Orchard Lake and M24 Intersection Surveyed for Congestion

The traffic congestion which the State Highway Department says will be relieved by construction of the Telegraph Rd.-Orchard Lake Ave. grade separation, is shown by the volume of cars using the intersection in an 8-hour period.

A survey taken last Sept. 17 found 21,416 cars traveling through the intersection between 2 p.m. and 10 p.m.

Some 14,127 vehicles passed a point on Telegraph 200 feet south of the intersection. Of these, 5,196 turned south off Orchard Lake, while 5,529 came through the intersection moving south on Telegraph.

Some 7,602 passed the check point traveling north on Telegraph. Of these, 562 turned east on Orchard Lake and 722 west. The remaining 6,318 continued through the intersection north on Telegraph.

The planned four-lane relocation will run east of present Telegraph from James K Blvd. to Crestview St. passing under Orchard Lake.

Mother, Children Lose Belongings in Pontiac Fire

A 25-year-old mother and her three children lost all their clothing and other personal belongings shortly before noon when fire swept through their upper flat, causing an estimated $12,000 damage to the building.

Mrs. Betty Lou May of 189 N. Perry St. was working at Pontiac Motors Division when the fire broke. Her children, Ralph, 7, John, 5, and Nancy, 2, were being bathed by their grandmother, Mrs. Carry McCoy, 55, of the Perry street address when flames surrounded the living room.

Mrs. Herbert Kelly, 41, who lives in the lower flat said she was sleeping when she was awakened by the flames shooting up from a register.

The grandmother bundled Nancy in a towel and Mrs. Kelly rushed the other children out of the burning home. They are being cared for by neighbors.

Fire chief Max W. Wells said the fire was caused by an overheated coal furnace.

Guilty Plea Made by Pontiac Youth

His attorney, Arthur W. Kollin, during the session, Kollin contended that Horlick "is not a hoodlum and works seven days a week in a restaurant."

Advising the youth, McCallum said: "The rest of the people in society are more important than one person. In matters like this, we either try to correct the person or take him out of circulation. I want to find out in which direction you're going. Before I give my verdict and sentence you, I want to have an interview with you to determine that course."

McCallum also said he would not dismiss the matter of rumored threats against Mrs. Bennett's daughter. "I will attempt to trace down these threats and find out who is responsible."

Eight persons testified in the assault and battery trial. Bill Keeler, 18, of 63 Wigner St., said he was playing on a front lawn at 353 Oakland Ave., when he became involved in a fight, provoked by Bill Wilson, 16, of 53 Putnam St. He said Horlick joined the fight and "started to knee me in the head, scratch my face and kick me all over."

Two other boys with Horlick at the time confirmed that Horlick "kicked Keeler and kicked him."

Locomotive Company Strike Seen Ending

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (AP)—The American Locomotive Co. and the CIO United Steelworkers have set tentatively a 17-day-old strike involving 3,500 workers in three cities in upstate New York.

Local unions representing production and office employees at Dunkirk scheduled meetings tonight to consider ratifying the agreement, announced yesterday. There was no announcement of ratification meetings at Schenectady and Auburn, but the company said at Auburn that the plant there would open Monday.

Neither company nor union would disclose the terms of the agreement, pending local union meetings.

The strike followed a contract dispute. The union sought a pay boost of 5 cents hourly and pension and insurance benefits it said would amount to about 7 cents an hour.

Brownell Pleased by Matusow Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell doffed his hat yesterday to Federal Judge R. E. Thomson, of El Paso, Tex., who sentenced turnabout witness Harvey Matusow to three years for contempt of court.

At a news conference, Brownell was asked if he was "happy about Matusow."

In reply, the attorney general read excerpts from Judge Thomson's finding that Matusow has taken part in a "scheme" to put the Justice Department on trial and "generally discredit" the testimony of undercover agents.

Brownell said: "I am very pleased to have a judicial ruling that brings credit on the people in the Department of Justice who handled this matter."

Marine Corps to Retire White House Band Chief

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Marine Corps announced today that Lt. Col. William F. Santelmann, 53, conductor of the Marine Band, will retire May 1. He has had a part, for 32 years, in providing White House music.

Calvin Coolidge was president when Santelmann joined the band. His father led the Marine musicians then and the son took over in 1940, upon the retirement of Capt. Taylor Branson.

Teachers Unable to Raise Salaries Like Congress

By MARGARET LATROBE
Well, Congress finally got over being pigeon-toed with embarrassment and raised its own salaries. It has been obvious to everybody for a long time that our lawmakers deserved more pay, and if they didn't deserve it, something was amiss.

Now that a happier bank balance attaches to high political office, the competition for Washington addresses will be stiffer. And whatever contributes to attracting ability toward politics is a dandy idea. (No reflection, gentlemen—it is something you have said yourselves.)

The same reasoning applies to another group of public servants. Our teachers. By the nature of things, this group cannot vote themselves better salaries from some pot o' gold resource. They depend on us for their miserable wages. Local sources are responsible for paying teachers a wage scale which lies between wretched and inadequate the country over.

It is to the everlasting credit of the teaching profession that it has never placed a purely commercial aspect on its work. How could it, when conditions in elementary schools call for stringent economy at best, and require additional part time jobs at worst? When college professors, after a lifetime of experience, are paid about what a young engineer or advertising genius considers chicken feed?

Yet what do we require of our teacher? Nothing much except perfection, great wisdom, infinite patience and a high degree of training. And how do we rate the importance of their work?

Merely as the greatest profession of all.

We evasively refuse to add two and two, while demanding that our youngsters be taught that lesson well, by experts. We know that teaching aptitude is a treasure, not found in everyone. We understand that years of graduate work, years of experience, are not lightly won. It is obvious to us that, in our society, a man is entitled to fair pay for fair toil.

But what happens? We will not appropriate enough money, we continue to deny even living wages in far more cases than seems credible, we smile derisively at a group who keeps on plugging away at the most important jobs in existence. Teachers won't strike. They will manage. Let's take a vacation in Las Vegas where some shoddy comedian is drawing $30,000. A year? A month? Huh-uh. Thirty thousand smackers a week.

This column stated an opinion last June that "teachers aren't afraid to teach." Bless their hearts, I think they are afraid NOT to teach—whether they are paid decent money or not.

Defiant Margaret Has Hair Clipped

LONDON (U)—Defying the new European fashion style of longer hair, Princess Margaret has had a few more inches snipped off her chestnut locks.

After she returned from her Caribbean tour, she called her hairdresser, Rene, to Clarence House and instructed him to trim her bob.

The result is basically the same style except that it is cut closer to her neck.

The lens of the eye continues to grow in size throughout life.

FE 4-2525Hal Boyle Says:*Walking on All Fours Helps Back

NEW YORK (U)—An open letter to Dr. James A. Tobey, Newton, Conn.:

Dear Doc:
I just want to tell you how much my backache has improved since I took your hint to quit walking upright and start running around on all fours.

It has made such a change in my life you'd hardly recognize me as the same man.

For years my poor aching back had caused me intermittent trouble. But I could never track down the real reason for it.

Then, some weeks ago, I came across an article by you in "Today's Health," published by the American Medical Assn. You listed poor posture as among some 58 possible causes of backache.

I was this the answer to my problem? I decided to go about on all fours for a month to find out.

The month is over. I am happy to report that not only has my backache largely disappeared, but my sinus is cured. My vision has improved so much I have thrown away my glasses. My appetite is fine and I have lost 15 pounds. I feel like a tiger—except at work.

Since most of your readers probably lack the courage to try to remedy a backache by going around on all fours, I'd like to give you a case history of what happened to me—and the predicament I now find myself in.

First of all, I asked my wife if except possibly during that relatively brief time of youth when man is more or less lean, lithe and buoyant.

"For most of the rest of his life, this erect posture has made man prone to pains in the back and other ills which might not occur if he ran on all fours."

Was this the answer to my problem? I decided to go about on all fours for a month to find out.

The month is over. I am happy to report that not only has my backache largely disappeared, but my sinus is cured. My vision has improved so much I have thrown away my glasses. My appetite is fine and I have lost 15 pounds. I feel like a tiger—except at work.

Since most of your readers probably lack the courage to try to remedy a backache by going around on all fours, I'd like to give you a case history of what happened to me—and the predicament I now find myself in.

First of all, I asked my wife if she had any objections to my making so drastic a change in my everyday posture. She said she'd have to see how I looked. I promptly got down on all fours.

"Why you look much better that way," she said. "It hides your stomach."

The first few days I ran around on all fours only at home, or in my immediate neighborhood late at night. My back and arms hurt terribly, and everytime I tried to go faster than a dogtrot I fell on my face.

But as my muscles strengthened, my shape thinned down, and the callouses thickened on my palms and fingertips, I found I could gallop around the block without getting tired.

For some reason the dogs I met in these early nocturnal training ramblings resented my four-limbed posture. I had fights with a police dog, a dachshund, two fox terriers and a French poodle. Oddly enough, the poodle put up the best scrap. I had one devil of a time proving to him I was the better man.

For comfortable going about on all fours I find the best costume is loose-fitting slacks, a sweater, open shirt, tennis shoes for traction, and a cap—my hat kept falling off and showing my bald spot.

The first time I climbed into the bus on all fours to go to work I felt a mite self-conscious. I was afraid of being stared at. But after a startled first glance the other passengers made room for me to read my newspaper on the floor, and paid me no more heed. You have to do more than get down on all fours to attract attention in Manhattan.

The same thing is true at cocktail parties. My new posture actually has reduced my social drinking. For when I lope up on three limbs to my host, holding up my glass for a nip for the road, he looks down as if seeing me for the first time, and says, "Really, old fellow, don't you think you've had enough?"

My only trouble, Doc, is at the office. My boss says that for policy reasons he can't allow me to do my work on all fours, the only way I now feel comfortable. He says that if I don't work sitting up at my desk like everybody else, backache or no backache, I'll be fired.

But, Doc, those eight hours at a desk are sheer torture. Once you learn the carefree pleasure of going about on all fours you can never be happy again even in a semiupright position.

Once you get the habit of traveling on all fours you find it harder to give up than smoking. The other night, coming home on all fours as usual, I saw a golden full moon rise, and felt a sudden intoxicating desire to lift up my head and bay at it. Isn't that natural, Doc?

But what can I do about this doghouse I find myself in at the office? I'd like to quit my job, and I would, too—if I knew of any way I could earn a respectable living on all fours.

Second Twin Trails
First by 48 Days

DELAWARE, Ohio (U)—On Jan. 28 one twin was born to Mrs. Bernard Schnees, 35. Yesterday—48 days later—the other was born.

Dr. James Parker said the first infant, a girl delivered prematurely by Caesarian section, resulted from normal pregnancy within the uterus. The second, a boy, was from pregnancy outside the uterus, one of the less than 200 known cases, he said.

The first child, still at Jane M. Case Hospital, now weighs 5 pounds—12 ounces. The other, weighed 5 pounds 4 ounces at birth.

Sees Tax Cut Defeat Bringing Dem Victory

PORTLAND, Ore. (U)—Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler says the Senate's defeat earlier this week of a Democratic-sponsored income tax cut will swing the 1956 elections to the Democrats.

"Responsibility for its defeat lies squarely on the shoulders of President Eisenhower and I'm confident he's given us the issue for 1956," he said in an interview.

Justice Smith to Speak

ANN ARBOR (AP)—State Supreme Court Justice Talbot Smith, an Ann Arbor attorney, will speak at the annual honors day of the University of Michigan Law School, March 29. He will highlight ceremonies honoring outstanding law school seniors.

Bob Considine Says:

Yalta Rumors Will Continue to Cause Doubts

NEW YORK (INS)—The release of the Yalta papers gives one a new concept of the difficult times in which we live.

Children in the elementary grades tend to laugh when they learn that communications were so slow that we did not know the War of 1812 had ended until several months after quill had been put to parchment. Yet in this comparatively enlightened age it has taken 10 years (and five days, to be exact) to learn what happened at Yalta, in the Crimea, when Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin met there in the closing year of the great war.

Sen. McCarthy, and others, say that much of what took place there, or was said, was deleted by "150 censors" before the bulk of the transactions was abruptly made public Wednesday night—to prevent a massive leak by the New York Times.

So the Yalta legends which have taken root through the years will persist, and historians always may be in doubt as to the truth content of them. Such as the tale of Churchill, hitting the ceiling with a roar of rage after reading a draft of a final agreement that had been sent to him by the Americans. He demanded to know who had prepared it, and was told it was the handiwork of a brilliant young member of the U.S. delegation, one Alger Hiss.

Churchill's final volume in his memorable history of World War II recalls some forgotten facets of Yalta:

He says it was Roosevelt, not Stalin, who suggested the Crimea site. Churchill gave it the fancy code name "Argonaut," and even backed out some doggerel which he planned to read to F.D.R. but never did:

"No more let us utter or falter or patter."

From Malta to Yalta, and Yalta to Malta.

The Nazis had evacuated the place only 10 months earlier, leaving it largely wrecked and impoverished. But the Reds were eager to please.

When Churchill complained there was no lemon peel for the cocktails they brought him a lemon tree in a huge bucket . . . there were toasts galore at the social functions, including Churchill's to Stalin, at the Yusupov Palace.

"It is no exaggeration or compliment of a flimsy kind when I say that we regard Marshal Stalin's life as most precious to the hopes and hearts of all of us . . . I walk through this world with great courage and hope when I find myself in a relation of friendship and intimacy with this great man. . . ."

And pledges: "For its part, the Soviet Union expresses its readiness to conclude with the national government of China a pact of friendship and alliance between the U.S.S.R. and China in order to render assistance to China with its armed forces for the purpose of liberating China from the Japanese yoke."

Tragedy of a high order has hit the family of Carl Altenberg, a New York bus driver and ex-Marine. Driving home from work last month Altenberg stopped his car on a New York highway to go to the aid of a fellow motorist whose car had overturned. The driver of the wrecked car was unconscious. As Altenberg was carrying him off the highway a third car struck the wrecked car and flipped it over on the hurt man and the good samaritan.

Altenberg was killed, leaving a 27-year-old wife and seven children, ranging in age from nine years to six months. St. Raphael Church, East Meadow, Long Island, N. Y., was lost, too. Altenberg was one of those men who keep the candles glowing, figuratively and literally.

Rev. Paul Connolly at the above-mentioned church is trying to care for the destitute family of a veteran killed in an act of tender brotherhood.

In an all-out effort to keep alive Broadway's most remarkable stage production, "Glan-Carlo, Menotti's tense and wonderful opera, "The Saint of Blotchy Street," producer Chandler Cowles has arranged with cast and unions to show the great production four times a week, at Saturday and Sunday matinees.

It is opera that even I can understand, bold, hard, beautiful, knowing, inspiring. It's the best buy on B-way.

but wait till you try the ride!

HOTTEST BUICK IN HISTORY
No wonder you see so many '55 Buicks on the highway—they're rolling up higher sales than ever before in Buick history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three" in total national sales.

SURE, it's a bold beauty to look at and be seen in—that you know for certain.

Chances are you also know this '55 Buick is brimming with the highest V8 power in Buick history—and that only in Buick can you get the lightning-like response and high gas saving of Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

But you'll never believe, until you try it yourself, how supremely soft and steady this great automobile rides...

How big, gentle-action coil springs on each wheel, front and rear, bring a level buoyancy to the whole car...

How a full-length torque-tube and taut V-brace struts steady your ride like rails steady a streamliner...

How an ingenious front-end geometry and a massive X-member frame and wide Safety-Ride rims—in fact, a million dollars' worth of special ride engineering—smooth out bumps, control sway and swerve, check "heel-over" and roll.

So—what do you say?

Want to try the ride that's really serene, constantly level, gently cushioned against road roughness?

Want to go steady with just about the handsomest traveler on wheels, the most thrilling performer of the year, and the sweetest buy of the times?

We'll be happy to arrange a sampling. Can you make it this week?

See No Tidal Wave

Berries Invade Cherry Capital

Northwestern Michigan May Become Tops in Strawberry Output

TRAVERSE CITY (AP)—Reports at the annual Michigan State Horticultural Society spring meeting here indicated northwest Michigan may become a top strawberry-producing area.

The area long has been known as the nation's cherry capital. It produces about half of the state's cherry crop.

The spring meeting reports revealed, however, that Grand Traverse County listed more than 1,000 acres of strawberries. They disclosed the northwest strawberry acreage had grown from about 250 acres in 1950.

Census figures report some 10,000 acres of strawberries in the entire state.

Growers listed several reasons for the popularity rise of strawberries in the traditional cherry crop territory. They said the area's soil and climate produce good yields of high-quality fruit.

The crop also apparently answers the need of cherry-processing plants for an activity to lengthen the operating season and help trim costs.

A ready labor force for both crops also was noted. The report said the strawberry harvest normally is completed about a week before cherry harvest begins.

Finally, growers indicated a wariness of banking heavily on a single crop. They noted a sharp reduction in the cherry crop last year because of frost damage.

They also pondered future cherry prices in the light of a 9 per cent increase in bearing cherry trees in the last year.

Ceylon Likely Port for Finnish Tanker

HELSINKI, Finland (AP)—Owners of the Finnish tanker Aruba said today the vessel probably will call Saturday at Ceylon with its 13,000 tons of jet fuel consigned to Communist China.

They revised plans to send the ship to Red China after her crew, fearful of becoming involved in war action, refused to sail into "danger areas."

A spokesman for the Re-Bel Shipping Co., owners of the Aruba, refused to disclose the vessel's eventual destination. There has been speculation she might put into an Indonesian port to reload her cargo into other China-bound ships.

Burma is approximately the same size as Texas.

Father and Son Are Executed

Die in Kentucky 'Chair' for Lawyer's Murder in February 1952

EDDYVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A father and son died in the electric chair early today—one still insisting he was cheated by the law.

As Roy Tarrence, 49, entered the execution chamber at Eddyville Penitentiary, he asked the "Lord to bless and keep my wife. May God forgive you all. May God forgive me all," he said before the black hood was slipped over his face. He was pronounced dead at 12:13 a.m.

When Leonard, 26, appeared, he carried a Bible and a lengthy prepared statement, which claimed the public never heard both sides in the bludgeoning slaying of a Louisville attorney.

"There will be many a lost soul suffer in hell because of this sentence," he said.

While sitting in the death house nearly three years, the Tarrences went through every possible court, including the U.S. Supreme Court, trying to avoid the death sentence for killing Francis McCormack Feb. 28, 1952. He had represented Leonard's estranged wife in support proceedings.

Dental Students Slate Dance

By SUE GILBERT
ANN ARBOR — With a rather unimpressive play on words, the dental students have named their annual dance "Odonto Ball." The affair is to be this Saturday evening and Conrad Goode, Cherokee road, has served as chairman of the printing and invitations committee. He will be attending the dance with Sue Klein, of Detroit. His brother, Jason Goode will escort Deedie Goldstein, of Chicago. Both men are in Dental School and members of Alpha Omega dental fraternity.

New pledges of Sigma Nu who will be honored at their pledge formal Saturday evening are Brad Roman, of East Iroquois road and George Gougasian, also of East Iroquois road.

Alice Weber, of Kimball street is coming to Ann Arbor to be George's guest. Brad will escort Sherry Smith of Detroit. Carl Mapley of West Brooklyn avenue, has invited several friends to Ann Arbor for the Cooley House, East Quadra angle semi-formal dance. The party, which is to be Saturday evening, is an annual affair at the residence house.

Carl's date is Barbara Welch of Sanatorium road. He has also asked Hugh Parks, of Lowell street, a student at General Motors Institute in Flint, and Pat Brantley of Chicago avenue to come for the gala affair.

Carl is a busy man this semester. He was recently elected to House Council, the dormitory governing body, from his section. Carl is also working as a disc jockey for WCEN, the campus radio station, this semester.

With the theme of "Out of This World," the costumes at the Sigma Alpha Mu party Saturday night should be different to say the least.

Although the decorations for the affair are centered around a huge flying saucer, Henry Baylis, of Spence street, and his date for the evening, Arlene Kosoglad, of Detroit, plan to attend the party by more traditional means of locomotion.

Dwight Allen, of Walnut Lake road, was informed last week of his appointment as chairman of the committee on public relations for the Junior Interfraternity Council.

His job will entail dealing with publicity and public relations for the fraternity governing body.

Camp Fire Girls Have Annual Parley

Members of the Pontiac Council of Camp Fire Girls find many reasons to be grateful as they celebrate the 45th anniversary of their national organization.

They are grateful for the help which the Civitan Club has given them—grateful because they have a day camp of their own—and especially grateful because they now can look forward to a permanent resident camp.

Thursday night when the council held its annual meeting at First Presbyterian Church, the Civitan Club presented council President William McLean with a check for $1,000 to be used for this camp. Civitan President, Dr. Samuel Chafets, made the presentation.

George Wyman, retiring president of the Pontiac Council of Camp Fire Girls, explained how the council's day camp came about.

"In 1952 with only a hope and a prayer," he said, "we purchased a camp site for Camp Fire. With that as an incentive, and under the leadership of an unusual director, candy sales increased, (candy sales are the only source for camp funds).

"The girls are paying for this camp through their own efforts, and in three years," he said, "they have reduced the mortgage from $9,000 to $3,000."

In conclusion Mr. Wyman said, "Youth is the best investment a community can make . . . It pays the highest dividends."

Mrs. William Wright, past council president, introduced Laurentine Collins, Director of School, Community Relations for Detroit Public Schools and a member of the Detroit Council of Camp Fire Girls.

Sylvan Shores Club Plans Fashion Show

Sewing cancer pads was the main project when the Sylvan Shores Women's Club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Earl McHugh. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. W. O. Moll, Mrs. Clarence Failing, Mrs. Wilbur Brown and Mrs. Harold Boyer.

Plans were made for a money making project to take place during April. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Felix Ballard when a style show will be enjoyed by members. Fashions will be modeled from the Bloomfield Fashion Shop.

Mrs. Vanderlind Entertains Group

Fifteen members of MOMS of America Inc., Unit Two were entertained Tuesday at a luncheon held in the South Johnson avenue home of Mrs. E. K. Vanderlind. Mrs. Edgar Thomas of Center street will be hostess for the April 5 meeting.

The speaker praised volunteer workers of the Camp Fire group, saying, "No matter how skilled staff members are, unless there is a strong, eager, optimistic volunteer group, you cannot have a good agency."

the United States today—the children of your community."

Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls were presented in a pageant based on Camp Fire philosophies. Linda Morris was the narrator. Schools participating included LeBaron, St. Freds, Washington Junior High and Crofoot.

Willow Run Files Protest Against Stationing of Jets

WASHINGTON 68 — Willow Run Airport has protested proposed location of an Air Force jet fighter squadron there, and Rep. Meader (R-Mich.) has proposed that it be located instead at Wayne-Major Airport.

Robert E. Miller, Willow Run manager, wrote Meader that the 10th Air Force has expressed a desire to locate a 25-jet reserve squadron at the big commercial airport.

Miller protested against mingling airline and military traffic. Miller is president of the Airlines National Terminal Service Co., which operates Willow Run for regularly scheduled airlines under a lease from the University of Michigan, the owner.

Meader passed the protest on by letter and telephone and suggested Wayne-Major, 10 miles east of Willow Run, which already houses the jet-equipped Michigan Air National Guard. Willow Run is in Meader's district; Wayne-Major is not.

The congressman wrote Air Secretary Talbott:

"It would seem wiser to concentrate military operations at Wayne County Airport, where the Air National Guard already is based, than to attempt to mingle military jet operations with commercial operations at an extremely busy terminal."

Meader also advised Talbott there are only three scheduled air carrier operations a week at Wayne-Major and that cargo lines using the field operate mostly at night, when Air reserve craft could be expected to be idle.

Meader also called attention to what he described as a "tremendous boom" in residential building in the area surrounding Willow Run, and added: "I am assured there is no present contemplated residential development in the area of the Wayne-Major Airport."

Mayor Albert E. Cobo and the Wayne County Board of Supervisors have expressed a desire to get scheduled airlines to switch operations from Willow Run to Wayne-Major, 10 miles closer to Detroit, and rejected last December a proposal by the Navy that it take over Wayne-Major as a replacement for its Grosse Ile Naval Air Station. The supervisors suggested Willow Run instead for the Navy.

Miller wrote Meader that federal improvements to Wayne-Major have amounted to $2,629,000.

Adventists to Print Bibles in Russia

NEW YORK 68 — A Seventh-Day Adventist Church leader says his denomination has obtained permission to publish Bibles in Russia for the first time in 28 years.

H. L. Rudy, of Washington, D.C., vice president of the Adventists General Conference meeting here, said yesterday he learned recently of the Russian agreement to ease Bible-printing restrictions.

Rudy added that Adventists in the Soviet Union, now numbering about 100,000, also have received permission "to print religious literature."

AMBASSADOR ARRIVES.—An emperor penguin, the first to set foot in Washington, D. C., in many years, glances about the airport as he and six others landed recently. The birds were captured during a Navy Antarctic expedition and will make their home at the Washington Zoo. The penguin is apparently a photographer's touch. All the bird needs is a top-hat to give the appearance of a diplomat.

'Marvelous Adjunct'

'Falcon' Reports Met With Enthusiasm by Pontiac Area Nike Defense Chief

Reports of a brand new guided missile capable of streaking from under the wings of Air Force jets to knock out approaching enemy bombers have been met with enthusiasm by the commander of the area's Nike defense.

The new defense device, dubbed the Falcon, was revealed this week and works like the Nike in tracking a target through the sky. The Nike, however, is a ground-to-air missile.

"It would be a marvelous adjunct," Col. Walter C. Conway, of the Army's 28th Antiaircraft Artillery Unit, commented yesterday. "Nike and the Falcon would make a wonderful team," he said at his Selfridge Air Base headquarters.

Ike to Join Mamie at Gettysburg Farm

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower arranged to join his wife at Gettysburg, Pa., today for an overnight stay at their new home.

He scheduled his departure for about noon on the 85-mile drive. The First Lady and her mother Mrs. John S. Doud motored to the new country place yesterday afternoon and spent the night there. It was Mrs. Eisenhower's first venture outdoors since she came down with the flu early last week—and the first time she had slept in her new home.

Eisenhower plans to drive back to Washington tomorrow to attend the annual dinner of the White House News Photographers Assn.

quarters. "They serve entirely different purposes, of course. "The Nike is the ultimate, the last ditch weapon. This new missile will be used as a first line of defense, from what I understand."

The Air Force has said the Falcon will soon be supplied to fighter-interceptor jet units stationed in the Arctic and at other posts around the approaches to the North American continent.

Three Nike-launching bases are under construction in this area. One, almost finished, is just outside Utica. The other two, about 50 per cent complete, are near Auburn Heights and Franklin Village.

They are part of a rough circle of 14 sites surrounding the metropolitan Detroit area.

Both guided missiles "look" on a target (presumably hydrogen bomb-carrying enemy bombers) and are directed by electronic computers working with radar.

Air Force reports said the Falcon has a three to five mile effective killing range. The Nike is said to have a range of about 50 miles.

Seek More Probation Officers

Two Men Here Handle Big Load

Citizens' League Backs Corrections Department Personnel Request

According to National Probation and Parole Assn. standards there should have been 13 adult probation officers to handle the load carried by two men in Oakland County last year, the county Citizens League said today.

Chief Probation Officer Arthur P. McKenna and one assistant, supervised 401 probationers and conducted 401 pre-sentence investigations last year, the league stated.

The national group recommends there be one officer for each 50 probationers and another officer for every 120 court convictions each year to make investigations "required by law which assist the judges in passing sentence."

The league urges the State Legislature to approve a "request of the State Corrections Department for 25 additional probation officers of whom four would be assigned to Oakland County."

The group asks the county Board of Supervisors to "provide necessary office space, stenographic assistance and travel allowances" for the four workers.

If the state does not furnish enough funds, the league urges the supervisors to supply money to add the quartet.

Increase in use of probation is seen by the group "as a partial answer to the seemingly endless increase in the state prison population." There were 6,570 inmates when the Jackson State Prison riot occurred April 21, 1952 and the number is now over 6,600.

Unless a man is convicted of murder, armed robbery or treason, he may be given the chance to "be made a good citizen by being placed under the supervision of a probation officer while remaining in his own community."

Ten per cent of Oakland County probationers fail to make good during the supervision period, the league points out. Last year 58 per cent, or 233 of the 401 persons found guilty of felonies in Circuit Court here were placed on probation.

The national association recommends that use of probation be increased "from the statewide average of 50 per cent to about 75 per cent of convictions as needed probation services are provided by the courts."

If the three circuit judges had put 75 per cent instead of 58 per cent of convicted felons on probation last year "there should have been 14 probation officers" under the national figures.

"Even with the maximum increase in probation officers . . . to handle the present load properly, it would still cost only $250 a year to supervise a probationer against $1,000 a year in Jackson."

The league looks on addition of four officers in Oakland as a minimum requirement bringing the total to "six probation officers or less than half of what is called for by the" national organization.

NOT BAD — NOT BAD — Tarzan, one of the stars of the Detroit Zoo's famous chimpanzee show, tries the wheel of the new station wagon, recently furnished to the zoo by Pontiac Motor Division. One of his fellow performers, Julius, was too interested in getting acquainted with the new station wagon to pose for the picture. The chimpanzees and other small animals will be transferred in the new Pontiac between the Detroit Zoo's Royal Oak location and Belle Isle when the parks open for the spring season.

Dinah Shore and Joni James

They Warbled Their Way to Top

By DICK KLEINER
NEA Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK—It is very simple to become a rich, famous and beloved girl singer. Just follow these tested rules, as practiced by the richest, most famous and most beloved thrushes of the day:

1. Start out to be an actress, as Dinah Shore did.
2. Start out to be an artist, as Patti Page did.
3. Start out to be a dancer, as Joni James did.
4. Flip a coin, as Rosemary Clooney did.

And if these are too complicated, just keep singing, as they all did. For there is no simple path to stardom, and these girls—the top stars—all achieved fame in different ways.

Dinah Shore and Joni James, for example, are perfect contrasts. Miss James is celebrated as record's "Cinderella Girl," and not because of a glass slipper. It took her just one record, the smash hit, "Why Don't You Believe Me," to establish her as a big star.

But Dinah Shore didn't have it so easy. Her first record is now a collector's item. It featured Xavier Cugat and his band on a tune called "Thrill of a New Romance." In small print it said, "Vocal by Dinah Shore."

JONI JAMES—A thrush without a sound is nowhere at all.

She was just a scared kid then—too scared to do anything about correcting the misspelling of her name. She was scared for several years.

Dinah never particularly wanted to be a singer. As a starry-eyed teenager, she fixed her starry eyes on a career as an actress. In fact, at Hume-Fogg High School, in Nashville, she was the leading lady in the dramatic society. (Leading man, incidentally, was Delbert Mann, now a top television her dream. She lived it, step by step. She worked as a baby-sitter to pay the $1.50-a-week tuition for ballet classes at Chicago's Children's Civic Drama Group. Later, she worked in a bakery, icing cakes.

Still later she modeled—underthings. She's a dark-haired beauty, with a model's figure. A tiny model's figure, since Joni is barely five feet tall. All her earnings went for dancing lessons. She—like Dinah—sang for the fun of it, but there was never a thought of a singing career.

She had a brief fling as a dancer, on a Canadian tour, then was laid up by an appendicitis attack. While recuperating she sang. And—this is real life, too—somebody heard her, offered her a record contract, and her first record was the biggest hit of the year.

While their backgrounds differ, both Dinah Shore and Joni James have one thing in common. And this item is what makes them singing stars—their voices are distinctive. You can't mistake them. You can always tell Dinah's creamy voice and Joni's tear-spattered sound.

And, in the opinion of many top students of the field, it is impossible to achieve fame in pop singing unless you have a voice that is quickly recognizable.

There are many great singers

DINAH SHORE AND MELBA — It was a long road, but a record called "Yes, My Darling Daughter" helped on the way up.

Canon Represents Area in Contest

Arthur E. Canon, of 2141 Cass Lake Rd., will represent this area at the Toastmasters International district speech contest at Jackson in May.

Canon, a member of the Pontiac YMCA Toastmasters Club, won an area speech contest this week over representatives from clubs in Birmingham, Waterford, Pleasant Ridge and Royal Oak. Jim Beal, of the Birmingham club, was runner-up.

Reds Blamed in Bombing of Fascist Office in Italy

NAPLES, Italy (AP)—A bomb exploded today in the provincial headquarters of the Fascist Italian Social Movement. One office room was wrecked but there were no casualties.

A party spokesman blamed the attack on the Communists. Feelings between the two factions have been particularly high since a group of Fascist youths recently smashed a Communist headquarters in Rome.

City Minister Visits Jungles

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Savage of the First Baptist Church left Pontiac in January for a trip to South America to visit the families of their three children, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Broach (Helen Savage), Pueblo, Venezuela, the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Savage of Quito, Ecuador and the Rev. and Mrs. James Savage of Sao Paulo, Brazil.

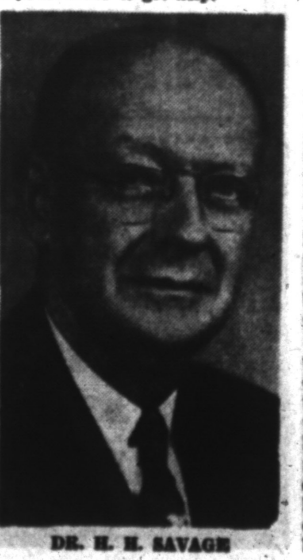

They also planned to stop at missions in Montevideo, Uruguay and Lima, and return to the United States late in April.

The trip was a gift from the church commemorating the 50 years that Dr. Savage has served as pastor. The following is a report from Dr. Savage on a trip into the jungle in Ecuador.

The jungles of the Amazon! How frightful! How intriguing! Several years ago a small, two passenger plane crashed within sight and hearing of the Shell-Mera Airport, and yet it took the uninjured man a week to get out, then he made it only because he met an Indian fisherman who guided him out.

Suchua is in the midst of the Jivaro (Heave-ab-row) Indians. We traversed the 70-mile distance in 47 minutes in a three passenger plane, in which Nate Saint of the Missionary Aviation Fellowship serves the missionaries of various Missionary Boards in some 12 to 15 stations. Nate Saint has his base at Shell-Mera, which is practically the end of ground transportation. At this point, the missionary broadcasting station of HCJB is building a hospital where a doctor is already stationed to serve the needs of at least 65,000 people, many of whom have to trek through the jungle for days in order to get help.

DR. H. H. SAVAGE

The doctor, M. E. Fuller, is a specialized anaesthetist and charges those who are able to pay 35 cents for a hospital call or $36 for a major operation.

Wanting to see the Jivaro in his native habitat, Mike Ficks, the missionary at Suchua, took us (our son Bob and myself) in his jeep along a trail that I would have had difficulty navigating on foot.

I have ridden bucking horses, been in bumpy airplanes, and been tossed about by the angry waves of the sea . . . but I have never had a ride like that one in this jeep making its way along a jungle path. Finally a big tree blocked the path and we had to continue on foot.

The jungle Indian does not live in any kind of settlement. His thatched shed is usually built on a high point of land, surrounded by the clearing of an acre or so where he raises his produce.

These clearings are some distance apart, and have no well defined trails connecting them, so that an enemy would have a hard time discovering them. They never live within sight of any kind of a road. These sheds may have walls of bamboo stalks, or they may have no walls whatsoever. Of course, there is no floor, so the babies are constantly rolling in the dirt that becomes a regular pig pen when it rains.

The food of the jungle Indian is very simple. The root of the yucca tastes very much like potato and is his main diet. He also grows plantains, a kind of banana that has to be cooked. Add some rice, some tomatoes, some bananas, a little meat occasionally and his diet is complete. He has somehow discovered his need of calcium, so grinds up every bone and every egg shell to be eaten too.

Missionaries are doing a marvelous work among these Indians. They have put their language into writing and have schools for those who are interested. These schools are teaching better ways of living, as well as teaching them the word of God.

One night while in the jungle, I woke up. The darkness was intense, only jungle sounds could be heard, and I foolishly began to think, "What if something should happen to that plane?" I should be ashamed of myself for saying it, but I almost became panicky there in the middle of the night. However, the little plane arrived at the scheduled time, and I have never seen anything that looked more welcome in all of my life.

To Probe Death of Millionaire

Police Hope Report of Autopsy on W. P. Inman Will Clear Up Mystery

GEORGETOWN, S. C. — Officials here to establish tonight what caused the death of Walker P. Inman, 60, millionaire half brother of tobacco baron Duke. He died at his home here six months ago.

Officials said his death certificate never was signed and the cause of death was not listed. Coroner John A. Brock, who ordered the autopsy, said the findings were not released. The body later was cremated.

Brock said although Inman was ill about three years his death was "sudden" and not explained satisfactorily.

South Carolina law does not require a death certificate to be signed before disposition of the body.

Inman was the son of Mrs. Nanette Holt Inman, of New York, who later married tobacco tycoon James B. Duke. He came to Georgetown during the early 1930s and bought Greenfield Plantation, about eight miles from here.

On Oct. 7, 1954, his will was probated in New York City. It listed his worth at more than two million dollars, half of which he left to his widow Mrs. Georgia Polin Hedding Inman, whom he married March 24, 1951.

He also left $100,000 to his mother, $150,000 to his employees and $100,000 to Miss Duke.

Inman was a director of the Duke Power Co. and was a trustee of the Duke endowment and Duke University at Durham, N.C.

Cecil the Camel Bitten by Bug of Springtime

MIAMI, Fla. — Spurred by the yak, destined by the buffalo, Cecil finds being a camel is a lonely business at Crandon Park Zoo.

He's letting zoo officials know he wants camel companionship by kicking up his heels, leering at the yak and buffalo in adjoining pens and blowing through his rubbery lips at Carol, a nine-foot giraffe nearby.

In short, it's spring and he's acting like a young camel in love. Park Director A. D. Barnes noticed all this and finally went to the County Commission about it. The commissioners told him that if the park had enough money, go ahead and buy Cecil a mate.

But the park officials don't know how much young female camels cost and they aren't sure they have enough money. They're checking up on it.

Meanwhile, Cecil continues his antics. He's the only camel at the zoo and he's been here two years. He will be 6 next month and for him, there could be no better birthday present than a camel.

MSC Grads Urged to Go Into Politics

LANSING — College graduates were urged to enter politics at the precinct level by the speaker at the winter term graduating class at Michigan State College last night.

Dr. James W. Miller, on leave from MSC to serve as a term as state controller, said the need for college graduates to enter politics.

"I won't try to deceive you," Miller said, "by saying that you will not have to make sacrifices by entering politics—particularly the brand I'm recommending, partisan politics."

"There are sacrifices of time, the exposing of your motives to those who will misrepresent them, and involvement in intra-inter party strife."

"Yet what is the alternate? Otherwise the honest, intelligent and patriotic citizen should abandon party to those who use it to promote narrow, selfish ends."

Security Council Studying Report on Gaza Fighting

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — Security Council members today studied a personal report by the U. N. Palestine trustee chief on the Feb. 28 Gaza battle in preparation for further debate on the Egyptian-Israeli fighting.

The 11-nation group recessed its formal discussion yesterday after Canadian Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, head of the truce supervision organization, made it plain that he held Israel responsible for the clash in which 38 Egyptians and 8 Israelis died.

But Burns' report also upheld an Israeli contention that continued Egyptian infiltration across the border is one of the main causes of tension in the Holy Land.

He said Egyptian authorities "should take appropriate measures" to stop such moves.

The council adjourned subject to call by its president, Selim Serper of Turkey. Its next meeting probably will be Tuesday or Wednesday.

No Experience Needed to Pilot 1-Man Helicopter

WASHINGTON — A veteran aircraft engineer said today he has developed a one-man helicopter which can be flown without any previous experience as a pilot.

Lewis C. McCarthy told a reporter the pilot merely stands on top of the machine, above the rotor blades, steers it with handle bars, and shifts his weight to make it go forward or backward. He estimated it could be produced for $1,200.

McCarthy said the machine made its first tethered-down flight last November, and since Jan. 22 has made 163 free flights.

He added that of nine persons who have flown the machine to date, four have had no pilot training of any kind, either in helicopters or airplanes.

McCarthy built the machine, called the DH4 Helicopter, for De Lackner Helicopters Inc., Mt. Vernon, N.Y., a concern which has been building precision parts for the armed services for 15 years.

McCarthy, assistant chief engineer in charge of new design at the Glenn L. Martin Co. of Baltimore, for nine years, said the Helicopter is powered by a two-cylinder engine. He said the completed machine would weigh 130 pounds.

Press Freedom Prevails

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (INS) — A typographical error had newsmen covering the Tennessee Legislature at Nashville in a tizzy. Until it was corrected by House action, the error would have made a measure call for special auto tax on newsmen instead of providing them with special auto tags.

9 Seeking Posts on City Council

Positions Depend Upon Approval of Charter by Electorate

KEEGO HARBOR — There will be opposition for every position on the ballot in the April 19 election if residents now circulating petitions stay in the race.

Voters will go to the polls that day to register their approval or disapproval of a charter for the new city, and elect a five-member city council, justice of the peace and constable.

If the charter fails to gain approval, no officials will be elected.

George Harris, Benjamin E. Covey and X. Joseph Nichols are the latest three residents to take out petitions for council posts.

They join Wilma Webb, Chester Wolfe, Samuel Whitmore, Russell Greig, John Loveland and John Sellman in the race for the five council seats.

Reinstate Educator in Bus-Gift Dispute

MILLINGTON — Discharged in a dispute over "gifts" to the Millington School from a bus company, Superintendent Stephen M. Glaza was reinstated last night.

The Board of Education voted the reversal of the firing at a midnight meeting after Glaza and board members admitted "irregularities" over swapping discount privileges for cash.

Clair L. Taylor, state superintendent of public instruction, had termed the gift plan "irregular" but not illegal. He said the Millington district had accepted cash instead of a customary 10 per cent discount from the purchase of school buses. It then reported the full price of the buses to the state.

School districts are reimbursed by the state for the purchase price of buses. Taylor said an audit will be made to determine the amount and money paid to Millington will be recovered by withholding it from other aid checks.

Russia Protests Curbs on Travel Imposed by U.S.

MOSCOW — Izvestia warned today that the Soviet government may tighten travel restrictions on Americans here in reprisal for recent limits put on movements of Russians in the United States.

The government newspaper said steps would be taken if the United States persisted in keeping Russians out of such diverse locales as Brooklyn and Moscow, Idaho.

Limiting the areas placed off limits to the Russians in the State Department ruling of last January, Izvestia declared:

"Nothing embarrasses official circles in the United States... They unconsciously demand that new restrictions on Soviet citizens in the United States be accompanied by the lifting of all restrictions on American citizens in the Soviet Union."

"If one should act on the strict principle of reciprocity," Izvestia said, "then these strict limitations on travel by Soviet citizens must be answered with the same measures in the U.S.S.R."

The State Department declared more than one-fourth of the United States out of bounds to Russian citizens in reprisal for similar long-time curbs against Americans in the Soviet Union.

Russia eased its strict 1948 travel restrictions slightly two years ago, but it still bans travel by U.S. citizens and other foreigners to about 30 per cent of the Soviet Union.

Number of families in the U. S. increased by 6,100,000 units during the 1940's, a gain of about 19 per cent.

Church at Drayton Sets Dedication, 2-Day Program

DRAYTON PLAINS — The Pontiac Congregation, North Unit, of Jehovah's Witnesses will dedicate its new Kingdom Hall during a special two-day program Saturday and Sunday.

Open house will be held from 2:30-6 p.m. Saturday, and a dedication service is scheduled for 3 p.m. Sunday, according to W. P. Strong, presiding minister of the congregation.

Featured speaker will be Hayden C. Covington, minister of Jehovah's Witnesses, of the New York headquarters of the Watchtower Society.

The new Kingdom Hall was built entirely by members of the congregation in eight months time. Over 100 members contributed their work.

Waterford Board Receives Elementary School Bids

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — The board of education last night received bids from five firms on one of four elementary schools to be built in 1955.

The basic bids on the yet-unnamed building to be erected at Crescent Lake and Hatchery Roads ranged from $238,000 to $286,700.

The building along with the other three, will be financed by the $1,100,000 building and site fund approved by voters last year.

The bids were accepted and referred by the school board to the architect for examination, study, and recommendation.

No date has been set for receiving bids on the other buildings, which will be built from the same basic plans.

In other action, $500,000 has been placed in a Detroit bank as a savings fund to draw interest. Another $500,000 had been in 90 day treasury notes, and the board authorized returning $400,000 to this, and keeping $100,000 for working funds.

The board approved calling $155,000 in bonds on the high school, possible by increased tax revenue from the growing township.

ADA Convention Opening Today

Greeting Notes Sent by Truman, Stevenson; Hear Reuther Tomorrow

WASHINGTON — Americans for Democratic Action opened its eighth annual convention today with messages of greetings from former President Truman and Adlai Stevenson urging continued political action in behalf of "liberal" policies.

The convention will last three days. Actual work starts tonight with commissions on foreign, domestic and political policy debating proposals for the organization's platform.

The ADA, formed in 1947, calls itself an "independent, anti-Communist, political organization" dedicated to making liberalism a more effective force.

Truman sent a message saying he was sorry he could not attend the convention. He wished the estimated 600 convention delegates success in their "political effort to protect our constitutional rights and preserve the natural resources of the country from attacks of special interests."

Stevenson, Democratic presidential candidate in 1952, said in a message:

"Responsibility and affirmative liberalism — liberalism that will cool men's heads while it stirs their hearts — is an essential element in a free democracy and a free world."

"Your members have played valuable roles in rallying Americans to protect and expand our heritage of freedom and opportunity. In urging constructive programs in the fields of foreign and defense policy, and in awakening the liberal community to the Communist threat."

CIO President Walter P. Reuther, a vice chairman of ADA, will keynote the convention tomorrow morning.

The Life of Christ—11

Jesus Drives Out Money Changers

"Turn stone into bread," commanded Satan. "Change water into wine." But it was pointed out yesterday that Christ never worked a miracle except as it was a sign or manifestation of His mission. Another point, also stressed in yesterday's installment of "The Life of Christ" was that Jesus came into the world destined to live, Christ to die!

By BISHOP FULTON J. SHEEN

In the second temptation, Satan took Him to the peak of the Temple in full view of the masses, and asked Him to be an exhibitionist, and to cast Himself down. It was an ersatz sacrifice and a false priesthood to which Satan summons Him, namely, a seeming death in which He would violate the laws of nature and reason.

Our Lord in one of the incidents of His early life, meets positively the second temptation of Satan by entering the Temple, and driving out the buyers and sellers. Gradually, the vendors of articles of sacrifice had pushed themselves closer to the Temple, choking the avenues that led to it until finally, some of them, particularly the sons of Annas, gained entrance to Solomon's porch, there selling doves and cattle and changing money. Every visitor to the feast was obliged to pay half a shekel to help defray the expenses of the Temple, and since no foreign money could be exchanged, the sons of Annas trafficked in the barter of coins.

There were men with great wicker cages filled with doves, while dealers brought into the Temple, as into the pens of a slaughter house, whole flocks of oxen and bulls and goats and sheep and lambs. The cries of the animals, mixing with the noise of the crowd, suffocated prayer and worship.

Centuries before it had been told of the Messiah: "The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up." Though Satan could not make the Saviour jump from the peak of the Temple, the Saviour now moves Himself to His high mission of purifying the Temple, by making war on mummeries and hypocrites and sham.

Satan brought Him to the top of the building, but He enters into the Temple. Satan always works on the outside for show, which is the basis of hypocrisy and pride; God always works on the inside, purifying the material that the wings of the spirit may be free.

Taking ropes from the necks of the cattle, He made cords which served as a scourge, with which He drove out the traitors with their sheep and their oxen. Then, with a majestic gesture, He overthrew the tables of the money changers; to the sellers of the gentle doves, He acted gently, saying: "Take these away, do not turn My Father's House into a place of barter."

With His eyes darting flames, and His face shining with Divine majesty, the trouble consciences of the polluters of the Temple, knew in their hearts that He was right. After some time they came back to Him, and asked: "What sign canst Thou show us as Thy warrant for doing this?" They did not reproach Him for what He did, but they asked Him for the title for arrogating to Himself such a power as He claimed when He said to them:

"My house shall be known among all nations for a house of prayer. Whereas you have made it into a den of thieves." Later on He would say that one cannot serve both God and Mammon. Here as in many other instances, He anticipates His words by divorcing the two. The very fact that He should call the Temple "My Father's House," was also an expression of His unique filial consciousness.

The answer of Our Lord was far beyond their comprehension, as He said to them: "Destroy this Temple, and in three days I will raise it up again." The Gospel immediately adds that "He spoke of the temple of His Body." These words of His would stick in their hearts, and they would repeat them at the trial: "We heard Him say, I will destroy this temple that is made by men's hands, and in three days I will build another, with no hand of man to help me." That is not what He said. Typical of all who pervert words of truth, they wrested it from its true meaning. He spoke of the Temple of His Body which was His humanity. They immediately asked: How could a temple that had taken forty-six years to be rebuilt, be destroyed in a day or two?

What He meant was that the true Temple is the place where God lives. The God-Head was living in His human nature. If, therefore, they would destroy this human nature of His, on the third day He would rise again from the dead, and be God's temple, where in He would be known and worshipped. The earthly temple ceases to be such, when it becomes the center of mercenary interests. He is the true shekinah or glory of the Temple. Though men would nail Him to a Cross, He would still be raised in the hearts and minds of men, and, therefore, would be truly a "Temple not made with hands." The True Temple is the Sacred Body of the Son of God made flesh, in which He is tabernacled amongst us.

The Gospel is quick to add: "When He had risen from the dead, His disciples remembered His saying this, and learned to believe in the Scriptures, and in the words Jesus had spoken." (To Be Continued)

New Ruling Cracks Down on Gopher Gravy Train

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP)—For several astute gopher hunters in Olmsted County, the gravy train has screeched to a stop.

Used to be you could rake in a nickel in one township by presenting the tail, go on to another community and collect with the feet. If you were really clever you might use tails that just resembled gopher tails.

New law says you must have all four feet for that nickel—tails won't get you a cent.

Big game animals found in Utah include deer, elk, mountain lions, antelope, bears, bobcats, lynx, coyotes, bighorn sheep and several others.

Chilean Army Has New Commander

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Chile has a new army commander, Gen. Raul Araya Stiglich. He succeeds Division Gen. Enrique Franco, who resigned.

Three of his subordinates also quit. Opposition newspapers speculated President Carlos Ibanez had forced them out in a move to discipline the military.

The changes were disclosed last night after a meeting of eight generals with Ibanez. A government statement said the four officers had resigned "of their own free will."

Unless you do so, you will be unable to collect the prize if you should send in a winning solution. Check the rules below for further details.

Bonanzagram No. 2

The spy was caught red-handed with state papers of a highly secret nature concealed inside a specially constructed belt. With the papers was a strange note, in some sort of code with missing letters. It indicated the existence of a spy ring. The FBI man who studied this note was able to reconstruct it and to arrest the jaunty and ingenious ring-leader that very evening. Can you, too, figure out the information by filling in the missing letters in the note?

'Wild West' Show Plan Under Way at Mikes; PHS Teams Start Drill

St. Patrick's Day called for the "wearing of the green" at all the high schools this week, diverting their attention from intramurals and club events for a short time.

Pontiac High

Things were humming as usual at Pontiac High this week, but plans of things to come were the big talk at school, Monday will find smiling and sobbing faces as report cards come out for the first time this semester.

Various male students this week and next were and will be quite busy as spring sports, golf, tennis, baseball and track practices start.

The school cafeteria was the scene of the annual Quill and Scroll banquet. Representing the Quiver, Tomahawk and print shop, 27 new members were welcomed. Also attending the function were members of the new Waterford chapter.

Hopeful young orators and dramatic interpreters will compete next week in the annual spring speech contest. Some 75 students will enter the four fields offered: declamation, original oratory and extemporaneous speaking, dramatic interpretations and humorous readings. Judges will select three from each field.

In line with spring speech affairs, Garth Johnston, sophomore, placed second in the American Legion Oratory zone district contest last Friday. Five district champions compete for honors, each giving 10-12 minute talks on the Constitution, along with extemporaneous speeches on one of the Articles.

Students are pointing with pride to PHS English instructor, Constance Poles, who was awarded a government grant scholarship to study in Finland next year.

Pontiac High will play host to District II Solo and Ensemble Festival tomorrow with an estimated 400 students, singing individually or in groups. Soloists and Senior Girls Ensemble will enter from PHS.

Clubs have been very active this week with Spring just around the corner. Retailers held a box social Thursday with a St. Patrick's Day theme at the home of Joan McLean.

After taking a rest from selling "froebites" at the district basketball games, Y-Teens initiated 19 new members. Future Teachers also welcomed three new members after a meeting at which Donald McCracken spoke on "Qualities Needed for Good Teachers."

Two fencing teams representing Pontiac and two teams representing Waterford will travel to Lapeer to compete in the high school team championship bouts tomorrow. Pontiac will be host to individual championship bouts next Saturday.

The annual Easter edition of the Epistola Scholae, PHS Latin paper, will have Carl Hefflicher and JoAnn Cargal as co-editors this year. It will be published March 28 and all proceeds will go to charity.

Gary Van Ryzin will work on cover art with Michael Gooding taking care of the publicity. Junior high editors are David Allen, Eastern Sharon Holland, Washington; Virginia Sheelan, Lincoln.

ST. MICHAEL

With graduation drawing near, senior class members are giving much thought to their careers. In keeping with the spirit of March, vocation month, Joseph Carry, S.H.L., U.S.N., spoke on the benefits of Navy careers for both men and women. A question and answer session followed his talk.

Intramural basketball found itself in top of the totem pole of events this week, as the "Sensational Seniors" meet the "Flying Freshmen", and the "Stomping Sophs" meet the "Jolting Juniors."

The winners of the two games will meet in a playoff tilt which will decide the school champs. From all observations, an afternoon of hilarity and good basketball is in store for all attending.

The Michaelite, St. Michael's school paper, hit the newstands this week, featuring articles on sportsmanship, school spirit and on the basketball fame brought to St. Michael's by winning the many championships that they won this year.

A free day was granted the Michaelites Friday in honor of their championship and St. Joseph's Day.

St. Patrick's Day brought peals of laughter to the senior classroom Thursday as the "wearing of the green" was carried out implicitly with senior colleages sporting everything from green nail polish to green hair.

Silides of Nazareth Convent and the life of a St. Joseph nun were shown to high school girls recently by Sister M. Chrysothem, thus encouraging a vocation in the service of God for graduates.

Twenty-nine junior and senior girls attended the Vocation Day at St. Benedict's in Highland Park. A panel discussion on the religious life was featured after which the girls attended Benediction and enjoyed a luncheon in the hall.

An article on St. Joseph by Pat Martin in the Michaelite was brought to a humorous close with: "When you some day meet St. Peter at the Golden Gate and he asks you how you got there, say 'Connections, man. St. Joseph pulled the strings.'"

ST. FREDERICK

Non-varsity seniors, under the coaching of Jerry Bradley and Jim Kraus, proved to be the best in the school last Wednesday when they downed the juniors in the final intramurals 26-25. "This sort of events the score from football," commented seniors as they sent the downhearted juniors off to the showers.

Monday everyone came to school wearing the traditional black and red. School sweaters seemed to be the fad of the day as everyone came sporting one to increase interest and excitement for the Senior vs High School game Monday night.

Here, too, the seniors proved unbeatable by beating their opponents 44-40. Capt. Jerry Bradley was high scorer for the seniors with 23 points, while Wally Quarles sunk 14 for the losers. Broad and bright were the smiles worn by seniors.

It was evident that Thursday was the day for the "wearing of the green," as students proudly paraded it through the halls and classrooms. "The top of the morning to ya," and "How are you feelin' this fine day?" were typical greetings heard from students in that fine Irish brogue.

Juniors have been busy all week selecting committees and getting things started for their "Serenade in Blue" to be given April 12.

Girls were caught oling and aching over the shoulders of second year drafting students this week, as the drafters put the finishing touches to floor plans for houses. The drafters' own ideas and imagination of what a house should look like along with the added modern facilities is the answer to any girl's dream. Drafters jokingly commented, "The plans can be purchased for a few thousand dollars."

Baseball plans got under way this week after a meeting of all those trying out for the team was held Wednesday in the hall. Even with light showers and muddy days, the halls remained free of dirt. New floor mats at the doors found students taking extra care and time wiping their feet before entering.

Competition and excitement was at a breaking point by today as the Patron-Sponsor Drive for the senior play drew near its close. Cash prizes and room parties will be awarded the winners sometime next week.

A tour of the Pontiac State Hospital for the first week in May was planned by the seniors this week with hopes that all who go with the class will return with them.

To Work on Atom Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has awarded a sixth contract in the program for development of an atomic-powered plane to Curtiss-Wright Corp. Five other firms have been working on the project for several years.

Nixon Says U.S. Ready to Use A-Arms in Pacific

CHICAGO (AP) — Vice President Nixon says the United States has atomic weapons in the Pacific and will use them if necessary.

"Tactical atomic explosives are now conventional and will be used against the military targets of any aggressive force," he said yesterday.

In Chicago for speeches at St. Patrick's Day programs, he also touched on the 1945 Yalta pact.

"I don't believe there actually was any deliberate attempt to sell us out to the Communists," he said in answer to a question after his speech to the Executives Club. He said there was no doubt that concessions given to the Russians in the pact were detrimental to the United States and the free world.

"The reason the concessions were made was that the leaders of the free world simply didn't know what the Communist animal was like," he said. "Another reason was that we badly needed Soviet support at the time for the conquest of Japan."

The fall of China to the Reds, he said, could be laid directly to the door of the pact, and "of course it naturally followed that we had a war in Korea and one in Indochina."

In posing the threat of atomic retaliation for any aggression in the Pacific, he said:

"It is foolish to talk about the possibility that the weapons which might be used in the event war breaks out in the Pacific would be limited to conventional explosives. Our forces could not fight an effective war in the Pacific with these types if they wanted to."

Asked by a newsmen if such weapons were now cached in the Pacific, ready for use, he replied: "Yes, they are cached in the Pacific."

Scientist Urges Ban on Atomic Testing

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A ban on testing of nuclear weapons by either Russia or the United States has been urged by Dr. Linus Pauling, Nobel Prize-winning chemist at the California Institute of Technology.

He said in a speech that continued dispersal of radioactive materials into the atmosphere is creating a critical situation.

Radioactive rain has fallen in Germany and Japan, he said, and may have started a new cycle of leukemia victims or new hereditary mutations.

The Atomic Energy Commission has maintained there is insufficient radioactive fallout to comprise a health hazard.

Troy 1st County 5 in Semifinals Since '50

By JACK SAYLOR

For the first time in 5 years, Oakland County is represented in the semi-finals of the state high school basketball championships at East Lansing.

Not since Rochester made the big trip in 1950 has a county quintet been able to break into the elite that bid for titles and added cage glory at East Lansing. Troy High's Colts, accompanied by several busloads of students and a caravan of Troy Township adults, will make a bid for the Class B finals Friday at 6:30 p.m. against an upset-happy Buchanan team.

When Rochester gained the semis 5 years ago, the Falcons were overpowered by Godwin Heights of Grand Rapids and Art Spoelstra, a 6-9 giant who went on to stardom with Western Kentucky and the pro Rochester Royals.

Troy faces no such obstacle as Spoelstra, but will encounter a team with well-balanced height and scoring power, sparked by an outstanding 6-3 pivotman, Jim Letcher.

Letcher tallied 25 points Wednesday night as Buchanan ended a 37-game winning streak for Lansing St. Mary, last year's state champs in Class C. Since all-star Ralph Coleman bagged 27 for St. Mary, Letcher's teammates obviously did their part of the job.

Earlier in the tourney, Buchanan, located in Berrien County near the southwestern tip of the state, had bumped off St. Joseph, an 8-time state champion and highly rated during the season.

Buchanan, coached by former Flint Central athlete Ray Steffen, has a 16-6 season record. A good rebounding team, it utilizes set offensive patterns in preference to a fast break and likely will play a man-to-man defense.

Letcher shoots equally well with either hand and often receives strong scoring aid from Larry Phoenix, a set shooting guard.

Floyd Bailey, Troy's defensive strongman all year, will probably draw the assignment of curbing Letcher, while Phoenix will be countered by Jim Murdoch, a set-shooter of considerable ability himself.

Jack Acton, who out-fought taller men to star in the 50-46 quarter-final victory over Flushing, also is counted on heavily by Colt coach Peyton Goodwin and as usual, the starting lineup will be rounded out by forward Rex Moore and sophomore guard Sim Acton.

Joining Letcher and Phoenix in the Buchanan lineup are forwards

Wayne Nichols and Dick Smith and guard Jim Conrad.

Playing in the other Class B semifinal at 5 p. m. on MSC's Jensen Fieldhouse floor are River Rouge and Negaunee. Class A semis follow "B" with Benton Harbor and Flint Central clashing at 8 p. m. and Jackson opposing Highland Park at 9:30.

Surprising St. Bernard of Detroit continues to amaze the fans who watched them in regional tourney play in Pontiac. The Ramblers struck down a strong Saginaw St. Peter & Paul team and gained a semifinal berth Friday opposite Wayland.

State titles go on the line Saturday with Class C and B games in an afternoon twin bill, and Class D and A at night.

Here is the semifinal lineup:

CLASS A—Flint Central vs Benton Harbor (Jensen, 8 p. m.); Jackson vs Highland Park (Jensen, 9:30).

CLASS B—River Rouge vs Negaunee (Jensen, 8); Troy vs Buchanan (Jensen, 9:30).

CLASS C—Holt vs Houghton (Boys Vocational, 7:30); St. Bernard vs Wayland (B.V., 9).

CLASS D—Mass vs Coldwater; St. Charles (Lansing Sexton, 7:30); Ashley vs Mt. Pleasant Sacred Heart (Sexton, 9).

Washington Leading Grapefruit League, but Dressen Points Nats for 1st Division

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

While some baseball clubs strive toward winning pennants, the Washington Senators would be content to wind up in the first division—which is what Manager Chuck Dressen is pointing for in 1955.

Not since 1946 has Washington finished among the top four clubs in the American League. The Nats were fourth that year. In 1950, '52 and '53 they were fifth. Since they won their last pennant in 1933, the Senators have been in the first division only five times.

Dressen, who led the Brooklyn Dodgers to two straight National League flags in 1952 and 1953, has his Nats riding atop the Grapefruit and Cactus League standings today with a 4-2 won-lost record.

"Our goal is to finish in the first division," Dressen said. "With luck we may even finish as high as third."

He thinks his club has a chance provided the "big guys don't get hurt." He meant first baseman Mickey Vernon, outfielder Jim Busby and third baseman Eddie Yost. He also regards pitching as the strongest part of his team.

One of the "big guys," Eddie Yost, homered to start the bottom half of the first inning yesterday and the Senators went on to defeat the Cincinnati Redlegs 6-4 for their fourth straight victory.

The Boston Red Sox broke a three-game losing streak by whipping the Milwaukee Braves 5-3. Billy Goodman collected three hits and batted in three runs.

The New York Yankees turned back the St. Louis Cardinals 7-4, getting three unearned runs in the eighth inning to snap a 4-4 tie.

The Kansas City Athletics received effective pitching from Art Ditmar and Marion Pricano and downed the Chicago White Sox 8-2. Bob Nieman of the Sox produced four hits.

Chico Fernandez's error on Gus Triandos' double-play grounder let in the winning run as the Baltimore Orioles nosed out the Brooklyn Dodgers 5-4 in 11 innings.

In another extra-inning game, the Chicago Cubs outlasted the Cleveland Indians 8-7 in 11 frames.

Boxing Interest Generally on Decrease in 23 States

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Interest in boxing generally has decreased in 23 states during the last five years, irrespective of televised bouts, a nationwide survey of The Associated Press disclosed today.

Without going into specific details, reports from 48 states and the District of Columbia seem to bear out the claim that widespread televising of fights has put a big majority of small fight clubs out of business.

Iowa is the only state where boxing is illegal by law, although Ohio and North Carolina permit bouts only under local option in some cities and counties. The usual bill to legalize the sport in Iowa is in the legislature again, but isn't expected to get out of committee.

The AP survey concerned boxing as a professional sport, and many areas which reported little interest modified this by observing that it did not include TV bouts or Golden Gloves and other amateur fist-cuffs. TV interest seems as strong as ever.

Seventeen states described boxing as "inactive." Eight said it was "very inactive," and four labeled it "dead." The sport was termed average in 16 states, and very active in four—Michigan, New York, Illinois and Florida.

The large cities, with some fight clubs getting financial support from television, appeared to spearhead interest in states where boxing shows are held more or less regularly.

These include Chicago, Detroit, Miami, New York, Philadelphia, Milwaukee, San Francisco, Boston, Los Angeles, Butte and Washington, D.C.

Lions Out to Obtain Malloy

Detroit Franchise Also Will Attempt to Get Dublinski Back

DETROIT (UP)—The Detroit Lions today prepared to take advantage of National Football League commissioner Bert Bell's declaration of war against Canadian football teams.

Shortly after Bell announced yesterday that he was recommending an order governing the signing of players under option or contract to Canadian clubs, the Lions said they would renew efforts to add University of Miami halfback Gordon Malloy to their 1955 roster.

Bell earlier had refused to validate Malloy's Detroit contract because the Miami gridders already had signed a pact with Montreal.

Lion general manager Nick Kerkbaw said he would submit Malloy's contract to Bell again and added he expected the commissioner to approve the pact.

Kerkbaw also declared the Lions would renew efforts to retain the services of veteran quarterback Tom Dublinski, who signed a contract with Toronto Wednesday.

Moore, Valdez Signed

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UP)—Archie Moore and Nino Valdez have agreed to box 15 rounds here May 2. Jack Kearns, promoter of the bout, said the winner would lay claim to heavyweight Rocky Marciano's crown on the ground that Rocky would not agree to meet them.

Yale's Hobson Asks Cage Coaches to Follow Pros

KANSAS CITY (UP)—College basketball coaches today deliberated on a challenge to follow "publicizing" pro rules in planning a 1956 playing code.

The challenge was hurled by coach Howard Hobson of Yale, who suggested that the colleges adopt a "package" deal of pro rules to make the college game more attractive. He spoke at the opening session of the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

With the college ranks concerned over scoring saturation from the bonus free throw, stalling and the advantages of extremely tall players, Hobson suggested pro rules be copied right down the line to correct these problems.

"The pros have a better game, aimed at pleasing the public," Hobson said. "Colleges also attempt to give the customers a satisfactory game, so why not follow the pros?"

The 300 coaches attending the three-day convention were to approve a formula for the rules-making national basketball committee to study at its session Sunday.

NFL's Bert Bell Declares 'War' on Canuck Loop

Commissioner Says U.S. Teams Free to Recruit Pro Gridders

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—Commissioner Bert Bell says National Football League teams "are free to act as they please" from now on in recruiting players from the Canadian leagues.

Bell made the statement late yesterday at a press conference in outlining recent developments in the attempts to bring about a truce in the talent-signing war between the NFL and the Canadian leagues.

"It's every man for himself," Bell said.

"I've gone as far with those fellows as I can," he declared.

He obviously was irritated by raids in the past 72 hours which saw Gil Mains and Tom Dublinski of the Detroit Lions and Don King of the Cleveland Browns sign with clubs in Canada.

The NFL commissioner said he heard yesterday about King being signed by Ottawa and added he telephoned the manager of the Ottawa team, P. P. McCaffrey, to tell him "Oh, Bert, he's only got an option."

"You know that's wrong," Bell said he told the Ottawa official. McCaffrey was quoted as saying he told Bell that Ottawa had to get some American players since the other Canadian teams were doing so, and Bell said he replied:

"Okay, I've gone as far as I can go with you fellows. From now on my teams are free to act as they please, except where legal agreements, such as that between Calgary and Washington, apply."

Following that, Bell telephoned Nick Kerkbaw of Detroit and told him he could have Gordon Malloy, a University of Miami halfback who was signed by the Montreal Alouettes. Bell had refused to approve a Detroit contract which Malloy signed afterward.

Now he said Detroit was free to get Malloy if they could.

Bell said it was obvious the Canadian league was unable to control its teams.

Stone of Ware Shoals, S.C.; Wiff Smith, long-hitting 1954 U.S. junior champion from La Canada, Calif., against Mrs. Gene O'Neill McAuliffe, Wellesley, Mass., and Mrs. Maurice Glick, tournament-tested Baltimore veteran, against Jane Thomas of Salisbury, N.C.

2 Weekends Left in PWBA Annual Pin Competition

One of the largest women's bowling tournaments in the state is nearing its final weekend of action. Only two more periods of bowling are left for the Pontiac Women's Bowling Association's 22nd annual contest, at the Colonial Lanes.

Full squads of five-man teams, doubles and singles will take to the drives Saturday and Sunday. Two squads of teams hold the spotlight Saturday, rolling at 7 and 9 p. m.

First teams on the lanes will be Gaytime No. 1 and Pursley Ambulance, respectively. Shelby Inn leads off Sunday at 7 p. m.

Doubles and singles will take over at 12 noon, 2 p. m., 4 p. m. Sunday. The 2 p. m. squad will be an almost solid Pontiac list.

Several changes have been made in the prepared programs.

Gaytime No. 1 replaces Tom's Market, Gaytime No. 1 takes the Seven Up place, and Sportsmen's Inn fills in for Hilltop, in the 7 p. m. list.

Shaffer Motors of Orion replaces Gidley Elect. in the 9 p. m. squad, while Tom's Market rolls on the Sunday squad.

Janice Dickman, Ruth Wilds roll at the top of the Sunday noon doubles, and Monica Burke, Geneva McKnight are in No. 2 spot on the same squad.

Coach Ken Loeffler's Explorers, who crushed Bradley 52-76 for their first NCAA title here last year, got into the final go-round again by beating West Virginia in the first round at New York, then taking Princeton and Canisius at Philadelphia. The Explorers, featuring All-America Tom Gola, have a 25-4 record.

Hysterical Finish

Argentine Five Upsets U. S., Near Pan-Am Title

MEXICO CITY (UP)—Argentina is a somewhat hysterical leader of the Pan-American Basketball Tournament today, victor over a U.S. team that was supposed to take the championship with comparative ease.

The Gauchos, led by that veteran of Olympic basketball, lean Oscar Furlong, beat the United States 54-53 last night amid scenes of confusion and ecstasy and now appear to have the Pan-American title in the bag.

It was a great game, one that had a crowd of 10,000 in pandemonium. Argentina led virtually all the way, once being ahead by 13 points, but the Americans closed in down the stretch and with 39 seconds left the score was tied 53-53.

Already the strain had been too much for at least one player, Edgar Parizita. The Argentinean was on the bench but he couldn't stand it when the officials ruled Furlong had fouled. He tried to charge onto the court but his mates restrained him and when he became hysterical carried him out.

Argentina had the ball and was working in toward the U.S. goal looking for an opening. Suddenly Roberto Viau cut for the basket and shot. Alva Wilfong of the United States went for the ball but bumped into Viau. The official ruled a foul.

Viau, visibly affected and showing the strain of so much being pinned to his shoulders, took his first free throw. It was short. He smiled at his teammates, however, and raised a hand of reassurance, then he plunked his second free throw squarely through the basket and Argentina won their greatest basketball victory.

Louisiana Pro Leads Golf Test

Buster Cupit Holds Single Stroke Lead in $5,000 Tourney

GULFPORT, Miss. (UP)—Buster Cupit, 29-year-old West Monroe, La., professional spent most of his early life around a golf course and the lessons he learned paid off today in a one-stroke lead in the $5,000 Gulf Coast Invitational Tournament.

The lightly-regarded Cupit, host professional at a West Monroe country club and son of a golf pro, shot a six-under-par 65 in yesterday's opening round for an early lead in the 72-hole tourney.

He sharpened his game for the tournament with a fifth-place finish in the recent Houston Open.

Cupit's lead was precarious as the field of more than 150 moved into today's second round. Professionals Johnny Morris of Mobile, Ala., Frank Steidle of Biloxi, Miss., and Buck White of Greenwood, Miss., posted 66s in the first round.

Tigers Lack Batting Punch, Despite Win Over Phillies

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — It took every break the Tigers could get plus a hairline decision by umpire Bill Summers in the 9th inning for Detroit to snap a three-game losing streak yesterday. Tigers defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-2, at Lakeland — but nobody was impressed.

The disputed decision came when Summers ruled Al Walline beat out a toss at home from Philadelphia's 3rd baseman Bob by Morgan for the winning run.

The Phillies yelled that Kaline didn't beat the throw and didn't even touch home plate. But that wasn't the way Summers saw it.

Kaline, who was out of the starting lineup with a sore arm, reached 1st on a fielder's choice after pinch-hitting for pitcher Dick Marlowe. He moved to 2nd on an error and went to 3rd when Reno Bertoia beat out an infield scratch.

Hits Missing, but Fielders Can Throw 'em

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — Although Detroit's power has failed to materialize at the plate there's plenty of evidence of brawn in the arms of the Tiger outfielders.

Yesterday's 3-2 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies served up a couple of examples.

In the 2nd inning Philadelphia's Larry Nova tried to make home from 1st on Wally Westlake's hard double against the right-centerfield fence. He found catcher Frank House ready and waiting on a relay peg from rightfielder Chick King.

In the 3th, Mel Clark was cut down on a perfect throw from centerfielder Bill Tuttle to John Baumgartner when he tried to make 3rd from 1st on Peanuts Lowry's single to center.

Then he scored when Jack Phillips bounced one to Morgan.

It was Detroit's 3rd victory in eight springtime exhibition games against big league competition. But the Tigers — still lacking a sustained batting attack — collected only six hits off Philadelphia while the Phillies got 10 off Detroit.

Philadelphia rookie Jim Owens held the Tigers scoreless for four innings. Detroit scored twice in the 6th off another rookie. Bob Greenwood, who replaced Owens, gave singles to Chuck King, subbing for Kaline, and outfielder Bill Tuttle. Then he walked the next two batters to force in the 1st Detroit run. The other score that inning came on a fly-ball.

Phillies scored once against rookie Bob Miller who pitched the 1st five innings for Detroit. The run came in the 3rd on a single by Luis Ortiz, an infield out and a one-bagger by Harry Lowrey.

Philadelphia tied the score, 2-2, in the 6th when Leo Cristante was on the mound. Stan Lopata singled, then came around when Jim Delensing let Larry Novak's single bounce away for an error.

Marlowe, who was credited with the win, took over for Detroit in the 8th inning.

Tigers were to play Philadelphia again today, this time at Clearwater.

Wings Win on Forfeit; Adams Hits Canucks

MONTREAL (AP)—General manager Jack Adams of the Detroit Red Wings said today that "in my 38 years of hockey I've never seen anything so disgraceful" as the Montreal hockey riot last night.

"Nowhere but in Montreal could there be such a demonstration as this against the league president," he added as he and his club boarded a train for home.

The Red Wings were awarded a forfeit victory over the Montreal Canadiens after the riot erupted.

Adams said Montreal officials were responsible for the disturbance.

"If they hadn't pampered Maurice Richard, built him up as a hero until he felt he was bigger than hockey itself, this wouldn't have happened," he said.

Adams said he long had advocated moving National Hockey League headquarters to an American city, "and this proves it should be done."

Before the game, NHL president Clarence Campbell said he opposed moving league headquarters to the states because hockey "is Canada's national game and I see no reason, to change it now."

Adams said there were suggestions that the game be finished after the crowd was cleared from the forum. But he said Dr. Donald Sheets, Red Wings physician, advised against playing in the midst of tear gas fumes which spread through the stadium.

Red Wings grabbed a 3-0 lead in the first 13 minutes, following a slow start. Red Kelly's screened 50-footer started the scoring at 5:05. It was Red's 14th score of the season.

Gordie Howe and Dutch Reibel then teamed for another tally at 11:00. Howe fed a pass straight down the ice to Reibel who had his back to the net. Dutch wheeled and lifted a 10-footer that took goalie Jacques Plante by surprise.

Red scored again at 12:58 with Johnny Wilson serving a penalty for tripping. Marty Pavelich fired a pass off the boards to Kelly and Red went the rest of the way untouched.

Canadiens' tally came at 15:18 with Cal Mackay getting the counter on a 20-footer after Ken Mosdell's pass.

Detroit's 4th goal was scored at 18:33. Reibel came up with the paying shot after a scramble for the puck in front of the goal.

Then things began to happen around Campbell's box and the game was halted. It was forfeited a short time later.

Michaels Becomes Scout

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Third baseman Cass Michaels will scout his home area of Detroit for the Chicago White Sox this season.

Sox general manager Frankie Lane made the announcement yesterday after disclosing that Michaels had applied for voluntary retirement.

Michaels collapsed at the end of a workout in spring camp two weeks ago.

Stokes Steals Show

Dayton, Duquesne Gain Finals in NIT Event

NEW YORK (AP)—It's Duquesne and Dayton, as expected, for the National Invitation Basketball Tournament title tomorrow night, but the fans will be coming back to see Maurice Stokes.

It was Stokes, "The Magnificent," who turned half of last night's semifinals into a Madison Square Garden thriller. All the guy did was take on Dayton virtually singlehanded for little St. Francis (Pa.), and he almost pulled it off. Dayton had to go into overtime to outlast Stokes and the Frankies 79-73.

Top-ranked Duquesne had a terrible night as far as finesse was concerned, but the Dukes didn't need any more than they had to dispose of Cincinnati 65-51. The nightmare isn't over for the fourth-seeded Dayton, with its 7-foot Bill Uhl and 6-9 Johnny Horan, and unranked St. Francis, with its 6-6 Stokes.

Stokes had Dayton on the ropes throughout, scoring 43 points and playing like a man and a half under the boards and on defense.

The Frankies, favorites of the fans off their short-lived stay in the NIT a year ago (they failed in the quarter-finals, then), jumped into a lead in the second half. They went into control tactics when Stokes collected his third personal and Jim McClellan, at 6-5½ the only other big man in the St. Francis lineup, picked up his fourth. That strategy of Coach William (Skip) Hughes began with 13 minutes left and the Frankies leading 56-48.

It should have worked. But despite excellent feeds by Stokes, the Frankies missed three layups and had to settle for a 67-67 tie as Dayton sub Carman Riazzi sank a set shot just before the final buzzer.

The overtime was all Dayton as Horan, who finished with 30, and Uhl, who got 20, wrapped it up. Duquesne took it easy against Cincinnati. The Bearcats had been

Claims Europe Oil Overpriced

U.N. Commission Says Middle East Product Is as Expensive as U.S.

GENEVA (AP)—A United Nations commission said yesterday that Western Europe is paying too high a price for Middle East oil. It blamed a combination of international oil companies, five of them American-owned.

The charges were contained in a controversial report, "The Price of Oil in Western Europe," drafted by the U.N. Economic Commission for Europe. The report had been bottled up for several months.

It was not officially released until the commission's coal committee demanded its publication. It said the world's eight largest oil companies have reached an "understanding" under which the price Europeans pay for crude oil from the Middle East is based on the price of crude oil produced in the United States. Europe is dependent on the Middle East for nearly all of its crude oil requirements.

Without this link to the price of U.S. oil, the report held, the price charged European countries for Middle East crude oil "could be significantly lowered."

Named in the reports were Standard Oil Co. (N.J.), Standard Oil Co. of California, Gulf Oil Corp., Socony-Vacuum Oil Co. and the Texas Co. Also British Petroleum Ltd., the Royal Dutch Shell group and the Compagnie Francaise des Petroles.

The report said oil can be produced much more cheaply in the Middle East than in the United States. Without flatly saying so, it suggested that the field price of Middle East oil is fixed in such a way that its delivered price at U.S. east coast ports will be the same as that of U.S. crude oil.

They were married here yesterday at the home of her mother, Princess Orsini. The ceremony was attended only by family members.

The new Mrs. Cooper, 48, formerly married to Thomas Shevlin, of New York, and to the late Robert McAdoo, son of the late California Sen. William Gibbs McAdoo.

Mills Brothers Tenor Faces Marriage Quiz

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Don Mills, lead tenor of the Mills Brothers singing group, has been ordered to answer a lawyer's questions as to whether he is legally married.

Superior Judge Orlando H. Rhodes instructed him to appear at the office of Atty. Seymour M. Lazar April 1 for the questioning. The lawyer said Mrs. Jean Phillips Mills, of Hollywood, plans to file either a divorce suit or a suit for payment of services rendered against Mills. In an affidavit filed with the court Mrs. Mills said she joined Mills in 1952 as housekeeper and social secretary and in 1953 entered into a "valid marriage relationship" with him. She said that since then Mills has left her.

Our Changing Similes Often Mention Women

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Time tears on—as is beautifully illustrated in the changing fashions in similes.

"He ate like he was going to the electric chair" or "he ate like the Russians were in the Bronx" have been Broadway and Hollywood sparklers for some years.

Lana Turner, Jane Russell, Marie McDonald, Rhonda Fleming and other sweater girls long ago inspired the classic:

"Modern girls are shaped like a chiffonier with its top drawer pulled out."

The trend is toward greater candor concerning the ladies. I heard a woman described as being "as mouthy as the Mississippi" while another lady was said to "have lips like rubies . . . Rubirosa's."

Mark Twain's "as comfortable as a toothache" seems mild now. So does Bob Davis' "as beautiful as a flower in a seed catalog" and Frank Ward O'Malley's claim that a certain guest was "as welcome as the coal bill in father's Christmas mail." All these I found in the late Frank J. Wilstach's "Dictionary of Similes," now 30 years old.

"Her mouth opened like a folding bed," "as dull as a Philadelphia Sunday," "as slow as a plumber going for his tools" and "as soft as a Government job" were some other oldies.

I know they're old—Philly's now very lively Sundays, Government employees work furiously, and plumbers are downright speedy.

Ring Lardner said that in high society he "attracted about as much attention as a dirty finger nail in the third grade." And Josh Billings said:

"Most men are like eggs—too full of themselves to hold anything else."

But back to today—Jimmy Cannon has encountered somebody who "had the personality of an old fried egg" and he mentioned an athlete who "let out a scream like the pull-out whistle on the Queen Mary."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Marilyn Monroe's "gone New York," and is apt. hunting. She helped Milton H. Greene's wife Amy give him a surprise party for his 33rd birthday. Her agents and her studio begin serious back-to-work negotiations any day.

Broadway favorites to win stake Tonies Mar. 27 include Mary Martin, Cyril Ritchard, Walter Slezak, Carol Haney, and Nancy Kelly, but nobody'll talk . . . The Emmy TV Awards signed up Hal Friedman to get NY to cooperate . . . At Lucky Pierre's: Grace Kelly and Bud Palmer.

G. David Schine's pix with purty gals'll no longer be taken at his pop's hotel . . . Scotty Scott, ABC-TV's weather gal, is sponsored by unfeminine items—cigars and shaving cream.

Phil Silvers' TV show starts Sept. 8. (He dated Monica Lewis at Le Marmion) . . . Farley Granger's been phoning Joanne Gilbert at the Waldorf.

"Silk Stockings," a smash hit, is still rehearsing . . . Gregory Peck took a Calif. house near his ex-wife's, to be near the kids . . . CBS wouldn't let Rob't. Q. Lewis bring an elephant onstage. (Probably wanted lighter entertainment).

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Dr. Randolph Ray offers a brief, nine-word bit of advice to the couples he marries: "Now, don't both get mad at the same time."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Herb Shriner tells of the girl wearing a dress made of newspaper: "She was always having trouble—someone'd keep trying to turn the page."

Hall 'Assumes' Ike Is Candidate

GOP Chairman Claims
Party Is Depending on More Southern Support

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Leonard W. Hall, Republican national chairman, told party followers here he "assumed" that President Eisenhower would run for re-election in 1956 but declared the road to political success was getting rougher.

"It is getting tougher every two years to elect Republican representatives in the fringe areas of the North," he said at a $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner attended by about 300 persons last night.

"We are going to look to Florida and other areas of the South to give us additional congressmen so we can give complete assurance to the people that Eisenhower's program will be enacted into law."

The dinner, billed as "nonsegregated," was attended by five Negroes, who sat by themselves at a table in the northeast corner of the Elcom Terrace Hotel's rooftop banquet hall.

Two prominent Republicans boycotted the dinner. Gray Brewer, county chairman, said he wasn't invited—"I wasn't overlooked; I was excluded." Wesley Garrison, state committeeman, stayed away because, he said, people who work for the party can't afford a $100-a-plate dinner in formal dress.

Earl E. T. Smith, of Palm Beach, state finance chairman, said Garrison was invited but Brewer was not because "this was a fund-raising affair, not a political rally."

Hall had no comment.

Hall attacked the Democratic party as being "left wing."

Ditches Name Ban
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Assemblyman William F. Marsh, ditched his bill to forbid use of the word bureau as a name by any agency or organization outside government. He said he had heard, among others, from the California Farm Bureau Federation and the Sacramento Better Business Bureau.

Backyard Owes Sunken Look to Old Brewery

JERSEY SHORE, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Frank Organta heard a rumble in the backyard. She looked out the window and saw a 15-foot-deep hole where her flower garden had been. Seeking an explanation, the Or-gantas learned from neighbors there had been a brewery on the property more than 100 years ago. The cave-in occurred in what apparently had been a beer storage vault covered with timbers and three feet of earth.

The two young Organta sons suggested:

"Let's cement it and fill it with water, then we'll have a swimming pool."

Stassen Unveils Asia Aid Plans

Ike Will Ask Congress for Over $2 Billion to Help Free Nations

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration today took the wraps off a new $2,140,500,000 Asian military and economic aid program for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Foreign Operations Administrator Harold Stassen, in announcing the program, said that barring war it could be the first step in lifting the economy of Free Asia by 30 per cent in the next eight years.

Stassen told a news conference the program has been approved by President Eisenhower who will ask authorization from Congress in a message in mid-April.

Stassen, who returned last week from a 30,000 mile tour, said the fund will be divided as follows: Military items and training, $675,500,000; direct support of armed forces of countries having security agreements with the United States, $350,000,000; all other programs, $915,000,000.

Stassen said he was not presenting an eight-year economic aid program as such. Congress indicated strongly last year that it expects foreign aid to come to an end.

Lady Docker Unblushing

By PHYLIS BATELLE
NEW YORK (INS) — The experts, from Dr. Norman Vincent Peale to Elsa Maxwell, will tell you that self-confidence is the key to success. And that is why Lady Docker of London and Cannes owns and operates a gold-plated limousine and a gold-bearded millionaire.

Lady Docker is not only confident, she is blatant. She is totally unblushing about her past ("Personality and charm enabled me to marry three wealthy men"); about her riches ("Love and riches go together; I adore being loved and I adore spending money"); about her age (frankly 48), and about her habits ("It just isn't true that I live on pink champagne. I infinitely prefer a thumping gin and tonic.")

Unlike most of us who were reared, alas, to take rear seats to the men—Lady D. perches at the wheel and directs traffic. She not only gets by with it, but the allegedly stodgy Brits appear to like it.

I first discovered Norah Docker two weeks ago when the news came in that she had won a marbles tournament knees down, by kneeling on a little velvet cushion and out-rolling her teen-aged competitors. Imbued with new faith in the athletic prowess of the middle-aged girl, I wrote a column about her—and I am still hearing the end of it.

England is still ye merrie, but not quite so old, now that the blonde Birmingham-born professional frank-talker came to prominence, it seems.

With wonder, amazement and delight the newspapers and magazines are giving her almost as much attention as they accord Princess Margaret and, for morale-boosting of women if nothing else, she thoroughly deserves it.

After all, she makes the acquisition and maintenance of millionaires look like a simple, practical matter. And that is stimulating to every red-blooded young wallflower. Is it not?

She acquired Sir Bernard Docker, for example, by making one tiny little decision. Attending a motor show five years ago with her mother, she observed a yacht, a large yacht requiring a crew of 32. "Goodness, what a lovely thing," she told her mother. "I wonder who she belongs to?"

"And when I discovered such a charming ship belong to such a charming man," she wrote in a magazine piece, "I just felt they both had to be mine."

Within a few months, they were. Sir Bernard has 23-million pounds behind him, so Lady Docker has considerable money to spend. She does it well. Most of it goes for clothes, which she loves, but she manages to have enough to buy nice Christmas goodies for her hubby. She once bought him three cows, and christened one with champagne.

Like the fabulous Lady Astor, another rather confident girl from the isles by way of Virginia, U.S.A., Lady Docker ducks no issues. In a newspaper interview, the questions and answers go like so:

Q—You are undeniably vivacious and charming. But would you like to be beautiful? A—I know one or two beautiful women—and they are dull.

Q—You have had more than one row in public. Why don't you have your squabbles in private? A—If one has a row, one has it where and when it is justified.

Q—Do you enjoy having a title in front of your name, or wouldn't you mind just being plain "Mrs.?" A—I should hate to be plain. I wouldn't mind being "Mrs."

Q—Most people admire you, even women. But do you think you could carry off the Docker personality on a charlady's pay? A—Anyone with the Docker personality wouldn't be a charlady for long.

Q—What, in a nutshell, do you think is the secret of your appeal? A—I am thoroughly natural all the time.

So there you are. Want to do big things? Like christening your very own cow with champagne? Get thee in front of your inferiority complexes, lady, and speak out!

Grains Sell Off; Losses Small

CHICAGO (U) — All grains sold off in moderately active dealings on the Board of Trade today but losses were not large in any pit.

At the start the old crop wheat futures displayed a little strength, aided by covering by previous shortsellers. With trading scheduled to end at the close next Tuesday, some of the shorts in the March contract were showing a little apprehension.

As dealings progressed May wheat slipped lower but March maintained its independent strength.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1½¢ lower to ¼¢ higher. March $2.21½; corn ¼¢ to ½¢ lower. March $1.43½; oats ¼¢ to 1½¢ lower. March 73½; rye ¼¢ to 1½¢ lower. March $1.05½; soybeans ½¢ to 2 cents lower. March $2.65½; and land unchanged to 3 cents a hundred pounds lower. March $2.02.

Fireman's Daughter, 5, Dies After Clothes Ignite

DETROIT (U) — The five-year-old daughter of a fireman, made a flaming torch by an alley rubbish burner, was burned fatally yesterday.

Carol Erment's heavy snowsuit became ignited while she was playing near the rubbish burner. She ran home screaming. Her father, Louis, tried to rip off the flaming clothing and smother the flames with small rugs.

But the girl, burned over half of her body, died four hours later at Receiving Hospital.

First U.S. Visit for European

Flight From Germany Brings Caterina Valente for Short Appearance

NEW YORK (AP)—She's flying nearly 14,000 miles for 10 minutes of song.

That's the traveling involved for Caterina Valente to appear on NBC's Comedy Hour telecast from Hollywood Sunday night.

The slender, girlish Spanish-Italian singer flew in this week from Germany, where she has just completed a feature movie. Right after Sunday's show, she's scheduled to catch a plane for New York on her way back to Germany, where she will go to work immediately on a new film.

Although it's her first trip to the United States, the 23-year-old European star already is well known to American radio and record fans for her hit recording of the familiar "Malaguena." On Sunday's show she will sing that number as well as "The Breeze and I," which she also has recorded and which, by strange coincidence is due for release Monday.

This should set a distance record for a song-plugging junket.

Brown-haired, brown-eyed Caterina reported during a stopover here that her American TV debut has a special sentimental significance to her. It comes 28 years after her mother, Maria began a starring engagement at New York's Palace Theater, then the Mecca of the entertainment world. Her mother still is billed as one of Europe's leading comedienne.

The Theater Guild's alternate week presentations on ABC are famed for their well-done dramas but this week there was an abrupt change of pace with "No Time for Sergeants." The whimsical, offbeat production, adapted from Mac Hyman's best-selling novel, was a hilarious hour, and was a refreshing relief from TV's protracted preoccupation with the morbid, seamy side of life.

Young Sex Slayer Gets Life Sentence

DEDHAM, Mass. (AP)—Slim, boyishly handsome Peter Makarewicz, 16, of Norwood, begins a life sentence in state prison today for the sex strangling of his school chum and neighbor Geraldine Annesse, 15.

A Norfolk County Superior Court jury deliberated almost three hours yesterday before convicting Makarewicz of the Nov. 4, 1954, slaying in a garage next to the girl's home. He was charged with first-degree murder.

Peter's attorney Louis Goldstein said: "I still believe he is innocent. I will review the record and see if there are grounds to take it to the Supreme Court of Massachusetts."

Peter calm and stoical during the 10-day trial in which he maintained his innocence, heard the verdict and slumped in his seat and began to cry. His parents rushed to his side. They were crying too.

Joseph Annesse, 63, father of the slain girl, who lived only a block from the Makarewicz home, commented grimly: "The verdict is okay. But I would feel better if he got death like my daughter."

U.S. Orchestra Plans Tour of Japan in May

TOKYO (AP)—The newspaper Mainichi today said the Symphony of the Air orchestra would tour Japan in May.

The newspaper will sponsor the tour of the American orchestra formerly conducted by Arturo Toscanini for the National Broadcasting Co.

Walter Hendl and Thor Johnson, conductor of the Cincinnati Symphony, will conduct the orchestra on its Japan tour.

FIND FOR MUSEUM—Did this stone ax-head ever scalp a paleface? Or could it be the ax that dashing Alley Oop, famous comic page caveman, lost to some rascally Lemians back in early December? The youngster puzzling over the question is Curtis Mix, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Mix of rural Bronson, Kan. The Indian theory is more likely, because the curio was found by Homer Mix in a field where arrowheads have been numerous. He donated the unusual find to the Fort Scott Historical Museum.

Father Let Out of Jail to See Dying Daughter.

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Seven-year-old Doris LeGardye's dying wish to see her father was fulfilled.

Responding to her appeal, Municipal Judge Leo G. Marcollo, of Richmond, suspended the remaining week of Corie C. LeGardye's 30-day jail sentence for drunkenness and sent him to the hospital. LeGardye, 32, a stevedore, reached Doris' bedside seven hours before she died of leukemia Wednesday night. Soon after he arrived, she had roused from a coma and recognized him.

Indian Reds Meeting

CARSON CITY, Nev. (U) — The State Senate passed and sent to the governor a bill outlawing sale or distribution of obscene or lurid crime comic books.

Should Have Worn His Feathers

McKay Joins in Powwow With Navajo Tribesmen

WASHINGTON (INS) — Four Navajo tribal leaders have had assurances from Interior Secretary Douglas McKay "that we can't always do everything you ask, but we can at least talk about it."

The Indians—Charley Yellowman, Howard Gorman, Grey Valentine and Sam Ahkeah—called informally at McKay's office to discuss a matter of great common interest, the Upper Colorado River project now pending in Congress. But the talk roamed far afield.

Another participant in the powwow was a former Air Force intelligence officer, Benjamin Cain, who told McKay how a handful of Navajos confounded Japanese military eavesdroppers in 1942 by communicating in their own difficult dialect.

"Technically," Cain explained, "it wasn't a code but the Japanese thought it was."

The ex-Air Force colonel, who said he was in charge of U.S. intelligence in the South Pacific in the early stages of the war, described the Navajos as "men of the greatest courage and absolutely selfless devotion to duty."

McKay replied that he became well aware of that fact during his tenure as governor of Oregon, and he added that he had always been impressed with the Navajos' "great ability to do things with their hands."

"Got a Navajo saddle blanket for my horse," said the secretary. "Can't wear it out."

McKay said the greatest problem in improving the economic state of the Navajos is education.

He added that there were 28,000 Navajo children when he took office in 1953 and "many of them had never seen the inside of a school."

The Cabinet member said that by this fall current plans call for all of them to be in school for the first time in history.

He declared: "We've got to treat Indians like people instead."

Manna From Heaven

ADEN (U) — The population of Al Hogariya, Yemen, filled a mosque with prayers of thanksgiving, after a fire burned all the books of the taxation department.

Nabbed for Painting Main Street Orange

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (U) — Four Muhlenberg College students drove through town early St. Patrick's Day pouring a stripe of orange paint down the middle of the main street.

Police caught them after the stripe was a block and a half long.

They gave their names as Lawrence Buck, North Wales, Pa.; Harold Salmon, Philadelphia; Graham Williams, Hawthorne, N.J.; and Richard Fuhrman, Kempton, Pa.

They were fined $10 for defacing city property, then set to work cleaning up the mess under supervision of Police Lt. Daniel McFadden.

St. Augustine, Fla., will be 400 years old in 1965.
