Beaming Khrushchev Arrives in New York

From Our News Wires

NEW YORK—Nikita S. Khrushchev hit the big town today in brisk, sunny weather, expressing hope a bright sun always would shine on Soviet-American relations.

The Soviet premier's deluxe special train from Washington pulled into this city of teeming millions at 11:54 a.m. on the second leg of his epochal tour of the United States.

Pennsylvania Station, where the train arrived, swarmed with police and security agents. So did every other strategic spot on the fast-paced itinerary laid out for the boss of world communism.

A crowd of more than 2,000 was on hand outside the terminal on Seventh avenue, waiting for a glimpse of the bouncy visitor from Moscow.

The Soviet boss was greeted by Richard C. Patterson, commissioner of the Department of Commerce and Public Events, who is the city's official greeter. The welcome took place in the terminal's baggage room.

At the Waldorf-Astoria, Khrushchev's first stop here, several hundred schoolgirls stood on the sidewalk more than an hour before the Soviet leader was scheduled to arrive. Thousands more people soon lined streets, behind barricades.

★ ★ ★

Some were hostile. One sign read "Khrushchev not welcome here." Another said "Danger, evil men at work." Still another read: "You can reach for the moon, but you can't get America."

As it had been in Washington, the crowd reaction in New York was largely one of silent curiosity. There was little in the way of either applause or demonstration, at least at the start.

★ ★ ★

Riding with Khrushchev was his smiling wife, Nina Petrovna Khrushchev. Apparently she was enjoying herself. The motorcade from Penn Station moved swiftly, however, and the waiting crowd saw little of the limousine's occupants. Also riding with Khrushchev was Arkady Sobolev, Soviet ambassador to the United Nations, who had been on hand at the station to greet him.

★ ★ ★

Premier Khrushchev merrily swapped jokes and stories with U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge on the train ride from Washington to New York.

He roused a big roar of laughter from Lodge with a tale about how Russians, Englishmen and Frenchmen drink whisky.

Sitting at a table in his private car, Khrushchev said a Frenchman, who loves his wine, will drink whisky and say:

"Oh, it burns."

★ ★ ★

The Englishman, Khrushchev said, drinks his whisky in a matter of fact way, saying, "I'll have a go at it."

More Stories, Photos on Khrushchev, Page 24

The Russian, Khrushchev added with a proud smile, will drink whisky down quickly. Then he will comment:

★ ★ ★

"Huh! What a drink. They've only just invented it and already they have started to dilute it with water."

★ ★ ★

Khrushchev expressed his hope for sunny Soviet-American weather just before his special train left Washington at 8:21 a.m.

In his luggage, Khrushchev may have a surprise for the United Nations here. He had announced in Washington the Soviet Union was

House Votes to Give Itself Hike in Salary

$2,500 Raise Would Be Effective in 1961; Bill in State Senate

From Our News Wires

LANSING — For the second time this session, state legislators are considering a $2,500 pay increase for themselves.

Actually the hike might not be effective until 1961, when the next legislative term begins, but nearly all present legislators probably will return.

The move for the hike was initiated yesterday in the House. Lawmakers were back in Lansing for about a four-hour session and aside from correcting mistakes in the Business Activities Tax and school aid, created little new legislation except for the pay boost and a $1,000 increase for supreme court justices.

The legislative pay increase would go from the present $5,000 a year to $7,500. An earlier attempt this session to do nearly the same thing was killed in the Senate.

The bill passed the House yesterday on a 68-31 vote and was in the Senate today. There were 18 House Republicans for the boost and 30 against. Democrats voted 50 for and 1 against.

All the local Representatives voted in favor of the raise. They were Democrats James Clarkson, John Hitchcock and Arthur Law and Republicans Lloyd Anderson, Farrell Roberts and William Hayward.

A study committee designed to help Michigan provide 100,000 new jobs a year has been created by the Senate.

The resolution was introduced by Sen. Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo) and others.

Morris said the committee, which can spend $5,000 before it reports to the 1960 legislature, probably would meet next week.

The 1959-60 school aid bill was ready for Gov. Williams' signature after correction of another flaw in the hasty Saturday night proceedings 18-days ago that wound up the long legislative tax fight.

Because of a constitutional requirement, lawmakers were able to go only half-way yesterday in curing the costly defect in the Business Activities Tax (BAT)

Ike's Comments Being Broadcast to Soviet Union

Challenge Reds Not to Jam 'Voice'; Nikita Holds to His Ideas

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Eisenhower said today he feels sure Nikita Khrushchev shares his conviction a great war would be stupid and crazy —that this is one thing on which they do agree.

And, the President said, agreement regarding the futility of war is the beginning of all wisdom.

★ ★ ★

Eisenhower cautioned, however, that the mere fact the Soviet Premier agrees regarding the futility of mutual suicide does not eliminate another fact—that there is still room for a lot of misunderstanding and miscalculation that could be serious.

Also, Eisenhower today firmly rejected Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's prediction that communism will eventually replace democracy and capitalism in the world.

Khrushchev said yesterday at the National Press Club that his oft-quoted remark that communism would "bury" democracy was meant historically and was not meant to mean "the physical burial" of the American people.

He predicted anew that communism would supplant capitalism.

Eisenhower said that, thus far, his conversations with Khrushchev had been confined to a general restatement of position and agreement on the agenda for the Camp David talks.

Therefore, he said, it was not possible to detect any change in the basic Soviet position that has led to East-West tension.

The President said that Khrushchev's manner and deportment indicate he really is trying to reach

Nikita Glad: He Learns a Greeting

From Our News Wires

Big Mr. K (Premier Nikita Khrushchev) has broken through the thickets of the language barrier. When he entered the auditorium at the Department of Agriculture's Maryland Research Center the other day, he cleared his throat, braced his shoulders and shouted :"Goot Mornying!" He couldn't have been more pleased.

Nikita Khrushchev was quoted as saying joshingly that the Soviet Union and the United States get much of their intelligence information from persons in the pay of both nations. Allan Dulles, who heads the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, then said, "Perhaps we could save the wealth a little by getting together and only paying them once." And Khrushchev said, "Yes, that's an excellent idea."

The exchange was said to be "the most amusing episode" of the evening.

Japan's largest newspaper Asahi, on writing about Khrushchev's arrival in Washington, said: "It must indeed have been an unexpected sight to see those Americans lined up, as receptive as cold clams. And it must have made an impression on Mr. Khrushchev."

Khrushchev gave President Eisenhower a taste last night of the hospitality he can expect when he visits Russia later this fall.

The Premier and his wife entertained President and Mrs. Eisenhower and 49 other guests in the "Golden Hall" of the Russian Embassy with a dinner which featured Russian specialties—including Ukrainian borscht and Caucasian shashlik.

Chrysler's Colbert Optimistic

Sees Soaring Car Market

By HARRY REED
Managing Editor, Pontiac Press

MIAMI — Chrysler Corporation President L. L. Colbert today predicted a 1960 retail auto market of 6½ to 7 million units, saying the continuing improved U.S. economy and increased confidence of the consumer would boost sales over 1959.

In opening the Chrysler line preview to 400 newsmen, Colbert said the corporation had put $350 million into the 1960 line, in what may well be the most sweeping new-model program ever undertaken by any auto company.

Two new lines will be introduced this year by Chrysler — the Dodge Dart and the economy Valiant. Chrysler output will be distributed by three groups — Plymouth, DeSoto and Valiant; Dodge, Dodge Dart and Dodge Trucks; and Chrysler and Imperial.

In contemplating the industry sales picture for 1960, Colbert corrected his forecast for 1959, which had been too conservative.

"I said we were looking forward to retail sales of between 5½ to 6 million passenger cars, or a 30 per cent increase over 1958. Sales hit 6.4 million, including 600,000 imported cars, which was 37 per cent over 1958.

Although Colbert did not dwell on the imported car situation, his prediction for 1960 was 500,000, a drop of 100,000 units. If the sales hit the 7 million figure in 1960, Colbert said some people will worry that we may have a couple of much "slower" sales years following this, as happened after the big year of 1955 when 7.2 million units were sold.

Dispelling this thought, the Bloomfield Hills resident said the market for cars has expanded greatly since then.

He added that a 7 million car sale year in 1960 would not be so far from being an average year as it was in 1955.

Before 1955, there was only one year when more than 6 million cars were sold. Since 1955, three of the four years including 1959, have been close to or above the 6 million mark.

Holds First Academic Function

MSUO Is Born Today

By MAX E. SIMON

Thomas H. Hamilton, president of the State University of New York, today told Michigan State University Oakland's charter class that colleges and universities across the country could look to MSUO for the kind of education Americans should receive.

Dr. Hamilton spoke at a convocation on the campus. It was the first academic function of the nation's newest university. Freshman classes will begin Monday.

Dr. Hamilton and MSUO Chancellor D. B. Varner helped bring the institution which Varner now heads into being while both were vice presidents at Michigan State University in East Lansing.

Shortly after 10 a.m. the university's faculty members and administrators, wearing the traditional academic robes, capes and mortar-boards, walked from the classroom building toward the Student Center.

★ ★ ★

To the strains of Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstances," the proud academic procession of MSUO officials, led by Chancellor Varner and MSU President John A. Hannah marched down the walkway and into the center.

There the charter class of MSUO stood in respect as their teachers made their entrance.

It was the first gathering of students and faculty. It was the beginning of MSUO's academic life.

BENEFACTORS PRESENT

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson and Dr. Sarah Van Hoosen Jones, whose gifts to the State of Michigan had made the university possible.

★ ★ ★

As the convocation program proceeded in the center cafeteria, the sounds of drills, clanging pipes and hammers filled the area as workmen continued to put the final touches on the building which will be to the some 500 freshmen a "home away from home."

The convocation, Dr. Hamilton said, signaled "one of the most important and exciting ventures in the United States in recent times."

He called the opening of MSUO an opportunity to "clear away the rubbish of superficiality which clings with at least the tenacity of ivy to many older universities."

Chancellor Varner declared that MSUO "is one of the most exciting adventures in the story of education, and we are ready."

Dr. Hamilton, making his first major appearance in Michigan since becoming head of his state's higher education program, said too many colleges are now guilty of interpreting education too narrowly, too specifically, so that students end up with a number of facts that inevitably become obsolete.

"I cannot agree with those who lament the fact that many of you are here to learn certain skills which will later enable you to make a living," Dr. Hamilton said.

"There is nothing wrong with this, provided the skills you need are of a sufficiently complex, intellectual nature to warrant the turning of a university's resources to their teaching.

"Learning to do the world's work is a perfectly respectable and valid objective," he asserted.

However, Dr. Hamilton warned students would make a "grevious error" if concerned only with acquiring occupational skills.

Oakland Population Rises 66.7 Pct.

Since 1950 Oakland County's population has jumped from 396,001 to 660,000 — a 66.7 per cent increase — according to figures released today by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission.

Oakland County has accounted for 31 per cent of the 848,371 population increase in the standard metropolitan area outside the city of Detroit since 1950, the figures show.

The annual rate of growth for the county has been 7.2 per cent, but several municipalities in the southeastern part of the county have averaged an annual increase of more than 40 per cent.

In addition, nine units of government have added at least 10,000 people since 1950. Pontiac ranked ninth in this group with a percentage increase of 15.2 and a numerical gain of 11,219.

The other eight are:

Oak Park	941.7	28,533
Bloomfield Township	419.4	16,149
Madison Heights	182.1	10,042
Southfield	122.8	15,977
Farmington Township	113.6	13,294
Waterford Township	87.4	21,228
Birmingham	64.9	10,033
Royal Oak	61.6	28,902

Even with Oakland's nine-year gain of 263,999 people, the county still was in second spot behind Macomb County which showed the most rapid population growth from 1950 to 1959. Macomb registered a 103 per cent increase, or from 184,961 to 375,000.

★ ★ ★

The DMARPC reported that as of July 1, there were 3,890,000 people living in the metropolitan area, consisting of Oakland, Macomb and Wayne Counties.

In the nine and one-quarter years some 873,883 people have been added. At the time of the last federal census in 1950 there was a population of 2,016,197 in the three-county area.

Wayne County experienced the greatest numerical gain. Population leaped ahead there from 2,435,235 in 1950 to 2,855,000 this year.

The city of Detroit added very little to this whopping increase, while outside the city the increase was 69 per cent. The city's increase was but 1.4 per cent.

In the seventh year of preparing such estimates, the Commission arrives at them from residential building permits and customer lists of the Detroit Edison Co.

The study also showed that the labor force in the metropolitan area had been reduced by 82,000. The Commission felt that the reduction in the labor force was accompanied by an out-migration of people from the Detroit area.

Surveyors found that there were 4.9 per cent vacant dwelling units in the area in June of this year.

"The vacancy rate for Detroit stood at 6.3 per cent which indicated fewer occupied dwelling units in Detroit in 1959 than in 1958," the study said.

The remainder of the metropolitan area outside of Detroit showed a vacancy rate of 3.8 per cent.

inadequacy in professional skills but because of the inability to practice intellectual skills associated with a liberal education.

"MUST COME TO TERMS"

"You must learn to come to terms with yourself as a man and as a citizen before you become overly concerned with your skills as an engineer, as a physician or as a businessman," Dr. Hamilton said.

★ ★ ★

"You must learn a great deal, both in terms of content and skills which may seem to you to be unrelated to the development of your vocational competence. These things you must learn, not because you are going to be an engineer or a physician or a businessman, but because you are a human being."

★ ★ ★

Dr. Hamilton said that a liberal education was essential for those wishing to fulfill their obligations as citizens because of its emphasis on the ability to reason, to make judgments.

He advised freshmen to concentrate "not so much on the applications of disciplines but rather on a thorough understanding of their basic principles.

"The person who is inflexibly educated for his profession soon finds himself out of phase," Dr. Hamilton warned.

★ ★ ★

"If you learn a specific technique, or application which may be the best that is known now, almost certainly 10 or 15 years hence this application will be completely useless.

NEED TO ADJUST

"And if you are unable to adjust to new and changing conditions, then your contribution to your profession will be meager indeed."

He urged the students to learn a respect for learning not as a means to an end "but as a valuable and exciting activity in and of itself, an enterprise which must continue until the day you die."

The former MSU vice president praised those who made possible the opening of the new institution and told the freshmen that the founders had laid a tradition for them to follow.

Dr. Hamilton said a student educated in this tradition would be "generous, responsible, courageous and wise."

The invocation was given by the Rev. Francis Stack, pastor of St. Hugo of the Hills Church in Bloomfield Hills, and the benediction by the Rev. Robert Hermanson, pastor of the University Presbyterian Church.

PAY TRIBUTE

Chancellor Varner introduced Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson and Sarah Van Hoosen Jones, in paying tribute to their gifts which made the university possible.

Eisenhower went to Gettysburg this noon by helicopter for a long weekend at his farm. No precise time was set for his return to Washington.

The White House announced plans to broadcast President Eisenhower's entire press conference today to Russia. It challenged the Soviets to let the broadcast in without jamming.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty announced the action at noon today, saying it would be the first time the entire text of an Eisenhower news conference is beamed over Voice of America transmitters.

The U.S. propaganda radio carried the complete version of the speech made by visiting Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev at the National Press Club here yesterday.

This was Eisenhower's first meeting with newsmen since his one hour and 45 minute formal conference with the Soviet chief Tuesday, and his talks with Khrushchev at social events.

On another Soviet matter, the President expressed doubt that the tiny sphere bearing the Russian national coat of arms ever reached the surface of the moon during the successful trip of the recent Russian Lunik.

Eisenhower said he thought that with the speed of the rocket being so high, the sphere probably was vaporized before it could reach the moon.

DISCUSSES RECEPTION

A bit later at today's conference, Eisenhower made it clear that such specific problems as West Berlin and the Communist drive in Laos certainly will be on the Camp David agenda.

As for the public reception Khrushchev received in Washington, Eisenhower remarked that the crowds did show what he termed reservation.

He indicated he feels that was to be expected in view of the differences between the United States and Russia on specific problems and general government philosophy.

Eisenhower remarked that in his estimation very large crowds turned out to greet Khrushchev in the capital. He said that was natural because the people were interested in seeing Khrushchev.

Plan 20-Club Council

Women to Be Politicians

The adage "never underestimate the power of a woman" has taken hold with the Republican Committee of Oakland County.

No longer is the little lady of the household going to be merely a fixture at the voting booth on election day. Her job in politics is going to be a year-round project, sprinkled generously with caring for junior, shopping, the dishes and keeping hubby happy.

Under the GOP committee's growing re-organization plan, being formulated by John A. Gibbs, the committee's executive secretary, women will play a vital part heretofore left mostly to the masculine sex.

Planned is a Council of Republican Women's Clubs which will in the future have two representatives from 20 clubs to be started in the county, according to Mrs. B. M. Kingsbury, coordinator for women's activities for the local GOP. Already there are five clubs — in Royal Oak, Bloomfield Hills, Orion Township, Waterford, and the Huron Valley.

★ ★ ★

To give impetus to the new council's birth will be the appearance in Birmingham Sunday of Mrs. Frank E. Williams, assistant chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Mrs. Williams, of St. Petersburg, Fla., will tell area women the growing importance of their part in politics at a 3:30 talk at the Community House.

"No longer will women act strictly during a campaign," Gibbs said. "They will now become part of a continuous all-year drive to provide a better Republican form of government.

"They'll give us a well-informed team who can go out and sell the party on a year-round basis, Mrs. Kingsbury added.

Gibbs said he hoped the new organization will be well formed and in force by next year's elections.

From the time Khrushchev arrives at New York's Pennsylvania Station this morning until he departs from Idlewild Airport for Los Angeles Saturday morning, 3,300 New York policemen will guard him around the clock.

At noon Khrushchev will be a guest of Mayor Robert F. Wagner at a civic reception and lunch in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Commodore with 1,000 guests.

Building Falls; Fear 100 Dead

Recover 30 Bodies in Rubble of Five-Story Dwelling in Italy

BARLETTA, Italy (AP)—Disaster teams probing the rubble of a collapsed five-story apartment house said today the death toll was almost certain to exceed 100. Thirty bodies were recovered.

Police said 73 persons were still missing and believed trapped beneath the heap of shattered concrete and twisted steel. Fifteen persons were injured. Almost all victims died in their beds.

Authorities said it was possible that even more persons than the 118 now known were in the building when it crumbled with earthquake violence at 7 a.m. Wednesday.

Among the missing were three workmen who arrived moments before the tragedy to repair a wall which began to crack three days ago.

The building originally was a one-story garage. Four stories were added in the last six months and most of the residents had just moved in. It was of modern design with a marble-decorated front and garden balconies.

House Votes Itself Increase in Salary

revision bill that would have given prospering firms a neat windfall.

The House passed the necessary bill.

With the Senate unable to act for five days, it was decided to put off completion of the job and some other major questions until the legislature next meets on Wednesday.

Language was changed in the school aid bill that would have prevented districts from borrowing against state aid in the last four months of any year.

These were other developments in the 142nd day of the record-long 1959 legislature:

1. Majority Republican Senators, after a caucus, rejected the Governor's latest plea for prompt conversion of the Veterans Trust Fund into about 40 million dollars cash.

2. GOP solons threw the 17 million dollar capital outlay bill into conference. No decision on ripping out 10 million dollars in new construction funds.

3. Republican bills were introduced to wipe out the $8,500,000 tax increase voted Aug. 29 on banks and other business.

4. Sens. Carlton H. Morris and Clyde H. Geerlings also filed a bill to exempt new buildings put up by business from real estate taxes for up to two years.

5. Republican senators turned down for the time being the governor's renewed urging for changes in the employment security act.

6. Sen. John H. Stahlin (R-Belding) asked an extra $24,000 and expert help to make a broadened investigation of the Democratic-controlled state highway department. His request was shelved temporarily.

Lets Him Down Easily

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Columnist Matt Weinstock reported the case of a wife who is good at breaking bad news. TV director Abner Biberman's wife phoned him and said, "I seem to have gotten some water in my wrist watch." "How did you do that?" Biberman asked. "I backed the car into the pool," she answered.

Hobo Handled Gently

LARAMIE, Wyo. (UPI) — The sleeping man in the railroad car didn't even wake up when police lifted him out, ever so gently. Before taking him to the jail's drunk cell, they padlocked the doors to the railroad car loaded with high explosives.

Chart Yosemite Valley

MERCED — The great Yosemite Valley is about 18 miles long and from one-fourth to one-half miles in width. Hunters are said to have found it in 1861.

Pakistan, formerly a part of India, produces 75 per cent of the world's raw jute. Jute is the basic material used in the manufacture of burlap.

Germans Face Facts in Search for Peace

Reinforcing President EISENHOWER'S unprecedented search for peace, Chancellor ADENAUER in a speech recalling the Nazi assault on Poland 20 years ago, repeated his deep conviction that the new Germany would some day be a good neighbor of Poland.

In commenting on the outbreak of those hostilities most German newspapers refused to make HITLER the scapegoat. The influential Deutsche Zeitung had this to say:

"We, and not Hilter alone!... Before history we are responsible too, because Hitler came to power by the parliamentary road and received overwhelming majorities in all plebiscites. Therefore he was looked upon by the world as the acknowledged 'Fuehrer', acknowledged by the German people, who, wherever he appeared was met by frantic cheers."

Despite these brave words it may be a long time before Germans and Poles are friends again. In Washington the Polish embassy's commentary on the anniversary recalled the cost to Poland—20 per cent of its population and 40 per cent of its property.

On the other hand the embassy could not be expected to point out the part the Red army played in this devastation nor Russia's hand in the partition of Poland. The very existence of this satellite depends on Russian goodwill.

★ ★ ★

Chancellor ADENAUER'S attitude supported by a majority of the West Germans gives evidence of a strong desire for peaceful settlement of all frontiers.

Report on Civil Rights Conscientious Study

After two years on research the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights has made its report to President EISENHOWER.

The six man group found that the Negro is denied voting rights "through the creation of legal impediments, administration obstacles and positive discouragement engendered by fears of economic reprisals and physical harm." However, the membership was split evenly on a proposed amendment to the Constitution "to establish a free and universal franchise throughout the United States." Southern members are opposed to ruling out literacy tests for voting.

Chairman JOHN A. HANNAH, president of Michigan State University, the Rev. THEODORE M. HESBURGH, president of Notre Dame University and Prof. GEORGE M. JOHNSON, former dean of Howard University Law School, recommend a new voting right amendment.

Two other members, vice-chairman ROBERT G. STOREY, former dean of Southern Methodist Law School and DOYLE E. CARLTON, former Governor of Florida, oppose any such amendment as unnecessary and disturbing to the Federal-State system. They feel that adequate redress exists in present Constitutional amendments supplemented by other recommendations of the commission. Virginia's former Gov. JOHN S. BATTLE, the sixth member, also supports this view.

Five of the six members recommend, as a stopgap pending further legislation, that where local officials prevent qualified Negroes from voting, the President should have authority to appoint Federal registrars to act in voting for Federal offices. Commissioner BATTLE objects on the ground that "present laws are sufficient to protect." But they have not as the report clearly shows.

Emphasis should not be put on these differences, however. There was wide area of agreement in matters of discrimination in education and housing, and the need to do something about it. The three Northern members suggest that Federal aid be withheld from institutions of higher educations which exclude students on racial grounds.

The Commission also recommends that the Bureau of the Census either undertake, in connection with its 1960 census (already begun in this area) or at the earliest possible time thereafter, a "nationwide and territorial compilation of registration and voting statistics which shall include a count of individuals by race, color and national origin."

★ ★ ★

It is good news that the commission's life has been extended for two years. Progress is being made in giving civil rights to all but there's much more to be done in mapping out methods of improvement and reform.

Ricochet

David Lawrence Says:

Nikita Blandly Parries Questions

WASHINGTON — "Czar" Nikita showed himself a master of international propaganda as he talked to the National Press Club. He blandly presented the Soviet side as if it were truth itself. He ignored the facts of recent history and evaded questions about the Soviet aggression in Hungary.

LAWRENCE

The over-all tactic he used was to try to confuse and mislead the large audience throughout the nation which listened to him on radio and television.

Few, if any, of the American news correspondents present were misled. They heard the Soviet premier say over and over again that he wanted peace and that there must be "give" in the positions of governments on controversial questions, but he didn't show the slightest evidence of "giving" on anything.

Not a word did the Soviet premier say about his own ultimatum which started the Berlin crisis last November. He insisted that the Soviet government doesn't interfere in the affairs of other nations.

Yet Soviet troops today occupy nearly every one of the "captive" states in Eastern Europe.

FALLS ON DEAF EARS

The palpable effort which Khrushchev made to give the impression that a united Germany would be dangerous to peace—and that a divided Germany isn't—fell on deaf ears. It was recalled by many that Moscow's alliance with Hitler's Germany made World War II possible.

★ ★ ★

The Soviet premier said the East and West had made progress at the recent Geneva Conference, but he never revealed any proof of it. The fact remains there is no sign of compromise today—the Communists hold East Germany and they want to infiltrate West Germany.

No solution of the West Berlin problem was offered by the Soviet premier in his speech or was even hinted at in anything he said in his answers to questions at the Press Club affair.

Those persons in the United States who have clung to the hope that the Soviet premier would bring some proposal that would "melt the ice" of the West Berlin problem must be disappointed today.

For it is plain now that Khrushchev has come to the United States not to make any agreements or yield an inch on the rigid position he has taken but to seek merely an outlet for his own views. He said to the Press Club:

"Repetition is the mother of knowledge—we are a pretty persistent people."

This is the key to the whole Khrushchev mission. It is designed to say over and over again—with plenty of overtones of conciliatory phrasing but with no concession—what the Soviet government has been saying right along over the air, in the press and in diplomatic conferences between the East and West.

The Soviet premier seemed a bit sensitive when, at the Press Club, he was asked about Hungary. He said somewhat irritably that he could bring up similar questions about the West.

But the fact remains he never did explain why the Hungarian people were deprived of the government they chose or why their premier was lured away from a diplomatic legation, where he had been given legal asylum, and summarily executed.

Khrushchev seems to think that if he insists upon it, Americans will forget such things—all in the interest supposedly of a better understanding. He fails to realize that it is precisely just such hypocritical answers as he gave about Hungary that make it impossible to place any trust in his words. Thus he exclaimed with considerable emphasis:

"Well, you see the question of Hungary has stuck in some people's throats as a dead rat. He feels that it is unpleasant and yet he cannot spit it out. If there is a desire that our discussion here take that turn, of course we, for our part, could think up quite a few questions of a similar character."

The Soviet premier talked of the advantages of state socialism.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Iodin (and Not Iodine) Will Add to Your Pep

It is the belief of medical and nutrition authorities that every man, woman and child requires a minute quantity of iodin daily to maintain good nutrition and health. This means the quantity of iodin one gets in a serving of codfish, halibut, salmon, shrimp or lobster, fresh or canned.

DR. BRADY

What I say about iodin refers to the nutritional element, not to medicinal iodine. When I recommend iodin I refer to the element you eat or drink, not to medicine you take or apply externally.

Even chemistry, physiology, pathology and nutrition authorities, and medical lexicographers and N. Webster himself are confused and confusing about it.

In the first place, everybody seems to be a law unto himself about the spelling of the word. Thus, the no-nonsense textbook on chemistry by Witthaus spelled it iodin and didn't even mention iodine. On the other hand the U.S. Pharmacopoeia spells it iodine and doesn't mention iodin.

But don't laugh yet. Wait till you consult current textbooks of medicine, pathology, physiology and therapeutics and the writings of recognized nutrition authorities—these are unanimous in the use of the final E and probably most of them pronounce it to rhyme with fine.

MANY TESTIMONIALS

There are many testimonials in the files on the effect of the iodin ration (which is not medicine) on apathy, languor, drowsiness, melancholy, the blues and anhedonia. For example, the mother of a 16-year-old girl wrote that "she could not enjoy life as other young people do, but now she's bubbling over most of the time."

★ ★ ★

A Wisconsin man (in the Great Lakes Basin drinking water and locally grown food is generally deficient in iodin), says his wife, 50, has been on the iodin ration for a year now, and she has experienced a marked change in her outlook on life. She's brighter and more cheerful.

Michigan is even more deficient in iodin than Wisconsin.

A woman, 39, who gives no address has been on iodin ration for three months, and has "more energy than I have had for years."

A New York reader states that since she began taking the iodin ration she has noticed that hot flashes do not occur so often nor last so long, she is more alert in body and mind and instead of wanting to lie down after lunch she wants to get out among people—housework and everything connected with it no longer seems drudgery — although she is a changed woman.

If you contemplate "trying" the iodin ration, please make sure you are following my advice—send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope for the pamphlet The Iodin Ration.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Why Did Rudy Have to Die When He Wasn't Even Mean

How many of you take your children to the zoo? We go twice a year. Wouldn't it be nice if your children and mine would be able to go to the deer pen and call Rudy and have a young deer come over to them.

Everyone seemed to like Rudy, but some strangers saw him and gave him shots in the rump. The neighbors called Victor Betts. He and his children came and Rudy dropped dead at their feet. Why didn't they put Rudy in the zoo. The Betts family wouldn't have minded that, even though he was never mean.

The men didn't have to take him so far away did they. Wonder why? Can't something be done so Rudy could have gone to the zoo? We hope so.

Very Interested

To friends of Rudy the deer! Why did they do away with Rudy? Why did they take him away? Why did the conservation officer use such brutality when they came and got Rudy, the love grown deer? These are the questions that are being asked by hundreds and hundreds of people.

I say let's wake up Mr. and Mrs. Michigan and fight for our rights as American citizens and find the answers to these questions.

We have our conservation officers to enforce our game laws and to protect our wild animals, not to kill them, whenever they see fit. I don't feel that they have any more right to kill an animal out of season than you or I do, so let's wake up and ask the governor to take action on the conservation department and put a stop to this brutality. Let's protect our freedom.

'Let's Investigate Hospital Rates'

Blue Cross and Blue Shield rates and the hospitals likewise, are again at an all time high. Could someone tell me why it is that when a person who has semi-private room insurance nine times out of ten, when he or she is admitted to the hospital, they are placed in a ward. And a person who has ward insurance is placed in a semi-private room?

The hospital charges the ward subscriber extra but does not reimburse either Blue Cross or the patient for the difference when a semi-private patient spends his time in a ward?

Also, the hospitals always seem to manage to take more X-rays than your insurance will cover, and when you are discharged from the hospital, you pay up your bill in full and invariably a week or two later receive a statement from the hospital that when you were discharged, all the charges had not as yet been received. They are sorry, but you owe them $5.00 or $10.00 for medicines or services.

Either hospital personnel are not acquainted with various service codes of your insurance or else Blue Cross and Blue Shield subscribers are being taken to the cleaners. This situation needs a thorough investigation.

Can't Collect on Road Damages

I am sending a copy of this letter to all newspapers in Michigan, so people can know how our money goes for nothing. I wrote to Oakland County Road Commission at their suggestion stating my claim.

I had had a tail pipe put on my car as I was buying another car and didn't want to hurry about it. The tail pipe fell off and the work had been done by a Standard Station in Romeo that I am sure does good work.

Coming home from Rochester less than a week later on Tienken Rd., which is paved for a quarter of a mile, I had just left the pavement on to a newly repaired strip of road, when I hit a stone covered by crushed stone. The stone was about 10x8x4 and could not be seen — sort of a booby trap. It knocked my muffler off at one end. I finally had to stop and have the AAA remove my car and then have the muffler replaced.

I got a letter back from an insurance company (Columbus, Ohio) declining liability. Now it is our Michigan tax dollar that is supposed to pay for our road insurance. Why not a Michigan Insurance Co. who also pays taxes in Michigan and why are our roads booby trapped?

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Romance Eludes Suited Couple

Donald says he wants to fall in love with Peggy but he just can't grow romantic about her. Yet she is lovely, charming and great fun. Is it because his parents would like to see Donald marry her? Is it because he grew up with Peggy as a next door neighbor who seemed like a sister? Scrapbook this case and its followup, for such tragedies should be prevented.

★ ★ ★

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case C-446: Donald B., aged 24, is a recent engineering graduate. "Dr. Crane," he began, "my problem is lack of love. My folks would like for me to marry Peggy a girl next door, who went all through grade and high school with me.

DR. CRANE

"Peggy is a wonderful young woman. She is beautiful and talented and great fun.

"At present, she teaches third graders, and they are all crazy about her.

"I realize I could never find a wife who would surpass Peggy in virtues nor be as welcomed by my family.

★ ★ ★

"But I just can't get romantic about her: I seem to clam up and feel an invisible barrier.

"Is it because my folks want me to marry her and I just have a subconscious resentment against parental prodding?

"Truly, I wish I could fall in love with Peggy. I really want to do so, but when I take her to a movie, it's sort of like taking a sister or a pal, but not a sweetheart. What can I do?"

Alas, many wonderful marriages don't take place just because the parties thereto feel that their parents are pressuring them into a wedding.

★ ★ ★

Next door neighbors often would make ideal marriages except for the very situation that Donald describes.

And it is then tragic to see a man like Donald marry somebody else who isn't half as suited to making him a good wife.

Why does the boy or girl next door fail to give you young folks butterflies in your stomach?

First of all, you may have visited back and forth all through grade and high school until you actually feel much like brother and sister.

You like each other as pals and have congenial interests. But that "spark" called love doesn't seem to be present.

Your trouble is often rooted in a vague incest taboo that subconsciously arises in good families and which causes brothers and sisters to realize they just cannot grow romantic about each other.

★ ★ ★

This taboo then extends to neighboring playmates who have been so closely associated that they are regarded much as relatives.

And "mystery" is also lacking. Mystery helps fan the spark of love. For you knew your neighboring classmates when they wore pigtails or the boys were freckle-faced pains-in-the-neck.

"Familiarity breeds contempt" is an old adage in point.

So boys in small towns thus drive 10 miles to the next village to pick their sweethearts, just to feel the greater ego inflation of being mysterious.

Those girls in the next hamlet also seem to have more allure because their background is unknown.

But when a wonderful couple like Donald and Peggy are held apart because of this invisible scism that keeps them platonic pals, it is wise to shatter the "Sister Halo", as indicated tomorrow.

Scrapbood this case and use it to prevent similar tragedies in romance.

Offer Chances in Coast Guard

Broomfield Tells of Examination Dates for Service's Academy

Competitive examinations for potential cadets to the Coast Guard Academy will be held Feb. 23 and 24, 1960, Congressman William S. Broomfield (R-Oakland County) announced today.

★ ★ ★

The four-year course at New London, Conn., leads to a commission as a career officer in America's oldest sea-going service and a bachelor of science degree.

"There are no appointments or geographical quotas for entrance to the Coast Guard Academy," said Broomfield.

He urged all qualified young men who are interested in becoming cadets to write for details and applications to Coast Guard Headquarters, Washington, D.C.

Applications must be postmarked before Jan. 10, 1960, to be eligible to take the examination held in 118 cities.

Candidates must be single, must have reached their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, 1960, and must be in excellent physical condition.

A high school diploma is the minimum educational requirement, although high school seniors assured of being graduated by June 30 are eligible to take the examination.

★ ★ ★

Hemingway Appeals to Thief to Return Wallet

MADRID, Spain (UPI) —Novelist Ernest Hemingway appealed Wednesday to the pickpocket who swiped his wallet at a bullfight in Murcia last week.

Hemingway made te appeal in the form of an advertisement in a local newspaper. He said the billfold had sentimental value because it was giver to him by his son, Patrick, a hunter in Tanganyika. The writer said the thief could keep the pesetas worth $150 and simply return the wallet.

Resigns After Repaying Funds From Field Day

DETROIT (AP) — A suspended patrolman, who repaid $1,285 he admitted taking from police field day funds, resigned Tuesday.

Joseph C. Higginbotham, 35, resigned after Prosecutor Samuel Olsen refused to issue a warrant charging him with embezzlement.

Police officials said Higginbotham told them he needed the money for personal debts and took it from ticket sales to the field day. He has made full restitution.

ALDERNEY, England (UPI)— Morale aboard one of her majesty's training ships reached a low ebb yesterday. Cmdr. John Crawford brought the vessel and her crew of 10 into port after a day of advanced seamanship exercises and tied up for the night. The swift-flowing tide left the ship high and dry and listing at a sharp angle. The commander and his advanced seamen began the return to their home base at Gosport, England, today under tow.

All-Out Small Car War Shapes Up

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT (AP)—So far there has been no all-out declaration of war but it is becoming increasingly clear that America's big three automakers intend to make their new compact cars successful at the expense of the import models.

Nobody knows yet whether they can succeed. But here is how the major battle is lining up:

A month ago executives of General Motors' big car lines fired the tentative opening shot by predicting a drop of 100,000 in the number of cars imported into the United States in 1960.

The import total has jumped from 98,000 in 1956 to 206,000 in 1957 to 377,500 in 1958 to almost 600,000 this year. General Motors says it will be 500,000 in 1960 despite a growth in the over-all U. S. car market of some 600,000 cars.

Then along came Ed Cole, general manager of the Chevrolet division which is building GM's small car, the Corvair. Cole predicted Corvair sales of some 300,000 cars in 1960 and said an over-all market of 750,000 to one million for the big three's compact cars "sounds about right."

* * *

In other words, the import tide is stemmed and into the market gap roll the smaller American cars.

The market estimate of up to one million had been given by Ford when it introduced its Falcon. Independently, Chrysler said its production estimates for the Valiant, third member of the compact trio, run in the area of 250,000. All of which shows the big three are figuring remarkably alike on the market potential.

'LOTS OF LUCK'

Now, on the other side, the general reaction from the foreign manufacturers has been one of "come ahead and lot's of luck." And the implication has been "you'll need it."

"We wish them success," said a Volkswagen spokesman. "They won't be competitive with us."

"We welcome them," declared Robert Valode, vice president of Renault, Inc., of the United States.

"I can hardly wait," added Sid J. Brand, president of a Detroit import dealership. "A lot of people have been holding off auto purchases until they see these new (Detroit) cars," he said. "Once they've had a chance to look them over, they'll be back in the market and all of us will benefit."

C. H. Hahn, vice president of Volkswagen of America, Inc., said: "The concept of the compact car will be urged on all sides. We have already established the acceptance of the smaller car concept in the United States. Our only real, present problem is meeting the demand for Volkswagen."

* * *

John Panks, who heads the British Auto Manufacturers Assn. in this country, says he thinks the new compact cars will offer strong competition to all cars, imported and domestic. But he said Britain, largest volume exporter to the U. S., "looks to retain its volume in 1960."

Most observers feel the number of makes imported, now more than 60, will be cut at least in half. But they also feel that most of the discards will be low volume lines that won't affect the over-all total appreciably.

PRICE A FACTOR

The import lines undoubtedly will stress price more than ever.

This is because it is unlikely that any of the compact models will list for less than $1,800. A recent Automotive News survey showed there are 71 imported models built by 23 different makers that list in the United States for less than $1,835, which is what the Rambler American lists for including federal excise tax.

The foreign manufacturers have concentrated during the past year on building up parts and service depots in the United States. Renault opens a two million dollar parts operation in New York this month.

And they are stepping up promotion and advertising. Volkswagen, mostly dependent upon word of mouth up to now, allocated one million dollars for U.S. advertising this year. Renault jumped its ad budget from $400,000 to four million dollars.

The British manufacturers estimate their advertising and promotion will cost 5½ million dollars here this year and substantially more next.

The big three may win but the imports won't go down without a real fight. A canny customer should reap the benefits.

Doctor, 96, Wins 20,000 to 1 Bet

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (UPI)—Dr. William N. Pannebaker, 96, of Baltimore, Md., has won a 20,000-to-1 bet with vital statistics.

The Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co., said that Pannebaker has received the proceeds from a $2,000 life insurance policy he purchased in 1920.

Company officials said the doctor, who was 57 when he bought the policy, had less than one chance in 20,000 of reaching the age 95.

ST. CATHERINES, Ont. (UPI)—Attention motorists: Here's a chance for you to talk your way out of a traffic ticket.

St. Catherines police chief James Anderson has designed a new-type ticket for motorists who commit "border-line" traffic violations. It invites offenders to have a chat with the traffic department officer.

"Of course, if the motorist commits a flagrant violation the usual summons will be issued," Anderson added.

Guardsmen to Switch From Olive to Green

LANSING (AP)—Michigan national guardsmen will make a uniform change from olive drab to army green in mid-October.

★ ★ ★

Maj. Gen. Ronald D. McDonald, state adjutant general, said supplies of the new uniform issue have been shipped to all guard units in the state. Enlisted men will be issued one complete uniform. Officers will buy their own.

★ ★ ★

Guardsmen will make their first appearance in the new uniform starting Oct. 19.

The new green uniform will be reserved for special occasions, such as military ceremonies, parades, reviews, inspections and military funeral.

Bat Bites Man on Ear; Month Later, He Dies

BLUE RIVER, Wis. (AP)—On a cool August night a bat flew through an open window and bit sleeping Louis Ashmore on the ear. Ashmore killed it. The next day he joked about it.

Less than a month later he was dead of hydrophobia.

★ ★ ★

The death of the 44-year-old farmer was the first attributed by the Wisconsin Health Department to the disease, usually transmitted by the bite of a rabies-infected animal or rodent. It creates madness in animals.

A U.S. Public Health Service team has been ordered here to begin a search for infected bats. The PHS operates a rabies control center at Poynette, not far from this southwest Wisconsin village of 425 persons.

★ ★ ★

The PHS said there were only six hydrophobia deaths in the United States last year. The disease usually is fatal, once symptoms develop. Skunks are the most frequent carriers of rabies, but there have been reports of infected bats.

★ ★ ★

Ashmore was bitten Aug. 8. It was his only known contact with a possible rabies carrier.

Two Communities Hold Elections

By The Associated Press

Eaton County voters passed two proposals Tuesday authorizing construction of a new county jail to replace a building ordered closed by the State Department of Corrections.

County voters approved 2,431 to 896, a proposal to raise existing county tax limitations to finance the new jail, scheduled for completion in the fall of 1960.

Also approved was an additional short term tax levy to help finance construction of the jail. The additional tax passed 2,414 to 898.

Jackson voters turned out four-time Mayor Harold D. Miller in a primary election.

City Commissioner Harold E. Nichols and former Commissioner B. W. Bartus qualified for a run-off election in November.

Nichols received 1,776 votes, Bartus 1,515 and Miller 1,372.

Want 18-Year-Old Vote

Tells Results of Fair Poll

LANSING (UPI) — Secretary of State James M. Hare has announced the results of a Michigan State Fair voting machine poll on questions of public interest.

A favorable vote was cast for eight of the nine questions in the public-preference poll, Hare said yesterday.

Some 1,681 persons used the machines. Those who were not of voting age were requested not to use the machines.

Only 40.92 per cent were in favor of the state spending more money on boat launching sites.

Voters favored permitting 18-year-olds to vote, eliminating spring elections in favor of fall elections, putting a photograph on all drivers' licenses, establishing a state lottery to raise money for schools and hospitals, compulsory insurance for Michigan motorists, a constitutional convention and a rebate for insurance on drivers with accident-free records.

★ ★ ★

The voters also approved use of voting machines throughout Michigan. Nearly 90 per cent favored this. Elimination of spring elections was favored by about 55 per cent.

HE RE-GREW HAIR

Before Erickson Treatment — A Few Months Later

Thomas A. Melton Jr. of Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania, (above) shows he re-grew hair by the Erickson Home Treatment method.

Hair Specialists Here Tomorrow; Will Show How to Save Hair and Prevent Baldness

CHICAGO — New home treatment methods for saving hair and improving its growth will be demonstrated in Pontiac, Michigan, on Friday, September 18th, 1959 only.

Trichologist L. E. Schroer will be in charge, representing the dynamic Erickson Hair & Scalp Specialists organization. He will personally examine hair-worried men and women from 12:30 to 8:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Waldon Hotel.

At the home office of the Erickson organization, a new, even more successful method of treatment was announced—a treatment that you can easily administer yourself at home.

This new treatment is neither "mail order" nor "cureall." It is adapted to the individual after a personal examination and progress is checked personally at regular intervals by a Erickson expert.

Who Can Be Helped?

For many years now Erickson Hair & Scalp Specialist have been checking the hair of thousands of people across the country. They have encountered and dealt with hundreds of cases of every kind of hair trouble. From this experience has grown the body of scientific knowledge leading to the development of the new Erickson home treatment.

Will the new Erickson treatment cure baldness? "No!" For we cannot help men and women who are slick-bald after years of gradual hair-loss. But if you still have fuzz and your scalp is still creating hair, you can at least save and thicken what you have. Some conditions, such as "spot baldness" usually have complete coverage if caught in time!

Other conditions that usually bring on excessive hair loss — dandruff, itching, over-oiliness or dryness, follicle clogged with sebum or seborrhea — can be corrected by the Erickson home treatment if caught before the "hair factories" are destroyed.

Evidence of the success of the Erickson method is that the organization has quickly expanded to serve hundreds of cities in 32 states.

The most important thing is: Don't wait until it's too late."

Surveys among men and women in all walks of life show that the worst enemies of your hair are (1) skepticism and (2) procrastination. The average balding person justifies his condition with one or the other of these two statements: "I don't think anybody can stop hair loss"—or Oh, I'm going to see an expert when I get around to it."

Baldness won't wait for doubters to be convinced or for procrastinators to take action later. You're going to keep right on losing hair till you're bald . . . unless you get your scalp in healthy, hair growing condition again.

Satisfy 95%

"Actually, our biggest problem is not in doing what we claim," says D. W. Erickson, director of the organization, "for we satisfy at least 95% of our clients which, when you consider that almost every person is a 'doubter' or a 'putter-offer' where hair is concerned, is an excellent showing. Getting these doubters and putter-offers to come in for an examination is really the problem."

Examine You Free

We want to make it clear that you incur absolutely no charge or obligation by coming in for an examination.

Your only obligation is to yourself to ease your mind of hair worries by learning how to save and thicken your hair at home. We will tell you frankly and sincerely whether or not you can be helped, how long it will take and how much it will cost. We do not accept cases that will not respond.

Guarantee Satisfaction

The Erickson Hair & Scalp Specialists will give you a written guarantee that you must be satisfied within 30 days or it costs you nothing.

You won't be obligated or embarrassed in any way. Examinations are given in private.

Hours are from 12:30 to 8:30 P.M.

State to Probe Carver School

Administrator Coming to Go Over Financial Mess in Detail

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — The State Department of Public Instruction is sending an administrator to delve into the debt-ridden condition of the Carver School District here, Mrs. Adelaide Long, acting school superintendent, said today.

She is expecting Harry Nesman to arrive from Lansing tomorrow so that they can go over the books together.

Nesman is being sent from Lansing by Dr. Lynn Bartlett, state superintendent of public instruction, to try to do something about the district's $132,000 deficit.

Nesman will have powers similar to the regular school superintendent, and will be responsible to the school board.

★ ★ ★

He and Dr. Byron Hansford, deputy superintendent at the state level, went over financial records of the district yesterday and agreed that things are in a mess.

Mrs. Long has replaced Oliver A. Johnson as school superintendent here in an acting capacity.

Johnson, who had been superintendent for four years, was demoted to teacher by the school board in August. Their action resulted from auditors' reports of irregularities in various funds for which Johnson was responsible.

A $25,000 bond issue for the district was approved yesterday at Lansing.

According to Hansford, the district's troubles stem from an inadequate tax base. He denied state officials are directly investigating Johnson's demotion or the charges against him at this time.

"We don't want to prejudice his case in either direction," said Hansford.

Rochester Club Plans Dinner, Tour at Airport

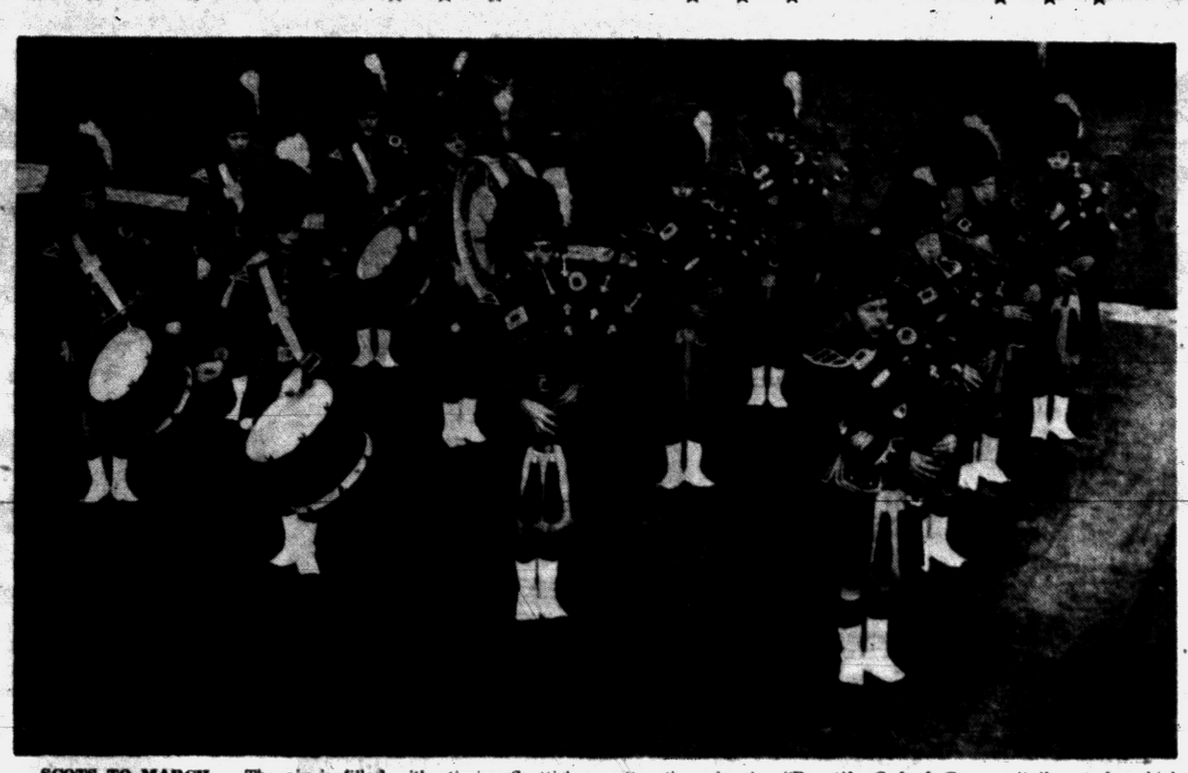

ROCHESTER — Members of the Rochester Kiwanis Club will visit Detroit Metropolitan Airport Monday to see what makes a jet age air terminal operate.

SCOTS TO MARCH — The air is filled with stirring Scottish tunes as the rattle of drums and skirl of bagpipes herald the coming of the Chrysler Corp. Highlander Band to Oxford Saturday afternoon. Distinguished as one of the few authentic bagpipe bands in North America, the Highlanders will be one of the outstanding attractions in the "Beautify Oxford Community" parade which will start at 2 p. m. The Scottish band has been thrilling lovers of ancient bagpipe music since 1935 when the group was organized by a handful of enthusiastic Chrysler employes. Members, all of whom are war veterans, wear the Royal Stewart tartan.

UF Official Urges Cancer Society Probe

DETROIT (UP) — Walter C. Laidlaw, executive vice president of the Detroit United Foundation, has suggested a federal investigation of the American Cancer Society, following the society's announcement it was opening a new headquarters here and planned its own fund drive.

The society withdrew recognition of its Southeastern Michigan division, which voted to continue in Detroit's consolidated one-for-all charity funds campaign. The Detroit group then organized itself into the Michigan Cancer Foundation.

Laidlaw yesterday accused the American Cancer Society of spending 2 to 25 per cent on fund raising activities. He said "The situation deserves a federal investigation" and "the whole national fund-raising business should be looked into."

Find Body of Playboy Shot, Hidden in Rocks

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—A bachelor playboy, heir to a sizable fortune, was shot to death and buried under rocks in a lonely canyon.

The body of William Scott Wright, 37, trussed in oilskin, was found Wednesday night. Police today said a couple whom Wright had befriended admitted the slaying.

★ ★ ★

Harold Wooley, 36, an ex-convict, said he shot the bearded Wright in the head at Wright's mountain cabin.

★ ★ ★

Then, Wooley told officers, he and his common-law wife Mary, 32, dragged the body to Wright's expensive new sports car and drove it to a place where they had gone for picnics west of Denver. Several boulders were rolled on top of the body and covered with broken bushes.

★ ★ ★

This happened June 15, Wooley said—10 days after Wright was last reported seen in Denver.

His disappearance came to light early last week when Wooley and his wife were arrested and charged with forging a $500 check made out to Wright.

1st Rally at Holly Sept. 23

Extension Clubs Training Leaders

District meetings in the form of Rally Days are being held throughout Oakland County by members of the home economics extension clubs this month.

Officers' training is scheduled in each area to help newly elected leaders know what is expected by the county extension office when they submit their reports, and what they can accomplish through their clubs in the fields of better homes, gardens, and communities.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Harry Clark of Birmingham, past chairman of the Oakland County Home Economics Council, will conduct the leader training throughout the area.

The Holly-Davisburg rally will be held Sept. 23 at St. Rita's Catholic Church on Maple street in Holly. Registration will be from 9:30 to 10 a.m. followed by officers' training.

In the afternoon Phillips Foster, extension specialist in agricultural economics, will present a talk titled "Problems and Responsibilities in International Relations," followed by a question and answer period.

An exhibit of crafts which were made at the summer camp will be held throughout the day.

The Rochester district is planning an International Rally Day. Their meeting Sept. 24, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. will be at the Congregational Church, on the corner of Third and Walnut streets.

Officers' training will be in the morning, followed by a luncheon served by the Womens Fellowship of the church.

Mrs. Edna E. Zellinek, folk art specialist of the International Institute of Detroit, will present a program on arts, crafts, foods, and people of other countries.

★ ★ ★

Prizes are being offered for centerpieces which each club is requested to make on any country of the general international theme.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Sarah Van Hoosen Jones, a member of the advisory staff of the Michigan State University Oakland, and director of animal genetics will speak on her observations drawn from trips to Europe, around the world, and down the seaway to Nova Scotia, at the Lake Orion-Oxford rally.

The meeting, scheduled from 9:45 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., will be at the Howarth Methodist Church, a quarter-mile east of M24 on Silverbell road.

A silent auction of white elephants, to be donated by members, will be used to start a district treasury to help with hall rentals and purchase of materials for lessons throughout the year.

A potluck dinner will be followed by officers' training.

A representative of the Bannow Flower Shop in Utica will demonstrate how to make flower arrangements at the Birmingham-Royal Oak - Southfield rally Sept. 30. This meeting will begin at 9:45 a.m. at Northland Shopping Center, Room C.

An installation of local club chairmen will be included with officers' training in the afternoon session.

When Is a Duck Not a Duck but a Chicken?

NEW YORK (AP)—A duckling at the Bronx Zoo thinks he's a chicken. He can't stand ducks.

The duck really is a victim of circumstance, and shouldn't be blamed, says Corrine Dalsgaard, a zoo official.

"I sneaked a duck egg under a nesting hen," she said, "And they all hatched together early this summer.

Americans spent $57.7 billion for farm-grown foods in 1958, but farmers got only $20.8 billion of that. The rest went for maketing costs.

Plants, Trees Reveal Possible Ore Lodes

KENT, Ohio (UPI) — Prospectors don't necessarily start digging wherever they see a horsetail plant, but the fact is that this odd-looking bit of vegetation frequently crops up near rich lodes of gold.

Martin L. Davey, Jr., a tree expert here, also says that hickory trees similarly often indicate manganese and aluminum depots while certain grasses flourish only where the soil contains lead.

Approximately 18 per cent of all the cacao produced in the world comes from sources in Brazil.

Says Living Life of Ghost No Fun

HAMILTON, Bermuda (UPI) — "Please be advised," said the paid ad in The Royal Gazette, a Hamilton newspaper, "that Mrs. Velma Burgess is very well and looking after her children in St. George's. Rumors of her passing away were erroneous."

Mrs. Burgess, a 47-year-old housewife, had no idea how the report of her death got around, but said she took the ad to end the "nightmare." She said, "people even started touching and pinching me to make sure I was alive. Believe me, living the life of a ghost for seven days is no fun, no fun at all!"

Teenagers Wee-Shod

WATERTOWN, Mass. (UPI) — The average teenage American girl accounts for an average purchase of seven pairs of shoes a year — nearly twice the national average for all persons, according to the B. F. Goodrich footwear division. An increasing portion of this $175-million annual market is going to casual shoes of the canvas-topped, rubber-soled type, a market survey by the company revealed.

Cadillac Water Supply Needs More Chlorine

CADILLAC (AP) — The State Health Department has informed Cadillac for the second consecutive week that its municipal water supply requires more chlorine to end possible contamination.

Cadillac's water treatment involves chlorination of Lake Cadillac water as it passes into city mains for distribution. The increased chlorination was urged after the state found bacteria above a recommended level in the lake supply.

Say Tax Crisis Is Artificial

Legislators Give Wrong View, Planner Claims; Says Towns Should Aid

LANSING (AP)—Michigan's tax problem "has been built up by the state legislature" to appear to outsiders as a bigger handicap than it actually is, an industrial planning consultant has told the state economic development department.

"You can't go into a state that is well governed, with good highways and well developed resources and citizens generally receiving benefits without finding relatively high taxes," said Stuart P. Walsh of San Francisco.

Walsh, an occasional consultant for the state development agency, has offices in Los Angeles, New York and Washington.

He stressed the importance of local help in attracting new industry, saying, "You can't bring industry to Michigan unless it has a place to light. The local community must take over and complete the sales job."

Walsh named the Lansing and Ann Arbor areas as natural places for expansion of West Coast research and technological industries.

He said the engineering schools at Michigan State University and the University of Michigan could stimulate such expansion.

He added that the Boston area is doing the most to attract these industries eastward with good success.

"But Boston has nothing to offer that Lansing and Ann Arbor don't have," Walsh said. "Michigan is really closer to a larger segment of industry than the East Coast."

Brown Boosts 3 for No. 2 Post

California Leader Puts Leak in His Own Hopes for Presidency

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Gov. Edmund Brown today mentioned three Western Democrats as possible candidates for vice president in 1960.

★ ★ ★

His statement may not puncture the Brown-for-president balloon, but it may put a leak in it.

★ ★ ★

The Democratic governor has not said definitely he will seek the nomination. Nor has he discouraged growing belief that he would like a crack at it.

Another Westerner on the ticket would cancel out Brown.

★ ★ ★

Even so, he listed Sen. Clair Engle of California, Gov. Stephen McNichols of Colorado and Sen. Henry W. Jackson of Washington as possible choices for vice president.

★ ★ ★

Brown offered up the three names in discussing his proposal for a Western Democratic bloc.

Brown previously suggested the seven Democratic governors in the 11-state Far West discuss regional issues and possibly unite behind a presidential candidate.

Telephone Makes It Bearable

3 Stay in Cave 12 Days

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)—Three Indiana University students—two teenagers and one 20-year-old—today credited a telephone with making endurable a 12-day stay in a cold, damp cave.

Bearded and smeared with clay, they crawled out of the sewer-like entrance of Wayne Cave Wednesday night and claimed a record for a voluntary stay in a cavern.

Dick Martin of Terre Haute, Ind., oldest of the trio and president of the I. U. Memorial Union Spelunking Club, said cave enthusiasts had spent up to eight days in Kentucky and Pennsylvania caves.

"One of the main reasons we didn't get cabin fever was the telephone at the base camp about a quarter-mile inside the cave," Martin said. "We kept pretty busy mapping and exploring, and then we'd call our girls and our families on the phone."

They slept in tents equipped with gasoline stoves.

Reds Give No Reason for General Shakeup in Military Ranks

TOKYO (AP) — Marshal Peng Teh-huai, Communist China's defense minister, was replaced by Marshal Lin Piao today, Peiping radio announced.

The broadcast said the standing committee of the National People's Congress relieved Peng of his duty.

Peiping did not give any reason for the reshuffle.

Peiping announced these other changes in the military:

Gen. Huang Ke-cheng, chief of the general staff, replaced by Vice Premier Nieh Jung-chen.

Public Security Minister Lo Jui-ching replaced by Hsieh Fu-chi, member of the Communist party's Central Comittee.

As a personal friend, Gustav von Reis, who is a native of the same hometown as the champ, Goteborg, Sweden, will go over Ingemar's plans for his first defense of the title.

★ ★ ★

Von Reis of 1150 Westview Rd., Bloomfield Township, entertained Ingemar last June at his summer home in Hillsboro Beach, Fla., soon after Ingemar kayoed Floyd Patterson with a mighty right to the jaw to gain the world's heavyweight title.

★ ★ ★

A wealthy industrialist, von Reis is president of the Detroit Broach and Machine Co., at Rochester.

Johansson, 26, is scheduled to arrive at Detroit by plane at about 8 a.m. Tuesday, flying from Goteborg by way of London.

News of Johannson's forthcoming visit was revealed by the McCarnn, Erickson public relations firm in Detroit, representing von Reis.

★ ★ ★

Johansson is scheduled to appear at a press luncheon at the Detroit Athletic Club Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

Other details of the visit, which will last until Thursday, have not been worked out, the spokesman said.

★ ★ ★

But Ingemar will make some public appearances in Detroit, he added.

★ ★ ★

Von Reis, 36, has been in America since 1926, and he is Ingemar's best friend in this country.

No definite date for the next fight with Patterson has been arranged.

Behind-scenes promoting of their last battle is still under investigation in New York, although the honesty of the fight itself has not be questioned.

★ ★ ★

Von Reis' representative, to whom he referred all questions, said Johansson will leave here next Thursday going to "several cities" on business.

Johansson's business consultant in Florida, attorney William Kelley, has said that the champion will go to California in early October for a television appearance and to start a motion picture.

★ ★ ★

Von Reis' daughter, Siri, who got in the news last Saturday when she walked out on her wedding, is "out of town" and not expected to be back during Ingemar's visit.

Siri, 28, left Boston a few hours before she was to be married to Arthur G. B. Metcalf, 51, president of Electronics Corp. of America.

Prices of Big 3 Cars About Same in '60

DETROIT (UP)—Ward's Automotive Reports said today a survey of the big three auto manufacturers indicates their prices "generally will not be increased" for 1960 model cars.

★ ★ ★

In some instances, Ward's said, the prices will be decreased from the 1959 models.

★ ★ ★

Ward's, a statistical service, said an industry "stand pat" policy on 1960 prices will be its answer to inflation.

Forced Prayer Illegal in Schools in Pennsylvania

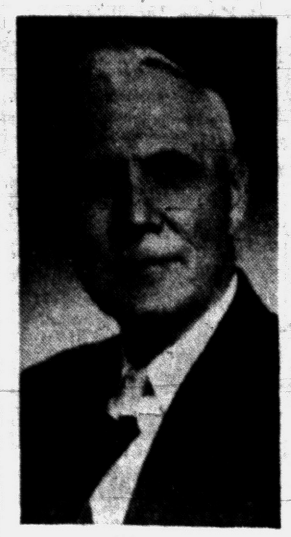

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A special federal court has ruled that the reading of the Bible and the compulsory recitation of The Lord's Prayer in Pennsylvania's public schools are illegal.

Three judges ruled Wednesday the two violated the 1st and 14th amendments of the U.S. Constitution.

The decision stemmed from action brought by Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Schempp of suburban Roslyn against the Abington Township School Dist. on behalf of their three children. The Schempps are Unitarians.

Castro Jumps Tax on Liquor 500 Pct.

HAVANA (UPI) — Premier Fidel Castro's cabinet, apparently hoping to decrease drinking in Cuba, has decided to increase taxes on wine and liquor 500 per cent or more effective Oct. 1.

At the same time, 5 cents will be added to the beer tax.

The taxes presumably will apply to purchases made by American tourists, although some adjustment might be made of the purchaser proves he will take the bottle out of the country unopened.

Cold Antarctica Awaiting Spring

U.S. Navy Keeps Up Its Work; Would Unlock Long-Frozen Secrets

WASHINGTON — Spring is coming to the world's coldest laboratory — Antarctica. The sun's return quickens scientific activity.

Though the International Geophysical Year has passed, exploration of the bleak, frigid continent goes on.

The United States Navy operates four stations on a year-round basis, and during the 1959-60 season will mount its fifth consecutive Operation Deep Freeze in support of American research.

The National Science Foundation, which administers the U.S. Antarctic Research Program, will emphasize geology, cartography, and biology during the coming summer.

★ ★ ★

Pending projects include a study of the Adelie penguin, one of two species that inhabit the edge of the continent, and an expedition into the little-known waters of the Bellingshausen and Amundsen Seas.

NO PLACE MORE HOSTILE

Little by little, adventurous scientists and technicians are unlocking the secrets of a vast land nearly twice the size of the United States, the National Geographic Society says.

Only penguins, seals, sea birds, small lichens, mosses, and algae live there by choice. No other region on earth is colder or more hostile to man.

At the Soviet Union's Vostok IGY station, scientists have recorded the planet's lowest temperature—minus 125.3 degrees. Antarctic stores most of the world's ice; at some places it is 14,000 feet thick.

In winter the entire continent feels the last of wind. The world's breeziest spot is Commonwealth Bay, where cold afr from the ice plateau stirkes with a screaming, tearing force of 200 miles an hour.

★ ★ ★

The Antarctic is not without surprises and paradoxes. Little snow seems to fall now except in warmer areas on the coasts. During the winter that Antarctic veteran Paul A. Siple and 17 other Americans manned an IGY station at the South Pole, they measured only six inches of new fall.

In midsummer the Pole receives more sunlight than any place on earth. About 95 per cent is reflected, however, so the bottom of the world remains exceedingly icy.

This was not always the case. Some 300 miles from the Pole, an exploratory party has found petrified trees, leaf fossiles, seashells, and coal beds—sure signs that Antarctica was once a lush, green continent.

★ ★ ★

An active volcano, 13,200-foot Mount Erebus, overlooks the waters of McMurdo Sound where the Navy maintains an important air facility. In a section of Marie Byrd Land, the ice sheet is strewn with volcanic rocks, but there are no other signs of recent volcanic activity.

Patient Drives Ambulance as Driver Dies

FILIPSTAD, Sweden (AP)—The sirens went dead, the ambulance driver slumped over the wheel.

The patient inside the ambulance waited.

Finally, after 15 minutes the patient, Lars Elan, got off his stretcher and staggered to the front of the ambulance. The driver, Harald Persson, 57, was dead.

Mobilizing all his strength Elan moved the body and drove the ambulance two miles to the hospital.

★ ★ ★

Doctors said Elan was suffering from a severe infection with high fever, but is out of danger.

The driver was believed to have had a heart attack.

Congress, Dems, World Bank . . . All Take Back Seat

Nikita Puts Other News in Shade

WASHINGTON (AP) — How do you compete with a show stealer like Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev?

This has been a real problem for some people here who decided long ago that mid - September would be a good time to do something that would get the spotlight.

★ ★ ★

Take the Democrats.

Their National Committee convened Wednesday for an important session that might, under other circumstances, have provided the big Washington news of the day.

★ ★ ★

Now the Democrats are well back in the shadows cast by the bulky visitor from Moscow.

"Khrushchev has swept the boards," commented one downcast politican.

The World Bank is another organization that has run into this press agent's nightmare.

Just a few hours after Khrushchev's arrival, the bank made a long - scheduled announcement that its capital resources have been doubled by new pledges from member nations.

★ ★ ★

"This is the biggest thing that has happened to the bank since it was established 15 years ago," one official said.

★ ★ ★

"But how were we to know in advance about Mr. K?"

Although not precisely scheduled in advance, the adjournment of Congress early Tuesday was another big item that got put in the shade.

When Congress heads for home it's usually the big news of the day.

However, this time even Congress couldn't come close to getting an even break with the Soviet Premier.

Fight Own Civil War

APPLETON, Wis. (UPI)—Mrs. Louella Voight told a judge yesterday that her husband, Alvin, caled her a "rebel" and beat her. Voight, a southerner, charged with assault and battery, countered by saying that his wife had called him a "Yankee."

The U.S. Department of Agriculture was established in 1869.

Perpetual Opponent of Vishinsky

Peruvian to Head General Assembly

By United Press International

The man who gained a reputation for being a fit opponent to the master himself, who nicknamed him "the White Vishinsky" was elected Tuesday president of the United Nations General Assembly.

★ ★ ★

The sobriquet of "the White Vishinsky" was bestowed on Peru's Dr. Victor Andres Belaunde by none other than Russia's late, eloquent Andrei Y. Vishinsky. The Soviet purge trial prosecutor paid the tribute to Belaunde's mettle as an apt debating opponent to the Kremlin's "Red Vishinsky."

Belaunde, 76, has been a U.N. landmark since he represented Peru at the San Francisco Charter conference in 1945. He has been chief of the Peruvian delegation at all Assembly sessions since 1949.

His sparse, straight-combed hair, clipped mustache and black tie became famous as he presided over the Assembly's special political committee (in 1950) and its main political committee (1956), sitting in the Security Council and disarmament commission (1955-56).

An outstanding advocate of the universality in U.N. membership, Belaunde was a leader in the movement that broke the logjam behind Soviet vetoes and brought 16 members into the United Nations in the 1955 package deal.

ACTED FOR PEACE

He was a leading figure in promoting the 1950 "uniting for peace" resolution which empowered the General Assembly to act in peace and security cases when action in the Security Council is paralyzed by a veto.

Victor Andres Belaundey Canesco was born at Arequipa, Peru, Dec. 15, 1883. Holder of doctorates of law, philosophy, history and arts, he twice served on the faculty of the University of San Marcos, his alma mater, and taught Latin-American History and Literature courses at Columbia, Middlebury, Vermont, Williams, Rice, Virginia, Chicago and Miami Universities in the United States.

He was elected vice president of the Catholic University of Lima in 1942.

★ ★ ★

Belaunde is the fifth Latin-American to hold the Assembly presidency. His predecessors were Oswaldo Aranha of Brazil, Dr. Jose Arce of Argentina, Dr. Luis Padilla Nervo of Mexico and Jose Maza of Chile.

The veteran diplomat and his Peruvian wife, Teresa Moryray Paz Soldan, have eight children and 18 grandchildren.

Scotch Is Weak, Jovial Nikita Tells Newsmen

WASHINGTON (AP)—"Oh, capitalist," said Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

That was his grinning acknowledgement of an introduction at the National Press Club Wednesday to publisher William Randolph Hearst Jr.

A big laugh rang out in the room.

Khrushchev then quoted a Russian proverb:

"Two mountains may never meet, but two people can meet."

Khrushchev took a glass of scotch and soda. Asked how he liked it, he got another laugh by saying, "spoiled water."

★ ★ ★

A press club official asked if he wanted more soda and he replied, "It's difficult to know whether it needs more soda or more scotch."

Liberia is the independent country which the United States established on the west coast of Africa for freed slaves. It now has a population of 2½ million.

TOUGH GUY — Once again displaying his colorful public speaking flair, the Soviet premier turned to sharp gestures as he spoke before the National Press Club in Washington yesterday. He told the newsmen abolition of the Cold War is important to all nations of the world.

Premier Answers Press Questions

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Following is a digest of some key points made by Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev during a question-and-answer period after his address to the National Press Club:

Q: This next question has come up in several forms, but this one will be representative of a large number:

In your opening remarks, Mr. Khrushchev, you spoke about avoiding outside interference in the affairs of other nations. How, then, do you justify Russian armed interference in Hungary?

A: Well, you see the question of Hungary has stuck in some people's throats as a dead rat. He feels that it is unpleasant and yet he cannot spit it out. If there is a desire that our discussion here take that turn, of course we, for our part, could think up of quite a few questions of a similar character.

I have had occasion to explain our position on this matter a number of times, and it was—the pleasure was particularly great to expound our position on that matter before the Hungarian people themselves, when I came there as a guest last year after the events in Hungary, and I can assure you that it was a warm and enthusiastic response that we received there on the part of the Hungarian people. We have a long time ago done away with any questions that might have caused difficulties between the Hungarian people and ourselves. We are marching together with them along one road. They are building socialism and we are building communism, and we have one aim and one purpose.

Q: We are always anxious to get a little advance news too, Mr. Khrushchev. What is your time schedule for sending a man to the moon?

A: We have no intention of throwing a man over to the moon because we value human life. Therefore, we would only consider sending a man to the moon when the technical possibilities are achieved. But they have not been achieved, I believe, so far.

★ ★ ★

Q: Was it strictly coincidence that the Soviet moon shot hit its target on the eve of your arrival here, and a related question: Does the sending of the emblem indicate any desire to claim possession of the moon?

A: The fact that the rocket was launched to the moon at about the same time, on the eve of my departure for the United States is a simple but a pleasant, I would say, coincidence.

If there are any doubts on that score, I would like you to address your own scientists and ask them whether it is possible to set the date of the launching of a rocket, to set the launching of a rocket to the moon to some paticular date? Now I would like to reply to the second part of that question as to whether that gives any reason for the Soviet Union to claim possession of the moon.

I do not want to offend anybody, but we represent different continents and different psychologies, and I would say that this question reflects Capitalist psychology, of a person thinking in terms of private ownership. (laughter.)

But I represent a Socialist country, where the word "mine" has long receded in the past and has been taken, and the word "our" has taken its place, and therefore when we launched this rocket and achieved this great thing, we look upon this as our victory, meaning the victory not only of our country but of all countries of all mankind.

Q: A number of questions reflect a great interest in another remark once attributed to you, Mr. Khrushchev, to a diplomat at a reception, that you would bury us.

If you didn't say it, say so, and if you did say it, could you explain what you meant?

A: Present here is only a very small portion of the American people. But if I were to start to try to bury even this group, one life would not be enough. I believe I did use that expression once, and if I did, I will try to explain why and what it means. To put it more precisely, the expression I used was distorted, and on purpose, because what was meant was not the physical burial of any people but the question of the historical force of development.

It is well known that at the present time no one social or economic system is dominant throughout the world, but that there are different systems, social systems in different countries. And those systems change. At one time the most widespread system of society in the world was feudalism.

Then capitalism took its place. Why was that? Because capitalism was a more progressive kind of a system than was feudalism.

As compared to feudalism captialism provided better opportunities to develop the productive forces of society. We believe that now capitalism has developed so far that it gave birth to certain fundamental differences within itself, and each society gives birth to the kind of society that will follow it. We believe that Karl Marx, Engles and Lenin gave scientific proof of the fact that the system, the social system of socialism would take the place of capitalism.

We believe in that. You do not, not all of you. I am sure there are people, many people under your form, system of society, who believe in that, and that is why I said that looking at the matter from the historical point of view, capitalism, socialism, communism, would take the place of capitalism and capitalism thereby would be, so to speak, buried.

You will say that that cannot be. But it will be recalled that in the ages past, feudals used to burn people who said that feudalism would disappear. Yet capitalism came to take the place of feudalism.

Now, capitalism is struggling, fighting against communism. I personally am convinced that communism would be victorious, as a system of society which provides better possibilities for the development of a country's productive forces, which enables every person to develop his capacities best, and insures full freedom of a person in that society. Many of you will not agree with that, but that means that I cannot agree with you either.

What is to be done? Let us each of us live under the system which we prefer, you under capitalism, and we will continue to build under communism.

All that is not progressive will die away once, because if Capitalists, the capitalist society is a better form of society and gives better opportunities to develop a country's productive forces, then certainly it would win.

But we think that the short history of the existence of our state does not speak in your favor, What place does a country hold in economics before the revolution and in the development in the world? It was an illiterate country. Today the rate of literacy in our country is higher than anyone else. We now have 106,000 engineers graduate from our universities each year, which is three times more than this country.

Some say that the more scientists we have, the sooner will communism collapse. Then we seem to be working to our own end, but that is not the case. We regard communism as a science.

"WELL, I DID, BUT . . ." — A brisk exchange between Khrushchev and Press Club newsmen took place in a question and answer session after his speech. The premier was asked if he hadn't once said "we will bury you" in regard to Western capitalism. He admitted he had and went on to explain why.

ALL IN LINE OF DUTY — No, that's not Nikita in a policeman's uniform holding hands with Nina Khrushchev. But it is Nina Khrushchev holding hands with another man in a policeman's uniform. The Beltsville, Md. officer wasn't out of line, however. He was escorting Mrs. K back to her car.

Telephoned Warning Reveals No Bombs

NEW YORK (AP) — Police searched the Hotel Commodore Wednesday night after an anonymous warning that three bombs had been planted there in anticipation of the arrival there today of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

No bombs were found.

A man telephoned about 10 p m. and said: "Get yourself and all other Americans out of the hotel. We have planted three bombs already."

Khrushchev Views TV, but Reaction Unknown

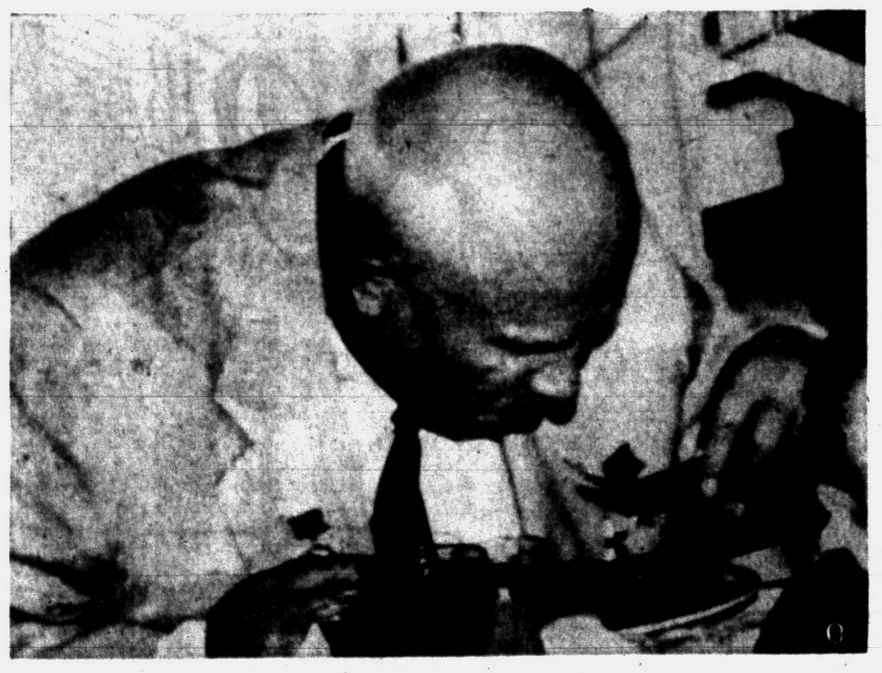

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev got a peek at American-style television Wednesday. What he thought of it was not disclosed.

A U.S. official who was in Blair House during midafternoon reported he saw the Premier and Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov huddled in front of a TV set.

TYPICAL TOURISTS — Like most visitors to Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Khrushchev went on a sightseeing jaunt to the Lincoln Memorial yesterday. Others with them include official guide Henry Cabot Lodge (between Khrushchevs), Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko (wearing hat) and, to Gromyko's left, Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov.

DEVOTED EATER — When Khrushchev sits down to eat, it would probably be advisable not to disturb him. Here he really dives into lunch served at the National Press Club before his speech. Note European style of handling knife and fork.

Senator Envies Khrushchev's Dinner Attire

WASHINGTON (AP) — There's one thing about Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev that has aroused at least one senator's envy.

Khrushchev refuses to wear a white tie and tailcoat for any occasion.

Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark), Senate Foreign Relations Committee chairman, cut short a news conference grumbling apologetically that he had to go home and change into formal attire for Wednesday night's Soviet Embassy party in honor of President Eisenhower.

Reminded that Khrushchev himself wouldn't be wearing a soup-and-fish, Fulbright grinned and replied: "I'm thinking seriously, that might be one of his customs that's superior."

Prominent Americans Support Ike on Visits

NEW YORK (AP) — Fifty-four prominent Americans have cheered on President Eisenhower in his talks with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

In an open letter to the American people, the group said the meeting should be considered as occurring "in an atmosphere of constructive hope."

Those signing the letter included Sen. Richard Neuberger (D-Ore); Dr. Robert F. Goheen, president of Princeton University; publisher John Cowles; Norman Thomas; Dr. Martin Luther King; and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

If Capitalism Wins Out, Which Party for Nikita?

WASHINGTON (AP) — History will decide whether capitalism or communism is best for the people, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee Wednesday.

What if capitalism wins out?

That's impossible, he said, but added he would have to go along if it did.

'Nixon Wrong About Moon Flops'

Nikita Would Swear on Bible

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev said Wednesday he would "swear on the Bible" that Vice President Richard M. Nixon was wrong when Nixon said Russia's successful moon shot last Sunday was preceded by three failures.

Khrushchev also challenged Nixon to take a similar oath on the Bible if the vice president thought his own account of the moon shot failures were correct.

The Soviet Premier ridiculed Nixon's remarks during his late afternoon meeting with members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and other senators.

His reference to the Bible in disputing Nixon at the closed door meeting was highly unusual for a leader of the Soviet Union where the promotion of atheism is official policy.

His offer to exchange oaths with Nixon was relayed to newsmen by Senators who were present.

Although disputing Nixon's remark about the three failures, Khrushchev conceded that the moon rocket would have been launched a week earlier if some technical defects had not been detected.

He told the senators his own government had not authorized him to talk about the moon rocket. He said he hoped he would not be "condemned" in Moscow for doing so.

FACES IN THE CROWD — Mixed expressions appear on the faces of spectators outside the Press Club watching Khrushchev's arrival there yesterday. The usual policemen were on hand in the continued high-pressure security setup for the visiting Russian leader.

Plan Vote on Sewers

DETROIT (AP) — City Council has agreed to place on the Aug. 2, 1960, ballot the question of issuing 50 million dollars in bonds for new sewer construction. The city already has under way a 45-million-dollar sewer construction program for 1959-61.

$1,500 FOR PARK SHELTER — Mrs. George Gray, president of the Wever-Owen-Hawthorne Community Club presented a $1,500 check to David Ewald (right), director of Parks and Recreation. The money, raised during Labor Day festivities opening the park, is to be used toward the construction of a park shelter at Hawthorne Park. Floyd P. Doctors Change Smoking Habits

Massachusetts Report Favors Warning Youth of Potential Dangers

BOSTON (AP) — Massachusetts doctors report pronounced changes in their own smoking habits in the last five years. Now, almost all say teenagers should be warned they risk lung cancer from cigarette smoking, a survey in the New England Journal of Medicine reported today.

★ ★ ★

More than 93 per cent of 4,576 physicians polled by representatives of the New England Deaconess Hospital Cancer Research Institute and the Harvard School of Public Health favored warning youth of the potential dangers from smoking cigarettes.

The five-year follow-up study of a survey made in 1954 was reported by Dr. Leonid S. Snegireff and Miss Olive M. Lombard of the hospital research institute and the Harvard school.

Among the 4 per cent who opposed an educational campaign, some expressed the opinion that teenagers would not heed the advice. Others said such a campaign would be hopeless in view of heavy sums spent by cigarette advertisers.

★ ★ ★

In five years the percentage of doctors who do not smoke at all jumped from 34 per cent to 45 per cent, the survey said.

Those smoking only cigars and/or pipes now total 17 per cent.

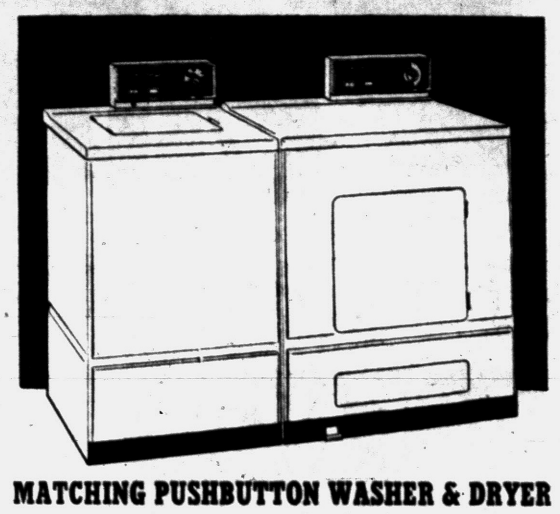

The number smoking cigarettes fell from 52 per cent to 39 per cent.

There was a 40 per cent drop in the proportion smoking a package or more per day.

A new airborne searchlight, which generates 130,000,000 candle power, provides more light than one million automobile headlamps.

Keep Quiet Senator, Say Workers on Pay

BATH, Maine (UPI)—State Sen. Rodney E. Ross of Bath says that he got into trouble with some shipyard workers because he sponsored a law providing a minimum wage of $1 an hour.

The legislator said one worker turned to another and said: "I wish this Ross would keep quiet. We're getting $2.40 an hour and now he wants to give us only a dollar."

See California Boom

NEW YORK (UPI) — California is expected to be the most populous state by 1970, increasing its present number of inhabitants by 6 million to 20 million, according to the Metopolitan Life Insurance Co. Nevada and Arizona, with increases of about 66 per cent, should lead in rate of growth.

The first bridge across the Mississippi was constructed at Davenport, Iowa in 1853.

Cold Air Sets Fire

JAMESTOWN, N.Y. (UPI—Cold air was partly to blame for a fire at a home while it was being remodeled here. Firemen said a dismantled sink had been set atop a furnace register. When the temperature dropped one night, the furnace went on automatically. The heat deflected off the sink and set fire to the upholstered furniture standing nearby.

Muskegon County to Get Vote on Airport Millage

MUSKEGON (AP) — Muskegon County supervisors have agreed to an Oct. 29 millage vote for airport improvements but rejected a similar proposal for extra millage to help ease an estimated $500,000 county operating deficit.

Approval of additional millage for airport improvements, officials said, would finance a master plan making the facility eligible for state and federal aid and bring to upwards of two million dollars for airport development.

Only 37 Among 243 Ore Boats Operating

CLEVELAND (AP) — Only 37 of 243 ships in the American Great Lakes iron ore fleet are operating. The most of these are in coal and grain trade, M. A. Hanna Co. reports.

The United Steelworkers' strike has tied up the remainder of the fleet.

A year ago on this date 173 of 248 ore boats were hauling cargo, Hanna Co. said.

LEMON CHIP COOKIES — Brand new lemon chips, the size of the famous chocolate flavored ones, make these cookies unusual. Chocolate is used in the cookie itself. Try this different recipe for a summer treat.

New Lemon Chips Give Color, Taste to Cookies

Are you open to inspiration? If so, I have some inspiring news for you today. It's about a brand new product, just now coming into our markets, and it promises to spark lots of new ideas for using that most refreshing summer flavor—lemon—in all sorts of wonderful ways.

★ ★ ★

Lemon flavor chips is the name of this new product. Similar in size and shape to chocolate and caramel chips, and with six full ounces in each package, these delicious, lemon-y nuggets will make it simpler and easier to increase our range of flavor combinations in sauces, frostings and other desserts.

★ ★ ★

You'll find recipes on the (green and yellow) package of lemon chips—a sauce, a frosting and a cooky—but here's a recipe for still another cooky I think you'll enjoy trying.

★ ★ ★

They're chocolate cookies, rich and deep-flavored, to which the new lemon chips add a flavor and color contrast that is extraordinarily delicious and different. I hope they'll inspire you to all sorts of experimentation on your own.

Lemon Chip Chocolate Cookies

1¾ cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon soda
½ cups shortening
1 cup granulated sugar
1 egg, beaten
2 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
¾ cup buttermilk or sour milk
1 cup (6 ounces) lemon chips

★ ★ ★

Combine sifted flour, salt and soda, and sift together. Cream shortening, add sugar gradually and cream thoroughly. Blend in egg and slightly cooled chocolate. Stir in sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk, mixing well after each addition. Add lemon chips and mix well.

Drop from teaspoon on lightly greased baking sheet and bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 10 minutes, or until done. Makes about 5 dozen cookies.

Extra Batch of Rolls Goes Into Freezer

When you bake bread or rolls, make two batches—one for now, one for the freezer. Do not frost or decorate before freezing. Wrap bread and rolls carefully in freezer paper. Seal edges, label and store.

To thaw, remove from freezer and let stand, wrapped, at room temperature for 2 to 3 hours. Place in 350-degree oven for 20-30 minutes. Unwrap, frost and decorate.

Meats for Fall Cooking in Good Supply Now

Is the family off to school or work? Then let's look at the food supply situation for this week suggests Mrs. Josephine Lawyer, MSU Marketing Agent. Let's decide the food we'll include on the shopping list.

Most red meat prices are the same or slightly higher than last week. Retailers report that the strike in the meat industry is contributing to this. Shoppers will find fewer features on fryers than a week ago. Turkeys, from 4 to 20 pounds, are available at 39 to 49 cents per pound.

Some locally grown produce items are increasing in price as supplies grow smaller and customer demand continues about as it has been. Effects of hot weather are evident on many items, particularly apples, celery, tomatoes. Michigan's lettuce crop is coming to a close and the quality being received from California varies from poor to good.

MEATS TO CHOOSE

Cooler weather may suggest a change in meats for the family. A blade chuck roast will serve about two persons from each pound when you brown it, add liquid, then cover and cook slowly until fork tender.

If you wish to use blade chuck for steak, choose U.S. Choice grade and broil it rare. It will be tougher than the more tender steaks, but at about 60 cents a pound compared to $1.20 to $1.30 for sirloin of the same grade, you may be very pleased with the results.

Ground beef is the "economy choice" of all beef cuts. At 39 to 59 cents a pound many homemakers will be checking new ways to use it. Smoked pork—especially ham, bacon and frankfurters is featured this week. At 69 cents a pound, a whole ham costs 20 cents or less per serving.

This is the season when lamb supplies are very adequate. If lambs your meat, you might choose a shoulder roast for 55 to 79 cents a pound. (Have the butcher remove the bones and tie the roast for easy carving). A leg roast of 59 to 83 cents a pound will serve three portions per pound compared to two for the shoulder roast.

POULTRY IN THE NEWS

Laying flocks are being culled and a lot of older hens, which we call "stewers," will be in the markets this month and next.

Stewers usually weigh 5 to 6 pounds, and will simmer fork tender in about two hours. Or cook in a 350 degree oven (with the lid on) for 2½ hours.

A roaster or turkey can be your choice for 20 to 25 cents a serving.

The siege of hot weather recently experienced in Michigan affcted quality of califlower, celery, tomatoes and other produce.

APPLES

Michigan Wealthy and McIntosh apples are being marketed but you may find they are not mature enough for the flavor you like, when eating out of hand. Pies, sauce, tarts or cobblers are just a few suggestions for ways to use early crop apples.

Don't let color influence your buying apples. Color has nothing to do with flavor. The hot weather faded previous apple coloring and has generally retarded coloring.

Peach season is drawing to an end.

There is still a good supply of green peppers, cucumbers and eggplant. If wondering which eggplant to pick, take the one with a bright glossey skin, one of medium size that feels heavy for its size.

A big crop of dry onions is being harvested. Michigan yellow onions are available for adding flavor to cooked foods for as little as four cents a pound.

Potatoes are mostly from Michigan and Idaho and are a daily must in most homes; are 3 to 8 cents a pound.

Again because of weather conditions, homegrown tomato quality has not been as good as we'd like. Shop carefully. Ripen tomatoes at room temperature before refrigerating them.

Use Enough Coffee

Complete instructions fro making perfect coffee are being printed on the top of many vacuum-packed coffee cans. The directions follow the recommendations of the Coffee Brewing Institute and call for two level tablespoons or one standard coffee measure of coffee for ¾ cup of water. Remember, good coffee deserves good brewing.

Serve Tomato Gumbo as Vegetable

NEW YORK (UPI) — Fresh tomato gumbo, Georgia style, can be served as a vegetable course. In a saucepan, combine 3 cups of diced fresh tomatoes, 2 cups of sliced fresh okra, 1 cup of uncooked fresh corn cut off the cob, ¼ cup of boiling water and 1 small finely chopped onion.

Cover and cook until vegetables are tender and mixture thickens. Add salt to taste (using up to 3 teaspoons), 1 tablespoon of butter or margarine, ⅛ teaspoon of ground black pepper and 1 teaspoon of sugar. Serves 6.

Just Before Serving

When broiling meat, add salt just before serving. Home economists at Michigan State University say salt tends to draw juices to the surface of the meat and will help dry the meat if added too soon.

New Ideas to Build Better Meals

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

During the current campaign, entiled "Better Meals Build Better Families," we are concerned with adequate diets. Periodically, we review the requirements. In the precious article we listed the four food groups set up by the USDA.

Milk is an essential food regardless of your age. Drink it if you like it. If not, plan to get it into your diet in some other way. Remember that skim milk has all the essential elements and lacks only butterfat. Cheese and ice cream are both milk foods, you know.

* * *

For the gal on a diet sandwiches for lunch can be a real problem. She is barred from all the mayonnaise mixtures. Perhaps the following recipe will be a help.

Slim-Down Sandwich

Chopped parsley
8 slices whole wheat bread, buttered
1 cup cottage cheese
¼ cup thinly sliced raw carrots
¼ cup thinly sliced radishes
2 teaspoons chives
Salt to taste

Sprinkle chopped parsley on buttered bread. Combine cottage cheese, carrots, radishes, chives and salt. Divide into 4 parts and spread on 4 slices of bread. Top with other 4 slices.

Meat is the mainstay of most dinners. Cheese, fish, eggs or legumes may be substituted, but [illegible] to add protein to the diet.

As we have said in the past, the cheaper cuts of meat are just as high in essential proteins as the most expensive steaks. Here are a few suggestions for meat dishes that won't break the budget:

Fried apples with browned link sausages go well with hot biscuits; meat loaf mixture made into muffin pan size loaves and baked with a barbecue sauce over them are a change from one big loaf; [illegible] beef can be "fancied" up with the addition of mushrooms, frozen peas and bits of browned almonds; frankfurters, sliced thick and arranged on a skewer with onions and dill pickles, make interesting kabobs.

Your choice of vegetables and fruits is almost unlimited. You have only to consider your purse and your family's likes. Just be sure to include some raw members of the group each day.

Both green peppers and zucchini squash are in good supply right now. A quick and easy meal may be made by filling squash or pepper cases with canned spaghetti. Top with buttered crumbs or grated Parmesan cheese and heat in a 350-degree oven about 20 minutes.

The Bread-Cereal group is one rarely neglected. Some children are apt to eat too much of this type of food, then be too full for the necessary meat and vegetables.

Hot cereal will taste a little different if you put a pat of butter or margarine, some brown sugar and milk on top of it. The coffee cake recipe uses a mix. You may substitute strained baby food for the apricot filling.

Apricot Swirl Coffee Cake

1 package easy coffee cake mix
1 egg, unbeaten
⅓ cup milk
¼ cup canned apricot filling

Heat oven to moderate (375 degrees F.). Place egg and milk in large bag of mix. Squeeze upper part of bag to force air out. Close top of bag by holding tightly between thumb and index finger.

With bag resting on table, mix by working bag vigorously with fingers. (Mix about 40 seconds or until egg is completely blended.) Squeeze bag to empty batter into special aluminum foil pan contained in package.

Spoon apricot filling over top of batter and swirl into batter with a spatula. Sprinkle cinnamon topping from smaller bag over top of coffee cake. Bake about 25 minutes. Open corner folds of pan for easy cutting and serving.

BASIC FOODS — Stuff colorful fall vegetables with canned spaghettis . . . Italian-style spaghetti and spaghetti with ground beef . . . for tempting supper treats. Crunchy tossed green salad and crisp bread sticks make the perfect accompaniment.

Fruit Shake Is for Breakfast

Teenagers need a good breakfast . . . looking for a way to interest teenagers in your family in starting the day right? Try a beginner with sparkling red glasses of cranberry juice cocktail. It has been so enriched with vitamin C that ½ cup serving supplies enough of this vitamin for the recommended daily requirement.

Perhaps you'd like to try this surprise Cranberry Shake on the morning menu. It's a smooth tasting beverage and no one would suspect an egg was the secret to the success of its taste. For folks on the run it's good to have breakfast in a glass.

Cranberry Shake

1 pint cranberry juice cocktail
½ cup orange juice
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons sugar
2 eggs
Cracked ice

Put ingredients except cracked ice in large bowl. Beat well with electric or hand beater. Pour over cracked ice to serve. Makes 4 servings.

After-School Treat Delicious, Nutritious

For afternoon snacks for hungry children or teenager parties get in on the secret of delicious cranberry juice cocktail combination. These combinations are good tasting, good to look at and healthy mixtures, too . . . Each one gets lots of extra fruit in the diet.

Cranberry Banana Shake

1 large banana
1 pint cold cranberry juice cocktail
½ cup vanilla ice cream

Peel banana. Slice into a bowl and beat with a rotary egg beater or electric mixer until smooth and creamy. Add cranberry juice cocktail and ice cream. Mix well. Serve immediately. Makes 4 servings. (For a colder drink add about 4 tablespoons crushed ice before mixing shake.)

Tickle Kids' Fancy With Waffled Toast

Is there a waffle iron in the house? Use it to give a new look to French toast, then serve the "waffles" for breakfast or brunch.

Waffle Iron French Toast

2 eggs, beaten
⅔ cup milk
¼ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons melted margarine or butter
8 to 10 slices day-old bread

Combine first five ingredients. Dip both sides of bread slices in egg mixture quickly—do not soak. Place dipped bread in pre-heated waffle iron. Toast is done when steam no longer hisses from waffle iron.

Serve with margarine or butter, topped with hot syrup, apple butter or molasses. To make them even more special, top with fresh or frozen berries or peaches.

If you have one of the new cake pans or shallow roasters that come with a flat slide-on cover, you can use it for storing cup custards in the refrigerator.

Sugar for Tomatoes

Frying halved tomatoes? Add a little sugar to the flour, salt and pepper mixture into which you dip them before they go in to the skillet.

NEW MILKSHAKE — Fun to drink, easy to make, is this new-flavored Choco-Peanut Milkshake to lighten the lunch work but raise the nutrition quota. Those artistic sandwiches with the triangular design are so simple to make. Just cut a white and a brown slice of bread in four pieces diagonally, and fit two pieces of each kind of bread together to make one sandwich layer.

Kids Will Love New Milkshake

It's amazing what wonders you can work with familiar foods and a tablespoon or two of imagination.

★ ★ ★

Everybody likes milkshakes. Lucky they do, because milkshakes are so nourishing. But honestly, did you ever make a Chocolate-Peanut Milkshake? The kids will think you did it entirely for fun, and never suspect the hefty nutrition you are handing them.

★ ★ ★

Best of all, Choco-Peanut Milkshakes are made with foods that you probably have in your pantry right this minute. The chocolate flavor is achieved in an instant by blending quick chocolate flavored mix with milk.

And the peanut accent for the chocolate is just a matter of blending in some peanut butter with the milk. You can shake up this easy item in a refrigerator container, and have Choco-Peanut Milkshakes ready that quickly.

Perhaps you'd like to serve Choco-Peanut Milkshakes to the children with Triangle Sandwiches as pictured, or with fruit salad for your own lunch. These easy Choco-Peanut Milkshakes have extra nutritional benefits since the quick chocolate flavored mix that makes them contains Vitamin D3 in each serving equal to one-half the minimum daily requirements, as well as food energy.

Choco-Peanut Milkshake

1 tablespoon cream style peanut butter
1 quart (4 cups) milk, divided
8 tablespoons quick chocolate flavored mix

Blend together peanut butter and ¼ cup of the milk. Place in a 1½-quart refrigerator container. Add remaining milk and quick chocolate flavored mix; stir to blend. Cover and chill; shake well before serving. Yield: 4 servings.

Quick Bread Nice to Keep on Hand

Moist and with fine flavor, this quick loaf is nice to have on hand.

Date-Nut Bran Loaf

1½ cups sliced dates (fresh if available)
1¼ cups boiling water
1½ cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon baking soda
¾ teaspoon salt
½ cup sugar
1½ cups ready-to-eat bran
1 egg (slightly beaten)
2 tablespoons butter or margarine (melted)
1 teaspoon vanilla
¾ cup coarsely broken walnuts

Pour boiling water over dates and allow to cool. Sift together the flour, baking powder, baking soda, salt and sugar. Stir bran, egg, melted butter and vanilla into cool date mixture. Add sifted dry ingredients; stir only until smooth.

★ ★ ★

Fold in walnuts. Turn into a buttered loaf pan (about 8½ by 4½ by 2½ inches). Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 50 to 55 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean.

Turn out on rack; turn right side up; cool. Store in tightly covered container.

Simmer Stuffed Veal in Herbed Apple Gravy

Cool days. Once more the family is hungry for food that is savory and frankly hearty . . . these stuffed Veal Rolls, for example.

Slices of veal are rolled around a bread stuffing pungent with the clean sharpness of onion and oregano . . . and with tangy canned apple sauce mixed through it. Then for even more zest, the Veal Rolls are simmered in a special Apple Gravy. They come to the table fork tender, richly brown, savory, glistening with that good pan gravy.

Such a dish requires only simple accompaniments such as Frenched green beans, hot rolls and a dish of carrot sticks, olives and celery; for dessert, individual baked custards and coffee. Appetizing and satisfying! So everybody's happy.

Here are the simple directions for making the Veal Rolls.

Veal Rolls With Apple-Onion Stuffing

2 cups chopped onion
¼ cup butter or margarine
2 cups canned apple sauce
1 cup soft bread cubes
Pinch Oregano
½ teaspoon salt
1¼ lbs veal (6 thin slices)
¼ cup shortening (4 tablespoons)
½ cup apple juice
Flour

Saute 1 cup onions in butter or margarine until golden brown; add 1 cup apple sauce, bread cubes, oregano and salt. Mix well. Spread an equal amount on each veal slice; roll-up jelly-roll fashion. Fasten together with string; brown rolls in 2 tablespoons shortening until light brown on all sides; remove from skillet.

Place 2 tablespoons shortening in skillet with remaining 1 cup onions; saute until delicate brown. Add veal rolls. Combine apple juice, remaining apple sauce; pour over rolls. Add another pinch of oregano; simmer 35-40 minutes, or until tender.

Thicken gravy in skillet with a little flour mixed to a smooth paste in cold water. Remove string from rolls; serve with gravy. Makes 4 servings.

Herb Rolls Are Brand New Idea

"Rosemary's for remembrance" . . . and also for these Parmesan Pan Rolls. It's distinctive flavor adds a subtle touch to fast-fix rolls made with yeast and biscuit mix. Just one rising and hardly any kneading is required for these treats.

Rosemary Parmesan Pan Rolls

¼ cup warm water (not hot—105 to 115 degrees F.)
1 package active dry yeast
2½ cups biscuit mix
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese
1 teaspoon rosemary

Dissolve yeast in warm, not hot, water. Stir in biscuit mix, Parmesan cheese and rosemay. Beat vigorously. Turn dough onto surface well dusted with biscuit mix. Shape in greased muffin pans 2¾x1¼ inches. Cover. Let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 45 to 60 minutes. Bake in 400 degree F. oven about 15 minutes.

Egg-Spinach Casserole

Grease a shallow baking dish and arrange about 2 cups of cooked spinach or beet greens in it. Top with deviled eggs, 2 halves for each person. Then pour a can of cream of chicken soup over all and sprinkle seasoned crumbs over the top. Bake about 20 minutes at 350 degrees until it is bubbly and brown on top. Serve with crisp carrot sticks and a big fruit salad.

Grade B Eggs Cheaper, Excellent for Cooking

Are Grade B eggs suitable for cooking? Yes, Grade B eggs are very usable for cooking, remarks the Michigan State University Marketing Agent.

★ ★ ★

Grade B eggs have larger air cells than Grade A eggs. The whites of Grade B eggs are less firm and the yolks don't stand so high when the eggs are broken.

★ ★ ★

While you might prefer Grade A eggs for poaching and frying, Grade B eggs are suitable for cooking and baking, and cost few cents less per dozen all year.

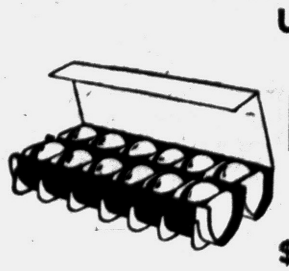

Heart of Head Lettuce Replaced With Cheese

Stuffed head lettuce is ideal to serve with fresh fruit. Remove the outside leaves from head lettuce and save them for tossed salads or soup. Wash and core the lettuce head and drain well. Combine to taste cream cheese and Roquefort or Bleu cheese, and pack in the cavity. Wrap lettuce in foil and chill overnight or 10 to 12 hours. Cut into wedges and serve with fresh fruit, if desired. Yield: 4 to 6 servings.

Fresh grapefruit sections give just the right tang to canned pineapple. Use the two fruits for a company compote.

Better Write Thank You at Once

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: My son was married recently. On the day of the wedding a corsage arrived for me from the bride's mother. I hadn't expected this and my husband had already ordered flowers for me. The flowers sent by the bride's mother did not go well with my dress so I left them home in the refrigerator and wore the flowers my husband bought for me.

"My son tells me that the bride's mother was hurt because I did not wear the flowers she sent. Will you please tell me if I was obliged to wear the flowers she sent even though they did not go well with my dress? Also, should I write and thank her for having sent me the flowers?"

Anwer: It was not necessary to wear flowers that did not go with your dress, but you should have shown how much you appreciated her kindness in sending you such lovely flowers by thanking her warmly and explaining how disappointed you were to find that they did not go with your dress and that therefore you could not wear them. If you have not already done so, do write immediately your thanks and explanation.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When a relative informs a bride-to-be that she is going to give her her silver or china for a wedding present, is it proper for the bride-to-be to tell the giver what pattern she would like, or must she leave the choice entirely up to the giver?"

Answer: She might say, "Oh, that is too wonderful of you, Aunt Jane, I can't thank you enough" and add, "If I can have my choice of patterns I love the King pattern." Usually she will not have to do this because Aunt Jane will ask her what pattern she prefers.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Whenever my husband and I have friends over to our house or go out with them, he believes in helping the other women first, such as lighting their cigarettes before mine, serving drinks, etc. I am mostly concerned with his lighting another woman's cigarette before mine. I say he should see that I am taken care of first. He does not agree. Who is right?"

Answer: Your husband is right.

Mrs. Arnold Brown pours a cup of tea for Mrs. John Williams as Mrs. Ivan A. LaCore looks on. Mrs. Williams of Green Lake was chairman of the tea held yesterday by the Auxiliary to the Oakland County Medical Society.

Fib About Ages, Dates and Jobs

Teenagers Admit Dishonesty in Small Ways

By EUGENE GILBERT

It seems to be the judgment of most American teenagers that a little dishonesty is a necessary thing.

Our latest sampling of teenage thought shows the belief to be prevalent that little white lies in the fields of dating, school examinations and household chores do little harm.

However, taking money—even small change — from a parent's pocketbook without permission is dishonesty of another color. It's a teenage taboo.

What seem to the youngsters to be the whitest of all white lies, we found in questioning 656 of them across the nation, is lying about one's age in order to get a summer job. Ninety-two per cent saw nothing wrong with it.

★ ★ ★

A 16-year-old Oklahoma City boy rationalizes that "age limits are too high anyway." And 13-year-old Alice Easter of Birmingham, Ala. says, "If I were mature enough to do the job, age shouldn't matter."

FIB ABOUT DATES

Among the small minority who say they wouldn't lie about their age was 15-year-old Allan Doremus of Salt Lake City who warns: "Lies backfire on you."

Another fabrication teenagers often regard as the better part of valor is telling their parents they returned home from a date earlier than they actually did.

Eighty-one per cent, with boys outnumbering girls, gave their approval of this white lie.

"I'd do it to avoid an argument if my lateness was due to an important matter," says a 16-year-old Philadelphia girl. And 13-year-old James Carley of Weatherford, Okla. says he would if "it would keep me from getting in trouble."

Another youngster had a good reason for not resorting to this deception. "My parents want me to have fun, not watch the clock," says 15-year-old Mary Perkins of Kansas City, Mo.

HALF WOULD CRIB

Half of the youngsters queried said they would accept help on an examination for which they weren't properly prepared because of absence.

"I want to pass," says 16-year-old Shirley Gamble of Islip, N. Y., expressing a sentiment widely shared. But 14-year-old Richard Marshall of Miami, says, "Cheating is worse than failing."

THEY DON'T STEAL

Only 12 per cent said they would play hooky and not tell their parents. But a 17-year-old New Orleans girl admitted she would because "they won't let me stay home unless I'm half dead."

When it comes to taking money without permission, the 1 per cent minority who say they would give such reasons as "if I needed the money bad enough," and "parents should provide better for their children."

Among those who wouldn't, a 14-year-old Los Angeles boy says, "That's pure stealing." And a 14-year-old St. Louis girl says, "I have a sense of honor."

Proteins the Secret

Where's Middle Age Gone?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

In lots of ways today there is good news indeed for the over-forty boys and girls, for that is the way we think of them now. In years past a woman was practically on the shelf at the age of 35. Today middle age has all but disappeared. People are young until they are old and that takes a long time!

Protein is the main building material of the body. Everybody needs protein no matter what his age.

When middle age did exist there also existed a theory that proteins in the diet should be cut low from middle age on. This left many men and women deficient in calcium, iron and protein by the age of 60 and resulted in premature aging.

Eighteen per cent of our total body weight is protein and protein is the main building material of the body. We need protein for physical repair and maintenance. Experiments have shown that the aging process is speeded up by an inadequate protein intake. The main protein foods are meat, fish, sea food, milk, cheese and eggs.

It is true that we require fewer calories as we grow older, but the high grade, essential foods are even more important to us than ever. Yet many men and women eat carelessly at mid life and later. They may live alone and lack the incentive to plan and prepare adequate meals. Also they may have lost some teeth and failed to have them replaced by dentures. Therefore it may be difficult to chew many foods.

REPLACE MISSING TEETH

Missing teeth should be replaced not only because of appearance but because of the above factor. If you simply cannot have dentures, you should at least eat sieved vegetables and meat so that your nutrition does not become inadequate.

If you would like to have my leaflet "Watchword of Science for Youth After Forty," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 61 to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

MRS. D. R. WILSON

Pontiac Woman Chosen 'Volunteer of the Month'

Honorary president this year of the Visiting Nurse Association, Mrs. D. R. Wilson, has been selected as the September Volunteer of the Month by the Central Volunteer Bureau.

Mrs. Wilson, who lives on Oneida road, first became interested in volunteer work when she served as a charter member of the local Visiting Nurse Association when it began in 1921. The organization which had been sponsored by the American Red Cross after World War I became an independent group when the need for a more expanded program was recognized.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Wilson was one of those instrumental in its development and growth. The Visiting Nurse Association has proven a most valuable asset to our community and its territory has been greatly enlarged. It now has a staff of 8 people with Mary Pauli as executive director.

Through the years, Mrs. Wilson has taken an active part in many civic and charitable organizations. Among the groups to which she has given generously of her time and support are the Business and Professional Women's Club and the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

She has devoted herself particularly during the past years to the cutting and sewing of cancer pads for the Michigan Cancer Foundation. Last year she turned in some 1000 articles and hopes this year to double that figure.

Currently Mrs. Wilson serves on the women's auxiliaries of both Pontiac General Hospital and St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. She is a board member of the Urban League and a patroness of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra Association.

★ ★ ★

In 1953, Mrs. Wilson received an award of merit as the outstanding fund solicitor for the Pontiac Area United Fund campaign.

She is dedicated to her church and its work. Recently, new doors at the front of First Congregational Church were dedicated and her name as donor will be inscribed on a bronze plaque.

Mrs. Wilson's late husband was one of the original founders of the Wilson Foundry and was himself a civic leader.

She has one son, Charles E., who lives in Florida.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Wilson says that her volunteer work has greatly enriched her life and she is eager to continue in it. She urges everyone interested in volunteer work to call or visit the Central Volunteer Bureau in the Community Services Building on Franklin boulevard, to register and serve with one of the health, welfare or recreation agencies.

Dear Abby Says 'Do It . . .

. . . and Don't Say It's for the Dog!'

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I eat in restaurants frequently and do not have a very hearty appetite. The portions are always too much for me to eat at one sitting, so I am tempted to ask the waitress to please put my left-overs in a sack for me to take home. The food is good, and it seems a pity to waste it. Is this considered bad manners?

SMALL EATER

ABBY

DEAR SMALL: Not at all. I have done it on occasion. And I'm dog-goned if I will say, "It's for my dog!"

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: After 24 years of marriage I got the shock of my life. I raised three boys to be men without any trouble and along comes my husband and tells me that my supposed-to-be best girlfriend is expecting in December and HE is the father!

My girlfried is 45 years old and has been married 26 years. She has 5 children of her own. Talk about a mess!

He says it is all my fault because I accused them of having a romance three years ago, so they decided to go ahead and have one. I don't know what to do. My husband wants me to stand by him. They haven't told the woman's husband yet. They both knew what they were doing as neither one drinks. Can this be love?

NO NAME PLEASE

DEAR NO: This can't be love. But it could develop into a nasty scandal. Take the course that will hurt the fewest innocent people. To break up two families would be madness. Keep the whole sordid secret under your hats and arrange somehow to put as many miles as possible between your husband and this "friend." And the sooner the better.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Tell me, please, how a boy can tell you in one breath that he loves you and then in the next breath say, "But I think we should break up because we are getting too serious"?

This is my problem, Dear Abby. I am 15 years old and he is 17 and we have gone steady for ten months. I know you are going to say that I am too young to know my own mind, but this is the boy I intend to marry.

How can I hurry things up? I am willing to quit school and go to work and let him finish high school. How can I get him to keep seeing me? I love him so much I don't think I could live without him.

SANDY

Dear Sandy: No wonder he is looking for an escape hatch! He senses your eagerness to get married and he is smart enough to know that he is much too young. He simply wants to find a way to drop you without hurting you. Finish your own education and don't crowd your young mind with thoughts of marriage now. You have much growing up to do.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO SAD MOTHER: Contact your local chapter of Association for Retarded Children. You will meet wonderfull parents who share your problem and learn how to cope with it. Good luck.

Couple Exchange Vows in Historical Church

At a candlelight double-ring ceremony performed Sept. 5, Brenda Katherine Gilbert of Medina, Ohio became the bride of Second Lieutenant David D. Robinson, son of the A. H. Robinsons of East Iroquios road. The Rev. Robert O. Reddish officiated at Medina's St. Paul Episcopal Church, an historical landmark which dates back to the early 1800's.

MRS. DAVID ROBINSON

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Mack Raymond Gilbert of Medina.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white taffeta and Alencon lace featuring an appliqued Sabrina neckline which topped a circular skirt with center front panel. Her two-tiered veil of white illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls, and she held a bouquet of cascading roses and ivy.

Mrs. Milton M. Schwartz of Westport, Conn., sister of the bride, attended as matron of honor wearing a pale pink organza afternoon dress accented by elbow length puffed sleeves and a bouffant skirt. She wore a Juliet cap of pink velvet flowers and carried pink sweetheart roses with blue delphinium and white pompons with streamers.

★ ★ ★

Roy McAnnally of Pontiac attended the bridegroom as best man.

Following a reception held at the home of the bride's parents, the new Mrs. Robinson donned a maroon and black stripe cotton and silk coachman's coat styled dress with black and white accessories and the rose corsage from her bouquet for traveling. The couple will reside in Lundenburg, Mass. until Lt. Robinson, who is on duty at Fort Devens, Mass., is reassigned to another station.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Suzanne Robinson, sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. John F. State Official Talks to Nurses

The Oakland County District Nurses Assn. met at Beaumont Hospital Tuesday evening to hear Eleanor Tromp, assistant executive director of the Michigan State Nurses Association.

Miss Tromp told of her activities during the past three years in interpreting to state legislators certain aspects of bills which affect nurses and nursing.

She pointed out the need for nurses to review current bills introduced by groups unrelated to nursing which nevertheless might have significance in regard to professional nursing.

Open Thursday, Friday and Saturday 'til 9 P.M.

Best Education

These Score Cards for a Good School Devised by Experts

By DR. BENJAMIN FINE and LILLIAN FINE

When our fourth child was born, we realized that a four-and-one-half room apartment in the city would no longer be sufficient.

Then began a year-long hunt for a proper home. The public school situation loomed omniously important. We wanted schools that had friendly, cheerful teachers.

★ ★ ★

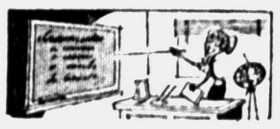

We wanted a school system that could treat our children as individuals. We wanted a school system that paid its teachers enough to keep them happy and one that had an up-to-date curriculum and decent equipment for the children.

We sat in one third-grade classroom. "Stop wiggling," the teacher admonished her 9-year-olds. We left the class with a shudder of relief that we hadn't bought a house in that area.

Finally, we found the four-bedroom house we wanted. We didn't find the school system quite to our liking. But we found enough public-minded people who joined us in helping to improve it.

★ ★ ★

In our search for a good school system, we compiled a check list that we found helpful in measuring the efficiency of an educational program.

TEACHERS

What is the average size of classes in our schools? How do we compare with neighboring schools on this and the other points?

★ ★ ★

What are the maximum and minimum salaries for teachers?

How many teachers have masters or doctoral degrees?

How many teachers are teaching on emergency certificates?

How many have had the experience of teaching in other systems?

How many have taught less than three years or more than 35 years?

How many have taught in this community less than three years?

How many have traveled in other countries, held positions in business, or speak a foreign language?

Do they show evidence of wide cultural interests? How many take part in professional organizations?

Are our teachers well groomed? Do they speak clearly and use good English?

★ ★ ★

Do they inspire most youngsters with hope and ambition?

Do we give recognition to outstanding teachers?

Do our teachers have adequate sick leave, a good retirement system, group insurance?

COMMUNITY

Is the community proud of its schools?

Is adequate housing at reasonable cost available for teachers?

Does the community impose special restrictions on teachers or discriminate against married teachers?

Do teachers feel free to express opinions about community issues?

What is the attitude of the local press toward the schools?

Are board of education meetings open to the public?

Do civic organizations take a helpful interest in the schools?

Is there evidence of unethical practices in purchases of school supplies and school construction?

CHILDREN

Do the children appear interested? Do they work well together?

Do they show respect for the teacher and one another?

Do they require a great deal of supervision?

Do they treat school property with consideration?

How serious is the truancy problem?

Are most of the children able to read, write, and express themselves well?

Are they physically active?

Does the school arrange regular, thorough physical examinations?

CURRICULUM

Is the program cooperatively planned by all the teachers?

Is the subject matter adapted to the needs of the children?

★ ★ ★

In elementary grades, do periods of hard mental concentration alternate whenever possible with physical activity or a relaxing activity such as singing?

In the high schools, is a variety of academic courses offered?

Do bright children have an opportunity to learn a foreign language?

To what extent is the curriculum enriched by audio-visual aids?

Are concerts, lectures, and class visits to museums, etc., arranged?

Is instruction in music and art an integral part of the curriculum?

Are there remedial reading groups?

Do the teachers give attention all through the schools to basic skills?

★ ★ ★

Do our schools offer sound, challenging courses in science and mathematics?

How do graduates adjust in college?

BUILDINGS, EQUIPMENT

When were the school buildings built? Are they overcrowded?

Are they safe from fire?

Is there good lighting, ventilation and heating?

Are there enough lavatories? Are they supervised?

Is there an auditorium?

Is there a clean, attractive place for children to eat lunch?

Is there enough well-equipped playground space?

Does each school have a television set, radios, moving picture projector?

Is there a room where teachers can relax or correct papers, or make plans?

MISCELLANEOUS

Does each school have a pleasant atmosphere?

Is the superintendent well regarded?

Are the principals dictorial?

Does student government really function?

Is there a testing program to determine abilities, aptitudes, and achievements of all students?

What attention is given to gifted children?

What per cent of the graduating class goes to college?

Are the textbooks modern and attractive? Are supplementary books and teaching aids used?

Does the school offer many extracurricular activities?

What is the amount of tax money spent per pupil compared with other communities?

Regardless of everything else, if you do not have good, warm, happy, stable, conscientious teachers, you will not have a successful school system.

Next: Is your child gifted?

Red Cross to Stress Lifesaving Method

The fall first aid instruction series offered by the Oakland County Chapter of the American Red Cross will put special emphasis on the new "mouth-to-mouth" technique in artificial respiration.

Classes will be held at the Chapter House, 118 Franklin Blvd., from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. each Thursday beginning Sept. 24.

★ ★ ★

Glen D. Smith, Red Cross teacher for the course, said instruction will cover, in addition to artificial respiration, orientation to the Red Cross, bandaging, treatment of poisoning, location of body pressure points to control bleeding and other first aid techniques.

Burn More Oil, Gas

NEW YORK (UPI)—Oil and gas now supply approximately 67 per cent of the nation's total energy requirements, compared with only 8 per cent in 1900. The sharp increase has been made primarily at the expense of coal.

Army Buys First Car

The U.S. army bought its first automobile in 1903.

Marriage Solves Immigration Fix

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UPI) —When Mrs. Salvatore Patronaggio returned to her native America more than five years ago, she was able to bring her Italian-born husband and three of her children with her. But one daughter, Antonia, was too old to be admitted as a minor child.

While Antonina waited impatiently in Palermo for permission to enter the U.S. under an immigration quota, Mrs. Patronaggio got busy. She showed her daughter's picture to a Buffalo neighbor, Anthony Minutto, 27, who went to visit the girl and married her. That's how she managed to rejoin her family — as the bride of an American citizen.

Five Allen Parkers Start Romney Club

DETROIT (UPI)—Five residents of Allen Park, with 50 signatures or a petition, started business Wednesday as the state's first "Draft George Romney for Governor" Club.

The group petitioned the Wayne County clerk for permission to do business under the name. The petition urged Romney, president of American Motors Corp., to "accept a true challenge" to become a candidate for governor of Michigan in 1960. No party affiliation was mentioned.

★ ★ ★

Romney, who was in New York, has repeatedly disclaimed any intention to run for public office.

Europe's largest meat-marketing center is being built in Harburg, Germany. It will be air-conditioned and have nearly 190 stalls over an area of 56,000 square feet.

Unknown Girl Never Claimed Wedding Gown

CHICAGO (UPI)—For the first time in memory of postal officials here a wedding gown was put up for auction yesterday.

★ ★ ★

"We kept wishing that someone would claim it," postmaster Carl A. Schroeder said. He said the gown had been in the dead letter department for several months.

★ ★ ★

"I wonder what the story is behind it. Somewhere there is a bride who was kept waiting at the post office instead of the church," Schroeder said.

Mrs. Herbert Beyer of Janesville, Wis., owner of a general store, bought the white satin gown for $5.

★ ★ ★

"What was one girl's heartbreak will be another girl's good fortune," said Mrs. Beyer who intends to sell the dress.

Develop Baby Pattern

WALLINGFORD, Vt. (UPI)—Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Csizmesia were running true to form when they had their newest son. The Csizmesias had a boy and three girls, another boy and then three more girls before their latest. Now, they are expecting three more girls.

Warm Welcome Home

HOLLY, Colo. (UPI) — Holly's firemen got back from a recent fire just in time. As they backed into the station house they found it ablaze. The fire was caused by a short circuit which ignited and exploded a can of gasoline.

Wolves Switch Routines on Actress Martha Hyer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Martha Hyer, one of Hollywood's most beautiful bachelor girls, is wrestling wolves who have switched a well-known wolf line.

"They all want to see my etchings," confesses the blonde Texan. "I spend half my life discouraging phoney art lovers—all male."

★ ★ ★

Martha lives alone in a beautiful hilltop house that overlooks the city.

She has art she says is worth $500,000 hanging in the house—including a Renoir in the bathroom. Originals by Gaugin, Dufy, Utrillo, Lautrec, Fantin la Tour and Vlaminck hang in other rooms.

A magazine did a layout on the collection and the wolves descended.

★ ★ ★

"Some of them previously had been intrested only in comic book art or the nudes in the girlie magazines." Says Martha "Now they are junior-grade Picassos."

Martha has been earning well over $100,000 a year playing unsympathetic other woman roles on the screen. In "Ice Palace," Warner Bros. filming of the Edna Ferber novel, Martha has her first screen baby and first death scene.

★ ★ ★

"This should get me sympathy—for once," says Martha. Earlier this year she issued an edict to her agents that she wanted no more cold, unsympathetic parts.

Her art and other investments have made her financially secure. Looks, wit, breeding and money make her one of the best catches in town but Martha has no husband plans at the moment.

★ ★ ★

"I'm having too much fun looking for a husband to worry about catching one," she declares. Unlike other bachelor movie queens, Martha says she has never found any man shortage in Hollywood.

"Actresses who say that confine their pickings to actors," she adds. "I find the most interesting suitors among doctors, lawyers, real estate men and other professions.

"As for the paintings, I get more than my money's worth out of them. Money lying in a vault is not beautiful, except to a miser. I have all my money hanging on my walls—in great works of art.

He Didn't Stop to Order; Drove Straight Through

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UPI)—Roger K. Markward, 20, of Kenmore, N. Y., was charged with disorderly conduct for driving his motorcycle through a restaurant.

Police said he drove through one door and out the other — without stopping to order.

Florida Coast Pelted by Rains

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—More showers were promised today for a 175-mile stretch of Florida's water-logged west coast.

From 2 to more than 6 inches of rain fell in Tampa, Dade City, Tarpon Springs, St. Petersburg, Bradenton, Sarasota and Fort Myers.

★ ★ ★

This tourist city 50 miles south of Tampa had 6.24 inches of rain in 24 hours and 11.17 inches this month to date. Dade City had 5.20 inches and Tarpon Springs 5.12.

★ ★ ★

Sheriff's officers patrolled the Bellview Terrace and Oak Shores subdivisions by boat to bring out families as high water crept into their homes. Thirty families were removed from the areas late Wednesday.

Cedar Springs Slates Annual Red Flannel Day

CEDAR SPRINGS (AP)—Celebrated annually at Cedar Springs since 1936, Red Flannel Day has been scheduled Oct. 31 under direction of Andrew Johnson as general chairman.

The event is geared to this community's role as a major producer of long underwear which is a favorite with outdoor workers and sportsmen in cold weather.

Student Chokes to Death on Raw Meat in Initiation

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A University of Southern California student choked to death on a piece of raw meat during a predawn fraternity hazing today, police reported.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Melvin Goldy, summoned to the Kappa Sigma fraternity house, said he had to extract a thick piece of liver from the gullet of Richard Swanson, 21, Swanson, son of a Los Angeles physician, was pronounced dead on arrival at Central Receiving Hospital.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Goldy said the meat was nearly 4 inches long and nearly an inch thick.

Police said the youth was being initiated along with 10 others.

★ ★ ★

Nathan Ruben, ambulance attendant, said he found the youth, dressed in a burlap sack, lying on his stomach in the rear of the fraternity house.

ONLOOKERS SILENT

He asked the onlookers if Swanson had eaten anything but they remained silent, he said.

"Had I known (about the liver)," Ruben added, "I might have performed a tracheotomy (an emergency throat - slitting operation) and he might have been saved."

★ ★ ★

Ruben said the youths crowding around Swanson told him that the student was suffering a nervous, spasmodic attack.

★ ★ ★

Police said Swanson and the pledges had performed a series of pushups before the fatal incident. They said Swanson was the first given the raw meat, which apparently was to be swallowed by the initiates.

★ ★ ★

No charges have been filed against any of the fraternity members. An investigation has been started.

Legislature Ignores Flaw

$36 Million Error Remains

Michigan lawmakers took no action during their one-day stand in Lansing yesterday on a plea by Gov. Williams to correct a flaw in the Employment Security Act he said could cost employers some 36 million dollars.

★ ★ ★

The House and Senate knocked off until next Wednesday without considering the matter.

★ ★ ★

Rep. Farrell E. Roberts (R-West Bloomfield Township), chairman of the House Labor Committee, said the measure "is as dead as it was last June."

★ ★ ★

Republicans also said they would not give up opposition to an extension of temorary unemployment compensation for jobless workers.

UNTIL SEPT. 30

The Legislature has until Sept. 30 to take advantage of a federal loan extending benefits up to 13 weeks.

Williams estimated 20,650 Michigan workers would be eligible for $2,674,054 in benefits.

The governor said a minor and very technical amendment to the Employment Security Act could be very costly to Michigan employers.

★ ★ ★

He said all employers in Michigan now eligible through merit rating for a tax of less than 2.7 per cent of payroll could have their federal payroll tax boosted.

There are 36,000 such employers, William said, and their tax costs may be increased by about 36 million dollars in 1959 alone unless a correction is made to conform with federal law.

★ ★ ★

Williams said the Labor Department so far has been reluctant to invoke the penalties against Michigan employers.

'CRUEL TRAGEDY'

The governor said it would be "a cruel tragedy" if the Sept. 30 deadline for getting under extended unemployment benefits were allowed to pass without action.

Republicans have insisted they will go along with the extension only after adoption of amendments to the jobless pay act which would prevent future application of a State Supreme Court decision in the so-called Ford-Canton case.

★ ★ ★

The court last January awarded jobless pay benefits to some 11,000 Michigan Ford workers idled by a 1953 strike at a Canton, Ohio, Ford plant.

★ ★ ★

GOP leaders asserted the ruling set the stage for unions to force companies to finance strikes against themselves through contributions to jobless pay.

Dislike Plan to End Rebellion in Algeria

ALGIERS (AP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle's plan for ending nearly five years of rebellion in Algeria today left the million French settlers largely bitter and the nine million Moslems mostly apathetic.

★ ★ ★

The 68-year-old French President held out three choices for the people once peace is restored in the troubled region—independence, integration with France or autonomy. The choice, he said, would be made in an election within four years after the country has been pacified—that is when deaths from terrorist attacks do not exceed 200 a year.

★ ★ ★

But he warned those demanding independence that it would bring a "disastrous misery, terrible political chaos, general throat-cutting and soon the warlike dictatorship of the Communists."

France, he said, would support autonomy.

★ ★ ★

Algerian rebels waging war against French rule were suspicious of De Gaulle's offer of self-determination. Some leaders of the rebel government in Cairo called the move a trick to hoodwink world opinion on the eve of United Nations debate on Algeria.

De Gaulle made no mention of the prospective U. N. debate in outlining his master plan for Algeria in a radio-TV speech Wednesday night from Paris.

Reports of terrorist attacks and new skirmishes with the rebels reached newspaper offices even while the speech was being broadcast here. During the past 24 hours a total of 38 rebels were reported killed in clashes with French troops.

★ ★ ★

The French President called on the rebels to lay down their arms and issued an invitation "here and now" for observers the world over to watch the voting when it is held.

Avon Twp. Collision Injures 2 Motorists

Two drivers were injured when their cars collided at Auburn road and St. Clair street in Avon Township shortly after 6 p.m. Wednesday, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Carolyn Y. Kipper, 22, of 2525 Livernois Rd., Avon Township, was admitted to the hospital with a broken nose and face and knee cuts. She was reported in fair condition today.

Dennis D. Doucette, 18, of 3946 Nearing St., Rochester, was treated for minor injuries at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

Shapero Hall Funds Come In

Hear First Report on Drive for Wayne Pharmacy Building

NEW YORK (AP)—Sponsors for the proposed Shapero Hall of Pharmacy at Wayne State University in Detroit have reported that they are well along in their fund-raising program.

★ ★ ★

The first progress report was made last night at a dinner for the man for whom the building will be named—Nate S. Shapero of Detroit, board chairman of Cunningham Drug Stores.

Shapero was honored by some 500 friends and associates in recognition of his 50th year in retail pharmacy. The dinner was held in conjunction with the annual convention of the National Assn. of Chain Drug Stores, a group Shapero helped organize in 1933.

A group of 34 sponsors is conducting a nationwide campaign to raise a half million dollars for the building. The Michigan State Legislature will be asked in its next session to provide the other half of the necessary funds.

The sponsors reported that more than $300,000 of the goal has already been raised.

Harry J. Loynd, president of Parke, Davis & Co., and Ches B. Larsen, president of Cunningham's, head the sponsors committee.

Loynd said at last night's dinner that Wayne State University was selected for the Shapero Hall of Pharmacy because of the "urgent need for expanded pharmacy training in the Detroit area."

Others on the committee from Detroit are Carl Johnson and Leonard Simons.

The proposed building will be four stories in heigth, of reinforced concrete construction, with model laboratories, classrooms, study lounges, faculty offices and a lecture room.

Flower Sale Rolls Around

Members of Disabled American Oakland County will make their annual appearance, laden with bundles of small blue flowers, on street corners this Friday and Saturday.

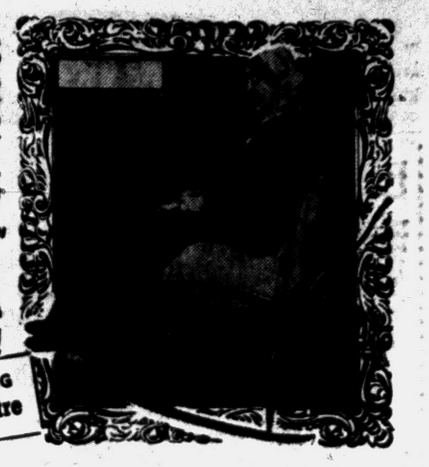

The DAV "Forget-Me-Not" campaign in the Pontiac area will be headed by local chapter 16.

Veterans are hoping the donations of area residents will top last year's $1,500 mark.

Donations are used to aid hospitalized or disabled veterans and their families who become financially distressed.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

You could see it coming for Gene Gedman.

In fact, if the Detroit Lions' had not sustained as many injuries as they did last year, Gedman would probably be with the Pittsburgh Steelers or some other NFL club right now.

There is also reason to believe that if he had been able to overcome the knee problem this year he would have been traded.

Gedman had some fine years with the Lions. He was somewhat resentful during the training camp at Cranbrook that everyone was "retiring him."

★ ★ ★

The word from the doctor Tuesday was all that was needed. He is now free to sign with any club he chooses and we have reason to believe that Gedman will be back next year in the pro ranks.

DITTOS FROM THE PRESS BOX

Our Japanese friend Hiroshi Orito, who enjoyed himself tossing this writer around in the Judo phase of our recent "try-it-yourself" sports series, is leaving the Pontiac area Sunday for New York where he will continue his art education.

He said he enjoyed his two years here while studying at Cranbrook and hopes he can return next summer to conduct another series of Judo classes at the YMCA.

★ ★ ★

John Maher, Forest Lake Country Club manager, is feeling real proud these days and he has every right.

Maher's son Bruce has been mentioned by the Associated Press in a pre-season rundown of candidates as a possible All-America candidate.

Bruce is a senior back at U. of D. and is already the draft choice of the Lions. Bob Nussbaumer, the Lions' eagle eye, will be watching him Friday night against George Washington.

"He wants very much to play pro ball," said the father," and we are hoping he does well this year in college."

Just to add an honest comment, and not for the purpose of flattery, John and Bruce would almost pass more for brothers rather than father and son.

KNOCKS 'EM DEAD —Big Tom Draper of Birmingham, Mich., is the No. 1 surprise in the U.S. Amateur Golf Championship at Colorado Springs, Colo. Draper has kayoed four opponents, featuring a 4-3 upset victory over Billy Joe Patton yesterday.

Draper Still Going in U.S. Amateur

Tom Sidelines Patton in 4th Round Action

Charlie Coe Ousts Two Foes; Michigan's Other Golfers Eliminated

From Our Wire Services

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. — Tommy Aaron and Jackie Nicklaus, the babies of the U.S. Walker Cup team, and a 45-year-old outsider who gabs like Casey Stengel posed new threats to Charlie Coe and other "old guard" favorites today in the National Amateur Golf Championship.

The guy with the Stengelese line is Tom Draper of Birmingham, Mich., who keeps insisting "I'm lucky as hell" as he fashions an impressive string of upset victories.

"All I'm trying to do is qualify for the Masters," commented Draper after eliminating Billy Joe Patton in Wednesday afternoon's 4th round of match play at plush Broadmoor Golf Club.

★ ★ ★

Draper, Midwest representative for a resin manufacturer who holds degrees in both chemical and mechanical engineering, ousted Jack Westland of Everett, Wash., in yesterday's 3rd round, 1 up, then followed with an even bigger upset by toppling Walker Cupper Patton, 4-3.

And the cigar-chewing Draper keeps 'em in stitches as he describes each one of his rounds in the clubhouse. He talks of hitting nothing balls, dropping shots in no-man's land and "the billowing rough" and describes his efforts to reach the greens from impossible lies in "buffalo country."

Coe, the tall, skinny defending champion from Oklahoma City, was Mr. Precision yesterday as he defeated Bob Batdorff of Hershey, Pa., 3-1, and Jim Vickers of Wichita, Kan., 4-3.

The 35-year-old Coe was paired against Ted Gleichmann of Saticoy, Calif., in today's 5th round action.

Aaron, who lost to Coe in last year's national final, turned in the clutch performance of the tournament when rallied from a five-hole deficit after 10 holes to defeat Dick Spangler of Lincoln, Neb., 1 up. Aaron had whipped Neil Croonquist of Hopkins, Minn., 6-4, in the morning.

Nicklaus, the Ohio State junior, was two-under-par for each of his matches as he trounced Don Massengale of Jacksboro, Tex., 6-5, and Orville Goens of Des Moines, Iowa, 5-4.

★ ★ ★

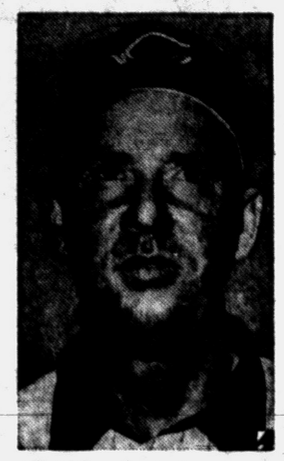

Nicklaus and Draper have shot the best medal scores to date for the four rounds of the tourney. Draper was scheduled to battle Henry Wysong of Dallas, Tex., today.

★ ★ ★

Two more rounds were slated today on the Broadmoor course to narrow the tourney field to four semifinalists. Other "name" players still in the field included two-time champ Harvie Ward, Bill Hyndman and Dr. Frank (Bud) Taylor.

★ ★ ★

Michigan's two other entries were eliminated Wednesday. Lansing's Lou Wendrow bowed to Vickers and Frank Connolly of Gowanie lost to Dave Smith Jr. of Gastonia, N.C.

ON HOT SEAT—Manager Joe Gordon of the Cleveland Indians was on the hot seat again yesterday in his running feud with general manager Frank Lane. There is doubt that Gordon will be back next season as manager of the Tribe despite the fact that the Indians will probably finish second in the American League race.

Only Pennant Could Save Him

Gordon's Tribe Job Getting More Shaky

CLEVELAND (AP) — Joe Gordon's tenure as manager of the Cleveland Indians appeared shaky today, following a new blast from General Manager Frank Lane.

Lane made it clear in an interview with the Cleveland Plain Dealer last night that Gordon needs a miracle to stay on. If the second place Indians, now trailing the Chicago White Sox by 5½ games, could win the American League pennant, Gordon would be back as Cleveland manager in 1960.

★ ★ ★

But Lane said he had four or five men he preferred over Gordon as manager. He refused to say who they are. "If I can get one of them I will," he declared. "I'm thinking of a particular one, but I'm not sure he's available."

Next season's manager will be named before the end of next week, Lane said.

Gordon's failure to call for the bunt in certain game situations recently has irritated the volatile front office boss. The ruptured relations reached a low point yesterday when both men criticized each other through newspaper headlines here and in Boston.

"I guess I'm a percentage baseball man for the most part. Joe is a gambling manager. It's true we weren't getting the base hits we needed in this trip, but a bunt in the right spot could have meant a couple of victories," Lane said, adding:

"My decision comes on his overall performance since taking over the club. I think he did a better job last season than this year. He was willing to take some advice then. Now he's become a little porky. Maybe he thinks he's a genius. He isn't by any means."

Lane feels Gordon didn't do a good job with the pitching staff and added:

★ ★ ★

"Joe could have made better use of (pitching coach) Mel Harder. It wouldn't have been out of line to give Mel complete charge of the pitchers.

"And his relations with the players haven't been particularly good . . . there are some ball players here that he just doesn't want on the team. In fact, he's determined to run them off."

★ ★ ★

The managerial decision will be Lane's alone and he said there will be no meeting with the club's board of directors on the subject. "That was the understanding when I took this job," he explained.

Mossi Keeps Detroit 4th on 15th Triumph

BALTIMORE (UPI) — One of the pleasant surprises in an otherwise dull season for the Detroit Tigers has been the work of former relief pitcher Don Mossi.

Mossi, who was elevated to a starting role after Jimmie Dykes became manager of the Tigers, helped snap a three-game losing streak last night as he pitched Detroit to a 3-1 victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

The Tigers have lost seven of their last 10 games and Mossi was winning pitcher in two of the triumphs. Mossi's victory last night, his 15th against nine defeats, also allowed Detroit to hold onto fourth place in the American League.

The Orioles spoiled Mossi's shutout bid in the eighth inning when they scored one run on a walk and singles by Jerry Adair and Bob Nieman.

★ ★ ★

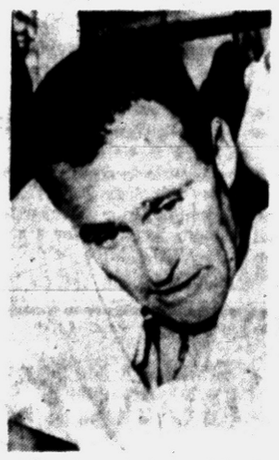

After allowing a lead-off double to Brooks Robinson in the ninth, Mossi was relieved by Tom Morgan who came on to retire the next three Baltimore batters in order.

The Tigers picked up their runs one at a time. The first one came in the fourth when Charley Maxwell scored on a double play ball hit by Ted Lepcio.

Frank Bolling, Lou Berberet and Maxwell all singled to fill the bases in that inning, but one run was all Detroit could muster.

★ ★ ★

A double by Eddie Yost, an infield out and Harvey Kuenn's sacrifice fly added another run in the fifth. The Tigers added their other run in the eighth on Bolling's second single, a walk and an infield out.

NO. 21 — Lew Burdette became the first Major League pitcher to reach 21 victories and he also moved the Milwaukee Braves within one game of the National League leading Giants. He shutout the Giants, 2-0 yesterday in San Francisco.

Chicago Becomes 9th City in NBA

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Basketball Assn. expanded to nine teams Wednesday, granting Chicago a franchise effective with the 1960-61 season.

The new franchise will be directed by Max Winter, former owner of the Minneapolis Lakers. He will serve as executive vice president and general manager. D. C. Trager, a Chicago insurance executive, will serve as president of the organization.

★ ★ ★

The franchise, approved during the regular meeting of the NBA Board of Governors, joins Boston, Cincinnati, Detroit, Minneapolis, New York, Philadelphia, St. Louis and Syracuse in the pro circuit.

Charley Share Retires

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Charley Share, a regular with the St. Louis Hawks since 1955, has retired from National Basketball Association competition. Club officials had announced earlier they planned to trade the Hawk team captain.

Slaughter Plays Key Part in 2-0 Milwaukee Win

Dodgers Miss Chance to Gain by Bowing; Pirates in Split

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Milwaukee's defending National League champions battled today to sweep their vital two-game series with the San Francisco Giants and deadlock the National League pennant race.

"The spirit of this club is high and nobody is letting up," declared 43-year-old Enos Slaughter, the ex-Yankee who only recently joined the Braves.

A veteran of five World Series, Slaughter figured in both runs yesterday as Lew Burdette became the first major leaguer to win 21 games. Lew blanked the Giants 2-0 for Milwaukee's ninth victory in its last eleven games.

Burdette, who won 17 games in 1957 and then took three from the Yankees in the Series, reached 21 victories for the first time in a major league career dating back to 1951.

"That had to be the big one for me this year," he declared after shutting out the Giants on four singles and a double.

Right-hander Sam Jones missed his try for No. 21 when the Braves scored one run in the fourth and another in the eighth. The first run came on a single by Joe Adcock, a walk to Slaughter and a single by catcher Del Crandall. In the eighth, with two out, Hank Aaron, Adcock and Salughter all singled to center for the cushion run.

The Dodgers blew a chance to close in on the Giants when they lost to Cincinnati 7-4. The defeat dropped Los Angeles into third place, two games back with nine to go.

Orlando Pena was the winner as Cincinnati whipped the Dodgers for the 13th time in 21 games. The Reds battered Sandy Koufax and three relief pitchers for 13 hits including homers by Frank Thomas and Willie Jones. Gus Bell drove in three runs with two doubles and a single.

Charlie Neal hit two homers and Wally Moon had his sixth in six games for a losing cause.

A crowd of 23,785 boosted the Coliseum attendance to a new club record, 2,004,292. The Dodgers play their final home game Thursday night against Cincinnati with Danny McDevitt scheduled to face Don Newcombe.

Vern Law won his 17th game for Pittsburgh, 3-2, in the opener of a doubleheader at Chicago but the Cubs bounced back to hand an 18th defeat on Bob Friend, 4-2. Sammy Taylor's 11th homer in the ninth beat Friend, Bill Mazeroski contributed his first homer since May 17 in the opener. Philadelphia and St. Louis were idle.

Hose May Celebrate This Weekend

Chicago's Magic Number Cut to 3

By the Associated Press

All signs point to a gala pennant-clinching celebration this weekend by the Chicago White Sox in the friendly surroundings of Comiskey Park.

★ ★ ★

Cleveland's hopes fade daily. If the White Sox don't win, the Indians oblige by losing.

★ ★ ★

The magic number now is three for the White Sox to nail down their first American League championship since 1919. Any combination of three Chicago victories and Cleveland defeats would eliminate all mathematical doubt.

Nothing can be done today for the entire league has an open date. But Chicago could assure itself of no worse than a tie Friday if they can beat Detroit and Kansas City defeats Cleveland.

The White Sox, who gained ground Wednesday while losing 3-1 to the New York Yankees, lead by 5½ games with only seven to play. Three are at home with Detroit this weekend, and then a final week on the road with one at Cleveland and three at Detroit. The Indians have eight to go, seven with the A's.

★ ★ ★

The big question with the Indians who lost 6-5 to Boston Wednesday seems to be not the pennant but whether General Manager Frank Lane is entitled to second guess Manager Joe Gordon. The last round went to Gordon but Lane is ahead on points because he is the referee and judge who will make the decision on the 1960 plans. And he has indicated that there will be a new manager next year unless the Indians win the pennant.

Early Wynn appeared to be rolling toward his 21st victory at Yankee Stadium with a 1-0 lead over New York going into the sixth. The Yanks however, kicked up their heels for three runs in the sixth to win behind the red hot rookie Jim Coates' four-hitter.

★ ★ ★

Wynn helped dig his own grave when he mishandled a bunt by Bobby Richardson opening the sixth. The bunt was good enough for a base hit but Wynn attempted to hold up his throw at the last second and tosed the ball into short right. A walk to Mickey Mantle and singles by Yogi Berra, Hector Lopez and Hank Bauer then produced the three runs.

★ ★ ★

Cleveland blew leads of 2-0 and 5-2 as Boston came back to tie it twice with two in the seventh, and then a three-run rally in the eighth. The Red Sox finally won it in the last of the ninth.

★ ★ ★

Gary Bell gave way to Jim Perry in the eighth inning uprising. He went into the inning with a three-run lead and a three-hitter. A pinch single by Ted Williams, a walk, and singles by Pete Runnels and Gene Stephens disposed of Bell. Jackie Jensen greeted Perry, the eventual loser, with a single that tied the score.

'Olympic' Days in Rochester

The youngsters in Rochester and area will have their "day" Saturday in the third annual Kiwanis Junior Olympics.

A total of 450 are expected to compete in the eight groups for boys and girls.

Ribbons will be awarded to winners in the different events. In last year's Olympics, the top winner was Alta Franchino who took two firsts and a second.

Other first place winners were Mary Mitzelfeld in the junior class and Billy Hotman in the midget class.

All-Star Pin Points

By Ed Lubanski

READY — Ed Lubanski at the release—but you aim where?

The average bowler, when it is time to release the ball, yanks his fingers from it as if they were going to get stuck.

The most important thing to him seems to be getting the fingers out. There are only one or two bigger mistakes.

Approaching the release point—the explosion point, to sound authoritative—the hand should be straight. But in taking the thumb out first, a split second before the fingers, the ball is lifted.

The thumb should slide out and the ball released a few inches across the foul line. By sliding the fingers out after the thumb you'll find a natural spin, which turns into a hooking action, is on the ball.

Now where is the ball heading? If you began lining up with the third arrow from the right marked on the alley boards you are in position.

The right foot should be aligned with that arrow as you start the entire sequence.

Army, Air Force Set Future Dates

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP) — The Army and Air Force Academy, which inaugurate a service football rivalry at Yankee Stadium Oct. 31, have agreed on three future gridiron dates.

The new arrangement, announced simultaneously Wednesday by the academies, calls for games Nov. 2, 1963, and Nov. 6, 1965, at mutually agreeable neutral sites.

A third game at the Air Force Academy's designated home field is scheduled for Oct. 28, 1967.

Injuries Hit Mid-Season Form

And 1959 Grid Schedule Still Hasn't Started

PNH, Waterford, Orion All Hurt for Openers; Only PCH Is Sound

By BILL CORNWELL

The 1959 football season hasn't even started yet and already the injury toll for Friday night's opening games reads like a mid-season casualty list.

Pontiac Northern invades Lake Orion tomorrow night and Pontiac Central plays host to Waterford at Wisner Stadium and only the Chiefs are free from crippling aches and pains.

Waterford is the hardest hit of the three afflicted schools. Coach Dave Freeman has one player sidelined for at least a month and three other boys on the doubtful roster.

★ ★ ★

Tackle Don Windeler, expected to be one of Freeman's most valuable two-way performers this fall, broke a bone in the lower part of his left leg and will wear a cast for the next 30 days or so.

Windeler incurred the injury while making a tackle in a Monday scrimmage, but did not know of the fracture until Wednesday after undergoing X-rays.

Also banged up in the Waterford camp are tackle Bruce Marti with a bruised muscle in his left leg, guard Bill Couture with a strained knee and fullback Jim Hoke with a sprained ankle. All are doubtful starters against the Chiefs and may see only limited duty.

Guard Earl Hewitt is the No. 1 casualty in the Northern camp following an ankle sprain, but several other Huskie gridders are afflicted with assorted bumps and bruises. Northern's lineup is still undecided by coach Ed Heikkinen and fullback George Graves looks like the only sure-fire starter.

Lake Orion has two key gridders on the injury list, guard Keith Brodkorb and halfback Craig Haun. Both are suffering from banged-up ankles.

Coach Jesse MacLeay has his starting lineup all set for the Waterford visit. The Chiefs have no crippling injuries thus far and should be in top shape for the 1959 curtain-raiser.

Fred Staley has been impressive at quarterback in Central workouts this week. Staley will be joined in the backfield by Joe McCauley at fullback, Dick McCauley at left half and Isaac Jones at right half.

The Skippers have been stressing defense in their practice sessions this week and also doing a little polishing on the offense. Bill Bryce is running the attack at quarterback.

LSU to Fall Early Says Major Hoople

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
Originator of the Belly Series

Greetings, my zillions of gentle readers.

I'm as crisp as a newly printed [illegible] after my sojourn in the woods of Maine. I'm [illegible] to plunge into the football wars.

Ahem, did you observe how I single-handedly subdued that ferocious grizzly which threatened to devour all of us at our rustic retreat?

But enough of my heroic exploits, I'm fairly atingle to give you, my warmest friends, some surprising information from the college football world.

Dr. I. M. Inorbit of Spinning U., the newest addition to my staff, assures me that our calculations indicate some astounding results will mark the coming Saturday's skirmishes.

Dr. Inorbit, incidentally, is causigg a commotion wherever he goes. The doctor moves in a forward-circular fashion as he treks from place to place.

This strange means of locomotion, much like an upright spiraling football, has proved invaluable in his laboratory work.

He has [illegible]

sistance, velocity, etc., to the complex problems of the gridiron.

At some later date, when time and space permit, I'll tell you more about the eminent doctor—har-rumph!

Right now it's time to reveal that the season will get off to a resounding start when national champion Louisiana State is deluged by a shower of Rice. (Heh-heh, that is a sheer stroke of genius!) The final score will be Rice 27, LSU 16.

In all, we will find the underdog scuttling the favorite on no less than seven fronts.

Top Openers at Birmingham, Oxford and Milford

Big Prep Slate Set Friday

By CHUCK ABAIR

The annual Birmingham-Cranbrook opening night skirmish, and the Avondale at Milford game head what shapes up to be an interesting prep football menu for the thousands of hungry area fans expected to turn out to cheer tomorrow night.

Bloomfield Hills will get the jump on the field as host to Oak Park in an afternoon contest starting at 3:30. A few scattered other daylight games are on tap.

Walled Lake visits Redford Union, Orchard Lake St. Mary takes on a new foe as guest of Hamtramck, Southfield travels to Royal Oak to face Kimball and Rochester goes after No. 100 for Coach Gene Konley at home against Davison in some of tomorrow night's other features.

A big one Saturday night will have West Bloomfield and St. Michael, both apparently strong in pre-season forecasts, clashing at Wisner Stadium. St. Frederick takes over the same field Sunday to meet St. Alphonsus.

Coach Fred Campbell's Cranbrook lads have had little success with Birmingham over the years. Tomorrow should be no exception with the Maples very strong again.

★ ★ ★

Clarkston may rate the slim edge at Oxford being the bigger school but Doug Stott and his Wildcat mates will be out to give the home fans plenty to cheer about.

★ ★ ★

There is little to choose between Avon and Milford. The Yellowjackets won out in a squeaker last fall and prospects call for a similar duel at the MHS field.

Bloomfield should get an important opening triumph. Picking favorites for the other big ridlifters would be a guessing game with the exception of the contest at Bay City where Central should have too much for rebuilding Lapeer.

Walled Lake will be testing its one solid unit, OL St. Mary should get a good tuneup for the Suburban Catholic war but faces the problem of injuries against a bigger school. Davison will bring a veteran eleven to Rochester. Romeo and Ortonville also face rugged tests.

★ ★ ★

Elsewhere, Farmington plays in the afternoon as host to Livonia Bentley hoping to continue its unbeaten ways, Ferndale is guest of Berkley, East Detroit invades Royal Oak Dondero, Hazel Park is at Fitzgerald, Clawson at Center Line, Plymouth at Northville, Madison entertains RO St. Mary, and Clarenceville tackles Ypsilanti Lincoln.

Also, Imlay City at Almont, North Branch is home to face Marlette, Utica visits Warren Lincoln, Country Day is at Maumee, Ohio, Brown City at Deckerville, Peck at Dryden, South Lyon at Brighton, Troy at Marysville, Bay City Handy at Port Huron, Alpena at Saginaw, Flint Central at Midland and Armada takes on New Baltimore St. Mary.

LOOKING UP — Center Charley Ane, captain of the offensive team of the Detroit Lions, has hopes that things will look up for the Lions in the NFL this year. This is his 6th pro season.

Parochial Openers

Here are the area parochial football openers for 1959:

OL St. Mary at Hamtramck, Friday, 8 p.m.

West Bloomfield at St. Michael (Wisner, Saturday, 8 p.m.)

Detroit St. Alphonsus at St. Frederick (Wisner, Sunday, 2 p.m.)

Commercial Fishing Law Gets General Approval

LANSING (AP)—Michigan's money-troubled legislature has yet to adjourn for the year, but virtually all legislation dealing with conservation matters has been dealt with.

There was little to get excited about. Of the 23 new conservation laws, only a few rate much attention.

Those tossed on the scrapheap made most of the headlines.

Tops among them, perhaps, was a bill to set up a $2-yearly admission fee to state parks. Proceeds would have financed a parks improvement program.

The bill cleared the legislature but ran into a surprise veto by Gov. Williams.

Lawmakers haven't acted on the veto, but, with Democrats almost solidly against the measure, chances of overturning the governor's decision are practically nil.

Of those that became law, the state conservation department was happiest with one empowering the department to regulate commercial fishing in Michigan waters of the Great Lakes. The industry itself, after years of opposing the idea, also recognized that the process of amending laws to meet its needs was often much too slow.

Another new law of some significance authorizes permits for water use by the growing low-grade ore mining industry in the Upper Peninsula. Some conservationists protested it would clear the way for exploitation of water supplies, but state officials are confident it contains adequate safeguards against misuse.

Kimball, Dales, Reds, East Detroiters Look Tough for Birmingham

Who will be Birmingham's toughest opposition this fall in the race for the Eastern Michigan League football title?

On paper, it looks like one of the most wide-open races in loop history with only Mt. Clemens under new head coach Steve Nowak and Hazel Park, the 1957 champ, appearing to be outclassed.

Bob Hayes figures to use only four seniors in his starting lineup at Port Huron and the veteran Big Red mentor will rely strongly on a good junior crop. The entire backfield from last year's title-winning squad picked up their diplomas in June.

★ ★ ★

The Big Reds cannot be ignored, however, and neither can East Detroit, which has a dozen lettermen in harness, led by ace halfback Dick Ickes and 210-pound tackle Larry Jones.

New Ball Park Will Be Ready if Giants Win

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — This city's new baseball park will be ready if the Gjants win the National League pennant and it will seat 42,000.

That was announced yesterday by Mayor George Christopher after an inspection of the stadium at Candlestick Point near San Francisco Bay.

Lions-Redskins End Exhibition Play

LeBaron Back for Full-Time Duty

[redacted] in Law [redacted] of Pres[redacted]

DETROIT — [redacted] LeBaron is back on full-time duty as quarterback of the Washington Redskins, who will meet the Detroit Lions here Saturday night in the final pre-season game for both teams.

The little veteran has been working toward his law degree, missed several workouts and has been used sparingly in five previous exhibition games.

The Redskins have only one victory, having beaten the Los Angeles Rams 23-21 while bowing to San Francisco, Green Bay, Baltimore and the Chicago Bears.

The Lions have a 3-2-1 mark and are riding a two-game winning streak. Yale Lary will be the only absentee in this Briggs Stadium clash, the veteran defensive back having suffered a pulled muscle in last week's thriller over Cleveland.

Michigan fans will have their first chance to see former Central Michigan great Jim Podoley in the professional ranks. He's a slotback for the Redskins and is used both as a runner and as a pass receiver.

"He has great deception and great speed," said general manager Dick McCann. "we believe he's one of the finest backs in the league, and certainly one of the most versatile."

In two seasons, Podoley has averaged 3.8 yards on 162 carries, has caught 43 passes for 935 yards and has scored 10 touchdowns. He frequently is LeBaron's favorite target on long passes. He has scored on touchdown passes of 64, 66 and 82 yards in the pro ranks, two of the tosses coming from Lebaron.

In LeBaron the Lions will be facing the National Football League's most effective passer of 1958. LeBaron, only 5-feet-7 and 165 pounds, averaging 9.41 yards per pass after finishing second in the league in 1957.

In the 1959 exhibitions, LeBaron has completed 52 of 86 passes for 778 yards and 6 touchdowns. He has 10-for-10 against the 49ers and 15 for 23 in the victory over Los Angeles.

Many of the Washington players will be out with injuries. Coach Mike Nixon has had to go with inexperienced men to make up for the loss of such veterans as Sam Baker, Bert Zagers (former Michigan Stater) and Richie McCabe.

Piston Rookie to Get Chance

DETROIT (UP) — Rookie Tony Windis got coach Red Rocha's [illegible]ance today that a leg injury [illegible] run the youngster out of the National Basketball Assn.

★ ★ ★

Windis, hurt in the Detroit Pistons' first drill in rookie camp, may be out as long as 10 days. Rocha must make a squad cut before the club goes to West Branch, Mich., this weekend for full-squad drills.

★ ★ ★

"The kid is a good basketball player and he's going to get a thorough looking-over," said Rocha. "We'll keep him around until he can go at full strength. If he shows me he can play in the big leagues, he'll make this club."

Wings Cut 2 Players

Shamrocks Go Saturday, Rams Start Sunday

Orchard Lakers Tip Off SCL Season

The Eaglets of St. Mary HS at Orchard Lake, will find out Friday night at Hamtramck High's gridiron, just about what their chances may be for a successful flight into Suburban Catholic League title contention, this fall.

Rev. John Rakoczy's eleven is the first of the Pontiac parochial squads to taste action in the new season. Friday's contest is set for Keyworth Stadium, the Cosmos home field.

Probably the most interesting of the weekend tilts for Catholic clubs will be St. Michael's collision with West Bloomfield, Saturday night at Wisner Stadium. The Shamrocks are rated as one of the SCL favorites this fall. Lakers are reported to be loaded with talent.

★ ★ ★

In the third straight day of action for the parochials, St. Fredericks Rams will entertain a Detroit crew coached by one of the school's former stars. Dave Kline brings his St. Alphonsus eleven to Wisner Stadium for a Sunday afternoon clash.

Eaglets were in good condition for their opener, said the coach, who announced his starters as follows:

Eaglet starters at Hamtramck will include Chesley Odom at the pivot, Bob Argasinski and Bob Ura at tacksles; Robert Peplow and Bob Kula at guards; Milt Wojtowicz and Ken Kowalski at the flanks, Stan (Kroger Krogulecki, quarterback, Bill Krul at fullback and Ted Barszczewski and Glenn Hass at the halfback spots will complete the openers.

"We hope to give the Cosmos a good game", Rev. Rakoczy said this morning, confirming his starters. "If the boys loosen up, we may do all right. But Hamtramck is a bigger team, and we will have a tough job ahead of us. At any rate it will give the squad some very good experience," the coach added.

Cosmos have several more than average players back from 1958, including guard Frank Kuran, hard-running fullback Mitch Siskowski, halfback Jerry Markiewicz, and flashy Dewey Lincoln, one of the Cosmos best backs in years.

Wolverine Has 17 in Feature

Brown Jug Preview Race Has Co-Favorites Tonight

DETROIT (UPI) — Seventeen of the nation's top three-year olds were entered in the $22,050 Brown Jug Preview tonight at Wolverine Harness Raceway in Detroit.

The event was divided into two divisions due to the large entry Grand Circuit week at Wolverine.

Meadow Maid, owned and driven by Del Miller of Meadow Lands, Pa., and Meadow Al, of the S. A. Camp Farm of Shafter, Calif., were favorites in the pace.

The luck of the draw pitted the two in different divisions but the rules of the stake require that the top five finishers in each section come back for the rich finals.

Merrie Adios, owned by Bryon Kuth of Chesterfield, Ohio, staged the biggest upset in the current Wolverine season last night by winning the $6,090 Scottish Pence Stake. Odds on Merrie Adios were 51-1.

He beat Edgewood Royal in a photo finish. Major Goose was third and the post-time favorite, Muncy Hanover, was eighth.

Round Table Nearing Duel With Hillsdale

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Victory by favored Round Table in Saturday's $100,000 United Nations Handicap here would virtually assure a meeting with Hillsdale for "horse of the year" honors in the Woodward Memrial.

★ ★ ★

Round Table will be the odds-on-choice in the UN running at Atlantic City Race Course and a good showing probably would lead to the Hillsdale match at New York's Aqueduct track on Sept. 26.

★ ★ ★

The Kerr Stable entry will carry the highest weight of his career—136—in the Atlantic City race.

Ingo to Visit Detroit

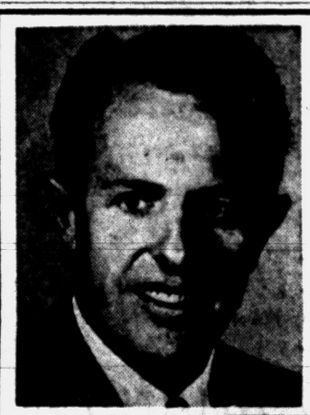

DETROIT (UP) — Ingemar Johansson, the world heavyweight boxing champion, is scheduled to arrive in Detroit next Tuesday for a visit with Gustav Von Reis, an area industrialist. Johansson will fly in from his home in Goteborg, Sweden.

U. of D. Home Opener Friday Night

10 State College Games on Tap

DETROIT (AP) — Ten games get the Michigan college football season off to a full start this weekend.

In the feature game, the University of Detroit makes its grid debut under new coach Jim Miller Friday night with a 150 pound quarterback running the offensive behind a line that averages 220 pounds.

★ ★ ★

Other attractions have Hillsdale at Northern Michigan and Western Michigan at Central Michigan.

Detroit's opponent is George Washington, a team the Titans defeated 21-6 in last year's opener.

Detroit's quarterback is Tony Hanley, a junior from Sunnyvale, Calif., who stands 5-feet-10. But the Titans' main offensive threat is Bruce Maher, who led the club in almost everything last year.

Maher, who gained 832 yards rushing over the past two seasons, also was the club's top pass receiver and scorer, and was its leader in kick-off and punt returns and minutes played. Maher already has been drafted by the Detroit Lions for delivery in 1960.

★ ★ ★

Miller, who served as an assistant coach at Purdue before succeeding Wally Fromhart at Detroit, inherited 19 lettermen from the club that posted a 4-4-1 record last year. He belives he has a solid front line club but his club lacks great speed and sufficient depth.

"I'd like to play two complete offensive units if I can," said Miller.

"Right now we're just concentrating on getting our first unit organized into a smooth-running football outfit."

In an effort to add speed to the backfield, Miller switched halfback Ray Davis to fullback and made it clear the Titans would try to use a wide-open style of attack.

"We believe we can pass," Miller explained. "We'll use slot backs and flankers and try to pass as much as we can. Our quarterback is small but he gets the job done. He has the confidence and poise necessary and his play-calling is sound."

Hillsdale and Northern Michigan will be tangling for the second time in history, Hillsdale having won the inaugural last year 9-7 in the final game of the campaign for both clubs.

The Western-Central game will be the 36th in a long series between the two schools. Central eked out a 33-32 dicision in a real thriller last season for the Chippewas' ninth triumph in the series.

In addition to the Hillsdale-Northern clash, the other six teams in the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Assn. will be facing out-of-state opponents.

Hope visits DePauw, Kalamazoo is at Wabash and Ohio Northern at Albion in day encounters. The night games have North Park of Chicago at Olivet, Indiana Central at Alma and Defiance at Adrian.

Here's the weekend schedule for Michigan teams:

FRIDAY NIGHT
George Washington at Detroit

SATURDAY AFTERNOON
Michigan Tech at Winona State
Hillsdale at Northern Michigan
Western Michigan at Central Michigan
Hope at Depauw
Kalamazoo at Wabash
Ohio Northern at Albion

SATURDAY NIGHT

Wisconsin Sailor Tops Pack in Texas Races

HOUSTON (AP)—Harry Melges of Lake Geneva, Wis., won one race and took second in another Wednesday to grab the lead in the Corinthian class Mallory Cup sailing championships.

Robert Sides, Gloucester, Mass., the leader for the first two days, could manage only a fifth, a third and a fourth in the three events.

Melges scored a third in the other race. Melges has 39½ points to 38½ for Sides.

59s Best at Tam

2 Victors in Pro-Member

Knowledge of the surroundings paid off for a couple of golf professionals in Wednesday's Pro-Member golf tournament at Tam O'Shanter Country Club.

Pontiac's Gene Bone, an assistant pro at Tam for four years before taking the head job at Warwick Hills last spring, and Ron Pawlacyk, Warren Orlick's youngest and newest assistant at Tam, were the profiteers.

Bone and Pawlacyk and their respective amateur partners both fired 12-under-par 59s yesterday to win the tourney by two strokes. A total of 33 teams competed in the event and there was a triple tie for 2nd place at 61.

★ ★ ★

Bone, playing with Al Betz, Leslie Schmier and Nate Balaban, carded 27-32. Pawlacyk, 24-year-old Southern Cal. graduate, teamed with Jerry Rogers, Dr. Sidney Barak and Dr. Tom Shulman for a score of 29-30.

The Bone foursome combined for four birdies, three eagles and an ace. Balaban was credited with a hole-in-one on the 2nd hole with the aid of a stroke handicap. Pawlacyk and his partners posted eight birdies and two eagles.

Sharing 2nd place with 61s were Tommy Shannon (Herman Fishman, Hanley Wolf and Felix Hower), Joe Thacker (Herb Charfoos, Art Howard and Joe Braver), and Tam's Mac McElmurry (Lou Schwartz, Richard Gunsberg and Dr. Harold Robinson).

Elmer Prieskorn of Pine Lake and Al Watrous of Oakland Hills each shot 70 for the best individual scorecard among the pros. Prieskorn made five birdies.

Dearborn Nine Still Survives

BATTLE CREEK (AP)—The pressure was on today as the four surviving teams in the Eastern Division playoffs of the American Amateur Baseball Tournament battle in the semifinal round.

Marion Ladewig at Maple Lanes

Bowlerama Site to Have Grand Opening

Prroprietor Ben Bondo is looking forward to some big doings at his Maples Lanes alleys in Walled Lake during the next few weeks.

The first big event comes up Saturday night when a grand opening is held freaturing an exhibition by women's great Marion Ladewig.

Following will be The Pontiac Press Bowlerama tournament during October.

The Walled Lake establishment will be one of the qualifying sites for the 3rd annual singles event.

Mrs. Ladewig has dominated the women's bowling field during the last several years.

★ ★ ★

The popular Grand Rapids woman will be making her 3rd appearance in the Pontiac area. She has won seven "bowler of the year" awards.

Mrs. Ladewig will demonstrate how she has held a 190 average throughout her 20-year career. She will also be available for free instructions.

Interest in the Bowlerama is growing fast around Walled Lake and in all of Oakland County.

★ ★ ★

Blanks are available at every bowling house in the county and at The Press. They also may be clipped out of the paper and used as entry blanks. They may be turned in or mailed to the alleys or The Press.

★ ★ ★

"We have been giving out plenty of blanks here. The interest is high," said Bondo.

★ ★ ★

His new house includes 18 alleys with automatic pinesetters. It has such features as telescores, flower beds extending the length of the alleys, a grill and even a nursery room.

TCU Boss Eyes Kansas

4 Texas Gridders Move

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—L. R. (Dutch) Meyer, athletic director of Texas Christian, doesn't like it because those four Texas athletes, particularly Bert Coan, are transferring to Kansas.

Coan failed to return to TCU for his sophomore season in football. Mickey Walker, James Street and Rodger McFarland left Texas A&M and joined Coan in the trek to Kansas.

★ ★ ★

Meyer lashed out at the circumstances of their transfer, declaring that Kansas never contacted him about it although Louisiana State, Houston and Colorado had done so when the boys talked with them.

That will be fixed though, said Dutch Lonborg, Kansas athletic director, last night at Lawrence, Kans.

Texas Christian plays Kansas in football here Saturday and Lonborg said he would talk things over with Meyer then.

Meyer said he wasn't criticizing Kansas for the recruiting but that he felt "some of the alumni had something to do with it. I definitely feel that somebody has tampered with the boy (Coan) and I don't mind saying so. And it looks a little questionable when four supposedly established football players transfer to a different school in one bunch."

The TCU athletic director said "we are investigating the situation and if we can get definite proof that the boys were tampered with I think the NCAA will want to look into it."

Machen Outpoints Willi Besmanoff

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Eddie Machen said he did his best in fighting ever last night when he outpointed Willi Besmanoff in a 10-round heavyweight fight here.

★ ★ ★

But the Portland battler didn't demonstrate the punch that accounted for 18 knockout victories in his 32 professional fights, and the crowd of 2,277 didn't like it.

The many clinches, close-in jabbing, and a lack of action during the nationally televised fight brought frequent boos and catcalls from the fans, who paid $8,147 at the gate.

★ ★ ★

Machen's victory over Besmanoff, a German-born fighter now out of Milwaukee, boosted his record to 30-1-1. The lone loss was a knockout at the hands of heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson last year.

There's Real Ice Cream Money

'I'm Going West With Chuck Connors'

By TRACY ANN BOYLE
(For Her Father, Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — Daddy is always asking me, "Well, when are you going to start bringing some fresh money into the family?"

I tell him that, after all, I am just a little girl only 6 years old getting ready to start first grade.

★ ★ ★

"That's no excuse. Idleness never pays. When I was your age I was sweeping out my father's grocery store—for a dime a year," he says.

Daddy says somewhere he still has that first dime he earned—mama says he probably has the second one too—but he never seems to have it when I want an ice cream cone.

★ ★ ★

"Well, if you worked for your daddy, I'll work for you," I told him the other night. "But I want 20 cents a year."

He finally agreed to pay 15.

★ ★ ★

My first assignment was to interview Chuck Connors, who plays on television and is one of my favorite actors. Daddy came along too, so I guess the lunch must have been free.

Well, guess what! Chuck Connors is nearly 6½ feet tall and weighs 217 pounds, and is strong enough to crush a kindergarten teacher in each hand.

I was so surprised I laid down on the restaurant seat and hid my face in my hands.

"I can see your freckles," said Chuck, and I said I hated them, and he said, "I've got freckles on my back, but you can't see them. And I've got four boys of my own, but I sure wish I had a couple of little girls, too."

Well, he was so nice I sat up and ate a hamburger and some strawberry ice cream. Chuck ate a martini and some tomato juice, some chopped chicken liver, 12 cherry stone clams, and a great big hamburger and some coffee, and where it all went I don't know. Actors sure must get hungry.

Well, Chuck said he used to play baseball for the Chicago Cubs, and he showed me the little finger he broke once playing professional basketball in Boston. It is still bent—just like a measuring worm.

One day a movie company paid Chuck $500 for one day's work on a picture, and he decided right then baseball was just a boy's game. I asked him how long it would take a little girl to make $500 if she only got 15 cents a year, and Chuck looked surprised and said, "Oh, about 3,333 years." Daddy harrumphed and turned red.

Well, Chuck said being a Western star wasn't all hay and oats. He was born in Brooklyn and had trouble staying in a subway saddle until four years ago when he bought a horse for $50 and learned how to ride. He said he paid an old movie cowboy to teach him how to be a cowboy, too.

He also had to learn to shoot a rifle, and now he says he can shoot a rifle six times in two seconds with either hand. I asked him if he could shoot faster than Marshal Dillon, and he asked, "Who?"

Chuck said he didn't like violence and that of his last 40 films, nobody was shot in 20 of them, and that he really wouldn't actually shoot anybody, not even for money—not even a producer. It's all an act with him.

He says most actors don't like to play with kids or animals as they steal the camera, but that Johnny Crawford, who plays his son, is the best child in the world, and I guess that means he doesn't steal.

I forgot to say that Chuck has to wear sideburns and long hair, and he says that is the worst part of acting, as he likes crew cuts. But he says that's life, and anyway he's happy as his show is in the top 10.

★ ★ ★

So I said so long.

Well, I guess I won't be doing any more interviews. I'm not going to work for Daddy anymore. I'm not going to grow up and be a nurse either. I'm going to buy a horse and a rifle and go out West with Chuck Connors where the real ice cream money is.

Defense Department Official Quits Post

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower Tuesday reluctantly accepted the resignation of Assistant Defense Secretary Wilfred J. McNeil, the Pentagon's financial chief who has supervised the spending of billions upon billions in defense outlays over the past 12 years.

McNeil, 58, often characterized as a canny Scot who knows the value of a dollar, is quitting Nov. 1. He has served as defense comptroller in both Democratic and Republican administrations since the military services were unified in 1947.

McNeil's appointment as president of the Grace Line Steamship Co., was announced in New York.

J. Peter Grace, president of W. R. Grace & Co., said McNeil also would become a director of the parent firm of which the Grace Line is a wholly-owned subsidiary.

In a letter to the President, McNeil said personal considerations compelled him to give up his $20,000-a-year post.

Open Iron Curtain to Voice of America

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Russians opened the Iron Curtain to the Voice of America Wednesday but kept it tightly closed to another free world radio outlet.

The Voice, beaming factual accounts into the Soviet Union of the arrival of Russian Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev in the United States, was given a respite from jamming for the first time in 10 years.

However, Radio Liberty, which mixed commentary, some critical, into its newscasts on Khrushchev, was jammed by Soviet transmitters as much as ever before, perhaps more. The Russians have jammed Radio Liberty broadcasts since five minutes after it went on the air in 1953.

Both the Voice of America, an official agency of the U. S. government, and Radio Liberty, which is supported by the American Committee for Liberation, have transmitters in Europe.

Stock Market Slow, Uneven

NEW YORK — The stock market moved unevenly in quiet early trading today.

Key stocks showed gains or losses running from fractions to about a point. Most changes were small.

Steels and motors were slightly lower.

U. S. Playing Card added more than two points to its five-point leap of yesterday on stock split news. Du Pont picked up a couple of points. General Foods lost more than a point.

The market was cautious and had no outstanding new developments to move it vigorously either way. The steel strike dragged along into its third month. Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's visit to the United States had done nothing yet to dispel the "watchful waiting" attitude of Wall Street.

American Motors continued active and was up about a point in a resumption of its latest upward drive. Ford and General Motors were a bit higher while Chrysler eased

Soybeans Firm, Grains Holding

CHICAGO (UP) — A light demand by commission houses firmed up soybean futures but the grains held within a narrowly mixed range in slow early dealings on the board of trade today.

Except for scattered hedge selling in soybeans, transactions appeared to be limited to small lots of both liquidation and short covering.

Commercial demand continued negligible although India was understood to have bought about 350,000 bushels of wheat, the first export business of the week. West Germany was reported to be in the market for corn but the amount was not believed to be large.

After about an hour wheat was unchanged to ¼ cent a bushel lower, September $1.89⅞; corn ½ lower to ⅛ higher, September $1.14; oats ⅛ to ¼ lower, September new type contract 65⅝; rye ¼ to ⅝ higher September, $1.30⅛; soybeans ⅛ to ¼ higher, September $2.06¾.

GM Announces PR Appointment

George C. Peters to Be Business Manager; Will Follow L. H. Kurtz

Appointment of George C. Peters as business manager of the General Motors public relations staff was announced today by Anthony G. De Lorenzo, GM vice president in charge of public relations.

Peters, assistant business manager since February 1954, succeeds LeRoy H. Kurtz, who retired Sept. 1 under provisions of the GM retirement program after a 40-year career with the company.

Prior to joining the public relations staff in Detroit in 1954, Peters was accounting manager for General Motors Acceptance Corp. at Shreveport, La. He started with GMAC at New Orleans in 1938.

Peters, a native of Madisonville, La., received a bachelor of science degree from Centenary College at Shreveport in 1953.

Kurtz started with GM's Export Division in New York in 1919. He subsequently worked in Paris, Copenhagen and Berlin before moving to the domestic organization in 1932.

He held various sales posts throughout the country until 1937 when he returned to General Motors Overseas Operations.

Times Are Changed for Round-Up Days

The Round Up Days celebration began today at Miracle Mile Shopping Center, Telegraph and Square Lake roads, but there were a few time changes announced.

The gala three-day sale spree will see stores open from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. today, Friday and Saturday, not 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. as previously reported.

It was also reported that the Miracle Mile Quarter Midgets would begin action at 9:45 Friday night. You'd better arrive at 8:45 instead if you want to see the big race, as the starting time has been set back one hour.

White Lake Twp. Police Chief OK After Smashup

"I'm lucky to be alive," said White Lake Township Police Chief Andrew Plano to Oakland County Sheriff's deputies as he stood alongside his demolished car this morning.

Plano, who lives at 9599 Portage Trail, White Lake Township, said he spotted some burglary suspects at about 1:30 a.m. and was chasing them east on M59 when his car suddenly went out of control just west of Pontiac Lake road.

The auto overturned, rolled several times, and skidded some 200 feet on its top before stopping. Plano told deputies.

The chief stepped from his wrecked vehicle with only a few minor scratches.

Dow Chemical Plants Operate Near Capacity

MIDLAND (UP) — Dow Chemical Company's major manufacturing divisions are operating at an average level of more than 70 per cent of capacity.

President Leland I. Doan also told stockholders at the 62nd annual meeting yesterday that "we are back around what we consider to be par for the course, since 100 per cent of capacity is more theoretical than practical."

Doan said Dow sales reached a new high of $705,000,000 in the fiscal year ended last May 31, compared with $636,000,000 in 1958, an increase of more than 10 per cent.

Earnings totaling $63,000,000 were 37 per cent higher than the $46,000,000 earned in 1958, Doan reported.

Shareholders re-elected all directors.

Labor Convenes in Angry Mood

AFL-CIO Will Attempt to Figure How to Beat New Labor Law

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The AFL-CIO, worried and angry, opens a convention today to face what its leaders say is an effort to destroy the labor movement.

About 900 delegates will attempt to figure out how to beat the new labor law — and how to elect their friends to Congress and the White House in 1960.

In preliminary meetings, AFL-CIO President George Meany and other top labor leaders have told their followers that organized labor's survival is at stake.

Meany has given these reasons for why he thinks labor is in trouble:

—The Landrum-Griffin Act will be a potent weapon against labor, especially in nonunionized areas of the South.

—The steel industry, in its current 65-day-old strike, is deliberately attempting "to break the union."

—So-called right-to-work proposals, which would make the open shop compulsory, are being strongly pressed in several states.

—Teamster boss James Hoffa, whom Meany calls "labor's No. 1 enemy," has given trade unions a bad name with the public.

In these circumstances, Meany said, an organized attack is being mounted by the National Assn. of Manufacturers, the Chambers of Commerce and others.

To fight the battle of the moment — the steel strike — the AFL-CIO Executive Council is planning to ask each of 12,675,000 members to contribute a penny a day.

David J. McDonald, steelworker president, is scheduled to address the convention by telephone later today from New York.

'Miss Alaska' Enrolls Today at MSUO

Michigan State University Oakland warmly greeted "Miss Alaska" today and prepared to enroll its first beauty queen.

Flower of the campus, until contested, she is 17-year-old Diane Lee, the daughter of a Nome goldminer. She recently graduated the second in her high school class and comes to MSUO today on a tuition scholarship.

Diane placed fourth in the Junior Miss America Pageant last March in Mobile, Ala.

Loren Pope, assistant to the chancellor, explained, "I sent a message to the state superintendent of public instruction in Alaska asking if he could recommend some candidates from one of the nation's two newest states who would be worthy of attending the nation's newest and best university."

Diane will take a liberal arts curriculum at MSUO.

Kidnap Victim Vanishes Again

Snatched 6 Years Ago, Millionaire Oilman Is Missing in Chicago

CHICAGO (UPI) — Harold T. Martin, a millionaire oilman who was kidnaped six years ago, has disappeared again, police said today.

The oil tycoon, owner of the Martin gas station chain, was last seen yesterday afternoon on Chicago's near North Side, officers said.

Company officials said Martin visited a construction project at a Martin station on LaSalle street. Workers said he left his car parked at the station and walked away.

They thought he either intended to visit a nearby restaurant or walk the five short blocks to his offices.

EXTRA SQUADS

His wife notified company officials when he failed to return home for dinner as expected.

Police were alerted and Deputy Chief of Detectives Howard Pierson brought in extra squads of officers to comb the area.

Police disclosed that Martin and another oilman, C. D. Kinsley, Houston, Tex., were kidnaped at the Elmhurst Country Club Sept. 25, 1953, by three masked men.

Herter Maps Cold War End

Beats Nikita to U.N. With Plan for Peaceful East-West Changes

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UP) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter today laid down a broad program to end East-West tension through peaceful change in the political, military and economic fields.

Herter addressed the 82-nation General Assembly in a major policy speech obviously aimed at Soviet Premier Khrushchev, who will speak from the same rostrum tomorrow afternoon.

While denouncing use of force by Communists in Asia and other places, such as Hungary, Herter appealed for serious negotiation of disarmament, outer space cooperation and on such outstanding political problems as Berlin and reunification of divided Germany.

He blamed noncooperation of the Soviet Union for the arms race of the past ten years, but declared that the United States regards the forthcoming disarmament talks next year as "a major opportunity."

FIRST APPEARANCE

This was Herter's first appearance before the Assembly since he succeeded John Foster Dulles as secretary of state earlier this year.

He was mostly conciliatory in dealing with the Soviet Union, but he pulled no punches on the Chinese Communists and their activities in the far east.

Herter flatly rejected the recent Soviet proposal for a new international conference on troubled Laos.

He added a warning:

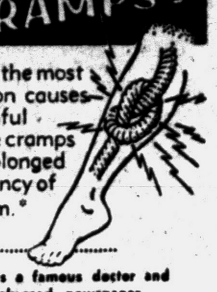

"The United States is pledged under the (U. N.) charter to resist aggression. It will fulfill this pledge without equivocation. We will support the Royal Lao government in its own efforts to preserve independence."

C. M. Hall Lamp Co. Opening New Plant

DETROIT (UP) — C. M. Hall Lamp Co. announced Thursday it has opened a new plant at Clinton, N. C., to handle what it termed "overflow of the firm's Detroit plant capacity."

Harry D. Hirsch, president, said that capacities of both plants are fully booked for the next year. The firm makes auto parts.

LEG CRAMPS?

One of the most common causes of painful muscle cramps is a prolonged deficiency of calcium.*

So says a famous doctor and widely-read newspaper columnist, formerly with the Mayo Clinic, and other well-known health authorities

When meals, consistently deficient in calcium, are fortified with DYNA-CAL Calcium Tablets, tormenting calcium-deficient muscle cramps can be promptly relieved. But don't confuse DYNA-CAL Tablets with ordinary calcium-phosphorus products. DYNA-CAL Tablets contain no phosphorus which frequently intereferes with the absorption of calcium. And DYNA-CAL Tablets contain a special ingredient which helps to put calcium into the blood stream quicker—bringing faster relief to cramping, calcium-starved muscles. Pleasant-to-take DYNA-CAL Tablets with calcium, glutamic acid hydrochloride, and vitamins D and C contain no drugs. They are safe, harmless, calcium food supplements. If you are suffering miserable muscle cramps, and suspect you are not getting enough calcium, ask for DYNA-CAL Tablets, today. Bottles of 90 tablets, $1.50.

*Other causes for muscle cramps are entirely unrelated to calcium deficiency.

Integrate Easily in Tennessee

First Racial Mixture Finds 16 Negro Youths Entering Peacefully

SYMRNA, Tenn. (UPI)—Sixteen Negro pupils entered previously all-white John Coleman Elementary School without a ripple of trouble Wednesday in Tennessee's first rural public school integration.

The Negro children, accompanied by their parents, entered the school less than 24 hours after Federal Judge William E. Miller of Nashville ordered immediate integration of the school. Its patrons are mostly service personnel attached to Sewart Air Force Base here and all the Negroes are children of Air Force personnel. There are 500 white pupils.

Miller said that since the air base is operated on a racially integrated basis he could see no reason for difficulty in integrating the school. The Rutherford County School Board, ordered a week ago to submit a desegregation plan for the entire middle Tennessee County, asked for a delay until 1960-61. Miller refused the request.

School officials were forbidden by Miller's order to bar the Negro pupils. The school board last month refused to admit the Negroes contending that Rutherford County schools were operated under a "separate but equal" policy. Miller said this doctrine was quashed by the Supreme Court in May 1954.

★ ★ ★

Unless admitted to the Smyrna School, the Negroes would have had to attend an all-Negro school at Murfreesboro, Tenn., 14 miles away.

It was also Tennessee's first public school integration above the third grade. Two of the Negroes entered seventh grade classes and one each entered the fourth, sixth and eighth grades.

Sheriff Bill Wilson and two deputies were on hand when the Negroes arrived. School officials told the parents "your children will receive the same treatment as any other child in the school . . . there will be no difference in any way in discipline and education."

First official U. S. cencus taken in 1790 listed just 3,929,214 persons.

Russian Bear to Star in Sullivan Special

By JACK GAVER

NEW YORK (UPI) — Appropriately enough, one of the entertainers on the 90-minute program Ed Sullivan recorded on video tape during his recent trip to Moscow is a bear, symbol of Russia.

"The bear was our key find as we scouted numerous Russian acts," Sullivan said. "This circus bear does things I've never seen another performing bear do."

The showman said that he picked two other top acts while in Moscow to appear on the TV program along with the American acts he took t the Russian capital to perform during the summer. They are the Red Army Dancers and the Obratsov Puppets.

This Sullivan special will be aired by CBS Sept. 27, using the 7:30 - 8 p.m. period in addition to Sullivan's weekly 8-9 spot.

"I can't say enough good things about the Russian audiences and the people we met on the street," Sullivan said in reminiscing about his trip. "We were all overwhelmed by the reception given us.

★ ★ ★

"There was little advance publicity about our show, but we played to standing room only every performance. The news must have spread by word of mouth.

FLOWERS FOR CAST

"At the end of each performance, when the entire cast sang 'Getting to Know You' in Russian, the audiences streamed down toward the stage to cheer and throw flowers. It almost broke me up.

"I'm sure that our warm reception was due in part to the fact that many of the performers took the trouble to learn some Russian before we left New York."

Sullivan said that 12,000 persons tried to get into the outdoor Green Theater in Moscow's Gorky Park on his troupe's opening night athough there were accommodations for only 10,000.

"The admission was from 70 cents to $2," he continued, "while we were in Moscow, but when we went on to Leningrad for a four-day engagement we played in a 1,200-seat theater and the old law of supply and demand sent the ticket price up to from $2 to $7.

"We were so busy giving performances that the troupe didn't have much time for sightseeing, but the performers did get to places such as the Kremlin, the huge Gum Department Store and the palace where the former crown jewels are kept.

"We had three tables in the first class dining room of the Hotel Ukrainia, with four waitresses assigned to us. When it was time to leave Moscow, the waitresses presented us with richly decorated serving spoons as farewell gifts."

The Americans chipped in to leave a monetary gift to the waitresses, who finally accepted after initial reluctance, he added.

Some of the Americans who were in the troupe and will be seen on the Sept. 27 telecast are accordionist Dick Contino, singer Rise Stevens, dancers Marge and Gower Champion, singer Margaret Tynes and harmonicist Eedy Manson.

Nikita's Pals Thought Earl's Son, 15, a Drunk

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — There is a lot of humor associated with Mr. K's visit to America, and let's hope it stays funny.

Three years ago the Beautiful Wife, my son Slugger and I toured Russia—and managed to be at the American embassy party on July 4 which was attended by Khrushchev and his buddy-at-the-time, Bulganin.

WILSON

Drinks were passed, and some thirsty lady who really preferred scotch grabbed onto a glass of champagne because she didn't see any scotch.

She had half of it, and then spied some scotch.

In leaping for the scotch, she remembered the champagne and turned to look for somebody empty-handed.

It being an American-type cocktail party, the only empty-handed person was my son Slugger, who was then 13.

"Here, sonny, you hold this!" she commanded.

He dutifully complied—and was still holding it a couple of minutes later when Bulganin and Malenkov started a tour of the embassy grounds to greet everybody.

Suddenly they came to the little American boy who was obviously getting himself drunk on champagne because by this time the fizz had died down and the glass looked almost empty.

Bulganin and Malenkov shrieked with laughter and told Mr. K. and the other Russians about it.

My son, knowing all of three words of Russian, had difficulty explaining the situation to them.

They apparently concluded that all little American boys are tipplers.

By the way, what ever happened to them?

★ ★ ★

But back to New York: He was just a cab driver named Victor Meyer and he didn't know me. He said, "Now that the Russians are first to hit the moon, I'd like to see the first man to land there be Khrushchev—and I don't care how he gets back."

★ ★ ★

The Russian embassy has just explained that Ed Sullivan's troupe hasn't been paid the $32,000 due it from the Moscow Fair because the check is en route now to CBS. Whereupon a B'wayite cracked, "They can get a rocket to the moon faster than they can get a check to CBS."

Godfrey's Tape Return Was His Finest TV Hour

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI)—Skilled surgeons and modern medicine gave Arthur Godfrey a new lease on life and videotape has given his TV career a great big boost.

For his return to broadcasting after a lung cancer operation last April, the ol' redhead appeared on CBS TV last night in a one-hour special that was taped in Hawaii, on his farm in Virginia, and in a New York studio.

It was Godfrey's finest TV hour, thanks to the imaginative uses of tape. Viewers were taken from one place to another through clever tape techniques. We were taken through a studio door to emerge on his farm.

We went into the water in Hawaii and came up in Godfrey's pool at the Beacon Hill farm.

One sequence attempted to blend ballet dancing with a steer chase. While it had its awkward moments, it was a worthy experiment. One sequence featured a Tahitian hip-shaker. For a moment, I thought my picture tube had exploded.

Anyhow, it was an easy show to watch.

GODFREY STILL SELLS

Godfrey's special brand of entertainment, which eschews polish as a performing talent in favor of the more durable talent for "tap root" communication through word and song, is a national treasure.

Since we almost lost it a few months back, there is all the more cause to appreciate it now. Fellows like Jack Paar, Art Linkletter, Ralph Edwards and Dick Clark can't and probably never will, match his style no matter how they try.

In between his singing, dancing, swimming, horseback riding and ukelele playing, Godfrey delivered commercials for three, count 'em, three different sponsors. He still sells.

While he didn't show us scenes he didn't show off before, the three-way blending of the different sites was original. In his future shows, he promised to take us to places that are less familiar.

I also salute him for singing and dancing and running out of breath. Breathless singers are rare on TV these days, and when they can prerecord songs and synchronize their mouths on camera, a one-lunger like Godfrey comes along and shows up all that flim-flam nonsense.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: NBC-TV's new Tuesday night western, Laramie, outscored ABC-TV's Sugarfoot, 15.0 to 12.7 in the Trendex rating. But ABC-TV's Wyatt Earp launched his new season with a 21.8 Trendex, topping NBC's Fibber McGee and Molly (16.0) and CBS' To Tell the Truth (13.6).

Jessica Tandy will costar with Jack Hawkins in "The Fallen Idol" on CBS-TV Wednesday, Oct. 14. . . . Victor Borge's upcoming NBC-TV special, on Friday, Oct. 16, is featuring a "Hamlet" spoof by Betty Marsden, a British comedienne. The bit is being filmed "on the scene" at Kronberg Castle in Denmark.

New TruHeat Firm Under Way in Allegan

ALLEGAN (UPI)—The newly formed TruHeat Corp. announced production under way Wednesday with a work force of 15 persons. The firm produces electrical heating equipment.

It took over a plant vacated early this spring by HeaTube division of McGraw-Edison Co. The HeaTube move cost Allegan 75 jobs. C. F. Ramey, president of the new firm and a former HeaTube executive, says the TruHeat firm plans to build to a production staff of about 60 workers.

Poison Ivy and Rattlesnakes

State Road Work Risky

LANSING (AP) — Poison ivy and rattlesnakes are among the hazards faced by the men who blaze the trails for the new roads being built by the State Highway Department.

Poison ivy might seem a minor risk compared to some of the more crippling injuries possible in highway work. But 58 cases have been reported among department workers since the first of the year and six were serious enough to cause the loss of a total of 15 work days.

The department now is pushing a bypass through this swampy area west of Kalamazoo.

As a precaution against any more snake encounters, serum will be made available for workers who have to go into the area, Hicks reported.
