Chrysler Strike Shuts 7 Plants in Second Day

White Collar Workers Ignoring UAW Desire to Keep Production

DETROIT (AP)—Only one of Chrysler Corp.'s eight final assembly plants was operating today as a strike of 8,000 unionized office workers and engineers went into its second day.

The United Auto Workers, which represents both the strikers and Chrysler's approximately 70,000 production workers, had expressed hopes the strike would not force a shutdown of Chrysler's efforts to turn out 1959 models.

UAW leaders instructed strikers not to post picket lines around the auto plants at shift change time; unionists traditionally do not cross picket lines.

The UAW leadership had a knotty problem on its hands in trying to enforce its desire to keep Chrysler's auto assembly lines going, while at the same time giving full support to the striking office workers and engineers.

Chrysler said its work picture was changing almost hourly because of union walkouts and company shutdowns of some units because of parts shortages.

Company officials said the only Chrysler assembly plant operating as of mid-morning was at Newark, Del., where 2,000 workers turn out Plymouth and Dodge autos.

The situation in others was listed by Chrysler thus:

Plymouth assembly, Detroit—1,500 sent home when UAW truck drivers refused to cross picket lines.

Plymouth body plant, Detroit—1,500 sent home; same reason.

Dodge assembly, Detroit—2,000 workers. No production scheduled today because of the dispute. Some 300 workers were called in on special assignments.

Press Gets Photo Award

FRENCH LICK, Ind. (AP)—Three Michigan newspapers were cited today by the Associated Press Managing Editors' Assn. for outstanding news and photo coverage in 1958.

The awards, announced at the APME national convention here, went to the Bay City Times, The Pontiac Press and the Saginaw News.

The Times and the News were honored for both news and photo work on the Capital Airlines plane crash at Tri-City Airport Easter night.

The Pontiac Press citation with a letter to John Fitzgerald, editor, read:

"For outstanding photo coverage of the Frank Kierdorf human torch story, including immediate availability to all wirephoto points, exclusive hospital shots of Kierdorf on the day he was identified, even within the Press' own competitive area."

Pontiac's photo work on the Kierdorf story was excellent, prompt and in volume although The Press, itself, chose not to use many of its own pictures because of the gruesome subject matter.

Christmas Club Payoffs in Mail Soon

Christmas bills won't be much of a chore for many Pontiac area persons who will be recipients of $1,040,059 in "Christmas Club" checks going into the mail beginning Saturday.

Club members back a year ago began depositing what they wished in such savings plans conducted by the Community National Bank, Pontiac State Bank, Pontiac Federal Savings & Loan Association, and the General Motors Truck & Coach Employees Federal Credit Union.

Community National Bank reports checks totaling $619,957 will be mailed Nov. 17 to 3,106 club members.

Pontiac State Bank will mail out the second largest amount of checks Saturday. These add up to $352,527 and go out to 4,415 persons.

Beginning Monday also, the 600 persons who joined the Christmas Club at Pontiac Federal Savings & Loan Assn. will be lucky recipients of $52,321 in benefits.

In their second year of operating a Christmas Club plan, the GMC credit union says it will put into the mail Saturday checks adding up to $15,254. They will go to 249 participants in the 1958 saving plan.

The national spotlight is now on Pontiac, since it was here that the United Fund principle of "Giving Once For All" was established in 1948. More than 1,100 communities across the nation have followed Pontiac's lead, and now conduct a United Fund campaign.

Striking Distance Here for UF Goal

The tenth anniversary appeal of the Pontiac Area United Fund today eased to within striking distance of its goal, with reports of contributions totaling $401,143 from its three major campaign divisions.

Philip J. Monaghan, 1958 campaign chairman, expressed confidence the drive will go over the top, and announced that the victory luncheon will be held Tuesday, Nov. 25 at the Elks Temple for the men and women who have worked so hard on this year's drive.

Today's final-day report puts the drive within $99,857 of the $501,000 goal needed to maintain the fund's 55 vital community service agencies through 1959.

An additional $37,770 in pledges was turned in today by the 1,700 supervisors who are conducting the in-plant solicitations of employees in the Industrial Division.

This brings the division's total of $236,330.14, according to its chairman, Semon E. Knudsen.

The Commercial Division, headed this year by Judge Clark J. Adams and Berkeley Voss, registered $146,878.18 or 78.5 per cent of its $179,571 quota.

"We had hoped to be able to announce 100 per cent of quota this morning," stated Voss. "Although our job isn't quite completed we're not counting ourselves out. We will not be satisfied until the Commercial Division goes over the top."

4 DIVISIONS OVER TOP

Reports tabulated this morning at Fund headquarters indicated four of the Division's 11 groups have surpassed 86 per cent of their quotas.

They are: Finance, chairmanned by Al Holcomb, $21,772.60 or 89.1 per cent of quota; Retail No. 1, chairmanned by Larry Payne, $21,846.20 or 88.9 per cent of quota; Public Service, chairmanned by Dave Ewalt, $21,336.00 or 87.4 per cent of quota; and Board of Education, chairmanned by Dr. Phillip Proud, $10,681 or 86.3 per cent of quota.

Adams and Voss expressed great concern over the Automotive and Construction groups which have managed to raise only 59 per cent and 52 per cent of their respective quotas.

"It looks like we'll have to count on some of the other nine groups to make up the deficit in order to put the Commercial Division over its quota," stated Judge Adams.

The Women's Division, which went over the top last week, now stands at 115.1 per cent of quota with collections totaling $23,935.68.

This total sets a new mark for the Fund's door-to-door solicitors in the Pontiac-Waterford area.

It surpasses the performance of any previous residential campaign in the nine year history of the Pontiac Area United Fund.

The national spotlight is now on Pontiac, since it was here that the United Fund principle of "Giving Once For All" was established in 1948. More than 1,100 communities across the nation have followed Pontiac's lead, and now conduct a United Fund campaign.

Cubans Release 31 of Captives

American Among Group Turned Over by Rebels to Red Cross

HAVANA (AP)—After reporting the release of 31 persons from captured airliners, the Cuban rebels held up today the return of army prisoners until the government explains an alleged violation of a rebel cease-fire.

The high command of rebel chief Fidel Castro announced Tuesday they handed over to the Red Cross 25 passengers, including an American, and 6 crewmen of two Cubana Airlines DCs.

The planes were seized in flight Oct. 21 and Nov. 5. Eleven other passengers aboard one plane had been freed previously.

The rebels declared on Sunday a 30-hour cease-fire to turn the passengers and crewmen over to the Red Cross at a site in eastern Cuba. The cease-fire ended at 6 p.m. Tuesday night.

The 31 prisoners, including U.S. Navy Airman Robert M. Montgomery of Miami, arrived safely in Santiago.

The insurgents said the government showed bad faith when a navy plane flew low over the transfer site. They claimed the navy plane and pilot were captured but did not say how this was accomplished.

The rebels said they still have about 200 army prisoners they want to turn over to the Red Cross.

But Raul Castro, brother of Fidel, said in a broadcast none of them will be transferred until President Fulgencio Batista's government explains what the navy plane was doing there.

Fair, Brisk Weather Predicted for Area

Fair and cooler with a low of 33 is the prediction for the Pontiac area tonight. Winds will be southeasterly Thursday at 8-15 miles an hour.

Tomorrow will be fair with little change in temperature, with the expected high about 55. Showers, with little change in temperature, is the outlook for Friday. Rainfall will average about three-tenths inches, with showers again about Monday.

In downtown Pontiac the lowest recording preceding 8 a.m. was 34 degrees. The reading at 1 p.m. was 53.

Straley Relieved of Chief's Duties but Keeps Rank

Safety Head Assumes Personal Supervision 'to Solve Problems'

By MAN E. SIMON

Pontiac Public Safety Director George D. Eastman announced today that he was taking "personal and direct command" of the city police force.

Police Chief Herbert F. Straley was being placed "on special assignment" to Eastman's office, but Eastman did not disclose what the chief's new duties would be.

In another major change, Eastman shuffled other high officers around "to make most effective use of the present command personnel."

Although Straley will retain his rank, he will have "no command or supervisory responsibility other than that which would normally go to his position as police chief in an emergency condition," Eastman said.

Eastman said he was removing the controversial police chief from command because of the "urgency of the many problems" that face the department.

"To resolve them with reasonable dispatch, it is necessary that I deal directly with the responsible bureau and unit commanders," Eastman said.

"I have arrived at no decision about the future role the chief will play," Eastman said. "This will depend somewhat upon the extent to which he is willing to participate in my future plans."

"NO RAPPORT"

Eastman, who has held his post for just one month, noted that "there is no feeling of rapport between the chief and the bulk of the police personnel — including men of all ranks, working, supervisory and command."

"Such a lack of rapport precludes the possibility of the department doing a successful job," he said.

Eastman said he has found the police force to be one of "unusually low morale, lacking in esprit de corps."

He said that substantial changes in the level of morale have already resulted from such simple things as seeking the advice of the rank and file on the design of a new uniform, and in the growing willingness of the supervisory and command officers for working together toward solving departmental problems.

"I view my job here as being principally concerned with developing the latent talent that is available, and releasing the energy, skills and ambitions of the many competent persons in the department," Eastman said.

MEETING CALLED

He has called an open meeting for all police officers at 3 p.m. today in the City Commission chambers at City Hall, where he will speak on his policies and program for the department.

Among Straley's new duties as a staff officer, Eastman said, will be a study of the Public Administration Service report on (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

Political Boss Dies in Boston

Dem Leader Curley, Last of Big City Rulers, Dead at 84

BOSTON, Mass. (AP)—James Michael Curley, last of the big city political bosses, died today at City Hospital. He would have been 84 Nov. 20.

Curley was a Democratic leader for more than half a century, serving four terms as mayor of Boston, one term as governor of Massachusetts and four as a congressman.

Slowly failing health had marked Curley's last years, and he was long under treatment for diabetes.

Death came four hours after a team of seven doctors performed a 55-minute emergency operation in an attempt to clear a clotting of the artery which supplies the small bowel.

Curley had undergone surgery Nov. 4 for an intestinal blockage. He apparently was making satisfactory progress until Tuesday (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Eight years ago only 91 communities, with a population of 1,500,000, had it.

According to Red Premier Grotewohl:

East Germany to Negotiate Withdrawal of Soviet Troops

BERLIN (AP)—Russia and Communist East Germany plan shortly to negotiate the withdrawal of Soviet troops from East Germany, Grotewohl indicated today.

Grotewohl told a news conference that, by this step, the Communist powers hope to force the United States, Britain and France to withdraw their troops from Western Germany and Berlin.

Grotewohl's announcement gave a clue to how the Kremlin expects to implement Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's announced determination to force the Western allied powers to evacuate pivotal Berlin.

Khrushchev demanded in Moscow on Monday that the four-power occupation of Berlin be brought to an end. He hinted that the Soviet Union would end its treaty obligations to insure Western access to the isolated city, 110 miles inside East Germany.

It was too early to tell whether this offensive would be accompanied by a nerve war against isolated Berlin.

"I am of the opinion that negotiations will take place shortly between the government of the German Democratic Republic and the Soviet government over the withdrawal of Soviet troops from Germany," Grotewohl said.

"By this means we will encourage the Western powers to follow suit. I believe we will find enough people in both parts of Germany who will fight for that. Thereby we will come one step closer to a peace treaty."

There are an estimated 400,000 Soviet soldiers in the Soviet zone of Germany and about 300,000 U.S., British and French soldiers in Western Germany.

Grotewohl did not elaborate under what conditions the Soviet Union might agree with Communist East Germany to pull out its troops.

In the past the Russians have made Allied withdrawal from West Germany the condition for the pull-out of their own troops.

The Western powers have refused to pull out their forces unless an agreement could be reached on the reunification of Germany through free elections.

Puts Integration Responsibility Upon Newspapers of Nation

FRENCH LICK, Ind. (AP)—A public that does not comprehend the facts is dangerous. That places a tremendous responsibility upon newspapers.

Reviewing the progress made in news presentation since the APME was founded in French Lick 25 years ago, Harwell called the AP "an example of democracy at its best, a rare combination of the genius of cooperation and of competition."

Two other speakers stressed community service at the opening session of the silver anniversary convention, attended by almost 400 editors and their wives.

Ben Reese, co-chairman of the advisory board of the American Press Institute at Columbia University, said a community has a right to expect its newspaper to "be a guardian of the town . . . try its best to preserve public virtue . . . fight for the rights of its readers."

"Newspapers must make themselves indispensable," said Reese, a former managing editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. "Public service is a sure way to do it."

Louis M. Lyons, curator of the Nieman Foundation, Harvard University, said, "The problem of making our cities fit to live in still invites newspaper attention." Lyons, whose foundation offers advanced study at Harvard for newspapermen, said the press generally lagged in reporting news about science and education and even the Supreme Court.

Recalling Adlai Stevenson's 1952 complaint about what he called a "one-party press," Lyons said: "In most cities there is no debate in a political campaign. As the number of our papers shrinks, until most cities have only one, such a forum becomes increasingly impossible."

Vincent S. Jones, Rochester, N.Y., executive editor of the Ganett Newspapers, reviewed news events and newspapering of the 25 years, using news pictures to illustrate the period.

"Twenty years ago, scenes of raw violence were common," Jones said in tracing the development of organized labor. "Today's battles are won at the bargaining table and on the voting machine."

Concerning televised political conventions, Jones said, "the conventions on TV had their moments, but they bored as many people as they enthralled, because they couldn't be edited."

Diplomatic missions in Moscow reported today that the East German mission was circulating an 18-page document charging West Germany with aggressive acts. The printed document appeared Monday, indicating coordination between the Kremlin and East Berlin on a drive to oust the Western allies.

The United States, Britain and France have indicated they intend to stand fast in Germany, protecting West Berlin by military force if necessary. Both Washington and London contend that the Soviet Union cannot, by itself, scrap the agreements reached after World War II for occupation of Germany.

Grotewohl called for the signing of a World War II peace treaty with Germany. Agreement among the Big Four on terms of a treaty has been blocked by the cold war which split Germany into two camps.

All the indications here were that Russia and East Germany

Rochester to Celebrate Opening of New Bridge

Ceremony Set for 4 Thursday

Mackie to Be Speaker at Formal Dedication of Clinton River Span

ROCHESTER — Shortly after 4 p.m. tomorrow cars will begin streaming across Rochester's new four-lane South Main street bridge.

That's the time Village President Sydney Q. Ennis and Avon Township Supervisor Cyril E. Miller are scheduled to snip the ribbon, officially opening the concrete span over the Clinton River at the south entrance to the community.

Village and township officials, civic leaders and merchants are going all out to celebrate this important milestone. It will be "Bridge Day" in Rochester.

Featured speaker at the dedication ceremonies will be State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie. He'll be introduced by Master of Ceremonies Fred Noyes, Rochester civic leader.

Festivities will get under way with the Rochester High School Varsity Band marching down Main street to the north end of the bridge, where the Chamber of Commerce will have set up a decorated platform.

Following the band, directed by Ward T. Reid, will be 30 to 40 horses ridden by 4-H club members and a caravan of new cars carrying state, county, township and village officials.

Village merchants are decorating the fronts of their stores and displaying merchandise. They will remain open until 9 p.m., Jack Burr, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, announced.

Completion of the State Highway Dept. Bridge, constructed by the Juttan-Kelly Co. of Detroit, was far ahead of its scheduled July 1, 1939 opening.

It misses by just a few days the 31st anniversary of the dedication of the old two-lane span held Nov. 9, 1907. The old bridge, which made its debut amidst as much if not more fanfare, was hailed as the longest vehicular bridge in the state at that time.

The new 810-foot-long bridge cost $456,502, compared to the $235,321 needed to build the old one. Its width is 48 feet. The old span was 20 feet across.

The four-lane structure spans the Clinton River, two streets and a railroad.

With Old Bell as Link With Past

To Dedicate Pine Lake School

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The tradition of American Education week will take on a new significance for residents of West Bloomfield Township when the new Pine Lake Elementary School and its Callow Bell Tower are dedicated.

Linking the old with the new will be the 75-year-old bell taken from the one-room schoolhouse at the corner of Long Lake and Middlebelt Rds.

It will be rung by sixth grade pupils, Susan Henderson, Joan Keckner, Phillip Maxwell, Barry Morris and Christine Ribant, who began school with Mrs. Eva Thompson, longtime teacher at the old school.

Principal Lester W. Utterback, his faculty and Parent-Teacher Association officers will be hosts at dedication.

A tour of the building at 7:30 p.m. will start the evening. The program will be held in the multipurpose room of the school an hour later.

W. Earl Givens, PTA president, will welcome parents and guests and introduce the speakers. They will include Merrill O. Bates, president of the Bloomfield Hills Board of Education; Eugene L. Johnson, superintendent of schools; Utterback, and Douglas Jocelyn, member of the Board of Education.

Honored during the program will be Robert and May Callow, longtime residents of the area and former owners of the 15-acre Pine Lake School site.

The school band, under direction of Bruce Warnock, and the chorus, directed by Jane Whitton, also will participate in the program.

The flag ceremony will be conducted by Girl Scouts, and Cub Scouts will serve as guides.

The invocation will be given the Rev. John Wigle, minister at the Episcopal Church of the Advent, which presently meets in the old Pine Lake School.

Dr. Joseph Blackburn, minister of education at Kirk in the Hills, will give the benediction.

Pine Lake School was completed this fall. Students have been attending classes there since the first of September.

Constructed at a cost of $300,000, the school has seven classrooms, plus an all-purpose room, an office and a library.

4 Nations Represented at Tuesday Musicales

Pontiac Tuesday Musicales presented an International Music Day program yesterday at Grace Lutheran Church. Jose Vega (center), a native of Spain now living in Pontiac, gave

International Program Featured at Musicales

By CHRIS GAENSBAER
An International Music Day program was presented to members of Pontiac Tuesday Musicales yesterday in the Fellowship Hall of Grace Lutheran Church.

The theme for the day took on added significance because the date was Nov. 11, the day we most closely associate with the nation's hopes for peace in the world.

FOUR NATIONALITIES

Mrs. Addison Oakley introduced the performers, representatives of four different nations.

Jose Vega, a native of Spain, soon to become an American citizen, recited the American Creed and a short essay on the meaning of our Constitution.

Spoken in a language he still finds difficult to pronounce, his sincerity and pride in his adopted country aroused in the audience an acute awareness of the guaranteed freedoms and privileges of this country which are too frequently taken for granted.

Dressed in her native costume, Mrs. Lillian Jleske sang several charming Latvian songs, accompanied by Mrs. Anna Forbat. Her clear lyric soprano voice was well suited to express the varying moods of the light fanciful folk music.

Naomi Ruth Schlyfstone of Pontiac danced a group of folk dances from Israel which depicted, in expressive movement the Israeli determination and joy in the possession of a native soil.

The dances had the Israeli folk quality, but Mrs. Schlyfstone's fine technique and background as a dancer brought them to a level more nearly approaching the art form. She was capably accompanied at the piano by Mrs. James Rosenthal.

HUNGARIAN MUSIC

The melancholy, gypsy characteristics of Hungarian music were brought out by Mrs. Anna Forbat as she played and sang compositions and folk music of that country, attired in native costume.

Mrs. Forbat is an excellent pianist and former student of the late great Hungarian composer Bela Bartok. Her intelligent playing of one of his works demonstrated a facile technique and a thorough understanding of this pleasing (in this case) but sometimes difficult contemporary composer.

Six members of the Tuesday Musicales Chorus appropriately closed the musical portion of the program with "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor," the words of which are part of the poem by Emma Lazarus used as the inscription at the base of The Statue of Liberty.

The vocalists were Rose Jorgenson, Mrs. J. K. Helvey, Yvonne Smith, Mrs. Clyde Marshbanks, Mrs. Collis Scott and Mrs. Fred Stimpert, directed by Mrs. George Putnam and accompanied by Mrs. Donald Hogue.

As a sort of postlude, Mr. Vega recited a short poem entitled "America, I Love You" with an earnestness and unembarrassed patriotic zeal that was deeply moving.

BUSINESS MEETING HELD

Mrs. Ralph Norvell, club president, presided at the business meeting. Door hostesses were Mrs. C. E. Armstrong and Mrs. Alex Capalis. Mrs. G. V. Poole and Mrs. J. V. Walker were tea table hostesses. Serving on the floral committee were Mrs. Harry C. Hall and Mrs. Gilbert Every.

Mrs. N. W. Gray was social committee chairman with Mrs. J. N. Youngblood cochairman. Assisting were Mrs. H. J. Wood, Mrs. H. L. White, Mrs. L. V. Ostrander, Mrs. C. G. Ulgian, Mrs. D. J. Robertson and Mrs. M. R. Voss.

Tucks, Pleats Accent Purses

The new handbag crop from Europe, distributed in the United States, features tucks and tuckable shapes.

The pocketbooks are a handy envelope-type, combine suede or velvet and leather, and are softly draped, pleated or gathered. One novel handbag is a gondola in acetate velvet with a plastic grip.

BPW Club Holds Dinner

Members of the Pontiac Business and Professional Women's Club met for dinner Tuesday evening at Hotel Waldron. Mrs. Anne Stapp told of the success of the group's recent scholarship benefit party, and Roberta Rapaport reported on the meeting of the Greater Pontiac Advisory Council and Planning Commission. President Ora Randall and Fritz Stoddard will represent the Club at the Needlework Guild Ingathering Nov. 13.

Club members were invited to a tea, to be given Nov. 21 by the Bell Telephone Co. at Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building, honoring Eva Dyer who is retiring.

Hostesses for the evening were Jane Danton, Julia Diamond, Janet Dow, Mrs. Edward Eickmeier and Mrs. Rita Rose.

Coordinate Courses With Dec. 2 Concert

Symphony to Benefit Schools

The Dec. 2 concert of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra will be held in its new quarters at Pontiac Northern High School.

With the new enlarged seating area, a plan is under way in conjunction with the music departments of the city and county to coordinate the symphony's programs with the material taught in the classroom.

Prior to each concert, a list of selections will be provided to the schools to be included in their study courses. Invitations will then be issued to various music departments to bring their students to the concerts as guests of the symphony.

In this way it is felt that the musical education of the students will be greatly enhanced and broadened.

This new development has been made possible by the financial support which has placed the symphony in a sufficiently strong position to help the youth of the city and Oakland county, officials said.

Italian Club Plans Party

Plans for a Christmas party to be held Dec. 24 at Devon Gables were made when the Women's Italian-American Club Auxiliary met at the group's new hall. Mrs. Ralph Mazza and Mrs. Robert Mazza were named chairmen for the party.

Mrs. Donald Lucarelli and Mrs. Thomas Powers are chairmen for a children's Christmas party. Hostesses at the Monday meeting were Mrs. Sam Calabrese and Mrs. Henry Felice.

PATRICIA M. MCGINTY

Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. McGinty of Lochaven road announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia May, to Robert Lertola, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lertola of Utica. No wedding date has been set.

garments to the annual Ingathering of Pontiac Chapter of Needlework Guild. The Ingathering will be held in First Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Clarke is president of the Queen Mary Section.

Dear Abby...

Woman of 74 Rejects Benefits Rather Than Admit Her Age

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: Our sister is 74 years old and she has money piling up under the Old Age Benefits, but believe it or not she won't collect it because she doesn't want to admit her age. I've tried to talk to her and so have others, but it is like talking to a brick wall. How can we convince her that she should forget her vanity and take what she has coming to her under the law?" HER SISTERS

DEAR SISTERS: Contact your local Social Security office. They've heard that song before and will be glad to furnish you with some convincing arguments.

"DEAR ABBY: I read your column every day to see if I can find someone as crazy as I was. I lived with this man for 15 years and we have two children. Not once did he ask me if I wanted to get married.

When we got together he had nothing, but now he is sitting pretty. He worked hard for what he has but I helped him. Everyone thinks we are man and wife.

"I am sick of bringing up the subject because he says a little piece of paper doesn't make any difference. He doesn't run around on me and he treats me better than some married men treat their wives, but how do I get him to legalize my name?" LIVING IN SIN

DEAR LIVING: (You are EXISTING; he is LIVING) Perhaps he doesn't realize that you two could go quietly to a clergyman and have him perform a simple ceremony. No filing, no public notices, no waiting. Ask your clergyman.

"DEAR ABBY: My problem is an overly neat wife. She gave away my fishing hat and all the fishing clothes I had. She also cleaned me out of every comfortable pair of shoes I wore for gardening and around the house. My high school sweater is also missing and I kept it for 14 years. As soon as I get used to something she gives it away. She says she can't stand shabby things around. How can I cure her once and for all?" PLAIN MAD

DEAR PLAIN: Every woman has a favorite extra comfortable old girdle. Confiscate it and see if that doesn't snap her back to attention.

"DEAR ABBY: I am a 64-year-old woman who has been taking care of a 93-year-old man for two years. I have never had a day off in all that time. I do his cooking, cleaning, laundry and even gardening (75 ft. by 200 ft.). He found out I could do office work so I am also taking care of his finances. He willed me $10,000 but he told his lawyer he has no intention of letting me have it as he is going to try to outlive me and the way things are going the chances are good. "I draw $250 a month. He is as mean as the devil himself and pretends to be sleeping when I pass by him, but he will pinch me hard. I don't drink or smoke. Should I walk out or wait?" TIED

DEAR TIED: Your present working conditions are far from ideal, but many a 64-year-old woman would be glad to change places with you. If you can get a job more to your liking, take it—otherwise, stay where you are. Your job will do in a pinch. (P.S. How hard can a 93-year-old man pinch?)

CONFIDENTIAL TO FRAN: Trying to stop an affair at this stage is like trying to stop a toboggan going full speed ahead. But remember—you deliberately climbed aboard, looking for something to happen.

Dem Senator Wants Dulles to Step Out

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.) wants Secretary of State John Foster Dulles to resign.

"It is no secret," Clark said Tuesday, "that our present secretary of state has lost the confidence of many of our allies and many of us in Congress."

Clark addressed the 40th anniversary conference of the Foreign Policy Assn.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.) shared the speaking platform with Clark. Javits said that to condemn Dulles is, in effect, to condemn President Eisenhower. He defended the administration's foreign policy.

Clark saw the recent election as an expression of the people's dissatisfaction with the status quo in foreign policy and their desire for a change.

Clark characterized the President as weak and Dulles as negative and said "we must continue, until new leadership in the White House is forthcoming, to bump along as best we can."

Javits said he is "not for Congress resting on its oars and waiting two years for a new president or a new secretary of state."

"The first push must come from Congress and Congress must be more active than ever," he added.

Boy, 6, Hands Father Artillery Shell as Gift

DETROIT (AP)—Richard Bell, 6, walked into his home and showed his father a Veterans' Day souvenir.

Police are handling the 90 millimeter artillery shell gingerly until they find out whether it contains any high explosive. Richard found it in an alley.

BETTER WATCH OUT—Lynn Dean is the girl behind the badge at Miami Beach, Fla. She was hostess to the recent International Association of Police Chiefs in the resort city.

'Boss' Curley Sinks After 2nd Operation

BOSTON (AP)—James Michael Curley, last of the big-city political bosses, was reported in "very grave" condition today after emergency surgery at Boston City Hospital. He will be 84 on Nov. 20.

Dr. James V. Sacchetti, assistant superintendent of the hospital, said at 5 a.m. that Curley was growing weaker and his breathing was labored.

Members of Curley's immediate family, including his wife and son George, remained near his bedside.

The four-time mayor of Boston who also served as governor of Massachusetts and as congressman, underwent emergency surgery at 11:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The 55-minute operation was required to clear what doctors described as a clotting of the artery which supplies the small bowel.

It was his second operation in five days. The colorful political figure whose public life spanned more than a half-century had appeared to be making steady recovery. Tuesday he walked the hospital corridor and posed for news pictures.

Then he suffered a weak spell. After an examination a team of seven doctors was called in for the emergency operation.

Dead Major's Wife Puzzled

Why Did Hero Turn Thief?

LEAVENWORTH, Kan. (AP)—Mrs. Russell Edgar Parker aimlessly caressed an empty coffee cup, puzzled by the question which had tormented her for sleepless hours.

"I know people are asking why an officer with a fine record would do this thing," she said. "I cannot answer them. I simply cannot."

Her husband, a 40-year-old Army major from Laurel, Miss., was shot and killed Monday night as he fled with $568 he had stolen in a holdup at a downtown Kansas City movie theater. The theater manager, John E. Dugan, shot the decorated veteran of World War II and Korea.

The Parkers came to Ft. Leavenworth from Corbin, Ky., in August and he was taking a 10-month course at the Army's Command and General Staff College. They lived in the upstairs of a private home in Leavenworth. They have no children.

"I have no idea... There was no hint... that anything was so desperately wrong," said Mrs. Parker. "He seemed to be in good health. He seemed to be in good health. He seemed to be in good health."

"He was happy-go-lucky in a way, but he took his studies seriously. He was determined to do well. I wanted to help him. I had no outside activities."

The course he was taking is sometimes called the "pressure cooker."

An Army spokesman said Maj. Parker may have worried about financial problems. He had helped pay heavy medical expenses incurred recently by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Parker in Laurel.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity.

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge. Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulk and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and gripe the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new COLONOID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONOID moisturizes dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONOID's unequalled rebulking action helps restore flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONOID acts gently on the nerve reflex that stimulates the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon. COLONOID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; it is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And COLONOID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONOID today! Introductory size 43¢.
