Israeli Cabinet Huddles in Top Secret Talks

Test Ballot Due Today

Senators to Vote on Ike's Aid Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) —President Eisenhower asked the Senate today to defeat a proposal to strip the Middle East resolution of its economic aid authority lest he be denied power to deal with "the danger of subversion."

The President's plea was read to the Senate by Republican leader Knowland of California as its members gathered for a crucial test vote on the resolution.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate was called into an unusual Saturday session today with prospects for a crucial test vote by nightfall on President Eisenhower's Middle East resolution.

The test shaped up on an amendment to deny the President the authority he asks to spend up to 200 million dollars in available funds to strengthen the economies and security forces of nations in the area.

Administration forces regard this vote as a major hurdle. In advance of the session, the resolution's supporters expressed confidence the amendment would be rejected by at least 15 votes.

Defeat of the amendment would pave the way for adoption of the resolution by an expected wide margin, probably next week. The Senate has been debating the resolution for two weeks.

In addition to the military-economic aid feature, the resolution would declare a readiness to use American armed forces to block any open Communist aggression in the area, provided a nation under attack asks for such aid and the President deems such a step to be necessary.

As passed overwhelmingly by the House last month, the resolution contained the military-economic aid provisions.

Sponsors of the amendment contend the 200 millions might be only the first installment on a much bigger aid program that they contend could run into billions of dollars. Secretary of State Dulles has sought to reassure them that this is not going to happen.

Nixons to Help Welcome New African Nation

Leaving Morocco Today for Casablanca, Then to Accra in Ghana

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

This celebration, highlight of Nixon's 22-day tour of Africa and Italy, will reach a peak Wednesday when Ghana officially becomes an independent nation.

Nixon will leave for Accra after motoring to Casablanca to have lunch with the governor and tour the Nouasseur Air Base. Today is the first anniversary of Moroccan independence.

Nixon outlined the Middle East program in a private talk with the sultan explaining that it was designed to promote independence and also to give economic help to strengthen that independence.

A palace spokesman reported that the sultan commented in reply that he believed the doctrine was a "wise policy."

The sultan also surprised diplomats and Moroccans by giving a special audience to Mrs. Nixon in the late afternoon. It was the first STREET SCENE — This is a street scene in the town of Gaza, in the disputed Gaza strip from which Israel late yesterday announced it would withdraw its forces. The picture was made during the current Israeli ocupation.

Rush Summons on Sabbath Day Sparks Rumors

JERUSALEM (AP) — Premier David Ben-Gurion, in an unprecedented break of the Jewish Sabbath, summoned his Cabinet into a top secret meeting today.

Although it was obvious the meeting was concerned with the Israeli withdrawal from the Gaza Strip and the Gulf of Aquba, it was shrouded in the deepest secrecy.

No official was in a position to say why the Cabinet had so unexpectedly been called together.

There were reports that a meeting between UNEF Commander Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns and Israeli Army Chief of Staff Maj. Gen. Moshe Dayan, set for this afternoon, had been postponed until tomorrow.

This sparked rumors the Cabinet is reconsidering the withdrawal. But Israeli officials said that was "mere speculation."

Only a short time earlier, a spokesman for the nationalist Herut-opposition-party demanded that Ben-Gurion's government resign and order new elections because of the agreement to withdraw.

★ ★ ★

The party, second largest in the nation, scheduled protest marches in Jerusalem next Tuesday and in Tel Aviv Wednesday.

Israeli military headquarters in Tel Aviv reported "all quiet" in the Gaza Strip today after the imminent withdrawal announcement of Israeli troops.

However, the authorities closed the borders of the Strip and

Senators Want Beck, Brewster to Face Charge

Did Union Heads Offer $10,000 Payoff?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators said today they want to question Teamsters Union chiefs Dave Beck and Frank Brewster on whether they offered a $10,000 political contribution in an effort to get a teamsters man on the Oregon Liquor Commission.

Charges to that effect were made yesterday before the special Senate Rackets Committee by Howard Morgan, Oregon Public Utilities Commissioner and former Democratic state chairman.

Morgan said teamsters officials tried to "take over law enforcement" in the entire state of Oregon.

Robert Kennedy, committee counsel, said in an interview he wants to ask Beck and Brewster about Morgan's testimony when they appear before the committee.

The hearings are in recess until Tuesday because chairman McClellan (D-Ark) says "we all need a rest."

Beck is national president of the 1½ million member Teamsters Union, the nation's largest single labor organization. Brewster heads the union's powerful 11-state western conference of teamsters.

Beck has been invited to testify before the special group. He now is in Europe but is due back late this month.

Brewster has been cited for contempt of Congress for refusing to answer questions in an earlier Senate investigation of alleged tieups between racketeers and some labor union officials.

The special Senate group, now conducting a search for evidence of underworld influence in labor and industry, currently is concentrating on the situation in Portland, Ore.

'WILLING TO PAY'

Morgan testified he was told last September by Manton Spear, Portland beer distributor, that the teamsters were willing to pay $10,000 into the campaign fund of Democratic gubernatorial nominee Robert Holmes to get one of their members or somebody else "acceptable" to them named to the state liquor commission.

Morgan said he turned down the idea, and that Holmes indignantly did likewise. Holmes was elected governor in November.

Morgan said Spear told him "Beck and Brewster were the source" of the alleged scheme. He said Spear informed him the teamsters wanted to be able to block any state liquor purchases of brands made by eastern distilleries having labor troubles with the teamsters. All retail liquor sales in Oregon are made by the state.

Spear denied mentioning any $10,000 figure to Morgan. But he conceded, under questioning he must have mentioned that "the union would contribute in an effort to get a man on the liquor commission. He recalled having spoken to Morgan of the plan to block state purchases of certain brand liquors.

Spear denied having mentioned the names of Beck or Brewster, but said he was "associated in the beer business with Dave

Pontiac Ahead of 1956 Pace

Output at Two-Month Mark Is 1,500 Units Better in 1957

Production of Pontiacs for the first two months of 1957 was more than 1,500 units ahead of the division's output for the same period of 1956, according to preliminary General Motors figures released yesterday.

The corporation's report indicated that Pontiac turned out 78,027 cars in January and February, compared with 76,444 units during the first two months of 1956.

The corporation produced 315,554 passenger cars and trucks last month, the report stated, compared with 364,704 for February, 1956.

GM's output by division's for 1957, through February, gave GMC Truck & Coach 14,046 units compared to 17,633 for 1956; Chevrolet, 276,418 (against 304,342 in 1956); Oldsmobile, 88,573 (100,613 in 1956); Buick, 100,274 (129,936 in 1956) and Cadillac, 28,543 (compared to 28,416 in 1956).

Late Morning Snow Heralds Mercury Drop

A heavy late-morning snowstorm heralded the weather man's prediction that tonight and tomorrow will be colder and cloudy with the probability of more flurries in the Pontiac area.

Nature presented a special fireworks display last night with the aurora borealis, commonly called "Northern Lights," making its brightest appearance since 1951.

Less spectacular is the weekend forecast of partly cloudy with a few snow flurries and colder tonight, low 22 to 26.

Austrian Border Quiet

VIENNA (INS) — Not a single Hungarian refugee crossed the border into Austria last night. Refugee officials said it was the first time they made a blank report since the October revolution.

"Morey's Is Open!"

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) —President Eisenhower today nominated U. S. Circuit Judge Charles Evans Whittaker of Kansas City, Mo., to be an associate justice of the U. S. Supreme Court. Whittaker, a Republican, is 56.

The appointment is to fill the vacancy created by the retirement on Feb. 25 of Stanley, F. Reed, a Democrat who sat on the court more than 19 years.

Courthouse Suit Due for Airing in Month

Oakland County's legally-tangled plans for a new courthouse should return to the courtroom in about a month, Harry J. Merritt, corporation counsel, said yesterday.

★ ★ ★

A suit filed by the Oakland County Taxpayers League last fall has blocked planning for the proposed new building at the county's Telegraph road service center.

Merritt said an indefinite adjournment since then has given the county time to search through its financial records to answer charges that budgets were padded to accumulate building funds.

"The auditors are about 90 per cent through," Merritt said, "which means the case should be ready for trial fairly soon."

A further delay is possible, however, if the league decides to file an amended bill of complaint against the county's answer to the charges, Merritt said.

The League, represented by Pontiac attorneys William H. Wilmot and former Circuit Judge Glenn C. Gillespie, made three other complaints besides its 11-point charge of financial "irregularities."

It claims the board has no authority to designate a new courthouse site or to plan the building partly inside and partly outside of the city limits of Pontiac, the county seat.

It claims also that part of the $1,088,837 balance in the building fund last fall was accumulated in excess of a one per cent limitation on funds earmarked for capital improvement.

The suit charges the Board of Supervisors "caused excessive amounts to be included in the annual budgets for the various departments of the county," and has illegally transferred the money to the building fund.

County officials have denied padding, explaining that surpluses in recent years were not intentional, but accumulated because of a high level of business conditions which has increased the county's income beyond expectations.

Warn City Voters of Registration Deadline Monday

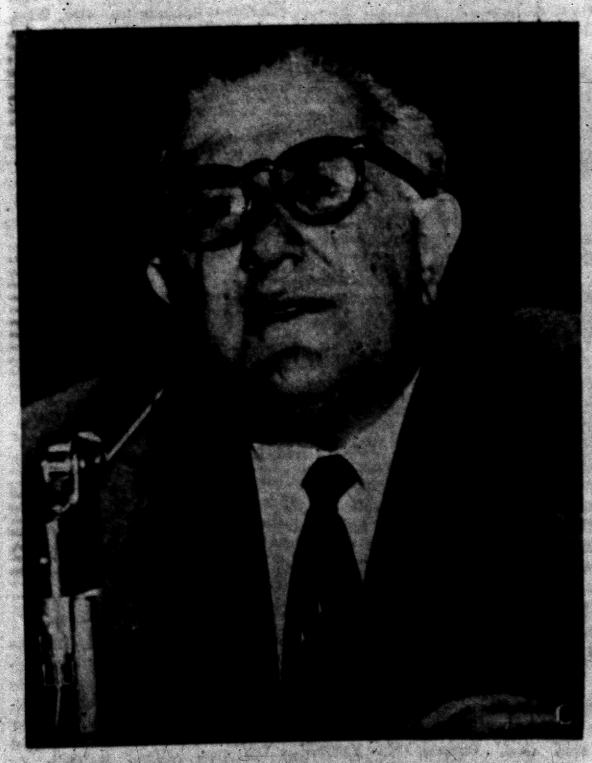

Monday is the last day for unregistered Pontiac voters to register for the April 1 biennial spring state election.

City Clerk Ada R. Evans announced that the clerk's office in the City Hall would be open from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. to accommodate persons wishing to register.

"So far the registration has been very slow," Mrs. Evans said. She predicted that around 38,000 would be registered to cast ballots, with much fewer actually going to the polls.

Up before the voters will be the three State Supreme Court Justices, one county proposal, and two local issues.

Gamblers, Pinball Operators, Teamster Bosses Appear in New Senate Probe

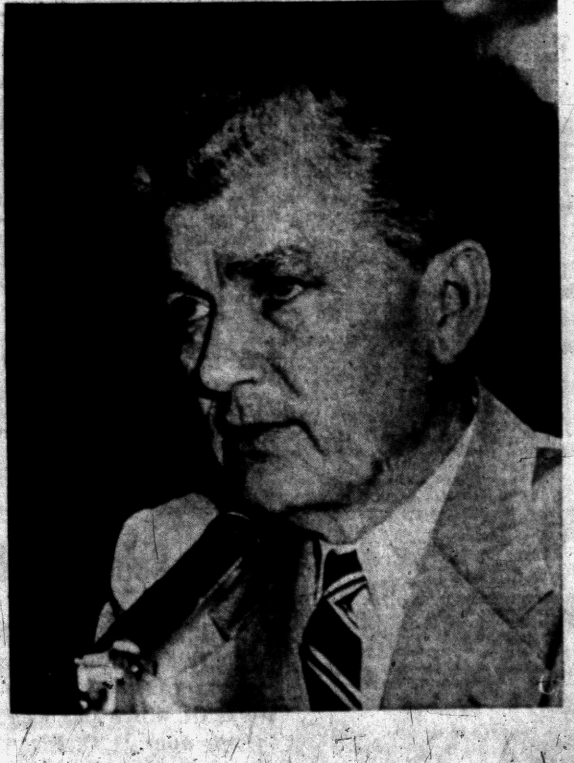

DENIES DEMAND FOR FEES — Hy Goldman, a reputed gambler, appearing as a witness before the Senate committee denied he ever demanded a fee from Stanley G. Terry, Portland pinball operator for arranging an appointment with Frank G. Brewster for Terry. AP Wirephoto

REFUSES ANSWERS — Frank Malloy, Portland teamsters union official, testified before the Senate committee investigating alleged labor racketeering, but refused to answer questions about Portland gambling. A contempt citation may be made against him.

WERE RECORDS ALTERED? — Stanley Terry, Portland, Ore., pinball machine operator testifies. He said minutes of a meeting of Oregon state pinball operators were altered 'to make them more factual' before a grand jury saw them.

TELLS OF PAYMENT — James B. Elkins, Portland, Ore., gambler tells Senate committee a $10,000 payment was made by a Portland pinball operator to Frank W. Brewster, western conference teamsters conference, to end union opposition to his machines.

Area Officers Given Awards

Cite 2 From Pontiac State Police Post During Graduation Exercise

Troopers Peter R. Basolo and Alfred T. Biland, of the Pontiac State Police Post, were among 12 state policemen who received meritorious service awards for exceptional performance of duty yesterday at East Lansing headquarters.

The presentation of awards was part of graduation excercises for 37 new state police troopers. Included among them was Myron Graham, 85 Scott Lake Rd., Waterford.

Basolo, 22, of 340 N. Cass Lake Rd., Waterford, and Biland, 29, of 157 Baldwin Ave., Pontiac., prevented a Sylvan Lake man from allegedly attempting to take his own life last fall.

The man reportedly had taken poison and then attempted to drown himself. The troopers brought the man to shore and forced him to drink lake water to purge himself of the poison.

The addition of the new graduates brings state police strength to 1,050. The legislature has authorized addition of 105 more to the roster.

time he had ever granted a formal audience to a woman.

Nixon, who was cheered by an estimated 200,000 Moroccans when he arrived at the first stop of his tour, got a taste of Moroccan court pageantry when he greeted the sultan with a message from President Eisenhower.

He watched the sultan ride to prayer in a carriage and return astride a charger.

Nixon told the sultan that his Moroccan welcome was "one of the warmest I've ever received." The sultan replied that the visit was a good omen on the eve of the first anniversary of the nation's independence.

Nixon noted, in his talk with reporters, that technically Morocco and Tunisia, which also recently won independence from the French, were not included in the present program of the Eisenhower doctrine. But he added that the doctrine was not necessarily limited to countries which formed what was traditionally called "The Middle East."

'Taking Friends Home' Costs Chap $150 Fine

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP)—Patrolman Jeff Richardson told City Court yesterday he had stopped Jesse Hill and asked where he was going in such a hurry.

"I'm taking my friends home," Hill replied.

The court fined Hill $150 on charges of driving while intoxicated. Richardson said there was no one except Hill in the car.

Air Force Ex-Secretary Harold E. Talbott Dies

Talbott, who resigned the Air Force post in August, 1955, in a controversy over his private business interests, died at the home of Harry Bingham, where he was visiting.

Police to Consider Recommendation

Ticketing May Be Halted in Annual Check of Autos

Drivers who participate in the voluntary Pontiac May Auto Check to be conducted May 13-17, may not be required to follow up the check and have any defective equipment repaired.

★ ★ ★

In a second vote following a deadlock, members of the Traffic and Safety Committee of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce failed to pass a motion recommending citizens be issued warning notices if they participate in the May Auto Check and have defective equipment.

The check is sponsored through the cooperation of the committee Pontiac Police Dept. and the Pontiac Automobile Dealers' Assn.

For the past two years, citizens who have had defective equipment during trips through the voluntary check lanes have been issued special warning notices. They had 72 hours to have the equipment repaired or pay a fine.

VOLUNTARY BASIS

Up to the present, the auto check has been conducted on a voluntary basis. Clyle Haskill, chairman of the committee, said in 1956 only two per cent of the drivers who had their autos checked were given tickets. In comparison, Rochester, which conducts a compulsory check lane, ticketed 22 per cent of the autos.

Police Chief Herbert Straley said this morning the department would consider the committee's recommendation although "they could not control the action of the Police Department."

He said of the approximate 45,000 vehicles registered in Pontiac, only about 8,000 autos participated in the check lane in 1956.

SPONSOR ATTENDS

T. A. Cullen, Michigan representative of Inter-Industry Highway Safety Committee, sponsors of the auto safety check program throughout the nation, attended the meeting. He met earlier Friday with representatives from Novi and Holly who are planning a similar program.

Haskill said Walled Lake, Rochester, Sylvan Lake, Keego Harbor, Lake Orion and Waterford have shown interest in co-ordinating such a program with the Pontiac program. Chairman of the program is Paul Merideth.

Judy Holliday Gets Mexican Divorce

NEW YORK (AP) — Film and stage star Judy Holliday has obtained a Mexican divorce to end her nine-year marriage to musician David Oppenheim.

Her attorney, Arnold R. Krakower, stated yesterday that the divorce was obtained in Juarez, Mexico, on grounds of "incompatibility of temperament."

Oppenheim is a symphony clarinest and an executive of Columbia Records. Miss Holliday, 33, gained custody of their 4-year-old son, Jonathan. The couple had been estranged for some time.

The blonde actress, currently starring in the Broadway musical, "Bells Are Ringing" married Oppenheim Jan. 4, 1948, when she was appearing in the stage hit, "Born Yesterday."

alerted security forces against possible Arab rioting.

The military garrison will be called out only if there are disturbances, he said.

"We don't want to upset the people," he explained.

In Washington, U. S. officials expressed hope today for speedy removal of Israeli forces from Egypt, and then for quick resumption of negotiations on operation of the Suez Canal.

The Israeli troop issue has been regarded here as the key to breaking the log jam on a number of Middle East problems, foremost among them the future of the canal which Egypt seized last summer.

U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold issued orders for Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, Canadian commander of the U. N. force in Egypt, to meet with Israeli army leaders Sunday to arrange for taking over the disputed areas. In Cairo, Burns said last night his force is ready to move in quickly behind the withdrawing Israelis.

The United States was anxious to convince the Arabs it had made no secret promises or concessions to win Israeli agreement to leave the Gaza and Aqaba areas.

This country has taken the position that Israel should make an unconditional withdrawal from the disputed areas. But it has offered assurances of support for moves to prevent any more Egyptian commando attacks on Israel from Gaza and to back efforts to get free navigation in the Gulf of Aqaba, blockaded by the Egyptians for six years before the Israelis moved in.

To Refuel A-Sub After Two Years

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Navy admiral says the atomic submarine Nautilus will get a new supply of nuclear fuel "in a few days"—the first refueling for the undersea craft which has logged 50,000 miles in two years.

Rear Adm. H. G. Rickover said yesterday the atomic core of the Nautilus' nuclear engine had been removed and that a new one would be installed shortly.

Rickover said "we know exactly how much fuel was used" in the ship's operations over the last two years, but he declined to disclose the amount.

Pontiac Deaths

Harrison Allen

Harrison Allen, 67, of 3516 Baldwin Rd., died yesterday afternoon in Pontiac General Hospital after an illness of two years.

A retired railroad employe, he is survived by his wife, Bessie; a son, Fred Allen of Los Angeles, Calif.; seven daughters, Mrs. Irene Wanke and Mrs. Pearl Vermette, both of Pontiac, Mrs. Bonnie Souheaver of Auburn Heights, Mrs. Barbara Gelow of Waterford, Mrs. Violet Kruchek of Chicago, Mrs. Juanita Stricklen of Harrisburg, Ill., Mrs. Helen Kenny of Baltimore; and 20 grandchildren.

Service will be at 1 p.m. Monday from the First Social Brethren Church with the Rev. Thomas Guest officiating. Burial will follow in White Chapel Cemetery. Mr. Allen's body is at the Huntoon Funeral Home.

Mrs. Bert E. Henson

Service for Mrs. Bert E. (Kathleen M.) Henson, 46, of 598 Collier Dr., will be at 2 p.m. Monday from the Marimont Baptist Church with her pastor, the Rev. David Mortensen officiating.

Burial will be in Oakland Hills Cemetery. Mrs. Henson's body will be at the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home until noon Monday.

Executive secretary of the Pontiac Industrial Union Council (government and civic workers) and former city commissioner, Mrs. Henson was born on Aug. 28, 1910, in Jonesboro, Ark. Her parents were Claude V. and Emma Jackson.

Mrs. Henson died Thursday in Pontiac General Hospital after an illness of several weeks.

Mrs. Roy Sells

Mrs. Roy (Ida) Sells, 34, of 909 Troywood St., Troy, died yesterday in Pontiac General Hospital after an illness of two years.

A resident of Troy all her life, she had been a nurse at Pontiac General Hospital and member of the Big Beaver Methodist Church.

Mrs. Sells is survived by her husband; her mother, Mrs. Sam C. Halsey of Troy; a son, Roy Raymon Sells, at home; and a brother, Sam C. Halsey Jr. of Troy.

Also surviving are five sisters, Mrs. Roy Duncan, Mrs. Charles Bartley and Mrs. Robert Martin Jr., all of Troy, Mrs. Raymond Baker and Mrs. Edwin Bise, both of Auburn Heights.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Monday from the Spiller-Gramer Funeral Home, 705 N. Main St., Clawson. Burial will follow in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Heavy Quake Rocks Jamaica, Kills Two

KINGSTON, Jamaica (INS) — The Island of Jamaica was rocked by an earthquake for 90 seconds last night.

The tremor hit the Caribbean vacation-island about 7:30 p.m. with the heaviest shock felt since August 1907, and plunged Kingston —the capital city—into total darkness for two hours.

Authorities said two persons were reported dead.

(Another severe earthquake some 4,300 miles from Berkeley, Calif., was recorded on the University of California's seismograph. However, this shakeup was believed to be located somewhere in the southwest Pacific area.)

Date Extended Through April 15 for Grazing

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Agriculture Department has extended today's deadline through April 15 for emergency grazing of Soil Bank winter wheat acreage reserve land in drought-designated countries in 12 states.

Acreage reserve agreements prohibit the grazing of land put in the program except under emergency conditions and then only on certification of need by the governor of the state and with the consent of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Centerline Officer Goes to Ohio to Interrogate Robbery Suspect

Centerline police sent a detective to Tiffin, Ohio, today to question a Warren Township man held in connection with the robbery of a druggist from Royal Oak last September.

Landoll allegedly has confessed to two robberies in Michigan. Warren police have also sent detectives to Tiffin to question the man.

Among the crimes attributed to Landoll was the Sept. 26 holdup of the drug store in Centerline. The bandit had blackened his face with burnt cork and turned up his collar when he entered the store, tended by George Binson, 41, of 2322 Benjamin St., Royal Oak.

According to Binson, the holdup man ordered: "I'm John Dillinger's son, give me your money."

He escaped with $1,900 from the store. The other holdup involved a gasoline station from which $150 was taken. Tiffin police said Landoll admitted both crimes.

Royal Oak Woman Killed in Collision

A Royal Oak woman was killed last night in a two-car collision on US10 two miles south of Grand Blanc.

Miss Witte was a passenger in a car driven by Edward T. Bonjas, 27, of Detroit.

Bonjas told Flint State Police that a car driven by Daniel Walker Cooper, 26, of Flint, turned left in front of him when the two cars collided.

Police said that Miss Witte was killed instantly when she was slammed against the dashboard. The ignition key penetrated her skull.

Holding Inkster Man in Willow Run Slaying

The 41-year-old St. Clair County agricultural agent was robbed and beaten to death at the Willow Run Airport parking lot Dec. 23.

Being questioned in his death is Eskar Triplett, who was identified by the victim of a strong-arm robbery on the Willow Run Expressway as one of his attackers.

Burial Monday for Mrs. Steere

Long-Time Resident, 68, Was Known for Civic, Church Activities

Mrs. Frank W. (Jessie Hunter) Steere, well known in the city for her activities in church and civic affairs, died yesterday at her home, 4230 S. Shore Rd., Watkins Lake, after a brief illness.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, she was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, the Michigan Branch of Women's National Farm and Garden Assn., Tuesday Musicale, the American Assn. of University Women and the Alumni Assn. of the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Steere was born in Ogden, Utah, on Sept. 30, 1888 to Robert D. and Ellen Thomas Hunter, and was married in Detroit in 1914. She came to the Pontiac area 23 years ago from Scarsdale, N.Y.

Surviving, besides her husband, are three children, Mrs. James D. Ritchie of Royal Oak, Frank W. Jr. of Akron, Ohio, and Morris of Detroit; eight grandchildren and a brother, Robert H. Hunter of Pocatillo, Idaho.

Service will be at 3 p.m. Monday from the Sparks-Griffin Chapel, with Dr. William H. Marbach, her pastor, officiating. Burial will follow in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Bloodless Revolt in East Indonesia

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — A Christian lieutenant colonel, regarded as a son by President Sukarno of Indonesia, led a bloodless coup in East Indonesia today against the central government.

★ ★ ★

The revolutionists, demanding more autonomy for the Celebes, Moluccas, and Sunda Islands, issued a declaration announcing they had installed the governor of the Celebes as military governor of all East Indonesia.

Lt. Col. Ventje Samual, handsome 35-year-old former bodyguard for President Sukarno, was announced as leader of the revolt. An Indonesian, he served as a sergeant in the Dutch army.

To Charge Ex-Boxer With Death of Wife

DETROIT (INS)—Detroit Police homicide detectives said today a warrant will be sought Monday against a former boxer they say has confessed beating and kicking his wife to death.

Officers said Gorney told them he was jealous because of his wife's attentions to other men and had gone after her Thursday night when she left home with the comment: "I'm going downtown to have some fun."

Gorney, according to police, said he found her in a bar and forced her to return home with him.

Detectives said Gorney at first told them his wife was struck by a hit-run driver as they were returning home from a bar.

Defense Official Keeps Mum

Report Army Successful in Jupiter Missile Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — Informed sources say the Army has successfully launched its Intermediate Range Ballistic Missile—the Jupiter—from Patrick Air Force Base on the Florida East Coast.

The Defense Department declined to confirm the report. But it said extensive flight testing of rocket vehicles in the long range missiles program has been going on for some time, and would continue.

Also, the Defense Department spokesman said a malfunction had occurred in a test firing of a missile at the base yesterday. He said there were no casualties and declined to specify the missile involved.

Erik Bergaust, managing editor of the magazine Missiles and Rockets, said last night he was informed the Jupiter had been launched at 5 p.m. yesterday.

He added that one source described the test as a "conspicuously successful" flight, while another informant said the launching team "was not jubilant but it was a successful launching."

There were numerous reports of a glow in the sky at Patrick. The glow was seen in towns within 50 miles of the test area.

Maj. Gen. Donald N. Yates, commander of the test center, said last night:

"We conducted routine tests with routine and normal results. No one was injured and I see nothing newsworthy to report."

The Day in Birmingham

Election on Millage Raise to Request a 2.5 Boost

BIRMINGHAM — March 15 voter registration deadline has been set for the special election scheduled by the Board of Education here for March 25. Voters will be asked at that time to approve a millage increase for public school operation. The 2.5 mill boost will continue for the next five years and with the 3.5 approved in 1951 and expired last December, would bring the rate to $6 per thousand, equalized evaluation.

More than $450,000 will be received to be used on salary increases for teachers another assistant school superintendent in charge of personnel, assistant principals for five of the larger schools, printing a recruitment brochure and a manual for employes, sabbatical leave for a small number of selected teachers and an evaluation program for personnel.

LAST YEAR'S PLATES

"When I started for work yesterday morning there was a strange car parked right in front of my house," Thomas said, "I knew it didn't belong to any of the neighbors and when I discovered it still carried last year's license, I reported it to the police. A record check showed it had been stolen."

★ ★ ★

The Rev. Charles Whitfield of the recently established Grace Baptist Church said today that Sunday would see the conclusion of the week long revival program at his church.

The Rev. Dr. Tom Malone, radio speaker and evangelist began a series of nightly services there last Monday. There will be no service this evening, however, Mr. Whitfield reported.

William Clayton Kitchen

A week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Kitchen of Royal Oak died yesterday in William Beaumont Hospital.

Besides his parents he is survived by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Pelky and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Kitchen of Royal Oak and his great-grandmothers, Mrs. Neil Block of Birmingham and Mrs. Edith Pelky of Fraser Township, Maryland.

Service is to be at 3:30 p.m. today from the Manley Bailey Funeral Home, with burial in White Chapel Cemetery. The Rev. Woodrow Clark of the Royal Oak Congregational Church will officiate.

Mrs. Susan Edson Wason

A native of New Jersey, Mrs. Wason, 76, of 1748 North Lawn, died yesterday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, after a long illness.

She came to Birmingham 18 months ago from Indiana. She was a member of St. James Episcopal Church, St. Peters Guild and the Senior Workshop Group at the Community House.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Everett Comfort of Pennsylvania and Mrs. Neville Hall of Pleasantville, N.Y.; a son, John of Birmingham; a sister, Mrs. Mary Charlier of California and seven grandchildren.

The Rev. Harold E. Towne will conduct services at 5 p.m. today in St. James Church. Cremation will follow at White Chapel. The funeral is in charge of the Manley Bailey Funeral Home.

William D. Buick

A resident of Birmingham for 26 years, Mr. Buick, 85, died at his home at 205 Abbey Rd. yesterday after a brief illness. He retired in 1942 after 41 years with the S.S. Kresge Co. Prior to that he was associated with the Detroit Bank.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham and the Detroit Boat Club. Survivors include his wife, Winifred R.; a son, Robert D.; a daughter, Mary R. and three grandchildren, all of Birmingham. One sister, Mrs. Charles B. VanDusen of Palmer Woods.

The body is at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. and will be taken to the Cass Avenue Chapel Monday for the 1 p.m. service. Burial will be in White Chapel Cemetery.

Gates Named Navy Secretary

Will Replace Thomas, Subject to Confirmation by the Senate

★ ★ ★

The nomination was announced by the White House yesterday. Released at the same time was an exchange of letters in which President Eisenhower expressed "very real regret" in accepting Thomas' resignation, effective April 1.

Thomas, a 59-year-old Californian, has been Navy secretary since May 3, 1954.

Gates, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and a Navy veteran of World War II, succeeded Thomas as undersecretary in October, 1953. With the promotion, Gates' salary would be increased from $18,000 to $20,000 a year. He is 50. His nomination is subject to senate confirmation.

In his letter to Eisenhower, Thomas gave no specific reason for his resignation, but he told newsmen he was leaving to allow his assistants an opportunity to advance.

It was reported William B. Franke, assistant secretary for financial management, was in line to succeed Gates as undersecretary.

28 Guards Leave State for 6-Month Army Stint

LANSING (AP)—Michigan will send 28 more National Guard volunteers for the six-month army training program at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., the state adjutant general's office announced today.

The group leaving today will bring Michigan's total in the guard training program since its start in October of 1955 to 332.

Find Some Motorists Without Any Licenses

DETROIT (INS)—Eight of 909 motorists stopped by Detroit Police yesterday for driving with 1956 car license plates should have known better.

Officers found the eight also were driving with either no operator's licenses or with revoked licenses. They received stiff fines or jail sentences.

Beck Jr., son of the Teamsters' national president.

Morgan said that when he met Spear it was as an emissary of Holmes. Morgan said Holmes needed money for his campaign and had heard of a possible political contribution.

'HE'S OUR PIGEON'

Morgan also said that Thomas Maloney, a Seattle gambler described as having considerable teamsters influence in Portland, tried to get him to have a liquor commission investigation called off. Morgan quoted Maloney as saying the then Republican Gov. Paul Patterson "is our pigeon and we don't want anybody shooting at him."

Security for You

Naturalization Records OK for Age Proof

From A. R. of White Earth, N. D.: "I was born in Norway and I came to America in 1914. I was naturalized in 1924. I don't have my birth certificate any longer. Would it be possible to use my naturalization records to prove my age so that I can draw Social Security?"

Naturalization records are one type of evidence that the Social Security people will use as evidence of age. If the papers you now have don't show your birth date, you can get further evidence from the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Washington, D. C.

From Mrs. C. W. of Boswell, Oklahoma: "If you once sign up for Social Security as a minister, can you later drop out of the program?"

No.

From Mrs. J. S. F. of New York City: "My husband passed away two years ago. I collected the Social Security lump sum due me when he died. I'll be 62 in one year. Should I notify the Social Security people or do they automatically start paying me old age benefits?"

You must apply for all Social Security payments.

From C. E. T. of Phoenix, Ariz.: "I had about eight months in the Army during World War I, about half of that time overseas. I'm now 67 and drawing compensation for a 10 per cent disability I received in service. My present salary is $1,800 a year and I have one dependent. Am I eligible to switch to a vet's pension and receive $78.75 a month?"

From the facts you've given me, you appear to be eligible to receive either the compensation or a pension. Since the pension payment is higher, you should apply to receive it at the nearest VA regional office.

From B. H. W. of Knoxville, Tenn.: "I'm receiving Social Security. I became age 72 last March. Was I supposed to receive a raise in my payments at 72?"

Social Security payments aren't automatically raised at 72. But, there is no longer any limit on the amount of earnings you may have after that age.

From B. F. of Washington, D. C.: "I'm making considerably more than I thought I would this year. Since I'm receiving Social Security payments and it appears that my total for the year will be quite a bit more than the $1,200 limit, what should I do now?"

You should get in touch with the local Social Security office and ask to have your payments stopped. Then, if later your income drops off, you can ask to have the payments started again. Or, if you're due any payments for months you haven't received them, you'll be paid them at the end of the year.

From V. O. M. of Chicago: "I understand that nearly all kinds of work are now covered by Social Security. Can you tell me the kinds of work that aren't covered?"

The principal kinds of work not covered are self-employment as a doctor of medicine and employment in most federal jobs covered by a retirement system, including the employes of the Social Security system.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

THE FLYING HOUSE — 6
Home Again

It's great fun taking a trip, making preparations, and having adventures. But it's fun also to go home again.

Bill and Jill had been so excited flying they hadn't thought much about anything else. They had seen a good deal of the world and some of the space around it. There were still places to go, of course, but suddenly — without hardly saying a word — both decided that where they wanted to go next was home.

They studied the maps once more — Jill charted the way and Bill set the controls. When it was dark, Bill and Jill tossed their last two pennies into the Wishing Well and said clearly "We want to go home." In only a few moments, the Flying House was settling down in its accustomed place, right where it had stood for years.

"Everything looks just the same," said Bill next morning, "you'd hardly know we'd ever been away. The cloud's gone too. Maybe it was all a dream." But Jill had put her hand in her pocket and drawn out a small green parrot feather. "That's real enough," she said in a surprised voice. "Sure is," said Bill as he felt the feather to make sure. "Now we'll always know we had a Flying House, once upon a time."

After you have colored all six pictures of this week's story, mount them on stiff paper and tie them together into a book.

Local Draft Boards Step Up Physicals

Local draft boards will step up pre-induction physical examinations as Michigan sends 664 men into the armed forces during April, state selective service headquarters announced today.

★ ★ ★

The speed-up was called "in an effort to build up a dwindling manpower pool." A total of 2,512 Michigan registrants will be ordered for physical examination during April.

Wayne County boards will furnish 258 of the April inductees while the remaining boards in the state contribute 406 to the quota.

Oakland County boards No. 66 and 67 will call 22 and 27 men, respectively.

All April inductees will be at least 22-years-old with the exception of delinquents and volunteers. Local boards may accept volunteers from 17 through 26 for two years of active duty.

January Sees Drop in Traffic Deaths

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's traffic deaths in January totaled 2,860, a decrease of 3 per cent compared to January 1956, the National Safety Council reported yesterday.

The Council said it was only the second monthly decrease in traffic deaths in the last two years. The first was last October, which showed a lower death toll than during the previous October.

Best records, among the states, for decreased traffic deaths in January, were Nebraska, which had a drop of 63 per cent; and North Dakota, 60 per cent.

The three biggest cities with perfect records were St. Paul Oklahoma City and Norfolk, Va.

Engine From England

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Britannia, world's biggest commercial airliner, will be grounded here for quite a spell.

A spokesman for Canadian Pacific Airways said today an engine is to be sent here from England. The Britannia had been scheduled to fly to New York today and thence back to England.

The 130-passenger Bristol turboprop plane developed an oil leak 1,200 miles out of Vancouver, B. C. Wednesday enroute to Honolulu. It flew here with one propeller feathered.

State Policy Benefits Exceed $100 Million

Michigan families received $108,473,000 during 1956 in death benefits from their life insurance companies, the Institute of Life Insurance reports. These payments were made under 61,166 policies.

The 1956 death payments compare with $94,665,000 the year before, under 57,507 policies.

"The death benefits paid in this state last year were 123 per cent more than ten years ago," the Institute commented. "In 1946, they amounted to $48,725,000 under 29,197 policies. The increase has been primarily a reflection of the greater amount of life insurance owned and not a rise in death rates, which declined nationally about one-fourth in these years. Ownership of life insurance in this state increased 172 per cent between the start of 1946 and the start of 1956."

Of the 1956 death claim payments in the state, $55,983,000 was under 20,564 ordinary life insurance policies; $43,537,000 was under 14,258 group life insurance certificates, and $8,952,000 was under 26,344 industrial life insurance policies.

Way the Ball Bounces, Trophy Winner Finds

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The translation service of the Federal Trade Bureau here got the answer for an advertising firm.

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

Freedom's Vote

The Voice of America which has just celebrated its 15th anniversary was founded as an offshoot of our propaganda effort in World War II.

In the early days it spoke in five languages over a few privately owned radio transmitters. Today it broadcasts in 43 languages over a world wide network of 78 stations.

Overseas transmitters are located at Tangier, North Africa; Munich, Germany; Salonika, Greece; Manila and San Fernando in the Philippines; Honolulu, H.I.; Okinawa; Colombo, Ceylon; Wooferton, England and the Greek Island of Rhodes. Transmitters in Germany, the Philippines and Okinawa are the world's most powerful.

In this country there are 14 transmitters on the East Coast and six at Bethany, Ohio. On the West Coast there are 10, at Delano and Dixon, Calif.

A high level commission appointed to study activities of the United States Information Agency (USIA) had high praise for the Voice of America and two suggestions. One was that high officials and members of Congress avoid conflicting statements which tend to create confusion abroad. The other was that President Eisenhower "spell out to the world the intentions and policies of the United States more frequently."

★ ★ ★

As a key part of USIA the Voice's work must be closely tied to official government foreign policy. Although in comparison with Soviet propaganda efforts ours is on a modest scale, we have succeeded in giving the world a better picture of America than it had in 1942.

Britain Cuts Forces

Great Britain has announced that for economic reasons it must cut down its military establishment which costs about nine per cent of the gross national product, by 65,000 men.

★ ★ ★

Of these 30,000 will be withdrawn from Germany and this is of great concern to NTAO's General Norstad, Allied Commander in Europe. But Britain plans to maintain the same number of divisions in West Germany by streamlining them and increasing the fire power. In addition, withdrawals are to be spread over a two year period which should give West Germany time to build up its own army.

★ ★ ★

From time to time there have been reports that the U.S. has stockpiled atomic warheads in France for use in case of Soviet attack. Guided missiles also are expected to play an important role in the defense of Europe.

While the cutback in British manpower is to be regretted, the changing pattern of defense may reduce the number of troops needed.

Japan's New Premier

The new Premier, Nabusuki Kishi, a leader of the dominant Liberal-Democrat party, had already indicated no changes would be made. His action shut off the Socialist's demand for a new general election.

Mr. Kishi is called pro-American in Japan and he has said repeatedly that his country must preserve its ties with the U.S. not only for its own sake but for the sake of peace. He broke with Premier Tojo's wartime leadership in 1944 and never faced trial as a war criminal although he was in prison for a time. He is an anti-Communist and a friend of the United States.

★ ★ ★

In a recent address Premier Kishi said that "henceforth Japan's displomacy is to move on two wheels; respect for the United Nations and co-operation with the free democracies."

There is every reason to believe that Japan will continue to expand its influence in world affairs under the leadership of its new conservative Prime Minister.

The People's Business

Conflicting Roles

Court Nominee, Justices Mix Law and Politics

By ROGER LANE

LANSING—A curious sidelight was cast late in the week on the recent wave of controversy over Michigan's system for picking State Supreme Court judges.

★ ★ ★

It came Thursday when Robert E. Childs, Detroit attorney and a Republican nominee for the high court, turned up as the attorney in a suit to knock the Democratic nominee for state highway commissioner off the April 1 ballot.

Republicans, and even some Democrats, have informally challenged whether John C. Mackie of Flint meets the statutory qualifications for the highway commissioner post.

But when it comes to a showdown, who appears as the legal brains of the forces to remove Mackie from the ballot but the Republican nominee in a constitutionally non-partisan Supreme Court campaign, who on Monday said:

"I am going to be a non-partisan candidate in this campaign. Let Mr. Voelker, who has taken a public oath to uphold the constitution, violate the people's will if he wants to."

Justice John D. Voelker is a Supreme Court justice and Democratic nominee to suceed himself—who presumably will sit in judgment on the Childs suit along with Justice Eugene Black, who nominated Voelker at the Democratic convention, and Justice Talbot Smith, a running mate of Voelker's in the coming election.

ANOTHER SIDE OF THE STORY

Of course there is another side to the story of Childs' role in the pending proceeding.

He is a lawyer for the Michigan Society of Professional Engineers, instigator of the suit, and has been for some time. Moreover he is a law professor at Wayne State University.

But which hat is he wearing in the present case? Regardless of the answer about half the people who are paying any attention will call it into question, one way or another.

And what about Justices Voelker, Black and Smith? When they decide the question presented by Childs, which hat will they be wearing?

Will it be that of a non-partisan Supreme Court justice, or will it be that of a Democratic nominee or nominator?

★ ★ ★

Or will these justices disqualify themselves from what in the public mind, at least, assuredly is a political case in which they have a stake, and let their Republican brethren on the court decide it?

WHERE ARE WE?

Here's the point.

Assuming that all those involved are the most honorable gentlemen possible—and certainly each one can assert some valid claim to public esteem; and assume the answer to each question is completely honest and truthful, assuming such answers are possible in a case like this, where are we then?

In a state of confusion, that's where.

Taking into account human nature and the ways of politics, doubts would persist in many quarters, breeding further disillusion with the cockeyed way in which the public sometimes carries on its business.

Not the least resulting frustration to the cause of good government is that in the maze of uncertainty and controversy the people are likely to lose sight on April 1 of the most important consideration, namely the qualifications of the candidates.

And on this vital question, where does Childs wind up in the public's appraisal of him as a lawyer if he loses the suit?

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Calls Ministry 'Happy Profession'

William Baker belongs to the "Happy Profession." For the Golden Rule far exceeds the slide rule in producing more abundant life, though both should work together. And Vitamin "R" is our most potent medicine. America critically needs 10,000 new mission churches and 20,000 clergymen.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

And now he is devoting his mature experience as a lifelong pastor to a mission project in the southwest section of that city.

We have a 10-acre plot, of which four acres are now cleared," he informed me.

"There is a six-room bungalow thereon, which we are now using as a Sunday School.

"And we also have a neat, attractive brooder house 25x40 feet which we have converted into a lovely little chapel in which we can place 150 chairs.

"We have 47 members, having started from scratch, and it is a most thrilling opportunity.

"For example, our next project is to convert a chicken house 25x96 feet into a picnic shed with plenty of tables. Then we shall start on a recreation center for children and young people.

"HAPPY PROFESSION"

In 1946, Ellery Sedgwick wrote an entertaining book titled "The Happy Profession" but he used that phrase to describe magazine editors.

In my extensive experience, I believe the clergy more nearly illustrate that heading.

For they are constantly striving to lift mankind upward. They try to plant roses (and mission churches) where thistles grew before.

★ ★ ★

In a lifetime of lecturing from pulpits of various religions, I have found clergymen generally happy and certainly optimistic. They irradiate confidence.

So I am happy to pay all of them a long deserved tribute. By their moral pioneering into new regions of this land, as well as into foreign continents, they have helped make the more abundant life a reality.

Consequently, I hope you talented high school and college men who haven't yet decided on a lifetime career, will think seriously of the ministry.

★ ★ ★

When we physicians and dentists and business leaders and farmers and salesmen and educators sit in the churches on the Sabbath, we need enthusiastic moralists to infuse us with new zeal.

The clergymen, in my estimation, holds the most helpful and vital role in modern America.

VITAMIN "R"

For a civilized Germany and Japan a few years ago were trying to destroy the moral heritage of 20 centuries. Yet they had all the latest chemical and manufacturing products of modern civilization.

★ ★ ★

So there is a vast difference between jet planes, TV and other late inventions, versus the unselfishness of the Golden Rule.

The Golden Rule is still far more valuable than the slide rule though they should go together. But we are woefully lacking in needed churches and moral leaders.

So, young men, build up attractive personalities. Win athletic letters as well as debating honors, for these qualifications make you far more influential with youth when you become clergymen.

And by all means learn "Public Platform Strategy," so send for that practical booklet, enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

These agencies are concerned with counselling to families and individuals, nursing care, medical research and character building. The purpose is often confused with the job of public tax-supported organizations such as the Oakland County Social Welfare department and the Bureau of Social Aid.

In times of financial emergency these two public agencies have responsibility for furnishing food, clothing, shelter and medical care to needy families and individuals. Demands for this type of help are so great, that they can only be met out of taxes.

The earlier letter in this column referred to a family whose child died of leukemia after a long illness. Family Service of Oakland County was involved. The child's mother asked us for advice about how she might eventually obtain aid in meeting her mounting medical bills, when this became necessary.

Our caseworker told the mother how she might apply for aid from the tax-supported agencies which normally help in this type of case.

The family did not use these agencies.

Family Service of Oakland County is a counselling agency. It provides professional guidance to troubled families.

Sincerely,
Estelia M. Martin

'Should Praise Police in Area'

I feel we should give our praise and thanks to the various police departments that are helping to reduce highway deaths in this area. I have always been under the impression that when one commits a crime, he is punished. If so, why should speeders be excused?

Laws are meant to be obeyed, and I am glad to see the area police are seeing that they are. If there is anything I can do to help them, I will back them 100 per cent. I believe that unmarked cars are necessary, and I understand the State recommended them.

If apprehending speeders is partly the answer to safer highways, let's support our police agencies and back them for carrying out the law.

War Bride Now Understands U.S.

I am the one who asked for better opportunities for Japanese war brides. Now I clearly understand the difference between people in this country and in mine. My country has been adopting America for its future. I may have been thinking a little selfishly about the freedom, etc., but I had expected it to compare with that in Japan.

I have discovered, and not only because I have been offered a job and so forth, that there are many people who are interested in helping us and treating us equally if we try hard enough to have faith in this country. I appreciate very much the help of The Pontiac Press and my employer.

'Pigeons Are Not Really That Bad'

Oh, come now, the pigeons aren't that bad. I enjoy them. Feel sorry for them, quite the gents, looking for bits of food on the busy streets in good ole Pontiac.

I've read some species are descended from rock doves, accounting for their love of high cement perches. They apparently pair for life and are very beautiful. What would writers and poets do without the word "dove?" And what about carrier pigeons, that do lots of good deeds?

Take a few of my tax dollars and clean up the Courthouse, and leave the doves in peace.

Pigeon Feeder

Reader Disgusted With City Justice

Apparently we are not supposed to have a pet. I bought a pedigreed cocker spaniel for my little girl who is an only child. She needs something to love and learn to care for. The dog never even so much as barks.

It seems to me that stray dogs should be picked up, not those with good homes. Twice ours was picked up while the strays ran loose. Police officers say they pick up dogs only if there's a complaint, and yet were also told no complaint was made about our dog, that he just happened to be near.

Both times he was taken to the shelter we paid board, room and fine. The first time he got distemper and the next time he had mange.

In December I left the dog and my little girl on the porch and was in the house only five minutes when they picked him up. The fine was $3.50, but we couldn't pay it right away, so it was raised to $8.00. That can mean a lot when your husband has been layed off all summer.

It just doesn't seem quite fair to take advantage of a person that tries hard to be a good citizen.

Readers Discuss Problems of Pets

Can a person really feel good inside when he takes someone's dog? We raised him from a pup and we are sick at heart. My daughter worked and saved money for a whole year to buy a collie. Now all she has left is toys, chain and a lot of other reminders.

We just hope he isn't permitted to wander around in a strange neighborhood because he might get hurt. And we certainly hope someone brings him back to our neighborhood.

Mrs. William Cardona
Milford

The person who picked up our dog might like to know she found her way home safely. A person who will steal a dog must want one very much, and we will be glad to give such people a pup when our dog has her litter in April. No one would steal a dog if he could see the look on our son's face when he called the dog and she didn't come.

The Animal Shelter has many dogs looking for homes. The next time anyone feels like picking up a dog, I suggest he ask himself how he would feel if it were his child's pet.

Barber's Bargain Cuts Bring 12-Hour Days

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Barber Aaron Musselman works 12 hours a day with only 15 minutes out for a meal. He has a constant stream of customers and no time for rest.

"The people I cut hair for are not rich," he explains.

Cairo's new Shepheard's Hotel (the first was burned) will cost $2,880,000.

Reflections

LINES

J. L. VOORHEES

Lines convey our thoughts on paper; our homes were lines; nature blends lines to make hills and flowing river; the lines we love the most are the lines we see on the faces of our parents.

Age etches lines on the faces of mankind with the tool of time. Our parents stood up and promised they would cherish each other; love chiseled the first tiny lines. When we came, responsibility started to work on other lines. After the toil of day, our father came home with lines of love around his eyes, then listened to our childish troubles; they made furrows in his brow.

M. E. SIPLE

The lines we appreciate esthetically are the lines we put on paper but the ones we love belong to us—the lines on the faces of father and mother. Revere them. Glorify them. They represent nobleness, kindness, and unselfish devotion to ideals of living.

Marines Clear Drill Instructor

Military Court Frees Accused Sergeant of All Mistreatment Charges

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C. (AP)—A Marine drill instructor charged with mistreating recruits at this basic training center was cleared of all charges here yesterday. One recruit said he considered the mistreatment involving him as something of a joke.

Sgt. Daniel J. Corey, 23, of Somerville, Mass., was charged with forcing Pvt. John L. Barone, 18, of Chester, Pa., to stuff candy into his mouth until Barone became ill.

Corey also was accused of pushing Pvt. Thomas Hayes, 19, of Lawrence, Mass., to the floor of a barracks.

★ ★ ★

The summary court-martial yesterday was the third trial here during the week of drill instructors charged with mistreating recruits. A fourth trial is to be held next week.

Barone testified he ate two candy bars with Sgt. Corey's permission, but started laughing and became choked.

★ ★ ★

Hayes testified Corey took him from a formation inside a barracks because he was out of step. Hayes said Corey lifted himself off the floor and while hanging from a clothes rack bar wrapped his legs around him (Hayes) and lowered him gently to the floor with a scissor's grip. Hayes said he regarded the incident as something of a joke and that he was not injured.

★ ★ ★

Cpl. William R. Walsh, 25, of Lyndhurst, N. J., charged with striking 11 recruits, tentatively is to face a special court-martial next Thursday. He is accused of violating a post general order against laying hands on recruits except for purposes of instruction.

Maximum sentence under a special court-martial is a bad conduct discharge, six months at hard labor, reduction in rank to private and loss of all pay during confinement.

Exams Urged to Save Eyes

Detection of Glaucoma Must Be Made Early, Says Specialist

LOS ANGELES (INS)—Mass eye examinations to reduce blindness from glaucoma, similar to mass chest X-rays to find signs of tuberculosis, are advocated by a leading eye specialist.

Dr. John M. McLean of Cornell University Medical College says glaucoma is one of the oldest diseases known to man and afflicts perhaps some 3,400,000 Americans. It is the nation's No. 1 cause of blindness.

He told a meeting of eye specialists in Los Angeles that all persons over 40 years of age should be examined for it.

The disease is characterized by increased pressure of fluids in the eyeball. It can be treated by surgery or by new drugs now available.

EARLY RECOGNITION

But as in other diseases, Dr. McLean said, early recognition and conscientious treatment can keep the ailment under control and avert blindness, which in the case of glaucoma tends to strike around the middle years.

Early symptoms often are much pain in one or both eyes and failing vision.

Dr. McLean said that when mass medical exams include glaucoma as a target to look for, experience has been that it occurs at a rate higher than tuberculosis and some other commonly recognized diseases.

Probation Officer Gets Office

By PETE LOCHBILER

In some respects, it's a better solution to the county's pressing space problem than many would suspect at first glance.

Partitions marked off the office for Gordon C. Pageau, 32, former Lake Orion school teacher, on the second floor stage of the county office building, 1 Lafayette St., once a Masonic Temple.

Although Pageau's office has no windows, as consolation the newcomer to the county staff does not suffer from cold drafts that sweep other offices located on the stage.

Floor-length windows create a problem that special storm windows have never put a stop to, Personnel Director John Witherup explains.

SITS IN COMFORT

Meanwhile, Pageau has been sitting comfortably in his windowless office. There's a fan in the ceiling for ventilation.

When summer comes, the story may be different.

Pageau has been on the job about a month with the temporary title of probation investigator. When his appointment is approved by the Michigan Corrections Commission, his main task will be to supervise traffic offenders placed on probation by Oakland County justices of the peace.

The newcomer takes the place of Leo F. Coyle, 27, the county's first justice court probation officer who resigned in January because of a bad driving record.

TAUGHT AT LAKE ORION

Pageau taught at Lake Orion High School two years. A native of Windsor, Ont., he is now a U. S. citizen.

Pageau served in the U. S. Navy during World War II. He was graduated in 1954 from Central Michigan College, where his major subject was biology. He is married and lives at 906 Sunset Rd.

The $4,300 a year position, the first in the state, was created after a decision by Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams that justice court probationary sentences were illegal without a probation officer.

Recalls Busy Moments in Bullpen of Prison

LOGAN, W. Va. (AP) — Charlie Bias, retiring after 24 years as county jailer, figured his most vivid memory was a weekend in 1937 when 247 persons were jailed. It was so crowded that 58 men had to be put in the bullpen together. That meant standing room only—and frequent fights.

"The skirmishes kept my officers and myself busy trying to maintain a semblance of order," Bias recalled.

Chiang 'Ready' to Invade Coast

Says Forces at Peak for Showdown Fight With Red China

TAIPEI (AP) — Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek declared today his Chinese Nationalist military forces are "at the peak now" for an invasion of the Communist Chinese mainland.

"All American aid I put to one use — to liberate our people on the mainland," Chiang told a group of visiting American newsmen.

He replied "yes" when asked whether his military forces and weapons, air power and landing craft would be able to launch an invasion of the heavily garrisoned China coast.

"It is a question of time," he said. "If our return is delayed it will hinder morale — we are at the peak now."

Asked whether he feared an invasion might touch off World War III, Chiang said there was "no danger of Russia intervening. Russia is a long way away."

The Nationalist leader claimed possession of facts and documents that he said showed the Soviet Union was waiting for a later date to start a worldwide conflict.

"The American people must believe in us," Chiang added. "You can take it from me all we want is moral and material support. We don't want troops."

Follow Regular Beauty Routine

Hair is brushed forward from the smooth crown into a wispy, partly transparent bang. A short version of that popular bouffant look. The hair style was created by a New York designer "especially for spring."

The humble cake of soap is the basis of beauty secrets, according to more than one cosmetologist. Washing the face with a thorough cleanser best suited for your skin type paves the way to smooth application of powder base, powder and rouge, or whatever components make up your own beauty routine.

Your eyes take on a fresh kind of beauty with the correct application of eye makeup. In choosing eye makeup, select the color flattering to your own complexion tone.

And just before you leave the house for a social event or a trip to the grocery store, dab a certain amount of your favorite perfume behind your ears. It gives a faint but pleasing scent and adds to your attractiveness.

Let Daughter Build Her Own Life

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Some people feel that parents nowadays neglect their children too much, but judging by my mail, it isn't so.

Many parents evidently still feel that they have a right, if not an obligation, to live their children's lives for them, or at least to overguide them.

Take this letter from a mother in Indiana:

"Our daughter, who is 21, and a college graduate, tells us she wants to join the WAVES. She says she's really interested in it, that it won't be forever, but that she'll have interesting duties and will learn a lot.

"However, her father and I are not happy about it. She'll be regimented and, anyway, it's so unfeminine for a girl to wear a uniform and work for the Navy.

★ ★ ★

"They'll probably send her halfway around the world, too. She's never been away from this city—she went to college here and spends vacations on my family's farm, 30 miles away.

BAD MISTAKE?

"Don't you agree that this would be a bad mistake for her?"

My answer to this woman is a two-fold one.

First, let the girl become a Wave, by all means. It's unbelievable in this day and age that a girl should never have been away from home once in 21 years. This really sounds like over-protection.

Some of the most attractive and feminine girls I know are wearing uniforms and working for one or another of the services.

And maybe, with a chance to leave home and Mother, she'll have a chance to develop into a real person and live a real life!

★ ★ ★

And second, I think this mother should take steps to get some real interest of her own—some hobby or volunteer work or even a job which will enable her to live her own life and stop living her daughter's.

DISASTROUS RESULT

I know the motive is love, but the result, as far as the girl is concerned, can be disastrous. Moreover, the mother in failing to develop some talent of her own, is missing a chance at fun for herself.

★ ★ ★

If you have this kind of problem, send me six cents in postage and I'll send you a copy of my Housewives Career Guide. It gives pointers on hobbies and jobs which the woman without business experience can succeed in.

Suzanne L. Houghton, Raymond Baber Speak Marriage Vows in Ionia Church

In a service performed today at noon before their immediate families, Suzanne Louise Houghton of Brightwood court and Raymond Baber Jr. of Birmingham were married. The Rev. George Rentschler officiated at the rite.

Suzanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd L. Houghton of Ionia, and Raymond's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baber of Lake Orion.

For the wedding in the chapel of Ionia's First Presbyterian Church the bride chose a ballerina-length dress of Dupioni pure silk featuring a scoop neckline. Alencon lace trimmed the gown, and back fullness was accented by tiny bows of matching material.

Her headpiece was a pillbox of Dupioni silk accented with seed pearls. The fingertip veil was of pure silk illusion and the bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of stephanotis centered with purple violets.

The neckline was accented with Venise lace, and her headpiece was a half crown formed of braid and irridescent sequins, with a tiny veil attached. She carried a spring bouquet of cultivated Japanese iris.

ASSIST BRIDEGROOM

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Baber's choice was a navy blue crepe dress with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of crimson rosettes.

Following a reception at Corcoran's, the new Mrs. Baber changed to a gray wool crepe sheath dress with a matching jacket and gray accessories. The purple violet cluster from the bridal bouquet was the only color accent.

The bride was graduated from Central Michigan College and the University of Michigan, and the bridegroom is a graduate of General Motors Institute of Technology.

Married today in Ionia were Suzanne Louise Houghton of Brightwood court and Raymond Baber Jr. of Birmingham. Suzanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd L. Houghton of Ionia, and Raymond's parents are the Raymond Babers of Lake Orion.

Their Hosts Play Cards for Money

By EMILY POST

The first letter in today's mail asks: "How can one tactfully handle this situation? We very much enjoy the company of several couples to whose houses we are often invited to dinner. However, after dinner the host usually suggests a card game for the men. They play for rather high stakes.

"My husband is not very lucky at cards and usually loses, which he really cannot afford to do. Isn't it improper to invite guests for dinner and then ask them to play cards for money?"

Answer: Considerate hosts should never ask their guests to play cards for money unless they know definitely that they are accustomed to doing so and know the stakes which they can afford. In any case, it is entirely proper for one to say frankly, "I am sorry but I cannot afford to play for such high stakes."

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am presently with a firm that employs about 50 people. The management opens all mail that comes into the office from firms with whom we do business, even though the letter is addressed to a particular person or to the attention of a particular person.

"I maintain that this is not only rude and impolite but downright improper, and that letters addressed to a particular person should be given to him unopened. Your opinion will be appreciated."

Answer: I agree with you. Letters addressed to a particular person or to the attention of a particular person should be put on his or his secretary's desk unopened.

Association of Women's Groups Holds Election, Program in Royal Oak Friday

Mrs. Forrest E. Brown of Pontiac was elected president of the Oakland County Federation of Women's Clubs Friday at the meeting held at Oak Ridge Women's Club House in Royal Oak.

Other officers elected were members from the Oak Park Club, the Berkley Club, Lake Orion and Birmingham.

Hostess club for the annual meeting was the Clawson Women's Club.

The Clawson High School Chorus under the direction of Claude Slaughterbeck, presented several selections.

A highlight of the program was a talk on "Women in Exile," given by Mrs. Zalo W. Schroeder of Detroit, chairman of International Relations for the National Federation of Women's Clubs.

Outgoing president, Mrs. James Sheeran of Pleasant Ridge, announced the nursing scholarship. Applications from various clubs should be mailed to her.

Don't Look Like Cheshire Cat but Do Smile

A sullen expression can spoil the appearance of the prettiest girl. If your natural expression is a downward, droopy one, this is the time to start turning it into a pleasant one.

You needn't go around looking like a Cheshire cat or Pollyanna, but it's just as easy to look pleasant as it is to look grumpy. And you'll find that it will do something special for you in that it's hard to feel grumpy while you're looking pleasant.

For awhile, you'll have to work at it consciously but after a time, a pleasant look will come naturally. Remember, a million girls can look pretty, but what lifts one in a million into true and rare beauty is a radiant and glowing look.

Safe to Wash

A welcome addition to easy living is an enameled electric casserole which can be immersed in hot soap or detergent suds for thorough dishwashing. A removable thermostat plug makes it safe to dunk this useful utensil.

St. Michael Is Setting for Wedding

Martha De Rousse, Charles Thompson Exchange Vows

Martha Lou DeRousse became the bride of Charles L. Thompson in a ceremony performed this morning in St. Michael Church. The Rev. Norman Thomas read the 9 o'clock service in the presence of 160 guests.

★ ★ ★

Martha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. DeRousse of Oliver street, wore a ballerina-length gown of Chantilly lace over net. The full skirt was formed of three tiers of ruffled net with an overskirt of lace.

Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace with matching earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried an arrangement of pink and white carnations centered with a gardenia on her prayerbook.

Charles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Thompson of Auburn Heights, asked his brother, Glenn Thompson, to serve as best man. Ushers were William Davis and Gary Shore.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. DeRousse chose a dress of navy blue trimmed in white lace. Her accessories were navy blue and she wore a corsage of red and white carnations.

Shirtwaist Dress Shows New Feeling of Fullness

There's a new feeling in fashion, a fullness so soft and seemingly uncalculated that one is hardly aware of it except that the general overall appearance is one of extreme femininity.

★ ★ ★

Mollie Parnis handles this new feeling with great subtlety in a charming version of a shirtwaist, its bodice slightly bloused — as are the three-quarter sleeves. The sleeve treatment is especially noteworthy since it is now being seen more and more frequently.

True to her fine sense of styling, Miss Parnis sets the collar well away from the neck, and in front cuts it in one with the front pieces of the bodice so that it gracefully rolls over.

The skirt is a beautiful exclusive designer-sized pattern with its accurate perforations that assure professional results in any drapeable, pliable material such as printed silk or rayon crepe, surah, pima cottons, thin wools.

Sizes	Bust	Waist	Hips Inches	Length From Nape of Neck to Waist
10	34	24	35	16½
12	35	25	36	16¾
14	36½	26½	37½	17
16	38	28	39	17¼
18	40	30	41	17½
20	42	32	43	17¾

Size 16 requires 7⅞ yards of 39-inch material for dress. To order Pattern 1302, state size, enclose $1, Address American Designer Patterns, Box 535, G.P.O. Dept. P-6, New York 1, N.Y.

Classic Pattern Booklet 12 and a new Pattern Booklet 13-X are available for 50 cents each. If paid by check, add four cents.

Baked Potato Treat

A baked potato treat that's delicious! Take the potatoes from the oven of your gas range, slice off mash with a fork, stir in 1 tablespoon milk and 1 of cottage cheese, 1 teaspoon minced onion and 1 teaspoon minced green pepper—for each potato, that is. Season with salt and pepper, and don't forget the butter—and plenty of it—before refilling the shells.

Club Sees Doll Collection

Speaking to the group gathering Thursday at Hotel Waldron, Mrs. Pettengill said that each doll was dressed in an authentic costume representing its country.

Beginning with the English doll, a typical guard from Buckingham Palace, Mrs. Pettengill displayed dolls dressed in Parisian finery, colorful Tyrolean costumes, delicate christening outfits from the province of Brittany, and the bucolic costume of the Irish country woman.

The speaker explained the custom of the Portuguese fishermen, the celebration and costuming when the boats return to the villages.

★ ★ ★

Announcement was made of the Monday meeting of the women's service clubs at Birmingham Community House, where plans for the future Girls' Ranch will be discussed.

Guests at the meeting were Hazel Welch of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Zonta Club, Grace Hewitt, Mrs. Frank Coad and Bobbie Susan Jackson.

Brilliant color should be used with discretion. For example, don't wear a bright red dress under a bold tweed coat. A black dress tones down the bold pattern.

Combining brilliant red dress with striking black and white tweed coat is letting your urge for color run amuck. All black dress or red blouse with black skirt is a much smarter choice to tone down the tweed.

Member Welcomed

Wilma Horning of Detroit was welcomed as a member of the Sew and Chatter Club at the Thursday meeting in the South Marshall street home of Mrs. Glen Dolan. The group sewed on cancer pads. Mrs. Theodore Carlson served as cohostess and Mrs. Frank Glowsinski was a guest.

Follow Quick Grooming Routine

Don't Panic When Someone Calls

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

It always happens! The night you planned to spend in grooming (rolling up your hair, banishing superfluous hair, giving yourself a careful manicure and luxuriating in a warm soapy bath) the telephone rings.

Is it someone you don't mind missing? Is it someone you can see any old day? Certainly not! It is more apt to be that date you have been waiting for, or in-laws you haven't seen for 10 years. Even more likely it is a close out of town friend who has just arrived in your city and would like to dash out for a few hours or a few minutes.

Your hair is probably as straight as a stick or discouragingly wispy and your nails may be far from perfect, and you may have literally MINUTES to pull yourself together into some semblance of good looks. You feel panic breathing down your neck. However, don't! System will turn the trick.

First give your hair a pickup with a few pin curls in crucial areas. Use your cologne atomizer or a spray net to dampen and set it. These dry in a matter of minutes. Do not use water.

Next get out the clothes you are going to wear. Then head for the shower. We usually think of a shower as a man's prerogative because practically all men prefer them. Most women choose the bathtub. However, there are crucial times when the shower saves minutes.

Therefore, it is a fine idea to keep a shower cap for times when you are rushed. Use a soapy sponge or washcloth for a brisk rub-down. Rinse well, allowing the water to cool gradually.

There are some crucial times when the shower saves minutes, and it is a fine idea to keep a shower cap for times when you are rushed.

If you have a terrycloth robe you can put that on instead of taking time to dry yourself. This time saved can be spent in applying makeup. Put on your clothes and comb out your hair at the very last.

If you have a few minutes to spare soak your fingers in warm soapy water, then dry and push back the cuticle. Buff the nails or patch the polish. All of this will take not more than 30 or 40 minutes.

If you would like to have my leaflet "Reconditioning at Home" send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 49 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Instead of ironing hair ribbons, take them straight from the washing and wind them around a smooth glass. When dried thoroughly they'll be fresh and unwrinkled.

Use Good Light When You Apply Morning Make-Up

A good light is a girl's best friend when she's applying makeup. If you don't think so, just take a look at the women on early morning buses. What looked fine under a dim light looks hard, bold and glaring in the merciless white or gray daylight.

Get a clear white bulb and don't shade it in pink. If it reveals to you flaws you'd rather not see, do something constructive about them.

Blend your rouge carefully, use powder with a light puff and give your lipstick five or ten minutes before you blot it carefully.

Housewife Should Learn to Count Her Blessings

When She Grows Envious or Weary, She Has Many Joys to Remember

By RUTH MULLETT

A wife and mother should remind herself occasionally—

When she grows weary of cooking three meals a day, that it is a real blessing to have a man to cook for. The only woman who has any excuse for being bored with cooking is the woman who cooks only for herself and eats alone.

When she is fretting because with small children around she can't keep the house in order, that there will be plenty of years later when the house will be quiet and orderly — and LONELY.

When she finds that what SHE thinks seems to have less and less influence on her children, that their opposition to some of her ideas only means that they are beginning to think and figure things out for themselves.

When she envies some successful career woman her exciting job, that there isn't any more challenging job in the world than creating a happy home.

When she grows restless at being "tied down," that being needed by others is absolutely necessary to most women's happiness.

When she feels that all she does for her husband and children is pretty much taken for granted, that the only real satisfaction of any job is the self-knowledge that it is being done to the best of one's ability.

When she is sure that her husband's job if full of excitement and adventure compared to hers, that if that were so why does he look forward to the weekends when he can be at home?

★ ★ ★

Many of a housewife's attitudes she picks up from other women. It's well for a woman to remind herself occasionally that there may not be any real reason for her to feel the way she does.

Sweater Shirts Essential Items

For active sportsmen, tennis sweaters include two basic styles—the classic pullover and the button-front cardigan. The true tennis sweater, which was designed by one of America's great tennis champs, is the Tilden V-neck pullover with its white cable-stitched body and blue and red band around the neck and cuffs.

★ ★ ★

A variation, styled in pullover length, is a soft wool cardigan in a bulky knit that buttons all the way. It sports a turn-up shawl collar and cigarette pocket that actually is roomy enough to hold your favorite brand.

★ ★ ★

Needing no introduction are the long-sleeved sweater-shirts which first captured the fancy of men across the nation last fall. Today, they are fast becoming an essential item in every man's sports wardrobe. Their perfect-fitting collar and hand-detailed placket insure comfort and a neat appearance.

Beauty Hint

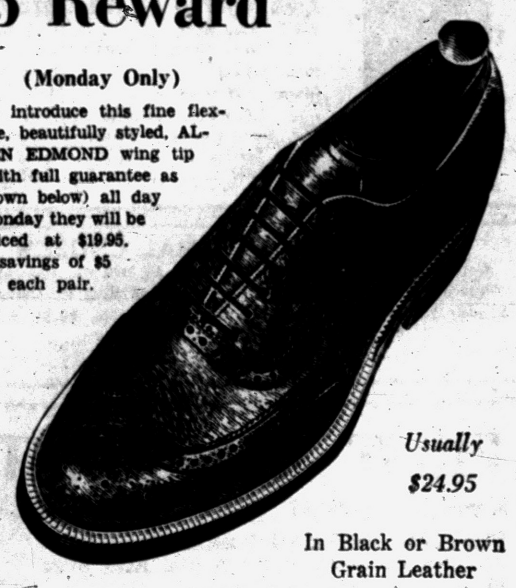

After a pamper night at home, follow your leisurely bath with a good night's sleep. Try putting a few drops of your favorite scent on a cotton ball and pinning it to the inside of your pillow. It adds a distinct feeling of luxury.

Billy Graham Film Scheduled Sunday

The Silvercrest Baptist Church, Dixie Highway at Rosemary St., will show the Billy Graham film, "Souls in Conflict" at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

This is the story of three people, a jet pilot, an actress and a factory worker, in life's struggle. Dr. Graham will bring a message in the picture and George Beverly Shea and Cliff Barrows will be leading the huge choir. The picture was taken with the Graham London Crusade as a background. It is in natural color.

Confident Living

Fill Mind by Faith, Hope, Courage to Renew Vitality

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

It was shortly after midnight. I had made a speech in Cleveland and was in Union Station there waiting for my train back to New York. Feeling hungry, I sat down at the lunch counter for a bedtime snack.

A wiry, bundle-of-energy sort of man took the seat next to mine. He looked familiar. So I turned and found he was an old friend, Walter H. Judd, United States Congressman from Minnesota. We started to talk, and in no time at all he was making a fascinating speech to me on the world situation. Soon some others were listening to his amazing ability to interpret events.

DR. PEALE

It was a wonderful experience. Walter Judd just gave out inspiration and zest and energy. "Walter," I asked him, "where do you get all this energy?"

SIMPLE RULE

"It's simple," he answered. "Believe in what you're doing and only do what you believe in. If I get to fooling around with things I think I ought to do, but don't really believe in, it wears me out and I get tired. But, if I believe in what I'm doing and do what I believe, I have the time of my life and my energy never runs down. In addition, I have one basic rule of living: "Do the best you can and leave the rest to God."

★ ★ ★

Then he went on to tell me about a recent visit his wife had with Mrs. Eisenhower. The First Lady told Mrs. Judd a charming story about the President which is worth repeating. As Congressman Judd told it to me, it went something like this:

"Sometimes at night when he is tired and perhaps might be justified in being worried, Ike gets into bed and says something like this, 'Lord, I've done the best I can today, and I'm grateful for your help. Doubtless I muffed a few. You take over from here.'

"And," added the President's wife to Mrs. Judd, "he just turns over and goes to sleep."

President Eisenhower knows that God is with him while he is working, and he also knows that God works on while he sleeps. That is real faith and real prayer. A wonderful secret of life is simply to do the best you can, with God's help, and then, when you have done your best, to put it all in God's hands and trust in Him that everything will come out all right.

★ ★ ★

If a President of the United States can do it, faced with so many world-shaking problems and decisions every day — and President Eisenhower is far from being the first President to follow this sensible practice — think how much easier it is for you, with your own comparatively minor problems, to do the same.

RE-CREATIVE FORCE

It is easy to permit our spirit to die down, to become drab and dull. Fortunately, there is in this universe a re-creative life force. God is both Creator and Re-creator. At the beginning of your life, God created you, and He has the power to re-create you constantly.

You can put yourself in contact with this great re-creative force by going to church, by saturating your mind with the dynamic truths of the Bible, and by praying. By filling your mind with thoughts of faith, hope, courage and the greatness of God, you perpetually renew energy and vitality. Practice living that way, and as you master the art, you will enjoy dynamic life.

Blinded Koreans See New Future

Church Builds Village, Gives Adults Skills to Earn Their Way

Thirty-two Korean families with one or both parents blind have moved from makeshift shelters along a dike, or under bridges, or in a riverbed at Taejon, into comfortable, two-family cottages that make "Heavenly Light Village," south of Taejon.

Their new homes were constructed of materials from Korea Civil Assistance Command. Church World Service, which provided funds for construction of the homes from American donors, reports the progress.

The blind colony, developed by Mrs. Dexter Lutz, wife of the agricultural director of the Union Christian Service Center, has a Bible Club Primary School attended by 50 children and an active 4-H Club. Its "Virginia Milk Kitchen" serves 150 cups of hot milk gruel daily.

Blind adults are taught to make straw rope by machine, to weave, knit, or make bamboo baskets in a program of industrial training sponsored by American Foundation for Overseas Blind.

Men who have never before earned money and people who supposed that they would always remain beggars are now helping to support their families. This program is the only one of industrial training for blind people within a large area of Asia.

Scholarship Drive On

Fifty thousand dollars for Crusade Scholarships is the top request from the Division of National Missions for the Methodist Church's "Week of Dedication" March 3 to 10. Nine home mission needs, which it is hoped the Week's gifts will provide, bring the total national missions askings to $280,000. Adding the needs in overseas missions and in other services, the total asked is in excess of $800,000.

Lutherans Seek $38 Million Fund for 'God's Bank'

St. Louis, Mo. businessmen and clergymen who will spearhead a drive for funds for "God's Bank" met recently at the world headquarters of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod here.

"God's Bank" is the name for the Synod's Church Extension Fund, which furnishes loans to the 32 North American districts of the church body for purchase of church sites, and erection of church buildings and parsonages.

The men, who are being tagged "tellers," will spend several weeks of full-time effort on obtaining deposits for the fund by Lutheran people throughout North America. Ultimate objective is a 38 million-dollar revolving fund which would enable the synod to continue its current goal of 1350 new congregations in the next ten years.

Protestant TV Studio Dedicated in Atlanta

A new $250,000 TV studio was dedicated at the Protestant Radio and Television Center in Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 18-19.

"Now we shall be able to interpret the Christian message in action and color as well as sound," Dr. John Alexander, president of the center declared.

The center is owned jointly by five denominations — Methodist, Episcopal, United Lutheran, Presbyterian U. S. and Presbyterian U. S. A. Its radio shows are currently distributed to some 740 stations in this country and the Armed Forces radio network.

During his college and theological studies, he directed Camp Manikomos, a Christian camp for girls and boys in northern New Jersey.

The Rev. Mr. Place has directed the weekly radio program "Youth Vespers" and the daily "Morning Meditations."

Youth for Christ International has reached into 79 nations of the world with the message of the Gospel and into every state of this nation with youth rallies, and high school Bible club ministries. Its work among youth delinquents is known as Youth Guidance program.

The choir under the direction of Bill Coffing will sing two selections.

The Sunday School is now conducting an eight week attendance contest. The goal is 557 in 1957. Last Sunday 517 were present.

The Rev. Theodore R. Allebach will preach on "Putting Away Childish Things" Sunday morning.

Puerto Ricans Ordain First Woman Minister

Puerto Rican Methodists, at their 1957 annual conference session recently, ordained the first woman minister, laid the cornerstone for an $80,000 church and reported gains in membership and enrollment.

Together with six men ordained as elders, Mrs. Julia Torres Fernandez was ordained a deacon by Bishop Fred P. Corson, Philadelphia. A junior high school supervisor in Ponce, Puerto Rico's second largest city, Mrs. Fernandez has been an active Methodist 30 years, president of the conference Woman's Society of Christian Service and a supply preacher.

Luther League to Give Service

'Where Jesus Walked' to Be Theme of Sunday Worship Hour

Youth Sunday will be observed in St. John's Lutheran Church tomorrow with members of the Luther League, the young people's group, presenting "Youth Fellowship Service" at 11 a.m.

★ ★ ★

The theme of the service will be "Where Jesus Walked." The life and work of Jesus during His short three year ministry before the Crucifixion will be presented in a manner that will be challenging to the worshipers of today.

Eddie Santala, president of the Luther League, will be in charge of the service.

Also included in the service will be Gerald Larson, Linda Ryden, JoAnn Folsom, Delores Gustavson, Bruce Quayle, Edwina Palmer and Carol Ann Westness.

The choir will sing "The Son of Man Goes Forth to War" by Warring and Mrs. LaVon Ryden will sing "I 'Walked Today Where Jesus Walked" by O'Hara.

★ ★ ★

At 6 p.m. the young people will meet for their regular weekly meeting in the church and continue the observance of Youth Sunday at that time.

TV Film Shows Daily Life of 'White Doctor' in Africa

A television documentary on missionary medicine which has drawn unprecedented praise from professional groups and lay viewers will be repeated "by demand" Tuesday night.

It is "Monganga," latest in the prize-winning March of Medicine sponsored by Smith, Kline & French Laboratories, Philadelphia pharmeceutical manufacturers. The full-hour report, in compatible color, will be shown at 9:30 p.m. EST over the NBC-TV network.

Hundreds of viewers sent a flood of enthusiastic letters, telegrams, and cards—many asking to see the program again.

The National Council of Churches through Dr. S. Franklin Mack, executive director of the Council's Broadcasting and Film Commission, declared: "Monganga has brought more expressions of appreciation from church people than any other program in recent years. Never had the work of a medical missionary been portrayed more appealingly, nor with greater fidelity.

★ ★ ★

Dr. George F. Lull, secretary-general manager of the American Medical Association, asserted: "Never has a television documentary so beautifully portrayed the prime object of the medical profession—'to render service to humanity.'" Dr. Lull said the program was "an experience not to be missed."

PORTRAYS MISSION WORK

"Monganga" is Knundu dialect for "white doctor." The show, tribute to the American missionary everywhere, focuses on Dr. John Ross, who since 1950 has ministered to the physical and spiritual needs of natives in the village of Lotumbe.

In his hospital, surgery is always preceded by prayer. In the mission compound, each day begins with the communal singing of hymns.

Beyond his roles as physician and man of God, his concern over the living conditions of the natives has made him an expert carpenter, brick-maker and a field-construction engineer.

This is the man who decided to become a medical missionary after death claimed the lives of his first four children, two within 10 days. John Ross was then a minister in California. He was 36 years old—"too old," his friends counseled, even to consider returning to school to become a doctor.

John Gunther, author of "Inside Africa," is principal narrator for the film. Andre Cauvin, European and African cinematographer who holds a Venice Film Festival award, directed Monganga.

March of Medicine, produced in cooperation with the American Medical Association, was the first television series to win the Albert Lasker Award for Medical Journalism. Smith, Kline & French laboratories has pioneered both closed circuit TV presentations for doctors and network medical programs.

Mrs. Richard Moore, an American Indian, to Discuss Missions

A World Day of Prayer Communion Service under the auspices of United Church Women will be held Friday in the First Presbyterian Church.

★ ★ ★

The program will begin at 9:45 a.m. Luncheon will be served at noon and the afternoon service will be at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Eva Spears is general chairman.

Mrs. Richard Moore, an American Indian from the Yakima Country, will be the speaker at 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

Following her address on "Protestant Mission Among American Indians," there will be a question and answer period.

The Tuxis Society will meet at 5:30 Sunday evening under the leadership of Al Brewer. The film, "Things That Count" will be shown and discussed. John Markley will provide refreshments.

Dr. William H. Marbach and the Rev. Galen E. Hershey with a number of Elders will attend the meeting of the Detroit Presbytery Tuesday at Bethany Presbyterian Church, Detroit.

A delegation of women with Mrs. H. H. Pattison, president of the Women's Association, will attend the monthly meeting of Detroit Presbyterial at Grace Church, Detroit.

The Lenten Youth Communicant classes will be held each Sunday until Easter at 4:30 p. m. Adult classes will be held at 9:30 each Sunday morning. The two pastors will be the instructors.

Hawaiian Lad Drew Attention

His Story Challenged Missionaries to Begin Work in the Islands

It was a Kona lad, Opukahaia, from Hawaii, who sent Christianity to the islanders. At 17, he shipped on an American vessel whose home port was New Haven, Conn.

He was found one day on the steps of a Yale University building, weeping because of his ignorance. He was taken in and trained.

The boy became well-known in the area, and his story aroused the first interest in missionary work in his home islands. A group of New England preachers was sent halfway around the world.

They were to convert a heathen despotism into a Christian monarchy, and the influence of their descendants was to play a part in bringing the islands under the United States.

A remarkable fertile field awaited these apostles. At Kailua Bay on the Kona coast, the pagan gods had been defied and the old tabus broken in 1819, shortly after the death of King Kamehameha I, who had united the islands.

REV. L. R. MINER

Speaking at the revival meetings in Liberty Baptist Church will be the Rev. L. R. Miner, pastor of the Macedonia Baptist Church. The revival will be held every night except Saturday from Monday through March 15. Choirs from other churches will present special music at the 8 p.m. services.

Psychiatry Links Religion in Firm New Partnership

ANN ARBOR—The old concept that religion and psychiatry are at odds with each other in theory and practice is no longer true. Partnership between them is now an established fact, a member of The University of Michigan's Mental Health Research Institute said recently.

The Rev. C. Leslie Glenn told the 18th annual Michigan Pastors Conference that "complete cooperation without compromise" now exists among professional ministers and psychiatrists. While all members of each profession do not like everything about the other, he said, "The time is past for suspicion based on ignorance."

Reverent Glenn said seminaries of all faiths are adding psychologists to their faculties and the armed forces are sending chaplains to school for a years training in psychiatric techniques. On the other hand, he added, "Psychiatrists are for the most part past their doctrinaire assumption that religion is an illusion without a future."

'Broken Fragments' Film to Be Shown

The Rev. Lee LaLone will show the film entitled "Broken Fragmens" at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in the Donelson Baptist Church, Elizabeth Lake road at Tilden.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Louis T. Talbot, chancellor of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles, recently made a trip through Egypt and photographed the people and country.

Shown in the picture are the Pyramids, the great temples of Luxor and Karnak, the Valley of the Kings and the interior of the tombs of the Pharaohs.

The Bible Institute has been training young people for Christian service for nearly 50 years. Dr. Talbot has made missionary surveys throughout the world that the school might better equip its students for service.

Brandon Votes Down 6 Mill Tax

A special six mill operating levy was turned down by a vote of 356 to 82 in the Brandon Township Schools District.

The money that would have been derived from this levy was to be used to meet the rising operating costs and to expand school facilities in this district.

It was the plan of the Board of Education to raise the teacher's pay from $3900 to $4,200, and to increase the maximum from $4,900 to $5,600. This alone would require about $20,000.

Other points considered were the addition of teachers to the staff due to increased enrollment and of a full time librarian. The full time librarian is urged by the University of Michigan, the institution that accredits our school.

Funds are also needed for equipment needed for the new High School that will be opened next fall.

CONSIDER TWO WAYS

The Board of Education is now concerned as to how to satisfy the educational needs. There are two ways to consider; one is to meet the salary demands of teachers and school personnel as is indicated by other schools in the area, the other is to supply needed equipment to carry on a good program. This without the voted increase in operating millage would have to be done by operating in the red.

The other alternative is to curtail the whole school system. This would mean the discontinuance of possibly art, music, band, shop and other courses now being taught.

* * *

The Board of Education also feels that the schools belong to the people. They, the people, are the ones to determine what they desire in the way of schools for their children.

Therefore, they are asking for the organization of a Citizens' Committee as in the past, each organization in the Brandon Township school district is asked to select two members to serve on this committee and have them present at a general meeting at the Brandon Auditorium, Wednesday, March 13, at 8.00 p.m.

THERE'S OUR CUE — These four students are waiting backstage for the curtain to go up as they rehearse for the annual talent show at Waterford High School sponsored by the Four Towns PTA. The affair is scheduled for Saturday, March 9 at 7:30 p.m. Featured in the show will be top to bottom, Karen Dovre, Joyce Shutt, Donald Bruce and Nancy Maynard.

Banquet Given for Dads, Sons

North Branch Group Has Eventful Evening in Local Church

NORTH BRANCH—With Raymond Ball serving as master of ceremonies, Steward Butterfield and son, Richard, highlighted the dinner program at the Father-Son banquet at the Methodist church this week, representing the fathers and sons at the assembly.

Group choral singing was supplemented by a tenor and alto duet, given by Mrs. Glenn Spencer and Duane Laur of this community.

Honors were bestowed on Mr. Ira Brown, oldest father present, and upon Fred Crawford as the youngest parent. Youngest son was John Hutchinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hutchinson. James Scrimgeour, Jr., and Archie Maybury tied for honors in appearing with highest number of sons, each accompanied by four.

Instruct First Aid Class in Rochester

ROCHESTER—A first aid course is being offered by the American Red Cross here on Tuesdays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the new Rochester High School beginning March 19. First aid requires 15 hours of classroom work, so will run from 7 to 8 weeks. Instructor for the course will be Marilyn Tweedle, Junior High School girls health education instructor. Motor Corps classes are available to those having passed the first aid course. Classes in nurses aid training are also offered.

Barn Raising Film Set for North Branch Club

NORTH BRANCH—A film, captioned "Barn Raising U. S. A.," will be shown at the meeting of the Adult Farmers' Class at the agriculture room of the high school Monday at 8 p.m. Floyd Ducker of Mayville will speak on the Care, General Management and Types of Farm Machinery." Coffee and doughnuts will be served after the meeting.

The Community Assn. here will serve a Chicken and Beef cafeteria supper at the Community Hall on Tuesday at 5:30 p.m. The public is invited.

Southfield Citizens Asked to Approve Bond Issue

SOUTHFIELD — Residents here will be asked to approve another bond issue for more class rooms as soon as the district's building needs have been surveyed.

A special meeting of the school board has been called for Monday at 8 p.m. at the High School, Lahser at 10 Mile road.

Superintendent of Schools, Glenn Schoenhals said the amount of the bond won't be decided until after the survey has been made.

The three and a half million dollar bond issue for building approved by voters in 1955 paid for the new Lederle Junior High School on 9 Mile road, additions to Brace, Anglin road and McKinley elementary school, the swimming pool for the high school and other building improvements.

It also paid for a five acre addition to the Anglin road school site, a 20 acre site on Evergreen road, at 11 Mile road and about 15 acres on 10½ Mile road west of Greenfield.

Schoenhals said the board is working with Southfield's land planner, James H. Hickey, in following a modified master plan.

The preliminary master plan calls for more than 300 acres for schools when all land is developed. About 100 acres are now being used for schools, in the 30 square mile southfield area.

Schoenhals said the new building program may be presented to the voter in June.

Agents Capture Accused Slayer

FBI, Flint Police Catch Escaped Prisoner After 3-Month Chase

FLINT (AP)—A three-month search for an accused murderer who broke out of the Genesee County jail ended yesterday when police found him working as a farm hand in Shiawassee County.

He tried to flee from the house as 10 Flint detectives and FBI agents crept toward the building. Police grabbed him as he dashed to a car at the rear of the building.

Flint police said they had been tipped Van Camp was in the area.

PHONED FUGITIVE

An FBI agent telephoned Van Camp from a nearby farm house ordering him to come out. He failed to appear. Another officer shouted to Van Camp to surrender from a portable loudspeaker. Finally Van Camp made the break from the house.

Van Camp made one more futile attempt to escape as he was being led toward the door of the county jail here. Police quickly overpowered him.

Van Camp had been working on the farm about four weeks under the assumed name of John B. Robinson. He had dyed his blond hair and had lost about 30 pounds.

He was held on a federal fugitive warrant.

Temperance Head Hits Liquor License Plan

LANSING (AP)—The Michigan Temperance Foundation today expressed alarm over a proposal to permit licenses to airport restaurants.

Ross J. McLennan, foundation director, said in a letter to members of the State Senate that the measure "is a weakening of our great home-rule form of government and increases the centralization of government which is not in the best interests of the American way of life."

Waterford Couple Wins Photo Honors

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sayles of Waterford Township won honors at the recent Professional Photographers of America convention held at Lansing.

They submitted six prints, and all were hung for display, receiving ribbons and plaques for distinction.

Can Sign Agreements for Land Placed in Acreage Reserve

Oakland County farmers will receive $42 an acre for land taken out of corn production and placed in the corn acreage reserve program, reports Arthur Mauch, Michigan State University agricultural economist.

Farmers have until March 8 to sign agreements under the program with their local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committees, Mauch said.

To be eligible a farmer must have a corn allotment and be willing to divert some of his allotment to acreage reserve for which he is given certificate payment.

Land already in the soil bank conservation reserve program cannot be used in the corn program, he added.

* * *

There is a limit of 20 acres or 30 per cent of the corn allotment, whichever is larger, but farmers can indicate a desire for extra acres which will be granted if funds are available, Mauch said.

The $42 an acre payment in Oakland was arrived at by multiplying a normal yield times a set price per bushel. Payment certificates can be redeemed in cash at face value or at 105 per cent of face value for government grain.

Auto Club Sees Calls for Service Reach New High

DETROIT (INS)—The Automobile Club of Michigan expects to receive a record number of calls for road service in 1957.

Robert C. Nisbet, auto club road service manager, said:

"The current year will undoubtedly bring the most trouble calls of any year in history. January alone saw calls up to 160 per cent.

"Even if other months are normal, we can expect 3,750,000 breakdowns in the state in 1957."

Nisbet said the club estimates 750,000 motorists ran into trouble during January.

* * *

"Nearly two-thirds of the drivers couldn't start their cars," he said, "while another 25 per cent got stuck in the heavy snows."

The service manager said calls to the club indicated Michigan garage men answered over 3,267,000 pleas for emergency aid last year, a 55,000 drop from 1955.

Nisbet estimated there were 1,889,000 "won't start" complaints in 1956, 571,000 flat tires, 437,000 calls for tow trucks because of snow or mud, and 144,000 for other reasons.

He said empty gasoline tanks stopped 97,000 drivers. Jammed or frozen locks brought 79,000 calls and wrecks 50,000.

Truman to Students: GOP Blocks Ike

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) — Former President Harry Truman spoke to some 750 Oklahoma Democrats at Oklahoma A&M College last night, accusing the Republican party of being more uncooperative toward President Eisenhower than the Democrats.

* * *

He was applauded by students and state party leaders who paid $10 a plate. The money is to finance a trip to Washington by several A&M students this summer. The banquet was sponsored by the A&M Chapter of the League of Young Democrats.

Truman said the Republican Congress of 1953 and 1954 "blocked the President's program, and after Sen. Taft died, the lid was off. The Republican congressmen kicked Republican Cabinet members around in the committee rooms of the capitol as if they were so many political footballs."

Earlier in the day, Truman told a news conference that farmers who voted for the Republican administration are "getting what's coming to them." He described that GOP policy as one "to put the farmers in their place and also labor in its place."

Catholic Service Unites Couple in Walled Lake

WALLED LAKE—Witnessing the marriage of Jeannette Catherine Lokuta and Richard John Mihalak in St. Williams Church here were 250 guests. The 9 a.m. nuptial mass took place with the Rev. Fr. John Foley officiating.

For her wedding the bride chose chose a gown of lace and French tulle. The bodice has a sweetheart neckline with long sleeves which tapered to points over her hands. The bouffant three tiered skirt has four panels of lace set in the tulle.

Securing her French tulle veil was a Juliet cap of seed pearls. To her white prayer book Jeannette fastened a corsage of shattered white carnations centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Paul Van Breemen attended her sister as matron of honor with Lois Wenz of Milford as bridesmaid. The flower girl was Sandra Mihalak of Pontiac, a niece of the groom.

The bridegroom is the son of John Mihalak and the late Mrs. Mihalak of Pittston, Pennsylvania and the bride is the daughter of Michael A. Lokuta and the late Mrs. Lokuta of Walled Lake.

Stephen X. Mihalak of Pontiac was best man for his brother and the guests were seated by Paul Van Breemen and Louis D'Argy of Sylvan Lake.

MISSING SOMETHING
You may be missing real top-notch performance from your TV set if your antenna is not in good condition. There is no real substitute for a well engineered and properly balanced TV antenna system. Regardless of the many stories circulated about coat hangers, lamp cords, light bulbs, etc., serving as an antenna, the fact remains that a good antenna is necessary for any make or model TV set. Common annoyances from improper antennas are ghosts, double images, flickering pictures, flashes across the screen, and snow. Also, even if you have the proper type of antenna, it may need repair. Tests have proven that TV lead-in wire decreases in efficiency an average 25% in a normal two year period of use. Consult your neighborhood County Electronics Association Member for competent advice concerning your antenna problems.

Hollywood Headlines

Yvonne Abandons Desert to Star With Clark Gable

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — It's a big jump from queen of the sex-and-sand epics to Clark Gable's co-star, but Yvonne de Carlo has made it.

The Vancouver, B. C., vamp is now playing opposite the King in "Band of Angels." A year ago, folks would have said it couldn't happen. But that was a year ago.

Yvonne herself realizes the change in her career. She has always been realistic and down-to-earth.

"It has been a combination of circumstances," she said. "For one thing, there was 'The 10 Commandments.' And at the same time, I changed agents."

Changing agents is a popular pastime with the stars who want action in their careers. In Yvonne's case, it worked. Her new agent was also Gable's and he was seeking a costar for "Band of Angels."

But a berth with Gable would not have been possible except for the DeMille epic. Yvonne was cast as the wife of Moses and surprised everyone. The film featured some pretty horrendous acting, and Yvonne's calm, workmanlike job stood out brilliantly.

Yvonne's success may also be due to the fact that she is a better performer than she was in the days when she presided over Universal's desert dramas.

"They didn't even give me a chance to do anything important over there," she remarked. "And I wasn't too selective when I got out. I loved to travel, and when somebody said there was a picture I could do in Timbuktu, I'd start packing my bag."

Eventually she settled down, married stunt man Bob Morgan and had a baby son, Bruce. She also settled down to improving her dramatic abilities.

in Recruiting Engineers Hits 'Industry Hysteria'

EDGEWATER PARK, Miss. (AP)—Rep. Davis (D-Ga) today asked industry to help stop what he called "mass hysteria" recruiting of engineers.

"Merely stirring the pot doesn't increase the supply of soup," Davis said in a speech prepared for the Radio, Electronics, Television Manufacturer's Assn.

Davi is chairman of a House civil service subcommittee which has been making a study of manpower use in the federal government.

Davis is chairman of a House creating "an undue demand" for scientists and engineers.

"It is our finding that the answer lies in better management," he said, adding that "mass hysteria" recruiting, hoarding and failing to make full use of highly skilled personnel isn't good business."

Acting May Be Great but So Are Vacations

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — You're probably planning your summer vacation—and even hoping to steal a few long week-ends — but Ethel Merman doesn't have it as good as you.

★ ★ ★

"I get a week off next Christmas," shrugged the lusty star of "Happy Hunting" the other day.

It's six nights a week—seven when there's a theater benefit—and on March 9 she'll also do the Perry Como TV show, dashing from her Saturday matinee to perform on camera, and then race back for her nightly job.

"I want to do the Como show because of the wonderful things I've heard about him, which of course come over the screen," she said.

ETHEL

We sat in her 7-room apartment at the Park Lane, her home away from Denver. Her husband, Bob Six, the airlines head, was in Denver at the moment.

I asked how she continues to sing so lustily, with never a night off for laryngitis.

★ ★ ★

"Maybe it's that Colorado air. Maybe it's that happy environment. They say you sing good if you're happy—which I am completely!"

★ ★ ★

Was it still true that she didn't get nervous opening night?

"I'm blessed with that. I always said you shouldn't be scared of the audience because if they could do any better they'd be up on the stage and we'd be in the audience."

Ethel's two children, Ethel, 14, and Bobby, 11, were busy in the apartment with their telephone calls. They both attend public schools. Besides her "Eisenhower corner," she has autographed pictures of FDR and also one of George Gershwin, who wrote the first show she ever did, "Girl Crazy," in 1930.

★ ★ ★

Some time after "Happy Hunting" winds up, in a couple of years or so, Ethel and her husband will go on a safari.

Matter of Policy

HONOLULU (AP)—The pilot of a Navy twin-engine patrol bomber made a forced landing on one engine on the island of Maui. He refused to give local reporters his name.

"He should have given his name," the spokesman said. "You have to do that much even when you're captured by the enemy."

'Old Devil' Meter Still Gets Nickels —Says High Court

LANSING (AP) — To some folks, the parking meter is a kind of coin-gobbling, steel devil.

It isn't the nickels alone — there's something frustrating and exasperating, they feel, about the skinny sentinels of the curb. They don't work, they cheat you or they ensnare you in the toils of the law.

One of this fraternity, Charles Fostini, Grand Rapids knife and tool sharpener, started out to do something about it, as others before him had—without much success.

He began a legal attack against a city ordinance that authorized meter installations. His case was thrown out of court.

Undaunted, Fostini appealed to the highest court in the State, and once again expounded this novel theory:

Fostini said he used a truck in his business, and quoted the supreme court, that he "can serve his customers in no other convenient or profitable way than by parking in close proximity to the places served."

Sometimes the truck stayed there a couple of hours. It had to, and there would be a ticket on the windshield when he came back. Regardless, it cost money.

So, Fostini told the court, what it boiled down to is that the meter system, as it applied to him and his source of livelihood, is unconstitutional.

Confederate Vet, 109, to Undergo Operation

His physician said he decided to operate following a checkup at a Pensacola hospital. The physician, who declined use of his name, said Lundy's "general condition is excellent."

Lundy is expected to be able to return to his home in Laurel Hill, Fla., about Wednesday.

Chicago to View 'Luther' on TV

Schedule Film in Spite of Earlier Cancellation by Another Station

CHICAGO (AP)—The movie "Martin Luther" will be shown by a Chicago television station April 23, two days after Easter and nearly three months after another station had canceled the film.

Protestant clergymen, who attributed the "reaction" to the Roman Catholic Church, protested the cancellation, formed a committee and filed a complaint against the station with the Federal Communications Commission.

However, the Roman Catholic archdiocese of Chicago said it had not or would not ever protest the showing of the movie. It added, however, it would "reserve the right" to express an opinion on the film's "historical accuracy and the manner in which it portrays the Catholic Church."

★ ★ ★

Sterling Quinlan, vice president of WBKB-TV, said yesterday in announcing his station would show the film April 23, that he had received assurances from Roman Catholic sources that the film will not offend religious groups. He did not elaborate. Quinlan said the station had reached an agreement with the film's sponsor, a Chicago building contractor, to present the two-hour program.

U. S. Set to Conclude Tunisia Aid Pact

TUNIS (AP) — American officials say the United States is about to conclude an aid agreement to shore up the economy of newly independent Tunisia.

Talks on the accord, which may be signed within the next 10 days, come at a time when France is dragging her feet on promised financial assistance to her former protectorate.

Tunisian and U. S. officials since Feb. 18 have been negotiating a "basic aid agreement" such as the United States has with about 60 other nations. Details of the actual financial and technical assistance will be spelled out in later negotiations.

East German Reds Stage Army Display

BERLIN (AP)—Communist East Germany put on display for the first time today its reorganized army, equipped with new Russian tanks and Czech infantry weapons.

The 9,000-man East German navy put on its first naval review off the Baltic port of Rostock.

Western sources said the 100,000-man East German army has been 40 per cent re-equipped with the new Russian and Czech equipment over the last four months.

Briggs Unhappy Over Coan's Holdout

By BRUNO KEARNS
Pontiac Press Sports Editor

LAKELAND — One player, Gil Coan was still unaccounted for as the Tigers went into their second day of spring drills. General Manager Spike Griggs said there would be nothing done to sign Coan until Monday, and it will really be up to the veteran outfielder himself.

The Tigers drafted Coan from Minneapolis where he hit .286 last year after starting the season with the New York Giants. He has been in the majors 10 years, most of which was with the Washington Senators.

"Coan is a fast runner and has always hit well at Briggs Stadium," said Manager Jack Tighe, "and he can give us reliable depth."

Briggs was unhappy over Coan's holdout. "This is a great chance for him to get back into the majors and after Johnny McHale talks to him on Monday we talk no more."

Veteran sportsmen who have watched the Tigers open at Henley Field each year were happy to note that this is one of the most spirited groups to initiate the spring camp.

Bill Hoeft, Ed Robinson and rookie Roy Hawes all came to terms just before taking the field Friday. Hoeft, who was recently married, said he was "quite pleased" with his contract.

The big bats of Ray Boone, Al Kaline, Torgy Torgeson and Bob Kennedy were the first ones to blast the ball out of the park. Torgeson smacked two of the first five pitches over the 330-foot mark on the right field fence, but the longest blow was that of Boone who sent the ball sailing beyond the 360 mark in left center.

John Crimian, who was with the A's last year, took a short stint on the mound in batting drills also.

"Feel great," Dittmer told coach Willis Hudlin afterward.

The first casualty of spring training was outfielder Jimmy Small who was hit in the arm with a wild ball during warmups. "It really blasted me," said the youthful outfielder, "I can still feel the sting right through to the fingers" he told Manager Tighe.

Today an intra-squad game is planned with the regulars making up a team against a rookie outfit. In yesterday's 1st combination of infielders, Ray Boone was at first, Frank Bolling at second, Harvey Kuenn at short and Jim Finigan at third base with Frank House catching.

Another regular nine inning intra-squad game will be played at Henley Field on Sunday.

You can expect the Boston Red Sox to try more pickoff plays this season. Former Sox great Bobby Doerr has been hired by the team to work with the infield on the new emphasis.

Manager Lou Boudreau, made it clear to his Kansas City Athletics they were at spring training to play baseball, not golf, as workouts got underway yesterday.

Training Camp Talk

Phillies, Dodgers May Swing 4-Player Trade

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Heard in the baseball training camps:

The Giants recent trade of Hoyt Wilhelm to St. Louis for Whitey Lockman came after a proposed three-way deal among New York, Milwaukee and Chicago fell through. Wilhelm and Red Schoendienst were to go to the Braves, who were to ship Danny O'Connell and Ray Crone to the Giants and Bobby Thomson to the Cubs, who also would get Windy McCall from the Giants. Chicago in turn, was to send Gene Baker and Dee Fondy to New York.

A big league executive is willing to bet the Phillies will trade southpaw Harvey Haddix to the Dodgers for shortstop Bob Lillis, lefthander Ken Lehman and outfielder Bob Wilson or Bert Hornic before spring training ends.

Bob Turley, strong-armed right-handed pitcher of the Yankees who reported weighing 214 pounds, 13 more than last spring, said he won't make the same mistake of trying to trim down too much. "Last year," he said, "I lost weight, lost my fast ball and almost lost my job."

Anderson Gives Spartans 8-Point Home Floor Edge

State has the best defensive record in the Big Ten, holding opponents to an average of 67.1 points a game, Indiana has the next to the top offensive record, averaging 80.9 points a game.

"Our problem, of course, is trying to hold Indiana within reasonable scoring bounds," Anderson said. "They have some big guns in Archie Deas and Dick Neal.

"Then, if we can get our regular point production, we should be all right."

State hasn't a single scorer in the top ten of the Big Ten but team balance has pulled the Spartans through their last nine victories.

Michigan State and Indiana are tied at the conference top with 9-3 records. A win tonight would assure the Spartans of at least a tie for the title.

Oaks Lose to Fordson

Fordson led all the way to defeat Royal Oak, 63-48, in a Border Cities League basketball game Friday night at Dearborn. The Tractors held a 31-14 advantage at halftime. Jim McIntyre topped Fordson with 16 points and John Kerr scored 12 for the Oaks. It was Royal Oak's 9th loss in 14 games.

BIG COUNTER — Long Hudson Ray, 6'5" PHS center goes up for a key bucket in last minute of Friday's torrid cage game at Saginaw. Ray got a goal, 2 free throws to nail the victory 48-47. No. 23 back of Ray is Trojan's 16-point maker Bill Halliday and player at left is Gary Potts, Saginaw center. Ray had 16 points.

Garcia Unveils 'Knuckler'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pitchers Mike Garcia of the Cleveland Indians and Art Fowler of the Cincinnati Redlegs have been in training only one day, but already each has come up with a gimmick to fool the enemy batters.

For Garcia, the situation is serious. He has won 11 games in each of the last two years, so it is imperative that, at 33, he produce a winning season.

He has developed a knuckle ball and on the strength of it, he said, he thinks he can make a comeback.

"I think I threw it in a game with Boston in late August last season," Garcia said. "I forget who the batter was, but it sure surprised him.

★ ★ ★

"It surprised me, too. I got it over the plate."

"It isn't my idea," he said at the Redlegs' camp in Tampa. "The manager (Birdie Tebbetts) and Tom Ferrick (pitching coach) want me to try it out."

★ ★ ★

And on the subject of pitchers, Granny Hamner may not be one, after all. Hamner, the Philadelphia Phillies' former shortstop, showed up at Clearwater, Fla., as a pitcher after a shoulder injury hampered his batting.

But he has been taking batting practice daily and swinging as though he never had an injured shoulder.

On the injury front, triple-crown champion Mickey Mantle of the Yanks reports that his knees feel fine. This will come as good news to the Yanks bigwigs who were worried about their slugger when he played in the players' golf tournament a couple of weeks back.

Elsewhere on the training circuit:

Bobby Doerr is back in uniform for the first time in five years as Boston Red Sox infield instructor with 20 pitchers in camp, Kansas City manager Lou Boudreau quipped: "Job security is no longer a feature of employment with the A's."

Tigers Impressive on Opening Day

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—If the Detroit Tigers can live up to their first day of spring training, they are going to be quite a ball club.

Everything clicked when the club's "big camp" opened at Henley Field yesterday and veteran observers today were agreed that it was one of the finest spring starts in the long and colorful history of the club.

The players were fit and ready. The sun beamed down. The hitters connected as if they thought they all were Ted Williams. And several of the pitchers showed stuff worthy of mid-season.

"There's not going to be any looking backward," said new manager Jack Tighe. "All I'm concerned about is this season. I don't care how things were done before. And without tooting my own horn I think we had the most spirited and aggressive first day workout I've seen."

The fences at Henley Field are about the same distances as in Briggs Stadium, but the sluggers treated them with disdain yesterday.

J. W. Porter, who must show a lot if he hopes to stick with the Tigers, also was hitting the ball well. Porter spent the off season playing in the Caribbean winter leagues and is in top condition.

On the pitching side Tighe was most impressed by young Jim Bunning, another star in the winter leagues. He was throwing hard in batting practice and looked sharp.

"It sure looks like he may be the guy," Tighe declared as he considered his pitching situation. Tighe is counting on Billy Hoeft, Frank Lary and Paul Foytack for regular starting duty, but he needs a fourth regular.

Bunning has been one of a small group of outstanding prospects, and has a slight edge now because of his winter work.

$100,000 Race on Tap Today

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP)—California racing fans may find out today if they have been watching any 2-year-olds who have a chance to grab off national honors for 1957.

The $100,000 added Santa Anita Derby at a mile and one-eighth provided the setting and some 50,000 patrons were expected to watch the 20th running of the rich winter fixture.

Lapeer Drops Final

Lapeer's 9-game winning streak came to a halt on the final day of the regular season as the Panthers bowed to Flint Tech last night, 60-57. Tom Wilson tallied 20 in the close tussle which was Lapeer's only home setback of the season. The losers finished with a 12-4 record and Tech wound up 14-3. Bill Engen led four Flint cagers in double numbers with 16, eight in the last quarter.

Ex-Irish Grid Star Fined $300 for Petty Thefts

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP)—A $300 fine was imposed on former Notre Dame tackle Arthur J. Hunter, and he was placed on three years' probation after he pleaded guilty yesterday to two counts of petty theft.

Hunter Seeks Pay Raise

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A new wrinkle in the baseball holdout business has cropped up.

Shortstop Billy Hunter, who had already signed his contract, says he won't play for the figure named in that document.

★ ★ ★

The sticker in this peculiar state of affairs is the $7,000 or so you almost always pick up after the World Series if you are a full fledged Yankee. The A's, at season's end, just pick themselves up and go home.

★ ★ ★

Baseball regulations say a player's contract may be assigned to another club in a trade, so Hunter legally hasn't much to bolster his complaint. But that didn't keep Billy from airing his displeasure and asking for new terms from the A's.

Villanova Team Favored to Win IC4A Tonight

NEW YORK (AP)—With Ron Delany out of the mile—and instead shooting for an unprecedented 1,000-two mile pariey—Villanova ruled the favorite to dethrone Manhattan in the IC4A track and field championships tonight in Madison Square Garden.

"I'm not sure what kind of condition he'll be in and if he'll be able to get his expected points," explained Elliott. "So I have decided to assign Delany to two events in hopes of picking up extra points in case Kopil isn't up to it."

This double has been tried several times in the past, but no runner ever has made it. Delany was down for a heat in the 1,000 in the afternoon. He would have just 35 minutes to rest between the final of the 1,000 and the mile in the evening.

★ ★ ★

It's a big gamble by Elliott, but Jumbo Jim, even though he brought his team home to victory in the National AAU meet last week, still fears Manhattan. Last week Villanova came up with five winners, but Manhattan won the team championship with a load of seconds and thirds.

"I know Villanova is the favorite," said Eastment. "That is how it should be. Elliott has one of the finest college teams I've ever seen."

Wayne Cagers Clinch League Championship

DETROIT (AP) — Wayne State University fought off a second half rally and won the Presidents Conference basketball title with an 83-69 showdown victory over John Carroll last night.

The two teams went into the game with 4-1 conference records.

Wayne led 43-32 at the intermission but a John Carroll rally, led by Frank Humenik who netted 30 points for the night, cut the Tartar margin to 59-57 before Wayne could recoup.

George Brown led Tartar scoring with 27 points. The victory gave Wayne a 13-4 overall record.

Jessen's 72 Leads Women's Open Play

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Twenty-year-old Ruth Jessen, a rookie on the professional golf tour, started today's second round of the $5,000 Jacksonville Women's Open leading the veteran pros.

Betsy Rawls of Spartanburg, S.C., shot a steady 73 for second spot and two other veterans—Louise Suggs of Sea Island, Ga., and Betty Dodd of Louisville, Ky.—were next at 74.

Oak Park Loses 14th

Oak Park closed its season with a dismal 2-14 record by dropping a 37-41 decision to strong Grosse Pte. University School. The losers trailed all the way despite 11-point outputs by Charley Miles and Carl Leiter. Ed Barnes led Grosse Pte. with 16.

Celtics Sure of Tie for Division Title

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sure, and it looks like they may be celebrating St. Patrick's Day earlier than usual this month up Boston way.

The Celtics—Boston's pride and joy in the National Basketball Assn.—set the stage for a premature wearing of the green last night by whipping Philadelphia 90-80. The victory assured Bob Cousy & Co. of at least a tie for the Eastern Division championship.

★ ★ ★

Indiana Track Title Favorite

Paced by broad jumper Greg Bell, who made the 2nd best leap in the history of the meet, the Indiana track team was rated the favorite in the final round of the 47th annual Big Ten Track-Field indoor event today.

★ ★ ★

Bell jumped 25 feet, 7 inches to pace 13 Hoosier qualifiers yesterday and break his own league record. Michigan and Michigan State each have eight entries in the finals.

Michigan Pro Cards 67

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Lanky Bill Nary, predicting "two more 69s if I keep hitting the shots as well," today took a one-stroke lead into the third round of the $15,000 sixth annual Baton Rouge Open golf tourney.

Close behind the Wayne, Mich., veteran were two other old pros and a comparative newcomer. Nary opened with a 69 Thursday. A five-under-par 67 yesterday gave him a two-day total of 136.

Bright sunshine and a slight breeze created good playing conditions over the 6,456-yard Baton Rouge Country Club course and the weatherman promised more of the same today.

Jimmy Demaret, 45, of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., matched Nary's 67 to pull within one stroke of the lead.

Lloyd Mangrum, 42, of Apple Valley, Calif., and Fred Hawkins, 23, of El Paso, Tex., a relative newcomer to the PGA circuit, were tied at 138. Both shot 68s yesterday.

Duke, Bold Ruler Flamingo Choices

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The sensational riding of Willie Hartack was expected to make Calumet Farm's Gen. Duke co-favorite with Wheatley Stable's Bold Ruler in today's running of the $10,000 added Flamingo Stakes at Hialeah Park.

Bold Ruler, with Eddie Arcaro up, was the early choice at even money while the Calumet entry of Gen. Duke and Iron Liege was 7 to 5. Hartack will ride Gen. Duke and Dave Erb will be aboard Iron Liege.

Pontiac Loses in Swim Final

Simonson Wins Twice to Finish Unbeaten in 62-34 Setback

Capt. Dennis Simonson chalked up two more victories to finish unbeaten in dual competition (individual medley) but was the only Pontiac individual winner as Chief swimmers went down to a 62-34 defeat at the hands of Saginaw here yesterday.

The setback gave Pontiac a 2-8 record in the final Saginaw Valley Conference standings with the league championships involving all schools slated for Saginaw High next weekend.

Summary of events:

100-yard breaststroke—Won by Ulrey (S); 2nd Neil (S); 3rd Roberts (P); 4th Powers (P). Time—1:10.1.

Make Predators List

CALGARY, Alta. (AP)—The Calgary Fish and Game Assn. has recommended that six species of hawks and two of owl be placed on the predator list as harmful to game birds. The suggested list includes marsh hawks, sharp-shinned hawks, goshawks, Cooper's hawks, duck and pigeon hawks, great horned owls and snowy owls.

Fishing Was Simple

DETROIT (AP) — If you see Percy Haver out on the ice of one of Michigan's lakes, looking for fish with a hand mirror, he's got good reason. It's scientific ice fishing, he explains. You use the mirror to reflect light through a small hole in the ice to the bottom. If you can see vegetation, it's a likely place to fish.

SAGINAW—Flashing real championship form, Pontiac High School's Saginaw Valley Conference basketball kings last night came from behind in the final period to edge a rough, tough battling Saginaw High five, 48-47. The very important victory gave PHS its first all-winning Valley club in many years and marked the first time since the 1948-49 season that a conference champion had gone all the way undefeated.

The fine team victory—for that was what it was—gave the Chiefs of Art Van Ryzin a 10-game sweep of the Valley, and an overall season's record of 14-1. The tight, bitterly contested s crap wound up both PHS and Trojans' regular seasons. Trojans' SVC mark was 6-4.

In other Valley games last night Bay City Central dumped Flint Northern 63-46 and Arthur Hill defeated Flint Central 51-46 in a fight for last place.

"Now we can concentrate on plans for the regionals" Van Rzyin said. "I'm proud of the way the club played this one. It was a fine bit of teamwork—a real team victory."

Van Ryzin lauded the rebounding of Hudson Ray, who handled 20 rebounds, hit for 16 points to lead PHS scorers. Ray's work on the boards was his best of the season, the coach declared. He gave equal praise to Dave Diehm (15 points) and to Dick Whitmer and Jim Skinner for their help at the backboards. "Larry Peet" said Van Ryzin, "did a grand job on setting up the shots."

"I think this club is the best balanced of all I have coached at Pontiac. We will give a good account of ourselves at the regionals."

Chiefs trailed Trojans at end of the 1st period and at halftime, 25-23. Most of the Trojans' points in the first half were made by the uncanny outside shooting by Deb Blondin, SVC leader who had 17. Big Bill Halliday made it tough, too, with 16.

Chiefs got in front briefly in the beginning of the 3rd period 26-25, and not again, to stay, until the last minute and a half. With two minutes to go count was 45-41. At that point Diehm went out on personals, and Terry Zellhart went in. Terry looped one in from the side immediately he got his hands on the ball. That started the final rush that paid off with five straight points, and sealed the verdict.

Trojans' gymnasium was jammed by the biggest crowd of the season. It was a noisy, highly partisan crowd, and PHS fans were not over-powered in support of their champions.

Rams Defeat Hills, 36-34; Mikes Beaten by Redford

St. Frederick finished its regular schedule on a winning note but St. Michael had no such luck as the local hoop season came to a close last night.

The Rams narrowly escped defeat by holding off a valiant Bloomfield Hills bid for an upset in a 36-34 triumph. Meanwhile, St. Mike was bowing to a well balanced Redford St. Mary contingent 60-48. The games served as final tuneups for the city teams before the 'C' district tourney next week at Pontiac High.

St. Frederick dominated the 1st three quarters of its finale and took a 30-18 lead into the final canto before the improved Barons started hitting from all angles. They tallied 18 points in the last eight minutes, and held the victors to six in the impressive rally.

The win enabled St. Fred to go into the tournament with a 10-5 record. Bloomfield Hills finished with 6-10. Rams Tom Derocher and John Bradley and Baron Bob Elston all scored 11 digits.

St. Michael trailed all the way in its vain attempt to finish with 10 victories. Shamrocks made their only good offensive showing in the last period with 23 points as St. Mary held a wide advantage throughout at Pontiac High.

Redford's Fred Arbanas paced all the scorers with 20. Ken Halpin rung up 15, Bob Mineweaser 13 and Dan Dropps 11 for St. Mike. The locals were weakened considerably by the absence of steady point - getter Chuck Brown, who was sidelined with an ankle injury.

Romeo Upsets Utica, 57-54

Bulldogs Take Overtime Thriller on Late Spree by Bill Redman

Romeo's Bill Redman scored only nine points last night, but eight of them came during crucial moments as the Bulldogs upset Utica, 57-54, in an overtime thriller at Romeo.

Redman had only one foul shot to his credit with five seconds of game time remaining. He then meshed a field goal to knot the count, 50-50, and carried on with three more buckets in the overtime to spark the victory.

Utica led all the way until Redman took charge. The Chieftains enjoyed an 11-point lead in the 3rd quarter before faltering to drop their 4th decision in 15 games.

Don Fowler took scoring honors for Romeo, which finished the season with an 8-7 record. Big Lou Haase topped Utica with 16 points.

Warren and Center Line both triumphed Friday to gain shares of the Bi-County League title with Utica. Warren walloped Lakeview, 69-41, and Center Line downed Lake Shore, 59-53. All three teams have 8-2 league marks.

Stephens Paces Ypsi Five to 78-75 Win

YPSILANT Iun — Bill Stephens scored a pair of goals in the closing minute to give Eastern Michigan a 78-75 victory over Baldwin Wallace in a basketball game that wound up Eastern's season last night.

Stephens led the Eastern scoring with 24 points. Wynn Hawkins of Baldwin Wallace topped him by two.

Victory gave Eastern a 9-14 overall record.

National Ski Battles Under Way at Aspen

ASPEN, Colo. (AP)—Tom Corcoran a boyish Harvard business student, opened defense of his National Combined Ski championship today, but the spotlight went to Austria's Toni Sailer and the reckless style that won him three Olympic gold medals.

The bare - headed Austrian flashed down the 11,300-foot Aspen Mountain's Giant Slalom course yesterday to win that event with ease.

Vikings, Berkley Share Title

Waterford Surprises; Jays Stall

Walled Lake and Berkley are basketball co-champions of the Inter-Lakes Conference today, just like everyone expected, but Waterford and Southfield furnished the big news in Friday night's league activity.

Their methods of grabbing the headlines were vastly different, however. Waterford stunned Farmington, 47-42, while the Jays used an Oklahoma Aggie-type stall at Berkley.

Berkley conquered the Jays to gain its share of the Inter-Lakes title, but the final 29-23 score would probably raise a skeptical eyebrow of an ardent fan if he hadn't seen the contest.

In contrast with the dull Berkley-Southfield game was Walled Lake's 73-50 rout of cellar-dwelling Van Dyke as the Vikings wrapped up their half of the league crown.

Waterford outlasted the Falcons in a see-saw battle on the Skipper court. The lead changed hands 19 times during the tense scrap, with Farmington ahead at intermission, 22-21.

The two teams were tied, 40-40, with a minute and a half to go. Then Cecil Dumbrigue bagged a foul shot, Jim Devine netted two charity tosses and a field goal, and Dumbrigue came back with a fielder to ice the decision.

Waterford clicked for only 21 per cent of its shots, but turned in the season's best defensive performance to wind up the regular schedule with eight wins against seven losses.

Chuck Gillis led the Skippers with 15 points and Devine contributed 11. Bud Jones tallied 11 for Farmington, which sorely missed the services of Don MacDonald, sidelined with an injured hand.

Walled Lake had no trouble with the Abes. The Vikings were in front at halftime, 39-15, and coasted to their 15th triumph in 16 games. Larry Hughes and John Walker meshed 21 points apiece for the Vikings while Tom Thorpe paced visiting Van Dyke with 15.

Southfield elected to stand at midcourt and play catch rather than shoot it out with the Bears. The Jays held a 3-2 edge going into the 2nd quarter, but Berkley caught up with their tactics and forged ahead to stay. Jim Zalenski made 13 points for the winners.

Cellar-Dwellers Retaliate

They say that misery loves company and two area last place teams lived up to that old adage last night with league victories which also dropped their victims into the cellar.

Ortonville turned the tables on Oxford in the South Central League with a 76-62 triumph and Capac nipped Brown City 50-47 to pick up some company at the bottom of their respective loops. The latter tilt was in the Southern Thumb.

In other action, Imlay City's SCL champs were formed into overtime before beating Millington 61-55 to wind up play with 16 straight victories, Clawson downed Fitzgerald 55-41, Almont and Dryden copped Thumb games, and Marlette finished on the unbeaten list.

A big 37-point showing by John Hutchings was the key factor in the Ortonville win. Blackhawks broke up a close battle with a 20-7 last period as three Wildcats fouled out. Bob Brannon and John Rossman had 16 each for losers. Larry Dorow was the Imlay hero with four key shots in overtime and 22 for the game. George Kish had the same total for Millington.

Capac had to overcome a 1st period deficit but took command from then on with three players hooping 10 or more points. Almont finished a fine 10-2 loop record with a convincing 76-60 walloping of Armada as Larry Kersten garnered 27. Dryden nipped Memphis 56-54 to cinch 4th place.

Clawson was another cellar dweller to gain some solace with a last night victory. Trojans tied Roseville for the unwanted bottom spot. Marlette matched Imlay's win string by closing with an easy 67-49 thumping of Croswell-Lexington.

Milford and Holly Win

Clarkston, Northville W-O Co-Champs

By CHUCK ABAIR

Milford's upset of Brighton, the clinching of a share of the title by Northville and a victory by Holly featured the final night of action in the Wayne - Oakland League last night. Idle Clarkston finished as a co-champion.

A 51-point last half scoring outbreak was the big spark in a 80-70 triumph for Milford with pacesetter Frank Redman swishing the cords for 21 of his 25 points. Herb Snyder topped Brighton with 21 and Brian Watson added 16.

The big win enabled the Redskins to finish their slate with a 4-8 loop record for 5th place. They were 4-11 all season. Brighton, which led for three quarters, ended up in a deadlock with Holly for 2nd place with 7-5.

West Bloomfield gave the bigger Northville lads a busy evening for three periods but ran out of gas to bow 71-51. Keego Harbor led most of the 1st half and took a two-point edge into the final eight minutes before succumbing.

Loss of scoring ace John Lucadam, who hit 14, and Larry Hollister on fouls in the last stanza hurt the West Bloomfield cause considerably as the Mustangs rallied to post a surprising 28-6 last quarter advantage over the cellar dwellers.

Holly took advantage of its chance to move up a notch in the final standings with a 78-70 win. The Broncos led all the way despite a fine Clarenceville comeback in the last half.

George McDaniel and Amos Bradsher were big guns in the Holly attack with 18 and 17 points, respectively. Larry Andrews and Dave Hanaford topped them with 17 apiece for the losers.

Rosi Surprise Winner on TV

NEW YORK (AP)—Many boxing fans must be wondering today how Johnny Gonsalves managed to put together an unbeaten streak of 13 in the last 2½ years.

The lanky, 26-year old Oakland, looked like a prelim fighter — and not a good one at that — in losing a television 10-rounder to wild-swinging Paolo Rosi, an unranked New Yorker, at Madison Square Garden last night.

Almost as puzzling as Gonsalves inept performance was the minority verdict of Judge Jack Gordon. Gordon voted for Gonsalves by a 5-4-1 score in rounds. His verdict, the last to be anncunced, was roundly booed by the small crowd of about 2,000. Judging by the volume of the razzberries you would have thought the place was packed.

Maples Trimmed by East Detroit

Birmingham Five Bows, 73-60, in EML Action; Ferndale, Reds Win

Birmingham couldn't match East Detroit's great scoring balance last night as the Maples bowed, 73-60, in an Eastern Michigan League basketball tussle at East Detroit.

Dick Kehrer, Gary Ballman and Ron Emerick, who have been the "big three" for East Detroit's EML champions all season long, netted 18, 17 and 16 points respectively.

Their efforts were more than enough to offset a 22-point spree by big Bob Isbell of Birmingham. The Maples trailed at halftime, 38-29.

It was the 9th setback in 14 games for Birmingham. The Shamrocks wound up with a 14-1 record, their lone loss coming at the hands of Hamtramck.

In remaining EML action yesterday, Gordon Rodwan fired 28 points to lead Ferndale's 70-52 rout of Hazel Park and Port Huron's Ken Martin tallied 24 as the Big Reds whipped Mt. Clemens, 85-74.

Jenkins Favored to Keep World Title in Family

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—The men's singles title of the world Figure Skating championships will, in all probability, remain in the United States with the Jenkins family.

Never before has a skater succeeded his brother as world titlist, but David Jenkins, 20-year-old collegian, holds a solid advantage going into tonight's free skating finals. Should he win, he'll take over from his brother, Hayes Alan who retired after four years at the top.

With young Jenkins, a British ice-dancing team of Courtney Jones and June Markham lead the way into the two final events of the championships.

Whose Bullet Killed Gunman?

Believe Officer Fired Round That Put an End to Spree in Toledo

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Police today sought to learn whose bullets killed a construction worker who was wounded after shooting his landlady, a 15-year-old girl and two policemen.

Police at first said the construction worker, Arnold Washington, 39, shot himself in a climax to the wild shooting spree at his rooming house here yesterday. Washington died last night.

★ ★ ★

Police scheduled an autopsy today and said it was possible a policeman shot Washington before being critically wounded.

★ ★ ★

Two patrolmen, Charles Diefenbach, 28, and Irvin Smith, 40, had gone to the rooming house on a complaint by Mrs. Mattie Lewis, 72, who said Washington was running around the house nude.

Washington, fully clothed when the patrolmen arrived, pulled a gun and opened fire on them. Mrs. Lewis was wounded in the lower abdomen. Her niece, Janice Meekins, 15, was shot in the stomach.

Fellow officers found Diefenbach, bleeding from a stomach wound as he crouched behind a cruiser, waiting to get a shot at Washington. Sprawled nearby was Smith, partly conscious with two wounds in his chest and one in each arm.

Afro-Asian Bloc Largest in U. N.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — One of the most significant developments in the United Nations is the emergence of the Asian-African block as a powerful, closely-knit operating unit.

This comparative newcomer is not only the United Nation's largest organized bloc — or group, as its members prefer to call it — but it also is the most active and the most influential.

It includes 27 countries, one-third of the 80 U. N. members. When it presents a solid front, as it often does, it can play a decisive role on any world issue. During the Middle East crisis, the group has acted as a unit consistently.

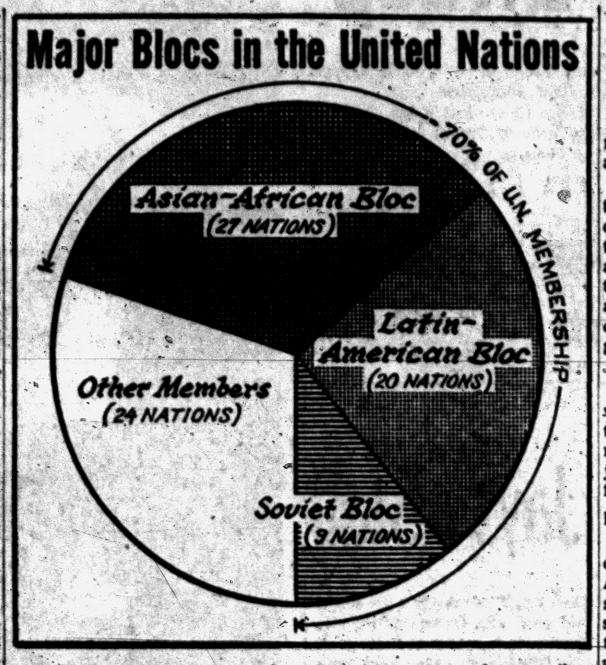

The Asian-African group furthermore is the only U. N. bloc which has any prospect for immediate expansion.

The 20-nation Latin American group, once the largest in the United Nations, has not increased its membership since the world organization was formed with 51 members.

SOVIET BLOC ADDS

The other major group — the nine-member Soviet bloc — added four new members in 1955, but the admission of any new Communist countries does not appear imminent, although there are several candidates. These include Outer Mongolia, North Korea, North Viet Nam and Red China.

The Asian-African group is expected to get one new member in September — the new country of Ghana in West Africa. Other prospective members in the near future are Nigeria, Somaliland Malaya.

While the Latin American and Soviet blocs have been active since the beginning of the United Nations, the Asian-African group was non-existent as an organized unit until after the Bandung Conference in 1955. The Arabs had met informally with a few Asian countries as early as 1950, but the actual organization of a bloc — with a monthly rotating chairmanship — is a comparatively recent development.

Originally the group had only 17 members, but it added six in 1955 and four more in 1956.

Nationalist China and Israel, although meeting geographic requirements, are not members of the Asian-African bloc. They were automatically excluded since neither had been present at Bandung and attendance there was made a condition for membership in the group.

★ ★ ★

The Soviet bloc is the only one which always votes as a unit. Both the Latin American and Asian-African groups seek to agree on major issues, but each member is free to vote as it chooses.

DISPUTE ISSUES

On some issues, particularly so-called Cold War questions, the Asian-African group is split with some supporting the West and some abstaining. Only now and then does the Soviet bloc gain any affirmative support from the group.

The Asian-Africans, on the other hand, usually get the support of the Communists and the Latin Americans on colonial issues. And this presents a combination which is giving the colonial powers a bad time in the United Nations.

TV Repairs FREE

It has not quite come to this yet. But certain companies continue to lead the public to believe that they give very cheap TV service.

There Are NO BARGAINS in TELEVISION REPAIR

Files of the Business Ethics Board contain many complaints against television companies offering ridiculously low rates but these same companies seem to have a policy of making excessive charges. You do not save money with the television "bargainers."

GUEST ROOM — A hand knitted coverlet, one made by Mrs. McGough's grandmother, covers the maple bed in the guest room. The dust ruffle beneath and cover of the slipper chair at the right are the same blue and white material. Walls are sandalwood beige. The other window in this room, on the front of the house, is larger than the one shown.

Leo McGoughs Build First House in Darb Lake Colony

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Since the end of World War II subdivisions by the score have been springing up around Pontiac. But Darb Lake Colony, just beginning to take shape out in West Bloomfield Township, is unique. It is being developed by a couple, Leo and Elise McGough, both civil engineers.

This husband - wife team has planned an attractive layout for the seventy-four lots in the subdivision. Their own house is built near the entrance and three more houses are scheduled to go up this spring.

Located on a private lake, Darb Lake Colony is a short distance north of Commerce road, and just west of Hiller road. Already the whole subdivision is landscaped and seeded. Winding black topped roads are in and a private park for residents is being cleaned up. The lots vary in size and shape, but no lot has less than 100 feet on the road.

Walls in the living room are a serene blue. The ceiling is white. At the small paned windows there are semi - sheer creamy white curtains. These are hung in pairs, two sets to a window, on brass rings and rods.

The wall opposite the windows contains the fireplace, made of reused brick, and an extensive set of shelves and cupboards. Hardware on the cupboards is black with L-shaped hinges. The shelves each contain some interesting piece of pottery or lovely bit of glass.

A little black kettle hangs over the logs in the fireplace. The mantel which is a simple painted board is the same blue as the walls. To the left the bricks extend to make a corner planter, capped with stone.

Pontiac Press Photos by Ed Vanderwerp

SHUTTERED PASS-THROUGH — This pass-through from the dining room to the kitchen can be closed with louvered shutters. Open, they allow one to see a corner of the kitchen and outside, when the curtains in the corner are drawn back. Directly below this pass-through is a double sink.

BLUE LIVING ROOM — Clear blue and white, plus warm tan, are the colors used in the living room. The walls, cupboards and mantel are blue, the ceiling white and the carpet a tan tweed. The precise looking pictures of Elizabethan nobility above the sofa are unusual and attractive. An old framed map is mounted above the red brick fireplace. Window sills are deep and hold colorful pieces of pottery. The low maple coffee table can be narrow, as shown or can become a round table with the leaves up.

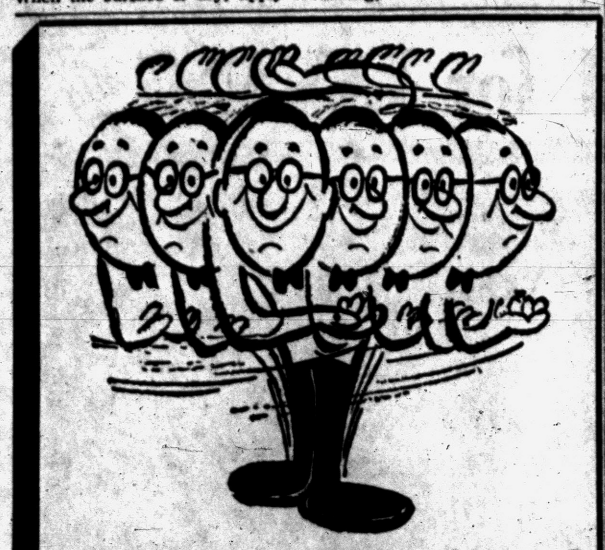

DOUBLE DUTY HOMEMAKER—The mistress of an attractive new home, Elise McGough is also an efficient civil engineer. The camera caught her at her desk in between busy moments. Mrs. McGough has turned one bedroom into an office with her functional desk and all her equipment. The chair is like the ones used around the breakfast table in the kitchen.

Prepare Wall for Paint

When preparing to paint a wall from which wallpaper has been removed, be sure to wash off any sizing or paste that may remain. When the surface is dry, apply a coat of wall primer and allow it to dry overnight. Paint can be applied the next day.

WATCH YOUR OWN SAFETY — Safety is more than a word. It is a way of life for the home handyman if he's to pursue his avocation in pleasure and without pain.

Trail of Spattered Blood Tips Off Busy Handyman

Accidents are reflected in one facet of the home handyman picture which is not as pleasant to contemplate as, let's say, one that mirrors a new piece of furniture or a repair job well done.

Many accidents occur — they just don't "happen." They occur in the sense that they're scheduled by the home handyman through his own carelessness.

CARE NEEDED

Keep this in mind: Every time you pick up a tool you're pitting tempered steel against flesh and bone. Listed here are some cardinal points of safety to keep in mind when working around the home:

Know your tools. Know what each tool is designed to do. Use each one properly. In the case of a powered tool, read the manufacturer's instructions carefully and abide by them. Keep instruction booklets for your equipment in one place in your basement.

Don't abuse tools. To cite an absurd example, don't use a screw driver for a job of chiseling (this has been done, with attendant damage to the chiseler's person).

Sharp tools are safer tools. Saws which are sharp snag and bind less. Drills which are sharp have less tendency to snap or choke up. There's less danger of carving your person rather than the wood if your knives are keen-bladed.

Worn tools are dangerous tools. Wrenches with worn jaws, automatic drills and screw drivers which slip or fail to ratchet properly should be repaired, or retired from use.

Have a place for every tool. A backboard for your workbench is a much better device for storing tools than a catch-as-catch-can set of drawers in an old chest or dresser.

Hang the tools in such a manner that, in reaching for one tool, you won't snag your hand or arm on some other bit of equipment.

If your saws are hung along the wall, make certain that the teeth are covered at all times with guards.

Safety devices are meant to be used. It takes seconds to don safety goggles or to replace a saw guard.

There's only one significant fact implied in the statement that, "my dad (or uncle, or cousin) had a sloppy workshop. Nothing ever happened to him."

That fact is: Dad (or uncle, or cousin) was lucky.

You could be on the short end of the percentages.

Woodlawn Restoration Uses Original Greens

Woodlawn Plantation near Mt. Vernon was the home of Nelly Custis and Lawrence Lewis, who were married at Mt. Vernon on Washington's last birthday — in 1799. "Color detectives," scraping through the many coats of paint that have protected Woodlawn's walls and woodwork for a century and a half, discovered that green, in a variety of shades, was originally used throughout. These same green shades have been carefully duplicated in the finished restoration.

Paint Used to Teach Old Tar New Tricks

A modern Illinois barge lines, operating some 125 barges over 4,000 miles of the Mississipp and its tributaries, uses paint color styling to emphasize safety and to provide cheer and friendly atmosphere to crew members.

One typical barge has bright yellow non-skid bands around the edges of the deck as an important safety feature in the new color scheme. Mess rooms are in cheerful yellow and white. The crew's lounge is painted leather-tan, giving a warm relaxed atmosphere. Cabins are in pastel hues to appear more spacious.

The biggest innovation was changing the color of the traditionally white engine room to two-tone blue. Old riverhands looked on this change with some skepticism at first, but the cooler, more restful effect that the blue creates soon won them over. The entire fleet is now being repainted according to the same color specifications.

Delicacy Is All-Important Applying Plywood Finish

The steady upsurge in recent years in the use of hardwood plywood by home craftsmen for wall paneling, built - ins and furniture projects, has fastened attention on the all-important atage of finishing the material.

The purpose of the finish is to protect the plywood and to enhance the beauty of the natural hardwood figure pattern. Thus, the finish must be done well. To help out, the Hardwood Plywood Institute has developed a simplified finishing procedure for home craftsmen.

Hardwood plywood is factory-sanded, so only a light sanding to remove finger marks and surface dirt is necessary. Use 6-0 or 7-0 paper, always sanding with the grain. Sand lightly between each application and make certain that the plywood is free from wood dust.

To prevent excessive absorption and unequal penetration of finishing materials, it is advisable to seal both sides (if possible) and all edges of the hardwood plywood. Use a thin coat of sealer, reduced one half. A mixture of one part while shellac and two parts shellac solvent is also commonly used.

When the sealer is dry, fill any nail holes in the paneling with wood dough or putty tinted to match the wood.

A paste filler will serve the purpose of a sealer in "open pore" hardwood species such as ash, elm, oak, mahogany and walnut. Brush the filler on liberally, and when it becomes dull, wipe it off with a piece of burlap, first across, then with the grain.

VARNISH IS GOOD

Your surface finish may be one or more coats of varnish, lacquer or wax. Varnish provides a long-wearing surface. It is available in dull, semi-gloss or satin and high-gloss finishes. Lacquers give a tough, hard surface in a flat, semi-gloss or gloss finish. For large areas, spraying is best, but must be handled with care because lacquers are flammable and dry rapidly.

A pleasing sheen can be obrained by waxing, when a thin, inexpensive surface is desired. The advantage of applying the wax over a sealed surface is that the wax can then be removed later on if a varnish or lacquer finish is desired.

If you want to introduce a new color tone or accentuate the figure pattern, you can fit a stain or toner into your finishing schedule. Each surface finish—varnish, lacquer or wax—requires a different kind of stain or toner. Consult your dealer and follow instructions carefully.

A good tip is to carry out the entire finishing schedule in sequence on a scrap piece of the hardwood plywood so that you will know the results and can alter the schedule, if you so desire.

Use Undercoat

On new woodwork that is to be given opaque coating, an undercoater is required. For a finishing coat use semi-gloss, enamel or flat oil paint. Keep in mind, however, that flat oil paints are easily finger-marked and are unsatisfactory for window sills. Emulsion and rubber-base paints are suitble, too, for woodwork. All of these coatings can also be used to refinish woods that have previously been painted, varnished or shellacked.

Have Contractor Plan All Plumbing for Efficient Use

It's a good idea to consult with an experienced plumbing contractor long before the plans for the house reach the blueprint stage.

If you do this, you will save money, have better construction, and the building project will move ahead more quickly and smoothly.

Take the matter of joists, for instance. They must be cut in the right places or there is danger that the construction will be weakened.

It is far better to plan the house so that the joists won't have to be cut at all. This can be avoided if the builder takes the precaution of discussing his house plans with a plumbing contractor in time. Not only will the owner get a better house with sounder construction, but he will save the money wasted by cutting joists.

Equally important savings can be made by discussing other important elements of the complete plumbing installation with an experienced plumbing contractor. His advice on materials, pipe sizing, chemical content of the water, plumbing fixtures, and planning of the bathrooms will be invaluable.

room walls. Curtains are the same as in the living room. An outside door opens to the back yard. The wall behind the fireplace is a continuation of the brick fireplace wall.

The early American furniture includes a drop leaf table, Hitchcock chairs and a maple china cupboard. The lighting fixture is brass and glass. On the wall next to the kitchen a pass-through was cut. This can be closed with louvered shutters.

In the kitchen two sets of full-length louvered doors hide the laundry equipment. There is a small lavatory off this room and two good-sized storage closets.

Walls are pale yellow. The floor is asphalt tile in a spatter pattern. The knotty pine cupboards have the wrought iron L-shaped hinges. The wall back of the stove and all counter tops are covered with brown and tan Formica.

Mrs. McGough has a tiny planning desk built right into the kitchen. This also has a plastic top. The oven is built in on the other side of the room.

The first bedroom has been turned into an office for Mrs. McGough. It has pale yellow walls and white chintz curtains with fruit, flowers, butterflies and bees in vivid colors.

The bedroom floors and the hall floor are the same cork-tone tile as in the dining room. Walls are blue. The bath has peach tile with blue and gold paper. There is a small built-in vanity.

The McGough's bedroom is the only room that does not have early American furniture. Here, everything is contemporary. Walls and bed spreads are pink. Two sets of sheer ruffled curtains hang at each window, one at the top, one at the bottom.

The lamps in this bedroom are papered. Again the paper have frosted glass bases set on brass. The glass is painted in an abstract design of gold, black and white. Shades are white.

The guest room has sandalwood beige walls. White woodwork and white ruffled curtains are dazzling bright against the darker walls. The bed is maple with a blue and white dust ruffle. A hand knitted spread is the perfect covering.

Next to the bed is a small chest of drawers painted blue and white. A puffy slipper chair is covered in the same blue and white polished cotton as the dust ruffle.

Right now the McGough home stands alone in the subdivision. By this time next year, or even sooner, there will be neighbors within hailing distance.

Good Light, Flexible Plans Feature Cheerful House

By ANDREW C. LANG

We don't have to tell you (especially if you're a woman who is around the house most of the day) that nothing contributes cheerfulness to a home as much as plain, ordinary daylight.

Dark areas from sunup to sunset have a way of creating a gloomy atmosphere that even the most ingenious of light arrangements cannot entirely dispel.

The house called for in Design HW-41 features modern clerestory windows to bring daylight into the center of the home, which often is not sufficiently lighted by windows in the outside walls. These clerestory windows are located at the ridge of the roof, creating a dramatic natural lighting effect in the very large living room. They also add height to the ceiling and provide an extra means of ventilation to keep the house cool in the summer . . . not to mention the romantic note added to the living room on a full, moonlit night. From the outside, the clerestory windows provide a distinctive, smart break in the long line of the roof.

While the boxy house has always been considered economical, architect Caleb Hornbostel believes that Design HW-41 compares favorably with it in the matter of economy. The plans for this ranch home call for lumber no heavier than 2x6's, no girders and a simple perimeter foundation, all of which helps to cut both material and labor costs.

With an ample lot available, this house has a far handsomer appearance than a squared house of the same cost. It has an over-all frontage of 105 feet, 4 inches, which includes a patio and garage, and a back-to-front measurement of 29 feet.

ARRANGEMENT FLEXIBLE

The room arrangement is both practical and flexible. Besides the master bedroom at the far right-hand side of the house and a second bedroom next to it, there is a third room in that wing which can be used according to the needs of the family. It can be a regular third bedroom and fully closed off from the living room. It can be a study or den and used as part of the living room. Or it can be a combination bedroom-study, furnished with a hide-a-bed sofa for use as a guest room when the occasion demands.

And here's something you'll really like: the bedroom wing of the house can be entered from a separate front door leading into the long hall. In fact, this house has traffic circulation plus.

In addition to the main entrance and the door into the bedroom hall, there is a special entrance right outside the kitchen for deliveries and to enter the basement without going into the kitchen, a side door to go from the garage through the patio into the house, and a door from the living room to the back terrace. You could hardly ask for more convenience in getting around without a loss of steps.

There are many other luxury features which put Design HW-41 in the unusual class. The latest-type folding doors are used throughout the closets and above the pass-through counter between the kitchen and the dining room. Unfolded, they permit wide access between these rooms. Folded shut, they make a full, formal wall. The built-ins indicated in the master bedroom, under the corner windows, are special wood cabinets with five-drawers units, decorative and considerably cheaper than the usual built-in furniture. The bathroom in the master bedroom has double washbasins and a corner stall shower. The family bathroom has double washbasins, an alcove tub and a built-in vanity counter. Both bathrooms are done in ceramic tile.

★ ★ ★

The kitchen has a range, sink and dishwasher at the front wall, a refrigerator, washing machine and dryer at the back . . . and a spacious pantry. The ceiling and one wall of the living room are paneled in vertical boards of redwood, with the floor of prefabricated parquet design, an economy handling of a luxury item. And there is, of course, a fireplace for the added touch of warmth, both literally and figuratively.

Like it?

Patio Provides Extra Opportunity

The patio at the side of design HW-41 is covered by a breezeway between the house and the 2-car garage. Since there is a door leading directly into the house, the patio, with a barbecue, can be screened or glassed-in as an additional indoor-outdoor living area.

The patio enclosure can be as small or as large as desired, as it extends directly to the rear and flows right into the back terrace, which can be entered from the living room.

Basement Is Wide Open

Also, with this placement of the stairs, a partial basement under the kitchen is possible and especially practical if excavation is difficult.

Now's Time to Build as Prices Will Zoom

If you want to build a house when construction costs are low, now's the time to do it. A current magazine says today is the "cheapest time to build in the next 20 years."

The editors think it possible that construction costs will be up 15 per cent by the middle of the year.

Don't forget that an antique effect can be obtained on embossed aluminum by painting it and then, after the paint is dry, rubbing it with steel wool.

Good Time for Indoor Remodeling Projects

This is a good time of year to develop those home remodeling jobs which can be done indoors. To get added living space, why not enclose the porch, especially if it is a side porch not often used?

★ ★ ★

You can get ordinary fir dimension lumber, siding and interior trim at most lumber yards. To insure maximum warmth in winter, it is best to build a stud frame wall with fir 2x4s. Use building paper between the outside sheathing and the siding.

Builders Want Heavy Lumber

Builders are finding new applications for heavy construction as the structural framework of office buildings and hotels, reports the National Lumber Manufacturers Association. An outstanding example is the use of glued laminated arch-and-beam units for the framework of a new $117,183 all-wood headquarters building of the Louisiana Forestry Commission in Baton Rogue, La.

All structural support for the 32-room, one-story building is provided by the glued laminated units, 15 in all—each fabricated in three sections. Two curved form an arch to carry the roof and wall loads, while the third section is a beam attached about two feet above the base of the arches to carry the floor.

The sections are joined by special connectors to provide stronger joints between wood members. The arches, designed to withstand winds of hurricane force, will be left exposed to take advantage of wood's natural beauty.

A new administration building, lodge and recreation hall in the Yellowstone National Park also feature dramatic use of heavy timber construction. Beams of the combination lodge-recreation hall are placed two feet on center and present a sweeping effect by running from their apex to the ground to form a scalene, or lopsided, triangle. This arrangement offers the economy of a roof which serves also as the walls.

Blondes Score Again

Pulchritudinous blondes, never short on idea, have come up with a new way to win flattery. Thanks to exploring home designers, blondes now find that certain types of wall decorations are more flattering to their fair complexion. For instance, wood-paneled walls of soft-toned hemlock, finished a la natural, make a blonde look twice as attractive. Why? Because the pastel shades of this natural wood do not rob the fair-haired damsel of her delicate coloring, but heighten it instead.

CHOIR IN THE BALCONY — The choir and organist at St. Paul Lutheran church at Third and Joslyn make music in the balcony. At the left below is the cry room where mothers may sit through the service with small children. The windows are made of thermopane glass. There is a public address system throughout the building with hi-fi wiring. In the basement of the church is a fellowship hall constructed of fireproof materials. The building took nine months to build.

Too Many Bought High-Cost Houses

More houses costing above $15,000 were built during 1956 than there were families that could afford them, according to a light-construction industry magazine.

Forty-seven per cent of all new homes were priced above $15,000, but only 29 per cent of the nation's families had incomes justifying houses in this price bracket, the magazine says.

The magazine also says that 43 per cent of all families could afford only those houses priced at $10,000 or less but that no more than 13 per cent of the houses built were priced to suit.

Although the magazine believes the market for lower-cost homes is a "tremendous unfilled need," it points out that the detailed demands of local building codes and the Federal Housing Administration and the Veterans Administration have made it virtually impossible to produce low-cost housing for the mass market barring a radical change in conventional house design.

Planning to Build Home? Plot Plumbing Carefully

It takes a heap of livin' to make a house a home, but sound plumbing helps too.

Despite its importance, the plumbing system is probably the least familiar part of a home to the occupant. This is due to the "iceberg effect;" that is, all but a fraction of the plumbing system is covered by the walls and floor of the kitchen and the bath and powder rooms.

Satisfactory performance of the plumbing system depends on all three divisions of the system: Water supply, fixtures and drainage. Their operation depends in turn on proper planning of room layout, construction and location of fixtures and piping.

The most important single step in planning for economy is to minimize the length of piping runs. For example, in one story homes, the bathroom and the kitchen should be placed back-to-back around a single plumbing wall. On second floors, piping runs can be shortened by locating the bath directly over the kitchen or ground floor bath.

In sprawling, one-floor ranch houses, the most effective device is to divide the plumbing system into two sections. Center one group of fixtures and connections around the kitchen and laundry. The other should bring together the baths and powder room.

In individual rooms, piping runs can be shortened by placing all fixtures against the same wall. However, don't sacrifice comfort merely for the sake of saving a few dollars. This is false economy.

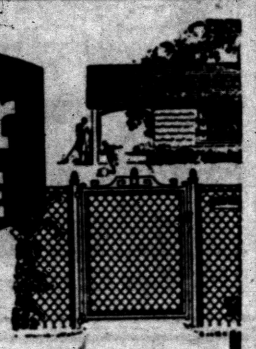

Sealer Retains Finish

55 Pct. Own Homes

The renter is gradually disappearing from the American scene. Today, the Small Business Administration says, more than 55 per cent of all homes are owner-occupied. This compares with 44 per cent in 1940. Younger couples, especially, want their own home where they can dictate how it shall be built, with plenty of wood storage, wooden cabinets and paneled walls, and friendly wood siding like western red cedar on the outside.

PROUD OF DAD — Mike Kirley, 4, is mighty pleased with furniture his father made. Chest is decorated with horseshoe handles carved from wood and brands burned into drawers and sides.

Do-It-Yourself Fan Makes Furniture in Home for $190

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — "It's comfortable, it's ours and it only cost us about $190." Tom Kirley, a natural-born do-it-yourself fan, was talking about the furniture in his new home.

Three months after Tom and June Kirley moved into their house in a subdivision on Phoenix' northwest side, they had every room furnished with neat, solid furniture. They have their bills to prove they spent a total of $192.32.

★ ★ ★

The Kirleys are quick to qualify that sum. Like most onetime apartment dwellers, they had a bed, a few lamps and other odds and ends. The house came equipped with a stove and refrigerator, and they owned a TV set and washing machine, and a $35 jigsaw.

NOT MAKESHIFT

"And I want you to know," Kirley says pointedly, "everything in this house is just what we wanted. It's not makeshift."

The furnishings bear him out. Kirley is a sheet metal specialist at an aircraft research laboratory. He tries to spend an hour or so each day working on something new for his home.

The Kirleys picked up their tubular steel breakfast set for $4, and recovered it with three dollars worth of plastic fabric. It looks as good as new.

The Kirleys' 4-year-old son, Mike, sleeps in an Army bunk bed that cost $8. The other half is out in the garage until Jo Anne, the family's baby daughter, outgrows her crib.

Kirley painted the bed white and burned in Western cattle brands. A $9 chest of drawers is decorated to match, with black horseshoe handles made out of scrap plywood.

The dining room table and chairs, which are made from solid oak, were found in a second-hand store for $29. "You don't find them built like that anymore," he said. "I'll sand down the top and varnish it when I get time, and we have some gold burlap remnants for the chairs."

Their most expensive purchase was a sofa and chair for $60.

"We looked for a long time, and it was just what we wanted," Mrs. Kirley said.

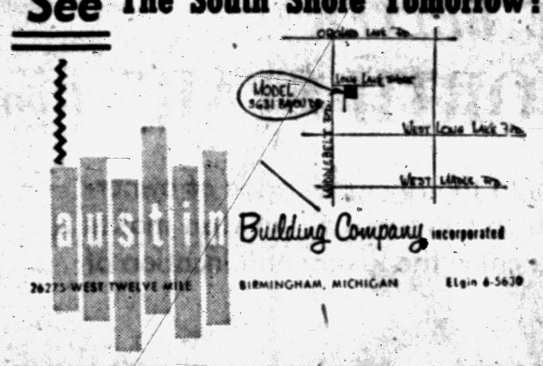

HUNT BARGAINS

The Kirleys estimate they spent from 10 to 12 weekends hunting in second-hand and bargain stores until they found all the furniture they needed to move in. Here is their budget:

Breakfast set	$7.00
Dining room set (table, 4 chairs)	29.00
Radio ((which Kirley put in a homemade cabinet made out of scrap plywood)	10.00
Lumber for bookcase	2.11
Mattress (re-covered)	30.10
Chest of drawers	9.23
Desk	13.00
Chair and Couch	60.00
Rugs	17.88
Dresser	6.00
Bunk bed for children (with mattresses)	8.00
TOTAL	$192.32

Plumbing Items Display Colors

Color — for everything from the kitchen sink to the lowly bathmat completely dominated displays of plumbing fixture manufacturers at the recently-held National Association of Home Builders Exposition in Chicago.

This shows how thoroughly the clinical kitchens and all-white baths of yesterday have lost out to the glamor treatment so popular with homeowners everywhere today, the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau points out.

Displayed for the kitchen were single- and double-bowl colored enamel sinks, with storage cabinets to match; for the bathroom, matching fixture ensembles in the same basic colors — blue, green, pink, yellow, ivory, suntan and gray.

One manufacturer had builders doing a double take over two-tone bathtubs. It was the novel idea of combining two colors in the same fixture that got them.

★ ★ ★

Here is what they saw—a glass-enclosed bathtub and shower used as a divider between two powder rooms. It was the color scheme however, more than the arrangement, that stamped this bath layout as unique.

The gray bathtub was enameled yellow on one side below the bench rim, black on the other, to match powder room fixtures in those two colors.

In the yellow powder room, further color contrast was afforded by a black seat and tank cover for the closet. The bowl had a built-in overflow, to carry away waste in the event of a stoppage in the drain.

Don't try to form sheet aluminum with a hammer unless you are attempting to get a hammered effect (planishing); a rubber or other soft-faced mallet will prevent the metal from being damaged.

Basement Shelters Become Essential for Natural Catastrophe or A-Bomb

"Emergency shelter" areas are now being included in more and more new houses in all sections of the country, reports the Better Basement Institute.

The shelters are becoming more popular not only because of possible future air raids, but also as protection against "natural" catastrophes, such as tornadoes. Atomic bomb tests have proved that in such emergencies a basement shelter is the safest part of the house.

As evidence of the growing incorporation of basement shelters in new home plans, the Institute cites the model house erected last year by the home builders' association of Houston, Texas, which received widespread national recognition. This home, featuring a basement shelter accessible to the outdoors, was introduced in a section of the country where homes normally are built without basements.

"After viewing what atomic bombs did to various type of construction in test blasts, many experts recommended that all new homes be built with shelter areas," the Institute says. "Harold Goodwin, director of test operations of the Civil Defense Administration, reported that basement shelters offered good, inexpensive protection against all effects outside the major damage area of a nuclear explosion.

RURAL AREAS, TOO

"Other experts state that shelters are equally necessary in some rural areas where enemy bombs may never fall. Such areas include the south and west where tornadoes and cyclones take a heavy toll in lives and property damage."

The Institute says that an emergency shelter can be built in old houses as well as new ones. It should have reinforced ceilings and concrete or masonry block walls.

"The shelter must be designed so that it can be reached from both inside and outside the house to permit the easy rescue of those inside when danger has passed," the Institute says. "Rescue operations might be impossible with only an inside exit."

Asphalt Shingle Peps Roof Color

Roofer uses a caulking gun to place cement under the tabs of asphalt shingles in applying them to a home with a low-slope roof. This is one step in a new application method that permits the use of colorful asphalt shingle houses where they were not used in the past.

★ ★ ★

Owners of homes with almost-flat roofs can be happily surprised when they talk to a roofing contractor about having a worn, weathered roof replaced.

The surprise stems from the fact that they rarely expect to be offered anything but more of the same colorless material that was put on the house when it was built.

Instead, the roofer, if he keeps up to date on modern building materials, will tell them that industry has developed a way to apply asphalt shingles on low-slope roofs and he can show them his material in a wide range of colors, from light pastels and blends to deep tones.

Thanks to improved application methods, asphalt shingles now can be applied to low-slope roofs if the pitch is not less than two inches per horizontal foot. As a result, nearly-flat roofs can be colorful and at the same time have long life and weathering ability.

The roofer first lays a double layer of heavy asphalt saturated felt. For even greater protection and strength, he cements these layers down along the eaves with asphalt cement. The shingles are then applied in the normal way over the felt, and cemented down to give the roof more weatherproofing ability.

Many color stylists say that homes with low slope roofs need colorful roofing because even a nearly flat roof is visible from the ground. They recommend light-color asphalt shingles for houses built low to the ground. A light color on the roof makes the house look bigger and taller.

Kitchen Carpet Old Stuff to Wives 50 Years Ago

A woman and her husband feel they have started an innovation by installing wall-to-wall carpet in their kitchen. And yet, why not? They say it is easily cleaned with the vacuum cleaner and much more practical than a hard surface floor. But what constitutes an "innovation," after all?

★ ★ ★

A half-century ago many homes had rag carpet on the kitchen floor, usually braided or woven by the homemaker or some of her friends. But of course vacuum cleaners then were in their infancy, and so two or three times a year the carpet was taken up, dragged outside to a clothesline and given the beating of its life. what a change today!

Plug-In Utensils Can Be Replaced

If you're one of those householders with a kitchen that's cluttered with an assortment of single-purpose plug-in cooking appliances and you couldn't add another without a shoe horn, then hear this:

The new automatic gas ranges have 'em all—built in, so that your shelves and cabinet space can be used for utensils and other essentials. Let's run down the list of so-called "auxiliary" cooking functions so you can check.

Automatic coffee maker? Plug-in frying pan? Automatic deep fat fryer or broiler? With the top burner heat control that's standard equipment on new gas ranges, you're in a position to kiss the "special appliances good-bye." In fact, this control makes any pot or pan in your closet into an automatic cooking appliance.

A Dutch oven or chicken fryer takes a new lease on life when you can pre-set your gas cooking temperature and know positively that the heat won't vary more than two degrees through the whole cooking operation, unless you re-set it to automatic simmer or high heat.

What's more, it makes no difference what size your utensil is or whether it's made of porcelain, stainless steel, iron, ovenproof glass or tin, or aluminum. They'll all work the same, because the sensing element in the top burner control will maintain the proper temperature inside the utensil and the flexible gas flame will spread to contact the whole bottom of the pan without going to waste up the sides.

Does the new gas range give you the advantage of a combination broiler and rotisserie? Naturally; and you can't beat the flavor your radiant-heat gas broiler imparts to steaks, while your rotating rotissesie makes delicious meals without heating your entire kitchen as the separate appliances do. Your range offers carefree cooking as a "plus," for you can leave the house while your roast is being barbecued to perfection, knowing that your oven control will take care of it, safely.

ROASTER, TOO

Automatic roaster? Of course; and yours has a "special" you won't find in those table models. It's a foolproof device for arriving at the exact degree of doneness you want—rare, medium, well-done or any shade between—simply by setting a dial on the probe that goes into your roast.

★ ★ ★

And you can cook a complete meal, roast a turkey or bake pudding, cakes, pies and casserole dishes at a time in your extra-wide oven. Why bother with a limited-size, single purpose appliance when your gas range does the same job, among many others?

★ ★ ★

Toaster? Yes. Your broiler also serves as a king-size toaster that can supply everyone in the family with toast at one fell swoop. For delivering quantity it beats so-called "family-size" appliances by a mile.

In short you have the latest automatic appliances built right into your gas range with special features not to be found in the separate kitchen appliances you'll never miss.

Medieval Housewife Lacked Appliances

In medieval times, in Europe and England, families had a custom of moving every so often, and for a reason that in our modern day sounds ridiculous. They moved to get away from their own dirt.

They just abandoned the house, built another wherever they decided to live and existed there until things again became unbearable. Then they moved again!

That was the start of the half-timbered houses of England and Germany, imitated not so happily in this country. A family set up a timber frame it owned, filled in the walls with stone or brick and had a house again, but they did not escape the dirt. How the vacuum cleaner would have helped.

Sash, Door Men Sponsor Training

EAST LANSING—"Employee Instruction—An Aid to Management" will be the theme of the second annual Basic Millwork Training Course, Feb. 19-21, at Michigan State University.

About 100 employes of midwest sash and door jobbers will enroll in the three-day course, sponsored by the Northern Sash and Door Jobbers Association and the MSU Department of forest products.

MSU faculty members and outstanding men in the millwork industry will discuss basic construction concepts, glass-glazing, wood and its properties, the business of selling and other topics.

Scientific 'Mate Tests' No Safer Than Romance

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The romance of moonlight and roses, deplores a University of Michigan psychology professor, means more to lovers than sound scientific tests which could tell them whether they are "suited for marriage."

"There are tests which can determine with a reasonable degree of accuracy whether two people are suited for marriage," Dr. E. Lowell Kelly told a meeting of psychiatrists and neurologists. "But," he noted, "nobody wants to be bothered with it. They prefer the moonlight and roses method."

Dr. Kelly, speaking at the ninth annual institute in psychiatry and neurology at Fort Roots Veterans Hospital Thursday, said, "Most people give less thought to mate selection than to the purchase of a new automobile."

He also said that those who use the "mechanical brain" method of choosing a marriage partner—as popularized on a television network—are just as likely to be unsuccessful as the "moonlight gamblers."

★ ★ ★

"I'd say persons selected by the machine method would probably have a very pleasant date," the psychology professor said, "but I wouldn't recommend it as a basis for marriage."

Dr. Kelly said he had made studies of married couples.

"From my findings it would appear that great similarity leads to divorce," he declared. "That is not to say that opposites attract, but the happiest couples have been those with one or two rather superficial common interests."

"To much in common can cause boredom," Dr. Kelly said. He added that "nothing could be worse than being married to an identical twin."

Maryland University Keeps Ban on Liquor

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — Drinking, long taboo at the University of Maryland, is now even more so.

The Student Life Committee voted to back up the longstanding prohibition of the possession or use of alcoholic beverages with stringent enforcement.

A spokesman said fraternities which permit drinking will be subject to the lifting of charters while individuals will face possible suspension or expulsion.

Tennis was introduced to the United States by way of the Staten Island Cricket Club about 1874.

Indict Member of Texas House

Charge Legislator Took $5,000 Bribe Aimed at Curbing Bill

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — James C. Cox, a member of the Texas House of Representatives, was indicted yesterday by the Travis County grand jury of "unlawfully, wilfully and corruptly" agreeing to accept a $5,000 bribe from Dr. Howard Harmon.

The 36-year-old Conroe, Tex., lawmaker was charged with agreeing to use his influence to kill a bill which, in effect, would have outlawed the practice of naturopathy in Texas. The indictment accused Cox of agreeing to accept the money from Harmon, of San Antonio, president of the Texas Naturopathic Physicians Assn.

★ ★ ★

The indictment alleged that on Feb. 20 Cox agreed to accept the money with the understanding the "work of the said James C. Cox would be given and rendered to defeat the passage of HB274." House bill 274 was a proposed act that would have outlawed the practice of naturopathy in the state.

The house committee heard two men testify Cox had said he never intended to keep the $5,000.

Waterford Church Plans Youth Sunday

The Luther League of Christ Lutheran Church of Waterford Township, will have charge of the Sunday morning worship service. This program will be commemorating Youth Sunday.

The sermon will be "Know, Live and Share Christ." It is also the theme of the year and will be the theme for the youth convention to be held in June in Chicago.

Taking part in the service will be Dan Carter, Bill Quine and Garry Achenback.

Earnings

DETROIT (INS) — Consolidated net earnings of $1,410,798 for the year ended Dec. 31, 1956, were announced today by the Briggs Manufacturing Co. of Detroit and its subsidiaries. Briggs said earnings were equal to $1.31 a share on 1,078,834 shares presently outstanding, after providing $1,590,000 for federal income taxes. Net income in 1955, the company declared, totaled $2,571,006, equal to $2.88 a share.

County Deaths

Janice Rae Asher

MILFORD — Janice Rae Asher, 2½ years, of 530 Lakeside Dr., here, died today at Children's Hospital, Detroit. Service will be held at 11 a.m. Monday from the Richardson-Bird Funeral Home, with burial in Highland Cemetery.

Janice is the daughter of James and Gwendolyn Asher, two brothers, Jerry and James, and one sister, Paulette, at home. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Kuechle of Oxbow Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Asher of Duck Lake. A great-grandmother, Mrs. Grace Asher of Fenville, also survives.

Edith Dawe

ROCHESTER—Service for Edith Dawe, 83, of 614 Renshaw here, who passed away this morning at a Pontiac hospital, will be held at 2 p.m. Monday from the William R. Potere Funeral Home in Rochester with burial in Mt. Avon Cemetery. The Rev. William H. Collycott will officiate.

Mrs. Dawe is survived by a daughter, Ethel of Detroit; three sons, Harold of Rochester, Horace of Detroit and Gilbert of Oak Park; seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Two brothers, Robert C. of Lake Orion and William Ford of Florida, also survive.

John Paul Spicer

CLARKSTON—Service for John Paul Spicer, 11 days, are to be held from Voorheis-Siple Chapel at 2 p.m. today with burial in Perry Mt. Park Cemetery. The infant died at Pontiac General Hospital yesterday.

He is the son of Paul and Zola Spicer of 4484 Pinedale, here and is survived by a brother Kenneth James Malone at home. Also surviving are his grandparents, Mrs. Ruth Spicer of Georgia and Mr. and Mrs. John Bridges of Drayton Plains.

The town of St. George, Bermuda, is named for Sir George Somers who was shipwrecked there in 1609. He was headed for the infant colony of Virginia.

Learns of Record, Plans Annulment

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The district attorney's widow says she will seek an annulment as soon as possible from the "retired business-man" whose police record she learned of after four days of marriage.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Juanita Roll Snyder, 42, told newsmen yesterday she was stunned to learn that Albert Snyder, 45, had a 30-year record of arrests in Philadelphia, Miami and Miami Beach, Fla., and Beverly Hills, Calif.

Snyder, who has never been convicted, was last arrested by Beverly Hills police June 2, 1954, on suspicion of burglary, but was later released. He left Mrs. Snyder's home in suburban Westwood Thursday night.

They had been married Monday in Las Vegas, Nev., less than four months after Dist. Atty. S. Ernest Roll's death from cancer. Roll and his wife had been married 20 years.

The attractive widow said she met Snyder three months ago through mutual friends. She said she loaned him $3,000, with which he financed a Mexican divorce from his wife, Edith, Feb. 20.

Pius XII Marks 81st Birthday, 18th Papal Year

Today also was the 18th anniversary of his election as head of the Roman Catholic Church.

Early this morning Rome residents and tourists began gathering in St. Peter's Square to hail the pontiff. At the Vatican and on Vatican buildings throughout Rome, gold and white papal flags were flown in observance of the occasion.

Vatican sources said he followed his usual schedule, celebrating mass in his private chapel and then going about his regular work.

Pick Area Chairmen for Cancer Crusade

Chairmen for the 1957 Cancer Crusade in North Oakland County were announced today by Fred A. Knorr, crusade chairman of the Southeastern Michigan Division, American Cancer Society.

Circuit court Judge Clark J. Adams was named crusade chairman for North Oakland and Mrs. Philip L. Francis 1041 Oxford Rd. Pontiac, was chosen to head the Women's Committe.

Under their leadership, volunteers will spread information on cancer during April which has been proclaimed nationally as Cancer Control Month."

NOTICE OF SALE

Avondale School District, County of Oakland, Michigan, School Building and Site Bonds.

Sealed bids for the purchase of general obligation bonds to be issued by Avondale School District, County of Oakland, Michigan, of the par value of $850,000.00 will be received by the undersigned at Avondale High School, Board of Education Offices, 1435 W. Auburn Avenue, Auburn Heights, Michigan, on Monday the 11th day of March, 1957, until 8:00 o'clock, p.m., Eastern Standard Time, at which time and place said bids will be publicly opened and read.

Said bonds will be dated November 1, 1956, will be coupon bonds of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, will be numbered consecutively in the direct order of their maturities from 1 to 850, both inclusive, shall bear interest from their date at a rate or rates not exceeding four and one-quarter (4-¼%) per cent per annum, expressed in multiple of ¼ of 1%. Said interest will be payable on August 1, 1957, and semi-annually thereafter on February 1st and August 1st of each year, both principal and interest to be payable at a bank or trust company to be designated by the manager of the syndicate or account purchasing the bonds. Said interest rate for each coupon period on any one bond shall be at one rate only. Accrued interest to the date of delivery of such bonds shall be paid by the purchaser at time of delivery.

Said bonds will mature serially as follows:

$25,000.00 August 1st of each year from 1962 to 1965, both inclusive;
$30,000.00 August 1st of each year from 1966 to 1969, both inclusive;
$35,000.00 August 1st of each year from 1970 to 1972, both inclusive;
$40,000.00 August 1st of each year from 1973 to 1975, both inclusive;
$45,000.00 August 1st of each year from 1976 to 1978, both inclusive;
$50,000.00 August 1st of each of the years 1979 and 1980;
$55,000.00 August 1st of each of the years 1981 and 1982.

Bonds numbered 1 to 595, both inclusive, maturing in the years 1959 to 1975, both inclusive, shall not be subject to redemption prior to maturity.

Bonds numbered 596 to 850, both inclusive, maturing in the years 1976 to 1982, both inclusive, may be redeemed prior to maturity at the option of the District, in inverse numerical order, on any interest payment date on or after August 1, 1967, at par and accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption, plus a premium as follows:

$30.00 on each bond called for redemption prior to August 1, 1969;
$25.00 on each bond called for redemption on or after August 1, 1969, but prior to August 1, 1972;
$20.00 on each bond called for redemption on or after August 1, 1972, but prior to August 1, 1975;
$15.00 on each bond called for redemption on or after August 1, 1975, but prior to August 1, 1977;
$10.00 on each bond called for redemption on or after August 1, 1977, but prior to maturity.

Notice of redemption shall be given to the holders of bonds to be redeemed by publication not less than thirty days prior to the date fixed for redemption, at least once in a newspaper or publication circulated in the State of Michigan, which carries as part of its regular service, notices of sale of municipal bonds. No further interest payable on bonds so called for redemption shall accrue after the date fixed for redemption, whether presented for redemption or not, provided the School District has money available for such redemption with the paying agent.

For the purpose of awarding the bonds the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from April 1, 1957 to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the School District. Each bidder shall state in his bid the interest cost to the School District computed in the manner above specified. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds or at a price less than 100% of their par value will be considered.

The said bonds are payable from ad valorem taxes to be levied without limitation as to rate or amount, as provided by Section 27, Article X of the Michigan Constitution.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $17,000.00 drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of the School District must accompany each bid as a guaranty of good faith on the part of the bidder to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid is accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks, and checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, attorneys of Detroit, Michigan, which opinion will be furnished without expense to the purchaser of the bonds prior to the delivery thereof, approving the legality of the bonds. The purchaser shall furnish bonds ready for execution at his expense. Bonds will be delivered without expense to the purchaser at Detroit, Michigan.

Van Doren Moves Ahead of Lucy in Latest Ratings

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS)—Charles Van Doren Trendexed "I Love Lucy" for the first time: 33.3 to 26.9.

Desi and Lucille don't seriously think Van Doren can harm their ratings permanently; Desi suspects 21's big rating is due only to Van Doren, and foresees his financial foul-up within weeks.

It's now clear 21 could bankrupt Van Doren at the rate of more than $50,000 a week . . . Every time he is tied (as he was this week) his fortune flies away.

Ed Sullivan has signed the Copa's comic team, Pepper and Davis, for three shows. Comedian Mort Sahl, dropped by NBC's Club 60, will turn up on Sullivan's show Sunday.

TORRID AND BREEZY

Xavier Cugat's new "Abbe Lane Show" (that's putting it diplomatically) is a torrid and breezy (quite a combination) quarter hour in Eddie Fisher's old NBC spot. Beautiful in color, too.

Video pioneer Kyle McDonnell has returned to TV—guest hostess on "America After Dark."

"Noah's Ark" sank on NBC-TV this week.

New Extension Club Formed in Clarkston

A new extension group has been formed, to be known as the Clarkston Evening Home Extension Club. Mrs. William Kratt has been named president.

The program is sponsored by the Cooperative Extension Service of Michigan State University, and Mrs. George Perry, council chairman, helped members get the club established.

Vice chairman will be Mrs. Ralph Jones. Project leaders will be Mrs. Chester Adams and Mrs. Robert Runkle. Mrs. R. R. Bird is secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Harold Sutherland will be the recreation leader and Mrs. John Adams was elected community chairman. Mrs. Dom Mauti is in charge of publicity.

MSU Students Hold 8th Seminar in City

The 21 Michigan State University students who are currently engaged in teaching in the Pontiac School system met Friday for the eighth seminar in their 11-week course.

The students teach four days a week under the resident center student teaching program of MSU, headed by Dr. Ted Ward in Pontiac.

The group has three more weeks in Pontiac after which it will be replaced by a fresh class.

The replacements, 20 student teachers, will visit Pontiac Wednesday and will start work on April 1.

Dr. Monroe to Attend Detroit TB Meeting

Dr. John D. Monroe, Oakland County health commissioner, will attend a tuberculosis case-finding conference Thursday at Herman Kiefer Hospital, Detroit.

Sponsored by the Southeastern Michigan TB Detection Project, the conference is designed to give doctors new information on the disease in connection with public chest X-ray programs.

Another Art Critic Gets '7' the Hard Way

BALTIMORE (AP)—As the group walked past a new art school on West 25th Street one woman noticed that the numeral "7" was reversed on the front door.

Academy Director Bennard Perlman came up with the explanation: The transparent glass door had been reversed so it would swing outward, in compliance with fire laws.

Ohio's state tree is the buckeye. The nuts have some poisonous qualities, but American Indians ate them safely after continuous boiling.

Support Action to Ban Mackie

County Engineers Back Move to Bar Road Post to Non-Professional

An attempt by the Michigan Society of Professional Engineers to keep the Democratic nominee for state highway commissioner off the April 1 ballot, has been endorsed by the Oakland Chapter of the Society.

A suit has been threatened on behalf of the society to disqualify John C. Mackie, of Flint, from the nomination on grounds that he is not a registered engineer.

"The Oakland Chapter of the Michigan Society of Professional Engineers commends and endorses that action taken by the state society in trying to prevent the name of a non-professional engineer from appearing on the ballot as a candidate for state highway commissioner," a chapter-approved resolution read.

James N. Carlisle, president of the local chapter, emphasized that "no political party is supported or opposed by the resolution as long as a registered professional engineer is nominated for the post."

Memorial Day Group Passes on Constitution

The Pontiac Memorial Day Assn. approved a proposed constitution and set of bylaws at its second meeting recently, and revealed plans to hold a Memorial Day Parade in Pontiac May 30.

Mayor William Donaldson and representatives of more than a dozen civic organizations attended the meeting.

Elected treasurer at the meeting was Edward Sutton of American Legion Post No. 20. Other officers will be elected at the association's next meeting to be held March 20. President Floyd Cremer will appoint committees.

Moose Slates Speakers

Oakland County Sheriff Frank Irons and Safety Director Stephen Navarre will be guest speakers tomorrow at the Pontiac Moose Lodge's annual Father and Son Banquet at 5 p.m. in the Moose Hall, 350 Mt. Clemens St. Pontiac State Police Post Trooper Gerald Taffel will present a movie on safety.
