3 Escapees Captured in Waterford Home

Pontiac State Police captured a convicted murderer and two other escaped convicts from Ionia State Reformatory early today after they allegedly had kidnaped a young Belding couple and forced them to drive them on an eight-hour ride across Michigan.

The convicts were arrested in a Waterford Township home at 3748 Oakview shortly before 6 a.m. today. They were asleep and offered no resistance, according to State Police.

The captures of Allen Smith, 30, of Jackson; Dennis C. Hyde, 22, of White Lake Township; and Gerald Van Hoorelbeke, 20, of Grayling came more than eight hours after the abducted couple reported the incident to the post and later identified their kidnapers from photographs.

Smith is a convicted murderer. Van Hoorelbeke was in prison for car theft. Hyde was convicted of assault with intent to rape a Detroit woman in Springfield Township in July 1963.

They escaped from the prison late Friday night along with convicted armed robber Welton R. Slayton, 21, of Mount Clemens who was captured yesterday by Hazel Park police. All four men had trusty status at the institution.

The kidnaped couple, Clare McQueen, 20, and his 16-year-old bride of one month, Bonnie, told State Police they were abducted near Belding and held captive on a ride to Grand Rapids and Pontiac.

They said they were overpowered by three convicts at the home of Mrs. McQueen's sister, Mrs. Al Pluskhat.

The McQueens went to the house to get some belongings when they were reportedly surprised by the hoodlums who had been sleeping in a barn on the property.

★ ★ ★

The convicts were armed with a rifle and knives at the time. They forced the McQueens to drive them to Grand Rapids to see a friend and then proceeded to Pontiac when they learned the man had moved.

HUNCH PAYS OFF

Smith, Hyde and Van Hoorelbeke got out of McQueen's car in Pontiac and reportedly went to three or four homes of acquaintances before they were caught at the Waterford Township residence.

A hunch by a State Police detective led police to the Waterford Township address.

Assisted by Oakland County sheriff's deputies and Pontiac police, State Police broke the door in and captured the trio.

Smith was sleeping on a couch. Hyde and Van Hoorelbeke were asleep in a bedroom.

Kidnaping warrants were being sought against the three convicts. Five local residents, who allegedly helped the trio, may be charged with harboring a fugitive, according to State Police.

Couple Describes Long, Scary Drive

By LOIS MANDIBERG

"We didn't talk because we were afraid they would think we were trying to cook something up," said Clare McQueen when telling of an eight-hour drive as captive of a convicted murderer and two other Ionia State Reformatory escapees last night.

★ ★ ★

McQueen, 20, and his wife, Bonnie, 16, were allegedly kidnaped at gunpoint in their hometown, Belding, and forced to drive the men to Pontiac.

The couple, who've been married one month, told of walking into her sister's house about noon yesterday and finding one of the men sitting on the couch.

"I thought he looked familiar and I made a joke. But then I saw another guy sitting and a third man who walked out of the kitchen with a rifle and told us to stand against the wall," McQueen said.

"We did just what they said," McQueen, a construction worker, added.

OFFERED CAR

"The men asked for a ride. I offered them my car but they refused saying they would be arrested for car theft," said McQueen.

"The man waved the rifle and Clare agreed to take them to Grand Rapids. I asked them to leave the gun behind and they did," his wife said.

When they reached Grand Rapids the men decided to drive on to Pontiac, according to the young couple.

"When they didn't get out I didn't think we'd ever see another stitch of daylight," commented McQueen, who told of driving a tan 1961 Chevrolet in a six-hour-long, round-about way to Pontiac from Grand Rapids.

NO TALKING

"They didn't say more than two words to us beyond giving directions, said Mrs. McQueen.

"After we dropped the men off somewhere on South Saginaw we tried to find our way home to report our experience to the police.

"But we got lost on the directions the men had given us, so we found our way to the Pontiac State Police post about 8:30 last night and told them the story," McQueen concluded.

Pontiac's annual parade will begin at the intersection of Oakland and Saginaw at 10 a.m.

Arabs and Israelis Battle 40 Minutes in Border Flare-Up

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Arab mortar and machine guns from the Gaza Strip fired today on farmers and soldiers inside Israel and the Israelis answered with machine guns, an Israeli army spokesman said in Tel Aviv. He reported one Israeli was slightly wounded.

While the firing ceased after 40 minutes, the incident served to heighten the feeling of imminent crisis in the Middle East.

The feeling of imminence grew yesterday when President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt announced he would never retreat from his blockade of Israeli shipping in the Gulf of Aqaba.

Israel's premier, Levi Eshkol, declared his army is ready to fight aggression, including a blockade.

The firing on Israeli soil from Gaza apparently was begun by Egyptian irregulars and members of the Palestine Liberation Army.

They are believed manning the front lines with Egyptian regulars farther back.

It was the first such incident reported along the Gaza Strip since the U.N. Emergency Force pulled out of frontier positions last week at Egypt's request.

This account was given: Machine guns and mortars began firing from the Gaza Strip at 12:35 a.m., at men working in the fields of a collective farm and at a motorized army patrol.

★ ★ ★

The Israelis replied with machine guns. The fire was concentrated near Nahal Oz, on the Gaza border about 45 miles southeast of Tel Aviv. Several fields were set afire.

Surprise Shelling Hits Yank Brigade; Raiders Blast Hotel

SAIGON (AP) — Communist gunners hammered at U.S. forces on the central coast in a predawn surprise attack today while others lobbed mortar shells into the ancient Buddhist city of Hue. Terrorists followed up the mortar attack by bombing a Hue hotel housing members of the three-nation International Control Commission of Canada, India and Poland.

Troops of the 3rd Brigade of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division came under attack at 2:30 a.m. while encamped seven miles northwest of Duc Pho, a coastal town 325 miles northeast of Saigon. There was sharp fighting in the same area last week.

A U.S. military spokesman said a company of the 3rd Brigade took about 100 rounds of 60mm and 82mm mortar and 57mm recoilless rifle fire from a Communist force of unknown size. The enemy also hit the Americans with heavy fire from automatic weapons and small arms.

★ ★ ★

The fighting continued until daybreak when U.S. units began a sweep of the area. Late reports said the action continued past midday.

The U.S. spokesman said the Americans had reported killing 29 Communist troops. U.S. casualties were not immediately known.

The mortar and terror attacks in Hue killed four persons and wounded 17, including a driver for the International Control Commission. Although the hotel was about 80 per cent destroyed, the 10 commission members staying there escaped unhurt. No Americans were hurt.

The hotel housed six U.S. Marines, several American civilians and several U.S. Navy Seabees.

Arrests Put Off in JFK Probe

Garrison Says More to Be Made in Future

NEW YORK (AP) — New Orleans Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison says "we are going to have to defer any further arrests" until later in his investigation of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Garrison appeared Sunday on the ABC "Issues and Answers" radio and television program.

He said additional arrests probably will be made before the trial of Clay L. Shaw, New Orleans businessman accused by Garrison of participating in a conspiracy to kill Kennedy. No date has been set for his trial.

Garrison has maintained since Shaw was arrested in March that more arrests would be made.

BOMBARDED BY PRESS

Asked Sunday when the arrests would be made, Garrison replied: "As a result of some experiences we have had—and I certainly don't blame the press naturally, they want to know about an interesting matter like this, but our office was almost put out of commission as if it were bombarded by artillery—we are going to have to defer any further arrests to try and make them at a later date. But there will be further arrests and they will probably be before the trial."

★ ★ ★

Garrison contends that the Warren Commission, which investigated Kennedy's death, was mistaken in its conclusion that Lee Harvey Oswald, acting alone, fired the shots that killed Kennedy in Dallas Nov. 22, 1963.

Garrison summed up his conspiracy theory, which goes like this:

● Kennedy was not killed by Oswald, but by a group of conspirators composed of Latin Americans opposed to Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro and of former employes of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency.

● Oswald was not a CIA agent, but "was obviously an intelligence employe of the United States government."

2 Teens Held in Attempted City Break-In

Two teen-agers arrested early today by Pontiac police faced arraignment on charges of attempted burglary.

Chester Eatmon, 19, of 553 S. Jessie and Patrick Young, 17, of 260 W. South Blvd. were apprehended, police said, shortly after discovery of pry marks on the rear door of the 5-V Gun Shop, 720 W. Huron.

Police were called to the scene about 2:45 a.m. by a neighbor who heard pounding on the door of the shop.

Eatmon and Young were halted in their car by police at a nearby intersection and released, but were followed when investigators noted a crowbar and pick protruding from the car's trunk.

★ ★ ★

Patrolmen David Schroeder and Norman Kilmer followed the automobile and stopped the suspects again at Lake and Gillespie.

Schroeder said green paint-chips found on the crowbar appeared to match paint on the rear door of the gun shop. Police also took a hammer and flashlight from the pair.

Record Traffic Toll Expected

Holiday Accidents Fatal to 346 So Far

CHICAGO (AP) — Traffic accidents over the Memorial Day weekend snuffed out the lives of hundreds of Americans and safety experts feared today the long holiday period might produce a record toll.

The total number of deaths on the nation's streets and highways stood at 346 early today.

Howard Pyle, president of the National Safety Council said traffic fatalities are running about 5 per cent less than last year's three-day Memorial Day weekend. However, he added, since this year the respite spans four days, total traffic deaths barring a trend reversal—will hit a new Memorial day weekend high.

"Reports to this time indicate the final total will fall within the 650-750 range estimated by the council at the start of the holiday," Pyle said. The final count will include traffic deaths from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Tuesday.

2nd Peace Conference Convenes

GENEVA (AP) — After hearing U.N. Secretary General U Thant blame selfish actions for producing the danger of a third world war, lesser Western leaders and a few minor Communist figures start talks today on how to live in pece.

The Soviet Union and Red China were not represented at the second Pacem in Terris conference and many influential Westerners withdrew, some because of the danger of Arab-Israeli war. The conference is named after Pope John XXIII's encyclical, Peace on Earth.

Thant did not single out any governments for special blame. He said practically all the governments directly involved in the major world conflicts are U.N. members but "when they feel that their vital interests are involved or threatened, they are willing to follow their own course regardless of the restraints and obligations that the charter imposes on them."

Thant was one who did not come to the conference because of the Middle East crisis. He spoke on closed-circuit television from New York Sunday to some 200 persons at the opening of the four-day meeting.

PRAVDA EDITOR

Mikhail Zimyanin, editor of the Soviet Communist party newspaper Pravda, was to have taken part in a discussion today of threats to coexistence. After word came from Moscow that Soviet citizens were not to appear, his place was given to Nicolae Ecobesco of Romania, where the Communist government acts independently of Moscow in some foreign policy matters.

Another panelist, Marian Dobrosielski, a counselor to the foreign ministry of Communist Poland, said he was attending "as a private citizen because I think this is worth doing and worthy of more consideration than it is getting from some people in the United States."

★ ★ ★

On the American television program "Meet the Press" Sunday night, Dobrosielski blamed Israel for the Middle East crisis and said the North Vietnamese were ready to negotiate if the United States would stop bombing them.

North Vietnam and the Viet Cong are boycotting the conference. The sponsors barred a representative from South Vietnam as a result.

UAW Holds Up COPE Funds

DETROIT (UPI) — United Auto Workers secretary-treasurer Emil Mazey yesterday confirmed that the UAW has withheld its customary spring contribution to the AFL-CIO's Committee on Political Education (COPE).

Mazey said the union did not forward the first installment of about $25,000 that would ordinarily have gone to COPE by late May.

Mazey said it was possible the UAW would spend money on education independent of COPE in the future.

The UAW secretary-treasurer noted that there are no national elections in 1967. He said COPE has plenty of money for immediate needs and the UAW simply is withholding its contributions pending a decision on whether to make them.

Mazey said about $175,000 would ordinarily go to COPE this year.

Birmingham Area News

Crossover Costs to Be Aired

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission has received a recommendation from the State Highway Department that the city pay the entire cost of two crossovers of Hunter.

The report will be studied at tonight's meeting at 8 at city hall.

In the report is a state recommendation that left turns be prohibited at the Hunter-Forest intersection, but that no traffic signal be permitted.

A further crossover, and traffic pattern changes south of Oakland on Hunter, is included in the plan.

The city commission contends the changes are beneficial to the state highway system and that costs should be shared.

It is recommended that the city and state officials meet to discuss a cost-sharing plan.

Also on the agenda is a report by city legal advisors concerning impounding of vehicles on city streets.

The report states the city's ordinance is valid under state law.

★ ★ ★

However, the legal firm also points out the city is exposed to claims of liability for property damage to vehicles resulting from any harm to a vehicle being towed away or stored.

IMPOUNDING

The firm recommends "sparing" use of impounding procedures.

Vehicles have been impounded on restricted-parking areas and during winter snow problems.

Also on the agenda is a report on a proposed resurfacing of six downtown alleys.

★ ★ ★

The city engineer's office found some of the alleys are in need of resurfacing, but that only a thin layer can be applied due to grade problems.

Total cost would be about $9,000.

Johnson Forces Hopeful of GOP Help on Rail Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Johnson administration supporters are looking to Republicans on the Senate Labor Committee to supply votes needed for approval of the President's plan to avert a threatened railroad strike.

It will take nine votes to get the President's bill out of the committee. Administration strategists hope GOP members will supply five of these, perhaps six.

★ ★ ★

Several of the 10 Democrats on the panel have indicated strong reservations about the plan in view of bitter opposition to it from the six shopcraft unions involved in the entire AFL-CIO.

The bill is before the Labor subcommittee, which plans to start work on it in closed session June 5.

AMENDMENTS

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., the subcommittee chairman, told a reporter he expects many amendments to be offered and said he might have some himself.

On the House side, the measure is being handled by the Commerce Committee. Several Democrats on that committee also have voiced reservations about the bill.

The strike deadline in the dispute has been postponed twice through adoption of interim measures by Congress. The strike could begin June 19.

Johnson's proposal calls for a further delay of 90 days with intensive mediation efforts through this period. But if no settlement can be reached, the recommendations of a special five-member board to be set up under the bill would become binding for as long as 15 months.

CONFIDENT

Administration lobbyists say they are confident of five Republican votes on the Senate panel and may win that of the other Republican member, Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York.

Javits has said he may have no alternative but to vote for it, even though he feels it clearly amounts to compulsory arbitration. Administration officials insist it is not.

★ ★ ★

But the New Yorker said he wants to explore other possibilities, including limited seizure of the railroads by the government.

20 Questioned in Stock Probe

Rigging Investigation Is Expanding Rapidly

NEW YORK (AP) — Some 20 brokerage house employes are being questioned by investigators looking into allegations of multimillion-dollar manipulations of certain stock exchange issues.

The brokerage salesmen, employed by more than a dozen firms in New York and Chicago, are being asked if they were offered or accepted cash bribes, or submitted to blackmail threats, by the reputed stock riggers who sought to generate public buying in the issues. Some of the men already have been fired or suspended by their firms.

It was understood that the interrogations were being conducted by the stock exchanges with which they are affiliated and, in some cases, by a federal grand jury here.

The investigation, moving forward on several fronts, is being rapidly expanded. At least two New York Stock Exchange issues now are under scrutiny along with a larger group traded on the American Stock Exchange.

RIGGING SCHEMES

Probers said the reputed rigging schemes are continuing and are costing brokers and investors uncalculated millions of dollars.

In addition to the grand jury and major stock exchanges, the situation is being looked at by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Chicago Police Department.

★ ★ ★

One prominent Chicago broker, partner in a member firm of the New York Stock Exchange, received a death threat by telephone after suspending a salesman who was being questioned. The salesman later was reinstated.

Supreme Court Extends Police Evidence Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court, in a precedent-shattering ruling today voted 8-1 to give police more power to seize evidence from a suspect's home and use it at his criminal trial.

In making the move, the high court threw out a 46-year-old distinction between "more evidence," which the 1921 Supreme Court had held may not be seized, and other forms of evidence which police have been free to take when in "hot pursuit" of a suspect.

In other rulings today, the court:

● Ruled that an American's citizenship cannot be taken away without his consent.

"In our country, the people are sovereign and the government cannot sever its relationship to the people by taking away their citizenship, Justice Hugo L. Black said in the landmark 5-4 decision.

● Held unconstitutional a voter-approved amendment to the California State Constitution that gave property owners "absolute discretion in housing" sales and rentals.

● Denied a plea by Adam Clayton Powell that it rule quickly on his claim that he was unconstitutionally excluded from his seat in the U.S. House of Representatives.

● Granted Alabama a review of a lower court ruling that had ordered desegregation of all prison facilities in the state within a year.

By agreeing to hear the appeal from the decision given last December by a three-judge federal court in Montgomery, the court continued to hold up the ordered desegregation of jails in the state.

The water department building is located at the Civic Center off Tubbs Road.

It's spring and the prisons have sprung.

A total of 17 men walked away from five federal and state institutions during the weekend, apparently spurred to freedom by the balmy air.

★ ★ ★

The list of escapees included nine from Ionia State Reformatory, four from the Federal Correctional Institution at Milan, two from Waterloo State Prison farm near Jackson, and one each from Coldwater State Hospital and the Boys Training School at Lansing.

10 ROUNDED UP

The springtime spree was over quickly for 10 of the escapees who were captured by police. Searches continued over a wide area of Michigan for the seven still at large.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac seemed to be a magnet for some of them, as five were found at homes of friends there and another was picked up 15 miles away in Hazel Park.

★ ★ ★

Four others were caught seven miles from Ionia State Reformatory from which they had escaped.

Local Police Nab 2 Prison Escapees

Two escapees from the Waterloo state prison farm near Jackson were captured early today by Pontiac police who forced their way into an apartment on the city's near east side.

★ ★ ★

Walter Graham, 23, and Malcolm McNeil, 33, were held at the Oakland County Jail on escape charges pending their return to Jackson.

★ ★ ★

Prison authorities said the pair had walked away from the Waterloo farm last night. Local police, acting on a telephone tip, took the two into custody at 377 E. South Blvd.

★ ★ ★

Graham was serving a 6½-to-15-year sentence for assault with intent to rob and McNeil was serving a 1-to-15-year sentence for breaking and entering.

STANDING TALL — Larry Jensen, a 6-foot-5½ Navy medical corpsman was to go to Vietnam to help provide medical support for Marines. But the Marines couldn't find a Leatherneck field uniform big enough to fit him, so he's back in Detroit with his wife, Claudette, waiting while a special uniform is made. The problem isn't his height or his weight (245 pounds), it's his sleeves. They're 38 inches long.

U.S. Marines Don't Suit Navy Man Bound for Viet

DETROIT (AP) — Medical Corpsman Larry Jensen is fit for duty, all right. But the Marines are having difficulty finding a uniform fit for Jensen.

So Jensen, known to his buddies as "the gentle giant," is back home with his pregnant wife, Claudette, until the Leather-neck tailors can whip up a suit of clothes for him.

Jensen isn't really much of a giant—he's only 6 feet 5½ and he tips the scales at a mere 245 pounds. But his arms are a bit of a problem. They're 38 inches long and hang almost to his knees.

Jensen actually is in the Navy, but Navy medical corpsmen provide combat support for Marines in Vietnam and are outfitted with Marine uniforms.

TRAINS IN DUNGAREES

The gentle giant went through a five-week training course at Camp Pendleton, Calif., wearing Navy dungarees. At the end of the five weeks, still without a uniform, he watched his buddies ship out for Vietnam.

Jensen convinced commanding officers the 45 to 60 days until a special uniform is made could be better spent with Claudette than picking up cigarette butts.

The 26-year-old medical corpsman volunteered for medical duty in Vietnam. Although he admits he's concerned about going into combat, he considers it a duty.

"Kids 17 and 18 years old are getting their arms and legs blown off over there," Jensen says. "The least I can do is try to patch them up and, hopefully, save someone's life."

Senate Eyes Viet, Middle East

WASHINGTON (AP) — While Senate opinion continued to mount against unilateral U.S. military intervention in the Middle East crisis, a top defense official warned there are indications sharply increased fighting will come soon in Vietnam.

Cyrus R. Vance, deputy secretar of defense, implied such a step-up in Vietnam action would be started by the Communists. He said, "I think there are strong indications that we may have sharply increased fighting in the demilitarized zone, around the demilitarized zone, and probably concurrent actions throughout the rest of South Vietnam in the near future."

He said "we believe we can handle anything that may come up at this time" with the 455,000 U.S. troops now in Vietnam and others who are on the way. He said future troop levels are still under consideration.

He said the concept of closing off the North Vietnam-South Vietnam border with obstacles and sensor devices "makes more sense today, despite its cost, than it did two years ago."

NO NECESSARY CONNECTION

Vance would not be drawn into any substantive discussion of the Middle East situation but said he sees no necessary connection between it and the Vietnam war.

The senatorial comment on the Middle East was freer.

★ ★ ★

Sens. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., said the United States should not let Israel fall "without doing everything it could to save her."

Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., said if the destruction of Israel is threatened, "I don't think the United States should let it happen."

Percy called for "everything short of physical force" to find a solution while Javits said he hoped U.S. troops would not be required. All three opposed unilateral action and recommended a solution through the United Nations.

'WON'T GO IT ALONE'

So did Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., who said the United States "must give loud and clear notice in advance that we will not go it alone" in the Middle East dispute. "We are not and cannot become the sole policeman of the entire world," he said.

Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., said it would be unfortunate to force Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser to a premature confrontation. He said he hopes some U.N. presence can be reconstituted in the Middle East.

Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., said it is clear that "the restraint of further aggression in that part of the world is more important to our future security and well-being than it is in the Far East."

Roseville Man, 50, Found Fatally Shot

DETROIT (AP) — A 50-year-old Roseville man was found shot to death next to his car in an alley in Detroit Sunday.

Detroit homicide detectives said the victim, Max Oravec, had also been beaten on the head.

2 Youths Fined

ROSEVILLE (AP) — Two Roseville youths who reportedly threw a cherry bomb into a group of mourners in front of a Roseville funeral home have pleaded guilty to possessing fire crackers and alcoholic beverages. Larry J. Parenteau, 20, was fined $124 Saturday by Harrison Township Justice of the Peace Edmund Schmidt. Michael J. Russell was sentenced to 12 days in jail when he could not play his $82.50 fine.

Board Action Ends Serenity in Avondale

By JEAN SAILE

The relative serenity which has cloaked Avondale Board of Education sessions since the employment of John W. Dickey as superintendent a year ago has been shattered.

At a special meeting called to accept the recommendations of architects in regard to the construction of resource centers in the elementary schools, the board took the opportunity to rescind its plan for extended-day sessions next year at the Avondale Senior High School.

★ ★ ★

The action has caused:

- A write-in campaign against school board incumbent Jessie H. Holmes at the June 12 election.
- It has set off a flurry of rumors that Dickey would resign. Dickey has denied them.
- It has left the board with several alternatives but no concrete plan to provide 10 needed additional classrooms for next year.

"It's the uncertainty of the whole thing," said Robert Lewis, an active PTA member and announced write-in candidate against Holmes in the forthcoming election.

"The students don't know where they'll be attending classes next fall. Nobody knows which children will be affected or where the money will come from to provide the classrooms," he continued.

At issue is the May 8 decision by the board to place the senior high school on extended day sessions. Students in the 11th and 12th grades would have attended morning sessions and the 9th and 10th grade students would have gone in the afternoon. Ninth graders currently attend the junior high school.

★ ★ ★

The plan was one proposed by Dickey, who said he realized at the time of its adoption it had not met with full-hearted acceptance by the board.

POSSIBLE ALTERNATIVES

He stressed that prior to the special meeting he had briefed the board on possible alternatives to the plan of extended day sessions.

"It's not the first time a board of education has overruled a superintendent's plan, and it won't be the last," said Dickey. "I am not at all unhappy with their decision."

On record as opposed to the repeal of the extended-day plan are board president Ray Isanhart and Jack Slater. Slater is also due for reelection June 12. He is unopposed.

Avondale, which this year has had its money problems with the Municipal Finance Commission and which still has its case under appeal, is now seeking further concessions from the State Department of Education.

PORTABLE CLASSROOMS

Dickey said a letter had been sent to Ralph Frostic, education consultant for the school bond loan fund program, seeking permission to divert some of the funds voted for a new high school and Board of Education officers to the purchase of relocatable classrooms.

Dickey said he'd been told that chances were good for approval.

Cost of ten such classrooms is estimated at $150,000.

★ ★ ★

"We are in a building program and from present indications we will continue to be for some time," Dickey said. "These rooms could be used for a number of years to meet the expansion needs of the district," Dickey said. "These rooms could be used for a number of years to meet the expansion needs of the district."

RESOURCS CENTERS

Other alternatives proposed include the leasing of available church rooms, the use of activities and multi-purpose rooms in existing schools, and the use starting in January of the resource centers now under construction.

"The rub in such plans," said Dickey, "is the need for additional operating millage to run additional classrooms."

"We had planned to ask for no additional operating millage this year; to make do with surplus funds which have not yet been appropriated," he said.

★ ★ ★

Also under consideration is the use of the present junior high school site of better than 58 acres for construction of the new high school.

BID DROPPED

Dickey said a bid on another location has been dropped because of the expense involved.

"If we use the junior high school site, we could possibly use site money for the purchase of classrooms," Dickey said.

The board is expected to hear by Wednesday regarding the state's view of the diversion of bonding funds.

★ ★ ★

"Until we hear we will not be able to take further action," Dickey said.

Dam In Holly Township Forms Lovely Lake, Good Shore Line

Tax Vote Delay Seen in W. Bloomfield Twp.

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A special vote to increase property taxes here will not be held before this fall because of a lack of time to get the issue on an August ballot, according to township officials.

An August vote was necessary in order to collect the extra tax this year, but a citizens committee has decided there is not enough time to gather facts and compile figures.

"In order to get it on an August ballot, we would have to have everything ready by July and that isn't enough time," said Clerk Doris Leach.

"We want to do a good selling job because we don't want it to fall through again."

★ ★ ★

She said citizens and officials will work through the summer to gather facts and figures.

TOOK DEFEAT

In April, 1966, voters defeated by 75 votes a 2-mill increase for added police and fire protection.

This brings officials to another problem — how to present the proposal.

Should the millage increase be presented as one package or in three separate issues — one for police, one for firemen and one for roads?

"The thinking on the separate issues is that if voters turned down one proposal, the others wouldn't necessarily fail," said Mrs. Leach.

She explained the money is needed for, among other things, capital outlay items such as equipment for the police and fire departments.

She said there is no money included in this year's budget for such items as fire trucks "which are badly needed."

One mill, which was voted in five years ago, will expire after the December tax collection.

Deficit Budget Tentatively OK'd

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A tentative budget, which carries an $80,000 deficit, has been approved by the Township Board.

A public hearing must be held before the budget is adopted but no date has yet been set.

Expenditures in the tentative budget amount to $587,291 while anticipated revenues total only $507,930.

Largest increases over last year are in salaries and benefits for the police and fire departments. Total police department salaries went from $62,000 last year to $101,900 this year and benefits were increased from $8,900 to $17,318.

Fire department salaries were increased from $40,500 to $47,850 and benefits from $3,500 to $9,218.

10 PCT. RAISES

The increases included 10 per cent raises for everyone plus three new policemen hired last fall and enough money to hire two more men.

All employes received about a 10 per cent increase.

Other items in the budget include supervisor's office, $63,379; clerk's office, $29,338; elections, $3,340; treasurer's office, $34,235; general government, $48,550; police department, $155,118; fire department, $107,400; building department, $71,082; town hall, $5,490; roads, $15,000; and library, $54,335.

Attica Twp. Mishap Kills Imlay Youth

ATTICA TOWNSHIP — A 19-year-old Imlay City youth was killed when his car skidded out of control on M21 near Sommers at 2:45 a.m. today.

Dead is Dale E. Crake, 19, of 2826 Black's Corner.

A girl passenger in his car, Frances K. Hill, 17, of 642 Lake Pleasant, Attica, is in critical condition in Hurley Hospital, Flint.

Sheriff's deputies said the car apparently went out of control after leaving a curve at high speed.

The car left the road, crossed a field to a railroad embankment, leaped the tracks and ended upside down on the opposite side, deputies said.

Climate Control a Part Protector

SANTA CRUZ, Calif (AP) — Sylvania Electric Products Inc., has a "climate control room" which maintains a consistent temperature, within one degree Farenheit, to protect delicate electronic parts being processed to tolerances as minute as one-tenth the diameter of a human hair.

Normal temperature variations could cause expansion or contraction of intricate metal components used in electronic systems.

This would make it impossible to meet specifications sometimes as close as 90 millionths of an inch.

Heads Dairy Unit

DETROIT (AP) — Jack W. Barnes of Royal Oak, general manager of the Michigan Milk Producers Association, has been elected president of the newly organized Dairy Council of Michigan.

MSU Quits Ice Cream, Cheese Business

EAST LANSING (AP) — They're taking some of the moo out of Moo U.

The Michigan State University dairy store, long a favorite ice cream and cheese-buying spot for students and alumni, will close July 1.

★ ★ ★

Officials say the closing is for "redirection of the dairy plant program of the Department of Food Science."

Dairy store customers say it's sad.

They won't be able to buy ice cream cones — two scoops for 15 cents — or that delicious cheeselike confection called frumil or milk and butter from the MSU dairy herd.

RESULTS OF EXPERIMENTS

Products from the dairy plant first went on sale about 35 years ago. They were the results of experiments — all edible of course — and excess milk and butter produced for campus consumption.

Five years ago the store sold 400-500 ice cream cones a day.

The total leaped to the current 1,200-1,500 cones a day as more and more students tromped to new class buildings on the south campus.

But those same students, about 38,000 now enrolled at Michigan State, are part of the reason for the store's closing.

★ ★ ★

The dairy plant produces milk and related items for the MSU dormitories. That takes lots of bulky equipment and manpower.

"By halting production of milk for the campus community, we'll be able to free the equipment for more teaching and research work," explained Dr. B. S. Schweigert, chairman of the Department of Food Sciences.

★ ★ ★

"And that is the major responsibility of this department."

IT WON'T LAST — Barbara Cole (right) of 9020 Marilyn, Commerce Township, enjoys the ice cream at Michigan State University in East Lansing while it lasts. The MSU dairy store plans to close the dairy store where the four-deckers are sold on July 1. With Barbara is Jan Soderstrum of Harper Woods.

Holly Twp. Looks West to New Lake

HOLLY TOWNSHIP — A large new lake has been formed by a dam on the western edge of the township and now appears ready for future development.

Les Cotrill, a developer from Flint, built the dam at Tinsman and Eddy Lake, to form a 180-acre lake — to be called Seven Lakes.

The land was previously covered by smaller lakes, bogs and farmland.

Cotrill said earlier this year he may sell the whole package to a single enterprise or develop it as a subdivision himself.

Township officials have hailed his effort as important to the area's development.

EXPECTED TO FILL

The water behind the dam appears to be about a foot short of 882 feet above sea level planned. However, it is expected to fill completely later.

Gone are all the boggy areas and the land surrounding now appears to be a dry, usable shoreline. The lake has several deep spots up to 56½ feet where former lakes are located.

Hearing Slated on Troy Airport

Commission Notified of Lansing Session

TROY—The City Commission has received official notice that a public hearing will be held June 12, at 10 a.m. in Lansing on the Jim Robbins Airport issue.

The notice is included on the agenda for tonight's commission meeting at 8 at the municipal building on Big Beaver and I-75.

The airfield at 14 Mile and I-75 has been the focal point of controversy due to the attempt by its owners to get a commercial license.

Nearby subdivisions have opposed the move charging too much noise was created, especially by jet aircraft.

Last month the city passed an ordinance restricting expansion of any of the three airfields within its boundaries.

JURISDICTION QUESTIONED

However, the jurisdiction of the city in airfield matters was questioned by at least one state official.

The Michigan Aeronautics Commission (MAC) will conduct the June 12 hearing and is expected to announce its study on safety hazards in the area.

The MAC is expected to listen to representatives of the airfields, city and state officials.

It is not known if city residents will be allowed to speak.

An airfield license would also have to get approval of the Federal Aviation Agency.

Dance Workshop at Wayne State

The University Center for Adult Education of Wayne State University, the University of Michigan and Eastern Michigan University and the division of health and physical education at Wayne State University will sponsor a summer dance workshop June 26 through July 8.

Classes will be held in the Matthaei Building at MSU from 1 to 4:30 p.m. and 6 to 9:30 p.m. June 26-30 and July 3, 5-8.

Enrollment is limited and applications must be made by Thursday.

FARMINGTON — The Soroptimist Club of Farmington and Novi will undertake a new program next year—a Town Hall series.

Four well-known personalities will speak at the program which will be held at the Northland Theatre starting next October.

Proceeds from the series are to be donated to the Farmington YMCA capital building fund.

Following each lecture, luncheons will be held at the Glen Oaks Golf and Country Club, 30500 13 Mile. The guest speaker of the day will hold a question and answer period following the luncheon.

Opening the series on Oct. 26 will be Walter Slezak, star of stage, screen, radio and television, who will speak on "Show Business Is No Business."

On Nov. 16 Genevieve Antoine Dariaux, director of the Paris fashion house, Nina Ricci, will discuss "Tips From A Paris Fashion Expert."

Bess Myerson, former Miss America and star of several television programs, will speak March 21, 1968 on "Women's Place in a Changing World."

Red Buildup Hints Worst Battles Ahead

SAIGON (AP)—Communist military forces are openly challenging American positions in two key Vietnamese border regions. They are building up their units inside the country, preparing for what may be the severest battlefield test the allies have faced in the war.

This view is based on battles in May and intelligence estimates of enemy movements and troop deployments inside South Vietnam in recent weeks.

★ ★ ★

The main battle focus has been along the demilitarized zone that divides the two Vietnams, and more recently in the central highlands near the Cambodian border.

But Red units are known to be on the move elsewhere.

9TH DIVISION

The half North Vietnamese-half Vietcong 9th Division, thrashed by allied units in February's Operation Junction City and driven into Cambodia, is known to have moved back into Vietnam.

One regiment is believed based in the southern part of War Zone D north of Saigon, protected by an artillery company that slammed Chinese-made 122mm rockets into Bien Hoa Air Base early in May. These rockets bring Saigon within reach of enemy artillery-type weapons.

★ ★ ★

The Vietcong 5th Division is reported well up to strength and deploying along the jungled coast due east of Saigon. The U.S. 11th Armored Regiment got notice of this a week ago when an armored platoon was practically destroyed in 15 minutes on Route 1 near Xuan Loc.

The U.S. 9th Division, deployed in the northern Mekong River Delta, fought its biggest battle early this month, claiming 181 VC killed from the hardy 514th Battalion. A day earlier a company of the 9th was overrun, with losses of 19 dead and 47 wounded.

VICIOUS FIGHTING

American sources report they have evidence that the Vietcong are infiltrating the complete range of modern Chinese infantry weapons to hard-core guerrilla battalions and main force units in the delta. If this is so, American units there can expect vicious fighting ahead, particularly now that the monsoon rains are beginning.

In two battle areas, the always-present enemy threat has materialized into the real thing. These are at the demilitarized zone, and the Cambodian border of Pleiku Province in the central highlands.

In late April and early May, North Vietnamese attempted to occupy strategic hills above the Marine strongpoint at Khe Sanh below the western demilitarized zone. A bloody series of battles ensued before the Communists were driven back.

★ ★ ★

Then came the attempted encirclement of the Marine strong point of Con Thien which sits at the northwestern point of "Leatherneck Square" just south of the eastern demilitarized zone. The battles for this area are still going on, and there is evidence of a renewed Communist effort in the Khe Sanh hills.

'SECOND FRONT'

The North Vietnamese have opened what appears to be a "second front" on the Cambodian border west of Pleiku. Four of the six North Vietnamese infantry regiments that have been sitting on the border since Christmas have reportedly moved into the central plateau. The U.S. Army's 4th Division has made several vicious contacts with these forces. Its intelligence people say they detect no signs that the North Vietnamese are returning to Cambodia.

Not all the military initiative in May lay with the Communists. The U.S. Army moved north into the former Marine base of Chu Lai and began Operation Oregon in southern Quant Ngai Province. U.S. intelligence reports indicate no less than one North Vietnamese division and five regiments are based there.

Grand Jury Limit Strikes at System

Do our constitutional provisions regarding one-man grand jury investigations best serve the taxpayer?

The entire one-man grand jury system has been a topic of debate in recent years. Some feel it places too much power in the hands of one juror. Some point to it as the only effective way to combat organized crime when other police methods fail.

A ruling last week by the Michigan Court of Appeals has halted an Oakland County one-man grand jury investigation being conducted by Circuit Judge Philip Pratt. The appeals court issued an order killing a subpoena issued by Pratt against a Madison Heights druggist.

The ruling was apparently based on a constitutional provision that limits the length of a one-man grand jury to one year. In other words, the same grand juror, in this case Judge PRATT, cannot head consecutive grand juries investigating the same general area of suspected criminal activity.

Does this constitutional provision, in effect, cheat the taxpayer? Judge PRATT headed a grand jury which first focused on illegal activities in Royal Oak Township and then expanded to include Oakland County. That grand jury ran from June 1965 to June 1966.

Last August State Attorney General FRANK KELLEY petitioned for another grand jury investigation into the charges of illegal activities centering around the Hazel Park Race Track. Oakland County Circuit Judges again named PRATT to head it.

This second grand jury, which has just been terminated, was like its predecessor, expanded to include all of Oakland County last September.

Such investigations cost money. The first grand jury probe cost taxpayers $33,047. Costs for the second probe to date have not been compiled. If the present ruling stands up, taxpayers' dollars spent to date on the second grand jury will be for naught.

Even more significant, however, is that the law itself has the effect of withholding from the taxpayer his most effective tool in such investigations. That tool is experience.

In the case of Oakland's one-man grand jury probes, the constitutional limitation seems to have cheated the public by withholding the services of our most experienced juror.

And what about justice? We have the highest respect for the competency of our circuit bench. But is justice best served by using a juror lacking in grand jury experience when an experienced judge is available to perform the task?

Apparently Judge PRATT's colleagues felt it wasn't. They selected him for the job for that very reason—his experience.

Results Reported of First Month's Auto Check

The first month of operation of Michigan's new motor vehicle inspection law produced many significant results.

Conducted by four-man units of State Police operating in temporary inspection lanes, a total of 5,400 cars were inspected during the 30-day period.

Troopers handed out 1,074 tickets requiring major correctional action, found that 87 drivers did not have their licenses with them, 13 were driving with revoked and 10 with suspended licenses. About 6 per cent of drivers had some sort of license violation.

★ ★ ★

Four hundred eight drivers had no vehicle registration, and 103 improper registration. Six-hundred seventy-six drivers had no proof of insurance.

Bearing heavily on the question of driver responsibility for highway safety was the fact that of the 3,144 cars equipped with seat belts, only 1,441 were in use.

Inoperative windshield washers gave rise to the greatest number of citations with 1,297 while defective windshield glass was low with 19. Nine other categories of vehicle disrepair or neglect caught the eyes of inspectors.

★ ★ ★

That an effective vehicle inspection program, so long advocated by highway safety authorities, will play an important role in cutting the rate of road accidents and casualties is well evidenced by the extent of driver guilt and carelessness so soon detected.

Vote Amendment Promises Trouble

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — A Pandora's box of troubles may be opened when Congress votes on a constitutional amendment to choose the president and vice president by popular vote.

Virtually every political coloration from extreme left to extreme right agrees that a change in our outmoded electoral college system is necessary to give Americans a more direct voice in the selection of their top leaders.

Ruth Montgomery

But the suggested cures are widely divergent, ranging from direct voting to proportional, congressional and district plans.

The one-man-one-vote method of choosing our chief executive has a pleasant democratic ring to it, and enjoys the support of the American Bar Association as well as the senate majority and minority leaders.

But election by popular vote could lead to more, rather than less federal interference in state and local governments.

This fact is clearly recognized, since the proposed constitutional amendment to provide for popular election states that nothing therein would prevent Congress from subsequently passing uniform residence and age requirements for all voters in presidential elections.

Most Americans cannot vote until their 21st birthday, but some of our states permit their citizens to vote at the age of 18, 19 or 20.

Resident requirements are even more diversified, with some areas enfranchising new residents after 60 or 90 days, and others requiring domicile for up to a year.

★ ★ ★

MIGHT MAKE CHANGES

But if the electoral college were eliminated and each vote given the same weight, state legislatures might be tempted to reduce voter age and residence requirements as drastically as possible to yield a larger voice in the selection of the president.

Thus, the federal government would probably be impelled to set an over-all standard for the 50 states to prevent such rivalry, and might then feel called upon to oversee policing of the polls.

Most liberals favor the direct vote plan, which has the advantage of depriving big city political machines of their excessive power to influence presidential elections, and which would prevent the election of a chief executive who polls less than 40 per cent of the popular vote.

But liberal Sen. Ernest Gruening of Alaska has recently introduced a congressional district plan which has long been espoused by Texas multimillionaire H. L. Hunt, a strong voice for the far right.

The Gruening - Hunt plan would retain the electoral college system, giving each state two electors-at-large and one for each congressional district, but the votes of the latter would be cast according to which presidential candidate carried the individual district, rather than the state as a whole.

This is similar to the district plan favored by most states-rights advocates, except that in the latter case the votes would automatically be allocated by districts without need for an electoral college.

Another One?

David Lawrence Says:

Political Funding Finally Faced

WASHINGTON — At last Congress is coming to grips with the problem of how to finance political campaigns. Up to recent months, the subject has been bypassed, and many irregularities have either been condoned or overlooked.

If candidates for public office must depend on other citizens or on organizations with a vested interest in legislation to put up the money to help elect them, they will inevitably feel under some obligation to repay the favor by their acts in public office.

President Johnson has just submitted to congress a comprehensive plan.

The President, in his message to Congress, has taken into consideration also the need for election reforms. He suggests a $5,000 limit be placed on the total amount that comes from any organization or any individual or member of his family.

REPORT ON PAYMENTS

Mr. Johnson has urged, too, that corporations holding contracts with the government be prohibited from making political contributions at the state and local level. Today they are only barred from contributing to campaigns for national elections.

Mr. Johnson wisely recommends that the comptroller-general's office should be given complete authority to obtain full reports after each presidential election as to payments that have been made and to audit the expenses of presidential campaigns.

This is an innovation which is long overdue. For obviously members of committees of Congress have been reluctant to investigate the finances of their own political party.

★ ★ ★

When a bill was passed last October by Congress permitting each individual to indicate on his income-tax return that a dollar of his tax money might be used for political contributions by either party, there was a widespread dissent.

BAD PRECEDENT

It was pointed out that the new law did not deal with misuse of political funds and that it would be a bad precedent to give the taxpayer the right to exercise any control over how his tax money shall be disbursed by the government.

In comparison with the budget of the United States government, the total cost of presidential campaigns is relatively small, but it is nevertheless a large amount for political parties to raise.

The worst aspect of the existing system is that it places parties and candidates under obligation to special interests.

It is evident now that the whole system of campaign contributions will be carefully reviewed, and it is to be hoped that limitations and restrictions will be imposed so that no person elected to public office will feel that he has an obligation to give special favors in one way or another to those persons who have contributed large sums for campaign purposes.

Bob Considine Says:

NASA Is Back at Work, Eye Still on the Moon

HOUSTON — It just isn't true that NASA's in the cold, cold ground.

The astronauts, the personnel at the manned space center, and everybody else concerned are back to work.

CONSIDINE

The last "mea culpa" has been breathed over the calamity of last January.

The widows Grissom, White and Chafee have emerged from their weeds.

The spacemen are back at work. Teams are being made up, exotic missions mapped.

We're still going to the moon by the end of this decade, by God.

"Let's talk about 501," Paul Henry said today, getting on with the job. Paul is the Voice of Apollo. And that Greek god should have sounded so good.

"It's coming late this summer or early fall. It will be the first test of the Saturn-5 booster. Seven-and-a-half million pounds of thrust on takeoff, five times as much as we've ever handled before.

"It won't be manned but we hope to learn a lot from the mission. And will, I'm sure. We'll send the spaceship into an egg-shaped orbit and then fire it back at the earth at about lunar speed."

Patiently, he explained. On the second lap around the earth, when the three-seat command ship is at its apogee, 10,000 miles from earth, the engine of the "service module" which will be attached to it will be ignited and will shoot the command ship at the earth — simulating its return to earth from the moon.

23,500 M.P.H.

By the time it comes to within 200 miles of earth it will be traveling at 23,500 miles an hour, just as will men returning from the lunar surface.

To plunge at that speed into the jelly-like atmosphere in which we live might be highly lethal.

So the wizards here at the manned space agency center have figured out a "cooling" system that goes back to their days as kids.

The space capsule returning from outer space at this outrageous speed will be positioned so that its broad flat bottom will strike the earth's atmosphere like a flat stone and bounce, just like that stone.

But just as a skimming stone loses momentum after the first brush with the water, so will the spaceship.

Just as the stone eventually disappears into the water, so will the spaceship descend into the atmosphere in which you and I wallow.

Sterilization No Answer To Sex Deviate Problems

A recent article suggested sterilization of habitual sex offenders as a last resort. Sterilization isn't the answer as it will not stop the offender from committing another act or committing a murder. It will only stop pregnancy due to rape. Pregnancy can be stopped by the victim reporting to the hospital immediately for treatment before conception occurs. This will take care of a needless abortion or sterilization bill in case of incest or rape.

★ ★ ★

Is propaganda starting for a sterilization bill? It looks like it. Sterilization takes a right from one who has violated the rights of another and the punishment is permanent. Since when do two wrongs make a right? If sex offenders are ill, cure them. If you can't, we must keep them isolated from society.

The following suggestions would help reduce crime:

- Better street and business lighting.
- All closed business places wired with burglar alarms that sound off at the police station.

- Alarm systems in all businesses that could be easily touched off by employes and alert the police station.

We checked several stores and found none with a general policy of selling cheaper by the case. However, several of them said individual stores might make exceptions, and suggested you ask the managers of stores where you shop.

Super Cities

The Denver Post

Arthur C. Clarke, the great British science fiction writer, once described a marvelous city—millions of years in the future—in a book called, "The City and the Stars."

His automated city, Diaspar, was so fully automated that nothing was done manually; even "human" experience was programmed by advanced technology.

But Clarke's Diaspar proved faulty by the end of the story. Its residents wanted to be human after all. Technology had simply carried them too far. Diaspar was radically altered.

This, in a way, suggests the dilemma of today's planners of new cities.

The Denver Post Tuesday carried a bonus section describing Dr. Athelstan Spilhaus' proposal for an experimental city, a project for which the University of Minnesota has $248,000 in federal funds.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Spilhaus's plan seeks to conduct an experiment to see if the dream city is possible—the city which never becomes out of date, has no waste materials and is not called upon to grow beyond a logical size, either in area or population.

At the same time we hope that the experimental city concept allows room for study of the human condition. How many churches, for example, are to be encouraged in a totally planned city?

Who is to pay taxes for the schools — and what kind of schools? If the city operates at a loss how long should the rest of America subsidize it?

We're not saying these are reasons for criticizing the project. We simply find that, like so many idealistic things we've assumed to be unmixed blessings, there are important questions of choice to be faced when the ideal nears reality.

Extra Benefits

The Bay City Times

There's nothing like first-hand experience such as world travel to broaden one's perspective. And this truism is not lost on our lawmakers in Washington.

Last year almost half of the members of Congress took foreign trips at public expense.

A survey notes that at least 243 (45.6 per cent) of the members made a total of 337 government-paid trips often referred to as "junkets."

★ ★ ★

There is no comprehensive record of the total spending by members of Congress on official trips abroad.

Congressional committees make annual reports on individual travel expenses of members and committee staffs on committee business, but these reports do not fully account for such things as transportation, embassy accommodations and entertainment.

★ ★ ★

Biggest spender listed in committee reports was Rep. Wayne L. Hays, D-Ohio, who headed a subcommittee that investigated the travel spending of Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, of all things.

Hays spent a total of $6,589 on foreign travel. No accounting was given on Powell's expenses.

★ ★ ★

Two "retirees" figured in the foreign trip itinerary. They were Reps. Walter Rogers, D-Texas, and John C. Kunkel, R-Pa. Both retired at end of the 89th congress, after they had spent $3,970 and $3,500 respectively on "educational" trips abroad.

Which all goes to prove that in some occupations it's the fringe benefits that make the job attractive.

Recruit Increase

DETROIT (AP) — Close to twice as many new patrolmen have been recruited by the Detroit Police Department during the first four months of this year compared with the same period in 1966. Robert S. Quaid, personnel director, said 152 men have joined the force through April compared to 88 last year.

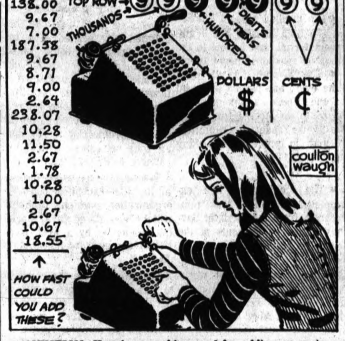
Junior Editors Quiz on ADDING MACHINE



QUESTION: How is a machine used for adding amounts of money?

Suppose Barbara presses down all the 5 buttons, from left to right. They stay down; she pulls the handle and the machine prints $5,555.55 on a roll of paper and the buttons jump up.

Then she presses down the button which means $10.00, pulls the handle again. The machine prints 10.00 and after she has presse da button labelled total and pulled the crank again, prints the total of "55,565.55."

Many modern adding machines do not have handles, operating entirely with buttons.

Nigeria Facing Breakup

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — Nigeria's two rival young colonels, Yakubu Gowon and C. Odumegwu Ojukwu, reached the showdown stage Sunday after 10 months on a collision course. The federation of Nigeria was threatened with breaking up.

Ojukwu, 333, Oxford-educated son of one of Nigeria's wealthiest men, got a mandate from the consultative assembly he had appointed to declare his region the independent state of Biafra.

* * *

Gowon, 32, the federal chief of state, tried to halt the eastern region's push to independence by ordering it split into three states within the federation.

Gowon's decree created 12 states in all, including six in the northern region which contains about half of Nigeria's estimated 56 million people and 80 per cent of the country's 357,000 square miles.

* * *

The midwest region, smallest of the original four, remained intact. The western region was left virtually intact and a new state of Lagos was created from the federal capital and the western region around it.

PRO-ARAB PINNED—A detective and policeman pin a pro-Arab demonstrator to the hood of a car when Arabs and Jews confronted each other at a "Salute to Israel" parade in New York yesterday. Police prevented a serious clash between the two factions.

Busy Three Weeks Ahead for Legislature

LANSING (AP) — If the 74th Michigan Legislature sticks to its current schedule, it has just two or three weeks to spend a billion dollars and to raise about a quarter of the dough.

It has to do this, and it has to pass bills sometime this year reorganizing Michigan's lower court system.

* * *

It doesn't have to do much else, and apparently it won't.

The money bill (actually Gov. George Romney has asked for $1.153 billion) is to run the state—schools, police, prisons, government agencies, health and welfare programs and the rest—in the year that begins on July 1.

To raise enough money to institute the state's second billion-dollar budget, some form of tax increase is necessary, and most of the legislative discussions so far have hinged on what would be the first state income tax.

APRIL 1 DEADLINE

Romney has vowed he will not approve the spending until the Legislature raises the money. That was 4½ months ago, when the Legislature went to work and Romney set an April 1 deadline. The Legislature has not raised the money.

So it could be a busy two or three weeks.

The first 4½ months of the 74th Legislature have not been greatly productive.

There have been many bills and many debates, but the major issues resolved since Jan. 11 are few, and there are few vital pieces of legislation—apart from taxing and spending measures—now before the Legislature for consideration.

Among the accomplishments so far:

- An implied consent bill has passed both houses, but in different forms, and is now in the midst of two-house negotiations.
- The Senate, for the first time ever, has passed and sent to the House a tax package keyed to an income tax, which the House Taxation Committee is now in process of picking apart.

* * *

- The Legislature has exempted Michigan, at least temporarily, from the Daylight Savings Time requirements of the federal government.
- The effective date for bringing migrant agricultural workers under workmen's compensation has been set ahead two months, from May 1 to July 1.

And that's just about all.

The migrant compensation bill, as finally passed, gave proponents far less time than they claimed they needed. The implied consent bill could vanish in another storm of debate like the one which accompanied it through the House. The time law could be undone by referendum petitions, depending on the State Supreme Court. The Senate may not concur with House changes in its tax bills.

The Legislature wants to pass all its bills—except for court reorganization, which probably will be considered in a special fall session — by a week from Friday and go home for a month June 19.

That would give three weeks to reach final agreement on fiscal reform, pass the record-high Romney budget, and adjourn for its summer recess.

Jews, Arabs Clash in New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Jews, preparing to parade Sunday in support of Israel's stand in the Middle East crisis, became engaged in a spitting, jeering, egg-and-shoe hurling fracas with American Arabs readying a counterdemonstration.

The fracas which started at 72nd Street and Broadway, resulted in the arrest of a Queens man who allegedly threw a tomato at the Arab group and hit a detective. Bags of water were dropped on the Arabs from apartment windows.

* * *

The Arabs' postmarch rally was interrupted by a bomb threat.

After police broke up the battle, some 25,000 Israeli supporters marched up Riverside Drive, while about 75 Arabs marched up Broadway chanting, "Aqaba is Arab."

PRAYER BOOK

The Arab group headed west on 86th Street, en route to Riverside Drive, but was turned back by police. Along 86th Street, a bearded Orthodox rabbi waved a prayer book and shouted in Hebrew. Several persons attempted to dart at the Arabs.

The parade had been planned as a celebration of Israel's 19th anniversary, but became an expression of support for Israel in its confrontation with its Arab neighbors.

* * *

Before the parade began, hundreds of persons carrying the blue and white flag of Israel began pouring out of the 72nd Street subway station at Broadway.

3 to Get Awards

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. George Romney and Harry Weinbaum, a Detroit weekly newspaper publisher, will be awarded Bronze Keystones at the annual meeting of the Boy's Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit Thursday. Russell S. Strickland, vice president of Rockwell Standard Corp., will receive the highest award, a Silver Keystone.

Prospectors probed the Glacier National Park area in the early 1890s. A boom town called Altyn sprang up, complete with post office, two-story hotel, several dance halls and seven saloons. Time has erased all signs of the town.

Cold Chilling Season's Swimsuit Skiers

By DON GUY

PINKHAM NOTCH, N.H. (AP) — Thousands of skiers from the Northeast are schussing a late-season snow bonanza on Mt. Washington.

But the cold weather has been hard on the suntanners and Tuckerman Ravine girl watchers.

* * *

At this season, girls usually ski in shorts or swimsuits in the vast 1,000-foot-high bowl. Sun reflecting from the glittering snow fields makes it warmer than a beach in midsummer.

With a cold wind blowing Sunday, only pretty Joanne Couture, 15, of Montreal tried a swimsuit. After one chilly schuss, she donned slacks and a sweater.

Unless it rains hot water, Tuesday should offer the best Memorial Day skiing in the 40 years in which records have been kept in Tuckerman Ravine.

SNOW COVER

Two feet of snow fell Friday atop a snow cover that has hardly melted on the high slopes since winter.

Snow is at least 25 feet deep in the floor of the ravine at tree line.

* * *

The ravine was closed briefly after the Friday storm because White Mountain National Forest rangers feared tons of new powder snow might cause an avalanche.

* * *

However, Brad Ray, the chief snow ranger, reported that hurricane-force winds scoured most of the new powder off the face of the headwall, ending the avalanche threat.

Joe Dodge, veteran Appalachian Mountain Club hutmaster now retired in Conway, N.H., says, "There is more snow in the ravine today than any year on this date since 1926."

Bruce Sloat, present club hutmaster, adds: "If this weather holds, the June skiing should break all records."

The U.S. trucking industry's operating revenues in 1966 reached an estimated total of $1 billion, or about $300 million more than the railways obtained from all sources.

TIME FOR CHANGE — Cold weather this spring has brought good late-season skiing to Mount Washington, N. H., but made the usual swimsuits scarce on the girls. Joanne Couture, 15, of Montreal took one schuss in a swimsuit yesterday then hopped back into pants and a sweater when cold wind started. Normally, sun reflecting from snow fields makes it as warm as a beach in midsummer.

Senate Aide's Rape-Killing Is Charged to Doctor's Son

WASHINGTON (AP) — The son of a prominent Washington doctor has been charged with first-degree murder in the slaying of Judith Robeson, a pretty senatorial aide.

* * *

Lewis C. Ecker II, 24, a bakery truck driver from nearby Waldorf, Md., was arrested Sunday. Police said he surrendered by prearrangement.

* * *

Ecker, who is married, is the son of Dr. Henry D. Ecker, president of the District of Columbia Medical Society and associate clinical professor of medicine at George Washington University.

* * *

The nearly nude body of Miss Robeson, 25, was found in her southwest Washington apartment last Tuesday. She had been beaten, raped and strangled, police said. Miss Robeson was a research assistant to Sen. Frank Carlson, R-Kan.

LIVED AT SITE

Police said Ecker once lived in the same apartment building where the slaying occurred but that Miss Robeson did not know him.

Authorities said Ecker, accompanied by his wife, was arrested in his car at a parking lot in Clinton, Md.

LEWIS ECKER

Gunman Sought

DETROIT (AP) — Police today sought an unidentified gunman who shot and killed a drinking companion without apparent provocation in a Detroit bar. The victim, Shelly W. Mears, 34, was dead on arrival at a Detroit hospital Saturday.

The United Church in Ovid was the setting for the Saturday wedding of the Lawrence Bruce Reynnells (nee Mildred Lucelia Warren).

For the afternoon ceremony the bride wore an Empire waisted gown of embroidered silk organza with a floor length A-line skirt.

Her long silk illusion veil was secured by a pill box crown. She carried a bouquet of long stemmed yellow roses.

Annette Kerbet was maid of honor with Susan Van Dyne as a bridesmaid.

Parents of the bridal couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Warren of Ovid and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reynnells of North Johnson Street.

DEAR ABBY: I just got the thrill of my life, and because you were indirectly responsible for it, I want to share it with you.

ABBY

You asked your readers to write to the lonely GIs in Thailand who never got any mail, so I wrote a rather long, chatty letter and sent it to the address you suggested. I closed with, "You'd probably have been happier to hear from a beautiful, young blonde. Sorry . . . I am a 52-year-old grandmother." Here is a part of the letter I received in return:

"No, I wouldn't have been happier to hear from a beautiful, young blonde. You see, my mother died when I was two, so I never knew what it was to have a real mother, but your letter came about as close to one a mother would have written to her son. Even though I am only 19, I know that "love" can be based on friendship, admiration, and respect — as well as on romance.

There is room in my heart for all kinds of love, so I hope you won't mind if I sign my letter with "love" — the kind of love a son has for a mother he never knew. God bless you too.
(signed) A Less Lonely GI"

Now, Abby, you know why I am a . . .
THRILLED GRANDMOTHER

DEAR ABBY: When I saw that letter in your column from GI Joe King, asking for mail for some of the lonely GIs, I couldn't resist writing. I just received the following from the GI who got my letter:

"Dear Mrs. Vautherine:

"Your letter was actually beautiful. I read it out loud three times already, and all the guys thought it was great.

"From that one mention Abby had in her column about writing to GIs, letters have been pouring in at the rate of 9,000 a day! And we are trying to answer them all. We love mail. It is the greatest morale booster you can imagine.

★ ★ ★

"Here's a little information about me. I am 28. Before joining the air force I was a barber. My home is Kankakee, Ill. I've been married eight years. We have a little girl who is four, and a son who is a year old now. He was a week old when I left. Before closing, I want to thank you ever so much for your wonderful letter.

"You and all the other folks back home who wrote those letters will never know how much you did for us GIs half a world away. God bless you!

Ron"

ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I receive numerous invitations to charity balls, fashions shows, previews, flower shows and the inevitable country club functions.

★ ★ ★

In many cases I do not know anyone in the sponsoring organization but receive an invitation only because of membership in another group. In refusing, must I acknowledge each and every one of these invitations? — Mrs. Burns

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. Burns: When the invitation says R.S.V.P. or answer cards are enclosed, you must send a refusal. When however, a card is enclosed saying "I will take . . . . tickets," and there is no blank for a refusal, you need do nothing.

★ ★ ★

Country club announcements of dances or functions need only be answered of there is an R.S.V.P.; usually they simply ask you to make reservations and no answer is necessary.

ORDER OF LEAVING

Dear Mrs. Post: When two couples are dining out, and it is time to leave, does each gentleman escort his lady out, or do both gentlemen wait until both have arisen and follow both out? — Curious

Dear Curious: Both gentlemen wait and let the two ladies precede them.

Health Department Oversees Homes for the Aged and Ill

By JUNE ELERT

"What shall we do with Grandma?" It is a heartbreaking question, laced with vaguely-felt and generally unwarranted undertones of guilt.

Grandma (or Grandpa) may be ill or senile or simply weak with the weight of years and no longer able to cope with day-by-day necessities.

★ ★ ★

Sons and daughters are understandably reluctant to relegate an aged parent to a "home."

Eventually, they will visit a nursing home or a home for the aged. Perhaps they will be surprised and relieved to know that beloved oldsters can be safely entrusted to the care of a "home."

There are safeguards to ensure that care will be adequate.

SAFEGUARDS

The Nursing Home Division of the Oakland County Department of Public Health in cooperation with the State Health Department provides those safeguards.

Enforcement of licensing requirements, inspectors, employe health standards, dietary supervision, investigation of complaints, etc. are all used.

The staff of the Nursing Home Division consists of one full-time Administrator - Public Health Nurse, Mrs. Helen Beske, and one part-time Public Health Nurse, Mrs. Doris Schuchter.

These women have the responsibility of making licensure visits, prior to license renewal in January, to all 46 licensed nursing homes in Oakland County, plus five licensed homes for the aged.

Nine of the licensed homes are Medicare - certified facilities.

Here, in addition to minimum nursing care and staffing requirements (one licensed nurse, RN or LPN, on duty 40 hours per week), the many additional requirements for Medicare certification must be met.

★ ★ ★

All patients in licensed homes must be under the care of a physician. In non-Medicare facilities, these visits may be spaced quarterly.

- In Medicare or "extended-care facilities," as they are called, patients must be seen by a physician at least once a month.
- All Medicare services must be available to residents.
- Consulting services of a qualified dietician must be available.
- A medical records librarian and a qualified social worker must be on call.
- Nursing staff must be under the supervision of an RN and there must be licensed practical nurses on duty at all times when an RN is not on duty.

About one third (740) of the presently available beds are in facilities certified by Medicare.

Construction of new facilities under way will add another 500 beds to this total.

Homes for the aged differ in licensing requirements in that they are not required to provide nursing services, nor to retain nursing personnel.

Residents of these homes are persons 65 or older who are in good health. A physical examination and chest X-ray upon admission are required.

Some may suffer temporary indispositions, but if illness requires them to remain in bed for a long period, or prevents them from being active, transfer to a facility where nursing care is available becomes necessary.

Wednesday Talk by Dr. Drachler

The Sisterhood of Temple Beth Jacob will sponsor a talk Wednesday evening by Dr. Norman Drachler, superintendent of Detroit schools.

His topic at the 8:30 p.m. meeting will be "The Quest for Excellence in Education." He will be introduced by Mrs. Lee Fisher of Birmingham.

Hostesses for the occasion will be Mesdames Kenneth Dickstein, Harry Arnkoff, Tom Horowitz, Sidney Barnett, Nat Morrison, Paul Mandel, Isaac Grahelsky and Herman Dickstein.

This will be an open meeting and the public is invited.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

Q. What sport do you think is best for the longest time?

A. Swimming is by far best. You can indulge in it from 2 to 80, in fact all of your life. This exercise is also allowed when lots of other sports are prohibited form medical reasons.

The only disadvantage is the fact that you cannot swim outdoors all year long in many climates. However, there are indoor swimming pools for winter months, and no outdoor sport can be enjoyed in all kinds of weather.

Q. What can I do for bulky ugly knees? This is especially disheartening today when skirts are so short.

A. Take the fat between your fingers and the heels of your hands and massage vigorously. Also, lie on your abdomen and lean on your elbows, legs straight.

Q. I have very thin shoulders. My shoulder blades look like wings. What can I do to overcome this embarrassment?

A. Of course, again in weight will help. The fact that your shoulder blades stick out like wings also indicates that you have poor posture. Work on this. The following exercise will fill out the back, and is also corrective to poor posture.

Stand tall. Raise your arms sideward, shoulder height, palms facing forward. Keep the elbows straight as you pull your arms (still shoulder height) backward as far as you can.

Hold while you count to six. Feel the shoulder muscles contract. Return to sideward, shoulder-height position. Continue.

Primitive Prints for Beach Wear

Primitive prints are big fashion this spring. Use an exotic print for a long, flowing caftan, and you have a winner as a beach cover up for at-home gown. Textile designers are emphasizing the bright, hot colors and native designs of Old and New World primitive tribes.

* * *

A fun way to make your caftan: fashion it from beach towels. Just sew up the sides, leaving room for armholes and an opening for the neck on top. Then slit the front and insert a 20-inch zipper.

Opera Talent Reservoir in Alma Plans

By JAMES R. NORMAN
Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP)—If grand opera ever settles in Michigan, Alma College will have played a pioneering role.

Alma is one of six colleges throughout the United States which have joined a program designed to provide more talent for the performing arts, for opera in particular.

Another major purpose, according to Edward Warner, executive director of Affiliate Artists, Inc., is to make it easier for potentially great performers to attain reputations.

Warner said the singer assigned to Alma College is Mary Beth Peil, a lyric soprano with the Metropolitan Opera National Company who hails from Davenport, Iowa.

Miss Peil, like each of the other six artists assigned to colleges already participating in the program, will continue her professional career while serving in an advisory capacity at Alma.

Under the program, Miss Peil will get $6,500 plus expenses for a total of eight weeks of availability for performance, classroom participation, lecture demonstrations and conferences and seminars.

The college puts $2,000 toward the total of $10,000 required for participation in the program. The rest is suplied by Affiliate Artists, a nonprofit, New York-based organization, through donations from foundations and industry.

Miss Peil has appeared in Metropolitan Opera performances of "Carmen," "Cinderella," "La Boheme," and "The Marriage of Figaro."

Mrs. Ronald Shelton was matron of honor for the daughter of the Elsewood Lundeens of West Princeton Street.

Judy Button, Linda Clarke, Norma Singer and Sharon White were bridesmaids.

A Facial Sauna for Clean Skin

Cleanliness is next to godliness it has been said, and certainly cleanliness is the key to a beautiful complexion. The Saunda Facial Sauna beauty appliance employs a warm, moist mist to deep cleanse the pore openings where beauty begins through natural perspiration.

At the same time, the warm mist stimulates and causes a natural radiant glow.

Frequent Births Damage Health

Too many and too frequent pregnancies carry hazards for the health and survival of mothers and infants, declares Dr. Alexander Kessler, chief of the Human Reproduction Unit of the World Health Organization.

The jacket, with its optional contrast collar and cuffs, has simulated pockets, and ball buttons that fasten the front and adorn the sleeves. LBJ, Senate Viet Foes in Home Accord

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate's Democratic critics of President Johnson's Vietnam war policies are hedging their opposition with strong support for his Great Society programs at home.

Seven dissenters whose seats will be at stake in 1968 thus are maintaining some common ground with the President, who is likely to be on next year's party slate with them.

★ ★ ★

The group consists of Sens. Frank Church of Idaho, Joseph S. Clark of Pennsylvania, J. W. Fulbright of Arkansas, Ernest Gruening of Alaska, George S. McGovern of South Dakota, Wayne Morse of Oregon and Gaylord Nelson of Wisconsin.

★ ★

As the party's nominee, Johnson conceivably could skip some of their states in the campaign, thus avoiding publicizing the Vietnam policy friction that exists between them.

HARD TO AVOID

But no presidential candidate could afford to bypass states like Pennsylvania, Wisconsin and Oregon. Nor could he avoid vigorous campaigning in New York, Ohio and Indiana, home bases for some of his most vigorous Vietnam critics who won't be up for election this year.

★ ★ ★

No politician knows how Vietnam will figure as an issue in the 1968 campaign.

★ ★ ★

If the election were today, the dissenters to the President's policies would have to advocate the reelection of a president with whom they don't agree or face the possibility that their defection might cost them their jobs.

Among the critics whose fate lies with the voters next year, only Morse, often a maverick, and McGovern have even hinted at an open break with the President because of the war.

Amputee From Vietnam War Not Bitter, Would Go Back

By WARD DEGLER
SIOUX FALLS, S.D. (AP) — At 32, Perron Shinneman, once a fighting-fit U.S. Marine, is a leftover from the war in Vietnam. He has no left leg, thigh or hip.

Now a civilian, with a wife and child to support, jobless until last week, he faced a pile of debts.

* * *

Last August newspapers around the world published a photograph of Shinneman, home from the war, clasped in his wife's arms at Sioux Falls Airport. One of his crutches lay on the rain-soaked ground.

JOBS PROMISED

The picture touched the hearts of millions. Sympathetic letters poured in, some promising jobs.

Somehow, no job materialized, and the letters stopped coming months ago.

* * *

Then last week, a local job placement firm hired him as a personnel worker for $350 a month, plus commission.

Shinneman says he isn't bitter.

BELIEVED IN WAR

"Everybody in my situation feels about the same way, like the 18- and 19-year-old amputees I met in the hospital — they believed in the war, so, they had to give a little of themselves."

A year ago on April 12 Shinneman had a career in the U.S. Marine Corps ahead of him. That morning he had been promoted to lance corporal engineer and at dawn he moved out ahead of a patrol, looking for land mines. He stepped on a booby trap. It blew half his left side away.

* * *

Shinneman still looks and talks like a Marine. He has lost his suntan but his hair is cropped close and his eyes are bright, his smile quick.

"I'll bet 75 per cent of these antiwar demonstrators don't really know what they're protesting about," he said. "And I know why. Most of them were born during the Korean War. This is their first war and they're just plain scared."

WIFE WORKING

Shinneman has been home for good since February. His wife, Shirley, is working part time now, but she just started. Since his medical discharge, the Shinnemans and their adopted daughter, Sharleen, 4, have lived on his $189 monthly disability pay.

"Things will get better," Shinneman said. "The Corps has put me on 100 per cent disability but I plan to waive that for VA disability. That will give us $300 a month."

* * *

The debts have piled up. There's a car and house to pay for and other bills.

"Everyone is really nice about it," Shinneman said, "especially the real estate agent. He even loaned me the money for the down payment on the house. He says he's not worried."

The adjustment to civilian life and his disability has been rugged.

Shinneman quit high school and enlisted in the Marines the first time in 1955 because he couldn't find a job.

DIPLOMA IN MARINES

"Later I got my high school diploma in the Marines," he said.

He finished his first hitch in 1959 and worked at his father's appliance repair shop for a while.

"Then one day Dad told me he couldn't afford to pay me anymore," Shinneman said. "Jobs were really scarce." In 1965 he reenlisted. Two months later he was in Vietnam.

Now, crippled, it is even more difficult settling into civilian life.

* * *

"My first thought was I ain't a man anymore," he said. "I was terrible to live with for a long time. I didn't want to see anyone. I hated everybody.

"It took a lot of work, the doctors, the chaplain, my wife. I'm okay now, but I never thought I would be."

Navy and Army doctors who saved Shinneman's life told him he made medical history. He was in surgery 15 times and received 134 pints of blood, 90 of them before he left the hospital in Vietnam.

"Later I met a couple of doctors who worked on me in Vietnam," he said. "They were surprised to see me and they told me sorta sheepishly that when they put me on the plane to the Philippines they took bets. Most of them bet I wouldn't be alive when the plane landed."

When Shinneman finally left Bethesda Naval Hospital in Maryland he went to the naval hospital in Philadelphia where he was fitted with an artificial leg. It has broken and now he is waiting for another to be made in Minneapolis.

"Since I don't have any hip," he said, "I'll never walk unaided. But with practice I should be able to get around with a cane."

Shinneman means it when he says he would return to Vietnam if he could.

"When I first got there I wondered what in hell I'm doing here. But the first time we went into a Vietnamese Village and saw where the Vietcong had butchered children to force the villagers to turn Communist and then saw the villagers refuse. At that moment I knew what I was fighting for.

"When I came home I told my wife I would go back. She said: 'What about us?' And I told her it was her and Sharleen I was thinking about. She believes me now."

Mart Affected by Middle East

NEW YORK (AP) — Losers outnumbered gainers by almost two to one early this afternoon as caution reigned on the stock market.

Nervousness over the Middle East situation was heightened by news that Israelis and Arabs had exchange fire along the Gaza Strip.

Continued concern about Viet Nam was added to natural caution because of Tuesday's Memorial Day holiday when stock exchanges will be closed.

Trading was slower than usual because many investors had taken Monday off to have a four-day Memorial Day weekend.

AVERAGES OFF

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off .8 at 322.9 with industrials off 2.0, rails up .5 and utilities off .6.

Losses of leading issues ranged from fractions to 3 or 4 points.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 4.67 at 865.65.

Chicago & North Western Railway, up 10 points, continued to response to news of its proposed acquisition of Essex Wire.

Stocks showed an irregular downdrift on the American Stock Exchange. Dynalectron was active and down about a point. Losses exceeding a point were taken by Syntex, Coburn Corp., Wabash Magnetics and Flying Tiger. Westates Petroleum and Goldfield were among fractional gainers. Avien and Data-Control Systems lost fractions.

Little Expected at Mart Talks

De Gaulle Opposition Is Stumbling Block

ROME (AP) — Rome welcomed the first Common Market summit meeting in six years today with inauguration of a new executive combine expected to be the only achievement.

French President Charles de Gaulle's opposition to Britain's application for membership and to proposals for political unity of the six Common Market members ruled out progress on those two major issues.

That left little but formalities and ceremonies for the two-day meeting on the 10th anniversary of the formation of the European Economic Community.

However, de Gaulle was expected to go along with the inauguration of a 14-member executive combine to replace the three separate executive commissions that now exist for the Economic Community; the European Atomic Energy Commission, and the European Coal and Steel pool.

EXERTED WILL

De Gaulle also exerted his will here by opposing the appointment of West German Walter Hallstein to head the new combine. Hallstein is the longtime chairman of the EEC commission and a champion of the kind of political unity de Gaulle opposes.

It was strongly rumored that the appointment will go to an Italian, or to Belgium's Jean Rey, who distinguished himself as the Common Market representative in the Kennedy Round tariff negotiations in Geneva.

Only ceremonial functions were planned for the opening day. The only working session, lasting three hours, is scheduled Tuesday morning.

Hanging over the conference was fear of war in the Middle East.

27 Cardinals Named; 4 Are Americans

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI named 27 new cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church today, including four Americans. This brings the membership in the Sacred College of Cardinals to 120, the largest in history.

The Pope's action gave the United States nine cardinals, hree more than it has ever had.

The new American princes of the church include Archbishops John Joseph Krol, 56, of Philadelphia; Patrick Louis O'Boyle, 70, of Washington, D.C., and John Patrick Cody, 59, of Chica-,o.

The fourth American, the Rt. Rev. Francis J. Brennan of Shenandoah, Pa., has long headed the Vatican's Sacred Rota, the highest tribunal of the church dealing with marriage matters.

Pope Paul had increased American membership in the Sacred College to six cardinals at his first consistory, in February 1965, but Albert Cardinal Meyer died Sept. 4, 1965.

Barber Shop Is a Cut Above

"Our Barber Shop" opens today at 485 S. Sanford. The shop is owned by Eugene Cox of 536 Judson who formerly owned a shop at 481 S. Sanford, next door to the new site.

"There are five barbers and all new, modern equipment," said Cox.

Most Would Fall on Monday

Long Holidays Eyed

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK — If some interests in the United States had their way, you would have a holiday today instead of Tuesday. Most holidays, these advocators say, should be celebrated on the first day of the week.

CUNNIFF

This is a ticklish type of proposal, involving deep emotions, patriotism, tradition and habit. But the idea of Monday observances is a persistent one and may someday receive serious consideration.

Some powerful forces give thrust to the idea. First, it is in the spirit of the four-day week which, we are told, may be upon us this century. It would reduce interruptions in production. And there are obvious health advantages in long weekends.

★ ★ ★

One group that sees great beauty in the three-day holiday weekend includes businessmen, and just a little investigation gives at least one insight into the reason why.

Many bosses, it seems, feel their employes use Mondays as semiholidays anyway. This theory views the employe as arriving for work physically exhausted and emotionally drained, his head devoid of anything but golf scores and headaches.

MONDAY JAMS

Obviously there is some truth in this. For evidence you may check the roads from resorts to the city some Monday morning. Very early, they may be jammed with desperate motorists who indulged themselves with an extra night at the cottage.

Having so coddled themselves, they must rise in the darkness and drive madly toward the city and their first workday of the week, their blurred consciousness distressed by the vague feeling that the swollen sun seems to be rising like a great wound opening. What a way to begin the week.

There is another side to this problem also. A midweek holiday sometimes leads to an additional holiday, self-proclaimed by the employe. The notable example is Thanksgiving Day, which falls on a Thursday and is sometimes extended through Friday, either by design or indigestion.

Currently, it is standard practice to grant at least six holidays, these being Christmas, Thanksgiving, New Year's Day, Independence Day, Labor Day and Memorial Day. Sometimes Washington's Birthday and Veteran's Day are added.

5 CANDIDATES

Of these, at least five are considered candidates for switches to Monday: Washington's Birthday, Veteran's Day, Independence Day and Thanksgiving. Labor Day, of course, is a Monday holiday already.

Whenever such proposals are made by Congress, businessmen or labor, the arguments soon follow. In a young nation proud of its history but untroubled by ceremony, traditional dates are, nevertheless, still difficult to tamper with. These dates are sacred to some. But others ask why?

Advocators of Monday holidays point out that there is hardly anything sacred, for example, about observing Thanksgiving Day on the fourth Thursday of November. It was set there by a congressional resolution that voided an earlier date proclaimed by Franklin D. Roosevelt.

This was not its first move, either. Before 1939 it was observed on the last Thursday in November, having been set there by President Abraham Lincoln in 1864. It was not Lincoln's only Thanksgiving date. Just a year before he had decided on August 6.

Twisters, Hail, Rain Pound Many Areas

By the Associated Press

Property-destroying tornadoes, hail and heavy rains raked large sections of the nation Sunday night while unusually warm weather lingered from eastern New Mexico to Georgia.

Funnel clouds were reported in Colorado, Kansas, Illinois, Indiana and Nevada. A tornado slammed into two homes in Jefferson County, Mo., shearing off the roof of one and destroying the other. There were no injuries.

★ ★ ★

High winds accompanying a severe thunderstorm blew down one building and ripped the roof off another in Tupelo, Miss., Sunday night, but no injuries were reported.

Marble-size hail pelted Huntington and Charleston, W. Va., and wind gusts to 50 miles an hour and heavy rains hit the area.

FUNNEL CLOUDS

Indiana also was hit by spring storms. Funnel clouds were reported at Coatesville, Goldsmith and Fort Branch, but no personal injury or property damage was reported.

Heavy rain was reported in 10 states from West Virginia to Washington. Nearly 1½ inches of rain hit Parkersburg, W. Va. Lamar, Colo., recorded .94 of an inch of precipitation and Lubbock, Tex., .85 of an inch.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac Names Service Head

Other Changes Told for Motor Division

The appointment of James G. Vorhes as Pontiac Motor Division's parts and service director was announced today by Thomas L. King, general sales manager.

Vorhes, who has been Pacific regional manager since February, succeeds John C. Bates who was recently named assistant director of General Motors Corp.'s service section. Vorhes plans to move to the Pontiac area.

Another change announced by King was naming of Steven J. Kulcher as assistant zone manager in Pontiac. In 1962, he was named service and parts manager in New York. He also will move to the Pontiac area.

KULCHER VORHES

Kulcher joined Pontiac in 1950 while a student at General Motors Institute.

Vorhes joined the division in 1947 as a clerk in the service department in Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Vincent A. McCabe, current Pontiac assistant zone manager, has been appointed Buffalo zone manager. He came to Pontiac in 1949 as assistant car distributor in Pittsburgh.

King also announced these changes in Pontiac's sales organization:

- Walter W. Knocke, who has been Chicago zone manager since 1961, succeeds Vorhes as Pacific regional manager with offices in San Francisco.
- Gilbert A. Wiggins, Cincinnati zone manager, succeeds Knocke in Chicago.
- John W. Johnston, Buffalo zone manager, succeeds Wiggins in Cincinnati.
- David C. Snyder, office manager and car distributor in Portland, succeeds Kulcher.

All appointments are effective Thursday.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "I am 95 years old and my investments are just about able to keep me. Two mergers have me in doubt. I hold Hartford Electric Light and Connecticut Light and Power which merged into a third called Northeast Utilities. American Optical, which I owned, has been acquired by Warner-Lambert. Should I hold or sell Northeast and Warner-Lambert?" C.H.

A) Northeast Utilities is a holding company with operations in contiguous territories in Connecticut and western Massachusetts. This is an instance, I believe, in which the whole is stronger than the parts. Your Northeast is a sound stock, offering a satisfactory return, and I advise you to hold it.

American Optical's merger with Warner-Lambert was beneficial to both parties, in my opinion. You formerly held a stock involved mainly in optical products. You now own — on quite a satisfactory exchange basis — an issue which is broadly diversified in consumer products. As with most strong growth stocks, your current return on Warner-Lambert is below two per cent. You may wish more income, and in this event only, I would switch to CIT Financial, yielding 5.2 per cent.

Q) "Are tax-exempt bonds generally good investments? Could you name some of the better ones that I might buy?" G.K.

A) Direct obligations of cities and states are among the safest investments you can buy. There are also available tax-exempts issued by districts and public authorities created by cities and states but payable only out of specific revenues. These vary as to security in accordance with their coverage of fixed charges. Currently I like State of California 3⅞s of 2000 at 100 and City of Seattle 3.80s of 1987, also at 100. These are high-grade direct obligations and are not redeemable prior to maturity.

Clarkston Meets Kettering Tonight

Leading Hurlers Duel in Quarter-Final Tilt

Probably the two best hurlers in this year's Pontiac Invitational High School Baseball Tournament are set for encores tonight at Jaycee Park in today's only quarter-final contest.

The senior southpaw Saturday became the first player in the six years of the Pontiac Invitational to hurl a no-hit game, blanking Madison, 1-0.

His fast - paced duel with the Eagles' Ken Weslowski took only 1:12 for the seven innings — a tempo the Detroit Catholic League would find hard to match even with its three balls, two strikes rule.

Dick Miceli, who hurled the only other no-hitter in Kettering's diamond history, caught McCloud's gem. The versatile Miceli tripled in the fourth inning and scored on Mark Curry's bloop single for the game's lone run.

McCloud whiffed 11 and walked four, but faced only two batters over the minimum 21 for seven innings. One was erased on a double play and Miceli gunned down another attempting to steal.

Fife Friday night tossed one-hit ball and struck out 12 in five innings of relief pitching as Clarkston defeated Pontiac Central, 5-4, in 10 innings. Tonight's WKHS-Wolves' tilt is set for 7:30.

A couple of surprises highlighted action as the classy field was reduced to eight teams.

Those remaining eight head into quarter-final action tonight (one game) and tomorrow (three games).

Semifinals are slated for Wednesday at 5 and 7:30 p.m. with the finals on tap for Thursday at 7:30. Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department cosponsors the tournament with The Pontiac Press.

Perhaps the biggest surprise came on Saturday when unheralded Clawson, with an unimpressive 5-10 record, ousted highly - regarded Royal Oak Kimball.

And in an upset of lesser note, Romeo (8-6) sent Bloomfield Hills packing by taking a 3-2 decision.

Other results Saturday found Rochester downing Walled Lake, 2-1, Southfield belting Birmingham Brother Rice, 8-2, Waterford bumping Avondale, 4-3, and Pontiac Northern blanking Hazel Park, 4-0.

The cream of tomorrow's quarter-final action finds Waterfrod taking on Southfield at 4 p.m. on the lighted field.

Those two met twice in regular season play and gained a split.

Waterford's Skippers had more trouble than expected in stopping Avondale.

★ ★ ★

Trailing 3-1 going into the last of the fourth, the Skippers came up with three runs, two of them coming across on a single by second baseman Rod Kennedy.

RELIEF STINT

Kennedy came on later in relief of starter Bill Hill and pitched the final two innings.

Southfield catcher Ted Simmons jolted Brother Rice pitcher Mel Boomer with a home run, triple and double and drove in a pair of runs.

Simmons blasted his home run over 400 feet in the third with teammate Dave Hubbard on base.

Shaky fielding in the first inning opened the doors for Southfield to push across five runs on only three hits.

Mayo Makes Changes as Tigers Trim Senators

DETROIT (AP) — Manager Mayo Smith has rocked the Detroit Tigers with his first major shake-up. He benched veteran Norm Cash, released pitcher Johnny Klippstein and optioned Jake Wood and George Korince.

In the same big sweep, the Tigers recalled pitcher Pat Dobson from their Toledo farm club in the International League Sunday and purchased two other Mud Hens players — catcher Bill Heath and pitcher Mike Marshall.

Smith told Wood, an infielder, and relief pitcher Korince they are being optioned to Toledo.

He gave the players the word immediately after Detroit's 3-1 victory over the Washington Senators. Smith told the stunned players of the changes as 52,357 fans, largest crowd in the major leagues this season, were leaving Tiger Stadium.

In the game, Denny McLain got his fifth victory, with sparkling relief help from Fred Gladding.

Smith said the primary reason for the shakeup was "the need for a third catcher."

"Heath is a pretty good hitter," he said. "With three catchers I can use Bill Freehan at first base once in awhile or have him on the bench to pinch hit if he isn't catching."

The Tigers also have Jim Price as a reserve catcher.

ON CALL

Wood and Korince were put under 24-hour recall option.

Heath hit .301 with the Houston Astros in the National League last year.

Dobson, a 25-year-old right-hander, posted a 4-1 mark and a 1.47 ERA as a starter for the Mud Hens this year.

Marshall, 24, a right-handed relief specialist, impressed pitching coach Johnny Sain in spring training. In 14 2-3 innings with the Mud Hens, all in relief, he had a 2-0 record with a 0.61 ERA.

Smith said he benched Cash because the hustling first baseman, who hitting has been off, was "pressing too much."

Major reason for the huge attendance Sunday was that the Tigers gave away free Little League-sized bats to youngsters. They gave away 30,000 and issued IOU's for 5,200 after running out of them. More than 10,000 fans were turned away when the stadium announced a ticket sell-out.

Smith said he plans to let Price catch one game of the Memorial Day doubleheader against the Chicago White Sox. The Tigers go into the key twinbill trailing the Sox, who dropped a 5-0 decision to California Sunday, by one-half game.

NINE CHANCES

Mickey Stanley played first against Washington. He handled nine chances without error but failed to get a hit in four tries.

The Tigers bunched four hits and scored all their runs in the sixth inning against loser Pete Richert. Ray Oyler opened with a single and moved to second on McLain's sacrifice. Don Wert singled, moving the runner to third and Dick McAuliffe's sacrifice fly brought the run home.

Al Kaline walked and Willie Horton and Jim Northrup followed with run-scoring singles.

McLain struck out 10 but was lifted for Gladding in the ninth after he gave up a homer to Ed Brinkman and issued successive walks to the next two batters. Gladding got Ken McMullen on an infield grounder to end the game.

"McLain had a little control trouble after the homer," said Smith, "and I brought in Gladding. But I'll tell you this. McLain has pitched three fine games in a row."

McLain, now 5-5, lost a 1-0 decision to Boston's Jim Lonborg last week but pitched a strong game.

"I just got a little mad after the home run," said McLain "I lost control of myself for awhile."

Smith said he plans to pitch Earl Wilson and Joe Sparma against the White Sox Tuesday.

JOB WELL DONE — A happy Jack McCloud (without hat) is surrounded by his exurberant Waterford Kettering teammates Saturday afternoon after pitching the first no-hitter of his WKHS career and also the first one in the history of the Pontiac Invitational High School Baseball Tournament. McCloud stopped Madison, 1-0, at Jaycee Park, needing only 72 minutes to do it.

In Indy '500'

Yanks Bucking Trend

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — American auto race drivers, who have watched a Scotsman and an Englishman wheel into Victory Lane for two straight years, have sound hopes of ending the trend Tuesday in the 51st 500-mile Memorial Day race.

Parnelli Jones of Torrance, Calif., a former winner, was virtually conceded his second victory in the event if his revolutionary STP-Pratt & Whitney turbine car holds together for the distance.

Italian-born but thoroughly Americanized Mario Andretti, Nazareth, Pa., will start from the No. 1 position and carry No. 1 on his car. He earned the numerals separately, the pole start with a record 168.982 qualifying speed in a Brawner Hawk Ford, the one painted on his car by winning the U.S. Auto Club championship last year.

The front row will be rounded out by international racer Dan Gurney of Costa Mesa, Calif., one of the game's smoothest drivers, in one of his own Eagle Fords, and Gordon Johncock of Hastings, Mich., who finished third last year, in a Gerhardt-Ford.

SECOND ROW

Although Jones' qualifying speed earned him only a second-row start, he had been babying an ailing gear box on the 10-mile trial run. After a new transmission was built by an Indianapolis firm specializing in helicopter gears, Jones showed in practice he could pass anybody in the field.

Jones, 1963 winner, will share the second row with A. J. Foyt Jr. of Houston, Tex., the 1962 and 1964 winner, and Foyt's teammate, former motorcycle champion Joe Leonard, San Jose, Calif., in Foyt-designed Coyote Fords.

★ ★ ★

The third row lineup will be Lloyd Ruby, Wichita Falls, Tex., who was winning the '66 race until his engine failed, and brothers Bobby and Al Unser of a famous Albuquerque, N.M., racing family.

Mechanical troubles and late qualifications left the five foreign starters far back in the field. Jim Clark of Scotland, 1965 winner, will start 16th, Denis Hulme of New Zealand 24th, Jackie Stewart of Scotland 29th; 1966 winner Graham Hill of England 31st and Jochen Rindt of Austria 32nd.

Al Miller of Roseville, Mich., oldest starter at 43, will take off beside Rindt, youngest at 25 but No. 2 ranking Grand Prix driver last year. Hulme currently leads this world road racing circuit.

The drivers were assembled at noon today for their final instructions and review of the rules, with emphasis on a clean start. Sixteen cars tangled last year only yards beyond the starting line, eliminating 11 but causing no serious injuries.

The worst wreck recently in the venerable speed event was a second-lap pileup in 1964 that killed drivers Eddie Sachs and Dave MacDonald. The old track has taken 57 lives, including pre-500 races of 1909 and 1910.

Clarkston Wins Regional Net Title

Clarkston's tennis team notched the first Class A regional championship trophy in the school's history Saturday at Flint and now returns to the county eying the Walled Lake Invitational title.

The Wolves dethroned host Flint Central, who had won the regional the past three years, when Mike Dougherty upset Central's topseeded Bob Sandford, 6-2, 1-6, 6-4, in the semi-finals.

Dougherty, who thus qualified for the state finals June 9-10 at Kalamazoo, then lost to Flint Northwestern's Wayne Thies in the finals, 6-2, 6-2.

Thies also beat Dougherty's teammate Mark Erickson, 6 3, 4-6, 6-1, in the semifinals.

Clarkston had nine points, Central eight and Flint Northwestern 7½. Pontiac Central tied Flint Northern and Southwestern with three points, Waterford and Pontiac Northern had two each and Kettering 1½.

Lapeer posted seven points for fourth place and took home the doubles trophy as Panthers' Ralph Potter and Carl Henderson defeated Flint Central's Rick Niemi-Dick Garthwaite, 6-4, 6-1, in the finals. PCH's topseeded Tim Shireman-Mike VanGuilder lost in the semi-finals.

The Walled Lake Invitational will begin Wednesday with 10 teams competing. The Wolves and North Farmington's defending champions are cofavored.

There are four singles and three doubles events. The finals are planned for Friday but could run into Saturday morning.

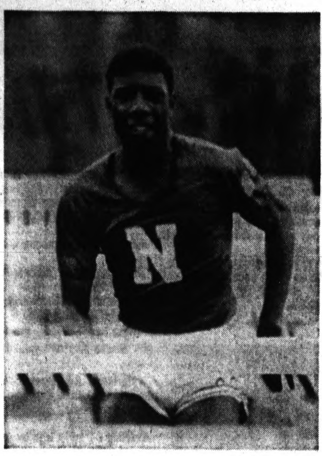
Pontiac Central Coach on Target With Track Predictions



Pontiac Press Photo

ONE-MAN TEAM—Mel Cole, Pontiac Northern's only representative in the state Class A track meet Saturday at East Lansing, turned in a stirring performance as he picked up 20 points to give PNH sixth place in the meet. Cole, shown running in the high hurdles, picked up two seconds and a pair of sixths for his 20 points.

Reggie Smith Keys 4-3 Win

Bosox Find Spot for Speedster

By the Associated Press

Reggie Smith has made a quick round trip from outfield to infield and back—with a stopover on the Boston Red Sox' bench.

But the versatile rookie still looks best to Manager Dick Williams when he's circling the bases.

Smith, an early-season disappointment at bat for the hard-hitting Red Sox, broke loose Sunday by stroking three hits and flashing his speed to score three runs in a 4-3 Boston victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

Elsewhere, the Detroit Tigers trimmed Washington 3-1 and climbed within one-half game of the American League-leading Chicago White Sox, who were blanked by California 5-0. The New York Yankees shut out Cleveland 5-0 and Minnesota divided a doubleheader with Kansas City, winning the first game 4-3 and dropping the nightcap 7-2.

Pittsburgh edged Cincinnati 3-2, St. Louis downed Philadelphia 8-3, San Francisco topped Los Angeles 4-1 and the New York Mets beat Atlanta 6-3 before bowing 7-3 in the second game of their doubleheader. Houston and the Chicago Cubs were rained out.

Smith, a .320 switch-hitter and All-Star center fielder for Williams' Toronto club in the International League last year, followed his manager up to the Red Sox this spring. He was switched to second base when training camp injuries sidelined rookie Mike Andrews and holdover George Smith.

BATTING SLUMP

Reggie's batting average dipped below .200, however, and Andrews bounced back to claim the second base job. Then, after an eight-game sojourn on the bench, Smith was returned to center field — and began hitting.

He doubled in the first inning Sunday, tagged up and raced to third on a foul pop near the first base dugout, then scored when the Orioles tried to nail Carl Yastrzemski on a delayed double steal of second.

Smith singled in the fourth, zipped to third on Andrews' single and beat the throw home on Yastrzemski's sacrifice fly to medium center. In the seventh, he doubled again, took third on a bunt and tallied on a wild pitch.

★ ★ ★

California's Jim McGlothlin stopped the White Sox on six hits for his fourth victory in five decisions while two Chicago errors contributed to three Angel runs. Don Mincher's double and Al Weis' boot produced a run in the fourth and Ken Berry's misplay on a single by Jim Fregosi helped the Angels push over two more in the eighth.

Mel Stottlemyre fired a five-hitter, Mickey Mantle crashed his 11th homer and Charlie Smith hit his first circuit of the season as the Yankees throttled the Indians at Cleveland. Stottlemyre squared his record at 4-4 with his third shutout of the year.

Bob Allison drilled a two-run double in the seventh inning, took third on an infield out and scored on a wild pitch by Chuck Dobson, keying the Twins' first-game victory at Kansas City and helping Dean Chance become the first AL pitcher to win eight games.

MORE DOUBLES

But two more doubles by Allison in the nightcap couldn't prevent Jim Kaat, a 25-game winner for Minnesota, in 1966, from taking his sixth loss in seven decisions. The A's tagged Kaat for three runs in the third inning, Mike Hershberger's two-run single climaxing the burst, and added four wrapup runs in the eighth.

RECORD RUN — Wayne Wills of Ortonville shows the form he flashed Saturday in streaking to a record 1:56.9 time in the 880-yard run in the state Class C track championships at Mount Pleasant.

Tipton Sparks Chiefs to 4th in State Meet

Melvin Cole Scores 20 Points to Take Sixth for Northern

While observers were heaping praise on his talented Chiefs last week and predicting PCH would capture the state championship, Wilson was saying something else.

He didn't like it but Wilson admitted late in the week that PCH wasn't strong enough. "Battle Creek Central will win it with Flint Central second and then probably us," he was saying.

It happened pretty much that way. Battle Creek grabbed the title Saturday with 48 points at East Lansing. Flint Central, as Wilson predicted, would up second with 36 points, but Ypsilanti edged the Chiefs for third place with 23 markers. PCH had 22.

★ ★ ★

And one of the most stirring performances of the meet was that produced by Pontiac Northern's Melvin Cole, a senior, who journeyed to East Lansing as a one-man team and returned with 20 points and sixth place among the classy Class A teams.

TWO SECONDS

Cole, who'll be in the Champions of Champions Meet in Kalamazoo tomorrow, picked up two seconds and two sixths in gaining 20 points.

★ ★ ★

He set a PNH record with a leap of 6-feet-7-inches in the high jump, good for second place, and he ran second to Pontiac Central's ace hurdler Bill Tipton in the 180-yard lows.

Cole's other points came in the high hurdles (14.5) and the long jump (21-7¾).

Tipton was one of two double winners in the state competition.

★ ★ ★

He cracked his own record in the 120-yard high with a 13.9 second clocking, well off the national standard he shares (13.5) with Richmond Flowers, now attending University of Tennessee.

WIND HURTS

In the lows, Tipton posted a time of 19.3. Running against a the speedster from cracking the 20-mile an hour wind prevented state mark of 19.0 set by Farmington's Rex Cawley 1958. He has had several clockings under 19 seconds.

Southfield's Kim Hartman won the mile in 4:18.2, and Mike Imirie of Bloomfield Hills bagged a third in the 880-yard run. Farmington's Bob Donovan placed seventh in the same event.

Larry Reese of Holly captured the state Class B title in the 880-yard run at Ann Arbor.

The speedy Reese turned in a time of 1:58.2 in nipping Curt Griffiths of Strugis (1:58.3).

Ecorse (43) won the team title. Howell was second (27), River Rouge (25) third and Sturgis (24) fourth.

In the Class C at Mount Pleasant, Wayne Wills of Ortonville set a record 1:56.9 in the 880-yard run in leading his teammates to a fifth-place finish.

★ ★ ★

HELPING OUT

Helping Wills with the scoring were Ron Waller (second in the shot put) and John Stevens (third in two-mile).

★ ★ ★

Detroit Country Day captured first place in the 880-yard relay. Clocked in 1:33.8 were Andy Ditzhazy, John Means, Jerry Dowis and Casey McWilliams.

Mike Christopher of Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows took the high jump with a leap of 5-feet-11-inches and teammate Bill Hartsock was sixth in the 440-yard dash.

Rick Mrozinski of Orchard Lake St. Mary placed fourth in the long jump.

Last Chance for U. S. Golf Captain

FORMBY, England (AP) — "If you think I came 3,000 miles to miss a 4-foot putt, you're wrong."

★ ★ ★

The speaker was big Bill Campbell, who led the 37-strong American challenge for the British Amateur Golf Championship today.

"This is probably going to be my last British Amateur and it's one I want to win," said big Bill. "I'm in a competitive mood — that means I'm kind of quiet. But if you're playing well the shots work out for themselves."

★ ★ ★

Campbell, 44-year-old campaigner from Huntington, W. Va., won all his four matches in the Walker Cup which saw a 13-7 American triumph over the British Isles at Sandwich a week ago.

Cougars Play Tie Contest in U.S. Debut

LYNN, Mass. (AP) — John Colrain's goal with less than six minutes remaining boosted the Detroit Cougars into a 1-1 tie with the Boston Shamrock Rovers Sunday night before a crowd of 7,300 in a United Soccer Association opener that ended in a melee.

★ ★ ★

Colrain took a head pass from Danny Trainor and scored on a hard boot into the upper corner from 30 yards out at 39:45 to cap a Detroit comeback.

Boston opened the scoring at 30:00 of the first half when Mickey Leech, a 19-year-old sensation, scored on a 10-yard boot after a neat maneuver.

NOT INJURED

Trainor booted the ball into the net but Colrain was ruled offside. The Cougars protested and linesman Bob Jack was hit in the mouth by a Cougar player during the argument. The official was not injured.

The two teams, meeting for the first time although Irish neighbors, staged a tremendous hard-hitting game as major league soccer made its debut in New England.

★ ★ ★

The Shamrock Rovers are from Dublin, Ireland. Detroit is represented in the league by Glentoran of Belfast in northern Ireland.

Four Share Lead in City Baseball

Four city Class A baseball teams registered their second wins Sunday as the men's recreation league concluded its early season schedule.

Defending champion Teamsters 614 edged Pass Excavating, 3-1, to retain a share of first place with the other three squads at 2-0.

M. G. Collision trounced UAW 653, 10-0; the Clippers whipped CIO 594, 9-4; and Booth Homes overcame Oakland University, 7-3.

Entering the win column for the first time were the Lake Orion Cardinals who outlasted Talbott Lumber, 8-5.

The action at Jaycee Park will cease until next Sunday while the high school baseball tournament finishes.

★ ★ ★

Gary Fisher slugged a two-run triple and scored on John Fleser's single in the fifth inning as the Teamsters rallied from a 1-0 deficit. Dick Roy singled home Pass' lone tally off Don Picmann.

RUNNERS

Seven singles, six walks and five UAW errors helped M.G.'s victory. Only winning hurler Bob Tuck among the regulars failed to score.

Ray Heaton slammed a three-run homer to give CIO a 3-2 lead through 3½ innings, but the Clippers' rallied behind Warren Stephens' fourth-inning triple and Larry Johnson's fifth-inning double. Hank Thomas had two singles and a double to account for three runs in the victory.

Ed Sparkman hurled his second mound triumph, striking out 11 Oakland U. batters. Tom Booth's two-run triple put the home builders ahead and Dick Reddaway's run-producing double capped their six-run rally.

★ ★ ★

Relief pitcher Bob Vollmer of Lake Orion limited Talbott to two hits over the final five innings and Willie Williams ripped a single, double and homer as the Cardinals scored eight times in the first four innings.

Unearned Runs Help Flint '9'

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (UPI) — Flint picked up two unearned runs here Sunday to squeeze by Mesa College of Grand Junction 2-1 in the second round of the National Junior College Baseball Tournament and knock the hosts out of the action.

★ ★ ★

The Flint victory followed a narrow 9-8 battle won by Gardner-Webb, N.C., over Phoenix, Ariz.

Winning Driver to 'Feather Nest'

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Jim Paschal, a crew-cut, slightly greying bachelor, figures chicken ranching may be better as a long term investment than auto racing. But right now he plans to continue doing both.

★ ★ ★

The 41-year-old veteran of 20 years in the Southern stock car bull rings picked up $29,035 Sunday in winning the second richest and longest of all stock car races, the World 600 at sun-baked Charlotte Motor Speedway.

It was the second time Paschal had won the event, considered by drivers to be the biggest test of endurance of all the South's big speedway events. He won here in 1964 and invested his share of that purse in a chicken ranch near High Point.

Paschal said after Sunday's victory that his winnings would be used to buy more chickens.

Tour Vet Whips Player in Overtime for 2nd Win

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Miller Barber smiled in the sunshine of victory today after beating Gary Player in a playoff for the Oklahoma City Open Golf Tournament title after rain delayed play of the final round for one hour and 45 minutes.

"I didn't remember it felt so good," said Barber, who rolled in a two-foot birdie putt on the third hole of a sudden death playoff. "This is nice. I'm very, very pleased."

Barber's only other victory in a nine-year professional tour career was the 1964 Cajun Classic. Here he was the unheralded challenger as he steadily pulled into a tie with Player on the back nine, and then birdied the final hole to cause the playoff.

Player, golfing in the threesome in front of Barber, finished with a birdie and had taken a momentary lead.

Barber and Player both had 68s Sunday, being tied with young Dave Stockton after 54 holes. Stockton opened strongly in the final round, going four strokes under par, but he shot a five-over-par 41 on the back to limp in with a 73.

George Archer had a 280 total, good for third place, and Billy Casper and Kermit Zarley were at 282. Stockton and Bob Charles, who fired a 67 Sunday, were tied for sixth at 283.

First prize money was $13,200, and Player took home $7,922 for second.

Records Fall in Road Races

Five Standards Set at Waterford Course

Several class records were set during the weekend as the road racing season opened at Waterford Hills.

On Saturday, Bill Petree of Riverview set a record in B-Production with his 327 Corvette. The new time of 1:21.6 (about 63 mph) sliced 2.9 seconds off the old record.

In the Sedan 2 category, Bernie Leckow set a record of 1:28.2 or 58 mph.

Paul Susalla of St. Clair Shores set a record Sunday with his new Sedan NSU of 1:31.2.

In race 2, Tom Abbott of Monroe set a standard of 125.2 in his Bobsy Banguard Vee of 1:25.2 while Frank Cipelle of Detroit, set an F-Modified mark with a time of 1:21.8.

Best performance was turned in by Dwight Knupp of Southfield in an ex-factory Sedan 4 Baracuda.

★ ★ ★

He won three races. But in the feature Large Production Race, Knupp briefly led the field, which included a 427 Corvette, until he misunderstood a flag signal and pulled into the pits briefly. Jeff Lance's Lotus Super Seven was the winner.

Next event at the Waterford Hills Road Course will be the SCCA Regional races on June 24-25.

Orchard Lanes Pitcher Blanks Softball Foe

Bob Marshbanks yielded only three hits and fanned five last night in pitching Orchard Lanes to a 12-0 victory over Idletime Bar in a Pontiac American League softball contest.

The winners bunched six hits with two walks and an error in scoring six times in the first inning.

Bob Crandall, Bob Minton, Bob Davis and Bill Schneider lashed out two hits apiece for the winners. Orchard Lanes is now 1-1 and Idletime owns a 1-2 record.

Second in the overall competition was Verlin Kruger and Terry Norris, both of Dewitt, in 2:03.52, and third was Al Widing, of Holly and Cecil Lame, of Flint, in 2:04.10.

By OSWALD & JAMES JACOBY

Oswald: "Maybe we ought to devote a week to some match point hands."

JACOBY

Oswald: "Here's one that helped Jay Cohen and Steve Robinson of Washington win the Masters' Pairs at the Mid-Atlantic Regionals in Durham, N.C. Jay who sat North had to make a decision at his first turn to bid.

"A double of West's two spade overcall would represent a sure profit and possibly more than game would net. Actually, West would only have gone down three tricks for 500 points and three no-trump bid and made would be worth 600."

Jim: "I imagine that some declarers made only three no-trump. How many overtricks did Steve make?"

Oswald: "Just two overtricks but he made them without taking any risk at all. He won the spade opening with his king and promptly led a low diamond from his hand. He had nothing to lose by this play and when the low diamond forced West's ace, Steve could have claimed five odd on a squeeze but it was easier to play the hand out."

★

Jim: "Suppose I run over the rest of the play as Steve must have handled it. Assuming a second spade play by West, Steve would win with dummy's ten, lead a diamond and let East hold the trick.

Assuming a heart return, South would win in dummy, discard a diamond on the ace of spades, come to his hand with a heart, cash the king of diamonds, cash his last heart and watch East squirm."

Oswald: "East would have discarded three hearts on spades. He would have to discard the high diamond or unguard his jack of clubs. The squeeze would have worked just as well if West had held four clubs because he would have had to unguard the club to hold a spade."

It's Meaning Now
Touches Most Everyone . .

When Memorial Day was instituted, it set apart a day for the memory of our nation's heroes who had fallen in our defense. Following the Civil War, the long period of peace made fewer the families affected.

Today, almost every family has those who are or have been members of our Armed Forces. Memorial Day means much to everyone of them — it affects us all. Honor all on this day set apart for that purpose — for your loved ones as well as others.

Soviet, Yank Spacemen in Cordial Capsule Tour

PARIS (AP) — A Soviet spaceman went inside an American space capsule today and was checked out by an American space veteran.

The 15-minute visit at the Paris Air and Space Show was apparently the first time a Soviet cosmonaut had a close-up view of the inside of a U.S. space vehicle.

* * *

Lt. Col. Pavel Belyayev and U.S. astronaut Michael Collins met today at the American exhibit, where an Apollo capsule is on display. The meeting was extremely cordial. The Russian was invited inside the capsule and Air Force Lt. Col. Collins climbed in with him.

Belyayev fired a long series of questions at Collins and the answers came back in rapid fire. Afterward, the two toured the American exhibit and the questions continued.

ORBIT WEIGHT

Belyayev asked Collins what weight the U.S. Saturn 5 rocket could hurl into orbit. Collins told him 200,000 pounds.

Pointing to the Gemini capsule, Belyayev asked: "What piloting systems are used:" Collins replied: "Automatic or manual."

* * *

Belyayev said he had been the first Soviet spaceman to fly the Voskod 2 capsule with manual controls. When Collins asked him how far from the intended landing spot he had landed, Belyayev said: "My landing was a little difficult. That is why the distance away was rather great."

Belyayev and Collins met for the first time on Friday and drank a vodka toast to Soviet-American space cooperation.

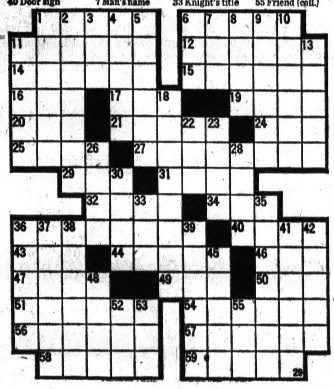
Answer to Previous Puzzle



Students Blow Off Steam in Friendly Free-for-All

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Almost everyone got bombed as Emory University held its second annual aggression rally.

The rally, a friendly free-for-all of mudballs, overripe vegetables and eggs, is designed to let students blow off steam before final exams which start June 3.

Helen Jenkins, director of Emory's food services, and Dr. McLaren Johnson Jr., head of the student infirmary, launched the wild melee Sunday.

With a long-drum roll from a Dixieland band, Mrs. Jenkins and Johnson, each armed with a bag of stale desserts from the university cafeteria and standing back to back, took three paces forward, turned and fired.

SHE SCORED

Johnson missed. Mrs. Jenkins didn't.

With the doctor dripping a delicate red and white blend of strawberry shortcake, Emory President Sanford S. Atwood fired a starting gun and the real barrage started.

★ ★ ★

Conveniently, Atwood ducked.

Most of the students were not so lucky. There were few misses as tomatoes, mudballs, sacks of flour and eggs filled the air for 30 minutes.

OWN GOO

The event is sponsored by the Phoenix, a student humor magazine published on the Emory campus. In addition to inviting students to bring their own assortment of goo, the magazine supplied 400 pounds of tomatoes.

This week before exams "is a time of tension," explained Phoenix editor Wayne Wood, "This is one way to relieve it."

Ex-Skipper Dies

DETROIT (AP) — Services were held in Detroit today for Capt. James Mahon, 58, former skipper of the railroad ferry Manitowac and a retired Detroit river captain. Mahon, who died Saturday in a Detroit hospital, skippered the Manitowac between Detroit and Windsor for nearly 32 years after seven years as captain of Detroit river mailboats.

Minot, N.D., with a population of about 30,000 has 300 acres of parks within its boundaries.

Spirit of Chivalry Not Dead in Heart of 'Thinkers' Actor

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — "I'm against what is called 'cool,'" Rod Steiger, the thinking man's actor, said.

"I'm sure to turn down any role that's stupid, false or insipid — and James Bond-type villain who's so 'cool' that he thinks all women have to be degraded."

WILSON

It was sort of shocking for a man to come out and say such chivalrous things about women in this day and age.

But Rod Steiger, the husband, you remember, of Claire Bloom, thumped the table at 21 with his fist slightly as he added:

"I'm not speaking for my wife but let's just say that she believes in good women and she's also against 'cool.'"

"Cool" they see as a negativism, a putting down, a destruction. They ache for a good romantic realistic story.

"I say I starve beautifully," Steiger remarked. "I have good food and a clean house and I own it, and compared to the other fellow I make a lot of money and I'm happy."

★ ★ ★

Actually he's just returned from winning the Best Foreign Actor award in England for "The Pawnbroker," he's sold his Brooklyn Heights home, they're moving to Park Av. Their daughter's now 7, and they take her along when they zip around the world making films.

"Actors started off as strolling players on jackasses," Steiger said. "It's still the same, except that now we're strolling players on jets."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Joan Crawford had to skip Martha Raye's USO-Woman of the Year party at the Rainbow Rm.—somebody'd stepped on her busted foot. (Martha introduced Gen. Omar Bradley, saying "We were young together in World War II") . . . Red Skelton may be the second comic to do TV from Miami Beach; Harry Singer of the new Statler-Hilton-Plaza is talking it over with CBS.

Ray Bolger'll return to the Waldorf at a hefty pay raise, doing one show nightly . . . Secret stuff: A very wealthy executive gave his very wealthy fiancee a 300G engagement ring—though he doesn't have a divorce yet . . . Swank Cartier's will be taken over for a day for filming of Julie Andrews' movie "Star."

★ ★ ★

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Bob Orben suggests a trade agreement with Russia—we send them cars and they send us parking spaces.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Monty Hurst described a town he lived in: "It was so dull that when the traffic light burned out, nobody noticed it for a week."

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "We are never too old or too young to mind our own business."—Thomas A. Edison.

EARL'S PEARLS: Airline fares can be paid in installments, and Arnold Glasow calls this "debt-propulsion."

Monique Van Vooren, on the "One in a Million" TV'er, wanted to discuss her eyes, but was running out of time. Selma Diamond suggested, "Why don't you just talk about one eye?" . . . That's earl, brother.

Egypt Ousts 007, Cowboys

CAIRO (AP) — James Bond and American cowboys became casualties today of the Middle East crisis. They were barred from Egyptian movie screens because such types "glorify Americans and Britons as invincible heroes," Minister of Culture Sarwat Okasha announced.

★ ★ ★

The ministry said such films "show the white man as a master who subjugates animals and human beings in Africa and Asia and give a distorted picture of Africans and Asians—falsifying history and life," the semiofficial paper Al Akhbar reported.

American Westerns and thrillers about such agents as James Bond are very popular with Egyptians.

Fish Death Case

MARQUETTE (AP) — The State Water Resources Commission has recommended that legal steps be taken to collect $500 from the DuPont Chemical Co. for accidentally killing 5,000 fish last month. The company admitted accidentally dumping chemical wastes into a northern pike spawning ground in White Lake, the commission said.

Soviet Navy Nears Mideast Crisis Site

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Soviet naval force is steaming in the eastern Mediterranean in position to play a possible role in the Arab-Israeli crisis, say Pentagon sources.

At last report, the 15 to 20 Soviet naval ships in the Mediterranean were doing nothing more warlike than keeping track of the movements of the much bigger and more powerful U.S. 6th Fleet.

★ ★ ★

Some of the guided missiles aboard Soviet cruisers, frigates and destroyers are capable of challenging planes flying from three American aircraft carriers in the Mediterranean.

Other missiles aboard the Soviet warships are of the surface-to-surface type, thus could be trained either on American warships or on land targets in the Middle Eastern coastal area.

TASK GROUP

The Soviets have maintained a Mediterranean task group for about three years as part of their widening naval activity around the globe.

At various times, Soviet warships are seen in the western Mediterranean off Tunisia, Algeria, Italy, Greece and Egypt.

The Soviet vessels are supported by oilers, tenders and supply ships which drop anchor from time to time in various sheltered international waters.

Normally, the Soviets keep a force comprising a cruiser, three to five destroyers and frigates, two or three submarines, four or more intelligence-gathering trawlers and a variety of supporting craft in the Mediterranean.

SOVIET VESSELS

The core of the Soviet naval force in the Mediterranean comprises first-line Soviet vessels such as the Kynda-class guided missile frigates and the Kashin-class guided missile frigates, as well as guided missile destroyers.

The Kynda-class frigate is rated the most heavily armed of all Soviet surface naval units.

★ ★ ★

It is equipped with four-barreled surface-to-surface missile launchers and a twin antiaircraft missile launcher.

The Kashin-class frigate is armed with twin surface-to-air missile launchers fore and aft.

TORPEDO ARMED

Soviet submarines in the Mediterranean reportedly are armed with torpedoes rather than missiles.

This position is conveniently close to the Dardenelles, and thus to the Black Sea fleet bases of the Soviet Union.

It also is relatively near the more troublesome areas of the Middle East, such as the site of the present Arab-Israeli dispute.

★ ★ ★

The Soviets have no aircraft carriers. However, the eastern Mediterranean is well inside the range of bombers based on airfields in the southern part of the Soviet Union.

Griffin Wants U.N., U.S. to Act in Crisis

PETOSKEY (AP) — Sen. Robert Griffin, R-Mich., said Saturday the United Nations or the United States should act in the Middle East crisis.

★ ★ ★

"If the U.N. is unable to provide a peace-keeping role in this situation, we may wonder what future the U.N. has at all," Griffin told a Republican gathering Saturday night in Petoskey.

★ ★ ★

He said that if the U.N. takes no action, the United States should act unilaterally, or in conjunction with such interested powers as Great Britain, to settle the matter.

The Boy Scouts of America was founded Feb. 8, 1910.

No Decison on LBJ Return to the Capital

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson spent a quiet weekend at this Texas ranch, keeping in touch with Middle East developments, but announcing no decision about when he will return to Washington.

His press secretary, George Christian said, "I don't know when he's going back." It could be today or Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

The President was relaxing in warm Texas weather. He took the wheel of his white Lincoln Continental to drive to church Sunday a few miles from his ranch at St. Xavier's Roman Catholic Church in Stonewall.

Two staff members went with him, but Mrs. Johnson did not go along to the services at the little white stucco church, which was filled with worshipers.

★ ★ ★

Christian said the President was in touch by phone Sunday with Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey on the situation in the Middle East. He also worked on official correspondence.

★ ★ ★

There were a few rain showers in the Texas hill country, but on the whole the weather was ideal.

Coast Guard's Role Is Eyed

Two Congressmen Fly to Vietnam for Study

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Phil Ruppe, R-Mich., and Rep. Frank Clark, D-Pa., flew to Vietnam Sunday to investigate the U.S. Coast Guard and shipping problems.

Ruppe said the trip will include stops in Bangkok, Saigon and Manila.

★ ★ ★

He said the Coast Guard has prevented 250 tons of ammunition, arms, food and other war material from reaching the Vietcong.

"However, we must constantly evaluate and search for better ways to bar seaborne aid to the Vietcong.

KEY DECISIONS

"The Coast Guard subcommittee of the House Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee is going to be faced with some critical decisions in the near future. The Coast Guard is a small service, and every man and boat we send abroad leaves a hole in their mission at home.

★ ★ ★

"This year Coast Guard manpower in Vietnam has doubled to 1,100 enlisted men and 136 officers. If American military pressure increases, we can expect a substantial increase in Coast Guard activity in Asia. Chairman Clark of the Coast Guard subcommittee and I intend to gather information to guide us in the decisions our committee will soon be making."

★ ★ ★

He said at Bangkok and Manila they will investigate shipping problems, construction of port facilities, and possible port congestion.

They expect to return to Washington about June 14, Ruppe said.

Tablet Is Out

FLINT (AP)—The Flint chapter of the Eagles has withdrawn its offer to put a 2,500-pound granite tablet of the Ten Commandments on the City Hall lawn. The withdrawal came after the city agreed with a claim by the American Civil Liberties Union that the tablet on city property would violate separation of church and state.

It pays to be a Credit Union Family

Credit Unions are different. They are owned by their members — lock, stock and barrel. Because of this, credit union members enjoy benefits found nowhere else. SAVINGS benefits . . . BORROWING benefits . . . INSURANCE benefits.

ONLY IN A CREDIT UNION do all dividends go back to the members, with life insurance as an extra dividend on savings. Borrowers get a break, too, with loans insured at no extra cost, and often a year-end interest refund.

There are many other credit union advantages.

DO YOU KNOW that more than 1⅓ million people in Michigan are now credit union members? Come in and find out why.

If you are not a member and would like more information, contact the C. U. where you work or one in your parish or call 332-9193.

3 Escapees Caught in Kidnap Case

Pontiac State Police captured a convicted murderer and two other escaped convicts from Ionia State Reformatory early today after they allegedly had kidnaped a young Belding couple and forced them to drive them on an eight-hour ride across Michigan.

The convicts were arrested in a Waterford Township home at 3748 Oakview shortly before 6 a.m. today. They were asleep and offered no resistance, according to State Police.

The captures of Allen Smith, 30, of Jackson; Dennis C. Hyde, 22, of White Lake Township; and Gerald Van Hoorelbeke, 20, of Grayling came more than eight hours after the abducted couple reported the incident to the post and later identified their kidnapers from photographs.

Smith is a convicted murderer. Van Hoorelbeke was in prison for a car theft. Hyde was convicted of assault with intent to rape a Detroit woman in Springfield Township in July 1963.

★ ★ ★

They escaped from the prison late Friday night along with convicted armed robber Welton R. Slayton, 21, of Mount Clemens who was captured yesterday by Hazel Park police. All four men had trusty status at the institution.

The kidnaped couple, Clare McQueen, 20, and his 16-year-old bride of one month, Bonnie, told State Police they were abducted near Belding and held captive on a ride to Grand Rapids and Pontiac.

They said they were overpowered by three convicts at the home of Mrs. McQueen's sister, Mrs. Al Pluskhat.

The McQueens went to the house to get some belongings when they were reportedly surprised by the hoodlums who had been sleeping in a barn on the property.

The convicts were armed with a rifle and knives at the time. They forced the McQueens to drive them to Grand Rapids to see a friend and then proceeded to Pontiac when they learned the man had moved.

HUNCH PAYS OFF

Smith, Hyde and Van Hoorelbeke got out of McQueen's car in Pontiac and reportedly went to three or four homes of friends before they were caught at the Waterford Township residence.

A hunch by a State Police detective led police to the Waterford Township address.

Assisted by Oakland County sheriff's deputies and Pontiac police, State Police broke the door in and captured the trio.

Smith was sleeping on a couch. Hyde and Van Hoorelbeke was asleep in a bedroom.

★ ★ ★

Kidnaping warrants were being sought against the three convicts. Five local residents, who allegedly helped the trio, may be charged with aiding and abetting a fugitive, according to State Police.

Couple Describes Long, Scary Drive

By LOIS MANDIBERG

"We didn't talk because we were afraid they would think we were trying to cook something up," said Clare McQueen when telling of an eight-hour drive as captive of a convicted murderer and two other Ionia State Reformatory escapees last night.

McQueen, 20, and his wife, Bonnie, 16, were allegedly kidnaped at gunpoint in their hometown, Belding, and forced to drive the men to Pontiac.

The couple, who've been married one month, told of walking into her sister's house about noon yesterday and finding one of the men sitting on the couch.

"I thought he looked familiar and I made a joke. But then I saw another guy sitting and a third man who walked out of the kitchen with a rifle and told us to stand against the wall," McQueen said.

"We did just what they said," McQueen, a construction worker, added.

OFFERED CAR

"The men asked for a ride. I offered them my car but they refused saying they would be arrested for car theft," said McQueen.

"The man waved the rifle and Clare agreed to take them to Grand Rapids. I asked them to leave the gun behind and they did," his wife said.

When they reached Grand Rapids the men decided to drive on to Pontiac, according to the young couple.

★ ★ ★

"When they didn't get out I didn't think we'd ever see another stitch of daylight," commented McQueen, who told of driving a tan 1961 Chevrolet in a six-hour-long, round-about way to Pontiac from Grand Rapids.

NO TALKING

"They didn't say more than two words to us beyond giving directions, said Mrs. McQueen.

"After we dropped the men off somewhere on South Saginaw we tried to find our way home to report our experience to the police.

★ ★ ★

"But we got lost on the directions the men had given us, so we found our way to the Pontiac State Police post about 8:30 last night and told them the story," McQueen concluded.

Arabs, Israelis Trade Shots in Flare-Up on Gaza Strip

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Arab mortar and machine guns from the Gaza Strip fired today on farmers and soldiers inside Israel and the Israelis answered with machine guns, an Israeli army spokesman said in Tel Aviv. He reported one Israeli was slightly wounded.

While the firing ceased after 40 minutes, the incident served to heighten the feeling of imminent crisis in the Middle East.

The feeling of imminence grew yesterday when President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt announced he would never retreat from his blockade of Israeli shipping in the Gulf of Aqaba.

Israel's premier, Levi Eshkol, declared his army is ready to fight aggression, including a blockade.

The firing on Israeli soil from Gaza apparently was begun by Egyptian irregulars and members of the Palestine Liberation Army.

They are believed manning the front lines with Egyptian regulars farther back.

It was the first such incident reported along the Gaza Strip since the U.N.

Related Stories, Pages A-8, C-12

Emergency Force pulled out of frontier positions last week at Egypt's request.

This account was given: Machine guns and mortars began firing from the Gaza Strip at 12:35 a.m., at men working in the fields of a collective farm and at a motorized army patrol.

★ ★ ★

The Israelis replied with machine guns. The fire was concentrated near Nahal Oz, on the Gaza border about 45 miles southeast of Tel Aviv. Several fields were set afire.

The crisis originally was brought on by a series of border raids on the Syrian front and by Israel's threat to retaliate.

Egypt promptly sent men and armor to the frontier and asked the U.N. peacekeeping force to withdraw.

Surprise Shelling Hits Yank Brigade; Raiders Blast Hotel

SAIGON (AP) — Communist gunners hammered at U.S. forces on the central coast in a predawn surprise attack today while others lobbed mortar shells into the ancient Buddhist city of Hue. Terrorists followed up the mortar attack by bombing a Hue hotel housing members of the three-nation International Control Commission of Canada, India and Poland.

Troops of the 3rd Brigade of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division came under attack at 2:30 a.m. while encamped seven miles northwest of Duc Pho, a coastal town 325 miles northeast of Saigon. There was sharp fighting in the same area last week.

A U.S. military spokesman said a company of the 3rd Brigade took about 100 rounds of 60mm and 82mm mortar and 57mm recoilless rifle fire from a Communist force of unknown size. The enemy also hit the Americans with heavy fire from automatic weapons and small arms.

★ ★ ★

The fighting continued until daybreak when U.S. units began a sweep of the area. Late reports said the action continued past midday.

The U.S. spokesman said the Americans had reported killing 29 Communist troops. U.S. casualties were not immediately known.

The mortar and terror attacks in Hue killed four persons and wounded 17, including a driver for the International Control Commission. Although the hotel was about 80 per cent destroyed, the 10 commission members staying there escaped unhurt. No Americans were hurt.

The hotel housed six U.S. Marines, several American civilians and several U.S. Navy Seabees.

Arrests Put Off in JFK Probe

Garrison Says More to Be Made in Future

NEW YORK (AP) — New Orleans Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison says "we are going to have to defer any further arrests" until later in his investigation of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Garrison appeared Sunday on the ABC "Issues and Answers" radio and television program.

★ ★ ★

He said additional arrests probably will be made before the trial of Clay L. Shaw, New Orleans businessman accused by Garrison of participating in a conspiracy to kill Kennedy. No date has been set for his trial.

Garrison has maintained since Shaw was arrested in March that more arrests would be made.

BOMBARDED BY PRESS

Asked Sunday when the arrests would be made, Garrison replied: "As a result of some experiences we have had—and I certainly don't blame the press; naturally, they want to know about an interesting matter like this, but our office was almost put out of commission as if it were bombarded by artillery—we are going to have to defer any further arrests to try and make them at a later date. But there will be further arrests and they will probably be before the trial."

★ ★ ★

Garrison contends that the Warren Commission, which investigated Kennedy's death, was mistaken in its conclusion that Lee Harvey Oswald, acting alone, fired the shots that killed Kennedy in Dallas Nov. 22, 1963.

Garrison summed up his conspiracy theory, which goes like this:

- Kennedy was not killed by Oswald, but by a group of conspirators composed of Latin Americans opposed to Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro and of former employes of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency.
- Oswald was not a CIA agent, but "was obviously an intelligence employe of the United States government."

2 Teens Held in Attempted City Break-In

Two teen-agers arrested early today by Pontiac police faced arraignment on charges of attempted burglary.

Chester Eatmon, 19, of 553 S. Jessie and Patrick Young, 17, of 260 W. South Blvd. were apprehended, police said, shortly after discovery of pry marks on the rear door of the 5-V Gun Shop, 720 W. Huron.

Police were called to the scene about 2:45 a.m. by a neighbor who heard pounding on the door of the shop.

Eatmon and Young were halted in their car by police at a nearby intersection and released, but were followed when investigators noted a crowbar and pick protruding from the car's trunk.

★ ★ ★

Patrolmen David Schroeder and Norman Kilmer followed the automobile and stopped the suspects again at Lake and Gillespie.

Schroeder said green paint chips found on the crowbar appeared to match paint on the rear door of the gun shop. Police also took a hammer and flashlight from the pair.

Record Traffic Toll Expected

Holiday Accidents Fatal to 346 So Far

CHICAGO (AP) — Traffic accidents over the Memorial Day weekend snuffed out the lives of hundreds of Americans and safety experts feared today the long holiday period might produce a record toll.

The total number of deaths on the nation's streets and highways stood at 346 early today.

Howard Pyle, president of the National Safety Council said traffic fatalities are running about 5 per cent less than last year's three-day Memorial Day weekend. However, he added, since this year the respite spans four days, total traffic deaths-barring a trend reversal—will hit a new Memorial day weekend high.

"Reports to this time indicate the final total will fall within the 650-750 range estimated by the council at the start of the holiday," Pyle said. The final count will include traffic deaths from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Tuesday.

2nd Peace Conference Convenes

GENEVA (AP) — After hearing U.N. Secretary General U Thant blame selfish actions for producing the danger of a third world war, lesser Western leaders and a few minor Communist figures start talks today on how to live in pece.

The Soviet Union and Red China were not represented at the second Pacem in Terris conference and many influential Westerners withdrew, some because of the danger of Arab-Israeli war. The conference is named after Pope John XXIII's encyclical, Peace on Earth.

Thant did not single out any governments for special blame. He said practically all the governments directly involved in the major world conflicts are U.N. members but "when they feel that their vital interests are involved or threatened, they are willing to follow their own course regardless of the restraints and obligations that the charter imposes on them."

Thant was one who did not come to the conference because of the Middle East crisis. He spoke on closed-circuit television from New York Sunday to some 200 persons at the opening of the four-day meeting.

PRAVDA EDITOR

Mikhail Zimyanin, editor of the Soviet Communist party newspaper Pravda, was to have taken part in a discussion today of threats to coexistence. After word came from Moscow that Soviet citizens were not to appear, his place was given to Nicolae Ecobesco of Romania, where the Communist government acts independently of Moscow in some foreign policy matters.

Another panelist, Marian Dobrosielski, a counselor to the foreign ministry of Communist Poland, said he was attending "as a private citizen because I think this is worth doing and worthy of more consideration than it is getting from some people in the United States."

★ ★ ★

On the American television program "Meet the Press" Sunday night, Dobrosielski blamed Israel for the Middle East crisis and said the North Vietnamese were ready to negotiate if the United States would stop bombing them.

North Vietnam and the Viet Cong are boycotting the conference. The sponsors barred a representative from South Vietnam as a result.

UNDER FIRE

Besides falling short of sponsors' hopes for a meaningful East-West debate on Vietnam, the conference also is under fire on three grounds:

—Criticis say little representation was given to advocates of the U.S. position in Vietnam.

UAW Holds Up COPE Funds

DETROIT (UPI) — United Auto Workers secretary-treasurer Emil Mazey yesterday confirmed that the UAW has withheld its customary spring contribution to the AFL-CIO's Committee on Political Education (COPE).

Mazey said the union did not forward the first installment of about $25,000 that would ordinarily have gone to COPE by late May.

Mazey said it was possible the UAW would spend money on education independent of COPE in the future.

The UAW secretary-treasurer noted that there are no national elections in 1967. He said COPE has plenty of money for immediate needs and the UAW simply is withholding its contributions pending a decision on whether to make them.

Mazey said about $175,000 would ordinarily go to COPE this year.

Romney Rated Top Candidate for GOP

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The "most formidable" candidate the Republicans could run for president in 1968 is Michigan's Gov. George Romney, says Sen. Birch E. Bayh, D-Ind.

Bayh told a $100-a-plate Democratic fund-raising dinner Sunday night at Toledo that, in Indiana, President Johnson would have a "tough time" defeating Romney in a presidential election.

★ ★ ★

Bayh said he hopes the GOP decides to run former Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the presidency. He said Johnson would have no trouble defeating Nixon.

The Waterford Township Board's 7:30 meeting tonight will be held at the water department building instead of Township High School, the usual meeting place.

The water department building is located at the Civic Center off Tubbs Road.

Birmingham Area News

Crossover Costs to Be Aired

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission has received a recommendation from the State Highway Department that the city pay the entire cost of two crossovers of Hunter.

The report will be studied at tonight's meeting at 8 at city hall.

In the report is a state recommendation that left turns be prohibited at the Hunter-Forest intersection, but that no traffic signal be permitted.

A further crossover, and traffic pattern changes south of Oakland on Hunter, is included in the plan.

The city commission contends the changes are beneficial to the state highway system and that costs should be shared.

It is recommended that the city and state officials meet to discuss a cost-sharing plan.

Also on the agenda is a report by city legal advisors concerning impounding of vehicles on city streets.

The report states the city's ordinance is valid under state law.

★ ★ ★

However, the legal firm also points out the city is exposed to claims of liability for property damage to vehicles resulting from any harm to a vehicle being towed away or stored.

IMPOUNDING

The firm recommends "sparing" use of impounding procedures.

Vehicles have been impounded on restricted-parking areas and during winter snow problems.

Also on the agenda is a report on a proposed resurfacing of six downtown alleys.

The city engineer's office found some of the alleys are in need of resurfacing, but that only a thin layer can be applied due to grade problems.

Total cost would be about $9,000.

Johnson Forces Hopeful of GOP Help on Rail Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Johnson administration supporters are looking to Republicans on the Senate Labor Committee to supply votes needed for approval of the President's plan to avert a threatened railroad strike.

It will take nine votes to get the President's bill out of the committee. Administration strategists hope GOP members will supply five of these, perhaps six.

★ ★ ★

Several of the 10 Democrats on the panel have indicated strong reservations about the plan in view of bitter opposition to it from the six shopcraft unions involved the the entire AFL-CIO.

The bill is before the Labor subcommittee, which plans to start work on it in closed session June 5.

AMENDMENTS

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., the subcommittee chairman, told a reporter he expects many amendments to be offered and said he might have some himself.

On the House side, the measure is being handled by the Commerce Committee. Several Democrats on that committee also have voiced reservations about the bill.

★ ★ ★

The strike deadline in the dispute has been postponed twice through adoption of interim measures by Congress. The strike could begin June 19.

Johnson's proposal calls for a further delay of 90 days with intensive mediation efforts through this period. But if no settlement can be reached, the recommendations of a special five-member board to be set up under the bill would become binding for as long as 15 months.

CONFIDENT

Administration lobbyists say they are confident of five Republican votes on the Senate panel and may win that of the other Republican member, Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York.

Javits has said he may have no alternative but to vote for it, even though he feels it clearly amounts to compulsory arbitration. Administration officials insist it is not.

★ ★ ★

But the New Yorker said he wants to explore other possibilities, including limited seizure of the railroads by the government.

20 Questioned in Stock Probe

Rigging Investigation Is Expanding Rapidly

NEW YORK (AP) — Some 20 brokerage house employes are being questioned by investigators looking into allegations of multimillion-dollar manipulations of certain stock exchange issues.

The brokerage salesmen, employed by more than a dozen firms in New York and Chicago, are being asked if they were offered or accepted cash bribes, or submitted to blackmail threats, by the reputed stock riggers who sought to generate public buying in the issues. Some of the men already have been fired or suspended by their firms.

It was understood that the interrogations were being conducted by the stock exchanges with which they are affiliated and, in some cases, by a federal grand jury here.

The investigation, moving forward on several fronts, is being rapidly expanded. At least two New York Stock Exchange issues now are under scrutiny along with a larger group traded on the American Stock Exchange.

RIGGING SCHEMES

Probers said the reputed rigging schemes are continuing and are costing brokers and investors uncalculated millions of dollars.

In addition to the grand jury and major stock exchanges, the situation is being looked at by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Chicago Police Department.

★ ★ ★

One prominent Chicago broker, partner in a member firm of the New York Stock Exchange, received a death threat by telephone after suspending a salesman who was being questioned. The salesman later was reinstated.

British Mariner Is Ashore After Circling the Globe

PLYMOUTH, England (AP) — Sir Francis Chichester, the ancient mariner of the new Elizabethan age, settled down today to enjoying "some of the delights of shore life."

★ ★ ★

Behind him was an epic 28,500-mile, single-handed circumnavigation of the globe in his 53-foot yacht Gipsy Moth IV. For the 107 days of the outward voyage to Sydney, Australia, and the 119 days of the return voyage around Cape Horn, he was alone with the sea and the sky.

★ ★ ★

But the 65-year-old seaman said as he stepped ashore Sunday night that he was looking forward to some peace and quiet.

"Although you would think after four months I would have had enough peace and quiet," he said with a grin from under his blue yachting cap. "I'm looking forward to getting ashore and facing some of the delights of shore life."

DINNER TREAT

High on the list, he said, was "the best dinner, by the best chef, in the best surroundings and the best company—after four months of my own cooking."

"There are so many things, but that is one thing I am quite certain about," he added.

★ ★ ★

He spent his first night ashore in a second-floor bedroom of a four-story, white Georgian mansion within sound of the sea. From his bedroom, he looked down on a statue of Sir Francis Drake, the first Englishman to sail around the world. He sailed from Plymouth in 1577, during the reign of Queen Elizabeth I.

Springtime Break Time for Prisoners

By the Associated Press

It's spring and the prisons have sprung.

A total of 17 men walked away from five federal and state institutions during the weekend, apparently spurred to freedom by the balmy air.

★ ★ ★

The list of escapees included nine from Ionia State Reformatory, four from the Federal Correctional Institution at Milan, two from Waterloo State Prison farm near Jackson, and one each from Coldwater State Hospital and the Boys Training School at Lansing.

10 ROUNDED UP

The springtime spree was over quickly for 10 of the escapees, who were captured by police. Searches continued over a wide area of Michigan for the seven still at large.

Pontiac seemed to be a magnet for some of them, as five were found at homes of friends there and another was picked up 15 miles away in Hazel Park.

Four others were caught seven miles from Ionia State Reformatory from which they had escaped.

Local Police Nab 2 Prison Escapees

Two escapees from the Waterloo state prison farm near Jackson were captured early today by Pontiac police who forced their way into an apartment on the city's near east side.

Walter Graham, 23, and Malcolm McNeil, 33, were held at the Oakland County Jail on escape charges pending their return to Jackson.

★ ★ ★

Prison authorities said the pair had walked away from the Waterloo farm last night. Local police, acting on a telephone tip, took the two into custody at 377 E. South Blvd.

Graham was serving a 6½-to-15-year sentence for assault with intent to rob and McNeil was serving a 1-to-15-year sentence for breaking and entering.

Boater Drowns

CHEBOYGAN (AP) — A 45-year-old Lansing man drowned on Mullet Lake near Cheboygan when his 14-foot outboard motorboat capsized Saturday. The man, John G. Daman, was the father of seven. A 17-year-old fishing companion, Terry L. Wolfe, also of Lansing, clung to the boat for two hours and was rescued.

Meeting Changed

The City Commission will meet 8 p.m. Wednesday instead of tonight as originally reported.

Grand Jury Limit Strikes at System

Do our constitutional provisions regarding one-man grand jury investigations best serve the taxpayer?

The entire one-man grand jury system has been a topic of debate in recent years. Some feel it places too much power in the hands of one juror. Some point to it as the only effective way to combat organized crime when other police methods fail.

A ruling this week by the Michigan Court of Appeals has halted an Oakland County one-man grand jury investigation being conducted by Circuit Judge Philip Pratt. The appeals court issued an order killing a subpoena issued by Pratt against a Madison Heights druggist.

The ruling was apparently based on a constitutional provision that limits the length of a one-man grand jury to one year. In other words, the same grand juror, in this case Judge PRATT, cannot head consecutive grand juries investigating the same general area of suspected criminal activity.

Does this constitutional provision, in effect, cheat the taxpayer? Judge PRATT headed a grand jury which first focused on illegal activities in Royal Oak Township and then expanded to include Oakland County. That grand jury ran from June 1965 to June 1966.

Last August State Attorney General FRANK KELLEY petitioned for another grand jury investigation into the charges of illegal activities centering around the Hazel Park Race Track. Oakland County Circuit Judges again named PRATT to head it.

This second grand jury, which has just been terminated, was like its predecessor, expanded to include all of Oakland County last September.

Such investigations cost money. The first grand jury probe cost taxpayers $33,047. Costs for the second probe to date have not been compiled. If the present ruling stands up, taxpayers' dollars spent to date on the second grand jury will be for naught.

Even more significant, however, is that the law itself has the effect of withholding from the taxpayer his most effective tool in such investigations. That tool is experience.

In the case of Oakland's one-man grand jury probes, the constitutional limitation seems to have cheated the public by withholding the services of our most experienced juror.

And what about justice? We have the highest respect for the competency of our circuit bench. But is justice best served by using a juror lacking in grand jury experience when an experienced judge is available to perform the task?

Apparently Judge PRATT's colleagues felt it wasn't. They selected him for the job for that very reason—his experience.

Results Reported of First Month's Auto Check

The first month of operation of Michigan's new motor vehicle inspection law produced many significant results.

Conducted by four-man units of State Police operating in temporary inspection lanes, a total of 5,400 cars were inspected during the 30-day period.

Troopers handed out 1,074 tickets requiring major correctional action, found that 87 drivers did not have their licenses with them, 13 were driving with revoked and 10 with suspended licenses. About 6 per cent of drivers had some sort of license violation.

★ ★ ★

Four hundred eight drivers had no vehicle registration, and 103 improper registration. Six-hundred seventy-six drivers had no proof of insurance.

Bearing heavily on the question of driver responsibility for highway safety was the fact that of the 3,144 cars equipped with seat belts, only 1,441 were in use.

Inoperative windshield washers gave rise to the greatest number of citations with 1,297 while defective windshield glass was low with 19. Nine other categories of vehicle disrepair or neglect caught the eyes of inspectors.

★ ★ ★

That an effective vehicle inspection program, so long advocated by highway safety authorities, will play an important role in cutting the rate of road accidents and casualties is well evidenced by the extent of driver guilt and carelessness so soon detected.

Vote Amendment Promises Trouble

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — A Pandora's box of troubles may be opened when Congress votes on a constitutional amendment to choose the president and vice president by popular vote.

Ruth Montgomery

But the suggested cures are widely divergent, ranging from direct voting to proportional, congressional and district plans.

The one-man-one-vote method of choosing our chief executive has a pleasant democratic ring to it, and enjoys the support of the American Bar Association as well as the senate majority and minority leaders.

★ ★ ★

But election by popular vote could lead to more, rather than less federal interference in state and local governments.

This fact is clearly recognized, since the proposed constitutional amendment to provide for popular election states that nothing therein would prevent Congress from subsequently passing uniform residence and age requirements for all voters in presidential elections.

Most Americans cannot vote until their 21st birthday, but some of our states permit their citizens to vote at the age of 18, 19 or 20.

Resident requirements are even more diversified, with some areas enfranchising new residents after 60 or 90 days, and others requiring domicile for up to a year.

★ ★ ★

MIGHT MAKE CHANGES

But if the electoral college were eliminated and each vote given the same weight, state legislatures might be tempted to reduce voter age and residence requirements as drastically as possible to yield a larger voice in the selection of the president.

Thus, the federal government would probably be impelled to set an over-all standard for the 50 states to prevent such rivalry, and might then feel called upon to oversee policing of the polls.

Most liberals favor the direct vote plan, which has the advantage of depriving big city political machines of their excessive power to influence presidential elections, and which would prevent the election of a chief executive who polls less than 40 per cent of the popular vote.

But liberal Sen. Ernest Gruening of Alaska has recently introduced a congressional district plan which has long been espoused by Texas multimillionaire H. L. Hunt, a strong voice for the far right.

The Gruening - Hunt plan would retain the electoral college system, giving each state two electors-at-large and one for each congressional district, but the votes of the latter would be cast according to which presidential candidate carried the individual district, rather than the state as a whole.

This is similar to the district plan favored by most states-rights advocates, except that in the latter case the votes would automatically be allocated by districts without need for an electoral college.

David Lawrence Says:

Political Funding Finally Faced

WASHINGTON — At last Congress is coming to grips with the problem of how to finance political campaigns. Up to recent months, the subject has been bypassed, and many irregularities have either been condoned or overlooked.

LAWRENCE

If candidates for public office must depend on other citizens or on organizations with a vested interest in legislation to put up the money to help elect them, they will inevitably feel under some obligation to repay the favor by their acts in public office.

President Johnson has just submitted to congress a comprehensive plan.

The President, in his message to Congress, has taken into consideration also the need for election reforms. He suggests a $5,000 limit be placed on the total amount that comes from any organization or any individual or member of his family.

REPORT ON PAYMENTS

Mr. Johnson has urged, too, that corporations holding contracts with the government be prohibited from making political contributions at the state and local level. Today they are only barred from contributing to campaigns for national elections.

Mr. Johnson wisely recommends that the comptroller-general's office should be given complete authority to obtain full reports after each presidential election as to payments that have been made and to audit the expenses of presidential campaigns.

This is an innovation which is long overdue. For obviously members of committees of Congress have been reluctant to investigate the finances of their own political party.

★ ★ ★

When a bill was passed last October by Congress permitting each individual to indicate on his income-tax return that a dollar of his tax money might be used for political contributions by either party, there was a widespread dissent.

BAD PRECEDENT

It was pointed out that the new law did not deal with misuse of political funds and that it would be a bad precedent to give the taxpayer the right to exercise any control over how his tax money shall be disbursed by the government.

In comparison with the budget of the United States government, the total cost of presidential campaigns is relatively small, but it is nevertheless a large amount for political parties to raise.

The worst aspect of the existing system is that it places parties and candidates under obligation to special interests.

It is evident now that the whole system of campaign contributions will be carefully reviewed, and it is to be hoped that limitations and restrictions will be imposed so that no person elected to public office will feel that he has an obligation to give special favors in one way or another to those persons who have contributed large sums for campaign purposes.

NASA Is Back at Work, Eye Still on the Moon

HOUSTON — It just isn't true that NASA's in the cold, cold ground.

The astronauts, the personnel at the manned space center, and everybody else concerned are back to work.

CONSIDINE

The last "mea culpa" has been breathed over the calamity of last January.

The widows Grissom, White and Chafee have emerged from their weeds.

The spacemen are back at work. Teams are being made up, exotic missions mapped.

We're still going to the moon by the end of this decade, by God.

"Let's talk about 501," Paul Henry said today, getting on with the job. Paul is the Voice of Apollo. And that Greek god should have sounded so good.

"It's coming late this summer or early fall. It will be the first test of the Saturn-5 booster. Seven-and-a-half million pounds of thrust on takeoff, five times as much as we've ever handled before.

"It won't be manned but we hope to learn a lot from the mission. And will, I'm sure. We'll send the spaceship into an egg-shaped orbit and then fire it back at the earth at about lunar speed."

Patiently, he explained. On the second lap around the earth, when the three-seat command ship is at its apogee, 10,000 miles from earth, the engine of the "service module" which will be attached to it will be ignited and will shoot the command ship at the earth — simulating its return to earth from the moon.

23,500 M.P.H.

By the time it comes to within 200 miles of earth it will be traveling at 23,500 miles an hour, just as will men returning from the lunar surface.

To plunge at that speed into the jelly-like atmosphere in which we live might be highly lethal.

So the wizards here at the manned space agency center have figured out a "cooling" system that goes back to their days as kids.

The space capsule returning from outer space at this outrageous speed will be positioned so that its broad flat bottom will strike the earth's atmosphere like a flat stone and bounce, just like that stone.

But just as a skimming stone loses momentum after the first brush with the water, so will the spaceship.

Just as the stone eventually disappears into the water, so will the spaceship descend into the atmosphere in which you and I wallow.

Sterilization No Answer To Sex Deviate Problems

A recent article suggested sterilization of habitual sex offenders as a last resort. Sterilization isn't the answer as it will not stop the offender from committing another act or committing a murder. It will only stop pregnancy due to rape. Pregnancy can be stopped by the victim reporting to the hospital immediately for treatment before conception occurs. This will take care of a needless abortion or sterilization bill in case of incest or rape.

★ ★ ★

Is propaganda starting for a sterilization bill? It looks like it. Sterilization takes a right from one who has violated the rights of another and the punishment is permanent. Since when do two wrongs make a right? If sex offenders are ill, cure them. If you can't, we must keep them isolated from society.

Super Cities

The Denver Post

Arthur C. Clarke, the great British science fiction writer, once described a marvelous city—millions of years in the future—in a book called, "The City and the Stars."

His automated city, Diaspar, was so fully automated that nothing was done manually; even "human" experience was programmed by advanced technology.

But Clarke's Diaspar proved faulty by the end of the story. Its residents wanted to be human after all. Technology had simply carried them too far. Diaspar was radically altered.

This, in a way, suggests the dilemma of today's planners of new cities.

The Denver Post Tuesday carried a bonus section describing Dr. Athelstan Spilhaus' proposal for an experimental city, a project for which the University of Minnesota has $248,000 in federal funds.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Spilhaus's plan seeks to conduct an experiment to see if the dream city is possible—the city which never becomes out of date, has no waste materials and is not called upon to grow beyond a logical size, either in area or population.

At the same time we hope that the experimental city concept allows room for study of the human condition. How many churches, for example, are to be encouraged in a totally planned city?

Who is to pay taxes for the schools — and what kind of schools? If the city operates at a loss how long should the rest of America subsidize it?

We're not saying these are reasons for criticizing the project. We simply find that, like so many idealistic things we've assumed to be unmixed blessings, there are important questions of choice to be faced when the ideal nears reality.

Extra Benefits

The Bay City Times

There's nothing like first-hand experience such as world travel to broaden one's perspective. And this truism is not lost on our lawmakers in Washington.

Last year almost half of the members of Congress took foreign trips at public expense.

A survey notes that at least 243 (45.6 per cent) of the members made a total of 337 government-paid trips often referred to as "junkets."

★ ★ ★

There is no comprehensive record of the total spending by members of Congress on official trips abroad.

Congressional committees make annual reports on individual travel expenses of members and committee staffs on committee business, but these reports do not fully account for such things as transportation, embassy accommodations and entertainment.

★ ★ ★

Biggest spender listed in committee reports was Rep. Wayne L. Hays, D-Ohio, who headed a subcommittee that investigated the travel spending of Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, of all things.

Hays spent a total of $6,589 on foreign travel. No accounting was given on Powell's expenses.

★ ★ ★

Two "retirees" figured in the foreign trip itinerary. They were Reps. Walter Rogers, D-Texas, and John C. Kunkel, R-Pa. Both retired at end of the 89th congress, after they had spent $3,970 and $3,500 respectively on "educational" trips abroad.

Which all goes to prove that in some occupations it's the fringe benefits that make the job attractive.

Health Department Oversees Homes for the Aged and Ill

By JUNE ELERT

"What shall we do with Grandma?" It is a heartbreaking question, laced with vaguely-felt and generally unwarranted undertones of guilt.

Grandma (or Grandpa) may be ill or senile or simply weak with the weight of years and no longer able to cope with day-by-day necessities.

★ ★ ★

Sons and daughters are understandably reluctant to relegate an aged parent to a "home."

Eventually, they will visit a nursing home or a home for the aged. Perhaps they will be surprised and relieved to know that beloved oldsters can be safely entrusted to the care of a "home."

There are safeguards to ensure that care will be adequate.

SAFEGUARDS

The Nursing Home Division of the Oakland County Department of Public Health in cooperation with the State Health Department provides those safeguards.

Enforcement of licensing requirements, inspectors, employe health standards, dietary supervision, investigation of complaints, etc. are all used.

The staff of the Nursing Home Division consists of one full-time Administrator - Public Health Nurse, Mrs. Helen Beske, and one part-time Public Health Nurse, Mrs. Doris Schuchter.

These women have the responsibility of making licensure visits, prior to license renewal in January, to all 46 licensed nursing homes in Oakland County, plus five licensed homes for the aged.

Nine of the licensed homes are Medicare - certified facilities.

Here, in addition to minimum nursing care and staffing requirements (one licensed nurse, RN or LPN, on duty 40 hours per week), the many additional requirements for Medicare certification must be met.

★ ★

All patients in licensed homes must be under the care of a physician. In non-Medicare facilities, these visits may be spaced quarterly.

- In Medicare or "extended-care facilities," as they are called, patients must be seen by a physician at least once a month.
- All Medicare services must be available to residents.
- Consulting services of a qualified dietician must be available.
- A medical records librarian and a qualified social worker must be on call.
- Nursing staff must be under the supervision of an RN and there must be licensed practical nurses on duty at all times when an RN is not on duty.

About one third (740) of the presently available beds are in facilities certified by Medicare.

Construction of new facilities under way will add another 500 beds to this total.

Homes for the aged differ in licensing requirements in that they are not required to provide nursing services, nor to retain nursing personnel.

★ ★ ★

Residents of these homes are persons 65 or older who are in good health. A physical examination and chest X-ray upon admission are required.

Some may suffer temporary indispositions, but if illness requires them to remain in bed for a long period, or prevents them from being active, transfer to a facility where nursing care is available becomes necessary.

Wednesday Talk by Dr. Drachler

The Sisterhood of Temple Beth Jacob will sponsor a talk Wednesday evening by Dr. Norman Drachler, superintendent of Detroit schools.

His topic at the 8:30 p.m. meeting will be "The Quest for Excellence in Education." He will be introduced by Mrs. Lee Fisher of Birmingham.

Hostesses for the occasion will be Mesdames Kenneth Dickstein, Harry Arnkoff, Tom Horowitz, Sidney Barnett, Nat Morrison, Paul Mandel, Isaac Grahelsky and Herman Dickstein.

This will be an open meeting and the public is invited.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I just got the thrill of my life, and because you were indirectly responsible for it, I want to share it with you.

ABBY

You asked your readers to write to the lonely GIs in Thailand who never got any mail, so I wrote a rather long, chatty letter and sent it to the address you suggested. I closed with, "You'd probably have been happier to hear from a beautiful, young blonde. Sorry . . . I am a 52-year-old grandmother." Here is a part of the letter I received in return:

"No, I wouldn't have been happier to hear from a beautiful, young blonde. You see, my mother died when I was two, so I never knew what it was to have a real mother, but your letter came about as close to one a mother would have written to her son. Even though I am only 19, I know that "love" can be based on friendship, admiration, and respect — as well as on romance.

There is room in my heart for all kinds of love, so I hope you won't mind if I sign my letter with "love" — the kind of love a son has for a mother he never knew. God bless you too.

(signed) A Less Lonely GI"

Now, Abby, you know why I am a . . .

THRILLED GRANDMOTHER

DEAR ABBY: When I saw that letter in your column from GI Joe King, asking for mail for some of the lonely GIs, I couldn't resist writing. I just received the following from the GI who got my letter:

"Dear Mrs. Vautherine:

"Your letter was actually beautiful. I read it out loud three times already, and all the guys thought it was great.

"From that one mention Abby had in her column about writing to GIs, letters have been pouring in at the rate of 9,000 a day! And we are trying to answer them all. We love mail. It is the greatest morale booster you can imagine.

★ ★ ★

"Here's a little information about me. I am 28. Before joining the air force I was a barber. My home is Kankakee, Ill. I've been married eight years. We have a little girl who is four, and a son who is a year old now. He was a week old when I left. Before closing, I want to thank you ever so much for your wonderful letter.

"You and all the other folks back home who wrote those letters will never know how much you did for us GIs half a world away. God bless you!

Ron"

Little Expected at Mart Talks

De Gaulle Opposition Is Stumbling Block

ROME (AP) — Rome welcomed the first Common Market summit meeting in six years today with inauguration of a new executive combine expected to be the only achievement.

French President Charles de Gaulle's opposition to Britain's application for membership and to proposals for political unity of the six Common Market members ruled out progress on those two major issues.

That left little but formalities and ceremonies for the two-day meeting on the 10th anniversary of the formation of the European Economic Community.

However, de Gaulle was expected to go along with the inauguration of a 14-member executive combine to replace the three separate executive commissions that now exist for the Economic Community; the European Atomic Energy Commission, and the European Coal and Steel pool.

EXERTED WILL

De Gaulle also exerted his will here by opposing the appointment of West German Walter Hallstein to head the new combine. Hallstein is the longtime chairman of the EEC commission and a champion of the kind of political unity de Gaulle opposes.

It was strongly rumored that the appointment will go to an Italian, or to Belgium's Jean Rey, who distinguished himself as the Common Market representative in the Kennedy Round tariff negotiations in Geneva.

Only ceremonial functions were planned for the opening day. The only working session, lasting three hours, is scheduled Tuesday morning.

Hanging over the conference was fear of war in the Middle East. But there was no indication that the Common Market leaders could do anything to lessen tension between Israel and the Arabs.

27 Cardinals Named; 4 Are Americans

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI named 27 new cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church today, including four Americans. This brings the membership in the Sacred College of Cardinals to 120, the largest in history.

The Pope's action gave the United States nine cardinals, three more than it has ever had.

★ ★ ★

The new American princes of the church include Archbishops John Joseph Krol, 56, of Philadelphia; Patrick Louis O'Boyle, 70, of Washington, D.C., and John Patrick Cody, 59, of Chicago.

The fourth American, the Rt. Rev. Francis J. Brennan of Shenandoah, Pa., has long headed the Vatican's Sacred Rota, the highest tribunal of the church dealing with marriage matters.

★ ★ ★

Pope Paul had increased American membership in the Sacred College to six cardinals at his first consistory, in February 1965, but Albert Cardinal Meyer died Sept. 4, 1965.

Most Would Fall on Monday

Long Holidays Eyed

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

CUNNIFF

NEW YORK — If some interests in the United States had their way, you would have a holiday today instead of Tuesday. Most holidays, these advocators say, should be celebrated on the first day of the week.

This is a ticklish type of proposal, involving deep emotions, patriotism, tradition and habit. But the idea of Monday observances is a persistent one and may someday receive serious consideration.

Some powerful forces give thrust to the idea. First, it is in the spirit of the four-day week which, we are told, may be upon us this century. It would reduce interruptions in production. And there are obvious health advantages in long weekends.

★ ★ ★

One group that sees great beauty in the three-day holiday weekend includes businessmen, and just a little investigation gives at least one insight into the reason why.

Many bosses, it seems, feel their employes use Mondays as semiholidays anyway. This theory views the employe as arriving for work physically exhausted and emotionally drained, his head devoid of anything but golf scores and headaches.

MONDAY JAMS

Obviously there is some truth in this. For evidence you may check the roads from resorts to the city some Monday morning. Very early, they may be jammed with desperate motorists who indulged themselves with an extra night at the cottage.

Having so coddled themselves, they must rise in the darkness and drive madly toward the city and their first workday of the week, their blurred consciousness distressed by the vague feeling that the swollen sun seems to be rising like a great wound opening. What a way to begin the week.

There is another side to this problem also. A midweek holiday sometimes leads to an additional holiday, self-proclaimed by the employe. The notable example is Thanksgiving Day, which falls on a Thursday and is sometimes extended through Friday, either by design or indigestion.

Currently, it is standard practice to grant at least six holidays, these being Christmas, Thanksgiving, New Year's Day, Independence Day, Labor Day and Memorial Day. Sometimes Washington's Birthday and Veteran's Day are added.

5 CANDIDATES

Of these, at least five are considered candidates for switches to Monday: Washington's Birthday, Veteran's Day, Independence Day and Thanksgiving. Labor Day, of course, is a Monday holiday already.

Whenever such proposals are made by Congress, businessmen or labor, the arguments soon follow. In a young nation proud of its history but untroubled by ceremony, traditional dates are, nevertheless, still difficult to tamper with. These dates are sacred to some. But others ask why?

Advocators of Monday holidays point out that there is hardly anything sacred, for example, about observing Thanksgiving Day on the fourth Thursday of November. It was set there by a congressional resolution that voided an earlier date proclaimed by Franklin D. Roosevelt.

This was not its first move, either. Before 1939 it was observed on the last Thursday in November, having been set there by President Abraham Lincoln in 1864. It was not Lincoln's only Thanksgiving date. Just a year before he had decided on August 6.

Pontiac Names Service Head

Other Changes Told for Motor Division

The appointment of James G. Vorhes as Pontiac Motor Division's parts and service director was announced today by Thomas L. King, general sales manager.

Vorhes, who has been Pacific regional manager since February, succeeds John C. Bates who was recently named assistant director of General Motors Corp.'s service section. Vorhes plans to move to the Pontiac area.

Another change announced by King was naming of Steven J. Kulcher as assistant zone manager in Pontiac. In 1962, he was named service and parts manager in New York. He also will move to the Pontiac area.

KULCHER VORHES

Kulcher joined Pontiac in 1950 while a student at General Motors Institute.

Vorhes joined the division in 1947 as a clerk in the service department in Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Vincent A. McCabe, current Pontiac assistant zone manager, has been appointed Buffalo zone manager. He came to Pontiac in 1949 as assistant car distributor in Pittsburgh.

King also announced these changes in Pontiac's sales organization:

- Walter W. Knocke, who has been Chicago zone manager since 1961, succeeds Vorhes as Pacific regional manager with offices in San Francisco.
- Gilbert A. Wiggins, Cincinnati zone manager, succeeds Knocke in Chicago.
- John W. Johnston, Buffalo zone manager, succeeds Wiggins in Cincinnati.
- David C. Snyder, office manager and car distributor in Portland, succeeds Kulcher.

3 S. Korean Fishermen Killed by Reds

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — Three South Korean fishermen were killed and seven others injured in four North Korean attacks on South Korean fishing vessels over the weekend off Korea's west coast, military sources said today.

★ ★ ★

The attacks occurred in the general area where South Korean navy boats exchanged fire for 20 minutes with Communist patrol craft and shore batteries Saturday, the sources said.

★ ★ ★

The gun battle took place near the Communist island of Sunido, about 90 miles northwest of Inchon. No casualties or damage were reported.

Communist patrol boats fired machine guns at South Korean fishing boats after the fishing boats refused to go to North Korea to surrender, the sources said. All four South Korean boats returned to Inchon with the dead and wounded aboard, they added.

★ ★ ★

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "I am 95 years old and my investments are just about able to keep me. Two mergers have me in doubt. I hold Hartford Electric Light and Connecticut Light and Power which merged into a third called Northeast Utilities. American Optical, which I owned, has been acquired by Warner-Lambert. Should I hold or sell Northeast and Warner-Lambert?" C.H.

A) Northeast Utilities is a holding company with operations in contiguous territories in Connecticut and western Massachusetts. This is an instance, I believe, in which the whole is stronger than the parts. Your Northeast is a sound stock, offering a satisfactory return, and I advise you to hold it.

American Optical's merger with Warner-Lambert was beneficial to both parties, in my opinion. You formerly held a stock involved mainly in optical products. You now own — on quite a satisfactory exchange basis — an issue which is broadly diversified in consumer products. As with most strong growth stocks, your current return on Warner-Lambert is below two per cent. You may wish more income, and in this event only, I would switch to CIT Financial, yielding 5.2 per cent.

Q) "Are tax-exempt bonds generally good investments? Could you name some of the better ones that I might buy?" G.K.

A) Direct obligations of cities and states are among the safest investments you can buy. There are also available tax-exempts issued by districts and public authorities created by cities and states but payable only out of specific revenues. These vary as to security in accordance with their coverage of fixed charges. Currently I like State of California 3⅞s of 2000 at 100 and City of Seattle 3.80s of 1987, also at 100. These are high-grade direct obligations and are not redeemable prior to maturity.

2 Helicopters Crash, Killing 10 Soldiers

FT. KNOX, Ky. (AP) — The Army announced today the death toll reached 10 in the crash of two UH1B "Huey" helicopters during a training mission at this military base near Louisville.

Ten soldiers were in Ireland Army Hospital, two listed in serious condition.

The 10 killed in the Sunday afternoon crash were members of the 3rd Squadron, 17th Air Cavalry Regiment stationed at the base, said Lt. Col. John Caithness, the post information officer.

Identities were withheld pending notification of relatives.

Caithness said the helicopters were transporting troops on a training exercise in preparation for a demonstration of firepower and armor mobility, scheduled June 1.

Each helicopter normally transports 10 men, plus a crew of three.

Caithness said it was not clear whether the copters collided or individually lost power and dropped to the ground.

When Memorial Day was instituted, it set apart a day for the memory of our nation's heroes who had fallen in our defense. Following the Civil War, the long period of peace made fewer the families affected.

Today, almost every family has those who are or have been members of our Armed Forces. Memorial Day means much to everyone of them — it affects us all. Honor all on this day set apart for that purpose — for your loved ones as well as others.

3 Rail Cars Ablaze Near Ammo Load

Smoke from the burning tankers could be seen for 30 miles.

★ ★ ★

One police official said no one could get into the perimiter of the fire because of the danger of the ammunition car exploding.

There were no immediate reports on injuries.

BLOCK ROADS

Police cordoned off all roads leading into the area, a half-mile from the Switzer crossing, 18 miles south of Spartanburg. This included U.S. 221 south from Spartanburg to Woodruff.

★ ★ ★

First reports said 15 or 20 cars of Atlantic Coast Line's freight train No. 293 derailed. The tankers exploded and caught fire, sending a pall of smoke and flames 3,500 feet high.

★ ★ ★

All fire and rescue units in southern Spartanburg County were ordered to the scene.

Newsmen in planes said they could see at least 20 freight cars lying on their sides in a wooded area near the ACL's main line leading northward from Augusta, Ga.

Soviet, Yank Spacemen in Cordial Capsule Tour

PARIS (AP) — A Soviet spaceman went inside an American space capsule today and was checked out by an American space veteran.

The 15-minute visit at the Paris Air and Space Show was apparently the first time a Soviet cosmonaut had a close-up view of the inside of a U.S. space vehicle.

Lt. Col. Pavel Belyayev and U.S. astronaut Michael Collins met today at the American exhibit, where an Apollo capsule is on display. The meeting was extremely cordial. The Russian was invited inside the capsule and Air Force Lt. Col. Collins climbed in with him.

Belyayev fired a long series of questions at Collins and the answers came back in rapid fire. Afterward, the two toured the American exhibit and the questions continued.

ORBIT WEIGHT

Belyayev asked Collins what weight the U.S. Saturn 5 rocket could hurl into orbit. Collins told him 200,000 pounds.

Pointing to the Gemini capsule, Belyayev asked: "What piloting systems are used:" Collins replied: "Automatic or manual."

Belyayev said he had been the first Soviet spaceman to fly the Voskod 2 capsule with manual controls. When Collins asked him how far from the intended landing spot he had landed, Belyayev said: "My landing was a little difficult. That is why the distance away was rather great."

Belyayev and Collins met for the first time on Friday and drank a vodka toast to Soviet-American space cooperation.
