Tenn.

"Demands from parents and society and myself to achieve maximum potention," kept Paul Mutufe, 17, of Redondo Beach, Calif., in school.

And Michael Andrescavage, 16, of Camden, N.J. simply has "more fun in school than out of school."

Take Tepid Bath

Ease the Job When Polishing

On furniture polishing day do you go rummaging through the rag box in the closet — only to find you're fresh out of clean cloths?

Frequently the problem is solved by sacrificing a dish cloth to the cause — or by simply postponing the job.

Neither is necessary now that paper towels have been made softer and lint-free.

* * *

The new disposable towels are perfect for polishing furniture or doing any job that calls for a clean, soft cloth.

They're stong enough to last through brisk buffing. Best of all, they don't contribute to the confusion of the rag box.

Keep Bread Fresh

Bread will stay fresh from mold and fresh longer in humid weather if it is kept in a plastic bag in the refrigerator or freezer.

* * *

Report Yemen Tribesmen Display Heads of 2 British Soldiers

LONDON (AP)—Two British soldiers killed in a skirmish with Yemeni tribesmen were later beheaded, and their heads were displayed on poles in the desert town of Taiz, the Defense Ministry says.

One of the victims was Capt. Robin Edwards, 27, who commanded a small British force that dissident tribesmen trapped Thursday near the Yemen-Aden border. The other victim was an enlisted engineer, John Warburton. Two other Britons were wounded but escaped.

Three hundred British troops have been flown to the area to help the British-protected South Arabian Federation reinforce the base at Aden.

LONDON (AP)—The Guardian reported today that German scientists who have worked for the United Arab Republic believe both it and Israel are producing and stockpiling atomic missiles.

The paper's Frankfurt correspondent said U.A.R. President Gamal Abdel Nasser's scientists have made a breakthrough in producing light, easily transportable missiles containing limited quantities of radioactive material.

TOKYO (AP)—The situation of world communism is grave, the North Vietnamese government said in calling on the Communist parties of the Soviet Union and China to patch up their split.

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Creation of an Iraqi-Egyptian union is the goal of a provisional Socialist constitution announced by the Iraqi government.

Such a union would be "a first step toward Pan-Arab unity," the government of President Abdel Salem Aref said in its announcement Sunday over Baghdad radio.

* * *

The broadcast said the constitution, valid for a transitional period of three years, proclaimed Iraq a Socialist Democratic republic.

PARIS (AP)—Four mountaineers scaled the 985-foot Eiffel Tower Sunday in honor of the structure's 75th anniversary Wednesday.

Using tiny bolts as footholds on the steel superstructure, the two teams reached the top platform without incident despite stiff winds and a brief shower.

The climbers carried two-way radios and were interviewed by French television throughout the ascent.

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP)—Teodoro Moscoso, former U.S. administrator of the Alliance for Progress, has been named to a 13-member federal commission which will study Puerto Rico's future political status.

OLSM Loses to St. Anthony

Seaholm Shows Heels

Birmingham Seaholm's track team chalked up its second big relays trophy Saturday at Central Michigan University.

The Maples took the team title it was forced to share in 1963 by scoring 62 points. Lansing Sexton was second with 54. Then came Flint Central with 50 and Pontiac Central with 34¾.

Favored Detroit St. Anthony held off Orchard Lake St. Mary to win the OLSM Relays Sunday.

Seaholm started the track season by running away with the indoor Huron Relays trophy.

Kettering's Jim Haviland set a record in the pole vault by clearing 13-feet 4½ inches. Pontiac Central's Les Hanspard, Larry Slater of Pontiac Northern, Kettering's Earl Hook and Mike Alsop of Waterford finished in that order behind Haviland.

All four cleared 12-6 and the placements were determined by the number of misses.

Seaholm's Ken Heft won the high hurdles in the blistering 14.7. Gerald Henry of PCH took the lows in 20.4.

SET RECORD

Seaholm chopped nearly 11 seconds from the middle distance relay record with a 5:44.2 clocking. Detroit Thurston set the old record of 5:55 in 1962.

St. Anthony combined their five first places with three second places, two thirds and one fourth for their 90 point total. OLSM scored 85.

The Eaglets, undefeated in six dual track meets in the Catholic League's Second Division, battled the favored Teutons to the very end.

They captured four first places, took three seconds, and tied for another, took one third and two fourth places.

The Eaglets set a record in the 440 Relay with a winning time of :47.2, and broke the broad jump record with a mark of 76 4¼.

Benedictine broke the medley relay mark with a winning time of 2:39.8 in taking one of the other first places in the Medley relay, while Jackson St. Mary took first in the 880 relay with a winning time of 1:38.5.

Jackson St. Mary (42), Detroit Benedictine (40) and Saginaw SS. Peter and Paul (39) battled for the third place. Detroit St. Stanislaus had 14, Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows had 10, and Dearborn St. Alphonsus had 6.

EYING THE BALL — Catcher Bill Freehan of Detroit had to close his eyes when his mask stopped a foul ball that bounced off the dirt behind Red Sox batter Tony Conigliaro in the seventh inning of their game at Fenway Park yesterday. Conigliaro struck out, but the Sox trimmed the Tigers, 11-7.

New York Trip Follows Loss at Boston

Yastrzemski Sparks 11-7 Bosox Victory With Grand Slam

NEW YORK (AP) —The Detroit Tigers plan to enjoy themselves today.

Sunday proved a miserable day, and Tuesday isn't exactly promising.

★ ★ ★

The Tigers are going to take in the World's Fair today. Sunday the Boston Red Sox clobbered them 11-7, and Tuesday they take on Whitey Ford and the New York Yankees.

Manager Charlie Dressen has picked Hank Aguirre, who holds an 8-6 lifetime mark over the Yanks, to pitch against Ford.

ONE GAME

The unusual one-game stand ends Detroit's first road swing of the season. The Tigers return for a Wednesday night encounter with Boston that opens a 13-game home stand.

★ ★ ★

The Red Sox battered five Detroit pitchers for 15 hits Sunday at Boston. Carl Yastrzemski's grand slam homer capped a six-run fifth-inning rally that iced the 11-7 game.

A two-run double by rookie pinch-hitter Dalton Jones drove in the other two runs which wiped out a 7-5 Tiger lead.

★ ★ ★

With the score tied 5-5 going into the fifth, Detroit scored two runs on Don Demeter's two-bagger, Al Kaline's triple and a double by Norm Cash.

The rally ended when Cash and Willie Horton were caught in successive rundowns between second and third.

★ ★ ★

Cash was nabbed on Horton's grounder to second baseman Chuck Schilling. On the next play, Bill Freehan singled to center, and rookie Tony Conigliaro fired the ball behind Horton, who was trapped off the second.

EARLY LEAD

Detroit took a 2-0 first inning lead on Cash's two-run triple, but the Red Sox came back with two runs on a pair of singles and Frank Malzone's double.

Boston got two more runs in the second on doubles by Bob Tillman, and Schilling, and Yastrzemski's single. Conigliaro's third homer of the season made it 5-2 going into the fourth.

★ ★ ★

Here, pinch - hitter Gates Brown slammed a three-run homer to tie the score. The blast was the second circuit clout at Fenway Park for the Tiger rookie. On June 18, 1963, he made his major league debut with a pinch homer in Boston.

★ ★ ★

Phil Regan started for the Tigers, and Ed Rakow, Julio Navarro, Mickey Lolich and Dick Egan all saw action before it was over.

Navarro, who took the loss in his first appearance with the Tigers since coming from Los Angeles, was the victim of the six-run Sox rally.

★ ★ ★

Egan was the only effective pitcher, setting Boston down in order in the eighth.

Dick Radatz, the former Michigan State star who lives in Royal Oak, got the victory for Boston with four shutout innings in relief.

Triple Crown in Sight for the Dancer

Derby Winner in Preakness

Baltimore Race Set for May 16

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky Derby winner Northern Dancer is heading for Baltimore and the May 16 running of the Preakness, second leg on racing's Triple Crown, but trainer Horatio Luro has a ho-hum attitude about it all.

★ ★ ★

"It doesn't mean much to win the Triple Crown anymore," the Argentine said today. "When these three were the only races, it was different, but now there are dozens of big races for 3-year-olds."

The fact remains, however, that the sweep of the Derby, Preakness and Belmont stakes hasn't been accomplished since Citation in 1948 and is generally considered the biggest prize in thoroughbred racing.

ONLY ELIGIBLE

Northern Dancer, of course, off his narrow triumph over the favored Hill Rise in Saturday's 90th running of the Derby, America's most prestigious race, is the only eligible. The short-striding little colt is the first Canadian-bred ever to win the Derby.

Luro, incidentally, gives full credit to jockey Bill Hartack's ability to get the most out of The Dancer's talents as the difference in the neck victory, completed in Derby and track record time.

★ ★ ★

"The horse is 75 per cent and the jockey 25 per cent," Luro said. "If they both give their best, you win most of the time.

"Hartack is a very smart boy and took advantage of every bit of ability that my horse has," Luro said. "Hartack listens to everything you tell him and he remembers. Most jockeys forget everything you've told them the moment they get on the track."

★ ★ ★

Luro was scheduled to ship Northern Dancer to Baltimore today. Hill Rise, owned by the El Peco Ranch of George Pope Jr., also will head east for the classic, as will The Scoundrel, who finished third in the Derby.

Willie Shoemaker, who rode Hill Rise, offered no excuse for his horse, who was trying to catch the winner in the final sixteenth of a mile. Early in April, Shoemaker decided not to ride Northern Dancer in the Derby, saying he thought Hill Rise was a much better horse.

★ ★ ★

"Shoemaker rode a perfect race too," Luro said. "But somebody has to run second."

Northern Dancer finished in two minutes flat—two-fifths of a second better than the record set two years ago by El Peco's Decidedly, also trained by Luro and ridden by Hartack.

A's Stop Twins Twice With Home Run Barrage

By The Associated Press

What hath Charles Finley wrought?

When the incendiary owner of the Kansas City Athletics declared war on the American League, even he couldn't have envisioned the devastating effect his strategy would have on Kansas City's Municipal Stadium.

★ ★ ★

Twelve homers were hit Sunday as the Athletics swept a double-header from Minnesota 7-4 and 8-7. That output increased to 24 the number of homers hit in the four-game series between the teams.

The Twins connected for seven Sunday and 15 altogether while Kansas City pounded out five in the doubleheader and nine in the series.

Home runs are being hit at Municipal Stadium at more than twice the rate they were hit last season.

21 HOMERS

In 11 games this season, the Athletic have slammed 21 homers, their opposition 22 for a total of 43 and an average of about four per game. Last year 139 homers were hit in 81 games an average of less than two per game.

Of course, Finley's tactics have helped. He acquired home run sluggers Rocky Colavito and Jim Gentile during the winter and more recently constructed his Pennant Porch and shortened the fences generally.

★ ★ ★

Colavito leads the league with six home runs while Gentile is tied for second with five. The closer fences have resulted in eight homers—six by the A's.

Finley may not win the war or the pennant, but he may beat the stadium into submission.

Elsewhere in the American League, there were three doubleheader splits. New York blanked Washington 4-0, then lost 6-5; Baltimore stopped Cleveland 5-2, then was shut out 3-0 and Chicago nipped Los Angeles 3-2, then dropped a 6-2 decision.

Despite the home run attack, it took four walks in the ninth inning to win the nightcap for the Athletics. The Twins' Bill Pleis issued all of the passes, the last to George Alusik which forced in Nelson Mathews with the winning run.

BOOM! BOOM!

Colavito hit a bases-empty homer while Tom Reynolds blasted a three-run shot for the A's. Tony Oliva, Jimmie Hall and Don Mincher connected for Minnesota.

A pinch single by Manny Jimenez scored two runs in the seventh and led to Kansas City's first-game victory. The hit put the Athletics in the lead 5-4. Colavito followed with a two-run homer in the eighth. Gentile rapped a two-run homer and Mathews an inside-the-park home run earlier.

★ ★ ★

Hall, Earl Battey, pitcher Jim Kaat and Rich Rollins connected for the Twins.

Dave Nicholson's three-run homer gave the White Sox their fifth straight triumph in the first game, but sterling relief pitching by Dean Chance helped the Angels halt the streak in the second.

RALLY STOPPER

Chance snuffed out a rally in the fourth, then kept the White Sox off the bases until Al Weis singled in the seventh.

★ ★ ★

Rookie left-hander Tommy John stopped Baltimore with a three-hitter in the second game of their doubleheader. A dropped fly ball by the Orioles' Sam Bowens helped the Indians to two runs in the sixth.

Dave McNally got relief aid from Stu Miller in pitching the Orioles to the first-game triumph. Bowens slammed a two-run homer in that contest.

★ ★ ★

Washington barely fought off a ninth-inning rally in which the Yankees scored three times, cutting the Senators' margin from 6-2. Jim King's pinch single in the sixth scored two runs and boosted Washington to the healthy lead.

KC's Trade Maneuvers Paying Homer Dividends

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Rocky Colavito and Jim Gentile rank 1-2 in American League home runs and Kansas City A's Manager Ed Lopat says the trades for the two sluggers "have worked out wonderfully for us so far."

★ ★ ★

Colavito, a right-handed pull hitter, has hit six out of the park, all in Kansas City where the ball carries to left better than in any AL park because of a prevailing south wind to that field.

Gentile, a left-handed swinger, isn't a consistent pull hitter but has the power to clear the 392-foot homer distance in right center. He has five homers, none close to owner Charles O. Finley's right field porch.

ROCK KNOCKS

Between them, they have hit 11 homers and driven in 21 runs in 14 games. Each had a two-run homer in the first game and Colavito added a solo shot in the second Sunday as the A's swept two from Minnesota, 7-4 and 8-7.

"It's still early in the season," Lopat said. "Our young pitchers are starting to come around and they must do the job for us to make the trades successful. But I think they can do it.

"Rocky and Jim are off to fine starts and it looks like they could have real good years."

Big 10 Vaulter Tops 16 Feet

EAST LANSING (AP) — The Big Ten now has a 16-foot pole vaulter—Bob Neutzling of Ohio State.

Neutzling vaulted 16 feet ¼ inch in a dual track meet against Michigan State Saturday, cracking the 13-year-old conference record of 15-1¾ set by Don Laz of Illinois.

MSU won 10 of 13 other events, however, and won the meet, 81-51.

State Men's Meet Has 287 by Kegler

ALLEN PARK (AP) — Harry Ryan of Kalamazoo bowled a 287 game Sunday — the highest in the 1964 Michigan State Bowling Association Tournament.

Ryan's top game helped push him into fifth place in the handicap all-events division with a total of 2081.

★ ★ ★

More Offense Displayed by U of M Grid Teams

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — In 1963 Michigan's football team was the ninth-best "offensive threat" in the Big Ten.

But, last year the Wolverines gave up only 85 points in seven league games and only Michigan State, Ohio State and Illinois saw their goal line crossed fewer times.

Perhaps, because he had the above-mentioned facts in mind, head coach Bump Elliott called for an "offensive show" Saturday when the Blues faced the Whites in the final intrasquad scrimmage of the spring practice season.

BIG SURPRISE

The Whites surprised the Blues, 32-29, in a game that was interesting to watch, although it didn't mean anything — except to those trying to land a spot on the varsity's 1964 edition.

"We expected the offense to outshine the defense," Elliott explained. "In fact, we set up the teams to favor the offenses.

"Because that I don't think the scrimmage was any indication of our defensive strength. The defense will be all right I'm not worried about it."

If Michigan improves offensively, the plaudits will have to go to a group of young quarterbacks. The Wolverines have had capable pass-catching ends in the past . . . as they will this year . . . but, for the first time in many seasons, Elliott will have a corps of men who can get the ball to those ends.

The No. 1 signal - caller, now, is senior Bob Timberlake. But, pressing Timberlake for his starting berth is Rich Vidmer, who will be a sophomore in September.

Behind those two are better-than-average hurlers like Rick Volk, Wally Gabler and Pete Hollis. Letterman Frosty Evashevski is out for golf.

TWO TOUCHDOWNS

Vidmer threw two touchdown passes and scored two TDs himself to personally guide the Whites to victory. The 5-foot-11, 185-pounder from Jeannette, Pa. completed 5-of-10 pass attempts for 71 yards and effectively ran the quarterback run-lateral option play all afternoon.

Hollis, a junior from Detroit, backed Vidmer and completed 3-for-5 for 34 yards, including a 9-yard scoring toss to Clayton Wilhite of Bay City.

But Gabler, a sophomore from Royal Oak, may be the sleeper on the squad. He completed 4-of-6 for 100 yards, but suffered an injured right shoulder on the final series of downs.

Golfing Friend Halts Patton's Winning Streak

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — After his 19 - match winning streak had been snapped in the finals of the North and South amateur golf tournament, Billy Joe Patton made this observation:

"It's almost relaxing that this is over. And it's challenging to think that maybe it can start again next year. I'm glad that a good friend like Dale Morey won. He plays like a champion. I just wouldn't want to lose to anybody."

★ ★ ★

Morey, 3 and 2 winner over his former Walker Cup teammate in the 36-hole finals of the 64th championship Saturday, accepted the winner's silver tray as a token of his first major victory in 11 years. In 1953 he won the Western amateur title and was US national runner-up.

Nicklaus Finds Golf's Oasis

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Golf star Jack Nicklaus is no sheik but he must love the desert.

Nicklaus, heading Monday with his fellow pros to the $75,000 Colonial Invitational at Fort Worth, has extracted $38,000 in one year from Las Vegas tournaments.

★ ★ ★

He scored his second straight victory Sunday in the $65,000 Tournament of Champions. It was worth $12,000. His 1963 triumph brought $13,000, and last fall his first place in the Sahara Invitational earned $13,000.

Nicklaus' victory Sunday was no walk in as it was a year ago.

"The way I finished, some one else should have won the tournament," said Jack. He referred to his last round 73 for a 72-hole score of 279, which was six more shots than he required in the 1963 event.

LONG PUTT

Nicklaus closed out the affair in romantic fashion, however. Needing only a par 4 on the 18th green to win, he sank a 42-foot putt for a birdie and a winning margin of two strokes.

Tied for second were Al Geiberger, who could well have won the tourney, and Doug Sanders. Each got $8,000.

U.S. Open Champion Julius Boros, Chi Chi Rodriguez, Tommy Jacobs, Don Fairfield and Paul Harney tied at 282, and Arnold Palmer, with pairs of 72s and 70s, finished with 284.

★ ★ ★

Nicklaus started out three strokes in front of the field. At one point he was five shots ahead.

But fortunes changed on the back nine and suddenly young Geiberger was all even with Nicklaus, and the holes were running out.

Nicklaus who had not three-putted a green all week, took three on No. 7 and again on number 15 and on 12 he took a double bogey 6.

BIG TRAP

But Geiberger found a trap on the 18th and wound up a bogey 5 and one stroke behind Nicklaus.

"Yes, I heard as I was walking down the 17th I had to par the last two holes to win," Jack related later.

Nicklaus' drive on 18 was down the middle. His second stopped two inches off the edge of the green.

"I tried to shoot right at the cup," he said.

Braves Blend Spahn With Young Hurlers

By The Associated Press

Shove over Warren Spahn. You may not be the Milwaukee Braves' only pitcher after all.

Perched in third place in the National League standings, Manager Bobby Bragan's club today can look back on three complete game pitching victories in the last four starts.

Sunday's 1-0 two-hit masterpiece by Hank Fischer against the Phillies followed Bob Sadowski's five-hitter against Philadelphia and Tony Cloninger's one-hitter against the Pirates.

The only loss in the four game stretch was charged to a 43-year-old southpaw on the staff of youngsters. Fellow named Spahn.

Fischer, sprung from the bullpen, turned in his third straight route-going performance, retiring the last 16 batters he faced. The 24-year-old right-hander also produced the only run of the game in the second inning.

Joe Torre had doubled and moved to third on a fly ball. With two out and a 2-0 count on Dennis Menke, Phillie Manager Gene Mauch ordered an intentional walk.

WINNING RUN

Fischer spoiled the strategy with a clean single up the middle and then made the run stand up. He had to because it was all the Braves could manage off Art Mahaffey who hurled a four-hitter but wound up a loser.

Elsewhere in the National League, Pittsburgh came from behind to whip St. Louis 12-8; San Francisco topped Los Angeles 6-3; Houston beat Chicago 5-3 and Cincinnati swept a doubleheader from the New York Mets 6-5 and 6-3.

Willie Stargell was the big gun for the Pirates driving in five runs with a home run and a single. The Cards raced to an 8-3 lead after Stargell's three-run homer in the first.

But Pittsburgh came back with five in the fifth including rookie Gene Alley's first major league homer. The Pirates went ahead to stay in the sixth with Alley's single igniting a two-run rally.

Juan Marichal had a shaky start before settling down and turning in his 10th straight victory for the Giants.

Short Putt Brings Rich Payday for LA Golf Pro

BURNEYVILLE, Okla. (AP)—Big Pete Brown was told just before he made his final putt that if he sank the 30-incher he would win the $20,000 Waco Turner Open Golf Tournament Sunday.

"I'm still shaking," the 6-foot-1 200-pound Negro from Los Angeles laughed after he sank the putt, winding up the 72-hole grind with a total score of 280, just one in front of veteran Dan Sikes of McKinney, Tex.

If he was nervous when he made the putt, it didn't show. The gallery of about 1,000 quit buzzing, held its collective breath and, after the putt, reacted with applause. Brown grinned widely and carefully checked his score card.

★ ★ ★

He is the second member of his race to win a PGA-sponsored tournament. Charles Sifford of Los Angeles, Brown's companion on the road, was the first. Sifford took the Long Beach Open in 1957 and the Puerto Rico Open last year. Sifford came in with a 283 in the Turner Open.

Brown, 29, a native of Mississippi who overcame polio to launch his career eight years ago, won $2,700 first prize money and $340 in bonus cash during the four-day tourney.

He learned most of his golf at the Rackham Course in Royal Oak, Mich.

Immediately after winning the tourney, Brown accepted an invitation to play in the Colonial Open at Fort Worth, Tex., this week. He will be the first Negro to play in that tournament. The victory automatically places Brown in the Tournament of Champions at Los Vegas next year and no Negro ever has been in that competition.

Brown carded 71s Thursday and Friday and had a 68 Saturday before posting a 35-35—70 Sunday. His final round was challenged by Sikes, who fired a sensational five-under-par 30-31—67, climaxed by a 60-foot chip for a birdie 2 on the 72nd. Sikes won $1,940 with prize and bonus money.

★ ★ ★

Bob Verwey of Johannesburg, South Africa, tied with Sifford with a 283. Verwey and Sifford each won $1,050 and bonus cash.

SPORTS FANS!
I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW
By Bud Shelton

Do you know how Casey Stengel got his nickname? . . . When Stengel first entered baseball, he told his teammates that he was from Kansas City, and they began calling him "K.C.", or "Casey" after the initials of Kansas City . . . And, needless to say, that name has stuck ever since and become one of the most famous nicknames in baseball history.

Most weekend golfers have trouble on various holes and get bad scores, but did you ever wonder what was the worst score ever made by a professional on one hole in a tournament? . . . The record is held by Tommy Armour . . . In the 1927 Shawnee Open, he took a 21 on one hole! . . . Armour had better luck that same year, however, because he won the National Open that season . . . It proves how inconsistent golfers can be — both the weekend golfers, and the pros.

If there had never been a Babe Ruth, who would be the all-time home run champion in baseball, for most homers in a lifetime? . . . The answer is Jimmy Foxx . . . Foxx hit 534 homers in his career . . . No one, except Ruth, ever hit more.

I bet you didn't know . . . that the place to get the right deal on a new Pontiac or Buick (or a real good used car) is at Shelton's! See us soon.

Wolverine 9 Stays Unbeaten in Big 10

CHICAGO (AP) — Michigan's undefeated Wolverines hope to add to their one-game lead in the Big Ten baseball race next weekend.

Coming off a second straight three-game sweep to beef their record of 6-0, the Wolverines play at Minnesota (5-1) Friday before embarking to Iowa for a doubleheader.

★ ★ ★

While Michigan is battling Iowa (1-5), Minnesota and Michigan State (5-1) will play a twin-bill to decide which team will remain in contention. The rest of Friday's schedule has Indiana (3-3) at Illinois (0-6), Michigan State at Iowa, Northwestern (1-5) at Wisconsin (3-3) and Ohio State (3-3) at Purdue (3-3).

Saturday's doubleheaders also find Indiana at Purdue, Northwestern at Wisconsin and Ohio State at Illinois.

ILLINI ROUTED

Michigan pounded defending champion Illinois 14-1 and 11-3 Saturday, but couldn't gain ground on Minnesota or Michigan State. Minnesota blanked Iowa 4-0 and 2-0, while MSU dropped once-challenging Purdue, 5-4 and 3-0.

Ohio State whipped Wisconsin 5-4, but lost the second game 2-1, and Indiana defeated Northwestern 3-2 only to lose the nightcap 4-3 in the eighth.

Right-handers Bill Wahl and Marlin Pemberton kept Illinois in check while their Wolverine teammates pounded the Illini for 21 hits and took advantage of nine errors. Wahl had three hits and drove in four runs and Pemberton knocked in a pair.

Doug Miller's brilliant relief pitching for seven innings enabled Michigan State to overcome a 4-0 lead to edge Purdue in the first game and Bill Collins tossed a two-hit shutout in the second game to give the Spartans a sweep. Miller yielded only two hits in his relief stint.

North, South Drivers Even in 300 Race

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The North and South are even in the Yankee 300 series.

Fred Lorenzen, star of the Southern NASCAR circuit took the second annual stock car feature over Indianapolis Raceway Park's Road course Sunday at a record 79.127 miles an hour.

★ ★ ★

A. J. Foyt, defending champion of the Northern U.S. Auto Club, was winner of the Yankee 300 inaugural last year and in contention Sunday until his radiator burst.

Actually, Lorenzen lives in Elmhurst, Ill., and Foyt in Houston, Texas.

SECOND PLACE

Parnelli Jones, the fastest qualifier, led for 97 laps around the twisting 2½-mile course but was whipped by transmission and clutch trouble and took second money. The Torrance, Calif., driver, Indianapolis 500 winner last year, operates for USAC.

Glen (Fireball) Roberts, NASCAR ace from Daytona Beach, Fla., was in close contention until his engine overheated after 187 miles.

★ ★ ★

Lorenzen drove a 64 Ford and Jones a '64 Mercury. All of the first five had Fords or Mercurys.

Third in a Mercury was Darel Dieringer, Charlotte, N.C.

Knicks First, Then Pistons

Pro Cagers Draft Today

NEW YORK (UPI) — Club owners and coaches will be called upon to make their biggest decisions of the year when the National Basketball Association holds its annual player draft at noon Monday.

★ ★ ★

All college seniors are eligible for the grab bag in which the nine NBA teams pick according to the reverse order of their 1963-64 regular season finish. Thus the last place New York Knickerbockers get the first choice while the champion Boston Celtics choose last.

Once again emphasis will be placed on height as rival teams seek an equalizer to the double menaces imposed by Bill Russell of the Celtics and Wilt Chamberlain of the San Francisco Warriors.

A big man is of crucial importance to the Knicks — as it has been for many years now — and they are expected to select 6-8 Olympian Jam Barnes of Texas Western as their No. 1 draft choice.

BARNES IMPRESSIVE

There are bigger men available, such as 6-9 Lucious Jackson of Pan American and 6-10 Willis Reed of Grambling, but the Burly Barnes impressed most during the Olympic trials and he expressed a desire to play in New York.

★ ★ ★

The Detroit Pistons, who finished last in the Western Division last season but with a better won-lost record than the Knicks had in the Eastern Division, may go back to the past for their first pick.

★ ★ ★

Bill Chmielewski, a 6-16, 245-pounder who was just reaching stardom when he quit Dayton in his sophomore year, is eligible for the draft and is considered a good bet for first-round selection.

★ ★ ★

Chmielewski has been teaching in a Detroit high school since his departure from college two years ago.

WIBC State Entry 2nd

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Kay Holloway of Caro, Mich., moved into second place Sunday in the Division II all-events of the Women's International Bowling Congress Tournament. Miss Holloway has 1,652 total pins to 1,781 for leader Florence Wietzel of Odebolt, Iowa.

Player trades between the National and American Leagues are permitted between Nov. 21 and Dec. 15, without waivers.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

FBI SKETCH — An FBI artist composed two impressions of the woman who kidnaped a day-old baby from Michael Reese Hospital in Chicago eight days ago. Paul J. Fronczak was taken from his mother at the hospital by a woman dressed as a nurse and hasn't been seen since.

5 Are Killed in 2-Car Crash

UKIAH, Calif. (AP) — Five persons were killed yesterday in the head-on collision of two cars at the crest of a hill on US-101 near Ukiah in Northern California.

Two other persons were critically injured.

The highway patrol said the victims in one car were Mrs. Andrea Lynne Smith, 28, the driver; her 3-year-old son, Charles Procter, and her mother, Mrs. Beatrice Pauline Smith, 46, all believed to be from Las Vegas, Nev.

Killed in the second car were Alice Smith, 54, and her mother, Mrs. Maude Matherson, 84, both of San Francisco.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Smith's husband, Irwin, 57, driver of the car, was in critical condition at Ukiah General Hospital.

An unidentified child, believed to be Mrs. Andrea Smith's daughter, also was listed as critical.

Piggy banks are for antique collectors

Very few people hide their life's savings in a mattress or behind loose bricks in the fireplace these days. But many might as well, for all the interest they're getting in some savings plans!

Money saved . . . should work for you. And money works best, earns the most in a credit union savings account!

Why? Ask one of 100,000 carefree Oakland County residents who received credit union dividends totaling $2 million this year. Most earned 4% or more in interest—well above the average for other savings institutions. And members receive a bonus dividend, for savings are matched by life insurance coverage, at no extra cost!

Members say credit unions provide more convenience and more incentive to save. This helps to accumulate tidy sums they would not otherwise be saving . . . and they reap higher returns on these funds than with other savings plans.

All this is because credit unions are people. The members own it. They run it. And they tailor its policies and services to meet members' needs.

If you are not a credit union member, you may be able to qualify for one in your community, place of employment, church or organization.

Mailmen Join Hunt for Kidnaper

CHICAGO (UPI) — Police and federal agents were joined in their search for the kidnaped Fronczak baby today by the nation's letter carriers.

The infant, Paul Joseph, was born eight days ago at Chicago's Michael Reese Hospital and kidnaped the following day by a woman posing as a nurse.

Mrs. Dora Fronczak, the dark-haired, 28-year-old wife of an aircraft mechanic, was still confined to her hospital room. A frustrating one-week search left police with few clues.

Authorities expressed hope that the baby and his kidnaper would eventually be found.

Helping them were the nation's 175,000 letter carriers, a vast network of Federal Bureau of Investigation agents and a new sketch of the kidnaper.

MORE DETAIL

The new sketch had more detail, more facial shadowing and a slightly different hair styling than previous conceptions.

It was released yesterday by Marlin W. Johnson, head of the Chicago FBI office, who said it was prepared after detailed interviews with persons who saw the mystery woman.

U. S. Postmaster General John A. Gronouski, in Chicago for a speech yesterday, announced he was acting to enlist the aid of the nation's letter carriers in the search for the Fronczak baby.

★ ★ ★

Gronouski said he had been assured by Jerome Keating, president of the National Letter Carriers Association in Washington, that the FBI's new sketch of the kidnaper would be printed in the association's publication, "The Postal Record."

REPORT SUSPICION

Letter carriers will be asked to report anything suspicious or anyone resembling the sketch to the FBI at once.

He said the method had previously been used in attempts to locate persons wanted by the FBI.

Chicago police continued their own citywide search for new information and manned banks of telephones to take calls from the public.

★ ★ ★

Because the Fronczak baby was not foot-printed but only photographed the day of his birth, each passing day meant the infant would be more difficult to identify when and if he is found.

Fast Trip Down 'Cliff'

NEW YORK (AP) — Michael Shields, 21, an apprentice mountain climber, suffered a fractured right ankle and hand burns last night when he fell three floors while testing a rope.

Trying to descend from the roof of a six-story apartment building, Shields got about half way down.

He slipped, but held on until his hand were burned by the rope — and he had to let go.

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP)—The government has set up a team of experts to investigate increasing uses of insecticides and other poisons and report to the minister of health on their effects on the soil and people.

Romney Finishes at Tail End of Write-In Brigade

DALLAS (AP)—Gov. George W. Romney of Michigan, who lists himself among non-candidates for the Republican nomination for president, picked up 150 write-in votes in the Texas GOP primary Saturday.

★ ★ ★

There is a chance he may pick up more. He got his 150 in returns from 254 of 254 counties, 188 of them complete. Counting was to be resumed today.

★ ★ ★

Romney was at the tail end of the write-in brigade. Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania, who also lists himself as a noncandidate, had 516. Henry Cabot Lodge, ambassador to Viet Nam, got 11,222 write-ins.

Fire Kills Children While Parent Gone

OGDEN, Utah (AP) — Four children left alone while their mother celebrated her birthday were found dead amid smoke and fumes from an electrical fire early yesterday.

Sheriff's deputies identified the victims as Marvin Jr., 4, Carol, 8, Julie, 9, and Vickie, 10, children of Marvin and Dolores Jarman.

Firemen were summoned by neighbors who saw flames in the Jarman house. Firemen said the blaze was apparently caused by faulty electrical wiring.

Gov. Romney Urged Not to Sign Island Bill

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP) — The Ontario Recreation Association planned to ask Gov. George W. Romney of Michigan today not to sign a bill to release the state's rights to 34.4 acres of submerged land at Peach Island in the Detroit River. The group opposes use of the river land for a proposed $30-million private recreation center.

Kidney Received From Twin Sister

LONDON (AP)— A close medical watch was maintained today over a 21-year-old art student who received a transplanted kidney from his twin sister.

Hammersmith Hospital said the patient, Graham Frew, was doing "as well as can be expected at this stage." His sister, Anne, was reported making satisfactory progress.

★ ★ ★

Miss Frew is to be married next month to Ralph Nicholls, who like the Frews lives in the Oxford area. She hopes her twin can give her away at the wedding.

Conveys U. S. Concern

Johnson Will Send Fulbright to Cyprus

WASHINGTON(AP) — President Johnson is sending chairman J. W. Fulbright of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to Greece and Turkey to demonstrate this government's concern with the Cyprus situation.

Fulbright long had planned a trip to Europe, but Athens and Ankara were not added to his itinerary until he called Sunday at the White House for a discussion with Johnson.

★ ★ ★

Afterward the White House announced that the President had asked Fulbright to "express to the Greek and Turkish governments the continuing interest and concern of both the President and Congress with the disturbing situation on Cyprus."

★ ★ ★

The announcement said that the Arkansas Democrat will not carry any suggestion regarding the ultimate settlement of the Cyprus question because this "must await the proposals of the U.N. mediator."

SENSE OF URGENCY

Rather, the White House said, Fulbright "will convey the sense of urgency felt in the United States regarding the need for the restoration of order on the island, and will report to the President his impressions as to the views of the Greek and Turkish governments."

The Cyprus problem is in the hands of the United Nations. A multination U.N. peacekeeping force has been sent to the island to try to stop armed clashes betwen Greek and Turkish Cypriots.

★ ★ ★

Last Wednesday, Turkish Foreign Minister Feridun C. Erkin discussed the conflict at the White House with President Johnson.

★ ★ ★

Erkin described the fighting on the island as "not mere acts of murder on the part of the Greeks, but a war operation in the classic meaning of the word."

NEW REALITIES

Fulbright set off a national debate last March 25 by calling on U.S. policy leaders "to disabuse ourselves of old myths and to act wisely and creatively upon the new realities of our time."

★ ★ ★

While in Europe he will visit the Hague and Copenhagen.

Racist Gang in Harlem Tied to Unsolved Killings

NEW YORK (UPI) — Police sought today to link the unsolved slayings of two white men in Harlem to a racist gang of young hoodlums.

Evidence indicates the gang was formed in recent months and dedicated itself to attacking whites in the largely Negro area for reasons of race alone.

One of the murdered men was a missionary, the other a fruit peddler.

Five youths already are in custody in connection with one such racist attack, the slaying of Mrs. Margit Sugar, 45, in her Harlem clothing store.

★ ★ ★

Police said some of the youths had been trained in violence by extremists of the Black Muslim movement and that tracing Black Muslim ties had led to the arrest of three of the five.

ADMIT SLAYING

Two also admitted the knife-slaying of Eileen Johnson, a young social worker, police said.

A sixth youth still was being hunted today in the death of Mrs. Sugar.

A 13-state alarm was out for Wallace Baker, 19, who police said killed the white woman with a single thrust of his double-edged dirk.

★ ★ ★

Now being reviewed in connection with the gang are the slayings of:

● David Watts, a white, self-proclaimed missionary who had dedicated his life to the Bible and to Harlem in a one-man integration effort. He was stabbed to death. Hundreds of his Negro neighbors attended his funeral.

FRUIT PEDDLER

● Jules Bulgach, a 71-year-old white man who peddled fruit from a horse-drawn cart and was beloved by his long-time Harlem customers. He was stabbed to death as he stood beside that cart on a West Side street.

Mrs. Sugar was slain Wednesday after six youths drifted into her clothing store and she nervously told them she did not have their size. Her husband, Frank, 50, also was seriously slashed.

Miss Johnston was stabbed April 11 as she was about to enter the automobile of a Negro associate near a Harlem bar.

Muslim spokesmen categorically deny their organization advocates initiating violence against whites.

RACIST CULT

Some police officers are said to believe the youths formed their own cult — down to formalized racist rituals.

In another racial clash—not connected with the Harlem gang — a white Brooklyn youth died yesterday from injuries received the night before.

Anthony Pallone, 17, died despite long hours of emergency surgery to remove four inches of copper pipe imbedded in his skull.

Police said Pallone was among a group of young whites who chased a young Negro from a Brooklyn school yard and later were confronted by the boy and several older friends. A street battle ensued.

★ ★ ★

Four youths were held in connection with the Pallone slaying — two charged with homicide.

Letter Demands Money for Head of Danish Statue

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP)—Police studied an anonymous letter today demanding $1,450 for the missing head of Copenhagen's Little Mermaid.

The letter, printed in block capitals, was mailed to the newspaper B.T.

The writer did not admit he was the vandal who sawed the head off the famous statue nine days ago. But he claimed to know where the head was located.

A new head for the statue is being cast from the original plaster mold.

Doctors Warn Queen to Cut Down Work

LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II has been warned by her doctors to avoid a heavy work schedule, and will cut down public appearances during the summer, court sources said today.

The queen, 38, gave birth to her fourth child, Prince Edward, six weeks ago. Rumors that her health has been the cause of some concern have been denied by Buckingham Palace.

Calamities Hit Red Chinese

Floods in the North, Droughts Dry South

HONG KONG (AP) — Natural calamities have struck vast areas of Communist China.

Provincial radio broadcasts from China say parts of North China were devastated by recent floods, and areas in South China have been plagued by prolonged drought.

But these calamities apparently have not affected the food situation.

Visitors and refugees from many major cities in China reported rice rations remained unchanged at between 32 and 35 pounds for each adult every month.

★ ★ ★

Meats and vegetables are available in large quantities at the "high price" market, they said.

Radio Chengchow in Honan described spring floods in the southeast part of the Province as "the worst in several decades." The broadcast said most places in the province had had continuous rain since early April.

URGENT MEASURES

Radio Wuhan in Hupeh, one of Red China's wheat producing provinces, said urgent measures to ensure the safety of dykes and reservoirs had been adopted.

"All rivers are high and all reservoirs full," the broadcast said. "Further rainfall will cause floods."

European businessmen who recently returned to this British colony from Peking by air reported many parts of Hueph were covered with water.

★ ★ ★

Waterlogging was also reported in some areas in East China. However, the situation there was not considered serious.

SEVERE DROUGHT

In South China, severe drought was reported on Hainan Island and parts of Fukien Province.

Radio Haikow reported: "Little rain has fallen in Hainan in the past two months. The island had launched a bitter struggle against drought. According to statistics from eight counties, 70,000 laborers have been hurled into the battle."

★ ★ ★

Areas near Amoy, opposite the Chinese Nationalist island of Quemoy, also were reported suffering from prolonged drought.

'Church Hurt by Critics in Dance Rift'

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Their Episcopalian bishop said Sunday an excommunicated Ionia couple harmed the church's position as "moral guardian of the community" in publicly criticizing their rector's protests of a school play dance.

The Right Rev. Charles E. Bennison said Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clore "had every right" to object to their rector's moral stand, but not in the local newspaper.

★ ★ ★

The controversy arose over a dance that 16-year-old Kristi Honson performed in Ionia High School's production of "Damn Yankees."

The Rev. Raymond Bierlein called the dance "salacious and immoral." In a letter published in The Ionia Sentinel-Standard, the Clores said their rector harbored "archaic beliefs."

EXCOMMUNICATION

Their excommunication was announced by The Rev. Mr. Bierlein in church the following Sunday. Bishop Bennison said the couple will receive a hearing by four clergymen and three laymen June 4 on the excommunication.

The bishop said the "real issue of concern is whether the church" through its ministry may serve as the moral guardian for church members.

Heart Attack Blamed for Death of Man, 83

GORE BAY, Ont. (AP)—Police believe a heart attack caused the death Sunday of Emery Fuller, 83, of Hemlock, Mich., who fell into Kagawong Lake 10 miles south of this Manitoulin Island community.

Police said Fuller was standing on a dock when he suddenly buckled over and fell into 15 feet of water.

Well-Learned Ideas Retained

Right Learning Method Increases Memory

By LESLIE J. NASON, ED. D.

There's no use admonishing a student, "Now try not to forget this." He cannot control forgetting directly. What he can control is the way he learns.

DR. NASON

The rate of forgetting varies with the way the learning took place. So, how fast we forget some things indicates the best ways to learn them.

Ideas only partially understood are forgotten far more rapidly than those thoroughly absorbed. To make matters worse, a mind filled with little-understood material has great difficulty absorbing new information.

"One thing at a time, and that well done is wisdom's simple rule" applies to learning. Forgetting is less rapid when one section of material is thoroughly learned before another section is presented.

Forgetting is less rapid when ideas are coupled or when several ideas are associated with each other as they are learned.

* * *

For example, in learning anatomy, if each part of the body is associated with the parts next to it and if, at the same time, a student thinks of the texture of the part and its function, he is linking ideas together in a manner that slows down the forgetting process and aids recall.

FORGETTING SLOWS

Forgetting is less rapid when the learning has been strengthened through practice in recall of the material. At the same time, in practicing recall, a student is continuously preparing for recitation and tests.

Fortunately, the rate of forgetting can be slowed down, and a student's ability to learn and to recall can be improved through practice.

Since almost all of what a student learns is through reading and listening these are the best places to strive for improvement.

Any student can improve the efficiency of his reading by associating new ideas as he reads. His second step, at the end of a section of material, is to recall what he has read.

He should then reread rapidly, strengthening his association and include any ideas that he missed in his first recall attempt.

A poor reader would do well to repeat this approach many times before proceeding to another section. With each new reading he should attempt to increase his speed.

By OSWALD JACOBY

There seems to be a lot of confusion among the committee that studied the Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament hands as to what South should rebid after North raised him from one spade t otwo.

JACOBY

Personally, I would bid four spades with the South hand. In any event, South had to reach four spades in order to get par.

From that point, it was up to East and West to set the contract. They were helped out by being given a directed trump opening.

Declarer would win the first trump in his own hand and second in dummy and was then directed to take a diamond finesse.

West could either duck the first diamond or not. That would not affect his par. After he took his king it would be up to him to shift to a heart.

Furthermore, the shift had to be one to separate the men from the boys. He should lead either the queen or nine of hearts.

This lead of a high heart would clearly tell partner that he did not want a heart return.

A look at dummy would show East that there would be no point in a diamond return. East would lead a club and West would set the contract with two club tricks.

Of course, East might still return a club if his partner led the fourth best heart, but the lead of a high heart would have drawn a diagram.

Asks Peace for Malaysia

Britain Says Crisis Problem for Asians

TOKYO (AP)—British Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler said today Britain wants an "honorable settlement" of the Malaysian crisis but that it is primarily a matter for the Asian powers involved.

He said that if it appears possible from his talks in Manila with President Diosdado Macapagal to arrange for a foreign ministers' conference, followed by a new Malaysia-Indonesia-Philippines summit meeting, "we will be glad to look at it and to talk to the Malaysians about it."

★ ★ ★

He leaves for the Philippines Tuesday after a five-day visit to Japan. Butler told a news conference Japan had indicated willingness to act as a mediator in the dispute between Indonesia and Malaysia but that Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda did not believe the time was ripe for such an intervention.

★ ★ ★

Butler made these other points:

1. Britain, which recognizes Communist China, would be glad to take part in any conference on the future of Formosa, providing it took into account the wishes of the inhabitants of the Nationalist-controlled island. He said Japan was in substantial agreement.

2. While Britain will not work for admission of Red China to the United Nations, it sees an advantage for world peace if any country like Red China were to associate with other nations in the international community.

★ ★ ★

3. There are no differences in British attitudes in trade with either sector of the Communist bloc. All its dealings are on a purely commercial basis.

4. Britain and the Soviet Union are in agreement over the need for a broad-based government in Laos with Prince Souvanna Phouma as premier.

Prohibition Party Not on State Ballot

KALAMAZOO (AP)—For the first time in 52 years, the Prohibition Party will not appear on Michigan's general elections ballot in November.

The party's petitions to get on the ballot were 14,900 signatures short, with only 12,500 signatures collected by Saturday's filing deadline, said D. D. Gibbons of Kalamazoo, executive national chairman.

Gibbons said party members will campaign for a write-in vote for their presidential candidate, E. Harold Munn Sr., a professor at Hillsdale College.

Today's Washington News Roundup

Federal Tax Revenue Increase Surpasses All Predictions

WASHINGTON (AP) —In the news from Washington:

RISE: Government sources report that federal tax revenue rose $1.5 billion to $24 billion during the first three months of 1964 even though the tax cut took effect March 1.

The $24-billion increase surpassed predictions by government economists, partly because the new lower tax rates went into effect a month after the Feb. 1 date on which the forecasts were based.

But government experts feel the revenue figures support other statistical evidence that indicates the economy is continuing to pick up steam.

The first quarter of 1964 was the 10th straight quarter in which revenues have shown an increase over the previous year. The business expansion from the 1960 recession, which began in March 1961, set a peacetime record of 38 months in April.

STAMP: The Post Office Department plans to begin national sale of the John F. Kennedy memorial stamp on May 29—the 47th anniversary of the late president's birth.

The five-cent stamp has a blue-gray color and bears Kennedy's likeness and a drawing of the eternal flame placed at his grave in Arlington National Cemetery. Kennedy's widow selected the design.

VIET NAM: The State Department's top expert on the Far East says he thinks U.S.-advised South Vietnamese forces have halted a downward trend in their war against Communist Viet Cong guerrillas.

"I would say that we certainly have arrested the downward trend that has been in effect, going back some time—and that it had leveled out," William P. Bundy said Sunday on ABC's radio-television program "Issues and Answers."

NO OFFENSIVE ACTION

Bundy, who is assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs, said that while the possibility of carrying the Viet Nam war into North Viet Nam "certainly is" still open, he thinks the war can be won without taking offensive action against Communist supply lines in the north.

* * *

STROLL: President Johnson took newsmen on a 45-minute stroll around White House grounds Saturday, answering questions, greeting tourists and playing with his two beagles.

The President made five laps around the driveways on the south grounds. At one point he clapped his hands and the two beagles—Him and Her—dutifully appeared.

* * *

He lifted Her up by the head and body. Referring to the recent furor when he picked up Him and Her by the ears so they would stand and yelp, Johnson said that "when they yelp, it's not a sign of pain, it's a sign of joy."

HOUR WITH CABINET

Johnson also spent an hour with his Cabinet Saturday. He said that in carrying out the administration's economy and efficiency drive "we ought to be as unsatisfied as a little boy's appetite."

The President called on department and agency heads to junk more publications, and questionnaires, to hold down payrolls, to curb spending and to "buy only what you must and get the best price you can."

Gina Goes Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — "I'm a big girl," says Gina Lollobrigida. "After 15 years of marriage, I should be able to travel by myself."

THOMAS

The Italian beauty is here making a movie with Rock Hudson, "Strange Bedfellows." Her husband, Yugoslav-born Dr. Drago Milko Skofic, is in Rome attending to his publishing business. Their divergence started tongues to wag, especially since she has been getting a whirl of the Hollywood night spots with Glenn Ford.

Gina couldn't care less about such talk.

* * *

"What am I supposed to do—go out alone?" she asked. "That would be even worse. I wouldn't think of going out with other women. I see it done in this country, but women would never dine out together in Italy."

The thought of staying home in her luxurious Beverly Hills hacienda doesn't appeal to her, either. She has been taking lessons in such exotic dances as the Watusi for her field trips into the local night life. Rome was never like this, she says.

WILD PEOPLE

"I have never seen such wild people as in some of the night clubs in Hollywood," she said.

She also has attended frequent dinner parties in her honor. This is a compliment, she I meet: 'I think I know you from somewhere.' And he answered, but also a hazard.

"So many names!" she groaned. "It's hard enough to learn names in your own language, but in English, too.

* * *

"I do the best I can, but sometimes I—how do you say it?—goof. I meet someone who says, 'You don't remember me, do you?' When I confess I don't, he says, 'I gave a dinner party for 60 people in your honor.'

"So I say to the next person swers, 'No, I've never met you.' It is very unnerving."

WELCOME RETURN

Gina's charm can get her through most situations, and her return to Hollywood is welcomed by her fellow workers. Her enthusiasm for working here might be surprising, in light of her previous experience.

Her first Hollywood film was "Never So Few," a lackluster venture epic with Frank Sinatra.

"I did it mainly to prove to Hollywood that I could work here in spite of Howard Hughes," she said. "I once signed an agreement with him, and he kept me from working in Hollywood for seven years without paying me a cent. Even after the contract was over, he made MGM pay him $50,000 to use me in 'Never So Few.' And later MGM paid him $75,000 so I could do 'Go Naked in the World.' "

LIKED SCRIPT

Gina returned to make "The Lady L" with Tony Curtis. Both stars liked the script, but the new director, George Cukor, did not. Nine scripts and five months later, the project was shelved at a loss Gina reports at $2.5 million.

"I was paid for it — twice," she said, "but it was not good for me. I lost a whole year of work because I couldn't schedule other films. A year is too long to go without work."

AP Photofax

EXPRESSES HERSELF — Italian actress Gina Lollobrigida is working in Hollywood and her husband is attending to his publishing business in Rome, but she keeps her spare time occupied by painting — a hobby she developed as a young girl — and seeing the Hollywood night spots.

Light Plane Crashes; Soggy Field Blamed

ST. JOSEPH (AP)—A light plane taking off from Watervliet struck a power line, crashed into a clump of trees and landed upside down in a swampy area Saturday, but its two occupants walked away unhurt.

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

Weight Is Factor in High Blood Pressure

BRANDSTADT

Since writing about the new dental disclosing wafers that show whether or not you have succeeded in cleaning your teeth by brushing, I have had many letters asking where the wafers can be bought. Xpose disclosing wafers are made by D. Brownlee and Co. (Box 1016, Bellaire 101, Tex.) and identical tablets called Tablet-Test are made by Proctor and Gamble (Cincinnati 1, Ohio).

* * *

Q. — Does diet play an important part in relieving high blood pressure?

* * *

A — Since overweight is commonly associated with high blood pressure, a reduction of body weight by dieting and maintaining a normal weight may be an important part of the treatment.

* * *

Regardless of weight a low-sodium (salt poor) diet should be followed. In order to be effective, such a diet should be supervised by a phsician who is familiar with its details.

Q — Since childhood I have never been able to distinguish different smells. What could cause this

* * *

A — It is unusual for a person to lack a sense of smell from birth but it could occur if you have a developmental defect in the olfactory nerve. Other causes would includ inability to breathe freely through your nose because of some form of chronic obstruction.

Q — I recently read about Ehrlich and his discovery of arsphenamine or formula 606 for the treatment of syphilis. Is the drug still used

A — Since it was found that penicillin, a much safer drug for most people, cures syphilis quicker and with greater certainity, arsphenamine has fallen into disuse.

Q — Is niacin harful to the system I have taken it for over three years. My ophthalmologist prescribed it to improve my circulation.

* * *

A — Niacin or nicotinic acid is a part of the vitamin B complex. It is found in meat, brewer's yeast, peanuts and whole wheat. It can be taken in large doses without harm.

It helps to bring down a high blood cholesterol. It is frequently prescribed by ophthalmologists to dilate the small blood vessels and thus improve the circulation to all tissues including the retina.

Q — My doctor has prescribed Meprospan capsules which I have been taking for the past three months. What are they for

A — Meprospan is a trade name for meprobamate, a tranquilizer. It should not be necessary to take this drug indefinitely.

Small Losses on Increase

Market Recovery Continues

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market recovery continued early this afternoon in fairly active trading.

Gains of fractions to a point among key stocks outnumbered losers.

An assortment of specially suited issues did considerably better than most others. At the same time, the number of small losers seemed to increase as trading wore on.

★ ★ ★

Big Three motors, airlines, chemicals, rails, coppers, electronics and aerospace issues showed a generally higher trend.

Steels and building materials were mixed.

The news background remained encouraging. Manufacturers new orders were reported slightly higher in March. Auto production for April set a new high for the month. Talk of a further price increase for copper continued.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 1.0 at 304.1 with industrials up 1.7, rails up .5 and utilities up .2.

Mack Trucks held a gain of about 3 points as it responded further to Chrysler's plans for its acquisition. Chrysler was up a point.

Prices were higher in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange. Gains of about 2 were made by Skyline Homes "A," Philips Electronics, and AKU. Mack Truck warrants were up about 3 after a halt in trading due to excessive demand. Gains exceeding a point were made by Syntex, Central Securities, Armour warrants, TWA warrants and Barnes Engineering.

To Block Terrorist Tactics

U.S. Security Tightened in Saigon

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI) — Authorities enforced the tightest possible security measures in Saigon today to block increasingly bold terror tactics of Communists guerrillas.

Police and troops patroling the city were under orders to keep particular watch on American citizens in view of the weekend violence against U.S. personnel and the sabotage sinking of the aircraft ferry, the Card.

"Military sources said security restrictions in the capital were as stringent as it is possible to make them.

A plan is under study in Washington, sources said, to return two companies of military policemen to South Viet Nam to guard American installations and dependents. The companies were withdrawn in December.

U.S. officials and South Vietnamese government authorities were gravely concerned about the stepped-up Communist terrorism which included the sabotage of The Card, the wounding of eight U.S. servicemen in a bombing, an attack on a car of the International Control Commission (ICC), and a daring ambush of a government unit just 17 miles north of Saigon.

EFFORTS REINFORCED

Efforts to salvage The Card were reinforced with the arrival of a salvage team from Subic Bay Naval Base in the Philippines. A U.S. military spokesman said the chances of saving the vessel from capsizing were good.

The aircraft ferry sank into the harbor mud Saturday after Communist Viet Cong terrorists planted explosives along the ship's hull and tore a gaping hole about 10 feet below the waterline.

The Card is the first large American vessel to be sunk in the anti-Communist struggle although patrol and landing craft occasionally have been destroyed.

Eight U.S. Army personnel watching the salvage operations were wounded Saturday night when a terrorist on a bicycle tossed a bomb into a crowd near the harbor. None of the men was hurt seriously.

SUNDAY ATTACK

Qualified sources said Viet Cong insurgents yesterday attacked an ICC white-painted car near Hue in the north, wounding the Communist member of the commission in a daylight ambush. The injured man was a Polish major.

The ICC is charged with enforcing the Geneva agreements of 1954 which were signed after the French Indochinese war. The ICC is composed of representatives from Poland, Canada and India.

In the ambush of Vietnamese troops Saturday, 17 government soldiers were killed, 21 others were wounded, and 5 apparently were captured. Viet Cong losses were reported as six killed and one wounded.

The ambush took place as the government troops were clearing a road block near Duc Hoa. Communist guerrillas, in estimated battalion strength along both sides of the road, opened fire with automatic weapons.

The government forces held out for more than four hours until helicopters arrived from Saigon and drove the guerrillas off.

Authorities were alarmed that the Communists could operate so successfully in areas near government concentrations. Last week a band of guerrillas entered a provincial capital, captured some Viet Cong defectors, and made off with them even though a large government unit was stationed in the town.

Judge Elected Chairman of Camp Oakland Board

JUDGE A. E. MOORE

CARL O. BARTON

Directors of Camp Oakland yesterday elected Oakland County Circuit Court Judge Arthur E. Moore chairman of the board and approved the appointment of Carl O. Barton as new president.

Barton, a contractor and civil engineer, has been serving on an interim basis following the death of Walter Gehrke in December.

He was formerly vice president of Camp Oakland and chairman of the forward planning committee. He lives at 586 E. Long Lake, Bloomfield Hills.

Judge Moore was a founder of the camp for underprivileged children near Oxford and had extensive contact with youth problems as a former county Probate Court judge for 24 years.

Mrs. Walter Gehrke, Pleasant Ridge widow of the man who presided over the camp since its founding 11 years ago, has been named an honorary life member of Camp Oakland.

FIRST RECIPIENT

She is the first recipient of the camp's highest honor award under a recognition program suggested by her late husband shortly before his death.

In other action at the board's semiannual meeting at Kingsley Inn, Isaac W. Robertson, 2935 Binbrooke, Troy, and Robert A. Dearth, 310 Martell, Bloomfield Hills, were elected vice presidents.

New directors elected were Eugene A. Moore, David Levinson, Herbert H. Gardner, Edward H. Lerchen and Robert M. Critchfield.

Drilling of a well to raise the level of Handsome Lake beside the camp was also approved by the board, along with authorization to draw plans for a new boys' ranch.

Senator Claims Rights Victory

Predicts Jury Trial Clause Won't Pass

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel of California, a leader of the Senate's civil rights forces, staked out a victory claim today over the Morton jury trial amendment.

Not only will the proposal backed by Sen. Thruston B. Morton, R-Ky., be defeated, Kuchel said in an interview, but the Senate will turn its back on more drastic amendments proposed by Southern opponents of the civil rights bill.

★ ★ ★

Under the Morton proposal, a defendant would have the right of a jury trial in any case of criminal contempt of court arising out of the antidiscrimination provisions of the legislation.

The Senate is expected to vote on this amendment Wednesday —the first real test of the measure since the bill reached the floor March 30.

ANOTHER PREDICTION

As the Senate headed into its 47th day on civil rights, Kuchel offered another prediction: the jury trial amendment backed by the Senate leaders will pass.

Kuchel, the assistant Republican leader, has teamed with his Democratic counterpart, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, to shepherd the civil rights bill.

★ ★ ★

Their chiefs, Democrat Mike Mansfield of Montana and Republican Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, are backing an amendment that would provide jury trials in criminal contempt cases only if the penalty exceeded 30 days in jail or a $300 fine.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., derided this as an attempt to "put a price tag" on justice and a constitutional right. One of his Dixie lieutenants, Sen. Herman E. Talmadge, D-Ga., has offered an amendment that would assure jury trials in all criminal contempt cases under the bill except actions committed in the presence of a judge.

'REAL PROSPECT'

Louisiana's Sen. Russell B. Long said Sunday there "is a real prospect" the bill will be passed under a debate-limitation rule.

About 70 policemen will be killed in this country this year in line of duty, the National Police Officers Association predicts.

Romney Wins Over Staebler in Voter Poll

DETROIT (AP)—Gov. George W. Romney now is favored over Democrat Rep. Neil Staebler by better than a 5 to 3 margin, the Detroit News reported today from a poll of voters.

The News said that if an election were held today for governor between the two, Republican Romney would get 55.3 per cent of the votes and Staebler 30.7 per cent. The remainder of voters were undecided or not voting.

The poll showed Romney had increased his lead over Staebler since a prior poll in January. At the time, Romney was given 49.6 per cent and Staebler 34.3 per cent of the vote.

Staebler is favored over George N. Higgins, Republican for governor, the poll said. Staebler received 35.3 per cent of the vote to 18.7 per cent for Higgins. Higgins has announced for the Republican nomination for governor.

The poll said Romney outscored Staebler in normally Democratic Wayne County. Romney was given 43.7 per cent of the Wayne vote to 41.8 per cent for Staebler.

Outstate, Romney received 58.1 per cent as compared to 25.1 per cent for Staebler.

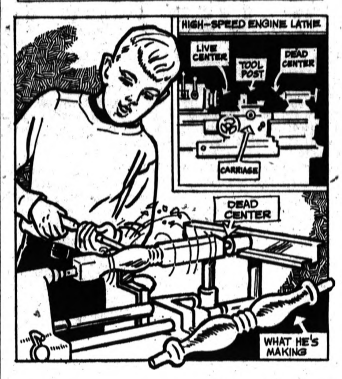
Junior Editors Quiz on TOOLS



QUESTION—How does a lathe work and what is it used for?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER—Carpenters use tools such as hammers and screw drivers which are operated by hand. But many of the jobs they must do nowadays would be impossible without machine operated tools, in which power makes the tool work.

One of the most important of these is the lathe. Its function is to turn things into various round shapes. It does this by skinning off the surface areas, as one peels off the skin from an apple.

The main picture shows Billy turning out a rung to repair one of his mother's chairs. He has put a piece of wood in the holders on the lathe and turned on the power; the wood is spinning around.

Now he is resting a sharp "gouge" on a tool rest which is part of the machine and by cutting lightly in some places and deeply in others can get the required shape, shown at lower right.

The same principle is used for lathes which turn things out of metal, from big objects like crankshafts and railway car wheels to the tiny wheels and pins used in watches.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO—The lathe Billy is using is only part of a power tool Billy's Dad has set up in the basement. Perhaps your school, or one of your friend's families, has such a multiple tool, which can saw, drill and sand as well as turn. Find out how these different operations work.

Pair of Blonde Bombers Stage 'Opening' Battle

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — There's a "Battle of the Blondes" raging here between two gal singers, Peggy Lee at the American and Patti Page at the Waldorf . . . and which do you figure is going to win?

Dames are funny. Rather, their managers are.

WILSON

When it came up on the calendar that both gals were opening the same night, it'd have been nice if one would have said, "I'll open some other night." But which could . . . and save face?

★ ★ ★

So there I was — scrambling between the two openings like an idiot . . . and I guess that Patti Page, having an old husband, Charles O'Curran, was second choice against Peggy Lee, having a new husband, her musical director, Jack Del Rio, plus a new $17,500-a-week VIP red carpet contract at the Americana.

But Patti's a gutsy gal.

Tony Perkins, at Patti's opening, met Lotte Tarp, the Danish beauty, which kept him there . . . then he mentioned that Patti Page was quite a gal . . . she stuck to business . . . to her commitment.

★ ★ ★

Around midnight when we got to the Americana to hear Peggy Lee, the atmosphere was looser.

So was Peggy. She lisped a little. She addressed her husband, Jack Del Rio, as "Darling," which I didn't mind. She saluted a few stars . . . and if you didn't insist upon a disciplined program, Peggy had exactly what you wanted.

Nevertheless, it looks to me like so far the Battle of the Blondes is a draw. The strange part of the Battle of the Blondes, is, I suppose, that originally both blondes probably were brunettes.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Zero Mostel got tired of waiting for his "Hercule Poirot" film to get started in London, and flew home . . . Fred Clark postponed a trip to L.A. so se could see ex-wife Benay Venuta open at Papermill Playhouse in "Dear Me, the Sky is Falling." . . . Tony Martin's son, Tony Jr., will be a Senate page this summer . . . George Raft squired three different girls to The Mongnore on three successive nights, introduced 'em all as "Miss X" . . . Marlon Brando just got the final figures on his film, "One-Eyed Jacks" — it cost him $500,000 . . . Louis Armstrong's May 21 TV stint with Perry Como was canceled. (Because he played his "Hello, Dolly" hit tune on another show first?)

EARL'S PEARLS: All that cooking, cleaning and washing take some of the romance out of marriage. And yet some husbands do it without complaining.

'War Possibility Greatest Along Racial Lines'

NEW YORK (AP)—Sir Hugh Foot, former British colonial governor of Jamaica and Cyprus, says the possibility of war between whites and the world's colored peoples is "a greater danger than anything between East and West."

★ ★ ★

"The greatest threat to peace in the world is the threat of a war between the colored peoples of the world and the rest; between the peoples who suffer at the moment from poverty and the affluent societies," he said.

★ ★ ★

Sir Hugh, a member of the five-man panel which advises U.N. Secretary-General U Thant on conditions in South Africa, appeared on WOR-TV in New York.

Vacation in Hawaii

Teen-Agers Bottle Up Beatles

HONOLULU (AP)—Hawaiian fans of the Beatles kept two of the British rock 'n' rollers inside Sunday except for a furtive 20 minutes in the island sun.

While mop-haired John Lennon and George Harrison were trying unsuccessfully to be ordinary tourists, the other half of the quartet, Paul McCartney and Ringo Starr, was in the Virgin Islands.

★ ★ ★

Derek Taylor, the Beatles' London agent, said they have a month free from engagements. Their next scheduled performance is in June in Australia.

Lennon, his wife, Cynthia, and Harrison arrived incognito in Honolulu Saturday midnight and checked into the heavily guarded Royal Hawaiian Hotel. They came from Amsterdam by way of Vancouver, B.C.

PRIVATE BEACH

The two Beatles and Mrs. Lennon slipped out to the other side of the island Sunday to the private beach of public relations man John McDermott.

In five minutes, 50 teen-agers appeared and the Beatles fled to a private pool next door surrounded by a wire fence. After 15 minutes of being stared at by teen-agers on the other side of the fence, the Beatles gave up and went inside.

★ ★ ★

Newsmen joined the juvenile vigil and camped outside from midafternoon until dark.

The two Beatles and Mrs. Lennon returned to the hotel after dark and refused to talk to anyone. The hotel wouldn't even confirm they were guests despite the presence of security guards who shooed fans and disc jockeys outside.

Await Report in Park Crush

Escalator Jam Kills 1; 11 Still in Hospital

BALTIMORE (AP) — Eight girls and three boys, most of them recuperating from surgery, remained hospitalized today while Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin awaited a report on Saturday's traffic jam that trapped them at the top of an escalator at Memorial Stadium.

Thirty-five other children were hurt and one killed in the accident, which happened just before an American League baseball game between the Baltimore Orioles and Cleveland Indians.

At least seven of the children were expected to remain in hospitals for at least a week. All 11 were reported in satisfactory condition.

The crowd at yesterday's game between the two teams was asked to stand for "a moment of saddened reverence" for Annette Costantini of Baltimore, the 14-year-old girl found dead near the top of the moving stairway.

★ ★ ★

She was among nearly 20,000 members of the school safety patrols from throughout Maryland who were guests of the Orioles.

RIDERS FUNNELED

A secured metal barrier at the top of the escalator channeled riders off the moving stairs into a 28-inch wide exit. Spectators said the children were going up three and four abreast.

Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin said he expected to receive a report today from Dr. Frank C. Marino, president of the park board, and Joseph Allen, city solicitor, whom he named to investigate.

The park board leases the stadium to the Orioles.

★ ★ ★

"Responsibility will ultimately be a legal matter," one of McKeldin's aides said. "We are just trying to find out what happened and how to prevent it."

The head of the Statue of Liberty was modeled after the mother of its sculptor, Frederic August Bartholdi.

'65 to Free China of Russia Debt

LONDON (AP) — Communist China says it will be free of all debt to the Soviet Union by the end of next year.

Chen Yi, deputy premier and foreign minister, made the statement in a talk with British correspondents. He said that all other foreign debts would be repaid by 1967 and all internal government debts the following year.

★ ★ ★

He made clear that China intends to achieve production of nuclear weapons.

"Of course we may not be able to catch up with a few of the most advanced nuclear nations for 10, 20 or 30 years," he said, "but we'll never give up our aspirations.

NOT DIFFICULT

"We are opposed to atomic monopoly. Nuclear fission is not technologically very difficult. When the preparatory work is complete, we will explode a nuclear device."

Soviet credits to the Chinese Communists are believed to have totaled more than $1.4 billion.

The British newsmen traveled to China on a Pakistini airliner inaugurating service between Dacca and Shanghai.

9-Week-Old Tiger Stolen in Atlanta Zoo

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Police are looking for a "tigernaper."

A nine-week-old tiger cub was stolen from the Grant Park Zoo in Atlanta over the weekend.

Zoo Superintendent Johnny Dilbeck fears it will die from pneumonia or lack of proper feeding.

House Committee Investigating Charges

Did Justice Dept. Use Hex to Sway Hoffa Witness?

By RUTH MONTGOMERY
Hearst Headline Service

WASHINGTON — A quiet, informal investigation is under way into charges that the Justice Department retained the services of a self-titled bishop to perform voodoo rites in an effort to get a witness to testify against Teamster boss James R. Hoffa.

RUTH MONTGOMERY

Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Calif.) of the House subcommittee on labor has written a letter to Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz asking an explanation of sworn court testimony which purportedly links the Justice Department with voodooism and a kidnap plot.

The testimony was given in the absence of a jury during the recent jury-tampering trial of Jimmy Hoffa in Chattanooga, Tenn. Hoffa was convicted and is appealing.

The witness was Frederick Michael Shobe, a parolee, who said he was employed by the Departments of Labor and Justice as an "agent provocateur" to "help get Hoffa."

* * *

Shobe said he took his orders directly from Walter Sheridan, special consultant to Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy and Thomas McKeon, attorney in the criminal division.

USE VOODOO

Under their instructions, he told the court, he contacted Bishop St. Psalm, "an alleged religious leader in the Negro community in Nashville," to ask him to use voodoo on Thomas Ewing Parks, an uncle of Detroit Teamster official Larry Campbell.

Campbell was a co-defendant with Hoffa in the jury-tampering trial.

The bishop, who published a magazine called "Epic," allegedly refused to perform the rites unless the Justice Department would finance some advertising in his publication.

* * *

"I then took St. Psalm to the federal marshal's office," Shobe continued.

"Jim Durkin (also a special attorney for the Justice Department) was present. He talked with Bishop St. Psalm in my presence and he outlined what we wanted from him, and he also met St. Psalm's condition that he be given advertising for some individuals . . . in return for his service to the government."

Shobe said he and the bishop then went to a dry cleaning shop and talked to Parks, after which "we returned to Bishop St. Psalm's home and he pulled out a portable altar . . . and he lit two candles on this altar.

The bishop reportedly placed on the altar an object belonging to Parks which he had obtained while at the dry cleaning shop and then said he would call Justice agents as soon as Parks was "fixed."

* * *

Shobe said the bishop told him that "within two or three days if someone suggested to (Parks) that he was a dog, that he would get on his knees and bark."

FULL KNOWLEDGE

Shobe testified that this action was taken with the full knowledge and approval of the Justice Department, for the purpose of "exploiting the superstition" of Thomas Ewing Parks, so that he would testify against Hoffa and Campbell.

Shobe said he was personally paid by the department "in cash sums" to make speeches to Negro groups, inciting them against Hoffa and telling them that "inasmuch as Mr. Kennedy and his administration were putting their necks on the line for the many civil rights demonstrations, that we felt they should be made aware of the responsibility they had, to see that the administration attain its objective of convicting James Hoffa and any of his associates who might be brought to trial in the area."

The payments were made to him, he said, either by Sheridan, McKeon or their secretaries in lump sums of from $100 to $150 at a time.

* * *

Shobe also described in detail a bizarre plot allegedly hatched by Sheridan and himself to kidnap Parks, take him into a woods near Nashville, and "start digging a hole."

They were to pretend that they were agents sent by Jimmy Hoffa to kill him.

At a strategic moment, officers would arrive to "rescue" Parks and take him to the marshal's office, where it was hoped that he would be so angry with Hoffa that he would make incriminating statements against him.

The plot collapsed when Shobe learned that kidnaping called for the death penalty in Tennessee, and he feared that some local police officer might "intercept."

* * *

Rep. Roosevelt, in forwarding the sworn testimony to Secretary Wirtz, pointed out that the government made no attempt to cross-examine Shobe on his testimony, and that it therefore had neither been denied nor challenged.

SERIOUS CHARGES

"Because these charges are of such serious nature," Roosevelt wrote, "I would greatly appreciate your comments in sufficient detail so that a preliminary evaluation can be made at an early date."

* * *

Roosevelt said the committee was giving Wirtz an opportunity to answer, "before proceeding with any formal investigation of these charges."

* * *

Wirtz has not yet replied, although the letter was sent nearly four weeks ago.

LBJ Vows U.S. Help to 'Kennedy' Tariff Talks

GENEVA (AP) — President Johnson pledged United States help to bring the Kennedy round of tariff negotiations "to a happy and fruitful conclusion."

Former Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, the President's chief trade negotiator, delivered Johnson's message to the formal opening session today of the Kennedy round.

The session marked the beginning of a marathon tariff cutting effort by the 75 members of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) which is expected to continue for at least two years.

"Upon the opening of this meeting of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, an important and effective instrument for the expansion of world trade, I should like to send you the best wishes for success from the people of the United States," Johnson said.

"Your meetings, universally known as the Kennedy round, exemplify the hope and commitment of our late president to bring together the nations of the world in peaceful pursuits.

NECESSITY OF SUCCESS

"I believe, as he did, in the necessity of success in your work.

"We in the United States look upon these negotiations as an important opening to a better world.

"If we act together with dedication of purpose, all can gain and none need lose.

★ ★ ★

Not only the major commercial nations, but all the countries of this shrinking world — poor and rich alike — have the right to expect success from our endeavors.

FRUITFUL CONCLUSION

"For the United States, I can assure you that we shall spare no effort in seeking to help bring this meeting, and the meetings which will follow, to a happy and fruitful conclusion."

Hard bargaining on tariff cuts cannot begin before Sept. 10, authoritative sources said.

That is the date when 75 of the nations have tentatively agreed to submit their lists of exceptions—goods and products which they refuse to submit to blanket tariff cuts.

Russia May Have Pulled Cuban Anti-U2 Rockets

WASHINGTON (AP) — The belief is current here that the Soviet Union may have pulled its ground-to-air rockets from Cuba, depriving Fdel Castro of the means to blast American planes from the skies over his island.

If true, there is less likelihood that the fiery dispute over surveillance flights will erupt in a clash of arms.

A Soviet withdrawal would go a long way toward explaining the Red prime minister's May Day assertion that Cuba is alone in her dispute with the United States.

Castro has conceded that his armed forces cannot shoot down the high-flying American planes without the Soviet rockets.

Thus, when he said on May Day that "we will prevent these flights to the limits of what our weapons can do," he may have —in a veiled way—been revealing a new weapons limitation.

★ ★ ★

The Soviet rockets are a remnant of the 1962 arms and manpower buildup which reached crisis proportions when detected by U.S. intelligence.

★ ★ ★

SOON WITHDRAW

Two weeks ago, authorities here reported about 3,000 Russians remained on the island, but that they would soon be withdrawn, leaving in Cuban hands 24 antiaircraft missile bases equipped with Soviet rockets.

Now the word is that the missiles have been removed along with some troops, but that a large proportion of the military force remains.

Last week Washington reminded Cuba that reconnaissance flights would be continued. Castro, in turn, said the Cuban people no longer would tolerate them and Soviet Premier Khrushchev charged the flights threatened "the abyss of another war."

★ ★ ★

Still, although Castro implied force, he also said he would be patient and use all legal means to solve the problem. He is expected to carry his protest to the United Nations, starting with the Security Council.

AVOID SHOWDOWN

Western diplomats in Havana reportedly believe Castro will steer clear of a showdown with the United States for at least several months.

They cite as factors:

—It would take the United Nations several months to complete a study and take action on Cuba's expected demand that the flights be halted.

★ ★ ★

—Castro realizes that any chance of a concession from the Johnson administration would be less likely in the months before an election.

District 7 Recount Set Tomorrow

The recount of votes cast for District 7 candidates in the April 20 general city election is scheduled to get under way at City Hall tomorrow.

The candidates, their legal counsel and appointed observers, will meet with the Oakland County Board of Canvassers and other officials at City Hall at 10:30 a.m., according to County Clerk - Register David R. Calhoun.

Former Mayor Robert A. Landry requested the recount of votes cast for himself and two other District 7 candidates in all of the city's 43 precincts.

The other candidates were Curtis L. Webb and Emmett S. Wellbaum. Webb was on the ballot with Landry, and Wellbaum ran as a write-in candidate.

★ ★ ★

Wellbaum won by a 351-vote margin over Landry with Webb finishing third in the balloting.

The recount may take several weeks to complete. Calhoun estimated the board can count votes on "four machines or better per day."

Hot Race Winds Up in Indiana

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Indiana's hottest primary campaign in history winds up today with a drumfire of prerecorded political speeches by the chief opponents, Democratic Govs. Matthew E. Welsh of Indiana and George C. Wallace of Alabama.

The campaign which provided a national dramatization of the civil rights issue and the civil rights bill now before the Senate is expected to send a presidential primary record total of voters to the polls tomorrow.

Turnout estimates ranged up to 500,000 for each of the two parties for a total of a million or more.

Both Welsh and Wallace had nearly completed their personal appearance schedules over the weekend, although Wallace planned a service club luncheon talk here today before flying to Alabama to vote in his own state's primary tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Wallace, who has campaigned for a protest vote against the civil rights bill and for states' rights, spoke yesterday morning in the Fremont Baptist Church at Crawfordsville while orderly pickets paraded outside.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY

Welsh, meanwhile, addressed a 10th Dist. Democratic rally in a Richmond school yard, calling for "the fullest possible turnout Tuesday" and saying: "Let's drown out the rebel yell from the distant past."

Mercury to Climb, but Rain on Way

Today and tomorrow temperatures will reach nearly 80 degrees, Pontiac's highest since April 17.

However, there's a cloudy lining to this silvery forecast. Over the next five days, precipitation is expected to total one-half to three-quarters of an inch in scattered showers or thundershowers Wednesday through Friday.

Other than occasional dampness, beautiful weather should continue with temperatures predicted to average 6 to 8 degrees above the normal high of 65 and low of 46. Cooler temperatures are anticipated toward the end of the week.

Before 8 this morning, temperatures dropped to 48, but by 1 p.m. they had climbed to 79.

2 Big Names on Ballot in Ohio Contest

Eye Voter Reaction to Ailing John Glenn, 'Liberal' Robert Taft

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The feeling in Ohio today is that anything might happen in the Democratic and Republican primaries tomorrow.

By all the odds, Sen. Stephen M. Young, who is observing his 75th birthday today, should win renomination handily.

But there is the intriguing question of how a famous name on the Democratic ballot—that of ailing astronaut Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. — will fare.

In the Republican contest, Rep. Robert Taft Jr. has all the betting on his side in a contest with Secretary of State Ted W. Brown for the GOP senatorial nomination.

★ ★ ★

But here, too, there is the rather unbelievable—issue of whether the son of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, who was known as Mr. Republican, is too liberal to succeed his famously conservative father.

MAN NOT THERE

The New Hampshire primary seemed to prove that, as far as it concerned Republicans, the man who wasn't there fared best in a presidential contest.

Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, half a world away in Saigon, South Viet Nam, walked off with the state's 14 delegates in a tremendous write-in surge.

The situation in Ohio is comparable only in the fact that Glenn has not been able to campaign because he fell against a bathtub in Columbus late in February and developed an inner ear disturbance which he announced would not permit him to run or to accept nomination even if the voters gave it to him.

★ ★ ★

The Ohio voters are going to have their say on several questions.

FAMOUS NAME

Does a famous name and personality override in the average citizen's mind the service that may have been given to him by a sitting senator?

Is there what might be called a therapy vote by those who think it might help Glenn's ear condition if they said they wanted him for their senatorial nominee.

GM in Detroit Faces Protests

NAACP Raps Firm's Employment Practices

DETROIT (AP) — Civil rights demonstrators, protesting what one leader termed a "lily white" personnel policy by General Motors Corp., planned to picket GM national headquarters in midtown Detroit starting at noon today.

★ ★ ★

General Motors has denied it discriminates and has cited employment of nonwhites in practically every echelon of the world's largest corporation.

Arthur Johnson, spokesman for the Detroit chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said the picketing would continue until 6 p.m.

Johnson said the demonstration would be "part of a national effort to get GM to change its employment practices."

★ ★ ★

Herbert Hill, national labor secretary of the NAACP contends that "General Motors is lily - white" from supervisory personnel up.

GM DISAGREES

GM says this isn't so; that it employs Negroes in supervisory, engineering and other professions.

Louis G. Seaton, the firm's personnel chief, said "promotions and advancements in General Motors are made on the basis of ability and capacity with due consideration to length of service without regard to race, color, creed or national origin."

Protests at GM plants in suburban Grand Rapids and at GM offices in New York City were held over the weekend.

Gov. Romney Gives Warning to Legislature

Indicates He'll Call a Special Session if Bills Not Worked On

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George W. Romney indicated today he will call a special session if the legislature fails to act on "certain matters now pending before it."

Romney would not list the proposals to which he referred, but it appeared he meant congressional and legislative redistricting, related elections bills and a court of appeals bill.

The governor said he does not expect to be forced into ordering a special legislative session.

A plan to give Republicans and Democrats 52 "sure" seats per party in the Michigan House was to be submitted to party caucuses today.

Agreement on House apportionment was reached by a 14-member, bipartisan committee of representatives Saturday night. The remaining six seats could swing to either party in an election, a committee member said.

"The differences between us have been resolved, and if a majority of each party approves, then we've got a plan," Rep. George Montgomery, D-Detroit, declared in the wake of a long weekend bargaining session between Democrats and Republicans.

More Rioting in Soviet Bloc

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—The Soviet bloc's second riot in three days broke out in Sofia as Communist youths blocked the path of Bulgarian Orthodox churchgoers en route to Easter Mass.

Youth group demonstrations during Prague's May Day celebration Friday turned into battles with Czechoslovak police and resulted in 31 announced arrests.

★ ★ ★

The official Czech news agency, CTK, confirmed the disturbances in Prague, but Bulgarian government agencies remained silent about the clashes in Sofia.

Reports from Sofia said hundreds of churchgoers had been involved in clashes with both police and Communist youths.

ENTRANCES BLOCKED

Entrances to Aleksander Nevsky Cathedral in Sofia were blocked by youths shouting atheist slogans. Police closed the cathedral doors to prevent incidents, and the fighting ensued.

Patriarch Cyril, spiritual leader of the Bulgarian Orthodox Church, was to have celebrated the Resurrection Mass, climax of the Orthodox Easter celebration.

★ ★ ★

An announcement said the patriarch was ill, and Bishop Nikolai, rector of the Academy of Theology, had taken the patriarch's place.

★ ★ ★

In Prague CTK said the 31 persons under arrest had been charged with disturbing the peace. The news agency denied reports received outside Czechoslovakia that university students had led the rioting against the police.

CTK said only one of the 31 arrested was a university student and that this "disproves the irresponsibility of agency reports which suggested that Prague University and college students were the instigators and main participants in the incident."

3,000 STUDENTS

Reports received in Vienna said 3,000 students had participated in the rioting in Kinsky Park, where they had gathered for traditional May Day poetry reading.

★ ★ ★

The reports, relayed by diplomatic sources, said the violence had bordered on open revolt. They said the students had shouted antigovernment slogans after police had ordered them to disperse.

★ ★ ★

CTK, however, said an official investigation had showed that "small groups of young people, shouting and behaving in a foolmostly employed in Prague and numbering approximately 100, tried to disturb the peace by ish manner."

East Pike, prematurely closed for Clinton River Drain construction a month ago and later reopened, will again be closed to traffic between Mill and the Perimeter Road tomorrow morning.

The last time it was closed, barricades were removed when construction crews were needed at other points on the river, and work on the East Pike bridge was delayed.

The East Pike bridge is next to Pontiac's Main Public Library at 60 E. Pike.

At the same time, said City Traffic Engineer Joseph Koren, East Huron will be closed to through traffic from Mill to Union.

He estimated that both streets will remain closed for five to eight weeks for river work.

"However, Union should be opened to traffic between Mount Clemens and East Huron sometime Wednesday," Koren added.

That stretch of Union has been closed for several weeks.

Train-Truck Crash Fatal for Man, 50

IMLAY TOWNSHIP — A 50-year-old Oak Park man was killed here early today when the pickup truck he was driving was struck by a train and pushed along the tracks for a half mile.

Lapeer County sheriff's deputies said Phillip Greener of 24651 Scotia was crossing the tracks on Doran when the mishap occurred, shortly after 6 a.m. Greener was alone in the vehicle.

There are no warning signals where the tracks cross the gravel road, about three miles east of Imlay City.

congressional authorization to seek across-the-board tariff cuts of 50 per cent.

The United States probably will consider itself fortunate to win tariff cuts of 30 to 40 per cent, informants said.

In a brief opening speech, Herter complained that the long preliminary talks have made little progress in dealing with farm products, considered essential to the negotiations by Washington.

Nor, he said, has anyone come to grips with other barriers to international trade.

A high U.S. official said a pledge may still be sought to set a goal of 50 per cent in tariff reductions, but he was far from optimistic of winning such a cut.

SIXTH MEETING

The meeting is the sixth worldwide conference since 1947.

The late President John F. Kennedy set the stage for the conference by pushing through Congress the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, which gave him the right to cut U.S. tariffs by as much as 50 per cent in exchange for reciprocal concessions.

One of his principal objectives was to keep the European Common Market open to U.S. products, thereby linking the Atlantic community economically as well as politically and militarily.

French President Charles de Gaulle struck this design a sharp blow last year when he barred Britain's entry into the Common Market, and French objections are likely to be a major stumbling block in the negotiations ahead.

FRENCH AGRICULTURE

De Gaulle is unlikely to allow American products to make further inroads on the markets for French agriculture or industry.

He will exert strong pressure on other members of the Common Market — West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—through his finance minister, Valery Giscard d'Estaing.

Transport Strike Threatens Dominican Republic Junta

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—A threat to the Dominican Republic's seven-month-old ruling junta appears to be developing from a transport strike which touched off violence in the capital.

★ ★ ★

Police failed to halt demonstrations Sunday that accompanied the strike of taxi and bus drivers.

Unruly crowds burned tires, smashed bottles and dumped garbage in Santo Domingo streets.

STRIKE ILLEGAL

The government declared the drivers' strike illegal, saying it was politically motivated and that the union had failed to give written notice stating the date and reasons for a strike.

Repeated government radio broadcasts warned the public that a 1962 decree of national emergency still was in effect. The decree authorized deportation of any person endangering public order by agitation or subversion.

★ ★ ★

Military leaders ousted President Juan Bosch Sept. 25, accusing him of being soft toward the Communists. The military then relinquished control to a three-man civilian junta.

The present triumvirate — Donald Reid Cabral, Manuel Tavares Espaillat and Ramon Caceres Troncoso—is regarded as conservative and anti-Communist.

PROTEST DECREES

The transport workers struck in protest against three recent junta decrees.

These banned public meetings without authorization, increased duties on a wide range of imports, including automobiles and auto parts, and authorized the police to seize licenses of drivers involved in traffic violations.

★ ★ ★

"Extremist political forces and certain economic interests" were blamed by the newspaper El Caribe for the strike. It did not identify the interests.

★ ★ ★

In Puerto Rico, where he has lived in exile since the coup, Bosch told a newsman, "The people are very much disgusted with the chaos and injustice which has followed the military coup which ousted my government."

against the civil rights bill and federal intervention in state affairs.

Indiana Democratic leaders have let it be known Wallace won't have any national convention delegates from Indiana committed to him, no matter how he fares in the primary.

★ ★ ★

The law says the primary winner gets the first-ballot votes of the Indiana delegation, but it has no penalty clause.

COURT RULING

The Alabama governor, in his church talk at Crawfordsville, confined his remarks mainly to the U.S. Supreme Court ruling on prayers in public schools.

"Did you ever think," he asked, "that the Bible would have to be bootlegged into the schools?"

The capacity crowd of about 300 listened to Wallace's talk.

★ ★ ★

There were no jeers, and his talk was punctuated frequently with "amens" from the congregation.

HOT EXCHANGE

A hot exchange of statements between Indiana campaign managers for Harold E. Stassen and Sen. Barry Goldwater added interest to the last weekend of the Republican campaign.

Leslie Duvall, Goldwater's manager, charged Stassen was trying to "mislead and frighten our Hoosier senior citizens" by "misinterpreting" Goldwater statements on welfare programs as an attack on Social Security.

LBJ's Poverty Tour to Take In Georgia

ATLANTA (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson will fly to Atlanta Thursday to visit the North Georgia Mountain area and survey poverty conditions on Friday.

The White House advised Gov. Carl E. Sanders of the President's plans early today.

Johnson will spend Thursday night at the executive mansion. Friday morning, he will be guest of the governor at a legislative breakfast.

Only Bruised in Plane Crash

A Brighton pilot and his Bloomfield Township passenger escaped serious injury yesterday afternoon when their airplane crashed at Spencer Airport in Wixom.

Clarence E. Stites, 48, told Wixom police he was taking off from the airport when the cowling of his Cessna 170A tore loose and began flapping in front of the windshield.

With the plane about 300 feet off the ground, Stites made a sharp turn back toward the field. The engine stalled about 30 feet above the ground and the plane crashed to the right of the runway.

The plane, which spun around several times after its landing gear collapsed, was totally demolished in the accident, police said.

They reported Stites and his passenger, E. R. Foxworthy of 4845 Tullamor, Bloomfield Township, suffered minor bruises.

The Federal Aviation Agency is conducting an investigation of the mishap.

Mental Tests for Intruder

To Examine Man Held in Romney Incident

LANSING (AP)—The Ingham County prosecutor's office today obtained a probate court order for a psychiatric examination of Charles P. English.

★ ★ ★

English, 37, of Bogota, Colombia, was arrested Friday by state police when he tried to enter Gov. George W. Romney's office in the State Capitol. Police said they found a loaded revolver in English's attache case and a knife on his person.

★ ★ ★

Thomas Skehan, chief assistant prosecutor, said State Police Sgt. Steve Galat asked for the examination order.

Two psychiatrists will examine English today, either at Ingham County Jail at Mason or St. Lawrence Hospital at Lansing, Skehan said.

EXTEND LIMIT

If the psychiatrists say English needs treatment, Skehan said, a detainer order expiring at 5 p.m. can be extended. A mental hearing then would be scheduled, he said, and English would be advised of his right to retain an attorney or demand a jury trial.

★ ★ ★

Romney laughed off the incident, but briefly interviewed English following the arrest.

The governor said English wanted him and former vice president Richard Nixon to run on the national ticket but "didn't say which would be number one and which number two."

'HONEST POLITICIAN'

In Bogota, Mrs. Luisa Roldan English described her husband Saturday as "a peaceful man" who is "an honest politician" and had dabbled in Florida politics. "That is why he never got anywhere," she added.

Mrs. English, a Colombian citizen, said her husband was a professional pilot who had helped train fliers in Colombia.

★ ★ ★

The Englishes were married in 1949, she said, and her husband had lived off and on in Bogota since 1942.

★ ★ ★

"Charles has a permit to carry a pistol," she said, "and has carried a pocket knife ever since he was a boy scout."

FOUR CHILDREN

"We have never had any family troubles," she said.

The couple has four children, and Mrs. English said they have been with her in Bogota for about a year.

She said she was fired Thursday from a new secretarial job after English appeared before the U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee that approved Covey T. Oliver as ambassador to Colombia. English told the committee last Tuesday Oliver was not qualified for the post.

★ ★ ★

Oliver told the committee he did not know English.

Mrs. English said her father, Antonio Roldan Franco, is a wealthy man with farming interests in eastern Colombia's Llanos area.

City Manager Still Firm on Rubbish Agreement

BIRMINGHAM — Rebids on the city's rubbish disposal contract have not changed City Manager L. R. Gare's opinion of the request of the present contractor.

Gare will recommend to the City Commission again tonight that the agreement with the Detroit Rubbish Co. continue to be enforced.

I. J. Giacolone, owner of the firm, asked the commission in February to renegotiate his contract or relieve him of it.

The agreement provides that the firm collect residential rubbish from Jan. 1, 1963, to Dec. 31, 1965.

★ ★ ★

Cost to the city was to be $153,000 plus a 7½-cent fee per residence per week for rear door garbage pickup.

COST INCREASE

Giacolone in February reported his business costs had increased 40 per cent since he bid on the work.

Gare maintained that if the contract were rebid, there would be little use in the city's taking bids on any future work.

The commission in April authorized Gare to seek the new bids.

★ ★★ ★

The three bids for the 18-month period left in the contract ranged from $111,456 to $129,600.

FORMER DECISION

Gare plans to stick by his former decision and make no recommendation on the new bids.

Also to be considered by the commission at their 8 p.m. meeting is a $1,939,711 proposed budget for fiscal 1964-65.

The budget requiring a 17.2-mill levy would cost taxpayers no more than the present one, which is $70,348 lower than the proposed figure.

Miss Marion E. Goodale, headmistress of Kingswood School Cranbrook in Bloomfield Hills, recently was elected to the executive committee of the Independent School Association of the Central States.

★ ★ ★

Her election marks the first time a woman has been named to the committee.

Dr. Donald C. Somers

Service for Dr. Donald C. Somers, 62, of 4205 Valley Forge, Bloomfield Township, will be 11 a.m. tomorrow in the William Sullivan & Son Funeral Home, Royal Oak. Private burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Dr. Somers, an orthopedic surgeon and breeder and racer of standard-bred harness horses, died Saturday after an illness of several weeks.

He was a staff member of Harper Hospital, Detroit; Highland Park General Hospital; and William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak.

He was also a member of the American Medical Association, Wayne and Oakland county medical societies and the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons.

Surviving are his wife, Catherine M.; a son, David P. of Royal Oak; a daughter, Mrs. Roland B. Calhoun of Glencoe, Ill.; a brother; a sister; and five grandchildren.

K Asks End to Cyprus Intervention

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev called today for an end to foreign intervention in Cyprus, saying he was confident the warring Greek and Turkish communities could find ways to live in peace in an independent Cyprus republic.

★ ★ ★

In an interview with the government paper Izvestia, Khrushchev said:

"We, the Soviet people, sympathize with those who are fighting for independence and sovereignty of the republic of Cyprus. The Soviet government has been and is firmly and consistently opposing all attempts from outside to impose on the Cypriots the terms of the solution of the internal problems of this republic."

NO MENTION

Khrushchev made no mention of the U.N. peace-keeping force on Cyprus or whether he considered it "foreign interference." The Soviet Union abstained in the U.N. Security Council vote creating the international force.

"The imperialists and reactionaries that have their own special plans for Cyprus," he said, "want to convert this island into an armed cap or, as they say, into an 'unsinkable aircraft carrier' anchored in the eastern Mediterranean."

Retired City Doctor Dies at Age of 83

Dr. Clarence Starker, MD, 83, of 80 E. Iroquois died this morning. His body will be at Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home.

The long-time Pontiac physician retired in 1956. He had been an active member of the Oakland County and state medical societies since 1934.

★ ★ ★

A native of Holly, Dr. Starker was a graduate of the old Detroit College of Medicine, since absorbed by the University of Detroit.

Singer Really Sends 'Em

Teens Riot at English Estate

LONDON (AP) — "It was wonderful, and it was hell," said the Marquess of Bath after the teen-age riot at his stately home.

A mob of 10,000 juveniles broke through barriers and laid siege to Longleat, the Baths' 16th Century country home.

Seven were injured, one seriously. Forty fainted.

Damage was estimated at 500 pounds (1,400).

The teen-agers were after one of their idols, a singing guitarist named Billy J. Kramer and his group known as the Dakotas.

POP CONCERT

The 10,000 had paid 35 cents each yesterday for a sundown pop concert outside Longleat, one of Lord Bath's schemes to help pay the expenses of his big place.

Things were fairly orderly until Billy J. swung into his hit song, "Little Children."

With a chorus of shrieks, the mob surged forward, breaking the barriers.

★ ★ ★

Billy J. and the Dakotas fled into the house as Lord Bath, 49, and members of his family battled with the fans. Finally, with blood running down his hand, his lordship and his grown sons retreated inside and barred the ancient oak doors.

DIDN'T LISTEN

"I don't blame the fans," said the marquess," I blame myself. I was told to put up stouter barriers, but I didn't listen."

★ ★ ★

Lady Vicky Thynne, the marquess' daughter-in-law, helped revive some of the girls who fainted.

★ ★ ★

"One girl had just recovered when Billy J. walked by," she said. "She promptly fainted again. After that I gave up."

Merger Brings Confusion

Viet Leader Acts in Coup

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Neutralist Premier Souvanna Phouma flew to the pro-Communist Pathet Lao's headquarters in the Plaine des Jarres area today, trying to unravel the tangled situation created by the right-wing coup.

Souvanna was expected back later in the day — weather permitting — after a discussion with his half-brother, Prince Souphanouvong, the Pathet Lao leader.

Prince Souvanna was accompanied by British and Soviet envoys representing the cochairmen of the 1962 Geneva Conference that treated Souvanna's coalition government.

Britain and Russia and the United States have repudiated the coup led by Gens. Kouprasith Abhay and Siho Lanphatacoul, who have demanded that Souvanna reorganize his cabinet along lines they have proposed.

* * *

Souphanouvong has denounced the coup and has refused to deal with its leaders. Souvanna was expected to try to get Souphanouvong to support him on the basis that the right wing has merged with his neutralist faction.

REMAIN ADAMANT

However, the feeling in Vientiane generally was that Souphanouvong would remain adamant. A Pathet Lao spokesman said the right - wing-neutralist merger announced by Souvanna Saturday actually meant the rightists had swallowed up Souvanna's group.

* * *

There was fear in Vientiane that the Pathet Lao would use the confusion created by the coup to expand their sphere of influence, which already covers about two thirds of Laos.

Girl Dies, 30 Hurt in Lebanon Election

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — A 14-year-old girl was killed by gunfire and about 30 persons wounded in the final round of elections for Lebanon's new Parliament.

Despite the death, the second in Lebanon's instalment plan elections, Beirut papers said balloting was orderly in south Lebanon, near the border of Israel.

* * *

Rocket Mishap Mars Space Shot

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—A break in a weld joint apparently caused the malfunction which destroyed a giant solid-fuel rocket motor and marred the dedication of a new test facility here, an Air Force spokesman reports.

The motor, a 250-ton, million-pound-thrust device, destroyed itself in a pillar of smoke and flame Saturday. It was fired as the Air Force Space Systems Division dedicated a new test-firing stand as tall as a nine-story building.

The 75-foot power plant is designed as a booster for the Titan 3C launch vehicle to be used in a manned space exploration program. Three similar motors have been test - fired successfully.

Phosphorus today is obtained by mining and processing phosphate rock, a sedimentary formation of marine fossils.

Conveys U. S. Concern

Johnson Will Send Fulbright to Cyprus

WASHINGTON(AP) — President Johnson is sending chairman J. W. Fulbright of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to Greece and Turkey to demonstrate this government's concern with the Cyprus situation.

Fulbright long had planned a trip to Europe, but Athens and Ankara were not added to his itinerary until he called Sunday at the White House for a discussion with Johnson.

★ ★ ★

Afterward the White House announced that the President had asked Fulbright to "express to the Greek and Turkish governments the continuing interest and concern of both the President and Congress with the disturbing situation on Cyprus."

★ ★ ★

The announcement said that the Arkansas Democrat will not carry any suggestion regarding the ultimate settlement of the Cyprus question because this "must await the proposals of the U.N. mediator."

SENSE OF URGENCY

Rather, the White House said, Fulbright "will convey the sense of urgency felt in the United States regarding the need for the restoration of order on the island, and will report to the President his impressions as to the views of the Greek and Turkish governments."

The Cyprus problem is in the hands of the United Nations. A multination U.N. peacekeeping force has been sent to the island to try to stop armed clashes between Greek and Turkish Cypriots.

★ ★ ★

Last Wednesday, Turkish Foreign Minister Feridun C. Erkin discussed the conflict at the White House with President Johnson.

★ ★ ★

Erkin described the fighting on the island as "not mere acts of murder on the part of the Greeks, but a war operation in the classic meaning of the word."

NEW REALITIES

Fulbright set off a national debate last March 25 by calling on U.S. policy leaders "to disabuse ourselves of old myths and to act wisely and creatively upon the new realities of our time."

★ ★ ★

While in Europe he will visit the Hague and Copenhagen.

Racist Gang in Harlem Tied to Unsolved Killings

NEW YORK (UPI) — Police sought today to link the unsolved slayings of two white men in Harlem to a racist gang of young hoodlums.

Evidence indicates the gang was formed in recent months and dedicated itself to attacking whites in the largely Negro area for reasons of race alone.

One of the murdered men was a missionary, the other a fruit peddler.

Five youths already are in custody in connection with one such racist attack, the slaying of Mrs. Margit Sugar, 45, in her Harlem clothing store.

★ ★ ★

Police said some of the youths had been trained in violence by extremists of the Black Muslim movement and that tracing Black Muslim ties had led to the arrest of three of the five.

ADMIT SLAYING

Two also admitted the knife-slaying of Eileen Johnson, a young social worker, police said.

A sixth youth still was being hunted today in the death of Mrs. Sugar.

A 13-state alarm was out for Wallace Baker, 19, who police said killed the white woman with a single thrust of his double-edged dirk.

★ ★ ★

Now being reviewed in connection with the gang are the slayings of:

● David Watts, a white, self-proclaimed missionary who had dedicated his life to the Bible and to Harlem in a one-man integration effort. He was stabbed to death. Hundreds of his Negro neighbors attended his funeral.

FRUIT PEDDLER

● Jules Bulgach, a 71-year-old white man who peddled fruit from a horse-drawn cart and was beloved by his long-time Harlem customers. He was stabbed to death as he stood beside that cart on a West Side street.

Mrs. Sugar was slain Wednesday after six youths drifted into her clothing store and she nervously told them she did not have their size. Her husband, Frank, 50, also was seriously slashed.

Miss Johnston was stabbed April 11 as she was about to enter the automobile of a Negro associate near a Harlem bar.

Muslim spokesmen categorically deny their organization advocates initiating violence against whites.

RACIST CULT

Some police officers are said to believe the youths formed their own cult — down to formalized racist rituals.

In another racial clash—not connected with the Harlem gang — a white Brooklyn youth died yesterday from injuries received the night before.

Anthony Pallone, 17, died despite long hours of emergency surgery to remove four inches of copper pipe imbedded in his skull.

Police said Pallone was among a group of young whites who chased a young Negro from a Brooklyn school yard and later were confronted by the boy and several older friends. A street battle ensued.

★ ★ ★

Four youths were held in connection with the Pallone slaying — two charged with homicide.

Letter Demands Money for Head of Danish Statue

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP)—Police studied an anonymous letter today demanding $1,450 for the missing head of Copenhagen's Little Mermaid.

The letter, printed in block capitals, was mailed to the newspaper B.T.

The writer did not admit he was the vandal who sawed the head off the famous statue nine days ago. But he claimed to know where the head was located.

A new head for the statue is being cast from the original plaster mold.

Doctors Warn Queen to Cut Down Work

LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II has been warned by her doctors to avoid a heavy work schedule, and will cut down public appearances during the summer, court sources said today.

The queen, 38, gave birth to her fourth child, Prince Edward, six weeks ago. Rumors that her health has been the cause of some concern have been denied by Buckingham Palace.

Today's Washington News Roundup

Federal Tax Revenue Increase Surpasses All Predictions

WASHINGTON (AP) —In the news from Washington:

RISE: Government sources report that federal tax revenue rose $1.5 billion to $84 billion during the first three months of 1964 even though the tax cut took effect March 1.

The $24-billion increase surpassed predictions by government economists, partly because the new lower tax rates went into effect a month after the Feb. 1 date on which the forecasts were based.

But government experts feel the revenue figures support other statistical evidence that indicates the economy is continuing to pick up steam.

The first quarter of 1964 was the 10th straight quarter in which revenues have shown an increase over the previous year. The business expansion from the 1960 recession, which began in March 1961, set a peacetime record of 38 months in April.

STAMP: The Post Office Department plans to begin national sale of the John F. Kennedy memorial stamp on May 29—the 47th anniversary of the late president's birth.

The five-cent stamp has a blue-gray color and bears Kennedy's likeness and a drawing of the eternal flame placed at his grave in Arlington National Cemetery. Kennedy's widow selected the design.

VIET NAM: The State Department's top expert on the Far East says he thinks U.S.-advised South Vietnamese forces have halted a downward trend in their war against Communist Viet Cong guerrillas.

"I would say that we certainly have arrested the downward trend that has been in effect, going back some time—and that it had leveled out," William P. Bundy said Sunday on ABC's radio-television program "Issues and Answers."

NO OFFENSIVE ACTION

Bundy, who is assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs, said that while the possibility of carrying the Viet Nam war into North Viet Nam "certainly is" still open, he thinks the war can be won without taking offensive action against Communist supply lines in the north.

STROLL: President Johnson took newsmen on a 45-minute stroll around White House grounds Saturday, answering questions, greeting tourists and playing with his two beagles.

The President made five laps around the driveways on the south grounds. At one point he clapped his hands and the two beagles—Him and Her—dutifully appeared.

★ ★ ★

He lifted Her up by the head and body. Referring to the recent furor when he picked up Him and Her by the ears so they would stand and yelp, Johnson said that "when they yelp, it's not a sign of pain, it's a sign of joy."

HOUR WITH CABINET

Johnson also spent an hour with his Cabinet Saturday. He said that in carrying out the administration's economy and efficiency drive "we ought to be as unsatisfied as a little boy's appetite."

The President called on department and agency heads to junk more publications, and questionnaires, to hold down payrolls, to curb spending and to "buy only what you must and get the best price you can."

Despite Tongue-Wagging

Gets in Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — "I'm a big girl," says Gina Lollobrigida. "After 15 years of marriage, I should be able to travel by myself."

THOMAS

The Italian beauty is here making a movie with Rock Hudson, "Strange Bedfellows." Her husband, Yugoslav-born Dr. Drago Milko Skofic, is in Rome attending to his publishing business. Their divergence started tongues to wag, especially since she has been getting a whirl of the Hollywood night spots with Glenn Ford.

Gina couldn't care less about such talk.

★ ★ ★

"What am I supposed to do—go out alone?" she asked. "That would be even worse. I wouldn't think of going out with other women. I see it done in this country, but women would never dine out together in Italy."

The thought of staying home in her luxurious Beverly Hills hacienda doesn't appeal to her, either. She has been taking lessons in such exotic dances as the Watusi for her field trips into the local night life. Rome was never like this, she says.

WILD PEOPLE

"I have never seen such wild people as in some of the night clubs in Hollywood," she said.

She also has attended frequent dinner parties in her honor. I meet: 'I think I know you from somewhere.' And he answers, 'This is a compliment, she said, but also a hazard.

"So many names!" she groaned. "It's hard enough to learn names in your own language, but in English, too.

★ ★ ★

"I do the best I can, but sometimes I—how do you say it?—goof. I meet someone who says, 'You don't remember me, do you?' When I confess I don't, he says, 'I gave a dinner party for 60 people in your honor.'

"So I say to the next person swers, 'No, I've never met you.' It is very unnerving."

WELCOME RETURN

Gina's charm can get her through most situations, and her return to Hollywood is welcomed by her fellow workers. Her enthusiasm for working here might be surprising, in light of her previous experience.

Her first Hollywood film was "Never So Few," a lackluster venture epic with Frank Sinatra.

"I did it mainly to prove to Hollywood that I could work here. In spite of Howard Hughes," she said. "I once signed an agreement with him, and he kept me from working in Hollywood for seven years without paying me a cent. Even after the contract was over, he made MGM pay him $50,000 to use me in 'Never So Few.' And later MGM paid him $75,000 so I could do 'Go Naked in the World.'"

LIKED SCRIPT

Gina returned to make "The Lady L" with Tony Curtis. Both stars liked the script, but the new director, George Cukor, did not. Nine scripts and five months later, the project was shelved at a loss Gina reports at $2.5 million.

"I was paid for it — twice," she said, "but it was not good for me. I lost a whole year of work because I couldn't schedule other films. A year is too long to go without work."

Light Plane Crashes; Soggy Field Blamed

ST. JOSEPH (AP)—A light plane taking off from Watervliet struck a power line, crashed into a clump of trees and landed upside down in a swampy area Saturday, but its two occupants walked away unhurt.

★ ★ ★

Hugh E. Warren, 54, of Kalamazoo, the pilot, told police he was unable to gain flying speed because of the soggy condition of the airstrip. His passenger was Louis Dimicell of Coloma.

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

BRANDSTADT

Since writing about the new dental disclosing wafers that show whether or not you have succeeded in cleaning your teeth by brushing, I have had many letters asking where the wafers can be bought. X-pose disclosing wafers are made by D. Brownlee and Co. (Box 1016, Bellaire 101, Tex.) and identical tablets called Tablet-Test are made by Proctor and Gamble (Cincinnati 1, Ohio).

★ ★ ★

Q. — Does diet play an important part in relieving high blood pressure?

★ ★ ★

A — Since overweight is commonly associated with high blood pressure, a reduction of body weight by dieting and maintaining a normal weight may be an important part of the treatment.

★ ★ ★

Regardless of weight a low-sodium (salt poor) diet should be followed. In order to be effective, such a diet should be supervised by a phsician who is familiar with its details.

Q — Since childhood I have never been able to distinguish different smells. What could cause this

★ ★ ★

A — It is unusual for a person to lack a sense of smell from birth but it could occur if you have a developmental defect in the olfactory nerve. Other causes would includ inability to breathe freely through your nose because of some form of chronic obstruction.

Q — I recently read about Ehrlich and his discovery of arsphenamine or formula 606 for the treatment of syphilis. Is the drug still used

A — Since it was found that penicillin, a much safer drug for most people, cures syphilis quicker and with greater certainity, arsphenamine has fallen into disuse.

Q — Is niacin harful to the system I have taken it for over three years. My ophthalmologist prescribed it to improve my circulation.

★ ★ ★

A — Niacin or nicotinic acid is a part of the vitamin B complex. It is found in meat, brewer's yeast, peanuts and whole wheat. It can be taken in large doses without harm.

It helps to bring down a high blood cholesterol. It is frequently prescribed by ophthalmologists to dilate the small blood vessels and thus improve the circulation to all tissues including the retina.

Q — My doctor has prescribed Meprospan capsules which I have been taking for the past three months. What are they for

A — Meprospan is a trade name for meprobamate, a tranquilizer. It should not be necessary to take this drug indefinitely.
