Returns From Europe

Very Fine Trip, Says Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy returned to America this morning after a "very fine trip" to see leaders in Europe. He will make a report to the nation tonight.

Kennedy arrived at Andrews Air Force Base at 8:33 a.m. (Pontiac time) after a week during which he saw Soviet Premier Khrushchev, French President Charles de Gaulle and Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Kennedy walked down the receiving line and shook hands with each of the approximately 70 people in it.

Then, in a show of bipartisanship, he took both Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Senate Republican leader, and Senate Foreign Relations Committee Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., to his waiting helicopter to ride with him to the White House, 15 miles away.

At the executive mansion, Kennedy planned to work during the day on the speech he will broadcast at 6 o'clock (Pontiac time) tonight. It will be carried by all major television and radio networks.

Cleveland Runs Now Starting From Pontiac

North Central Tells of Daily Flights Between the Two Cities

The first service, beginning immediately, includes an evening flight from Pontiac to Cleveland and a morning flight from Cleveland to Pontiac. The only stopover is at Willow Run.

The flights are an extension of the Detroit (Willow Run) to Sault Ste. Marie line that has been serving Pontiac since last December.

At the same time, the company announced the start of new service to Port Huron that "involves added flights to and from Detroit (Willow Run) in the mornings.

The Cleveland connection represents the first concrete results of a long drive by Pontiac air officials and North Central Airlines to link Pontiac with the industrial cities of Ohio.

The Pontiac-Cleveland flight will operate seven days a week, using Convair aircraft.

The morning flight to Pontiac is scheduled to leave Cleveland's Hopkins Municipal Airport at 8:30 a.m. (EDT), arriving in Pontiac at 10:18 a.m. (Pontiac time).

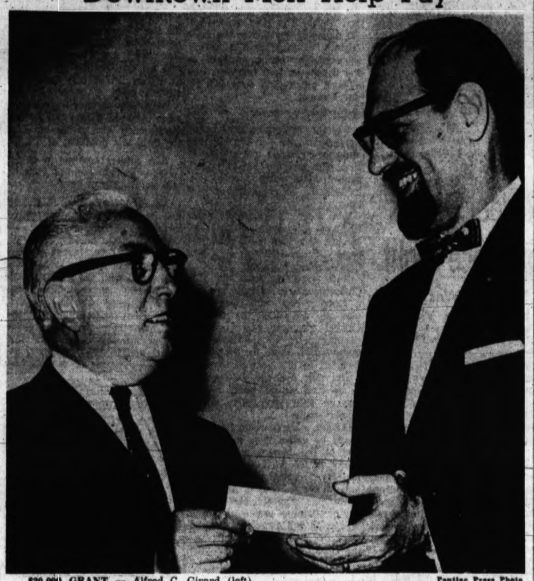

The evening flight is scheduled to leave Pontiac at 5:45 p.m. (Pontiac time), arriving in Cleveland at 8:02 p.m. (EDT). Both flights have brief stops at Willow Run.

The added flights between Port Huron and Detroit (Willow Run) are by DC3 aircraft, Monday through Friday, but not on weekends.

A morning flight leaves Willow Run at 7 a.m. (Pontiac time), arriving in Pontiac at 7:18. It is scheduled to leave Pontiac at 7:21, reaching Port Huron's St. Clair County Airport at 7:45.

The return flight leaves Port Huron at 8:15 a.m., arriving in Pontiac at 8:39. The flight from Pontiac to Detroit leaves at 8:39, arriving in Detroit at 9 a.m.

Downtown Men Help Pay

Five Suggestions Offered

City Plan Gets Big Shove

By PETE LOCHBILER

A master plan for downtown Pontiac redevelopment was under way today after the Downtown Development Group donated $20,000 toward it and, in a separate move, proposed five major steps for civic improvement.

To be prepared in about nine months by a group of nationally known experts under the coordination of David S. Geer, city planning consultant, the $40,000 study will become "the bible" for downtown revitalization, it was predicted yesterday at a meeting of the development group and Pontiac city officials.

OUTLINES 5 MOVES

Before presenting a check to the city covering half the master plan's cost, Alfred C. Girard, president of the Downtown Development Group, outlined the five moves for the "serious consideration" of the city. They are:

Purchase by the city of the Oakland County courthouse and site in downtown Pontiac, to hold for eventual resale to "a proper" redeveloper.

Purchase of the Oakland Theater site at South Saginaw and Water Streets, partly for right-of-way to turn Water Street into a boulevard leading into the Civic Center.

Action toward a study of the possibility of establishing a special assessment district in the downtown area to finance liquidation of the outstanding municipal parking revenue bonds, a movie that could lead to free municipal parking.

Construction of a boulevard to the east side of Pontiac, tying Michigan State University Oakland to downtown.

Launching of a new urban renewal project — the city's third — this one in the vicinity of Fisher Body Division's plant on Baldwin Avenue.

Mayor Philip E. Rowston promised close scrutiny by the commission of the five recommendations and City Manager Walter K. Willman said the courthouse deal was a possibility if the county, after an appraisal, comes up with "a reasonable" price.

Girard, president of Community National Bank, said he felt the city had a responsibility to "protect" the courthouse site against speculators until there is community realization of its best use. This may be several years away, he suggested.

It was not the first time that the other moves have been suggested, but downtown backing gives them new impetus.

Willman indicated there already has been some discussion between the city and the Butterfield Theater chain about sale of the downtown spot where the Oakland Theater stood until it was destroyed by fire last fall. No decision has been reached, he said.

ROYAL OAK DID IT

The move to retire the parking meter bonds has been widely discussed in downtown circles, especially since the time a similar move got under way in Royal Oak. A big factor is finding an assessment formula that could stand up in court.

Barely Avoids Sudden Death

Runaway Girl Rams Car Into Pole, Misses Possible Electrocution

A 16-year-old Waterford Township girl, who had never driven a car, tried it last night and is fortunate to be alive today, according to township police.

Patricia Godfrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman G. Godfrey of 6047 Rolton Court, lost control of her parents' car on Telegraph Road just south of Glendale Street about 11 p.m.

The car smashed into a Detroit Edison utility pole, careened up an embankment, struck the Savoy Motel and overturned.

The jolt snapped cables carrying 40,000 volts and set off a series of blasts seen and heard as far away as downtown Pontiac.

ESCAPES PERIL

None of the hot wires struck the car. Its driver was taken to Pontiac General Hospital where she was released after a check showed no apparent injuries.

Police said the girl was on probation from the Oakland County Juvenile Court and was attempting to run away from home in the family car.

The high tension wires crossed other wires and blasts lit up the sky for miles around. Hundreds of nearby residents lined the highway watching police, firemen and Edison crews.

Areas served by the 40,000-volt circuit were blacked out a few seconds until an auxiliary circuit took over.

A 4,800-volt circuit also blew out, leaving the Huron Gardens area without electricity for one hour and eight minutes.

A fire around the base of the pole was quickly extinguished. The scene resembled a small disaster area in minutes when sheriff's deputies, Pontiac police and firemen, state police and ambulances hurried there.

The driver was turned over to Juvenile Court authorities this morning.

May Best Month for Car Sales

Total Is 537,825 With Daily Rate of 20,686; Chrysler Lags

DETROIT (AP) — The nation's auto dealers sold more new cars in May than in any previous month this year. And the daily selling rate also was the highest of 1961.

The five automakers reported Monday that May sales totaled 537,825 cars with a daily sales rate of 20,686. November of 1960 was the last month in which daily sales went over the 20,000 mark. Chrysler was the only one with lower sales in May.

The industry made no comment whether or not the May sales would influence production schedules for the future.

The May sales total represented an increase of some 77,000 units over April when 460,138 cars were sold. But last month's upturn still failed to match the pace of May 1960, when sales totaled 566,650 and the daily rate was 22,665.

Sales had been lagging nearly 100,000 units per month below 1960, but the gap was cut to less than 30,000 in May.

Ford said its sales totaled 179,760 last month compared with 137,460 in April. Ford division sold 147,415 cars, its best May figure since 1929.

GM's may total was within 3 per cent of year-ago sales and less than 1,000 units below last November, high point of the 1957 model year.

GMC May Deliveries Best Since October

Retail deliveries of General Motors trucks and coaches totaled 6,132 in May, making the month the best sales month for GMC Truck & Coach Division since last October, it was announced today by Calvin J. Werner, GM vice president and division general manager.

He said deliveries started rising sharply in mid-May, reaching 3,226 units in the final 10-day period. This was achieved by a 291 daily sales rate, the highest since the last period in August 1960, Werner said.

Compared with the previous sales figures this year, he added, the May total was nearly 13 per cent higher than the average monthly retail deliveries in the four preceding months.

Portugal Restless, Press Editor Finds

By JOHN W. FITZGERALD
Editor, The Pontiac Press

Those of us who live thousands of miles away can complacently view the news from Europe and the Middle East without raising an eyebrow. But if one sees it first hand, if only fleetingly, there is no ground for contentment.

Along with 20 other editors, I have just completed a tour of 10 countries where we interviewed government leaders and had a first-hand look at local conditions.

Briefly, I will try and summarize my impressions of the current economic and political conditions of the countries I visited.

Our first stop after a six-hour flight from New York was Lisbon, Portugal, and the outlook of the Portuguese people is a curious and attractive mixture of nostalgia and optimism. They often look into the past, but they are always looking to the future.

For this reason, Portugal is both old-fashioned and up-to-date, and this combination of the ancient and the modern lends the country and its people a peculiar charm rarely encountered elsewhere.

Lisbon was basking under the warm spring sun but underneath they were burning mad at the United States for our United Nation's stand on Angola. Questioned about their stand in Africa a speaker for the Portuguese ministry said, "Of course, we're going to hang on to Angola, come what may."

Bangup Spectacle to Open Pontiac Centennial Week

A challenge, a legend of two lovers and a bit of history comprise the beginning of the mammoth Wisner Stadium Spectacle that will highlight Centennial week.

The stirring, two-hour pageant starts out with the explosion of a mock atom bomb, symbolic of man's choice of using nuclear power in either a destructive fashion or a constructive one.

This is the challenge that faces the people of Pontiac and the rest of the world.

In following scenes, "The Pontiac Story" deals with the legend of the Indian warrior and his maiden who were lovers on Apple Island in Orchard Lake. Then comes an historical account of the Indian conspiracy led by Chief Pontiac, the city's namesake.

TRACES CENTURY

Thus the colorful Spectacle begins to trace the history of Pontiac, including its 100 years as a city.

With a cast of 1,082 recruited from the Pontiac area citizenry, the outdoor extravaganza is being produced by the John B. Rogers Producing Co. of Fostoria, Ohio, for a six-night run, June 19, 20, 21, 22, 23 and 24, beginning at 8:45 p.m. with a half-hour preperformance show each night by various musical groups.

The director, Harry Miller, said the spectacle relies heavily on such effects as mass crowd scenes, music, dancing, fancy costumes, rolling equipment and dramatic lighting.

Year's High of 86 Will Be Repeated Here Tomorrow

The weatherman said tonight will be fair and cool, with a low of about 58.

Wednesday is expected to be partly cloudy with a chance of a few scattered afternoon or evening showers. Tomorrow's high will reach for 86 degrees. Scattered showers with little temperature change is the outlook for southern Lower Michigan Thursday.

Morning northeasterly winds at 8 miles per hour will diminish tonight.

Fifty-eight was the lowest recording in the downtown area preceding 8 a.m. The reading at 2 p.m. was 77.

CRASH LANDING — This car went out of control late last night on Telegraph Road, struck a utility pole (left) and overturned about 40 feet off the highway. The crash snapped Detroit Edison Co. wires, knocking out 40,000 and 4,800-volt circuits temporarily. The driver, Patricia Godfrey, 16, of Waterford Township, escaped with minor bruises. Traffic was tied up on Telegraph south of Huron for more than an hour and a one square mile area of Waterford Township was without lights.

Nelle Hopes 'Persecution' of Two Years at an End

DETROIT (AP)—"Oh, what a price I have paid. This should now end my two years of persecution."

Mrs. Lassiter, 38, learned of the jury's verdict in Jennings Memorial Hospital where she has been confined since suffering an emotional breakdown two weeks ago and being excused as a codefendant. A mistrial was declared for her.

A jury of nine women and three men acquitted Watson, 45, of murder and murder conspiracy charges in the 1959 bludgeoning and gunshot death of Paryin (Bill) Lassiter.

NELLE A QUESTION

George D. Kent, assistant prosecutor, said "we'll have to wait until she recovers sufficiently to decide what we will do in her case."

Mrs. Lassiter's physician, Dr. Ralph A. Johnson, said he thought her recovery should be rapid and she should be able to go home or wherever the authorities send her by the end of the week."

Judge Joseph G. Rashid had ordered Mrs. Lassiter committed to a state institution for treatment after a sanity commission said she no longer was capable of assisting in her defense. Her attorney, Joseph Louisell, appealed to U.S. District Court and Judge Theodore Levin barred the commitment pending a hearing June 15.

Watson said he and his wife would leave today to return to their Culver City, Calif., home.

"I am severing all ties with Detroit forever," he said.

Watson said the trial cost him an estimated $20,000 in attorney fees and lost business opportunities. He is a salesman.

"I'm going right back to work when I reach the coast," he said. "I can't afford a vacation."

"I hold no bitterness about anything," he said, "but I'm sure glad this is history."

Still pending is a court decision on Watson's claim to a $17,000 share in Lassiter's estate. A Probate Court finding in his favor has been appealed by the Lassiter estate.

INFERNO — This is an aerial view of the fire that destroyed two industrial plants and 10 homes in Ayer, Mass., Monday. Flames roared along a quarter-mile front before being brought under control by firemen from 22 communities.

Homes, Plants Ruined by Fire

400 Now Out of Work in Masachusetts Town; Damage $4 Million

AYER, Mass. (AP)—Armed troops today patroled a blackened quarter-mile area to prevent looting and disperse the curious in the wake of a devastating fire which Monday night ruined six homes and two industrial plants, including the town's major industry.

More than 400 persons were thrown out of work with the loss of the Hartnett Tanning Co., and the International Purchasing Co., a rope-making firm.

Some 40 persons in 15 families were given temporary quarters at Ft. Devens, a big Army installation, when 6 multifamily homes were leveled. A seventh home was damaged severely.

Officials of the two industries and town authorities said after a recheck today fire damage would total about $4 million, a downward revision from the $6 million set unofficially Monday night.

Town officials said it is impossible to determine immediately the economic loss this town of 15,000 will suffer.

The Hartnett Co., which set its property loss at upwards of $2 million, employed 385 men and women and was Ayer's biggest industry.

The rope-making firm, which employed 40, said its loss would reach $1.5 million.

Twenty-one communities sent police and fire personnel to aid the Ayer departments in a four-hour fire battle.

Heavy, acrid smoke felled some 25 persons. Another 10 persons suffered minor injuries.

He told newsmen he had a "very fine, fine trip."

MUCH TO DISCUSS

When the helicopter landed on the White House grounds, Kennedy, Dirksen and Fulbright remained in it for a couple of minutes in animated discussion. Reporters could see the President making broad gestures with his hands for emphasis as he talked.

The White House announced that Kennedy was asking Democratic and Republican congressional leaders to meet with him later in the day so he could give them a first-hand report on his trip.

The meeting was set for 3:30 p.m. (Pontiac time). Dirksen, asked by newsmen about his discussions with the President, said Kennedy appeared to have been "very much impressed" with De Gaulle and "very much pleased" with his conversations with the French President.

He said Kennedy also was pleased about the results of his conversations with Prime Minister Macmillan.

Dirksen declined to say anything as to Kennedy's impressions of Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

"I will have to wait until I have a chance to ask the President what I can say about this," Dirksen told reporters. "I always did that with President Eisenhower and President Kennedy is due the same consideration."

The action will range all over the stadium arena, with some special staging in the center. Actors won't have speaking roles, but will depend on pantomine. Narrators will do the talking over a public address system.

SYNOPSIS OF SCENES

"EPISODE TWO—THE LEGEND OF APPLE ISLAND

"In the Beginning, all is Darkness and Light . . . Pulsating, swirling Light . . . Then, with a sweep of his Manitou, the Great Spirit, creates the Heavens above the Heavens and the Worlds below . . . Now the Red Man is born of Earth . . . An Indian Maiden and a Young Warrior fall in love . . . And they make Apple Island in Orchard Lake their trysting place . . . A secret haven where there is romance and happiness no other can destroy . . .

"No one save the Dark Spirit of Death . . . He has been walking by the side of the Warrior for a long time . . . Death places his hand upon the Warrior and the Spirit of the Red Man is snatched away . . .

"The Tribe takes the Young Warrior to the Mainland for burial, but the grief-stricken Maiden refuses to believe her Lover dead . . . She goes toward him, but the Tribesmen forbid her to approach the burial mound on the Mainland . . . From the depths of her despair, the Maiden beseeches the Great Spirit and Manitou shows compassion for her . . . Manitou summons a great drum . . . A great drum whose thundering sound will shake the apathy of the Tribe . . .

"A great drum whose reverbrations will awaken the Spirit of the Warrior and bring him back to Life and the Maiden on the Island in the Lake . . . Such is the Power of Love . . . Even over that of the Spirit of Death . . .

"EPISODE THREE — THE CONSPIRACY OF CHIEF PONTIAC

"The Chiefs of the Hurons, the Ottawas, the Ojubways the Miamis, and the Pottawatomies gather about the Council Fire . . . They are followed by members of their Tribes, who set up an Indian Village . . . The five Nations bind themselves together as one in a Peace Pipe Ceremonial . . . They pledge destruction to their White Enemies under the leadership of Chief Pontiac . . .

"Pontiac and his Braves leave for Fort Dearborn . . . They pretend peace, using words as sweet as honey, but they are hiding guns and war clubs beneath their blankets . . . Major Gladwin at the Fort, warned in advance of Pontiac's treachery, is not misled by this strategy . . . Fort Dearborn is ready for the attack!

"The battle rages for 153 days, but finally, in October 1763, it comes to an end . . . The White Man has won . . . The glory of Chief Pontiac is finished . . . He roams the West like a lost soul . . . His end comes as a paid Indian assassin hatchets him from behind . . . By treanhery he has lived . . . Now, by treachery, he dies!

"EPISODE FOUR — STEPHEN MACK STARTS A SETTLEMENT

"The White Man has at last found his way through the Wilderness . . . The year is 1818 . . . Colonel Stephen Mack and The Pontiac Company have set aside 1,280 acres for the plotting and establishment of a settlement . . .

"It's time to get to work, Colonel, We need accommodations for fourteen souls! Major Todd, Orison Allen and William Lassiter and their families are stayin' th' winter! Get Conant! Get Sibley! Get that cabin built!

"Here come the wagons carrying Nathan Cogswell, Col. Hotchkiss, Elisha Gardner and Harvey Williams . . . Yes, Life is on the Land and the settlement resounds with the joyful cry: I am born! I am! I AM!

"A fiddle sounds . . . It's time to celebrate! It's time for a Hoe-Down! A foot-tapping, nostalgic Hoe-Down! !"

Succeeding scenes trace the city's history through such periods as the Civil War, the Gay Nineties, World War I, the Roaring 20s, the depression years, World War II and recent years right up to the present.

The whole spectacle will be repeated in its entirety each night it plays.

Rep. Broomfield to Speak June 18 at Airport Rite

Rep. William S. Broomfield, R-Oakland County, has accepted an invitation to be a main speaker at the June 18 dedication of the Pontiac Municipal Airport Terminal.

City officials will also participate in the 1:15 p. m. ceremony on Air Progress Day of the June 17-24 Great Pontiac Centennial.

The dedication will be followed by a giant ox roast for members of the Brothers of the Brush and Centennial Belles and their families, as well as members of the Junior Brothers of the Brush and the School Belles.

Reveal Details of Space Flight

WASHINGTON (UPI) — At a danger-packed moment in the course of his hop into space Alan B. Shepard Jr.'s vision was so blurred by head-rattling vibrations that he could not see the instruments on which his life depended.

But the moment, and the danger, quickly passed. And aside from losing three pounds, according to his medical examiners, Shepard paid "a very small physiological price" for the historic rocket ride which made him America's first man in space.

In contrast to Soviet behavior since Yuri Gagarin flew in orbit around the earth April 12, the United States at today's conference reported the scientific results of Shepard's shorter trip in complete detail.

U.S. officials hope the Russians will now be as candid about Gagarin's flight.

Shepard's flight, from liftoff at Cape Canavaral, Fla., to his drop into the ocean 302 miles down range, lasted only 15 minutes and 22 seconds.

But it provided a mass of information about man's ability to perform in space. It also augured well for America's future man-in-space plans.

Swainson Determined to Battle for Scholle

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson indicated today that he will appoint August Scholle, Michigan AFL-CIO president, to the State Conservation Commission after the legislature adjourns if no action is taken on his pending appointment.

Scholle, of Royal Oak, was nominated for the post several weeks ago. But the Senate, which must confirm such appointments, has not yet acted.

Swainson told newsmen he has been advised that if no vote is taken on Scholle before the legislature adjourns Friday, the appointment may be made again.

City Master Plan Lists Five Moves

talking on and off for more than a year about an inner loop around, most frequently mentioning Mt. Clemens Street. The county and possibly the state would have to cooperate in construction between the city limits and the university.

City planners have been gathering some initial data the past several months on a possible urban renewal program to clear substandard conditions in the Fisher Body area. General Motors Corp. itself suggested such a program before undertaking the multi-million dollar expansion program at the plant two years ago.

Before Geer outlined details of the proposed master plan, Willman and Robert Van Hoef, director of the planning division of the State Highway Department, spoke enthusiastically about progress on the downtown loop highway, considered the key to downtown redevelopment.

AGREEMENT SOON

Willman said there may be an agreement soon between city and state on financing and scheduling that will see the $2.5-$3 million project under construction by Oct. 1, 1962, to be completed a year later.

Van Hoef, representing State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie, described the loop as "the prototype" in Michigan of a new type of urban highway.

It is expected that the City Commission will formally approve a contract soon with Geer for a plan to redevelop the 200-acre Central Business District within the perimeter of the loop. The city's $20,000 share for the plan is included in this year's budget.

The city and the development group had agreed many months ago on joint sponsorship of the master plan.

Outside experts whom Geer said would be called upon in preparation of the master plan include Larry Smith & Co. of Washington, D. C., retail market consultants; William Johnson, Ann Arbor landscape architect and University of Michigan professor; George W. Barton and Associates of Evanston, Ill., traffic consultants; and the Urban Land Institute, municipal planning consultants.

Quick-Shaving Contest Planned

A unique speed-shaving contest will be conducted at Wisner Stadium on Saturday evening, June 24, beginning at 8 p.m.

This will be one of the last events of Round-Up Day, the final day of the June 17-24 Centennial observance. It will follow the beard contest.

Remington Rand has donated prizes for this hair-flying spectacle. The prizes will make shaving simpler after the Centennial beard-growing period is over.

First prize will be a deluxe shaver accessory gift set, including a leather travel kit with shaving mirror, a Roll-A-Matic shaver with coil cord, shaving powder stick, Shaver Saver head cleaner, shaving lotion and cleaning brushes.

Second and third prizes will be Remington Auto-Home Roll-A-Matic Shavers, which operate either on residential current supply or on automobile batteries.

Fourth award is a Remington World Wide Roll-A-Matic shaver, using all types of electrical current. Fifth, sixth and seventh prizes are Remington Roll-A-Matic shavers with adjustable roller combs.

Contestants will be selected in the preliminaries of the beard contest, beginning at 2 p.m. that Saturday.

The Day in Birmingham

Commission Grants City 40-Cent Tax Rate Cut

BIRMINGHAM — A tax cut was granted by the City Commission last night in adopting the 1961-62 budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

The commission in confirming $1,775,052 budget set the tax rate at $18 for each $1,000 of assessed valuation, a 40 cent decrease over the current levy.

Based on the city's assessed valuation of $98,807,900, the tax will provide $1,265,142 in revenue. The remainder, $532,810, will come from non-tax revenue, such as permits, fines, licenses and state shared funds.

Contracts also were awarded by the commission for construction of bridges over the Rouge River at Oak Street and Northlawn Drive and the construction of a culvert at Willits Street and the Rouge River.

The bridge projects were awarded to the E. C. Nolan and Jarvick Construction Co. of Center Line for their low dual bid of $77,807.

The culvert contract went to Joseph Pintal, Inc., of Detroit for its low bid of $96,584.

The City Commission also directed Asst. City Manager Robert S. Kenning to file the preliminary application with the state requesting federal assistance in carrying out a planning program.

The commission authorized the city manager's office to prepare the preliminary application last month for the urban planning assistance, known as the 701 program.

Rotheus P. Cole

Service for Rotheus P. Cole, 71, of 1207 Buckingham Road, will be 2 p.m. Thursday at the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham. Burial will be in Acacia Park Cemetery.

Mr. Cole died yesterday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, following a long illness.

He was a retired director of the Dycostat Co. of Detroit and secretary of the Eton Chemical and Dyestuff Co. of Detroit.

A Birmingham resident 37 years, he had been a trustee and former treasurer of the First Presbyterian Church.

He was a member of the Union Lodge, F&AM, No. 3 of Detroit, the Birmingham Senior Men's Club and the University Club of Detroit. He was a past president of the Hi-12 Club of Birmingham.

Act on Desire for Cease Fire, U.S. Tells Russ

GENEVA (UPI) — The United States called on the Soviet Union today to match with prompt action here Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's agreement that an effective cease fire is vital to peace in Laos.

Chief U. S. delegate W. Averell Harriman quoted to the 14-nation conference on Laos the part of the communique issued in Vienna following the summit meeting between Persident Kennedy and Khrushchev saying that they "have recognized the importance of an effective cease fire."

"We trust that this understanding will be promptly translated into action, here in Geneva and in Laos," Herriman said.

Teamsters to Foreclose on Property of Hotel

SAVANNAH, Ga. (UPI) — The Teamsters Union pension fund Monday reported it is foreclosing on property of the General Oglethorpe Hotel Co. here because the firm is delinquent in payment of a $2.4-million loan.

The union said it would sell at auction the General Oglethorpe Hotel here, its 18-hole golf course, the Savannah Motor Lodge and the DeSota Beach Hotel at Tybee, Ga.

The loan was executed in 1959, Teamsters officials said.

Press Editor Reports Portugal Unsettled

72-year-old ruler has been in power 30 years. He has been able to do this mainly by keeping the economy operating smoothly in recent years. But the people are unsettled now. Portugal has gone to war.

ECONOMY HURT

Six or seven thousand soldiers are in Africa. The people realize that without the coffee, the diamonds and the sisal from Angola, Portugal's marginal economy would really be hurt.

Already, because of the difficulty in Africa, this year's coffee crop from Angola has suffered a loss of $40 million. This is about a tenth of the country's annual income. Recently a group of army generals tried and failed to get Salazar to resign.

Portugal is one of the most hospitable countries we visited, full of folklore, yet we left with the feeling that some type of spontaneous blowup would come very shortly. As in all dictator countries, the local press is controlled.

We moved on to Madrid, Spain, and another dictatorship under Generalissimo Francisco Franco. The land of the bullfight is truly a lovely country and one we would like to visit again. The architecture reflects the many influences that have helped shape the country. The 30-million people are strongly anti-Communist, but economically they are very, very poor.

The country has been going through a period of transition and some improvements can be noted. Lots of new buildings are under construction and generally speaking it would look as though Franco was doing a good job.

THEY COMPLAIN

Yet, the man in the street makes no bones about complaining over their dictator and what a tough ruler he is. He has the local press under his thumb and any business to succeed must adhere to his policies. Salaries are exceedingly low and so is the cost of living.

In an interview with Teotonio Perlino, the No. 2 man under Franco, he outlined continued progress and felt that Spain had finally turned the corner and was headed for a much better way of life. He also expressed great admiration for the United States and our joint military bases.

Our foreign aid to Spain has been tremendous, somewhere in the neighborhood of $1 billion. However, the fact that we have several bases with a large number of servicemen constantly on the alert gives visiting Americans a feeling of security. Our general impression is that the money spent on these bases is well worth the cost.

Franco's present rule is so established that if he dies or is forced out of office, a monarch will be selected by a committee to succeed him. Twenty-three-year-old Prince Juan Carlos is rumored as the next head man for Spain. At least he has Franco's blessings at the moment.

Area Candidates Rush to Beat Deadline

More Than 50 Con-Con Hopefuls

Oakland County was assured more than 50 candidates in the July 25 constitutional convention, as today's 4 p.m. filing deadline crept closer.

By 11 a.m., 30 candidates — 25 Republicans and 25 Democrats — had filed their nominating petitions with Mrs. Mabel M. Child, county election clerk.

THE LATEST

Latest to announce with The Pontiac Press were:

Next month, Oakland County voters will go to the polls to pick a nominee from each party for the six state representative seats in the legislature and the at-large 12th District senatorial seat.

It appeared this morning that no primary will be necessary for the Senate seat, since only one Republican and one Democrat had filed.

George Romney, 53-year-old president of American Motors Corp. from Bloomfield Hills, filed his petitions along with two other Republicans last week for this seat.

William A. O'Brien, 32, a Detroit attorney from Clawson, kicked off the campaign with Romney when he accused his GOP opponent of "doubletalking" on the subject of apportionment of the legislature, a sure issue at the convention.

O'Brien, who sought to represent the 5th District in the House of Representatives but lost out in November, filed his petitions with Mrs. Child this morning.

Asked how he planned to defeat Romney for the seat, O'Brien replied: "I may not win but he'll know the issues when we're through."

The election will take place Sept. 12.

"I RE-GREW HAIR"

Hair Consultant Here Tomorrow; Learn If Your Hair Loss Can Be Stopped and Baldness Prevented

Mr. W. K. McMAHAN, representing the Lesley Hair and Scalp Consultants, will give hair and scalp consultation to hair worried men and women at the WALDRON Hotel in PONTIAC, MICHIGAN on WEDNESDAY only, JUNE 7, 1961, from 1:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M.

FREE CONSULTATION

You incur absolutely no charge or obligation by coming in for consultation. We will tell you frankly and sincerely whether or not we believe you can be helped, how long it will take and how much it will cost.

WRITTEN GUARANTEE

You will be given a written guarantee for the length of time treatment is required on a pro-rated basis.

Hopeless CASES REFUSED

Lesley Consultants have established a very high reputation in the field for refusing any case that does not fall under the scope of their work. As evidence of his sincerity in believing you may be helped, the Lesley consultant wishes you to understand that the majority of cases of baldness or excessive hair loss are of a type known as male pattern baldness. In such cases there is at present no known treatment which will prevent or overcome baldness or excessive hair loss or induce hair to grow or cause the hair to become thicker. You should beware of any claim to the contrary made by any hair specialist.

After

SANDY CURREN
DON'T PUT IT OFF

Fortunately there are thousands upon thousands of people who, while losing their hair, DO NOT SUFFER FROM MALE PATTERN BALDNESS. Mr. Warren Feathers and Miss Sandy Curren shown in photos were among those who did not suffer from male pattern baldness and as you can see responded to the Lesley Home Treatments which they applied in the privacy of their own homes.

Stop by the Hotel WALDRON, WEDNESDAY, only, JUNE 7, between 1:00 P.M. and 8:00 P.M. Ask at the desk for Mr. McMAHAN'S room number. He does not work by appointment. Come at your convenience. Examinations are given privately. You will not be obligated or embarrassed in any way.

Finish Saturn Launching Site

Powerful Rocket Best U.S. Hope of Closing Soviet Space Lead

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —Construction has been completed on the launching site from which early Saturn space vehicles will be fired.

The super rocket, which will generate 1½ million pounds of thrust on liftoff, is America's best hope of overtaking the Soviet lead in the space race.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration dedicated the $11-million facility Monday, accepting it from the Army Corps of Engineers in a brief ceremony.

Engineers supervised the two-year building program for the massive 45-acre complex, whose centerpiece is a service tower which is as tall as a 30-story building.

OTHER EQUIPMENT

Scientists and technicians now will prepare the ground support and launch control equipment for the first experimental Saturn firing, set for next fall.

Dr. Kurt Debus, head of NASA's launch operations directorate, called the complex "the first launch point for the world's greatest known rocket.

"Saturn," he said, "will be the workhorse booster for many exciting space experiments planned in the next decade.

"The main application of the Saturn launch vehicle will be man into space. Not too many years hence, three astronauts will be blazing toward an orbit about the moon atop the mighty Saturn."

The early Saturn C1 vehicle will be fired from this launch pad. A second stage will be added later, giving the rocket capability of placing 10-ton payloads into earth orbit.

Governor of Georgia Wants No Riots in Fall

ATLANTA (AP)—Rabble rousers, would-be rioters and the like have been warned by Gov. Ernest Vandiver against trying to stir up trouble when four Atlanta public high schools are integrated next fall.

Vandiver said Monday that although he was dead set against integration, "anytime the life or property of any citizen is endangered whatever forces that are necessary to preserve the peace will be used."

Americans Appear With S. Korea Junta

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — South Korea's new military rulers made their first public appearance today with U.S. representatives who opposed their coup three weeks ago.

The 32-man military junta attended memorial services at the national military cemetery for soldiers killed in the Korean War. Also present were U.S. Charge d'Affaires Marshall Green and Gen. Carter B. Magruder, the U.N. and U.S. commander in Korea.

Claims Beating by Negro Mob in N. Carolina

TRINITY, N.C. (AP)—Robert Parris, 20, employe of a grill, who had been missing all night after a race riot, walked into his home today. He had welts on his back and arms from what he said was a beating by Negroes wielding leather belts.

Parris told officers he had fled from a fight Monday night involving about 40 Negroes and a dozen whites and did not return to the house. He said he lost consciousness and did not revive until daylight.

Monday morning, Parris said, three Negro youths came into the grill, got drinks and started out. A group of white youths said something to the Negroes.

John McPherson, owner of the grill, told the Negroes to leave before trouble started and as they were leaving, Parris said, one told him: "I'll be seeing you tonight."

An intensive search for Parris had been made after the fight. There were no arrests.

14 Youths Admit Up to 500 Thefts in New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Fourteen boys and young men—all but one of them from well-to-do homes—have admitted 450 to 500 burglaries with loot totaling up to $100,000 in the past two years, police said today.

Half of them are students at colleges in New York City and on Long Island. One had a bank book showing deposits of $1,100 —proceeds of burglaries.

Police said the burglaries were committed in the Queens section of New York City and in adjoining Nassau County, Long Island.

Three men—two of them operators of a luncheonette where the youths hung out — were charged with receiving stolen goods. Police said they paid the burglars only fractions of the value of the loot.

Home Building executive discovers comforts of home on a Grand Trunk coach!

James Peacock is executive vice president of Place and Company, leading South Bend home builders. An enthusiastic user of Grand Trunk freight service, he decided to try our passenger service, too. With no pretense at modesty, we quote from a letter he sent us.

"Our trip via Grand Trunk, Canadian National Railways to Toronto and Montreal and return was most pleasant. It was a welcome relief to ride coach in cars that were clean, and with personnel who paid the same attention to hospitality. Thank you for retaining the unusual in public relations where humaneness has been a long lost art."

This train isn't the one Mr. Peacock took to Montreal, but we're equally proud of our fast freights. Whether you ship or take a trip, count on Grand Trunk for thoughtful service and dependable schedules.

Dr. Travell went with the President to Paris and Vienna but returned to appear as the commencement speaker at Meharry, a predominantly Negro school.

TV's McKay Innocent in Paternity Case

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A jury says actor Gardner McKay, star of television's "Adventures in Paradise" series, is not the father of cocktail waitress Patrice Frantz's 8-month-old daughter.

The 10-2 decision was voted by the 11-woman, 1-man jury after less than two hours' deliberation Monday.

Borrowing Boom in View

NEW YORK (AP)—Debt continues to mount, if jerkily. The recession slowed the increase of the total of private debt. But there's a good chance today that both public and private debt are ready for another spurt.

Since World War II, total debt and national income have kept pretty closely in step with each other—speeding up in boom times and slowing down in recessions—but over-all advancing steadily. This is particularly true of corporate and personal debt, and as long as it moves along in step with income, most people won't get too excited.

The total of public and private net debt stood at a record $883 billion at the start of the year, a gain of $37 billion in 12 months. The various forms of government owed $301 billion, corporations were in hock by $295 billion and individuals and unincorporated enterprises by $287 billion. All three types of debt had risen in 1960, although much of the year was a recession period.

$21.1-BILLION GAIN

The gross national product for the year—that is, the dollar total of goods and services produced—was $503.2 billion, a gain of $71.1 billion in the year. This, too, wasn't bad for a period called disappointing in terms of earlier predictions.

But the recession did slow the growth of corporate and individual debt, and the increase in gross national product, also.

Instalment debt totals fell in January, February and April, and had only a slight rise in March. The total is now about level with last September, although still above a year ago.

The recession also slowed borrowing by corporations. Plans for expansion were pared. This cut down the need for funds for building plants or buying equipment. Also, business drew back from building up stocks and tended to live off those on hand. The need for funds to carry inventories dropped way down.

SEE BORROWING HIKE

Those two factors left many corporations in position to finance the ordinary operation of their business largely out of cash on hand.

But in all three sectors—government, corporate and individual—the signs today are for an increased borrowing pace.

State and local governments have been under pressure right along to spend more to meet the needs of growing populations.

Congress is appropriating more money for future spending. The federal debt will have to grow if all that money is spent—unless tax receipts increase more than even the most optimistic predict.

Business has caught its breath now and is ready for another spurt forward. There are signs that inventories are about to be built up again. Slowly but surely industry will take up all the slack in the facilities that have been more than ample and will need to expand again.

All this calls for new borrowing. Corporations may like to be able to finance expansion solely out of cash inflow—but the record shows they rarely do. Mostly they borrow.

BUCKET SEATS ALONE DO NOT A MONZA MAKE

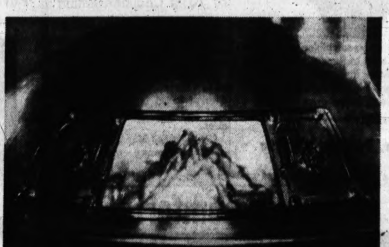

■ Gee! ■ Little did we know, when we introduced the Corvair Monza last year, that we were starting a Big Thing. We just thought it would be pleasant if you could buy a car that treats you, the driver, like you want to be treated. ■ The bucket seats, of course, are the most obvious evidence of our desire to please you. But they're not the most important thing. No sir. What's really vital is the way a Monza handles—something nobody in the U.S. has yet copied. Or can copy. Because Corvair is the only rear-engined car made in this country, and you know what that means: steering light as thistledown. (You even park this one more easily, it steers so briskly.) Beautifully balanced braking—the car stays level even under panic braking, which we hope you'll never have to do. Traction and more traction, so you don't become a stick-in-the-mud. The kind of cornering that's sheer joy to experience. ■ You get more: a fully independent suspension that blots out road shocks before they can ruffle you. Clean, crisp styling. Thoroughgoing economy, from purchase price to operating cost. ■ You're not going to be satisfied with bucket seats alone, are you?

Coke Executive Dies

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Hammond Burke Nicholson, 65, former president and chairman of the board of the Coca-Cola Co., died Monday. Nicholson, who joined the company in 1933 at Boston, served as president from 1952 to 1955 when he became chairman of the board and of the executive committee. He was born in Richland, Ga.

Transport Union to Buy Shares

Wants Controlling Vote in Order to Save Jobs of TWU Employes

NEW YORK (AP)—The Transport Workers Union plans to pay a big fare—one million dollars—in order to have a say on who sits in the driver's seat of the Fifth Avenue Coach Lines Inc.

TWU President Michael J. Quill announced Monday the union hopes to acquire voting control of $1 million of the company's stock through investment of union funds and stock purchases by union members.

Purpose of the move, Quill said, is to give the union a voice in a stockholders' battle for control of the company, largest privately owned transit system in the nation. It operates a number of routes in addition to those on Fifth Avenue.

The TWU already has bought some stock, the union president said. He declined to say how much.

Union members will be asked to buy stock at a "save your job" meeting of Fifth Avenue coach employes tonight.

Quill declared that no matter who wins the stockholder's fight "the layoff of one employe by any group of these greedy stock manipulators will force us to strike the entire system on the grounds of violation of contract."

Jackson Escapee Who Returned Won't Be Tried

JACKSON (AP) — Warden William Bannan has decided not to prosecute lifer Frank Soules for escaping from a Southern Michigan Prison farm 22 years ago.

Soules had served 18 years of a life sentence for the 1921 slaying of Harry Robinson at Bull Head Lake near Hastings. He walked away from the prison farm in 1939 and returned to the main prison gate last Saturday.

Soules, now 62, said he was "tired of running" and had trouble getting jobs.

Bannan said Monday Soules would not be prosecuted for the escape because he turned himself in. Besides, Bannan said, the life sentence made another term meaningless.

State Kiwanis Head Coming to Township

Harold F. Pletz of East Lansing, governor of the Michigan District of Kiwanis International, will address the Waterford Township club at a noon luncheon June 22 in the Community Center.

Pletz, East Lansing mayor, will outline some of the major goals for Kiwanians, whose theme for 1961 is "Build Responsible Citizenship."

A charter member and past president of the East Lansing club, Pletz has also been active in church and government affairs. He has served as a member of the East Lansing City Council and the Ingham County Board of Supervisors for more than 10 years.

Mrs. Pletz will accompany her husband to the meeting.

Vienna Meeting Between Two Mr. 'K's' Well Worthwhile

What did the two "K's" accomplish?

And more especially, how about ours?

The answers to these two vital questions are currently shrouded in mystery and probably they should be. There will be a wide variety of opinions and, of course, even the two principals themselves cannot be too certain of too many things.

News reports seemed agreed in one connection: the two were not as jovial and full of chuckles when they parted as they were when they met.

MR. 'K'

Probably you can deduce one thing. The Russian "K" is convinced that our Mr. KENNEDY isn't going to be pushed around.

That's vital, too.

These two global leaders have been sizing each other up at long range and President KENNEDY had a rather accurate conception of the Head Red long before they met. He knew from established history that KHRUSHCHEV was a bloody, two-fisted murderer without an ounce of mercy and a hard man in an international bargain.

However, the Soviet "K" knew little about Kennedy. It was important for Khrushchev to learn whether "our boy" was a push-over like Franklin D. Roosevelt had been before Stalin at Yalta or whether he would stand up and be counted. His question is answered. We are confident that today the master of the Kremlin knows that he is dealing with a man that can be tough as he can himself in a showdown, plus the humane qualities of kindness and mercy which Khrushchev lacks.

MR. 'K'

DAVID LAWRENCE says "little was accomplished."

We disagree completely.

The Pontiac PRESS feels that the whole world situation is more clearly defined and the chances of bullying mankind by the Soviets is lessened.

The meeting was worthwhile.

No one expected world peace.

Lawrence also says both men wanted "international attention." The Press challenges that sharply on behalf of President Kennedy. His motives were in behalf of his Nation—and not himself. Khrushchev loves adulation and international applause. He frisks about the globe frequently to bask in the spotlight which he loves. But they don't need to put John F. Kennedy in that category.

We feel that even a slow inching toward better understanding is worthwhile. That's all that the most sanguine really expected. We've taken a definite step—in the right direction.

And Jackie?

Dominican Republic's Future Is Uncertain

General TRUJILLO's assassination seems to have drawn few tears around the world—a calculated risk and the fate of a dictator.

No one is quite certain yet just what the political future of the Dominican Republic will be for there are powerful forces beneath the surface moving in conflicting directions.

The rest of the world is more interested in the Communist possibilities than in the immediate complexion of the Dominican government. The Russians would love to move in — if they dared. And failing that, they are pulling every possible string to place them as the unseen power behind the throne.

For a century and a half the Republic had shaken off the shackles of colonial domination but at no time did anyone particularly establish a well-defined and clear-cut policy until TRUJILLO popped into the picture and took over.

London newspapers are looking to the United States "to keep everything in order." That's a common practice of London newspapers — with them reserving the right to criticize freely, continuously and without restraint. The Daily Mail says: "The American government will do everything to keep the Soviets out," and adds further that the whole situation presents "an ugly crisis for the United States."

Dumping world problems in our lap is an ancient custom with the line of second guessers forming on the right, the left and in the middle. The London Times asserts the Republic had a "thriving and stable industrial economy, but at a price of degradation of the human spirit such as rarely has been seen in the modern world."

The Man About Town

It Beats Them All

We Can Lick the Irish Hills Any Day in Week

June: The month of weddings and roses—with thorns.

Published in some state papers, the first of a series of one day tours around Michigan features the Irish Hills, over Ann Arbor way. Lucky for those Irish Hills boosters.

But, let it be known to the world, that we have many locations right here in our own Oakland County that discount the Irish Hills in every way.

Just as a sample, there's

in the Holly Recreational Area which the four-lane Dixie Highway bisects, 18 miles northwest of Pontiac. The entrancing view of lake, woods, fields and other beautiful vistas from that point is far above anything else in Southeastern Michigan.

Turn to the right off the Dixie on the park's black top pavement, (plainly marked by a big sign), and ask a park attendant to direct you to the Overlook. It is in a rather remote location, but easily reached when you're told how.

"More reliable than the weather bureau," phones

of Birmingham, in telling about her family cat, who moves her kittens behind the davenport when it looks like a storm.

"Don't call it crazy weather," is the admonition received from

of Auburn Heights, who continues, "It has kept the spirea bushes in bloom much longer than usual."

of 80 Virginia Ave., tells me that he dug the basement for Pontiac Central Methodist Church around 60 years ago.

David Lawrence Says:

JFK Should Report to Congress

WASHINGTON — The American people may have to be content with the generalities of President Kennedy's half-hour speech on television about his meeting with Premier Khrushchev.

LAWRENCE

But Congress, which is after all a coordinate branch of the government, cannot be satisfied with such a fragmentary account.

All the members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the House Committee on Foreign Affairs are entitled to a detailed report of any statements made in behalf of the United States during several hours of talk with the Premier of the Soviet Union without the presence of even the secretary of state.

If there were any commitments or pledges or agreements which could directly or indirectly involve preparations to be made by our armed forces or the appropriation of public funds for foreign aid or other matters connected with foreign policy, the committees in Congress have a right to be informed about them.

Diplomacy normally is a proper means of communication for the executive branch, but when our government talks to another government in a crisis involving war or peace it is important that the legislative branch be advised and in detail.

Many an executive agreement has been made in the past with a foreign government which was not submitted to the Senate for ratification, and this has produced many a controversy. The clear intent of the Constitution, however, is that Congress, through its leaders or committees, should be kept informed.

REPORTS AT MINIMUM

Kennedy acted at Vienna in the role of ambassador. But he reports to nobody else in the executive branch. He talked alone for several hours with the head of the Soviet Union with only interpreters present.

Notes of a sort were kept but hardly a complete stenographic record. Translators have a way of condensing long answers and sometimes they unwittingly soften harsh phrases.

Sometimes they give meanings that are not as comprehensive as they should be as language differences are not always explainable.

Certainly the long hours of off-the-cuff conversation between President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev were hardly a substitute for the carefully prepared papers and documents of formal diplomacy. Yet the fate of the world may rest on the most effective communication possible between the head of the American government and the dictator of the Soviet government.

Plainly Kennedy thought that personal contact would be helpful in producing an atmosphere of cordiality and friendliness.

But Premier Khrushchev is the kind of man who turns on the smile or the frown to suit his own purposes. His promises have proved meaningless in the past. He can fraternize with Dwight Eisenhower one day and not long afterward he can be calling him a "coward" or a "thief."

The only course available, therefore, is to bring out into the open every statement made by Premier Khrushchev so that the world can witness his deception and trickery and be alert to the acts of treachery which have been so effective for his side in Laos, Africa, Cuba and Latin America.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Calcium and D the Answer for Those Mean Headaches

"My horrible headaches are now under control since I began supplementing my diet with Ca and D daily as you suggested in your headache pamphlet. I wish there were a better way to thank you for your advice . . ." (M. L. S.)

The headache pamphlet, titled "Why Have Headache?" is free to anyone who provides a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Minnesota reader says he consulted the doctor for agonizing leg cramps. The doctor prescribed quinine capsules. "I had had several blood tests.

"Other doctors said I need a series of calcium shots. But my doctor said no, quinine best. What a blessed relief the quinine capsules have been to me."

The reader doesn't say, but I believe the usual dose of quinine for leg cramps is two grains, in tablet or capsule, at bedtime and after breakfast in the morning.

This may be continued for three or four days, from time to time, to prevent painful night cramps. Probably most doctors prefer it to calcium, although it is difficult to see the rationale of such treatment.

Prevention of such painful leg cramps, which usually occur in the night or the wee small hours, by taking a fair daily ration of calcium and vitamin D is easy to understand. One of the functions of calcium in physiology is to regulate excitability of nerve fibres and nerve centers and so lessen the tendency to spasmodic contraction. The vitamin D should always accompany calcium because it is essential for utilization of calcium in the body.

"We have received so much help from your column. We want to thank you especially for telling us about calcium. My husband was almost crippled from bursitis, undergoing X-ray treatments and vainly seeking relief. We were faced with the prospect of having to close the doors of our business establishment . . . Now, many thanks to you, he works every day and feels fine . . ." J. G. S.

I hesitate to print this letter lest casual readers infer that I recommend calcium and D as a remedy for bursitis. The truth is that I don't know whether the daily intake of Ca and D prevents development of bursitis.

All I know is that an adequate daily ration of calcium and vitamin D, such as nutrition authorities consider essential for good health, can do no harm in any circumstances, and a good many sufferers have assured me that it has brought great relief when all other treatment for bursitis had failed.

I believe there is no mention of bursitis in Little Lesson 26, "The Calcium Shortage," 35 cents, and stamped, self-addressed envelope, but it tells how much calcium and vitamin D to eat daily and for how long.

"My summers had been miserable for me for many years. Much treatment, but little relief. Couldn't afford change of climate.

"Last spring sent for your pamphlet, followed calcium and D prophylaxis for about three months in early spring and, sure enough, had the most comfortable summer I have known in years . . ." (C. B. F.)

The free pamphlet on Hay Fever is available to any reader who asks for it and provides a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

High calcium diet and calcium and D feeding to supplement the diet is as good for perennial hay fever (nonseasonal), pseudosinusitis, temperamental rhinitis, hyperesthetic coryza as it is for genuine hay fever. Also "machine-gun sneeze."

Trouble is, so many poor geeks with these complaints assume, not to say think, they are just sensitive to cold, dampness, drafts, etc.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Don't Give Babies Sleeping Drugs

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE J-408: Janet J., aged 27, is the harassed mother whose husband is feuding because the children keep him awake at night.

"Dr. Crane," she began, "my husband insist we give the babies sleeping drugs to keep them quiet.

DR. CRANE

"He says all the men at his office say their doctors prescribe sleeping drugs to keep babies from bothering parents at night.

"I hate to think of such a barbarous thing, but what else can I do to give my husband a quiet home?"

BARBAROUS DOCTORS

It is rank barbarity to dope up babies with sleeping potions just because you jittery fathers can't sleep.

Cut out your cigarettes and also begin attending church regularly, so you can gain a proper perspective.

Then you'll eliminate the chemical tobacco prod to jitters, and also gain a more placid perspective.

No job is so important that you should jeopardize your family life for a mere matter of a few extra dollars or a political victory.

Healthy children usually sleep at night, unless their routine has been broken by foolish fathers who waken them to show them off or play with them.

During the flu or when sick with other ailments, a child may cry at night. Or, if it is hungry, wet or otherwise in pain. But if you use the simple psychology of dog trainers, you will find that children usually sleep soundly.

You new parents ought to get a book on training dogs, for the animal trainers can teach you superb psychology about rearing any young creature, whether canine or human.

In a nutshell, their strategy is this: "Reward the good; penalize the bad, and don't make exceptions."

You parents often err by those exceptions. This, today you punish the child for naughtiness but tomorrow when company arrives, you smile tolerantly and let the youngster perform the same naughty act without reprimand. That confuses youngsters!

Or, if guests arrive, instead of letting them tiptoe into the nursery to view the sleeping infant, you egotists waken the baby to see if he will coo or otherwise show off.

If your guests crave show-off behavior, then you parents do it, but for heaven's sake, let the baby stay asleep.

Your job as parents is to produce a well-trained child who becomes a self-reliant adult.

Being a parent is essentially a teaching job. Parents should not try to be stage managers to manipulate their kiddies into show-off spots, whether at the table, the piano, or on the stage.

TESTS FOR PARENTS

Good parents find it is a tough chore to rear their children through the 12 years from infancy until the Scout Masters take over. It involves a lot of work. It is a vocation in its own right, so husbands should back up their wives, instead of countermanding their orders.

And don't think it is so cute because the baby seems partial to daddy's attention!

Infants always react to strange objects and tend to show favoritism

Give your wives a break via a baby sitter at least one night per week. And send for the "Tests for Good Parents," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, self-addressed envelope and 35 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People:

'Did Kennedy Exaggerate About Flying to Moon?'

Our Chief Executive was quoted on a newscast to the effect that we would in the near future go to the moon "and eventually to the ends of the universe."

If the President was quoted accurately, he either was indulging in some exaggeration of the pre-election type or is sadly lacking in astronomic information.

One of our nearest stellar neighbors is the star Proxima Centauri a Centauri, which is some 25 million millions miles from the earth.

If we developed a rocket capable of traveling at the speed of light 186,00 miles per second, it would take 4.3 years to reach that twinkler.

But the cluster of stars known as NGC 7006, one of the most distant in our galactic system is 22,000 light years from this globe.

Thus if we built that 186,000 MPS rocket it would require 22,000 years to reach the galaxy. An astronaut could grow quite a beard in that time.

'All Bobby Wants Is Negro Vote'

When do opinions of minority groups overrule or supercede the will of the majority? Possibly we are headed for another civil war. "Bobby" Kennedy, who wouldn't be where he is today if he weren't someone's brother, says that Negroes will be the white's brothers-in-law some day. Bobby also says to socialize with the Negro at parties and dinners. The Bible says let your nay be nay and your yea be yea. The majority of Negroes want peace; the NAACP wants strife. The NAACP says the rights of the Negroes are the most important thing in this country.

This country was founded on the rights and wishes of the majority. Man is created equal. It is up to him whether or not he remains equal. Rights have to be earned, not given.

If the Negroes listen to Bobby Kennedy and the NAACP much longer, I am afraid the whites will suddenly stop trying to be helpful and sympathetic. It doesn't matter much to millionaire Bobby what happens, as long as he can get the Negro vote.

Didn't Like Waiting for City to Move Pet

My pet dog was killed last Friday and the city would not come out and move him until Monday. I was told I could move him at my own risk. I'm thankful the weather was not too hot. It's a sad state of affairs when a dead dog lies in a residential section for such a long time.

A Taxpayer

Found Barking Dog Was Without Water

I have a suggestion for the party who was so annoyed by the barking of dogs tied or in a garage when the owner was away.

I had a similar experience and investigated. The dog had no water, and by the looks of the overturned dish, hadn't had any for some time. After a good drink of cold water there was no more barking.

A dog tied is at the mercy of his thoughtless master, and unless a pail or a heavy dish is used his chain will naturally overturn his drinking dish. Why do some people keep a dog that they obviously care nothing about? There are two shelters for animals right in Pontiac.

The more I see some people, the better I like dogs.

Rockefeller Says Race in Jersey a Signpost

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York says the gubernatorial election in New Jersey next November will have a significant bearing on the fortunes of the Republican party in 1962.

Rockefeller, who will be seeking re-election in 1962, campaigned in Camden County Monday night for James P. Mitchell, the former secretary of labor who is the GOP candidate for governor of New Jersey. Rockefeller made his first political speech outside his home state since last November's presidential election.

OAS Will Send Mission to DR

7-Nation Committee to Determine Direction After Trujillo

WASHINGTON (AP) — A five-nation special commission is expected to leave Thursday to determine whether the Dominican Republic is moving toward more freedom for its people or toward an even tighter dictatorship.

A seven-nation committee of the Organization of American States voted Monday to send the commission to investigate conditions in the Caribbean country following the assassination last week of dictator Rafael Trujillo.

The unanimous acceptance of a U.S. request for the investigation came after Dominican Foreign Minister Profirio Herrera Baez said his country would welcome the special mission.

The decision marked the first victory in an Inter-American agency for the administration of President Kennedy. The United States had strong support in the proposal from other American republics but the initiative clearly came from Washington.

The OAS last August at San Jose, Costa Rica, charged that the Trujillo government plotted an assassination attempt on President Romulo Betancourt of Venezuela and voted that all American republics should break diplomatic relations with the Trujillo regime.

A special committee sent to the Dominican Republic last year to conduct an investigation was not permitted to travel freely and conduct its business.

Bird Watchers Just Plain Mad at Prince Philip

LONDON (UPI) — Prince Philip had British bird watchers a trifle ruffled today after pursuing his ornithological interest by helicopter.

Going by helicopter Monday was much more comfortable than sloshing through the early morning dewy grass, the Duke of Edinburgh decided. So he buzzed over the National Trust Bird Sanctuary on the Norfolk and then settled down where the birds were.

The noise frightened them away and bird watchers on the ground with binoculars were angry.

"A ridiculous thing to do," said one. "Early morning is the best time to watch and it's been spoiled for everyone."

"I don't know what the national trust is coming to," said another.

Slush-Fund Figure Drowns After Leap

DETROIT (UPI) — Less than 48 hours after asking to be locked up by police "because some guys are following me," Martyn J. Goodman leaped into the Detroit River and drowned Monday.

He was a minor figure in the state's current investigation of an alleged political campaign fund attributed to Prosecutor Samuel Olsen, and once was a mental institution patient.

Goodman, 50, was sent to police by assistant prosecutors when he complained of being followed, but was not locked up.

He was a process server for Detroit attorneys.

Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Throughout your baby's first year you will notice fluctuations in appetite. This is particularly likely to happen during convalescence and troublesome teething times. Around the end of the first year or early in the second, you can expect an appetite lag because baby's rate of growth slows down.

Thing to remember: try not to force baby at these times. He'll eat more, sooner, if you let him call the "eating turns."

Pernickety appetites can be perked up with palatable foods. Like Gerber Strained and Junior High Meat Dinners, for instance. They've flavor to spare and nourishment galore. That's because they have 3 times as much juicy, savory meat as regular dinner combinations. This extra meat is subtly blended with garden-good vegetables for as tasty a dish as was ever served to a little "gourmet."

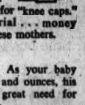

Pocket this, for future reference: A mother-neighbor of mine buys overalls with outsize patch pockets on 'em for her creeper. When the knees wear through, she removes the patch pockets and stitches them on for "knee caps." Matching material . . . money saved. Clever, these mothers.

Progress report. As your baby grows by inches and ounces, his little body has great need for protein, because protein promotes growth and provides the strength he requires. Gerber Strained and Junior Meats are powerhouses of protein. Made from selected Armour cuts, they're specially processed to remove most of the fat. Careful cooking in the absence of air helps retain most of the nourishing food values for your sweetheart's benefit. Flavors are true and savory, the texture moist and smooth-to-the-tongue. Gerber Baby Foods, Fremont, Michigan.

Interest Grows for International Day

Pontiac Press Photos

Helping representatives of Pontiac's numerous international groups plan International Day at the Pontiac Centennial were these women (from left): Mrs. S. V. Sekles of Ottawa Drive, Mrs. J. S. Varon of Ottawa Drive, Mrs. David Saks of Bloomfield Terrace and Mrs. Richard Wolfe of Ottawa Drive. The committee met Monday evening at Elks Temple where festivities will be held June 23.

Married by Father of Bridegroom

Lighted tapers marked center aisle pews in First Church of the Nazarene for the Saturday vows of Judy Agnes Lambert to James G. McGuire in Findlay, Ohio. Dr. W. M. McGuire, father of the bridegroom, performed the candlelight ceremony, assisted by Rev. Noel Whitis, pastor.

Receiving guests at the Buckeye Western Horse Club were the A. W. Lamberts of Findlay, parents of the bride, and Dr. and Mrs. McGuire of Elleen Drive.

The bride appeared in an original gown of white Chantilly lace and silk organza with rosettes accenting back fullness and chapel train. A jeweled crown caught the imported illusion veiling. She held eucharis lilies, stephanotis and lilies of the valley.

Attendants in bouffant white organdy over mutation shades of violet carried pink carnations. From Kankakee, Ill., were Mrs. Stewart Storer, matron of honor and Janet Sirrine, who served as bridesmaid with Mary Ann Crabtree of Urbana, Ohio.

Marshal McGuire assisted his brother as best man. Robert Huff of Flint and Ralph Close of Swartz Creek were groomsmen.

The couple attended Olivet Nazarene College, Kankakee, and Mrs. McGuire will teach home economics this fall at Eastern Junior High School.

Opti-Mrs. Installs

Mrs. Robert Zimmerman, founder and first president of the Pontiac Opti-Mrs. Club, was recognized at a banquet and joint installation of officers at the Edgewood Country Club Saturday evening.

A bracelet from the club was presented to Mrs. Zimmerman by Mrs. S. C. Wattles. Members received booklets outlining the 18-year history of the group.

Mrs. Harold Davis, past president, administered the oath of office to Mrs. Ray Brasch, president; Mrs. Julian Galan, first vice president; Mrs. Lyle Wilson, second vice president; Mrs. David Ewalt, secretary; and Mrs. Bernhardt Hansen, treasurer.

Optimist Club officers installed were Wayne Gabert, president; Glenn Rundell and Julian Galan, vice presidents; George Tuson, secretary-treasurer; and Ralph Merkovitz, sergeant at arms.

Fred Logan of Detroit, governor of the 17th District of Optimist International, conducted the installation. The Revs. Edward Schroeder, club chaplain, offered the invocation and benediction.

Mrs. Charles Manz, Mrs. Leon Bigger, Mrs. Richard Wolfe, Dr. H. A. Miller, Julian Galan and Bud Stark made arrangements for the program.

Jack H. Seibers Greet 300 Guests at Wedding

Orchid-tipped white gladioli and palms decked the chancel of Marimont Baptist Church for the Saturday evening nuptials of Diana Lee Swansey to Jack H. Seiber, solemnized by Rev. Philip Somers.

The newlyweds joined their parents, the Kenneth D. Swanseys of West Yale Avenue and the James A. Seibers of Morgan Road, greeting some 300 guests in the church parlors.

The bridal gown of white Chantilly lace over tissue taffeta featured a basque bodice and skirt of lace ruffles which fell into a chapel train. Fingertip veiling of imported silk illusion was held by a small crown of pearls and lace.

All attendants appeared in lilac organza jacket dresses over taffeta, with lavender carnations distinguishing honor maid Dorothy J. Burch. Ramona and Marilyn Swansey served their sister as bridesmaids and carried pale orchid carnations.

Black patent accessories accented the black and white sharkskin suit selected by the new Mrs. Seiber for traveling to Niagara Falls and the Great Smoky Mountains.

Mrs. Swansey wore royal blue lace over taffeta and the mother of the bridegroom appeared in powder blue lace. Pink rosebuds accented their corsages of white carnations.

Marries Robert Ferree

Patricia Sommers Weds

Candlelight vows of Patricia Ann Sommers of Davisburg to Robert L. Ferree of Drayton Plains were repeated before Rev. Warren L. Lear Saturday evening in Davisburg Methodist Church.

The newlyweds and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Sommers of Davisburg and the H. B. Ferrees of Drayton Plains, received some 200 guests at a church reception.

A deep oval cowl neckline distinguished the bride's bouffant gown of embroidered white silk organza over taffeta which swept into a chapel train. She wore a fingertip veil of silk illusion caught by a pearl tiara and held a cascade of white roses, carnations and stephanotis.

Shirley Beardslee of Flint as maid of honor, appeared in blue chiffon taffeta. Bridesmaids Mrs. James Halsey of South Lyon wore pink chiffon taffeta and Lyndia Ferree of Drayton Plains, niece of the bridegroom, chose green. They held nosegays of deep pink carnations and white roses.

MRS. ROBERT L. FERREE

Returning from their northern Michigan honeymoon, the couple will be at home on Ortonville Road, Clarkston.

Will Fete Retiring Teachers

Longfellow School PTA will stage a reception from 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday honoring Adeline Hook, principal, on her retirement.

McCARROLL PTA

Three retiring teachers at McCarroll School will be honored by PTA members at an open house from 7 to 9 Thursday evening.

HAWTHORNE PTA

Retiring teacher Mrs. Martha Larsen will be honored at an open house from 7 to 9 Thursday evening in the Hawthorne School multipurpose room. PTA members are sponsoring the affair.

Mrs. Larsen, who has spent 42 years in the teaching profession, taught at Wever School from the time it opened until she came to Hawthorne eight years ago.

The PTA has an extended an invitation to the open house to Mrs. Larsen's former students and friends.

Erznozniks on New York Honeymoon

The Carl D. Erznozniks, who pledged nuptial vows before Rev. Joseph Femminineo Saturday morning in St. Vincent de Paul Church, are on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and New York State.

The former Vivian Louise Freeman is the daughter of the Edgar H. Freemans of Union Lake, who were hosts at the reception in the West Suburban Boys' Club.

Applique of Chantilly lace enhanced the fitted bodice and chapel train of the bride's gown of white silk organza over taffeta. Her scalloped tiered veil of illusion edged with lace fell from a crown of pearls and crystals. She carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Attendants carried small white lace parasols filled with carnations to match their dresses of nylon sheer over taffeta. Mrs. Frank Erznoznik, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, appeared in pink. Ilene Freeman was bridesmaid for her sister, with Erna Gildcumb and Maribelle Dolan of Union Lake. Their frocks were mint green.

MRS. CARL D. ERZNOZNIK

Frank Erznoznik served his brother as best man and John Erznoznik was an usher. They are the sons of Mrs. Frank Erznoznik of South Midland Drive and the late Mr. Erznoznik. Also seating guests were John Newman and Earl Brown.

Butterscotch roses accented Mrs. Freeman's beige silk organza styled with lace bodice. Mrs. Erznoznik wore pink roses in complement to her dress of powder blue lace over taffeta.

Iran has a population of about 17 million in an area of 628,000 square miles. Canada is about six times larger in land area.

Church Groups Finish Season

First Presbyterian Church's Women's Association's final meeting of the season was Friday. June Group served the luncheon.

Following devotions by Mrs. Harry Pattison, a symposium "the Church Means Business" was conducted by Mrs. Leslie P. Ellis, Mrs. Philip Meacham, Mrs. Leigh Gentges, Mrs. Robert Everett and Mrs. Lester Carlson.

Overseas sewing articles were dedicated by Mrs. Richard Wright during the meeting.

Future events for the group include civic sewing, June 15 and a public Centennial luncheon from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. June 22 at the church.

The next meeting, on Sept. 8, will be retreat at the church under chairmanship of Vera Bassett.

Beta Theta Phis Hold Banquet, Install Officers

The Fox and Hounds Inn was the setting for the annual banquet of Beta Chapter, Beta Theta Phi Sorority Thursday evening.

Installed as officers for 1961-62 were Mrs. Donald Kaiser, president; Mrs. Farrell E. Roberts, vice president; Mrs. Frank Oosterhoff, secretary; Mrs. Myles Truss, treasurer; Mrs. Ward W. Ross, conductress; Mrs. Norman Haldane, parliamentarian and Mrs. John Kennedy, corresponding secretary.

Gifts were presented to Mrs. Norman Mack, outgoing president and to Mrs. John Sinclair who will reside in Ann Arbor. Secret pals also exchanged presents.

Six From Area Earn Degrees

Six area residents earned bachelor of arts degrees at Albion College Monday morning at commencement ceremonies in Goodrich Chapel on campus.

They were Gerard D. Barnhart, Savoy Drive; Patricia R. Jarrard, Overton Street; John W. Knight, Mark Avenue; Philip C. Purcell, Orchard Lake; and Mrs. Margaret Bennett Life, formerly of Irwindale Avenue who also received her teaching certificate.

The baccalaureate address on Sunday was given by world famous scholar and historian Dr. Arnold J. Toynbee.

Tell Winners for Duplicate

The Pontiac Duplicate Bridge Club had nine tables in play at Monday's meeting in Elks Temple.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Longstreth, Mrs. Dan MacPherson and Mrs. Sidney Ayles.

Open House Set

The Daniel Whitfield School will be the scene of an open house from 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday in honor of Margaret Luther, principal.

Mrs. Fred Crossman, publicity chairman, says friends who wish to greet Miss Luther are invited.

Accidents Rise After Installing Traffic Lights

LANSING (AP) — Accidents increased at 45 heavily traveled Michigan intersections after traffic lights were installed, the State Highway Department says.

State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said a seven-year study showed a 36 per cent increase at the intersections—"contrary to popular belief that traffic lights reduce accidents."

"Hundreds of people write us every year," he said, "about intersections they feel are dangerous. Nine times out of 10, they urge us to install a traffic light."

Mackie said department policy has been to install lights only when traffic becomes so heavy that a break is needed to allow opposing traffic to cross an intersection.

Rear-end collisions increased 10% per cent at these intersections, he said.

Would Be Repaid for Moscow Exhibit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two American firms who say Soviet overcharges ran them into the red on construction of the U.S. exhibit building in Moscow would be partly reimbursed under a bill sent to President Kennedy Monday.

The House completed congressional passage by voice vote approval of a minor Senate amendment. The bill would pay Reynolds Feal Corp. of New York $38,551 and Lydick Roofing Co. of Fort Worth, Tex., $39,011.

The companies undertook the work under contract with the U.S. government. They contended, however, that their costs skyrocketed when Soviet officials charged much more for local labor and equipment rental than they had budgeted.

Floyd Shotwell New Distributor for Falstaff

Floyd J. Shotwell of Hubert Distributors, 125 E. Columbia St., is among 10 new distributors named by Falstaff Brewing Corp. to serve its newly opened markets in Northeastern Ohio and Southeastern Michigan, according to an announcement by Harvey Beffa of St. Louis, Mo., executive vice president and general manager.

Shotwell will serve the Pontiac-Royal Oak area.

Beffa made the announcement in Detroit Sunday where he was featured speaker at a sales management seminar for more than 200 of the brewing firm's new distributors and their personnel.

The company's product went on sale in Pontiac and Oakland County Monday. Heretofore, the firm's nearest distributorship was in Flint.

But, said Beffa, "We have been looking foward to this market expansion for several years because of our faith in the future of this area. Unfortunately, we have not had enough beer until now."

BIG SELLER

He said that Falstaff was among the three largest selling beers in the nation last year. He added: "Our goal is to make Falstaff beer available to the public throughout America. This current expansion is another planned step in that direction."

Shotwell, his wife Alice and Hubert Distributing's entire sales force attended the two-day meeting.

Shotwell has been a distributor in Oakland County for the past 23 years. He is president of the Oakland County Beer Distributors Association and past president of the Metropolitan Beer Association of Detroit.

He holds membership in BPOE 810, the Pontiac Exchange Club, Pontiac Chamber of Commerce and Oakland County Boat Club, and he is past president and a life member of the Pontiac Traffic Club.

Red Rebels in Laos Resume Shelling

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The pro-Communist rebels today resumed their artillery bombardment of government and Meo tribal fighters in the mountain village of Padong, 20 miles southwest of rebel headquarters at Xieng Khouang.

U.S. military adviser with the government forces messaged that the headquarters in Padong was under "extremely heavy" bombardment from 75mm howitzers.

The royal government lodged another protest Monday with the International Truce Control Commission charging a relatively light artillery shelling of Padong on Sunday.

Law Catches Up to Escapee Living Good Life 37 Years

WARREN (AP) — Ruben Sepulveda, father of 10 children, has admitted he is the Lino Pedrozo who escaped from a Texas prison camp 37 years ago.

Sepulveda, now in his mid 50s and a $125-a-week welder, was arrested on a fugitive warrant Monday.

The warrant says Lino Pedroza slipped away from a Blue Ridge Penitentiary work crew on Nov. 20, 1924, after serving only six months of a 15-year sentence for statutory rape.

Sepulveda told Justice Francis A. Castellucci at his arraignment that he was the escapee, and he told police of his fear that the past would catch up with him. The judge released him on $500 bond pending a hearing July 6.

Police said Sepulveda told them he had married a 15-year-old girl in Beaumont in 1923, but that the girl's mother forced them to separate and had the marriage annulled on the same day it was performed.

He said the mother signed the statutory rape charge against him. Sepulveda said he was held for one year and given a one-day trial.

RAISED 10 KIDS

After his escape, he said, he went north to St. Paul and then to Detroit where he met his wife Amelia, 48. He worked as a welder and they raised 10 children, who now range in age from 12 to 25.

Sepulveda said he told his wife and his boss about the escape and went to immigration authorities here last fall seeking a passport to be in this country legally.

He said he had paid $8 for an entry permit to cross the Mexican border at Laredo, Tex., when he was just 15.

Sepulveda said he heard nothing further until a Warren policeman stopped at his home and asked him to come to the police station.

Sepulveda said he never told his children about his record.

"Now they will find out," he said.

His wife said: "It would be so wrong to punish him now. He's tried so hard to be a good husband and to help raise 10 children. He doesn't smoke, doesn't drink."

"The only time he goes out," she said, "is with me or the children to a movie or to church."

Tito Sounds Warning

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) —President Tito Monday said he welcomed the Kennedy-Khrushchev meeting in Vienna but warned that big powers cannot decide the fate of humanity by themselves.

First Full-Time Southfield Planner Appointed

NEW ART CENTER — Culture replaces agriculture as the main activity at this 100-year-old farm house in Troy Saturday. The old home at 3820 Crooks Road has been converted to an art gallery by its owner, Fred T. Wall, and a Bloomfield Township cartoonist, Russell H. Klix of 6787 White Pine Drive. Grand opening for the new Rusty Hinge Gallery will be from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.

But City Council Must OK His Selection by Mayor

SOUTHFIELD — Leon F. Decheim has been appointed the city's first full-time planner by Mayor S. James Clarkson but before he goes on the payroll, his job will have to be confirmed by the city council.

Councilmen learned of the appointment at their meeting last night in a letter read by the mayor, who asked immediate action.

The council, however, was in no hurry, and decided to wait awhile before making any move, at least until June 15 when it holds a special meeting.

They want additional time, councilmen said, to study Decheim's qualifications.

Clarkson, in his letter, said that because the city never has had a full-time city planner, "the most serious impediment to the adoption of the master plan was the complete lack of liason between the council, the mayor's office and the Planning Commission."

FIGHT MASTER PLAN

The City Planning Commission recently completed its master plan and endeavored to file it with the county before is was submitted to the council for final approval.

The council then, through its attorney James C. Allen, got a temporary injunction against County Clerk Daniel T. Murphy, preventing him from filing and recording the master plan.

Murphy has until June 19 to show cause in Circuit Court why the master plan should be filed and recorded with the county.

Presently, Alb Munson is the city's planning consultant, a part-time position. Engineering aide Jay Montgomery acts as liason between the major, council and the planning commission.

Clarkston also recommended that Drv Warren Shelden of 24527 Santa Barbara Road be reappointed to the City Board of Health.

He further recommended that the council consider three persons to fill two vacancies on the health board. They are Dr. Sidney Adler, Dr. Martin Seliek and Thomas Sachs.

Council is expected to take action on these appointments, along with the question of a full-time planner, at the June 15 meeting.

State Men Held for Abduction

Case Unusual Because Victim Denies Being Dragged From Cab

ARLINGTON, Va., (AP) — A man allegedly abducted by three Michigan men has told a judge, "Nobody abducted me."

That's what Donald E. Worden, 35, said Monday in Arlington County Court after Judge Paul D. Brown ordered the Michigan men held under $75,000 bond each.

Held on abduction charges are John Peter Vais, 41-year-old Detroit truck driver; Eugene Ellsworth Ayotte, 34, of 74 W. Maxwell St., Ferndale, and Charles Joseph Morgan, 51, of 1321 Maureen St., Madison Heights.

When an attorney asked for a reduction in the bail, Judge Brown noted the men were from the Detroit area and said: "That's just a short ride from Windsor, Ont., and that's another country."

Worden told Judge Brown: "Your honor, nobody abducted me. Nothing was done to me."

Worden, an ex-convict, was held on $30,000 bail as a material witness. Judge Brown set July 13 for resumption of the preliminary hearing.

As he was leaving the courtroom, Ayotte nodded and winked as he passed Worden and said: "Hi, Buddy."

The bizarre case unfolded Saturday as Worden was returning to an apartment from a grocery shopping trip in a taxicab in this Washington suburb.

The cab driver told police that Wordn had been dragged from the taxi. Police picked up one of the Worden had been dragged from the ment and later arrested the two others in a car along with Worden.

EAGLE SCOUT—Richard Lee Claxton, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Claxton, 53265 Briar Road, Shelby Township, was given his Eagle Scout badge last night in award ceremonies at the Disco Elementary School on Van Dyke. He is a member of Troop 155 of which his father is scoutmaster.

Rusty Hinge Gallery Open This Weekend

TROY — A 100-year-old farm house which has been converted into an art gallery by a Bloomfield Township cartoonist and a retired Ferndale school principal will be open to the public this weekend.

Nine Michigan artists will display their work at the grand opening of the Rusty Hinge Gallery from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Wall formerly was principal of Coolidge Elementary School in Ferndale while Klix, whose work will be included in the showing by Michigan artists this weekend, is employed as a cartoonist by the General Motors Corp.

Klix said several Birmingham artists will be represented at the grand opening exhibit, including W. R. Wiltshire, James R. McDonald and Velva A. Redman.

AT DETROIT INSTITUTE

Both Scanes, whose work has been exhibited at the New York World's Fair and the Chicago Art Institute, and Jacobson are represented in the permanent collection of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Tabb has won gold medals for his water colors and oils at exhibitions in Michigan, Ohio and New York, Klix said.

The Rusty Hinge Gallery will be open daily after this weekend. Coffee and cookies will be served during the grand opening celebration.

Besides the art work, there also will be displays of several antiques at the farmhouse-art gallery, according to Klix.

Troy Residents Talk of Water

City Working on Detroit Source; One Man Has Rusty Sample

TROY — A sure sign that summer is on its way was evident at last night's City Commission meeting attended by residents who complained about water — and the lack of it — in Troy.

Assurances by commissioners that the city is working on an agreement to bring Detroit water here failed to satisfy one property owner.

Clancy A. Fonseth, 314 Lyons St., said the city water at his home has been bad for two weeks. He told commissioners the water had been ruining his white shirts and was unsanitary.

Producing a sample of orangish colored liquid in a baby bottle, Fonseth said anyone in the commission chambers was welcome to it.

"I wouldn't drink that stuff," replied Mayor Robert J. Huber. Commissioner James F. Carey advised Fonseth that the only solution to the problem was to obtain a water softener or filter.

"I pay taxes," said Fonseth. "I shouldn't have to buy a water softener."

Mayor Huber, who explained he had the same problem with tap water in his home, explained that the orange material in the water was "crud" from inside the water mains.

It accumulates because of the high mineral content in water pumped by Troy's municipal wells, the mayor pointed out.

Mrs. Richard H. Hollingsworth, 1328 E. Long Lake Road, said residents in her neighborhood are often completely without a supply of water.

City Manager David E. Firestone said the city was in favor of installing a water line for the entire mile on East Long Lake Road between Rochester and John R roads.

Commissioners said the water situation, like many of Troy's problems, could not be solved immediately because of a lack of funds.

However, the petitioners from East Long Lake Road said they would be willing to pay for a 1,200-foot water line on a special assessment basis.

The commission agreed to take up the problem of the East Long Lake Road water situation in about one month after further study was made into the matter.

Boy, 13, Admits Setting 3 Fires

One at Furniture Store; Another at Garage, and Third at Barn

A 13-year-old Pontiac boy has admitted to Pontiac Police that he set three fires and attempted a fourth in the city during the past two months.

One of the fires resulted in some $20,000 damage to the Orchard Furniture Co. on April 28.

The boy also admitted setting fire to a two-car garage at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Shillaire at 196 Orchard Lake Ave. on May 14 and a barn on Exchange Street several nights after the furniture store fire.

"We had suspected arson in all three fires," said Charles Metz, fire marshal. "Officers had been questioning the boy off and on for about a month."

The youth admitted attempting to set fire to Mrs. Shillaire's home by throwing burning papers into a basement window a few days after the garage fire.

Officers said the youth admitted the arson after taking a lie detector test Monday. They said they would ask Juvenile Court to place him under psychiatric treatment.

Governor Signs Finance Bills for '61-62 Year

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson today signed appropriation bills to finance spending for public welfare, regulatory services and public safety and defense programs in the fiscal year that starts July 1. Today, they total more than $124 million.

The governor's action leaves only the $109 million higher education bill, the most controversial of the lot, still unsigned. An aide said it would be signed before the end of the day.

Largest of the three bills signed today allocates $86.18 million for public welfare programs, including the state program furnishing medical benefits for the needy aged. The sum is about $4.6 million above the governor's recommendations.

Property Owner in Novi Goes on Tax Strike

NOVI — One property owner here last night made it clear to the Village Council that he was dissatisfied with the recently adopted 1961-62 budget.

Herbert Koester, 42780 W. Eight Mile Road, told the governing body that until they approve a budget that is within the needs of the village he is going on a tax strike.

Koester, an unsuccessful candidate for council, said he has more than 100 village citizens supporting him and his claim that the budget is "too luxurious."

The council adopted a $189,000 budget early in May which requires a tax rate of $5 for each $1,000 of assessed valuation.

During the "tax holiday," the name given by Koester to his movement, he wants property owners to bank their taxes so they can receive the three per cent interest on their money.

The maximum penalty on late taxes is four per cent.

Koester said the loss of one per cent would be worth it if the council in the future heeds his advice and "adopts a budget the village can support."

Exchange Club Sending 2 to Jackson Meeting

BROOKLANDS — Rudolph R. Minchella and Edward Hanlon will represent the Brooklands Exchange Culb at the 1961 convention of Michigan Exchange clubs in Jackson June 18-20.

Ewart to Report on Rights-of-Way for Pipeline

First reports on property and right-of-way acquisition for the pipeline between the existing sewage treatment plant and the new facilities at Auburn Avenue and Opdyke Road will be made by City Attorney William A. Ewart at the City Commission meeting tonight.

In an otherwise brief agenda, commissioners will be asked to consider several neighborhood improvements.

Among them is a proposed sanitary sewer on the east side of Woodward Avenue opposite St. Joseph Mercy Hospital to handle new developments there. The assessed cost is set at $4,271 and the city cost, $7,430.

City Manager Walter K. Willman has nominated Carl Walter for a new term on the housing commission.

Attorney General Asks More Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy told the Senate Judiciary Committee today federal authorities urgently need additional powers to deal with organized crime.

Appearing before the committee to urge enactment of the half-dozen proposals which he has submitted, put heavy stress on two.

One would provide penalties up to $10,000 fine and five years imprisonment for interstate travel in furtherance of racketeering activities involving gambling, liquor, narcotics, prostitution, extortion and bribery.

The other would broaden the present ban on interstate shipment of slot machines to include pinball machines.

Close-Ups and Glass Topic for Camera Club

ROCHESTER — The assignment for the Avon Camera Club's 8 p.m. meeting Thursday is "Close-Ups or Glass." Up to four slides of other subjects will be welcome.

Asks Ad Group to Analyze U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson today urged advertising men to find out why the United States seems to be lagged behind the Communists in projecting its image to the world.

Johnson said in a speech prepared for the Washington conference of the Advertising Council that this country has not put across to millions of people its "desires and real objectives."

"It is a sad but true fact," he said, "that our Communist adversaries have been able to convince many that humanitarian projects like Point Four are instruments of imperialism; the simplest moves to defend ourselves are moves of aggression; and honest and open-hearted efforts to secure arms control are merely intended to obscure issues."

Hint Slaying of Trujillo Was International Plot

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (AP)—A government source said today there indications Dictator Rafael L. Trujillo's assassination was the result of a widespread conspiracy to overthrow the government with ramifications in another country.

Declining to name the other nation, the informant said officials have discarded an earlier theory that a handful of persons bearing a personal grudge against the generalissimo were responsible for his slaying last Tuesday.

Would Spur State Jobs

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson said today he has asked for $225,000 in federal funds to set up a program of technical assistance to spur employment in Michigan.

Cuba's Rual Roa Wants Meeting of 20 Neutrals

Addressing delegates from 20 countries preparing for the conference expected to be held before the 16th session of the United Nations, Roa said: "The Cuban people and government would be extremely pleased to have this international conference convene in their country."

National Publication Uses Ruse by Student to Lambast Colleges

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Sports Illustrated, a fine advertising journal with an occasional sports story and some good features on chess, bridge, cooking and the social life of race horse owners, if that comes under the heading of sports, went out of its way to lambast college basketball coaches and give its support to a fraud and a hoax.

In one of its recent issues, the magazine throws the blame of the recent basketball scandals on the coaches and their recruiting methods.

It also glorifies a graduate student and part time sports reporter for instigating a fraud intent on giving coaches a black eye.

If anything, Tom Affinito, the writer of the letters to the college coaches, lauding a non-existent high school basketball player's talents, complete with bogus news clippings, ought to be put into court for using the mails for attempting to perpetrate a fraud.

As the Sports Illustrated relates, Affinito had a phony story printed at the Meriden, Conn., Journal about a 6-5 prep basketball sensation. He mailed the story to numerous basketball coaches along with a letter requesting consideration for scholarship.

He gave the name "Tom Fini" to the fictitious basketball player, and after several days many of the college coaches made replies with scholarship offers.

Using this ruse as its basis, Sports Illustrated procedes to say that this gives proof of how easy it is for the outstanding athlete to get into college while crowded schools are turning away average students.

"It seldom has been easier for athletes" states the magazine.

It also states in a sub-head that recruiting in this case "exposes the frantic attitude that contributes to the tragedy." This makes reference to the basketball scandals.

First of all, it is commonly known that at most colleges, the athletic departments are awarded by the registrar's office a certain number of athletes who may enter as per the school's athletic code. In the Big Ten, under its "aid plan" every school has been allowed send tenders to 100 athletes. These 100 are offered various degrees of scholarships, all within the rules of the NCAA.

Every college coach that answered the phony letter in this case made the offers within bounds of NCAA rules. Offering a scholarship, however, and awarding one, are two different things.

Every coach can make an offer, and many will on the basis of good reports. But when the time comes for high school transcripts and entrance exams, then only, will the boy know whether he qualifies for the scholarship.

As a recent local example — one of the most outstanding basketball players in the area last season made his intentions known he wanted to enter a certain state school. The coach, happy to know the boy accepted his school, made a full scholarship offer.

After a transcript of the boy's grades were received from the high school, the coach made it known to the boy that he could not be accepted on those grades.

Recruiting is common knowledge. There may be some who go out of their permitted realm to get ball players, but this is no reason to blacken the character of all college coaches for something they are permitted to do — recruit.

If Sports Illustrated could prove that there was anything promised under-the-table, or not in accordance to NCAA rules, in the offers made by the coaches even to the phony player, there would have been grounds to really rap the particular violaters.

But every one of the coaches writing to the phony player had every right under NCAA recruiting rules. The offers they made were legitimate under NCAA rules.

Baseball has its Black Sox. Football has even been touched. Boxing has been infiltrated. Horse Racing has been hurt with drugs. Basketball has been fixed. Even the easy chair TV programs have been rigged with phony encyclopedic minds to deceive viewers.

If Sports Illustrated wants to lay the blame of the basketball and other scandals on someone, why doesn't it crusade right down to the core of all evils — the racketeers and gamblers who have been responsible for all the black eras in sports.

It could start with people like Affinito who have nothing more to do than think up malicious frauds. We certainly hope this young man stays out of our profession. It is not the purpose of a sportswriter to make fools out of coaches and athletes with fraudulant stories and letters.

It shames this writer to think that the newspaper in Meriden, Conn. would condone the phony story to be printed at its plant and be a part of an admitted hoax.

We certainly defend the code of newspapers and writers to print facts but not fictitious news stories intent in purpose of humiliating any other profession, especially men in coaching.

Bidders Threaten Withdrawal

Chisox Officials Have Not Decided on Sale

CHICAGO (AP) — The indecision to either accept or reject a bid of $4.8 million for controlling interest in the Chicago White Sox could result in a withdrawl of the offer today.

Sox President Bill Veeck announced Monday that he, Hank Greenberg and A. C. Allyn Jr., had not reached a decision on the offer made by Chicago attorney Bernard Epton, spokesman for a syndicate which also includes entertainer Danny Thomas.

Epton, obviously perturned by the delay, scheduled a press conference today and said if the Veeck group didn't reach a decision in the "immediate future" he would recommend to the syndicate that the offer be withdrawn.

Vice President Greenberg, who has been in charge of Sox affairs because of Veeck's ill health, says there can be no sale when there is no money.

"Epton keeps talking about the millions he has behind him," said Greenberg, "but he never came up with enough cash to warrant our giving him an option. It's customary to put up five to ten per cent of the money to get an option and he hasn't come up with it."

Greenberg was reminded that Veeck only put up $100 for an option from Mrs. Dorothy Comiskey Rigney which enabled him to purchase the 54 per cent stock now held by the group.

Epton said his offer is "firm and concrete" and that his group has no money problems. He has also said that Thomas is willing and could put up the entire sum himself if any other members of the 14-man syndicate back down.

Meanwhile, Veeck said that he, Greenberg and Allyn, a member of the Sox board of directors, would hold another meeting on the matter of a possible sale today.

American Leaguers Stage Tight Contests

The American League teams took over the city softball schedule last night and the result was some of the best play of the season.

Don Moorhead's two-run single in the 6th was the big blow in a 4-1 Hi-Way Collision win over Sno-Bol. Art Weis of Arro Realty blanked Smith Silo 3-0 on two hits.

Although outhit 11-6, the Metropolitan Club nipped O'Neil Realty 3-2 when Tom Stilwell doubled in the clincher in the 5th. Gary Boe edged Ken Spears in a duel 1-0. Lynus Grant got the 1st of two hits off Spears in the 2nd and scored on an error for the Elks' victory. Fisher Local 596 had three hits off Boe.

In Avondale Church League play, St. Paul Methodist tallied five times in the 1st inning and coasted to a 7-0 win over First Church of God to hold the lead. United Presbyterian walloped Pontiac RLDS 10-1 paced by Don Butler's three hits. His two-run homer started the scoring.

Detroit Acquires Hal Woodeshick to Aid Pitching

CHICAGO (AP) — Several American League managers have been saying the Detroit Tigers need another pitcher to remain in pennant contention.

Woodeshick, 29, has had an erratic career in the American League since the Tigers brought him up from their farm system in 1956. He was shuttled back to the minors before the Tigers traded him to Cleveland in 1958.

The Indians sent Woodeshick to the old Washington Senators, who made him available in last winter's expansion draft. The New Senators picked him up for $75,000.

Manager Bob Scheffing said Woodeshick would be used principally in relief. Terry Fox and Bob Bruce have been bothered by arm trouble which weakened an already none-too-strong bullpen staff.

Tiger Lead Cut to 1 Game After 8-0 Chicago Beating

Roberts Wins After 7 Losses

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"I had a hunch I was gonna win one," said Robin Roberts, "but I was starting to wonder when."

The 34-year-old right-hander, one of the finest pitchers in National League history, collected his first 1961 victory yesterday as the Philadelphia Phils beat San Francisco 3-2, dropping the Giants to third place in the National League.

Roberts had lost seven decisions before his triumph yesterday and he savored the victory quietly and thoughtfully. You would have thought it was the seventh game of the World Series.

In a way, for the last-place Phils, it was.

"We didn't get him many runs," manager Gene Mauch said, "but none of the Philadelphia pitchers get many runs to work with. Whenever we win, it's a big one."

Roberts and southpaw Mike McCormick of the Giants each allowed six hits. McCormick, the loser, has a 5-5 record and has lost four of his last five decisions.

Roberts had to bear down all the way. Double plays helped him.

FINAL OUT

"Robin would have eaten a yard of turf to get that one," said Mauch.

He turned to Roberts and said: "C'mon, young fellow. It's about time you were taking a shower."

Football Good to White

By the Associated Press

Football and success nave gone hand in hand for Byron (Whizzer) White.

He was an all-America back at Colorado and proved his selection was not fluke by leading the National Football League in rushing in his first season in professional football.

White, after playing one season with the Pittsburgh Steelers, took a year's absence from the game to study as a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford University in England.

Traded to the Detroit Lions upon his return, White again led NFL ground gainers. The following season, he paced the Lions in rushing and passing.

Then came an outstanding service record in the Pacific. White decided to devote full time to the legal field, established himself in Denver, Colo., and gained a reputation as a top-flight attorney.

White plunged headlong into politics during the 1960 presidential campaign, working for the election of John F. Kennedy as president of the United States.

Where is he now?

Whizzer White is serving his country as an assistant under attorney general Robert Kennedy, and recently was sent to Alabama to direct the government operations in the area torn by racial strife.

Indians Defeat Nats, Gain Big Game

By The Associated Press

The Cleveland Indians, barred from high stake card games by Manager Jimmy Dykes, are playing a hot hand at the moment in the American League race, moving within one game of first place with a seven-game winning streak.

Dykes ruled out the big pots to make sure the Tribe kept their minds on baseball, and the Injuns have done just that. Out of the first division just one day this season, they've stacked the bullpen with aces and have come from seven games back by winning 19 of their last 23.

The three-man fireman brigade of right-handers Frank Funk and Barry Latman and lefty Bob Allen has a 13-3 record. With seven saves tacked on, those three have been in on 20 of Cleveland's 31 victories.

Latman, acquired in the Herb Score deal with the Chicago White Sox last year, nailed a 4-0 record and hung up the Indians' seventh in a row Monday night, breaking a 5-5 tie with a triple and blanking Washington in four innings of two-hit relief for a 7-5 victory over the Senators.

That put the Indians even with front-running Detroit in the decisive "lost" column as the White Sox knocked off the Tigers 8-0 behind the seven-hit pitching of Frank Baumann. Third-place New York drew within four games of the top with a 6-1 and 6-2 twi-night doubleheader sweep over the Minnesota Twins. The Los Angeles Angels dropped fourth-place Baltimore 3-0 on southpaw Ron Moeller's six-hitter.

Kansas City split a doubleheader at Boston, winning 10-6 after the Red Sox had won the opener 6-2.

The Indians, after blowing 3-0 and 5-3 leads behind starter Johnny Antonelli and Bobby Locke, finally made it with two unearned runs in the seventh at Washington against losing reliever John Gabler (2-2). Latman's two-out triple triggered the rally and gave the bullpen three victories and three saves in the Tribe's seven-game streak.

The Yankees set AL home run records for 13 and 14 consecutive games while tagging the Twins with an 11-game losing string. A three-run, pinch homer by Johnny Blanchard did it in the seventh inning of the opener, and Mickey Mantle then regained a tie for the AL lead with his 15th, a two-run shot, in the eighth. That made it 27 home runs in 13 games for New York, and Tony Kubek made it 28 for 14 in the nightcap with a two-run homer in the seventh that gave the Yankee shortstop a 14-game hitting streak.

Jim Coates (6-2) won his fifth in a row, first as a starter, with relief by Luis Arroyo in the opener. Rookie Roland Sheldon (2-2) then pitched his first complete game with a six-hitter in the second game, clinching it with his first major league hit, a two-run single, in the fifth. Don Lee and Chuck Stobbs, both 0-2, were the losers.

Chisox, Detroit Revert to Old Form in Romp

Baumann Continues Hex Over Bengals Despite Wood's 3 Hits

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Chicago White Sox and Detroit Tigers joined forces in rolling back the clock last night.

It was quite a nostalgic experience for White Sox fans who have witnessed in stunned disbelief Chicago's unexpected plunge to the bottom of the American League basement in these early weeks of the season.

But last night, at least, the Sox regained the "Go-Go" magic of 1959 when they captured the pennant.

They received a sparkling pitching performance from southpaw Frank Baumann, fielded superbly, hit well and literally "ran" to an 8-0 victory over Detroit.

The Tigers, who have been as much of a positive surprise this year as the White Sox have been a negative one, also reverted to their form of recent years and played like second-division stumble-bums.

They certainly bore little resemblance to the team that has led the league since the second week of the campaign and if they don't watch out, they'll be ousted from the top spot before the week is out.

ON THE MOVE

Cleveland's rampaging Indians won their seventh in a row last night and thus moved to within one game—and that's scalping distance—of the Tigers.

What's more, following another battle at Chicago tonight, the Tigers return home to face the massacre-minded Indians in a four-game showdown.

The crafty lefthander was in trouble only in the fourth inning when singles by Rocky Colavito and Steve Boros put runners on second and third with two outs. But after walking Chico Fernandez to fill the bases, pitcher Phil Regan flied out to end the inning.

The solitary bright spot in the disastrous evening was the hitting of rookie second-baseman Jake Wood who collected three of the seven Tiger hits.

Meanwhile, the Sox worked over Regan and reliefer Jim Double for 13 hits including a double and two singles by Baumann who helped his own cause by driving in three runs.

Jim Landis was another big hitter for Chicago as he banged four straight singles, scored twice and knocked in two runs.

But it was the White Sox' baserunning, once regarded as the scourge of the American League, that contributed as much as anything else to the Tigers' embarrassment.

Snead Pulls 'Wrong-Way Corrigan'

By BILL CORNWELL

Slammin' Sam Snead may not have been walking in his sleep Monday morning, but the fact remains that he played 18 holes before discovering he was on the wrong golf course.

Yesterday started out as a day of frustration for the Slammer, who is bidding for a berth in the 61st National Open in today's 36-hole sectional qualifiers at Grosse Ile Golf and Country Club.

Sunday the ever-popular Snead was in Dorado Beach, Puerto Rico, where he and his U.S. teammates breezed to an easy victory in the Canada Cup matches.

As soon as the international competition was finished, Snead hopped aboard a plane and headed for Detroit where he planned to tune up for today's trials with a practice round at Grosse Ile.

Sam had not been able to catch any sleep when the plane landed at Detroit's Metropolitan airport Monday at 5:25 a.m.

Snead hailed a taxi and paid $18 in cab fare for a trip to Grosse Ile. The hitch in the story is this—Sam told the driver to take him to Orchard Lake Country Club instead of Grosse Ile.

It was before 7 o'clock when Snead strolled to Orchard Lake's first tee and since Monday is a "closed" day at the area's private clubs, there was nobody around except one small unidentified boy.

Sam thought it was peculiar that the premises were so quiet, but he hired the anonymous youngster as a caddie and began touring the Orchard Lake layout.

Greeskeeper Clarence White and his crew arrived later and began to do some work on the links. They spotted Snead and the boy on the course, but no one could identify them.

"At first we couldn't tell who was playing, he was so far away," White said. "However, we could see that whoever it was certainly knew how to play the game because he was knocking almost everything right up to the stick."

"It wasn't until he came walking down the 18th fairway that we could tell it was Snead," cleamed White. "We met him on the green, soon learned what had happened and informed him of his error."

Snead, perhaps a little embarrassed but nevertheless still undaunted, handed his happy pee-wee caddie a $10 bill for his services and then went to Grosse Ile with White, who volunteered to drive him there.

"Sam's golf bag was almost as big as that kid," White laughed. "Snead told me he actually became concerned about the boy and tried to make things easy for him whenever he could, but the little guy just wouldn't quit—he stuck it out all the way. I don't know how he did it."

At any rate, White chauffered Sam (Wrong-Way Corrigan) Snead to Grosse Ile and the sweet-swinging pro from White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., stepped to the first tee of the correct golf course around 12 noon.

Snead, accompanied by Wally Burkemo of Franklin Hills and big John Barnum of Grand Rapids, fired 34-34—68 over Grosse Ile's par 36-35—75 layout. Burkemo rifled 36-33—69, including four birdies and a double-bogey five on the back nine, and Barnum shot 34-35—69.

No one seems to know for sure what Snead posted at Orchard Lake. Sam confessed to a 31 on the front side, but never revealed what he did coming home. According to the enthusiastic reports of his pint-sized caddie, it's a fairly safe bet that he was in the low 60s.

So a day that started off on the wrong foot for sleepy Sam ended satisfactorily. After playing the wrong course, Snead had his warmup session at Grosse Ile.

And he made a youngster happy.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Sam Snead, Bob Rosburg and Australia's Peter Thomson join an army of 293 golfers shooting today in six qualifying centers across the nation for the last 85 berths in the U. S. Open golf championship.

A group of 36 pros and eight amateurs qualified with only a few major casualties in seven sectionals yesterday. Those 44, today's 85 and 21 others exempt from all qualifying will tee off in pursuit of defending champion Arnold Palmer in the Open at Oakland Hills Country Club near Pontiac June 15-17.

Snead, fresh from his individual and team triumphs in the Canada cup matches in Puerto Rico last weekend, will attempt to qualify at Grosse Ile along with veteran Walter Burkemo, Japan's Chen Chin Po and 45 others.

Rosburg tries at Bakersfield, Calif., and Thomson tees off in the Washington section.

The largest sectional today is in the New York area where 82 will be shooting for 20 places. Among the entries are Claude Harmon, Doug Ford, Wes Ellis and Paul Harney.

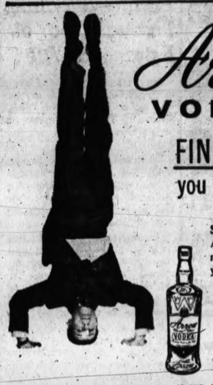

Don January of Dallas and Bill Bisdorf of Denver with nine under par 135's on courses in their home towns, paced the nation yesterday by firing seven under par 65's along with a 70.

January set a competitive course record for the Dallas Athletic Club course with his second round of 32-33—65. Bisdorf had a front nine of 30 on his first round.

Pete Cooper and Chick Harbert were among four leaders at 146 at Atlanta where the veteran Fred Haas just slipped in by winning a sudden death playoff.

Charley Sifford, a Negro regular on the tournament trail, failed to make the qualifying list at Chicago. Jackie Burke missed by three shots at Dallas where Joe Conrad, former British Amateur champ and now a pro, missed by six.

Thacker Cards Best Score, but Bone Gets the Dough

By BILL CORNWELL

Joe Thackers, assistant professional at Red Run, forgot to pay his $5 entry fee for Monday's 18-hole Pro-Am golf tournament at Edgewood Country Club. His lapse of memory cost him a net profit of $87.50.

Thacker, former head pro at Knollwood, was the best golfer in the field yesterday with a five-under-par 33-33—66, but he couldn't collect top prize money because of the delinquent "fin."

The beneficiary of Thacker's neglect was Pontiac's Gene Bone, who was the next best pro in the tourney with 34-33—67. The Warwick Hills pro pocketed top money of $92.50.

Bone bogied only one hole, No. 2, and birdied the 3rd, 9th, 15th, 16th and 18th. Thacker had no bogies and birdied the 3rd, 9th, 10th, 14th and 17th holes. He posted back-to-back birdie deuces with 20-foot putts and canned a 30-footer for another "bird."

Thacker missed out on low pro cash, but he and two of his amateur partners shared first place with Stan Jawor of Glen Oaks in the best-ball portion of the tournament.

Bill Adams of Red Run, a 33-year-old Birmingham steelbroker who is married to the former Joan Olsen of Pontiac, and Herb Ealand, another Red Run member, joined forces with Thacker for a pair of 63s.

The Thacker-Adams card read 31-32 while the Thacker-Ealand score was 32-31. The two Thacker teams had to divide top honors with Jawor and Bob Gyselinck, who combined for 30-33—63.

Thacker earned $238.42 for his double share of first while Jawor bagged $119.21. Adams, Ealand and Gyselinck each netted $79.48 in merchandise prizes.

Following Thacker and Bone in the low pro category were Pine Lake's Jerry Prieskorn and Tommy Cosmos of Oakland Hills, both of whom shot 34-35—69. Par at Edgewood is 35-36—71.

A total of 56 pros and 162 amateurs competed in the tourney.

Palmer, Hebert Set Golf Week Target Today

CHICAGO (AP) — U.S. Open champion Arnold Palmer and PGA titlist Jay Hebert today meet in 18 holes of medal play with the winner's score the target climaxing National Golf Week.

Golfers from coast to coast will try to match their net scores in one or several rounds, played on courses of their own choosing, against the Palmer-Hebert winner's card.

The PGA-sponsored National Golf Week began last Monday with competitors contributing $1 for each 18-hole round played to the National Golf Fund Inc. Since 1952, charities and worthy golf projects have received $801,647 from the fund.

Jet John York Blanks Lake Orion on One Hit

The Joy Boy Jets blanked Lake Orion 8-0 and Talbott Lumber tripped CIO 4-1 in city baseball yesterday.

John York flipped a one-hit shutout and fanned 12 for the Jets. Doug Trueman's single with one out in the 6th ruined his no-hit hopes. Dave Simmons slammed a homer and single and Warren Stephens also homered in the victory.

Talbott clinched its win early with three in the 2nd when Bob Garrett and DeWayne Sheffer got the team's only hits off loser Chuck Johnson. Winner Jim Lowry gave up three bingles.

PCH Nine Sweeps Huskies in Twin-Bill

Pontiac Central whipped Pontiac Northern in a doubleheader while Cranbrook was losing two of its last three games in the prep baseball windup Saturday and Monday.

Ray Collins fired a two-hitter, fanning seven in a 3-0 Chief victory. Loser Tom Zink allowed five safeties. Gene Luppino singled in one tally and Bob Pomeroy batted in the other two.

The nightcap was 8-5 with Rudy Ransom besting Ray Glowas. PCH overcame a 5-4 deficit with three in the 5th featuring one of Ransom's two hits. Luppino had a double and two singles, George Stallings tripled and singled, John Marcux had two hits pacing a 11-hit attack.

Cranbrook bowed 4-3 at Flat Rock with Dick Mosher the loser and then split with Flint Central. John Billesdon hurled two-hit ball and Mosher, handling the catching, had a two-run homer in a 4-2 win. Central got even, 7-3.

Admits Shooting Through Door of Estranged Wife

James O. Rush pleaded guilty in Circuit Court yesterday to felonious assault and promised Judge Stanton G. Dondero he'd stay out of his estranged wife's neighborhood.

He admitted firing a 16-gauge shotgun on May 30 through the kitchen door of the home at 40 Taylor St. where his former wife Kathlin, 27, lived. He said he had been drinking.

In explaining why Rush was confined in the county jail after once posting $100 bail, Pontiac Police Detective Thomas C. Mitchell told Judge Dondero he was picked up when spotted again in the neighborhood.

Rush said he had gone there to pay his newsboy.

"Everybody in that neighborhood is very much afraid of this man," Mitchell said.

Rackets Boss Has No Nation

Carlos Marcello Back in U.S. After Rejection by Six Countries

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Rackets boss Carlos Marcello, reputed head of the Gulf Coast arm of the Mafia, was a man without a country today, rejected by at least six nations.

The United States deported Marcello to Guatemala April 4 and wants to eject him again, but so far hasn't been able to find another country that will let him come in. Guatemala also deported him.

Marcello, 56, short, dapper and known as "The Little Man" in underworld circles, surrendered to the Immigration Service after slipping back into the United States, nursing two broken ribs. He was clapped in jail.

He said he lost 20 pounds as he was driven from one South American country to another, and broke the ribs when he fell on a forced march through the mountains of El Salvador.

U.S. Atty. M. Hepburn Many filed a felony charge of illegally re-entering the United States and had bond set at $50,000. But the Immigration Service retained physical custody and said it would not set him free, bond or no bond.

How Marcello, allegedly a "business" partner of Frank Costello, got back into the United States was still a mystery.

His lawyers said they would not comment until a hearing scheduled for June 29.

No Extra Money for State Police

Must Slash Spending by $600,000 in Order to Pay Reduced Force

EAST LANSING (AP)—State police, the elite of Michigan's law enforcement agencies, are getting set to slash their spending program by $600,000 a year.

That is the sum that Commissioner Joseph A. Childs estimates is needed, in addition to the $13.23 million budget written by the legislature for 1961-62, to maintain operations at their current level.

It won't be available.

The legislature left the state police spending program unchanged from this year. It made no provision for the three per cent pay raise ordered by the Civil Service Commission for 31,000 state employes, including the state police force.

Neither did it allow for new medical and group insurance benefits, also ordered by the commission, or for mandatory step salary increases for state policemen, or for increased longevity payments and other smaller items.

"So we have no choice but to cut back whenever and wherever we can," said Childs.

Childs figured the $600,000 would pay the salary and expenses of 95 new troopers, including the costs of the patrol cars they operate. Instead, he said, the force will gradually be reduced to about 50 below its authorized strength of 1,155 by June 30, 1962.

Eighteen men will graduate from recruit school this month. After that, men retiring or resigning won't be replaced.

Ignored Work of Visionary Rocket Scientists

By SID MOODY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Whatever the military significance of Russia's stunning space feats, they have certainly given the United States a drubbing in world opinion.

Russia was first in orbit, first in to deep space, first to hit the moon and photograph its far side. The first astronaut is named Yuri.

Indeed, if the space duel were a one-shot fray, the U.S. would have died at dawn.

How did it happen?

Perhaps it began March 16, 1926. That day the world's first liquid-fueled rocket sputtered across the calm of Auburn, Mass. The American visionary who invented the rocket, Dr. Robert H. Goddard, was pleased. America, except for a few startled residents, wasn't listening.

Working on his own, however, Goddard by 1941 had produced a rocket that was almost identical to the German V2 that was to terrorize London in 1944. Those shots, not Goddard's, suddenly made America rocket-conscious.

PLANS AHEAD

Stalin, meanwhile, was also learning some lessons. As his armies fought into Germany they were awed by the destruction left by the Allied bombers.

Stalin was more than awed. He was worried. He had no strategic bombers.

Rather than try to make up America's almost insurmountable bomber lead, a former Soviet officer has reported, Stalin ordered as many German rocketeers captured as possible.

In 1947 he reportedly told a meeting of the Politburo he wanted a rocket capable of hitting New York City which "would make it easier to talk with the gentleman shopkeeper Harry Truman and keep him pinned down where we want him."

That same year the Truman administration turned down a military proposal to spend $75 million on development of a super rocket —which eventually became the Atlas. The President's scientific advisors said the cost would be astronomical.

The Navy had already asked $5,-$8 million for a satellite program in 1945. The Air Force made a similar proposal a year later. James Forrestal, the first secretary of defense, reported neither plan had shown a military value worth the cost.

"However," he added, "the question . . . deserves further study and examination."

BOMBERS GET MONEY

But bombers were our main military strength so that's where the money went.

The assumption was that Russia was concentrating on bombers, too. Then, in the early 1950s, new radar stations on Soviet borders reported the Soviets were firing rockets.

"We found they were going hundreds, even more than hundreds, of miles," said Roy Johnson, then vice president of the General Electric Co. which worked on the radar.

Atlas was reactivated and planned to have about 800,000 pounds thrust—the power of the current Soviet boosters.

Atlas was to be able to hit Russia with a hydrogen warhead. Then, in 1954, the United States exploded a hydrogen bomb that created the most powerful blast in history—yet was small enough to fit a rocket only half as powerful as the original Atlas. And that's the size rocket the United States worked on.

The Russians didn't have such a small warhead. So they needed larger rockets. And that's what they worked on.

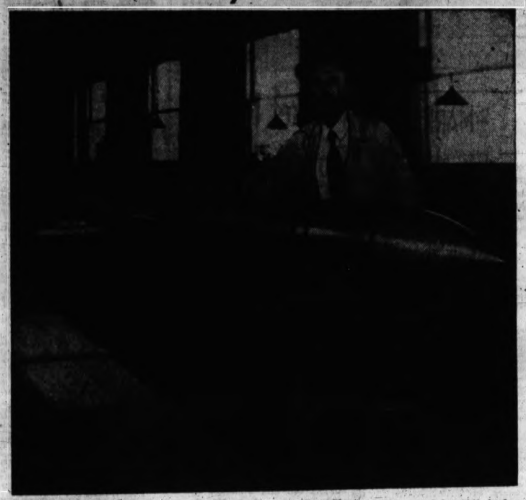

As a result they now have twice the booster power the United States does. The United States plans to start testing Saturn, a 1½-million pound thrust rocket, later this year and hopes it will be operational in 1964.

Presumably the Russians are not standing pat. There are rumors they are working on a 3 million-pound booster.

The United States is working on a 1.5 million-pound thrust rocket engine that when clustered with similar engines would give gigantic power. It is many years off.

But the United States rocket programs were purely for military uses. Space exploration was literally and figuratively out of this world.

ROCKET PIONEER — The experiments of Dr. Robert H. Goddard could have helped give the United States a long head start in the space race, had they not been largely ignored. Goddard fired the world's first liquid-fueled rocket in 1926 at Auburn, Mass., and by 1941 had produced a rocket almost identical to the German V2 that was to terrorize London three years later.

Kennedy Men Begin to Worry Over Inflation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Top White House advisers say there is rising concern in the Kennedy administration over the threat that business recovery will revive inflation.

There is no thought of resorting to direct price or wage controls barring "a wartime situation," said Chairman Walter W. Heller of the President's Council of Economic Advisers.

But Heller added: "We will have to exercise self-restraint to a degree perhaps never known before."

* * *

Three administration leaders—Heller, Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon, and Walt Whitman Rastow, special assistant to the President—stressed the renewed threat of advancing prices in addresses to the Advertising Council Monday.

Sarah Churchill Fined for Drunkenness Again

BRIGHTON, England (AP) — Sarah Churchill, actress daughter of Sir Winston Churchill, was fined two pounds—$5.60—Monday for being drunk and disorderly in a Brighton pub.

It was her eighth appearance on such charges in two years. She pleaded guilty and told the magistrate: "I have nothing to say except that I regret it."

Profit Taking Eases Early Grain Prices

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures prices were generally easier in early dealings today on the board of trade as profit takers cashed in on the advance of the previous session.

Setbacks were limited to small fractions in the grains but they ran to about two cents on old crop soybeans.

Brokers said some of the offerings in July soybeans were related to the government report late Monday on inspections of the commodity for export last week.

Their reports showed 1.4 million bushels expected compared with 2.2 million for the same week a year ago. It was described as disappointing.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
Notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held by the White Lake Township Zoning Board at the Township Hall on Monday, June 12, 1961, at 8:00 p.m. to consider the following changes in the Zoning Ordinance.

To amend the White Lake Township Rural Zoning Ordinance by amending:
Article VI, Residence I District
Article VI, Residence I District, Section 6.6 shall be amended to read as follows:

Delete: All of present Section 6.6 (as amended)—Area of Lot.

Add: New Section 6.6—Area and Width of Lot (as follows). No dwelling shall be erected or used on any lot having a minimum width of less than Seventy-Five (75') Feet and an area of less than Eleven Thousand, Two Hundred and Fifty (11,250) Square Feet, not normally under water, with a minimum width at the front building line of not less than Seventy-Five (75') Feet for each family housed thereon; provided, however, that if the lot abuts on a curved street, and as a result of which, the side lot lines diverge toward the rear, the measure of width may be taken coincident with, and parallel to, the front building line of the principal building, in which case the width of the front lot line shall be not less than Fifty-Five (55') Feet, and provided further, that if the lot abuts on a curved street, wherein the lot lines converge toward the rear, the measure of width shall be taken coincident with and parallel to the rear building line of the principal building, except that this shall not prevent the use of one family of any lot existing and of record at the time of passage of this ordinance.

In the case of new plats, where, the arrangement and topography of the land necessitates the use of odd-shaped or irregular lots, not covered by this ordinance, the plat may be submitted to the Township Board of Appeals for final approval. The Board of Appeals may or may not, require certain changes before approving.

Persons interested are requested to be present. A copy of the Zoning Ordinance together with a list of the proposed changes is on file at the office of the township clerk and may be examined by those interested.

The above stated Amendments are declared to be immediately necessary for the preservation of the public health, peace and safety and are hereby ordered to take effect thirty (30) days after final passage.

Market Moves Down, Then Up

NEW YORK (AP) — A patchwork of small plus and minus signs left the stock market in an irregular pattern early this afternoon. If there was any trend either way, it was upward.

Steels were lower, responding to the first week-to-week production decline in nearly three months. Some analysts feared it might indicate the start of the traditional summer slowdown. U. S. Steel was off ¾ at 88⅞, while Jones & Laughlin declined ⅝ to 72.

Trading was moderately active.

Wide movers were few and far between, although Woolworth moved up another 3⅛ to 87⅞ on plans for its discount department store chain and Standard Oil of California rose 1⅜ to 53½ in reaction to Justice Department approval of its merger with Kentucky Standard. Superior Oil of California added to its early gain, trading up 67 at 1,345.

Chemicals were strong, with Air Reduction up 1¼ at 81¾ and other leading issues fractionally higher. Rubbers also moved up small amounts, but other industry groups were pretty well scrambled.

Boeing, off 2½ at the opening on published reports of defects in the B52 Stratofortress, recovered the loss for a while. Then it dropped again, trading off 2¼ at 44¼.

East Side City Library to Move to Auburn Site

The East Side branch library will move farther out towards the city limits this summer in order to be more centrally located for its patrons.

Phyllis Pope, city librarian, said the move is at least a month away.

City commissioners, meeting informally last night, agreed to Miss Pope's recommendations on the new location and approved a monthly rent of $150.

Miss Pope said she liked the location because of the probable business generated by the busy shopping center and because of the parking convenience.

NO EXTRA STAFF

The move will require no added staff members, but some minor decorating costs, she said.

The East Side branch library, maintaining a collection of about 4,500 volumes, has been in rented quarters at 6 S. Sanford St., just south of East Pike Street, the past half-dozen years.

When the main library collection was moved from the west side of downtown to the east side into the new Pontiac Public Library building in the Civic Center, it was decided that the East Side branch should be moved farthur from downtown.

3 Propositions to Go on Ballot

Waterford to Vote on Civil Service Program Retirement and Tax

The Waterford Township Board last night formally approved three propositions to be placed on the July 25 constitutional convention election ballot, giving the police and fire department personnel a retirement program.

At present there is no retirement plan. All three propositions must pass before a program can be put into operation.

Last week the board approved a request for civil service for policemen. This proposition too, must be voted on at the July election, to become law.

On the ballot the first proposition will be the civil service one; the second will be to provide for the establishment, maintenance and administration of a system of pensions and retirements for both departments; the third will ask for permission to levy a tax; and the fourth (which only property owners may vote on) will ask for authorization to levy a one-half mill tax increase for a period of 10 years to create a retirement fund.

The one-half mill increase (.50 per $1,000 assessed valuation) would provide some $45,000 in annual revenue for the retirement fund program.

In other business, the board approved Silver Lake Estates plat No. 2, subject to payment of inspection fees totaling $544.

Waterford Twp. Schools All Over by Next Tuesday

By Tuesday, June 13, going to school will be a thing of the past for Waterford Township students this year.

Picnics, assembly programs, banquets and commencement for seniors will dominate activities from now until the final marks are tabulated.

Beginning at 2 p.m. Friday, honorary awards will be presented to eighth graders at the Crary Junior High School, and at 6:30 p.m. Saturday there will be a banquet for students in the ninth grades at both Crary and Pierce Junior High schools.

Each of the 24 elementary schools in the township will have an annual school picnic or go on a field trip June 13 to close out the school year. Report cards will be mailed Friday, June 16.

The high school commencement exercises will be held at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, June 17, on the school football field.

Jingles Show Due in Waterford Twp.

The Waterford Township High School gymnasium will be the setting for a kiddies show starring television's Jingles, at 10 a.m. Saturday.

Sponsored by the Waterford Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary, tickets are available at many local shopping centers and at the Community Center library for 50 cents each.

Jingles will be seen in an hour long show that will include 20 minutes of cartoons and puppets Herkimer Dragon and Cecil B. Rabbitt.

All proceeds will be used for the purchase of children's books for the Community Center's library.

Given 2 to 10 Years on Morals Charge

A 35-year-old factory worker from Pontiac yesterday was sentenced by Circuit Judge Stanton G. Dondero to serve 2 to 10 years in Jackson Prison for taking indecent liberties with a 9-year-old girl at his home.

He was on probation in the county for gross indecency when the incident took place in January.

Cogdill to Speak at Baron Fete Tonight at 6:30

National Football League "Rookie of the Year" Gail Cogdill of the Detroit Lions will be the guest speaker at the annual Bloomfield Hills High School athletic banquet tonight at 6:30 at Bloomfield Hills Junior High.

The naming of the outstanding Baron athlete for the school year will be another highlight of the affair being sponsored by the Lions Club of Bloomfield Hills.

Two new awards will be given this year along with the regular letters. The school's Dad's Club will present an academic trophy to the athlete with the highest scholastic rating and a memorial award in honor of the deceased former sports contestant will go to the boy who contributed the most in every way to a Hills team.

Neglected Support, Doctor Gets Term

A Pontiac doctor, who told the judge his practice hasn't been sufficient for him to keep up his support payments for his children, yesterday was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail until he can pay $300.

Dr. William C. Prevette, 42, of 115 Palmer Ave., was ordered jailed for contempt of court by Circuit Judge William J. Beer after the judge found his last payment to the friend of the court's office for the support of his two children was $75 on Feb. 8.

Prevette, since remarried, said he had been in "financial straits."

"You belong to that segment of society which is supposed to be pre-eminently intelligent," the judge said. "You also have a duty as a citizen, and a major duty is to obey court orders and support your children."

Gets State Banking Job

LANSING (AP) — Charles D. Slay, vice president of the Bank of the Commonwealth, Detroit, was named state banking commissioner by Gov. Swainson today.

Says Russ Lead Chemical War

Also Could Knock Out Pentagon With Germs, According to Officer

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Army spokesman says the Soviet Union has the trained operatives, gadgets and the germs to sicken the Pentagon's 30,000 employees in a secret attack.

The Army also warned that the Soviets are so far ahead in both offensive and defensive chemical and biological warfare that it would take the U.S. at least five years to catch up.

In recent testimony before the House Appropriations Committee, censored before release today, Chemical Corps intelligence officer W. E. Black said that the Soviets could start a general war using chemical weapons and sustain it along a major front.

THROUGH VENTS

He said that the Soviets were equally proficient in covert operations, citing the possibility of erupting a small vessel of highly infectuous material into the ventilating system of a building such as the Pentagon.

Lt. Gen. Arthur Trudeau, Army research chief, said that about one-sixth of the huge Soviet military stockpile consists of chemical warfare weapons.

The Army's chemical chief, Maj. Gen. Marshall Stubbs, testified that all intelligence points with certainty to the fact that the Soviets and their allies are ahead of the United States and its friends in both the use and the defense against chemicals and germs.

'West Would Use N-Bombs'

Gilpatric Says Any War in Europe Would Soon Be Global

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Deputy Defense Secretary Roswell L. Gilpatric said today that the West would use nuclear weapons to meet any overwhelming Communist attack on Europe regardless of whether the Reds used such weapons first.

That is still allied policy, Gilpatric told a news conference in answering questions about the Kennedy administration's increased emphasis on conventional weapons.

The deputy defense chief also left an implication that if there were a war in Europe it would become global.

"The current doctrine is that if NATO forces were about to be overwhelmed by non-nuclear attack by (Communist) bloc countries NATO would respond with the use of nuclear arms," Gilpatric said.

Earlier the defense official had been asked whether nuclear weapons would play a reduced role in Kennedy administration plans for limited wars.

INCREASE, NOT REDUCE

He replied that "We are not going to reduce our nuclear capability" but are going to increase conventional forces. He said he had "never believed in nuclear limited war."

"I don't know how you could build a limit into it when you use any kind of nuclear bang," he said, acknowledging that there were authorities who differed from him.

Gilpatric also said that the Defense Department had no intention to embark on any large military manpower buildup.

Truck Driver Signs Warrant

Charges Detroiter With Property Destruction at Vernor's Pontiac Plant

A truck driver at the Pontiac Vernor's Ginger Ale warehouse, struck by the union for more than a month, yesterday signed a warrant charging a Detroit unionist with malicious destruction of property.

Wylie Breeding, 5175 Lynsue Lane, Waterford Township, accused Chester K. Kwiatkowski, 39, of 8161 Leander St., of pulling the ignition wires from his truck Monday morning and then kicking in a taillight on the truck.

According to Asst. Prosecutor Robert Templin Jr., Breeding and several other truckers at the local warehouse, 490 S. Telegraph Road, had continued delivering the soft drink on the advice of their attorney.

The 11 Pontiac employes have asked the National Labor Relations Board to break their ties with Local 297 of the Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Workers Union, AFL-CIO.

The union has been on strike against Vernor's at Pontiac, Detroit, Flint and Marysville since May 3.

Breeding said he had been receiving threatening phone calls.

Sentenced to Prison for Beer Burglary

Circuit Judge Stanton G. Dondero sentenced Frank Janicky, 53, of Birmingham, to 1 to 15 years in Jackson Prison yesterday for burglarizing a market in that city of beer and cigarettes.

Janicky, 888 Chapin St., pleaded guilty May 22 to the April 13 breakin of the market, 1844 S. Woodward Ave.

Arrest Parolee 3 Minutes After Cafe Stickup

A 20-year-old Detroit parolee, accused of holding up an all-night restaurant in Bloomfield Township at gunpoint early today, was arrested three minutes after the robbery by state police.

Quincy I. Smith, who was on parole after serving three years in prison for assault and carrying a concealed weapon, was picked up at 3:13 a.m. at Square Lake Road and Woodward Avenue.

At 3:10 a.m. Joe's Coney Island No. 1 at 1651 N. Telegraph Road was held up by an armed bandit, according to the restaurant manager, Arthur Hebda.

State Troopers Marvin Anderson and Raymond Beamish were at the Bloomfield Township police station when the robbery was reported.

The two troopers stopped Jones as he was turning south on Woodward Avenue from Square Lake Road. They found a 32-caliber rifle and $161 in cash in Jones' possession.

Jones told the troopers he was driving a car he had stolen in Highland Park when stopped. He also said he had held up another restaurant near Detroit before robbing the Bloomfield Township eatery.

Jones was turned over to Bloomfield Township authorities. The Detroit area restaurant robbery was being checked out by state police. He said he could not remember details of the earlier stickup.

Stands Mute in Chicago of Uttering, Publishing

Arraigned on a charge of uttering and publishing, Miller D. Moss stood mute yesterday when arraigned before Circuit Judge Stanton G. Dondero.

Police charge Moss, 25, of 429 Howard McNeil St. with taking a $154 company check from his employer, WKC, Inc., and later cashing it to pay some debts. He was a porter at the store.

Judge Dondero entered a plea of innocent for Moss and remanded him to the custody of the sheriff under a $1,000 bond. No trial date was set.

Accuse the Kennedys

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI)—The Louisiana Legislature Monday night overwhelmingly approved a resolution that accused President Kennedy and his brother Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy of undertaking a "hate-the-South" campaign.

Watson's Jury Drinks to Own New Freedom

DETROIT (AP) — The nine women and three men who acquitted Gordon Watson of murder and conspiracy drank champagne toasts Monday after delivering their verdict—and regaining their own freedom.

The jury had been locked up in a hotel since shortly after the trial began seven weeks ago.

Wayne County sheriff's deputies made sure they had no outside contact—so sure that the jurors did not learn that Watson's codefendant, Mrs. Nelle Lassiter, had been ordered committed to a state mental hospital after an emotional collapse.

"The deputies even went ahead of us on the street, turning papers around," said R. W. Herschelmann, a juror.

Township Band to Give Concert

New Civic Unit Will Make Debut to Public in Waterford

Marching music, old-time hits and Dixieland jazz will be featured at 8 p.m. tomorrow when the newly organized Waterford Township Civic Band presents its first public concert at the John D. Pierce Junior High School.

Doctors, lawyers, merchants and others in all walks of life, under the direction of Gene Preston, have banded together to make sweet music for area residents' listening.

John Philip Sousa's "American Patrol and Triumphal March" will be featured along with "Scenes from Operaland," waltzes and the "Stars and Stripes."

There will be trombone, bass, and cornet soloists, and for encores there will be "hot" trombone players.

Housewife Mrs. Earl Somerville will play the flute and piccolo, and her teacher-husband, the clarinet and bassoon. Accountant-clerk Connie Basset, will toot the flute, as Thane Danby, salesman, blows the cornet.

Sentenced for Burglary of Area Service Station

Burglarizing and damaging a Bloomfield Township service station of $200 has resulted in probation for two years, $100 court costs and an order of restitution, amount to be determined, for Donovan F. Graves of Southfield.

Circuit Judge Stanton G. Dondero yesterday ordered this sentence for Graves, 36, of 21692 Inkster Road, after he had a change of mind and pleaded guilty May 22 to breaking into Whitty's Shell Station, 3605 W. Maple Road, on May 1. He had stood mute.

Believe Arrests Clear Up Break-Ins

With the arrest of two area men, Waterford Township police believe they have cleared up several house breaking and entering in the township during the past month.

Robert Martin, 18, of 1656 Lone Pine Road, Walled Lake, who is on probation for an auto theft, and Danny Geisner, 17, of 12 Ramona Terr., awaiting sentence for breaking and entering, both admitted stealing a $450 motor from a boat in White Lake in White Lake Township, and several items from homes in Waterford Township, according to police.

The two men waived examination, and are being held in Oakland County Jail.

Atlantic Ships Collide

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP)—A tanker and a refrigerator ship collided in dense fog in the Atlantic five miles east of Virginia Beach, Va., early today. No injuries were reported.

Court Upholds U.S. Red Curbs

In 5-4 Decisions, Judges Back Smith Act, Ruling on Registration

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dividing 5 to 4 in two historic decisions, the Supreme Court has upheld two of the government's major weapons against Communist party activity in the United States.

The decisions backed the tightest U.S. restrictions ever aimed at a group which purports to be a political organization.

The court Monday upheld:

1. A clause in the Smith Act which makes it a crime for a person to belong to any organization knowing that it advocates violent overthrow of the government.

2. A requirement that the Communist party register with the U.S. attorney general as a puppet of the Kremlin. This requirement is a part of the 1950 Subversive Activities Control Act.

The Justice Department declined comment on the rulings.

Gus Hall, S. Communist party general secretary, said in New York the decisions endanger "the very foundation and fabric of Democracy in our country." The party vowed to fight the decisions, but didn't say how.

Writing the majority opinion upholding the government efforts to force the Communist party to register as an arm of the Soviet Union, Justice Felix Frankfurter swept aside the party's arguments that its rights under the First Amendment of the Constituton were being violated.

If the high court agreed, Frankfurter said in his 39,000-word opinion, it would "make a travesty of that amendment and the great ends for the well-being of our democracy that it serves."

City Turns Back on Forging Plant

Any New DPW Site Ought to Be on North Side, Says Willman

City commissioners have shown little interest in converting the American Forging & Socket Co. plant at 150 Branch St. into a Department of Public Works headquarters.

The unused plant and site, adjacent to the city's Lake Street yards, has been offered for sale at an original asking price of $350,000, according to City Manager Walter K. Willman.

Discussing the proposal at an informal meeting last night, commissioners agreed with Willman that any new development for the DPW should be on the north side of town, not the south side.

Commissioners agreed with Willman that the best move would be to proceed someday with existing plans for a new DPW headquarters on city land at North Saginaw and Montcalm streets.

The five-acre Branch Street site, unused since American Forging & Socket Co. closed down operations, is assessed at $280,000, not including inventory.

Charged for Having Burglary Tools

The trio—Timothy C. McClean, 48, of Berkley; Charles C. Purcilla, 40, of Detroit; and Robert H. Hills, 23, of 278 Oakland Ave.—demanded examination yesterday before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

Bond was set at $25,000 each on the three men. They were returned to the Oakland County Jail pending the pretrial hearing June 19.

They were arrested on Kennett Road near the Grand Trunk Western railroad viaduct. Police confiscated crowbars, hammers, drills, rubber face masks, and two pistols found in the area as evidence.

Asks Exam on Charge of Beating Woman

Accused of striking a woman in the face with a beer bottle, David Powell, 55, of 559 Franklin Road, yesterday demanded examination on a felonious assault charge when brought before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

Probation in Break-In

Circuit Judge Stanton G. Dondero yesterday placed Francis G. Wiley, 49, of 76 Ivy St., on probation for three years and ordered him to continue psychiatric care after he pleaded guilty May 22 to taking indecent liberties with a 10-year-old boy.

Very Fine Trip, Says Kennedy, on His Arrival

Shakes Hands With 70 at Airport; Will Meet With Dem, GOP Chiefs

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Kennedy returned to America this morning after a "very fine trip" to see leaders in Europe. He will make a report to the nation tonight.

Kennedy arrived at Andrews Air Force Base at 8:33 a.m. (Pontiac time) after a week during which he saw Soviet Premier Khrushchev, French President Charles de Gaulle and Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Kennedy walked down the receiving line and shook hands with each of the approximately 70 people in it.

Then, in a show of bipartisanship, he took both Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Senate Republican leader, and Senate Foreign Relations Committee Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., to his waiting helicopter to ride with him to the White House, 15 miles away.

At the executive mansion, Kennedy planned to work during the day on the speech he will broadcast at 6 o'clock (Pontiac time) tonight. It will be carried by all major television and radio networks.

Kennedy, who seemed relatively bouncy despite the ardors of his trip, made no speech at the airfield.

He told newsmen he had a "very fine, fine trip."

MUCH TO DISCUSS

When the helicopter landed on the White House grounds, Kennedy, Dirksen and Fulbright remained in it for a couple of minutes in animated discussion. Reporters could see the President making broad gestures with his hands for emphasis as he talked.

Bangup Opening for Centennial

A challenge, a legend of two lovers and a bit of history comprise the beginning of the mammoth Wisner Stadium Spectacle that will highlight Centennial week.

The stirring, two-hour pageant starts out with the explosion of a mock atom bomb, symbolic of man's choice of using nuclear power in either a destructive fashion or a constructive one.

This is the challenge that faces the people of Pontiac and the rest of the world.

In following scenes, "The Pontiac Story" deals with the legend of the Indian warrior and his maiden, who were lovers on Apple Island in Orchard Lake. Then comes an historical account of the Indian conspiracy led by Chief Pontiac, the city's namesake.

TRACES CENTURY

Thus the colorful Spectacle begins to trace the history of Pontiac, including its 100 years as a city.

With a cast of 1,082 recruited from the Pontiac area citizenry, the outdoor extravaganza is being produced by the John B. Rogers Producing Co. of Fostoria, Ohio, for a six-night run, June 19, 20, 21, 22, 23 and 24, beginning at 8:45 p.m. with a half-hour preperformance show each night by various musical groups.

The director, Harry Miller, said the spectacle relies heavily on such effects as mass crowd scenes, music, dancing, fancy costumes, rolling equipment and dramatic lighting.

The 16 scenes are designed for quick contrast and thrilling moments, beginning with the atom explosion and ending with a giant fireworks display.

The action will range all over the stadium arena, with some special staging in the center. Actors won't have speaking roles, but will depend on pantomine. Narrators will do the talking over a public address system.

SYNIPSIS OF SCENES

May Best Month for Car Sales

DETROIT (AP) — The nation's auto dealers sold more new cars in May than in any previous month this year. And the daily selling rate also was the highest of 1961.

The five automakers reported Monday that May sales totaled 537,825 cars with a daily sales rate of 20,686. November of 1960 was the last month in which daily sales went over the 20,000 mark. Chrysler was the only one with lower sales in May.

The industry made no comment whether or not the May sales would influence production schedules for the future.

The May sales total represented an increase of some 77,000 units over April when 460,138 cars were sold. But last month's upturn still failed to match the pace of May 1960, when sales totaled 566,650 and the daily rate was 22,665.

Sales had been lagging nearly 100,000 units per month below 1960, but the gap was cut to less than 30,000 in May.

Ford said its sales totaled 179,760 last month compared with 137,560 in April. Ford division sold 147,115 cars, its best May figure since 1929.

GMC May Deliveries Best Since October

Retail deliveries of General Motors trucks and coaches totaled 9,132 in May, making the month the best sales month for GMC Truck & Coach Division since last October, it was announced today by Calvin J. Werner, GM vice president and division general manager.

He said deliveries started rising sharply in mid-May, reaching 2,336 units in the final 10-day period. This was achieved by a 291 daily sales rate, the highest since the last period in August 1960, Werner said.

Compared with the previous sales figures this year, he added, the May total was nearly 13 per cent higher than the average monthly retail deliveries in the four preceding months.

Pontiac to Cleveland Plane Service Starts

The first service, beginning immediately, includes an evening flight from Pontiac to Cleveland and a morning flight from Cleveland to Pontiac. The only stopover is at Willow Run. The flights are an extension of the Detroit (Willow Run) to Sault Ste. Marie line that has been serving Pontiac since last December.

At the same time, the company announced the start of new service to Port Huron that involves added flights to and from Detroit (Willow Run) in the mornings.

The Cleveland connection represents the first concrete results of a long drive by Pontiac air officials and North Central Airlines to link Pontiac with the industrial cities of Ohio.

It is anticipated that the company might add more flights later.

Barely Avoids Sudden Death

Runaway Girl Rams Car Into Pole, Misses Possible Electrocution

A 16-year-old Waterford Township girl, who had never driven a car, tried it last night and is fortunate to be alive today, according to township police.

Patricia Godfrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman G. Godfrey of 6047 Rolton Court, lost control of her parents' car on Telegraph Road just south of Glendale Street.

The car smashed into a Detroit Edison utility pole, careened up an embankment, struck the Savoy Motel and overturned.

The jolt snapped cables carrying 40,000 volts and set off a series of blasts seen and heard as far away as downtown Pontiac.

ESCAPES PERIL

None of the hot wires struck the car. Its driver was taken to Pontiac General Hospital where she was released after a check showed no apparent injuries.

Police said the girl was on probation from the Oakland County Juvenile Court and was attempting to run away from home in the family car.

The high tension wires crossed other wires and blasts lit up the sky for miles around. Hundreds of nearby residents lined the highway watching police, firemen and Edison crews.

Areas served by the 40,000-volt circuit were blacked out a few seconds until an auxiliary circuit took over.

A fire around the base of the pole was quickly extinguished. The scene resembled a small disaster area in minutes when sheriff's deputies, Pontiac police and firemen, state police and ambulances hurried there.

The driver was turned over to Juvenile Court authorities this morning.

City Plan Outlines Five Civic Moves

By PETE LOCHBILER

A master plan for downtown Pontiac redevelopment was under way today after the Downtown Development Group donated $20,000 toward it and proposed five major steps for civic improvement.

Prepared by a group of nationally known experts under the coordination of David S. Geer, city planning consultant, the $40,000 study will become "the bible" for downtown revitalization, it was predicted yesterday at a meeting of the development group and Pontiac city officials.

OUTLINES 5 MOVES

Before presenting a check to the city covering half the master plan's cost, Alfred C. Girard, president of the Downtown Development Group, outlined the five moves for the "serious consideration" of the city. They are:

Purchase by the city of the Oakland County courthouse and site in downtown Pontiac, to hold for eventual resale to "a proper" redeveloper.

Purchase of the Oakland Theater site at South Saginaw and Water Streets, partly for right-of-way to turn Water Street into a boulevard leading into the Civic Center.

Action on a study of the possibility of establishing a special assessment district in the downtown area to finance liquidation of the outstanding municipal parking revenue bonds, a movie that could lead to free municipal parking.

Construction of a boulevard on the east side of Pontiac, tying Michigan State University Oakland to downtown.

Mayor Philip E. Rowston promised close scrutiny by the commission of the five recommendations and City Manager Walter K. Willman said the courthouse deal was a possibility if the county, after an appraisal, comes up with "a reasonable" price.

Girard, president of Community National Bank, said he felt the city had a responsibility to "protect" the courthouse site against speculators until there is community realization of its best use. This may be several years away, he suggested.

It was not the first time that the other moves have been suggested, but downtown backing gives them new impetus.

Willman indicated there already has been some discussion between the city and the Butterfield Theater chain about sale of the downtown spot where the Oakland Theater stood until it was destroyed by fire last fall. No decision has been reached, he said.

ROYAL OAK DID IT

The move to retire the parking meter bonds has been widely discussed in downtown circles, especially since the time a similar

Editor, The Pontiac Press

Those of us who live thousands of miles away can complacently view the news from Europe and the Middle East without raising an eyebrow. But if one sees it first hand, if only fleetingly, there is no ground for contentment.

Along with 20 other editors, I have just completed a tour of 10 countries where we interviewed government leaders and had a first-hand look at local conditions.

Briefly, I will try and summarize my impressions of the current economic and political conditions of the countries I visited.

Our first stop after a six-hour flight from New York was Lisbon, Portugal, and the outlook of the Portuguese people is a curious and attractive mixture of nostalgia and optimism. They often look into the past, but they are always looking to the future.

For this reason, Portugal is both old-fashioned and up-to-date, and this combination of the ancient and the modern lends the country and its people a peculiar charm rarely encountered elsewhere.

Lisbon was basking under the warm spring sun but underneath they were burning mad at the United States for our United Nation's stand on Angola. Questioned about their stand in Africa a speaker for the Portuguese ministry said, "Of course, we're going to hang on to Angola, come what may."

Year's High of 86 Will Be Repeated Here Tomorrow

The weatherman said tonight will be fair and cool, with a low of about 58.

Wednesday is expected to be partly cloudy with a chance of a few scattered afternoon or evening showers. Tomorrow's high will reach for 86 degrees. Scattered showers with little temperature change is the outlook for southern Lower Michigan Thursday.

Morning northeasterly winds at 8 miles per hour will diminish tonight.

Fifty-eight was the lowest recording in the downtown area preceding 8 a.m. The reading at 1 p.m. was 78.

CRASH LANDING — This car went out of control late last night on Telegraph Road, struck a utility pole (left) and overturned about 40 feet off the highway. The crash snapped Detroit Edison Co. wires, knocking out 40,000 and 4,800-volt circuits temporarily. The driver, Patricia Godfrey, 16, of Waterford Township, escaped with minor bruises. Traffic was tied up on Telegraph south of Huron for more than an hour and a one square mile area of Waterford Township was without lights.

Nelle Hopes 'Persecution' of Two Years at an End

DETROIT (AP)—"Oh, what a price I have paid. This should now end my two years of persecution."

Mrs. Lassiter, 38, learned of the jury's verdict in Jennings Memorial Hospital where she has been confined since suffering an emotional breakdown two weeks ago and being excused as a codefendant. A mistrial was declared for her.

A jury of nine women and three men acquitted Watson, 45, of murder and murder conspiracy charges in the 1959 bludgeoning and gunshot death of Parvin (Bill) Lassiter.

NELLE A QUESTION

George D. Kent, assistant prosecutor, said "we'll have to wait until she recovers sufficiently to decide what we will do in her case."

Mrs. Lassiter's physician, Dr. Ralph A. Johnson, said he thought her recovery should be rapid and "she should be able to go home or wherever the authorities send her by the end of the week."

Judge Joseph G. Rashid had ordered Mrs. Lassiter committed to a state institution for treatment after a sanity commission said she no longer was capable of assisting in her defense. Her attorney, Joseph Louisell, appealed to U.S. District Court and Judge Theodore Levin barred the commitment pending a hearing June 15.

Watson said he and his wife would leave today to return to their Culver City, Calif., home.

"I am severing all ties with Detroit forever," he said.

Watson said the trial cost him an estimated $20,000 in attorney fees and lost business opportunities. He is a salesman.

"I'm going right back to work when I reach the coast," he said. "I can't afford a vacation."

He told no bitterness about anything," he said, "but I'm sure glad this is history."

Still pending is a court decision on Watson's claim to a $17,000 share in Lassiter's estate. A Probate Court finding in his favor has been appealed by the Lassiter estate.

'West Would Use N-Bombs'

Gilpatric Says Any War in Europe Would Soon Be Global

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Deputy Defense Secretary Roswell L. Gilpatric said today that the West would use nuclear weapons to meet any overwhelming Communist attack on Europe regardless of whether the Reds used such weapons first.

That is still allied policy, Gilpatric told a news conference in answering questions about the Kennedy administration's increased emphasis on conventional weapons.

The deputy defense chief also left an implication that if there were a war in Europe it would become global.

"The current doctrine is that if NATO forces were about to be overwhelmed by non-nuclear attack by (Communist) bloc countries NATO would respond with the use of nuclear arms," Gilpatric said.

Earlier the defense official had been asked whether nuclear weapons would play a reduced role in Kennedy administration plans for limited wars.

INCREASE, NOT REDUCE

He replied that "We are not going to reduce our nuclear capability" but are going to increase conventional forces. He said he had "never believed in nuclear limited war."

"I don't know how you could build a limit into it when you use any kind of nuclear bang," he said, acknowledging that there were authorities who differed from him.

Gilpatric also said that the Defense Department had no intention to embark on any large military manpower buildup.

Reveal Details of Space Flight

WASHINGTON (UPI) — At a danger-packed moment in the course of his hop into space Alan B. Shepard Jr.'s vision was so blurred by head-rattling vibrations that he could not see the instruments on which his life depended.

But the moment, and the danger, quickly passed. And aside from losing three pounds, according to his medical examiners, Shepard paid "a very small physiological price" for the historic rocket ride which made him America's first man in space.

In contrast to Soviet behavior since Yuri Gagarin flew in orbit around the earth April 12, the United States at today's conference reported the scientific results of Shepard's shorter trip in complete detail.

But it provided a mass of information about man's ability to perform in space. It also augured well for America's future man-in-space plans.

move got under way in Royal Oak. A big factor is finding an assessment formula that could stand up in court.

City Commissioners have been talking on and off for more than a year about an M8UO boulevard, most frequently mentioning Mt. Clemens Street. The county and possibly the state would have to cooperate in construction between the city limits and the university.

City planners have been gathering some initial data the past several months on a possible urban renewal program to clear substandard conditions in the Fisher Body area. General Motors Corp. itself suggested such a program before undertaking the multi-million dollar expansion program at the plant two years ago.

AGREEMENT SOON

Willman said there may be an agreement soon between city and state on financing and scheduling that will see the $2.5-$3 million project under construction by Oct. 1, 1962, to be completed a year later.

Van Hoef, representing State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie, described the loop as "the prototype" in Michigan of a new type of urban highway.

It is expected that the City Commission will formally approve a contract soon with Geer for a plan to redevelop the 200-acre Central Business District within the perimeter of the loop. The city's $20,000 share for the plan is included in this year's budget.

Outside experts whom Geer said would be called upon in preparation of the master plan include Larry Smith & Co. of Washington, D. C., retail market consultants; William Johnson, Ann Arbor landscape architect and University of Michigan professor; George W. Barton and Associates of Evanston, Ill., traffic consultants; and the Urban Land Institute, municipal planning consultants.

Commission Grants City 40-Cent Tax Rate Cut

BIRMINGHAM — A tax cut was granted by the City Commission last night in adopting the 1961-62 budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

The commission in confirming $1,775,052 budget set the tax rate at $18 for each $1,000 of assessed valuation, a 40 cent decrease over the current levy.

Based on the city's assessed valuation of $80,007,800, the tax will provide $1,342,142 in revenue. The remainder, $535,910, will come from non-tax revenue, such as permits, fines, licenses and state shared funds.

Contracts also were awarded by the commission for construction of bridges over the Rouge River at Oak Street and Northlawn Drive and the construction of a culvert at Willits Street and the Rouge River.

The bridge projects were awarded to the E. C. Nolan and Jarvick Construction Co. of Center Line for their low dual bid of $77,867.

The culvert contract went to Joseph Pioanl, Inc., of Detroit for its low bid of $20,384.

The City Commission also directed Asst. City Manager Robert S. Kenning to file the preliminary application with the state requesting federal assistance in carrying out a planning program.

The commission authorized the city manager's office to prepare the preliminary application last month for the urban planning assistance, known as the 701 program.

Rotheus P. Cole

Service for Rotheus P. Cole, 71, of 1207 Buckingham Road, will be 2 p.m. Thursday at the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham. Burial will be in Acadia Park Cemetery.

Press Editor Reports Portugal Unsettled

72-year-old ruler has been in power 30 years. He has been able to do this mainly by keeping the economy operating smoothly in recent years. But the people are unsettled now. Portugal has gone to war.

ECONOMY HURT

Six or seven thousand soldiers are in Africa. The people realize that without the coffee, the diamonds and the sisal from Angola, Portugal's marginal economy would really be hurt.

Already, because of the difficulty in Africa, this year's coffee crop from Angola has suffered a loss of $40 million. This is about a tenth of the country's annual income. Recently a group of army generals tried and failed to get Salazar to resign.

Portugal is one of the most hospitable countries we visited, full of folklore, yet we left with the feeling that some type of spontaneous blowup would come very shortly. As in all dictator countries, the local press is controlled.

We moved on to Madrid, Spain, and another dictatorship under Generalissimo Francisco Franco. The land of the bullfight is truly a lovely country and one we would like to visit again. The architecture reflects the many influences that have helped shape the country. The 30-million people are strongly anti-Communist, but economically they are very, very poor.

The country has been going through a period of transition and some improvements can be noted. Lots of new buildings are under construction and generally speaking it would look as though Franco was doing a good job.

THEY COMPLAIN

Yet, the man in the street makes no bones about complaining over their dictator and what a tough ruler he is. He has the local press under his thumb and any business to succeed must adhere to his policies. Salaries are exceedingly low and so is the cost of living.

In an interview with Teotonio Perlino, the No. 2 man under Franco, he outlined continued progress and felt that Spain had finally turned the corner and was headed for a much better way of life. He also expressed great admiration for the United States and our joint military bases.

Our foreign aid to Spain has been tremendous, somewhere in the neighborhood of $1 billion. However, the fact that we have several bases with a large number of servicemen constantly on the alert gives visiting Americans a feeling of security. Our general impression is that the money spent on these bases is well worth the cost.

Franco's present rule is so established that if he dies or is forced out of office, a monarch will be selected by a committee to succeed him. Twenty-three-year-old Prince Juan Carlos is rumored as the next head man for Spain. At least he has Franco's blessings at the moment.

Mother Nature Gets Violent With the South

By The Associated Press

Storms diminished across wide areas of the Plains today in the wake of Monday's violent weather in southern sections.

The thunderstorm belt this morning extended over sections of northern Texas, northward into southeast Nebraska, southern Iowa and northern Arkansas with showers across central Illinois.

The violent weather, with tornadoes, strong winds, rain and hail hit Texas from the northwest corner of the Panhandle to Waco in the central part of the state. Waco was drenched with 3 inches of rain in a 90-minute period.

Downpours up to 5 inches doused some areas. Twisters were reported in several areas but no injuries were reported.

Quick-Shaving Contest Planned

A unique speed-shaving contest will be conducted at Wisner Stadium on Saturday evening, June 24, beginning at 8 p.m.

This will be one of the last events of Round-Up Day, the final day of the June 17-24 Centennial observance. It will follow the beard contest.

Remington Rand has donated prizes for this hair-flying spectacle. The prizes will make shaving simpler after the Centennial beard-growing period is over.

DELUXE SET

First prize will be a deluxe shaver accessory gift set, including a leather travel kit with shaving mirror, a Roll-A-Matic shaver with coil cord, shaving powder stick, Shaver Saver head cleaner, shaving lotion and cleaning brushes.

Second and third prizes will be Remington Auto-Home Roll-A-Matic Shavers, which operate either on residential current supply or on automobile batteries.

Fourth award is a Remington World Wide Roll-A-Matic shaver, using all types of electrical current. Fifth, sixth and seventh prizes are Remington Roll-A-Matic shavers with adjustable roller combs.

Contestants will be selected in the preliminaries of the beard contest, beginning at 2 p.m. that Saturday.

Remington Rand also has donated three Lady Remington beauty shavers as gifts for Miss Centennial and the two top-ranking Centennial princesses.

Rep. Broomfield to Speak June 18 at Airport Rite

Rep. William S. Broomfield, R-Oakland County, has accepted an invitation to be a main speaker at the June 18 dedication of the Pontiac Municipal Airport Terminal.

City officials will also participate in the 1:15 p. m. ceremony on Air Progress Day of the June 17-24 Great Pontiac Centennial.

The dedication will be followed by a giant ox roast for members of the Brothers of the Brush and Centennial Belles and their families, as well as members of the Junior Brothers of the Brush and the School Belles.

Swainson Determined to Battle for Scholle

LANSING (UPI) — Gov. Swainson indicated today that he will appoint August Scholle, Michigan AFL-CIO president, to the State Conservation Commission after the legislature adjourns if no action is taken on his pending appointment.

Scholle, of Royal Oak, was nominated for the post several weeks ago. But the Senate, which must confirm such appointments, has not yet acted.

Swainson told newsmen he has been advised that if no vote is taken on Scholle before the legislature adjourns Friday, the appointment may be made again.

Cogdill to Speak at Baron Fete Tonight at 6:30

National Football League "Rookie of the Year" Gail Cogdill of the Detroit Lions will be the guest speaker at the annual Bloomfield Hills High School athletic banquet tonight at 6:30 at Bloomfield Hills Junior High.

The naming of the outstanding Baron athlete for the school year will be another highlight of the affair being sponsored by the Lions Club of Bloomfield Hills.

Two new awards will be given this year along with the regular letters. The school's Dad's Club will present an academic trophy to the athlete with the highest scholastic rating and a memorial award in honor of the deceased former sports contestant will go to the boy who contributed the most in every way to a Hills team.

Sentenced to Prison for Beer Burglary

Circuit Judge Stanton G. Dondero sentenced Frank Janicky, 53, of Birmingham, to 1 to 15 years in Jackson Prison yesterday for burglarizing a market in that city of beer and cigarettes.

Janicky, 888 Chapin St., pleaded guilty May 22 to the April 13 breakin of the market, 1844 S. Woodward Ave.

The White House announced that Kennedy was asking Democratic and Republican congressional leaders to meet with him later in the day so he could give them a first-hand report on his trip.

The meeting was set for 3:30 p.m. (Pontiac time). Dirksen, asked by newsmen about his discussions with the President, said Kennedy appeared to have been "very much impressed" with De Gaulle and "very much pleased" with his conversations with the French President.

He said Kennedy also was pleased about the results of his conversations with Prime Minister Macmillan.

NO COMMENT ON K

Dirksen declined to say anything as to Kennedy's impressions of Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

"I will have to wait until I have a chance to ask the President what I can say about this," Dirksen told reporters. "I always did that with President Eisenhower and President Kennedy is due the same consideration."

Area Candidates Rush to Beat Deadline

More Than 50 Con-Con Hopefuls

Oakland County had more than 50 candidates in the July 25 constitutional convention primary, with the deadline for filing nominating petitions hours away.

The deadline is 4 p.m. today. By 11 a.m., 50 candidates — 25 Republicans and 25 Democrats — had filed their nominating petitions with Mrs. Mabel M. Child, county election clerk.

THE LATEST

Latest to announce with The Pontiac Press were:

Next month, Oakland County voters will go to the polls to pick a nominee from each party for the six state representative seats in the legislature and the at-large 12th District senatorial seat.

It appeared this morning that no primary will be necessary for the Senate seat, since only one Republican and one Democrat had filed.

George Romney, 53-year-old president of American Motors Corp. from Bloomfield Hills, filed his petitions along with two other Republicans last week for this seat.

William A. O'Brien, 32, a Detroit attorney from Clawson, kicked off the campaign with Romney when he accused his GOP opponent of "doubletalking" on the subject of apportionment of the legislature, a sure issue at the convention.

O'Brien, who sought to represent the 5th District in the House of Representatives but lost out in November, filed his petitions with Mrs. Child this morning.

Asked how he planned to defeat Romney for the seat, O'Brien replied: "I may not win but he'll know the issues when we're through."

The election will take place Sept. 12.

First Full-Time Southfield Planner Appointed

NEW ART CENTER — Culture replaces agriculture as the main activity at this 100-year-old farm house in Troy Saturday. The old home at 3820 Crooks Road has been converted to an art gallery by its owner, Fred T. Wall, and a Bloomfield Township cartoonist, Russell H. Klix of 6787 White Pine Drive. Grand opening for the new Rusty Hinge Gallery will be from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.

But City Council Must OK His Selection by Mayor

SOUTHFIELD — Leon F. Decheim has been appointed the city's first full-time planner by Mayor S. James Clarkson but before he goes on the payroll, his job will have to be confirmed by the city council.

Councilmen learned of the appointment at their meeting last night in a letter read by the mayor, who asked immediate action.

The council, however, was in no hurry, and decided to wait awhile before making any move, at least until June 15 when it holds a special meeting.

They want additional time, councilmen said, to study Decheim's qualifications.

Clarkson, in his letter, said that because the city never has had a full-time city planner, "the most serious impediment to the adoption of the master plan was the complete lack of liason between the council, the mayor's office and the Planning Commission."

FIGHT MASTER PLAN

The City Planning Commission recently completed its master plan and endeavored to file it with the county before is was submitted to the council for final approval.

The council then, through its attorney James C. Allen, got a temporary injunction against County Clerk Daniel T. Murphy, preventing him from filing and recording the master plan.

Murphy has until June 19 to show cause in Circuit Court why the master plan should be filed and recorded with the county.

Presently, Alb Munson is the city's planning consultant, a part-time position. Engineering aide Jay Montgomery acts as liason between the major, council and the planning commission.

Clarkston also recommended that Dr. Warren Sheldon of 24527 Santa Barbara Road be reappointed to the City Board of Health.

He further recommended that the council consider three persons to fill two vacancies on the health board. They are Dr. Sidney Adler, Dr. Martin Seliek and Thomas Sachs.

Council is expected to take action on these appointments, along with the question of a full-time planner, at the June 15 meeting.

RECEIVES AWARD — Evard V. Ayres (right), principal of Walled Lake High School, is presented with a plaque naming him "The Outstanding Citizen" by Ralston Calvert, president of the Walled Lake Rotary Club. Ayres was cited by the local Rotary club last night at a sports banquet for his leadership in civic affairs and his handling of juvenile problems. Some 85 Rotarians and high school athletes attended the program at the Walled Lake Methodist Church.

3 County Cities Cited for Safety

Farmington, Ferndale, Hazel Park Get Traffic 1960 Awards

Three Oakland County cities were cited today by the National Safety Council in recognition of outstanding accomplishments in traffic safety during 1960.

Farmington, Ferndale and Hazel Park were awarded Certificates of Achievements for specific phases of safety programs.

Ferndale was given special recognition for cities with population between 25,000 and 50,000 for no traffic deaths and progressive accident prevention program activities. Ferndale was also cited for its public traffic safety education program.

Hazel Park, in the same population classification as Ferndale, was awarded its achievement certificate for its program in school traffic safety education.

In the 5,000 to 10,000 population class, special recognition was given to Farmington for its record of no fatal traffic accidents and its preventative accident program.

AMONG 17 CITED

The three Oakland County cities were among 17 Michigan cities to be cited for outstanding traffic programs last year.

Awards of Honor, the top National Safety Council citation, went to three cities, East Lansing, Grand Rapids and Fort Worth, Tex.

An award of Merit, the second highest Council award, went to Sturgis. It was among eight U.S. cities to receive the citation.

In all, the NSC cited 21 states, including Michigan, and 165 cities for performance standards set in traffic safety in 1960.

State Men Held for Abduction

Case Unusual Because Victim Denies Being Dragged From Cab

ARLINGTON, Va., (AP) — A man allegedly abducted by three Michigan men has told a judge, "Nobody abducted me."

That's what Donald E. Worden, 35, said Monday in Arlington County Court after Judge Paul D. Brown ordered the Michigan men held under $75,000 bond each.

When an attorney asked for a reduction in the bail, Judge Brown noted the men were from the Detroit area and said: "That's just a short ride from Windsor, Ont., and that's another country."

Worden told Judge Brown: "Your honor, nobody abducted me. Nothing was done to me."

Worden, an ex-convict, was held on $30,000 bail as a material witness. Judge Brown set July 13 for resumption of the preliminary hearing.

As he was leaving the courtroom, Ayotte nodded and winked as he passed Worden and said: "Hi, Buddy."

The bizarre case unfolded Saturday as Worden was returning to an apartment from a grocery shopping trip in a taxicab in this Washington suburb.

The cab driver told police that Wordn had been dragged from the taxi. Police picked up one of the Worden had been dragged from the ment and later arrested the two others in a car along with Worden.

EAGLE SCOUT—Richard Lee Claxton, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Claxton, 5326 Briar Road, Shelby Township, was given his Eagle Scout badge last night in award ceremonies at the Disco Elementary School on Van Dyke. He is a member of Troop 155 of which his father is scoutmaster.

Rusty Hinge Gallery Open This Weekend

TROY — A 100-year-old farm house which has been converted into an art gallery by a Bloomfield Township cartoonist and a retired Ferndale school principal will be open to the public this weekend.

Nine Michigan artists will display their work at the grand opening of the Rusty Hinge Gallery from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Wall formerly was principal of Coolidge Elementary School in Ferndale while Klix, whose work will be included in the showing by Michigan artists this weekend, is employed as a cartoonist by the General Motors Corp.

Klix said several Birmingham artists will be represented at the grand opening exhibit, including W. R. Wiltshire, James R. McDonald and Velva A. Redman.

AT DETROIT INSTITUTE

Both Scanes, whose work has been exhibited at the New York World's Fair and the Chicago Art Institute, and Jacobson are represented in the permanent collection of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Tabb has won gold medals for his water colors and oils at exhibitions in Michigan, Ohio and New York, Klix said.

The Rusty Hinge Gallery will be open daily after this weekend. Coffee and cookies will be served during the grand opening celebration.

Besides the art work, there also will be displays of several antiques at the farmhouse-art gallery, according to Klix.

Troy Residents Talk of Water

City Working on Detroit Source; One Man Has Rusty Sample

TROY — A sure sign that summer is on its way was evident at last night's City Commission meeting attended by residents who complained about water — and the lack of it — in Troy.

Assurances by commissioners that the city is working on an agreement to bring Detroit water here failed to satisfy one property owner.

Clancy A. Fonseth, 314 Lyons St., said the city water at his home has been bad for two weeks. He told commissioners the water had been ruining his white shirts and was unsanitary.

Producing a sample of orangish colored liquid in a baby bottle, Fonseth said anyone in the commission chambers was welcome to it.

"I wouldn't drink that stuff," replied Mayor Robert J. Huber. Commissioner James F. Carey advised Fonseth that the only solution to the problem was to obtain a water softener or filter.

"I pay taxes," said Fonseth. "I shouldn't have to buy a water softener."

Mayor Huber, who explained he had the same problem with tap water in his home, explained that the orange material in the water was "crud" from inside the water mains.

It accumulates because of the high mineral content in water pumped by Troy's municipal wells, the mayor pointed out.

Mrs. Richard H. Hollingsworth, 1328 E. Long Lake Road, said residents in her neighborhood are often completely without a supply of water.

City Manager David E. Firestone said the city was in favor of installing a water line for the entire mile on East Long Lake Road between Rochester and John R roads.

Commissioners said the water situation, like many of Troy's problems, could not be solved immediately because of a lack of funds.

However, the petitioners from East Long Lake Road said they would be willing to pay for a 1,200-foot water line on a special assessment basis.

The commission agreed to take up the problem of the East Long Lake Road water situation in about one month after further study was made into the matter.

Property Owner in Novi Goes on Tax Strike

NOVI — One property owner here last night made it clear to the Village Council that he was dissatisfied with the recently adopted 1961-62 budget.

Herbert Koester, 42780 W. Eight Mile Road, told the governing body that until they approve a budget that is within the needs of the village he is going on a tax strike.

Koester, an unsuccessful candidate for council, said he has more than 100 village citizens supporting him and his claim that the budget is "too luxurious."

The council adopted a $189,000 budget early in May which requires a tax rate of $5 for each $1,000 of assessed valuation.

During the "tax holiday," the name given by Koester to his movement, he wants property owners to bank their taxes so they can receive the three per cent interest on their money.

The maximum penalty on late taxes is four per cent.

Koester said the loss of one per cent would be worth it if the council in the future heeds his advice and "adopts a budget the village can support."

BROOKLANDS — Rudolph R. Minchella and Edward Hanlon will represent the Brooklands Exchange Club at the 1961 convention of Michigan Exchange clubs in Jackson June 18-20.

Issue on Rochester Ballot

Jaycees, PTA Support Five-Mill School Tax

ROCHESTER—Two civic organizations here have added their support to a five-mill operational tax request which will be on the ballot in the Rochester Community School District election Monday.

Latest to endorse the tax request by the board of education was the Rochester Junior Chamber of Commerce. The Rochester Parent-Teacher Association Council also is supporting the issue.

"After careful study by our school tax committee, the Junior Chamber of Commerce has unanimously voted to support the school-tax proposal," stated Philip Avery, Jaycee president.

Avery explained that a special three-member committee attended school board meetings, talked with individual board members and spent considerable time studying the tax needs before reaching its decision.

The five mills on the ballot, according to School Supt. Donald C. Baldwin, will not represent an increase in total taxes in the school district.

Baldwin pointed out that the millage, if approved, would bring $250,000 into the school district's operating fund.

"Actually, property owners paid two mills into this fund last year, but it expired in December," said the superintendent.

He added that the school board also planned to lower the debt retirement tax by three mills.

"Therefore, in effect, we are transferring from the debt service to the operating fund and asking the people to continue the two mills they have been paying previously," he said.

SOUNDS WARNING

Baldwin warned that the school district, which is opening three new elementary school projects and an addition to the high school during the upcoming school year, would have to cut back services if the millage is defeated.

Opening of the new facilities will add to the operational costs because of the need for additional teachers to staff them. The district plans to add 35 teachers during the 1961-62 school year.

"If the question fails, we probably would eliminate such items as art, music, library service and physical education from the overall curriculum," declared Baldwin.

The district also would be forced to eliminate bus transportation for all parochial school students and for public elementary school pupils who live within 1½ miles of school, Baldwin concluded.

Close-Ups and Glass Topic for Camera Club

ROCHESTER — The assignment for the Avon Camera Club's 8 p.m. meeting Thursday is "Close-Ups or Glass." Up to four slides of other subjects will be welcome.

Profit Taking Eases Early Grain Prices

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures prices were generally easier in early dealings today on the board of trade as profit takers cashed in on the advance of the previous session.

Setbacks were limited to small fractions in the grains but they ran to about two cents on old crop soybeans.

Brokers said some of the offerings in July soybeans were related to the government report late Monday on inspections of the commodity for export last week.

Their reports showed 1.4 million bushels expected compared with 2.2 million for the same week a year ago. It was described as disappointing.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held by the White Lake Township Zoning Board at the Township Hall on Monday, June 12, 1961, at 8:00 p.m. to consider the following changes in the Zoning Ordinance.

To amend the White Lake Township Rural Zoning Ordinance by amending:

Article VI, Residence I District

Article VI, Residence I District, Section 6.6 shall be amended to read as follows:

Delete: All of present Section 6.6 (as amended)—Area of Lot.

Add: New Section 6.6—Area and Width of Lot (as follows). No dwelling shall be erected or used on any lot having a minimum width of less than Seventy-Five (75') Feet and an area of less than Eleven Thousand, Two Hundred and Fifty (11,250) Square Feet, not normally under water, with a minimum width at the front building line of not less than Seventy-Five (75') Feet for each family housed thereon; provided, however, that if the lot abuts on a curved street, and as a result of which, the side lot lines diverge toward the rear, the measure of width may be taken coincident with, and parallel to, the front building line of the principal building, in which case the width of the front lot line shall be not less than Fifty-Five (55') Feet, and provided further, that if the lot abuts on a curved street, wherein the lot lines converge toward the rear, the measure of width shall be taken coincident with and parallel to the rear building line of the principal building, except that this shall not prevent the use of one family of any lot existing and of record at the time of passage of this ordinance.

In the case of new plats, where, the arrangement and topography of the land necessitates the use of odd-shaped or irregular lots, not covered by this ordinance, the plat may be submitted to the Township Board of Appeals for final approval. The Board of Appeals may or may not, require certain changes before approving.

Persons interested are requested to be present. A copy of the Zoning Ordinance together with a list of the proposed changes is on file at the office of the township clerk and may be examined by those interested.

The above stated Amendments are declared to be immediately necessary for the preservation of the public health, peace and safety and are hereby ordered to take effect thirty (30) days after final passage.

Steels Decline on Mixed Mart

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels were off in a mixed stock market early today. Trading was fairly active.

Fractional gains and losses were the general rule for key stocks. There were a few wider moves.

The most notable casualty was Boeing, off 2½ at 44 on an opening block of 10,000 shares. It recovered a fraction as trading wore one.

Selling was prompted by a published article to the effect that waknesses in the wings of the latest B52 Stratofortresses have been revealed.

Woolworth continued to advance on plans for its discount department store chain, rising 1¼ to 86.

Steels backed down amid news of the first week-to-week production drop since mid-March and indications of the industry's traditional summer slowdown.

Jones & Laughlin lost ⅝ at 72.

Standard Oil of California was up ⅝ at 42¾ following Justice Department approval of its merger with Kentucky Standard. Superior Oil of California advanced 22 points to 1,300.

Motors were very narrowly mixed, Ford easing ⅛ to 87½ from its sizable gain Monday. Fractional gainst were posted by a number of rails, tobaccos, electronics and rubbers.

American Stock Exchange prices were generally higher. Genco Instruments rose more than 2 points.

Other gainers were Cubic Corp., Insurance Co. of North America, and Aerojet-General. Catalin and Barnes Engineering lost fractions.

6 Children Perish in Missouri Blaze

PARTAGEVILLE, Mo. (AP) — Six children perished in a fire which destroyed their home Monday night. Another child was critically burned.

The mother, Jesse Mae Forest, was treated for shock. She rushed from the blazing house barefooted and in her nightgown. A neighbor, Jimmy Davis, and another man, Van Adams, rescued one child. Michael Forest, 9, who was rushed to a hospital with burns over 60 per cent of his body.

The flames blocked further rescue work. The house was destroyed.

Grand Rapids Airman Killed by Train in Italy

CROSSETTO, Italy (UPI) — An airman from Grand Rapids, Mich., was killed here Monday night when the car in which he was riding was demolished by a train at a railroad crossing.

Waterford Twp. Schools All Over by Next Tuesday

By Tuesday, June 13, going to school will be a thing of the past for Waterford Township students this year.

Picnics, assembly programs, banquets and commencement for seniors will dominate activities from now until the final marks are tabulated.

Beginning at 2 p.m. Friday, honorary awards will be presented to eighth graders at the Crary Junior High School, and at 6.30 p.m. Saturday there will be a banquet for students in the ninth grades at both Crary and Pierce Junior High schools.

Each of the 24 elementary schools in the township will have an annual school picnic or go on a field trip June 13 to close out the school year. Report cards will be mailed Friday, June 16.

The high school commencement exercises will be held at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, June 17, on the school football field.

Jingles Show Due in Waterford Twp.

The Waterford Township High School gymnasium will be the setting for a kiddies show starring television's Jingles, at 10 a.m. Saturday.

Jingles will be seen in an hour long show that will include 20 minutes of cartoons and puppets Herkimer Dragon and Cecil B. Rabbitt.

All proceeds will be used for the purchase of children's books for the Community Center's library.

Even With Massey Show Still Creaky

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — Raymond Massey, no less, was shanghaied into an "Adventures in Paradise" episode that was unfurled last night.

The ABC-TV hour displayed the improvements that have become apparent in the series. Production value — camera work, costumes, sets — are better than average, but the acting remains spliced tightly to scripts that whirl about in the wake of melodramatic froth.

The series also has shown a tendency to sexify the stories. The girls in the show — and there's always a chick aboard Adam Troy's scow — get ogled from taffrail to bowline and back by cameras and boy actors.

You can also count on such diverting touches as hula dances, girl-chasing, night swimming to help take your mind off the creaky plots.

'HOW COME?'

Big Chief Haocum (pronounced "How Come?"), sensing general network self-satisfaction over coverage of President Kennedy's European journey, has sent in a smoke signal from his pad with the Wetblanket Tribe in the Nitpicker Mountains.

"How come," asks the chief, "network reporters kept interviewing each other, spouting opinions and never bringing in native politicians, diplomats or local thought leaders for interrogation?

"How come," he adds, "the networks overplay a story of this sort to a degree that leaves no room for news specials on unscheduled events such as the assassination of Trujillo. Surely, that story deserved part or all of a half-hour news segment."

Dear Chief: I think the network reporters keep interviewing each other because they want to impress American viewers with the talent in their respective deep-thinker bullpens. They seek to develop star commentators because stars help ratings.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: "The Nation's Future" for Saturday, June 24 has lined up two Americans and two Russians for a debate on "How Free Should the Press Be?" U.S. representatives will be Pierre Salinger, presidential news secretary, and reporter Harrison Salisbury. For the U.S.S.R., Aleksei Adhubei, chief editor of Izvestia, and Mikhail Kharlamov, press officer for the Soviet Foreign Ministry.

Summer Stock Scares Actor Tony Martin

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — "I've got that feeling in my belly," Tony Martin said, "of a guy who doesn't know whether he wants to get married—while he's getting married."

WILSON

It's summer stock that's bugging him. He's about to do his first stage show — playing Skye Masterson in "Guys and Dolls" at Framington, Mass., and Wallingford, Conn. And his Hollywood and Broadway chums are trying to increase his stagefright.

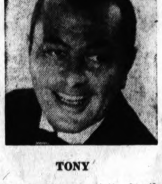

"Every day I realize, like the bridegroom does, it's too late to back out," trembles Tony.

His wife Cyd Charisse is encouraging him —"but then she might just want to get me out of the house," he reasons. The all-ham cast includes Alan King, Jaye P. Morgan and Slapsie Maxie Rosenbloom.

"I forgot my line when Alan King and I were rehearsing, then he forgot his," Tony said. "I said, 'What if we do this on stage?' "

King told him "You just say, 'Remember when I sang "Begin the Beguine" down at the mission?' Sing it. By the time you're done, I'll remember my next line. Not yours. Mine."

TONY

Tony's taken acting tutoring from instructors here — he's very serious about it—for the summer stock possibilities are very good, commercially, even for a big money-maker like Tony. There's summer stock to be played in Chicago, Warren, Columbus, Dallas, Houston, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Milwaukee . . . practically everywhere nowadays.

...s Jury Drinks to Own New Freedom

DETROIT (AP) — The nine women and three men who acquitted Gordon Watson of murder and conspiracy drank champagne toasts Monday after delivering their verdict—and regaining their own freedom.

The jury had been locked up in a hotel since shortly after the trial began seven weeks ago.

Wayne County sheriff's deputies made sure they had no outside contact—so sure that the jurors did not learn that Watson's codefendant, Mrs. Nelle Lassiter, had been ordered committed to a state mental hospital after an emotional collapse.

"The deputies even went ahead of us on the street, turning papers around," said R. W. Herschelmann, a juror.

Township Band to Give Concert

New Civic Unit Will Make Debut to Public in Waterford

Marching music, old-time hits and Dixieland jazz will be featured at 8 p.m. tomorrow when the newly organized Waterford Township Civic Band presents its first public concert at the John D. Pierce Junior High School.

Doctors, lawyers, merchants and others in all walks of life, under the direction of Gene Preston, have banded together to make sweet music for area residents' listening.

John Philip Sousa's "American Patrol and Triumphal March" will be featured along with "Scenes from Operaland," waltzes and the "Stars and Stripes."

There will be trombone, bass, and cornet soloists, and for encores there will be "hot" trombone players.

Housewife Mrs. Earl Somerville will play the flute and piccolo, and her teacher-husband, the clarinet and bassoon. Accountant-clerk Connie Basset will toot the flute, as Thane Danby, salesman, blows the cornet.

Sentenced for Burglary of Area Service Station

Burglarizing and damaging a Bloomfield Township service station of $200 has resulted in probation for two years, $100 court costs and an order of restitution, amount to be determined, for Donovan F. Graves of Southfield.

Circuit Judge Stanton G. Dondero yesterday ordered this sentence for Graves, 36, of 21692 Inkster Road, after he had a change of mind and pleaded guilty May 22 to breaking into Whitty's Shell Station, 3605 W. Maple Road, on May 1. He had stood mute.

Given 2 to 10 Years on Morals Charge

A 35-year-old factory worker from Pontiac yesterday was sentenced by Circuit Judge Stanton G. Dondero to serve 2 to 10 years in Jackson Prison for taking indecent liberties with a 9-year-old girl at his home.

He was on probation in the county for gross indecency when the incident took place in January.

Stands Mute in Chicago of Uttering, Publishing

Police charge Moss, 25, of 429 Howard McNeil St. with taking a $154 company check from his employer, WKC, Inc., and later cashing it to pay some debts. He was a porter at the store.

Judge Dondero entered a plea of innocent for Moss and remanded him to the custody of the sheriff under a $1,000 bond. No trial date was set.

Teamsters to Foreclose on Property of Hotel

SAVANNAH, Ga. (UPI) — The Teamsters Union pension fund Monday reported it is foreclosing on property of the General Oglethorpe Hotel Co. here because the firm is delinquent in payment of a $2.4-million loan.

The union said it would sell at auction the General Oglethorpe Hotel here, its 18-hole golf course, the Savannah Motor Lodge and the DeSota Beach Hotel at Tybee, Ga.

The loan was executed in 1959, Teamsters officials said.

Explosion Rips Tower

SAC CITY, Iowa (UPI) — An explosion atop an 85-foot storage elevator spewed flames on surrounding buildings and caused an estimated $300,000 damaged at the Williams Milling Co. Monday night.

Court Upholds U.S. Red Curbs

In 5-4 Decisions, Judges Back Smith Act, Ruling on Registration

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dividing 5 to 4 in two historic decisions, the Supreme Court has upheld two of the government's major weapons against Communist party activity in the United States.

The decisions backed the tightest U.S. restrictions ever aimed at a group which purports to be a political organization.

The court Monday upheld:

1. A clause in the Smith Act which makes it a crime for a person to belong to any organization knowing that it advocates violent overthrow of the government.

2. A requirement that the Communist party register with the U.S. attorney general as a puppet of the Kremlin. This requirement is a part of the 1950 Subversive Activities Control Act.

Gus Hall, S. Communist party general secretary, said in New York the decisions endanger "the very foundation and fabric of Democracy in our country." The party vowed to fight the decisions, but didn't say how.

Writing the majority opinion upholding the government efforts to force the Communist party to register as an arm of the Soviet Union, Justice Felix Frankfurter swept aside the party's arguments that its rights under the First Amendment of the Constituton were being violated.

If the high court agreed, Frankfurter said in his 39,000-word opinion, it would "make a travesty of that amendment and the great ends for the well-being of our democracy that it serves."

Gangland Violence Again in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Gangland-style violence struck Los Angeles for the second time in two days Monday night when a man described by police as a prominent bookmaker barely escaped injury from a gunman's attack.

Police said L. J. Diggs, 46, was sitting in his parked car when another automobile pulled alongside and a man in it fired six shots into Diggs' auto. One bullet tore through Diggs' left forearm sleeve.

On Sunday morning, ex-convict Max Tannenbaum, 49, a pal of Mickey Cohen, was hit in the face and shoulder by shotgun blasts as he sat behind the wheel of his car. He is in serious condition at the UCLA Medical Center and probably will lose his left eye and most of his teeth, doctors said.

Paper Claims Soviet Seek 3-Man Moon Soon

PARIS (UPI) — The newspaper France-Soir reported today Russia hopes to put a three-man satellite into space for 24 hours next month.

France-Soir correspondent Michel Gordy said in a dispatch from Vienna quoting "a well-informed Soviet source" that the plan called for the satellite to swing around the earth 17 times.

Gordy said President Kennedy had been notified of the plan before his meeting in Vienna with Premier Nikita Khrushchev.
