

HEADING WEST — Salesman Bert Alexander, looking mighty tall in the saddle and with boots fitting well into the stirrups, makes his way across 43rd Street off Times Square in New York City yesterday. It's just another odd scene created by the city's transit strike. Although lacking a 10-gallon hat, chaps and six-gun, Alexander's still heading west — across Broadway.

'Small Gains' in Transit Talks

LBJ Promises Aid as Strike in 2nd Week

NEW YORK (AP)—A mediator reported "some small gain" today in negotiations to end New York's crippling subway and bus strike.

But there appeared little prospect of immediate settlement as the city completed a full week of snarled traffic, jangled nerves and severe economic loss.

After five workdays of jammed automobile traffic, police reported no more cars on the road this morning than on a normal Saturday, with the autos moving freely.

One factor apparently complicating the negotiations was a request to a court yesterday by the city authority operating the subways that the striking unions be assessed damages for each day of the strike.

Union leaders denounced the move as imperiling the chances for a settlement.

HELP COMING

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller received a promise from President Johnson yesterday that federal help would be provided for individuals and small businessmen hit by the strike.

The mediator, Sylvester Garrett, made his assessment of the strike talks as they recessed early today after a 15-hour session.

The talks resume later today. "I would say there has been some progress — some small gain," said Garrett, one of three special mediators assigned to the dispute.

He said "this is a very difficult dispute" and "a substantial amount of ground" remained to be covered.

Enraged Man Slays 3 in Auto Agency

CHICAGO (AP) — A young man, apparently enraged over car repair bills, killed three auto salesmen with a sawed-off shotgun yesterday and was threatening two women employees when shot and killed by a police officer.

Police said Donald Jackson, 24, entered the Fohrman Motors, Ltd., salesroom through a rear door and walked around a partition where he saw Albert Sizer, 65, a salesman, standing.

He shot Sizer in the head they said.

One of the owners, Sidney Fohrman, 52, heard the gunfire and ran out of his glass-partitioned office. Jackson shot him in the head and then ran into an inner office and shot Edward Fohrman, 43, Sidney's brother and co-owner of the business, police said.

Other employees running from the building flagged down detective Roland Charles, 36, and his partner, York Anderson, who were riding by.

"We stopped the car and ran around the back of the place," Charles said. "Anderson drew his gun and walked in one direction and I drew mine and walked in another."

The intruder spotted Charles and fired at him with a pistol he was carrying in addition to the shotgun.

I DUCKED

"I ducked," Charles said "and sneaked around a partition and came up in the front of the showroom."

The policeman said he saw Jackson threatening two women employees in the cashier's office with the shotgun.

"He told them he was going to kill them," Charles said. "Both women were crying hysterically. As Jackson looked up I shot him in the head."

No Rebellion -- Dominican

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Armed Forces Minister Francisco J. Rivera Caminero says his troops are not rebelling but they want President Hector Garcia Godoy to cancel orders sending top military men abroad.

"This is not a coup d'etat and we are not interested in taking control of the government," he told newsmen after a long meeting with Ellsworth Bunker, the U.S. ambassador to the Organization of American States.

Garcia-Godoy ordered 34 top officers of the regular armed forces and the former rebel troops into diplomatic exile Thursday.

The regular army immediately moved in on the Presidential Palace and sealed all major highways into the capital.

For a time it looked like a coup was in the making, but Rivera Caminero announced yesterday he would obey the president and take up his appointment to the Dominican Embassy in Washington.

Detroit Mayor Strongly Eying Senate Race

No Final Decision on Bid for McNamara Seat, Says Cavanagh

DETROIT (AP) — Mayor Jerome Cavanagh of Detroit said yesterday he was giving "most serious consideration" to running for the U.S. Senate in 1966 but emphasized "no final decision has been made."

Sen. Patrick V. McNamara, a Democrat, is up for reelection to a six-year term.

Former Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams, now assistant secretary of state for African affairs, has said he may seek the seat if McNamara retires. Both Williams and Cavanagh are Democrats.

Cavanagh, 37, who was re-elected to a four-year term in November, issued a public statement Thursday.

IN STATEMENT

"While there are many problems and challenges to be faced as mayor of this city, I believe significant and highly important public service can also be accomplished as a member of the United States Senate."

"My present plans are to continue as mayor of the City of Detroit."

"At the same time, it is clear that I am interested in a political career and 1966 is an election year . . ."

Romney: No Need for New Taxes in '66

LANSING (AP) — The state can get by for at least another year without new taxes, Gov. Romney said yesterday — even though it will cost $96 million more just to stand still.

Romney agreed basically with figures released by the Democratic leadership when he predicted that a "standstill budget for 1966-67 would come to $916 million, as compared with $820 million this year."

Both he and House and Senate leaders agreed after a harmonious 2½ hour meeting yesterday that they foresaw no need for new taxes in the near future.

Romney said he would hold to his "no new taxes" statement only if state spending stayed reasonably close to his forthcoming budget recommendations, and if the state economy remained in its present healthy condition.

Speaker Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, referred to a statement released Thursday in which the Democratic leadership said it intended to work "within the present tax structure."

The inequities of Michigan's tax system remain, Romney said, meaning the state still needs fiscal reform and presumably in income tax. The only pressure for change that is missing, he said, is the immediate need for new revenues.

IN BETTER SHAPE

On that count, the state is in better shape than it was a year ago or even six months ago, he added.

The governor, Kowalski and Sen. Raymond Dzendzel, D-Detroit, predicted income of $865 million into the state general fund treasury during the fiscal year ending June 30 as compared with Romney's earlier estimate of $738 million.

They also predicted a state treasury surplus of $125 million at the end of the current fiscal year.

Tragedy Erases Futures of 6

In the first week of 1966, Oakland County lost some of its future:

- Two nurses
- A contractor
- A beautician
- A secretary
- A housewife

Yesterday, four future adult citizens were buried. Two others were buried today.

The six children who suffered tragic deaths this week represented two county families, one in Commerce Township and the other in Waterford Township.

Killed last Monday when struck by a car as they waited for a school bus on Wise and Carroll Lake Road in Commerce Township were Mary A. Wilson, 14, and her sister, Lynette, 13.

Mary had her heart set on being a beautician and had often mentioned this vocational goal to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wilson of 280 Wise.

"They were saving their baby sitting earnings to buy horses some day," their mother said.

Killed early Wednesday morning when fire swept through their house at 3980 Arcadia Park, Waterford Township, were four children of Mrs. Barbara Brown.

Both Wilson girls were extremely active youngsters who enjoyed outdoor sports, especially swimming and horseback riding.

Dems Lay Districting Ills to GOP

LANSING (UPI)—Democratic members of the State Apportionment Commission, blaming the districting deadlock on Republican "bad faith," today formally asked the State Supreme Court to lock in existing legislative districts until after the 1970 census.

In an 11-page statement drawn up by Commissioner A. Robert Kleiner of Grand Rapids, the Democrats charged the four Republican commissioners with an "unyielding demand" to change the boundaries of six Senate districts.

Kleiner said a political analysis of the demand showed the changes would result in a 21-17 Republican Senate majority in a "normal election." The Senate is now controlled by Democrats 23-15.

The Apportionment Commission failed to meet a court-set deadline of Jan. 1 for drawing new legislative districts.

In a statement released Dec. 31, Republicans charged the stalemate was because of Democrats' refusal to accept these changes, "thereby preserving the status quo and protecting incumbent legislators."

"It was clear from all plans submitted and supported by the Republican commissioners that their desire was not 'fair and effective representation' of citizens, but partisan control of the Michigan Senate for their party," Kleiner said in his statement with the court today.

"Every Senate plan submitted by them assured Republican control of these three Senate areas."

The disputed areas involved two districts around Muskegon, two in the Saginaw-Bay City-Midland area and two in the Grosse Pointes.

Kleiner said Democrats had not looked at the political complexion of the six districts until after Dec. 23 when Republican Commissioner Alfred O. LaPorte of Standish stated on the record that the commission should look at partisanship.

Kleiner said Democrats then took election statistics of the vote for state treasurer in 1962 and studied the pending plans.

Kleiner said Democratic amendments to plans then under consideration would have made all of the six contested districts more Republican than they are now.

"All of these compromises suggested by commissioners appointed by the Democratic party were rejected out of hand by the Republicans," he said.

Feel Escalation Brings Hanoi, Peking Closer

Mansfield's Group Warns War Could Engulf All of Asia

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield's fact-finding team believes that as the Vietnamese war escalates, Communist North Viet Nam becomes more dependent on Red China.

As a result, it said, "the likelihood also increases that North Viet Nam will not be able to negotiate a settlement without at least the tacit consent of China."

"In fact, that point may already have been reached," the team said in a report released last night.

Mansfield and four Senate colleagues also warned that the Viet Nam fighting ultimately could engulf the entire Asian mainland in general war and that chances for a just, negotiated settlement are slim.

Mansfield, Democrats Edmund S. Muskie of Maine and Daniel K. Inouye of Hawaii and Republicans J. Caleb Boggs of Delaware and George D. Aiken of Vermont returned last month from a 35-day, 30,000-mile tour which took them to 12 countries and the British colony of Hong Kong.

MUCH THE SAME

They visited South Viet Nam Dec. 24 and reported the general situation there is much the same as a year ago, despite the major U.S. troop buildup.

"What was controlled then by the Viet Cong is still controlled by the Viet Cong," they said. They fixed Communist Viet Cong control of the South Vietnamese population at 22 per cent and said 18 per cent live in contested areas.

The senators returned to the United States prior to President Johnson's multinational campaign to bring Communist North Viet Nam to the negotiating table. Nonetheless, they touched on the part other countries might play in settling the Vietnamese war.

"Many nations," they said, "are deeply desirous of an end to this conflict as quickly as possible."

'FEW ARE SPECIFIC'

"Few are specific as to the manner in which this end can be brought about or the shape it is likely to take."

"In any event even though other nations, in certain circumstances, may be willing to play a third-party role in bringing about negotiations, any prospects for effective negotiations at this time and they are slim are likely to be largely dependent on the initiatives and efforts of the combatants."

North Viet Nam has repeatedly downplayed the U.S. peace offensive, while South Viet Nam, through its ambassador to the United States, Vu Van Thai, has said the effort is designed "to create the conditions to show we are ready in sincerely seeking a settlement."

President Johnson was scheduled to get a report today from one of his special envoys in the peace offensive.

G. Mennen Williams, assistant secretary of state for African affairs, has just completed a one-week flying trip throughout Africa.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. jets are hammering hard at Communist supply routes through Laos to check men and equipment that North Viet Nam is speeding south, informed sources said today.

don-at-large W. Averell Harriman is still in the Far East.

The Mansfield report triggered little reaction last night.

NO COMMENT

President Johnson already had heard directly from Mansfield, and the White House said there would be no comment.

A State Department spokesman said the same, and congressional leaders generally preferred to be silent.

Although the Mansfield group met with numerous national leaders, it confined its report to "The Viet Nam Conflict: The Substance and the Shadow." It did say there is no reason to think the Soviet Union is anxious to play a major role in peace efforts.

SPURNED INVITATION

Late last year, the Russians spurned a British invitation to reconvene the Geneva conference on Indochina to negotiate an end to the Vietnamese fighting.

The senators had met with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin prior to that.

The Mansfield report said: "They (the Russians) have emphasized repeatedly in public statements as well as in other ways that they have no intention of taking an initiative for peace in Viet Nam at this time."

of North Viet Nam in its 16th day, another terrorist incident startled Saigon. A bomb demolished a sidewalk peddler's stall in front of the My Canh floating restaurant, where two powerful explosions last June 25 killed 43 persons.

Damage was minor in this case, however, and authorities on the scene reported only three casualties—one policeman and two passersby received slight scratches. Diners dived to safety under the tables.

SECOND BLAST

Security officers speculated that the terrorists intended the blast to lure people around the scene as targets for a second and bigger explosion, but something went wrong with their plan.

"They didn't deliver the second bomb," one said.

Vietnamese police sources said 19 persons have been arrested in three terrorist incidents over the past five weeks.

In the Laotian phase of the war, informed sources said up to 300 U.S. planes are operating daily, dropping nearly 1,000 tons of bombs and rockets on Communist water-borne traffic and trucks moving down newly constructed roads.

PEACE EFFORTS

North Viet Nam has been spared air raids since Dec. 24 after President Johnson ordered a bombing pause in an attempt to get peace negotiations started on the Vietnamese war.

Man Treated for Frostbite

A Waterford Township man was given emergency treatment today at Pontiac General Hospital for frostbite to both feet after he reportedly spent most of the night outside without shoes or socks.

Township police said that Alvin T. Smith, 24, of 4174 Lotus probably fell asleep after his car hit a tree at 3895 Dorothy Lane and slid down a hill to the edge of Lotus Lake.

Smith later woke up, police said, and entered a closed summer cottage where he slept until neighbors called police at 7:27 a.m. today.

HONORARY PALLBEARERS — Friends and classmates of Mary Ann and Lynette Wilson who were killed last Monday by an out-of-control car, served as honorary pallbearers at the funeral of the sisters this morning at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in White Lake Township.

Burial followed in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Southfield. Mary Ann, 14, and Lynette, 13, were struck while waiting for a school bus on the corner of Wise and Carroll Lake Road. Both were students at Clifford H. Smart Junior High School and busy with outdoor activities.

Police Block Rights March

TUSKEGEE, Ala. (UPI) — More than 325 Negro students staged a sit-down demonstration on a highway today when police halted a march aimed at protesting the fatal shooting of a civil rights worker.

It marked the first time in a week of demonstrations that officials have interfered with a march.

The students have been protesting the fatal shooting of Samuel Younge, Jr., 21, a Negro who was slain Monday following an argument over use of a rest room at a gas station.

The white attendant at the station, 69-year-old Marvin Segrest, has been charged with murder in the case.

The students set out today from the campus of a predominantly Negro Tuskegee Institute and had marched most of the two miles to the business district when they found their way barred by six police officers, including several state troopers.

Sheriff J. H. Sadler held up his hand to stop the singing procession and Public Safety Director Alton B. Taylor told the students over a loud speaker:

"You do not have a parade permit. This march will not proceed."

Taylor told the young Negroes it "would be in the best interests of everyone" if the marchers stopped.

Ex-Attendant Arraigned on Rape Charge

A 36-year-old former attendant at Pontiac General Hospital was arraigned in Municipal Court yesterday on two charges of rape involving a 23-year-old woman patient at the hospital.

John B. Cannon of 5 Lee Court demanded examination on the charges and was released by Judge Cecil B. McCallum after posting $200 bond. Examination was set for Jan. 12.

The charges against Cannon are common-law rape, defined as having relations with a person not mentally capable of giving consent, and the ravishing of a patient of a state- or county-supported institution.

Police said the victim was an outpatient in the psychiatric ward at Pontiac General from Nov. 10 through Dec. 20.

It was during this period that relations between Cannon and the victim allegedly took place on occasions when the victim signed out of the hospital.

RESIGNED POST

Cannon resigned from his post at Pontiac General Dec. 20.

He had worked during the same period on a different shift as an attendant at Pontiac State Hospital, where he was first employed in 1955.

Conviction on a charge of ravishing a patient of a state- or county hospital carries a minimum sentence of five years imprisonment.

NAACP Won't Back Tragedy Erases Futures of 6

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said today that it does not subscribe to an attack on U.S. policy in Viet Nam made by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

There was little strong reaction from other civil rights leaders to the SNCC statement, which criticized what it called "an aggressive policy" by the United States and said civil rights work should be a valid alternative to the draft.

One NAACP staff member said some SNCC workers are becoming disinterested in civil rights work.

Roy Wilkins, executive director of the NAACP, said his

Blaze Damage at Shutter Firm Put at $18,000

Fire which broke out just before 6 a.m. today in below-zero temperatures caused an estimated $18,000 damage to a plastic shutter firm at 62 S. Sheffield.

Two engines and a ladder unit from the Pontiac Fire Department battled the blaze at Weathermate Products for approximately two and a half hours.

Fire Marshal Charles Metz said the fire was caused by an overheated furnace. Metz placed loss of contents at $10,000 and damage to the building at $8,000.

No injuries were reported.

organization "disassociates itself" from the official SNCC statement.

CAUTION URGED

Wilkins said: "The public must be careful to recognize that this statement is one by only one of the many civil rights groups, and is not the statement of other groups or of what is loosely called the civil rights movement."

Wilkins has opposed involving civil rights groups in other causes.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said in Chicago:

"I would be the last person to condemn one who on a basis of conscience is a conscientious objector. It would be a fine thing for such persons to devote their lives to our domestic problems."

JOINT REPLY

A joint statement issued by the national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, James Farmer, and his newly elected successor, Floyd B. McKissick, said in part:

"The escalation of that war is wrong, we believe. The war which must be escalated is the war against poverty and discrimination. We must not demand of the America poor that they subsidize a foreign war."

The SNCC statement, issued Thursday, said this country's Negro draftees are being "called on to stifle the liberation of Viet Nam."

The NAACP program director, Glouster Current, said he thinks SNCC national chairman John R. Lewis, 25, and other SNCC leaders "do not express the attitudes of Negro youth."

children also had formed specific goals for their futures.

Kathryn, 15, enjoyed music but wanted a career in the business world. "She had a flare for business matters," her mother said.

Robin Caldwell, a next door neighbor of the Browns, said that Nancy, 12, often had expressed a desire to be a nurse.

"Donald wanted to follow the footsteps of my family and be a contractor. Julie was looking forward to getting married and having children," Mrs. Brown said, referring to her nine-year-old son and seven-year old daughter.

Fire Hits Building at Farmington Country Club

A fire at 1:15 a.m. today destroyed the maintenance building at the Farmington Country Club in Farmington Township, causing an estimated $25,000 total damage to the building and contents.

Cause of the fire in the 10-year-old building located near the center of the golf course was undetermined.

A golf club spokesman said that the 25-by-75-foot building contained a truck, golf carts and maintenance equipment.

The club is located at 27700 Haggerty near 12 Mile Road.

India Warned by China Again

Diplomat Says Note Is Strongly Worded

TASHKENT, U.S.S.R. (AP) — The Indian government said today it has received a new and "very severe warning" from Communist China during the Tashkent summit conference with Pakistan.

India's foreign secretary, C. S. Jha, told newsmen the Chinese communication is "strongly worded even as Chinese notes go."

He added: "Its timing is something one really has to take notice of... very odd."

The note, he said, concerned "the so-called, alleged intrusions, on the basis of which we always are warned."

China and India fought a brief but bitter war along their Himalayan frontier in 1962 and in recent months, during India's new trouble with Pakistan, Peking has been especially menacing.

A constant stream of Chinese notes accused India of sending troops across the border into Chinese-held Tibet, and alleges other "provocative acts."

Jha said the new note was received "yesterday or the day before" and that because he has been in Tashkent, away from India, he has not had opportunity to study the note carefully.

Jha is in Tashkent for talks called by the Soviet Union in an attempt to bring about a peaceful settlement of disputes between India and Pakistan. Contacts between the two at the meeting dropped off and they are reported still far from agreement.

Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri of India and President Mohammed Ayub Khan of Pakistan had no meeting, nor did their large delegations of aides.

Official spokesmen did not rule out a later Shastri-Ayub meeting. But they noted that the conference, which opened last Tuesday, still doesn't have an agenda.

Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, who has spent hours conferring with Shastri and Ayub, did not meet either today. But Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko conferred with Foreign Minister Z.A. Bhutto of Pakistan.

She suffered multiple rib fractures when the car she was driving collided with one driven by Dennis M. Martin, 18, of 760 Sanders, Oxford.

Pontiac police said the accident took place about 3 p.m. at the intersection of Mt. Clemens and Melrose.

Emergency Treatment

Two men, whose cars crashed head-on at 6:09 a.m. today in Bloomfield Township, received emergency treatment at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and were expected to be admitted.

Injured in the accident on Telegraph north of Long Lake Road were James Dwyer, 35, of Detroit and Daniel Smith, 23, of Trailer 203, Southfield Downs Trailer Park, Southfield.

'65 Building Permits, Value Well Below '64 Totals in City

As reflected by the number of building permits issued, building activity slowed down last year in Pontiac.

There were 448 less permits issued in 1965 than 1964.

The estimated value of new construction also dipped, falling from $16,261,156 in 1964 to $9,866,342 last year.

The total number of building permits in 1964 was 1,915 compared to 1,467 last year.

Part of the drop in building activity was reflected in new family dwellings. Last year there were 133 permits issued for construction valued at $1,108,200.

1964 FIGURE

This compared with 1964 when 239 permits were issued for new family dwellings valued at $3,894,345.

December building activity, as reflected by the number of permits, was down, from November although the estimated value of construction was up nearly $1 million.

There were 82 permits issued last month compared to 102 in November. The value of construction last month was $1,290,380 compared to only $356,064 in November.

Permits for new family dwellings totaled 19 last month, compared to four in November. The value of new housing construction was $158,500 in December compared to only $33,000 in November.

Among permits issued last month were two for new commercial buildings, total construction valued at $181,687; $1 for residential alterations and repairs at $44,463; eight for commercial alterations and repairs at $92,900; one for a fire storage building at $515,856; and an air compressor building at $265,589.

King Aims Big Rights Drive at Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. says that financial institutions will be prime targets in a massive civil rights campaign he plans to bring to Chicago.

King, winner of the Nobel Peace Prize, announced Friday the opening of a drive he called "the first significant Northern freedom movement ever attempted by major civil rights forces."

King said banks, loan companies, mortgage companies and insurance firms are high on the list of "massive action" targets in the city. Financial institutions were one of 12 problem areas sketched by King.

King accused some money handling institutions of charging higher interest rates to Negroes than to whites. He said many refused to finance real estate transactions in slum and transitional communities where Negroes live.

BLACK ISLAND

The Rev. James Bevel, direct action leader of King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference said a "black island" has been deliberately created in Chicago by the Chicago Real Estate Board, banks, and saving and loan institutions.

Bevel appeared before a panel of newsmen on a radio show recorded for broadcast Sunday on WLS in Chicago.

"Chicago is maintaining an internal colonial system," he said, adding that slum areas in which Negroes are forced to live are geographically outlined by real estate operators and lending institutions.

"We have a dual housing market here," he said, "that exploits both Negroes and whites."

ACTION PROGRAM

Both King and Bevel said their words were the prelude to a three-step action program they hoped would result in the mobilization of 100,000 unemployed Negroes ready to demonstrate, "whenever the occasion seems tactically important."

Such occasions, said a spokesman for Al Raby, who convened the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations, would be allowed to "ferment up" from members of the mass organization he hopes will be formed in the next two months. King said gangs were a potential source of available civil rights manpower.

Raby's group, which invited King's organization to Chicago, said it would work with an estimated 50 organizers brought from the South to form a "strongly mobilized, tightly organized," civil rights force in the city.

King said demonstrations will begin March 1.

Effort to Slow
Ionia Transfer
Setup Barred

DETROIT (AP) — Efforts to cut the number of patients transferred from Ionia State Hospital to the Wayne County Jail were thwarted Friday.

Recorder's Court judges ruled Michigan law prevents them from ordering the hospital to keep patients who have been certified as competent to stand trial. Such patients must be transferred to the jail, the judges said.

Chief Assistant Wayne County Prosecutor Samuel Brezner had asked the judges to rule whether these patients could be kept at Ionia until a trial could be scheduled.

Brezner said in past years an average of 28 such patients were returned to Detroit to stand trial.

56 SUCH PERSONS

On Dec. 30, 56 such persons were in the county jail, he said, adding he had been advised another 24 would be returned soon.

Brezner said this could create such a backlog of cases that the 10 Recorder's Court judges would find their dockets jammed.

The problem arose because Ionia officials started more intensive screening and examination of criminally insane patients about eight months ago, Brezner said. Combined with improved therapies and treatment techniques, this led to a greater outflow of such patients to the jail, he added.

Request Due

The Waterford Township Board Monday night will hear a request of the planning commission to make assistant planner Curtis Rossow a permanent employee.

Rossow was hired last summer on a probationary basis, at a salary in excess of $6,000.

His duties include reviewing subdivision plats and serving as a zoning administrator.

In other business, the board will discuss a report of the commission's third year "701" planning program.

Total cost of the program is $25,000, of which $16,900 will be provided through federal funds.

Coals of Baker Case Stirred by Grand Jury

The long-smoldering BOBBY BAKER scandal on which an influential lid has been clamped has again burst forth.

The new phase of the notorious scandal that still cries for full airing takes the form of a Federal grand jury indictment charging BAKER with having feloniously converted to his own use moneys entrusted to him for legislative lobbying and for evasion of income taxes covering two years.

The former Senate Democratic secretary resigned in late 1963 under a cloud of influence peddling on Capitol Hill and other nefarious practices for which his position of trust afforded opportunity.

Although a Senate investigation of BAKER's murky activities was conducted, it was kept on a low key and carefully skirted involvement of top government and legislative figures that well-founded rumor pointed to.

Republicans charged that the whole investigation was a whitewash, and the issue figured prominently in BARRY GOLDWATER's 1964 campaign for the presidency.

To Republican Sen. JOHN J. WILLIAMS of Delaware must go a large measure of credit for initiating the investigation such as it was and commendation for his persistence in pushing further investigation of BAKER's tangled pursuits.

Along with Baker, the grand jury indicted, Clifford Jones, former lieutenant governor of Nevada, for perjury. Other prominent figures could be drawn into the proceedings as witnesses when and if the case goes to trial.

If convicted on all counts, BAKER would face maximum penalties of 48 years in prison and fines of $47,000.

But if we were to venture a New Year's prediction, it would be that the indictment would be satisfied by a quiet plea of guilty with punishment in the form of monetary expropriation — which BAKER is well able to ante up.

Should this indeed be the outcome, it would be a travesty of justice that one so culpable could escape just severity of the law.

Carrot Supplants Stick in Safe Driving Move

Worthy a round of applause is the good driver program sponsored and financed by the Pontiac Exchange Club with the collaboration of the Pontiac Police Department and the safety committee of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce.

The month-long program that ended with 1965 saw four autoists rewarded with $25 savings bonds for praiseworthy driving conduct as observed by police department traffic patrolmen.

Those cited were a trucking firm executive, a woman bus driver, a West Bloomfield Township housewife and a local high school student. Their good driving deeds covered:

● Helpful consideration for elderly couple caught in traffic midway of a crossing;

● Averting a possible accident by maneuvering to halt traffic while a car with disabled brakes cleared an intersection;

● Moving curbside to permit a speeding ambulance free passage while other drivers disregarded it;

● Solicitude for the safety of a couple of dogs trapped in traffic.

In our continuous war against reckless drivers, routine recognition of the helpful could have most salutary effect.

We commend the agencies that joined in this fine civic enterprise and congratulate those whose observance of the golden rule of the road did not pass unnoticed.

"WOMEN Are Here to Stay." — Title of Book. This is no doubt true; women are notoriously persistent creatures.

BEFORE a person sets out to test his faith by trying to move a mountain, he should begin with molehills and work up.

LBJ Faces Lull in Economy Rifts

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON — President Johnson, pressing peace efforts to end the war in Viet Nam, faces a welcome lull in the home front battle against economic strife and the threat of inflation.

With the Big Steel price flap settled, the prospects during the rest of 1966 are for a minimum of major labor-industry squabbles threatening big strikes or widespread wage-price escalation.

Johnson, who didn't hesitate to remind both unions and management that U.S. fighting men were dying in Viet Nam, had to step into a number of big disputes last year, including steel negotiations and shipping strikes.

But this year will see the fewest major labor contract negotiations in recent years, reducing the chances of White House intervention in the name of the national interest.

However, there are some exceptions that could force Johnson back into the labor-management arena at the national level.

DEFERRED PAY HIKES

An estimated record $8 billion a year in deferred wage increases go to some 4 million workers in 1966 and may bear watching for potential upward pressure on prices.

But government economists generally believe these wage increases — negotiated previously in long-term contracts — will cause little inflationary squeeze because businessmen have had plenty of time to figure them into pricing policies.

Perhaps the biggest potential threat to labor peace is a renewal of economic warfare in the railroad industry, which enjoyed its first relatively peaceful year in 1965 since 1960.

Five train operating unions plan to demand wage increases, and a flare-up is expected in the locomotive firemen's case.

LOST 17,000 JOBS

The firemen, who have lost some 17,000 jobs under a federal arbitration ruling, already have demanded a 25 per cent wage hike and insist the railroads fill all the abolished jobs when the two-year arbitration law expires March 31.

"Frivolous," snapped chief railroad negotiator J. E. Wolfe in indicating stiff industry resistance.

In the past, railroad negotiations have frequently wound up in the White House.

Besides the major contract talks on the horizon, there are the usual host of smaller negotiations.

Strike activity—at a six-year high in 1965—is expected to be down substantially in 1966.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

"But I say unto you which hear, love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you." St. Luke 6:27, 28.

Bob Timberlake, of the New York Giants' football team, when giving an autograph always lists one of his favorite verses of scripture after his name. He got the idea from another athlete while at a Fellowship of Christian Athlete's camp. Bob feels that this is one of the important ways he can give witness to his faith.

While at the University of Michigan, where he majored in sociology, he found a renewed dedication to the Christian life. Now he is taking courses at Princeton Theological Seminary when time permits; after the season he will enroll full time. He doesn't know yet just how he will use his seminary training. He says, "Someone once said a Christian never has the right to ask where he is going, and I feel this is true for me. It may be a parish in Kansas or doing Christian work in New York or missionary work. I believe God wants me to be in pro football and through this gain access to my life's work."

Bob is convinced that "dedicated intelligence" is needed to combat the cynicism in the world and he is working to that end.

Finding the Way:

Hope Remains in These Times

By RALPH W. LOEW, D.D.

There was a birth here. That's the remembrance which is ours two weeks after Christmas. It wasn't a pretty world — into which the baby was born. There was a tyrant. There were soldiers of a conquering army. There were fools, idiots, cruel men and always the indifferent and the casual.

DR. LOEW

Now that the trimmings are packed away, the carols stilled and the trees burned, the harshness of the scene is apparent. The birth came as a moment of pain in an age of pain. It was "an uncontrollable mystery on the bestial floor." There was a birth here.

And so the baby grew. Eight days later, his parents had taken the little child to the temple for the ceremonies of their tradition. There an aged woman and an elderly man had greeted the child. It is difficult for youth to recognize wisdom in age. It's as difficult for age to recognize the possibility of greatness in youth.

It's more than a quip that says "Behind every successful man is a surprised mother-in-law." Yet, instead of breast-beating and hand-wringing, this

Smiles

The French must have had mop-haired types long ago. They have an ancient proverb: "Long hair, little sense."

Dad says he wishes his income and the cost of living could practice a little togetherness.

The fellow who always has an angle usually uses it to throw somebody a curve.

Courtesy takes no more trouble than rudeness. Just more class.

Construction of the nationwide interstate highway speeds on. Which is what a lot of stupid driver will do.

nan Simeon cuddled a babe and talked of the days that were to come. There was a birth here.

This was much more than insight. This was the faith that God continues to break through our impossibilities and there is still the hope that one can find love incarnate. That's important for us to know in this new year.

There have been strident voices insisting that the social structures of our culture make love impossible. Sometimes there's enough evidence to tempt one to accept that.

Yet, that growing child was nursing through those first few weeks in a world of terror and somehow escaped the wily planning of the tyrant. Try to trap

God and you learn that. That's the afterglow of Christmas. There was a birth here.

Years ago a relative of ours came to visit in our home. When she left she kept the memory of four active boys. The years passed. Once more it was Christmas and she remembered us as we were, forgetting that in the weeks and years following that Christmas we had grown.

Joyously she packed a box and sent it to us. It was a gracious thing to do. Imagine our laughter as we college boys unpacked the toys and gingerbread men.

Now the laughter has been stilled, for this is what we do with the babe of Bethlehem. We want to freeze the action, keep in the manger and coo a carol. It was a different world since there was a birth here.

The child grew. The birth is remembered because of the words, the deeds and the fact of the Man. Remembering his life, his birth is recalled.

Now that the days slip by can we recognize the fact that he stabbed consciences, disturbed men's minds, upset the comfortable and stirred the imaginations? That birth cuts across the dismal trivialities of our days and the madness of our deeds. The Word did become flesh. There was a birth here.

That's the comforting and the haunting remembrance now that the weeks of a new year slip by. And in our time, there's yet the hope: There is a birth here.

Use Formula to Get Ahead Fast

By WASHINGTON STAFF WASHINGTON (NEA)—Perhaps the one goal that most of the 197 million Americans have in common is the desire for more money.

In their new book, "This U.S.A.," Ben Wattenberg and Richard Scammon (former director of the Census Bureau) use 1960 census statistics to work out a formula typifying the American who is getting ahead the fastest. Here it is:

"Be a doctor. Be a white, western doctor. Live in the suburbs, encourage your wife to work. Have three children, be a veteran aged 45 to 49. Don't play the ponies."

President Johnson — like the late President John F. Kennedy — is calling fewer and fewer cabinet meetings.

Kennedy averaged less than one meeting every five weeks, and many of them lasted barely half an hour. Johnson initially called a session every four weeks or so, but this regularity has tailed off since his operation. There has been only one cabinet meeting in the last three months.

This infrequency, can sometimes be helpful to cabinet members, as former HEW Secretary Abraham Ribicoff

'Remedy for Littering Rests With All Citizens'

I read with interest the summary of our mayor regarding the progress made by our City in the last year. While the City fathers are to be commended for their efforts, I feel there is room for considerable improvement with respect to awakening a civic responsibility and pride in all our citizens.

A basic problem is the littering condition rampant in and around Pontiac. No matter where one looks, debris is everywhere. Beer bottles, cans, paper and paper containers fairly cover the City streets and roadways.

A littering ordinance with prominently displayed signs stating same and enforcement by stiff penalties might help to improve this situation. However, the basic remedy rests with the citizens themselves — young and old alike.

MRS. HOWARD TAYLOR

(Editor's Note: How about some women's garden group taking up the littering problem and making it a civic project? Beauty rests in the hands of milady.)

'True Americans Support Freedom Fight'

Answering Joanne Fireman, our servicemen are in Viet Nam to insure freedom from ravages of communism; and to stem Communist aggression from the North which could threaten world peace. The truly patriotic Americans are those fighting, being wounded, and even dying for the world freedom; and Americans at home who back these courageous men. I'm the father of four boys, and I would be proud if they were called upon to fight for freedom.

'Citizens Pay for Government Programs'

Tax cuts and maybe more . . . higher and higher wages and shorter hours . . . bigger social security . . . free education . . . free medical care . . . and the government will be your conscience so you won't have to concern yourself about anything.

Hallelujah! It's wonderful!

But who is going to pay for all this — Santa Claus? The Easter rabbit? The government has to collect in taxes all it spends, plus the government handling charge. So, you pay your share of all those fancy government programs. That wasn't in the noble speeches which authorized the billions, but they're added to the prices you pay now — or they're borrowed and so added to the prices you pay tomorrow.

But you pay. And pay. And pay.

FENTON R. MATHEWS

'Let Game Officials Regulate Deer Hunting'

Recently I attended a session of the "hearings" conducted by Senator O'Brien on the question of taking antlerless deer by hunters. I was shocked to have an elected representative of our legislature conduct and participate in such an outrageous meeting. The chairman himself said he was ashamed to hunt in Michigan because we shoot antlerless deer—a childish statement.

He permitted a witness to state that he knew positively that our Director of Conservation came from Wisconsin, inferring that this was a terrible calamity. Our director does not come from Wisconsin, although I consider the citizens of Wisconsin to be first class. The chairman boasted that "experts" had managed the deer herd long enough and now the laymen would take over.

We hired competent game managers and gave them a job to do — now let's let them do it!

Summing up the Republican election gains of last November — which, with the exception of John Lindsay's victory in the New York mayoralty race, were rather minor — a Republican politician recently concluded, "The GOP is not dead, it isn't even sick."

Somebody passed this remark on to Postmaster General Lawrence O'Brien, who sniffed: "I've always admired modern

Make Best of Stay in Train

Trapped Passengers Airlifted

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — What do you do when you're a passenger on a train trapped between slides in a rugged river canyon for a day and a half? Some threw snowballs, others went for hikes while many — young and old — played parlor car games and made new friends.

How do you feel? "Youth couldn't buy such an experience," said Don Bergey, side.

one of the 179 persons aboard a Canadian National Railways train that was caught early Thursday when snow and mud sloughed off the steep sides of the Fraser River Canyon, 120 miles east of here.

MOUNTAIN OF SNOW

"It was terribly precarious," said Ena Anderson of Winnipeg. "We were stuck there with a mountain of snow hanging over us and the river on the other side."

The passengers arrived here Friday night after being airlifted from the stranded train to Hope, 100 miles east of here, then transferred to buses for the trip to Vancouver.

The airlift was accomplished by a Royal Canadian Air Force helicopter, capable of carrying 22 persons. Three other copters also shuttled between the snow-blocked canyon to Hope, 22 miles away.

At first it was feared the evacuation could not be completed before darkness forced a halt. As dusk fell, the helicopters sat down on a makeshift landing in front of the engine, the scene lighted by the train's head lamp.

KEPT COMING

Barry Young, 20, a University of British Columbia student returning from his home in Regina, Sask., described the scene soon after the train was blocked Thursday.

"At breakfast the snow coming down the slopes was partially covering the wheels. By dinner, it was halfway up the windows. It kept coming and by supper it was covering our windows. In some spots later on it completely covered the car."

"People realized what danger they were in, but they didn't seem worried."

There was enough food on the train and the only problem was having enough water for the heating system.

WORKED HARD

"We worked hard to keep our morale up," said Mrs. Anderson. "There was a little girl who played the guitar and I sang songs."

One unidentified woman passenger summed up the incident: "I think we're all a bit better for the experience, a bit more tolerant of each other."

Postholiday Lull Moves In

By Esther Van Wagoner Tutty
WASHINGTON — The first week of the new year has not been festive in Washington. The White House lights were out. Parties were few. No visiting president, king, prime minister arrived.

Members of Congress began drifting back to the capital in the wake of the new session of the Congress next week. Many of them are talking about going on a diet to recover from holiday feasting back home.

That this, after-the-holidays lull will soon end comes with a flood of invitations for functions when things are really back to normal.

An early sign of spring in this winter-without-snow, is the selection, now in progress, of princesses to represent the states at the annual Cherry Blossom Festival in April.

The highest overseas Peace Corps post held by a woman is in Tunisia where Mrs. Betty Crites Dillon, is the newly appointed deputy director. This former air transport examiner of Civil Aeronautics Board took along her 9-year-old daughter to Tunisia where she will help direct the efforts of 200 volunteers.

A quiet, modest, former San Francisco weekly newspaper publisher slipped into Washington this week with an idea so simple and yet so basic it might bring peace on earth.

MINUTE FOR PEACE

John McConnell would have every person in the world observe a "minute for peace" at the same time every day.

At 2:00, he said, let each person, in his own way, say a prayer for peace. The impetus of such unified expression of a desire for peace, he solemnly and desperately believes, would eventually end war.

John McConnell is an idealist and a realistic campaigner. He's convinced "this is the hour" while the President is seeking to cease the fighting in Viet Nam.

The President and Mrs. Johnson have been urged to endorse such a movement. A White House spokesman said "maybe later" fearing probably to add a new element to current American foreign policy in Asia.

"If I'm so smart how come I'm not working for you?"

No Pay Limit on Lawyer Post

Oakland County's Probate Court yesterday was authorized to fill a staff attorney vacancy even if it meant going beyond the wage classification specified in the budget.

The salaries committee of the County Board of Supervisors ruled that the court could hire an attorney in the county's top legal pay classification, at an annual starting salary of $10,100.

The salary range in the top classification is $10,100 to $11,600. The vacancy was in a wage class ranging from $8,000 to $9,500.

The court has been operating with only one attorney on its staff since November when the other resigned to enter private practice.

74 More Peace Corps Teachers in Nigeria

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — Seventy-four U.S. Peace Corps volunteers arrived yesterday for a two-year teaching tour in secondary schools, increasing the number in Nigeria to 632.

The new arrivals have been trained at the University of California at Los Angeles, Michigan State and the Peace Corps center in the Virgin Islands.

State Government Execs Step Down a Notch, Get More Pay

LANSING (AP) — For the state government executive who has risen to the head of his department, there is in many cases a sure-fire formula for higher pay and better working conditions: step down a notch.

Max M. Horton, for example, gained $4,000 a year in salary by quitting as director of the Michigan Employment Security Commission in 1963 and resuming his old job as deputy director under civil service.

But even if the lower job's pay isn't higher, the pressure is quite a bit less, say several men who have quit as department heads.

Gerald Eddy took a slight pay cut when he quit two years ago as conservation director and returned to his civil service job as head of the Geological Survey Division.

"I was able to relax and enjoy life for the first time in 13 years when I went back to the civil service job," he told a newsman.

The conservation director now receives $20,000 a year, raised in 1964 from $17,500.

George McIntyre resigned Oct. 1 from the $18,000-a-year job as state agriculture director.

He said the director of a major state agency finds the job follows him home evenings and weekends.

EARNED MORE

And, he added, "in all the years I served as director, my deputy under civil service earned more money than I did."

McIntyre now is in a $20,000 post in Michigan State University's Cooperative Extension Service.

Some others who have stepped down or out:

—Gus Harrison, who resigned last month after 12 years as State Corrections Department

John Glenn's Wife

Undergoes Operation

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. John H. Glenn Jr., wife of the former astronaut, is reported doing fine at Methodist Hospital, where she underwent a major operation yesterday.

Glenn, who made America's first orbital space flight in 1962, said the surgery had been planned for some time, but he wouldn't say just what it was.

director to take an equal-paying $20,000 job as a deputy.

—Charles F. Wagg, who stepped down from state mental health director to deputy, although the Legislature then raised the director's salary by $13,500 a year — to $30,000 — to attract a psychiatrist for the job.

—Allen Mayerson, who in resigning last week as insurance commissioner — said the $16,000 job wasn't worth the grief and suggested the Legislature raise the salary to $25,000 to attract and hold a highly qualified man.

PROFESSOR

Mayerson returned to his former job as professor of actuarial science at the University of Michigan.

Gov. George Romney has recommended a $24,000 salary for the corrections director, but the Legislature decided on $20,000.

"When several people in the department are making more than the director, it is a source of some irritation," Harrison said.

Another factor in Harrison's stepping down was job security, he said.

POSSIBLE POLITICS

Harrison said the Legislature's Executive Reorganization Act opened the corrections director's job to possible political pushing and pulling.

The six-member bipartisan corrections commission was changed to a five-member commission, the experience and job qualifications for the director were written out of the law and the guarantee that a director could be dismissed only for cause and after a hearing also was abolished.

If any state agency should be free of politics and offer its director security, it should be the Corrections Department, Harrison said.

Evangelist Is Dead

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (AP) — Rhea Crawford Lambert, 69, evangelist, politician and social worker known as the "Angel of Broadway," died of complications following a meningitis attack. She earned her nickname in the 1920s when she was a member of the Salvation Army and preached regularly in New York City's Times Square.

Junior Editors Quiz on COLOR IN SPACE

QUESTION: Why is the sky in space black?

ANSWER: Our picture shows a highly dramatic contrast in sky effects. The landscape on top is typical of that on our cheerful earth.

The trees, mountains and houses are all bathed in sunlight, with the sky a beautiful light luminous blue, through which you could look forever.

The same light, in the lower picture, is falling on the harsh landscape of the moon. Soon, astronauts will be landing in such a landscape, and even if the sun is shining, they will see the sky jet black, as in the picture.

The explanation is that the earth is surrounded by an atmosphere of various gases. Billions of particles float in the air belt: specks of dust, droplets of water vapor and so on.

The molecules of these specks catch and break up the light rays coming from the sun, scattering them in different colors.

The sky looks light because of sunlight glinting on such particles as suggested in the diagram, and it looks blue because the short blue rays are more widely scattered through the sky than those of other colors.

There is no atmosphere in space or around the moon and no specks for the sun to flash on; consequently the sky out there looks black, which is not a color by itself, but the absence of light.

FOR YOU TO DO: Emphasize the contrast in our picture by putting a delicate blue sky in the top part, with blue green over the hills and trees. The mountains of the moon should be bright orange or red-brown hues, without any blue to make them look soft and distant.

Dearden of Detroit who will lead the group; and Thomas Mulroy, manager of religious travel for Scandinavian Airlines System. The pilgrimage will celebrate the 1,000 years of Christianity in Poland.

Archbishop Dearden Plans Pilgrimage

Archbishop John F. Dearden of Detroit will lead a pilgrimage celebrating Poland's 1,000 years of Christianity in late April. He will guide Catholics to the shrine of the Virgin of Jasna Gora in Czestochowa for the national Millennium celebration May 3.

The pilgrimage will then continue on to Rome from May 12 to 16.

His Excellency said that, "Catholics from all parts of the world," will join in a public act of thanksgiving.

He also noted, "It is fitting that the Archdiocese of Detroit, which counts so many Catholics of Polish descent among its faithful, have representation in this great event. In order to ensure our participation, I am most happy to sponsor a pilgrimage to the shrine of Our Lady of Czestochowa.

"I hope that many will find it possible to be with us on May 3 at the hallowed Shrine."

Monsignor Alexander A. Cendrowski was named coordinator of the pilgrimage.

Poland's Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski has appealed to all Catholics living abroad to take part in the pilgrimage.

Poland considers itself a Christian nation from the moment when its first King, Duke Mieszko, accepted baptism prior to marrying the Catholic Princess Dabrowka, March 7, 966.

The king's retinue, entire army, and many others followed in his example. The baptism of Mieszko set the stage for Poland's emergence as a member of Western Christianity.

Jasna Gora in Czestochowa, Poland, is the spiritual capitol of the country.

The shrine at Jasna Gora dates from 1384, when Prince Wladyslaw Opolski brought an image of the Virgin Mary, recognized as miraculous, to the monastery of the Pauline Fathers.

Emily Tells Man's Share of Expenses

By The Emily Post Institute

A question of concern to many bridegrooms-to-be is what their expenses are in connection with the wedding.

The bridegroom's expenses include:

The engagement ring — as handsome as he can afford.

A wedding present to the bride — jewels if he is able, always something for her to keep forever.

His bachelor dinner if he gives one.

The bride's bouquet, where local custom requires it, and in any case, a corsage for her to wear when they go away.

The marriage license.

A personal gift to his best man and to each of his ushers; and their hotel expenses, unless they are invited to stay with neighbors or friends.

Unless the entire outfit is rented, he gives his best man and each usher his wedding tie, collar, and gloves.

He provides each of the above with a boutonniere, as well as his own and that of his father.

The wedding ring.

The clergyman's fee. Clergymen do not charge a regular fee, but a donation is expected and it should be in accordance with the circumstances of the family.

From the moment the bride and groom start off on their wedding trip, all the expenditure becomes his.

Q: When a party is given by two or more hostesses, is there any rule as to the order in which their names should appear on the invitations?

A: There is no rule about the order in which their names should appear on the invitations, but the one at whose house the party will be given is usually put first.

Burn Marriage License, Says Abby (Kiddingly)

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a new bride, and now that we are married, my husband told me that the only reason he married me was to avoid the draft.

What shall I do?

DEAR USED: Burn your marriage certificate!

DEAR ABBY: If I don't see my answer in the paper right away, I'll kill myself. I am a 16-year-old girl with the worst kind of problem.

I am pregnant and I'm afraid to tell my parents because I'm afraid they will charge my boy friend with statutory rape. He is 18. If he is found guilty, how long can they put him away for?

Can my parents force me to go to a home for unwed mothers? Can they make me give my baby up? My stepfather is not a U.S. citizen. Can he press charges anyway?

My stepfather knew my friend and I had relations last August. Can he press charges against my friend?

boy friend for that act after consenting to our seeing each other after that?

It sounds like I think you are a lawyer, Abby. I'm sorry, but I don't know where else to get these answers. Also, if you have any ideas on how we can persuade my folks to let us get married, we'd sure appreciate them.

IN TROUBLE DEAR IN: You're right, I'm not a lawyer, but you need the advice and counsel on one. It's the function of the law to protect us as well as to punish, so you should know your rights in order to protect yourselves.

If you can't afford to go to a lawyer, go to a clergyman (any faith, but preferably your own) and ask him to help you. Your problems may not be as insurmountable as you think.

DEAR ABBY: After nearly

Dr. and Mrs. John Hunter of Normdale Avenue, recently of Royal Oak, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Joan, to Larry Lee Preston, son of the Harlan Prestons of Lakeland, Fla. The June bride-elect attended Detroit Bible College and Emmanuel Baptist College, Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Schnake of Eileen Drive announce the engagement of their daughter Jacqueline Kay to Jerry Townsend, son of the Norman Townsends of Myrtle Avenue.

three years, my husband is home from prison. Our two little girls, 7 and 8, and I lived with his people while he was gone.

We told the girls that "Daddy is in the hospital." We were afraid if we told them the truth they might not love him so much. Abby, we have always tried to teach the girls to be truthful.

Will they lose confidence in us when they find out we lied to them about this? How do we tell them? Should we wait until they tell us that they've heard it?

They are bound to get some word of it from their playmates as this is a small town and everyone here knows it. If we should tell them first, how should we do it?

DEAR DELICATE: Tell them, before they hear it elsewhere, that Daddy broke a law and he had to go to prison as punishment. Stress the point that Daddy has paid for his mistake, that he is square with the world now and that no one should hold it against him.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press for Abby's booklet, "HOW TO WRITE LETTERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS."

Coeds 'Typing' Way to His Heart

DAVIS, Calif. (UPI) — One way to a college man's heart is through typing his term paper, a sociologist at the University of California suggests.

Dr. John Finely Scott, a careful observer of the tender traps set by college sweethearts, believes the role of the sororities in helping land a husband is rapidly decreasing.

"The girls would reach the hearts of their men most effectively . . . not by pasting paper flowers on the sorority football float . . . but, rather, through typing their term papers," said the sociologist.

Membership in sororities and fraternities was once the most certain way to marriage, Scott said, but today a student competing for grades just doesn't have the time for complicated sorority forms of courtship.

VARIED GROUPS

And the growing significance of "more varied student groups" means the social sororities are no longer in the pink of health, he said.

Not long ago, said the sociologist, sororities could control the type of eligible bachelor a young girl would encounter with a careful dating system worked out with socially equal fraternities.

But today, he said, setting a daughter loose on a large campus leads to a "great danger."

APT TO FALL

"Young girls, however properly reared, are likely to fall in love and . . . love is a potentially random factor, with no regard for class boundaries."

Catherine Amman Weds In St. Michael Ceremony

Parents of the couple are Bernard R. Amman of Lincoln

MRS. F. W. KRAVETZ

Floor Business to Be Waiting for Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen-ate Democratic leader Mike

Mansfield of Montana said today he will have some floor business ready for his colleagues to transact as soon as the 89th Congress reconvenes Monday.

President Johnson plans to present his 1966 program in his State of the Union speech to a joint session Wednesday night.

Both Senate and House quit last October with relatively clean calendars after clearing a torrent of President Johnson's "Great Society" legislation in a 10-month first session.

But Mansfield pointed out that there are some measures which were approved by Senate committees last year but not passed by the full body.

LIMITED REQUESTS

He said he expected only limited new requests from the President this year.

The Democratic leader said his present intention is to call up first a bill asked by President Johnson in last year's State of the Union message which would establish a national wild rivers system to preserve beauty spots in a number of states.

This might be followed, Mansfield said, by a bill to authorize a $9.5-million U.S. contribution to the Inter-American Cultural and Trade Center in Dade County, Fla.

Top priority will be given to the expected early request from Johnson for additional billions to fight the war in Viet Nam, Mansfield added. It is understood this appropriation may run more than $12 billion.

LABOR LAW

Another measure scheduled for early consideration is the controversial House-passed measure to repeal section 14B of the Taft-Hartley labor relations law. This bill, strongly supported by the Johnson administration, would deny states the right to ban the union shop under which a worker can be required to join a union to keep his job.

A filibuster led by Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois prevented the Senate from even formally considering the bill last October. A new effort to bring it up could tie up the Senate for weeks.

Mansfield said he would discuss this ticklish issue with the Democratic Policy Committee before scheduling it definitely, but he predicted it would be before the Senate soon.

The Democratic leader said he was confident the bill would pass the Senate "if we can bring it to a vote."

READY FOR BATTLE

Dirksen said he was ready to renew the battle.

There have been some reports he might try to bring up first his equally controversial proposal — a constitutional amendment aimed at the Supreme Court's one man-one vote decision on state legislative reapportionment.

The amendment would permit one branch of a legislature to be apportioned on factors other than population.

After Heart Attack

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was on his way to Palm Desert, Calif., for his annual winter vacation today, looking fit for a man who had suffered a heart attack in November.

"You look wonderful," he was told as he arrived from his Gettysburg farm and prepared to board a train here Friday.

"Thank you, I feel fine," he replied with a smile.

Eisenhower was accompanied by his wife, Mamie, and her uncle, Joel Carlson of Boone, Iowa.

FOUND FIT

Eisenhower, 75, suffered his attack in Georgia and was hospitalized nearly a month. He has been recuperating at his farm and was pronounced fit to travel after a two-day physical examination at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington.

As he walked the few feet to the train platform, he flashed his "V-for-victory" sign and exchanged pleasantries with some railroad workmen.

The Eisenhower party then boarded the train, appropriately called "The General."

They were accompanied on their cross-country trip by Mr. and Mrs. George Allen of Washington, long-time family friends, and three Secret Service agents.

SPECIAL CARS

The group boarded two special cars provided each year by the Santa Fe Railroad.

"While en route, the general plans to work on correspondence and other work that was interrupted by his recent hospitalization," said Brig. Gen. Robert Shultz, Eisenhower's top aide, adding, "Within a couple of weeks after reaching California, he hopes to resume golf."

The train is scheduled to arrive at San Bernardino, Calif., Monday morning.

Ford Cites Fumes Curb Cost

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Putting devices to reduce the amount of motor fumes on all cars would cost the American consumer millions of dollars a year, Henry Ford II said Friday.

Ford, board chairman of Ford Motor Co., told a group of civic and business leaders that installing the device would cost about $50 for each Ford car and the cost would have to be passed on to the consumers.

He estimated this would amount to $500 million on Ford products alone.

He also said he looked forward to a record year in 1966, but this could be thwarted by three things — the air pollution issue, the "political football" of more built-in safety features, and rising costs of materials and labor.

Ford came to Cincinnati for the opening of a new agency in the Queensgate Urban Redevelopment Area.

Sato Is Said to Have Asked U.S. to Extend Lull to Give Japan Peace Effort a Chance

TOKYO (AP) — Prime Minister Eisaku Sato was reported today to have asked the United States to extend its halt in the bombing of North Viet Nam until at least Jan. 22 to give Japan's own peace drive a chance to get off the ground.

Japanese newspapers said that Sato made the request to roving U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman during their meeting Friday.

Harriman was quoted as replying that the length of the moratorium depends on whether the Communists show any signs of abating their offensives in the south or otherwise recognize the American goodwill gesture.

The Jan. 22 date was selected because this is the "Tet," or lunar New Year, during which there may be a cease-fire in the ground fighting.

Japan's aim is to urge the Russians to see what they can do to bring the North Vietnamese to the conference table. Shiina is a stubborn and persistent man whose tenacity brought about a diplomatic rapprochement between Japan and South Korea after 14 years of failures by his predecessors.

There has been no confirmation from either American or Japanese sources that Sato asked for the extension of the bombing lull.

Aside from a brief statement, neither side has said anything for publication. However, immediately after a luncheon with

Antiques And Heirlooms Highlight Country Kitchen's Cozy Fireplace Corner

Waxed Ranch-Plank Flooring Easy-To-Care-For In Kitchen Work Area, Says Mrs. Macadam

background for LIVING

Coziness of Early America

By JODY HEADLEE

Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

Heart of the Richard G. Macadam's home on Wye Oak in Bloomfield Township, is the friendly country kitchen.

Found at the back of the house with the cafe-curtained windows overlooking a busy bird feeder, the area is furnished in an Early American vein.

A rich green provincial-print wallpaper, brightened with touches of bittersweet, is used between the pine ceiling beams, above the pine dado and on the soffit and end-wall of the work area.

Pointing to the tapestry-covered mahogany rocker before the used-brick fireplace, Mrs. Macadam smiled.

"That was a family heirloom I didn't really appreciate until our children began to arrive. And, believe me, it's wonderful."

The Macadams have two youngsters, Loch, 12, and Heather, 5.

Supporting an adventurous ice plant on the pine mantel is a wrought-iron candelabrum with aqua candles. Driftwood, said to have come from a pirate ship downed in the Atlantic, centers the mantel arrangement.

Antiques, a key and its lock mounted on a board, and a covered cheese dish, fill out the grouping.

Holding unshelled nuts on the hearth is a hollow wooden container.

"That is a hominy mortar," explained Mrs. Macadam. "Indians once used it to grind their corn to meal."

In front of the fireplace's mesh screen is an Early American answer to cold feet.

When temperatures plummeted, hot coals were stuffed inside the metal container which was placed on the floor of the buggy or sleigh.

A wooden frame around the miniature oven prevented toes from roasting instead of toasting.

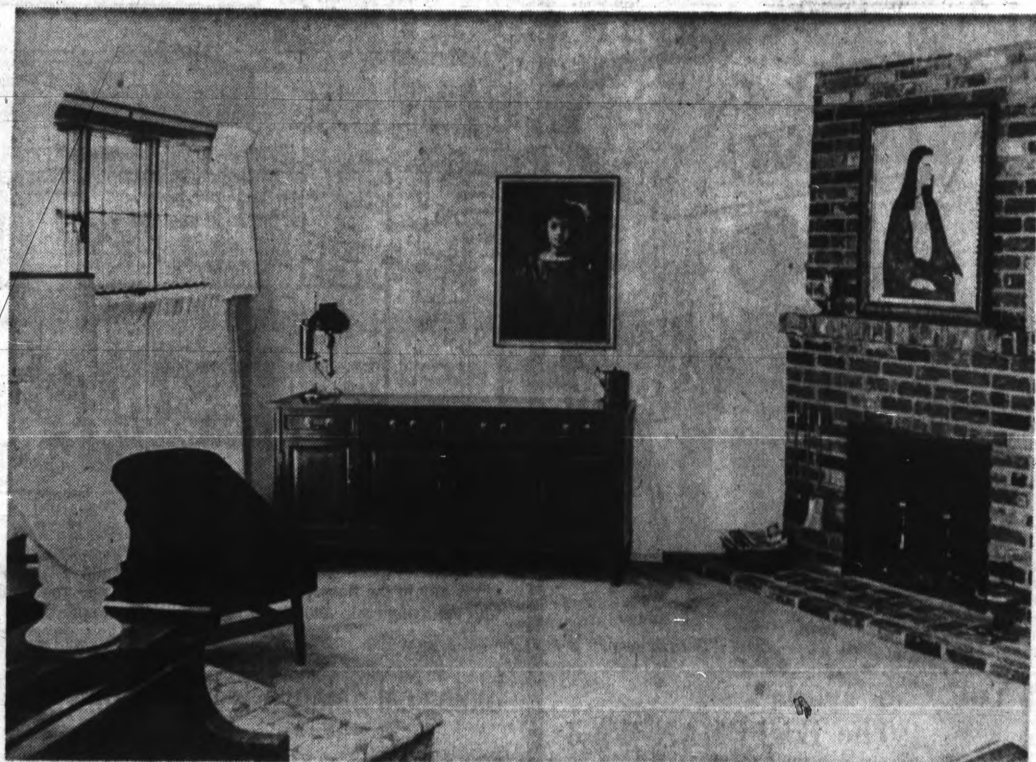

Mrs. Macadam introduces a change of pace in the decoration scheme of the adjoining living room.

Against a background of pale green walls and carpeting, the attractive and effective period blend encompasses a wide range including contemporary as well as an Egyptian goblet accent piece on the brick mantel.

Above the distressed-walnut stereo, a reproduction of Rembrandt's "Titus' Son" is balanced by a brass student lamp with a shade of green overlay.

A contemporary black and gray wool occasional chair completes a conversation grouping in the room with an angled sofa.

Gracing the grand piano which dominates one corner of the formal room is a bust of Beethoven.

Design G-18 has a living room with a fireplace, a dining room, foyer, kitchen, family room, laundry lavatory, three bedrooms and a large bath, with a habitable area of 1469 square feet. In addition, there is a covered front entryway, a rear storage porch, a terrace and a one-car garage. Over-all dimensions are 59' by 25'6". The plans include a basement.

TRIM ONE-STORY: Although of a simple rectangular design, which cuts building costs, this three-bedroom ranch has been given a homey, welcoming appearance by well-designed entryway and excellent placement of planters and bedroom window box.

Transitional Unites Best of Old and New

The term "transitional" has been given to the type of residential architecture which spans the gap between traditional and contemporary. It reflects the size of the forward step which the general home-buying public has been willing to take over the course of the years.

It therefore depicts the choice of the majority of people.

There is much of the transitional about Design G-18, the latest House of the Week.

A one-story house of modest dimensions and less than 1,500 square feet of habitable area, it has features seen in both the authentic traditional and the true contemporary.

An interior detail borrowed from the traditional era by architect Rudolph A. Matern is the window seat in the living room.

Pleasant informality and warm comfort are, for some reason, always associated with a window seat.

This one is 11' long, providing plenty of space for several persons when the owners have the proverbial "houseful of company."

It isn't difficult, either, to picture it as a place for the youngsters to crouch and wait for Dad to come home from work.

Borrowed from the contemporary is the storage wall in the family room. Multiple activities of the present day are organized in this long cabinet, 10' long and 2' deep.

It is divided into four main sections, any part of which may be opened by itself.

Bifold doors are used, so that no large open door is a hazard. At normal desk height, two slide-out desk tops provide work space.

The cabinets contain bookshelves, magazine storage, game slots, desk drawers, trophy space, refreshment equipment, built-in TV, stereo and speakers, record slots and sewing machine space.

With some imagination, there are unlimited possibilities for this built-in organizer.

Both the living room and the family room are essential parts of combination areas.

The living room, with a fireplace and the previously-mentioned window seat, is combined with the dining room to provide a sweep of 29' at the front of the house.

The family room is combined with the kitchen in a sweep of 30'.

And adjacent to this latter combination is a mud room-lavatory, with a lavatory, a door to the rear and another door into the garage.

The stairway to the basement also is in this area. Sliding glass doors lead from the family room to a rear terrace.

To the right of the center hall are three bedrooms and a bath, zoned for privacy and with plenty of closet space.

The circulation plan permits entry into this part of the house without going through any other rooms.

It also allows anyone coming through the covered entryway to move through the foyer to either the living room-dining room or the family room-kitchen combination without putting a foot anywhere else.

The transitional theme is carried out on the exterior of the house.

Although essentially a modern ranch, the structure has enough touches of the traditional to present a look of warmth and hospitality.

There's an interesting feature at the rear of the garage. It's a kind of porch with a large storage area accessible from the outside, excellent for garden equipment, toys, etc.

Note the rectangular design of this house. As anyone who has ever built a home knows, this is the type of design that helps to cut building costs.

How to Save on Taxes—6

Combat Zone Pay Is Exempt

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the sixth of a 14-part series, "Cut Your Own Taxes," by tax expert Ray De Crane, designed to help readers save money on their income tax returns.)

By RAY DE CRANE
NEA Special Writer

Can you imagine this scene between two GIs fighting their way out of an ambush in Viet Nam?

"Hey, Joe, you hear the news?" hollers one machine-gunner to another, "LBJ says we don't have to pay a tax on the pay we get for this."

It's true. By designating Viet Nam as a combat zone, the President made military pay earned there by U.S. personnel exempt from tax.

For enlisted men the exemption applies to the full pay for each month earned in a combat zone. Any part of a month is considered a full month.

A serviceman who arrived in Viet Nam on the 29th of a month eliminates from his return the full pay earned for that month. The exclusion remains in effect so long as he continues to serve in the area.

IF HOSPITALIZED

If the enlisted man is hospitalized as a result of such service, the exclusion applies to all pay received in the hospital, again with any part of a month counting as a full month.

For officers in combat zones or hospitalized as a result of such service, the first $200 received monthly is tax-exempt.

While military personnel pay a tax on all regular and longevity pay, subsistence, uniform and quarters allowances are tax-exempt.

The have the same April 15 filing deadline as civilians but if they are out of the country on that date, they receive an automatic two-month extension for filing. Those serving in Viet Nam have until 180 days after they leave Viet Nam to file their returns.

TAXABLE MILITARY PAY

Taxable military pay includes the following:

- Pay received on active duty or while attending armed services academies.
- Lump sum payments upon service separation.
- Reenlistment bonus.
- ROTC pay.
- Reserve training pay.
- Longevity pay.

Nontaxable military and veterans' pay includes:

- Payments equal to six months pay to beneficiaries of servicemen who died on active duty.

Snow Melt, Rainfall
Up State Water Level

LANSING (AP) — Snow melt and heavy rains brought up Michigan's ground water levels during December, but levels in southern Lower Michigan still were below average, the U.S. Geological Survey reports.

At Roscommon, the level in a key well rose to a record high for December. The level in the key well at Marquette in the Upper Peninsula remained near average for the sixth straight month.

• Veterans' benefits paid by the Veterans Administration to veterans and their families.

• Education, training and subsistence allowances to veterans.

• Disability compensation.

• Veterans' insurance proceeds and dividends. (But interest earned on the dividends left with VA is taxable.)

• Veterans' bonuses paid by states.

• Subsistence, uniform and quarters allowances.

• Grants to seriously disabled veterans for homes designed for "wheelchair living."

• Grants for motor vehicles to veterans who lost their sight or use of their limbs.

(NEXT: Sick pay allowances.)

ELIAS BROS. NEEDS
A WAITRESS

She has to be big, strong and healthy. Carrying trays loaded with Big Boy's super-sized portions is no job for a wilting magnolia. She has to be fast. Folks who come to Big Boys like their food in a hurry, then take their time enjoying it. Not the other way around.

She has to like kids. We get lots because we're a family restaurant. (Four healthy appetites can eat regularly at Big Boys for less than $5). And she has to have will power. It's pretty tough to resist snatching a crispy french fry or golden-brown fried shrimp occasionally but we'd rather she didn't nibble in front of our guest.

What can we offer?

A permanent job; hourly wages plus tips, paid vacation and hospitalization in clean wholesome surroundings, nice uniforms and a lot of wonderful people to work with. You see, girls like the one's we're looking for right now are the only kind we hire.

Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

When the first high school basketball ratings came out next week, Pontiac Central and Saginaw are expected to be among the top rated teams in the state.

Both won last night, and both are unbeaten, sitting atop the Saginaw Valley Conference as a result of Pontiac Central's 67-54 triumph over Midland and Saginaw's 75-64 victory over Flint Northern.

The Chiefs played their usual fast floor game but the scrappy Chemics, employing a full-court press from the start, stayed close and refused to wilt.

Midland led 14-11 after one period; and while the Chiefs were unable to find the range, losing the ball often on floor violations, the Chemics pushed ahead 21-13.

With 2:20 left in the half, Jim McClendon hit a jumper to put Central ahead 25-24, but Dennis Short countered for Midland to make it, 26-25.

McClendon again fired from 20 feet to make it 27-26 and PCH never fell behind. In the final 36 seconds of half, Jessie Evans, Prentice Hill and McClendon all hit and at intermission the Chiefs led, 33-25.

INCREASE LEAD

Starting the third quarter the advantage rolled up to 39-26 and 41-28, but then the Chiefs got fancy and careless, missing several easy layups and giving up the ball with bad passes.

Midland closed the gap to six points, 51-45, primarily due to some uncanny free throw shooting.

When Evans, Willie Craft and Larry Platt started controlling the boards and Evans hit on some key drives, Central moved ahead rapidly, 62-50 and took it out of range.

The Chemics hit only 15 field goals but pushed in 24 of 27 free throws. Pontiac's speed was the big story, but its defense was not as sharp. Fortunately, the front line of the Chemics could not score and it was the outside shooting of guard Dennis Carter and Dennis Short which kept Midland in reach.

PUSH MARGIN

Saginaw led Flint Northern, 35-28 at halftime, pushed the margin to 13 points and never was in trouble.

Four players hit double figures for Saginaw, led by Herb Riley's 17, Charlie Kelley's 11, Phil Bowman (11) and Jim Weems (10). Steve Rivette had 16 for Flint Northern.

Arthur Hill hit its first six shots of the third quarter and pulled away from Flint Southern in winning, 57-45, with Dave Hammer's 16.

Flint Central received a 30-point effort from Tim Bograkovs to whip Bay City Central 83-76 in a high-fouling contest.

There were 63 personals in the game and 93 free throws taken with Flint Central hitting 25 of 41 and Bay City 36 of 52. Joe Burks had 25 points for the losers.

Detroit Autin Trims Brother Rice, 57-53

Unbeaten Detroit Austin ran in record to 7-0 last night with 57-53 victory over Birmingham Brother Rice (2-5).

Dan Parks paced the losers with 18 points followed by teammates Terry Finn (13) and Doug Cating (11). John Parker added in 24 markers to take game scoring honors for Austin.

STRAIGHT ARM — Ross Ludwick (44) Pontiac Central forward gives the basketball a straight arm trying to dislodge from the grasp of Midland's Bill Anderson (51). Ludwick was called for a foul and Anderson sunk two of the 24 free throws made by Midland.

Seaholm Tank Dynasty Sinks

The swimming dynasty at Birmingham Seaholm may be at its end, temporarily at least. Royal Oak Kimball, the bride maid of county and state swimming the past three years, while Seaholm was in control, handed the Maples a 61-44 setback in the Knight pool.

In another meet, Pontiac Central, which pulled a startling upset at the year's end last month in defeating Arthur Hill, nearly did it again, this time at Midland where the Chiefs lost, 54-50.

With the two new coaches at Kimball and Seaholm engaged in a bit of psychological warfare trying to outsmart each other, Kimball went for broke by putting Doug Webster in back to back events.

Big Quarter School Mark for Ortonville 5

Ortonville set a school record of 39 points in the second quarter and continued to whip Genesee, 86-73 with a 48 percent shooting mark for the night.

Barrie Hawley scored 21 and Merv McDowell 20 followed by Jim Munsil's 15 for Ortonville which led 57-28 at halftime. Genesee then poured through 29 points in the third quarter and closed the gap to 10 points but could not overtake the Wildcats.

Jim Clary hit 29 for the losers. In the 2nd period, McDowell hit 16 of his points.

Scoreless Overtime Stuns Imlay City

Imlay City last night overcame a 10-point North Branch lead in the final three minutes of regulation time, then failed to score in the overtime period and dropped a 79-70 decision.

A full-court press repeatedly took the ball away from the home team and set up five layups by Bill Hoeksema and John Poppe to tie the game, 70-70, in the final period.

Fran Baldwin had 20 points and Mike Campbell 24 for the winning North Branch team. Dan McLaughlin had all four of his points in the overtime, including the go-ahead basket.

Utica Swimmers Win

Bill Jerden won the 50 and 100-yard freestyle events last night in leading Utica's swimmers to a 63-42 win over Mount Clemens. Tom Davies won the 200 and 400-yard freestyle events for the losers.

Stale PNH Outdoes Walled Lake, 80-50

By JERE CRAIG

Pontiac Northern and Walled Lake, scheduled game action during the Christmas holidays to avoid going stale just before the start of Inter-Lakes League basketball play this week.

The strategy didn't work. Pontiac Northern took an 80-50 victory last night on the Viking court in a game unfortunately tainted with numerous misplays by both teams.

The visiting Huskies wrapped up the decision in the first 2 1/2 minutes of play. Larry Frye and Bob Harris, two seniors with lots of I-L experience, accounted for all PNH points as it took an 11-2 lead.

The Huskies then went on from there to outshoot, rebound, outpace and outscore Walled Lake. The only categories the home team "excelled" in were missed shots (both free throws and field goals).

Frye (11) and Harris (6) combined for 17 of Northern's 24 first-quarter points, and all five starters scored in the session. They hit 11 of 20 shots.

The Vikings' best period was the second when they outshot PNH and held their own on the backboards, but still fell a point further behind. John Huebner had 8 of his game-leading 23 points in the period for Walled Lake.

SUBSTITUTES

Northern received fine bench performances from Tom Webb and Dana Coin, both of whom did good jobs rebounding to help Dan Hayward and Frye with that chore.

The home team's brightest moments, meanwhile, were provided by Huebner who had nine baskets, and some scrappy board work by Tom Carl, making his first start, and little Gus Maragos.

The second half found the Huskies almost completely dominating the rebounding. In all,

PNH finished with almost 25 more rebounds and 15 more field goal attempts.

It also had five more turnovers in what was perhaps the most dominant statistic in the contest. The two teams relinquished the ball without getting off a shot at least 55 times.

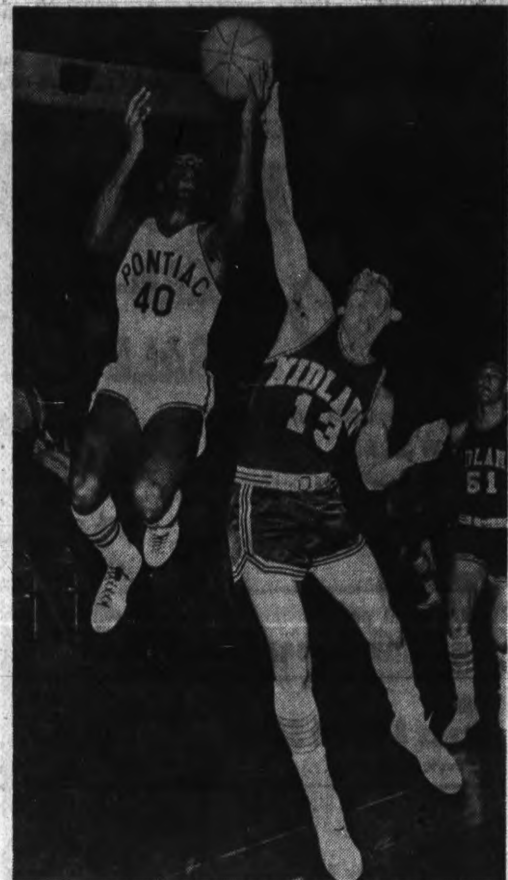

The defeat was Walled Lake's seventh in a row while the win was only the second for the Huskies. They will entertain Waterford Friday night while Walled Lake will go to Farmington.

SAILING UPWARD — Pontiac Central's Jesse Evans (40) got up and past the finger tips of Midland's Dennis Carter to add two points to the PCH scoreboard. Pontiac Central defeated the Chemics, 67-54, to stay in a tie with Saginaw for the SVC lead.

Groves Routs League Foe for 7th Win

Birmingham Groves rolled along to its 7th straight victory and stayed in a two-way tie with Livonia Franklin in the Northwest Suburban League after defeating North Farmington 78-57 last night.

Franklin was handing John Glenn a 76-55 setback while Detroit Thurston was defeating Oak Park 95-82 in other league contests.

Groves led 34-26 at halftime and poured in 25 points in the third quarter to sew up the game. Mike Rafferty led Groves with 17 while Craig Love and Rick Whiteman each had 16.

Roger Schultz and Rick Lorenz each had 13 for the losers.

In the high scoring Thurston-Oak Park game, Oak Park put a uniform on its 6-2 equipment manager Sam Vickers and he responded with 16 points and control of the back boards.

Ed Holloman led with 30 points, but it wasn't enough to offset Thurston's Samelson and Barringer with 28 and 22 points respectively.

Skipper Slip by Farmington

Rested Township '5' a 68-57 Winner

By FLETCHER SPEARS

Plenty of rest may be the answer for Waterford's Skippers.

Returning to action after nearly a three-week layoff, the Skippers, scoring in spurts, rolled past Farmington, 68-57, in the opener of Inter-Lakes League action.

The victory shoved the Skippers into a tie with Pontiac Northern for first place. PNH downed Walled Lake, last night, 80-50.

The victory evened Waterford's season record at 3-3 and the loss left the Falcons with a 4-4 mark.

Skipper's coach Bob Taylor shuffled players in and out through most of the first half in an effort to find the right combination.

The two were deadlocked at 14 points apiece after the first period and they continued the tie at 35-all at intermission.

Farmington hit a brief cold spell in the third and the Skippers took advantage of the lapse to pull into a 51-48 lead. Playing catch-up in the fourth period, Farmington fouled repeatedly and the Skippers cashed in on 13 charity tosses in the frame to widen their lead.

Waterford achieved its best scoring balance of the season with four players hitting in double figures. Rick Ziem led the way with 20, followed by center Bruce Bookout (17), Dave Farris (10), and Bob Adsit (10).

Adsit came off the bench in the second quarter in replacing starter Cliff Seiber and he picked up the scoring slack.

The Skippers will try to make it two wins in a row Tuesday night when they entertain Kettering.

Guard 'Steals' Game in RO Shrine Victory

TWO POINTS — Lake Orion's Dave Dewey (33) lofts a hook shot at the basket in first quarter action last night against Rochester as teammates Roy Kibbe (15) and Toby Bennett (35) watch the play. Trying to halt Dewey's shot is Dan Ludwick (20). Other Rochester players are Jim Burton (24) and Bob Mills (12). Lake Orion collected two points on this play, but Rochester won the game, 76-60.

Rams Post 57-39 Win

St. Frederick in League Lead

The Rams of St. Frederick are back in the lead in the Macomb Catholic League.

Tied with St. Michael at 6-1 going into last night's action, the Rams polished off Richmond St. Augustine, 57-39, for their seventh league win while St. Michael was taking a break.

It was a hectic game for the Rams — normally a high-scoring quintet — who found themselves facing a St. Augustine stall throughout the game.

Shooting seldom, St. Augustine rolled to a 15-11 first quarter lead, but the Rams turned aggressive in the second frame

Rochester Gets Chase Started

Rochester successfully began a lengthy home stand last night, but Warren Cousino may have too much of a lead for the Falcons to overtake in the hoop race.

Rochester ripped Lake Orion, 76-60, for its second win in a row after losing its first three starts. The game marked the start of a six-game home stay that continues tonight against Romeo of the Tri-County circuit.

Cousino's Patriots, meanwhile, stayed a game in front of the chase and won their eighth straight over-all, 75-43, over struggling Madison, Cousino's Paul Papak hit 20 points.

Avondale was surprised at Warren Fitzgerald, 71-49, and fell into a third place tie with Clawson which was upset by Troy, 52-47. The Fitzgerald quintet assumed sole possession of second place with a 4-1 log. Avondale and Clawson are 3-2.

Bob Mills' 20 points led three players in double figures for Rochester's Falcons.

Four of the visiting Dragons reached twin figures led by Roy Kibbe's 15 and Tim Daigle's 14.

At Warren, Avondale was blitzed in the middle two periods and dropped from a share of second place. Fitzgerald jumped from a 17-16 deficit to a 41-30 halftime advantage.

The Spartans then limited Avondale to only four points in the next quarter. Cass Swinski (17) and Don Billy (16) led the scoring for Fitzgerald, which had a 29-17 field goal edge.

Troy and Clawson had a sea-saw contest that featured big second-half scoring bursts. Down 27-24 at intermission, the Colts spurred past Clawson for a 41-32 lead.

After being limited to five points in the third quarter, the visiting Trojans fought back to a 41-41 tie with nine straight points.

Troy's 6-4 Bruce Baas put in nine field goals for 19 points and teammate Ed Gillespie added 11 markers. Clawson, was topped by Tim Robson (15) and Tom Miner (12).

Brighton Gains 76-52 Triumph

Northville Now Alone in League Race

A hustling Brighton squad knocked West Bloomfield (4-1) out of the Wayne-Oakland League lead last night by pinning a 76-52 setback on the Lakers.

While the Lakers (4-1) were taking their lumps, Northville (4-0) took over first place with a 74-63 triumph over Clarkston (2-2), and Northville can add to its lead tonight if it gets past visiting Brighton.

In other games, Bloomfield Hills evened its loop mark at 2-2 with a 73-58 verdict over Clareville (0-4), and Holly (1-3) broke into the league win column by edging Milford (1-4), 53-48.

Two other games on tonight's schedule find Clarkston at Clareville and Holly at Bloomfield Hills. West Bloomfield and Milford are idle this evening.

The Lakers were outscored 22-9 in the first frame and 21-10 in the third. Brighton held a 34-25 lead at halftime and the third quarter spurt broke the game open.

The Northville squad raced to a 41-29 halftime lead and traded buckets with the Wolves in the second half.

Pacing the Mustangs balanced attack were Jerry Imsland (22), Steve Evans (16), Mark Cushing (14) and Jim Zayti (11).

Guard Dan Fife, the leading scorer in Oakland County, tossed in 22 points to spark Clarkston.

Bloomfield Hills, hitting on 16 of 28 shots from the field in the first half and zoomed to a 44-31 lead at intermission.

Dave Robillard collected 19 points to pace the Hills' attack. Robin Mersky added 12 and Bret Griffin tossed in 11.

Redskins Fire Head Coach Bill McPeak

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington Redskins looked for a new head coach today and Bill McPeak turned his gaze toward Pittsburgh.

McPeak was fired Friday night after five years as Redskins coach. President Edward Bennett Williams said he hoped to pick a successor before the end of the month.

The 39-year-old McPeak, former all-league defensive end and assistant coach at Pittsburgh, is expected to become a candidate for the Steelers job, one of four National Football League head coaching posts now open.

If he is hired at Pittsburgh, McPeak would replace Mike Nixon, the same man he succeeded in Washington at the end of the 1960 season.

McPeak had Washington fans buzzing with title hopes after a 6-8, third place finish in the NFL's Eastern Division in 1964.

But a five-game losing streak at the start of last season swiftly erased these hopes and apparently doomed McPeak. He rallied the team to a 6-3 record in the last nine games and finished with 6-8, identical with 1964 except that this time it was only good enough for a fourth place tie.

Capac Atop Thumb Race

The first place tie in the Southern Thumb basketball chase was dissolved last night, but a three-team scrap now wages for the runner-up spot.

Capac took sole possession of the lead by coasting past New Haven, 46-31. Dryden assisted the Chiefs by nipping Anchor Bay, 67-64, for the Tars' initial setback in the race.

Almont tied Dryden and Anchor Bay for second with a 40-35 come-from-behind win at Memphis. Brown City won its first game and kept Armada winless with a 54-52 conquest at home.

Unheralded senior center Ken White dominated the backboards and dumped in 25 points as Dryden's Cardinals marred Anchor Bay's loop mark after three opening successes. The 6-5 White matched his point total with his rebounding effort.

Dennis Hilliker calmly connected on nine of nine free throws in the final quarter, including four in the final 70 seconds that won the game.

John Schulte, a standout both ways for Almont, scored both ways for Almont, scored 10 of his game-high 17 points in the second half, and the Raiders' Dick Jimenez had all

Pistons Explode on St. Louis 5

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Pistons staged their wildest scoring party of the season and crushed the St. Louis Hawks 137-97 Friday night, ending a four game National Basketball Association losing streak.

It was the biggest score posted by the Pistons this season. It was the Hawks third straight setback and worst shellacking of the season.

Juday Leads North to Hula Bowl Win

HONOLULU (AP) — In a tremendous second half in which they overcome a halftime deficit of 20-7 and then fought off a late enemy threat, the North All-Stars edged the favored South 27-26 Friday night in the 20th annual Hula Bowl game at Honolulu stadium.

Contempt Action Against Klan 'Intimidation Weapon' - Wizard

WASHINGTON (AP) — Imperial Wizard Robert M. Shelton of the United Klans of America says contempt of Congress proceedings against him and six other Klan leaders are nothing more than a "new weapon of intimidation."

A subcommittee of the House Committee on Un-American Activities recommended this week that the Klan leaders be cited for allegedly refusing to deliver records called for by the committee.

Shelton, leader of the largest of the Ku Klux Klan national organizations, told newsmen Friday after the committee recessed its hearings until Tuesday that committee procedure has prevented him from delivering his financial records to the Internal Revenue Service.

Shelton said the committee now has photographic copies of his records.

NO COMMENT

Chairman Edwin E. Willis, D-La., refused to comment on Shelton's charges. Other sources said copies of some of the United Klan's records have been obtained from banks. The sources added, however, that most of the Klan records sought by the committee have not been delivered.

Shelton said the contempt proceedings against him and the others were the result of "martini-bibbing, character assassinating and truth-twisting individuals on the staff."

He said that the committee's staff had hoodwinked the members and begged on "bended knees" for the contempt citations against him and the others "as a new weapon of intimidation against witnesses still to appear." He refused to amplify the remark.

During Friday's hearing, the committee presented more Louisiana witnesses who refused to answer any substantial questions after citing constitutional guarantees. One witness, Robert T. Rester, described as the city attorney of Bogalusa, La., answered only one question. He denied being a member of the Klan.

First of Airlifted Exiles Now in 141 Cities

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The first children into communism, male youths 14 to 27, detained for military service, and a scarcity of professional men, needed at home.

The refugee center said 36 per cent of the arrivals have been between 18 and 55; 31 per cent up to 17 years; 28 per cent, 46 to 64; 5 per cent over 65. Twelve per cent of the refugees had clerical or sales jobs in Cuba, and 10 per cent, professional, semiprofessional or managerial posts, the center reported. Others: skilled workers, 6 per cent; semiskilled and unskilled, 5 per cent; service jobs such as in hotels, 5 per cent; agriculture and fishing, 2 per cent. The remainder were students, housewives, children and elderly persons.

Center officials said generally refugees going to points where they have relatives have had little trouble finding work.

Some take relatives from Miami and go elsewhere, said Harry Lyford, center information officer.

Cities to which between 20 and 100 refugees flocked in December: Boston, 71; Tampa, Fla., 69; Key West, Fla., 37; New Orleans, 37; Union City, N.J., 36; West New York, N.J., 31; Pahokee and Belle Glade, Fla. ESCAPED FROM CONG — Air Force Sgt. Jasper Paige, 33, and his wife, Yvonne, had their Christmas a little late this year in their Fremont, Calif., home. Paige, a noncombatant electrician, is one of the very few to have escaped from the Viet Cong and survived in the steaming jungles. His wife is a teacher at a Fremont junior high school. Paige is on recuperative leave.

Switch to Color Is an Eyeful

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — What happens when the family television set converts to color? It may be old stuff to you, but color television is brand new at our house. Santa Claus lost his head and brought a 21-inch on the easy view-now, pay-later plan.

The idea was not entirely Santa's. Pressure had been building up for months as color antennae sprouted on rooftops all over the neighborhood. Comments were dropped: "Gee, wouldn't this show be beautiful in color!" As weeks went by, the comments grew less casual and more determined. Those prime movers of the American economy — the teenagers — brought the issue to a Christmas climax. It is something of a fad to meet at the home of a color-set owner and watch "The Man From U.N.C.L.E." on Friday night or the Saturday night movie. How are you going to keep the kids at home? Buy a color television.

WATCH MORE What has happened is that we watch television more. Remember those cro-Magnon days of television when you were fascinated by anything, even test patterns? That's the way it is with color. We focus on color, any color. Even commercials.

Suddenly, commercials are interesting. The ear is still repelled, but the eye is delighted by the varied hues. Especially good are the gleaming new cars speeding along the landscape and the menthol cigarette ads playing against emerald fields so suited to selling that it seems odd to view a commercial for the yellow pages in black and white.

You suddenly see why "Bonanza" is so popular. "Flipper" becomes a visual delight. BACK TO NORMAL All this no doubt will pass. The eye will grow accustomed to the tints, and the brain will once more be deadened by the sameness of the shows.

Meanwhile we're having fun. Thanks, Santa. The check will be in the mail.

IF MONDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY

Getting to four hearts was quite a problem to start. Eddie's double of two diamonds was primarily for takeout and North respected his wishes and North respected his wishes enough to go to two hearts as the least of the several evils he thought he faced.

Eddie's jump to four wasn't too much of a gamble. All he really needed was to find his clubs. Strangely enough, East's jack of clubs turned out to be his undoing.

East played the king of diamonds and continued with the ace. Eddie ruffed and led the queen of clubs. West ducked and East made the mistake of letting his low club go. Eddie's next play was the king of hearts. East won and led a third diamond which Eddie ruffed high.

Then he cashed to high trumps in order to pull the opponents' teeth. Next came the ace and king of spades, followed by a low club. Poor East had to win the trick with the jack and had to lead a diamond to give dummy tricks with the queen of spades and jack of diamonds.

That particular queen-jack combination is worth 40 points in pinochle. It was worth 620 points in this bridge situation.

The first rural brick road was the Wooster Pike near Cleveland. It was built in 1893, according to the American Roadbuilders Association.

Private Plane, Body of Pilot Found in State

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—The wreckage of a single-engine private airplane and the body of its pilot was discovered Friday in a rural area near Lowell, some six miles east of the Kent County Airport.

A heavy snowfall Thursday night had muffled the sound of the crash from residents of a nearby farm house.

Civil Air Patrol Sgt. Milton Weeks confirmed that it was a craft piloted by R. Edsel Jones of Grand Rapids, owner of an oil drilling firm carrying his name. The plane was sought after losing contact with the airport control tower while letting down on a flight from Springfield, Ill. The pilot had expected to land at 12:48 am. Friday.

Dies of Crash Injuries

YALE (AP) — Fred Makin, 75, of Jeddo died Friday at a Yale hospital of injuries suffered Thursday in a collision between his car and a school bus 10 miles northwest of Port Huron.

Maple Valley Dump Now Disposal Park

SEATTLE (AP) — Residents of the suburban community of Maple Valley were horrified when the county began using a nearby refuse site and people were calling it the Maple Valley Dump.

Presumably everything is all right now. County commissioners renamed it the Cedar Hills Disposal Park.

Nab Burglary Suspect in City

A 27-year-old man was arrested early today by a Pontiac policeman making a routine check at the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., 146 W. Huron.

The suspect, who faces a charge of breaking and entering in the nighttime, was identified as Forne Tindell of 204 State.

Tindell was arrested by Patrolman Thomas H. Crandall about 5 a.m. after Crandall had crawled through a broken back door panel and found him at the front of the store.

Crandall said a number of televisions and radios had been piled together at a broken window near the firm's service area.

Hospital Asks Staff Hike by Mental Health Board

The Oakland County Community Mental Health Services Board yesterday was requested to increase its staff due to the growing scope of the outpatient clinic program at Pontiac General Hospital.

Hospital officials asked that a half-time psychiatrist and full-time social worker be added to the present staff of four persons paid by the Mental Health Board to operate the clinic.

Since the board and Pontiac General contracted for the outpatient clinic program in August, the monthly patient intake average has grown from 31 to 70.

The board referred the request, which would mean an added cost of about $30,000 per year, to a committee for study and a recommendation.

Also yesterday, the board decided to have its representatives meet with Dr. Robert Kimmich, director of the Michigan Department of Mental Health, to discuss a proposal to broaden services of the child guidance clinics.

AT AN IMPASSE
Presently, the board is at an impasse on whether to require that the director of these clinics be a psychiatrist.

It was indicated that if expansion of services is allowed, the requirement for a psychiatrist-director would be likely.

Cubans Face Big Slash in Rice Rations

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Cubans have been told their rice rations will be cut almost in half.

Havana Radio announced Friday that the monthly rice ration will be three pounds less per person. The broadcast, monitored in Miami, followed the disclosure that Communist China will not ship as much rice to Cuba as the Fidel Castro government had hoped.

Red China also told Cuba it will not be able to buy 800,000 tons of sugar Castro had thought was safely sold.

Havana Radio did not say what the present monthly rice ration is, but foreign newsmen estimated it was six pounds, nine ounces in 1965.

Rice is a key part of the Cuban diet. Most Cubans eat it at least twice a day in combination with meat, fish, chicken and beans.

HEADING WEST — Salesman Bert Alexander, looking mighty tall in the saddle and with boots fitting well into the stirrups, makes his way across 43rd Street off Times Square in New York City yesterday. It's just another odd scene created by the city's transit strike. Although lacking a 10-gallon hat, chaps and six-gun, Alexander's still heading west — across Broadway.

'Small Gains' in Transit Talks

LBJ Promises Aid as Strike in 2nd Week

NEW YORK (AP)—A mediator reported "some small gain" today in negotiations to end New York's crippling subway and bus strike.

But there appeared little prospect of immediate settlement as the city completed a full week of snarled traffic, jangled nerves and severe economic loss.

After five workdays of jammed automobile traffic, police reported no more cars on the road this morning than on a normal Saturday, with the autos moving freely.

One factor apparently complicating the negotiations was a request to a court yesterday by the city authority operating the subways that the striking unions be assessed damages for each day of the strike.

Union leaders denounced the move as imperiling the chances for a settlement.

HELP COMING

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller received a promise from President Johnson yesterday that federal help would be provided for individuals and small businessmen hit by the strike.

The mediator, Sylvester Garrett, made his assessment of the strike talks as they recessed early today after a 16-hour session.

The talks resume later today. "I would say there has been some progress — some small gain," said Garrett, one of three special mediators assigned to the dispute.

He said "this is a very difficult dispute" and "a substantial amount of ground" remained to be covered.

Enraged Man Slays 3 in Auto Agency

CHICAGO (AP) — A young man, apparently enraged over car repair bills, killed three auto salesmen with a sawed-off shotgun yesterday and was threatening two women employees when shot and killed by a police officer.

Police said Donald Jackson, 24, entered the Fohrman Motors, Ltd., salesroom through a rear door and walked around a partition where he saw Albert Sizer, 65, a salesman, standing.

He shot Sizer in the head they said.

One of the owners, Sidney Fohrman, 52, heard the gunfire and ran out of his glass-partitioned office. Jackson shot him in the head and then ran into an inner office and shot Edward Fohrman, 43, Sidney's brother and co-owner of the business, police said.

Other employees running from the building flagged down detective Roland Charles, 36, and his partner, York Anderson, who were riding by.

"We stopped the car and ran around the back of the place," Charles said. "Anderson drew his gun and walked in one direction and I drew mine and walked in another."

The intruder spotted Charles and fired at him with a pistol he was carrying in addition to the shotgun.

"I DUCKED," Charles said, "and sneaked around a partition and came up in the front of the showroom."

The policeman said he saw Jackson threatening two women employees in the cashier's office with the shotgun.

"He told them he was going to kill them," Charles said. "Both women were crying hysterically. As Jackson looked up I shot him in the head."

No Rebellion -- Dominican

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Armed Forces Minister Francisco J. Rivera Carminero says his troops are not rebelling but they want President Hector Garcia-Godoy to cancel orders sending top military men abroad.

"This is not a coup d'etat and we are not interested in taking control of the government," he told newsmen after a long meeting with Ellsworth Bunker, the U.S. ambassador to the Organization of American States.

Garcia-Godoy ordered 34 top officers of the regular armed forces and the former rebel troops into diplomatic exile Thursday.

The regular army immediately moved in on the Presidential Palace and sealed all major highways into the capital.

Detroit Mayor Strongly Eying Senate Race

No Final Decision on Bid for McNamara Seat, Says Cavanagh

DETROIT (AP) — Mayor Jerome Cavanagh of Detroit said yesterday he was giving "most serious consideration" to running for the U.S. Senate in 1966 but emphasized "no final decision has been made."

Sen. Patrick V. McNamara, a Democrat, is up for reelection to a six-year term.

Former Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams, now assistant secretary of state for African affairs, has said he may seek the seat if McNamara retires. Both Williams and Cavanagh are Democrats.

Cavanagh, 37, who was re-elected to a four-year term in November, issued a public statement Thursday.

Earlier, in a radio interview, Cavanagh said surveys taken by his workers indicated "no matter who is running, I would have an excellent chance for nomination."

In his formal statement, the mayors said.

"While there are many problems and challenges to be faced as mayor of this city, I believe significant and highly important public service can also be accomplished as a member of the United States Senate."

"My present plans are to continue as mayor of the City of Detroit."

"At the same time, it is clear that I am interested in a political career and 1966 is an election year ..."

Romney: No Need for New Taxes in '66

LANSING (AP) — The state can get by for at least another year without new taxes, Gov. Romney said yesterday — even though it will cost $96 million more just to stand still.

Romney agreed basically with figures released by the Democratic leadership when he predicted that a "standstill budget for 1966-67 would come to $916 million, as compared with $820 million this year."

Both he and House and Senate leaders agreed after a harmonious 2½ hour meeting yesterday that they foresaw no need for new taxes in the near future.

Romney said he would hold to his "no new taxes" statement only if state spending stayed reasonably close to his forthcoming budget recommendations, and if the state economy remained in its present healthy condition.

Speaker Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, referred to a statement released Thursday in which the Democratic leadership said it intended to work "within the present tax structure."

The inequities of Michigan's tax system remain, Romney said, meaning the state still needs fiscal reform and presumably in income tax. The only pressure for change that is missing, he said, is the immediate need for new revenues.

On that count, the state is in better shape than it was a year ago or even six months ago, he added.

The governor, Kowalski and Sen. Raymond Dzendzel, D-Detroit, predicted income of $895 million into the state general fund treasury during the fiscal year ending June 30 as compared with Romney's earlier estimate of $738 million.

They also predicted a state treasury surplus of $125 million at the end of the current fiscal year.

Minus-Five Reading Sets Record for Day

A 1942 record of -4 for this date was broken.

It was the first time local thermometers had dropped to minus figures this season, abruptly ending a mild winter which saw shirt-sleeve strollers in December and golfers on New Year's Day.

Making up for earlier warm weather, more frigid temperatures are in store tonight. The prediction is zero to 8 above, with clear skies.

Increased cloudiness and not so cold is the weather word for tomorrow, with highs reaching 10 to 16. Rising temperatures, cloudy and windy is Monday's outlook.

Other cold spots were Duluth, Minn., with -27 and here in Michigan, -10 at St. Marys and -8 at Pellston.

Road Unit, Panel Will View Link

Action was taken yesterday by Oakland County officials which hopefully will result in a closer future relationship between the county road commission and the rest of the county operation.

A committee of five members of the County Board of Supervisors was appointed to meet with members of the road commission in an effort to effect the closer tie.

County officials have been concerned for years over the road commission's gradual drift away from the total county function, according to Delos Hamlin, chairman of the board of supervisors.

Hamlin said he called yesterday's joint meeting of the ways and means and roads and bridges committees of the board of supervisors to discuss the problem.

Chief concern, according to Hamlin, was lack of coordination between the road commission and other county departments, particularly the drain commissioners office.

COORDINATION

He said that in construction projects, for example, the road commission and drain commissioner must be coordinated in their planning to avoid expensive alterations later.

Also discussed at the closed meeting of the two committees was the recently signed contract giving road commission employees a substantial pay boost.

The road commission employees were the first county employees to organize under a state law adopted in July allowing public employees to bargain collectively.

Supported entirely by state funds, the road commission is the only county department that doesn't share in the county budget.

HEADS PANEL

Named chairman of the committee that will meet with the three road commissioners was Curtis H. Hall, supervisor from Farmington Township.

Other members are supervisors Frederick L. Yockey, Huntington Woods; Homer Case, Bloomfield Township; Seeley Tinsman, Holly Township; and Willis Brewer, Sylvan Lake.

Hall's committee will report back to the joint committee after it has met with the road commissioners.

Feel Escalation Brings Hanoi, Peking Closer

Mansfield's Group Warns War Could Engulf All of Asia

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield's fact-finding team believes that as the Vietnamese war escalates, Communist North Viet Nam becomes more dependent on Red China.

As a result, it said, "the likelihood also increases that North Viet Nam will not be able to negotiate a settlement without at least the tacit consent of China."

"In fact, that point may already have been reached," the team said in a report released last night.

Mansfield and four Senate colleagues also warned that the Viet Nam fighting ultimately could engulf the entire Asian mainland in general war and that chances for a just, negotiated settlement are slim.

Mansfield, Democrats Edmund S. Muskie of Maine and Daniel K. Inouye of Hawaii and Republicans J. Caleb Boggs of Delaware and George D. Aiken of Vermont returned last month from a 35-day, 30,000-mile tour which took them to 12 countries and the British colony of Hong Kong.

MUCH THE SAME

They visited South Viet Nam Dec. 2-4 and reported the general situation there is much the same as a year ago, despite the major U.S. troop buildup.

"What was controlled then by the Viet Cong is still controlled by the Viet Cong," they said. They fixed Communist Viet Cong control of the South Vietnamese population at 22 per cent and said 18 per cent live in contested areas.

The senators returned to the United States prior to President Johnson's multination campaign to bring Communist North Viet Nam to the negotiating table.

Nonetheless, they touched on the part other countries might play in settling the Vietnamese war.

"Many nations," they said, "are deeply desirous of an end to this conflict as quickly as possible."

FEW ARE SPECIFIC

"In any event even though other nations, in certain circumstances, may be willing to play a third-party role in bringing about negotiations, any prospects for effective negotiations at this time and they are slim are likely to be largely dependent on the initiatives and efforts of the combatants."

North Viet Nam has repeatedly downplayed the U.S. peace offensive, while South Viet Nam, through its ambassador to the United States, Vu Van Thai, has said the effort is designed "to create the conditions to show we are ready in sincerely seeking a settlement."

President Johnson was scheduled to get a report today from one of his special envoys in the peace offensive.

G. Mennen Williams, assistant secretary of state for African affairs, has just completed a one-week flying trip throughout Africa.

Tragedy Erases Futures of 6

In the first week of 1966, Oakland County lost some of its future:

- Two nurses
- A contractor
- A beautician
- A secretary
- A housewife

Yesterday, four future adult citizens were buried. Two others were to be buried today.

The six children who suffered tragic deaths this week

BROWN CHILDREN FUNERAL — Service for Mrs. Barbara Brown's four children who perished in a house fire early Wednesday, was yesterday at the Sparks-Griffin Chapel. Killed in the blaze that raced through the frame house at 3980 Arcadia Park, Waterford Township, were Kathryn, 15; Nancy, 12; Donald, 9; and Julia, 7. The four children were buried at Waterford Center Cemetery after the 3:30 p.m. service.

Laotian Trails Under Intense Yank Bombing

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. jets are hammering hard at Communist supply routes through Laos to check men and equipment that North Viet Nam is speeding south, informed sources said today.

"To do any less would be madness," one source said. "We simply cannot let the Communists arrive in South Viet Nam with all that stuff intact."

With the pause in the bombing

Peace Hopes Slim - Senators

Senator W. Averell Harriman is still in the Far East.

The Mansfield report triggered little reaction last night.

President Johnson already had heard directly from Mansfield, and the White House said there would be no comment.

A State Department spokesman said the same, and congressional leaders generally preferred to be silent.

Although the Mansfield group met with numerous national leaders, it confined its report to "The Viet Nam Conflict: The Substance and the Shadow."

It did say there is no reason to think the Soviet Union is anxious to play a major role in peace efforts.

SPURNED INVITATION

Late last year, the Russians spurned a British invitation to reconvene the Geneva conference on Indochina to negotiate an end to the Vietnamese fighting.

The senators had met with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin prior to that.

The Mansfield report said: "They (the Russians) have emphasized repeatedly in public statements as well as in other ways that they have no intention of taking an initiative for peace in Viet Nam at this time."

Soviet party leader Alexander N. Shelepin is in Hanoi, but his mission is unknown.

De Gaulle Installed

PARIS (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle was inaugurated for a second seven-year term today. Premier Georges Pompidou at once formed a new government designed to give a powerful lift to Gaullist economic policies.

of North Viet Nam in its 16th day, another terrorist incident startled Saigon. A bomb demolished a sidewalk peddler's stall in front of the My Canh floating restaurant, where two powerful explosions last June 25 killed 43 persons.

Damage was minor in this case, however, and authorities on the scene reported only three casualties—one policeman and two passersby received slight scratches. Diners dived to safety under the tables.

SECOND BLAST

Security officers speculated that the terrorists intended the blast to lure people around the scene as targets for a second and bigger explosion, but something went wrong with their planning.

"They didn't deliver the second bomb," one said.

Vietnamese police sources said 19 persons have been arrested in three terrorist incidents over the past five weeks.

In the Laotian phase of the war, informed sources said up to 300 U.S. planes are operating daily, dropping nearly 1,000 tons of bombs and rockets on Communist water-borne traffic and trucks moving down newly constructed roads.

PEACE EFFORTS

North Viet Nam has been spared air raids since Dec. 24 after President Johnson ordered a bombing pause in an attempt to get peace negotiations started on the Vietnamese war.

Photo reconnaissance planes continue to seek out Communist troop movements and missile installations in the north.

The bombing pause has caused grave concern in some military circles here. These circles say the pause was ordered at a time when nearly two regiments of North Vietnamese regulars and hundreds of tons of supplies were rolling down the Ho Chi Minh Trail from North Viet Nam through Laos and Cambodia to South Viet Nam each month.

Before the pause, the key-stone of American air tactics was to catch Communist units and supply columns before they could get out of North Viet Nam. Bombing went on around the clock.

NOT CERTAIN

It is not clear to many observers here whether the bombing in Laos stopped during the Christmas cease-fire.

No American or Vietnamese official spokesmen would comment on the Laotian situation. The bombings, however, long have been an open secret.

VICTIM OF IRATE CUSTOMER — The body of Albert Sizer, a car salesman, lies in the showroom of Fohrman Motors, Ltd., of Chicago after he was slain by a disgruntled customer yesterday. Also killed were owners Sidney and Edward Fohrman. The customer, identified as Donald Jackson, 24, was shot to death by police. Newsmen and photographers join police at the scene.

March Feared in Tuskegee

Protest Is Planned, Could Bring Violence

TUSKEGEE, Ala. (AP) — Demonstrators plan another march today in Tuskegee where a Negro city councilman says he fears a protest march by Negro students may result in a confrontation with angry whites.

"If we can get by Saturday without bloodshed, I think we will be able to settle down and make some progress," Dr. Stanley Hugh Smith said Friday.

Smith, one of two Negroes on the five-member City Council, warned of a possible confrontation if Tuskegee Institute students demonstrate again today.

The protest would be the fourth by students since Samuel Younge Jr., 21, an institute student active in civil rights work, was shot to death Monday night.

ADULT SUPPORT

Smith, an institute professor of sociology, said the students are supported "for the first time by a significant number of adult Negroes." About 150 persons marched in a demonstration Friday which officials said was without incident.

Mayor Charles Keever said city officials are concerned about demonstrators "getting on private property."

He said city officials would probably take some action on this problem, but he did not indicate what the action would be nor when it would be taken.

NAACP Won't Back Viet Policy Attack

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said today that it does not subscribe to an attack on U. S. policy in Viet Nam made by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

There was little strong reaction from other civil rights leaders to the SNCC statement, which criticized what it called "an aggressive policy" by the United States and said civil rights work should be a valid alternative to the draft.

One NAACP staff member said some SNCC workers are becoming disinterested in civil rights work.

Roy Wilkins, executive director of the NAACP, said his organization "disassociates itself" from the official SNCC statement.

CAUTION URGED

Wilkins said: "The public must be careful to recognize that this statement is one by only one of the many civil rights groups, and is not the statement of other groups or of what is loosely called the civil rights movement."

Wilkins has opposed involving civil rights groups in other causes.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said in Chicago:

"I would be the last person to condemn one who on a basis of conscience is a conscientious objector. It would be a fine thing for such persons to devote their lives to our domestic problems."

JOINT REPLY

A joint statement issued by the national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, James Farmer, and his newly elected successor, Floyd B. McKissick, said in part:

"The escalation of that war is wrong, we believe. The war which must be escalated is the war against poverty and discrimination. We must not demand of the America poor that they subsidize a foreign war."

The SNCC statement, issued Thursday, said this country's Negro draftees are being "called on to stifle the liberation of Viet Nam."

The NAACP program director, Gloucester Current, said he thinks SNCC national chairman John R. Lewis, 25, and other SNCC leaders "do not express the attitudes of Negro youth."

Bobby Baker's Arraignment Is Set for Jan. 24

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arraignment of Bobby Baker was set Friday for Jan. 24 before Chief Judge Matthew McGuire of U.S. District Court.

Baker, former secretary to Senate Democrats and a one-time aide to President Johnson, was indicted Wednesday by a federal grand jury on nine counts charging tax evasion, grand larceny, larceny after trust, transportation of stolen money, fraud, false statements and conspiracy.

Arraignment also was scheduled Jan. 24 for former Lt. Gov. Clifford Jones of Nevada, indicted on three counts of perjury the same day the Baker indictment was returned.

India Warned by China Again

Diplomat Says Note Is Strongly Worded

TASHKENT, U.S.S.R. (AP) — The Indian government said today it has received a new and "very severe warning" from Communist China during the Tashkent summit conference with Pakistan.

India's foreign secretary, C. S. Jha, told newsmen the Chinese communication is "strongly worded even as Chinese notes go."

He added: "Its timing is something one really has to take notice of... very odd."

The note, he said, concerned "the so-called, alleged intrusions, on the basis of which we always are warned."

China and India fought a brief but bitter war along their Himalayan frontier in 1962 and in recent months, during India's new trouble with Pakistan, Peking has been especially menacing.

A constant stream of Chinese notes accused India of sending troops across the border into Chinese-held Tibet, and alleges other "provocative acts."

Jha said the new note was received "yesterday or the day before" and that because he has been in Tashkent, away from India, he has not had opportunity to study the note carefully.

Jha is in Tashkent for talks called by the Soviet Union in an attempt to bring about a peaceful settlement of disputes between India and Pakistan. Contacts between the two at the meeting dropped off and they are reported still far from agreement.

Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri of India and President Mohammed Ayub Khan of Pakistan had no meeting, nor did their large delegations of aides.

Official spokesmen did not rule out a later Shastri-Ayub meeting. But they noted that the conference, which opened last Tuesday, still doesn't have an agenda.

Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, who has spent hours conferring with Shastri and Ayub, did not meet either today. But Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko conferred with Foreign Minister Z.A. Bhutto of Pakistan.

Ex-Attendant Arraigned on Rape Charge

A 36-year-old former attendant at Pontiac General Hospital was arraigned in Municipal Court yesterday on two charges of rape involving a 23-year-old woman patient at the hospital.

John B. Cannon of 5 Lee Court demanded examination on the charges and was released by Judge Cecil B. McCallum after posting $200 bond. Examination was set for Jan. 12.

The charges against Cannon are common-law rape, defined as having relations with a person not mentally capable of giving consent, and the ravishing of a patient of a state- or county-supported institution.

Police said the victim was an outpatient in the psychiatric ward at Pontiac General from Nov. 10 through Dec. 20.

RESIGNED POST

Cannon resigned from his post at Pontiac General Dec. 20. He had worked during the same period on a different shift as an attendant at Pontiac Hospital, where he was first employed in 1955.

Conviction on a charge of ravishing a patient of a state or county hospital carries a minimum sentence of five years imprisonment.

STORM SURVIVORS — These three mountain climbers emerged yesterday unfrozen and hearty from a blizzard that stranded them for nine days on Mt. Shasta in California. The trio, all Californians, built a snow hut, ate hearty meals and never considered themselves in trouble despite 70-mile-an-hour winds raking their campsite. Here they are shown at the Mt. Shasta Police Dept.

The total number of building permits in 1964 was 1,915 compared to 1,467 last year.

Part of the drop in building activity was reflected in new family dwellings. Last year there were 133 permits issued for construction valued at $1,108,200.

King Aims Big Rights Drive at Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. says that financial institutions will be prime targets in a massive civil rights campaign he plans to bring to Chicago.

King, winner of the Nobel Peace Prize, announced Friday the opening of a drive he called "the first significant Northern freedom movement ever attempted by major civil rights forces."

King said banks, loan companies, mortgage companies and insurance firms are high on the list of "massive action" targets in the city. Financial institutions were one of 12 problem areas sketched by King.

King accused some money

handling institutions of charging higher interest rates to Negroes than to whites. He said many refused to finance real estate transactions in slum and transitional communities where Negroes live.

'BLACK ISLAND'

The Rev. James Bevel, direct action leader of King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference said a "black island" has been deliberately created in Chicago by the Chicago Real Estate Board, banks, and saving and loan institutions.

Bevel appeared before a panel of newsmen on a radio show recorded for broadcast Sunday on WLS in Chicago.

"Chicago is maintaining an internal colonial system," he said, adding that slum areas in which Negroes are forced to live are geographically outlined by real estate operators and lending institutions.

"We have a dual housing market here," he said, "that exploits both Negroes and whites."

ACTION PROGRAM

Both King and Bevel said their words were the prelude to a three-step action program they hoped would result in the mobilization of 100,000 unemployed Negroes ready to demonstrate, "whenever the occasion seems tactically important."

Such occasions, said a spokesman for Al Raby, who convened the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations, would be allowed to "ferment up" from members of the mass organization he hopes will be formed in the next two months. King said gangs were a potential source of available civil rights manpower.

Raby's group, which invited King's organization to Chicago, said it would work with an estimated 50 organizers brought from the South to form a "strongly mobilized, tightly organized," civil rights force in the city.

King said demonstrations will begin March 1.

Effort to Slow Ionia Transfer Setup Barred

DETROIT (AP) — Efforts to cut the number of patients transferred from Ionia State Hospital to the Wayne County Jail were thwarted Friday.

Recorder's Court judges ruled Michigan law prevents them from ordering the hospital to keep patients who have been certified as competent to stand trial. Such patients must be transferred to the jail, the judges said.

Chief Assistant Wayne County Prosecutor Samuel Brezner had asked the judges to rule whether these patients could be kept at Ionia until a trial could be scheduled.

Brezner said in past years an average of 28 such patients were returned to Detroit to stand trial.

On Dec. 30, 56 such persons were in the county jail, he said, adding he had been advised another 24 would be returned soon. Brezner said this could create such a backlog of cases that the 10 Recorder's Court judges would find their dockets jammed.

Junior Editors Quiz on COLOR IN SPACE

QUESTION: Why is the sky in space black?

ANSWER: Our picture shows a highly dramatic contrast in sky effects. The landscape on top is typical of that on our cheerful earth.

The trees, mountains and houses are all bathed in sunlight, with the sky a beautiful light luminous blue, through which you could look forever.

The same light, in the lower picture, is falling on the harsh landscape of the moon. Soon, astronauts will be landing in such a landscape, and even if the sun is shining, they will see the sky jet black, as in the picture.

The explanation is that the earth is surrounded by an atmosphere of various gases. Billions of particles float in the air belt: specks of dust, droplets of water vapor and so on.

The molecules of these specks catch and break up the light rays coming from the sun, scattering them in different colors.

The sky looks light because of sunlight glinting on such particles as suggested in the diagram, and it looks blue because the short blue rays are more widely scattered through the sky than those of other colors.

There is no atmosphere in space or around the moon and no specks for the sun to flash on; consequently the sky out there looks black, which is not a color by itself, but the absence of light.

FOR YOU TO DO: Emphasize the contrast in our picture by putting a delicate blue sky in the top part, with blue green over the hills and trees. The mountains of the moon should be bright orange or red-brown hues, without any blue to make them look soft and distant.

New Olive Harvester

MESSINA, Sicily — Mechanic Nicola Spada claims to have invented a new machine that harvests olives by sucking them off the trees. He says the suction pump can harvest up to 2,500 pounds of olives in an hour.

ARTHUR BYERS

Active Senior at PCH New Teen of Week

Named teen of the week is Arthur Byers, a senior at Pontiac Central High School. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Arkie Byers of 376 Whittemore, he maintains a B average.

Arthur is coeditor of "The Quiver," the school's year-book.

For his work on Student Council dances, this year's homecoming, last year's Junior Prom and many other school functions, he has been publicly commended by the school administration.

An amateur photographer, Arthur also includes horseback riding and pool among his hobbies. Upon graduation, he plans to attend Michigan State University to study engineering.

Labor Deputy Is Appointed

DETROIT (AP) — George Mumper, a Detroit union leader, Friday was named deputy director of the new State Labor Department.

Mumper, 53, was president of Detroit Local 101 of the United Rubber Workers for five years. He was reelected to the post last fall.

Mumper joined the union in 1932. He worked his way through the University of Detroit Law School and was admitted to the bar in 1952.

The announcement was made by Thomas Roumell, the new head of the Labor Department. Roumell is the former director of the regional offices of the National Labor Relations Board.

General sessions will be held Sunday at 10 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. at the Stake Center, 425 N. Woodward, Bloomfield Hills.

Stake President Edwin B. Jones, 5649 Roundhill, Birmingham, will conduct all sessions.

Elder Hinckley has coordinated the world-wide missionary program of the Church since 1951. For 13 years before that he supervised radio programs, publicity and mission literature of the Church.

Special meetings for MIA and welfare leaders will be held Saturday. Visitors are invited to attend conference sessions.

PLANS PILGRIMAGE — Reviewing plans for the pilgrimage to Poland in April are (from left) Monsignor Alexander A. Cendrowski, coordinator for the pilgrimage; Archbishop John F. Dearden of Detroit who will lead the group; and Thomas Mulroy, manager of religious travel for Scandinavian Airlines System. The pilgrimage will celebrate the 1,000 years of Christianity in Poland.

Archbishop Dearden Plans Pilgrimage

Archbishop John F. Dearden of Detroit will lead a pilgrimage celebrating Poland's 1,000 years of Christianity in late April. He will guide Catholics to the shrine of the Virgin of Jasna Gora in Czestochowa for the national Millennium celebration May 3.

The pilgrimage will then continue on to Rome from May 12 to 16.

His Excellency said that, "Catholics from all parts of the world," will join in a public act of thanksgiving.

He also noted, "It is fitting that the Archdiocese of Detroit, which counts so many Catholics of Polish descent among its faithful, have representation in this great event. In order to ensure our participation, I am most happy to sponsor a pilgrimage to the shrine of Our Lady of Czestochowa."

"I hope that many will find it possible to be with us on May 3 at the hallowed Shrine," Monsignor Alexander A. Cendrowski was named coordinator of the pilgrimage.

Poland's Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski has appealed to all Catholics living abroad to take part in the pilgrimage.

Poland considers itself a Christian nation from the moment when its first King, Duke Mieszko, accepted baptism prior to marrying the Catholic Princess Dabrowka, March 7, 966.

The king's retinue, entire army, and many others followed in his example. The baptism of Mieszko set the stage for Poland's emergence as a member of Western Christianity.

Jasna Gora in Czestochowa, Poland, is the spiritual capital of the country.

The shrine at Jasna Gora dates from 1384, when Prince Wladyslaw Opolski brought an image of the Virgin Mary, recognized as miraculous, to the monastery of the Pauline Fathers.

Lutherans Plan Church

Information Meeting
Scheduled Jan. 23

An initial information meeting for a new Lutheran congregation, Redemption Lutheran Church, will be held Jan. 23 at 3 p.m. at Pine Lake Elementary School 3333 W. Long Lake Road, Orchard Lake, to get acquainted and make plans for services.

Pastor C. Leroy Johnson said that all interested families are invited to attend.

The pastor began surveying in early October under the auspices of the Board of American Missions of the Lutheran Church in America.

A planning committee was appointed. It met Dec. 14 with Pastor Johnson and Rev. Frederick Marks, regional secretary of the missions board, to make arrangements for the scheduled information meeting.

Later last month the planning committee met with Bloomfield Hills Board of Education and contracted to rent the elementary school for temporary worship facilities.

The committee consists of Donald Frayer, vice chairman; Gordon Johnson, treasurer.

Antiques And Heirlooms Highlight Country Kitchen's Cozy Fireplace Corner

Waxed Ranch-Plank Flooring Easy-To-Care-For In Kitchen Work Area, Says Mrs. Macadam

background for LIVING

Coziness of Early America

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

Heart of the Richard G. Macadam's home on Wye Oak in Bloomfield Township, is the friendly country kitchen.

Found at the back of the house with the cafe-curtained windows overlooking a busy bird feeder, the area is furnished in an Early American vein.

A rich green provincial-print wallpaper, brightened with touches of bittersweet, is used between the pine ceiling beams, above the pine dado and on the soffit and end-wall of the work area.

Pointing to the tapestry-covered mahogany rocker before the used-brick fireplace, Mrs. Macadam smiled.

"That was a family heirloom I didn't really appreciate until our children began to arrive. And, believe me, it's wonderful."

The Macadams have two youngsters, Loch, 12, and Heather, 5.

Supporting an adventurous ice plant on the pine mantel is a wrought-iron candelabrum with aqua candles. Driftwood, said to have come from a pirate ship downed in the Atlantic, centers the mantel arrangement.

Antiques, a key and its lock mounted on a board, and a covered cheese dish, fill out the grouping.

Holding unshelled nuts on the hearth is a hollow wooden container.

"That is a hominy mortar," explained Mrs. Macadam. "Indians once used it to grind their corn to meal."

In front of the fireplace's mesh screen is an Early American answer to cold feet.

When temperatures plummeted, hot coals were stuffed inside the metal container which was placed on the floor of the buggy or sleigh.

A wooden frame around the miniature oven prevented toes from roasting instead of toasting.

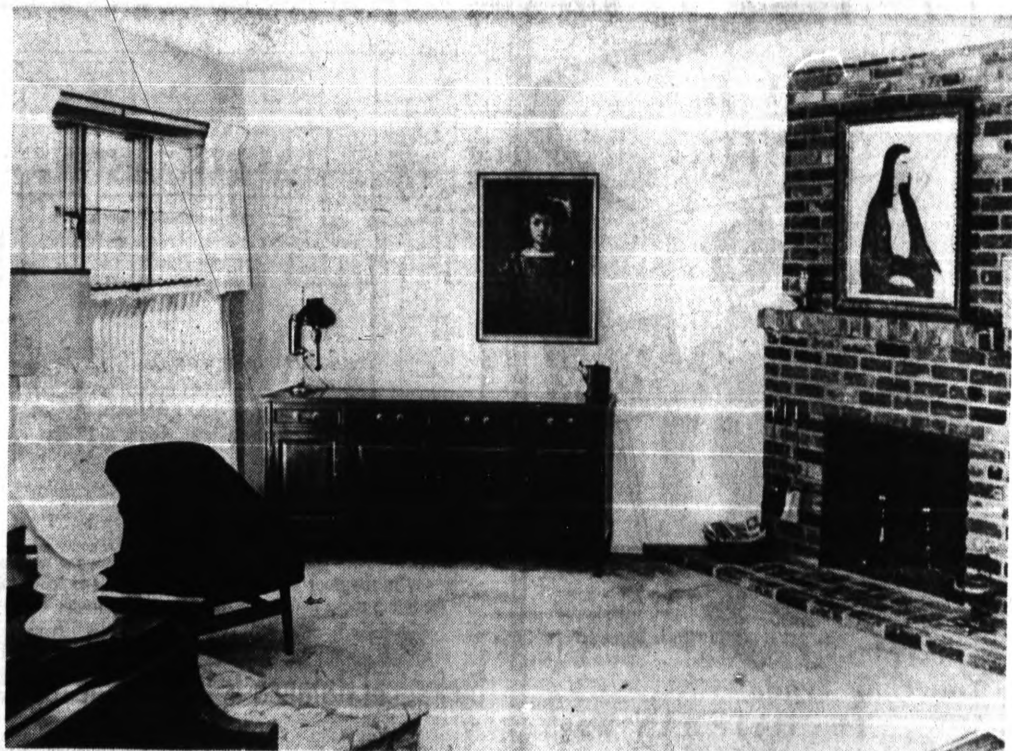

Mrs. Macadam introduces a change of pace in the decoration scheme of the adjoining living room.

Against a background of pale green walls and carpeting, the attractive and effective period blend encompasses a wide range including contemporary as well as an Egyptian goblet accent piece on the brick mantel.

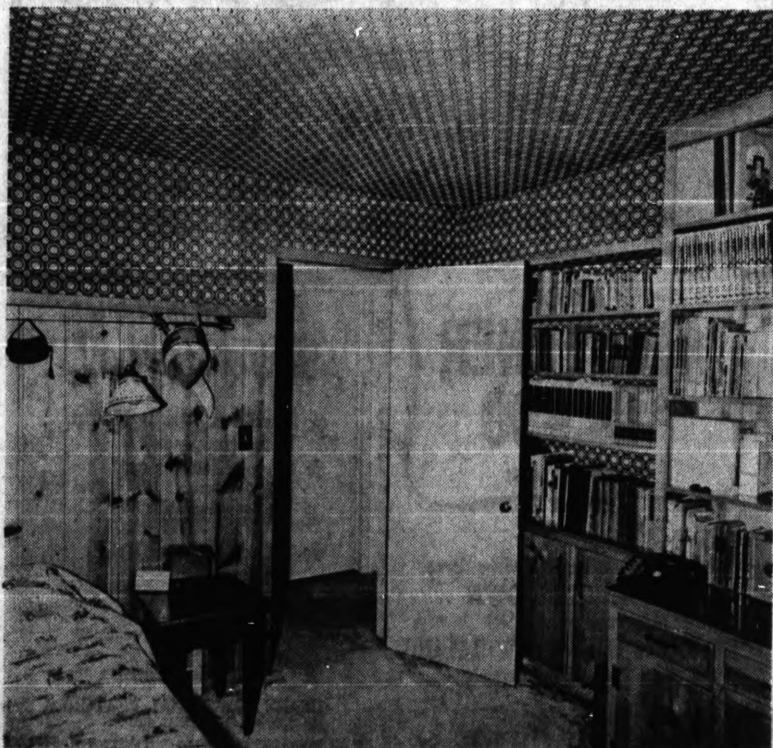

Above the distressed-walnut stereo, a reproduction of Rembrandt's "Titus' Son" is balanced by a brass student lamp with a shade of green overlay.

A contemporary black and gray wool occasional chair completes a conversation grouping in the room with an angled sofa.

Gracing the grand piano which dominates one corner of the formal room is a bust of Beethoven.
