Hot Gubernatorial Campaign in the Making

Gov. Swainson, Romney Outline Their Strategy

Dem, GOP Conventions Name Running Mates in Election

LANSING (AP)—Michigan's hottest election in recent years appeared in the making today as Democratic Gov. John Swainson and his Republican rival George Romney mapped strategy for the forthcoming campaign with newly chosen running mates.

Both major political parties filled out their tickets in state conventions Saturday, choosing nominees for four positions on the State Administrative Board — the governor's so-called "cabinet."

Convention delegates also nominated two candidates apiece for "nonpartisan" seats on the State Supreme Court.

AID TO ROMNEY

Simultaneously in Detroit, the GOP selected candidates they hope will help Romney break the grip Democrats have had on the governor's chair since 1948.

Michigan has not had a Republican governor since G. Mennen Williams, now assistant secretary of state for African affairs, won the first of six consecutive elections 14 years ago.

To the din of the vigorous applause and standing ovations, both Swainson and Romney delivered blistering speeches to their conventions.

The ultra-conservative and controversial John Birch Society came in for attention at both conventions, with Democratic speakers calling on the GOP to repudiate the society positively and conclusively.

★ ★ ★

Republican leaders, while contending that Birchite activities were merely a "flea on the elephant's back, wrote into their platform a plank reaffirming a stand taken by the state central committee last January repudiating any support from the society.

ASSAILED CULTS

Romney bitterly assailed "secret cults" and "purveyors of hate" that attempt to attach themselves like a parasite to one party or the other.

The Republican standard-bearer called for legislation that would permit either party to banish from leadership anyone "whose real allegiance may be to another organization or society."

Although Romney did not name the John Birch group by name, there was no doubt about his target. He had promised earlier to have something to say about Birchites.

Most of the delegates roared their approval.

But there were boos from the 14th Congressional District delegation, whose vice chairman, Richard Durant, has clashed with Romney in recent weeks over the issue of the Birch Society.

Durant, who said he has resigned from the society but hasn't

'U.S. Guilty'—Cuba

From Our News Wires

NEW YORK — Cuba's big buildup of Soviet bloc military technicians and equipment is being accompanied by daily charges that planes from the United States naval base at Guantanamo are "violating" Cuban air space and territorial waters.

★ ★ ★

What the relationship between these twin developments may be—if any—remains uncertain.

But American officials are known to be concerned, particularly since the Soviet-supplied equipment may include surface-to-air missiles.

Installation of such equipment around Guantanamo, for example, could dangerously increase Cuban-American tensions over the huge naval installation which Premier Fidel Castro hopes some day to control, political sources said.

For the past two months Cuba's armed forces ministry has been issuing daily communiques in which American planes, ships and submarines are accused of "violating" Cuban territory. Most of the alleged violations occur around Guantanamo.

PRESS PROBE

In Washington, meanwhile, the government pressed an investigation to determine if the shelling of Havana violated the U.S. neutrality act.

The State Department already has pinned on a Miami-based exiled Cuban students group the responsibility for Friday night's attack, but has not said whether the raiders sailed from this country.

The neutrality law prohibits launching from U.S. soil armed attacks on countries not at war with the United States. The Justice Department is trying to find out if prosecutions under this law are called for.

In a Miami news conference Sunday, Juan Manuel Salvat, leader of the students group, declined to say where the ships used in the off-shore shelling of Miramar suburb were based. But, he declared, "I don't feel we have violated any law of any country."

In holding the Students Revolutionaly Directorate responsible for the sortie the State Department warned Saturday that "any repetition of such action by any group could involve the provisions of the Neutrality Act."

A spokesman said the government had no advance knowledge of the attack.

While U.S. officials personally have some sympathy for exiled Cubans, they take the view that such hit-and-run attacks only serve to feed Prime Minister Fidel Castro's claim that he needs Communist arms to build up his defenses.

These officials point out that it

Up Reward in Holdup to $50,000

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postmaster General J. Edward Day raised to $50,000 today the reward offered for solution of the $1.5-million Cape Cod mail robbery.

Day told a House Government Activities subcommittee investigating the case that he is ordering the entire amount appropriated by Congress to his department for reward offers to be posted on this case. The amount is $50,000.

A reward of $2,000 previously had been offered.

★ ★ ★

As for how the bold, record-breaking robbery was possible, Day said there was a combination of unfortunate circumstances, including what he called a misinterpreted relationship with the Massachusetts State Police.

★ ★ ★

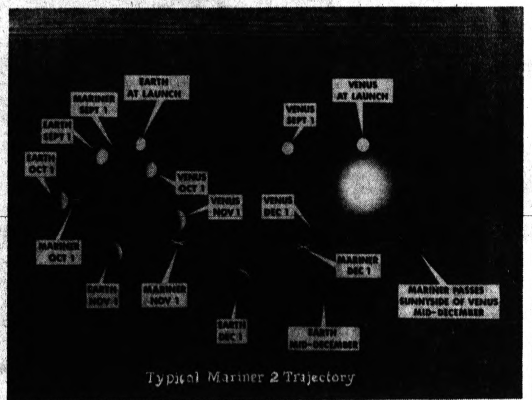
Day said the postal employes had conducted four previous successful runs carrying currencies from banks over the same route.

He said they were under the impression from instructions given to them that state police cruisers would be observing their progress.

★ ★ ★

But he said that checks made after the robbery showed that none of the employes had at any time observed a cruiser anywhere along their route.

Space Rendezvous Plotted



AP Photofax

INTENDED FLIGHT—This chart, prepared by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, shows the projected course of the Mariner 2 plotted before it was fired an estimated 600,000 miles off course from Cape Canaveral today. Space officials hope they can correct the trajectory error before the craft nears Venus in December.

Error Sends Mariner 2 Off Course in Venus Shot

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — An off-course Mariner 2 spacecraft rocketed into space today on an intended 109-day trip to explore the planet Venus.

Despite a severe trajectory error, scientists were hopeful they could correct most of it by remote control signals to an on-board motor.

Improper rocket performance released the 447-pound spacecraft on a course that, if followed, would cause it to miss Venus by not more than 600,000 miles when the two make their closest approach Dec. 14.

This is far from the 10,000-mile-distant fly-by that the National aeronautics and Space Administration planned.

Just how much the spacecraft can be commanded back to a Venus rendezvous course will not be known until more precise tracking information is available. This may be several days.

Jack James, Mariner manager for NASA's jet propulsion laboratory, said the on-board motor has the capability of making a 600,000-mile correction depending on position of the spacecraft.

This would mean Mariner 2 could be jockeyed onto a path to pass within 100,000-miles of Venus — too great a range for its senstivie instruments to do much probing beneath Venus' heavy blanket of clouds.

But there was a chance refined tracking data might show the present course to be less than 600,000 miles off and that the probe therefore could pass closer to the mysterious bright planet.

James said to be any value in exploring Venus, Mariner 2 would have to approach within 25,000 miles of the sunlit side.

He said important data would be gained about the interplanetary space between earth and Venus even if the craft missed by a greater distance, but the main goal of the experiment would be lost.

The key to straightening Mariner's trajectory is a 37.3-pound motor which will be fired by ground radio signal eight days after launching when tracking computers have precisely defined the spacecraft's position, attitude and velocity.

Compromise Offer Brings Fast Refusal

Only One Inspection, for Underground Shots, Listed by U.S., Britain

GENEVA (AP)—Britain and the United States today proposed a treaty for an unpoliced ban on nuclear tests in the atmosphere, under water and in outer space—and the Soviet Union immediately turned a cold shoulder on the idea.

The Western powers proposed to continue working for a treaty to ban tests in all environments — but with provisions for international on-site inspection of suspicious tremors which might indicate underground tests.

Less than two hours after the West offered the partial ban at the 17-nation disarmament conference, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov turned thumbs down.

Kuznetsov was quoted by Western conference sources as saying the Western proposal for a partial ban was "a stimulus to nuclear war."

★ ★ ★

REDS SAY NO

Conference sources said Kuznetsov rejected out of hand the second proposal, calling for a ban on all tests in all environments for all time, but with provisions for compulsory international inspection on the site of a suspicious tremor which could be an earth quake or a clandestine underground explosion.

U. S. Ambassador Arthur H. Dean presented the Western proposal at the 7th session of the 17-nation disarmament conference.

He said the United States and

China Gets Set With N-Device

U.S. Believes Peiping Nearly Ready to Test Early Stage Only

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — U.S. disarmament agency officials expressed belief today that Communist China probably will set off a nuclear explosion within a matter of months.

They made the time estimate in explaining the urgency which lies behind the latest U.S.-British proposal for a limited treaty banning tests of nuclear weapons in the atmosphere, outer space and under water.

(In Amarillo, Tex., Dr. Edward Teller, father of the H-bomb, said that even if Red China touches off a nuclear test explosion in the near future, it will not make Peiping a "serious nuclear power."

(Commenting on the Washington report, Teller said one test would not give Red China nuclear weapons in quantity.

("The spread of nuclear weapons is unavoidable," Teller said

KEY TO FUTURE? — With Pontiac's vast urban renewal program putting local and federal government funds to work redeveloping the south side of the central business district, the northern section, according to city planners, may hold the key to total success of downtown redevelopment. Planners and urban renewal officials have pointed out that it is in the area shown here that private capital must be invested to transform the entire central business district into a giant hub of all commercial activity. This photo, taken for The Press by pilot-photographer Homer Tinney, looks northwest over the Saginaw-Huron street intersection. In the left foreground, the old county courthouse is rapidly disappearing behind the top of the Pontiac State Bank Building. The Oakland County Jail is also shown (far left). The county office building, eventually to be vacated in favor of the new administrative wing at the county service center, is the large building at the top. In the recently completed central business district plan, architects suggest Saginaw be turned into a mall-type development from Waite's Department Store (center) northerly to its intersection with Oakland Avenue (upper right). The tower in the center of the photo is Federal Department Store.

Fair, Warmer Is Expected for Most of Week

Pontiac area residents can expect fair and warm weather throughout most of the week.

Temperatures will average around six degrees above the normal 79 and normal low of 59 during the next five days, according to the U.S. Weather Bureau.

Rainfall, totaling some 1.4 inches Saturday and Sunday, is predicted to be .25 of an inch or less in a few scattered showers toward the end of this week.

Northwest to west winds at 5 to 12 m.p.h. today will become southwesterly tonight.

The lowest temperature recorded preceding 8 o'clock today was 60 degrees at 6:15 a.m. At 2 p.m. the thermometer reading was a pleasant 75.

Senate Studies JFK Tax Bill

Critics Demand Time to Debate Changes to Revision Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate took up the administration's tax revision bill today amid demands from critics that they be allowed ample time to debate proposed changes.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., protested that he had been advised that leaders had agreed to use tabling motions to chop off debate on dozens of pending amendments. A motion to table is not debatable.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana replied that no agreement had been reached with anyone. But he said that he was reserving the right to make tabling motions because Proxmire himself had notified the leaders he would block any proposal for unanimous agreement to limit debate.

The bill is on President Kennedy's list of must items for the closing weeks of Congress and Mansfield is aiming for Senate action by the weekend. However, Republican Leader Everett M. Kirksen of Illinois told newsmen he doubted the Senate would act that soon.

BUCKLE DOWN

Heading into what they hope will be the final month of the session, the Senate and House buckle down to a full week of work.

Twenty-two bills, several of them highly controversial, were crowded onto today's House calendar, to be followed Tuesday by consideration of a $900-million public works bill.

Southerners waged a delaying action to slow down House consideration of a proposed constitutional amendment to outlaw poll taxes in elections for federal offices.

Their weapon was repeated demands for quorum calls to make sure a majority of the House was present.

Their chances of preventing a vote appeared extremely slim, since House rules do not permit prolonged filibusters and there were enough proponents of the amendment in town to force a final vote later in the day.

The proposed constitutional amendment would make it illegal to charge a poll tax as a qualification for voting for presidential and vice presidential electors and for members of Congress. It would not affect state and local elections.

Sharing top billing in the House today are bills dealing with housing for elderly persons in rural areas, bank mergers, several measures affecting internal security and establishment of a communications satellite system.

Windmill Whirls in Back Yard

Troy Man Builds His Own Dutch Treat

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

From the time Alex Faber, 64, landed in America from Holland 42 years ago, he has had a hankering to have his own Dutch windmill. This wish has finally become a reality.

As a boy he would sit on his front porch and watch a big windmill across the street as it swooshed majestically around in a soft breeze or whirled with fury in a high windstorm.

The big sails not only spun around vertically but as the wind changed, the windmill's head rotated to provide a good grain-grinding job.

★ ★ ★

With only a nickel postcard and his imagination to guide him, Faber began his project in October. First the base was constructed, the intricate balcony around the middle came next, then the time-consuming job of putting together the four wings and attaching them to the head.

Many cans of weather-resisting glue, and about 400 tiny screws went into Faber's creation. Whenever he'd have a moment to spare during the winter Faber would work on the parts.

Forty-eight pieces of wood had to be glued together to make the "cap" on the 12-foot windmill, which has a steel base for easy moving in a breeze.

Set on top, it resembles a giant wasp's nest cut in half.

Back in Holland, Faber explained, there were big windmills to grind corn, grist, wheat and oats and little ones to pump water from small canals into the larger ones.

Willard R. Murphy of 20417 Huntington St., died of internal injuries, according to the coroner's report.

Paul R. Bumgardner, 19, of 435 Decker Road, Walled Lake, told sheriff's deputies he lost control of the truck on a curve when he applied the brake.

Deputies said the southbound truck was traveling about 35 miles an hour on the rain-slicked blacktop. The vehicle slid into the northbound lane where it collided with the victim's oncoming car.

Bumgardner was to make a formal statement at the prosecutor's office today.

The Day in Birmingham

Propose Zoning to Allow Nursing Homes in City

BIRMINGHAM — A proposal to revise the zoning ordinance to allow nursing and convalescent homes in the city will be presented to the City Commission tonight.

★ ★ ★

City Planner William R. Brownfield, in a letter to the commission recommending the change, suggests that the matter be referred to the planning board for further study.

Brownfield said he recently has received several requests for information regarding the appropriate location of nursing homes.

The zoning ordinance, however, does not specify in what district this type of facility or any similar facility can locate, the city planner explained.

He said that it was the opinion of City Attorney Dean Beier that the ordinance be amended to allow nursing homes to be placed in an appropriate zone classification and with the necessary controls to regulate these uses.

It would be up to the planning board to determine the location for these facilities.

A public hearing on special assessments for the city's 1962 road-oiling program will be held by the City Commission at 8 p.m. today.

The project consists of patching holes and applying two applications of asphaltic oil and stone chips to various city streets. The streets were designated at the July 23 commission meeting.

The commission will review the assessment rolls, giving an opportunity to all persons protesting individual cost.

Soviets Urged to End Cruelty

U.S. Calls for Halt to 'Senseless' Acts on Berlin Border

MOSCOW (UPI) — The United States called on the Soviet Union today to halt the "senseless cruelty" of Communist police in East Berlin and join the Western allies in seeking a way to reduce tensions in the divided city.

The appeal was made in a note delivered to the Soviet Foreign Ministry answering Soviet charges that recent incidents in West Berlin took place "with the obvious connivance of U.S. occupation authorities."

"It should not be necessary to remind the Soviet government that the present tensions in Berlin have been caused by the illegal erection of the wall and the senseless cruelty of the police of the Soviet sector," the U.S. note said.

Recent incidents involving the stoning of vehicles carrying Soviet personnel through the U.S. sector of West Berlin, it continued, were caused by "the criminal shooting of a defenseless and innocent boy on August 17th."

It was a reference to the shooting by East German guards of 18-year-old Peter Fechter as he tried to scale the Berlin wall.

Fechter fell on the Communist side and bled to death.

Swainson, Romney Drive to Run Hot

LESINSKI TALKS

Meanwhile in Grand Rapids, Lt. Gov. T. John Lesinski assailed Romney for saying that there has been a history of Communist infiltration in the Democratic party.

After Lesinski described Romney as a "compact McCarthy," Democratic delegates officially denounced the former American Motors president as a "political slanderer."

Romney made his comment in response to newsmen's questions about extremist groups. He said that the Democrat's extremist group is the Communist party element. Asked if he thought Michigan's Democratic party was infiltrated with Communists, Romney said:

"I don't know."

Except for scattered token opposition, Republican delegates nominated without hesitation a slate of recommended candidates which Romney and a group of GOP leaders had agreed would be the best team the GOP could put together.

SIX QUALIFICATIONS

Romney said potential candidates were screened for six qualifications:

★ ★ ★

In a series of appearances in the Detroit area Sunday, Swainson accused Republican leaders of handpicking their candidates "in true dictator fashion . . . according to the specifications laid down by one man."

"Republican leaders talk of party participation, but they operate a closed corporation," he said. "They denied party delegates a voice in these selections, and then the party leader told Michigan citizens that we must enact a law to throw out of any party any person who does not happen to agree with its leadership.

"The arrogance of the Republican high command at its party convention is typical of the party's disregard over the years of the people's needs and desires."

THE LINE-UP

Here is the lineup of candidates who will oppose each other in the Nov. 6 election:

Secretary of state—James Hare, 52, Democratic incumbent vs. Norman Stockmeyer, 55, former Wayne County GOP chairman.

Supreme Court — Democratic incumbents Paul Adams, Sault St. Marie, and Otis Smith, Flint vs. Republicans Michael O'Hara, Menominee attorney, and Circuit Judge Louis McGregor, Flint.

Rounding out the slates of running-mates for Swainson and Romney are the lieutenant governor candidates — incumbent Democrat Lesinski and his GOP challenger, Clarence Reid of Detroit, lieutenant governor in 1953-54.

They were nominated in the Aug. 7 primary as were candidates in one other statewide race for congressman-at-large.

The congressional race pits former Republican Rep. Alvin Bentley of Owosso against Democratic National Committeeman Neil Staebler of Ann Arbor.

Car Balky Taking Off at Track

The first question is when is the next train due to arrive.

But such a report shortly after midnight this morning was unusual.

The car in this case had been cruising along on the rails and became stuck when the driver tried to turn off.

Grand Trunk Western Railroad officials were wondering what to do with the three men in the car. The railroad men thought some law must have been broken.

But sheriff's deputies didn't know of any law to cover the circumstances. They let the trio go pending a decision by the prosecutor's office.

The driver of the car, Derek C. Downs, 21, of 190 W. Flint St., Lake Orion, said they had heard a car could be driven on the railroad tracks and were testing the theory.

In the car also were Edward Edwards, 19, of 73 Barrow St., Metamora, and John M. Thurston, 22, of 2090 Windy Hill Lane in the Auburn Heights Trailer Park on Opdyke Road.

Downs said he drove the car onto the tracks at the Diversion Street crossing in Rochester. The vehicle proceeded a few hundred feet as far as the Mill Street crossing where the men decided to get off.

But when Downs turned the wheel, the car became hung up by its axle on the tracks and had to be removed by a wrecker. Police were notified.

Railroad officials said they would check to see if any damage had been caused the track.

The next train was due to pass shortly after 11 a.m. today.

7th Red N-Blast Is Reported by Swedish Experts

From Our News Wires

UPPSALA, Sweden — Swedish scientists today detected a powerful Soviet nuclear blast estimated to have had an explosive force of from 14 to 15 million tons of TNT.

The blast today was the seventh in the Soviet Union's current test series, which opened Aug. 5 with a 40-megaton explosion.

The Russians set off their fifth and sixth blasts Saturday in the 9 to 11 megaton (millions of tons of TNT) range.

Dr. Marcus Baath, chief of the Uppsala Seismological Institute, said at first that today's explosion was about the same force.

But a recheck of instruments at both Uppsala and at the Stockholm Institute of Technology showed it to be in the 14 to 15 megaton range, a spokesman said.

Refuses Bircher Warrant Against Aide to Romney

Wayne County Prosecutor Samuel Olsen today turned down the second request by the Michigan leader of the John Birch Society for an assault warrant against Birmingham's Richard T. Van Dusen.

Edward Kelly of Roseville, accused Van Dusen, an adviser to George W. Romney, of roughing him up in a scuffle over Birch Society signs Friday near the 10th floor Romney headquarters for the Republican state convention at Detroit's Statler-Hilton Hotel.

Olsen ruled there was not sufficient evidence of malicious intent to seek a warrant. Van Dusen said he grabbed Kelly to prevent him from taking a swing at another Romney supporter.

JFK Will Decorate Ex-Red Prisoner

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy arranged a special trip to Walter Reed Army Hospital today to decorate Maj. Lawrence R. Bailey Jr., one of two Americans released by the Communists in Laos after months of suffering.

A second released prisoner, Sgt. Orville R. Ballenger, hospitalized at Ft. Bragg, N. C., was to be decorated at the same time by the commanding officer there.

In both cases the decoration is the Bronze Star.

Actor Jack Carson Collapses at Rehearsal

He was taken to Newton Memorial Hospital where doctors said he was suffering from a stomach disorder. His condition was listed as fair today. Carson is 51.

Reds Quickly Reject Partial Ban Offer

President John F. Kennedy and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan said in a joint statement that unlike underground testing, nuclear tests in the atmosphere, underwater and in outer space "can be effectively verified without on-site inspections."

Throughout the long Geneva nuclear negotiations the Russians have steadfastly balked on all proposals for on-site inspections of tests.

Kennedy and Macmillan expressed in their joint statement a strong preference for a clear-cut ban on all nuclear testing.

They said: "For the safety and security of all of us, this deadly competition must be halted."

But they said they are prepared to conclude an early agreement, covering the more limited field, "if this represents the widest area of agreement possible at this time."

Andrew T. Hatcher, assistant White House press secretary, in handing out the Kennedy-Macmillan statement, refused to amplify it in any way.

"The statement speaks for itself," he said.

He said the treaty proposals will be placed on the table before the disarmament conference in Geneva by Arthur H. Dean, chief U. S. negotiator.

in commenting on Red China's plans to join the nuclear club. "It won't make a serious nuclear power of China. But it will increase the nuisance power of China which is already high enough.")

Under terms of the treaty, the Soviet Union, Britain and France would agree to refrain from causing, encouraging, or in any way participating in, nuclear weapons test explosions in other countries.

Over a period of years, it is estimated that at least 20 countries not now possessing a nuclear capability will be able to develop nuclear devices.

This does not mean, however, that they will be able to deliver such weapons without technical advice and the industrial strength needed to produce costly and highly sophisticated missiles.

Pontiac Schools to Open

Sept. 10 and night school students will register Sept. 11.

Public school children new to the school areas in which they live may register at elementary, junior high and senior high schools Monday through Friday this week and succeeding days before school starts.

Elementary Education Coordinator Gerald E. White recommends elementary registration be done between 1 and 4 p.m. today, and from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Friday. The last day for such registration is Tuesday, Sept. 4, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

All elementary pupils, except kindergarten children, report for half-day sessions in the mornings of Wednesday, Sept. 5, and Thursday, Sept. 6. They will be dismissed at noon.

The half-day sessions will allow teacher planning sessions in the afternoons. Full-day elementary classes begin Friday, Sept. 7.

KINDERGARTEN

Parents who did not register their children during the "spring round-up" may register them for kindergarten at the schools on Thursday, Sept. 6 and Friday, Sept. 7. Parents are asked first to go to the principal's office for registration.

Regular kindergarten sessions begin Monday Sept. 10.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOLS

At the city's five junior high schools, all seventh graders and all 8th and 9th graders who are new to the school will report at 8:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 6.

The 8th and 9th graders affected by this order are those who did not attend the particular school at the close of last year.

On Friday, Sept. 7, all grades in junior high schools will report for regular sessions except at Jefferson according to Asst. Supt. William J. Lacy.

Registration times of students who are new to the area served by each individual school are as follows:

EASTERN — 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. beginning today, any weekday before school start.

LINCOLN — Registration of 8th and 9th grade students who are new to the Lincoln area can be made from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. beginning today and any weekday until school starts. This does not include seventh graders.

MADISON — Any student new to the area may register from 9 to 4 p.m. beginning today and any day before the beginning of school.

WASHINGTON —Any student new to the area may register 8 to 4 p.m.

JEFFERSON — Major exceptions to the general rules are to be noted at this school. Registration applying to old and new students will be held from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. on the first three days of this week.

Today, all 9th graders were to register, to be followed by 8th graders on Tuesday. Seventh graders are asked to register at the school on either Wednesday or Thursday.

At registration time, all fees must be presented.

As do the other four junior high schools, Jefferson will ask all 7th graders and those 8th and 9th graders who are new to the school to report to school at 8:30 a.m. Sept. 6, following registration on the earlier dates.

However on Sept. 7, 7th and 8th graders will attend only from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., while ninth graders will attend only from 1 to 3 p.m.

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOLS
Thursday, Sept. 6

All 10th grade students and others new to the school will report at both senior high schools this day.

At Pontiac Northern, the reporting time will be 8:30 a.m.

At Pontiac Central, the reporting time will be 9 a.m.

Friday, Sept. 7

All students are asked to report at regular hours.

(A $5 book card must be obtained from the respective school before Sept. 6).

Sure Friends Will Understand

Mrs. Finkbine Returns From Sweden

LAWRENCEBURG, Ind. (UPI)—Mrs. Sherri Finkbine has returned to the United States, tired but full of confidence "my friends will understand" why she underwent an abortion in Sweden.

The Phoenix, Ariz., television personality and her school-teacher husband Robert landed in Chicago after a flight from London, England, yesterday. Following a brief meeting with newsmen the couple flew to Cincinnati, Ohio, last night.

The Finkbines flew to Sweden and obtained permission from the Swedish State Medical Board for a lawful abortion on the ground that her pregnancy might cause a mental breakdown.

Mrs. Finkbine had sought unsuccessfully in Arizona to obtain a legal abortion after she learned that the drug thalidomide, which she had taken during the early stages of pregnancy, was blamed for the birth of deformities of infants born in Europe.

★ ★ ★

At Cincinnati the Finkbines were met by the teacher's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Finkbine, and the younger Finkbines' daughter, Terry, 7.

The five drove to Lawrenceburg, where the couple plans to rest before returning to Phoenix.

When the couple emerged from their plane at Greater Cincinnati Airport, Terry ran forward and embraced her mother. Flashbulbs popped and the little girl started to cry. "Let her alone. She's scared," Mrs. Finkbine ordered.

Mrs. Finkbine talked briefly to newsmen, admitting she was "pretty tired." She said she hoped to return to her television career and to have more children.

★ ★ ★

She said she has no plans to campaign for legalized abortion in this country.

"I haven't suffered a tragedy. The mothers who have those children (referring to babies deformed by the drug, thalidomide) have suffered a tragedy," she said.

★ ★ ★

She said she found only sympathy in Europe. "The only letter I received there that was critical came from a man in New York," she said.

"I feel 200,000 per cent assured that it was the right thing to do. My friends will understand my motives. Those who don't are not my kind of friends," Mrs. Finkbine told newsmen in Chicago.

She said she can understand that it is difficult for some people to accept the idea of abortion. "I cannot blame them because their religions have brought them up to believe such things," she said.

Mrs. Finkbine told of receiving many gifts and letters of sympathy, adding, "of course, there were a few letters from a 'lunatic fringe' that considered abortion a crime.'"

FINKBINES RETURN — Mrs. Sherri Finkbine and her husband Robert listen to questions of newsmen after their arrival at Chicago's O'Hare Airport yesterday. They had just returned from Sweden where Mrs. Finkbine underwent a legal abortion. She feared the child would be born deformed due to her use of the drug thalidomide.

3 White Teen-Agers Arrested in Shooting

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Three white teen-agers were arrested today in the shooting of nine Negroes in the New Orleans area last night and early this morning.

Seven of the Negroes were hospitalized, and police said at least one of them appeared to be seriously wounded. The names of the juveniles were withheld, but police said they were 14 and 15 year olds.

Officers said the boys told them the Negroes had crossed the river into Algiers, suburb of New Orleans, last week and shot out the windows of automobiles. The youths said their action last night and today was in "retaliation."

Bulgarians Plan to De-Stalinize National Anthem

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — The Bulgarian Communist party Central Committee has ordered the national anthem de-Stalinized, the news agency Tanjug reports.

The anthem contained the phrase "the great sun of Lenin and Stalin by its rays have enlightened our way."

The government and party command said the new anthem should "reflect the heroic struggle and victory over fascism and capitalism and full faith in the victory of peace and communism in the world."

It Seems to Me . . . .

Why Does Romney Say 'No' to Presidential Nomination?

Some of us are puzzled as to why GEORGE ROMNEY disavowed any aspiration for the GOP Presidential nomination in 1964.

★ ★ ★

It was glibly assumed by Romney supporters that if their man were elected Governor, he would be groomed for an all-out whirl at the Presidential candidacy.

But the man says "no."

Perhaps Mr. ROMNEY feels that the President will be a very formidable opponent then. If KENNEDY continues in office for another four years, he would be through in 1968, and Oakland County's "favorite son" may figure the possibilities for a GOP victory are greater at that time.

★ ★ ★

If ROMNEY be elected, and the odds favor him, it's a certainty that he can't "clean up the State" in two years. Our national reputation is unfavorable. Republicans are almost as culpable for our financial mess as the Democrats, and the waste and boondoggling are reputedly awesome.

★ ★ ★

If he brings order out of chaos and a semblance of political peace, it would give him a name throughout the Country. Perhaps Romney has the proper blueprint. His decision came as a surprise, but he may be developing rapidly in the devious ways of political expediency.

Free Advice . . . .

If the Republicans want a gratuitous tip on mass psychology, they had better coach their witless women on procedures. Verbal broadsides against JACQUELINE KENNEDY won't win votes.

★ ★ ★

The wife of the Republican National Chairman sounded off in a very uncomplimentary manner about Jacqueline Kennedy. Someone should take Mrs. Williams over in the corner and read a chapter from Emily Post and a verse or two from the Holy Bible. She doesn't like Jackie's "looks, clothes, taste, fondness for parties or manner of dressing when she attends Mass."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. WILLIAMS, we have news for you.

Male voters of all persuasions have an open and unstinted admiration for JACKIE'S "looks, clothes, taste, fondness for parties and manner of dressing when she attends Mass."

★ ★ ★

No matter what you think, the girl has won popular acclaim, admiration and affection.

Mrs. W., wise up.

Romney Acted Rightly . . . .

Something that started out as a rather private party fracas in Grosse Pointe leaped into the open at the GOP convention when GEORGE ROMNEY took official recognition of the fact that the Birch Society hadn't been sufficiently squelched.

★ ★ ★

Richard Durant, with his 14th district delegates, originally drew Romney's fire in Grosse Pointe and apparently he disavowed his connection—at least as far as the GOP was concerned.

But then he recanted.

Hence, his convention presence placed the party under the likelihood of resounding Democratic blasts. The Republican Gubernatorial candidate flayed party disloyalties from all extremists. The broadside was received with great enthusiasm as DURANT sat in stony silence.

When a group becomes so extremely "rightist" that it labels Eisenhower a Communist, reason has departed. The Oakland County man adopted the right tactics and acted promptly.

★ ★ ★

Dangerous Intersection . . . .

Help!

The corner of Pontiac, Walton and Squirrel roads stands as a potential five-point death trap unless we have a signal light. In the morning and again in the evening, this spot is a veritable beehive of vehicular activity. It deserves study from road officials.

★ ★ ★

There are many exasperating and useless traffic lights across the Country and I'm the last to clutter the highways with unneeded interruptions.

★ ★ ★

But this point needs examination. Also, one sign is currently on the wrong corner which causes vehicles to stop in the dead center of the intersection. Perhaps pranksters did it, or an order was misinterpreted, but as it stands, it's ludicrous and lethal.

Help!

And in Conclusion . . . .

Almost a dozen bags of mail reached the Yankees last week addressed to JOE DIMAGGIO—about MARILYN MONROE. . . . . Sign in small store window: "Have Gone. Will Travel." . . . . Statisticians say nonwhites may control the elections in the largest 50 cities in the United States within a decade or so. They're increasing from 200 per cent to 400 per cent faster than the whites. . . . . Do you know the relationship between gravity and magnetism? EINSTEIN never solved it but he took important steps.

★ ★ ★

I can't prove it, but I'll bet a sugar cookie "The Lively Ones" will be rated TV's summertime dud . . . . Purely personal nomination as one of the area's attractive girls: Ruth Gouveia . . . . . GM scientists have developed guns that fire small projectiles at speeds in excess of 20,000 m.p.h. . . . . No one ever summed up utter incapacity better than the Harvard professor in describing JFK's younger brother, Teddy boy. He said: "His academic career is mediocre, his professional career virtually non-existent, so his candidacy is both preposterous and insulting."

RUTH

Did you hear about New York's newest arrival who said: "I came here to make an honest living," and was told: "Good. You won't have much opposition." . . . . Traffic deaths have been averaging 38,000 a year. In 1962, they're expected to pass 40,000 . . . . JACK HERBERT discovered how to pound nails without hitting your thumb. Let your wife hold the nail . . . . Sign in Times Square lingerie shop: "Come In and Bras Around." . . . . Newsmen who have seen "Cleopatra" say that LIZ TAYLOR is really terrific and super. . . . . Not Bad for an Invalid

David Lawrence Says:

U. S. 'Public' Policy Too Spineless

WASHINGTON — Robert F. Kennedy, attorney general and spokesman occasionally on matters of public policy for his distinguished brother, the President of the United States, has written a book — just published — which is based on observations he made on his recent travels abroad. He urges the United States Government to start a vigorous campaign to "sell the truth" to students and intellectuals overseas.

LAWRENCE

It's true that the Soviet Union spends many times as much money as Congress appropriates for what are called "foreign information programs," but the ineffectiveness of the American effort doesn't seem to be due either to a lack of efficient personnel or to a dearth of funds. It stems from the absence of a clear-cut policy at the top.

★ ★ ★

Again and again, outside advisers are brought in, but neither the State Department nor the White House in this or in preceding administrations has laid down forceful principles that would constitute a constructive policy of external propaganda.

Plainly, it is impossible to educate the rest of the world about America primarily by sending abroad a hand-picked group of members of Congress, as Attorney General Kennedy suggests in his book.

BIGGER PROBLEM

This isn't a job solely for speechmakers or lecturers sent out under the auspices of the American government. Desirable as some of these missions may be, the problem itself is bigger and has aspects far exceeding their scope.

★ ★ ★

What is needed is a strong offensive operation to counter the Soviet propaganda which is spread throughout the world.

America's opportunity will come largely in presenting the truth about the Soviet Union to all peoples through the world's press and radio.

The normal channels for doing this are open to the American government whenever it wishes to speak its mind and give the truth about official United States policy to the world.

MISSED BOAT

Time and again the United States government has missed the boat on the export of its information programs because it has allowed itself to become too preoccupied with debate on controversies going on within this country.

Official propaganda, must be forthright, and the American government must stop spending time and money apologizing for defects here and there in the United States.

It is more important, for example, to present over the world's air waves a vigorous exposition of "people's capitalism" as it has succeeded in America.

But, for some reason or other, various articles and speeches distributed by our government abroad give the impression that the United States has a guilt complex about our private-enterprise system and feels that maybe government ownership might be better in the long run.

★ ★ ★

The Communists are quick to perceive such indecisiveness and faltering attitudes and to take full advantage of them on the propaganda front.

★ ★ ★

What is needed is a courageous avowal of the merits of the American system and a constant reiteration of the fact that, with all its faults, it still has produced a higher standard of living and greater personal freedom for more human beings than has any other system for any other people in the world.

Dr. Harold Hyman Says:

Fad About Cholesterol Just Today's Hoopla

Much of the present hoopla about cholesterol puts me in mind of what used to be said not too many years ago about the relationship of meat (especially red meat) to hypertension, arterial hardening and heart trouble.

Anybody who knew, or pretended to know, anything about diet and medicine could then tell you that eating beefsteak was an invitation to disaster.

And so the hypertensives, arteriosclerotics and cardiacs were offered the choice of fish or poultry while other members of the household hesitated only over the decision of "rare" or "well-done."

Today, the dietary picture has undergone a revolution. While other members of the household sit before breakfast plates which "crackle and snap," the hypertensive cardiac puts away hamburger or a small steak.

Provided, of course, that all evidences of fat have been removed. And whether or not the fear of cholesterol goes the way of fear of red meat, only the future will decide.

ON OVERWEIGHT

To those of us who are certain only that overweight hurts the circulatory system, Prof. Arthur Grollman of the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School provides welcome information. He says:

Cholesterol is actually a steroid, not a fat, and estimates of its concentration in the blood do not necessarily give a measure of the fat content.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

For example, prolonged application of the tourniquet before obtaining the blood sample may increase the reading by as much as 41 per cent.

"Contrary to the popular impression," says Grollman, "ingested (dietary) cholesterol is not the only source of cholesterol in the body.

★ ★ ★

"All body cells are capable of building cholesterol from readily available derivatives of sugars, fats and proteins (meat, cheese)."

★ ★ ★

The cholesterol deposited in hardened vessels is not necessarily derived from the cholesterol that circulates in the blood.

★ ★ ★

'Many Crooks Are Christians'

A letter says that crime should be punished, and concedes it is not associated with any particular group or race. Then comes the unjust conclusion: "As long as there are non-Christian people there will be crime." I resent this propaganda and present some statistics. The following religious census of Sing Sing Prison was taken by Father John P. McCaffey, Prison Chaplain: Catholics 855; Protestants 518; Jews 177; Christian Scientists 20; Buddhists 1; Mohammedans 2; No avowed religion 8.

If our country is a "Christian country," we must also be a majority of Christian crooks.

What in the world is going on in Seminole Hills? The other night there were drag races all over the area and it's a wonder some innocent person wasn't killed at an unprotected corner. Rockefeller Gets Advice

TARRYTOWN, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, a private art collector and art patron for some three decades, got an earful of advice Sunday on government support for the arts.

His personal interests include a wide variety of contemporary paintings and a taste for the primitive arts.

As choreographer George Balanchine told an audience of singers, artists, actors, composers, directors and cultural leaders, as far back as 1934 Rockefeller came to the rescue of a Balanchine project with $15,000 worth of Socony Oil stock.

Morton Baum of the New York City Center followed that by saying he was disclosing for the first time that Rockefeller, by contributing $35,000 anonymously, had saved the center from having to cancel a European trip for its ballet in 1953. Baum called that trip an inspiration for what later developed into the international exchange program of the federal government.

DISCUSS SEASON

Sunday's affair was a luncheon which the governor gave at his Pocantico Hills estate near here for about 150 persons in the arts to discuss the upcoming second season of the New York State Council on the arts. Cohosts were composer Richard Rodgers and actress Helen Hayes.

★ ★ ★

Rockefeller called for an open forum, and about a dozen responded.

Artist Ben Shahn declared there should be government sponsorship of the arts and recalled that a federal project of the 1930s, the Works Progress Administration, had given many artists a start.

Actress Helen Mencken said that her recent studies in Europe have proved the citizens of many countries are proud to contribute their tax dollars to government-supported cultural activities.

Actor Theodore Bikel asserted veloped in to the international exment support means government control of the arts are being ridiculous.

Satellite Bill

Chicago's American

The filibuster which Senators Wayne Morse, D., Ore., Russell Long, D., La., and Albert Gore, D., Tenn., have been conducting against the satellite bill, is actually a filibuster against free enterprise. The three senators object to the bill because it permits private business to join with government in creating a world-wide communications system.

★ ★ ★

Morse, Long, and Gore insist that the government should run this project, giving orders to business instead of working with it. They are believers in the theory that government can do everything better. And they are outraged by the fact that the communications industries, including American Telephone and Telegraph, have been permitted to design, pay for, and own Telstar, the communications satellite which has made direct television communication possible between the United States and Europe for the first time.

★ ★ ★

They were not moved by the plea of Secretary of State Dean Rusk Monday that they stop obstructing the nation's space program. Rusk pointed out that the rest of the world has left it to America to lead in the development of a space communications for the world, but America can't get moving until Congress passes the satellite bill. Morse's retort, "You haven't made a dent on me," makes it clear that he and his fellow obstructors are too deeply obsessed with their anti-business prejudice to be amenable to argument.

Since the bill has already been enacted overwhelmingly in the House and is supported by President Kennedy, the attorney general, the Federal Communications commission, and most senators, the filibusterers know they can't prevent its passage in the Senate.

Deadly Mixture

New York Journal-American

The police department has totaled up the figures for the slaughter on the highways in the first seven months of this year—and it makes pretty grim reading:

Traffic deaths running 23 per cent above last year, injuries up 11 per cent, accidents up 10 per cent.

Why?

One significant factor is spotlighted by the finding that 48 per cent of the drivers and 30 per cent of the pedestrians involved in accidents were under the influence of alcohol.

We would say the moral is clear: Save that one-for-the-road until you reach your destination.

About Romney

Chicago Sun-Times

Michigan Republicans probably won't go overboard in celebrating the primary election. George Romney won the GOP nomination for governor with more votes than Democratic Gov. John B. Swainson was able to gather in his primary. However, five times in the past the Republican candidate for governor has out-polled his Democratic rival in the primary and then been beaten in the fall.

★ ★ ★

Romney realistically was one of the first to caution his followers against being "misled" by the vote totals. Local issues undoubtedly played a major role in the balloting. The Republicans had a spirited statewide fight for the nomination for lieutenant governer which may have had something to do with the large GOP turnout.

★ ★ ★

Romney is the Republican most identified with the proposed new Michigan state constitution, which the ultra-conservatives in his own party dislike almost as much as do the Democrats. In the primary, a number of delegates who helped write the proposed constitution ran against incumbent conservative GOP legislators with Romney's support and won.

★ ★ ★

"The Republican Party in Michigan is beginning to take on the Romney look," said one veteran observer. Considering the length of time this former auto maker turned politician has been before the public this must be accounted the most significant fact emerging from the Michigan voting.

★ ★ ★

Whether Romney can convert his magnetism and undoubted ability to victory in his first try for elective office remains to be seen. But for the moment the nation seems to be viewing a new, if somewhat unorthodox political figure moving to the center of the stage.

Lonely Kennedy Putting in Long Hours at White House

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

Mainly because he is lonely he now puts in 12-hour days at the White House, which in the words of Press Secretary Pierre Salinger "means longer hours for everybody here."

His long-time friend Dave Powers, an administrative assistant, usually crosses over to the resident side of the White House with him and stays until dinner time.

Occasionally he has friends in for dinner, and two or three times since the First Lady went to Italy he has invited a few sailing cronies to ride down the Potomac with him on one of the presidential boats.

Most of the time, according to Salinger, the Chief Executive sits alone and reads.

Most members of Congress are equally bereft of family life this summer, and the autumn offers little prospects for reunion, since they will be hitting the campaign trail about the time that their spouses return to Washington to put the children in school.

Embattled wives have fought in vain this session to persuade Congress to take summer recesses and return to legislate in the fall.

His successor has been little more encouraging, since Speaker John McCormack is childless, and his devoted wife has never left his side for so much as a day in their 42 years of marital bliss.

★ ★ ★

Senate majority leader Mike Mansfield is willing, and he even called a hearing to give the women their day in court, but his legislative headaches have been so monumental this session that the measure had to bow to more pressing business.

PRESIDENT A CAPTIVE

Any U. S. President inevitably becomes a captive audience so long as a talkathon Congress remains in session.

He dares not skip town for a relaxing vacation until the last of his "must" bills is disposed of, and some of these tantalizing goodies are invariably saved until the final rollcalls in September or October.

It is sad that children are denied the privilege of their fathers' company on vacations. One veteran legislator, in introducing yet another bill last week to force summer recesses complained feelingly:

"The last time I shared a vacation with my youngsters they were too small to remember it. Now they are grown."

★ ★ ★

The President, who has not seen his own children for nearly a month, had high hopes of joining them for a September vacation in Newport.

The odds on Congress adjourning in September are rapidly diminishing, however, and he has a number of political commitments in key states throughout much of October.

Members of the Kennedy clan frankly enjoy each other's company more than outsiders', but JFK has been deprived even of that in recent weeks.

While his wife and daughter are in Italy and his son in Newport, the President's relatives have been in equally far-flung places.

The attorney general is back now, but spends weekends with Ethel and the youngsters at Hyannis Port.

Eunice Kennedy Shriver is also in Hyannis Port with her three children while her husband, Sargent Shriver, is on a three-week inspection tour of his Peace Corps operations in the Far East.

The other two presidential sisters, Pat Lawford and Jean Smith, are touring France together, after a visit to West Berlin.

But at least Charlie has the Russian dog, Pushinka, for company. That Nikita Khrushchev thinks of nearly everything!

County in Florida Integrates Schools

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Segregation in Escambia County schools ends today when 22 Negro pupils enter 10 white public schools.

The move was voluntary, jumping the gun on a court order which gave the county until next year to integrate its schools.

A court order issued last month decreed that at least two grades be integrated, and at least one grade each year thereafter.

For the first time this fall, area high school students will be able to take a college credit course at Michigan State University Oakland.

In another first, MSUO also will offer college upper class work in the evening.

Both innovations are part of the university's expansion of its schedule of evening courses for college credit, according to Chancellor D. B. Varner.

Five evening courses will be offered in the fall term and six in the winter term. All courses carry four hours of credit.

★ ★ ★

The course open to high school students for advanced placement credit at MSUO will be in economics, the nationally televised College of the Air program, "The American Economy."

★ ★ ★

Several hundred colleges are participating in this program. The course also is open to regularly enrolled MSUO students, as well as to adult evening students.

The other fall term courses will be the development of Western institutions, English composition, music and finite mathematics. The last two are new additions to the schedule.

Winter term offerings will be Western institutions, Western literature, political science, art, American history, and a junior level economics course, business enterprise.

In another move to help evening students working toward a degree, class hours have been lengthened to offer two classes a night instead of one.

Classes will run from 6:30 to 8:20 p.m. and from 8:30 to 10:20 p.m. This will enable a student to earn in two nights per week the same number of credits for which he previously went four nights a week.

DEGREE POSSIBLE

Dean Donald D. O'Dowd said that if there was sufficient interest, the university would make it possible for an evening student to get his degree in business administration.

"All of the courses required for a major in this field will be offered in the evening during the next three or four years if there are enough takers," he said.

In addition, he noted, evening students will have to take the liberal arts courses required of all MSUO enrollees.

The televised economics course is the fifth year of a national program that started out with a course in physics. It is supported by the Ford Foundation, and outstanding university professors are the teachers.

"The American Economy" will be taught by Dr. John R. Coleman, head of the economics department of the Graduate School of Industrial Administration of Carnegie Institute of Technology.

President Kennedy and former President Eisenhower will be among a long list of distinguished guests and lecturers, as will Dr. Walter Heller, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers.

Students enrolled in this course will watch the televised program from 6:30 to 7 a.m. four days a week and attend class at MSUO from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. each Monday, from Sept. 24 through June 1.

Outside papers will also be required. Prospective teachers will watch the television program five mornings a week.

Course guides, reading lists and suggested textbook lists will be provided.

London Interested in Havana Attack

LONDON (AP) — The Foreign Office said today Britain is inquiring into reports that two gunboats which shelled a Havana hotel sailed from the Bahamas.

★ ★ ★

The spokesman said Britain has found no confirmation that the Cuban exiles who launched the attack Friday night were based in the British colony but added:

"The government is in contact on all sources which might throw light on this matter, including Washington."

The two gunboats sailed into Marathon, Fla., the day after the raid and were impounded by U.S. authorities.

Tell McNamara Plan No Good

House Group Advises Reserve Reshuffle Idea Should Be Scrapped

WASHINGTON (UPI) → A House Armed Services subcommittee has told Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara that his pplan to reorganize the National Guard and the Army reserves would hurt morale while not materially increasing combat readiness.

★ ★ ★

The subcommittee, with the backing of committee chairman Carl Vinson, D-Ga., advised the Pentagon to scrap the plan. All seven Democrats and five Republicans on the subcommittee joined in the recommendation.

McNamara has proposed reducing eight National Guard and reserve divisions to brigade status in addition to carrying out other changes in the reserve structure.

The subcommittee, headed by Rep. F. Edward Hebert, D-La., dealt with the reserve question in a report on an eight-month study of the reseve callup during the Berlin crisis last fall.

★ ★ ★

The group said it found that many Army units were ill-prepared to respond to mobilization needs and were "seriously deficient" in both trained men and equipment.

It said the Army was suffering from "years of austere funding."

To remedy the situation, it recommended that the Defense Department funnel an additional $4 billion over the next five years into a program to provide the Army and its reserve forces with modern equipment.

The House investigators criticized "the apparent infelxibility" of Defense Department officials who originally offered the politically controversial reserve organization plan.

★ ★ ★

They said too much of it was dictated by "budgetary ceilings" rather than by military need.

State Will Probe 2 Garbage Haulers

DETROIT (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley said yesterday the state will investigate two Detroit garbage hauling companies — Tri-County Leasing Corp. and Tri-County Sanitition Co., Inc.

★ ★ ★

The Detroit Free Press said Tri-County Sanitation never has registered with the state to do business and Tri-County Sanitation lists its corporate headquarters in a vacant lot.

"The matters of immediate concern to the state are possible criminal violations and of equal importance is the loss of franchise taxes and annual report or privilege taxes," Kelley said.

★ ★ ★

Joseph Barbara Jr., secretary-treasurer of both firms, said failure to register was a mistake on the part of the firm's New York lawyer. He said the vacant lot listing also was a mistake.

Elected at Conference

Mining Firms Sue for Rebate on Taxes

CRYSTAL FALLS (UP) — Two mining companies claimed tax assessors overvalued their property and filed suit Saturday demanding $260,000 in tax rebates from three Upper Peninsula communities.

Hanna Mining Co. of Cleveland and the Hanna Mining Division of National Steel Corp. of Pittsburgh brought suit against Iron River, Mineral Hills and Stambaugh in Iron County Circuit Court.

★ ★ ★

The suit claims that the firms' five underground mines in the communities were "unfairly and illegally" assessed.

Ottawa Undersheriff to Retire Sept. 15

GRAND HAVEN (UP) — The resignation of Ottawa County Undersheriff Forrest Salisbury, effective Sept. 15, was announced today by Sheriff Bernard Grysen.

A former member of the Grand Rapids police and fire departments, he has served since 1959 as undersheriff but now plans to "catch up on hunting and fishing."

The first courses to be offered in the new certificate program are "Fundamentals of Real Estate", taught by Walker, and "Real Estate Law," taught by Arthur R. Cox, a Rochester attorney.

★ ★ ★

Western Nepal Cut Off From Capitol by Floods

KATMANDU, Nepal (AP)—This capital has been cut off from western Nepal by floods, which washed away the only linking bridge over the Trisuli River.

★ ★ ★

A message reaching here Sunday also said six army men and two civilian officials guarding Nepal's border with Tibet were swept away by floodwaters near Rasuwa.

The kiwi, a flightless New Zealand bird that is now rare, uses its claws to fight when brought to bay. The bird is nocturnal in habit and has poor eyesight.

Crisis to Stay Short of War

Big Three May Meet as Berlin Outlook Darkens

By WILLIAM J. FOX
United Press International

Notes from the foreign news cables:

BERLIN SITUATION

The Big Three foreign ministers undoubtedly will meet in New York in mid-September to align their policy on Berlin, where the situation may deteriorate further but will not lead to war.

★ ★ ★

The high-level Western meeting will be an offshoot of the 17th United Nations General Assembly, which starts Sept. 18.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, British Foreign Secretary Lord Home and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville will be at U.N. headquarters for that session.

They will use the opportunity to get together again—probably with West German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder sitting in, as he did at the last such session in Geneva.

Informed observers believe that the abolition of the Soviet Berlin command indicates continued propaganda and political pressure on the West. However, they doubt that it will lead to any immediate or abrupt interference with Allied access rights to the city.

★ ★ ★

The betting is that the Soviets, having needled the West again, will let things cool off a bit before jabbing at another point in their continuing campaign to get the Allies out of Berlin.

DE GAULLE'S DISGUST

France's President Charles de Gaulle is said to be ready to pull out of Algeria altogether if the present political chaos makes application of the Evian peace settlement impossible.

This would mean bringing an additional 400,000 Europeans to France.

But De Gaulle is said to be willing to face this situation — which would aggravate the already-difficult problem of providing jobs, homes and a future for the half million who already have returned from Algeria.

He has been quoted as saying that, in any case, the Algerians will have been so hurt by such a move that they would come on bended knee within two years to ask for French help.

Of course, De Gaulle still is bitterly hated by some die-hard elements of the former Secret Army Organization which tried and failed to keep Algeria French through terror.

Their two overt and one planned attempt to kill him in the past year is stark evidence of that, and grim warning to the president's security men that they have to tighten up. But the problem is how.

The chief difficulty will be to persuade De Gaulle of the necessity for a tighter guard. He is a proud, brave and stubborn old soldier.

★ ★ ★

And his insistence on mingling with crowds, refusal to ride in a bullet-proof car and rejection of a large bodyguard long have been major headaches for French security chiefs.

SOVIET UNHAPPINESS

The Soviets may be able to give the West—and the United States in particular—trouble over Berlin.

But they were distinctly unhappy with the quick settlement of the Dutch-Indonesian dispute over West Guinea.

Indonesian sources say the men in the Kremlin were peeved —apparently because the United States got the credit for arranging the peaceful settlement, when it was the arms and armament provided by the Soviet Union to Indonesia that made it possible.

★ ★ ★

The sources say Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio soothed the ruffled Soviet feelings and has won a promise of support for the settlement when it comes up for approval in the U.N.

Six Children in Family Suffocate in Night Fire

CLOVIS, Calif. (AP) — The six children of Ben and Betty Funk died in a fire that destroyed their new home in this Fresno suburb Sunday despite valiant rescue tries by the father and neighbors.

★ ★

One teen-age neighbor smashed through a window into the blazing home and, with hands slashed by broken glass, handed out four of the children. But they apparently were dead at the time.

The father and others broke more windows in desperate rescue attempts but were turned back by intense heat.

★ ★

Fire Chief W. E. Riley said afterward the window smashing may have worsened the situation. "It let in wind drafts," he said.

The dead children were: Dennis, 9; Howard, 8; Charlotte, 7; Shirley, 6; John, 3, and Deborah, 21 months. Deputy Coroner Walter Sechler said all had suffocated.

CAUSE UNKNOWN

Authorities said cause of the fire was not immediately apparent and may not be learned for several days, pending check of the ashes.

Funk, 32, a cabinet maker, was awakened by his wife, 28, at about 1:30 a.m. Sunday with a cry of "fire."

He broke a window of their bedroom and tumbled outside, cut by glass fragments. Then Funk and his brother, Leonard, 20, who had been sleeping in the back yard, pulled Mrs. Funk through the window.

★ ★ ★

Her leg was broken when it became entangled between frame and sill.

Russell Welch, 19, who lives two houses away, heard screams of alarm, ran to help and battered in through a window.

★ ★ ★

He told newsmen later he found three of the children in bed and two others on the floor.

★ ★ ★

"I thought at the time they were dead," he said, but, while neighbors sprayed water on him with a lawn hose, he handed four of them outside to another neighbor. An unidentified policeman brought out the other two.

The parents were taken to a Fresno hospital for treatment of shock and their injuries.

Pacific Voyager Takes Fast Way Back to Japan

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Kenichi Horie, Japanese mariner, has decided one boat trip across the Pacific is enough—at least for awhile. He's flying back home.

★ ★ ★

Horie, 23, has become an Oriental Lindbergh here ever since he sailed through the Golden Gate two weeks ago after a 93-day solo voyage in a 19-foot sloop from Osaka, Japan.

★ ★ ★

He has been offered two free ocean liner cruises but has chosen to return home Sept. 11 aboard a Japan Air Lines jet flight.

Reds to Discuss Common Mart

Marxist Economists Meet to Find Answer to Western Challenge

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union convened a meeting of Marxist economists from a score of nations today to discuss how to deal with such Western economic challenges as the European Common Market.

A 10,000-word article published in the Soviet Comunist party newspaper Pravda yesterday, sharply condemning Western capitalism in general and the Common Market in particular, provided what apparently will be the main working paper of the conference.

The article was prepared by the Institute of World Economics and International Relations of the Soviet Academy of Sciences, sponsor of the conference. The theme of the conference is "The Problems of Modern Capitalism."

The Provda article accused the Common Market Six — France, Italy, West Germany, Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands —of fostering German militarism, exploiting the working classes and tying the economies of underdeveloped nations to "the whole coalition of imperialist powers."

★ ★ ★

Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev also personally attacked the Common Market in a signed article in the party's ideological monthly, Kommunist.

The article has been circulating in the West in international communism's journal titled "Problems of Peace and Socialism."

★ ★ ★

In it he calls for greater cooperation, effort and coordination among the Comunist bloc nations to meet the Common Market's competition.

Father of Six Tells of Hours in Atlantic Ocean

POMPANO BEACH, Fla. (AP) —"For God's sake, George, please try to make land. I can't swim at all!"

Those were the agonized words of Max Butcher, 25 and father of six, when a 21-foot boat sank under him and two companions in the Atlantic Ocean.

Butcher's companions, George Hardy, 38, and Peter Thorn, 21, finally managed to make shore on their own—Hardy after 12½ hours, Thorn after 14 hours. The Coast Guard plucked Butcher from the sea around noon Sunday, about 20 hours after his ordeal began. All three are automobile salesmen in Pompano Beach.

His voice weak and his throat raw from sea water and constant calls for help, Butcher told a story of fear, hope, despair and rescue.

"I was numb. All I could think about were the sharks somewhere out there and I knew I'd never see my wife or kids again.

"Both George and Pete were wonderful. They kept reassuring me they would stay with me and began lashing life jackets and seat cushions around my shoulders and waist.

LEFT FOR LAND

"After about 10 minutes, Pete said he would try to make shore and alert air-sea rescue teams.

"He soon was hidden by the towering seas, followed closely by our countless prayers. George had lashed us together so we wouldn't drift apart, but the course line wrapped around me to tear the irritation would draw blood and hungry sharks, so I asked him to cut the line.

"But as he did the swift current drew him away and I froze with fear. I suddenly realized he had the only knife.

"I was defenseless. He hollered back to be brave and to stay afloat until rescuers reached the scene. Then he was gone and I prayed for him because I believed he had drowned.

"Time passed — maybe two hours—and then as if in a dream someone cried 'Butch.' That's what Pete always called me and sure enough there he came swimming over a wave right up to me. The current was too much to make land, he told me, so he decided to head back and give me a hand.

"I guess it was about 3 a.m. when a large vessel passed within 50 yards and we literally leaped for joy out of the heavy seas, calling repeatedly 'Help us; in God's name, please save us!' (But their cries were not heard).

"Just before dawn we thought we spotted shore lights. No matter how hard we paddled they seemed to draw farther and farther away.

"Once more I died a little deep inside and asked God to please watch over my loved ones.

"At about 8 a.m. we found ourselves about a mile off a beach that later proved to be Juno. Pete said he would try to swim ashore and get help. I prayed hard for his safety as he struck out for shore.

* * *

"Maybe it was 11 or 11:30 a.m. when a helicopter flew near and I managed to wave my location. I died again as the chopper flew away, leaving me more alone than I've ever felt in my life.

"Convinced all hope was now gone, I turned my face toward heaven and told God if it was His will then I was ready and with that I slipped out of my life jacket and cushion and prepared to die.

"As the first surge of sea water filled my mouth and blinded my eyes I heard the blast of a ship's horn. 'God, you've answered my prayer,' I whispered.

Eight Brides Whisper 'I Do' Over the Weekend

Schroeder-Bender Vows

Rites Held in Indiana

Beverly Ann Bender and David W. Schroeder exchanged candlelight vows Sunday evening in Grace Lutheran Church, Ft. Wayne, Ind., before Rev. Philip Nash.

Rev. Richard Stuckmeyer gave the nuptial address.

Some 300 guests were greeted in the parish education building and a subsequent reception is planned for 2:30 p.m., Sept. 2, in the Grace Lutheran Church, Pontiac. After a trip north, the couple will reside in Brentwood, Mo.

Parents of the couple are the Hugo E. Benders of Fort Wayne, Ind. and the Max B. Schroeders of Dwight Street.

HONOR MAID

Wearing shrimp nylon sheer over taffeta and petal caps were Mrs. Don Hilgeman of North Miami, Fla., her sister's honor matron; Carolyn Bender and Doris Walter, of Fort Wayne; and the bridegroom's sister Mitzie. They carried shrimp roses and white carnations.

Best man was Dan Parshall. Richard Garnett, ushered for his brother-in-law with Arnold Boelke, Janesville, Wis., and Milton Berner, New Haven, Ind. David Priest of Fort Wayne carried the rings.

Mother of the bride chose a beige silk sheath dress and the bridegroom's mother wore dusty rose chiffon. Their corsages were shell pink carnations.

Married in Grace Lutheran Church, Fort Wayne, Ind., Sunday were Beverly Ann Bender and David W. Schroeder. Parents of the couple are the Hugo E. Benders of Fort Wayne, Ind. and the Max B. Schroeders of Dwight Street.

MRS. DAVID W. SCHROEDER

Ruthann Usinger, daughter of Mrs. Walter Warren, Drayton Plains, and the late Laverne Usinger, spoke vows with Robert F. Gordon, son of the Edward F. Gordons of Rosshire Court, Saturday in Christ Lutheran Church, Waterford.

MRS. ROBERT F. GORDON

The New Robert F. Gordons

Couple En Route West

The Robert F. Gordons, who spoke their vows to Rev. Wayne Peterson Saturday afternoon in Christ Lutheran Church at Waterford, will tour the Black Hills, S. D., and Yellowstone National Park en route to their home in Los Angeles.

Parents of the former Ruthann Usinger are Mrs. Walter Warren of Lansdowne Street, Drayton Plains, and the late Laverne Usinger. The bridegroom is the son of the Edward F. Gordons of Rosshire Court.

The floor-length bridal gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta featured a basque waistline and deep pointed overskirt of lace over net ruffles. A Swedish crown of lace and pearls secured the veil of imported silk illusion. White orchids and Stephanotis topped the bride's small white Bible.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Janet Usinger. Drayton Plains; Rebecca Olson was bridesmaid. They wore powder blue taffeta and carried blue and white carnations.

The bride attended Ferris Institute and the bridegroom was enrolled at Flint Junior College.

For the wedding and church reception, Mrs. Warren chose cameo pink silk brocaded chiffon. Her corsage was white carnations and pink sweetheart roses. The mother of the bridegroom appeared in powder blue lace over eggshell taffeta. Yellow sweetheart roses were added to her corsage of white carnations.

Reception at Forest Lake

Marry at Cranbrook Church

A reception in the Forest Lake Country Club followed the candlelight vows of Ann Linda Lawson to Rolf W. Gordhamer, Saturday evening in Christ Church Cranbrook. Rev. John Wigle performed the double-ring ceremony before some 500 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds, the Gerald J. Lawsons and the Wallace H. Gordhamers are of Orchard Lake.

The bouffant bridal veil of French illusion was caught by an organza flower. The bride's gown of white silk organza featured an imported lace yoke, skirt applique and cathedral train. White orchids rested on her prayer book.

Maid of honor was Sharron Janels, Grosse Pointe. Jill Lawson and Nancy Gordhamer sisters of the bridal couple, were bridesmaids along with Susan Ackles, Lathrup Village; Caroline Popovici, Grosse Pointe; Diane Steinorth, Presque Isle; and Nancy Anderson, Herscher, Ill. Kimberly Boyer of Cranbrook Village was flower-girl.

The couple will visit Grand Hotel, Mackinac Island, en route to a honeymoon in Minnesota. Both are seniors at Michigan State University.

Classic Color

(UPI) — Be they basic or dressy, back to school clothes all conform to a classic color scheme. Brown, from beige to deep-dark, is undisputed winner. Camel and gray combinations also are popular. Vibrant reds, blues and greens brighten lines.

Medallions

(UPI) — Dangling medallions, worn around the leg at the top of knee or bobby socks, go back to school. They dangle from a colorful adjustable fabric garter. The garters invented by Joseph Tendler and Ted Noble, of New Haven, Conn., help girls to communicate about their love life. Worn on the left leg, the garter means the girl is going steady; right leg, unattached.

Hair Tints Logical as Lipstick

"To tint, or not to tint."

That's a question as serious to most women as Hamlet's, "To be, or not to be," was to him.

★ ★ ★

All of us realize that as we grow older, our hair loses the natural sheen and color we accepted so casually when we were teen-agers. A few gray strands appear as we meet the daily problems of raising a family or pursuing a career in the business world.

Most women accept the need for regular shampooing and the evening ritual of brushing to keep their hair lustrous, but many hesitate when faced with the question of tinting to regain lost color.

★ ★ ★

Some are dubious of the reception that tinting will receive from friend husband. Others worry about how the bridge club will react when gray, dull hair regains the vibrant color of youth.

And many women feel that a proper tinting requires hours in a beauty shop—hours they can't afford to take from their daily schedules.

There really is no need for these fears, just as there is no need for a woman to have hair that appears old and colorless.

★ ★ ★

Hair tinting is as accepable today as lipstick, powder and the other make-up aids women employ to present their best appearance in the home and in public. The American husband takes pride in his wife's appearance and expects her to enhance her beauty with modern cosmetics.

★ ★ ★

If hair tinting helps her recapture youthful coloring, he'll accept hair tinting, and like it. He may grumble at first—all husbands do—but secretly he'll be proud of his wife's glowing hair.

And with today's modern hair-care products, tinting can be done in the home by the average woman as easily as applying nail polish. Latest developments in hair tinting products do all the work for you. A built-in timer, for example, enables you to achieve the color you want no matter how long it is left on the hair.

Modern hair products enable you to regain your own natural hair color, change to a new hair color entirely, or make the best of the gray hair that time has brought.

Cruising to Honolulu on the Matson Flagship, the SS Lurline, from San Francisco are Mr. and Mrs. Felix Bruner and son William of Bloomfield Hills.

He Only Talks of Sex

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My problem is a man who is old enough to be my father, but who has shown more than a fatherly interest in me. Besides, he is married. I am a waitress and he is my boss.

ABBY

When I started to work here he gave me some very good advice on how to handle myself, and I appreciated it. I noticed later that every chance he had to talk to me he got on the subject of "sex." I always changed the subject, but he managed to get back on it again.

He even asked me some VERY personal questions about myself, which I answered truthfully because I AM a nice girl and didn't see any reason to hide it.

I am getting uncomfortable around him because he gets on the sex subject all the time. Do you think he has evil intentions? How should I guide myself?

A NICE GIRL

DEAR NICE GIRL: Guide yourself OUT the door and find another job. A man knows his chances are good as long as he can get a girl to talk or think about sex. (And his chances keep improving if she doesn't get him off it.) Take a big tip from me and quit while you're ahead.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My future husband and I were making plans the other night and want to know what you think. We are both horse crazy and so are most of our friends. Even my mother is a good Western rider.

We can't afford a big church wedding, so what do you think about getting married on horseback? We could have Western music. My fiance said as much as he likes the horseback idea he kind of wanted to have will love me, take care of me me married in a gown, but you can't very well combine the two, can you?

I don't suppose many people have heard about a wedding of this kind, but we know people who have done it and it worked out fine.

HORSE CRAZY

DEAR CRAZY: If you can find a galloping clergyman, go ahead and have your Western wedding — and good luck.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am 35 and have just received my FOURTH divorce. Every woman I married was older than I. (The last one was 14 years older but no one knew it.) I seem to get hooked by the same kind of selfish, domineering, bossy type woman every time.

All I want is someone who and think of me before herself. IS that asking too much? Show me a girl under 35 with those qualifications and I'll marry her.

FOUR-TIME LOSER

DEAR LOSER: You don't want a wife — you want a mother. When you start to think in terms of what you can GIVE a woman instead of what you can GET, you'll be a man, my son. And only then can you expect a successful marriage. But not until.

Baby Drops His Food? Maybe He's Full

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dear Mrs. Lawrence: My 3-year-old boy has taken to throwing his food on the floor. He will take a spoonful of food and just drop it on the floor. I've slapped his hand several times, but he goes on doing it. My mother says that he is trying to tantalize me and though I first thought this was not true, I now believe it is as he always looks at me when he does it.

ANSWER: Have you been pressing him to eat when he lost interest in his food?

If so, throwing it on the floor may be the way he has chosen to emphasize his disinterest in it.

When a child pays no attention to our wishes, we raise our voices to him, don't we? We put more power into the expression of our wishes. This may be what your little boy is doing.

If you have given him reason to believe that you won't register his disinterest in his food, he may have decided to put more power into his rejection of it. Where he may once have signaled the end of his appetite by pushing a dish away or trying to scramble away from the table, he now uses the stronger signal.

★ ★ ★

So, before you punish him it would be fair to ask yourself, "Have I contributed to this unpleasant behavior? Is this defiance the result of Old Nick in this child—or of my anxious insistence on his eating more food than he wants to eat?"

You see, if we are very anxious for a child to eat all the food we think he should eat, we not notice his "I've had enough" signals. We are too interested in doing our duty by him to register them.

★ ★ ★

To his food has come to represent our responsibility for his nutrition, so it becomes to him the symbol of his resistance to the mother who insists on knowing more about his stomach than he does.

In throwing his food on the floor, he is primarily telling us to mind our own business and leave his stomach's capacity to his judgment.

If we don't perceive that we have somehow allowed eating to get mixed up with a power contest between the child and us, he may continue to use food to fight us—and become a food problem.

That is why I suggest that you consider the probability that you have been pushing him to eat—and correct the pressure. Watch for his first signal of resistance to his food; remove it before he finds it necessary to express his distastes more forcibly by throwing it on the floor, and creating a sensational scene.

Yes, You Parents

Why Not Learn to Swim?

BY JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

It is too bad that more young people and older folks, too, do not indulge in sports. Actually, the habit of sports can be developed in childhood, and should be. For instance, swimming can be learned at practically any age.

Today, far too many teen-agers prefer to spend their time riding about in cars and looking at sports activities on television rather than participating in them.

They do not know how much they miss, not only in good looks but in fun. Most important, sports build a backlog of health and stamina which is impossible to attain without participation in them.

It is so essential that parents expose their children to sports at an early age.

Perhaps one reason youth often miss the pleasure and benefit of sports is because their parents are not sports-minded. Usually a family is either sports-minded or game-minded or it isn't. This depends to a great extent on the parents.

WHAT ABOUT YOU?

You can do no greater favor to your children than to interest them in at least one sport, and teach them to love the outdoors.

AND, what about you parents? Did you once love to swim and dance and play tennis, and then drop these sports soon after the first baby arrived? Or perhaps you have been planning to take up golf or bicycling or swimming but have procrastinated.

There are so many enjoyable activities which also add to your zest for life and your enjoyment of it. You can swim at any age and you can learn to swim at any age. You will get a big kick from learning at middle age and later.

★ ★ ★

You can ride a bicycle from the age of eight to 80. Tennis should not be begun after the youthful years, but can be continued for a long time if you keep at it regularly. You can play golf into later years. Why not adopt some sport and enjoy it and benefit by it?

★ ★ ★

Of course, there is always the daily walk, which is extremely beneficial, but it is fun and better for you to have some more specialized exercise, also.

★ ★ ★

Why put it off any longer? Why not learn to swim during the rest of the summer? Or, if you swim, why not learn a new stroke or dive to add variety to your swimming days? If you want help, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 22, "Learn To Swim." Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

You should be active in at least one sport and swimming is both healthful and fun. If you haven't yet learned — now is an excellent time.

Sliced Summer Apples Top Quick Coffee Cake

By JANET OLELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Summer apples are now in the stores and would be just right for an apple coffee cake. This is delicious as a dessert or for breakfast.

Mrs. Edward Wright, our cook today, says her hobby is trying out new recipes and trying to keep her family well fed. With hungry teenagers, that can be a problem.

QUICK APPLE COFFEE CAKE

By Mrs. Edward Wright

1 cup brown sugar
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
½ teaspoon cinnamon
2 cups biscuit mix
½ cup sugar
1 well beaten egg
½ cup evaporated milk
3 tablespoons water
½ cup raisins
1 cup peeled and sliced apples

Mix brown sugar, butter or margarine and cinnamon with fork to make crumbs. Add sugar to biscuit mix and stir in quickly the egg, milk and water combined. The mixture will be lumpy. Pour batter into greased 9-inch square pan.

Sprinkle raisins over top of batter. Top these with sliced apples and put brown sugar mixture over all. Bake about 30 minutes at 400 degrees. Serve warm.

Bedroom Decorating With Family Album

GILBERT YOUTH SERVICE

Young people who want to dress up their bedrooms may not be able to afford original paintings for the walls, but some great possibilities are offered by the old family photograph album. A wall display of family portraits recently organized by Rhoda Sande, well-known for her picture frame techniques, is an example of what can be achieved in this way.

★ ★ ★

"I was surprised myself to see how attractive these old family portraits can look. I like sepia-toned pictures especially," she says.

Her job was to frame the pictures and arrange them on the wall for a 16-year-old girl who had selected them from the family photograph album. There were grandparents, Gibson girl types, gay nineties dandies, second cousins.

★ ★ ★

"Before the day was out I felt that I knew everyone in the portrait photographs," Miss Sande says. "As I listened to the family tell stories about the individuals, it struck me what wonderful conversation pieces these old photographs make."

There are many other possibilities for dressing up walls.

★ ★ ★

Ladies — Avoid Bag Grabbers

(AP) — Here's a tip from an expert on how ladies may avoid one form of handbag snatching:

★ ★ ★

"Never place your handbag on a counter," says Elwin T. Shaw, who makes a stage living out of showing how thieves and pickpockets operate.

It's easy for the thief "to drop a tog (topcoat) or a stiff (newspaper) on it" and walk off with the handbag, Shaw says.

★ ★ ★

He also recommends that women turn their handbags upside down and clutch the clasp when moving in a crowd. That makes it impossible for a pickpocket to open the snap and stops the bag from snapping open itself.

Medical Exam Urged

PERRY PHARMACY MEDICAL MIRROR

Q. Does the passing of black tar-like stools indicate trouble?

A. It could. Normally, the color of the stool is determined pretty much by what we eat. Certain drugs, notably iron preparations for anemia, affect stool color. The discoloration of stools due to the presence of blood, however, denotes a serious situation. When there is bleeding into the stomach or upper intestine, the digestive processes convert the blood to a black, sticky, tar-like substance. Passage of such material calls for an immediate and thorough examination by a physician.

Breast Discharge

Q. I am the mother of two boys. I have been having a watery discharge from my breasts. Could this be from over-active glands?

A. Breast discharge of this character calls for an examination by your physician. Of the several possible causes, none could be considered "over-active glands." See your doctor.

Red Satellite Nations in Trouble

By K. C. THALER

LONDON (UPI) — Russia's European satellites are in trouble.

Food shortages, rising prices, failure to meet production targets, and political problems are causing worry both to ruling satellite regimes and to the Kremlin which supervises them.

Some satellites have resorted to repressive measures to discourage rising criticisms of internal shortcomings. Others have been looking for whipping boys to shift responsibility from members of government and party.

The difficulties, some of them spotlighted by the Communists themselves, evidently are causing growing uneasiness. But so far the ruling regimes appear to have been able to keep their grip on the situation, though the grip has had to be tightened.

The troubles have been publicized lately by a belated purge in Hungary of hard core Stalinists, in Bulgaria, where the regime has ordered forced labor for grumblers. And in Czechoslovakia, where the president has clamped a ban on party critics.

BULGARIA:

A scheduled Communist party congress was put off last month until November to allow for "better mobilization of party forces and those of the nation for the successful achievement of tasks" set by the party earlier this year.

Agricultural setbacks caused the government to raise prices on July 30, ranging from an average increase of 23.7 per cent for meat to 31.8 per cent for dairy produce.

Zhivkov's apparatus is blaming former Stalinist Dictator Vulko Chervenkov — who resigned the premiership in 1956 — for the damage suffered by agriculture. Bulgaria failed to meet the targets in the past three years and appears unable to meet this year's target.

Last week the government decreed forced labor and deportation for alleged slackers and other undesirables including "work-shy elements, social parasites and speculators." There is to be no appeal. The party paper Rabotnichesko Delo called for measures against "slanderers and disseminators of harmful rumors."

Critics have been threatened with arrest. An engineer was jailed for three years for voicing dissatisfaction with the food price rises.

The Communist party organ also chided "deliberate absenteeism." It disclosed that of 1,880 industrial enterprises, about one in six have not matched their targets this year.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA:

Prague also postponed its scheduled party congress from this month to the end of the year.

There have been indications of dissension in the top ranks of the leadership and even rumors that its chief, Antonin Novotny, was in serious trouble for his alleged Stalinist attitude.

The troubles first were spotlighted by the arrest earlier this year and the subsequent jailing for 15 years of Rudolf Barak, former deputy premier and the minister of interior. He is believed to have been the leader of the moderates and anti-stalinists in the party.

Earlier this month there came another significant move. The party's central committee recommended that the current five-year plan be scrapped by year's end, that a one-year plan be prepared instead for 1963, and a new long-term plan be worked out for the period 1964-1970.

This would play havoc with Moscow's aim to coordinate satellite economic planning with that of Russia in Comecon, the Communist economic alignment. Its members actually earlier arranged to coordinate their plans to 1965.

The reason for Prague's move is, according to official admission, "defects in balanced development and efficiency, consisting mainly of low standard of management and planning and in the failure to implement planned tasks."

A Yugoslav assessment published in the Ljubliana Daily Delo recently charged that according to experts, de-Stalinization in Czechoslovakia has not gone too deeply below the surface.

Novotny, in a speech before the party, released in mid-August, a month after it was originally made, chided "rumor mongers wishing to create panic and others who lack faith." He complained about subversive work "performed very skillfully."

Novotny warned that the regime will not allow "cunning and hostile attacks against the party under the mask of criticism."

He said that while he party stood for a widening of Socialist democracy, "this must be accompanied by a strengthening of the whole system of control."

HUNGARY:

Out of the blue, the regime in mid-August announced a purge of Stalinist leaders. They have been formally expelled from the party.

A third figure, former Foreign Minister Karoly Kiss, was stripped of his influence in the party last fall. He has now been expelled from the politbureau.

The move appears to have little practical effect, except perhaps to serve as a warning to remaining Stalinists. It may be designed in part to divert attention from internal problems.

In Hungary, too, agricultural problems plague the regime, and noticeable food shortages in this once food - rich country have been reported.

ROMANIA:

In contrast to Bulgaria and Czechoslovakia, the internal situation here is reported comparatively calm. Virtually no formal de-Stalinization measures have been taken since the Moscow 22nd party congress.

Experts say the line of party chief Georghiu Dej has been to denounce formally the errors of Stalinism, but otherwise to take no major action.

Farming has been completely official statistics less than 5 collectivized, and according to per cent of the arable land remains in private hands. Private farming came to an end some two years ahead of schedule.

Earlier this year the regime announced plans for agricultural reorganization and for redistribution of training staffs.

Greater incentives are being offered to collective farmers to secure their collaboration. Dej has promised remuneration for collective farmers.

POLAND:

The government's half-yearly report for 1962 said crops had been maintained at last year's level despite bad weather. Significantly, over 90 per cent of Polish farming is not collectivized.

Poland has an agriculture still largely in private hands, and is the only country behind the Iron Curtain that has been spared the serious agricultural setbacks of other Communist nations.

Russian price rises and bad weather last June caused temporary panic buying of foodstuffs but supplies are now said to be adequate, unless Russian pressure may require greater food exports from Poland.

EAST GERMANY:

This may be the worst off of the satellites. Recent official reports conceded "an extraordinarily difficult situation" in agriculture. Meat production in the first five months this year was 35,200 tons down, milk 275,000 tons less.

The stock of cows was expected to increase this year by 30,000 and of pigs by 250,000. Instead, the number of cows decreased so far by 46,000 and that of pigs by 1.3 million.

The East German production industrial increase, which was given as 12.8 per cent for 1959, is now only 6.2 per cent.

Although the Berlin wall has ended an annual exodus of 200,000 refugees, it has not dried up completely. Moreover, East Germany is said to be facing a drop of 600,000 in the labor force by 1965 as a

Russia has poured in millions of result of her aging population. rubles of aid, while simultaneously stripping East Germany of its industrial output. Now, East Germany is seeking credits from the West Germans.

The effect of all this on Comecon, the Communist economic alignment, could be serious, because economic plans seem to be getting out of gear faster than the Comecon strategists are able to coordinate them.

Andonian City Medal Play Champion 6th Time

THE BOMB RETURNS — Former Birmingham High School and ex-Detroit Lion gridder Tom Tracy returns to his "hometown" tonight with the Pittsburgh Steelers who meet the Lions at Tiger Stadium in an exhibition game. Tracy was traded to the Steelers four years ago. He will be at halfback with Bobby Layne at quarterback.

Lions Hold Edge Over Former Coach

It's been six years since Buddy Parker lit the bomb at the Detroit Lions' pre-season banquet by publicly saying, "I quit," after six previous years with one of the most successful teams in pro football.

It is now six years that Parker has been at the helm of the Pittsburgh Steelers and six years that his one-time successor George Wilson has coached the Lions.

Tonight, Wilson and Parker face each other for the third time in pre-season play, having met only once in regular season.

In their first meeting in Buffalo, in 1957, only few weeks after assumed the head coaching dutires of their respective teams, the Steelers won 20-14. In 1959 they met in regular season and played to a 10-10 deadlock.

In 1960, in pre-season at Detroit the Lions won 13-7 and in 1961, prior to the season in Pittsburgh, Wilson again won a 17-14 decision.

Thus far, the series between the two stands 2-1-1 for Wilson. Overall the Lions have won seven of 9 games in pre-season schedule against Pittsburgh and overall in regular season play, it stands 11-4-1 for Detroit.

The game tonight at Tiger Stadium will be a sneak preview of the season opener, September 16th when they meet again on the same gridiron.

The Steelers have been touted as the top challengers to Eastern Division favorites, the Cleveland Browns, although last week's exhibition game in Cleveland was no indication of this when the Browns rolled up a 33-10 victory.

LAYNE TO START

This however was done with Bobby Layne sitting on the sidelines as Ed Brown quarterbacked the team all the way.

Layne will be the starter tonight against the team which he once guided to four divisional titles and three world championships, all except one of each under the coaching of Parker.

In his 15 years, Layne is now passing all of Sammy Baugh's NFL records, and when the season opens in Tiger Stadium, it should seem appropriate that he establish a new record for most passes completed.

He has 1,698 in 14 season while Baugh has the mark of 1,709 for 16 seasons, giving Layne a chance of breaking the mark by hitting on 12 passes in the first game.

Tracy, "The Bomb" from Birmingham, was the star of the playoff game when the Lions defeated San Francisco, 31-27 on the coast, and he was also a big factor in the 59-14 championship win over the Browns.

Pittsburgh, which has never won a championship, except for a divisional playoff loss to Philadelphia in 1947, had the second best defensive record in the league last year despite the heralded Lions' defensive unit.

Baltimore was first in total yards allowed rushing with 3,782 followed by Pittsburgh with 3,909, and Detroit with 3,938. In forward passing yardage allowed, the Lions were 5th and the Steelers 7th.

Game time is 8:00 p.m. tonight with ticket windows opening at 6:00 p.m.

ADDS 6th TITLE — The city medal play golf championship is becoming a habit with Mike Andonian, current state amateur champion. For the 6th time, Andonian won the city crown in the 36 hole finale over the weekend, firing a 137 at Municipal course, three strokes ahead of Columbus Burton.

All Ex-Champs Except 2 Fail to Finish 36

State Amateur Winner Fired 137, Three-Up on C. Burton

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Spotrs Editor, Pontiac Press

Pontiac Municipal's tricky par-69 layout took its toll of ex-champions in the last 18 holes of the 36-hole finale of the 33rd City Medal Play Golf championship yesterday.

Only Mike Andonian and Paul Bada of the 6 past champions who entered finished the 36-hole route and steady stroking Andonian won the title for an unprecedented 6th time.

The four-time state publinx champ and current state amateur titlist withstood the challenge of Columbus Burton for 15 holes yesterday and then fired a pair of clinching birdies on 16 and 17 to win the crown which he first won in 1951.

Burton, who entered the tourney for the first time in eight years, led the field after 18 holes with a 66 on Saturday. Close behind was Charlie Barker with 67 and Andonian with 69.

EX-CHAMPS FALTER

Past winners Faunce Fowler with 80, Glen Harding with 77, Kip Inman with 79 and Ron Rothbarth with 73 all failed to finish the last 18 Sunday. Ed Wasik and Butler Cooper, other champions failed to compete.

Bada, who had a 72 Saturday, added a 71 yesterday for a 143 total and third place.

Burton had his downfall on the front nine yesterday. He bogied Nos. 4 and 5 then birdied the 6th, but went double-bogey, bogey, bogey for a 39.

This was still only one stroke behind Andonian going into the final nine. When Andonian took a bogey-4 on the 10th, they were even.

Then Burton birdied the 13th to go one stroke up, but Andonian quickly took a birdie-4 on 14 to even it up again. On 16 Andonian sunk a six-footer for a birdie-4 while Burton missed from four feet.

On the 17th, Andonian chipped to within four feet and dropped it for a birdie-3 to go two strokes up as Burton parred. On the 18th, Andonian deliberately played his second shot short to the approach side of the green, pitched up to three feet and sunk it for a par. Burton's approach was also short, and his pitch shot stopped two feet short. He missed the putt and took a five.

Only chance Burton had, was to drop the pitch shot for a birdie-3, hoping that Andonian's pitch may have been too short or too long thereby necessitating two putts for a bogey-five to force a tie.

"You didn't hit any bad shots," Burton said to Andonian afterward, "and a couple bad breaks kept you from a 33 on the front side."

No one has ever won the tournament as often as Andonian. Emory Stolt won the title four times in the 30's and several won it three times, including Bada and Harding two weekend entries.

Biggest downfall came for Barkker who went into Sunday's round with a 67 and then faltered to a 42 on the front side.

Cash's Loss Another Tiger Setback

Wertz to Take Over at First Base Starting in Boston Tonight

"It's the same old story — injuries," sighed Scheffing after the Tigers divided a doubleheader with the Washington Senators yesterday, "Everytime we get something started, get rolling a bit, something happens."

Tiger home run power beat the Senators 5-3 in the opener. It was their fourth straight victory, 10th in 12 games. The Yankees lost their sixth straight — and, well, with 33 games left perhaps there could be a miracle.

A victory in the nightcap would leave the Tigers 8½ games behind, 6½ games closer than they were two weeks before. But — again the Tigers couldn't make it in a big one. The Senators licked them 5-2—and instead, the Tigers are 9½ out.

PAINFUL LOSS

Cash was struck on the first finger of his throwing hand by a pitch by Claude Osteen, who held the Tigers to eight hits in the second game.

Vic Wertz will replace Cash at first base tonight when the Tigers open a three-game series at Boston.

"Wertz is the best hitter of the three first basemen we have left," said Scheffing. "We'll start out using him and play him as long as we can."

Cash, whose 34th homer in the opener lifted him back into the American League lead, is the third mainstay lost to the Tigers for a long period. Al Kaline missed two months with his fractured collarbone. Frank Lary currently is on the disabled list.

"I hope we can have Cash back in three weeks," said Scheffing. "I don't know, though. He has to go back to the hospital for another X-ray and if the breaks goes down into his knuckle he'll probably be lost for the rest of the season."

Yanks Drop 6th Straight

Kralick No-Hits A's, Walks 1

By The Associated Press

In this era of the lively ball, the whip-handled bat and every-man-a-slugger, you'd think a no-hit game would be as rare as a tax cut.

But there have been five—count 'em, five—in major league baseball this year, the highest number since the dear, dead-ball days of 1917 when six were recorded.

The 6-foot-1, 175-pound southpaw from Ohio was very nearly a perfect game pitcher, but missed his bid for that distinction when he walked pinch hitter George Alusik with one out in the ninth inning. That was the only base runner Kralick allowed.

Robin Roberts continued his remarkable comeback with a five-hit effort as Baltimore completed a five-game sweep over the New York Yankees, 2-1. That loss, the Yanks' sixth straight, coupled with Los Angeles' 4-1 decision over Chicago and Kralick's gem over the A's left the Angels and Twins in a virtual tie for second place, three games behind New York. Cleveland whipped Boston twice, 10-5 and 4-0, and Detroit split with Washington, the Tigers winning the first game 5-3 and the Senators taking the second 5-2.

Kralick, 27 and in his third full big league season, gained no-hit status achieved earlier this year by Bo Belinsky of the Angels, Earl Wilson and Bill Monbouquette of the Red Sox and Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers. The Minnesota southpaw's masterpiece raised his record to 10-8 and was only his fourth complete game in 30 starts.

After retiring the first 25 A's in order, Kralick went to a 3-2 pitch on Alusik, then came in with a fast ball that sailed high and outside ("...the pitch barely missed, that's all.").

He closed out by getting pinch batter Billy Consolo and Bobby Del Greco on foul pops to first baseman Vic Power.

The Twins collected eight hits off Jack Fischer and pushed around their run in the seventh. Bernie Allen led off with a single, Zoilo Versalles laid down a sacrifice bunt and was safe on a fielder's choice when catcher Bill Bryant's throw to second was late. Kralick sacrifice the runners along, and Allen scored on Lennie Green's fly to center.

Roberts, the former Phillies great who was dropped by the Yanks at the outset of the season, ran his record to 9-6 and beat New York for the second time. The 35-year-old right-hander gave up a homer to Tony Kubek in the second but red-hot Brooks Robinson nailed Whitey Ford (13-7) for a homer in the bottom of the inning and Jim Gentile untied it with a homer in the fourth. Robinson rapped out 12 hits in 19 at bats in the five-game series.

The Yanks, who lost catcher Yogi Berra with a damaged finger in the opener of the unlucky Baltimore stand, saw Kubek knocked out. The shortstop suffered a spike cut on his left foot and may be sidelined for several days.

The Angels stayed one percentage point ahead of the Twins as Don Lee blanked the White Sox on eight hits and Lee Thomas led the batting attack. Thomas tripled in two runs off Frank Baumann scored himself in the first, and singled in the other Angel run in the seventh.

★ ★ ★   ★ ★ ★

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP)—You'd think a guy pitching a major league no-hitter would have all his pitches as well as a good amount of cunning and wile working for him.

But not Minnesota's Jack Kralick, the 26-year-old beanpole southpaw who edged the Kansas City Athletics and hardluck pitcher Bill Fischer 1-0 Sunday, barely missing a perfect game when he walked the second man up in the ninth inning.

'WORKED AROUND'

Battey said he and Kralick "just worked around" after that, using the curve sparingly.

Kralick relied on a hopping fast ball and a good slider "with just a couple of changeups tossed in" in fashioning the season's fifth no-hitter in the majors. He struck out three.

★ ★ ★

"No, I didn't try to get cute with any of the hitters," Kralick said when asked if his cunning figured prominently. "Kansas City is a real good hitting team. You don't fool hitters like that with cute stuff."

He lost pinch hitter George Alusik when a fastball sailed high and outside on a 3-2 count in the ninth. This didn't particularly disturb Kralick after the game.

★ ★ ★

"Alusik usually hits me pretty good," he explained. "I figure as it turned out it was better for me to walk him than have him hit a good pitch. The pitch barely missed, that's all."

★ ★ ★

The fact he had come within one pitch of hurling the seventh perfect game in major league history didn't bother Kralick either.

VERY SATISFIED

"It doesn't make any difference to me—a no-hitter or a perfect game," he said. "I suppose it's a little nicer to be a perfect game, but it really makes no difference to me. I'm plenty satisfied."

More Work Beckons State Grid Mentors

By United Press International

Duffy Daugherty, Bump Elliott, John Idzik and Merle Schlosser each have one thing in common these days. They're working more and enjoying it less.

The time is near when pigskin annually supplants the old horsehis as "national pastime." NCAA-member schools open football practice Friday.

Daugherty, at Michigan State, has invited 70 men to the early drills on the East Lansing campus, while Elliott at Michigan is hoping for a turnout of 76 at Ann Arbor.

Idzik will reign over similar activities at the University of Detroit, as will Schlosser at Western Michigan.

Friday will be taken up with the annual picture-taking session for photographers and pressmen, with serious work slated for Saturday.

Most coaches would like to have Daugherty's problems. The Spartans have been tabbed by several pre-season selectors as likely Big Ten and national champions.

24 LETTERMEN

Returning to the Spartan fold this season are 24 lettermen including such prominent personages as fullback George Saimes; All-America center Dave Behrman; bruising tackles Jim Bobbitt and Ed Budde and quarterbacks Pete Smith and Chuck Migyanka.

The youngsters, you will remember, drubbed a pro-studded old timer squad, 31-6, last spring in the annual alumni clash, lending suspicion that MSU will be formidable in the fall.

While he doesn't expect to be deep, Daugherty admits his No. 1 units are promising. "In three scrimmages last spring, our second team never scored on our first," he said. "I can't remember when this happened before."

Elliott expects to have difficulty finding ends, a position that once offered promise of being one of his strongest.

★ ★ ★

Now he's left with only Capt. Bob Brown. Doug Bickle, a promising flanker as well as the Wolverines' best kicker, returned home to Traverse City, apparently fed up with college life. Bruce McLenna, another promising letterman, became scholatically ineligible when he flunked a summer school course.

Michigan's tackles also have been thinned by graduation and all Big Ten halfback Bennie McRae is gone.

But Elliott has bright spots, also. The Wolverines are deep at quarterback, with the senior Dave Glinka returning along with promising sophomore Frosty Evashevski and Bob Chandler. Dave Raimey, senior hight half from Dayton, Ohio, is a fancy runner who has led Michigan in scoring since his sophomore days.

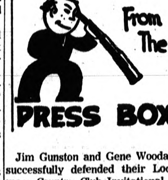
Schlosser expects to greet 66 candidates, including 21 returning lettermen when the Broncos turn out for practice at Kalamazoo.

GROSS READY

Idzik will press for a stronger defense to go along with what is expected to be another well-greased U-D offense. Leader of course is senior quarterback Jerry Goss, last year's national total offense leader until sidelined with a broken leg against Army.

"We lost our big games because of defensive letdowns," Idzik said of last year.

Gross, named to the Catholic and Football News All-America teams last season, will be without his two favorite targets — ends Larry Vargo and Steve Stonebreaker, now with the Detroit Lions and Minnesota Vikings, respectively.



Jim Gunston and Gene Woodard successfully defended their Lochmoor Country Club Invitational title yesterday with a 3 and 2 victory over Jeff Welsher and John Molenda.

Using a No. 3 iron, Bob Graham holed out his second shot on the 503 yard, par-5 eighth hole at Sunnybrook Saturday for a double eagle.

Rochester Has 3 in Softball Finals

Rochester teams won two more regional softball championships and Pontiac's Huron-Airway got off to a 3-0 start in its Class A baseball final before rain halted play in major weekend diamond activity.

★ ★ ★

The softball wins will give Rochester entries in three different classes as four final meets are held at as many different sites starting Friday.

Grissom gained the "C" event at Lansing by blasting Flint 10-1 behind the pitching of Russ Sink at Owosso.

Shelby whipped Capac 8-1 Saturday and host Owosso 6-5 yesterday for Class D honors. Lee Sherby won both games with a two-run 6th deciding the nightcap. Whitey Kraft homered. Shelby will return to Owosso for state play.

McNEIL IN 'B'

McNeil Insurance had earlier gained a berth in Class B slated for Scottville.

Class A will be held at Midland with no area entries. Allen Park heads Class AA at Port Huron with a 3-0 record with Flint, Kalamazoo, Jackson and the host team still in the running but having single setbacks. Allen Park took Jackson 3-0 and Flint eliminated Lansing 2-0 yesterday.

At Waterford, Spencer gained the Class B finals by nipping O'Neil Realty 1-0 on a homer in the 6th by Dean Parmenter. Jack Nelson won a four-hitter. Bob & Larry's needed just five innings to eliminate Haupt Pontiac, 11-1. Bill DeRousse won a two-hitter and batted in three runs with two hits. Bob Smith had a single and double to bat in four runs.

Two "C" games tonight will match Lakeland Pharmacy and Dixie Bar at 7 and Rockcote and Haskins Chevrolet at 8:30.

Huron-Airway and Ypsilanti will resume their baseball game tonight at 7:45 at Jaycee Park with the home team batting in the 4th with a man on base. Pontiac hurler Jim Ray struck out seven of the 1st nine batters to face him.

Trouble-Free Miss Century Wins With Muncey

AP Photofax

HEAD TO HEAD — Hydroplane Gale V overtakes Century 21 in the final heat of the Spirit of Detroit unlimited trophy race yesterday on the Detroit River. The Gale boat, piloted by Bill Cantrell, went on to build up a sizable lead before engine trouble forced it out of action. Bill Muncey of Seattle, driving Century through its 50th straight heat without a breakdown, won the trophy.

Seattle Driver Takes 3 Heats in Detroit Race

Cantrell Has Troubles With Supercharger in Hydro Duel

DETROIT (AP) — Bill Muncey, driver of Miss Century 21, has found the key to consistent victories in unlimited hydroplane racing.

"We've gone 50 straight heats without any trouble, without dropping out once. We're mighty proud of that," the Seattle driver said here yesterday. Reliability was the key to his victory in the Spirit of Detroit trophy race yesterday.

★ ★ ★

He swept the three heats he entered, despite the faster Gale V, driven by Bill Cantrell.

Cantrell's first try on the Detroit River course was in the second heat. He fought a fierce duel with Col. Russ Schlee of Los Angeles before his supercharger quit and Schlee went on to win in Tahoe Miss.

Cantrell won the fourth heat handily, running first all the way to beat out Tahoe Miss.

Muncey won the third heat and the fifth to set up what the giant crowd hoped would be a tight duel in the final dash around the three-mile course.

It was, in the first lap. Cantrell and Muncey dueled down the straights and into the turns with Cantrell coming out ahead. Cantrell turned in the fastest lap of the day, 108.4 miles an hour, on the third lap.

He widened his lead and held a strong margin at the finish of the fourth lap. Going into the turns after the start of the fifth, however, his supercharger quit and Muncey slipped past with an unassailable lead.

★ ★ ★

"Lots of preparation and lots of racing time," was the way Muncey described his string of victories.

COMPLAINTS

Muncey complained about roughness of the course and just before the third heat cruised by the judges' stand, waving his arm violently to indicate the water was too rough. The heat was delayed for about an hour to allow a shower to pass.

"The race was not the fastest by far," Muncey said. "the water conditions were poor and kept the speed down. The final heat was much better, but it was still a little rough." Muncey averaged 98.6 miles an hour for the 15 miles in the final heat.

Mexicans Take Yanks to Win National Doubles

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—"Now you know why they call us the jumping beans back in Mexico. We have a habit of bouncing back."

These words were uttered by a jubilant Antonio Palafox after he and Davis Cup partner Rafael Osuna beat defending champions Chuck McKinley and Dennis Ralston 6-4, 10-12, 1-6, 9-7, 6-3 Sunday for the men's national doubles tennis title.

Down two sets to one and looking tired against the Americans they had twice licked in Davis Cup play, the Mexicans got their second wind.

THREE OF FOUR

"We've felt we've been coming for the last two years," said Osuna, 23-year-old University of Southern California student. "I believe we've arrived now that we have beaten McKinley and Ralston in three of our last four meetings."

"We've been playing our best tennis the past two months," chimed in the 26-year-old Palafox, who attends Corpus Christi, Tex., College. "We were loose and actually felt no pressure after the Davis Cup. That's more important than any tournament."

Defending champion Darlene Hard and Brazil's Maria Bueno captured women's honors 4-6, 6-3, 6-2 over Mrs. Karen Hantze Susman and Billie Jean Moffitt, the top-seeded pair and Wimbledon queens.

The triumph marked the fifth straight year Miss Hard has shared the title and the second time with Maria, who was sidelined last year by hepatitis. Since being re-united they have won three national crowns.

"Maria got mad at a call in the second set and after that she played better," Darlene said. "When she plays well, that sets me up."

"Darlene was the show," said Miss Moffitt. "She became so exuberant in the third set we couldn't touch her."

Ex-State Champ Takes Top Spot at Watkins Lake

Colton Weatherson, 1961 state champion, took the honors in the first Watkins Lake Invitational Regatta held over the weekend. With Jim Hudgson as his crewman, the Green Lake sailor took a first and two thirds.

In runnerup spot was Jerry Jenkins of Fleet No. 5 Crescent Sail Club of Detroit with crewman John Shuck.

Watkins Lake boats with Glen and Joe Fries and Dave and Jo Green were in 4th and 5th places respectively.

Detroiter Howard Wins, Locals Miss Keg Finals

(Special to The Pontiac Press)

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. — Little George Howard of Detroit blistered the pins at a 220 plus pace in the 16-game Round Robin finals to take the $3,000 top prize in the Professional Bowlers Association tournament here last night.

Monroe Moore and Joe Puertas of Pontiac and Union Lake's Bob Lowry failed to make the finals.

Howard, 8th in qualifying at 4,874, piled up 131.19 Petersen points with Jim St. John, Minneapolis, a distant 2nd with 119. Howard won 14 matches and had his 2nd title virtually clinched midway through the finals.

HOT STREAK

He had 14 successive games of 204 or better yesterday topped by 266 and 244 after starting 183-189. There was a 233, two 230s.

Bill Pace of Kansas City took 3rd and Don Carter 4th. Qualifying leader Harry Smith, St. Louis, ranked 8th and Detroiter Vic Iwlew 13th. The latter was 11th in qualifying at 4,842.

Moore hit 1,174-1,221 Saturday to total 4,569. Lowry finished 4,488 by winding up with 1,116-1,119. Puertas was 1,112-993 for 4,251.

Other Michigan totals: Bob Kwolek 4,788, Bob Crawford 4,741, Mike Totsky 4,576, Gordy Slauter 4,564, Ed Lubanski 4,531, Pat Stone 4,503, Jack McCormick 4,409 and Fuller Gordy 4,370. McCormick is from Alma, Slauter from Grand Rapids and the others are Detroit residents.

Women's Metro Golf Starts at Pontiac CC

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Midge Cova, champion two years ago, and last year's runner-up was scheduled to meet Mrs. Betty Edwards in the first round this morning.

Mrs. C. J. Miller, women's medal champion of Pontiac in 1961, was first to tee off against Mrs. G .R. Roth this morning in the championship flight.

Marti Takes Colonial

MEMPHIS (AP) — Muscular Fred Marti Jr. of Houston won the Colonial Invitation Golf Championship Sunday, edging another college ace, Johnny Stevens of Wichita, Kan., 1-up.

Hubar Is Franklin Champ

Harvey Hubar won the Franklin Hills Country Club championship by defeating Dave Rose yesterday, 1-up in 36 holes. It was the 7th annual club championship.

Blazers Drop Initial Pre-Season Encounter

TOLEDO, Ohio (UPI) — The Grand Rapids Blazers of the United Football League dropped their first exhibition start of the year over the weekend, 14-0, to the Toledo Tornadoes.

Toledo scored in the second period Saturday night on a 10-yard pass from Doug Maison of Imlay City to Gene Cook. The Tornadoes scored again in the third quarter when Maison went over from the one-yard line on a quarterback sneak. Darrell Harper of Royal Oak kicked both conversions.

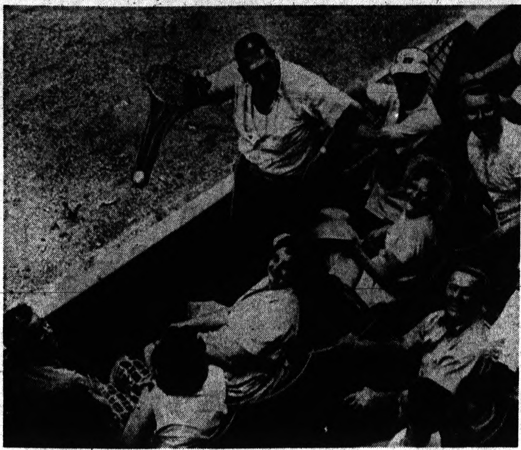
Wills Ups Steals to 72 in Romp by Dodgers



AP Photofax

NET ACTION — Anthony Orlando of Hazleton, Pa., making his first trip to Philadelphia to see a game at Connie Mack Stadium yesterday, catches a foul ball. The fish may get away from the landing net, but not the ball. The Phillies played the Giants.

By The Associated Press

Third inning: Wills beat out an infield hit, stole second, reached third on Willie Davis' safe bunt and scored when Tommy Davis hit into a double play.

Sixth inning: Wills doubled home a run, stole third and scored on a single by Jim Gilliam.

★ ★ ★

Thus did Wills, perhaps the greatest base stealer in modern baseball history, demonstrate once more his tremendous value to the Los Angeles Dodgers Sunday. With the fleet-footed shortstop reaching base three times, stealing three bases and scoring three times, the Dodgers trounced the hapless New York Mets 16-5 to retain their National League lead of 2½ games over the San Francisco Giants.

REDS COOLED OFF

Houston's Colts cooled off the red hot Reds, knocking off Cincinnati in both ends of a doubleheader 2-1 and 6-4. The twin loss dropped the third place Reds 4½ games behind the Dodgers and two behind the Giants who defeated Philadelphia 7-4.

The Chicago Cubs defeated Milwaukee 4-1 and Pittsburgh split a doubleheader with St. Louis, winning the second game 7-6, after the Cards had taken the opener 6-5.

The Dodgers scored 12 unearned runs against the Mets, who committed five errors while four of their pitchers walked six and hit a batter. Rookie southpaw Pete Richert pitched eight innings, fanned eight and registered his third triumph while Craig Anderson suffered his 13th straight loss.

Wills' three stolen bases increased his season total to 72, the most by a National Leaguer since 1900 except for Bob Bescher's record 80 in 1911 for the Cincinnati Reds. Only four others in modern major league history have stolen more. They are Ty Cobb of Detroit (96 in 1916, 83 in '11 and 76 in '09), Clyde Milan of Washington (88 in 1912 and 74 in '13), Eddie Collins of Philadelphia's A's (81 in 1910) and Fritz Maisel of the New York Yankees (74 in 1914).

NEEDS EIGHT

Wills has 31 games left to play. He needs eight to tie Bescher and 24 to equal Cobb's major league mark.

"I think I have a good chance to catch Bescher but I don't believe I can break Cobb's record," the 29-year-old Wills said. "Until I reached 50 I wasn't particularly interested in the record. But I am now. That doesn't mean I'm going to run just for the sake of stealing a base. I'll try for it only when I feel it helps the team."

★ ★ ★

The Giants were outhit 11-7 by Philadelphia but five of their safeties were for extra bases and helped them win their fourth straight. Orlando Cepeda drove in two runs with his 30th homer, the fourth in the three games, and Felipe Alou also homered, his 21st of the season. Jack Sanford, with some relief help from Mike McCormick and Bob Bolin, registered his 18th triumph. The loss was charged to Art Mahaffey, the Phils' 17-game winner.

MAYS RESTING

Giant Manager Alvin Dark gave Willie Mays a rest although the slumping center fielder did put in an appearance as a pinch hitter in the eighth inning. He walked and scored the Giants' last run.

Southpaw George Brunet pitched a five-hitter in the first game and veteran second baseman Johnny Temple drove in two runs that snapped a 4-4 tie in the second game to highlight Houston's double victory over the Reds. Cincinnati had won six straight and 32 of its last 40 games before Sunday's debacle. Hal Smith and Norm Larker drove in the Colts' two runs in the opener.

Bill White hit a two-run homer off relief ace Elroy Face in the eighth inning to give the Cards a come-from-behind victory over the Pirates in the opener. White singled the Cards' potential tying run into scoring position with two out in the ninth of the nightcap but right-hander Jack Lamabe retired Ken Boyer to preserve the Pirates' margin in the nightcap. Bob Skinner made that possible by hitting his 20th homer.

Dick Ellsworth pitched a six-hitter for the Cubs and snapped a 25-game hitting streak of Milwaukee's Hank Aaron en route to his seventh triumph. Home runs by Dick Bertell and Billy Williams were the Cubs' big blows. Ken Hubbs, Chicago's rookie second baseman, accepted five chances flawlessly to extend his streak to 69 games without an error, four shy of the major league record of 73 set by Bobby Doerr of the Red Sox in 1948.

Sanders 1st at Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Doug Sanders, who put together the biggest comeback of the PGA tour this year to win the $35,000 Oklahoma City Open Golf Tournament Sunday, says he has to consider himself lucky.

★ ★ ★

"You've got to be lucky to win any golf tournament," Sanders said as he relaxed after posting a final round 67 over the par 36-36—72 Quail Creek Country Club course for an 8-under-par 280.

Sanders won $5,300 to bring his two-week total to $9,600. He won first money of $4,300 at St. Paul Aug. 19.

EAGLE FINISH

The 29-year-old Georgian who plays out of Ojai, Calif., polished off his victory with an eagle on the final hole—and the two strokes he gained there were his margin over Johnny Pott of Gulf Hills, Miss. Pott came in at 282 and won $3,400.

Sanders made up six strokes in his drive for the lead during the final round after starting the day at 213, 3-under-par. Pott was at 212, Gay Brewer of Crystal River, Fla., was at 210 and Don Massengale of Jacksboro, Tex., was at 207.

Disaster struck Massengale, 25-year-old former Texas Christian University star in his third year on the tour, when he missed a 6-inch tap-in on No. 4 for a double bogey. He slipped steadily from that point and finished with a 5-over-par 77.

However, his fine play in the first three rounds kept him at 284 for the tournament and gave him $2,200 for third place.

THE PALMER METHOD

by Arnold Palmer

SWING BACK "INSIDE"

Illustrated is a type of swing which will usually result in a slice. The clubhead is outside the intended line of flight. The golfer who does this will probably swing back into the ball in the same swing arc.

8-27

It is simple enough to start back correctly.

Keep the wrists out of the action. Concentrate on bringing the clubhead back low and slowly, and start everything with a pivot of the hips to the right.

Colts, Browns, Packers Still Unbeaten

John Unitas Showing Old Magic

By The Associated Press

Johnny Unitas has found that old second half magic that he used a few seasons back to spark Baltimore to a pair of National Football League titles, and the thought is enough to give the six other Western Conference coaches a good case of pre-season heebie-jeebies.

The Colts' quarterback, injury free this year, has led the Colts to three straight exhibition victories, and he's done it every conceivable way. In the Colts 56-28 drubbing of the Philadelphia Eagles, he sparked them to a 42-7 halftime lead, then picked up the Colts' attack that had mired in the mud at Washington and boosted it in Baltimore's 34-14 victory over the Redskins. It was reminiscent of the Colts title drives in 1958 and 1959.

Last Saturday night, he put on one of his patented second half clutch performances as the Colts pulled away to a 24-10 victory over the Dallas Cowboys (0-3) at Norfolk, Va. He passed for one TD and set up a second after the Colts had been battled to a 3-3 halftime tie.

PERFECT RECORDS

The Cleveland Browns and defending champion Green Bay Packers are the only other teams with perfect records. The Browns, with newcomer Tom Wilson leading the way, upended San Francisco (2-1) 34-27 at Portland, Ore., for their third straight win, while at Milwaukee the Packers won their fourth exhibition game, and third against NFL foes, 35-21 over the Chicago Bears (0-3).

The New York Giants won their first in three starts, 31-24 over the Rams (2-1) at Los Angeles, Philadelphia (2-1) beat Washington (0-3) 24-7 at Charlotte, N.C., and the St. Louis Cards (1-1-1) edged the Minnesota Vikings (0-3) 24-21 at Minneapolis.

In the American League exhibition Sunday at Oakland, Calif., San Diego struggled to beat Oakland Raiders 33-27.

Tonight, in Detroit, the Lions play host to the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Unitas passed 11 yards to rookie fullback Bob Clemens for one second half score and sneaked a yard for the second, setting it up with a 45-yard pass to Jimmy Orr. Lenny Lyles 45-yard run with an interception of Eddie LeBaron pass broke the tie in the third period before Unitas clinched it. Quarterback Don Meredith ran five yards for Dallas' only touchdown.

TWO TOUCHDOWNS

Wilson, acquired from the Rams and playing in place of the infirmed Ernie Davis, scored twice and set up a third score as he racked up 109 yards in only eight carries. But the Browns' ever-leaky pass defense was raw meat for 49ers quarterback John Brodie, who completed 23 of 33 passes for 262 yards, and one touchdown, and set up two more with his aerials.

Green Bay's 1-2 punch of quarterback Bart Starr, who passed 43 yards to Max McGee and 18 to Lew Carpenter for scores and fullback Jim Taylor, who scored two and rolled up 103 yards rushing in a come-from-behind second half drive, are still the Packers' forte. The Bears, still unable to mount a consistent attack but strong on defense, held Taylor to only eight yards in the first half.

The Giants, injury-riddled in the defensive secondary, nevertheless won on a 45-yard run with an interception by defensive back Alan Webb. The defending Eastern Conference champs also got two good performances from quarterbacks Ralph Guglielmi and Y.A. Tittle. Goog passed 18 yards to Alex Webster and 13 to Del Shofner for a quick 14-0 lead, which Zeke Bratkowski leveled with a pair of TD passes on his own. Tittle's passing in the second half sparked New York to a come-from-behind performance.

Sonny Jurgensen, the Eagles quarterback got the Birds off to a 7-0 lead with a 41 yard pass to Pete Retzlaff early in the game, then retired as King Hill did most of the work, including a 33-yard scoring toss to Tommy McDonald. Don (Blade) Burroughs' scored the third Eagles TD on a 75-yard run with an intercepted pass.

★ ★ ★

Cardinals' quarterback Sam Etcheverry cranked up his offense and helped nip the Vikings, despite a pair of TD bosses by Lee Grosscup. Ttcheverry, out recently with an injured ankle, hit end Sonny Randle with strikes of 17 and 34 yaards and rookie Bill Triplett ran back the second half kickoff for 91 yards and the other St. Louis score.

Oakland's much - strengthened Raiders fell before Jack Kemp's 23-yard pass to Dave Kocourek and John Hadl's 11-yard run in the fourth period after leading 20-17 through three periods. Don Heinrich's 24-yard pass to Tom Daniels got the Raiders (1-3) final score. The Chargers, now 4-0 never have lost an AFL exhibition.

No-Hitter Hurled by Woman Star in 'World' Play

STRATFORD, Conn. (AP)—Lou Albrecht of Whittier, Calif., tossed a no-hit, no-run game Sunday night for her third straight victory as Whittier whipped Osaka, Japan, 3-0 in the Women's World Softball Tournament.

Reading, Pa., trimmed Portland, Ore., 2-1 as Reading's Pat Whitman pitched a two-hitter. Valparaiso, Ind., downed Long Beach, Calif., 3-0, and Phoenix edged Toronto 1-0.

In other action Elizabeth, N.J., beat Topeka, Kan., 3-1; Pekin, Ill., stopped Nashville, Tenn., 6-2, and Minneapolis shutout Fresno, Calif. 4-0, with the three losers eliminated in the double elimination tourney.

Miss Albrecht retired 21 batters in order in pitching her no-hitter over the Japanese team, and doubled in one run when Whittier got all its runs in the third inning.

2 Better Records in Swimming Meet

LOS ALTOS, Calif. (AP)—Australian Murray Rose and 16-year-old Carolyn House each bettered a world record Sunday in the windup of the Far Western Swimming and Diving Championships.

Rose won the 800-meter freestyle in 8 minutes 51.5 seconds, surpassing the record of 8:59.6 set by his fellow Australian, Jon Konrads, in 1959.

Miss House streaked to victory in the 800-meter freestyle in 9:51.6 breaking the old mark of 9:55.6 set by Jan Cederquist of Sweden in 1960.

One of Nation's Most Powerful Men

Hoffa Could Tie Up U.S. in No Time

(Editor's Note — Jimmy Hoffa, as head of the Teamster's Union, probably is the most powerful single labor leader in the country. This is the first of five dispatches on Hoffa.)

By HARRY FERGUSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Any list of the most powerful men in the United States wouldn't make sense unless it included James Riddle Hoffa. If he were so minded, he could make half a dozen phone calls and plunge the nation into chaos.

The International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers is the world's biggest union with a claimed membership of 1.72 million.

As general president, Hoffa is the boss with a salary of $75,000 a year and an unlimited expense account. He doesn't control all the drivers who roll trucks across America's highways, but he controls enough of them to make a shambles of the economy of the nation's cities if he chooses to do so.

A Teamsters strike in New York, for instance, would leave perishable foods rotting on the docks and at the rail terminals. Delivery of fuel and milk would almost cease. Garbage would pile up. The pinch would be felt in 12 hours. Within four or five days the big city would be beaten to its knees.

The thought that a nationwide strike could make the same thing happen all over the country is frightening enough to be a nightmare.

It would not be correct to say it frightens Hoffa because he doesn't frighten easily. But it gives him pause and he has gone on record as follows: "There never will be, as long as I have anything to do with it, a national transportation strike."

NO DUMBBELL

Whatever Hoffa's enemies say about him —and there are plenty of them and they have spoken volumes — nobody ever accused him of being dumb.

Any nationwide strike has the best chance of succeeding if all the local and regional contracts expire almost simultaneously. The Teamsters have been working toward that strategic position and will be close to their goal in 1964.

Hoffa's career is a study in survival. When it seems inevitable that prison doors will clank behind him, he somehow snatches victory out of defeat.

He has been tried and acquitted on charges of bribing an attorney to spy on the Senate rackets committee. He has been tried and acquitted of tapping the telephones of subordinates in the Detroit office of the Teamsters union.

Samuel Baron, former field director of the union, accused Hoffa of slugging him and had some wounds to show, but the case has not been prosecuted for lack of corroborating evidence. Hoffa and his union were expelled by the AFL-CIO, but he went on picking up members and broadening the areas of his authority.

"Subpoenas are dropping around us like confetti at a country fair," George S. Fitzgerald, a Hoffa attorney, exclaimed when they had their backs to the wall and were fighting a half dozen court actions at once.

TEST SURVIVAL POWERS

Hoffa's powers of survival still are being tested in two pending legal actions. He must stand trial in the coming months on charges of misusing $500,000 of the Teamsters funds in a Florida real estate development.

He also must stand trial on charges of receiving a share of $1 million in illegal payments from Commercial Carriers, Inc., a trucking firm. It is doubtful whether any day has dawned in the last six years which didn't find Hoffa engaged in litigation.

Last week a federal grand jury in Chicago began an investigation of the handling of the Teamsters pension fund. U.S. Atty. James P. O'Brien said five special assistant attorneys general would present the case. He described the Teamsters pension fund as a $186-million organization.

Hoffa became a labor leader at the age of 19 when he was working for 32 cents an hour unloading freight cars for the Kroger Grocery Co., in Detroit.

The men had to stay near the unloading platforms 12 hours a day although they were paid only for the hours they worked.

Hoffa chose a time when a big shipment of strawberries had just arrived. Then he led a committee of six into the executive offices and gave management the alternative of raising pay or letting the strawberries rot. The raise was forthcoming.

CRITICIZE ASSOCIATES

From that day Hoffa began clawing and fighting his way to the top of the labor movement and he was not too particular about the men who boarded his bandwagon. The Senate Rackets Committee had this to say about the men who rose with Hoffa:

"Hoffa employed persons as business agents and organizers despite the fact they had been accused of armed robbery, kidnaping, larceny, book making, throwing stench bombs, impersonating government officers, felonious assault and carrying concealed weapons."

Hoffa doesn't bother to deny that some of his associates have unsavory records, but merely says, "I never turn my back on anybody."

His appearance before the Senate Rackets Committee made Hoffa known to persons outside the labor movement and it was there that he encountered a young man named Robert F. Kennedy, counsel for the committee.

They first met when a mutual acquaintance invited them to dinner. The dislike was intense and mutual. Hoffa was quoted as having described Kennedy as "a spoiled little jerk" after they parted.

Kennedy was confident he had the goods on Hoffa and predicted he would send him to prison.

It was a roaring feud from the start and it still goes on. Kennedy, because of his position as attorney general, makes no public comments about Hoffa these days, but it is significant that federal grand juries in 14 cities are digging into the affairs of the Teamsters Union.

There isn't much doubt that over the last six years Hoffa has been the most investigated man in the United States.

GOP Unit Hits Test Ban Offer

Congressional Group Voiced Opposition to Proposal Last Week

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Republican congressional group indicated opposition last week to the type of uninspected nuclear ban proposal put forth today by the United States and Great Britain.

The Republican Congressional Committee, presenting its views in its weekly newsletter on Aug. 24 based its comments on a report that such a test proposal was being considered by the administration.

The Republican Congressional Committee assists GOP candidates in their campaigns for election to the House.

Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., discussing the same report, said the idea was dangerous and foolhardy.

A Democrat, Sen. Strom Thurmond, S. C., joined Tower in denouncing the plan, calling it "ridiculous and unrealistic . . . one step removed from the Communist position."

The idea of a treaty covering tests only in the atmosphere, underwater and in outer space was proposed recently by Chairman Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., of the Senate Disarmament subcommittee.

Humphrey wrote disarmament director William Foster urging that this country propose "at once" such a partial ban because of increased fallout.

He said that such a treaty was the only guarantee that radioactive substances in U.S. food supplies should be kept at safe limits.

9 Paratroopers Report to Dutch in New Guinea

HOLLANDIA, West New Guinea (AP) — Nine Indonesian soldiers, hiding in the jungle in the western part of West New Guinea, have reported to Dutch military authorities under the cease-fire agreement, the Dutch information service announced today.

Brick Wall Collapses, Killing 15-Year-Old Boy

EASTON, Pa. (AP)—A 15-year-old boy was killed and five other teen-agers were injured Sunday when a two-story brick wall collapsed on them as they played in an abandoned school being torn down.

Authorities said the victim, Eugene Guzzo, was crushed beneath tons of brick as he walked across a plank spanning a 10-foot deep hole in the building's basement.

Dems, GOP May Load Guns With Same Economic Ammo

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Voters may have to choose this fall between conflicting Democratic and Republican claims that the same economic figures show the country is prosperous or recession-threatened.

By the time President Kennedy and former President Dwight D. Eisenhower take off on the campaign circuits in October, the returns on September's business barometer readings should be piling up.

If they indicate a more-than-seasonal fall pickup, Democrats will breathe easier about their chances in critical House, Senate and governor elections. If the reading is not so good, Republicans are bound to feel they have something going for them.

★ ★ ★

But if the present trend is any indication, no matter what the indices say the Democratic and Republican interpretations are likely to differ widely.

Democrats have picked up the cue from Kennedy's recent national television and radio broadcast that the country is now a lot more prosperous than it was under Eisenhower. It is convenient for most of them, however, to omit mentioning Kennedy's qualification that the economy still isn't moving fast enough to please him.

Drawing on the same reservoir of information, Republicans contend that under the Democrats the economy isn't keeping pace with either the population growth or what Western Europe is doing. They point to Kennedy's delay before he decided not to ask an immediate tax cut as a sign something is amiss.

The pattern of conflicting claims was well established in weekend political pronouncements.

Sen. Clair Engle, D-Calif., hit the prosperity note hard in keynoting a California State Democratic convention. This was in line with an earlier decision of Democratic party leaders at a Midwestern party conference in French Lick, Ind., to blow their horn about prosperity.

★ ★ ★

Engle told the California Democrats that when Kennedy took office the nation was "in the throes of the third Republican recession in six years."

Since then, he said there had been economic recovery, "made possible because the new administration wasted no time in launching a series of imaginative and positive programs."

ON TAX CUT

While Engle said he was proud of the administration's record of "fiscal integrity," Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., told a farmers' picnic at Berryville, Va., that if Kennedy's proposal to cut taxes next year isn't accompanied by spending reductions "it will be the most irresponsible recommendation of this kind and magnitude in my recollection."

Byrd said he finds little assurance that the administration plans to cut spending.

On the Republican side Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., told Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., on a taped television program he thinks the country "is in the midst of some form of recession right now and if the President isn't very careful, we may all be in more."

"There seems to be a growing fear on the part of industry as to what this administration is going to do," he said.

Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., said on another taped television program that Kennedy had shown "weakness of leadership" in not asking for an immediate tax cut to lift the economy.

List Township Places for Wheat Quota Poll

Oakland County polling places for Thursday's referendum on marketing quotas for the 1963 crop of wheat were announced today by Robert H. Long, chairman of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee.

AREA NEWS

The wheat quota ballots may be cast from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the following places:

For the townships of Lyon, Novi, Farmington, West Bloomfield, Commerce, Milford and that part of White Lake and Highland south of M59, votes may be cast at Lyon Township Hall at New Hudson;

For the townships of Addison, Brandon, Independence, Oakland, Orion and Oxford at the Oxford Co-Operative Elevator Office at Oxford;

For the townships of Holly, Rose, Springfield, Groveland and that part of White Lake and Highland townships north of M59 at the Holly Township Hall in Holly;

For the townships of Waterford, Pontiac, Avon, Troy, Royal Oak, Southfield and Bloomfield at the Oakland County ASC Office, Room 3, Oakland Ave., Pontiac.

The chairman explains that the 1963 wheat program to be voted on in general will be the same as for the 1961 wheat crop, as directed by "permanent" legislation. The 1962 wheat stabilization program was authorized by special legislation affecting the wheat crop for 1962 only.

ON NATIONAL ALLOTMENT

Farm acreage allotments in 1963 will be based on a minimum 55-million-acre national wheat allotment, and growers have already received notices of their farm allotments.

★ ★ ★

If at least two-thirds of the growers voting approve quotas for 1963-crop wheat, price support available to growers who comply with their allotment will be at a national average of at least $1.82 per bushel (75 per cent of parity).

Marketing quota penalties will apply to the "excess" wheat growers with more than 15 acres of wheat who do not comply with their farm wheat allotments.

If the quotas are not approved by the necessary two-thirds of those voting, there will be no quotas or marketing penalties for the 1963 crop of wheat, but the price support available to growers who comply with their wheat acreage allotments will drop to 50 per cent of parity, or a national average of about $1.21 per bushel.

In either case, no price support will be available on the 1963 wheat crop to growers who do not comply with their farm wheat acreage allotments.

Proclamation of wheat marketing quotas is directed by legislation whenever the supply of wheat is more than 20 per cent above the normal supply. Actually, the total supply for 1962-63 is estimated at 2.4 billion bushels — 66.5 per cent above normal.

Marketing quotas have been in effect for the past nine wheat crops, as approved by growers voting in referendums held annually on the question.

Teachers Set for Discussions

To Meet Kindergarten Children's Parents in Huron Valley District

Huron Valley kindergarten teachers of some 413 or more youngsters entering kindergarten this fall will devote Sept. 6 through 11 to conferences with parents regarding the children and the school program.

Parents will be notified by card of the time of their appointments, says Arthur Burklund, elementary coordinator. It is necessary that the parents arrive promptly to confer with the teacher about the child's health, traits and any problems, he added.

Parents should bring the birth certificate of the child who must be 5 years of age on or before Dec. 1. They also are urged to have their child's teeth examined and to have the state-required physical examination before the conference.

Burklund stated that according to the 1962 census the enrollment of beginners would exceed 413 this year. Although school starts for the elementary children on Sept. 7 (5th grades on Sept. 6) the kindergarten children will not be brought in until Sept. 12.

★ ★ ★

Fires at Home Being Probed

Five Blazes Reported to Walled Lake Dept. at One House

WALLED LAKE — A series of fires in a home here over the weekend is being investigated by the State Fire Marshal's Office.

The last blaze, early yesterday morning, caused an estimated $4,000 damage to the 1½-story frame house at 211 Hillcroft St.

The six-room house, owned by Ivan Van Scholck, 2281 W. Lincoln Road, Birmingham, was being rented by a Mrs. Jacqueline Smith, according to Walled Lake firemen.

They said that no one was at home when the fires were discovered.

Four fires at the address were reported to the department on Saturday and the last one at 1 a.m. Sunday.

The fire department was called to the scene yesterday and once on Saturday. Several other minor fires on Saturday at the house was extinguished by a neighbor.

Most extensive fire damage to the house was caused to the kitchen, bathroom and living room, with smoke damage throughout the home, firemen said.

The building is insured, Mrs. Van Schoick said. Cause of the fires is undetermined.

Borrowing Okay Given County School Systems

Two Oakland County school systems have received permission from the state office of public instruction to borrow a total of $900,000 against anticipated state school aid.

Farmington was granted authority to borrow $600,000 for operation and Walled Lake, $300,000.

In Lenawee County

Tornado Hits Hen House

A tornado caused limited damage in western Lenawee County and lightning set fire to a house in Romeo yesterday in a wet and windy weekend for Michigan.

The tornado, described by a state policeman as slow-moving, demolished farmer Lyle Jeffery's chicken house, killing about 1,000 of his 3,000 chickens.

No one was hurt although the black funnel passed close to Jeffery's wife, Wynona, and a daughter as they talked to a neighbor, Mrs. Ella Randolph.

Trooper Laverne Frye of the Blissfield State Police Post said he spotted the tornado south of Hudson. He described it as a "twisting mass of black clouds" which formed into a funnel when it touched ground at Jeffery's farm two miles west of Hudson.

THROW 2,000 YARDS

The tornado wrecked the 30x128-foot chicken house, flinging chicken cages 2,000 yards, and tore the rack from a pickup truck and destroyed small outbuildings.

Mrs. Randolph's husband, Glean, and their son, Wesley, 18, were shaken up when the tornado rocked their parked car in the Jeffery yard.

At the height of last night's storm, lightning struck the roof of the Abe Boerema home at 281 S. Main St., Romeo, and went down the chimney.

★ ★ ★

Romeo firemen put out the blaze in a matter of minutes and damage was estimated at less than $500.

★ ★ ★

Ex-Berlin Commandant Not Upset by Present Tension

By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — Brig. Gen. Frank Howley (Ret.), tough-minded U.S. commandant on the Berlin Allied Kommandatura from the end of World War II through the Berlin airlift, sees no additional cause for alarm in the present tension in Berlin.

★ ★ ★

"The Russians have pulled their commandant out of East Berlin, but it doesn't matter where the commands come from," Gen. Howley, now a vice president of New York University, told us.

The commands will continue to come from some new headquarters. They'll be the same commands.

"The Allied Kommandatura, the so-called four-power control of Berlin, has been a piece of fiction for years. Just as we let them buffalo us into holding back when we could have taken Berlin ahead of them we let them get away with dominating their section of Germany and East Berlin itself.

"So they out up a wall a year ago. They had an unseen wall erected as long as 12 years ago. We still make a big to-do over nonrecognition of their stooge government in East Germany.

Matter of fact, we've recognized East Germany's sovereignty for years. Everything we ship by rail or road from West Germany to West Berlin must bear the East German fahrenbeglecihschein, the travel permit. Nothing moves without it.

WE ACCEPTED

A Russian used to sit next to the East German handling such paperwork, looking over his shoulder. But that stopped a long time ago, and we accepted.

"Our military people meet with the British and the French each week in the old Kommandatura building. The flags are run up the separate flagpoles. The pole reserved for the Soviet Union's flag is always empty. I suggested once that we cut it down, but that was too much for the people I worked for.

"We're in Berlin by right of conquest. During the airlift it cost us a billion dollars to keep that city alive, and Lord knows how many deaths. It seems to me we can afford to assert ourselves about Berlin when the occasion demands.

It was a terrible mistake, I think, not to go through the wall and pick up that kid they shot last week. It wasn't an emergency that had to be cleared through Washington. It could have been handled on the spot at low level.

SHOULD HAVE HELPED

"We should have sent in an unarmed ambulance with the biggest Red Cross available, picked up the boy and saved his life. It isn't in the American nature to watch any man bleed to death without attempting to help him. God, during the war I saw our medics go through hell to pick up even an enemy, if the man needed help.

It's a good idea to install that ambulance patrol. I hope it's used. If it's ever fired on, during an act of mercy, the whole world will condemn those held accountable."

Gen. Howley, during his sometimes stormy stay in Berlin, was not known for excessive use of kid gloves in his dealings with his opposite numbers in the Red army.

When they pushed him he pushed back, and it is quite probable that the professional Soviet military men had a great deal more respect for him than for some of his contemporaries and successors.

READY ANSWER

We asked him what he would do, if he were still commandant, and a U.S. military or commercial plane using the accredited air routes from West Germany to West Berlin was attacked in the air.

He seemed surprised by the question.

"You'd shoot the — down, of course," he said. "What else would there be to do? What else would say, as clearly, that we have the right to be there?"

The two-fisted educator, former track, baseball and football star, economist, and art student at the Sorbonne, sees Berlin as a continuing aggravation to the U.S. He doubts that a major war can emerge from its ugly incidents. But he is just as sure that the U.S. will be in for great shame, humiliation and loss of face if its military units in Berlin fail to defend every right accorded them "in a pact that was signed with our blood."

33 Clergymen Albany Bound

White, Negro Ministers Heed Plea for Prayer Pilgrimage

NEW YORK (UPI) — Thirty-three clergymen and two women religious workers from the New York area are en route to Albany, Ga. in a "prayer pilgrimage" requested by integrationist leader Martin Luther King, Jr.

The Protestant and Jewish clergymen—including both white and Negro ministers — left here yesterday by automobile.

"In a statement, they said they were making the trip to "demonstrate the support of religious leaders throughout the country for the aspirations of the Albany movemen."

A telegrammed request for a meeting with Albany Mayor Asa D. Kelley and the City Commission had not been answered at the time the group departed.

However, the Rev. Donald C. Brewer, president of the Albany Ministerial Association, had sent a telegram saying the association felt nothing was to be gained by the pilgrimage.

The Albany clergyman said he would meet with his members today to decide whether to accede to a request of the northern ministers for a meeting tomorrow.

Beautiful George Washington

Bridge Getting Six-Lane Lower Level

NEW YORK (AP)—Historians say the world's first bridge was built eons ago when a primitive man felled a tree across a chasm.

Since then many bridges have been suspended, swung and arched over the inaccessible to ease the passage of man. But few have had the majesty—both in style and setting—of the mighty George Washington Bridge.

"The most beautiful bridge in the world" was what the great French architect Le Corbusier called it.

It spans the broad Hudson River between New York, with its zigzag skyline, and the green-brown New Jersey Palisades, those long-lived descendants of the Ice Age.

For 31 years it has stood as a modern-day miracle of steel, concrete and human ingenuity. Now it is about to be given new life.

A bridge lives because of the energy that courses over it—the cars, trucks, buses and pedestrians that chase up and down its lanes.

The George Washington's broad, eight-laned back has borne 575 million vehicular crossings since its dedication on Oct. 25, 1931, by then Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York and Gov. Morgan F. Larson of New Jersey.

SIX-LANE LEVEL

That back is about to be broadened with the addition of a six-lane lower level. It now handles 38 million vehicles a year.

★ ★ ★

The new level, which took four years to build and cost twice as much as the original bridge, will be dedicated at mid-river Wednesday by the present governors of New York and New Jersey, Nelson A. Rockefeller and Richard J. Hughes.

The cost of the expansion has been $145 million, compared with $60 million for the original bridge.

This over-all investment in excess of $200 million will make the George Washington the most expensive bridge in the world, and its 14 lanes will make it the largest in terms of capacity.

A lower level—for trains or automobiles—was provided in the original plans by the designer of the bridge, Othmar H. Ammann. Thus the bulk of the cost of the expansion has gone for the web of approaches to the bridge on both sides of the river.

On the New Jersey side at Fort Lee, for example, work crews carved out 1.82 million yards of rock from the Palisades for twin 600-foot-long tunnels to provide access to major highways west of the Hudson.

At 178th Street, Manhattan, the expansion includes the George Washington Bridge Expressway, a new 12-lane feeder extending to the Harlem River and leading to the Bronx beyond. New and broader-curved links run from both levels to Riverside Drive and the Henry Hudson Parkway.

★ ★ ★

The expressway will run beneath a new $13 million bus terminal and several new apartment houses. The terminal, scheduled to open this fall, has a butterfly-shaped roof designed by Dr. Pier Luigi Nervi, the Italian engineer.

Border Guard Flees to West

Armed East German Worms Way Through Row of Barbed Wire

BERLIN (UPI) — An East Berlin border guard escaped unnoticed from the Soviet sector of the city in broad daylight today, West Berlin police reported.

The guard wormed his way through a barbed-wire entanglement on the border of the French sector, bringing his submachine gun with him.

At the same time, three other refugees said young people throughout East Germany dream of "making an exit" or catching "the next steamboat" — and escaping to the West.

"I knew I was a death candidate," said one of them, speaking of the risks they ran. "For me, there was only freedom or death."

★ ★ ★

Peter Hanisch, 24-year-old son of a Communist union official, and an engaged couple whose names were not made public told their story to the newspaper BZ.

ESCAPED LAST WEEK

The three escaped through the Iron Curtain late last week. Hanisch succeeded in evading guards at Berlin's antirefugee wall. The escape route used by the other two refugees — an engineer from Dresden and a girl he met six weeks ago — was not revealed.

The three young Germans said their fellows in the Soviet zone "are not ready to surrender to (Communist boss Walter) Ulbricht."

They said they were not deterred by the knowledge that at least 41 East Germans have been killed by Communist guards during the past year when they sought to flee.

"I asked my father whether he approved of the shooting of refugees," Hanisch said.

"He said they were all criminals. When I asked, 'Would you call me a criminal if I went?' he evaded an answer."

Sam Goldwyn Honored by Big Filmland Party

The international ballroom of the Beverly Hilton Hotel was filled with stars and other celebrities.

Toastmaster George Jessel shared the rostrum with such dignitaries as Sen. Jacob Javits, R-N.Y., California gubernatorial candidate Richard M. Nixon, producer Y. Frank Freeman, Irene Dunne, Frank Sinatra and James Stewart.

Jews May Spark Anti-Semitism, Magazine Says

NEW YORK (AP) — America, Roman Catholic Jesuit magazine, says some Jewish groups may produce an outbreak of anti-Semitism in this country if they continue to push for elimination of all religious practices in the public schools.

★ ★ ★

The weekly magazine, in an editorial in its Sept. 1 issue, says there have been "disturbing hints of heightened anti-Semitic feeling" since the U.S. Supreme Court's decision banning a New York state official school prayer.

The editorial referred to the support given the decision by some Jewish groups and to the fact that Jews were among those petitioning the court in the New York state case.

★ ★ ★

The magazine said it would be "most unfortunate if the entire Jewish community were to be blamed for the unrelenting pressure tactics of a small but overly vocal segment within it."

Costly Brush Fire Finally Controlled

HEMET, Calif. (UPI)—Firemen conducted mop-up operations and patrolled possible hotspots on a 16,648 acre brush fire that roared through mountainous terrain over the weekend and was finally controlled last night.

★ ★ ★

Temperatures above the 100-degree mark and wind gusts up to 30 miles an hour frustrated firefighters' efforts after the fire broke out Friday, but weather conditions improved yesterday and firemen gained control of the blaze.

★ ★ ★

Foggy Finns Steal Bus, Ram Boat, Sinking It

HELSINKI, Finland (AP)—Two drunken Finns early today stole a bus in the heart of Helsinki, drove it down to the harbor and rammed a towboat. The towboat sank, with the bus on top of it.

★ ★ ★

Police captured both men. The drunk who did the driving got only minor cuts and bruises. His companion was found lying on the bus floor, apparently mostly unaware of what had happened.

Over Holiday Weekend

High Traffic Toll Seen

CHICAGO (AP)—Traffic accidents in the nation over the long Labor Day weekend, says the National Safety Council, may kill between 410 and 490 persons.

★ ★ ★

The council also estimates that from 16,000 to 20,000 persons may suffer disabling injuries during the 78-hour holiday period from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Monday, Sept. 3.

★ ★ ★

The council said records show that 330 persons are killed and 13,000 suffer disabling injuries during a comparable 78-hour non-holiday period at this time of year.

★ ★ ★

During last year's labor day holiday period there were 386 traffic deaths.

Council President Howard Pyle said if motorists follow basic safety rules this year's toll will trend toward the council's lower estimate.

20 Millions of Moola

Weary Brando Does Last Bounty Retake

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — This was it — the last scene of the last retakes of the last day's shooting of "Mutiny on the Bounty."

But the ever-skeptical Marlon Brando cocked his eye and said, "How can you be sure?"

THOMAS

I felt that I should be in on the close, having witnessed the beginnings. To give you an idea of the time span, I left for Tahiti on the day John F. Kennedy was inaugurated, and the company had already been shooting in the islands a month and a half.

RETAKES AND MILLIONS

Since then, "Mutiny on the Bounty" has gone through four marriages of crew members to Tahitian girls, three deaths, four directors, numerous feuds, retakes, retakes on the retakes, and 20 millions of MGM's moola.

The studio has been accused of ineptitude, profligacy and flirting with financial chaos. Brando has been accused of everything from pigheadedness and malingering to dancing nightly with the natives and doing it badly.

Actually his tamure—that's Tahiti's crazy, speeded-up hula—is accomplished, as is most everything else he undertakes. He was to do the dance in the final (?) shot of the picture.

NATIVE MUSIC

He prepared for the scene with Brandovian thoroughness. For much of the morning, he was locked in his dressing room alone, playing native music on a stereo machine and beating two large congo drums.

He emerged in a sweat to look over the set and costumes of other dancers with producer Aaron Rosenberg. The latter was directing the last few days of shooting after retake director George Seaton had to return to other duties. His predecessors: Carol Reed, fired after the first few months; Lewis Milestone, who directed most of the remainder.

★ ★ ★

Brando returned to his dressing room to talk about the end of the long and nerve-crushing production.

"At least I think it's the end," he commented wearily. "I'm amazed that everything is so amicable after all the name-calling and back-biting and crud that has gone on."

The reason for the retakes?

"It came from a suggestion by Billy Wilder," he said. "He saw the picture and he said there was something missing in the characterization of Christian.

"The ending we had showed the men quarreling and killing each other for no particular reason. Wilder's suggestion was that Christian should wrestle with his conscience and decide the thing to do was return to England and face the consequences of the mutiny. His men think he is turning aristocrat like Bligh, and they oppose him, setting fire to the Bounty. Christian is burned in the fire and dies."

★ ★ ★

The new ending appears to have satisfied everyone, including Brando, who once swore he would never set foot on the Bounty again. But he returned, and now is even saying nice things about the movie. But don't push him too far.

★ ★ ★

One helpful bystander suggested that the movie might well use a postscript saying that justice had been done.

"I have a .38 pistol in my dressing room drawer," he said menacingly, "and I am prepared to use it on any suggester."

Lots of I WILLs

Student's Creed Good at Start of School

By LESLIE J. NASON, ED. D.
Professor of Education,
University of Southern California

The start of a new school term is a little like New Year's Day. Just about every student makes a resolution that he will try to do better during the coming term.

DR. NASON

But a resolution merely to do better is quite useless. The only resolutions that produce results are those which outline specific plans of action.

I have formulated a set of resolutions which will not only help students carry them out but will make school more pleasant and interesting and bring better grades at the same time. I call it:

STUDENT'S CREED

I WILL take charge of my education, formulate a plan of attack for each course and keep revising my plans as I discover improved techniques.

I WILL try to go beyond the assignments in each course, realizing that 15 or 20 minutes of thinking about what I have learned and what is coming up next is valuable.

I WILL learn to read effectively for each course. First, I will glance through and try to anticipate what I am going to find out. Second, I will read rapidly to find out. Finally, I will recite back what was said at the end of each section.

I WILL control my attention and strive to do a careful, accurate job on examinations.

I WILL improve my listening skills. I will read or outline ahead and think about what is being said in class and fit it in with what I already know.

I WILL review each course from the beginning every few days and keep the overall pattern clear in my mind.

I WILL begin preparing for examinations with the first meeting of the class, making final preparations a polishing-up rather than a cram session.

I WILL strive to improve my handwriting through practice because I need ease in handwriting to transfer my thoughts to paper.

I WILL keep a record of assignments and keep my homework up to date.

I WILL analyze my examination papers in case I do not make an A, searching for the cause of the low grade.

I WILL set a high standard of homework and, since first impressions are important, I will turn in my first assignments on time and in good order.

I WILL dress and act like the kind of student I wish to become, even if I have to think carefully each day until proper dress and action become habits.

Monarch of Morocco Father of Baby Girl

RABAT, Morocco (AP) — The royal palace announced that a baby girl was born Sunday night to King Hassan II of Morocco and his wife.

The announcement said the baby was born in Rome, Italy, where the royal couple is vacationing, and that mother and daughter are doing well. In Morocco, thousands of people thronged the streets in celebration.

Admits Kidnaping, Raping 9-Year-Old

DECATUR, Ga. (UPI) — A 9-year-old girl was abducted from her sleeping mother's bedroom, raped twice and came home weeping "Mommy, I've been stolen," police said today.

Detective Capt. L. B. Mothershed said a 15-year-old youth, arrested after some fast police work, confessed assaulting the child and said he was responsible for nine other molesting cases that had baffled officers in this quiet residential town six miles from Atlanta.

No names were released.

The first South American country to build a railroad was Chile, which opened a line for service in 1852.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY

Hand 18 in the World Championship matches say the Americans get back five International Match Points (IMPs). Both East-West pairs made two no-trump, but the Italians bid up to three.

JACOBY

West has a good sound two no-trump opening in any country in the world, but apparently the bid is played as a force in Italy and East responded with one jack.

North selected the jack of hearts as his opening lead. Had South been looking at all the cards, he could have gone right up with the ace and shifted to a spade whereupon West would have had to go down two tricks. But South made his best at the table play by putting down the eight spot.

West took his king and started after the diamonds. North signaled with the eight of spades on the second diamond. South took his king, cashed the queen of hearts and led a spade.

This line of play insured five tricks for the defense. If you are wondering why they didn't cash the last hearts before going after a black suit the answer is that they knew just what they were doing. Had South taken even one more heart before leading the spade, West would have been able to make his contract by a combination squeeze and end play against North.

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Tuesday

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): You could be in position to make basic changes. But best to check with marital or business partner. You can achieve almost anything today if you remember lessons of diplomacy.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): You may find yourself listening to promises which sound marvelous. But caution is urged, or you may be swallowing "pipe dreams." Member of opposite sex may try to rush you. Be gracious, but watch your budget.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): Favorable lunar aspect today means you can get around "mend fences" and create atmosphere of good will. Be extra willing to admit mistakes if you make them. New contacts prove valuable.

CANCER (June 22 to July 21): Might be best to revive attitude, position in connection with bank account, savings, expenditures. By so doing, you open new avenues of expression and eventually add to income.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 21): Strive for proper rest, relaxation. Important that you "store vitality." Going full steam without pause causes difficulty. Your personality shines. You are apt to "sell" yourself. Go to it!

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): Important that you strive for clarity in speech, writing, gestures. Misunderstandings could arise since contacts made today are sudden rather than planned. Be sincere, truthful. Win your way through Virgo charm.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Many genuine solved problems overcome if you exude optimism. Otherwise, you fail to take advantage of opportunities. Day to go after what you want; strive for IMPROVEMENTS. This applies to personal as well as professional life.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): If you are willing to settle for less than the best, you have no one to blame but yourself. All aspects seem to favor a FAVORABLE SETTLEMENT. This includes ambitions, fulfillment of hopes, aspirations.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Favorable lunar aspect today indicates your opinions must be "visionary." Refuse to be discouraged by temporary setbacks. The more you cry to achieve, the more you will accomplish.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Stress on synergy, contacts, impressions made on fellow workers. Be kind to chick duties. To what must be done. Maintain sensible attitude. Short-cut methods might prove costly. Be thorough.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Temptation to put off duties, promises must be overcome. Maintain quiet, inner confidence. Don't press. Avoid one who attempts to convince you that fine motives are foolish.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Day when feelings, emotions must find outlet. Relations with members of opposite sex highlighted. So are matters of finance. Feel free to be yourself, and allow Pisces graciousness to shine.

IF TUESDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY: Year when marriage, financial responsibility stressed. Year to "grow" rather than retreat. Sept. 23rd to Oct. 22nd highlighted as most significant month.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Distances become shorter. Mars is hurled about the Solar System. News concerning planets further broadened.

Feels Approach of Labor Day

Stock Market Moves Unevenly

b1 yyr Noon Lead Wall Street ra

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market moved unevenly in sluggish trading early this afternoon.

Gains and losses of most key stocks were fractional. A few selected issues showed movements of a point or more.

* * *

The approach of the Labor Day weekend, a traditional milepost for business and the market, was in mind. Some brokers saw the lackluster market as hesitancy based on caution regarding how things will go in the Fall.

Although steel mill orders were reported up again from the prior week, steel stocks were about unchanged to a shade lower after starting on a steady note. Motors were narrowly mixed along with most other important groups.

An assortment of stocks in various sections of the list responded to special news or recommendations.

Dow Chemical rose a point after being picked as "stock of the month" by an advisory service.

Howard Johnson, the restaurant and motor hotel chain, was admitted to trading on the New York Stock Exchange and opened at 44¾, up a point from Friday's bid-price in the over-the-counter market. The price moved up a substantial fraction in later dealings.

Public Service Electric & Gas climbed about a point. It was recommended by an advisory service.

Chrysler varied between a small gain and a loss, rising a fraction in the afternoon. General Motors also added a fraction while Ford was down slightly. Studebaker eased and American Motors was about unchanged.

IBM added about a point and Polaroid was ahead around 4.

* * *

Prices were irregularly higher on the American Stock Exchange. Trading was moderate. Kirby Petroleum recovered more than 2. Occidental Petroleum advanced more than a point.

Most Bond Prices Up

Rails and utilities led the corporates upward. They have been higher for two weeks and last week registered their best gain in a year and a half, based on the Associated Press averages. Industrials opened mixed.

There were few changes amounting to as much as one point, even in the usually more volatile convertible section. An exception were B&O Railroad 4¼s, up 1 at 57 at one time.

Uprising Hit by Algerians

Military Leaders Call On Guerrillas to Get Behind Ben Bella

ALGIERS (AP) — Military leaders controlling western Algeria today condemned the attempt by anti-Western guerrilla officers in Algiers to impose their will on their new nation.

The 45,000-man regular army's general staff in Oran accused the rebellious guerrilla leaders of Wilaya (zone) No. 4 in central Algeria of "irresponsible acts obstructing the rebirth of the state and the revival of its economy."

The general staff called on central Algeria's civilian population to form "vigilance committees" against the Wilaya 4 commanders. It appealed to the Wilaya's junior officers and troops to rally to the support of Deputy Premier Ahmed Ben Bella's Political Bureau, which it called "the nation's only legitimate authority."

FLEW TO ORAN

Ben Bella had flown to Oran over the weekend and the Political Bureau abandoned its work in Algiers as the country's provisional government after the Wilaya 4 command launched an open campaign to whip up public opposition in the capital to the civilian political leaders.

The rebel military leaders were supported by an estimated 20,000 guerrillas.

Strengthened by the army general staff's strong declaration of support, Ben Bella was reported planning to return to Algiers to attempt to persuade the Wilaya commanders to accept his leadership.

The general staff's statement disclosed that the regular army has absorbed guerrilla forces in western Algeria's Wilaya No. 5 and that Wilaya command has been dissolved.

PUT OFF ELECTION

The election of a Constituent Assembly scheduled Sept. 2 was put off indefinitely. No one could forecast when and how Algeria would obtain an elected legislature and an effective elected civilian government.

The statement, read to a crowded news conference, demanded an emergency meeting of the old rvolutionary "parliament," the National Council of the Algerian Revolution, to revise the nation's political leadership.

Grain Futures Off in General Selling

CHICAGO (AP) — Moderate general selling weakened nearly all grain futures contracts today in initial transactions on the board of trade.

Corn and soybeans reacted fairly sharply to reports of rainfall over the weekend throughout the major producing areas.

Soybeans lost more than a cent in spots while declines in corn and wheat ran to major fractions during the first several minutes.

SUDDENLY IT'S WINTER—These youngsters undoubtedly hold the distinction of having the season's first snowball fight. It occurred Saturday in front of The Shoe Box in the Tel-Huron Shopping Center where 2½ tons of snow was trucked in to promote snow boots for the winter season. Looking somewhat embarrassed as a snowball bounces off his head is Roy Annett, 5, of 2799 Sylvan Shore, Sylvan Lake. Ronald Bryant, 10, of 155 N. Genesee smiles triumphantly at the direct hit. Four other Shoe Box stores in the metropolitan area had similar snow promotions Saturday.

Their Use Has Expanded

Surveys Are a Business

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — Surveys are fast becoming an accepted part of everyone's life. The making of them is a business in itself. They tell where we were, where we are, where we think we're going.

Some businessmen complain they spend so much time filling out questionnaires about what they are doing or intend to do that they don't have time to do it.

But for good or ill, some surveys now affect thinking and planning—and acting. Others (so wide is the field of late) are laughed off as trivial or self-serving.

U.S. DOES IT

The taking of surveys is a widespread occupation, in both high and low places. The government, for example does it.

Federal departments ask businessmen how much they plan to spend for plant and equipment. They ask consumers how much they think they're going to spend, for what things, and how they feel about the chances of meeting the bills thus incurred.

* * *

Private organizationns — educational, industrial, researching, publishing—plow this same field. The effect of these surveys on business thinking and planning is considerable. The surveys thus become both a tool for the economists and a boost or deterrent to the economy.

STILL A QUESTION

How much consumers trim their own actions to their reading of survey findings is still a question. But it's apparent that many stock traders watch them closely for tips on the business cycle.

Many industrial groups survey the findings and plans of their members. Some aim at gaining information, some at influencing thinking or action.

* * *

Individual companies come up with surveys of their own, and their findings often predictably favorable to the future of their products or services.

A common byproduct of a survey is a trend. The company or group or publicity agent making the survey finds that its enquiries all point in one direction—usually a trend spelling profit for the one who made, or paid for, the survey.

MANY REFINEMENTS

The hope is that once a trend is sighted and trumpeted, enough others will want to conform to it to make that trend really profitable.

Originally surveys were mostly designed to gather facts or figures or percentages. There are many refinements of this general idea.

* * *

One is called motivational. That is, consumers (or businessmen) are questioned closely to see why they do this or that, buy this product instead of another. Going a step further, the designers of such probings say they can detect subconscious reasons that affect sales, product popularity, or a corporation's image.

SEX INCLUDED

Subdivisions of such inquiries are almost infinite. Color experts use them to determine package and product designs. The variations of scent become subjects for consultations in directors' boardrooms. Consumers' ideas about taste, or lack of it, are eagerly sought by makers of beverages.

* * *

Sex is very much part of the surveying gambit. A recent example: a survey has been made of what young couples think of bucket seats in cars as opposed to the old style seats built for togetherness.

The finding: The honeymoon is over when the couple says it sees nothing wrong with bucket seats.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "I am 13 years old and recently celebrated my Bar Mitzvah. I received $1,000 as gifts, and for my college education I would like to buy growth stocks that I might sell at a profit in 5½ years. Can you help me?" M. P.

A) I congratulate you most sincerely, and I'm only too pleased to try to help you. You're an intelligent boy, and you probably realize that stocks fluctuate rather widely. For that reason, there is some risk in trying to make a profit within a specified time limit.

However, in your case the time period is broad, and if you buy stocks with strong growth patterns, you should be able to get out profitably before your college years start. I'm going to suggest two stocks to divide your risk—Northern Illinois Gas, a public utility which has been moving ahead rapidly, and Continental Assurance, a life insurance issue which could do very well for you over a five-year period. And the best of luck.

Q) "I've noted that Bethlehem Steel is now selling to yield 6 per cent. Other good companies, like Gillette, yield a great deal less. Is there something behind the scenes in the steel stocks that we don't know?" J. B.

A) Behind the scenes in the steel stocks is a situation of lagging demand for the product and a cost-price squeeze which is going to be hard to overcome. Bethlehem is a good company. However, steel earnings since 1957 have been trending lower and the firm did not cover its dividend in the second quarter of 1962.

The reason for the present high yield is that the market does not believe the present rate will be maintained. (Republic Steel recently cut its rate by 1-3). In Bethlehem's case, the cut in dividend seems well discounted, and the shares are probably near their lows. I consider them unattractive, however, under present industry conditions.

Marathon Oil Raises Prices to Its Dealers

FINDLAY, Ohio —Marathon Co. has announced a new tank wagon price for gasoline to its dealers in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Genesee, and a portion of St. Clair counties of 14.5 cents per gallon, effective today.

The company's suggested retail price will be 30.9 cents per gallon for its regular grade gasoline, which includes state and federal gasoline taxes of ten cents a gallon and a 4 per cent Michigan sales tax.

Marathon also announced a similar increase in the wholesale price of gasoline at the company's Detroit Refinery.

G. H. Young, Marathon's Vice President of Marketing, announced the price increases, stating that Marathon management finds the fluctuating gasoline prices in the Detroit metropolitan area over the past several years to be deplorable.

"We have made this price move because of frequent, substantial and serious gasoline price disturbances occurring over the past several years in the Detroit metropolitan area," Young said.

Soviets Are Testing West in Berlin Offensive

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

The 1962 Soviet offensive against West Berlin has the look of a careful probe inspired by what the Kremlin reads as signs of weakness.

★ ★ ★

It is cautious, however. The world Communist leadership appears to believe a sudden nuclear war is entirely possible through accident or miscalculation.

The Russians have abolished their military command in Berlin and permitted their East German puppets to appoint a commander of their own. The U.S. State Department says it sees in this an attempt to disassociate the Russians from events revolving about the wall cutting Berlin in half.

That may be so, but it is difficult to believe it's the whole story. The new offensive was months in preparation. This time there are indications that Khrushchev hopes to achieve significant gains.

★ ★ ★

Undoubtedly Moscow noted the behind-scenes debates between Washington and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's West German government. There were signs of West German nervousness about current U.S. strategic defense planning. There have been hints of annoyance in Washington at West German criticisms of U.S. policy in dealing with the Communist threat. There is European uneasiness over the developing French - West German alliance which might dominate the Common Market.

ALWAYS BACKED OFF

The Soviet aim in reheating the crisis could be to aggravate whatever tensions exist among the Western partners, to widen rifts, to come out of a patently dangerous Berlin situation with concessions.

The world has lived with the Berlin crisis 17 years. In a half dozen separate offenses, the Russians brought it to a perilous boil. Each time the Russians backed off when the going became too hot.

The first such offensive was Stalin's attempt to take over West Berlin with a blockade. He backed off in May, 1949, defeated by a massive airlift.

The next try came in 1955, after the U.S.S.R. got over the shock of Stalin's death. Responding to a Western decision to bring West Germany into NATO, the Kremlin formed the Warsaw Pact and made new threats against Berlin. It backed away amid growing unrest in its own satellite empire.

TRIED AGAIN

In 1958 the Russians did it again. Khrushchev issued an ultimatum: The West would sign peace treaties with both Germanys in six months or risk the consequences. He withdrew the ultimatum later and eased matters with his visit to the United States in 1959.

The threats were renewed in 1960 in advance of the Paris summit meeting, which blew up before it could get started. Only a few days later Khrushchev, in East Berlin, was backing away, telling the Communists they'd have to be patient.

The 1961 crisis temperature rose with the construction of the Communist wall and a U.S.-Soviet tank confrontation. Once again, when things looked dangerous, the Russians backed off.

TACTICS RENEWED

Now the pressure is rising again.

This insistent hammering may be a Khrushchev gamble that the West will crack under heavy psychological pressures involving fears of nuclear war.

★ ★ ★

But the Russians themselves are not immune to such fears. Soviet propaganda tells them of a clear danger that Berlin will detonate fearfully destructive forces. It says the only way to ease this threat is for the United States to bow to Khrushchev's plans for "normalizing" Berlin. It says the United States resists only because it wants Berlin as a NATO base, a constant threat to Soviet security.

TESTING U.S.

The Kremlin now may be trying to find out how far the West can be pushed, to learn whether the United States — possibly under pressure from non-Communist nations—would deal with the East Germans and thus push the Red regime a step closer to respectability.

★ ★ ★

The Russians repeat over and over that when they sign a peace treaty with East Germany, the United States, Britain and France will have no choice but to deal with the Communist East Germans. It repeats also that West German policy under Adenauer makes a settlement difficult but that "The Adenauer era is coming to an end."

RED LINE

The propaganda then swings to the experience in Laos, where a neutrality settlement averted extreme peril, and says in effect: Why not negotiations on the Berlin-German problem? What would be wrong with a neutralized Berlin and, indeed, a neutralized Germany? The Kremlin may speculate there are many in the West—including West Germans—who would accept such a solution to ease fears.

★ ★ ★

Failing to wring concessions from Washington, Khrushchev eventually may want to create a situation in which the United States will appear in the light of an aggressor. This would raise an enormous crisis and present the opportunity of offering a peaceful solution—along Moscow lines, of course.

Thant Meeting Red Officials

To Talk With Nikita, Others About Assembly in New York

MOSCOW (UPI) — Acting U.N. Secretary General Thant met top Soviet officials today in preparation for a meeting with Premier Nikita Khrushchev that may hold the key to his future.

The talks with Khrushchev, expected tomorrow, also may clear up the question of whether the Soviet leader will attend the U.N. General Assembly session in New York, observers said.

Thant called on Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev and Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko early today. His schedule also included lunch with Gromyko.

Later, he was to be honored at a reception at the Burmese embassy.

Thant was tentatively scheduled to fly to the Black Sea tomorrow for his talks with Khrushchev, who is vacationing there.

Thant said on arriving in Moscow over the weekend he is confident the talks "will be fruitful and contribute materially to my understanding of Soviet attitudes."

Observers said Thant, whose term as acting secretary general ends in April, has a good chance of continuing in office if he wins Soviet approval.

It was believed in some quarters that Khrushchev's approval would assure him a full five-year term as secretary general.

Thant was believed to favor Khrushchev's attendance at the U.N. session. Khrushchev has indicated he wants to attend.

Some observers believed President Kennedy's statement that he would see Khrushchev if he did make the trip to New York has strengthened the possibility that the Soviet leader will attend.

Rousing Welcome a Surprise

Johnson Visits Turkey, Talks U.S. Aid

ANKARA, Turkey (UPI) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson arranged some serious talks with Turkish leaders today on future American economic and military aid to this key Western ally.

Hundreds of thousands of cheering Turks greeted the vice president on his arrival here from Iran yesterday and so slowed his motorcade that the 20-mile drive from the airport took 3½ hours instead of the planned one hour.

Lynda showed she was a chip off the old block. As her father stopped the car from time to time along the route Lynda stepped out and delivered short friendship talks to cheering Turks.

She brought down the house when she waved a tiny Turkish flag and shouted through an interpreter how glad she was to be in Turkey.

A BIRTHDAY CAKE

Today was the vice president's 54th birthday and the Turkish government's press ministry marked the occasion with a cake.

Johnson, on a two-week tour of Mideast and Mediterranean nations, arranged separate meetings with President Cemal Gursel and Prime Minister Ismet Inonu.

The major subject on the agenda was believed to be U.S. aid to help this nation bolster its economy and maintain a strong military position in the NATO and CENTO alliances.

Johnson pledged on his arrival that the United States will fulfill all military commitments to Turkey despite Washington's reassessment of military aid project.

★ ★ ★

"We would consider that an attack on Turkey would be an attack on the United States," the vice president said.

★ ★ ★

The state department's advance briefing material cautioned that the Turkish people were an undemonstrative lot who might turn out in large numbers but show little emotional response. The last part of this proved dead wrong.

To the amazement of spectators and the dismay of his security guards, Johnson stopped his automobile at Ulus Square in the center of the city which was packed with 50,000 to 60,000 people.

With the help of police the vice president wedged his way to the top of about 20 steps outside a bank building and shouted a speech against a background of roars from the spectators.

Cheers punctuated every remark and Prime Minister Inonu said later that "it was a great day for me and for Ankara."

'Putting on the Dog' Popular in Jet Set

By EARL WILSON

MEMPHIS — Lying about how smart your dog is has become one of the sports of the Jet Set—which gives you an idea of how busy the Jet Set is.

WILSON

"Dog Liars" do not mean to lie—but they just can't let somebody else's mutt sound smarter then their mutt.

Please understand that the beautiful singer, Marguerite Piazza is not a dog liar.

She has a miniature pocket-sized French poodle named "Dewey, Dewey," or it could be "Doo-ey, Doo-ey," whose activities she reports in a factual manner, that's all.

"There's a night watchman who comes around," said Marguerite — who lives here with her husband, Bill Condon, the snuff king, and her brood of six—"and one night he found the door open and came in.

"Little 'Dewey, Dewey' followed him around growling and making a racket and refusing to let the watchman out. The watchman was embarrassed.

"We finally had to tell 'Dewey, Dewey' that it was all right now—the watchman was only doing his duty and had a wife and children to support. 'Dewey, Dewey' understood it perfectly when we explained it in those terms, and allowed him to go."

"Another time," says Marguerite, "I was flying from Houston to Memphis and had 'Dewey, Dewey' in my pocket.

★ ★ ★

"I was also carrying my dog case. An attendant came up and said, 'Madam, there's no tag on this,' and started looking for a dog.

★ ★ ★

"He knew I had a dog somewhere—somebody'd called him—and he looked in and around the case about five times but he couldn't find it and he was so mad.

"We made one stop and, poor little 'Dewey, Dewey' had to sneeze. Every time he sneezed I sneezed. Only a very intelligent dog like 'Dewey, Dewey' would know enough to sneeze exactly like a human being so he wouldn't be detected by the nosy old airline steward."

Those are just the facts, ma'am . . .

Road Department Sells Seven Parcels of Land

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Seven parcels of State Highway Department surplus property in Muskegon, Kent and Ottawa counties have been sold at public auction for a total of $7,700, the highway department said.

All the remnant parcels went for the minimum price set by the department, except one residential lot which was sold for $2,800.

De Gaulle Ends Vacation Under Cloak of Secrecy

It was the first time De Gaulle was in Paris since killer commandos of the terrorist Secret Army Organization (OAS) tried to machine gun him to death Wednesday evening.

With security precautions tightened since the assassination attempt, officials did not disclose how he returned.

But strong police forces lined the highway leading from the direction of Villacoublay military airfield.

This indicated that he flew to Paris from St. Dizier near his country home at Colombey-les-Deux-Eglises in eastern France, where he has been vacationing.

Edie Adams Is Busy, Credits TV Special

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

A few months ago, when Edie Adams was suddenly a widow after Ernie Kovacs' death in an automobile crash, she faced the future with some degree of uncertainty. Currently she has so many things on the fire that she keeps a large black notebook containing all the activity which is filling her life.

At the moment she is winding up the movie, "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World," in which she plays a full-sized role.

★ ★ ★

"Before that I'd done what were really bit parts," she said, as she submitted to a bit of fussing over her blonde wig by the studio hair stylist. "But although this part is bigger, they still have me playing a dizzy blonde—I'm always Daisy Mae."

TYPE CASTING

Producers may have Edie eternally typed by the part she played several seasons back in the musical comedy "L'il Abner," but she is a level-headed, well-organized young woman.

"Things are working out pretty well," she admitted. "I've just finished a new record album. When this movie is finished, I start on the first of my eight ABC specials. If I find the time, I will play Las Vegas for two weeks in October, and if I can't, I'll do four weeks in January. And I've got commitments for supper clubs in New York and San Francisco—when you pull together an act, you want to play it in various places to make money with it.

SPECIALS PLANNED

"I have commitments to make commercials—five a year for my sponsor. And we've got some plans for a couple of television specials — book-shows, including 'Oh, Captain!'"

★ ★ ★

Edie is, in fact, so busy that she couldn't even consider playing Belle Poitrine in the forthcoming Broadway musical adaptation of "Little Me," the show in which Sid Caesar will star this winter.

All of which is pretty good for a young woman whose financial plight was the serious concern of friends only a short time back.

"The thing that started it all was the 'Here's Edie' television special," she said. "It all followed the great reviews the show got. It's been great."

Ten Bandits Killed by Colombian Army

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—The army said Sunday 10 bandits were killed and three wounded in a clash at Geneva, about 70 miles north of Cali.

Col. Bernardo Leguizamo, commander of the army battalion in the area, said 31 of the bandits were captured. He said one soldier was wounded.

An outbreak of terrorist activity that has taken more than 800 lives prompted the government to step up an army campaign against the bandits.

Scientist Breathes Life Into a Test Tube

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP) — A Utah scientist has succeeded in making infectious viruses out of inert chemicals for the first time, it was reported here today.

Does this mean that life has been formed in a test tube?

"If viruses are considered to be living objects, then the answer is yes," said Dr. George W. Cochran, who described his experiments at a scientific meeting here.

However, he said the most significant result was that by producing viruses apart from a living cell, the virus-formation process could be studied more closely in seeking counter-weapons.

"It permits for the first time an understanding of the biochemistry of the virus-forming process itself," he said in an interview. "We can now examine it in great detail, and very accurately, and should be able to select chemicals to interrupt it."

TINY AGENTS

Viruses are tiny agents which cause disease in men, plants and animals. In men, they cause colds, polio, measles, chickenpox, yellow fever, sleeping sickness and various other diseases.

There have been indications they may cause some forms of cancer. They cause world economic losses estimated at a billion dollars annually.

★ ★ ★

They are smaller than bacteria, so small they can be seen only with an electron microscope magnifying 10,000 to 200,000 times. They exist on an obscure borderline between living and nonliving matter, possibly a link between them.

It was noted, in Dr. Cochran's experiments, that the building of the virus structure was not entirely man-directed.

NO LIVING PROPERTY

The code that guided the complex combination of chemicals to form the viruses was derived from a molecule with no living properties, taken from an infected plant. It was the command mechanism or pattern that organized the raw chemicals introduced by the researchers into the thread-like viruses.

★ ★ ★

"It zippered them together like the zipper on a valise," he said.

Dr. Cochran, a plant patholigist at Utah State University, heads a research team there, supported partially by grants from the National Institutes of Health and the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission.

"Viruses have never been produced before outside of a living cell," he said, noting that viruses often have been reproduced in test tubes by adding them to living cells, as in nature.

However, he said, the virus-forming operation was impossible to study clearly under such conditions, since it was mixed up with thousands of other biochemical reactions going on in the cell.

'MORE SIMPLE'

Separating the virus-production process "from the great biochemical complexity of living cells," he said, "places it in a more simple environment" for investigating it and finding means to control it.

"Our work should open entirely new vistas in virology and medicine bringing us ever closer to an understanding of the nature of life itself," he said.

★ ★ ★

His technical report was for a meeting of the American Phytopathological Society at Oregon State University as part of sessions of the American Institute of Biological Sciences.

★ ★ ★

In producing viruses outside live cells, Cochran's team used four chemicals—triphosphates of adenosine, guanosine, cytidine and uridine—elements generally assumed before to make up viruses.

LINK WAS HURDLE

Finding the key to put them together in the exact way to form viruses was the hurdle. Essentially the virus is a complex chain of chemicals linked so as to form a particular nucleic acid that makes up the virus, Cochran said.

As the genetic guide for arranging or synthesizing the chemicals, Cochran's team took some juice from a tobacco plant infected with tobacco mosaic virus, and filtered it through an agar jell filter to remove life cells and interfering elements.

"Synthesizing molecules," containing the secret formula for assembling the chemicals into viruses were thus extracted. He said the molecule guides could be used over and over again to make more viruses.

With one molecule mechanism, about 100 billion new virus units could be turned out in less than 30 minutes, he said. In some cases the chemicals were made radioactive so the resulting radioactive viruses could be observed more easily.

Space Rendezvous Plotted

Error Sends Mariner 2 Off Course in Venus Shot

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — An off-course Mariner 2 spacecraft rocketed into space today on an intended 109-day trip to explore the planet Venus.

Despite a severe trajectory error, scientists were hopeful they could correct most of it by remote control signals to an on-board motor.

Improper rocket performance released the 447-pound spacecraft on a course that, if followed, would cause it to miss Venus by not more than 600,000 miles when the two make their closest approach Dec. 14.

This is far from the 10,000-mile-distant fly-by that the National aeronautics and Space Administration planned.

Just how much the spacecraft can be commanded back to a Venus rendezvous course will not be known until more precise tracking information is available. This may be several days.

Jack James, Mariner manager for NASA's jet propulsion laboratory, said the on-board motor has the capability of making a 500-000-mile correction depending on position of the spacecraft.

This would mean Mariner 2 could be jockeyed onto a path to pass within 100,000-miles of Venus — too great a range for its senstivie instruments to do much probing beneath Venus' heavy blanket of clouds.

But there was a chance refined tracking data might show the present course to be less than 600,000 miles off and that the probe therefore could pass closer to the mysterious bright planet.

James said to be any value in exploring Venus, Mariner 2 would have to approach within 25,000 miles of the sunlit side.

He said important data would be gained about the interplanetary space between earth and Venus even if the craft missed by a greater distance, but the main goal of the experiment would be lost.

The key to straightening Mariner's trajectory is a 37.3-pound motor which will be fired by ground radio signal eight days after launching when tracking computers have precisely defined the spacecraft's position, attitude and velocity.

Then the vehicle will be more than one million miles away from earth on its intended 180 million mile junket past Venus and into endless orbit about the sun.

The 50-pound-thrust motor can burn in bursts from 1-50th of a second to 43 seconds and can accelerate the speed by as little as 7-10ths of a foot per second to as much as 187 feet per second.

The motor can be fired only once so computers must figure the amount of kick needed.

Before the motor is turned on, ground signals will align the roll and pitch axis of the spacecraft so it will be pointed in the right direction.

Michigan to See Hot Campaign by Top Rivals

LANSING (AP)—Michigan's hottest election in recent years appeared in the making today as Democratic Gov. John Swainson and his Republican rival George Romney mapped strategy for the forthcoming campaign with newly chosen running mates.

Both major political parties filled out their tickets in state conventions Saturday, choosing nominees for four positions on the State Administrative Board — the governor's so-called "cabinet."

Convention delegates also nominated two candidates apiece for "nonpartisan" seats on the State Supreme Court.

AID TO ROMNEY

Simultaneously in Detroit, the GOP selected candidates they hope will help Romney break the grip Democrats have had on the governor's chair since 1948.

Michigan has not had a Republican governor since G. Mennen Williams, now assistant secretary of state for African affairs, won the first of six consecutive elections 14 years ago.

To the din of the vigorous applause and standing ovations, both Swainson and Romney delivered blistering speeches to their conventions.

The ultra-conservative and controversial John Birch Society came in for attention at both conventions, with Democratic speakers calling on the GOP to repudiate

Air Violations Charged

From Our News Wires

NEW YORK — Cuba's big buildup of Soviet bloc military technicians and equipment is being accompanied by daily charges that planes from the United States naval base at Guantanamo are "violating" Cuban air space and territorial waters.

What the relationship between these twin developments may be—if any—remains uncertain.

But American officials are known to be concerned, particularly since the Soviet-supplied equipment may include surface-to-air missiles.

Installation of such equipment around Guantanamo, for example, could dangerously increase Cuban-American tensions over the huge naval installation which Premier Fidel Castro hopes some day to control, political sources said.

For the past two months Cuba's armed forces ministry has been issuing daily comminiques in which American planes, ships and submarines are accused of "violating" Cuban territory. Most of the alleged violations occur around Guantanamo.

PRESS PROBE

The State Department already has pinned on a Miami-based exiled Cuban students group, the responsibility for Friday night's attack, but has not said whether the raiders sailed from this country.

The neutrality law prohibits launching from U.S. soil armed attacks on countries not at war with the United States. The Justice Department is trying to find out if

U. S. Urges Reds to End Cruelty on Berlin Border

MOSCOW (UPI)—The United States called on the Soviet Union today to halt the "senseless cruelty" of Communist police in East Berlin and join the Western allies in seeking a way to reduce tensions in the divided city.

The appeal was made in a note delivered to the Soviet Foreign Ministry answering Soviet charges that recent incidents in West Berlin took place "with the obvious connivance of U.S. occupation authorities."

"It should not be necessary to remind the Soviet government that the present tensions in Berlin have been caused by the illegal erection of the wall and the senseless cruelty of the police of the Soviet sector," the U.S. note said.

Recent incidents involving the stoning of vehicles carrying Soviet personnel through the U.S. sector of West Berlin, it continued, were caused by "the criminal shooting of a defenseless and innocent boy on August 17th."

It was a reference to the shooting by East German guards of 18-year-old Peter Fechter as he tried to scale the Berlin wall.

Fair, Warmer Is Expected for Most of Week

Rainfall, totaling some 1.4 inches Saturday and Sunday, is predicted to be .25 of an inch or less in a few scattered showers toward the end of this week.

Northwest to west winds at 5 to 12 m.p.h. today will become southwesterly tonight.

The lowest temperature recorded preceding 8 o'clock today was 60 degrees at 6:15 a.m. At 1 p.m. the thermometer reading was a pleasant 74.

Up Reward in Holdup to $50,000

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postmaster General J. Edward Day raised to $50,000 today the reward offered for solution of the $1.5-million Cape Cod mail robbery.

Day told a House Government Activities subcommittee investigating the case that he is ordering the entire amount appropriated by Congress to his department for reward offers to be posted on this case. The amount is $50,000.

As for how the bold, record-breaking robbery was possible, Day said there was a combination of unfortunate circumstances, including what he called a misinterpreted relationship with the Massachusetts State Police.

★ ★ ★

Day said the postal employes had conducted four previous successful runs carrying currencies from banks over the same route.

He said they were under the impression from instructions given to them that state police cruisers would be observing their progress.

But he said that checks made after the robbery showed that none of the employes had at any time observed a cruiser anywhere along their route.

Partial Check Treaty Given Cold Shoulder

U.S. and British Listed Only One Inspection—for Underground Shots

GENEVA (AP)—Britain and the United States today proposed a treaty for an unpoliced ban on nuclear tests in the atmosphere, under water and in outer space—and the Soviet Union immediately turned a cold shoulder on the idea.

The Western powers proposed to continue working for a treaty to ban tests in all environments — but with provisions for international on-site inspection of suspicious tremors which might indicate underground tests.

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. disarmament agency officials expressed belief today that Communist China probably will set off a nuclear explosion within a matter of months. (Story on (Page 29.)

Vasily V. Kuznetsov turned thumbs down.

Kuznetsov was quoted by Western conference sources as saying the Western proposal for a partial ban was "a stimulus to nuclear war."

REDS SAY NO

Conference sources said Kuznetsov rejected out of hand the second proposal, calling for a ban on all tests in all environments for all time, but with provisions for compulsory international inspection on the site of a suspicious tremor which could be an earth quake or a clandestine underground explosion.

He said the United States and

Swedes Report Soviet N-Blast

Seventh in Current Red Series Estimated at 14 Megatons

From Our News Wires

UPPSALA, Sweden — Swedish scientists today detected a powerful Soviet nuclear blast estimated to have had an explosive force of from 14 to 15 million tons of TNT.

★ ★ ★

The Russians set off their fifth and sixth blasts Saturday in the 9 to 11 megaton (millions of tons of TNT) range.

Dr. Marcus Baath, chief of the Uppsala Seismological Institute, said at first that today's explosion was about the same force.

But a recheck of instruments at both Uppsala and at the Stockholm Institute of Technology showed it to be in the 14 to 15 megaton range, a spokesman said.

KEY TO FUTURE? — With Pontiac's vast urban renewal program putting local and federal government funds to work redeveloping the south side of the central business district, the northern section, according to city planners, may hold the key to total success of downtown redevelopment. Planners and urban renewal officials have pointed out that it is in the area shown here that private capital must be invested to transform the entire central business district into a giant hub of all commercial activity. This photo, taken for The Press by pilot-photographer Homer Tinney, looks northwest over the Saginaw-Huron street intersection. In the left foreground, the old county courthouse is rapidly disappearing behind the top of the Pontiac State Bank Building. The Oakland County Jail is also shown (far left). The county office building, eventually to be vacated in favor of the new administrative wing at the county service center, is the large building at the top. In the recently completed central business district plan, architects suggest Saginaw be turned into a mall-type development from Waite's Department Store (center) northerly to its intersection with Oakland Avenue (upper right). The tower in the center of the photo is Federal Department Store.

Windmill Whirls in Back Yard

Troy Man Builds His Own Dutch Treat

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

From the time Alex Faber, 64, landed in America from Holland 42 years ago, he has had a hankering to have his own Dutch windmill. This wish has finally become a reality.

As a boy he would sit on his front porch and watch a big windmill across the street as it swooshed majestically around in a soft breeze or whirled with fury in a high windstorm.

With only a nickel postcard and his imagination to guide him, Faber began his project in October. First the base was constructed, the intricate balcony around the middle came next, then the time-consuming job of putting toether the four wings and attaching them to the head.

Many cans of weather-resisting glue, and about 400 tiny screws wnet into Faber's creation. Whenever he'd have a moment to spare during the winter Faber would work on the parts.

★ ★ ★

Forty-eight pieces of wood had to be glued together to make the "cap" on the 12-foot windmill, which has a steel base for easy moving in a breeze.

Set on top, it resembles a giant wasp's nest cut in half.

Back in Holland, Faber explained, there were big windmills to grind corn, grist, wheat and oats and little ones to pump water from small canals into the larger ones.

Willard R. Murphy of 20417 Huntington St., died of internal injuries, according to the coroner's report.

Paul R. Bumgardner, 19, of 435 Decker Road, Walled Lake, told sheriff's deputies he lost control of the truck on a curve when he applied the brake.

Deputies said the southbound truck was traveling about 35 miles an hour on the rain-slicked blacktop. The vehicle slid into the northbound lane where it collided with the victim's oncoming car.

Bumgardner was to make a formal statement at the prosecutor's office today.

The Day in Birmingham

Propose Zoning to Allow Nursing Homes in City

BIRMINGHAM — A proposal to revise the zoning ordinance to allow nursing and convalescent homes in the city will be presented to the City Commission tonight.

★ ★ ★

City Planner William R. Brownfield, in a letter to the commission recommending the change, suggests that the matter be referred to the planning board for further study.

Brownfield said he recently has received several requests for information regarding the appropriate location of nursing homes.

The zoning ordinance, however, does not specify in what district this type of facility or any similar facility can locate, the city planner explained.

He said that it was the opinion of City Attorney Dean Beier that the ordinance be amended to allow nursing homes to be placed in an appropriate zone classification and with the necessary controls to regulate these uses.

★ ★ ★

It would be up to the planning board to determine the location for these facilities.

A public hearing on special assessments for the city's 1962 road-oiling program will be held by the City Commission at 8 p.m. today.

The project consists of patching holes and applying two applications of asphaltic oil and stone chips to various city streets. The streets were designated at the July 23 commission meeting.

The commission will review the assessment rolls, giving an opportunity to all persons protesting individual cost.

Uprising Hit by Algerians

Military Leaders Call On Guerrillas to Get Behind Ben Bella

ALGIERS (AP)—Military leaders controlling western Algeria today condemned the attempt by anti-Western guerrilla officers in Algiers to impose their will on their new nation.

The 45,000-man regular army's general staff in Oran accused the rebellious guerrilla leaders of Wilaya (zone) No. 4 in central Algeria of "irresponsible acts obstructing the rebirth of the state and the revival of its economy."

The general staff called on central Algeria's civilian population to form "vigilance committees" against the Wilaya 4 commanders. It appealed to the Wilaya's junior officers and troops to rally to the support of Deputy Premier Ahmed Ben Bella's Political Bureau, which it called "the nation's only legitimate authority."

FLEW TO ORAN

Ben Bella had flown to Oran over the weekend and the Political Bureau abandoned its work in Algiers as the country's provisional government after the Wilaya 4 command launched an open campaign to whip up public opposition in the capital to the civilian political leaders.

The rebel military leaders were supported by an estimated 20,000 guerrillas.

Strengthened by the army general staff's strong declaration of support, Ben Bella was reported planning to return to Algiers to attempt to persuade the wilaya commanders to accept his leadership.

The general staff's statement disclosed that the regular army has absorbed guerrilla forces in western Algeria's Wilaya No. 5 and that wilaya command has been dissolved.

PUT OFF ELECTION

The election of a Constituent Assembly scheduled Sept. 2 was put off indefinitely. No one could forecast when and how Algeria would obtain an elected legislature and an effective elected civilian government.

The statement, read to a crowded news conference, demanded an emergency meeting of the old rvolutionary "parliament," the National Council of the Algerian Revolution, to revise the nation's political leadership.

Cuba Accuses U.S. of Air Violations

In a Miami news conference Sunday, Juan Manuel Salvat, leader of the students group, declined to say where the ships used in the off-shore shelling of Miramar suburb were based. But, he declared, "I don't feel we have violated any law of any country."

In holding the Students Revolutionaly Directorate responsible for the sortie the State Department warned Saturday that "any repetition of such action by any group could involve the provisions of the Neutrality Act."

A spokesman said the government had no advance knowledge of the attack.

'FEEDS' CASTRO CLAIM

While U.S. officials personally have some sympathy for exiled Cubans, they take the view that such hit-and-run attacks only serve to feed Prime Minister Fidel Castro's claim that he needs Communist arms to build up his defenses.

These officials point out that it is virtually impossible to keep a watch on every nook and cranny of the southeastern coastline of the United States. Airports and smaller landing fields are under constant surveillance, they said.

Salvat said he and 22 other men ranging in age from 19 to 23 used a PT boat and a 31-foot cruiser in the raid.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. Coast Guard, under State Department orders, impounded at Marathon, Fla., two private boats apparently used in the shelling.

In a puzzling aftermath of the raid there was an unexplained interruption Sunday in normal telephone and cable communications between the United States and Cuba.

An American Telephone & Telegraph Co. spokesman said no explanation was offered for the break in communications. "They (the Cubans) just weren't answering," he said.

JFK Will Decorate Ex-Red Prisoner

A second released prisoner, Sgt. Orville R. Ballenger, hospitalized at Ft. Bragg, N. C., was to be decorated at the same time by the commanding officer there.

In both cases the decoration is the Bronze Star.

Swainson, Romney Drive to Run Hot

Republican leaders, while contending that Birchite activities were merely a "flea on the elephant's back, wrote into their platform a plank reaffirming a stand taken by the state central committee last January repudiating any support from the society.

ASSAILED CULTS

Romney bitterly assailed "secret cults" and "purveyors of hate" that attempt to attach themselves like a parasite to one party or the other.

The Republican standard-bearer called for legislation that would permit either party to banish from leadership anyone "whose real allegiance may be to another organization or society."

Although Romney did not name the John Birch group by name, there was no doubt about his target. He had promised earlier to have something to say about Birchites.

Most of the delegates roared their approval.

But there were boos from the 14th Congressional District delegation, whose vice chairman, Richard Durant, has clashed with Romney in recent weeks over the issue of the Birch Society.

Durant, who said he has resigned from the society but hasn't changed his beliefs in its principles, sat in stony silence during Romney's blast.

LESINSKI TALKS

Meanwhile in Grand Rapids, Lt. Gov. T. John Lesinski assailed Romney for saying that there has been a history of Communist infiltration in the Democratic party.

After Lesinski described Romney as a "compact McCarthy," Democratic delegates officially denounced the former American Motors president as a "political slanderer."

Romney made his comment in response to newsmen's questions about extremist groups. He said that the Democrat's extremist group is the Communist party element. Asked if he thought Michigan's Democratic party was infiltrated with Communists, Romney said:

"I don't know."

Except for scattered token opposition, Republican delegates nominated without hesitation a slate of recommended candidates which Romney and a group of GOP leaders had agreed would be the best team the GOP could put together.

SIX QUALIFICATIONS

Romney said potential candidates were screened for six qualifications:

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

In a series of appearances in the Detroit area Sunday, Swainson accused Republican leaders of handpicking their candidates "in true dictator fashion . . . according to the specifications laid down by one man."

"Republican leaders talk of party participation, but they operate a closed corporation," he said. "They denied party delegates a voice in these selections, and then the party leader told Michigan citizens that we must enact a law to throw out of any party any person who does not happen to agree with its leadership.

"The arrogance of the Republican high command at its party convention is typical of the party's disregard over the years of the people's needs and desires."

THE LINE-UP

Here is the lineup of candidates who will oppose each other in the Nov. 6 election:

Secretary of state—James Hare, 52, Democratic incumbent vs. Norman Stockmeyer, 55, former Wayne County GOP chairman.

State treasurer—Sanford Brown, 53, Bay Port, Democratic incumbent vs. Glenn Allen Jr., 48, Kalamazoo ex-mayor, Republican.

★ ★ ★

Supreme Court — Democratic incumbents Paul Adams, Sault St. Marie, and Otis Smith, Flint vs. Republicans Michael O'Hara, Menominee attorney, and Circuit Judge Louis McGregor, Flint.

★ ★ ★

Rounding out the slates of running-mates for Swainson and Romney are the lieutenant governor candidates — incumbent Democrat Lesinski and his GOP challenger, Clarence Reid of Detroit, lieutenant governor in 1953-54.

★ ★ ★

They were nominated in the Aug. 7 primary as were candidates in one other statewide race for congressman-at-large.

The congressional race pits former Republican Rep. Alvin Bentley of Owosso against Democratic National Committeeman Neil Staebler of Ann Arbor.

Car Balky Taking Off at Track

The first question is when is the next train due to arrive.

But such a report shortly after midnight this morning was unusual.

The car in this case had been cruising along on the rails and became stuck when the driver tried to turn off.

Grand Trunk Western Railroad officials were wondering what to do with the three men in the car. The railroad men thought some law must have been broken.

WHAT LAW?

But sheriff's deputies didn't know of any law to cover the circumstances. They let the trio go pending a decision by the prosecutor's office.

The driver of the car, Derek C. Downs, 21, of 190 W. Flint St., Lake Orion, said they had heard a car could be driven on the railroad tracks and were testing the theory.

In the car also were Edward Edwards, 19, of 73 Barrow St., Metamora, and John M. Thurston, 22, of 2090 Windy Hill Lane in the Auburn Heights Trailer Park on Opdyke Road.

Downs said he drove the car onto the tracks at the Diversion Street crossing in Rochester. The vehicle proceeded a few hundred feet as far as the Mill Street crossing where the men decided to get off.

★ ★ ★

But when Downs turned the wheel, the car became hung up by its axle on the tracks and had to be removed by a wrecker. Police were notified.

★ ★ ★

Railroad officials said they would check to see if any damage had been caused the track.

The next train was due to pass shortly after 11 a.m. today.

Britain, while still preferring a comprehensive treaty including a ban on underground nuclear explosions, were offering the partial ban in the belief that it would represent "a substantial positive gain for society."

★ ★ ★

President John F. Kennedy and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan said in a joint statement that unlike underground testing, nuclear tests in the atmosphere, underwater and in outer space "can be effectively verified without onsite inspections."

Throughout the long Geneva nuclear negotiations the Russians have steadfastly balked on all proposals for on-site inspections of tests.

Kennedy and Macmillan expressed in their joint statement a strong preference for a clear-cut ban on all nuclear testing.

They said: "For the safety and security of all of us, this deadly competition must be halted."

★ ★ ★

But they said they are prepared to conclude an early agreement, covering the more limited field, "if this represents the widest area of agreement possible at this time."

★ ★ ★

Andrew T. Hatcher, assistant White House press secretary, in handing out the Kennedy-Macmillan statement, refused to amplify it in any way.

"The statement speaks for itself," he said.

★ ★ ★

He said the treaty proposals will be placed on the table before the disarmament conference in Geneva by Arthur H. Dean, chief U. S. negotiator.

Kennedy Back After Relaxing, Visiting Son

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy flew back to Washington today after a weekend in New England spent partly at the summer White House in Hyannis Port, Mass., and partly in Newport, R.I.

His plane landed at Andrews Air Force Base after a 54-minute flight from Newport. Kennedy left immediately by helicopter for the White House.

The President had a visit with his son, John F. Jr., in Newport and got in some swimming and boating there and at Hyannis Port.

He went out Saturday with his father, Joseph P. Kennedy, and other guests aboard the father's motor yacht Marlin.

Plane Has 'Invisible Wings'

Britain to Test New Jet

LONDON (AP)—Britain next month will start testing an experimental plane with additional "invisible wings" designed to make landings safer, aviation sources reported today.

If the tests succeed, they may eventually boost air safety by drastically reducing the present 160-mile-an-hour landing speed of big passenger jets.

Exhaust gases from its jet engine are ejected from the trailing edge of the wings over flaps. This sheet of gases is deflected by the flaps and becomes in effect an invisible addition to their area.

Twenty-two bills, several of them highly controversial, were crowded onto today's House calendar, to be followed Tuesday by consideration of a $900-million public works bill.

★ ★ ★

The Senate's week probably will be taken up with an unexpected fight over a House-passed tax revision bill stripped of many administration proposals by the Senate Finance Committee.

Top attraction on the House docket is a proposal to eliminate payment of poll taxes as a qualification for voting in elections involving federal office. It is one of 13 bills slated to be called up today under a procedure requiring a two-thirds vote for passage.

TWO-THIRDS VOTE

Inasmuch as the proposal would submit the poll tax issue to the states as a constitutional amendment, it would need a two-thirds vote for passage at any time. To become effective it would have to be ratified by three-fourths of the states.

The poll tax measure easily mustered the two-thirds count it needed in the Senate and its House backers were confident they could steer it through their branch.

Only five states still impose such taxes. They are Virginia, Texas, Mississippi, Alabama and Arkansas.

Sharing top billing in the House today are bills dealing with housing for elderly persons in rural areas, bank mergers, several measures affecting internal security and establishment of a communications satellite system.

PASSED BEFORE

The satellite bill passed the House once before, stirred up a hornet's nest and a filibuster in the Senate before passage there, and is back in the House for action on Senate amendments.

The big public works bill, which may take several days of the House's attention, would give the President standby authority to launch building and other public projects as antirecession measures if needed.

Other measures likely to come before the House if time permits before the end of the week include an omnibus farm bill passed previously by the House but changed by the Senate.

Lonely Kennedy Putting in Long Hours at White House

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

Mainly because he is lonely he now puts in 12-hour days at the White House, which in the words of Press Secretary Pierre Salinger "means longer hours for everybody here."

His long-time friend Dave Powers, an administrative assistant, usually crosses over to the resident side of the White House with him and stays until dinner time.

Occasionally he has friends in for dinner, and two or three times since the First Lady went to Italy he has invited a few sailing cronies to ride down the Potomac with him on one of the presidential boats.

Most of the time, according to Salinger, the Chief Executive sits alone and reads.

Most members of Congress are equally bereft of family life this summer, and the autumn offers little prospects for reunion, since they will be hitting the campaign trail about the time that their spouses return to Washington to put the children in school.

Embattled wives have fought in vain this session to persuade Congress to take summer recesses and return to legislate in the fall.

His successor has been little more encouraging, since Speaker John McCormack is childless, and his devoted wife has never left his side for so much as a day in their 42 years of marital bliss.

★ ★ ★

Senate majority leader Mike Mansfield is willing, and he even called a hearing to give the women their day in court, but his legislative headaches have been so monumental this session that the measure had to bow to more pressing business.

PRESIDENT A CAPTIVE

Any U. S. President inevitably becomes a captive audience so long as a talkathon Congress remains in session.

He dares not skip town for a relaxing vacation until the last of his "must" bills is disposed of, and some of these tantalizing goodies are invariably saved until the final rollcalls in September or October.

It is sad that children are denied the privilege of their fathers' company on vacations. One veteran legislator, in introducing yet another bill last week to force summer recesses complained feelingly:

"The last time I shared a vacation with my youngsters they were too small to remember it. Now they are grown."

★ ★ ★

The President, who has not seen his own children for nearly a month, had high hopes of joining them for a September vacation in Newport.

The odds on Congress adjourning in September are rapidly diminishing, however, and he has a number of political commitments in key states throughout much of October.

Members of the Kennedy clan frankly enjoy each other's company more than outsiders', but JFK has been deprived even of that in recent weeks.

While his wife and daughter are in Italy and his son in Newport, the President's relatives have been in equally far-flung places.

The attorney general is back now, but spends weekends with Ethel and the youngsters at Hyannis Port.

The other two presidential sisters, Pat Lawford and Jean Smith, are touring France together, after a visit to West Berlin.

County in Florida Integrates Schools

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Segregation in Escambia County schools ends today when 22 Negro pupils enter 10 white public schools.

The move was voluntary, jumping the gun on a court order which gave the county until next year to integrate its schools.

A court order issued last month decreed that at least two grades be integrated, and at least one grade each year thereafter.

List Township Places for Wheat Quota Poll

Oakland County polling places for Thursday's referendum on marketing quotas for the 1963 crop of wheat were announced today by Robert H. Long, chairman of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee.

The wheat quota ballots may be cast from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the following places:

For the townships of Addison, Brandon, Independence, Oakland, Orion and Oxford at the Oxford Co-Operative Elevator Office at Oxford;

For the townships of Holly, Rose, Springfield, Groveland and that part of White Lake and Highland townships north of M59 at the Holly Township Hall in Holly;

The chairman explains that the 1963 wheat program to be voted on in general will be the same as for the 1961 wheat crop, as directed by "permanent" legislation. The 1962 wheat stabilization program was authorized by special legislation affecting the wheat crop for 1962 only.

ON NATIONAL ALLOTMENT

Farm acreage allotments in 1963 will be based on a minimum 55-million-acre national wheat allotment, and growers have already received notices of their farm allotments.

★ ★ ★

If at least two-thirds of the growers voting approve quotas for 1963-crop wheat, price support available to growers who comply with their allotment will be at a national average of at least $1.82 per bushel (75 per cent of parity).

Marketing quota penalties will apply to the "excess" wheat growers with more than 15 acres of wheat who do not comply with their farm wheat allotments.

If the quotas are not approved by the necessary two-thirds of those voting, there will be no quotas or marketing penalties for the 1963 crop of wheat, but the price support available to growers who comply with their wheat acreage allotments will drop to 50 per cent of parity, or a national average of about $1.21 per bushel.

In either case, no price support will be available on the 1963 wheat crop to growers who do not comply with their farm wheat acreage allotments.

Proclamation of wheat marketing quotas is directed by legislation whenever the supply of wheat is more than 20 per cent above the normal supply. Actually, the total supply for 1962-63 is estimated at 2.4 billion bushels — 66.5 per cent above normal.

Marketing quotas have been in effect for the past nine wheat crops, as approved by growers voting in referendums held annually on the question.

Teachers Set for Discussions

To Meet Kindergarten Children's Parents in Huron Valley District

Huron Valley kindergarten teachers of some 413 or more youngsters entering kindergarten this fall will devote Sept. 6 through 11 to conferences with parents regarding the children and the school program.

Parents will be notified by card of the time of their appointments, says Arthur Burklund, elementary coordinator. It is necessary that the parents arrive promptly to confer with the teacher about the child's health, traits and any problems, he added.

Parents should bring the birth certificate of the child who must be 5 years of age on or before Dec. 1. They also are urged to have their child's teeth examined and to have the state-required physical examination before the conference.

Burklund stated that according to the 1962 census the enrollment of beginners would exceed 413 this year. Although school starts for the elementary children on Sept. 7 (5th grades on Sept. 6) the kindergarten children will not be brought in until Sept. 12.

★ ★ ★

Fires at Home Being Probed

Five Blazes Reported to Walled Lake Dept. at One House

WALLED LAKE — A series of fires in a home here over the weekend is being investigated by the State Fire Marshal's Office.

The last blaze, early yesterday morning, caused an estimated $4,000 damage to the 1½-story frame house at 211 Hillcroft St.

The six-room house, owned by Ivan Van Schoick, 2281 W. Lincoln Road, Birmingham, was being rented by a Mrs. Jacqueline Smith, according to Walled Lake firemen.

They said that no one was at home when the fires were discovered.

Four fires at the address were reported to the department on Saturday and the last one at 1 a.m. Sunday.

The fire department was called to the scene yesterday and once on Saturday. Several other minor fires on Saturday at the house was extinguished by a neighbor.

Most extensive fire damage to the house was caused to the kitchen, bathroom and living room, with smoke damage throughout the home, firemen said.

The building is insured, Mrs. Van Schoick said. Cause of the fires is undetermined.

Tornado Hits Lenawee House

A tornado caused limited damage in western Lenawee County and lightning set fire to a house in Romeo yesterday in a wet and windy weekend for Michigan.

The tornado, described by a state policeman as slow-moving, demolished farmer Lyle Jeffery's chicken house, killing about 1,000 of his 3,000 chickens.

No one was hurt although the black funnel passed close to Jeffery's wife, Wynona, and a daughter as they talked to a neighbor, Mrs. Ella Randolph.

Trooper Laverne Frye of the Blissfield State Police Post said he spotted the tornado south of Hudson. He described it as a "twisting mass of black clouds" which formed into a funnel when it touched ground at Jeffery's farm two miles west of Hudson.

THROW 2,000 YARDS

The tornado wrecked the 30x128-foot chicken house, flinging chicken cages 2,000 yards, and tore the rack from a pickup truck and destroyed small outbuildings.

Mrs. Randolph's husband, Glenn, and their son, Wesley, 18, were shaken up when the tornado rocked their parked car in the Jeffery yard.

★ ★ ★

Slow Until After Holiday

Market Only Looks Upward

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market began the pre-Labor Day week with mixed prices and moderate trading early today.

Movements of most key stocks were narrow.

On balance there was a slight tendency to the upside but no particular group displayed any leadership.

After continuing its "summer rally" last week the market began to buck into resistance on the upside. Wall Street seemed to be trying to assess business prospects for the fall and winter. Labor Day is a traditional milestone in the business and market year.

Steels were fairly steady as mill orders were reported up again from the prior week.

Aerospace issues were irregularly higher, Douglas Aircraft gaining a fraction while United Aircraft was down slightly.

American photocopy, which became a speculative favorite last week, rose ⅜ to 16⅞ on a big opening transaction of 19,000 shares and edged higher in later dealings.

IBM jogged up more than a point.

Twentieth Century-Fox was off a fraction. Darryl Zanuck, president of the money-losing firm, said some films on the production schedule may be postponed.

Southern California Edison was off ⅛ at 28 on 19,000 shares. Public Service Electric & Gas advanced more than a point.

Most Bond Prices Up

Rails and utilities led the corporates upward. They have been higher for two weeks and last week registered their best gain in a year and a half, based on the Associated Press averages. Industrials opened mixed.

There were few changes amounting to as much as one point, even in the usually more volatile convertible section. An exception were B&O Railroad 4¼s, up 1 at 57 at one time.

Expect China to Do N-Test

May Try Explosion Shortly, Warns U.S. Control Agency

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Communist China probably will be in a position to detonate its first nuclear explosion "within a matter of months," a senior official to the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency said today.

★ ★ ★

The official, who declined use of his name, stressed that this would still be a very long way from China's developing nuclear weapons. This would take a matter of years, he said.

The possibility of nuclear testing by Red China was described to newsmen as one example of why the United States wants Russia to sign a limited nuclear test ban treaty if a full treaty cannot be negotiated.

The "alternate" treaty proposed by the United States and Britain today, which would ban all but underground tests, contains a clause in which nuclear powers would pledge not to help other countries develop nuclear weapons. This was rejected by Russia.

The official said it was hoped this would dissuade Russia from giving China technical help, without which she could not develop a weapons system for many years.

It has long been known that Red China has been doing scientific nuclear research with the aid of the Soviets. But it is believed that Russia recently has been cutting down this type of aid.

Grain Futures Off in General Selling

CHICAGO (AP) — Moderate general selling weakened nearly all grain futures contracts today in initial transactions on the board of trade.

Corn and soybeans reacted fairly sharply to reports of rainfall over the weekend throughout the major producing areas.

Soybeans lost more than a cent in spots while declines in corn and wheat ran to major fractions during the first several minutes.

Brokers said the pressure in wheat was related to the rather heavy movement of the spring crop to market. Selling direct from the combine was understood to be on a broad scale.

SUDDENLY IT'S WINTER—These youngsters undoubtedly hold the distinction of having the season's first snowball fight. It occurred Saturday in front of The Shoe Box in the Tel-Huron Shopping Center where 2½ tons of snow was trucked in to promote snow boots for the winter season. Looking somewhat embarrassed as a snowball bounces off his head is Roy Annett, 5, of 2799 Sylvan Shore, Sylvan Lake. Ronald Bryant, 10, of 155 N. Genesee smiles triumphantly at the direct hit. Four other Shoe Box stores in the metropolitan area had similar snow promotions Saturday.

Their Use Has Expanded

Surveys Are a Business

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — Surveys are fast becoming an accepted part of everyone's life. The making of them is a business in itself. They tell where we were, where we are, where we think we're going.

Some businessmen complain they spend so much time filling out questionnaires about what they are doing or intend to do that they don't have time to do it.

But for good or ill, some surveys now affect thinking and planning—and acting. Others (so wide is the field of late) are laughed off as trivial or self-serving.

U.S. DOES IT

The taking of surveys is a widespread occupation, in both high and low places. The government, for example does it.

Federal departments ask businessmen how much they plan to spend for plant and equipment. They ask consumers how much they think they're going to spend, for what things, and how they feel about the chances of meeting the bills thus incurred.

★ ★ ★

Private organizationns — educational, industrial, researching, publishing—plow this same field. The effect of these surveys on business thinking and planning is considerable. The surveys thus become both a tool for the economists and a boost or deterrent to the economy.

STILL A QUESTION

How much consumers trim their own actions to their reading of survey findings is still a question. But it's apparent that many stock traders watch them closely for tips on the business cycle.

Many industrial groups survey the findings and plans of their members. Some aim at gaining information, some at influencing thinking or action.

Individual companies come up with surveys of their own, and their findings often predictably favorable to the future of their products or services.

A common byproduct of a survey is a trend. The company or group or publicity agent making the survey finds that its enquiries all point in one direction—usually a trend spelling profit for the one who made, or paid for, the survey.

MANY REFINEMENTS

The hope is that once a trend is sighted and trumpeted, enough others will want to conform to it to make that trend really profitable.

Originally surveys were mostly designed to gather facts or figures or percentages. There are many refinements of this general idea.

One is called motivational. That is, consumers (or businessmen) are questioned closely to see why they do this or that, buy this product instead of another. Going a step further the designers of such probings say they can detect subconscious reasons that affect sales, product popularity, or a corporation's image.

SEX INCLUDED

Subdivisions of such inquiries are almost infinite. Color experts use them to determine package and product designs. The variations of scent become subjects for consultations in directors' boardrooms. Consumers' ideas about taste, or lack of it, are eagerly sought by makers of beverages.

★ ★ ★

Sex is very much part of the surveying gambit. A recent example: a survey has been made of what young couples think of bucket seats in cars as opposed to the old style seats built for togetherness.

The finding: The honeymoon is over when the couple says it sees nothing wrong with bucket seats.

Successful Investing

Q) "I am 13 years old and recently celebrated my Bar Mitzvah. I received $1,000 as gifts, and for my college education I would like to buy growth stocks that I might sell at a profit in 5½ years. Can you help me?" M. P.

A) I congratulate you most sincerely, and I'm only too pleased to try to help you. You're an intelligent boy, and you probably realize that stocks fluctuate rather widely. For that reason, there is some risk in trying to make a profit within a specified time limit.

However, in your case the time period is broad, and if you buy stocks with strong growth patterns, you should be able to get out profitably before your college years start. I'm going to suggest two stocks to divide your risk—Northern Illinois Gas, a public utility which has been moving ahead rapidly, and Continental Assurance, a life insurance issue which could do very well for you over a five-year period. And the best of luck.

Q) "I've noted that Bethlehem Steel is now selling to yield 6 per cent. Other good companies, like Gillette, yield a great deal less. Is there something behind the scenes in the steel stocks that we don't know?" J. B.

A) Behind the scenes in the steel stocks is a situation of lagging demand for the product and a cost-price squeeze which is going to be hard to overcome. Bethlehem is a good company. However, steel earnings since 1957 have been trending lower and the firm did not cover its dividend in the second quarter of 1962.

The reason for the present high yield is that the market does not believe the present rate will be maintained. (Republic Steel recently cut its rate by 1-3). In Bethlehem's case, the cut in dividend seems well discounted, and the shares are probably near their lows. I consider them unattractive, however, under present industry conditions.

The company had offered the union an immediate 22 cents an hour increase, effective Sept. 15, 1962, the date the present contract expires, and an additional 10 cents effective one year later.

Marathon Oil Raises Prices to Its Dealers

FINDLAY, Ohio — Marathon Co. has announced a new tank wagon price for gasoline to its dealers in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Genesee, and a portion of St. Clair counties of 14.5 cents per gallon, effective today.

★ ★ ★

The company's suggested retail price will be 30.9 cents per gallon for its regular grade gasoline, which includes state and federal gasoline taxes of ten cents a gallon and a 4 per cent Michigan sales tax.

Marathon also announced a similar increase in the wholesale price of gasoline at the company's Detroit Refinery.

G. H. Young, Marathon's Vice President of Marketing, announced the price increases, stating that Marathon management finds the fluctuating gasoline prices in the Detroit metropolitan area over the past several years to be deplorable.

"We have made this price move because of frequent, substantial and serious gasoline price disturbances occurring over the past several years in the Detroit metropolitan area," Young said.
