City Officials to Settle RR Question

Commissioners Meet Tonight; Crowd Expected

Fate of Support Yard Stirs Great Interest by North Side Citizens

A standing room only crowd is expected to pack the City Commission chambers tonight to hear the commissioners vote on the approval or disapproval of the Grand Trunk industrial support yard in the north end.

The vote will be on the original request of the railroad that the city sell rights to a three-acre parcel of land needed to construct the yard south of Walton Boulevard.

Grand Trunk has maintained since the request was filed in June that the railroad's proposed site would be the only suitable one.

It is slated to provide additional services for both the Pontiac Motor and Fisher Body Division plants.

Slated to follow the vote will be continued action on last week's request of the Wever-Owen-Hawthorne Community Club that the city immediately extend Stanley avenue.

This project has been one reason why commissioners have hesitated in voicing approval of the yard. They say the location would block the Stanley extension north to Walton.

Action is expected at tonight's meeting on the proposed relocation of West Boulevard. This has been requested by Oakland County Board of Supervisors so that the road will not interfere with the new County Courthouse and Service Center construction.

The city attorney is expected to rule on a second request from the Board that the city and Waterford Township repeat their annexation proceedings of 104 acres in the Service Center.

The City Planning Commission has submitted a report on the proposed location of the new Post Office on West Huron street.

Visitor Makes Crashing Exit Through Window

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Mrs. Andrew Shafer of suburban Carnegie, about 10 miles from midtown Pittsburgh, was just about to return to bed after sending her husband off to work when she heard a terrific crash near the front door. She turned and found herself cornered in the parlor with a small deer.

A few minutes later, Mrs. Jean Zawoyski, who lives nearby, was confronted by a deer that had jumped through a window into the house. It fled through another window.

Summerfield underwent surgery yesterday to correct a "diverticulum of the esophagus." Dr. Albert E. Furstenburg, who performed the operation, said no malignancy was found.

But Hungary Regime Is Weak

Tanks Smash Last Rebels

But Moscow's puppet Hungarian Red regime faced enormous passive resistance, including a general strike.

A dozen Soviet politicians were said to be in wrecked Budapest trying to bolster Premier Janos Kadar's weak regime which yesterday rejected a U.N. request to admit observers.

Budapest reports said Soviet Communist Party Chief Nikita Khrushchev and First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan were believed to be in the Soviet group trying to persuade former Premier Imre Nagy to join the Kadar government.

Nagy was forced out of office just before the Russians began their massive tank assault on Budapest Nov. 3. Although a Communist, he still commands some popular support because of his resistance to Moscow's iron grip on Hungary.

Nagy took refuge in the Yugoslav embassy after the Russians fired him as premier.

A dispatch from Belgrade quoted a reliable Budapest informant as saying Yugoslav Ambassador Dalibor Soldatic had returned to Belgrade to discuss Nagy's future. Yugoslav newspapers did not mention Nagy's refuge in the embassy.

A brief telephone report from Budapest to Belgrade said the food situation in the starving capital was "slightly better" than last week.

But the situation was critical. The Kadar government admitted in its communication with the U.N. that the people "face a difficult winter" and need food, medicine and clothing.

Soviet tank crews which crushed the last big centers of resistance in Budapest, including suicide squads holed up on the industrial island of Czepel in the Danube, today hunted down the last armed bands. These mainly were in western Hungary near the Austrian frontier.

The Iron Curtain which had been raised in the revolt that began Oct. 23 slammed down again to seal off Hungary.

Reinforced Red frontier guards fired on the last little group of fugitives which fled into Austria yesterday and captured some Hungarians trying to escape.

The number of refugees who have fled into Austria neared the 20,000 mark.

A second international Red Cross convoy waited at the frontier for permission to enter Hungary en route to Budapest which now resembles the city smashed in the Soviet 50-day siege of 1944.

Most armed freedom fighters now have been killed or have melted underground. The full number of casualties may never be known, but estimates of the dead alone run as high as 18,000 to 25,000.

Otto John Tells of Red 'Ordeal'

West German Testifies Pretense of Cooperation Only Chance to Escape

KARSLRUHE, Germany (AP) — Dr. Otto John testified today he was 'several times on the verge of committing suicide' during the 17 months he stayed behind the Iron Curtain.

The former West German intelligence chief told the Federal Supreme Court trying him on treason charges that only by pretending to cooperate with the Communists could he have hoped to get back to the West.

"Had I refused, they would have robbed me of my free will and I might have betrayed everything," John said. "But in my very heart, I never surrendered to them or else I would not be here."

John is accused of leaking state secrets and denouncing agents of his FBI-style office after crossing into East Berlin July 20, 1954. He returned last December to surrender to West German authorities.

He was asked repeatedly why he did not disclose that he was being coerced when he was presented to Western journalists at a Communist - sponsored news conference in East Berlin three weeks after he crossed over. At that time, John stated he had defected to work for peace and against a Nazi revival.

"Why did you not seize this chance," asked the presiding judge.

"If I had done this, the Russians would have had a reason to lock me up for 20 years." John answered.

Killed Hanging 'Elvis'

CHICAGO (AP) — Martin Ritchie, 15, spent all day fashioning a 5½-foot dummy intended to resemble Elvis Presley. Last night he climbed a utility pole to hang Presley in effigy, short-circuited a line and was killed by a 5,000-volt charge of electricity.

Center Survey Funds Donated

Pontiac Foundation Gift Enables Study of City Project

The appropriation of $15,000 from the Pontiac Foundation to finance a preliminary survey, drawings, and a model of a Community Center for Pontiac, has been announced by Ralph T. Norvell, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Centennial Committee.

John W. Hirlinger, manager of the Chamber, termed the contribution the "first big financial step toward an auditorium in the city."

He said he hoped the first drawings and the model of the center would be available by February.

Estimated cost of the entire Community Center, hoped to be ready by the city's centennial celebration in 1961, is approximately $4 million. Means to finance this project has not been determined as yet, Hirlinger pointed out.

He said an agreement between the Chamber and the architects should be reached within one week.

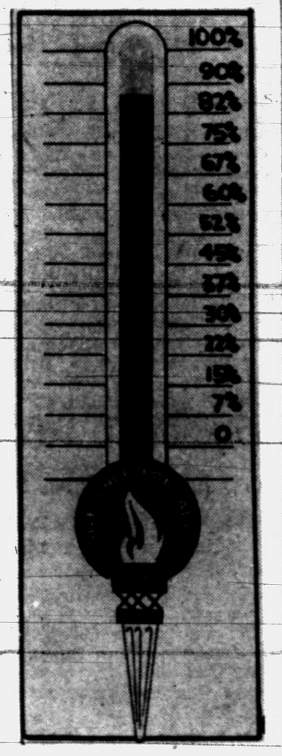

The survey to be included in the $15,000 donation, will determine the community's needs in the proposed building. From the survey the architects will draft their drawings, Hirlinger said.

The Pontiac Foundation was formed to receive money toward community betterment. One of its announced objectives was the construction of a civic auditorium.

UF Has 3 Days ---$91,831 to Go

With only three full days remaining before the official end of the campaign, the Pontiac Area United Fund drive inched toward its goal of $612,202 for 54 community service organizations.

Collections and pledges stand at 85 per cent, Campaign Chairman Walter K. Willman announced this morning, with $520,371 reported.

Gains over Monday's total pledge were made principally in the Commercial Division under chairman James F. Nye, and in the Geographic Division under its chairman, Mrs. Ralph G. Bump.

The Industrial Division led by Earl Maxwell, Personnel Director of GMC Truck and Coach Division, is having difficulty raising its $414,000 United Fund goal from a reduced industrial work force.

In order to meet this problem, industrial workers have been called upon to pledge an average gift of $10.40 each.

The Geographic Division is less than $3,000 short of its $19,116. Mrs. Bump and her two co-chairmen, Mrs. George Eldred for Waterford and Mrs. William Hutchinson for Pontiac have asked that all Geographic solicitors turn in their reports immediately either to their District Captain or to Pontiac Area United Fund headquarters at 20½ East Lawrence.

The Commercial Division is still $36,000 short of its $158,086 quota. Chairman Nye and his co-chairmen are making a special effort to have all solicitors turn in their United Fund collection today and Wednesday.

Nye is hopeful that his division will be able to make its quota in time for Friday's victory luncheon at the Elks Temple.

The current Pontiac Area United Fund campaign is being held in order to raise $612,202 for the operation of 54 community service organizations.

PURPOSE OF FUND

These organizations provide money for medical research, recreational and character-building facilities for Pontiac area youngsters, professional counsel for troubled families and individuals, free medical care and emergency direct relief.

The United Fund was founded eight years ago in order to eliminate the nuisance of dozens of separate appeals and in order to insure the efficient spending of money collected in the Pontiac area.

Who's Who Won't Give Women's Ages

NEW YORK (AP)— A male publisher says he plans to help put out a "Who's Who of American Women" with one concession to the ladies—they won't have to list their ages.

Wheeler Sammons Jr., associate publisher of "Who's Who in America," said the first edition of the new reference work is expected in 1958.

Sammons said the women's archives at Radcliffe College will help select 15,000 to 20,000 names for the "Who's Who of American Women."

"Who's Who in America" contains about 50,000 names—only 2,500 of them women's.

Complications Postpone Airlift of Police Force

New Dispute Aroused by Nasser's Terms for Occupying Egypt

LONDON (AP) — A 12-man team of U. N. observers moved into the Suez Canal zone no-man's-land today to watch over the cease-fire between French-British and Egyptian forces.

But the departure of the first U. N. police units for Egypt was postponed. U. N. spokesmen said the reason was, "flight times and schedules." At the same time, however, a major dispute over Egypt's terms for admission of the police force appeared to be developing.

Egypt consented to receive the U.N. observers several days ago. Her agreement to the police force was announced only yesterday by U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

The 12-man observer team including Norwegians, Swedes, Danes and Australians landed at Port Said in the British-French occupied sector of the canal zone from a landing ship which had picked them up at Haifa. They had been part of the U.N. corps of truce observers in Palestine.

The postponement of the police airlift until tomorrow at least was announced by U.N. spokesmen at Capodichino, Italy, where the 180-man vanguard of the international army is waiting.

A spokesman for the Swiss Airline, which is to transport the troops to Cairo, said the Swiss pilots wanted to make a daylight reconnaissance of Cairo's International Airport before attempting landings. A U.N. spokesman explained also that it would have been a race today to land the first troops in Cairo before 6 p.m. when the airport is closed for the night for military security reasons.

GROUND CREWS

Swiss representatives said some of the airline's own ground crews may also be taken to Cairo to facilitate operations.

Young fully armed soldiers of Norway, Denmark and Colombia, the advance units of a force that may eventually total 10,000 men, had been expected to enter Egypt today to take up their duties of enforcing Middle East peace and watching over withdrawal of British, French and Israeli forces.

Hammarskjold's announcement yesterday that the Egyptians had agreed to admit the U.N. police was followed up last night by Egypt's Middle East News Agency with a report of five conditions to which it said the secretary general had agreed.

There was no immediate official comment from Britain on these conditions, but the British press labeled them "impossible."

Some of the British papers said the "Egyptian dictator" was acting as if he had won the two-day battle in which British and French forces seized the northern third of the Suez Canal.

Meanwhile Hammarskjold arranged to fly to Cairo today and

Anxiety Fades as Junior Gets First Haircut

The busy little barbershop fills with mixed emotions when a little boy comes in for his first haircut.

Mother and Dad are relieved to see Junior losing his shaggy look, even though they both experience a small sized lump in the throat! The barber is patient and just a little proud that he was chosen for the job.

Two or three children waiting to be clipped, watch the proceedings, a little overbearingly because they're old hands at this sort of thing . . . and the young man getting his first trim? He's full of mixed emotions too!

Representatives of The Pontiac Press were invited along when young Mark Robert Collins, 14-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collins, 1939 Alsdorph Ave., Rochester, went to the barber for that important first haircut.

Chosen to give the trimming was Harry Dane, of Capitol Barber and Beauty Shop, 580 W. Huron St., the same barber who gave the elder Collins his first hair cut some 22 years ago.

The stage was set, the barber's chair built up for the little fellow and proceedings began.

In the final picture, the hair is out of Mark's eyes and he appears pretty non-committal and blase about the whole thing.

But as in all first barbershop experiences, it comes out happily. Mark discovered that Mr. Dane keeps a supply of candy on hand for little boys who get first haircuts.

The only problem that may result from the whole experience is when Mark goes back for the second haircut.

NOW WHAT'S THIS ABOUT?

HEY! CUT THAT OUT!

I'M BEING MURDERED!

NOTHING TO IT!

What's Your Opinion?

Among the most important issues facing the community today is the need for commercial airline service at our local airport. Efforts to achieve this end are currently spearheaded by a hard-working group called the Department of Aeronautics, City of Pontiac. But, it it is to be successful, it must have help. Public opinion is all it's asking for — turn to Page 17 to see how you can do your part in this worthy campaign.

Child Cruelty Trial to Open

Girl, 7, Claims Mother Severely Burned Hand as Punishment

Trial of Ada and William Wyatt, Keego Harbor parents of 12 children, on charges of child cruelty will open Thursday, Chief Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor said today.

Court proceedings will begin at 9:30 a.m. before Oakland County Judge Frank L. Doty, Taylor said. The couple are represented by Pontiac attorney Milton R. Henry.

At pre-trial examination, seven-year - old Sherry Wilkinson, a daughter of Mrs. Wyatt by previous marriage, testified her mother burned her left hand, holding it over a gas flame as punishment.

Doctors at Pontiac General Hospital, where Sherry spent three weeks under treatment for the burn and malnutrition, said the child might regain partial use of the hand after two years of treatments visit the Capodichino staging area, apparently to iron out any snags in the agreement. Canadian Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, commander of the new U.N. police force, left Jerusalem for Italy to meet Hammarskjold. Israeli Foreign Minister Golda Meir left on the same plane with Burns to head Israel's delegation to the U.N. in New York.

The five conditions listed by the Egyptian News Agency were that the international police would have no duties in the canal zone area after the withdrawal of British and French troops, that their work would then be confined to the 1949 armistice line between Israel and Egypt, that Egypt would determine what nationals serve on the force, where it will be stationed, and how long it may stay.

French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau said the French-British forces would "remain in the Suez Canal area until they have been relieved by an international force in essential places." It appeared to be Pineau's answer to Egypt's conditions.

Israel complained that the Soviet Union is refusing to sell her crude oil which she has been buying in Black Sea ports.

Meanwhile, the U. N. police force continued to build up at Capodichino for the airlift, which may not start before 4 a.m. tomorrow at the earliest.

By that time, a U.N. spokesman said, the force may have grown to 1,000 men. They will wear their normal national uniforms, along with distinctive blue and silver armbands with the lettering "United Nations" and distinctive berets flown from New York.

DUE FOR DOUBLING — With a new addition just completed, Birmingham's Sewage Treatment Plant is center of several extensive plans. Birmingham residents last week approved its sale to the North Evergreen Sewage Disposal Authority, which plans to double its size to take care of four municipalities. It is located on the south end of a 66-acre field for which Birmingham is planning recreational areas, parking area, and for this winter, ski runs.

Birmingham Plant Awaits 2nd Expansion

BIRMINGHAM — With a $132,000 expansion just completed, the Birmingham Sewage Treatment Plant on Cranbrook road near 14 Mile Road, is due for doubling if current plans materialize.

Residents voted last week to sell the plant to the North Evergreen Sewage Disposal Authority.

Built in 1938 and designed to serve 15,000 people, Evergreen planning calls for it serving a 47,000 population by the year 2000.

Expansion under the Evergreen Plan will be in excess of a million dollars, officials estimate.

But the authority's engineers yesterday said that the estimated cost hinges on how much purification the State Health Department desires.

With 100 per cent clean water being put into the Rouge River's branch just below the plant termed almost impossible, the department may ask about 95 per cent.

"When you reach over 90 per cent, it gets expensive," explains James Juhl, coordinator for the North Evergreen planning.

"About three million gallons a day are put into the stream now," he says, "giving a three-to-one ratio to the stream's own one-million gallons a day.

"Bringing the rate to the proposed 13 million a day will reduce the dilution to 13 to 1, which will require far more purification than is now necessary," he adds.

"There's better than a 50-50 chance that the North Evergreen plan will go through and the plant enlarged," Juhl says, pointing out, "We'd still rather use an interceptor direct to Detroit, where there's so much water in the Rouge that dilution isn't such a problem."

The expanded plant is due to be in operation by Dec. 31, 1957, if the four municipalities of the North Evergreen plan meet the court order demanding stop of Rouge River pollution.

Recently added at the plant were a new primary and a final settling tank, designed to increase the plant's efficiency rather than boost population served.

Large concrete tanks that were installed are 20x80 foot structures, in which filtering takes place. Installation was by the Birmingham Construction Co.

Firm now working on planned expansion for the Evergreen is Ayres, Lewis, Norris and May of Ann Arbor.

Troy city council last night tentatively approved allocation costs for its share of the North Evergreen, making the fourth and last such approval for the plan.

School Board to Study Derby Landscaping Bids

BIRMINGHAM—Board of education members will receive bids on the Derby Junior High School landscaping tonight, and their architects are studying bids on Harlan Elementary School.

David E. Pettibone bid the lowest amount for general construction for the Harlan School, offering the work for $495,750.

Other bidders low in their fields were Brady Plumbing and Heating, $138,600, Schultz Electric Service, $58,360. Kitchen work is expected to cost $8,195.

A second kindergarten, hinged by the board on whether bids stayed under $30,000 for its addition, is now definitely planned, since bids for that room totaled only $29,000.

Total cost of the building is expected to be about $658,000 instead of $650,000 as anticipated before the bids were submitted.

Big Continent, Texas

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Mike Sabouri of Teheran, Iran, had decided that he can't be classified as a foreign student at Oklahoma City University. Introduced to another OCU student, his new acquaintance asked where he was from. "Iran," replied Mike. "Oh," said the other student, "and what part of Texas is that in?"

SEEKS WOMEN'S ARMY — Mrs. Caresse Crosby, 64-year-old grandmother, is enthusiastic as she outlines a proposal that an army of women be flown into the Suez Canal zone and the Gaza Strip to "occupy and succor" the areas. She said last night that she wired Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., U. S. ambassador to the United Nations, urging him to call for 100,000 volunteers from among women of all nations. The women would be unarmed, the Washington, D. C. resident said, and would work to "help save the world from further bloodshed."

MRS. S. O. WYLIE BELL

Mrs. Wylie Bell Dies in Arizona

Service Set at Chapel for Hunter Descendant; Burial in Greenwood

BIRMINGHAM — Mrs. M. Adele Bell, a direct descendant of pioneer John Hunter and widow of S. O. Wylie Bell, longtime funeral home operator here, died yesterday in Tucson, Ariz. She had been ill six months.

She was born in 1876 at the corner of Wattles and Adams roads in Troy Township, and both her father, John Snow and her mother, Emma Miller were of early families here.

She graduated from Birmingham High School and studied art, later teaching decorative art in fine china in Detroit for a brief time.

Mr. Bell, whom she married in 1900, was a partner in the Daines and Bell Funeral Home and furniture store from 1900 until the mid 20's, when he bought the Daines share. He operated the funeral home until his death in 1945.

Their son, Donald S. Bell operated the firm until the family sold the business in 1951, retaining the property which they lease to the William R. Hamilton Co.

She moved in 1951 to Arizona with the Donald Bell family.

She was a member of First Presbyterian Church and was active in its affairs, and belonged to the Birmingham Woman's Club, the National Farm and Garden Club, Birmingham Musicale and Rotary Anns.

Besides her son, a rancher at Benson, Ariz., she leaves a granddaughter, Kathleen Margaret Bell, a University of Michigan student, and a grandson, Thomas Day Bell, in a Roswell, N. Mex., military academy.

At the time of Hunter boulevard's dedication several years ago, Mrs. Bell and her son were honored as descendants of the village's early family.

Service is being arranged by the Bell Chapel of the Hamilton Co., and burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery.

Kid Gets Kicks With Candy, Cake

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Little Michael Powell gave in to an 8-year-old's urge to play grown-up and went on a shopping binge with his mother's money.

He spent his way through a variety store and other shops, buying toys, cakes, cookies, sodas, a toy saxophone, a couple of crystal sets and other items. Along the way another youngster offered his bicycle to transport the haul and Mike graciously offered to share his purchases.

By the time police tracked them down—after Mike's mother reported him missing—they were eating hot dogs in a luncheonette. Not a dime of the $43 in Mrs. Powell's wallet was left.

Bob Considine Says:

U. S. Tries to Improve Traveling Manners

NEW YORK (INS) — The possessor of a new U.S. passport is given, along with that document, the bonus of a sense-making little booklet prepared by the State Department and entitled "When You Go Abroad." It concerns international etiquette.

It would make of every American traveling abroad a living, breathing doll of an emissary, as ambitious a goal as we've ever embarked upon—if you've seen some of the riff-raff who represent our side in the alien corn.

President Eisenhower tried to put in words what the State Department hopes

"Each of us," he said, "whether bearing a commission from his government or traveling by himself for pleasure or for business, is a representative of the United States of America and he must try to portray America as he believes it in his heart to be A peaceloving nation living in the fear of God but in the fear of God only, and trying to be partners with our friends."

The booklet pledges the protection of the United States government to all U. S. travelers "in areas where the U. S. can properly safeguard your person and property." But something is expected of the passport holder, too

"The bearer . . . automatically undertakes certain responsibilities. He is usually looked upon by other peoples as an emissary of this country and as a typical product of its institutions.

"Thus, your personal bearing in a foreign land constitutes a testing of our national conduct, and you can be assured that at no time in the history of our country have our relations with other countries been more vital to the national welfare."

SOME EXCERPTS

Excerpts, paraphrased and quoted

"Remember, if you are arrested and imprisoned in a foreign land, an American consular office cannot simply order your release, even though he may be able to offer you other assistance."

* * *

Consular officers are not required to cash checks for you, personally lend you money, sell anything, "endorse new religious sects," or make your hotel reservations for you, or marry you, although they are permitted to be witnesses.

A child born of American parents overseas should be registered immediately with the nearest consul, to establish its citizenship.

The American consul steps in and takes custody of a dead traveler's estate and disposes of it according to the instructions of the executors or the nearest heirs.

"Most Americans know that they will get more results and enjoyment from their travel abroad if they conduct themselves with the same restraint, understanding and good manners they would expect from visitors at home.

* * *

"There are, of course, always some people who make an ostentatious display of wealth or who feel they must inform everyone abroad of how much better everything is done in the United States.

CRITICAL OR DERISIVE

"These are the people who are critical or derisive of foreign customs or thinking; who belittle foreign politics or the heroes or national figures of the countries they visit. Fortunately, they are a small minority."

My wife and I hope to get to Hong Kong on this Olympics trip. The booklet informs us that we will violate the Trading With the Enemy Act if we purchase in that British possession antiques, bamboo manufactures, carpets, chinaware, cotton manufactures, earthenware, ginger, hardwood furniture, ivory, jade, embroidered handkerchiefs, musk, silk, tapestries, and tea.

Probably all came from Red China, State says.

Bluntly, too.

David Copperfield

Just over 100 years ago Charles Dickens' book about the little English boy, David Copperfield, was published. In the story of David's unhappy childhood and later happiness as a writer, Dickens told much of his own life.

The brightest spots in David's young life were his visits to the home of his first nurse, Clara Peggotty. Her brother Dan was a fisherman, and he lived on the shore in an old barge. It had a thatched roof, a chimney, windows and a door.

Use your crayons to color this picture, and paste it down on cardboard. Cut out the parts carefully. Cut the slit along the front of David's jacket and slip the separate arm into the slot and secure it with a brass fastener through the holes indicated.

(This idea first came from Helen Stewart, Yellow Springs, Ohio. Junior Editors awards $10 for each usable idea, so send in your suggestions care of this newspaper. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures.)

Army Issues New Regulation

Commanding Officers to Handle Paternity Cases Involving GIs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has issued a regulation for handling requests for assistance in paternity cases involving its soldiers.

The policy outlined in the new order applies to allegations by either American women or foreign nationals.

Commanding officers or those having court martial jurisdiction are directed to handle the cases.

Upon receiving an allegation from a mother or prospective mother against any member of his command, the commander is instructed to provide the man with opportunity to submit voluntarily a signed statement, admitting or denying fatherhood and stating his willingness or refusal to marry the mother or prospective mother or to furnish support. If the soldier desires, he will be given leave to be married after facts are ascertained.

If the man neither admits nor denies paternity, the complaint is so advised, and informed the army will take no further action unless a court order is obtained.

If a soldier declines to marry, but is willing to provide financial support, the mother will be given help in filing claims for allotment.

If the soldier refused to provide financial support, the mother will be told that military authorities can take no action to enforce a claim unless provided with a decree from a civil court of the United States.

UF Helps Visiting Nurses Assist Moms

Sometimes they are called in when Mom's family feels it faces a lop-sided score in a late inning.

Confusion and worry hit the family as she is confined to bed. Diapers don't get changed often enough and baby spends his day crying.

Father's face is drawn and tired as he leaves for work every day.

He wonders how the family will manage. Will mother remember to take her medicine? Will she tire herself unnecessarily?

Father can't afford a regular nurse. But he can afford care by the Pontiac Visiting Nurse Association.

Because of support by the Pontiac Area United Fund, association fees are based on ability to pay.

When the visiting nurse arrives, the whole family gets back on base. She scores a home run and puts the topsy-turvy home back in the game.

In no time at all, Mom is smiling for the first time, the sick room becomes neat and bright. Worry lines smooth out in Father's face and youngsters recover their laughter.

Association services are available to everyone—penniless or millionaire—in the Pontiac area.

The nurses have headquarters in room 315 of the National Building, 10 W. Huron St. Mary Pauli is the executive director.

They change surgical dressings, give hypodermic injections, instruct and help expectant mothers. They carry out dietary and other medical instructions of physicians.

Nurses not only care for the bedridden, they also teach methods of home care to families of bed-ridden patients.

Many of the bed-ridden would have to see khospital care if the visiting nurse were not available.

Convalescents, chronic cases and the aged receive part-time care for reasonable fees.

Spiritual Washington

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Rev. Dr. Edward L. R. Elson, pastor of the National Presbyterian Church at Washington, said today that Washington is in the forefront of a "spiritual renaissance" in America. The spiritual life of President Eisenhower and others in national life who are members of his church is "transparently sincere, and utterly, utterly genuine," he told a men's club.

Doggondest Tale About a Pooch

SOUTH PORTLAND, Maine (AP)—Squeakie has returned, and the pupils at Edward G. Reynolds Elementary School are smiling again.

Squeakie is a stray black dog. He came to the school seven years ago and since has been a faithful pet of the pupils. He attended classes with them and caused no commotion—except when left outside. That's how he got his name.

Parents saw to it that the mongrel was fed and duly licensed, until somebody slipped—and so did Squeakie. He suffered a paw injury and was picked up without a license by the Animal Refuge League.

"It was pitiful to see those children so upset," said the school principal, Mrs. Helen B. Griffin. Parents promised they would bail out the dog and get him a license if the children would help.

A Squeakie fund was set up and food sales and fund drives were held to finance the dog's future feeding. Arrangements were made for his accommodations outside school hours — and Squeakie returned for a happy reunion.

Will 1957 Be the Year That Changes the World?

A stange man in Los Angeles, known as "The Voice of Two Worlds," is offering, free of charge to the public, an astounding 64 page booklet analyzing famous world prophecies covering these times. It shows that four of the greatest prophecies could not come true until the present time. But now they can, and the years that change the world are at hand. Great dangers but still greater opportunities, confront forward looking people in 1956.

"The Voice of Two Worlds," a well known explorer and geographer, tells of a remarkable system that often leads to almost unbelievable improvement in power of mind, achievement of brilliant business and professional success and new happiness. Others tell of increased bodily strength, magnetic personality, courage and poise.

These strange methods were found in far-off and mysterious Tibet, often called the land of miracles by the few travelers permitted to visit it. He discloses how the sacred rare wisdom and long hidden practices, closely guarded for three thousand years by the sages, which enabled many to perform amazing feats. He maintains that these immense powers are latent in all of us, and that methods for using them are now simplified so that they can be used by almost any person with ordinary intelligence.

The 64 page booklet he is now offering free to the public gives guidance for those who wish to prepare themselves for the momentous days ahead. It gives details of what to expect, and when. Its title is "Beware of These Days!"

The book formerly sold for a dollar, but as long as the present supply lasts, it is offered free to readers of this notice. This liberal offer is made because he expects that many readers will later become interested in the entire system of mind power he learned in the Far East and which is now ready to be disclosed to the Western world.

For your free copy of the astonishing prophecies covering these momentous times, as revealed in this 64-page book, address the Institute of Mentalphysics, 213 South Hobart Blvd., Dept. A-712, Los Angeles, 4, Calif. Send no money. Just your name and address on a postcard or in an envelope will do. No obligation. Readers are urged to write promptly, as only a limited number of the free books have been printed.

It's the sculptured look. You'll see it the moment you let your eyes wander over this fine car. In a '57 Ford you belong . . . anywhere.

It's the long, lean lines. There's a greyhound grace to the new Ford. No useless "fat," no showy "padding." Ford is as trim as a jet fighter.

It's the hardtop styling. Fairlane Club and Town Sedans have the hardtop look of Ford Victorias! In these Fairlane beauties, superthin, superstrong center pillars are smartly concealed by bright-metal window frames . . . to give hardtop beauty when doors are closed.

It's the freedom of choice. Colors? Fabrics? Accessories? Far more than that! Ford gives you a choice of two new, bigger sizes . . . longer, lower, roomier!

It's the ride that stays gentle. With a new frame that rides sweeter and lower, new springs, new suspension all around, even the rudest roads can't ruffle the poise of the new Ford.

It's the Thunderbird power. Ford celebrates its Silver Anniversary of V-8 leadership with the biggest selection of V-8's in Ford history.* In addition to all this Thunderbird GO, there's a new and more powerful Mileage Maker Six.

It's the record-breaking performance. On the Salt Flats at Bonneville, Utah, a '57 Ford traveled 50,000 miles in less than 20 days . . . an average speed of 108.16 mph, including all pit stops! Another Ford averaged over 107 mph. Altogether, 458 national and international performance records were smashed as Ford rewrote the record book.

It's the big dollar value that lasts and lasts. Styled for tomorrow, a new Ford keeps its value longer. And wonder of wonders, all this extra strength, extra beauty, extra length is yours at low Ford prices!

*Included is a special 270-hp Thunderbird 312 Super V-8 engine available at extra cost. Also, an extra-high-performance Thunderbird 312 Super V-8 delivering up to 285 hp.

New Skin Graft a Success

WASHINGTON (INS) — A research team has reported that skin from unborn calves has been grafted onto eight human volunteer patients to help heal wounds.

The U.S. Navy-New York University team said the transplants were used in plastic and reconstructive surgery and in treating other skin wounds and injuries. The calve skin graft will next be used in larger wound areas such as skin burns.

The animal-to-man transplants are called zoografts to distinguish them from homografts, the transplanting of skin within the same species.

Researchers stressed the graft was temporary and was sloughed off in approximately two weeks. They said the graft appears to serve as a "tissue envelope" which covers the wounds and speeds the body's own healing processes.

GRAFT LONG SOUGHT

Doctors have long hoped to find an effective means of using readily available animal skin for human grafts. Success has been limited so far because the host tissue reacts adversely to "foreign skin." The only permanent skin substitute is between identical twins.

Embryo calf skin was reported to have these advantages over present homograft materials:

1. It is readily available. Of the 12 million cows slaughtered each year, some 10 per cent or 1,200,000, carry unborn calves. Packing houses at preesnt use these embroys along with other tissue to make fertilizer.

2. The unborn calf skin is readily adaptable to human skin graft material because it is "clean, soft, pliable and light-colored." The researchers sand calf skin "in the freez dried state is hard to distinguish from human skin."

3. Use of embryo calf skin means plastic surgeons do not have to take skin from the patient to cover the injury. Thus there is less patient disfiguration.

4. Unlike gauze and other artificial wound dressings, calf skin grafts do not absorb body fluids neecssary to the healing process.

The embryo calf skin is removed after the cow is slaughtered and cleansed. It is then tested for safety purposes, quickly frozen and stored for use in grafting.

The method is considered particularly important in the case of atomic attack or other major disasters where large amounts of skin dressing would be needed for emergency treatment of the expected multitude of burn victims.

The report was made by Lt. Ccm. A. N. Silvetti of the Naval Medical Research Institute, Bethesda, Md., and Dr. Blair O. Rogers of New York University's Bellevue Hospital.

Tank Smacks Auto —Guess the Winner

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A car collided head on with a 50-ton Army tank on U. S. 33 yesterday. Of course, the car got the worst of the deal.

The sheriff's office said Miss Nancy Boehm, 19, was charged with failing to maintain a clear distance ahead. Miss Boehm was driving the car, deputies said, and although its front end was demolished, she escaped injury.

The sheriff's office said Miss Boehm's car collided with the rear of a stopped auto, apparently throwing it into the opposite lane, into the path of the oncoming tank. The tank, unscathed, continued on to a Veterans Day parade in downtown Columbus.

About 80 per cent of all motor truck trips are less than 20 miles distance.

Gruenther Named to Lead Red Cross

The White House announced yesterday the appointment of Gruenther, a close friend of President Eisenhower, to succeed Ellsworth Bunker.

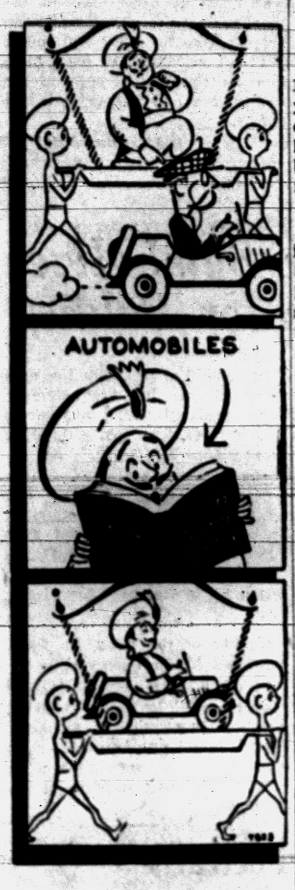

Bunker, 62, said in a statement through the Red Cross that he wanted to turn the post over "to capable and competent hands" before he reaches retirement age.

Responsible officials said, however, that Bunker, a Democrat, is being given serious consideration for the position of U. S. ambassador to India, vacated when John Sherman Cooper resigned to run for the Senate in Kentucky.

Kentucky's mines produce about 15 per cent of the U. S. bituminous coal supply.

8th United Fund Drive Reaches Critical Stage

The Pontiac area's eighth United Fund Drive has reached the critical stage and now is past the three-quarter mark.

Contributions this morning totaled $520,371 or 85 per cent of the $612,202 goal. This means that by November 16 the sum of $91,631 additional will be needed to reach the objective. To make sure of that result, solicitors are redoubling their efforts.

Pontiac needs the 54 charitable and social service agencies which share in the proceeds of this campaign. They have to depend on you for the financing of their operations next year.

Have you done your share?

Whether or not a solicitor calls on you, be sure to see that your contribution reaches the United Fund. Making a success of this campaign isn't just the responsibility of the solicitors.

Everyone has to help.

Michigan Air Minded

According to Herbert H. Howell, Director of the Office of Airports of the Civil Aeronautics Administration, Michigan is an air minded State.

At a recent meeting in Detroit he said that the use of aircraft for travel is increasing in our State more rapidly than the national average. Between 1948 and 1955 the increase in the number of air passengers was 302 per cent. The rate for the Nation was only 285.

Mr. Howell attributed a good part of Michigan's abnormal increase to widespread use of local service lines giving scheduled service to many Michigan communities not formerly served. "The rate of increase in these stops," he said, "is far in excess of either the Michigan or United States average."

Also interesting to note is Mr. Howell's statement that business flying last year accounted for far more hours in the air than scheduled airlines. In concluding his address he said CAA is looking forward to "paved runways and an excellent airport for every county in the State."

It should interest Mr. Howell to learn that Pontiac has a first class airport with a newly dedicated 4,000 foot runway capable of handling twin engine passenger planes. At the present time Airport Manager Homer C. Hoskins and our Chamber of Commerce are endeavoring to obtain scheduled air passenger service for this area. Any help Mr. Howell could give in this effort would be deeply appreciated.

Rep. Lane's Re-election

If anything is to be done about correcting the mistake of voters of the Seventh Massachusetts district in re-electing Rep. Thomas J. Lane, the House will have to do it.

A veteran of eight terms, Lane, a Democrat, was released from a Federal correctional institution just in time to be a candidate for re-election in the September primary. He had served four months of his sentence for evading $38,542 in Federal income taxes over a three year period. Besides his prison term, Lane was fined $10,000.

In the Nov. 6 election, despite his plea of guilty of cheating the Government, and the taxpayers, he polled 87,332 votes to his opponent's 48,154. Under Article 1, Section 5, Clause 1 of the Federal Constitution the House has the power to refuse to seat Lane for his ninth term.

We hope the Democratic leadership of the House has the courage to bar him. Persons who aspire to public office should have records unblemished by any criminal conviction.

This case highlights Michigan voters' good sense in adopting a Constitutional amendment to bar from the State House and Senate anyone who ever "has been convicted of subversion or of a felony involving breach of public trust."

The magazines are letting us down. It has been many months since they were running hair-raising articles about the cobalt bomb that scared us silly.

The Man About Town

Scouts Do It Right

Nearly Perfect Coverage on 60,000 Homes in Council

Thanksgiving, 1956: Did you ever experience one when there was more cause?

Dozens of reports have been received on the magnificent work done by the 8,000 Boy Scouts, Explorers and Cubs of in placing the 60,000 hangers on our door knobs, urging us to vote. A Rochester woman who never before had voted, cast her first ballot, "because a Scout came all the way to our house to remind us." A Clarkston man who had intended to "sleep in" all that day, felt ashamed of himself when he found the hanger—and voted.

A Pontiac Scout not only put out his hangers, but persuaded other boys in the neighborhood to give the people a second urging, and got his sister to ask everybody she met if they had voted.

of Waterford, who was obliged to referee a warm but friendly argument as to who would have the honor. She took both, but says she voted only once.

My official sky watcher says we're to have an eclipse of the moon next Saturday night, starting at midnight and reaching totality at 1:08.

of Oxford says: "I never voted for Soapy, and am sure his political success comes more from appearances than accomplishments. His commanding figure, perennial smile and amazing faculty for remembering faces, causes most people to forget everything else. And you can quote me in print on this."

In the dozens of times the architect of this column has come into contact with Soapy, I have been amazed at his recollections. Together, we went through that heavy rain when Stevenson spoke at Murphy Park four years ago, and every time we've met since he has come through with, "Didn't we get wet with Adlai?"

He didn't come as close as Gallup, Lubell or MAT, but

local attorney, is quite a pollster. In a sealed forecast deposited with MAT on Sept. 14, to be opened on Nov. 7, some of his predictions were quite in line with the final counts.

An election echo comes in a phone call from

of Rochester, commending The Pontiac Press in general "and your column in particular" for a fair campaign coverage.

Now That the Party Is Over

David Lawrence Says:

U.N. Needs World Moral Backing

WASHINGTON — The world is faced again with the unsolved question that has plagued civilization for centuries—how to maintain international order and prevent war when there are reckless and irresponsible men at the head of autocratic governments indifferent to all moral suasion.

The drift once more is toward the exercise of military force even as the peoples of the world cry out for some moral force to make governments behave.

The crisis of the hour is not going to be solved by a United Nations police force. The very idea back of it implies that there is somewhere a military power big enough to make Soviet Russia's volunteers and Egypt's guerrillas, on the one hand, or the British and French and Israeli armies, on the other hand, withdraw in favor of a neutral police and refrain from further conflict. The truth is that the United Nations is only as strong as public opinion in all countries can make it. And before public opinion can be mobilized, there has to be a fair and comprehensive exposition of the facts for all to read and judge.

Thus, the Soviet government has just brazenly announced that it will send "volunteers" to Egypt to fight. In fact, it has already sent aviators and technicians to Egypt. This is intervention by force under the full authorization of the Moscow government.

The United Nations should be denouncing that action day in and day out and should be reminding the world of a precedent—the Communist "volunteers" who resisted the U.N. forces in Korea from 1950 to 1953 and inflicted casualties of tens of thousands.

EXPOSE THE FACTS

What is even more important now is an expose of the facts of the Soviet involvement in the last several months in arming the Egyptians against the Israelis.

The U. N. cannot get much sympathy throughout the world if it does not focus on the situation produced by the Soviets and confines itself only to criticism of the measures of defense taken by Britain and France against Egypt for the illegal seizure of the Suez Canal.

The world ought to be informed of just what did happen prior to the British and French decision to use military force in reprisal against Nasser's violation of the treaty of 1888. Likewise, the United States government should open its intelligence files and disclose the intrigue engaged in by Nasser with Moscow even as he was negotiating for American funds to help him build the Aswan dam. The break-off of those negotiations, which has been criticized as "abrupt" by uninformed critics, was directly due to the discovery of deceit and treachery in Cairo.

The presence now of many millions of dollars worth of Soviet arms in Egypt—some of it captured by Israel—is confirmation of what was discovered when Nasser was trying to play a double game with America.

Moral force can never be a complete substitute for military force, especially if irresponsible dictators like Nasser are bent on the mad pursuit of power. But the conflict can be localized and the area of hostilities limited if the peoples of all the other nations understand the issues and if the U. N. has the courage to call a spade a spade.

Thus, the Hungarian situation is an example of a new war between the government of the Soviet Union and the people of Hungary. Here is an act of aggression which has infuriated the whole world. Can the U.N. protect the independence of any small country when a major power decides to go on an imperialistic rampage?

LI'L ONES

"Hey, Mom — don't scare my fishing worms."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Try Vitamin Tonic, Milk to Soothe Jumpy Nerves

"I want to thank you," writes a New York lady, "for the help your writings have brought to me. Twenty years ago I suffered from severe nervous trouble, becoming filled with panic over ordinary everyday things.

I consulted several doctors. All of them told me it was just my nerves, and I would have to help myself."

It could have done no harm even if it did no good, to prescribe for the lady a teaspoonful of B-Nutron food, say as a placebo.

B-Nutron is a combination of the essential B vitamins plus iron, manganese and vitamin B-12. It is pleasant to take, and deserves better than any medicine to be called heart tonic, gastro-intestinal tonic and nerve tonic. That is, if you believe nutritional deficiency accounts for poor health.

"None of the doctors asked if I used milk as a basic food or was concerned about vitamins. I learn the importance of these things from your column and your No. 15 Little Lesson Nerves and Nutrition. It has made a wonderful, happy difference in my life." (Signed Mrs. C. M. T.)

WHAT DO DO?

To readers who have the same trouble as Mrs. T. describes, I suggest (a) not less than 1½ pints of milk or the equivalent in milk products as a minimum daily intake, and (b) teaspoonful of B-Nutron syrup three times a day after food—from now on, this isn't medicine—whether you send for the booklet or not Nerves and Nutrition, 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope.

"I wish I could tell you," writes a Massachusetts reader (there's no law against it, Ma'am), "how much your advice has helped me.

"It started in my teens when I was having backaches, constant indigestion, irregular menstrual periods, always feeling blue and wanting to cry.

"I began taking the Iodin Ration as you recommended. It lifted a great load from my shoulders.

"Now at 26, having borne two children, I am regular for the first time in my life. I feel just wonderful. My marriage has suddenly become a happy one. I don't growl and snarl at my husband and the children as I did. Everything has improved.

BABIES CAME

"Our first baby was born in hospital while I was deeply anesthetized. The second was born at home and I was awake to see it myself. That's the way our next one and the one after that will be born, with my husband right there to share the miracle with me. That's the way God intended, I believe."

(Signed—Mrs. K. R.)

The instructions in the pamphlet The Iodin Ration are for the use of iodine in nutrition, not as medicine. For the pamphlet send stamped, self-addressed envelope.

I believe as you do, Ma'am.

That's why I say the place for a man when his baby is being born is at his wife's side—not pacing the corridor or patronizing the bar.

STUDY TOGETHER

To prepare for this, expectant parents should study together:

1. Preparing for Maternity, by Wm. Brady, M.D., 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope.

2. Childbirth, by Carl Davis, M. D. and Donita Ferguson, Harper & Bros., $2.50, Answers to questions asked by expectant parents.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Dem Ike Supporter Says GOP Has Rough Go in '60

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Now that elections are over, we read many post-mortems, some by the experts and some by the little people. I am one of the little people who crossed party lines to help elect Ike, not because of his party but in spite of it and because of his great leadership.

He is a man who most agree appears to rise above party lines. However, as we look to 1960 we can see his party in a fight the like of which hasn't been since 1932. As for Williams, he is another man of the people who understands people as proven by his nearly 300,000 plurality.

The people might be fooled once or perhaps twice, but not five times in a row. As he sets his eyes on a Senate seat in 1958, a certain young fellow better watch out, as Soapy's 300,000 could carry him again.

Old Fashioned Gal Knocks Vote Polls

Some of these polls didn't look so hot in the recent election. They all had Eisenhower winning, but old Dobbin out in the back forty pasture lot could have come up with that one. They missed the number of electoral votes and the popular vote by miles and miles. It's still necessary to have elections in America, in spite of the soothsayers and the crystal ball artists.

Old Fashioned Gal

Hal Boyle Says:

Yul Brynner Symbolizes Shining Hope for Baldies

Well, meet Yul Brynner, the actor.

For five years his shaven pate has been a gleaming symbol of glamor to millions of women. It also has become a shining symbol of hope to millions of bald men who'd like to believe they can still say hello to romance even though they've had to say goodby to their hair.

TAKEN FOR GRANTED

Brynner has cut his hair with a razor so long he now takes his baldness for granted.

* * *

"It's become a prop," he said. "I find it quite comfortable."

Many bald men have to fight down a suppressed desire to grow a beard or moustache. Not Yul.

"I've never had a suppressed desire," he said flatly.

Brynner, whose hobby is the study of philosophy—he is studying for a doctor's degree in it—doesn't believe in being frustrated.

EAST AND WEST

Son of a gypsy mother and a mining engineer who was part Mongolian, he has the traits of both East and West in his temperament—a quicksilver enthusiasm, a grave stoicism.

* * *

Reared in Peiping and Paris, he became first a ballad singer—sort of a subdued Gallic Elvis Presley, complete with guitar—then a circus acrobat, a touring actor, and finally a television director.

He still regards himself as a director first, an actor second.

"Most people don't seem to know that I've directed more than 1,000 TV programs," he said, "ranging from mystery thrillers to cooking shows."

His most painful TV memory: The time he put on "The Light That Failed" on a program sponsored by a light bulb manufacturer.

He feels he has won one distinction during his brief career in Hollywood.

"I think I'm probably the only actor who in his first starring roles appeared within a year in two pictures that cost a total of more than $20,000,000," he remarked.

The films are "The King and I," in which he plays the Siamese ruler, a role he portrayed 1,500 times in the stage musical, and "The Ten Commandments," in which he is Rameses the Great.

"I don't know whether I could play myself," he said. "I never have. I don't believe an actor should. I feel uncomfortable even when I have to appear on stage as myself during a personal appearance."

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Try Horse Sense Before Surgery

Notice Ada's dilemma. Should she submit to major surgery and spend $350 for the operation? Scrapbook this case record for it shows the difference between "textbook" specialists vs. those who have gumption or good old-fashioned American "horse sense." Today, alas, you may find many such "braintrusters" in all the professions and even in government, too.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case T-320: Ada L., aged 32 has been married six years.

"Dr. Crane, I have never been able to have a baby," she confessed.

"So I finally consulted a physician recently. He told me my womb was tipped and urged me to undergo a suspension operation.

"His fee will be $350 for the surgery, not counting the other hospital charges.

"My husband and I would be very willing to pay the fee and I'd be happy to submit to surgery if it would enable us to have a baby.

"But I felt I'd like some outside advice. Is a suspension operation a valid type of surgery? And would it permit me to get pregnant?"

"HORSE SENSE"

"Has your husband been checked to be sure he isn't sterile? I asked, and she said "No".

"Well, husbands are as likely to be at fault as wives," I added, "so it would be foolish to undergo surgery until the last resort.

"Surgery is the final measure after all other common sense treatment has been tried and found wanting.

"Furthermore, have you yourself been given a Rubin test to make sure your Fallopian tubes are open?"

She didn't know what a Rubin test was, so I explained, and she admitted no such test had been made.

"Even if your womb were straightened by surgery," I added, "you still would not become pregnant if your tubes were permanently closed.

"A Rubin test costs only a few dollars and doesn't require any expensive surgery, so you employ it before you submit to a major operation.

"And do you know anything about the 'rhythm theory'?

Ada again shook her head. So I explained it in detail. The most likely day for a wife to conceive is supposed to be about the 15th before her next menstrual period begins.

Knowing the exact date of the last onset, and by having a record of her variations in cycle, a wife can estimate fairly well when that day should arrive.

Add a baking soda douche, and you may futher increase the chance of pregnancy.

BANISH STERILITY

Before submitting to radical surgery, therefore, Ada should try the 'rhythm theory' for a few months.

If that fails, then have a Rubin test. If her tubes are then pronounced open, have the husband checked.

If he is O. K., then and only then, should Ada consider the more complicated measure of surgery.

Millions of wives have tipped wombs and get pregnant, so the mere tipping of the uterus is not in itself an absolute preventive of conception.

Ada went home. Three weeks later she called me by telephone.

"Oh, Dr. Crane, we are going to have a baby:" she exclaimed delightedly. "I got pregnant just by using the 'rhythm theory' and soda."

Many of you readers may wonder why this surgeon didn't give her the simple "horse sense" advice which I did.

Well, you can find many educated men in all professions who lack gumption or "horse sense". They are textbook doctors, or textbook teachers, etc.

They look for far-fetched and dramatic measures instead of using the simple logical procedures that don't cost much.

Indeed, we still have such braintrusters in government. They throw around billions of our taxpayer's money, yet can't even budget their own household expenses.

I've actually known professors of economics in our major universities who boldly told their students how big business should be run, yet they were insolvent and living off of cash handouts from their own in-laws at that very time:

Send for my booklet "Facts about Pregnancy," enclosing a stamped return envelope plus 20 cents (non-profit).

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Revolutionists Undefeated

Hungarians Crushed by Soviet Military Superiority

Editor's Note — Endre Marton, Associated Press correspondent in Budapest, assesses in the following story the result of Hungary's historic uprising. A Hungarian national, Marton was released last August after 18 months in prison on a Communist charge of "espionage."

By ENDRE MARTON

BUDAPEST (AP) — The Soviet-Hungarian war comes slowly to its end. The modern military might of a big power has crushed the resistance of 10 million Hungarians equipped with obsolete weapons.

The war has been lost. But the revolution is not defeated.

The present government of Premier Janos Kadar is only too anxious to emphasize that it has nothing in common with Stalinism and its Hungarian representative, Matyas Rakosi (now believed to be in Russia).

Can the government persuade Hungarians to believe this? The answer is no.

Kadar has made desperate efforts to persuade other politicians — non-Communists as well as Communists — to join his "revolutionary" government. He has had no success so far.

Kadar's Cabinet consists of only six members. It is snubbed by everyone, including Communists and politicians who had been considered most loyal fellow travelers in the past.

There is one reason. Kadar returned "riding a Russian tank," and virtually no one can forgive this.

Neither Kadar nor the half-dozen Communist politicians forming his puppet government are anti-Stalinists although Kadar spent about four years in Rakosi's jail.

When I came out of prison in August and was briefed on the political situation in Hungary, journalists and other well-informed persons told me that Kadar — in spite of imprisonment — remained hostile to every trend of "liberalism."

Kadar became first secretary of the Communist party when Erno Geroe was expelled by the fury of the masses Oct. 25, two days after the revolution began.

Kadar also was a minister of state in Premier Imre Nagy's government until Nov. 1 when, as he said, he and other members of his present Cabinet could not tolerate increasing signs of "white terror."

Kadar not only is anxious to stress that his government has nothing in common with the Hungarian version of Stalinism, but he has proclaimed some concessions. Most of these already had been granted by Nagy.

The Russian red star the Rakosi regime adopted in 1949 will be replaced by the traditional Kossuth coat of arms. The Hungarian army will get new uniforms replacing the Russian type. March 15, anniversary of the 1848 revolution against the Hapsburgs, again will be a national holiday. Russian is no longer a compulsory language in the schools.

These would have been wonderful concessions a month ago. They certainly will not satisfy this nation today.

Kadar has asked politicians to join him and form a government "on a wide democratic basis." But this does not answer the question whether he will tolerate other political parties as such.

Three other parties—the Smallholders, the Social Democrats and the National Peasants—were functioning during the three days of freedom before the Russian attacks Nov. 4.

The parties even published their own newspapers. All this vanished when hundreds of Russian tanks began to shell this capital city for the second time in two weeks.

PICTURE OF DEVOTION — Fannie, the elephant, died of lockjaw at the Paul Kelly Animal Farm near Peru, Ind., while her watchdog friend, Charlie, stood by — helpless to defend her from the unseen enemy. Charlie forsook food to stay at Fannie's side, even after death. Only after the 13-year-old elephant was buried did the dog leave the scene.

In Osaka, Japan, a train was 40 minutes late. About 1,000 enraged commuters mobbed the stationmaster and compelled him to write 1,000 individual letters explaining to their employers why they were late to work.

Great Lakes Governors to Discuss Water Plan

CHICAGO (AP) — Governors of states bordering the Great Lakes will be asked to confer Dec. 31 with army engineers on an interim report on effects of a proposed diversion of Lake Michigan water at Chicago.

Brig. Gen. P. D. Berrigan told the annual meeting of the six-state Great Lakes commission that the interim report was requested by President Eisenhower after his second veto of action by Congress to permit the diversion increase.

Berrigan heads the corps of engineers north central division. The interim report is part of an overall study on Great Lakes water levels which is expected to be completed by June 30 next year, he said. Both the overall study and the interim study dealing with effects of a 1,000 cubic feet per second diversion proposal for the Illinois waterway are particularly concerned with causes and possible control of wide variations in the level of shallow lake Ontario.

Questioned by members of the commission after reading a report on the Great Lakes, Gen. Berrigan said that periods of prolonged drought impose "a serious problem" in the east St. Louis-Alton area of illinois.

WATER DEPTH DOWN

He said that water depths in the barge channel of the Illinois-Mississippi route have been cut to about seven feet. The result, he said, was a severe limitation on navigation. Coal and shipments are currently very limited he said.

Another problem considered serious in the east St. Louis area, he said, is that of industrial water consumers.

The diversion of water at Chicago now is limited by supreme court order to 1,500 cubic feet per second, plus discharge of sewage from domestic and industrial consumer pumpage. Gen. Berrigan said that actual pumpage is often 1,000 cubic feet per second over the direct diversion at the Chicago river and Calumet river mouths.

States whose governors would attend the Dec. 13 conference are Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York.

Booster of F.D.R. Now for Kennedy

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A pioneer booster of FDR for president says he is forming an association to acquaint California, Oregon and Washington Democratic voters "with the talents of Massachusetts' U.S. Sen. John F. Kennedy."

Atty. Patrick J. Cooney, who said he incorporated a Franklin D. Roosevelt for President association in California in November 1930, two years before Roosevelt was elected, said:

"Kennedy, a former congressman and ex-Marine, with a terrific war record in the South Pacific, is sure to be heard from."

Enforced Curfew Agreed Upon by All Citizens

MUSKEGON (AP) — A new era started in Muskegon Heights last night with the enforcement of an 11 p.m. curfew for children under 17.

The curfew stipulates children under 17 must be off city streets between the hours of 11 p.m. and 4 a.m. Monday through Thursday and from 1 a.m. to 4 a.m. Saturdays and Sundays.

Police Chief Alex J. Bell said: "Any youngster on city streets after the curfew hour, unless on an emergency errand or legitimate business, is to be brought to police headquarters and parents will be notified."

He said "common sense" will be exercised in enforcement, but "loitering by juveniles on city streets after the curfew hour will not be tolerated."

The ordinance provides a maximum fine of $100 and a maximum jail sentence of 90 days, or both, for parents of children who violate the curfew. It was adopted recently after a large segment of Muskegon Heights parents and students agreed the established hours were "sensible."

France May Name New U.N. Delegate

Cornut-Gentille came to the U.N. after five years as high commissioner of French West Africa.

He presided over the Security Council in October until he collapsed in the early stages of the Middle East row, when the Western allies split over the British-French moves against Egypt.

The French delegation reported Cornut-Gentille was suffering from malaria and liver trouble. He returned to France last week.

Cleveland Press Strike Continues

Walkout on 3 Dailies in 13th Straight Day; No End in Sight

CLEVELAND (AP) — For 13 days Cleveland has been without its three major daily newspapers. Talks in the mayor's office between representatives of the publishers and the Cleveland Newspaper Guild resume this afternoon. No settlement is in sight.

None of the papers — the evening Press, the morning Plain Dealer and the evening News — has printed since Nov. 1. Their combined circulation was about 765,000.

The Guild struck only the Press. The other two papers discontinued, blaming a halt in production on refusal of union drivers to handle newspapers bearing the name of the struck Press in addition to that of the News and Plain Dealer.

For news, about a million and a half Greater Clevelanders must turn to radio and TV stations and The Reporter, a tabloid-size daily put out by the Newspaper Guild since Nov. 5. The Guild claims a circulation of about 140,000 and is shooting for 175,000. It is not home-delivered, but is available at newsstands for 7 cents.

The Guild is on strike only against the Scripps-Howard Press, although its contracts with all three papers expired Oct. 31. The News and the Plain Dealer are put out by Forest City Publishing Co.

Oldest U. S. Holder of Award

Medal of Honor Winner Has Great War Record

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—The saltiest member of a salty crew is 87-year-old Claus Clausen of Massapequa Park, N.Y., oldest living holder of America's highest award, the Medal of Honor.

Born in Denmark, Claus ran away to sea in the last century, was shipwrecked, tried to walk from Boston to Duluth, Minn., won his Medal of Honor in a thundering adventure in the Spanish American War, served as a flying dispatch carrier in World War I and fought his way back into uniform in World War II when he was in his early seventies.

And he won commendations in that fuss, too.

He went in as a bosun in an auxiliary service, went quickly to full lieutenant, and wound up in charge of two crews working night and day rigging ships with torpedo defense nets.

Claus was one of eight men, under Navy Lt. Richard P. Robson, who scuttled the old coaling ship, the Merrimack, in the entrance to Santiago Harbor in 1897 —bottling up the Spanish fleet.

All eight men on the mission were captured. Claus even laughs when he remembers that. "The Spanish treated us pretty good," he said. "But we had no food. They didn't have enough for themselves since we'd bottled them up. We got one sardine, a handful of rice, one cigar and a pannikin of rum daily."

He retired in 1925 as a full lieutenant. But in 1952 he was offered a cut in rank. The Navy told him he would get $21.80 more per month in his pensions if he went back to chief warrant officer.

Did he take it?

"Yes!" he snorted. "I didn't care what they called me as long as I got the long green."

Seven Children Are Hospitalized by Poisoning

BALTIMORE (AP)—Seven youngsters remained in University Hospital today, one still seriously ill, with an intestinal ailment which killed a 4-year-old brother and made three others sick.

Doctors said they believed the 11 children of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown were the victims of "some form of ptomaine poisoning that they got from something they ate or from a carrier in the family."

The parents were not ill.

Darrell Brown, 2, was taken sick last Friday. Yesterday, Rickey 4, became sick died en route to the hospital. A short time later the other nine members of the Negro family complained of feeling sick and Mrs. Brown took them all to the hospital.

Lost: One Building

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Police are looking for a stolen building. James A. Tyler reported that a frame building, 12 by 22 feet, was missing from a South Side lot. Tyler said he had raised the building on blocks to move it. When he went back to the lot, the building was gone.

Orville Wright's airplane traveled 120 feet on its first flight.

Cost to the American taxpayer to clean up refuse strewn by careless motorists is $15 to $50 a mile a year.

In Unionville, Conn., a car driven by Mr. A. Steere ran headon into a steer wandering across the highway.

The Morman Church was organized by Joseph Smith in New York state in 1830 before moving to Utah.

Three-Year-Old Battles Cancer

BOSTON (AP)—Surgeons at the Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary prepared today to remove the cancerous right eye of 3-year-old Carol Ann Molinaro before she is deprived of the sight of her left eye.

Little Carol Ann does not know the seriousness of her plight. She thought her tearful father brought her to the hospital yesterday so she could be treated for a cold.

Before leaving her home in East Boston, the tot asked her mother if her favorite doll, Rose Ann, could see her.

Mrs. Joseph Molinaro, 25, fought back the tears and replied "Yes, dear, Rose Ann can see you."

Then the mother turned to her unemployed husband and prayed "Please, God, let Carol Ann see the doll when she comes home."

Mrs. Molinaro said doctors told her that there is a better than even chance that the infection will be checked by the operation.

"If prayers help," she added, "the odds in our favor are way up."

The child's father lost his job as a pants presser several weeks ago and the mother has been working in an electric light bulb factory near their home.

Duke, Duchess—Back in Britain—May Meet Queen

LONDON (AP) — The Duke and Duchess of Windsor arrived today for their first visit to Britain together since 1953. There were expectations the British royal family's 20-year boycott on the divorcee duchess was about to end.

A double row of police held back about 100 women as the former King Edward VIII and the American-born woman for whom he abdicated arrived at Victoria Station from their home in France.

Shouts of "God bless the duchess" and "Don't go away again" greeted the couple.

Although the duke has said the trip is purely private, there have been persistent reports that the duchess would be received by Queen Elizabeth II, opening the door for the couple to live at least part of the time in Britain.

Election of Child Mayor Set for Santa Claus, Ind.

SANTA CLAUS, Ind. (INS) — Some lucky little American boy or girl will be chosen next month to reign Dec. 23 as the honorary mayor of Santa Claus land.

The "mayor" will be selected on Dec. 10 from among children under 12 years of age who were born on Christmas eve or Christmas day. That's the only requirement for entrance in the competition.

The winner will be chosen by a committee of judges named by the Chamber of Commerce at this little southern Indiana town with the famous post office.

The winning mayor and his mother, father or guardian will get a free trip by commercial airline from their home to Evansville, Ind., and then by automobile to Santa Claus for the inauguration Dec. 23.

The day will be one any little boy or girl would cherish greatly.

SANTA SUIT

The new honorary mayor will wear a red velvet suit, trimmed with white fur, matching that worn by Santa himself. He or she will spend the day as Santa's special adviser, sitting beside him as he hears the requests for Christmas gifts from other children.

The honorary mayor may feed the deer at the deer farm at the Santa Claus land park, and ride on the miniature railroad which winds about the grounds.

He may pet other animals in a children's zoo, visit a miniature circus and inspect museums containing many thousand dolls and antique toys.

W. A. Koch, executive secretary of the Santa Claus Chamber of Commerce, asked that no valued photographs be sent with the contest entries. The small committee had a mountain-sized job because so many photographs were mailed in the contest with a request that they be returned.

Nor is there any need to send a birth certificate. Somehow, the judges have a great deal of faith in the truthfulness of children born at Christmastime.

RULES

Here are the rules:

1. Any little boy or girl born on Christmas eve or Christmas day and who will not be older than 12 years of age this Dec. 24 or Dec. 25 may enter.

2. The child or his parents or guardian is to send a snapshot of the mayor candidate, together with his or her name, address, birthdate, birthplace and a sentence or two telling what he or she would do, if chosen honorary mayor of Santa Claus.

3. The entry should be mailed to Mayor Committee, Santa Claus Chamber of Commerce, Santa Claus, Ind. Only entries postmarked on or before Dec. 10 will be eligible.

Five American-type hand grenades, apparently dating from wartime, were found in a bog on the shores of Lough Neagh at Coagh in County Tyrone, North Ireland.

'Fair Lady' Styles Go to the Beach

By JUDITH L. CLEMENCE
Pontiac Press Women's Editor

LOS ANGELES—From this portion of the United States that wriggles its toes in the blue Pacific, cranes its neck toward towering Mt. Wilson, and stretches itself all the way to Mexico, we bring you a story of modern explorations.

It's the fashion story, of course, and in its own way is as exciting as the discovery by Cortez way back in 1535.

This entire week fashion and women's editors will be dashing from one showing to another to learn what's in store for us in fashion.

This was a welcome to the city and to acquaint us with leading designers and manufacturers figuring highly in this year's fashion picture.

PREVIEW ROUTINE

Monday we began early the routine of previewing collections from the makers of the country's most famous swimsuits. There's no question that California will remain as No. 1 in this department.

If Catalina has anything to say about it, women will look better in beach wear than they have ever looked.

Most important to remember is that it will be a "covered up" look, but one which does not detract from a feminine appearance. You'll never want the old look after you see what this new look can do for you.

Catalina's big story is told in three parts. It is a tale of simplicity, clean and uncluttered lines, completeness in silhouette, and it tells a vital story in color.

Colors are worked to complement skin tones. All porcelain hues, they are seafoam, blue, flax beige, peach glo, emeralite and coralite.

DRESSY SWIMSUIT

The black, dressy swimsuit made its appearance in an elegant taffeta-lastex that is completely "swimmable." Rhinestone clips on the strap completed the dressy look.

News in the swimsuit story is in the pronounced use of knits, deep, plunging backs, camisole tops and in the inner construction.

Fred Cole, the man who has done so much to influence beach fashions, says, "This is the year to be a lady on the beach."

Shorts in this collection are anything but boyish with their slightly longer, more ladylike leg line and ultra feminine bodices.

The empire bodice is seen in most of the suits, and the new camisole tops and widened straps give the "Fair Lady" appearance.

COLORS IMPORTANT

In the collection by Cole of California, you'll find colors play an important role. There are powdery pinks, blues and snowy whites along with silver and gold lastex creations.

A highlight of the Cole line is a swimsuit with a waterproof watch built right into the design. Cole says it will keep a lady on time for her date.

Agreeing that the more covered look is the more ladylike look, Gantner of California makes suits 2 inches longer this year.

The horizontal stripes, wide shoulder straps and plunging backs take you back a few years. Gantner revived knits for the beach, using a combination of wool, lastex and synthetics that is supremely seaworthy.

These knits come in stripes, tweeds, and solid colors. They're tops in fashion and are bound to make big swimwear news on beaches this summer.

As an example of Gantner's design, there's a suit called "Flapper" which resembles a striped one-piece sheath with solid color empire top. Actually, it hides separate knit shorts giving perfect control for tummy-bulges.

Also the suit provides extendibility for the taller swimmer. Based on a 1920 inspiration, the suit has a higher top and a smaller armhole, emphasizing the flapper tradition.

Designers of Maurice Handler of California were influenced by the Grecian theme when developing their swimsuit line.

"Parthenon," "Midas Touch," "Helen of Troy" and "Psyche" were but a few names given to suits in this collection. "Parthenon" is an all-pleated sheath which actually makes even a model look slimmer.

SWIMMABLE SATIN

Satin (wearable in water) is one of the new fabrics used in swim wear this season. And knitted-looking lastex fabrics are important in the Handler collection.

These fabrics have the appearance of knit, yet they give control and fit of lastex yarn. Cotton satin is used by most of the manufacturing firms, but it is predominant throughout this line.

The high empire line is interpreted in various ways. There are squared and curving bodices above the shaped vertical seaming that is a signature of this firm.

The one-piece suit is the important suit in this collection, as in all collections seen today, but there are two-piece suits for those who still want them.

Designers warn against those who have a battle with the bulge. The two-piece suit is not for them.

The coordinated look is the important look in swim wear by De-Weese Designs. A reversible box jacket might go with a bathing suit or be used with a playsuit. Each time it has matching trim or applique.

Reversible jackets with tie strings are new to the fashion scene and go with most of the beachwear this year.

AVERAGE FIGURES

Rose Marie Reid uses the same beautiful fabrics and the empire look is seen throughout the collection. But she goes a step further. She dispels the illusion that all figures are good ones and has created swimsuits that flatter the "average" woman.

Inner construction is the key to her theory which shapes the swimsuit to the woman. Fabrics are exciting in the collection. Brocades for the beach might have been unheard of a few seasons past, but they look pretty elegant now.

Other glamor suits were hourglass sheaths emblazoned in whirls of embroidery overlaid with gleaming jewels. It seems you just can't be too dressed for the beach these days.

The California story wouldn't be complete without something about movies and the industry. We were guests of the Motion Picture Designers' Guild at luncheon Monday at the Ambassador. Vincent Price, well-known screen and TV star, was speaker.

Edith Had, Oscar-winning dress designer, was commentator for the show which featured fashions from such exciting movies as "The King and I," "Raintree County," "Giant," and "The Eddie Duchin Story."

Tomorrow we'll preview sportswear and dresses by some of your favorite designers.

"Shell Song" is one of the exclusive California hand-print coordinates by De-Weese Designs. The formfit side drape is of printed lastex, trimmed with self applique seashells. Both the jacket and wrap-around skirt are lined and completely reversible.

Take a long look at the coming season. You'll find Gantner's "Shape Ahoy" a dashing contribution to the beach with its elongated lines, built-up neckline and succession of V front and back and even in the striped and nautical insets. This is one of the famous water-knits, made for swimming in fast-drying wool, lastex and nylon.

Attention focuses on the clean-cut, tailored, All-American sports look as designed by Milo Anderson for Catalina in the lastex one-piece swimsuit, "Ski-Jumper." The white scooped neck top with bra in solid color creates a dickey.

"Florentina" personifies the quiet elegance of Rose Marie Reid's "Mood Renaissance" collection. The deep plunging halter straps create neckline interest for the regally understated sheath, which can be worn strapless for equal beauty.

Symphony Aides Meet on Monday

Mrs. M. J. Wager Analyzes Program of Next Concert

The Women's Association of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra gathered at the home of Mrs. Vernon Abbott on Illinois avenue Monday afternoon for its second meeting of the year. The program anticipated the second concert of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra on Dec. 4.

One of the purposes of the Women's Association is to foster interest in the orchestra and its programs.

At each of the first five meetings, a program has been arranged with analysts who will in advance explain the thought, themes and purpose of the compositions to be played at the following concert, thus enabling greater enjoyment and understanding.

Paul Doktor, the eminent violist, will be the soloist at the next concert. Mrs. M. J. Wager, a cellist, was the analyst and explained in her talk the relation of the stringed instruments to each other and their part in orchestral work.

Mrs. Wager said that the strings are considered the backbone of the orchestra.

DISCUSSES CONCERTO

In taking up for review the numbers to be played Dec. 4, she spoke of the Handel Concerto for viola and orchestra which Mr. Doktor will perform, and pointed out the themes or melodies on which the musical structure is built.

The other program number in which the viola will be soloed will be Vaughn Williams' "Flos Campi" written for small orchestra, unison chorus, and viola.

Mrs. Wager spoke of the fact that all artists translate into images their creations even in music. This is especially true in Vaughn Williams' composition. He uses as his inspiration quotations from the Songs of Solomon in the Bible, for four short modern pieces.

The "Der Freischutz" overture and selections from "Carmen" Mrs. Wager announced as other numbers for the coming concert now in rehearsal.

Mrs. M. L. Shadley, president of the Women's Association, presided. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Collis Scott, Mrs. Robert B. Tarr, Mrs. Ralph Norvell and Mrs. Frank Bonner.

BOTTLE STATION — This sailor joined the Navy to see the world! Right now, though, B. G. Redmond, hospitalman first-class, is seeing the inside of a nursery. The Navyman got his unusual assignment aboard the transport ship USNS Patch which recently made a 36-hour dash from Crete to Naples with 1,789 evacuees from Israel and Egypt. There were 17 infants among those fleeing from the troubled Middle East — and they required special care. Ask Redmond.

Answer to Juvenile Delinquency?

Opinion Survey Favors Curfew

By JANICE HAYHOW

Life would be pretty tough for a few thousand Pontiac teenagers if local police authorities suddenly cracked down and started enforcing the city's present 8 p.m. curfew.

It's no joke! There is a curfew—one that says youngsters under the age of 16 must be off the streets at 8 p.m. in the winter and 9 p.m. in the summer unless accompanied by parent or guardian.

Most authorities agree the curfew's a little harsh for present day teenagers and activities, but then, this curfew was drafted in Pontiac in 1915. No action has ever rescinded it. Neither has it been enforced.

Cities the country over are drafting new curfew ordinances to curtail the nighttime waves of juvenile delinquency.

WILL CURFEW WORK?

Pontiac parents, teenagers and local authorities are faced with the problem, too. Will a workable, reasonable curfew in Pontiac reduce nighttime vandalism by juveniles?

Chief Herbert W. Straley, of the Pontiac police was definite in his support of a new up-to-date curfew for Pontiac youngsters under 16.

"There is no reason for youngsters to be out on the streets after 10 p.m. A curfew will help curb delinquency, night time deviltry and also help parents control their youngsters better.

"I think the young people of today should devote more time to the home circle. Late hours are the way delinquency starts."

Chief Straley said that cities across the country are revamping old ordinances on curfews. At a recent meeting in Chicago attended by police chiefs, Straley said, representatives reported that cities which enforced curfews reported major advances in lowering juvenile delinquency.

Judge Arthur E. Moore, probate judge of Oakland County, said he was very much in favor of a curfew. "Children who come from good homes are expected by their parents to be off the streets at a reasonable hour, so to me a curfew is merely a means of having the clear right to approach a youngster who is out late and is too young and ask him why, and if it seems advisable, take him home to his parents.

TAKEN TO HOME

"He wouldn't be arrested. He would just be taken home. I think such a curfew should apply to youngsters under 16, although it would depend on the hour set."

William O. Moulton Jr., superintendent of the Oakland County Children's Home, believes in a curfew too.

"Parents should be held responsible for their children. If the children are violating a curfew, the parents should be responsible," Moulton said. "If the parents were fined, I think it would have some effect on curbing juvenile delinquency."

Several Pontiac High School students questioned individually about a curfew favored it strongly.

Of 14 questioned, 13 favored some form of curfew. Most stipulated that such a curfew should be applied to junior high students.

Richard Kors, president of the Pontiac High Student Council, said "It might be a good way to curb the loafers on street corners. The teenagers might resent it, but I think it would work over a period of time."

'EXCELLENT IDEA'

Saida Tuttle, secretary of the Student Council, called the idea "excellent." "It would give younger children a better start. If restricted when they were young, they might not be so bad when older," Saida said.

Larry Beamer, an 11th grader, favored a curfew to keep kids off the streets. "It would teach them to plan their time better in the evenings and leave no loafing time."

Several students thought parents should have the say so. Pat Zielke 16-year-old senior, said she didn't think it would work because curfews are so seldom enforced. "Some parents probably wouldn't follow through with keeping their children off the streets unless they were fined. Sometimes you have to reach parents through their pocketbooks," Pat said.

All agreed that if a curfew was enforced in Pontiac, an acceptable plan to distinguish the loafers from those on legitimate business would have to be determined.

Two parents queried on their opinions on a curfew weren't too enthusiastic.

Mrs. John Flanigan, 151 Edison St., mother of nine children, three of them in their teens, said a curfew was a good idea, "but I don't know how much it would help. Although it might help to curb delinquency, there are some children that a curfew wouldn't help to curb at all. If a curfew keeps children home, I think parents would be glad of the help."

MUST BE FLEXIBLE

Mrs. Fred Slavin, 2840 Woodbine, Sylvan Shores, and mother of eight children, says a curfew would ble." She added, "To me you can't set a definite hour. I don't approve of children being on the streets. You have to give them transportation to their activities," Mrs. Slavin said.

So the trend to clip the wings of night-running teenagers continues across the country. Opinions vary from city to city and from person to person on the curfew's effectiveness, but authorities in general feel that a successful curfew comes with proper enforcement.

Locally, parents, teenagers, authorities are in agreement, a curfew may be the answer to Pontiac's juvenile problems.

WINS WITH LEATHER — Phillip Sloan, of the Oakland County Infirmary, won his blue ribbon for craftsmanship in competition against patients of 30 metropolitan area institutions in Detroit. He entered the hospital just nine months ago, and has been doing such items as the leather bag, sheepskin booties, and moccasins for eight months.

Area Collision Is Evidence

Need Cited for Air Control

The fatal collision of two planes over Pontiac Municipal Airport this summer "gives further evidence of the need for actions on proposals for changes to existing Civil Air Regulations," a Civil Aeronautics Administration official said recently.

R. R. Lovering, chief of the general operations branch of the CAA, added that the June 23 accident of the private planes "did not generate any new recommendations."

The CAA performed an extensive investigation into the accident including taking statements from nine witnesses.

Recommendations as to what might have prevented the collision, which claimed the lives of three men, did not develop, The Press learned, after inquiring from CAA officials.

MAY CONTROL FLOW

One of the proposals mentioned by Lovering was the establishment of a "standard traffic flow" around airports.

This proposal, under consideration by the Civil Aeronautics Board, along with others, is expected to afford a partial solution to the mid-air collision hazard in the vicinity of airports, Lovering said.

A "traffic flow area" would be a part of the "standard traffic flow" and would apply to approaching as well as departing aircraft. "When aircraft enter the area they would be expected to conform to the 'standard traffic flow' direction," the CAA official explained.

Another recommendation being considered is the creation of "high density air traffic zones." One has been in operation at Washington on an experimental basis for the past year, Lovering pointed out.

LIMIT SPEEDS

In these zones, speed limits would be in effect to which all aircraft must conform to while in the area. Certain minimum radio equipment would also be required.

"Increases in the present minimum visibility and ceiling requirements for visual contact flight rules are being considered as proposed amendments to the regulations," Lovering said.

He emphasized that regardless of the safeguards set up by the CAA, the human element of always keeping a sharp lookout is of top importance.

"We are trying to emphasize this in student flight training," he said.

Killed in the crash were: James G. Pickett, of Drayton Plains; Dale Mathews, of Charlevoix; and Jess Trott, of Almont.

Record Size Pearl Discovery Reported

TOKYO (INS) — Two Japanese pearl divers said they have found two pearls which are the largest in the world.

The divers said one of the pearls weighed 65 carats and the other, 60 carats. Each was valued at more than $30,000. They were found in the Arafura sea.

No Caste System in High Education

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of President Eisenhower's Committee on Education Beyond High School said today, "This country will never tolerate the nurturing of an educational elite."

* * *

Devereux C. Josephs, in a speech prepared for the American Assn. of Land-Grant Colleges and State Universities, said, "It is inherent in our society that each individual shall have the opportunity to develop his or her talents to the fullest . . .

* * *

"A system that selects for education beyond high school only those being trained for the professions and specialized occupations is not adequate for the needs of the technology or general society of the 1960s," he said.

"Only a third of the 18-year-olds are entering college and less than half of those who enter are graduating. We will need to do more and better."

The committee headed by Josephs, board chairman of the New York Life Insurance Co., was named by Eisenhower to determine what problems are faced by all types of post-high school education — including colleges, junior colleges, trade schools and adult education programs — and recommend what to do about them.

Josephs said, "There should be a clear-cut policy on the role of the federal government toward education beyond high school . . . Without such policy, crash programs for careers temporarily in high favor will be nourished with federal funds without relationship to the total educational situation."

The land-grant schools got that name because the federal government granted them public lands to aid their establishment. The 71 schools account for about a fifth of all U.S. college students.

NATO Would Destroy Attacker, Says Gruenther

PARIS (AP) — Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, the outgoing NATO commander, today warned the Soviet Union that any attack on the West would be met with instant retaliation and that Russia would be destroyed.

Answering what he called "threats and blackmail," Gruenther told a farewell news conference that rockets could not destroy the Atlantic Alliance's ability to retaliate.

Although he did not mention Soviet Premier Bulganin by name, he was clearly referring to the Russian's implied warning to France and Britain a week ago that more powerful nations could attack them with "rocket techniques" unless they ended their attack on Egypt.

Gruenther, who has commanded the NATO forces in Europe since shortly after President Eisenhower took office, turns over his post Nov. 20 to U.S. Gen. Lauris Norstad. He is to retire from the Army Dec. 31 and become president of the American Red Cross the following day.

The Allied supreme commander said air defense developments during the next five years could change the fear of retaliation that at present prevents any nation from launching rocket warfare.

He said his headquarters always has placed a big question mark on the reliability of the Soviet satellite armies in event of war.

He also indicated some doubts about the existence of Soviet rockets.

Missouri School Fire Routs College Girls

FULTON, Mo. (AP) — Fire swept through three buildings at Williams Woods College late last night but the shouts and screams of house mothers roused about 160 girls and they scrambled out unhurt.

Robert Martin, public relations director at the girls' school, reported all were accounted for. He estimated damage at more than $365,000 but said it will cost close to a million to restore the lost facilities.

Students at nearby Westminster College pitched into help remove clothing and possessions from the burning dormitories. Two were overcome by smoke and two others were slightly hurt.

Skill at Tooling Leather Earns Prize at Exhibition

Phillip Sloan's proficiency at tooling leather, learned in occupational therapy work at the Oakland County Infirmary where he has been for nine months, has earned him a blue ribbon.

Sloan won first prize in a recent exhibition in Detroit of craft entries from 30 institutions in Southeastern Michigan.

The show, "The Senior Citizens Arts and Crafts Exhibit," was at the Detroit Historical Museum. Estes, head of the institution.

Officials of the Infirmary are proud that one of their patients won such a prize in competition against a large field, says Howard Sloan had been working on leather for about eight months, in the department under Marian Hagen. She is a registered occupational therapist who has developed the department in her two years with the institution.

Sloan's work, entered by the therapist, included handbags, moccasins, pocketbooks, a cigarette case and sheepskin booties.

Chapter 16

Dottie's sister was smiling at me. Now that she had told me, I could see the resemblance between her and her sister. In a few years, if Dottie didn't heed the scales, she would be a chubby, overflowing bundle of sugar and spice like her older sister. Then I realized she had been speaking to me.

"I'm sorry," I said. "What did you say?"

Dottie's sister said, "Jack."

"Jack?"

She pointed toward the door.

"Here he is," she said. "Back again."

I looked, and there he was back again. He was walking around the front of a black, two-door sedan. He had a raincoat over his arm. He came into the store and grinned at Dottie's sister; I could tell he liked her.

"Louise," he said, "I found Phil's raincoat in the car. He might need it tomorrow."

"Thanks, Jack." She took the coat from him. "That was thoughtful of you."

"Sure," he said. I'm thoughtful."

He glanced at me without the slightest interest. For that I was grateful. But Louise had to open her lovely rosebud mouth. Her voice was hopping with excitement. She was going to love this.

"Jack!" she said. "Take a look at this young lady."

He took a look at me. He said, "I'm looking at her and I'm enjoying it. But why?"

* * *

Louise giggled; this was rich. She said, "She don't mean a thing to you! Boy, you're not kidding . . . memory sure plays tricks. Honey," she said to me, "say something. Maybe he'll recognize your voice. Speak!"

"Bow-wow," I said. "Arf-arf."

"Down, boy," Jack said. "What is this?"

"Jack!" Louise cried. "It's Hester Frost!"

The name had rung a bell with him. His memory wasn't playing tricks. He was remembering, no doubt, that Dottie had told him about a babe named Hester Frost who had come snooping around, minding their business.

His face wasn't pleasant anymore. His lips thinned into a hard tough line. His eyes turned frigid. He looked like a kid who was handy with a switch blade and proud of it. He didn't like me at all. His attitude started the fright churning inside me.

Louise was saying, "She went to grade school with you, she's been telling me. Grade school!"

"Why, sure, yes!" Jack said. His voice was hearty, playing the big reunion, but his eyes were still frozen. "Sure, little Hester Frost! You sat beside me in Miss Koehler's room. Whatever happened to you?"

"Whatever happened to Miss Koehler?" I asked.

"Say, do you remember Archie Hall?"

"That stinker? Well, it's been swell seeing you again, Jack. I'll be running along now . . ."

I started for the door. His hand was around my right arm, just above the elbow. I had no idea dancing teacheds were so strong. This was painful.

"What's the rush?" he said. "Let's have a drink down the street . . . for old time's sake."

"Thanks . . . but no."

"No, really . . . I'm late."

"I'll drive you there," Jack said. "Wherever it is."

"Don't bother, I . . ."

"It'll be a pleasure."

* * *

He steered me forcibly toward the door.

"Drop in again, Hester," Louise called after us. "This has been fun."

Jack Walston pulled me into the front seat of the car. He flicked on the headlights and started the motor, his right hand still on my wrist. I never had liked one-arm drivers; I hated this one. At the first corner he turned right.

He stopped, parked in the middle of the block. He let go of my wrist. He swung his body around under the steering wheel to face me.

He said, "Hester Frost . . . is that your real name?"

"Of course."

He was silent for a moment.

"You got yourself a job teaching at Crescent . . . the morning after the murder. You got Anita Farrell's job. Coincidence, isn't it?"

"Somebody had to take her place," I said.

"But then you start prying into other people's affairs . . . why?"

I didn't answer him; I couldn't.

Again he said, "Why?"

I heard myself babbling something about being a special investigator for the police . . . that the cops wanted to know why he was so interested in Anita Farrell's apartment . . . that if he'd answer a few questions I might consider giving his a break.

He was laughing at me. He wasn't making any noise, but he was laughing.

"Hiya, Blondie," he said. You're cute."

"Now, listen," I said, "I don't want to have any trouble with you."

"Mata," he said. "Mata Hari."

"You answer my questions and . . ."

"Oh, stop it," he said.

"You just answer my questions and I'll let you go."

"You'll let me go?" he asked quietly. "Look, you don't have me. I have you."

"Let's put it this way . . . we have each other."

He said, "Your hands are shaking."

I clenched my hands together, tight.

He said, "They should be shaking. I have a very vicious streak in me. I fight people who bother me . . . and Dottie."

With one of my shaking hands, I jammed down the door handle, shoved against the door with my shoulder. He grabbed at me and missed. I was out on the sidewalk. He got out the door on his side and started around the hood of the car toward me.

I scrambled back into the car, got the door closed and locked. I lurched across the seat and locked the other door just in time. I turned on the ignition, stepped on the starter. He was shaking the door handle.

The car lunged forward and sent him sprawling. As I turned the nearest corner, I saw him in the rear view mirror. He was on his feet again, his hands on his hips, watching me disappear.

I had got away from Jack Walston. I had learned a thing or two about him and Dottie Harris. I was doing better this evening than I had all day. But I didn't feel better for it.

The Barton family was going rapidly to seed. Mr. Barton was the Waltzer, that maniac killer that the police of the world's largest city were seeking. Mrs. Barton was, at the moment, driving the streets of Kew Gardens in a car she had stolen.

I abandoned it at the subway station. I parked it within sight of an honest looking cop and headed for home. I didn't duck under the turnstile. I paid my fare and that returned to me a little of my self respect. I wasn't completely unregenerate yet.

Banks Promised Stable Future

Savings and Loan Head Says Ike's Win Means 4 More Honest Years

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The president of the United States Savings and Loan League told 4,000 delegates at his group's annual convention yesterday that President Eisenhower's re-election means four more years of "honest money" policies.

Walter M. Dreier told the opening session of the week-long conclave that "tight or honest" money is a policy of stabilizing "the cost of living through use of monetary and credit controls in the face of ricing incomes, rising employment and a record volume of new capital expenditures."

"The election," said Dreier, "guarantees that the policies of the past four years will continue to be the policies for the next four years and that the laudable objectives of avoiding inflation and deficit financing will continue to largely determine these policies.

"Certainly, the election represents a vindication of the skillful, courageous and cooperative program developed and carried out by Treasury Security Humphrey, Federal Reserve Bank Chairman Martin and Treasury Undersecretary Burgess."

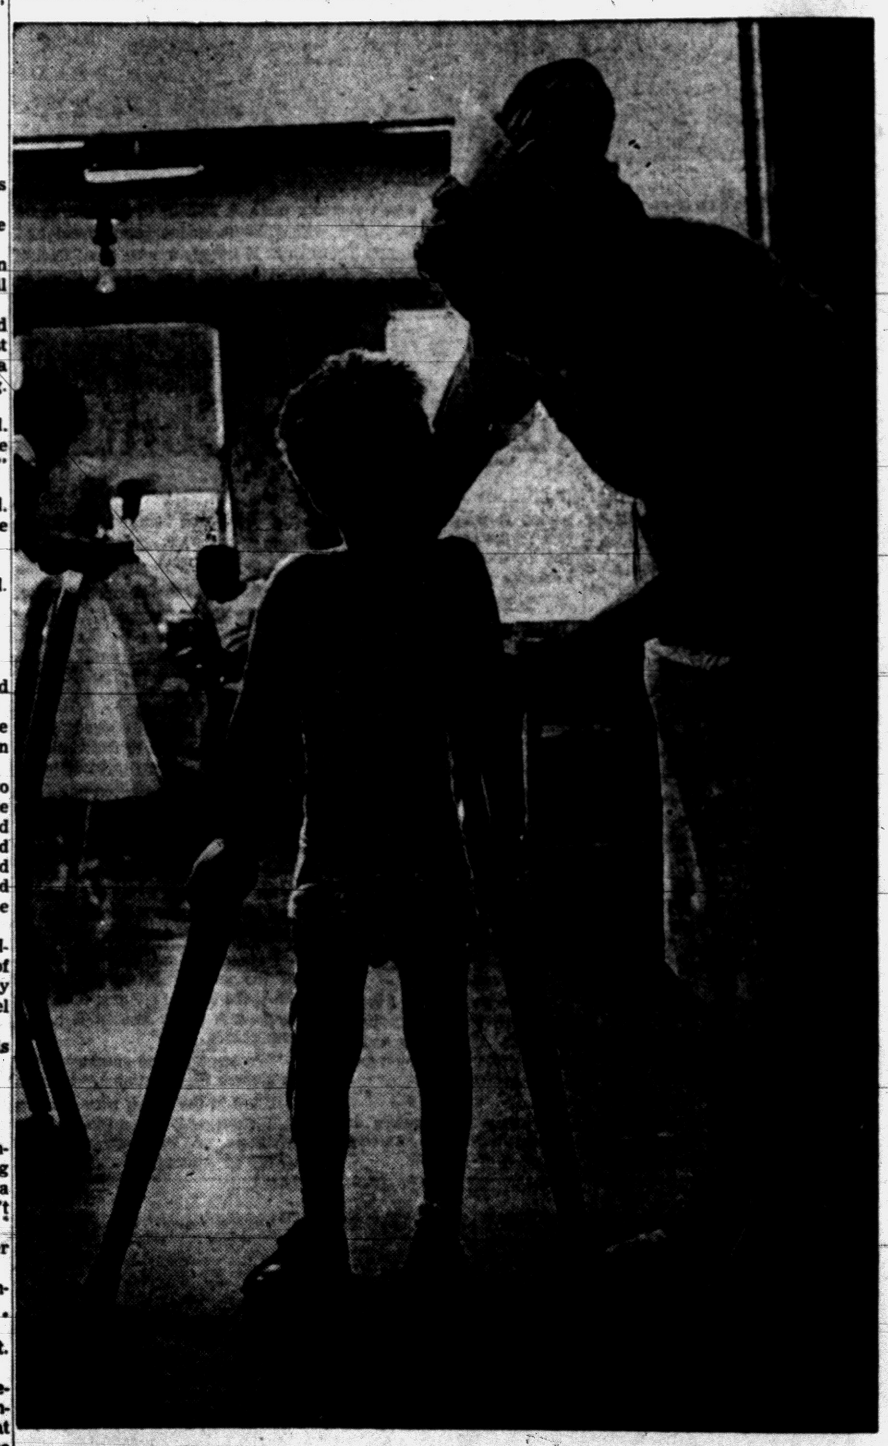

Dreier said that the "honest money" policy halts inflation and keeps the dollar stable.

Surgery Aids Heart Victims

Artery Cleaning Method May Lead to Surgical Prevention of Attacks

CHICAGO (AP)— A new surgery method has been developed which scrapes clean the clogged arteries in humans which cause heart attacks, two surgeons have announced.

"Rusted" coronary arteries were bored clean in about the same manner that rusted or stopped-up water pipes are reamed out.

A thin, hollow instrument pushed through the arteries cut away plugs of fatty material that had caused the heart attacks, and threatened to cause new attacks.

The new surgery was performed within the last two weeks on two men, aged 51 and 52, both victims of heart attacks like that of President Eisenhower. The cleaning-out increased the vital flow of blood to the heart muscle. The patients are expected to leave the hospital soon.

The new step was announced by Dr. Charles P. Bailey of Haghnemann Medical College and Hahnemann Hospital, Philadelphia, and Dr. Angelo May of Mt. Zion Hospital, San Francisco. It was reported to the American Society for Study of Arteriosclerosis (hardening of the arteries).

It was interpreted as a step toward a new era of surgical prevention of heart attacks.

* * *

Dr. Bailey said it is too early to determine how much this new method has helped the two patients, or how many heart victims might be helped this way.

Then Listen to the Worries of Someone Else

Are Your Aches and Pains Purely Mental?

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—It is almost impossible for a body to get an honest, old-fashioned stomach-ache these days without being accused of dark, brooding complexities of the mind.

You say you feel sick, and what do they tell you?

"It's all mental," they say.

"It's all that Veal Parmagiana," you snap back, every brain cell on the defensive.

"Worried about your job?" they say. "Or is it that man?"

"Maybe it was the Caesar salad," you go on.

"Entirely psychosomatic. You're turning into a hypochondriac."

Thus suddenly, because one's digestive juices became overly agitated by an onslaught of garlic or some such, you are put down as a character with psychoses, neuroses and heaven knows what idiocisms of the Id. Psychiatry has replaced sympathy.

The pill has become a symptom of an unhappy childhood.

ONE WHO KNOWS

Feeling that this attitude is all wrong (and also feeling a headache coming on, which might be difficult to explain since we can't remember a thing about what happened between the ages of 1 day and 3 years), we called upon a friend who knows all about these things.

He went through psychoanalysis to develop his super-ego, and is now just about the most super-egotistical man in town. But he is smart about these matters, nevertheless.

"Well now, little lady," he said in a manner that would tend to excite a case of psychosomatic nausea, "I don't pretend to know all there is to know on this subject.

"But I would say that in your case, as in the case of most average people, your stomach-ache is the result of a tendency toward hypochondria combined with a mild case of gastric acidity.

"The people who label pill-takers and ache-complainers as out-and-out hypochondriacs are wrong, in most cases, because the true hypochondriac has an actual morbid delusion that he is seriously ill."

A GENUINE CASE

Our experienced friend explained thoughtfully that if I persisted in believing my stomach-ache was a malignant tumor or an exotic tropical disease, though X-rays had shown it was nothing but an overdose of Swedish meatballs, then I would be a genuine, wool-over-my-eyes hypochondriac.

"However, do not take too lightly the people who worry over every little ache and pain. Through the years, they might develop into full-blown worries," the amateur expert went on.

"Some people are just born to worry—they do it as a hobby, like other people collect stamps. These are the people to watch because they can stew themselves into a real physical breakdown if they become rabid on the subject of ill health."

To keep worriers from exaggerating a stomach-ache into a hopeless illness, our friend suggests that we all give them something more engrossing—and less personal—to fret about.

"A hypochondriac-potential is a pessimist," he continued, "so he must be kept as busy as possible with problems to tackle, giving him the least available time to dream up imaginary illnesses for himself.

"If simply keeping busy does not quite do the job, tell him how bad YOU feel, and let him do his worrying about you. He'll feel better almost immediately."

Our friend then sat down and told us all his problems—man, is he mixed up!—and we haven't had a sick day since.

Expert Warns of 3-Lane Dangers for M150 Bridge

Rochester Sends Expert to Seek Fourth Lane for Main St. Bridge

ROCHESTER — T. M. Vanderstempel, traffic engineer, last night threw his support with the Rochester Village Council against the State Highway Department's plan to make the South Main street bridge a three-lane thoroughfare.

"A three-lane road is definitely very dangerous," Vanderstempel told the village council at its regular meeting. "A four-land road should be constructed, expecially in this fast growing community."

He, Village Manager Robert Slone and one member of the council will go to Lansing this week to make a final plea to Charles Ziegler, highway commissioner, for reconsideration of the project.

Bids are to be opened in Lansing on Nov. 21 for the bridge's widening to three lanes.

Vanderstempel presented statistics regarding the bridge's widening, from its present two lanes, and council members voiced an unanimous opinion against the three-lane plan.

Village Manager Slone said, "Our planning commission has always recommended a four-lane highway across the bridge and has felt that any other would be a traffic hazard in the existing conditions.

The delegation to Ziegler won unanimous approval by councilmen.

Preserve Quiet Friendliness

Rochester's Industry Provides for Tax Base

Big problems face the village of Rochester as a result of its rapid growth. But there is plenty of evidence that the community is facing up to these problems in a way which gives promise they will be solved.

Rochester residents hope they will be solved in a way that will preserve as much as possible of Rochester's unique character as a quiet, pleasant, friendly, progressive community.

CLARENCE BURR

As a municipality Rochester is well rounded. It has its share of industry, sufficient to form a substantial tax base.

The assessed valuation is $6,200,000. The village tax rate is 17 mills. Total rate, including village, township, county and schools, is 60 mills.

The village budget totals $312,000, of which $102,000 is levied in village taxes. The fact that the village collects 98.7 per cent of its taxes before they go to the county for the balance of collection speaks well for the prosperity of its citizens.

Rochester is served by both Michigan Central and Grand Trunk Railroads. Three main highways also bring heavy traffic out from Detroit. Rochester Road runs straight through Rochester, serving as its main business street. Livernois and John R. Roads likewise bring their quotas. East and west roads include Walton Boulevard to Pontiac, and the Romeo Road.

Rochester is governed by its President, Clarence Burr, and a six man council. Norman R. Day, Frank Rewold, Mrs. Elizabeth Maitrott, John Dahlmann, Stowell Collins and Sidney Q. Ennis are the present councilmen.

Robert A. Slone is village manager and treasurer. He has been manager since 1949. Other village officers are Mrs. Lillian Esterle, clerk; Mrs. Clayton Crissman, assessor; Ina Mae Patton, deputy treasurer; and Roscoe R. Martin, attorney.

The village maintains its own police department, consisting of Chief Samuel Howlett, who has served for 23 years, a sergeant and eight men. Four of these men serve as patrolmen and four man the police and fire alarm room 24 hours a day. These men dispatch men and equipment for both village police and village and township fire departments.

George A. Ross is chief of the Fire Department with 30 years service to his credit. He has served on a full time basis since 1951. He directs 28 active volunteer firemen in a department that was organized 53 years ago. Ray Zollner is a full time engineer in the public works garage who also keeps the fire and other village equipment rolling. Firemen are paid on the basis of the time spent fighting fires.

The village has six pieces of equipment, two of which are equipped with two way radio. The National Twist Drill Co. contributed one piece. Detroit Broach gave the village a car for the chief. Meadowbrook Farms turned over an engine and 1,000 gallon tank truck which the village houses, insures and uses.

Avon Township has a contract under which the village backs up the township department on fires outside the village. The township pays on the basis of man hours of fire fighting.

Rochester contracts for its garbage collection. It maintains a public works department of six men directed by Supt. Ed Kage. This department handles street repair and cleaning, trash pickups, cleans and maintains sewers. The village has a complete sanitary and storm sewer system, with only one street that lacks sanitary sewers.

R. D. Stark is superintendent of the water department. Water use hit a new high this year with a record 1,800,000 gallons pumped in one day. The village supplies water to Parke, Davis & Co. and its new polio unit was one big factor in this increase.

The first water mains were built in 1906. A water supply was found about three and a half miles north of the village. Flowing wells at first supplied all the water needed. Then in 1940 pumping began.

The village pumping station occupies a 25 acre site which lies about 150 feet above the level of the downtown area. The first 77,000 gallon reservoir later was supplemented by a 1,250,000 gallon reservoir.

Present pumping capacity is two-and-a-half million gallons a day and this soon will be increased to three and a half million gallons. The reservoir, now enclosed, is used only as standby protection. However, the water there is kept chlorinated in readiness for any emergency.

Tomorrow—Growth brings new problems.

For Better Understanding

Farm-City Week Comes

WASHINGTON (INS) — National Farm-City Week, Nov. 16 to 22, is designed for discussion of mutual problems between farmers and city-dwellers on food production, packaging, distribution and costs.

Farm-city week includes thousands of locally arranged events over the country — both public meetings and exhibits.

The Agriculture Department has pointed up the need for farm-city understanding, particularly from the farmers' viewpoint.

Experts add that some crucial issues affecting agriculture must in the long run be decided by city and suburban communities.

They include:

1. The tax structure.
2. The spending of the farmers' tax money.
3. The kinds of roads, schools and other facilities rural communities will have.
4. Policies governing the prices of agriculture commodities.

Subversive LYL Wiped Out

Reports U. of M. Now Free of Commie Organizations

ANN ARBOR (AP)—A former University of Michigan student who worked as an "undercover" agent for a year reported today the last reputed Communist front organization is gone from the campus.

James H. Dygert, who was city editor of the Michigan Daily, campus newspaper, told of his year-long investigation of the Labor Youth League (LYL), which is on the U. S. attorney general's list of subversive groups.

In the first of a six-part article written for the daily, Dygert had said the LYL had been inactive since September and that students had blacklisted any remaining members.

Dygert said he sought to determine the LYL's influence on the campus after two U. of M. faculty members were cited for contempt of Congress in 1954 for refusing to answer questions of a subcommittee headed by former Rep. Kit Clardy (R-Mich).

SOUGHT MEMBERSHIP

Dygert sought to join the LYL in May 1955. He said he was one of three persons at a meeting instructed by Boiza Baxter of Flint, former head of the state LYL. At the time Baxter had been indicted and convicted of contempt for refusing to disclose the group's membership rosters.

Dygert said he was informed a week later that he was unlikely to be approved as a member because LYL members "would not want their names and faces known to an editor."

The LYL never was recognized as a student organization by the university. But Dygert said it tried to infiltrate established campus groups.

ATTACKED McCARTHY

He said the LYL, collecting annual dues of 50 cents, paid $200 for an advertisement in the Michigan Daily Feb. 19, 1954, to attack "McCarthyism" and $100 for an ad opposing creation of a student government council.

At the height of its activity shortly after World War II, Dygert said, the group had between 22 and 30 members on the campus.

Following the congressional hearings in 1954, Dygert said, LYL leaders left the campus or became inactive. Dyert added:

"Three things probably did the major job of killing the LYL—suspicion, apathy and subsidiary of the hysteria, the last of which left the LYL in the position of being rather uninteresting."

TWO VIEWPOINTS

Dygert said when he began his investigation, there were two conflicting views on the campus about the LYL—conservatives felt it was "creating hysteria" and liberals who held it "should not be prosecuted or even investigated."

University administrators said the 1954 congressional hearings served as a rallying point for the LYL to interest students with "liberal views" but when that activity died, the LYL faded.

The two former faculty members indicted by the Clary subcommittee were Dr. Horace Chandler Davis and Dr. Mark Nickerson. Both were fired by the University after they refused to answer subcommittee questions. A third, Dr. Clement L. Markert, was suspended but reinstated.

Robert L. Williams, assistant dean of the faculties at U. of M. said "liberal thinkers" remain on the campus but said, "these people are sincere, loyal Americans."

"Our encouragement of a legitimate voice of liberalism has taken away the need for this type of organization."

A seven-year-old Pontiac girl is in critical condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital today with severe head injuries received yesterday when she was hit by a car on E. Wilson Ave.

Colita Bell, of 605 S. Paddock St. was reportedly running across the street when she was struck and thrown 49 feet by a vehicle operated by Howard J. Gulick, 44, of 186 Raeburn St.

Gulick told Pontiac police he was driving 20 or 25 miles an hour when the Bell child ran out in front of his car from behind some parked vehicles.

He was not held but will make a statement to the Oakland County Prosecutor's office today concerning the incident which happened only one-half mile from the child's home.

Police said the girl apparently was running diagonally between intersections when hit.

Louisiana Vote Seen as Trend

Die-Hard Tactics Over but GOP Faces Battle for State Control

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—President Eisenhower's victory in Louisiana, the first for a Republican in 80 years, may signal an end to this Deep South state's die-hard devotion to the Democratic party.

Republicans, however, are not much closer to organizing state politics into a two-party battleground because the vote was a show of independence rather than a swich in party preference.

That's the meaning of last Tuesday's vote, according to the state's newspapers and veteran political observers.

In 1952, Democrat Adlai Stevenson held Louisiana by 38,000 votes despite then Gov. Robert Kennon's active opposition.

This year, the state went to Eisenhower by more than 75,000 votes although on the surface the Democratic party was united.

A number of reasons are possible:

1. A poorly financed Democratic campaign, hampered by squabbling between backers of Gov. Earl Long and the anti-Long factions.

2. A heavy anti-Long vote, possibly reaction to Long's high-pressure tactics in the 1956 Legislature that extended into the presidential election. Long was slapped down hard on several state issues at the same time.

3. A switch of as much as 50 per cent in the Negro vote, which went about 98 per cent for Stevenson in 1952. Negro leaders termed it a "protest vote" against white supremacy tactics of Southern Democrats.

4. The Suez crisis. States Rights leaders say it cost them many votes . . . "The people were afraid to hurt Mr. Eisenhower's chances."

5. A well-organized, heavily financed Republican campaign.

A top Stevenson leader said after the votes were counted:

"We could have held Louisiana for Stevenson. But we'd have had to put on a lot stronger campaign, spent a lot more money. We didn't have that kind of money. Even so, I thought Stevenson would carry the state by a narrow margin."

The Baton Rouge Morning Advocate said the election gave two-party hopes "another shot in the arm. But the basic problem facing the Republicans remains the same that it was in 1952.

"The Republican problem is how to convert more of those who voted Republican in the last two presidential elections into Republicans at the state politics level. . . . The experience of the past four years has shown it isn't too easy."

Scientific Base to Be Built at South Pole

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP)—A U.S. Navy construction party of Operation Deepfreeze will fly to the South Pole within the next few days to build a scientific base.

Eight picked men commanded by Lt. R. A. Bowers will attempt a South Pole landing in a ski-rigged Dakota.

Lt. J. Tuck will traverse the area with dog teams to fix a camp position within 50 yards of the South Pole before building begins.

The first three of eight U.S. Air Force Globemasters which are to make 49 airdrops of materials for the base will fly from Christchurch tomorrow to McMurdo Sound.

The planes will drop 700 tons of building materials at the South Pole within the next four weeks.

A Navy C47 carrying Rear Adm. George Dufek, Operation Deepfreeze commander, made the first landing at the South Pole Oct. 31 and stayed one hour. The base to be established will be used by a team of scientists as part of the International Geophysical Year program.

Films Finally Give Break to Local Boy John Raitt

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Local boy makes good — 15 years later.

Born in nearby Santa Ana and reared in Fullerton, John Raitt started his career within an orange's throw from the film studios. But though he has been under studio contract three times, he never got his big break in movies until now.

This has been a source of wonderment for some observers. For Riatt is a handsome, virile young man with one of the best dramatic singing voices in the theater. These attributes made him a top Broadway star in such hits as "Carousel" and "Pajama Game."

Now he's costarring with Doris Day in the film version of "Pajama Game" and he sighs, "I never thought I'd make it."

A graduate of a small college at Redlands, Calif., Raitt got his singing start with the Los Angeles Civic Light Opera. One day in 1940 he was visiting MGM with a friend when director Fred Wilcox dashed up and suggested testing the young man. He was tested and signed, but played only a nonsinging role in "Flight Command."

He returned to light operas with considerable success and was signed by the now-defunct PRC company for another film try. His sole effort: a blackface number in a turkey called "Minstrel Man."

The Theater Guild latched on to the talented youngster and assigned him to the lead in the Chicago company of "Oklahoma!". Richard Rodgers composed "Carousel" with him in mind, since his amazing range could handle such difficult numbers as the "Soliloquy."

During the Broadway run of "Carousel" an emissary from Louis B. Mayer came backstage to report the MGM boss was sold on Raitt. He was signed again.

"But I didn't get out to the studio until 1947," he recalled. "That's when the movie business was facing rough times."

He almost did "Annie Get Your Gun," but he lost out to a friend he had studied with in a Pasadena singing group. He was the same fellow John had recommended as his replacement in "Carousel" — Harry Keel, later named Howard by his studio.

Raitt almost lost "Pajama Game" to Keel. But producer George Abbott went to bat for him.

Mexican Gunboat Chases Shrimpers; Captain Shot

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—The shrimp boat Pescador of Brownsville radioed from the Gulf of Mexico last night it had been fired upon by a Mexican gunboat, seriously wounding the captain, Tom Wilson.

Radio reports of the shooting were heard all along the Texas Gulf coast, Brad Smith of radio station KRGV at Weslaco, Tex., said he heard the radio operator on the Pescador plead for aid from the Coast Guard, asking, "What shall I do, what shall I do?"

The Mexican gunboat was identified as the G28. She had been mentioned in complaints last month by the Texas Shrimp Assn., which claimed she had stopped Texas shrimpers and demanded money or gifts not to capture them.

Several incidents have been reported this year between Mexican gunboats and Texas shrimpers. The Mexicans have claimed the Texans were fishing in Mexican waters, which the shrimp boat captains have denied.

Charles Wilson, radio operator on the Pescador and a nephew of the captain, radioed an account of the incident to John Santos Carinhas of Brownsville, owner of the shrimper, late last night. The account was given to Smith of KRGV.

Wilson said just before midnight they were still anchored about 120 miles south of Brownsville with the Mexican gunboat anchored about 75 yards away. He said they had taken the three-man crew, including the wounded captain, one at a time to the G28 and demanded that they sign a blank paper.

Wilson said the Texans refused.

He said the Pescador was anchored at about sundown "when we saw the gunboat coimng up. Our sister ship, the Joyce Carinhas, was anchored nearby . . . We saw the G28 stop and board another trawler . . . We started our motors and started to run farther out into the Gulf.

"The gunboat . . . finally caught up with us. She fired three shots. One bullet hit the cabin door and then struck Capt. Tom Wilson in the back and another bullet apparently hit him lower down, apparently around the kidneys. . . We stopped and they came aboard."

The bullets were believed from a rifle.

Coast Guard Vice Adm. Alfred C. Richmond, commandant of the service, Rep. J. Vaughn Gary (D-Va) and other Washington officials were on the Coast Guard cutter Sebago, which left Brownsville last night to take over direction of the operation.

The Washington officials were in Brownsville to hear complaints by the Texas Shrimp Assn. about Mexican gunboats.

Los Angeles Citizens May Need Ear Plugs

LOS ANGELES (AP) — It's four times noisier in Los Angeles than it was 20 years ago. At this rate, in another 20 years the racket will be "virtually lethal," says Dean Vern O. Knudsen, UCLA vice chancellor.

Addressing the third West Coast Noise Symposium, Knudsen suggested heavier home insulation and as a last resort, ear plugs.

Senator Morse Optimistic

Takes Brighter View of Foreign Policy Since Secret Briefing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Morse (D-Ore) said today he is more optimistic than before about achieving "a truly bipartisan foreign policy," and that he intends to help in working it out.

Morse, who has been critical of the Eisenhower administration on some foreign policy questions, told newsmen of his more hopeful view after attending a secret briefing yesterday on the international situation.

The officials included Acting Secretary of State Hoover; Allen W. Dulles, head of the Central Intelligence Agency; Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; and Arthur S Fleming, director of the Office of Defense Mobilization.

Most committee members left the session close-mouthed, although some said they heard little more than "what you read in the papers." But several of the Democrats said it appeared that the administration was placing full reliance on the United Nations to meet every emergency situation now flaring up abroad.

That attitude reportedly would extend even to meeting the situation that would arise if, as one senator put it, the Russians were to move "10,000 or 20,000 volunteers" into Egypt.

But Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark) said any such Soviet move should be met by U. S. military action. He predicted President Eisenhower eventually would make it clear that use of Soviet forces in the Middle East could not go unchallenged.

AMWA Has Named Woman of the Year

BOSTON (INS) — The board of the American Medical Women's Association announced that its Detroit branch has named Dr. Viola Brekke of Highland Park, Mich., as "medical woman of the year."

Dr. Brekke was the first woman to graduate from Wayne State University's College of Medicine with the highest grades in her class.

May Bar Dem Who Backed Ike

Asking Caucus to Block Committee Assignments for Rep. Adam Powell

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Wayne L. Hays (D-Ohio) said today he will ask a pre-session Democratic House caucus to bar Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-NY) from committee assignments as a Democrat.

Powell bolted the Stevenson-Kefauver presidential ticket and campaigned in behalf of President Eisenhower because, he said, he preferred Eisenhower's stand on racial integration. He said at the time he was still a Democrat.

The caucus, expected to meet Jan. 2, has the final say on organizational matters among Democratic House members, including committee assignments. Such assignments normally are made on the basis of seniority.

Powell now is a member of the Education-Labor and Interior-Insular Affairs committees. Should the Democrats deny him committee assignments, he could ask the Republicans to assign him.

"They took him in the campaign and they can keep him now," Hays told a reporter, referring to Powell. "I will introduce a resolution asking the caucus to deny committee assignments to him."

Hays said he presently does not intend to include Rep. John Bell Williams, Mississippi Democrat, in the resolution, although Williams supported a third party presidential ticket on which he was listed as vice-presidential candidate in some states.

Any move to punish Powell or Williams would face formidable opposition.

SECRET VENTURE

From the Press Box

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

For the next week discussions will continue as to whether coach Buddy Parker used good judgment in calling for the safety which ultimately became the margin of defeat for the Lions last Sunday.

At that point of the game, with the Lions behind 13-10, we think it was a good move. Unfortunately it backfired, but had it worked, all the second guessers would have been calling it a good piece of strategy.

Detroit's punting wasn't at its best Sunday, and by kicking from the end zone Washington would have taken possession at least within the 30 and would have probably gone all out for the touchdown.

DAVE KLINE

With the free kick from the 20 it gave the punter more time to get away a better boot and permitted the linemen to get down on top of the receiver a little faster. And what Parker also figured was to keep Washington 20 yards farther away from that goal line.

Besides, the Lions at that point weren't thinking of a tying field goal, they were interested in the touchdown.

But again it was too bad the Lion defensive unit was unable to hold the Redskins at mid-field. Sam Baker just outbooted Parker's strategy.

KLINE QUARTERBACKS MARINES

Area football fans should remember Davey Kline who quarterbacked St. Freds from 1946 to 1950 and later became the number one signal caller at the University of Detroit from 1951-54.

Dave is presently the first string quarterback for the Hawaii Marines who have gone unbeaten in four games this year with three more to play.

One of the assistant coaches of the Marine team is 1st Lt. John Karski who played his football at Michigan State and St. Bonaventure.

WATCH ILLINOIS IN '57

It may be a little premature to talk about the Big Ten championship for 1957, but that Illinois team should be well stocked.

The Illini should at least be the "mature" team of the conference. There are six players on this year's roster, whose ages range from 23 to 26 and who are only sophomores.

Seems the Illini have done some recruiting in the service ranks.

Spartan-Gopher Battle Is TV Regional Game

CHICAGO (AP)—Michigan State's football battle at Minnesota will be the Big Ten Conference's football game this Saturday, conference headquarters announced.

Michigan State, the nation's third-ranked team, has a 4-1 Big Ten record, losing only to Illinois in one of the season's big upsets. Minnesota, ranked 17th, lost its first game last week, bowing to Iowa 7-0 in a nationally televised contest.

NCAA Council Begins Detroit Confab

DETROIT (AP) — College athletic officials, mindful of the plight of 11 wayward schools, waited apprehensively today for possible new crackdowns by the powerful council of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn.

The council, policy directing body of the NCAA, was expected to announce today any disciplinary action against member schools accused of violating the NCAA code. Penalties against the offending schools could mean probation for one to three years and a ban against participation in all events sponsored by or affiliated with the NCAA.

The council also was expected to act on requests by Texas A&M and the University of Miami to review penalties that would keep their football teams from accepting any post-season bowl bids.

Texas A&M and Miami teams are ranked 5th and 8th respectively and both are considered prime candidates for bowl games on Jan. 1. Both are on probations that carry into 1957 for extending unauthorized aid to athletes.

Walter Byers, executive director of the NCAA, was expected to announce any decisions made by the council at a news conference at 5 p.m. (EST) today.

The 16 members of the 18-man council who attended the opening session yesterday heard a report by the NCAA's infractions committee, which reviewed its latest investigation on accused violators of NCAA regulations.

Chairman A. D. Kirwan, a faculty representative from the University of Kentucky, delivered the report, which was not made public, Kirwan revealed, however, that his committee had checked on a larger number of reported violations this year than at any other time in recent years.

Eleven schools currently are under NCAA disciplinary action. Six of them are on probation and are ineligible for all 14 NCAA events and the 25 cooperating events, including post-season bowl contests. They are Texas A&M, Miami, the University of Florida, Auburn, UCLA and the University of Washington.

The University of Louisville is on probation and ineligible for NCAA basketball tournaments and cooperating basketball events.

Four—Oklahoma, St. Louis, Mississippi College and Kansas—are on probation but are eligible for all athletic events.

Kirwan said most athletic administrators now recognize that "the 'free ride' has become the accepted thing for star athletes."

"If we are going to give room, board, tuition, books and a limited amount of spending money, all right," he said. "But let's not go beyond that."

Kirwan noted that coaches at major schools are subjected to heavy pressure to produce winning teams and this leads to abuses of NCAA regulations.

"The vast majority of coaches are honest men, however," he added. "There is a minority of 'win-at-any-cost' coaches. These are men who violate the rules of their own society and it is up to us to crack down heavily on them."

MSU Expects Gophers to Plot New Strategy

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State suspects Minnesota will try to pull a fast one Saturday in its struggle for survival in the Western Conference football grind.

That's why Spartan coaches selected as their scouting film prior to the game the 20-7 Minnesota defeat of Michigan.

The MSU squad knocked off practice early Monday because of darkness and the ache of many injuries following the 12-9 edging of Purdue.

The latter part of the day was spent studying movies of the Michigan-Minnesota game with the emphasis on the second half, when Minnesota used the hurry-up huddle.

Minnesota has to win Saturday to keep its Rose Bowl and Conference title hopes alive. The Golden Gophers will play on home grounds — a good strategic spot to try some of the fast race horse stuff against the Spartans.

So Michigan State will concentrate on defense against the Oklahoma-type of play this week. Although Michigan State tried the speed system in their 33-0 defeat of Wisconsin, it's unlikely that they'll experiment against Minnesota because of a critical manpower shortage.

Injuries have cut deep into Michigan State's depth — which Coach Duffy Dougherty defines as "the number of players a coach is willing to gamble on in a game."

As of today, Michigan State has seven players among the 11 who started the season against Stanford either down or out with injuries.

Left half Clarence Peaks and tackles Pat Burke and Joel Jones are through for the year because of bad knees. Center John Matsko sprained an ankle and end Tony Kolodziej sprained both ankles to make them doubtful starters.

End Dave Kaiser has reinjured his instep. Right half Walt Kowalczyk seems to have hit a cold spell again in his hot-and-cold performances since an ankle injury.

Daugherty has said that every team needs a couple of pacemakers to set the example for the other players.

Larsen Critical After Accident Aboard Scooter

CASTRO VALLEY, Calif. (AP) — Art Larsen, 31, former National Amateur tennis champion, remained unconscious and in critical condition today, 72 hours after suffering head injuries in a motor scooter accident.

He lapsed into unconsciousness before a three-hour operation early Sunday disclosed a ruptured brain artery. An Eden Hospital spokesman said he was "critical, but better than expected."

CLOSING IN — Paddy DeMarco, former lightweight champion, closes in on Larry Boardman, Marlboro, Conn., in bout Boardman won last night at Philadelphia. Boardman, right hand up for cover in this 4th round action sent DeMarco to the canvas in the fifth. The 20-year-old won a unanimous decision.

Pete George Hurts Eye En Route to Melbourne for Olympic Games

MELBOURNE (AP) — A weird accident may have cost the United States a gold medal in weightlifting at the Olympic Games.

Pete George of Akron, Ohio, Olympic and world champion in the middleweight class, suffered a severe eye injury on the plane trip to Melbourne and his training has been interrupted.

Starting to put on his hat, George jabbed a seat card in his eye. The eye has been treated but doctors refused to let George train. He also is losing sleep because of pain.

"We counted on George as a certain gold medalist," said Coach Bob Hoffman. "We can't be sure."

Hoffman said he felt sure the Americans are good for at least four medals and maybe six in the weightlifting competition.

Lane Meets Ryff on TV Wednesday

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., and Frank Ryff of New York, both ranked among the top 10 lightweights, meet tomorrow night in a 10-round fight that will be televised nationally.

Lane, fifth-ranked, is climbing toward a title fight with lightweight champion Joe Brown.

Ryff, now ranked ninth, needs a victory to offset his recent knockout by Larry Boardman. The fast, aggressive New Yorker had once been ranked third.

The bout will be televised by ABC beginning at 10 p.m., EST.

Walled Lake Grid Ace Outstanding

Walker Selected as Oakland County's Best

There was no doubt in the minds of coaches and writers alike as to who should be the recipient of Oakland County's outstanding high school football player of the past season.

The Pontiac Press honor, with the cooperation of county coaches, has been awarded to Walled Lake's jack-of-all-trades, John Walker.

In the balloting of county coaches during the process of selecting the all-county team, Walker was a near-unanimous choice of the 25 participating coaches.

The 185-pound versatile fullback, called by his coach Dave Smith as the "best fakeback" in the state, will be presented to the McAn shoe company of New York as a nominee for a $1,000 scholarship.

The company will present Walled Lake High School with a bronze-covered trophy of Walker's own football shoe, and as a nominee for the scholarship, the young star will submit his own essay on "Why I Would Like to go to College." A B-plus student at Walled Lake, Walker was rated in the highest esteem by coaches and school officials for sportsmanship, ability, leadership and scholastic standing.

In Viking athletics, John has lettered since his sophomore year in football, basketball and baseball. He is a member of the school's honor society and as a future endeavor he hopes to get into engineering.

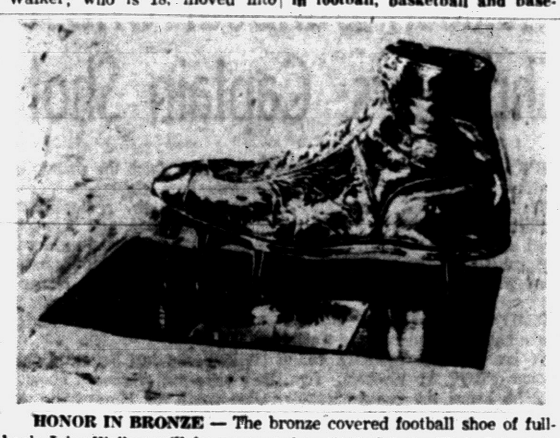

As a member of Walled Lake's unbeaten class "B" powerhouse of the past season, he led the team in yardage and scoring. He was also the team's punter, place-kicker, pass receiver and pillar on defense.

Opposing teams were kept guessing by Walker's ability to fake as a ball carrier. Coach Smith said, "he picked up 855 actual yards rushing, and about 1,500 without the ball just faking."

Linemen often swarmed all over Walker as he plowed his way through the line, while Don Yeargan, Frank Fink, Larry Dion and the other fine Viking backs were scooting down the sidelines with the ball.

Walker is presently regarded as Oakland County's leading candidate for all-state honors. He is the county's prep "Sportsman-of-the-Year."

HONOR IN BRONZE — The bronze covered football shoe of fullback John Walker will be presented to Walled Lake High School in honor of the 185-pound fullback who was selected as Oakland County's outstanding high school football player and the prep "Sportsman-of-the-Year" for 1956.

Clinch Final Poll

Northern Best in 'A'

By DAVE DILES
Michigan AP Sports Editor

The Flint Northern Vikings are the mythical champions of Class A high school football for the state of Michigan.

The undefeated and untied Vikings, with a Thanksgiving Day tussle on tap with Flint Central, have met and whipped the cream of the state's crop of high school clubs.

They moved to the top of the rankings after the third week of activity by thumping Ann Arbor 33-0 and ending the state's longest winning streak. Later in the season the Vikings beat off the challenge of a powerful Bay City Central team 24-21 to justify their claim to the No. 1 spot.

Swift backs like John Sharpe, Arden Relerford and Phil Gaines, operating behind a big, rugged line have enabled Flint Northern to mow down eight opponents.

In the final weekly poll of the state's sports writers and broadcasters, Northern was named to the first spot on all but one ballot.

Northern opened the campaign with a 21-19 victory over strong Grand Rapids Catholic, then mowed down Grand Rapids Union 27-0, Ann Arbor 33-0, Saginaw 40-0, Muskegon 26-0, Bay City Central 24-21 and Saginaw Arthur Hill 40-7 before thumping Pontiac 32-13.

In the Vikings' Turkey Day scramble with Flint Central, they will face a club that has won five games and dropped three—all to top-ranked teams.

Bay City Central—loser only to Northern—handily nailed down second place in the final poll. The Wolves collected 109 points and were named on every ballot—and never lower than second.

Grand Rapids Catholic, winner Saturday night in a 25-21 squeaker over Muskegon Catholic and loser only to Northern in nine games, had plenty of room in third place with 91 points.

Flint Northern (8-0)	119
Bay City Central (8-1)	109
Grand Rapids Catholic (8-1)	91
Ann Arbor (7-1)	73
Dearborn Fordson (9-0)	57
East Detroit (9-0)	55

Muskegon Heights (8-1)	46
Battle Creek (8-1)	29
Flint Central (5-3)	11

Others: Saginaw Arthur Hill 8, Muskegon and Grosse Pointe 3, Detroit Catholic 1.

State's Unbeaten Pair Takes All Point Honors

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hillsdale and Central Michigan, the state's only football teams with perfect records, ran away with nearly every honor in scoring, too.

All of Michigan's small colleges—except Western Michigan, Wayne State and Detroit—have completed their seasons. And none has a chance to overtake the leaders.

Hillsdale and Central Michigan, nailing down the MIAA and IIAC titles with identical 9-0 records in overall play, claimed offensive and defensive titles. Hillsdale restricted nine opponents to 50 points, an average of less than one touchdown per game, to win defensive honors.

Bill Kelly's Central Michigan crew rolled up 313 points in nine games, an average of more than 34 per game, to win offensive laurels.

Olivet's winless Comets, with eight straight setbacks, trailed in both departments. Olivet counted only 58 points in eight contests while its defensive unit was leaking for 291 points—an average of more than 36 a game.

Record Lost in 'Freeze'

KALAMAZOO (AP) — "Freezing" the ball in the final seconds of Kalamazoo College's 20-13 triumph last Saturday over Albion cost Kazoo quarterback Bob Urschalitz a new college total offense record.

The sophomore signal-caller from Jackson St. Mary went into the contest with 767 yards gained rushing and passing. He needed 177 yards to tie the record of 944 yards set in 1952 by another quarterback, Phil Dillman.

With one minute left to play, Urschalitz had beaten the old mark, rolling up 193 yards for a 960 total. Stalling for time on the next-to-last play of the game, Urschalitz was thrown for a 15-yard loss. But he still had a net of 945 yards — one yard more than necessary to set a new mark.

But on the final play of the contest, Urschalitz lost another two yards — and wound up the season with 943 yards — two less than he needed for a new record. But his team won the game, and Urschalitz has two more years in which to do some record-setting.

OAKLAND COUNTY'S BEST — Honors as the "Sportsman-of-the-Year" in Oakland County have been bestowed on Walled Lake's outstanding gridder John Walker, 185-pound fullback, who leads all the county candidates for all-state honors. The 18-year-old Viking was selected by the Press with the cooperation of county coaches. The honor makes him a nominee for a $1,000 scholarship of a New York shoe company.

'M' Can't Afford to Look Past Indiana

"There's no such thing in the Big Ten," coach Bennie Oosterbaan told his Wolverines as he warned them to worry about the Hoosiers first and let the Ohio State game wait.

Though Dufek didn't return with exactly glowing reports of a pigskin powerhouse, he said they could cause trouble.

"Don't forget, they beat us there two years ago," he said.

In 1954 an Indiana team that won only one other league contest astounded the football world by upsetting the Wolverines, 13-9, and knocked them from contention for the Rose Bowl. The Hoosiers can do the same Saturday, Oosterbaan and company fear.

Indiana's record shows three wins against four losses, but only one victory was scored in conference play. They had won three in a row until they crashed into Ohio State last Saturday.

"They're a good passing team and they're dangerous because of it," Dufek said. "They have two real fine ends in Brad Bomba and Norm Craft."

Dufek cited sophomore quarterback Steve Filipowski and Tom McDonald as the chief aerial threat. Chick Chikowski, who originally was a quarterback until he was hurt earlier in the season, returned as a halfback against the Buckeyes and was used as a passer from that spot.

Other Hoosier backfield standouts mentioned by Dufek are fullback Bob Fee, a 205-pound transplant from the 2nd squad; Dave Whitsell a speedy redhair; and 220-pound fullback Jim Yore from Battle Creek.

Up front, the Hoosiers are heavy. But Michigan has snapped into heavy, rough lines all season long. The Indiana forward wall yielded 465 yards on the ground to Ohio State, a figure which erased an old Big Ten record.

State Writers Check All-State Balloting

DETROIT (AP) — Sports writers and sportscasters from all parts of the state of Michigan are meeting today in Lansing to select all-state football teams for the Associated Press.

This is the 16th consecutive year for the all-state high school teams, and the balloting among nearly 600 high school coaches and 100 writers and broadcasters indicates this year's teams may be the finest in the history of the teams.

The writers will analyze the ballots and select first and second teams in four classes — A, B, C and D. The teams, and the players making honorable mention, will be released later in the month.

Watch the Pontiac Press later in November for the Associated Press all-state selections.

The boys selected are the cream of the crop of more than 20,000 high school football players in every nook and cranny of the state of Michigan.

Olympic Games Hit by Politics

MELBOURNE (AP) — The red, white and green nationalist flag of Hungary was raised at the Olympic Village today in an uneventful official ceremony belying the international tensions still threatening the Games, scheduled to begin in nine days.

In direct contrast to yesterday's demonstration by Hungarian expatriates during which the Communist Hungarian banner was torn down and slashed with a knife, some 60 athletes and officials stood quietly as the traditional flag went up.

The chief of the Hungarian delegation, Julius Hegyi, had said earlier that the change of flag was ordered before he left his country.

But while calm surrounded the flag-raising ceremony, there were renewed indications that the International Olympic Committee would be unable to divorce the Games from world politics as it had hoped.

There were these developments:

1. A spokesman for Syria's Olympic Committee said the Arab states will ask the IOC to ban Britain, France and Israel from participating in the Games on grounds that "Anglo - French-Israeli aggression against Egypt constitutes a serious contravention of international ethics, principles and traditions."

2. A Swedish member of the IOC admitted that five Scandinavian countries — Sweden, Norway, Finland, Denmark and Iceland—plan a meeting soon to consider the Suez crisis, but said that as of now they plan to compete.

3. Hegyi, himself, refused to answer questions on the subject of whether Hungarian athletes would compete against the Russians.

On the almost-overlooked athletic side, part of the U. S. Olympic track and field team went through final preparations for its Australian debut tomorrow. An invitational meet will be held at Geelong, a seaside resort 50 miles west of here and Jim Kelly, head coach of the U. S. forces, said he would enter men in the high jump, pole valut, shotput, high hurdles, sprint relays and middle-distance runs.

Beliveau, Lindsay on Top

MONTREAL (AP)—Jean Beliveau of the Montreal Canadiens failed to score a goal in four games this past week but collected three assists to boost his National League scoring total to 17 points, according to figures released today.

Ted Lindsay of the Detroit Red Wings remained in second place with 16 points. He added four points to his total of last week with three goals and one assist. Doug Harvey is third with 14 points.

Highest scorer of the week was Vic Stasiuk of the Boston Bruins who collected four goals and two assists to climb from ninth to a fourth-place tie with Gordie Howe of Detroit and Maurice Richard of Montreal. Each had 13 points.

Harvey, who still has to collect a goal this season, is the leader in assists with 14. Dickie Moore of the Canadiens is the leader in goals scored with eight.

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Replacing Marty Marion as manager of the Chicago White Sox is a terrific break for Al Lopez. His team will go into training next srping in his native Tampa — Florida's largest Spanish-American City.

The White Sox will play their exhibition games at Al Lopez Field which was named after the former big league catcher who managed Cleveland's Indians the last six seasons. The field was opened two years ago.

The Cincinnati Redlegs also train in Tampa.

Purdue's Mackey Protests

Objects to Bands for Pros

CHICAGO (AP)—Professional football is after that something long associated with college football — the color provided by a marching band — and there's one college official who doesn't like the idea.

The Chicago Bears several weeks ago had the University of Illinois band play during the halftime intermission and are now in the process of having the Indiana University band appear at the Bear-Los Angeles game at Wrigley Field next Sunday.

Mackay told Purdue band officials the musicians could not perform under university auspices if they accepted an invitation to play at the Bears-Rams game Sunday. The invitation was turned down.

However, at Bloomington, the Indiana University band voted to accept an invitation to play at the game. Band director Ronald D. Gregory said it was the organization's "policy to appear before as many people as possible to help promote the good name of the university."

Ice Goal-Net Inventor Dies at Age of 82

A goal tender for Beamsville in the old Southern Ontario Hockey Assn. about 1900, Fairbrother had a net made by a fisherman and strung it on his goal posts. The idea was immediately adopted by the association and spread.

Fairbrother was Beamsville clerk from 1914 to 1931 and treasurer from 1922 to 1931, when he resigned both posts to become county registrar, a position he held until his retirement in 1949.

Americans Buy French Horse

Three - Year - Old Colt, Master Boing, Slated to Race in U.S.

The 3-year-old was sold quickly after the race for $110,000 by Andre Lombard of Paris to N. B. Hunt, Dallas, Tex., oilman and Edward L. Stephenson, Warrenton, Va., thoroughbred breeder.

The new owners already have the next $100,000 race picked out for the brown colt who showed his fine French heels to nine other horses from six countries. It is the San Juan Capistrano, a grass race like the International, March 9 at Santa Anita, Calif.

French horses now have scored two of the most impressive victories in the International and it is the only country to win the 5-year-old global affair twice.

Three Area Prep 11's Finish Clean

There were many strong teams in the neighborhood this fall. But when last Friday's action was over bringing the regular schedule to an end, only three undefeated-untied teams remained.

The three squads that came through the season unscarred were East Detroit, Walled Lake and Lake Shore.

East Detroit went unscathed in nine games while the Viking juggernaut was untouched in eight starts. Lake Shore, Bi-County League champion with a perfect 8-0 record, finished its schedule Nov. 2.

In last Friday's action, the Shamrocks wrapped up the Eastern Michigan League crown with a 26-0 victory over Ferndale while Walled Lake, Inter-Lakes Conference winner, walloped Milford, 41-0.

There was only one casualty last week, but that was a real "shocker." Romeo, unbeaten and untied in eight attempts, was stunned by arch-rival Utica, 27-0, to fall from the ranks of spotless record teams.

Almont and New Haven, which fought each other to a 19-19 draw early in the season and then went on to share the Southern Thumb League title, were unbeaten, with only the tie to mar the season. Almont won seven games, New Haven five.

Five county area schools wound up without a single victory. Included are St. Frederick, Brown City, Capac, Millington and Mt. Clemens. The 1st three teams each played one tie.

The lone area game remaining is the annual Birmingham-Royal Oak battle on Thanksgiving Day. Neither school will have a flawless record at stake.

Tennessee Voted Nation's No. 1 Team

The Associated Press

Tennessee and Oklahoma came down to the wire in a photo finish in this week's Associated Press football poll but the final closeup showed Tennessee the No. 1 team by two points.

The Volunteers drew such strong runner-up support that the bundle of second-place votes overcame Oklahoma's wide edge in first-place ballots. The final count gave the Vols 1,446 and the Sooners 1,444 points.

Sports writers and sportscasters who participate in the weekly poll of major college teams rate their top 10 sections in order. A first-place vote earns 10 points, a second gets nine and so on down the line to 10th place and one points. The point total determined the ratings. Oklahoma led Tennessee in first-place votes 92-58 but Johnny Majors and the Vols has a wider second place edge 75-34.

Although Oklahoma has won 37 straight and led the poll every week except one, when Michigan State took over in October, the second-place votes did it for Tennesse, a 6-0 winner over Georgia Tech in a battle of the unbeaten. Oklahoma had romped over Iowa State 44-0.

* * *

The one-two teams face rugged opposition Saturday. Tennessee entertains Mississippi, No. 19, a rugged club that has won the Southeastern Conference title the last two seasons. Oklahoma faces Missouri, a team that partially atoned for its four defeats by holding Colorado to a 14-14 tie last week.

Michigan State, which nosed out Georgia Tech and Texas Aggies in a struggle for third place with 993 points, has Minnesota, No. 17, next on its schedule after its 12-9 victory over Purdue.

The unbeaten Texas Aggies, tied only by Houston in eight starts, finished fifth in the standings.

Two of the top 10 clubs are involved in a Saturday battle between Ohio State (No.6) and Iowa (No. 7). Ohio State, the Western Conference leader, can strengthen its position by disposing of the strong Iowa team that beat Minnesota 7-0.

Boardman Licks DeMarco; Feels He Can Beat Brown

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Larry Boardman feels he could lick lightweight champion Joe Brown today but the sensational young fighter from Marlboro, Conn., says he isn't in any hurry for the title fight.

The 20-year-old Boardman says he wants to go on learning lessons like the one he picked up last night in defeating roughhouse Paddy DeMarco. He met one of the toughest tests for a young fighter — how to combat a mauler, a guy who makes you look bad even when you win.

DeMarco, the former lightweight champion from Brooklyn, used every roughhouse trick in the book in an effort to panic the cleancut kid from the Nutmeg State. He mauled, pushed, grabbed, tackled, hit on the break and charged in his famous "billy goat" style. Referee Dave Beloff took the fourth round from Paddy for attempting to punch as Boardman fell floorward from a push.

* * *

Through it all, Boardman kept his head. He smashed DeMarco with rights and lefts from long range and refused to be goaded into fighting Paddy's style. In the fifth round, the hard-punching Boardman caught DeMarco flush on the chin, sending him to the canvas.

Dodgers End Tour With 3-1 Victory

FUKUOKA, Japan (AP) — Hits by Jackie Robinson and Don Demeter produced two runs in the ninth inning today as the Brooklyn Dodgers rallied to wind up their 19-game tour of Japan with a 3-1 victory over Japan's Pacific League All-Stars.

Robinson's hit scored Duke Snider and Jackie came around to score on Demeter's single after moving up on an infield out.

The victory gave the National League champs a record of 14 wins, 4 losses and a tie against the toughest competition Japan's improving baseballers ever have mustered against an American club.

The Dodgers return to Tokyo tonight and then fly to the States in two groups, one leaving Thursday, one Friday.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — The Massachusetts Institute of Technology today announced the appointment of John Burke as head basketball coach to succeed Robert (Scotty) Whitelaw.

Whitelaw said his duties as director of physical education have increased to the point where he is forced to relinquish his cage coaching.

Nobody Tells Cooper How to Vote; He Has His Own Liberal Mind

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A Washington cloakroom story relates an encounter between the late Sen. Robert A. Taft and John Sherman Cooper, who has just won a third "short term" to the U. S. Senate from Kentucky.

"Are you a Democrat or a Republican?" asked the Ohio Republican. "When are you going to start voting with us?"

Cooper replied, "If you'll pardon me, I intend to vote as I think best."

Cooper, a lawyer, entered politics at 26. He served as a state legislator at Frankfort. In 1929 Pulaski County elected him county judge like his father and grandfather before him.

For the next eight years he held that office and today looks back on those lean depression years as the most important period in his life.

"Whatever my views are today," he says, "they were influenced by those years as a county judge."

In 1942 he enlisted in the Army as a private. When he was discharged in 1946 as a captain he returned to Somerset. That same year he was elected to a two-year term in the Senate. He was beaten in 1948 for a full term.

He once served as a delegate to the United Nations General Assembly and as special consultant to Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

In 1955, President Eisenhower appointed him ambassador to India, a post he held until he resigned to run for the Senate against former Gov. Lawrence Wetherby.

Shortly before leaving for India he married the former Lorraine Rowan of Pasadena, Calif. It was his second marriage. The first ended in divorce.

* * *

"During the campaign," an associate says, "John must of shook every hand in Kentucky at least once."

$14,000 A YEAR ...NOW I AM REALLY LIVING!

By a Wall Street Journal Subscriber

A few years ago I was going broke on $9,000 a year. High prices and taxes were getting me down. I had to have more money or reduce my standard of living.

So I sent $6 for a Trial Subscription to The Wall Street Journal. I heeded its warnings. I cashed in on the ideas it gave me for increasing my income and cutting expenses. I got the money I needed. And then I began to forge ahead. Last year my income was up to $14,000. Believe me, reading The Journal every day is a wonderful get-ahead plan. Now I am really living!

This experience is typical. The Journal is a wonderful aid to salaried men making $7,000 to $20,000. It is valuable to the owner of a small business. It can be of priceless benefit to young men who want to win advancement.

The Wall Street Journal is the complete business DAILY. Has largest staff of writers on business and finance. The only business paper served by all four big press associations. It costs only $20 a year, but you can get a Trial Subscription for three months for $6. Just tear out this ad and attach check for $6 and mail. Or tell us to bill you.

Published daily right in the Midwest to bring you vital business and Washington news immediately. Address: The Wall Street Journal, 711 W. Monroe St., Chicago 6, Ill.

As the situation in the Middle East seemed steadier, oils with resources there made small gains. Gulf, Royal Dutch and Texas Co. gained fractions. Westinghouse and General Electric were up a bit.

Steels Lead Market Gains

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels, aircrafts and coppers extended their gains as the stock market moved higher in fairly active early trading today.

Leading stocks rose from fractions to around 2 points. There was an occasional loser and also some gains beyond the general range.

News that national production was a new peak despite the summer's steel strike, higher personal income, record steel output and bullish corporate reports bolstered confidence, brokers said.

Opening blocks included Curtiss-Wright up ½ at 47⅞ on 6,000 shares, Lukens Steel up 2 at 125 on 1,200, U. S. Steel up ⅛ at 71⅛ on 3,000 and Royal Dutch up ⅛ at 101¼ on 1,000.

TEL AVIV (AP)—A well-informed source said today the Soviet Union is refusing to deliver crude oil to Israel despite a long-standing trade agreement between the two nations.

Grain Prices Drop Slightly

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains headed lower on the board of trade today as the market showed less apprehension over the international situation.

Mild hedging pressure and profit taking appeared in all pits. Losses ran to about a cent before the market stabilized. Trading was more active than in yesterday's extremely slow session.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛ to ⅝ lower, December $2.36⅝, corn ⅛ to ¾ lower, December $1.38¼, oats ⅛ to ¼ lower, December 77⅞, rye ¼ to ¾ lower, December $1.53¼, soybeans ½ to 1 cent lower, November $2.52, and lard 2 to 8 cents a hundred pounds lower, November $12.15.

Grainmen were expecting additional heavy export business in wheat, but there was a tendency to go slow in this cereal because current prices are above the government loan level.

2 Blasts Wreck Western Firm's Iraq Oil Line

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—A Western firm's idle pipeline from the Iraq oil fields to Israel's Mediterranean port of Haifa was blown up in two places during the night, Jordan announced today.

The government said it had ordered an investigation to find out why oil was running through the pipeline—supposedly out of use since the 1948 Palestine War.

The official announcement did not say who blew up the pipeline or why. It gave this account:

* * *

Oil was seen leaking from the pipeline as a result of normal damage. Later, explosions wrecked the line in two places south of Irbid, Jordan. A huge fire followed the explosions.

No mention was made of an investigation of the explosions.

Arab nationalists wrecked another pipeline carrying Middle East oil across Syria to the Mediterranean following the British-French invasion of Egypt.

Communists' Prestige Hurt

Repercussions to Hit Reds Since Hungary Uprising

NEW YORK (AP)—The Soviet Union will be paying through the nose for a long time for suppressing the Hungarian revolution.

Kremlin leaders probably do not yet realize the extent to which their conduct has undermined Soviet international authority and prestige—and perhaps even the basis of their power at home.

* * *

1. In Western Europe and elsewhere outside the Communist bloc the entire Communist movement has been dealt a very heavy blow. Many Reds are quitting their parties in protest against the massacre of Hungarian workers. Many nonparty members who supported the Reds at the polls can be expected to shift their allegiance.

* * *

2. Soviet relations with Yugoslav President Tito will inevitably be worsened. The Soviet Communist chieftains will tend to blame the Hungarian rebellion on "Titoism" — while the Yugoslav Communist will blame them on Moscow's policies.

* * *

3. The determination of the National Communists who now control the Polish Communist Party to throw off completely the remnants of Moscow's domination will be greatly increased.

* * *

4. Soviet difficulties in maintaining domination over East Germany, Czechoslovakia, Romania, Bulgaria and Albania will be greatly complicated. Discontent with Soviet domination, with the presence of Soviet troops and Soviet economic policies can be expected to continue to increase in all the satellites.

5. Inside the Soviet Union, it is reasonable to assume, the authority of the Soviet government over the Soviet people will be damaged. Factional quarrels inside the Communist Party leadership probably will become more acute.

The Soviet leadership may finally learn the hard way — as many other colonial powers before have learned — that attempts to keep discontented and hostile colonies with naked force often cost much more than the colonies are worth.

Hopes Going Up for Lions

McIlhenny, Bowman Are Expected to Go Sunday Against Baltimore

DETROIT (AP) — Prospects for a Detroit Lion victory over the Baltimore Colts next Sunday took a decided turn for the better today with the report that Bill Bowman and Don McIlhenny should be ready for action against the Colts.

McIlhenny, flashy rookie halfback from Southern Methodist, and Bowman, hard-hitting fullback, have been mainstays on the Lion offensive unit all season. Both were sidelined by injuries when the Lions dropped an 18-17 decision to the Washington Redskins last Sunday in their first defeat of the National Football League season.

Coach Buddy Parker was hopeful that the return of Bowman and McIlhenny would add the offensive thrust that couldn't be mustered against the 'Skins.

Leon Hart also was used sparingly. He injured his leg in the game against the San Francisco 49ers the week before, but will return to fulltime duty before Sunday.

Pimlico Track Opens 29-Day Slate Today

BALTIMORE (AP) — Pimlico will start its horse racing program today and will continue through Dec. 15.

The 29 days are the most in one stretch during the fall for Pimlico and will carry racing in Maryland to its latest date in history.

The $50,000 Pimlico Special will be run on Thanksgiving Day and two days later the Futurity will tempt 2-year-olds with $80,000.

Other big races on the schedule are the Marguerite, the Gallorette, the Exterminator and the Pimlico Cup.

Great jockeys will be honored today. Oil paintings of Johnny Longden, Isaac Murphy and Tod Sloan will be placed in a hall of fame in the old clubhouse built in 1870.

Big 10 Crown Biggest Goal

Conference Title More Important Than Roses, Biggie Munn Says

CHICAGO (AP) — Biggy Munn, Michigan State University athletic director, says winning the Big Ten Conference football title is more important than winning the Rose Bowl trip.

"Without any question, the Big Ten title is more important," Munn told the Chicago American Quarterback Club yesterday. The MSU Spartans are ineligible to return to Pasadena this season since they made the journey last year.

Michigan State is tied for 2nd with Iowa in the Big Ten standings. Each has won four and lost one. Ohio State leads the standings with four victories and no losses.

Asked to comment on the new Big Ten athletic code now being mapped, Munn said: "The Big Ten basic need plan does away with hypocrisy and I am for it as a whole. However, I disagree with some of the details." He did not elaborate.

Sandy Winner in Hot Battle

NEW YORK (AP)—Randy Sandy with a five-fight winning streak under his belt thinks he is back where he was before his career was interrupted by two years in the Army.

Sandy won a unanimous decision last night in 10 fiery rounds with John L. Sullivan of Preston, England at St. Nicholas Arena. The winning New Yorker weighed 157½, Sullivan 161 pounds.

Sandy, 25, may go back into St. Nicks Nov. 26 with Italo Scortichini or he may take an out of town match with Spider Webb of Chicago on the Wednesday International Boxing Club TV circuit.

Sullivan who almost dropped Sandy in the seventh with a solid right to the jaw, wasn't downhearted about the defeat. "I always try to give 'em me best", he said. This was his 11th fight this year.

Americans Hold Big Show Edge

Win Team, Individual Awards in Equestrian Tests at Toronto

TORONTO (AP)—The U.S. equestrian team has a big lead in the International jumping phase of the Royal Winter Fair Horse Show today with a team trophy added to the pair of individual triumphs scored last weekend.

A clutch ride by Billy Steinkraus gave the United States the first team trophy of the eight-day competition last night. Needing a faultless ride to defeat Mexico, Steinkraus and his mount did just that. The U.S. team, including Hugh Wiley and Frank Chapot in addition to Steinkraus, wound up with three faults to four for Mexico.

Last Friday and Saturday, Steinkraus and Wiley won individual events.

WEST JORDAN, Utah (AP)—Gene Fullmer, named for former heavyweight champ Gene Tunney and a fighter most of his life, flies to New York City today for the bout of his dreams.

Fullmer laid off his job as an apprentice welder, two weeks ago and last night fed his 25 minks for the last time until he returns home following the fight. Fullmer says he hopes to raise the animals fulltime when he retires from the ring.

'Brain' May Probe Unknown

Pinpoint 4th Dimension?

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A team of UCLA scientists has proposed building an electronic brain in the hope of finding the true fourth dimension that may exist all around man.

Dr. Robert Tschirgi, a physiologist at the university's medical school, believes that man, handicapped by a limited ability to perceive dimensions, may actually be unaware of the true shape of things.

He has advanced the concept that by studying the limitations of his brain, man may be able to build a computer that can peer around "the fourth dimensional corner" and translate what it finds there into a language he can understand.

* * *

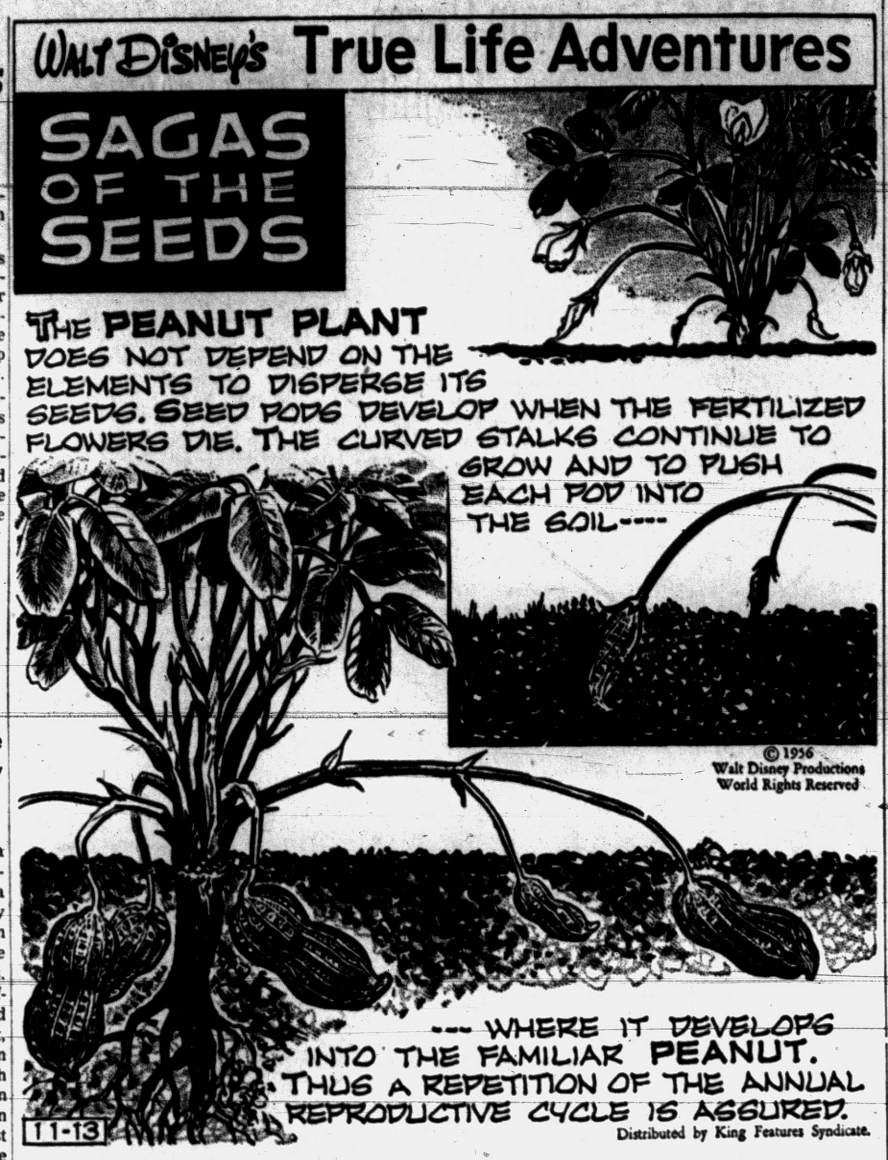

If that occurs, says Dr. Tschirgi, "events which seem now to be unpredictable, and therefore unavoidable, might be foreseeable, and the future would seem less mysterious."

Dr. Tschirgi and his associates, Dr. R. Dekaan and Dr. U. L. Taylor, have been engaged in a theoretical study of dimensional perception during the past year. A report on their theories was released yesterday.

Time is frequently considered to be the fourth dimension. But Dr. Tschirgi proposes the idea that time is essentially a biological factor and is primarily related to a "clock" in man's brain.

"In the world outside of us," he says, "motion may occur in directions which we cannot 'see' and which we must therefore interpret only as a change in time."

Teachers, Parents Plan for Better Schools

500 Attend Pontiac Education Parley

Some 500 area citizens from varied occupations gathered yesterday, united by a common interest. They attended the second annual Pontiac White House Conference on Education, to mull over the problems of Pontiac schools.

Teachers, school administrators, PTA members, and representatives of business, industry and labor participated in the discussions which were designed to acquaint citizens with the requirements necessary to meet the needs of school enrollment.

Mrs. William Mihalek, president of the Pontiac Council of PTA, introduced Mrs. Lola B. King, vice president of the Board of Education, who greeted those attending the evening session at Pontiac High School auditorium.

Kicking off the program, in which eight discussion groups talked over specific topics, Superintendent of Schools Dr. Dana P. Whitmer reviewed results of last year's local White House Conference.

NEED PUBLIC SUPPORT

Dr. Whitmer quoted from the report of last April's national conference, which said:

"Even the best professional school administrators and teachers cannot take the place of public interest; they can only be instruments of it. Without the vigorous thought and support of the public, good schools simply cannot exist."

After the work of the discussion groups was finished, a member from each group reported on results.

Topics included "Meeting the Needs of the Mentally and Physically Handicapped," "The Needs of Youth — Programs and Problems," "Citizen Participation and Public Relations."

Others were "Staffing Classrooms with Sufficient Well Qualified Teachers," "Securing the Necessary Finances," "Adult Education," "Shortage of Classrooms and Other School Facilities," and "Needs of a Junior College in Pontiac."

Blames Cancer on Smog More Than on Cigarettes

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — Most lung cancers are not caused only by cigarettes, but instead apparently by fumes and chemicals from our industrial, motorized age, a cancer expert said today.

Dr. W. C. Hueper of the National Cancer Institute said he bases his opinion on worldwide studies by many scientists.

He said this evidence indicates the alarming increase in lung cancer is probably due mostly to fumes, dust, gases and various chemicals in the air we breathe, or to which people are exposed on some jobs.

Smoking seems to play "a definite, while lesser, direct or indirect role," in producing lung cancers, he said. He said the total evidence doesn't support the concept that the great majority of lung cancers, especially in men, are due to excessive cigarette smoking.

Some of the chemicals released into the air by engines and smokestacks, or produced in certain industrial operations, are known to be able to produce cancers in animals, he said.

He said there isn't enough data to estimate the relative role they may have played in the rise in lung cancer.

The jump in lung cancer began before cigarette smoking became commonplace, Hueper, head of the Environmental Cancer Section of the NCI, told the American Public Health Assn.

Beware Bogus Devices

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Sale of "practically worthless devices" for the control of fires is increasing, the International Assn. of Fire Chiefs has been told. Percy Bugbee, spokesman for the National Fire Protection Assn., said unreliable devices are sold for home fire extinguishers and home fire alarm systems and that "numerous reports of downright frauds have come to our association."

Wings on Heel Backfire

RENO, Nev. (AP)—Mrs. Theresa Capurro chased a tavern burglary suspect afoot nearly half a mile through Reno streets before she gave up. Flagging down a motorist, the 47-year-old cleaning woman went to the sheriff's office to report the theft. As she and a deputy emerged, the suspect came by—still running. He was nabbed.

Flint Re-elects Mayor

FLINT (AP)—Flint's City Commission re-elected Mayor George Algoe for another two-year term Monday night. Algoe's post is titular, however, as Flint has a city manager form of government.

Smathers Steps Away From Post in the Senate

WASHINGTON (AP)—A boom was under way today to name Sen. Mansfield of Montana as the Senate's Democratic "whip" — the legislative term for assistant leader.

There was no sign of opposition. Most Democrats seemed to take it for granted that Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas would get another term as floor leader.

Sen. Smathers (D-Fla) set off the boom by announcing that he was stepping aside from any consideration for the post and hoped it would go to Mansfield. Smathers said Johnson had asked him to consider taking the whip post after Sen. Earle Clements of Kentucky, who now holds the post, was defeated for re-election.

Marine Court Martial of Pfc. Renton to Begin

PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. (AP)—Marine Pfc. Frederick A. Renton, 19, of New York City is scheduled to go on trial by court-martial here tomorrow on charges of mistreating recruits at this training depot.

Monkey Business Aboard Ship

NEW YORK (AP) — Three Simian stowaways have scampered ashore after a free voyage on a transatlantic luxury liner.

Big game hunter Edward Saylor said yesterday he put the monkeys in a cardboard box and carried them aboard the liner Italia at a French port. No one asked about the box or its contents.

Saylor, a 30-year-old mechanical engineer from Wyomissing, Pa., said he aired the monkeys at night and fed them on fruit from the ship's dining room.

But the long-tailed stowaways were discovered three days out.

"First I felt like throwing them overboard," said Capt. Walter A. Pabst, "and then I just looked the other way."

Saylor and his pets were permitted to debark yesterday with the monkey's fares still unpaid. The animals were cleared by ship and quarantin doctors.

Bing's Planning Movie; No Songs, Just Acting

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Nowadays a movie short is a film that only runs two hours.

Bing Crosby probably has it happen to him all the time. A gal in our office, Rene Glaser, picked up a phone. A voice said, "Is Oil there? This is Bing Crosby."

"Come on now, Who is this?" she demanded. When the voice insisted, she said to me exasperately, "Somebody on the phone says he's Bing Crosby!"

It was Bing — returning my call. His brother, Everett, had told me Bing wasn't singing on Ed Sullivan's show.

"Everett's confused—which is typical," Bing said. "He was thinking about a movie in which I won't sing. Just act."

"What do you think of that idea?" I asked Everett.

"I think," he confessed, "it sounds a little crazy." Me too! Would Elvis Presley silence his golden throat?

DAWN ADDAMS

Dawn Addams and her husband Prince Vittorio Massimo are here from Italy and Dawn's surprised at the rash of cheesecake pictures around. "When I did a bathtub scene in 'The Moon Is Blue,'" she said, "it was hard for photographers to get girls to take their clothes off. Now it's hard for photographers to get girls to stop taking them off."

Sam Levenson says it's no use nowadays to spell out things to your wife so the kids won't understand. They're too smart. "If you don't want them to hear what you're saying," says Sam, "pretend you're talking to them!"

Shep Fields had come up from Houston for "Bandstand." M.C. Bert Parks asked studio audience folks how they liked him. A gray-haired woman just adored him.

"Is he as good as Lawrence Welk or Guy Lombardo?" Parks asked.

"They're O.K.," she replied enthusiastically, "but he's the greatest."

"My, you're quite a fan," said Parks.

"Yes, I've followed his career since it began," she said.

"That's really remarkable!" exclaimed Parks.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Eugene O'Neill's widow, Carlotta Monterey, now living here, missed the opening of "Long Day's Journey Into Night"—being ordered to bed early by her doctor . . . Ludwig Bemelmans spelled Christmas "Christmes" on some of his paintings exhibited at supper dance in his honor. "You're lucky," he said, "I spelled it that close" . . . Nancy Kovack, the ex-Miss Flint and one of Jackie Gleason's dancers, turned down a date with Elvis Presley when he introduced himself. "I don't know you," she said, "but next time when you ask me, I may say yes, because then I'll have known you."

Dick Haymes, headache collector, did a radio commercial about aspirin . . . MMonroe promised to return for the birthday party of Eli Wallach's son, 6 . . . Nat "King" Cole cracked on a note at the Copa and said kiddingly, "After all, I'm not Tony Bennett" . . .

Zsa Zsa arirves soon to discuss her autobiography with authoress Anita Loos . . . Cadillacs are now called "Texas Volkswagens" . . . Author David Alexander flew to Boston to doctor the new musical, "Candide" . . . Remember Mrs. John Barrymore — Elaine Barry? She just wrote a book of love poems . . . Tab Hunter bought actress Jan Chaney a fur stole.

EARL'S PEARLS . . .

A man doesn't object to a woman getting the last word. It's just that it takes her so long to get to it.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "New Yorkers are people who get acquainted with their neighbors by meeting them in Miami."—Marjorie Steele.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Les Carpenter claims he saw this sign on an office door in Washington: "Meeting starts at 9 sharp. Ends at 11 dull."

Kills Husband With Shotgun as Children Watch

Sheriff Roy Simonson said Mrs. Spengler told him she fired the shot Sunday night during an argument.

Simonson quoted the mother as saying she loaded the 12-gauge gun and her husband Earl, 45, remarked, "Go ahead and pull the trigger, if you want to."

Mrs. Spengler told Simonson she discharged the gun but "didn't mean to shoot him."

Mrs. Spengler was held without bond for a hearing Nov. 20 after arraignment on a first-degree murder charge.

Sheriff Simonson said the nine children, ranging from 6 months to 15 years, would be taken by Mrs. Spengler's parents.

Convicted of 2 Murders, City Man Held for Third

Saint Helm, 57, former Pontiac man who is facing his third murder charge after spending 34 years in prisons in two states for two other murders, is slated for justice court examination of the charges Nov. 21.

Helm now is charged with the 1924 knifing of Cora Wickwire in her home at 56 Wesson St. He was convicted in the 1918 shooting of Willie Tanks in the same house, reportedly in a dispute over Miss Wickwire, according to chief assistant prosecutor George F. Taylor.

Taylor charged Helm, released from Jackson prison in 1923 after four years' imprisonment for the Tanks shooting, returned to Pontiac and knifed Miss Wickwire shortly after.

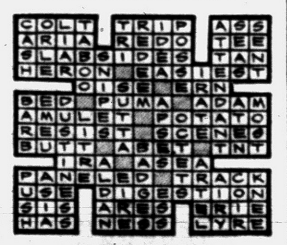

Eluding a police search, Taylor said, Helm fled to New York, where he was convicted of a first-degree murder in 1926. He served 26 years of a life sentence before his term was commuted, and was then returned to Michigan to serve out his maximum sentence for the Tanks shooting.

On his release from Jackson prison early this month, Taylor said, Helm was brought to Pontiac man to answer charges in the Wickwire slaying.

TOKYO (AP) — Police today arrested six Koreans and accused them of spying on American armed forces in Japan for North Korea's Communist government.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Phil's Program Still the Leader

Dinah, Lili and Brenda Will Join Perry Como on Saturday

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS)—Jan Clayton, star of "Lassie," as the little boy's mother of course, not as Lassie or Lassie's mother, has a new TV series ready.

It's about a Bowery missionary girl by day who sings in cabarets at night, based on the true tale of one Verna Daly, an Australian missionary girl who rose to music hall renown . . .

Phil Silvers' show is far from slipping—in fact ran up its best rating last week (24.5 vs. 18.9 for "Cheyenne" and 12.6 for "The Big Surprise") . . .

STANDARD QUIZ

"Giant Step," the new CBS-TV show, is a standard quiz with its big prize a college education. In other words, the question here is, does the noble educational end justify the shallow cliches of the means? Bert Parks is the quizmaster.

On "Father Knows Best," Elinor Donahue is getting mighty shapely and attractive for the young role she essays . . . maybe the script should write her role just a little closer to her whistle-bait age . . .

Nanette Fabray gets $17,500 for her "High Button Shoes" stardom, co-star Don Ameche $10,000.

Inasmuch as the world has been waiting with bated breath for Mamie Van Doren to try TV, let's reveal (before Mamie reveals more) that she'll star in a film series "The Shape, the Face and the Brain." Mamie does not play the last two roles of the title . . .

PLUGS GROCERIES

If you wonder what singers do between TV jobs, Patti Page is off to Ohio to appear at five supermarkets in five cities in five days at bigger-than-the-Palace pay . . .

Patti Austin, the talented little tyke, is expected to be a regular on Ray Bolger's Sunday show. Her first solo song spot certainly was successful enough. A darling.

Some of the television comedians mistake quick and sometimes deadly popularity for distinction. When they're around equally as long in the star spots of the great ones like Bert Lahr, Groucho Marx, etc., we'll start handling them with the kid gloves they wish they might demand.

We're awfully sick of tawdriness and misery in TV drama. Won't someone please write or revive a high comedy where everyone has good manners and clothes and the happy ending is a little better than having the hero still in his undershirt in the kitchen? . . .

Former Marine Boss in Snafu Situation

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd Jr. (Ret.), former commandant of the U.S. Marine Corps, had a few uneasy moments when he arrived here to address a Masonic group.

First, no one met him at the airport. Then he learned he had no hotel reservations.

But everything got squared away. The lack of a reception committee was simple. The welcome party was on the commercial side of the airport and Shepherd landed in the military area. The reservations had been made at another hotel.

Diet Starts Tomorrow

TOKYO (AP)—Tsuruhei Matsuno, member of Prime Minister Ichiro Hatoyama's government party, today was re-elected president of the upper house of Japan's Diet (Parliament). The Diet formally opens tomorrow. Hatoyama may announce his retirement at that time.

Marines Practicing Atomic Maneuvers

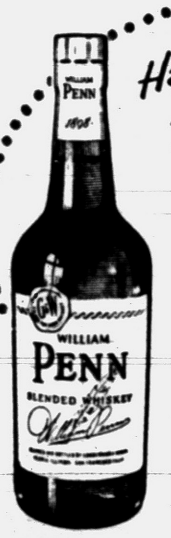

CAMP LEJEUNE, N.C. (AP) — Twenty thousand Marines, employing the new scatter-and-attack concept of atomic warfare, pushed inland today to take Camp Lejeune back from a hypothetical enemy.

Operation Readiness, launched by the 2nd Marine Division, is being conducted without U.S. Navy units, withdrawn since the Middle East and Hungarian disturbances.

The five-day operation, being staged over a 200-square-mile area of Camp Lejune and old Camp Bayliss, emphasizes smaller field units, deployed while attacking to minimize the effect of atomic retaliation.

Shops Re-open as City Begins Returning to Normal

Battered Port Said Buries Dead, Sweeps Up Rubble

By WILLIAM MAHONEY
Representing the American Press

PORT SAID, Egypt (delayed) (AP)—Shell-shocked Port Said is approaching a normal cit.

For the first time since the Nov. 5 British-French paratroop invasion, Egyptian police were on the streets, cleanup teams were sweeping up the debris and opening clogged sewers, most stores were reopened, and cafes have come up with previously hidden supplies of beer and coffee.

Beggars and flies are out in strength and tomorrow the city's two night spots, the Bluebird and the Splendide, are expected to open and give wide-eyed French and British soldiers a chance to study Egypt's famous belly dancers.

Whether any places will be able to stay open at night is doubtful. There is a 7 p.m. curfew, and after dark it is impossible to move half a block without being challenged and having a gun shoved in your ribs.

"Walk in the middle of the street, mate, if you must be out," the third British sentry in one block warned last night. "And if I was you I'd sing 'Tipperary' real loud."

Egyptian prisoners work under guard cleaning up littered streets. The flattened Arab section of the city is still a stench-ridden, fly-blackened shambles. Burial teams, their faces covered by handkerchiefs, continue to bury the dead at the city cemetery on the Mediterranean shore. Trucks arrive constantly with bodies. A yellow and red Coca Cola truck is being used as a hearse.

Today an Egyptian hospital train carried 122 wounded out of Port Said en route for Cairo. It was pulled to the El Cap cease-fire line by a General Motors diesel bearing a Marshall Plan seal. British forces found the diesel in the Port Said rail yards.

The death toll here is still a matter of guesswork. An Egyptian city hospital official said "We have handled 2,000 dead alone."

Meanwhile, a fight is shaping up for jobs between pilots on the Suez Canal before Egypt nationalized the waterway and those who came to the Suez after President Nasser took over the canal.

Many former Suez pilots came in with the British and French invasion fleets as guides. They are staying on, hoping to regain their old jobs when a new administration takes over. Many others are awaiting recall in France and England, but the post-nationalization pilots have stayed on for the most part and have already organized into the International Assn. of Suez Canal Pilots to protect their jobs.

Fifty of them met here today. Most agreed they would work for any new administration but would not work for the old Suez Russian pilots attended today's meeting for the first time. There are 15 of them. All Russian pilots have taken a firm stand to work for Egypt and Egypt alone.

"Let's get this straight," American pilot Peter Uhren of San Francisco said.

"The Egyptians have treated us very well. They have been fine with us and we think they're great."

Other American pilots echoed his feelings.

At the U.S. Consulate, Consul General Anthony Cuomo, of Detroit, Mich., and Modesta, Calif., said all Americans who wanted to leave have already done so. There are still 16 Americans, excepting the consulate staff, in Port Said. They include pilots, missionaries, and businessmen.

Cuomo is being used as an intermediary by the Egyptians, uneasy with French and British authorities. When they want a car returned, have a complaint about a looted shop or need medical supplies, they call on the American and ask him to contact the British and French.

British authorities said the Egyptians sank more than 20 ships in the northern section of the canal to block shipping. Thirteen are visible above the surface and seven are completely submerged.

The main barriers consist of eight ships ranged in a horseshoe pattern across the canal. The ships were sunk by high explosives, and British salvage experts say it was a bad job. Royal Navy Cmdr. J. R. L. Moore said two cranes, each capable of lifting 1,200 tons, are en route from England but he added that at least six of the sunken ships will not be touched because their location will not affect port operations.

After the clearance is completed, the canal will be open only as far as allied control goes. Most observers believe more ships are or will be sunk in the section still controlled by Egypt.

Preliminary port clearing will permit vessels with a draft of up to 25 feet to pass, British officials said. Normally ships with up to 35-foot draft pass through the canal.

Big, wide, bulky cars like this are typical of American design. But, to get room inside, they are too big outside for today's traffic, too wasteful of gasoline.

Small, light cars like this are typical of European design. They are economical and easy to handle in traffic, but they don't have the room most American families want.

HELP the helpless

Widows with tiny children, left without homes in lands where women are not trained to earn a living—these are but one group of freedom-loving people left helpless by war, famine and disaster overseas. You can help them by supporting the Thanksgiving appeal for overseas relief sponsored by your religious faith—Protestant, Catholic or Jewish. Through these three great religions, resettlement and rehabilitation programs are established; hospitals, orphanages, training schools maintained; and millions of pounds of food, clothing and medicines are distributed. In Protestant Churches, give to the SHARE-OUR-SURPLUS APPEAL. In Catholic Churches, give to THE BISHOPS' THANKSGIVING CLOTHING COLLECTION. In Synagogues, give to the UNITED JEWISH APPEAL SPECIAL SURVIVAL FUND. Give thanks by giving this Thanksgiving—
