76 THIS WEEK — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, who will mark his 76th birthday Friday, said yesterday at his Gettysburg, Pa., farm that U.S. policy in Viet Nam should involve strategy for winning quickly and ending the loss in American lives. He frowned on conclusions, drawn from an earlier statement, that he favors using nuclear weapons.

Ike: Didn't Urge N-Arms in Viet

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower still insists "We must do whatever is necessary to win" fast in Viet Nam. But he calls it silly for anyone to conclude this means he favors U.S. use of nuclear weapons there.

The five-star general who led allied forces to victory in Europe in World War II says it is an entirely different kind of war in Viet Nam—a guerrilla type which exposes friend and foe alike to any weapons used. Only

Kickoff for UF to Be Tonight

Torch-Lighting Slated on City Hall Lawn

A public torch-lighting ceremony on the front lawn of the City Hall at 7:30 tonight will kick off the 1966 Pontiac Area United Fund campaign for $1,042,000.

Dr. Don O. Tatroe, general campaign chairman, will light the torch which symbolizes hope for thousands aided by 54 United Fund agencies. The torch will burn until the goal is reached.

Tomorrow morning more than 6,000 volunteers will officially begin the task of raising the largest goal in the 18-year history of the drive.

A dinner meeting at the Pontiac City Club, 30 E. Pike, will be attended by PAUF board members, campaign and city officials.

The 6 p.m. dinner is sponsored by the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland.

Included in tomorrow's Pontiac Press will be a special United Fund section detailing work of the 54 agencies.

LBJ, Gromyko Confer Today in Washington

Several Proposals for Improving Soviet-U.S. Ties Due to Be Aired

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several proposals for improving U.S.-Soviet relations, in spite of sharp differences over the Vietnamese war, are due for discussion here late today between President Johnson and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

The White House announced the two men will meet at 5 p.m. shortly after Johnson's return here from a weekend at his Texas ranch.

There appeared to be no doubt Johnson would urge upon Gromyko the U.S. view that the Soviet Union should do everything possible to bring the Vietnamese war to an end.

The U.S.S.R. is a chief supplier of weapons to North Viet Nam and recently concluded a new aid deal with that country.

Administration advisers, preparing for the Gromyko conference, were deeply interested in reports from Moscow that the Communist party paper Pravda argued in an article yesterday that a halt of U.S. bombing of North Viet Nam was the main requirement for improving ties between Moscow and Washington.

PREVIOUS EMPHASIS

Previously, the emphasis has been on the U.S. ending the war and getting out of Viet Nam.

President Johnson has offered through U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg at the United Nations to suspend bombing if the North Vietnamese promise to de-escalate the war.

But, even if nothing comes of the bombing suspension issue, the Soviet response to Johnson's speech Friday, appealing for better relations, reflects a more friendly attitude than usual in the recent past.

On major international questions, which officials confidently expect to arise, one of the foremost is a pending proposal for a pact to outlaw the use of outer space for military purposes and dedicate the moon and other celestial bodies to peaceful exploration and research.

UNDER DISCUSSION

Another issue under active U.S.-Soviet discussion is the proposed treaty to prohibit the spread of nuclear weapons among the nations which do not now have them.

moved closer to the 17th Parallel demilitarized zone which separates North and South Viet Nam.

A battalion of the 173rd Airborne Brigade was moved to Da Nang to reinforce the Leathernecks. It was the first time in the war that U.S. Army troops were deployed in the northern provinces.

McNamara, visiting Viet Nam for the eighth time, noted that U.S. forces here had nearly doubled since his last visit a year ago.

There were 170,000 U. S.

servicemen here then. There are 321,500 now and the total is expected to grow to 350,000 to 400,000 by the end of the year.

"We do not intend to destroy the Communist regime in North Viet Nam," McNamara said in a brief airport statement.

He said the American objective remained the same — to enable the South Vietnamese government to act without fear of pressure from the North.

250,000 Due Shots for Measles

A massive free measles immunization Oct. 23 in Oakland, Wayne and Macomb counties is expected to include some 250,000 youngsters.

Dr. Bernard D. Berman, director of the Oakland County Health Department and chairman of the tricounty program, said if the inoculation effort is successful, it will eliminate measles in the area.

Immunization is scheduled from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at 200 clinics in the three counties. Registration forms will be available later.

Hundreds of doctors and nurses and thousands of volunteers will staff the clinics.

Dr. Berman said an increased number of measles cases is expected this winter based on past cycles of the disease in this area.

SINGLE SHOT

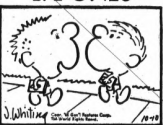

He added that, with an effective single shot vaccine against measles now available, children need no longer to be subjected to this potentially dangerous disease.

The campaign, sponsored by the nonprofit "End Measles-Metropolitan Inc.," is potentially the largest measles inoculation in history.

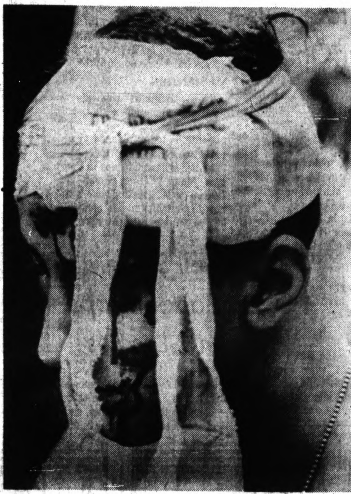

It is modeled after one last January in Rhode Island where a one-day clinic in 37 locations inoculated 32,000 children.

As a result, the number of reported cases in the first half of this year dropped to 72 from 3,800 in the same period of 1965.

Kelley to Romney:

'Wait on Grand Jury Laws'

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley and Michigan's grand jurors have decided to wait until next year to ask for changes in the state's grand jury laws.

In a letter to Gov. George Romney today, Kelley said, "all with whom I have spoken agree that such changes should not be considered at the brief session of the Legislature to be held this week."

Kelley's letter was in response to a communication from Romney, who had asked him for recommendations on changing the present grand jury laws.

Romney said he would be willing to submit proposals to the legislative meeting that opens tomorrow.

Kelley said he conferred with Judge George Bowles, the Wayne County grand juror; Judge Philip Pratt, Oakland County; Judge Stuart Hoffius, Kent County, and former Wayne County Grand Juror Edward Piggins.

He said he also discussed the question with experts in the criminal division of his office.

"Some feel that there are areas of possible improvement in the grand jury law; some feel that substitutes for the one-man grand jury might be considered," Kelley said.

"But all agree that any major changes should be recommended only after careful and serious study, without the pressure of urgent time limitations."

Lawmakers might consider one recommendation already made by Bowles. The Wayne County judge suggested legislation to provide for the exchange of pertinent information between grand juries in different counties.

War Not Issue, Politicians Find

How Voter Will React Is Still a Big Mystery

WASHINGTON (AP) — With less than a month of campaigning left, strategists of both parties are admitting privately they haven't found the Viet Nam war to be a congressional election issue.

Most candidates interrupting their campaigning to check in now and then for major Senate and House roll calls report the voters are disturbed about the ever-enlarging conflict and frustrated by the apparent failure of peace efforts.

But how the average citizen will react to this at the polls Nov. 8 remains largely a mystery.

One Democratic senator seeking reelection seemed to voice the sentiment of many of his colleagues.

"I know the people wish we didn't have this war on our hands and wonder why we ever got into it," he said. "They'd like to have it end but not many of them want to cut and run."

DOING BEST HE CAN

"I think most of them believe President Johnson is doing the best he can."

"My opponent hasn't found any way yet to blame me for the war and as far as I can tell it isn't an issue that will affect many votes one way or the other."

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower has cautioned fellow Republicans against trying to make an issue of administration policy in Viet Nam.

Winds to Ease; Slight Chance of Rain Tonight

Hang onto your hats. Today's northwesterly winds of 15 to 22 miles will diminish slightly by tonight.

Tonight's low will range from 38 to 46 with a 10 per cent chance of showers.

The weatherman predicts continued cool temperatures, cloudy skies with a 20 per cent chance of showers for tomorrow.

Low thermometer reading in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. was 46. By 2 p.m., the mercury had warmed to 62.

City Public Housing: Political Hot Potato

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the last in a two-part series on public housing in Pontiac.)

By L. GARY THORNE

Public housing has been a Pontiac political issue for more than a decade. One reason is Ordinance 1270, which has prohibited public housing beyond the present 400 units at Lakeside Homes.

Numerous questions arise.

Why were people opposed to public housing? Where did Ordinance 1270 come from? Who wants public housing?

Racial feelings were a major factor.

Location reportedly was the main reason 300 proposed units of public housing were stopped in 1955 during the controversy that resulted in Ordinance 1270, which was petitioned by local residents.

POLICE PROBLEM

Another reason for opposing public housing was the potential police problem supposedly to be caused by a collection of those with low income.

Also, until recent years, much public housing had an undesirable "project" look. Living in such a project sometimes carried a stigma.

Public housing supporters contend public housing, particularly its appearance, has changed. They claim today it is not the project housing of 1955.

This may be true in more than just mere appearance. New federal government regulations permit municipalities and/or local public housing commissions to buy formerly private, single-family dwellings. These are rented and operated as public housing.

This latter possibility, already under discussion in Detroit, was suggested by District 1 Commissioner T. Warren Fowler Sr., who instigated the latest consideration of repealing "1270."

The ordinance, to be discussed next month at a public hearing called by the City Commission, has been a rallying point for civic rights, labor and other local groups.

Small and large power blocs have sought more public housing in Pontiac.

Columbus Day Fete Draws Soapy, Griffin

By the Associated Press
G. Mennen Williams and Robert P. Griffin, the state's two senatorial candidates, campaigned Sunday among crowds of Italian-Americans celebrating Columbus Day in Detroit.

Sen. Griffin, R-Mich., rode in a convertible while Democratic former Gov. Williams walked in the 90-minute Columbus Day parade through the Motor City.

Bystanders applauded both candidates as they passed by.

LI. Gov. William G. Milliken, who is running for reelection, took the place of Gov. George Romney at the Columbus Day ceremonies. He was accompanied by George Washington, Republican candidate for secretary of state against Democratic incumbent James Hare.

TALKS IN DEARBORN
Democratic State Chairman Zolton Ferency, Romney's challenger, campaigned Sunday in Dearborn.

Meanwhile, a poll copyrighted by the Detroit News reported Sunday that Romney is pulling away from Ferency in public support.

The poll showed Romney with 64 per cent of the voters polled supporting him for a third term while Ferency had 33 per cent.

Three per cent was listed as undecided.

The News said Romney gained four percentage points over Ferency in the last month.

WAYNE COUNTY
In heavily Democratic Wayne County, the poll gave Romney 64 per cent, a jump from 46 per cent a month ago.

In a published interview today, Williams said the Landrum-Griffin Act, a labor law on which his opponent Griffin was a cosponsor, "is workable legislation."

But Williams told the Detroit Free Press in the interview that "the original Griffin-Landrum bill was a very severe anti-labor bill, and that it was only after three weeks of negotiations that the Senate was able to make the bill a working bill."

The paper told Williams "you have said that Sen. Griffin, who have to answer to the Michigan working man for his sponsorship of the Landrum-Griffin Act."

NO MENTION
"No," Williams replied. "I have never mentioned the Landrum-Griffin Act."

Williams today planned to attend two Democratic meetings.

Griffin scheduled stops in Pontiac, Mount Clemens and the Detroit area, greeting voters at bowling establishments and employing at a department store.

Injured Cyclist Listed Serious

Injuries suffered yesterday in a collision at a Commerce Township intersection have hospitalized a Farmington Township motorcyclist.

Wilbur J. Weatherly, 34, of 2910 W. Eight Mile is listed in serious condition at Pontiac General Hospital.

Weatherly is the sixth person to be injured in accidents at the intersection of Carroll Lake and Wise this year.

The corner was also the scene of the deaths of two sisters in a schoolbus mishap Jan. 3.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies said Weatherly collided with a car driven by Charles W. Woodall, 40, of Toledo, Ohio.

Woodall told deputies he was crossing Carroll Lake westbound on Wise and didn't see the approaching motorcycle.

Plane Crash in State Kills Four Ohioans

HUDSON (AP)—Nine friends were flying back to their Ohio town in three airplanes—one aircraft after the other in a loose formation.

Suddenly, unknown to those aboard the first two planes, the third craft plunged to earth Sunday night.

The single engine Stinson crashed near Hudson, five miles north of the Ohio-Michigan border, killing four Circleville, Ohio, residents.

Killed were Bobby Miller, 39, the pilot; his wife, Norma, 39; Marvin Maxson, 33, and his wife, Margaret.

Pilots of the first two planes, discovering the three craft had turned back and landed at Reynolds Field at Jackson, Mich.

Acting as spokesman, Ken

City Public Housing: Political Hot Potato

Morris, UAW Region 1 director, has entered an earnest plea for more housing.

Obviously, the paramount consideration in the current move to reappraise local feeling on "1270" and public housing is the city's critical shortage of housing.

This shortage has been highlighted repeatedly by city officials and community leaders, although the point has been made that public housing will grant relief to only one segment of residents.

COULD NOT QUALIFY
The reason is given that those new to the area, such as the influx of workers for local plants, could not qualify for public housing because of the low income requirements.

Officially, if Pontiac is to have more public housing — other than that for the elderly, the commission must repeal "1270."

Then the appropriate steps must be taken by the Public Housing Commission to secure federal approval for the added public units.

Generally, local officials feel Pontiac can easily qualify for more public housing by merely filing the necessary paperwork.

Thus, repeal of Indenture 1270 would be the first step local government can take to even combat a portion of the housing problem.

Safe Containing $1,000 Stolen From City Firm

Burglars broke into a Pontiac firm early today and used a mechanic's dolly to steal a safe containing about $1,000, according to Pontiac police.

Site of the break-in was the Pontiac Transit Corp., 200 N. Paddock.

Police said entry to the building was gained by breaking a window pane, then reaching in to unlock the window.

The heavy safe was taken from the cashier's office and removed on the dolly through a door, police said.

An additional $34 was reported missing from a change box. The break-in was discovered about 4 a.m.

Gemini Launch Slated Nov. 9

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The space agency today officially announced it has scheduled the launch of America's Gemini 12 rendezvous and space mission for Nov. 9.

Gemini 12 pilots James A. Lovell Jr. and Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. are to rocket aloft at 3:27 p.m. Nov. 9, 98 minutes after an Atlas-Agena target rocket blasts off from a neighboring launch pad.

The four-day Gemini 12 mission will include two work periods outside the spacecraft by Air Force Maj. Aldrin, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said.

News media have been carrying the Nov. 9 date for several weeks. NASA has a policy, however, not to officially announce the dates of manned launches until 30 days in advance.

Bell Strikers Back on Jobs in 2 Locales

DETROIT (UPI) — Telephone workers in Flint and Ann Arbor returned to their jobs today, ending wildcat walkouts which started last week.

A Michigan Bell Telephone Co. spokesman said all its offices in the state reported normal operations today with all employees on hand.

The Ann Arbor and Flint walkouts started the middle of last week.

About 1,100 members of the Communication Workers of America had stayed off the job during the weekend, creating some days in operator service.

Operations were manned by supervisory personnel.

The workers were protesting tentative contract agreements negotiated by the CWA international with Michigan Bell and subject to nationwide mail ballot ratification by Oct. 31.

2 Satellites Ram in Space

MADRID (UPI) — Two unmanned U.S. Satellites hurtling through space at five miles per second collided last year but survived the crash and are still operating, it was disclosed today.

The disclosure was made by Dr. Hillard W. Paige, vice president of General Electric Co. at the 17th Astronautical Congress here.

It was the first known case of a collision in what could be described, he said, as "outer space in a rush hour."

The announcement was the most sensational of the opening day of the congress, being attended by 1,200 scientists from 30 countries.

Speaking before a capacity audience, which included Queen Frederika of Greece, her daughter Princess Sophia and son-in-law Prince Juan Carlos, Paige spoke on the subject: "recent flight experience of earth-orbiting gravity gradient stabilization systems."

He said that in March 1964, the U.S. Naval Research Laboratory launched two gravity stabilized satellites into a 600-kilometer orbit from a single booster.

Both Still Operating Despite '65 Crash

S. Africa Faces New Sanctions

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Two more resolutions aimed at South Africa's white supremacy policy were slated for committee approval today at the U.N. General Assembly.

One resolution sponsored by Poland and Saudi Arabia, appeals to the Security Council to take effective measures to eradicate apartheid (racial segregation) in South Africa and other adjacent territories.

Another resolution sponsored by 40 African and Asian countries, urged all countries to comply with previous General Assembly recommendations for economic and diplomatic measures against South Africa and with the arms embargo which the Security Council voted against her.

The resolution also asks Secretary General U. Thant to establish a United Nations secretariat to give maximum publicity "to the evils" of apartheid. The cost of the unit is estimated at $54,100 for the first year.

Postal Officials Are Adding Zip to Area ZIP Code Changeover

Pontiac area residents may have their mailing lists ZIP coded during ZIP Code Week, today through Saturday, announced Pontiac Postmaster William W. Donaldson.

National ZIP Code Week has been proclaimed by President Johnson in an attempt to bring ZIP Code to the public's attention.

ZIP Coded mail insures a faster, more efficient delivery, Postal authorities say.

Blank cards for most-used addresses are being sent to Pontiac postal patrons. There is a card in blue ink for local addresses and one in red ink for out-of-town numbers.

Residents may fill out these cards and then send them to the postmaster. Post office personnel will add the proper zip code and return lists to sender.

Everyone will be sent their own ZIP Code number.

Donaldson explained that transferring to ZIP Code is a tremendous task but a vital one.

ZIP Coded mail goes directly to the coded area while most non-ZIP Coded mail must be reworked everytime it is transferred to another train according to Donaldson.

Zip Coded mail may arrive at its destination a day or more faster than non-ZIP Coded letters, Donaldson said.

Preference in post offices is given to ZIP Coded mail.

Donaldson will give explanatory lectures and show films in schools and service clubs during ZIP Code Week.

Parking Lot Report Is Tonight

BIRMINGHAM — A completed report on the feasibility of an underground parking lot in the Shain Park area is scheduled for presentation to the City Commission tonight.

The Detroit firm of Smith, Hinchman and Grylls has been conducting an engineering feasibility study and is to make a presentation of their findings to the commission.

Comparative costs between underground and surface parking facilities are to be included in the report. The study is part of a program to improve Shain Park.

Six routes are being proposed by traffic engineering consultants Reid and Cool as part of an in-depth study of the east leg of the proposed ring road.

These include Hunter, Hunter-Brownell, Brownell-Park (two way), Brownell-Park (one way), Brownell-Park (with Maple closed to through traffic) and Hunter with the Maple cross-over closed.

The original proposal to use Hunter as the east leg with a one-way traffic flow has met with considerable objection from residents, merchants and the Birmingham-Bloomfield Chamber of Commerce.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused today to review a decision that upheld Maryland's practice of exempting church property from taxation.

The decision was given by Maryland's Court of Appeals. It said exemptions do not violate federal or state constitutions and are a recognition of the contributions made by religious organizations to the general public welfare.

In other actions, the high court:

- Agreed to review a decision that federal labor laws bar a union from fining its members for crossing picket lines.
- Let stand unchanged a decision that California's ban on pay television for homes is unconstitutional.
- Granted a hearing to Dr. Martin Luther King and seven other civil rights leaders who appealed their conviction for disobeying an injunction against marches in Birmingham, Ala., in 1963.

The decision to review labor laws affecting union regulations stems from strikes in 1959 and 1960 at Allis-Chalmers plants in Wisconsin where the United Auto Workers union fined members who crossed picket lines.

A National Labor Relations Board ruling that the fines were valid was subsequently overturned by the U.S. Circuit Court in Chicago.

Ex-American: Can't Go Home

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Robert Charles Mote said today U.S. officials are barring his return to his home in Kokomo, Ind., because he once served two months in the Canadian army. He has a wife, a native of Luxembourg, and a 17-month-old son, born in the United States.

Mote, born Sept. 4, 1934, in Kokomo, said in an interview the U.S. consul in Winnipeg, Man., handed him a certificate of loss of American citizenship last April because he joined the Canadian army for two months in 1953.

Mote said: "Twenty-one turn-outs (U.S. Army draftees) returned from Korea and were allowed to live again in the United States. They were traitors. I am not and never was. As a youngster, I joined the Canadian army for two months in 1953."

"I want to go back to the United States where I can earn my living and live close to my relatives, my father, sister and brother, in Kokomo, Ind., or my brother, William Mote, who lives in Grand Canyon, Ariz. I cannot do it, but my son, born in the States and who has an American passport, can. My wife, a Luxembourg-born holder of an alien registration card in the States, could also."

Mote said the American Civil Liberties Union and attorney Leonard Bouding have taken up his case.

Mote said he married his wife in June 1964 after meeting her in Sioux City, Iowa, where she worked in a restaurant.

Nazis Linked to Massacre Get 2nd Trial

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Two Austrian brothers went on trial today for the second time on charges of complicity in the Oct. 12, 1941, massacre of 12,000 Jews in the Nazi-occupied Polish town of Stanislaw.

Johann and Wilhelm Mauer pleaded innocent before an eight-member jury convened by the Supreme Court which overruled an earlier acquittal that was returned on the grounds that the Polish-born defendants had acted "under duress of orders" from their Nazi superiors.

The prosecution listed 11 cases of participation in mass shootings which wiped out the town's entire Jewish population. In addition, Wilhelm Mauer is accused of individual murders in nine cases and Johann Mauer in three.

The trial held the spotlight amid a dispute over the recent acquittal of another accused Nazi war criminal, Capt. Franz Novak, who was freed in a retrial by a jury unable to agree whether he acted under duress as transport officer in Adolf Eichmann's death machinery.

MOLES

QUESTION: Is a mole able to see?

ANSWER: Animals possess an amazing ability to adapt themselves to strange environments where, from our human point of view, it does not seem that life could go on at all.

Fish swim in the midnight blackness of the ocean abyss; birds fly far up, with apparently nothing to support them. Few animals live stranger lives than the mole, most species of which spend all their lives underground.

As our picture shows, their tunnels lie both just under the surface and further down. In their tunnels, dug with their powerful claws, a mole finds shelter and protection from hunting animals. In the winter, he retreats to his nest two feet down.

There are many worms and insects to be found, which satisfy his ravenous appetite (his food for one day equals his weight). His sensitive snout and sensory hairs of feet and tail show him where the walls of his tunnel are, so that a mole has no real need for vision.

The result is that after centuries of living underground, practically all of the mole family has grown blind. Their eyes are extremely small, shaded with fur and are mere remnants of earlier days when their ancestors lived above ground.

FOR YOU TO DO: Watch for mole hills in your lawn and see what you can find under them.

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Warning shots were fired in the air and three Negroes were arrested after a crowd of them dispersed two policemen who tried to break up a fight.

Reinforcements dispersed the mob. Stroud was treated for head injuries at a hospital and released.

2 From State Die

PIGGOTT, Ark. (AP)—Henry O. Nettles, 46, and Julie H. Nettles, 45, of Madison Heights, Mich., were killed Sunday in a two-car collision on Arkansas 1 south of Piggott. Police said the accident also killed Jack Gover, 34, of Piggott.

Laotian Leader,
LBJ May Meet

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department says President Johnson probably will see Prince Souvanna Phouma, the prime minister of Laos, at the White House later this week.

The Prince's schedule has not been announced for his annual visit to the U.N. General Assembly, but officials Sunday night said he probably would meet Johnson in midweek.

The first ship sailed through the Suez Canal on Jan. 1, 1837.

Tunisia-Egypt Split
Widens Arabian Rift

TUNIS (AP)—The ideological wedge between the moderate and revolutionary Arab states was driven deeper than ever with the abrupt break in diplomatic relations between Tunisia and Egypt.

The move further weakened Arab unity against Israel and was a new blow to the shaky, Egyptian-dominated Arab League.

It was the climax of years of personal rivalry between Tunisia's ebullient, Western-minded President Habib Bourguiba and Egypt's President Gamal Abdel Nasser.

Bourguiba—whose rule is as absolute in Tunisia as Nasser's in Egypt—decided to cut the relations in anger over personal attacks directed against him by the Cairo press and radio.

The Tunisian announcement cited the Egyptian "islander campaign" as the reason for the break and warned other Arab revolutionary countries—namely Syria—to stop such attacks or face the same consequences.

ANOTHER REASON
Informed sources reported another reason for Bourguiba's decision: Cairo's apparent backing of a move by leftist Tunisian exiles to reopen inquiries into the death of Bourguiba's arch-enemy, Salah ben Youssef, mysteriously slain in Germany five years ago.

In practice, the break with Egypt made little difference to relations between the two countries, virtually at a standstill since ambassadors were withdrawn last year. This followed Bourguiba's complaints against alleged Egyptian interference in Tunisia's internal affairs.

But in the atmosphere of Arab diplomacy, the fact that Bourguiba felt strong enough to take the initiative for the break with his more powerful rival could make Nasser lose face.

One Egyptian diplomat complained privately after the break that Nasser had allowed Bourguiba a "cheap victory" by failing to break relations first.

Bourguiba apparently discussed Nasser with King Faisal of Saudi Arabia, who was received with Oriental pomp and exceptional honors on a week-long state visit last month.

MRS. SHEPPARD IN GERMANY—Ariane Sheppard, German-born wife of Dr. Sam Sheppard of Cleveland, Ohio, holds pictures of herself and her husband at the home of a friend in Dusseldorf, West Germany. She said she had come to Germany to take care of personal and financial matters and probably would be back in time for Sheppard's new trial, scheduled to start Oct. 18. She and the doctor struck up a friendship while he was serving a prison term after being convicted of murdering his wife.

Says Foreign Minister

Sukarno Coup Link Unproved

TOKYO (AP) — Indonesian Foreign Minister Adam Malik said today he knew of no proof that President Sukarno was involved in the abortive Communist coup attempt in Indonesia last year. However, he noted that Sukarno's name has been mentioned in testimony at the trial in Jakarta of former Foreign Minister Subandrio and said the judiciary would investigate those references. Speaking at the foreign correspondents club of Japan, Malik said if Sukarno's involvement in the coup attempt is established "or that he ever was at fault, the people's consultative assembly will ask for his explanation." Subandrio, accused of being involved in the October 1965 coup attempt, is now on trial on charges of treason, subversion and corruption. Sukarno's name has cropped up frequently in testimony concerning Communist party activities in Indonesia, but there has been no direct accusation against him. He said in a statement read at the trial that he had no knowledge of the planned coup. Malik, in Tokyo on a global tour to explain the policies of the new Indonesian government, also clarified Sukarno's role in the government. He said the president's position is now subordinate to the People's Consultative Assembly, headed by Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution, and that anything Sukarno says in contradiction to the assembly "of course cannot be implemented." "The government is trying to return the position of the president to that of the constitution and to the decisions of the assembly," he said. Then he added: "Of course, the president himself has the right to resign if he feels he does not want to continue." Malik's statement was the clearest given thus far by a government minister of Sukarno's actual role since the military took over the government in March. In Jakarta, the official news agency Antara said today that North Sumatran students have issued a statement demanding that congress question Sukarno about his activities during the coup. They also declared their full support for anti-Sukarno student demonstrators in Jakarta.

Contributions for Project Become Deductible

U. of M. Agrees to Build Fraternity House

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The University of Michigan says it has agreed to build a $300,000 house for a fraternity so that alumni may write off contributions to the building program as tax deductions.

John Feldkamp, U. of M. housing director, said the agreement with Nu Sigma Nu fraternity could be a model for future fraternity and sorority construction on campus.

The plan was proposed some years ago by Clifford Upjohn, president of Upjohn Inc. of Kalamazoo.

Upjohn, alumnus of Nu Sigma Nu, said at the time that if the fraternity house was owned by U. of M., contributions to the building fund would be tax deductible as educational contributions.

SUBSTANTIAL AMOUNT

Fraternity leaders said Upjohn told them he would contribute a substantial amount to the building program if the university would construct the house.

Under the agreement, U. of M. is to build the Nu Sigma Nu house when the fraternity raises 50 per cent of the $300,000. U. of M. will loan the fraternity the remaining funds under a 50-year mortgage.

The school will lease the building to the fraternity for building to the fraternity for periods of five years, with a renewal option.

"It is a way to build fraternities from nonuniversity funds," Feldkamp said.

Officials said no decision has been reached on requests by four other fraternities for similar agreements to build houses.

GOES TOO FAR — Fred Hildreth, 26, manager of a safety equipment manufacturing firm in Glendale, Calif., ties his shoe as he talks to newsmen at John F. London airline officials put him on the next plane back to the United States.

Court Hopeful Urges Poll

DETROIT (UPI) — The four candidates for the State Supreme Court would be rated by a poll of all Michigan lawyers if the State Bar Association accepts a proposal by a Detroit circuit judge.

Judge Thomas E. Brennan has suggested a statewide poll on the Supreme Court candidates similar to the Detroit Bar Association's ratings of Detroit judicial aspirants.

Brennan said the State Bar "has an equal obligation to advise the public of the relative merits of those who seek statewide judicial office."

In an apparent attempt to head off objections to the project because of lack of time or money before the November election, Brennan said that if necessary he would see "that all expenses are underwritten" and offered to provide the necessary clerical aid "to assure that the ballots are in the mail by Oct. 19."

"Legal scholarship and judicial temperament are important qualifications for the high office of justice of the Michigan Supreme Court," he added, "and the members of the Bar are in a special position to judge these things."

Syria's climate is somewhat like that of Phoenix, Arizona.

It Seems to Me:

American Jurisprudence Capitulating to Criminality

Once again our jurisprudence whacks 200 million Americans squarely amidsthips. The conviction of JACK RUBY in the shooting of LEE OSWALD has been reversed.

The Court of Appeals asserts Ruby should have been granted a change of venue "because the Dallas jury was prejudiced." Further, the tribunal grandly stipulates that Dallas cannot be the scene of a new trial.

When OSWALD was transferred, newspapers, television and radio were officially notified "how, when, why and where" so they could cover it completely.

And they did.
Make no mistake about that.

Lee Harvey Oswald was openly shot and killed by Jack Ruby as several million startled, stunned and horrified Americans watched on their own private TV screens at home.
Does the court think TV exists in Dallas alone?

So, this tribunal orders the trial "outside of Dallas to get an unprejudiced jury." Well, they might hold it on the dark side of the moon where TV may not reach. Or, it might be staged in the Ural Mountains—or on Venus.

RUBY shot OSWALD—period. Millions saw him do it.

But the verdict of "guilty" is gravely set aside. And the action probably is a misguided "follow through" on a composite of recent Supreme Court decisions. In the eyes of the average American, these increasingly favor the murderer, the crook, the thief, the goon and the perpetrator of evil.

The victims seem forgotten.
What can we do?
Must mankind sit supinely by?
A great nation stands aghast, bewildered and disbelieving.
Where are we heading?
When does the pendulum change?

Mass Meetings . . .

Suggestions that the TAUBMAN plan, the U. of D. idea—and others—be settled by public mass meetings utterly ignore the true and practical facts.

The U. S. Government isn't run by popular assemblies. It can't be. Our civil servants are elected by the public, but once in office, they handle the affairs at hand themselves.

There's no other way.
GM isn't run by public mass meetings. Oakland County isn't either. And certainly the UAW-CIO isn't. Nor is Osmon's store—or school boards.

Public mass meetings have their place. They're indispensable. They're an inherent part of a democracy. But they have to fit properly into the general pattern.

Old Enough to Vote?

Sparsely, the question arises as to whether the voting age should be reduced to eighteen years. Now it's on our November ballot.

Usually the argument is advanced that "if they're old enough to fight for their country, they're old enough to vote."

This is illogical.

Eighteen year olds are qualified to play a rugged, bruising game of football at right tackle, but that doesn't establish the age as of voting caliber.

When you're old enough to fight for your country, it doesn't signify you're old enough to teach chemistry at M.I.T. or become the rector of an established church. These questions must be faced individually.

If the age were lowered to eighteen, in a few years the extreme agitators would be waving the flag for sixteen.

The founding fathers acted wisely. Let's continue as we are.

And in Conclusion . . .

Jottings from the well-thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

RONNIE REAGAN is on the current cover of Time and RICHARD NIXON graces Newsweek. These two, plus our own GEORGE ROMNEY could well be the three front runners for the GOP nomination in '68. . . . Overheard: "Clothing isn't stylish anymore unless it looks three sizes too small." . . . Nationwide, Dems agree that unless we have peace in Viet Nam by election day, they're going to get the bum's rush in many, many places.

Lita Gray Chaplin writes "My Life with Chaplin" and really clobbers him. A case of the pot calling the kettle black. . . . Orioles think that next year

Now some scarecrow suggests they play the World Series at night. . . . It's rumored that one of Batman's next "horrid foes" will be Zsa Zsa GABOR. . . . Critics across the country are rather generally agreeing that the new TV shows this fall include a whole host that have proved pretty dismal at best. . . . Overheard: "I'd like to pay you what you're worth, but the minimum wage law has teeth in it." . . . Dept. of Cheers and Jeers: the C's—The Baltimore Orioles winning the World Series; the J's—the Ruby decision.

HAROLD A. FITZGERALD

How Come We're So Lucky?

David Lawrence Says:

Profs' Peace Plan Abets Reds

WASHINGTON — The biggest contest of the century between military power and propaganda power is being waged today as the U.S. Communists and the United States respectively try to win the war in Viet Nam.

Every now and then LAWRENCE something happens to give the Communists encouragement. Sometimes it comes out of the United States itself, where sincere, well-intentioned individuals keep proposing "solutions" which appear to be fair but which, if accepted by the United States, could eventually lead to a complete loss of the very objectives that American forces have so valiantly fought to attain.

The latest plan, which is contained in a study prepared by a group of college professors for the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and which now has been endorsed by Sen. Fulbright, chairman of the committee, recommends "neutralization" of the Southeast Asia area.

The proposal is to get each of the countries in Southeast Asia to agree not to let its territory to be used for aggression while a second set of nations — the United States and Red China, with or without the support of the Soviet Union — would pledge themselves to "guarantee" the "neutrality" of the region, which would include Cambodia, Laos, Thailand, South Viet Nam and any other country in the area which might be endangered.

If any aggression seemed imminent, the United States and Red China would, according to the agreement, "Come to the aid" of the "neutral" state.

The report says the United States would benefit by the formula because this would permit the Asian countries to manage their own affairs without a large commitment of U. S. troops. But, it is added in the same document, the United States might have to accept a Communist take-over of a "neutral" government which could result from the activities of domestic forces operating without foreign assistance.

Theoretically, America could keep its troops in nearby areas — possibly Australia — and be ready to move in if the plan failed.

The report of the college professors to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee concedes that the Communists have violated the neutrality of Laos by keeping North Vietnamese troops there and using it as a corridor into South Viet Nam.

The professors say that perhaps a different kind of control machinery, organized through the United States or by motivated countries, might this time be an improvement over the control apparatus set up in 1954, which has since been "paralyzed."

When the Communists read a document like the one just given approval by the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, they believe that they are making headway and that the government here is ready to accept almost any plan in order to wriggle out of the war in Viet Nam.

Good Samaritan Attitude: Is It Still Alive in State?

By HARRY J. REED
Managing Editor

"Would you believe . . ." is one of the comedy catch phrases of today. It usually precedes a statement that's indeed difficult to believe.

Just how nice people can be is also sometimes hard to believe.

As an example, "would you believe" this: A Pontiac area resident heads north for a weekend with a friend. Ten miles from nowhere, his car belches and dies. It needs oil.

Our resident gets out and starts to hoof it. After slogging along for an hour or so, along comes a boy on a bike. The cyclist knows the problem and loans his bike to our stranded motorist, who pedals off in search of lubrication.

When our saddened traveler returns with the oil, the boy claims his bike, refuses any pay and rides off.

Rejuvenated, the biker manages another 30 miles before he ungraciously throws a red. Another bike begins. This time, a tavern looms up over the 13th dusty hill. After getting enough change to clog a payphone, he starts calling wreckers.

GETS THE SHOCK

Several calls indicate a $60 towing and repair job of at least $200. He has $40, and says so. At this point, the tavern owner tells him to hang up.

"Take my car and tow yours in with it," he says. "Then go back to Pontiac and get the money you need to have it fixed."

Almost in a daze at so much trust and friendliness in one day, our traveler does just that. Returning at dusk after an awful day of problems, our ill-fated voyager finds the tavern owner at dinner.

"Everything fine now?" he asks. To offers of payment for his generous assistance, the tavern owner merely suggests "Just replace the gas, that's all. Say, you look hungry. Why don't you join me for dinner here. I got a steak just about your size."

Would you believe . . . ?

Invites Our Attention to Beauties of Fall Season

We are approaching one of the most beautiful seasons of the year here in Michigan. With Mr. Jack Frost making an occasional appearance, the foliage on most of our trees is ablaze with color.

The countryside has the appearance of a technicolor wonderland. The nostalgic fragrance of Autumn is in the air. A trip by car or even a leisurely walk to view this spectacle is richly rewarding and truly worthwhile.

'Local Members Broke Voted Agreement'

Members of Local 401, CWA, agreed to wildcat strike against the advice of our International Representatives and Michigan Bell.

Almost two weeks later, at the last officially-called meeting, the majority agreed, against the wishes of the president, to delay our return to work until Monday at 5:30 a.m. The president immediately issued a call to all members to return to work the following morning. Forgetting their vote to the contrary, most of the workers then returned to work as the president demanded.

As a hold-out, I am threatened with loss of my job and I hold the President and my fellow members responsible for any action taken against me as a result of sticking to the originally-voted plan.

Activities Too Costly for Teens or Parents

I agree some of the listed activities for teens are available but mostly at fees which a lot of teens and their parents cannot afford. I have two teen boys and a daughter and I cannot afford the membership fee at the "Y" for one, let alone for all three.

Why have all the movies been taken out of downtown Pontiac, or the bowling alleys? Prices are so outrageous that a simple movie date with hamburger and coke afterward takes a $5 bill.

If more parents were interested in doing things with their teens, some of this rebellion would stop and more fun would prevail for all.

'Pontiac Has Denied Democratic Process'

Pontiac can never hope to receive national recognition for anything because its success as an industrial center is retarded by its failure as a city. There are two dissimilar racial entities, separated geographically and unbalanced in opportunity and income.

Pontiac has failed to adequately house its citizens; it has failed to solve the problems of the perimeter road and the needed redevelopment of the southern business area; it has ignored its natural endowments by concealing a river and ignoring the plight of the three lakes on the north side.

Pontiac has denied the democratic process in decision-making. This was demonstrated at the hearing on the Taubman contract. The Commissioners heard but did not listen. Ignoring their responsibilities as representatives of the people, six Commissioners condemned the youth of this city to grow up in a nothing town. Only now it will be a nothing town with a shopping center.

It is good news for the economically distressed Upper Peninsula copper country that geologists and engineers have undertaken a serious study of the feasibility of reopening the Quincy operation, the three shafts of which were closed down in 1945 after a 99-year history of copper production.

At least for the moment, things are looking up in the copper country.

ments that have arisen since the mine was closed simply the extraction and processing of copper, making prospects brighter for a resumption of profitable mining.

Scientists long have acclaimed Quincy copper as the finest produced in Michigan's Keweenaw Peninsula, and geologists estimate the Quincy shafts will hold 1.1 billion pounds of copper.

Try Being a Bean

Want a Day in Your Honor?

LANSING (AP) — Vegetables, house trailers, skin diving and country music are eligible to be honored by official proclamation of the governor—but very likely you aren't.

Gov. George Romney has the power to name a day, week, month or year after you. But he won't unless you're of statewide or nationwide significance.

You'd stand a better chance if you were a rose, a bean, a submarine, an experimental aircraft or a mobile home.

George T. Trumbull, one of Romney's administrative assistants, handles requests for proclamations based on policy laid down by the governor. The policy, he says, is pretty tough to explain in words.

UNWRITTEN

"It's an unwritten thing, and one that's open to exceptions," Trumbull said. "We just sort of play it by ear."

But one unwritten rule is statewide significance, he said, and another is "reasonable character" of the request.

Thus a retiring minister or a couple celebrating a golden anniversary isn't likely to have a day officially set aside to honor the occasion. What the governor probably will do is send a personal letter of congratulation, or whatever reaction the occasion suggests.

The recipient is given a copy of the proclamation, while others go to the secretary of state (who affixes the official state seal), the state library, the press corps and the Michigan Historical Commission.

When an individual is honored by proclamation, he often is photographed standing beamingly by while the governor signs the document.

Then he is presented an impressive looking paper with a big golden seal in the lower left corner. He can tuck it over his fireplace, put it in his scrapbook or tuck it away among his souvenirs.

Very few who request proclamations are turned down, Trumbull says. But, he adds, that's not because they're easy to get. "I think that, by and large, in the time since we've come into office most people have become acquainted with the governor's policy and they don't request proclamations which don't fit in with it," he explains.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place. And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months! In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing. All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or straining of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body. This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H® Suppositories or Preparation H® Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H® is sold at all drug counters.

your newspaper ...guardian of your "right to know"

Some freedoms you take for granted.

You grew up knowing that in America you can speak your thoughts and act pretty much according to your convictions. But, are you aware that as a citizen of a democracy you are being threatened constantly by attempts to restrict your right to know?

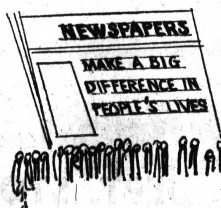

You—and all Americans—have a right to a free press, which is not hampered by the threats of “managed news.” Yet, needless secrecy in government, controlled press conferences and servants of the people who want to rule instead of serve, are all constantly increasing.

If our high standards of democracy are to endure, the individual must have an alert guardian to help him hold his own against the closing door to freedom of information.

That guardian is your newspaper, working tirelessly for your right to know.

This struggle is never ending. The defense of individual liberty must be won over and over again.

Stand side by side with your newspaper in this struggle, for the battle the newspaper wages is for YOU.

Let Others Talk

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: After eight years of marriage, I decided to get a divorce. I had two children and would have stayed married for their sakes, but their father cared nothing for them, so it would have been pointless.

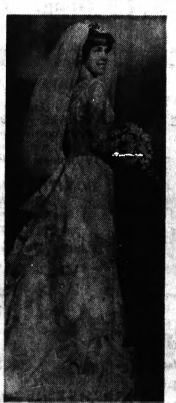

Two years later I married a widower with three children. In six months I realized that I had made another terrible mistake. All he wanted was a cook, housekeeper and someone to raise his children. He favored HIS children and accused me of favoring mine. (Actually, I bent over backward so far trying to be fair to his, I was unfair to my own.) My problem is that I am miserable but if I get another divorce everyone will say BOTH divorces were my fault.

I am 39 years old and don't want to be a two-time loser. If it weren't for my children, I would commit suicide.

TRAPPED: The people who talk don't help you to bear the burden of your misery. Do what is best for you and your children and forget everything else.

BPW Units to Celebrate Next Week

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The nation's 27 million employed women will share the spotlight Oct. 16-22 during National Business Women's Week sponsored by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc.

First observed in 1928, National Business Women's Week dramatizes the contribution of women to the business and professional life of the nation. During the week, the approximately 177,500 members of the National Federation salute the achievements of all business and professional women in their communities, states and the nation.

Throughout the country, the Federation's 3750 local clubs will participate in banquets, receptions and special events honoring working women.

Highlight of the week-long celebration will be a coast to coast meet-the-member tour by National President Sarah Jane Cunningham of McCook, Neb., with major stopovers in Washington, D.C., St. Louis, Mo. and San Francisco, Calif.

The Pan American Union in Washington, D.C. will be the scene of a gala reception honoring the top women in government on Oct. 17, at which Miss Cunningham will be a special guest.

Sponsored by the District of Columbia State Federation of Business and Professional Women, the reception will spotlight the contributions of women in Congress, the military and government agencies.

Mid-week, Miss Cunningham travels to the mid-west to speak at a banquet in St. Louis on Oct. 20. It will be hosted by the Missouri State Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs. Climaxing the busy week will be a banquet in San Francisco on Oct. 22, sponsored by the California State Federation.

Autumn Display for Brookside, WNFGA Branch

"Fall Flair" was the theme for the October meeting of Brookside branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, in the Orangetown home of Mrs. Carl W. Bird.

Mrs. Fred Trickey, president of Osage branch, WNFGA, stressed balance, rhythm and stability in flower arrangements she made before the group.

The branch entered The Pontiac Mall flower show and Mrs. E. Gilmore Winn's "Florentine Arrangement" won a red ribbon.

Attending the Michigan Division WNFGA fall council meeting Oct. 25 in Kingsley Inn will be Mrs. Sherwood Nye and Mrs. F. Milton Hathaway.

Mrs. L. Raymond Sampson and Mrs. Thomas L. King assisted the hostess.

Gary A. Hoods Honeymoon at Niagara Falls

The Gary Alan Hoods (Barbara Ann Driver) left for Niagara Falls, N.Y. and Canada after Saturday vows in the South Side Church of Christ, Fort Wayne, Ind.

With them at the reception in the Cutler's Chateau were their parents, the Earl W. Drivers, Fort Wayne, and the Curtis H. Hoods of Mariner Road.

TIERED GOWN: White silk bombazine and Chantilly lace fashioned the bride's tiered gown and chapel train worn with illusion veil and pearl tiara. Her bouquet held pink roses and Stephanotis.

Paula E. Driver was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Patricia Jacquay, Lynn Nelson and Linda Lawrence. Kathy Gustafson was flower girl. Craig Economou carried the rings.

With best man, Richard Copes were the ushers James Dew, Curtis Hood and Robert Gustafson.

The couple will reside in Rochester. She is a graduate of Michigan Christian Junior College where he is a pre-dental student.

Snader Plays at Opening of Symphony

Nathan Snader, new concert master, will join the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra on opening night Tuesday. He is a native of Philadelphia and a graduate of the Curtis Institute there.

A devotee of chamber music, he has studied under Albert Meiff and Madame Lea Luboshutz. He has been a member of both the Philadelphia and Chicago Symphony Orchestras.

When conductor, Felix Resnick raises his baton in the Pontiac Northern High School at 8:30 p.m. the audience will hear Bernstein's overture "Candide."

Dorlene McNelly Davis will be the featured soprano in two arias from "The Marriage of Figaro" by Mozart.

The concert will continue with "Biser" from the Carmen Suite No. 2.

Area's History Is Discussed

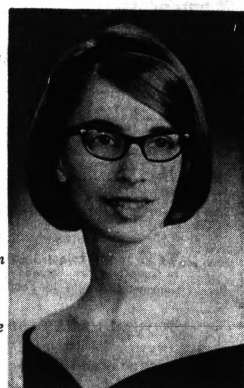

Alice D. Serrell spoke on the "History of Oakland County" at the recent luncheon meeting of the Parliamentary Study Club held in the First Federal Savings of Oakland Building.

Mrs. Lee Hill and Mrs. H. N. Watson also took part in the afternoon program, along with Mrs. Fred Goines.

Mrs. Irvin Christie, luncheon chairman, was assisted by Mrs. David Saks, Mrs. Ross Elliott and Mrs. Robert Sawyer.

Guests were Mrs. Ernest Spam, Mrs. Charles Yates, Mrs. Willis Schneekloth, Mrs. Feekari, Mrs. Mary Ann Smith, Mrs. Alex Smith, Mrs. Fred Rothwell.

The James Warrens of Ovid announce the betrothal of their daughter, Mildred Lucelia, to Lawrence B. Reynnells of Utica, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reynnells of North Johnson Avenue. He is an alumnus of Michigan State University where his fiancée is a senior.

Club Party Follows for Newlyweds

Reception in the Italian-American Club followed the vows of Donna Lee Van Horn and James Charles Shepard of East Boulevard South on Saturday.

Attending the evening rite in the First Congregational Church were their parents, the Francis R. Van Horns, Meadowleigh Lane, and the Walter Shepards of Beaver-tan.

MRS. J. C. SHEPARD

Imported white Chantilly lace fashioned a bouffant gown and cathedral train for the bride whose illusion veil fell from a tiara of cut crystals. Her bouquet of white roses held a white orchid.

With Mrs. Gale Wigner her sister's matron of honor were bridesmaids Mrs. Therman Nichols, Mrs. Michael Burch, and Mrs. Richard Steinhilber. Cherie Wigner and Ricky Garrison were flower girl and ring bearer, respectively.

Reginald Shepard was the bride's best man. Ushering were Edgar Bostright, James Hurd and Gale Wigner.

By MARY FEELLEY
Consultant in Money Management

Dear Mary Feely:
Are we wise in denying ourselves the luxuries — even the extravagances — we so much desire, considering our expected span in life? My husband is 70 and I am 56.

We are retired on a pension of $329 a month. Rent is $85, utilities approximately $18. We do not own a car.

We have savings of about $18,500. Our major medical and surgical bills are well covered through a health insurance plan plus Medicare.

So you can see we should manage pretty well. And we do. But when we want to splurge on a good vacation, a new TV, or other items beyond our income, we have to dig into our capital. We are always reluctant to do this.

Would you give us your opinion? It would be greatly appreciated.

Mrs. N.W., Bronx, N.Y.

Dear Mrs. W.:
This is one time I'm going to say: Eat your cake and have it, too.

A pension for life isn't going to fall out from under you as some investments might. Of course, the buying power of that $329 a month can and is expected to dwindle in the coming years if inflation continues.

In that case, you would need the interest earned by your savings to take out the cost of living. But on the other hand, interest rates tend to rise in an inflationary climate.

For now and the near future, why not consider your interest money as your "luxury fund"? If you're getting 4 1/2 per cent compounded quarterly, the interest at the end of the first quarter would amount to $208.13. If you leave it in the bank through the second quarter, your account would be $18,918.59 — or $418 over the basic $18,500.

I see no real reason why you shouldn't get some pleasure out of that $418 in the way of, say, a vacation or a new TV.

While the $18,500 would earn $66.74 if all the interest were left in for the full year — because the interest compounded would be the second-quarter interest, happiness and contentment are worth something.

Just be sure you can pay your bills before you get too happy and content. If you make good of the second-quarter interest money, you still won't be biting into your capital.

Trip North for Couple After Vows

The Danny Richard Moores (Darlene Sue Rose) left for a northern honeymoon after their vows and reception, Saturday, in the Auburn Heights United Presbyterian Church.

Their parents are Mrs. Wayne Rose of Slocum Road, Pontiac Township, the late Mr. Rose, and the Ted Moores of Northview Road, Independence Township.

With her gown and court train of white silk organza and Chantilly lace, the bride wore a bouffant illusion veil. She carried a white orchid and carnations.

Attending the sister were Sandra Rose, maid of honor, and Shella, who joined the other bridesmaids Mrs. Dale Williams and Linda Chastain. Rhonda Reaume was flower girl.

With best man Charles Houston, were the ushers David Gresham, Edwin Barnett and Elton Houston Jr.

Money Bath?

It's suds — not silver — which give that polished gleam to the new quarters and dimes being minted from substitute metals. The final manufacturing step is to wash these coins by machine, using detergent suds to make them clean and shiny.

MRS. R. A. LUDWICK

Nancy Tripp Takes Vows

Airman 3.C. and Mrs. William Randall Hulse Jr. (Ruth Ann Woods) left for his base at Oscoda after Saturday vows and reception in the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Woods of Monterey Boulevard and Elder and Mrs. W. Randell Hulse, Baldwin Road, Oxford Township.

A bouffant silk illusion veil and bouquet of white and pink roses complemented the bride's floor-length gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta.

Faye Shafer was maid of honor. Karen and Mary Woods attended their sister as bridesmaids along with Linda Bone. With best man Howard Parker were the ushers Gary Mann, Tom Smelser and Larry Bell at the rite performed by the bridegroom's father. The bride was graduated from Pontiac-General Hospital School of X-ray Technology. Her husband attended Graceland College, Lamon, Iowa.

Newlyweds Go to Hawaii After Vows

The Donald Louis Griffiths (Rita Jean Beutler) left for a honeymoon in Hawaii after their marriage Saturday in the First Baptist Church of Rochester and reception in Walt Hall.

Parents of the newlyweds are the Melvin Beutlers of Dexter Road, Pontiac Township, and the Ralph H. Griffiths of Meigs Street.

A bell motif hand-beaded by the bride accented her chapel-length wedding gown of white satin, complemented by a short illusion veil. She carried an orchid and white roses.

Honor matron was Mrs. Chester D. Land with bridesmaids Mrs. Douglas Beutler, Patricia McKee and flower-girl, Linda Land.

Charles Griffith was his brother's best man. A nephew, Ronald Griffith, ushered with Gordon Beutler.

Will Play Organ

The Pontiac Area Hammond Organ Society will present a program by both local and visiting organists Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in Grinnell Brothers Downtown Store.

Linen Care

In caring for household linens, pre-treat spots and stains before they have a chance to set. This is especially important for table linens, which are exposed to so many spills. Chlorine bleach can be used for washing white and color-fast napsels.

Why Grow Old?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

I found Helena Rubenstein's memoirs in her book "My Life for Beauty" (Simon-Schuster), both inspiring and interesting. Let me bring you a few excerpts today.

"I have never had my face lifted. I prefer to have my spirits lifted. In my opinion the effect is very nearly the same."

My comment: I certainly have nothing against face lifting, but I believe the above is so very enthusiastically, overemotional. Our whole physical makeup drastically affects our body chemistry, heartbeat, respiration and the functioning of our organs and just as surely the contour of our face. Bitterness causes drawn tenseness and unhappiness makes the face droop while gaiety and gladness lift the corners of the mouth and facial contour generally.

My comment: This is so true. The woman who is slightly, completely disorganized and hectic will often have nervous habits such as drumming the arms of a chair with her fingers, swinging her foot back and forth, and twisting this way and that. She may also speak in a jerky manner and neglect any regular routines of skin, hair care, and good grooming.

BEAUTY BUSINESS

"In all my years in the beauty business I have never seen a woman who really cared wholeheartedly about creating the illusion of beauty, and who was willing to give the necessary time to it, to fail to obtain that objective.

My comment? Remember the homely young girl you once knew who surprised you by turning into a fascinating, lovely looking woman? She took advantage of what is known about good nutrition, exercise, skin, and hair care. She learned about make-up, hair styling, and clothes and used this knowledge to minimize her defects and emphasize her best features. She adapted all of them to her own individuality.

"I once knew a remarkable woman of over 70 who walked like a girl of 16. There is nothing to it, she told me I do stretching exercises for five minutes each morning before I get out of bed. I've done this for 50 years. Then I go for a brisk walk."

Some of you may want my "Setting up in Bed" exercises which include some stretching ones. If so, send a stamped self-addressed envelope with your request for them to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Study Hits Smoking

'Adventists Are Healthier'

CHICAGO (AP) — California male members of the Seventh-day Adventists, a religious group which frowns on smoking, had sharply lower than average death rates during a recent four-year period, two medical investigators reported today. They said in a report in the current Journal of the American Medical Association that these men had particularly low rates of respiratory disease — one-fourth the statewide average.

A summary of the article said the findings "support the causal relationship of cigarette smoking to lung cancer" but discount the theory that a person's physical constitution is a major factor in whether he gets lung cancer.

The report was made by Drs. Frank R. Lemon and Richard T. Welden of the department of preventive medicine, school of medicine, Loma Linda University, Loma Linda, Calif.

SMALL RATIO
They said that 850 of the 11,071 Seventh-day Adventists men studied died, but that only 28 of these deaths were due to lung cancer or emphysema.

They said about 12 per cent of all male deaths in California now are due to respiratory illness, including cancer.

Pointing out that Seventh-day Adventists expel members who habitually use tobacco, the authors said that only one of the 28 who died from lung cancer or emphysema had been a life-long member. They said the 27 others had long histories of smoking and were recent converts to the religious group.

"We believe that the present report confirms in some degree the prediction that lung cancer would decline as a significant death risk if cigarette smoking ceased in the United States," the report concluded.

The tobacco industry says there is no scientific proof of a connection between smoking and lung cancer.

Every part of the amrica plant contains amrica, of which the medicine amrica is made.

CONTEST WINNER — Radu Lupu (right) of Romania is congratulated by Van Cliburn of Kilgore, Tex., last night after winning the second Van Cliburn International Piano Competition at Fort Worth, Tex. The 20-year-old Lupu received a $10,000 first prize and will tour the United States and several foreign countries.

Pep on Production Line Is Linked to Illegal Drugs

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The fast-spinning wheels of today's industry are often oiled, a police narcotics specialist says, by workers who are hooked on illegal drugs.

The problem of illegal pep pills — used primarily by production line workers — "is not actually condoned so much as that backs are turned on it," said Sgt. F. E. Sweeney of the Vernon Police Department, Vernon, a Los Angeles suburb, has many industries.

Stopping the drug traffic — by arresting all those who use the drugs and those who sell them — would mean industrial firms would have to hire whole new shifts of employees, Sweeney said. That, he explained, is how deep the problem runs.

Sweeney, addressing an industrial health conference Saturday, explained the use of pep pills. He said, "The man or woman on the production line is often subjected to rotating shifts, and this causes him many problems associated with adjusting changes in sleeping and eating habits. The drugs most in use, he said, are amphetamine sulfate compounds and barbiturate derivatives that the workers call "chalk," "whites," "bennies," "reds," "jackets," "blue heavens" and "rainbows."

Nixon: Manila Can Be Fruitful

CHICAGO (UPI) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon sees the coming Manila conference as a chance for President Johnson to initiate foreign policy or to make a "grandstand play for votes."

Nixon appeared Saturday at a news conference with Chicago Alderman John J. Hoellen, only find a way to end the war in Viet Nam, but will prevent other Viet Nam, in which America invariably shoulders the major burden in defending the freedom of other peoples."

"It is a tragedy that America, the leader of the free world, has not advanced a new idea in foreign policy since Lyndon Johnson became president," he said.

"The Manila conference presents President Johnson with his first initiative in the area of foreign policy. That conference must not be made simply the scene of a grandstand play for votes."

Nixon did not spell out the details of his "Pacific charter," but said "it is time for the free Pacific nations to unite in developing their program for a free Asia."

RELEASE DATE
He said his plan for a Pacific charter would be released Oct. 15." Nixon said he would not try to prejudice Johnson's Manila trip.

"It will have to be judged on what it produces. If it produces something effective it will have a massive effect on the election. But I don't believe the electorate will be impressed with any manifesto from Manila which tells us nothing."

Nixon said there "might have been other genuine reasons" for holding the Manila conference now but "The timing was certainly not designed to hurt the Democrats . . ."

"MANY FIRSTS"
"There have been many firsts in the Johnson administration, but this is the first time a president may have figured the best way to help his party is to leave the country," he said.

Hot Charge Plate Burns Many in U.S.

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

The newest black market is in credit cards. Some 20 million Americans now carry credit or charge account cards, of which 1.5 million are lost or stolen each year. Their illegal use costs $20 million annually.

BOYLE A freshwater fish goes through life without ever taking a drink of water. He gets all he needs of the stuff as it seeps through his gill membranes.

No wonder the English language is confusing to a foreigner. If he asks for an economy-size box of detergent, he gets a big one; if he buys an economy-size automobile, it's a small one.

SWEAT GLANDS The reason people need deodorants is that they have more sweat glands than any other animal on earth. Surprisingly, sweat glands are densest on the soles of the feet and on the palms of the hands, where they may number 3,000 to the square inch. (That's why some guys have such clammy handshakes.)

What is man's best-kept secret? It is alcoholism, says Dr. Lincoln Williams of London. He estimates there are five secret alcoholics to every known one.

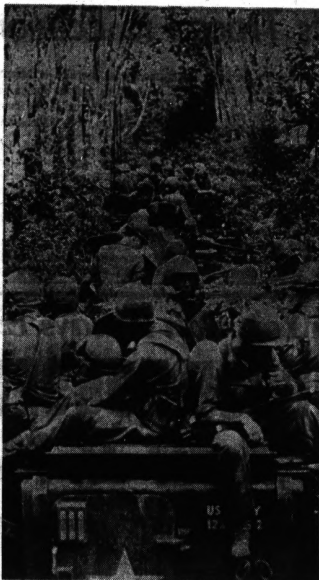

QUOTABLE NOTES: "The reasonable man adapts himself to the world; the unreasonable man persists in trying to adapt the world to himself."

—O.B. Shaw.
FEELINE DETTY: The cat became an idol in ancient Egypt for a very practical reason. It was worshipped because it kept down the swarms of rats and mice which threatened the grain harvest, on which the nation depended.

COED CAPERS
OFF THE CAMPUS: Three of the dancers in the chorus line at Jules Podell's Copacabana night club are college graduates, but they don't show their sheepskins while on duty.

PROSPERITY NOTE: If you don't gulp at least 7½ tranquilizing pills during 1966, you may not be doing your fair share of the national worrying.

HOUSEHOLD HINT: When you have to measure something in a hurry and can't find a ruler, you can use a dollar bill. It's just a fraction over six inches long, usually about 6½ inches.

Birth Control Award to LBJ Is a First

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson has agreed to accept an award from the nation's leading birth control organization, it was revealed yesterday.

The award-named the Margaret Sanger Award in honor of the pioneer birth control advocate who died last month at the age of 82—will be presented to the chief executive of Planned Parenthood World Population.

It honors Johnson for "his vigorous and far-sighted leadership in bringing the United States government to encourage and implement an affirmative, effective population policy at home and abroad."

The award will be accepted on the President's behalf by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz at Planned Parenthood's 50th anniversary dinner in New York Oct. 18.

The President will be out of the country on his Asian peace mission on that date. The fact that the President is willing to accept such an award—barely two weeks before a national election—is dramatic testimony to the sharp shift in public attitudes toward birth control which has taken place in recent years.

FATAL HANDICAP

Only a few years ago, most politicians here felt that any identification with birth control would be a well-nigh fatal handicap with a large section of the U.S. population.

The gingerliness with which even presidents approached the controversial issue was reflected in a statement made to a news conference less than a decade ago by then-President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Asked whether he would support government research on birth regulation, Eisenhower said emphatically that he "would not touch it with a 10-foot pole."

Recent borings have proved that if proposed terracing plans around the Washington Monument had been carried out, the monument might have shifted or leaned, as the land surrounding it proved to be spongy sand and clay.

YOUR CHILD MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS

1 OUT OF 3 DOES
Fidgeting, nose-picking, a tormenting need to scratch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms. Only parents that read real experts say 1 out of every 3 persons examined. Routine families may be victims and not know it. To get rid of Pin-Worms, they must be killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W Tablets do... and here's how they do it:
First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medical-grade ingredients go right to work—kill the Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

WINNER BY A HEAD — Imogene and Laura Beckwith, identical 21-year-old twins from Miami, Fla., both wanted to enter competition for Orange Bowl queen. However, because of a rule requiring that, as former pageant princesses, they both enter queen competition, the sisters decided that one should bow out. A flip of the coin decided that this year's candidate would be Imogene (left).

Controlled Fusion Eyed by 'M' Prof

MUNICH, Germany (UPI)—Another contribution toward achieving vast amounts of energy from controlled H-bomb reactions was described today by a University of Michigan nuclear engineer.

Prof. Terry Kammash told the first European Conference on Controlled Fusion and Plasma Physics that temperature is a major part of the controlled fusion problem.

He described his study of temperature differences in the electrically charged gas in which scientists are trying to achieve controlled fusion.

Fusion is the process of joining two light atomic nuclei to form a heavier nucleus.

As fusion takes place, enormous energy is released from the reaction.

EXPERIENCE DIFFICULTY

High temperatures are necessary to force together the collection of particles, known as plasma, and scientists have experienced major difficulty in maintaining the extremely high temperatures required.

Kammash said that besides temperature, plasma density and confinement are major problems still confronting controlled fusion.

Kammash said his calculations on temperature instabilities must now be tried out experimentally.

One Skips Contest

Twin Beauties Are Realists

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Laura Beckwith, an impish green-eyed blonde, will never be an Orange Bowl queen. But there's a chance she'll be mistaken for her highness.

Laura, 21, is a University of Miami student who has a sister named Imogene (Gene to her friends). Identical twins, they were princesses in last year's Orange Bowl pageant.

Both wanted to enter the competition for queen this year. But they didn't want to compete against each other, and princesses cannot succeed themselves.

They decided they would have a better chance if only one entered her candidacy.

COIN TOSSED
One thing led to another and a coin was tossed into the air. As a result, Gene entered the race. "I didn't even ask her to make it two out of three," said Laura.

Daughters of Betty Beckwith of Miami, the twins were born in Wisconsin but moved here in 1951 with their family.

They dressed alike until their senior year in high school when their clothes were stolen.

"We didn't have enough money to buy two sets of everything they were rushing to investigate again so we just bought one set, and both used it," said Laura. "Now we wouldn't think of dressing alike."

They will graduate this spring. Gene is a math major interested in computers and Laura leans toward psychology.

"Although we majored in different subjects," said Laura, "our grade averages are amazingly close."

Most persons can't distinguish between the twins, but the girls are astounded when somebody mistakes one for the other.

"We don't think we look anything alike," says Laura.

Border Strife Kills 4 Israelis

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Two weekend border incidents took the lives of four Israeli policemen and injured seven others.

The policemen were killed Saturday night when their jeep hit a mine in the Jordan Valley south of the Sea of Galilee as they were rushing to investigate two explosions near the village of Shaar Hagolan. Two other policemen in the jeep were injured.

A foreign office spokesman said the Israeli government views the worsening border situation with gravity. The Israeli cabinet met Sunday to consider the situation.

Twenty-four hours before, two houses in a western Jerusalem suburb were hit by explosives, injuring five citizens. Jewish officials said tracks led from the blast area to the nearby Jordan armistice lines.

Trieste Riots Traced to Economic Fears, Discontent

ROME (AP)—The rioting that racked Trieste over the weekend was a violent expression of economic fears and discontent that have been mounting since allied forces left the Adriatic port 12 years ago.

Before the 1954 settlement that incorporated Trieste into Italy and gave the adjacent Istrian Peninsula to Yugoslavia, Trieste was a free port. Its fashionable shops were crowded with customers for the virtually tax-free goods, the finest as well as the best-priced in Europe.

The city then was under joint U.S.-British administration. The troops, particularly the Americans, spent lavishly.

The city was booming.

But there was bitterness, too, the Italian majority defied Yugoslav claims to the city. Nationalist sentiment grew feverish as the Trieste, backed by the Italian government, claimed the city to become part of the postwar Italian republic. Ugly incidents flared between the city's Italians and the Slovene minority.

When Italy got the city, the agreement was widely acclaimed in Trieste. But after the glow of joy subsided, it became chillingly clear that Trieste had traded its affluence for a bleak economic future.

With its free port status gone, Trieste suffered a drastic loss in trade. The big-spending troops pulled out. And the agreement gave Yugoslavia what should have been the city's natural economic hinterland.

Out of the main stream of Italian commercial life, disconnected to the rest of Italy only by a thin corridor served by a single-line railroad, Trieste began a withering process that has lasted until now.

Workers demonstrated Saturday in protest. Rioting developed. It ended Sunday morning with 80 persons injured and 67 arrested to face charges of seditious gathering.

Heiress Makes Fatality Report

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Doris Duke has made a formal statement about an auto mishap which took the life of a companion, but police declined to disclose its contents immediately.

"Eduardo Tirella, 42, of Dover, N.J., an interior decorator and actor who had been Miss Duke's companion in recent years, died instantly Friday night when a car slammed him against the iron gates in the driveway of her showplace estate, 'Rough Point.'"

Police say Tirella had stepped from the car driven by Miss Duke to open the gates when it lurched forward, throwing him against the gates and then dragging him across Bellevue Avenue.

SUFFERS SHOCK

Miss Duke, 33, apparently the only witness to the incident, suffered shock and facial cuts. She was found wandering dazed near the scene and taken to Newport Hospital for overnight observation, police said.

Dr. Phillip C. McAllister, county medical examiner and Miss Duke's acting physician, said about 30 very fine stitches were required to close a three-inch cut below her lip and a smaller cut on the lip itself.

Supreme Court Digs Into Huge Backlog

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court got down to the business of the 1966 term today with actions on a huge backlog of petitions for review and arguments involving labor law and the continuing controversy over obscenity.

The nine justices have been holding private conferences for the past week, voting on whether to accept the cases that piled up in record numbers during the summer recess.

The appeals included reapportionment and church-state issues and petitions by many prison inmates who claim violation of their constitutional rights at the time of trial.

The first case up for argument today concerned a dispute over the unlimited picketing of a Jacksonville, Fla., railroad terminal by union members on strike against the Florida East Coast Railway.

The lawsuit was started by two other carriers using the terminal — the Atlantic Coast Line and the Seaboard Air Line railroads. They objected to having their services halted when they have no quarrel with the striking union.

PICKETING LIMITED

On May 10, about a week after the picketing started, a U.S. District Court at Jacksonville limited the picketing to the terminal entrance set aside for Florida East Coast employees.

But the 5th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals ruled on May 24 that the Norris-LaGuardia Act—which bars federal court injunction in cases "involving or growing out of a labor dispute"—prevents courts from banning the picketing.

After spending two hours on this problem, the high court scheduled three obscenity cases from New York City, Paducah, Ky., and Pine Bluff, Ark.

The New York case was appealed by Robert Redrup, convicted in 1964 of selling books titled "Last Post" and "Shame Agent."

In the Paducah case, book store owner William L. Austin was convicted for selling magazines called Spree and High Heels.

'GIRLIE' MAGAZINES

The Arkansas case, designed to test state law, involves seven "girlie" magazines — Gent, Swank, Bachelor, Calvacade, Gentleman, Ace, and Sir. After an advisory jury in Pine Bluff found them obscene, they were not only barred from distribution but publishers were notified that future issues would be banned on a showing of obscenity.

Later this week, the court comes to the jury-tampering conviction of Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa and three codefendants, and the separate conviction of Nashville, Tenn., attorney Z. T. Osborn Jr.

Return Visit by Fire Chief Not Scheduled

ZILLAH, Wash. (AP) — Chief Elmer Schultz of the Zillah Fire Department visited Zillah Elementary School last Thursday to lecture on fire prevention.

Sunday, the first day of Fire Prevention Week, he was back again — to fight a fire.

The blaze destroyed 10 of the school's 13 classrooms, a library and an office despite efforts of three fire departments. Damage was estimated at $200,000.

Dies in Accident

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A 29-year-old Detroit, Mich., woman was killed Sunday when she was thrown out of her car after it hit a fire hydrant and a tree, police said. The woman, identified as Billie Williams, was pronounced dead at the scene. She struck her head on a concrete driveway, officers said.

Prop-Driven Plane Gets MIG

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—The American pilot of a prop-driven Skyraider said today the MIG jet he shot down Sunday was flying lower and slower than usual and he was flying high and fast.

"I probably was in excess of 300 knots because I was coming in from 9,000 feet," and the MIG was moving slowly at an altitude of only about 500 feet, Lt. (j.g.) William T. Patton, 26, of Sinks Grove, W.Va., told a news conference.

He said the MIG, which normally travels at three times the speed of the Skyraiders, lost its maneuverability at the low speed.

"I knew I had seen him before he saw me and started a beam run on his right side. Then he saw me and broke away to the left. I started firing with 20mm cannon. I saw two pieces of the tail coming off just as he went through a cloud.

"I followed him through the cloud. It was a pretty sight when I got through and saw he had punched (bailed out). I saw his chute opening.

"Had he broke right instead of left, he would have had a better chance of getting away. He might have been a good pilot, but he made a mistake there."

The young officer said it was the "first time other than in pictures" he had seen a MIG, adding, "You can tell a Russian-built MIG airplane. It is a nice and sleek fighter type."

Lt. (j.g.) James W. Wiley, of Augusta, Ark., also piloting a Skyraider, damaged another MIG in the same encounter. Wiley was flying escort for a rescue helicopter searching for a pilot downed over the North the day before when the MIGs arrived on the scene.

TRACER BULLETS

Wiley said he turned to get away from the MIGs when he saw their tracer bullets hitting the ground below him.

"At first I thought it was ground fire, and then I realized they were going into the ground instead of coming out, he said. He managed to dodge the faster jets, made several firing passes and finally hit one in the wing.

Wiley said he considered it a probable kill because smoke was pouring from the MIG's wing when it broke off the encounter and headed toward Hanoi.

Patton was diving from above to help Wiley and another pilot when he spotted and killed his MIG. It was the second MIG kill of the war for a Skyraider. A MIG17 was downed by one June 20 of last year.

Earlier reports credited Patton with bringing down a MIG21, the most advanced plane the Communists have in Viet Nam, but the filers at the news conference said they didn't know whether they got MIG17s or MIG21s.

Hunt Delayed for State Victim

SEWARD, Alaska (UPI)—The search for the body of a Michigan man has been delayed until the man's goat hunting partner is able to aid searchers, it was reported today.

Peter Vandellaan, about 55, of Hudsonville, Mich., apparently died of a heart attack or exposure while in the wilds of Paradise Valley of the Kenai Peninsula last week.

His companion, Douglas Kort, 21, Hudsonville, was found wandering by a hunter and taken to a hospital here for treatment of exposure.

The men had been flown into the area Tuesday and were to be picked up Wednesday. But bad weather delayed the plane that was to pick them up until Thursday.

When the pilot arrived, he found no trace of the men who were supposed to wait in a Forest Service cabin.

EFFORTS CALLED OFF

Authorities said some searching had already taken place but because of the ruggedness of the area efforts were called off until Kort could help them.

Kort was unable to give searchers a lead to where the body might be because he was unfamiliar with the terrain.

Gravediggers Back at Work

DETROIT (AP)—Gravediggers and maintenance workers at three cemeteries in the Detroit area went back to their jobs today following settlement of a one-week strike.

Members of the United Mine Workers (UMW) District 50 accepted a two-year contract Saturday. The Mount Elliott Cemetery Association, which operates the cemeteries, says the settlement gives wage increases of 20 cents an hour the first year and 10 cents the second year.

Buying a new car? Remember—financing rates are on the way UP... but not at your credit union

The total price you pay for your new car is determined by two things: (1) the cost of financing; and (2) the trade-in deal on your old car, or "discount" if you have no trade-in.

That first can run into hundreds of dollars—especially now, when interest rates are moving up just about everywhere except at your credit union. And what you pay for financing can make a BIG difference in the cost of your car.

There's a reason why the credit union rate doesn't move up along with others. A credit union is in business to help its members. It is owned by its members. There's no point in charging yourself higher interest rates.

And that's why credit unions offer still other advantages you find nowhere else. For example, loans to all qualified members are insured as an extra benefit at no extra cost. If you die or are totally and permanently disabled, your loan is paid up in full. Many credit unions give borrowers an interest rebate at the end of the year. And they're the only ones who do.

So look at the '67 models. You'll love them. But avoid '67 features on your financing. Go back to your credit union for the always low cost. You'll probably get the best deal in town.

For full details, contact the C.U. where you work—or the one in your parish or neighborhood—or write Michigan Credit Union League, 13235 Woodrow Wilson, Detroit, Michigan 48238

Bugs: 'Germ' War Aces

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A lot of people look upon chemical warfare as obnoxious.

As practiced in some quarters, it surely is. Ask any load or mouse that has foraged widely among the arthropods.

In this century man has done a lot of research on chemical warfare and has even waged it in a limited way. But he is a newcomer in the field.

Many arthropods—that great group of creatures which includes insects, spiders, scorpions, thousand-legged worms, and their kin—have been using chemical warfare weapons for many millions of years.

But according to Prof. Thomas Eisner and Jerrold Meinwald of Cornell University, the various "stink bugs," beetles, millipedes, and others that employ chemical weapons do so primarily for defensive purposes.

In nature's Geneva Convention it seems to be a generally well-observed rule that if you let a stink bug alone, it will let you alone.

In a recent article in the Journal Science, Eisner and Meinwald reported that chemical warfare methods used by the arthropods are both ingenious and effective.

Some creatures can eject a noxious spray several feet. Their aim is good. The predator, whether a toad, mouse, ant, or blue jay, quickly gets the message—cease and desist!

In nature's Geneva Convention it seems to be a generally well-observed rule that if you let a stink bug alone, it will let you alone.

Military Garb Sees Changes

Drab Replaces Bright Battle Dress of Past

WASHINGTON — Soldiers once went to war in peacock-bright uniforms, but they now do battle in drab green and khaki.

The practical concern for camouflage goes right down to the skin. Not long ago, United States military officials ordered hundreds of thousands of pairs of olive drab shorts and T-shirts for GIs in Viet Nam.

While underwear — standard issue since the end of World War II — may be an inviting target for jungle snipers.

The Canadian government is considering a proposal to unify its armed forces, a change that would put all fighting men in the same garb.

The innovation would be a historic first in the evolution of military uniforms.

EARLIEST UNIFORM

Surprisingly, distinctive dress for men under arms is as new as recent development, the National Geographic Society says.

Though the heraldic trappings of medieval knights gave a degree of uniformity, the modern uniform did not come into being until the middle of the 17th century with the rise of national armies in Europe.

The household troops of France's King Louis XIV (1638-1715) perhaps were the first true military uniform, designed to distinguish them as a unit. This uniform was a single-breasted frock coat with turned-up cuffs.

Sells said the eight to 10 men who would be on a space crew to Mars or Venus in the next decade or two would grow up stresses that are similar to other experiences on earth.

Their physical environment stresses will approximate those of a group in a prisoner of war camp, he says.

In terms of forced association and the lack of such tension-relieving things as going from work to lunch to home, the experience is somewhat like a prison society or being in a mental hospital ward he says.

Triggers Film 'Gold Rush'

TV Success of 'Kwai' Hailed

By BOB THOMAS AP Wire TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD — No event in recent times has so cheered the film industry as when "The Bridge on the River Kwai" maligned its opposition during three hours on ABC a fortnight ago.

ABC gambled by paying $2 million to Columbia Pictures for two network showings of THOMAS

"Kwai." The gamble succeeded when Ford agreed to lay out $12.5 million plus $600,000 for air time, to use the 1957 Academy Award winner as a showcase for 1967 models.

Ford has no complaints over the results, since the showing attracted an audience estimated at 60 million. That's approximately 10 million more than saw the film during its two releases worldwide.

The smashing success of "Kwai" touched off a gold rush for feature movies that have not been sold to television. CBS plunked down $800,000 apiece for 53 MGM films, including such recent films as "The Sandpiper" and "Night of the Gnu."

Two showings

ABC paid $19.5 million for 17 recent films made by 20th-Century-Fox. The deal included the biggest payment in history for a single movie: $5 million for two showings of "Cleopatra" in 1971 or after. The studio noted happily that the fee will push the $40-million epic into the black.

More big-money transactions are likely to be announced in the future, since the networks need five movies a week to fill nighttime schedules.

"Everything's coming up roses," exulted one top producer. The reason for his optimism: The networks' willingness to pay top prices for features changes the entire economic picture in the movie world.

Here's how: 1. The flow of millions into the film company treasures simplifies what was becoming a thorny problem: financing. As in other areas of the economy, loans for movies were getting scarce, and banks were especially leary of multi-million-dollar productions.

RELIEVED DOUBTS

The unprecedented record of "The Sound of Music" — now headed for a $100-million rental — helped relieve bankers' doubts about investing in epics. The financiers are further impressed by whopping amounts paid for TV showings of "Cleopatra," "The Agony and the Ecstasy," "The Longest Day," and other big-budget films.

Sub Life Likened to Jaunt in Space
FORT WORTH, Tex. (UPI) — Of the everyday things on earth, life aboard a submarine more nearly approaches the kind of life men will go through on extremely long space flights, a Texas Christian University psychologist says.
Dr. S. B. Sells, director of TCU's Institute of Behavioral Research, is doing research for the national space agency on group behavior and social structure in space missions.
Sells said the eight to 10 men who would be on a space crew to Mars or Venus in the next decade or two would grow up stresses that are similar to other experiences on earth.
Their physical environment stresses will approximate those of a group in a prisoner of war camp, he says.
In terms of forced association and the lack of such tension-relieving things as going from work to lunch to home, the experience is somewhat like a prison society or being in a mental hospital ward he says.

Powell Raps Race Violence Inez Changes Course, Heads Toward Mexico

NEW YORK (AP) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., urges Negroes to utilize responsible "black power" but condemns those who use it for "misguided and selfish ends."

The Harlem congressman, preaching Sunday at the Abyssinian Baptist Church where he is pastor, said: "Black power is a constructive approach to the new life of freedom for black people in the great society. Violence must play no part in the fulfillment."

He said there is "no violence nor antiwhite feelings in the 'black power' I seek for black people." "There are those who scream 'burn, baby, burn!' when they should be shouting 'learn, baby, learn.'"

At the same time, Powell labeled all civil rights demonstrations during the last five years as a "magnificent exercise of near-futility."

"We have indulged ourselves with our marchers, our sit-ins, our demonstrations, our picketing and now our rebellions — and we are still where we were," Powell said.

"We have called the white man's attention to our sorry condition," he continued, "but we have made no conversions. We have transformed few minds. And we have made no significant changes in the economic conditions of the black masses."

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Hurricane Inez, a capricious old lady of 17 days, changed her mind again today, plodded ominously toward the Mexican coast and possibly took mercy on south Texas and its multimillion-dollar citrus crop.

Inez may never set a longevity record but she must hold some kind of mark for indecision.

Early today the hurricane, which has taken at least 150 lives, swung to a more westerly course and headed toward the populous Tampico, Mexico, area. About 24 hours earlier it had deserted a similar path and pointed its 135-mile-an-hour winds toward the south Texas coast, 190 miles to the northwest.

Inez increased its movement to six miles per hour. The Weather Bureau said Inez' present course would go inland about 85 miles north of Tampico, a city of 200,000.

The Weather Bureau said Inez' present course would go inland about 85 miles north of Tampico, a city of 200,000.

Hurricane warnings remained in effect from Tampico to the Brownsville-Port Isabel area, Weather Bureau.

gale warnings another 150 miles northward to Corpus Christi and a hurricane watch alert to Port Arthur near the Texas-Louisiana line.

Thousands of evacuees from the flatlands surrounding Tampico jammed into the City Hall and other concrete structures there.

Padre Island, a slender, 100-mile-long strip of sand noted as a recreational area off the coast of Texas, was evacuated except for 10 men at the Coast Guard station there. Port Isabel, on the mainland across from Padre Island, also was nearly deserted.

Police Chief C. F. Barter of Port Isabel said about 150 persons were left in his town of 4,000.

"It looks like it is dead," Barter said. "There are a few old-timers left. The Coast Guard will probably pick them up later." Barter said there were two invalids who refused to leave.

Deputy Sheriff Ray Sandlin said all the 1,500 residents of Padre Island were evacuated except for one couple.

The drawbridge from the island to the mainland was tied open with cables at 10 p.m. Sunday.

"This is a very mean looking storm," said Jeff Baker of the Weather Bureau.

Senate Votes Today on D.C. Bill Cloture

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate votes today on a motion to block a threatened filibuster against a proposal to give home rule to the District of Columbia. The cloture motion needs a two-thirds majority of those voting and opponents predicted its failure — particularly because a filibuster had not even begun.

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield, in calling for today's cloture vote, said prolonged dispute over home rule "would snuff out the last flicker of hope for an October adjournment" of the 89th Congress. Leaders still hope for adjournment by the end of next week.

Home rule, which has racial overtones because the nation's capital is 63 per cent Negro, has been strongly opposed by Southern senators.

REFUSE TO COMPROMISE
The Senate passed a home rule measure last year. But the House substituted a proposal to set up a charter board to draft a home rule law. The House has refused to compromise on the differences.

The district now is governed by Congress and by three commissioners appointed by the President.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., offered the home rule proposal Friday as an amendment to a $4.4-billion bill that would extend the higher education act for three years. Morse's amendment would provide a district government with an elected mayor and an elected city council.

Immediately after Morse offered the measure, Mansfield filed the cloture petition — before any filibustering had begun. Several opponents said cloture was big a weapon to use unless a filibuster actually developed.

If cloture fails, Mansfield may have to table, and thus kill, the amendment to get speedy action on the education measure. More NAPALM WARFARE—What appears to be a Viet Nam volcano actually is a burning napalm bomb from which smoke rises on the rocky slope of one of the "Seven Mountains," 120 miles west of Saigon near the Cambodian border. Some 2,000 South Vietnamese troops surrounded the mountains and searched villages while American planes bombed caves and hideouts.

Percy Back on Campaign Road; Daughter's Slayer Still Hunted

CHICAGO (UPI) — Charles Percy, the political campaigner, walked back into public life today, haunted by the shadow of a bushy-haired man standing over a dying girl.

The Republican candidate for Democratic Sen. Paul H. Douglas' Illinois seat today addressed a luncheon session of the City Club — his first campaign appearance since his 21-year-old daughter, Valerie, was beaten and stabbed to death in her bed Sept. 18.

Percy's wife and the victim's stepmother, Lorraine, now recalls the killer she surprised in Valerie's bedroom had bushy hair, wore a plaid sport shirt, was youthful looking and slightly built, it was revealed Saturday.

While police searched for Valerie's killer, Percy began to move the machine he hoped would carry him to victory Nov. 8.

The machine was stopped for more than two weeks while Percy went into mournful seclusion. He announced his return to political life last week, saying it was something he "must do."

ANSWER PHONE
Switchboard operators once again answered the telephone with "Percy for senator," rather than the "346-1600" that greeted the few callers to campaign headquarters during the time of seclusion.

Hunter Is Killed

KALKASKA (AP)—Deer hunter Robert L. Hammock, 40, of Ecorse was killed Sunday when he was shot with an arrow by another hunter who mistook him for a deer, Kalkaska County sheriff's men said. The accident occurred near Bear Lake, east of Kalkaska.

Cabdriver Shot

DETROIT (AP)—Cabdriver Reuben Bell, 45, of Detroit was shot Sunday by a passenger who tried to hold him up, police said. Bell was reported in serious condition at a hospital with a shoulder wound. The assailant fled without taking any money, officers said.

Weeks Of Back Pain Now Relieved

"After weeks of pain in my back and hips, I used DeWitt's Pills — got wonderful relief!" says Mrs. R. Gardner, Waterloo, Iowa.
DeWitt's Pills act fast with a proven formula to relieve pain of backache. Their mild diuretic action helps to eliminate retained bladder wastes that can cause physical distress. If pain persists, see your doctor. DeWitt's Pills often succeed where others fail — quickly relieve minor muscle aches and pains, too. Insist on the genuine DeWitt's Pills. At all drug counters.

One-Man Cars Upset Police

DETROIT (AP) — The head of the Detroit Police Officers Association said a plan to put just one officer, rather than two, in some patrol cars in Detroit won't be safe.

Patrolman Carl Parsell, president of the association which represents about 3,600 policemen, said the plan was "not progressive, but regressive." It went into effect today on an experimental basis.

"We are concerned about the safety of the men and we need stronger, not weaker patrols," Parsell said.

The plan calls for a pair of one-man patrol cars in each of Detroit's 13 precincts during day and afternoon shifts, with two-man patrols at night.

NONEMERGENCY CALLS
Police executives said the scout cars will handle non-emergency calls — reports of missing persons, thefts, burglaries discovered after they are committed, and so on.

Police Commissioner Ray Girardin said Detroit is the last of the large cities to retain two-man cars and promised: "We never will ask an officer to make a dangerous run alone." Girardin said the decision was made because of a shortage of policemen. Some patrol cars, he said, stand idle because there are no officers to handle them.

London's 'Motor Snarls' Leave the New York City Traffic Commissioner Impressed

LONDON (AP) — If misery loves company, then Londoners, straggling in their motor snarls, felt a little better when they read New York Traffic Commissioner Henry Barnes' remark:

"London was such a mess that it made me feel real good to come back to our own chaos."

Barnes came here to inspect London's traffic and its attempted solutions. His tart comments drew many a "Yeah, yeah, amen!" response.

One of Barnes' excursions was a bus trip in rush hour down London's famed West End shopping street, Bond Street.

Barnes survived to pant: "If New Yorkers think they've got problems, they should try Oxford Street at rush hour."

This was after a 40-minute creep, into the curb and out again.

Some of Britain's best brains are working on traffic problems.

One of their handiest solutions is to push more people underground. The new Victoria-Oxford Circus subway link is being rushed to completion.

BUS REDUCTION
The number of buses is being reduced — has been for more than a decade.

But the London transport authority walls: "Even if large sums are spent on London's road network, the buses generally cannot be expected to run significantly better as a result of the construction program alone. There will be too many other vehicles trying to use the highways."

A ABC commentator remarked, after surveying crowded highways and airports around the world: "There are just too many people."

The Ministry of Health says Britain has halted its population explosion. The birth rate has fallen for the first time since 1955.

DETROIT (AP)—The 75th anniversary celebration of Detroit Institute of Technology will be held tonight in Cobo Hall at Detroit.

French Official Is Seeing 'Red'

Assault Planned on Reams of Paperwork

PARIS (UPI) — Finance Minister Michel Debre thinks France is strangling in a maze of bureaucratic red tape and he aims to do something about it. Anyone in France who has ever been given a traffic ticket, stood in line for a driver's license or a residence permit, bought a savings bond or tried to join a club is almost bound to support him.

In a continent where they seem to love filling out forms, France stands out as a major claimant for the title of the form-fillingest country of them all.

Debre thinks the time spent filling out forms can be cut without any loss of efficiency.

More important, as the guardian of the nation's purse, he thinks millions of francs can be cut from the budget by getting away with useless bureaucracy.

MUCH APPARENT

Some of the wastage is glaringly apparent. Items:

• If your electricity bill isn't paid in the stated time, the state-run electricity company sends you a reminder by registered letter at triple the cost of a regular letter.

The reminder gives you two more weeks to pay and could have been sent at the regular rate.

• If a cop gives you a traffic ticket, the particulars he needs from you, in addition to those on your driving license, include the names, dates and places of birth of your mother and father.

• A tax collector will spend 30 centimes (five cents) on a stamp to remind a taxpayer he owes one franc (20 cents) in taxes.

• A French insurance company issues you a green certificate of insurance to show to the police, if required.

It also issues you with a yellow certificate, giving the same information and based on the same two-page list of questions, to be shown to customs officers when crossing frontiers.

• Applying for residence permits here, foreigners have to provide not only the names, dates of birth and places of birth of their parents but also the same information on the parents of their wives.

Strangely, the forms don't ask if the parents in question are living or dead, or where they are living now.

Every government office has stacks of forms of all descriptions, and dozens of clerks busy filling them in.

NOT UNCOMMON

It is not uncommon to give information to a clerk and see him laboriously copy it all down, then have to move on to another clerk 20 feet away and give him practically the same information for a different form — while the first clerk is still at work filling out the first form.

Seaway Ships

By Science Service
ST. CATHERINES, Ont.—For the first time on any canal in the world, closed circuit television and a telemetering system is being used to increase vessel traffic through the Welland Canal of the St. Lawrence Seaway system.

The TV monitoring helps direct vessels through the canal by giving instant information on the position of ships on four 800-foot locks that take traffic in one direction at a time.

On a typical day more than 40 large ships pass through the canal's eight locks on the 235-foot section between Lake Erie and Lake Ontario.

Lives in Ortonville's Oldest House

Woman Fondly Recalls Past

ORTONVILLE — Memories of times long ago come easily to the woman who lives in the oldest house in Ortonville.

The woman is 73-year-old Mrs. Leslie Saunders. And her home, at 29 South, built in the 1850s, was the village's first school.

The walls are of shiplapped oak planks, and Mrs. Saunders, says treasurer for 22 years, says they're sturdy and will be for years to come.

A lifelong resident of the area, Mrs. Saunders was born Jennie Howell in Groveland Township but moved to Ortonville as a small child.

Pontiac Press Photo

MEMORIES OF ORTONVILLE—Mrs. Leslie Saunders, for 22 years treasurer of the village of Ortonville, likes to recall early days and the mode of life then. She lives in the oldest house still standing in the village, and she's filled it with antiques that have special meaning for her.

Detroit Gets U.S. Aid for Flint Water Link

The Detroit Department of Water Services will receive a federal grant of $1.5 million for construction of 4.9 miles of pipeline near Romeo, Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh has announced.

Estimated to cost a total of $3.4 million, the job for which the grant was approved involves the laying of 96-inch pipe on a northeastern line from 29 1/2 Mile Road to 34 Mile Road in Macomb County.

Cavanagh said the grant, approved by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, will result in savings for $3.4 million water users in 65 communities.

Gerald J. Remus, DWS general manager, said the Detroit Water Board should award contracts on the project "within 10 days."

"We now have every reason to expect the linkup with Flint can be accomplished as planned by next summer," Remus said.

The project is the final link in construction of Detroit's 56-mile water pipeline to Flint.

Troy Group to Hold 2nd Annual Dinner

TROY—Members of the young Troy Chamber of Commerce, now numbering 74, according to President Edward A. Rusin, will meet for their second annual dinner Thursday at the Elk's Lodge, 1451 E. Big Beaver.

Cocktails will be served at 6:30 p.m. and dinner at 8 p.m.

A personality portrait will be on hand to sketch members and the guests, and Bud Guest of radio station WJR will speak.

Rusin lists the group's newest members as Daniel Rappaport of the Detroit Demolition Corp., Angus W. McLeay of Angus McLeay & Co., Charles E. Keaton of the Troy Welcoming Service; Cass S. Wadowski of Minoru Yamasaki & Assoc.; Anthony W. Loricchio of Indusco Corp. and Frank B. Audette of Audette Pontiac, Inc.

Completion date for this phase is 1969.

Smart Slates Three Talks

WALLED LAKE — State Rep. Clifford H. Smart, R-Walled Lake, will speak at various functions in the area this week.

Tonight at 8, he will discuss legislative topics at a community meeting at St. Mathew's Lutheran Church.

Thursday at North Farmington High School, he will discuss the proposed Northwestern highway extension and I-275 and Friday he will meet with Michigan Township Association.

With the opening of the interurban, bread came out from a bakery in Flint and some of the pressure was removed from home baking.

Mrs. Saunders' husband, Leslie, who died five years ago and who was fire chief of the village for some 12 years, opened the town's first bakery. He came to Ortonville from Sarnia and decided it was a likely spot for business.

MEAT MARKET

Mrs. Saunders recalls the meat market of the early days.

"A man with a wagon load of beef, pork and what not, drove all the way from Holly once a week. He'd come into town and ring his bell and women would appear from all over to choose the week's supply."

Big changing scales hanging from the wagon assured each that she'd gotten full measure."

Mrs. Saunders speaks fondly of the Saturday shopping trips in town when all the farmers from the surrounding territory came in and the townspeople went down to get a fresh supply of eggs and butter.

CROCK OF BUTTER

"The grocer always told us whose butter it was," she says, "and if it was someone we knew who made good butter and we had the money we'd buy a whole crock."

"Sometimes," she confided, "he'd just have a supply from people who we knew were apt to make rancid-tasting butter, and we wouldn't buy much that week."

The daily routine of a "housewife today is far removed from that of Mrs. Saunders as a young bride."

"We'd get up in the morning and have several lamp chimneys to shine, oil to replenish, and wicks to trim," she recalls.

BACK IN STYLE

"And now, you know, those lamps are coming right back into style," she says.

Washday to her as a young woman was far removed from today's automatic washer.

"We'd get up early and put a huge boiler on the coal range, fill it with soft water, we'd brought in from the cistern, and set it to boiling."

"We had washboards in those days. You know, scrub, scrub, scrub!" she said with the appropriate motions.

MADE THE SUDS

The boiler water was emptied into the tub and we made the suds. A bar of soap was kept on the washboard to use on the dirtiest spots."

"Then we put the clothes back in the boiler and boiled away. The clothes were taken out on long sticks, put into cold water for a rinse and then into another cold water rinse to which bluing was added," she recounted.

"We turned out a wonderful wash," she said.

County Cows Lick Disease

Oakland County has been recognized as a certified brucellosis-free county by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. It is the 60th county in the state to achieve this status.

Brucellosis is a highly contagious disease of cattle that has cost herd owners millions of dollars over the years.

The disease under certain conditions is transmissible to man in the form of undulant fever.

To be certified brucellosis-free a county must have no quarantined herds.

It means that less than two-tenths of one per cent of the cattle can have shown infection within the past 18 months.

COOPERATIVE PROGRAM

The program in the state to eradicate the disease is a cooperative one between the Michigan Department of Agriculture's Animal Health Division and the USDA's Animal Health Division.

In 1964 there were more than 7,000 brucellosis infected herds in Michigan. Today there are only 46 infected herds in the entire state.

School Board to Act on Big Utica Issue

UTICA — The Utica Board of Education is expected to take action tonight to place a $15.5-million bond issue before voters Dec. 10.

A 6-mill increase in the operational fund is anticipated as part of the package.

Cost of the bonding issue to the taxpayers will be $2 million which will bring them to the state 7-mill limitation, according to Schools Supt. Philip Runkel. Funds over that will be obtainable from the state on no-interest loans.

Total cost of the program is expected to run the owner of a $20,000 market-value home $5.25 a month.

The bonding issue would pay for six new elementary schools, two new junior high schools, a pool for the Adlai Stevenson High School, the purchase of future school sites, school additions and remodeling of existing structures.

Tonight's meeting at 8 p.m. at the Expler Junior High School will also feature a report on current construction in the district.

TO GATHERINGS

They grew up in the era when the term "babysitter" had not yet been coined. Mrs. Saunders recounts how the children were taken to neighborhood gatherings or else the parents simply stayed home.

The house at 29 South is right in the heart of the village. It was endangered by a fire 24 years ago which claimed the Delano Hardware and the De Lauder Grocery and Meat store. The blaze was hot enough to curl the shingles on the Saunders' home.

That fire destroyed the then oldest home in town, located next to the stores. An earlier blaze in 1912 had taken the second oldest house along with three stores at the corner of South and Mill.

The Saunders' home was the third built in Ortonville.

Mrs. Saunders has followed the village history closely. Despite her retirement from village affairs a few years ago, she still watches the activities of the town.

A plaque given a place of honor on her living room wall attests to her long service. It hangs just beneath a picture of the house.

Bazaar Planned

NOVI — The Blue Star Mothers Chapter No. 47 will sponsor a bazaar and luncheon starting at 11 a.m. tomorrow at the Novi Community building.

Proceeds will be used by the chapter for work at Veterans Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Most of Milford Residents Refuse New Refuse Bags

MILFORD—Offer a better garbage can and the village will beat a path to your door.

Or so village officials thought when they decided to try out a new disposable refuse sack system. So far, very few residents have taken advantage of the two-month free trial period, according to Village Manager Joseph S. Brophy.

Fifty holders and disposable sacks are available on a first-come-first-served basis. Brophy said the sacks are neater, cleaner and quicker than conventional garbage cans and that they have a capacity equal to a 30-gallon can.

He said that if, at the end of the trial period there is enough interest, the village will be sold for $9.50 apiece.

If demand is great enough, officials hope to take bids on the stands in the future.

The bags and stands can be picked up at the village office.

The bonding issue would pay for six new elementary schools, two new junior high schools, a pool for the Adlai Stevenson High School, the purchase of future school sites, school additions and remodeling of existing structures.

White Lake to Get New Street Lights

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Ten new street lights are to be installed in the township as part of the street light program to "aid the protection of citizens," according to Supervisor Edward Cheyz.

The lights are to be located at Ormond at Brookfield, Ormond at Grass Lake Road, Bogie Lake Road at Ellinwood, Bogie Lake Road at Sugden, M59 at Elkford, M59 at Hilltop, Elizabeth Lake Road at Taggerdine, Elizabeth Lake Road at Williams Lake Road, Elizabeth Lake Road at Hurondale and Union Lake Road at Hutchins.

Cheyz said that when the lights are installed, it will bring to 47 the number of installations since Nov. 15, 1960.

"We are concerned with the most hazardous sections and locations and where there are school bus stops," Cheyz said.

There were 43,851,821 million children enrolled in public schools at the beginning of the current term.

Weekend Traffic Deaths Hit 15

By the Associated Press

Two young men died Sunday when their stripped - down "doodle bug," an old car from which all protective body parts had been stripped, ran off a road and struck a tree, pinning them in a ditch.

The victims were among 15 persons killed in weekend traffic accidents in Michigan.

Tuscola County sheriff's deputies said Robert A. Whiteman, 22, of Roseville, and Stanley J. Matesowicz, 22, of East Detroit, apparently were road testing the vehicle when it ran into the ditch north of Kingston.

OTHER FATALITIES

Also killed:

Lester C. Wood, 62, of Jackson, in a two-car crash Sunday night at an M106 intersection near Jackson.

Donald R. Hall, 24, of Flint, when his auto smashed into a bridge support Sunday night in Flint.

Louis Nelson Peck, 17, of Coppersville, when the car in which he was riding ran off Leonard Road near Eastman-ville in Ottawa County Sunday and rolled over.

Alvin Rupp, 72, of Detroit, killed when struck by a car on a Detroit street Saturday night.

Larry Walker, 18, of Flint, when the vehicle in which he was riding struck the rear of a truck parked on the pavement of a county road east of Gaastra in Upper Michigan's Iron County Saturday night.

Gary Lee Johnson, 27, of Vulp, died Saturday of injuries suffered Friday night when his car ran off U.S. 2 near Norway in the Upper Peninsula and rolled over.

Walter Lymumukka, 52, of Ishpeming, when he was struck by a car on M28 in Ishpeming Saturday.

Teachers' Lunch Is Issue

FARMINGTON — The Board of Education is expected to act tonight on the teachers' grievance over the length of the workday.

The question, according to Schools Supt. Gerald V. Harrison, concerns the interpretation of the contract which states that a normal workday consists of 7 1/2 hours.

Representatives of the Farmington Education Association claim that in the case of junior and senior high school teachers, this should include the 25-minute lunch period.

The administration interprets a "normal class day" as not including lunch which is a duty-free period.

Harrison said that elementary teachers have a 7 1/2-hour day which includes lunch but that secondary teachers normally have a longer day because of a conference period which elementary teachers don't have.

At its meeting at 8 tonight the board is also scheduled to discuss salaries for supervisory and administrative personnel.

Falling Elm Tree Kills Troy Girl, 10

TROY — Teri Tunstall, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Tunstall, 4826 Belvoir, was dead on arrival at William Beaumont Hospital yesterday afternoon, having been struck on the head by a falling tree.

She was killed while playing with her brother, Byron, 12, and three other friends in the woods behind the family home.

A decayed elm tree, 25 feet tall and two feet in diameter, fell on her, according to Troy police.

Police said it took two neighborhood men, summoned to the scene by the children, to remove the tree.

A gust of wind was blamed for the accident.

PTA to Hold Open House

ROCHESTER — North Hill Elementary School PTA will host an open house at 8 tonight in the school's multipurpose room.

Teachers will be on hand to meet parents, and a brochure describing school services and activities will be distributed.

Attendance scores will be tallied with the winning room receiving a $5 cash prize and banner.

A bake sale will follow the meeting.

In Western County

Haircuts Up 25 Cents

Barbers in western Oakland County will get 25 cents more for a haircut beginning next Monday.

The increase was approved by members of Local 40 of the State Barbers Association, serving Milford, Walled Lake, Union Lake, South Lyon, New Hudson and Highland Township.

A regular haircut will cost $2.50 and a flat top $2.75 under the new rate schedule. All types of haircuts will cost $2.75 on Saturdays.

Pontiac area barbers raised their prices 25 cents Oct. 1.

Journalist Views Recent Newspaper Changes

(EDITOR'S NOTE—William B. Dickinson is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening and Sunday Bulletin and president of the Associated Press Managing Editors Association.)

By WILLIAM B. DICKINSON
Your newspaper is changing — changing for the better — even as you read it from day to day and week to week.

If you doubt this, you need only pay a visit to your local newspaper office or your local library and look in the back files for a newspaper of 10 years ago.

In most cases, you'll be startled by the extent of the changes that have been made — changes in the direction of more attractive type dress, better makeup, more understandable headlines, more interesting and useful service features. And, most important of all, in improved news content.

Unless you're an unusually perceptive and thorough newspaper reader, it's unlikely that you will even have been aware of most of these changes — because they have been made gradually, a bit here and a bit there. Never so suddenly as to disturb the habitual reader.

One thing you'll notice immediately — your newspaper is thicker today than it was 10 years ago. There's more news, and there's more advertising.

As an example, my own paper, the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, now is averaging a full five pages more of news and features a day than it was carrying less than 20 years ago. And the Sunday Bulletin has increased its news content even more.

The advertising story is equally dramatic.

The Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association recently reported that newspapers are "in the midst of one of their greatest growth periods ever, with more than $1 billion of advertising revenues having been added during the past three years alone."

Newspapers compete with TV, radio and magazines. But the ANPA report says that newspapers in 1966 will get 49 per cent of the more than $700 million in added expenditures, over last year, for advertising.

GET RESULTS
The reason, clearly, is that advertisers get results from their newspaper ads. And that, clearly, is because readers like to study newspaper advertising before they buy.

They can compare prices and products in a way that is impossible in the other media. Newspaper circulations are growing steadily. More than 60 million copies of newspapers are sold in this country every day.

But the biggest — and most important — change in newspapers has been in their selection and handling of the news they print.

WILLIAM B. DICKINSON

In part this has resulted from the competition provided by television and radio.

The newspaper no longer has the function, in which it took pride for many years, of being first to reach the public with the big news breaks.

While newspaper production methods have been speeded up in recent years, a major story, such as the assassination of a President, now reaches millions by way of the electronic media before a newspaper can put copies on the streets.

'BUILT-IN LIMITATIONS'
But, as Walter Cronkite has pointed out, "radio and television cannot do the job because of built-in limitations."

"... The fact of the matter," he says, "is that it is simply impossible by the spoken word or the electronic tube to communicate all the information that any given individual citizen or community needs."

If Cronkite or any other TV or radio newsman were to read steadily for a half hour, he would barely be able to cover the news on the front page of your newspaper.

He could not give his listeners or viewers an adequate list of stock prices, he could not provide complete sports results, he could not deal with the plays, the movies, the books that are of interest, he could not give recipes and household hints and advice to the housewife, or comic, opinion columns, or editorial views, or any of the many other features which are a part of the daily newspaper.

NEWS IN DEPTH
More important, the electronic media cannot give the day-to-day news in the depth the people need to exercise their franchise as free citizens.

So the newspapers now have the task of putting flesh on the bare bones of the news, of illuminating an event or a situation in a way that will make it understandable to the reader.

It is the newspapers' acceptance of this role, and their concentration on it, that have caused many of the changes in their content.

Not that newspapers no longer print the spot news as it breaks. They do, and they must continue to do so.

As Robert McLean, chairman of the board of the Bulletin and former president for 20 years of the Associated Press, has said:

"The publication of news — the stark news, if you will — news without bias or prejudice — without intent to influence — without regard to whether the news be good or bad, favorable or unfavorable — is essential to the successful operation of a democracy."

But newspapers also have learned to go beyond and behind the news, to search out the situations and developments that concern the readers and to report and write about them in a meaningful way.

There is much greater emphasis now than there was even 10 years ago on coverage of the fields of science, education, housing, health, business and finance — all the areas which are of steadily increasing concern to a steadily better educated and more sophisticated audience.

this sort of news, the papers have had to seek out experts, or train their own.

Most reporters are college graduates; many have advanced degrees; and many more are continuing their education, often with the financial support of their newspapers, in dozens of special college courses, seminars and the like.

The First Amendment states simply that Congress shall make no law abridging the freedom of the press. But it does not enjoin others from chipping away at this freedom.

That such attempts, many of them made by well-intentioned people, always have failed is due to the fact that most American newspapers have recognized the responsibility that their very freedom places upon them.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS

As Ben Reese, former managing editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch and now cochairman of the advisory board of the American Press Institute, has said, a community has the right to expect that its newspaper not only gets the day-to-day news and features, but also these three things:

• That the newspaper should be the guardian of the town.

• That the newspaper should try its best to preserve public virtue.

• That the newspaper must fight for the rights of its readers.

Rams Record 14-7 Triumph

Lions Go Fishing, but Bass Manages to Shake Hook

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Gone fishing? Don't try Tiger Stadium! The Detroit Lions did. They put the bait out for Bass, Dick Bass of the Los Angeles Rams, and he outsmarted them to lead the Rams to a 14-7 victory.

Before the game ended, the Lions were filled to the gills with trying to catch the little runner who rolled up 139 yards himself.

It wasn't all frustration with Bass, however. Roman Gabriel, the tall, talented Rams' quarterback got the ball away faster than the Lions could get their bait on the hook and he finished with 21 of 33 attempts with one passing touchdown.

It was the same old story for the Lions — penalties, fumbles and pass interceptions pulling and end to any effective drive which got underway.

The Rams received the early breaks in the game. Even the bounce of the ball on kicks was in their favor.

But the Lions had many golden opportunities, thanks to the defense which got the ball back quite often, but four interceptions, two fumbles, and the mammoth Rams' line were too much for the Detroit offense to handle.

Gabriel was the Wizard of Oz on the third down plays, either sending Bass wide on running plays or screens, or pin pointing the sideline pass to Tommy McDonald for first down yardage.

The Rams started their first touchdown drive at 6:27 re-14-maining in the first quarter, going 91 yards in 11 plays.

Bass cut over his left tackle for 30 yards on the first play and with key passes to Jack Snow and screens to Bass the drive ended with ex-Packer Tom Moore going the final four yards. Bruce Gossett made it on the ensuing series which started on the Detroit 25, the Lions tried some fakery when Pat Studstill went back to punt and tried running for the first down. He got five yards and the Rams took over on the Detroit 48.

After the LA punt was downed on the two yard line the Rams tried to force a safety. Milt Plum on the third play from his end zone fired down the middle to Studstill, who took the ball on his own 35.

He had a big lead as he headed down the sidelines, but Clancy Williams caught up to him and when he was hit by the Rams' 32, he fumbled and Irv Cross recovered. It was a 63 yard play wasted.

Three field goal tries by Gossett failed from the 43, 36 and 39 and just as the half ended Ed Meadow intercepted a Plum pass.

Midway in the third quarter the Lions wasted another good gain. Plum passed to Tom Nowatzke at the Detroit 46. He was hit at the LA 42 and the ball squirmed a round with Meadow recovering on the Detroit 48.

In three plays, including a 15-yard penalty, Gabriel passed over linebacker Wally Hilgenberg to Tom Moore who went untouched for a 39-yard TD. The Lions' march started late in the quarter and on the first play of the fourth period, Nowatzke went four yards over left tackle for the touchdown, ending a 76-yard march in 14 plays.

Plum had to kick the point for Wayne Waller who was injured in the first period.

Then came the comedy of errors for both sides. Gabriel fumbled and Alex Karras recovered on the Detroit 45, but on the next play, Max Baughan intercepted on the LA 28.

Two plays later, Dick LeBeau got the ball back with an interception, going 18 yards to the Rams' 37.

Studstill then made a fantastic diving catch of a Plum pass at the Rams' 20, but three plays later Chuck Lamson intercepted a pass.

The Lions got a break however when the interception was nullified and LA assessed a penalty giving Detroit a first down on the Rams' 35.

On the second play again, Plum was jarred. He threw off balance and Williams intercepted on the 14 and went 28 yards to the 42 to end any more threats with two minutes left.

"The defense gave us good field position many times. We just couldn't do anything with opportunities," said coach Harry Gilmer. "There were just too many giveaways."

Toronto Hands Wings Defeat

Brit Selby, Keon Pace
5-3 Leafs' Win

DETROIT (UPI)—Brit Selby and Dave Keon scored two goals apiece to give the Toronto Maple Leafs a 5-3 victory over the Detroit Red Wings in a National Hockey League exhibition game Sunday night.

Selby started the Leafs toward their victory with a goal after just 3:43 of the first period, but the Red Wings took a 2-1 lead on goals by Norm Ullman and Paul Henderson.

Keon tied the score 2-2 with a back-hander midway through the second period by beating Roger Crozier.

Wayne Carleton put the Leafs ahead 3-2 after 7:24 of the final period and Selby scored his second of the night, the eventual winning goal, about four minutes later.

A total of 19 penalties were called during the game, including 10-minute misconducts against Jim Pappin and Billy McNeill of Toronto and Pete Mahovich of the Wings.

Would You Believe 4 Straight?

Orioles Shock All of Baseball Convincingly

Dodgers Scoreless in 33 Consecutive Innings of Series

BALTIMORE (AP) — Outside Memorial Stadium, on one of the approaches to the ball park, a big, bold sign asks the question: "Would you believe four straight?"

The sign belongs to the city of Baltimore and so does the World Series following the Orioles' amazing—and convincing—four-game sweep of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

But now a big question is being kicked around: Did the Orioles, in holding the Dodgers scoreless for a record 33 consecutive innings while putting together the first American League sweep in 16 years, destroy the myth of National League superiority?

Strangely enough, Frank Robinson, the guy who did the most to destroy the National League representatives, thinks not.

"I believed that when I was in the National League," said Robinson, who supplied the only homer in Sunday's 1-0 Series finale, "I still think over-all the National League is stronger, but it's not so much different in the two leagues as you're led to believe."

Was it American League superiority?

TWO VIEWS
The answer, as it came from the dressing rooms, depended on the point of view. Harry Brecheen, who powered the first pitch to him by Don Drysdale in the fourth inning some 410 feet into the left field stands for a homer and the final revenge shot heard back in Cincinnati.

Robinson had been traded to the Orioles on Dec. 9 last winter and labeled with an old-man tag. And his only thought had been wiping it out.

"I've been playing this season since Dec. 9," he said after the game. "I wanted to have a good year—it was the first thought on my mind. I wanted to show the people that I wasn't washed up."

It was only the Orioles' fourth homer in the Series, but it was enough. They hadn't needed much hitting the way the Dodgers were rushing toward the futility record.

The Dodgers' feeble hitting turned out to be the worst in the 63 years of the World Series. They hit only 142, compared to the previous low, 161 by the Philadelphia A's in the 1905 Series against the New York Giants.

Inept Dodgers Crack Record

BALTIMORE (AP) — Would the Dodgers play it any differently after losing four straight to the Baltimore Orioles?

"We'd try to score some runs," said Manager Walter Alton as he and the defeated National League champions prepared to fly home Monday.

The Dodgers broke the World Series record by going 33 scoreless innings. The old mark was 28 and the Dodgers might well have stretched the figure even farther except for one thing. They ran out of innings in the 1-0 fourth straight loss.

The same fate, of course, befell the Orioles, who now own the nicer part of the record.

"But I don't think we have anything to be ashamed of," Alton insisted. "We've won two perennials and a World Series in the Dodgers play it any differently after losing four straight to the Baltimore Orioles?"

While Alton retained his sense of humor, neither he nor the Dodgers look the licking with anything less than deep dejection.

FAST BALL
Don Drysdale, off whom Frank Robinson belted the game winning home run in the fourth inning, choked with emotion as he sat in front of his dressing room.

The pitch to Robinson, a fast ball, was a little high. It was the only bad pitch of the 78 Big D. delivered.

Willie Davis, the goat of the second game in Los Angeles when he dropped two routine fly balls in center field, made the circus catch of the last game.

Bog Powell, second batter to follow Robinson in the fourth, plated a pitch over the seven-foot fence, 410 feet away, but Willie D. leaped and caught it with one hand just behind the fence.

"Now," said Davis when asked if perhaps this hadn't redeemed his distressing fortune in the fourth game.

"I thought Willie Davis' catch might turn it (the game) around, but it didn't," Alton said.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, who threw out the first ball, just as he did when the Dodgers opened the series at Minnesota last year, shook hands with virtually every player in the somber Dodger dressing room.

"I saw you a year ago," Mr. Humphrey said to Drysdale, "and you were great."

HE LOST
Don may have been great but he lost that one, too, a matter that both the player and HHH seemed to overlook.

"They deserved everything they got," said Drysdale, a remark that was echoed by the team.

"They played flawless ball," commented second baseman Jimmy Lefebvre.

"Their pitching staff was great," added Lou Johnson. "We just couldn't get anything going."

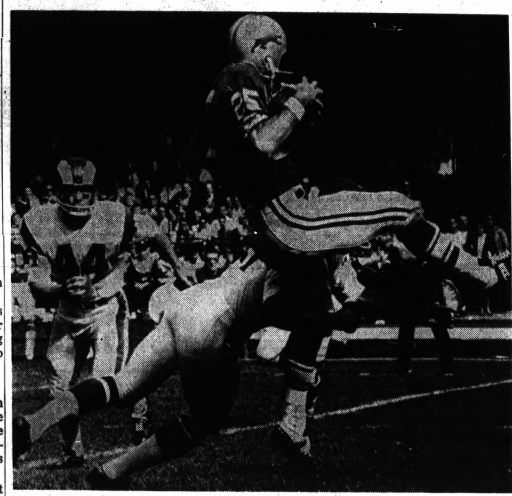

"We caught you when you weren't hitting," said American League President Joe Cronin as he came in to shake hands with Alton.

By 8 p.m., EDT, vendors still hawked their Oriole banners and World Series souvenirs which suddenly had become more valuable than tickets to the fifth game.

Packers 21-20 Victims

49ers Pull NFL's Biggest Upset

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco 49ers parlayed a scrambling offense led by George Mira and an opportunistic defense into the National Football League's top upset of the 1966, a 21-20 victory Sunday over previously unbeaten Green Bay.

The first triumph of the season for the 49ers shoved the defending champion Packers into a Western Division tie for first place with Los Angeles, each with 4-1 records.

Mira started because John Brodie had a groin injury. The former Miami, Fla., star threw scoring passes of 27 and eight yards to John David Crow and kept the Packers' defense off balance with his scrambling.

Two defensive gems abetted the surprising victory. Packer quarterback Bart Starr fumbled early in the third quarter and linebacker Matt Hazlett took the loose ball at the Packer 22 and scored unblemished.

INTERCEPTION
Again when the Packers were threatening late in the same period, Elbert Kimbrough intercepted a Starr pass at the San Francisco 20 and raced it back to the Green Bay 37.

Mira was thrown for a nine yard loss but then broke away up the middle for 38 yards and set up his second scoring pitch to Crow.

Green Bay opened the scoring with an 18-yard field goal by Don Chandler in the first period. He had missed from the 39 earlier and missed again from the 27 late in the fourth period.

Mira's first scoring pass put the 49ers ahead 7-3 at the half. Hazlett's run made the count 14-3 with Tommy Davis kicking the conversion.

Green Bay surged back and scored on a 43-yard pass from Starr to Paul Hornung and on Chandler's second field goal, a 22-yarder.

With seconds left in the game the 49ers drove to the Green Bay two-yard line but were stopped on fourth down when Ken Willard's lateral to Brodie who carried across the end zone. The play was ruled dead before Willard tossed.

Philadelphia '5' Downs Hawks

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — The Philadelphia 76ers, trailing by 11 points with five minutes to go, defeated the St. Louis Hawks 117-115 in a National Basketball Association exhibition Sunday night.

Veteran Hal Greer pumped in three straight baskets in the last minute to spark the 76ers to a 117-113 lead. He also took high point honors with 27 points.

A total of 19 penalties were called during the game, including 10-minute misconducts against Jim Pappin and Billy McNeill of Toronto and Pete Mahovich of the Wings.

Spartans' Defense Factor in Win Over 'M'

Ex-County Star Plays 'Messenger'

Michigan State's defense was the key to its 20-7 victory over Michigan Saturday. The Spartans' defense was the key to its 20-7 victory over Michigan Saturday.

Ruminski started his first collegiate game at the offensive tackle spot, but was the "messenger boy" for the play calling from the sidelines.

He went in and out of the game 19 times, alternating with regular tackle Joe Przybycki.

Ruminski, a 6-2 and 240-pounder, was the outstanding player in the county two years ago and he was awarded The Press-Thumb McAn shoe award.

It will be recalled that Looney refused to enter the game to carry in plays from coach Harry Gilmer to Milt Plum three weeks ago and he was suspended and then traded to Washington after saying he wasn't going to be a "messenger boy."

As a sophomore, Ruminski didn't mind being a messenger boy in his alternate role with regular Przybycki, and his messages to quarterback Jim Rave were effective enough to help MSU to a victory over arch-rival Michigan.

Two other all-county players, center Ron Ranieri and back Chuck Lowther, were on the Spartan roster but failed to get into the game.

Both are from Shrine High School.

Albion, Hillsdale Take Grid Setbacks

By The Associated Press
Albion and Hillsdale can start thinking about starting new winning streaks while Western Michigan continues to savor its first victory over arch-rival Bowling Green since 1954.

Albion saw its state-leading 10-game winning streak snapped by Ohio Wesleyan, 34-16, while Hillsdale lost a 26-13 defeat to Northern Missouri State Saturday, for its first setback in nine games.

Western Michigan gave Athletic Director and former football coach Mike Gary the biggest present on his special day by upsetting Bowling Green, 16-14, in a Mid-American Conference game.

Western Michigan turned two Bowling Green fumbles into touchdowns and Dale Livingston added a 24-yard field goal as the Broncos brought their record to 3-1.

WINNING TD
Jim Boreland passed 31 yards to Sam Antonazzo for what proved to be the winning touchdown to cap a 69-yard drive started when Orville Schneider recovered a Falcon fumble.

Jim Majerle scored on a three-yard run in the first quarter after Bob Rowe grabbed up the first of his two fumble recoveries.

Albion fell behind by 24 points before it was able to rally its offense for a pair of touchdowns in the final quarter. Prentiss Brown scored on a plunge and Tom Myers passed 19 yards to Rich Stefani for the Briton talley.

John Brown and Doug Dorman scored for Hillsdale as end Larry Fowler set school scoring records when he increased his career pass catches to 74 and yards gained on the receptions to 1,299.

OLSM Pulls Surprise; Brother Rice Downed

Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows surprised Fennel St. James, Orchard Lake St. Mary upset Detroit St. Phillip, and Birmingham Brother Rice was surprised by Detroit Cathedral Sunday afternoon.

Sorrows ended St. James' unbeaten streak at 21 straight games (23 in league play), 13-7, to take undisputed possession of first place in the Northwest Catholic League.

St. Mary, playing outside the circuit, squashed St. Phillip, 34-12, with a balanced attack sustained for four quarters.

Brother Rice's defensive mistakes put it behind 20-6 and 26-12 before its frantic rally brought it roaring back only to lose, 26-25, for its first defeat of the campaign.

Royal Oak Shrine was a 19-4 winner Saturday as Ken Caratelli, Mickey Brzezinski and Ed Busch posted the touchdowns.

FOLS CHI LaFond tallied both touchdowns for the Lancers on short plunges, and Tom Horner picked off a last-minute desperation pass by St. James to preserve the homecoming triumph.

Tim Megge passed for one touchdown, ran for one and also ran one conversion, and team.

Nicklaus Riled in Golf Defeat
Gary Player Takes Match Play Crown

VIRGINIA WATER, England (AP)—Gary Player beat Jack Nicklaus 6 and 4 in the final of the World Match Play Tournament, but Nicklaus' heated exchange with a referee grabbed the headlines.

Headlines in London newspapers read: Gary Wins After Referee Quits in Nicklaus Row, and World Golf Referee Quits Under Row Over Rules.

The argument occurred between Nicklaus and referee Col. Tommy Duncan on the ninth hole of the 36-hole final over the Wentworth West course Saturday.

Nicklaus hooked his drive into a ditch, claimed that an advertising sign obstructed his view of the flag and wanted to drop without a penalty.

BOWED OUT
Duncan said a free drop was not warranted. Nicklaus continued to argue and called it a "humiliation." Duncan offered to bow out to another referee. It was the first time in British golf history a referee quit in the middle of a big time match.

Player finished the morning 18 holes four up with a 67 before closing out the match to grab the $40,000 first prize. Nicklaus won $14,000.

Temple's Victory Cage Style, 82-28

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Temple won 82-28. No, it wasn't a basketball game—it was a football game.

"We have a pro offense, and we had to follow the game plan and throw the ball," was the way Coach George Makris explained Temple's unbelievable 82-28 victory over Bucknell Saturday.

Did the fact that Bucknell won 12 straight years over Temple have anything to do with the slaughter?

No, Makris added, there was no grudge involved—just a matter of following a game plan.

male Tony Coterba scored one six-pointer and two conversions for OL St. Mary (3-2).

Dan Parks of Brother Rice made two late six-pointers as it fought back, but a clipping penalty in the final half minute killed the Warriors' last drive inside the 5-yard line.

St. Louis Stays Unbeaten; Skins Roll

Late TD Pass Helps Cards Edge Giants

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Quarterback Charley Johnson threw a fourth-down, 30-yard touchdown pass to Billy Gambrell in the waning minutes Sunday to rescue a 24-19 victory for the unbeaten St. Louis Cardinals over the winless New York Giants in a National Football League game.

Johnson, directing a second half comeback that wiped out a 13-0 Giants lead, hit Gambrell at the five and the little flanker legged it the rest of the way with 3:12 left in the game 21-19.

Jim Bakken kicked a 36-yard field goal for good measure with less than a minute left after a desperation effort by the Giants failed.

The victory was the Cardinals' fifth of the season and their first over New York in St. Louis. Since the Cardinals moved from Chicago six seasons ago. The Giants now are 0-4-1.

The Cardinals appeared to have been stopped on the touchdown drive that put them ahead. From the New York 24, two passes fell incomplete, a running play lost a yard, and St. Louis suffered a five-yard penalty. But, Johnson, rushed hard, found little Gambrell in the open at the five.

FIELD GOAL
The Giants scored in the first quarter on Pete Gogolak's 32-yard field goal and Earl Morrall's nine-yard strike to Homer Jones and, again, in the second period on Gogolak's 37-yard field goal. Gogolak added two 47-yard field goals for the rest of the game.

The Cardinals took the second half kickoff 70 yards in 11 plays for a touchdown, scoring on Johnny Roland's 27-yard smash. Johnson threw passes of 16 yards to Gambrell, 15 yards to Roland, seven yards to Bobby Joe Conrad in the drive.

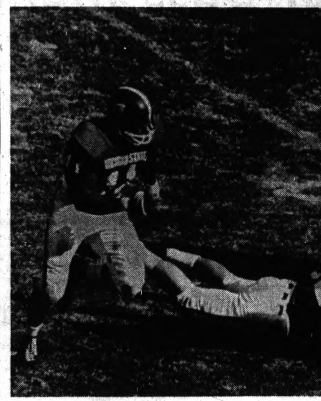

Gogolak kicked his first 47-yard field goal on the first play of the last quarter before St. Louis came charging back for its second touchdown.

Roland returned the kickoff 27 yards to the Cardinal 34, dashed 11 yards on the next play and one play later, fired a 40-yard touchdown to Conrad. Bakken's extra point cut the Giants' margin to 16-14.

Keeps Record Intact
BALTIMORE (AP)—Coach Gene Woodling of Baltimore kept his World Series record intact when the Orioles swept four games from the Los Angeles Dodgers. He's been with 6 series winners.

RETREATING WOLVERINE — Michigan's Carl Ward (19) circles near his 20-yard line while retreating from Michigan State pursuers Charles Thornhill (41) and George Chalos. The fleet halfback went all the way back to his own two-yard line where he was finally caught for a 24-yard loss during the third period of Saturday's traditional contest that saw MSU prevail, 20-7, at East Lansing.

MSU 11 Pins 20-7 Setback on Wolverines
Smith, Apisa Spark Winners; Both Lack Passing Attack

EAST LANSING — The wows! Cobs! Ohs! coming from the record crowd of 78,823 in Spartan Stadium Saturday afternoon weren't intended as flattery for the coed cheerleaders leading the rival Michigan - Michigan State sections.

The necktie tactics, bruising body blocks and hitting of the line made the 99th renewal of the state rivalry one of the hardest played games in the series with Michigan State scoring a 20-7 decision.

The game was hardly a romp for the victorious Spartans. It was filled with errors on the part of both teams and an unimpressive passing attack on the part of quarterback Jimmy Rave of MSU and Dick Vidmer of Michigan.

The defensive units of both teams had control of the first half as punters were in action 13 times. In the second half, there were only four punts altogether and it was the depth of the Spartans which was the ultimate deciding factor.

LEADS ATTACK
Michigan State's defense, led by giant Bubba Smith, a 6-7 and 285 pounder, set the ground offense, paced by Rave and fullback Bob Apisa, gained the edge in the final result.

Michigan had little clutch power, missing numerous scoring opportunities during the first half.

In the second half, when Vidmer went into rollout patterns, the Wolverines showed some offense with fullback Dave Fisher gaining good chunks of yardage.

Despite Fisher's 98 yards, however, Michigan was hit with minus yardage so often, the result showed the Wolverines with a net 47 rushing.

Late in the first quarter after a poor 20-yard punt by Vidmer, sophomore Allen Brenner took the ball 53 yards for a touchdown. Clipping was detected and MSU was penalized and given the ball on the Michigan 47.

In seven plays, including a personal foul penalty, MSU scored with Rave going the final five yards on a sweep around left end. Dick Kenney added the point and it was 7-0.

The second period was primarily a punting contest, but in the final minutes, Michigan had the ball with a first down on the MSU 7.

MSU's plays failed, the third just deflected out of Jack Clancy's hands by Jerry Jones.

Dick Sygar went for the field goal from the 12 but the ball hit the upright of the goal post and fell back into the field of play as the half came to a close.

MORE OFFENSE
The third quarter became more offensive, minded and it suited state's missed scoring chances. The Spartans drove from their own 10 on keeper plays and rollouts with Rave and Apisa the primary runners.

From the 16-yard line Kenney's bare-footed field goal try went wide and wild.

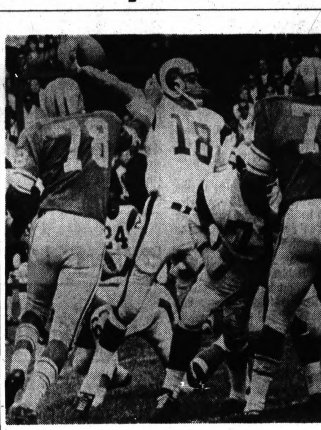

MSU broke it open in the fourth stanza. Rave faked a pitch out, handed to Apisa who went 49 yards to the Michigan 16. On the third play, afterward, Apisa went in from the six. When the snap from center was high Kenney tried a drop kick but failed and it was 19-7.

Another fumble set up the final Spartan TD. Starting on the Michigan 28 it took three plays and a 24-yard pass from Rave to Gene Washington for the TD and it was 20-0 with the point.

A fumble and an interception exchanged possession, but Michigan changed some of its offense into wide patterns of sweeps and rollouts and chunky Dave Fisher had a 40-yard run in the series.

In 10 plays Michigan went 77 yards, the TD coming on a 15-yard pass from Vidmer to Jim Detwiler. The ball was caught as Detwiler rolled in the end zone.

Michigan tried an onside kick but failed and the Spartans set up the game.

SHOULD HAVE HELD IT — Los Angeles' quarterback Roman Gabriel (18) aims a pass downfield against strong rush by the Detroit Lions Sunday afternoon. Defensive end Daras McCord (78) prompts Gabriel to misfire, since Detroit's Bruce Maher intercepted the aerial in Lions territory and returned it to midfield. Alex Karras (71) of the Lions is blocked by LA's Joe Scibelli (71) while at the right the Rams' Tom Mack has upended Roger Brown.

In Oakland County Meet Cranbrook Ace Cracks Harrier Record

A Cranbrook junior surprised the field by setting 10:16.6 effort. The time was seven seconds under the mark posted by Ken Leonowicz of Hazel Park last fall.

COUNTRY RUN AT BOGLE LAKE
Mike Koerner clearly outdistanced his opposition for his second strong performance in four days.

Hazel Park, however, led by Dan Simeck's third place finish, took the team title by placing four runners among the top 15.

The Vikings had 63 points to 94 for Oak Knoll. Pontiac Central (115) just edged defending champion Birmingham Seaholm (118) for third place and Brother Rice took fifth.

Southfield's Kim Hartman was the runner-up to Koerner's record setting 10:16.6 effort.

Taylor Posts Two Scores in 33-20 Win

WASHINGTON (AP)—Halfback Charlie Taylor scored two touchdowns — one an 86-yard pass play — Sunday as the Washington Redskins took a 33-20 victory over the defenseless Atlanta Falcons in a National Football League game.

Taylor, who bruised his thigh earlier in the third quarter and was out the rest of the game, combined with Sonny Jurgensen on the 86-yard play in the second quarter and ran 12 yards for Washington's first score in the first quarter.

The victory was the third against two losses for the Redskins. Atlanta has not won in five outings.

The Falcons, led by quarterback Dennis Clardy who made his first start of the season and halfback Jimmy Coffey, made a strong showing in the first half.

Coffey scored twice on runs of four and three yards. The Falcons also got six points on field goals of 47 and 28 yards by Lou Krieger.

Meredith Makes Grid Music

DALLAS (AP) — Don Meredith, who sings hillbilly music, comments on television, wears cowboy boots and a ten-gallon hat and plays football with Dallas on Sunday, finally has arrived as a quarterback.

Coach Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys says he made it long before but just now is getting credit for it.

"Mainly, I guess, it's because we are winning," said the coach.

Meredith right now not only is sparking the Cowboys along the unbeaten trail in the National Football League but is on the way to a NFL record.

He has 14 touchdown passes in four games and if he maintains his pace will break the NFL record of 36 touchdowns passed set by Y. A. Title of New York in 1963. Meredith has 10 more games to go and his average is 3.3 touchdowns passes per game. Meredith threw five Sunday as Dallas whipped Philadelphia, 56-7.

He already holds the league record for the fewest interception tions for passes throwing more than 1,000 times. Meredith has lost 71 passes that way in his career of more than six seasons. He currently has thrown 151 consecutive passes without an interception.

CONTROVERSIAL

Meredith has been a man of controversy since he came into the NFL. He was the first player signed by Dallas in 1960 when it became a member.

There have been more boos than cheers for Dandy Don, the former Southern Methodist University star for whom the fans facetiously named the school Southern Meredith University.

Last year Meredith was benched by Coach Landry when his passing fell off. Landry didn't know it but an arm injury was the main reason. But Meredith got back in good standing as Dallas started down the last half of the schedule and he led them to the Runnerup Bowl.

This season he has been a sensation, twice throwing for yard touchdowns in a single game although playing only three quarters, and running the team like a machine under the approving eyes of his greatest backer—Landry.

Meredith has played football in Dallas for 11 years—four at SMU and seven with the Cowboys—and he has become an institution here.

The folks like him when he appears on television or radio or acts in a play although they reserve the right to criticize him.

"But I don't get as much criticism there as I do in football," he adds, a little proudly.

OU's Soccer Squad Falls

Macomb Community College handed Oakland University its third soccer defeat of the season Saturday, scoring a 2-1 victory with a goal in the first overtime session.

Jaime Guerrero's goal in the third period earned the winless Pioneers a 1-1 tie in regulation. Oakland will visit Western Ontario Tuesday night.

PAVIA, Italy — Pietro Zino, 121, Italy, defeated Giorgio Caporali, 125, Italy, 8, TOKYO — Katsuhiko Nakamura, 115, Japan, defeated Tetsuhiro Sasaki, 119, Thailand.

OU Harriers Suffer Setback

Wayne State University posted a 23-38 cross-country victory over Oakland University Saturday.

Mike Reamer of Wayne turned in a 20.39 clocking over the four-mile course to finish first.

Don Colpitts (21:32) and Luois Putnam (21:44) finished two-thirds for OU while Bruce Anderson and Gary Cobb placed eighth and ninth, respectively.

OU opens its home schedule tomorrow in a quadrangular.

Prep Succumbs to Grid Injuries

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) A high school football player died Sunday night in a hospital of injuries suffered in a game 15 days earlier.

The victim was David Mills Jr., 16, who was an end for a school that opened this year.

ON TARGET—Quarterback Don Meredith of the Dallas Cowboys kicked up his heels as the Texans whipped Philadelphia yesterday, 56-7. He hit on 13 passes for 394 yards and tossed five scoring pitches.

Ryan, Kelly Sharp

Browns Whip Steelers

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The sharp passing of Frank Ryan and Jim Ninowski plus the running of Leroy Kelly gave the Cleveland Browns an overwhelming 41-10 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers Saturday night.

Ryan tossed touchdown passes of 23 and 14 yards to Garry Collins, Ninowski hit Ralph (Catfish) Smith with a 24-yard touchdown pass, and Kelly ran for two touchdowns as the Browns improved their National Football League record to 3-2.

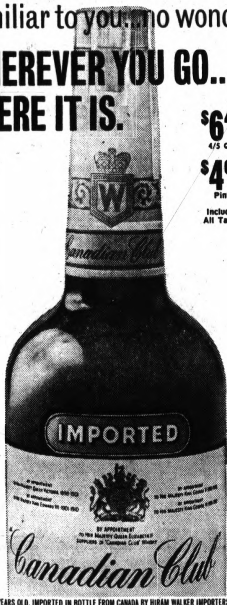

The Browns dominated play in every quarter except the third, when the Steelers drove for a touchdown and a field goal. George Izo climaxed a 91-yard Steeler drive with a 23-yard scoring pass to Roy Jefferson.

Takes Badminton Title

LUCKNOW, India (AP) — Mrs. Judy Devlin Hashman of Baltimore won the Northern Indian badminton championship Sunday by defeating Britain's Angela Bairstow, 11-8, 11-3.

New Transport Chief

Woman in British 'Hot Seat'

LONDON (AP) — Barbara Castle, 55, buoyant redhead, wept when Prime Minister Wilson appointed her British transport minister.

"But I can't even drive a car," she reportedly told Wilson.

It was her last excuse to avoid leaving a job in the Overseas Development Ministry to head the Transport Ministry — the traditional "hot seat" in ministerial appointments.

But today Mrs. Castle begins a 12-day tour of the United States to study transportation developments in San Francisco, Los Angeles, New York, Boston and Washington.

BIG QUALITY

Enthusiasm is her big quality. She throws her energy completely into everything she undertakes.

"When you're a woman in politics, you have to prove yourself three times over — you can't be average," she says.

"It was tough at times, but never in my whole life have I felt like giving up politics," she added.

Political observers say Wilson knew what he was doing when he gave Mrs. Castle the nation's complex and frequently snarled traffic problems.

The task of managing Britain's often antiquated road and rail system is one vitally tied in with the big rescue operation which Wilson seeks for the ailing economy.

Mrs. Castle put it in a nutshell when she told newsmen after her appointment in December last year: "The problems are there for us to see. We live with them. The misery of the commuter, the death toll on the road and the fact that traffic will come to a standstill unless we have some new ideas."

Moscow Car Dealer Overheated by Selling, Handling Delays

MOSCOW (AP) — One of Moscow's three car dealers has come out with a scathing criticism of the way cars and parts are sold here.

V. Osiko, director of the car and parts distribution center near Yelokhovka Cathedral, voiced his complaint in the popular Moscow newspaper Vechernaya Moskva — Evening Moscow. He said his showroom is too small and always overcrowded.

"Many people coming in are surprised to find out how long the procedure is," he said.

"You have to wait in line to make an application. You leave a postcard with your address. You wait. Finally, you are invited to come back.

First, you have to pay for it."

Osiko did not mention the prices, but they are high. A $4,000 Moskvich is smaller than an American compact. Other models are similarly expensive.

Despite this and the many difficulties involved, the Soviet public shows every intention of bringing a full-fledged car civilization to this country. Passenger car production is scheduled to rise from 200,000 last year to 800,000 in 1970.

The director said the buyer had another wait of some months after paying his money.
