Panama Police Detain American in Assassination

Holding Martin Lipstein for Quiz on Suspicious Movements

PANAMA (AP) — Panama police held a 34-year-old U. S. citizen incommunicado today in connection with Sunday's slaying of President Jose Antonio Remon. They were questioning at least 70 suspects in the gang-style murder.

Police said they picked up Martin Irving Lipstein—tentatively described as a schoolteacher from New York—at the airport 24 hours after Remon and two other men were shot to death at Juan Franco race track.

Authorities said they had released another U.S. citizen, Roy Bettis, 36, a native of Waukegan, Ill., who is employed by the Canal Zone administration but lives in Panama City. Bettis was questioned about the activities of one of his truck drivers on the night of the murder. National guard headquarters said they had no information against Bettis.

News of these developments came after police announced that ex-President Arnulfo Arias, one of the first arrested, had been moved to national guard headquarters in Chiriqui province 200 miles west of here.

Arias, an arch political foe of Remon, was picked up at his plantation 200 miles west of here shortly after the slaying. Authorities later said the murder weapons were German-made Schmeisser machine guns of a type confiscated from Arias previously.

Arias was ousted from the presidency in 1951 in a coup headed by the national guard force, then under Remon. Remon was elected president for a four-year term in 1952.

Police were tight-lipped about Lipstein, but reliable sources said tests made of his clothing showed traces of gunpowder.

Informants said police became suspicious because of his unkempt appearance and his excited reaction Monday when told he

Stock Market Thumps Down

Margin Cash Increase Credited With Bringing Trading Back to Normal

NEW YORK (AP) — The rousing bull market in stocks suffered its worst setback in 4½ years yesterday as the Federal Reserve Board increased the amount of cash necessary to buy stocks on margin.

The board's action had little effect on the millions of Americans who now hold a stake in the market, but Wall Street analysts called it the immediate psychological factor in the stock market break.

Share prices fell at the start, improved a bit around midday, and then slumped sharply in the late afternoon. By the end of the session, losses ran to around $5 in some areas.

The Associated Press-average of 6 stocks dropped to $122.46, down $3.40, the worst decline since June 24, 1950, when the Korean War started.

Volume piled up fast as the ticker fell as much as 15 minutes behind in reporting transactions. For the day, turnover totaled 4,640,000 shares, largest since June 27, 1950.

The widest losses were posted by stocks that have been in high favor lately. Republic Steel fell $4.62, Kennecott Copper $4.50, Anaconda Copper $2.87, Du Pont $3.12, General Motors $3.62, Bethlehem Steel $4.62 and Standard Oil (N.J.) $2.37. Amerasia Petroleum closed down $5.50 after having declined more than $10 at one time.

While brokers said the boost in margin requirements from 50 percent to 60 percent undoubtedly brought on the break, many said once again that it's high time the market underwent a good-sized correction.

Since the bull market started, some shares have doubled in market valuation and others have gone well beyond that. The rise since the election in November has been extraordinarily steep.

Vasily Stalin Rumored Victim of Beria Purge

WASHINGTON (UP)—There is strong evidence Josef Stalin's hard-drinking son, Vasily, was swept up in the same purge that cost Russian Police Chief Lavrenti P. Beria his life. Vasily, too, may be dead.

Young Stalin's fate has been a matter of lively speculation here and in other free world capitals ever since his last public appearance on March 9, 1953, when he was a pallbearer at his father's funeral.

Funeral pictures showed Vasily, then about 32, as part of a double-line of Soviet big-wigs who carried the dead dictator's casket. He walked just a pace behind Georgi Malenkov, who headed one line. Beria, who was shot before the end of 1953, headed the other line of coffin bearers.

American agencies were said to have no confirmation of Vienna, Austria, reports that young Stalin had died recently in a Siberian prison camp. These same reports said that his sister, Svetlana, had been banished from Moscow by Malenkov and his new Red regime. But experts would not be surprised in the least if Stalin the younger met with foul play soon after his father's body was deposited in Moscow's Red Square.

Married and the father of two children, Stalin was a lieutenant general of aviation when his father died on March 5, 1953.

Although he has not been seen publicly since the big funeral, Stalin may have stayed in good graces until June 1953, when Beria was arrested. Beria was known to have been a close friend of Stalin's son, just as he was the eldest Stalin's henchman and confidant.

There has been no reference to Stalin in official Soviet press in connection with Beria's downfall and execution.

Liner Rescues 10 Aboard Boat

Crew Reported Saved From Foundering Ship in Stormy Atlantic

NEW YORK (AP) — The Coast Guard said today it had picked up a message from the liner Queen of Bermuda stating it had rescued the entire crew of 10 men from a foundering fishing vessel in the stormy Atlantic north of Bermuda.

The Coast Guard said the message read: "Have rescued entire crew of 10 men from Student Prince."

New York Coast Guard headquarters said it was trying to get confirmation from its own sources in Bermuda. The message was picked up at 10:48 a.m., EST.

An earlier cable dispatch from Hamilton said the Queen of Bermuda was on the scene of the foundering craft, but all attempts to get a lifeboat over "to aid four survivors so far failed, as seas too rough for launching."

The Queen of Bermuda sighted the fishing craft about 8:35 a.m., and said it was planning to pick up survivors.

Earlier the 10-man crew of the fishing craft started to abandon ship, but their one lifeboat broke up and was swamped. The Coast Guard said there was no indication whether any of the crew had been lost.

The Coast Guard cutter Spencer was rushing to the scene.

The Coast Guard said water was almost up to the main deck. The leak apparently was caused by heavy seas. Strong winds were reported in the area.

The Student Prince II, a diesel schooner, is out of St. Johns, Nfld., and is the property of the Grand Bank Fisheries Ltd.

Hammarskjold Talks to Chou

First Conference Held as U.N. Head Tries to Free 11 Airmen

TOKYO (AP) — U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold met today with Red China's Chou En-lai and presumably went right to the point of his trip halfway around the world—the 11 American airmen the Reds convicted of espionage.

Peiping radio made the briefest acknowledgement of the meeting, saying only that Hammarskjold met Chou, premier and foreign minister, at 3 p.m. The broadcast pointedly omitted any mention of the purpose of Hammarskjold's trip.

Chou and Hammarskjold first met yesterday when the U.N. official paid a courtesy call shortly after his arrival by plane. They met again at a cocktail party and then at dinner last night.

U.N. sources have said Hammarskjold expects to wind up the conversations with the Chinese Communists this weekend and head back to the United States.

Sitting in with Chou were Chang Han Fu, vice foreign minister; Prof. Chou Keng Sheng, adviser to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs; and Tung Yueh Chien, director of the Department of International Organizations and Conferences of the Foreign Ministry.

Peiping said Hammarskjold was accompanied by Achmed S. Bokhari, U.N. undersecretary; Per Lind, Hammarskjold's executive assistant; and Humphrey Waldo, professor of international law.

Red China's Chou En-lai said find Dag Hammarskjold a modest, old-school diplomat who uses the polite language of diplomacy, but who can speak with firmness when the occasion demands it.

As the U.N. secretary general announced before he left New York he was not going to Peiping to beg for anything. But he was fully aware that important international interests were involved as well as the personal interests of the 11 American fliers he sought to have freed.

That is why he decided to go to Peiping personally instead of resorting to a less dramatic course, such as a written appeal.

Four Men Missing in Gulf After Two Bombers Collide

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP) — Planes and ships searched the Gulf of Mexico southwest of here today for four men missing after a B47 Stratojet bomber collided with another B47 and crashed.

Miss were the three members of the B47 which crashed and a crewman who parachuted from the other bomber, which was able to return to the Lake Charles Air Force Base last night.

An unidentified ship was reported to have sighted wreckage at the scene, about 30 miles southeast of the Texas-Louisiana boundary, but there was no report of any survivors.

The bombers were on a training mission. Capt. George Spotswood, public information officer at the base, said the cause of the collision was not known.

The missing men were identified as: Maj. Jean S. Pierson, Danville, Ind., commander of the crashed plane.

1st Lt. Rodney P. Eggleston, Lederland, Tex., observer aboard the crashed plane.

Capt. David O. Crump, pilot, Albemarle, N.C.

1st Lt. Matthew Gemery, Lakewood, Ohio, observer aboard the plane which returned to the air base.

Youth, 18, Sentenced to Spanking by Dad

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — An 18-year-old youth has been sentenced "to a spanking with a ping-pong paddle until his seat is a pink red."

James Phelps appeared yesterday before Common Pleas Judge Walter B. Wanamaker and pleaded guilty to a charge of breaking and entering and stealing $200 last October.

The judge asked the youth how long it had been since his father had administered a spanking.

The boy replied, "I don't remember," but his father, who was also in court, said it had been about five years. The judge told the elder Phelps:

"You can't cultivate a farm if you don't take the weeds out, and you can't cultivate a child without inculcating respect. Do you think you could give him a spanking? You are not much bigger than he is."

The boy's father guaranteed the judge he could and would.

Hearing Date Set for Boy Gunman

Eric Matheny to Appear in Juvenile Court Here January 18

A 16-year-old West Bloomfield Township boy, who shot at his step-mother Tuesday night police said, will be kept in the Oakland County Children's Home pending a hearing in juvenile court Jan. 18.

Eric Matheny appeared yesterday before Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore who set the hearing date, at which a disposition of the case will be made.

The youth, son of Dr. Charles Matheny of 5706 Bloomfield Glen, fired a 30-30 rifle at his step-mother as she stood at a window calling for help, police stated.

The Mathenys had been awakened by a noise in their kitchen. The doctor said they entered the kitchen where they heard a voice, which he recognized as Eric's, ordering him to get some money.

They ran into the bedroom and the shot barely missed Mrs. Matheny as she stood at the window. The boy was later arrested hiding in the basement of his father's nearby office.

The parents had thought the youth returned Sunday to Starr Commonwealth for Boys at Albion where Oakland juvenile authorities had agreed to have him sent last September, after Macomb County had waived jurisdiction over him on a car theft charge.

Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem yesterday said he would obtain more information before deciding whether to ask for waivers allowing the boy to be tried under adult statutes.

State of Union Speech Seeks More A-Power

President Calls Upon Dem Congress to Cooperate for Stronger America

WASHINGTON (INS) — President Eisenhower reported to the new Democratic-controlled Congress today that the prospects for peace and prosperity are brightening, but called for greater atomic strength, streamlined military forces and continuance of federal taxes at their present levels.

On international affairs, the President said: "In the past year, there has been progress justifying hope, both for continuing peace and for the ultimate rule of freedom and justice in the world."

On domestic matters, he declared: "The transition to a peacetime economy is largely behind us. The economic outlook is good."

Eisenhower had no surprises for Congress and the public in his personally delivered annual State of the Union address, broadcast and televised throughout the United States, and beamed throughout the world.

His remarks were threaded with optimism on both domestic and international affairs. But he recognized that world peace is now "insecure" and expressed the determination to react devastatingly to Communist aggression.

The President summed up his administration's position on the cold war in these words:

"To protect our nations and our peoples from the catastrophe of a nuclear holocaust, free nations must maintain countervailing military power to persuade the Communists of the futility of seeking their ends through aggression. If Communist rulers understand that America's response to aggression will be swift and decisive—that never shall we buy peace at the expense of honor or faith—they will be powerfully deterred from launching a military venture engulfing their own peoples and many others in disaster."

The chief executive added: "This, of course, is merely stalemate. But in this stalemate each of us may and must exercise his high duty to strive in every honorable way for enduring peace."

Eisenhower asked postponement of reductions in excise and corporation taxes scheduled for April, but said he is hopeful that it will be possible to cut taxes next year. He pledged himself to cooperate with the Democrats "in all areas basic to the strength of America," and appealed urgently for similar cooperation from the opposition party to avert a "paralyzing indecision" in Washington.

Such cooperation, he declared, should extend beyond the traditional bipartisan areas of military security and foreign relations to supporting programs essential to the nation's strength.

Addressing himself directly to the Democratic 84th Congress, the Republican President said:

"In all areas basic to the strength of America, there will be—to the extent I can insure them—cooperative, constructive relations between the executive and legislative branches of this government. Let the general good be our yardstick on every great issue of our time."

The President's program included proposals for a pay boost for government workers, higher postal rates, a health reinsurance program and a constitutional amendment giving the vote to 18-year-olds.

He also urged congressmen to vote a "long overdue" raise for (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

Name Manager of License Office

Donald Coleman Heads Secretary of State Unit in Holly

Donald S. Coleman, 32, was named manager of the secretary of state's branch office in Holly today by Secretary of State James M. Hare.

Coleman, a Democrat, operates the Preferred Insurance Agency in Holly. He and two employees are moving into the office today.

New managers will be named for all nine offices in Oakland County, according to Billie S. Farnum, assistant secretary of state in charge of the Detroit office.

Besides Holly, other branch offices are located in Oxford, Rochester, Pontiac, Ferndale, Farmington, Walled Lake and Milford. Another branch handles Berkley and Royal Oak business.

New managers for Oakland County branches will be announced as soon as applicants are approved and an audit made of each office's books, said Farnum.

Managers receive 30 cents for each license plate sold, 15 cents for each car title transfer plus 10 cents for each weight and use tax collection.

They must pay their own employees, rent, if any, and other office overhead, Farnum explained.

No Work to Do, Judge Brennan Stays Home

DETROIT (UP) — Circuit Judge Vincent M. Brennan, the judge without a court, decided to stay home yesterday rather than appear at Wayne County Circuit Court where there has been no work for him since Jan. 1.

Brennan had filed for retirement effective Jan. 1 but changed his mind. However, the state Retirement Board refused to consider his application to remain on the bench.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams appointed Theodore Bohn to succeed Brennan. Bohn hasn't assumed the duties yet.

Brennan showed up at the court Monday and Tuesday but found no work assigned to him. He informed his clerk, Dale de Vogelaer, yesterday that he decided to "stay home and relax."

The state Supreme Court will consider the matter of Brennan's retirement Jan. 12.

President Outlines Air-Stressed Defense Program to Deter Russian Aggression

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower outlined today a defense program designed to deter Russian aggression and help save the world from a "nuclear holocaust."

Then he told Congress in his State of the Union message that "these emphases in our defense planning have been made at my personal direction after long and thoughtful study. In my judgment, they will give our nation a defense accurately adjusted to the national need."

In the face of Democratic questioning of proposed cuts in Army strength, he said the forthcoming military budget, due for presentation on Jan. 17:

1. "Emphasizes modern airpower in the Air Force, Navy and Marine Corps."

2. "Intensifies attention to new weapons, especially those of rapid and destructive striking power."

3. Assures maintenance of "effective, retaliatory force as the principal deterrent to over-aggression."

Until there is world agreement on armament limitations, the President said, "we must continue to improve and expand our supplies of nuclear weapons for our land, naval and air forces while, at the same time, continuing our encouraging progress in the peaceful use of atomic power."

The President put early in his address his warning about the steadily growing strength of Russia in nuclear weapons.

If Communist rulers understand that America's response will be swift and decisive—that never shall we buy peace at the expense of honor or faith—they will be powerfully deterred from launching a military venture engulfing their own peoples and many others in disaster."

Eisenhower said that while aiming at the goal of realistic limitations of armaments and enduring peace, the United States must "maintain powerful military forces because there is no present alternative—forces designed for deterrent and defensive purposes alone but able instantly to strike back with destructive power in response to an attack."

Eisenhower yesterday made public a letter to Secretary of Defense Wilson outlining a reduction in armed force personnel from a present strength of about 3½ million to about three million by next June, with a "goal" of about 2½ million a year later—depending upon world conditions. The Air Force, alone of the services, would be increased by about 14,000. Some Democrats have protested that now is not the time to cut military manpower.

Eisenhower urged enactment of could not leave Panama because of outstanding flights had been canceled.

Authorities said they were trying to find out why Lipstein had sailed from Italy from Vera Cruz, Mexico, Dec. 17, then decided to disembark at Guaira, Venezuela, and come to Panama.

Reliable sources said Lipstein was a native New Yorker, educated at the University of Southern California. They said he had taught school in Los Angeles two years ago.

University of Southern California records show that a Martin Lipstein attended USC from 1945 to 1948 and was graduated with a bachelor of science degree in education.

The records did not indicate that he had entered the teaching profession.

In Redondo Beach, Calif., a Joe Novak told reporters that two years ago he became acquainted with a Martin Lipstein, who had twice used Novak's address in Redondo Beach. Once he used it for a civil service examination to get a post office job in Redondo Beach and last October he used it in applying for a passport before leaving for Mexico, Novak said.

Novak said Lipstein talked of having graduated from USC, of having taught at an elementary school in nearby Manhattan Beach, of having worked for an electronics concern in El Segundo, Calif., and of being a U.S. Air Force veteran.

Air Force records showed a Martin Lipstein had served three years and whose last address, in 1953, was in Manhattan Beach, Calif.

Novak said the last he heard from Lipstein was a postcard sent Oct. 31 from Mexico City, saying that Lipstein had begun studying music again under a French professor. Novak said Lipstein previously had talked about spending six months in Mexico in 1953.

UAW Local 596 Votes on Strike

Approval of Walkout Could Close Fisher Plant Here in 35 Days

Fisher Body Local 596 (UAW-CIO) members today were casting ballots in a strike vote which could close down the body plant in 35 days.

Should the approximately 5,000 union members approve the walkout, local 596 officials will ask UAW-CIO International in Detroit for strike sanction, said William Medlock, local president.

The union contends the company has speeded up production and established "higher production standards than we can give."

"There is more work involved in the new models than in the 1954s and we feel we are not manned for it," Medlock said.

Medlock said some of the grievance-causing issues involved in the alleged speed-up have been resolved since a special membership meeting two weeks ago at which the strike vote was authorized.

The union's international headquarters is given 30 days notice of a strike and a five-day continuous negotiation period between union and management follows that.

Thus, the soonest the work stoppage could take place would be 35 days from tomorrow, when the report of the vote will be sent to Detroit.

"We run into this problem every model change," Medlock said. "We usually have it ironed out a month or so after the change."

"This changeover came in October and we don't believe the company is moving fast enough to correct the conditions."

"Some issues have been resolved but the major ones have not."

Summons Mailed in '51

BIRMINGHAM—Police are wondering if it was by slow ox cart that the Detroit Post Office tried to deliver a summons mailed to a Detroit man.

Police Sgt. Robert Pepperell today showed around the letter, postmarked April 16, 1951. Stamped across it when it was returned to the police department Jan. 3, 1955, were the words, "Not at."

L. C. BURCH JR.

APPOINTED—L. C. Burch Jr., of 219 Eileen Dr., a Pontiac attorney, today was appointed public administrator in Oakland County by Attorney Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh. Public administrators are under the jurisdiction of probate courts and are paid fees for such duties as administering estates of persons who die without any known heirs.

Local Man in Custody on Gambling Charge

A Pontiac man who police stopped for speeding yesterday is in Oakland County Jail today on charges of having gambling equipment in his possession.

John F. Walker, 38, of W. South Blvd., was stopped by Pontiac Patrolmen Billy F. Jones and Hall B. Mercer at Brush and Bagley Sts., because the officers said Walker was driving 35 miles per hour in a 25 mile zone.

While writing a citation, the officer said, they noticed a policy (numbers) book on the auto's floor, and placed Walker under arrest.

Road Advisers to Meet With Governor Friday

LANSING (UP)—Gov. G. Mennen Williams will meet with his 19-man highway advisory committee Friday at 4 p.m., executive aides said today.

The committee was appointed by Williams Tuesday to help formulate a "sound program" to go along with a proposed $500,000,000 bond issue for highway construction.

Hold Flint Pair in Robbery Here

Charged With Aug. '14 Gas Station Holdup; Arraignment Set

Two of three Flint men, once released here on a holdup charge, were rearrested by Pontiac Police yesterday in Detroit and scheduled for arraignment in Municipal court today.

The pair, M. B. Woody, 27, of 1238 Central, and Leroy Spence, 30, of 3611 Michigan, were charged in a new warrant Oct. 19, accusing them of robbing a Pontiac filling station at Oakland Ave. and Deland Ct., Aug. 14.

A third companion, Riley Williams, 29, also of Flint, was convicted of an armed robbery in Detroit and is now awaiting sentencing.

Detectives James LaPonsie and Richard Evans, who testified in Detroit's Recorder's Court yesterday against the trio, arrested Woody and Spence immediately after they were released. A complainant who identified Williams, was unable to name Woody and Spence.

Capt. Clark M. Wheaton, chief of detectives, said that the men took $137 and a check for $55 during the robbery here. The trio was apprehended by police 14 minutes after the holdup. A lie-detector test, according to Wheaton and LaPonsie, indicated "deception" on the part of the trio who first denied the robbery.

Following the Detroit trial, said LaPonsie who questioned the pair, Woody and Spence admitted taking part in the holdup.

Baldwin School Entered; Nothing Reported Taken

The Baldwin Grade School at 40 E. Howard St., was broken into early Wednesday but thieves who broke a window for entry, did not take anything, according to Pontiac Police.

Several windows were broken and the school's office was ransacked. The break-in was discovered by John Bennett of 38 Charlotte St., a school janitor.

Highland School Held on Firearms Charge

Mrs. Orville E. Thornhill, 33, of 1501 W. Livingston, Highland, is being held on a careless use of firearms charge at the Oakland County Jail.

Her husband, Edward, in a warrant issued by Milford Township Justice Bartlett B. Smith, charges that his wife, on Dec. 28, pointed a 16 gauge shotgun at him.

About 67 per cent of American adults wear eyeglasses.

Wounded Man Poses as Christ

Refugee With Injured Hands, Feet Arrested Wearing Thorn Crown

NEW BRITAIN, Conn. (U) — A man who exhibited wounds in his hands and feet and claimed he was Jesus Christ was among four Polish refugees facing blasphemy charges in City Court today. All four claimed to be 2,000 years old. Police said John Tschaplinski, 30, when arrested yesterday, was wearing a crown of thorns, causing him to bleed from the head, and wore a loin cloth made from a diaper.

A seven-foot wooden cross with four spikes and a stack of $20 bills were found in his kitchen.

Police said they had taken him into custody several weeks ago after he was found passing out $20 bills at the New Britain General Hospital, but they released him after questioning.

Arrested with him yesterday were Mieczyslaw Majewski, 38, who was wearing a black robe and had a long beard; and two women, Antonina Suszko and Dina Karanowicz, about 30. Police said all four came here three years ago and lived in the same tenement.

They are not known to be members of any religious sect here.

City Prosecutor Steven E. Perakos said the four were booked on an alleged violation of a Connecticut law which forbids persons to claim to be a deity.

Asked whether Tschaplinski received the wounds from the spikes on the cross, Perakos said he didn't know "but he could have." Police described the wounds as fresh. Detectives quoted Tschaplinski as saying his wounds miraculously appeared at 6 a.m. Sunday.

He told police he and the three others earned the money in local factories. Police said Miss Suszko has a bankbook with several thousand dollars in deposits recorded.

Convict Wins Case, but Not Freedom

BOSTON (U) — Carl G. Smith, 32, of Gary, Ind., a convict arguing his own case, was freed from an 8 to 10 year prison sentence yesterday.

The Massachusetts Supreme Court upheld his petition, which he prepared himself, claiming he was not properly represented by counsel when convicted of a Worcester County burglary in 1949.

But as he left the court, a state detective arrested him and charged him with stealing automobile registration plates from the state prison, where the plates are manufactured. He was locked up for lack of $2,500 bail pending a Jan. 14 hearing.

California Frowns On Going to Jail for Friend

LOS ANGELES (U) — Ollie O. Ballard is accused of spending New Year's Eve in jail for Bill Smith.

Smith had pleaded guilty to contracting without a license and was sentenced to spend five weeks in jail.

Smith and Ballard were arraigned yesterday on charges of conspiring to obstruct justice, a felony.

"I didn't know serving time for someone else was wrong in California," said Ballard. "Back in Georgia they do it all the time." Both men will appear next Tuesday at preliminary hearing.

Thief Sets Cops Afoot

ACUSHNET, Mass. (U) — For a while yesterday this town was without its only police car, plainly marked "Acushnet Police." Someone stole it from in front of the police station. It was found a few hours later in the town of Dartmouth, eight miles away.

Lutherans Growing

NEW YORK (U) — A church official reports membership in the United Lutheran Church has nearly doubled since the church was organized in 1918. It is currently 2,141,626.

COUGAR CUTIES — Four 11-day-old cougar kittens form a "ferocious" line of self defense as mama steps into an adjoining cage for a bit of lunch at Woodland Park Zoo, Seattle. Roars and snarls sounding like a leaky tire valve emitted from the two at right, while the others crouched, ready to pounce on any intruder. The kittens weigh about two pounds each, will grow to about 80 pounds, losing their black spots in three months.

250-Pound Hog Stolen

MORRISON, Ill. (AP) — Strong men visited the E. J. Starbuck farm and left with a 250-pound hog. They lifted it over three fences.

Army Invades New York to Build Nike Installations

NEW YORK (UP) — The Army is moving into New York suburbs with secret installations for launching deadly Nike missiles at enemy bombers.

Along with each Nike base, which occupies about 25 acres and has a permanent contingent of 100 officers and men, goes a careful public relations program to convince suburbanites that having a guided missile base next door is not so bad.

"We tell people as much as we can about what the Nike is and how it works," a 1st Army spokesman said. "Actually a Nike site is less dangerous than a filling station, where you have a lot of gasoline stored comparatively close to the surface of the ground."

The Defense Department has never pinpointed the location of all its Nike sites nor told how many are planned. The New York metropolitan area is believed to be getting 40. Rumor has it there are 16 around Washington, D. C., and more under construction.

The same kind of protection is known to be planned for Detroit, Chicago, Boston, Los Angeles, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, San Francisco, Philadelphia, Seattle, Hartford, Conn., Providence, R. I., and Buffalo, N. Y.

Each Nike base is like the nest of a supersonic bird of prey. It involves an elaborate underground emplacement and a few buildings. The Nike streaks up to pluck a bomber out of the sky at 1,500 miles per hour.

Chambers of commerce, property owners and other civic organizations have protested the choice of some Nike sites. The complaint is usually that property values will depreciate. Or perhaps the community wanted to use the land for some other project.

Army public relations men tell townspeople that having a Nike base nearby makes them less likely than ever to be sought out as a target by the enemy. A bomber would try to stay as far as possible from Nike's territory.

The Nike is a quiet neighbor, too. Soldiers drill with dummy missiles containing no explosive and no fuel. The real McCoy lies buried far underground.

Some protesting women at Westport, Conn., admitted their chief concern was having idle soldiers around to distract their daughters.

The Army tries to compromise when defense needs conflict with local needs. At Fairfield, Conn., the Army latched onto a site which already had been designated for a Junior League ballpark. City fathers agreed to take their ball games elsewhere, but later the Army picked a different location.

Compared with pre-war records, the total ton-miles drawn by freight trains on British railways have risen 40 per cent, the total passenger train miles 28 per cent.

Hanoi Constructs Its Own 'Red Square' After Slow Start as Satellite of Soviets

HANOI (AP)—This capital of North Viet Nam slowly is modeling itself on the Communist pattern after weeks of difficult adaptation.

Bulldozers, trucks and swarms of coolies are busy demolishing the former Square of the Governor General in the center of the city to build a "Red Square."

The Communists have received long Russian-made gray cars—mostly Zims. With the Molotovs—the Russian-made trucks which the Vietminh used during the war—Hanoi again has traffic jams.

For a few weeks before and after the arrival of the Red administration Oct. 10, Hanoi was a dull city. Some of its inhabitants had left for the country in fear of troubles after withdrawal of French troops. Those who remained did not leave their houses. The streets were deserted.

Everybody seemed eager to demonstrate a deep humility to please the Communist leaders. Most men put on khaki Chinese-like suits. They let their beards grow to look like Ho Chi Minh.

Tailors were among the first to reopen their shops, but for a long time displayed only uniforms in their windows.

Now that they are a bit more accustomed to the Communist regime, men and women again have donned their traditional colorful costumes.

The new regime, however, is one of austerity. When the French troops left the city, all movie houses, bars and restaurants closed their doors. Most of the restaurants have reopened but their proprietors have branched out. They sell books too.

Big and expensive Chinese restaurants have tried unsuccessfully to resume business. They have practically no customers.

For the time being, the only prosperous merchants are those who at almost all street corners sell cheap soup. Around each of their improvised shops, dozens of soldiers and civilians can be seen, sitting on benches, eating hot soup.

The movie houses, after offering all available pictures on the Vietminh campaigns against the French, are now announcing for the near future a picture on Dien Bien Phu being prepared in Moscow. Russian and Chinese pictures alternate with Italian and even American ones. Almost all the American movies are Westerns.

A great number of newspapers are sold every day. They are displayed on the sidewalk, along with portraits of the main Communist leaders. A government-owned book shop sells all classics of the Communist world, some in Indochinese dialects. Pornographic books have disappeared.

The native district of Hanoi is not much changed. It is always busy, with all its shops full of goods which only a small part of the citizenry can afford.

Soldiers, meagerly paid, wander silently in the streets looking at the shop windows, which display items they cannot afford.

The black market is active. Often well-dressed young men or old women offer smuggled Swiss watches or American cigarettes.

although the latter are the object of an intensive Communist propaganda claiming they are the only ones in the world causing lung cancer.

More Candidates Seek Position on Spring Ballot

JoAnn Boren Engaged to Robert E. Benjamin

WESTACRES — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boren of 7480 Honeysuckle St. have announced the marriage of their daughter JoAnn to Robert Earl Benjamin. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Benjamin of Plymouth.

The ceremony for the Michigan College students was performed New Year's Day at the home of the parents of the bride.

Primaries Not Scheduled in Few No-Contest Areas

As a preview to forthcoming spring elections, would-be candidates in townships and villages of the Oakland County area have filed nominating petitions seeking positions on the primary ballots, for Feb. 21 voting.

In some areas, party caucuses will be held to select candidates, instead of primaries.

Because some people have no opposition in seeking their party's candidacy for offices, primaries will not be held in other areas, and those seeking to be placed on the ballot will win that position if their petitions stand up under checking.

Holly Township

There will be no primary in Holly Township, since those seeking the Republican posts were unopposed.

Filing petitions were Cass B. Waters for supervisor; Jess E. Furbush, clerk; Madeline Lockwood, treasurer; Donald Bremer, justice of the peace; Stanley Hanson and Russell C. Barrett, trustees; and Seelye Tinsman, board of review.

Village of Holly

Two incomplete slates of candidates filed nominating petitions in Holly, but there was no position contested on either group, and therefore, no primary will be held before the March 14 village election.

Worth Hitchcock heads the Union party slate, seeking the position of village president; George Patterson, clerk; William K. Alberts and A. Krikorian, full term trustees.

Howard Wareham leads the Republican hopefuls, pursuing the position of supervisor; Jack Johnson, clerk; Anders O. Hustvedt, treasurer; Paul Cohee, M. Brice Dahler and Harry McDaniel, full term trustees; Stanley Gmelich, vacancy trustee; and Aubrey Butler, assessor.

Pontiac Township

Voters will go to the polls Feb. 21 to choose their party candidates for the April 4 general election.

Seeking the supervisor's candidacy on the Republican ticket is Howard C. Decker. Greta V. Block and Mary Norris are vying for the post of clerk; Goldie B. Mallah, treasurer; Thomas W. Shearer Jr.; Stanley L. Slowik, Wade H. Harris, Leonard Terry, Archie E. Allen and Stewart D. Vogler, trustees.

Others are Robert W. Hodge, justice of the peace; and Norman F. Gerber, Harold Van Housen, Leonard D. Thompson, Charles W. Wilson, William Pauley and J. Paul Elwell for constables.

The Democrats have two seeking the supervisor's post, Charles A. Chandler, and Lewis R. Wahl; Mont D. Bodman, Francis J. Evon, Harvey L. Stafford, Wendell D. Willis and Roy L. Hardy, for trustees, and Louis H. Zywicki, constable.

Southfield Township

Since no two persons sought the same position on their party's slate for the April 4 election, there will be no primary in Southfield. Those who filed nomination petitions will be placed on the ballot.

Running on the Democratic ticket for supervisor will be John I. Lampl, with Howard Coleman, Burdette Dzendzel, Raymond G. Hutchens and Thomas G. Kavanagh seeking trustee positions, Edward A. Elsarelli for justice of the peace (unexpired two year term) and Wesley J. Showron for constable.

Republicans filing were William Roemer, for supervisor, Mrs. Fannie Adams, clerk; Miss Clara Lane, treasurer; Thomas J. Langan, justice of the peace

(four year term); Hugh J. Allerton Jr., H. Luther Wagner, Eugene Swem and Margaret Bradbury, for trustees, and Edward R. Tate, constable.

Farmington Township

Four ballot positions are contested on a Republican slate in Farmington Township, with Ernest V. Blanchard, William James and Fred G. Menke seeking the nomination for supervisor; Harry McCracken, Robert H. Ridgeway, Edward J. Jarvis, Floyd Cairns and Howard E. Eldridge, for clerk.

Others are Clayton Goers, treasurer; Allen Engle and Margaret G. Schaeffer for justices of the peace; and Fred Westlake, Edward Shaffer, Ward Eagle, Thomas Tardy, E. P. Avery, Ross Patterson, Helen Willard, John H. Spaller, Edward D. Marks and Howard Wiest, all seeking two positions as trustees;

Others are Godfrey Godnor, Erving Yake and Thomas Schriber, constable, and John Spicer, commissioner of parks.

Orion Township

Only one nomination is contested in Orion Township, where Harry Slater, Gail Bracken and Edward Knickerbocker are seeking two nominations as two-year trustees.

Others are Ferris Clark, supervisor; Homer Kelly, clerk; Marcela Schroeder, treasurer; Helmar Stanaback, justice of the peace; Russell Lepp, board of review vacancy term; Walter Green, four year term; Clarence Braidwood, Neil Leonard, Charles Lortz, and Harold Maphis, constables; and Sarah Kimball and Aurora Robinson, library board positions.

Village of Lake Orion

Only one slate of residents seeking nominations filed petitions for village offices, and only one contest resulted.

Grover Shimmmons, Carroll Kirkpatrick, Robert Hauxwell Sr., and Lawrence Marlin are seeking three positions as trustees. W. C. Leipprandt filed for president; Mary Parkinson for clerk; W. Russell Lepp, assessor; and Geraldine Campbell, treasurer.

Imlay Township

Both Democrat and Republican positions are contested.

Republicans Byron Courter and Goldie Moore are after the supervisors slot on the ballot; James I. Lancaster, treasurer; Lewis Fritzel, highway commissioner; Levi Spencer and Edwinn Murry, trustees; Harold Dewey, John O. Bush and Clarence Saunders, constable and Neil Blank, justice of the peace.

Renan Barclay wants the Democratic nomination for supervisor; L. B. Thatcher for clerk; Lottie Worthy, treasurer; Jack Schonfeld and William J. Touchette, trustees, and William J. Touchette, constable.

Ida Terry, Faye Churchill, Charlotte Hoadley, Martha Lengemann, R. A. Grettenberger and L. M. Zimmerman are seeking six seats on the library board.

Marlette Village

Benson Outlines 3 Ways to Support Dairy Prices

WASHINGTON — Secretary of Agriculture Benson today outlined in a report to Congress three general methods which he said the government might use to stabilize producer prices of milk and dairy products.

Although he outlined in detail each proposal, the secretary made no recommendations as to which he believed would be employed.

The report was submitted to the lawmakers at the request of the outgoing Congress which expressed dissatisfaction with the present dairy price support program, marked by downturns in producer prices and vast government purchases of dairy surpluses.

The three general methods set forth in Benson's 113-page report are:

(1) Use of controls to prevent production of price-depressing surpluses.

(2) Purchase by the government on some other agency of a portion of the supply which would be withheld from the market for the purpose of bolstering prices.

(3) Use of government subsidies to assure dairymen desired returns.

The government now employs the second method—that of purchase of surplus supplies.

Benson said use of subsidies—a major feature of a controversial farm plan advanced in 1949 by former Secretary of Agriculture Brannan—would cost the government considerably more than the present program.

But he added that the outlay to the nation as a whole—in the form of dairy prices plus taxes to finance government cost—would be no greater.

Under the subsidy method, dairy prices would be free to drop to lower levels than at present, when surpluses existed. The government would pay dairymen the difference between the average market price and the support rate.

The report said that the subsidy method, by allowing consumer prices to drop, would permit the whole production to move into consumption rather than a part into government surplus stock as at present.

A substantial portion of the program will be devoted to a consideration of the adjustments a local farmer should consider to meet the problems ahead.

There will be a panel discussion in which Harold Mitchell of Holly, and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Crawford of Milford, will outline changes which they expect to make in the farm and home during the next five years.

Farmers' Taxes to Be Explained

Meeting at Waterford to Discuss Filling Out Income Levy Returns

How does the new federal social security plan affect the farmers? What's new in income tax regulations that is pertinent to them? How can machinery and equipment maintain, increase or decrease farm profits?

These and many other agricultural questions will be discussed at a public meeting at the Waterford Community Activities Building Monday, opening at 1:30 and continuing through the afternoon.

Lyle Abel, Oakland County Agricultural Agent has urged the attendance of every farmer in the county.

Leonard Kyle, farm management specialist from Michigan State College, will be present to answer questions, and give instructions on making out the required returns.

There are many income tax changes this past year most of which, according to Abel, will be good news to farmers. These will be fully discussed at the meeting.

In 1955 farm operators will be paying their first social security taxes. Full information on this vital topic will be available at this meeting. The new law covers an insurance program that may influence the future plans of every farm family.

A substantial portion of the program will be devoted to a consideration of the adjustments a local farmer should consider to meet the problems ahead.

There will be a panel discussion in which Harold Mitchell of Holly, and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Crawford of Milford, will outline changes which they expect to make in the farm and home during the next five years.

Ford Unwraps 5 New Tractors

1935 Model Line Offers
First Varied Selection
in Firm's History

Ford Motor Co., bidding for a greater share of the farm machinery business, today introduced five new tractors in two power series.

Since the introduction of Henry Ford's "automobile plow" 50 years ago, the firm has produced only a single model tractor.

Henry Ford II, president, said the new line of tractors is "a major step in the company's farm machinery expansion program aimed at capturing a greater share of the $2,000,000,000 a year farm machinery business."

In August, 1933, Ford entered the full-line farm machinery field with a complete line of farm equipment ranging from plows and cultivators to combines, corn pickers, hay balers and other major implements.

All five new tractor models—three in the "600" series and two in the more powerful "800" series—go on display tomorrow in Ford tractor and implement dealerships in the U. S., Mexico, Cuba, Hawaii and Alaska.

Both models in the 800 series have five-speed transmissions and are powered by a 172-cubic inch engine, representing 30 per cent more power than that of the 600 series.

Standard equipment on all models includes sealed beam headlights and taillights, safety starter and a re-designed seat of foam rubber.

City of Walled Lake Agrees on First Sales Tax Division

WALLED LAKE—After a joint meeting with the officials of Commerce Township, and the new city council, a temporary division of the sales tax refund collected since June 8, 1934 has been agreed upon, and a $3,600 sum handed over to the city.

Walled Lake voters approved incorporation on June 8, and approved a city charter in December. The city's share of the funds was based on the ratio of the city population to the township population, according to the last federal census in 1930.

In other action, the city council and township officials adopted a joint resolution to continue police and fire protection, sharing expenses for these until the city can set up its own departments.

The city was also informed that the charter the voters approved in December has been acknowledged as in order by the Michigan secretary of state.

In the process of completion now is a report to the Michigan Highway Department, outlining the city's principal and secondary roads. This data is used for computing the amount of the gasoline tax refund.

J. C. Cruse of the Oakland County Road Commission spoke to the new council briefly, explaining what responsibilities the city is expected to take, regarding roads.

A hearing on police protection has been postponed until the council can adopt a traffic code, which is being worked upon now.

Also receiving study is the forming of a civic planning committee, whose first duty would be to create a sanitation code.
