Memory Fails Western Teamster Boss

Brewster Says He Can't Recall Financial Data

Evidence Shows That Union Paid Expenses of Private Employes

WASHINGTON (INS)—West Coast Teamsters boss Frank W. Brewster suffered a lapse of memory today when confronted with evidence that the union paid transportation and hotel bills for his private jockey and horse trainer.

The gray-haired, quick-tempered labor leader repeatedly stated "I can't remember" when photographic copies of airplane and hotel bills and canceled checks were exhibited before the Senate Rackets Committee.

Brewster pleaded for an opportunity to consult with the others involved to determine whether he could explain the expenditures charged up to the union.

Committee Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) reminded Brewster that he turned down an opportunity to consult with the committee staff on the information he has obtained.

Brewster replied: "That wasn't exactly correct. I don't know whether people have had much experience with the staff. The staff can do a pretty good job of getting you confused."

McClellan wryly retorted: "I don't think they have to work very hard at it."

CHECK FOR $750

The biggest payment involved was a $750 check allegedly cashed by Brewster and the late John J. Sweeney, secretary-treasurer of the Western Conference of Teamsters, to pay a hotel bill at a swank racetrack hotel in the San Francisco area.

The committee introduced an affidavit from Earl Wills, partner in the El Rancho Hotel near the Bay Meadows and Tanforan Racetracks, saying that Brewster; his jockey, Richard Cavallero; his horse trainer, Mel Eisen, and Mrs. Eisen stayed there in September 1955.

Wills said the Teamsters Union

Wall at Rouge Plant Ripped by Explosion

BLAST DAMAGE — A 500-foot section of Dearborn's giant Rouge plant of the Ford Motor Co. stands twisted and torn following an explosion in the plant spray section which injured 25 workers and killed one last night. Although the cause of the blast was not immediately known, it was believed to have originated in a huge paint-drying oven.

Explosion Rips Drying Oven, Blows Out Wall

Men Become Living Torches; Workers Beat Flames by Hand

DEARBORN—One of 26 workmen injured in an explosion at the Ford Motor Company's Rouge plant in Dearborn died today.

He was John Goodwin, 56, of Detroit, one of six employes who suffered critical burns last night when the blast ripped the paint drying oven in the plant's frame and cold heading building.

The explosion blew out most of the building's windows and part of a brick wall. Half of the oven's roof was torn away.

A plant spokesman said an investigation would be launched today to determine cause of the explosion and amount of damage. He said an accumulation of paint fumes may have caused the blast.

Seventeen ambulances rushed 19 of the victims to Henry Ford Hospital and Wayne County Hospital. Seven were treated at the plant hospital and released.

The injured were among an estimated 100, employes loading or unloading frames. Another 1,700 men were working in other parts of the building.

Searing flames roared out of the oven door after the explosion. One man on top of a 6-foot scaffold was blown 50 feet through a window. His hat, false teeth and shoes were found where he had been standing.

Joe Allen, 31, of Detroit, a United Auto Workers Union committeman and a Marine Corps combat veteran, said:

"Some of the poor guys looked like they'd been sprayed by a flame thrower. The place looked like it had been hit by a bomb."

The plant is the world's largest industrial installation. It is a collection of buildings on a 2,000-acre site.

Carmen Sarotte, a 37-year-old general foreman, was one of the workmen standing outside the building when the blast sent flames shooting out of the mouth of the oven where the frames entered.

"Dazed and burning men came running toward us along the platform where the frames are loaded," he said. "We grabbed them, tore their burning clothes from them and then beat the fire out with our hands. We handled about five."

One man, his clothes flaming, stumbled over a guard rail and started running, said Henry J. Hill, a 39-year-old arc welder who was standing close by.

He tripped the running man and threw him to the ground.

"I grabbed a coat off a rack, wrapped him in it and beat him with my hands," he said.

About a quarter of the building was damaged, a Ford spokesman said. He gave no immediate estimate of the damage.

Egypt Tells Plan for Running Suez

CAIRO (AP)—Still gaining ground in Gaza, Egypt has laid on the line the methods she intends to follow in operating the Suez Canal after its reopening.

President Nasser's government sent a memorandum to all foreign nations through diplomatic channels last night emphasizing the Egyptian approach to this issue.

Details were secret, but the government has already made clear its position that all tolls must be paid to Egyptian authorties, all ships will be subject to Egyptian laws during transit and that Israel will continue to be barred as an enemy nation.

Foreign embassy spokesmen refused to make public the memorandum.

Egypt's Suez Canal Authority declined comment, saying the memorandum involved high-level policy and was "outside our jurisdiction."

A spokesman said, however, Egypt intends to give 15 days notice before reopening the canal.

Lt. Gen. Raymond A. Wheeler, boss of the U.N. salvage fleet, has estimated the channel will be cleared for vessels of maximum tonnage by April 10.

The Gaza Strip shared top attention with the canal.

The Egyptians said all the troops of the U.N. Emergency Force within the Strip will be stationed along the Gaza-Israeli frontier tomorrow.

As Egyptian control expanded, Israeli Foreign Minister Golda Meir told Hammarskjold in New York that Israel will not agree to "a belligerent Egypt" returning to the Gaza Strip.

Her two-hour talk with Hammarskjold followed her request to Secretary of State Dulles for a tougher U. S. policy toward President Nasser and his government.

An Israeli Foreign Office spokesman in Jerusalem said his government would send a ship flying the Israeli flag through the Tiran Straits to Eilat as "a test case" as soon as such a ship and enough cargo for it are available.

New York Paper Goes to 10 Cents a Copy

NEW YORK (INS)—The New York Journal - American announced today that "due to sharply increased costs for newsprint, wages and all operating expenses," it is raising the price of its weekday newspaper from five to ten cents, effective tomorrow.

A similar price boost was announced by the New York World-Telegram, another of the three metropolitan afternoon dailies, yesterday and went into effect today.

Work Halted on Underpass

Rain Freezes on Steel, Endangers Workmen at Telegraph Intersection

Workmen setting steel in place were called off, a spokesman said, because ice on the structure makes footing dangerous.

It was the first break in construction since two shiploads of steel arrived two weeks ago, the spokesman for the State Highway Department said. One load already is in place.

The spokesman said the second load will be set as soon as weather permits. With help from the weatherman, he believed concrete foundations would be poured within two weeks.

The two loads represent about one quarter of the total steel needed to complete the bridge over which Orchard Lake traffic will pass.

The Highway Department has announced plans for remaining steel to arrive in time to permit continuous construction.

The shortage of steel, caused by last year's strike, was blamed for the halt in construction last fall. The job had been scheduled for completion last summer.

When finished, Telegraph traffic will pass under the bridge by means of a four-lane, mile-long grade separation.

Icy Greeting Awaits Arrival of Spring

They say spring arrives tomorrow, but chances are very slim that any of us will be able to recognize it.

The Weather Bureau reports that the Pontiac area will get its share of a disappointing belting of freezing rain changing to snow flurries. This was to be added to the dose of freezing rain which fell Monday night.

Tomorrow's spring is expected to be ushered in without benefit of usual balmy temperatures. Although the outlook is for cloudy and warmer, this "warmer" is expected to be in the 38 to 44-degree range.

Tonight, scattered snow flurries are forecast with the temperature expected to hover around the 26 to 30-degree mark.

OFFICIALLY ARRIVES

Spring officially arrives at 4:17 p.m. tomorrow, which is nearly six hours later than last year. Since the last spring equinox, it has taken Earth 365.24 days to circle the Sun.

The Pontiac area is expected to fare, so the Weather Man says, better than upstate Michigan counties. There, some six inches of snow is expected to fall.

Snow mixed with freezing rain and sleet was the forecast today in southeastern and southwestern counties, with snow accumulating to a depth of two to four inches in upper portions of the region.

After last night's weather mixture, the Automobile Club of Michigan said lower peninsula roads

Ike to See Display of Naval Air Power

WITH EISENHOWER IN THE ATLANTIC (INS) — President Eisenhower, steaming toward Bermuda, was to see a demonstration of naval air power today by "attacking" fighters and bombers from the aircraft carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The planes will make mock bombing and strafing runs over the USS Canberra, the President's "Flagship," and drop live bombs on a target towed by one of its escorting destroyers.

The 45,000-ton aircraft carrier, operating out of Jacksonville, Fla., will launch the planes from some 200 miles away. They will include FJ-3 Jet "Fury" fighters, F2H-3 Twinjet "Banshee" all-weather fighters, and AD-6 "Sky Raider" bombers.

The demonstration will conclude with formation flying over the Canberra in an aerial salute to the Commander-In-Chief.

It will open with a "bang"—one of the Fury fighters will dive through the supersonic barrier aiming its shock wave at the Canberra so the President can hear the roar like an exploding gun.

Plea of Innocent Entered for Girl

Madelon Allred Faces Judge as Final Rites Are Held for Tot

As little Patricia Tiernan, 2½, was buried in Mount Hope Cemetery yesterday, a plea of innocent to her murder was entered in a Detroit court.

Roberta Sue (Madelon) Allred, 18-year-old baby sitter accused of drowning the tot in a Detroit hotel bathtub, appeared at arraignment without an attorney and apparently was confused by the proceedings.

Asked by Recorder's Judge George Murphy to make a plea, Madelon stared blankly about the room. The judge announced a plea of mute would be entered and set examination for March 28.

"I am guilty, then," blurted the girl, a former mental patient at Pontiac State Hospital.

"No, no—she isn't guilty," cried her mother, Mrs. Lucille Allred, 53, of 33 Gingell Ct.

Madelon is accused of taking Patricia last Thursday from her home at 36 Florence Ave., where she had been baby sitting three weeks while the mother and stepfather worked.

The grief-stricken parents, Theodor W. Tiernan, 26, and his wife, Mildred, 23, yesterday were comforted by scores of relatives during the simple services in Brace-Smith Funeral Home.

More than 100 persons attended.

Australian Looks at America

Newsman 'Right at Home' Here

(Editor's Note: Australian journalist Denis N. Hawker has joined the editorial staff of The Pontiac Press for three months, under an exchange program of the U. S. State Department. The prize-winning deputy chief of staff of the Mercury of Hobar, Tasmania, has written his impressions of Pontiac.)

By DENIS N. HAWKER

I feel at home here in Pontiac — the people, the city itself differ little from their Australian counterparts . . .the weather man has ordered patches of warm sunshine since my arrival . . . and this is a General Motors center.

HAWKER

General Motors comes immediately to mind because it is playing a big part in the development of Australia's vast potential.

One of the most spectacular developments in Australia's postwar industry has been the great success of the first automobile wholly manufactured in the country.

The Holden, Australia's own car, is made by General Motors-Holdens Ltd., which today produces more than a third of the total registrations of new vehicles.

The Holden is a smaller — in line with the trend toward medium size automobiles in Australia — replica of America's Chevrolet.

In its debut in Europe's blue ribbon car event, the Monte Carlo Rally, it ran a place in front of many longer established car makes.

In the more rugged 6,000-mile round - Australia reliability trials, sponsored each year by big oil companies, it has a creditable record — as have American built vehicles.

These trials are severe tests of cars and crews. The route includes smooth highways, desert tracks, tropical swamps and river fords. Fewer than half the average 200 starters make the distance. Many are wrecked in high-speed roll-overs, others fall apart from the pounding they receive.

Australia is an automobile - conscious nation, ranking with Canada and New Zealand behind the United States in the proportion of cars to population. America's ratio is one vehicle to every four persons; Australia's one to five.

The Holden works, located near Melbourne, venue of the 1956 Olympic Games, has progressively stepped up output since the first car was made there in 1948.

It is one of the key factories in the rapid industrial expansion now taking place down under. General Motors-Holdens Ltd., a combination of American and Australian know-how and capital, is returning big dividends to the Australian nation — and to its shareholders.

It is helping to build for America a bigger and stronger ally in the Pacific.

MEMO TO CAESAR

Miracle Occurs During Wedding

(Twelfth in a Lenten Series)

Smarting under Caesar's rebuke and his wife's teasing, Pilate sulked like a soldier too long away from battle. He rattled chairs and snarled commands at the slaves until his pouting became gossip even outside the palace.

It got to be too much for Claudia.

One morning she came into his room with a basket of freshly-picked fruit. "Here," she said sweetly. "Now, let us be gay again and forget all about that Nazarene."

"I wish I could," Pilate admitted. "But it is as bad to know nothing as to know too much. Junius has not sent me a report in almost a month."

"I have heard more gossip," Claudia volunteered.

"Tell it."

Claudia sat down beside him.

"There was a wedding in Cana," she began. "Jesus was invited there along with many other guests. In fact, the crowd was so large they ran out of wine and everyone was very embarrassed — everyone except the Nazarene, that is. He simply performed a miracle."

"What's this?" Pilate demanded.

"He called for six stone water jars and ordered them filled with water and sent into the governor of the feast."

"I thought it proper to reserve such jokes for a less solemn time," Pilate said.

"But when the servants began to pour from the jars it was wine that came out," Claudia said. "And everyone said it was delicious, better than the wine they had been served before."

Pilate stood up. "This is preposterous. I could not think of reporting it to Caesar. He would laugh at me harder than ever."

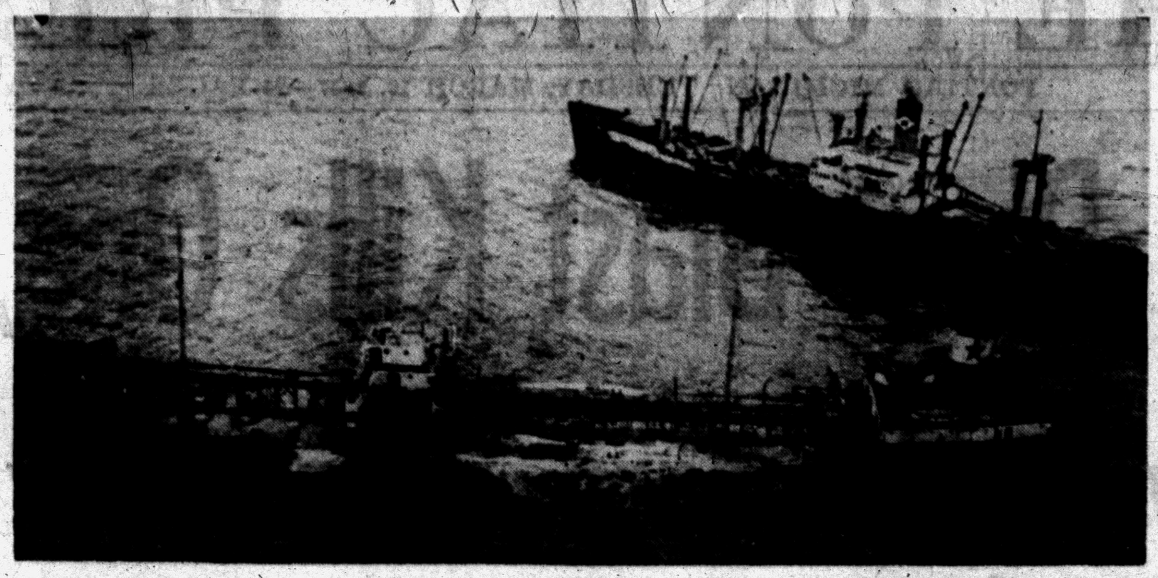

Claudia shrugged. "It's true. One of Herodias' maids was there."

"You haven't been seeing Herod's no-good stolen wife!" Pilate scowled.

"No, but the slaves will talk among themselves."

"Do they ever say anything about this wildish John whom Herod has in prison?"

"No, but I'll see what I can find out," Claudia promised.

Waterford Gives Approval for Jayno Subdivision

The Jayno Heights subdivision in Waterford Township was approved last night by board members, after almost a year of planning, and construction of a water system.

Last summer a preliminary plat for the 280 lot subdivision was submitted for township board approval, but changes in the water supply system had to be made.

Since that time, the Mogel and Greater Investment Co. of Detroit, has drilled three new wells, costing approximately $100,000.

The firm is presently installing a water system for the Walton Boulevard project, which must be acceptable to the state health department.

After the new water system is completed, the Mogel firm plans to give the township the system, to maintain and operate.

Louis Barry, acting supervisor, stated that this is the usual procedure when the township requests subdivision developers to install a water system at the time a plat is approved.

The firm has also agreed to connect with the water supply system now in operation in the adjacent Angelus Golf-View Estates Subdivision.

Other business transacted by the board was the reviewing of the annual recreation department budget request compiled by Thomas Belton, recreation director.

The report was tabled for further study by members.

St. Joseph Day Brings Swallows to Capistrano

Offer New Plan for School Aid

Gear Program to Rate of $185 per Pupil; Calls for Hike on Liquor Tax

LANSING (AP) — House Republicans today submitted an emergency money program for local school districts geared to a $185 a pupil distribution formula for 1956-57.

It would mean that schools in the fiscal year ending June 30 will receive 10 to 14 million dollars more than now is in sight but six to eight million less than they hoped for under the $190 a pupil formula adopted by the 1956 Legislature.

The new proposal calls for doubling the state tax on beer and a new five per cent excise tax on liquor to raise the additional revenue required.

In a statement, Reps Allison Green (R-Kingston) and Clayton T. Morrison (R-Pickford), prime movers of the plan said:

"There is much sentiment to pay out this year's bill at $190, however, reasonable officials doubt that the treasury can stand this much of a deficiency and still meet state payrolls and other commitments on time.

"Because of the difficult position in which we find the state treasury, it does not seem wise to promise more than we can possibly deliver."

Green and Morrison said they "realize that the taxpayers are now overburdened and we are sympathetic."

"On the other hand," they added, "we feel it short sighted economy to cripple our fine school program."

They predicted strong support for their measure.

Absentee Ballots Available Now at Clerk's Office

Pontiac voters who will be unable to go to the polls April 1 for the state biennial spring balloting, have been urged to pick up their absentee ballots now at the city clerk's office in the City Hall, 35 S. Parke St.

Court Hearing Begins Today

To Determine Custody of 12 Wyatt Children; Father Seeks Care of 6

A hearing to determine custody of the 12 children of Mrs. Ada Wyatt, 33-year-old Keego Harbor mother convicted of child cruelty, was to begin at 2 p.m. today before Judge Arthur E. Moore in Oakland County Juvenile Court.

William Wyatt, 29-year-old truck driver who is the father of the six younger children, has asked for their custody. Age one to six, they have been living in boarding homes.

The six older children, who have the surname Wilkinson from their mother's previous marriage, are wards of the court and have been living with grandparents in Holly.

The oldest is 12 and the youngest is eight-year-old Sherry Wilkinson, who last week went to University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor for several months extensive plastic and oral surgery.

Mrs. Wyatt, who was convicted of cruelly torturing Sherry, was to be brought to the hearing from the Detroit House of Correction, where she is serving a 3½-4 year term.

Wyatt was to show how he can provide a home and financial care for the children.

The children were not scheduled to appear.

Darling Challenges Right of Szymanski Subpoenas

LANSING (AP) — The attorney for a Grand Rapids trucking firm today accused the state of "going on a political fishing expedition" in its investigation of a proposed land purchase deal tied in with Grand Rapids expressway development.

Paul O. Strawhecker of Grand Rapids rose at a hearing in the office of Auditor General Frank S. Szymanski to protest angrily that under law Szymanski has no right to subpoena officials of Darling Freight Lines, Inc., to testify in the investigation.

Strawhecker said Szymanski's subpoena rights are limited to state and county officials.

Szymanski retorted that Strawhecker himself was giving "in substance a political speech" and ordered the hearing to continue.

The outburst came as Louis Grettenberg was summoned to testify in the second day of the hearing. Grettenberg handed legal dealings for the Darling firm in the proposed land transaction.

Earlier, an official of the trucking firm said that if the state wants land owned by the company for its expressway project it will have to pay at least $60,000 more than the original asking price.

Daniel A. Darling, General Manager of Darling Freight Lines, Inc., said the price increase was the company's reprisal for the method in which the state handled an investigation of the proposed sale.

Darling was one of three witnesses who testified yesterday at a six-hour inquiry into an agreement between the Darling company and the State Highway Department last February. The investigation was ordered by Gov. Williams to determine why the highway department was willing to pay $90,000 for a 2½ acre plot of land originally appraised at $11,800.

Others who testified at a hearing conducted by Aud. Gen. Frank S. Szymanski were Mayor Paul Goebel of Grand Rapids and William T. Broersma, also of Grand Rapids and one of three appraisers who estimated the value of the property in dispute.

Darling said the value of the property sought by the highway department, together with the damages that would result from the sale, added up to $150,000 "by very conservative estimates."

Questioned by Asst. Atty. Gen. Joseph A. Sullivan, he said the firm had agreed to sell for $90,000 because:

1. The highway department had assured the company that its trucking operations would not be disrupted by the sale.

2. The company had acted "in the public spirit," knowing that the land was needed to allow the expressway project to go ahead.

3. "A little bit of pressure" had been brought to bear by the intervention of Mayor Goebel in the deal. It was Goebel and Gerald E. White, President of the Grand Rapids Chamber of Commerce, Darling said, who arranged the meeting at which the agreement had been made.

State investigators, Darling said, had issued "improper political releases to the press, television and radio" and made "improper inuendoes" concerning his company's part in the settlement.

BIRMINGHAM — Another delay is in the offing for the rezoning request of the Barton-Cummiskey property in the area immediately to the northeast of the Hunter-Oakland intersection.

Commissioners told interested residents they wished another conference with planners on April 10. The question will return to the Commission agenda on April 15.

On another rezoning request, former mayor John Martz spoke at length about the area on East Maple from Edenborough to Coolidge road.

In his opinion, the request for multiple family should be replaced by one for commercial or industrial. Hartz referred to the industrial use of Troy land in the immediate vicinity and said Birmingham should follow suit.

Commissioners, however, went along with the Plan Board recommendation and approved the change from single to multiple family use.

The Muttersbaugh request to rezone property on the east side of Floyd, a deadend street, from income bungalow to business A was granted.

Richard Adams, attorney for the city of Birmingham, recommended "denial without prejudice" on the request to vacate Island View Drive and received Commission support last night.

Adams based his recommendation on an old Michigan statute which forbids vacation of a highway adjoining a river or a lake, without Circuit Court approval.

Charles VanHorn, developer, asked the city to see "what can be done" to permit the development of his and his clients' holdings on north Woodward avenue, immediately west of the drive. The drive area has been considered in the development plan as parking space. VanHorn indicated no plans for any immediate Circuit Court appeal.

A request from the Birmingham Lions Club for the annual street sale of the White Canes May 4 has been approved. This year's program, instead of lapel pins, will be candy canes.

Proceeds of the sale will go to their program among girls and boys, defective vision, Leader Dog League, safety patrol capes and belts.

April 15 has been set for the public hearing date on Rachel E. Bunyon's request for the closing of an alley from Stanley street to Hanna street. Commissioners said they felt there would be little or no opposition.

The sale of a house on Parking Lot 4 to W. D. Willis for $1,065 has been approved. Willis said he wished to move the house to a Pontiac location. The house will be temporarily moved to another portion of the lot until after road weight restrictions are lifted.

News Flashes

BERKELEY, Calif. (INS) — Another large earthquake in a series which began in the Aleutian Islands on March 9, was recorded today at 3:58:22 a.m. (PST) on the University of California seismograph. Seismologist Don Tocher said the tremblor had a Richter magnitude of seven and was centered in the Aleutians 2,700 miles northwest of Berkeley. It lasted about two hours.

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen today postponed a strike scheduled for 6:30 a.m. tomorrow against the New York Central system and agreed to confer with a mediator over the dispute.

Brewster Claims Lapse of Memory

paid for Brewster's bill, and that "to the best of my recollection" the union cashed a $750 check to pay for the bills of Cavallero and the Eisens.

The hotel owner said $397 of the $750 was used to pay Cavallero's bill and that the remaining $353 was given in payment for the Eisens' accommodation.

Brewster identified the canceled $750 check signed by himself and Sweeney, but said he did not recall the incident.

McClellan asked: "was it for union business?"

Brewster replied: "I can't recall whether it was or not."

UNION ORGANIZER

He testified that Eisen, after serving three or four years as his private trainer went on the Teamsters payroll 8 to 11 months ago as an organizer.

Although Brewster could not specify where Eisen had organized any Teamsters local, he said the trainer had done a very good job. He said Eisen left the union about a month ago.

Other expenses allegedly charged to the union included:

1. A $46.00 round trip flight from Los Angeles to San Francisco for Eisen and his son, Bobby Eisen. The committee was uncertain which one made the flight, and Brewster did not recall.

2. A $55.22 flight from San Francisco to Los Angeles to Modesto, Calif., to San Francisco for Bobby Eisen.

3. A Seattle to Los Angeles and back round trip for Brewster and "B. Eisen" at a cost of $205.98 to the union.

4. A Los Angeles to Seattle trip for Cavallero at a cost of $71.01.

5. A $90.97 Seattle to Los Angeles flight for Dr. Alex Grinstein, private physician to Teamsters President Dave Beck.

Brewster said Grinstein was working on a plan to prevent doctors from overcharging the union. He explained that the organization's leaders felt physicians and surgeons were taking advantage of them.

In Seattle, teamster boss Dave Beck disclosed last night that he has paid more than $308,000 in federal income taxes from 1949 through 1956.

The labor leader said he was prompted to the disclosure by the presidential order opening Beck's tax returns to scrutiny by Senate labor racketeering probers.

Beck gave this report of federal income taxes paid (cents deleted): 1949, $25,402; 1950, $15,540; 1951, $18,692; 1952, $22,202; 1953, $30,055; 1954, $35,012; 1955, $70,532; 1956, $91,000.

Beck's salary as president of the International Teamsters Union is $50,000 a year. His expense account, not subject to income tax as income, is many thousands more.

The total of the taxes paid as given by Beck for the years 1949 through 1956 is $308,435. The figures were volunteered by Beck to newsmen.

Beck said that in addition to his income, he receives money from investments and from real estate transactions in which recently he has realized many capital gains.

He said he bought real estate, much of it in Seattle's Denny Regrade district where the Teamsters union maintains offices, at a time when he said the property was going begging.

HAD CONFIDENCE

He explained:

"Not many people had as much confidence in the future of Seattle as I had. I have since made as much as a thousand per cent profit on some of the property I bought in those depressed times."

Harvard Plans Tests of Chimp's Art Works

BALTIMORE (AP) — Interest in Betsy, the Baltimore Zoo's artistic chimpanzee, has spread to the learned halls of Harvard.

Dr. Henry A. Murray, professor of psychology at Harvard, said he is interested in comparing Bety's abstract art with that of children.

He asked zoo director Arthur R. Watson if the 7-year-old chimp is angry when she paints.

Not at all, said Watson. "Once in a while her mood seems to be 'let's get it over with.' But mostly she is very intrigued, not angry at all."

Says Widow Received 'Great Amount' of Drugs

Nurse Testifies in Dr. Adams' Trial

LONDON (INS) — Dr. John Bodkin Adams stepped briskly into London's Old Bailey today, bowed to the presiding judge, then sat with his arms folded and a large notebook in his lap as the second day of his trial for murder began.

Helen Stronach, a gray-haired nurse who tended 81-year-old Mrs. Edith Morrell before she died allegedly from overdoses of narcotics prescribed by Dr. Adams, took the witness stand to resume her testimony.

Dr. Adams listened with an air of confidence as the nurse described the rich old lady he is accused of murdering as being "neurotic."

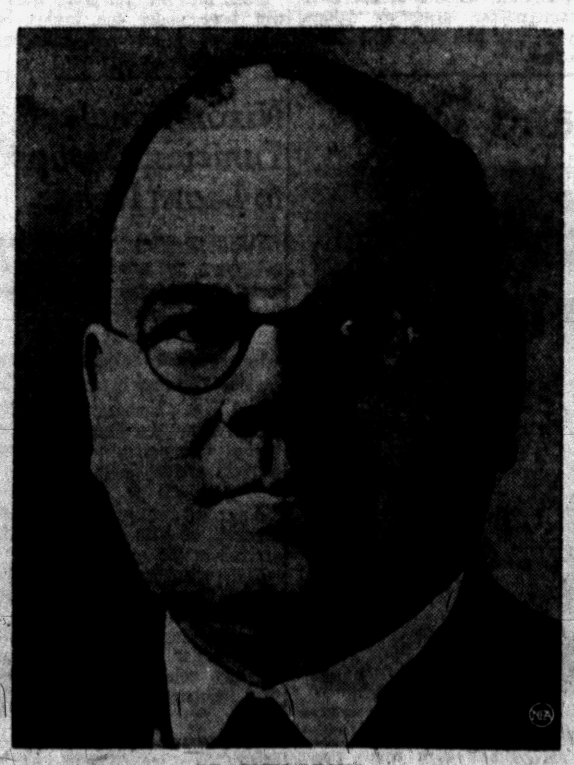

Nurse Stronach, cross examined by the defense, also testified the aged patient had attacks of great irritability which she attributed to "the great amount of drugs she had had."

"Yes," snapped back chief defense counsel Geoffrey Lawrence, "I thought you were going to say that."

The 58-year-old society doctor of Eastbourne leaned forward at times from his seat in the defendant's dock and sometimes scribbled in a large notebook he brought with him for the second day of the trial.

Mrs. Morrell's body was cremated and the ashes scattered over the English channel. Under her will, Adams received a chest of valuable antique silver. He also was given a Rolls-Royce by Mrs. Morrell's son in appreciation of the doctor's care for the old lady.

DR. JOHN ADAMS

The defense counsel asked Miss Stronach:

"So far as your observation of Mrs. Morrell went, did you ever see any signs she was suffering pain?"

"I cannot say I saw any real sign of pain," Miss Stronach replied, "But she had told me she was in pain and I considered it to be neurotic."

The nurse testified that Dr. Adams used to visit Mrs. Morrell about 11 o'clock every night and gave her an injection.

She testified the old lady's condition grew steadily duller and weaker in every way.

Lawrence later read extracts from the nurse's log book for several nights a few months before Mrs. Morrell died and snapped:

"You see, there again there is no injection given by you and no visit by the doctor in that evening."

Reading more entries he quipped:

"Again there is no record of any injection and again no record of a doctor's visit is there?

"No," replied the nurse. "It doesn't say he didn't call. It is no proof he didn't call that night."

Under further questioning, however, she admitted she had said the log contained "everything of importance."

Anyway you figure it...

Howell Bypass to Speed Traffic

Lansing - Pontiac Autos Will Use New Highway by Sept. 30

Pontiac-Lansing traffic will be speeded by road construction at Howell, scheduled for fall completion, Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler announced.

He said bids will be let April 1 for relocation of the present M59 route through Howell to U.S. 16.

Approximately 2.6 miles of new two-lane pavement north of the town will allow east-west traffic to bypass the city to the north, Ziegler said. It will extend the present M59 roadway west to U.S. 16.

★ ★ ★ ★

Ziegler announced construction of a railroad bridge in the relocation route is nearing completion and will be ready for traffic by Sept. 30, the time the new roadway should be available for use.

At present, M59 traffic is delayed and often snarled when funneled through Howell.

Ziegler also announced plans for completion by July, 1958, of 8.6 miles of divided dual highway on U. S. 16 between Portland and the M100 intersection north of Grand Ledge.

To Get 33 Interns

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—The city's three major hospitals, Butterworth, St. Mary's and Blodgett, will receive a total of 33 new interns in July, appointed from June medical school graduates under the National Intern Matching program.

Hollywood Gets Break on Taxes

Stars Can Incorporate Selves if They Comply With Provisions

WASHINGTON (AP)—The glamor colony of Hollywood and Broadway is getting a tax break from Uncle Sam.

The Internal Revenue Service has decided on a compromise of its dispute with the movie and television stars over whether they are entitled, under some circumstances, to pay taxes at the corporation rate instead of the steeply scaled individual income tax rate.

The decision, obscured in the legalisms of an IRS "technical information release," upsets a November decision which the stars protested would "ruin' them financially.

Most of the big names of show business are incorporated and contend these corporations should pay a 52 per cent tax rate instead of the individual rate which soars to 91 per cent.

The corporations sell the services of the stars—and their supporting staffs and casts—to the networks and movie studios.

The IRS ruling which alarmed them held that a corporation dominated by a single stockholder would be considered a "personal holding company.' As such its undistributed earnings would be taxable at penalty rates having a net impact even more severe than the individual income tax.

Under the new decision, the IRS said it will not consider the corporation a "personal holding company' unless 80 per cent or more of the income goes to the dominant stockholder.

In other words, if the rtar can show that the supporting staff and players get more than 20 per cent of the income, the punitive tax rates will not apply.

But IRS made certain that the star does not allocate himself a merely nominal salary to stay in compliance with the tax law while piling up earnings in the corporation.

Bob Considine Says:

Florida's Boom Recalls Giddy Era

PALM BEACH, Fla. (INS)—I am indebted (Ed. note: You can say that again, buster), all right, I am indebted to Leland Hawes of he Tampa Tribune for documenting what a visitor finds instantly apparent—that Florida is having its greatest boom since the Great Boom of 1925, which went "boom"

New York real estate tycoon Walter Shirley recently bought something like 22 miles, not feet, of beachfront along the ocean path between Palm Beach and Miami. If there is any more building on Miami Beach it will have to be on top of what was built before.

Even last year's hotel is crowded. Thousands who came to the state for a look-see are sending home for the furniture and dog.

New developments-to-be are taking shape, in some places on topsoil which covers the rotted pavement and ruptured sewers of gaudy dreams which descended into the muck when the bubble broke 30 years ago.

The re-emergence of the Florida real estate man as the social equal of the local pastor, and a cut above the carnival hustler, disturbs some of the Florida elders who remember the Pied Piper role he played in those dear, daft days before the Big Wind made off with what was left of the ghost towns.

Gov. Leroy Collins has sought to reassure them. The governor says the 1957 boom differs from the bad one in that, by and large, the property that is being bought today is kept by the owner and is not a speculation, engaged in for quick turnover and profit—as in the 1920s.

WONDERFUL ERA

A tame boom is good business, and makes sense, but it sure won't cause a re-enactment of the Wonderful Era of the Unbridled Gee-Whiz.

Mr. Hawes's diligent browsing through his fine paper's morgue recreates not only the F. Scottt Fitzgeraldish times but gives substance to such extinct Americans as the pomaded real estate man in his golfing plus-fours. In that atmosphere and climate, Arthur Brisbane wrote:

"It's utterly impossible to exaggerate the future of California and Florida. These states will draw as a magnet draws a tack those that have money enough to live where they please..."

"Florida! Florida! Florida!" exclaimed the Pensacola Journal, all but beside itself. "Everywhere you look, you see the magical word. In newspapers, North and South, in editorials, in advertisements."

The trains grew longer. People learned they could drive to this wonderland all the way from New York in four or five days—if they were darerevil enough.

Rex Beach, who had been in the Yukon, had much to remind him of those days as he wrote of the "land rush and underlying element of hysteria."

Davis Islands spewed up from the mud bottom of Hillsborough Bay on the west coast, off Tampa, a big gooey cake which stiffened and bloomed within its 11-mile sea-wall pan.

Prospects for its lots were rendered glassy-eyed by a heavy free-load at the Tampa Bay Hotel before the agents moved in like Waldorf waiters come to remove the soup plates.

People willingly bought water with the assurance that land would soon blanket it. Other developments, notably Coral Gables, sent beaters fanning out over half the U. S., driving people there (in buses) for the kill.

Now it is all sadly sensible and sound. Some Floridians even consider "boom" a bad word. They would prefer to think of what is happening as the natural fruit of Brisbane's old prophecy and forget what happened immediately in its wake.

Parents Organize Council for Handicapped Children

A Pontiac Council for Handicapped Children has been organized by parents and will hold its first meeting at 7:30 p.m. Friday at Mark Twain Elementary School.

Featured speaker will be William Wright, coordinator of special eduaction for the Pontiac Public Schools.

According to its charter, the group has three main purposes:

1. To educate parents to better help the children at home.
2. To better understand the Pontiac Special Education program.
3. To educate the public so that the handicapped may become self-sufficient.

The council was organized because parents of students in a special education class felt teaching conditions could be improved. They also discovered that many parents of afflicted children are unaware of what special education can do for their children.

According to Mrs. Lawrence Hansen, one of the founders, 3 per cent of the youngsters in Pontiac schools should receive some type of special education.

The council membership is open to the public.

without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon. A "thrifty" colon is one that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

TO REGAIN NORMAL REGULARITY two things are necessary. First, the dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE it and so, excite its muscles to action; to a normal urge to purge.

ONLY A BULK LAXATIVE can 1) re-moisten this dry, shrunken waste and 2) supply vital bulk to re-create a normal urge to purge. And, of all bulk laxatives, COLONAID, the amazing new lavative discovery is so effective that it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, yet is so smooth, so gentle it has been proved safe even for women in the most critical stages of pregnancy.

SUPERIOR TO OLD STYLE bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; does not interfere with your absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; and in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other side reactions.

IT'S A PHYSIOLOGICAL FACT: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Whether occasional, frequent or chronic, whatever your degree of constipation, get COLONAID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! The price, only 98c for the economical 60 tablet package, brings you positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

Old-Age Benefits Exceed Taxes Paid

By RAY HENRY
Associated Press Writer

Few people now drawing Social Security old-age benefits have paid into the system anywhere near what they're getting back in payments.

From Jan. 1, 1937 — the date Social Security payments started — until Jan. 1, 1957, the most anyone could have paid into Social Security is $837.

Yet, in eight months, a 65-year-old person who started drawing the maximum payments on Jan. 1, 1957 will have received back $868, at the rate of $108.50 a month.

An employer has to pay into the Social Security system — for each worker covered by it — a tax equal to that paid by the employe. So, if since Jan. 1, 1937, the employe tax was $837, the employer's tax was the same. Total: $1,674.

RECEIVE ALL TAX

Thus, a 65-year-old man who started drawing payments Jan. 1, 1957 will in 16 months receive back all the tax paid by him and his employer, and be $62 ahead.

With allowance made for differing circumstances, the same kind of example could be worked out for every person now receiving old-age payments. In almost very case, the total Social Security tax paid by the person and his employer has been or will shortly be recovered.

These facts, standing alone, may surprise you. And, you may wonder about the soundness of the Social Security system.

But, the Social Security people have an explanation:

ONLY TEMPORARY

The situation is only temporary and will be ironed out completely in another 30 years. By that time, the people reaching retirement age — and their employers — will have paid in amounts somewhat equal to what they can expect to receive in payments in their lifetime.

And, the Social Security people have made allowance in their financial calculations for the system to cover the "windfall" for persons now drawing payments.

They've done so by making employers and workers pay more tax than they would ordinarily have to pay if the "windfall" payments weren't being made. This also is only temporary and with stop after the system has been in operation a few more years.

Here's a rough example of how the Social Security system will eventually work, for which you can get an idea of the temporary nature of the present situation:

MAXIMUM TAX

Assume that a 25-year-old man paid his first Social Security tax Jan. 1, 1951, and that he paid the maximum tax. If he continues to pay the maximum tax, by the time he's reached 65 and retired, he'll have paid about $6,000 in tax and his employer will have paid the same — for a total of about $12,000.

This $12,000, plus the interest the government will collect on it, will be enough to pay him the maximum monthly Social Security payments until he reaches at least 76.

The alternative to making full payments to people now would be to pay them nothing or very low payments — thereby, basing the payments on what they've paid in tax. The result would be to postpone for many years a really effective retirement system.

And, without the full payment many millions of people would need other government help to take care of them in their old age. This would increase greatly the load of public assistance paid from general tax funds.

In any event, the gains in individual dignity and self-respect which result from the higher social security payments would not have been possible for many years.

Sinatra to Face Grand Jury

Quiz Concerns Raid on Wrong Apartment; DiMaggio Absent

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Frank Sinatra stars and assorted private eyes are in the supporting cast for today's presentation to the county grand jury of the case of the wrong-door apartment raid.

They would be the superstars because the case revolves around the raid the night of Nov. 5, 1954, when DiMaggio supposedly was looking for evidence against the movie star. But she was visiting a girl in an upstairs apartment and the raiders crashed the door of a downstairs apartment, to the consternation of the woman occupant.

DiMaggio wrote Dep. Dist. Atty. William L. Ritzi from New York that prior business commitments made it impossible for him to come to Los Angeles for the grand jury inquiry. Ritzi also sent an invitation to Miss Monroe in New York but said he hasn't heard from her.

Sinatra recently told a State Senate committee investigating private detective practices that he drove DiMaggio to the scene but sat in his car during the raid.

Private detective Phil W. Irwin testified that Sinatra, DiMaggio and other men entered the apartment. Dist. Atty. William B. McKesson later said that despite this conflict of testimony there was no corroborating evidence of perjury.

The grand jury summoned Sinatra, Irwin and 15 other witnesses in what Ritzi said is an investigation of whether there was felonious conspiracy to commit a misdemeanor, such as trespass or malicious mischief, in the raid circumstances.

Traverse City C. of C. Asks Employment Aid

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — The Chamber of Commerce has asked help from the Michigan Department of Economic Development for easing a growing labor supply and a decrease in industrial jobs.

Chamber Director Jack Zimmerman said the Parts Manufacturing Division of F. L. Jacobs Co., which had an average working staff of 600 persons, has been closed for several weeks without prospect of resumed operations.

Zimmerman said the Chamber group has asked the state office for aid in finding a successor to the parts firm.

Downtown Association Taking Fast Action

Pontiac's Greater Downtown Association have declared themselves emphatically in regard to a three point program which they set up as the immediate needs of all business in the center of the city.

These points are:

1—Authorization for the big, new highway west of Saginaw street with work started at the earliest possible moment.

2—Clearance of old and substandard stores on the west side of Saginaw street and their replacement with bright, new modern business establishments.

3—Better downtown parking.

There are many other things the merchants have in mind as an ultimate goal, but they have wisely listed these three as the most pressing and the most important. These will directly contribute towards better service for shoppers.

It's a very ambitious program.

Authorzation has been made for the employment of a full time expert or specialist to study in person and then come up with definite suggestions as to how this program can be worked out the most expeditiously and in the shortest space of time.

Several years ago, Pontiac cleaned out skid-row and eliminated the daily and nightly congregation of an undesirable element that made this its "downtown headquarters." This was a fine step in the right direction but the business institutions that had served as the background for the drifters did not change materially.

The merchants want a new set-up.

They want a major improvement.

In addition, a concerted campaign will get under way to improve existing stores in other locations. A lot of work can be done. Some need new fronts. Some need renovating on the inside with major operations indicated instead of lip-service and a few minor repairs plus another paint job.

Face lifting is definitely indicated.

This is a courageous undertaking. Public spirited men are determined to give the city the best. They plan to put their time and their money into the proposition. It's a major operation. In the meantime, everyone is anxiously awaiting the engagement of the individual entrusted with the problem of coming up with the right answers. A swift movement is on foot to underwrite his complete salary and expenses.

Pontiac means business.

Downtown is going to change—for the better.

Camp Fire Girls' Week

This 47th anniversary week will be memorable for every one of the 850 Pontiac Camp Fire Girls, their directors and leaders.

The celebration will be climaxed with a dinner at Lincoln Junior High School on Thursday night at which time the mortgage on their Gulick Lake camp property will be burned.

The camp site, 120 acres a half mile east of Clarkston, was selected in 1952 by the Camp Fire Committee of the Pontiac Civitan Club, sponsoring organization. By a pleasant coincidence the land chosen had been owned by a relative of Dr. Luther Halsey Gulick of Maine, founder of the Camp Fire Girls. The 30 acre lake on the property is appropriately named Gulick Lake.

A commendable achievement is the fact that the ten year purchase contract has been paid in full in half that time from funds accumulated through annual candy sales.

The Civitan Club is matching funds earned by Camp Fire Girls from these sales to build a resident camp at Gulick Lake. The trust fund for this purpose was set up in 1955 and now stands at $5,000.

Pontiac Camp Fire Girls, Inc. was organized in 1938. Over the years the group has carried out a splendid program. Its aim is to prepare members for the responsibilities of maturity and to emphasize the values of home and family life.

"There have been only 14 changes of administrations since Washington," asserts an editor. And all of them were changes for the worse—according to the political parties that were voted out of control.

The Man About Town

Former Pontiac Man, in Chicago, Writes About 1970

Mink coat: What some girls get by skinning a wolf.

Always impressed with letters from my old Pontiac friend,

Basil Nichols,

now in business in Chicago, he's convinced me that his prophetic remarks about that city's future are well founded. He's certain that the 1970 census will show it to be the largest city in the entire world.

He says New York City already is "all filled up," and the only way it can grow is further toward the sky, "and that doesn't accumulate any increased population."

He points out that Philadelphia and Detroit are stagnant, "being swallowed up by their suburbs," and that Los Angeles is getting its growth mostly by annexation. Most Europe and Asia cities are dormant.

South America has a few cities that promise to be in the multi-million class in 1970, but none can possibly threaten Chicago, which alone in the world has nothing to hinder its growth.

With the St. Lawrence Seaway, it became an ocean port, with the world's greatest mileage of water front. By 1970 this will approach 200 miles in four states: Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana and Michigan. There's nothing in the way to prevent its extension inland for 100 miles, or 200 if needed.

Its airport facilities already are handling a greater volume of passengers than those of New York or any other city on earth. It expects to count up at least 15 millions in the census of 13 years hence.

Very enthusiastic about Pontiac's progress is our Superintendent of Schools, who says he came here because he bad heard about it, and has since found that he had heard only a smattering of the good things.

We're inclined to agree with the manufacturing chemists when they claim they are making more history, or helping others to make it, than any other industry or profession. They tell me that April 8-12 is to be when we are to be made better acquainted with what they have done, are doing and already are prepared to do.

National Chemical Progress Week

David Lawrence Says:

Executives Needn't Stay in Capital

WASHINGTON — Is the Democratic Party trying to turn the clock back to the days of Harding, or even McKinley?

Questions like this are being asked not only because so many of the Democratic members of the Senate have been voting on the "isolationist" side of recent issues in American foreign policy but because the Democratic chairman of the House Judiciary Committee has just announced that he is introducing a bill to express the will of Congress that the president, the vice president and the secretary of state should not be "out of the country at the same time."

LAWRENCE

One is led to believe that the airplane, which can land alongside a cruiser at sea with mail and official papers, or the radio telephone or telegraphic communication from ship to shore have not yet been invented. It seems to be overlooked, too, that the President can be flown back to the mainland in a couple of hours.

One is led by the critics to think also that, when a president of the United States goes aboard a warship flying the American flag, he is not on American territory. That is what they used to say 40 and 50 years ago, in fact until the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt started the custom of moving overseas to Yalta and other places—even during World War II—aboard U.S. Navy cruisers. Mr. Roosevelt went to sea once aboard Vincent Astor's yacht—a private vessel—without arousing even Republican criticism.

NO CONNECTION

The fact that the secretary of state is out of the country hasn't a thing to do with presidential succession either. It used to be that the secretary of state was next in line after the vice president, but this was changed in 1947 by an act of Congress when the Republicans were in control.

It provides that the speaker of the House and then the president pro tempore of the Senate would become president in the event that anything happened to the president and vice president. Since both Speaker Rayburn and Senator Hayden are Democrats, it would mean the country would have a Democratic administration, so it would seem that this is something which should worry the Republicans, not the Democrats.

There is, of course, no function that the vice president—even if he were in the United States—can perform that the president is required by law to do or which the president could not do when he is on board an American warship or inside an American embassy abroad.

RECEIVES POWER

When the secretary of state, moreover, is out of Washington, the undersecretary of state becomes acting secretary of state and is empowered to handle all legal documents. No interruption to public business presents itself here.

It is not clear, therefore, what the purpose of the Democratic Party's spokesmen was in raising the issue of the absence of the president, vice president and secretary of state unless it was to cast some reflection on the conduct of their respective offices.

The president has been away from the White House, of course, only because of health reasons, and surely even the Democrats haven't strayed so far in the partisan battle as to continue to try to make an issue of the president's health. It cost them plenty of votes in the last election.

NIXON'S MISSION

As for Vice President Nixon, his mission to Africa to offset what the Communists are doing there was arranged by Mr. Eisenhower many weeks ago—long before the president found that his cough required sunshine and a sea trip to clear it up.

The president pro tempore of the Senate, of course, presides over sessions of that body in the absence of the vice president. Few vice presidents traveled more than the late Vice President Barkley. No criticism was voiced then.

The truth is that some members of the Democratic Party in Congress now are outdoing what Senator McCarthy of Wisconsin was accused of doing in "encroaching on the prerogatives of the executive branch of the government."

Although the president is charged with the duty of conducting foreign relations, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has appointed a special subcommittee whose main object seems to be to badger the secretary of state at the very time when a crisis is going on in the Middle East.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Think Before Authorizing Tonsil Operation for Child

"Out of 285 patients who had been subjected to tonsillectomy 228 had tonsil stumps or portions of tonsil left in the throat, reported Dr. C. B. Sputh Sr., and Dr. C. B. Sputh Jr.

BRADY

Commenting on this, the Journal of the American Medical Association said editorially:

"Instead of being relieved through tonsillectomy of their foci of infection, many patients continue to absorb bacteria and toxins from the tonsillar tissue left in the throat and are often sytemically much worse off than prior to their operation."

As I hope most readers know, it is my earnest belief that so-called tonsillectomy — the attempt to remove every bit of tonsil tissue — is too dangerous to inflict on any one, least of all a child. It is barbaric as was the 19th century practice of cauterizing dog bites.

The comparatively safe alternative treatment for tonsil enlargement (hypertrophy) which obstructs breathing or impairs the child's hearing is tonsillotomy — instantaneously "clipping" or slicing off the obstructing portion of tonsil.

OFTEN NOT NEEDED

As a British authority, Dr. J. Alison Glover, said in "Proceedings of the Royal Society of Medicine," tonsillectomy in school children is too often performed without adequate cause or sufficient regard to the possibility of enlargment being temporary or due to physiological or immunological causes.

One physician examined a number of school children in Addison, N. Y., and recommended removal of their enlarged tonsils. After the summer vacation, the doctor again examined the same children. Although none had been operated on, he was astonished to find that their tonsils were normal.

This is the reason why I urge parents to take plenty of time to think it over — after summer vacation, if the children get a break, the "bad" tonsils will very likely be normal. Too many victims are subjected to these dangerous and unjustified operations as it is.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

LI'L ONES

"No, that will NOT pass for a bath tonight!"

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Crane Discusses Blood Pressure

Colonel Harry shows the extreme degree to which our fears and tension can zoom our blood pressure. But hardening of the heart is socially a worse evil than hardening of the arteries. So try the method outlined below by which you can increase your friends and thus lower your blood pressure. Psychology often can excel drug therapy!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case U-332: Colonel Harry was a reserve Army officer who wanted to get back into active duty during the last war.

So he went through the usual medical examination. The Army doctor pursed his lips meditatively and advised the Colonel to some back in a week for a re-check.

For the Colonel's systolic blood pressure was 219.

"Dr. Crane, I was nervous and excited," he explained to me afterwards, "for I have had a complex about doctors in military uniform.

"It isn't a physician that I dread, for when I am examined by a civilian doctor, I am O. K. It's just a doctor in military uniform.

"And to show what I mean, I might tell you I was examined by a civilian doctor a few days prior to the episode mentioned above. This medic caught my blood pressure at only 135, which I think is about my normal rating.

CRANE

"Well, during the next week after the Army doctor told me my blood pressure was 219, I consulted two other civilian medics. One of these read my blood pressure at 136 and the other at 138, so you can see I am probably 135 when normally relaxed.

"But the following week when I returned for the Army re-check, the doctor there said my blood pressure was 223."

PRESSURE FLUCTUATES

This true case simply shows to what extreme degrees a person's blood pressure can fluctuate just on an emotional basis alone.

This Colonel was correct in saying his true blood pressure was probably about 135. So, the additional 88 points are due to emotional factors or fear.

Now you must not think that all high blood pressure is emotional, for some people may be sleeping and quite relaxed, yet show a blood pressure of 275 or even higher.

Think what such a fear or other emotional excitement might then do to them! If their pressure shot up an extra 50 points, it would then reach 325 or higher, so a blood vessel might blow out in the brain, causing a stroke.

HARDENING OF HEART

You have five to six quarts of blood. The heart must circulate this amount in much less than a minute.

But if your pipes (arteries) are thickened by tobacco or other poisons, how can your heart send the same amount of blood through those smaller pipes in the same amount of time?

It can only do so by raising the pressure, which is why hardening of the arteries automatically raises blood pressure.

But hardening of the heart, as in the case of a Scrooge or selfish person, likewise harms your health, for then you miss the relaxing effect of friends and church inspiration.

Indeed, hardening of the heart may cause far more social damage than hardening of the arteries.

For when you get hardening of the arteries, you harm chiefly yourself. But hardening of your heart injures your family and the entire neighborhood.

But medicines don't affect your hard heart. You must experience a changed outlook to do that.

So listen to your clergy every Sabbath and then conduct a 30-day scientific test with my "Compliment Club" experiment.

Send for that "Compliment Club" booklet, enclosing a stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents, and see what a remarkable change it can produce all within 30 days.

It simply lets you put the Golden Rule into effective daily use. As your friends increase, your blood pressure will diminish.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

On March 6 a young girl was struck and killed by a car on M-59. When I arrived, no police were on the scene, but bystanders took over traffic control and covered her with a blanket. It took the police officer over 10 minutes to arrive from less than a quarter of a mile away, with another arriving shortly after from some distance farther. Neither attempted to use first aid.

It took an ambulance 20 minutes to come from Pontiac, when one in Drayton could have been called. The girl died in the hospital shortly after.

Why did it take the police so long to arrive? Weren't they notified? Why was a Pontiac ambulance called? Why did it take so long after the call? Answers from those concerned would be appreciated.

Hampton called particular attention to a panel on Michigan land title standards. It will be conducted by Ralph Jossman and Ray L. Potter of Detroit, and Daniel Petermann of Royal Oak.

Other speakers include Paul R. Trigg Jr. of Detroit and Clifford A. Mitts of Grand Rapids.

Hypnosis Old as Man, New as Wonder Drug

By JOSEPH R. MARSHALL
INS Staff Writer

Hypnosis is as old as man and medicine.

Now it has become as new, although not quite as sensational, as the wonder drugs and vaccines.

An estimated minimum of four to five thousands dentists and three to four thousand physicians are using it in the U.S., other thousands in Great Britain, the Soviet Union, Canada, throughout Europe and South America.

But U.S. medical men are disturbed that this country is the only major nation besides Canada and Australia permitting unlicensed use of hypnosis by stage practitioners and even by quacks.

Many of the medical men have been taught by the five practicing doctors and dentists who make up "seminars on hypnosis." Individually the five have been lecturing, teaching and writing on hypnosis since the 1930s. As a group they have held seminars for the last few years.

They are psychiatrist Milton H. Erickson of Phoenix, Ariz., Obstetrician and Gynecologist William S. Kroger of Chicago, E.E. Aston, D.D.S. of West New York, N.J., and Seymour Hershman, M.D., and Irving D. Secter, D.D.S., both of Chicago.

These five men admit that hypnosis cannot yet be adequately defined, only described. In primitive days it was induced with drums, dancing and chants. It was used by priests of ancient Oriental and Greek cultures. It was the "temple sleep" of the Egyptians.

But the modern history of hypnotism has been a strange story of sensational claims—backed by a lack of understanding and a lack of scientific approach—and discredit.

Now medical hypnosis is becoming commonplace, not as a panacea or a sensational substitute for chemical anesthesia, normal psychiatry or psychology, but as another simple, straight-forward medical tool.

The British Medical Association has recommended courses in it be taught medical undergraduates. The American Medical Association is expected to follow suit soon. The only major religion that formally frowns on the use of hypnosis as Christian Science.

BUT WHAT IS IT?

Some theories are: A form of sleep, a conditioned reflex, a re-establishment of a child-parent type relationship, a disassociation of conscious and subconscious, and the vestige of ancient man-animal's ability to assume the cataleptic state in time of danger.

Possible animal parallels include the bear in hiberation, the deer frozen by fear in the woods, the flute player hypnotizing the deaf snake and the snake, in turn, rocking to hypnotize its prey.

All right, but can I be hypnotized?"

"That," the doctor replies, "is like asking if you can lose yourself in a good book. Given the right motivation and the right approach, every normal person can undergo hypnosis, the more intelligent the person, the better."

The lady nodded, blushed slightly, and asked with a smile: "What about my doing things I wouldn't do normally."

"That's a good question.

"The first thing to realize about hypnosis is that you can hypnotize yourself, but no one can hypnotize you if you really don't want to be hypnotized, subconsciously.

"We believe you will never do in the hypnotic state anything you would never do in the non-hypnotic state. But we find all kinds of human misbehavior and human mental sickness in the non-hypnotic state. That is one reason we believe use of hypnosis, which deals with the mind whether it is sick or well, should be limited by law to those properly qualified.

"Hypnosis is as safe as human beings are safe. Or as one doctor said, 'There is no danger in hypnosis—so long as we realize there is some danger in it.'"

Next: Dental hypnosis.

Area Breeders to Meet for Election of Officers

The Oakland County Holstein Breeders Assn. will hold its annual meeting and election of officers Thursday at the West Bloomfield Township Hall.

The group will convene at noon for a pot luck luncheon and all interested dairymen in the county are invited, according to Carlos Long, of Commerce Township, president.

Speakers will include George Parson, of Michigan State University, who will review progress in the eradication of Bang's Disease, and Russell Miller, field agent for the National Holstein Breeders Assn.

Carson City, Nev. is the smallest state capital in the U.S.

Sick People Fail to Get Service, Says Physician

CINCINNATI (AP) — Sick people frequently do not get all the treatment they could because neither they nor the doctors know about all of the community services available, a physician asserted.

"The problem is to get the right service to the people at the right time," said Dr. Vaido Getting, professor of public health practice, school of public health, University of Michigan. Dr. Getting is here for the meeting of the National Health Council, beginning today.

In an interview, he said doctor-patient relationship often does not reach far enough.

The "team approach," he declared, gives the patient the benefit of bedside nursing from a visiting nurses' association; a physical therapist to teach the reuse of limbs numbed by fracture; a speech therapist if the victim of cerebral hemorrhage has suffered loss of speech.

Use of such services holds down expensive hospitalization, Dr. Getting said.

Health experts from all parts of the nation and Canada will participate in the council meetings this week.

Organic Clubs Parley Sunday

State Federation Slates Dr. Pfeiffer, Author for Day-Long Event

The annual meeting of the Federated Organic Clubs of Michigan will be Sunday, in Delhi Township Hall at Holly, beginning in the morning.

Following reports of various committees and election of officers, there will be a potluck dinner.

At 2 p.m. Dr. Ehrenfried Pfeiffer, of New York, world renowned biologist and writer, will address the group.

About 20 years ago, Dr. Pfeiffer began to develop his "Sensitive Crystallization Method," a test using small amounts of human capillary blood for the early diagnosis of disease. Dr. Pfeiffer reported on his findings to the Third International Cancer Congress, September 1939, at Atlantic City, N.J. He received an honorary M.D. for his medical research.

He has published several books on bio-dynamic farming and gardening and conservation problems. Two recent books, "Soil Fertility, Its Renewal and Preservation" and "The Earth's Face and Human Destiny," published in London, have been especially well received by the English authorities and the English press. The American edition of the second book has since been brought out by the Rodale Press, Emmanus, Pennsylvania. He is also a regular contributor to the magazines: The Organic Farmer, Organic Gardening, and Bio-Dynamics. Dr. Pfeiffer's main approach to all problems of life and human inter-relationships is an organic one. His basic point of view is one which integrates science and practice in order to secure the health of soil, plants, and finally of the human beings who eat these plants.

Weeping Crowds Meet White Plane, Follow Bier

Body of Magsaysay Returned to Manila

MANILA (AP)—The charred body of Ramon Magsaysay, third president of the Philippine Republic, returned to this grieving capital today.

The flag-draped coffin of the popular 49-year-old chief executive, who crashed to his death with 25 others on a Cebu Island mountainside early Sunday, was flown here in the presidential plane Pagasa.

Weeping crowds followed the bier as it was driven slowly through the sun-baked streets to Malacanan Palace. It will lie in state there for three days until the funeral Friday.

Nearly half a million persons swarmed around the palace.

As the nation mourned, a six-man investigating team dug into the likely causes of the fatal plane crash — including the possibility of sabotage.

Less emphasis was being placed on the sabotage angle than others because of the close security precautions that always accompanied the President, one of Asia's most determined foes of communism. But Col. Pedro Q. Moline, acting air force chief, said sabotage could not be ruled out.

Air force officials listed three other possible causes—pilot error, engine trouble and air pockets.

Mustangs of the Philippine air force shepherded the white presidential funeral plane as it neared the capital.

Cries of grief welled up from a throng of some 50,000 when the plane landed. The crowd surged towards the craft as a 21-gun salute thundered over the field.

Carols P. Garcia, Magsaysay's vice president who was sworn in waiting officials and diplomats.

Arriving at Malacanan, the coffin was borne by khaki-clad soldiers into the great lobby. The beautiful widow, Mrs. Luz Banzon Magsaysay, who last saw her husband alive Saturday, met the sealed coffin at the entrance to the maroon and gray ceremonial hall.

Weeping softly, she and her three children followed the bier to the center of the room, where it was installed in state before an altar.

Ageless Amos, Andy Begin 30th Year of Broadcasting

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Amos 'n' Andy — the two fellows Marconi may have heard when he first tinkered with radio — today began their 30th years of continuous broadcasting.

And, they are happy to say, never without a sponsor — and never with an off-color line.

The nation first heard of Amos (Freeman Gosden) and Andy (Charles Correll) on station WMAQ, Chicago, back in the days of the crystal set.

Actually, they had broadcast as early as 1920—a fact that gave rise to the Marconi gag. But then they were known as Sam 'n' Henry, a name by which they gained early prominence over WGN, Chicago.

The WGN contract forbade them to use "Sam 'n' Henry" on another station—and that's how "Amos 'n' Andy' were born.

Probably no other entertainers in history ever achieved the popularity the two did during their heyday in the 30s. On a warm summer evening, it was possible to take a 15-minute walk and never miss a word of their program. It seemed as if it blared out of every open window.

Once the script had Amos about to become a father. The two wrangled about a name but could not agree. They decided to ask the listeners and an ever-present advertising man suggested that the name should be written on a box-top from their sponsors toothpaste.

Gosden fumed:

"We'll never get a name that way. Who wants to go to all that trouble?"

They got 2½ million baby names plus boxtops, a feat which advertising men claim is still the record.

Their current stint is on radio five nights a week and has added recorded music. Somehow over the years, the Kingfish has outshone Amos. But that's all right. It's the same voice.

The radio show is taped, giving them time for lots of travel. Correll is 67 and Gosden is 58. They own the television series but hire Negro actors to portray their characters.

Massachusetts Eyes Extradition of Pair

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Massachusetts authorities made plain today they will extradite the foster parents of Hildy McCoy if Florida will give them up.

Dist. Atty. Myron Lane of Norfolk County, Mass., said "rendition" papers for the return of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin B. Ellis probably would go to Gov. Foster Furcolo tomorrow. A spokesman for the Massachusetts governor said Furcolo would sign them.

Kidnap charges are outstanding against the Ellises, who fled Massachusetts in 1955 to avoid complying with court orders to surrender their 6-year-old adopted child. The Ellises are Jewish. Hildy's mother, Mrs. Marjorie McCoy Doherty of Hingham, Mass., who demands her return, is Roman Catholic. Massachusetts law provides for placement of children with foster parents of the same religious faith when practicable.

Papa Goes All Out for Cleanliness and Sweet Scents

Hey, Mama, Lock Up Your Perfume!

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—You, lucky women of America, are possessed of the cleanest and sweetest-smelling men in history.

They may be rude, greedy, unfaithful, selfish and nuisances under foot. But you can't fight statistics: They take more baths, wear more deodorants and waft more delicious aromas from their after-shaved jowls than any males any time, anywhere.

"And the better smell has just begun," said Steve Mayham, authoritatively. "Chanel and Lanvin are coming out with new men's scents that bear an amazing similarity to 'Number Five' and 'Arpege.'

Perfumed deodorants have doubled, from $35,000,000 to $70 million, in the last five years. After-shave lotions are getting finer and more appreciated.

"This may sound like heresy to women, but men like to smell nice, and I mean real nice—not like a bloody pine tree."

Mr. Mayham, a rugged man who enjoys a "fine, complex odor like Chanel No. 5" himself, is the executive VP of the Toilet Goods Association which for years has studied men's toiletry habits to help and inspire America's 2,500 manufacturers of the accoutrements for male vanity.

GOOD SCENTS-ES

He believes that World War II brought men back to their good scents-es after a half-century of rough, tough grooming neglect, and that we are heading gradually toward an era when men will wear costly, long-lasting perfumes as proudly and unblushingly as women do now.

"During the war, men—who had gotten pretty sloppy, thinking it was the manly thing to do—had to clean themselves up to please the officers," Mayham said. "Suddenly they didn't smell so bad, and they realized it was a pretty nice thing to do."

Aromatic males are nothing new. Louis XIV used to douse himself in gallons of perfumes a year, and Napoleon used 54 bottles of cologne per month.

George Washington is said to have scented himself like a breath of spring, and "Alexander Hamilton, Aaron Burr and that crowd—well, they were more aromatic than a funeral."

The reason it can be said today's American men are the cleanest and best-smelling in history is that "they are not only well-scented but bathed. The other boys used to use perfume to tide them over the last days before the weekly bath.

"Now men have the great facility of using water to clean themselves, and are, in spite of their cleansed condition, using colognes and scented deodorants in record quantities."

GREAT LENGTHS

To encourage men to increase their use of toiletries, and make an even bigger bonanza of this reeking renaissance, the perfume makers are going to great lengths.

Helena Rubinstein puts out men's colognes in cocktail shakers, and advertises a "heathery, ferny smell"—all of which is designed to appeal to the outdoorsy whisky-drinking type.

Helene Curtis makes "leathery tobacco scents," and J. B. Williams promises "crisp aromas with undertones of fern, pine, leather and amber."

According to Mayham, however, all this virile come-on is unnecessary.

"It's a popular fallacy," he says, "that men want to smell like old pipe cleaners or musty leather boots."

After all, since women wear perfumes to please men, it figures that a good scent pleases a guy. Why shoulld he continue to sniff vicariously, when so eeasily he can become mighty like a rose on his own?

Flint Milk Cost Drops

Pat Boone Fears Folks Will Think He's Too Nice

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Pat Boone is worried.

The 22-year-old singing sensation is afraid folks will think he's a goodie-goodie.

"I can feel it sometimes in things like a magazine layout that ran a popularity contest between Elvis Presley and me," he remarked. "There would be comments like 'I don't like Pat Boone because he's so wishy-washy.'

"That's the sort of thing I want to fight. I realize it's because I don't drink or smoke or cuss. But I don't think I have to start drinkin' and smokin' and cussin' just to prove that I am a regular guy."

Pat added that some of his overzealous fans even urged him not to come to Hollywood and "be corrupted by the sinful people out there."

"That's silly," Pat remarked. "If I could be corrupted, it could happen anywhere. And from what I've seen of Hollywood, it's got some pretty fine people."

It's only natural that Pat would be put up as the symbol of purity against the racier buildup for Elvis. As a matter of fact, Elvis neither smokes, drinks or cusses and comes from God-fearing Tennessee stock. But his extravagant tastes and hip-swinging contortions have brought censure.

Pat himself once mulled a future as a preacher. Despite the gentler nature of his buildup, he appears to be creating just as loyal a following as Elvis' and perhaps a more permanent one. Twentieth Century-Fox seems to think so. The studio has signed the lad for a picture yearly for the next five years. His first is "Bernadine."

Pat is married to the daughter of entertainer Red Foley and they have three daughters.

She Looks More Youthful, More Alive

Exercise Tones Up Woman of 50

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

We can almost always spot the middle-aged woman who has retained the habit of daily exercise. She looks more youthful, more alive and more vivacious than her inactive sister.

The important thing is not how old you are but how happy you are, how much fun you are getting out of living, how well you are!

I think the middle-aged woman of today is the most attractive in history. She knows about nutrition, posture, figure control, chic dress, hair styling and makeup.

For a couple of days I am writing to the woman of 50 or thereabouts. Mid life should provide truly adventurous living. There is less pressure, and more time to branch out into new activities.

The woman of 50 who has lived with perception will be tolerant and understanding. Her interests will be broader than her hips, and she probably will have a delightful sense of humor. She should be an artist in living and in love.

Many women make the mistake of dropping the habit of exercise long before they reach the age of 50. In the hustle of rearing a family or carving out a career or both, they give up sports and do not replace them with any other form of exercises.

SPECIAL MAGIC

There is healing power in the great outdoors and also there seems to be some special magic in using our large muscle groups regularly and strenuously. We can almost always spot the middle-aged woman who has retained the habit of daily exercise.

She looks more youthful, more alive and more vivacious than her inactive sister. Her tissues are firmer. She is not a problem to herself or to anyone else.

It would be dangerous to begin exercise at 40 or 50 without first having your heart and blood pressure checked. In fact, a complete physical examination is best.

However, many doctors feel that exercise is extremely beneficial for the older woman if she begins slowly and builds up gradually. Of course we know how wonderful it is so far as weight distribution is concerned!

If you would like to have my leaflet No. 33 "Woman of 50," or leaflet No. 32 "Menopause," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for them to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Value Yourself at the Right Price

By ANNE HEYWOOD

As the old saying goes, we determine our own worth and the world "buys" us at the price tag we put on ourselves.

This is particularly true vocationally. The potential employer is going to judge you by what you think of yourself and your experience, and nowhere is this more evident than in the case of the housewife.

When a woman has spent years at home, raising a family, and then tries to return to business, the whole venture will be determined by the way she herself values those years.

If she feels, as she too often does, "I'm just a housewife — I never worked," that's how the employer is going to feel.

But if she feels that the years at home contributed something to her development as a human being, the employer will think so, too.

BEAUTIFULLY HANDLED

Let's take, for example, one woman who handled it beautifully.

Her name is Mrs. G. and she is in her mid-40s.

Many years ago, Mrs. G. was a stenographer in a business office. Then she married and for the next few years was busy raising her children.

During that time, with a major effort of will, she continued to keep up her typing, but her skill in shorthand soon vanished.

Also, during her years at home, Mrs. G. became a wonderful cook. She was smart enough to make cooking her specialty. When the church asked her to do volunteer work, she prepared food for church suppers or baked cakes for the church fair.

She read a good deal about food and menus in her papers, magazines and, of course, endless cookbooks.

LIST OF COMPANIES

When Mrs. G. decided to get a job, after her children were grown, she made a list of the food companies in her city. Then she went to them and applied for a job as typist.

In giving her experience, she listed first her job as a stenographer before her marriage, then as a homemaker.

She emphasized her success in preparing food, not only for the family but as part of her volunteer work. She also stressed the fact that she was a fast and accurate typist.

The third firm she went to hired her. And no wonder! It was probably so refreshing to have a woman dignify her home experience that they were delighted to hire her.

ANCIENT ROME

2. A Roman Senator

The ancient Romans were very good at governing and law-making. The Roman Senate was a model for later nations and some of its forms exist today in the United States Congress and in the British Parliament.

Roman law is the basis even today for many laws throughout the world.

Here is a Roman senator reading to his daughter from a parchment roll. Books were copied on such rolls and educated Romans had large libraries of them.

As shown here, the national costume of the Roman man was the toga, which was a long blanket-like garment worn over a plain undergarment. It was draped in various ways. The most popular was to wrap it around the waist and bring it over the shoulder, as here. Often, a loose fold of the garment was brought up over the head.

Paste this picture on cardboard and color with crayons. Cut out carefully. Fold it carefully on the dotted line and the senator and his daughter will face each other on the terrace of their villa. On the wall behind them is a mosaic, which consists of small pieces of colored stones set in patterns in a plaster base. A country home is in the background.

Plans His 25th Solo Crossing of North Atlantic

WASHINGTON (AP)—Max Conrad, king of the small-plane pilots, said today he will attempt his 25th light-plant solo crossing of the North Atlantic next weekend.

At the same time the 54-year-old Conrad disclosed plans to fly a World War II P38 fighter to Spain, and afterward to attempt the first light-plane flight from San Francisco to Hawaii.

Conrad, who has flown more small planes across greater reaches of open water than any other man, said he is calling his forthcoming flight to Paris "my silver anniversary trip."

"On the first four or five flights things went wrong and I had troubles," Conrad said. His first was in September 1950.

"Since then I have given each new plane a 20-hour shakedown in the U.S. before setting out, and have had no difficulty."

Mrs. Orser Directs Students at Crossing

She Guards 200 Children Daily

The job involves working outdoors in all weather, four shifts per day, 15 hours per week plus being responsible for the lives of more than 200 children each day.

This is the five-day-a-week job of Mrs. Josephine Orser, one of four women and 23 men who guard Pontiac children when crossing main streets en route to and from school.

Sounds like a pretty tough assignment especially when one is the mother of two children. Most of the other guards are retired.

Mrs. Orser happily reports she never missed a shift or a day since her first day three years ago when she was hired by Jay Cecil Cox, assistant superintendent of Pontiac Schools.

RANG DOORBELLS

"I remember it was on a Saturday morning. I guess Mr. Cox had been walking up and down the streets in the area of Webster School, ringing doorbells and asking residents if they would like to be a traffic guard," she explained.

After talking it over with her husband Harvey and sons Bryan and David, now 15 and 11 years old respectively, she decided to try out the job the following Monday. The Orser home, 123 Mark Ave., is about a five minute walk from the Webster Elementary School, 640 W. Huron St., where she helps children cross the street.

Mrs. Orser says her job is a pleasure physically, emotionally and mentally.

"When children, such as mine, are old enough not to need constant care, I think mothers need something to take the place of this. Yet, I don't believe it would be fair to my family if I worked eight hours daily. Then, I might tend to neglect them," she said.

WASHED BLINDS

"I used to think the world would come to an end if I didn't wash my venetian blinds on Thursday. Before I started to work, I had a tight schedule for all types of housekeeping.

"Now, between shifts, I usually go home and wash, iron or do some type of cleaning which needs to be done first."

She guards the children 8:30 to to 9:10 a.m.; 11:30 a.m. to 12:10 p.m.; 12:30 to 1:10 p.m. and 3:10 to 3:40 p.m. daily.

The 6:30 a.m. news broadcast gives Mrs. Orser tips on what type of garb she will wear. Mittens, slacks and boots are essential items which have been added to her wardrobe during the past three years.

Standard equipment with this job is an official Pontiac Police Department hat, badge, handled stop sign, whistle (to be used in emergencies) and a friendly smile for each child.

Alertness is the keynote of this job according to Mrs. Orser. Proper dress for all kinds of weather plus comfort is a main factor in staying alert, she added.

Mrs. Orser also finds time to be a Grey Lady at Pontiac General Hospital and sing in the Central Methodist Church Choir.

Reuther Invites Senate Probe

Says Officers of UAW Ready to Testify, Won't Invoke 5th Amendment

DETROIT (AP) — Walter P. Reuther today offered the "fullest cooperation" of his United Auto Workers in any investigation that Senate labor investigators desire to make of the union.

In a letter to Chairman McClellan of the Senate Investigating Committee, Reuther said:

"Any or all of our officers will appear before the committee voluntarily and answer all questions as fully as their knowledge permits. None of them will invoke the Fifth Amendment."

Reuther wrote McClellan that his letter was prompted by a statement from Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) calling for an investigation of the UAW. The UAW president said, "The name of the junior senator from Wisconsin has become a world-wide symbol of political immorality, and we are therefore reluctant to dignify his most recent reckless headline-seeking adventure with a formal reply."

Reuther said, "The courageous, determined, difficult and successful struggle waged by the UAW to rid itself of Communist influences and to keep itself free of any racketeering and corrupt elements is a matter of public record. We in the UAW are justifiably proud of our record, and we are determined to keep our union clean of both crooks and Communists."

Summerfield Calls Charge Lie

Says Pearson Column Rehash of Earlier Tale; Denies All Counts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postmaster General Summerfield yesterday denied "without any reservations" a charge that he had congressional investigation of James R. Hoffa called off for political reasons three years ago.

Hoffa is a Teamsters Union Vice President charged with bribing a staff member of the Senate racket investigating committee.

"This vicious lie by Pearson is a rehash of a similar fantastic charge he made in 1954," Summerfield said in a formal statement.

He added:

"I categorically deny without any reservations whatsoever the statements made about me by Drew Pearson in 'The Washington Merry - Go - Round' column published in the March 18th edition of the Washington Post and Times Herald.

"I do not know James Hoffa, and I have never had any dealings with him or concerning him. I had nothing whatsoever to do with the probe of Hoffa and the Teamsters three years ago, as Pearson alleges."

Summerfield, who has been Postmaster General since Jan. 21, 1953, made public the text of letters received by him and his aides in early 1954 from three Republican congressmen named by Pearson in connection with his allegation that the 1953 Hoffa investigation had been called off on directions from Summerfield. All denied the charge.

$75,000 Refunded to State Buyers for Overcharges

LANSING (AP) — Three companies that collected excessive charges on required collision insurance have refunded an estimated $75,000 to Michigan car buyers, a state official estimated today.

John W. Wickstrom, chief deputy insurance commissioner, said most of the refunds were made in the first half of 1956:

In the case of two of the companies, he reported, they averaged about $10 apiece.

Wickstrom was asked about testimony before a U.S. Senate subcommittee yesterday by Kenneth Barnard of Chicago, who led a special inquiry by the Assn. of Better Business Bureaus.

Barnard said overcharges amounting to an estimated 25 million dollars nationally had been made through "connivance" among certain auto dealers, certain finance companies and their insurance affiliates.

Highway patrolmen said a passenger in his car, Leo H. Yuik, 67, of Detroit, was in critical condition at Newhall Community Hospital.

Driver of the truck was released. He was not injured.

Windsor Will Extend Peche Island for Homes

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP)—Plans have been announced for a new $5,000,000 residential development to be created by the construction of a second island linking with Peche Island in the Detroit River.

R. C. Pruefer, President of the Peche Island Ltd., said the man-made island will be 3,800 feet in length and 1,000 feet at its widest point.

The new island will extend the northwestern limits of Peche Island to within 10 feet of the international boundary.

Reverses Down Trend of Past Months

State Traffic Deaths Rise

LANSING (AP)—After an encouraging start during January and February, Michigan's traffic fatality toll has started to climb, State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs reported today.

Sixty-nine traffic deaths were reported in the State from March 1-17, the same number as last year, Childs said. But, he added, delayed reports will increase the figure.

"The figures for March have reversed a downward trend that had continued without interruption since last April with the exception of September," Childs said.

A total of 214 persons met death in traffic last January and February, 88 less than the state fatality roll in the first two months of 1956.

"Of concern is that the higher death months are ahead of us," Childs said. "March has always had the second lowest death toll of any month and we hope present figures do not indicate what is going to happen once summer traffic gets into full swing."

It seems his fine pitching performances in a pair of three inning stints has caught the attention of Tiger fans.

Lee is a 6-4, 210 pound son of former Major Leaguer Thornton Lee. As a prep hurler he posted a 21-3 record, and at the University of Arizona he had a 36-6 mark.

When Tiger scout Marv Owen signed him in Phoenix, Lee strangely passed up several bonuses, to accept the Detroit contract.

One offer was believed to have gone as high as $75,000. Why had he turned down the bonus offers? Lee gave three reasons.

He said in Lakeland that he wanted to be with Detroit and its organization. He also wanted a couple seasons in the minors to "groom" himself for the Majors.

The other reason is one which could hardly be called typical of youngsters who have a bundle of green bills waved in their faces to turn pro today.

"I did not want to sit on some team's bench for three years without being farmed out because of restrictions," he said. "I would rather pitch anywhere than sit on the bench."

It takes a lot of courage for a young prospect to turn down a big bonus like Lee did in favor of working his way up the ladder.

In his six innings on the mound thus far in spring training against the Red Sox and the Yankees, he has faced only 20 batters, allowing but one hit and a walk.

When Lee made Jim Piersall, the first opposing Major League batter he had faced, his first strikeout victim he did it with good fast ball and a nice curve which also had four other Red Sox batters fooled.

"He's a year or two away yet," said Tiger Manager Jack Tighe, "but he just can't miss. He'll be great."

Oddly, Lee himself said he is hoping the Tigers would send him to Charleston. He had a 7-3 record with Augusta last year, and he feels he would like to polish up his arm in the Triple-A circuit.

"He's got fine poise and is a smart lad," said Tiger pitching coach Willis Hudlin in Lakeland.

Lee gives his famous father, one time White Sox great, credit for his baseball knowledge. "Dad put a baseball in my hand when I was five," he said, "and at that age I even threw my first ball in a Major League park, at Comiskey Park in a warmup session."

"He was determined to make a pitcher out of me," said Lee, "but I had my own way on one thing—I throw from the right side."

Lineup Juggled, Tigers Still Lose, 8-1

Seven Unearned Runs Lead to Dodger Victory

Lee Gets No Support as Bengals Commit 4 Errors Early

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Manager Jack Tighe juggled his Detroit Tiger lineup in an effort to find a winning combination last night but the result was the same old story —a loss.

The Tigers, bobbling the ball four times in the first two innings, dropped an 8-1 decision to the Brooklyn Dodgers in an exhibition game here.

Seven of the Dodgers' runs were unearned in the Tigers' 7th loss in nine exhibition games.

Don Lee, the hard-throwing rookie highthander with two sensational performances behind him this spring, finally succumbed to the erring spirit of his teammates as the Dodgers got their seven unearned runs in the first two innings.

The Tigers outhit the Dodgers 7-6 but the damage was done before they got a chance to get started.

Tighe's change in the batting order sent shortstop Harvey Kuenn from the leadoff slot to the third position and put speedy Jim Small, a bonus outfielder, at the top of the lineup.

Tighe said he was trying to inject more punch into the batting power of the Tigers, who led the American League in hitting last year but have had trouble getting in their licks this spring.

After Brooklyn stormed to a 7-0 lead in the first two innings the Tigers got their lone run on a set of Dodger miscues in the 4th inning. Reno Bertoia singled and moved to third when Sal Maglie walked the next two men. He scored then on a passed ball.

The Dodgers' only earned run was scored in the 8th when Charley Neal walked, got to third on Jasper Spears' single and scored on a forceout.

Meets Kearsley at Birmingham

Walled Lake Has Title Target

By BILL CORNWELL

Walled Lake, Oakland County's last hope in the state high school basketball tournament, will be shooting at an elusive target Wednesday night.

With district and regional crowns under their belt, the Vikings open their bid for the Class B state title tomorrow night at 7:30 in the Birmingham High School gymnasium.

The occasion is the state quarter-final round and the opponent is Flint Kearsley.

Not since 1933 has an Oakland County quintet won a state title. The Eaglets of Orchard Lake St. Mary performed the feat that year in Class C.

Three county teams have taken serious cracks at the phantam goal since that time.

Rochester advanced to the Class B semifinals in 1950 before bowing to Grand Rapids Godwin Heights and giant Art Spoelstra, a 6-foot-9 all-stater who later starred at Western Kentucky.

In 1955 Troy went to the 'B' semis where the Colts lost to Buchanan. Pontiac reached the Class A quarter-finals last year before Detroit Catholic Central applied the stopper.

Now it's Walled Lake's turn to chase the coveted prize. Three huge steps still block the championship door and one stumble will close the door for another season.

The Vikings will have to climb those steps one at a time and tomorrow night's 1st step promises to be a difficult one.

They will clash with a rangy squad which owns an impressive 18-2 record. Kearsley won the Genesee County 'B' League crown with a spotless 10-0 mark and currently boasts a 17-game winning streak.

Kearsley's only losses came at the hands of Flushing and Lapeer early in the season. The Lapeer setback was avenged last week in the Flint regional.

Coached by Ed Stephon, the Hornets have demonstrated a balanced offense this year. Bud Earl, 6-foot-4 center, and guard Tom Phipps have been their chief threats.

The Hornets eliminated Flint Mandeville and Flint Bendle in district play and Lapeer and Flint Tech in the regional tourney on their way to the quarter-finals.

Bonnies, Memphis Collide in Thursday Semis of NIT

NEW YORK (AP) — A couple of fired - up, unseeded baseball teams, St. Bonaventure and Memphis State, took the play away from Seattle University's highly-touted Elgin Baylor in the National Invitation Tournament last night.

Baylor was a disappointment in his first New York appearance as the Bonnies drubbed Seattle 85-68 after Memphis State walloped Manhattan 85-73.

St. Bonaventure and Memphis State thus advanced to Thursday's semifinals where, by the luck of the draw, they will oppose each other.

The round of four will be completed tonight when second-seeded Bradley meets Xavier of Ohio in the first game at Madison Square Garden at 7:30 p.m., EST, followed by the Temple - Dayton clash.

Just as in their first round game Saturday against Cincinnati the Bonnies overcame an early 10-4 Seattle lead and poured it on to shattered Seattle's 18-game winning streak. Memphis State did the same against Manhattan.

Baylor, a 6-6 high school star in Washington, D. C. before he entered Seattle, was downcast in the dressing room. He had fouled out after scoring 23 points but his floor work and passing was poor.

"I was tired," he said. "I couldn't seem to catch my breath. I don't know what was the matter."

"Get it straight. We are making no excuses," chimed in Seattle's Coach John Castellani. "This is the first time all season that he's been off, but we were beaten by a better team. They put on a better show and deserved to win. Their zone press murdered us."

Eddie Donovan, Bonnie coach, was overwhelmed with congratulations.

"McCann was tremendous," he beamed, referring to 6-2 Brendan McCann. "I had McCann play in front of Baylor and he did a tremendous job. The other boys were great, too."

Moore Studies Canadian Offer

Archie Ready to Sign for Bout in Detroit; IBC Has Troubles

NEW YORK (AP) — Ole Archie Moore weighed a couple of Canadian offers for title defenses as the perplexed International Boxing Club sought legal advice today on whether they could dicker for championship fights.

The 40-year-old light heavyweight champion had been given a March 18 deadline by the NBA to sign for a June, title defense. So he came to town yesterday ready to sign papers with the IBC for a Detroit bout with the winner of the Tony Anthony-Chuck Spieser 12-rounder April 5.

Archie's timing was OK but President James D. Norris of the IBC wouldn't see him because of the club's legal troubles.

"I'm going to consult my lawyers Tuesday to get a legal opinion," said Norris, "on what I can do without flouting Judge Ryan's decision. The lawyers may take several days to make their decision.'

Judge Sylvester Ryan ruled March 8 that the IBC was guilty of monopolizing the promotion of world championship fights. He ordered both the government, which brought the anti-trust charges against the IBC, and the boxing club, to propose decrees within 30 days.

Point Race Close

Two Wings Lead in NHL

MONTREAL (AP) —Detroit teammates Gordie Howe and Ted Lindsay along with defending scoring champion, Jean Beliveau of Montreal, today were separated by only three points in the National Hockey League individual scoring race.

Howe, the goals leader with 42, has amassed 84 points to Lindsay's 82, on 28 goals and 54 assists. Beliveau is one point back in third. The Red Wings have three games left on the schedule and the Canadiens still have two to go.

The winner of the title receives $1,000 from the league and the runner-up nets $500.

League statistics released today showed Andy Bathgate cemented his fourth-place position by adding three assists to his lead. He now has 73 points. Chicago's Eddie Litzenberger is fifth with 62.

The battle for goaltending honors continues with neither Glen Hall of Detroit nor Montreal's Jacques Plante able to gain an appreciable lead. Hall has given up 151 goals while Plante has permitted 154.

The prized Vezina Trophy and $1,000 goes to the goalie who has played the most games for the team least scored on. The runner-up gets nothing.

Andrews Tries Ring Comeback

OAKLAND, Calif., (AP) — Al Andrews, claiming a back ailment now is completely okay, bids to return to ranking middleweight boxing lists tonight when he fights in a 10-rounder against Joey Giambra at the Oakland Auditorium.

"Nine months ago I had a chipped disc in my back — not caused by boxing — and it made me look bad in a TV fight," said Andrews who hails from Superior, Wis. "But the doctor dissolved the thing and now I'm in the best shape of my life.'

Giambra, rated sixth among the 160-pounders by the national boxing assn., recently moved from Buffalo, N.Y., to San Francisco. He beat Andrews last year in the process of winning seven straight. His last victim on Dec. 10 was Rocky Castellani in a San Francisco bout.

Grapefruit Activity Is Lighter

Hoak Looks Good With Redlegs

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Don Hoak, who played off and on at third base for two years with the Brooklyn Dodgers and for 121 games with the Chicago Cubs last year, seemed a good bet today to land the hot corner job this season with the Cincinnati Redlegs.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts has been using Alex Grammas, who also performs at third, at shortstop lately, and this could be half of the Cincinnati infield lineup on opening day.

Hoak, 29, batted in three runs yesterday as the Redlegs defeated the Boston Red Sox 7-6 in 10 innings at Sarasota, Fla. With the bases loaded in the 8th, Hoak singled to drive in two runs and tie the score at 5-5. Then in the 10th after Jerry Lynch's pinch hit triple and a walk to Johnny Temple, Hoak singles again. Another score came home on an infield out.

Exhibition activity was limited yesterday.

A three bagger in the 10th inning by Mike Baxes scored Johnny Groth and produced a 4-3 victory for the Kansas City Athletics over the Pittsburgh Pirates at West Palm Beach, Fla. Dale Long and Bill Virdon homered for the Pirates.

At Bradenton, Fla., Andy Pafko belted a three-run homer in the 8th inning, his second of the spring, to break a 3-all tie as the Milwaukee Braves took a 7-3 verdict from the St. Louis Cardinals. Stan Musial got his third exhibition homer for the Cardinals.

The New York Yankees continued to get fancy pitching, as Whitey Ford and Art Ditmar combined their mound talents to shut out the Philadelphia Phillies 5-0 on three hits. Ford allowed two singles, Ditmar one. Yankee hurlers haven't allowed a run in 24 straight innings. Woody Held hit a two-run homer for New York.

Kaline May Be Shifted

Providing young Jim Small continues his sensational spring hitting, Tighe will consider moving Kaline to center and putting Small, the 20-year-old bonus rookie, in right.

"Practically every major league club you can name has its best outfielder in center," said Tighe in discussing the possible move. "But we've had our best one — Kaline — in right. Up to now, it's been a matter of being satisfied with Bill Tuttle in center, but it's no secret that Kaline is our finest defensive man.

"Snider, Mays, Mantle, Piersall, Doby, Busby, Bell, Bruton — all of them are the best fielders on their respective teams — and they're all in centerfield," Tighe added.

The defensive pressure on Small would be lessened in right field, and he'd have Kaline patrolling the "big field" to lend assistance to both him and left fielder Charlie Maxwell.

Tighe said he doesn't think Kaline would have any trouble moving over to center.

Meeting Today on Trust Laws

Diamond Leaders Will Discuss Bill Planned for Baseball

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Faced with a Congressional drive to bring professional baseball under federal anti-trust laws, major league executives today were hastily mapping strategy to present to Commissioner Ford Frick at a monumental meeting Friday.

The conclave will take place at Ballairs, and it will mark the first time baseball bigwigs have taken official note of the pending congressional action.

"The purpose of the meeting is to compile data and information and determine policy in connection with bills now pending in Congress," Frick said in a brief statement. He declined to elaborate.

The conclave will be in strict secrecy and no announcement probably will be forthcoming, it was indicated.

Until the new bills were introduced, Frick and baseball in general took a hands off policy concerning the Supreme Court's ruling which placed professional football under anti-trust laws on Feb. 25.

Top Prizes in Bowlerama Guaranteed

By CHUCK ABAIR

One out of every 10 entries will finish in the prize money in the Pontiac Press Bowlerama scheduled for the 1st two weekends of April with the 1st place awards alone guaranteed to total $600.

The men's champion will receive $400 and the top woman kegler will pocket $200 in separate divisions. The next five finishers in each group are also guaranteed prizes.

All you have to do to finish in the money in this new type of singles handicap tournament is to rank among the top 10 per cent of the qualifiers at any of three qualifying establishments on the 1st weekend.

The leading 10 per cent at each of the qualifying places will be eligible to move on to the championship round the following weekend.

Qualifying will be held at Auburn Lanes, Land-O-Lakes and Dixie Recreation April 6-7 with the finals set for April 13 at Huron Bowl. Pontiac Press trophies will be awarded the high qualifiers at each place and the eventual champions.

Tournament manager Les Rothbarth has stressed that only the scores rolled in the final round will count towards the title. This means the champions will be determined by the top series bowled in the finals plus handicap.

Qualifying scores will only determine who can advance to the finals and will have no bearing on the winners, Rothbarth emphasized today.

Bowlers interested in shooting for the coveted honor of being the area and county's top kegler and taking home some fine prizes should take notice that the March 31 deadline is not too far away.

All entries with entry fees attached must be sent to Rothbarth in care of the Press Sports Department or left with alley proprietors by midnight on that date.

Tourney rules specify all contestants must be sanctioned with ABC or WIBC and residents of Oakland County.

Entry blanks are now available at every bowling establishment in the county and will be printed from time to time in the Press sports section. These printed copies may be clipped out and mailed or delivered to Rothbarth.

Chicago Team ABC Leader

Rolls 3,092 to Gain 1st; Detroit Kegler Tops All Events

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — The scores were growing bigger today as the American Bowling Congress tournament moved into the 11th day of its 51-day run.

Highlighting yesterday's action was the performance of a new open team division leader, the Peter Hand Reserve team of Chicago, which grabbed the top rung with a booming 3,126 team total. Last year's tournament in Rochester, N. Y., was won by Chicago Falstaffs with only 3,092. The Falstaffs have not yet made a team appearance here.

Two veterans from Cincinnati took the spotlight in the minor events by slamming into the doubles lead. Rudy Fassl and Sam Coleman, who between them have appeared in 3 3ABC tournaments, banged out a 1,309 total on games of 414, 437 and 485. They replaced Joe Root and John Skeris, Sheboygan, Wis., who fell to second with 1,303.

Dean Overholser of Chicago still leads the singles standings with 708. Johnny Crimmins of Detroit, second in the singles with 705, leads the all events standings with 1,922.

Briggs Stadium Tax Reduced by $13,000

DETROIT (AP) — The tax bill of Briggs Stadium, home of the Detroit Tigers, was reduced about $13,000 yesterday on grounds that it performs a city service in advertising and civic pride.

The Common Council of Detroit reduced the assessed valuation of the Detroit Baseball Co.'s stadium $299,010 from $1,967,040. The saving in city, school and county taxes will be about $13,000.

William G. Rogell, a former Tiger infielder who is a member of the council, urged that Olympia Stadium, home of the Detroit Red Wings hockey team, also should receive a deduction. The council deferred action on Olympia.

Nationals Eliminate Philadelphia, 91-80

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Syracuse Nationals hurdled their first opponent in the opening round of the Eastern Division playoffs in the National Basketball Assn., and the Minneapolis Lakers will attempt to eliminate the Pistons in a Western Division series tonight at Fort Wayne.

With Philadelphia Warrior ace Paul Arizin benched because of a thigh injury, the Nationals made it two straight in the best-of-three series last night a Syracuse, winning 91-80. Arizin, the league's top scorer, played only three minutes at the start.

Hank Goes to Lakeland

Red Sox Offer Million Dollars for Herb Score

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The Cleveland Indians still had pitcher Herb Score today, while the Boston Red Sox kept their million dollars and Hank Greenberg headed for Lakeland, Fla., to talk trade with the Detroit Tigers.

Greenberg, Cleveland general manager, and Joe Cronin, who is ditto for the Red Sox, casually talked in million dollar terms yesterday like two kids arguing that "I'll bet a million my pop can lick your pop."

"We had just a short talk, and it concerned the possibilities of a trade,' said Greenberg, when asked about Cronin's offer of one-million dollars for Score, Cleveland's 20-game winner.

"Cronin told me that what the Red Sox needed was a good, first line pitcher and that Score would probably be worth a million dollars to the Red Sox.

"Then I said to him, 'You mean you'd really give a million dollars for Score?'

"Cronin said he would."

The Cleveland official advised Cronin he was out to build up the Indians, and not tear it down.

Earlier in the season Ted Williams, the Red Sox thumper, was criticized for saying his club had done nothing to improve itself during the winter.

Observers pointed out that the million dollar discussion took both the Red Sox and Indians off the hook in that it demonstrated Boston was willing to spend to strengthen the team while Cleveland wasn't interested in money in an effort to stop the New York Yankees.

Cronin, whose Red Sox as well as the Indians are two main contenders against the Yankees, confirmed he had made the offer for Score.

Booth, Davis Eliminated From Inter-City Tourney

Davis wilted under Hamtramck's 2nd-half surge after leading at intermission, 25-24. Bob Mills tallied 16 points for the losers while Gerry Demsky topped Hamtramck with 15.

In other 1st round games last night at Lincoln Junior High, Ecorse thrashed Plymouth, 84-54, and Ypsilanti dumped Dearborn, 70-57.

Talbott's 'Hobby' Is Civic Projects

Head of Nation's C. of C. Will Strive for Economy

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

Department store executive Philip M. Talbott, newly elected President of the United States Chamber of Commerce, is probably the only man who ever became president of a golf club without once playing the game.

But the fact that he has yet to tee off for 18 holes — or even one — reflects his basic attitude toward his spare time. He prefers to donate it to community projects.

The 61-year-old native of Arlington, Va., is an inveterate joiner and currently holds membership in 28 organizations, including the Washington, D.C., Board of Trade.

He admits, however, that his new position, which he takes over April 30, is a good deal bigger than any other posts he has held.

The chamber claims an underlying membership of 2,500,000 businessmen and is considered a major spokesman for the business community.

IN ECONOMY BLOC

Talbott's own views put him firmly in the economy bloc when it comes to government expenditures. He recently called himself a "Harry Byrd Democrat from Virginia" — referring to the Senator who is generally at the head of congressional drives to cut appropriations.

Talbott added that the U.S. should start "right now to live within its income" and promised a major drive by the chamber to inform the public about the necessity for budget cuts.

In his personal life, Talbott has been a model of consistency. He has never moved from Arlington and he has never worked for any organization but Woodward and Lothrop department store in Washington.

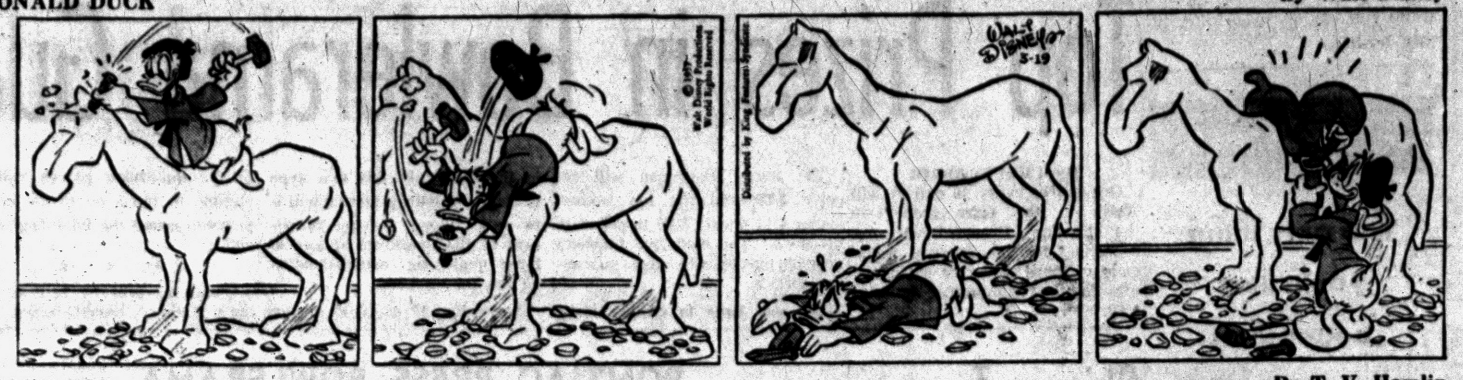

Talbott has worked there continuously since 1914, except for service with the Army in World War I. He is now senior vice president and director — and the first merchant to head the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Talbott is the son of an Arlington doctor who practiced for 65 years. Among the 2,000 babies he delivered was Delevan Redfield Thompson, now Mrs. Talbott.

They have a son, Philip Jr., who is connected with the Navy department, and a daughter, Jean.

World's Most Amazing
PILE REMEDY
If You Have Bleeding Piles

If you have tried all kinds of ointments, suppositories, injections, prescriptions, treatments, etc. with little or no relief, medical science has now developed a marvelous, simple, pleasant home treatment called RECTORAL. Usually in just a few days bleeding starts to disappear and usually in a few days more it is completely gone along with any accompanying irritation and soreness. Piles have begun to shrink. RECTORAL has been used successfully by thousands of former sufferers who have had no further trouble, even years afterward. Many had been advised only an operation could help them. Most drug stores now have RECTORAL. No prescription necessary.

Wheat Leads Grain Rallies

CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat futures and most other grains rallied in early Board of Trade dealings today, with wheat up more than a cent a bushel in some cases.

Traders believed a technical rally was long overdue, following the recent sharp downturns. A government forecast for the smallest crop acreage this year since World War I caused some buying in wheat, but got no particular response in other pits.

Corn started higher, but ran into selling which pushed prices downward somewhat. Oats and soybeans generally were fractionally higher.

Near the end of the first hour wheat was ½ to 1⅛ higher, March $2.24¼, corn ⅝ lower to ⅛ lower, March $1.29, oats unchanged to ½ higher, March 72¼, rye unchanged to 1¼ higher, March $1.31¼, soybeans ⅞ higher to ¼ lower, March $2.41½, and lard was 5 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $14.50.

The government report said that as of March 1 indicated wheat acreage would result in a crop of 800 million bushels, compared with production of about 997 million bushels last year.

11 Building Permits Issued by Waterford

Eleven building permits for homes in Waterford Township were issued last week, according to Emil Grischow, chief building inspector.

Home building totaled $113,370 and four garages will be built for $4,442. Remodeling and additions totaled $6,150.

"The real surge of spring building begins about the first of April," Grischow said. "So far building permits have been slow."

Deals Slowest in 5 Months

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market held within narrow price limits in the slowest trading in about five months early this afternoon.

A little buying flurry early soon faded and prices fell back. Going into the afternoon the market was mixed. Most price changes were limited to fractions with only a few exceptions.

Trading during the morning drifted along at a slower pace than yesterday, which was the dullest day since Oct. 23.

Kennecott led an early upturn in coppers, sparked by a report of record-breaking 1956 earnings, but a good part of this early gain was subsequently lost.

Oils also were mostly fractionally higher but aircrafts eased. Motors, steels and chemicals were mixed.

Special Meeting Called to Decide Fate of Old Inn

At the regular meeting of the Clarkston Zoning Board of Appeals last night, no action was taken on the controversial Caribou Inn.

Only three members of the board were present at the hearing, and president pro-tem R. T. Spohn called a special meeting for 7:30 p.m. Monday to settle the question of whether or not a gas station permit will be issued on the Caribou premises.

Absent from the meeting was Village Attorney Milton Clooney, and H. W. Huttenlocker, board members.

Caribou Inn owner Ernie Felice and his attorney A. J. Epker requested the special meeting, to conclude the deal which has been pending since late September.

Clarkston residents have objected to the removal of the century-old inn as a landmark, and also have registered opposition to a gas station, which they say would not fit in well with local architecture.

2 Bandits Rob Waterford Shop

Threaten to Kill Owner; Believe Men Surveyed Store Week Ago

Two men — believed to have surveyed the store a week ago — last night robbed the Cherri-Von Shop at 2489 Airport Rd., Waterford Township, upon a death threat to its owner.

Mrs. Josephine Hill, owner of the shop, told township police that the two men entered the store about 8 p.m. One was brandishing a revolver and carrying a partially-emptied bottle of beer, while the second was apparently unarmed, she said.

While the revolver-carrying bandit threatened to kill Mrs. Hill unless she handed over all the money, his companion stood outside the front door of the shop.

Mrs. Hill told police she turned over $41 in cash to the beer-drinking bandit. Both men then left the shop and fled on foot down Airport road, Mrs. Hill said.

Mrs. Hill told police the same men had entered her woman's apparel shop a week ago seeking directions.

General Taylor Hits Korean Arms Rule

TOKYO (AP) — Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, U.S. Army chief of staff, said today arms-freezing provisions of the Korean armistice have created a "condition of considerable disadvantage" to United Nations forces in Korea. But he saw little likelihood of immediate change.

Taylor arrived in Tokyo on the first leg of a three-week tour of U.S. bases in the Far East.

The Korean armistice forbids introduction of new weapons by either side. The Allies charge the Communists have illegally brought in modern arms while those of U.N. troops are becoming obsolete.

Minister Acts in Self-Defense

Pastor Gets Thief-Killer of Police

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind. (AP)—A fleeing bank robber killed a veteran state police officer at a roadblock yesterday and then died in a gun duel with the officer's friend, a Methodist minister.

Sgt. Marvin E. Walts, 49, a veteran of 19 years' state police service, was killed by a bullet that entered his forehead while William Hassett, 25, of Louisville, was dropped by two shotgun charges fired by the minister through the rear window of the trooper's car.

The Rev. Robert Gingery, 37, minister of Trinity Methodist Church in nearby New Albany, gave this account of the incident although he was in a near state of shock:

He and Walts were returning from looking at fishing sites in the area of Sellersburg, a community north of here, when state police radio broadcasted that the Sellersburg State Bank had been robbed of $1,655 by a gunman. Although it was his day off, Walts was directed to a roadblock four miles north of here and Gingery accompanied him.

Hassett, stopped by Walts, got out of his 1947 car and said: "I hope this thing won't take too long."

The trooper searched Hassett and found nothing significant but when he looked in the car, he spotted a brown leather jacket, a key item in the description of the bank robber.

"I've got a subject here that answers the description," Walts radioed his post. "Give me that description again."

Gingery said that Walts then returned to the bandit's car with the suspect.

"I could see Walts bending down as if looking under the front seat," said Gingery. "Then I saw the man jerking around in the seat as if he was after something. I could see them scuffling and I heard some shots. I didn't see Walts after the shooting but the other man got out of the car and ran around the other side.

"Then I saw him crossing the road toward me with a gun . . ."

Gingery said he then picked up the pump-action riot gun from the police car seat and leveled it out the side window.

"He saw it and ducked," Gingery said. "He ran around behind the car. It's a good thing he did. I tried the trigger, but nothing happened. Then I thought of the safety.

"I saw him through the rear window pointing at me. He fired a shot and a bullet whizzed past me. I pointed the gun at the window and pulled the trigger. Then I grabbed the thing (the pumping lever) and pulled the trigger again."

The charges caught Hassett in the side and midsection, killing him instantly.

"This is the Reverend Gingery," the minister radioed the police post. "Marvin has been shot. I have killed the bank robber. I'm sure Marvin is dead."

State police said all but $4 of the loot was recovered from under the front seat of Hassett's car and that two women tellers of the bank identified the yo asthe of the bank identified the young man as the gunman.

Benjamin Hassett, father of the gunman, broke into tears when contacted by newsmen at his Union City, Pa., home. The elder Hassett, a retired General Eelectric Co. employe, said that his son had been married but was separated from his wife, believed living in Buffalo, N.Y.

Until two weeks ago, the younger Hassett worked in the General Electric appliance plant at Louisville. His fellow employes and persons who lived with him in a rooming house said he was well liked and were incredulous when told of the incident.

Walts, married and the father of a teen-age son, would have been eligible for retirement in September.

When Commission Meets Tonight

City Improvement to Get Action

The Pontiac City Commission's attention will once again be focused on a rash of public improvement projects when it convenes for its weekly meeting tonight.

Fifteen of the 24 items on the slate concern public hearings at which citizens have the opportunity to air their opinions concerning proposed jobs.

There will be routine acceptance of special assessment rolls for the other projects, and the tabulation of bids for blacktopping, concrete resurfacing, and for sidewalk construction.

Commissioners will hear the first reading of an ordinance to rezone to Commercial 1 parts of lots 1, 2, and 128 in the Merrimac Subdivision.

RIGHT-OF WAY

Agreements for right-of-ways needed for improvements to the Pontiac Creek will be presented tonight.

A request for a entertainment permit in conjunction with a bar and package beer and wine license at 88 Bagley St., has a place on the slate.

Hearings will be conducted on the following projects:

Intention to construct five-foot concrete sidewalks on Court and Crescent drives and Carr street from Mt. Clemens to the south line of Pontiac Knolls Subdivision, Joslyn avenue extension from Perry street to the north line of the subdivision on the east side, and the south line of the Modern Housing Corp. addition on the west side, and the south side of West Kennett road from Dearborn to Stanley.

Intention to construct a sanitary sewer on the west side of Baldwin avenue from the south line of lot 578 of the Baldwin-Dixie Hills Subdivision to Merrimac street.

Intention to construct water mains in Golf drive from Canterbury drive to the east line of the Emmanuel Baptist Church property, Kennett road from Cloverlawn drive to Kennett School property, and in Mt. Clemens street from Emerson street to Bay street and in Bay street from the north line of lot 6 Lake Court Subdivision to the north line of Herrington Hills Subdivision.

Hearings will also be aired on special assessment rolls covering the following sidewalk projects:

On the north side of Spokane drive from the west line of lot 64 to the east line of lot 14 assessor's plat 109, east side of Sanford street from Osmun to the south line of lot 11 assessor's replat of Osmun Subdivision, south side of Newberry street from Waldo to the west line of lot 104 Recreation Park Subdivision, south side of Liberty street from Dwight to Murphy, north of Kennett road from Stanley to the west line of assessor's plat 144, and on both sides of Astor street from Auburn to East Pike.

Bermuda Offers Seclusion for Ike and Macmillan

TUCKERSTOWN, Bermuda (AP)—Bermuda today completed paint and polish preparation for playing host to history a second time in four years.

President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan arrive tomorrow to tackle the task of rebuilding the badly strained British-American partnership.

At the exclusive Midocean Club, where they will conduct their negotiations, a barbed wire fence slashes across the velvet green golf course, isolating the big clubhouse from curious sightseers.

Golfer Eisenhower won't be able to play an 18-hole round on the Midocean course. The wire barricade cuts off four holes, but he can shoot 14 holes and practice on the putting green just outside his suite.

The President is coming to Bermuda — instead of having urged Macmillan to visit Washington — in the hope his journey to British territory will be understood as a gesture of American good will toward better British-American relations.

British and American diplomats agree that the Eisenhower-Macmillan talks cannot achieve a range of agreements capable of creating complete harmony. That never has existed, however, as witness the long split over relations with Red China.

These experts hope for a better understanding of the reasons for such differences and an agreement not to let them block cooperation where it is possible, as in NATO.

West Germany Plans No Further U.S. Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — A business executive who made an on-the-spot survey said today West Germany can get along without further U. S. economic and military aid.

The views of William R. Hearst Jr. were contained in a report made public by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. The study was made as part of that group's inquiry into the operations of foreign assistance programs.

Hearst said West Germany intends to buy all its military equipment in the future. No economic assistance is being given West Germany now, and none is planned, he added.

Detroit Dispute Grows; Deliveries in Pontiac Reported Normal

A fourth major gasoline and fuel oil distributor in the Detroit area was hit today by the 20-day strike by members of Local 11-389 of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union.

As pickets blocked deliveries at the Sinclair refinery in Dearborn, Joseph Henson, international representative of the union, said other companies would be struck unless wage disputes are settled.

Normal deliveries were reported at Pontiac area branches of Sinclair, Pure Oil, Socony Mobil and Standard Oil Co.'s, whose major Detroit outlets have been struck by the union of terminal and pipeline workers.

Byron L. Cole, local Standard manager, said supplies were "dribbling" out of the yard at 95 W. Pike St. He said no more deliveries were coming from the Detroit yard.

Six Peronistas Escape Prison

Leaders Bribe Guards of Argentine 'Alcatraz'; Asylum in Chile

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—The escape of six top Peronistas from their Argentine prison to asylum in Chile has dealt a strong blow to the prestige of Provisional President Pedro Aramburu's regime.

Anger swept the capital as word spread that six lieutenants of deposed Juan D. Peron bribed their way out of supposedly escape-proof Rio Gallegos Prison, 1,200 miles south of Buenos Aires in bleak Patagonia, and effortlessly crossed the Chilean border 50 miles away.

In a belated show of action, the government arrested the prison staff for questioning and replaced them with frontier guards.

Diehard Peronistas openly derided the government. Anti-Peronistas expressed fear the dramatic escape might inspire a drive to restore Peron, now in Venezuelan exile.

Shaken government officials said the escapees bribed their way out with the help of the chief of the prison guard.

"Several million pesos changed hands for this thing," said one official.

4-H Calls Meeting on Youth Problems

A meeting of persons interested in juvenile problems has been called by the Oakland County 4-H Extension Service for Tuesday evening at the 4-H office.

On hand will be representatives of Juvenile Court, Pontiac Business Institute, Pontiac High School Agriculture Dept., Kiwanis Club, churches, Farm Bureau, County Board of Education and others with experience in Junior Achievement, Boy and Girl Scout and YMCA work.

The group intends to explore common problems in working with youth that have been uncovered in their respective organizations.

They hope to issue a summary of their finding in June and then work out recommendations for use by all groups.

Fashion Your Figure Club Will See Film

The Fashion Your Figure club will meet at 7 p.m. Wednesday at the Waterford Township high school, and the program will include a White Elephant sale and a film, on "Heart" and "Overweight."

Mrs. Harold Grace was awarded the trophy for losing the most weight for last week.

Firemen Needed by City to Fill Eight Vacancies

The personnel department of the city of Pontiac still has openings for eight firemen, Harold Marshall, personnel director, announced today.

Marshall said six have been accepted out of the 14 needed to fill increased openings in the Pontiac fire department, resulting from the construction of the city's fifth fire station.

He stressed that the 14 new men would not necessarily all be assigned to the new hall, soon to open at West Huron street and Genesee avenue.

Applicants must be between 21 and 28 years, a minimum height of 5'8" with weight in proportion to height, ability to pass physical examination similar to armed service physicals, and must have lived within Pontiac city limits for one year immediately prior to application.

Applicants should apply to Marshall's office on the second floor of the City Hall, 35 S. Parke St.

Actors Admire Newspapermen

Mercedes, George and Dane See Excitement in Journalistic Life

By CHARLES DENTON

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—The boys in the press room tossed a few onion bouquets at the "Wire Service" series when it first went to press, but the show's picture tube reporters still love them anyway.

In fact it would be hard to find any editors with as much regard for the inhabitants of the fourth estate as George Brent, Mercedes McCambridge and Dane Clark.

Mercy's esteem arises from a childhood yen to become a be-skirted news scribe, while Brent was an outstanding fixture of the reportorial social set of Denver back in the "good old days" when a newsman's ability was measured as much by his capacity with potent potions as by his talent at a typewriter.

Some of the silvery hairs that crown Brent's noggin today very probably started sprouting in those raucous times from the strain of starring at Denver's Elitch Gardens and trying to keep pace with such fancy steppers as Gene Fowler, H. Allen Smith and the rest of the town's devotees of the front page.

"Boy, what times we used to have," he recalled with a nostalgic smile. "I don't suppose it's that way any more in the newspaper business, is it? Do you still go the way they used to? Man, those guys took time to live!

16-DAY CELEBRATION

"Sometimes," Brent mused, "I wonder how I lived through some of those sessions. Why, there was one that lasted about 16 days . . . but that was a while back. I knew Fowler when he was getting $10 for a Sunday article."

He turned and glanced over a set he had just left after a long scene.

"This is no cinch either," he sighed. "It's the toughest show I ever ran into. You work all day and then go home and study for at least three hours to get up in your lines.

"You know, in this business it's not a question of when you're ready; it's when the lights are ready."

Mercedes was kept out of journalism school as a youngster by an acute lack of cash, a condition with which most newsmen are intimately familiar. But she still has a yearning for news chasing, as does her colleague Dane Clark.

"I've always thought it was so glamorous," she said admiringly. "I've known many newspapermen, and I must say that I've always found them fascinating."

Lorraine Manor Group Elects New Officers

At a recent meeting of the Lorraine Manor Civic Association in Waterford Township officers were elected for the coming year.

Harold Hackett will be the new president; George Priebe, vice president and Burton Strong, secretary. Robert Sislock was elected treasurer for the group.

Four new board members were also chosen. They are: James Stelt, Steve Napier, John Kienerl and Mrs. Robert Humphries.

FANS OF THE PRESS — Dane Clark, Mercedes McCambridge and George Brent, rotating stars of "Wire Service," are great admirers of the fourth estate. Therefore, the actors consider it especially thrilling to be portraying journalists on TV. Their hour-long filmed dramatic series is telecast Mondays at 7:30 p. m. over ABC.

Russian Government Is Object of Humor

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—The Russian people seem to be taking an increasing number of sly digs at their government lately. So I learn from their publications.

One tale new to me is about the famous clown Karandash (the Emmett Kelly of Russia) concluding his act by saying: "Today we are going to have a competition in the audience for the best political joke.

"First prize is 20 years."

Miss Malina, one of the best American citizens I know, dug up another one about the Russian Displaced Person who arrived here and was interviewed.

"How do you like Russia?" he was asked. "No complaint," he said.

Your subways are magnificent? . . . you have wonderful food? . . . You speak freely? . . . Your women are beautifully dressed?" To all these questions the Russian says, "No complaint."

"Then why the hell did you come to America?" he's asked, and he answers: "To complain!"

New Drug Tried on Young Patient

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Doctors watched a 5-month-old boy today to see if an experimental drug can relieve his breathing difficulty and save his life.

The new drug — pancreatic dornase — was flown here last night from a drug firm in Philadelphia for James Hunter, who underwent heart surgery a week ago.

Complications developed, and mucous and other secretions clogged the bronchial passage.

Doctors at Cardinal Glennon Memorial Hospital said it will be a day or so before the drug's effectiveness can be determined.

Current population of France is about 43 million.

2-Year Search Continues for Barbara Gaca's Slayer

By HARVEY ZUCKERBERG

Two years ago today, seven-year-old Barbara Gaca of Detroit was happily excited over the pretty new white dress she would wear at her first communion a week away.

She did not know that in a few days she would be dead. That her body, violated, strangled and punctured by a fiend's knife would lie in a West Bloomfield Township dump for more than a week before being discovered.

The pretty white dress was worn by the little girl in death. It covered bruises made on her fragile throat by a grown man's strong fingers. It covered wounds made by a knife that had been plunged 15 times into her back and chest.

The white dress covered signs of other atrocities committed on the child's body that still remain fresh in the minds of her loved ones.

What sort of person is responsible for such heinous acts?

MOST VICIOUS

"He is the most vicious and hard to find criminal in police work," according to Capt. Jack Warner, of the Michigan State Police Redford Post, in charge of the case.

"Sex crimes are among the most difficult cases for police departments to solve," said Warner. "We are dealing with a different breed of individual entirely. Murderers might some day feel remorseful and confess, or at least talk to someone. But the sex criminal is a lone wolf. He apparently talks to no one.

"As for the Barbara Gaca case, we are up against a blank wall. We have run down numerous tips and they have all given out so far. Of course, we are still working on it every day. We won't close the case until the person responsible for that little girl's death is apprehended."

WORK TOGETHER

Warner explained that the Detroit police department and the Oakland County Sheriff's office is working in conjunction with the state police in handling the case. Detectives Charles Leaf and Melvin Kaufman of the Pontiac Post were assigned to it from the start.

"People have not forgotten about this thing," said Leaf. "We still get tips from those living in cottages in the Proud Lake Recreation area near where the body was found. Someone will find an old knife or report a suspicious character to link with the death of the little girl. We check them all out.

"We check on all sex offenders that come to the department's attention, and have travelled all over the state to talk to suspects. We give a polygraph (lie detector) test to all those who can't account for their time on the date of Barbara Gaca's disappearance.

CHECK 750

"More than 750 suspects in this case have been checked on in the past year alone, and more than 200 of these were given the lie detector test."

But however discouraging the picture now, Leaf expressed hope in getting "their man." Leaf's optimism is based on a theory involving two "culprits," rather than one.

"A woman is covering up," said Leaf.

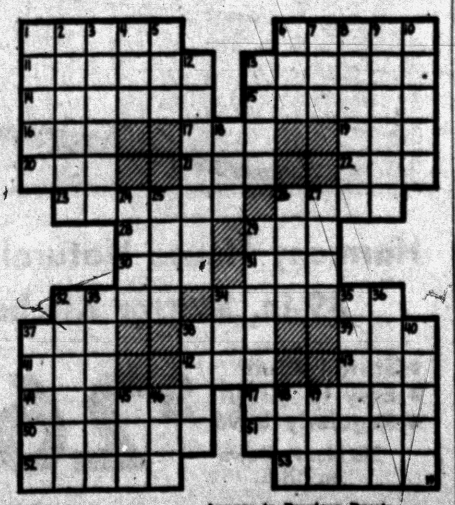

"Although our man is a lone wolf by nature, at least two people know of his hideous crime. It is almost impossible to live alone in our society. Our killer, whether he be an outwardly normal person or a retarded individual, has a wife, mother, or sweetheart who knows or suspects.

"This woman knows because of the man's action's on the day of Barbara's disappearance. She knows because of his army blanket, in which the girl's body was found, was missing since that awful day. Someone has fears about it, and one day we'll find out who."
