Dems Are Cool to Ike's Plea for Soil Bank

But Drive to Override Farm Bill Veto Seems Doomed to Failure

WASHINGTON (P)—Key Democrats reacted coolly today to President Eisenhower's new request for a soil bank program while they awaited the outcome of an uphill House attempt to override his veto of the farm bill.

That effort, due tomorrow, seemed doomed to fall short of mustering the two-thirds margin required.

Political debate over the veto and over responsibility for the decline in farm income was stepped up.

Eisenhower, in a nationwide television and radio broadcast last night explaining his veto, insisted that politics had not entered into his decision.

"I will always resist any attempt to make the farmer and his problems a political football," he said.

Declaring that he had vetoed the big farm bill with keen disappointment, he said: "I had no choice. I could not sign this bill into law because it was a bad bill. In the months ahead, it would hurt more farmers than it would help. In the long run it would hurt all farmers. It was a bad bill for the country."

Eisenhower urged again that Congress act speedily to approve his soil bank program. It is designed to pay farmers subsidies totaling as much as $1,200,000,000 yearly for taking land out of production of crops already in surplus. They would sign contracts with the government to do so.

MORE FARM AID

This time, Eisenhower added a new feature he said would give farmers an extra 500 million dollars this year.

"By a simple provision in the Soil Bank Act," he said, "The Congress can authorize this program to begin making payments to a maximum of 50 per cent after the farmer signs a contract."

"Thus immediately after July 1, 1956, farmers who agree to participate . . . will be eligible for payment. These initial payments will help our farmers this crop year."

Eisenhower said the remaining 50 per cent of the amount any farmer was entitled to for participation would be paid when he had complied with his agreement to take land out of cash production and put it to conservation uses.

Here are major points of the farm program as it now shapes up:

WHEAT—The crop is being grown — for the third consecutive year — under rigid marketing quotas which limit sales to production on 55 million acres, divided up among growers. To be supported at $2 a bushel or 84 per cent of parity compared with (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

With or without the cooperation of the Weather Man, the umpire's cry of "play ball" will signal the start of the Detroit Tigers' 56th season today at 2 p.m. at Briggs Stadium.

A dismal report from the weather bureau is expected to cut into an expected attendance of 40,000 brave fans anxious to see right-hander Frank Lary square off against Kansas City Athletics' Alex Kellner.

Today will also mark the opening of the 1956 season for all clubs in both the American and National Leagues.

Windy and cold weather with scattered light showers were predicted after light snow flurries fell on Detroit early in the morning.

The annual pre-game ceremonies will feature Gov. Williams pitching the first ball to Detroit Common Council President Louis C. Miriani, subbing for Mayor Albert E. Cobo, currently vacationing in Arizona.

Detroit third baseman Ray Boone, the team's top slugger, who was plagued by dizzy spells during the last few days of the exhibition tour, has been given a clean bill of health by club physicians and will be in the starting lineup.

Many Tiger fans hold big hopes for the Bengals despite a disastrous spring exhibition run in which they dropped 19 and won 11 contests.

The Tigers were welcomed home yesterday with a parade and civic banquet that Manager Bucky Harris called "the greatest reception ever accorded a baseball team."

Car Fire Claims Life of Boy, 5

Jeffrey Williams Jr. Dies in City Hospital of Multiple Burns

Playing with matches was given today as the possible cause of a blaze in an abandoned auto which claimed the life of a five year old Independence Township boy yesterday.

Jeffrey Williams Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nichols, of 8570 Perry Lake Rd., died in Pontiac General Hospital at 6:30 p.m. yesterday.

According to hospital authorities, he had received severe burns over 90 per cent of his body.

State Police said they were unable to determine how the blaze began, and theorized he may have been playing with matches.

Nichols found his son in the abandoned car, and started for the hospital, but his car broke down near the State Police Post. The youth was transported the remainder of the distance in an ambulance.

Everything Quiet at Truman Home as Nuptials Near

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (P)—There is little apparent hubbub at the old frame house on Delaware Street where Margaret Truman is preparing for her wedding Saturday to Clifton Daniel Jr., New York newspaperman.

Margaret said when she came home last weekend she would just rest. Efforts of newsmen to reach her have failed. She has left the family home only to visit friends.

She is expected to confer sometime today or tomorrow with J.D. Hammon, the organist who will supply the music for the wedding at Trinity Episcopal Church. Her parents, former President and Mrs. Truman, were married there 37 years ago.

Miss Truman has said she wants no singing at the ceremony.

Cold Temperatures Predicted for Area

Colder temperatures are expected to hit the Pontiac area tonight as the U. S. Weather Bureau predicts the mercury to drop below freezing.

Scattered light showers and snow flurries are expected to accompany temperatures tonight from 32 to 28 degrees.

The forecast for tomorrow is for partly cloudy skies for the mercury expected to climb to from 44 to 48 degrees.

The lowest temperature in Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 32 degrees. The mercury registered 42 at 1 p.m.

David Dawson Gets Probation

Ex-Orion Auto Dealer Must Make Restitution of $28,862

A former Lake Orion auto dealer who pleaded guilty March 14 to larceny by conversion of $28,862 was placed on five years' probation yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams.

But David P. Dawson, 32, will spend the first 60 days of his probation term in jail, and make full restitution of the money within five years.

Dawson was arrested last June 23 on a warrant obtained by the Universal CIT Credit Corp., which bought vehicles from the factory for sale by the Dawson, who was to return the wholesale price to CIT.

The firm originally claimed Dawson owed them $87,146 for cars and trucks he had sold without paying for. The warrant charged $28,862.

Dawson lost his dealer's franchise shortly after his arrest.

Besides larceny by conversion, Dawson was charged with embezzlement and concealing mortgaged property. The last two counts were dismissed after he pleaded guilty to larceny by conversion.

The film queen marries the ruler of this little Riviera principality of Monaco in a civil ceremony in the throne room of his palace shortly before noon tomorrow. Religious rites will follow Thursday in the Roman Catholic Cathedral of Monaco.

Friends described the bride-to-be as "looking simply radiant." One quoted her as saying:

"Everything is working out wonderfully. Just like a fairy tale, and even the sun has come out."

For four days rain has poured in torrents, drenching this usually sunny resort on the blue Mediterranean. Today things were more like the travel posters.

SUN COMES OUT

The sun burst forth early in the morning, sending thousands of visitors and tourists to the flag-decorated square in front of the palace. Most of the sky was blue but fleecy clouds hung over the nearby mountains, to the delight of camera bugs.

The temperature was in the 60s. The weatherman said the "prospects for fair weather for the wedding tomorrow are good."

To one of his friends the Prince confided:

"My God, I'll be glad when this is over. What I need is the silence of the sea — with Grace."

Rainier and Grace will sail away Thursday after the religious ceremony on his yacht, the Deo Juvante II.

GRACE ENTERTAINS

Grace was hostess to her bridesmaids at a gay party in Rainier's palace. The Prince, who is living at his villa until after the wedding, was present for awhile, but the occasion was strictly for the girls.

Rainier also was in the background at yesterday's rehearsal for the religious ceremony. He took no active part while Grace and her mother Mrs. John B. Kelly of Philadelphia went through the rehearsal motions.

Both Grace and Rainier appeared nervous but they managed smiles for photographers. The Prince even romped a bit with one of the children who guests and sightseers continued to swell the temporary population of the already overflowing Riviera.

Meany Calls Showdown on Teamsters-ILA Setup

WASHINGTON (INS)—AFL-CIO President George Meany called for a showdown today on the working alliance between the big Teamsters' Union and the independent International Longshoremen's Association.

Meany announced that the issue is being deferred to a special meeting of the 29-man AFL-CIO Executive Council in Washington May 1.

The question which will come before the council is whether the teamsters have violated the AFL-CIO constitution by their agreement with the ILA, which was ousted from the old AFL in September 1953 on charges of gangster domination.

Meany announced the council meeting following a face-to-face conference with President Dave Beck of the teamsters. He and Beck disagreed on the question as to whether the teamsters are violating the federation's constitution.

Beck declared, on leaving Meany's office, that "my position is no different from what it (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

To Expand, Build Ten Substations to Meet Growth

Improvement Budget of $95 Million Set by Utility Firm

A major expansion program, involving the expenditure of $8 million to strengthen Oakland County's electric power supply in 1956, was revealed today by officials of the Detroit Edison Co.

The sum, to be spent to expand and construct 10 substations in the area, is part of $95 million which the utilities firm will spend on systemwide improvement aimed at keeping the electric power supply in Oakland County well ahead of the steadily increasing demand.

Howard L. Canfield, manager of Edison's Oakland district, said the $95 million will provide for continuation of work on the new River Rouge power plant, the construction of 34 distribution sub-stations, the building of new transmission and distribution lines, and the expansion of 18 existing distribution stations.

He added the additions will help insure an ample supply of electric power to meet the needs of 35,000 new customers the company expects to be serving this year.

The company's investment in Oakland, Macomb and western Wayne counties will exceed $20.5 million, Canfield stated.

BOOST ROUGE PLANT

About $40 million of the 1956 construction budget will be invested in the River Rouge plant where one 260,000 kilowatt unit went into operation early this year.

With the completion of two more units in 1957, a total of 230,000 kilowatts will be added to Edison's pool of electrical energy which can be drawn upon from any locality in the company's 7,600 square mile area.

Edison now serves 550,000 in Oakland County and expects an increase of 40,000 this year.

Edison's planning programs are based on company estimates that in ten years the average residential customer will be using 4,600 kilowatt hours as compared to the present 2,781.

One of the sub-stations, scheduled for completion in September, is expected to increase the capacity in Troy Township by about 5,400 kilowatts.

Other increases are expected in Avon, Southfield, Bloomfield Townships and the Oxford area.

Canfield added that capacities will be boosted in five other sub-station areas in the county.

Record-Size Smelt Run Choking Thunder River

ALPENA (P)—Oldtimers said today Thunder River has the greatest smelt run in history.

Bud McDougall, an officer of the Alpena Sportsmen's Club, said, "I've dipped smelt for years and never saw anything like this. The river and the inlets around here are almost solid with fish. A full net comes up with each dip." Hundreds of fishermen were on hand as the smelt run started last night.

Direct Telephone Dialing in Store for Pontiac Area

Plans to put Pontiac's "FEDeral" exchange in direct dial communication with 85 communities in Michigan and Canada were revealed today by local Michigan Bell Telephone Co. officials.

The changeover will go into effect July 8, according to E. J. Novak, Pontiac district manager.

Among Southeastern Michigan areas which will be within direct dialing range will be Detroit, Royal Oak, Ann Arbor, Port Huron, Flint, Monroe, Wyandotte and their surrounding communities.

Windsor, Ontario, will also be connected to the system.

Company spokesmen emphasize that the changeover will affect only telephones in the "FEDeral" exchange. Exchanges in outlying areas will continue to place their long-distance calls through the operator.

Users will be put in direct-dial communication by first dialing the numbers "112," and following with the number desired. Operators will then break in to ask for the number of the caller for billing purposes.

Person-to-person, coin telephone and reverse-charge calls will continue to be placed through the operator, Novak said.

Numbers in local areas will be reached by the present procedure, the manager pointed out. Local areas include Clarkston, Commerce, Drayton Plains, Lake Orion, Mayfair, Oxford, Rochester, Walled Lake and Birmingham.

Users of the service will not be billed for wrong numbers, Novak said, if they are reported to the operator immediately.

The first of a series of meetings before civic and school groups will be launched by Michigan Bell Wednesday to explain the use of the new system.

Polio Vaccine Supply Climbing

County Health Head Says Private Doctors Receiving Some

The supply of Salk poliovaccine in Oakland County is slowly increasing as was anticipated, says Dr. John D. Monroe, director of the Oakland County Department of Health.

Vaccine is being released to private physicians to accommodate patients who have been on the waiting lists for some time.

Dr. Monroe said that it is hoped that vaccine will be available for two injections by June 15, 1956 for all who wish it, but he urges patience and cooperation on the parts of parents.

The so-called "polio season" in Oakland County does not begin until mid-July allowing sufficient time to build antibodies following the injection, Dr. Monroe said.

In answer to many queries concerning third or booster doses of vaccine, the Michigan State Health Department has requested that all vaccine be used for only the first two injections. The aim is to protect as many children as possible rather than boost immunity levels for a few, Dr. Monroe said.

Third injections may safely be postponed until an adequate supply is available, he added.

Nine Indicted in Hat Swindle

Lev Is One of Those Accused of Conspiring to Bilk Armed Forces

NEW YORK (INS) — The government today opened indictments accusing nine persons including Harry (The Hat) Lev — of conspiring to swindle the Armed Forces on a million-dollar contract for hats.

Lev, 34, wealthy Chicago manufacturer and former partner of the Spencer Manufacturing Co. of Mayaguez, Puerto Rico — who once claimed he deserved a Congressional Medal — was named in the indictment for conspiracy. It was his testimony before Senate probes last summer which opened the whole case.

U. S. Attorney Paul W. Williams declared as the indictments were opened in New York Federal Court that at least $36,000 in bribes — plus a nine-cent-foot deep freeze — were passed out to government personnel in return for illegal inside information on contract bids. He said that bribes were also handed out for witnesses in requirements after the contracts were awarded, and to "billed" inspectors who blantly okayed "stinky" hats for the Navy.

The indictments were handed down, sealed, on March 22. All the accused will be arraigned before Judge Noonan on April 26.

Tax Allocation Board Elects Sparks Head

At yesterday's organizational meeting of the County Tax Allocation board, members voted to re-elect Charles Sparks chairman for the year.

Stanley Filkins, Leo Halpenny and Kenneth Brown were appointed statisticians for the board, and Pontiac commissioner Philip E. Rowan was named to board membership replacing Harcourt Patterson.

Other board members include Robert Y. Moore, James Thorburn, Howard Warner and William J. Emerson.

The board's next meeting will be May 21.

RUSSEL S. ROGERS

Rite Thursday for R. S. Rogers

Local Man Contributed to Developing Better Automobile Finish

Russel S. Rogers died suddenly of a heart condition Monday morning at his home at 1090 Voorhees Rd.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Thursday from the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home with the Rev. Paul R. Havens of the First Methodist Church officiating. Burial will follow in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 o'clock this evening.

Mr. Rogers was vice president and a director of the John W. Masury & Son Inc., of Baltimore, and was in charge of industrial sales for the paint manufacturing firm.

He was born in Richmond Jan. 3, 1895 and came to Pontiac with his parents, Alexander T. and Mary Johnston Rogers when quite young.

Mr. Rogers, former paint superintendent at the Oakland Motor Car Co. (now Pontiac Motor Division), was responsible for developing a durable automobile finish.

He was a former vice president of Valentine Co., in the automotive sales division, with offices in Detroit.

A lifetime resident of Pontiac, Mr. Rogers attended First Methodist Church. He was a member of Orchard Lake Country Club, Detroit Athletic Club and F&AM No. 21.

He was married to the former Hazel K. Voorhees in Pontiac in May of 1918.

He leaves his wife; two sons, Richard R. and Joseph V. Rogers, both of Royal Oak, and six grandchildren.

Other survivors are two brothers, Goodie H. and McKinley W. Rogers, both of Pontiac; five sisters, Mrs. Joseph Feneley of Phoenix, Ariz., Mrs. Harry Cotcher of Dallas, Tex., Mrs. Roy Purkisher of Lansing, Mr. Oliver Delker of Detroit and Olive Rogers of Pontiac.

Mrs. Albert Austin

Mrs. Albert (Angie May) Austin, 85, died this morning at her home, 451 S. Anderson St. She had been ill four months.

Born in Maine Feb. 25, 1870, she was married to Albert Austin in Minnesota.

Mrs. Austin had been a resident of Pontiac 33 years, coming here from Dunell, Minn. She was a member of the Royal Neighbors.

Surviving are six children, Clarence, Bert, John and Almond Austin, all of Pontiac; Mrs. Eva Hancock of California, William of Minnesota, 25 grandchildren and 40 great-grandchildren.

Service will be at 3 p.m. Thursday from the Huntoon Funeral Home with Dr. H. H. Savage of the First Baptist Church officiating. Burial will be in Perry Mt. Park Cemetery.

Fred Chandler

Fred Chandler, 85, of 2605 Pontiac Rd. died this morning. He was born in Pontiac the son of James and Emma A. Eldred Chandler.

Mr. Chandler who had lived in the Pontiac area all his life, was a stone mason and a member of Eagles 1250 Lodge.

He is survived by a niece, Mrs. Hazel Bradburn of Pontiac; two nephews, Charles A. Chandler of Pontiac and Louis Bradburn of Flint.

Service will be at 2:30 p.m. Thursday from the Voorhees-Siple Chapel with the Rev. William Hakes of the First Baptist Church officiating. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Sandra Dianna Ward

Prayers were said at 1:30 p.m. Monday in the Huntoon Funeral Home for Sandra Dianna Ward, infant daughter of William and Billie Sue Byford Ward of 48 Close St. Burial was in Perry Mt. Park Cemetery. The Rev. Robert Garner of First General Baptist Church officiated.

Sandra was born Saturday in Pontiac General Hospital and died two hours later.

Fair Share Men Oust Kuhlman

Director 'Kicked Out' for Part in Firing of Homer Martin

Leo Kuhlman, Fair Share Bargaining Assn. director, was ousted from the insurgent group of Michigan dairy farmers at a meeting in Romeo last night.

Leaders of the organization said Kuhlman was "kicked out" when he refused to resign after he had declined to explain his part in the recent ouster of Homer Martin as Fair Share adviser. Kuhlman had been ejected earlier from the parent Michigan Milk Producers Assn., Fair Share spokesman said.

Kuhlman's ouster came at an impromptu session following a milk producers meeting called by Harold A. Fritz, local president, to inform members on the status of a lawsuit pending in Detroit courts. The milk producers seek clarification of their by-laws and membership rights.

Some 500 dairymen from 11 counties heard Fritz, a Romeo dairy farmer, tell of his fight for membership control of the milk producers.

Shortly after this meeting, a crowd gathered around Martin and Kuhlman to question the pair on Martin's ejection following the recent settlement of the Detroit milk strike.

Martin, a former president of the United Auto Workers, said he had been ejected by Fair Share directors meeting in secret session. Several of the directors were unaware the meeting had been called, he added.

Arnold Wiss, a Capac member of the Fair Share group, said three counties have appointed Martin as their organizational director in an attempt to get greater profit for dairy farmers.

The girls gathered around Grace at last night's party agreed to a minor conspiracy to keep one bit of Monte Carlo news away from her. They did not tell her about the latest theft of jewels from some of the wedding guests.

The jewel thieves seemed to be concentrating on the luxurious Hotel de Paris, where many of the wealthy wedding guests are staying.

The activities of the jewel thieves are distressing the Monaco police. They do not want to alarm tourists who account for much of the little principality's revenue.

As a result, there is little information from official sources concerning the robberies.

Restaurant, YMCA Entered by Thieves

City police are investigating two breaking and enterings, Martin's Drive-in Restaurant at 426 W. Huron St., which is owned by Della Martin, and the YMCA at 22 Franklin Blvd.

Entry was gained by breaking a rear window at the restaurant. Quarters and nickels of an undetermined number were taken from a cigarette vending and pin-ball machine.

The YMCA Snack Bar was looted of food with the total loss placed at $4.15. Entry there was gained by a skeleton key after getting into the building through breaking a basement window.

The showdown session on the I.L.A. pact is the culmination of a long period of dissatisfaction with some activities of the teamsters on the part of top AFL-CIO officials.

Displeasure was expressed some months ago over a working agreement between the teamsters and the Mine, Mill and Smelter workers Union.

The latter was ousted from the old CIO several years ago on charges of Communist domination. The teamsters recently backed down on a plan for a $400,000 loan to the I.L.A. to enable that union to pay its debts. Sen. Kefauver Battles Dem Chiefs in Jersey Primary NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—New Jersey began voting today in a primary election that found Sen. Estes Kefauver in a familiar position — battling the state Democratic organization.

This was the third such contest for him in little more than a month.

In New Hampshire and Minnesota, he defeated state organizations which were backing Adlai Stevenson for the Democratic presidential nomination. And he closed his New Jersey campaign with the prediction, "We will win all over the state."

Today's election is not a direct test between the Tennessee senator and Stevenson.

Kefauver's 72 delegate-candidates oppose a slate headed by Gov. Robert B. Meyner. The governor says he personally is neutral, and that his delegation will go to the convention uncommitted.

Kefauver also is on that section of the ballot known as the "popularity contest," where the voters register their preferences for president.

President Eisenhower's name is along on the Republican ballot.

However, since New Jersey voters cannot cross party lines without two years notice, today's preferential ballot did not provide a direct test between Kefauver and the President.

British Tighten Security Clamp

Scotland Yard Readies England as Red Bosses Steam Toward Isles

LONDON (AP)—Scotland Yard called a last-minute dress rehearsal today of the elaborate security arrangements it will throw around Soviet Premier Bulganin and Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev, due in Britain tomorrow morning.

The Yard pressed its biggest peacetime check to put on ice known British and foreign Communist-haters who might try to annoy or assassinate the two Russian leaders during their 10-day official tour.

AREA SEARCHED
Claridge Hotel, where the visitors will occupy a 50-room suite, swarmed with Soviet officials and guards and with British policemen in and out of uniform.

Apartment and office buildings in the area were searched. Their occupants were questioned and more than 1,000 names were taken. Every window looking on the Russians' rooms was chaired. A particularly close watch was kept on refugees from Communist countries.

ELOCUTION LESSONS
Bulganin and Khrushchev, meanwhile, sailed steadily toward Portsmouth aboard the cruiser Ordzhonikidze. Moscow radio gave this description of life aboard the ship:

"There is great interest among the crew in everything connected with England. Officers and ratings (seamen) take part in song and dance groups. Elocution is another feature of the program. The latest, incidentally, includes poems by Robert Burns and some of Shakespeare's sonnets."

Two Soviet aircraft arrived with a load of vodka, champagne and caviar for the functions at which the Russians will return British hospitality. An advance group of Soviet officials also came in.

Election Official Praises Allen for Co-operation

A tribute to County Clerk Lynn D. Allen was read to Oakland County supervisors at their recent meeting.

In a letter to County Corporation Counsel Harry Merritt, Robert M. Montgomery, Director of Elections in the State Department, said he wanted supervisors to know that:

"I appreciate the splendid cooperation the Election Division of the Department of State has had from your county clerk in every way."

Montgomery mentioned that Allen had conducted the first school in the state intended to explain changes in election laws to local clerks.

Roaring Brook Resort Destroyed by Blaze

HARBOR SPRINGS (INS)—The Roaring Brook Inn, a Harbor Springs landmark since the 1890s, was destroyed by fire yesterday with damage estimated at $200,000.

Runaways, 9, 12, Take 'Essentials' With Them

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Danny McElwee, 9, and brother Victor, 11, ran away from home yesterday. A bus station clerk became suspicious when they tried to buy tickets to Shreveport. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. McElwee, were notified.

A check of the boys' suitcase showed: two baseballs and gloves, a homemade butterfly net, Victor's butterfly collection and a jar of live caterpillars.

That's all.

Deputies Investigate Home, Car Damage

The Oakland County Sheriff's department is investigating malicious destruction of property which took place at 884 Round Lake Road, White Lake Township, sometime between 1 a.m. and 7:30 a.m. Tuesday. The land is owned by Clifford E. Johnson.

Johnson's automobile is believed to have been stoned along with aluminum storm doors. The car which had been left in the driveway, was found with the left rear taillight lens smashed and a dent in the hood. Several large stones were found near the scene. Two yard lights were torn out and one destroyed.

The owner told deputies $35 worth of lumber was missing.

Higgins Warns Pike Objectors

Says MTA's Authority Permits Action Without 'Local Consent'

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The Michigan Turnpike Authority says it will determine the route of its Rockwood-Saginaw Turnpike "without local consent" if it has to in the Detroit area.

The authorities said only four communities are withholding approval of the location of the route. They are Detroit, Dearborn, Allen Park and Riverview.

"I hope we won't have to exercise that authority," Chairman George N. Higgins of Ferndale said at the board's meeting yesterday. "But unreasonable objections may have to be overcome in that manner."

Higgins said the legal counsel had advised the Authority they were empowered to finally determine route location in spite of local objections. The Authority also commended the State Legislature for extending its life by appropriating $150,000 for further turnpike studies.

In a resolution the Authority told the Legislature it would "redouble" its efforts to negotiate the financing of bonds for the 113-mile toll road.

"In Dearborn," Higgins said, "we have met with the Ford Motor Co. and are ready to adopt a new location which they have suggested which will take the route away from two churches and a school site . . . the route takes vacant Ford property and I think we can reach an agreement with the city of Dearborn soon."

'Business Day' Stirs Criticism

Tour of Industry by Teachers Brings Blast From Union Official

LANSING (AP)—An AFL-CIO Union official criticized and a chamber of commerce official supported today a "Business-Education-Industry Day" sponsored by the Lansing Chamber of Commerce.

Clifton Fair, region seven educational representative of the United Auto Workers, took issue with a project in which the city's teachers were guests for a day last week of business and industry groups.

Fair sent a letter to all union officials in western Michigan asking them to oppose similar programs in their areas.

Fair said he was not pushing for a special day for unions, saying he was opposed to any group taking over teachers for a day.

Albert Boyd, general manager of the greater Lansing Chamber of Commerce, said Fair's objections were based on "misunderstanding."

"The visitations," Boyd said, "are part of the educational background the teacher must have if she is going to do a good job in preparing pupils for their place in the community. It is an extension course in economics and civics, like a trip to the legislature by a school class."

Deputies Investigate Home, Car Damage

The Oakland County Sheriff's department is investigating malicious destruction of property which took place at 884 Round Lake Road, White Lake Township, sometime between 1 a.m. and 7:30 a.m. Tuesday. The land is owned by Clifford E. Johnson.

Johnson's automobile is believed to have been stoned along with aluminum storm doors. The car which had been left in the driveway, was found with the left rear taillight lens smashed and a dent in the hood. Several large stones were found near the scene. Two yard lights were torn out and one destroyed.

The owner told deputies $35 worth of lumber was missing.

The Day in Birmingham

Troy Commission Again Rejects Zoning Change

BIRMINGHAM — A commercial development on Derby Road received another zoning setback last night at Troy Commission meeting as a Birmingham school official pointed out the dangers of having its 750-car parking lot across from new Derby Junior High School.

Richard Featherstone, administrative assistant to the superintendent of schools here, said he voiced his board of education's opinions as he objected to the development's approval.

A zoning change was rejected 4 to 3 by the Troy Commission after hearing Dr. Featherstone and a lawyer representing the property owner, Patrick Meyrick. Indications were that the Meyrick faction would continue the two-year-old battle to change the zoning.

Besides safety of students, welfare of the shopowners would be threatened with proximity of the expected 12 to 1400 students when the school opens this fall, Dr. Featherstone said.

A few residents spoke on the school and commercial conflict, but the hundreds that overflowed the Troy Hall were present for action on the water assessments.

Lot owners who have not built on their properties were leading objectors to the assessed totals.

The Birmingham board of education meets tonight, and will hear a final review of the salary schedule which was presented to teachers yesterday.

Some details preliminary to Parking Lot A's construction have been tabled again. Continued until next week was last night's hearing at City Commission meeting on the right of way and the paving at the entrance to Park from Hamilton street.

But for the alley from Ferndale to Park the hearing brought approval by commissioners.

An outline for a bus ordinance was referred to the city attorney, who will formulate an ordinance and submit it later. Plans for the municipal building alterations were discussed, but no action was taken until more information can be furnished.

"The Fourth Dimension in Business" will be topic of W. Calvin Patterson's talk tomorrow night at the Chamber of Commerce annual dinner.

A record attendance is indicated by the 110 reservations tallied this morning by Executive Secretary Charles Morrison, who expects still more to come in.

Patterson, a Foxcroft resident who is vice president of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company, will point out that businesses not only have their own welfare to safeguard, but also have a stake in the whole community.

Names of three new directors will be revealed tonight, adding those newly-elected directors to the nine-man board.

XEROS, Cyprus (AP)—Two explosions rocked an oil stage area of the American-owned Cyprus Mining Corp. today, causing slight damage to one storage tank.

A British army patrol heard the first blast and found a small grenade had exploded under one of three tanks used for storing crude oil.

While the patrol was investigating, another grenade exploded under a second tank. Slight damage was reported to one tank, none to the other.

It was the first such incident involving the big American-owned copper mining company. The biggest civilian employer on Cyprus, it has a work force of about 1,500 and an American staff of about 50.

Matoto Rides a Wheel

In the Junior Circus is a clever monkey named Matoto. Matoto does many tricks, but his best one is riding a one-wheel bike. Matoto is dressed up for the act in a funny little hat, a jacket with brass buttons, short pants, and even a bow of ribbon on his long tail. He is careful to hold his tail so he will not get it caught in the spokes of the wheel.

For another circus cutout, color this picture with crayons. Matoto's face and ears are light brown, the rest of his fur darker, but choose bright colors for his clothes.

After pasting it down on cardboard, cut out the circle carefully, and then cut along the dotted line around Matoto, as far down as the center line. Fold the top back along the center line and then Matoto will sit up.

Rock him back and forth and he will move as if riding his wheel for you.

Researchers Use Cancer
Glands to Aid the Healthy

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Human glands invaded by cancer are being used in attempts to supply healthy new glands for other humans.

And the method is promising. It apparently succeeded in 2 of 11 persons for a time at least, said a team of physicians today in a report prepared for the American College of Physicians.

Bits of the glands from cancer victims are grown in test-tubes to get them accustomed or altered in order to live within a different person. Then 40 to 80 of the bits are planted into the arm of a person who needs new gland tissue.

There is no risk of giving the person cancer since human cancer cells do not "take" or grow in another person's body, said Dr. Roberto F. Escamilla, representing a research team at the University of California School of Medicine.

But healthy gland cells in the fragments of glands apparently can survive the transplanting, and produce hormones the person needs.

The research team includes Dr. C. Henry Kempe, who set up the method of culturing or growing the glands; Dr. Leon Goldman, surgeon performing the transplants; and Dr. Gilbert S. Gordan, care for patients along with Dr. Escamilla.

They are working with parathyroid glands, usually four in number, tiny glands located near the thyroid gland in the neck. The parathyroid hormone regulates calcium in the body. Without parathyroid hormone, people develop tetany—jitteriness, numbness and muscle spasms. It can be fatal.

The transplanted glands have been given to persons, mostly women, whose own parathyroids had been removed accidentally during surgery on overactive thyroid glands.

They are bathed for a time in blood serum of the person who is to receive them, in hopes of making them "take" better in the new human host.

Icardi Jurors to Hear Defense

Prosecution in Perjury Case Claims Ex-Aide Directed Slaying

WASHINGTON (AP)—A federal court jury trying Aldo L. Icardi on perjury charges was ready to listen to the defense version of what happened to Maj. William V. Holohan behind enemy lines in Italy Dec. 6, 1944.

The prosecution's version is that Icardi, then an Army lieutenant second in command of a cloak-and-dagger mission headed by Holohan, directed the poisoning and shooting of the major. The government presented its opening statement yesterday.

Icardi, 34, now a Pittsburgh real estate broker, is accused of falsely swearing before a House Armed Services subcommittee that he had no hand in Holohan's death. The maximum penalty for perjury is five years in prison.

Yesterday, Victor C. Woerheide, the chief prosecutor, said Icardi talked out of having to "get rid" of Holohan.

Icardi constantly complained about the major to others attached to the Holohan mission and to Italian partisans, Woerheide said.

The prosecutor said Icardi's complaints included one that Holohan didn't give the Italian-speaking Icardi "enough freedom of action" and didn't ask for enough parachute drops of supplies for partisans.

Capetown Negroes Boycott Bus Lines

CAPETOWN, South Africa (AP)—Capetown's colored (mulatto) residents pressed their boycott today against segregated operations on seven city bus routes.

The boycott was supported by thousands yesterday, the first day of segregated bus service here. Nonwhites carrying antisegregation banners demonstrated at bus terminals.

Bus segregation has been practiced previously in most parts of South Africa. It was ordered here only after the Parliament, dominated by the pro-segregation Nationalist government, finally rammed through legislation removing the colored voters in Cape Province from the white voting rolls. They were the only nonwhites in South Africa with such voting rights.

The building industry accounts for about 20 per cent of the world's aluminum consumption.

Bulgaria's 'Red Wolf' Loses Snarl

By TOM WHITNEY
NEW YORK (AP)—Tough Vulko Chervenkov—the Red Wolf of Bulgaria—got to the top by faithfully executing Stalin's orders and Stalin's opponents.

His career took him from underground work in Bulgaria to Moscow for nearly 20 years and then back to Bulgaria in the wake of the Soviet army. There he rose to be a little Stalin, after death and execution removed his leading competitors.

IT MEANS 'WOLF'

Chervenkov—his first name means Wolf—achieved fame by organizing the bombing in 1925 of Resurrection Cathedral in Sofia—killing 160 people. The bomb was intended for Tsar Boris but Boris wasn't there. Chervenkov had to leave for Moscow.

Chervenkov also played the leading role in the liquidation of Bulgarian Communist leader Traicho Kostov in 1949 as a "Titoist." While Chervenkov sat out in Moscow the years of severe repression from 1925 to 1944, Kostov had led the Bulgarian underground inside the country.

MOSCOW BRED

Chervenkov could almost serve as the prototype of a Moscow-bred foreign Communist leader—accustomed to carry out without question the orders and caprices of the Kremlin.

He was born 55 years ago in a middle class Bulgarian family. His father was an army captain. He became involved in Communist activity when he was in high school and joined the party before he was 20. In 1923 he became secretary of the Bulgarian Young Communist League.

After his unsuccessful attempt to kill Tsar Boris, Chervenkov went to military school in Moscow. He graduated subsequently from the Marx-Engels-Lenin Institute in the Soviet capital, worked on its staff, and in 1937 became one of its directors.

He was an intimate of the Bulgarian Communist leader in exile, Georgi Dimitrov, who gained his fame by his successful self defense at the Reichstag fire trial in Hitler's Germany. Dimitrov became chief of the Comintern. Chervenkov married Dimitrov's sister. From 1931 to 1941 he worked in the party educational section of the executive committee of the Comintern. During the war, he directed the Bulgarian radio station in Moscow.

POLITBURO MEMBER

When he returned to Bulgaria in 1944 he was made a member of the Bulgarian Communist party Politburo. In 1945 he became head of the agitation and propaganda department of the party. In 1949 after Dimitrov, then premier, died, Chervenkov became a deputy premier.

After Kostov was liquidated, Chervenkov was one of the two general of the Bulgarian Communist party.

REMAINED PREMIER

Chervenkov remained in power after Stalin's death. It was not till early 1954 that he lost one of his two jobs—the post as secretary general of the Communist party. He remained premier.

There have been many signs that Chervenkov is in trouble. The Bulgarian Communist Party Central Committee recently charged he was practicing "the personality cult"—Stalinism.

As a matter of fact, Chervenkov tried to be more Stalinist than Stalin himself. He ruled with an iron hand and aroused the hate of many Bulgarians by his subversion to Moscow.

Claim Husband Employed Alias for Renting Box

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dist. Atty. S. Ernest Roll says he has information that L. Ewing Scott rented a safe deposit box under an assumed name three months after the disappearance of his wealthy wife, Evelyn, last May 16.

Roll said Scott had used two aliases at various times and that one of these, Robert McDonald, was used in obtaining the deposit box at a bank. A handwriting expert for the district attorney, Donn Mire, said he had examined the Robert McDonald signature and determined it had been written by Scott.

Roll asked that the Robert McDonald box be opened in the presence of lawyers, bank officials and police. Scott's lawyer, Seth M. Hufstader, said he anticipated no difficulty in obtaining permission to open the box.

First Choice of Auto Engineers

Premium in every way... still at regular gas price

New '56 Blue Sunoco

Used by more Auto Engineers than all other premiums combined

Of engineers who compared it with premium-priced brands:

- 93% say Blue Sunoco matches or excels premium-priced brands for overall performance!
- 86% say it matches or excels premium-priced brands for miles per gallon!

Once again, the most exacting gasoline jury in the world—the automotive engineers who design and build America's great cars—has made Blue Sunoco its first choice over all other gasolines.

We recently invited a large group of automotive engineers to try New 1956 Blue Sunoco, boosted to a new high in octane, in their own cars and give us their reactions. Results of this survey, compiled by an independent, nationally-known firm of certified public accountants, make '56 Blue Sunoco the favorite, by an overwhelming margin, of the men who know car performance best.

43% already users of Blue Sunoco

Of the 1,166 engineers who reported on '56 Blue Sunoco, 43% told us they were already users of our gasoline. This was a far greater number than reported using all other premium gasolines combined—perhaps the greatest testimonial any gasoline ever had!

9 out of 10 say Blue Sunoco matches or excels all other gasolines

The engineers compared Blue Sunoco with both regular and premium-priced gasolines and 90% found Blue Sunoco matches or excels all other gasolines in anti-knock performance, power and pick-up. Of those who compared it with premium-priced brands, 93% said Blue Sunoco matches or excels these premiums for overall performance. Yet Blue Sunoco sells at regular gas price, gives many more miles per dollar.

Premium octane at regular gas price

'56 Blue Sunoco is recommended for the newest high-compression cars when owners' manuals recommend a premium gasoline. Follow the lead of automotive engineers, the men who know most about cars—try New Blue Sunoco in your car. Make your own 10-gallon test today.

The association allocated money to send a farm woman to the Farm Woman Week program being held at East Lansing. A report on the recent party given for the women at the Pontiac State Hospital was given by Mrs. Standish Sibley of the therapy committee.

Members are promoting the sale of "litter-bug" bags, made by the League for the Handicapped. Interested persons may purchase them from members of the Farm and Garden Association.

Dads Feted at McConnell

PTA Hears Psychologist

John Vanderline, staff psychologist from Pontiac State Hospital, spoke at the annual Father's Night at McConnell School.

In his discussion of the emotionally disturbed child, he explained the predominant problem is that such a child cannot cope with the reality presented to him by his environment. He sometimes develops a fear of asserting himself and acts of regression occur.

Mr. Vanderline pointed out to parents that children are durable and that child-rearing will be overcome if the qualities of love and acceptance of the child are present.

He stated that as a child identifies himself with his parents, examples of good character are important.

Gerald Stoner, father vice president, introduced the Parent-Teacher Mothersingers who presented several selections. They were directed by Mrs. Charles Chapman and accompanied by Mrs. John Bills.

Frank Biggers presided at the coffee hour following the recent program.

Countless Gifts Pour Into Monaco

Grace and Rainier Get Animals, Autos but No Appliances

MONTE CARLO (AP) — The diamonds, lions, limousines and other wedding gifts sent Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier could easily reach the million-dollar figure.

When all the gifts are in and counted, the newlyweds will be in position to open an adequately stocked jewelry store, a used—and only slightly used—car lot, an antique shop, liquor store, art gallery, zoo or specialty shop for oddments.

SEVERAL HUNDRED The number of gifts already runs to several hundred. Palace officials, far behind in their cataloging, have little idea of the actual total value.

The jewels and such items already announced run to at least $300,000. These include $150,000 worth of matching baubles from the citizens of Monaco and a $40,000 diamond and ruby item—usable as a necklace or a tiara—from the gambling casino controlled by shipowner Aristide Onassis.

Gifts have poured in from royalty all over Europe, from official representatives of 25 governments, from scores of Miss Kelly's wealthy friends, from every sizable foreign colony, from Monaco officials and from just plain well-wishers.

The palace concierge has been accepting a steady stream of French cheeses, wines, embroidery, handicrafts and such for many days.

ZOO BENEFITS

The Prince's zoo has benefited to the extent of two Canadian beavers, two long-legged cranes and two lion cubs, the latter from the Sultan of Morocco.

Notably missing from the announced list of gifts are such traditional standbys as coffee pots, electric mixers, toasters and kitchen equipment. No complaint about this has been heard from either Grace or the Prince.

Most of the gifts are valuable, or unusual.

Radio Monte Carlo is contributing a phonograph with special fittings in a sort of compass mount so the Prince can install it on his yacht.

SHIP'S WHEELS

French President Rene Coty sent two ship's wheels in rare wood. Rainier's yacht already has a wheel, which presumably is good for a number of years.

Egypt's ex-King Farouk is giving two sixth century Japanese vases once owned by the emperors of Japan. Britain's Queen Elizabeth II sent an inscribed gold and silver tray.

Conrad Hilton, President Eisenhower's personal representative for the wedding, said he brought the President's "best wishes" but no present from the White House. He didn't bring a present from himself either.

The couple is getting a Gobelin painting from Frenchmen living in Monaco, a Dutch painting from the local hotel owners, a painting of the Flemish school from the German colony, a Val St. Lambert crystal vase from the Belgian residents, and a Neufchatel clock from the Swiss.

PLENTY TO DRINK

The Academy of Bordeaux Wines has sent an undisclosed amount of an excellent 26-year-old vintage to correspond with the bride's age. Other gifts of wine would stock any good-sized cellar.

Although the Prince's personal garage already bulges with nine cars, the Council of Monaco bought him a luxurious black and gray Rolls Royce. Racing driver Louis Chiron, an old friend, is sending a French Renault Dauphine.

American residents in Monaco are coming through with a gold inlaid picture frame worth roughly $2,000. The couple also is getting a lot of historical paintings and such items as a silver eagle which Napoleon had on Elba.

The Roman Catholic clergy of the little principality have given a book on married life.

Husbands' Night Party Enjoyed at Cross Home

Mrs. L. H. Cross opened her home on Lexington drive for a Husband's Night party held by members of Alpha Chapter of Beta Theta Phi Sorority. Fifteen couples enjoyed the Saturday evening affair.

Programs Combat Age Prejudice in Jobs

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Many women at mid-life and later have a difficult time. There may be a decrease in income and at this time illness is more apt to strike some member of the family.

Many women of this age are taking care of their older parents and many more have the misfortune of losing their husbands. It may suddenly become imperative that they add to the family income or provide all of it.

Age-consciousness, which is reflected in the classified advertisements, may place them in desperate situations. There is no doubt that though there has been a great shortage of clerical help since World War II, employers as a whole have been slow to employ the woman past 35. Often the age limit is even more ridiculous.

This shortage of office workers has become so acute by 1950 that the Women's Bureau and the Bureau of Employment Security, United States Department of Labor, became interested. In fact the bureau spark-plugged experiments in training the mature woman with refresher courses in clerical work. New York City, Cleveland and Denver tried out such pilot courses.

In commenting on the women who had completed their courses, the Colorado State Employment Service said, "They are now above the average level of ability and are superior applicants because they are permanent, dependable and have a potential work life of from 10 to 20 years if they remain in good health. Before training they would not have been hired because they did not have a valuable skill to offer."

GREENWICH PROJECT

The project at Greenwich House in New York has succeeded greatly. However, because of lack of funds it cannot expand as those associated with it would like. The other day I had the pleasure of visiting Greenwich House and talking with some of the teachers, leaders and mature women who are preparing to go back into the business world.

Several factors contribute to the trouble middle-aged women have in getting jobs. In the first place, most employers do prefer younger workers, although this is gradually changing. Also, the age-consciousness the woman herself has may affect her personality and make her defensive.

Then, too, many of these women have not been in the business world for many years and they realize that their skills have become rusty. When they get a job which they cannot adequately fill this adds to the sum total of prejudice against employing the older woman.

I am writing about this problem today and tomorrow because I hope that it may act as a stimulant to such programs in other cities and also because I think that some suggestions may help middle-aged women who are looking for jobs.

Tomorrow: "Community House Aids Older Working Women."

Age-consciousness is reflected in the classified advertisements.

Grammar Corrected by Neighbor

Woman Objects to Public Criticism of Her Errors

By EMILY POST

Today's first letter tells me: "A neighbor of mine who is a very highly educated person has a habit of correcting me whenever I mispronounce a word or make a grammatical error. I know I don't speak perfect English, but I resent the correction very much when she does it in the presence of others."

"I have not said anything to her about this before because I did not want to hurt her feelings, but it has come to a point where I can't stand it any longer. Will you please tell me how I can tactfully handle this situation?"

Answer: Tell her frankly exactly what you have told me and tell her that you appreciate her kind intention when you are alone with her but that it makes you very unhappy to be criticized before others—who left to themselves would not know how often you make mistakes.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter is going to be confirmed shortly and we plan on having a dinner for about 25 close friends and relatives following the church service. As it will be impossible to seat this number of guests in our dining room at one time, it will be necessary to have two seatings. As parents of the guest of honor, I would like to know if it will be proper for my husband and me to be seated at the first sitting."

Answer: Rather than two seatings, I would like to suggest that a stand-up buffet would be more practical.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it not bad manners to file one's nails in the presence of visitors? A friend and I are having a disagreement over this and would like very much to have you settle it."

Answer: To file a broken nail that is catching onto things would be permissible, but to give yourself a manicure in the presence of anyone whom you consider a "visitor" would be very discourteous. (A member of your family would not be expected to object.)

Plan Greatest School Program

Madison Heights Sets May 7 to Accept Bids for 3 Schools

HAZEL PARK — June 11 is the date set for residents here to vote on a $8½ million school building program.

The largest building program in Hazel Park's history will include a new high school, two junior high schools and additions to elementary schools.

After months of study, the school board made its decision at a special meeting on Friday following recommendations by the Hazel Park Citizens Advisory Committee.

The program includes the sale of Lacy Junior High School so that the property on the corner of John R. and Nine-Mile—the heart of the city's business section—may be used for business purposes.

The new high school will be located southeast of Hoover school on Hughes and Felkner.

The new junior high schools will be built on sites west of Martin Road School and on the Ford School site.

MADISON HEIGHTS—Construction bids for three elementary school additions will be accepted by the school board here May 7.

Plans have been approved for the 22 rooms included in the building plans, 6 at Vandenberg, 5 at Monroe and 11 at Edison.

Approval has also been received by the board from the Municipal Finance Commission and the State Department of Public Instruction for sale of $1,500,000 in school bonds recently approved by Madison voters.

Troy Methodist Church Conference Is Tuesday

TROY—The annual church conference of Troy Methodist Church will be held at 7:30 p. m. tonight at the church. All members have been urged to be present to elect the official board officers and committees of the church.

Rebekahs to Gather

MARLETTE — Rebekahs from lodges of the Upper Thumb will attend the 31st annual session of the first district Wednesday in the IOOF Hall, with Marlette Rebekahs as hostesses. There will be an afternoon session at 1:30, dinner at 5:30 p. m. in the First Presbyterian Church; and a night session at 7 p. m.

At Methodist Confab

MINNEAPOLIS — Twenty-one Michigan delegates will attend the General Conference of the Methodist Church, which opens here April 25. Representative from Oakland County is Ray W. Lobbitt of Royal Oak.

Deep Sea Films to Be Shown for Pilgrim Club

METAMORA—Next meeting of the Pilgrim Club will be held at 8 p. m. Wednesday at the Metamora School, when deep sea films will be shown by George A. Bass.

The club has scheduled its annual mother-daughter potluck dinner for 7 p. m. May 11 in the local Masonic Hall, with all mothers and daughters of the community invited to attend.

On April 24 the club members hold a potluck supper at 7:30 p. m. followed by a program. Hostesses will be Mrs. Mark Russell and Mrs. Merla Russell, with Mrs. Lewis Fishell as leader.

South Hadley Banquet Scheduled Tomorrow

SOUTH HADLEY — The Lapeer-Hadley Chapter of Valparaiso University Guild will hold its annual mother-daughter banquet at 7 p. m. Wednesday in Christ Lutheran Parish Hall.

Mrs. Walter Broecker of South Hadley has charge of reservations. General chairman is Mrs. Fred Donner of Metamora.

Contract to Repair M181 Goes to Saginaw Firm

METAMORA — Contract for resurfacing a half mile of Highway M181 in Metamora has been awarded to A. J. Rehms and Sons Inc. of Saginaw.

Cost of the completed project will be about $48,000, with Metamora village paying about $10,000 and the balance from state and federal funds. Completion is expected by Sept. 1.

Imlay Fire Chief Named

IMLAY CITY—Forest Whitkop was elected new fire chief at Imlay City at a meeting of the local fire department, and Orval Harris was named assistant chief. Whitkop, a former assistant chief, replaces the late Chief Russell Sharp.

ADDITION AT CHRIST LUTHERAN — This is the way Christ Lutheran Church, Airport and Williams Lake Rds., will look when its new addition is completed. The structure will accommodate the growing Sunday School in the basement, and the sanctuary will seat over 400. A $50,000 bond selling drive to complete financing of the $115,000 building is now under way in the Waterford Township church.

Christ Lutheran Church Launches $50,000 Bond Drive

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Christ Lutheran Church, Williams Lake and Airport Rds., has launched a two-week bond selling drive of $50,000 to complete financing for the proposed addition to the present church building.

The program was announced by the Rev. Arvid E. Anderson, pastor. The new structure will cost approximately $115,000. When the drive has been completed, construction will begin immediately.

The structure will be of bessalite block with brick facing and amber glass windows. The full basement will accommodate the growing Sunday School and also serve as a large banquet hall.

The sanctuary will seat over 400. The overall size of the completed church will be 42 by 175. The congregation was started in 1944 by The Rev. Milton Lundahl of the St. John Lutheran Church, Pontiac, and met in the Waterford Community Activities building until that building was destroyed by fire in January, 1947. The congregation then used the Williams Lake School until the present church was completed in 1949. The Church became self-supporting in January 1953.

The Rev. Mr. Anderson has been pastor since June 1950.

Serving on the building committee are Robert B. Edwards, chairman; Felix Anderson, William Kansier, and Raymond Jacobson. Jerry Mejeur heads the financing committee and working with him are William Cobb and Glen Byington.

Lapeer — A meeting of interest to beekeepers is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. Monday in the County Center Building at Lapeer. County Agricultural Agent R. S. Lincoln arranged the meeting after receiving requests from several bee keepers.

E. C. Martin, bee specialist at Michigan State University, will discuss "Spring Management of Colonies and Swarm Control."

Don Barrett, apilary inspector, Michigan Department of Agriculture, will talk on "Progress in the Control of Bee Diseases."

A movie entitled, "Bees For Hire," will also be a part of the program. All beekeepers in the Lapeer County area are invited to attend.

TROY — The director of a missionary station in India will preach at the Troy Methodist Church at both 9 and 11 a. m. services Sunday. He is Henry Lacy, the former business manager of Children's Village in Detroit.

Lacy is now the director of the Ingraham Institute in Ghazalabad, U.P., India. The institute includes co-educational elementary and junior high schools, a teacher's college, a technical school training the natives in agricultural and industrial arts and a medical health center.

The Troy Church, which helps to support Lacy's work, is on Square Lake Road, east of Livernois.

County Calendar

METAMORA — The Metamora Hills Extension Club will meet at 1 p. m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Carl Sawyer. Almost 40 members will meet at 8 p. m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. Jessie Weyer. "The Problem of School Financing" will be the discussion topic.

Ferry-Morse Plans New Research Farm

DETROIT — Ferry-Morse Seed Co. said last night it is establishing a 400-acre research farm at Howell.

Seeds will be sent to the University of Michigan for treatment with cobalt bomb rays before being planted at the research farm. The company expects to produce mutations which will improve vegetable and flowers.

Development of the farm will take about two years. Construction of new greenhouses, irrigation systems and laboratories already is under way.

The research program was announced at a celebration of the company's centennial.

Talent Show Is Planned

NORTH BRANCH — A talent show will be held at 8 p. m. Friday in North Branch school auditorium, with students offering dancing, musical and specialty numbers.

UNVEIL BAND LEADER'S PORTRAIT—The portrait of the late John R. Church, North Branch School's former music director, was unveiled at ceremonies in a recent PTA program at the school. The portrait was painted and donated by Mrs. Doris Ryckman Soldan (left). Mrs. Church stands at the right.

Your PTA Is Planning:

School Painting Donated; South Lyon Unit to Elect

SOUTH LYON — The elementary school PTA here will meet Wednesday, April 25, in the school gymnasium at 8 p. m., for a business meeting and election of officers.

Senior and junior bands and the high school chorus will participate in the program, as will Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, 4-H groups and gym classes.

Mrs. Paul Clark will report on "Advantages of affiliating with the National PTA."

Auburn Heights

Auburn Heights PTA will meet at 8 p. m. at Auburn Heights School. Speaker will be Ray Baker, superintendent of fractional schools. He will explain the need of more money for operating expenses and for the building of additions on both the Avondale and Auburn Heights Junior High Schools; also additions to Stiles and Stone Elementary Schools.

The bond issue is coming up for a vote in June.

Metamora

Newly elected officers for Metamora PTA will be installed May 17. They are: President, Mrs. Wm. Day; vice president, Mrs. Edward Brecht; secretary, Mrs. Benjamin Schenck; and treasurer, Mrs. Roland Brady.

Southfield Picks Commissioners

SOUTHFIELD — Interest in a new charter commission lagged yesterday when only 30 per cent of the registered voters here went to the polls.

Of the 9,585 registered, only 2,845 cast their votes.

The nine commissioners voted in to office were:

Henry DeMeyer, 1688; J. Lee Walton, 1624; Thomas M. Costello, 1531; Edward A. Elsbarelli, 1345; Marvin R. Marsh, 1342; Elizabeth Molnar, 1312; William J. Oliver, 1250; Patrick G. Flannery, 1216 and Russell M. Cullen, 1179.

The area has until June 7 to adopt a charter.

Tigers Open 56th AL Season Against A's

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers Sunday, Kaline, the 21-year-old right-hander who led the major league season today against Kansas City, hopeful that a pair of husky youngsters would lead the rest of the team out of its batting slump.

Only Al Kaline and Harvey Kuenn have lived up to expectations at the plate during a 31-game spring exhibition tour that ended Sunday.

It seems to this sideline observer that never before have so many baseball jobs been open as there are this year.

Take Washington. The club has no pitching, no outfielding, no power, and, half an infield. For any healthy young American who can play ball at all, here is a golden opportunity.

I can name a half dozen clubs with three to six varsity positions going begging. Converted outfielders are stumbling around the bases trying to plug gaps in the outer gardens, staggering under high flies bouncing off the fences.

It's little wonder that morale sags by Fourth of July so many clubs are hopelessly mired in second division with absolutely no chance of finishing in the money.

This is the time of year when disgruntled fans assemble teams composed of players rejected or traded away by their home town front offices. . . . How about managerial rejects? Casey Stengel, bounced by the Braves and Brooklyn, is making good in the Stadium.

There is Lou Boudreau, managing Kansas City. . . . The Indians wished they had kept Birdie Tabbetts in their organization. Birdie is doing fine at Cincinnati.

Charley Dressen is squelching all criticism of Nat trades. Writer said: "I thought you could have gotten a better shake in giving away Porterfield, McDermott and Vernon." Chuck snapped: "We finished a good last with them in '55."

TIGERS' HOPES HOOKED TO KALINE'S HITS

The Tigers are jittery watching Al Kaline. They need his hits. If Al has a bad year the club is cooked. The pitching is only fair, but could mature. Billy Hoelt won 16 last year with a 2.99 ERA. The club has a reputation for coming alive in crucial series.

Remember the last 10 days of the season when the Tigers clobbered the panicky Indians? But in the run-of-the-mine games the team seems to lack spark. It is sluggish until an important series comes along and then it catches fire.

It would take a cold-hearted person, indeed, to begrudge Hurricane Jackson his success in a sport he seems strangely fitted for. The Far Rockaway Fury is doing all right financially with a growing bank account, an annuity and a small piece of real estate fully paid for. He is certainly an unpredictable fighter.

At times he looks like a world beater, flinging leather with abandon, his lips peeled back in a friendly grin.

At other times he is moody, stalking about the ring apparently pouting over some imagined grievance. Hurricane meets Johnny Williams, the former British Empire heavyweight king, this Friday in Washington.

It could be a good fight, but I expect Williams will come apart at the seams when he runs into Hurricane's buzzsaw attack.

Youthful Exuberance

Prep Tankers Beat Collegians on Coast

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—A tankful of Sacramento high school boys are splashing their way to swimming renown by whipping the college boys.

A year and a half ago they matched strokes and dives with the varsity at the University of California at Los Angeles and ended up with 14 points to spare.

Already this season they have sunk the varsities of San Jose State College, California Polytechnic and the College of the Pacific. In 15 starts they've lost only once. Last season they dropped two.

Secrets of Better Golf

By Patty Berg

Some players have personal idiosyncrasies when it comes to the motions they employ just before starting the club back on the backswing with a driver. I am one of these players. Although it may not be part of your swing, it is definitely a "must" for me.

I feel this initial motion—waggle with the hands and forward press with the right knee—relaxes my muscles so my body can pivot or coil completely. It is like warming up the engine a second before putting the car in rear. If it is not part of your stroke, you might give it a workout and see if it eases your swing any.

After this initial motion, the club should be started back in a one-piece motion by the hands, arms, shoulders and body. The club is swung, not picked up or lifted back. You should have the feeling of a weight pulling your arms out and back. Keeping this thought in mind generally aids me in extending my arms through the swing.

The clubhead should be kept low to the ground in your original motion. For the average player it is wise not to hurry the backswing. Remember, a speedy backswing is often wasted energy. Conserve your speed for the downswing where it is essential to distance.

As the club moves back, your weight shifts to the right leg and the left knee bends gradually toward the right knee. This is a natural movement of the body if you are doing it right.

When the club is about waist high, your wrists will start to cock or break. I feel to much

GOOD BACKSWING FOLLOWS NATURAL BODY MOTIONS

In this time around with the Detroit club, Harris managed the club from 1929 through 1933.

Harris said players like Ray Boone, Earl Torgeson, Bill Tuttle and Frank House "are bound to start hitting—the question is when."

The team had a "just wait until we get back to Detroit" attitude on the train from Pittsburgh, where the Tigers closed out their exhibition series Sunday with an 11-9 loss to the lowly Pirates.

But the spring records show that Boone batted only .223, Torgeson only .305, Tuttle .235 and House .255. To make it worse, the combined averages of the other players Harris considers his "starters" figures out to a puny .225.

Harris said he is "disappointed but not worried" about it. "You know these fellows can hit," he said. "How can you figure that all of a sudden all of them just stopped? I just hope they'll start today."

The Tigers could show the exports were all wrong in picking them for a third straight fifth-place finish by improving in two spots: the extra-inning games and the games decided by one run.

Last season Detroit lost more extra-inning games than any other American League club—nine. The Tigers won seven and were involved in more extra-inning contests than any other club.

Their record in games decided by one run was poorest in the league. The Bengals won only 15 and lost 25. Harris figures improved second line pitching will "certainly mean more victories than last season." The Tigers won 79 and lost 75 last year and finished 17 games back of the title-winning Yankees of New York.

Last year at one time or another the Detroit club had Babe Birrer, Jim Bunning, Joe Coleman, George Zuverink and Leo Cristante in the so-called 2nd line—along with some players still on the roster. But those five names are missing as the Tigers begin another season. This season, the Tigers feel some of their "second-liners"—like Bud Black, Paul Foytack, Dick Manlowe and Duke Maas, all right-handers, and lefties Al Aber and Bob Miller—have improved vastly. Then there are bonus baby Jim Brady and Pete Wojty to back up starters Bill Hoelt, Frank Lary, Ned Garver, Steve Gromek and Virgil Trucks.

Lary, a 25-year-old right-hander, got the nod to open the season today against Kansas City in the first of a three-game series at Briggs stadium. Alex Kellner, veteran Athletic left-hander, opposed him.

Roberts Faces Don Newcombe

BROOKLYN (AP)—Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies, who has registered 20 or more victories six years in a row, faces Don Newcombe on the mound today as the Brooklyn Dodgers open defense of their National League title at Ebbets Field.

These strapping right-handers were the major leagues' only 20-game winners in 1955. It was to be the seventh straight opening day assignment for Roberts. He has won three and lost three.

The Dodgers, who ran up 30 straight victories at the season's start a year ago, planned to start rookie Charley Neal at second base. He replaces Junior Gilliam, shifted to left field.

Ted Kazanski, a second baseman, was the only new player for the Phils.

Gov. Kohler to Toss First Ball in Tilt With Chicago Cubs

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A sell-out crowd of 44,000 ticketholders were prepared today for a chilly afternoon watching the National League opener between the Milwaukee Braves and the Chicago Cubs.

The weatherman predicted cloudy skies, northwest winds and temperatures in the upper 40s at County Stadium.

Gov. Walter Kohler was asked to toss out the first ball, with game time set for 2:30 p.m. EST.

Lew Burdette, who never before opened or relieved in a Braves' season opener, was picked as the Braves' starting pitcher. Bob Rush, also a right-hander, was Chicago's choice.

Louis Perini, the Braves' president, arrived yesterday upon his return from a trip around the world and told a baseball dinner audience of 800. "I'll be just a little disappointed if the Braves don't win the National League pennant this year."

The Braves finished second last year.

Robbie Holds 'Anniversary' at Jersey City

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers' first game in Roosevelt Stadium here Thursday will be a kind of 10th anniversary for third baseman Jackie Robinson.

It was 10 years ago to the very day, April 19, that Robinson, the first Negro player in organized baseball, played his first official game.

Playing for the Montreal Royals, a Brooklyn farm team in the International League, Robinson grounded out his first time up, but then hit a home run with two men on base, beat out two bunt singles and another infield single. He also stole two bases and so upset the Jersey City pitcher that two balks were called as Montreal won 14-1.

Earl Shoun, bowling with the Eastlawn Rest Haven team in the Motor Inn House League, rolled a triplicate 166 series. Shoun carries a 172 average in the league.

St. Frederick's annual all-sports banquet will be held Tuesday, May 24.

I worked for miles along that stream, talked to many, many anglers, and didn't find one that had taken a trout. I'll bet there were 500 in the area, and I didn't hear of anybody getting a steelhead."

Pitching Key to Brooklyn's Hopes in 1956

Alston Says His Club Will Be OK if Staff Comes Through

BROOKLYN (AP)—Walt Alston, king of the sovereign state of Flatbush, principality of Brooklyn, wore a thoughtful look today as he prepared to lead his world champion Dodgers into their first combat of 1956.

"If our pitching comes through, we'll be all right," opined the former school master who piloted the Brooks to their first world's championship in history last season.

"It has looked bad generally in the South," he added, throwing just a little.

Possibly he was thinking back to the pre-season statements of his predecessors—Leo Durocher, Barney Shotton and Chuck Dressen. Their problem always was pitching, too.

Big Don Newcombe, the starter in the opener against the Philadelphia Phillies, was a case in point. Newk is being counted on to act as bellwether of the staff.

"But he's been blowing hot and cold all spring," sighed Alston.

The lefthanded brigade of Brooklyn pitchers is vanishing before Alston's very eyes. Johnny Podres of World Series fame, is in the Navy, Karl Spooner has a sore arm, and Ken Lehman, who was the heir-apparent to Podres, job, has failed to live up to expectations.

"We have been hard hit by injuries," observed Alston, "and under the circumstances, a heavier burden has been placed on our youngsters, Roger Craig, Sandy Koufax and Don Bessent."

Favorites Roll Past 1st Round

Seixas, Bartzten Move Up in 22nd River Oaks Tennis Tournament

HOUSTON (AP)—Favorites paced by top-seeded Vic Seixas of Philadelphia advanced with ease in yesterday's opening rounds of the 22nd annual River Oaks Invitational Tennis Tournament.

The two top player, Seixas and second-seeded Bernard Bartzten of Dallas, eliminated their first-round foes by identical 6-0, 6-0 scores. The Philadelphian defeated Alfredo Robles of Mexico City while Bartzten downed Tony Trejo. Gil Shea, Herb Flam, Ed Moylan, Tom Brown, Sidney Schwartz, Grant Golden were among other favorites advancing in the first day's play.

Dick Savitt, winner of the Dallas Invitational Sunday and fifth-seeded here, was to play his opening match today against Thurman Watson of Huntsville, Tex.

Four other delayed first-round matches were also set for today.

Army Calls Warrior Star Cager Tom Gola

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Tom Gola, rookie basketball star for the Philadelphia Warriors and a three-time All America at LaSalle College, was called up for his draft physical today.

Gola helped the Warriors win their first National Basketball Assn. title in 10 years, scoring 732 points during the pro season.

Gola, whose height has been listed variously at 6-6 and 6-7, injured his back while in high school. That may cause his deferment, although it doesn't affect his playing ability. Also, the services usually reject anyone taller than 6-6.

New York Loses Bid for Army-Irish Battle

NEW YORK (AP)—This city, which prides itself in doing things bigger and better than any place else, has lost its bid for the renewal of the colorful Army-Notre Dame football series because it isn't big enough.

Philadelphia, with its 100,000-seat Municipal Stadium and a gross gate expected to top the best New York could offer by $190,000, will get the game instead. It also has been the site of recent Army-Navy games.

He announced his decision after conferring with Mayor Robert Wagner, New York and George York Giants.

ending a 10-year break in football rivalry between the two institutions.

Yankee Stadium, with a maximum capacity of 74,000, was the site New York had to offer, but Lt. Gen. Blackshear M. Bryan, superintendent of the U.S. Military Academy, said he "reluctantly" had to choose Philadelphia because of greater seating capacity and the prospect of greater revenue.

Game time is Oct. 12, 1957.

Weiss, general manager of the New York Yankee Baseball Club, yesterday. He indicated he would confer with Yankee officials about bringing some other Army game to New York.

Mayor Wagner said the situation pointed up the need for a larger stadium in New York. A bill setting up a tax-free authority to build a 30-million-dollar home for the Brooklyn Dodgers currently is being considered by Gov. Harriman and the Borough of Manhattan is talking about a 110,000-seat stadium for the New York Giants.

Lindsay Named on All-Stars

MONTREAL (U)—The Montreal Canadiens, runaway leaders of the National Hockey League all season and winners of the Stanley Cup, placed four men on the NHL's All-Star team today.

The only unanimous choice was big Jean Beliveau, the league scoring champion and star center for the Canadiens. Doug Harvey missed a unanimous choice on defense by three points.

Goalie Jacques Plante of Montreal, the Vezina Trophy winner, won the All-Star goalie berth and Maurice (Rocket) Richard nailed down the right-wing position. Captain Ted Lindsay of Detroit won the left-wing spot.

The big surprise on the team was the selection of Bill Gadsby of New York over Red Kelly of Detroit for the other defense berth. Gadsby edged the Red Wings star by two points.

Kelly had been selected five straight years to the first All-Star team, but a stint as a forward this season hurt his chances of extending the string.

The team was selected by sports writers in all NHL cities.

Five points were given for a first choice, three for a second choice and one for third. The maximum total is 180 points.

Three members of the Red Wings, two Canadiens and one Toronto player made the second team.

Detroit's Glenn Hall won the call in goal, with Kelly and Tom Johnson of Montreal on defense. Ted Sloan of Toronto was picked as center with Gordie Howe of De-

Each member of the first team receives $1,000 from the NHL, and the second-team players get $500.

The teams showed only two changes from those selected in midseason. Gadsby replaced Kelly on the first-team defense and Hall replaced Lorne Worsley of New York in goal on the second team.

Dodge Settles Suit Against Tennis Star

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (U)—Attorneys reported that the $300,000 damage slander suit brought against Horace E. Dodge II by Gardner Mulloy, Miami tennis player, has been dismissed.

Counsel for both sides said yesterday the suit was dismissed after the two parties resolved their differences amicably.

The attorneys reported that Mul-

The state's racing interest shifts to Laurel tomorrow for 17 days.

Johnny Groth Appears Today With A's Club

DETROIT (U)—A familiar face popped up in Briggs Stadium today with the Kansas City Athletics. The A's, themselves, had no idea until late yesterday he might be around.

The face was that of Johnny Groth, one-time baseball golden boy who tarnished Athletics claimed him on waivers from the Washington Senators yesterday.

Groth began with Detroit in the majors and always showed promise of flowering into a spectacular fielder and hitter. He never did.

Groth hit .254 last season and ended up with the Senators in a deal that sent outfielder Jim Busby to Chicago and then to Cleveland.

Cincinnati relief pitcher, Hal Jeffcoat, turned from the outfield to the mound during spring training with the Chicago Cubs in 1954.

Meet the Pro

BOB GAJTA, Forest Lake

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Another student from Al Watrous' school of assistants is genial Bob Gajda the pro at fast growing Forest Lake.

This is Bob's 3rd year at this club along with his capable assistant Knobby Walsh.

It didn't take long for Bob and Forest Lake to get next to the big names in golf.

Last year, his 2nd season at the club, he and the membership joined forces to bring to Michigan the top lady pros in the country.

The Wolverine tournament was so successful that the LPGA has decided to hold its national meet at Forest Lake, June 21-24.

Gajda started his caddying at the Detroit Golf Club in 1929. He turned pro in 1947 when he became the assistant at Red Run.

After two years, he moved on to Oakland Hills under Al Watrous where he stayed for five years before going to Forest Lake.

Bob expects this to be a peak year for his club with the three-year building program reaching the completion stage.

(Tomorrow we present Warren Orlich, pro at Sam O'Shaner Country Club.)

Foes Still Rate Navy Big Threat

'Don't Count 'Em Out,' Tiger Coach Says of U.S. Olympic Hopes

NEW YORK (U)—"Don't count the Admirals out."

That's the word from college rowing coaches who hope to beat Navy's Admirals, the 1952 Olympic championship crew, for the honor of representing Uncle Sam in the Melbourne Games.

The Admirals, stroked by Ed Stevens, never tasted defeat between 1952 and 1954 when they racked up 29 straight in the academy's colors. The fact that they were defeated so early was no surprise. That it was Princeton's green crew to turn the trick was a definite upset.

"The season's young and don't count the Admirals out," said Dutch Schoch, coach of Princeton's upstarters. "The Admirals have plenty of time yet."

Trotters Beat Stars to Clinch Cage Tour

CHICAGO (U)—The Harlem Globetrotters clinched their barnstorming tour with the College All-Stars last night with a 67-59 triumph, their 11th in 18 games.

Tom Heinsohn, All-America from Holy Cross, was the game's high scorer with 20 points. Stars led 19-13 at the end of the first quarter but the Globetrotters went ahead to stay at the half, 39-35.

The two teams, who played before 13,244 last night, meet at Chicago Stadium again tonight. They move on to Cleveland Wednesday and finish up at Indianapolis Thursday.

DISCOVER THE DIFFERENCE IN DODGE!

This isn't just "big" talk. Dodge actually is bigger all around—up to 7.7 inches longer than cars in its own field, 14.5 inches longer than cars in the "low price" field. Dodge is bigger inside, too. More legroom front and rear! More hiproom front and rear! Dodge gives you plenty of room to relax in comfort.

Dodge push-button PowerFlite makes every other way of driving old-fashioned. It's mechanically perfect—the easiest, safest, surest way of driving ever developed. Just touch a button and go!

Dodge is powered for today's driving! Ailerat-type 260 hp. V-8 engine develops tremendous break-away power!

Solid—that's the way Dodge builds 'em! From the frame right on up, Dodge is engineered to take the roughest punishment. EXAMPLE: Box-section side rails provide greater strength and ruggedness than common I-beam or U-channel type used in most other car frames. Crossmembers are extra heavy. Here's solid dependability.

Who says parking isn't fun? Dodge power steering does 80% of the work, takes fewer turns of the wheel than other cars.

You can stop on a dime—with Dodge power brakes. Front wheel brakes have two cylinders, two anchors for positive, predictable stops.

It's America's performance champion! No other car has ever given such proof of superior performance. In a 14-day run at Bonneville, Dodge outclassed American stock cars and European sports cars both—shattered 306 AAA records in all, including 27 world records.

Ike Starts It!

Yanks, Nats Open Season

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER
WASHINGTON (AP)—New York's pennant defending Yankees do battle today with Washington's pink-checked youngsters before President Eisenhower and an anticipated gathering of 28,500 in Griffith Stadium.

Following a tradition that goes back almost half a century, Eisenhower was scheduled to throw out the first ball to make official the start of the 1956 baseball season. The weather forecast was partly cloudy and windy with the temperature around the 50s.

Eisenhower planned to arrive at the stadium 15 minutes before the 1:30 p.m. (EST) starting time to fling the replica of an oldtime baseball into a mass of scrambling Yanks and Senators. The President expected to stay for at least part of the game.

He's a fan, and in the past surprised the late Clark Griffith, the Senators' long-time president, with his knowledge of players and records. Mickey Vernon was an Eisenhower favorite, but the lanky first baseman has since gone to the Boston Red Sox.

Against a Yankee lineup including only one newcomer, shortstop Jerry Lumpe, Washington Manager er Chuck Dressen fielded a collection of big league newcomers season by only three experienced hands, Roy Sievers at first, Pete Runnels at second and Eddie Yost at third.

Six of the Senators were playing in a major league opener for the first time. Among them is Camilo Pascual, chosen to oppose the Yankees' Don Larsen in a duel of right-handed pitchers.

Pascual, who won two and lost 12 last year, has never beaten the Yankees. Larsen, whose 9-2 log gave New York a big push toward the 1955 American League pennant, hasn't scored over Washington since 1953. At that time he was with the old St. Louis Browns.

FISHED OUT—Fisherman Bill Skerlock of Allentown, Pa., turned out for the opening of trout season at 5 a. m. Sunday and when other fishermen arrived at 10 a. m. they found him sound asleep and without a fish. Pennsylvania's trout season opened Sunday.

'Hurryin' Hugh' Hopes to Hurry Again in '56

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Halfback Hugh McElhenny, who ran brilliantly for the pro San Francisco 49ers of the National Football League until a foot injury hobbled him early last season, is going to try to get it fixed.

An operation to remove scar tissue from a childhood injury will be performed Thursday by Dr. Danie H. Leventhal at Santa Monica, Calif.

Allie Clark, who manages lightweight boxer Ludwig Lightburn, is a former New York City policeman.

Rigney, Bragan in Major Debuts

NEW YORK (AP)—Bill Rigney, taking over for Leo Durocher, and Bobby Bragan, replacing Fred Haney, make their major league managerial debuts today when the New York Giants clash with the Pittsburgh Pirates in the season's opener at the Polo Grounds. About 25,000 fans are expected.

Rigney called on lefty Johnny Antonelli for the Giants while Bragan pinned Pittsburgh hopes on Bob Friend, the National League's earned-run leader last season when he compiled a 14-9 record. Antonelli also won 14 games in 1955, but he lost 16.

The Pirates, seeking to improve on their last-place finish of a year ago, have Curt Roberts at second base and Bobby del Greco in center field. Both are up from Hollywood, Danny Kravitz, a .298 batter for New Orleans, is the new catcher.

Hector Constance, Trinidad midweight boxer, came to the United States from England in 1954.

Former Major League Player Dies on Links

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—George Puccinelli, 48, an outfielder with the St. Louis Browns and Cardinals and the Philadelphia Athletics in the 30s, died yesterday while playing golf.

Puccinelli, a television repairman, also had played with San Francisco and Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League, Baltimore, Houston, Rochester, Dallas and Shelby, Mont., where he started pro ball in 1925.

He is survived by the widow, Roma.

Pontiac Prepsters Share State 'Y' Swim Crown

The Pontiac YMCA prep swimmers, ages 9-12, tied with Detroit Northern 'Y' for the state YMCA swimming championship Saturday at Michigan State University in East Lansing.

Pontiac scored 51 points to equal Northern and clinch a successful weekend for the city's YMCA tankers in the Jenison Fieldhouse pool. The intermediate B and A swimmers took 2nd and 4th places respectively in Friday's competition.

Mike Harrington, who has been a winner in every meet this season, won the 25-yard butterfly breaststroke in the time of 16.2 seconds and teamed with Ed Kummert, Bruce Norvell and Tom Eley to win the 100-yard medley relay with a clocking of 1:04.1.

Pontiac prepsters who finished in the running in individual events were Phil Cashion, Jim Velzy, Bob Newman, Dick Richards, Eley, Norvell and Kummert. The 100-yard freestyle relay team of Tom McKinnon, David Sias, Velzy and Newman placed 4th.

The junior swimmers, ages 13-14, scored four points in their division. Jim Gibbs, Ron Newman and Dennis Roberts placed for Pontiac. A total of 14 YMCA teams participated in the state meet.

Pontiac and Northern will share the trophy, each 'Y' holding the prize six months. Medals and ribbons will be awarded place winners.

Film Executive Explains Woes

Columbia Spends Over Year Getting Pictures Ready to Peddle

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Have you ever wondered how a Hollywood motion picture reaches your television screen?

Sometimes it looks as if somebody reached in a grab-bag of old films and slapped the first one he found on the home screen. Actually there's much more to it than that.

PAIN AND PROFIT

Ralph M. Cohn, vice president and general manager of Screen Gems, television subsidiary of Columbia Pictures, described in detail the other day some of the pain—and the profit—involved in release of Hollywood films to the nation's TV stations.

When Columbia announced its decision to release 104 old films through Screen Gems several weeks ago, it was the result of more than a year of planning and research by a large staff. The fundamental decision was whether more profit was to be found in TV release than in motion picture theatres and remakes.

Information and opinion about a large number of films from movie distributors, TV distributors, individual TV stations and numerous other sources over a long period of time were carefully collated and weighed. Meanwhile, about a year ago a large staff of lawyers and assistants began investigating the legal rights involved in films proposed for TV distribution.

VERY COMPLICATED

This is such a complicated situation it's difficult to describe. It involves the rights of actors, directors, writers, composers. Some actors, for example, had contracts stating that films in which they appeared could not be shown on TV at hours when they had regularly scheduled TV appearances. Other actors' contracts forbade TV film showings and their permissions had to be obtained.

In many cases story rights were even more complicated, involving renewable copyrights and tracing the heirs of deceased authors. The same problems existed in the case of musical rights.

As legal patterns of clearance emerged from the work of a staff costing about $150,000 a year, Screen Gems took up the problem of making new films and sound tracks from stored negatives and tapes in order to assure a better TV production of films than often is seen on the home screen. The cost of this Cohn estimated at between $2,000 and $3,000 a film.

NEW PROBLEMS

When 104 films finally were cleared and selected there began new problems of selling to the nation's TV stations. Did you know, for instance, that the South and West go heavily for action pictures, while sophisticated comedies are of secondary interest? In the Northeast, on the other hand, it is the opposite case.

All types of "packages" and varieties of these 104 films were set up for sale to agencies and individual TV stations. Cohn estimates that profits from the films over the next two years will range between $75,000 and $100,000 each.

Hazel Park Resident Receives Probation

Charged with negligent homicide in the Dec. 2, 1955, death of a Hazel Park man, John Bader, 45, of 1999 Goulston St., Hazel Park, was sentenced yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams. Bader pleaded guilty April 4.

Judge Adams placed Bader on two years' probation and ordered him to pay $300 court costs.

Jockey on $5 Show Brings Pal for Help

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—When jockey Billy Pearson shows up for the $64,000 question TV show in New York tonight he'll have California artist Millard Sheets by his side.

This doesn't necessarily mean that Billy will go for the $64,000, but Pearson and Sheets have been friends for several years.

"Billy rode one of my 2-year-olds, Gala Mac, at Hollywood Park," Sheets said last night before flying East. "When he discovered I was an artist he bounded me for information. He is very well posted. I'm frank to say I couldn't have answered some of the questions he answered."
