Why Coaches Get Gray

Good Grief, Gal Gridders!

The rule Saturday night on the Waterford Township High School football field is: No lipstick and hair spray in the huddle . . . girls.

Male students will handle the coaching and cheerleading chores, while girl gridders tangle on the field of play. WTHS football coach John Moffat will officiate.

The unusual battle, slated to begin at 7 p.m., pits the sophomores and junior girls against the senior distaffers.

The price of tickets is 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults. Proceeds will be used for the school's foreign exchange student program.

Mrs. Emerson White, an instructor at the school, and Susan Richert will supervise Saturday night's "hairpuller."

Moffat will receive assistance in his refereeing from two senior boys.

Three senior boys will handle the coaching duties, Lynn Ballard directing the seniors' attack and Dave Roemensky and Steve Main shuffling in players for the sophomores and juniors.

Eleven players from each team will play at a time, just like the book says, but the girls decided to abandon the tackling antics in favor of two-handed touch.

Mrs. White says the girls are undecided whether to play six- or eight-minute quarters.

They don't know their own endurance capabilities.

Oddsmakers say it's anyone's game, but aren't taking any bets on a 0-0 deadlock.

Head coach Moffat will have all day Saturday to rest up for the encounter.

FRANCIS X. MORRISSEY

Judgeship Bid Is Sidetracked

Return Nomination to Committee--Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Francis X. Morrissey's nomination for a federal judgeship was sent back to the Senate Judiciary Committee today at the request of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass.

This appeared to kill the nomination for this session of Congress, but President Johnson could resubmit it at the next session in January.

Kennedy's surprise request that the nomination go back to the judiciary came at the end of an emotional speech in which he highly praised Morrissey, an old friend and political supporter of the Kennedy family.

Johnson could give Morrissey a recess appointment to the Federal District Court in Massachusetts after Congress adjourns. But to take it, Morrissey would have to give up his present $20,000-a-year Boston Municipal Court judgeship.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy, his voice breaking and on the verge of tears as he described the hardships of Morrissey's early years, said much of the controversy over the nomination concerned events so remote in time and obscure in place that understandable confusion has arisen among

FBI Informer Testifies About Liuzzo Killing

HAYNEVILLE, Ala. (AP) — Gary Thomas Rowe, a Klan member turned FBI informer, testified today that Collie Leroy Wilkins fired the shots which killed a white civil rights worker in Lowndes County last March 25.

Rowe said Wilkins, 21, fired at least six shots into the car driven by Viola Gregg Liuzzo, a Detroit housewife and mother of five.

A Negro youth, Leroy Moton, was a passenger in the car.

Rowe said he rode with Wilkins and two other Klansmen as they sped past the Liuzzo car on U.S. Highway 80 about 20 miles from Selma, Ala., after 8 p.m.

"The first thing I knew, Wilkins stuck his arm out the window. He had a pistol in his hand," Rowe said. He testified that Wilkins told Eugene Thomas, the driver of the car, "Little brother, give it the gas."

"Just as he sped up, the woman in the other car turned and looked into our car. As she looked, Wilkins started firing. To the best of my knowledge, he fired six times, two in rapid succession."

★ ★ ★

DOUBTED HIT

Rowe said he told Wilkins then he didn't believe he had hit the people in the car.

Rowe said he also had a loaded pistol in his hand but he did not fire it, although Eaton ordered him to.

Rowe, in the pay of the Justice Department, was the main witness in the first trial of Wilkins which ended in a hung jury.

★ ★ ★

Rowe said the Klansman drove up on the road and threw the empty shells out the window about a half mile from the scene of the shooting.

PREVIOUS EVENTS

He described to the white male jury the events leading up to the shooting. He said Thomas had called him at his home in Birmingham and he later got together with Eaton and Wilkins.

He said they drove in Thomas' car to Montgomery, then to Selma.

Rowe said they were driving on Selma's main street when Wilkins saw Mrs. Liuzzo and Moton stopped at a traffic light. "Wilkins said, 'Looka there, baby brother, I'll be damned. Looka there'."

Rowe was asked to point out Wilkins and did.

Dr. Paul Shoffeitt, state toxicologist, testified that Mrs. Liuzzo was killed by a bullet which struck the left side of her head and angled slightly upward into her brain.

Klan Dragon Won't Testify

Income Tax Records Shown at Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP) — House investigators tried to light a fire under reluctant Klan dragon James Robert Jones today by producing some of the records he had refused to turn over — income tax returns.

But Jones, the North Carolina dragon, remained reluctant to talk and kept silent under sharp questioning about whether he had been reimbursed by the United Klans of America for deductions he had claimed — such as the cost of robes.

In declining to answer questions, he cited constitutional protections against self-incrimination.

Jones' lawyer, Lester V. Chalmers Jr. told the committee "that's the reason we didn't bring tax returns up here because we were well aware that these returns were available to you."

"That's for the birds," snapped chairman Edwin E. Willis, D-La., of the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Under questioning, Jones declined to say whether he had had any full-time employment since 1960.

SUDDEN INCREASE

The committee produced what it said were Jones' income tax returns that showed gross income of $3,800 in 1960, $1,630 in 1961, $3,579 in 1962, $2,766 in 1963 and $8,923 in 1964 — the year the investigators said he became the United Klans' grand dragon of North Carolina.

Jones refused to say whether he had not been reimbursed by the Klan for such claimed expenses as $531 for robes, $2,941 for printing literature and $1,851 for auto expenses.

The line of questioning added emphasis to a broad hint Willis dropped yesterday that Klan leaders may yet find the Internal Revenue Service a greater threat to them than the civil rights movement.

Tremors Last Only Seconds in 8-State Area

'Significant for This Part of World,' Says Geophysics Professor

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — An earthquake rumbled across the Midwest last night, shaking at least eight states. No injuries or serious damage were reported.

The quake started at 9:01 p.m. and lasted for 14 minutes on the seismograph at St. Louis University. However, residents of Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Kentucky and Tennessee felt it only for a few seconds.

Dr. Carl Kisslinger, chairman of the geophysics department at St. Louis University, said the quake was recorded at between 4.5 and 5 on the Richter scale. The disastrous Alaskan earthquake of 1964 hit 8.4 on the scale.

"There's no doubt about it," said Kisslinger, "it was an earthquake, and it was a significant earthquake for this part of the world.

★ ★ ★

"If the center had been under a city, there would have been a lot of damage."

QUAKE CENTER

Dr. Otto Nuttli, a St. Louis University geophysics professor, said today the center of the quake was in Reynolds County in the Ozarks Mountains region of south-central Missouri.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Nuttli said it probably was caused by a movement of rock along a granite fault, but he was unable to determine at what depth the movement occurred.

★ ★ ★

He said the location of the quake was determined after studying results of the university seismograph and reports from the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, the University of Missouri at Rolla and the University of Kansas at Lawrence.

Early reports were heaviest throughout south - central and central Missouri. Some houses in that area reportedly swayed.

Apparently the quake spread from a lightly populated area outward — to Chicago, Memphis, Omaha and hundreds of other cities.

Kisslinger said the quake was significant because this type of quake — felt over such a large area and with such intensity—is not common in the Midwest.

However, the wide span is characteristic of midwestern tremors, Kisslinger said, and added that there was no reason to think more quakes might follow.

$341,496 in U.S. Grants Approved for Oakland U.

Federal grants to Oakland University totaling $341,496 were accepted by the Michigan State University Board of Trustees at their meeting in East Lansing yesterday.

The largest, a $294,930 grant from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, was for student loans under the NDEA program. Another $4,500 grant was also made for the same program.

A third HEW grant, in the amount of $7,566, will be used under the direction of Reuben Torch, professor of biology, for research on the regeneration of tracheloraphis fragments.

Two additional research grants are to be used under the direction of Clifford V. Harding, professor and chairman of biology.

A $30,000 grant from the Atomic Energy Commission will provide continuation of a previous award for studies of cellular proliferation and regeneration following tissue damage.

A $4,500 grant from the National Science Foundation will be used for the purchase of a marine aquarium.

LBJ Departs From Hospital

President Will Finish Recovery at Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, smiling and waving at well-wishers, left Bethesda Naval Hospital today at 1:05 p.m., 13 days after his gallbladder and kidney stone operation.

The President, dressed in a dark business suit, walked briskly with Mrs. Johnson beside him.

Before leaving the hospital, he visited for a few minutes in a ward where Marines wounded in Viet Nam were under treatment.

"Tell all your families, your wives, your mother and father the President of your country is mighty proud of you," Johnson told the men.

★ ★ ★

The President also took the occasion to thank all the doctors, nurses and aides "in this wonderful hospital" for the care given him and also to the other patients.

WALKED TO CAR

As he walked to his car in the sunshine, some of the patients called to the President from second and third-floor windows.

"Take care of yourself!" one yelled.

The President walked over toward the windows and raised his hands, clasped together, in a salute.

Johnson had been given a new clearance to depart.

Press secretary Bill D. Moyers, announcing Johnson's plans, said the President's doctors saw their patient this morning and "they gave him a full green light and he decided to leave."

Back at the White House, Johnson was slated for a period of somewhat reduced activity.

And after that he faces weeks of further recuperation, probably most of it at his Texas ranch.

Johnson is displaying increasing vigor, growing good humor and—on occasion—the incision left from removal of his gallbladder and a kidney stone 13 days ago.

OU Preparing for Visit by Humphrey

Oakland University officials are keeping a close watch on weekend weather forecasts, hopeful that tomorrow and Saturday the clouds will lift.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's address is scheduled for the Howard C. Baldwin Memorial Pavilion at 11 a.m. tomorrow.

Saturday will bring some 400 parents to the same location for the third annual Parents Day, beginning at 9 a.m.

In the event of rain, the vice president's speech tomorrow will be held in the OU Sports and Recreation Building. The decision on location must be made by 8 a.m. in order to "button up" all the final details, and that decision will be made by Herbert N. Stoutenburg, assistant to the chancellor, who is in charge of arrangements for the day.

If the speech is to be moved to the sports and recreation building, signs will be posted on Walton Blvd. so the public will be fully aware of the change as they approach the campus.

GUESS ON WEATHER

But the prevailing guess on the weather is one of optimism, supported by favorable long-range forecasts.

Under ideal weather conditions, Stoutenburg expects a large turnout to hear what is expected to be a major address on education.

Persons planning to attend are urged to arrive early, or be prepared with blankets or cushions to utilize the grassy hillsides in Meadow Brook Music Festival style. There will be no charge for parking or admission.

"We are fortunate to be included in the vice president's visit to Michigan, and hope that the community will take advantage of this opportunity to hear Vice President Humphrey speak on this important topic," Stoutenburg said.

ONE OF THREE STOPS

The vice president's address at Oakland University will be one of three stops in Michigan.

He will travel by helicopter to Livonia to dedicate the new Adlai Stevenson High School, OU, and back to Detroit for a speech to the Economic Club in Cobo Hall.

★ ★ ★

If it rains Saturday, the Parents Day registration will be held in the Oakland Center.

Viet War Hits UF Agencies

Demands Heaviest on Red Cross, USO

Stepped-up war activities in Viet Nam have increased the materials and dollar outlay of several Pontiac Area United Fund agencies, it was learned today.

The demand has been heaviest on the American Red Cross and the United Service Organizations (USO). The latter group has expanded its program to a "full wartime footing."

Michigan United Funds, including the Pontiac Area United Fund, have been asked for an additional $85,000 by the USO this year. The Pontiac UF will hike its contribution by $2,000.

Much of the demand on the Red Cross results from increased service to the families of servicemen assigned in Viet Nam.

* * *

TRIPLE STAFF

In addition, the Red Cross has had to triple its staff in Southeast Asia. Many of the wounded reaching Viet Nam hospitals have lost much of their personal belongings.

Thus, the Red Cross has airlifted thousands of comfort kits containing shaving equipment, comb, toothbrush, toothpaste and other toilet articles.

Stateside chapters are also collecting paperback books for shipment to servicemen.

* * *

Two other UF agencies — the American Social Health Association and the United Seamen's Service — have requested added funds because of the Viet Nam war.

NOT ESTABLISHED

No specific money amounts have yet been established.

Mayor Seeks Hotel Solution

Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. has asked for a meeting of both sides in the Waldron Hotel strike, now entering its eighth week.

* * *

The mayor sent a letter to the hotel owners, Simone Management Co. of Detroit and Local 794 of the Hotel & Restaurant Employes, urging that a satisfactory solution be found for the dispute, which has closed the hotel.

* * *

He further urged negotiations to resume immediately.

Taylor also asked for a progress report on the current status of bargaining.

Troops Rushed to Viet Battle

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. helicopters delivered several companies of reinforcements to the besieged garrison at Plei Me today, and the Viet Cong attacks began to diminish in size and ferocity, a U.S. military spokesman reported.

The officer, identified as Capt. Robert F. Hopper, 29, whose wife lives at Winter Haven, Fla., was the senior adviser to a South Vietnamese battalion.

ENEMY FORCE

He apparently was captured when Viet Cong guerrillas hit a government outpost near the provincial capital of Quang Tri City, 140 miles north of Saigon. The enemy force penetrated an artillery position and blew up an ammunition bunker.

Details of Hopper's escape were not immediately known, but he apparently returned in good condition.

Hopper was the second American to escape from the Viet Cong within four months. Last July Sgt. Isaac Camacho, El Paso, Tex., escaped after being held captive for 18 months.

* *

Eight Americans were reported killed in two helicopter crashes in the Plei Me area 210 miles northeast of Saigon. The Viet Cong shot one helicopter down Wednesday. A spokesman said mechanical failure caused the second crash today, but it was not known if this aircraft was directly involved in the Plei Me action.

300 TRIBESMEN

The Special Forces camp was defended by about 300 Montagnard tribesmen and 10 to 12 American advisers when large numbers of Viet Cong attacked Tuesday night. U.S. and South Vietnamese planes pounded the Viet Cong constantly, and at night flare ships lit up the field of fire around the triangular defense positions.

Eyes School Bargaining Agent Law

Work rules for teachers are now going to have to be in writing, Julius Barbour, executive secretary of the Michigan Association of School Boards, told about 120 Oakland County school board members last night.

Topic for the meeting, held at Pontiac's Madison Junior High School, was Public Act 369 passed in July 1965, dealing with teachers' bargaining agents.

"There was never a time," said Barbour, "when school boards need better order in their rules and regulations.

"You must have hours, wages and conditions of work specifically spelled out in writing."

* * *

The whole community must share its board's problems in meeting the demands of teachers' bargaining agents under the new law.

MUST LEARN TO

"Business and industry," said Barbour, "have lived with unions for years and boards of education must learn to do so.

"Except, they have different problems. For instance, industry raises prices to cover increased salaries.

"School boards cannot do this. Their only recourse is to go back to the people for increased taxes."

Barbour continually advised boards to seek legal advice, warning that the law has not yet been tested by the courts.

"A board must think through its first request for negotiation," said Barbour, "because it is that first request that sets the precedent.

"It is best to refer that request to the state labor mediation board."

He concluded that a superintendent is the agent of the school board as the negotiator is an agent of the union.

those who have not been following it closely.

"If senators have any questions at all they should have the chance to air them fully," he said, "and seek the answers through the proven process of our committee system."

Kennedy expressed confidence such a study would result in confirmation of Morrissey "by a greatly increased majority."

The proposal to recommit was approved without objection from any senator.

* *

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Republican leader and spearhead of the fight against Morrissey, arose to "salute" young Kennedy and commend him for exemplifying "his complete integrity."

WALKED TO KENNEDY

Dirksen strode across the aisle that separates Democrats and Republicans to grasp Kennedy by the hand.

In opposition to Morrissey, Dirksen has questioned the nominee's qualifications of intellectual capacity and legal training and experience.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the Democratic leader, voiced "deep regret" at Kennedy's announcement, commended his courage and the Senate: "The votes were here to confirm Francis X. Morrissey."

* * *

Just before he called up the nomination for action, Mansfield had said the issue "looks close to me" and the number of absentees might decide it.

MARIE McDONALD

Movie Actress Is Found Dead

Death Circumstances Cloaked in Mystery

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Blonde actress Marie (The Body) McDonald was found dead in her rambling ranch home early today.

Sheriff's deputies said the circumstances of her death were not known immediately.

Officers said Miss McDonald's husband, Donald F. Taylor, reported discovering his wife's body at 5:30 a.m.

Homicide investigators were dispatched immediately to the home in suburban Hidden Hills, on the farthest side of the sprawling San Fernando Valley northwest of Hollywood.

PLAN AUTOPSY

Coroner's officers said an autopsy would be held.

Lt. James Hamilton, in charge of the investigation, said: "It doesn't appear to be a suicide. If anything, it would lean toward an accidental death, and it certainly could be a natural death. We won't know until the coroner conducts a post-mortem on her body.

"There are lots of pills around, and we've gathered them all up, but there were no marks of violence on her."

The death of the beautiful, curvaceous Miss McDonald, 42, ended a career that was one of Hollywood's most flamboyant but, for all the headlines she made, least successful.

Taylor, an independent film producer, was the actress' fifth husband, but her sixth marriage. She was formerly wed twice to shoe magnate Harry Karl, who is now the husband of actress Debbie Reynolds. Miss McDonald's other husbands were sportsman Richard Allord, her agent Victor Orsatti, and attorney Edward P. Callahan.

Her name was not often up in lights, but it went up in type in January of 1957 when she disappeared from her Encino home.

FOUND ON DESERT

She turned up 24 hours later about 100 miles away in Indio, when a truck driver found her on the desert.

During the lengthy investigations that followed, she said she had been kidnaped from her home Jan. 4 by two men who spirited her away and then dumped her.

Duke Undergoes Operation for Damaged Retina

NEW YORK (AP) — A small break in the retina of the Duke of Windsor's right eye has been repaired in a hospital, and the team of eye specialists who did the work say the difficulty should not recur.

The 30-minute repair was done Wednesday at the Eye Institute of Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center.

The 71-year-old former king of England should be able to leave the medical center by the end of this week, the hospital said. He was admitted Wednesday.

Birmingham Area News

Official Dispels Rumor on Harlan Pupils

BIRMINGHAM — Regardless of what happens to their addresses or the value of their homes, Harlan Elementary School pupils living in Troy will continue to attend the school.

This announcement was made by Birmingham Schools Supt. Dr. John B. Smith in an attempt to squelch rumors that the area might be transferred to the Troy School District.

The rumor is another facet of the controversy over the addresses of homes in a three-mile strip in Troy running north of the Birmingham city limits.

A week and a half ago, the addresses of some 1,375 families living in the strip were changed from Birmingham to the Troy Post Office.

* * *

The Birmingham - North Adams Association has protested the change vehemently and is now talking of seeking annexation to Birmingham.

LIVE IN AREA

Many of the children in that area are in the Harlan Elementary School District, and rumor has had it that they might be switched to the Troy district.

While there is no factual basis for the rumor, Smith said his office continues to receive inquiries.

The superintendent noted that the County Board of Education makes the decision on any requested transfer and does so only after a public hearing.

* * *

The transfer request can be initiated either by resolution of one of the school boards involved or by a petition signed by not less than two-thirds of the residents of the area to be transferred, he said.

INVESTIGATION

After investigating the matter, Smith reported that:

- "The Birmingham Board of Education, at no time, in any manner, has considered this subject, and it has not received any requests from any person or groups to detach the area in question from the Harlan Elementary School District or from the Birmingham School District.
- "The superintendent of the Troy School District has stated that the Troy Board of Education has not considered this matter.
- "The Oakland County Board of Education has received from no one a request for such a detachment."

An open house for parents will be held tonight at Berkshire Junior High School.

Parents will follow their children's class schedules during the program, which begins at 7:45 p.m.

Dr. Leroy G. Augenstein, noted Michigan State University biophysicist, tonight will deliver a free public lecture in Detroit, sponsored by the Cranbrook Institute of Science, Bloomfield Hills.

* * *

Augenstein will discuss some of the ethical questions posed by science in the modern world. The chairman of MSU's department of biophysics will speak at 8:15 p.m. in the Rackham Memorial Auditorium.

Probe Sale of Medicine to Teens

A meeting of Pontiac police and civic leaders has focused attention on what may be a mounting problem among area teen-agers — purchase of patent cough medicines to obtain narcotics.

* * *

According to Assistant Prosecutor Walter D. Schmier, some druggists also may be involved in growth of the problem through failure to require legitimate signatures from youths buying cough remedies containing codeine.

State law requires persons purchasing a part - codeine drug — limited to one grain of codeine per ounce without a doctor's prescription — to sign their name and address in a pharmacy register.

Police Chief William K. Hanger said the department's vice squad is investigating instances where part-narcotic cough syrup was purchased under obviously false names.

"In one case," Hanger said, "it seems medicine was sold to persons who signed their names as 'Roy Rogers, Dale Evans . . . and Trigger'."

Schmier said another complaint was that some druggists were selling the cough medicine in unmarked bottles — and at a price as high as five times the normal cost.

Druggists violating the laws — only a small minority of area pharmacists, according to Schmier — face penalty under state law as well as from the Michigan Board of Pharmacy.

Police information on possible illegal drug practices calls for a hearing before the state board, according to a spokesman at the Lansing office.

Pharmacists found guilty of breaking regulations can be penalized by revocation or suspension of the annual license to practice issued by the board.

Wilson's Answer Unknown

England Replies to Rhodesia on Dispute

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson announced today he will fly to Rhodesia this week in a last-ditch effort to find a solution to the crisis over that African colony's demand for independence.

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson sent a reply to Prime Minister Ian Smith of Rhodesia today as 11th-hour efforts continued to resolve the Rhodesian dispute.

Wilson's message was approved by the Cabinet. Its contents will not be disclosed until Smith is known to have read it.

Smith's message was received in London Wednesday.

The dispute derives from a bid for independence by the white government of Rhodesia. Britain has refused to sanction independence for the central African colony until the Negro African majority there receives more political power.

HIGH COMMISSIONER

The message actually was sent to Britain's high commissioner in Salisbury before the Cabinet met, but he was instructed to hold up its delivery until he had word of the Cabinet's approval.

Feeling in London is that Smith's message, though couched in combative terms, left the door open at least for further talks. Its receipt in London sparked intense political activity. Wilson conferred with senior ministers for an hour and 40 minutes, then drove to Buckingham Palace to see Queen Elizabeth II. Then he drafted his reply.

Smith's letter asked independence for Rhodesia on the basis of the 1961 constitution. In return, he offered to guarantee the principles of that constitution, involving a slow approach toward African majority rule. But he warned that, whatever Britain's reply, Rhodesia's next step already was decided. What happened would depend, he said, on the answer he got to the appeal.

Wilson was reported ready to fly to Rhodesia for another personal attempt to end the crisis.

Political correspondents of major British newspapers said Wilson's projected mission was the reason for his visit to Queen Elizabeth II Wednesday night. The prime minister was to have the monarch's approval to leave the country.

Officials of Wilson's government believed Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith's communication to Wilson Wednesday, indicated the Rhodesian government is ready to talk some more about independence rather than proclaim it immediately.

Smith proposed that Britain grant the central African colony independence under the 1961 constitution. He appealed for trust that the white Rhodesians would "abide by the principles" of the constitution and offered to conclude "a solemn treaty to guarantee our undertaking."

DECISION REACHED

Smith said his Cabinet had reached a decision on "what our next step should be." Without saying what the decision was, he said its implementation "and the consequences which flow from it now depend entirely on your response to this appeal I now make at this 11th hour."

Independence talks broke down last week over Britain's insistance that provision be made for the self-governing colony's four million Africans to take over the government ultimately from the 250,000 whites.

Wilson has maintained that the 1961 constitution does not contain satisfactory guarantees for ultimate majority rule.

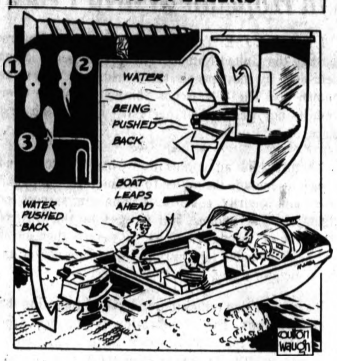
Junior Editors Quiz on PROPELLERS



QUESTION: How does a propeller drive a boat forward?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: A boat's propeller works on the principle of the common screw. Twisted around the central shank of the screw is the thread, which has a raised central edge, slanting away on the sides.

We show a bit of wood between the threads of our picture of a screw.

Imagine this screw turned to the right and you will see that the thread above to the right will bear down on the bit of wood and try to push it to the left.

But then imagine this bit of wood is part of a solid piece around the screw which it can't move back. There is nowhere for the turning screw to go but straight ahead into the wood, which it can do because it has a pointed tip.

Now look at the propeller drawing to the right. The blades are, in this case, turning from right to left or counterclockwise. Since they are set on the shaft on a slant, they bear down on the water as they turn.

The water is not solid like the wood, so the whirling blades push back a mass of it. This, however, rams up against the great mass of heavy water in the back, and this again makes the boat rebound or go in the opposite direction, which in this case, is straight ahead.

The greater the power of the motor, giving faster movement to the roating blades, the greater will be the speed of the boat.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: To help understand the principle, make yourself a little paper propeller. Cut the pattern shown in (1) out of heavy paper. Hold in center and give one blade a slight twist to right. Turn propeller a half circle and give the other blade a similar twist. Then mount on straightened paper clip and twist shaft to study action of blades.

'Helping Hand' Plan Children's Safeguard

In a move to combat the growing incidence of child molestation or other threats to juvenile safety, establishment of a "Helping Hand" concept has met with unanimous approval by the Board of Education and city officials.

The plan, sponsored by the Pontiac Chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons, would designate certain dwellings in which youngsters could find refuge if threatened by physical danger or confronted by other emergency.

Under direction of the police department, householders would be instructed on specifics of the various situations with which they might deal and proper procedure prescribed. School officials would outline the plan to the student body and the circumstances under which it should be resorted to.

At a time when pitfalls for our children evidence serious uptrend, the proposed plan of protection has much to recommend it.

We commend the sponsoring association, which has undertaken the Helping Hand program on a national scale, and the school and civil authorities on their enterprise. It merits general support by the community.

New Households Peak Gives Peek of Future

The number of new households in the United States scored the second biggest annual rise over the past year since the turn of the Fifties. It clearly foreshadows the coming upsurge in family formation on the heels of the spectacular rise in the young adult population now under way.

Figures compiled by the U. S. Bureau of the Census report that more than 1.25 million new households were established in the year ended last March.

This was over half again as great as the rise in the previous year and a third larger than the average annual increase during the first half of the decade. It was second only to the 1.4 million increase in the year through March, 1960, in the records of the past 15 years.

Recent government projections indicate that the number of households will expand by more than 6 million between now and 1970, for an annual average gain of about 1.3 million.

This would bring the total household formation for the Sixties to above 10 million for the first time in any decade, and a new record of around 13 million additional households is forecast for the Seventies.

All of which is just another way of saying that people are the Nation's biggest business.

Prices Set by Force Force Out Commodities

Maybe you're among those who complain about what they consider to be an excessively high price for meat. And, maybe, think it might be a good idea for the government to slap on price controls and thus make meat a lesser factor in your food budget.

If so, an item in U. S. News & World Report should be of interest.

There is a meat shortage in some of the world's greatest cattle countries — Argentina, Brazil, Uruguay and Chile. And one of the big reasons for it is controls.

To take one typical example, says U. S. News: "In Argentina, a nation of beefeaters, Government controls have kept prices low for political reasons. So exports became the money earner. Now exports have vanished and there is little incentive to increase herds. Result: Meat sales are banned on Fridays and Saturdays."

★ ★ ★

The point is simple enough. It's easy to pass a control law. It's equally easy to set the price of meat — or any other commodity — at any level the bureaucrats in charge decide upon. But there's no way to make producers or any others involve themselves when these politically set prices deny them a profit.

So the upshot is that you have low prices—but less and less of the commodity.

Luckily for the American diet, our meat moves in a free market where the natural law of supply and demand establishes the price structure. And that is why we have abundance.

"Ringo Buys $84,000 Home."—Headline. There is a wide and thick scattering of people who hope that, as he now has a fine home, he will stay there.

Labor Planning Dynamic Moves

By NEIL GILBRIDE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American labor movement is heading into a period which may well bring the most revolutionary changes in a decade.

First will come the belated move by the AFL-CIO to gently but firmly ease the "nine old men"—retired or ousted union chiefs—off its powerful executive council.

They will be replaced by some of the new breed of labor executives gradually pushing aside the old guard of labor bosses who cut their teeth in the rough-and-tumble organizing battles of the 1930s.

AFL-CIO President George Meany, long reluctant to brush aside venerable associates of half a century, is reportedly determined to go through with it in December at the AFL-CIO's convention in San Francisco.

★ ★ ★

In replacing one-third of its vice presidents with younger blood, the AFL-CIO hopes to stir dynamic new policies to recoup some of labor's lost ground in the nation's dramatically shifting work force.

PERCENTAGE HAS DROPPED

Although total union membership edged upward in the past few years, it has dropped from 33 per cent to 29 per cent of the nation's growing labor force over the AFL-CIO's 10-year history.

Rapid shifts in technology and automation are creating an increasingly more difficult organizing problem for labor unions. So is the sharp increase in service jobs, outstripping manufacturing in recent years.

"There will never again be any mass organizing campaigns as in the 1930s," said one labor spokesman.

★ ★ ★

The problem now is a more patient, persuasive approach to organizing small units of white collar workers operating automated office machinery—many of whom cling to a traditional resistance to unions.

NO MEMORY OF DEPRESSION

The flood of youths into the work force with no memory of depression days when labor won its place in the sun is another problem for union organizers.

Just how the revamped AFL-CIO executive council will seek to meet these and other labor goals will not become apparent until the council's meeting in Honolulu next February.

An even more dramatic — but by no means certain — labor prospect in the months ahead is the possibility of the giant Teamsters Union rejoining the AFL-CIO.

★ ★ ★

It all depends on what the Supreme Court does with Teamsters' President James R. Hoffa's appeals of two criminal sentences —eight years for jury tampering and five years for defrauding the union pension fund.

Reliable labor sources say the 1.7 million-member Teamsters would be invited back into the AFL-CIO if Hoffa is forced to step down and go to prison.

Faithful Party Staffer Eulogized

WASHINGTON — Congress was busy yesterday getting ready for adjournment, but part of the day the leaders of the Republican party in both houses were bowing their heads in prayer in a memorial service to Robert Humphreys.

He died a few days ago of cancer, at the age of 60, after many years of service for the Republican National Committee and the joint Senate-House Republican leadership conference.

The name of Bob Humphreys was not known throughout the country. He was no television celebrity. He was rarely mentioned in the newspapers. But he made a deep impression here in the national capital as an honest and conscientious worker in the field of politics who never misled a reporter.

Though he wrote many a speech and public declaration that made headlines, he was one of those anonymous workers whose services over the years have been invaluable to the Republican party.

★ ★ ★

When such a man departs from life, the story of his career gets no such attention as marks the passing of someone elected to high office.

REMARKABLE EULOGY

But this time, leaders of the Republican party and members of Congress from both parties, as well as a large number of newspapermen and other friends, assembled at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, where a remarkable eulogy was delivered by Sen. Everett Dirksen, Repubican leader of the Senate.

★ ★ ★

He said that Bob Humphreys had a "devotion to his country unsurpassed by that of any patriot whose name glows from the pages of history." The Illinois senator added:

★ ★ ★

"What mortal being, standing on the threshold of infinity, has not pondered what lies beyond the veil which separates the seen from the unseen?

★ ★ ★

"Who would persuasively contend that this work of the great designer could only end in oblivion, in destruction without a trace?

NOBLEST WORK

"Who will contend that this—the noblest work of the great designer — man, with dominion over all living things, man, with a brain and a will, with a mind and a soul, man with intelligence and divinity should come to an end when the spirit forsakes its earthly temple? . . .

"Five hours before Bob Humphreys' spirit left its earthly, painwracked temple, I shook his hand. Somehow I knew that the great designer would spare him until I could return to the Capitol and say goodby.

"We spoke but little. It was not necessary. His last word to me was his request that I make this testament to him.

★ ★ ★

"There were no tears. I was borne up and comforted by the unquenchable faith and belief that even as the hands of heaven already reached out to embrace him, he would soon be in a higher, nobler, realm where neither pain nor anguish could touch him."

APPROPRIATE TRIBUTE

Those of us who heard the eulogy felt it was an appropriate tribute to Bob Humphreys.

His career was a useful one. He did newspaper work in the Midwest and in Washington until 1949, when he became public relations director of the Republican Congressional Committee. He served as publicity director of the Republican National Committee for a number of years, beginning in 1952.

In politics, Mr. Humphreys represented a unique type. He was a man with a sense of honor who dealt fairly with the press and was equally frank and outspoken in the private councils of the Republican party itself. He never mismanaged news.

He will be missed in Washington.

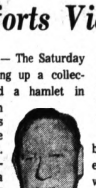
Saturday Review Drive Comforts Viet Aid Foes

NEW YORK — The Saturday Review is taking up a collection to rebuild a hamlet in South Viet Nam which was burned to the ground by U.S. Marines in retaliation for a single sniper's shot, according to the magazine.



It's a nice gesture as far as it goes, but it doesn't go far enough.

CONSIDINE

It of course gives comfort to all who are opposed to U.S. military aid to this beleaguered ally in Southeast Asia.

It fails to make clear certain other Marine activities in that land.

Marines are doing more than dying for the cause of freedom in Viet Nam. They provide badly needed medical care for countless refugees and the dereliicts of war.

★ ★ ★

They individually share their food with the hungry, take care of lost and abandoned children, build roads, even help harvest the rice that is the difference between life and death for so many of the natives.

ARE CONTRIBUTING

Marine Corps Reservists throughout the U.S. (and a lot of other people) are now contributing to the corps' Civil Action Fund, which operates out of Marine Headquarters, Washington, D.C.

Funds are turned over to CARE, whose people in Viet Nam know exactly what is needed at what times in which areas. CARE has been on the job out there since 1954.

The food, medicine, clothing, building materials, machines, equipment, etc. etc. etc. which will accrue from those contributions will be parceled out in Viet Nam by the III Marine Amphibious Force.

★ ★ ★

Far as we know there's never been anything like this before, but, come to think of it, there's never been any military outfit quite like the Marines, either.

'Support United Nations in Hope for World Peace'

I feel that J. E. Taulbee has a mistaken idea regarding the United Nations. The goal of peace is one held dear by most people the world over who value human life. The U.N. is not dominated by the Communists nor was it their exclusive idea in the first place.

★ ★ ★

I hardly think an organization whose purposes and principles include the desire to maintain international peace and security, equality of members, respect for rights of other nations, and respect by the U.N. of the right of member nations to govern themselves will be responsible for "burying" one fine nation under a dictator's flag.

★ ★ ★

It's time to stop criticizing and start supporting the United Nations. This organization is our one hope for peace, and for a future world for our children.

MRS. DONALD PORRITT
92 WASHINGTON

Mr. Taulbee's recent VOP letter stated that the U.N. is a Red gimmick to take over America and presumably the world. If the U.N. is a Communist organization for world conquest, it is certainly going about it in a strange way.

Why would the Soviet Union not pay its dues and by not paying make a meeting of the organization impossible? Why did the United Nations stop aggression in Korea, fighting in the Suez, Cyprus, Kashmir and other places? This is certainly an odd way to promote a "take over."

I think the American people, when properly informed, will rise up and give overwhelming support for the world organization, the United Nations.

Suggests Checking Statistics About UFOs

Mr. Walton was not severe enough in his letter concerning the editorial which stated that 99.999 per cent of all UFO sightings have been classified as various forms of natural or logical manifestations of man.

★ ★ ★

The writer of the editorial is entirely wrong and should not have made this statement without being able to back it up with statistics. He should read the UFO evidence by the National Investigation Committee on Aerial Phenomena. The sightings, radar contacts and photos have been categorized in this report.

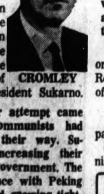
Abortive Coup Is Costly for Reds

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON (NEA) — In September 1948, the Indonesian Communist party almost destroyed itself by an abortive coup against the government.

It took years to recover.

In October 1965, Peking-dominated Communists failed in another hasty armed attempt to take over. This gave the Indonesian army a chance to clamp down hard on the Reds despite the protests of Indonesian President Sukarno.



CROMLEY

The October attempt came when the Communists had things going their way. Sukarno was increasing their voice in the government. The Sukarno alliance with Peking was strong and growing tighter. The Communists were winning converts among navy and air officers. Anti-Communist groups had been outlawed. The army's political strength seemed to be on the wane.

The renewed Communist strength was the result of 17 years of slow, careful energetic building. The Communist head, Dipa Nusantara Aidit, had instilled tight discipline among the members. He had carefully planned his policies (after some bad mistakes) to appeal both to the mercurial Sukarno and to rural Indonesians.

★ ★ ★

Strangely, the Communists threw a chunk of this slowly won strength away in a poorly planned, premature coup.

We tend to think of Communists as patient people who work underground for decades, biding their time for a take-over.

This is often true. But, sooner or later, you can count on the Reds to come up with a whopper of a blunder.

★ ★ ★

Some of their people get impatient and move too quickly.

Chinese-sponsored Communists have made this same mistake of jumping the gun in some parts of Africa and Latin America.

Despite its setback, the Indonesian Communist party is far from dead. It has 1,500,000 members. (The three million figure often quoted is a fraud.) It has built the backing of the farmers in some areas by pushing the taking of land from the rich (and from foreigners) and giving it to the poor. Rival parties are in sad shape.

The Communists will be able to feed on Indonesia's continuous economic chaos and political instability.

★ ★ ★

The Indonesian Communists may now simply turn from Peking to Moscow for leadership.

So the battle for weaning Indonesia from the Reds is far from won.

But these Red boo-boos give the United States an opportunity (or repeated opportunities). If the United States develops for Indonesia and the other underdeveloped countries of Asia, Latin America and Africa a long-range policy of helping to build sound democratic governments and persists despite setbacks, in the long run the Communists will likely stub their toes.

3 Yanks, Japanese Win Nobel Prizes

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) —The 1965 Nobel Prize for physics was awarded to two Americans and a Japanese, and the prize for chemistry went to another American.

The Royal Swedish Academy of Science announced that the physics award was given jointly to Julian Schwinger of Harvard, Richard Feynman of the California Institute of Technology, and Sin-Itiro Tomonago of Japan. The three will share equally in the $55,000 prize money.

It announced the chemistry prize of about $55,000 went to Prof. Robert Burns Woodward, also of Harvard University at Cambridge, Mass., a pioneer in synthesis of chlorophyll.

The citation for the three physics winners said the award was for "their fundamental work in quantum electrodynamics, with deep-ploughing consequences for the physics of elementary particles."

CONTRIBUTION HAILED

The citation for Burns hailed "his meritorious contribution to the art of organic synthesis."

The academy, made up of 140 Swedish and 108 foreign members, said of the chemistry award:

* * *

"Woodward has carried out a number of difficult syntheses of complicated organic compounds within the last two decades. Among those which have commanded considerable attention are his very revealing experiments to build up peptides in the field of protein chemistry and his successful syntheses of sterols, substances that play an important role in the metabolism of the human body."

* * *

The academy said Woodward's peak achievement was in 1961 when he brought about the complete synthesis of chlorophyll, the green matter which gives life and color to leaves and plants. Chlorophyll is the substance which sparked a health craze in the early 1950s when it was being added to everything from tooth paste to shoe cream.

Of the three physics winners, Tomonaga, 59, is the oldest. For several years he has headed a group of researchers in the field of theoretical physics at Tokyo University of Education, a branch of Tokyo University.

Schwinger, 49, Feynman, 49, and Tomonaga split the physics award for transforming the so-called "exchange play" between elementary particles into hard mathematical facts.

Killing Suspect Coming Back

ST. JOSEPH (AP) — Willard Schubert, 49, sought on a murder charge in the fatal shooting of his former wife's husband near Benton Harbor last week, waived extradition Wednesday at Whitley City, Ky.

A Berrien County warrant charges Schubert with murder in the gunshot death last Wednesday of Charles A. Bujack, 34, of Benton Harbor. A victim of a gunshot wound in the head, Bujack was found dead in an orchard north of the city. His wife, formerly married to Schubert, told police Bujack had disappeared from their home in the company of another man shortly before noon on the day of his death.

* *

Schubert, on parole from an Ohio Penitentiary, became the subject of a federal warrant charging unlawful flight to avoid prosecution. He was arrested Saturday while walking along a highway south of Whitley City.

Accompanying Schubert were Deputy Victor Yost and Andrew Novikoff, special investigator for the prosecutor's office.

Aid to Colleges on LBJ Desk

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has sent President Johnson an education bill that would give the nation's colleges a $2.3-billion shot in the arm while establishing three landmark programs.

★ ★ ★

The measure far exceeds the President's recommendations, but he is expected to sign it and set in motion for the first time in the nation's history:

1. A program of federal scholarships to help young people from low-income families attend college.

2. A system of federally insured state and private loans to assist college students from middle-income families.

3. The dispatch of a National Teacher Corps to poverty-stricken areas in a bootstrap attempt to lift education standards.

MAJOR ITEM

The Teacher Corps was the major item in dispute as the bill made its final run Wednesday through Congress.

A Republican attempt to drop the corps from the legislation failed in the House 226-152. The House then passed the bill by a vote of 312-63. A few hours later, the Senate gave it voice vote approval.

★ ★ ★

Most of the programs included in the authorization would be covered for three years.

But Future Uncertain

Rent Subsidy Bill Still Alive

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's controversial rent subsidy program is still alive after a victory in the Senate. But it faces an uncertain future.

Wednesday the Senate narrowly approved funds to launch the program this year.

Today House Conferees are expected to try to torpedo the program in a meeting with Senate conferees on the catch-all money bill that includes $360,000 for the first year of rent supplements.

Eventually, under terms of the bill, the government would be authorized to provide $12 million in federal grants to help low-income families pay their rents.

PUT IT BACK

The House voted 185-162 last week against providing funds for the program this year. But the Senate Appropriations Committee put the money back and the Senate in two roll-call votes Wednesday went along.

A Republican-led effort to eliminate payments this year failed 45-37. Then, a Republican-led drive to cut the program in half was beaten 41-37.

The Senate then made several minor changes in the $4,867,248,103 appropriation bill, the last of the year, and passed it by voice vote.

The conference committee will try to reconcile the bill with a House version which provided $4,214,429,610. The Senate bill is larger because a number of administration requests were sent to Capitol Hill after the House Appropriations Committee ended its hearings.

KEY PROGRAMS

Besides rent supplements, the bill provides funds to support a number of key administration programs, among them aid to higher education, highway beautification, antipoverty, regional medical centers, water and air pollution control and vocational rehabilitation.

The rent program would guarantee nonprofit organizations that rent property the difference between 25 per cent of the occupant's income and the rent of the unit.

Only families eligible for public housing could take advantage of the program.

Reaffirms Neutrality, Slaps China on Viet

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The prime minister of Laos, Prince Souvanna Phouma, today reaffirmed his nation's desire for neutrality and said he believed Red China will not send troops to Viet Nam.

Speaking in French at the University of Michigan in his only scheduled address in the United States, Phouma said he believes the Chinese now realize that America is not a "paper tiger and that he felt the Chinese would fight the Viet Nam war to the last Vietnamese."

The remark came in answer to a question from one of about 200 students attending the address.

In his speech, distributed to students in an English translation, Phouma said "for the past 20 years, our nation has been the seat of subversion, disorders, and guerillas, which have their origin and find support beyond our borders.

"We cannot ignore the fact that a well-known idiology is being spread over all the world through wars, revolutions and social unrest.

"For the fanatics involved — at least those who are trying to subjugate Laos—there exist no ethics, no international code of behavior, no rights, no frontiers.

"They only want to instigate revolutions wherever they can impose what they choose to call the dictates of the people and announce the advent of a social paradise where classes and state would be abolished," he said.

But in spite of the long struggle which has cost "us so much blood and so many tears," he added, "our desire for neutrality is a very tangible reality. Three million Laos people want it."

The prime minister is scheduled to tour the Michigan campus, the first he has ever visited in the United States, tomorrow. Afterwards, he will leave for Chicago and Paris.

State Senators Will Tour Europe to Increase Trade

LANSING (AP) — A Senate committee trying to stir up more international trade for Michigan will tour Europe for three weeks this autumn.

The group of from five to seven senators and two aides will visit with U. S. government commercial officers, trade organizations and private industrialists in London, Brussels, Stockholm, Frankfort, Bern, Geneva, Milan and Paris.

Sen. Gilbert Bursley, R-Ann Arbor, chairman of the Senate Committee on International Commerce, presented Wednesday a list of 45 questions the committee hopes to answer.

They concern development of export markets for Michigan products, foreign investment in Michigan, promotion of Michigan ports and the St. Lawrence Seaway, specific country markets and competition.

Flow of Cuba Refugees to Florida Resumes

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — The flow of Cuban refugees across the Florida Straits resumed today with two small boats making unexpected landings in the Florida Keys. At least 16 more were on the way.

One vessel landed on a public beach at Key West and border patrol officers hurried to the scene. The second craft docked at Marathon in the middle of the Keys with 15 refugees.

"The boats just slipped in," said a Coast Guard spokesman. It was not yet known how many refugees landed at Key West.

Earlier, the Coast Guard said there was an indication that a large movement of refugees was under way.

★ ★ ★

Havana radio said 16 boats had left Cuba for Florida last night and early today.

WERE WAITING

Newly arrived refugees reported that more than 50 small boats manned by an estimated 80 persons were waiting in Camarioca harbor to bring out Cubans seeking exile in the United States.

"Many sleep on the floor because of the congestion," said Carlos Ortega of Miami, skipper of the Marianne, which reached Key West from Camarioca Wednesday night. "We got only rice and a little meat to eat."

★ ★ ★

The Marianne was the first vessel to reach Key West since bad weather halted the exodus early Tuesday. Ortega said he brought out 14 refugees.

Three other boats which left with Ortega's were spotted in the Florida Straits by the Coast Guard.

SPEED UP TALKS

Swiss diplomats, acting on behalf of the United States, speeded up negotiations in Havana for a more orderly method of bringing refugees to the United States. Sources close to the negotiations said the arrangements should be firmed up within a few days.

★ ★ ★

One of the arrivals aboard the Marianne, Celso Machado, said he had been imprisoned from 1960 to 1963 for anti-Castro activity.

Another arrival, Antonio Gomez, 70, said life was good in Cuba. "There is plenty to eat," he said.

★ ★ ★

Gomez said he and his wife hope to return to Cuba after visiting a son in Hialeah, Fla.

HOPE TO BE CLAIMED

Ortega said several Castro militiamen slipped him pieces of paper with their names, seeking to be claimed by someone in Miami as a relative.

There had been speculation among exiles and officials that Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro had stopped the exodus.

★ ★ ★

Associated Press Havana correspondent Isaac Flores said Wednesday night that bad weather was the reason for the slowdown.

The Coast Guard continued its air and sea patrols along the Camarioca-Key West route to aid any vessels in trouble.

CAN'T LEAVE

Havana radio, monitored in Miami, ordered 17-year-old youth to register for military service Nov. 1-15. Sources in Havana said men aged 14 to 27 would not be allowed to leave until they had completed military service.

Sources in Havana said there was general agreement between the U.S. and Cuban governments on the basic points to be incorporated in an agreement for transfer of refugees from Cuba to the United States.

★ ★ ★

Under plans being worked out by the Swiss Embassy in Havana, the refugees at first are to be flown to Miami, usually reliable sources in Havana said. Ships may be used later, they added.

The United States was reported ready to accept two planeloads a day — about 200 refugees — five days a week.

★ ★ ★

The Cuban government wants more to be transported in order to cut down the time for the operation, it was reported.

College Head Plans a Real Bridge Party

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — President O. Meredith Wilson of the University of Minnesota will give a bridge party Saturday — on a bridge.

★ ★ ★

The luncheon will be held on the upper pedestrian level of a just-opened Mississippi River bridge linking the east and west banks of the university. Vehicle traffic will continue below.

★ ★ ★

Gov. Karl F. Rolvaag, state legislators and others have been invited.

Wilson said the purpose of the bridge luncheon is to point out to the guests the contrasting views of the east and west banks of the Mississippi as it divides the campus.

Push Ban on Indonesian Reds

JAKARTA (UPI) — All government employes suspected of taking part in the Oct. 1 coup attempt against Indonesian President Sukarno were ordered suspended today, Radio Jakarta said.

A ban on Indonesia's giant Communist party (PKI) was spreading throughout the nation.

In the latest move, the military governor of the central Javanese city of Jogjakarta ordered a ban on PKI activity and seizure of all Communist buildings, inventories and documents.

Sukarno was quoted today by Radio Jakarta as ordering "firm action" against suspected plotters. The PKI has been linked with the attempts to overthrow the Indonesian leader.

The Communist party now has been suspended in the greater Jakarta area, sections of central and east Java and the South Celebes. Its activities have been severely restricted elsewhere, notably in Sumatra.

In West Borneo, the military commander today ordered Communist party members not to leave the region without his permission. Known Reds will have to report to military authorities periodically and are forbidden to take part in political activities.

Communist China yesterday released a 7,000-word dispatch indirectly criticizing the Indonesian political situation.

* * *

The Chinese-run Res Publica University in Jogjakarta has been ordered closed, Jakarta radio reported last night. It is the 21st university to be shut down since the attempted coup. Res Publica was the scene of a massive Moslem demonstration earlier.

REDS BLASTED

Hundreds of Moslems yesterday denounced Communist China and the PKI at a Jakarta rally. There was no violence because reinforced police units with fixed bayonets were placed in the crowd.

The protest was called to denounce overseas military bases maintained by the United States and Britain, but ended in another anti-Communist demonstration.

Maj. Gen. Sumarno issued the order to provincial governors to suspend civil servants suspected of participating in the uprising.

Communist purges were reported under way in the armed forces, some labor unions and within government ministries.

Hospitalize Wife of W. Rockefeller

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. Winthrop Rockefeller has entered Parkland Hospital for a sprained cervical spine, commonly called a "whiplash" injury, received in a New York City traffic accident.

Mrs. Rockefeller, president of the National Association for Mental Health, was en route Wednesday to Austin, Tex., where she was to speak.

Rockefeller said in New York his wife suffered the neck injury when the taxicab she was in skidded en route to Kennedy Airport.

Power for industrial growth is available in most parts of the country but water is not. To improve water systems and supplies in small towns the Department of Agriculture has made more than 900 loans in 38 states since 1961.

Plans to provide electric light to all villages in Taiwan that still do not have this facility were announced recently.

Priest Is Told: Halt Negro Aid

Order Aims at Role in Milwaukee Boycott

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI) — For the second time, the Roman Catholic Church has stepped in and told a priest to stop helping Negroes in their boycott of city schools.

Father William J. Whelan was ordered yesterday to stop serving as a principal of a "freedom school" set up for Negro youngsters in the boycott.

The order, like a similar one earlier to another priest, came from the chancery office of Archbishop William Cousins

But Cousins was in Rome for the Ecumenical Council meetings, and it was not clear who ordered Whelan to return to his parish duties.

* * *

The boycott, in its fourth day today, is sponsored by the Milwaukee United School Integration Commitee.

ALLEGED IMBALANCE

It contends alleged racial imbalance in public schools is robbing children — many of them Negro — of high-quality education.

Civil rights leaders beefed up the boycott with protest marches, staging one last night in front of the home of School Supt. Harold Vincent.

Marchers and many children walked silently through the rain.

* * *

The children were sent home in a chartered bus before Milwaukee's curfew hour of 11 p.m. after a detective said he would arrest picket leaders for allowing a curfew violation.

LASHED OUT

Mayor Henry Maier lashed out at boycott leader Lloyd A. Barbee, the only Negro in the Wisconsin Legislature, for calling "late night marches" by children.

Barbee replied that "if Mayor Maier was as thin-skinned about discrimination as he is about his own ego, then we would have some action."

Father Whelan is from St. Gall's Church in the inner city area, where most Negroes live.

* * *

Pair Charged in Murder of British Girl, 10

MANCHESTER, England (AP)— Police charged a man and a woman today with murdering Lesley Ann Downey, 10, whose dismembered body was found on the desolate Pennine Moors on the Yorkshire-Lancashire border.

The couple were Ian Brady, 27, a clerk, and Myra Hindley, 22. Brady already was under a charge of murdering Edward Evans, 17. Miss Hindley had been charged with harboring and assisting Brady after Evans' murder.

The Downey girl's body was found during a hunt for eight and perhaps 11 missing persons whom police believed were murdered by a maniac who enticed children and young girls to parties, got them drunk on wine and murdered them if they rejected his sexual advances.

* * *

Brady and Miss Hindley made a 10-minute appearance at the court in Hyde, in the Greater Manchester area. They were ordered held in custody for a week.

* * *

When the charge was read to Brady earlier today, Police Supt. Robert Talbot told the court, he said to police: "Not Guilty." But no pleas were made in court by the man or the woman.

Roundup of World News

Police in Kashmir Arrest 26 Leaders Favoring Independence From India

SRINAGAR, Kashmir (AP) — Police today arrested 26 leaders of political groups working for Kashmir's independence from Indian rule.

With this latest police sweep, India now has detained most of the Kashmiri leaders who have led the anti-Indian demonstrations that have swept parts of the Himalayan state recently.

PARIS (AP) — France will have nuclear missiles at fixed sites in southern France by 1968, Defense Minister Pierre Messmer says.

Messmer told a news conference Wednesday testing and production of the missile would begin next year.

France's nuclear arm will be borne aloft by 50 supersonic Mirage IV bombers which will be operational next year, he said. The government will also push ahead with development of submarines that can fire missiles from underwater, he said.

ROME (AP) — Supplements to the Roman Catholic missal putting almost all of the Mass into English should be ready for use in the United States in about four months.

The U.S. bishops' liturgical commission announced Wednesday that the Vatican has endorsed a plan for the change drawn up by American Catholic officials.

The date for the change to the Mass in English will be announced later.

The Ecumenical Council in December 1963 authorized the use of modern languages instead of Latin for the Mass. The American church began limited use of English last year.

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Hungary has protested to Britain and the United States because of the defection of Laszlo Szabo, 42, a Hungarian diplomat seeking political asylum in the United States.

The Foreign Ministry accused Britain of withholding information on Szabo's disappearance last weekend. He was the second secretary in Hungary's embassy in London.

Two days ago the American Embassy in London said it had agreed to help Szabo find asylum in the United States after he came to the U.S. Embassy last Monday.

MTI, the Hungarian news agency, said Szabo's wife, Mari, and their 16-year-old daughter flew back to Budapest Wednesday. The diplomat vanished last Saturday after dining with them at their London apartment.

City in Kashmir Quiet but Simmering

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

SRINAGAR, Kashmir — In the famed Shalamar Gardens, dahlias and gladiola bloom and the trees are tinted with the red and gold of early fall. The vale of Kashmir takes on a special beauty at this time of year in its jewel - like setting below the snowy peaks of the Himalayas.

NEWSOM

But most of the houseboats on Lake Dal are empty. The shop of Subhana "the worst" is devoid of customers.

Few visitors come to Kashmir now.

* * *

For the vale of Kashmir is the focus-point of the three-week war between India and Pakistan, and beneath the surface in Srinagar, it still seethes.

In shadowy rooms of ancient buildings huddled along the crooked streets of old Srinagar, artists sit cross-legged to work their brush magic on moulds of papier-mache or to turn out the delicate traceries of wood carvings for which Srinagar is famous.

And in the street, a stranger brushes a reporter's shoulder, apparently in passing.

* * *

"Don't believe the Indians," he says.

"There are many who wish to speak to you. You must help us."

It is delivered in a whisper because the interpreter is suspected of being on the government payroll.

In the governor's palace, Yuvraj Karan Singh leans forward to press his argument. He is an intense man of 33 and he is the elected governor of the state of Jammu and Kashmir, more commonly known simply as Kashmir.

To him there is no argument to whom Kashmir belongs, India or Pakistan. His father, the late Maharaja, acceded to India in 1947, and only his father had the right to decide Kashmir's future.

* * *

He cannot understand why, if the United States wants a bulwark against Red China, it sides with Pakistan in the dispute over Kashmir.

VEHEMENT

In a sun-lit reception room, Chief Minister G. M. Sadiq is vehement.

Pakistan, he says, tried to take Kashmir by force and failed.

Now, the United Nations must force Pakistan to withdraw from the portion of Kashmir it occupies, back to its own international boundary.

* * *

"Otherwise," he says, "in the course of time, India will be forced to liberate the illegally occupied territory."

In this city of simmering hatreds between Moslem and Hindu, only large military forces maintain the peace. Assembly by four or more persons is forbidden. A 9:30 curfew locks up the town at night.

Riots erupted in Srinagar in December 1963, over the theft of a hair of the prophet Mohammed from the Hazrathal shrine.

Rioting erupted again last May with the arrest of Sheik Mohammed Abdullah, an exponent of self-determination for Kashmir.

* * *

A fragile and frequently broken cease-fire governs the borders between India and Pakistan, but it brought no real peace to Srinagar.

And from a doorway along the muddy street comes the whispered warning:

"They have burned our houses and arrested more than 12,000 of us. But for every leader they seize, another will take his place."

Last Purple Gang Inmate Out on Parole

JACKSON (AP)—When Harry Fleischer walked out of Southern Michigan Prison this week, the prison was left without an alumnus of Detroit's notorious Purple Gang for the first time in nearly four decades.

* *

Fleischer, one of the most colorful members of the prohibition-era mob, had served just over 13 years of a 25-to-50-year sentence for the armed robbery of an Oakland County gambling spot.

* * *

The 62-year-old Fleischer, released Monday, will serve four years of parole and will work for a Detroit - area industrial firm, a parole board spokesman said.

* * *

Although arrested several times on murder charges, Fleischer never was convicted. He was accused in several killings, including the three - death "Collingwood Manor massacre" in Detroit in 1931.

* * *

Fleischer was convicted in 1945 of conspiracy to murder State Sen. Warren G. Hooper, who died in a hail of machine gun bullets. The identity of Hooper's killer never has been determined.

* * *

Preceding Fleischer to freedom were fellow Purple Gangsters Harry Keywell, whose murder sentence was commuted by Gov. George Romney last month; Philip Keywell, Harry's brother, whose life term was commuted in 1962 by then-Gov. John Swainson; and Irving Milberg, freed by Romney two years ago after suffering a stroke.

VISITOR FROM MEXICO — Alvaro Aguirre, International Farm Youth Exchange student from Mexico, locates his country on the globe for Emil Fimbinger, Oakland County 4-H agent. An official in the Mexican agriculture department, Aguirre is spending several weeks studying farming methods in Michigan.

Expert From Mexico Studies State Farms

An official of the Mexican department of agriculture is learning that Michigan farming methods are quite similar to those used in his own country.

Alvaro Aguirre, 30, is spending nearly four months in Michigan sponsored by the International Farm Youth Exchange Program. He is presently the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Whims of 1720 Buell, Oakland Township.

Aguirre is assistant director of the Department of Agriculture Education in Mexico City. The department's functions are similar to those of our own Cooperative Extension Service.

His duties include working with young people in a program called Futuros Agricultures, which operates on the same principle as American 4-H clubs.

The visiting farm expert is a graduate of Juarez City College, where he earned a degree in agriculture in a five-year program of study.

FARMING NATION

Mexico is largely an agricultural country, according to Aguirre, with 55 per cent of the population engaged in farming.

The northern part of the country, he said, is most suitable for raising beef cattle, most of which are exported to the United States.

Most of Mexico's dairy farms are located in the central part of the country, Aguirre said, while the southern part is used for crops, including corn, beans, wheat and vegetables.

* * *

The country's farm products are divided into three classes or grades, he said, with the top grades produced for export, the medium grades for urban consumption and the poorer grades marketed in rural areas and smaller towns.

SCIENTIFIC FARMING

Scientific technology has had much the same effects on farming in Mexico as it has in the United States, according to Aguirre.

Farm machinery, imported from the U.S., is used to considerable extent, he said, as are chemical insecticides, pesticides and fertilizers.

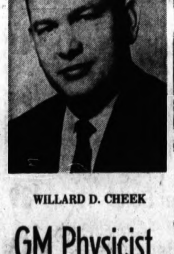
Commenting on American food, Aguirre said, "We don't live on tacos and enchiladas. We eat much the same food you do."

* * *

Aguirre noted one difference between American and Mexican farm life, however.

* * *

"In America 90 per cent or more of the farmers are in the middle or upper class of society," he said. "In Mexico about 90 per cent are considered lower class."



WILLARD D. CHEEK

GM Physicist Will Give Talk

LAKE ORION — Willard D. Cheek, senior physicist at the General Motors research laboratories, will be the guest speaker Sunday for dedication ceremonies at the new junior high school.

The ceremonies will be held from 3 to 4 p.m. in the cafetorium of the school, 385 Scripps.

* * *

Five elementary schools will be open for tours from 4 to 6 p.m. All, in addition to the junior high, were built with money from a $2 million bond issue approved in July 1963.

The $1,195,000 junior high was built to accommodate 900 pupils. It opened this fall with an enrollment of 930.

Kiwanis Club in Rochester to Sell Flares

ROCHESTER — The Kiwanis Club will sell railroad flares Saturday and Monday to raise money for local Halloween parties.

A portion of the $3,000 goal will be used to buy cider and doughnuts for area schools.

Another portion will be used for entertainers and prizes for parties at Central and West Junior High and the senior high.

The Brooklands Exchange Club will provide refreshments at Brooklands and Avon elementary schools.

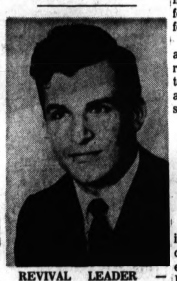
The sale outside the village limits will be conducted from 1 to 5 p.m. Saturday by members of Kiwanis, the Key Club at the high school and the Circle K Club at Oakland University.

MONDAY NIGHT

Door-to-door sales will be held in the village Monday night.

Downtown businesses and local industries are being contacted and the Rochester Village Council and the Avon Township Board of Supervisors are making contributions.

Area residents are asked to light their flares at 7 p.m. on Halloween.



REVIVAL LEADER — Evangelist Frederick Shmidt is leading a Community Revival Crusade starting at 7:30 each evening at the Leach Road Community Church, 2698 Leach, Avon Township. The Crusade is being held nightly, except Monday, through Oct. 31. It is open to the public.

Act to Prevent Harboring of Junk Vehicles

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP — An amendment adopted by the Township Board Tuesday night has added strength to the township's junk yard ordinance.

The amendment prohibits persons from harboring more than one inoperable vehicle on their property, regardless of whether they have license plates.

In other business, the board authorized purchase of two new automobiles for use by the Township Inspection Department.

It was the beginning of a new trend as township employes are presently reimbursed for mileage driven in their own vehicles on township business.

* * *

"We feel we will save money for the taxpayers as a result," said Supervisor Duane Hursfall.

NEW LIGHTS

The board also authorized purchase and installation of two new outdoor lights at the township hall in an effort to prevent break-ins.

* * *

School Slates Open House

ROCHESTER — West Junior High will hold an open house at 8 p.m. Monday.

Parents will go through their child's class schedule on a shortened period basis.

* * *

The purpose of the open house is to acquaint parents with the teachers and to give them a view of class objectives for the year.

Sewer Plans Get Go-Ahead

Walled Lake Revives Dormant Proposal

WALLED LAKE — The City Council has authorized completion of engineering plans and specifications for lateral sewer lines in the city.

It thus put back into motion the long-dormant proposal for a Walled Lake - Novi sewage system.

Engineers at Johnson and Anderson, Inc., of Waterford Township expect to have the completed plans ready for bidding within nine months.

Meanwhile, officials are investigating the possibility of obtaining some federal funds to help finance the project.

* * *

TREATMENT PLANT

Also on the tab for the city will be 65 per cent of the cost of the treatment plant and interceptor circling Walled Lake.

Final plans for these have been completed, with cost estimates made in 1964 at $1,139,000 for the interceptor and $547,000 for the treatment plant.

Charles Fenske of Johnson and Anderson said the firm already has written several letters of inquiry regarding the availability of federal sistance.

Schools Cited for Yearbooks

Two area schools won prizes in the 30th annual contest and critique for yearbooks conducted by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

St. Lawrence High School, Utica, earned a medalist rating for its yearbook, "The Jewel," in the 301-to-600-pupils senior high school division.

St. Mary's College of Orchard Lake won a first place award for "The Eagle" in the miscellaneous schools division.

SET FOR SMORGASBORD — Preparing decorations for their Sunday smorgasbord are two members of St. William's Rosary Altar Society, Mrs. Richard Schwarz (left), 51 Payne, Wolverine Lake, and Mrs. Henry Stanton, 2046 Meadow Ridge, Commerce Township. The event will be held from 1 to 6 p.m. in the basement of St. William's parish hall on Common Street in Walled Lake.

At Davisburg

New Officers for OES Chapter

DAVISBURG — Austin Chapter No. 396, OES, will install officers at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Masonic Temple.

Officers to be installed are Mrs. Marvin Paddock, 16152 Dixie, worthy matron; Lawrence Wilson, 4262 Leroy, White Lake Township, worthy patron; Mrs. Paddy D'Onofrio, 9613 Norman, Springfield Township, associate matron; and Wilburn Trent, 10387 Big Lake Road, Springfield Township, associate patron.

* * *

Installing officers will be Mrs. Harold Vollink, 7395 Buckell Lake Road, Holly, worthy grand matron of Michigan and Mrs. Leland Walz, 8312 Tindall, Springfield Township, first vice president of the Oakland County Association.

Area Pumpkin Sale Planned by Jaycees

The Auburn Heights Area Jaycees will hold a door-to-door pumpkin sale tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday.

To Study Fire, Police Needs

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A citizens' committee next week will begin a study of needs in the township's police and fire departments.

* * *

Appointed by Supervisor John C. Rehard, the group will do the preliminary work leading up to a proposed millage election next spring.

Rehard, who scheduled the committee's first meeting for 8 p.m. Oct. 28 at the Township Hall, emphasized that it is not a closed-door session.

While 20 residents have thus far agreed to serve, anyone interested can volunteer, he said.

* * *

The group will concentrate mainly on manpower shortages, also considering the need for additional equipment in the two departments.

STAFF DOUBLED

Rehard said he would like to see the staff of the police department doubled.

It now has nine full-time men, including the chief and two sergeants. A trained auxiliary force, which is not paid, supplies the township with another seven men.

The minimum number of policemen recommended nationally is 1.4 officers for each 1,000 residents.

* * *

"Since we estimate our population at 19,000, this would call for 27 full-time men," Rehard said. "But we feel that as far as our own operations are concerned, we can manage with 16 men and a chief."

FIRE DEPARTMENT

The supervisor noted the problem in the fire department is less easily identified.

"I can find no figures on how many full-time firemen we should have, but we presently have four full-time firemen and 44 confirmed volunteers," he said.

Two problems beset the operation of a volunteer fire department in a "bedroom community" like West Bloomfield Township, Rehard noted.

* * *

Because most of the men work outside the township, they often are not available when most urgently needed.

HARD TO FIND

"Coupled with that is the fact that volunteers are increasingly hard to find," Rehard said. "The kind of people that are moving in don't seem to be interested."

Township officials now are condidering construction of a fourth fire station.

The one on Willow Beach in Keego Harbor is the only manned station. The other two are on Walnut Lake Road at Putnam and Green Lake Road at Commerce.

* * *

Boosting township volunteer manpower are three privately-owned companies, Union Lake, Cass Lakeside and West Acres.

TWO LOCATIONS

Two locations are being considered for a new fire station, but Rehard noted the most logical one is at Maple and Orchard Lake.

Cost of land acquisition, construction and equipment would run to about $100,000, he estimated.

Rehard said this sum probably could be raised through unexpected surplus funds, which can't be used to hire men because their receipt is not reliable.

* * *

The township currently is allocated 1.4 mills for operations. Another 1-mill levy voted extra expires next year.

ANTICIPATED SHARE

The township's anticipated share of property taxes for 1965-66 is $156,243.

* * *

Protesters Would Volunteer for SE Asia Peace Work if They're Serious—Top Marine

WASHINGTON (AP) — Marine Corps Commandant Wallace M. Greene Jr. says American youths who demonstrate against the nation's Viet Nam policy are hypocrites at heart.

* * *

If they were sincere, Greene said Wednesday, they would volunteer for humanitarian programs in Southeast Asia.

* * *

"Let them prove themselves as Good Samaritans by crossing the road to lift up their brothers, to tend the sick, to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, to shelter the homeless," he told the Defense Supply Association's national convention.

"Let them do this first, rather than pass by on the other side of the street, with a placard on their shoulder, a song on their lips and hypocrisy in their hearts."

PROPOSE ALTERNATIVE

The same day Greene issued this challenge, Students for a Democratic Society, leaders in recent student demonstrations against the war, proposed that draft-age men be given the alternative of public service — Otherwise, said Paul Booth, the group's national secretary, "We have only one choice. We do in conscience object, utterly and wholeheartedly, to this war; and we will encourage every member of our generation to object, and to file his objection through the Form 150 provided by the law for the conscientious objector."

* * *

"We are fully prepared to volunteer for service to our country and to democracy.

* * *

"Let us see what happens if service to democracy is made grounds for exemption from the military service.

CHOOSE TO BUILD

"I predict that almost every member of my generation would choose to build, not to burn; to teach, not to torture; to help, not to kill."

Throughout the country a wave of counterdemonstrations continued to build.

At New Haven, Conn., for instance, a group of Yale students called for attendance at a mass rally today to demonstrate backing for American policy.

University of Oklahoma students said they expected about 500 to march in Oklahoma City Saturday in support of administration policy. Last Saturday some 20 of the university's students demonstrated against U.S. action in Viet Nam.

STRONG RESOLUTION

At the University of Mississippi in Oxford, the campus senate adopted a strong resolution of support of administration policy and condemned demonstrations against it.

* * *

In Pittsburgh, the National Council of the Order of Italian Sons and Daughters of America asked its members in eight states to display the American flag the next two weekends in support of U.S. policy in Viet Nam.

* * *

In Huntsville, Ala., the local Veterans of Foreign Wars post began "Operation Sweet Tooth" to show support for Americans fighting in Viet Nam by sending them packages of homemade candy and cookies.

* * *

In Sacramento, Calif., California Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh said there will be a legislative crackdown on the University of California if the Berkeley campus continues to be "a staging area, a fountainhead" for the demonstrations.

SUPPORTS RIGHTS

In Louisville, Ky., however, the Methodist Board of Christian Social Concerns, a national Methodist organization, urged a cease-fire and withdrawal of all foreign troops from Viet Nam and said it supported "the rights of those engaged in teach-ins and public demonstrations in respect to the war."

In Iowa City, Steve Smith, 20, sophomore engineering student at the University of Iowa, burned what he said was his draft card before a group of students on the campus.

In Omaha, Charles H. Deford, special agent in charge of the Iowa-Nebraska field office of the FBI, said the incident is being investigated.

A Lethal Symbol Of Supremacy

It Makes 'Charley' Run

U.S. Rifle—Great Equalizer

By TOM TIEDE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Be not afraid of any man
No matter what his size,
When larger than you is he,
Call on me,
And I will equalize.
—Poem inscribed on
M-16 rifle stock

BIEN HOA, Viet Nam (NEA) — Lt. Philip Harper should be dead today.

His life has been spared by the great equalizer in this war—United States technology. And, of course, the money which pays for it.

Formidable though a Yank soldier may be, it's his weapon that spooks the opposition stiff as a sucker stick.

In Lieutenant Harper's bizarre case, it was the M-16 rifle, a weapon the Viet Cong call "the little gun that makes a big hole."

★ ★ ★

Harper and five of his men were on patrol-sized activity recently, when they spotted a trail in the jungle and decided to investigate.

HEAVILY MINED

"It was a heavily mined path," says the lieutenant, "and we knew it had to lead to something or someone. Sure enough, about 500 yards up, we heard the click of a rifle bolt.

"There was really very little we could do. Our flanks were mined so we couldn't jump to either side.

"And turning around would have presented Charley (a V.C.) with the target he likes best. We could only move forward.

"We figured there were two squads of them . . . about 20 men, or almost four to one in their favor.

RUSHED THEM

"Actually, they should have taken us easily. But we rushed them anyway . . . each guy trying to get there first and firing away like mad with his M16.

"As it turned out, none of us was scratched but we killed 11 of them.

"The rest just turned around and high-tailed it out of there. They may be still running for all I know."

So, what makes Charley run?

WONDERFULLY WICKED

Fear. Not of six whooping men, exactly, but of the six burping M-16s they carry.

Operating full choke, these wonderfully wicked weapons fire 750 rounds a minute which, at 300 yards, can disintegrate a solid concrete block.

And the V.C. are aware of it. Painfully aware.

The XM-16 E-1 is this conflict's version of the old M-1 of Korean and World War II vintage. But any similarity ends with the trigger and the fact you still have to aim.

★ ★ ★

It's light — seven pounds, loaded. The old M-1 weighed nine pounds.

20-ROUND CLIPS

It fires 20-round clips faster than you can say, "Don't shoot!"

Its small (just over 22-caliber) projectile travels more than a half-mile a second and will split a combat helmet five football fields away.

But best — or worse, depending on which side of the muzzle you sit — is what it does to a human being.

★ ★ ★

Upon impact with flesh — which the Army classifies as a semi-liquid gelatin — the rifle's bullet begins to tumble end over end. If it continues on through a body it will take half a man's gelatin out the other side.

BIG AS HANDPRINT

Exit holes as big as handprints are not uncommon.

Entire leg bones have been shattered from single shots.

"It's the greatest individual rifle I've ever seen," grins one crusty old-timer here. "It's so good, in fact, nobody can understand how the Army ever developed it. They ain't famous for some of their brilliant technological decisions, you know."

★ ★ ★

But the beleaguered Army brass were right this time, at least, and a lot of GIs here are grateful.

Lt. Phil Harper knows at least six.

Free Schooling Sought for Kin of Viet Victims

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP) — State Sen. I. W. Gregory of Muscogee says he will ask the Georgia Legislature which meets in January to provide free room, board and tuition at state colleges for children of soldiers killed in Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

Gregory, a Republican, also proposed that a monument honoring American servicemen who fight in "brush fire wars" be erected in Columbus. Many men fighting in Viet Nam are trained at nearby Ft. Benning.

Fossils of Plants Discovered in Central Australia

By Science Service

WASHINGTON — Tiny fossils of some of the oldest blue-green and green plants on earth were found in well-preserved condition this spring in Bitter Springs limestone in central Australia.

The age of these prehistoric plants cannot be stated with certainty, but they probably are 700 to 900 million years old, according to Drs. Elso S. Barghoorn and J. William Schopf of Biological Laboratories and Botanical Museum at Harvard University, Cambridge.

The microfossils vary in color from yellow amber to brownish amber, they reported in Science. They have been divided into four distinct categories: spherical bodies, filaments without interior dividing walls, small walled filaments and large walled filaments.

The well - preserved plants, found in black, slightly waxy, chort rock, probably had been growing in shallow, gently flowing, highly siliceous water.

★ ★ ★

These micro-organisms are important because they may represent a transition period in the evolution of plant life on earth, at a time when the simpler green algae were developing into different forms.

Schools Get $8 Million in State Funds

State aid funds amounting to $8,012,500 were released yesterday through the Oakland County Treasurer's Office to the county's public school districts.

Royal Oak Schools received $751,140 of the total with the next highest amount, $727,400, going to Waterford Township Schools.

Pontiac with $697,650 and Farmington with $560,740 were the only other school systems to receive over $500,000.

Among the other school districts and the aid they received were Birmingham, $481,900; Southfield, $383,300; Hazel Park, $346,390; and Walled Lake, $308,140.

Others above the quarter million dollar level were Ferndale, $296,830; Clarkston, $254,190; and Rochester, $251,250.

Oakland Schools, the county school district, received $16,570.

State aid funds are distributed six times each year to public school systems.

Try Stationary Running for Losing Pounds

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Extra weight around the middle? Run it off without leaving the house.

LONG CLIMB, SHORT CAR — James Parkinson, a 32-year-old globe-trotting English draftsman, pilots his 1¼-horsepower 1935 Ritecraft Scootacar up a San Francisco street yesterday. Parkinson left on a world trip from his home in South Nutfield, Surrey, May 25 and traveled through Europe and Japan before coming to the U. S.

Reception Nov. 4

County Engineer Retiring

James B. Baynes, chief engineer for the Oakland County Road Commission, will retire tomorrow, ending 16 years of service.

A reception and dinner will be held in his honor Nov. 4 at the Holiday Inn, Bloomfield Township, starting at 4:30 p.m.

Baynes, 65, of 2485 W. Walton, Waterford Township, joined the road commission in December 1949. Prior to that time he was an engineer with the city of Pontiac.

A native of Buffalo, N. Y., Baynes has been an Oakland County resident since grade school. He attended Birmingham High School and received his bachelor of science degree in civil engineering from Michigan State University.

BAYNES

★ ★ ★

Following his formal education he started to work as an engineer with the Michigan State Highway Department.

BUILDING INSPECTOR

Later he became building inspector for the city of Birmingham and then plant engineer for the Kelsey-Hayes Corp., Detroit.

A life-time member of the Oakland County Engineering Society, Baynes has served on the board of directors for a number of years.

He is a member of the Michigan Engineering Society, past master of the Birmingham Masonic Lodge and is a 32nd Degree Mason of the Detroit Consistory.

Reservations for the reception can be made by contacting the Oakland County Road Commission office, 2420 Pontiac Lake.

Say 3,500 at MSU Sign Viet Petition

EAST LANSING (AP) — Organizers of a petition drive to show support for U. S. policy in Viet Nam estimated some 3,500 Michigan State University students and faculty members signed copies of the petition Wednesday.

William Webb, 24, an MSU junior from Detroit, said the petition drive sponsors hope to have 15,000 student and faculty signatures by Friday, when they plan to send the petitions to President Johnson.

'Drunk Driver, Walker Equally Dangerous'

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — The drunken walker is just as dangerous as the drunken driver, says Commissioner Harry H. Brainerd of the Pennsylvania Traffic Safety Bureau.

Brainerd, in a publicity release, said more than 25 per cent of pedestrians killed on state highways in 1964 had been drinking.

Texans Going Wild Over Poets' Writings

LONDON (NEA) — Fewer poets are starving to death in garrets these days, thanks to the generosity of newly found art patrons in Texas, among other states.

* * *

Texans, it seems, just can't get enough of poetry, and they are willing to pay fantastic prices for a poet's original manuscript, his notebooks, letters, and even his old laundry bills.

Inasmuch as Britain was the home of Byron, Shelley and Keats, it is still regarded as a prime source for poetry, which explains why so many from the Lone Star State do their literary browsing here.

The University of Texas, in particular, is now known as the terror of the London auction rooms, owing to its success in outbidding all other interested parties when rare books or manuscripts are offered for sale.

* * *

It has reached the point where a British student who wants to study Edith Sitwell's poetry, for example, must now journey all the way to Austin, Tex., where 200 of her notebooks are housed in the university's new $4.5 million library.

AMONG THE BEST

And not only poetry. The University of Texas collections of Kipling, D. H. Lawrence and Bernard Shaw are the best anywhere.

The Shaw collection includes 4,000 letters and 17 plays, and anyone who wants to trace "My Fair Lady" through the various shorthand versions of "Pygmalion" can do so in Austin.

Meanwhile, alarmed by the steady stream of manuscripts leaving this country, Britons are beginning to talk of the "poetry drain," not to be confused with the "brain drain" of scientists who are lured abroad by better pay.

* * *

To stop the rot, a National Manuscript Collection of Contemporary Poets was started here in 1963.

TWO-YEAR EFFORT

In the intervening two years, the collection has managed to acquire manuscripts from 42 poets. Its most notable acquisition is the working notebooks of W. H. Auden containing 87 unpublished poems.

But, operating on only a shoestring budget, the collection admits that it is not able to compete with Texas prices.

The most it can offer a poet is the satisfaction that his manuscripts will remain in England. Most poets are more interested in hard cash.

* * *

The University of Buffalo was one of the first to collect contemporary poetry manuscripts. Its collection, which is housed in the Lockwood Memorial Library, was started as far back as 1936, and is rich in material on Robert Graves.

Poets who once used their worksheets to light fires are learning that these scraps of paper are as valuable to collectors as a finished poem.

In fact, the untidier the manuscript the better, for the corrections are supposed to show the creative mind at work.

Poets are even being paid for copying out their poetry in their own handwriting.

The University of Texas, for example, paid the late T. S. Eliot $7,840 for a fair copy, in his own hand, of "The Wasteland." (The original copy is believed to be lost.)

There has also been a brisk business in literary correspondence. Novelist C. P. Snow complains that some of his letters have been sold under the hammer practically before the ink was dry.

The University of Arkansas pulled off a coup here not long ago by acquiring the papers of Frank Swinnerton, 78-year-old novelist, for less than $15,000.

These include 4,000 letters to Swinnerton from such celebrities as Arnold Bennett, H. G. Wells and John Galsworthy.

"I would have preferred that my papers went to the British Museum," Swinnerton explained, "but they did not want them."

BIG RELAY ANTENNA — On the deck of the aircraft carrier Wasp in the Atlantic is a large antenna that will relay still and television pictures of the pickup of the Gemini 6 astronauts. The flight is scheduled Monday.

Practice Today for Network in Gemini 6 Flight

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — World-circling radios buzz today in a communications dress rehearsal for the space hunt of the Gemini 6 Monday — the most difficult U.S. manned flight to date.

The 19-station Gemini network will swing into action early in the morning and continue until 7 p.m. Mission control center, Houston, Tex., was in direct charge.

At Cape Kennedy, command pilot Cmdr. Walter M. Schirra Jr. and pilot Maj. Thomas P. Stafford of the Air Force were to enter the Gemini mission simulator to participate in the communications rehearsal.

Through instant voice relay, mission control will have direct contact with the pilots through more than half of each critical orbit as the astronauts track down, rendezvous and dock with an Agena target rocket 185 miles above the earth.

The astronauts Wednesday entered the spacecraft atop the 90-foot Titan 2 rocket and spent three hours rehearsing the complex job of matching orbits with the Agena and maneuvering close enough to dock.

Then backup pilots Lt. Col. Virgil I. Grissom of the Air Force and Navy Lt. Cmdr. John W. Young replaced them in the spacecraft and completed the simulation.

At the launching pads, experts completed checks of the Atlas-Agena rocket that will precede Gemini 6 into orbit by at least an hour and 41 minutes. They reported no difficulties.

During the communications rehearsal, full crews are set for all of the worldwide Gemini tracking network stations. Communications during the space maneuvers of the Gemini spacecraft are critical.

DOUBLE LAUNCH

The eastern test range will conduct countdowns on two rocket systems simultaneously for the first time in the range history. The 102-foot Atlas-Agena rocket is set for blast-off at 10 a.m. EST Monday, with the Gemini 6 following at 11:41 a.m.

Schirra and Stafford will stay aloft one or two days, depending on when they accomplish the rendezvous and docking.

The Agena will swing into a high circular orbit. Gemini 6 will be in a lower, smaller, elliptical orbit. Then the astronauts will begin maneuvering to adjust their orbit to that of the Agena.

When they are close enough they will give their spacecraft small nudges of power to actually insert the nose of the Gemini into an adapter collar on the Agena. It would be the first time man has ever completed the rendezvous and docking with another body in space.

V FOR VIET VICTORY — James Hill, 40, a veteran of World War II and the Korean War, gets a "V for Victory" haircut in South Philadelphia yesterday. Hill, a father of four, ordered the special haircut to counteract protests against U.S. policy in Viet Nam.

First Since Korea

Marines Prepare for Draftees

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The drill instructors of the Marine Corps Recruit Depot are preparing for company: The draftees are coming.

For the first time since the Korean War the Marine Corps, traditionally a volunteer outfit, is turning to Selective Service to help expand the corps by 30,000 men.

Preparations are being made for the arrival next month of the first of the November quota of 4,050 draftee Marines.

The draftees won't know they're on their way here until they're assigned, by lottery, at the time of induction. The November call is for a draft of 36,450. Eight out of nine men will go to the Army, the ninth to the Marines.

PARRIS ISLAND

Easterners will go to the recruit depot at Parris Island, S.C., the rest here.

Here's what they'll find at San Diego:

Training will be accelerated. Boot camp has been cut from 12 to 8 weeks. Recruit companies will be bigger, with as many as 86 men, instead of the old average of 70. The number of DIs is being increased 40 per cent.

Each company will have a platoon commander and two DI assistants. Physical training, always rigorous, will be reduced by 18½ hours.

"I think the eight week schedule covers it all," said Sgt. Paul Lennen, 24, a recruit platoon commander, after graduating his first eight-week class. "It keeps them moving faster. But I have less time to work with them. Less time for their problems."

DISCIPLINE

Sgt. Glenn Darst, 29, another platoon commander, said, "Instilling discipline is our main function. You have to have it."

Many of the new boot camp graduates are told they'll be headed for Viet Nam after three weeks' infantry training at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Girl Needs Reassurance About Her Father's Past

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a 15-year-old girl who has read your column for years, but I never thought I'd be writing a "Dear Abby" letter.

Well, here's what happened, and I can't ask anyone else.

While looking for a box of Halloween decorations, I came across a box of letters hidden away. ABBY back on the storeroom shelf.

The letters were written by my father and been sent to my mother before they were married. I know it was wrong to read them, but I did anyway. Abby, I was knocked for a loop!

I found out my father was married and divorced before he married my mother. As near as I can figure it out, he must have been very young because he was 25 when he and mother were married.

I would like to know if my father had any children from his first wife; because if I have a half-sister or brother somewhere I think I ought to know.

Also, I wonder why they got divorced, how long they were married, what his first was like and where she is living now, if she's still alive. I just have to know these things, Abby.

I don't dare ask my mother or father or I'd be punished for reading the letters. Should I ask one of my relatives?

DYING TO KNOW

DEAR DYING: Ask your father (privately), but no one else. And limit your questions to the possibility of other children.

The other details do not concern you, and I'm sure your father would like to forget them.

DEAR ABBY: I have a neighbor who runs over here several times a day to have coffee with me as her husband travels and she is alone a lot.

She tells me all the family gossip, and I am not in the least bit interested in the stuff she tells me because I don't even know the people.

I suppose she has to talk to somebody, and if it does her good to get it off her chest, it won't hurt me to listen. RIGHT?

★ ★ ★

She hates her daughter-in-law, and every day she has another long, drawn-out story to show what a terrible girl she is. (She sees her often, and acts friendly to her face!)

I would rather not hear all these stories, but what can I do? She is wearing me out.

TIRED OF LISTENING

DEAR TIRED: First, see less of your neighbor and you'll hear less.

And when she starts telling you things you don't want to hear, tell her in a nice way that you prefer not to know that which is none of your business. Then change the subject.

Paris Visitors at Donaldsons

Mr. and Mrs. William Donaldson of Chippewa Road have as houseguests a honeymoon couple from Paris, France, Mr. and Mrs. Alain Fiquet.

Mrs. Fiquet, the former Marsha Lee Donaldson, is the niece of Mr. Donaldson. The pair will spend a weekend in New York City before returning to their Paris home.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dane of East Iroquois Road have as their house guest, Lillian Iverson of Copenhagen, Denmark.

Miss Iverson is on a cross country trip to the west coast after representing her government in the Danish Pavilion at the World's Fair.

Sparkling Benefit Slated by Camp Oakland Unit

It will be a "Black Tie" evening for Pontiac area residents who plan to attend the benefit of "That Darn Cat" sponsored by the Women's Committee of Camp Oakland.

The comedy-thriller by Walt Disney will have its world premier at this showing in the Ford Auditorium on Nov. 12. Film time is 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Ben D. Mills, chairman will be assisted by Mrs. Parbury P. Schmidt, Mrs. John S. Kerr, Mrs. W. B. Calhoun Jr., Mrs. William R. Candler and Mrs. Robert J. Coughlin Jr.

Others include George Hackett, Robert Dearth, Douglas Keyes and Robert Chambers.

HAYLEY TOO

Nineteen-year-old Hayley Mills, the movie's star, will attend the premier with her mother, Mary Hayley Bell Mills.

Following the film's showing, a reception for the star and patrons of the benefit, will be held backstage.

★ ★ ★

Tickets are available through the following Pontiac area committee members: Mrs. Clark J. Adams, Mrs. Donald E. Adams, Mrs. Robert C. Anderson, Pauline Benson, Mrs. James Clarkson, Mrs. Edward F. Dalton, Mrs. Warren Newton, Mrs. Everett Norris, Mrs. William Pipe, Mrs. Louis Scarlotti, and Mrs. Eugene K. Wellman.

★ ★ ★

Tickets may also be purchased at the J. L. Hudson ticket agencies, Ford Auditorium, First Federal Savings of Oakland and the Oakland County Courthouse juvenile and probate departments.

Camp Oakland provides a year-around home for boys and girls who would otherwise have no permanent residence. Most of these children are wards of the court.

★ ★ ★

The camp also operates summer camp programs, and job training for school dropouts.

Miss Gorsline Is Honored

Barbara Taylor and Mrs. Craig Strain both of Detroit entertained at a personal shower in the Strain home, Tuesday, for Marsha Jane Gorsline, daughter of the William H. Gorslines of North Johnson Avenue.

Miss Gorsline will be married on Nov. 2 to Richard A. Kappler, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Kappler of Pon Valley Road.

Set for Tuesday

Volunteers' Tea

Dr. Donald W. Martin, medical superintendent at Pontiac State Hospital has announced that the annual tea honoring the hospital's volunteers will take place Tuesday at 1 p.m. in the employee's cafeteria.

Dr. Lowell Eklund, dean of continuing education and director of Mott Center, Oakland University, will be the keynote speaker. "A Time for Excellence" will be his topic.

Those on the tea committee include Dr. Martin, Dr. C. R. Ranger, Dr. Robert Braun, Gerald Self, Willie DuBose, Richard Arthaud, Mrs. Mildred Boyle, and Michael Fiorillo.

Others are Mrs. Ruby Eargle, Mrs. Eleanore McCurry, Dorothy Roe, Dr. Chester Walters, Richard Luehmann, Gerald Bax, Keith Storrs, Mike Saum, Lewis Russell, Ted Panaretos and Mrs. John Bailey.

★ ★ ★

The Rev. Joseph Brady, hospital chaplain, will give the invocation.

Study Club Enters 41st Season

Parliamentary Study Club's first meeting of the season was Wednesday at the West Lawrence Street Masonic Temple, opening its 41st year of service to Pontiac and Oakland County women.

Members plan to appoint a permanent parliamentarian to replace Mrs. Joseph Panter, Parliamentarian Emeritus, who has left the city.

Mrs. Merrill Petrie was study leader, and Mrs. Odes Case and Mrs. Forbes Hascall led the demonstration group with Mrs. Harold Knisley as sponsor. A question and answer period concluded the program.

Mrs. David Saks was elected to membership.

IAC Makes Plans for Party, Sale

Husbands of members of the Italian American Club auxiliary were present at the Monday evening meeting in the club house.

Plans were completed for a family Halloween party on Oct. 31 at 4 p.m.

Also on the future agenda are a teen dance and family fun parties.

Mrs. Julio Bernero and Mrs. Rudy Fortino will be in charge of the Christmas candy sale. Proceeds will be directed toward the proposed Pontiac Catholic Central High School.

Hostesses included Mrs. Frank Soda, Mrs. Sam Calabrese, Mrs. Carl Grassi and Mrs. Joseph Pollina.

League Sees Historical Presentation

Wednesday morning, members of the Birmingham Junior League gathered in the Community House for their second meeting of the year.

The program, "Know Your Town" was presented under the leadership of Mrs. James D. Coulter.

The event began with Birmingham in its infancy. Members of the committee wrote the script and sets were designed and created by Mrs. William T. Collins.

PLAYERS

In the cast were Mrs. Roger P. Craton, Mrs. Garvin Bawden Jr., Mrs. Robert G. Campbell, Mrs. Samuel G. Slaughter, and Mrs. Thomas C. Walbridge.

Others were Mrs. Alfred C. Moore and Mrs. David A. Brennan.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Robert Thom made available early historical pictures of Michigan.

Members of the Birmingham Historical Society will see the program on Nov. 3 in the Community House.

DELEGATES

Mrs. Stratton S. Brown, Mrs. Barbara Macartney, and Mrs. H. Samuel Greenawalt are newly appointed delegates who will go to Springfield, Ill., to attend a conference of Junior Leagues in Region IV on Nov. 2-4.

Greek Tale Is Subject

The Waterford Great Books group will meet Friday at 8 p.m. in the CAI Building to discuss "Lysistrata" and "The Clouds" by Aristophanes.

Mrs. K. B. Valentine will lead the talks.

Aristophanes is remembered as the great burlesque critic of Athenian life in the fifth century, B. C.

Newcomers will be welcomed.

By Eunice Farmer

Dear Eunice:

I am often troubled with buttonholes which draw the interfacing too tight. What am I doing wrong? This has ruined the effect of my suits.

Mrs. D. G.

Dear Mrs. D. G.:

My instructions for bound buttonholes suggest placing a layer of light weight organdy on the wrong side of your fabric as a backing for the buttonholes. After they are made, you will cut the organdy away very close to the buttonhole.

The next step after pressing is to place interfacing over the buttonholes and, after it has been stitched into the front seams, carefully cut a rectangle through the interfacing and bring the buttonhole welts through the interfacing. This not only will act as an anchor for the buttonholes, but will fit nicely under the welts and prevent any pulling or puckering of the interfacing.

Dear Eunice:

I have encountered great problems with patterns that have a separate section that fits into the side of a suit without set-in sleeves. It is something like a gusset but, since it shows very plainly, it must be neat. Mine simply isn't. Can you help with some extra instructions?

Mrs. V. G.

Dear Mrs. V. G.:

This definitely is "gusset type detail" similar to setting a godet into a skirt, and is like many other details that require clipping one section in order to fit another in place.

If you follow these instructions you shouldn't have too much trouble from now on.

- Reinforce the area that is to be slashed by placing a small square of firm, light-weight cotton on the wrong side of your garment. Machine stitch 1 inch on each side of the exact spot to be clipped or slashed. (a)
- Slash, as pattern directs, to the very last reinforced stitch.
- Begin pinning ONE section at a time. Always pin and stitch toward the slashed area first. The section that was slashed will be FACE-UP and have a seamline that begins ⅝ inch wide and tapers to nothing at the point of the slash. The under section of the garment will have a uniform ⅝-inch seam allowance.
- As you machine stitch, hold the point at the end of the slash securely over the corresponding mark on the under section with a large needle (this prevents slipping). If it should slip while you are stitching, you will have a rounded, poorly shaped area instead of a perfect square or point. Machine stitches should be much smaller on either side of the slashed area.
- Remove from sewing machine, check to see that the first stitching line is perfect, then pin and stitch the section that begins at the slash and continues to end of seam.

This is one of the trickiest of all sewing details. It is frustrating because if you take one extra stitch you are likely to have a pucker. If you stop stitching one stitch short of the slashed area you will have a hole at this point. Be accurate; it will pay off in the finished results.

Children's Aid Unit Has Membership Tea

The Auxiliary to the Oakland County Branch, Michigan Children's Aid Society had its annual membership tea Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Raymond N. Rapaport of Lahser Road was hostess to the group.

New members and guests were welcomed by Mrs. Keith Crissman, auxiliary president.

* * *

Purpose of the agency and functions of the auxiliary were explained by Louis Lovette, executive director. Ralph Deneke, adoption supervisor, listed areas of volunteer service open to auxiliary members.

Chairmen of the event were Mrs. C. M. Shelton, Mrs. Herman Kurth, Mrs. Reed Dewey, Mrs. Gordon Gray and Mrs. Milton Ott.

BOARD MEMBERS

Guests included women from the MCA board of directors, Mesdames Mark Beach, Bruce Hubbard, Walter Reuther and G. Hunt Weber Jr.

Among new members enlisting for volunteer service were Mrs. James Clarkson, Mrs. Roy Mercer and Mrs. Sidney Teague.

Bangles Jangle One's Nerves

Some women insist on wearing every bracelet they own.

A moment's thought about their clanking, jangling costume jewelry may encourage some to cut down on the number. Too many can add to your discomfort if your nerves are jumpy.

Ponchos in Vinyl

The latest rain fashions are vinyl ponchos which can be sponged with soap or detergent suds to wash splashes from their slick surface.

Majoring in Manners

A course in table manners is one of the most popular electives at Pennsylvania State University this fall. The students will learn which knife to use to butter their bread, and perhaps which side their bread is buttered on.

* * *

College and University Business says the course, actually named "social usage" also emphasizes wedding etiquette, travel customs, tipping, introduction techniques, and how to be a good host — or guest.

SOCIAL EASE

Instructors think the course is popular because manners are a measurement of social adjustment in today's business world. Students, especially the men, who make up two thirds of the class enrollment, realize that social ease is extremely important in getting and advancing in good jobs.

Mother has been nagging Junior for years about keeping his elbows off the table. But it takes a course in college to put his elbows in the proper place.

Patent Prevails

Patent leather, once the child of spring, is now a year-round favorite in shoes, bags and even hats. Wear it with a flare through all seasons. She who hesitates is old-fashioned.

Big Step Forward

Remarkable progress has been made in the emancipation of women in Iran. Some were chosen for office in the last parliamentary elections when women voted for the first time.

To Celebrate Founders

Founders Day will be celebrated by all Detroit area chapters of Sigma Kappa Alumnae Association on Nov. 9 at a 6 p.m. dinner in Greenfield's, Oak Park.

An award will be given to the outstanding alumnae in the South Oakland County chapter.

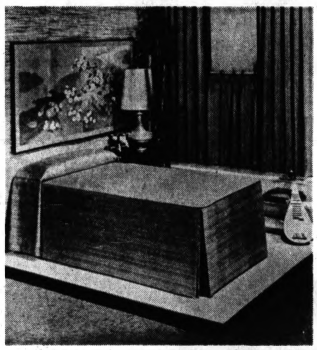
Pick a print bedspread and let it determine the color scheme for your bedroom. Nettle Creek shows this embroidery-quilted king size spread in greens, blues or golds. Comes in other sizes, too. All bedspreads shown available locally or may be ordered.



Go oriental with Morgan-Jones' "Honshu" spread. The tailored style comes in monotone striated stripes with matching draperies. Highlights of this room are the raised platform, the framed panels over the bed and the gold lamp.

Leopard fur is used to make this glamorous bedspread. Nettle Creek Industries adds a box-pleated velveteen petticoat and matching velveteen bolsters. Furniture has a Moorish design. It all spells luxury.

Decorating Bedroom Calls for a Plan

If you have just purchased a queen or king size bed, or you're tired of the decorating details of your bedroom, it's time to start all over.

When the bedroom serves also as a second living room—perhaps a refuge from too much rock 'n' roll of the younger generation — it behooves the homemaker not to get "cute" in her decorating plans.

Simplicity is never out of style. Even if your husband doesn't object out loud, he may feel a bit uncomfortable in a frilly room.

* * *

The manufacturers of bedspreads are making it easy for a woman to choose coordinated spreads, draperies, pillows and even shades, headboards, table covers and screens.

START WITH SPREAD

Because the bedspread is the largest item in the room it should be chosen first. You have almost unlimited choice of style and fabric and color.

You can have a floral spread with matching draperies. But then, you probably will want solid color walls and solid color upholstery on any chairs. Don't make your room too busy looking.

Today's fabrics are wonderfully sturdy. Even fragile looking spreads may be man-made fabrics that stand up to long wear.

If the room is small, better not have a huge splashy flowered pattern on the bedspread. But you can have a small conventional floral design.

* * *

Remember that vertical lines lengthen and horizontal lines widen the room; you may want to extend your draperies above and below the actual windows to achieve height.

* * *

But the best advice of all is to suggest that you go on a shopping trip just to look. You'll get some new ideas. Then you can decide in the quiet of your own home what you will follow.

Try a Leather Evening Purse

If you're tired of fabric evening bags that all seem similar in shape, try the new leather purses for after-five wear.

* * *

There are small envelopes, clutch bags and pouch bags with chain handles in handsome textures that gleam like jewels under the artificial light.

Catholic Women Plan Institute on Tuesday

A Tri-Deanery Institute, cooperative effort of the South and North Oakland and Wayne North Central deaneries of the Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women, is planned for Tuesday.

"Opening Paths to Love" will be the theme for the institute, beginning at 8:45 a.m. in St. Owen's Parish on Franklin Road, Birmingham.

* * *

Mrs. Edmund Zeglen of Farmington, general chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Keith Ackley of Bloomfield Hills and Mrs. Raymond Boyce, Detroit.

Other area chairman include: Mrs. Joseph Pollina, reception and registration; Mrs. Glenn Weber, invitations; Mrs. Joseph Kuras, exhibits; and Mrs. Lewis Yezbick, publicity.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Pollina.

Use Pretty Print for Test Garment

If you are unsure of the fit of a garment or the style, instead of making it in muslin first, why not make it out of pretty print that you can often find for 25 to 50 cents a yard on sale, muslin costs the same.

With the bargain yardage, you will have something to wear after putting in the labor on the dress. If it doesn't turn out right and you don't want to use the pattern for your good material, you are out only a little time and a few cents and still have the garment to wear around the house.

Mid-December wedding vows are planned by Shirley Jean Sparks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sparks of Oakley Park Road, Commerce Township, and Ronald Savage, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Savage of Fort Walton Beach, Fla. The Richard Lee Blaggs (Kathleen Joanne Netschke of Charest Street) left for a honeymoon in Canada after their recent marriage in Our Lady of Refuge Catholic Church.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Netschke of Riverside, Calif. formerly of Pontiac and the David R. Blaggs of Blondell Street, White Lake Township.

With her gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta the bride wore a French illusion veil. She held a prayer-book covered with pompoms and a white orchid.

Mrs. John C. Keiningham attended her sister at the ceremony performed by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas Jobs. Linda Blagg, the bridegroom's sister, and Linda Lewis, were bridesmaids.

On the esquire side were Robert Carter, best man, and ushers Larry Fenner and Robert Konzen Jr.

Polly's Pointers

Pages From Past

DEAR POLLY — Recently a friend brought me a letter I had written 16 years ago. It contained interesting incidents concerning our family and which we had completely forgotten.

This friend was sorting through old letters and cards and instead of burning them, she took the time to reread and then return them to the senders if they contained items she thought they might find interesting.

I so appreciated this thoughtfulness that I intend to copy the idea and pass it on, too.—Mrs. M. B.

GIRLS—With attics becoming almost a thing of the past, many of us cannot save all the sentimental things we would like. Those moving out of homes they have lived in for years will doubtless not only find things of interest to friends but to their local historical societies.—POLLY.

Word Power for Success—10

'Cousin' Helps You Decide Between ible and able

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the tenth in a 30-part series entitled "The Word Power to Success." The series is designed to help bring improvement in spelling, grammar and vocabulary.)

★ ★ ★

By the Reading Laboratory, Inc.
Written for NEA Special Service

Between IBLE and ABLE
You find you're unable.
Find a cousin of either
And decision's a breather.

By this time it should be clear, at least to regular readers, that these articles have attempted to simplify the so-called problem areas in spelling.

There is tremendous common sense in spelling the English language, despite all the dirges sung by those who profess the desire to help us with spelling problems.

It does not give much help, though it may give comfort, to be told that most of us cannot decide, for example, between using able and ible as a suffix.

It would be a lot more helpful — and it would also give greater comfort — to be told how to solve the problem. Our rhyme at the top of the page sets out to do just that.

★ ★ ★

The only word we should explain briefly in this verse is the word "cousin." A cousin is a relative, and in our context of spelling we mean simply a related word.

'COUSIN' WORD

For example, admiration is a "cousin" of admirable. What helped us to spell that word as admirable and not as admirable? The cousin word has an a in its suffix (ation), so we put an a in admirable.

Admission, on the other hand, has i in its suffix (ion); therefore we choose ible over able in its cousin, admissible.

Is it imaginible or imaginable? Look for its cousin, and you find imagination. That suffix has an a, so this suffix will also have an a in imaginable.

Is it terminable or terminible? Apply the verse and find the cousin. You come upon termination, and the a is unmistakable in the pronunciation. Therefore you choose terminable.

Another question which gives needless annoyance has to do with verbs (words which generally speak of the action in a sentence) which end with the sound of seed.

Do I spell it cede, sede, or ceed? — that is the question. Is it proceed, procede, or prosede? Is it precede, preceed, or presede? And so on. Here is a rhyme which will settle this question once and for all.

To proceed, to exceed, to succeed—
These three have two e's after c.
S-e-d-e happens once: supersede.
All others have c-e-d-e.

In other words, there are only four words in the whole English language you must keep in your memory: only one word is spelled with sede, and that word is supersede; only three words in the whole language are spelled with ceed, and they are proceed, exceed, and succeed.

★ ★ ★

All other verbs, whose endings sound like seed, are spelled with cede as ending.

A QUIZ

We have covered two nuisance areas in this article. The hope is that you now know there was no need of nuisance value in either case.

So that you may be convinced for your own comfort, underline the correctly spelled words in the following list. With this suggestion: do memorize the little verses. Why? It has been probably less than a minute since you saw the utter simplicity of deciding between ible and able.

It would be somewhat silly a month from now to have to face that decision and not know what to do. Recall the verse from memory, and your "decision's a breather."

1. excitable, excitible.
2. inflammible, inflammable.
3. convertible, convertable.
4. preceed, precede.
5. navigible, navigable.
6. receed, recede.
7. excede, exceed.
9. admissable, admissible.
10. interceed, intercede.

ANSWERS

1.: excitable; 2: inflammable; 3: convertible; 4: precede; 5: navigable; 6: recede; 7: exceed; 8: reducible; 9: admissible; 10: intercede.

(NEXT: Double Those Consonants.)

Psychologist Testing Theories of Freud; Seeks Scientific Proof

By Science Service

WASHINGTON — A vanguard of psychologists is turning an experimental spotlight on Freudian theory. The goal is to prove what long have been accepted as working principles on the analysts' couch.

Dr. Irving Sarnoff of New York University told a New York Academy of Sciences meeting that the majority of psychoanalysts has been too well satisfied with Freud's doctrine to submit it to controlled tests. Consequently the deep, obscure motivations and unconscious promptings of the human mind remain a matter of theory.

It is the job of research psychologists to apply the scientific method to Freud, he said.

Dr. Sarnoff, a psychologist, is testing the Freudian theory that some people have an unconscious impulse toward failure. They are those capable of succeeding who, when they approach success, begin to undermine themselves and bring on ultimate failure.

★ ★ ★

Freud believed that unconscious guilt was at the bottom of the desire to fail. To test the theory, Dr. Sarnoff will manipulate and measure his subjects' degree of guilt and anxiety.

PREVIOUS TESTS

In previous experiments Dr. Sarnoff has not always found his results correlating with Freudian theory. However, this may be due to a failure on his part, he said.

"We are flying blind empirically," he told Science Service by telephone. "We are at such a beginning level, we do not even know what kind of methods to use in approaching the problem."

Within the vast complex of psychoanalytic theory, Dr. Sarnoff has chosen to experiment with the concepts of castration anxiety and fear of death; anxiety, fear and social affiliation; and reaction formation and cynicism, among others.

He found that the castration theory according to Freud did indeed show up in empirical tests. Persons with a high degree of castration anxiety felt an increased fear of death when their sexual emotions had been aroused.

To elicit sexual feelings on two levels — high and low —Dr. Sarnoff had eight photographs held before his subjects' eyes — four of nude females and four of high fashion models. The fashion models brought no change in emotions. But sexual feeling aroused by pictures of nude women were accompanied by death fears in those men who feared castration.

★ ★ ★

However, Dr. Sarnoff said one test does not prove a theory. It must be repeated several times by other researchers.

British Expected to Rebuke Red Criticism on NATO N-Fleet

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Britain is expected to serve notice in the U.N. disarmament debate today that the North Atlantic Treaty Organization will decide whether to establish a nuclear fleet and no advice is needed from the Soviet Union or any other outsider.

Informed sources said Britain's disarmament negotiator, Lord Chalfont, would also urge the General Assembly's top Political Committee to support the treaty to check the spread of nuclear weapons which the United States has put before the Geneva disarmament conference.

* * *

Chalfont was not expected to talk at length on the controversial issue of an allied nuclear fleet that has caused dissension among the nations of NATO.

Britain and other Atlantic allies reportedly have tried to persuade the United States to soft-pedal the nuclear fleet issue at this stage for fear it will block an agreement with Russia to check the spread of nuclear weapons.

REDS OPPOSED

The Soviet Union flatly opposes any scheme for an allied nuclear force, arguing that it would give West Germany a measure of control over nuclear weapons.

* * *

Britain reportedly also opposes any integrated force on grounds that it would be too costly and in the long run would not give West Germany the arms equality it seeks.

* * *

The British are said to be backing off from their own proposal for a NATO air, sea and land nuclear force assigned to an allied command.

Lord Chalfont indicated at the Geneva disarmament talks that his government believed Soviet objections could be met if it were explicitly provided that any multilateral nuclear group in the West would be governed by a British and American veto on use of these weapons.

Since then, informed sources in London have said the Labor government would like to drop the idea of a NATO nuclear force, at least for the present, and concentrate on trying to get the Russians to agree to a non-proliferation treaty.

What's New for the Lunchbox?

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

"Please give us some ideas for lunch boxes."

I asked the caller what she wanted. She said sandwich ideas and desserts are needed.

We'll start out with five brief suggestions from The American Institute of Baking. They point out sandwich fillings that travel well.

- Corned beef, sliced thinly.
- Egg salad made of chopped egg, piccalilli and mustard to moisten and to taste. No mayonnaise, please.
- Dried beef-cream cheese.
- Salmon salad made of flaked, canned salmon and chopped celery. Add enough applesauce to moisten. No mayonnaise.
- Apple butter — sliced nuts, melted butter or margarine.

Some of you who must pack a daily lunch may be interested in a free booklet called, "All Sorts of Sandwiches."

You may get this collection of more than 100 sandwich recipes by sending your name on a postcard to The Dow Chemical Co., First and Water Streets, Bay City, Mich. 48706.

Here's a sample recipe from the booklet.

Crunchy Cheese Sandwich

1 cup ripe olives
1 package (8 oz.) cream cheese, softened
3 tablespoons mayonnaise
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
2 teaspoons prepared horseradish (optional)
1 cup diced celery
½ cup roasted chopped almonds
8 slices whole wheat bread
Softened butter or margarine

Chop olives. Mix cream cheese in bowl with mayonnaise, mustard and horseradish; stir in olives, celery and almonds. Makes about 2 cups filling.

When I was writing my stories from the food editors conference, I promised you the recipe for Yam Pralines. These goodies would be fine in lunchboxes.

Yam Pralines

1 package (5 oz.) instant yams*
1¼ cups water
1 cup light cream
3 cups granulated suger
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
½ teaspoon salt
2 cups pecans
1 teaspoon vanilla

In small saucepan, bring water just to boiling. Remove from heat. Gradually stir in yam flakes with fork. Do not beat. Cover and let stand 5 minutes. Mix in cream, then sugars and salt.

Cook until mixture reaches 236 degrees (soft-ball stage), stirring often; reduce heat during last part of cooking, as mixture is quite thick. Remove from heat. Add pecans and vanilla; mix well.

Drop from spoon onto well-buttered cookie sheet or pan. Let pralines cool and crystallize. Make about 20 three-inch pralines.

*1½ cups mashed yams may be substituted for the instant yams and water.

Honey Almond Cranberry Bread is good enough to double as dessert. Whether it's served that way or used for sandwiches, it adds a sweet touch to the lunch.

Honey Almond Cranberry Bread

6 cups biscuit mix
1 teaspoon ground allspice
2 cups fresh cranberries, rinsed and drained
Grated rind of 1 orange
1 cup chopped blanched almonds
2 eggs, well beaten
1 cup honey
½ cup milk
½ cup orange juice

Combine biscuit mix, allspice, cranberries, orange rind and almonds. Add eggs, honey, milk and orange juice and beat until well blended. Spoon mixture into 2 greased and floured 9x5x3-inch loaf pans.

* * *

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 50 to 55 minutes or until top springs back when touched. Unmold and cool thoroughly on a rack. Slice thinly to make sandwiches.

Suggested fillings: cream cheese and jelly, deviled ham and thinly sliced apple or peanut butter and sliced bananas.

With today's convenience foods, you can whip up a batch of chocolate cookies in almost no time.

Chocolate Almond Drop Cookies

2 cups instant blending flour
1 cup sugar
1 cup soft butter
1 egg
1 envelope (1 ounce) premelted unsweetened chocolate
1½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup chopped toasted almonds

Combine all ingredients except almonds in large mixer bowl. Mix at lowest speed of mixer until thoroughly blended. Stir in almonds.

Drop dough by rounded teaspoonful onto ungreased cookie sheets. Or, dough may be shaped by hand into 1-inch balls and dipped in sugar. Bake at 400 degrees for 8 to 10 minutes. Do not brown. Cool one minute; remove from cookie sheets. Makes about 48.

YAM PRALINES

Prepare Zucchini With Tomatoes

Here's an autumn vegetable combination that tastes good with fish.

Skillet Vegetables

¼ cup butter
1¼ cups thin strips onion
4 small zucchini (1 pound), unpared and cut into thin rounds
1 large green pepper, cut into thin strips
3 small (¾ pound) tomatoes, skin removed and quartered
1 teaspoon salt and ¼ teaspoon pepper
2 teaspoons sugar and ¼ teaspoon ground allspice

* * *

In a 10-inch or larger skillet, heat the butter; add onion and zucchini; mix well. Cover and cook gently, stirring a few times, until zucchini is tender—about 5 minutes. Add green pepper and tomatoes.

* * *

Mix salt, pepper, sugar and allspice, sprinkle over vegetables; mix well. Cover and cook gently until tomatoes are hot through — about 5 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

When you want to add a "pinch" of spice to a dish, use just enough to cover the point of a small kitchen knife.

Skewer Taffy Rolls for Kids to Enjoy

Feature new recipe introduced at the famous annual Apple Smorgasbord near Sparta, Michigan. Taffy Apple Rolls are a delicious breakfast treat — or, served on sticks, a fun treat for the coffee break, the youngsters' snacks — or even a Halloween Trick or Treat.

Taffy Rolls

2 pkgs. dry yeast
½ cup warm water
½ cup sugar
2 teaspoons salt
1 cup scalded milk
1 unbeaten egg
5-5½ cups all-purpose flour
½ cup cooking oil
¾ cup grated Michigan apple

Soften yeast in warm water. Add sugar and salt to milk; cool to luke-warm. Add yeast and egg; stir. Add 2 cups flour; beat until smooth. Add oil; stir. Add grated apple; stir.

* * *

Add remaining flour to form stiff dough. Knead. Cover; let rise at 85 degrees 1½ hours or 'till double.

Sprinkle 1 cup chopped nuts into 24 greased muffin cups. Mix and bring to boil 1 cup brown sugar, ½ cup butter, ½ cup corn syrup. Pour over nuts.

Cut dough into 24 pieces; form into balls; place over mixture. Cover; let rise 45 minutes.

Bake in preheated oven (375 degrees) about 20 minutes.

Place a tray over rolls, turn upside down for 10 minutes; lift muffin pan off. Insert wooden skewers. Makes 24.

Salmon Casserole Is Quick and Easy

If you haven't tried Salmon Casserole, by all means do. It's ever so good! For six hearty servings, prepare 4 oz. egg noodles following package directions; drain.

Combine with the noodles . . . a medium chopped onion, ½ cup sliced pitted ripe olives, a can condensed cheese soup, the oil and liquid drained from a pound can of salmon and 1½ teaspoons Worcestershire. Lightly mix in the salmon, broken into bite size pieces, and a pound can of drained peas.

Put in a casserole and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) about 30 minutes, until heated through.

Cabbage Came to America in Late 1600s

There's no written record of cabbage here in the U.S. until 1669. However, American folklore has it that the reason the Dutch paid $24.00 for Manhattan Island was because of the cabbages growing there.

No matter how this nutritious vegetable received its start here in the United States, there's no questioning that it has established itself as a family favorite.

Fresh green cabbage is a treat whether served as a side dish or the main entree, and since it's rich in Vitamin C, it proves to be an excellent source for your daily supply of this important food nutrient.

According to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, there are plentiful supplies of new cabbage arriving from Texas, Florida and California right now. Why not take advantage of these abundant supplies and serve cabbage at your next meal.

For a change, give your family shredded cabbage, with orange segments, ground peppers and topped with French dressing.

Combine Coffee, Coconut in Desserts

Here's a new candidate for the favorite pastime of decking ice cream in novel ways, a Hawaiian sauce. Golden brown and rich with coffee flavor, crunchy with coconut and crushed pineapple, it's truly special.

With instant decaffeinated coffee to spoon straight from the jar, it's as easy to add coffee flavor as vanilla to desserts. And if the ice cream isn't elegant enough already with this topping, top it with whipped cream, chopped nuts, or dates to make an even more exotic sundae.

An equally delicious coffee-flavored dessert from another part of the world is Coconut Mousse — a variation of the Italian specialty, tortoni.

This ice cream, made with whipped cream so it's rich and smooth, has coconut in place of the customary crushed macaroons that are more difficult to come by.

Spoon the dessert into fluted paper cups for freezing and serving. Place them on a cookie sheet and you won't have to juggle a dozen cups in the freezing compartment of the refrigerator. Aluminum cookie sheets conduct cold, too, so will make the dessert freeze faster.

Hawaiian Ice Cream Sauce

1 tablespoon cornstarch
½ cup sugar
½ cup water
1 can (8¾-oz.) crushed pineapple
1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon instant decaffeinated coffee
¼ cup flaked coconut
¼ teaspoon vanilla

Mix cornstarch and sugar in saucepan. Blend in water. Add pineapple and butter. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until sauce is clear and thickened — about 10 minutes. Remove from heat. Blend in instant coffee. Stir in coconut and vanilla.

Serve warm or chilled over ice cream or plain pudding. Makes about 1½ cups sauce, enough for 1 quart ice cream, or about 8 servings.

Coconut Mousse

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
¾ cup milk, scalded
⅔ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon butter
1½ cups (about) flaked coconut
Dash of salt
2 cups heavy cream
2½ tablespoons instant decaffeinated coffee

Or, use 2 envelopes whipped topping mix prepared according to package directions.

Add gelatin to water — let stand 5 minutes. Add scalded milk and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Then add sugar and salt; stir until dissolved. Chill until slightly thickened.

Meanwhile, melt butter in skillet. Add coconut and salt; saute until coconut is delicately browned. Crush slightly. Whip the cream, adding instant coffee to cream before whipping. Fold into gelatin mixture along with 1 cup of the coconut mixture.

Spoon into 12 individual china or paper souffle cups. Freeze until firm — at least 3 hours. Garnish with remaining sauteed coconut. Makes 12 servings.

HAWAIIAN ICE CREAM SAUCE — Beside weeping willow and water lily — that's the place to refresh your friends with a bowl of ice cream and sundae sauce. Make the sauce from decaffeinated coffee, coconut, and crushed pineapple, a variation of a famous Hawaiian specialty.

Try Recipes for Yam Pie and Pudding That Are New and Delicious

Among our annual fall festivals is Yambilee, the Yam Harvest Festival held in October in Opelousas, Louisiana. It is this colorful festival that provides inspiration for some new autumn dessert recipes.

Start out with some of that plentiful milk, using the dry form . . . instant nonfat dry milk crystals' .. . so that the desserts have an abundant look and flavor, but are short on calories and will set lightly after a harvest meal.

Cook up these splendid yams into an old-fashioned Yam Betty and a Spiced Yam Pie.

Spiced Louisiana Yam Pie

2 cups mashed, cooked yams, fresh, canned or instant
¾ cup firmly-packed dark brown sugar
2 tablespoons butter, melted
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon each: nutmeg and ginger
¼ teaspoon allspice
3 eggs
⅔ cup instant nonfat dry milk crystals
1 cup water
9-inch unbaked pie shell
1¼ cups whipped instant nonfat dry milk crystals, given below
Chopped candied ginger

Combine yams, sugar, butter, salt, spices and eggs; beat until well blended. Stir instant crystals into water; then add to yam mixture. Pour into pie shell. Bake in 375-degree (moderate) oven 1 hour until set near center. Cool thoroughly.

Garnish with whipped instant crystals, given below, and candied ginger. Makes 9-inch pie.

To whip instant nonfat dry milk crystals (makes about 1¼ cups)

● Mix ¼ cup instant nonfat dry milk crystals with ¼ cup ice water in bowl.

● Whip until soft peaks form (3 to 4 minutes). Add 1 tablespoon lemon juice.

● Continue whipping until stiff peaks form (3 to 4 minutes longer).

● Gradually add 2 tablespoons sugar.

★ ★ ★

Yam Betty with Spiced Topping

¾ cup firmly-packed dark brown sugar
½ cup dark seedless raisins
1 teaspoon each: salt and cinnamon
2 medium yams, cooked, peeled and sliced or 1 can (1 pound) yams, drained
2 large tart apples, pared and sliced
¼ cup lemon juice
¼ cup water
¾ cup flour
½ cup butter
1 medium apple
1¼ cups spiced whipped instant nonfat dry milk crystals

★ ★ ★

Mix ¾ cup of the sugar with raisins, salt and cinnamon; sprinkle over layers of yams and apple slices in 8-inch square baking dish. Combine 2 tablespoons of the lemon juice with water and add.

Blend flour and remaining sugar; cut in butter until crumbly and sprinkle on top. Bake in 350-degree (moderate) oven 30 minutes, until apples are tender.

★ ★ ★

Slice remaining apple; cook in remaining butter and lemon juice until almost tender. Arrange on betty. Serve warm with spiced whipped instant crystals. Makes 6 servings.

Power Use for Storm Water Eyed

WASHINGTON (AP)—A proposal to use Chicago's stormwaters to produce electric power and then be stored in underground caverns to reduce pollution in Lake Michigan is to be studied under a government grant.

The Public Health Service announced Wednesday a grant of $140,000 to the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago to help finance the first phase of a two-part feasibility study of a proposal to store combined sanitary wastes and storm waters until they can be pumped to a sewage treatment plant.

A rough preliminary estimate of the cost of envisioned project is $66 million, a spokesman said.

The service explained an estimated 59 million people in the U.S. live in urban areas served by sewers carrying combined storm waters and sanitary wastes and the Chicago project would be aimed at developing a method to control pollution from combined sewers.

LARGE VOLUMES

The large volumes of storm water flowing through the combined sewers during and immediately after storms cause overflows that carry as much as 95 per cent of a city's raw sewage into nearby waterways without proper treatment, the service said. The annual overflow is estimated to contain 3 to 5 per cent of a city's untreated sewage.

Under the Chicago plan, the stored waters would be held in a 30 X 60 foot tunnel from 10 to 20 miles long and about 600 feet underground. The plan would be applied initially to a 20-square-mile section of the Lake Calumet area.

★ ★ ★

Waters flowing into the caverns would be used to generate an estimated 200,000 kilowatts of electricity. Revenue from the sale of this power could be used to reduce the pollution and flood control costs.

400 Are Expected at PNH for U.S. Reading Confab

Approximately 400 educators from across the country are expected to attend a one-day conference on the teaching of reading at Pontiac Northern High School Saturday.

The conference is sponsored by the Pontiac Public Schools in cooperation with Science Research Associates, Inc., a Chicago-based educational publisher.

★ ★ ★

The conference will begin with registration at 8 a.m. and a welcome by William J. Lacy, assistant superintendent of instruction and pupil personnel for Pontiac schools.

Among topics to be discussed are use of remedial techniques and aids to improve reading and development of effective silent reading skills.

Fatal Bump Not His Fault

MILAN, Italy (AP) — A pedestrian who bumped into a motorcycle has been cleared of manslaughter charges. The motorcyclist died in the accident.

★ ★ ★

A Milan court ruled that the collision between man and motorcycle was not a crime. Both pedestrian Vito Galloro and cyclist Renato Lavazzo, fell to the ground. Galloro was hurt slightly but the fall killed Lavazzo.

★ ★ ★

Galloro told the court he could not help walking into the motorcycle because it was going too fast and too close to the curb as he stepped into the street.

4 Sentenced in Theft of Religious Painting

TERNI, Italy (AP) — Four men were sentenced Wednesday to prison terms ranging from four to six years for stealing a 14th century religious painting valued at $800,000.

★ ★ ★

Johnson Signs Clear-Air Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Johnson signed a clear-air bill Wednesday that includes authority to require future automobiles and diesel trucks to be equipped to prevent polluting exhaust gases.

"We can no longer allow this problem to go unchecked," the President said.

★ ★ ★

"The air that is the very essence of life has become a carrier for disease and early death," Johnson said, noting "from our automobiles alone, enough carbon monoxide is discharged daily to adversely pollute the combined areas of Massachusetts, Connecticut and New Jersey."

The President said the bill will require all 1968 model automobiles—including foreign models sold here—to meet federal control standards for exhaust.

FUNDS FOR RESEARCH

The legislation also authorizes appropriations of $96,480,000 over the next four years for research into methods for controlling air pollution caused by cars and trucks.

City Will Host Lakes Hearing

One of 3 in State on Water-Level Problem

Pontiac has been selected as one of three cities where legislative public hearings will be conducted in a search for the causes and cure of receding water levels in Michigan lakes.

The Pontiac session will be held Nov. 10, according to Rep. W. Scott Ensign, D-Battle Creek, chairman of a House Conservation subcommittee assigned to the program.

The time and place of the hearing has not yet been determined.

Ensign said that information and suggestions will be sought from lake property owners, various departments of state and local governments and interested citizens who have ideas for future action.

"The problem is extremely serious and highly complex," said Ensign. "Because the indicated causes of low lake levels differ in various parts of the state, we may find that remedial measures may have to be tailored to fit local situations."

TOTAL PROBLEM

"Our preliminary studies have made it clear that we must evaluate the total Michigan problem," he said.

"Corrective measures must be found, but it is important that safeguards be provided against the waste of time and money in attempting procedures already found to be impractical.

Ensign said that his committee will have the counsel and advice of the Michigan Department of Conservation, the Water Resources Commission, the Department of Agriculture, the Attorney General, county supervisors, drain commissioners and numerous other agencies and individuals.

The first hearing will be held in Battle Creek Nov. 8, and the second in Ludington the following day.

Veteran Professor Resigns MSU Post

EAST LANSING (AP) — The Michigan State University Board of Trustees Wednesday accepted the resignation of Prof. Robert Kramer to become vice president and administrator for the Kellogg Campus of California State Polytechnic College. Kramer, with MSU since 1947, has been director of the agricultural marketing and utilization center.

Weeks Of Back Pain Now Relieved

"After weeks of pain in my back and hips, I tried DeWitt's Pills—got wonderful relief," says Mrs. R. Gardner, Waterloo, Iowa.

People write in every day praising the remarkable relief they get with DeWitt's Pills.

DeWitt's Pills act fast with a proven analgesic to relieve pain of backache. Their mild diuretic action helps to eliminate retained fluids and flush out irritating bladder wastes that can cause physical distress. If pain persists, see your doctor. DeWitt's Pills often succeed where others fail—quickly relieve minor muscle aches and pains, too. Insist on the genuine DeWitt's Pills.

Over 1¼ million DeWitt's Pills are sold by druggists day after day after day, the world over—a tribute to their amazing action!

Pontiac Man on Probation in Assault Try

A Pontiac man was placed on three-years' probation yesterday for felonious assault in connection with an attempted abduction in Pleasant Ridge 20 months ago.

William D. Harris, 32, of 11 Grant, was arrested Jan. 27, 1964, in Pontiac after leading police from four communities on a 12-mile chase up Woodward.

The chase started in Pleasant Ridge after police there received a report that a man was trying to force a woman into a car. Police arrived just as the car sped from the scene without the woman.

Four shots were fired by Pontiac police, two of them hitting the trunk of the car, before Harris was captured at Motor and South Boulevard.

He pleaded guilty to felonious assault Sept. 21, 1965, though he was originally charged with assault with intent to murder.

An assault with intent to kidnap charge was dismissed against him.

Harris was sentenced by Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams and ordered to pay $200 court costs.

Can't Tie Patient's Attack to Staff Shortage---Martin

Dr. Donald W. Martin, medical superintendent of Pontiac State Hospital, today denied that staff shortages were directly related to the recent attack by a patient on a hospital employe.

★ ★ ★

Speaking at a hospital staff meeting, Martin termed the incident "most unfortunate" but added that such occurrences are always potential problems when dealing with mentally ill people.

Harry Lovell, 67, of 1435 Courtland, Avon Township, a hospital attendant, was beaten repeatedly last Saturday by a patient armed with a table leg.

Lovell is in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital but should be released in a day or two, Martin said.

★ ★ ★

The hospital official emphasized that the hospital has made every effort to fill its allotted 554 nursing-attendant positions but has experienced difficulty due to the relatively low wage level for these positions.

"Being in an industrial area in a booming economy, we can't compete," Martin said.

Even so, he said the hospital is only 32 employes short.

An overtime program, eqivalent to having an additional 19 employes, is in effect, leaving a net operational shortage of 13 persons, he said.

Martin said that Lovell was working in an area of 120 withdrawn-type patients who ordinarily are not inclined to hostility.

But he reiterated that the potential of an unprovoked incident such as happened last Saturday is always present at any such institution.

Woman Hospitalized After Telegraph Crash

Patricia K. Warner, 21, 64 Spokane, was listed in satisfactory condition today at Pontiac General Hospital after a two-car accident yesterday on Telegraph.

She was injured when her car collided with one driven by Ronald J. Milburn of 379 Elizabeth Lake, Waterford Township just south of West Huron, according to Pontiac police.

Complainant Drops Charge

A charge against a Pontiac man of assault with intent to commit murder was dropped yesterday at the request of the woman who signed the complaint.

Steve Mason, 38, of 403 Ditmar was accused of firing three shots at Augusta Hill, 30, of 233 Whittemore in a parking lot Sept. 27.

The request for dismissal was signed by Miss Hill at Municipal Court.

Local Man's Death Is Ruled Accidental

The Oct. 10 death of a 64-year-old Pontiac man, Agapito Gonzales, has been ruled accidental, according to Pontiac police detectives.

Sgt. John DePauw said information supplied by two witnesses, including the son-in-law of the dead man, satisfied investigators that Gonzales, of 663 Linda Vista, was killed by a fall.

Gonzales died at Pontiac General Hospital of a skull fracture suffered several hours earlier when he fell while getting into a car and struck his head.

9 U.S. Governors Arrive in Tokyo; Plan Viet Trip

TOKYO (AP) — Nine U. S. governors, including Gov. George Romney of Michigan here for the third annual U.S.-Japan Governors' Conferences said today they will go to South Viet Nam for a firsthand look at the war situation and then report to the people of their states.

★ ★ ★

The group is led by Gov. John H. Reed of Maine and includes Govs. Tim Babcock of Montana, Henry Bellmon of Oklahoma, John A. Burns of Hawaii, Clifford P. Hansen of Wyoming, Phillip H. Hoff of Vermont, Harold E. Hughes of Iowa, and Carl E. Sanders of Georgia.

The governors arrived Wednesday for a two-week stay in Japan that will include working sessions with their Japanese prefectural counterparts, meetings with Prime Minister Eisaku Sato and other top Japanese leaders, and a sightseeing tour of southern Japan.

Romney said there was much more support in Congress for President Johnson's Viet Nam policy than many newspapers make out.

BASIC DISAGREEMENT

"There is not much basic disagreement," Romney said. "There is a tendency, however, (on the part of public information media) to overstate the disagreement, and this is unfortunate because it misleads the North Vietnamese and the Communist Chinese."

★ ★ ★

The Michigan governor declared the United States "cannot play its proper role in world affairs if we permit this kind of aggression in Viet Nam."

Holding the youngster is a member of Family and Children Services.

Mental Health Law Is Topic

Officials of Pontiac State Hospital will meet tomorrow with probate judges of the hospital's 10-county region to discuss the most recent changes in state mental health laws.

★ ★ ★

Possible new policies and procedures also will be explored at the 10:45 a.m. meeting, according to Dr. Donald W. Martin, medical superintendent of the hospital.

★ ★ ★

Among these will be a proposal to conduct hearings at the hospital instead of in the courtroom.

Other discussion items will include welfare and hospitalization rates.

The dominant racial stock of the Philippines is Malay. Chinese, Americans and Spanish constitute the largest alien minorities, according to a State Department report.

Life Is Opening of Many Doors---Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Life is the opening of many doors.

One often opens them with trepidation, because they lead to situations one may never have faced before.

But there is a single door one may open without fear, confident of what lies on the other side. That is the door of memory. For most of us it becomes an increasing pleasure to open that door more often and take a restful mental stroll back down time's past corridor.

* * *

You've had a pretty long walk in that corridor yourself if you can remember when—

People bragged about having shaken the hand of John L. Sullivan, the heavyweight boxing champion.

LOOKED SLIMMER

Every fat man thought he looked slimmer in a vest and a double-breasted jacket.

A fellow never had to borrow money from his wife for his midday meal if he worked near a saloon that served a free lunch.

* * *

Most American homes still had mice in them.

Before the era when basements were turned into "rumpus rooms" they were often called "storm cellars."

SET FOR MATRIMONY

You knew a girl was ready for matrimony when she started learning how to knit a pair of men's socks.

* * *

Anyone who had to have a blood transfusion worried about whether it would cause him to assume the personality of the donor.

* * *

Every firehouse had a Dalmation dog, and it was usually called "Spot."

The only Americans who regularly cooked their meals outdoors in summer were the residents of hobo jungles.

ONLY CHILDREN

Only children believed in Santa Claus.

The owner of a new automobile didn't mind getting a scratch on the fender so much as he did a tear in the car's isinglass curtains.

In 1926 Gertrude Ederle, whose dad owned a delicatessen, swam the English Channel —and came home to the greatest ticker-tape parade Manhattan ever accorded a woman.

Many a widow managed to eke out a living in Prohibition days by selling home brew in her kitchen.

CHOCOLATE SODA

A chocolate soda with two dips of ice cream sold for 15 cents.

Children in a large family argued over which had to go first in the regular Saturday night bath lineup. Each one wanted to put off the ordeal and be last.

* * *

An intellectual was anyone who could recite William Cullen Bryant's "Thanatopsis" by heart. But mothers didn't like their daughters to go out with young men who could quote from Omar Khayyam's "Rubaiyat."

Nobody wrote underwater because no one had yet invented a pen that could do it.

People drank more buttermilk than skim milk.

HIGH SOCIETY

It was firmly believed by common folk that all high society ladies carried lorgnettes.

The best friend of boyhood was the neighborhood iceman. He would always let you eat the cold chips that fell on the floor of his wagon.

* * *

You knew the girl loved you if, when you took her to the local movie, she said, "Now, don't waste your money buying two sacks of popcorn. I can share yours."

Remember?

Judge to Take Teen Advice

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — A Milwaukee judge, who has teen-age traffic offenders visit the county morgue, plans to try another device in December.

County Court Judge F. Ryan Duffy Jr. said yesterday he'll use selected teen-agers in the jury box in teen-age driving cases.

* * *

"I'll ask them what they would recommend if they were in the judge's position. I'll take that into consideration before I decide the case," the judge said.

Of the morgue trips, Duffy says parents report "the experience resulted very definitely in improved driving habits on the part of their sons or daughters, and I kid you not."

Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Fire

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — En route to one blaze, city firemen had to stop and put out another fire right in front of them.

The fire truck's engine ignited. Dry powder was used to extinguish the flames, and the firemen continued their run.

And Valiant's the only one of the three with this 5-year/50,000-mile engine and drive train warranty:

Chrysler Corporation confidently warrants all of the following vital parts of its 1966 cars for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, during which time any such parts that prove defective in material and workmanship will be replaced or repaired at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business without charge for such parts or labor: engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excepting manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential and rear wheel bearings. Required maintenance: The following maintenance services are required under the warranty—change engine oil every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first; replace oil filter every second oil change; clean carburetor air filter every 6 months and replace it every 2 years; and every 6 months furnish evidence of this required service to a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer and request him to certify receipt of such evidence and your car's mileage. Simple enough for such important protection.

*Prices based on Manufacturers' Suggested Retail prices for lowest-priced 2-door sedan models of Valiant '100', Chevy II '100' and Falcon Standard exclusive of destination charges; state and local taxes, if any, whitewall tires and other optional equipment. Valiant's lowest-priced 6-cyl. model even priced below the lowest-priced Chevy II, 4-cyl., model, which is $2028.

And Valiant is just about the biggest car value—at the lowest price—around.

And you can dress up a beautiful new Valiant with a great group of new options including: Front wheel disc brakes. Bucket seats. 4-on-the-floor. Hot new V-8s.

CIA: Disguise Charge False

Senator Says Viets Impersonated Cong

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stephen M. Young says he has learned the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency hired South Vietnamese to dress as Viet Cong and kill men and rape women with the objective of discrediting the Communists. A CIA spokesman calls the charge "absolutely false."

★ ★ ★

And Rep. Cornelius E. Gallagher, D-N.J., said of the Ohio Democrat's allegation Wednesday: "It may well be that he spoke to a Viet Cong disguised as a CIA man."

Both Young and Gallagher were in South Viet Nam several months ago and were briefed there by American officials.

★ ★ ★

Young first told newsmen Wednesday that he got his information from a CIA man. Wednesday night, he denied he had said a CIA man was his source and said he got his information from an American military officer. He did not name the man.

POSE AS CONG

Nevertheless, Young said, "I confirmed through the CIA today that it employed some South Vietnamese nationals to pose as Viet Cong — and I take a dim view of that."

Gallagher said Young's statement "is appalling, and it reflects a carelessness with facts."

"It is obvious," Gallagher said in a statement, "that he misunderstood the essence of the briefing or failed to distinguish between the terms of identification of the opposing forces in Viet Nam. No one could possibly conceive such an exercise as Sen. Young describes."

★ ★ ★

Young, a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said he will ask the committee to investigate CIA activities.

Rasputin's Killer Still on Stand

NEW YORK (UPI) — Felix Youssoupoff, the princely assassin of Rasputin, one of history's most notorious lechers, submitted to cross-examination today in the trial of his $1.5-million suit against the Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS).

★ ★ ★

Prince Felix told yesterday how he persisted in efforts to kill Rasputin while a gramophone rasped out "Yankee Doodle Dandy" to kill the sound.

But the hulking Rasputin would not die easily. And the prince revealed that his motive was not to save "Holy Mother, Russia," but solely because he despised the "mad monk" for his debauchery.

Youssoupoff's account of the Dec. 16, 1916, killing became a best-selling book in the 1930s, and since has been the subject of movie and television dramas, the latest produced only two years ago by CBS.

★ ★ ★

But the prince contends that the "sexual atmosphere" of that drama and statements attributed to him in it invaded his privacy.

WOULDN'T LEAVE

Prince Felix testified that he asked Rasputin to leave St. Petersburg (now Leningrad), but the "holy man" refused.

"He told me he was a German agent and for that he had to stay," the frail 79-year-old prince said. At the time, Germany was beating Russia on the battlefield and the Russian peasants were on the verge of revolt.

Some say Rasputin's scandalous orgies, which included the cream of Czarist society, fanned the flames of revolt.

★ ★ ★

He is said to have seduced two grand duchesses and organized "religious" debaucheries right under the pious eyes of the mystic czarina.

★ ★ ★

Prince Felix said he persuaded the Siberian peasant to come to the family's Moika Palace, where he and three other young nobles waited with poisoned tea, wine and cakes.

Disappeared Year Ago Today

Mobster's Kidnaping Is Still Mystery

NEW YORK (AP) — In the heat of a probe of organized crime, Joe Bananas, gangland baron, disappeared one year ago today in a sidewalk kidnaping.

Real or hoax crime, he still is missing, despite a search ranging from Mafia haunts in the United States to Sicily, the birthplace of the secret brotherhood of the underworld.

On the same day that two gunmen snatched him in the early morning hours of Oct. 21, Joe Bananas was to have appeared before a federal grand jury investigating the rackets. The jury still is sitting, its probe now broadened to include the disappearance itself.

New York City police list the case as open, but sources indicated that detectives are no nearer a solution.

EXTENSIVE INVESTIGATION

An FBI spokesman would say only that "an extensive and intensive investigation is being conducted."

The Manhattan lawyer present when Bananas vanished, William Power Maloney, was asked whether he believed Bananas to be alive or dead.

★ ★ ★

"I'm as much in the dark as I was the night it happened," he answered.

Bananas, identified in Senate testimony as ruler of one of New York City's five Mafia "families," had dined with his Tucson, Ariz., attorney, Lawrence P. D'Antonio, Maloney, and two of Maloney's law associates at an East 45th Street steakhouse.

SHOCK OF MY LIFE

After midnight, Bananas accompanied Maloney to the latter's Park Avenue residents. Bananas stood beside him while the lawyer paid the cab fare.

"Suddenly, I got the shock of my life when I saw this guy grappling with Joe," Maloney reported.

★ ★ ★

"As I started toward the man who grabbed him first, the other one appeared and he also had a gun. The first one said in a loud, clear voice, 'Come on, Joe, my boss wants to see you.'

"Joe said, 'What's going on here? Who are these guys?'

POINTED AT ME

"I followed the man with Joe and the second one backed after them, holding the gun and pointing it right at me. He was about 25 feet from me when he fired the gun once.

"The men put Joe in a late model, two-door beige car. The headlights were on. I couldn't see if anyone else was in the car, because it was too dark. The car was pointed east on 36th Street, just off Park Avenue.

★ ★ ★

"Joe was still struggling as it sped off."

Thus did 59-year-old Joe Bananas — born Joseph Bonanno in Sicily — disappear.

Several witnesses say they heard the shot, but police did not find the ejected shell. Maloney was not hurt.

Maloney, once an assistant U.S. attorney and chief of the trial section of the Justice Department, repeatedly has expressed the belief that it was a real, not staged, kidnaping.

★ ★ ★

Police and the FBI have withheld their opinions.

The DRC Story

SADDLING 3,000 WINNERS IS A HAPPY FAMILY AFFAIR

The Record Makers.

They lend the touch of distinction to Sports. They provide excitement and added interest for both participants and spectators.

Whenever baseball fans assemble, they inevitably discuss Babe Ruth's home run achievements, which found him leading the American League 12 times within a 14 season span. Or the fiery Ty Cobb's nine successive batting championships; or the pitching feats of Cy Young, who scored an amazing 511 victories during his career.

In Golf, it will be Bobby Jones' fantastic Grand Slam of 1930; in Tennis, Big Bill Tilden's incomparable string of championships at Forest Hills and Wimbledon; in Boxing, Rocky Marciano's unbroken string of 49 heavyweight conquests; in Football, Oklahoma's 47 straight collegiate victories.

We have a Record-Maker and a Record-Breaker at the Detroit Race Course, too. His career extends over a span longer than that enjoyed by top stars in other fields. Consistency is the keynote to his amazing achievements.

Marion H. Van Berg is a 70-year-old thoroughbred owner. He was a solid part of Michigan racing before I came on the scene in 1949. I am proud that in the intervening 17 seasons he always has raced with us. During that period, he has been the leading owner at the DRC 10 seasons and the runner-up five other years.

"Mr. Van" again is the top DRC owner. Each time he enters the Winner's Circle he moves nearer a goal never reached in racing's long history. He now has 2,920 victories and before year's end . . . or most certainly, early in 1966 . . . will have his 3,000th winner.

Three Thousand Winners . . .

Every year since 1948, "Mr. Van" has ranked nationally among the top three owners in total victories. Eight times he has led the list, the last five consecutively.

This year, "Mr. Van" is the national leader both in the number of victories and in money won. Leadership in the latter division usually goes to one of the blue-chip stables, whose rosters are dotted with top stakes performers.

For a racing operation like Van Berg's there is strength in numbers. A year ago, for example, 167 horses raced in his colors. He may top that this season. When the DRC season opened, he had 65 horses in his string here. There were other divisions racing in Chicago and Omaha.

The Van Berg operation is largely a Family Affair. His son, Jack, currently is training the horses at the DRC. Earlier in the season, son-in-law Bob Irwin was in charge. Irwin now is handling the division in Chicago.

Being a champion, or a leader, in any sport takes great ability and dedication. "Mr. Van" possesses both. He is at the track regularly every morning to supervise the training operation. Each afternoon he is in the Paddock when his horses are saddled.

Two other stables racing with us, those of Detroiter T. A. Grissom and W. Hal Bishop, also rank high on the national leader list.

A record-breaking personality like "Mr. Van" is another of the many reasons you will find a visit to the Detroit Race Course interesting and pleasure-filled.

We have top racing and fine facilities for your enjoyment. There are excellent dining terrace restaurants, "The Winner's Circle" and "The Mile Terrace"; a colorful old-world tavern, "Ye Olde Tired Horse", beef buffets and snack bars.

Our new Clubhouse is one of the Showplaces of the Sports World. We race daily until November 6. I invite you to visit us soon.

DELBERT GARMON

Is Kidnaper of 19 Set to Surrender?

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (UPI) — A Wichita Falls lawyer today planned to meet with the family of Delbert Harmon Garmon, 26, kidnaper of 19 persons, to try to arrange for his surrender.

Attorney Philip S. Kouri said Garmon contacted "a member of his family" to request that they obtain a lawyer for him.

Kouri quoted the family as saying Garmon wants to surrender to someone "other than a policeman, who he fears might take a shot at him."

Garmon, a former salesman and two-time convict, has kidnaped 19 persons in a two-week flight through Texas and Oklahoma.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert H. Garmon Sr. said they had not talked to their son. Sources in Wichita Falls said he was believed to have telephoned his sister, with whom he was "very close."

MOTHER, SISTER

Kouri said he would meet with Garmon's mother and sister at noon in Wichita Falls. "By 5 p.m., we will have a statement about where and when this thing (the surrender) will be taking place," the lawyer said.

"We don't want Delbert to give himself up until we can get something figured out so he can surrender without getting killed," the fugitive's mother said.

"These policemen are going to shoot him down the minute they see him, because he has said he wasn't giving up," she said. "Otherwise, they are not going to give him a chance.

★ ★ ★

"The boy isn't as mean as what they make out he is," she said. "He's not going to hurt anybody. The boy has died a thousand deaths already."

TERRORIZING FARMERS

Garmon was believed to be in Dallas after two weeks of terrorizing farm communities of Southern Oklahoma.

Elbert Dugan, a Frederick, Okla., farmer told Oklahoma police yesterday Garmon forced him to drive to Dallas earlier in the day. Dugan said Garmon came to his home.

"He gave me the choice of giving him my car or of driving him to Dallas," Dugan told police. Dugan said he let Garmon out of his truck near downtown Dallas then drove all the way back to Davidson, Okla. before notifying authorities.

★ ★ ★

"I think he would like to give himself up," Dugan said, "but he's afraid of the electric chair."

DALLAS POLICE

Dallas police got a tip at mid-afternoon yesterday saying Garmon was seen in the northern part of town. Officers responded but were unable to locate Garmon.

Garmon's flight started Oct. 5 when his wife, Nina, fled to a service station, saying her husband tried to kill her.

While Mrs. Garmon was talking to a policeman, Garmon drove up, pulled a pistol, grabbed the officer's gun and fled, firing two slugs at the policeman and his wife. Both shots missed.

Since then, Garmon has kidnaped a total of 19 persons, none of whom have been harmed. One of his hostages escaped, and he released the others.

The fantastic dodobird, once native to the island of Mauritius in the Indian Ocean, was descended from a pigeon. The turkey-sized bird survived on the island until 1681, when it succumbed to destruction by man and animals, particularly pigs.

Trading at Peak

Mart Races to Record Highs

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market raced to record highs on the week's heaviest trading.

After two sessions in which more stocks fell than rose, the market again was on the upbeat.

Great trading interest was displayed in an assortment of lower-priced issues. These spurted in active trading.

At the same time, a fair showing was made by a wide range of the usual market wheelhorses. Gains of fractions to a point or so were the general rule among these, although there was a sprinkling of small losers.

MOTORS HIGHER

The trend was generally higher among motors, rails, steels, building materials, chemicals, nonferrous metals, electronics, drugs and electrical equipments.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 1.2 at 351.9 with industrials up 2.2, rails up .3 and utilities up .5.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 3.62 at 952.09.

Both averages were above their record closing highs, on an interim basis.

Prices were generally higher in heavy trading on the American Stock Exchange. National Video "A" advanced about 6.

MPO Video "A" and Alloys Unlimited were ahead about 3 each, Savoy Industries 2.

Corporate and U.S. Treasury bonds showed little change. Trading was light.

Comet Heads Into Oblivion

Astronomers Watch Celestial Spectacle

HONOLULU (AP) — Blazing Ikeya-Seki, first comet in 83 years bright enough to be seen in daylight, whipped around the sun today and headed back into oblivion.

Astronomers here and on the American mainland watched the celestial spectacle across 93 million miles of space. Its 80,000-mile-diameter head was followed by a streaming 20-million-mile tail.

Buts its brilliance was mostly overpowered by the sun, which it approached to within 300,000 to 800,000 miles. Not one observer aboard a National Aeronautics and Space Administration jet plane saw the comet.

From the ground, however, Dr. George Van Biesbroeck, one of the world's foremost authorities on comets and a member of the airborne NASA expedition, viewed it plainly.

'EXTREMELY BRIGHT'

He called it "extremely bright — 1,000 times brighter than the planet Venus."

Clouds blocked Hawaiians' view of the comet late Wednesday, but earlier it could be seen without binoculars, just south of the sun.

The comet left scientists puzzled by several mysteries. Delicate instruments detected internal heat and the presence of sodium, calcium and iron. Comets were believed to be cold and made up of nitrogen gas loosely combined with chunks of rock.

Exec Handles Unit's Awards

Felix Anderson, vice president of Johnson & Anderson, 2300 Dixie, Waterford Township, was the awards chairman last night at the annual meeting of the Michigan Association of Consulting Engineers and Land Surveyors in Detroit.

Anderson is a Michigan director of the association.

Top award for the most original engineering project in Michigan was presented to Williams and Works, a Grand Rapids consulting engineering firm, for a water treatment plant at Alma.

Gordon E. McCallum, U.S. assistant surgeon general, was the guest speaker. He outlined the availability of federal funds for solving water pollution problems.

Business Notes

Bernard J. Kelly of 5135 Kellen, Bloomfield Township, has been appointed staff engineer in charge of administrative activities of the newly created automotive safety engineering department at General Motors Technical Center, Warren.

Kelly will be responsible for special projects in safety engineering as assistant to Louis C. Lundstorm.

Named assistant comptroller for financial controller and analysis at Chrysler Corp. is Clarence C. Benedict of 621 Lone Pine, Bloomfield Hills.

Benedict joined Chrysler in May 1957 and has served as assistant treasurer of the corporation.

Higbie Manufacturing Co. of Rochester has announced the appointment of Walter J. Peel, 611 S. Squirrel, Pontiac Township, as chief engineer, and Robert A. Walton of Royal Oak as plant manager of the company's Avon Tube Division.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

(Q) "My husband has not been well the past three years and we have only a medium income. Our major asset is our own three-family home. We bought Commonwealth Oil at 12¼; when it began to go down two years ago we sold at a loss. We were advised to replace it with Cinerama at 15¾, now down to 3. Should we sell or hold it? We have $2,000 to invest and would like to regain our losses. What do you suggest." J. L.

(A) Cinerama is highly speculative, has operated at a deficit in recent years and in the first half of 1965. The shares have periodically run up to higher levels and I think you should watch closely and if your stock moves higher, I would eliminate it.

For your $2,000 investment, I would go only into conservative growth situations. Winn-Dixie Stores and General Foods are two such issues and I commend them to you.

(Q) "I am the treasurer of an investment club with 17 members. We have been in operation for one year and thus far have contributed $160 per member. If an eighteenth member were to join us, would he contribute the aforementioned $160 or would he pay one-seventeenth of the club's worth? What would be the situation if a member withdrew?" C. W.

(A) If you decide to enlarge your club, you should regard yourselves as an open-end investment trust in miniature. If your individual shares in the club have increased in value, you must take cognizance of this fact and if they have decreased, that aspect must also be recognized. When taking in a new member, determine the present net asset value of your entire fund. Divide this by 17 and the new member will come in on equal terms with the old. The same procedure should be followed if a member quits.

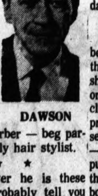
Hair Styling Coming Thing?

Barbering Big Business

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — Wish your husband looked less like a bald eagle and more like either of the senators Kennedy? Wish your boyfriend looked more like Tony Curtis? Wish your schoolboy son looked less like a prickly pear and more like Prince Charles?



DAWSON

Madam, you should consult your friendly barber — beg pardon, your friendly hair stylist.

But which ever he is these days, he can probably tell you that the ancient craft of cutting men's hair has developed into a billion-dollar annual hair care industry.

The only recession the barbers see ahead is that of hairlines on the masculine head. Industry spokesmen say they have ways of handling that and that more men than you may suspect are taking to the latter-day techniques of camouflage.

MORE BARBERS

There are still more barbers than men's hair stylists in these United States — some 300,000 of the basic type and some 18,000 of the newer clique. But the latter say their number is growing fast.

And they hope that the nation's youth training programs will produce a new flock of apprentice barbers. From such will be recruited the hair stylists of tomorrow. New schools are springing up to teach latter-day barbering techniques.

★ ★ ★

Both barbers and stylists will be gathering here next week for the annual national barber show. And there'll be a lot more on display than just shears, clippers and whisk brooms. New products include hair gels, hair setting lotions, sprays and dyes — that's right, for masculine purchasers. And on display for the whiffing will be a host of bottles labeled "true masculine scents."

"The young barber of today has a chance to regain the high status of Figaro in Rossini's 'The Barber of Seville'," Hal A. Salzman says.

PRIME CONSULTANT

"Then the barber was a prime consultant on high fashion, business and wordly affairs and even practiced dentistry and minor surgery."

Salzman wears three hats. He is president of Odell, which makes tonics and other preparations for the care of hair and scalp. He is chairman of the Tonsorial Information Council. And he is chairman of the Barber Shop Promotion Committee of Beauty, and Barbers Manufacturing Association.

★ ★ ★

He was wearing that third hat when he said in an interview that hair styling is spreading so fast across the land, in small as well as big cities, because today's business pace is convincing more and more men that they must look fit and youthful — to their business associates if they want to hold their job or advance — and to their wives and themselves for more personal but just as compelling reasons.

Thus, says Salzman, the making and fitting of toupees and other expensive hairpieces for balding men is mushrooming in the hair care industry.

BARBER IN DEMAND

But the scalpbone of the industry is still the barber himself. He now wields an electric-driven hot comb, or a razor instead of shears, or even a hair net built for masculine heads on which a hairdo is being shaped. And his clients may have too little or too much hair, or an unbecoming part. Still, it's the barber or stylist who has to come to the rescue every week, or every two or three weeks.

"Electronic computers will never cut men's hair," says Salzman.

Senate OKs Modified Sugar Quota Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Johnson administration was in a strong bargaining position today to get much of what it wants in legislation to control sugar marketing in the United States.

The Senate passed a modified version of the President's sugar program yesterday, putting the administration in a stronger position than it would have been with approval of its own bill. The vote was 69 to 16. The bill now goes to conference to resolve differences between House and Senate versions.

The legislation establishes quotas for all sugar marketing in this country by both domestic and foreign producers. It boosts annual domestic quotas for domestic products by a total of 580,000 tons through 1971.

But the foreign quotas, eagerly sought because of the premium price the United States pays for sugar, were extended only through 1967. This move gave the administration a strong hand in seeking to restore the country-by-country quotas it failed to get in a bill approved by the House last week.

* * *

The 1967 provision would reprive House Agriculture Committee Chairman Harold D. Cooley, D-N. C., of a lever he has used for years to get approval of foreign quotas he favors.

DOMESTIC QUOTAS

Through the years Cooley has used the threat of killing the whole bill to force sugar-state legislators, anxious for approval of the domestic quotas, to approve his foreign quotas. If the foreign quotas were extended only to 1967 while domestic quotas continued until 1971, Cooley would lose this lever.

Soon after the Senate passed its version of the bill, Cooley told a reporter the House would stand firm on its plan to let the new foreign quotas run through 1971.

Homes for Homeless

Fortune Spent on Boys

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Her spare time and modest savings were the assets Miss Ettie Lee used to start a $3-million fortune —all the profits from which she spends on homeless boys.

* * *

Miss Lee, 79, a retired Los Angeles schoolteacher, and an aunt of Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall, earned the money investing in real estate over the past 35 years. All her profits go to the Ettie Lee Homes, Inc., the 14 ranches for boys she maintains. She lives on her teacher's pension.

Her explanation:

"As a teacher, I noticed quite a pattern in boys having difficulties. They were boys who didn't have a good home situation.

MAN'S WORLD

"This is a man's world. It takes a man to develop a boy into a man. Ninety per cent of the boys in trouble were from homes where there was no strong male figure in their lives.

"I tried to find homes for these boys, but I was unsuccessful. I made up my mind then that I'd have to be like the little red hen and do the job myself."

This meant she'd need plenty of money, and she never made more than $300 a month as a teacher. But she saved what she could.

Her first real estate deal came in 1930, when she paid $1,000 for a lot in the Wilshire district.

"I sold it two years later for $5,000," she recalls.

Then she began looking for larger investments.

"I must have bought and sold 50 apartment houses since I started operating," she said.

By 1950 — four years after she retired from teaching — she had enough resources for her project. She says that when she dies her estate will go to continuing the projects.

Miss Lee said it cost from $40,000 to $50,000 to build each home.

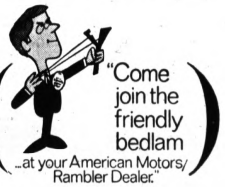
Where can you see the '66 cars the "Big 3" should have built, but didn't?

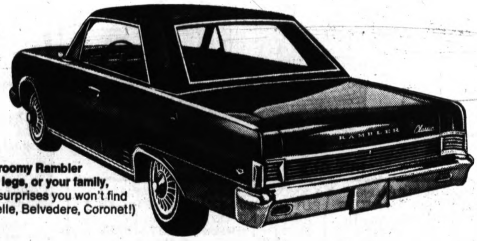
At your friendly (Authorized) Giant-Killer



Friendly crowds are flocking to friendly Giant-Killer Headquarters to see the 4 new lines of '66 cars that challenge the "Big 3" with quality built in, not added on. And they come out smiling every time.

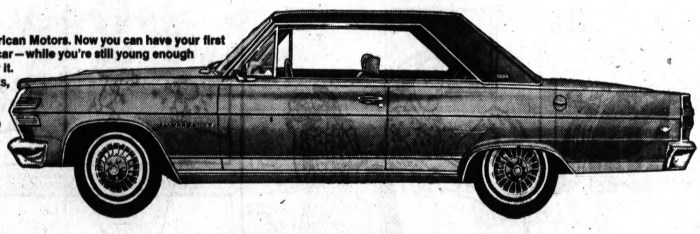
Meet the Rogue.
New razzle-dazzle Rambler (yes, Rambler!) outperforms every other car in its class.
("Do Rogues really come with rally stripes?" "No, but with the big new engine they drive that way.") More standard horsepower than Corvair! Valiant! Falcon! And you, too, Mustang!

Big new standard Six. 199 cubes of power, torque, and thrust. (128 horses! Even GM, Chrysler, and Ford don't match that in Rogue's fighting weight and size.) Shift-Command Transmission. Sporty option on the floor (with optional 232 cu. in. Six). Two ways to handle all that power: (a) Shift gears yourself; (b) Set it on automatic. Reclining bucket seats. They're standard equipment. Try and find these sporty seats in Rogue's competitors. Make a date with the Rogue and the eight other '66 Rambler Americans today.



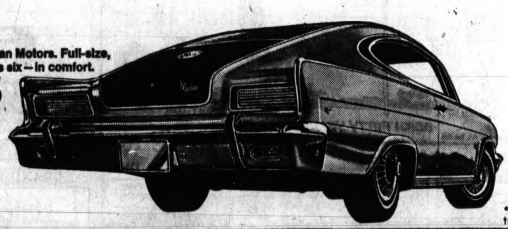
This is Rebel. New zoomy, roomy Rambler doesn't cramp your style, or your legs, or your family, or your pocketbook. (With surprises you won't find in Fairlane, Chevelle, Belvedere, Coronet!)

Three big V-8 options...two powerhouse 6's. Even our standard Six is bigger than the one in Fairlane, Chevelle, Belvedere, and Coronet. Double-Safety brake system. Only one "Big 3" car (and American Motors) make this vital safety feature standard equipment: Cadillac. Roomiest Rambler ever. More momroom, dad-room, and kid-room than any of Rebel's "Big 3" rivals. Surprised? Wait till you see the seven other '66 Rambler Classics.



The DPL by American Motors. Now you can have your first luxury car—while you're still young enough to enjoy it.
(Coil-spring seats, like Cadillac. Double-Safety brakes, like Cadillac. Price? Like Impala, Fury, Galaxie.†)

Living room elegance. Thick cut-pile carpeting. Paneling with the hand-rubbed walnut look. Power disc brakes. Cost extra? Yes. But they're about the safest kind of stopping power even in pouring rain. Combine them with our Double-Safety brake system and you have brakes not available on Cadillac, Imperial, or Continental. Adjustable steering wheel. This convenient extra tilts to seven different (relaxing) positions. Be sure to see the DPL and the seven other Ambassadors.



Marlin '66 by American Motors. Full-size, family-size sports fastback seats six—in comfort.
(Even with bucket seats.* How? Read other side.)

Bucket seats that sit 3 in front?* Simple: our special sub-cushion between the buckets. For a 2+2, pull down front and rear armrests. (Let's see any other fastback do that.) Fastback power! If you ever need it, our optional 327-cu. in. V-8 takes you from zero to 60 in 10 seconds flat! Two super-sporty transmissions: Four-on-the-floor. And there's Shift-Command. (Stick shift for you, automatic for your wife.) Be a sport. See the Marlin quick!

By JACOBY AND SON

Fortune continued to favor the brave in the final session of the international match when the Italians contracted for three no-trump while the Americans stopped at two.

JACOBY

The three no-trump call by the Italian North was a gamble but one of those gambles which pay off in both rubber bridge and international competition.

If West had opened his fourth best club the chances are that the gamble would have turned out to be a losing one, but West made the book lead of the jack. East had to play his queen and South was in with the ace.

He led the ace of spades only to find out about the bad break in that suit. Then he led a low diamond to dummy's ten. East took his queen, but the defense was powerless from then on to stop South from making two diamonds, two hearts, two spades and three clubs. Of course, South finessed dummy's nine of clubs in order to get the third club trick.

The Italian bidding according to the Neopolitan club system is given in the box. The one club opening was artificial and showed at least 17 points. The one heart response was also artificial and showed one king and at least a queen and jack extra.

The two club bid was a Stayman type request for a major suit and the jump to three no-trump was that slight gamble mentioned earlier. South knew his partner held at least a king and a queen and if he also held a decent major suit, South had good support for it.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding four no-trump over your three spades your partner bids four spades. What do you do now?

Sukarno Ignores Critics, Hopes to Keep Friendly Ties With China

By ANTOINE YARED

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Despite mounting criticism of Communist China, President Sukarno seems intent on maintaining friendly relations with Peking.

This might prolong the Indonesian crisis. The army — which in effect is now ruling Indonesia — has always viewed with dissatisfaction Sukarno's policy of close relationship with Red China.

* * *

Some army-controlled newspapers have dropped hints that Peking backed the Indonesian Communist party, the PKI, in its involvement in the Oct. 1 coup attempt.

Other papers and some officials as well have expressed disappointment over Communist China's attitude toward the Oct. 1 events.

A speaker at an anti-Communist demonstration Wednesday accused the Chinese of supporting the rebels. He even suggested that Indonesia should break diplomatic relations with Peking.

* * *

Antara, the official news agency now controlled by the army, today published a resolution adopted at a Moslem youth rally which said the Moslem youths would demand a break in relations if Peking continued its attacks on the army's crackdown on the Communists.

* * *

Relations between the two countries deteriorated further when Peking charged that 40 armed Indonesian soldiers sacked the Chinese commercial counselor's office in Jakarta last Saturday.

* * *

Peking protested the incident, demanded an apology and requested punishment of those involved. Military sources said they knew of no such attack.

MAINTAIN PACT

But on Tuesday, after a meeting of Sukarno with his three deputy premiers, Chaerul Saleh, third deputy premier, said the four leaders were determined to maintain the Peking-Hanoi Phnom Penh-Jakarta axis Sukarno proclaimed last August.

* * *

Sukarno has failed so far to stop the army's campaign against the Peking-aligned Indonesian Communist party. It remains to be seen whether he can renew Indonesia's close ties with Peking, whose foreign policy line it has followed more than a year.

Howe Sparks All-Star Win, 5-2

Gordie's Play Halts Montreal

Detroit Star Scores 2, Assists Twice

MONTREAL (AP) — Gordie Howe, who's played in more All-Star games than any other player in National Hockey League history, showed the Montreal Canadiens why in the 19th annual classic Wednesday night.

Howe, at 37, starting his 20th season with Detroit, scored two goals and assisted on two others in sparking the All-Stars 5-2 comeback triumph over the Stanley Cup champion Canadians in a packed Montreal Forum.

Montreal had taken a 2-0 lead in the second period on goals by Jean Beliveau and Jacques Laperriere, when Howe and Chicago's dynamic Bobby Hull sparked the All-Stars' rally.

Howe and Hull set up Detroit's Normie Ullman for the Stars' first goal midway through the second period. Then the Black Hawks' star tied the game at 16:35, just four seconds after Montreal's Dave Balon was penalized for holding. Howe and Boston's Murray Oliver assisted.

TIE BREAKER

Howe broke the tie with 41 seconds remaining in the period, steering Ullman's pass behind Monreal goalie Charlie Hodge.

In the third period, Boston's Johnny Bucyk made it 4-2, with assists going to Oliver and Detroit's Bill Gadsby.

Howe's second goal of the game and his ninth in All-Star play came in the last two minutes while he was killing a penalty. He stole the puck at the Canadiens' blue line and went in alone, beating Hodge with a waist-high shot.

Howe, whose 16 career points is an All-Star game scoring record, had been tied with Maurice Richard, who also scored seven All-Star goals. Howe's seven assists tie him in that department with Toronto's Red Kelly.

★ ★ ★

Four of the All-Star goals went past Hodge with Gump Worsley, who alternated in the Montreal nets, allowing the other. Glenn Hall went all the way for the All-Stars when Detroit's Roger Crozier turned up sick after the pre-game workout.

Billiard Champ Edged

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Jimmy Moore of Albuquerque, N.M., whipped Joe Balsis, defending champion, 326 to 200 Wednesday night in the third block of the 1,000-point, five-block world's pocket billiard challenge match.

Balsis, of Minersville, Pa., leads the match, 600 to 554. Moore made runs of 84 and 50. Balsis' highest run was 32.

SPORTS

AP Photofax

TWO FOR ONE — Ken Boyer (center), star third baseman for the St. Louis Cardinals for the past 11 years, was traded to the New York Mets yesterday for third baseman Charlie Smith (left) and pitcher Al Jackson (right).

Cards Ship Boyer to New York Mets

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Ken Boyer, one of the greatest third basemen in St. Louis Cardinal history, has become the first to feel the bite of the Cardinals' plummet from world champion to seventh place in the National League.

Boyer, the Cardinal captain, was traded Wednesday to the New York Mets for left-hander pitcher Al Jackson and third baseman Charley Smith. An unnamed triple-A player also will be sent to the Mets.

"If they started making trades, it figures that the older players would be the first to go," said the 34-year-old, $60,000-a-year power hitter.

If this is true, Boyer may be followed by others. Shortstop Dick Groat, who fell from a .292 batting average in 1964, to .254 last season, will be 35 next month. Left-hander Curt Simmons, who dropped to a 9-15 record after an 18-9 season, is 36. And right-hander Bob Purkey, who was ineffective at 10-9, is 36.

MVP IN 1964

Boyer, however, was the biggest disappointment. Only one year ago, he was named the National League's Most Valuable Player. He was the hero who helped the Cardinals win the pennant with a .296 batting average, 24 home runs and a league-leading 119 runs batted in.

As a result, he shouldered much of the blame in the 1965 collapse, hitting only .260 with 13 homers and 74 RBI. He was hampered much of the season by a back injury.

Now, after 11 seasons with the Cardinals in which he hit 255 home runs, drove in 1,001 runs and averaged just under .300, Boyer is in a position of having to make a comeback.

"Seventeen years is a long time," he mused, referring to his association with the Cardinals. "I wouldn't be truthful if I didn't say I was sorry to be leaving.

BROTHER WITH YANKS

"But my brother, Clete, has always enjoyed playing in New York (with the Yankees) and if there is anything on the other side of leaving, it will be playing again for Bing Devine (a Mets' official). Devine is a former general manager of the Cardinals.

"We hate to see a player of Ken's caliber go," General Manager Bob Howsam of the Cardinals said. "But we couldn't pass up a chance to get a man like Smith, a power hitter and a good fielder, and a fine starting pitcher like Jackson."

Smith, 28, has bounced around with several teams for six years, only three as a regular. With the Mets he has hit .244 and .239 in two seasons, slammed 36 homers and driven in 120 runs.

Jackson, who will be 30 in December, has been with the Mets for four season, with records of 2-20, 13-17, 11-16 and 8-20. He features a sinking fast ball.

KNICKS FOILED — Rookie Joe Strawder (center) of the Detroit Pistons breaks up a shot and rebound try by two New York Knicks in last night's NBA game at Cobo Arena. New York players are John Green (11) and Len Chappell. The Pistons won, 116-103.

Majors Hoping to Draft Gabe Paul

CHICAGO (AP) — There is growing sentiment among the major league club owners to set the wheels in motion for a draft of Gabe Paul, part owner of the Cleveland Indians, as the next commissioner of baseball.

The inability of the owners to muster appreciable support Wednesday for a single candidate outside the confines of baseball has changed the moguls thinking again.

★ ★ ★

Most of the owners once again favor a ruler from their own ranks.

Paul's most enthusiastic supporter is Bill DeWitt, owner of the Cincinnati Reds. DeWitt originally proposed Paul but the president of the Indians subsequently asked that he not be considered.

"And I put it in writing, too," Paul emphasized.

Undaunted, DeWitt said he plans to try again.

CAN CHANGE

"A man can always change his mind," said DeWitt, "especially if it is in the best interests of baseball.

What started out as a list of 18 candidates when the club owners gathered Tuesday was reduced substantially with five men emerging as the leading candidates before the new development.

These five were Eugene M. Zuckert, secretary of the Air Force; Curtis E. LeMay, former chief of staff and head of the Strategic Air Command; G. Keith Funston, president of the New York Stock Exchange; Joe Cronin, president of the American League, and Louis Carroll, legal counsel for the National League.

Not one of these, however, could gather enough support to warrant even an unofficial ballot. Fourteen votes — seven from each league — are required for election.

When that fact became obvious, the co-chairmen of the screening committee, John Fetzer of Detroit and John Galbreath of Pittsburgh requested what they call an "advisory ballot," confining the candidates to men in baseball.

Ballots were passed out and the owners were asked to name their choice. Paul, according to reports, came through strongly in the unofficial balloting as did Cronin and Carroll.

The owners entrusted the screening committee with the job of contacting and interviewing the candidates and reporting back with recommendations to the Dec. 2 meeting.

The committee was enlarged by the addition of owners Phil Wrigley of the Chicago Cubs and Bob Reynolds of the California Angels.

"We will not recommend anyone without unanimous agreement," said Fetzer.

It has been reported that the next commissioner will be offered a seven-year term at $100,000 a year, $25,000 more than Frick's salary.

Waterford Is Homecoming Foe

PNH Needs 'Bounces'

Now that No. 13 is in the books, Pontiac Northern's Huskies hope that the football will start taking a few lucky ounces in their favor.

The Huskies, who have lost 13 straight games over the last two seasons, will be striving to get on the winning side of ledger Friday at Wisner Stadium when they play Waterford. The kickoff will be at 8 p.m.

★ ★ ★

In addition to ending a long winning drought, the Huskies have a couple of other incentives going for them.

A victory over Waterford coupled with a Walled Lake upset by Farmington would give PNH a tie for second in the final Inter-Lakes League standings.

This game also is Northern's homecoming.

EYE TITLE SHARE

Waterford also has a thing or two working in its behalf. The Skippers can tie Walled Lake for first if the Vikings slip. Even if this doesn't come about, a victory will clinch second place for Waterford.

The Skippers are 1-1 in the four-team league and PNH is 0-2. Farmington is 1-1 and Walled Lake 2-0.

Northern's biggest problem has been its offense. The Huskies have shown little in the way of a passing attack and this has enabled opponents to throttle the running game.

PNH has scored only 14 points in five games this season.

Bill Curtis will probably get the call at quarterback for northern although Brice Tippin has switched to the signal calling spot from halfback on several occasions.

The defense, led by linebacker Keith Beaton, has been impressive. However, this unit has managed to make two or three mistakes in each game that has allowed the opposition to score.

★ ★ ★

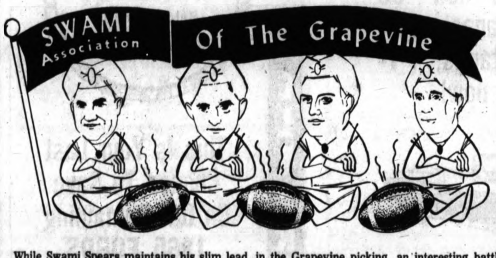
Waterford also has problems on offense. But, unlike PNH, the Skippers have been able to move the ball fairly well. The trouble comes when they get near the goal line.

Bright spot for Waterford is the defensive unit which has not allowed more than two touchdowns a game. This more than anything else gives Waterford an edge going into the game.

North-South Seniors Enters Second Round

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP)—Medalist Dave (Spec) Goldman of Dallas took on Dr. J. L. Hundley of Orlando, Fla., today in the second round of match play in the North and South Invitational Seniors Golf Tournament.

Goldman, the current Western Seniors champ, defeated W. A. Dowell of Walnut Ridge, Ark., 3 and 2 Wednesday. Dr. Hundley downed Knox Young Jr. of Pittsburgh, 4 and 2.



While Swami Spears maintains his slim lead in the Grapevine picking, an interesting battle for second place goes on between Swami Vogel and Swami Craig, now all tied for the season.

Some tricky games on this week's schedule may shuffle the first three places as there is obvious disagreement among our Swamis in reading the Crystal Ball.

Michigan and Minnesota, UCLA and California should produce interesting results.

Pick Howard in Comeback

NEW YORK (AP) —Frank Howard, the towering, former Dodger who became a big man in Washington, has been chosen the American League's Comeback Player-of-the-Year for 1965.

The 6-foot-7 outfielder drew 61 votes in the annual Associated Press poll of 281 sports writers and sportscasters. The results announced today showed that Minnesota pitcher Jim Grant was second with 58 votes followed by Norm Cash, Detroit first baseman, with 24.

Sugar Ray Posts TKO

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson scored a technical knockout over Rudolph Bent of Kingstown, Jamaica, in 2:20 of the third round in a scheduled 10-round fight Wednesday night.

Arrows Idle, Watch MFL Race

Stopped in their bid by the Dayton Colts to clinch at least a tie for the Midwest Football League championship, the Pontiac Arrows are idle this weekend before taking on Flint and defending champion Lansing in their final two games.

The Arrows lost 14-7 last Saturday night in Dayton, a team they defeated 21-19 before their largest crowd in Pontiac several weeks ago.

Flint was the team the Arrows whipped 61-0 in their season opener, however the Blue Devils have improved greatly since that beating.

They have won three of their last four games overall and now own an upset win over Milan and a tie against Lansing, in league play.

This weekend Flint travels to Milan and October 30th the Arrows will visit Flint.

KEY GAME

Lansing visits Dayton this week, and a victory for Dayton would keep the Colts alive in the title race, hoping for Lansing to defeat the Arrows in the season finale at Wisner Stadium, Nov. 6th.

There is a possibility that a Pontiac championship in the MFL would pit the Arrows against Grand Rapids of the Central Professional Football League.

Grand Rapids, once a member of the realigned United Football League, is in the thick of the chase with Des Moines and Joliet for its league title.

Both, Pontiac and Grand Rapids officials indicated they would welcome a playoff game between their teams with the site to be determined by a flip of the coin.

Both leagues have talked of realignment next season. The Midwest Football League with Pontiac, Flint, Lansing, Dayton and Milan is hopeful of luring Grand Rapids into the circuit along with the addition of Toledo and Columbus. Milan is currently contemplating moving its club to Monroe if adequate facilities can be obtained.

League officials have lauded the city and the fans for the support the Pontiac Arrows have received this season and they are pushing for a Grand Rapids-Pontiac meeting at Wisner should the Arrows win the title.

Advance tickets for the key home finale with Lansing, Nov. 6 are now available at Griff's Grill, Osmuns and Montgomery Wards.

★ ★ ★

The Arrows rallied in the final quarter to edge the Lansing All-Stars 18-13 in the Capital city three weeks ago.

Lions Put Lane Back on Roster; Rookie Dropped

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Lions reactivated veteran defensive halfback Dick (Night Train) Lane Wednesday and released rookie defensive halfback Jim Kearney of Prairie View College in Texas.

Lane, 38, is a 13-year veteran of the National Football League and had been on the Lion s' taxi squad. He is expected to start at defensive left cornerback Sunday against the Chicago Bears at Chicago.

The Lions' regular cornerback, Bobby Thompson, and his replacement, Jimmy Hill, are sidelined with injuries.

For the second year in a row, Wayne State's football team will be playing an eight-game schedule. Its schedule was limited to seven games from 1955 through 1963.

Casper 2 Shots Ahead

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Bill Casper Jr., who trailed second by one stroke at the finish a year ago, set out Thursday leading by two strokes in the second round of the $100,000 Sahara Invitational golf tournament.

The 34-year-old Californian apparently had a firm grip at this stage in this eighth annual event on the PGA autumn tour.

But there was the foreboding figure of Jack Nicklaus, five strokes back with 54 holes to play.

And the weather and the condition of the greens, which tend to speed up in the late afternoon hot weather, figured to change the picture for the immediate challengers for first place.

Virtually all the low scorers in Wednesday's first round started early and finished early, including Casper. Nicklaus was a late starter.

Kettering Plays Win-or-Else Contest Friday

Rochester, Avondale Slate Homecoming Games in O-A

Kettering is faced with a win-or-else situation Friday against Lapeer in a Tri-County League football game at the Township High field.

League-leading L'Anse Creuse will be favored to make its record 3-0 with a victory over Oxford Saturday at Mount Clemens. The Wildcats are 0-1-1, one of four squads in the league with a tie on its mark.

Runner-up Waterford Kettering has won once and tied one in its two starts. The Captains could have trouble with Lapeer's punchless, but still dangerous Panthers.

A Kettering loss coupled with a L'Anse win would give the Mt. Clemens team the championship.

Romeo, a pre-season title favorite, has two ties and a loss on its league mark, and will entertain Port Huron Northern in a nonleague contest at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

★ ★ ★

Lapeer has a 0-1-2 mark, also. The Panthers have failed to develop much offensive strength for coach Sid DeCou who is in his first season.

Kettering lost only to strong North Farmington prior to beginning its league campaign. The Captains are the only squad with a chance to overtake L'Anse.

Oxford held Lapeer to a scoreless tie and fought gamely to upset Kettering but the Captains staved off the Wildcats with a fourth-quarter spurt. Still winless, Oxford will have to stiffen its defensive secondary considerably for L'Anse.

LOOP GAMES

Over in the Oakland A League, Rochester and Avondale will have Homecoming contests and Lake Orion will also be in the role of host. Only the Falcons are favored.

Winless Lake Orion, meanwhile, has pass defense problems and Madison (tied for first with Warren Fitzgerald) is expected to have Jim Bowman throwing from the start.

Rochester will entertain Troy and could earn a share of fourth place with a victory. Both are 1-3 and tied with Avondale for fifth place currently. The Yellow Jackets aren't expected to get by strong Clawson (3-1).

State 11s Near .500

By The Associated Press

Michigan's college football teams, led by unbeaten Michigan State, Michigan Tech and Kalamazoo, continued to inch their way back to an over all .500 mark for the season.

With the three unbeaten schools accounting for 14 victories, the state's 17 football playing schools have a combined 40-43-2 mark at the halfway point of the season.

★ ★ ★

Defense has played a major part in MSU, Tech and Kalamazoo's unblemished records. Each team has allowed fewer than seven points per game.

Michigan State and Michigan Tech each has scored an average of more than 21 points per contest.

Buntin Sparks Piston Victory

DETROIT (AP) — Big Bill Buntin, who led Michigan to the Big Ten title and NCAA runner-up slot last winter, barged into the National Basketball Association Wednesday night with a slam-bang performance.

★ ★ ★

Called from the bench in the second quarter, Buntin notched six points and picked up seven rebounds in a nine-minute stretch as Detroit roared to a 57-42 halftime edge and whipped the New York Knicks 116-103 for its first NBA victory. The Pistons lost their season opener at New York Saturday.

12 REBOUNDS

Buntin ended up with 12 rebounds and 16 points. Player-Coach Dave DeBusschere had 13 rebounds to lead the Pistons, who outrebounded the Kicks 79-59. New York played without their top rebounder and center, Willis Reed, who was out with a sprained ankled.

Hills, Milford, Holly Favored to Stay 1-2-3

Bloomfield Hills, Milford and Holly are favored to remain one-two-three in the Wayne-Oakland League standings after Friday night's games, while the lower teams could undergo a considerable shakeup.

Bloomfield Hills will visit dangerous Clarenceville at Livonia, Milford will go to Northville and Holly will be host to Clarkston in their annual rivalry.

Hills appears to have too much ground and defensive punch for the fourth-place Trojans, who have split four W-O starts. The unbeaten Barons could get hurt, though, if they are looking ahead to next week's Homecoming showdown with Milford.

The latter (3-1) shouldn't have too much trouble with Northville (2-1) which was outmanned by Hills last week. The Holly-Clarkston clash will pair the running of Mark Phalen for the home team against the aerials of the Wolves' Dan Fife.

West Bloomfield has a good chance to move from the bottom of the standings to the middle with a win over Brighton. The Bulldogs, though, upset Holly last week for their first win.

Both will enter the Lakers' Homecoming contest with 1-3 marks, tied with Clarkston for sixth place in the standings. West Bloomfield has been burdened with a rough early schedule.

INJURIES

Injuries have depleted coach Bob Brown and Dave Garrett Arth Paddy's choice of regulars. Regular quarterback Greg Hepinstall has been sidelined for three games but may see restricted duty if needed Friday.

His brother Rollie has joined fullback Tom Leahy and halfback Clarence Vick as the running threats for Pat Windy, the fourth passer to start this year for Paddy.

Adding to the woes is the loss of linebacker Roger Hollier with a broken thumb last week at Milford. He was the key to the Lakers's defense. An added burden now will fall on the efforts of Nick Holsema and Terry Brennen in the defensive line.

* * *

are contending to replace Hollier. A win for the Lakers, coupled with Northville and Clarenceville losses, would tie them for fourth place.

* * *

Brighton caught fire in the second half against Holly behind the running of Larry Flowers, a hard-hitting fullback. If it can retain the momentum, Brighton could prove very tough on the Lakers.

Racer Careens Out of Control in Speed Run

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah (AP) — Scrappy Craig Breedlove, undaunted by a brush with death, says he'll take another shot at the 536.71 miles per hour world land speed record on Oct. 31.

Breedlove said late Wednesday he would haul his jet racer into Salt Lake City for installation of two large nose fins to hold down the front of the car on the track.

* * *

The car, Spirit of America-Sonic I, almost dumped Breedlove into a pond of brine Wednesday. Its front end rose as Breedlove hit what he said was 600 m.p.h.

The car started to veer off course. Breedlove twisted the steering wheel as the airspeed indicator passed 600 m.p.h., but nothing happened.

* * *

He opened his braking parachute, but it yanked off.

The racer careened out of the official timing area, off the track, across wet salt, through an opening in a line of telephone poles and finally rolled to a stop in front of a salt water pond.

The Los Angeles speed ace thanked his disc brakes for preventing a bath.

Breedlove said he would install the fins at the Air National Guard hanger at the Salt Lake City Airport.

Meanwhile, Walt Arfons of Akron, Ohio, has scheduled an assault on the record—held by his stepbrother Art Arfons — Friday morning.

A friendly kind of deal!
The one and only 5-Year 50,000-mile* Warranty
Come on over where everything's on the up and up. Up in quality, luxury, styling, snap and snarl. Coronet! The hot-new, all-new Dodge that's got dull driving beat all hollow. What's not uppity? The low price. And the treatment that has made The Dodge Boys great guys to do business with. Now you've got it. The Spirit of '66!

get in the Spirit of '66
Get with THE DODGE BOYS
You can tell they've got the right spirit; they're always smiling!

Join the Dodge Rebellion—guaranteed to drive you happy!
*HERE'S HOW DODGE'S 5-YEAR, 50,000-MILE ENGINE AND DRIVE TRAIN WARRANTY PROTECTS YOU: Chrysler Corporation confidently warrants all of the following vital parts of its 1966 cars for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, during which time any such parts that prove defective in material and workmanship will be replaced or repaired at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business without charge for such parts or labor: engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and outward parts (excepting manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings. REQUIRED MAINTENANCE: The following maintenance services are required under the warranty—change engine oil every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first; replace oil filter every second oil change; clean carburetor air filter every 3 months and replace it every 2 years; and every 6 months furnish evidence of this required service to a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer and request him to certify receipt of such evidence and your car's mileage. Simple enough for such important protection.

Ole Boy Sees MSU Suffering 1st Loss

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
Original Man-In-Motion

Egard, friends! At the halfway point it would appear the football gremlins are having a great season. They are the pesky fellows who always show up uninvited at the wrong time!

* * *

Many a victory-bound club has been done in this year by a fumble, a dropped pass, a Dear John letter to a star halfback which leads him to drop a touchdown pass thinking of her, a breakdown in blocking assignments, an interception, or a broken shoelace as your star runner is flying goalward.

Not to mention a capricious wind, a sudden rain squall, or a fumbled punt that is recovered in the end zone for six points for the kicking team!

C'est la guerre! And say no more! The Hoople System eagerly faces the challenges of this week.

* * *

Crucial contests are on tap as several leading powers clash headon. Three of the headline meetings will be played in Indiana where revenge-minded Notre Dame takes on Southern California, Purdue will host high-ranking Michigan State, and Indiana will entertain the Cougars of Washington State.

Noah Vale, of Farmersburg, this column's Indiana correspondent, concurs with the Hoople System forecast of victories for two of the Hoosier elevens.

I predict Notre Dame will conquer the Trojans, 33-18, while Purdue's Boilermaker's will hammer out a 21-17 triumph over the Spartans — hak-kaff!

LBJ's Mother Recalled

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson says she liked and enjoyed her mother-in-law "and at times, you know, that is more satisfying than loving."

And her mother-in-law, the late Rebekah Johnson, wanted the young Mrs. Johnson to share "the very special place in my heart" reserved for her eldest son and to "let me mother you as I do my precious boy."

★ ★ ★

AP Photofax

LBJ PHOTO — This first picture of Lyndon Johnson was made when he was 6 months old. The picture appeared in a detailed family history which the President's mother compiled and gave to him as a Christmas gift in 1954.

The first lady's memories of her mother-in-law, and the elder Mrs. Johnson's gracious words — in a honeymoon letter to a bride and groom in Mexico — appear in the current issue of McCall's magazine.

The magazine also published excerpts from "A Family Album" written by the President's mother and illustrated with family photographs.

DIED IN '58

The elder Mrs. Johnson, who died in 1958, presented the album to Johnson, then Senate majority leader, as a Christmas gift in 1954. It is soon to be published by the McGraw-Hill Book Co.

The President's mother writes in the album of demanding three months after the boy's birth that her husband pick a name for the child "or I'm not getting up to cook breakfast."

★ ★ ★

She tells how she approved naming the boy after Sam Johnson's friend, W. C. Linden, but insisted that the spelling be changed because "Lyndon" was more "euphonious."

She relates that her son didn't quite fulfill the prophecy of his grandfather Johnson, written when the President was a small boy: "I have a mighty fine grandson, smart as you find them. I expect him to be U.S. senator before he is 40." Johnson had just turned 40 when he was elected to the Senate.

'TRUE HAPPINESS'

In the letter received by the honeymooners in Mexico in 1934, the elder Mrs. Johnson wished "my boy and his bride the highest and truest happiness together."

To "My Dear Bird" she wrote: "I earnestly hope that you will love me as I do you. It would make me very happy to have you for my very own, to have you turn to me with love and confidence.

★ ★ ★

"I hope, and hope you know is composed of desire and expectation, that Lyndon will prove to be as tender, as true, as loyal, as loving and as faithful a husband as he has been a son."

To her son she wrote rejoicing "In your happiness, the happiness you so richly deserve, the fruition of the hopes of early manhood, the foundation of a completely rounded life.

'BEST IN LIFE'

"I have always desired the best in life for you," she wrote. "Now, that you have the love and companionship of the one and only girl, I am sure you will go far."

★ ★ ★

The first lady, in a recent interview published in the same issue, remembers that "the first time I met Lyndon's mother, I felt a sympathetic urge to lift the tension between us."

Johnson had taken Claudia Taylor, better known then as "Bird" and later as "Lady Bird," to visit his mother only one day after he met her.

UNSPOKEN QUESTIONS

"I remember it so well," Mrs. Johnson recalls, "because I could see the uncertainty in his mother's face and almost hear the unspoken questions, 'What is he bringing into my life? Is my son seriously interested in this young woman?' "

The first lady was married less than three months later.

Actor Felled by Pneumonia

Say Richard Arlen Rushed to Hospital

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Richard Arlen, 65, who rocketed to fame in the movie "Wings," which won the first academy Award in history, was admitted into the Motion Picture Country House and Hospital in nearby Woodland Hills last night.

Attendants said Arlen was hospitalized for "observation," but a source close to the veteran actor said he was rushed to the hospital from his home for treatment of apparent lobar pneumonia.

"Arlen was supposed to have opened tomorrow night in "The Tender Trap" at the Masquers Club, but he apparently is suffering from pneumonia," said producer Allan Hersholt, son of the late actor Jean Hersholt.

"He missed our dress rehearsal," Hersholt said. "We got a call that he had a raging fever. It developed that he apparently has lobar pneumonia."

Arlen's appearance in the Max Schulman-Robert Paul Smith play was to have marked his 45th anniversary in show business, Hersholt said.

He said Arlen began his movie work in 1920 at the old Brunton Studios which now is the site of Paramount Studios, where Arlen currently is appearing in his 255th film, "Johnny Reno."

"Wings," which costarred Arlen, Clara Bow and Charles (Buddy) Rogers, won the Academy Award for the best picture of the 1927-28 season.

All Well at 'Virginia Woolf' but Peeks at Set Still Nixed

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — I have just returned from a visit behind the concrete curtain that surrounds "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?"

THOMAS

The set is utterly closed, you know. Those are the orders. But who's afraid of J. L. Warner? I applied for a visa to observe conditions behind the frontier of Stage 8.

"You can visit the stage but not the set," I was instructed. This meant I could inspect the dressing room area and perhaps converse with occupants. Any approach to the field of shooting was verboten.

With those instructions in mind, I was escorted to the stage. It seemed much like any other movie set, complete with criblike dressing rooms, make-up tables and the like. At the other end of the stage was The Set, which was not to be described. So forget that I mentioned it looked like any other middle-class, college-town house.

ALL IS QUIET

Nothing was happening. Mike Nichols, the brilliant stage director whose first film is "Virginia Woolf," was seated in his dressing room-office. The movie was going smoothly, he reported, and the studio bosses seemed pleased with the results.

"That's what counts," I said.

"No, it isn't," he corrected. "What counts is that I am pleased."

He seemed to be. So did George Segal, the new young star ("Ship of Fools," "King Rat") who plays the biologist who calls on the embattled college professor and his barracuda of a wife.

It was difficult to assess the feelings of Sandy Dennis, the Broadway star ("Any Wednesday") who enacts Segal's young wife. She emerged sleepily from her dressing room after a nap, uttered a few sentences, then vanished.

Still no action. The company seemed to be waiting for something. In time, the famous pair arrived: Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton.

Their on-screen appearance is another matter of security. I feel it my duty to report that Miss Taylor, who is required to portray a harridan a decade older than her own 33 years, looks properly blowzy for the role, if not top-heavy. Burton, as her long-suffering mate, appeared somewhat seedy, with the suggestion of a paunch.

HEAD FOR ROOMS

The Burtons retired to his and hers dressing rooms, hers being a bit grander than his. Burton chatted while a makeup man applied finishing touches.

"Difficult role, this," he observed. "I've scarcely been out at night. Too much work."

★ ★ ★

He patted his belly. "Grew this for the role, added about seven pounds. It's a pleasure to be able to eat and drink all one wants with a hangover and there's no harm done."

★ ★ ★

The Burtons, Nichols, Dennis and Segal were summoned to the set, and I remained behind at Checkpoint Charlie, 30 feet away from the action. There I met the producer and writer, Ernest Lehman. The film is going swimmingly, he assured, and will finish on or about Dec. 1. It started July 26. End of report.

Cannot Run—Court

Steve Allen to Appeal Ruling

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Comedian Steve Allen says he will appeal a State Supreme Court decision that he can not run for the congressional seat vacated in Los Angeles by James Roosevelt.

In a brief, unanimous opinion, the California high court ruled Wednesday that Allen "failed to comply with the provisions of the election code and . . . therefore cannot be certified as a partisan candidate."

The court agreed with Los Angeles registrar of voters Benjamin S. Hite who refused to certify Allen as a Democratic candidate because Allen had registered too late as a party member.

The election code requires that a candidate be a member of the party 90 days before filing his candidacy. Allen registered as a Democrat Sept. 18. The special election to fill the congressional vacancy is scheduled for Nov. 23.

IN THE PRESS

Allen, who had announced his candidacy last Sunday, commented on the court's ruling that he was "still very much in the race for Congress" and would appeal the State Supreme Court decision in federal court.

Although active in Democratic party causes for several years, Allen was, until his Democratic registration, on the record as a nonpartisan.

Calumet Man Named to Economics Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson Wednesday nominated Philip H. Trezise of Calumet, Mich., a foreign service career officer, to be U.S. representative on the Organization of Economic Cooperation and Development.

He succeeds John M. Leddy, assistant secretary of state for European affairs.

U.S. Library Due Groucho Papers

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (UPI) — Comedian Groucho Marx is one school dropout whose personal papers are destined for inclusion in the U.S. Library of Congress.

Marx, saying he was "astonished and flattered," confirmed last night that the congressional library had asked him to donate his papers, including letters and manuscripts.

"For a fellow who didn't finish public school and who spent most of his life in small-time vaudeville and the movies, it's quite a thing," said the cigar - puffing mustachioed member of the famed Marx Brothers.

"They must be desperate for material," he quipped.

★ ★ ★

Marx said that during his years in sho wbusiness, his secretary "wouldn't let go of anything. She told me, 'Maybe you'll want to use them.'

MORE PROPHETIC

"She was more prophetic than I," he said.

He paused momentarily to reflect about the dedicated secretary, who had to leave his service because of family illness.

"Maybe she was a spy (for the congressional library)," he joked. "She is from Italy, you know."

But Marx, whose brothers Chico and Harpo have died in the last four years, appeared honored by the request for his memorabilia.

"It's going to take some time to get the material together," he said.

Then he reflected on the fact the first two copies of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address and letters of famous Americans are housed in the Library of Congress.

He found it hard to believe he would be in such illustrious company.

Among these were listed Richard Mansfield, Charlotte Cushman, William S. Hart, Minnie Maddern Fiske and May Robson.

★ ★ ★

Groucho will give the library not only his letters to other people "and to corporations I put straight now and then," he said, but also the letters of noted people to him.

He cited: "President Truman, T. S. Eliot, Fred Allen, Goodman Ace, Norman Krasna, Harry Kurnitz, Nunnally Johnson and loads of people."

Alcohol reduces a man's resistance to lack of oxygen physicians report.

JOURNEYS TO LONDON — Actress Kim Novak and her husband, British actor Richard Johnson, are shown on the set of Kim's new film "The Eye of the Devil" in London. Johnson made the long trip from his film location in Egypt to be with his bride of a few months.

Live TV Will Carry Pickup of Gemini 6

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission has cleared the way for live television coverage from the aircraft carrier Wasp of next week's recovery of the two Gemini 6 astronauts in the Atlantic Ocean.

It would be the first live transmission from a recovery area since the U.S. man-in-space program began.

★ ★ ★

An FCC spokesman said the commission approved a plan by the three television networks to beam the television signal from the Wasp to the Early Bird communications satellite, which will relay it to the satellite ground station in Andover, Maine, for transmission to the networks.

FCC authorization was needed for establishment of a transmitting station aboard the aircraft carrier as well as for use of the Early Bird link.

Sophia's Bigamy Trial Postponed to Feb. 12

ROME (AP) — The bigamy trial of actress Sophia Loren and movie producer Carlo Ponti was postponed today until Feb. 15 because one of the three judges is absent.

A hearing in the case — the second since it came to trial last July 6 — lasted two minutes, just time enough for the presiding judge and lawyers to agree on a new date.

Ford: Fear Big Government

GOP Leader Warns of Growing Power

DES MOINES (AP) — Rep. Gerald Ford, House minority leader, declared Wednesday Americans "must all remember that a government big enough to give us everything we want is a government big enough to take from us everything we have."

In a speech at the Iowa Bankers Association convention, Ford, R-Mich., said the "cornerstones of American demoracy are being eroded" by a concentration of power in the executive branch of government, by a judiciary that is exercising more power and by a steady decline in the traditional two-party system.

The concept of separation of powers drafted into the U. S. Constitution "is in serious trouble," he said.

Congress is "being squeezed smaller and smaller" between the growing power of the executive branch and the U. S. Supreme Court, which he said is "elbowing its way into areas that were not intended" when the Constitution was drafted.

He added that there is no strong two-party system now, particularly in Congress, and that "unless the Republican Party makes substantial gains in the next election, the two-party system, as we have known it in America, is dead."

Dancer 'Trains' for Role in Broadway Dance Hall

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Gwen Verdon worked two nights in a tiny, dark, upstairs hideaway Broadway dance hall . . . as a hostess . . . preparing for her role in the upcoming musical, "Sweet Charity" . . . Gwen found that "10c-a-dance is passe, that men pay admission prices of around $1.50 in hostess places, and buy the hostess' time (for 15 minutes, $6.50, in one spot).

WILSON

If the man chooses to "sit out" his time with the hostess, he can't establish much physical contact. The gal is protected — as in bundling — by a wooden "divider."

Barbara Harris, the effulgent, effervescent Evanston, Ill., gal who stole "On a Clear Day You Can See Forever" from even Alan Jay Lerner and became the 1965 Mary Martin, is a very shy young lady offstage. She and her date, young playwright Arnold Weinstein, sat rather quietly toward the rear at the Jan Mitchells' party for the "In 100" at Luchow's.

Lerner was in the spotlight, between the dignified, ladylike Kennedy sisters, Pat Lawford and Mrs. Stephen Smith . . . Someone called it "Bridey Murphy with Music" . . . Great line spoken by John Cullum about the A.M.A.'s attack on regression: "Imagine the A.M.A. coming out against living in the past!" It was applauded.

Pianist Pauses to Apologize for Mangling Mozart

BRISTOL, England (AP) — Concert pianist Julius Katchen interrupted his rendition of a Mozart Concerto last night, turned to the audience and said: "This piano is in a disgraceful state."

The audience, which included Lord Mayor Tom Martin, gasped.

"The tuner should have come back to retune the instrument," said Katchen, "but he failed to show up. I want to apologize for this ridiculous state of affairs."

He turned to go on with the concerto and added: "We carry on under an intolerable burden."

'Plot Linked to Syrian Oil Is Uncovered'

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — The government paper Al Thawra said today Syrian authorities have uncovered an antigovernment plot involving "a Westrn power with oil interests in Syria."

★ ★ ★

The paper did not identify the foreign state but another paper hinted it was West Germany.

Al Ahrar, a paper in Beirut, Lebanon, called the foreign power a "Western country whose oil interests in Syria were harmed by the nationalization of Syrian oil."

Syria's nationalization of oil concessions early this year collapsed a bid by the West Germany Concordia Co. to exploit fields in northeastern Syria.

Al Thawra reported only briefly on the plot, but said: "Some of the plotters were arrested and a hunt is under way for the rest."

★ ★ ★

The paper also said Interior Minister Mohammed Eid Eissawy was named deputy martial governor and empowered under Syria's emergency law. It did not elaborate.

The report of the plot followed the arrest Wednesday of Syrian Socialist leader Akram Hourani and 18 of his followers on charges of making "contact with a foreign state." Under Syrian law this offense can be punishable by life imprison-

India Weighed China, U.S. Power; Decided Against N-Arms

By CONRAD FINK

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — India's strategists apparently have decided Communist China poses no immediate nuclear threat—and possibly that the United States will intervene if Peking ever wages atomic war on its Asian neighbors.

* * *

This reasoning seems behind Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri's reiteration that India's policy is not to manufacture nuclear weapons.

* * *

It is authoritatively learned this policy has been reexamined in recent weeks and that Shastri's government was split on the question of whether to take India into the nuclear club.

* * *

At the height of India's war with Pakistan last month and simultaneous confrontation with Communist China, right-wing pressure mounted on Shastri.

News Analysis

PUBLIC OPINION

His government sampled public opinion, permitting one Cabinet member to publicly call for nuclear arming of India and allowing leading members of the ruling Congress party to sign petitions demanding Shastri take the step.

There appear to be these major policy judgments behind Shastri s decision:

—If Communist China attacks India it will be with conventional ground forces making shallow penetrations through the Himalayas. And if China tries nuclear war, the United States, plus Britain, will be forced to enter the fray, though this is not spelled out in any treaty or even understanding with Washington and London.

* * *

—Proliferation is an increasing danger to the world, and India's entry into the nuclear club would quickly set Pakistan and Indonesia, both at odds with New Delhi, to making nuclear weapons.

—Manufacture of nuclear weapons would create a bad image for India, and harm its efforts to gain diplomatic support in the Asian-African world.

INEXPENSIVE PUSH

India's nuclear scientists are believed to have taken their techniques to the point where a final, inexpensive push could produce nuclear devices.

* * *

The consensus in New Delhi seemed to be that while it is cheap and easy to set off a crude nuclear device, it would not be at all easy or cheap for impoverished India to reorient its military along nuclear lines.

* * *

Until last month, there had been growing sentiment in New Delhi that China meant to push India to the wall. Then Communist China withdrew several ultimatums it had presented to India.

One of India's leading industrialists, G. D. Birla, said at a meeting in Bombay Sunday that he had traveled recently in the United States and got the impression Washington had sent "a very stiff warning to China."

Birla added: "I was told by those who counted that in case China came into India in a big way, the Chinese should be prepared even to receive atomic bombs."

* * *

True or not, this thinking appears to have played a big role in New Delhi's assessment.

Quake Shakes Midwest

Little Damage, No Injuries in 8-State Section

Tremors Felt for Only Seconds; Recorded at 4.5 on Richter Scale

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — An earthquake rumbled across the Midwest last night, shaking at least eight states. No injuries or serious damage were reported.

The quake started at 9:01 p.m. and lasted for 12 minutes on the seismograph at St. Louis University. However, residents of Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Kentucky and Tennessee felt it only for a few seconds.

Dr. Carl Kisslinger, chairman of the geophysics department at St. Louis University, said the quake was recorded at between 4.5 and 5 on the Richter scale. The disastrous Alaskan earthquake of 1964 hit 8.4 on the scale.

"There's no doubt about it," said Kisslinger, "it was an earthquake, and it was a significant earthquake for this part of the world.

★ ★ ★

"If the center had been under a city, there would have been a lot of damage."

QUAKE CENTER

Dr. Otto Nuttli, a St. Louis University geophysics professor, said today the center of the quake was in Reynolds County in the Ozarks Mountains region of south-central Missouri.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Nuttli said it probably was caused by a movement of rock along a granite fault, but he was unable to determine at what depth the movement occurred.

★ ★ ★

He said the location of the quake was determined after studying results of the university seismograph and reports from the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, the University of Missouri at Rolla and the University of Kansas at Lawrence.

Early reports were heaviest throughout south-central and central Missouri. Some houses in that area reportedly swayed.

Apparently the quake spread from a lightly populated area outward — to Chicago, Memphis, Omaha and hundreds of other cities.

★ ★ ★

Kisslinger said the quake was significant because this type of quake — felt over such a large area and with such intensity — is not common in the Midwest.

★ ★ ★

However, the wide span is characteristic of midwestern tremors, Kisslinger said, and added that there was no reason to think more quakes might follow.

Klan Grand Dragon Reluctant at Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—House investigators tried to light a fire under reluctant Klan dragon James Robert Jones today by producing some of the records he had refused to turn over—income tax returns.

But Jones, the North Carolina dragon, remained reluctant to talk and kept silent under sharp questioning about whether he had been reimbursed by the United Klans of America for deductions he had claimed—such as the cost of robes.

In declining to answer questions, he cited constitutional protections against self-incrimination.

Jones' lawyer, Lester V. Chalmers Jr. told the committee, "that's the reason we didn't bring tax returns up here because we were well aware that these returns were available to you."

"That's for the birds," snapped chairman Edwin E. Willis, D-La., of the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

★ ★ ★

Under questioning, Jones declined to say whether he had had any full-time employment since 1960.

SUDDEN INCREASE

The committee produced what it said were Jones' income tax returns that showed gross income of $3,800 in 1960, $1,630 in 1961, $3,579 in 1962, $2,766 in 1963 and $8,923 in 1964 — the year the investigators said he became the United Klans' grand dragon of North Carolina.

Jones refused to say whether he had not been reimbursed by the Klan for such claimed expenses as $531 for robes, $2,941 for printing literature and $1,851 for auto expenses.

The line of questioning added emphasis to a broad hint Willis dropped yesterday that Klan leaders may yet find the Internal Revenue Service a greater threat to them than the civil rights movement.

FBI Informer Tells of Killing

Spy in KKK Testifies in Liuzzo Death Trial

HAYNEVILLE, Ala. (AP) — An FBI informer who has testified he was present on the night a white civil rights worker was shot while driving on a lonely Alabama road, testifies today as the state's key witness in the murder trial of Klansman Collie Leroy Wilkins Jr.

Gary Thomas Rowe, 35, a member of the Ku Klux Klan in the pay of the Justice Department, was the main witness in the first trial of Wilkins, 21, a chubby-cheeked mechanic from Fairfield, Ala.

The stocky, red-haired Rowe, a former Birmingham bartender, described in Wilkins' first trial, last May, how Viola Gregg Liuzzo, 39, a Detroit mother of five, was shot.

The killing took place while she was shuttling Negro civil rights workers back to Selma after the 50-mile march on the state Capitol in Montgomery.

★ ★ ★

In the earlier trial, which ended in a hung jury, Rowe testified he was one of four Klan members in a car which followed Mrs. Liuzzo's along a dark stretch of U.S. 80 before, he said, Wilkins fired the shot which killed her.

FIRED PISTOL

Rowe testified Wilkins fired with a pistol and then bragged, "Baby brother, I don't miss."

Alabama Atty. Gen. Richmond Flowers, who is directing the prosecution of Wilkins, said he will call the state toxicologist who performed the autopsy on Mrs. Liuzzo, an FBI ballistics expert and then Rowe. Flowers said he would wrap up the state's case today.

In yesterday's proceedings — started after a 1½-day delay while Flowers appealed for a ruling on juror selection to the Alabama Supreme Court — the state called six witnesses including a 20-year-old Negro riding with Mrs. Liuzzo when she was killed.

★ ★ ★

He was Leroy Moton, a field worker for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, who said, "everything happened so fast" he did not hear the shots which killed Mrs. Liuzzo. "I just heard glass breaking," he said.

Showers Will End by Friday Morning

Today's occasional light showers will end by tomorrow morning, leaving skies partly cloudy and temperatures cooler —highs 53 to 60.

Mostly sunny and cool is the prediction for Saturday.

Temperatures will drop to the high 40s tonight.

Rainfall in the Pontiac area yesterday and during the night measured three-quarters of an inch.

Light variable morning winds will become north at 6 to 12 miles late this afternoon and will increase to 10 to 18 miles tonight.

A mild 59 was the low temperature in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. The thermometer reading at 1 p.m. was 63.

Claim $570,396 Taken

'Hoffa Tapped Union'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department says Teamsters President James R. Hoffa pulled $570,396 from the union treasury to help pay for his criminal trials.

The department said yesterday it compiled the figures from Teamsters records and made no attempt to verify them.

Seymour Spelman, attorney for 16 Philadelphia union members who seek restitution of the funds, declared:

"That's only the top of the iceberg."

★ ★ ★

He said the total probably is nearer to a million dollars for Hoffa's criminal cases since 1959. And he said the Teamsters till may have been tapped for as much as $3 million to defend Hoffa and 47 other union officials convicted during the past five years.

THREE TRIALS

The Labor Department said the $570,396 covered three criminal trials during the past three years.

The Spelman suit, expected to come to trial in Washington within the next two months, was filed in March of 1964.

Hoffa stopped using union money for his legal troubles shortly thereafter, although he contended its use was legal as a necessary business expense.

The Labor Department said the money went for a 1962 kickback conspiracy case in Nashville, Tenn., a 1964 jury tampering trial in Chattanooga, Tenn., and a 1964 Chicago trial for defrauding the Teamsters pension fund.

★ ★ ★

The Nashville case ended in a mistrial, but Hoffa was later convicted of jury tampering and sentenced to eight years in prison. He was sentenced to another five years on his Chicago fraud conviction. He also was fined $10,000 in each case.

★ ★ ★

Hoffa has appealed both convictions and remains free.

Morrissey Bid Is Withdrawn

Return Nomination to Committee--Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Francis X. Morrissey's nomination for a federal judgeship was sent back to the Senate Judiciary Committee today at the request of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass.

This appeared to kill the nomination for this session of Congress, but President Johnson could resubmit it at the next session in January.

Kennedy's surprise request that the nomination go back to the judiciary came at the end of an emotional speech in which he highly praised Morrissey, an old friend and political supporter of the Kennedy family.

Johnson could give Morrissey a recess appointment to the Federal District Court in Massachusetts after Congress adjourns. But to take it, Morrissey would have to give up his present $20,000-a-year Boston Municipal Court judgeship.

Kennedy, his voice breaking and on the verge of tears as he described the hardships of Morrissey's early years, said much of the controversy over the nomination concerned events so remote in time and obscure in place that understandable confusion has arisen among those who have not been following it closely.

"If senators have any questions at all they should have the chance to air them fully," he said, "and seek the answers through the proven process of our committee system."

Just before calling the nomination up for action, Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana told newsmen "it looks close to me."

He said the outcome might hinge on the number of absentees.

Demonstrators Show Signs of Democracy

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (UPI) — When a group of students parading in front of a recruiting office here yesterday to protest U. S. policy in Viet Nam dwindled to only six in number, they decided to vote on whether to continue their demonstration.

★ ★ ★

The vote was 3-3, so the demonstrators decided to ask the Army recruiter if he cared to cast the tie-breaking vote. He voted that everyone go home. They did.

OU Preparing for Visit by Humphrey

HUBERT H. HUMPHREY

Oakland University officials are keeping a close watch on weekend weather forecasts, hopeful that tomorrow and Saturday the clouds will lift.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's address is scheduled for the Howard C. Baldwin Memorial Pavilion at 11 a.m. tomorrow.

Saturday will bring some 400 parents to the same location for the third annual Parents Day, beginning at 9 a.m.

In the event of rain, the vice president's speech tomorrow will be held in the OU Sports and Recreation Building. The decision on location must be made by 8 a.m. in order to "button up" all the final details, and that decision will be made by Herbert N. Stoutenburg, assistant to the chancellor, who is in charge of arrangements for the day.

If the speech is to be moved to the sports and recreation building, signs will be posted on Walton Blvd. so the public will be fully aware of the change as they approach the campus.

GUESS ON WEATHER

But the prevailing guess on the weather is one of optimism, supported by favorable long-range forecasts.

Under ideal weather conditions, Stoutenburg expects a large turnout to hear what is expected to be a major address on education.

Persons planning to attend are urged to arrive early, or be prepared with blankets or cushions to utilize the grassy hillsides in Meadow Brook Music Festival style. There will be no charge for parking or admission.

"We are fortunate to be included in the vice president's visit to Michigan, and hope that the community will take advantage of this opportunity to hear Vice President Humphrey speak on this important topic," Stoutenburg said.

ONE OF FOUR STOPS

The vice president's address at Oakland University will be one of four stops in Michigan.

He will travel by helicopter to Livonia to dedicate the new Adlai Stevenson High School, OU, the National Corn Picking Contest at Adrian, and back to Detroit for a speech to the Economic Club in Cobo Hall.

If it rains Saturday, the Parents Day registration will be held in the Oakland Center.

Why Coaches Get Gray

Good Grief, Gal Gridders!

By HUDSON WILLSE

Waterford Township High School football coach John Moffat is confronted with back-to-back challenges this weekend.

Tomorrow night, Moffat sends his Skippers against Pontiac Northern in an Inter-Lakes League game at Wisner Stadium. The game is PNH homecoming.

Saturday he gets a day off. He'll need it.

That night he runs into a real "toughie" — officiating a football game blessed with girl gridders.

The unusual battle, slated to begin at 7 p.m. in the WTHS stadium, pits the sophomore and junior girls against the senior distaffers.

★ ★ ★

The price of tickets is 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults. Proceeds will be used for the school's foreign exchange student program.

LAST YEAR

Last year, 13 WTHS students participated in the program, according to Mrs. Emerson White, an instructor at the school.

Mrs. White and Susan Richert will supervise Saturday night's "hairpuller" along with Moffat, who will receive assistance in his refereeing chores from two senior boys.

Three senior boys will handle the coaching duties, Lynn Ballard directing the seniors' attack and Dave Roemensky and Steve Main shuffling in players for the sophomores and juniors.

In addition, the boys — for a change — will lead the cheers.

Eleven players from each team will play at a time, just like the book says, but the girls decided to abandon the tackling antics in favor of two-handed touch.

Mrs. White says the girls are undecided whether to play six- or eight-minute quarters.

They don't know their own endurance capabilities.

Oddsmakers say it's anyone's game, but aren't taking any bets on a 0-0 deadlock.

Johnson Gets Okay to Go Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson got a "full green light" from his doctors today and made definite plans to leave the hospital where he underwent gallbladder and kidney stone surgery 13 days ago.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is expected to leave the hospital today and return to the White House.

He faces weeks of additional recuperation — most of it probably at his Texas ranch.

Johnson is displaying increasing vigor, growing good humor and — on occasion — the incision left from removal of his gallbladder and a kidney stone 13 days ago.

The President even allowed some pictures of the scar yesterday after removal of the last of three drainage tubes from his abdomen.

★ ★ ★

This seemed to be another indication that Johnson was in better spirits and ready to accept assurances of his doctors that he could go home any time after Wednesday night.

SOME WEAKNESS

The physicians examined Johnson early yesterday. The resulting word was that Johnson was progressing the way they wanted him to, although still experiencing some soreness and weakness.

Signs of the latter were pretty well concealed yesterday—a busy, active time for Johnson.

There were ceremonial bill signings, near the beginning and the end of the day—a clean air measure and a $3.2-billion foreign aid appropriation.

The President was in and out of Bethesda Naval Hospital. He spent nearly six hours outdoors.

Demands Heaviest on Red Cross, USO

Stepped-up war activities in Viet Nam have increased the materials and dollar outlay of several Pontiac Area United Fund agencies, it was learned today.

The demand has been heaviest on the American Red Cross and the United Service Organizations (USO). The latter group has expanded its program to a "full wartime footing."

Michigan United Funds, including the Pontiac Area United Fund, have been asked for an additional $85,000 by the USO this year. The Pontiac UF will hike its contribution by $2,000.

Much of the demand on the Red Cross results from increased service to the families of servicemen assigned in Viet Nam.

* * *

Red Cross has not yet sought added dollar donations because of the military buildup.

TRIPLE STAFF

In addition, the Red Cross has had to triple its staff in Southeast Asia. Many of the wounded reaching Viet Nam hospitals have lost much of their personal belongings.

Thus, the Red Cross has airlifted thousands of comfort kits containing shaving equipment, comb, toothbrush, toothpaste and other toilet articles.

Stateside chapters are also collecting paperback books for shipment to servicemen.

* * *

Two other UF agencies — the American Social Health Association and the United Seamen's Service — have requested added funds because of the Viet Nam war.

NOT ESTABLISHED

No specific money amounts have yet been established.

Mayor Seeks Hotel Solution

Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. has asked for a meeting of both sides in the Waldron Hotel strike, now entering its eighth week.

* * *

The mayor sent a letter to the hotel owners, Simone Management Co. of Detroit and Local 794 of the Hotel & Restaurant Employes, urging that a satisfactory solution be found for the dispute, which has closed the hotel.

* * *

He further urged negotiations to resume immediately.

Taylor also asked for a progress report on the current status of bargaining.

Troops Rushed to Viet Battle

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. helicopters delivered several companies of reinforcements to the besieged garrison at Plei Me today, and the Viet Cong attacks began to diminish in size and ferocity, a U.S. military spokesman reported.

The defenders of the Special Forces camp in the central highlands reported seeing at least 90 enemy bodies. Government casualties were described as light after two days of fighting.

* * *

Farther north, in Quang Tri Province, a U.S. Army officer escaped today from the Viet Cong after being held captive for several hours, the spokesman announced.

The officer, identified as Capt. Robert F. Hopper, 29, whose wife lives at Winter Haven, Fla., was the senior adviser to a South Vietnamese battalion.

ENEMY FORCE

He apparently was captured when Viet Cong guerrillas hit a government outpost near the provincial capital of Quang Tri City, 140 miles north of Saigon. The enemy force penetrated an artillery position and blew up an ammunition bunker.

Details of Hopper's escape were not immediately known, but he apparently returned in good condition.

Hopper was the second American to escape from the Viet Cong within four months. Last July Sgt. Isaac Camacho, El Paso, Tex., escaped after being held captive for 18 months.

Eight Americans were reported killed in two helicopter crashes in the Plei Me area 210 miles northeast of Saigon. The Viet Cong shot one helicopter down Wednesday. A spokesman said mechanical failure caused the second crash today, but it was not known if this aircraft was directly involved in the Plei Me action.

300 TRIBESMEN

The Special Forces camp was defended by about 300 Montagnard tribesmen and 10 to 12 American advisers when large numbers of Viet Cong attacked Tuesday night. U.S. and South Vietnamese planes pounded the Viet Cong constantly, and at night flare ships lit up the field of fire around the triangular defense positions.

The air strikes helped five American advisers and a Vietnamese unit to return to the camp through the enemy positions during the fighting. The force had been outside the camp on an operation when the Viet Cong attacked.

During the night the guerrillas pounded the camp with mortars and recoilless rifles. By day they used machine-gun and small arms fire.

The defenders beat off at least one probing attack today.

Eyes School Bargaining Agent Law

Approximately 120 Oakland County School Board members and superintendents heard Dr. Julius Barbour, executive secretary of Michigan Association of School Boards, last night.

Topic for the meeting, held at Pontiac's Madison Junior High School, was Public Act 369 passed in July 1965, dealing with teachers' bargaining agents.

"There was never a time," said Barbour, "when school boards need better order in their rules and regulations.

"You must have hours, wages and conditions of work specifically spelled out in writing."

* * *

The whole community must share its board's problems in meeting the demands of teachers' bargaining agents under the new law.

MUST LEARN TO

"Business and industry," said Barbour, "have lived with unions for years and boards of education must learn to do so.

"Except, they have different problems. For instance, industry raises prices to cover increased salaries.

"School boards cannot do this. Their only recourse is to go back to the people for increased taxes."

* * *

Barbour continually advised boards to seek legal advice, warning that the law has not yet been tested by the courts.

"A board must think through its first request for negotiation," said Barbour, "because it is that first request that sets the precedent.

"It is best to refer that request to the state labor mediation board."

He concluded that a superintendent is the agent of the school board as the negotiator is an agent of the union.

MARIE McDONALD

Movie Actress Is Found Dead

Death Circumstances Cloaked in Mystery

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Blonde actress Marie (The Body) McDonald was found dead in her rambling ranch home early today.

Sheriff's deputies said the circumstances of her death were not known immediately.

* * *

Officers said Miss McDonald's husband, Donald F. Taylor, reported discovering his wife's body at 5:30 a.m.

Homicide investigators were dispatched immediately to the home in suburban Hidden Hills, on the farthest side of the sprawling San Fernando Valley northwest of Hollywood.

A MYSTERY

Three hours later the circumstances surrounding the famed actress-singer's death were still cloaked in mystery.

The death of the beautiful, curvaceous Miss McDonald, 42, ended a career that was one of Hollywood's most flamboyant but, for all the headlines she made, least successful.

Taylor, an independent film producer, was the actress' fifth husband, but her sixth marriage. She was formerly wed twice to shoe magnate Harry Karl, who is now the husband of actress Debbie Reynolds. Miss McDonald's other husbands were sportsman Richard Allord, her agent Victor Orsatti, and attorney Edward P. Callahan.

Her name was not often up in lights, but it went up in type in January of 1957 when she disappeared from her Encino home.

FOUND ON DESERT

She turned up 24 hours later about 100 miles away in Indio, when a truck driver found her on the desert.

During the lengthy investigations that followed, she said she had been kidnapped from her home Jan. 4 by two men who spirited her away and then dumped her.

While she was missing, police found in her home a novel, "The Fuzzy Pink Nightgown," which described a pair of abductors who kidnaped a film star, and, during the kidnap, sent to a delicatessen for turkey sandwiches.

Upon her reappearance, Miss McDonald said that her abductors did the same thing.

Grants to OU Total $341,496

Federal grants to Oakland University totaling $341,496 were accepted by the Michigan State University Board of Trustees at their meeting in East Lansing yesterday.

The largest, a $294,930 grant from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, was for student loans under the NDEA program. Another $4,500 grant was also made for the same program.

A third HEW grant, in the amount of $7,566, will be used under the direction of Reuben Torch, professor of biology, for research on the regeneration of tracheloraphis fragments.

Two additional research grants are to be used under the direction of Clifford V. Harding, professor and chairman of biology.

A $30,000 grant from the Atomic Energy Commission will provide continuation of a previous award for studies of cellular proliferation and regeneration following tissue damage.

A $4,500 grant from the National Science Foundation will be used for the purchase of a marine aquarium.

Duke Undergoes Operation for Damaged Retina

NEW YORK (AP) — A small break in the retina of the Duke of Windsor's right eye has been repaired in a hospital, and the team of eye specialists who did the work say the difficulty should not recur.

The 30-minute repair was done Wednesday at the Eye Institute of Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center.

The 71-year-old former king of England should be able to leave the medical center by the end of this week, the hospital said. He was admitted Wednesday.

Birmingham Area News

Official Dispels Rumor on Harlan Pupils

BIRMINGHAM — Regardless of what happens to their addresses or the value of their homes, Harlan Elementary School pupils living in Troy will continue to attend the school.

This announcement was made by Birmingham Schools Supt. Dr. John B. Smith in an attempt to squelch rumors that the area might be transferred to the Troy School District.

The rumor is another facet of the controversy over the addresses of homes in a three-mile strip in Troy running north of the Birmingham city limits.

A week and a half ago, the addresses of some 1,375 families living in the strip were changed from Birmingham to the Troy Post Office.

* * *

The Birmingham - North Adams Association has protested the change vehemently and is now talking of seking annexation to Birmingham.

LIVE IN AREA

Many of the children in that area are in the Harlan Elementary School District, and rumor has had it that they might be switched to the Troy district.

While there is no factual basis for the rumor, Smith said his office continues to receive inquiries.

The superintendent noted that the County Board of Education makes the decision on any requested transfer and does so only after a public hearing.

* * *

The transfer request can be initiated either by resolution of one of the school boards involved or by a petition signed by not less than two-thirds of the residents of the area to be transferred, he said.

INVESTIGATION

After investigating the matter, Smith reported that:

- "The Birmingham Board of Education, at no time, in any manner, has considered this subject, and it has not received any requests from any person or groups to detach the area in question from the Harlan Elementary School District or from the Birmingham School District.
- "The superintendent of the Troy School District has stated that the Troy Board of Education has not considered this matter.
- "The Oakland County Board of Education has received from no one a request for such a detachment."

An open house for parents will be held tonight at Berkshire Junior High School.

Parents will follow their children's class schedules during the program, which begins at 7:45 p.m.

Dr. Leroy G. Augenstein, noted Michigan State University biophysicist, tonight will deliver a free public lecture in Detroit, sponsored by the Cranbrook Institute of Science, Bloomfield Hills.

* * *

Augenstein will discuss some of the ethical questions posed by science in the modern world.

The chairman of MSU's department of biophysics will speak at 8:15 p.m. in the Rackham Memorial Auditorium.

Probe Sale of Medicine to Teens

A meeting of Pontiac police and civic leaders has focused attention on what may be a mounting problem among area teen-agers — purchase of patent cough medicines to obtain narcotics.

* * *

According to Assistant Prosecutor Walter D. Schmier, some druggists also may be involved in growth of the problem through failure to require legitimate signatures from youths buying cough remedies containing codiene.

State law requires persons purchasing a part - codeine drug — limited to one grain of codeine per ounce without a doctor's prescription — to sign their name and address in a pharmacy register.

Police Chief William K. Hanger said the department's vice squad is investigating instances where part-narcotic cough syrup was purchased under obviously false names.

* * *

"In one case," Hanger said, "it seems medicine was sold to persons who signed their names as 'Roy Rogers, Dale Evans . . . and Trigger'."

UNMARKED BOTTLES

Schmier said another complaint was that some druggists were selling the cough medicine in unmarked bottles — and at a price as high as five times the normal cost.

Druggists violating the laws — only a small minority of area pharmacists, according to Schmier — face penalty under state law as well as from the Michigan Board of Pharmacy.

Police information on possible illegal drug practices calls for a hearing before the state board, according to a spokesman at the Lansing office.

* * *

Pharmacists found guilty of breaking regulations can be penalized by revocation or suspension of the annual license to practice issued by the board.

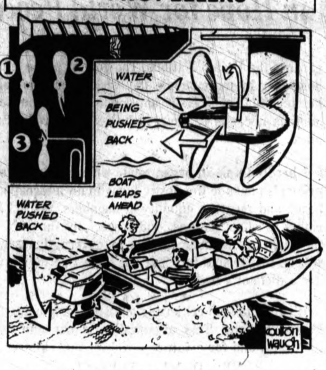
Junior Editors Quiz on PROPELLERS



QUESTION: How does a propeller drive a boat forward?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: A boat's propeller works on the principle of the common screw. Twisted around the central shank of the screw is the thread, which has a raised central edge, slanting away on the sides.

We show a bit of wood between the threads of our picture of a screw.

Imagine this screw turned to the right and you will see that the thread above to the right will bear down on the bit of wood and try to push it to the left.

But then imagine this bit of wood is part of a solid piece around the screw which it can't move back. There is nowhere for the turning screw to go but straight ahead into the wood, which it can do because it has a pointed tip.

Now look at the propeller drawing to the right. The blades are, in this case, turning from right to left or counterclockwise. Since they are set on the shaft on a slant, they bear down on the water as they turn.

The water is not solid like the wood, so the whirling blades push back a mass of it. This, however, rams up against the great mass of heavy water in the back, and this again makes the boat rebound or go in the opposite direction, which in this case, is straight ahead.

The greater the power of the motor, giving faster movement to the roating blades, the greater will be the speed of the boat.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: To help understand the principle, make yourself a little paper propeller. Cut the pattern shown in (1) out of heavy paper. Hold in center and give one blade a slight twist to right. Turn propeller a half circle and give the other blade a similar twist. Then mount on straightened paper clip and twist shaft to study action of blades.

Foreign News Commentary

City in Kashmir Quiet but Simmering

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

SRINAGAR, Kashmir — In the famed Shalamar Gardens, dahlias and gladiola bloom and the trees are tinted with the red and gold of early fall. The vale of Kashmir takes on a special beauty at this time of year in its jewel - like setting below the snowy peaks of the Himalayas.

NEWSOM

But most of the houseboats on Lake Dal are empty. The shop of Subhana "the worst" is devoid of customers.

Few visitors come to Kashmir now.

* * *

For the vale of Kashmir is the focus-point of the three-week war between India and Pakistan, and beneath the surface in Srinagar, it still seethes.

In shadowy rooms of ancient buildings huddled along the crooked streets of old Srinagar, artists sit cross-legged to work their brush magic on moulds of papier-mache or to turn out the delicate traceries of wood carvings for which Srinagar is famous.

And in the street, a stranger brushes a reporter's shoulder, apparently in passing.

* * *

"Don't believe the Indians," he says.

"There are many who wish to speak to you. You must help us."

It is delivered in a whisper because the interpreter is suspected of being on the government payroll.

In the governor's palace, Yuvraj Karan Singh leans forward to press his argument. He is an intense man of 33 and he is the elected governor of the state of Jammu and Kashmir, more commonly known simply as Kashmir.

To him there is no argument to whom Kashmir belongs, India or Pakistan. His father, the late Maharaja, acceded to India in 1947, and only his father had the right to decide Kashmir's future.

* * *

He cannot understand why, if the United States wants a bulwark against Red China, it sides with Pakistan in the dispute over Kashmir.

VEHEMENT

In a sun-lit reception room, Chief Minister G. M. Sadiq is vehement.

Pakistan, he says, tried to take Kashmir by force and failed.

Now, the United Nations must force Pakistan to withdraw from the portion of Kashmir it occupies, back to its own international boundary.

* * *

"Otherwise," he says, "in the course of time, India will be forced to liberate the illegally occupied territory."

In this city of simmering hatreds between Moslem and Hindu, only large military forces maintain the peace. Assembly by four or more persons is forbidden. A 9:30 curfew locks up the town at night.

Riots erupted in Srinagar in December 1963, over the theft of a hair of the prophet Mohammed from the Hazratbal shrine.

Rioting erupted again last May with the arrest of Sheik Mohammed Abdullah, an exponent of self-determination for Kashmir.

* * *

A fragile and frequently broken cease-fire governs the borders between India and Pakistan, but it brought no real peace to Srinagar.

And from a doorway along the muddy street comes the whispered warning:

"They have burned our houses and arrested more than 12,000 of us. But for every leader they seize, another will take his place."

Last Purple Gang Inmate Out on Parole

JACKSON (AP)—When Harry Fleischer walked out of Southern Michigan Prison this week, the prison was left without an alumnus of Detroit's notorious Purple Gang for the first time in nearly four decades.

* * *

Fleischer, one of the most colorful members of the prohibition-era mob, had served just over 13 years of a 25-to-50-year sentence for the armed robbery of an Oakland County gambling spot.

* * *

The 62-year-old Fleischer, released Monday, will serve four years of parole and will work for a Detroit - area industrial firm, a parole board spokesman said.

* * *

Although arrested several times on murder charges, Fleischer never was convicted. He was accused in several killings, including the three - death "Collingwood Manor massacre" in Detroit in 1931.

* * *

Fleischer was convicted in 1945 of conspiracy to murder State Sen. Warren G. Hooper, who died in a hail of machine gun bullets. The identity of Hooper's killer never has been determined.

* * *

Preceding Fleischer to freedom were fellow Purple Gangsters Harry Keywell, whose murder sentence was commuted by Gov. George Romney last month; Philip Keywell, Harry's brother, whose life term was commuted in 1962 by then-Gov. John Swainson; and Irving Milberg, freed by Romney two years ago after suffering a stroke.

Power Use for Storm Water Eyed

WASHINGTON (AP)—A proposal to use Chicago's stormwaters to produce electric power and then be stored in underground caverns to reduce pollution in Lake Michigan is to be studied under a government grant.

The Public Health Service announced Wednesday a grant of $140,000 to the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago to help finance the first phase of a two-part feasibility study of a proposal to store combined sanitary wastes and storm waters until they can be pumped to a sewage treatment plant.

A rough preliminary estimate of the cost of envisioned project is $66 million, a spokesman said.

The service explained an estimated 50 million people in the U.S. live in urban areas served by sewers carrying combined storm waters and sanitary wastes and the Chicago project would be aimed at developing a method to control pollution from combined sewers.

LARGE VOLUMES

The large volumes of storm water flowing through the combined sewers during and immediately after storms cause overflows that carry as much as 95 per cent of a city's raw sewage into nearby waterways without proper treatment, the service said. The annual overflow is estimated to contain 3 to 5 per cent of a city's untreated sewage.

Under the Chicago plan, the stored waters would be held in a 30 X 60 foot tunnel from 10 to 20 miles long and about 600 feet underground. The plan would be applied initially to a 20-square-mile section of the Lake Calumet area.

★ ★ ★

Waters flowing into the caverns would be used to generate an estimated 200,000 kilowatts of electricity. Revenue from the sale of this power could be used to reduce the pollution and flood control costs.

400 Are Expected at PNH for U.S. Reading Confab

Approximately 400 educators from across the country are expected to attend a one-day conference on the teaching of reading at Pontiac Northern High School Saturday.

The conference is sponsored by the Pontiac Public Schools in cooperation with Science Research Associates, Inc., a Chicago-based educational publisher.

★ ★ ★

The conference will begin with registration at 8 a.m. and a welcome by William J. Lacy, assistant superintendent of instruction and pupil personnel for Pontiac schools.

Among topics to be discussed are use of remedial techniques and aids to improve reading and development of effective silent reading skills.

Fatal Bump Not His Fault

MILAN, Italy (AP) — A pedestrian who bumped into a motorcycle has been cleared of manslaughter charges. The motorcyclist died in the accident.

★ ★ ★

A Milan court ruled that the collision between man and motorcycle was not a crime. Both pedestrian Vito Galloro and cyclist Renato Lavazzo, fell to the ground. Galloro was hurt slightly but the fall killed Lavazzo.

★ ★ ★

Galloro told the court he could not help walking into the motorcycle because it was going too fast and too close to the curb as he stepped into the street.

4 Sentenced in Theft of Religious Painting

TERNI, Italy (AP) — Four men were sentenced Wednesday to prison terms ranging from four to six years for stealing a 14th century religious painting valued at $800,000.

★ ★ ★

The painting, a "Madonna With Saints" by an unknown early Renaissance artist, was stolen 11 months ago from a Roman Catholic church at nearby Cesi. The painting was recovered.

City Will Host Lakes Hearing

One of 3 in State on Water-Level Problem

Pontiac has been selected as one of three cities where legislative public hearings will be conducted in a search for the causes and cure of receding water levels in Michigan lakes.

The Pontiac session will be held Nov. 10, according to Rep. W. Scott Ensign, D-Battle Creek, chairman of a House Conservation subcommittee assigned to the program.

The time and place of the hearing has not yet been determined.

Ensign said that information and suggestions will be sought from lake property owners, various departments of state and local governments and interested citizens who have ideas for future action.

"The problem is extremely serious and highly complex," said Ensign. "Because the indicated causes of low lake levels differ in various parts of the state, we may find that remedial measures may have to be tailored to fit local situations."

TOTAL PROBLEM

"Our preliminary studies have made it clear that we must evaluate the total Michigan problem," he said.

"Corrective measures must be found, but it is important that safeguards be provided against the waste of time and money in attempting procedures already found to be impractical.

Ensign said that his committee will have the counsel and advice of the Michigan Department of Conservation, the Water Resources Commission, the Department of Agriculture, the Attorney General, county supervisors, drain commissioners and numerous other agencies and individuals.

The first hearing will be held in Battle Creek Nov. 8, and the second in Lidington the following day.

Johnson Signs Clear-Air Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Johnson signed a clear-air bill Wednesday that includes authority to require future automobiles and diesel trucks to be equipped to prevent polluting exhaust gases.

"We can no longer allow this problem to go unchecked," the President said.

★ ★ ★

"The air that is the very essence of life has become a carrier for disease and early death," Johnson said, noting "from our automobiles alone, enough carbon monoxide is discharged daily to adversely pollute the combined areas of Massachusetts, Connecticut and New Jersey."

The President said the bill will require all 1968 model automobiles—including foreign models sold here—to meet federal control standards for exhaust.

FUNDS FOR RESEARCH

The legislation also authorizes appropriations of $96,480,000 over the next four years for research into methods for controlling air pollution caused by cars and trucks.

Veteran Professor Resigns MSU Post

EAST LANSING (AP) — The Michigan State University Board of Trustees Wednesday accepted the resignation of Prof. Robert Kramer to become vice president and administrator for the Kellogg Campus of California State Polytechnic College. Kramer, with MSU since 1947, has been director of the agricultural marketing and utilization center.

Weeks Of Back Pain Now Relieved

"After weeks of pain in my back and hips, I tried DeWitt's Pills—got wonderful relief," says Mrs. R. Gardner, Waterloo, Iowa.

People write in every day praising the remarkable relief they get with DeWitt's Pills.

DeWitt's Pills act fast with a proven analgesic to relieve pain of backache. Their mild diuretic action helps to eliminate retained fluids and flush out irritating bladder wastes that can cause physical distress, if pain persists, see your doctor. DeWitt's Pills often succeed where others fail—quickly relieve minor muscle aches and pains, too. Insist on the genuine DeWitt's Pills.

Over 114 million DeWitt's Pills are sold by druggists day after day after day, the world over—a tribute to their amazing action!

Pontiac Man on Probation in Assault Try

A Pontiac man was placed on three-years' probation yesterday for felonious assault in connection with an attempted abduction in Pleasant Ridge 20 months ago.

William D. Harris, 32, of 11 Grant, was arrested Jan. 27, 1964, in Pontiac after leading police from four communities on a 12-mile chase up Woodward.

The chase started in Pleasant Ridge after police there received a report that a man was trying to force a woman into a car. Police arrived just as the car sped from the scene without the woman.

Four shots were fired by Pontiac police, two of them hitting the trunk of the car, before Harris was captured at Motor and South Boulevard.

★ ★ ★

He pleaded guilty to felonious assault Sept. 21, 1965, though he was originally charged with assault with intent to murder.

An assault with intent to kidnap charge was dismissed against him.

Harris was sentenced by Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams and ordered to pay $200 court costs.

Can't Tie Patient's Attack to Staff Shortage---Martin

Dr. Donald W. Martin, medical superintendent of Pontiac State Hospital, today denied that staff shortages were directly related to the recent attack by a patient on a hospital employe.

★ ★ ★

Speaking at a hospital staff meeting, Martin termed the incident "most unfortunate" but added that such occurrences are always potential problems when dealing with mentally ill people.

Harry Lovell, 67, of 1435 Courtland, Avon Township, a hospital attendant, was beaten repeatedly last Saturday by a patient armed with a table leg.

Lovell is in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital but should be released in a day or two, Martin said.

★ ★ ★

The hospital official emphasized that the hospital has made every effort to fill its allotted 554 nursing-attendant positions but has experienced difficulty due to the relatively low wage level for these positions.

"Being in an industrial area in a booming economy, we can't compete," Martin said.

Even so, he said the hospital is only 32 employes short.

An overtime program, equivalent to having an additional 19 employes, is in effect, leaving a net operational shortage of 13 persons, he said.

Martin said that Lovell was working in an area of 120 withdrawn-type patients who ordinarily are not inclined to hostility.

But he reiterated that the potential of an unprovoked incident such as happened last Saturday is always present at any such institution.

Woman Hospitalized After Telegraph Crash

Patricia K. Warner, 21, 64 Spokane, was listed in satisfactory condition today at Pontiac General Hospital after a two-car accident yesterday on Telegraph.

She was injured when her car collided with one driven by Ronald J. Milburn of 379 Elizabeth Lake, Waterford Township just south of West Huron, according to Pontiac police.

Complainant Drops Charge

A charge against a Pontiac man of assault with intent to commit murder was dropped yesterday at the request of the woman who signed the complaint.

Steve Mason, 38, of 403 Ditmar was accused of firing three shots at Augusta Hill, 30, of 233 Whittemore in a parking lot Sept. 27.

The request for dismissal was signed by Miss Hill at Municipal Court.

Local Man's Death Is Ruled Accidental

The Oct. 10 death of a 64-year-old Pontiac man, Agapito Gonzales, has been ruled accidental, according to Pontiac police detectives.

Sgt. John DePauw said information supplied by two witnesses, including the son-in-law of the dead man, satisfied investigators that Gonzales, of 663 Linda Vista, was killed by a fall.

Gonzales died at Pontiac General Hospital of a skull fracture suffered several hours earlier when he fell while getting into a car and struck his head.

NEW YORK (AP) — Life is the opening of many doors.

One often opens them with trepidation, because they lead to situations one may never have faced before.

County Court Judge F. Ryan Duffy Jr. said yesterday he'll use selected teen-agers in the jury box in teen-age driving cases.

★ ★ ★

"I'll ask them what they would recommend if they were in the judge's position. I'll take that into consideration before I decide the case," the judge said.

Of the morgue trips, Duffy says parents report "the experience resulted very definitely in improved driving habits on the part of their sons or daughters, and I kid you not."

CIA: Disguise Charge False

Senators Says Viets Impersonated Cong

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stephen M. Young says he has learned the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency hired South Vietnamese to dress as Viet Cong and kill men and rape women with the objective of discrediting the Communists. A CIA spokesman calls the charge "absolutely false."

★ ★ ★

And Rep. Cornelius E. Gallagher, D-N.J., said of the Ohio Democrat's allegation Wednesday: "It may well be that he spoke to a Viet Cong disguised as a CIA man."

Both Young and Gallagher were in South Viet Nam several months ago and were briefed there by American officials.

★ ★ ★

Young first told newsmen Wednesday that he got his information from a CIA man. Wednesday night, he denied he had said a CIA man was his source and said he got his information from an American military officer. He did not name the man.

POSE AS CONG

Nevertheless, Young said, "I confirmed through the CIA today that it employed some South Vietnamese nationals to pose as Viet Cong — and I take a dim view of that."

★ ★ ★

Gallagher said Young's statement "is appalling, and it reflects a carelessness with facts."

"It is obvious," Gallagher said in a statement, "that he misunderstood the essence of the briefing or failed to distinguish between the terms of identification of the opposing forces in Viet Nam. No one could possibly conceive such an exercise as Sen. Young describes."

★ ★ ★

Young, a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said he will ask the committee to investigate CIA activities.

Rasputin's Killer Still on Stand

NEW YORK (UPI) — Felix Youssoupoff, the princely assassin of Rasputin, one of history's most notorious lechers, submitted to cross-examination today in the trial of his $1.5-million suit against the Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS).

★ ★ ★

Prince Felix told yesterday how he persisted in efforts to kill Rasputin while a gramophone rasped out "Yankee Doodle Dandy" to kill the sound.

But the hulking Rasputin would not die easily. And the prince revealed that his motive was not to save "Holy Mother, Russia," but solely because he despised the "mad monk" for his debauchery.

Youssoupoff's account of the Dec. 16, 1916, killing became a best-selling book in the 1930s, and since has been the subject of movie and television dramas, the latest produced only two years ago by CBS.

★ ★ ★

But the prince contends that the "sexual atmosphere" of that drama and statements attributed to him in it invaded his privacy.

WOULDN'T LEAVE

Prince Felix testified that he asked Rasputin to leave St. Petersburg (now Leningrad), but the "holy man" refused.

"He told me he was a German agent and for that he had to stay," the frail 79-year-old prince said. At the time, Germany was beating Russia on the battlefield and the Russian peasants were on the verge of revolt.

Some say Rasputin's scandalous orgies, which included the cream of Czarist society, fanned the flames of revolt.

★ ★ ★

He is said to have seduced two grand duchesses and organized "religious" debaucheries right under the pious eyes of the mystic czarina.

★ ★ ★

Prince Felix said he persuaded the Siberian peasant to come to the family's Moika Palace, where he and three other young nobles waited with poisoned tea, wine and cakes.

Disappeared Year Ago Today

Mobster's Kidnaping Is Still Mystery

NEW YORK (AP) — In the heat of a probe of organized crime, Joe Bananas, gangland baron, disappeared one year ago today in a sidewalk kidnaping.

Real or hoax crime, he still is missing, despite a search ranging from Mafia haunts in the United States to Sicily, the birthplace of the secret brotherhood of the underworld.

★ ★ ★

On the same day that two gunmen snatched him in the early morning hours of Oct. 21, Joe Bananas was to have appeared before a federal grand jury investigating the rackets. The jury still is sitting, its probe now broadened to include the disappearance itself.

New York City police list the case as open, but sources indicated that detectives are no nearer a solution.

EXTENSIVE INVESTIGATION

An FBI spokesman would say only that "an extensive and intensive investigation is being conducted."

The Manhattan lawyer present when Bananas vanished, William Power Maloney, was asked whether he believed Bananas to be alive or dead.

★ ★ ★

"I'm as much in the dark as I was the night it happened," he answered.

Bananas, identified in Senate testimony as ruler of one of New York City's five Mafia "families," had dined with his Tucson, Ariz., attorney, Lawrence P. D'Antonio, Maloney, and two of Maloney's law associates at an East 45th Street steakhouse.

SHOCK OF MY LIFE

After midnight, Bananas accompanied Maloney to the latter's Park Avenue residents. Bananas stood beside him while the lawyer paid the cab fare.

"Suddenly, I got the shock of my life when I saw this guy grappling with Joe," Maloney reported.

★ ★ ★

"As I started toward the man who grabbed him first, the other one appeared and he also had a gun. The first one said in a loud, clear voice, 'Come on, Joe, my boss wants to see you.'

"Joe said, 'What's going on here? Who are these guys?'

POINTED AT ME

"I followed the man with Joe and the second one backed after them, holding the gun and pointing it right at me. He was about 25 feet from me when he fired the gun once.

"The men put Joe in a late model, two-door beige car. The headlights were on. I couldn't see if anyone else was in the car, because it was too dark. The car was pointed east on 36th Street, just off Park Avenue.

★ ★ ★

"Joe was still struggling as it sped off."

Thus did 59-year-old Joe Bananas — born Joseph Bonanno in Sicily — disappear.

Several witnesses say they heard the shot, but police did not find the ejected shell. Maloney was not hurt.

Maloney, once an assistant U.S. attorney and chief of the trial section of the Justice Department, repeatedly has expressed the belief that it was a real, not staged, kidnaping.

★ ★ ★

Police and the FBI have withheld their opinions.

The DRC Story

SADDLING 3,000 WINNERS IS A HAPPY FAMILY AFFAIR

The Record Makers.

They lend the touch of distinction to Sports. They provide excitement and added interest for both participants and spectators.

Whenever baseball fans assemble, they inevitably discuss Babe Ruth's home run achievements, which found him leading the American League 12 times within a 14 season span. Or the fiery Ty Cobb's nine successive batting championships; or the pitching feats of Cy Young, who scored an amazing 511 victories during his career.

In Golf, it will be Bobby Jones' fantastic Grand Slam of 1930; in Tennis, Big Bill Tilden's incomparable string of championships at Forest Hills and Wimbledon; in Boxing, Rocky Marciano's unbroken string of 49 heavyweight conquests; in Football, Oklahoma's 47 straight collegiate victories.

We have a Record-Maker and a Record-Breaker at the Detroit Race Course, too. His career extends over a span longer than that enjoyed by top stars in other fields. Consistency is the keynote to his amazing achievements.

Marion H. Van Berg is a 70-year-old thoroughbred owner. He was a solid part of Michigan racing before I came on the scene in 1949. I am proud that in the intervening 17 seasons he always has raced with us. During that period, he has been the leading owner at the DRC 10 seasons and the runner-up five other years.

"Mr. Van" again is the top DRC owner. Each time he enters the Winner's Circle he moves nearer a goal never reached in racing's long history. He now has 2,920 victories and before year's end . . . or most certainly, early in 1966 . . . will have his 3,000th winner.

Three Thousand Winners . . .

Every year since 1948, "Mr. Van" has ranked nationally among the top three owners in total victories. Eight times he has led the list, the last five consecutively.

This year, "Mr. Van" is the national leader both in the number of victories and in money won. Leadership in the latter division usually goes to one of the blue-chip stables, whose rosters are dotted with top stakes performers.

For a racing operation like Van Berg's there is strength in numbers. A year ago, for example, 167 horses raced in his colors. He may top that this season. When the DRC season opened, he had 65 horses in his string here. There were other divisions racing in Chicago and Omaha.

The Van Berg operation is largely a Family Affair. His son, Jack, currently is training the horses at the DRC. Earlier in the season, son-in-law Bob Irwin was in charge. Irwin now is handling the division in Chicago.

Being a champion, or a leader, in any sport takes great ability and dedication. "Mr. Van" possesses both. He is at the track regularly every morning to supervise the training operation. Each afternoon he is in the Paddock when his horses are saddled.

Two other stables racing with us, those of Detroiter T. A. Grissom and W. Hal Bishop, also rank high on the national leader list.

A record-breaking personality like "Mr. Van" is another of the many reasons you will find a visit to the Detroit Race Course interesting and pleasure-filled.

We have top racing and fine facilities for your enjoyment. There are excellent dining terrace restaurants, "The Winner's Circle" and "The Mile Terrace"; a colorful old-world tavern, "Ye Olde Tired Horse", beef buffets and snack bars.

Our new Clubhouse is one of the Showplaces of the Sports World. We race daily until November 6. I invite you to visit us soon.

DELBERT GARMON

Is Kidnaper of 19 Set to Surrender?

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (UPI) — A Wichita Falls lawyer today planned to meet with the family of Delbert Harmon Garmon, 26, kidnaper of 19 persons, to try to arrange for his surrender.

Attorney Philip S. Kouri said Garmon contacted "a member of his family" to request that they obtain a lawyer for him.

Kouri quoted the family as saying Garmon wants to surrender to someone "other than a policeman, who he fears might take a shot at him."

Garmon, a former salesman and two-time convict, has kidnaped 19 persons in a two-week flight through Texas and Oklahoma.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert H. Garmon Sr. said they had not talked to their son. Sources in Wichita Falls said he was believed to have telephoned his sister, with whom he was "very close."

MOTHER, SISTER

Kouri said he would meet with Garmon's mother and sister at noon in Wichita Falls. "By 5 p.m., we will have a statement about where and when this thing (the surrender) will be taking place," the lawyer said.

"We don't want Delbert to give himself up until we can get something figured out so he can surrender without getting killed," the fugitive's mother said.

"These policemen are going to shoot him down the minute they see him, because he has said he wasn't giving up," she said. "Otherwise, they are not going to give him a chance.

* * *

"The boy isn't as mean as what they make out he is," she said. "He's not going to hurt anybody. The boy has died a thousand deaths already."

TERRORIZING FARMERS

Garmon was believed to be in Dallas after two weeks of terrorizing farm communities of Southern Oklahoma.

Elbert Dugan, a Frederick, Okla., farmer told Oklahoma police yesterday Garmon forced him to drive to Dallas earlier in the day. Dugan said Garmon came to his home.

"He gave me the choice of giving him my car or of driving him to Dallas," Dugan told police. Dugan said he let Garmon out of his truck near downtown Dallas then drove all the way back to Davidson, Okla. before notifying authorities.

* * *

"I think he would like to give himself up," Dugan said, "but he's afraid of the electric chair."

DALLAS POLICE

Dallas police got a tip at mid-afternoon yesterday saying Garmon was seen in the northern part of town. Officers responded but were unable to locate Garmon.

Garmon's flight started Oct. 5 when his wife, Nina, fled to a service station, saying her husband tried to kill her.

While Mrs. Garmon was talking to a policeman, Garmon drove up, pulled a pistol, grabbed the officer's gun and fled, firing two slugs at the policeman and his wife. Both shots missed.

* * *

Since then, Garmon has kidnaped a total of 19 persons, none of whom have been harmed. One of his hostages escaped, and he released the others.

The fantastic dodobird, once native to the island of Mauritius in the Indian Ocean, was descended from a pigeon. The turkey-sized bird survived on the island until 1681, when it succumbed to destruction by man and animals, particularly pigs.

Buying Is Heavy

Stock Mart Resumes Upgrade

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market resumed the upgrade early today. Buying was heavy.

Gains of key stocks were mostly from fractions to about a point. More volatile issues made wide advances.

Fairchild Camera was up 5 points.

Lower-priced issues were popular with traders. Fairchild Hiller rose 1½ to 14⅜ on an opener of 23,000 shares. Curtis Publishing rose ⅛ to 9⅝ on 7,000 shares.

STEELS SAME

Steels were unchanged to slightly higher. Motors, chemicals, aerospace issues, airlines, rails and nonferrous metals joined in the advance.

Wednesday, The Associated Press Average of 60 stocks dipped .1 to 350.7.

Prices were mostly higher on the American Stock Exchange. Syntex rose more than a point. Fractional gainers included Molybdenum, Technicolor, and Kirby Petroleum.

Comet Heads Into Oblivion

Astronomers Watch Celestial Spectacle

HONOLULU (AP) — Blazing Ikeya-Seki, first comet in 83 years bright enough to be seen in daylight, whipped around the sun today and headed back into oblivion.

Astronomers here and on the American mainland watched the celestial spectacle across 93 million miles of space. Its 80,000-mile-diameter head was followed by a streaming 20-million-mile tail.

* * *

Buts its brilliance was mostly overpowered by the sun, which it approached to within 300,000 to 800,000 miles. Not one observer aboard a National Aeronautics and Space Administration jet plane saw the comet.

From the ground, however, Dr. George Van Biesbroeck, one of the world's foremost authorities on comets and a member of the airborne NASA expedition, viewed it plainly.

'EXTREMELY BRIGHT'

He called it "extremely bright — 1,000 times brighter than the planet Venus."

Clouds blocked Hawaiians' view of the comet late Wednesday, but earlier it could be seen without binoculars, just south of the sun.

* * *

The comet left scientists puzzled by several mysteries. Delicate instruments detected internal heat and the presence of sodium, calcium and iron. Comets were believed to be cold and made up of nitrogen gas loosely combined with chunks of rock.

NEW FACES — Two store fronts on Pontiac's main street have been remodeled, offering a new face to those who pass by on Saginaw. The new faces belong to the Andre Beauty Salon, 11 N. Saginaw, and the Parisian Beauty Shop, 21 N. Saginaw. The interior of the two downtown shops has also been remodeled to complete the face-lifting.

Exec Handles Unit's Awards

Felix Anderson, vice president of Johnson & Anderson, 2300 Dixie, Waterford Township, was the awards chairman last night at the annual meeting of the Michigan Association of Consulting Engineers and Land Surveyors in Detroit.

Anderson is a Michigan director of the association.

* * *

Top award for the most original engineering project in Michigan was presented to Williams and Works, a Grand Rapids consulting engineering firm, for a water treatment plant at Alma.

Gordon E. McCallum, U.S. assistant surgeon general, was the guest speaker. He outlined the availability of federal funds for solving water pollution problems.

Business Notes

Bernard J. Kelly of 5135 Kellen, Bloomfield Township, has been appointed staff engineer in charge of administrative activities of the newly created automotive safety engineering department at General Motors Technical Center, Warren.

Kelly will be responsible for special projects in safety engineering as assistant to Louis C. Lundstorm.

Named assistant comptroller for financial controller and analysis at Chrysler Corp. is Clarence C. Benedict of 621 Lone Pine, Bloomfield Hills.

Benedict joined Chrysler in May 1957 and has served as assistant treasurer of the corporation.

Higbie Manufacturing Co. of Rochester has announced the appointment of Walter J. Peel, 611 S. Squirrel, Pontiac Township, as chief engineer, and Robert A. Walton of Royal Oak as plant manager of the company's Avon Tube Division.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

(Q) "My husband has not been well the past three years and we have only a medium income. Our major asset is our own three-family home. We bought Commonwealth Oil at 12¼; when it began to go down two years ago we sold at a loss. We were advised to replace it with Cinerama at 15¾, now down to 3. Should we sell or hold it? We have $2,000 to invest and would like to regain our losses. What do you suggest."

J. L.

(A) Cinerama is highly speculative, has operated at a deficit in recent years and in the first half of 1965. The shares have periodically run up to higher levels and I think you should watch closely and if your stock moves higher, I would eliminate it.

For your $2,000 investment, I would go only into conservative growth situations. Winn-Dixie Stores and General Foods are two such issues and I commend them to you.

(Q) "I am the treasurer of an investment club with 17 members. We have been in operation for one year and thus far have contributed $160 per member. If an eighteenth member were to join us, would he contribute the aforementioned $160 or would he pay one-seventeenth of the club's worth? What would be the situation if a member withdrew?" C. W.

(A) If you decide to enlarge your club, you should regard yourselves as an open-end investment trust in miniature. If your individual shares in the club have increased in value, you must take cognizance of this fact and if they have decreased, that aspect must also be recognized. When taking in a new member, determine the present net asset value of your entire fund. Divide this by 17 and the new member will come in on equal terms with the old. The same procedure should be followed if a member quits.

Wyandotte Firm OKs Proposal, but Union Balks

WYANDOTTE (AP)—A federal and state mediators' proposal to end a 169-day strike at Wyandotte Chemical Corp. here was approved by the company but rejected by union negotiators Wednesday.

The strike by 1,570 members of Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union Local 7-627 began May 4.

* * *

The union's international representative, Paul Stawicki, said the union balked at three points in the proposal, covering prorating of vacation time, union representation and job assignments. He offered to meet with company negotiators in an effort to work out the disputed issues.

Hair Styling Coming Thing?

Barbering Big Business

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — Wish your husband looked less like a bald eagle and more like either of the senators Kennedy? Wish your boyfriend looked more like Tony Curtis? Wish your schoolboy son looked less like a prickly pear and more like Prince Charles?

DAWSON

Madam, you should consult your friendly barber — beg pardon, your friendly hair stylist.

* * *

But which ever he is these days, he can probably tell you that the ancient craft of cutting men's hair has developed into a billion-dollar annual hair care industry.

The only recession the barbers see ahead is that of hairlines on the masculine head. Industry spokesmen say they have ways of handling that and that more men than you may suspect are taking to the latter-day techniques of camouflage.

MORE BARBERS

There are still more barbers than men's hair stylists in these United States — some 300,000 of the basic type and some 18,000 of the newer clique. But the latter say their number is growing fast.

And they hope that the nation's youth training programs will produce a new flock of apprentice barbers. From such will be recruited the hair stylists of tomorrow. New schools are springing up to teach latter-day barbering techniques.

* * *

Both barbers and stylists will be gathering here next week for the annual national barber show. And there'll be a lot more on display than just shears, clippers and whisk brooms. New products include hair gels, hair setting lotions, sprays and dyes — that's right, for masculine purchasers. And on display for the whiffing will be a host of bottles labeled "true masculine scents."

"The young barber of today has a chance to regain the high status of Figaro in Rossini's 'The Barber of Seville'," Hal A. Salzman says.

PRIME CONSULTANT

"Then the barber was a prime consultant on high fashion, business and wordly affairs and even practiced dentistry and minor surgery."

Salzman wears three hats. He is president of Odell, which makes tonics and other preparations for the care of hair and scalp. He is chairman of the Tonsorial Information Council. And he is chairman of the Barber Shop Promotion Committee of Beauty, and Barbers Manufacturing Association.

* * *

He was wearing that third hat when he said in an interview that hair styling is spreading so fast across the land, in small as well as big cities, because today's business pace is convincing more and more men that they must look fit and youthful — to their business associates if they want to hold their job or advance — and to their wives and themselves for more personal but just as compelling reasons.

Thus, says Salzman, the making and fitting of toupees and other expensive hairpieces for balding men is mushrooming in the hair care industry.

BARBER IN DEMAND

But the scalpbone of the industry is still the barber himself. He now wields an electric-driven hot comb, or a razor instead of shears, or even a hair net built for masculine heads on which a hairdo is being shaped. And his clients may have too little or too much hair, or an unbecoming part. Still, it's the barber or stylist who has to come to the rescue every week, or every two or three weeks.

"Electronic computers will never cut men's hair," says Salzman.

Hills Boots Pointers

Bloomfield Hills ran its soccer record to 5-1 yesterday with a 4-1 victory over Grosse Pointe University School.

Chuck Garabrant, Alan Reuther, Robbin Mersky and Fred VanVurst picked up goals for the winners.

WEDNESDAY'S FIGHTS

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio — Sugar Ray Robinson, 161, New York, stopped Rudolph Bent, 163, Jamaica, 3.

OMAHA, Neb.—Lou Bailey, 188, Omaha, outpointed Ben Black, 238, Chicago, 10.

Kettering Plays Win-or-Else Contest Friday

Rochester, Avondale Slate Homecoming Games in O-A

Kettering is faced with a win-or-else situation Friday against Lapeer in a Tri-County League football game at the Township High field.

League-leading L'Anse Creuse will be favored to make its record 3-0 with a victory over Oxford Saturday at Mount Clemens. The Wildcats are 0-1-1, one of four squads in the league with a tie on its mark.

Runner-up Waterford Kettering has won once and tied one in its two starts. The Captains could have trouble with Lapeer's punchless, but still dangerous Panthers.

A Kettering loss coupled with a L'Anse win would give the Mt. Clemens team the championship.

Romeo, a pre-season title favorite, has two ties and a loss on its league mark, and will entertain Port Huron Northern in a nonleague contest at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

★ ★ ★

Lapeer has a 0-1-2 mark, also. The Panthers have failed to develop much offensive strength for coach Sid DeCou who is in his first season.

Kettering lost only to strong North Farmington prior to beginning its league campaign. The Captains are the only squad with a chance to overtake L'Anse.

Oxford held Lapeer to a scoreless tie and fought gamely to upset Kettering but the Captains staved off the Wildcats with a fourth-quarter spurt. Still winless, Oxford will have to stiffen its defensive secondary considerably for L'Anse.

LOOP GAMES

Over in the Oakland A League, Rochester and Avondale will have Homecoming contests and Lake Orion will also be in the role of host. Only the Falcons are favored.

Winless Lake Orion, meanwhile, has pass defense problems and Madison (tied for first with Warren Fitzgerald) is expected to have Jim Bowman throwing from the start.

Rochester will entertain Troy and could earn a share of fourth place with a victory. Both are 1-3 and tied with Avondale for fifth place currently. The Yellow Jackets aren't expected to get by strong Clawson (3-1).

Three Remain Unbeaten

State 11s Near .500

By The Associated Press

Michigan's college football teams, led by unbeaten Michigan State, Michigan Tech and Kalamazoo, continued to inch their way back to an over all .500 mark for the season.

With the three unbeaten schools accounting for 14 victories, the state's 17 football playing schools have a combined 40-43-2 mark at the halfway point of the season.

★ ★ ★

Defense has played a major part in MSU, Tech and Kalamazoo's unblemished records. Each team has allowed fewer than seven points per game.

Michigan State and Michigan Tech each has scored an average of more than 21 points per contest.

Buntin Sparks Piston Victory

DETROIT (AP) — Big Bill Buntin, who led Michigan to the Big Ten title and NCAA runner-up slot last winter, barged into the National Basketball Association Wednesday night with a slam-bang performance.

★ ★ ★

Called from the bench in the second quarter, Buntin notched six points and picked up seven rebounds in a nine-minute stretch as Detroit roared to a 57-42 halftime edge and whipped the New York Knicks 116-103 for its first NBA victory. The Pistons lost their season opener at New York Saturday.

12 REBOUNDS

Buntin ended up with 12 rebounds and 16 points. Player-Coach Dave DeBusschere had 13 rebounds to lead the Pistons, who outrebounded the Kicks 79-59. New York played without their top rebounder and center, Willis Reed, who was out with a sprained ankled.

Plymouth Valiant 2-dr. sedan (6-Cyl.)	Chevrolet Chevy II 2-dr. sedan (6-Cyl.)	Ford Falcon 2-dr. sedan (6-Cyl.)
$2025*	$2090*	$2059*

And Valiant's the only one of the three with this 5-year/50,000-mile engine and drive train warranty:
Chrysler Corporation confidently warrants all of the following vital parts of its 1966 cars for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, during which time-any such parts that prove defective in material and workmanship will be replaced or repaired at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business without charge for such parts or labor: engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excepting manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential and rear wheel bearings. Required maintenance: The following maintenance services are required under the warranty—change engine oil every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first; replace oil filter every second oil change; clean carburetor air filter every 6 months and replace it every 2 years; and every 6 months furnish evidence of this required service to a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer and request him to certify receipt of such evidence and your car's mileage. Simple enough for such important protection.

*Prices based on Manufacturers' Suggested Retail prices for lowest-priced 2-door sedan models of Valiant '100', Chevy II '100' and Falcon Standard exclusive of destination charges, state and local taxes, if any, whitewall tires and other optional equipment. Valiant's lowest-priced 6-cyl. model even priced below the lowest-priced Chevy II, 4-cyl., model, which is $2028.

And Valiant is just about the biggest car value—at the lowest price—around.

And you can dress up a beautiful new Valiant with a great group of new options including: Front wheel disc brakes. Bucket seats. 4-on-the-floor. Hot new V-8s.
