

Viet Nam Nearing Collapse

The Battle for Asia

Reds Hold the Reins

(Editor's Note—William L. Ryan spent six weeks in Southeast Asia, traveling to Indochina and the near-by countries endangered by a Communist sweep southward. He then went to Geneva to check his findings at the Geneva conference. This is the first of four articles this week on the prospects in "The Battle for Asia.")

GENEVA, May 24 (AP)—There is not the slightest indication at the Geneva conference that the Communists will accept anything but surrender of the West in Asia. Apparently, they are sure communism is on a victorious march, with the decisive battle for Viet Nam all but behind them. The Russians are calling the tune here, even preparing the speeches of the Communist Vietnamese representatives in the Russian language.

After a month of talk, there seems no prospect of anything but obstruction and deadlock. The Russians exude confidence that they hold the trump cards.

Communism is relying heavily on a drive to turn Asian nationalism and Asian fears into potent weapons against the West in a long-term struggle for domination of a continent.

The United States has been losing battles in this propaganda war, though it has not yet, by any means, lost the war. Asian distrust of the West, after a century of colonial domination, is being twisted and turned against the United States in a political-psychological, offensive designed to win cheap victories.

The Communists are not concerned with masses now. This war is for the intellectuals, the educated layer of Asians from whose ranks come the raw materials for government and leadership.

In those ranks, America has been losing friends. They are not going over to the Communist side, but in frustration are retiring into a neutral shell. And that serves the Communist cause.

For one who has just returned from Asia there is an atmosphere almost of fantasy here in Geneva. Talk of "united action" in Asia seems removed from reality.

At the moment, prospects seem dim for any Southeast Asia defense system under United States inspiration or protection. That may yet change as the Communists' breath gets hotter on Southeast Asian necks. If so, the United States hopes to have the framework of an alliance which those nations can join if they choose.

But in an extensive tour of that vast, underdeveloped, poverty-ridden area I found that, with few exceptions, Asian leaders cling to the view that any involvement in a bloc—however defensive it may be—will make Asia the cockpit for World War III.

With the understanding they would not be quoted by name, Asian leaders spoke frankly of their fears and frustrations in trying to build new nations in a

Stevens Claims Charges Made by Army Alone

Testimony Clears Up Question of Higher-Ups Directing Schine Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Army Stevens testified under oath today that the Army's actions in its boiling dispute with Sen. McCarthy and his staff were the decisions of the Army "alone."

Stevens repeated from the witness chair of the McCarthy-Army hearings a statement he gave to the press last week while the hearings had been halted temporarily.

The statement declared the Army's decisions were completely the Army's responsibility and were not on "orders from anyone."

The purpose of the statement was to lay at rest the question of whether "higher ups" in the Eisenhower administration had been directing the Army's moves. Sen. McCarthy had raised that question.

As the hearings resumed after a week's recess, Chairman Mundt (R-SD) said McCarthy and his aides have advised them they are "ready and willing" to testify when Army witnesses have finished.

Mundt said the hearings will continue without interruption "until all available information is obtained."

The week's recess resulted from an executive order banning witnesses from testifying about a high-level administration conference last Jan. 21.

Invoking the historic doctrine of separation of powers, President Eisenhower directed there be no discussion as to what went on at the conference in Atty. Gen. Brownell's office, attended by White House aides.

McCarthy, contending it appeared the charges against him were "instigated" at this conference, had insisted it was necessary to get all details of the meeting to develop the full truth about his controversy with the Army.

Giving his view of the situation resulting from the President's secrecy order, Chairman Mundt ruled today that senators may ask any questions they choose about the Jan. 21 meeting.

But he said witnesses will have the right to deny answers because of the President's directive.

Stevens' testimony was delayed by a row among the senators as to what testimony and what subcommittee discussion—behind closed doors in executive sessions—should be made public.

French and U.S. About to Discuss American Help

Political Set-Up Critical, Leaders Are All Away Since Dien Bien Phu

SAIGON, Indochina (AP)—American diplomats here say the political situation in war-torn Viet Nam has deteriorated rapidly since the fall of Dien Bien Phu. They contend only bold steps can save the government.

This became known today as a French study of steps necessary to bolster Indochina's defenses reached near-completion.

Washington reports have said this study is expected to open a new phase in French-American talks on possible U.S. intervention in the Indochinese war.

American diplomats are worried, however, lest the French-sponsored Vietnamese government of former Emperor Bao Dai collapse before outside help can be brought to keep it on its feet.

In overwhelming French Union forces at Dien Bien Phu, the Vietnamese dealt a heavy blow at the morale of the Vietnamese backing Bao Dai's administration.

As a first measure to bolster it, the United States will recommend soon that Bao Dai hurry home from Europe to take over active leadership again.

The Viet Nam chief has been on the French Riviera for more than a month awaiting the outcome of the Geneva conference on Asia and negotiations for complete independence which his officials are carrying on with the French at Paris.

Although the period is extremely critical, most of his Cabinet ministers also are at Geneva, Paris or elsewhere outside the country. Several important decisions have not been carried out.

Before Bao Dai left for France, he signed decrees creating a war cabinet with wide powers and assigned Premier Prince Bui Loc to draw up plans for a provisional national assembly.

The cabinet, at its first meeting, ordered total mobilization of all men between 21 and 24 for military service.

Due largely to sharp differences between government officials, no steps have been taken yet to put these measures into effect.

The French military study is being made by Gen. Paul Ely, chief of staff of the French Army.

Oil Traces Found in Novi Farmland

Oil storage tanks were being constructed on the J. P. Malley farm in Novi Township today as drillers prepared to sink a 5½-inch casing down to the 4,500-foot level where oil traces were found Saturday afternoon.

Tests will be made Friday or Saturday to determine the extent of the find, driller Jack Ferguson said this morning.

The firm of Ferguson and Ferguson of Mt. Pleasant has been drilling on the farm, located at 4820 W. 8-Mile Rd., since March 17.

The Malley farm is about two miles from the location of a giant gas well, brought in about two weeks ago. Ferguson said the oil well is about 100 feet deeper than the gas shaft.

Early Pace Set by Detroit Pro

Smith Turns 1st Nine in 32 Today in PGA's Qualifying Test

What the observers at Orchard Lake Country Club at noon today said was a "red-hot" putter, gave Detroit's Horton Smith the best opening nine of the state PGA qualifying trials. The tall Detroit Golf Club pro fired a four-under-par 32.

"Horton was knocking in a lot of putts and laying his chip very close all the way," one observer reported. "Best of the field, outside Smith and Chick Egan of Lechmere, who had 34, were finding the course a bit difficult," he added, most were getting over that first nine around 38 strokes.

Other first-nine cards, reported at noon included Gabe Banick, with 36 (par); Tommy Cosmos of Oakland Hills 39; Larry Pintuk, former Pontiac boy, a free lancer, 39; John Barnum, Grand Rapids, 36; Chick Harbert, Meadowbrook, 38. Harbert was reported having some trouble on the greens, which were playing pretty fast, according to some of the players.

Forty pros from the Michigan Section PGA were in action. Test today goes 36 holes.

60,000 Pack Roads, Parks to Enjoy Sunday Sunshine

A second Sunday of clear skies and warm weather jammed Oakland County highways as some 60,000 people swarmed to local parks and beaches yesterday.

The U. S. Weather Bureau predicts that thunderstorms tonight and showers Tuesday will bring somewhat cooler weather. Tonight's low should be a balmy 57 to 60 degrees. Tuesday's high will be around 68 to 72.

Temperatures soared from a low of 47 to a summery 79 degrees Sunday. The thermometer dropped to 54 degrees early today, but rose to 64 by 8 a. m. and 77 by 1 p. m.

Edmond W. Alchin, Oakland County Agricultural Agent, welcomed the forecast of showers as the three-week dry spell has begun to affect local crops—especially those growing in sand and clay. Alchin said that rain within a week would erase the dry period's effects.

Pontiac City officials, however, weren't worried about water—at least not yet. Joseph Gable, acting water superintendent, said that pressure stayed at a normal 70 pounds in water mains all weekend.

Pontiac used 38,200,000 gallons of water Friday through Sunday—about 1½ million gallons less than for the same three days last year.

Highways clogged at local intersections Sunday as picnickers took to the parks, Oakland County Under Sheriff Donald O. Menzies said. Menzies said traffic was especially heavy on Dixie highway, with tie-ups at Dixie and M15, and Williams Lake road. Other jammed corners were Telegraph at Orchard Lake roads and West Huron street at M59.

Local parks had above-normal crowds for this time of year. Cass-Dodge Park 4 and Kensington Metropolitan Park reported 25,000 visitors each—three-fourths of them on Sunday.

The Highland Recreation Area near Milford had 4,700 users and 3,000 people went to the Pontiac Lake Recreation Area—many taking advantage of the year-round bass fishing on Pontiac Lake.

Solon Assesses U. S. Strength

Rep. Dondero Declares Might Has Developed Faster Than Expected

Rep. George A. Dondero (R-Mich.) took a close look at the nation's military strength and concluded today that "our armed forces have the punch needed to hold their own anywhere in the world."

He said information reaching him indicates that the national defense program already has progressed more rapidly than expected.

"We are rapidly approaching the point where we can negotiate from strength rather than weakness with those nations threatening world peace," said the lawmaker from Royal Oak.

Dondero said by 1955 the U. S. Army will have 17 combat-ready divisions and 27 National Guard divisions, 18 regimental combat units, and 122 anti-aircraft battalions, many equipped with Nike. The Navy has 400 active warships, he continued, and a fast growing fleet of guided missile ships. The Marine Corps has three combat divisions.

490 Seniors Plan to Visit 35 Firms Here on Tuesday

Some 35 local firms will be visited Tuesday by 490 high school seniors during the Business-Industry-Education day sponsored by the education committee of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce.

Students will assemble at Pontiac High School at 8:30 a. m. for a short program and then will split into groups to be taken to the participating businesses and industries.

The aim is to acquaint graduating seniors with job and career opportunities in Pontiac.

Irishman, American Top British Amateur

MURFIELD, Scotland (AP)—Irish Joe Carr, the defending champion, and Frank Strafaci, of Garden City, N. Y., one of the leading American contenders, led a bulky field today into the second round of the British Amateur Golf championship.

Carr defeated Capt. John F. McNeilly, of Lynn, Mass., 4 and 3. Strafaci, using a Scotch plaid blanket to protect him from the cold wind, eliminated C. R. Duncan Leeds, a middle-aged Scot physician, 3 and 2.

Two of the American title favorites—Frank Stranahan, of Toledo, and long-hitting Bill Campbell, of Huntington, W. Va.—drew first round byes.

The United States began with 35 players in the 286-man field. This delegation was sharply reduced by first round setbacks.

Bird in Manhole Brings Firemen Racing to Rescue

Chirps of distress from a manhole sent two Pontiac firemen and a hook-and-ladder truck racing to the rescue of a nearly drowned robin.

Answering a call from residents, Firemen Leo G. Janka and B. L. Martin, of Station No. 1, found the robin floundering Saturday night in a flooded manhole in front of 77 S. Sanford St.

The bird clung to a tree branch until dry, then flew away—apparently uninjured by its ordeal. The firemen believe the bird entered a sewer opening and floated into the manhole.

Eden Flies to Geneva in Bid to End East-West Deadlock

GENEVA (AP)—British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden flew back to Geneva today for a final effort to break the East-West deadlocks on Indochina and Korea. Arriving in London, where he consulted Prime Minister Churchill and other Cabinet members, Eden declined to comment on secret instructions he was reported to be carrying.

Before leaving London, however, he agreed with an opinion expressed by other Western sources here that the next week or two will be decisive.

It was expected Eden's instructions might determine how much longer the Geneva conference would last. Today's secret nine-party session on Indochina opened its fifth week.

The United States already has made it clear to Britain and France it is ready to end the East-West talks on Korea and Indochina at any time.

Western observers said the next few days should show whether the Communists actually are willing to negotiate a settlement or merely are stalling to gain military advantages in the Indochina fighting.

French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault, who returned from Paris this morning, was reported to have talked over the general Indochina situation with French officials.

Western delegates were agreed the chances for a settlement on either Indochina or Korea seemed slim.

United States already has reached the conclusion the Communists are stalling while the y prepare for a major offensive against the rich Red River delta in North Indochina. The British have insisted, despite the dim outlook, that the talks should be continued until every possibility has been exhausted. The French, for internal political reasons, are determined to continue. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Marian Day Rites Attended by 100,000

DETROIT (INS)—The Marian Day ceremonies at the University of Detroit yesterday drew a crowd of 100,000 persons to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary and to pray for world peace.

The celebration marked the 100th anniversary of Pope Pius IX's proclamation of the Doctrine of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. His Eminence Edward Cardinal Mooney, archbishop of Detroit, presided.

The outdoor services were conducted at the university stadium, where a 46-foot high altar was specially constructed so that 44,000 persons seated and standing in the stadium area and another 56,000 outside could take part.

Negro Leaders Campaign to Enforce Court Ruling

ATLANTA (INS)—Negro leaders launched an intensive local level campaign today to end segregation in the public schools of the District of Columbia and 17 states in the face of bitter opposition by Georgia's Gov. Herman Talmadge.

Officials of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People announced in Atlanta yesterday that chapters would immediately petition local school boards to abolish segregation without delay and offer assistance in working out problems.

The program was mapped out at a two-day conference of representatives from the 18 areas having segregation. Thurgood Marshall, NAACP special counsel, disclosed that the plan calls for integration of all phases of school operation including teacher assignments.

Marshall, who successfully argued the case against segregation before the U. S. Supreme Court, said no delay in terminating dual school systems is expected in the District of Columbia, Maryland, Kentucky, Delaware, West Virginia, Oklahoma, Missouri, Arkansas and "possibly Texas."

As for the other 10 states, he (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

2 Cars Overturn in Crashes Saturday

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Police have reported two separate auto accidents since Saturday in which two cars overturned on Woodward Avenue.

The first one occurred Saturday morning near Cranbrook road, when cars driven by Murrell Wall, 31, and DeWitt Senior, 44, both of Detroit, locked fenders. Police said Wall eventually lost control of his car, skidded, turned over, and hit a tree in the center island.

He is reported in good condition in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, with a fractured back.

In the other accident at 6:30 a. m. today, witnesses reported that William Boykins, 42, of Flint, apparently dozed at the wheel, and left the road, hitting two trees.

They said the car rolled over several times, and careened back on to the road, about one-quarter mile south of Hickory Grove road. He was treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Man Charged After Auto Hits Police Scout Car

BIRMINGHAM — George W. Overton, 28, of Detroit, chose the wrong car to tangle with Sunday morning. It was a police scout car.

Officers Norman Propst and Douglas Moonen stated they had stopped the car on North Woodward, and were standing in front of it talking to another motorist, when Overton's auto crashed into the rear of theirs.

They estimated damage at $125. Overton will appear in court next week on a charge of driving under the influence of liquor.

Deadline Near for Sylvan Vote

Registrations to Close Tuesday for Election on Water System

Tuesday, from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m., is the last time Sylvan Lake residents can register at the city hall to vote in the special election on a proposal to issue bonds for a municipal water system.

The date for the vote on the $225,000 project is June 24, according to City Manager Ernest Ethier.

In other business, Ethier said two new shuffleboard courts and a horseshoe court equipped for night play will be opened at Sylvanite Haven Park on Memorial Day. Players will supply their own cues and horseshoes, he said.

New resident-property owner beach cards and 1954 window stickers are being mailed, the city manager said. The city police check the lakefront by asking bathers and picnickers to produce their cards, Ethier said, thus preventing use of the parks by outsiders.

The name of Fisher road has been changed to Garland avenue. Docks placed on the lakefront are on city property and the city asks they be kept in good order and removed in the fall, Ethier said. All boats should be unloaded at a marked area near the Boat Club on Ferndale avenue, he added.

Ethier reminds citizens that no dogs are allowed at the lakefront park and that barricades at Lakeview and Ferndale avenues will be set up by police each weekend and holiday.

Label Red Mail, Clardy Suggests

Congress Receives Bill Requiring Communists to Mark Letters

WASHINGTON — Rep. Kit Clardy (R-Mich) today asked Congress to require that all "Communist mail" be labeled "Communist Propaganda" in red ink letters 1/4 inch high.

Clardy, a member of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, prepared a bill defining "Communist mail" as:

1. Any mail disseminated by or for any organization certified as Communist under the 1950 Subversive Activities Control Act, or
2. Any mail "which contains material that advocates, advises or teaches the political, economic, international or governmental doctrines of communism."

Without the "Communist Propaganda" label on its wrapper or envelope, such material would be declared "unmailable."

A maximum $5,000 fine and five-year prison sentence would be provided for anyone violating this restriction.

The bill also would require the postmaster general to deny second-class mailing privileges to "Communist mail."

tical reasons, have felt the West must avoid any appearance of being too hasty about breaking off negotiations.

It now appears the Western powers are approaching the time when they must decide on some sort of deadline.

The United States was understood to feel a decision on a cut-off date is vital in view of Britain's public declarations that she will make no military commitments for intervention in Indochina while the Geneva talks are in progress.

This policy has become a serious barrier between British and American leaders. In the opinion of the United States, it has weakened the bargaining power of the West at Geneva and has stalled U.S. efforts to line up military backing for France in Indochina.

The expectation that the Indochina peace talks would finally get down to concrete proposals was based on last Friday's agreement that military problems should be given priority over political issues.

The agreement ended a long procedural wrangle and some delegates hailed it as a step forward. But the United States and some others saw no reason for optimism. A spokesman for this group said the Communists and the West were standing firm on all major issues.

Outside the conference chambers Krishna Menon, India's delegate to the United Nations, was busy in a series of conversations with big power diplomats in what appeared to be an effort at mediation.

Menon came to Geneva as Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru's special envoy.

Fox, Hounds Bandits Receive Long Terms

Two Detroiters were sentenced to long prison terms today by Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty for the armed robbery of the Fox and Hounds Inn last November in Bloomfield Hills.

Charles Clark, 31, of 665 Hague St., was given 20 to 40 years and John W. Graham, 37, of 4738 23rd St., received 10 to 20 years.

The pair was found guilty by a Circuit Court jury May 14 and have been in Oakland County Jail awaiting sentence.

James Sullivan, 30, of Detroit, was sentenced to 10 to 20 years for the same robbery in April. A fourth man believed involved in the holdup is being sought on an FBI fugitive warrant. The men will serve their terms in Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson.

Would Not Use Word 'Delinquent' for Juveniles

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. — The nearly nine million members of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers (PTA) were urged today to tear away the "delinquent" label of "juvenile delinquent" often stamped on the "child in trouble."

Mrs. Newton P. Leonard of Providence, R. I., national PTA president, said "juvenile delinquents, so-called, are children in trouble, children in conflict with the law, with society, with themselves."

"The last thing they need," she said, "is to be branded with a dehumanizing label and a matching set of attitudes from members of the community."

In a speech prepared for delivery at the opening of the PTA's annual convention, Mrs. Leonard called on the group's 8,882,694 members to roll up their sleeves and "go to work on many fronts to safe-guard children and young people."

"To the extent that we are indifferent to slums, unemployment, war, overcrowded schools, teachers' shortages, shoddy entertainment—to the extent that we are indifferent to all that coarsens and brutalizes—we are accessories to delinquency," she said.

area whose unplumbed riches and geographical position make it a tempting target for Red expansion.

"Those who want to be friends of the United States are falling silent now," an elderly pro-American statesman told me sadly. "It is becoming just as politically unwise in this part of the world to take the side of the United States as it is for you in the states to take the part of Red China."

Asian leaders are alive to the internal Communist threat and have been fighting it consistently. They fear communism. But first of all they fear a new general war.

Because of this, however mistakenly, they fear the United States. They do not believe Americans have any aggressive designs on them. But they have a dread that actions of the United States in a head-on clash with the Soviet Union might plunge Asia into the most dreadful of all wars.

They insist they have won substantial victories over their domestic Communists and can keep them in check, short of invasion from China.

But many of these anti-Communist leaders themselves help Communist propaganda along. Anti-colonialism is the cement holding these new nations together. Many a leader is not averse to transferring the former fear of Britain, France or Holland over to the United States, several frankly admitted this to me.

Certainly the two largest nations, India and Indonesia, would have to be counted out of a Southeast Asian alliance as matters stand now. And Burma likely would cast a cautious look northward. That leaves Pakistan, Thailand and Malaysia, short of a defense line pushed all the way back to the Pacific Island chain.

NAACP Campaigns to Enforce Ruling

asserted that the NAACP is prepared to press—through court action, if necessary—for an end to separate schools "in a reasonable time."

The challenge hurled by Marshall was immediately taken up by Gov. Talmadge.

The Georgia chief executive defied the federal government to end segregation in his state.

Talmadge, speaking on CBS' "The World Today" radio program yesterday warned that Georgia will not permit Negro and white children to attend the same schools even if troops are sent into the state to enforce the Supreme Court ruling.

The governor said Georgia would "do whatever is necessary to keep white children in white schools and colored children in colored schools."

He previously had declared his intention to keep the state's schools segregated, possibly by use of a "private school" system.

Says Army Alone Instigated Charges

with a request that the record of an executive session May 17—when Eisenhower's secrecy order was discussed by the subcommittee—be released as soon as possible.

Sen. Potter (R-Mich) made that motion for McCarthy.

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) then offered a substitute motion that all records of executive sessions—including testimony taken behind closed doors—be released. McClellan said this would apply to future as well as past closed sessions.

After almost a half-hour of debate, the subcommittee postponed action and both Potter and McClellan withdrew their motions until later.

Mundt's announcement that McCarthy and his associates were "ready and willing" to testify was based on a 15-minute conference Mundt had with McCarthy just before today's resumption of the hearings.

Mundt told reporters later that McCarthy had advised him then that he and his aides would testify before the hearings are concluded.

"I would expect them on the witness stand early this week," Mundt said, predicting that taking the rest of the testimony for the Army side of the bitter dispute will be ended within a matter of days.

McCarthy had told newsmen over the weekend he would be available to testify at any time but that he would not order Cohn, his chief counsel, and Carr, his staff director, to testify. However, he said, he would advise them to testify.

McCarthy's word to Mundt seemed to assure that Cohn and Carr will take the witness chair unless the subcommittee should decide to remove Carr from the list of principals.

There was some sentiment to drop Carr as a principal since he has figured less prominently than McCarthy and Cohn in the Army's testimony of alleged pressure for special favors for Pvt. G. David Schine, drafted former consultant to the McCarthy subcommittee.

There was talk also of possibly dropping H. Struve Hensel, asst. secretary of defense, as a principal. The McCarthy camp has charged Hensel "masterminded" the Army's charges.

Military Housing Details Sought

Senator Says Evidence Exists of Huge Profits in Service Projects

WASHINGTON (UP)—Sen. Case (R-S.D.) said today he has asked the armed services to supply full details on multi-million dollar military housing projects to a Senate subcommittee he heads.

He said in an interview there is some evidence of huge profits in military housing constructed by private builders either on or near military bases.

Case said his inquiry should not duplicate or interfere with those previously launched by committees headed by Sens. Byrd (D-Va.) and Capehart (R-Ind.).

All three involve a similar pattern—evidence that some builders or developers got government-insured loans of more than the value of their projects and pocketed the difference by various means.

Byrd, as chairman of the Joint Committee of Reduction of Non-essential Federal Expenditures, was critical yesterday of another aspect of the government housing program which has been under investigation by Capehart's Banking Committee and by the Eisenhower administration.

This is the program of insuring loans for home repairs, Byrd said in a statement that lenders have asked for more than 150 million dollars to repay them for defaulted notes on such loans.

Byrd declared that the Federal Housing Administration (FHA) had "insured everyone against loss, except the borrower, in 17 million repair or improvement loans totaling $7,600,000,000 without any prior appraisal."

Avon Players Revive Theater-in-the-Round Style

A MINUTE TO GO — Mrs. Ludwig Bachor, although a veteran actress, said she had butterflies a few minutes before curtain time. Accenting the eyes, she poses before the mirror. She portrayed Lady Clare Marten of Chelsea, England, for the production. The play, taken from "Mr. Peabody and the Mermaid," drew a capacity crowd both nights of its presentation and a warm ovation for the theater-in-the-round. This was the first time the Players had presented a circle-theater.

TICKET ROW FOR BARN PLAY — The big red barn on the L. S. Smart Farm, Tienken Road, Rochester, was the rustic setting for the Avon Players presentation of "Miranda" Friday and Saturday nights. An amateur play group, the Players have been staging plays for seven years in this area, but this was their first circle theater production and the first time they used a barn. The above picture shows the Smart barn and the lower photo is the ticket booth set up outside the barn entrance. Shown, (left to right) in the lower picture are, Margaret Wiggins, Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sheppard, Mrs. Frederick W. Nash and ticket taker, George Akens. Mrs. Charles Stewart served as the other ticket seller.

Amateurs Successful With Barn Presentation of 'Miranda'

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE
ROCHESTER — Theater-in-the-round received a hearty ovation from Rochester playgoers this past weekend when several hundred watched the Avon Players stage another phenomenal success.

Tried for the first time in this area, the circle theater idea was used to present "Miranda" in the big red barn on the L. S. Smart farm, Tienken Rd., Rochester. Taken from the successful comedy, "Mr. Peabody and the Mermaid," the play enjoyed a two-night stand before a packed-barn audience.

The rustic setting in the country was punctuated with intermission calls by the cowbell and an occasional visit from a neighborly dog who wondered what was going on in the big barn.

Acclaimed by theater professionals to be a top-notch drama group, the Avon Players are going into their seventh year.

"We wondered seven years ago how long it would last, but we kept on working and hoping," said Henry Purdy, Main street druggist who with a local minister conceived the idea of starting the group.

Their first presentation, "The Male Animal" put the newly organized group in the red by $50. Today, they have nearly $1,000 in the bank. Their goal: "A barn of their own."

Critics who watched Friday and Saturday nights' productions said this group "is head and shoulders above most amateur players in the state."

The reason, they believe, is that

CAPACITY CROWD ATTENDS BARN PERFORMANCE — Everyone was there but the animals when the Avon Players staged "Miranda" this past weekend in the L. S. Smart barn on Tienken road.

This scene shows the crowd a half-hour to curtain time. The play took place in the center of the barn floor with the audience circling the production.

Rochester, as a place to live, has attracted some fine acting and directing talent and these people have wanted to participate in their community's cultural activities.

Fully incorporated with a constitution and by-laws governing its operation, the group is a democratically functioning organization.
